Making his second pro start, Brady Siravo (Sacramento, California) carded a bogey-free 64 Friday and is tied with Thomas Ponder (Dothan, Alabama) and Mason Williams (Bridgeport, West Virginia) after the second round of the Explore NB Open. The trio are 13-under and share a one-stroke lead over five players entering the weekend at Mactaquac Golf Course in Fredericton, New Brunswick.

Siravo closed his collegiate career at Pepperdine in June and finished No. 22 in the PGA TOUR University Class of 2026 to earn PGA TOUR Americas membership this summer. In four seasons at Pepperdine, Siravo won twice, including the 2024 West Coast Conference individual title, and was a three-time All-WCC First Team selection.

Joining Siravo in Saturday's final pairing will be Williams, who shot 6-under 65 on Friday. A third-year pro out of Georgia Southern, Williams has four top-20s and a pair of third-place finishes this season and entered the week No. 12 on the PGA TOUR Americas Points List.

Ponder followed his first-round 63 with a 5-under 66 to remain in a share for the lead. He leads the tour with five top-10 finishes and is currently No. 4 on the points list.

About PGA TOUR Americas

PGA TOUR Americas identifies and prepares the game's future stars as players compete to earn membership on the Korn Ferry Tour and eventually the PGA TOUR. The 2026 schedule consists of 15 events in nine countries, and the season culminates in October with the Dominican Republic Tour Championship presented by Scotiabank, where the top 10 players on the season-long points list earn Korn Ferry Tour membership the following season.

Since the inaugural PGA TOUR Americas season in 2024, Johnny Keefer (2024) and Michael Brennan (2025) have finished No. 1 on the PGA TOUR Americas points list, and both players earned their PGA TOUR cards for the 2026 season.
