He made all four cuts in the Korn Ferry Tour Finals, but the best finish was only a T-16th. With rounds of 67-73-67, he finished T-7th, three shots back of winner Rod Pamplung. That got him into the next event, the Ally Challenge, and he finished 3rd, two shots behind the winner Joe Durant. He did it again in his next event, finishing T-9th at the Ascension Charity Classic. At the Sanford International, he rang up his fourth consecutive top-ten with a T-7th finish, 4 shots back of the Clarke/Choi/Flesch playoff. There he got his first victory, with rounds of 68-63-68. He finished two shots ahead of Jim Furyk and Miguel Angel Jimenez. With his win, Alker jumped from 46th to 22nd in the Charles Schwab Cup standings to earn a spot in the 2021 Charles Schwab Cup Championship. After gaining the last place in the field with his win, Alker carded back-to-back birdies on the final two holes of the tournament to finish 2nd, a shot back of winner Phil Mickelson at the 2021 Charles Schwab Cup Championship. It was a stunning three months of golf as he finished in the top ten in nine of his ten starts. In that span, he went from a Monday Qualifier to a winner on the Champions Tour. As a comparison, Alker played in 86 PGA Tour events between 2003 and 2017. He won $841,849. In 304 Korn Ferry Tour events between 2001 and 2020, he won $1,4777,017. At the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai, he finished 2nd after losing to Miguel Angel Jimenez on the second playoff hole. He marked his 10th top-10 in 11 starts on PGA Tour Champions, going 1st-2nd-2nd in his last three starts. At his next start, the Chubb Classic had rounds of 71-65-71 to finish T-5th. He went on another streak after finishing T-20th at the Cologuard Classic and T-15th at the Hoag Classic. He captured his second win in his last seven starts at the Rapiscan Systems Classic, setting the 54-hole tournament scoring record (198) and margin of victory record (6). His second-round 62 was the lowest 18-hole score in tournament history. The following week he finished runner-up at the ClubCorp Classic after being the 36-hole leader and losing in a sudden-death playoff to Scott Parel. The next week he won for the third time at the Insuperity Invitational with rounds of 67-65-66 for a four-shot win over Steve Stricker and Brandt Jobe. At his first Champions Tour major, the Regions Tradition, he shot a final round 72 to finish T-3rd, seven shots back of the winner Steve Stricker. He notched top-3 finishes in four of the five senior majors in 2022. His pace slowed until he finished 2nd at the SAS Championship, six shots back of champion Fred Couples. At the Dominion Energy Charity Classic the next week, he birdied three of his last four holes to beat K.J. Choi by a shot. Returning to the Timber Tech Championship, the site of his first Champions win, he finished T-6th. He finished 3rd at 19 under par at the season-ending Charles Schwab Championships. He led or co-led after each of the first two rounds and went the first 65 holes of the 72-hole event without a bogey or worse. But Pdraig Harrington finished with rounds of 62-65 to claim the championship.

2023 Notes: Played in 20 PGA Tour Champions events with 12 top-ten finishes. Was 2nd on the Schwab money list with earnings of $2,607,089.

The year started sadly when Alker's caddie, Sam Workman, passed away on February 6th. The two had been a team since 2019, when Alker played on the Korn Ferry Tour. The two started the season finishing T-2nd at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai, six shots back of winner Steve Stricker. Soon after, Workman was diagnosed with terminal cancer, and a week after Alker found out, Workman died. Alker finished T-8th at the Chubb Classic and then 2nd at the Galleri Classic, four shots back of winner David Toms. That marked his 12th top-2 in his first 36 starts on PGA Tour Champions. In defense of his In-sperity Invitational title, Steven's son Ben debuted on Alker's bag, as several of Workman's family members and friends were on hand for the tournament. Alker didn't miss a beat as he defended his title with Ben on the bag, winning by four shots over Steve Stricker. Missed the cut at the PGA Championship. The next week at the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship, he finished T-5th at Fields Ranch East in Frisco, Texas, at 9-under 279, marking his fifth top-10 finish in his last seven PGA Tour Champions starts. Finished T-2nd at the American Family Insurance Championship, five shots back of the winner Steve Stricker. Next start was T-6th at the U.S. Senior Open, he closed with a bogey-free 65 to card the low round of the championship. Finished T-3rd at the Boeing Classic after scores of 69-66-71. It marked his 21st top-3 in his first 45 starts on the PGA Tour Champions. Finished T-5th at the PURE Insurance Championship and then runner-up at the Constellation Furyk & Friends. Next week, he was again 2nd at the SAS Championship. Alker ended his season by winning the Charles Schwab Cup Championship by a shot over Ernie Els and Stephen Ames.

It was his eighth win overall on PGA Tour Champions and his second consecutive victory after closing the 2023 season with a win at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Held at least a share of the lead after each round at Hualalai. His record at the event in three starts is 2nd-T2-1st. The New Zealander became the seventh player to win multiple Charles Schwab Cups and finished runner-up to Steve Stricker on the 2023 season-long race. Alker swept the 2024 season awards, earning the prestigious 2024 Jack Nicklaus Award as Player of the Year for the second time in three seasons, while also claiming the Arnold Palmer Award, given annually to the Tour's money leader, and the Byron Nelson Award, awarded to the player with the best scoring average on the Champions Tour. His stellar year also included capturing his second career Schwab Cup, a season-opening victory at the 2024 Mitsubishi Electric Championship, five runner-up finishes, and 16 top-10 finishes across 22 starts.

With a final round 66 found himself tied with Jason Caron and won the first hole of the playoff with a 12-foot birdie putt. Was T-5th at the Hoag Classic, T-3rd at The Galleri Classic, and 3rd at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic. Was 4th at the Regions Tradition, three shots back of the winner Angel Cabrera. Lost a playoff to Miguel Angel Jimenez at the Kaulig Companies Championship. Was 3rd at the Ally Challenge, PURE Insurance Championship, and SAS Championship. Won the Simmons Bank Championship by seven shots over Richard Green and Tag Ridings. Ended the season with a T-2nd finish at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, two shots back of the winner, Stewart Cink. His Canadian wife is a former flight attendant whom he met on a flight. He was a torchbearer for the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Winter Games and is a part-owner of several restaurants in Calgary, including the Vintage Chophouse & Tavern.

He has four PGA Tour wins, including the 2006 Players Championship and 2004 Cialis Western Open. Has amassed more than $19.7 million in career earnings. He surpassed the $2-million mark in season earnings four years in succession (2006 to 2009) but enjoyed his best year in 2004 when he earned $3,303,205 and was eighth on the money list, his highest finish. His best-known win was in 2006, when he closed with Sunday's low round, a 5-under-par 67, and cruised to a six-stroke win at The Players Championship for his second career victory. Broke through for his first win two years earlier at the 2004 Cialis Western Open at age 40. He won his 166th start on the PGA Tour, becoming the first player over 40 to capture an initial Tour win since Brad Bryant at the 1995 Walt Disney World.

Won twice in Europe and once on the Korn Ferry Tour. Member of the PGA Tour since 1997, he played on the European Tour from 1993 through 1997 and had three consecutive stints on the Korn Ferry Tour starting in 1990.

After attending Qualifying School several times without success, he got his card by finishing T-3rd at the 1997 PGA Tour Qualifying School final stage. His best years on the PGA Tour were between 2002 and 2009, when he earned over $1 million per year (except in 2005, when he earned $959,665). Player Notes: He began playing at age 5 with his grandmother. While he played multiple sports as a youth, his passion in high school was basketball. Though he was named all-state in basketball, he knew he was not tall enough to play in college, so he began focusing on golf. He won four collegiate events at Wake Forest University and led the Demon Deacons to the 1986 NCAA Championship. He was a three-time All-American and played on the victorious 1987 USA Walker Cup Team.

When he joined the PGA Tour in 1988, he improved every year until 1992, going from 134th place in the money race in his rookie year to 69th in 1989, 64th in 1990, and 14th in 1991. He broke through with his first win at the 1991 Kemper Open and picked up his second seven days later at the Buick Classic. It was over seven years before he won again, capturing the 1998 Canadian Open in a playoff against Bob Friend. He captured his fourth and final PGA Tour win at the 2000 Invensys Classic in Las Vegas. He had an 18-year streak between 1989 and 2006 in which he finished in the top-125 of the money list, including top-100 finishes in 16 of those 18 years. His last full year on the PGA Tour was 2009, when he finished 245th in the FedEx Cup playoff race and 242nd on the money list after making just two cuts in 17 starts. His career totals on the PGA Tour included playing in 634 events and making the cut 372 times. He was in the top ten 56 times, with four wins and eight 2nd-place finishes. He won a total of $12,494,805. After his final full year on the PGA Tour in 2009, he joined Golf Channel as a part-time on-course reporter.

2014 Notes: Turned 50 in January and joined the PGA Tour Champions, finishing T-46th in his PGA Tour Champions debut at the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton. He earned his first top-10 the following week, finishing T-8th at the ACE Group Classic. Finished second at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, just two shots behind winner Jeff Maggert. He had his second runner-up at the Shaw Charity Classic, losing a playoff to Fred Couples. He was 27th in the Schwab rankings.

2015 Notes: He and teammate Joe Durant used a blistering 9-under-par 45 on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf, and the pair had a three-stroke victory. It was the first victory for both players in the PGA Tour Champions. He also had top-10s at the U.S. Senior Open (T-5th), Mississippi Gulf Resort (T-7th), Constellation Senior Players (T-7th), and T-10th at the Principal Charity Classic. He won for the second time at the Boeing Classic and ended his year with a victory at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, defeating Bernhard Langer in a one-hole playoff. The win helped him finish 4th in both the money list and the Schwab rankings. He earned $1,533,919 for the season, his best career year on both the PGA Tour and PGA Tour Champions.

2016 Notes: Lost in a playoff to Esteban Toledo at the Allianz Championship. Two missed putts proved costly. He missed a 4-footer at the 54th hole, which would have given him the win, and then saw his 6-foot par putt lip out on the third playoff hole. He finished third with teammate Joe Durant in defense of their title at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. The pair was among the leaders in the final round before a critical bogey at No. 14 proved costly. He was T-5th at the Insuperity Invitational after a closing-round 66, which included a double-bogey at No. 17 and nine birdies. Also, T-5th at the Senior PGA Championship. The following week, he finished T-2nd at the Principal Charity Classic, one back of Scott McCarron, who birdied his final three holes. They also had a T-4th at the American Family Insurance Championship and a T-9th at the Senior Open Championship. His last top-10 was a T-3rd at the Toshiba Classic. For the year was 11th on the money list and 18th in the Schwab rankings.

In the events played in 2020, his best finish was T-24th at the Morocco Champions. In 2021, he found his game at the Regions Tradition, shooting rounds of 69-67 over the weekend to finish T-10th. His next week at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, he was a shot out of the lead going into the final round but shot 72 to finish T-5th, four shots back of the winner Dicky Pride. After a 3-over 75 start to his sixth Dominion Energy Charity Classic, he rallied with back-to-back 5-under 67s to finish 10th at 7-under 209.

Along with Brad Faxon, he runs Billy Andrade/Brad Faxon Charities for Children, Inc., which has raised more than $30 million for children in Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts, largely through the CVS Caremark Charity Classic, which the duo co-hosts at the Rhode Island Country Club each summer. Also won the 1999 CVS Charity Classic with Jeff Sluman Player Notes: Appleby was born in Cohuna, Victoria, and grew up on a nearby dairy farm. After completing his farm chores, he began golfing by hitting balls from paddock to paddock. As a youth, he played Australian rules football.

Appleby turned professional in 1992 and began his career on the PGA Tour of Australasia. In 1995, he won twice on the Korn Ferry Tour. He won the 1995 Monterrey Open, becoming the eighth player in Korn Ferry Tour history to win his first start. He qualified to compete on the PGA Tour the following year by finishing the season fifth on the money list.

In Appleby's career, he played 52 Korn Ferry Tour events, making 29 cuts with eight top-ten finishes. He played the tour full-time in 1995 and again in 2018, where he won $12,001 in 12 events and was 196th on the money list.

Appleby has won nine times on the PGA Tour. He was a member of the International Team in the Presidents Cup five times in 1998, 2000, 2003, '05 & '07, with a 4-14-1 record. He was ranked in the top 10 of the Official World Golf Ranking in 2004, rising as high as 8th after finishing 2nd at the Arnold Palmer Invitational. His best performance in a major championship came in 2002 when he lost in a four-way playoff to Ernie Els at The British Open. He played in 55 majors, making 34 cuts with four top-ten finishes. His best finish in the Masters was T-7th in 2007, in the PGA Championship, T-4th in 2000 at Valhalla, and T-10th at the 1998 U.S. Open at the Olympic Club.

In 2010, during the final round of the inaugural Greenbrier Classic, Appleby became the fifth player in history to shoot a 59 in an official PGA Tour event and won the PGA Tour Comeback Player of the Year award. Appleby played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1996 and 2018, playing in 551 events and making 371 cuts with 69 top-ten finishes. Between 1996 and 2006, he finished no higher than 55th on the money list (in 2001) and had his biggest money year in 2006 when he won $3,470,457. In his career on the PGA Tour, Stuart won $29,828,521. In the FedExCup years between 2007 and 2014, he was inside the top 125 six times. The best was in 2008, when he was 17th, and the last time he was inside the top 125 was in 2014, when he was 31st.

One of Appleby's problems playing golf was a sore back, dating back to 2000. He used constant osteopathy techniques for years, but in 2015, he underwent surgery for a herniated disc. Despite the surgery, he still suffered nerve impingement, which sapped some of the strength from his left leg, requiring him to retrain his motor patterns. Years after the surgery, Appleby never experienced any success from the surgery. Two years after the surgery, when he could swing hard at it, his clubhead speed was way down before the surgery.

Another tragedy in his life came in London Waterloo Station in 1998 when a taxicab struck and killed his wife, Renay. It was just after the British Open, and they were on the way to Paris for a second honeymoon. She was retrieving a piece of luggage when a cab driver accidentally lurched his car in reverse, pinning her against another vehicle. Renay, who was 25 then, died almost instantly from internal injuries. They met while playing on the Korn Ferry Tour, and Renay was his caddie. The couple married in December of 1996, and everything was going well. Stuart's career took off, and they had a new house in Orlando. Appleby felt he had just won the raffle. Appleby regrouped and started playing again a month later at the PGA Championship. In 2002, love hit him again as he married his second wife, Ashley Saleet, and they went on to have four kids. Appleby also endured another tragedy when his friend and next-door neighbor, Payne Stewart, was killed in a plane crash in November 1999. After that, Appleby became a key father figure for Stewart's children, Chelsea and Aaron.

Appleby started thinking about senior golf a couple of years before turning 50, playing in three Korn Ferry Tour events. When COVID hit, he couldn't play, but when he turned 50 in May of 2021, he got ready and played his first PGA Tour Champions at the Pure Insurance Championship, finishing T-34th. Because of his back, he can't practice much, and playing 18 holes pain-free is impossible. He finished out 2021 T-46th at Furyk & Friends and then T-12th at the SAS Championship.

2022 Notes: Played in 22 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. He was 43rd in the Schwab rankings and 43rd on the money list with $506,343 in earnings. With four rounds in the 60s, Appleby finished T-3rd at the Regions Tradition, seven shots back of winner Steve Stricker. He was T-7th at the SAS Championship and finished the season T-47th at the TimberTech Championship.

2023 Notes: He played in 22 PGA Tour Champions events, with one top-ten finish. He was 52nd in the Schwab Rankings and 52nd on the money list, with $391,458 in earnings. He closed with a bogey-free 65 to finish T-5th at the Boeing Classic. It was his second top-5 in his first 38 starts on the PGA Tour Champions.

2024 Notes: Played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. Was 34th on the Schwab Cup points list and 32nd on the Schwab money list with earnings of $1,561,570. He finished T-6th at the Invited Celebrity Classic, five shots back of winner Paul Broadhurst. He also finished T-2nd at the Insuperity Invitational, one shot back of winner Scott Dunlap. This was his best finish on the PGA Tour Champions (his previous best was T-3rd at the Regions Tradition). He ended the year finishing 33rd at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2025 Notes: Played in 23 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. Was 53rd on the Schwab Cup points list and 51st on the Schwab money list with earnings of $403,524. His best finish was T-7th at The Galleri Classic.

2026 Notes: Best finish, T-38th at the Chubb Classic.

PGA Tour Champions Victories: 4 - 2019 Dick's Sporting Goods Open; 2021 Shaw Charity Classic; 2024 Regions Tradition; 2025 PURE Insurance Championship

Player Notes: His father introduced him to golf at the age of 3. After getting a marketing degree from Mississippi State, he turned pro in 1992. After a couple of years playing mini-tour events. He got onto the Korn Ferry Tour in 1995 and finished 103rd on the money list in his first year. Also played in 1996, finishing 47th, his best finish T-3rd at the Shreveport Open and 5th at the Philadelphia Open. At the end of 1996, he finished 3rd in the PGA Tour Qualifying Tournament, earning his PGA Tour card for 1997.

He was able to play on the PGA Tour for the next five years and, for the first four years, placed in the top 125 on the money list to keep his card.

Struggled in 2001, and when he finished 37th at Qualifying school, it meant a return trip to the Korn Ferry Tour. He bounced back and forth between the tours and had his best year in 2005 when in 24 events he made 11 cuts with two top-ten finishes, including his career-best finish on the PGA Tour, T-3rd at the Byron Nelson Classic, finishing four shots back of winner Ted Purdy. Barron finished 110th on the money list with $731,990. In 2006, he struggled, earning only $388,226 and finishing 164th on the money list. After that, he only played in one more event on the PGA Tour, missing the cut at the St. Jude Classic. But that start in Memphis proved costly for him as he took a random drug test, and it was revealed he had taken supplemental testosterone and a beta-blocker.

Indeed, Barron had been on beta-blockers since suffering a mitral valve prolapse, a potentially serious heart problem, as a teenager. He had begun taking testosterone two years before the PGA Tour testing program was enacted, after physicians found he had the testosterone of an 80-year-old man.

He argued that he was taking them on the advice of doctors, the former to address low testosterone, the latter for a heart murmur. He was suspended for a year and sued the PGA Tour. The suspension was lifted in the fall of 2010, the suit was settled, and he was granted a therapeutic use exemption for testosterone. By the time that happened, Barron stopped playing golf; he felt the best years were gone.

But he never played in another PGA Tour or Korn Ferry Tour event. He played in 238 events on the PGA Tour, making 111 cuts with 12 top-ten finishes. He won a total of $2,724,280. On the Korn Ferry Tour, he played in 137 events, making 68 cuts with 18 top-ten finishes. He was runner-up five times, four in 2002 at the SAS Carolina Classic, Samsung Canadian PGA, Fort Smith Classic, and the Utah Classic. In 2004, he was T-2nd at the Samsung Canadian PGA. He won a total of $550,111 on the Korn Ferry tour. His best finish was in 2002, when he was 3rd on the money list and in 19 starts finished in the top ten, seven times.

Barron stopped playing professionally. He spent time with his kids and just hung out in Memphis. He taught some things and started a credit card processing business. When he got close to his 50th birthday in 2019, he started playing in some mini-tour events in Alabama, Mississippi, and Florida. Before his 50th birthday, Barron decided to book a flight to Manchester, England, and try to qualify for the Senior British Open. On the day of the ten-year celebration of Barron getting a sponsor exemption to play in the 2009 St. Jude Classic, which caused his problems with the drug suspension, he qualified for the Senior British Open and in his first PGA Tour Champions start shot a final round 67 to finish T-5th, four shots back of winner Bernhard Langer. The $72,960 was the sixth-largest check he had ever earned and was enough to cover his expenses. But the great performance didn't do anything for Barron's status on the Champions Tour. He wanted to play at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, but he had to make it through a Thursday qualifier to get into the Monday qualifier. Despite a sore back, he shot 66 to lead the qualifier and make it into the tour tournament. Barron shot 65, 68, and 66 at En-Joie Golf Club in Endicott, N.Y., to win wire-to-wire by two shots over Fred Couples. Barron became just the 13th qualifier to win in the history of the PGA Tour Champions and the first since Willie Wood at the 2012 Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Just like that, Barron's life completely changed as he earned a two-year exemption on the PGA Tour Champions. So, in 2019, Barron played the rest of the year, participating in 10 events and had 3 top-10 finishes. His last top ten of the year was a T-3rd at the SAS Championship, five shots back of the winner, Jerry Kelly. He finished the year ranked 34th on the Schwab Cup list.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 36 PGA Tour Champions events with nine top-tens and finished 10th in the Charles Schwab Cup. Was T-6th at the 2020 Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai, then T-3rd at the Morocco Champions, four shots back of winner Brett Quigley. After that, his next best finish in 2020 was T-13th at the Dominion Energy Charity. In 2021, his best finish was T-5th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, four shots back of the winner Dicky Pride. He was T-3rd at the Principal Charity, two shots back of the winner, Stephen Ames. Won for a second time on the PGA Tour Champions at the 2021 Shaw Charity Classic, beating runner-up Steve Flesch by two shots. Posted three consecutive 64s to shoot 18-under 192, his lowest career 54-hole total on the Champions Tour. Was co-leader entering the final round of the 2021 Ally Challenge, shot 72, and finished T-4th, three shots back of winner Joe Durant. Co-led the first and second rounds at the 2021 Ascension Charity Classic, who 72 in the final round to finish T-6th, three shots back of the David Toms/Dicky Pride playoff. With rounds of 69-69-70, finished T-7th at the Pure Insurance Championship, five shots back of winner K.J. Choi. At the Dominion Energy Charity Classic had rounds of 66-68-68 to finish tied with Bernhard Langer, who beat Barron on the first playoff hole with a birdie. He ended the season T-13th at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2022 Notes: Played in 23 PGA Tour Champions events with six top-ten finishes. Was 16th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $920,312. Was T-5th at the Hoag Classic, eight shots back of winner Retief Goosen. After opening with 74 at the Regions Tradition, he closed with 68-69-66 to go from T-56th to T-9th. Closed with 65 en route to a T-3rd finish at The Senior Open Championship after opening with 69-71-67. Finished T-10th at the Ascension Charity Classic, earning his fourth top-10 this season (in 17 starts). Earned his fifth top-10 finish of the season with a T-3rd finish at the Dominion Energy Charity Classic. He ended the season with a 14th-place finish at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2023 Notes: Suffered from a nagging elbow issue, in which he only played in seven PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. Was 60th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $319,007. Finished 5th at the Cologuard Classic and T-2nd at the Hoag Classic. His last start for the year was in April at the Insperity Insurance. Had surgery on both of his elbows, which prevented him from playing for the rest of the year.

2024 Notes: Played in 19 PGA Tour Champions events with six top-ten finishes. Was 16th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $1,097,380. Even with elbow pain, he was able to play competitive golf again. After four starts, he finished T-2nd at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, four shots back of the winner Stephen Ames. He claimed his first PGA Tour Champions major with a bogey-free final round to win the Regions Tradition by two shots over Steven Alker. Two events later, finished T-4th at the American Family Insurance Championship, then T-3rd at the PURE Insurance Championship. He ended his season with a 35th-place finish at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2025 Notes: Played in 27 PGA Tour Champions events with five top-ten finishes. Was 19th on both the Schwab point list and the Schwab money list with earnings of $1,137,223. Shot a final round 66 to win the PURE Insurance Championship by a shot over Vijay Singh. Was T-2nd at the American Family Insurance Championship with partner Dicky Pride. They were four shots back of the winning team of Thomas Bjorn and Darren Clarke.

2026 Notes: Best finish, T-19th at the Chubb Classic.

*PGA Tour

Begay had a pair of wins in each of his first two seasons on the Tour. From late September 1999 to early July 2000, a period of just over nine months, Begay recorded four PGA Tour wins, with the third and fourth wins coming in successive weeks. Since then, he has been plagued by back trouble, which has put his future as a professional golfer in doubt. In 2005, he played under a "Major Medical Exemption" with little success. In 2006, he played on the Nationwide Tour. At the end of 2006, he earned a European Tour card from their qualifying school. In December 2008, he regained his playing card for the 2009 PGA Tour season at Q-school.

Begay has been featured in the top 20 of the Official World Golf Rankings. He successfully utilized a unique putting method. Using a putter with playing faces on both the front and back of the head, he putted right-to-left-breaking putts right-handed and left-to-right-breaking putts left-handed. Begay is the first top player to use such a technique and putter.

He has played in 217 PGA Tour events, making 98 cuts with 14 top-ten finishes. He won four times: the 1999 Reno-Tahoe Open, the Michelob Championship at Kingsmill, the 2000 FedEx St. Jude Classic & Canon Greater Hartford Open. His PGA Tour earnings were $5,207,339.

Begay played on the PGA Tour Champions in 2022; his first event finished T-67th at the Constellation Furyk & Friends. Played the next week, finishing T-56th at the SAS Championship.

2023 Notes: He played in 17 PGA Tour Champions events. He was 88th in the Schwab Rankings and 88th on the money list with $103,173. His best finish was T-26th at the Principal Charity Classic.

2024 Notes: Played in 10 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-25 finishes. Was 87th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $128,485. Best finish: T-13th at the Boeing Classic.

2025 Notes: Played in 7 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-10 finish. Was 80th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $175,284. Best finish, T-3rd at the DICK'S Open. This is his best finish since his first PGA Tour Champions start in 2022. Since 2010, Begay has worked for Golf Channel and has been with the NBC Sports Group since 2013.

In 2007, he was limited to just 4 starts due to vertigo, and he started feeling dizzy as he stood over putts at the end of 2006. He felt it again at the Sony Open in Hawaii in '07 and then again at the Bob Hope, but he played through it. Somehow, he made both cuts. Soon, the dizziness got so bad he couldn't play, and he withdrew from the Buick Invitational in San Diego. Bertsch underwent multiple MRIs and CT scans, but specialists were stumped. He has been prescribed two medications that helped, but 2007 was a bust, as he only played one more time and missed the cut at the Players Championship.

Bertsch used a medical exemption to play in 2008. To earn exempt status for 2009, he says the Tour told him he would have to win as much as the 125th player made in 2007 across 28 tournaments. When he did so with six tournaments left to play, he asked a Tour official if his standing was secure. According to Bertsch, the official assured him he was indeed safe. Bertsch had been meaning to bury his father's ashes for five years, and with his status settled by late October 2008, the time seemed right. He and his wife, Monica, and their daughters, Brianna, 7, and Stella, 3, joined Bertsch's mother and siblings in North Dakota to say a final goodbye. But Bertsch was not satisfied. His 2008 earnings were sufficient only to give him status for the rest of 2008, not for 2009. The week of the last official event of 2008, the Children's Miracle Network Classic at Disney, he learned he was in danger of losing his card for the next year, having fallen to 124th in 2008 earnings. They played at Disney but missed the cut, which dropped him out of the top 125 to 126th. With all of the problems, he couldn't enter Q-School that year. If that wasn't bad enough, in December of 2008, he slipped and broke his right foot going down a staircase in his home. I spent seven weeks in a cast, and the foot didn't heal. Eventually, he learned he had suffered ligament damage along with a broken metatarsal. He had surgery 24 weeks after his fall, which didn't totally work and necessitated another operation 12 weeks later. With that, the 2009 season was also a total loss. Bertsch got another medical exemption, which would only get him into 13 tournaments in 2010. It didn't matter because AT&T Pebble Beach in February broke his right hand while moving items into his RV, requiring surgery with pins inserted, and he wasn't able to play until September. He made five starts on the Korn Ferry Tour, with his best finish a T-5 at the Win-Dixie Jacksonville Open. They also played season-ending Disney, missing the cut.

In 2011, he played five more events on the Korn Ferry Tour, only making one cut, T-57th at the Albertson Boise Open. He played 20 events, with his best finish of T-4th at Frys.Com. He finished 143rd on the money list, returned to Q-School, and finished T-38th. He had limited access in 2012 via the top-150 category.

2012 Notes: Played in 17 PGA Tour events, making the cut in six of them. His best finish was T-31st at the True South Classic, and, with his 211th-place finish on the FedExCup list, he returned to Q-School. He finished T-32nd, which didn't earn him back his PGA Tour card. Thus, it was back to the Korn Ferry Tour.

2013 Korn Ferry Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 24; in money - 17; top-10 finishes - 2; scoring average 70.54 (ranked 55th); money $112,530 (ranked 38th); Korn Ferry Tour finals money $7,373 (ranked 93rd), Priority rank 100; Best finish, 3rd Columbia Championship.

Best finish, Winner Rust-Oleum Championship. He regained his PGA Tour card for 2016.

2016 Notes: Despite making the tour despite having serious back ailments, he played in nine events, and his best finish was T-35th at the AT&T Pebble Beach. It would be his last event, and he would take the rest of the year off.

2017 Notes: He played a combination of the PGA Tour (nine events) and the Korn Ferry Tour (ten events). On the PGA Tour, he only made two cuts, T-50th at the Barracuda Championship and T-67th at the Barasol Championship. On the Korn Ferry Tour, he made four cuts, and his best finish was T-20th at the United Leasing & Finance Championship.

2018 Notes: Played in ten Korn Ferry Tour events, making two cuts. The best finish was T-55th at the Panama Championship. He played twice on the PGA Tour, missing the cut. He felt he was in "purgatory" with his age, so he opened an instruction business at the Telluride Ski and Golf Resort. The location also allowed him to pursue his other love, fly fishing, by combining golf instruction with guided forays into the local trout streams. So, in his PGA Tour career, he played in 195 Tour events, making 90 cuts. He had 22 top-25 finishes and five top-tens, and his best finish was T-4th at the 2011 Frys.Com Open. On the Korn Ferry Tour, he played in 325 events, making 179 cuts with 30 top-ten finishes. He won three times: the 2000 Upstate Classic, the 2005 BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs, and the 2015 Rust-Oleum Championship.

As he approached his 50th birthday, he participated in the PGA Tour Champions Qualifying tournament in December 2019 and was the medalist.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 31 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-tens and finished 37th in the Charles Schwab Cup. Because of COVID-19, he wasn't able to make his debut in April at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic. He made his debut in August at the 2020 Ally Challenge, finishing T-45th. In his next start, he made a 25-foot eagle putt on the first play-off hole to win a four-man playoff at the 2020 Charles Schwab Series at Bass Pro Shops Big Cedar Lodge. He became the first player out of the Q-School category to win since Ken Tanigawa won the 2018 Pure Insurance Championship. It was his first PGA Tour-sanctioned victory since 2015, and the $450,000 paycheck was the biggest of his career. Since then, his best finish was T-6th in the 2021 Principal Charity Classic, three shots back of winner Stephen Ames. He ended his season with a T-20th finish at the TimberTech Championship.

2022 Notes: Played in 26 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-ten finishes. He was 38th on the Schwab Cup rankings and 40th on the money list, earning $560,669. Was T-8th at the Senior PGA Championship and Shaw Charity Classic. He was T-10th at Dick's Sporting Goods. His final start of the season was T-18th at the Dominion Energy Charity.

2023 Notes: He played in 26 PGA Tour Champions events and had two top-ten finishes. He was 39th in the Schwab Cup rankings and 43rd on the money list, earning $497,640. He shot a final-round 67 to finish T-7th at the Hoag Classic, three back of the winner, Ernie Els. Co-leader after the first round of the TimberTech Championship, he finished T-4th at 8-under. Carded scores of 67-68-70.

2024 Notes: Played in 26 PGA Tour Champions events with five top-ten finishes. Was 28th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $843,613. Was T-10th at the Insperity Invitational and American Family Insurance Championship. Shot a final round 66 to finish T-7th at the Rogers Charity Classic. Shot a final round 64 to finish T-4th at the Ascension Charity Classic.

Was 3rd at the SAS Championship. Finished T-19th in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2025 Notes: Played in 26 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. Was 50th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $407,442. Best finish, T-9th at the DICK'S Open.

Canadian Tour Victories: 1 - 2001 Bayer Championship, 2000 Shell Payless Open

Player Notes: Bohn graduated from the University of Alabama in 1995 with a degree in Finance. In 1992, while a sophomore on the Alabama golf team, Bohn played in a charity fund-raiser in Tuscaloosa when he made a hole-in-one worth $1 million. Bohn dropped his amateur status and golf scholarship on the spot and turned professional. Since then has received yearly checks of $50,000, which end this October. Bohn played on the Canadian Tour, where he won twice, and the Korn Ferry Tour, where he notched one victory.

2003 Korn Ferry Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 18; in money - 14; Top-10 finishes - 5; scoring average 69.48 (ranked 3rd); money $255,191 (ranked 9th); Winner Chattanooga Classic.

Has played on the PGA Tour since 2003. Won in his sophomore year at the B.C. Open in 2005. Lost a playoff to Ryan Moore at the 2009 Wyndham Championship but won again at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans in 2010 in wire-to-wire fashion. They had a rib injury at the Memorial in 2007 and took most of that and the following year to get healthy again.

2012 Notes: He was 125 in the FedEx Cup points, which earned him the final spot in the FedExCup Playoffs, but he missed the cut at The Barclays to fail to advance to the Deutsche Bank Championship. Making his 13th start of the season, he posted his first top-10 finish, a T-9th at the HP Byron Nelson Championship. It was his first top-10 since winning the 2010 Zurich Classic of New Orleans. At the True South Classic in July, he led the field in Putting, needing just 96 putts to finish two strokes behind Scott Stallings for solo second at 22-under 266. In his first start in the fall, at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, he birdied half of his holes in the third round, good for a 7-under 64, en route to a T-8th.

2013 Notes: Made 12 of 23 cuts on Tour and finished 113th in the final FedExCup standings. Posted back-to-back, 6-under 66's in the final two rounds of the Sanderson Farms Championship to claim a T-9th with four others. The 2012 runner-up at this event made 14 birdies on the weekend en route to the finish. They had four sub-par rounds at the RBC Canadian Open, highlighted by a 6-under 66 in the third round, to finish T-2nd with three others.

2014 Notes: Had three top-fives, T-2nd at the Shriners Hospitals, T-3rd at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba, and 4th at the Wells Fargo Championship. For the fifth time, he made it to the FedExCup Playoffs, where he played well enough to stay alive through the first three events. Ranked 70th in the FedExCup standings after the BMW Championship, he also finished 65th on the money list. It was announced on February 10th that he had been elected Chairman of the Player Advisory Council by the Tour's membership for the 2014 calendar year. The 16-member PAC advises and consults with the PGA Tour Policy Board (Board of Directors) and Commissioner Tim Finchem on issues affecting the Tour.

2015 Notes: Shot a 3-under 69 final-round to finish T-2nd at the Sanderson Farms Championship. It was his third consecutive top-10 finish in the event and second runner-up spot in three years in Mississippi. He finished T-7th at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba after holding the third-round lead. Shot a final-round 74 to drop down the leaderboard. He finished T-9th at the Wells Fargo Championship to notch his third top 10 at Quail Hollow Club in 12 starts. One week after the top-10 in Charlotte, he finished in a three-way T-2nd (one stroke behind champion Chris Kirk) at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, his second-season runner-up. He also added another top-ten at the Quicken Loans, finishing T-4th. Entered the FedExCup playoffs 33rd and climbed to 24th after finishing T-9th at The Barclays, but after missing the cut at the Deutsche Bank and finishing T-64th at the BMW Championship, dropped out of the top-30 and finished 40th. He played in 27 events and made 21 cuts, with 6 top-10 finishes.

2016 Notes: Played in 21 PGA Tour events, making 13 cuts with three top-ten finishes. It was 97th in the FedExCup rankings. He opened his year, finishing T-3rd at the Fry'sCom Open and T-2nd at the Shriners Hospitals (one back of winner Smylie Kaufman, who shot 61 in the final round). Three weeks later, he was 2nd at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba, losing in a playoff to Graeme McDowell. That would be his last top-10 of the year at the Honda Classic; immediately after completing his second round, he sought the assistance of an on-site medic due to chest pains and shortness of breath. He was taken to nearby Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center, where doctors determined he had suffered a heart attack. A stent was placed in the artery, with over 90 percent of the artery blocked. I spent the remainder of the weekend recovering in the hospital. He returned at the RBC Heritage Classic but has played a limited schedule with only 8 starts. The best finish after that was T-34th at the Dean & DeLuca Invitational. In the FedExCup playoffs was 77th at the Barclays and missed the cut at the Deutsche Bank.

2017 Notes: Played in 28 PGA Tour events, making nine cuts. It was 206th in the FedExCup rankings. Their best finish was T-35th at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba.

2018 Notes: Only played in nine PGA Tour events, best finish T-30th at the John Deere Classic.

Bohn lost his PGA Tour card, returned home to Acworth, and spent time with his family. He told Stan Awtrey of the Atlanta Journal-Constitution that he took his sons, Connor (the golfer) and Cameron (whatever sport is in season), to their workouts and practices and attended all the games. He helped his wife, Tewana, do things around the house, taking care of the pool, and working in the yard. He was present for family dinners. He did play in limited events on the PGA Tour, but did very little except anticipate turning 50.

2023 Notes: His first PGA Tour Champions start at the Insignity Invitational, finished T-14th, which was his best finish for the year. Played in 17 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-25 finishes. Was 73rd on the Schwab Cup list with earnings of $169,127.

2024 Notes: Played in 11 PGA Tour Champions events. Was 122nd on the Schwab Cup list with earnings of $36,467. Best finish, T-48th at the Invited Celebrity Classic and Regions Tradition. Returned to PGA Tour Champions Qualifying and was T-16th.

2025 Notes: Played in 5 PGA Tour Champions events, best finish T-39th at the Trophy Hassan II.

2026 Notes: Only start, T-23rd at the Chubb Classic.

European Challenge Tour Victories: 2002 Austrian Golf Open, 2004 BA CA Golf Open

Legends Tour Victories: 2 - 2021 Farmfoods European Senior Masters, 2025 Black Desert NI Legends

Player Notes: He was the youngest of four boys in Vienna; he started playing at the age of 8. At 11, won the club championship in Hainburg.

He provided one of Austria's sporting highlights in June 2006 when he became the first Austrian golfer to win on The European Tour. To heighten the pleasure, he chose the BA-CA Golf Open presented by Telekom Austria at his home club, Fontana Golf Club in Vienna, on the tournament's return to the Tour for the first time in a decade. That victory continued his love affair with the event, having won it twice before, in 2002 and 2004, when it formed part of the Challenge Tour schedule.

He took his game up another level when he won for the first time outside his own country by capturing the 2007 Volvo China Open in Shanghai. He identified as a talent to nurture at an early age and spent his time in Military Service on a golf scholarship. He could be considered a late developer - he was 27 before he turned professional and 37 before he won his first title - but undoubtedly one of the top sportsmen in a country not renowned for golf. He received congratulations from the Austrian Prime Minister after his win in China.

He played in 371 European tour events, making 192 cuts with 28 top-ten. He won a total of €4,064,225.

Joined the Legends Tour in 2018 and played in 12 events with five top-ten finishes. Best finish T-2nd at the Farmfoods European Senior Masters and Paris Legends Championship, a shot back of winner Thomas Levet. He finished 24th in the Legends Tour Order of Merit with €118,458.

2019 Notes: Played in 17 Legends Tour events with six top-ten finishes. His best finish was 2nd in the Sinclair Invitational, a shot back of the winner David Shacklady and the Farmfoods European Senior Masters.

He finished 10th in the Legends Tour points list with €130,536 in earnings.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played twice on the Challenge Tour in 2020. T-85th at the Austrian Open and T-50th at the Euram Bank Open. Played in three events on the PGA Tour Champions, T-40th at the KitchenAid Senior PGA and U.S. Senior Open, and missed the cut at the Senior Open Championship. On the European Legends Tour, he played in 11 events and won the FarmFoods European Senior Masters by a shot over Rafael Gomez. He was 2nd at the Scottish Senior Open, losing a play-off to Thomas Levet. He was T-6th at the Staysure PGA Seniors, T-7th at the Farmfoods European Legends Links Championship, and T-8th at the Riegler & Partner Legends. He was 3rd on the Order of Merit for the year, winning €142,394.

2022 Notes: Played in 15 Legends Tour events with seven top-ten finishes. He was 11th on the order of merit, earning €134,289. Best finish T-5th at the Italian Open and T-5th at the MCB Tour Championship-Seychelles. Played in three PGA Tour Champions events, missed cut at KitchenAid Senior PGA, T-25th at the U.S. Senior Open, and T-53rd at the Senior Open Championship.

2023 Notes: Played in 15 Legends Tour events with two top-ten finishes. Best finish T-9th in the Riegler & Partner Legends and WCM Legends Open de France. He was 25th on the order of merit, earning €81,522.

Player Notes: Cabrera, nicknamed "El Pato" (The Duck), got started in golf as a caddie at age 10. His friends, most of whom were a little older, caddied at the Cordoba Golf Club, and they suggested he join them. "I'll go and see what it's all about," he told himself. One exploratory trip on the course was enough to hook him for good. He continued to caddie at Cordoba, the home club of friend Eduardo Romero, until he turned professional at age 20. Romero, who lived two blocks away from his young protege, encouraged him to take up the game at age 15. When Cabrera was 18, he finished sixth at the prestigious Center Open in Cordoba and decided to make a career of playing the game. After years of playing with scarce resources and with some club members' help, he competed in and out of the country with good results. After failing in three attempts to secure his European Tour card, Romero underwrote Cabrera's expenses in 1995.

Cabrera has won 34 titles in South America, including the Argentine Masters, Open, and PGA, and has played in four Presidents Cups (2005, '07, '09, and '13). Cabrera won the 2007 U.S. Open at Oakmont, defeating Tiger Woods and Jim Furyk by one stroke. At the 2009 Masters, he parred the second playoff hole to edge Kenny Perry and win the green jacket. He failed to make the FedExCup Playoffs in 2011 and '12, finishing 172nd and 174th, respectively, on the money list, and did not have a top-20 finish. In December 2012, he shot a final-round 64 at the Visa Open de Argentina on PGA Tour Latinoamérica to defeat Miguel Carballo and Oscar Fraustro by four strokes. The Argentine was afflicted with health problems after winning the Masters, including tendinitis in his left wrist in 2010 and minor surgeries to remedy oral and digestive issues. He has been injury-free since 2014.

Cabrera has two sons who are excellent golfers. He says he would be a soccer player, if not a golfer.

2013 Notes: He lost in a playoff at the Masters when Adam Scott birdied the second extra hole (No. 10 at Augusta National). Entering the week, he was 119th in the FedExCup standings and 269th in the Official World Golf Ranking. He finished the year 65th in the FedEx Cup standings and 64th in the world ranking. A week after the Masters, he traveled to Abierto del Centro, a tournament he had won six times. He played the final eight holes in five under par, including a hole-out eagle 2 at the 72nd hole, to force a playoff with Rafael Gomez. He won with a birdie at the first playoff hole. Had gone 19 years between his first Abierto del Centro win and his most recent title there. He had two wins and two losses in his four matches at the Presidents Cup.

2014 Notes: Cabrera struggled at the start of the year with only one top-25 finish in his first 13 worldwide starts - 2nd at the Abierto OSDE del Centro presentado por FiberCorp in South America in April. In his 13th start, he missed the cut at the U.S. Open, his seventh missed cut of the year. However, he bounced back the next week, finishing T-11th at the Travelers Championship and a T-24th at the Quicken Loans. Then came the Greenbrier Classic, where he entered the final round trailing playing partner Billy Hurley III by two. Cabrera shot a final-round, six-under 64, including a hole-out eagle from 176 yards at the par-4 13th hole, to win by two over George McNeill. The win came in his 218th PGA Tour start and was his third victory (first in a non-major championship), following wins at the 2007 U.S. Open and the 2009 Masters. He earned a spot in the FedExCup Playoffs for the sixth time, where he made it through three of the four events. Despite a T-12th finish at the BMW Championship, he ended the season ranked 50th in the final FedExCup standings and on the money list.

2015 Notes: His best finish on the PGA Tour was a T-15th at the Waste Management Phoenix Open. In South America, finished T-2nd at the Abierto OSDE del Centro and T-3rd at the VISA Open de Argentina.

2016 Notes: Had only one top-25, a T-24th at the Masters. Made 12 cuts in 22 starts for the second consecutive season and finished 180th in the FedExCup standings.

2017 Notes: Teamed with fellow Argentine Julian Etulain to finish T-5th at the Zurich Classic, his best finish of the year. Was 206th in the final FedExCup standings. He also played in four Korn Ferry Tour events, making two cuts, a T-54th at the Colombia Championship, and withdrawing from the Korn Ferry Tour Championship.

2018 Notes: Only played in 13 events worldwide, best finish was 6th at the Volvo Abierto de Chile 2018. In five starts on the PGA Tour, he made one cut at the Sanderson Farms, finishing T-34th.

2019 Notes: Played in nine Korn Ferry Tour events and made the cut in two: T-55th in the TPC Colorado and T-60th in the Rex Hospital Open. Became eligible for the Champions Tour, played in the Ally Challenge, finishing T-21st, and withdrew from the Sanford International. Played just twice on the PGA Tour, missing the cut at the Masters and Puerto Rico Open.

2020 Notes: Played on just the PGA Tour Champions. His best finish in nine starts was T-27th at the Ally Challenge. His last competitive round came in the Pure Insurance Championship in September of 2020; he withdrew after 76-77.

2024 Notes: Played in 12 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. Was 59th on the Schwab point list and 57th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $391,823. Was T-5th at the Senior Open Championship and 4th at the SAS Championship. Returned to Champions Tour Q-School and finished T-9th, getting limited status on the Champions Tour in 2025.

2025 Notes: Played in 21 PGA Tour Champions events with four top-ten finishes. Was 9th on the Schwab point list and 7th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $1,826,230. Won the James Hardie Invitational by two shots over K.J. Choi. Shot a final round 64 to win the Regions Tradition by one shot over Jerry Kelly. The next week won the Senior PGA Championship by one shot over Padraig Harrington and Thomas Bjorn.

2026 Notes: Best finish, T-2nd at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai, three shots back of the winner, Stewart Cink. Missed the cut at the Masters

Challenge Tour wins: 1994 Audi Quattro Trophy, Bank Austria Open and Memorial Olivier Barras

Player Notes: He started playing golf at age 10, encouraged by his father, for whom he served as a caddie. A proud Maori by descent from the Ngati Ruanui tribe on his father's side and Nga Rauru tribe on his mother's side, he has historical links to Scotland through his great-great-great-grandfather Sir Logan Campbell, who emigrated from Edinburgh to New Zealand in 1845.

He founded the Michael Campbell Foundation to further his commitment to helping, inspiring, and motivating young people, particularly those from disadvantaged backgrounds. He led New Zealand to top amateur honors in the 1992 Eisenhower Trophy. He also won the Australian and New South Wales Amateur championships and was named the New Zealand Young Sportsman of the Year and Australasian Amateur Golfer of the Year in 1992.

Won the 1991 New Zealand Maori championship and was runner-up in the 1992 World Individual Eisenhower Trophy. Member of the 2000 and 2006 International Presidents Cup teams. In addition to his U.S. Open victory in 2005, he also won his eighth European Tour event, the HSBC World Match Play Championship.

Even with his win at the U.S. Open, he primarily competed in Europe. In 2010, he played in 19 events and made one cut.

2011 Notes: Played in 22 events in Europe, made seven cuts, best finish T19th in the Trophee Hassan.

2012 Notes: Played in 21 European events, made eight cuts, and had two top-tens, his first top-tens since 2008. He was 3rd at the Portugal Masters and T8th at the USB Hong Kong Open.

2013 Notes: Played in 18 events on the European Tour, making just four cuts. Best finish, T-16th at the Qatar Masters.

After that, Campbell was burnt out with golf and traveling, suffering from a rotator cuff injury and pain in his left ankle, and his marriage was on the rocks. He went to Spain, ran a golf academy, and returned to competitive golf. But after five years of not competing and watching golf on TV, he started to miss the game. Then he realized he was getting close to 50 and felt the urge to rekindle relationships with other players and possibly play Seniors golf. He felt that his body was healthy and his mind was free of burnout from golf and travel. So, on his 50th birthday, he traveled to Queenstown, New Zealand, to play in his first professional tournament since withdrawing from the 2015 Abu Dhabi Championship. He played in back-to-back tournaments, missing the cut at the New Zealand Open and then the New Zealand PGA Championship. So the 2019 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship is the first true return to golf, playing over 50 tournaments. He shot 81-79 to miss the cut. They played in the U.S. Senior Open and the Senior Open Championship, missing the cut. His only check was for finishing T-15th at the 2019 Shaw Charity Classic.

Since 2012, Campbell has been based in Marbella, Spain, where he has a golf academy. I was looking forward to playing some Legends events across Europe, but that tour has been canceled due to COVID-19. So, to keep sharp, he played on the European Tour in 2020. In 11 starts, he only made one cut, finishing 70th at the Hero Open.

2021 Notes: He played in nine European Legends Tour events, was 36th on the Order of Merit, and earned €22,997. His best finish was T-11th at the Legends French Open. He played once on the European Tour, missing the cut at the Andalucia Masters.

2022 Notes: Played in 11 Legends Tour events with one top-ten finish. It was 45th in the order of merit. Their best finish was 6th at the Jersey Legends. Played in three PGA Tour Champions events, T-55th at the Kitchenaid Senior PGA, missed cut at the U.S. Senior Open, and 66th at the Senior Open Championship.

2023 Notes: Played in 14 Legends Tour events with three top-ten finishes. It was 16th in the order of merit. Finished T-9th at the Riegler & Partner Legends, T-3rd at the Staysure PGA Seniors Championship, and T-3rd at the Vinpearl DIC Legends Vietnam. Played in three Champions Tour events, best finish T-41st at the Senior Open Championship.

2024 Notes: Played in 14 Legends Tour events with two top ten finishes. Was 29th on the order of merit, earning €102,573. Best finish was 5th at Zambia Golf Legends Championship. Played in three Champions Tour events, best finish T-50th at the Regions Tradition.

2025 Notes: Played in 15 Legends Tour events with two top ten finishes. Was 40th on the order of merit, earning €81,619, best finish T-5th at the Champions UK European Senior Masters and MCB Mauritius Legends. Player Notes: Canonica was born in Moncalieri, in the province of Turin, Piedmont. He won the Italian National Juniors Championship in 1990 and was part of the gold medal-winning Italian team at the European Youth Team Championship that year. He was also part of the Italian team that finished second at the 1991 European Amateur Team Championship in Madrid, Spain. He turned professional later in 1991.

Having played in several Challenge Tour events, Canonica qualified for the 1995 European Tour at the 1994 qualifying school. He struggled to keep his tour card, finishing 117th on the Order of Merit in his first two seasons. 121st place the following year meant limited playing opportunities in 1998, but after regaining full playing status via qualifying school, his performances improved, finishing 70th on the money list in 1999 and then a career-best 27th in 2000.

A disappointing 2001, where he played just 11 events and finished 132nd on the money list, meant another season with fewer tournament invitations in 2002. He made the most of the invites he did receive with three top 10 finishes, including the Canarias Open de Espana, where he was joint runner-up, to end the season in 52nd place on the Order of Merit and regain his European Tour card. In 2005, he won on the European Tour for the first time at the Johnnie Walker Championship at Gleneagles, securing his place on the tour for two years. By 2008, he was struggling, and he played his last full season in 2011.

Canonica played in 367 European Tour events, making 202 cuts with 23 top-ten finishes. He earned €3,356,545. His best season was in 2000; he played in 20 events making 13 cuts and had a runner-up and a third-place finish. He was 27th on the Order of Merit and earned €507,192. His biggest money year was in 2005 when he won in 31 starts, had three top-tens, and made €556,844.

At the end of 2000, Canonica went to PGA Tour Qualifying Tournament and finished T-31st getting his PGA Tour card. He played in 19 PGA Tour events in 2001 and made four cuts, and his best finish was 7th at the Nissan Open at Riviera. He only won $132,869, 191st on the money list, and it was the last time he played in America.

When he turned 50, he played in 8 European Legends Tour events and was 24th on the Order of Merit with earnings of €41,795. His best finish was T-3rd at the Senior Italian Open.

2022 Notes: Played in 14 Legends Tour events with four top-ten finishes. He was 10th on the order of merit. He finished T-2nd at the Irish Legends, a shot back of winner Phillip Price. He was T-3rd at the Staysure PGA Seniors Championship, ten shots back of winner Adilson DaSilva. Finished T-6th at the Italian Senior Open and 3rd at the MCB Tour Championship - Seychelles, five shots back of winner Joakim Haeggman.

2023 Notes: He played in 15 Legends Tour events and finished in three top-ten positions. He was 18th on the order of merit. He was 7th at the Irish Legends, T-5th at the Legends Tour Trophy, and T-6th at the Farmfoods European Masters.

2024 Notes: He played in 15 Legends Tour events and finished in the top-ten four times. He was 25th on the order of merit, earning €129,900. His best finish was T-4th at the Farmfoods European Masters..

Two years later, Cejka took up golf and, by the age of 16, was good enough to finish fifth in the Austrian Amateur Open. Three years later, he turned professional and won his native Czech Open twice, in 1990 and 1992. After his sixth try in Q-school, he finally got his European Tour card in 1993. He played on that Tour full-time from 1994 until 2003 after earning his PGA Tour card in 2002 with a tie for 2nd at Q-School.

Along with his win in Puerto Rico, he has two runner-up finishes at the 2003 B.C. Open, and 2004 at The International. He has had severe allergy issues most of his life, but they were worse in 2011, forcing him to take some time off and causing him to finish outside of the top 125 for the first time since joining the PGA Tour in 2003.

2012 Notes: He played out of a Major Medical Extension but failed to earn $323,264 in his first five PGA Tour starts to extend his exemption. Ended the year with 12 starts, a T-18th at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans, his best outing. He made two Korn Ferry Tour starts, making the cut at the Stadion Classic at UGA and finishing T57 in Athens, Ga. Finished 177th in the FedEx Cup Playoffs and 183rd on the money list. He returned to Q-School but finished T-32nd, meaning he had to play on the Korn Ferry Tour in 2013.

2013 Korn Ferry Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 21 in money - 11; top-10 finishes - 2; scoring average 70.34 (ranked 39th); money $84,772 (ranked 73); best finish, 6th United Leasing Championship. They played twice on the PGA Tour and missed the cut at AT&T Pebble Beach and Reno-Ta-

hoe. Finished the year playing in four events on the Asian Tour, best finish T-12th at the King's Cup.

He officially secured his 2014-15 PGA Tour card after the regular season in late August (sixth on the money list), setting up his return to the PGA Tour, where he last played in 2012.

2015 Notes: He claimed his first PGA Tour win by making a 20-foot putt for a birdie-4 on the first playoff hole to defeat Sam Saunders, Emiliano Grillo, Jon Curran, and Tim Petrovic at the Puerto Rico Open. The last five-man playoff on Tour was at the 2005 BellSouth Classic, won by Phil Mickelson. He earned the victory at age 44 years, 3 months, and 6 days in his 287th career Tour start. He is the third-oldest first-time winner on Tour since 1970, behind Ed Dougherty and Ken Duke. The win was his only top ten of the year; his next-best finish is T-11th at the Shell Houston Open. In 30 starts, he made 18 cuts; he was 71st in the FedExCup standings and 79th on the money list.

2016 Notes: Cejka played in 22 PGA Tour events, making 15 cuts and four top-ten finishes. He was 83rd in the FedExCup race. He started his year with a T-2nd at the Shriners Hospitals, one back of winner Smylie Kaufman. He also had a T-6th at the RSM Classic, a T-9th at the Players, and a T-5th at the RBC Canadian Open. Cejka represented Germany at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games, finishing T-21st in the 60-player field.

2017 Notes: He played in 28 PGA Tour events, making 16 cuts and one top-ten finish. He was 149th in the FedExCup points list. His best finish was T-9th at the Greenbrier Classic.

2018 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour events, making 16 cuts with two top-ten finishes. He was 108th on the FedExCup points list. He posted a 72-hole score of 9-under 275 at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, suitable for a spot in the playoff with Whee Kim and eventual champion Patrick Cantlay, who won on the second extra hole. He began the final round eight strokes back, but the Las Vegas resident (who was making his 12th start in the event) posted the low round of the week with an 8-under 63. He birdied four of his last six holes on the final day to get into the playoff. The T2 finish marked his best showing on the PGA TOUR since he finished runner-up at the 2015 Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. The following week was T-9th at the Mayakoba Classic. He made the playoffs in the first event and was T-56th at the Northern Trust.

2019 Notes: Played in 22 PGA Tour events, making 8 cuts with two top-25 finishes. It was 203rd on the FedExCup points list. Their best finish was T-13th at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans, partnered with Alex Prugh. His best individual finish was T-18th at the Barracuda Championship.

He turned 50, and his first PGA Tour Champions start was a T-38th at the 2021 Colguard Classic. His second start was T-2nd at the Chubb Classic, a shot back of winner Steve Stricker. In his third start, he won the Regions Tradition. He was the 2nd round leader and shot 66-67 over the weekend to tie with Steve Stricker. Cejka won with a birdie at the first playoff hole. Cejka started the week as the first alternate and gained entry after Jay Haas withdrew. With the victory, everything changed in Cejka's life as he became fully exempt from the PGA Tour Champions until the end of the 2022 Season. It was Cejka's first professional win in 129 starts, dating back to the 2015 Puerto Rico Open, and broke a winless streak of 6 years, 2 months, and 1 day. Cejka played in 19 events in the 2020/21 Champions Tour season with seven top-ten finishes. He was 10th on the Money List with $1,855,610 and 13th in the Schwab Cup rankings. Added a second Australian Open title to his resume late in the year, his first title of any kind since the 2008 Henrico County Open on the Web.com Tour. Began the final round of the Australian Open two strokes behind fellow Aussie John Senden. Shot a 3-under 69 Sunday at The Lakes GC in Sydney to take the clubhouse lead and then watched as Senden's long birdie putt that would have forced a playoff on the 72nd hole just missed. Won for the second time in three weeks when he captured the Australian PGA Championship. He joined Robert Allenby and Marcus Fraser in a playoff that ended quickly when he made par on the first playoff hole after Fraser and Allenby both had errant tee shots.

For the first time since 2006, failed to finish inside the top 125 in either the FedExCup standings (132nd) or on the official money list (139). As a result, needed to attempt to regain his card through the Web.com Tour Finals. But he wasn't able to regain it when he finished 59th at the Hotel Fitness Championship, T-8th at the Chiquita Classic, but missed the cut in the final two events. He went over to Australia at the end of the year and missed the cut at the BetEasy Masters; they were 4th at the Australian Open and won the Australian PGA Championship, his third win on the Australian Tour and a victory that helped him claim the Order of Merit for the Tour of Australasia in 2014.

He became the first player to win in his 40s on the PGA Tour in the 2016 season. Player Notes: Choi was born on the island of Wando, just off the coast of Korea. It was a piece of land without a golf course when he was growing up. A son of a rice farmer, he didn't see a golf club until he was 16 years old, when on the advice of a high school athletics coach, he took up the game at a local driving range. At that time, his primary interest was weightlifting, but the more he got involved in golf, the more he realized that his weightlifting work was negatively affecting his golf swing. He gave up his strength-training regimen and studied Jack Nicklaus' lesson books and videos, spending long hours on the practice range.

He turned professional on the Korean Tour in 1994 and finished first on the Korean Tour Order of Merit in 1997, granting him a berth on the South Korean World Cup team that played at Kiawah Island. On his first trip to America, Choi realized how much he loved the country and the PGA Tour. Over the next couple of years, he split time between the Korean, Japanese, European, and Asian tours, improving and winning multiple titles, including the 1996 and 1999 Korean Opens and two events in Japan in 1998.

In 1999, he finished T-35 at Q-School and earned a tour card. Has eight PGA Tour victories, including the 2011 Players Championship, 2007 Memorial Tournament, and 2007 AT&T National. Was a member of the 2003, 2007, and 2011 Presidents Cup teams.

2012 Notes: Finished 102nd on the money list with earnings of $969,057, his first time outside the top 100 since his first year on the PGA Tour in 2000. In early October, he successfully defended his CJ Invitational title, an Asian Tour event he hosts. He donated just under $120,000 winnings to the K.J. Choi Foundation. His charitable work earned him the 2013 Golf Writers Association of America's Charlie Bartlett Award.

2013 Notes: Made the cut in 20 of 24 starts with a 6th place finish at the Valero Texas Open, the best of two top-10 show-

2014 Notes: Finished T-2nd at the Farmers Insurance Open after a first-round 74 and a T-2nd at the Travelers Championship when he finished just a shot back. In 23 starts, made the cut 17 times, was 69th in the FedExCup race, and 59th on the money list.

He was a vice-captain to Nick Price for the International team at The Presidents Cup in his homeland of South Korea. At the K.J. Choi Invitational on the Korean Golf Tour in mid-October 2014, he served as the tournament host and contended, finishing T-3rd.

2016 Notes: Played in 22 PGA Tour events, making 14 cuts with two top-ten finishes. He was 91st in the FedExCup standings. At the Farmers Insurance Open, he was the 54-hole leader and was caught up in the poor weather on Sunday. Finished on Monday and missed a birdie putt on the 72nd hole that would have forced a sudden-death playoff with Brandt Snedeker. His runner-up finish was his first since the 2014 Travelers Championship. 3 weeks later, finished T-5th at the Northern Trust Open. In May, finished T-5th in the SK Telecom Open on the Korean Tour. Was Rookie of the Year on the PGA Tour in 1997, winning the Canon Greater Hartford Open. He was the second rookie to exceed $800,000 in earnings (David Duval was the first). Owns eight PGA Tour victories. Member of 2002, '04, '06, '08 & '10 U.S. Ryder Cup Teams, and 2000, '07, and '09 Presidents Cup Teams. He ranked ninth in the Official World Golf Rankings after his 2009 British Open win.

2009 Notes: Won his first major championship title, the British Open, at Turnberry. He made a 12-foot birdie putt at the final hole of regulation, then took advantage of Tom Watson's missed eight-foot putt at his 72nd hole to overwhelm him in a four-hole playoff to win. Cink made two birdies and two pars in the playoff, while Watson made a par, two bogeys, and a double bogey. Cink finished with a 69 and a two-under-par 278 total for his sixth career victory. He posted a bogey-free 68 in the final round of the Bridgestone Invitational to finish T-6th. It was his fourth career bogey-free round at the Bridgestone Invitational at Firestone CC, tying Tiger Woods for the tournament's best mark. He finished T-19th at the Tour Championship in his eighth appearance at the event. He made the Presidents Cup team for the third consecutive time and fourth in his career. He finished 28th in the FedExCup standings and 17th on the money list.

2010 Notes: He turned in a career-low three top-10 finishes on his way to a 38th-place finish in the FedExCup standings. His 9th-place finish at the SBS Championship was six shots behind tournament winner Geoff Ogilvy. Cink's first three matches at the WGC-Accenture Match Play Championship went either 18 holes or extra holes before he lost in the quarterfinals, 5 and 4, to eventual runner-up Paul Casey. His T-5th finish followed a 3rd at Accenture in 2009 and a runner-up finish in 2008. He finished T-8th at the Memorial Tournament, and his sixth top-10 in 15 career starts at Muirfield Village. In his fifth Ryder Cup appearance, he posted a 1-0-3 record and won 2.5 points in the United States' narrow loss. Only Tiger Woods and Steve Stricker (3 points each) earned more.

2011 Notes: Managed just one top-10 finish for the first time since joining the PGA Tour in 1997. He finished T-9th at the Wells Fargo Championship for just his fifth top-10 since winning the 2009 British Open. He was T-3rd entering the final round before a 74 ended his chance to win.

2012 Notes: Finished 139th in the FedExCup standings, failing to finish inside the top 100 for the first time in the FedExCup era. Other career firsts: He didn't have a top-10 finish and was 149th on the money list with earnings of $477,173, his first time out of the top 125 since becoming a member of the PGA Tour in 1997.

2013 Notes: Bounced back a bit with three top-10s: T-10th Humana Challenge, T-6 Shell Houston Open, and 5th at the AT&T National. He began the season at 323rd in the world ranking and climbed to 165th by season's end. Finished year 76th in the FedExCup standings and 78th on the money list, exceeding the $1-million mark for the first time since 2010.

2014 Notes: Made a solid 21 of 25 cuts but did not record a top-10 for the second time in the last three years. His best finish was T-11th at the CIMB Classic. He advanced to the second FedExCup Playoffs event near Boston with six top-25 finishes. He ended the season with a T-50th finish at the Deutsche Bank Championship. He held the first-round lead at the Farmers Insurance Open but finished T-28th after weekend rounds of 79-72. Last season of his five-year PGA Tour exemption for winning the 2009 British Open.

2015 Notes: Made the cut in 15 of 23 starts, collecting one top-10 finish. He advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs before a T-39th at The Barclays ended his season at No. 102 in the FedExCup standings. His best finish was T-5th at the RBC Canadian Open. He added a T-9th late in the year at the European Tour's Alfred Dunhill Links Championship, thanks to a 65-69-67 effort over his final 54 holes in Scotland.

2016 Notes: A challenging year with his wife, Lisa, who was diagnosed with breast cancer in April. Took six weeks off. He played 19 events, making 11 cuts. His best finish was T-17th at the CIMB Classic. With the limited schedule, he finished 147th in the FedExCup standings and 162nd on the money list.

2017 Notes: Played 26 PGA Tour events, making 20 cuts. He was in the top 10 three times, and his 53rd-place ranking in the FedExCup standings was his best showing since he finished 38th in 2010. Was T-10th at the RSM Classic and Dean & DeLuca Invitational. He was T-10th at the FedEx St. Jude Classic despite a final-round 73.

2018 Notes: Played in 25 events, making 18 cuts. He was in the top 10 three times and finished 73rd in the FedExCup standings. All of his top-10s came in the summer: T-4th at the FedEx St. Jude Classic; T-2nd two weeks later at the Travelers Championship (his best finish since his British Open win in 2009); and T-4th at the PGA Championship, five shots behind winner Brooks Koepka. During the last part of the season, he endured lower back pain, the first time in his career that he had to deal with the problem.

2019 Notes: He played in 16 PGA Tour events, making eight cuts and three top-25 finishes. He was 179th in the FedExCup rankings. He started his year with a T-13th at the CIMB Classic, which would be his best finish of the year. The good thing is that his back has returned to normal without pain.

2020 Notes: Played in 14 PGA Tour events with one top-ten finish and was 144th in the FedExCup standings. His best finish was T-9th at the Houston Open.

2021 Notes: Played in 26 PGA Tour events, making 19 cuts with three top-10 finishes. Was 26th in the FedExCup rankings. Cink went into the new season with some changes. First, his wife Lisa was cancer-free and able to travel with Cink, and his son Reagan agreed to come out and caddie for Dad. With all this, Cink's game came together at the season's first event, the Safeway Open. With rounds of 67-70-65-65, he won by two over Harry Higgs for his seventh PGA Tour title and first since the British Open in 2009, a span of 4,074 days. At age 47 years, 115 days, he became the oldest winner on the PGA Tour at the time since Phil Mickelson's victory at the 2019 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am. He had another top-ten with a T-4th at the Bermuda Championship, three shots back of winner Brian Gay. Cink showed his great game again at the RBC Heritage and earned his eighth PGA Tour victory with a 4-shot victory. It was his 610th PGA Tour start at age 47 years, 10 months, and 28 days old. He opened the tournament with rounds of 63-63, and was the second and third-round leader. Shot 70 in the final round to beat Emiliano Grillo and Harold Varner by four shots. Became the fourth player over the age of 47 to win multiple times in a season on the PGA Tour since 1960.

2022 Notes: Played in 25 PGA Tour events, making 13 cuts with two top-ten finishes. Was 126th in the FedExCup rankings. Shot four rounds in the 60s to finish T-7th at the Valspar Championship. Shot a final-round 65 to finish T-9th at the Wells Fargo Championship. In the FedExCup playoffs, he missed the cut at the FedEx St. Jude Championship.

2023 Notes: He played in 27 PGA Tour events, making 13 cuts and one top-ten finish. He was 167th in the FedExCup rankings and 7th in the 2023 Butterfield Bermuda Championship. Played in four PGA Tour Champions events. Finished 3rd at the Senior PGA, two shots back of the winner, Steve Stricker. Was T-7th in both the Kaulig Company Championship and Pure Insurance Championship.

2024 Notes: Played in 16 PGA Tour events, making 8 cuts with two top-25 finishes. Best finish was T-17th at the RSM Classic and T-24th at the Sony Open in Hawaii. Played in 11 PGA Tour Champions events with nine top-ten finishes. Was 13th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $1,258,156. In his 10th start on PGA Tour Champions and first at The Ally Challenge, he followed an opening round 5-under 67 with back-to-back 66s to claim his first career win by a margin of four shots at 17-under 199. The winning score matched the low 54-hole score in the tournament's history (Joe Durant/2021). The 4-stroke margin of victory also matched the largest for the season on the PGA Tour Champions.

2025 Notes: Played in 21 PGA Tour Champions events with 15 top-ten finishes. Was 1st on the Schwab Cup points list and 1st on the Schwab money list with earnings of $3,247,147. Finished in the top eight in five of his first six starts, including finishing T-2nd at the Hoag Classic, one shot back of the winner Miguel Angel Jimenez. At the Insuperity Invitational, he began the day two shots off the pace. Shot a 4-under 68 that included a birdie putt at the par-4 17th to move into a tie at 11-under and force a playoff with Retief Goosen. The 51-year-old birdied the first playoff hole to win his second PGA Tour Champions victory. Was T-4th at the Senior PGA Championship, two shots back of the winner Angel Cabrera. Finished 3rd at the Kauling Companies Championship, a shot back of the Miguel Angel Jimenez/Steven Alker playoff. Was 2nd at the U.S. Senior Open, a shot back of the winner, Padraig Harrington. Won another playoff, this time against Ernie Els at the Ally Challenge. Ended his season with a final round 67 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, to win by two shots over Steven Alker. The event helped Cink win the Charles Schwab Cup points. Going into the season-ending event, he was 3rd on the points list behind Steven Alker and Miguel Angel Jimenez, so by winning the tournament, he wrapped up the season-long points race.

2026 Notes: Won the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. He shot a final round 64 to beat Angel Cabrera by two shots. Also won the Hoag Classic by four shots over Zach Johnson and Ernie Els.

Player Notes: Northern Ireland's Darren Clarke played collegiate golf briefly in 1987 at Wake Forest University. He turned professional three years later and played his first full season on the European Tour in 1991. Clarke won his first title at the 1993 Alfred Dunhill Open, finishing two shots ahead of Nick Faldo and Vijay Singh. He won again in 1996, twice in 1998, and once in 1999.

Clarke's international breakthrough came in 2000, when he defeated Tiger Woods in the final, 4 & 3, at the 2000 WGC-Accenture Match Play Championship at La Costa. This was Clarke's biggest victory at the time and netted him the $1-million first-place prize. In the event, Clarke faced a challenging route, defeating big-name players, including Paul Azinger, Mark O'Meara, Thomas Bjorn, Hal Sutton, and David Duval, before taking on Woods in the final. Clarke followed that victory with another WGC win at the 2003 Bridgestone, shooting a final-round 67 for a four-shot victory. Between 1993 and 2003, he won eight more events on the European Tour.

His wife, Heather, was diagnosed with primary breast cancer in December 2001 and, in 2004, with secondary breast cancer. He took time away from golf to care for her and their two sons, Tyrone and Conor. She passed away in August 2006. Clarke was a captain's pick for the European Ryder Cup Team three weeks later. The Matches were conducted at The K Club. In an emotionally charged week, he played superbly, winning all three of his matches in a European victory.

A dedicated worker for charity, Clarke organized a unique Pro-Am at Portmarnock in September 1998 to benefit the victims of the Omagh bombing tragedy. He also set up the Darren Clarke Foundation, which helps advance junior golf development in Ireland and raises money for breast cancer awareness.

Clarke won once in 2008 at the BMW Asian Open but didn't win again until the 2011 Iberdrola Open in Spain. The latter set him up for the most significant victory of his career. Playing his 54th major at the 2011 Open Championship at Royal St. George's in England, Clarke posted four rounds of par or better to defeat Phil Mickelson and Dustin Johnson by three shots. Only Tom Kite (72 starts) and Mark O'Meara (59 starts) took longer to win their first major. He became just the second Open champion from Northern Ireland, joining Fred Daly, who won in 1947. He also became the fourth player from Northern Ireland to win a major, joining Daly, Graeme McDowell, and Rory McIlroy. It took Clarke 20 starts to win the Open, the longest period for any player to record a first win at the major. At 42 years, 11 months, and 3 days old, he became the oldest Open champion since Roberto De Vicenzo won in 1967 at age 44 years, 93 days, and the oldest major winner since Ben Crenshaw, who was 43 years, 2 months, 29 days at the 1995 Masters. The win vaulted him to 30th in the world rankings.

Later that year, he became an honorary member of the European Tour and was awarded an Order of the British Empire. He was given the PGA Recognition Award in 2012, the same year he married his current wife, Alison Campbell.

Clarke played in five Ryder Cup Matches (1997, 1999, 2002, 2004, and 2006), served as one of captain Colin Montgomerie's vice-captains in the win at The Celtic Manor Resort in 2010, and was a vice-captain for Jose Maria Olazabal's team in the victory at Medinah in 2012. He captained the European Team at the 2016 Ryder Cup.

2012 Notes: In 20 European and PGA Tour starts, Clarke posted one top-25 finish, T-17th at the Volvo World Match Play Championship. He finished T-8th at the 2012 Australian PGA Championship. In April, he remarried Alison Campbell, whom he met in November 2009 on a blind date set up by Graeme McDowell.

2013 Notes: Clarke started the year 150th in the rankings, and in March, tore a hamstring while playing tennis with his two sons. Recovery proved slow, and he took two months off from play. He played 17 events and only had one top-10, a T-2nd at the Nanshan China Masters. He ended the year ranked 296th worldwide and announced he would join the PGA Tour and play full-time in America in 2014. (He had given up his PGA Tour card in 2006 to play full-time in Europe).

2014 Notes: When Clarke appeared in his first event of the year at the Volvo Golf Championship, he had dropped 40 pounds, thanks to a new workout routine he started the previous October. He pulled a chest muscle at the Qatar Masters, and it took most of the year for the injury to heal. He played in 26 events and only had one top-15 finish, T-15th at the Asian Tour's Dubai Open.

2015 Notes: Clarke started the year healthy, but his best finish was T-15th at the Tshwane Open, which would be his last top-25 finish in any event worldwide. He withdrew during the first round at The Players Championship due to a sore wrist, but it hasn't been a problem since. Clarke was named in February as the captain of the 2016 European Ryder Cup team, which would be a lot of his time.

2016 Notes: Only made three cuts, T-43rd at the Irish Open, T-61st at Abu Dhabi Golf Championship, and T-30th at the Open Championship. Was on the losing side of the Ryder Cup at Hazeltine

2017 Notes: Didn't play on the weekend in 12 events. Did some TV commentary work for both Sky Sports and NBC Sports.

2018 Notes: Made his first cut since the 2016 Open championship with a T-61st at the NBO Oman Open. He made another cut on the European Tour, 63rd on the Hero Indian Open. He turned 50 over the summer and made six PGA Tour Champions appearances. He had a season-best T-24th at the Boeing Classic. He finished 90th on the money list.

2019 Notes: Played a full-time schedule on the PGA Tour Champions in 22 events and was in the top ten four times. He was 43rd on the Charles Schwab Cup points list. His first event of the year was T-10th in the Oasis Championship. Was T-2nd at the Cologuard Classic, made a 50-foot par putt on the final hole to finish 4 shots back of winner Mark O'Meara. He was T-4th at the Mastercard Japan Championship, finishing 4 shots back of the winner Scott McCarron. In the Senior Open Championship was T-10th.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 32 PGA Tour Champions events with nine top-tens and finished 6th in the Charles Schwab Cup. He was T-9th at the 2020 Charles Schwab Series at Bass Pro Shops Big Cedar Lodge, three shots back of the Bertsch/Day/Langer/Perry playoff. He got his first PGA Tour Champions to win at the TimberTech Championship. With rounds of 69-62-68 and a birdie on his final hole in the final round was a shot better than Jim Furyk and Bernhard Langer. That would be his last start in 2020. In 2021, he won his first start at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. He did it with birdies on four of his last six holes in the final round for a two-shot win over Retief Goosen. Was T-8th at the Regions Tradition and Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Shot a final round 67 at the Senior Open Championship to finish 3rd, two shots back of the winner, Stephen Dodd. He had his third season win at the 2021 Sanford International, defeating Steve Flesch and K.J. Choi in a playoff. Shot a final round 65 to overcome a four-shot deficit going into the final round. In the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, he shot a final round 64 to finish T-3rd, two shots back of the winner Phil Mickelson.

Player Notes: Daly started to play golf at age 4 when his father gave him a set of cut-down clubs. Attended high school in Jefferson City, Missouri, and went on to win the 1983 and '84 Missouri and Arkansas State Amateurs and the 1987 Missouri Open. After he turned professional in 1987, Daly competed on the South African Tour and then played on the Ben Hogan Tour in 1990. He won the Ben Hogan Utah Classic and finished ninth in earnings on the Korn Ferry Tour, then got his PGA Tour card by finishing 14th at the 1990 Q-School. Daly had a most auspicious rookie year on the Tour, dazzling everyone with his length and winning the 1991 PGA Championship at Crooked Stick in Carmel, Ind., as the ninth alternate and without the benefit of a practice round. He won the 1992 B.C. Open, and then after some personal struggles, won the 1994 BellSouth Classic in Atlanta. He captured the 1995 Open Championship at St. Andrews, defeating Italy's Costantino Rocca in a four-hole playoff. Always a crowd-pleaser, Daly is one of the longest hitters golf has ever seen. Between 1991 and 2002, he led the Tour's driving-distance category for 11 of the 12 years. His career was reborn in 2004 when he won the Buick Invitational, beating Chris Riley and Luke Donald in a playoff. That same year, he finished runner-up to Vijay Singh at the Buick Open, moving into the top 50 in the Official World Golf Ranking (No. 57 to 36). He underwent surgery on his right heel on Sept. 30 to remove bone spurs. He finished the year 21st on the money list, winning over a million dollars for the first time in his career with $2,359,507. In 2005, lost the playoffs first to Vijay Singh at the Shell Houston Open and then to Tiger Woods at the WGC-American Express Championship. Daly missed a 3-foot par putt to end the playoff after a Woods tap-in par. The $750,000 check pushed him past the $1-million mark ($1,707,387) for the second consecutive season and the secand time in his 15-year PGA Tour career. After that year, they only had three top tens on the PGA Tour; best finish was T-5th in the 2012 Reno-Tahoe Open.

2012 Notes: Competing on a sponsor's exemption, he collected his first top 10 of the season, a T-5th at the Reno-Tahoe Open, an event that used the modified Stableford scoring format. The T-5th was his first top 10 on the PGA Tour since a T-9th at the 2011 RBC Canadian Open and his best finish on the PGA Tour since he finished runner-up to Tiger Woods in a playoff at the 2005 World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. He briefly held the lead after an eagle on the par-5 13th in the third round, but he followed with three consecutive bogeys and never regained a share of the lead. In mid-December, they finished T-15 at the rain-shortened Iskandar Johor Open in Malaysia, 10 strokes off Sergio Garcia's winning total. He had a top 10 in his only Korn Ferry Tour start, T-6th at the News Sentinel Open.

2013 Notes: Made four of 12 cuts, finishing 235th in the FedExCup standings. In his 12th start of the season, at The Greenbrier Classic, he was forced to withdraw due to an elbow injury. A week later, he underwent season-ending elbow surgery in Fayetteville, Arkansas. He could play again in October; in his first start, he finished T-48 at the BMW Masters on the European Tour.

2014 Notes: Played in 20 events on the PGA, European, and Korn Ferry Tour; the best finish was T-32nd at the Sony Open in Hawaii. He finished 76th in his only Korn Ferry Tour start of the year at the South Georgia Classic.

2015 Notes: He had a T-10 in Puerto Rico, his first top 10 since the 2012 Barracuda Championship (T-5th). He suffered a collapsed lung on Aug. 29 on the 18th tee at a pro-am event at Deerfield CC in Canton, Miss. He was treated at Baptist Medical Center in Jackson, Miss., and was back on the golf course the next day. He had a lingering rib injury since 2007 that caused severe pain and affected his breathing. He also made six starts on the European Tour and made three cuts.

2016 Notes: In his much-anticipated PGA Tour Champions debut at the Insperity Invitational, he posted rounds of 70-73-71—214 (2-under) to finish T-17th. He was T-15th in his next start, the Regions Tradition. He had a T-11th at Dick's Sporting Goods Open, his best finish in 15 events. He was 71st on the money list and the Schwab ranking.

2017 Notes: Played in 18 PGA Tour Champions events, with 3 top-ten finishes; he ranked 22nd on the money list. On his return to the Insperity Invitational, the site of his first Champions Tour start, he shot rounds of 68-65-69 to win his first Champions Tour event. He finished the final round with 3 bogeys, but it was enough for a one-shot victory over Tommy Armour III and Kenny Perry. I also finished T-3rd at Dick's Sporting Goods Open and T-4th at the Charles Schwab Cup. With earnings of $806,922, it was the fourth-best year in his professional career. At the end of the year, he had trouble playing in the PowerShares QQQ Championship; he collapsed on the 9th tee in the second round. Arthritis and bone spurs on his knees were giving him problems, and he wasn't able to put any weight on his right knee and was forced to withdraw from the tournament.

2018 Notes: Played in 15 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-ten finishes. Best finish: T-5th at the Bass Pro Shops Legends with partner Michael Allen. Best finish in an individual start, T-7th at the American Family Insurance Championship. At the Masters, Daly drives his bus, too; he was a victim of an accident while the bus was parked in an Augusta parking lot. A car lost control while making a U-turn and plowed into Daly's RV. Daly could jump out of the car's path, but not before the knee that had given him problems was reinjured. Since then, he had to withdraw from the Insperity Invitational, Regions Tradition, FedEx St. Jude Classic, U.S. Senior Open, Constellation Senior Players, the British Open, Dick's Sporting Good, Ally Challenge, and Sanford International.

2019 Notes: Played in 18 PGA Tour Champions Tour events with three top-ten finishes. Shot a final round of 66 to finish T-5th at the American Family Insurance Championship, 2 shots back of the Kelly/Stricker/Goosen playoff. I was T-7th at the Bass Pro Shops Legends with partner Joe Durant. Was T-8th at the Rapiscan Systems. He finished 69th at the Barracuda Championship and missed the cut at the PGA Championship and Barbasol Championship.

2020/21 Notes: On the PGA Tour in 2020, missed the cut at the Military Tribute at the Greenbrier and Safeway. He played in 29 Champions Tour events in 2020/21 with three top-ten finishes. It was 58th on the money list with $461,688 in earnings and was 58th in the Schwab Cup Rankings. He was T-9th at the 2020 Cologuard Classic. Had his first runner-up finish on the PGA Tour Champions with his second-place finish at the 2021 Insperity Invitational. He had a share of the lead going into his final hole in the final round, but put his 2nd shot into the lake in front of the green and made a double bogey. He finished two shots back of the winner, Mike Weir. T-10th at the Regions Tradition. Daly was diagnosed with bladder cancer in September 2020. In May of 2021, Daly said that his cancer was detected early, "which is great. I've had two rounds of chemo, and the last test shows that the cancer at the moment is benign. I go back for testing in October, and if it's benign at that point, I go back for testing once a year for five years." Played in four PGA Tour events in 2021 and missed four cuts, including the PGA Championship. At the end of the year, Daly, with his son John II won the PNC Championship.

2022 Notes: Played in 18 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. He was 69th in the Schwab Rankings and 68th on the money list with $204,313. In his first start of the year at the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai, he finished 27th. In the PGA Championship at Southern Hills, he got off to a great start, playing his first 13 holes in 2 under, but made a bogey on four of his last five holes to shoot 72. Player Notes: Born in Huntington, New York, DiMarco moved to Florida with his family at age seven. He attended Lake Brantley High School in Altamonte Springs, where he played for the school's golf team and began dating his future wife at 17. DiMarco was raised in a sports-oriented family; both of his older brothers were athletes, and his father played college basketball for St. John's University. DiMarco's nephew, Patrick DiMarco, is a professional football player.

DiMarco accepted an athletic scholarship to the University of Florida in Gainesville, where he played for coach Lynn Blevins and coach Buddy Alexander's Gator golf teams from 1987 to 1990. He shot a three-round score of 209 to win the Southeastern Conference (SEC) individual title in 1989 while leading the Gators to an SEC team championship. He was also a seven-time medalist, a first-team All-SEC selection in 1989 and 1990, the SEC Player of the Year in 1990, and an All-American in 1988, 1989, and 1990. DiMarco was inducted into the University of Florida Athletic Hall of Fame as a "Gator Great" in 2002.

DiMarco turned professional in 1990, won the Canadian Tour's Order of Merit as its money leader in 1992, and finished ninth on the Korn Ferry Tour in 1993 to earn his PGA Tour card for 1994.

He started playing on the PGA Tour in 1994 and earned $216,839, placing 85th on the money list. He lost his card the following year, finishing 174th in earnings. He played on the Korn Ferry Tour in 1997, traveling from stop to stop in a custom-made van decorated in the colors of the Florida Gators. He finished third on the Korn Ferry Tour with earnings of $135,513, which got him his tour card for 1998.

He played full-time on the PGA Tour from 1998 to 2012. In 518 events, he made 334 cuts with 63 top-ten finishes. He won three times and, between 2000 and 2006, earned at least $1 million a year, and in five of those years, earning over $2.3 million. His best financial year was 2005, when he won $3,562,548 and had three runner-up finishes and ten top-ten finishes.

He is best known on Tour for his unusual putting grip, nicknamed "the Claw." He grips a standard putter much like a long putter and credits Skip Kendall, who inspired him to the unusual grip in 1995. He was a member of the 2004 and 2006 Ryder Cup and 2003 and 2005 Presidents Cup teams. DiMarco sank a 15-foot putt to beat Stuart Appleby and clinch the 2005 Presidents Cup.

He's a heart and cancer philanthropist. The Norma DiMarco Tee Up For Life Tournament, named after his mother, who died of a heart attack in July 2006, has raised more than $4 million for children with cancer. Donations have been made to the American Cancer Society to support projects like "Reach Out for Cancer Kids," college scholarships, and a research endowment. According to the American Cancer Society, the Norma DiMarco Tee Up For Life Tournament is the largest fundraiser of its kind in the nation.

Challenge Tour wins: 2001 Telia Grand Prix, BMW Russian Open, 2007 Abierto Telefonica de Guatemala

Legends Tour Victories: 2025 Champions UK Senior European Masters, 2026 Staysure Marbella Legends

Player Notes: Donaldson, born in Pontypridd, Wales, comes from a sports-loving family. His younger brother, Alex, plays football and his father, Jim, is a single-digit handicap golfer. He finished his amateur career in 2000 with a 2nd-place result at the Brabazon and St. Andrews Links Trophies and helped the Great Britain and Ireland Team to the second spot at the Eisenhower Trophy.

He turned professional in 2000. Having failed to come through the European Tour's Qualifying School, he played on the 2001 Challenge Tour. He won the BMW Russian Open and the Telia Grand Prix in Sweden on his way to 2nd-place in the Challenge Tour rankings. He also made the most of limited opportunities on the elite tour, making five cuts in seven events, with two top-10 finishes. He ended the season inside the top 100 on the Order of Merit to earn his European Tour card for 2002.

Donaldson spent the next few years playing on that tour, reaching a best finish of 58th on the final 2003 Order of Merit, but began to experience back problems in 2004. In 2007, he returned to the Challenge Tour, picking up his third win at the Abierto Telefonica de Guatemala on his way to 4th place in the season-ending rankings. He was back on the European Tour in 2008 and again finished inside the top 100 on the Order of Merit to maintain his playing rights for the 2009 season. He has since performed consistently, finishing in the top 50 on the Order of Merit in both 2010 and 2011.

2011 Notes: Finished 38th in The Race to Dubai, thanks to seven top-10 finishes, including a T-3rd at the Omega European Masters. He showed an affinity for the team format, making his Vivendi Seve Trophy debut in 2011 and helping Great Britain and Ireland Team to victory over Continental Europe.

2012 Notes: He finished 19th in the 2012 Race to Dubai, due largely to his victory at the Irish Open. Donaldson fired a final-round 66 to win by four shots at Royal Portrush, securing his first European Tour win in his 255th attempt. It made him the 10th Welshman to find success on the European Tour. He also had success in his third major start, finishing T-7th at the PGA Championship.

2013 Notes: Started with a win at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship and finished the year in style with three consecutive top-10s in the Final Series, including 2nd at the Turkish Airlines Open, with a final-round 63. He ended the season with a career-best 5th in The Race to Dubai.

2014 Notes: Started off with a T-2nd at the Nedbank Golf Challenge, two shots behind winner Thomas Bjorn. He also finished runner-up behind Patrick Reed at the WGC-Cadillac Championship. That result, along with his T-8th at the WGC-HSBC Champions, gave him enough FedExCup points to earn a Special Temporary Membership on the PGA Tour, which he accepted two days after the Cadillac. Donaldson was also a full-time member on the European Tour. He added his third and fourth top-10s of the year with back-to-back T-5th finishes at the BMW International Open and Alstom Open de France. He finished his PGA Tour season with a T-24th at the PGA Championship and was able to collect enough FedExCup points to finish in the top 125 and gain an exemption for 2015 membership. At that point, he turned his attention to the European Tour and, in his first event after the PGA Championship, won the Czech Masters. He finished 4th in The Race to Dubai. The win in Czechoslovakia helped him secure a berth on the European Ryder Cup Team, and in five matches, he went 3-1-0, clinching the decisive point with a 4&3 victory over Keegan Bradley in the singles.

2015 Notes: His first top-10 was a T-9th result at the Abu Dhabi Championship, and he finished T-6th at the Honda Classic. His third top-10 was T-8th at The Players Championship. He added one more, a T-5th, at the Porsche European Open. Finished the year 48th in The Race to Dubai. Finished the year on a good note by winning the Thailand Golf Championship on the Asian Tour.

2016 Notes: Played in 17 European Tour events making 7 cuts with one top-ten finish. Was 88th in the Race to Dubai. Started his year with a near-disastrous chainsaw accident on his left hand in January. Most of the injury affected his little finger, which required stitches. Was able to play two weeks later, missing the cut in Singapore and in Dubai the following week. Got his top-ten with a T-10th at the Irish Open.

2017 Notes: Played in 23 European Tour events making 12 cuts with three top-ten finishes. Was 7th at the Nordea Masters and T-9th at the Saltire Energy Paul Lewis Match Play. Player Notes: Started playing golf at the age of 12 and, at 17, experienced playing in The 1992 Open Championship at Muirfield, where he acted as a marker for, firstly, Roger Chapman and then John Daly over the final two rounds. Has become something of an expert in dramatic end-of-season finales, starting in 2003, when he narrowly missed out on retaining his European Tour card. Twelve months later, he secured a last-minute return at the Challenge Tour Grand Final, winning a sudden-death play-off against Mattias Eliasson to finish 12th on the Rankings. Then followed two years in which he agonized over finishing one place outside those who kept their playing privileges by right. Missed out by Euro586 in 2005 and Euro1,139 in 2006. Incredibly, also missed out by a shot at the 2005 Qualifying School Final Stage, but put that right in 2006 when he took third place at San Roque. Won back his card once again at the Qualifying School in 2007 after an injury-ravaged season and yet again in 2008.

Prior to 2009, Drysdale's best finish on the European Tour had been as runner-up at the 2006 Russian Open. In March 2009, he equaled that by finishing 2nd in the Open de Andalucia. That result in Spain followed a 3rd place in the Joburg Open earlier in the season, allowed Drysdale to qualify for the season ending Dubai World Championship. He finished the season inside the top 50 on the Race to Dubai, to comfortably retain his card for the 2010 season. In the years after still struggled to keep his European Tour card.

Player Notes: Duke was born in Hope, Arkansas. As a seventh-grader growing up in Arkadelphia, Ark, he was diagnosed with scoliosis and wore a back brace 23 hours a day. At 15 years old, doctors discovered his back was angled at 51 degrees. Five months later, the curve was at 72 degrees and worsening. Duke had surgery and had a 16-inch metal rod attached to his spine. A football and baseball player, contact sports were now finished for Duke, although his focus was elsewhere. "I was just hoping to be able to walk again," Duke says. Within five months of surgery, Duke was hitting balls; six months later, he won medalist honors at a high school district tournament while wearing a back brace. Duke played his college golf at Division II Henderson State University. He credits his father for giving him his start in golf, but says legendary instructor Bob Toski changed his swing and life.

After turning professional in 1994, Duke bounced around the world, playing mini-tours and on the Asian, South American, and Canadian Tours. Played on the Korn Ferry Tour in 1995, again in 2003, and then between 2005 and 2011. First played on the PGA Tour in 2004, 2007 through 2009, then in 2012, and this year. He finally won on the PGA Tour at the 2013 Travelers Championship, defeating Chris Stroud on the second playoff hole. It was his 187th start at age 44 years, 4 months, and 25 days.

Won the 1995 Arkansas Open and finished first on the 1999 Canadian Tour Order of Merit with $122,187. He won the 1999 Shell Payless Open and Bayer Championship on the Canadian Tour. He played in the 1997 British Open Championship. He competed in the 1993 and 1994 U.S. Amateurs.

2012 Notes: Paired with 54-hole leader Charlie Wi in the final group on Sunday at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am but could not mount a charge with a 2-over 74, finishing T-7th, seven behind winner Phil Mickelson. Shot four rounds in the 60s at the Transitions Championship to finish T-5th (12-under), one shot out of a four-man playoff. He shared the first-round lead at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans (7-under 65) and recorded his third top-10 of the season with a T-7th. He earned his fourth top-10 of the year, with a T-7th at the HP Byron Nelson Championship. His fifth top-10 of the season came with a T-7th at the FedEx St. Jude Classic. He was as close as one stroke out of the lead heading down the stretch of The Greenbrier Classic before back-to-back double bogeys on holes 15 and 16 left him T-7th. It was his career-best sixth top-10 finish of the season, tying him for the most on the PGA Tour. He missed the cut at the first two FedExCup Playoff events, culminating with a No. 76 finish in the FedExCup standings and 57th on the money list.

2013 Notes: Not as consistent as the previous year, he missed 10 cuts in his first 18 starts, but all of that was forgotten with his win at the Travelers Championship. Finished 67th in the FedExCup race and 50th on the money list with a career-high $1,722,583 in earnings.

2014 Notes: Played in 25 PGA Tour events, making 16 cuts. He had only two top-25 finishes: T-15th at the Shriners Hospitals and T-16th at the Hyundai Tournament. He finished 157th in the FedExCup standings.

Shot 72 in the final round allowed him to jump 47 spots in the FedExCup standings from 194th to 147th, the greatest improvement of any player that week. He posted his second top-10 of the season four starts later at the FedEx St. Jude Classic, T-9th. Went on to finish 153rd in FedExCup points, outside the top 125 who advance to the FedExCup Playoffs. Earned $773,025 to finish 118th on the money list and remain exempt for the 2017 season, the last time players could retain their PGA Tour card for the next season by finishing inside the top 125 on the money list.

2017 Notes: Played in 26 PGA Tour events, making 13 cuts with only one top-25 finish, T-23rd at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-am. For a second straight season, he failed to finish inside the top 125 in the FedExCup standings and advance to the FedExCup Playoffs. Played in the Korn Ferry playoffs but missed the cut in two events and couldn't muster anything in the other two, finishing 101st in the priority rankings. So he will play the 2018 season out of the past champion category.

2018 Notes: He played in 15 PGA Tour events and made six cuts. His best finish was T-42nd at the Barracuda Championship. He finished 218th in the FedExCup standings. Duke began his professional career playing on the PGA Tour Canada in 1996. He is the 20th different player to win on the Korn Ferry Tour, PGA TOUR, and PGA TOUR Champions. Player Notes: Born in Pittsburgh, Dunlap received an athletic scholarship to attend the University of Florida, where he played for the Gators' golf team from 1982 to 1985, helping them to the 1985 Southeastern Conference championship. The same year, he was recognized as a first-team All-SEC selection, All-American, and Golfweek Male Amateur of the Year. He received his bachelor's degree in finance in 1986, the same year his younger sister, Page Dunlap [now Halpin], a former LPGA player and Vanderbilt's head women's golf coach, won the NCAA Women's Golf Championship as a member of the Gators women's golf team.

Dunlap played on the Korn Ferry Tour in 1990, 1998, and from 2003 to 2013, notching two victories at the 2004 Mark Christopher Charity Classic and 2008 Panama Movistar Championship. He played on the PGA Tour from 1996 to 1997, 1999 to 2002, and in 2012. In 204 starts, his best performances on the PGA Tour include a trio of third-place finishes at the 1996 Bell Canadian Open, 1999 Doral-Ryder Open, and 2000 The Players Championship. His performance in the 2000 Players helped propel him to a career-best 44th-place finish on the PGA Tour money list. He has notched 10 top-10 finishes on the PGA Tour, collecting $2,930,471 in earnings.

2013 Notes: Open-qualified for the AT&T Championship, the PGA Tour Champions' final full-field tournament. Finished T-15th in San Antonio. Had 22 starts on the Korn Ferry Tour with a trio of top-10 finishes. Two were in his first four starts when he was T-4th at the Panama Claro Championship and T-6th at the Brasil Classic. Earned fully-exempt status for the PGA Tour Champions in 2014 with his fourth-place finish at the National Qualifying Tournament at TPC Scottsdale. Closed with a 1-over par 73 and was one of five players to finish T-4th through 72 holes. He secured one of the two remaining fully-exempt positions by making par on the first playoff hole.

2014 Notes: Earned Rookie of the Year honors on the PGA Tour Champions, thanks to a victory and pair of second-place finishes, all within a four-event stretch in the latter third of the season. Earnings of $1.1 million were a personal best, surpassing his 2000 PGA Tour season ($1,040,244). The highlight of his year was in August when he defeated Mark Brooks in a one-hole playoff at the Boeing Classic. His win at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge came in his 16th start on the Champions Tour and ended a victory drought of more than six years since a title in Panama on the Korn Ferry Tour. For the win, he earned a $300,000 check, the largest of his career. Two weeks after winning the Boeing event, he nearly won again in Quebec City with an eagle on the last hole to appear to earn at least a play-off spot, but saw Wes Short Jr. finish fast with a birdie-birdie-eagle run to edge him by a shot at the Quebec Championship. His strong play continued in his next outing in Hawaii two weeks later. He had birdies on six of his first 12 holes Sunday to take the lead at one point at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship. A bogey at No. 13 would prove costly and lead to an eventual T-2nd finish with Fred Funk one stroke behind Paul Goydos. He finished the year 10th on the money list and 14th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Had 10 top-10 finishes in 22 starts, with a pair of runner-up finishes in the 3M and San Antonio Championship. His best finish in a major was T-7th at the U.S. Senior Open. He was 10th on the money list and 13th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Had a runner-up finish at the Mississippi Gulf Resort and 3 times at the Chubb Classic, Pacific Links Bear Mountain Championship, and PowerShares QQQ. He was 12th on the money list and 13th in the Schwab rankings.

2017 Notes: Played in 24 events and thanks to finishing the year with five straight top-20 finishes, got into the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. It was his fourth time in that event, and he finished T-12th, finishing the year 28th on the money list and 25th in the Schwab Rankings. Had a pair of top-10s, T-3rd at the Shaw Charity Classic, three back of winner Scott McCarron, and T-7th at the Insuperity Invitational.

2018 Notes: Played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events with six top-ten finishes. He started his year by finishing 2nd, a shot behind winner Scott Parel in the unofficial Diamond Resorts Invitational. He was T-2nd at the Cologuard Classic, two shots back of winner Steve Stricker. He was also T-10th at the Boca Raton Championship and the Insuperity Invitational. T-9th at the Pure Insurance Championship and T-7th at the SAS Championship. Advanced to the Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the fifth straight year. Despite posting six top-10s and one runner-up finish, his $675,676 in winnings and 33rd-place finish in the standings were the lowest outputs of his PGA TOUR Champions career. For most of the year, Dunlap dealt with a left wrist injury that needed post-season surgery.

2019 Notes: He played in just four PGA Tour Champions events. He made his first start back from surgery, finishing T-44th at the Senior PGA Championship. His best finish was T-29th at the Senior Open Championship.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 32 PGA Tour Champions events with four top-tens and finished 45th in the Charles Schwab Cup. With his health problems solved, he had a busier schedule. He was 9th at the 2020 Hoag Classic, his best finish for the year. In 2021, his first top-ten was at the Pure Insurance Championship. He finished 4th, shooting a final-round 66, three shots back from the winner K.J. Choi. He was T-9th at the SAS Championship and T-8th at the TimberTech Championship. He went back to the Qualifying Tournament and finished T-21st.

2022 Notes: He played in 23 PGA Tour Champions events, with one top-ten finish. He finished 47th in the Schwab rankings and 50th on the money list, earning $441,373. He was T-4th at the Ally Challenge, three shots back of winner Steve Stricker.

2023 Notes: Played in 23 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. Finished 49th in the Schwab rankings and 48th on the money list, earning $416,699. The 2014 Boeing Classic champion finished T-9th in 2023 for his first top-10 of the season. Followed an even-par 70 in round one of the Shaw Charity Classic with his PGA Tour Champions career-low score of 8-under 62 in round two. Closed with a 3-under 67 in the final round to finish T-4th, three shots back of the winner, Ken Duke.

2024 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. Was 37th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $650,404. Shot 65-70 at the rain-shortened In-sperity Invitational to win for the second time by a shot over Stuart Appleby and Joe Durant.

2025 Notes: Played in 21 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. Was 75th on the Schwab Cup points list and 75th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $198,911. Best finish: T-9th at the In-sperity Invitational.

Player Notes: Els made up four shots on Adam Scott over the last four holes and birdied the final hole to win the 2012 Open Championship at Royal Lytham. It was his second Open Championship triumph, having also won in 2002 at Muirfield. The popular South African has won four major championships, including the 1994 and 1997 U.S. Opens at Oakmont and Congressional, respectively.

Els, an accomplished junior tennis player, began playing golf at age 9 and turned his full attention to it at 14. His first significant international victory was at the Junior World Golf Championship, where he defeated Phil Mickelson in a playoff. He was the South African Amateur Champion at age 16, and at 22, he won the South African Open, PGA Championship, and Masters titles, becoming the first to do so since Gary Player in 1979.

Els joined the PGA Tour at the end of 1994 and, with his win at the 1999 Nissan Open, became the first player since Jack Nicklaus to win at least once in each of his first six years on tour. At one point, he was on three tours simultaneously: the PGA Tour, the European Tour, and the South African Tour.

He played on eight Presidents Cup teams in 1996, '98, 2000, '03, '07, '09, '11, and '13. Els is one of the world's true global golfers and has more than 70 career victories worldwide.

He started cutting back on his international schedule in 2008 when his son, Ben, was diagnosed with autism. Since then, he has supported disadvantaged children, establishing the Els for Autism Foundation in 2008. He also began building golf courses and owns a winery in South Africa. Els was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 2011.

2012 Notes: Lost a playoff to Branden Grace at the Volvo Golf Champions, and two months later at the Transitions Championship, he missed a short putt at the 72nd hole that would have put him in a four-man playoff. At the Arnold Palmer Invitational, he finished T-4th but needed a 2nd- or 3rd-place finish to get into the Masters. He missed playing in the first major of the season for the only time since 1994. He lost another playoff to Jason Dufner at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. At the British Open, he started the final round six shots back but fired a second-round 32, including a birdie at the 72nd hole, to catch and pass third-round leader Adam Scott. The win came 10 years after he won his first Claret Jug, the second-longest gap in Open history. He finished the year 26th in the FedEx Cup race and 16th in the money race.

2013 Notes: Els won on the European Tour at the BMW International and finished T-6th at the BMW PGA Championship. He finished 2nd at the Asian Tour CIMB Niaga Indonesian Masters, a shot behind the winner Bernd Wiesberger. He was T-4th at the U.S. Open, finished 68th in the FedExCup race, and was 74th on the money list. At the Presidents Cup in Dublin, Ohio, he went 3-2-0, including a Sunday singles victory, in the International team's three-point loss to the U.S.

2014 Notes: He recorded four top-10 finishes worldwide, including a 4th-place finish at the WGC-Accenture Match Play, where he made it to the semifinals but lost to Victor Dubuisson, then to Rickie Fowler in a playoff for the third spot. Els had a T-7th result at the PGA Championship, T-5th at The Barclays, and T-5th at the Hong Kong Open. He made it to the FedExCup Playoffs for the eighth consecutive year, but his season ended with a 41st-place finish in the standings after a T-16th at the BMW Championship. He finished 37th in the Race to Dubai.

2015 Notes: For the first time in his career, Els didn't record a top-10 finish in 26 worldwide events. HARRISON FRAZAR

Birth Date: July 29, 1971

Birthplace: Dallas, Texas

Age: 54 Ht.: 6'0 Wt.: 190

Home: Dallas, Texas

College: Texas

Turned Professional: 1996

Joined PGA Tour: 1998

PGA Tour Playoff Record: 1-1

PGA Tour Champions Playoff Record: 1-0

PGA Tour Victories: 1 - 2011 FedEx St. Jude Classic

PGA Tour Champions Victories: 1 - 2023 Dominion Energy Charity Classic

Korn Ferry Tour Victory: 1 - 1997 South Carolina Classic

Won the 2011 Callaway Pebble Beach Invitational

Player Notes: He grew up in Abilene, Texas, and moved to Dallas in 1985, where he played with Justin Leonard at Royal Oaks C.C. The two were roommates at the University of Texas. He attended Highland Park High School, winning two state golf championships and being a three-time all-Texas selection. He then attended the University of Texas, where he majored in Psychology and Business Foundations. He played on the Longhorns golf team, where he was a three-time honorable mention All-American. In his junior year, he shot a 65 and led Texas to a 2nd-place team finish at the NCAA Championship. He made a hole-in-one on ESPN during the 1994 NCAA Championships.

Frazar worked as an analyst at a Dallas commercial real estate firm, managing and developing golf courses as part of his job. Initially, he did not intend to play golf professionally, but Mark Brooks convinced him to try it.

So after turning pro, he played in the PGA Tour Qualifying Tournament and finished 87th, which got him a Korn Ferry Tour spot for 1997.

In 1997, he played in 25 Korn Ferry Tour events, making 17 cuts with six top-ten finishes. He won at the South Carolina Classic, shooting 67-67 over the weekend for a three-shot win over R.W. Eaks. He was also 3rd at the Permian Basin Open, shooting 64-65 on the weekend, and finished three back of the winner, Paul Gow. He won $104,023 to finish 13th on the money list and earn his PGA Tour card.

For the next ten years, he was in the top 100 of the money list, and in 2007, he was 119th on the FedExCup points list, holding on to the PGA Tour Card. After the 2001 PGA Championship, had surgery on his right hip to repair a labral tear and ligament problems, then came back to play the last two events on the PGA Tour in 2001. That hip would be a problem down the road, in 2008 he struggled and finished 174th in the FedEx Cup. It forced him back to the Qualifying Tournament, and he was the medalist. He finished 104th on the FedEx Cup in 2009 to keep his card, but struggled with hip pain the following year. He did not play after the 2010 Travelers Championship and underwent hip surgery on August 3 due to "wear and tear."

He came back and finished 77th on the FedEx Cup in 2011, but the bulk of that came when he won his first career title at the FedEx St. Jude Classic. He entered the final round of the tournament one shot behind 54-hole leader Robert Karlsson but shot a 3-under 67 to force a playoff with Karlsson, which he won with a par on the third playoff hole, earning his first PGA Tour victory in his 355th career start. After that, he started struggling with consistency. His strength was making cuts and making checks, but the missed cuts began to add up. In 2012, he made 20 starts but only made 8 cuts. His season was saved by a great start: he was T-5th at the Sentry Tournament of Champions and, the following week, T-2nd at the Sony Open in Hawaii. 2012 would be the last year he held onto his PGA Tour card. The following year, he finished 223 and was never able to get his tour card back. In 2013, the signs were on the wall of retirement as a back injury caused him to miss the 2013 season. In 2015, he retired from playing. He went into designing golf courses in Texas. In 2017, he joined the Company of Trinity Forest Golfers and became the tournament liaison between Trinity Forest Golf Club and the PGA Tour when AT&T Byron Nelson moved to the new course.

Frazar's PGA Tour record is 409 events, 225 cuts, and 37 Top-ten finishes. He won once, was runner-up five times, and placed third six times. In his 18-year career, he earned $11,456,390.

In 2021, as he was getting ready to play on the PGA Tour Champions, he was able to play in some PGA Tour events due to a remaining medical extension. He played in the Palmetto Championship, the Rocket Mortgage Classic, and the John Deere Classic, missing the cut in all three. He also played in four Champions events. He finished T-16th at the Shaw Charity Classic in his first senior start. He also finished T-12th at the SAS Championship. At the end of the year, he went to the PGA Tour Champions Qualifying Tournament and finished T-32nd.

2022 Notes: Played in 15 PGA Tour Championships with one top-ten finish. He was 52nd in the Schwab ranking and 52nd on the money list, earning $389,421. He was 2nd at the Constellation Furyk & Friends, two shots back of the winner Steve Stricker.

2023 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with four top-ten finishes. Was 19th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $1,010,466. Was T-10th at the Trophy Hassan II. Held at least a share of the lead after each of the first three rounds before finishing T-3rd at the Kaulig Companies Championship. Finished T-3rd at The Ally Challenge for his second top-3 in his last five starts on PGA Tour Champions. Opened with back-to-back 67s before closing with 70. At the Dominion Energy Charity Classic, Frazar birdied the first hole of the sudden-death playoff for his first career win on the PGA Tour Champions in his 41st start, besting Richard Green. Posted a bogey-free 7-under 65 in round one to take the 18-hole lead, then followed up with rounds of 71 and 69 to force the playoff.

2024 Notes: Played in 5 PGA Tour Champions events. After opening the 2024 season with a runner-up finish at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai, he had a T-27th at the Chubb Classic, and he missed the next seven months, dealing with a neck injury. Returned to competition during the Ascension Charity Classic. He finished T-8th that week, his second-best finish of the season among his five starts.

2025 Notes: Played in 21 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. Was 54th on the Schwab Cup points list and 53rd on the Schwab money list with earnings of $386,923. Best finish, T-7th at the Kaulig Companies Championship.

2026 Notes: Best finish, T-35th at the James Hardie Invitational.

He became the golf coach at the University of Maryland. He successfully competed as a PGA Club Professional, winning the 1984 FootJoy National Assistants Championship and the Maryland State Open in 1984 and 1987.

In 1988, he finally succeeded at Qualifying School, and then succeeded again the next year. In the 1990 season, he had three top-10 finishes and continued to improve, winning for the first time in 1992 at the Houston Open. Led the PGA Tour in driving accuracy in 1995, 1996, 1999, 2000, and 2003. Between 1990 and the end of the 2006 season, he played in 534 PGA Tour events, more than any other player in that time period.

In 2007, he found success on both the PGA Tour and the Champions Tour. He became just the second Champions Tour player (the first was Craig Stadler) to win an event on both in the same season; at 50 years old, he had his eighth PGA Tour victory at the Mayakoba Golf Classic in Mexico and won the Champions Tour's Turtle Bay Championship that year.

In 2008, he was plagued by knee problems throughout much of the year. He underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee in mid-May before returning to action in early June. At the end of 2008, he suffered a staph infection in his right knee, which delayed the start of his 2009 season.

Won the 2009 U.S. Senior Open at Crooked Stick when he blew away the field, winning by six shots. Fired a bogey-free 7-under par 65 on Sunday to win the title, the largest victory margin in the championship since 1987. Victory occurred after he lost two Champions Tour events in playoffs at The Principal Charity Classic and Senior Open Championship.

Won the Champions Tour's 2010 JELD-WEN Tradition, defending his 2009 JELD-WEN title. At the end of 2010, he underwent a clean-up procedure on his right knee.

2011 Notes: His season was cut short by injuries, with his last start coming in late July at the U.S. Senior Open. Days later, he underwent surgery to repair a torn ligament in his left thumb at the Cleveland Clinic. Three days later, he had surgery in Jacksonville, Fla., to repair scar tissue in his right knee. Regardless, he had four top-10 finishes, including a runner-up at the ACE Group Classic in Naples.

2012 Notes: Won multiple Champions Tour titles, finishing fourth on the money list and claiming the fifth spot in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race, along with its $100,000 annuity. Birdied four of the last five holes to win the Insperity Championship and became the first player since Tom Watson, in the 2007 Senior Open Championship at Muirfield (Scotland), to win a PGA Tour and Champions Tour event at the same venue, the Tournament Course at The Woodlands C.C. in Houston, Texas. Five months later, he won the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

2013 Notes: He battled through a case of vertigo during the year, but still played in 24 events and had three top-three finishes. He and his teammate, Mike Goodes, finished T-2nd at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. Was the only player to record four consecutive par-or-better scores at the U.S. Senior Open, but still finished second, five strokes behind the winner, Kenny Perry, at Omaha (Neb.) C.C. It marked his second consecutive runner-up finish in the event, and along with his victory in 2009 and a runner-up finish in 2008, he has finished either first or second four times in the last six years. Late in the year, he closed with a 67 to finish T-3rd at the AT&T Championship in San Antonio, Texas, and ended the season 15th in the money race.

2014 Notes: He turned in six of his eight top-10 performances on the season, starting in early June when he teamed with Jeff Sluman to win the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. In September, he nearly won a second when he battled Scott Dunlap and eventual winner Paul Goydos throughout the final round at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship before finishing T-2nd, one shot back. He finished 38th on the money list and 35th in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Closing with a 66 at the Allianz Championship, including an eagle on the last hole, he finished T-3rd. He finished T-9th at the Regions Tradition and T-6th at the Encompass Championship. Was 33rd on the money list and 37th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Funk started the year T-11th at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai, had a total of 5 top-tens, but the first didn't come until June with a T-8th at the American Family Insurance. Also had top-tens, T-6th at the Boeing Classic, T-10th at the Pacific Links Bear Mountain Championship, T-5th at the Toshiba Classic, and 5th at the Dominion Charity. Was 31st on the money list and 29th on the Schwab Rankings.

2017 Notes: Played another full schedule with 25 starts and surpassed $12 million in PGA Tour Champions career earnings. Was T-4th at the Regions Tradition, T-6th at the Allianz Championship, and T-3rd at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic. Partnered with Jeff Sluman to finish T-2nd at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf, one shot behind eventual champions Carlos Franco and Vijay Singh. T-6th at the Constellation Senior Players and T-5th at the PowerShares QQQ. Was 27th on the money list and then 34th in the Schwab Ranking. The year was very good, although he had a lot of downtime due to a rib injury. Since turning 50, Funk estimates he's had 13 surgeries - seven on his right knee after a total replacement in 2009 and staph infection problems. He also has a fused thumb that kept him sidelined for about a year, and he has endured shoulder and elbow trouble.

2018 Notes: Funk played in 13 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. He placed third at the Boca Raton Championship. Funk withdrew several times during the season due to a sore back. In July, he had back surgery and tore his hamstrings after getting back on his feet.

2019 Notes: He played in 14 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-25 finish and was 91st on the final Schwab rankings. He returned after his surgery and hamstring problems, the latter of which has been his big problem. His first start was at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. He finished T-22nd with Dana Quigley. His best individual finish was T-27th at the MasterCard Japan Championship.

2020 & 2021 Notes: He played in 31 PGA Tour Champions events. He placed 79th in the Schwab Cup and 79th on the money list, earning $207,257. He finished T-14th at the Ally Challenge, six shots back of the winner Jim Furyk. In 2021, his best finish was T-30th at the 2021 Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai.

2022 Notes: Played in 18 PGA Tour Champions events. He was 85th in the Schwab Cup and 85th on the money list with earnings of $92,298. Best finish: T-13th at the Ally Challenge.

Home: Bathgate, Scotland

Turned Professional: 1995

Joined the DP World Tour: 1996

DP World Tour Playoff Record: 1-2

European Challenge Tour Victory: 1 - 1998 KB Golf Challenge

Player Notes: Gallacher was born in Dechmont, West Lothian, the nephew of former European Ryder Cup captain Bernard Gallacher and cousin of Sky Sports news presenter Kirsty Gallacher. He won the 1994 European Amateur and a couple of important amateur tournaments in Britain. He played in a victorious Walker Cup side in 1995 and turned professional later that year.

Gallacher won the 2013 OMEGA Dubai Desert Classic, holing his second shot for an eagle at the 16th (his fifth eagle of the week) in the final round to shake off Richard Sterne and win by three. His previous triumph came at the 2004 Alfred Dunhill Links Championship, exactly 35 years after his uncle, former Ryder Cup captain Bernard Gallacher, won his maiden professional title. He successfully defended his Omega Dubai Desert Classic title in 2014, doing so in record-setting fashion. In the third round, after shooting an even-par 35 on the front nine at Emirates G.C., he went bogey-free on the final nine of the day, recording seven birdies and an eagle en route to a 9-under 28. He held a two-shot, 54-hole lead over Rory McIlroy and stumbled early as he began his final round with back-to-back bogeys, shooting a 4-over 39 on the front nine. He righted his play for a second consecutive day on the back nine with a four-birdie, five-par performance to hold off Emiliano Grillo by one stroke.

He won a European Tour card in his first attempt in 1995. He sustained a back injury in the summer of 1996 while removing his luggage from an airport carousel, and did not play from June onward. He won the Scottish Amateur Match Play and Stroke Play Championships to accompany his Lytham Trophy success and was a member of the victorious Walker Cup side at Royal Porthcawl in 1995. His first European Tour win was at the 2005 Dunhill Links Championship when he beat Graeme McDowell in a playoff, delighting the home crowds at St. Andrews and fulfilling the promise he had shown since turning professional in 1995. He suffered from a debilitating viral infection, sarcoidosis, which attacked his lungs and joints in 2009, but returned to full health in 2010. A year later, he guided Scotland, alongside Martin Laird, to a joint fourth-place at the Mission Hills World Cup.

2014 Notes: Along with his Dubai win, Gallacher also finished T-6th at WGC-Cadillac and then T-5th at the BMW PGA Championship. The next week, he lost a playoff to Thongchai Jaidee at the Nordea Masters, then finished T-4th at the Aberdeen Asset Scottish Open. He finished the year with a pair of top-10s at the Czech Masters (T-7th) and the Italian Open (third). He finished the year 16th on the Race to Dubai rankings. Thanks to his good finish in Italy, he received one of three Captain's picks and made his Ryder Cup debut less than 50 miles from his home in Bathgate, Scotland. He went 0-2-0 during the European Team's five-point victory over the USA Team.

2015 Notes: Played in 23 European Tour events, making 14 cuts and two top ten finishes. He was 60th on the order of merit with earnings of €645,869. 2018 Notes: Played in 26 European Tour events, making 20 cuts and four top ten finishes. He was 82nd on the order of merit with earnings of €478,278. His best finish was T-7th at the Hero Indian Open.

2019 Notes: Played in 23 European Tour events, making 7 cuts and one top ten finish. He was 90 on the order of merit with earnings of €350,465. He won his fourth and final European Tour win with a one-shot victory at the Hero Indian Open. This would be his last top ten finish on the European Tour. He continued to play a full-time schedule, but in 2020 made 8 cuts in 14 starts; in 2021, 9 cuts in 19 starts; in 2022, 9 cuts in 24 starts; in 2023, 4 cuts in 17 starts; and in 2024, 7 cuts in 22 starts. His last start was missing the cut at the French Open, he returned to DP World Q-School but missed the cut, finishing 124th. It would not be the end of the world as Gallacher turned 50.

His final totals on the European tour included 664 starts, which places him 7th on the all-time appearance list on the DP World Tour. Gallacher made 390 cuts and had 69 top-ten finishes. For his 28 years on the DP World Tour, he earned €12,151,194.

2025 Notes: At the end of 2024 made it to the final stages of PGA Tour Champions Q-School and finished T-9th. Home: Mission Hills, Ks.

College: Kansas

Turned Professional: 1994

Joined PGA Tour: 2000

Joined PGA Tour Champions: 2021

PGA Tour Victories: 1 - 2002 AT&T Pebble Beach

Korn Ferry Tour Victories: 6 - 1996 Boise Open, 1997 Laurel Creek Classic, 1998 Omaha Classic, Tri-Cities Open, 1999 Louisiana Open, C leveland Open

Player Notes: Gogel was born in Denver, Colorado, and grew up in Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he attended Bishop Kelley High School. He has lived most of his adult life in Kansas. He attended the University of Kansas and was a member of the golf team. He played in the 1988 U.S. Junior, 1993 & '94 U.S. Publinks, and the 1991 U.S. Amateur. Turned pro in 1994 and joined the PGA Tour in 2000.

Played on the Asian Tour in 1995 & '96. His best finishes were 4th at the 1995 China Open & Korea Shinhan Open. Won the Asian Tour qualifying tournament in 1995 while playing the 1996 Indian Open in Calcutta, and met Mother Teresa.

Gogel played on the Korn Ferry Tour between 1996 and 1999. He is the first Korn Ferry Tour player to win in four consecutive years. He earned his PGA Tour card for 2000 by finishing 7th on the Korn Ferry Tour money list in 1999. Played in 94 Korn Ferry Tour, making 51 cuts with 18 top-ten finishes. He won six times on the Korn Ferry Tour and earned $443,342. His wife, Blair, caddied for him in his first win at the 1996 Boise Open.

He played on the PGA Tour only between 2000 and 2006. He played a total of 178 events, making 83 cuts and 16 top-ten finishes. His two best finishes in official PGA Tour events have come at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am; he won the tournament in 2002 and finished T-2nd in 2000. He was 3rd at the 2003 Chrysler-Greensboro Open. His best finish in a major championship is a T-12th at the 2001 U.S. Open.

In November of 2006, seemingly in the midst of a solid career on the PGA Tour, Gogel announced his retirement. At the time, Gogel said, "The past two years, I just didn't have chances to win. I always said I was never going to play the game if I couldn't win or at least be competitive." Truth be told, part of his decision to retire was due to a shoulder injury. Gogel procrastinated after retirement before finally having the shoulder repaired in 2008. The rehab kept him from playing for almost a year. Gogel earned $4,596,216 during his career. Gogel settled down with Blair in Mission Hills, Kansas. Gogel became a principal partner in Matthews, Gogel & Craddock, Inc., a First Insurance Group partner that offers businesses a wide range of corporate insurance and benefits services. In addition to the insurance and benefits business, Gogel joined Golf Channel and then CBS Sports as a commentator. Gogel consulted friends such as MLB Hall of Famer George Brett (who worked briefly as an announcer for Fox Sports' Baseball Game of the Week) and longtime golf announcer Roger Twibell. However, armed with a vast knowledge of the game and the players, and his communications degree from the University of Kansas, Gogel has been somewhat of a natural.

In 2017, Gogel and his brother Mike, a golf course architect, became heavily involved in redesigning the Alvamar Golf Club in Lawrence, Kansas, from a 36-hole facility into a 270-hole private club. The club's name was changed to the Jayhawk Club.

In 2021, Gogel turned 50 and felt he could return to play on the PGA Tour Champions. He made his comeback start at the 2021 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am, missing the cut. Gogel made his senior debut at the 2021 Insperity Invitational, finishing T-45th. He played at the Regions Tradition, finishing T-59th, and was T-32nd at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic. Did finish in the top ten at the Shaw Charity Classic (T-9th), Consolation Furky & Friends (T-7th), and Dominion Energy Charity (T-8th). Played in the final stages of Q-School, finishing T-14th.

Player Notes: One of six Argentine golfers to have won on The European Tour, joining an illustrious group featuring Jorge Berendt, Angel Cabrera, Jose Coceres, Vicente Fernandez, and Eduardo Romero.

Gonzalez turned professional in 1986 and has spent much of his career in Europe. He won a place on the European Tour in 1992 through qualifying school after playing on the second Challenge Tour in 1991. Having failed to win sufficient money to retain his tour card, he returned to the Challenge Tour in 1993. He played full-time on the European Tour between 1999 and 2015.

He captured his first European Tour title when he led from start to finish at the 2001 Omega European Masters at Crans-sur-Sierre, emulating Romero's feat 12 months earlier. He added his second when he won the 2003 Telefonica Open de Madrid, holding off a strong chasing pack that included Paul Casey, Padraig Harrington, Nick O'Hern, and Marten Olander. He won for the third time in Spain in the 2004 Open de Sevilla.

A former caddie in his native Corrientes in northern Argentina tried his luck in Africa. He won the 1998 Tusker Kenya Open in Nairobi on the Challenge Tour after a play-off with local hero Jacob Okello. He secured his place on the European Tour by finishing 5th on the Challenge Tour that year. He represented Argentina in the 1996 and 1998 World Cup, finishing T-6th with Jorge Berendt and T-3rd with Cabrera. Aside from his win in Spain, Gonzalez's best performance in 2003 was a tie for second in the 60th Italian Open Telecom Italia, which helped him to 47th on the Volvo Order of Merit. After several down years, Gonzalez qualified for the European Tour through qualifying school in 2016. At age 47, he was the oldest Q school graduate in Tour history.

Player Notes: He picked up golf at the age of seven at the famed Wentworth Golf Club in London and credits his father for introducing him to the sport because he was a member of the Club. He says his most memorable golf experiences are finishing second in the 2008 Volvo China Open and playing in the 1993 Open as an Amateur. He won the Sunningdale four-somes in both 2003 and 2004 alongside Ross Fisher.

In February 2014, he won the Asian Tour Q-School Stage I by a staggering 14 shots, shooting an impressive 16-under par 272. He placed 21st at the SAIL-SBI Open earlier this year and finished 15th at the Solaire Open, where he had scores of 72-69-71-74. He is currently in 70th position on the Asian Order of Merit but has only played in three tournaments. He has two wins on the UK Mini-Tour this year as well.

Simon finished 66th on the Asian Order of Merit in 2010 but fought his way to a T-25th outing at the Qualifying School in Thailand in January of 2011 to regain his playing rights. He started the year with four straight cuts, and his best result of the year came in tied eighth place at the Yeangder Tournament Players Championship in Chinese Taipei. In 2012, Simon's best result was a tied-11th finish at the King's Cup. The Englishman produced his best performance on Tour when he finished T-2nd at the Volvo China Open in 2008 with a 1-under par 287. The result was enough to help him seal his Tour card for 2009 as he ended the year in 21st place on the rankings. Simon started 2009 strongly with a T-11th place at the Asian Tour International in Thailand. One other top-10 at the Indonesia Open and four top-30s helped secure his 2010 Tour card with a 46th place finish on the Order of Merit. Simon made his debut on the Asian Tour in 2006 and enjoyed a flying start with a T-5th at the Aamby Valley Asian Masters in India. He went on to register a T-10th finish in the Brunei Open. In 2007, he safely kept his card by finishing 44th on the money list, thanks to a runner-up finish at the Hana Bank Vietnam Masters. Has played on the European Challenge Tour, where his best finish was seventh at the Formby Hall Challenge in 2003. In 2006, went and played in Asia on the Asian Tour. Partnered Ross Fisher, a multiple winner on the European Tour, and won back-to-back titles at the Sunningdale Foursomes in England in 2003 and 2004.

When he's not golfing, Simon is really into cars and enjoys watching sports.

Played in 49 European Tour events, making 15 cuts. His best finish was T-2nd at the 2008 Volvo China Open.

2023 Notes: He made his Legends Tour debut with limited appearances after he finished in a T-6th at Q-school, missing out by one place and two shots! His best finish was T-18th in his first event, the Riegler & Partner Legends.

Player Notes: His uncle, Bob Goalby, won the 1968 Masters. At age 5, Haas took his first swings with a short, broken club that Goalby had regripped. Under Goalby's watchful eye, he placed third in the first tournament he ever entered, the National Pee Wee championship. He had a successful amateur career, capped by playing on the 1975 Walker Cup USA Team and winning the 1975 NCAA Championship.

He earned his PGA Tour card in the fall of 1976 and won $32,326 his first year on Tour. In 1978, he won the Andy Williams-San Diego Open by three strokes. He would have big seasons in 1981 and '82, winning twice yearly and moving up to 15th and 13th on the money list. He was a member of the Ryder Cup Team for the first time in 1983 (he would play again in 1995 and 2004).

In 1987, he won the Houston Open. Since joining the Tour in 1977 and 2004, he has finished in the top 60 on the money list 21 times and in the top 100 every year but one (2000). In his PGA Tour career from 1977 to 2005, he played in 799 events, winning nine times, runner-up 14 times, and third 12 times. He has career earnings of $14.4 million.

Became a full-time member of the PGA Tour Champions in 2005. He owns 15 Tour victories and was the Tour's leading money winner in 2006 and 2007.

2011 Notes: He won the 3M Championship in Minnesota. This was his 15th career victory, but his first in 22 months, and ended a winless streak of 41 events.

2012 Notes: Finished among the top 30 money winners for a seventh consecutive year, and his seventh-place showing in earnings marked the fifth time in eight full-time seasons he was among the top 10. He surpassed the $1 million mark for the sixth time in eight years. He won for the 16th time in his senior career at The Principal Charity Classic in June. In June, he teamed with Morgan Pressel to win the CVS/Caremark Charity Classic by one shot over Corey Pavin and Lexi Thompson. In late August, he teamed with his son, Bill, to post an eight-shot victory at the Umpqua Bank Challenge in Portland, Ore.

2013 Notes: He was among the top 30 money winners on the Tour for a ninth consecutive year, finishing 21st, and six of his seven top-10 efforts during the season came in the first half of the season. He played his best golf during a stretch of four events when he was not outside the top seven. His best effort during that run was a T-2nd at the Senior PGA Championship at Bellerive. He shared the first-round lead and was in contention all four rounds in May in St. Louis. The week after, he finished T-7th in defense of his Principal Charity Classic title. In April, he and teammate Fred Couples finished T-4th at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. One week later, he matched the low Sunday round at the Insuperity Championship, and his 67 jumped him to a T-6th. Other than that four-event stretch, he played well starting in mid-March when he closed with rounds of 66-67 at the Toshiba Classic to finish T-3rd. He was also T-4th at the 3M Championship, thanks to a final-round 65. He served as a captain's assistant to Fred Couples on the victorious Presidents Cup USA Team at Muirfield Village.

In 2014, going into the Constellation Senior Players Championship, he played 11 events with only one finish outside of the top 10. Of his 10 top 10s, his best finish was T-2nd at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, in which he teamed with Peter Jacobsen - they missed a playoff by one shot.

2014 Notes: He had perhaps the most remarkable season by a player over age 60, finishing 3rd in both earnings and Charles Schwab Cup points, thanks to 17 top 10s, the most he's had in a single season since 2007 (18). Was among the top 30 money-winners for the 10th consecutive year. Incredibly, only two of his 64 rounds during the season were over par, the fewest ever by a player in an entire Tour season. Ranked second only to Bernhard Langer in scoring (68.39) and birdie average (4.41) while being the leading player in the All-Around category (91). Went from the final day of the Regions Tradition (May 18) through the second round of the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship (October 31) without an over-par round. His 38 scores of par or better during this stretch set an all-time Tour mark, eclipsing Loren Roberts' 37 consecutive during the 2006-2007 seasons. During this run, he also had a season-best streak of 28 successive sub-par scores. After several brushes with a victory early in the year, he won the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn. It was his third victory in the event, making him just the 18th player in Tour history at age 60 or older to win a tournament. At 60 years, 10 months, and 17 days, he became the 10th-oldest winner in Tour history. Two weeks later, he nearly added a second win when he fell in a four-hole playoff to Tom Pernice Jr. at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship on the Cochise Course at the Desert Mountain Club. In June, he was also a second-place finisher when he teamed with Peter Jacobsen to finish 2nd by one shot at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. Before his Legends performance, he had been among the top five in nine of his first 10 starts in 2014, finishing third in five events.

In his 1,000th combined-career Tour start, he shot rounds of 65-66 on the weekend to move into a T-6th finish at the Constellation Senior Players Championship. During the week of the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, he was named the 2015 Presidents Cup USA Team captain.

2015 Notes: With duties as the captain of the USA Presidents Cup team, he played in just 15 events, the fewest he has played in a season since 2005. Posted his lone top-10 finish, a T-6th at the Allianz Championship. He led the USA to victory at The Presidents Cup in South Korea in September.

2016 Notes: Started the year, finishing T-4th at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. He became the second-oldest winner in Champions Tour history in October at age 62 years, 10 months, and 7 days after beating Bart Bryant in a one-hole playoff at the Toshiba Classic. Closed his year with two strong finishes in the final two Playoff events. Was T-6th at the Dominion Charity Classic and T-4th at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. He played in 21 events, he was 17th in the money race and 12th in the Schwab Rankings.

2017 Notes: Made 21 starts with four top-10 finishes. Competed in the first two Charles Schwab Cup playoffs events but did not advance to the finals in Phoenix. He finished 41st on the final money list. He joined teammate Fred Couples for a T-5th finish at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. Two weeks later, he finished 5th in the Insuperity Invitational. He was T-6th at the American Family Insurance Championship and 10th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort.

2018 Notes: Haas played in 22 PGA Tour Champions events with four top-ten finishes: 4th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, T-10th at the American Family Insurance Championship, T-3rd at the Dominion Energy Charity, and T-6th at the Invesco QQQ. He was one of four players to advance to the season finale after starting the Playoffs outside the top-36. It was his 12th trip to the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and first since 2016, and he finished 31st in the season's final standings.

2019 Notes: Played in 21 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-ten finishes. He was 35th on the Schwab rankings. Was T-8th at the Principal Charity Classic. In his bid to become the oldest PGA Tour Champions winner in history, the 65-year-old finished T-2nd at the Bridgestone Senior Players Championship, his 1,100th combined start on the PGA Tour (799) and PGA Tour Champions (301). Closed with a 3-under 67, tied for the lowest final round, and was the clubhouse leader at 4-under before Retief Goosen birdied the last two holes and won by two shots. He was T-5th at Sanford International, 3 shots back of winner Rocco Mediate.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 29 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. He was 56th on the Schwab rankings. Was 6th at the 2020 Hoag Classic, four shots back of winner Ernie Els. Was T-3rd at the 2021 Ascension Charity Classic a shot back of the David Toms/Dicky Pride playoff. With a 67 on Sunday, it was the fifth time he shot his age or better. He ended his season with a T-16th finish at the Dominion Energy Charity.

2022 Notes: Played in 17 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. Finished 60th in the Schwab rankings and 60th on the money list, earning $302,670. Was T-14th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic. At age 68, he made the cut at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans with his son, Bill as his partner. He became the first player age 68 or older to make the cut in a PGA Tour event. The father-son pair went on to finish T-36th. Was T-7th at the U.S. Senior Open and T-10th at the Fuyk & Friends.

2023 Notes: Played in 4 PGA Tour Champions events, best finish 40th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic.

2024 Notes: Played in 13 PGA Tour Champions events with best finish T-22nd U.S. Senior Open Championship/

2025 Notes: Played in 11 PGA Tour Champions events with best finish, T-19th, Hoag Classic.

Player Notes: Harrington defeated Sergio Garcia in a four-hole playoff to win the 2007 Open Championship at Carnoustie. In the process, he became the first player from Ireland in 60 years to capture the Claret Jug, following Fred Daly at Hoylake in 1947. Earlier in the season, he broke a 25-year barren spell for the home nation at the Irish Open, defeating Bradley Dredge at Adare Manor Hotel and Golf Resort in a playoff to match John O'Leary's efforts in 1982.

Secured the Harry Vardon Trophy as the European Tour's No. 1 player after the Volvo Masters, where he narrowly edged Ryder Cup teammate Paul Casey. Then he earned the Order of Merit title after winning his second Alfred Dunhill Links Championship title in October. He finished second on the Order of Merit in 2001 and '02 and third in 2003 and '04. He became the first Irishman to win a U.S. PGA Tour event at the 2005 Honda Classic and followed that with a second success at the 2005 Barclays Classic.

In 2008, Harrington defended his Open Championship title, winning at Royal Birkdale and becoming the 16th player in Open history to accomplish that feat, and the first European player to do it since James Braid in 1905-06. He capped a special major run when he made a 15-foot par putt on the final green to capture the PGA Championship at Oakland Hills Country Club. That victory ended the longest European drought, 78 years, in a major. The previous European-born PGA Champion was Scotland's Tommy Armour in 1930.

Harrington's win at Oakland Hills was his second consecutive major championship triumph and his third in the previous six majors. Shot 66-66 on the weekend to beat Sergio Garcia and Ben Curtis by two strokes. He was voted PGA Tour Player of the Year, the first European to achieve that honor.

Teamed with Paul McGinley at Kiawah Island in 1997 to win the World Cup for Ireland for the first time in 39 years. Completed an accounting degree before turning professional. Coached by Pete Cowen and also sees sports psychologist Bob Rotella. Member of six Ryder Cup teams, 1999, 2002, '04, '06, '08, and '10, and captain in '21.

2011 Notes: Advanced to the PGA Tour Playoffs for the FedExCup for the fifth time in as many years, but finished 89th for his worst showing in the competition. Harrington started 2011 ranked 23rd in the world but ended the year 85th.

2012 Notes: Played in 28 events worldwide, with a best finish of T-4th at the U.S. Open. Finished 43rd in the FedExCup standings and was 34th in The Race to Dubai standings. Won the PGA Grand Slam of Golf in Bermuda, an unofficial event.

2013 Notes: Again played in 28 events. Had four top 10s, with his best a 4th-place result at the Volvo Golf Champions. Finished 130th in the FedExCup standings and 116th in the money race. In The Race to Dubai, finished 68th.

2014 Notes: Posted a T-5th finish at his first start, the Volvo Golf Champions. It was his only top-10 result until December when he won the Indonesia Open on the Asian Tour. On the PGA Tour for the second consecutive season, he failed to advance to the FedExCup Playoffs, finishing the season 188th in the standings. The year included seven cuts made in 16 starts, with his lone top-25 finish coming at the HP Byron Nelson Championship (T-22nd). Finished the year 97th in The Race to Dubai.

2015 Notes: He missed his first three cuts on the PGA Tour and finished T-56th at the Northern Trust. Was playing in the Honda Classic on a sponsor exemption and entered the week 297th in the world rankings. In an unscheduled Monday finish at the Honda Classic, he defeated South Florida native Daniel Berger on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff to claim his sixth career PGA Tour title and second at the Honda Classic (2005). After the Honda win, he didn't crack the top 40 on any tour until his T-20th at the Open Championship. Finished the PGA Tour, playing 21 events and making nine cuts. He was 103rd in the FedEx Cup race and 73rd on the money list. On the European Tour, played in 13 events and made 10 cuts. 2017 Notes: Played in 11 PGA Tour events, making four cuts, and was 200th in the FedExCup ranking. Best finish: T-17th at the Travelers Championship. On the European Tour, played in 12 events, making nine cuts. He had two top-ten finishes, best finish of T-4th at the Scottish Open and 4th at the Turkish Airlines Open. Had a T-7th at the Alfred Dunhill Links, 5th at the KLM Open, and runner-up at the D+D Real Czech Masters, two shots back of winner Andrea Pavan. Was 85th in the Race to Dubai. Over the Christmas break, it was discovered that he had a broken bone in his wrist. He thinks it happened at home while walking down the stairs. He had a cast put on it and had to cancel his plans to play in Abu Dhabi and Dubai.

2019 Notes: He made two cuts in 12 PGA Tour events. He played in 15 European Tour events, making nine cuts, and he finished 159th in the Race to Dubai. He received good news when he was named the European Ryder Cup captain for the scheduled 2020 matches at Whistling Straits (which were eventually played in 2021). Harrington has supported the team as Vice-Captain of the European squad in 2014, '16, and '18. The wrist took longer to heal, and he wasn't able to return until mid-March at the Maybank Championship in Malaysia. He didn't start hitting balls until a week before, for all the problems and delays finished T-30th, and the wrist and thumb did Ok Still easing back, he took a week off and played at the Valero Texas Open, finishing T-71st but playing with no pain. He played in the Zurich Classic and Wells Fargo, missing the cut. He was T-12th at the AT&T Byron Nelson. He added another T-12th at the Porsche European Open, and he ended his year with a 20th place finish at the Nedbank Golf Challenge.

2020 Notes: Was T-50th at the Dubai Desert Classic. After missing the cut at the Arnold Palmer, he started experiencing knee pain. He came back and played in the Irish Open three months later, missing the cut, then was T-9th at the Scottish Open. Because of his bad knee, he decided not to play in the PGA Championship. After finishing T-14th at the Scottish Championship, finished the year in America with a T-26th at the Bermuda Championship and T-32nd at the Vivint Houston Open.

He has won three times in Australia and was the inaugural winner of the Von Nida Tour Order of Merit in 2003. He has also won on the Canadian Tour, at the 2002 Victoria Open.

He'd played on the United States-based PGA Tour in 2004 and 2005, gaining his card at qualifying school for both seasons. He played 86 events, making 39 cuts, and earned a career total of $1,344,228. His best finish was 3rd at the 2004 BellSouth Classic. That good finish helped him finish 136th on the money list. He played in 2005 on the PGA Tour but finished 170th, and he finished T-42nd at Q-School, which forced him onto the Korn Ferry Tour. He played in 19 events and finished 151st on the money list. His Korn Ferry Tour totals, 34 events played, and he had only three top-25 finishes, the best was T-12th at the 2003 Alberta Calgary Classic.

Scott celebrated the birth of twin babies in December 2006 and named them Aston and McLaren. According to Scott, it was pure coincidence that they were named after fast cars. A serious hand injury in 2006 curtailed his career in the United States, and he subsequently switched his focus to Asia. He earned his Asian Tour card at Qualifying School in Thailand by finishing second in December 2006.

In 2007, he came out strong on the Asian Tour with a runner-up finish at the season-opening Pakistan Open and then enjoyed a glorious run in April, finishing tied second and equal third in successive weeks at the co-sanctioned Volvo China

Open and BMW Asian Open. He was later named Rookie of the Year.

He celebrated his first victory in 2008, winning the Pertamina Indonesia President Invitational. He overcame a five-shot deficit in the final round and triumphed by three shots after closing with a superb 66.

In 2009, Hend finished T-3rd in the lucrative Barclays Singapore Open. He played in 17 events on the Asian Tour and was 4th on the order of merit.

Hend slumped the next three years, finishing 22nd, 28th, and 13th on the order of merit between 2010 and 2012. In 2012, he claimed his second Asian Tour title by winning the Handa Singapore Classic by one shot in the weather-shortened tournament.

2013 Notes: Hend overcame a six-shot deficit to win the inaugural Chiangmai Golf Classic presented by three shots. He went on to win the Mercuries Taiwan Masters and cruised to victory at the Venetian Macau Open, defeating Ernie Els of South Africa. The treble of victories led Hend to finish second on the Order of Merit.

2014 Notes: He won his sixth Asian Tour title by defeating Angelo Que on the first playoff hole in the Hong Kong Open. At the age of 41, it was his first victory in a co-sanctioned event with the European Tour. With that win, he has been playing more on the European Tour in 2015.

He gained his place on the PGA Tour with his 2nd-place finish on the Korn Ferry Tour money list in 2000. In his rookie season, Hensby did not earn enough money to retain his card and was forced to return to the Korn Ferry Tour for 2002 after failing to regain his place at the end-of-season qualifying school. In 2003, he picked up his third win on the Korn Ferry Tour and finished 7th on the money list, to graduate directly to the PGA Tour for the second time.

2004 was a breakthrough season for Hensby as he sought to establish himself on the PGA Tour. He collected his first win at the 2004 John Deere Classic, defeating John E. Morgan in a sudden-death playoff. He also had several other top-ten finishes on his way to 15th place on the end-of-the-season money list. In 2005, he impacted the majors, finishing T-5th at the Masters, T-3rd in the U.S. Open, and T-15th in the British Open. In 2005, Hensby was selected for the Presidents Cup, where he compiled a 1-2-1 record. He also played in ten events on the European Tour and won the Scandinavian Masters. He was ranked 27th in the Official World Golf Ranking in 2005.

A car accident early in 2006 severely limited Hensby's ability to compete that year, but he came back in 2007 to finish just outside the top 100 on the PGA Tour money list and secure his card for the following season. However, his struggles were not over; in 2008, he slipped outside the top 150, losing his fully exempt status.

A series of injuries, three shoulder surgeries, and two failed European Tour Q School attempts halted Hensby's career. He started his first PGA Tour in two years (and first cut on any major tour since 2011) at the 2015 Barbasol Championship.

He was the co-leader at the 36-hole point with rookie Whee Kim. Hensby finished T-6th, his first PGA Tour top-ten finish in seven years.

In December 2017, the PGA Tour suspended Hensby for one year retroactive to 26 October for violating the Tour's anti-doping policy. A day afterward, Hensby said, "Call me stupid, but don't call me a cheater."

During the one-year ban, Hensby considered retiring, but golf has been his focus since childhood. Even though he was 47 when the ban ended, he was unsure what he had left and if he was welcome again. He got back and was able to play in some Korn Ferry Tour events. In 2020 and '21, he played in 15 Korn Ferry events but only made four cuts. At the end of June 2021, he turned 50 and played in two PGA Tour Champions events, missing the cut and T-49th at Sanford International.

Hensby played in 194 Korn Ferry events in his career, making 104 cuts and 28 top-ten finishes. He won three times and earned $982,470. On the PGA Tour, He played in 193 events, making 94 cuts. He had 16 top-ten finishes and won the 2004 John Deere Classic. He earned $6,432,320.

2022 Notes: Played in 8 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. He was 46th in the Schwab rankings and 46th on the money list with $476,814 in earnings. Was T-8th at the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship and 3rd at the U.S. Senior Open, six shots back of winner Padraig Harrington. He ended the season with a T-41st finish at the TimberTech Championship. He played in five PGA Tour events, making one cut. Finished T-7th at the Puerto Rico Open, his first top-ten on the PGA Tour since his T-6th in the 2015 Barbasol Champions.

2023 Notes: Played in 20 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-ten finishes. He was 29th in the Schwab rankings and 25th on the money list with $912,936 in earnings. Went into the final round of the Trophy, Hassan II was just three back of the lead but shot 75 to finish 2nd, five shots back of the winner Stephen Ames. Finished T-3rd at the Cologuard Classic after carding 69-70-65 but was three shots back of winner David Toms. Won the Invited Celebrity Classic, defeating runner-up Charlie Wi on the fourth playoff hole. Posted 66-65-70 en route to a 12-under total. Became the 19th player to win on PGA Tour Champions, PGA Tour, and Korn Ferry Tour. He snapped a winless streak of 17 years, 8 months, 23 days, dating back to the 2005 Scandinavian Invitation (on the DP World Tour). He ended the season finishing T-30th at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2024 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with four top-ten finishes. Was 26th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $867,377. Hensby carded rounds of 66-69 en route to a T-3rd finish at the weather-shortened 36-hole Chubb Classic, four shots back of winner Stephen Ames. He also finished T-3rd at the Trophy Hassan II, three shots back of the winner Ricardo Gonzalez. It marked the first time Hensby has tallied back-to-back top-five finishes in his PGA Tour Champions career. Finished T-7th at the American Family Insurance Championship and T-3rd at the DICK's Open.

2025 Notes: Played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events with five top-ten finishes. Was 23rd on the Schwab money list with earnings of $905,925. Best finish, T-4th at the U.S. Senior Open.

PGA Tour Champions Victories: 2 - 2015 ACE Group Classic; 2021 SAS Championship

Other Victories: 2000 Franklin Templeton Shootout [with Rocco Mediate]

Player Notes: Lee Janzen spent most of his childhood in Baltimore, Md., where he played Little League baseball. When Janzen was 12, his father's company transferred him to Florida, and his parents started him in golf and tennis. He won his first golf tournament at age 15 as a member of the Greater Tampa Junior Golf Association. Janzen chose to attend Division II Florida Southern, where Rocco Mediate and Marco Dawson were teammates. In 1985 and 1986, Florida Southern won the Division II NCAA championship. Janzen was the individual medalist in 1986 and was a first-team All-American in 1985 and 1986. He turned professional later that same year. For two years, he played on mini-tour events and was the leading money winner on the U.S. Golf Tour in 1989. At the end of 1989, he finished T-10th at PGA Tour Q-School, which helped him earn a spot on the PGA Tour in 1990. He was good enough to keep his tour card, winning for the first time at the 1992 Northern Telecom Open.

Won eight times in his PGA Tour career, with a pair of U.S. Open titles and a Players Championship to his credit. Claimed his first U.S. Open title in 1993 in a head-to-head battle with Payne Stewart at Baltusrol G.C. Shot 67-67-69-69 to equal the U.S. Open scoring record set by Jack Nicklaus in 1980. Went on to defeat Stewart by two strokes. Won his second U.S. Open title in 1998 by recording the best final-round comeback in a U.S. Open in 25 years, coming from five strokes back of Stewart, the 54-hole leader. Closed with 68 to win by one over Stewart, who closed with 74 at The Olympic Club. The five-stroke comeback was the best in the championship since Johnny Miller came from six back to win in 1973. It was his first victory on Tour since 1995, and his eighth career win. Victory at the 1995 Players was the first of three titles that season, leading to his career year, in which he finished third on the money list ($1,378,966). Janzen played on the PGA Tour between 1990 and 2014 and in 627 events made 407 cuts, finished in the top ten 66 times, was third eight times, and was runner-up seven times. He earned $16,038,979.

2014 Notes: Debuted on the PGA Tour Champions in early September at the Quebec Championship. A final-round 72 led to a T-23rd finish. His third Champions start had his best finish of the year with a T-6th finish at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Following the official season, he finished second in the Callaway Invitational, losing in a playoff to Tommy Armour III at Pebble Beach.

2015 Notes: Returned to the winner's circle for the first time in nearly 17 years when he won in a one-hole playoff with Bart Bryant at The ACE Group Classic in February. Made a clutch, 8-foot birdie putt on the 54th hole to force a playoff and then two-putted from 40 feet on the first extra hole for the win after Bryant's second shot landed in the water. The victory was his first since winning the 1998 U.S. Open at The Olympic Club, and it came in his 413th start since that win in San Francisco. The Naples victory ended a drought that lasted 16 years, 7 months, 25 days. He finished 6th at the Constellation Senior Players, then T-5th at the U.S. Senior Open, and T-6th at the Encompass Championship. He ended his year with a T-5th at the SAS Championship and a T-7th at the Toshiba Classic. Was 16th on the money list and 14th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: In 23 starts, he had a frustrating season, sliding from 16th to 56th on the final money list and posting just one top-10 finish (T-8th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic). The biggest issue was putting, where he fell from 1st in Putts per Round in 2015 (28.22) to 41st (29.59) in 2016 and from 2nd to 53rd in overall putting.

2017 Notes: Rebounded nicely from a disappointing 2016 season by finishing 12th on the final Charles Schwab Cup money list, up from 54th the previous year. He had five top-10 finishes and 16 top-25 finishes. He started the year with a T-4th finish at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. Had his second top-ten of the year with a T-6th at the American Family Insurance Championship. Was T-10th at U.S. Senior Open, then 2nd at Pacific Links Bear Mountain Championship, a shot back of winner Jerry Kelly. Shared the opening-round lead with a 64 and trailed by one shot after 36 holes at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and eventually finished T-2nd, one behind Kevin Sutherland. Had a pair of critical bogeys on the back nine (Nos. 13 and 16) on Sunday, which proved costly.

2018 Notes: Played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events with four top-ten finishes. Best was T-2nd at the Chubb Classic, 4 shots back of winner Joe Durant. Player Notes: One of seven brothers, Jimenez started playing golf at age 15 while picking up balls at the range and caddying. Inspired by watching the likes of Seve Ballesteros, Sandy Lyle, and Sam Torrance while serving as a caddie in the 1979 Spanish Open at Torrequebrada (Malaga), Jimenez decided to compete seriously. Has represented Spain 14 times in World Cups and has played in the Ryder Cup four times, 1999, 2004, 2008, and 2010. Is nicknamed "The Mechanic" for his preference for driving, rather than repairing, high-performance vehicles, especially his gleaming red Ferrari. He is also a lover of fine wines and Havana cigars. Jimenez first played on the European Tour in 1988 and improved steadily over the next few seasons. His first win on the Tour came at the Piaget Belgian Open in 1992. He has finished inside the top 100 on the European Tour Order of Merit every season since 1989.

In 1994, he finished 5th on the list. One highlight was scoring an exceptionally rare double eagle during the 1994 Volvo Masters at Valderrama when he holed his 3-iron second shot on the par-5 17th hole.

He bounced back in 1998 and 1999, finishing fourth on the Order of Merit in consecutive years and winning four tournaments, including the prestigious Volvo Masters.

In 1999, he finished runner-up to Tiger Woods at the WGC-American Express Championship and made his Ryder Cup debut. The following year, he again finished runner-up to Woods, this time at the U.S. Open at Pebble Beach.

In 2004, he emerged as the season's most prolific champion, claiming four titles before finishing 4th on the European Tour Order of Merit. That mark matched his highest position.

The 2008 season was productive, too, with a pair of wins, including the BMW PGA Championship at Wentworth, where he defeated Oliver Wilson in a playoff. His performances earned a spot on the 2008 Ryder Cup team. He finished the season ranked 4th on the Order of Merit once more.

In February 2010, Jimenez won the Omega Dubai Desert Classic, defeating Lee Westwood in a playoff. In July, he added the Alstom Open de France title, defeating Alejandro Canizares and Francesco Molinari on the first playoff hole. He won his third event of the year at the Omega European Masters, finishing three strokes ahead of Edoardo Molinari.

Jimenez became the oldest winner in European Tour history when he won the 2012 UBS Hong Kong Open at age 48 and 318 days. That was his 19th European Tour victory and first since the Omega European Masters in 2010.

2013 Notes: While skiing in southern Spain on Dec. 29, 2012, Jimenez fell and suffered a right tibial plateau fracture, which required surgery and kept him out of competition for several months. He played in the Open de Espana in April 2013 but missed the cut and returned to the European Tour in late May, finishing T-4th at the BMW PGA Championship. He was the second-round leader at the Open Championship before finishing T-13th.

2014 Notes: Turned 50 in January, then got married in April just after finishing fourth in the Masters. That performance placed him behind Sam Snead for the best finish of a player over 50. Snead finished T-3rd in 1963. A week after his Masters' finish, Jimenez played in his first PGA Tour Champions event, winning on his first try at the Greater Gwinnett Championship. A month later, he won the Open de Espana, and at the age of 50 years and 133 days, he became the oldest champion in European Tour history. At the Lyoness Open, he finished T-5th, and at his second Champions Tour event, the Senior Open Championship, he finished T-8th. On the European Tour, he started the year by winning the Hong Kong Open. In 25 events, he had two wins and seven top 10s. He ended the year 21st in The Race to Dubai and was one of European Ryder Cup captain Paul McGinley's vice-captains.

2015 Notes: He started the year with a sixth-place finish at the Nedbank Golf Challenge, then in only his third Champions Tour event, won the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. In 8 career Champions Tour starts, the Spaniard has won twice. He had a two-week stretch in May where he was runner-up at the Open de Espana and the next week at the BMW PGA Championship. Also T-10th at the Aberdeen Asset Management Scottish Open, 4th at the Senior Open Championship at Sunningdale. On the European Tour, played in 24 events and made 21 cuts. He finished 30th in the Race to Dubai thanks to a pair of runner-up finishes.

2016 Notes: On the European Tour, in 13 starts best finish was T-13th at Shenzhen International. On the PGA Tour T-18th at the British Open. On the Champions Tour, played in 13 events and won the Mississippi Gulf Resort. Was runner-up four times at the Principal Charity Classic, Constellation Senior Players, 3M Championship (lost playoff to Joe Durant, who on the first hole made eagle), and U.S. Senior Open. He was T-3rd twice at the Senior Open Championship and the Pacific Links Bear Mountain Championship. In his 13 starts, he was in the top ten 9 times. He finished 4th on the money list and 6th in the Schwab Ranking.

2017 Notes: Had another great year on the PGA Tour Champions, winning over a million and a half dollars for the second straight year. In 19 starts, he had 10 top-ten finishes and finished 5th on the money list. He was 2nd at the Chubb Classic, 3 shots back of winner Fred Couples. He successfully defended his Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic when he sank a 10-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Gene Sauers. He was T-3rd at the Senior PGA Championship, five shots back of Bernhard Langer. He was 4th at the Constellation Senior Players and 2nd at the Shaw Charity Classic, a shot back of winner Scott McCarron. He won at the Regions Tradition for not only his first Senior major, but he has now won at least once a year for the last five years on the PGA Tour Champions. Finished 5th at the Senior PGA Championship, then T-2nd at the U.S. Senior Open, just a shot back of winner David Toms. At the Senior Open Championship, Jimenez made a 12-foot par putt on St. Andrews' 17th hole to preserve a one-shot lead, and a par on No. 18 gave him the victory over defending champion Bernhard Langer. Jimenez closed with a final-round 69 and finished with a 12-under total for his second major victory of the year. He was T-3rd at the Boeing Classic, he shot a final-round 67 to finish 5 shots back of the winner Scott Parel. Player Notes: Johnson began playing golf at age 10. He lists his father and mother among his heroes. A big Iowa Hawkeye football and basketball fan. In his PGA Tour career, Johnson has finished in the top 10 of the money race four times: 2007, '09, '12, and '13. His victory at the 2007 Masters allowed him to join Jack Fleck, the 1955 U.S. Open winner, as the only native Iowans to win one of golf's four major championships. In 2015 at St. Andrews, he elevated his career by capturing the British Open in a three-way playoff. He grew up in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and is an alumnus of a high school that no longer exists, Cedar Rapids Regis. The school also claimed another celebrated graduate, NFL Hall of Famer quarterback Kurt Warner.

Johnson was Player of the Year on the Hooters Tour in 2001 and led the Korn Ferry Tour money list in 2003 to earn PGA Tour membership in 2004.

Member of 2006, '10, '12, '14 and '16 USA Ryder Cup teams and 2007, '09, '13 and '15 USA Presidents Cup teams.

2000 Korn Ferry Tour Summary: Tournaments Entered - 11; In Money - 4; Top-10 Finishes - 0; Stroke Average - 72.53; Money - $10,280 (rank 174th); Best Finish - T-25th, Tri-Cities Open.

2003 Korn Ferry Tour Summary: Tournaments Entered - 20; In Money - 19; Top-10 Finishes - 11; Stroke Average - 68.97 (rank 1st); Best Finish - 1st, Rheem Classic, Envirocare Utah Classic. Season results secured his membership on the PGA Tour.

2010 Notes: Won for the fourth consecutive year with a victory at the Colonial, his seventh on the PGA Tour, with three wins in Texas and three in Georgia. He steadily improved his putting: He was 10th in total putting in 2010, ranked 8th in putting inside 10 feet, and 4th in putts between 20 and 25 feet. He finished 17th in the FedExCup standings and 19th in earnings.

2011 Notes: His eighth season on the PGA Tour included four top-10 finishes and a 40th-place finish in the FedExCup, 44th on the money list. His best finish was T-3rd at the John Deere Classic, five shots back of winner Steve Stricker. He was also 4th at the Crowne Plaza Invitational and T-6th at the WGC-Bridgestone Invitational. Teamed in June with Matt Kuchar to win the unofficial 36-hole CVS Caremark Charity Classic.

2012 Notes: Won at the Colonial and John Deere Classic. He had his second-best career season with $4.5 million in earnings, a 12th-place finish in the FedExCup standings, and 6th on the money list. He had six top-10s and 11 top-25 finishes. In his third Ryder Cup appearance, he went 3-1-0 at Medinah C.C. as the U.S. fell to Europe. He posted four birdies in his first seven holes in his singles match against Graeme McDowell en route to a 2 & 1 victory.

2013 Notes: Finished 3rd in his effort to join Ben Hogan as the only player to win back-to-back Colonials, with Hogan performing the feat twice (1946-47 and 1952-53). It was Johnson's first top-10 finish since a T-9th at the 2012 British Open. Johnson came close to defending his John Deere title, but a bogey on the 72nd hole put him in a playoff that Jordan Spieth won on the fifth extra hole. Despite the loss, he started a streak where he had only one finish worse than 8th in his last eight starts of the year. Went to Scotland, finished T-6th the next week at the British Open, T-4th at WGC-Bridgestone, T-8th at PGA Championship, T-5th at Wyndham, and T-27th at the Deutsche Bank Championship. He took off the Barclays week to attend his brother's wedding in Chicago, then won the BMW Championship, shooting a final-round 65 in a Monday finish. He added his eighth top-10 of the season at the Tour Championship, finishing T-7th, and was one of only three players with all four rounds in the 60s. He finished 5th in the FedExCup standings and 9th on the money list. He capped the year by winning three of his four Presidents Cup matches in his third appearance, then defeated Tiger Woods in a playoff at Woods' own event, the Northwestern Mutual World Challenge.

2014 Notes: Won the Hyundai Tournament of Champions by one stroke over Jordan Spieth, then finished T-8th at the Sony Open in Hawaii and T-3rd at the Humana Challenge. He was in the running at the Valero Texas Open before shooting 72 in the final round to finish T-6th. Was runner-up for the second consecutive year at the John Deere Classic. He made it to the Tour Championship for the sixth time in eight seasons of the FedExCup era, finishing 21st at East Lake GC and 18th in the FedExCup standings. At the Ryder Cup at Gleneagles in Scotland, he went 0-2-1 in his three matches as the European team won.

2015 Notes: Finished 7th in trying to defend his Hyundai Tournament of Champions title. He was T-10th at the Waste Management Phoenix Open and T-9th at the Arnold Palmer and Masters. The year's best finish was a 5th at the AT&T Byron Nelson, followed by a 6th at the Travelers Championship. He had a great four-week stretch: he finished 6th at the Travelers, then T-3rd at the John Deere Classic, just one shot short of reaching the playoff. The next week, he entered the final round of the 144th British Open trailing Jason Day, amateur Paul Dunne, and Louis Oosthuizen by three, but shot a final-round, six-under 66 (equaling the fifth-lowest score by a champion), then won in a four-hole aggregate playoff over Oosthuizen and Marc Leishman. He improved his playoff record to 4-1, finishing the four holes at one-under-par, topping 2010 champ Oosthuizen's even-par total and Leishman's two-over tally. In the process, he became the 14th player to win the Masters and the British Open in a career, and the sixth player to win majors at Augusta National and St. Andrews, joining Jack Nicklaus, Tiger Woods, Seve Ballesteros, Nick Faldo, and Sam Snead. His 12th PGA Tour victory came in his 307th start, and he has won eight out of the last nine years on Tour. He earned two top-10s in his four FedExCup playoffs: T-4th at The Barclays and T-8th at the Tour Championship. He finished the year 6th in the FedExCup standings and 8th on the money list. He went 3-0-1 in his four Presidents Cup matches.

2016 Notes: Finished T-9th at the Sony Open and 5th at the Arnold Palmer Invitational. Was T-8th at the U.S. Open and T-10th at the WGC-Bridgestone Invitational. In defense of his British Open title, he finished T-12th. He played in 24 events and had five top-10s. He ranked 57th in the FedExCup standings and 58th on the money list. He qualified for his fifth Ryder Cup team and went 2-1 in his three matches in the 17-11 U.S. victory at Hazeltine. The week was highlighted by a 4 & 3 victory in his singles match against Ryder Cup rookie Matthew Fitzpatrick.

2017 Notes: T-6th at the Sony Open in Hawaii. Reached the round of 16 at the WGC-Dell Match Play, losing to Dustin Johnson, and finished T-9th. He finished T-5th at the John Deere Classic. Johnson had a share of the 54-hole lead at the WGC-Bridgestone Invitational and, despite a final-round 68, lost to Hideki Matsuyama, who shot 61. Johnson's 2nd-place finish was his best since his 2015 British Open win. He ended the year 48th in the FedExCup standings.

2018 Notes: Played 25 PGA Tour events and made 23 cuts with two top-10 finishes. He was 58th in the FedExCup standings. Finished 5th at the Valero Texas Open and T-8th at the RSM Classic. Held the 36-hole co-lead at the British Open at Carnoustie with Kevin Kisner at six-under and shot four over par on the weekend to finish T-17th. He was one of Jim Furyk's vice-captains at the Ryder Cup in France.

2019 Notes: He played in 19 PGA Tour events, making 13 cuts and one top-10 finish. He was 154th in the FedExCup standings. His best finish was T-7th at the RSM Classic, his only top-15 finish of the year.

2020 Notes: Played in 18 PGA Tour events, making 12 cuts with one top-10 finish. He was 105th in the FedExCup standings. His best finish of the year was T-8th at the Wyndham Championship. He shot a final-round 65 to finish four strokes behind the winner Jim Herman. In the FedExCup playoffs, he finished T-49th at the Northern Trust.

2021 Notes: He played in 24 PGA Tour events, making 18 cuts with three top-ten finishes. He was 109th in the FedExCup standings. He finished T-8th at the U.S. Open. He was T-6th at the RSM Classic, three shots back of the Robert Streb/Kevin Kisner playoff. He was T-8th at the Honda Classic. In the FedExCup Playoffs, he was T-47th at the Northern Trust.

2023 Notes: He played in 22 PGA Tour events, making 13 cuts and one top-25 finish. He was 154th in the FedExCup stand-

2025 Notes: He played in 17 PGA Tour events, making 8 cuts with one top ten finish. He was 123rd in the FedExCup standings. Best finish T-8th at the Masters. This was his first top ten finish in a major since finishing T-8th at the 2020 U.S. Open.

2026 Notes: Won his senior debut at the James Hardie Invitational. He became the 22nd player to accomplish that feat. The last to do that was Richard Bland at the 2024 Senior PGA Championship. Also was T-3rd at the Cologuard Classic and T-2nd at the Hoag Classic. Missed the cut at the Masters Player Notes: Born in the western New South Wales town of West Wyalong on March 3, 1975, Brendan moved to Moruya on the southern coast of New South Wales at the age of six months and then just a few months later to nearby Tuross Head. His father, Trevor, had received a transfer with the Bank for which he was working, and hence the move to the coast.

Brendan's first interest in the game came when his father decided to take up the game, and he soon followed. Like so many youngsters raised in a laid-back coastal town, Steele took advantage of the opportunity to play tennis, cricket, and even surf.

Brendan joined the Moruya Golf Club soon after taking up the game. At 13, Brendan attended one of the many clinics that coach Alex Mercer conducted throughout the country of New South Wales. Brendan made South Coast age group teams but received instant elevation to the Senior State (NSW) side when selected for the Interstate series in Tasmania in 1992.

As a result of that success, Brendan was offered a scholarship to the Australian Institute of Sport's Golf Academy in Melbourne. After two years there, he stayed on in Victoria for another year, working at the Dunes Golf Club, which was nearing completion on the Mornington Peninsula.

At the end of 1995, Brendan was keen to return to New South Wales to gain more experience and play Pennants in the Sydney competition. When he indicated that intention to several friends in the game, it was suggested that he might like to join the Castle Hill Golf Club in the northwest of Sydney.

Brendan enjoyed a superb season, winning three titles in the 2007 Japan Golf Tour. His stunning final round of 61 at the Golf Nippon Series beat the 2007 JGT Order of Merit winner Toru Taniguchi by a single stroke. With his outstanding amateur career, he started playing on the Japan Tour in 2000. He established his position, earning a JGT tour card for six consecutive years after 2001. In 2008, Brendan played seven events and posted four top-10s without missing a cut.

Played on the PGA Tour full time in 2005, finished 144th on the money list even though he finished 2nd in the B.C. Open. He played in 54 PGA Tour events with 25 cuts made and just one top-ten. Has also played in 15 Korn Ferry Tour events, winning the 2004 LaSalle Bank Open. In 2004 played in just eight events, won once, and finished runner-up three times. With just the 8 starts, he was able to earn $292,715, which was 6th on the money list and got him an exemption on the PGA Tour in 2005.

Other Victories: 2008 OMEGA Mission Hills World Cup [with Henrik Stenson]

Player Notes: The son of a greenskeeper, he started and superbly finished 2010, winning the Commercialbank Qatar Masters in his second event and ending the season with victory at the lucrative Dubai World Championship presented by DP World, beating Ian Poulter in a playoff. The win lifted him to sixth in The Race to Dubai and helped banish memories of a frustrating 2009, during which a debilitating eye problem plagued him. Another highlight of 2010 came at the BMW PGA Championship in May. Believing he had missed the cut, he flew home on Friday afternoon, only to receive a phone call a few hundred meters from his front door in Monaco informing him that he had made it to the weekend. Without even saying hello to his wife, he told the taxi driver to take him back to Nice airport, where he caught a flight to Paris, had two hours of sleep, and paid for a private jet leaving at 6 a.m. for London. He just made his 8:55 a.m. tee time and shot a course-record 62.

Having enjoyed the most successful season of his career in 2008, when he became the first Swedish player to capture the Harry Vardon Trophy as Europe's Number One, he did not play a competitive stroke play event between the European Open in May 2009 and the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship in October after suffering from blurred vision caused by fluid behind the retina in his left eye. He won twice in 2008 to top the Order of Merit and ensure a second successive Ryder Cup appearance before closing the year in style. He partnered with Henrik Stenson to a Swedish success at the Omega Mission Hills World Cup. His outstanding 2008 season bears testimony to his decision in 2003 to make a fresh start after years of frustration with life both on and off the course. His work with Swedish coach Ann-Christine Lundstrom has helped enormously.

He joined the U.S. PGA Tour for the first time in 2011. A runner-up finish at the 2010 St. Jude Championship in Memphis, where he lost to Lee Westwood in a playoff, earned him enough money as a non-member to be eligible to take a Tour card.

Member of the 2006 and 2008 Ryder Cup teams.

2011 Notes: Career-best numbers produced in 2011 include top-10s (three), top-25s (six), and made cuts (14). For the second year, he lost a playoff at the St. Jude Classic in 2011 to Harrison Frazar.

2012 Notes: Finished 160th on the Tour money list in 17 starts while managing a pair of top-30 finishes, T-29th at the U.S. Open and Travelers Championship a week later. He played in 10 events on the European Tour, and his best finish was T-9 in the Volvo World Match Play Championship. Was 68th in the Race to Dubai with €379,002

2013 Notes: Played full-time on the PGA Tour in 18 starts and had one top-ten, T-4th at the Wells Fargo Championship. He didn't make it into the FedEx playoffs, finishing 156th and 143rd on the money list. He tried to regain his card in the Korn Ferry playoffs but couldn't secure it, so he was a non-member in 2014 and is back playing the European Tour full-time again.

2014 Notes: He played in 22 European Tour events, making 20 cuts and five top-ten finishes. He was 34th on the Race To Dubai.

He was T-8th at the Abu Dhabi Golf Championship and T-6th at the Nordea Masters, three shots back of winner Thongchai Jaidee. He was 4th at the Alstom Open de France, two shots back of the winner Graeme McDowell.

2015 Notes: He played in 21 European Tour events, making 11 cuts with one top-ten finish. He was 89th on the Race to Dubai. His best finish was 2nd at the Saltire Energy Paul Lawrie Match Play, where he lost in the finals to Kiradech Aphibarnrat.

2016 Notes: Played in 21 European Tour events, making 12 cuts with two top-ten finishes. Was 95th in the Race to Dubai. Was T-7th at the D+D Real Czech Masters and T-3rd at the Porsche European Open, three shots back of the Levy/Ross Fisher playoff.

2017 Notes: He played in 22 European Tour events, making nine cuts and one top-ten finish. He was 104th in the Race to Dubai. His best finish was third at the British Masters, four shots back of the winner Paul Dunne.

2018 Notes: Played in 22 European Tour events, making 11 cuts. Was 166th in the Race to Dubai. His best finish was T-17th in the Nordea Masters.

2019 Notes: He played in 25 European Tour events, making 12 cuts and one top-ten finish. He was 149th in the Race to Dubai, and his best finish was 10th at the D+D Real Czech Masters.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 30 PGA Tour Champions events with 11 top-tens and finished 22nd in the Charles Schwab Cup. Made it through the PGA Tour Champions Qualifying tournament and was 3rd in the final stages to get his tour card for 2020. It couldn't have come at a better time, because COVID-19 meant they couldn't play in any European Legends events. On the European Tour played twice, missing the cut at Abu Dhabi and T-45th at the Dubai Desert Classic. He was T-14th at the Katrineholm Open on the Nordic Golf League. In 2021 he missed the cut at Abu Dhabi and Dubai Desert Classic.

On the PGA Tour, Champions was T-23rd in his first start at the 2020 Chubb Classic. He got his first top-ten in his next start at the 2020 Cooguard Classic. His next start was T-2nd at the Hoag Classic, two shots back of the winner Ernie Els. He was 4th at the Charles Schwab Series at Ozarks National. Went through a stretch of top tens, T-6th at the Pure Insurance Championship, T-4th at the SAS Championship, T-9th at the Dominion Energy Charity, and T-5th at the Timber Tech Championship. He was T-2nd at the 2021 Chubb Classic, a shot back of winner Steve Stricker. He was 3rd at the Regions Tradition, four shots back of the Cejka/Stricker playoff. Was T-10th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, six shots back of winner Dicky Pride. Finished T-7th at the American Family Insurance Championship, five shots back of winner Jerry Kelly. He was forced to withdraw from the season's last two events due to a back injury.

2022 Notes: Played in 22 PGA Tour Champions events with six top-ten finishes. Was 24th in the Schwab rankings and 25th on the money list with earnings of $779,163. The back was normal, with four months off at the end of 2021. In his first event back, he was T-5th at the Chubb Classic. The following week was T-6th at the Cologuard Classic. At Sanford International, he matched the low round in tournament history with an 8-under 62 in the first round and held the co-lead entering the final round. Shot a final round 66 but lost to Steve Stricker in a playoff after Stricker birdied the first playoff hole. Karlsson and Stricker each matched the tournament record for the low 54-hole score, with both carding a 14-under 194. Karlsson's second-place finish matches his best on PGA Tour Champions, while his 194 is a career-low 54-hole score. He was T-6th at the TimberTech Championship, and the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship was T-30th.

2023 Notes: Played in 18 PGA Tour Champions events with six top-ten finishes. He was 25th in the Schwab rankings and 25th on the money list, earning $950,597. Player Notes: Kingston was born in Ottosdal, South Africa. He turned professional in 1988 and was a member of the European and Sunshine Tour. He has also competed on the Asian Tour, where he collected four tournament victories.

Kingston has been playing on the Sunshine Tour for the last 26 years. Since his debut season in 1991, James has never finished outside the top 25 on the Sunshine Tour Order of Merit. In that time, he has won 10 events, including his most prized victory, the 2008 edition of the South African Open at Pearl Valley. James has also spent time on the European (where he is currently a member) and Asian Tours (where he has won four times). Victory at the Sunshine Tour's Vodacom Championship in February 2008 lifted Kingston into the top 100 of the Official World Golf Rankings for the first time.

He proved that age is but a number by following up his win at the SA Open with victory at the 2009 Mercedes-Benz Championship, in a playoff against Anders Hansen, at the age of 43. In 2002, James won an Audi TT at the Alfred Dunhill Championship with an amazing hole-in-one. Using a 4-iron, he pulled his tee shot into some trees left of the green: the ball then dropped onto the green and rolled into the cup, earning him instant global fame as the bizarre ace was CNN's Play of the Day. James also has a keen interest in wildlife and nature.

On the European Tour, he has played in 324 events, making the cut in 183. He has been in the top ten 33 times and earned €4,489,327.

On turning 50 joined the European Senior and played in 2016.

SOREN KJELDSSEN

Birth Date: May 17, 1975

Birthplace: Aalborg, Denmark

Home: Ascot, England

Turned Professional: 1995

Joined PGA Tour: 2017

Joined the DP World Tour: 1998

DP World Tour Playoff Record: 1-1

PGA Tour Champions Playoff Record: 0-1

DP World Tour Victories: 4 - 2003 Johnnie Walker Championship at Gleneagles; 2008 Volvo Masters; 2009 Open de Andalucia de Golf; 2015 Dubai Duty Free Irish Open

Challenge Tour Victory: 1997 Volvo Finnish Open

Other win: 2016 ISPS Handa World Cup [with Thorbjorn Olesen].

Player Notes: Kjeldsen represented Denmark at the Eisenhower Trophy event in 1994 and at the World Cup in 1998, '99, 2003, and '04. He turned professional in 1995. Kjeldsen's success on the second-tier Challenge Tour in 1997, which included his first professional victory at the Volvo Finnish Open, secured membership for the European Tour for 1998. He has performed steadily at this level, winning his first European Tour title at the 2003 Diageo Championship at Gleneagles.

His second European Tour win came at the 2008 Volvo Masters at Valderrama Golf Club in Andalucia, Spain, where he defeated Martin Kaymer and Anthony Wall by two shots. This was the final staging of the Volvo Masters because, as part of the Race to Dubai introduced in 2009, the European Tour season now concludes at the Dubai World Championship. He ended the year 10th on the Order of Merit, his best year-end ranking.

Kjeldsen won his third European Tour event and second consecutive event on Spanish soil with a three-shot win over David Drysdale at the 2009 Open de Andalucia in Marbella, Andalusia, Spain. Also in 2009, he finished 3rd at the BMW PGA Championship, 4th at the Scottish Open, 6th at the PGA Championship, and 7th at the WGC-CA Championship.

He finished 2nd at the 2010 Andalucia Masters and the 2011 Volvo China Open. In 2012, he finished 2nd at the Reale Seguros Open de Espana and 5th at the Scottish Open.

2013 Notes: Finished T-8th at the French Open. Opened 69-68 before stalling, with weekend rounds of 73-73. Was 3rd at the ISPS Handa Wales Open in Newport. Shot a final-round 66 at Celtic Manor to record his second top-10 of the season. Finished 10th at the KLM Open, shooting a final-round 66 at Kennemer G&CC. Ended the season ranked 61st in the Race to Dubai.

2014 Notes: Had only one top-10 finish during the European Tour season, a T-3rd at the Real Czech Masters, shooting rounds of 68-70-68-71 to end the event tied with Merrick Bremner, three shots behind winner Jamie Donaldson. Finished the year 103rd in the Race to Dubai.

2015 Notes: Enjoyed a summer to remember in 2015, first winning the Dubai Duty Free Irish Open, his first victory in six years, then reaching 500 European Tour appearances at the PGA Championship held at Whistling Straits. Celebrated the milestone the following week on home soil at the Made in Denmark, where he finished T-2nd. Called it the best experience he has had on a golf course when thousands of fans packed the famous 16th hole with flags bearing Denmark the first round, cheering wildly as his tee shot ended inches from the cup. His win at Royal County Down, where he defeated Eddie Pepperell and Bernd Wiesberger in a playoff, ended a frustrating period and sparked a resurgence since turning 40. The week after, he finished 2nd at the Nordea Masters and had another runner-up result at the British Masters. For the year, produced a career-best nine top-10 finishes, including a T-10th at the season-closing DP World Tour Championship. He was 15th in the Race to Dubai.

2016 Notes: Finished T-8th at the Dubai Desert Classic, T-7th at the Masters, and T-4th at the Open de España. Was T-9th at the British Open. Playing the fall events on the European Tour, he finished T-8th at Made in Denmark, T-7th at the Alfred Dunhill Links, and T-4th at the DP World Tour Dubai, which helped him claim the 18th spot in the Race to Dubai. Partnered with Thorbjorn Olesen, Team Denmark won the ISPS Handa World Cup of Golf, claiming a four-shot victory at Kingston Heath Golf Club in Australia. Thanks to his top-10 finishes at the Masters and the British Open, Kjeldsen could win enough points to earn a PGA Tour card for 2017.

2017 Notes: Started slowly, missing the cut at all four West Coast Swing events in which he played. Reached the quarter-finals of the WGC-Dell Match Play Championship, but lost to Jon Rahm, finishing the week T-5th. On the European Tour, was T-9th at the Aberdeen Asset Management Scottish Open.

2026 Notes: Was T-10th at the Colguard Classic.

Player Notes: Langer's Czech-born father settled in Bavaria after jumping from a Russian train filled with prisoners of war bound for Siberia. He started golf at age 9 as a caddie in Anhausen, Germany, and spent the next seven years practicing and playing as much golf as possible between caddie duties. At 15, took a job as an assistant professional at the Munich Golf and Country Club. He joined the European Tour at age 18, winning for the first time in 1980 at the Dunlop Masters. In 1981, he led the Order of Merit and won three times, including the German Open, where he was the first native to win in the event's 70-year history. After 1985, he split his time between Europe and the United States, having his best year on the PGA Tour in 1985 with wins at the Masters and the Heritage Classic seven days later.

He captained the 2004 European Ryder Cup team. A member of 10 European Ryder Cup teams (1981, '83, '85, '87, '89, '91, '93, '95, '97, and 2002). He was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 2002, shortly before claiming his 42nd title on the European Tour at the Volvo Masters Andalucia at Club de Golf Valderrama. He tied with Colin Montgomerie following a superb final-round 67, becoming the only player in tour history to share a victory in two events. He had a similar playoff experience with Seve Ballesteros in 1986 when the Trophee Lancome was abandoned due to darkness.

Led the European Tour Order of Merit twice (1981 and '84) and was among the top 30 money winners yearly except one (39th in 1996) from 1980 to 2002.

Finished as the PGA Tour Champions' money leader in 2008, '09, '10, '12, '13, '14, '15, '16, '17, '18, and '20-'21.

His 2010 season was highlighted by wins at the Senior British Open at Carnoustie and the U.S. Senior Open at Sahalee Country Club in Sammamish, Washington. He defeated Fred Couples by three shots.

In 2011, he made only 14 PGA Tour Champions appearances due to left-thumb surgery that kept him out of action from late March until mid-June. The highlight of his year came in his third start when he won the ACE Group Classic.

2012 Notes: Became the Champions Tour's first four-time winner of the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner when he passed the $2-million mark ($2,140,296) for the fourth time in the last five years. He finished in the top 10 in 14 of his last 15 starts and placed 2nd to Tom Lehman in the year-long Charles Schwab Cup race, losing by 435 points, although he won two titles that season. He won the Nedbank Champions Challenge in November in South Africa.

2013 Notes: Returned to the winner's circle at the ACE Group Classic and Gwinnett Championship, winning his fifth money title in the previous six years, earning $2,448,428 in official money, $200,000 more than runner-up Kenny Perry. In 24 starts, he had 18 top-10 finishes.

2014 Notes: Earned Player of the Year honors for an unprecedented fourth time (2008 '09, '10, and '14), on the strength of five victories, the most by a player in a season since he won five in 2010. Two wins were in majors at the British Senior

Open and later defeating Jeff Sluman to win the Constellation Senior Players. With fellow countryman Martin Kaymer winning The Players Championship a month before, it was the first time professionals from the same country other than the United States had held both tours' Players Championship titles in the same year. He also won the Mitsubishi Electric Championship, Insuperity Invitational, and the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. In 21 PGA Tour Champions starts, he had 18 top-10 finishes, winning the Charles Schwab Cup and the money race. In December, he ended his year when he teamed with his son, Jason, to win the PNC Father/Son Challenge in Orlando, Fla., by two shots over Davis Love III and his son, Dru.

2015 Notes: Earned his 24th victory when he successfully defended his Constellation Senior Players title at Belmont CC near Boston, with a six-stroke win over Kirk Triplett. He became the first player since Arnold Palmer (1984-85) to win consecutive Constellation Senior Players. He also tied Miller Barber for 4th place on the all-time victory list. Shot four consecutive rounds in the 60s and led wire-to-wire, joining Palmer (1985) and Jack Nicklaus (1990) as players to win the Constellation Senior Players leading from start to finish. His fifth career major title came in his 157th start and extended to nine his streak of consecutive years winning at least one PGA Tour Champions event, matching the second-longest streak in the Tour's history. At 57 years, 9 months, 18 days, he became the second-oldest winner of the Constellation Senior Players (Raymond Floyd, 57 years, 10 months, 12 days in 2000). The victory ended a drought of just over nine months, and it was the first time since 2012 that he had not won a title before the start of June. Finished T-5th at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship, five strokes behind winner Miguel Angel Jimenez. He earned his second top-10 of the year with a T-9th finish at the Tucson Conquistadores. He was runner-up at the Greater Gwinnett Championship, finishing T-5th at the Regions Tradition, 6th at the Senior PGA Championship, and T-3rd at the U.S. Senior Open. Was 2nd at the Senior Open Championship, 3M Championship, and Boeing Classic. Finished T-3rd at the SAS Championship, won the San Antonio Championship and lost a playoff to Billy Andrade at the Charles Schwab Cup. Finished the year 1st in the Schwab rankings for the third time and led the money list for the seventh time.

2016 Notes: Langer won early at the Chubb Classic in February and later at the Regions Tradition. They were his 26th and 27th victories on the PGA Tour Champions. The latter title moved him into 3rd place on the all-time wins list behind Hale Irwin (45) and Lee Trevino (29). He had an impressive showing at the Masters, just two strokes shy of 54-hole leader Jordan Spieth, but a closing-round 79 left him T-24th at the finish in his 33rd appearance at Augusta National. At the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf, he finished T-8th with Tom Lehman. He played at his 25th Players Championship but missed the cut after consecutive rounds of 72. Won the Regions Tradition and finished T-3rd at the Senior PGA Championship the following week. He captured his third 2016 title at the Constellation Senior Players. He finished 3rd at the 3M Championship, two strokes out of the playoff. Two weeks after finishing T-11th at the U.S. Senior Open, Langer won the Boeing Classic, making a four-foot birdie putt at the first playoff hole to defeat Woody Austin and Kevin Sutherland. He finished runner-up four times in his next six starts, including the last event of the year, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. He won his fourth and third-consecutive Charles Schwab Cup title. He also recorded his eighth Arnold Palmer Award as the Tour's leading money winner and a record sixth Jack Nicklaus Award as the Player of the Year. He won the Byron Nelson Award for the lowest-scoring average for the fifth time, matching Don January's record.

2017 Notes: He started the year by winning his 30th career Champions Tour title when he defeated Fred Couples by a stroke in the weather-shortened Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. The win broke a tie for 2nd place in career victories with Lee Trevino at 29 and gave him sole possession of 2nd place behind Hale Irwin, who owns 45 career titles. Finished T-6th at the Chubb Classic, 3rd at the Tucson Conquistadores, T-3rd at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, and 2nd at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic. Watched his record streak of consecutive sub-par rounds come to a close at 36 when he shot a one-over-par 73 in the second round of the Mitsubishi Electric Classic in April. He had started the streak at the 2016 Boeing Classic. Of his 36 rounds, 28 were in the 60s, and he averaged 67.69 during his impressive run. He won his eighth and ninth Champions Tour majors with titles at the Regions Tradition and Senior PGA Championship, the last Champions major to elude him. He added another major with a three-stroke win at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Porthcawl in Wales. With his 10th major victory, he not only is the first player to win the career "super slam" of all five majors, but he has also won more Champions majors than anyone else, passing Jack Nicklaus' eight total wins. Added three more titles at the Pure Insurance Championship, Dominion Energy Charity, and won a playoff over Miguel Angel Jimenez at the PowerShares QQQ Championship. The only downside of the year was that he led the Charles Schwab Cup race for most of the season and narrowly missed claiming a fourth consecutive title and fifth overall when he lost a playoff to Kevin Sutherland at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Still, he won the money title with earnings of $3,677,359, the biggest haul ever on the PGA Tour Champions Tour.

2018 Notes: Finished 2nd at the Boca Raton Championship, his 150th career PGA Tour Champions top-10 finish. Was 2nd at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, where he lost a playoff to Steve Flesch, and 2nd again at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf when Langer and his partner Tom Lehman lost a playoff to Paul Broadhurst and Kirk Triplett. He finished T-2nd at the Principal Charity Classic, two strokes behind the winner, Tom Lehman. He won the Insuperity Invitational, defeating Paul Goydos, Bart Bryant, and Jeff Maggert by a stroke. With the win, Langer claimed a victory in every year of his PGA Tour Champions career. It's now 12 consecutive years, the most of anyone in Champions Tour history. He didn't play in the Senior PGA Championship, his son was graduating, and Bernhard wanted to attend. Was 2nd at the Senior Open Championship, won again at the SAS Championship, and was runner-up at the Dominion Energy Charity. He captured his record fifth Charles Schwab Cup, won the money title ($2,222,154) for the seventh consecutive year, and finished with the Tour's best scoring average (69.01) for the fifth consecutive year. He has a tour record of five wins at 60 or older and 38 victories overall. He led the Tour with 14 top-10s, and his six runner-up finishes were his most in a single season.

2019 Notes: Played in 22 PGA Tour Champions events with 12 top-10 finishes. Was 4th in the Schwab Cup rankings. He finished T-3rd at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. At the Oasis Championship, he birdied five of his first seven holes en route to a five-stroke win. Bogeyed the first playoff hole and lost to Miguel Angel Jimenez in a three-man playoff at the Chubb Classic. He finished T-5th at the Rapiscan Systems and T-6th at the Regions Tradition. After the Chubb Championship, Langer was at home practicing when he felt pain in his rib and stomach. Returned after a six-week rest and finished T-5th at the Rapisan and T-6th at the Regions. Shot a final-round 66 to overcome a three-stroke deficit and win The Senior Open Championship for the fourth time. It was his 40th win and Tour-record 11th senior major, and he became the third player to win the same major four times. At age 61 years, 11 months, and 1 day, he became the oldest major winner in Tour history and is the Tour's sixth-oldest winner. It was his seventh win at age 60 or older. He continued his outstanding play: T-7th at the Boeing Classic, T-7th at the Ally Challenge, T-9th at the Pure Insurance Championship, and T-4th at the Dominion Energy Charity Classic. At the Invesco QQQ, he had a bogey-free, final-round 67 but made his first bogey of the day on the first extra hole of a playoff to lose to Colin Montgomerie. The following week, finished T-4th at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and made a hole-in-one in the final round. Later that year, he won the PNC Father/Son Challenge with his son, Jason.

After the break for COVID-19, he finished T-7th at the Ally Challenge and T-10th at the Bridgestone Senior Players. Finished T-2nd at the Charles Schwab Series at Bass Pro Shops Big Cedar Lodge, where he was part of a four-man playoff in which Shane Bertsch carded a birdie on the first extra hole to win. It was his Tour-record 15th playoff appearance (6-9) and the ninth consecutive season he has participated in a playoff. It was also his fifth straight playoff loss; his last win in extra holes came at the 2017 Invesco QQQ Championship. He was T-3rd at the Sanford International, two strokes behind the winner, Miguel Angel Jimenez. He was T-8th at the PURE Insurance Championship and T-4th at the Dominion Energy Charity, five shots back of winner Phil Mickelson. ANDREW MARSHALL

Birth Date: August 22, 1973

Birthplace: Sutton-in-Ashfield, England

Age: 52 Ht.: 5'9 Wt.: 145

Home: East Dereham, England

Turned Professional: 1995

Joined the DP World Tour: 2001

Legends Tour Victory: 1 - 2025 Sergio Melpignano Senior Italian Open

Player Notes: His first year on The European Tour in 2002 left him in 133rd place on the Order of Merit but a return to the Qualifying School was rewarded with a return to the European Tour. He made use of it, finishing 107th in 2003 to avoid a return trip. Enjoyed similar returns in 2004 and 2005, where he finished 90th and 105th, respectively, on the Order of Merit. In his formative years, despite his tender age, his frustrated family persuaded Dereham Golf Club to bend their rules and admit him after he began breaking windows and digging up the lawn while practicing.

"They thought I'd be better off digging up the course," he said. Still coached by his first mentor, Steve Beckham, with whom he worked at Barnham Broom, but decided club golf was not for him. Club members came to his aid in 2001 by buying shares to cover his costs on the Challenge Tour. He was able to keep his European Tour card between 2002 and 2007, but lost it in 2008.

Showed nerves of steel at the 2011 European Tour Qualifying School to earn his playing rights for 2012. Needing to par the last two holes to get in on the mark, he hacked out of bushes, chipped onto the green to ten feet, and holed the putt at the 17th, then sank a 15-footer for par at the last, having again been in trouble off the tee. Had spent the previous three seasons on the Challenge Tour, with limited success.

Was able to play on the European Tour in 2012 and 13th before losing it for the last time. Between 1999 and 2017, played in 258 DP World Tour events, making 136 cuts. He was in the top ten 8 times; his best finishes were T-2nd at the 2003 Madeira Island Open and the Johnnie Walker Championship at Gleneagles. He earned €1,660,200. He qualified and played in two British Opens, missing the cut in 2005 and Finishing T-48th in 2006.

He first appeared on the European Legends Tour in August 2023, just as he turned 50, and it was an impressive start to his time on the Tour, with two top-ten finishes in the four events he played. He finished T-16th during his birthday week at the Staysure PGA Seniors Championship in his first event, then claimed T-9th at the Senior Italian Open. Had his best finish, a 5th at the Vinpearl DIC Legends Vietnam, and rounded off the season with a T-34th place finish at the MCB Tour Championship in Mauritius.

2024 Notes: Played in 15 Legends Tour events and had six top-ten finishes. Was 11th on the Order of Merit with earnings of €197,211. Best finish 2nd in the India Legends Championship and T-3rd at the Senior Italian Open. At the end of the year, at the Legends Tour Q-Shool finished 5th and claimed the final card for the 2025 Legends Tour season.

2025 Notes. Played in 18 Legends Tour events and had six top-ten finishes. Was 9th on the Order of Merit with earnings of €235,567. Shot a final round 66 to win his first Legends Tour title at the Sergio Melpignano Senior Italian Open. Played in three events on the PGA Tour Champions, best finish T-40th at the Senior PGA Championship.

2026 Notes: Was T-14th at the Staysure Marbella Legends.

Player Notes: McCarron played golf from age 3 and was a member of the UCLA golf team that won the 1988 NCAA Championship. He turned professional in 1992 and played on the Canadian Tour in 1993 and the Hooters Tour in 1994.

He joined the PGA Tour in 1995 after finishing 31st in Q-School. He almost lost his Tour card in 1995, when he stood at 212th on the money list going into the final two events. However, he finished 3rd in Las Vegas, retained his card after finishing T-38th, and won $4,620 at the last event in Texas. Between 1995 and 2005, he finished in the top 125 of the money list but hurt his elbow and had an unproductive 2006 season.

While out of action following elbow surgery in 2007, McCarron worked as an analyst for Golf Channel. He returned to the Tour after his problems in 2008 but never finished higher than 92nd on the money list and 82nd on the FedEx Cup list.

In his PGA Tour career, he played in 442 events, making the cut in 254 of them. He won $12.6 million with three wins, six runner-ups, and 39 top-25 finishes.

2015 Notes: Made his PGA Tour Champions debut in July, finishing T-25th at The Senior Open Championship at Sunningdale GC. He shared the 36-hole lead at the San Antonio Championship with Michael Allen late in the year. He eventually finished T-3rd with Allen, four shots behind Bernhard Langer despite posting a 70 in the final round. In their next start at the Toshiba Classic, he shared the 18-hole lead with Steve Pate after an 8-under-par 63, his low round on the PGA Tour Champions. He followed with rounds of 68-70 to eventually T-9th. For the year, in eight events, he was 49th on the money list and 45th in the Charles Schwab rankings.

2016: McCarron placed 6th at the Regions Tradition, then T-7th at the Senior PGA Championship, and finally tasted victory at the Principal Charity Classic. The win came thanks to making birdies on his final three holes to beat Billy Andrade and Miguel Angel Jimenez by one shot. He came close to winning again at the Senior Open Championship; he was among the leaders all four days at Carnoustie but bogeyed at 16 and 18 on the final day, dropping him to a 2nd-place finish and two shots behind winner Paul Broadhurst. Was the 18-and-36-hole leader at the Pacific Links Bear Mountain Championship in Canada after rounds of 62-66, but eventually fell in a three-hole playoff with Colin Montgomerie. He was again in a playoff at the Dominion Charity Classic with Tom Byrum, but won the playoff. Played in 24 events and was 5th on the money list and 4th in the Schwab Rankings.

2017 Notes: Enjoyed perhaps the best year of his professional career with four victories, a trio of runner-up finishes, and a second-place finish on the Charles Schwab Cup money list with a career-best $2.6 million. He won his third PGA Tour Champions title when he drained a 6-foot eagle putt on the final hole to win the Allianz Championship. He came to the final hole one shot behind clubhouse leaders Kenny Perry and Carlos Franco, hitting a 7-iron from 179 yards to six feet to set up his winning putt. He had three Eagles over 54 holes, including two in the final round. He broke through for his first major title in July when he overcame a six-stroke deficit on the final day to claim the Constellation Senior Players Championship by one shot over Bernhard Langer and Brandt Jobe. He won his third title of 2017 when he closed with three consecutive birdies to defeat Kevin Sutherland by one shot at the Dicks Sporting Goods Open. The highlight of his victory was an 11-under-par 61 on Saturday. His round included eight birdies and two eagles, a career low. He became a winner for the fourth time in early September when he held off Miguel Angel Jimenez for a one-shot win in the Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary. It opened with a 7-under-par 63 and followed with a 6-under-par 64 to open a two-shot margin after 36 holes. A final-round 67 was good enough for the victory. He ended his year T-8th in the Dominion Energy Charity, 4th in the PowerShares QQQ, and T-9th in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2018 Notes: Played in 26 PGA Tour Champions events with 13 top-10 finishes. Started his year with a T-6th finish at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. He won the American Family Insurance Championship by one shot over Jerry Kelly and the Shaw Charity Classic by one shot after shooting 63 in the final round. Finished T-2nd at the Toshiba Classic, one shot back of winner Vijay Singh. Also, the next week, T-5th at the Regions Tradition had another top-five finish with a T-3rd at the Senior PGA Championship. He also finished 3rd in the Senior Open Championship and the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. He would have won the Charles Schwab Cup had he converted his 54-hole lead into a victory at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Instead, he finished the tournament T-3rd, was 2nd in the final standings, his third straight top-five finish, and finished second on the money list with $2,008,618.

2019 Notes: Played in 26 PGA Tour Champions events with 14 top-ten finishes. He was 1st in the Schwab Rankings. Another season of contending in just about every event he plays in. He won the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, the Insperity Invitational, and the Japan Championship. He was 2nd in the Senior PGA Championship, one shot back of Ken Tanigawa, and T-2nd at the Cologuard Classic, four shots back of the winner Mark O'Meara. He was T-3rd at the Hoag Classic, one shot back of the Triplett/Austin playoff. He won the Mitsubishi Electric Classic by two shots over Joe Durant, Kent Jones, Jerry Kelly, and Kirk Triplett. After finishing T-5th at the Bass Pro Shops, legends won the Insperity Invitational by two shots over Scott Parel. At the Senior PGA Championship was 2nd, a shot back of the winner Ken Tanigawa. Won the Japan Championship by three shots over Billy Andrade and Kirk Triplett. Was T-6th at the U.S. Senior Open, T-7th at the Bridgestone Players, and T-4th at Dick's Sporting Goods Open. As the two-time defending champion at the Shaw Charity Classic, he finished runner-up by one shot behind Wes Short, Jr., who birdied his final hole for the win. It was his third runner-up finish of the season. He was T-7th at the Sandor International and T-8th at the SAS Championship. Led the Charles Schwab Cup standings the last 21 weeks of the season and became the fourth player in Tour history to lead at least 20 weeks in the same season. Won the season money title ($2,534,090) and ended Bernhard Langer's seven-year run atop the money list. Finished with the sixth-best scoring average (69.53).

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 26 PGA Tour Champions events with five top-ten finishes. He was 57th in the Schwab Rankings. Begin the season T-9th at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. He was 5th at the 2000 Hoag Classic, three shots back of the winner Ernie Els. He was T-8th at the Sanford International. Began 2021 T-9th at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai and was T-10th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic. But he didn't play like Scott McCarron since the start of the 2020 season, before it was interrupted by COVID-19, and before he suffered an ankle injury that wasn't diagnosed as two torn tendons until he had played on it for nearly a year. At the 2021 Dick's Sporting Goods on the fourth of July, the leg was too painful, and cortisone shots weren't helping. So he decided to have surgery, but that became complicated. His tendons couldn't simply be reattached because, with his high arches, there was no guarantee they wouldn't tear again. So he had to have his left heel surgically broken and his foot realigned to have less arch. The tendons were reattached, and two long screws were placed in his foot to hold everything in place. The surgery was successful, but he was finished for the year and didn't start playing golf for four months.

2022 Notes: He played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. He was 54th in the Schwab rankings and 54th on the money list, earning $366,741. His first event back from surgery was the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai; he finished T-34th. His best finish was T-10th at the SAS Championship. He was T-41st in his last start of the year at the TimberTech Championship.

2023 Notes: He played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events, with two top-ten finishes. He was 40th in the Schwab rankings and 42nd on the money list, with earnings of $509,334. He closed with a bogey-free 65 at the Hoag Classic en route to a T-7th finish, his best result on PGA Tour Champions since finishing 5th at the 2021 Hoag Classic. He birdied his last two holes to close with a 5-under 67 and finish T-4th at the Dominion Energy Charity Classic.

2024 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. Was 69th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $287,575. Best finish, T-4th at the Constellation FURYK & FRIENDS

2025 Notes: He played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events, with one top-ten finish. He was 68th in the Schwab rankings and 66th on the money list, with earnings of $260,397. Best finish T-8th at the Principal Charity Classic.

2026 Notes: Best finish, T-15th Cologuard Classic.

Player Notes: Got his start in golf at age 3 when his grandfather gave him a set of clubs. One of five siblings. List's biggest thrill in golf as qualifying for two U.S. Opens (2002 and 2006). Member of the Golden Bear Tour in 2004. All-ACC and All-American selection at Florida State (1997-98) and turned professional in 1998. Lists heroes as Cal Ripken Jr., Mike Schmidt, and Bo Jackson. He was an all-conference baseball selection as a high school sophomore.

McNeill had some success on various minitours, winning $10,000 at the 2002 Beck's Open at Fort Myers Country Club and $25,000 at the Waterloo Open in Iowa in 2001.

In his fifth try at PGA Tour Q-School at the end of 2002, he made it through all three stages, finishing T82nd and getting access to the Korn Ferry Tour.

2003 Korn Ferry Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 24; Rounds Played - 63; in money - 8; top -10 Finishes - 1; Scoring Average - 71.95 (Rank 123rd); money $31,153 Rank (115th); Best finish: T7th Permian Basin Charity Golf Classic.

After not getting through PGA Tour Q-School at the end of 2003, I took a club professional job at Shadow Wood Country Club in Bonita Springs, and then in 2006 as an assistant professional at The Forest Country Club in Fort Myers. In those three years, he missed the cut in the Korn Ferry Tour First Tee Arkansas Classic in 2004 and then missed the cut at the 2006 U.S. Open. On the Korn Ferry Tour in 2006, finished T53rd Price Cutter Charity Championship and missed the cut at the Oregon Classic.

Made a decision to try for a ninth time Q-School at the end of 2006 and made it through all three stages for the second time. Not only was he one of eight players to negotiate all three stages, but he was also the medalist by five shots (23 under total), the largest margin of victory since Scott Verplank topped Blaine McCallister by six in 1997.

After winning PGA Tour Qualifying medalist honors in 2006, he earned his first PGA Tour win at the Frys.com Open, making him and Brandt Snedeker the only two rookies to win on Tour in 2007.

2008 Notes: Nine top-25 finishes was 76th on the money list in his sophomore season.

2009 Notes: After a slow start to his year, he ended his year finishing runner-up in two of his last three starts at Justin Timberlake and Disney, finishing 57th on the money list with $1.4 million in earnings.

2010 Notes: In 28 events, had one top-ten, T-5th Northern Trust Open. Ended the year 138th on the money list, then withdrew from Q-School.

Player Notes: Took up golf while in high school after years of playing baseball. His game did not come together until he was in college, when PGA Tour Champions member Jim Ferree helped get him started. Florida Southern coach Charlie Matlock then became the main influence for Mediate. He started using the long putter to save his back and became the first player to win on the PGA Tour with a long putter in the 1991 Doral-Ryder Open. He missed most of the 1994 season with a ruptured disc, which was surgically repaired in July 1994.

In 2008, he came close to becoming the oldest U.S. Open champion at age 45 before losing to Tiger Woods at Torrey Pines in a memorable playoff. Mediate finished regulation at 1-under-par 283 and held the clubhouse lead as Woods and Lee Westwood, both one stroke back, played the par-5 18th hole. Woods made a birdie to force an 18-hole playoff. In the Monday playoff, Mediate made three consecutive back-nine birdies to take a one-stroke lead over Woods to the last hole. Woods made a birdie to tie and force sudden death as both players shot even-par 71s. Woods parred the par-4 seventh hole, the first sudden-death hole, as Mediate made a bogey after driving into a fairway bunker and missing a 20-foot par putt.

His career totals on the PGA Tour are 646 starts, with six wins, 10 runner-ups, and six third-place finishes. He had 64 top 10s and made 412 cuts with earnings of $16.8 million.

2013 Notes: Became the 16th player in history to win his first PGA Tour Champions event when he was a two-stroke winner over Tom Pernice Jr. and Bernhard Langer in the 2013 Allianz Championship. He led after 36 holes by three following a career-best and tournament-record 11-under-par 61. He then held off a final-round charge by Pernice and Langer. He was tied with Pernice heading to No. 17 but took the lead for good when Pernice made a bogey on the second-to-last hole. He 2011 Notes: With limited status playing as a past winner and in the 125 to 150th category, got a 5th place finish in Puerto Rico and then T-6th at Zurich. T-2nd at the Viking Classic and a 2nd at the Wyndham Championship helped him finish 59th on the money list and 68th in the FedEx Cup race.

2012 Notes: Got back into the winners' circle at the Puerto Rico Open, beating Ryo Ishikawa by two shots. It was his only top-ten in 25 starts.

2013 Notes: In 21 starts, only had two top-25s, with a best finish of T-16th at the Wells Fargo Championship. Finished the year 102nd in the FedEx Cup race and 136th on the money race.

2014 Notes: Had four top-10 finishes in 16 made cuts, including a runner-up finish at The Greenbrier Classic. Was able to make it for a seventh time into the FedExCup Playoffs in which he made it to the BMW Championship, when he placed 46th in the final FedExCup standings and was 43rd on the money list. Finished T-7th at the season-opening Frys.com Open, four shots behind champion Jimmy Walker. Birdied five of his last six holes in the third round en route to a career-low and course record, 9-under 62. Finished T-6th at the Northern Trust Open, his third top-10 finish of the year was a 7th place finish in his home state of Florida at the Valspar Championship. Turned in the round of the week and his career at The Greenbrier Classic, with a final-round, 9-under 61 to finish second to Angel Cabrera by two shots. It topped his previous-low round on the PGA Tour of 62 during the third round of Frys.com Open. Runner-up finish at Greenbrier was at the time his 7th of his career and first since the 2011 Wyndham Championship.

McNeill played in a total of 324 PGA Tour events, making 176 cuts with 21 top-ten finishes. He won twice, the 2007 Frys.com Open and the 2012 Puerto Rico Open. He also had seven runner-up finishes. He won a total of $12,258,263.

Played the Korn Ferry tour full-time in 2003 and 2025. He played a total of 44 events, making 16 cuts with one top-ten finish, T-7th at the Permian Basin Charity Golf Classic.

2026 Notes: In his first PGA Tour Champions event, he was t-5th at the Chubb Classic, and was T-2nd at the James Hardie Invitational. Was one off the lead going into the final round, but shot 72 to finish 4 shots back of the winner Zach Johnson.

added a birdie at No. 18 to finish with a 54-hole total of 17-under-par 199, matching the tournament mark set in 2010 by Langer and John Cook. Coincidentally, his first PGA Tour win came in South Florida at the 1991 Doral-Ryder Open. He added a second title during the latter part of the summer in Canada when he blitzed the field in the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary. He played in 23 events and finished with two wins, one 3rd, and seven top 10s. He finished the year 10th on the money list with $1,341,098 in earnings.

2014 Notes: Narrowly missed a berth in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, finishing 31st in single-season earnings. He was among the top 30 through the first eight months of the season but slipped outside after the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in late September and could never regain a spot. His best finish of the year was 5th at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai, the first event of the season. He married Jessica Somers the day after the tournament at Hualalai. He made three starts on the PGA Tour, missing the cut at the Frys.com Open and the Wyndham Championship. He also withdrew from the Farmers Insurance Open after one round.

2015 Notes: Was 3rd at the Greater Gwinnett Championship after rounds of 68-67 at TPC Sugarloaf. He was three shots back after 36 holes before heavy rain canceled the final round. Got his season off to an excellent start at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. He was the 18-hole leader and shared the 36-hole lead with eventual winner Miguel Angel Jimenez. Saw his chances slip away in a four-hole stretch Sunday, with bogeys on Nos. 8, 9, and 11, and eventually finished 4th. He was 34th on the money list and 40th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Ended a nearly three-year victory drought when he went wire-to-wire to win the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores in Michigan. Tied the tournament record for best opening-round and overall 18-hole score (9-under-par 62), and then shattered records for a best 36-hole score (14-under-par 128) and best 54-hole total (14-under-par 199). His 72-hole score of 19-under-par 265 surpassed the previous mark of 268 by Sam Snead in 1973. He became the first player to go wire-to-wire in the event since Jack Nicklaus in 1991. The win ended a 55-event victory drought on the Champions Tour. He followed his victory in Michigan with a T-6th at the Principal Charity Classic the following week in Iowa. He had a T-6th at the PowerShares QQQ. In 21 starts, he had three top-10s and was 27th on the money list and 23rd on the Schwab Ranking.

2017 Notes: He started his year with a T-8th finish at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. He did not register another top-10 in 17 additional starts, finishing 65th on the money list.

The next event was T-10th at the Chubb Classic, T-5th at the Colguard Classic, and T-6th at the Toshiba Classic. He returned to the top-ten train with a T-8th at the Regions Tradition. He was T-5th at the Ally Challenge, shooting 66 in the final round, and T-9th at the Sanford International. He had a 35th-place finish in the Charles Schwab Cup. His four consecutive top-10s in February-March tied the longest streak of his career.

2019 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-ten finishes. He was 27th in the final Schwab rankings. At the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, he played in Sunday's final group for the first time since the 2016 Invesco QQQ Championship. He carded a final-round 72 and finished T-10th. T-7th with partner Lee Janzen at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. Birdied the last two holes and won the Sanford International when Ken Duke double-bogeyed the 18th hole. He started the day three shots off the lead and T-9th, and the win was his first since the 2016 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship, a span of 71 starts without a victory.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 31 PGA Tour Champions events with four top-tens and finished 43rd in the Charles Schwab Cup. Player Notes: He was one of the most consistent players on the European Tour. Montgomerie led the Order of Merit for a record eight years and seven consecutive years between 1993-99, also leading in 2005. He played college golf in the United States at Houston Baptist University and enjoyed a fine amateur career, winning the 1987 Scottish Amateur and 1985 Scottish Stroke Play Championship. He was also a member of the 1985 and 1987 Great Britain & Ireland Walker Cup Teams. He was named the 1988 Rookie of the Year in Europe and recorded his first victory in 1989 at the Portuguese Open, winning by 11 strokes.

Montgomerie, one of the most prolific Ryder Cup players, represented Europe eight times: 1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1999, 2002, 2004, and 2006. In 2006, he became the second European to win the contest five times. He was the top scorer at The Belfry in 2002 with four and a half points out of five and holed the winning putt at Oakland Hills in 2004. His victory over David Toms at The K Club in 2006 ensured he remained unbeaten in eight Ryder Cup singles matches stretching back to 1991. He has secured 23 and a half points from 36 matches and is the third-highest points scored in European history. His total Ryder Cup record is 20 wins, 9 losses, and 7 halves.

To top off his Ryder Cup career, he captained Europe to a Ryder Cup win against the United States at The Celtic Manor Resort in Oct. 2010. He inspired his team to a 14-and-a-half to 13-and-a-half victory as the Ryder Cup spilled into Monday for the first time in its history after torrential rain in Wales and called it the finest moment of his career.

In 71 majors, Montgomerie has five runner-up finishes, two of them being losses in playoffs. He has at least one runner-up in every major, except for the Masters, where his best finish was T-8th.

In 138 career PGA Tour starts, he never won and only has two unofficial wins in the United States, the 1998 Andersen Consulting World Championship and the 2000 Skins Game. That changed with his victory at the 2014 Senior PGA Championship.

One of his proudest moments came in May 2013, when he was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame. Although he never wanted to move to America and join the PGA Tour, he now plays a full schedule on the PGA Tour Champions.

2013 Notes: Joined the PGA Tour Champions in late June, debuting at the Constellation Senior Players Championship and finishing T-9th after weekend rounds of 69-65. He competed in 10 events and was 47th on the final money list, with his best finish a T-3rd at the AT&T Championship.

2014 Notes: He had a great first full season on the PGA Tour Champions. He was second only to Bernhard Langer in both Charles Schwab Cup points (3,307) and single-season earnings ($2,064,381). He notched 11 top 10s in his 18 starts, claiming the two biggest events in senior golf with wins at the Senior PGA Championship and the U.S. Senior Open. He got his first official win in the U.S. and first major championship when he won the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores, Mich. In July, he got his next major championship victory when he defeated Gene Sauers in a three-hole aggregate playoff in the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National in Edmond, Okla. Became the first player since Roger Chapman in 2012 to record his first two PGA Tour Champions wins in major championships. He became the fifth player to win the Senior PGA Championship and the U.S. Senior Open in the same year, joining Chapman (2012), Hale Irwin (1998), Jack Nicklaus (1991), and Gary Player (1988). He birdied the last two holes to finish second in The Senior Open Championship at Royal Porthcawl, 13 strokes back of Langer. He has also enjoyed success on the European Senior Tour. He defended his Travis Perkins Senior Masters title in late August, winning by a tournament-record 10 strokes at Woburn G.C. One week later, he added a second title to his list of accomplishments on that tour when he fired a final-round, 7-under-par 65 to win the Russian Open Golf Championship in Moscow. Won that circuit's John Jacobs Trophy as the leading Senior Tour Order of Merit player. Later in the year, he made his 600th career start on the European Tour in November's Turkish Airlines Open, where he finished 70th.

2015 Notes: Kicked off his Champions Tour campaign with a T-5th in the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. He was the 18 and 36-hole leader at The ACE Group Classic but saw his chances slip away when he made three bogeys on his back nine Sunday and finished fifth. Was T-5th in the Mississippi

Gulf Resort Classic and T-9th in the Tucson Conquistadores Classic.

He won his third major championship with a second consecutive Senior PGA Championship on The Pete Dye Course at French Lick Resort. In the U.S. Senior Open, he finished 2nd, two shots back of winner Jeff Maggert, and was 3rd in the Senior British Open, three shots back of winner Marco Dawson. For the year, he had 12 top-10s, and despite a terrible finish, he was 3rd on the money list and 2nd on the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Used three consecutive sub-par rounds in the Allianz Championship to finish T-6th in the year's first full-field event. He was T-4th in the Mitsubishi Electric Classic in April, posting weekend rounds of 66-69. He was T-4th in his next start with partner Mark O'Meara in the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. He was in the running for his third straight Senior PGA Championship but finished runner-up 4 shots back of winner Rocco Mediate. He returned to England and qualified to play in the British Open at Royal Troon, where his father was the longtime club secretary, and finished 78th. Finished T-6th in the Shaw Charity Classic in September. He claimed his fourth title on the Champions Tour when he outlasted Scott McCarron in a three-hole playoff in the Pacific Links Bear Mountain Championship. He was a T-7th finisher in October's SAS Championship thanks to a final-round 5-under-par 67. He was the 18-hole leader in the PowerShares QQQ Championship after a 7-under-par 65 and trailed by just one stroke after 36 holes. A 2-under-par 70 on Sunday led to a second-place finish, one short of Tom Pernice, Jr. Three rounds in the 60s led to a third-place finish in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, the final playoff event. In 22 Champions Tour starts, he was second on the money list and Schwab Rankings. In December, he was third in the European Senior Tour's MCB Tour Championship.

2017 Notes: Played in 21 events with 10 top-10 finishes, winning twice. He was 8th on the money list and 10th in Schwab Rank, winning twice. The first came at the Japan Airlines Championship, with birdies on four of his first five holes on the back nine in the final round, beating Billy Mayfair and Scott McCarron by a shot. A month later, at the SAS Championship shot a final round 64 for a three-shot win over Vijay Singh and Doug Garwood.

2018 Notes: Played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events and was in the top 10 three times. They held a two-shot lead through 36 holes but bogeyed the final hole of regulation at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai to fall one shot from winner Jerry Kelly and in 2nd place. Shot a final-round 64 to finish T-3rd at the American Family Insurance Championship. He was T-6th at the Senior PGA Championship. Montgomerie posted only three top-10s, the fewest in five full seasons on PGA Tour Champions. He posted just two top-20 finishes in his last 13 starts, and his 29th-place finish in the Charles Schwab Cup was his worst since 2013 when he turned 50. On the European Staysure Tour, played in five Staysure Tour events and won The Shipco Masters by three shots over Paul Eales. It was 12th in the Staysure Tour Order of Merit with €167,233.

shots back of winner Rocco Mediate. It was his best finish since finishing 2nd at the 2018 Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. He played in the final group in the final round and led by one with nine holes to go at the Dominion Energy Charity Classic. But Miguel Angel Jimenez shot a back nine 31 to win and beat Montgomerie by three shots. He defeated Bernhard Langer on the first playoff hole at the Invesco QQQ Championship for his 7th career victory. Shot a final-round 63 to erase a five-shot deficit going into the final round. International Victories: 1989 Visa Taiheiyo Masters (Japan); 1990 Taiheiyo Masters (Japan); and 1995 Tournoi Perrier de Paris (with Seve Ballesteros).

Player Notes: Olazabal started playing golf at age 6. His mother often took him out on the Real Golf Club de San Sebastian late in the afternoon when the course was deserted. Both his parents worked at the golf club (his father was the greenkeeper). He had an outstanding amateur career, winning the 1983 Italian, Spanish, and British Boys Amateur Championships and the 1984 British, Belgian, and Spanish Amateur Championships.

He turned professional in 1985. In his first season on the European Tour, he won twice (Swiss Open and Sanyo Open) and finished 2nd on the Order of Merit. After slipping to 17th in 1987, he found his form again in 1988 and finished 3rd, 2nd, 3rd, 7th, 6th, 18th, and 4th on the Order of Merit until 1995.

In 1995, he started an 18-month absence from competitive golf because of a painful foot condition that was initially misdiagnosed as rheumatoid arthritis. When a doctor in Germany started therapy on his back in 1996, the foot problem was alleviated, and he returned to the European Tour at the 1997 Dubai Classic. He then won the 1997 Turespana Masters-Open de Canarias in his third tournament back. His comeback was complete when he won the 1999 Masters.

Member of the 1987, '89, '91, '93, '97, '99 and 2006 Ryder Cup teams.

He made his Ryder Cup debut at age 21 in 1987. He combined with his compatriot and great friend, Seve Ballesteros, to form the most successful partnership in the competition's history, winning 11 matches, halving two, and losing only two.

Captained Europe to its comeback victory at the 2012 Ryder Cup, as his team overcame a 10-6 deficit in the final-day singles at Medinah Country Club to win 14-and-a-half to 13-and-a-half. Dedicated the win to Ballesteros. Was Nick Faldo's vice-captain at the 2008 Ryder Cup at Valhalla Golf Club in Kentucky, and in 2010, assisted in Europe's victory at Celtic Manor Resort, albeit in somewhat different circumstances. Having turned up to fulfill a sponsorship obligation, he was drafted as captain Colin Montgomerie's fifth vice-captain on the second day, when the playing format changed. His words of wisdom helped inspire the team to its win. He became the second Spaniard inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame when he joined Ballesteros in that illustrious group in November 2009.

Played 18 times in Europe in 2011, with one top-10 (T-5th at Iberdrola Open), and finished 169th in the Race to Dubai.

Joined PGA Tour: 2005

PGA Tour Playoff Record: 0-1

Joined the DP World Tour: 1996

DP World Tour Victories: 1 - 2003 The Quinn Direct British Masters

Korn Ferry Tour Victory: 2014 United Leasing Championship.

International Tour Wins: 3 - 1996 Gosen Challenge [EurChall]. 2003 The Daily Telegraph Damovo British Masters [Eur]. 2004 World Sand Championship.

Player Notes: Was ranked as the No.1 tennis player in Nottinghamshire at age 13. His wife, Jacqui, was a nationally ranked gymnast. First started playing on the European Tour in 1996 and played on that tour through 2005. Has played a total of 203 events in that tour, making 126 cuts, and finished in the top ten 27 times, with a win at the 2003 British Masters. Unfortunately, he had a serious back injury, which caused many problems. He had surgery on a bulging disc in his back, which kept him out of action for three months.

Between 2005 and 2017, he played on and off the PGA Tour, playing in 266 events, making 143 cuts, and 15 top-ten finishes. He was runner-up four times and won $8,277,386.

Played in 63 Korn Ferry Tour events, making 42 cuts with 13 top ten finishes. He had one win at the 2014 United Leasing Championship. He had career earnings of $723,310.

At the end of 2004, made it through all three stages of PGA Tour Q-School, finishing T4th in the final stage. Next year as a rookie on that tour finished 57th in the money race with earnings of $1.3 million. Next year, he finished 69th but stumbled in 2007 with earnings of only 426,601, which ranked 157th. Adding to his problem, he finished 62nd in Q-School, which meant spending 2008 on the Korn Ferry Tour. In 17 events, he finished in the top ten seven times, and his earnings of $309,805 got him the tenth spot and a return to the PGA Tour. Finished 109th in 2009 on the money list, but again stumbled in 2010, finishing 183rd. Again, a poor finish in Q-School meant that he spent 2011 on the Korn Ferry Tour. This time wasn't that good in 23 starts, only had two top-10s, and won only $121,259, which ranked 52nd on that money list, this time finished T-18th at Q-School, regaining his card for 2012.

2012 Notes: With 27 starts, he had three top-10s and an 88th-place finish on the final FedExCup points list and 85th on the money list. In February, he was T-9th at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am for his first top-10 of the season. Added another T-9th at the Memorial Tournament on the strength of a final-round 67. Had another strong final round a week later, at the FedEx St. Jude Classic, when he fired a Sunday 65 to finish T-11th. The final top 10 of the campaign came at The McGladrey Classic in October. Opened with a 64 at Sea Island and closed with a 65 at The Seaside Course for a T-7th, his best finish on tour.

2013 Notes: He made 13 of 24 PGA Tour cuts, with no top-10s. He finished 134th in the FedExCup standings. His best of four top-25 finishes was a T-12th at the RBC Canadian Open. He played in all four Korn Ferry Tour Finals events, finishing 52nd and failing to improve his status for 2013-14.

Best finish of the four was T-8th at the Chiquita Classic despite having a bad weekend, finishing just four back of the winner.

2014 Notes:

2014 Korn Ferry Tour Summary: tournaments entered - 12; in money - 7; top-10 finishes - 3; scoring average - 70.18 (ranked 38th); money - $143,631 (ranked 27th); best finish - won the United Leasing Championship.

Came ever so close to securing one of the first 25 PGA Tour cards at the Season-ending WinCo Foods Portland Open. After making the cut on the number with a birdie on the 36th hole, he put himself inside the top 25 on Saturday with a 65, only to fall to No. 27 at the weekend's end with a final-round 74 and T36 finish. Rounds of 67-67-68-70 at the first Korn Ferry Tour Finals event, the Hotel Fitness Championship, resulted in a third-place finish. Was one shot off Colt Knost's lead after three rounds but couldn't maintain the final-round pace of winner Bud Cauley's 65 and runner-up Knost's 68. A check for $68,000 secured his return to the PGA Tour for 2015.

In 2015, he held a share of the 18- and 54-hole leads at the FedEx St. Jude Classic before a final-round, even-par 70 resulted in a 2nd place finish as he made his quest to win his first Tour title. Ended four shots behind the winner, Fabian Gomez. Two starts later, over the Independence Day weekend, he opened with a 5-under 65 at the Greenbrier Classic en route to a T-6th with six others at 11-under 269, two shots from getting into the playoff.

2016 Notes: Played in 29 PGA Tour events, making 14 cuts with one top ten. Was 150th in the FedExCup and 154th on the money list with earnings of $484,955. His sole top ten was T-5th at the Sony Open in Hawaii, five shots back of the Fabian Gomez/Brandt Snedeker playoff.

2017 Notes: Played in 17 PGA Tour events, making 7 cuts with two top ten finishes. Was 142nd on the FedExCup standings and 134th on the money list with earnings of $738,711. The season's first event was T-2nd, four shots back of the winner, Cody Gribble. Had his second runner-up finish at the Barracuda Championship, losing to Chris Stroud in a playoff. Issues with his back were a mainstay throughout his years on the PGA Tour and Korn Ferry Tour, but it wasn't until 2017 that he fully came to terms with another issue that had potentially hampered his career. Even with two runner-up finishes in 2017, he still lost his PGA Tour card. It was the first year that money wasn't counted, and it was just FedExCup points, and the two events he finished as runner-up in had low FedExCup points. He felt the stress of not being with his family, and his back was still a problem. He crept into a terrible stage of depression and decided to take time off. He went to see Tiger's surgeon, a specialist, who ran some tests and concluded I needed surgery. So he underwent more spinal surgery in 2019, where they did a fusion and put two artificial discs in his lower back.

On top of that, he went through a divorce when he reached the age of 50. After six years of nonplay, he teed it up for the first time at the 2022 Senior Open Championship at Gleneagles in Scotland. He made the cut and finished T-53rd. He played again on the European Tour Legends tour, finishing T-15th at the Legends Tour JCB Championship. Unfortunately, on the flight home, he suffered two blood clots, which halted his golf again.

2023 Notes: Despite the setback, Owen fully recovered and was back on course in June at the Jersey Legends, finishing T-45th. After that, he played five more events on Europe's over-50s Tour, posting four top tens, including a runner-up finish at the Staysure PGA Seniors Championship, one of the highest-tiered events on the Legends Tour International Schedule outside of the Senior Majors. At the end of the year, he decided to make a run on the PGA Tour Champions Tour but didn't make it out of the 1st stage of qualifying.

2024 Notes: He played in 14 Legends Tour events and had five top-ten finishes. He finished 17th on the Order of Merit and earned €173,439. He finished T-3rd at the Costa Navarino Legends, T-3rd at the OFX Irish Legends, and 3rd at the WCM Mexico Senior Open.

2025 Notes: He played in 17 Legends Tour events and had six top-ten finishes. He finished 5th on the Order of Merit and earned €332,525. Won for the first time at the MCB Mauritius Legends beating Darren Fichardt and Jeev Milha Singh by a shot. Was 2nd at the Barbados Legends, two shots back of the winner Scott Hend. Played in three PGA Tour Champions events, best finish T-14th at the Senior PGA Championship.

2026 Notes: Was T-7th at the Staysure Marbella Legends

Korn Ferry Tour Victory: 1 - 2014 Price Cutter Charity Championship

Player Notes: Percy was born in Chelsea, Victoria, and turned professional in 1998. He joined the Korn Ferry Tour in 2005 but enjoyed little success, so he returned to Australia, where he won twice on the developmental Von Nida Tour in 2006.

Percy was back on the Korn Ferry Tour in 2008 and finished 8th place on the money list the following year, having had eight top 10 finishes, including two runner-up finishes, to graduate to the PGA Tour for 2010.

Since then, Percy has bounced back and forth between the PGA Tour and the Korn Ferry Tour. He finished 168th on the FedEx Cup points list in 2010, 161st in 2011, and 158th in 2013. In 2014, he won the Price Cutter Charity Championship on the Korn Ferry Tour in a five-way playoff. He finished 15th on the final 2014 Korn Ferry Tour money list to secure his PGA Tour card for the 2014'15 season.

Over the next six seasons (2014 '15 through 2020 '21), he finished outside the top 125 on the FedEx Cup points list every year and thus was unable to retain his card. However, he finished in the top 150 in four of those six seasons and thus maintained conditional status on the PGA Tour most of that time.

He played in 172 Korn Ferry tour events, making 108 cuts and 29 top-10 finishes. His career earnings were $1,339,132.

He played full-time on the PGA Tour between 2010 and 2023 and made 220 starts. He made 124 cuts, with 12 top-ten finishes. His best finish was 2nd at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, losing a playoff to Jonathan Byrd, who made a hole-in-one on the fourth extra hole. In Percy's 11 seasons on the PGA Tour, he never made the FedEx Cup playoffs; his best year was 2021, when he finished 135th. Percy has only played in two majors, the 2003 and '10 British Open, missing the cut in both years.

With Percy turning 50 in May 2024, he entered the PGA Tour Champions Qualifying Tournament and was the medalist at TPC Scottsdale in the final stage. He made his first Championship Tour start at the KitchenAid PGA Championship, finishing T-21st. In 2024, he played in 16 PGA Tour Champions events with four top-ten finishes. He was 35th on the Schwab Cup list with earnings of $704,016. Best finish was 3rd at the American Family Insurance Championship. Ended his year with a T-5th finish at Simmons Bank Championship and T-26th at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2025 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with 12 top-ten finishes. He ranked 10th on the Schwab Cup list with earnings of $1,642,241. Best finish was 2nd, three times at the Principal Charity Classic, Stifel Charity Classic, and Constellation Furyk & Friends.

2026 Notes: Had hip surgery in December and made his first start at the Cologuard Classic, finishing T-21st. Was T-10th the next week at the Hoag Classic.

Player Notes: Perez learned the game from his father. He and his younger brother, Mike, picked the Torrey Pines range and filled in divots in exchange for free access to the course and practice facilities.

As a teenager in San Diego, Perez won the 1993 Junior World title, when another famous Southern California junior player, Tiger Woods, finished eight shots behind him. Perez played on the Arizona State golf team and as a sophomore in 1996 led the Sun Devils to the Pac 10 and NCAA titles. Unfortunately, the next year was a struggle and he left school, returning to San Diego and working for minimum wage delivering merchandise for a golf equipment company. In the summer of 1997, he met a San Diego businessman who offered to sponsor him in some mini-tour events in California. Still an amateur, Perez went off to play and in his first start on the Golden State Tour, won the event. He was told that he could remain an amateur or take the $2,000, which he did. After turning professional, Perez won his next four mini-tour starts and started playing on the Canadian Tour, followed by the Korn Ferry Tour.

Pat's brother, Mike, earned playing privileges on the Korn Ferry Tour at the 2001 PGA Tour qualifying tournament and was playing on the Korn Ferry Tour in 2003. They were the only brothers to play in the finals.

2004 Notes: Ended the year with a bang, making 50 percent of his season earnings in his last five starts, including a T-3rd in Pennsylvania to secure his card for 2005.

2005 Notes: Nine Top-25 finishes.

2006 Notes: Finished in the top-125 on the PGA Tour money list for the fifth time in his five-year career. Hampered by tendinitis in both elbows from The Players Championship through the end of the season.

2007 Notes: After injury-plagued 2006 season, had career highs in earnings (more than $1.6 million) and top-10 finishes (11). His ranking on the money list was his highest since his rookie year in 2002.

2008 Notes: Recorded career highs in money ($1.7 million), cuts made (21), and top-25 finishes (12).

2009 Notes: Won for the first time at Bob Hope Desert Classic and finished the season ranked No. 46 in the FedExCup standings. 2011 Notes: Runner-up at Reno-Tahoe Open, and had seven top-25s.

2013 Notes: Made 14 of 22 cuts, with four top-10s. Finished 98th in the FedExCup standings. At the Sony Open in Hawaii, posted four rounds in the 60s for a T-9th finish. Had four par-or-better rounds at the Tampa Bay Championship for a T-7th finish. 2016 Notes: Made 11 starts through the Honda Classic, and afterward underwent surgery to repair a right labrum.

2017 Notes: Missed six months, returning to the CIMB Classic, where he finished T-33rd. At his next start, he came in T-7th at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open and won the next week at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba. After the win, he talked about his injury hiatus and how the time off helped him develop a new attitude. He learned ways to tame his impatience and stay mentally alert with a more positive outlook. He added top-10s with a T-3rd at the SBS Tournament of Champions and a T-4th at the Farmers Insurance Open. He withdrew from Phoenix, as his surgically repaired shoulder started tightening up, but it was just an inflamed bicep muscle, not the shoulder. The following week, he placed T-14th at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am. Playing in his first Masters since 2009, finished T-18th, and then was T-2nd at the Wells Fargo, a shot behind Brian Harman. As a full-time member of the PGA Tour from 1986-90 and 1997-2010, he played in 588 events and made 317 cuts, with two victories (1999 Buick Open and 2001 The International) and four runner-up finishes among his 47 top-10s. In 1989, they went into the final round of the U.S. Open with a chance to win and shot 74 to finish T-14th. At age 51, he was 2nd in the 2011 Viking Classic. He competed on the Korn Ferry Tour periodically, with 79 career starts, making 42 cuts, recording seven top-10 finishes, with his best finish a T-3rd in the 1992 Hawkeye Open.

In 2009, he became only the 15th player in PGA Tour Champions history to win in his first start. They won the SAS Championship and didn't play again that year. The victory came 22 days after turning 50, tying him with Gary Player as the ninth-youngest winner in PGA Tour Champions history.

Had a stellar 2010 campaign on the PGA Tour Champions, with nine top-10 finishes in 10 starts.

2010 Notes: He played most of his golf on the PGA Tour, competing in 22 events compared to 10 on the PGA Tour Champions.

2011 Notes: Split his time between the PGA Tour and PGA Tour Champions. On the PGA Tour, he claimed two top-10s in just 12 starts, including one at year's end, which altered his plans for 2012. Beginning the week of the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic as the fifth alternate and ranked 143rd on the money list, he capitalized on his opportunity in the season's final official event. They had a final round, 3-under 69, and waited until virtually the last putt dropped Sunday to see if it was good enough to elevate him to within the top 125. Finished T-3rd at the tournament, worthy of a 121st place money-list finish and fully exempt status for 2012, at age 52, the oldest to ever earn exempt status from the top-125 category the previous year. He was last exempt on the PGA Tour in 2009 after finishing 80th on the 2008 money list. In mid-July, he nearly became the second-oldest winner of a PGA Tour event when he finished T-2nd in the Viking Classic in Mississippi.

He enjoyed a solid PGA Tour Champions season, garnering six top-10 finishes in 16 starts.

2012 Notes: He played just 10 PGA Tour Champions events due to their fully exempt status on the PGA Tour, where he played 23 times. Missed the PGA Tour Playoffs for the fourth consecutive season, finishing No. 186 in the FedEx Cup standings. Their best PGA Tour Champions effort was a T-3rd in the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, his first Tour start of the season. He played in the final grouping Sunday, with Bernhard Langer, in the U.S. Senior Open at Indianwood, but a final-round 75 dropped him to T-15th. He posted his only PGA Tour top-10 of the year in his 18th start, a T-8th in the Reno-Tahoe Open, the first PGA Tour event to use the Modified Stableford scoring format since 2006. He finished with 30 points, 13 behind J.J. Henry's winning total. He competed in the PGA Tour's National Qualifying Tournament, finishing T-87th. He was T-17th after 90 holes, but a final-round 79 dropped him 70 places, and he failed to earn his 2013 card.

2013 Notes: Played his first full season as a Champions Tour member and finished seventh on the money list, with more than $1.4 million in earnings, thanks to 12 top-10 finishes that included six performances where he placed third or better, including a win in the 3M Championship. He was runner-up in the Allianz Championship and the Greater Gwinnett Championship. Was 3rd in the ACE Group Classic, the Mississippi Gulf Resort, and the Encompass Championship.

2014 Notes: He had perhaps his finest season in professional golf, claiming multiple titles in a season for the first time. Winnings of more than $1.5 million were a PGA Tour Champions' personal best, and he secured the fifth spot on the Charles Schwab Cup points list, earning a $100,000 annuity. He became the last of seven multiple winners when he won the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, defeating Jay Haas on the fourth hole of a sudden-death playoff at Desert Mountain Club in Scottsdale, Ariz. In early June, he claimed his third career victory in The Principal Charity Classic, defeating Doug Garwood on the second hole of a playoff. In The Senior Open Championship in Wales, he shot a first-round 78 but improved by 14 shots in Round 2 with a course-record 64 at Royal Porthcawl. Steady play on the weekend moved him into a T-3rd, his personal best in a senior major. Shot the low round of his career in the opening round in the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship, a 12-under-par 60 at Kapolei G.C. The round included 12 birdies, which matched the PGA Tour Champions 18-hole record. However, followed with rounds of 72-70 to finish T-7th.

2015 Notes: He had another nice showing in Arizona months after capturing the 2014 Charles Schwab Cup Championship when he finished T-4th in the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Also, T-4th in the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett Championship. Was T-9th in the Regions Tradition, T-7th in the Senior PGA Championship, and T-5th in the Principal Charity Classic. His last top-10 was a T-10th in the San Antonio Championship. He finished 21st on the money list and 22nd in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Played in 25 events and won for the 5th time on the Champions Tour in the PowerShares QQQ. He had five top-10s, including a T-3rd in the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, T-9th in the SAS Championship, and a pair of T-10s in the Nature Valley First Tee and Charles Schwab Cup Championship. He was 15th on the money list and 9th in the Schwab Rankings.

2017 Notes: Opened the year with a T-8th finish in the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. Unfortunately, it would be his only top-10 finish of the year in 24 starts, as he dropped to 48th on the money list.

2018 Notes: Played in 26 PGA Tour Champions events with five top-10 finishes. Pernice led after the first and second rounds at the Toshiba Classic, but he settled for a T-2nd finish after shooting a final-round 69. It was his best finish since he won the 2016 PowerShares QQQ Championship. They had a final-round 71 to finish T-5th, two shots back of the winner, Bernhard Langer, at the Insperity Invitational. He was T-6th at the Senior Open Championship. Three shots back of the winner, Miguel Angel Jimenez. He was 5th at the Boeing Classic, six shots back of the winner Scott Parel. A year after finishing 49th in the Charles Schwab Cup, Pernice rebounded to finish 27th in the final standings of 2018.

2019 Notes: Played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. He was 39th on the final Schwab Rankings. Pernice aced the first hole in the final round in his birth state of Missouri as he and his partner Scott Hoch went on to win the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf by five shots. His best individual finish was 2nd at the Boeing Classic, three shots back of the winner Brandt Jobe.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 34 PGA Tour Champions events with four top-25s and finished 75th in the Charles Schwab Cup. Best 2020 finish: T-13th at the Morocco Championships. Best 2021 finish: T-18th at the Senior Open Championship. He ended his season with a T-57th at the Dominion Energy Charity.

2022 Notes: Played in 23 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-ten finishes. It was 45th in the Schwab rankings and 44th on the money list with earnings of $501,916. He was T-10th at the Hoag Classic and Dick's Sporting Goods Open. He was 2nd at the American Family Insurance Championship thanks to a bogey-free final round 66. He was one back of winner Thongchai Jaidee; the runner-up finish was his best result on the PGA Tour Champions since he was runner-up at the 2019 Boeing Classic.

2023 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-25 finish. It was 70th in the Schwab rankings and 70th on the money list with earnings of $203,069. Best finish T-17th at the American Family Insurance.

2024 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with 3 top-25 finishes. Was 75th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $205,046. Best finish T-17th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic.

2025 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with 2 top-25 finishes. Was 82nd on the Schwab Cup list with earnings of $159,286. Best finish, T-21st at the Principal Charity Classic.

2026 Notes: Was T-23rd at the Chubb Classic.

Player Notes: He started playing golf when he was 7, and his father first showed him the game. He played in his first competitive event at 11 and won the 1978 Kentucky State High School Championship. In 1995, Perry bought 142 acres of land and borrowed more than $2.5 million to design and build the only public course in his hometown, Country Creek. He created it for mid-to-high handicappers and has kept it affordable. Member of 1996, 2003, 2005, and 2009 Presidents Cup Teams and the 2004 and '08 Ryder Cup Teams. A PGA Tour member from 1987-2015, he played in 641 events and made 464 cuts, including 104 top-10 and 10 runner-up finishes. Has earned $32.1 million on just the PGA Tour, plus over $11 million on the PGA Tour Champions. Between 1987 and 2010, he was never out of the top-125 of the money list and only outside of the top 100 once, in 2006, when he had surgery on his right knee.

2011 Notes: Split time between the PGA Tour and PGA Tour Champions, making 10 appearances on the senior circuit. He was among the top 10 seven times. He experienced a bitter-sweet first career win on the PGA Tour Champions when he won the SAS Championship one day after his sister, Kay, passed away from breast cancer. The victory in Cary, N.C., came in his 11th career PGA Tour Champions start and made him the fourth player in SAS history to claim his first title at the event. They also became the fifth of six first-time winners of the 2011 PGA Tour Champions. He made 13 PGA Tour appearances, making five cuts. Their best finish was a T-38th in the Viking Classic; they also finished T-39th at The Players Championship in May and was T-39th at The Greenbrier Classic.

2012 Notes: Finished in the top 10 in half of his 18 starts on the PGA Tour Champions but registered just one victory early in the season. He ran away from the field in The ACE Group Classic, claiming his second career Champions Tour title by five strokes over Bernhard Langer. He finished second to Michael Allen in the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am in Tampa. He closed with a 64 in TPC Twin Cities to finish T-3rd in the 3M Championship, three strokes back of Bernhard Langer. At Harbor Shores in Benton Harbor, Mich., set the 18-hole Senior PGA Championship scoring record with a 62 in the final round, finishing ninth. That sizzling score was tied in 2016 at Harbor Shores by the eventual champion, Rocco Mediate.

Perry made only five PGA Tour starts, the first time he had less than 13 appearances on that tour since 1987. Their best effort was a T-29th in the Transitions Championship. He was teamed with Sean O'Hair to win the Franklin Templeton Shootout by one shot over Charles Howell III and Rory Sabbatini. It was his third victory in the event. He was a 2005 winner with John Huston and a 2008 winner with Scott Hoch.

2013 Notes: It was a banner year that led him to win the PGA Tour Champions Player of the Year. He played in 20 events, winning three times, with two of them - the U.S. Senior Open and the Constellation Senior Players - being majors. His last win was at the end of the year in a playoff in the AT&T Championship. They also had three runner-up finishes and were second in earnings. He played three times on the PGA Tour, making two cuts, best finish T-33rd in the HP Byron Nelson. Making the year even more powerful was that after the ACE Group Classic in February, he underwent surgery on his left knee for a torn meniscus and was out of action until mid-April.

2014 Notes: He continued his streak of winning senior majors with a victory in the Regions Tradition. The streak was broken the following week when he finished T-13th in the Senior PGA Championship. He finished fourth in the Constellation Senior Players Championship, his sixth top-10 finish of the year. He won again at the 3M Championship. He ended the year with nine top-10s, 4th in the Schwab Rankings, and 5th on the money list.

2015 Notes: He played frequently on the PGA Tour in the first half of the year (a total of nine events), and his best finish came when he posted four rounds in the 60s to finish T-16th in the AT&T Byron Nelson. He said goodbye to his PGA Tour career at the Memorial Tournament, where he missed the cut, with rounds of 71-73 (he notched three career wins at the Memorial). He transitioned full-time to the PGA Tour Champions in early June and recorded his only victory when he successfully defended his 3M Championship, becoming the first player in its 23-year history to repeat as winner. Earlier in the year, they finished T-2nd at the Insuperity Invitational, losing in a playoff, along with Tom Lehman, to Ian Woosnam, who birdied the first extra hole. He played the final 12 holes of Sunday's round with back problems but got into overtime at The Woodlands CC after posting a 66, the lowest round of the week. I also finished T-3rd at the SAS Championship. He was in the top 10 in seven of his 14 PGA Tour Champions starts, was 12th on the money list, and 12th in the Charles Schwab Cup rankings.

2016 Notes: Played in 19 events and had three top-10s. Started his year with a T-6th in the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. He had his second top-10 of the year a month later with a T-3rd in the Chubb Classic. Was T-10th with partner Scott Hoch in the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. He was 41st on the money list and 40th in the Charles Schwab Cup rankings.

2017 Notes: He had a terrific year; in 22 starts, he was in the top three four times as he finished fourth on the money list with $1,728,070. His big prize was winning the U.S. Senior Open, his ninth career title, and fourth senior major. He did it, beating Kirk Triplett by two shots as his 72-hole total of 264 set a new U.S. Senior Open record for the lowest 72-hole score. He was T-2nd in the Allianz Championship and Insuperity Invitational. He also finished T-3rd at the Dominion Energy Charity. Perry's year was even more remarkable because he played despite being saddled with pain and had rotator cuff surgery after the Charles Schwab Cup Championship to clean up the bone spurs in his shoulder.

2018 Notes: After dealing with his injury, he didn't return to competitive golf until the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April, finishing T-26th with teammate Russ Cochran. He played in 18 PGA Tour Champions events and returned to the winner's circle at the 3M Championship, beating West Short, Jr. by 3 shots. He advanced to the Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the seventh time and finished 16th in the standings with $977,790 in winnings. In the playoffs, he was T-3rd at the Invesco QQQ.

He joined the "junior circuit" for the first time since playing in the Memorial in 2015 when he played in the Memorial Tournament and the U.S. Open, he missed the cut in both of them.

2019 Notes: Played in 16 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-ten finishes. He was 42nd on the final Schwab rankings. At the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, he made an eagle on his last hole in the final round to shoot 66 and finish T-6th, three shots back of the winner Scott McCarron. He was T-7th at the Bridgestone Senior Players and T-9th at Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 29 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. It was 35th in the Schwab rankings and 36th on the money list with earnings of $936,061. Lost in a four-man playoff to Shane Bertsch and finished T-2nd at the 2020 Charles Schwab Series at Bass Pro Shops Big Cedar Lodge. He came to the final hole with a one-shot lead at 14-under par, but his tee shot wound up against a rock wall and led to a closing bogey and a playoff. Carded a final-round 8-under 64 at the 2020 Dominion Energy Charity Classic and finished T-6th. He ended the two-year season with a T-20th at the Charles Schwab Cup Classic.

2022 Notes: After playing a full schedule on both the PGA Tour and PGA Tour Champions since 1987, Perry didn't play in any events during the year, taking a hiatus to take care of his ailing wife, Sandy, who is battling Alzheimer's. He is caring for his wife in the hope that the disease will be cured someday. Sandy struggles not so much with long-term memory, but with the here and now, along with simple tasks, which she once performed easily.

2023 Notes: Played in 9 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-25 finishes. He was 84th on the final Schwab rankings and 84th in earnings with $116,190. With the help of family and friends, Perry decided to play in a small number of events with Sandy coming with him. Starting in Dallas at the Invited Celebrity Classic, he finished T-40th. He played at the Insuperity Invitational but withdrew after a first-round 74, citing back pain. He returned at the Regions Tradition and was T-28th. Best finish T-23rd at the Kaulig Co. Championship and Ascension Charity Classic.

2024 Notes: Perry is cutting back even more events. Played in 11 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-10 finishes. He was 45th on the final Schwab rankings and 49th in earnings with $490,344. Best finish T-5th at the Dominion Energy Charity Classic.

2025 Notes: Played in 9 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-25 finishes. He was 93rd on the final Schwab rankings and 93rd in earnings with $101,330. Best finish T-23rd at the American Family Insurance Championship.

2026 Notes: Only start, T-53rd at the James Hardie Invitational.

Korn Ferry Tour Victories: 2015 WinCo Foods Portland Open

Player Notes: Early in 1994, he rescheduled his wedding day so it wouldn't conflict with the Qualifying Tournament. Later that season, he won a Buick for his soon-to-be wife, Kim, with a hole-in-one at the Buick Challenge. He worked tirelessly in 2011 to help raise money for victims of the tornado that hit his hometown of Tuscaloosa. His father, Dick, coached Alabama's golf team from 1961-64.

He was a semifinalist in the 1991 U.S. Amateur and lost to runner-up Manny Zerman on the 19th hole. He finished T24th at the 1993 PGA Tour Q-School, getting his Tour card for 1994. His rookie year would be his best year (until 2012) as he won the FedEx St. Jude Classic and had another top-ten finish (T8th Deposit Guaranty Golf). He finished the year 57th on the money list with earnings of $305,769. Between 1995 and 2010, they would only finish one other time in the top 125 on the money list; in 1996, they were 125th with earnings of $167,852.

He attended the school every year between 1997 and 2011 (15 straight years), reaching the final stage in 11 years and getting his tour card in 1993, 1997, 1998, 2000, and 2006.

He has been a regular on the Korn Ferry Tour in 2005, '06, '08, '09, '10, '11, and '15. In 153 Korn Ferry starts, he has made 87 cuts, finished in the top-25 40 times, in the top ten 13 times, with two-thirds, one runner-up at the 2010 Cox Classic, and one win at the 2015 WinCo Foods Portland Open. For his 153 starts, he has earned $797,744, and his highest yearly position was 5th in 2015.

He had his first top-five in nearly three years at the start of the 2012 season with a T5th at the Mayakoba Golf Classic. His last top-five was a T4th at the 2009 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee. That got him into the next scheduled event, the Honda Classic, where he finished T7th. It marked the first time in his career he had posted top-10s in successive weeks. In his next start, he finished T20th in Puerto Rico. He made his most significant stride in his comeback at the HP Byron Nelson Championship. Drained a par putt of 22 feet, 7 inches to finish 10-under 270 but then watched as Jason Dufner in the final group made a 25-foot, 5-inch birdie putt to edge him by a shot. His first-career runner-up effort was also a career-high third top-10 finish of the season. He was attempting to set the PGA Tour record for the longest time between victories, which would have been a span of 17 years, 9 months, and 19 days since his win at the 1994 FedEx St. Jude Classic.

With Pride's earnings over the $1 million mark in 2012, he was guaranteed to finally break his streak of having to go back to Q-School and had a PGA Tour card for 2013.

2013 Notes: Made 12 of 23 PGA Tour cuts, with two top-10s. He finished 144th in the FedExCup standings. He played in all four Korn Ferry Tour Finals events but could not improve his status for the 2014 season. Making his 9th start at the Sony Open in Hawaii, he posted his first top 10 finish (19th of his career), with rounds of 68-67-64-67 for a T-9th finish. The next top 10 came 21 starts later, finishing T-5th at the Reno-Tahoe Open. With 32 points, he finished 12 points behind champion Gary Woodland in the Modified Stableford scoring format.

2015 Notes: Split his time between the PGA and Korn Ferry tours. He enjoyed more success on the Korn Ferry Tour, garnering a win and a pair of third-place finishes among his 18 starts, including three top-10s. Made three cuts in five starts on the PGA Tour, with a T-27th at Puerto Rico Open, his best showing. He had his best finish in several years with a T-3rd effort at the season-opening Panama Claro Championship on the Korn Ferry Tour. He recorded his second T-3rd performance of the year in Springfield at the Price Cutter Charity Championship. He arrived in Portland 40th on the money list, thanks to a T-18th at the News Sentinel Open the week before. He earned his first Korn Ferry Tour victory at the WinCo Foods Portland Open in his 149th start and secured a PGA Tour card in the Regular Season finale. The $144,000 first-place prize vaulted him to No. 5 on the Regular Season money list. He played in the first two Korn Ferry Tour Finals events, making the cut at the Hotel Fitness Championship (T-69th) and the Small Business Connection Championship at River Run (T-64th) before skipping the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship due to fatigue. He missed the cut at the Korn Ferry Tour Championship. He finished No. 105 in the Korn Ferry Tour Finals.

2016 Notes: He played in 21 PGA Tour events, making seven cuts. He was 206th on the FedExCup points list. His best finish was T-33rd at the Wyndham Championship.

2017 Notes: Split his time between the Korn Ferry and PGA tours. On the Korn Ferry Tour in 12 events, his best finish was 53rd at the Korn Ferry Tour Championship. On the PGA Tour in seven events, his best finish was T-11th at the Barracuda Championship.

2018 Notes: He again split his time between both tours; in 11 PGA Tour starts, his best finish was T-30th at the Barracuda Championships. On the Korn Ferry Tour in 13 starts, the best finish was T-16th at the Bahamas Great Abaco.

2019 Notes: Played in 8 Korn Ferry Tour events, best finish T-62nd at the Panama Championship. On the PGA Tour, in 3 starts, he made one cut, T-74th at the John Deere Classic. In his first PGA Tour Champions event, he was T-46th at the Senior Open Championship.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 27 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-tens and finished 33rd in the Charles Schwab Cup. I was forced to qualify to get into events. Pride was a Monday qualifier into his 11th senior start, the 2021 Mitsubishi Electric Classic. Pride surprised all with three great rounds, and his 205, 11 under total, won the event, three shots better than Stephen Ames, Paul Goydos, and Kirk Triplett. Pride is the 14th open qualifier to win on the PGA Tour Champions and the 18th player to win at least once on the PGA Tour, PGA Tour Champions, and Korn Ferry Tour. He no longer will have to qualify on Monday, as he is exempt for the rest of the tour. He was T-7th at the American Family, five shots back of winner Jerry Kelly. He was 2nd in the Ascension Charity Classic and made a bogey on the first playoff hole. He ended the season with a 30th-place finish at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2022 Notes: He played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. He was 59th in the Schwab rankings and 58th on the money list with earnings of $313,015. His best finish was T-10th at the Principal Charity Classic.

2023 Notes: He played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events, finishing seven in the top ten. He was 18th in the Schwab rankings and 17th on the money list, earning $1,137,277. He was T-4th at the Chubb Classic, Hoag Classic, and T-6th at the Invited Celebrity Classic. After opening the DICK'S Sporting Goods Open with matching 4-under 68s, he closed with a bogey-free 7-under 65 to finish 4th. The finish at En-Joie Golf Club marked his fourth top-10 finish of the season. Finished T-6th at the U.S. Senior Open after rounds of 72-69-73-69. He closed with a bogey-free 65 en route to a T-7th finish at the Kaulig Companies Championship for his third consecutive top-10 of the season. Notched his fourth consecutive top-10 on PGA Tour Champions with a T-9th finish at the Boeing Classic. He ended his year by finishing 17th at the Charles Schwab Championship.

2024 Notes: Played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. Was 57th on the Schwab Cup list with earnings of $379,347. Best finish, T-7th at the rain-shortened Innsperity Invitational. At the end of the year returned to Champions Q-School and finished T-6th, a shot out of a playoff that would have given him full status on the Champions Tour for 2025. With his T-6th finish is eligible to play in open qualifiers in 2025.

2025 Notes: Played in 22 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. Was 37th on the Schwab Cup list with earnings of $554,358. Best finish, T-2nd at the American Family Insurance Championship.

Player Notes: Singh, Fiji's first and only world-class golfer, is a three-time major winner (2000 Masters and 1998 and 2004 PGA Championship). He has also won titles in Malaysia, France, Nigeria, Ivory Coast, Morocco, Zimbabwe, Singapore, Spain, Germany, England, South Africa, Sweden, Taiwan, Canada, South Korea, and the United States. He learned the game from his father, an airplane technician who also taught golf. Admired Tom Weiskopf while growing up and used his swing as an early model for his own. Noted for his rigorous practice routine, he once held a club professional position in Borneo. Of Indian ancestry, his first name means "victory" in Hindi. His life as a professional was tough for the first eight years. Because of problems on the Asian tour and with no place to play, he went to Borneo and took a series of club pro jobs, giving lessons to lumberjacks and truck drivers and making between $150 and $200 a month. He had a lot of time to practice and perfect his game. To maintain his competitive edge, he played high-stakes matches with the locals. In 1987, he saved up some money to try to qualify for the British Open but missed out by eight shots. After failing to get his PGA Tour card at the end of the year, he made a radical decision. Instead of going back to Borneo, he joined the Safari Tour in Africa and played in towns that he described as "a Mad Max kind of place." But thanks to a victory at the 1988 Nigerian Open and 3rd-place finishes in Zimbabwe and Kenya, he topped the Safari Tour money list. He also became the first non-Swedish player to win the Swedish PGA. In 1989, Vijay started the year by winning the Zimbabwe Open and again won the money list. He graduated from the European Tour Qualifying School in 1988 and played seven seasons before establishing his base in America. He got into the 1992 Memorial and in his first PGA Tour start, finished T-7th. Next, he finished T-13th at the FedEx St. Jude Classic. Those promising results and his solid play in Europe, where he won twice and placed 9th on the money list, earned him an invitation to the 1993 Nestle Invitational. He made the most of it by finishing T-2nd, which earned him a special membership that became a full membership three months later with his win at the Buick Classic. He captured the PGA Championship title in 1998 and then the Masters in 2000. Completed a major achievement in 2003 with four victories, plus 14 top-10 finishes in only 27 starts. Finished No. 1 on the PGA Tour money list for the first time with $7,573,907, ending Tiger Woods' four-year reign at the top. Was even better in 2004, when he won nine times, including the PGA Championship, and repeated as money leader. It was part of a remarkable run in which he finished in the top-5 every year from 1998 to 2008.

Was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 2006. Member of 1994, '96, '98, 2000, '03, '05, '07 and '09 Presidents Cup teams. Was named Player of the Year in 2004.

2008 Notes: Lost a playoff to Steve Lowery at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Defeated Sergio Garcia with a birdie at the second extra hole to win The Barclays. Won four of his last eight starts, including an unofficial win at the Chevron World Challenge.

2009 Notes: Underwent right knee surgery to repair a torn meniscus in mid-January. His No. 68 position on the money list, after 11 consecutive seasons of top-5 finishes on the money list, was his lowest as a Tour member.

Still played a full season on the PGA Tour but posted only one top-25 finish, a T-20th at the Sony Open in Hawaii. Missed the FedExCup Playoffs for the first time in his career and failed to record a top-10 on Tour for the first time since 1991. Ended a streak of 20 consecutive years inside the top 70 on the final money list. Finished 146th in the FedExCup standings and 162nd on the money list. Made his PGA Tour Champions debut in September at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship, finishing T-6th at Kapolei GC after a final-round, one-over-par 73. His final-round 65 marked his best final-round score since a 65 in the final round of the 2011 Wyndham Championship, where he finished T-4th. The runner-up performance was the 28th of his career and the first since the 2013 Frys.com Open. Finished 99th in the FedExCup standings and 88th on the money list. On the Champions Tour, he made six starts, with his best finish a T-8th at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. On the PGA Tour, he played 10 events but made just five cuts and finished T-9th at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. As many as six players shared the lead during the final round at the Toshiba Classic, and Singh was the last man standing as his five back-nine birdies helped him post an 11-under total and a one-stroke victory. It was his first individual win since the Dell Technologies Championship on September 1, 2008. As defending champions, Singh and Carlos Franco finished T-3rd at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge. Won the Constellation Senior Players, defeating Jeff Maggert in a playoff. Was T-8th at the Dominion Energy Charity and T-10th at the Invesco QQQ. Shot a 10-under 61 in the final round of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship to erase a six-stroke deficit and win by four strokes over Tim Petrovic.

2019 Notes: Played in six PGA Tour events, making one cut with one top-10. Played in 18 PGA Tour Champions Tour events with two top-10 finishes. At the Honda Classic, Singh played in the final group on Sunday at 56, looking to supplant Sam Snead as the oldest winner in PGA Tour history. Korn Ferry Tour Victories: 3 - 2001 Buy.Com Greater Cleveland Open, Buy.Com Knoxville Open & Buy.Com Omaha Classic Player Notes: Father is a golf professional. Played on the same high school golf team at Milton (Fla.) High School as Tour professional Boo Weekley. Bubba Watson attended the same school a couple of years later. A three-time All-American selection at South Alabama captured the Sun Belt Conference title. Turned pro in 1996 and made it to the finals of PGA Tour Qualifying Tournament. With that was able to play on the Korn Ferry tour in 1997, playing in 19 events making five cuts, best finish T-21st at the Boise Open. Contracted ulcerative colitis in November of 1997 and dropped from 150 to 122 pounds. Because of the illness, missed the next year and a half of golf.

His first tournament back was the 2000 Mississippi Golf on the Korn Ferry Tour; he missed the cut. At the end of the year, I got back to the final stages of Q-School, finishing T-56th which got him a Korn Ferry Tour card for 2001.

2001 Korn Ferry Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 18; in money - 11; Top-10 finishes -6; scoring average 70.12 (ranked 10th); money $339,670 (ranked 3rd); winner Greater Cleveland Open, Knoxville Open, and Omaha Classic. With his three victories on the Nationwide Tour, he earned a promotion to the PGA Tour, becoming the second person to do so since Chris Smith did it in 1997.

Slocum joined the PGA Tour in 2001 and has four career wins. His first win was in 2004 at the Chrysler Classic of Tucson, and his second win came at the Southern Farm Bureau Classic in 2005. His best major finish is a T-9th at the 2008 U.S. Open, and he has featured in the top 100 of the Official World Golf Ranking.

Slocum represented the United States at the 2007 World Cup, partnered with Boo Weekley. The Americans finished second after losing a sudden-death playoff to Scotland.

Slocum barely qualified for the 2009 FedEx Cup Playoffs; he finished 124th on the regular season points list, just ahead of Troy Matteson, the 125th and final entrant. At the first playoff event, The Barclays at Liberty National Golf Club in New Jersey, he won the event by one shot, holing a 21-foot putt for par on the last hole to deny Ernie Els, Padraig Harrington, Steve Stricker, and Tiger Woods the chance of victory. Slocum's win, his third on the Tour, vaulted him 121 spots on the FedEx Cup points list, to 3rd; it also earned him $1,350,000, more than double his prior winnings in 2009. He ended up placing 8th in the FedEx Cup standings that year.

In 2010, Slocum enjoyed a solid year. During the main portion of the season, he recorded four top-ten finishes, including a T-4th at The Players Championship. He ended up 46th in the FedEx Cup. Then he capped off his year in style during the Fall Series, winning the inaugural McGladrey Classic. Slocum held off Bill Haas by one shot to earn the fourth title of his PGA Tour career.

Slocum did not record any top-10 finishes on the PGA Tour in 2011. However, he finished T-12th at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, T-11th at the U.S. Open, T-15th at the McGladrey Classic, and T-20th at the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic, so he retained his card. In 2012, he had only three top-25 finishes and lost his PGA Tour card. Slocum returned to the PGA Tour Qualifying Tournament but came up just short of reclaiming a Tour card.

In 2013, Slocum split time between the Korn Ferry Tour and PGA Tour, performing poorly on both. He barely qualified for the 2013 Korn Ferry Tour Finals, where he finished 8th at the Chiquita Classic and 17th at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship and Korn Ferry Tour Championship, regaining a PGA Tour card for 2014. That season, he had a best result of 4th at the Wyndham Championship but only collected three top-25s, forcing him to return to the Korn Ferry Tour Finals. Once again, though, Slocum saved his PGA Tour card, thanks to a T-4th at the Korn Ferry Tour Championship. Slocum last played a full PGA Tour schedule in 2015, making six cuts in 22 events.

Between 2016 and 2022, Slocum participated in 22 PGA Tour events, making the cut just three times. In 2022 and 2023, Slocum was also active on the Korn Ferry Tour, playing 15 events, but missing the cut in every tournament.

He played in 74 Korn Ferry Tour events in his career, making 28 cuts with eight top ten finishes. He had three times in 2001, and he earned $475,502.

On the PGA Tour, he played in 408 events, making 140 cuts and 35 top-ten finishes. He won four times and was runner-up three times.

2024 Notes: Played in 25 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. He finished 60th in the Schwab rankings and 60th on the money list, earning $354,394. Slocum played his first PGA Tour Champions event, finishing T-41st at the Chubb Classic. His best finish was T-6th at the Principal Charity Classic.

2025 Notes: Played in 17 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. He was 45th in the Schwab rankings and 47th on the money list, earning $421,290. Best finish, T-4th at the Chubb Classic and Stifel Charity Classic.

2026 Notes: Best finish, T-14th at the James Hardie Invitational.

Stenson won his first major at the 2016 British Open, becoming the first Swede to win a major title. Took a one-stroke lead and turned it into a three-stroke victory over Phil Mickelson. Shot rounds of 68-65-68-63 for a 20-under 264 total, breaking David Toms' record for the lowest aggregate 72-hole score in a major (265). Became the second player to post a 63 in the final round of a major and win, joining Johnny Miller, who accomplished the feat at the 1973 U.S. Open at Oakmont. Tied the 72-hole record for score in relation to par at a major (20-under) with Jason Day, who broke Tiger Woods' 19-under record when he won the 2015 PGA Championship. The 264 total set a new scoring record at the British Open, and his 63 was the lowest final round by a champion in the event's history. His win at Royal Troon was his fifth career PGA Tour title in his 154th start at the age of 40 years, 3 months, 12 days, and his 11th European Tour win in his 320th event. Became the oldest first-time major winner since Darren Clarke won the British Open in 2011 at age 42. Joined Tiger Woods as the only two players with victories at a major championship, a World Golf Championship, The Players Championship, and the FedExCup during their respective careers.

Stenson was introduced to the game by a family friend and became a scratch player by age 18. He won the 2000 Challenge Tour Rankings with a record of eight top-10 finishes, including three wins. Lives in Orlando and is coached by Dubai-based Pete Cowen. He won his first European Tour title in over five years when he claimed the South African Open by three strokes in November 2012. In the interim, he won the biggest title of his career with style at the 2009 Players Championship, carding a memorable final-round 66 at TPC Sawgrass. In 2010, he enjoyed his best performance to date at a major by finishing T-3rd at the British Open, matching his previous best effort at the same event in 2008. Made the European Ryder Cup team for the second consecutive time in 2008 and won 1 1/2 points at Valhalla, teaming with Oliver Wilson for a remarkable comeback to defeat Anthony Kim and Phil Mickelson 2 & 1 in the Saturday morning foursomes. Ended 2008 in memorable fashion by partnering with compatriot Robert Karlsson to win the Mission Hills World Cup, then secured a runaway triumph at the Nedbank Golf Challenge in South Africa. Won the Omega Dubai Desert Classic in 2007 and three weeks later, captured the WGC-Accenture Match Play Championship, where he defeated 2006 U.S. Open winner and defending champion Geoff Ogilvy 2 & 1 in the 36-hole final. Member of 2006, '08, '14, '16 and '18 Ryder Cup teams.

2012 Notes: Played 28 events worldwide, with his best PGA Tour finish a T-3rd at the Puerto Rico Open. Finished the year 111th in the FedExCup standings and 115th on the money list. On the European Tour, he won the South African Open and finished 40th in the Race to Dubai.

2013 Notes: Finished T-8th at the Arnold Palmer Invitational. The next week, he played to a T-2nd finish at the Shell Houston Open, his best result on the PGA Tour since winning the 2009 Players Championship. The Houston win vaulted him into the top 50 in the world rankings and secured a spot at the Masters for the eighth consecutive season. Also earned invitations to the U.S. Open, the British Open, and the PGA Championship. Finished T-5th at The Players Championship, T-10th at the BMW International, T-3rd at the Scottish Open, and 2nd at the British Open. Finished 3rd at the PGA Championship and went into the FedExCup playoffs ranked 8th. Finished T-43rd at The Barclays, won the Deutsche Bank, finished T-33 at the BMW Championship, and ended the year by winning the Tour Championship. Was 1st in the FedExCup standings and 2nd on the money list. He turned his attention to the European Tour and won the DP World Tour Championship, which helped him win the Race to Dubai honors. Stenson started the year ranked 53rd in the world and ended third.

2014 Notes: He began the year with a swollen right wrist and forearm. The injury, which occurred while he was practicing at home the previous October, hampered his play, especially during the final stages of the 2013 Race to Dubai. He finished runner-up at the Thailand Golf Championship and 4th at the Nedbank but didn't post another top-15 result until his T-5th at the Arnold Palmer Invitational. Also finished T-5th at the Volvo China Open and 5th at the Nordea Masters. Other top-10 results: T-7th at the BMW PGA Championship, T-4th at the U.S. Open, T-2nd at the BMW International in Germany, and T-3rd at the PGA Championship. The defending FedExCup champion played his way through the first three season-ending playoff events before settling in at 52nd in the FedExCup standings after the BMW Championship and finished 49th on the money list. In the fall events on the European Tour, he was runner-up at the Volvo Match Play Championship, losing to Mikko Ilonen in the final 3 & 1. In the year's Final Series, finished T-24th at the WGC-HSBC Champions, 3rd at the Turkish Airlines Open, and won the DP World Championship, Dubai. The victory, though, wasn't enough to catch Rory McIlroy. Stenson finished 2nd. Ended his year 2nd at the Hero World Challenge, 10 strokes behind Jordan Spieth.

2015 Notes: Stenson had the best year of anyone without a win. Finished runner-up five times, three of them coming in the FedExCup playoffs. His year started on a dubious note when he missed the cut at Abu Dhabi, then finished T-13th at the Qatar Masters and Dubai Desert Classic. His game came around, though, and he finished T-4th at the WGC-Cadillac and 4th at the Valspar Championship, missing the playoff by one stroke. A week later, he took a two-stroke lead into the final round of the Arnold Palmer Invitational. His final-round, two-under-par 70 wasn't enough to hold off a hard-charging Matt Every, the event's defending champion, who closed with a six-under 66 to win by one stroke. Stenson's runner-up finish was his third consecutive top-10 at the event. The week before the Masters, Stenson had the flu and lost 20 pounds. He struggled to start at the Masters with a T-19th finish and didn't improve until June when he finished 2nd at the BMW International in Germany, a stroke behind winner Pablo Larrazabal. Stenson was T-6th at the WGC-Bridgestone before making a run in the FedExCup playoffs with runner-up finishes at The Barclays, Deutsche Bank, and Tour Championship. At East Lake, he shot a final-round 72 and finished four behind Jordan Spieth. Stenson finished 2nd in the FedExCup standings and 9th on the money list. He finished T-3rd at the BMW Masters and 18th in the Race to Dubai.

2016 Notes: He started his European year with a 2nd-place finish at the Nedbank Golf Challenge. After that, he underwent surgery in Orlando, Fla., to repair a torn meniscus in his right knee. Five weeks later, finished T-3rd at Abu Dhabi, then T-6th at the Dubai Desert Classic. At the Arnold Palmer, Stenson finished T-3rd (three strokes behind winner Jason Day). It was his fifth consecutive top-15 finish in that event. He was 2nd at the Shell Houston Open, just a stroke behind winner Jim Herman. Finished T-4th at the Nordea Masters, then after withdrawing from the U.S. Open, won the BMW International. Won the British Open by three strokes over Phil Mickelson. Two weeks later, he finished T-7th at the PGA Championship, where he entered the final round T-3rd, just two behind leader Jimmy Walker. A final-round 71 dropped him to 7th, six strokes behind Walker, who won. Stenson represented Sweden at the 2016 Rio Olympic Games. With rounds of 66-68-68, was one stroke off Justin Rose's lead after 54 holes. In the final round, he headed to the 72nd hole tied with Rose at 15-under but bogeyed while Rose made a birdie to win the gold medal. Stenson claimed the silver medal with a 13-under total. He ended his PGA Tour season with a T-41st at the Deutsche Bank Championship, finishing 36th in the FedExCup standings and 21st on the money list. He decided not to play at the BMW so he could get ready for the Ryder Cup. Making his fourth start at the Ryder Cup, he went 2-3 in his five matches in the European team's 17-11 loss to the United States at Hazeltine. Wrapped up the week with a 3 & 2 singles victory over Jordan Spieth. On the European Tour, was T-2nd in the WGC-HSBC Champions (counted toward 2017 for PGA Tour, 2016 for European). Played in the last two Final Series events and finished 8th at the Nedbank Golf Challenge and T-9th at the DP World Tour Championship. He won the Race to Dubai for the second time in his career (also won in 2013). Ended 2016 with a runner-up finish at the Hero World Challenge, finishing two strokes behind winner Hideki Matsuyama.

2017 Notes: He made his PGA Tour start with a T-2nd at the WGC-HSBC Champions, finishing seven strokes behind winner Hideki Matsuyama. Was T-8th at the Abu Dhabi Championship and finished 2nd at the Omega Dubai Desert Classic, three behind winner Sergio Garcia. A week after withdrawing from the WGC-Mexico Championship with a stomach ailment, he posted his second top-10 of the 2017 PGA Tour season, a T-7th at the Valspar Championship. The following week, he uncharacteristically missed the cut at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, his first since the 2016 Players Championship. Missed three cuts in a row with Shell Houston and the Masters. In London, he finished T-3rd at the BMW PGA Championship. Was T-10th at the BMW International. In defending his British Open title, he finished T-11th. Returning to the Wyndham Championship for the first time since 2012, Stenson birdied four of his last six holes en route to a final-round six-under 64 and a one-stroke victory over Ollie Schniederjans. Played at the Northern Trust (T-17th) and BMW Championship (T-51st) and finished 32nd in the FedExCup standings. On the European Tour, finished 15th in the Race to Dubai.

2018 Notes: Played nine European Tour events, making nine cuts with four top-10 finishes. Was 40th in the Race to Dubai. Played 16 PGA Tour events and made 14 cuts with five top-10 finishes. Ranked 57th in the FedExCup standings. In his first start on the PGA Tour, he finished T-2nd at the WGC-HSBC Challenge. It was his 2nd consecutive runner-up result in China and his 10th on the PGA Tour. Finished 8th at the Abu Dhabi Championship and T-6th at the Dubai Desert Classic. At the Arnold Palmer Invitational, Stenson held the lead going into the final round but shot 71 to finish 4th, five strokes behind the winner, Rory McIlroy. Was T-6th at the Houston Open, T-5th at the Masters, and T-6th at the U.S. Open. He was a captain's pick and played in his fifth Ryder Cup in France. Went 3-0-0 and closed with a 5 & 4 victory over Bubba Watson in singles. Stenson was plagued all year with a sore elbow and missed several events. In October, he underwent a minor procedure on his elbow. He returned to action at the DP World Tour Championship, Dubai, where he finished T-12th. Ended the year with 4th-place finishes at the Hero World Challenge and BNI Indonesian Masters.

2019 Notes: Played in 16 European Tour events, making three cuts with four top-10 finishes. Ranked 39th in the Race to Dubai. Played in 15 PGA Tour events, making 14 cuts with three top-10 finishes. Ranked 90th in the FedExCup standings. At the WGC-Dell Match Play, Stenson went undefeated in group play to advance to the round of 16. Lost to Lucas Bjerregaard 3 & 2 for a T-9th finish. Had a T-8th result at the RBC Canadian Open and another T-9th finish at the U.S. Open. Shot a final-round 66 at the Aberdeen Standard Scottish Open to finish T-4th, three strokes out of the Wiesberger/Hebert playoff. He opted out of the FedExCup playoffs rather than finish his year on the European Tour. Was T-3rd at the Scandinavian Invitational, five strokes behind winner Erik van Rooyen. Finished T-44th at the DP World Tour Championship, Dubai.

2020 Notes: Won the unofficial Hero World Challenge by a shot over Jon Rahm. Only played in six PGA Tour events, making three cuts with just one top-25 finish. Played in seven European Tour events, making four cuts. Placed T-20th at the WGC-HSBC Champions. He missed the cut at the Arnold Palmer, his last event before the break, and returned at the WGC-FedEx St. Jude Invitational, where he finished T-35th.

2021 Notes: Played in 14 European Tour events, making 8 cuts with two top-ten finishes. He has been plagued by injuries for most of the year. During the Bermuda Championship, he had a foot injury, and during the Arnold Palmer, he was dealing with sore ribs, which he got while on the ski slopes. On the European Tour, his best finish was T-4th at the D+D Real Czech Masters. Shot a final round 63 to finish 3rd at the Omega European Masters, two shots back of the winner Rasmus Hojgaard. Was 87th on the Race to Dubai with earnings of €371,033. Played in 18 PGA Tour events, making 11 cuts with three top-25 finishes. Was 187th in the final FedExCup rankings. Best finish T-11th at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans with partner Justin Rose.

2022 Notes: Played in 8 DP World Tour events, making four cuts with one top-ten finish. He was T-14th with partner Justin Rose at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. Was T-2nd in the Volvo Car Scandinavian Mixed, nine shots back of winner Linn Grant.

2024 Notes: Was T-43rd at the Saudi Open presented by PIF and missed the cut at the Open Championship.

2025 Notes: T-45th at the Open Championship.

Player Notes: Born in Edgerton, Wisconsin, Stricker grew up playing golf at Lake Ripley Country Club in nearby Cambridge and the Edgerton Towne Country Club. A 1990 graduate of the University of Illinois, he earned All-American honors as a golf team member in 1988 and 1989. He turned professional in 1990 and began his career on the Canadian Professional Golf Tour, winning two tournaments. He earned his PGA Tour card for the first time after finishing T-18th at the 1993 PGA Tour Q-School. He finished 2nd at his second event, the Northern Telecom Open. He showed improvement each year, finishing 50th on the money list in 1994, 40th in 1995, and 4th in 1996, when he got his first two wins at the Kemper Open and Western Open. After that, he slid back to 130th in 1997. Over the next couple of years, his game had its ups and downs. The highs included a runner-up result at the 1998 PGA Championship and a win at the 2001 WGC-Accenture Match Play Championship. Then he had a drop-off, failing to make the top 125 on the money list for three consecutive years, starting in 2003, and losing his fully exempt status. He missed earning his PGA Tour card in 2005 by two strokes at PGA Tour Q-School, then rediscovered his game while hitting balls out of a trailer in the December snow on the practice range at Cherokee Country Club in Madison, Wis. The hard work started to pay off in 2006.

Playing out of the past champions category and asking for sponsor exemptions, he only got into three of the first 17 events of the year. But he finished 3rd at the Shell Houston Open, T-6th at the U.S. Open, and T-2nd at the Booz Allen, ending the year with five top-12 finishes to rank 34th on the money list and earn PGA Tour Comeback Player of the Year. He won the Comeback Player of the Year again in 2007 with $4.6 million in earnings and a victory at the debut FedExCup event, The Barclays. They had a breakout year in 2009, winning three times and earning $6.3 million to finish 2nd on the money list and 3rd in the FedExCup standings. One of his wins came at a FedExCup Playoff, the Deutsche Bank Championship. Was a member of 1996, 2007, 2009, 2011, and 2013 U.S. Presidents Cup Teams and 2008, 2010, and 2012 Ryder Cup U.S. Teams. He was captain of the 2017 U.S. Presidents Cup Team. Will serve as U.S. Captain of the 2021 Ryder Cup at Whistling Straits.

2009 Notes: Enjoyed a banner year, with career-best numbers in wins (3), runner-up finishes (2), top-10s (11), and top-25s (16).

2010 Notes: With two wins during the season, finished 7th in the final FedExCup standings to become one of just three players (Phil Mickelson and Jim Furyk) to finish inside the top 15 all four FedExCup seasons.

2011 Notes: Only player on the PGA Tour to record multiple wins in the last three seasons. He made all 19 of his cuts for the second consecutive season and entered 2012 with 42 straight cuts made. He withdrew from the BMW Championship due to neck and shoulder pain that caused weakness in his left hand. Despite the WD, he qualified for the next week's Tour Championship. He is one of three players to qualify all five years during the FedExCup, along with Phil Mickelson and Hunter Mahan. Playing on his fourth Presidents Cup team, he compiled a 2-2-0 record, including a singles victory over Y.E. Yang.

2012 Notes: Opened 2012 with a win at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions. Earned a T-2nd at the WGC-Bridgestone Invitational, making 18 of 19 cuts with seven top-10s. Placed 18th on the money list. Played on the U.S. Ryder Cup team, going 0-4, including a singles loss to Martin Kaymer. He finished the year 20th in the FedExCup standings and 18th on the money list. He kept his streak alive of playing in all four FedExCup Playoff events.

2013 Notes: Announced at the Hyundai that he was entering semi-retirement and would play a limited schedule in 2013 and afterward. Finished 2nd at both the Hyundai Tournament of Champions and WGC-Cadillac Championship. He didn't play at the British Open to spend time with his family as he and his wife celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary. They went on a ski trip, and while Mickelson was winning the British Open, Stricker had an accident on the slopes, tearing his right hamstring. The injury healed enough for him to play at the WGC-Bridgestone and PGA Championship. He had a great run in the FedExCup Playoffs. He didn't play at The Barclays, but he finished 2nd at the Deutsche Bank, T-4th at the BMW Championship, and T-2nd at the Tour Championship, where he finished two shots behind winner Henrik Stenson. Stricker, Mickelson, and Mahan are the only three players to reach the Tour Championship in all seven years of the FedExCup era. He finished 3rd in the FedExCup standings for the year and 7th on the money list. Playing in his fifth Presidents Cup, he posted a record of 3-2-0 in five matches, including a 2-0-0 mark in four-somes.

2014 Notes: He played only 11 events, with his best finish a T-6 at the Memorial. He defended his title with Bo Van Pelt at the unofficial CVS Caremark Charity Classic. He played most of the year with a torn labrum in his left hip, and the injury got so bad that he missed his first FedExCup Playoffs. They placed 116th in the FedExCup rankings and 89th on the money list. He was an assistant captain to Tom Watson at the Ryder Cup matches. I tried to play in the Hero World Challenge and Franklin Templeton but was still in pain, and two days before Christmas underwent back surgery.

2015 Notes: Two weeks before the Masters, Stricker started preparing to play golf in Naples, Fla. Despite some stiffness, he felt good and could walk the course. He practiced at Augusta the week before, then attended the Final Four in college basketball to watch Wisconsin play before returning to Augusta. He finished T-28th at the Masters, along with a T-27th at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, which were his best finishes of the year. They only played in nine events and finished 176th in the FedExCup standings and 180th on the money list.

2016 Notes: At the Valspar Championship, Stricker shared the 36-hole lead on the strength of a second-round 66 before shooting weekend rounds of 72-73 to finish T-7th for his first top-10 of the season. Making his first start in 10 years at the FedEx St. Jude Classic, he joined Phil Mickelson and Brooks Koepka as runners-up with rounds of 66-71-66-67. They ended the tournament at 10 under par, three shots behind the winner, Daniel Berger. The T-2nd finish marked his best showing on the PGA Tour since finishing T-2nd at the 2013 TOUR Championship; the result also secured a spot at the British Open. There, Stricker finished 4th for his third top-10 of the year. He played 15 events in 2016 and ranked 76th in the FedExCup standings and 74th on the money list. He ended the year with a 2nd-place showing with teammate Jerry Kelly at the Franklin Templeton Shootout.

2017 Notes: Played on both the PGA Tour and Champions Tour. On the PGA Tour, he played in 13 events, making 11 cuts with 2 top-ten finishes. He was 115th in the FedExCup race. On the PGA Tour Champions Tour made 6 starts with 5 top-ten finishes and was 37th on the money list.

In his first Champions Tour event, Stricker finished 2nd at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic, one shot behind the winner, Tom Lehman. He held a two-shot lead through 15 holes in the final round, but a pair of critical miscues down the stretch proved costly. He three-putted for a bogey at 16, then hit his tee shot into the water at the final hole, leading to a bogey that sealed his fate after Lehman birdied 16 and 17. Also was T-3rd at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, T-3rd at the American Family Insurance, and T-3rd at the 3M Championship. At the end of the year won the QBE Shootout with partner Sean O'Hair.

Best finish on the PGA Tour, T-5th at the John Deere Classic, and T-7th Dean & DeLuca Invitational.

2018 Notes: On the PGA Tour, played in 12 events making 9 cuts, best finish T-12th at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am. On the PGA Tour Champions Tour, played in 7 events and won the Cologuard Classic, the Rapsican Systems, and the Sanford International. Was runner-up at the Chubb Classic and Regions Tradition. Was T-3rd at the American Family Insurance. Served as one of Jim Furyk's vice-captains at the Ryder Cup in Paris, France.

2019 Notes: Played in 7 PGA Tour events making four cuts. He played in 9 PGA Tour Champions Tour events with six top-ten finishes. Best finish on the PGA Tour, T-22nd at the Memorial

On the PGA Tour Champions, won the Regions Tradition by six shots. Was T-5th Rapsican Systems and T-6th at the Cologuard Classic? At the American Family Insurance Championship missed a 10-footer for birdie on his final hole and then made a bogey on the first hole of a playoff to get eliminated as Jerry Kelly went on to win. Next week won the U.S. Senior Open; he opened with a 62, and his 19 under par 261 total was the lowest 72-hole total in the event's history, and his six-shot win over Jerry Kelly and David Toms tied for the largest margin of victory. He became the ninth player to win the event in the first start and the 15th player to win multiple major championships in the same year. He was 6th at the Bridgestone Senior Players Championship. He finished 12th in the Charles Schwab Cup and 8th on the money list ($1,534,327).

2020 Notes: Played in ten PGA Tour events, making five cuts with one top-25 finish. On the PGA Tour, his best finish was T-18th at the Memorial.

2020 & 2021 Notes: Played in 13 PGA Tour Champions events with 11 top-tens and finished 20th in the Charles Schwab Cup. He was T-5th at the 2020 Cologuard Classic, five shots back of winner Bernhard Langer. They shared the 36-hole lead with Miguel Angel Jimenez and trailed by one with two holes to play at the Sanford International. He bogeyed the par-3 17th to finish two shots behind Jimenez in a T-3rd. In 2021, Cologuard finished T-3rd, three shots back of the winner, Kevin Sutherland. He won the 2021 Chubb Classic beating Alex Cejka and Roberts by a shot. At the Regions, Tradition finished 2nd as he lost a playoff to Alex Cejka, who birdied the first extra hole. Was T-7th at the American Family Insurance, with a final-round 65, was five shots back of the winner, Jerry Kelly. He won his third major title on PGA Tour Champions after going wire-to-wire at the 2021 Bridgestone Senior Players Championship. Stricker finished at 7-under, six shots ahead of runner-up Jerry Kelly. He was 6th at the Sanford International and ended his Champions season with a T-7th at Furyk & Friends.

On the PGA Tour in 2020, he played in ten events, making five cuts with one top-25 finish, T-18th at the Memorial. On the PGA Tour in 2021, Stricker played in 11 events, making seven cuts. He finished T-4th at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, two shots back of the winner, Brooks Koepka. For Stricker, it was his first top-four finish on the PGA Tour since his 4th place finish in the 2016 British Open. In September, he captained the U.S. Ryder Cup team to a 19-9 victory at Whistling Straits. But then there were mysterious heart and liver issues that flared up in November, leaving him hospitalized at UW Health University Hospital. His symptoms began with a high fever before tests revealed an elevated white blood cell count, low liver count, and, scariest of all, inflammation around his heart, which jumped in and out of rhythm for weeks. A lack of answers was frustrating and terrifying. According to Gary D'Amato of Wisconsin Golf, his heart jumped out of rhythm four days into his hospital stay and started fluttering. At one point, his heart rate shot up to 160 beats per minute and stayed there for two hours. He underwent a liver biopsy. He went on a blood thinner. The doctors were scratching their heads, searching for answers. After 11 days at UW Hospital, he improved enough to be discharged on the day before Thanksgiving. Three days later, he was admitted again, feeling worse than ever. His wife, Nicki, kept a bedside vigil. Stricker said doctors still aren't sure what caused him to become ill. But he got better and started playing golf again at the end of the year. His cardiologist cleared him for travel on January 1st, and he and his family rented a home in Bradenton, Florida, where he is staying until now.

2022 Notes: Played in 12 PGA Tour Champions events with ten top-ten finishes. Was 4th in the Schwab rankings and 3rd on the money list with earnings of $2,473,725. Six months after the bug bit him, he was cleared for competitive golf. He returned at the Insperty Invitational and shot 67-65-70 to finish T-2nd, four shots back of winner Steven Alker. The following week he finished T-10th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, six shots back of winner Steve Flesch. But things pulled together at the Regions Tradition. His wife Nicki caddied for him, and he shot 65-68-66-68 to win by six shots over Padraigh Harrington. Shot a final round 65 to finish 2nd at the U.S. Senior Open, a shot back of winner Padraig Harrington. In defense of his Players Championship title, he finished 2nd, two shots back of the winner, Jerry Kelly. He earned his second win of the season at The Ally Challenge, beating Brett Quigley by a shot. It was his ninth win on the PGA Tour Champions (44 starts) and fourth consecutive multi-win season. He finished 3rd at the Ascension Charity Classic, two shots back of the winner Padraig Harrington. The 2018 Sanford International champion came from two shots back in the final round to force a playoff with Robert Karlsson, which Stricker won with a birdie on the first playoff hole. In his final start of the season, he won for the fourth time in the year at the Constellation Furyk & Friends. He beat Harrison Frazar by a shot and became the first player to win 11 career PGA Tour Champions titles in 50 or fewer starts since Gil Morgan in 1998 (11 victories in 44 starts). Stricker became the first player to win four times in a PGA Tour Champions calendar year since Bernhard Langer and Scott McCarron won seven and four times in 2017. The Constellation Furyk & Friends was his last even for the season as Stricker decided not to play in the Schwab Cup Playoffs and instead went deer hunting.

He was T-5th at the Mitsubishi Electric Classic the following week and won the Regions Tradition by six shots over Ernie Els and Robert Karlsson. Stricker becomes the sixth player to defend the tournament's title successfully and extends his perfect streak of top-10 finishes in 2023 to eight and 12 in a row, going back to the Ally Challenge in August of 2022. At the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship, Stricker's par on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff, the par-5 18th, resulted in his sixth major championship title on PGA Tour Champions and a position within the top five for most major victories. With rounds of 70-67-64-69, he extended his PGA Tour Champions record of consecutive rounds of par-or-better to 49 and a perfect 29-for-29 in the 2023 season. The win marked his ninth top-10 finish in as many starts in the 2023 season and his sixth consecutive top-5 finish. Seeking his third consecutive win on the PGA Tour Champions, he finished T-2nd at the Principal Charity Classic, a shot back of winner Stephen Ames. It was Stricker's seventh top-two finish in his first 10 starts of the season. Was the only player in the field to play all 54 holes without a bogey or worse. Opened with 64 to take the first-round lead before back-to-back 68s on the weekend. Extended his consecutive rounds of par or better streak to 52, tying the record across all PGA Tour-sanctioned Tours. Stricker notched another victory at the American Family Insurance Championship. On the strength of an opening-round 7-under 65, Wisconsin's hometown favorite notched his 53rd consecutive round of par or better, the longest such streak by any player at any PGA Tour-sanctioned event. Stricker improved in round two with an 8-under 64, before a final-round 3-under 69 resulted in a five-shot margin of victory over Steven Alker and Paul Broadhurst. The win at 18-under 198 marked Stricker's fourth of the season and 15th overall on PGA Tour Champions. Finished runner-up at the U.S. Senior Open after winning each of the first two majors of the 2023 season. It was his ninth top-2 finish in his first 12 starts of the year on the PGA Tour Champions. Carded scores of 72-70-68-69 at SentryWorld in his home state of Wisconsin to finish two shots behind champion Bernhard Langer. Became the first three-time winner in the six-year history of the Sanford International (2018, 2022, 2023). Led or co-led after each round, posting 62-66-66 for a 16-under total. Stricker ended his season at the Constellation Furyk & Friends, finishing T-15th, not only his worst finish of the year, but it was his first non-top ten finish of the year. Stricker was planning on playing in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, but when he dad was admitted to the hospital, Stricker withdrew. He still won all the years' honors even though he didn't play in any of the playoff events.

2024 Notes: Played in 12 PGA Tour Champions events with 10 top-ten finishes. Was 8th on the Schwab Cup list with earnings of $1,561,570. The defending champion at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai finished 3rd in 2024 after scores of 66-64-66. It marked his 16th top-3 in his last 21 starts on the PGA Tour Champions, dating back to August 2022. After a pair of T-7ths at the Chubb Classic and the Hoag Classic, then a T-6th at the Galleri Classic, he was T-3rd at the Regions Tradition, three shots back of winner Doug Barron. Player Notes: He played junior golf in the Southern California area, one of the players he grew up with was Bob May, and he was teammates at UCLA with Brandt Jobe and Scott McCarron.

A 1990 graduate of UCLA, Tanigawa spent 11 years competing as a professional in Australia, Asia, and Japan. Played on the Japan Golf Tour in 1996-97, making the cut in 16 of 33 total starts. His best finish was a T-9 at the 1996 Mitsubishi Gallant. Took two years off from golf in 1998-99 to pursue full-time commercial real estate development. They returned to the game in 2000 and won the Ohio State Open. Has won several mini-tour events. Won once on the 2002 Gateway Tour in Arizona.

Tanigawa had one unsuccessful season (2003) on the Korn Ferry Tour before going into business with his brother. He played 40 events on the Korn Ferry tour, with 22 coming in 2003; his best finish was T-37th at the 2003 Virginia Beach Open. Family and work occupied much of his time until he decided to apply to regain his amateur, which was granted in 2012.

He has enjoyed plenty of success in Arizona, winning two state Mid-Amateur titles and the 2015 & 2017 Arizona Amateur. He was also the 2014 and 2015 Arizona Mid-Am Champion. In 2015, he was the Arizona Golf Association's Player of the Year. In 2016, he was the runner-up in the Arizona Amateur to Cory Bacon. He also competed in the U.S. Mid-Amateur in 2013, 2014, and 2017 and represented the state two years ago at the French Lick Resort in Indiana, where the team finished 29th. He was a two-time winner of the Mexican Amateur.

While contemplating turning 50, Tanigawa attended the PGA Tour Champions Qualifying tournament held at TPC Scottsdale. After opening with a round of 70, he shot 64-63 and finished with a 70 to finish T-4th and earn fully exempt status for the 2018 Champions Tour. Tanigawa's finish was the best by an amateur in the Champions Tour School since Jim Roy (Syracuse, NY) finished T-5th in 2009. After the tournament, Tanigawa turned professional again.

2018 Notes: Played in 22 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-ten finishes. In his debut, he finished T-10th at the Boca Raton Championship. He was T-3rd at the Boeing Classic. He closed with a 1-over 73 and T-3rd, his best finish at that point on PGA Tour Champions. He eagled the final hole of his Pure Insurance Championship debut to win his first PGA Tour Champions title. Carded rounds of 67-66-72=205 (-10) en route to becoming the first Q-School graduate to win since Jerry Smith at the 2015 Encompass Championship. title in 2018 and one of two rookies who advanced to the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. He finished 30th in the standings. He finished the year 39th in the Charles Schwab Cup points list and 25th on the money list.

Based on his top-25 finish, he made it into the field the following week at the SAS Carolina Classic, where he posted his second consecutive runner-up finish. Broke through for his first career win on the Korn Ferry Tour at the Knoxville Open. His 11th-place finish on the money list got him onto the PGA Tour in 2004.

2004 Notes: One of five rookies to win on the PGA Tour, and one of four to earn more than $1 million in his first season. Claimed his first victory by rolling in an 11-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole to win a four-way playoff at the Reno-Tahoe Open.

2005 Notes: In defense of his 2004 Reno-Tahoe Open title, Taylor led wire-to-wire with rounds of 64-67-63-72, topping runner-up Jonathan Kaye by three shots. Jumped to 31st on the PGA Tour money list with a 3rd-place finish at the Deutsche Bank Championship, and ended the year 36th on the money list.

2006 Notes: Had six top-10 finishes and was a member of the 2006 U.S. Ryder Cup team. His best result was T-3rd at the RBC Heritage, two shots behind the winner, Aaron Baddeley. Finished the year 35th on the money list.

2007 Notes: Another good year of earnings, over $1.3 million. He finished 70th on the money list and 63rd in the FedExCup. Best finish was 3rd place at the Arnold Palmer, three shots behind the winner.

2008 Notes: After finishing T-8th at the Bob Hope, Taylor struggled and was in danger of not earning his Tour card for 2009. In the third-to-last event of the year, though, at the Ginn sur Mer Classic, he finished T-2nd just a shot behind the winner. Ended the year 132nd in the FedExCup and 98th on the money list, with earnings of just over $1 million.

2009 Notes: Was 132nd on the FedExCup list until finishing T-8th at the Buick Open in August. Two months later, he lost a playoff with Matt Kuchar at the Turning Stone Resort Championship. He finished the year 115th in the FedEx Cup race and 79th on the money list.

2010 Notes: For the seventh consecutive year, Taylor made over $1 million dollars in a season and, for the third consecutive year, posted a runner-up finish. He lost a playoff to Anthony Kim at the Shell Houston Open. Finished 35th in the FedExCup race and 42nd on the money list. His total earnings of $1,838,861 were his career-best at the time.

2011 Notes: Prior to a T-5th at the PGA Tour Qualifying Tournament at the end of the year, Taylor did not record a top-10 finish for the first time on Tour. Made 17 of 27 cuts, but was only able to turn in two top-25 performances. They came early with T-25th finishes at the Bob Hope and Northern Trust. Was 116th in the FedExCup race and 148th on the money list.

2012 Notes: Finished 136th in the FedExCup standings, missing the FedExCup Playoffs for the first time since its inception in 2007. T-11th at the Travelers was his best finish. Was forced back to Q-School and finished T-43rd.

2013 Notes: Made nine of 16 cuts on the PGA Tour, with one top-10, T-10th at the Wells Fargo Championship. Finished 155th in the FedExCup standings. Played in all four Korn Ferry Tour Finals events, but placed 54th to just miss improving his status for the 2013-14 season.

2013 Korn Ferry Tour Summary: Tournaments Entered - 7; Rounds Played - 20; In Money - 3; Top-10 Finishes - 2; Scoring Average - 71.35 (rank N/A); Money - $15,600 (rank 160th); Best Finish - T-8th, Chiquita Classic.

2014 Notes: Played in 20 Korn Ferry Tour events, making 17 cuts. Had three top-10s and six top-25s. Finished the regular season 47th on the money list. Was in 2nd place, three shots back, after 36 holes of the third Korn Ferry Tour Finals event, the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship. Posted 74-74 on the weekend and fell to T-10th, but the $26,000 check put him in position to secure one of the Finals 25 available PGA Tour cards. Was in good position to claim that card at the season-ending Korn Ferry Tour Championship after opening with 69-70. Weekend rounds of 73-74 resulted in a T-61st finish, which pushed him three slots outside the 50th and final card-earning position.

2015 Notes: Missed just one cut in 12 starts on the PGA Tour and posted a pair of top-10s en route to a 151st finish in the FedExCup standings. After two top-15 finishes to begin the Korn Ferry Tour season (T-15th at the Panama Claro Championship and T-12th at the Colombia Championship), Taylor returned to the PGA Tour and finished T-10th at the AT&T Pebble Beach for his first top-10 since a T-10th at the 2013

Wells Fargo Championship. Also finished T-10th at the Barbasol Championship. Made three of four starts in the Korn Ferry Tour Finals, but finished 53rd on the money list.

MARIO TIZIANI

Birth Date: July 17, 1970

Birthplace: Ironwood, Mich.

Age: 55 Ht.: 6' Wt.: 175

Home: Chanhassen, Mn.

College: Wisconsin

Turned Professional: 1993

Joined PGA Tour: 2005

Joined PGA Tour Champions: 2022

Other Victories: 2002 Wisconsin State Open, Panama Open, 2003 Northern Ontario Open

Player Notes: Tiziani was born in Ironwood, Michigan. Playing golf for the Wisconsin Badgers, he was the Big Ten Conference freshman of the year. He is the brother-in-law of pro golfer Steve Stricker and the son of Dennis Tiziani. After he turned pro in 1993, he spent 12 years playing mini-tour events. Though he was the Big Ten's freshman of the year in 1989 at Wisconsin, where his dad coached the team, Tiziani flunked the Tour's Q school 11 times. In 2004, he decided to try again at PGA Tour Q-School, and after 11 tries, the 12th was golf. He finished T-21st to get his card for 2005 by a shot. But Tiziani's year on the PGA Tour wasn't good; in 23 PGA Tour starts, he made only 11 cuts, and his best finish was T-12 at the Southern Farm Bureau Classic. He earned $181,618, and that was 200th on the money list. He played on the Korn Ferry Tour in 2006 and '07 and, in 50 events, had three top-tens, the best being a 5th at the 2006 Albertsons Boise Open. But he didn't play well enough to hold his playing privileges. He tried Q-school a couple more times.

He stepped away and was a sports agent at MPC Sports and, in recent years, a caddie for his brother-in-law Steve. When he got close to his 50th birthday, he started getting ready for a possible run on the PGA Tour Champions Tour. However, with COVID, July of 2020 wasn't a good time to try to play senior golf. He had to wait a year to get his first PGA Tour Champions start at the American Family Insurance in Wisconsin. A couple of weeks before, he won the 2021 Minnesota Senior Open. At the American Family, he was T-71st. Three months later, he got a sponsor invite to Sanford International and was T-5th going into the final round after shooting 65-67, but a final round 71 dropped him into a T-11th. After that, it was back to the Q-Tournament, and his T-10th didn't get him a card for 2022.

2022 Notes: He played in 12 PGA Tour Champions events with one top-ten finish. He was 63rd in the Schwab rankings and 62nd on the money list, earning $245,937. He got a sponsor exemption into the Cologuard and finished T-54th. He Monday qualified for the Rapiscan Systems Classic and finished T-34th. After that was T-7th at the Pure Insurance Championship, three shots back of the winner Steve Flesch. Returned to the Q-Tournament and finished T-14th.

Player Notes: Was teammate on the LSU golf team with Bob Friend, Emlyn Aubrey, Perry Moss, and Greg Leshner, all of whom played on the PGA Tour at one time. Made a 243-yard hole-in-one in the third round to grab the lead in the 2001 PGA Championship and then held off Phil Mickelson by making a 12-foot par putt on the 72nd hole. PGA Championship victory also gave him the 72-hole scoring record (265) in major championship history, which held until Henrik Stenson's 264 in the 2016 Open Championship. He posted a 64 in the final round of the 1998 Masters, one stroke off the course record, but his final-nine 29 tied the Masters' record for a low back-nine score (along with Mark Calcavecchia, who recorded his in 1992). He had had several health issues starting in December 2003 when he had surgery on his left wrist for bone spurs. In 2005 84 Lumber Classic was rushed off the course and stayed in Pittsburgh's UPMC-Presbyterian Hospital for overnight observation. Doctors diagnosed a heart condition called Supraventricular Tachycardia, a general term for a rapid heart rate originating above the ventricles, and a non-life-threatening ailment that was cured through surgery in mid-November. In the summer of 2006 suffered a back injury and had to take six weeks off. In 2010, I had shoulder problems that got better later in the year. With all the problems, he thought of quitting but continued playing for his son, Carter, his biggest cheerleader. He couldn't play in Open Championship in 2011 because of a hip injury. Member of 2002, 2004, and 2006 Ryder Cup Teams and 2003, 2005, 2007, and 2011 Presidents Cup Teams.

He played on his fourth Presidents Cup for the United States, posting a 3-1-0 record, including a singles victory over Robert Allenby.

2012 Notes: Highlights included a second at the McGladrey Classic and a T-4th at the U.S. Open, where he shared the 36-hole lead. Playing only 19 events, with five top-10s, he finished 47th on the money list. After the U.S. Open, he had a back ailment, which forced him to take seven weeks off, including the British Open. He returned to the WGC-Bridgestone and finished T-8th.

2013 Notes: Made the cut in 10 of 16 starts, with a best finish of T-7th at the PGA Championship. He failed to reach the FedExCup Playoffs (138th) for the first time in his career but finished 123rd on the money list to retain his card for the 2013-2014 season.

Son, Carter, competed the same week in the Junior PGA Championship, an event the elder Toms won in 1984. At 152nd in the FedExCup standings, he needed as many starts as possible to get within the top 125. His decision was worthwhile, and the top-five finish moved to No. 140 in the FedExCup standings at the time. He couldn't finish in the top 125, finishing 144th in the FedExCup rankings and 127th on the money list.

Other Victories: 1988 Sierra Nevada Open, Alberta Open [Can]. 1991 California State Open. 1996 Merrill Lynch Pebble Beach Invitational.

Player Notes: When he went to college, his goal was to be an engineer, and he never considered being a professional golfer. He earned his degree in civil engineering but decided to try competitive golf for a while. It was a tough haul after he turned professional in 1985, since he didn't make it through Q-School and was forced to play on the Australasian, Asian, and Canadian Tours before getting his PGA Tour card in 1989. Between 1990 and 2004, he never dropped out of the top 125, and in 10 of those years, he never finished higher than 65th. Problems arose in 2005 when an elbow injury required surgery on damaged tendons. This led to other injuries that hampered him in 2009. The injuries kept him from playing, and he hasn't finished in the top 125 of the money list since 2007.

The best season was in 2000 when he finished 11th on the money list with just over $2 million in earnings. He got his first of three wins at the Nissan Open in Los Angeles. He was also a member of the 2000 Presidents Cup Team.

He played on the PGA Tour between 1990 and 2011 with 501 starts, making the cut 330 times and finishing in the top 10 67 times. Won three times, was runner-up eight times, and finished 3rd eight times, ultimately earning $14.1 million.

The highlight of his 2011 season was making history with his first Korn Ferry Tour victory in late August at the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville. At 49 years, 4 months, and 25 days, he became the oldest player to win on that circuit, and his 21-under-267 total was two strokes better than Marco Dawson. The only other top-15 finish in 10 Korn Ferry Tour appearances was a T-12th at the BMW Charity Pro-Am near Greenville, South Carolina. He made eight overall starts on the PGA Tour and finished among the top 25 in back-to-back starts in July. Put together four consecutive sub-par scores and was T-18th at the Viking Classic. The week before the John Deere Classic, he was T-22nd thanks to a final-round 67 at the TPC Deere Run.

In preparing for the PGA Tour Champions, he played in 18 Korn Ferry Tour events in 2010, '11 & '12. He had four top-10 finishes, including a 2011 News Sentinel Open win.

He turned 50 in March 2012, made his first start at the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am, and was in contention on the back nine on Sunday until a pair of double bogeys dropped him into a T-8th finish. He recorded five top 10s in his 18 starts. He got his first PGA Tour Champions victory in his eighth start, coming from four strokes back on the final day to win the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. The victory made him the sixth player to win events on the PGA Tour, Korn Ferry Tour, and Champions Tour, becoming the first since Olin Browne joined that group in 2011.

2013 Notes: Teamed up with Craig Stadler for a T-4th finish at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in April. The pair was among the leaders all three days before falling two strokes shy on Sunday. Three straight rounds in the '60s led to a T-5th finish to start his year in Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship. Later in the year, he successfully defended his Nature Valley First Tee Pebble Beach title. With his second straight win at Pebble Beach, it made him the first player to successfully defend a PGA Tour Champions title since Tom Lehman went back-to-back at the 2011 and 2012 Regions Tradition.

2014 Notes: He earned multiple titles in a season for the first time in his career and had three other top-three finishes. Earnings of more than $1.4 million were the most he's made in a season since 2004 on the PGA Tour. That year, they collected a personal best of $1.5 million. In his second start of the year, he won The ACE Group Classic, making a critical 6-foot par putt on the 18th hole Sunday to edge Bernhard Langer, Duffy Waldorf, and Olin Browne by one shot. In mid-October, he became the fifth of seven multiple winners of the 2014 PGA Tour Champions when he recorded a three-shot victory over Tom Lehman at the SAS Championship. His runner-up finishes came at the Encompass Championship and the Greater Hickory Kia Classic.

2015 Notes: Opened the year with a T-11 finish at the Mitsubishi Electric. They had a T-10th at the Principal Charity Classic, and the next week, he shot a final round 64 at the Constellation Senior Players to finish runner-up six back of the winner Bernhard Langer. He ended his year with a T-6th at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, was 23rd on the money list, and 19th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Had a T-7th at the Insuperity Invitational, then two weeks later was T-3rd at the Regions Tradition, followed by a T-7th at the Senior PGA Championship. Weekend rounds of 66-65 helped him win the inaugural American Family Insurance Championship, his first victory since the 2014 SAS Championship. He started the final round three strokes back of 36-hole leader Jean-Francois Remesy, and his 4-under-par on the back nine was the difference as he made birdies on four of his final six holes to win by two shots over Bart Bryant and Mike Goodes. The win was extra special since his son, Sam, was his caddie. He was T-5th at the Boeing Classic, his last top-ten of the year. In 25 starts was 18th on the money list and 21st in the Schwab Rankings.

2017 Notes: Was 3rd in the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. Also, T-6th at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic and T-7th at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic and Insuperity Invitational. His best finish of the year was 2nd at the U.S. Senior Open, 2 shots back of winner Kenny Perry. He played 22 events and was 14th on the money list and 22nd in the Schwab Ranking.

2018 Notes: Played in 22 PGA Tour Champions events with nine top-ten finishes. Birdied six of his final nine holes in the closing round 66 at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai, good for a 5th place finish. Triplett teamed up with Paul Broadhurst to win the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in a playoff over Bernhard Langer and Tom Lehman. As a team, Broadhurst/Triplett went bogey-free en route to a 24-under total, and they won after Triplett holed a bunker shot for birdie on the first extra hole. Entering the tournament, Triplett had never been in a playoff on the PGA Tour (501 starts) or PGA Tour Champions (135 starts). He was T-8th at the U.S. Senior Open, went into the final round T-3rd, and was just 2 shots back but shot a final-round 74. At St. Andrews, he birdied five of the first ten holes and shared the lead on three occasions in the final round of the Senior Open Championship. Player Notes: When he was small, his grandparents nicknamed him "Duffy" because he tagged along on the golf course, so they called him "Little Duffer." An avid wine collector, Waldorf can often be spotted on the course in his colorful Hawaiian shirts and hat. His family and friends write good-luck wishes on the golf balls he uses.

As an amateur, he won the 1984 California State Amateur and the Broadmoor Invitational. In 1985, he earned first-team All-America honors at UCLA and was the Pac-10 Conference's Player of the Year that same season. He was also a member of the 1985 USA Walker Cup Team.

While competing on the PGA Tour from 1987-2012, he played in 592 events, winning four and finishing runner-up eight times. He made 369 cuts, finishing in the top 10 62 times and earning $11,902,599. His PGA Tour career was sidelined in 2008 with knee problems, which required surgery and forced him to miss the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

2012 Notes: Waldorf appeared on all three tours, joining the PGA Tour Champions in late August at the Boeing Classic, where he tied for eighth. His best finish was at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, where he finished second. He rallied from four strokes back that Sunday to catch Fred Funk late on the front nine, but Funk birdied the final hole to win the event. He played 11 events on the PGA Tour on a Major Medical Extension (knee surgery). The best effort was a T-21st at the True South Classic. They also made 11 appearances on the Korn Ferry.com Tour and was in the top 10 twice. He finished tied for second in the TPC Stonebrae Championship, closing his week with a 31 on his final nine holes to challenge for the win. It was his first top 10 in a PGA Tour-sponsored event since a tie for third at the 2006 Chrysler Classic of Tucson on the PGA Tour and his highest finish since finishing runner-up at the 2003 FBR Capital Open.

2013 Notes: He played in 24 events and was the only player among the top 10 on the Charles Schwab Cup points list without a victory. His 12 top 10s were also the most by a player during the season without a victory. His best finish was a T-

2nd at the Constellation Senior Players Championship, where he finished two shots back of the winner Kenny Perry.

2014 Notes: He registered five of his six top-10 performances before mid-June and had his two best weeks of the season in his first two starts in Florida in February. He lost in a playoff to Michael Allen at the Allianz Championship when he couldn't get up and down from a greenside bunker for a birdie on the second extra hole after Allen two-putted for a birdie. They missed a 7-foot birdie putt to extend the overtime. He made another run the following week at The ACE Group Classic. He posted three rounds in the 60s and was among four players who battled down the stretch before his chances ended with a bogey on the final hole. Was T-2nd along with Olin Browne and Bernhard Langer, one shy in the final standings to Kirk Triplett, who sank a six-foot par putt on the final hole for the win. He had three more top-tens, first at the Greater Gwinnett Championship with a T-5th finish. Then he finished T-10th at the Principal Charity Classic, followed by a T-7th when he joined forces with former UCLA teammate Corey Pavin at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. He finished the year 24th on the money list and 31st in the Schwab Rankings.

2015 Notes: Became a winner for the first time with a two-shot win over Joe Durant at the Toshiba Classic, the season's final full-field event. An 11-under-par 60 effort Saturday was the impetus for his victory in his 73rd start on the PGA Tour Champions. He flirted with the magical number 59 in the second round at the Newport Beach CC, needing a birdie on his final two holes, but failed to convert those opportunities. He followed his Toshiba Classic victory with a T-9th at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. In late April, I was T-5th with former UCLA teammate Corey Pavin at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. One week later, he used a final-round 67 to move into a T-6th at the Insperity Invitational. Also, T-6th at the Encompass Championship after three consecutive sub-par scores at North Shore CC. He rebounded from a 2-over-par 72 in the opening round of the U.S. Senior Open with three consecutive rounds in the 60s to finish T-10th. He made his first start in a PGA Tour event in nearly two years but missed the cut at March's Puerto Rico Open, but finished T-23rd at the Barbasol Championship in July. He was 18th on the Champions Tour money list and 20th in the Schwab rankings.

2016 Notes: Earned the first win of the year when he sank a 25-foot birdie putt on the final hole to beat Tom Lehman at the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai. The victory was his second in his last three starts, dating back to the 2015 Toshiba Classic, the year's final full-field event. In April, he was T-4th with teammate Corey Pavin at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. Three consecutive rounds in the 60s led to a T-6th finish at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Was T-7th at the Insperity Invitational and the Regions Tradition. T-4th at the Principal Charity Classic, he was four back of the winner Scott McCarron. Had three T-6th finishes at the Shaw Charity Classic, Dominion Charity Classic, and Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Started 26 events and registered 10 top-10s. He finished 10th on the money list and Schwab Ranking.

2017 Notes: Played in 26 events, made it to the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the fifth consecutive time, and finished 26th on the Charles Schwab Cup money list. He made a hole-in-one in the first round at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. One day later teamed with former UCLA teammate Corey Pavin to finish T-2nd at the event, one shot shy of the winning team of Carlos Franco and Vijay Singh. He finished T-4th in defense of his title at the Mitsubishi Electric Hualalai.

Also, T-6th at the Dominion Energy Classic, T-7th at the 3M Championship, T-9th at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic, and 10th at the Senior PGA Championship. He won the Taylor-Made Pebble Beach Invitational in November when he made up seven shots on the final day to defeat Kevin Sutherland, Tom Pernice, Jr., and Sam Burns by a shot.

2018 Notes: Played in 27 PGA Tour Champions events with four top-ten finishes. T-5th at the Regions Tradition, finishing on the weekend with rounds of 66-66 and 4 shots back of winner Miguel Angel Jimenez. He was T-6th at the Constellation Senior Players, had a final round 64, and was 4 shots back of the Singh/Maggert playoff. He was 4th at the Pure Insurance Championship, 2 shots back of the winner Ken Tanigawa. At the first Playoffs event, the Dominion Energy Charity Classic, Waldorf made his 100th consecutive start, the longest active streak on Tour (also finished T-10th). Advanced to the Charles Schwab Cup for the sixth consecutive year and finished T-13th to finish 29th in the standings and 23rd on the money list.

2019 Notes: Played in 24 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-ten finishes. It was 38th on the Schwab Rankings. Best finish 4th at the American Family Insurance Championship, 1 shot back of the Kelly/Goosen/Stricker playoff. Also was T-8th at the Senior PGA Championship and T-9th at Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

2020 & 2021 Notes: He played in 34 PGA Tour Champions events with three top-ten finishes. He was 59th on the Schwab Rankings. He was T-10th at the 2020 Morocco Champions and T-10th at the TimberTech Championship. He was T-8th at the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship. He ended his season with a T-38th finish at the Dominion Energy Charity.

2022 Notes: Played in 18 PGA Tour Champions events, was 68th in the Schwab rankings, and 70th on the money list with earnings of $196,209. Best finish: T-15th at Dick's Sporting Goods Open. I went to the PGA Tour Champions Qualifying tournament and was T-60th.

Player Notes: At age 13, left-handed Mike Weir sought advice from Jack Nicklaus. In a letter, he asked whether he should switch to playing right-handed. The Golden Bear's response was to stick with his natural swing. Weir was the medalist at the 1998 PGA Tour Qualifying Tournament. With his victory at the 2003 Masters, he became the second left-hander to win a major championship, joining New Zealand's Bob Charles, who won the 1963 British Open (has since been joined by Phil Mickelson and Bubba Watson). Member of 2000, '03, '05, '07 and '09 Presidents Cup teams. Played on the Canadian Tour between 1993 and '97. In 1997, he finished 1st in earnings with $80,696 (Canadian dollars), winning twice.

Weir's greatest victory was the 2003 Masters. The last of his eight victories on the PGA Tour was in 2007. He has suffered from several injuries in trying to make a comeback. He has played in 457 PGA Tour events, winning eight times, runner-up 10 times, and third eight times. He turned 50 and joined the PGA Tour Champions in 2020.

2014 Notes: Finished 2nd at the HP Byron Nelson Championship for his first top-10 finish since a 6th-place effort at the 2010 Humana Challenge. He lost by two strokes to Brendon Todd. Posted rounds of 68-66-67-67, marking the first of four back-to-back rounds in the 60s since he posted all four rounds in the 60s at the 2013 John Deere Classic, where he finished T-27th. His last round in the 60s before the HP Byron Nelson Championship came in January at the Humana Challenge (a second-round 69). Still couldn't make it into the FedExCup playoffs, finishing 139th in the standings. The last time he competed in the playoffs was in 2009.

2015 Notes: Nagging wrist and elbow woes continued to bother Weir as he pulled out of the Northern Trust Open during the second round and after the first round the following week at the Honda Classic. These new health problems were caused by overuse as he worked hard on his game. He played in 15 events but with little success. After withdrawing from John Deere, he took leave.

BRETT WETTERICH

Birth Date: August 09, 1973

Birthplace: Cincinnati, Ohio

Age: 52 Ht.: 6' Wt.: 205

Home: Jupiter, Fl.

College: Wallace State Community College

Turned Professional: 1994

Joined PGA Tour: 2006

PGA Tour Victories: 1 - 2006 EDS Byron Nelson Classic

Korn Ferry Tour Victories: 3 - 2003 Chitimacha Louisiana Open, 2004 Envirocare Utah Classic, 2011 Chitimacha Louisiana Open

Player Notes: When Brett was 2, his father, Mickey, put a golf club in his hand, and he just wouldn't let go of it. Played junior golf and got a scholarship to play at Wallace State in Alabama. After he finished school, he turned pro in 1994 and went directly to the Gold Coast Tour. Tried three times to get through PGA Qualifying school but always failed by a stroke or two to reach the final stage. In 1999, he broke that string, making it to the finals, and parred the last hole to get his tour card on the number.

Wetterich was a PGA Tour rookie in 2000, but a wrist injury truncated his season, and he spent the next few seasons playing mainly on the Korn Ferry Tour, where he won in 2003 and 2004. He returned to the PGA Tour in 2005 and in 2006, he won the EDS Byron Nelson Championship. This win helped him secure a place in the 2006 U.S. Ryder Cup team by finishing tenth on the points list. He became the first (and only) player to go from Q-School to make the Ryder Cup team the following year. He also finished tenth on the 2006 year-end PGA Tour money list with earnings of $3,023,185.

Wetterich led the 2007 Masters Tournament at the mid-way point but collapsed on Saturday, shooting an 83, the highest score posted by any weekend leader in the storied tournament's history. He finished the tournament in 37th place.

Shoulder injuries cut Wetterich's 2008 season short, kept him off the course in 2009, and cost him significant Tour status in 2010 after he failed to satisfy his medical exemption. He finished 156th on the money list and was demoted to the Past Champions category, among the lowest priority rankings on Tour. He won his third event on the Korn Ferry Tour in 2011, but finished 29th on the money list, four places short of a PGA Tour card. Wetterich has not played a full PGA Tour season since 2010.

Wetterich has been featured in the top 25 of the Official World Golf Ranking, reaching a career-high of 21st in 2007. In his career on the PGA Tour, he played in 172 events, making 88 cuts with 14 top ten finishes. He was runner-up four times at the 2006 Memorial, Chrysler Championship, 2007 WGC-Ca Championship, and Deutsche Bank Championship. He won the 2006 Byron Nelson. In his career, he earned over $7 million. His last start was missing the cut at the 2018 Barbasol Championship. He also played on the Korn Ferry Tour in 2003 and '04, and again from 2011 through 2013. He has made 117 Korn Ferry starts, making 61 cuts with 14 top ten finishes, including three wins. His career earnings is $735,695.

Unfortunately, he injured his wrist in his rookie year in 2000, had wrist surgery in January 2001, and spent most of his career rehabbing the injury.

In 2024, he made his first start on the Champions Tour at the Kitchenaid Senior PGA Championship, missing the cut there and at the Senior Open Championship. In October of 2024 was named on the athlete Advisory Board of Unified Pros, a non-profit alliance of professional athletes.

2025 Notes: Missed the cut at the Senior PGA Championship and T-70th in the Stifel Charity Classic.

Wi was seven shots behind Toms at the halfway point, but shot a 66 in the third round to take a one-shot lead into the final round. Wi held the lead until midway through the final round, when Toms holed out of the fairway for eagle and eventually lost by one stroke. In February 2012, Wi finished runner-up at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am after taking a three-stroke 54-hole lead into the final round. 2010 Notes: Saved the best for last, finishing 6th at Disney to finish 123rd on the money list. Didn't matter since he was in the first of a two-year exemption for winning at Mayakoba in 2009.

He started the year with a 4-under 69, and he shared the opening-round lead with Dustin Johnson and Nick Watney at the weather-shortened Hyundai Tournament of Champions. A 3-over 76 in the second round derailed his hopes of adding the Big Island tournament title to his win at the 2011 Sony Open in Hawaii. A final-round, 3-under par 70 led to a T-11th finish. Finished T-3rd at the Arnold Palmer Invitational for his best finish. Did not play again until four weeks later, at the RBC Heritage, where he had a T-9th effort. In July, played Glen Ab-

MICHAEL WRIGHT

Birth Date: February 21, 1974

Birthplace: Gympie, Queensland, Australia

Age: 52 Ht.: 6'1 Wt.: 175

Home: Brisbane, Queensland, Australia

Turned Professional: 1999

Joined PGA Tour Champions: 2024

Player Notes: Started playing golf at the age of 15. His father was a pro and taught him how to swing on a school oval, the only place he hit balls until he was taken to a real golf course 6 months later.

The consummate travel pro, Wright toiled for 25 years on the Australian Golf Tour, winning a handful of second-tier tournaments, supplemented by a series of less-than-lucrative top-10 finishes comprising the bulk of his modest career earnings. Even in the "good times," Wright barely broke even, avoiding the cost of hotel rooms.

Wright set off to play professionally in 1999 without expectations but with the hope he could reach his potential. In his first year playing in Australia, he entered 13 Monday qualifiers and made it through 11. In those 11 starts, however, he made only a single cut. While he showed potential during his introduction to the professional game, it was also an introduction to the financial hardship of chasing a dream.

Wright estimates he has been to a dozen Q schools around Asia and Australia, but never earned full status. His most successful bids left him with partial or conditional status.

He played some of the best golf of his career in 2009, winning the PGA of Australia's two major tournaments in consecutive weeks in Papua New Guinea in April and May. In one of the finest performances in Australian golf history, Wright shot 31 under par for the two 72-hole events. He won the $80,000 Coca-Cola Moroba Open in Lae with rounds of 65, 67, 67, 66. And over the weekend, he won the $100,000 South Pacific Export Lager Papua New Guinea Open at Port Moresby Golf Club with a 72-hole total of 12-under par. He shot 67, 70, 69, 70 to win by two shots. Wright collected more than $32,000 for his two outstanding efforts. 2009: April: Won the 2009 Coca-Cola Morobe Open in Papua New Guinea. Led from start to finish and never looked like catching up on the final day. After carding rounds of 65, 67, and 67 over the first three days, Wright began the final round with a two-stroke lead and extended it to a comfortable 6-stroke victory by the end of the day.

According to the Official World Golf Rankings, he has played in 308 events worldwide. He won twice, had 28 top tens, and made 120 cuts. His best ranking in that span was 468 at the end of the 2006 season.

Between tournaments and pro-ams, intermittent work as a substitute teacher was necessary for Wright to make ends meet and support his family, wife Jo, and two teenage sons, Noah and Charlie.

For the past decade, Wright has anticipated his 50th birthday in February 2024. He figured he'd have a good shot at qualifying for the U.S. Champions Tour and all the riches that have eluded him for decades. He has played in America twice on the PGA Tour, via missing the cut at the 2006 & '09 British Open. He also played in 16 events on the Korn Ferry Tour between 2003 and 2010, his best finish being T-13th at the 2009 New Zealand Open. He prepared for the first stage of the Champions Q-School by playing six out of seven weeks in Australia. He played well, which gave him confidence, and he was the medalist in the first stage at Soboba Springs, shooting 10 under par. In the final, he found himself in trouble on the final hole, 122 yards out in the desert with his third shot on a par 4. But he hits a pitching wedge that gets the right bounce and goes into the hole for an improbable birdie. The shot gave him a share of second place and a Champions Tour card for 2024. Had he made bogey, it would have been a different story, as he would have been in a playoff for the final spot. "Maybe it was just meant to be, who knows," an ebullient Wright told a Queensland newspaper when he returned home a week later. "Call it luck if you want, but this shot has been 25 years in the making. I can tell you there's been a hell of a lot of dirt dug for that ball to end up in the hole!"

2024 Notes: Played in 23 PGA Tour Champions events with two top-ten finishes. Was 51st on the Schwab money list with earnings of $484,108. His first start was T-38th in the Trophy Hassan II. He was the 36th-hole leader at the Sanford International and shot 72 in the final round for a T-5 finish, his best of the year.

2025 Notes: Played in 21 PGA Tour Champions events with six top-ten finishes. Was 30th on the Schwab point list and 30th on the Schwab money list with earnings of $745,105. Best finish, T-5th at the DICK'S Open.

2026 Notes: Best finish T-2nd at the Chubb Classic, lost by a shot to winner David Toms.

Player Notes: Yang started practicing at a local driving range in Korea on a friend's advice at age 19. Spent required time in the South Korean military at age 21, guarding a naval port, and traveled to New Zealand after his military stay to pursue a golf career. Victory at the 2009 Honda Classic secured a two-year PGA Tour exemption, and he defeated Tiger Woods at the PGA Championship at Hazeltine National Golf Club in Chaska, Minnesota, earning his first major championship. He got his Tour card at Q-School in 2007 but had to return and make it through again in 2008. Before winning on the PGA Tour, he first won on the Japan Tour, which he played full-time between 2002 and 2006. Got a big break in winning the first tournament of the 2007 European Tour schedule when he held off an elite field, including an impressive pack of major winners, Michael Campbell, Retief Goosen, and Tiger Woods, to win the HSBC Champions tournament in Shanghai. Immediately took up European Tour membership. It was his third victory during the 2006 calendar year, following earlier successes in Asia and Japan. Voted Korean PGA Tour Rookie of the Year in 1999. Before winning the HSBC Champions, he plied his trade on the Japan Golf Tour, winning four times from 2004. Played on the 2009 and 2011 Presidents Cup team.
