A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE SENIOR PGA TOUR

The Senior PGA TOUR, tabbed by many as the most successful professional sports venture of the 1980s, began rather inauspiciously from discussions during 1979 in which leading senior players expressed an interest in playing several "senior" events, provided sponsors could be found and if the PGA TOUR would administer the tournaments. Prior to that time, only certain special events for tournament professionals over the age of 50 were held, most notably the Legends of Golf and the PGA Seniors Championship.

A landmark meeting on January 16, 1980, laid the formal groundwork for the Senior PGA TOUR. Attending that meeting were Sam Snead, Gardner Dickinson, Bob Goalby, Don January and the late Dan Sikes and Julius Boros—all leaders on the All-Time Money List. Sikes was named chairman of what became known as the Senior Advisory Council, and Snead was named honorary chairman.

At that meeting, it was recognized that any senior tour would have to trade on the reputations and images made by PGA TOUR players over their long years of activity on that tournament circuit. Eligibility criteria therefore were centered around a player's position on the All-Time Money List and number of career victories.

It was also determined that such a senior tour could succeed only with a format emphasizing pro-am play. So, the format for play was set with a field of 50 players (later expanded to 52) so that two rounds of pro-am play could be held and one of these pro-am rounds could be made an official round of the tournament.

After approval of the new Senior PGA TOUR by the Tournament Policy Board of the PGA TOUR on Jan. 22, 1980, work began on establishing events for Senior TOUR play. Two tournaments were conducted in 1980, one in Atlantic City, NJ (won by Don January) and the other in Melbourne, FL (won by Charlie Sifford).

The Senior TOUR grew steadily over the next few years with five events in 1981, 11 in 1982 and 18 tournaments by 1983. Prize money offered for players on the 50-and-over circuit tallied over $3 million for the 1983 season. Miller Barber and Don January, fellow Texans, emerged as the dominant players with each winning two money titles in the first four years of the Senior TOUR, and between them, a total of 21 events. Among the other notable performers on the new circuit during that stretch was a five-time winner, Arnold Palmer. Expansion and growth continued in 1984 with 24 tournaments on the schedule worth over $5 million in prize money, prompting January to publicly state, "If you'd have told me back in 1980 that we'd have this many events and be playing for this much money, I'd have said you were crazy."

By 1985, the Senior TOUR was large enough, 27 events worth over $6 million, to merit its establishment as a division of the PGA TOUR, a distinct and separate operating and financial entity, with Senior TOUR net revenue going to fund a newly-created Senior Player Retirement Plan. To help guide this fast growing circuit, a Senior PGA TOUR Division Board was formed consisting of three Independent Directors, three Player Directors and the immediate Past President of the PGA of America. The Division Board was later expanded from seven to nine with the addition of another Independent Director and Player Director.

Of considerable note to the Senior TOUR was the announcement prior to the 1985 season that a cable television package on ESPN had been put together allowing seven events to enjoy national cable exposure. With the production costs partially funded by Mazda Motors of America, Mazda also helped create the Senior TOUR's first-ever season-long bonus pool ($300,000) and sponsored a $1 million season-ending team event in conjunction with the LPGA.

While 1985 also saw a separate logo and licensing program developed for the Senior TOUR, on the playing front, a different face dominated the scene. Australian Peter Thomson, a five-time British Open winner, won a record nine tournaments during the 1985 season and 10 events in a 12-month stretch. The last event of the year, however, was won by a new senior entry, Gary Player.

The following year, two-time Vardon Trophy winner Bruce Crampton took top honors with seven Senior TOUR victories from the 28 tournaments on the 1986 schedule, while two rookies, Chi Chi Rodriguez and Dale Douglass, finished second and third on the final money list, respectively.

The start of the 1987 season marked the entry of another major corporate sponsor as the Vantage brand of R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company introduced its Vantage Program to the 35-event senior circuit. The Vantage involvement included a $1 million, season-long team points competition called the Vantage Cup; the sponsorship of the first $1 million tournament on the Senior TOUR, called the Vantage Championship; sponsorship of a series of major Vantage tournaments; sponsorship of a SUPER SENIORS Competition for players 60 years old and above; and a new advanced electronic scoreboard system.

The size of Senior TOUR tournament fields was expanded to 72 players in 1987, and for the first time, the pro-am portion and tournament portion of events were separated. For standard events, the two-day pro-am was held on Wednesday and Thursday with pros only competing Friday through Sunday. That format remains in effect today.

The Senior TOUR grew to 37 events in 1988, and Vantage began sponsorship of the Senior TOUR's first-ever statistical program, with season-ending leaders in each of 10 stats categories receiving cash bonuses. Bob Charles, the most successful left-hander in golf history, enjoyed a record-setting year, establishing a new single-season earnings mark on the Senior TOUR as he pocketed $533,929.

Continued growth marked the 1989 season, as Senior TOUR tournament fields were increased to 78 players. R.J. Reynolds hosted an expanded $1.5 million Championship, offered another $750,000 in individual bonus money, and yet another $750,000 in bonuses to other Senior TOUR tournaments. With the RJR bonus money counting as "official" prize money, Charles again set the earnings pace with a record $725,887.

In 1990, golf's "Big Four" were reunited on the senior scene. The arrival of Lee Trevino and Jack Nicklaus, together again with Palmer and Player, lifted the popularity of the Senior TOUR to unprecedented levels at the start of the new decade. The year also marked the introduction of Cadillac Motor Car Division as the umbrella sponsor for Senior TOUR cable telecasts. Though five players surpassed the previous single season earnings record, Trevino was the dominant performer, notching seven wins and finishing out of the top 10 only twice in 28 starts. His official earnings total of $1,190,518 not only made him the Senior TOUR's first "million-dollar man," but also the year's leading money-winner in all of golf.

The list of senior millionaires grew when Mike Hill became the second senior to cross the magical seven-digit figure in 1991. Trevino did it again in 1992 and 1994. Dave Stockton and Bob Charles became the first two to pocket over $1 million in official money in the same season when they accomplished that feat in 1993.

New faces became household names on the circuit in the early 1990s. Jim Albus, Larry Laoretti, Tom Wargo and Larry Gilbert, all former club professionals, proved they could compete with seasoned PGA TOUR veterans and pulled off surprising victories.

In 1991, PGA TOUR Productions introduced "Inside the Senior PGA TOUR" as a weekly show on ESPN and aired new programs for 39 consecutive weeks during the season.

Raymond Floyd added his own stories to the senior circuit in 1992 and became the first player in golf history to claim a PGA TOUR and Senior TOUR event in the same season with his victories in the Doral-Ryder Open and GTE North Classic.

When official prize money approached the $30-million figure in 1994, a record six Senior TOUR players found their way over the $1 million mark in single-season earnings. Trevino got there first, hitting the seven-figure level for an unprecedented third time in his career. Stockton followed and became the first to pocket more than a million in back-to-back seasons. After Albus became the first former club pro to join the millionaire's club, Floyd, Wargo and Jim Colbert followed him into the elite group at the season-ending Senior TOUR Championship.

SKYTEL

SkyTel, as the "Official Wireless Messaging Company" of the PGA TOUR and Senior PGA TOUR, supports the TOUR by providing SkyPagers for use in several areas of the TOUR. SkyTel also seeks to have pro-am guests and tournament volunteers use SkyPagers to help them communicate better throughout tournament week. SkyTel, whose products are targeted to the business traveler, is a natural partner when considering the nature of the TOUR's business.

PGA TOUR PARTNERS

The PGA TOUR Partners Program, which Jack Nicklaus serves as chairman, gives golf fans an opportunity to become involved with the PGA TOUR, to learn more about the TOUR itself, its players, tournaments and benefitting charities.

The Partners Program, established in 1991, is designed to help golfers and golf fans get closer to the PGA TOUR. The program's objective is to make Partners feel like a valuable part of the TOUR, for the PGA TOUR is the people who support it. There were 87,000 Partners in 1994, an all-time high; the goal is 300,000 members within the next two years.

For an annual membership fee of $38, a Partner receives numerous benefits, including:

- The Official PGA TOUR Media Guide
- An annual subscription to ON TOUR Magazine
- A free ticket to the PGA TOUR event of his/her choice
- An opportunity to be part of the Partners Team Competition

The latter, according to the Partners themselves, is one of the most appreciated benefits. In the Team Competition, each Partner selects four players to represent him/her throughout the year. Money won by those players in each week's tournament determines the team's standing against all other Partners.

As a direct result, Partners around the country pore through their sports pages each Monday to see how their players did. The reason? The Partners Team Competition offers the chance to win a number of exciting prizes, with the Grand Prize being an all-expenses paid trip to THE TOUR Championship, replete with a berth in the Wednesday Pro-Am.

ON TOUR Magazine, rated as another particularly valuable benefit, is a monthly publication exclusively for Partners which goes behind the scenes of the PGA TOUR. It offers, among a wide variety of features, "up close and personal" articles about players, stories on the TOUR, golf tips, a monthly calendar of events, and items about "the real winners" (through charities supported by PGA TOUR events). The Partners Program, in fact, provides the funds the individual tournaments donate to charity through their own PGA TOUR Charity Team Competition.

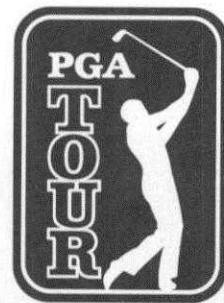

PGA TOUR Partners Golf Classics allow Partners to travel to exciting golf destinations and play in TOUR-style tournaments on some of the finest resort courses: all in all, an excellent opportunity for Partners to play--at great value--courses the professionals play.

Research done in 1994 focused on how to improve the program. Among the suggestions: expand the Partners Classics to give members greater variety and more access to top courses.

Three tiers of membership also will be offered in 1995, and Senior PGA TOUR events will be included in the tournament pass aspect of the program. All of this is in keeping with improvements in customer service and fulfillment with new vendors.

The Partners Program is administered by the PGA TOUR Marketing Department under the direction of Tom Wade, Vice President, Consumer Marketing. Barry Hyde is Account Manager, Consumer Marketing.

CADILLAC SERIES CREATES A HIGHER STANDARD ON THE SENIOR PGA TOUR

Cadillac SENIOR PGA TOUR SERIES

Building on a relationship that began in 1990, Cadillac Motor Division has developed its association with the Senior PGA TOUR into one of the most highly successful marketing programs in the United States. Over $200 million worth of Cadillac sales can be attributed to the involvement of America's luxury car leader in Senior TOUR golf.

Cadillac's umbrella sponsorship of the over-50 circuit extends beyond the visibility of the 15 players who comprise Team Cadillac. The agreement provides a strong foundation of support for the various events comprising the Cadillac Series and, in turn, helps solidify the Senior TOUR's presence on national cable television.

The Cadillac Series began in 1990 with 14 ESPN-televised tournaments and has expanded to 19 tournaments in 1995. With Cadillac again designated as "The Official Car of the Senior PGA TOUR," the company has boosted prize money at each Cadillac Series event by $200,000.

Additionally, the series features a year-long competition among Senior TOUR players for new automobiles. Standings are based on official prize money won in each Cadillac Series tournament. The contest concludes at the Senior TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach, SC.

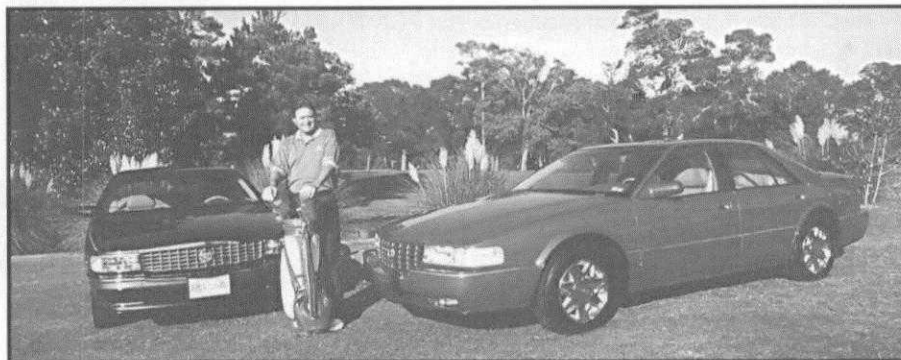

Last year, Raymond Floyd became the first player to amass more than a million points in the Cadillac Series. For his efforts, he received two 1995 Cadillacs -- the award-winning Seville Touring Sedan and the Northstar-equipped DeVille Concours. Runnerup Lee Trevino was awarded a DeVille Concours and third-place finisher Jim Colbert received a Sedan DeVille.

Past winners of the Cadillac Series were Charles Coody (1990), Jim Colbert (1991) and Lee Trevino (1992, 1993).

Cadillac's commitment to quality, both in the luxury automobile market and on the Senior PGA TOUR, brings distinction to the road as well as the links.

MERRILL LYNCH SHOOT-OUT SERIES

The Senior TOUR version of the Merrill Lynch Shoot-Out series has become a popular Tuesday event for golf fans across the country over the past six years and will return in 1995.

Merrill Lynch Shoot-Outs will be part of 15 Senior TOUR tournaments in the 1995 campaign. The nine-hole competitions will feature top Senior TOUR players poking fun of each other and battling for a top prize of $5,000 from a purse of $15,100 at each contest.

A Merrill Lynch Shoot-Out begins with 10 players and on each hole the player with the highest score is eliminated. Ties are broken by a sudden-death "shoot-out," involving a pitch, chip, bunker shot or putt. The individual whose ball comes to rest farthest from the hole is eliminated from the field.

Each Merrill Lynch Shoot-Out comprises the defending champion of that particular tournament, the top three players entered in that tournament from the current money list, the top three players in the tournament from the All-Time money list and three sponsor selections.

At the end of the season, Merrill Lynch will sponsor its sixth Senior Shoot-Out Championship featuring the top two money-winners from the year-long Shoot-Out series, the top five on the 1995 Senior PGA TOUR money list and three players selected by Merrill Lynch. Tom Wargo won last year's championship at the Challenge at Manele on the island of Lanai, HI.

CENTINELA FITNESS CENTER

In 1986, Centinela Hospital Medical Center in Inglewood, CA expanded its association with the PGA TOUR by providing a mobile training center for the Senior PGA TOUR. The Centinela Hospital Fitness Center (CHFC) on the senior circuit was officially dedicated at the Seiko-Tucson Match Play Championship at Randolph Park in Tucson, Arizona, on November 1 of that year.

One of the most popular innovations on both the PGA TOUR and Senior PGA TOUR, the CHFC is a mobile gymnasium that includes state-of-the-art exercise equipment, massage tables, television, stereo and a full line of vitamins and nutritional products.

Staffed by qualified physical therapists, the CHFC makes use of Centinela's research to help players attain and maintain optimum fitness. The CHFC travels to the vast majority of Senior TOUR events across the country, providing both rehabilitative and preventive care.

Additionally, Centinela Hospital Medical Center provides each Senior TOUR player with a personal physical conditioning program based on that individual's current level of fitness and provides internationally recognized orthopedists Dr. Frank Jobe and Dr. Lewis Yocum of Centinela Hospital's Fitness Institute for consultations with players. Dr. Jobe, Medical Director of the PGA TOUR, is also team physician for the Los Angeles Dodgers; Dr. Yocum, Assistant Medical Director of the PGA TOUR, is an orthopedic consultant to the California Angels.

The CHFC has made its impact over the past six years with many players finding the van and available technicians an invaluable aid to their success on the Senior TOUR. In fact, many players have commented that they would have been unable to compete in some tournaments without this facility.

"There is no question that we are very fortunate to have the Centinela Hospital Fitness Center on the Senior TOUR," said Bruce Crampton. "Originally, I was looking for a program that would provide me with flexibility and longevity for the TOUR. Working out in the van makes me much more relaxed on the course. I ride the bike and get rid of stress."

Centinela Hospital's Biomechanics Laboratory has done research and testing on professional golfers' swings and, based on the results, developed scientific exercise programs which are available through books and videotapes. These programs, designed by Dr. Jobe and Dr. Yocum, have helped countless golfers stretch their potential while minimizing their risk of injury. For information contact Centinela Hospital.

Bayer Aspirin supports the Centinela Hospital Fitness Training Centers by providing players with one of the leading pain-relievers on the market. Bayer also conducts consumer sampling at tournaments and explores new ways to provide better healthcare products for golfers.

The products contributed by each sponsor of the Centinela Hospital Fitness Center have helped make the facility a success on both the PGA TOUR and Senior PGA TOUR.

The Centinela Hospital Fitness Center will again be on the Senior PGA TOUR in 1995.

TOURNAMENT PLAYERS CLUBS

An original concept of the PGA TOUR, Tournament Players Clubs have gone from a dream to a network that now encompasses 14 courses in 10 states and, with the addition of International TPCs, three foreign countries.

It was the TOUR's view that the spectator had been left out in golf course design throughout the years. When it came time for the PGA TOUR to build its own course, the opportunity presented itself to design a course that not only challenged the players but also allowed spectators to see the action as never before.

It's called "Stadium Golf"-- and once you've viewed a tournament on a Stadium Golf Course, you'll understand why the network has grown in such a short period of time.

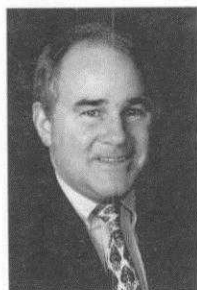

Spectator mounds abound that afford fans unrestricted views, whether on tee shots, fairway shots or on the greens. In fact, the 18th hole at the original TPC at Sawgrass can accommodate crowds of some 30,000 people--all with a clear view of the action. You won't see any periscopes at an event on a Tournament Players Club golf course.

The network began in 1980 with the TPC at Sawgrass, which annually is host to THE PLAYERS Championship, and quickly grew into the present number of 14. All TPCs are designed to play host PGA TOUR or Senior PGA TOUR events, and to date the clubs have been designed by some of the top architects in the business--Pete Dye, Arnold Palmer, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Bob Von Hagge and Jack Nicklaus, to name just a few.

In addition, one of the things that adds a bit of spice to all TPCs is that a PGA TOUR player (or, in some cases, two) is assigned to serve as consultant to the designer. To date, Ed Sneed, Tom Weiskopf, Fuzzy Zoeller, Hubert Green, Craig Stadler, Ben Crenshaw, Al Geiberger and Chi Chi Rodriguez have been among those lending their expertise to the TPC Network.

In reality a nationwide country club, a premium membership at one TPC affords the member a chance to play at any of the other clubs across the country and an opportunity to view the greatest players in the world in action on his own course once a year.

Since the Tournament Players Club at Sawgrass opened, the TPC Network has now truly become "the best set of clubs in America."

WORLD GOLF VILLAGE

Florida's First Coast, home of the PGA TOUR since 1979, soon will welcome one of the most exciting projects in the history of the game of golf: the World Golf Village.

Situated on Interstate 95 in St. Johns County, just 22 miles south of Jacksonville and eight miles northwest of St. Augustine, the World Golf Village will offer year-round golf and resort facilities, not to mention the new 75,000 square-foot Golf Hall of Fame. Additional amenities will include a major hotel and conference center, a clubhouse and 36 holes of golf, a PGA TOUR Golf Academy, the new home for PGA TOUR Productions, and a sports medicine branch of the Mayo Clinic. The first phase of the Village is scheduled to open in late 1996.

The exhibits in the new Golf Hall of Fame are being designed by Ralph Applebaum Associates of New York, which has received considerable acclaim for creating the exhibits at the United States Memorial Holocaust Museum. Their work is being overseen by an Advisory Board including representatives of all the major golf organizations, among them the PGA TOUR, LPGA, PGA of America, USGA, Augusta National, Royal & Ancient, National Golf Foundation and the PGA Tours of Europe, South Africa and Australasia.

"This endeavor represents the first time that all the major entities in the game have united behind a project of this magnitude," says World Golf Village Executive Director Ruffin Beckwith. "We believe it is destined to become something very special for the game of golf, for its great players, and for all its fans and supporters."

The Hall of Fame itself will combine traditional exhibits on the history of the game with a new generation of interactive and technology based exhibits. "The philosophy behind the design is to make the experience appealing to kids as well as adults, and novices as well as avid golfers," says Beckwith. "Hopefully every visitor will leave the facility feeling they have been entertained as well as enlightened."

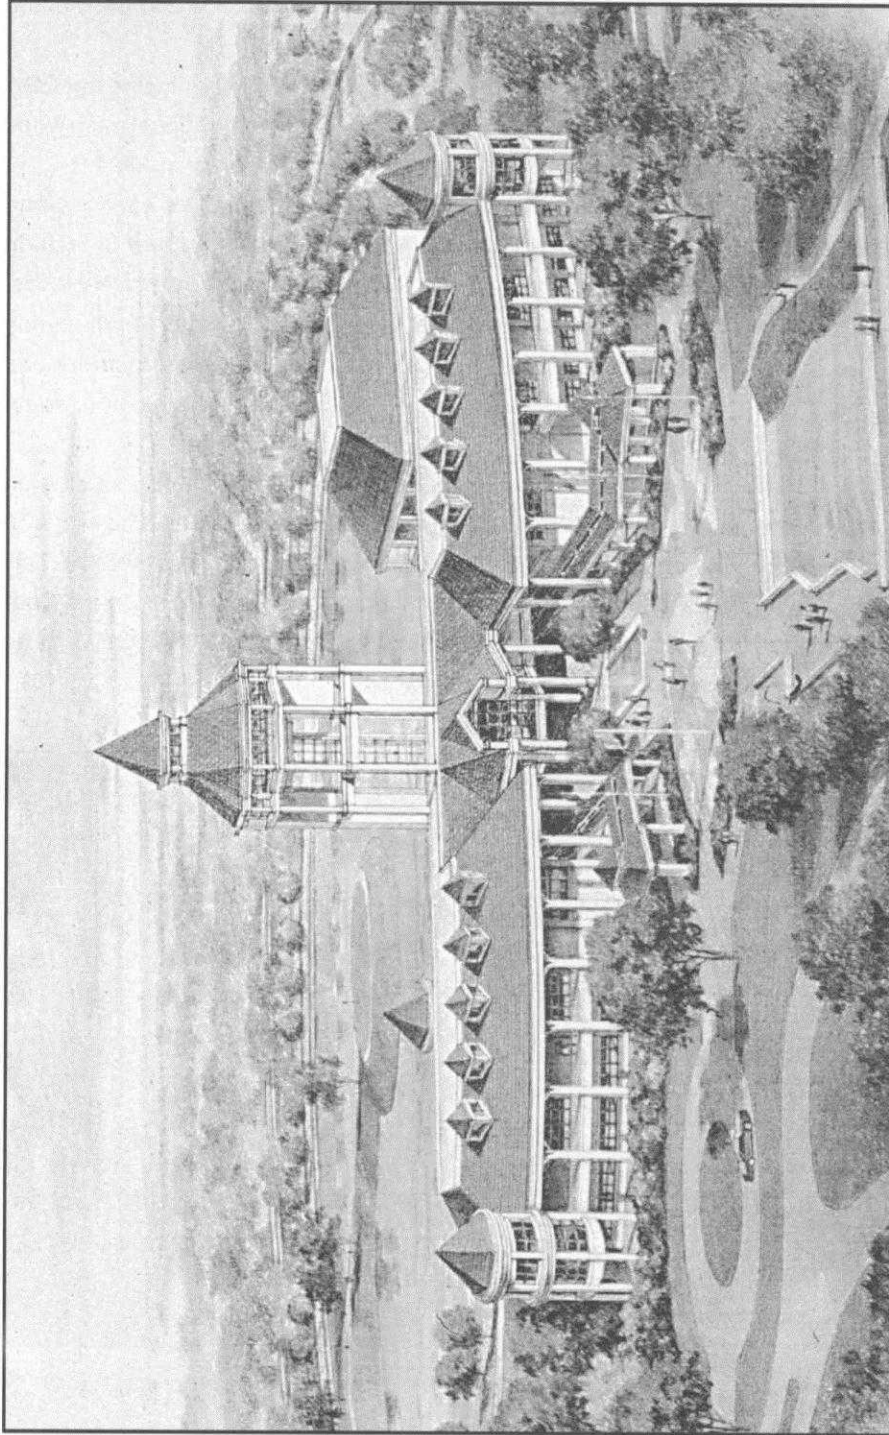

The World Golf Village is part of a 6,300-acre development called St. Johns, which will also include 7,200 residences and more than six million square feet of office, commercial and industrial space.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

The following regulations are to be followed by all members of the media:

1. An armband is necessary to walk inside the gallery ropes. Remain not more than an arm's length from the ropes, so as to blend into the gallery and appear to be a part of the gallery at all times.
2. Players are not to be distracted during play. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their rounds.
3. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their practice sessions before a round, except by prior arrangement with the player.
4. If an interview is to be conducted in the practice areas, either the range or the putting green, it must be done by prior arrangement with the player, up against the ropes and not in the middle of the areas where it could be distracting to other players.
5. Do not disturb players at their 18th green and/or scoring tent until after they have checked, signed and returned their scorecards. Media are not allowed in the scoring tent.
