Corey Pereira (Sacramento, California) and Riley Lewis (Prescott, Arizona) share the 36-hole lead at the Mexico Championship presented by Scotia Wealth Management. Suspended due to lightning late on Friday, the second round resumed at 7:30 a.m. Saturday, with Pereira bogeying the last to card a 3-under 68 and Lewis birdieing his last two holes to post a 4-under 67. The co-leaders sit at 11-under 131, two shots clear of PGA TOUR Americas points list No. 1 Patrick Flavin (Highwood, Illinois) and Mason Williams (Bridgeport, West Virginia). Flavin fired an 8-under 63 on Friday, while Williams posted a 64 on Saturday.

Pereira, a 31-year-old University of Washington alum, ranks 20th on the PGA TOUR Americas points list, with three top-25 finishes in four starts, including a season-best T10 at the 94 Abierto del Centro Zurich presentado por Personal in Córdoba, Argentina. Lewis, a 24-year-old Loyola Marymount University alum, is 15th on the points list, highlighted by four top-27 finishes that include a T8 at the season-opening ECP Brazil Open in Rio de Janeiro.

Bogey-free through 36 holes, Omar Morales (Puebla, Mexico) joins Brantley Scott (Dothan, Alabama) in a tie for fifth at 8-under 134. The former UCLA Bruin, No. 9 in last year's PGA TOUR University ranking, followed an opening-round 68 with a 66 on Friday afternoon. Scott, the opening round co-leader along with Pereira, finished bogey-bogey to post an even-par 71 on Saturday.

José de Jesús Rodríguez (Irapuato, Mexico) closed with a birdie at the par-3 No. 9 on Saturday to fire a course-record-tying 62. The 45-year-old veteran, better known as "El Camarón" (Shrimp), was 8-under through 16 holes Friday, including a 7-under 29 on the back nine. At 6-under 136, he will enter the final 36 holes in a tie for eighth.

The second round was completed at 9:26 a.m. Saturday, with the cut set at 1-under and 73 players advancing to the weekend.

The third round will begin at 10 a.m. local time, with players starting on Nos. 1 and 10 tees in threesomes. The final group will tee off at 12:12 p.m.

About PGA TOUR Americas

PGA TOUR Americas identifies and prepares the game's future stars as players compete to earn membership on the Korn Ferry Tour and eventually the PGA TOUR. The 2026 schedule consists of 15 events in nine countries, and the season culminates in October with the PGA Oceans 4 Tour Championship presented by Scotiabank, where the top 10 players on the season-long points list earn Korn Ferry Tour membership the following season.

Since the inaugural PGA TOUR Americas season in 2024, Johnny Keefer (2024) and Michael Brennan (2025) have finished No. 1 on the PGA TOUR Americas Points List, and both players earned their PGA TOUR cards for the 2026 season.
