HISTORY OF THE SENIOR PGA TOUR

The SENIOR PGA TOUR, called by many the most successful professional sports venture of the 1980s, sprang from discussions in late 1978 and 1979 in which leading senior players expressed interest in playing several "senior" events, provided sponsors could be found and if the PGA TOUR would administer the tournaments. Prior to that time, only certain special events for tournament professionals over the age of 50 were held, most notably the Legends of Golf and the PGA Seniors' Championship.

A landmark meeting on January 16, 1980 laid the formal groundwork for the SENIOR PGA TOUR. Attending that meeting were Sam Snead, Gardner Dickinson, Bob Goalby, Don January and the late Dan Sikes and Julius Boros—all leaders on the All-Time Money List. Sikes was named chairman of what became known as the Senior Advisory Council, and Snead was named honorary chairman.

At that meeting, it was recognized that any senior tour would have to trade on the reputations and images made by PGA TOUR players over their long years of activity on that tournament circuit. Eligibility criteria therefore were centered around a player's position on the All-Time Money List and number of career victories.

It also was determined that such a senior tour could succeed only with a format emphasizing proam play. So the format for play was set with a field of 50 players (later expanded to 52) so that two rounds of pro-am play could be held, and one of those pro-am rounds could be made an official round of the tournament.

After approval of the new SENIOR PGA TOUR by the Tournament Policy Board of the PGA TOUR on January 22, 1980, work began on establishing events for SENIOR TOUR play. Two tournaments were conducted in 1980, one in Atlantic City, NJ (won by Don January) and the other in Melbourne, FL (won by Charlie Sifford).

The SENIOR TOUR grew steadily over the next few years, with five events in 1981, 11 in 1982 and 18 tournaments by 1983. Prize money offered for players on the 50-and-over circuit exceeded $3 million for the 1983 season. Fellow Texans Miller Barber and Don January emerged as the dominant players. Each won two money titles in the first four years of the Senior TOUR; between them, they have won a total of 41 events. Among the other notable performers on the new tour during that stretch was a five-time winner, Arnold Palmer.

Expansion and growth continued in 1984, with 24 tournaments worth more than $5 million in prize money. That prompted January to state publicly, "If you'd have told me back in 1980 that we'd have this many events and be playing for this much money, I'd have said you were crazy."

By 1985, the SENIOR TOUR was large enough—27 events worth more than $6 million—to merit its establishment as a division of the PGA TOUR. It became a distinct and separate operating and financial entity, with SENIOR TOUR net revenue going to fund a newly created Senior Player Retirement Plan. To help guide this fast-growing circuit, a SENIOR PGA TOUR Division Board was formed consisting of three Independent Directors, three Player Directors and the immediate Past President of the PGA of America. The Division Board later was expanded from seven to nine with the addition of another Independent Director and Player Director.

Of considerable note was the announcement prior to the 1985 season that a cable television package had been put together on ESPN, allowing seven events to enjoy national cable exposure. With the production costs partially funded by Mazda Motors of America, Mazda helped create the SENIOR TOUR's first-ever, season-long bonus pool ($300,000) and sponsored a $1 million season-ending team event in conjunction with the LPGA.

While 1985 also saw a separate logo and licensing program developed for the SENIOR TOUR, on the playing front a different face dominated the scene. Australian Peter Thomson, a five-time British Open winner, won a record nine tournaments during the 1985 season and 10 events in a 12-month stretch. The last event of the year, however, was won by a new senior entry, Gary Player.

The following year, two-time Vardon Trophy winner Bruce Crampton took top honors, with seven SENIOR TOUR victories from the 28 tournaments on the schedule, while rookies Chi Chi Rodriguez and Dale Douglass finished second and third, respectively, on the final money list.

The start of the 1987 season marked the entry of another major corporate sponsor, as the Vantage brand of R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company introduced its Vantage Program to the 35-event SENIOR TOUR. The Vantage involvement included a $1 million, season-long team points competition called the Vantage Cup; sponsorship of the first $1 million tournament on the SENIOR TOUR, called the Vantage Championship; sponsorship of a series of major Vantage tournaments; sponsorship of a competition for players 60 and older; and an advanced electronic scoreboard system.

The size of SENIOR TOUR tournament fields was expanded to 72 players in 1987 and, for the first time, the pro-am portion and tournament portion of events were separated. For standard events, the two-day pro-am was held on Wednesday and Thursday, with professionals only competing Friday through Sunday. That format remains in effect today.

HISTORY OF THE SENIOR PGA TOUR

The SENIOR TOUR grew to 37 events in 1988, and Vantage began sponsorship of the SENIOR TOUR's first-ever statistical program. Season-ending leaders in each of 10 stats categories received cash bonuses. Bob Charles, the most successful lefthander in golf history, enjoyed a record-setting year, establishing a single-season earnings mark on the SENIOR TOUR as he won $533,929.

Continued growth marked the 1989 season, as SENIOR TOUR tournament fields were increased to 78 players. R.J. Reynolds sponsored an expanded $1.5-million championship, offered an additional $750,000 in individual bonus money and yet another $750,000 in bonuses to other SENIOR TOUR tournaments. With the RJR bonus money counting as official prize money, Charles again set the earnings pace with a record $725,887.

In 1990, golf's "Big Four" were reunited. The arrival of Lee Trevino and Jack Nicklaus, together again with Palmer and Player, lifted the popularity of the SENIOR TOUR to unprecedented levels at the start of the new decade. The year also marked the introduction of Cadillac Motor Car Division as the umbrella sponsor for SENIOR TOUR cable telecasts.

Though five players surpassed the previous single-season earnings record, Trevino was the dominant 1990 performer, winning seven times and finishing out of the top 10 only twice in 28 starts. His official earnings of $1,190,518 not only made him the Senior TOUR's first "million-dollar man," but also the year's leading money-winner in all of golf.

The list of senior millionaires grew when Mike Hill became the second senior to top $1 million in 1991. Trevino did it again in 1992 and 1994. Dave Stockton and Bob Charles became the first two to earn more than $1 million in official money in the same season, accomplishing that feat in 1993.

New faces became household names on the SENIOR TOUR in the early 1990s. Jim Albus, Larry Laoretti, Tom Wargo and Larry Gilbert, all former club professionals, proved they could compete with seasoned PGA TOUR veterans and pulled off surprising victories.

In 1991, PGA TOUR Productions introduced "Inside the SENIOR PGA TOUR" as a weekly show on ESPN and aired new programs for 39 consecutive weeks during the season.

Raymond Floyd added his own stories to the ledger in 1992, becoming the first player in golf history to claim a PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR event in the same season with victories in the Doral-Ryder Open and GTE North Classic.

When official prize money approached the $30-million figure in 1994, a record six SENIOR TOUR players found their way over the $1 million mark. Trevino got there first, earning $1 million for an unprecedented third time in his career. Stockton followed, becoming the first to win more than $1 million in back-to-back seasons. After Albus became the first former club professional to join the millionaire's club, Floyd, Wargo and Jim Colbert followed him into the elite group at the season-ending SENIOR TOUR TOUR Championship.

In 1995, a year that produced a record 25 different champions, Colbert earned his first Arnold Palmer Award with a single-season earnings record of $1,444,386. His year-long performance, keyed by a win at the season-ending Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, helped propel Colbert to SENIOR PGA TOUR Player of the Year honors, something he repeated in 1996, when he lifted the earnings record to $1,627,890. Colbert edged Hale Irwin, who made his SENIOR TOUR debut in 1995, by $12,121 in becoming the first winner of consecutive Player of the Year awards.

All told, the 1996 season produced a record nine millionaires, with Stockton becoming the first on either the PGA TOUR or SENIOR TOUR to go over $1 million four consecutive years.

Trevino, who became the all-time SENIOR TOUR victory leader with his 25th career win at the 1995 Northville Long Island Classic, increased his mark to 27 by winning the Emerald Coast Classic in 1996.

MasterCard became a major player on the SENIOR PGA TOUR in 1996 through sponsorship of scoreboard signage and the MasterCard Champions competition. Jimmy Powell, the first to win a SENIOR TOUR tournament and a 60-and-over event at the 1995 First of America Classic, repeated that performance at the Brickyard Crossing Championship. Powell was joined in 1996 by a pair of 60-year-old tournament winners, Dale Douglass at the Bell Atlantic Classic and Bob Charles, who successfully defended the title he won as a 59-year-old at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic. Bruce Crampton joined their fraternity by winning the 1997 Cadillac NFL Golf Classic.

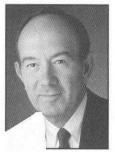

MasterCard also is title sponsor of the MasterCard Championship, the tournament for the previous year's winners held in January at Hualalai, the first PGA TOUR Resort on the Big Island of Hawaii.

The SENIOR TOUR Division Board is composed of the following:

- Four Player Directors elected by the SENIOR PGA TOUR membership.
- Four Independent Directors representing the public interest. One serves as Chairman of the Board.
- One PGA Director who is the Past President of the PGA of America.

A Player Advisory Council consults with the Division Board.

FAST FACTS:

BROKEN RECORDS: Isao Aoki's 10-under-par 60 in the second round of the 1997 Emerald Coast Classic was the lowest 18-hole score ever recorded on the SENIOR PGA TOUR. When he backed the 60 up with a 65 the next day, Aoki also set the record for best consecutive rounds in SENIOR TOUR history.

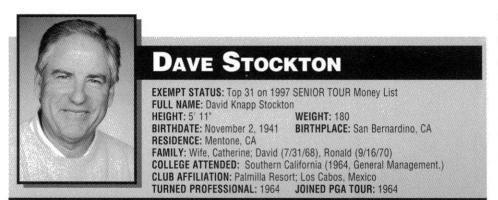

DOUBLE TROUBLE: Hale Irwin, Gil Morgan and Graham Marsh all won back-to-back titles in 1997, with Irwin accomplishing the feat a record four times in one year. The last time the SENIOR TOUR had a trio win in consecutive starts was 1993, when George Archer, Lee Trevino and Dave Stockton captured back-to-back wins in one season.

STREAKS: Lee Trevino and Mike Hill saw their streak of years winning at least one official tournament end at seven when they failed to win last season. Two others — Jim Colbert (six years) and Raymond Floyd (five years) — also saw streaks end. The current leader in that category is Dave Stockton, with six after his victory at the 1997 Franklin Quest Championship.

Hale Irwin claimed the first of his nine 1997 titles with a two-stroke victory over Gil Morgan at the inaugural MasterCard Championship in Hawaii. The two were tied at the start of the day and remained that way for most of the final round, but Irwin's 28-foot birdie putt and a bogey by Morgan at the par-3 17th hole proved decisive. The critical two-stroke swing was all Irwin needed to claim the $186,000 first prize.

ROYAL CARIBBEAN CLASSIC RECAP

Gibby Gilbert birdied six of the final 10 holes at the 1997 Royal Caribbean Classic to close with a 32 and claim his sixth SENIOR PGA TOUR title. Gilbert's 66 on Sunday gave him an 11-under-par 202 at Crandon Park GC, four strokes better than David Graham. Gilbert's score was the lowest 54-hole total at Key Biscayne since Jim Colbert won the 1993 Royal Caribbean Classic with a 16-under-par 199.

Gilbert had spent the off-season working with noted teacher Jim McLean, but it was his putting that carried him. The soft-spoken Tennessean was best on the greens for the week, needing just 74 putts over three rounds and only 23 on Sunday. "I came down here hoping to play well. I've been taking lessons, but certainly didn't expect to play this well," Gilbert said after his victory.

Tournament Tidbit: Hubert Green, playing in his first SENIOR TOUR event at the 1997 Royal Caribbean Classic, came up one putt short of tying an all-time record during the second round. Green needed only 18 putts in shooting his 66 on Saturday, one short of Bob Brue's record set at the 1993 Kroger Senior Classic. He holed out twice from bunkers, chipped in once and oneputted 12 times, including the first five holes.

LG CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Hale Irwin won his third SENIOR PGA TOUR title in Florida and became the SENIOR TOUR's first multiple winner of 1997 at the LG Championship. A month earlier, Irwin had won at the MasterCard Championship.

After trading birdies most of the day with eventual runner-up Bob Murphy, Irwin took the lead for good when he holed a 35-foot bunker shot for birdie at the par-5 15th hole. It was his only sand save out of six tries during the tournament.

The three-time U.S. Open champion secured his victory at Bay Colony GC's 17th hole by hitting a wedge to within five feet and making the birdie putt. "I knew the birdie at 15 put me in front. It really came at an opportune time, with only three holes left, and none of them are really birdie holes," Irwin said following the win.

Tournament Tidbit: Since making his first start in Naples in 1989, twotime winner Mike Hill has played sub-par golf in 22 of his 25 official rounds over four different venues in the southwest Florida city.

GTE CLASSIC RECAP

KEY: + = Playoff

Despite starting the final round three strokes behind second-round leader Bob Eastwood, David Graham used a trio of birdies on the front side and four in a row on the back side (holes 11-14) to post his first SENIOR PGA TOUR victory by three strokes over Bob Dickson at the 1997 GTE Classic.

Graham finished his round with a 6-under-par 65. His four consecutive birdies allowed him to break away from three others at that point, and despite a bogey at 15, he picked up the $135,000 first prize and his first professional win since 1983.

"My nerves were a little big edgy at times today, especially at 18, but it felt good to win," Graham said. "With the exception of the last hole, I played well. I had a solid front nine and a great par at No. 8."

Tournament Tidbit: David Graham became yet another winner to post at least one round in the 70s on his way to the title. No winner has failed to shoot at least one round in the 70s. However, four players have recorded three consecutive rounds in the 60s, yet come up short. George Archer (second) and Bobby Nichols (third) did so in 1992, while Bob Charles and J.C. Snead, who tied for second, did so in 1995.

AMERICAN EXPRESS INVITATIONAL RECAP

Bud Allin took full advantage of his opportunity at the 1997 American Express Invitational. An alternate for the event, Allin received word two days before the start that he would replace an injured Gibby Gilbert in the field. Shooting rounds of 68-68-69, Allin posted a one-stroke victory over Jim Colbert to claim the largest check of his professional career —$180,000.

Allin was tied for the lead with three others after the first round but grabbed a three-stroke lead after 36 holes following his second-round 68. He held off Colbert on Sunday despite a bogey at the 17th. Allin two-putted from 60feet for the victory.

Tournament Tidbit: Bud Allin's title was his first win on the SENIOR PGA TOUR and his first PGA TOUR victory in more than 20 years. His last win was at the 1976 Pleasant Valley Classic in Sutton, MA.

SENIOR SLAM RECAP

In his first trip to the Baja Peninsula, Hale Irwin played almost flawless golf for two days and cruised to an easy nine-stroke win over Dave Stockton in the 1997 Senior Slam. Irwin's tournament-record 13-under-par 131 included only one bogey over 36 holes at Palmilla GC. He missed just one fairway and two greens in his final round and collected $250,000.

Irwin entered the second day of the event that matches the winners of the SENIOR PGA TOUR's four major championships with a five-stroke lead over Raymond Floyd, who was bidding for a third consecutive Senior Slam title. But after making two birdies in the first four holes, Irwin left the other three players battling for second place.

Tournament Tidbit: This year's Senior Slam returns to the Jack Nicklaus-designed Ocean Course at Cabo del Sol. In 1995, Raymond Floyd defeated Dave Stockton by six strokes on the Ocean Course.

TOSHIBA SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Bob Murphy's 80-foot birdie putt on the ninth playoff hole defeated Jay Sigel for the Toshiba Senior Classic title. The win was Murphy's first in California since he went five extra holes to defeat Dave Eichelberger for the 1994 Raley's Senior Gold Rush crown.

Last year's marathon session was a SENIOR PGA TOUR record, surpassing the eight-hole playoff won by Orville Moody against Bob Betley in the 1992 Showdown Classic. Murphy and Sigel ended regulation play at 6under 207. The duo matched each other in sudden death until Murphy's deciding putt in near darkness at Newport Beach CC's par-3 17th hole.

Tournament Tidbit: Newport Beach CC originally was known as the Irvine Coast CC when it opened in 1954. First designed by William Bell and restored by Ted Robinson in 1985, the course served as host site for several "Little Crosby" mini-tour events that featured current SENIOR TOUR players.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL DOMINION RECAP

In one of the most exciting finishes in tournament history, David Graham ended the 1997 Southwestern Bell Dominion with an eagle on the par-5 18th hole to claim the $120,000 first prize.

Trailing John Jacobs by one stroke heading to the final hole, Graham hit his 8-iron second shot to within 16 feet of the cup, then rolled in the right-toleft putt for the win.

"I've never made an eagle on 18 to win a tournament," Graham said. "I'm sure I've made eagle when I won tournaments, but never on the last hole. I hit my best drive of the day, my best iron and made a good putt."

Tournament Tidbit: David Graham had just two bogeys during the 54-hole event and was 7-under-par on the par-5s. It was his second victory in Texas. He won the 1983 Houston Coca-Cola Open on the PGA TOUR.

THE TRADITION RECAP

Gil Morgan's first visit to The Tradition in 1997 was a memorable one. Morgan recorded rounds of 66-66-67-67 for a six-stroke victory over Isao Aoki, and his 72-hole total of 266 broke Tom Shaw's tournament record by three strokes.

Morgan's effort was even more impressive considering the conditions. The first three rounds were played in temperatures that ranged from the high 30s to the mid-50s with intermittent light rain.

Using his length off the tee to his advantage, Morgan was 15-under-par on the 20 par-5s during the event and had just three bogeys all week.

Tournament Tidbit: Gil Morgan's six-stroke win was the greatest margin of victory in tournament history, breaking the record of four strokes set by Jack Nicklaus in 1990. Morgan's 72-hole total of 22-under-par 266 was the lowest score relative to par since Raymond Floyd was 22-under at the 1993 Gulfstream Aerospace Invitational.

PGA SENIORS' CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Hale Irwin strolled to his second consecutive PGA Seniors' Championship with a 72-hole score of 14-under 274, the lowest at PGA National since Jack Nicklaus' 271 in 1991.

The 12-stroke victory over Nicklaus and Dale Douglass set a SENIOR PGA TOUR record for largest winning margin, breaking the record of 11 strokes shared by Arnold Palmer (1985 Senior Tournament Players Championship) and Orville Moody (1988 Vintage Chrysler Invitational). Irwin's seven-stroke margins after 36 and 54 holes were tops on the SENIOR TOUR in 1997, as well.

With the victory, Irwin became the first player since Sam Snead in 1972-73 to successfully defend a PGA Seniors' Championship and made him the fifth different player to win the title in consecutive years.

LAS VEGAS SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Hale Irwin's 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole defeated Isao Aoki by one stroke and gave him his fourth win of the year in just seven appearances, the fastest anyone in SENIOR PGA TOUR history has gotten to four victories.

Irwin's 1-over-par 72 in the final round came on a day when winds gusted up to 50 mph at the Tournament Players Club at The Canyons and made playing conditions difficult. Irwin held a two-stroke lead over Aoki after the 14th hole but missed a five-foot birdie putt at the 15th and a seven-foot par effort at the 17th to fall back into a tie.

Jim Colbert's bid to claim a third straight title in his adopted hometown ended with a double-bogey at the 10th hole on Sunday.

Tournament Tidbit: Bob Charles never has won this event, but he's finished in the top-five in eight of 11 appearances. With three runner-up performances and three third-place finishes, Charles' scoring average for 33 rounds in Las Vegas is 69.72.

BRUND'S MEMORIAL CLASSIC RECAP

Jay Sigel won for the third time in his SENIOR PGA TOUR career with a three-stroke victory over Gil Morgan at the 1997 Bruno's Memorial Classic and, in the process, claimed the second-largest check of his career, $172,500.

Despite winds that gusted to 25 mph, Sigel eagled the par-5 second hole at Greystone GC, then birdied the fifth and was on his way. His tournament driving distance averaged 299.8, and he finished 8-under-par on the par-5s.

Sigel's victory came after five top-10 finishes earlier in the year, including a nine-hole playoff loss to Bob Murphy at the Toshiba Senior Classic.

Tournament Tidbits: Greystone GC's third hole was among the most difficult on the SENIOR TOUR last year. It ranked as the seventh-toughest hole with an average score of 4.468, or .468 over par.

Sunday's final-round scoring average (75.105) was the second highest final-round scoring average during the 1997 season. The only one higher was the 77.117 at the Ameritech Senior Open.

THE HOME DEPOT INVITATIONAL RECAP

Jim Dent made the most of a second chance at the 1997 Home Depot Invitational. After missing a two-foot birdie putt on the final hole in regulation, Dent sank a three-footer for a birdie on the second playoff hole to defeat Lee Trevino for the $135,000 first prize. Larry Gilbert, who also was involved in the playoff, was eliminated on the first extra hole.

Trevino's final-round 67 was the best effort of the day. But after chipping to within three feet on the second playoff hole, Dent ended any chance Trevino may have had for a victory when he dropped in his putt.

Tournament Tidbits: Don January bettered his age by one stroke when he fired a six-under-par 66 in the second round of the 1997 Home Depot Invitational.

Close finishes continue to be the norm at this event. Since it became as an official event in 1983, 11 of the 14 tournaments have been decided by a single stroke, including playoffs in 1987 and 1997. 0

CADILLAC NFL GOLF CLASSIC RECAP

Bruce Crampton became the SENIOR PGA TOUR's third oldest winner when he holed an eight-foot birdie putt on the third playoff hole to defeat Hugh Baiocchi in the 1997 Cadillac NFL Golf Classic. The Australian's victory at Upper Montclair CC came 7 months and 21 days after his 61st birthday, making him the sixth player over 60 to win a senior tournament. Only Mike Fetchick (63 years to the day) and Jimmy Powell (61 years, 8 months, 5 days) won SENIOR TOUR events later than Crampton.

In claiming his 20th career title, Crampton also established the SENIOR TOUR's longest stretch between tournament wins: 5 years, 2 months, 10 days. Prior to this win in New Jersey, Crampton's last official victory came at the 1992 GTE West Classic.

Crampton's final-round 67 included a key eagle at the par-4 14th hole, where he holed a pitching wedge from 105 yards. "I was meant to win. When you have shots like that go in, it's your week," he said afterward.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers quarterback Trent Dilfer ended the reign of Tennessee Oilers placekicker AI Del Greco in the NFL Players Championship portion of the tournament. Del Greco had claimed the previous four titles.

Tournament Tidbit: Bob Murphy's victory in 1996 came almost 28 years after he claimed the 1968 Thunderbird Invitational at Upper Montclair. Murphy became the ninth man in TOUR history to claim both a PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR event at the same venue.

TOURNAMENT HISTORY

BELL ATLANTIC CLASSIC RECAP

Bob Eastwood won his first SENIOR PGA TOUR title when more than an inch of rain in the Delaware Valley washed out the last day of the 1997 Bell Atlantic Classic. It marked the second time in its 13-year history the event was shortened by rain.

Prior to this tournament, the last SENIOR TOUR event to be shortened by weather was the 1995 FHP Health Care Classic, when Bruce Devlin won a one-hole playoff over Dave Eichelberger after both were tied at 130 after 36 holes.

Eastwood's last TOUR win had come at the 1985 Byron Nelson Classic. His 5-under 135 total was one better than John Bland and Bob E. Smith. He dedicated the win to his ailing father, who recently had suffered a series of strokes.

Eastwood made two birdie putts in the second round that led to the win, a 25-footer on the 17th hole and a 27-foot putt on 18 that gave him a one-stroke advantage heading into Sunday.

Tournament Tidbit: Five of the six players with 20 or more all-time SENIOR TOUR victories have captured this tournament. The list includes Lee Trevino, Bob Charles, Don January, Chi Chi Rodriguez and Bruce Crampton. Only Miller Barber, a winner of 24 senior titles, hasn't won, but Barber has been among the top 10 six times.

AMERITECH SENIOR OPEN RECAP

Gil Morgan became the first wire-to-wire winner on the SENIOR PGA TOUR in 1997, when he posted a one-stroke victory over Hale Irwin at the Ameritech Senior Open. It was the second consecutive year there had been a back-to-back winner in the event, and both were named Morgan. Walter Morgan was the 1996 winner.

It was his third win in 17 SENIOR TOUR starts, but it didn't come easy. Morgan finished the final three holes bogey-bogey-double-bogey and saw his five-stroke lead shrink to just one. However, Irwin couldn't close the final gap.

Sunday's final round was played with winds gusting to 30 mph. "The wind direction made the last three holes difficult," Morgan said after his round. "I was just trying to survive."

Tournament Tidbits: Sunday's final round scores reflected the conditions. The scoring average was 77.117, making it the highest final round scoring average for the year.

There may be no more difficult finishing holes than the final three at Kemper Lakes GC. The 16th was the fourth-hardest hole (4.536) on the SENIOR TOUR last year, while the 18th ranked 13th (4.446) and the 17th ranked 37th (3.313).

BELLSOUTH SENIOR CLASSIC AT OPRYLAND RECAP

Gil Morgan became the second player to post back-to-back victories (Hale Irwin was the other) in 1997, when he was a two-stroke winner over John Bland at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland.

Birdies on four of the first 10 holes and a bogey by Bland at the 11th gave Morgan a three-stroke lead, but he was unable to pad the margin. Bland, who was playing in the final group with Morgan, cut the lead to two strokes with a birdie at 16 and threatened to make one with another at 17. But Morgan answered, draining a five-foot birdie putt to keep the lead at two strokes.

He finished with a par at 18 to claim the $195,000 first prize, the largest of his professional career.

Tournament Tidbits: Of the players who have played in all four previous tournaments, Dave Stockton is the only one who has finished in the top 10 each year. Stockton's best finish came in 1994, when he tied for second. In fact, of his 12 rounds, 11 have been below par. The lone exception was in last year's final round, when Stockton shot a 1-over-par 73.

AT& T CANADA SENIOR OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Jack Kiefer won this second SENIOR PGA TOUR title and his first since late 1994 (Ralphs Senior Classic) at the 1997 du Maurier Champions. The 57-year-old former club professional carded four rounds in the 60s at Royal St. George's G&CC and edged Jim Colbert by two strokes.

Kiefer started the final round one stroke behind Colbert but pulled even after making birdie on the opening hole. The duo made the turn tied at 14-under before Kiefer took a one-stroke lead with a birdie at the 11th hole. His lead grew to three strokes after Colbert bogeyed 12 and 13. Colbert closed to within two strokes with a birdie at No.15, but that's as close as he would get over the remaining three holes.

Tournament Tidbit: This year's event will be known as the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship, and will be held at the Glencoe G&CC just outside Calgary, Alberta. The Robert Trent Jones, Jr. layout opened in 1986 and served as host site for the Canadian PGA Championship in 1989.

NATIONWIDE CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Graham Marsh went head-to-head with Hale Irwin and came away with a one-stroke victory in the 1997 Nationwide Championship. For Marsh, the final hurdle was getting down in two putts from the back of the 18th green, about 50 feet away and over a ridge, for par. He lagged his first putt to within two feet and tapped in for his first official victory of the year. Earlier in the season, the player known as "Swampy" to his peers teamed with John Bland to capture the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

Marsh built a three-stroke lead over Irwin with two holes to play, but bogeyed 17. When Irwin stuck a wedge to within two feet at the par-5 18th for what would be a tap-in birdie, Marsh knew what he had to do to preserve the victory. "I find that my mind gets completely clear in situations like that," Marsh said afterward. "I knew all I had to do was get to the top of that ridge and let it go to the hole. I had my chances to make a mess of it. I'd say it was a nice twoputt."

Tournament Tidbit: Irwin's second-place check of $114,400 boosted him over the $1 million mark in only 11 starts, making him the quickest to seven figures in a single season. Last year, Irwin went over $1 million in 13 events.

U.S. SENIOR OPEN RECAP

Graham Marsh had come close in three previous U.S. Senior Opens. He had three top-10 finishes, including a 1994 runner-up to Simon Hobday. But 1997 proved to be his year.

Marsh's par at the final hole, coupled with a bogey by his playing partner John Bland, ended a see-saw battle between the two, who had teamed to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf earlier in the year.

Marsh's critical eight-foot birdie putt at No. 17 enabled him to remain tied with Bland coming to the final hole. But Bland's gamble for a birdie at 18 failed when his 3-iron from 193-yard landed in a greenside bunker. He settled for a bogey-5, while Marsh two-putted from 15 feet for par, winning his first major championship and the $232,500 first prize.

FORD SENIOR PLAYERS CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Larry Gilbert outdistanced two-time champion Dave Stockton, Isao Aoki, Bob Dickson and Jack Kiefer by three strokes in the final senior major of 1997, the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. Gilbert's first title in two and a half years made him the fourth former club professional to win a senior major in the '90s, joining Jim Albus, Larry Laoretti and Tom Wargo.

Gilbert either was in the lead or tied for first after each of the first three rounds. His birdie on the first hole Sunday gave him a lead he never relinquised. In all, Gilbert hit 17 greens in regulation in the final round.

Gilbert is the 13th different winner in the tournament's 15-year history. His $270,000 paycheck was the largest of his career.

Tournament tidbit: Jack Nicklaus established the all-time SENIOR TOUR scoring record for 72 holes at this event. In winning the 1990 tournament at Dearborn Country Club, Nicklaus fired a 27-under 261 total and cruised to a six-stroke victory.

BURNET SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Hale Irwin outgunned Lee Trevino at the 1997 Burnet Senior Classic for his fifth SENIOR PSA TOUR title of the season. The pair were tied seven times during the final round before Irwin benefited from a two-stroke swing at the 17th hole on Sunday.

Both players hit the par-3 with 5-irons, but Trevino three-putted from 35 feet while Irwin rolled in a 20-footer for birdie. Trevino still had a chance to send the tournament to a playoff when he fired a 3-wood second shot at the par-5 18th, finishing 10 feet from the cup. However, his eagle attempt came up inches short. After Trevino tapped in for birdie, Irwin sealed the victory with a four-foot birdie putt.

In recording a tournament-record score of 17-under 199, Irwin was the only player to play the par-4s at Bunker Hills GC in double digits under par. Of his 17 strokes under par, 10 came on the par-4s. Irwin also made 18 birdie putts and one eagle putt in 54 holes and went a stretch of 34 holes during the event without a bogey.

Tournament Tidbit: Dave Stockton's final-round 73 ended a streak of 14 consecutive sub-par scores at this event. No one else who had played in every Burnet Senior Classic had been under par in every round.

FRANKLIN QUEST CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Dave Stockton fought off late charges by Larry Ziegler and Kermit Zarley to win his Franklin Quest Championship last year. He also won in 1993. Stockton started the final round with a three-stroke margin, but Ziegler moved into a share of the lead at 12-under-par when play resumed after a second lengthy weather delay. Stockton birdied 15 to retake the lead, where he was joined briefly by Zarley, who birdied 16. Stockton answered with a birdie at 17 and a par at 18 to claim the win.

BANKBOSTON CLASSIC RECAP

Hale Irwin birdied the final two holes for a two-stroke victory over Jerry McGee and Bob Wynn at the BankBoston Classic, where he claimed the $150,000 first prize. It marked the third time Irwin had won back-to-back starts on the SENIOR PGA TOUR in 1997.

Irwin, who was tied for the lead with Bob Betley after 36 holes, found himself deadlocked with McGee and Wynn after 16 holes on Sunday. He dropped in a 50-foot birdie putt at 17, then blasted out of a bunker and followed with a 9-foot birdie putt at 18 to close out his round.

Tournament Tidbit: The BankBoston Classic is the oldest official 54hole tournament on the SENIOR TOUR and the third oldest official event overall. The tournament, originally introduced as the Marlboro Classic in 1981, is outdistanced only by the PGA Seniors' Championship (1937) and the U.S. Senior Open (1980).

NORTHVILLE LONG ISLAND CLASSIC RECAP

Dana Quigley's birdie on the third playoff hole of the Northville Long Island Classic gave the SENIOR PGA TOUR rookie his first victory in a showdown with Jay Sigel. Quigley, who made the field as a Monday qualifier, became the sixth qualifier to capture a title. His victory was tempered by the fact that, shortly after the award ceremony, he learned his father, Wallace, had died earlier in the day following a long battle with cancer.

Quigley and Sigel nearly were joined by a third player in the playoff. However, Jose Maria Canizares missed a four-foot par putt at the final hole to finish in a tie for third.

Tournament Tidbit: Butch Baird holds the honorary title of "Mr. 58" at the Meadow Brook Club. He shot a 58 in the opening round of the 1989 event. However, there is some fine print involved. The tournament had to be shortened to 16 holes since two holes were unplayable.

FIRST OF AMERICA CLASSIC RECAP

Despite a wayward tee shot on the final hole of the First of America Classic, Gil Morgan made a crucial par save and defeated Bob Duval by one stroke for his fourth SENIOR PGA TOUR crown in 1997. A seven-time winner on the PGA TOUR, Morgan's 9-under 207 total was the highest by a winner in Grand Rapids.

Morgan's miraculous par at 18 on Sunday proved to be the difference. After hitting a tree with his tee shot, Morgan got up and down from 40 yards in front of the 18th green for the victory. Duval failed to capitalize on Morgan's misfortune. After hitting a perfect drive, he pulled a 5-iron left of the green into a hillside and was forced to struggle for par.

Morgan and Duval had been tied with two holes to play, but Morgan rolled in a 16-foot birdie putt on the par-5 17th for the outright lead.

Tournament Tidbit: The First of America Classic still is without a repeat winner. None of the event's 12 champions has won a second time.

SAINT LUKE'S CLASSIC RECAP

In one of the wildest finishes of the year, Bruce Summerhays rallied from six strokes behind Hugh Baiocchi to win his first SENIOR PGA TOUR title in a playoff at the 1997 St. Luke's Classic.

Playing ahead of Baiocchi on Sunday, Summerhays jumped into contention with a 12-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole. He then hit a 9-iron to within 24 feet of the pin on the final hole and sank the putt to post an 11-under-par 199. Biaocchi faltered down the stretch but managed to force a playoff by making a six-foot par putt at 18.

Summerhays won the tournament with a par on the second extra hole. After Baiocchi hooked his tee shot into the trees and could do no better than bogey, Summerhays got up and down from the fringe for the victory.

"At the start of the day, I really didn't think I had much of a chance of catching the leaders," Summerhays said. "I knew they would have to come back to us. When I was on the 15th hole I started feeling something, that it might happen."

Summerhays' victory, the largest come-from-behind effort of the '97 season, ended a personal winless streak of 101 official SENIOR TOUR events.

BOONE VALLEY CLASSIC RECAP

Hale Irwin turned in another record performance with his two-stroke victory over Gil Morgan at the Boone Valley Classic near his home in St. Louis. After losing the inaugural in a playoff with Gibby Gilbert, Irwin was determined not to let the title get away again in 1997.

He played the three-day event without a bogey, and, in the process, set a SENIOR PGA TOUR record for season earnings with $1,706,989, breaking the mark of $1,627,890 by Jim Colbert in 1996.

Irwin began the final round in a tie with David Graham at 9-under-par 135, but won with a solid back nine. He birdied five of the final nine holes, including consecutive birdies on 15-17.

Tournament Tidbits: After playing at 6,670 yards and par-71 in its first year, the course was lengthened to 6,731 yards and par-72 last year.

Larry Nelson made his SENIOR TOUR debut and finished in a tie for 16th. He turned 50 on the Wednesday prior to the event.

By virtue of his second-place check for $114,400, Gil Morgan broke John Bland's record for most money won by a first-year player. Morgan increased his earnings to $1,441,162, surpassing Bland's record of $1,357,987. 1997 COMFORT CLASSIC

COMFORT CLASSIC RECAP

David Graham capped a back-nine 31 with a six-foot birdie putt on the last hole that eventually gave him his third SENIOR PGA TOUR victory of the 1997 season. Graham's one-stroke victory over Bud Allin and Larry Nelson at the Comfort Classic made him the sixth player to go over $1 million in earnings.

Graham moved into contention behind Allin with a clutch eagle at the 15th hole, then watched from the scoring tent as the Vietnam veteran played the last hole. "I decided to play the 18th as aggressively as I could," Graham said afterward. "I hit my best drive of the day there."

Allin held the lead from the sixth hole on Sunday until an untimely bogey at 18. After pushing his drive to the right, Allin had an awkward lie in the deep rough and could not advance the ball to the green. He pitched past the flag in the fringe but could not hole a chip for par. Nelson, making his second start as a senior, had a chance to send the tournament to a playoff, but his 30-foot birdie putt at the 18th lipped out. 1997 EMERALD COAST CLASSIC

EMERALD COAST CLASSIC RECAP

Isao Aoki dropped in an 18-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Gil Morgan and win the 1997 Emerald Coast Classic. It was the third playoff in as many years at the tournament.

Aoki earned a spot in the playoff when he sank a four-foot birdie putt on the final hole to tie Morgan, who also birdied the final hole.

Tournament Tidbits: Aoki set a SENIOR PGA TOUR record with his 10-under-par 60 in the second round, breaking the mark of 61 shared by five others. Aoki had 10 birdies during his round, but was unable to convert at the final hole when his birdie attempt from 25 feet came up a foot short. He also was a foot short from 30 feet on the 17th.

The three-day scoring average of 69.442 set a SENIOR TOUR mark for lowest average, eclipsing the record of 69.517 at the 1993 Ralphs Senior Classic. The second-round scoring average was 68.885, another record. The previous low for a second round was 69.312 at the 1994 Ralphs Senior Classic.

VANTAGE CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Hale Irwin became the first player on any TOUR to earn $2 million in a season when he claimed the $225,000 top prize at the Vantage Championship.

But it took some Irwin magic to make it happen on the final day. Knowing that Dave Eichelberger, who started the round eight strokes back, had claimed a share of the lead with four closing birdies on his way to a 62, Irwin nailed a 3-wood from 245-yards to within 30-feet, then two-putted for a birdie and the win.

The victory, his eighth of the year, pushed his season earnings to $2,003,864.

Tournament Tidbits: Irwin played the event without a bogey, which marked the second time he had done so in 1997. He also went bogey-free in his victory at the Boone Valley Classic.

THE TRANSAMERICA RECAP

Dave Eichelberger recovered from three bogeys in the first four holes on Sunday to post a four-stroke victory over four other players at the 1997 Transamerica. Eichelberger's third victory of his SENIOR PGA TOUR career made him the 20th different winner in 1997.

After four holes, the 54-year-old Texan was tied for third, three strokes behind DeWitt Weaver. He made a birdie at the fifth hole, but still trailed Weaver by three with eight holes to go.

Eichelberger began his drive to the winner's circle with a birdie at the par-5 11th hole while Weaver dropped the first of four strokes in his final seven holes. Eichelberger took the lead for good with a clutch par save from in front of the 15th green. He cemented the victory with a 12-foot birdie on the par-3 17th hole and added another at 18.

"I got off to a horrible start and didn't know what was going on for the first three or four holes. Until my birdie at 17, this tournament was still up in the air," Eichelberger said. "The key to my round was the birdie at 11. DeWitt had the lead and took the conservative approach with an iron off the tee. I was able to apply some pressure to him with that birdie there."

EMC<sup>2</sup> KAANAPALI CLASSIC RECAP

Hale Irwin's 1-under-par 70 in 30 mph gusting winds on Sunday at the 1997 Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic gave him his ninth SENIOR PGA TOUR title of the year and tied Peter Thomson's record, set in 1985, for most victories in one season.

The three-stroke win over Bruce Summerhays and Mike Hill also was Irwin's second title of 1997 in Hawaii. At the start of the year, Irwin won the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai on the Big Island.

"It was kinda ugly. No one really played well. I don't think the wind allowed us to play well," Irwin said after the round.

He started the day one stroke behind Summerhays, and after five holes they were tied at 12 under. The tournament swung in Irwin's favor at the sixth hole when Summerhays hit his drive out of bounds and three-putted for a triplebogey 7. Irwin drained a seven-foot birdie putt, and no one would get within three strokes the rest of the way. 1997 RALEY'S GOLD RUSH CLASSIC

RALEY'S GOLD RUSH CLASSIC NOTES

Bob Eastwood outdueled Rick Acton to claim his second win of the season by two strokes at the 1997 Raley's Gold Rush Classic. Acton held a one-stroke lead with four holes to play, but a birdie on 16 pulled Eastwood into a tie for the lead. Acton missed a five-foot par putt at 16, giving Eastwood a lead he would never relinquish.

Eastwood, who was playing in front of a large gallery of friends and family from the area, followed with another birdie on 17 and finished with a par on 18 to claim the $135,000 first prize.

Tournament Tidbits: Dana Quigley tied a SENIOR TOUR record at the event when he put together a string that included three straight birdies, an eagle and a birdie.

Seven players have played in all 11 Raley's Gold Rush Classics: Bob Charles, Gay Brewer, Dale Douglass, Butch Baird, Charles Coody, Bruce Crampton and Chi Chi Rodriguez.

PACIFIC BELL SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Gil Morgan continued his Los Angeles success at the 1997 Ralphs Senior Classic. A two-time winner in the city while on the PGA TOUR, Morgan made it two consecutive .victories when he nipped George Archer for last year's title.

Morgan, who became the youngest winner in SENIOR TOUR history with his victory in 1996, closed with a 65 on Sunday for a one-stroke win over Archer, who had his best finish of the year.

Tournament Tidbits: Morgan's one-stroke victory followed a tradition at the event. Since its inception in 1990, there have been two playoffs, and five of the other six events have been won by one stroke. The lone exception was in 1992, when Raymond Floyd won by three strokes.

As the last full-field event in 1997, Jimmy Powell and Hubert Green used strong finishes to earn berths in the final 31, which qualified them for the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship.

ENERGIZER SENIOR TOUR CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Gil Morgan foiled Hale Irwin's bid for a record-setting 10th official title by earning his sixth victory at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship. In the process, Morgan claimed the largest paycheck in SENIOR TOUR history, $328,000, and became the second senior to reach $2 million in single-season earnings.

Morgan started the final day with a two-stroke lead over Irwin and expanded it to five strokes after 14 holes. Despite a bogey at 18, Morgan still defeated Irwin by two strokes and finished with a record 16-under-par 272.

"I thought I had a pretty good chance of maintaining my lead coming down the backstretch, but I knew I couldn't make many mistakes," Morgan said afterward.

Irwin had no apologies. "I had a great year. Everything was there except the scores and the results. I just got outplayed," he said.

Morgan's victory came the week after he won the Ralphs Senior Classic, marking the second time he won back-to-back tournaments in 1997.

Charles Coody won the MasterCard Champions Championship, defeating Dick Hendrickson by five strokes in the 60-and-over competition.

Tournament Tidbit: Raymond Floyd, the only player to win this event at two different venues, holds a sizeable lead in the tournament's all-time winnings. In six starts, Floyd has made $727,500. Second on the Energizer money list is Jim Colbert with $582,250.

PGA TOUR LICENSING

The PGA TOUR's domestic licensing program continues to expand on the success and firm foundation of brand building and promotion of the PGA TOUR. These initiatives create greater interest and awareness in the PGA TOUR, its players and tournaments.

With a diverse group of more than 20 licensees, PGA TOUR Licensing continually strives to establish the TOUR brand as a leader in the golf industry. PGA TOUR Apparel, manufactured by Russell Corporation, produces an extensive line of sportswear that is found in prestigious department stores, specialty stores and pro shops across the country.

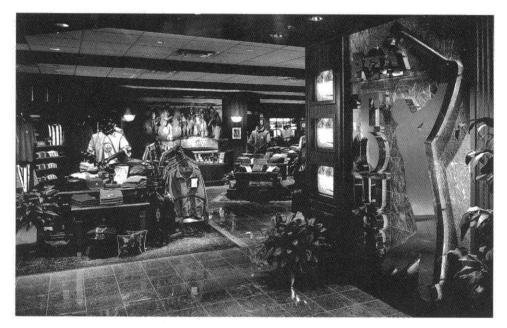

Also among the core group of licensees is Electronic Arts. Since 1990, Electronic Arts has been the exclusive licensee with the PGA TOUR for interactive media. They consistently are on the leading edge of technology in their industry, and their computer games have had great sell-through success at the retail level.

Russell Corporation and Electronic Arts are complemented by Sun Mountain, Team Effort, Mark-It, Fort, Wigwam, Fownes, Fairway Replicas, Authentic Scoreboards, American Neckwear, Lantis, Pro Tour Memorabilia and other key licensees. As licensees now are delivering product, PGA TOUR Licensing is focusing its attention on the development of marketing and promotional programs to insure success at all levels.

PGA TOUR Shops continue to be extremely successful and expand their locations, which will have reached 30-plus units by early this year. Operated by The Paradies Shops, PGA TOUR Shops will be adding three to five new locations each year in the coming years.

W.C. Bradley is the new retail development partner for World Golf Village, and it is expected that this concept may have a future outside of World Golf Village, as well.

PGA TOUR International Licensing has established more than 15 licensees internationally and continues to pursue quality companies with the resources to enhance the PGA TOUR brand image around the world.

charity, and millions of dollars have been realized in vehicle sales.

The Cadillac Series began with 14 ESPN-televised events in 1990 and has grown to 22 tournaments in 1998. In 1997, Cadillac began the first year of its new four-year agreement with the SENIOR PGA TOUR. The renewal extended the umbrella sponsorship through 2000, increasing the events to 24 in the final year.

Hale Irwin won the 1997 Cadillac Series, while Team Cadillac member Jay Sigel and Isao Aoki finished in second and third place, respectively. For winning the Cadillac Series with a record 1,359,060 points in 12 events, Irwin received a 1998 Seville STS and 1998 Catera. Sigel, with 864,839 points, and Aoki, with 769,096 points, each won a 1998 Cadillac. Irwin and Sigel also won a Cadillac for finishing second and third in 1996.

The golfer accumulating the most points at 1998 Cadillac Series events will receive a 1999 Cadillac Seville STS and a 1999 Catera. The second-place winner will receive a 1999 DeVille Concours and the thirdplace finisher will win a 1999 Eldorado Touring Coupe. As part of its agreement with the SENIOR TOUR, Cadillac also contributes to each tournament's purse.

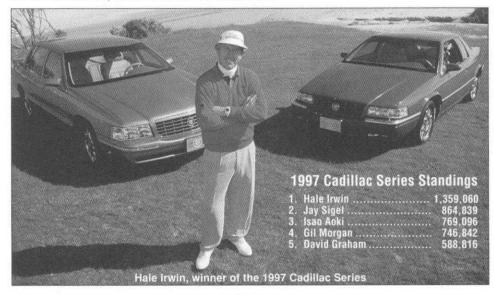

Other past winners of the Cadillac Series have been Charles Coody (1990), Jim Colbert (1991, 1995, 1996), Lee Trevino (1992, 1993) and Raymond Floyd (1994). Cadillac's title sponsorship on the SENIOR TOUR, the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic at Upper Montclair

If a professional makes an ace at a predetermined hole during the final round, he is awarded a Cadillac. The hole-in-one vehicle is displayed on the golf course throughout tournament weekend.

Cadillac is represented by several professional golfers on the SENIOR PGA TOUR, including Arnold Palmer, Trevino, Colbert, Bob Murphy, Dave Stockton and Sigel. Team Cadillac also includes PGA TOUR professional Couples, LPGA Tour member Michelle McGann and Nuveen Tour tennis star Jimmy Connors. ## MASTERCARD CHAMPIONS SCHEDULE FOR 1998

Twenty-six full-field SENIOR PGA TOUR events will hold MasterCard Champions competitions in 1998. All players 60 and older in the fields of those events are eligible to compete in these "tournaments within the tournament."

The MasterCard Champions competition concludes one round prior to the end of the overall tournament (i.e. after 36 holes in a typical 54-hole SENIOR TOUR event). And while MasterCard Champions earnings are unofficial, the players collect prize based on their finish in the tournament itself.

A player can win both the MasterCard Champions competition and the overall tournament in the same week. Going into the 1998 season, that has happened four times in the past.

In 1995, Jimmy Powell became the first player in SENIOR TOUR history to accomplish the feat when he won both titles at the First of America Classic. Powell repeated that performance at the Brickyard Crossing Championship in 1996, when he was joined by Dale Douglass (Bell Atlantic Classic) and Bob Charles (Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic) as 60-and-over winners of the tournament and MasterCard Champions titles at the same event.

Bruce Crampton joined their exclusive fraternity at the 1997 Cadillac NFL Golf Classic.

Charles Coody captured the third MasterCard Champions Championship and its accompanying $85,000 paycheck at last year's Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship. Gay Brewer won the first MasterCard Champions Championship in 1995; Bob Charles was the 1996 winner.

Powell won six MasterCard Champions events in 1997 and earned $284,004 to lead all 60-and-over participants in the season series. Charles, who won eight times, finished second with $252,690. Charles also finished 21st on the SENIOR TOUR money list with $623,467.

The fourth MasterCard Champions Championship will be held Nov. 5-7 in conjunction with the 1998 Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship at The Dunes Golf & Beach Club in Myrtle Beach, SC.

GILLETTE TOUR CHALLENGE

The Gillette Tour Challenge, a season-long series of competitions on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and LPGA, made its debut in 1997. The series climaxed in the inaugural Gillette Tour Challenge Championship, which was won by the team of Jim Colbert, Nick Price and Kelly Robbins on Oct. 7 at Bermuda's Mid Ocean Club.

Gillette Tour Challenges were scheduled at 18 PGA TOUR events and 17 SENIOR PGA TOUR tournaments in 1997. Similar totals are set for this year.

The six-hole, alternate-shot competitions, played primarily on the Tuesdays of tournament weeks, consist of eight players (10 on the SENIOR TOUR) randomly selected as two-member teams. A total of $20,000 is awarded at each event, with the earnings added to each competitor's season-long Gillette Tour Challenge money list total.

Eight players from each tour advanced to the 1997 Gillette Tour Challenge Championship, which offered a purse of $1.8 million. Eight three-person teams consisting of one member of each tour played at the Mid Ocean Club in a one-day, best-ball, 18-hole tournament.

With a team score of 11-under-par 59, each member of the Colbert-Price-Robbins team collected $150,000. The teams of Karrie Webb/Walter Morgan/Payne Stewart and Barb Mucha/Bob Murphy/Lee Janzen tied for second at 9-under-par 61.

In conjunction with the 1997 Gillette Tour Challenge Championship, Gillette donated $500,000 to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

TENET PLAYER FITNESS CENTERS

Through recent acquisitions, Tenet Healthcare Corporation has become a corporate partner with the PGA TOUR. Redefining Healthcare with the TOUR, the Tenet Player Fitness Centers (TPFC) have continued to be one of the TOUR's most popular innovations: the TPFC is a mobile gymnasium that includes state-of-the-art exercise equipment, television, stereo, three treatment tables and various physical therapy modalities.

Staffed by qualified physical therapists, the TPFCs travel to over 95 percent of both the PGA TOUR's and SENIOR TOUR's events across the country, providing both rehabilitative and preventive care for TOUR members.

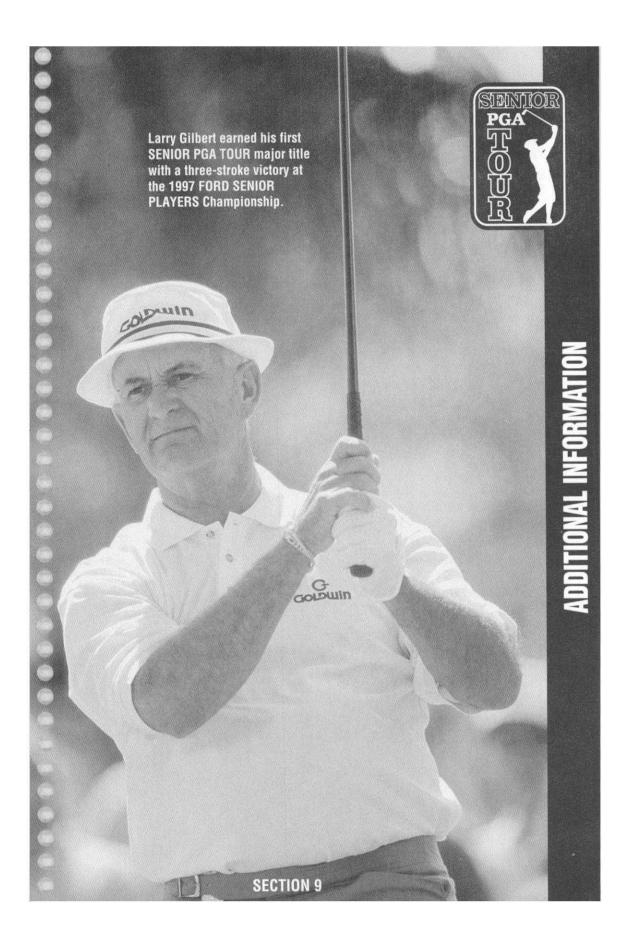

During their 13 years on TOUR, the Player Fitness Centers have attracted the interest of nearly all the players on a regular basis. Housed in a 45-food-long trailer (expandable to 24 feet wide when parked), the Tenet Player Fitness Centers enable TOUR professionals to maintain peak levels of performance, at absolutely no cost to the individual players.

According to Dr. Frank Jobe, Medical Director of the PGA TOUR and team physician of the Los Angeles Dodgers, "The Tenet Player Fitness Centers provide each player with a personal physical conditioning program based on that individual's current level of conditioning." Dr. Jobe works with Dr. Lewis Yocum, Assistant Medical Director of the PGA TOUR and orthopedic consultant for the Anaheim Angels.

The TPFC has made its impact, with many players finding the center and available technicians an invaluable aid to their success on TOUR. In fact, players have commented that they would have been unable to compete in some tournaments without the facility.

Dr. Jobe and Dr. Yocum have done much research and testing on professional golfers' swings and, based on the results, developed scientific exercise programs that are available through book and videotapes. These programs have helped countless golfers stretch their potentials while minimizing the risk of injury.

TOURNAMENT PLAYERS CLUBS

The PGA TOUR's Tournament Players Club Network has maintained a reputation for operating high-quality clubs since its inception nearly 20 years ago.

The TPC Network continues to grow, with nearly 30 facilities currently open or under construction, including several overseas.

By the end of 1997, seven domestic Tournament Players Clubs either were in the planning or construction stage.

TPCs encompass all forms of golf-related operations — resort facilities, corporate/private membership clubs and daily fee courses — and, as such, PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties, Inc. is able to match the type of facility with the demands of each market in which a club operates.

The Network represents the highest standard in the golf course industry, commensurate with the members of the organization it represents, the players of the PGA TOUR. Each Tournament Players Club embodies the trademark of excellence first established with the flagship TPC at Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, which opened its world-famous Stadium Course in the fall of 1980.

This commitment to overall excellence serves as the foundation for the Network's overall success.

The TPC Network was born through former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman's desire to provide TOUR players with quality golf courses that also would offer spectators enhanced viewing areas.

Beman also reasoned that development of quality facilities would alleviate the TOUR's dependency on the television dollar, while providing rent-free venues for tournaments. The savings in rent, in turn, would generate both increased purses and greater charitable contributions by the tournaments held at TPCs.

The TPC at Sawgrass was the first Tournament Players Club to hold a PGA TOUR event, becoming the permanent home of THE PLAYERS Championship in 1982. Today, a growing number of PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR events are held at TPC facilities each year. In 1997, 16 tournaments were conducted on TPC courses.

Many of the top golf course architects are connected with TPC projects, including Pete Dye, Tom Fazio, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Tom Weiskopf, Greg Norman and Bob Von Hagge.

And they continue to do so. Scheduled to open in 1998 are TPC courses designed by Player (TPC at Jasna Polana in Princeton, NJ), Fazio (TPC of Myrtle Beach) and Dye (TPC of Virginia Beach). Palmer will be designing his second Tournament Players Club course, the TPC of The Twin Cities.

Moreover, in recognizing the importance of player input for tournament courses, TOUR members — including Ben Crenshaw, Raymond Floyd, Fuzzy Zoeller, Chi Chi Rodriguez and Lanny Wadkins — have served as design consultants.

Most recently, Hale Irwin was introduced as design consultant for the TPC at Wakefield Plantation in Raleigh, NC, Curtis Strange at the TPC of Virginia Beach, D.A. Weibring at the TPC at Deere Run in Moline, IL, Tom Lehman at the TPC of the Twin Cities and Mark O'Meara at the TPC of Valencia in California.

HUALALAI: FIRST PGA TOUR RESORT

A PGA TOUR RESORT

A designated PGA TOUR Resort provides the highest quality in a total resort facility: five-star accommodations, a championship golf course capable of holding a TOUR event and other outstanding amenities, such as tennis facilities, health spa and beach.

A PGA TOUR Resort will receive special promotion by the TOUR and be utilized as a destination for certain TOUR business functions.

The first facility to be designated a PGA TOUR Resort, Hualalai on the Big Island of Hawaii embodies the absolute quality and character that has become synonymous with the TOUR.

Hualalai is as unique as it is exclusive, an oceanside resort that provides the total vacation experience. Featuring a five-star Four Seasons hotel, its amenities include an outstanding Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course carved from the dramatic lava landscape, a tennis facility with eight championship courts, a health and wellness center and white-sand beach. Complementing the quality of facilities is the quality of service, preserving the warm ambiance of "Old Hawaii."

The exclusivity of Hualalai is consistent with the very nature of the MasterCard Championship. This SENIOR PGA TOUR tournament, held for the first time at Hualalai in January 1997, is an elite gathering of SENIOR TOUR champions from the previous season.

Hualalai features a beautiful Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course. 9-8

WORLD GOLF VILLAGE

World Golf Village is one of the most ambitious projects ever undertaken in golf. Scheduled to open in May 1998 along Interstate 95 in Northeast Florida, it will be a major international focal point for the game, as well as a premier tourism, business and golf destination.

Ruffin Beckwith Executive Director

Its centerpiece is the 75,000-square-foot World Golf Hall of Fame, museum and IMAX Theater. Circling the Village Lake will be the Walk of Champions, honoring each member of the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Overall, World Golf Village promises to be a celebration of a game rich in history and tradition. a theme that will be carried beyond the actual Hall of Fame building and into other components of the Village.

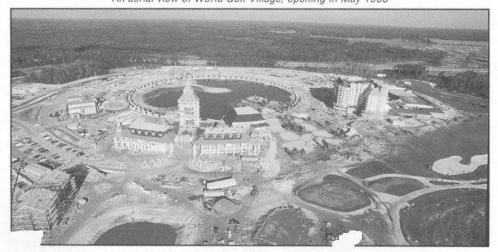

The complex also includes one of the three courses for the Saint Johns Development, of which World Golf Village is a part. The course, developed by Scratch Golf, is named "The Slammer and The Squire" after Hall of Fame design consultants Sam Snead and Gene Sarazen, who worked with architect Robert Weed. A golf academy will be adjacent to the course.

Additional amenities at World Golf Village include the 10-story, 300-room World Golf Resort Hotel and Conference Center, developed by John Q. Hammons, Inc.; The Residences corporate villas by EcoGroup; the Vistana World Golf Village Resort, a complex of interval vacation villas; The Shops at World Golf Village, an upscale shopping area; plus the new headquarters for PGA TOUR Productions and a Mayo Clinic facility.

World Golf Village will be as much an educational experience as it is an entertainment attraction, particularly after the World Golf Library and Resource Center opens in several years. Housed in an independent 11,000-square-foot building, it will become the preeminent source for golf literature, research and information.

WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

The support the World Golf Hall of Fame has received from the world's major golf organizations distinguishes it as a unique partnership that reflects the universality of the game and promise for further growth.

The Hall of Fame and accompanying exhibits will honor the great players and contributors to the game, and will entertain and inform the public about the rich history and tradition of golf internationally.

Artifacts from the former World Golf Hall of Fame in Pinehurst, NC are being incorporated into the museum exhibits. But the overall experience is intended to interest golfers and non-golfers alike by introducing modern technology and interactive displays that will be continually enhanced.

The building also features an IMAX Theater, with a screen 80 feet high and 60 feet wide, for which a special film about golf is being developed.

The 71 players and contributors inducted into the former Hall of Fame in Pinehurst and/or the LPGA Hall of Fame have been "grandfathered" into the new facility. Annual induction ceremonies for newly elected Hall of Fame members will commence upon the facility's opening, promising to bring together dignitaries from throughout the golf world.

The first two elections for the newly created PGA TOUR and International Ballots were conducted in 1996 and 1997. Johnny Miller was the only player elected in 1996, receiving the necessary 75 percent of votes on the PGA TOUR Ballot. Seve Ballesteros of Spain and Nick Faldo of England became the first players elected through the International Ballot in 1997, their first year of eligibility.

CHARITABLE MISSION OF THE WORLD GOLF FOUNDATION

World Golf Foundation, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that has received the support of all major golf organizations throughout the world. The responsibilities of the World Golf Foundation include managing the World Golf Hall of Fame and IMAX Theater, World Golf Library and various charitable initiatives.

As the Founding Partner of World Golf Village, Shell Oil Company will provide financial support and play a lead role in the World Golf Foundation.

The World Golf Foundation's charitable mission, on behalf of the supporting golf organizations, is to introduce golf to those who otherwise may not have an opportunity to experience the game, and through the golf experience promote scholastic achievement, community service and the values of honesty, integrity and sportsmanship.

To this end, The First Tee was introduced in November 1997 as an initiative to create new facilities and affordable access to golf. This initiative has the support and participation of leading golf organizations and foundations and a wide range of public sector constituencies.

"We want to create affordable entry points to golf for everyone who is interested in playing the game," said former President George Bush, Honorary Chairman of The First Tee.

The vision is to create hundreds of facilities and programs throughout the United States over the next 10 years, impacting those who have not had exposure to the game, particularly youths.

"Those of us who believe in the values of golf want to see the opportunity to play the game extended to all segments of our population," said Tim Finchem, PGA TOUR Commissioner and Chairman of the World Golf Foundation Board of Directors. "This program, The First Tee, can have a tremendous impact on golf — but, more importantly, it can have a real impact on the lives of young people who are attracted to the game."

A menu of model programs can be implemented in communities based on land availability, existing golf facilities, area needs and the level of support of municipalities and other youth programs.

The First Tee will provide golf management expertise, consulting services and land planning to communities and organizations interested in having The First Tee in their areas. While proceeds from the World Golf Hall of Fame will benefit The First Tee, public-private partnerships in each community will be the primary funding source for each facility.

"With the support of the public and private sectors, and with the expertise of so many golf organizations available to this program, golf will find its way into new communities and new segments of the population," Finchem said.

THE FIRST TEE

The First Tee is a World Golf Foundation initiative to create new facilities and affordable access to golf with a special emphasis on youngsters who otherwise may not have an opportunity to experience the game. The initial two-year goal of The First Tee is to identify sites for 100 golf facilities in various stages of planning, development and operation. Each of these facilities will have the capability of introducing golf to as many as 1,000 children and adults annually.

The true value of the program is based on golf's unique ability to instill and nurture essential values, such as honesty, integrity, sportsmanship and a solid work ethic in young people who are introduced to the game.

This initiative has the support and participation of a variety of key sectors:

- The leading U.S. golf organizations, including the PGA TOUR, United States Golf Association, PGA of America, Ladies Professional Golf Association and Augusta National Golf Club, which are represented on the First Tee Oversight Committee.
- A wide range of public sector constituencies, including the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, National Association of Parks and Recreation, National League of Cities, U.S. Conference of Mayors and the National Association of County Officials.
- A variety of groups, including the Tiger Woods Foundation and the National Minority Golf Foundation, dedicated to extending the reach of golf to new segments of the population.

The initial focus of The First Tee will be on developing financial support and acquiring locations for these golf facilities. Common types of facilities will be a three-hole course, a pitch-and-putt course, a nine-hole executive length course and a full-scale 18-hole course. All of these facilities will feature extensive teaching and practice areas.

The development effort will depend on support from prominent individuals and organizations who appreciate the values instilled by golf and the game's ability to positively influence young people's lives.

The primary contribution of the initiative will be the provision of expertise and consulting advice, land planning services and other services to reduce the total cost of each project.

Funds raised will be leveraged through public-private partnerships to significantly increase the impact of the initial contributions. Proceeds from the World Golf Hall of Fame will be donated to The First Tee.

The First Tee Board of Trustees will oversee the fundraising, budget and program functions of The First Tee.

Former President George Bush is Honorary Chairman of the initiative.

(On the Internet at http://www.pgatour.com)

The PGA TOUR entered cyberspace on January 8, 1997, and the response has exceeded all expectations — making pgatour.com one of the most popular sports sites on the World Wide Web.

Within a few months of operation, pgatour.com was delivering an average of 1.2-million hits — or 120,000 page views — each day. Original projections had centered around 1-million hits a week.

Those numbers will only grow this year as pgatour.com enhances exisiting features and expands with a host of new opportunities to build the PGA TOUR brand. The number of hits is expected to increase by 30 to 50 percent in 1998.

The heart of pgatour.com remains the comprehensive information it provides about players and tournaments on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR.

Real-time scoring has proven one of the more popular features — offering fans the opportunity to track their favorite player's progress on a hole-by-hole basis. Audio links to PGA TOUR Radio Network broadcasts further place visitors to pgatour.com in the heart of the action.

With the support of Foundation Sponsors Michelob, IBM, Titleist and Buick, pgatour.com will take on a new look this year.

The statistical database will be expanded to allow comparisons to previous years. Players and fans will be able to participate in chat sessions and listen to press conferences live. E-commerce will allow customers to buy PGA TOUR merchandise and tournament tickets on-line, then have them delivered right to their homes.

Children and adults alike wil continue to enjoy the games produced by TOUR licensee EA Sports. A pro-am challenge also will make its debut in 1998.

The World Wide Web is only going to grow, and the PGA TOUR plans to take advantage of the many facets of the medium to broaden its fan base around the world. PGA TOUR RADIO NETWORK

Since March 1997, the PGA TOUR RADIO NET-WORK has been providing Saturday and Sunday stroke-by-stroke tournament coverage. The PGA TOUR RADIO NETWORK also produces a national weekly one-hour magazine show that spotlights players, personalities and stories on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and MIKE TOUR.

SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR. Tournament leaderboard updates are included Thursday through Sunday for each TOUR event throughout the season. A PGA TOUR RADIO NETWORK schedule can be found in local listings.
