Extended forecast – A trough of low-pressure is forecast to bring a chance for scattered showers Saturday, especially late afternoon into the evening hours. Another wave of showers is forecast to move through the area late Saturday night into Sunday morning before drier conditions returns Sunday afternoon with partly to mostly cloudy skies.. The next storm system brings another chance for showers and thunderstorms late Monday and especially on Tuesday as cold front moves through the state. Storms could be severe Tuesday with damaging wind, hail and heavy rainfall.
