SENIOR PGA TOUR

Official Media Guide of the SENIOR PGA TOUR

A MESSAGE TO THE MEDIA

The 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR season promises to be one of the most exciting in history.

The competition has become more heated each year on the SENIOR TOUR, and we expect the 20th season of play to be the most competitive yet.

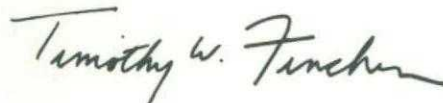

A solid schedule of events will offer nearly $50 million in prize money for our members, while television coverage will be stronger than ever.

We welcome several new title sponsors to the SENIOR TOUR in 1999, and we also welcome the Dallas area back to the schedule with the new Bank One Classic that will be held in September.

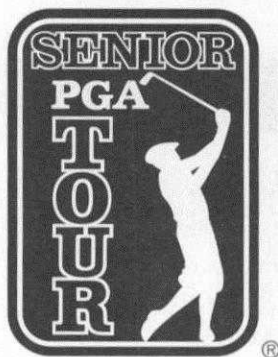

A strong cast of stars featuring Hale Irwin, Gil Morgan, Larry Nelson, Jim Colbert, Lee Trevino and Jay Sigel will be joined late in the year by the next wave of SENIOR TOUR standouts, led by Tom Watson. Lanny Wadkins and Tom Kite both turn 50 after the conclusion of the 1999 season, and we are excited about their arrivals, as well.

We recognize that much of the success enjoyed by the SENIOR TOUR is due to the outstanding coverage that we receive from the media throughout the year. We hope this publication will assist you in that coverage this season.

Our Media Officials are available to assist you at each of our events; however, please do not hesitate to contact any member of our headquarters staff for further assistance.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SENIOR PGA TOUR

The SENIOR PGA TOUR, called by many the most successful professional sports venture of the 1980s, sprang from discussions in late 1978 and 1979 in which leading senior players expressed interest in playing several "senior" events, provided sponsors could be found and if the PGA TOUR would administer the tournaments. Prior to that time, only certain special events for tournament professionals over the age of 50 were held, most notably the Legends of Golf and the PGA Seniors' Championship.

The SENIOR TOUR celebrates its 20th anniversary in 1999 and listed below are some significant highlights that made it one of the most exciting, lucrative and fastest-growing sports enterprises in the world.

January 16 — A landmark meeting laid the formal groundwork for the SENIOR PGA TOUR. Attending that meeting were Sam Snead, Bob Goalby, Don January and the late Julius Boros, Gardner Dickinson and Dan Sikes. Sikes was named chairman of what became known as the Senior Advisory Council, and Snead was named honorary chairman. January 22 — The new SENIOR PGA TOUR is formally approved by the Tournament Policy Board of the PGA TOUR. The schedule calls for two sanctioned events for a total of $250,000 in prize money. June 22 — Don January wins the first official SENIOR TOUR event, the Atlantic City International in Atlantic City, NJ, defeating Mike Souchak by two strokes. November 16 — Charles Sifford claims the second SENIOR TOUR event, the Suntree Classic in Melbourne, FL, beating Don January by four strokes. December 7 — Arnold Palmer becomes the first of only four players to win in his first SENIOR TOUR start, defeating Paul Harney in a playoff for the PGA Seniors' Championship.

1981

June 7 — Don January becomes the first player to win back-to-back SENIOR TOUR events when he triumphs at the Michelob-Egypt Temple Senior Classic in Tampa and then the Eureka Federal Savings Classic at Harding Park GC in San Francisco. June 14 — Miller Barber wins the first of his 24 SENIOR TOUR career titles at the Peter Jackson Champions in Vancouver, British Columbia, besting Gene Littler in a playoff. Barber goes on to triumph twice more and is the circuit's leading money-winner with $83,136. July 12 — Arnold Palmer wins an 18-hole playoff over Billy Casper and Bob Stone at Oakland Hills CC for the U.S. Senior Open title. Palmer becomes the first player to win both a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown in his career.

1982

The SENIOR TOUR doubles in size going from five to 11 tournaments and prize money increases from $750,000 to $1.3 million. April 4 — Don January becomes the first player to successfully defend a SENIOR TOUR title when he defeats Dow Finsterwald by three strokes for the Michelob Senior Classic title near Tampa, FL. April 25 — Don January and Sam Snead cruise to a 12-stroke win at the Legends of Golf at Onion Creek CC in Austin, TX, the largest margin of victory in the history of the event. The victory is the last of Snead's illustrious career. June 27 — Al Balding records the first double-eagle in SENIOR TOUR history in the second round of the Peter Jackson Champions in Winnipeg, Manitoba. July 11 — Miller Barber wins the first of his three U.S. Senior Open titles at Portland GC in Oregon. He goes on to win the Suntree Classic late in the year and is the circuit's leading money-winner for the second straight season with $106,890.

1983

Prize money offered for players on the 50-and-over circuit exceeds $3 million and 18 tournaments are on the schedule. Don January wins six tournaments and supplants fellow Texan Miller Barber as the leading money-winner with $237,571. May 22 — The late Rod Funseth establishes the All-Time SENIOR TOUR record for largest victory margin in a 54-hole event, breezing to a nine-shot triumph at the Hall of Fame Tournament at Pinehurst, NC. July 25 — Billy Casper defeats Funseth in a playoff for the U.S. Senior Open title at Hazeltine National in Minnesota. At the time, Casper joins Arnold Palmer as the only other player to win a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open title. October 15 — Gene Littler birdies his first seven holes and goes out in eight-under 28 in the third round of the Suntree Classic in

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SENIOR PGA TOUR

Melbourne, FL. Littler's nine-hole score stands as an all-time SENIOR TOUR record for 15 years, until it is broken by Jay Sigel's 27 during the 1998 Bell Atlantic Classic.

1984

Growth continues at a rapid rate when a slate of 24 events and total prize money well over $5 million is announced. Don January and Miller Barber each win four tournaments and continue to be the leading players on the SENIOR TOUR. January wins his fourth Byron Nelson Trophy for best scoring average and also becomes the first player to go over $300,000 in single-season earnings ($328,597) en route to his second consecutive money title. January 22 — Arnold Palmer wins his second PGA Seniors' Championship in Palm Beach Gardens, FL by two strokes over Don January. Palmer's eight-stroke lead after 36 holes establishes the all-time record for largest 36-hole lead. August 12 — Don January blisters Royal Ottawa GC, winning the du Maurier Champions in Canada with the lowest 54-hole score in the history of the circuit at the time. January's record 19-under 193 total stands for five years.

1985

With 27 events worth more than $6 million in total purses, the SENIOR TOUR is large enough to merit its establishment as a division of the PGA TOUR and a separate logo is developed. The SENIOR TOUR also becomes a distinct and separate operating and financial entity, with net revenue going to fund a newly created Senior Player Retirement Plan. A cable television package with ESPN allows seven events to enjoy national cable exposure. With the production costs partially funded by Mazda Motors of America, Mazda helps create the SENIOR TOUR's first-ever, season-long bonus pool ($300,000) and sponsors a $1 million season-ending team event in conjunction with the LPGA. March 17 — Australian Peter Thomson, a five-time British Open winner, wins the first of a record nine tournaments at The Vintage Invitational. June 23 — Arnold Palmer cruises to an easy 11-stroke win at the Senior Tournament Players Championship at Canterbury GC near Cleveland. The margin is a record for 72 holes until 1997. June 30 — Miller Barber wins the last of his U.S. Senior Open titles at Edgewood Tahoe, NV. He becomes the first senior player to win the same tournament three times. July 27 — Lee Elder fires an 11-under 61 in opening round of the Merrill Lynch/Golf Digest Commemorative in Newport, RI. Elder's round is the lowest score in SENIOR TOUR history until 1997. August 4 — Don January becomes the first player to surpass the $1 million mark in SENIOR TOUR career money. October 13 — On his 63rd birthday, Mike Fetchick wins the Hilton Head Seniors International. Fetchick establishes the mark as the oldest SENIOR TOUR winner and is victorious for the first time in over 28 years (1956 Mayfair Inn Open), the longest time between a PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR title. November 23 — South African Gary Player triumphs in his SENIOR TOUR debut at the Quadel Seniors Classic in Boca Raton, FL. He becomes the second of only four senior players to claim the first tournament he enters.

1986

Bruce Crampton, Bob Charles, Dale Douglass and Chi Chi Rodriguez are among the new faces on the SENIOR TOUR and signify a changing of the guard on the circuit. One new tournament is added to the schedule and prize money increases to $6.3 million. May 11 — Bruce Crampton wins the first of his seven titles during the year, edging Bob Charles at the Benson & Hedges Invitational at The Dominion in San Antonio, TX. June 22 — Chi Chi Rodriguez triumphs at the Senior Tournament Players Championship in Cleveland, the first of his 22 SENIOR TOUR career titles. Rodriguez goes on to win the Byron Nelson Award (69.65), breaking Don January's run of four straight scoring titles. November 23 — Bruce Crampton ends the year with a win at the Shearson-Lehman Brothers Seniors Classic in Delray Beach, FL. He finishes atop the money list with $454,299 and becomes the first senior to cross the $400,000 barrier in earnings.

1987

The Vantage brand of R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company introduces its Vantage Cup Program to the 35-event SENIOR TOUR. The Vantage involvement includes a $1 million, season-long team points competition; sponsorship of the first $1 million tournament on the SENIOR TOUR, the Vantage Championship; sponsorship of a "Super Seniors" competition for players 60 and older; and an advanced electronic scoreboard system. The size of SENIOR TOUR tournament fields expands to 72 players and, for the first time, the pro-am portion and tournament portion of events are separated.

March 15 — Billy Casper wins the Del E. Webb Arizona Classic and becomes the first SENIOR TOUR member to play 54 holes without making a bogey. March 22 — Bob Charles notches the first of his 23 SENIOR TOUR titles at The Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Palm Desert, CA, the first of three victories in a row. May 23 — Chi Chi Rodriguez sets the SENIOR TOUR standard with eight consecutive birdies during the second round of the Silver Pages Classic in Oklahoma City. June 7 — Chi Chi Rodriguez uses a 65 to come from three strokes back and win the Senior Players Reunion in Dallas. The victory at Bent Tree CC is his fourth in a row and establishes the SENIOR TOUR record for most consecutive wins. He goes on to claim a total of seven titles and becomes the first senior over the $500,000 mark in earnings ($509,145).

The SENIOR TOUR grows to 37 events and purses eclipse the $10 million mark. Vantage sponsors the SENIOR TOUR's first-ever statistical program. Bob Charles and Gary Player each win five events and Charles establishes a single-season earnings mark with $533,929. March 6 — Orville Moody closes with a 63, setting a 72-hole SENIOR TOUR scoring record of 25-under 263 and tying Arnold Palmer's record for largest victory margin with his 11-stroke win at the Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Indian Wells, CA. July 31 — Chi Chi Rodriguez's one-shot victory over Bob Charles at the Digital Seniors Classic near Boston makes him the first player to win the same tournament three straight times. August 7 — Gary Player defeats Bob Charles in an 18-hole playoff at Medinah CC near Chicago to successfully defend his U.S. Senior Open title. The victory is Player's second senior major championship of the season. Earlier in the year, he won the PGA Seniors' Championship. September 18 — Arnold Palmer wins the last of his 10 SENIOR TOUR career titles at the Crestar Classic near Richmond, VA, defeating Lee Elder, Larry Mowry and Jim Ferree by four strokes.

1989

SENIOR TOUR tournament fields are increased to 78 players and 21 tournaments air on national television. R.J. Reynolds sponsored an expanded $1.5-million championship and offered an additional $750,000 in individual bonus money and yet another $750,000 in bonuses to other SENIOR TOUR tournaments. Bob Charles again wins five times and with the RJR bonus money counting as official prize money, he sets the earnings pace with a record $725,887. January 8 — Miller Barber wins the MONY Tournament of Champions at LaCosta and extends his streak of years winning at least one event to nine, an all-time record. March 5 — Miller Barber wins the last of his 24 official SENIOR TOUR career titles at The Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Palm Desert, CA. The victory also vaults him over the $2 million mark in SENIOR TOUR Career Earnings, the first player to do so. April 2 — Don Bies goes wire-to-wire in winning the Murata Seniors Reunion in Dallas. His eight-stroke lead after 36 holes matches the SENIOR TOUR's all-time record for two rounds. April 16 — Bies beats Gary Player by a stroke to win the inaugural Tradition at Desert Mountain, destined to become the SENIOR TOUR's fourth major championship. May 21 — Bob Charles fires 17-under 193 in winning the NYNEX/Golf Digest Commemorative outside New York City, the lowest 54-hole score in SENIOR TOUR history. June 11 — Orville Moody wins his first senior major at the Mazda Senior Tournament Players Championship in Ponte Vedra, FL. July 2 — Orville Moody holds off Frank Beard at Laurel Valley GC for the U.S. Senior Open title. The win makes him just the fourth player to claim both a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown. September 22 — Hurricane Hugo wipes out the PaineWebber Invitational in Charlotte, the only event cancelled by weather on the SENIOR TOUR. October 15 — George Archer defeats Orville Moody and Jimmy Powell in a playoff for the Gatlin Brothers Southwest Classic title in Abilene, TX. The start is Archer's first on the SENIOR TOUR and comes just 14 days after he turns 50 making him, at the time, the youngest senior winner. December 7 — Lee Trevino debuts on the SENIOR TOUR at the GTE Kaanapali Classic and ties for seventh in the rain-shortened event.

Cadillac Motor Car Division comes aboard as the umbrella sponsor for SENIOR TOUR cable telecasts. Fourteen events are shown on ESPN cable television as part of the "Cadillac Series". Five players surpass the previous single-season earnings record, but Lee Trevino is the dominant performer. The Merry Mex easily snares both Rookie of the Year and Player of the Year honors after seven wins and official earnings of $1,190,518. He also earns his first Byron Nelson Trophy with a scoring average of 68.89, a record that stands for eight years on the SENIOR TOUR. February 4 — Lee Trevino makes up seven shots in the final nine holes to overtake Jim Dent for the Royal Caribbean Classic title on Key Biscayne, FL, his first victory on the SENIOR TOUR. April 1 — Jack Nicklaus captures The Tradition crown in Scottsdale and becomes just the fourth player to win in his SENIOR TOUR debut. June 10 — Jack Nicklaus rips Dearborn (MI) CC apart and wins the Mazda Senior TPC by six strokes over Lee Trevino. Nicklaus' 27-under 261 total sets a new standard for scoring in a 72-hole event on the SENIOR TOUR. July 1 — Lee Trevino nips Jack Nicklaus at Ridgewood CC in New Jersey for the U.S. Senior Open title. Trevino's win makes him the fifth player to claim a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown. December 16 — Lee Trevino's runner-up performance at the season-ending New York Life Champions in Puerto Rico puts him over the seven-figure mark and makes him the first single-season millionaire in SENIOR TOUR history and the leading money-winner in all of golf.

The list of senior millionaires grows when Mike Hill becomes the second senior to top $1 million in 1991. Hill wins five times and shares Player of the Year honors with George Archer. His total of $1,065,657 is the largest amount in golf. PGA TOUR Productions introduces "Inside the SENIOR PGA TOUR," and ESPN airs the new program for 39 consecutive weeks during the season. June 2 — Charles Coody equals the 54-hole SENIOR TOUR scoring record, posting a 17-under 193 total in winning the NYNEX Commemorative. June 9 — Jim Albus shocks the golf world by becoming the first former club professional to win a senior major. Albus holds off three players at the TPC of Michigan to win the Mazda Senior Players Championship by three strokes. July 28 — Jack Nicklaus becomes the first to complete the Senior Slam when he defeats Chi Chi Rodriguez in an 18-hole playoff for the U.S. Senior Open title at Oakland Hills CC. The victory is Nicklaus' third senior major of the season. Earlier in the campaign, the Golden Bear successfully defends his Tradition title and waltzes to an easy triumph at the PGA Seniors' Championship. October 20 — Bob Charles becomes the first to cross the $3 million barrier in SENIOR TOUR career money when he ties for 14th at The Transamerica Senior Golf Championship in Napa, CA.

1992

Lee Trevino again was the leading money-winner on the SENIOR TOUR despite a hand injury in mid-season. His $1,027,002 makes him the first player to surpass seven figures twice in a senior career and five tournament wins propels The Merry Mex to a second Player of the Year honor. Raymond Floyd joins the circuit in the fall and wastes little time in making an impact. May 22 — On the first day of the Bell Atlantic Classic outside Philadelphia, Lee Trevino posts the last of 27 straight par-or-better rounds. During his record run, Trevino also sets a SENIOR TOUR mark of 11 straight sub-70 scores. June 28 — Gibby Gilbert equals the SENIOR TOUR's 54-hole scoring record of 193 in winning the Southwestern Bell Classic near Kansas City. His nine-stroke cushion also equals the widest 54-hole victory margin in SENIOR TOUR history. July 5 — Gibby Gilbert wins for the second straight week, defeating J.C. Snead in a playoff at the Kroger Senior Classic near Cincinnati. His 54-hole score of 198 makes him the first player to win consecutive weeks with sub-200 totals. September 20 — One week after his SENIOR TOUR debut, Doral Ryder Open champion Raymond Floyd outguns Mike Hill for the GTE North Classic title in Indianapolis. The victory makes Floyd the only player to win both a PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR event in the same season. September 27 — Isao Aoki, the 36-hole leader at the Nationwide Championship near Atlanta, is declared the winner when the final round is rained out. He becomes the first Japanese player to win on the SENIOR TOUR.

1993

Dave Stockton and Bob Charles become the first two players to earn more than $1 million in official money in the same season. Stockton claimed five tournaments and received his first Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner. Charles wins his third Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average and triumphs three times. March 21 — Raymond Floyd's 22-under 194 score in winning the Gulfstream Aerospace Invitational in Palm Desert, CA is a SENIOR TOUR record in relation to par. May 23 — Bob Charles wins the Bell Atlantic Classic near Philadelphia and becomes just the fourth player to collect 20 or more SENIOR TOUR titles in a career. His $97,500 first-place check also makes him the first senior over the $4 million mark in career earnings. August 15 — Dave Stockton ties the SENIOR TOUR mark for victory margin in a 54-hole event, winning by a whopping nine strokes at the Franklin Quest Championship in Utah.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SENIOR PGA TOUR

1994

Official prize money approaches the $30-million figure and a record six SENIOR TOUR players find their way over the $1 million mark. Trevino gets there first, earning $1 million for an unprecedented third time in his career. Stockton tops the earnings list with $1,402,519 and becomes the first to win more than $1 million in back-to-back seasons. After Albus becomes the first former club professional to join the millionaire's club, Raymond Floyd, Tom Wargo and Jim Colbert follow him into the elite group at the season-ending SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach, SC. March 6 — One day after Jim Colbert establishes the SENIOR TOUR record for lowest 36-hole score, 14-under 126, Jay Sigel wins his first professional title in the greatest comeback in SENIOR TOUR annals. Sigel's final-round 62 makes up 10 shots and he defeats Colbert in a sudden-death playoff for the GTE West Classic title in Ojai, CA. June 19 — Bob Charles is the first to eclipse $5 million in SENIOR TOUR Career earnings with his tie for 18th at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland. July 9 — Bob Brue has a SENIOR TOUR record low of just 17 total putts in carding a 66 in the second round of the Kroger Senior Classic near Cincinnati. Brue's seven putts on the back nine also establishes a mark for fewest over nine holes. July 10 — 78-year-old Jerry Barber cards a 69 on the last day of the Kroger Senior Classic and becomes the oldest player to better his age. July 31 — Lee Trevino's seven-stroke victory at the Northville Long Island Classic ties him with Miller Barber atop the SENIOR TOUR's all-time victory list with 24 titles.

1995

A record 25 different champions are produced and Jim Colbert earns his first Arnold Palmer Award with a single-season earnings record of $1,444,386. His year-long performance, keyed by a win at the season-ending Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach, SC, helps propel Colbert to SENIOR PGA TOUR Player of the Year honors. June 9 — Hale Irwin debuts on the SENIOR TOUR at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland and finishes in a tie for fourth. July 23 — Jimmy Powell wins the First of America Classic in Grand Rapids one day after claiming the Super Seniors portion of the tournament. He is the first player to win both in the same week. July 29 — Playing in the Ameritech Senior Open near Chicago, 69-year-old Joe Jimenez fires a course-record 62 at Stonebridge CC, the lowest score ever on the SENIOR TOUR by a player over 60. July 30 — Hale Irwin claims his first SENIOR TOUR event at the Ameritech Senior Open. He also wins the Vantage Championship in Winston-Salem later in the season and is voted the circuit's Rookie of the Year. August 20 — Lee Trevino becomes the SENIOR TOUR's all-time winningest player when he successfully defends his Northville Long Island Classic title, his 25th on the circuit. September 10 — Dave Stockton finishes second to Walter Morgan at the GTE Northwest Classic near Seattle, but his $52,800 check pushes him over the $1 million plateau for an unprecedented third straight SENIOR TOUR season.

1996

Jim Colbert repeats by lifting the single-season earnings record to $1,627,890. He edges Hale Irwin by $12,121 in becoming the first winner of consecutive Player of the Year awards. MasterCard becomes a major player on the circuit through sponsorship of the electronic scoreboards and the MasterCard Champions competition. January 21 — Lee Trevino becomes the first player to cross the $6 million level in SENIOR TOUR career earnings when he ties for third at the Puerto Rico Senior Tournament of Champions. March 24 — Lee Trevino and Mike Hill team to win an unprecedented fourth Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title in La Quinta, CA. April 7 — Jack Nicklaus successfully defends his Tradition title and becomes the first SENIOR TOUR player to claim the same tournament four times. The three-stroke victory over Hale Irwin is also his 100th professional title. September 22 — Jimmy Powell "double dips" at the Brickyard Crossing Championship in Indianapolis, winning a MasterCard GrandMasters competition and the overall event for the second time in his career. October 6 — One week after debuting on the SENIOR TOUR, Gil Morgan becomes the circuit's youngest winner in Los Angeles. He claims the Ralphs Senior Classic at Wilshire CC just 11 days after turning 50. October 20 — Dave Stockton's runner-up check of $70,400 at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic in Sacramento pushes him over seven figures in single-season earnings for an unprecedented fourth consecutive year.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SENIOR PGA TOUR

November 3 — Lee Trevino wins his 27th SENIOR TOUR event at the Emerald Coast Classic in Pensacola in a five-man playoff, the most players ever involved in overtime in the history of the circuit.

1997

The year belongs almost exclusively to Hale Irwin. He wins nine times and becomes the first player on any TOUR to surpass $2 million in a season, finishing the year with $2,343,364. Gil Morgan caps a stellar campaign of his own by winning the season-ending Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, his sixth victory of the year. His $328,000 check at Myrtle Beach also puts him over $2 million in single-season earnings. April 6 — Gil Morgan wins his first senior major championship at The Tradition. His 72-hole total of 22-under 266 breaks the tournament record by three strokes. April 20 — Hale Irwin's 12-stroke romp at the PGA Seniors' Championship is the widest margin in SENIOR TOUR history for 72 holes. May 18 — Lee Trevino goes over the $7 million mark in SENIOR TOUR Career earnings with a fourth-place finish at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic. July 27 — Bruce Summerhays ends his record run of 96 straight SENIOR TOUR appearances at the Franklin Quest Championship. The streak started at the 1995 Royal Caribbean Classic. September 27 — Isao Aoki sets a SENIOR TOUR record for lowest 18-hole score with a 10-under 60 in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic. September 28 — Isao Aoki's final-round 65 at the Emerald Coast Classic gives him a 15-under-par 125 total over his final 36 holes, the best back-to-back rounds in SENIOR TOUR history. October 19 — Hale Irwin claims his ninth title of the year at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic. The three-stroke triumph ties Peter Thomson's record (1985) for most victories in a season. October 24 — Gil Morgan's two-over 74 ends a streak of 26 consecutive sub-par scores, the longest run in SENIOR TOUR history.

1998

Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan continue to dominate the SENIOR TOUR. With 13 victories between them, both players eclipse the $2 million level in single-season earnings. Despite winning two less events than 1997, Irwin turns in an incredible year, finishing out of the top five only twice in 22 official tournaments. He wins his second consecutive Jack Nicklaus Award as the SENIOR TOUR's Player of the Year and earns a third consecutive Byron Nelson Award with a record scoring average of 68.59. Arnold Palmer and Jim Colbert co-chair the SENIOR PGA TOUR FOR THE CURE campaign and help raise $4.5 million for prostate cancer research over the course of the season. February 1 — David Graham wins the Royal Caribbean Classic at Key Biscayne, FL in a 10-hole sudden-death playoff over Dave Stockton, the longest overtime session in SENIOR TOUR history. March 29 — Lee Trevino wins his record 28th SENIOR TOUR title at the Southwestern Bell Dominion, his third senior victory in San Antonio. April 19 — Hale Irwin claims his third straight PGA Seniors' Championship, a first since Eddie Williams' trifecta from 1942-1946. May 17 — Larry Ziegler claims the Saint Luke's Classic near Kansas City, his first SENIOR TOUR event since 1991. The victory comes six years, 10 months and three days after his triumph at the Newport Cup, the longest span between SENIOR TOUR wins. May 23 — In the second round of the Bell Atlantic Classic, Jay Sigel sets a SENIOR TOUR record for lowest nine-hole score. His nine-under 27 on the front nine at Hartefeld National includes an eagle and seven birdies, the SENIOR TOUR's all-time best eagle-birdie streak. July 26 — Despite opening with a six-over 77, Hale Irwin rallies to win the U.S. Senior Open at Riviera CC near Los Angeles. He establishes an all-time mark for the highest-ever start by a winner and becomes the seventh man to win both a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open. October 11 — Jim Colbert caps a successful return to the circuit from prostate cancer surgery with a victory at The Transamerica, his 19th on the SENIOR TOUR. His $150,000 check makes him the first player over $8 million in SENIOR TOUR career money. November 8 — Hale Irwin caps his official season with a win at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, his 20th career title as a senior. Irwin finishes the year with $2,861,945, the most-ever by any player on any TOUR.

THE SENIOR PGA TOUR DIVISION BOARD

The SENIOR PGA TOUR, formerly a department within the overall structure of the PGA TOUR, became an operating division of the PGA TOUR in October 1985. The restructuring, along with the naming of a nine-person SENIOR PGA TOUR Division Board, gave the SENIOR TOUR greater ability to deal with its particular policies, opportunities and issues.

The SENIOR TOUR Division Board is composed of the following:

- Four Player Directors elected by the SENIOR PGA TOUR membership.
- Four Independent Directors representing the public interest. One serves as Chairman of the Board.
- One PGA Director who is the Past President of the PGA of America.

A Player Advisory Council consults with the Division Board.

ABOUT THE COMMISSIONER

Timothy W. Finchem

Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem became only the third Commissioner in PGA TOUR history on June 1, 1994.

Finchem, 51, succeeded Deane R. Beman, who had served as Commissioner for 20 years. The late Joseph C. Dey was the first Commissioner of the PGA TOUR, serving from 1969 until 1974.

A 7-handicapper, Finchem has been the architect of a restructuring dedicated to expanding earnings opportunities and other benefits for PGA TOUR members domestically and internationally.

He has taken a leadership role in the creation of the World Golf Foundation and its "First Tee" initiative, World Golf Village and World Golf Hall of Fame. He also has spearheaded development of the International Federation of PGA Tours and its World Golf Championships, which begin this year.

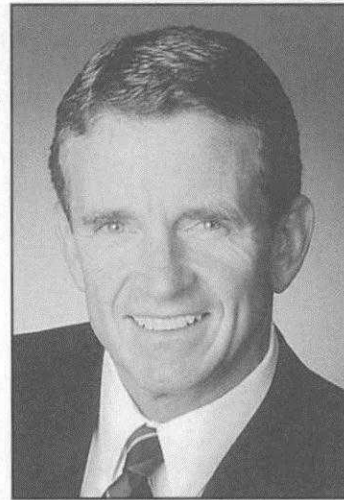

Born in Ottawa, IL on April 19, 1947, Finchem was graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship and received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the school in 1969. He was graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973.

After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President for Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979, then became National Staff Director of the Carter-Mondale Presidential Campaign in 1980. In 1981, Finchem co-founded National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

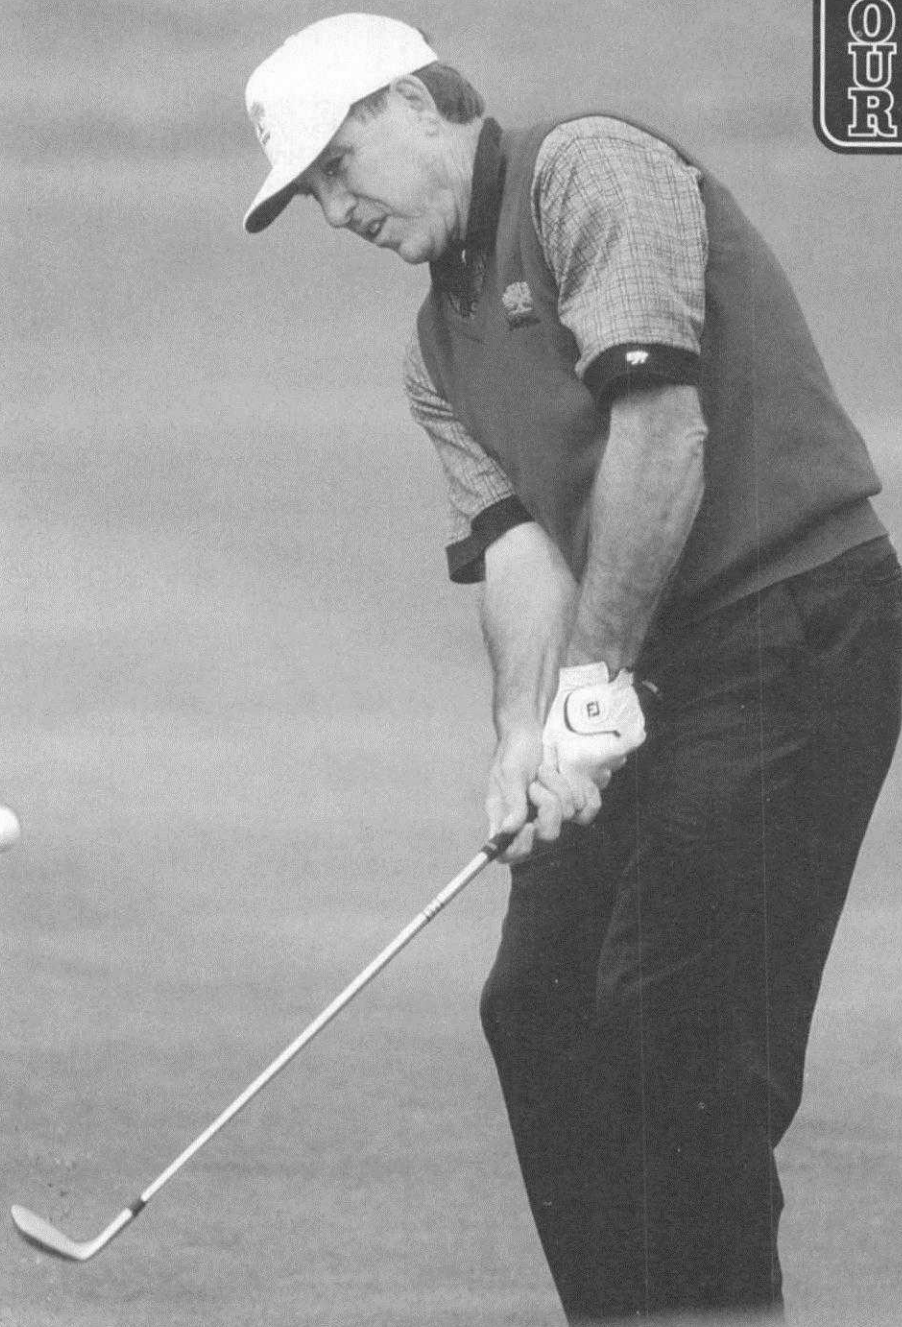

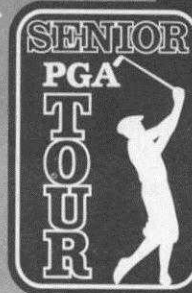

Finchem joined the TOUR staff as Vice President of Business Affairs in December 1987 and became Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer in 1989.

A physical fitness devotee, Finchem is a member of the President's Council on Physical Fitness.

Married to the former Holly Bachand, Finchem is a father of four. The Finchems live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Gil Morgan—Collected six titles in 1998, including two major championships, on the way to his second consecutive $2 million+ season on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

SECTION 2

SENIOR PGA TOUR ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible for an official SENIOR PGA TOUR event, a player must be at least 50 years of age prior to the first tournament round.

1. Eligibility for Exempt Status in 1999 (in order of priority):
 - a. Top 31 available players from the 1998 Official Money List (Floor of 50).
 - b. Top 31 available players from the All-Time Money List (not otherwise exempt; Net floor of 70).
 - c. Top eight players from the 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament, in order of finish.
 - d. Special Medical Extension.
 - e. Winners of SENIOR PGA TOUR events for one year from the date of their victory, if not otherwise exempt.
 - f. Past Champions of official PGA TOUR events, excluding team events. Eligibility in this category is on a space-available basis only after the floors of all other exempt categories have been reached.

[NOTE: Eligibility priority on the SENIOR TOUR guarantees that a minimum of eight players receive access into open, full-field, cosponsored events from the categories in the following priority: (1) top eight from National Qualifying Tournament, (2) Special Medical Extension and (3) additional national qualifiers Nos. 9-16.]

2. Eligibility for Non-Exempt Players:
 - a. Four spots in each tournament field from open qualifying.
 - b. Four sponsor exemptions per tournament.

NOTE: The above requirements apply to standard 78-player format for open SENIOR TOUR events. Invitational tournaments may employ varying criteria.

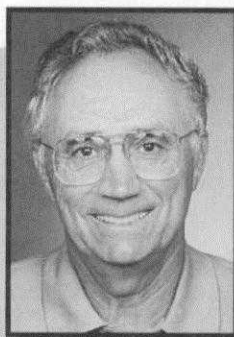

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONS ELIGIBILITY

The MasterCard Champions competition consists of all players within the starting field who are 60 years of age or older. The competition takes place over the first 36 holes of a 54-hole event or the first 54 holes of a 72-hole tournament. MasterCard Champions earnings are unofficial, but the participants earn official money for their position of finish in the overall tournament.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T3 — Comfort Classic; T8 — AT&T Canada Senior Open, Boone Valley Classic.

1998 SEASON: Finished the year 46th on the money list, his lowest finish since joining the SENIOR TOUR full-time in 1995...Had another strong outing at the Comfort Classic (T2 in 1997, solo third in 1996) when he posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s to finish T3 and earn his biggest check of the year ($75,900)...Was T8 two weeks later at the Boone Valley Classic...Other top-10 finishes were a T8 at the AT&T Canada Senior Open, thanks to a closing round 65, and a T10 at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland...First-round leader at the Vantage Championship after opening with a season-best 64, but followed with a 75 the second day to eventually finish T18, thanks to a final round 65...Had one string from mid-August until the end of September when he finished 18 of 22 rounds at par or better.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Recorded first TOUR victory in over 20 years at the American Express Invitational in Sarasota, after getting in the field two days before the event began when Gibby Gilbert withdrew...Rounds of 68-68-69 made him a one-stroke victor over Jim Colbert and earned him his biggest check ever, $180,000...Nearly claimed a second title later in the season at the Comfort Classic, finishing T2 with Larry Nelson behind David Graham. 1995: Nominated for Rookie of the Year honors after earning more in his first year than he did in his entire PGA TOUR career...Best effort that season was a T2 at the Northville Long Island Classic, four strokes behind Lee Trevino...Shot a 61 at the FHP Health Care Classic, the lowest round of his career, and lowest on the SENIOR TOUR that year...1994: Earned fully exempt status at the 1994 SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament with a third-place finish, thanks to rounds of 73-70-70-68 at the TPC of Tampa Bay.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played the PGA TOUR from 1970-81 and won five official tournaments...Successfully earned a player's card on his first attempt in the fall of 1970, after completing a three-year military career that included a stint in Vietnam...Sank a 20-foot birdie putt from the fringe on the first playoff hole to defeat Rod Funseth and Dave Eichelberger for his first TOUR victory at the 1971 Greater Greensboro Open...Had his best year on the PGA TOUR in 1974, when he finished ninth on the money list with $137,950...Won the Doral-Eastern Open that season, then claimed a second title at the Byron Nelson Golf Classic...Has one career hole-in-one.

PERSONAL: A product of the Pacific Northwest, he played his college golf at Brigham Young with Johnny Miller and Mike Reasor...Left Provo after two and a half years and enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1967...Spent 18 months in Vietnam as an artillery officer and earned four decorations, including the Bronze Star and an Air Medal...Worked as Director of Golf for the Presley Development Company from 1986-1994...Authored an instruction book, Away Together-Thru Together, but never had it published.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1 — BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland; 2 — Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic, T2 — Utah Showdown; 3 — FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, T3 — Saint Luke's Classic, Comfort Classic.

1998 SEASON: Climbed past the $1 million earnings mark for the fourth successive season ($1,042,200), longest streak on the SENIOR TOUR...At the close of the year was ranked ninth on the final money list, the fourth straight time he has finished in the top 10...Played in just 22 events, fewest since 1994, but still had 10 top-10 finishes...One of four players to go wire-to-wire, winning the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland...Opened with a season-best 62 and followed with 66-70 for a two-stroke win over Hale Irwin...His 18-under-par 198 was a tournament record and his second win in Nashville...In addition, his 36-hole total (62-66-128) tied the SENIOR PGA TOUR record in relation to par for first 36 holes...Other top finishes were a solo second at the Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic, where he lost in a playoff to Leonard Thompson, a T2 at the Utah Showdown, a solo third at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship and T4s at the U.S. Senior Open and the Emerald Coast Classic...Played some of his best golf in a four-month stretch from mid-May until mid-September...Posted nine top-10 finishes in 11 starts and won $869,292 in that span ($79,027 per start).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Enjoyed a career year that saw him finish third on the money list with $1,410,499...Sixth consecutive season he improved his position on the final chart...Finished among the top three 10 times, with lone victory at the Emerald Coast Classic...Fashioned a SENIOR TOUR-record 60 (10-under-par) in the second round, and then, after a birdie on the final hole in regulation to tie Gil Morgan, came back with another birdie on the first playoff hole to claim the title... His 65 on Sunday, coupled with his record 60, helped him establish a SENIOR TOUR mark for best consecutive rounds (60-65-125), breaking the record of 126 by Jim Colbert (62-64/1994) and Bob Murphy (63-63/1995)... Was second five times, with two of those coming in majors — The Tradition and PGA Seniors' Championship... Finished over par in just three events: MasterCard Championship (+4), PGA Seniors' Championship (+4) and the U.S. Senior Open (+16) and failed to finish in the top 25 just twice — Pittsburgh Senior Classic and U.S. Senior Open. 1996: Won the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland and the Kroger Senior Classic... Also posted a SENIOR TOUR-best streak of 22 rounds of par-or-better that began at the PGA Seniors' Championship and ended at the Bell Atlantic Classic... Named the SENIOR TOUR Player of the Month in May and June. 1995: Won over $1 million for first time in his career, helped by a win at the Bank of Boston Senior Classic, where he birdied the final hole to nip Bob Charles and Hale Irwin... Went over the $1 million mark at the Emerald Coast Classic... Finished second four times, including playoff loss to Jack Nicklaus at The Tradition... In the top five in over half his 23 starts... Led the SENIOR TOUR in putting. 1994: Caught fire in the fall, winning back-to-back events at the Bank One Classic and the rain-shortened Brickyard Crossing Championship... Almost earned a third win at The Transamerica, but lost on the first extra hole to Kermit Zarley... Played his final 10 holes at Silverado in 10-under-par (8 birdies, 1 eagle, 1 par) and carded an 8-under-par 29 on the back nine en route to a 63 that forced the playoff... Player of the Month for September. 1993: Top showing was a T2 at the GTE West Classic and was in top 10 in 12 of 23 starts. 1992: Had impressive rookie year with six top-10 finishes in seven starts highlighted by victory at the Nationwide Championship... Shot a 66 on Saturday to take a one-stroke lead and was declared the winner when the final round was cancelled... Victory made him the first Japanese player to win on both the PGA TOUR and the SENIOR PGA TOUR... Made SENIOR TOUR debut at the First of America Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Has finished more than half the events he has played in the top 10 (59 percent)... Has won at least one event each of the last five years, tying Jim Dent for the longest current string on the SENIOR TOUR... One of Japan's all-time greats, with over 70 tournament victories worldwide... The only Japanese player to claim titles on six different Tours: PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR, PGA European Tour, Australasian Tour, Japan PGA Tour and Japan Senior Tour... May be best known in the United States for holing a pitching wedge out of the rough from 128 yards for an eagle-3 on the 72nd hole at Waialae CC to leapfrog Jack Renner and win the 1983 Hawaiian Open, his only PGA TOUR title... Best year on TOUR was that same season, when he made $146,467 and placed 34th on the money list... Shadowed Jack Nicklaus for four days at Baltusrol GC in the 1980 U.S. Open, but eventually lost by two strokes when Nicklaus became the first player to record a 72-hole mark of 272 in a U.S. Open... Was a member of the 1982, 1983 and 1984 Japanese National teams that competed against the United States... Selected to the Japan team in 1985, 1987 and 1988 for the Kirin Cup competition... Was the leading money-winner five times on the Japan PGA Tour.

PERSONAL: Was introduced to golf as a caddie at the Abiko Golf Club while attending Abiko Junior High School... Earned the nickname 'Tower' after the Tokyo Tower, because of his height... Uses an unorthodox putting stroke, but considers that to be the strongest part of his game.

PLAYOFF RECORD: 4-3

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1 — First of America Classic; T3 — American Express Invitational.

1998 SEASON: Climbed back into the winner's circle again, closing with a course record-tying 8-under-par 64 on Sunday at the First of America Classic...Posted a five-stroke win, his first since 1995...His 17-under-par 199 total tied a tournament record shared with Jim Colbert and Chi Chi Rodriguez (1993)...Victory near Grand Rapids also made him the first multiple winner of the event (won in playoff in 1993)...Also climbed over the $8 million mark in all-time money with his Michigan triumph...Ironically, two weeks prior to his victory, he had considered retirement because of inconsistent play...The victory helped kick off a string of solid play that saw him finish in the top 10 in three of his next four starts, including a pair of T8s at BankBoston Classic and Boone Valley Classic...Run included 14 rounds of par-or-better in 15 starts...Three sub-par rounds in Sarasota in February helped him to a T3 at the American Express Invitational.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Rebounded from right hip replacement surgery in April 1996 to play a full schedule that included five top-10 performances...Saved his best performance for last, closing with a 64 at Wilshire Country Club to fall one stroke short of Gil Morgan at the Ralphs Senior Classic...Three of his other four top-10 finishes came in the last half of the season...Carded one of the finest rounds of his career on the opening day of the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic, a 5-under-par 67 in cool, windy conditions, the lowest of only four players to shoot par or better that day...His four-stroke advantage after Friday's play proved to be the largest first-round lead of '97...Finished T13 at Upper Montclair CC after posting scores of 72-77 on the weekend...Named the SENIOR TOUR's Comeback Player of the Year. 1996: Played in just 12 events after undergoing right hip replacement surgery in April...Returned in late July at the Burnet Senior Classic but played just twice after that...Was T13 in the first event of the year and that pushed him past $7 million in all-time earnings. 1995: Hinted at possible retirement early in year because of degenerative hip, but went on to post his fifth multiple-win season...Carded final-round 64 for a one-stroke win at inaugural Toshiba Senior Classic...Later in year posted a one-stroke win over Ray Floyd and Bob Murphy at Cadillac NFL Golf Classic...Third place at Bank One Classic pushed him over $5 million in SENIOR TOUR career money. 1994: Out of top 25 just twice and had year's best streak of par-or-better rounds (21)...Carded hole-in-one at GTE West Classic. 1993: Finished among top four on money list for fourth straight year with four victories, including back-to-back wins at Ameritech Senior Open and First of America Classic...Also won Raley's Senior Gold Rush for third title there in last four years...Led in Sand Saves. 1992: Second on money list for second straight year...Had three wins, one second and five third-place finishes...Win at Northville Long Island Classic was third in succession and won Murata Reunion in three-hole playoff with Tommy Aaron...Led in Sand Saves and Greens in Regulation. 1991: Lost out in the final week of the year for the money title to Mike Hill but garnered Co-Player of the Year honors with Hill...Among his three titles were successful defenses at the Northville Long Island Classic and Raley's Senior Gold Rush...Also won GTE Classic in Indianapolis with record score 199...Had 18 top-five efforts, the most by any SENIOR TOUR player that season. 1990: Took advantage of his first full year to enjoy his most lucrative campaign in golf with over $700,000...Had four wins and four runnerup finishes...Had 400 birdies and led the SENIOR TOUR in that category. 1989: Became the third of just four players to win their SENIOR TOUR debut (Palmer, Player and later Nicklaus) when he prevailed in a playoff at the Gatlin Brothers Southwest Classic... Won the event 14 days after his 50th birthday, making him youngest (at the time) winner in SENIOR TOUR history.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Last win on the PGA TOUR came at the 1984 Bank of Boston Classic at age 44, his first title in eight years...Biggest of his 12 PGA TOUR wins came at the 1969 Masters, where he outdueled Billy Casper, the late George Knudson and Tom Weiskopf down the stretch...First win as a professional, the 1965 Lucky International, came on the course on which he grew up, Harding Park GC in San Francisco...Finished among the TOUR's top-five money-winners in 1968, 1971 and 1972...Best earnings year was 1984 ($207,543)...Has had six holes-in-one as a professional.

PERSONAL: Has been hampered by various injuries throughout his career...Among seven major surgeries he has undergone have been left wrist (1975), back (1979), left shoulder (1987) and right hip replacement (1996)...Considered one of the game's all-time great putters, and at one time held the PGA TOUR record for fewest putts over four rounds (95/1980 Sea Pines Heritage Classic)...Daughter Elizabeth, the first female caddie at the Masters Tournament, is now a Presbyterian minister...Another daughter, Lynne, teaches special education...Inducted into the California Golf Hall of Fame in 1991.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $4,898

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1 — Comfort Classic, Kroger Senior Classic; T2 — EMC² Kaanapali Classic.

1998 SEASON: Had perhaps his finest season as a professional golfer... Posted two victories, was fifth on the money list with over $1 million in earnings and emerged as one of the new international stars on the SENIOR TOUR... He and Hale Irwin (twice) were the only players to win back-to-back events... He accomplished the feat at the Comfort Classic and the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic... Carded a tournament-record 20-under-par total of 196 to defeat Bruce Summerhays by two strokes in Indianapolis and came back a week later near Cincinnati with a birdie on the second extra hole to best four others when Sunday's final round was cancelled... Those wins helped him earn Player of the Month plaudits for September... The victories also started a late-season run that saw him post five top-10 finishes in his final nine starts and 24 of his final 27 rounds were at par-or-better... Had five other top-three finishes during the year, including a pair of T3s at Saint Luke's Classic and the Ameritech Senior Open... He and teammate David Graham were runners-up at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: One of the real surprises on the SENIOR TOUR, with a victory and 14 top-10 finishes in 25 starts (two as a Monday Qualifier)... Won $906,565 and was a Rookie of the Year candidate... Began the year as a conditionally exempt player (second eight at the 1996 National Qualifying Tournament) and did not play in his first event until late April at the PGA Seniors' Championship (T35)... Lost to Bruce Crampton in a three-hole playoff at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic... Also lost in a two-hole playoff to Bruce Summerhays at the Saint Luke's Classic, where he posted rounds of 63-65-71... Had a 29 on the back nine of his opening round, one of just three sub-30 scores on the SENIOR TOUR that season... Won his first SENIOR TOUR title at the Pittsburgh Senior Classic... Caught Bob Duval with birdies on the final two holes of regulation, then prevailed in a playoff over him with a par on the sixth extra hole... Concluded his year with a strong showing at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, where he was a T4 in Myrtle Beach... Named SENIOR TOUR Player of the Month for August... 1996: Earned his spot on the 1997 SENIOR TOUR by finishing 10th at the National Qualifying Tournament... Involved in a six-man playoff for positions 9-14 before claiming 10th spot overall with a par on the fourth extra hole.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: A fixture for 22 years on the PGA European Tour, where he won seven times after turning professional in November 1971... His best year was in 1977, when he finished second on the Order of Merit to Seve Ballesteros... Played in the Masters Tournament in 1974-75-76... Represented South Africa three times in the World Cup and was a South African PGA captain... Winner of the 1977 PGA Match Play Championship in Europe... Owns 11 wins on the South African Tour... Played an abbreviated PGA European Seniors Tour schedule in 1996, competing in just three events after turning 50 in August... Finished third at The Belfry PGA Seniors and T3 at the Scottish Seniors Open... Posted his career low round of 61 at the 1993 Royal Swazi Classic.

PERSONAL: Credits his father as the person who most influenced his career... Is among a South African contingent on the SENIOR TOUR that also includes Gary Player, John Bland, Simon Hobday and Harold Henning.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T5 — Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic; T10 — Toshiba Senior Classic

1998 SEASON: Had another busy year, playing in 27 events with a pair of top 10 efforts... Was 68th on the SENIOR TOUR money list and seventh on the MasterCard Champions chart for players 60-and-over... Claimed two victories in the latter competition, first at the Toshiba Senior Classic, where he was also T10 in the full field event, and also at the rain-shortened Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic where he had his best finish of the year, a T5 in the tournament.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Finished seventh on the 60-and-over money list with $185,644 in his first full season as a MasterCard Champion... Posted low round on Sunday at the GC of Georgia, a 5-under-par 67, and finished T5 at the Nationwide, his lone top-10 finish of the season... A 5-under-par 65 on Saturday at the Emerald Coast Classic was his lowest score in 95 rounds played. 1996: Had one top-10 finish in 1996, but it proved to be a big one... Carded an 8-under-par 64 at Serrano CC to set the course record en route to his first MasterCard Champions win, a two-stroke triumph over Dick Hendrickson at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic... The 64, his lowest round since a 63 at the 1993 First

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1 — AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship; T3 — Pacific Bell Senior Classic.

1998 SEASON: Made a spirited run for the top 31 but fell one spot short, finishing 32nd on the final money list with $531,561...Broke into the winner's circle for the first time in Canada in June, when he was a two-stroke victor at the AT&T Canada Senior Open in Calgary...Made up three strokes on third-round leader Walter Hall the final day, thanks in part to a 75-foot eagle putt on the 14th hole and a birdie at the 15th...The win earned a career-best $165,000...Had two strong efforts in Los Angeles during the year...Finished T4 at the U.S. Senior Open in July and T3 at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic in the year's final event, which was worth $72,600 and nearly vaulted him into the top 31...Was 36-hole leader by one stroke at the GTE Classic in February, but closed with a 75 to slip to T9.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Physical woes (cyst on his left knee) dropped him to 44th on the money list after finishing 21st a year earlier, and also kept him from defending his Senior British Open title...Finished eighth in Total Driving and seventh in Greens in Regulation. 1996: A pair of second-place finishes at the Pittsburgh Senior Classic and PaineWebber Invitational and a third-place finish at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship helped him secure a spot in the top 31 in his first full year on the SENIOR TOUR...Made the cut at the British Open...Led the SENIOR TOUR in Total Driving and Eagles and was third in Greens in Regulation. 1995: Made his SENIOR TOUR debut at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland...First Senior British Open triumph came when he defeated Bob Murphy on the third playoff hole, dropping in a 50-foot eagle putt at Royal Portrush.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Enjoyed an impressive career in Europe after turning professional in 1964...Has won a number of titles around the world, including events in Australia, Spain, Zambia, France, Italy, Portugal, Kenya and throughout the British Isles...Won 10 PGA European Tour titles...Claimed three wins on the PGA European Safari Tour...Represented and served as captain of Scotland's World Cup teams for 10 years and also captained the British squad in the Hennessy Cup vs. Europe in 1980...A six-time ('69, '71, '73, '75, '77 and '79) Ryder Cup player who earned notoriety in 1975 when he defeated Jack Nicklaus twice in one day at Laurel Valley...Was a consistent top-10 finisher on the PGA European Tour's Order of Merit from 1971-80...Led the 1995 PGA European Seniors Order of Merit...Played in a number of PGA TOUR events in the '70s, including seven in 1970...Among his better efforts that year was T3 at the Doral-Eastern Open Invitational, where he won $7,950...Also played in a number of British Opens, with a sixth-place finish to his credit in 1968...Has five career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Learned the game from his father, who was the secretary at Burnham and Berrow in the United Kingdom and later was a pupil of 1951 British Open champion Max Faulkner, who became his father-in-law...Battled phlebitis (the result of a spider bite) in the latter stages of 1995 and was hospitalized for four weeks...Unable to fly due to the phlebitis, he traveled to the 1995 SENIOR TOUR Q-School via ship from Great Britain and then used Amtrak rail to arrive in Palm Springs, where he finished in a tie for 17th place...Traveled to SENIOR TOUR events in 1998 in a motorhome.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $5,400

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T5 — Pittsburgh Senior Classic; T8 — American Express Invitational.

1998 SEASON: Season was limited to just 18 events, including just two following the death of his wife, Helen, in early August... Did not play from mid-July until returning for two events in California in October... Finished 52nd on the money list with $321,752... Perhaps his best stretch of golf came during a four-event span in May and June... Put together four straight top-10 finishes, including a fifth-place effort at the Pittsburgh Senior Classic (best finish of the year) and three ties for ninth place... Claimed more than a third of his winnings in that span... Other top-10 finish came at Sarasota, when he was T8 at the American Express Invitational... Strong effort on his return to the SENIOR TOUR in October at The Transamerica... Tied for fourth just one stroke off the pace after two rounds, but closed with a 76 to finish T20... Once again one of the most accurate drivers on the SENIOR TOUR (fourth overall).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Set a SENIOR TOUR mark for most money earned in a season without a win: $1,169,707... Broke the record of $763,382 established by J.C. Snead in 1996... Played some of his best golf during a four-month period from mid-May to mid-August, finishing in the top 10 in 12 of 15 events, including eight top-five finishes... Battled good friend Graham Marsh to the final hole before falling one stroke short at the U.S. Senior Open... Contended all the way at Springhouse GC and was runner-up by two strokes to Gil Morgan at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland... Finished one shy of Bob Eastwood at the Bell Atlantic after the final round was cancelled by heavy rain... Led all players in sub-par rounds for the second year in succession (69) and nearly led outright in Rounds in the 60s once again, finishing in a tie with Gil Morgan for the top spot with 44... Teamed with Marsh in March to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf near Palm Springs, CA... Lost a playoff to Gary Player at Senior British Open. 1996: Voted SENIOR TOUR Rookie of the Year when he earned $1,357,987 on the strength of four official wins... Won the first event of the year, the Puerto Rico Senior Tournament of Champions, when he birdied the final two holes to nip Jim Colbert... Was the first of three times he would finish one spot ahead of Colbert in the winner's circle... The others were at The Transamerica, by one stroke, and at the Northville Long Island Classic, by three strokes... Also won Bruno's Memorial Classic in a playoff over Kermit Zarley and John Paul Cain. 1995: Made debut with a T5 at The Transamerica (tied for lead after 36 holes) and two weeks later, became just the fourth player to Monday qualify and win the event (first since Rives McBee in 1989) when he claimed the Ralphs Senior Classic at Wilshire CC... Earned an immediate one-year exemption when he came from four strokes behind with a final-round 65 to nip Jim Colbert.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: A prolific winner in South Africa, he played on the PGA European Tour from 1977 through 1994... First of two victories in Europe came at the 1983 Benson & Hedges International Open, where he defeated Bernhard Langer by one stroke... Also defeated Seve Ballesteros by four strokes to claim the 1986 Suze Open at Cannes Mougins... Represented South Africa in the 1975 World Cup and was on the South African team for the 1991 and 1992 Dunhill Cups... Led the South African Order of Merit in 1977, 1978, 1984 and 1986 and had his best year on the PGA European Tour in 1990, finishing in 16th place on the Order of Merit with £166,227... Selected as the Golfer of the Year in South Africa for 1996... Once shot 59 at the par-72 ERPM Golf Course in Johannesburg... Has made 18 aces in his career.

PERSONAL: Says the biggest thrill of his career came at the 1996 PGA Seniors' Championship, when he played with Arnold Palmer for the first time and recorded his first hole-in-one on the SENIOR TOUR that day...Lists Gary Player and Palmer as his heroes and his late wife, Helen, as the most influential person in his career...His brother Roy is his caddie...Has worked with South African teacher Dennis Hutchinson.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISH: T35 — Southwestern Bell Dominion.

1998 SEASON: Made just a dozen appearances, the fewest since he joined the SENIOR TOUR on a full-time basis...Did not play an event from mid-April until mid-October while spending time at home with his wife, Carole, who died in September following a battle with cancer...His best finish was a T35 at the Southwestern Bell Dominion where he also was T2 in the MasterCard Champions competition...One of the surprises at the 1998 Masters when he fired an opening-round 72.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Recorded his first hole-in-one on the SENIOR TOUR at the MasterCard Champions Championship in Myrtle Beach...Aced the ninth hole at The Dunes Club in the second round of the event, the last of 12 holes-in-one that year. 1995: Won the inaugural MasterCard Champions Championship at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, defeating Harold Henning with a par on the first playoff hole...His $85,000 payday for winning that event vaulted him to the top of the MasterCard Champions money list that season ($226,593). 1984: Won his only official SENIOR TOUR title at the Citizens Union Senior Classic, defeating Billy Casper and the late Rod Funseth by two strokes...Win in Kentucky was extra special because of his college ties to the area...Teamed with Billy Casper to capture the Legends of Golf by three strokes over Miller Barber and Julius Boros.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Won all 10 of his PGA TOUR titles in a span of 11 seasons...Biggest victory came at Augusta National in 1967, when he won the Masters Tournament by one stroke over Bobby Nichols...Fell to Jack Nicklaus in a three-way, 18-hole Masters playoff with Tommy Jacobs the year prior...Suffered a near-fatal ulcer attack the night before the start of the 1972 Masters Tournament, but recovered well enough to win the Canadian Open that same year, one of five top-10 performances...Enjoyed his most productive year on the PGA TOUR in 1973, when he earned $93,502...Winner of the 1949 U.S. Junior Championship...Member of the United States Ryder Cup Teams in 1967 and 1971.

PERSONAL: Received the Ben Hogan Award from the Golf Writers Association of America after the 1972 season for his "courage in the face of trying circumstances."

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 2 — 1998 Bell Atlantic Classic; T2 — GTE Classic; T3 — Las Vegas Senior Classic, First of America Classic, The Transamerica.

1998 SEASON: Turned in outstanding season in his first full year on the SENIOR TOUR... Was 11th on the money list at the close of the campaign, but earned $1,025,425... Was one of a record-setting 11 players to hit the $1 million mark in season earnings... Had 12 top-10 finishes and was in the top 25 in 26 of 31 events he played... Came close to the winner's circle twice... Appeared to be on his way at the GTE Classic in February before playing the final three holes at three-over and finishing T2... Fashioned a final round 65 at the Bell Atlantic Classic but eventually lost to Jay Sigel on the third extra hole... Contended at several others, as reflected by his five other top five finishes... Starting with his final round at the U.S. Senior Open (finished T7), he shot par-or-better in 31 of his final 36 rounds... Was also one of the top finishers on the SENIOR TOUR with a Final Round Scoring Average of 70.16... Led all players in sand saves and was seventh in the All-Around category.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Made the most of his limited appearances, earning $202,908 in seven events... Made his debut in April at the PGA Seniors' Championship, where he finished T35... Had four straight top-10 finishes at one point, starting with a T10 at the U.S. Senior Open, where he shot a third-round 66, which was low round of the tournament... Nearly reached the winner's circle at the Northville Long Island Classic... After rounds of 64-70, was tied for the 36-hole lead with Dana Quigley and Walter Hall... Contended until the final hole before he missed a short putt that would have put him in a playoff with Jay Sigel and eventual winner Quigley... T9 the following week after Monday qualifying at the First of America Classic... Closed out his year with a T5 at the Vantage Championship, where he won $66,000... In addition, made five starts on the PGA European Seniors Tour, finishing seventh on the final money list... Earned fully exempt status for the 1998 season by finishing second at the 1997 SENIOR PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: A long-time standout on the PGA European Tour, where he won seven times...Finished in the top 10 on the Order of Merit six times, including three consecutive years (1983-85)...Best season was 1983, when he finished fourth...Had some record performances in Europe...Still shares the record for lowest nine-hole score with a 9-under-par 27 at the 1978 Ebel European Masters-Swiss Open in Crans-sur-Sierre...Eight years later, he shot an 11-under-par 61 on the same course...That round included 11 birdies, which tied the PGA European Tour record at the time...Won more than 1.25 million pounds in his career...Enjoyed success in Ryder Cup play...Was a member of the European team in 1981-83-85-89...His 1985 singles victory over Fuzzy Zoeller helped the Europeans win their first Ryder Cup Match in 28 years...Four years later, at The Belfry, his four-foot putt on the 18th hole to defeat Ken Green assured the Cup would remain in European hands for another two years...His overall record in Ryder Cup play was 5-4-2...Teamed with countryman Manuel Pinero to help Spain win the 1982 World Cup in Acapulco, and two years later teamed with Jose Rivero for another Spanish victory in Rome...Was the medalist at the 1984 event...Has five career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Began playing the game after working as a caddie as a youngster in Madrid...Says his biggest thrill in golf was winning his first event as a professional at South Sebastian in 1969.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 2 — The Home Depot Invitational; Kroger Senior Classic.

1998 SEASON: Failed to finish in the top 31 for the first time in his career (45th on final money list), but made two solid victory bids... Fell in a two-hole playoff with Jim Dent at The Home Depot Invitational and then was one of five players in a playoff at the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic won by Hugh Baiocchi... Came from five strokes back in Charlotte, thanks to a closing round 65 to get into the playoff with Dent and fired his low round of the year (64) to earn the right to compete in the playoff near Cincinnati... Continued to enjoy success in the MasterCard Champions competition, finishing as the 60-and-over's leading money winner with $254,260... Posted Super Senior victories at The Home Depot Invitational and Kroger Senior Classic... Went over $8 million in all-time earnings with his T19 and check for $24,920 at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship... Saved his best effort for last, firing a closing round 66 to win the MasterCard Champions Championship in Myrtle Beach and the subsequent $85,000 first prize... Teamed with son David to win Father-Son Challenge in December (T19).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Appearance in the top 31 (21st) made it 12 consecutive years fully exempt from the prior year's money, the longest streak among SENIOR TOUR players... One of his best efforts came in the season-opening event in Hawaii, where he was third behind Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan in the MasterCard Championship... T3 at the Toshiba Senior Classic, one stroke out of a playoff... Fourth-place effort at the Nationwide Championship pushed him over the $7 million mark in SENIOR TOUR earnings, making him just the second player to surpass that level at the time (Lee Trevino the first)... Also won $252,690 in MasterCard Champions money and led the over-60 competition with eight wins... Claimed four consecutive MasterCard titles at the start of the season, eight in a row dating to 1996. 1996: Last official title at Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic was 23rd of his career and pushed him into third place on the all-time SENIOR TOUR list... Was an easy eight-stroke winner in the MasterCard Champions event the day before, and become the third of just four players to complete the ultimate "double dip"... Won $760,179, which was second best year of his career... Won the season-ending MasterCard Champions Championship in his first attempt in that event... Earned a then-record $266,100 along the way, breaking Jim Fretz's MasterCard Champions mark of $255,550 set in 1993... Made the cut in the British Open and finished 70th at Royal Lytham & St. Annes. 1995: Won second Hyatt Regency

Maui Kaanapali Classic with a 10-foot birdie putt on third extra hole to defeat Dave Stockton. 1994: Finished out of top 10 on money list for first time ever, but became the first player to earn $5 million in SENIOR TOUR earnings when he was T18 at the BellSouth Senior Classic. 1993: Won his third Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average (69.59) and, at the time, became quickest to reach $1 million in a single season (26 events)...Win at Quicksilver Classic produced largest check of his career: $157,500...Second-place finish to Dave Stockton on the money list tied Miller Barber's all-time record of eight consecutive years among the top 10 in official earnings. 1992: Produced seventh consecutive year among top 10 on money list and won back-to-back events at Raley's Senior Gold Rush and Transamerica Senior Golf Classic. 1991: Won the GTE Suncoast Classic for the second time in three years and became the first multiple champion in the event. 1990: Won twice, including defense of his Digital Seniors Classic title, and also surpassed Miller Barber for the top spot on the SENIOR TOUR career money list during season...Was only player to break par the final day at GTE Kaanapali Classic and it helped him to four-stroke win in Hawaii. 1989: Claimed five titles and was leading money-winner for second consecutive year with record $725,887...Won third straight Sunwest Bank/Charley Pride Classic, becoming only the second player to claim the same tournament for three consecutive years...Established a SENIOR TOUR record for lowest 54-hole numerical score at the NYNEX/Golf Digest Commemorative (193, 17-under), since equaled by Charles Coody and Gibby Gilbert. 1988: Five wins helped make him the leading money-winner...Posted back-to-back victories at NYNEX/Golf Digest Commemorative and Sunwest Bank/Charley Pride Classic...Lost to Gary Player in 18-hole playoff at U.S. Senior Open at Medinah CC. 1987: Won three times and was third on money list. 1986: Set SENIOR TOUR record for most money won in a year without a victory — $261,170, a record broken a year later by Dale Douglass.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Perhaps the most successful lefthander to play professional golf, with 75 victories worldwide, including wins on five continents: North America, Australia, Europe, Africa and Asia...Has won at least one event in nine of the 13 years he has played the SENIOR TOUR...Owns 23 SENIOR TOUR titles, which places him third all-time behind Lee Trevino (28) and Miller Barber (24)...Was the second player over the $6 million mark in SENIOR TOUR earnings (T12 at the 1996 GTE Suncoast Classic), after being the first to top the $3-, $4- and $5-million plateaus...Was the first lefthander to win on the PGA TOUR when he captured the 1963 Houston Open by one stroke over Fred Hawkins...Last PGA TOUR victory came at the 1974 Greater Greensboro Open, by one stroke over Raymond Floyd and Lee Trevino...Biggest thrill in golf came when he defeated Phil Rodgers in a 36-hole playoff for the 1963 British Open Championship at Royal Lytham and St. Annes...Most productive year on the PGA TOUR was 1967, when he pocketed $72,468 for 11th place on the money list...Won the 1954 New Zealand Open at age 18, the youngest champion of that event...Has a goal to compete in that tournament in the year 2004, 50 years after his victory...Has had seven career holes-in-one, including two on the SENIOR TOUR.

PERSONAL: Does everything righthanded except games requiring two hands...Designed one 18-hole resort course (Millbrook) and a nine-hole course (Matarangi) in New Zealand...Received the prestigious Order of the British Empire from the Queen of England in 1972 and was honored as a Commander of the British Empire in 1992...Worked in the banking industry for six years (1954-60) before embarking on a golf career.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T2—Kroger Senior Classic; 8—Emerald Coast Classic.

1998 SEASON: Failed to finish in the top 31 for the first time since joining the SENIOR TOUR in 1996... Was in the 32nd slot for the last six weeks of the campaign, but after finishing T44 at the final full field event of the year, the Pacific Bell Senior Classic, he ended up 35th on the final money list... Slowed early in the year with back problems that caused him to withdraw from two of his first three starts in Florida... One of five players involved in a playoff (Hugh Baiocchi, Bob Charles, Larry Nelson and Bruce Summerhays were the others) at the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic won by Baiocchi on the second extra hole... Got himself into position with a SENIOR TOUR career-best 64 in the second round at the Golf Center at Kings Island... Posted four other top 10 finishes, including a solo eighth-place finish at the Emerald Coast Classic.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Made 35 appearances, one less than SENIOR PGA TOUR 'ironmen' Walter Morgan and Bobby Strobe, and played 111 rounds, second to Morgan's 113... Made a late-season push for a spot among the top 31 for a second consecutive year... Was in 36th place on the money list after the Emerald Coast Classic but reeled off four top-10 finishes in his last five starts ($167,078 in winnings), which vaulted him into the top 31 and earned a trip to the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship... T2 at The Transamerica, posting the final day's lowest round (67)... Finished the year sixth in putting and fifth in birdies. 1996: Came close to posting his first SENIOR TOUR win when he led the VFW Championship in suburban Kansas City by two strokes after 36 holes, but ballooned to a 78 on Sunday to finish T12... Played some of his best golf during a three-month span from June until September, with 10 top-20 finishes in 12 starts... Capped his solid year with a T6 at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, earning a career-best check for $70,000. 1995: Played in 26 NIKE TOUR events to prepare for the SENIOR TOUR, and finished among the top-10 three times... Became a fully exempt member of the SENIOR TOUR for 1996 after his fourth-place finish at the SENIOR PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Prior to joining the SENIOR TOUR, played on the NIKE TOUR intermittently from 1990 through 1995 and earned $224,854... Won two events in 1991: Knoxville Open and Tulsa Open... Best year on the PGA TOUR was 1981, when he earned $85,009 to place 51st on the money list... Has four second-place finishes on the PGA TOUR and a victory in the unofficial 1988 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic... Has made eight career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: One of only two men to have played in the United States Open in both golf and tennis (the late Ellsworth Vines was the other)...Was a three-time tennis All-America selection at Trinity University in San Antonio, TX...Began playing golf as a child in his hometown of Belleville, IL...Cites his father, Frank, as the most influential person in his career and lists Arnold Palmer, Rod Laver and Butch Buchholz among his heroes.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1 — Cadillac NFL Golf Classic; T5 — Nationwide Championship.

1998 SEASON: Saw his chances of finishing in the top 31 slip away once again in the final full-field event of the year at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic in Los Angeles...Was in the 31st spot heading into the event, but despite finishing T16, was passed by tournament victor Joe Inman and Brian Barnes...Finished 33rd on the final chart, one below his 1997 effort...Still enjoyed a career-best year, with $513,815 in prize money and his first SENIOR TOUR victory...The win at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic in June came thanks to a birdie on the first extra playoff hole to nip Jim Colbert and Larry Nelson for the $165,000 top prize, a career best...Other top-10 came in suburban Atlanta when he won $55,800 with a T5 at the Nationwide Championship...Was the 36-hole leader by one stroke at the Southwestern Bell Dominion in San Antonio in March before closing with a 74 to finish T12...Followed with a T11 the next week at The Tradition.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Just missed earning a spot in the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, missing a place among the top 31 by $2,080...Still earned almost $200,000 more than he made in 1996 on the strength of four top-five performances...Closed with 67 at the TPC at Tampa Bay to place second, three strokes behind David Graham at the GTE Classic...T5 at the Nationwide Championship...Also T2 at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship where he won $120,600 for his runner-up finish to Larry Gilbert...Went over the $1 million mark in SENIOR TOUR career earnings with a fifth-place finish at the rain-shortened Bell Atlantic Classic. 1996: Best finish a T2 at the SBC Dominion Seniors where he was tied with four others for the lead after 36 holes before shooting a final-round 71...Earned fully exempt status for 1997 by finishing first at the 1996 SENIOR PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament...Rounds of 67-72-66-73 at the Valley Course at the TPC at Sawgrass gave him a three-stroke victory. 1994: Had a solid rookie year that included 13 top-25 finishes...Initially earned a partial exemption after a 10th-place finish at the SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament at Grenefele in the fall of 1993...Had made the decision to pursue the SENIOR TOUR full-time after serving as the Tournament Director for the NIKE TOUR since its inception.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played the PGA TOUR from 1968-1978...Won his first TOUR title in his rookie season at the 1968 Haig Open, defeating Chi Chi Rodriguez by two strokes...Had his best year on TOUR in 1973, when he was among the top 30 on the money list with $89,182 and won the Andy Williams-San Diego Open...One of only four men to claim both a U.S. Amateur and British Amateur in the same year (1967)...Was the first since Lawson Little in 1935 to accomplish the double after he defeated Ron Cerrudo, 2 & 1, at Formby Golf Club in England and then topped Vinnie Giles by one stroke at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs...Served a six-month tour of duty in the U.S. Army between his victories...Recipient of the 1968 Bob Jones Award from the USGA...A member of the victorious 1967 Walker Cup team and the successful U.S. America's Cup team...Has had eight career holes-in-one as a professional.

PERSONAL: Started working for the PGA TOUR in 1979 as the Director of Marketing for the Tournament Players Clubs at Sawgrass...Tournament Director for the old TPS Series in 1984-85 before moving to the SENIOR TOUR as a rules official from 1986-88...Appointed Tournament Director of the NIKE TOUR in 1989 and was instrumental in its development...Father was a golf professional who started him playing the game at age four.

earnings... Shot best round of his career, a final-round 61 in defense of his title at Ralphs Senior Classic, but still finished second at the event to Jack Kiefer... Became only fourth player to shoot the SENIOR TOUR's lowest 18-hole score ever (since surpassed by Isao Aoki in 1997)... Lost to Ray Floyd on the first playoff hole at The Tradition despite four rounds in the 60s and 17-under-par total... Teamed with Charles Coody for win at Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 1993: Defeated Jim Dent with birdie on first extra hole to win the Ralphs Senior Classic in Los Angeles thanks to a 64 on Sunday, his lowest round of the year. 1992: Posted 16 top-10 finishes, including wins at the NYNEX Commemorative (defeated Terry Dill in a playoff) and the Ameritech Senior Open and was sixth on final money list with career-best $694,564. 1991: Surpassed $600,000 in season earnings with victory at Showdown Classic in Utah... Trio of second places were among 17 top-10 finishes. 1990: Went over half-million dollar mark for first time and was eighth on the final money list... Beat Gary Player in a playoff for Bell Atlantic title and also teamed with Charles Coody for win at unofficial Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title... Twice lost in playoffs to Mike Hill during the year. 1988: Victorious at GTE Classic, leading event from start to finish... 1987: Finished seventh on money list and set SENIOR TOUR mark with most money won in one year without a victory ($296,429). 1986: Had banner rookie year, finishing third on the money list and garnering four wins, including U.S. Senior Open at Scioto CC by one stroke over Gary Player... Was the leader or co-leader in nine of his first 10 rounds on the SENIOR TOUR.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Joined the PGA TOUR in 1963, but his first official win did not come until the 1969 Azalea Open... Captured the Kemper Open that same season and went on to finish 12th on the official money list with $91,553, his best TOUR year... Won the 1970 Phoenix Open by one stroke over Gene Littler and Howie Johnson... Play was curtailed by assorted injuries throughout the '70s... Member of the 1969 United States Ryder Cup Team... Has made 17 career holes-in-one.

1998 SEASON: Became a fully exempt player on the 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR by garnering medalist honors at the SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament at the Grenelefe Golf and Tennis Resort... Fired rounds of 67-70-71-67—275... Shared the lead after the first and third rounds and then closed with the lowest round on the last day, a 5-under-par 67, for a three-stroke victory over Bruce Fleisher... His 13-under-par 275 was a SENIOR TOUR record for Q-School... It was also the second time he was a medalist at a PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament... Shared co-medalist honors (with Jimmy Johnston) at the 1996 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament... Made six appearances on the SENIOR TOUR after turning 50 in June mostly as an open qualifier... Made his debut in August at the Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic and was T51... Best finish came in October at Raley's Gold Rush Classic near Sacramento where he was T4 and won $54,000... Won $164,918 in six appearances and was 67th on the final money list... Made two starts on the PGA TOUR: T7 at the Deposit Guaranty Classic and T63 at the CVS Charity Classic and won $39,315... Competed in nine NIKE TOUR events with a T10 at the NIKE Carolina Classic his best finish.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Had a long and distinguished amateur career before turning professional in 1995... Member of two Walker Cup teams (1991-93) and also represented the United States on three World Amateur Cup teams (1990-92-94)... Joined the NIKE TOUR in March 1995 and made an immediate splash, winning three times: NIKE Mississippi Gulf Coast Classic, NIKE Texarkana Open and the NIKE TOUR Championship... Was that circuit's only three-time winner, and two of those titles came in playoffs... Bested Franklin Langham in the first at the Mississippi event and then slipped by John Maginnes to win the NIKE TOUR Championship at Settindown Creek GC in Atlanta... Second to Jerry Kelly on the final money list and earned a full exemption to the 1996 PGA TOUR... At age 47, he was the oldest rookie in PGA TOUR history when he began play in 1996... In two seasons on the TOUR, he won slightly more than $200,000... Made 28 starts each year and won $136,789 in 1996, his best year on TOUR... In his final year as an amateur in 1994, he won five titles, including the Porter Cup and the Sunnehanna Amateur... Was a semi-finalist at the 1992 U.S. Amateur, losing 2 & 1 to Justin Leonard at Muirfield Village... He was the medalist at the 1991 event.

PERSONAL: A member of the Norwich University Sports Hall of Fame as a hockey player... Says his unorthodox swing developed from practicing in a low-ceiling room as a youngster in Massachusetts... Played on a number of amateur teams with fellow SENIOR TOUR player Jay Sigel.

BEST PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH: T19 — 1982 Tallahassee Open.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $1,283

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 2 — Pittsburgh Senior Classic; T3 — Bell Atlantic Classic.

1998 SEASON: Continued to enjoy success on the SENIOR PGA TOUR... Won nearly $200,000 more than he did in his rookie season and finished 17th on the final money list, a jump of 11 spots, with $734,573... Got off to a good start with five straight finishes in the top 20, including T9 at the GTE Classic where he was within two strokes of the lead after 36 holes... Perhaps his best golf came in a three-week stretch in late May and early June that saw him finish T8 at Saint Luke's Classic, T3 at the Bell Atlantic Classic and then second at the Pittsburgh Senior Classic for second year in succession... Three straight sub-70 rounds helped him to a T4 at the Emerald Coast Classic and he was also T4 at the inaugural State Farm Senior Classic... Shot lowest round as a senior (64) in the final round of the EMC² Kaanapali Classic... One of the long hitters on the SENIOR PGA TOUR with an average Driving Distance of 280.1 (3rd overall)... His length off the tee helped him finish third in Eagles and he also had more eagles than any other player (15)... Final Round Scoring Average of 70.15 ranked sixth overall.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Had a solid rookie year with more than $500,000 in earnings on the strength of seven top-10 finishes... Got into five of his 24 tournaments via Monday qualifying and made two strong bids for his first senior victory... Tied for first with two holes to play at the First of America Classic, but lost by one stroke when Gil Morgan birdied the 17th hole at Egypt Valley GC... Two weeks later, as a Monday qualifier alternate, he had a four-stroke lead after 48 holes of the Pittsburgh Senior Classic, only to wind up in a playoff... Fell to good friend Hugh Baiocchi with a bogey on the sixth extra hole... Moved into the top 31 to stay when he carded rounds of 66-66-68 at The Moors to finish T3 at the Emerald Coast Classic... Used a final-round 66 to finish T13 and earn $16,150 at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic, which secured the final spot in the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship field by $2,080. 1996: Earned a conditional exemption on the SENIOR TOUR for 1997 after finishing 15th at the 1996 National Qualifying Tournament on the TPC at Sawgrass Valley Course... Won a four-way playoff for that position, making a six-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole... Earned a trip to the Q-School finals by finishing third at the regional event at Marsh Creek CC in St. Augustine, FL... Made his SENIOR TOUR debut on a sponsor's exemption at the Transamerica, where his son David caddied for him (T51).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Prepped for the SENIOR TOUR by playing the Golden Bear Tour and finished 10th on the money list with a victory in the DMV Rangefinder Classic... Florida Player of the Year in 1978... Selected North Florida Teacher of the Year in 1992... Has had one hole-in-one in his professional career.

PERSONAL: Father of PGA TOUR star David Duval, the PGA TOUR's top money winner in 1998... Spent the majority of his pre-SENIOR TOUR career in north Florida as the head professional at Timuquana CC in Jacksonville and The Plantation at Ponte Vedra Beach... Also was a teaching professional at the Amelia Island Golf School on Amelia Island... A college teammate of Hubert Green at Florida State in the late 1960s... His late father, Henry J. (Hap) Duval, was a Life Member of the PGA of America... His brother James is the PGA professional at Mission Valley GC in Sarasota, FL... Biggest thrill in golf came when he was grouped with Jack Nicklaus in the final round of the 1997 U.S. Senior Open at Olympia Fields CC.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T5 — Nationwide Championship; T6 — LG Championship.

1998 SEASON: Was unable to duplicate his 1997 year that saw him finish 11th on the money list and claim two tournament victories...In 30 starts in '98, he amassed $440,163 and finished 39th on the final money list...Some of his better efforts came early in the campaign with three top-10 finishes in his first six starts...Was eighth in the year's opening event in Hawaii, and three weeks later, was T6 at the LG Championship in Florida...Earned his biggest paycheck in June ($55,800) when he was a T5 at the Nationwide Championship in suburban Atlanta...Was tied for the lead after 36 holes with Gil Morgan following consecutive rounds of 68, but finished with a 2-over-par 74 on Sunday to drop into a tie for fifth place...Tied his career-low round as a senior by opening with a 64 at the EMC² Kaanapali Classic on Maui in October.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: More than doubled the earnings from his rookie year, thanks to multiple wins for the first time since 1984...Picked up his first SENIOR TOUR title at the rain-shortened Bell Atlantic Classic...A 27-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole on Saturday gave him a one-stroke lead over John Bland and Bob E. Smith that proved to be the winning margin when the final round at Chester Valley GC was washed out...Dedicated victory to his father, who had suffered a series of strokes the previous week...Won again at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic by two stroke over Rick Acton in wire-to-wire fashion...Made two late birdies to secure the victory in front of a large gallery of family and friends...Did not have a round above par in August and September, playing four events in a combined 29-under-par during those two months...During that period, tied his career low round with a 6-under-par 64 in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic. 1996: Became eligible for his first SENIOR TOUR event at the American Express Invitational, and turned in par or better scores in nine of his first 10 rounds as a senior...Made a serious bid for his first SENIOR TOUR title at the Emerald Coast Classic, rallying from a four-stroke deficit to finish in a five-way tie for first before losing to Lee Trevino in the ensuing playoff.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Last of three PGA TOUR titles came at the 1985 Byron Nelson Classic...Was the beneficiary of Payne Stewart's double-bogey on the last hole, then defeated Stewart on the first hole of their playoff...Did not win his first title, the 1984 USF&G Classic, until his 13th year on the PGA TOUR...Captured a second title later that same season at the Danny Thomas-Memphis Classic and went on to have his best year on TOUR with $232,742 and a spot among the top-25 money-winners...First earned his player's card in the spring 1969 Q-School, capturing medalist honors...Didn't start full-time on TOUR until 1972 because of a stint in the U.S. military...Had four holes-in-one on the PGA TOUR and nine overall.

PERSONAL: Started to play golf at age four as a result of his father being in the golf business...Helped his family construct Dry Creek Ranch Golf Club near Sacramento in the late 1960s.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T3 — Southwestern Bell Dominion; T5 — Toshiba Senior Classic.

1998 SEASON: Got off to a quick start, winning nearly half his money in his first seven starts of the year before inconsistency plagued his game...Finished 42nd on the final money list, his lowest level since joining the SENIOR TOUR in 1994...Recorded three of his four top-10 finishes in those first seven starts...Best outings came in back-to-back starts — T5 at the Toshiba Senior Classic and T3 at the Southwestern Bell Dominion...Started the year with a solo 10th-place finish at the MasterCard Championship and he was also T9 at the Nationwide Championship.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Had only one top-10 finish in the first half of the season, but reeled off 10 in the second half after finding a new driver...Finished with his highest ranking ever on the money list, eclipsing the $700,000 plateau for the first time...Starting at the First of America Classic, was among the top 10 in eight of his last 11 tournaments...Recorded seven consecutive sub-70 rounds from late September through mid-October...Runner-up at the Vantage Championship when he equaled Hale Irwin's Tanglewood Park course record and his career low round of 62 on the last day of the tournament...Won his third SENIOR TOUR title the next week at The Transamerica and became the SENIOR TOUR's 20th different winner that year...Had bogeys on three of his first four holes on Sunday, but eventually overcame a three-stroke deficit to win by four...$120,000 check at Silverado gave him $252,000 over the two-week span. 1996: Outdueled local favorite Jim Colbert to win the VFW Senior Championship by two strokes...His $135,000 first-place check was more than he had made in 23 previous events and proved to be more than a third of his total earnings for the year. 1995: Did not win an event, but recorded 11 top-10 finishes, including a playoff loss to Bruce Devlin at the rain-shortened FHP Health Care Classic in Ojai, CA. 1994: Selected by his peers as the Comeback Player of the Year after claiming his first win in 13 years at the Quicksilver Classic...The $157,500 paycheck was his best ever and more than he made in his best year on the PGA TOUR (1980: $122,352)...Almost became a multiple champion, but fell to Bob Murphy in a five-hole playoff at the Raley's Senior Gold Rush.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Made the first of seven 1993 appearances at the GTE North Classic after turning 50 in early September...Had missed 22 cuts in a row on the PGA TOUR prior to finishing T87 at the 1993 Buick Invitational of California...Won four titles between 1971 and 1981, with his last TOUR victory coming in the 1981 Tallahassee Open...Defeated Bob Murphy and Mark O'Meara in a playoff for the Tallahassee title...Strung together back-to-back $100,000 seasons in 1988-89...Braved horrible weather conditions to claim the 1980 Bay Hill Classic and went on to finish 31st on the money list...Led the TOUR in eagles that year with 16...First title, at the 1971 Greater Milwaukee Open, helped him earn his only top-10 finish on the official money list (ninth)...Earned his first PGA TOUR player's card in the 1967 Qualifying Tournament...Semifinalist at the 1964 U.S. Amateur at Canterbury GC near Cleveland, OH...Named to the 1965 Walker Cup and America's Cup teams...Has had 11 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Blossomed into one of the country's finest amateurs while at Oklahoma State...Started in the game at age 13 in the junior programs at his family's club in Waco, TX.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1988: Last SENIOR TOUR victory came at the Gus Machado Classic in Key Biscayne almost a year to the day after he suffered a mild heart attack. 1986: Successfully defended title at the Merrill Lynch/Golf Digest Commemorative where he posted the low 36 (131) and low 54 (199) scores on the SENIOR TOUR for the year. 1985: Enjoyed his most productive season when he won four times (three of those victories came in playoffs)...Finished second on the money list to Peter Thomson... Established the SENIOR TOUR record for lowest 18-hole score (11-under-par 61/Newport CC/Merrill Lynch Golf Digest Commemorative), a mark broken by Isao Aoki's 60 in 1997... Beat Thomson with an eagle-3 on the first extra hole of the '85 Commemorative, earning the distinction of being the last player to win a SENIOR TOUR playoff with an eagle.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: First of four PGA TOUR titles came at the 1974 Monsanto Open, where he birdied three of the last four holes to catch Peter Oosterhuis and won with an 18-foot birdie putt on the fourth extra playoff hole... Defeated Lee Trevino on the eighth extra hole to win the 1978 Greater Milwaukee Open, equaling the second longest playoff in PGA TOUR history... Member of the 1979 United States Ryder Cup Team... In 1972, he became the first African-American to go to South Africa and compete in a multi-racial competition... In 1975, was the first person of color to play in the Masters Tournament... Played on the UGA Tour before coming to the PGA TOUR... Was present on Sunday in 1997 for Tiger Woods' victory march in the Masters Tournament at Augusta National... Has had five holes-in-one in his professional career.

PERSONAL: Got started in golf at age nine, after his parents died, by caddying as a means to put food on the table... Though he never attended college, was inducted into the NCAA Hall of Fame for his contributions to blacks and colleges... Received an honorary Doctor of Human Letters degree from Daniel Hale Williams University in 1973... Serves as host for the annual Lee Elder Invitational to aid underprivileged children... Also does charitable events for the Boys & Girls Clubs and the American Diabetes Association... Cites Ted Rhodes as the most influential person in his career.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $13,986

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 2 — Las Vegas Senior Classic, U.S. Senior Open; 3 — The Tradition; T3 — American Express Invitational.

1998 SEASON: Failed to register a victory for the first time since joining the SENIOR PGA TOUR, but enjoyed another successful and lucrative season...Was 12th on the final money list and just missed becoming the 12th millionaire on the circuit, finishing with $996,338...Made several serious bids for victory during the campaign...Closed with a 68 and fell one stroke shy of winner Hale Irwin at Las Vegas...Made a spirited run at the U.S. Senior Open, finishing with a 68, but once again lost by one stroke to Irwin...Finished alone in third place at The Tradition and also tied for third in the American Express Invitational...Started and finished the year with strong performances...Tied for fourth at the MasterCard Championship in Hawaii in January and was also T4 at the year's final event, the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship...Missed nearly a month during the summer with a hip problem...Only Hale Irwin (68.14) and Larry Nelson (69.36) bettered his Final Round scoring average (69.46).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Enjoyed another solid year, winning $689,915 and finishing 17th on the final money list, one place better than in 1996...Surpassed his 1996 total by more than $80,000...Emerged victorious at the final Bank One Classic when he seized the lead with three holes to play and went on to record a one-stroke victory in Lexington over Isao Aoki...Had a string of 19 rounds of par-or-better during the summer, and twice had five consecutive sub-70 rounds...Ended the season by finishing his last 13 events under par...1996: First win was a memorable one...Posted a one-stroke victory at the Burnet Senior Classic in July and in the process, became just the fifth Monday qualifier in SENIOR TOUR history to win a tournament...The breakthrough came in just his eighth start on the SENIOR TOUR and earned him $187,500, the largest check of his professional career...Was in contention with Hale Irwin in his first SENIOR TOUR start before finishing third at the 1996 PGA Seniors' Championship...A top-10 finisher in 10 of 19 starts and led the SENIOR TOUR in putting, nipping Bob Murphy 1.749 to 1.750.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Prior to joining the SENIOR TOUR, played on the PGA European Tour for more than two decades and collected five victories...When he won the 1992 Murphy's English Open at The Belfry, he did so in dramatic fashion, sinking an 87-foot putt for the victory...His triumph at age 46 made him the oldest winner on the European Tour since 48-year-old Neil Coles won the 1982 Sanyo Open...Initial European Tour win came in 1970, when he claimed the Heineken Dutch Open in Eindhoven...Also victorious at the Colgate PGA Championship in 1979 at St. Andrews, defeating Gary Player and Italy's Baldo Dasso by one stroke...Best season in Europe came in 1992, when he was 16th on the Order of Merit with winnings of £217,453 (well over $300,000)...Played in seven PGA TOUR events in 1977 and four the following year, making the cut in all 11 starts with winnings totaling $10,487...Best effort was a T11 at the 1977 Houston Open...Has won almost 100 tournaments in his career, including numerous South American titles...Member of five Argentine World Cup teams and also played on numerous other international teams...Once held the PGA European Tour record for most birdies in one round (10) at the 1983 Jersey Open on his way to a 62...Has 22 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: The second Argentinian to take a crack at the SENIOR PGA TOUR...Countryman Roberto De Vicenzo, winner of the 1967 British Open, played throughout the 1980s and early 1990s...Nickname is "Chino"...Competed on the European Tour with current SENIOR TOUR players John Bland, Hugh Baiocchi, Simon Hobday, Jose Maria Canizares and Brian Barnes...Born with one leg shorter than the other and walks with a slight limp...Caddied for Chi Chi Rodriguez at the 1962 World Cup in Argentina...One of his sons, Gustavo, was his caddie for his first senior win at the Burnet Senior Classic.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISH: T20 —The Transamerica

1998 SEASON: Had best finish since 1995 when he was T20 at The Transamerica in October...His opening-round 68 in Napa matched his low round of the year at the Kroger Senior Classic...Was 13th on the final MasterCard Champions money list with a victory at the GTE Classic in his second start of the campaign...It was his first win in the 60-and-over category since 1994 and also the 20th of his career...He is now third in that category all-time behind Don January (35) and Joe Jimenez (31).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Teamed with Miller Barber for runner-up honors in the Legendary Champions division of the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 1995: Highlight of the year came at The Tradition where he opened with a 67 and held a two-stroke lead over eventual winner Jack Nicklaus...Remained among the leaders for two more days and was just one stroke out of the lead heading into the final round...Closed with a 67, but missed getting into the playoff by one stroke and finished third. 1994: Despite various injuries (rotator cuff and wrist) still won five MasterCard Champions titles, the most by any player over 60. 1993: Had most successful season of his SENIOR PGA TOUR career, winning $424,333 and finishing 22nd on the money list...Three second-place finishes, included a runner-up at the Doug Sanders Celebrity Classic...Was the dominant player in the MasterCard Champions competition with nine wins and $255,550. 1992: Made the most of his first full year in the 60-and-over category with four wins. 1991: Won for first time in five seasons at the Bell Atlantic Classic...Withstood a challenge down the stretch from Lee Trevino and Jim Colbert to claim the title just 15 days shy of his 60th birthday. 1989: Lost in a four-way playoff at the GTE Classic and fell one stroke shy of Bruce Crampton at Ameritech Senior Open. 1986: First SENIOR TOUR victory came at the Greater Grand Rapids Open, where he defeated Gene Littler and Chi Chi Rodriguez on the first playoff hole...The victory was his first on TOUR in 27 years, 10 months and 19 days, the second longest span between wins on the PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR. 1985: Finished in top 10 on money list (9th) for only time in his career with a pair of second-place finishes. 1983: Closed with a 66 and was one of three runners-up to Miller Barber at the Hilton Head Seniors International. 1981: Debuted on the SENIOR TOUR at the Peter Jackson Champions and was T5 in Vancouver.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played the PGA TOUR full-time for 11 years through 1966...Only TOUR win came at the 1958 Vancouver Centennial, where he carded an 11-under-par 61 in the second round en route to a one-stroke decision over Billy Casper...Claimed three Caribbean Tour titles in the early 1960s...Fell to John Gentile on the second playoff hole at the 1978 PGA Club Professional Championship...Has had 20 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: In 1993, was chosen by his peers as recipient of the Hilton Bounceback Award and earned the Ben Hogan Award from the Golf Writers Association that same year...Was diagnosed with prostate cancer in October 1991 and successfully fought that battle...Also received the Mathews Foundation Man of the Year award for his willingness to go public with the illness...Became the first golfer inducted into the University of North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1991...Known as one of the SENIOR TOUR's nattiest dressers, sporting plus-fours and a Hogan-style cap...Among his biggest thrills in golf were inducting his father into the Carolinas PGA Hall of Fame and then joining him as an inductee this past year.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T2 — LG Championship; 3 — U.S. Senior Open.

1998 SEASON: Made 21 appearances and was 19th on the final money list with $702,472... Inconsistency was his foil again as he failed to win for second straight year... Ranked fourth in First Round Scoring Average, but was 46th in final rounds... Made a spirited bid at the U.S. Senior Open in July, posting the opening day's lone sub-par round... Held sole possession of the lead for the first three rounds and began play with a three-stroke advantage on Sunday, but could not hold off Hale Irwin and Vicente Fernandez and finished third, two behind Irwin... Saw another solid effort fall by the wayside in his second outing in Naples at the LG Championship... Appeared on the way to a playoff with Gil Morgan and Dale Douglass, but Morgan spoiled the scenario when he holed a sand wedge from 30 yards out for an eagle and a two-stroke win... His runner-up check at the LG Championship pushed him past $11 million in all-time earnings... First-round leader at the Vantage Championship after season-best 64 and finished T12... His T24 at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic earned him $10,057 and sent him past $6 million in SENIOR TOUR earnings... Captured his fifth straight Senior Skins title in January in Hawaii... Was 15th at Doral-Ryder Open and missed cut in his 34th Masters appearance.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Failed to win an official event for the first time since joining the SENIOR TOUR in 1992... Was 23rd on the money list with $584,755, thanks to 10 top-10 finishes... Had three third-place finishes, with two coming in consecutive starts at the GTE Classic and Southwestern Bell Dominion... Notched other third-place finish at the Northville Long Island Classic, where he finished just one stroke shy of making a playoff... Claimed his fourth consecutive Senior Skins Game title in January... Received Metropolitan Golf Writers Association Gold Tee Award. 1996: Was eighth on the money list with over $1 million for third year in succession... Two-stroke winner over Hale Irwin at FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship... Also third at The Tradition and U.S. Senior Open... Won his third straight Senior Skins and defended his Senior Slam crown. 1995: Only out of top 10 twice in 21 events with wins at PGA Seniors' Championship, Burnet Senior Classic and Emerald Coast Classic... Earned second Byron Nelson Award for lowest scoring average (69.47)... Second to Jim Colbert on final money list when he fell just one stroke shy of defending title at Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship... Birdied final hole at Burnet Senior Classic for his win and bested Tom Wargo on second extra hole to win Emerald Coast Classic where he also recorded his first SENIOR TOUR hole-in-one... SENIOR TOUR Player of the Month for April. 1994: Earned over $1 million for first time in pro career and won four tournaments, including dramatic victory at season-ending GOLF MAGAZINE SENIOR TOUR Championship where he holed birdie putt on fifth extra hole to defeat Jim Albuz... Won first SENIOR TOUR major at The Tradition beating Dale Douglass in overtime... Went wire-to-wire at Cadillac NFL Golf Classic... Won the Senior Skins Game... Earned the Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average (69.08) and joined Don January and Lee Trevino as the only players to win both a Byron Nelson Trophy and a Vardon Trophy (PGA TOUR-1983)... Won the Cadillac Series and was Player of the Month for April. 1993: Split his time between the SENIOR TOUR and PGA TOUR... Made just 14 starts and finished ninth on the money list... Captured the Gulfstream Aerospace Invitational in record form when he finished 22-under-par, 194 to set a SENIOR TOUR mark in relation to par for 54 holes... Won the Northville Long Island Classic when he shaved five strokes to win by two... A wild card selection for the American Ryder Cup team, he was instrumental in U.S. victory at the Belfry, and was the oldest player ever to compete in the prestigious matches. 1992: Won three times in just seven starts... Capped year by equalling SENIOR TOUR scoring record in relation to par at the SENIOR TOUR Championship in Puerto Rico with 19-under-par 197... Made history when he became the first player to win on both TOURs in the same year... First captured his 22nd PGA TOUR event and third Doral-Ryder Open... With that title, he joined Sam Snead as the only players to win TOUR events in four different decades... Won the GTE North Classic title just 16 days after turning 50 and donated winner's check of $67,500 to Hurricane Andrew Relief Fund.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: The winner of 35 TOUR events, including 13 on the SENIOR PGA TOUR... Enters 1999 third behind Hale Irwin and Lee Trevino in all-time money and should go over $12 million sometime in the season... Has shown his mettle in the majors and top events... On the SENIOR TOUR, he has won The Tradition ('94), PGA Seniors' Championship ('95) and the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship ('96), while on the PGA TOUR he owns wins at the Masters ('76), U.S. Open ('86), PGA Championship ('69, '81) and THE PLAYERS Championship ('81)... Has enjoyed immense success in Florida with nine TOUR victories... Shares with Bruce Summerhays and Trevino the SENIOR TOUR record for consecutive rounds at par or better — 27 — which he set in 1995... Was selected to eight U.S. Ryder Cup teams and captained the 1989 squad... Won his '76 Masters title by eight strokes, a record broken by Tiger Woods in 1997... Won the 1981 PLAYERS Championship in a playoff over Curtis Strange and Barry Jaeckel... Opened with a 63 at the 1982 PGA Championship at Southern Hills and went wire-to-wire... Came from behind with a 66 on Sunday at Shinnecock Hills to win the 1986 U.S. Open at age 43... Won his first event, the 1963 St. Petersburg Open, at age 20... Has had five holes-in-one on the PGA TOUR and one on the SENIOR TOUR.

PERSONAL: His family was named by Golfweek as the 1994 "Golf Family of the Year"... Also selected Golf World's "Man of the Year" for 1992... The son of a career Army man, he was exposed to golf at an early age but chose to pursue baseball until capturing the National Jaycees golf title in 1960... Remains a devoted Chicago Cubs fan... Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1989... His two sons, Raymond, Jr., a Wake Forest graduate, and Robert, are pursuing professional golf careers and his daughter, Christina, is a sophomore at Wake Forest.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 4 — Pittsburgh Senior Classic; T5 — BankBoston Classic.

1998 SEASON: Earned $314,171 in 22 appearances and was 53rd on the final money list...Enjoyed great success in the MasterCard Champions competition in his first full season in the 60-and-over category... Won four times and was third on the final money list with $234,500... Two of those victories helped propel him to his two top-10 finishes in the full field events... Won the Pittsburgh Senior Classic title and then finished alone in fourth place at Sewickley Heights GC... Also won at the BankBoston Classic and finished T5 overall... His other MasterCard Champions victories came in his first start at the Royal Caribbean Classic (T14 overall) and the Ameritech Senior Open (T23 overall)... Closed out the year with a solo second place finish at the MasterCard Champions Championship in Myrtle Beach just two strokes behind winner Bob Charles... Played in the PGA Championship at Sahalee CC with son Brent, the first time both a father and a son competed in that prestigious event.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Top performance of the year came in the season's first official event, the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai... Rebounded from opening-round 76 with 68-70 to finish T4... Only other top-10 came at the final Bank One Classic, the same week he joined the ranks of the MasterCard Champions... Won the 60-and-over event in his debut, with rounds of 68-67... Was the leader of the overall tournament after two days, as well, but faltered on the back nine at Kearney Hill Links on Sunday, closing with a 72 and T6 finish... Went over $4 million in SENIOR TOUR career money with his $8,300 check for a T27 at the Northville Long Island Classic. 1996: Rebounded from off-season foot surgery (bone spurs in right big toe) to claim first title in almost three years at the Greater Naples Intellinet Challenge... Second-round 63 gave him a three-stroke lead after 36, but needed a birdie on 17th in final round to clinch one-stroke victory over Isao Aoki... Voted as the SENIOR PGA TOUR Comeback Player of the Year. 1994: Played in just seven events after missing most of the year with a torn rotator cuff in his left shoulder... Underwent surgery in March and did not return until October at Raley's Senior Gold Rush where he was T5. 1993: Won second straight Infiniti Tournament of Champions to start the year and went on to have his finest year financially with an additional victory at the GTE West Classic. 1992: Started the year with a win at the Infiniti Tournament of Champions where he was a three-stroke victor. 1991: Tenth on the final money list... Went on a summer hot streak... Rallied to win the Kroger Senior Classic after T2 at the Southwestern Bell Classic the week before... Then registered thirds at the Ameritech Senior Open and the U.S. Senior Open. 1989: Third-place finish on the money list was best of his career... Won GTE Northwest Classic and went over the $500,000 mark in earnings... Passed the $1 million mark in SENIOR TOUR career earnings, reaching that level in two years, one month, a record at the time... Teamed with Harold Henning for win in unofficial Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 1988: In first full season on SENIOR TOUR had win at Pointe/Del E. Webb Arizona Classic and five second-place finishes... 1987: Found immediate success on the SENIOR TOUR, posting three wins and a second in 10 outings after turning 50 in September... Fired SENIOR TOUR career-best 62 in final round at Las Vegas Senior Classic that helped him to four-stroke win... The $135,000 he collected for winning the Vantage Championship was nearly three times larger than his biggest paycheck on the PGA TOUR ($54,000, 1979 Colonial)... Also defeated Jim Ferree in a playoff for the Hilton Head International title.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Won 11 times in 25 years on the PGA TOUR... On June 10, 1977, he became the first player to break 60 in an official PGA TOUR event, firing a 13-under-par 59 in the second round of the Danny Thomas-Memphis Classic (equaled by Chip Beck at the 1991 Las Vegas Invitational at Sunrise GC)... Carded 11 birdies and one eagle that day to earn the nickname "Mr. 59"... His run of six birdies and an eagle is still a PGA TOUR record... Saved his best efforts for the toughest courses, winning the 1965 American Golf Classic and 1966 PGA Championship at Firestone CC, the 1975 Tournament Players Championship and 1979 Colonial National Invitation at Colonial CC, and the 1976 Western Open at Butler National... 1954 National Jaycee Champion... Member of the 1967 and 1975 United States Ryder Cup Teams... Has six career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Introduced to the game at age five by his parents... On the PGA TOUR, he endorsed Skippy Peanut Butter and still carries a peanut butter sandwich in his bag for snacking during competitive rounds... Son John, the head golf coach at Pepperdine University, led his team to the 1997 NCAA Championship... Son Brent is a member of the PGA TOUR and was 49th on last year's money list, while daughter Lee Ann is an assistant to a publisher for an Italian children's book publishing company in Milan, Italy.

JOINED SENIOR PGA TOUR: 1998

1998 SEASON: Earned fully exempt status after a strong showing at the 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament at the Grenelefe Golf and Tennis Resort in his first attempt... One of the surprise stories at the event... Tied for the first-round lead after shooting a 5-under-par 67... Moved into sole possession of the lead following a second-round 69 and then was tied for the third-round lead with Allen Doyle and Bruce Fleisher after an even-par 72... Closed with a two-over-par 74 to finish T3 with Tom McGinnis... Helped his cause in the final round when he carded a hole-in-one at the seventh hole... The performance was even more surprising since he had never been to the United States before coming to the first stage of the SENIOR PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament in early November.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played professionally in South America before making his attempt to join the SENIOR PGA TOUR... Competed for a spot on Argentina's World Cup team in the past.

PERSONAL: Says earning his SENIOR PGA TOUR playing privileges at Q-School was his biggest thrill in golf... Introduced to the game as a seven-year-old in his native Argentina by his father, and was also involved as a caddy as a youngster... Worked as a postman for 16 years and $2,100 was his biggest paycheck... Has also worked as a newspaper delivery man... Was encouraged by fellow Argentine players Vicente Fernandez and Robert De Vincenzo to try and qualify for the SENIOR TOUR.

five...Contended at State Farm Senior Classic (tied for lead after 36) before finishing T4...That came during a run in the early summer that saw him finish in the top 10 in five of six starts...Had two bouts with injuries during the year...Suffered a back injury while riding to the media center at The Tradition that forced his withdrawal after opening-round 69...He also withdrew from the PGA Seniors' Championship after opening round, due to back problems...In September he pulled a muscle in his chest that forced him out of the Emerald Coast Classic and also the Comfort Classic after one round...He and teammate Hugh Baiocchi lost a two-hole playoff against Dale Douglass and Charles Coody at the unofficial Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...One of the best finishers on the SENIOR TOUR with an average final score of 70.04 (5th overall).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Enjoyed an exceptional first full season on the SENIOR TOUR, finishing fifth on the final money list with more than $1 million in earnings...Secured three victories among his 14 top-10 finishes, and was among the top five nine times...Sixty of his 96 rounds were under par, with 37 of those in the 60s...Won twice early in the year at the GTE Classic and the Southwestern Bell Dominion, then claimed his third title in September at the Comfort Classic...Picked up his first senior win by three strokes in Tampa, but his other two victories were nail-biters...Eagled the final hole at Dominion CC to slip past John Jacobs in San Antonio and then birdied the final hole in Indianapolis for a one-stroke victory over Larry Nelson and Bud Allin, along with a career-best check for $157,500...Recorded his first SENIOR TOUR hole-in-one at Ralphs Senior Classic...One of the longest hitters on the SENIOR TOUR (sixth/278.4), he was the leader in eagle frequency (one every 108.0 holes)...His Final Round Scoring Average of 70.27 was fifth...The only player chosen as the Player of the Month three times: February, March and September. 1996: Made his SENIOR TOUR debut at the Bruno's Memorial Classic in June and competed in 19 events...Made his first serious run at victory at the Ameritech Senior Open before finishing T4...Was also one of the players in the record five-man playoff at the Emerald Coast Classic won on the first extra hole with a birdie by Lee Trevino.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Probably best known as a winner of two major championships, the 1979 PGA Championship and the 1981 U.S. Open...Birdied the third extra hole at Oakland Hills CC to defeat Ben Crenshaw for the PGA title...At Merion GC in the 1981 U.S. Open, he trailed George Burns by three strokes after 54 holes, but played one of the finest finishing rounds in Open history, a three-under-par 67 that included hitting all 18 greens in regulation...Won by one stroke over Burns and Bill Rogers...First victory on the PGA TOUR came in the 1972 Cleveland Open, where he defeated close friend Bruce Devlin in a playoff...Made more than $100,000 in six consecutive TOUR campaigns (1979-84), with the high mark coming in 1983 when he collected $244,924...Claimed his last TOUR victory that year, coming from five strokes back on Sunday afternoon to win the Houston Coca-Cola Open...Teamed with Devlin to win the World Cup for Australia and was on the winning Australian Dunhill Cup team in 1985 and again in 1986...Was selected as the first captain of the International Team for the 1994 Presidents Cup...Has had nine holes-in-one in his professional career.

PERSONAL: Discovered the game of golf when he was 14 years old...Found a set of left-handed clubs in his garage and played with them for two years before making the switch to a right-handed set...Worked in a golf shop in Melbourne, Australia at age 16 and, after a three-year apprenticeship, took a head professional job at a nine-hole course in Tasmania...Became a touring professional in the late 1960s, first in Australia and then the Far East...Awarded the Order of Australia by Queen Elizabeth II in 1992 for contributions to the game...Inducted into the Australian Sports Hall of Fame and the Australian Golf Hall of Fame...A member of the Masters Tournament's Cup & Tee Committee, which sets up the Augusta National layout each April...Involved in the golf design business with a number of courses to his credit, including Grayhawk Golf Club in Scottsdale, AZ, the Raven Golf Club in Phoenix and Grandover Golf Club in North Carolina...Considers his victory at the 1981 U.S. Open his biggest thrill in golf and credits Bruce Devlin as the person who most influenced his career...His son, Andrew, a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Southern Methodist University, is working on his Ph.D. at the University of Chicago.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1 — Bruno's Memorial Classic; 2 — Toshiba Senior Classic.

1998 SEASON: No doubt the highlight of his year came in early May when he fired a final-round 64 in front of his hometown fans in Birmingham to win the Bruno's Memorial Classic... Had started the final day T9 and four shots behind leader Terry Dill, but recorded an eagle, par and four birdies on the last six holes to give him a one-stroke victory over Hale Irwin... The win earned him a check for $172,500, largest of his pro career... Victory in Alabama also avenged an earlier setback at the Toshiba Senior Classic, where Hale Irwin shot a final-round 62 to come from five strokes back and nip him by one... Also fashioned four other top-five finishes that helped him to 21st place on final money list... Carded his first ace on the SENIOR TOUR in the opening round of the Comfort Classic... One of the better putters on the SENIOR PGA TOUR, ranking seventh in that category.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: During a streaky rookie season, posted nine top-10 finishes and collected more than $500,000 in official earnings, more than twice what he made in his best year on the PGA TOUR (1978/$247,406)... Ran off three consecutive top-10s early, highlighted by a T3 at the GTE Classic... Got hot again in August when he closed with 65 to finish T6 at the BankBoston Classic, then made a serious bid for his first SENIOR TOUR title the next week at the Northville Long Island Classic... Was one stroke off the lead after 36 holes before finishing T3, one stroke out of playoff contention... Closed the year with top-10s in three of his last four events, the biggest being a sixth at the Ralphs Senior Classic where his $40,000 paycheck vaulted him into the top 31 and a spot in the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship... Needed only 18 putts to shoot a 66 in his second official round on the SENIOR TOUR at the Royal Caribbean Classic, one off the all-time record.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Is T33 among all-time PGA TOUR winners with 19 victories during 26 years on TOUR... 16 of those wins came during the 1970s, when he was one of the top players in the world... Claimed the first of his two major titles in 1977 at the U.S. Open at Southern Hills... Defeated Lou Graham by one stroke after playing the final four holes knowing a threat had been made on his life... Last victory was at the 1985 PGA Championship at Cherry Hills, where he outdueled Lee Trevino down the stretch... Claimed his first victory at the 1971 Houston Champions International... Tied Don January at the end of regulation, then birdied the first extra hole for the win... Went on to be named Rookie of the Year that season... Has won four events twice: Greater Jacksonville Open, Southern Open, Heritage Classic and Hawaiian Open... Biggest thrill in golf was when he won three consecutive events in 1976: Doral-Eastern Open, the Greater Jacksonville Open and Sea Pines Heritage Classic... Began the final round of the 1978 Masters with a three-stroke lead, only to fall victim to Gary Player's 64... Birdied the last hole of the 1978 World Series of Golf to tie Gil Morgan, but three-putted the first playoff hole... Was a member of the 1977, 1979 and 1985 U.S. Ryder Cup Teams... Has 21 career holes-in-one, and he and Lanny Wadkins have made the most aces on the PGA TOUR since 1970: seven.

PERSONAL: Started to play golf at age five, but participated in all sports as a teenager... Uses an unorthodox but effective method of swinging the club... Turned professional in 1970 and worked one summer as an assistant pro at famed Merion GC in Ardmore, PA... Active in golf course design... Worked with Fuzzy Zoeller on the TPC at Southwind, venue for the PGA TOUR's FedEx St. Jude Classic... Also helped design Greystone GC in Birmingham with Bob Cupp... Biggest hero is baseball great Ted Williams.

1998 SEASON: One of the success stories of the season on the SENIOR PGA TOUR...Although just conditionally exempt from the previous year's National Qualifying Tournament (11th), he used that route along with selected Monday qualifiers to gain entry into 28 events...Took full advantage of those chances, finishing 23rd on the final money list to earn a berth in the season finale in Myrtle Beach and fully exempt status for 1999...Earned $668,700 with eight top-10 finishes...Made four strong bids for his first senior win...Held a three-stroke margin after 54 holes at the AT&T Canada Senior Open in Calgary before shooting a final round 74 that left him fifth...At the State Farm Senior Classic near Baltimore, he had rounds of 68-70-68 and appeared ready for a three-way playoff with Bruce Summerhays and Hale Irwin before Summerhays birdied the final hole for the victory...His T2 with Irwin earned him career-best check for $100,000...Turned in another strong performance at the Northville Long Island Classic, where he was tied for the lead after 36 holes for the second straight year...Shot a final-round 71, that left him that one shy of winner Gary Player...His fourth bid came at the Boone Valley Classic where he was within two strokes of the lead on Sunday before finishing all alone in third place...Product of the SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament...First-round leader with a 68 before dropping to a T2 following a second-round 71...A third-round 75 left him at T15 heading into the final round, and he was on the verge of dropping out of contention after a front-nine 38 in the final round...However, he rallied with a 33 to finish with a 71 and T11 with Ray Arinno...A par on the first playoff hole gave him 11th place outright.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Had some impressive outings after turning 50 in June...Despite playing in only eight events, he won $161,796 with a pair of top-10 finishes...Made his debut after Monday qualifying at the Kroger Senior Classic, where he was a T38...Monday qualified again at the Northville Long Island Classic, where he was tied for first after 36 holes (66-68) but closed with a 74 for T11...Had another impressive outing at the Bank One Classic...Was the first-round leader after a 66 and was T4 following a second-round 71...Followed with a 68 for a T3 and a then career-best check for $52,800...Earned $34,000 with T6 at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic...Monday qualified a total of seven times...Won the The Belfry PGA Seniors Championship on the PGA European Seniors Tour and finished eighth at the Senior British Open...Recorded three victories on the Nitro Senior Series and was its leading money-winner with $89,889.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Turned professional in 1994, after which he played two years on the Asian Tour (1994-95) and one on the Hooters Tour (1996)...Made four unsuccessful attempts to earn his PGA TOUR card in the 1970s before regaining amateur status until 1994...Reached the U.S. Amateur round of 16 in 1985.

PERSONAL: Began his golf career by playing for his high school team...Biggest thrill in golf was playing with Chi Chi Rodriguez for the first time and also winning The Belfry PGA Seniors Championship...Worked in sales for an appliance distributor prior to embarking on his professional career.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISH: T6 — Kroger Senior Classic.

1998 SEASON: Played more than 30 events for the fourth straight year, and has now made more than 400 starts on the SENIOR TOUR...Only top-10 came at the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic where consecutive rounds of 67 gave him a T6...Suffered the misfortune of having his final-round effort washed out near Cincinnati...Had grabbed the lead early on Sunday, only to see rain cancel the round...Those consecutive 67s were his low rounds of the year...Was 10th on the MasterCard Champions money list with $148,368...Best finish a second place, one behind Bob Charles at the Kroger Senior Classic.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1995: Won four MasterCard Champions events (second behind Jimmy Powell's five) and finished third on the 60-and-over money list with $221,167...T3 at the Bank One Classic. 1994: Won first MasterCard Champions title at Ralphs Senior Classic with second-round 65. 1993: Finished among top 31 for eighth year in a row and had eight top-10s...Captured the unofficial Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, defeating Don January and Tom Weiskopf in a playoff worth $250,000. 1992: Put up a spirited defense of his First of America Classic title by stringing together three sub-70 rounds and eventually T2 behind Gibby Gilbert. 1991: Birdied first extra hole to beat Gibby Gilbert at First of America Classic, his first win in three years. 1990: Had productive year, with seven top-five efforts and more than $400,000. 1989: Finished sixth on money list on the strength of five second-place efforts and a trio of thirds...Played more rounds (106) than any other player that season...Teamed with Al Geiberger to win the unofficial Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 1988: Earned second career win at GTE Classic where he was the only player under par at the wind-swept event in Simi Valley, CA...His 2-under-par 214 was highest winning score for the year...Finished fifth on the final money list and had 13 top-five finishes...Made more birdies than any other player (348) and was second in the All-Around stats category. 1985: Won first SENIOR TOUR victory at the Seiko/Tucson Match Play Championship, defeating Dan Sikes, 4&3 in the final.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Lone PGA TOUR title came at the 1966 Texas Open, where he defeated Gene Littler, Ken Still and Wes Ellis at Oak Hills CC... Won the 1970 Tallahassee Open on the second TOUR after missing three cuts in a row...Teamed with Gary Player to win the 1965 World Cup for South Africa...T6 at the 1983 British Open...Winner of more than 50 titles around the world, including victories in Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Italy, Denmark and Switzerland.

PERSONAL: First came to the United States to compete in 1954...Did not join the PGA TOUR steadily until 1966, after losing his playing privileges three times for failing to participate in the minimum number of events...Quit playing golf entirely in 1972 and started back in 1978...Brother Brian is the SENIOR TOUR's Vice President of Competition.

1998 SEASON: Played just 25 events, fewest in his eight years on the SENIOR TOUR...Was 48th on the final money list with $370,581...Had four top-10 finishes, including a T2 in his third start of the year at the GTE Classic...Opened with a 68 and followed with 70-70 to finish one stroke shy of winner Jim Albus...T10 the previous week at the LG Championship...Also T10 in two other events—the Comfort Classic and the Boone Valley Classic...Blistered Brickyard Crossing in Indianapolis with an opening-round 65 (his low round of the year and third year in succession he had opened with the score there), and found himself on the leaderboard for the fourth straight year at the event...Did not play an event after the Vantage Championship, ending his season with 11 straight par-or-better rounds.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Struggled to find the right equipment for most of the year and dropped out of the top 40 on the official money list for the first time...Registered a pair of top-10 finishes, both coming in Florida events...Was among the early leaders at the American Express Invitational, but had to rally with a final-round 68 to finish T6...Late in the year, shot a SENIOR TOUR career-best 7-under-par 63 on Saturday at the Emerald Coast Classic, where he was tied for the 36-hole lead with Vicente Fernandez...Had an even-par 70 on Sunday and finished T3...Went over the $3-million mark in SENIOR TOUR career money with his $10,533 check for a T22 at the Las Vegas Senior Classic. 1996: Winless for first time since 1992, but still finished 34th on money list...Six top-10 finishes, included three in the first four starts on the Florida swing...Best was a solo third place at the Greater Naples Intellinet Challenge. 1995: Struggled early in year, but was among the top five in half his appearances from July through mid-September...Culminated his run of good fortune with victory at the Brickyard Crossing Championship, crediting an adjustment in his driving technique for the one-stroke win...Also T2 at the Franklin Quest Championship. 1994: Won multiple events in the second half of the year for second consecutive year...Claimed biggest prize of his career at famed Pinehurst No. 2, winning the U.S. Senior Open...Defeated Jim Albus and Graham Marsh by one stroke despite final-round 75...Also won the GTE Northwest Classic, defeating Jim Albus again in the sudden-death playoff...One of four players to record a double-eagle when he did so at the Franklin Quest Championship in the final round with a 4-wood second shot...Helped lead International team to victory in the Chrysler Cup. 1993: Benefited from Larry Gilbert's troubles on the final hole to capture the season-ending Hyatt SENIOR TOUR Championship in Puerto Rico...Opened with an 8-under-par 64, equalling his low round of the year and the lowest start by a winner that season...Won first SENIOR TOUR title at the Kroger Senior Classic, using a final-round 66 for a one-stroke victory over three others...Had a 6-under-par 29 at the GTE Classic which tied him with three others for lowest nine-hole score of the year...1992: Registered career-best 13 top-10 finishes, including T3 at NYNEX Commemorative. 1991: Had solid rookie campaign that featured eight top-10 finishes...Came from five shots back with a final-round 65 only to have George Archer sink a birdie putt at the final hole at the Raley's Senior Gold Rush to win the title. 1990: Made up four strokes on the final day of the 1990 SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament and captured medalist honors...Win near Palm Springs made him the second international player to gain a full exemption from the Q-School (Doug Dalziel/1987).

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played for Zambia in the 1966 Eisenhower Trophy competition...Played on the PGA European Tour from 1969-1986 and notched two victories...Also was a four-time winner on South Africa's Safari Tour.

PERSONAL: Regarded by his peers as one of the SENIOR TOUR's most colorful characters...Was a cattle rancher and farmer prior to turning professional in the late '60s...Practiced every day for over a year to get ready for the SENIOR TOUR...Nicknamed "Scruffy" by his peers.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1 — Toshiba Senior Classic, PGA Seniors' Championship, Las Vegas Senior Classic, Ameritech Senior Open, U.S. Senior Open, BankBoston Classic, Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship.

1998 SEASON: Continued to be a dominant player on the SENIOR PGA TOUR, and was voted the circuit's Player of the Year for the second straight season. Won seven times, including two major championships, while setting a new single-season earnings record for any TOUR — $2,861,945. Had two fewer victories than he had in 1997, but his overall play was never better. In 22 starts, amazingly finished in the top five in all but two tournaments. Posted 18 consecutive top-five finishes before that string ended at the Boone Valley Classic, where he was T13 (later was T16 at EMC² Kaanapali Classic in October). Had 24 top 10s in succession dating back to 1997 before it ended at the Boone Valley Classic. Won his second consecutive Arnold Palmer Award as the SENIOR TOUR's leading money winner and averaged $130,088 per start. Claimed his third straight Byron Nelson Award for the lowest scoring average (68.89), breaking Lee Trevino's all-time record of 68.69 set in 1990. Each of his seven victories seemed was significant. In the first at the Toshiba Senior Classic he fired a course-record 62 in the final round to come from five back and overtake Hubert Green for the title. At the PGA Seniors' Championship, it was his third consecutive triumph in the event, matching Eddie Williams' mark for consecutive wins in the event (1942, 1945-46). The next week he defended his title at the Las Vegas Senior Classic. His fourth win at the Ameritech Senior Open was his second victory there, and he also fired a 36-hole score of 16-under 128, which tied the SENIOR TOUR record in relation to par. Opened with a course-record 62 at Kemper Lakes and went wire-to-wire. His fifth win came at the U.S. Senior Open where he birdied the 72nd hole to nip Vicente Fernandez. He had opened play at Riviera Country Club with a 77, but moved back into contention with a second-round 68. In winning, became just the 10th player to win a PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR event at the same venue, and his opening score was the highest ever by a winner in SENIOR TOUR annals. Claimed his sixth win at BankBoston by defending his 1997 victory and closed out the year with a five-stroke win at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship that allowed him to set a new SENIOR TOUR scoring record and also shatter his record for most money won in a season. Twice won back-to-back events (PGA Seniors' Championship/Las Vegas Senior Classic & Ameritech Senior Open and U.S. Senior Open). Won his second straight Cadillac Series along the way. Broke his own mark for fastest player to reach $1 million in a season when he went over that mark in his eighth tournament ($101,200 for solo second place at Bruno's Memorial Classic). Of his 71 rounds, 62 were par/better and he had 10 consecutive rounds in the 60s at one point. Also had 18 straight sub-par rounds. Led all players in Top-10 finishes (20), Rounds in the 60s (48) and Birdie Conversions (34.9%). Had the best First-Round (68.45), Second-Round (68.82) and Final Round (68.14) Scoring Averages. Became the all-time leading money winner in professional golf when he tied for second at the State Farm Senior Classic and won $100,000. The total pushed him over $12 million in all-time earnings and moved him past Greg Norman. Chosen as the Player of the Month for April, July, August and November. Made two starts on PGA TOUR: BellSouth Classic (T47) and U.S. Open (missed cut).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: His nine victories tied Peter Thomson's 1985 record for most wins in one season. Season earnings of $2,343,364 shattered Jim Colbert's previous SENIOR TOUR record of $1,627,890. Became the first player to hit the $2-million mark in one season when he won his eighth title and $225,000 at the Vantage Championship in October. Posted his nine wins in just 23 starts (18 top-10 finishes) and averaged $101,885 per start. Got his year off to a great start with a two-stroke victory over Gil Morgan at the MasterCard Championship in Hawaii. Outdueled Bob Murphy a month later to win the LG Championship in Naples. Set a standard by successfully defending his PGA Seniors' Championship, winning by a SENIOR TOUR-record 12 strokes. Nipped Isao Aoki with a birdie putt at the final hole of the Las Vegas Senior Classic. Took control of the Burnet Senior Classic with a birdie at the 17th hole and slipped past Lee Trevino near Minneapolis. Made birdies on the final two holes for a two-stroke win at the BankBoston Classic. Claimed the Boone Valley Classic near his home in St. Louis in September by playing all 54 holes without a bogey. Played another bogey-free event at the Vantage Championship and used a course-record 62 at Tanglewood in the second round to edge Dave Eichelberger. Tied Thomson's record with a victory at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic. In all, won back-to-back starts a total of four times, the first player to do so. Claimed his first four titles in just seven starts, the fastest ever to that number, and also broke his own record as the quickest to $1 million in a season, surpassing that figure when he earned $114,400 for a second-place finish at the Nationwide Championship in just his 11th event (his previous record was 13 in 1996). Waited to a nine-stroke victory at the Senior Slam in Mexico, an unofficial event matching the winners of the previous year's SENIOR TOUR major championships. Of the 74 rounds he played, 57 were below par (77%) and only 13 were over par. More than half (41 of 74/55%) of his rounds were in the 60s. His 69.43 Final-Round scoring average ranked second on the SENIOR TOUR (to Gil Morgan/69.12), but his First-Round (69.26) and Second-Round (67.96) averages were tops. Had eight consecutive sub-70 rounds during the year, a '97 best. Won the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner and notched his second consecutive Byron Nelson Award as the SENIOR TOUR scoring leader (68.92). In addition to scoring, he led the following statistical categories: Greens in Regulation, Putting, Total Driving and Birdies. Won his first Cadillac Series with a record 1,359,060 points. Twice the SENIOR TOUR Player of the Month: April and October. Played three PGA TOUR events: BellSouth Classic (missed cut), U.S. Open (T52), PGA Championship (T29). 1996: Just missed winning money title by $12,121 when he was passed by Jim Colbert on the final day at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship thanks to a birdie on the 72nd hole. Still finished with $1,651,769. Became fastest player to reach $1 million in a season, doing so in just 13 events, breaking the old mark of 17 by Lee Trevino and Ray Floyd in 1994. Averaged $70,250 in earnings in 22 starts with wins at PGA Seniors' Championship and American Express Invitational. Led SENIOR TOUR with 21 top-10 finishes and was under par in 21 of 23 events. Won Byron Nelson Award as the SENIOR TOUR scoring leader (69.47). His victory at American Express Invitational pushed him past $1 million in senior earnings in just his 16th event, making him the fastest to do so. Player of the Month in February and April. 1995: SENIOR TOUR Rookie of the Year after pair of victories and 10th place finish on the money list in just 12 appearances...Made debut at BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland (T4)...Claimed first win at the Ameritech Senior Open in his fifth start...Victory was third of his career in Chicago area (also won '90 U.S. Open/'75 Western Open)...Defeated Kermit Zarley by a whopping seven shots, equaling the largest margin of victory on the SENIOR TOUR in 1995...His 21-under-par 195 smashed the tournament record by five and was just one shy of the all-time 54-hole scoring record in relation to par...Did not make a bogey all week at the Vantage Championship and defeated Dave Stockton by four strokes...The $225,000 paycheck equalled largest of his career...Played in 14 PGA TOUR events and was T7 at Phoenix Open and T7 at Doral-Ryder Open.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Carried nearly three decades of success on the PGA TOUR over to the SENIOR TOUR in 1995...Prior to the start of the 1999 season, he is averaging $95,253 per start in 80 tournaments as a senior player...In those 80 events, he has been in the top three 44 times and has finished only five of those tournaments over par: 1995 Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship (+1), 1996 GTE Suncoast Classic (+3), 1996 Ameritech Senior Open (+1), 1997 U.S. Senior Open (+4) and 1998 U.S. Senior Open (+1)...His 29-year PGA TOUR career was highlighted by three U.S. Open titles, the last of which came in a grueling 19-hole playoff with Mike Donald at Medinah in 1990...Sank a 60-foot putt on the final hole to force overtime the next day, and then eventually won with a 10-foot birdie putt...Victory at 45 made him the oldest to win a U.S. Open...Followed that win with another the next week at the Buick Classic and went on to have his finest earnings year on the PGA TOUR (sixth/$838,249)...Other two Open victories came at Winged Foot in 1974 and Inverness in 1979...First and last of his 20 official TOUR wins (three total at Harbour Town) came at the MCI Heritage Classic...Defeated Greg Norman by two strokes at the 1994 event...Also was a two-time winner of the Atlanta Classic (1975-77) and Memorial Tournament (1983-85)...From early 1975 through 1978, he played 86 tournaments without missing a cut, third best streak in TOUR history...Played on five Ryder Cup teams (1975, 1977, 1979, 1981 and 1991) and represented the United States twice in World Cup play (1974, 1979)...Claimed the individual title in the 1979 World Cup event...Was the United States Captain for the inaugural Presidents Cup Match, won by the Americans, 20-12...Has eight career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Unusual two-sport participant at the University of Colorado: 1967 NCAA Champion in golf and two-time All-Big Eight selection as a football defensive back...Was an Academic All-American, as well...Member of Colorado's "All-Century Football Team"...Son Steve also played on the Colorado golf team and is pursuing a professional career, while nephew Heath is an offensive lineman with the New England Patriots following his collegiate career at Colorado...Got his start in golf at age four through his father...Actively involved in his own golf course design business...Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1992...Biggest thrills in golf are his first TOUR win in 1971, his three U.S. Open victories, playing on the victorious Ryder Cup team in 1991 and the entire 1997 season.

CLUB AFFILIATION: Cobblestone CC, Stuart, FL
SPECIAL INTEREST: Fishing
TURNED PROFESSIONAL: 1960 JOINED PGA TOUR: Did not play PGA TOUR

JOINED SENIOR TOUR: 1989

SENIOR PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1): 1992 U.S. Senior Open.

BEST PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH: T7 — 1971 United Air Lines - Ontario Open.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $1,658

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T2 — EMC² Kaanapali Classic; T8 Royal Caribbean Classic.

1998 SEASON: Started and finished the year on a high note... Top performance came in his final appearance of the season, tying for second at the EMC² Kaanapali Classic and winning $80,000, his largest paycheck since he won $130,000 with his victory at the 1992 U.S. Senior Open... Rounds of 66-68-69 helped him tie Hugh Baiocchi for second place, two strokes behind Jay Sigel... Opened the year with a T8 in Miami at the Royal Caribbean Classic... Other top 10 was in Michigan when he was solo 10th at the First of America near Grand Rapids... Finished 55th on the money list in 34 events.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1995: Played in more than 30 events for sixth straight year and returned to the top 31 after two-year hiatus, earning almost as much as he made the previous two years combined... Was in contention in Birmingham after two rounds at Bruno's Memorial Classic and eventually finished T3... Also on the leaderboard throughout the First of America Classic and placed solo third. 1992: Became an overnight hero when he won the U.S. Senior Open at Saucon Valley CC... The victory was the first of his professional senior career... Trailing by one the first day with a 68, slipped with a 72 in the second round but took the lead Saturday with a 67 and added a 68 on Sunday to build a four-stroke victory... Win was worth $130,000 and it helped place him 13th on final money list with $444,385... Had eight other top-10s. 1991: Had a banner year with six finishes among the top five and official earnings of $371,097 more than double his previous year's effort... Had a good summer, with three runner-up performances within a five-week span, including back-to-back seconds at the Southwestern Bell Classic and the Kroger Senior Classic... Tied for lead at Northville Long Island Classic after 18 and 36 holes before final round 71 left him T2. 1990: Earned over $150,000 in first full year on SENIOR TOUR and was 32nd on money list... Highlight of year was T2 at rain-shortened Greater Grand Rapids Open, missing a playoff by one stroke... Despite finishing 32nd on money list, maintained full eligibility for 1991 when Jack Nicklaus did not meet the minimum six appearances rule. 1989: Earned his initial exemption in November with a runner-up finish at the SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament at the Ravines G&CC in Middleburg, FL... He and his wife, Susan, had celebrated the birth of son Lonnie just one month earlier.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played two events in 1989 through open qualifying... Has made three holes-in-one in his professional career. Played sparingly on the PGA TOUR and spent 28 years as a club professional... Left Indian Creek CC in Jupiter, FL at age 48 to prepare for the SENIOR TOUR.

PERSONAL: A five-time all-star in basketball, baseball and football while at Mahopac High School in New York... Worked for former SENIOR TOUR player Mike Fetchick at Mahopac CC as a youth... Had a brief stint in the Navy on the island of Guam, where he began his cigar-smoking habit while charting weather maps on the night shift... Travels to most events in a large motorhome and stays primarily at campgrounds across the nation.

BEST SENIOR PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH: 2 — 1998 The Transamerica.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $68,991

BEST PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH: T4 — 1985 B.C. Open.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 2 — The Transamerica; T4 — Emerald Coast Classic; T7 — Southwestern Bell Dominion, BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland.

1998 SEASON: A late-season push paid dividends for the SENIOR PGA TOUR rookie...After an up and down campaign, he closed with five top-25 finishes, including a solo second place at The Transamerica to finish 38th on the final money list...In his last five outings he played par or better golf in 14 of 15 rounds...Was in 49th place following the Boone Valley Classic in late September but hauled in nearly $150,000 down the stretch and jumped 11 places to improve his playing position for 1999...No doubt his best outing came in northern California in October at The Transamerica...Opened with a 69 and followed with a 68 to share the second round lead with Jay Sigel...Stayed in the hunt until the end, shooting another 69 but came up one stroke shy of winner Jim Colbert, who had a final round 67...Also among early leaders at the LG Championship early in the year and eventually a T10...Seized the first round lead at the Emerald Coast Classic with a season-best 63 and eventually finished T4.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Earned fully exempt status for 1998 after winning medalist honors at the 1997 SENIOR PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament...One of two players to break par all four rounds...After opening with a 71, he followed with three consecutive sub-70 rounds (68-69-68) for a 12-under-par 276 and four-stroke victory over Jose Maria Canizares...Monday qualified four times with his best finish a T34 at the Franklin Quest Championship...Other appearances were at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland (T53), Burnet Senior Classic (T43) and Saint Luke's Classic (T55).

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played 104 events on the PGA TOUR from 1976-97, with earnings totaling $68,991... Majority of those appearances came in 1985-86, when he was an exempt player... Won $34,368 in 27 starts in 1985 and $23,454 in 28 events the following season... Best finish on TOUR came in 1985, when he was a T4 at the B.C. Open... Was just one stroke off the lead heading into the final round, but lost by three to Joey Sindelar after a closing-round 70... Was T12 the following year at the Canon Sammy Davis, Jr.-Greater Hartford Open... The winner of a number of mini-tour events.

PERSONAL: Biggest thrill in golf came in December, 1997, when he was the medalist at the SENIOR PGA TOUR Q-School... Got his start in the game thanks to an older brother... Was a standout basketball player at Bradley University... Also played golf at Bradley and is a member of the Peoria, IL school's Athletic Hall of Fame... Was the first Bradley basketball player to score 100 points, grab 100 rebounds and hand out 100 assists in a season... One of his teammates was former Boston Celtic Steve Kuberski... Has been employed in the printing business and has also run a golf center in Houston.

1998 SEASON: Eclipsed the $2 million figure for the second straight year ($87,162/start), had six official victories for a second consecutive season, and was among the top-3 in 11 of 25 appearances on the circuit...Year was remarkably similar to his previous one in starts, wins, top-10 finishes and earnings...Won a pair of senior major championships for the first time in his career...Successfully defended his Tradition title by coming from two strokes back of Tom Wargo to win by two at Desert Mountain GC...Defeated Hale Irwin by three strokes at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship with a whopping 21-under-par 267 score at the Tournament Players Club of Michigan, a record on that particular layout...Got off to a fast start last year with a victory at the MasterCard Championship in January...His six-stroke win at Hualalai came as a result of a 21-under 195 score, the lowest 54-hole total on the SENIOR TOUR last year... Came from five strokes back three weeks later at the LG Championship in Naples, pitching in for eagle on the last hole to overtake good friend Dale Douglass and Raymond Floyd... Also cruised to a four-stroke win at the Utah Showdown, playing all 54 holes at Park Meadows CC without making a bogey... Didn't finish out of the top-3 in his last three appearances of the year and was under par in his last 10 rounds of the campaign... Used a closing-round 65 to outduel Irwin down the stretch for the Vantage Championship title, T3 in defense of his Pacific Bell Senior Classic at Wilshire CC and then finished a distant second to Irwin in defense of his Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship crown... Easily won the unofficial Senior Slam at Cabo in March, defeating Irwin by six strokes over 36 holes at Cabo del Sol's Ocean Course... Was in the 60s in 45 of his 80 rounds played, but was second to Irwin in overall Scoring Average (69.46) and Top-10s (18)... Led in the All-Around stats category again... Inducted into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame in August.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Voted by his peers as the Rookie of the Year... Enjoyed a banner year, becoming just the second senior to go over $2 million in yearly earnings ($86,422/start) and was among the top three in almost half his 25 starts... Capped his year by earning November Player of the Month honors... Held off Irwin to win the season-ending Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, his sixth SENIOR TOUR title in 1997... Made his first-ever successful title defense the week before at the Ralphs Senior Classic... One-stroke victory over George Archer at Wilshire CC gave him his fourth TOUR win in the Los Angeles area... First claimed back-to-back tournaments earlier in the year at the Ameritech Senior Open and BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland... Was the first of three wire-to-wire winners in '97 when he nipped Irwin by one stroke at Kemper Lakes despite finishing bogey, bogey, double bogey... Cruised to a two-stroke win in Nashville over John Bland the week after... In early April, he shattered Tom Shaw's tournament record at The Tradition by three strokes in winning his first senior major championship... Finished six in front of Isao Aoki at Desert Mountain with a 22-under-par 266 total... Season's other victory came in the rain at the First of America Classic, where he birdied the 53rd hole to take a one-stroke lead over Bob Duval, then clinched the title with a scrambling par on the final hole... Broke Bob Murphy's all-time record of 24 consecutive sub-par rounds in 1994 when he strung together 26 consecutive from the last round of the U.S. Senior Open through the Vantage Championship in early October... Tied Jay Sigel for the most Top-10s (19) and, along with John Bland, had the most Rounds in the 60s (44)... Final-round scoring average of 69.12 was tops on the SENIOR TOUR and led the All-Around stats category. 1996: Earned his first SENIOR TOUR title just 11 days after turning 50 at the Ralphs Senior Classic... Victory in late September made him the youngest winner in SENIOR TOUR history... Made his debut on the SENIOR TOUR at the Vantage Championship with a T16.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Had one leg up on one of the great U.S. Opens of all time in 1992... At Pebble Beach, became the first player in Open history to reach 10 under-par early in Round 3, then climbed to 12-under through 43 holes before falling to an eventual T13 finish... Biggest of his seven PGA TOUR triumphs came in the 1978 World Series of Golf... Defeated Hubert Green in a playoff to emerge as the year's No. 2 money-winner behind Tom Watson... Had left shoulder rotator cuff surgery in September of 1986... After nine-month layoff, returned to the TOUR in early May 1987 and was near the top of his game by midsummer... Most successful year was 1990, when he captured the Kemper Open in early June and placed in the top eight in seven consecutive events... Captured the first two tournaments of 1983, the Joe Garagiola-Tucson Open in a playoff with Lanny Wadkins and the Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open... Was a runner-up 21 times in his PGA TOUR career... Named to the NAIA Hall of Fame in 1982 after being an NAIA All-American in 1968... Member of the 1979 and 1983 U.S. Ryder Cup Teams... Has had nine career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Started playing golf at age 15... Holds a Doctor of Optometry degree and still keeps a current license even though he has never practiced... Decided during his junior year at East Central State (OK) to pursue a career in golf, but waited until earning his optometry degree before turning professional.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISH: T42—Toshiba Senior Classic.

1998 SEASON: Participated in just three official SENIOR TOUR events, and none after The Tradition, due to sinus surgery and a hernia operation late in the year... Struggled with vertigo from 1993-1995... Will play on a conditional basis in 1999 after receiving a special medical extension due to the illness... Made just $9,770 (125th) and his T42 at the Toshiba Senior Classic was his best overall finish... Pocketed $11,195 in MasterCard Champions money (29th) and T4 at the over-60 event at the Toshiba Senior Classic... Teamed with Billy Maxwell to T7 in the Legendary Champions division of the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Played his first full year as a member of the MasterCard Champions and ended up 18th on the 60-and-over money list with $97,800... Went over $2 million in combined career money at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. 1996: Earned more than $200,000 in official money, his highest total since 1990... Earned a $96,800 paycheck at the du Maurier Champions in Canada by posting a solo second, his best finish since defeating Gay Brewer for the 1989 RJR at The Dominion title. 1990: Last of four consecutive finishes among the top-20 on the money list... Has six top-10 efforts including T3s at the GTE Suncoast Classic, the MONY Syracuse Senior Classic and the PaineWebber Invitational. 1989: Undoubtedly his finest year in golf with two victories and a 13th-place finish on the money list for the third consecutive year... Biggest of five SENIOR TOUR victories came early when he outdueled Miller

Barber and Al Geiberger for the General Foods PGA Seniors' Championship title. 1988: Bested Bob Charles and Bobby Nichols down the stretch for the General Tire Las Vegas Senior Classic in his former hometown. 1987: Was the first player in SENIOR TOUR history to open qualify on Monday and win a tournament, when he did so at the Crestar Classic... Victory also made him the first former club professional to post an official SENIOR TOUR win... Holed a dramatic 25-foot birdie putt on the last hole to hold off Bob Charles and Gary Player near Richmond.... Won again three weeks later at the Pepsi Senior Challenge near Atlanta, coming from four shots back on the final day.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played the PGA TOUR in the late 1960s and picked up a pair of unofficial victories, the 1968 Rebel Yell Classic and the 1969 Magnolia Classic... Winner of more than 100 mini-tour titles from 1976 to 1983.

PERSONAL: Served a brief stint as the Tournament Director for the LPGA... Was the general manager of Metropolitan CC in Atlanta and head professional at Hiwan CC in Evergreen, CO.

PLAYOFF RECORD: 1-5

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 4—Royal Caribbean Classic; T4—FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship; T5—EMC Kaanapali Classic; T6—Saint Luke's Classic; T7—Ameritech Senior Open.

1998 SEASON: Among the top-31 for the sixth straight year despite having his streak of winning at least one SENIOR TOUR event snapped at five consecutive seasons... Was bothered by assorted aches and pains for the majority of the year and played at less than 100 percent... Was on the leaderboard throughout the Royal Caribbean Classic and finished solo fourth at Key Biscayne... Was in contention throughout the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship before T4 at the Tournament Players Club of Michigan... Was just two strokes back entering the final round of that event thanks to a sizzling 64 on Saturday, but faded with a final-round 75... Was again among the leaders on the weekend at the EMC² Kaanapali Classic and T5 despite three consecutive sub-70 rounds... Was par/better in the opening round of 11 of 12 tournaments from the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic in late June through The Transamerica in mid-October... Ranked seventh on the SENIOR TOUR in Driving Accuracy (75.3%).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Scored a dramatic victory over Jay Sigel at the Toshiba Senior Classic... Went nine playoff holes with Sigel before rolling in an 80-foot birdie putt to win the event, the second longest playoff in SENIOR TOUR history... $54,900 at the Burnet Senior Classic (T4) pushed him over the $6 million mark for combined career earnings. 1996: Won multiple events for the fourth year in a row and was over the million-dollar mark for a second straight season... Fired a final-round 67 in windy, cold weather to hold off Hale Irwin by four strokes at the Royal Caribbean Classic... Opened with a course-record 62 on his way to a two-stroke triumph over Jay Sigel at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic... The victory at Upper Montclair CC made him just the ninth player to win both a PGA TOUR (1968 Thunderbird Classic) and SENIOR TOUR event at the same site... Registered his 16th career hole-in-one during the first round of the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship (12th hole). 1995: Perhaps his finest year in golf with four titles, tying good friend Jim Colbert for the most victories by any senior player that season... Was one of five millionaires, earning almost $400,000 more than he made in 1994... Finished among the top three in more than one-third of his starts and placed in the top 10 more than two-thirds of the time... Was the only three-time Player of the Month on the SENIOR TOUR (May/June/August)... Started the season with a victory in the rain-curtailed IntelliNet Challenge, the second time in his career he claimed an event shortened to 36 holes... Outlasted Raymond Floyd and Larry Ziegler at the PaineWebber Invitational... Avenged a runner-up finish the year before by claiming the Nationwide Championship by two strokes over Hale Irwin and Bruce Summerhays... Blistered Loch Lloyd with a SENIOR TOUR record-tying 126 over the final 36 holes for the VFW Senior Championship. 1994: Won twice with both titles coming near the end of the season... Defeated Dave Eichelberger on the fifth hole of a playoff at the Raley's Senior Gold Rush, then went wire-to-wire in Hawaii to capture the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic... Opened with a 62 on Maui and never looked back, equaling the tournament record of 195... Named the SENIOR TOUR's October Player of the Month for his achievements. 1993: Debuted on the SENIOR TOUR at the GTE Suncoast Classic near Tampa and T39 at the Tournament Players Club of Tampa Bay... Went on to be voted the SENIOR TOUR's Rookie of the Year on the strength of two tournament victories and 15 top-10 finishes... Joined Lee Trevino as the only other player to be selected as the top rookie on both the PGA TOUR (1968) and SENIOR TOUR... Initial win came in Birmingham, AL, where he held off Trevino and Bob Charles to claim the Bruno's Memorial Classic... Won later that same season at the rain-shortened GTE North Classic in Indianapolis.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Last victory on the PGA TOUR came at the 1986 Canadian Open...Had not won since the 1975 Jackie Gleason-Inverrary Classic, but at age 43 defeated Greg Norman by three strokes at Glen Abbey GC...In his rookie year of 1968, he set a goal to win $40,000 but instead took home $105,595, a record at the time for a first-year player...Won back-to-back tournaments at the Philadelphia and Thunderbird Classics that season and was second at the Westchester Classic prior to his pair of victories...Also won the 1970 Greater Hartford Open...Defeated Bob Dickson to win the 1965 U.S. Amateur...Was medalist at the 1966 NCAA Championships while at the University of Florida...Member of the 1966 United States World Amateur Cup and 1967 Walker Cup teams...Earned a spot on the 1975 Ryder Cup team...Has 16 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Coaxed out of the ESPN broadcast booth by Lee Trevino, who advised him to play the SENIOR TOUR on a full-time basis...Has a history of severe arthritis, which he overcame to continue his golf career...Recipient of the 1996 Ben Hogan Award from the Golf Writers Association of America for his comeback from arthritis...Serves as national spokesman for the Hook-A-Kid On Golf program...Vice chairman of the SENIOR TOUR Player Advisory Council for 1998...Elected to the SENIOR PGA TOUR Division Board for 1999-2000.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1—American Express Invitational, Pittsburgh Senior Classic, Boone Valley Classic; 2—PGA Seniors' Championship, BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland, Cadillac NFL Golf Classic, Ameritech Senior Open, Kroger Senior Classic.

1998 SEASON: Enjoyed a productive first full season on the SENIOR TOUR with three official victories and narrow losses in two other tournaments in playoffs...Pocketed a career-best $1,442,476 (3rd) in official money over 23 starts, nearly three times his finest earnings year on the PGA TOUR (1987)...Would have earned more but missed seven weeks during the summer with a herniated disc near his neck...Withdrew during the first round of the U.S. Senior Open and returned to action at the Comfort Classic near Indianapolis...Started the year off fast with 12 straight par/better rounds and four consecutive top-5 performances...Initial victory on the SENIOR TOUR came in the midst of that run at the American Express Invitational in Sarasota...Opened with a sizzling 9-under 63 at the Tournament Players Club at Prestancia and cruised to a wire-to-wire four-stroke victory over Dave Stockton...Was named as the SENIOR TOUR's Player of the Month for February...Registered another easy start-to-finish win in late May at the final Pittsburgh Senior Classic after opening with Sewickley Heights course-record rounds of 65-65 and building a SENIOR TOUR record-tying eight-stroke lead after 36 holes...Used another pair of 65s on the weekend to ease past Graham Marsh for the Boone Valley Classic title in late September, the same event where he debuted a year earlier...He and Jim Colbert fell to Bob Dickson on the first extra hole of sudden death at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic and one of four players who lost in overtime to Hugh Baiocchi at the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic...Made brief runs at both Isao Aoki (BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland) and Hale Irwin (Ameritech Senior Open) on Sunday's back nine, but ended up as the runner-up in both events as well...Finished third in the Cadillac Series points standings and received a Cadillac automobile at year's end...Final Round Scoring Average (69.36) was second only to Irwin...Played in four PGA TOUR events and T43 at the National Car Rental Classic at Disney after being among the leaders after the opening round...Also T52 at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic after carding five straight sub-par rounds...Missed the cut at the Doral Ryder Open and THE PLAYERS Championship.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Made his SENIOR TOUR debut at the Boone Valley Classic just two days after turning 50...Opened with a 3-under-par 69 and followed with rounds of 70-74 for a T16 worth $17,924...In all, made six starts and finished in the top-10 in four of those tournaments...Best effort was a T2 in his second start at the Comfort Classic...Was in the hunt to the end before a final-hole birdie by winner David Graham...Prior to moving to the SENIOR TOUR, played 18 events on the PGA TOUR, winning $196,981...A T2 at the Doral-Ryder Open was his best TOUR finish that year and largest PGA TOUR career paycheck ($158,400).

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Captured 10 PGA TOUR titles, including three majors...The native of Georgia won the 1981 PGA Championship at Atlanta Athletic Club...Opened with a 70, then shot consecutive 66s for a four-stroke lead after 54 holes...Finished with a 71 and four-stroke victory over Fuzzy Zoeller...Trailed Tom Watson and Seve Ballesteros by one stroke after three rounds of the 1983 U.S. Open at Oakmont, but fired a closing 67 for a one-stroke win over Watson...At the 1987 PGA Championship at PGA National GC, he used three different configurations of irons over four days of oppressive heat, but still managed to defeat Lanny Wadkins in a playoff...Recorded two victories (Jackie Gleason-Inverrary Classic and Western Open), two seconds and two thirds in 1979 en route to a second-place finish on the money list behind Watson with $281,022...Was named as Golf Digest's Most Improved Player that season...Best earnings year was 1987, when he made $501,292, 14th on the money list...Along with PGA title, also was victorious at the '87 Walt Disney World/Oldsmobile Classic...Last title came in 1988 at the Georgia-Pacific Atlanta Classic, where he defeated Chip Beck by one stroke...Played on three Ryder Cup teams (1979, 1981, 1987) and had a 9-3-1 record...In his final full year on the PGA TOUR in 1996, he rebounded from four consecutive seasons in which he earned less than $100,000 to record the third-best earnings season of his 23-year career...In 21 starts, made $305,083 and finished 70th on the PGA TOUR money list.

PERSONAL: Former Player Director on the PGA TOUR Policy Board...Didn't begin playing golf until returning from his military service in Vietnam...Got his instruction from reading Ben Hogan's book — The Five Fundamentals of Golf...Broke 100 the first time he played and broke 70 within nine months...Active in golf course design with 12 courses open for play worldwide...Two of his layouts host tournaments — Springhouse Golf Club (BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland) and Fuji Dejima in Japan (Nikkei Cup)...Has two sons who are aspiring golfers — Drew, his oldest, is on the Hooters Tour and Josh is in his second year of school at Auburn...A former pitcher/shortstop for a Georgia Colt League Champion team as a youngster.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISH: T34—Kroger Senior Classic.

1998 SEASON: Had his best overall SENIOR TOUR outing for the second straight year at the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic (T34)...T37 at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland included sub-par rounds on Friday and Saturday to give him his best showing of the season in the MasterCard Champions competition, a solo second, two strokes back of Gary Player...Also T3 in the MasterCard event at the Ameritech Senior Open, losing to Al Geiberger by three...Teamed with Dave Hill to T3 in the Legendary Champions division of the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Placed 93rd on the overall money list with $51,965 and earned another $101,140 in the over-60 competition for the 16th spot among MasterCard Champions.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1996: Underwent left hip replacement surgery in January and got an artificial right hip later that same season. 1994: Last top-10 finish came at the Ralphs Senior Classic when he T10 after opening the tournament as the first-round leader with a sizzling 64 at Rancho Park...Recorded consecutive eagles in the final round of the U.S. Senior Open at Pinehurst, just the third of four times that's ever happened on the SENIOR TOUR. 1991: Had his best earnings year as a professional, making $252,764 on the strength of eight top-10 finishes. 1989: Lone official SENIOR TOUR title came at the Southwestern Bell Classic...Defeated Orville Moody on the third hole of a playoff for the title at Quail Creek CC in Oklahoma City...Also finished second at the MONY Arizona Classic, where his opening-round 10-under 62 matched the best round on the SENIOR TOUR that year. 1988: Earned more money than any other non-winner, pocketing $226,936 in official earnings for 14th place on the final money list...Holed a 4-wood second shot for double eagle on the 3rd hole in the opening round of the Northville Invitational, just the fourth albatross in the history of the circuit at the time. 1986: Debuted on the SENIOR TOUR in the seventh event of the year, teaming with Julius Boros for a T15 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Broke into the winner's circle for the first time in 12 years at the unofficial Showdown Classic, joining forces with the PGA TOUR's Curt Byrum to shoot 39-under-par and triumph in Utah.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Broke onto the PGA TOUR in 1960 and captured his first two titles in 1962; the first coming at Lakewood CC in the St. Petersburg Open by two over Frank Boynton...Biggest of 11 PGA TOUR victories came at the 1964 PGA Championship at Columbus (OH) CC, where he topped Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer by three strokes...Led the tournament all four rounds, and his 72-hole total of 271 was a PGA Championship record until Nick Price broke it at Southern Hills in 1994...Runner-up to Gay Brewer at the 1967 Masters...Claimed the PGA TOUR's first $200,000 tournament, the Carling World Open at Oakland Hills CC in 1964...$35,000 first prize came with that victory...Also won the TOUR's first $300,000 event, the 1970 Dow Jones Open at Upper Montclair CC, now the site of the SENIOR TOUR's Cadillac NFL Golf Classic...Best year on the PGA TOUR was 1974 when he made $124,747 and placed 14th on the official money list...Member of the 1967 U.S. Ryder Cup Team...Has had 12 holes-in-one in his professional career.

PERSONAL: Honored by the Golf Writers Association of America with the 1962 Ben Hogan Award for his amazing comeback from injuries sustained in a serious automobile accident in high school...Suffered a broken pelvis, concussion, back and internal injuries, plus was paralyzed from the waist down and unconscious for 13 days...Was released from the hospital after 96 days, later regained the use of his legs, then subsequently discovered he still could play golf...After winning junior golf titles in Kentucky, he met the legendary Bear Bryant, then coach of the University of Kentucky, who, after taking the Texas A&M helm, offered him a football scholarship to play for the Aggies...Experienced another scary moment when he, Lee Trevino and Jerry Heard were struck by lightning at the 1975 Western Open.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISH: T47—Cadillac NFL Golf Classic.

1998 SEASON: Spearheaded the SENIOR TOUR For the Cure program, a national campaign to promote prostate cancer awareness, and along with Jim Colbert, the duo helped to raise $4.3 million to combat the disease... Played in his 44th Masters and tied Sam Snead for the second longest streak in the history of that event behind Doug Ford (46)... Made 13 appearances on the SENIOR TOUR for the second straight year and had his best outing at Upper Montclair CC when he T47 at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic... 18th appearance at the U.S. Senior Open at Riviera CC broke Miller Barber's record for the most at that prestigious event... Was off the circuit for 11 weeks during the fall due to seven weeks of radiation treatments for prostate cancer... Returned at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic in Los Angeles in late October.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Underwent surgery for prostate cancer in mid-January and made his first start after the surgery at the PGA TOUR's Bay Hill Invitational in late March. 1996: Captained the United States team to victory in the Presidents Cup near Washington... Named the "Golfer of the Century" at the centennial banquet of the Golf Associations of Philadelphia and received the Distinguished American Award from the prestigious Jonathan Club in Los Angeles... Also was honored by the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame during Masters week with a sculpture in downtown Augusta, GA. 1995: Shot his age for the first time in the final round of the GTE Northwest Classic, carding a 66 on his birthday... Made triumphal return to St. Andrews on the 35th anniversary of his first British Open in 1960. 1994: Played in his last U.S. Open at Oakmont CC near Pittsburgh, 40 years after competing in his first one. 1993: Pocketed $190,000 at the Senior Skins Game and was the event's leading money-winner for a second straight year... Was the designated honoree at The Memorial and played in the event for the first time since 1984. 1992: Racked up $205,000 in winning the Senior Skins Game at Mauna Lani to start the year... Carded the 16th hole-in-one of his career, and last in competition, in the opening round of the GTE Northwest Classic. 1988: Had his finest earnings year as a senior, placing 17th on the final money list with $185,373... Recorded his last official win on the SENIOR TOUR, claiming the Crestar Classic title near Richmond in wire-to-wire fashion by four strokes over Lee Elder, Larry Mowry and Jim Ferree. 1986: Made holes-in-one on consecutive days at the par-3 third hole at the Tournament Players Club at Avenel during the Chrysler Cup pro-am competition, a first for a professional player. 1985: Ran away from the field with an 11-shot win at the Senior Tournament Players Championship at Canterbury GC near Cleveland and established an all-time record for largest margin of victory until it was broken by Hale Irwin's 12-shot win at the 1997 PGA Seniors' Championship. 1984: His three victories during the campaign were the most in any single season of his SENIOR TOUR career and marked the first time since 1971 that he claimed a trio of titles in a year... Won a pair of senior major championships — the PGA Seniors' Championship by two strokes over Don January and the Senior Tournament Players Championship besting Peter Thomson by three shots... Also edged Orville Moody and Lee Elder by one at the Quadel Seniors Classic near the end of the campaign. 1983: Ended a 15-month victory drought by capturing the season-ending Boca Grove Senior Classic after leading or sharing the lead throughout. 1982: Collected a pair of titles, the first coming at the Marlboro Classic by four strokes over Billy Casper and Bob Rosburg... Added the Denver Post Champions of Golf title when he held off Bob Goalby by a stroke. 1981: Became the first player to claim both a U.S. Open and Senior Open title with his playoff victory over Bob Stone and Billy Casper at Oakland Hills CC near Detroit. 1980: Playoff victory over Paul Harney at the PGA Seniors' Championship made him the first of only four men to claim the first official SENIOR TOUR event he entered... Actually debuted on the circuit at the unofficial World Seniors Invitational, finishing as runner-up to Gene Littler in Charlotte.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Has 92 victories worldwide... A winner of eight major championships in his career: four Masters, two British Opens, one U.S. Open and one U.S. Amateur... Ranks fourth on the all-time PGA TOUR victory list with 60 titles... Was the first player in PGA TOUR history to reach $1 million mark in official earnings, achieving that feat with a T2 at the PGA Championship in San Antonio on July 21, 1968... Tied with Jack Nicklaus for most consecutive years winning at least one tournament (17)... Named PGA TOUR Player of the Year in 1960 and 1962... Led the PGA TOUR in earnings in 1958, 1960, 1962 and 1963... Appropriately, the annual award for leading money-winner on both the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR is named for him... Four-time Vardon Trophy winner (1961, 1962, 1964, 1967)... Recipient of the USGA's Bob Jones Award in 1971 and the Byron Nelson Award in 1957, 1960, 1961, 1962 and 1963... Member

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1—Northville Long Island Classic; T5—American Express Invitational, Pittsburgh Senior Classic, T9—Nationwide Championship; T10—Boone Valley Classic.

1998 SEASON: Had perhaps the finest season of any player over 60 years of age with over $450,000 in official money, more than twice what he made a year ago despite only 18 official appearances, his fewest since 1989...Just two months shy of his 63rd birthday, he became the second oldest winner in the history of the SENIOR TOUR...Carded three consecutive rounds of 68 at the Meadow Brook Club to hold off both J.C. Snead and Walter Hall by a stroke for the Northville Long Island Classic title...Had captured his fourth consecutive MasterCard Champions title the day before and thus became just the fourth player to "double dip," claiming both events in the same week...Finished 6th on the MasterCard Champions money list with $171,330...Was on the leaderboard for most of the American Express Invitational and eventually T5 in Sarasota...Shot rounds of 77-72 at Augusta National and became the oldest golfer in Masters history to make the cut, breaking the 25-year-old record set by Sam Snead.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Made his 40th appearance in the Masters Tournament, tying him with Billy Casper for fourth place in appearances at that prestigious event...Received an Honorary Doctor of Science Award from the University of Ulster in Ireland...Inducted into the Captains Club at the 1997 Memorial Tournament. 1996: Won three MasterCard Champions titles in his first year in the over-60 competition...Fell to Walter Morgan on the first hole of a playoff at the FHP Health Care Classic at Ojai, CA. 1995: Captured his second Bank One Classic in three years when he returned to Lexington and shot a final-round 64...Came from four strokes back on Sunday thanks to eight birdies and no bogeys...Received an Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from St. Andrews University in Scotland and was the recipient of the Hilton Hotel Lifetime Achievement Award. 1994: Holed a 70-foot putt to win the Skills Challenge late in the year...Competed in his 40th consecutive British Open at Turnberry in Scotland...Named an Honorary Member of the Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews...Saw his horse, "Broadway Flyer" compete in the English Derby. 1993: Celebrated his 40th year as a professional with his 38th TOUR victory, a three-stroke win over Dale Douglass at the Bank One Classic in Lexington, KY. 1991: Started the year off with a victory at the Royal Caribbean Classic, his seventh straight

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1—State Farm Senior Classic; 2—Comfort Classic, Kroger Senior Classic (lost in five-man playoff), T2—AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship; T3—First of America Classic, The Transamerica.

1998 SEASON: Eclipsed the seven-figure mark in earnings for the first time ever and finished among the top-10 on the money list for the first time as well...Had the majority of his success in the second half of the season...T2 at the AT&T Canada Senior Open near Calgary kicked off a run of three straight top-10 finishes in late-June/early July that culminated with a victory at the inaugural State Farm Senior Classic...Made a 20-foot birdie putt on the 18th green to avert a playoff with Walter Hall and Hale Irwin near Baltimore...Was in the hunt at the First of America Classic but an even-par 72 in the final round left him T3...Knocked on the door again in September...Posted three sub-70 rounds at the Comfort Classic, but still finished second to Hugh Baiocchi...His 18-under 198 total at Brickyard Crossing was the all-time lowest 54-hole score in relation to par that didn't win an event...Got clipped again by Baiocchi in a playoff the very next week at the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic...Equaled his low round of the year, an 8-under 64, on the final day of the Transamerica and T3 in Napa, CA...Led the SENIOR TOUR in Total Birdies with 430 and was fourth in Rounds-in-the-60s with 40...Was also T6 in Sub-Par Rounds (57), eighth on the circuit in Top-10s (12) and ninth in Birdie Average (3.71)...Again, proved to be one of the busiest SENIOR TOUR players with 37 starts last year, one short of "ironman" Dana Quigley...Was inducted into the University of Utah Athletic Hall of Fame prior to the start of the season.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Earned his first SENIOR TOUR victory in his 102nd start...Won the Saint Luke's Classic in suburban Kansas City in a playoff over Hugh Balocchi...Trailed by six strokes entering the final round but made birdie on two of the last three holes to tie Balocchi, then defeated him with a par on the second extra hole...Came close to a second title two months later in Hawaii...Had opening rounds of 64-65 at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic, but shot a 74 on the final day to finish T2, three strokes behind Hale Irwin...Also was T2 after two rounds of the Raley's Gold Rush Classic, but closed with a 74 and finished T12...His 35 starts were one shy of the SENIOR TOUR leading total of 36 by Bobby Strobe and Walter Morgan, and his 110 rounds tied for third...Saw his string of consecutive official events end at 96 when he skipped the BankBoston Classic in August due to a back problem. 1996: Earned the "ironman" title after setting a SENIOR TOUR record by playing an amazing 119 rounds (the old mark was 115 by Rives McBee and John Paul Cain in 1990)...Best finish was a T4 at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland, where he closed with 65. 1995: Collected a career-best 14 top-10s and was nominated for Rookie of the Year honors...Had two stretches that produced four consecutive top-10s and came close to a victory several times...Blitzed the Golf Club of Georgia with a course-record 63 in the first round of the Nationwide Championship and was tied with Larry Laoretti after 36 holes...Settled for a T2 with Hale Irwin, two behind Bob Murphy...Came close again in his native Utah, but was one of six players to fall one stroke short of Tony Jacklin at the Franklin Quest Championship...Also led with six holes to play at The Transamerica, but lost to Lee Trevino down the stretch...Finished the year No. 1 in birdies with 411, one more than Dave Stockton. 1994: Earned a full exemption for 1995 after a fourth-place finish at the National Qualifier...Played in four events (three Monday qualifying/one sponsor exemption)...Best finish was a T16 at The Transamerica after closing with 66.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: One of the top players in the Utah PGA section for a number of years prior to joining the SENIOR TOUR...Twice selected as the Rocky Mountain PGA Section Player of the Year...Never qualified for the PGA TOUR on a full-time basis, but played in several TOUR events when he was living in northern California...Best finish was a third in the 1974 Bing Crosby Pro-Am...Qualified for four U.S. Open Championships and four PGA Championships...Was a member of two U.S. teams in PGA Cup matches...Named the 1977 Northern California PGA Section Player of the Year...A collegiate All-American at the University of Utah...Was an assistant professional at the Olympic Club in San Francisco from 1968-1976 and set the Ocean Course record with a 60...Was PAC-8 Coach of the Year at Stanford University, where he served as golf coach in 1978-79...Has one career hole-in-one.

PERSONAL: Comes from a golfing family, and all eight of his children have caddied for him on the SENIOR TOUR...Daughter Carrie is on a golf scholarship at Brigham Young and nephew Boyd attended Oklahoma State on a golf scholarship last year and is now serving a mission...Says his biggest thrill in golf was qualifying for the SENIOR TOUR in late 1994.

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1—Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic; 3—Emerald Coast Classic, T3—Nationwide Championship, The Transamerica.

1998 SEASON: Became the sixth of seven first-time winners when he won the rain-shortened Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic near Minneapolis...Birdied the second hole of a sudden death playoff to defeat Isao Aoki for the title at Bunker Hills GC...Ironically, the victory came on the same weekend as the Buick Open was being played in Michigan, the site of his last PGA TOUR victory in 1989...Was in contention at the Emerald Coast Classic before finishing solo third, two strokes back of Dana Quigley...Earned his highest standing ever on any official money list in his career with more than twice the amount he made in his rookie season on the circuit...T3 in Sub-Par Rounds with 61 and was ranked sixth on the SENIOR TOUR in Total Birdies with 359...Also T8 in Rounds-in-the-60s with 33.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: As a rookie, played in 30 events and finished 40th on the money list with $384,806...Two of those appearances were as a Monday qualifier (Toshiba Senior Classic and Nationwide Championship)...Posted seven top-10 finishes, with his best effort coming at the U.S. Senior Open (T5) at Olympia Fields CC outside of Chicago...Also T6 at three different events: Cadillac NFL Golf Classic, Kroger Senior Classic and Northville Long Island Classic...Was among the SENIOR TOUR's Driving Distance leaders (272.8) and ranked fifth in Eagle Frequency (152.8).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Has won three PGA TOUR events, with the last victory coming in 1989 at the Buick Open...Prevailed by one stroke over Billy Andrade, Doug Tewell and Payne Stewart at Warwick Hills in Grand Blanc...After a first-round 65, he trailed by three entering the final round, but rallied with a 4-under-par 68 for his one-stroke victory...The win ended an 11-year, 9-month victory drought, the third-longest stretch between wins in PGA TOUR history...The Buick Open victory helped him to a personal TOUR-best $261,397, more than triple his earnings total from the previous season ($84,659)...Prior to the Michigan win, his previous victory came at the 1977 Pensacola Open, where he rolled in a 50-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to edge rookie Curtis Strange...His first TOUR win came in 1974 at the Jackie Gleason-Inverrary Classic, where he nipped Hale Irwin by one stroke...Set a course record at the 1981 Canadian Open, when he shot a 62 (31-31) at Glen Abbey GC...Hit every green in regulation except one, but still birdied that hole with a chip-in from off the green...Used the same ball for all 18 holes...The ball then was presented to the Royal Canadian Golf Association for display in its museum at Glen Abbey...Also turned in a stellar performance at the 1977 Colgate Hall of Fame at Pinehurst No. 2...Shot a nine-hole record 7-under-par 29 on the back nine of the fabled course in his native North Carolina...Tuned up for the SENIOR TOUR by appearing in 11 events on the PGA TOUR in 1996 and earned $29,790...Best effort was a T14 at the Quad City Classic, where he won $20,400...That was his best showing since he won $41,333 at the 1991 Hardee's Golf Classic, the same event but with a different name.

PERSONAL: Played collegiately at Wake Forest University, where he was a teammate of Lanny Wadkins and Joe Inman...Inducted into Wake Forest Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

Jack Nicklaus for the U.S. Senior Open title... Out of the top-10 only twice all year and won the Byron Nelson Award with a stroke average of 68.89, the lowest in SENIOR TOUR history /until Hale Irwin's 68.59 in 1998... Was ranked among the top five in every statistical category and topped the All-Around standings. 1989: Joined the SENIOR TOUR at the last official money event of the year, the GTE Kaanapali Classic... Carded back-to-back 69s at that rain-shortened event and finished T7.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 18th among all-time PGA TOUR winners with 27 victories... Voted the TOUR's Rookie of the Year in 1967... Was the leading money-winner in 1970 and Player of the Year in 1971... Made his debut at the 1966 U.S. Open, but first got national attention the next year at Baltusrol when he finished fifth and made $6,000... Gained headlines with his first TOUR win at the 1968 U.S. Open at Oak Hill CC, becoming the first player in Open history to play all four rounds under-par and in the 60s... Won the Open again in 1971, defeating Jack Nicklaus in an 18-hole playoff at Merion... Won back-to-back British Open titles in 1971 and 1972... Collected a record fifth Vardon Trophy in 1980 with a scoring average of 69.73, the lowest since Sam Snead's 69.23 in 1950... Won a second PGA Championship in 1984 at Shoal Creek in Birmingham, AL at the age of 44... Ended a three-and-a-half-year victory drought with that title, outlasting Gary Player and Lanny Wadkins down the stretch... A member of six Ryder Cup teams and served as captain of the 1985 squad... Teamed with Orville Moody to win the 1969 World Cup for the United States and joined Nicklaus for another World Cup title in 1971... Hampered throughout his career by back problems and underwent surgery for a herniated disc in November of 1976... Struck by lightning, along with Bobby Nichols and Jerry Heard, at the 1975 Western Open... Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1981.

PERSONAL: Entirely self-taught and, as a youth, became the protege of Hardy Greenwood, owner of Hardy's Driving Range in Dallas... Served in the Marine Corps for four years from the age of 17 to 21... Became a golf professional in 1960 and got his first job working as an assistant professional in El Paso, TX... Between TOURs, served a stint as golf analyst for NBC-TV.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $273,435

PLAYOFF RECORD: 1-0

BEST 1998 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T4—The Home Depot Invitational; T21—American Express Invitational.

1998 SEASON: Sunk to his lowest earnings year since 1990 and had just one top-10 finish in 31 starts...Started the year off on a somber note when his father passed away just prior to the first official tournament...Made almost a third of his total yearly earnings in Charlotte at The Home Depot Invitational when he collected $54,267...Was tied for the lead with an opening round 67, then fell back on Saturday before rallying with another 67 to T4 at the Tournament Players Club at Piper Glen...Posted his low round of the year, a six-under 66, on the opening day of the American Express Invitational, but eventually T21 after rounds of 73-74 on the weekend...Went over the $3 million mark in Combined Career Earnings with his $5,250 check at the Vantage Championship.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Inducted into the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame in January...Led with eight holes to play at The Transamerica but bogeyed two holes down the stretch and finished four strokes behind Dave Eichelberger...T2 at Silverado was his best since the 1993 Vantage Championship (2)...Led The Home Depot Invitational at the turn on Sunday before a double bogey at the 10th hole proved costly and he finished T8...Finished third in Eagle Frequency, averaging one every 142.6 holes...Made a hole-in-one at the Emerald Coast Classic, his second on the SENIOR TOUR and third of his professional career. 1996: Eclipsed the $2 million mark in SENIOR TOUR Career Earnings with a T17 at the U.S. Senior Open and $16,549 paycheck...Made the second hole-in-one of his professional career at the Ameritech Senior Open. 1993: Had his finest financial season in golf with over $450,000 in official earnings...Shot 64-68 on the weekend at the Vantage Championship and finished solo second behind Lee Trevino...$132,000 paycheck was the largest of his career...Led the circuit in Eagles for the second straight season with a total of 17. 1992: Put together 12 top-10 finishes, the most he's ever had in one season, and placed 17th on the final money list, his highest standing on the SENIOR TOUR...Tied with Mike Hill for the most Eagles on the circuit with 16...Also ranked third in Greens-In-Regulation (73.3%) and third in Driving Distance (271.8). 1991: Made birdie on the second playoff hole to beat J.C. Snead for the Bank One Senior Classic title, his only victory on the SENIOR TOUR...Came from five shots back on the last day with a sizzling 65, including birdies on the last five holes (three regulation, two playoff)...Ranked statistically among the top 10 in Driving Distance, Greens-In-Regulation and Eagles. 1990: Had just 21 putts in firing a closing-round 62 to vault himself into the top eight at the National Qualifying Tournament at Mission Hills Resort near Palm Springs...Earned his initial full exemption as a result of his fifth-place finish...Played in 25 events during the course of the year, mainly through open qualifying. 1989: Made three appearances on the circuit after turning 50 in September...T18 at the National Qualifying Tournament.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Joined the PGA TOUR in 1964 and won twice...Biggest thrill in golf was winning the 1971 Liggett & Myers Match Play Championship...Also won the 1972 Southern Open...Appeared among the top-60 money-winners from 1971 to 1973...Best year on the PGA TOUR was 1971, when he collected $76,256, good for 24th place on the final money list...Seven-time Georgia PGA Champion and four-time Georgia Open winner...Twice named Georgia PGA Player of the Year.

PERSONAL: Very active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes...Father was a legendary football coach at Texas Tech who introduced him to golf at age 13 at Lubbock CC...In addition to golf, DeWitt also played quarterback at SMU and was a 1958 Wigwam All-American in high school football.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $2,241,687

PLAYOFF RECORD: 2-3

1998 SEASON: Did not compete in any official SENIOR PGA TOUR events last year, primarily due to a commitment to growing his golf course design business... Played in the Office Depot Father/Son Challenge near the end of the year with his son Eric.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Played just five events due to outside commitments and won $36,943... T9 at the MasterCard Championship... Underwent two surgeries to remove malignant melanoma on his left forearm in the fall of the year. 1996: Claimed a pair of titles for the first time since the 1975 season, winning the SBC Dominion Seniors and the Pittsburgh Senior Classic... Fired three consecutive rounds of 69 to post a two-stroke victory over Gary Player, Graham Marsh and Bob Dickson at The Dominion... Was one of just three wire-to-wire winners in '96 after a three-stroke victory at Quicksilver GC near Pittsburgh. 1995: Had his best financial year in golf, going over the half-million dollar mark in earnings for the only time in his career... Was the only man to post four rounds in the 60s at Congressional CC, claiming the U.S. Senior Open by four strokes over Jack Nicklaus... 13-under 275 total was the second lowest in Senior Open history... Victory came in the midst of a run of 11 consecutive sub-par rounds and earned him July Player of the Month honors. 1994: Seemed to have destiny on his side in winning his first SENIOR TOUR title at the Franklin Quest Championship in Utah... Birdied the last three holes in regulation to catch Dave Stockton and then holed a 20-foot downhill birdie putt on the first hole of a playoff for the victory... Dedicated the title to close friend Bert Yancey who died tragically at the tournament site earlier in the week. 1993: Made his first appearance on the SENIOR TOUR as part of the American team at the Chrysler Cup competition... Garnered individual honors at the Tournament Players Club at Prestancia with a 14-under 202 score over 54 holes.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Has won close to $4 million in his professional career while posting 15 victories in nearly two decades on the PGA TOUR...When the top-60 money-winners were the prime basis for exempt status, he finished in that group 17 consecutive years...Had his best season in 1973, when he won $245,463 and captured five titles within an eight-week span...During that stretch, he defeated Johnny Miller at Troon in Scotland for the British Open title and then won the Canadian Open...Shot in the 60s in exactly half his 40 rounds played that summer... Voted Player of the Year by several publications and by the Golf Writers Association for his accomplishments that season...Last TOUR title came at the 1982 Western Open, the same event in which he made his first start as a professional in 1964...Was a four-time runner-up at the Masters and T2 at the 1976 U.S. Open...Took up golf at age 15 and won the first of three consecutive Ohio Public Links Championships three years later...Biggest amateur victory came at the 1963 Western Amateur...Member of the 1973 and 1975 U.S. Ryder Cup teams...Selected to the 1972 U.S. World Cup squad.

PERSONAL: Became actively involved in golf course architecture in 1983 and completed 23 courses with Jay Morrish before starting his own design firm in 1994...Has opened seven courses in the United States, the Philippines and South Africa since going into business for himself and has another five courses in the United States, Mexico and the Bahamas scheduled to start construction in the spring of 1999...Is in the process of building a new home in the White Mountains of Arizona that will be a 65-acre working quarterhorse ranch...Also enjoys hunting bighorn sheep and elk.

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Gil Morgan, runner-up at Hualalai Golf Club a year ago, won the season-opening event and relegated the man who beat him in 1997, Hale Irwin, to a tie for second in 1998.

Morgan shot a course-record-tying 64 on Sunday to shatter the tournament record with a 54-hole total of 21-under-par 195 and complete the wire-to-wire victory.

Irwin, who also shot 64, was tied with Gibby Gilbert six shots back. The 1997 SENIOR TOUR Player of the Year made a run on Sunday, shooting 30 on his front side, but Morgan matched him stroke for stroke. Morgan started the final round with a two-shot lead and used three early birdies and an eagle at the fourth hole to seize control for good with a 31 on his outward nine.

Tournament Tidbit: The MasterCard Championship victory was Gil Morgan's third consecutive dating back to the end of the 1997 season, when he captured the Ralphs Senior Classic and the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship.

ROYAL CARIBBEAN CLASSIC RECAP

David Graham, who had birdied his final three holes to force the playoff, came up with another on the 10th hole of sudden death to beat Dave Stockton in the longest playoff in SENIOR PGA TOUR history.

"It means a lot to win," said Graham, who closed with the day's low round of 67 to finish at 11-under-par 202 at Crandon Park Golf Club. "Something like this is good for the SENIOR TOUR. It's kind of nice to see two players over the age of 50 who can play that kind of golf."

Graham didn't feel he had a chance until he rolled in a 35-footer for birdie at the 16th hole in regulation. A 20-footer at No. 17 followed, then Graham polished off his round with an eight-footer on the final hole. Stockton, meanwhile, had rallied from a bogey on the 16th hole to pull even with an eight-foot birdie putt on the next hole. When he failed to make birdie at the 18th, Stockton and Graham embarked on the playoff.

Tournament Tidbit: Ironically, both Dave Stockton and David Graham now figure into two SENIOR TOUR playoff records. They also were part of one of the two largest playoffs in SENIOR TOUR history — a five-man affair at the 1996 Emerald Coast Classic won by Lee Trevino.

LG CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Gil Morgan denied long-time friend Dale Douglass a chance to win the LG Championship when he holed a sand wedge from 40 yards out for eagle on the final hole. The improbable shot enabled Morgan to break out of a tie with Douglass, who was bidding to become the second-oldest player to win a SENIOR TOUR event, and Raymond Floyd. Morgan finished with a 54-hole total of 6-under 210 after closing with a 68 for his second official victory of 1998.

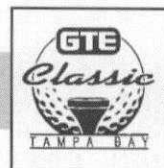

"This one surprised me," admitted Morgan afterward. "I don't think I've ever done that to win. My plan was to just get it close and go for birdie — or worse case, I would par and get into a playoff."

Morgan's victory, the ninth of his young SENIOR TOUR career, was unusual in more ways than the finish. He made an uncharacteristic three double bogeys — including two straight in the second round — and shot one-over on the front side as he tried to gain ground Sunday.

But the 1997 SENIOR TOUR Rookie of the Year rolled in a 10-footer for birdie on the 10th hole, then added clutch par saves of 8 and 15 feet, respectively, on the next two holes. Birdie putts of 12 and 40 feet then moved him into a tie for the lead and set the stage for the dramatic ending.

Tournament Tidbit: Gil Morgan became the first person to make an eagle on the final hole to win since David Graham eagled the 54th hole to edge John Jacobs for the 1997 Southwestern Bell Dominion title.

LEADERS: First Round—Brian Barnes opened with an 8-under-par 63 and held a three-stroke lead over Jim Colbert, Bob Eastwood and Bob Duval. Second Round—After a 1-over-par 72, Barnes was at 7-under-par 135 and had a one-stroke lead over Vicente Fernandez. Six other players were two strokes back.

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONS: Jim Ferree won his first over-60 title in more than three years by making a birdie on the second hole of a four-man playoff. Ferree finished with a 36-hole total of even-par 142; he collected $18,000 for the victory.

GTE CLASSIC RECAP

Jim Albus, who faltered in the final round of the LG Championship seven days earlier, redeemed himself near Tampa with his sixth career victory on the SENIOR PGA TOUR and second GTE Classic title.

Albus had the lead the only time it counted — at the end of 54 holes of the tournament. He scrambled for par on three of his last four holes to shoot 70 and finish at 6-under-par 207. Albus' clutch par save on the 18th hole proved to be the deciding factor as Jose Maria Canizares' putter failed him on the final holes.

The affable Spaniard appeared to be cruising to victory as he took a two-stroke advantage to the 16th tee. But a pair of three-putts later — one for bogey and another for double — Canizares' chances for his first win on American soil had been derailed. The scoreboards at the 18th hole didn't reflect the change until after Albus had made his par-saving putt.

"I didn't know Canizares had made double bogey until I putted out at 18," Albus explained. "And I'm glad I didn't. I would have never made it. I had missed three other three-footers earlier in the round."

Tournament Tidbit: Jim Albus' victory ended a drought of nearly three years that saw him recover from both neck surgery and a broken ankle.

AMERICAN EXPRESS INVITATIONAL RECAP

Larry Nelson won the first event of his SENIOR TOUR career by firing a final-round 71 in blustery conditions. The two-time PGA and 1983 U.S. Open champion completed a four-shot, wire-to-wire victory at the TPC at Prestancia.

"It was just as exciting as winning on the other TOUR. There's no difference. It felt as good as (his first victory at the Jackie Gleason Inverrary Classic in 1979) — and it was probably a little easier because I knew what to do," Nelson said afterward.

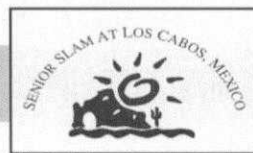

Nelson started the final round with a two-shot lead and never lost it — eventually stretching it to five when Dave Stockton, who made the only run at Nelson, ran into trouble on the back nine. Stockton started the day three shots back, but he closed the gap to two when he matched Nelson's birdie at the second hole and made another on No. 3. Consecutive bogeys on the back nine — again matched with a Nelson birdie — ended Stockton's challenge.

Tournament Tidbit: Larry Nelson's first PGA TOUR win came in Florida at the 1979 Jackie Gleason-Inverrary Classic. The American Express Invitational victory gave him his fifth TOUR title in the Sunshine State.

1998 SENIOR SLAM

Cabo del Sol (Ocean), Cabo San Lucas, Mexico
Par: 36-36-72 Yards: 6,980

Purse: $600,000
March 9-10, 1998

Gil Morgan, the winner of the 1997 Tradition, shot rounds of 66-68 for a 36-hole total of 10-under-par 134 and a six-stroke victory over defending champion Hale Irwin (PGA Seniors' Championship). Isao Aoki, who replaced the late Larry Gilbert (FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship) and Graham Marsh (U.S. Senior Open) finished third and fourth, respectively. Morgan had just two bogeys during the two-day event.

The Senior Slam annually matches the winners of the SENIOR PGA TOUR'S four major championships.

SENIOR SLAM RECAP

Gil Morgan's closing 68 on Cabo del Sol's Ocean Course gave him an easy six-stroke victory over 1997 winner Hale Irwin. "I just tried to play conservative today and not try to do anything spectacular," said Morgan.

Morgan shot a course-record 66 in the opening round of the 36-hole event on the Baja Peninsula matching the winner's of the SENIOR TOUR's four major championships.

His 10-under 134 total earned him $300,000 in unofficial money. Morgan qualified for the trip to Mexico by winning The Tradition.

TOSHIBA SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Hale Irwin fired a course-record 62 to come from five shots back and overtake Hubert Green for his first title of the 1998 season. Irwin's round of 9-under at Newport Beach Country Club included 10 birdies and a single bogey. He finished with a 54-hole total of 13-under-par 200.

"I don't know how to put it in perspective," said Irwin afterward. "This is one of my more memorable final rounds. Anytime you can shoot that kind of a score, you are doing something well."

Green started the final round with a one-shot lead over Jim Albus and Irwin was far back in the pack, five strokes off the pace. Irwin, however, served notice early that he would have to be reckoned with, making birdie on five of his first seven holes. A bogey on the eighth hole was only a momentary setback as Irwin fired an opening 31 on the front side to move into contention.

Green's downfall came at the par-3, 17th hole when he pulled a 3-iron left of the green, chipped 10 feet by the hole and two-putted for bogey to fall two behind. Minutes earlier on the same hole, Irwin managed a scrambling par after watching his tee shot avoid a watery grave by coming to rest against a bunker rake.

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin's 62 in the final round of the Toshiba Senior Classic was his best performance on a Sunday since joining the SENIOR TOUR in June 1995.

LIBERTY MUTUAL LEGENDS OF GOLF RECAP

Dale Douglass holed a 20-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to give him and Charles Coody the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title at Amelia Island.

The over-60 duo won their third Legends title by defeating David Graham and Hugh Baiocchi. The two teams tied at 24-under-par 192 in the 54-hole better-ball event and had the first playoff since 1988.

"It doesn't get much better than this," said Douglass after the win.

Coody and Douglass made eight birdies in 10 holes, beginning at the par-4 sixth. Douglass saved par from left of the green on the final hole to preserve a tie.

Graham and Baiocchi began the final day with a one-shot lead and managed eight birdies and a lone bogey on Sunday. Although Baiocchi made a 30-footer at the final hole to tie Coody and Douglass, he couldn't do it a second time in the playoff two holes later.

Tournament Tidbit: This year's Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf will be played at The Slammer & The Squire Course at the World Golf Village near St. Augustine, FL. It will be the fifth venue for the tournament that started the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL DOMINION RECAP

Lee Trevino ended almost an 18-month victory drought by claiming his third senior title in San Antonio. The two-stroke win over Mike McCullough was the 28th of Trevino's SENIOR PGA TOUR career. He closed with a 67 on a wind-swept Sunday to finish with a 54-hole total of 11-under-par 205.

"I always felt if I kept working, I could still win," Trevino said. "There was never any question that I didn't think I could win again."

Bob Dickson started the final round with a one-stroke advantage, but closed with a 76 and finished in a nine-way tie for 12th. Trevino did not make a bogey Sunday. He surged to the lead as he shot 32 on the front side, making four birdies in a row beginning at the fourth hole. Trevino completed his round with a 10-footer for birdie at No. 12 and sealed the win with a pair of par saves down the stretch, while McCullough three-putted the 15th hole for bogey for the third straight day.

LEADERS: First Round—Tom Wargo shot a 4-under-par 68 and was one stroke in front of Jose Maria Canizares, Hale Irwin and David Graham. Second Round—Wargo added a 67 and was alone at 9-under-par 135. Gil Morgan was two strokes back and Irwin was three behind. Third Round—Wargo maintained a two-stroke lead over Morgan when both players shot 69. Raymond Floyd, John Morgan, Bruce Summerhays and Vicente Fernandez were six strokes back at 6-under-par 210.

GRAND TRADITION: Don Bies/Doug Ford posted a better-ball score of 7-under-par 65 and finished two strokes ahead of Joe Jimenez/Charlie Sifford. Bies and Ford each earned $25,000.

CUT: There was no cut; 77 of 79 players completed 72 holes.

PRO-AM: There was no pro-am.

WEATHER: Unseasonably cool early in the week. An ice storm Wednesday night delayed the start of Thursday play two hours and 33 minutes, after which a two-tee start was used. Plenty of sunshine after Thursday, with temperatures in the mid to upper 70s and winds from 5-10 mph.

THE TRADITION RECAP

Gil Morgan carded a final-round 70 to come from two strokes back and win the SENIOR PGA TOUR's first major championship of the year. Morgan successfully defended his Tradition title, joining Jack Nicklaus as the only other player to do so on the demanding Cochise Course at Desert Mountain.

The personable Oklahoman's two-under-par 70 on Sunday was good enough to edge Tom Wargo, the leader after each of the first three rounds, by two shots. The key to Morgan's victory came early on the back nine when he was the benefactor of two-shot swings on both the 11th and 12th holes.

The four-stroke cushion over Wargo allowed Morgan to cruise to victory despite bogeys at the 13th and 16th holes. He put an exclamation point on the win by holing a clutch 10-footer for par on the 72nd hole.

"My game plan was to play as consistently as I could. I did pretty well through the 12th hole, and then I kind of let it get away coming down the stretch. But things changed a little from time to time. I didn't realize I was going to have the lead I had at the end," Morgan said afterward.

PGA SENIORS' CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Hale Irwin added his third straight PGA Seniors' Championship at PGA National Resort & Spa. His 13-under 275 score gave him a seven-shot victory over Larry Nelson, and he shared or held the lead from the opening day.

Irwin carried a five-shot lead into the final round and never was in danger of relinquishing his hold on the Alfred S. Bourne trophy. He birdied the first hole, added two more at the sixth and the 11th, and was on cruise control by the time he bogeyed the par-3 15th hole.

"I'm terribly excited and pleased about the results this week," said Irwin. "Maybe now I'll allow some historic review of this three-peat. People may look at it as a cakewalk, but I had to play very, very well to win."

Over his last three trips around the Champion course, Irwin is an amazing 35 under par.

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin's three-peat feat at the PGA Seniors' Championship made him the first player since George Archer (1990-92 Northville Long Island Classic) to win the same tournament three consecutive years. Irwin also became the first player since Eddie Williams (1942, 1945, 1946) to win three straight PGA Seniors' Championships.

LAS VEGAS SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Hale Irwin managed to win his third SENIOR PGA TOUR event of 1998 and successfully defend a title for the second straight week despite carding a 3-over-par 75 in the final round at the Tournament Players Club at Summerlin. Irwin braved high winds and cool weather to finish with a total of 6-under-par 281 over four days in Las Vegas.

The $210,000 first-place check moved Irwin into first place on the SENIOR TOUR money list, a spot he held for the remainder of the 1998 season. The one-shot triumph also gave him a third title in his last four starts on the circuit.

Irwin started the final round with a six-stroke advantage, the largest 54-hole margin in 1998, but struggled on the front side, turning in 40. His one and only birdie, on the 13th hole, proved to be just enough to hold off Fernandez who carded a 68, one of only four sub-par rounds on Sunday.

BRUNO'S MEMORIAL CLASSIC RECAP

Hubert Green played his final six holes in six-under-par and won his first-ever SENIOR PGA TOUR title in his old hometown. Green's bogey-free, final-round 64 gave him a 54-hole total of 13-under-par 203 and edged Hale Irwin by a stroke.

"I don't remember the last time I made a run like that," said Green, after his low round of the 1998 season. "I've only played six holes at six-under once in my life, and that was at the Western Open one year."

Green shot 30 on the back nine, making an eagle at the 13th hole and then three consecutive birdies. He was three strokes behind Irwin when he launched his comeback. He punctuated it with a birdie on the last hole.

Tournament Tidbit: Along with golf architect Bob Cupp, Hubert Green helped design the Greystone Golf Club layout. Prior to his win there in 1998, Green's last official TOUR victory came at the 1985 PGA Championship at Cherry Hills CC near Denver.

THE HOME DEPOT INVITATIONAL RECAP

Jim Dent celebrated his 59th birthday by successfully defending his Home Depot Invitational title, winning in a playoff for the second consecutive year.

Dent saw a five-shot lead evaporate midway through the final round and was one stroke behind Bob Charles with just four holes to play. He benefited from a one-hour rain delay to find his stride again and eventually defeated Charles on the second playoff hole.

Dent birdied the 16th hole to pull even with Charles and force the playoff. In the overtime session, Charles missed a six-foot birdie putt to win outright at the 18th hole and then lost to Dent when he bogeyed the par-3 17th hole.

The $165,000 first-place check equaled the largest of Dent's career and helped him finish among the top-31 on the final money list for a 10th straight season, the longest current stretch.

SAINT LUKE'S CLASSIC RECAP

Larry Ziegler bogeyed the final three holes but still won the tournament, edging Tom Shaw by a stroke. "It all counts as a win," the 58-year-old Ziegler said philosophically afterward. "One hundred years from now, they won't remember the last three holes."

The victory was the second of Ziegler's SENIOR PGA TOUR career and his first since 1991. He set a record for the longest time between wins on the circuit — six years, 10 months and three days.

Shaw and Ziegler were tied at the 18th tee, but Shaw's drive found a creek and he eventually made double-bogey on the tournament's final hole. Ziegler pulled his second shot into the rough beside the green and then chipped about 12 feet past the cup. He two-putted to finish at two-under 208 and earn $150,000, the largest check of his professional career.

Ziegler recruited baseball great George Brett to caddie for him on the final day, and that made the victory near Kansas City extra special. "I had no second thoughts at all of letting George carry my bag," Ziegler said. "He's been a true friend. He's gone through the World Series and all the battles. He knows how to handle pressure and sort of put me at ease."

BELL ATLANTIC CLASSIC RECAP

Jay Sigel sank a seven-foot birdie putt on the third playoff hole to claim the first of his two victories during the year in front of a partisan Philadelphia area crowd. A resident of Berwyn, PA, Sigel beat Jose Maria Canizares in the overtime session after both players were tied in regulation at 11-under 205.

Sigel started the final day with a three-stroke lead; however, a Canizares 65, coupled with a Sigel double-bogey at the 15th hole, set up the playoff. Sigel had chances to end the overtime session sooner but missed a seven-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole and an eight-foot par putt on the second extra hole.

"It's huge to get a win at home," an emotional Sigel said afterward. "This win ranks right up there with my all-time wins."

Canizares' runnerup check of $96,800 was the largest of his SENIOR TOUR career.

PITTSBURGH SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

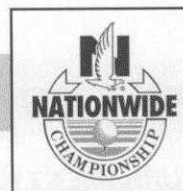

Larry Nelson easily won his second title of the 1998 season, cruising to a wire-to-wire victory for the second time in just over three months. Nelson had entered the final round at Sewickley Heights GC with an eight-shot advantage, more than enough cushion to win despite a final-round 74.

Nelson put the tournament away early when he carded course-record rounds of 65-65 on Friday and Saturday. He outdistanced Bob Duval by five strokes and collected a $165,000 winner's check which pushed his yearly earnings over the $1 million mark.

"It was a little more difficult playing with the eight-shot lead than I thought it would be," admitted Nelson, who won the American Express Invitational in late February. "It was kind of an uneventful day. I just wanted to not embarrass myself."

Tournament Tidbit: The Pittsburgh area has been particularly good to Larry Nelson. In addition to his Pittsburgh Senior Classic title, he won the 1983 U.S. Open at Oakmont Country Club.

1998 NATIONWIDE CHAMPIONSHIP

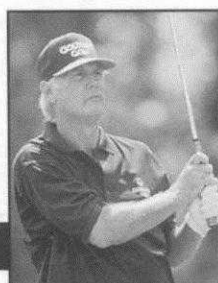

Golf Club of Georgia (Lakeside), Alpharetta, GA Purse: $1,350,000
Par: 36-36-72 Yards: 6,885 June 5-7, 1998

LEADERS: First Round—Gary Player and Gil Morgan matched 5-under-par 67s to lead by one stroke over Jose Maria Canizares, Kermit Zarley, Kurt Cox and Bob Eastwood. Second Round—Eastwood and Morgan were at 8-under-par 136. Canizares trailed by one stroke, while Bob Dickson, John Jacobs, Leonard Thompson and Player were three strokes back.

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONS: Gary Player won his first 60-and-over event of the year, defeating Dale Douglass by two strokes with a score of 5-under-par 139. Player's victory earned him $18,000.

CUT: There was no cut; 77 of 78 players completed 54 holes.

PRO-AM: $10,000. Wednesday Individual—Kermit Zarley, 68, $500. Team—Kermit Zarley, 53, $500. Thursday Individual (Morning)—Kermit Zarley, 68, $400. Team (Morning)—Lee Trevino, Kermit Zarley, 55, $350 each. The afternoon session was rained out. All 28 professionals received $89.29.

WEATHER: Hazy, humid and hot through Wednesday. Thursday afternoon's pro-am round was suspended by thunderstorms from 12:18-12:37 p.m. and from 2:15 p.m.-3:20 p.m. Play was stopped by another thunderstorm at 4:12 p.m. and not resumed. More than three inches of rain fell Thursday night and Friday morning. Another thunderstorm in the area delayed the start of Friday's round for two hours and 40 minutes. Officials went to a two-tee start and invoked the lift-clean-and-place rule. The lift-clean-and-place rule was again in effect on Saturday. Light rain fell early in the day, but skies cleared in the afternoon and temperatures were in the upper 70s. Beautiful on Sunday, with gusting winds from 10-15 mph and temperatures in the low 70s.

NATIONWIDE CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

John Jacobs outdueled Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan near Atlanta for his first SENIOR TOUR career title.

The personable Californian moved into the lead for good at the par-3, 17th hole. He fired a brilliant 6-iron shot to within 18 inches of the cup and tapped in for birdie. He then refused to play safe on the par-5 18th, rifling a 4-iron from 235 yards over the green. Even though he failed to get up and down for birdie, Jacobs' par proved to be good enough to edge Irwin, who also failed to convert a birdie opportunity at the final hole.

Playing in the final group, Morgan saw his last chance to catch Jacobs end when his second shot to the 18th found the water in front of the green.

"It's pretty special to beat Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan when they're playing well," said Jacobs, who fired a closing-round 67.

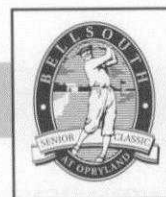

The victory made Jacobs the third of seven first-time winners on the SENIOR TOUR in 1998 and his $202,500 first-place check was easily the largest of his professional career.

Tournament Tidbit: The Nationwide Championship is still without a repeat winner. John Jacobs' victory last year at the Golf Club of Georgia made him the eighth different champion in tournament history.

1998 BELLSOUTH SENIOR CLASSIC AT OPRYLAND

Springhouse Golf Club, Nashville, TN
Par: 36-36-72 Yards: 6,783

Purse: $1,300,000
June 12-14, 1998

LEADERS: First Round—Isao Aoki jumped out to a two-stroke lead over Gil Morgan with a course-record-tying 10-under-par 62. Second Round—Aoki extended his lead to eight strokes, tying the all-time SENIOR PGA TOUR record for largest 36-hole lead. His second-round 66 gave him a two-day total of 16-under-par 128, tying the all-time record in relation to par. Larry Nelson, Hale Irwin and John Jacobs tied for second place.

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONS: Gary Player won for the second consecutive week, defeating Bobby Nichols by two strokes with a 36-hole score of 4-under-par 140. Player's victory in the over-60 competition earned him another $18,000 check.

CUT: There was no cut; 75 of 78 players completed 54 holes.

PRO-AM: $10,000. Wednesday—Cancelled due to thunderstorms. All 54 professionals received $92.60. Thursday Individual—J.C. Snead, 65, $500. Team—Bob Duval, J.C. Snead, 51, $450 each.

WEATHER: Rain most of Tuesday morning. Scattered thunderstorms Wednesday, with three delays in the pro-am before cancellation. Play was stopped from 9:17 a.m.-1:00 p.m., from 4:20-4:40 p.m. and again at 5:09 p.m. before finally being cancelled at 5:40 p.m. Overcast all day Thursday. Sunny, humid and warm Friday, with 10-20 mph winds. Lift-clean-and-place rule was in effect Friday. Temperatures in the 80s Saturday, with plenty of sunshine and 10-15 mph winds. Rain fell early Sunday morning, forcing officials to again use lift-clean-and-place rule. Skies were overcast most of Sunday, with cooler temperatures and 10-20 mph winds. Play was delayed by a small thundershower from 10:55-11:30 a.m.

BELLSOUTH SENIOR CLASSIC AT OPRYLAND RECAP

Isao Aoki won the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland for the second time in three years, holding off a hard-charging Larry Nelson by two strokes. Aoki went wire-to-wire in setting a new tournament mark of 18-under-par at Springhouse Golf Club.

He tied the course record with a sizzling 62 on Friday and then opened up an eight-shot lead after 36 holes. His 16-under-par 128 total after two days equaled the SENIOR PGA TOUR record in relation to par.

"I putted well. That was the key to me winning," said Aoki, who averaged 1.43 putts per hole for the tournament.

Nelson birdied the 12th hole to cut Aoki's margin to two strokes on Sunday but Japan's greatest player clinched his eighth SENIOR TOUR victory on the par-4 16th hole with an 18-foot birdie putt.

Tournament Tidbit: Isao Aoki's victory in Nashville last season extended his streak of years winning at least one tournament to five and tied him with Jim Dent for the longest current run among SENIOR TOUR players.

AT&T CANADA SENIOR OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Brian Barnes came from three strokes back to claim his first SENIOR PGA TOUR title at the Glencoe Golf and Country Club near Calgary. Barnes made a 75-foot eagle putt on the par-5 14th hole and added a 12-foot birdie putt on the 15th to win by two strokes over Dana Quigley, Bruce Summerhays and Tom Jenkins.

"This is my third win since sobriety — all Open Championships," said Barnes, a recovering alcoholic. "My outlook has broadened since I quit drinking five years ago. Maybe I can go back across the border and win the U.S. Championship.

"After the birdie on 15, I felt like I just had to par to win. I didn't think about the win until I holed a four-footer for par at the 17th, however," the colorful Scotsman added.

Tournament Tidbit: This year's AT&T Canada Senior Open moves to Richelieu Valley G & CC outside of Montreal. Lee Trevino won the 1971 Canadian Open there in a playoff with Art Wall. Tom Weiskopf triumphed at that same venue in 1973, defeating Forrest Fezler by two strokes.

CADILLAC NFL GOLF CLASSIC RECAP

Bob Dickson ended a 25-year victory drought by winning the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic in a sudden-death playoff with Jim Colbert and Larry Nelson.

Starting the final round three shots back of Mike McCullough, Dickson carded a two-under 70 to earn a spot in the playoff. On the first extra hole, Dickson made a 20-foot birdie putt and watched Nelson miss a six-foot effort that would have extended the playoff. Colbert had already been eliminated by missing a 20-foot birdie attempt earlier.

The victory was Dickson's first in a TOUR event since the 1973 Andy Williams-San Diego Open, and made him the fifth of seven first-time winners on the 1998 SENIOR TOUR.

"I hit a good putt in the playoff," he said. "I figured with the birdie I'd remain in the playoff. I had semi-conceded Larry making the putt."

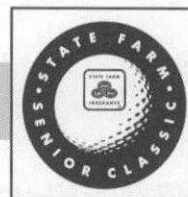

Nelson's missed putt in the playoff was the second surprise Dickson received. He figured it would take a 65 to win, so Dickson said he was stunned his 70 still left him in contention.

Tournament Tidbit: Upper Montclair CC hosted the Thunderbird Invitational on the PGA TOUR in 1962, 1966, 1967 and 1968. Bobby Nichols also won the TOUR's first $300,000 event, the Dow Jones Open, there in 1970.

STATE FARM SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Bruce Summerhays rolled in an 18-foot birdie putt on the final hole to avert a playoff with Walter Hall and Hale Irwin and win the State Farm Senior Classic near Baltimore.

Summerhays started the final day three strokes off the pace and put together a rollercoaster round of seven birdies, seven pars and four bogeys to become the 15th different tournament winner in 1998.

"I decided to be aggressive all day. I decided to go after the golf course," Summerhays said. "Leonard Thompson actually played the best golf. He just didn't sink any putts."

With about 15 family members from various parts of the country in attendance, Summerhays earned his second SENIOR TOUR career victory in four years. His $187,500 paycheck was the largest of his career.

Seven players finished two strokes back of Summerhays at eight-under, including 36-hole leader David Graham.

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin's $100,000 runner-up check made him the first SENIOR TOUR player to go over the $12 million mark in Combined Career Earnings.

FORD SENIOR PLAYERS CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

In another showdown of the SENIOR TOUR's top two players, Gil Morgan strolled to his fourth win of the season and second senior major in 1998.

Morgan's three-stroke victory over Hale Irwin came after he made six birdies and no bogeys on Sunday. The Edmond, Oklahoma resident needed only 25 putts in the final round and opened a huge lead when he made birdies on six of the first 10 holes. His whopping 21-under-par 267 total was the lowest 72-hole score ever recorded at the Tournament Players Club of Michigan.

"My goal was to get to 20-under," Morgan explained afterward. "I had (reached that) by the ninth hole and it skewed my thinking to some degree."

Earlier in the season, Morgan successfully defended his title at The Tradition. By winning again in Dearborn, he became the first player since Lee Trevino in 1992 to capture two senior major championships in the same year.

1998 AMERITECH SENIOR OPEN

Kemper Lakes GC; Long Grove, IL
Par: 36-36-72 Yards: 6,947

Purse: $1,300,000
July 17-19, 1998

LEADERS: First Round—Hale Irwin fired a course-record 10-under-par 62 and took a three-stroke lead over Joe Inman. Hugh Baiocchi was four strokes back. Second Round—Irwin extended his lead to a SENIOR TOUR record-tying eight strokes over Larry Nelson and Bruce Summerhays. His 6-under 66 put him at 16-under 128 after 36 holes and equalled the SENIOR TOUR's all-time record in relation to par.

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONS: Al Geiberger claimed his third 60-and-over title of the season by two strokes over Bruce Crampton. Geiberger's 2-under 142 score for 36 holes earned him an $18,000 check.

CUT: There was no cut; all 78 players completed 54 holes.

PRO-AM: $10,000. Wednesday Individual—Terry Dill, 64, $500. Team—Orville Moody & Dale Douglass, 54, $450 each. Thursday Individual—Bob Eastwood & Mike Hill, 67, $450 each. Team—Jim Albus, 57, $500.

WEATHER: Partly cloudy with temperatures in the mid to low-80s and light winds for the majority of the week. A mix of sun and clouds on Friday and Saturday with low humidity and light breezes. A large thunderstorm moved through the area early Sunday morning but there was no delay in the start of the round. Highs were in the low 90s with scattered thundershowers in the area throughout the afternoon.

AMERITECH SENIOR OPEN RECAP

Hale Irwin hung on to beat Larry Nelson by three strokes for his fourth SENIOR TOUR victory of the season. Irwin carded a Kemper Lakes course-record 62 in the opening round and built up an eight-stroke lead entering the final day of the event.

However, Irwin faltered early on and needed some breaks down the stretch to withstand an inspired effort from Nelson. At the par-4 16th hole, the outcome seemed settled after Nelson's tee shot found water, but on the par-3 17th, Irwin returned the favor. He hooked a 7-iron shot into the water and a double bogey reduced his lead over Nelson to two strokes. Faced with the task of trying to make an eagle to tie, Nelson attempted to drive the green on the par-4 18th hole. Despite a 275-yard carry over the lake, Nelson's ball found the greenside bunker and he eventually settled for a par. Irwin sank a 10-foot birdie putt on the final hole to preserve his three-stroke victory.

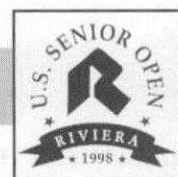

"Larry played very inspired golf," Irwin said. "He certainly made it interesting. I never really got on track and in my playing gear."

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin became the first two-time winner in Ameritech Senior Open history. He's also notched four career TOUR titles in the Chicago area (1975 Western Open, 1990 U.S. Open, 1995 Ameritech Senior Open).

1998 U.S. SENIOR OPEN

LEADERS: First Round—Raymond Floyd carded a 1-under-par 70 and led Hugh Baiocchi, Jay Sigel, Bob Murphy, Roy Vucinic and Bruce Summerhays by one stroke. Second Round—Floyd added another 70 and was alone at 2-under 140 after 36 holes. Vucinic and Summerhays were two strokes back. Third Round—Despite a 2-over 73 on Saturday, Floyd was at even-par 213 after 54 holes and extended his lead to three strokes over Hale Irwin, Isao Aoki and Dave Stockton.

CUT: 63 players (62 professionals and one amateur; low 60 scores and ties) at 12-over-par 154 from a field of 156.

WEATHER: Mostly sunny on Thursday with highs in the upper 70s and winds from the south at 5-15 mph. Cloudy on Friday with temperatures in the mid-70s and southwest winds at 5-15 mph. Warmer on Saturday with afternoon winds from the southwest at 10-20 mph. Sunny on Sunday with highs in the low 90s and light breezes.

U.S. SENIOR OPEN RECAP

Hale Irwin shot a final-round 69 and birdied two of the last three holes to come from three strokes back and win his second senior major championship of 1998. Irwin's dramatic downhill 12-foot birdie putt at Riviera Country Club's last green allowed him to finish one stroke ahead of Vicente Fernandez.

Irwin's one-over-par 285 total for 72 holes was the highest winning score on the SENIOR TOUR since the 1991 U.S. Senior Open at Oakland Hills CC. His opening-round 77 was also the highest one-round score by a winner in SENIOR TOUR history.

The SENIOR TOUR's leading money-winner moved into the top 10 with a 68 on Friday and, after an even-par 71, he began the final day in second place, just three strokes back of Raymond Floyd.

In winning at Riviera for the first time since the 1976 Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open, Irwin became just the 10th player to claim both a PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR event at the same venue.

UTAH SHOWDOWN RECAP

Gil Morgan won for the second time in four weeks, easily outdistancing Isao Aoki and John Mahaffey by four strokes in Park City, Utah.

Morgan wasn't originally planning on playing at Park Meadows Country Club, but was talked into entering by Dave Stockton, defending champion in the event. Going 54 holes without making a bogey led to Morgan's fifth SENIOR TOUR title of the season.

Aoki was just two strokes back of Morgan at the turn but faded down the stretch, picking up just one birdie on the back nine. Mahaffey birdied three of the final four holes to move into a second place tie, his first top-10 finish on the SENIOR TOUR.

BURNET SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Leonard Thompson, who hadn't won since the 1989 Buick Open on the PGA TOUR, beat Isao Aoki on the second playoff hole to win the rain-shortened event near Minneapolis.

"To win anytime it feels great, but the first one is special," said Thompson afterward.

Thompson caught a break when Friday's round was erased after rain and lightning delays. He shot a four-under 68 on Saturday and started the final round in a 10-way tie for sixth place. He used seven birdies on Sunday, including clutch putts on the 16th and 18th to shoot a six-under-par 66 and tie Aoki at the end of regulation.

After both players parred the first playoff hole, they returned to the 410-yard 16th hole, Aoki's tee shot ended up behind a tree, thus eliminating his chances for getting to the green in two. Thompson, on the other hand, capitalized on an enormous drive and hit a pitching wedge to within three feet of the flagstick. He birdied the hole and took home $225,000 for his efforts, the largest check of his 27-year professional career.

Tournament Tidbit: Chi Chi Rodriguez won the inaugural event at Bunker Hills Golf Club in 1993. The victory was the last of his 22 SENIOR TOUR career titles.

FIRST OF AMERICA CLASSIC RECAP

George Archer fired a course-record-tying 64 on Sunday and surged to a five-shot victory over Jim Dent. The win was the first for Archer since 1995 and capped his comeback from hip replacement surgery.

"I never thought I'd be here again," said Archer afterward. "I had thought about retiring and going fishing. It's no fun to be out here when you don't get into the hunt."

Archer, who was named the SENIOR TOUR's Comeback Player of the Year in 1997, finished with a 54-hole total of 17-under-par 199. The 59-year-old made eight birdies on Sunday and matched the tournament record he set in winning at The Highlands Country Club in 1993.

Archer took command of the tournament with three straight birdies on holes 8-10. The victory was his 18th of his SENIOR TOUR career.

Tournament Tidbit: Tony Jacklin's victory in the 1994 event was his first on the SENIOR TOUR, and made him the last player to claim an event after receiving a sponsor's exemption into the tournament.

NORTHVILLE LONG ISLAND CLASSIC RECAP

Just two months shy of his 63rd birthday, Gary Player became the second-oldest winner in SENIOR TOUR history when he nipped Walter Hall and J.C. Snead by a stroke. The victory was Player's first on the SENIOR TOUR since the 1995 Bank One Classic.

"Hey, laddy, I told you age isn't a factor," Player commented as he walked off the green. "I've never questioned I would win again out here," added Player, who was asked repeatedly about his health and fitness. "I will win in my 70s. I do 1,000 situps a day."

Player began Sunday two strokes behind Hall and Tom Shaw, but took the lead for good when he made an eight-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole. Hall missed birdie putts on the last three holes, including an eight-footer on the par-5 17th that lipped out, and one from the same distance on the 18th that just missed the cup.

Snead shot a 5-under-par 67 Sunday. After making birdie on the 18th to move to 11-under, all he could do was wait in the clubhouse to see if Player could maintain his bogey-free back nine.

BANKBOSTON CLASSIC RECAP

Hale Irwin successfully defended his title and notched his sixth SENIOR TOUR title of 1998 in the process. He shot 68 to finish with a two-stroke advantage over Jay Sigel at 15-under-par 201.

Irwin opened the final round with a bogey on the first hole, but recovered nicely — making five birdies at the Nashawtuc Country Club.

"I didn't have near the start I hoped to have," Irwin said. "Thankfully, my putting pulled me through and I hit some opportune iron shots. Paint me lucky today. I wasn't in it. Fortunately, I still was able to win."

Sigel gave Irwin a last-minute run for the money when he birdied the 17th hole to take a share of the lead. Irwin, who was two groups back, answered with a birdie on 15 and parred the remaining holes. Sigel, though, dropped a crucial shot at the last hole when he hit an errant drive and had to settle for bogey.

EMERALD COAST CLASSIC RECAP

Dana Quigley holed a twisting 33-foot putt on the final hole for a one-stroke victory over Jim Colbert. "It's the luckiest one shot I've ever made in my life," Quigley said afterward. "Someone upstairs was pushing that baby in the hole all the way."

Quigley started the final round four shots behind Isao Aoki, but closed with the day's low round of 65 — making birdie on the last two holes at The Moors Golf Club to surge to the top. He finished with a 54-hole total of 10-under-par 200 and collected a check for $165,000, his largest ever.

The victory was his second on the SENIOR TOUR and he dedicated it to his late father, Wally, who passed away from cancer the same day as his son's initial victory at the 1997 Northville Long Island Classic. "I feel I'm even closer to him after he died because I talk to him so much more," Quigley said. "I talk to him in my prayers at night. I talk to him in the morning. I talk to him on the golf course."

Tournament Tidbit: Isao Aoki set a SENIOR PGA TOUR record with his 10-under-par 60 in the second round of the 1997 event. Aoki had 10 birdies during his round but was unable to convert a birdie at either of the last two holes, missing from 30 feet and 25 feet.

COMFORT CLASSIC RECAP

Hugh Baiocchi took advantage of rock-hard fairways and a rejuvenated putting stroke to hold off Bruce Summerhays for his first victory of 1998. Baiocchi became the ninth senior to go all 54 holes without a bogey. He won by two strokes over Summerhays with a tournament-record 20-under-par score.

Baiocchi credited some pre-tourney putting advice from fellow pro Steve Veriato for his outstanding play. Ranked 79th with 30.06 putts per round, Baiocchi needed just 84 total putts at Brickyard Crossing for the week.

Tournament Tidbit: Hugh Baiocchi's win last year made him the third South African and fifth international player to win a SENIOR TOUR event in Indianapolis. Gary Player claimed the 1988-89 GTE North Classic and Simon Hobday won the 1995 Brickyard Crossing Championship.

1998 KROGER SENIOR CLASSIC

Golf Center at Kings Island (Grizzly), Mason, OH Purse: $1,100,000
Par: 35-35-70 Yards: 6,639 September 18-20, 1998

LEADERS: First Round—Bruce Summerhays birdied the last five holes for a 6-under 64 and a two-stroke lead over Mike Hill, Jim Albus and Graham Marsh. Second Round—Bob Charles, Frank Conner, Larry Nelson, Hugh Baiocchi and Summerhays were all tied for the lead at 7-under 133 after 36 holes. Five other players were one stroke back and three others were just two strokes behind.

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONS: Bob Charles claimed his second title of the year, defeating Harold Henning by a stroke in the over-60 competition. Charles' 36-hole score of 7-under 133 earned him an $18,000 check.

CUT: There was no cut; all 78 players completed 36 holes.

PRO-AM: $10,000. Wednesday Individual—Buzz Thomas, 64, $500. Team—Peter Oosterhuis, 49, $500. Thursday Individual—Mike Hill, 64, $500. Team—Bobby Nichols, 48, $500.

WEATHER: Cloudy with temperatures in the low to mid-80s throughout the week. There was a light shower on Friday morning and winds were light at 5-10 mph. Very nice on Saturday with some wind from the southeast at 5-10 mph. Light rain fell early Sunday morning, but stopped around 11:00 a.m. Thunderstorms moved into the area and play was suspended at 3:35 p.m. The final round was officially cancelled at 4:35 p.m. because of steady rain and lightning. A five-way playoff to determine a winner started at 7:00 p.m.

Winner: Hugh Baiocchi 67-66 133 $165,000.00

KROGER SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Hugh Baiocchi made a 15-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole to win a five-way playoff at the rain-shortened event. The victory was the second in as many weeks for Baiocchi and the third of the South African's SENIOR PGA TOUR career.

"Last week I played conservatively and won," he said. "Today it was like a lottery. I'm glad I had the winning ticket."

Baiocchi — who had entered the final round tied with Larry Nelson, Bruce Summerhays, Frank Conner and Bob Charles — cashed in when the other four were forced to settle for par. Minutes earlier, he made an eight-footer for par on the first extra hole just to stay in the game.

Baiocchi became the fourth multiple winner in 1998 and joined Hale Irwin as the only other player to triumph in consecutive weeks.

Tournament Tidbit: The last time the final round of a SENIOR TOUR event had to be cancelled and a playoff held to determine the winner was at the 1995 FHP Health Care Classic. Bruce Devlin defeated Dave Eichelberger on the first extra hole at that event.

1998 BOONE VALLEY CLASSIC

Boone Valley GC, Augusta, MO
Par: 36-36-72 Yards: 6,731

Purse: $1,300,000
September 25-27, 1998

LEADERS: First Round—Gary McCord, playing in just his third SENIOR TOUR event, fired a 7-under 65 and led Jose Maria Canizares and Bruce Summerhays by a stroke. Second Round—Graham Marsh carded a second consecutive 67 and was alone at 10-under 134 after 36 holes. Larry Nelson trailed by one stroke and Walter Hall and Ed Dougherty trailed by two shots.

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONS: Don Bies won the first MasterCard title of his career, edging Bob Charles, Gary Player and Al Geiberger by a stroke. Bies' 36-hole total of 4-under 140 was worth an $18,000 check in the over-60 competition.

CUT: There was no cut; all 78 players completed 54 holes.

PRO-AM: $10,000. Wednesday Individual—Gary McCord, 68, $500. Team—Gary Player, 52, $500. Thursday Individual—Larry Nelson, 67, $500. Team—Miller Barber and Bob Dickson, 53, $450 each.

WEATHER: Showers on Monday morning softened the golf course. A cool front moved through the area in mid-week and temperatures ranged from the high 50s to low 70s Wednesday and Thursday. Scattered showers also fell on Thursday morning. Warmer on Friday and Saturday with winds from the southwest at 10-25 mph and temperatures in the low 90s. Pleasant on Sunday with slightly cooler conditions and light winds.

BOONE VALLEY CLASSIC RECAP

Larry Nelson closed with 7-under-par 65 to win by two strokes over Graham Marsh. Nelson's 16-under-par total of 200 earned him $195,000, the largest paycheck of his career, and his third SENIOR PGA TOUR title of the year.

Starting the day one shot behind Marsh, Nelson made his move on the back nine. He birdied four of five holes starting at the 10th and eventually shot 5-under on the final nine holes.

"I felt starting out I had to shoot a low score," Nelson said. "One of the reasons I shot a 31 on the back was because Graham would hit a good shot and I would follow with one. At one point on the back side it became match play."

Despite making two eagles en route to a 68, Marsh was not able to hold off Nelson. "I gave myself a chance in the end," said Marsh referring to his second eagle on the 17th hole. "I had the lead and he shot a 68. I did pretty much what I had to do. Larry was just a little bit better today."

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin's record streak of 19 straight top-five finishes ended when he finished in a tie for 13th at Boone Valley. His string of top-10 performances also ended at 23, 13 tournaments shy of Don January's 36 in a row, stretching from 1980-84.

VANTAGE CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Gil Morgan held off Hale Irwin by a stroke, closing with a five-under 65 at Tanglewood Park for his sixth victory of the season.

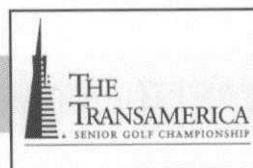

Morgan needed just 84 putts over 54 holes. He took the lead on Sunday with a birdie at the 16th hole. Irwin, needing an eagle at the par-5 18th to tie, laid up when he realized there was no chance to reach the green with his second shot.

Jerry McGee began the final round with a three-stroke lead and was clinging to a one-stroke advantage over Morgan through 14 holes when disaster struck. McGee hooked his tee shot on the 15th into a lake and three-putted for a triple bogey that took him out of contention.

"Jerry had a pretty good lead on everybody and he made a mistake there on 15 and kind of let everybody back in the tournament," Morgan said afterward.

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin's $225,000 first-place check for winning the 1997 Vantage Championship made him the first player on any TOUR to earn $2 million in a season.

THE TRANSAMERICA RECAP

Jim Colbert birdied four of his final eight holes to ease past David Lundstrom by a shot on Silverado Country Club's South Course. Colbert's 19th SENIOR TOUR career victory was his first in almost two years and capped a successful return from prostate cancer surgery.

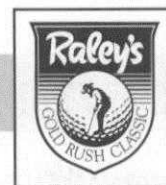

"This will mean a lot to a lot of people besides myself. I know, because I can't go 100 yards without someone mentioning how they had the same thing and beat it," Colbert said.

Colbert finished 54 holes at 11-under 205 and then had to wait out challenges by both Jay Sigel and Lundstrom, each of whom could have forced a playoff with a birdie on the par-5 18th hole. Sigel botched a short pitch and had to settle for bogey, while Lundstrom missed a 20-foot birdie putt to tie.

Colbert solved some putting problems that had plagued him earlier in the year by adjusting his stance at the Vantage Championship. He took only 26 putts in each of the final two rounds of The Transamerica and 28 on Friday.

Tournament Tidbit: Silverado Country Club served as the host course for the Kaiser International/Anheuser Busch Golf Classic on the PGA TOUR from 1968-1980. Two former Transamerica winners, Billy Casper (1971) and Kermit Zarley (1968) also won that PGA TOUR event at this venue.

RALEY'S GOLD RUSH CLASSIC NOTES

Dana Quigley birdied four consecutive holes on the back nine and posted an eight-under-par 64 to rally past Englishman John Morgan for his second title of 1998.

Quigley played the final 20 holes of the event without making a bogey. He and Morgan matched pars for three holes on the back nine before the eventual winner began his four-birdie spree on the 13th hole.

"When I get my putter going, I'm as good as anyone out here," Quigley said. "The last two days I putted really, really great. I've matured and learned so much and to believe in myself."

The three-stroke victory over Morgan made him the fifth of six multiple winners on the SENIOR TOUR in 1998. In early September, Quigley claimed the Emerald Coast Classic title near Pensacola, FL. The $150,000 first-place check also put the former New England club professional over the $1 million mark in single-season earnings for the first time in his career.

Tournament Tidbit: Six players have participated in all 12 Raley's Gold Rush Classics: Bob Charles, Gay Brewer, Dale Douglass, Butch Baird, Charles Coody and Bruce Crampton.

EMC² KAA NAPALI CLASSIC RECAP

Jay Sigel parlayed a sizzling 10-under 61 in the opening round into a wire-to-wire two-stroke victory over Larry Laoretti and Hugh Baiocchi on the island of Maui.

Sigel appeared to be in control with just two holes to play, but he made things interesting by hitting an 8-iron into the water on the par-3 17th hole. He quickly regrouped to par the tough closing hole for a three-under 68 and a 12-under-par total of 201.

"I hit an 8-iron and it was a 9-iron shot," Sigel said afterward. "I was actually playing to the middle-back of the green, not shooting at the pin and a gust of wind got the ball and threw it in the water."

Sigel's triumph was his sixth on the SENIOR TOUR and gave him multiple victories in a season for the second straight year. Earlier in the '98 campaign, Sigel won the Bell Atlantic Classic near his home in Philadelphia.

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin's three-stroke win in 1997 was his ninth title of the season and tied Peter Thomson's all-time SENIOR TOUR mark, set in 1985, for most victories in a year.

PACIFIC BELL SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Joe Inman weathered a strong final round by Lee Trevino to win his first tournament on the SENIOR PGA TOUR. "Life takes courage," said Inman. "You don't have to be mean, but you have to be tough. I'm proud of myself. I hadn't played many good Sunday rounds all year."

Inman dug deep on the back nine, where it appeared he might have lost the tournament on Saturday, and shot a final-round 68. The former PGA TOUR Radio Network broadcaster had bogeyed three of the final six holes in the second round to drop back into a tie with two-time defending champion Gil Morgan.

But he was not to be denied on the final day. Inman birdied three of his last five holes for the victory. He took the lead for good when he holed a 10-foot putt for birdie at the 16th hole while Trevino suffered a bogey up ahead on the 17th hole.

The victory gave Inman a $165,000 check, a sum that vaulted him from 42nd on the money list to 27th, a full exemption for 1999 and earned him a ticket to the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach, SC.

Tournament Tidbit: Joe Inman's triumph at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic made him the seventh first-time winner on the SENIOR TOUR in 1998, the most in a single season since 1994.

LEADERS: First Round—Hale Irwin fired a 6-under 66 and led Bob Duval by two strokes. Raymond Floyd and Bruce Summerhays were three strokes back. Second Round—Raymond Floyd carded a 68 and was at 7-under 137 after 36 holes. Jim Albus and Irwin were two strokes back while Gil Morgan trailed by three. Third Round—Morgan moved into the lead with a 68 and had a 54-hole total of 8-under 208. Floyd, Albus and Irwin were one back. Jay Sigel carded a 66 and was just two strokes back

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONS CHAMPIONSHIP: Bob Charles won his third title of the year and claimed his second season-ending over-60 competition. Charles' 54-hole score of 4-under 212 was two strokes better than Al Geiberger and earned him a check for $85,000.

ENERGIZER SENIOR TOUR CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

It was payback time for Hale Irwin, who closed with a 65 to overtake Gil Morgan and win by five at the Dunes Golf and Beach Club. In doing so, Irwin broke the six-win deadlock that existed between he and Morgan, the defending champion, who entered the final round with a one-stroke lead.

"This put a stamp on a fantastic year," said Irwin, who earned $347,000, the largest check in SENIOR TOUR history, and moved his season's earnings to a record $2,861,945.

Irwin started the final round one stroke behind Morgan but pulled even with a birdie on the seventh hole. He then made four more birdies in a six-hole stretch, taking the lead for good at the 10th.

"I just putted superbly," said Irwin after taking just 108 strokes on the greens for the week, including 26 in the final round.

Bob Charles won the MasterCard Champions Championship by two strokes over Al Geiberger. The left-handed New Zealander also claimed the over-60 competition at Myrtle Beach in 1996.

SENIOR PGA TOUR MARKETING

SECTION 8

PGA TOUR CORPORATE MARKETING

ANHEUSER-BUSCH

One of golf's most enduring corporate supporters, Anheuser-Busch—through its Michelob and O'Doul's brands—is one of the PGA TOUR's leading sponsors.

MICHELOB

Michelob's association with golf dates back more than 30 years. Its involvement escalated following the 1994 signing of a long-term sponsorship agreement with the PGA TOUR.

Now in its sixth year as "Official Sponsor of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR," Michelob has been a leading example of how a consumer brand can benefit from a strong and integrated relationship with the PGA TOUR. The demographics of golf match well with the premium Michelob brand and provide a perfect opportunity for Michelob to market its product through grassroots retail promotions, golf-themed packaging and advertising, PGA TOUR tournament sponsorships and national programs. The brand also extends its relationship to the tournament level, supporting on-site promotions with its non-alcohol partner O'Doul's. Michelob also is a founding sponsor of pgatour.com, the PGA TOUR's Internet site. This interactive web site features links to the 19th Hole, which includes trivia contests, promotional games and much more.

As a title sponsor of the Michelob Championship at Kingsmill and support sponsor of several events on both TOURs, Michelob truly has emphasized its commitment to golf. Its association with the game is a pivotal element in Michelob's fully integrated golf marketing strategy and exemplifies that Michelob is the beer for golf.

O'Doul's is enjoying its sixth year of sponsorship as the "Official Non-Alcohol Brew of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." The best selling non-alcohol brew in the United States, O'Doul's continues to grow as its marketing plans are successfully integrated with the TOUR, through golf-themed promotions, advertisements and packaging.

The O'Doul's sampling trucks and interactive golf exhibits are an extension of this long-term relationship. These exhibits can be found at tournament sites on both TOURs, offering product sampling to spectators while also providing an interactive site for fans to test their skill levels on long-drive and closest-to-the-pin contests.

BANK OF AMERICA

Bank of America is the "Official Bank of the PGA TOUR and Senior PGA TOUR," and presenting sponsor of the PGA TOUR West Coast Swing. Bank of America honors the player with the most points in the nine tournaments that make up the PGA TOUR's West Coast Swing as "King of the Swing."

Last year, the title "King of the Swing," along with an IBM ThinkPad loaded with a $100,000 on-line banking account, was awarded to Phil Mickelson, the leading money-winner of the West Coast events. This year, the West Coast Swing adds a ninth tournament – the WORLD GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS-Andersen Consulting Match Play Championship – and the standings consist of a points system that make equal all nine events on the 1999 West Coast Swing. The top eight finishers at each event will receive points, from 100 for the champion to 10 points for the eighth-place finisher.

As presenting sponsor of the PGA TOUR West Coast Swing, Bank of America supplements the purse at eight of the West Coast tournaments (with the exception of the WGC-Andersen Consulting Match Play Championship) by $300,000, while conducting consumer promotions around each stop. Bank of America's sponsorship of these events assists them in making significant contributions to nonprofit organizations throughout the West.

CANON

In addition to its 14-year title sponsorship of the Canon Greater Hartford Open, Canon USA is the "Official Camera, Binocular, Facsimile and Copier" of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR.

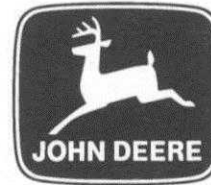

As an industry leader in professional and consumer-imaging equipment and information systems, Canon will leverage this relationship with an affinity marketing program that supports golf and educates consumers about how its product lines capture, store and distribute visual information. Golf-related advertising and on-site client hospitality programs also will be produced.

The Canon logo, featuring the word "Canon" in a stylized, bold, sans-serif font.

JOHN DEERE

John Deere is the "Official Golf Course Equipment Supplier of the PGA TOUR." John Deere provides equipment to the PGA TOUR network of Tournament Players Clubs and Courses (TPCs). John Deere has assumed title sponsorship of the Quad City Classic, renaming it the John Deere Classic.

Deere provides a full range of golf and turf equipment, along with utility vehicles and selected construction equipment, on an exclusive basis to each of the TOUR's owned and operated TPC courses. As courses are added to the TPC network around the world, each new course also will be groomed with John Deere equipment.

DELTA AIR LINES

Delta Air Lines is the "Official Airline of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." Delta provides important benefits for TOUR players, such as discounts on air travel and Delta SkyMiles for each winner of PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR cosponsored tournaments. In addition, Delta is the Official Airline of more than 60 tournaments on the three TOURs.

Delta prints PGA TOUR, SENIOR TOUR and NIKE TOUR schedules each month in its on-board magazine, Sky, and airs TOUR features on in-flight video programs. Through its PGA TOUR relationship, Delta entertains key corporate clients and develops joint promotions that provide valuable exposure to its target market.

DIGIORNO

In its second year as the "Official Sponsor of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR," DiGiorno® Rising Crust™ pizza continues to leverage its sponsorship through on-site sampling and selling of pizza, as well as showcasing its sponsorship of "The PGA TOUR Rolling Clubhouse presented by DiGiorno Pizza."

This unique interactive golf experience brings families and friends together through the sport of golf. Golf fans can improve their game with the swing speed computer analyzer, literally get "teed off" in an unusual game of virtual reality or visit the on-board video lounge to play a round of computer golf. The Rolling Clubhouse packs all the fun and excitement of 18 holes onto 18 wheels.

GILLETTE

Gillette enters its third year as the sponsor of the Gillette Tour Challenge on the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR. Four two-man teams on the PGA TOUR and five on the SENIOR TOUR play a six-hole alternate-shot competition on Tuesday of tournament week at 30 events across the two TOURs.

The series-ending Gillette Tour Challenge Championship features three-player teams from the PGA TOUR, SENIOR TOUR and The LPGA. In association with the Championship, Gillette makes a significant donation to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

Gillette utilizes the PGA TOUR marks in its advertising and runs PGA TOUR-themed promotions with key retailers throughout the year.

The Gillette logo, featuring the word "Gillette" in a bold, italicized, sans-serif font.

GOLFWATCH

GolfWatch is an exclusive, turnkey corporate entertainment property that is licensed by the PGA TOUR. Limited to 1,000 credentials per event, GolfWatch provides the client preferred viewing and hospitality areas equivalent to an NBA court-side set.

GolfWatch members can use "express lanes" to follow their favorite players from hole to hole. They also have access to between five and seven "Skybox Oases" that are placed strategically throughout the course, each complete with food and beverage service, phones and private washrooms.

GolfWatch members also have a centrally located 4,000-square-foot "Home Pavilion" that offers complete hospitality and concierge services.

GolfWatch is "an event within an event" that offers the "ultimate spectator experience."

HEALTHSOUTH

HEALTHSOUTH Corporation has joined the PGA TOUR as the "Official Healthcare Provider of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." The centerpiece of the relationship is the staffing of two new 48-foot state-of-the-art fitness facilities.

Each week, HEALTHSOUTH therapists provide rehabilitative and preventive care for TOUR members, as well as personal conditioning programs. Extensive equipment, treatment tables, a multi-station gym, stereo and television sets provide first-class surroundings. Use of the fitness facilities has proven to be one of the players' most important benefits. Without the equipment and qualified therapists on board, many players would have been forced to withdraw from tournaments.

In addition to the staff of therapists, HEALTHSOUTH has the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopedic Clinic, Dr. James Andrews and Dr. Bill Clancy available as Medical Directors. Dr. Frank Jobe continues as the TOUR's Medical Director.

HEALTHSOUTH is the nation's largest provider of outpatient surgical and rehabilitative healthcare services, with more than 1,900 facilities in all 50 states, Puerto Rico, the United Kingdom and Australia.

HILTON HOTELS

Hilton is a "Preferred Hotel of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR," providing discounted rates to TOUR players at Hilton properties across the country. Hilton utilizes the PGA TOUR marks in its advertising of Hilton Golf Resorts. The TOUR relationship also offers Hilton the opportunity to entertain key clients at tournaments.

HYATT HOTELS AND RESORTS

Hyatt Hotels and Resorts are "Preferred Hotels of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." Hyatt offers discounted rates and membership in Hyatt Gold Passport for TOUR players. Through its relationship with the TOUR, Hyatt utilizes the PGA TOUR marks in advertising and develops promotional programs around Hyatt's 14 golf resorts that appeal to the frequent traveler.

IBM

IBM is the "Official Information Technology Partner" of the PGA TOUR.

Within the scope of the PGA TOUR relationship, IBM provides the following:

- The IBM Scoring System on-site at TOUR events
- Technology support for the TOUR's various business areas, including television broadcasts, PGA TOUR Productions and the IBM Scoring System
- Redesign, development and hosting the TOUR's website (www.pgatour.com) and other interactive business opportunities, including electronic commerce, digital video products and other new media applications.

This agreement assists the TOUR in broadening the range of information it delivers to fans, while extending IBM's brand through new e-business offerings.

KELLER FURNITURE

Keller Furniture is an "Official Sponsor of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR" and a co-sponsor with The Weather Channel of the Weather Alert Program. The Weather Alert Program provides the TOUR and its tournaments with a system of obtaining accurate weather information and critical advance warning of oncoming storms. Keller receives valuable exposure through articles and features on the Storm Alert Program.

Keller has developed a PGA TOUR-themed furniture line that is being sold at Keller Furniture retail outlets. In addition, Keller leverages its PGA TOUR relationship by developing TOUR-themed advertising and point-of-sale materials, as well as unique promotional programs to offer to major furniture retailers.

The logo for Keller Furniture, featuring the word "KELLER" in a bold, serif font, enclosed within a rectangular border.

LIFIZZ EFFERVESCENT VITAMINS

LiFizz Effervescent Vitamins are the "Official Vitamin and Mineral Supplement of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." Proper diet and nutrition have become increasingly important to performance in golf, and LiFizz helps meet that need by providing its exclusive line of products to players on the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Effervescent vitamins, which are formulated in Switzerland, have been available in the European marketplace for more than 20 years. Now available in the United States, LiFizz provides the benefits of fast and fuller nutrient absorption through its unique effervescent delivery method. A complete line of vitamin and mineral products is offered for children and active adults.

In addition to providing vitamin and mineral products to players, LiFizz has the opportunity to leverage this official relationship by sampling product to tournament spectators and through advertising in selected TOUR media properties.

LUXURY TRAVEL

Luxury Travel has signed an exclusive five-year agreement to be the "Official Luxury Motor Coach" of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR. An innovative leader in the design, craftsmanship and manufacturing of quality luxury motor coaches, Luxury Travel is showcasing its product at tournament sites throughout the year.

Luxury Travel plans to devote a substantial portion of its advertising and promotional budget to leverage this new relationship.

Providing true "comfort on wheels," these motor coaches are built with distinction for both business and pleasure. Luxury Travel, the ultimate in motor coaches, will be developing strong and energetic promotional platforms to reinforce its message – "Luxury Travel. . .the perfect way to live and do business in luxury."

Live and do business in Luxury

MASTERCARD

MasterCard is a major sponsor and preferred payment system of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR. MasterCard's commitment to TOUR fans includes the electronic scoreboards that will travel to approximately 80 tournaments in 1999, providing information to fans, players and media alike.

MasterCard is title sponsor of the MasterCard Colonial on the PGA TOUR and title sponsor of the MasterCard Championship, the season-opening tournament for SENIOR TOUR champions that is played at Hualalai, HI, the first PGA TOUR Resort. MasterCard features TOUR stars Justin Leonard and Tom Watson through its "Priceless Moments" advertising campaign.

MasterCard also supports the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR Charity Team Competitions that distribute funds to numerous worthy local causes.

MasterCard's sponsorship, integrated across all aspects of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR, helps MasterCard in building its brand and member bank relationships.

NATIONAL CAR RENTAL

National Car Rental is the "Official Car Rental Company of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." National provides TOUR players with discounted rates on car rentals, as well as complimentary membership in the Emerald Club, National's highest level of service. In addition, each winner of a PGA TOUR or SENIOR TOUR cosponsored tournament receives a certificate for a free week's rental in recognition of his victory.

National utilizes its PGA TOUR sponsorship in the development of consumer promotions, such as sweepstakes programs, around selected tournaments and special offers to Emerald Club members for PGA TOUR licensed merchandise.

PRICEWATERHOUSE COOPERS

PricewaterhouseCoopers enters its fourth year as the "Official Professional Services Firm of the SENIOR PGA TOUR." As a part of this agreement, PricewaterhouseCoopers sponsors the electronic scoreboards at SENIOR PGA TOUR events. Strategically located at tournament sites, these scoreboards help spectators and players stay abreast of tournament standings and results.

PricewaterhouseCoopers entertains clients through its use of pro-am spots and corporate hospitality packages. PwC expands business through brand-building via a diversity of media products, including advertising on SENIOR TOUR telecasts, on "Inside the SENIOR PGA TOUR" and in PGA TOUR Partners Magazine.

CHARLES SCHWAB

Charles Schwab & Co. is the "Official Investment Firm of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." As part of this relationship, the PGA TOUR uses Schwab's state-of-the-art retirement plan services for its players and employees.

Charles Schwab is sponsoring the electronic scoreboards on the PGA TOUR, including signage on the left scoreboard panel and electronic messaging during periods surrounding competition.

Schwab is promoting its relationship with the TOUR in a national advertising campaign showcasing selected players, their investment needs and their Schwab solutions.

Charles Schwab also offers free investment education services for TOUR players and staff through seminars, one-on-one sessions, e-mail, 800-lines and literature.

Charles

J. PATTON SPORTS MARKETING, INC.

J. Patton Sports Marketing, formerly Starline Sports Marketing, is in its second season as the publisher of the publication named the TOUR INSIDER. The publication focuses on the TOUR, its tournaments and player statistics. It is available to companies wanting to incorporate the news of the TOUR into direct mail campaigns, special promotions and other TOUR event opportunities. The four-page publication features the advertiser's logo on the front-page snipe, with a full-page ad on the back.

J. Patton Sports Marketing also offers the INSIDER program for the NFL, as well as other marketing and promotional services for the NHL, Strike Ten Entertainment and Collegiate Licensing Company.

ROYAL CARIBBEAN INTERNATIONAL

Royal Caribbean International is the "Official Cruise Line of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." It offers discounts to players and staff on its 12 ships, which visit 64 itineraries and 126 destinations in Alaska, the Bahamas, Bermuda, Canada, the Caribbean, Europe, Hawaii, Mexico, Panama Canal, Russia and Scandinavia. The TOUR sponsorship adds value to Royal Caribbean's Golf Ahoy!® program, which offers guaranteed tee times on cruise/golf vacations throughout the world. Royal Caribbean is also the title sponsor of the Royal Caribbean Classic, the first full-field event of the year on the SENIOR TOUR schedule.

THE WEATHER CHANNEL

The Weather Channel is "The Official Forecaster for the PGA TOUR and the SENIOR PGA TOUR" and a co-sponsor of the PGA TOUR Weather Alert program.

The Weather Channel's participation helps the TOUR expand tournament coverage of its weather forecasting efforts to every PGA TOUR, SENIOR TOUR and NIKE TOUR event. The Weather Channel is the leading source of weather information with a staff of more than 80 meteorologists, 24-hour tracking and state-of-the-art systems for instant analysis of weather conditions. These efforts guarantee the TOUR's ability to professionally forecast weather scenarios that could impact the operation and safety of events.

The Weather Channel and PGA TOUR also are working together in the creation of enhanced material for both weather.com and pgatour.com. In addition, the TOUR and its tournaments are being prominently incorporated into The Weather Channel's programming.

Publications

GOLF MAGAZINE

GOLF Magazine is an "Official Publication of the PGA TOUR." It supports the PGA TOUR by creating a special advertising publication called TOUR Magazine. This special insert appears in GOLF Magazine's January issue and is distributed at PGA TOUR events.

GOLF Magazine also produces SENIOR PGA TOUR Magazine that appears in the March issue and is distributed at SENIOR TOUR events.

GOLF MAGAZINE entertains clients at TOUR events and supports the "Inside the PGA TOUR" shows.

PGA TOUR RETAIL LICENSING

The PGA TOUR's domestic and international licensing program continues to expand on the success and firm foundation of brand building and promotion of the PGA TOUR. These initiatives create greater interest and awareness in the PGA TOUR, its players and tournaments.

With a diverse group of more than 35 licensees domestically and 20-plus internationally, PGA TOUR Licensing continually strives to establish the TOUR brand as a leader in the golf industry. PGA TOUR Apparel, manufactured by Russell Corporation, produces an extensive line of sportswear that is found in prestigious department stores, specialty stores and pro shops across the country. Russell also produced the authentic player apparel for the 1998 Presidents Cup in Melbourne, Australia.

Among the core group of licensees is Electronic Arts. Since 1990, Electronic Arts has been the exclusive licensee with the PGA TOUR for interactive media. They consistently are on the leading edge of technology in their industry, and their computer games have had great sell-through success at the retail level. The latest product to hit the market is the PGA TOUR '99 Tiger Woods Game.

Domestic licensees recently added to the Retail Licensing family are PGA TOUR Boys, W.C. Bradley, PGA TOUR Home, American Neckwear, Colibri and GEM Dandy.

PGA TOUR Shops continue to be extremely successful and expand their locations, which have reached more than 35 stores and have more than 180 million people pass by, which helps to build the PGA TOUR brand. Operated by The Paradies Shops, PGA TOUR Shops will be adding three to five new locations each coming year.

W.C. Bradley, retail development partner for the World Golf Village, opened the first PGA TOUR STOP in Nov. 1998. The 30,000-square-foot store opened to excellent reviews as a most unique golf retail experience. It offers an elevated putting green, water hazards, a club demo room, video throughout, and the latest products for men, women and youth. More than 40 concept shops and 75 vendors showcase their products there.

PGA TOUR International Licensing, through Summit Properties International, has established more than 20 licensees internationally, including The Presidents Cup licensees, and continues to pursue quality companies with the resources to enhance the PGA TOUR brand image around the world. The 1998 Presidents Cup licensees were led by Sporte Leisure, the leading golf apparel company in Australia.

PGA TOUR CONSUMER MARKETING

FIRST USA BANK

First USA Bank is marketing PGA TOUR/SENIOR PGA TOUR MasterCard to consumers.

Under terms of a five-year agreement that began in 1997, First USA will support tournament charities through its funding of MasterCard Charity Team Competitions on both TOURs. Thirty-five tournaments are participating in the MasterCard Charity Team Competition on the PGA TOUR in 1999. Thirty-one tournaments on the SENIOR PGA TOUR will participate. (The teams drafted by each PGA TOUR event are listed on pages 9-6 and 9-7.)

In addition to the rights to use TOUR marks on credit cards, First USA Bank markets the cards at participating tournaments.

FIRST USA

PGA TOUR MasterCard

The PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR MasterCards, issued by First USA Bank, offer consumers extremely competitive interest rates, no annual fee and a variety of other benefits. Each purchase helps support tournament-designated charities. The card may be applied for by calling 1-800-FIRST USA.

NORTH AMERICAN OUTDOOR GROUP

The North American Outdoor Group manages and markets the PGA TOUR Partners Club on behalf of the PGA TOUR. NAOG, headquartered near Minneapolis, is the nation's leader in affinity marketing to special interest groups, and has an impressive track record building other successful membership clubs.

NAOG's parent company, Cendant Corporation, is the world's leading provider of consumer and business services in the travel, real estate and membership industry.

PGA TOUR PARTNERS CLUB

The PGA TOUR Partners Club features a wide variety of exclusive PGA TOUR and golf-related benefits, including PGA TOUR Partners Magazine. The club is focused on improving members' golf games and their overall enjoyment of the sport, all while providing an inside perspective on the PGA TOUR and the game's best players.

PGA TOUR member Tom Lehman, who numbers the 1996 British Open and the 1996 TOUR Championship among his four TOUR victories, serves as Club President. Many of Lehman's fellow TOUR members contribute to the program.

Membership in the Club has grown rapidly to more than 300,000 members under the direction of the North American Outdoor Group, which assumed management and marketing responsibilities of the program through a partnership agreement with the PGA TOUR in 1997.

Membership in the Partners Club is $24 per year. For more information, contact the PGA TOUR Partners Club at 1-888-672-2223.

CADILLAC AND THE SENIOR PGA TOUR: A PARTNERSHIP

In 1999, Cadillac enters its ninth season as the official vehicle and umbrella sponsor of the SENIOR PGA TOUR. This unique partnership with the SENIOR TOUR has given Cadillac the opportunity to raise more than $40 million for charity, as well as to strengthen relationships with customers by aligning with causes and activities that are most important to them.

The Cadillac Series is a season-long, ESPN-televized competition that began with 14 tournaments in 1990 and has grown to 23 tournaments in 1999, with the addition of the circuit's newest event, the Bank One Championship in Dallas. The SENIOR TOUR professional who accumulates the most points at the Cadillac Series events throughout the season receives two new Cadillac automobiles, and the second- and third-place winners each receive one Cadillac.

As the winner of the 1998 Cadillac Series, Hale Irwin received a 1999 Seville STS and a Catera. (Irwin also won the 1997 Cadillac Series.) Second-place finisher Jay Sigel won a 1999 DeVille Concours and third-place finisher Larry Nelson received a 1999 Eldorado Touring Coupe. Other past winners of the Cadillac Series are Charles Coody (1990), Jim Colbert (1991, 1995, 1996), Lee Trevino (1992, 1993) and Raymond Floyd (1994).

Cadillac's title sponsorship on the SENIOR TOUR, the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic at Upper Montclair Country Club in Clifton, NJ, features top senior golfers and National Football League stars. Since 1993, the event has generated more than $1 million for various local and national charities.

Cadillac also sponsors a hole-in-one giveaway at each Cadillac Series event. During the pro-am, the first amateur to ace a predetermined hole is awarded a Cadillac merchandise certificate, and Cadillac donates a vehicle to the tournament charity in the amateur's name. If a professional makes an ace at a predetermined hole during the final round, he is awarded a Cadillac. The hole-in-one vehicle is displayed on the golf course throughout tournament weekend.

Cadillac is represented by several professional golfers on the SENIOR TOUR, including Arnold Palmer, Trevino, Colbert, Bob Murphy, Dave Stockton, Sigel and Larry Ziegler. Team Cadillac also includes PGA TOUR professional Fred Couples, LPGA Tour member Michelle McGann and Nuveen Tour tennis star Jimmy Connors.

Team Cadillac members wear the Cadillac wreath and crest on their shirts during all TOUR events, participate in Cadillac advertising and represent Cadillac at various dealer functions and special events throughout the year.

Cadillac has been involved in national sports sponsorships since 1968, when it became one of two exclusive television sponsors of the Masters Tournament.

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONS SCHEDULE FOR 1999

A total of 23 SENIOR PGA TOUR events will host MasterCard Champions competitions in 1999. All players 60 and older in the fields of those events are eligible to compete in these "tournaments within the tournament."

The MasterCard Champions competition concludes one round prior to the end of the overall tournament (i.e., after 36 holes in a typical 54-hole SENIOR TOUR event). While MasterCard Champions earnings are unofficial, the players collect prize money based on their finishes in the overall event itself.

A player can win both the MasterCard Champions competition and the overall tournament. In fact, Gary Player did it last year at the Northville Long Island Classic. He was the fifth player to accomplish the "double dip," following Jimmy Powell (1995 First of America and 1996 Brickyard Crossing), Dale Douglass (1996 Bell Atlantic Classic) and Bob Charles (1996 Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic).

Charles captured the season-ending MasterCard Champions Championship held during the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach. That victory vaulted him into first place on the final MasterCard Champions money list with $254,260.

Charles narrowly edged Douglass, who led in MasterCard Champions victories in 1998 with five, by less than $5,000. Al Geiberger finished third, Charles Coody was fourth and Bruce Crampton fifth.

The fifth MasterCard Champions Championship will be held Nov. 4-6 in conjunction with the Ingersoll-Rand SENIOR TOUR Championship at the TPC of Myrtle Beach in South Carolina.

GILLETTE TOUR CHALLENGE

The Gillette Tour Challenge, a series of competitions on the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR, will return for its third season in 1999.

The six-hole, alternate-shot competitions, played primarily on the Tuesdays of tournament weeks, consist of 10 SENIOR TOUR players randomly selected as two-member teams. A total of $20,000 is awarded at each event, with the earnings added to each competitor's season-long Gillette Tour Challenge money list total.

A total of 14 weekly events are scheduled in 1999 on the SENIOR TOUR. Another 14 are planned for the PGA TOUR.

Eight players from the PGA TOUR, the SENIOR TOUR, and the LPGA advanced to the 1998 Gillette Tour Challenge Championship at the Mid Ocean Club in Bermuda. The eight three-person teams competed for $1.8 million in prize money in the one-day, 18-hole best-ball event.

Jim Furyk's closest shot to the pin effort in sudden death won the title for the Furyk-Lee Trevino and Michelle McGann and earned each team member $150,000.

The 1999 Gillette Tour Challenge Championship will return to the Mid Ocean Club in Bermuda at a date to be announced.

1999 MASTERCARD SENIOR PGA TOUR CHARITY TEAM COMPETITION DRAFT

The MasterCard SENIOR PGA TOUR Charity Team Competition draft was held last December. The program is similar in concept to the MasterCard PGA TOUR Charity Team competition that has been held annually since 1986.

The Raley's Gold Rush Classic, represented by Ray Arinno, Al Geiberger and Hale Irwin, won the 1998 MasterCard SENIOR TOUR Charity competition and earned $50,000 for charities in the Sacramento, CA area.

Thirty-one events and 93 players are participating in the MasterCard SENIOR PGA TOUR Charity Team Competition in 1999. Standings are based on the combined earnings of the three players who represent each tournament.

TOURNAMENT PLAYERS CLUBS

Tournament Players Club

The PGA TOUR's Tournament Players Club Network has maintained a reputation for operating high-quality clubs since its inception nearly 20 years ago.

The TPC Network continues to grow, with nearly 30 facilities currently open or under construction, including several overseas.

By the end of 1998, nine domestic Tournament Players Clubs either were in the planning or construction stage.

TPCs encompass all forms of golf-related operations — resort facilities, corporate/private membership clubs and daily fee courses — and, as such, PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties, Inc. is able to match the type of facility with the demands of each market in which a club operates.

The Network represents the highest standard in the golf course industry, commensurate with the members of the organization it represents, the players of the PGA TOUR. Each Tournament Players Club embodies the trademark of excellence first established with the flagship TPC at Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, which opened its world-famous Stadium Course in the fall of 1980.

This commitment to overall excellence serves as the foundation for the Network's overall success.

The TPC Network was born through former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman's desire to provide TOUR players with quality golf courses that also would offer spectators enhanced viewing areas.

Beman also reasoned that development of quality facilities would alleviate the TOUR's dependency on the television dollar, while providing rent-free venues for tournaments. The savings in rent, in turn, would generate both increased purses and greater charitable contributions by the tournaments held at TPCs.

The TPC at Sawgrass was the first Tournament Players Club to hold a PGA TOUR event, becoming the permanent home of THE PLAYERS Championship in 1982. Today, a growing number of PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR events are held at TPC facilities each year. In 1998, 15 tournaments were conducted on TPC courses. NIKE TOUR events will be played at TPCs in the future.

Many of the top golf course architects are connected with Tournament Players Club projects, including Pete Dye, Tom Fazio, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Tom Weiskopf, Greg Norman and Bob Von Hagge. Palmer is designing his second Tournament Players Club course, the TPC of The Twin Cities.

The TPC at Jasna Polana (Princeton, NJ), designed by Player, opened in 1998. Scheduled to open in 1999 are the TPC of Myrtle Beach, designed by Fazio; the TPC of Virginia Beach, designed by Dye; and the TPC at Deere Run (Moline, IL), designed by D.A. Weibring.

Moreover, in recognizing the importance of player input for tournament courses, TOUR members — including Ben Crenshaw, Raymond Floyd, Fuzzy Zoeller, Chi Chi Rodriguez and Lanny Wadkins — have served as design consultants.

HUALALAI: FIRST PGA TOUR RESORT

A PGA TOUR RESORT

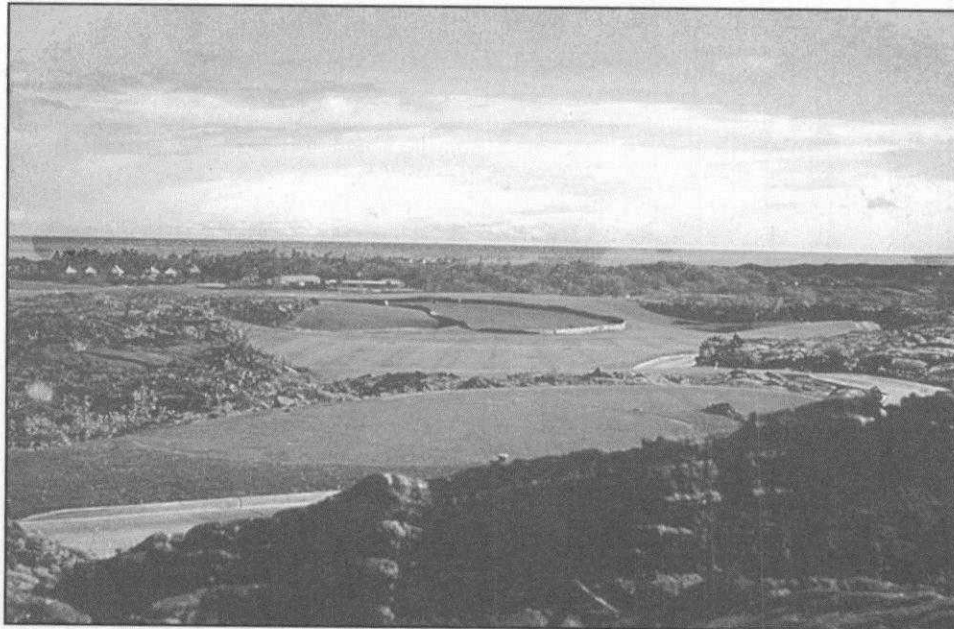

A designated PGA TOUR Resort provides the highest quality in a total resort facility: five-star accommodations, a championship golf course capable of holding a TOUR event and other outstanding amenities, such as tennis facilities, health spa and beach.

A PGA TOUR Resort will receive special promotion by the TOUR and be utilized as a destination for certain TOUR business functions.

The first facility to be designated a PGA TOUR Resort, Hualalai on the Big Island of Hawaii embodies the absolute quality and character that has become synonymous with the TOUR.

Hualalai is as unique as it is exclusive, an oceanside resort that provides the total vacation experience. Featuring a five-star Four Seasons hotel, its amenities include an outstanding Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course carved from the dramatic lava landscape, a tennis facility with eight championship courts, a health and wellness center and white-sand beach. Complementing the quality of facilities is the quality of service, preserving the warm ambiance of "Old Hawaii."

The exclusivity of Hualalai is consistent with the very nature of the MasterCard Championship. This SENIOR PGA TOUR tournament, held for the first time at Hualalai in January 1997, is an elite gathering of SENIOR TOUR champions from the previous season.

Hualalai features a beautiful Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course.

WORLD GOLF VILLAGE

Ruffin Beckwith
Executive Director

World Golf Village is one of the most ambitious projects ever undertaken in golf. Situated along Interstate 95 in Northeast Florida, it is a major international focal point for the game, as well as a premier tourism, business and golf destination.

The Village offers an environment that not only honors the game of golf and its great players, but also provides an entertaining and educational experience for golfers and non-golfers from around the world.

Its centerpiece is the 75,000-square-foot World Golf Hall of Fame, museum and IMAX Theater. Circling the Village Lake is the Walk of Champions, honoring each member of the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Overall, World Golf Village is a celebration of a game rich in history and tradition, a theme that carries beyond the actual Hall of Fame building and into other components of the Village.

The complex also includes one of the three courses for the Saint Johns Development, of which World Golf Village is a part. The course, developed by Scratch Golf, is named "The Slammer and The Squire" after Hall of Fame design consultants Sam Snead and Gene Sarazen, who worked with architect Robert Weed. The Slammer and The Squire serves as home for the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, which is played the week before THE PLAYERS Championship.

Additional amenities at World Golf Village include the 10-story, 300-room World Golf Resort Hotel and Conference Center, developed by John Q. Hammons, Inc.; The Residences corporate villas by EcoGroup; the Vistana Resort at World Golf Village, a complex of interval vacation villas; The Shops at World Golf Village, an upscale shopping area; plus the new headquarters for PGA TOUR Productions. Future components include a golf academy, Mayo Clinic facility and a spa.

Shell Oil Company is the Founding Partner of the World Golf Village. The number to call for World Golf Village information is 904-940-4000; its web site is www.wgv.com.

WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

The support the World Golf Hall of Fame has received from the world's major golf organizations distinguishes it as a unique partnership that reflects the universality of the game and promise for further growth.

The Hall of Fame and accompanying exhibits honor the great players and contributors to the game, and entertain and inform the public about the rich history and tradition of golf internationally.

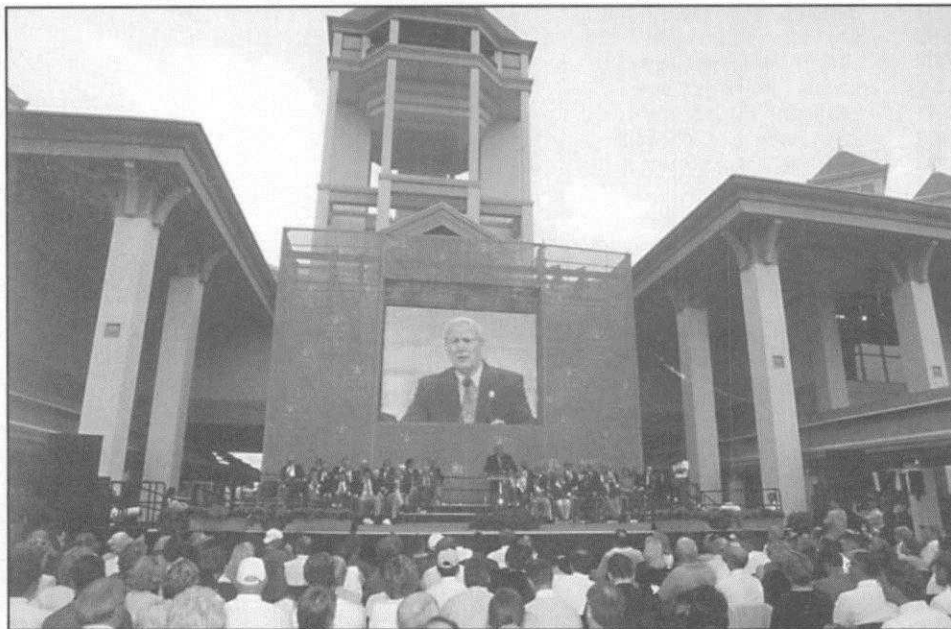

Artifacts from the former World Golf Hall of Fame in Pinehurst, NC were incorporated into the museum exhibits. But the overall experience is intended to interest golfers and non-golfers alike by introducing modern technology and interactive displays that continually are being enhanced.

The building also features an IMAX Theater, with a screen 80 feet high and 60 feet wide, for which a special film about golf is being developed.

The 71 players and contributors inducted into the former Hall of Fame in Pinehurst and/or the LPGA Hall of Fame were "grandfathered" into the new facility. Annual induction ceremonies for newly elected Hall of Fame members are held each March, bringing together dignitaries from throughout the golf world.

The first elections for the PGA TOUR and International Ballots were conducted in 1996 and 1997. Johnny Miller was the only player elected in 1996, receiving the necessary 75 percent of votes on the PGA TOUR Ballot. Seve Ballesteros of Spain and Nick Faldo of England became the first players elected through the International Ballot in 1997, their first year of eligibility. Faldo was inducted in 1998 while Ballesteros will be inducted this March, joined by the late Lloyd Mangrum, who was admitted in 1998 via the PGA TOUR Ballot.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Willie Anderson

The son of a Scottish greenkeeper, Anderson emigrated to the U.S. at age 15 and became the first dominant player in America. He won the U.S. Open four times before age 27, including three consecutively from 1903 to 1905. Anderson finished in the top five 11 of the 14 times that he competed in the national championship.

Tommy Armour

A native of Edinburgh, the "Silver Scot" won the 1927 U.S. Western Open, the 1930 PGA Championship and the 1931 British Open. One of golf's most respected instructors, Armour excelled despite injuries suffered in World War I that left him with one eye and with metal plates in his head and arm.

Jim Barnes

An assistant pro in England at age 15, Barnes came to America at 19, and between 1916 and 1925 won all the major tournaments of his day: the Western Open in 1914, 1917 and 1919; the first two PGA Championships in 1916 and 1919; the 1921 U.S. Open; and the 1925 British Open.

Julius Boros

An accountant by trade, Boros turned professional at age 30. Just two years later, in 1952, he won the U.S. Open and was named PGA Player of the Year. He claimed a second U.S. Open in 1963 at The Country Club in Brookline, MA, and in 1968 captured the PGA Championship at age 48.

Billy Casper

A brilliant putter, Casper won the Vardon Trophy for lowest scoring average five times and was a member of eight Ryder Cup teams. Of his 60 career victories, three were major championships, including the 1966 U.S. Open, when he came from seven strokes back with nine holes to play to tie Arnold Palmer, then won their playoff.

Harry Cooper

Known as "Lighthorse Harry" for the speed at which he played, Cooper won more than 30 professional tournaments between 1926 and 1942. He was never able to capture a major championship, finishing second on three occasions. In 1937, he won nine tournaments and was the first winner of the Vardon Trophy for lowest scoring average.

Fred Corcoran

As tournament manager of the PGA from 1936 to 1947, Corcoran more than doubled the number of Tour events. Working with Babe Zaharias and Patty Berg, and with financial support from Wilson, he was instrumental in forming the LPGA Tour in 1949. Also a promoter and agent, he founded the Golf Writers Association of America in 1946.

Jimmy Demaret

With a personality as colorful as his wardrobe, Demaret was one of golf's most popular figures for four decades. The Texas native once quit professional golf to become a nightclub singer, but returned in 1938 and won the 1940 Masters. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he won the Masters in 1947 and 1950.

Roberto De Vincenzo

De Vincenzo, a native of Argentina, turned professional in 1938 at age 15. He joined the USPGA in 1947 and collected nine career tour victories. A truly international champion, he won more than 200 tournaments worldwide, most notably the 1967 British Open. In 1980 at Winged Foot, De Vincenzo won the inaugural U.S. Senior Open.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Joseph C. Dey

Golf's most respected administrator, Dey was named Executive Secretary of the USGA in 1934, a position he held for 34 years. As the first commissioner of what became the PGA TOUR, he guided the tournament players in their split from the PGA of America. In 1975 he became the second American to captain the Royal and Ancient.

Nick Faldo

Faldo compiled an astounding record prior to his 1997 election to the Hall of Fame. In 20 years he won more than 40 tournaments worldwide, including three British Opens and three Masters Tournaments, and competed on 11 European Ryder Cup Teams. In 1990, Faldo was the first international player to be named PGA of America Player of the Year.

Raymond Floyd

With the 1969 and 1982 PGA Championships and the 1976 Masters Tournament to his credit, Floyd was already a player of renown when he won his fourth major championship title. In 1986, at age 43, he captured the U.S. Open at Shinnecock Hills. His steely competitiveness carried over to a successful career on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Ralph Guldahl

In 1938, Guldahl quit tournament golf in frustration to sell cars in Dallas. He returned one year later and, with victories at Oakland Hills in 1937 and Cherry Hills in 1938, became one of the few players to capture consecutive U.S. Open titles. He also won three consecutive Western Opens and the 1939 Masters Tournament.

Walter Hagen

Flamboyant and charismatic, Hagen was the first professional to make a living playing golf, rather than teaching it. Wild off the tee, but superb at recovery, his fame mirrored his lifestyle. Captain of the first six American Ryder Cup teams, he won two U.S. Opens, four British Opens and five PGA Championships, including four consecutively.

Bob Harlow

Harlow, a newspaperman from Massachusetts, was best known as the founder of Golf World Magazine. As manager for Walter Hagen from 1921 to 1929, and later for Joe Kirkwood, he arranged exhibitions both nationally and abroad. From 1930 to 1935, he served as tournament manager for the PGA TOUR.

Ben Hogan

Hogan was legendary for his intensity and dedication to perfection. Having already claimed two PGA Championships and the U.S. Open by 1948, he suffered a life-threatening auto accident in 1949. Miraculously, he returned to win the U.S. Open in 1950, 1951 and 1953; the Masters Tournament in 1951 and 1953; and the 1953 British Open.

Hale Irwin

An All-America in golf and All-Conference in football at the University of Colorado, Irwin won the 1967 NCAA Golf Championship. Between 1974 and 1990, he captured three U.S. Open titles, the last at age 45 in a 19-hole playoff. After 1995, he devoted himself to golf course design and the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Lawson Little

Stocky and powerful, but renowned for his short game, Little's greatest achievements came as an amateur. In 1934 and 1935, he captured the "Little Slam," winning both the U.S. and British Amateur Championships. After turning professional in 1936, he won seven events, most notably the 1940 U.S. Open in a playoff with Gene Sarazen.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Gene Littler

Littler's first PGA TOUR win came in 1954 as an amateur. His last was in 1977 at age 47. He won the U.S. Amateur in 1953 and the U.S. Open in 1961, but lost both the Masters Tournament and the PGA Championship in playoffs. Littler amassed a total of 29 career PGA TOUR victories.

Lloyd Mangrum

Known as a tough competitor with an aggressive style of play, Mangrum competed in an era that also included Hall of Famers Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson, Jimmy Demaret and Sam Snead. He counted the 1946 U.S. Open among his 36 career victories.

Cary Middlecoff

After becoming the first amateur to win the North and South Open, Dr. Middlecoff abandoned a career in dentistry and turned professional in 1947. A brilliant analyst of the game and the golf swing, he won the U.S. Open in 1949 and 1956 and the Masters Tournament in 1955. He retired with 37 career victories.

Johnny Miller

Miller dominated international golf in the early 1970s, winning 20 tournaments in six years. A remarkable 63 in the final round secured his victory in the 1973 U.S. Open at Oakmont. Winner of the 1976 British Open at Royal Birkdale, Miller gained renown as a television commentator before joining the SENIOR PGA TOUR in 1997.

Byron Nelson

"Lord Byron" won two Masters Tournaments, two PGA Championships and the 1939 U.S. Open. He is best remembered for his 1945 season, when he won 19 tournaments, including 11 consecutively, finished second seven times and compiled a remarkable stroke average of 68.33. In 1947, at age 34, Nelson retired to his ranch in Texas.

Jack Nicklaus

The legendary Bobby Jones said of him: "He plays a game with which I am not familiar." In his monumental career, Nicklaus amassed 18 professional major championship victories, far surpassing any golfer before or since. With more than 100 victories around the world, "The Golden Bear" is arguably the best golfer of the modern era.

Arnold Palmer

The most charismatic player in history, Palmer's emergence in the late 1950s coincided with televised golf to generate unprecedented interest in the game. Arnie won the U.S. Amateur in 1954 and the U.S. Open in 1960. Also among the more than 80 professional victories he collected were four Masters Tournaments, two British Opens and five major championships on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Gary Player

South African Gary Player made up for his diminutive size with a rigorous schedule of fitness training and persistent practice unequalled in golf. His career victories numbered more than 120 worldwide and included all four major championships. Player found later success as a dominant force on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Chi Chi Rodriguez

Rodriguez won eight PGA TOUR events and collected more than 20 SENIOR PGA TOUR titles in his career. But it is his charitable work that will be best remembered. His pro-am tournament helped fund the Children's Hospital in his native Puerto Rico, and his Youth Foundation raised millions for disadvantaged children in Florida.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Paul Runyan

Although one of the shortest hitters of his time, Runyan won more than 50 professional tournaments. After joining the Tour in 1933, he captured 16 events in two years and was leading money-winner in 1933 and 1934. A highly regarded short game and putting instructor, he won the PGA Championship twice, in 1934 and 1938.

Gene Sarazen

Sarazen was the first golfer to win all four major championships. He won the U.S. Open in 1922 and 1932; the PGA in 1922, 1923, and 1933; and the British Open in 1932. But his victory in the 1935 Masters Tournament is best remembered for a remarkable final-round double-eagle on the 15th hole at Augusta National.

Horton Smith

In 1929, at age 21, Smith played in 19 professional events, winning eight and finishing second four times. He remained a top professional throughout the 1930s, winning the first and third Masters Tournaments in 1934 and 1936. His last tournament win came in 1941, the year before he left golf to join the army.

Sam Snead

"Slammin' Sam" Snead is renowned for his classical swing and the longevity of his career. The winner of three PGA Championships, three Masters Tournaments and the British Open, he made eight Ryder Cup appearances and was captain of the U.S. Team three times. Snead recorded 81 Tour victories, his last in 1965 at age 52.

Peter Thomson

One of the most intriguing players the game has known, the Australian-born Thomson captured five British Open titles between 1954 and 1965, including three consecutively from 1954 to 1956. With wide interests that ranged from politics to music, Thomson maintained successful careers as a writer and golf course architect outside of competition.

Lee Trevino

The ultimate self-made champion, Trevino made the transition from assistant professional at a Texas driving range to U.S. Open champion. He captured that title twice, in 1968 and 1971. With two British Opens, two PGA Championships and six Ryder Cup appearances to his credit, he later had a dominant career on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Tom Watson

Watson's major championship victories included five British Opens and two Masters Tournaments. His victory in the 1982 U.S. Open featured a dramatic chip-in on the 17th hole at Pebble Beach. Arguably the most consistent player for a decade, he was the PGA TOUR's leading money-winner and Player of the Year four consecutive times from 1977 to 1980.

CHARITABLE MISSION OF THE WORLD GOLF FOUNDATION

World Golf Foundation, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that has received the support of all major golf organizations throughout the world. The responsibilities of the World Golf Foundation include managing the World Golf Hall of Fame, the IMAX Theater and various charitable initiatives.

As the Founding Partner of World Golf Village, Shell Oil Company provides financial support and plays a lead role in the World Golf Hall of Fame and its charities.

One of the World Golf Foundation's charitable missions, on behalf of the supporting golf organizations, is to introduce golf to those who otherwise may not have an opportunity to experience the game, and through the golf experience promote scholastic achievement, community service, and the values of honesty, integrity and sportsmanship.

To this end, The First Tee was introduced in Nov. 1997 as an initiative to create new facilities and affordable access to golf. This initiative has the support and participation of various key sectors, including leading golf organizations and foundations, and a wide range of public sector constituencies.

"We want to create affordable entry points to golf for everyone who is interested in playing the game," said former President George Bush, Honorary Chairman of The First Tee.

The vision is to create hundreds of facilities and programs throughout the United States over the next 10 years, impacting those who have not had exposure to the game, particularly youth.

"Those of us who believe in the values of golf want to see the opportunity to play the game extended to all segments of our population," said Tim Finchem, PGA TOUR Commissioner and Chairman of the World Golf Foundation Board of Directors. "This program, The First Tee, can have a tremendous impact on golf – but, more importantly, it can have a real impact on the lives of young people who are attracted to the game."

A menu of model programs can be implemented in communities based on land availability, existing golf facilities, area needs and the level of support of municipalities and other youth programs.

The First Tee provides golf management expertise, consulting services and land planning to communities and organizations interested in having The First Tee in their areas. While proceeds from the World Golf Hall of Fame benefit The First Tee, public-private partnerships in each community are the primary funding source for each facility.

"With the support of the public and private sectors, and with the expertise of so many golf organizations available to this program, golf will find its way into new communities and new segments of the population," Finchem said.

THE FIRST TEE

The First Tee is a World Golf Foundation initiative to create new facilities and affordable access to golf, with special emphasis on youngsters who otherwise may not have an opportunity to experience the game.

The initial two-year goal of The First Tee is to identify sites for 100 golf facilities in various stages of planning, development and operation. Each of these facilities will have the capability of introducing golf to as many as 1,000 children and adults annually.

In November of 1998, nearly one year to the day that the initiative first was announced, the inaugural First Tee National Association meeting was held at World Golf Village. More than 220 civic, business and political leaders attended, representing nearly 50 First Tee Chapters or Chapters in development.

The true value of the program is based on golf's unique ability to instill and nurture essential values, such as honesty, integrity, sportsmanship and a solid work ethic in young people who are introduced to the game.

This initiative has the support and participation of a variety of key sectors:

- The leading U.S. golf organizations, including the PGA TOUR, United States Golf Association, PGA of America, Ladies Professional Golf Association and Augusta National Golf Club, which are represented on the First Tee Oversight Committee.
- A wide range of public sector constituencies, including the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Bureau of Land Management, National Association of Parks and Recreation, National League of Cities, U.S. Conference of Mayors and the National Association of County Officials.
- A variety of groups, including the Tiger Woods Foundation and the National Minority Golf Foundation, dedicated to extending the reach of golf to new segments of the population.

The First Tee currently is focused on developing financial support and acquiring locations for these golf facilities. Common types of facilities include a three-hole course, a nine-hole executive length course, a full-scale 18-hole course and a 21-hole facility. All of these facilities will feature extensive teaching and practice areas and a multi-use clubhouse.

The development effort depends on support from prominent individuals and organizations who appreciate the values instilled by golf and the game's ability to positively influence young people's lives.

Primary contributions of the initiative include the provision of expertise and consulting advice, land planning services and other services to reduce the total cost of each project.

Funds raised will be leveraged through public-private partnerships to significantly increase the impact of the initial contributions. Proceeds from the World Golf Hall of Fame are being donated to The First Tee.

The First Tee Board of Trustees oversees the fundraising, budget and program functions of The First Tee. President George Bush is Honorary Chairman of the initiative.

PGA TOUR PRODUCTIONS

PGA TOUR Productions is the television, film and video production company of the PGA TOUR.

Most people know PGA TOUR Productions by its award-winning "Inside The PGA TOUR" and "Inside The SENIOR PGA TOUR" shows, which are broadcast each week on ESPN and are celebrating their 15th and ninth seasons, respectively. Additionally, PGA TOUR Productions produces "This Is The PGA TOUR" for FOX Sports Net.

In addition to the "Inside" shows, Productions has developed an expertise in delivering live and live-to-tape golf events, including the Gillette Tour Challenge Championship, RE/MAX World Long Drive Championship, Senior Match Play Challenge and NIKE TOUR Championship, as well as the Touchstone Energy Tucson Open and Reno-Tahoe Open for CNBC.

Beginning in Jan. 1999, PGA TOUR Productions will bring on-line a new state-of-the-art studio located at World Golf Village. USA Network's early-round action will be supplemented with studio-based programming produced by PGA TOUR Productions.

PGA TOUR Productions also serves a worldwide clientele by producing, in conjunction with the networks, international live telecasts of PGA TOUR events. Beginning in 1999, Productions will serve as distributor of the PGA TOUR World Feed, serving South and Central America, South Africa, Europe and Asia. PGA TOUR Productions programming is distributed to more than 120 countries, is translated into 17 languages and is available to more than 240-million homes worldwide.

PGA TOUR Productions is housed in a 32,000-square-foot, all-digital facility at World Golf Village, located near St. Augustine, FL. Along with the latest in television and communications technology, PGA TOUR Productions houses the world's most extensive golf footage library. World Golf Village is located adjacent to Interstate 95, southwest of PGA TOUR Headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

pgatour.com

(On the Internet at <http://www.pgatour.com>)

The PGA TOUR entered cyberspace on January 8, 1997, and the response has exceeded all expectations — making pgatour.com one of the most popular sports sites on the World Wide Web.

Since its launch, pgatour.com has grown to well over one-and-one-half-million page views per day.

Those numbers will only grow this year as pgatour.com again enhances existing features and expands with new content areas. Growth in 1999 is projected at an additional 50 percent.

The heart of pgatour.com remains the comprehensive information it provides about players and tournaments on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR.

Real-time scoring has proven one of the more popular features — offering fans the opportunity to track their favorite player's progress on a hole-by-hole basis. The Broadcast Booth provides regular early-round coverage for "in-office" listening. Audio links to PGA TOUR Radio broadcasts further place visitors to pgatour.com in the heart of the action. Video, instruction and special features round out the site.

With the support of Foundation Sponsors Michelob, IBM, Titleist and Buick, pgatour.com launched a new, more versatile look.

Players and fans can participate in chat sessions and listen to press conferences live. E-commerce allows customers to buy PGA TOUR merchandise on-line, then have them delivered right to their homes.

Games and contests abound, as do interactive opportunities.

The World Wide Web is only going to grow, and the PGA TOUR plans to take advantage of the many facets of the medium to broaden its fan base around the world.

PGA TOUR RADIO

PGA TOUR Radio broadcasts exclusive live coverage of the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR, providing listeners with the most comprehensive, insightful and entertaining golf programming available.

PGA TOUR Radio, which has a national network of 200-plus radio stations in more than 100 markets, broadcasts live coverage of a total of 35 events on the three TOURs, as well as timely "Leaderboard Updates" each Thursday through Sunday, and a one-hour magazine show every Saturday morning.

This season, PGA TOUR Radio has added golf instructor Butch Harmon to its broadcast lineup. Harmon presents a weekly series of easy-to-understand golf tips.

Additional information, including broadcast schedules and audio feeds, can be found on www.pgatourradio.com and www.pgatour.com.

SECTION 10

PGA TOUR MEDIA REGULATIONS

GENERAL REGULATIONS

The following regulations are to be followed by all members of the media:

1. A daily "inside the ropes" access sticker is necessary to walk inside the gallery ropes. Remain not more than an arm's length from the ropes, so as to blend into the gallery and appear to be a part of the gallery at all times.
2. Players are not to be distracted during play. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their rounds.
3. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their practice sessions before a round, except by prior arrangement with the player.
4. If an interview is to be conducted in the practice areas, either the range or the putting green, it must be done by prior arrangement with the player, up against the ropes and not in the middle of the areas where it could be distracting to other players.
5. Do not disturb players at their 18th green and/or scoring tent until after they have checked, signed and returned their scorecards. Media are not allowed in the scoring tent.

WORKING PRESS REGULATIONS

To avoid embarrassment to you and distraction to the contestants:

1. Do not walk or stand in playing areas.
2. Follow directions of marshals and other officials.
3. Do not interview during play. The leading players each day—and others requested—will be interviewed following their rounds in the Press Room interview area.

TAPE RECORDER REGULATIONS

1. All tape recorder work should be done in the proximity of the Press Room and/or clubhouse.
2. Tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.
3. Tape recorders are not permitted within the playing area of the golf course unless written permission has been granted from PGA TOUR.

WEATHER DELAY GUIDELINES

1. During weather delay situations, no one other than players and essential staff will be permitted in the locker room. This means the media are not permitted in the locker room in such situations. However, whenever possible, arrangements will be made to provide players for interviews during such situations.
2. Fully accredited members of the news media will be welcome in the locker room at all other times to carry out their assigned duties. (Note: Cameras and tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.)

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

Photo credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized and accredited publications or news services. Requests for credentials must be made by the appropriate news agency, not by the photographer. PGA TOUR reserves the right to refuse photo credentials in its sole discretion.

Photographic likenesses of PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR players and tournament courses may be used only by the news agency which the photographer represents. Any other use must be approved in advance in writing by PGA TOUR.

Commercial exploitation of player or course photographs without written consent of the players or courses and PGA TOUR is prohibited.

A limited number of photo stickers, which permit the wearer access inside the gallery ropes, may be issued. Photographers who do not have stickers must stay outside the gallery ropes. Photographic assistants will not be issued stickers.

Cameras may be used only by accredited media representatives who have been assigned photo credentials, and such use is subject to the following conditions:

1. Photographers with stickers must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. Photographers without stickers are not permitted inside the ropes at any time.
2. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
3. Photographers must not position themselves in the line of play. If requested to move by a player, his caddie or an official, the photographer will do so without delay or discussion.
4. No photograph shall be taken until a player has completed his stroke.
5. Players should not be asked to pose during a round.
6. Noise-free equipment must be used at all times.
7. Cameras are not permitted in the scoring tent or in the locker rooms.

The Photographer shall indemnify, defend and hold the Tournament and the PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with (1) the unauthorized use of photographs taken by the Photographer, whether such unauthorized use is by the Photographer, the company designating the Photographer to use the credential on its behalf, or some third party to whom the photographs are distributed; (2) any injuries resulting from acts or omissions by the Photographer or some third party to whom the Photographer directly or indirectly distributed the material; (3) any cameras, wires, cables or other equipment brought to the premises by the Photographer, or (4) the use of any photographs of any matter other than coverage of the Tournament.

TELEVISION COVERAGE REGULATIONS

The PGA TOUR retains exclusive television rights (including but not limited to broadcast, cable, home video) to all events on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR. No live or tape-delayed broadcast of any portion of any PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR or NIKE TOUR event is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR.

In most cases, play-by-play television rights have been sold for network broadcast.

Stations or networks that have not purchased the rights to originate play-by-play coverage of events from the PGA TOUR are permitted to broadcast highlights coverage of such events only under the following conditions:

1. Televised coverage shall not be in excess of three minutes of highlights daily from each TOUR (and six minutes total for all three TOURs) and may not purport to be live, play-by-play coverage from the course. Requests for expanded coverage must be submitted in writing to PGA TOUR.
2. All highlights coverage must be part of regularly scheduled news and/or sports programs.
3. Highlights from any day's play may not be broadcast or used for any other purpose after seven days from the conclusion of play each day.
4. No action footage of any day's play may be broadcast until that day's live or tape-delayed coverage by the television network is concluded.
5. No footage may be inserted into any commercial announcement or sold to any other broadcast entity or agency.
6. As the exclusive rights holder, PGA TOUR is the absolute owner of all footage shot at the tournament site (golf action or other footage) and may request copies of any footage shot at PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR events. Such footage will be provided to the TOUR at cost upon request.
7. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
8. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be allowed inside the gallery ropes, and they must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. All support personnel must remain outside the ropes.

RADIO COVERAGE REGULATIONS

The PGA TOUR retains exclusive national radio rights to all events on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR.

No live or tape-delayed broadcast of any portion of any PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR or NIKE TOUR event is permitted without the prior written consent of the PGA TOUR.

In some cases, play-by-play radio rights have been sold for network broadcast.

Stations or networks that have not purchased the rights to originate play-by-play coverage of events from the PGA TOUR are permitted to broadcast highlights coverage of such events only under the following conditions:

1. Coverage shall not be in excess of three minutes of highlights and may not purport to be live, play-by-play coverage from the course.
2. All highlights coverage must be part of regularly scheduled news and/or sports programs and may not be broadcast after seven days from the conclusion of play on that day.
3. As the exclusive rightsholder, PGA TOUR may request copies of any coverage of PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR events. Such coverage will be provided to the TOUR at cost upon request.
4. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
5. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be permitted into the media center and locker room areas.
6. Radio broadcasters are not permitted inside the gallery ropes at any time.
7. Broadcasters are not permitted to talk to players during play or after the round until the player has signed his scorecard.
8. Tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.

INTERNET SERVICE REGULATIONS

Media credentials will only be issued to personnel on assignment from recognized golf internet sites, as determined by PGA TOUR in its sole discretion. Individuals representing multiple interests (such as a recognized golf magazine and an internet site) must be separately credentialed for each interest. If you are not specifically credentialed for an on-line service, you may not use any information obtained for that service.

PGA TOUR retains exclusive broadcast rights (including but not limited to network, cable, internet, home video) to all events on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR. No live or tape-delayed delivery of any event is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR. Scores and statistics may be distributed only in accordance with these regulations.

1. Coverage must be part of the news portion of the site and must not purport to be live, play-by-play, or real time coverage from the course.
2. Scoring information appearing on a site may be provided no sooner than thirty minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots.
