

SENIOR PGA TOUR 2000

Official Media Guide of the SENIOR PGA TOUR

A MESSAGE TO THE MEDIA

As the SENIOR PGA TOUR begins its third decade of competition, we are expecting another exciting, competitive season.

With 45 events on the 2000 schedule, including 39 official tournaments, members of the SENIOR TOUR will be playing for purses totaling more than $54 million.

Last season, 12 players earned at least $1 million and two — Bruce Fleisher and Hale Irwin — earned more than $2 million.

We are looking forward to the debuts of rookies Tom Kite and Lanny Wadkins. They'll join Tom Watson, who made his mark on the SENIOR TOUR last September with a victory in just his second start. The trio had long and distinguished careers on the PGA TOUR and we feel they will bring their stellar play to the SENIOR TOUR.

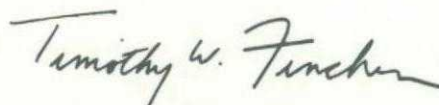

The SENIOR TOUR is an international tour in every sense. Many of the great players on the SENIOR TOUR hail from other countries and play our tournaments in Canada, Mexico and Puerto Rico in addition to the United States. The Audi Senior Classic in Puebla, Mexico makes its debut this year in March.

Charity remains one of the most important elements of our tournaments, and we look forward to continuing to grow charitable contributions, which surpassed $500 million on all three TOURs last year since the first charity donation was made by a PGA TOUR event in 1938.

Our thanks to all our sponsors for their great support of the SENIOR TOUR.

We appreciate the outstanding coverage that the SENIOR PGA TOUR, its players and tournaments receive throughout the year. We hope this media guide will help you continue that coverage this season.

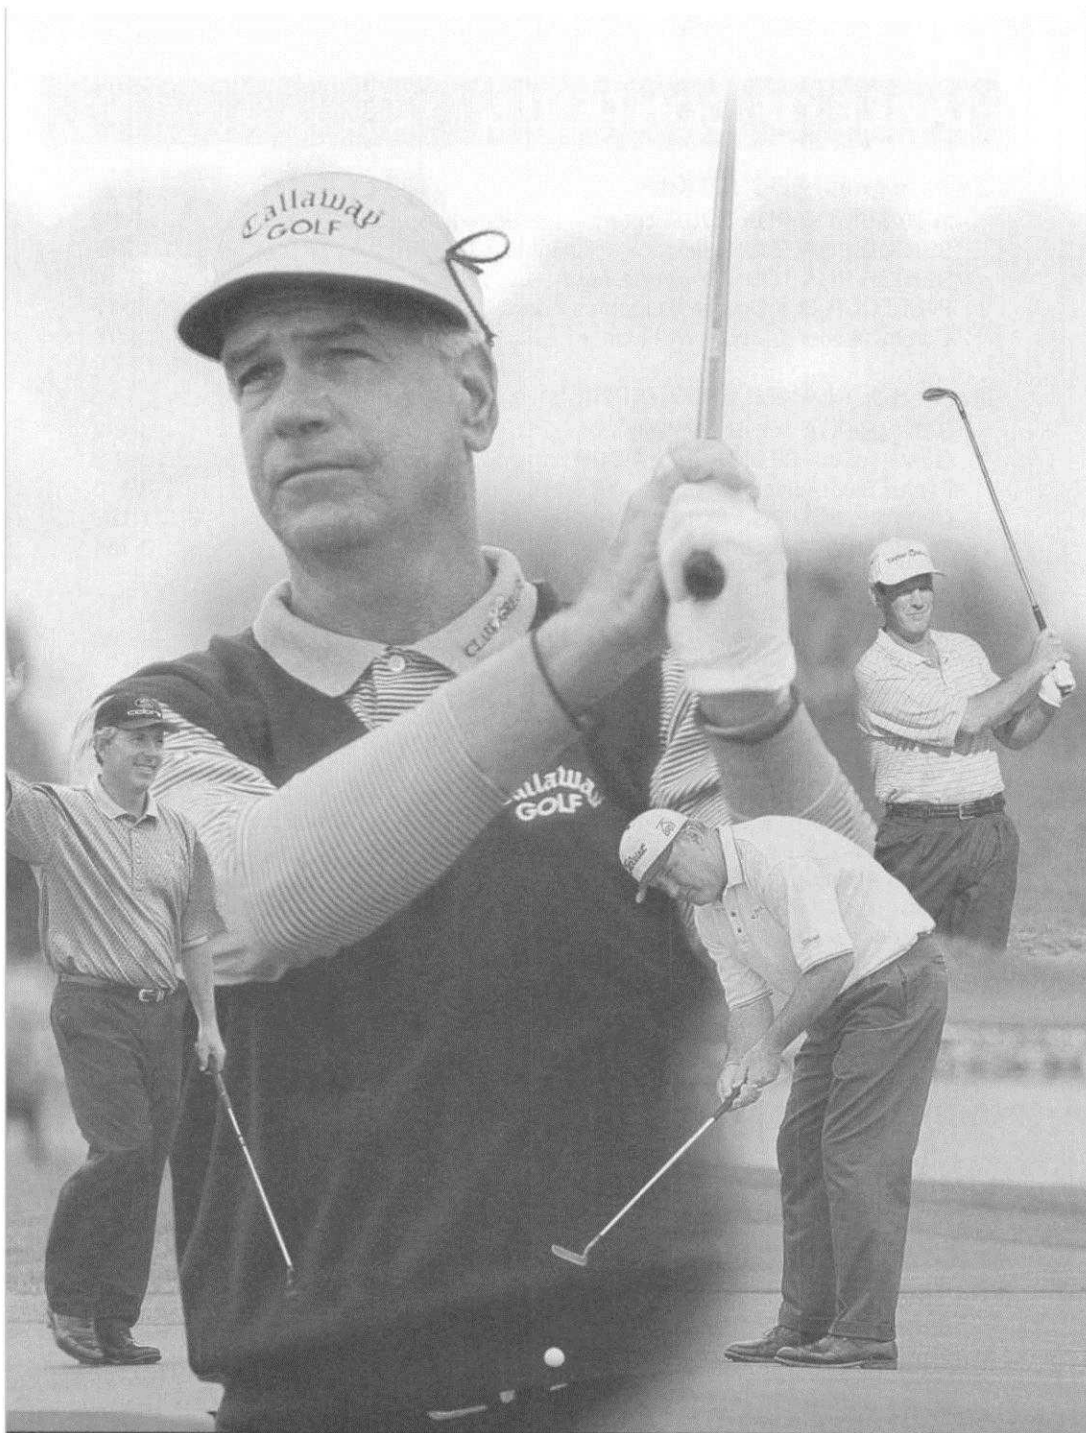

Our Media Officials are available to assist you at each of our events; however, please do not hesitate to contact any member of our headquarters staff for further assistance.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SENIOR PGA TOUR

The SENIOR PGA TOUR, called by many the most successful professional sports venture of the 1980s, sprang from discussions in late 1978 and 1979 in which leading senior players expressed interest in playing several "senior" events, provided sponsors could be found and if the PGA TOUR would administer the tournaments. Prior to that time, only certain special events for tournament professionals over the age of 50 were held, most notably the Legends of Golf and the PGA Seniors' Championship.

The SENIOR TOUR celebrated its 20th anniversary in 1999. Listed below are some significant highlights that have made it one of the most exciting, lucrative and fastest-growing sports enterprises in the world.

January 16 — A landmark meeting laid the formal groundwork for the SENIOR PGA TOUR. Attending that meeting were Sam Snead, Bob Goalby, Don January and the late Julius Boros, Gardner Dickinson and Dan Sikes. Sikes is named chairman of what became known as the Senior Advisory Council, and Snead was named honorary chairman. January 22 — The new SENIOR TOUR is formally approved by the Tournament Policy Board of the PGA TOUR. The schedule calls for two sanctioned events for a total of $250,000 in prize money. June 22 — Don January wins the first official SENIOR TOUR event, the Atlantic City International in Atlantic City, NJ, defeating Mike Souchak by two strokes. November 16 — Charles Sifford claims the second SENIOR TOUR event, the Suntree Classic in Melbourne, FL, beating Don January by four strokes. December 7 — Arnold Palmer becomes the first of only four players to win in his first SENIOR TOUR start, defeating Paul Harney in a playoff for the PGA Seniors' Championship.

1981

June 7 — Don January becomes the first player to win back-to-back SENIOR TOUR events when he triumphs at the Michelob-Egypt Temple Senior Classic in Tampa and then the Eureka Federal Savings Classic at Harding Park GC in San Francisco. June 14 — Miller Barber wins the first of his 24 SENIOR TOUR career titles at the Peter Jackson Champions in Vancouver, British Columbia, besting Gene Littler in a playoff. Barber goes on to triumph twice more and is the circuit's leading money-winner with $83,136. July 12 — Arnold Palmer wins an 18-hole playoff over Billy Casper and Bob Stone at Oakland Hills CC for the U.S. Senior Open title. Palmer becomes the first player to win both a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown in his career. October 17 — Art Wall makes the first hole-in-one on the SENIOR TOUR, during the second round of the Suntree Seniors Classic in Melbourne, FL.

1982

The SENIOR TOUR doubles in size from five to 11 tournaments, and prize money increases from $750,000 to $1.3 million. April 4 — Don January becomes the first player to successfully defend a SENIOR TOUR title when he defeats Dow Finsterwald by three strokes for the Michelob Senior Classic title near Tampa, FL. April 25 — Don January and Sam Snead cruise to a 12-stroke win at the Legends of Golf at Onion Creek CC in Austin, TX, the largest margin of victory in the history of the event. The victory is the last of Snead's illustrious career. June 27 — Al Balding records the first double-eagle in SENIOR TOUR history in the second round of the Peter Jackson Champions in Winnipeg, Manitoba. July 11 — Miller Barber wins the first of his three U.S. Senior Open titles at Portland GC in Oregon. He goes on to win the Suntree Classic late in the year and is the circuit's leading money-winner for the second straight season with $106,890.

1983

Prize money offered for players on the 50-and-over circuit exceeds $3 million with 18 tournaments on the schedule. Don January wins six tournaments and supplants fellow Texan Miller Barber as the leading money-winner with $237,571. May 22 — The late Rod Funseth establishes the all-time SENIOR TOUR record for largest victory margin in a 54-hole event, breezing to a nine-shot triumph at the Hall of Fame Tournament at Pinehurst, NC. July 25 — Billy Casper defeats Funseth in a playoff for the U.S. Senior Open title at Hazeltine National in Minnesota. Casper joins Arnold Palmer as the only other player at that time to win a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open title. October 15 — Gene Littler birdies his first seven holes and goes out in eight-under 28 in the third round of the Suntree Classic in Melbourne, FL. Littler's nine-hole score stands as an all-time SENIOR TOUR record for 15 years, until it is broken by Jay Sigel's 27 during the 1998 Bell Atlantic Classic.

Growth continues at a rapid rate when a slate of 24 events and total prize money well over $5 million is announced. Don January and Miller Barber each win four tournaments and continue to be the leading players on the SENIOR TOUR. January wins his fourth Byron Nelson Trophy for best scoring average and also becomes the first player to go over $300,000 in single-season earnings ($328,597) en route to his second consecutive money title. January 22 — Arnold Palmer wins his second PGA Seniors' Championship in Palm Beach Gardens, FL by two strokes over Don January. Palmer's eight-stroke lead after 36 holes establishes the all-time record for largest 36-hole lead. August 12 — Don January blisters Royal Ottawa GC, winning the du Maurier Champions in Canada with the lowest 54-hole score in the history of the circuit at the time. January's record 19-under 193 total stands for five years.

1985

With 27 events worth more than $6 million in total purses, the SENIOR TOUR is large enough to merit its establishment as a division of the PGA TOUR and its own logo. The SENIOR TOUR also becomes a distinct and separate operating and financial entity, with net revenue going to fund a newly created Senior Player Retirement Plan. A cable television package with ESPN allows seven events to enjoy national cable exposure. With the production costs partially funded by Mazda Motors of America, Mazda helps create the SENIOR TOUR's first-ever, season-long bonus pool ($300,000) and sponsors a $1 million season-ending team event in conjunction with the LPGA. March 17 — Australian Peter Thomson, a five-time British Open winner, wins the first of a record nine tournaments at The Vintage Invitational. June 23 — Arnold Palmer cruises to an easy 11-stroke win at the Senior Tournament Players Championship at Canterbury GC near Cleveland. The margin is a record for 72 holes until 1997. June 30 — Miller Barber wins the last of his U.S. Senior Open titles at Edgewood Tahoe, NV. He becomes the first senior player to win the same tournament three times. July 27 — Lee Elder fires an 11-under 61 in opening round of the Merrill Lynch/Golf Digest Commemorative in Newport, RI. Elder's round will remain the lowest score in SENIOR TOUR history until 1997. August 4 — Don January becomes the first player to surpass the $1 million mark in SENIOR TOUR career money. October 13 — On his 63rd birthday, Mike Fetchick wins the Hilton Head Seniors International. Fetchick establishes the mark as the oldest SENIOR TOUR winner and is victorious for the first time in over 28 years (1956 Mayfair Inn Open), the longest time between a PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR title. November 23 — South African Gary Player triumphs in his SENIOR TOUR debut at the Quadel Seniors Classic in Boca Raton, FL. He becomes the second of only four senior players to claim the first tournament he enters.

1986

Bruce Crampton, Bob Charles, Dale Douglass and Chi Chi Rodriguez are among the new faces on the SENIOR TOUR and signify a changing of the guard on the circuit. One new tournament is added to the schedule and prize money increases to $6.3 million. May 11 — Bruce Crampton wins the first of his seven titles during the year, edging Bob Charles at the Benson & Hedges Invitational at The Dominion in San Antonio, TX. June 22 — Chi Chi Rodriguez triumphs at the Senior Tournament Players Championship in Cleveland, the first of his 22 SENIOR TOUR career titles. Rodriguez goes on to win the Byron Nelson Award (69.65), breaking Don January's run of four straight scoring titles. November 23 — Bruce Crampton ends the year with a win at the Shearson-Lehman Brothers Seniors Classic in Delray Beach, FL. He finishes atop the money list with $454,299 and becomes the first senior to cross the $400,000 barrier in earnings.

1987

The Vantage brand of R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company introduces its Vantage Cup program to the 35-event SENIOR TOUR. Vantage involvement includes a $1 million, season-long team points competition; sponsorship of the first $1 million tournament on the SENIOR TOUR, the Vantage Championship; sponsorship of a "Super Seniors" competition for players 60 and older; and an advanced electronic scoreboard system. The size of SENIOR TOUR tournament fields expands to 72 players and, for the first time, the pro-am portion and tournament portion of events are separated. March 15 — Billy Casper wins the Del E. Webb Arizona Classic and becomes the first SENIOR TOUR member to play 54 holes without a bogey. March 22 — Bob Charles notches the first of his 23 SENIOR TOUR titles at The Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Palm Desert, CA, his first of three victories in a row. May 23 — Chi Chi Rodriguez sets the SENIOR TOUR standard with eight consecutive birdies during the second round of the Silver Pages Classic in Oklahoma City. June 7 — Chi Chi Rodriguez uses a 65 to come from three strokes back and win the Senior Players Reunion in Dallas. The victory at Bent Tree CC is his fourth in a row and establishes the SENIOR TOUR record for most consecutive wins. He goes on to claim a total of seven titles and becomes the first senior over the $500,000 mark in earnings ($509,145).

The SENIOR TOUR grows to 37 events and purses eclipse the $10 million mark. Vantage sponsors the SENIOR TOUR's first-ever statistical program. Bob Charles and Gary Player each win five events, and Charles establishes a single-season earnings mark with $533,929. March 6 — Orville Moody closes with a 63, setting a 72-hole SENIOR TOUR scoring record of 25-under 263 and tying Arnold Palmer's record for largest victory margin with his 11-stroke win at the Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Indian Wells, CA. July 31 — Chi Chi Rodriguez's one-shot victory over Bob Charles at the Digital Seniors Classic near Boston makes him the first player to win the same tournament three straight times. August 7 — Gary Player defeats Bob Charles in an 18-hole playoff at Medinah CC near Chicago to successfully defend his U.S. Senior Open title. The victory is Player's second senior major championship of the season. Earlier in the year, he won the PGA Seniors' Championship. September 18 — Arnold Palmer wins the last of his 10 SENIOR TOUR career titles at the Crestar Classic near Richmond, VA, defeating Lee Elder, Larry Mowry and Jim Ferree by four strokes.

1989

SENIOR TOUR tournament fields increase to 78 players and 21 tournaments air on national television. R.J. Reynolds sponsors an expanded $1.5-million championship and offers an additional $750,000 in individual bonus money and another $750,000 in bonuses to other SENIOR TOUR tournaments. Bob Charles again wins five times and, with the RJR bonus money counting as official prize money, sets the earnings pace with a record $725,887. January 8 — Miller Barber wins the MONY Tournament of Champions at LaCosta and extends his streak of years winning at least one event to nine, an all-time record. March 5 — Miller Barber wins the last of his 24 official SENIOR TOUR career titles at The Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Palm Desert, CA. The victory also vaults him over the $2-million mark in SENIOR TOUR career earnings, the first player to do so. April 2 — Don Bies goes wire-to-wire in winning the Murata Seniors Reunion in Dallas. His eight-stroke lead after 36 holes matches the SENIOR TOUR's all-time record for two rounds. April 16 — Bies beats Gary Player by a stroke to win the inaugural Tradition at Desert Mountain, destined to become the SENIOR TOUR's fourth major championship. May 21 — Bob Charles fires 17-under 193 to win the NYNEX/Golf Digest Commemorative outside New York City, the lowest 54-hole score in SENIOR TOUR history. June 11 — Orville Moody wins his first senior major at the Mazda Senior Tournament Players Championship in Ponte Vedra, FL. July 2 — Orville Moody holds off Frank Beard at Laurel Valley GC for the U.S. Senior Open title. The win makes him the fourth player to claim both a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown. September 22 — Hurricane Hugo wipes out the PaineWebber Invitational in Charlotte, the only event to be cancelled by weather on the SENIOR TOUR. October 15 — George Archer defeats Orville Moody and Jimmy Powell in a playoff for the Gatlin Brothers Southwest Classic title in Abilene, TX. The start is Archer's first on the SENIOR TOUR and comes just 14 days after he turns 50 making him, at the time, the youngest senior winner. December 7 — Lee Trevino debuts on the SENIOR TOUR at the GTE Kaanapali Classic and ties for seventh in the rain-shortened event.

Cadillac Motor Car Division comes aboard as the umbrella sponsor for SENIOR TOUR cable telecasts. Fourteen events are shown on ESPN cable television as part of the "Cadillac Series." Five players surpass the previous single-season earnings record, but Lee Trevino is the dominant performer. The "Merry Mex" easily snares both Rookie of the Year and Player of the Year honors after seven wins and official earnings of $1,190,518. He also earns his first Byron Nelson Trophy with a scoring average of 68.89, a record that will stand for eight years on the SENIOR TOUR. February 4 — Lee Trevino makes up seven shots in the final nine holes to overtake Jim Dent for the Royal Caribbean Classic title on Key Biscayne, FL, his first victory on the SENIOR TOUR. April 1 — Jack Nicklaus captures The Tradition crown in Scottsdale and becomes the fourth player to win in his SENIOR TOUR debut. June 10 — Jack Nicklaus rips Dearborn (MI) CC apart to win the Mazda Senior TPC by six strokes over Lee Trevino. Nicklaus' 27-under 261 total sets a new standard for scoring in a 72-hole event on the SENIOR TOUR. July 1 — Lee Trevino nips Jack Nicklaus at Ridgewood CC in New Jersey for the U.S. Senior Open title. Trevino's win makes him the fifth player to claim a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown. December 16 — Lee Trevino's runner-up performance at the season-ending New York Life Champions in Puerto Rico puts him over the seven-figure mark and makes him the first single-season millionaire in SENIOR TOUR history and the leading money-winner in all of golf.

The list of SENIOR TOUR millionaires grows when Mike Hill becomes the second senior to top $1 million in 1991. Hill wins five times and shares Player of the Year honors with George Archer. His total of $1,065,657 is the largest amount in golf. PGA TOUR Productions introduces "Inside the SENIOR PGA TOUR," and ESPN airs the new program for 39 consecutive weeks during the season. June 2 — Charles Coody equals the 54-hole SENIOR TOUR scoring record, posting a 17-under 193 to win the NYNEX Commemorative. June 9 — Jim Albus shocks the golf world by becoming the first former club professional to win a senior major. Albus holds off three players at the TPC of Michigan to win the Mazda Senior Players Championship by three strokes. July 28 — Jack Nicklaus becomes the first to complete the Senior Slam when he defeats Chi Chi Rodriguez in an 18-hole playoff for the U.S. Senior Open title at Oakland Hills CC. The victory is Nicklaus' third senior major of the season. Earlier in the campaign, the Golden Bear successfully defended his Tradition title and waltzed to an easy triumph at the PGA Seniors' Championship. October 20 — Bob Charles becomes the first to cross the $3-million barrier in SENIOR TOUR career money when he ties for 14th at The Transamerica Senior Golf Championship in Napa, CA.

1992

Lee Trevino again was the leading money-winner on the SENIOR TOUR despite a hand injury in mid-season. His $1,027,002 makes him the first player to surpass seven figures twice in a senior career, and five tournament wins propel the Merry Mex to a second Player of the Year honor. Raymond Floyd joins the circuit in the fall and wastes little time in making an impact. May 22 — On the first day of the Bell Atlantic Classic outside Philadelphia, Lee Trevino posts the last of 27 straight par-or-better rounds. During his record run, Trevino also sets a SENIOR TOUR mark of 11 straight sub-70 scores. June 28 — Gibby Gilbert equals the SENIOR TOUR's 54-hole scoring record of 193 in winning the Southwestern Bell Classic near Kansas City. His nine-stroke cushion equals the widest 54-hole victory margin in SENIOR TOUR history. July 5 — Gibby Gilbert wins for the second consecutive week, defeating J.C. Snead in a playoff at the Kroger Senior Classic near Cincinnati. His 54-hole score of 198 makes him the first player to win consecutive weeks with sub-200 totals. September 20 — One week after his SENIOR TOUR debut, Doral Ryder Open champion Raymond Floyd outguns Mike Hill for the GTE North Classic title in Indianapolis. The victory makes Floyd the only player to win both a PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR event in the same season. September 27 — Isao Aoki, the 36-hole leader at the Nationwide Championship near Atlanta, is declared the winner when the final round is rained out. He becomes the first Japanese player to win on the SENIOR TOUR.

1993

Dave Stockton and Bob Charles become the first two players to earn more than $1 million in official money in the same season. Stockton claims five tournaments and receives his first Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner. Charles wins his third Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average and triumphs three times. March 21 — Raymond Floyd's 22-under-par 194 score in winning the Gulfstream Aerospace Invitational in Palm Desert, CA is a SENIOR TOUR record in relation to par. May 23 — Bob Charles wins the Bell Atlantic Classic near Philadelphia and becomes the fourth player to collect 20 or more SENIOR TOUR titles in a career. His $97,500 first-place check also makes him the first senior over the $4 million mark in career earnings. August 15 — Dave Stockton ties the SENIOR TOUR mark for victory margin in a 54-hole event, winning by a whopping nine strokes at the Franklin Quest Championship in Utah.

1994

Official prize money approaches the $30-million figure and a record six SENIOR TOUR players top the $1 million mark. Trevino gets there first, earning $1 million for an unprecedented third time in his career. Stockton tops the earnings list with $1,402,519 and becomes the first to win more than $1 million in back-to-back seasons. After Albus becomes the first former club professional to join the millionaire's club, Raymond Floyd, Tom Wargo and Jim Colbert follow him into the elite group at the season-ending SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach, SC. March 6 — One day after Jim Colbert establishes the SENIOR TOUR record for lowest 36-hole score, 14-under 126, Jay Sigel wins his first professional title in the greatest comeback in SENIOR TOUR annals. Sigel's final-round 62 makes up 10 shots and he defeats Colbert in a sudden-death playoff for the GTE West Classic title in Ojai, CA. June 19 — Bob Charles is the first to eclipse $5 million in SENIOR TOUR career earnings with his tie for 18th at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland. July 9 — Bob Brue has a SENIOR TOUR record low of 17 total putts in carding a 66 in the second round of the Kroger Senior Classic near Cincinnati. Brue's seven putts on the back nine also establishes a mark for fewest over nine holes. July 10 — 78-year-old Jerry Barber cards a 69 on the last day of the Kroger Senior Classic and becomes the oldest player to shoot lower than his age. July 31 — Lee Trevino's seven-stroke victory at the Northville Long Island Classic ties him with Miller Barber atop the SENIOR TOUR's all-time victory list with 24 titles.

1995

A record 25 different champions are produced, and Jim Colbert earns his first Arnold Palmer Award with a single-season earnings record of $1,444,386. His year-long performance, keyed by a win at the season-ending Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach, SC, helps propel Colbert to SENIOR PGA TOUR Player of the Year honors. June 9 — Hale Irwin debuts on the SENIOR TOUR at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland and finishes in a tie for fourth. July 23 — Jimmy Powell wins the First of America Classic in Grand Rapids only one day after claiming the Super Seniors portion of the tournament. He is the first player to win both in the same week. July 29 — Playing in the Ameritech Senior Open near Chicago, 69-year-old Joe Jimenez fires a course-record 62 at Stonebridge CC, the lowest score ever on the SENIOR TOUR by a player over 60. July 30 — Hale Irwin claims his first SENIOR TOUR event at the Ameritech Senior Open. He also wins the Vantage Championship in Winston-Salem later in the season and is voted the circuit's Rookie of the Year. August 20 — Lee Trevino becomes the SENIOR TOUR's all-time winningest player when he successfully defends his Northville Long Island Classic title, his 25th on the circuit. September 10 — Dave Stockton finishes second to Walter Morgan at the GTE Northwest Classic near Seattle, and his $52,800 check pushes him over the $1 million plateau for an unprecedented third straight SENIOR TOUR season.

1996

Jim Colbert repeats by raising the single-season earnings record to $1,627,890. He edges Hale Irwin by $12,121 to become the first winner of consecutive Player of the Year awards. MasterCard becomes a major player on the circuit through sponsorship of the electronic scoreboards and the MasterCard Champions competition. January 21 — Lee Trevino becomes the first player to cross the $6 million level in SENIOR TOUR career earnings when he ties for third at the Puerto Rico Senior Tournament of Champions. March 24 — Lee Trevino and Mike Hill team to win an unprecedented fourth Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title in La Quinta, CA. April 7 — Jack Nicklaus successfully defends his Tradition title and becomes the first SENIOR TOUR player to claim the same tournament four times. The three-stroke victory over Hale Irwin is also his 100th professional title. September 22 — Jimmy Powell "double dips" at the Brickyard Crossing Championship in Indianapolis, winning a MasterCard GrandMasters competition and the overall event for the second time in his career. October 6 — One week after debuting on the SENIOR TOUR, Gil Morgan becomes the circuit's youngest winner in Los Angeles. He claims the Ralphs Senior Classic at Wilshire CC just 11 days after turning 50. October 20 — Dave Stockton's runner-up check of $70,400 at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic in Sacramento pushes him over seven figures in single-season earnings for an unprecedented fourth consecutive year. November 3 — Lee Trevino wins his 27th SENIOR TOUR event at the Emerald Coast Classic in Pensacola in a five-man playoff, the most players ever involved in overtime in the history of the circuit.

1997

The year belongs almost exclusively to Hale Irwin. He wins nine times and becomes the first player on any TOUR to surpass $2 million in a season, finishing the year with $2,343,364. Gil Morgan caps a stellar campaign of his own by winning the season-ending Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, his sixth victory of the year. His $328,000 check at Myrtle Beach also puts him over $2 million in single-season earnings. April 6 — Gil Morgan wins his first senior major championship at The Tradition. His 72-hole total of 22-under 266 breaks the tournament record by three strokes. April 20 — Hale Irwin's 12-stroke romp at the PGA Seniors' Championship is the widest margin in SENIOR TOUR history for 72 holes. May 18 — Lee Trevino goes over the $7 million mark in SENIOR TOUR Career earnings with a fourth-place finish at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic. July 27 — Bruce Summerhays ends his record run of 96 straight SENIOR TOUR appearances at the Franklin Quest Championship. The streak started at the 1995 Royal Caribbean Classic. September 27 — Isao Aoki sets a SENIOR TOUR record for lowest 18-hole score with a 10-under 60 in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic. September 28 — Isao Aoki's final-round 65 at the Emerald Coast Classic gives him a 15-under-par 125 total over his final 36 holes, the best back-to-back rounds in SENIOR TOUR history. October 19 — Hale Irwin claims his ninth title of the year at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic. The three-stroke triumph ties Peter Thomson's record (1985) for most victories in a season. October 24 — Gil Morgan's two-over 74 ends a streak of 26 consecutive sub-par scores, the longest run in SENIOR TOUR history.

Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan continue to dominate the SENIOR TOUR. With 13 victories between them, both players eclipse the $2 million level in single-season earnings. Despite winning two less events than 1997, Irwin turns in an incredible year, finishing out of the top five only twice in 22 official tournaments. He wins his second consecutive Jack Nicklaus Award as the SENIOR TOUR's Player of the Year and earns a third consecutive Byron Nelson Award with a record scoring average of 68.59. Arnold Palmer and Jim Colbert co-chair the SENIOR PGA TOUR FOR THE CURE campaign and help raise $4.5 million for prostate cancer research over the course of the season. February 1 — David Graham wins the Royal Caribbean Classic at Key Biscayne, FL in a 10-hole sudden-death playoff over Dave Stockton, the longest overtime session in SENIOR TOUR history. March 29 — Lee Trevino wins his record 28th SENIOR TOUR title at the Southwestern Bell Dominion, his third senior victory in San Antonio. April 19 — Hale Irwin claims his third straight PGA Seniors' Championship, a first since Eddie Williams' trifecta from 1942-1946. May 17 — Larry Ziegler claims the Saint Luke's Classic near Kansas City, his first SENIOR TOUR event since 1991. The victory comes six years, 10 months and three days after his triumph at the Newport Cup, the longest span between SENIOR TOUR wins. May 23 — In the second round of the Bell Atlantic Classic, Jay Sigel sets a SENIOR TOUR record for lowest nine-hole score. His nine-under 27 on the front nine at Hartefeld National includes an eagle and seven birdies, the SENIOR TOUR's all-time best eagle-birdie streak. July 26 — Despite opening with a six-over 77, Hale Irwin rallies to win the U.S. Senior Open at Riviera CC near Los Angeles. He establishes an all-time mark for the highest-ever start by a winner and becomes the seventh man to win both a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open. October 11 — Jim Colbert caps a successful return to the circuit from prostate cancer surgery with a victory at The Transamerica, his 19th on the SENIOR TOUR. His $150,000 check makes him the first player over $8 million in SENIOR TOUR career money. November 8 — Hale Irwin caps his official season with a win at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, his 20th career title as a senior. Irwin finishes the year with $2,861,945, the most-ever by any player on any TOUR.

1999

The SENIOR PGA TOUR completes its 20th season with a number of significant accomplishments led by rookie Bruce Fleisher, who claims seven tournament victories and earns his first money title with a rookie record $2,515,705. He wins the Jack Nicklaus Award as the SENIOR TOUR's Player of the Year and earns the Byron Nelson Award for the lowest scoring average (69.19). Fleisher also claims the Rookie of the Year Award. He is joined in the $2-million club by Hale Irwin, who earns that figure for the third year in succession. A record total of 12 players earn at least $1 million. Members of the 1998 SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament class, led by Fleisher and Allen Doyle (four wins), win 15 times. February 7 — Bruce Fleisher becomes the eighth player in SENIOR TOUR history to win his debut when he prevails by two strokes over Isao Aoki at the Royal Caribbean Classic. February 14 — Bruce Fleisher becomes the first player to win his first two starts, besting Larry Nelson by three strokes at the American Express Invitational. February 28 — Allen Doyle's win at the ACE Group Classic makes him the first player to win an event on both the SENIOR TOUR and the BUY.COM TOUR. March 28 — Bob Duval makes history with his win at the Emerald Coast Classic. Later in the day, his son David wins THE PLAYERS Championship, and they become the first father-son duo in PGA TOUR history to claim victories on the same weekend. April 4 — Snow and inclement weather shorten The Tradition to 36 holes, and Graham Marsh emerges as the winner by three strokes over Larry Nelson. It is the first event to have rounds canceled by snow. May 2 — Miller Barber plays in his 500th SENIOR TOUR event at Bruno's Memorial Classic. June 27 — Hale Irwin closes with rounds of 64-65 on his way to a record-setting seven-stroke victory at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. It marks the fourth year in succession he has won a major championship. July 25 — Hale Irwin's win at the Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic is his 25th on the SENIOR TOUR, moving him into second place behind Lee Trevino on the all-time victory list. August 1 — Mike McCullough breaks Bruce Summerhays' record for most consecutive eligible events played when he plays in his 97th straight event. August 29 — Jim Ahern becomes the seventh open qualifier to win an event when he pars the second extra hole to defeat Hale Irwin at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship. September 19 — One week after his SENIOR TOUR debut, Tom Watson fashions a final round 10-under-par 62 for a five-stroke win over Bruce Summerhays at the Bank One Championship. Watson becomes the third youngest player in SENIOR TOUR history to win, at 50 years, 15 days. November 7 — Gary McCord closes with rounds of 64-67 and claims a career-best $347,000 after defeating Bruce Fleisher and Larry Nelson by one stroke at the Ingersoll-Rand SENIOR TOUR Championship.

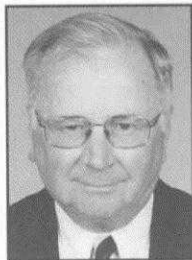

THE SENIOR PGA TOUR DIVISION BOARD

The Senior PGA TOUR, formerly a department within the overall structure of the PGA TOUR, became an operating division of the PGA TOUR in October 1985. The restructuring, along with the naming of a nine-person Senior PGA TOUR Division Board, gave the Senior TOUR greater ability to deal with its particular policies, opportunities and issues.

The Senior TOUR Division Board is composed of the following:

- Four Player Directors elected by the Senior PGA TOUR membership.
- Four Independent Directors representing the public interest. One serves as Chairman of the Board.
- One PGA Director who is the Past President of the PGA of America.
- One Director Emeritus

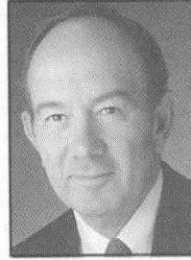

A Player Advisory Council consults with the Division Board.

ABOUT THE COMMISSIONER

Timothy W. Finchem

Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem, 52, is the third Commissioner of the PGA TOUR.

Finchem succeeded Deane R. Beman as Commissioner on June 1, 1994. Beman had served for 20 years, replacing the late Joseph C. Dey, who had been the TOUR's Commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Finchem, Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer of the TOUR under Beman since 1989, had joined the TOUR staff as Vice President of Business Affairs in 1987.

As Commissioner, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players domestically and internationally. He also has taken leadership roles in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation, Inc.

His personal dedication to the success of the World Golf Foundation's First Tee initiative has helped that program achieve its initial objectives in developing facilities that will have an impact on the game for years to come.

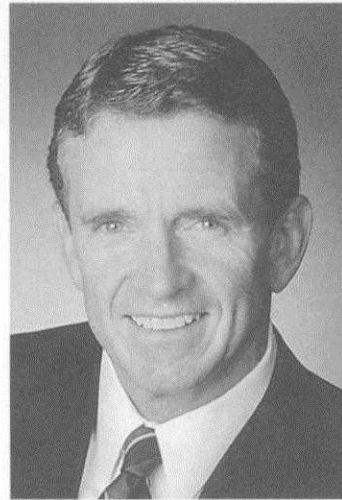

"Our primary purpose as a membership organization is to create outstanding playing and earnings opportunities for our players," Finchem says, "and we are proud of what our tournaments do for charity (more than $500 million raised) and the active role we have been able to take as an organization in growing the game for future generations."

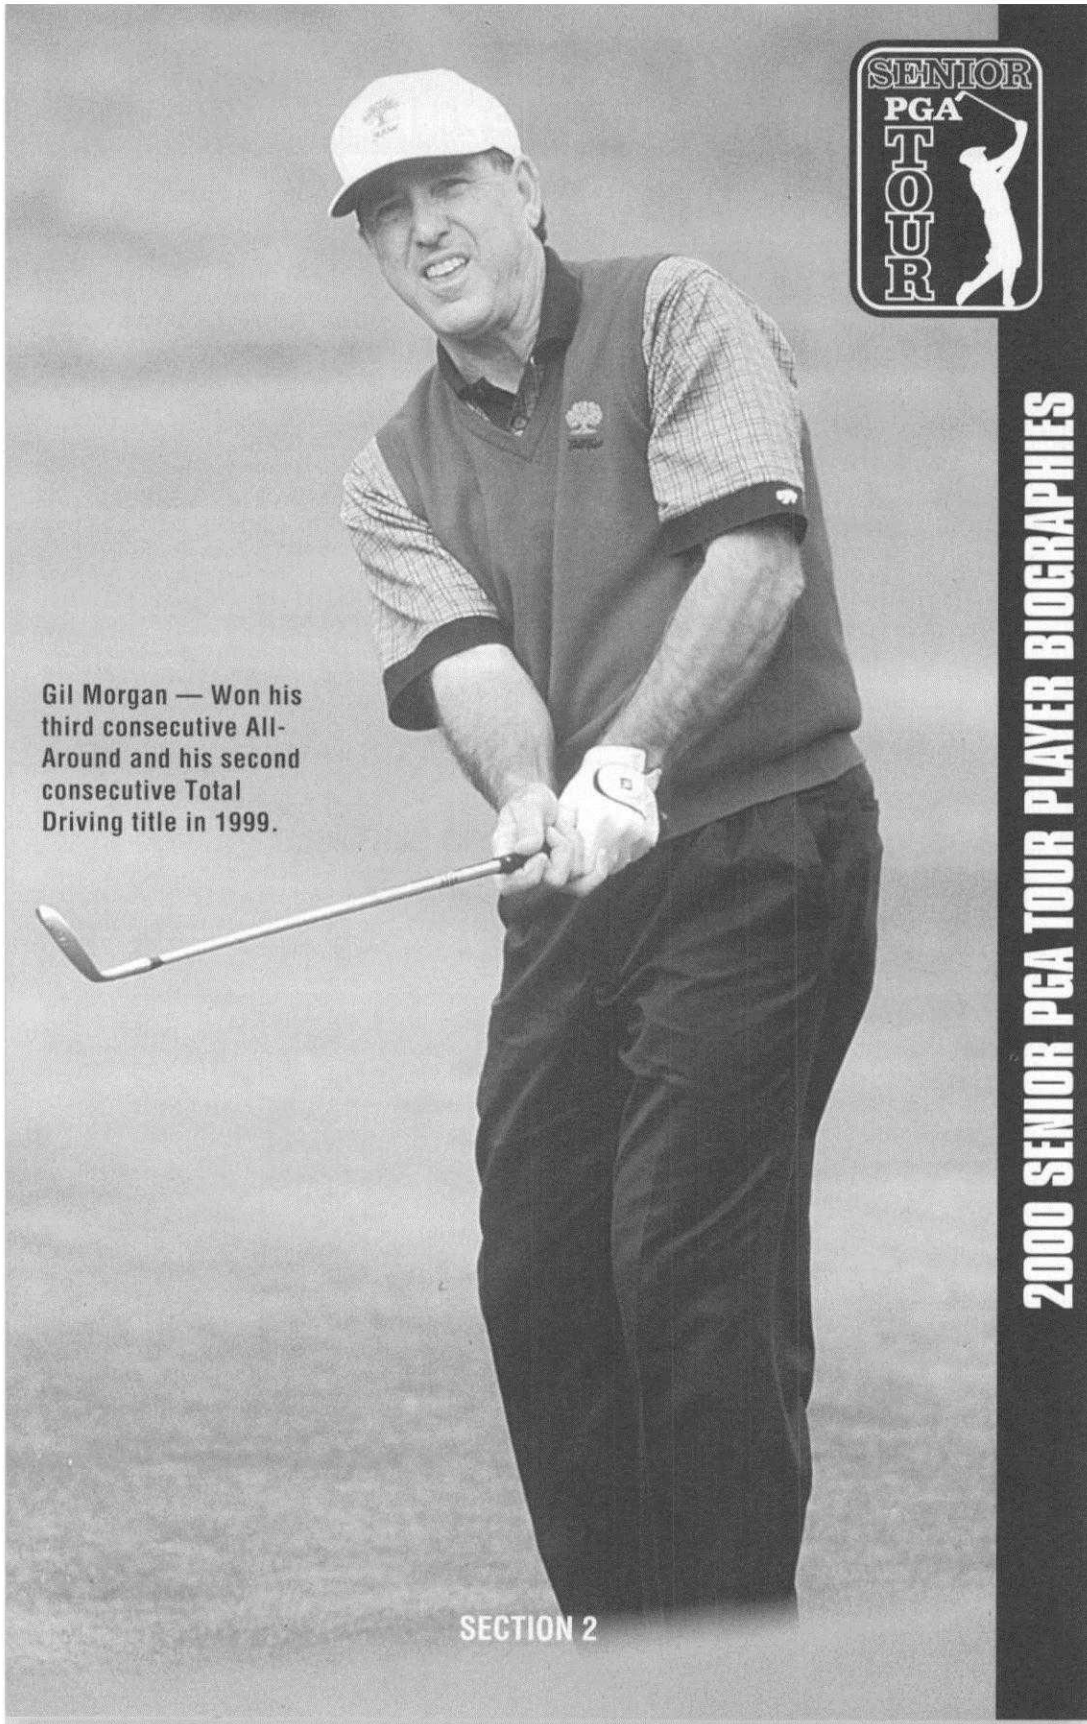

Born in Ottawa, IL on April 19, 1947, Finchem was graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He was graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973.

After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. After serving as National Staff Director for the Carter-Mondale campaign in 1980, Finchem co-founded the National Marketing and Strategies Group in Washington, D.C.

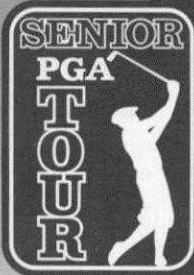

A physical fitness advocate, Finchem is a member of the President's Council on Physical Fitness.

Married to the former Holly Bachand, Finchem is a father of four. The Finchems live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Gil Morgan — Won his third consecutive All-Around and his second consecutive Total Driving title in 1999.

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 2—Royal Caribbean Classic; T7 — ACE Group Classic; T8—MasterCard Championship.

1999 SEASON: Injured right shoulder and, in trying to play, developed back problems that curtailed his season after the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship at the end of August...Failed to finish in the top-31 for the first time since joining the SENIOR TOUR (49th on the final money list) in 1992, and finished out of the top 10 for the first time since 1994...Saw his streak of consecutive years with at least one victory end at five straight seasons...Posted three top 10s in 17 starts, including a second-place finish at the Royal Caribbean Classic...Recorded all three of his top-10 finishes in the first five tournaments of the season...Opened the year with a T8 at the MasterCard Championship...Finished second two weeks later behind Bruce Fleisher in Key Biscayne, Florida...Three weeks later at the ACE Group Classic, he shot 68-69 on the weekend to finish T7...First-round leader at the Las Vegas Senior Classic, but faded to 14th with a final-round 76...In contention at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship before a final-round 73 left him T14 at the TPC of Michigan...Represented Japan at the 1999 Dunhill Cup...Also played in the Hawaiian Open (missed cut).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Climbed past the $1 million earnings mark ($1,042,200) and finished in the top-10 on the final money list (9th) for the fourth successive season...Played in 22 events, but still had 10 top-10 finishes...One of four players to go wire-to-wire in '98, winning the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland in record fashion with an 18-under-par 198, a tournament record...Also in Nashville, his 36-hole total (62-66—128) tied the SENIOR TOUR record in relation to par for the first 36 holes...Other top finishes were a solo second at the Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic, where he lost in a playoff to Leonard Thompson, T2 at the Utah Showdown, a solo third at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship and T4s at the U.S. Senior Open and the Emerald Coast Classic. 1997: Enjoyed a career year that saw him finish third on the money list with $1,410,499...Fifth consecutive season he improved his position on the final chart...Finished among the top three 10 times, with lone victory at the Emerald Coast Classic...Fashioned a SENIOR TOUR-record 60 (10-under-par) in the second round, and then, after a birdie on the final hole in regulation to tie Gil Morgan, came back with another birdie on the first playoff hole to claim the title...His 65 on Sunday, coupled with his record 60, helped him establish a SENIOR TOUR mark for best consecutive rounds (60-65-125), breaking the record of 126 by Jim Colbert (62-64/1994) and Bob Murphy (63-63/1995)...Was second five times, with two of those coming in majors — The Tradition and PGA Seniors' Championship...Finished over par in just three events: MasterCard Championship (+4), PGA Seniors' Championship (+4) and the U.S. Senior Open (+16) and failed to finish in the top 25 just twice — Pittsburgh Senior Classic and U.S. Senior Open. 1996: Won the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland and the Kroger Senior Classic...Also posted a SENIOR TOUR-best streak of 22 rounds of par-or-better that began at the PGA Seniors' Championship and ended at the Bell Atlantic Classic...Named the SENIOR TOUR Player of the Month in May and June. 1995: Won over $1 million for first time in his career, helped by a win at the Bank of Boston Senior Classic, where he birdied the final hole to nip Bob Charles and Hale Irwin...Went over the $1 million mark at the Emerald Coast Classic...Finished second four times, including playoff loss to Jack Nicklaus at The Tradition...In the top five in over half his 23 starts...Led the SENIOR TOUR in putting. 1994: Caught fire in the fall, winning back-to-back events at the Bank One Classic and the rain-shortened Brickyard Crossing Championship...Almost earned a third win at The Transamerica, but lost on the first extra hole to Kermit Zarley...Played his final 10 holes at Silverado in 10-under-par (8 birdies, 1 eagle, 1 par) and carded an 8-under-par 29 on the back nine en route to a 63 that forced the playoff...Player of the Month for September. 1993: Top showing was a T2 at the GTE West Classic and was in top 10 in 12 of 23 starts. 1992: Had impressive rookie year with six top-10 finishes in seven starts highlighted by victory at the Nationwide Championship...Shot a 66 on Saturday to take a one-stroke lead and was declared the winner when the final round was cancelled...Victory made him the first Japanese player to win on both the PGA TOUR and the SENIOR PGA TOUR...Made SENIOR TOUR debut at the First of America Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Has finished more than half the SENIOR TOUR events he has played in the top 10 (55 percent) ...One of Japan's all-time greats, with over 70 tournament victories worldwide...The only Japanese player to claim titles on six different Tours: PGA TOUR, SENIOR TOUR, PGA European Tour, Australasian Tour, Japan PGA Tour and Japan Senior Tour...May be best known in the United States for holing a pitching wedge out of the rough from 128 yards for an eagle-3 on the 72nd hole at Waialae CC to leapfrog Jack Renner and win the 1983 Hawaiian Open, his only PGA TOUR title...Best year on TOUR was that same season, when he made $146,467 and placed 34th on the money list...Shadowed Jack Nicklaus for four days at Baltusrol GC in the 1980 U.S. Open, but eventually lost by two strokes when Nicklaus became the first player to record a 72-hole mark of 272 in a U.S. Open...Was a member of the 1982, 1983 and 1984 Japanese National teams that competed against the United States...Selected to the Japan team in 1985, 1987 and 1988 for the Kirin Cup competition...Was the leading money-winner five times on the Japan PGA Tour.

PERSONAL: Was introduced to golf as a caddie at the Abiko Golf Club while attending Abiko Junior High School...Earned the nickname 'Tower' after the Tokyo Tower, because of his height...Uses an unorthodox putting stroke, but considers that to be the strongest part of his game.

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T2—Foremost Insurance Championship; T3—ACE Group Classic, Raley's Gold Rush Classic.

1999 SEASON: Had his best year since 1995, with official earnings of over $700,000 on the strength of eight top-10 finishes...Joined the ranks of the Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors at the Vantage Championship...Made a valiant defense of his Foremost Insurance Championship title in Grand Rapids and T2 thanks to three consecutive sub-par rounds at Egypt Valley...Was also on the leaderboard throughout the ACE Group Classic and eventually T3 in Naples...Put together a run of nine straight sub-par rounds late in the year and T3 at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic thanks to a final-round 66...Was the 36-hole leader at the Ingersoll-Rand SENIOR TOUR Championship and eventually finished T5 in Myrtle Beach, his best outing in the season-ending event since 1992...Collected a $101,500 paycheck at The Dunes Club and eclipsed the $7 million mark in SENIOR TOUR career earnings.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Fired a course-record-tying 8-under-par 64 on Sunday to claim his second First of America Classic title...Five-stroke victory at Egypt Valley was his first title since 1995 and his 17-under-par 199 total tied a tournament record...Also went over the $8 million mark in all-time money with his Michigan triumph. 1997: Rebounded from right hip replacement surgery in April 1996 to play a full schedule that included five top-10 performances...Saved his best performance for last, closing with a 64 at Wilshire Country Club to fall one stroke short of Gil Morgan at the Ralphs Senior Classic...Three of his other four top-10 finishes came in the last half of the season...Carded one of the finest rounds of his career on the opening day of the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic, a 5-under-par 67 in cool, windy conditions, the lowest of only four players to shoot par or better that day...His four-stroke advantage after Friday's play proved to be the largest first-round lead of '97...Finished T13 at Upper Montclair CC after posting scores of 72-77 on the weekend...Named the SENIOR TOUR's Comeback Player of the Year. 1996: Played in just 12 events after undergoing right hip replacement surgery in April...Returned in late July at the Burnet Senior Classic but played just twice after that...Was T13 in the first event of the year and that pushed him past $7 million in all-time earnings. 1995: Hinted at possible retirement early in year because of degenerative hip, but went on to post his fifth multiple-win season...Carded final-round 64 for a one-stroke win at inaugural Toshiba Senior Classic...Later in year posted a one-stroke win over Ray Floyd and Bob Murphy at Cadillac NFL Golf Classic...Third place at Bank One Classic pushed him over $5 million in SENIOR TOUR career money. 1994: Out of top 25 just twice and had year's best streak of par-or-better rounds (21)...Carded hole-in-one at GTE West Classic. 1993: Finished among top four on money list for fourth straight year with four victories, including back-to-back wins at Ameritech Senior Open and First of America Classic...Also won Raley's Senior Gold Rush for third title there in last four years...Led in Sand Saves. 1992: Second on money list for second straight year...Had three wins, one second and five third-place finishes...Win at Northville Long Island Classic was third in succession and won Murata Reunion in three-hole playoff with Tommy Aaron...Led in Sand Saves and Greens in Regulation. 1991: Lost out in the final week of the year for the money title to Mike Hill but garnered Co-Player of the Year honors with Hill...Among his three titles were successful defenses at the Northville Long Island Classic and Raley's Senior

Gold Rush...Also won GTE Classic in Indianapolis with record score 199...Had 18 top-five efforts, the most by any SENIOR TOUR player that season. 1990: Took advantage of his first full year to enjoy his most lucrative campaign in golf with over $700,000...Had four wins and four runnerup finishes...Had 400 birdies and led the SENIOR TOUR in that category. 1989: Became the sixth of eight players to win his SENIOR TOUR debut (January, De Vincenzo, Funseth, Palmer, Player, Nicklaus and Fleisher) when he prevailed in a playoff at the Gatlin Brothers Southwest Classic...Won the event 14 days after his 50th birthday, making him youngest (at the time) winner in SENIOR TOUR history.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Last win on the PGA TOUR came at the 1984 Bank of Boston Classic at age 44, his first title in eight years...Biggest of his 12 PGA TOUR wins came at the 1969 Masters, where he outdueled Billy Casper, the late George Knudson and Tom Weiskopf down the stretch...First win as a professional, the 1965 Lucky International, came on the course on which he grew up, Harding Park GC in San Francisco...Finished among the TOUR's top-five money-winners in 1968, 1971 and 1972...Best earnings year was 1984 ($207,543)...Has had six holes-in-one as a professional.

PERSONAL: Has been hampered by various injuries throughout his career...Among seven major surgeries he has undergone have been left wrist (1975), back (1979), left shoulder (1987) and right hip replacement (1996)...Considered one of the game's all-time great putters, and at one time held the PGA TOUR record for fewest putts over four rounds (95/1980 Sea Pines Heritage Classic)...Daughter Elizabeth, the first female caddie at the Masters Tournament, is now a Presbyterian minister...Another daughter, Lynne, teaches special education...Inducted into the California Golf Hall of Fame in 1991.

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 5—American Express Invitational; 6—Cadillac NFL Golf Classic.

1999 SEASON: Pocketed $354,752 in 24 starts to finish T48 on the SENIOR TOUR final money list...Had a pair of 69s on the weekend at the American Express Invitational for his best finish of the year, solo 5th...In contention going into the final round of the Bell Atlantic Classic before eventually finishing T8...Then finished sixth at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic in his next start...Posted 13 straight par/better rounds, starting in the first round of the Bell Atlantic Classic and ending in the last round of the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship...Was the third-round leader at the Senior British Open before finishing T5...Closed out the year with a third-place finish at the Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors Championship in Myrtle Beach...Finished sixth on the final Super Senior money list with $270,333...Easily won his only over-60 event of the season near Philadelphia at the Bell Atlantic Classic...Lost twice in playoffs — first to Mike Hill in the Super Senior competition at the Bruno's Memorial Classic and then to Harold Henning at the BankBoston Classic...Surpassed $8 million in SENIOR TOUR earnings (ranks 5th) when he won $2,580 at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic, the last full-field event of the 1999 season.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Failed to finish in the top-31 for the first time in his career (45th on final money list), but made two solid victory bids...Fell in a two-hole playoff with Jim Dent at The Home Depot Invitational and then was one of five players in a playoff at the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic won by Hugh Baiocchi...Enjoyed success in the MasterCard Champions competition, finishing as the 60-and-over's leading money winner with $254,260...Posted Super Senior victories at The Home Depot Invitational and Kroger Senior Classic...Fired a closing round 66 to win the MasterCard Champions Championship in Myrtle Beach and the subsequent $85,000 first prize...Teamed with son David to win the Office Depot Father-Son Challenge in December. 1997: Appearance in the top 31 (21st) made it 12 consecutive years fully exempt from the prior year's money, which was the longest streak among SENIOR TOUR players...One of his best efforts came in the season-opening event in Hawaii, where he was third behind Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan in the MasterCard Championship...T3 at the Toshiba Senior Classic, one stroke out of a playoff...Fourth-place effort at the Nationwide Championship pushed him over the $7 million mark in SENIOR TOUR earnings, making him the second player to surpass that level at the time (Lee Trevino the first)...Also won $252,690 in

MasterCard Champions money and led the over-60 competition with eight wins... Claimed four consecutive MasterCard titles at the start of the season, eight in a row dating to 1996. 1996: Last official title at Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic was 23rd of his career and pushed him into third place on the all-time SENIOR TOUR list... Was an easy eight-stroke winner in the MasterCard Champions event the day before, and become the third of just four players to complete the ultimate "double dip"... Won $760,179, which was second best year of his career... Won the season-ending MasterCard Champions Championship in his first attempt in that event... Earned a then-record $266,100 along the way, breaking Jim Ferree's MasterCard Champions mark of $255,550 set in 1993... Made the cut in the British Open and finished 70th at Royal Lytham & St. Annes. 1995: Won second Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic with a 10-foot birdie putt on third extra hole to defeat Dave Stockton. 1993: Won his third Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average (69.59) and, at the time, became quickest to reach $1 million in a single season (26 events)... Win at Quicksilver Classic produced largest check of his career: $157,500... Second-place finish to Dave Stockton on the money list tied Miller Barber's all-time record of eight consecutive years among the top 10 in official earnings. 1992: Produced seventh consecutive year among top 10 on money list and won back-to-back events at Raley's Senior Gold Rush and Transamerica Senior Golf Classic. 1991: Won the GTE Suncoast Classic for the second time in three years and became the first multiple champion in the event. 1990: Won twice, including defense of his Digital Seniors Classic title, and also surpassed Miller Barber for the top spot on the SENIOR TOUR career money list during season... Was only player to break par the final day at GTE Kaanapali Classic and it helped him to four-stroke win in Hawaii. 1989: Claimed five titles and was leading money-winner for second consecutive year with record $725,887... Won third straight Sunwest Bank/Charley Pride Classic, becoming only the second player to claim the same tournament for three consecutive years... Established a SENIOR TOUR record for lowest 54-hole numerical score at the NYNEX/Golf Digest Commemorative (193, 17-under), since equaled by Charles Coody and Gibby Gilbert. 1988: Five wins helped make him the leading money-winner... Posted back-to-back victories at NYNEX/Golf Digest Commemorative and Sunwest Bank/Charley Pride Classic... Lost to Gary Player in 18-hole playoff at U.S. Senior Open at Medinah CC. 1987: Won three times and was third on money list.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Perhaps the most successful lefthander to play professional golf, with 75 victories worldwide, including wins on five continents: North America, Australia, Europe, Africa and Asia... Has won at least one event in nine of the 14 years he has played the SENIOR TOUR... Owns 23 SENIOR TOUR titles, which places him fourth all-time behind Lee Trevino (28), Hale Irwin (25) and Miller Barber (24)... Was the second player over the $6 million mark in SENIOR TOUR earnings (T12 at the 1996 GTE Suncoast Classic), after being the first to top the $3-, $4- and $5-million plateaus... Was the first lefthander to win on the PGA TOUR when he captured the 1963 Houston Open by one stroke over Fred Hawkins... Last PGA TOUR victory came at the 1974 Greater Greensboro Open, by one stroke over Raymond Floyd and Lee Trevino... Biggest thrill in golf came when he defeated Phil Rodgers in a 36-hole playoff for the 1963 British Open Championship at Royal Lytham & St. Annes... Most productive year on the PGA TOUR was 1967, when he pocketed $72,468 for 11th place on the money list... Won the 1954 New Zealand Open at age 18, the youngest champion of that event... Has a goal to compete in that tournament in the year 2004, 50 years after his victory... Has had seven career holes-in-one, including two on the SENIOR TOUR.

PERSONAL: Does everything righthanded except games requiring two hands... Designed two 18-hole resort courses (Millbrook) and a nine-hole course (Matarangi) in New Zealand... Received the prestigious Order of the British Empire from the Queen of England in 1972 and was honored as a Commander of the British Empire in 1992... Became Knight Companion of the New Zealand Order of Merit in 1999... Worked in the banking industry for six years (1954-60) before embarking on a golf career.

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1): 1995 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $1,323,769

PLAYOFF RECORD: 0-1

1999 SEASON: Took advantage of his first full year on the SENIOR TOUR...Played in 25 events and pocketed more than double what he made as a rookie in 1998...Was one of the SENIOR TOUR's top players in the second half of the year...Starting in mid-July, had par/better scores in 36 of his 42 rounds...Made headlines by being the 18-, 36- and 54-hole leader of the U.S. Senior Open...Carded a final-round 72 at Des Moines G & CC, but lost out to Dave Eichelberger by three strokes...Went on a tear beginning in late August, when he fired 15 sub-par scores in 16 rounds over a five-tournament span...Only finished out of the top three once during that stretch, but could not nail down a victory...Took a one-stroke lead into the final round of the TD Waterhouse Championship and finished two strokes back of Allen Doyle despite a final-round 68 at Tiffany Greens...Was a runner-up again the next week at the Comfort Classic, falling two strokes short of Gil Morgan...Two weeks later, was again the 36-hole leader at the Kroger Senior Classic, but lost out to Morgan by two strokes despite a final-round 67...Ranked 10th in First-Round Scoring Average (70.60).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Debuted on the SENIOR TOUR in May at the Saint Luke's Classic and placed T19...Best finish in 19 events came near his home in the Philadelphia area...Playing on a sponsor exemption, he closed with a SENIOR TOUR career-best 64 at Hartefeld National and was T3 at the Bell Atlantic Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Long-time player on the PGA TOUR, where he competed from 1975-97...Had 457 starts in his career and made 242 cuts...No doubt the high point of his golf career came in 1995, when he prevailed at the Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic...Idled much of the early portion of the year by a shoulder injury suffered while lifting one of his vintage pinball machines, he shot rounds of 68-68-70 and stood in seventh place, three behind Dickey Thompson after 54 holes...He finished with a 66, which included 32 on the second nine and that was good enough to give him a two-stroke win over Gil Morgan...The victory, at age 47, made him the oldest first-time winner on the PGA TOUR since John Barnum captured the 1962 Cajun Classic at age 51...Lost in a playoff to Jim Gallagher, Jr. at the 1990 Greater Milwaukee Open and was also second at the Anheuser-Busch Golf Classic and the Chattanooga Classic in back-to-back weeks in 1992...Best year on the TOUR was in 1992, when he made $237,525...Made three successful trips to the PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament in 1975, 1986 and 1989...Named PGA of America's Club Professional of the Year in 1985 after winning the Club Professional Championship at Mission Hills CC in Rancho Mirage, CA.

PERSONAL: Is a serious model train enthusiast who has a vast collection of Lionel trains...Houses his collection in a two-story building behind his home...Usually makes it a point to visit train stores in cities while on TOUR...In recent years has begun refurbishing old pinball machines...Served a tour in Vietnam and joins a host of players on the SENIOR TOUR that served in the military...Nickname is "Doc."

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T9 — FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship; T11 — The Transamerica.

1999 SEASON: Finished 55th on the final money list, his lowest level since joining the SENIOR TOUR in 1996...Recorded only one top-10, but had eight top-25s...Best outing came at mid-season when he finished T9 at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship...First-round leader at the Comfort Classic after opening with a 66, but 72-71 on the weekend dropped him into T19...Also was T11 at The Transamerica...Lead the SENIOR TOUR in Sand Save Percentage, 58.4% (saved par 80 times out of 137 bunkers).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: In 30 starts, he amassed $440,163 and finished 39th on the final money list...Had three top-10 finishes in his first six starts...Was eighth in the year's opening event in Hawaii, and three weeks later was T6 at the LG Championship in Florida...Was tied for the lead after 36 holes with Gil Morgan following consecutive rounds of 68, but finished with a 2-over-par 74 to drop into a tie for fifth...Tied his career-low round as a senior by opening with a 64 at the EMC² Kaanapali Classic on Maui in October. 1997: More than doubled the earnings from his rookie year, thanks to multiple wins for the first time since 1984...Picked up his first SENIOR TOUR title at the rain-shortened Bell Atlantic Classic...A 27-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole on Saturday gave him a one-stroke lead over John Bland and Bob E. Smith that proved to be the winning margin when the final round at Chester Valley GC was washed out...Dedicated victory to his father, who had suffered a series of strokes the previous week...Won again at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic by two strokes over Rick Acton in wire-to-wire fashion...Made two late birdies to secure the victory in front of a large gallery of family and friends...Did not have a round above par in August and September, playing four events in a combined 29-under-par during those two months...During that period, tied his career-low round with a 6-under-par 64 in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic. 1996: Became eligible for his first SENIOR TOUR event at the American Express Invitational, and turned in par/better scores in nine of his first 10 rounds on the SENIOR TOUR...Made a serious bid for his first SENIOR TOUR title at the Emerald Coast Classic, rallying from a four-stroke deficit to finish in a five-way tie for first before losing to Lee Trevino in the ensuing playoff.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Last of three PGA TOUR titles came at the 1985 Byron Nelson Classic...Was the beneficiary of Payne Stewart's double-bogey on the last hole, then defeated Stewart on the first hole of their playoff...Did not win his first title, the 1984 USF&G Classic, until his 13th year on the PGA TOUR...Captured a second title later that same season at the Danny Thomas Memphis Classic and went on to have his best year on TOUR, with $232,742 and a spot among the top-25 money-winners...First earned his player's card in the spring 1969 PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament, capturing medalist honors...Didn't start full-time on TOUR until 1972 because of a stint in the U.S. military...Had four holes-in-one on the PGA TOUR and nine overall.

PERSONAL: Started to play golf at age 4 as a result of his father being in the golf business...Helped his family construct Dry Creek Ranch Golf Club near Sacramento in the late 1960s.

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1 — U.S. Senior Open; 1 — Novell Utah Showdown.

1999 SEASON: Finished back among the top-31 money-winners, thanks to his stellar play in July...Pocketed over $532,000 during that month, 60 percent of his official earnings for the entire season...In the span of three weeks during July, he became a multiple winner in the same season for the first time in his professional career, claiming both the U.S. Senior Open and the Novell Utah Showdown...Outdueled Ed Dougherty in the final nine holes for the biggest win of his life, a three-stroke victory at Des Moines G&CC...Final-round 68 was the lowest in the field on Sunday...Rebounded from a double bogey down the stretch to beat Dana Quigley in overtime for the Novell title...Had his best two rounds of the season on consecutive days at Park Meadows CC and his 15-under-par 66-63-129 total was the low 36-hole score of the 1999 campaign...Utah win also made him the oldest to triumph on the circuit last year (55 years, 10 months, 29 days)...Almost triumphed early in the year at the Las Vegas Senior Classic, but placed second to Vicente Fernandez...Ranked third on the circuit in Total Eagles (11).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1997: Had only one top-10 finish in the first half of the season, but reeled off 10 in the second half after finding a new driver...Finished with his highest ranking ever on the money list, eclipsing the $700,000 plateau for the first time...Starting at the First of America Classic, was among the top 10 in eight of his last 11 tournaments...Recorded seven consecutive sub-70 rounds from late September through mid-October...Runner-up at the Vantage Championship, when he equaled Hale Irwin's Tanglewood Park course record and his career-low round of 62 on the last day of the tournament...Won his third SENIOR TOUR title the next week at The Transamerica and became the circuit's 20th different winner that year...Had bogeys on three of his first four holes on Sunday, but eventually overcame a three-stroke deficit to win by four...$120,000 check at Silverado gave him $252,000 over the two-week span. 1996: Outdueled local favorite Jim Colbert to win the VFW Senior Championship by two strokes...His $135,000 first-place check was more than he had made in 23 previous events and proved to be more than a third of his total earnings for the year. 1995: Did not win an event, but recorded 11 top-10 finishes, including a playoff loss to Bruce Devlin at the rain-shortened FHP Health Care Classic in Ojai, CA. 1994: Selected by his peers as the Comeback Player of the Year after claiming his first win in 13 years at the Quicksilver Classic...Victory came in the midst of a 12-week run in which he missed the top 20 only once...Almost became a multiple champion, but fell to Bob Murphy in a five-hole playoff at the Raley's Senior Gold Rush. 1993: Made the first of seven 1993 appearances at the GTE North Classic after turning 50 in early September.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Prepped for the SENIOR TOUR by playing in five PGA TOUR events that year...Had missed 22 cuts in a row prior to finishing T87 at the 1993 Buick Invitational of California...Won four titles between 1971 and 1981, with his last TOUR victory coming in the 1981 Tallahassee Open...Defeated Murphy and Mark O'Meara in a playoff for the Tallahassee title...Strung together back-to-back $100,000 seasons in 1988-89...Braved horrible weather conditions to claim the 1980 Bay Hill Classic and went on to finish 31st on the money list...Led the TOUR in eagles that year with 16...First title, at the 1971 Greater Milwaukee Open, helped him earn his only top-10 finish on the official money list (ninth)...Earned his first PGA TOUR player's card in the 1967 Qualifying Tournament...Semifinalist at the 1964 U.S. Amateur at Canterbury GC near Cleveland, OH...Named to the 1965 Walker Cup and America's Cup teams...Has had 11 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Blossomed into one of the country's finest amateurs while at Oklahoma State...Started in the game at age 13 in the junior programs at his family's club in Waco, TX.

1999 SEASON: Was one of the circuit's top-10 money-winners for the first time in his career, eclipsing the seven-figure mark for the first time ever...Finished among the top three in four events for the second straight year and had most of his success in the first third of the season...Ended a 20-month victory drought with a two-stroke win at the Las Vegas Senior Classic...Broke a tie with Dave Eichelberger by making a 30-foot putt for eagle at the par-5 16th and coasted in with pars on the final two holes...13-under-par 274 total at the TPC of Summerlin and TPC at The Canyons was a tournament record...Had come close earlier in the campaign at the PGA Seniors' Championship...Shared the lead heading into the final round at PGA National, but eventually finished two strokes back of a hard-charging Allen Doyle...Was also a runner-up at The ACE Group Classic in Naples, finishing a distant five strokes back of Doyle during the early Florida swing...Ranked sixth in First Round Scoring Average (70.26).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Closed with a 68 at the Las Vegas Senior Classic, but fell one stroke short of Hale Irwin...Challenged Irwin again at the U.S. Senior Open at Riviera CC but again came up one short...Ranked third on the SENIOR TOUR in Final Round Scoring Average (69.46). 1997: Enjoyed another solid year, winning $689,915 and finishing 17th on the final money list, one place better than in 1996... Surpassed his 1996 total by more than $80,000...Emerging victorious at the final Bank One Classic when he seized the lead with three holes to play and went on to record a one-stroke victory in Lexington over Isao Aoki...Had a string of 19 rounds of par-or-better during the summer, and twice had five consecutive sub-70 rounds...Ended the season by finishing his last 13 events under par. 1996: First win was a memorable one...Posted a one-stroke victory at the Burnet Senior Classic in July and in the process, became just the fifth Monday qualifier in SENIOR TOUR history to win a tournament...The breakthrough came in just his eighth start on the SENIOR TOUR and earned him $187,500, the largest check of his professional career...Was in contention with Hale Irwin in his first SENIOR TOUR start before finishing third at the 1996 PGA Seniors' Championship...A top-10 finisher in 10 of 19 starts and led the SENIOR TOUR in putting, nipping Bob Murphy 1.749 to 1.750.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Prior to joining the SENIOR TOUR, played on the PGA European Tour for more than two decades and collected five victories...When he won the 1992 Murphy's English Open at The Belfry, he did so in dramatic fashion, sinking an 87-foot putt for the victory...His triumph at age 46 made him the oldest winner on the European Tour since 48-year-old Neil Coles won the 1982 Sanyo Open...Initial European Tour win came in 1970, when he claimed the Heineken Dutch Open in Eindhoven...Also victorious at the Colgate PGA Championship in 1979 at St. Andrews, defeating Gary Player and Italy's Baldo Dassu by one stroke...Best season in Europe came in 1992, when he was 16th on the Order of Merit with winnings of £217,453 (well over $300,000)...Played in seven PGA TOUR events in 1977 and four the following year, making the cut in all 11 starts with winnings totaling $10,487...Best effort was a T11 at the 1977 Houston Open...Has won almost 100 tournaments in his career, including numerous South American titles...Member of five Argentine World Cup teams and also played on numerous other international teams...Once held the PGA European Tour record for most birdies in one round (10) at the 1983 Jersey Open on his way to a 62...Has 22 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: The second Argentinian to take a crack at the SENIOR PGA TOUR...Countryman Roberto De Vicenzo, winner of the 1967 British Open, played throughout the 1980s and early 1990s...Nickname is "Chino"...Competed on the European Tour with current SENIOR TOUR players John Bland, Hugh Baiocchi, Simon Hobday, Jose Maria Canizares and Brian Barnes...Born with one leg shorter than the other and walks with a slight limp...Caddied for Chi Chi Rodriguez at the 1962 World Cup in Argentina...One of his sons, Gustavo, was his caddie for his first senior win at the Burnet Senior Classic.

1999 SEASON: Wasted little time in becoming the dominant player on the SENIOR TOUR, walking away with all top post-season honors including Player of the Year, Rookie of the Year and the Byron Nelson Trophy for best scoring average (69.19)...Was the first rookie since Lee Trevino in 1990 to win the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner with $2,515,705 ($78,894/start), the second highest single-season amount in the history of the circuit...Also joined Trevino (1990), Bruce Crampton (1986) and Miller Barber (1981) as the only other players to win seven official tournaments in their first year on the SENIOR TOUR...Had a SENIOR TOUR-record 56 rounds in the 60s, topping the old mark of 54 set by Jim Albus in 1994, and was under par in 75 of the 96 rounds he played last year, a remarkable percentage of 78.1...Became the eighth player in SENIOR TOUR history to win in his debut when he went wire-to-wire in claiming the Royal Caribbean Classic at Key Biscayne...Three-stroke victory over Larry Nelson at the American Express Invitational in Sarasota made him the first player ever to win his first two starts on the circuit...Claimed his third title in late April at The Home Depot Invitational, edging Terry Dill and Jim Holtgrieve by a stroke in Charlotte...Carded a 9-under-par 63 on Saturday, his lowest score of the year, to nip Al Geiberger by a shot for the BellSouth Senior Classic title in Nashville...Went wire-to-wire again in early August at the Lightpath Long Island Classic, besting Allen Doyle by two strokes...Outdueled Doyle again late in the season at The Transamerica to break the five-win deadlock with Hale Irwin, then clinched the money title two weeks later by edging Doyle again at the EMC² Kaanapali Classic...Both victories in the fall campaign came during a run of 16 straight sub-par rounds, the best streak on the SENIOR TOUR...Also finished second in seven tournaments and lost in a playoff to John Mahaffey at the Southwestern Bell Dominion...A T2 at the season-ending Ingersoll-Rand SENIOR TOUR Championship gave him the Cadillac Series...Was the circuit's top scrambler, getting up and down from off the green 70.5% of the time (318 of 451)...Played the par-4s in a SENIOR TOUR-leading 95-under-par...Was number one on the SENIOR TOUR in Top 10s (19) and second in Sub-Par Rounds (75).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Earned a full exemption for the 1999 season after finishing second at the SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament at Grenelefe...Fired four consecutive sub-par rounds and ended up three strokes back of Allen Doyle.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played in over 400 events on the PGA TOUR, starting as an amateur in 1969 through the 1998 season with earnings of near $1.7 million...Made 280 cuts in his career and probably enjoyed his greatest success in a three-year span in the early 1990s...Won his only PGA TOUR title in 1991 when he went seven holes to defeat Ian Baker-Finch, who would go on to win the British Open the next week...Finished that year and the next two with over $200,000 in prize money...His best year was in 1992 when he won $236,516 and finished 68th on the money list...Joined the PGA TOUR on a full-time basis in 1972 after a much-heralded amateur career...Posted the first of four runner-up finishes in 1974 when he was second at the Quad Cities Classic...His other second-place finishes were at the 1978 Magnolia Classic, the 1981 USF&G New Orleans Open and the 1993 New England Classic...Co-winner of the 1991 Hilton Bounceback Award...Winner of the 1968 U.S. Amateur at Scioto CC in Columbus, OH...That victory earned him the honor of playing the first round of the 1969 Masters with Arnold Palmer, where he bested the King, 69-73...Won the 1989 PGA Club Pro Championship and was a member of the victorious U.S. team in the 1990 PGA Cup matches...Member of the 1969 Walker Cup team...Won a National Junior College title.

PERSONAL: Worked as a club professional in the mid-to-late 1980s, including a stint at Williams Island CC in North Miami Beach.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Voted the circuit's Player of the Year for the second straight season after seven victories, including two major championships, and a new single-season earnings record of $2,861,945...In 22 starts, amazingly finished in the top five in all but two tournaments...Posted a record 18 consecutive top-five finishes before string ended at the Boone Valley Classic (T13)...Also had 24 top-10s in succession dating back to 1997 before that also ended at Boone Valley...Won his second consecutive Arnold Palmer Award as the circuit's leading money-winner and averaged $130,088 per start...Also garnered his third straight Byron Nelson Award for the lowest scoring average (68.59), breaking Lee Trevino's all-time mark of 68.89 set in 1990...Each of his seven victories was significant...Fired a course-record 62 in the final round of the Toshiba Senior Classic to come from five strokes back and over take Hubert Green for the title...Won his third consecutive PGA Seniors' Championship, matching Eddie Williams' mark for consecutive wins in the event (1942, 1945, 1946)...Successfully defended his title the next week at the Las Vegas Senior Classic...Fourth title of the campaign came in wire-to-wire fashion at the Ameritech Senior Open, his second senior victory in Chicago...Despite an opening-round 77, made birdie on the 72nd hole to nip Vicente Fernandez at the U.S. Senior Open at Riviera CC...Became just the 10th player to claim a PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR event at the same venue...First-round score was also the highest ever by a winner in SENIOR TOUR annals...Sixth victory at the BankBoston Classic was another successful title defense...Closed out the year with a five-stroke victory at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach...Also won a second straight Cadillac Series...Broke his own mark for fastest player to reach $1 million in a season when he went over seven figures in just his eighth official event ($101,200 for solo second place at the Bruno's Memorial Classic)...Of his 71 rounds, 62 were par/better and he had a run of 10 straight scores in the 60s...Led all players in top-10 finishes (20), Rounds in the 60s (48) and Birdie Conversions (34.9%)...Became the all-time leading money-winner in professional golf when he T2 at the State Farm Senior Classic and won $100,000. 1997: His nine victories tied Peter Thomson's 1985 record for most wins in one season...Season earnings of $2,343,364 shattered Jim Colbert's previous SENIOR TOUR record of $1,627,890...Became the first player to hit the $2-million mark in one season when he won his eighth title and $225,000 at the Vantage Championship in October...Posted nine wins in 23 starts (18 top-10 finishes) and averaged $101,885 per start...Got his year off to a great start with a two-stroke victory over Gil Morgan at the MasterCard Championship in Hawaii...Outdueled Bob Murphy a month later to win the LG Championship in Naples...Set a standard by successfully defending his PGA Seniors' Championship, winning by a SENIOR TOUR-record 12 strokes...Nipped Isao Aoki with a birdie putt at the final hole of the Las Vegas Senior Classic...Took control of the Burnet Senior Classic near Minneapolis with a birdie at the 17th hole and slipped past Lee Trevino...Made birdies on the final two holes for a two-stroke win at the BankBoston Classic...Claimed the Boone Valley Classic near his home in St. Louis in September by playing all 54 holes without a bogey...Played another bogey-free event at the Vantage Championship and used a course-record 62 at Tanglewood in the second round to edge Dave Eichelberger...Tied Thomson's record with a victory at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic...Claimed his first four titles in just seven starts, the fastest ever to that number, and also broke his own record as the quickest to $1 million in a season, surpassing that figure when he earned $114,400 for a second-place finish at the Nationwide Championship in just his 11th event (his previous record was 13 in 1996)...Of the 74 rounds he played, 57 were below par (77%) and only 13 were over par...More than half (41 of 74/55%) of his rounds were in the 60s...Won the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner and notched his second consecutive Byron Nelson Award as the SENIOR TOUR scoring leader (68.92)...Won his first Cadillac Series with 1,359,060 points. 1996: Just missed winning money title by $12,121 when he was passed by Jim Colbert on the final day at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, thanks to a birdie on the 72nd hole...Still finished with $1,651,769...Averaged $70,250 in earnings in 22 starts with wins at PGA Seniors' Championship and American Express Invitational...Led SENIOR TOUR with 21 top-10 finishes and was under par in 21 of 23 events...Won Byron Nelson Award as the SENIOR TOUR scoring leader (69.47)...His victory at the American Express Invitational pushed him past $1 million in SENIOR TOUR earnings in his 16th event, making him the fastest to do so at the time. 1995: SENIOR TOUR Rookie of the Year after pair of victories and 10th place finish on the money list in just 12 appearances...Made debut at BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland (T4)...Claimed first win at the Ameritech Senior Open in his fifth start...Victory was third of his career in Chicago area (also won '90 U.S. Open/'75 Western Open)...Defeated Kermit Zarley by a whopping seven shots, equaling the largest winning margin on the SENIOR TOUR in 1995...His 21-under-par 195 total smashed the tournament record by five and was just one shy of the all-time 54-hole scoring record in relation to par...Did not make a bogey all week at the Vantage Championship and defeated Dave Stockton by four strokes...The $225,000 paycheck equalled largest of his career...Played in 14 PGA TOUR events and was T7 at Phoenix Open and T7 at Doral-Ryder Open.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Carried nearly three decades of success on the PGA TOUR over to the SENIOR TOUR in 1995...Prior to the start of the 2000 season, he averaged $90,995 per start in 106 tournaments as a SENIOR TOUR player...In those 106 events, he was in the top three 54 times and finished only eight of those tournaments over par...His 29-year PGA TOUR career was highlighted by three U.S. Open titles, the last of which came in a grueling 19-hole playoff with Mike Donald at Medinah in 1990...Sank a 45-foot putt on the final hole to force overtime the next day, and then eventually won with a 10-foot birdie putt...Victory at 45 made him the oldest to win a U.S. Open...Followed that win with another the next week at the Buick Classic, and went on to have his finest earnings year on the PGA TOUR (sixth/$838,249)...Other two Open victories came at Winged Foot in 1974 and Inverness in 1979...First and last of his 20 official TOUR wins (three total at Harbour Town) came at the MCI Heritage Classic...Defeated Greg Norman by two strokes at the 1994 event...Also was a two-time winner of the Atlanta Classic (1975-77) and Memorial Tournament (1983-85)...From early 1975 through 1978, he played 86 tournaments without missing a cut, third best streak in TOUR history...Played on five Ryder Cup teams (1975, 1977, 1979, 1981 and 1991) and represented the United States twice in World Cup play (1974, 1979)...Claimed the individual title in the 1979 World Cup event...Was the United States Captain for the inaugural Presidents Cup Match, won by the Americans, 20-12...Has eight career holes-in-one.

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1 — Comfort Classic; 1 — Kroger Senior Classic.

1999 SEASON: Failed to maintain the pace he set during the last two years, but still managed to finish in the top five on the money list, thanks to his outstanding play in the last half of the campaign...After the Las Vegas Senior Classic in mid-May was par/better in 47 of his 51 rounds thru the Pacific Bell Senior Classic...Hottest player on the SENIOR TOUR during September and was named Player of the Month...Ran off 12 straight sub-par scores during that period, posted a pair of victories and was not out of the top three in any event during the month...Carded a final-round 69 at the Comfort Classic in Indianapolis and edged Ed Dougherty by two strokes...Came back two weeks later and won the Kroger Senior Classic title, defeating Dougherty again thanks to a final-round 63, his career-low round on the SENIOR TOUR...Also won his second straight Senior Slam in Los Cabos, Mexico, besting Hale Irwin by two strokes, and teamed with Hubert Green for the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf crown at the World Golf Village...Could not defend his Tradition title due to back problems and was bothered by stiffness in his lower back at various times during the season...Was the SENIOR TOUR's top ball striker (Total Driving -1/Greens-in-Regulation -4) and led the circuit in Total Eagles (13)...Ranked third in Second-Round (69.56) and Final-Round Scoring Average (69.42)...Also was T4 in Rounds in the 60s (44) and fifth in Top 10s (15).

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Eclipsed the $2 million figure for the second straight year ($87,162/start), had six official victories for the second consecutive year, and was among the top three in 11 of 25 appearances...Won a pair of SENIOR TOUR major championships...Successfully defended his Tradition title by coming from two strokes back of Tom Wargo to win at Desert Mountain by two...Also defeated Hale Irwin by three shots at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship with a whopping 21-under-par 267 total, a record at the TPC of Michigan...Started the campaign with a victory at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai and came from five strokes back to win the LG Championship in Naples three weeks later...Played all 54 holes without a bogey at Park Meadows to win the Utah Showdown by four strokes...Final victory of the campaign came at the Vantage Championship...Used a closing-round 65 to outduel Irwin down the stretch...Claimed the unofficial Senior Slam at Los Cabos, defeating Hale Irwin by six strokes. 1997: Voted by his peers as Rookie of the Year...Enjoyed a banner year, becoming just the second SENIOR TOUR player to go over $2 million in yearly earnings ($86,422/start) and was among the top three in almost half his 25 starts...Held off Irwin to win the season-ending Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, his sixth SENIOR TOUR title in 1997...Made his first-ever successful title defense the week before at the Ralphs Senior Classic... One-stroke victory over George Archer at Wilshire CC gave him his fourth TOUR win in the Los Angeles area...First claimed back-to-back tournaments earlier in the year at the Ameritech Senior Open and BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland...Was the first of three wire-to-wire winners when he nipped Irwin by one stroke at Kemper Lakes despite finishing bogey, bogey, double bogey...Cruised to a two-stroke win in Nashville over John Bland the week after...In early April, he shattered Tom Shaw's tournament record at The Tradition by three strokes in winning his first SENIOR TOUR major championship...Finished six in front of Isao Aoki at Desert Mountain with a 22-under-par 266 total...Season's other victory came in the rain at the First of America Classic, where he birdied the 53rd hole to take a one-stroke lead over Bob Duval, then clinched the title with a scrambling par on the final hole...Broke Bob Murphy's all-time record of 24 consecutive sub-par rounds in 1994 when he strung together 26 consecutive from the last round of the U.S. Senior Open through the Vantage Championship in early October...Tied

Jay Sigel for the most Top 10s (19) and, along with John Bland, had the most Rounds in the 60s (44)...Final Round Scoring Average of 69.12 was tops on the SENIOR TOUR and led the All-Around stats category. 1996: Earned his first SENIOR TOUR title just 11 days after turning 50 at the Ralphs Senior Classic...Victory in late September made him the youngest winner in SENIOR TOUR history...Made his debut on the SENIOR TOUR at the Vantage Championship with a T16.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Had one leg up on one of the great U.S. Opens of all time in 1992...At Pebble Beach, became the first player in Open history to reach 10 under-par early in Round 3, then climbed to 12-under through 43 holes before falling to an eventual T13 finish...Biggest of his seven PGA TOUR triumphs came in the 1978 World Series of Golf...Defeated Hubert Green in a playoff to emerge as the year's No. 2 money-winner behind Tom Watson...Had left shoulder rotator cuff surgery in September of 1986...After nine-month layoff, returned to the TOUR in early May 1987 and was near the top of his game by midsummer...Most successful year was 1990, when he captured the Kemper Open in early June and placed in the top eight in seven consecutive events...Captured the first two tournaments of 1983, the Joe Garagiola-Tucson Open in a playoff with Lanny Wadkins and the Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open...Was a runner-up 21 times in his PGA TOUR career...Named to the NAIA Hall of Fame in 1982 after being an NAIA All-American in 1968...Member of the 1979 and 1983 U.S. Ryder Cup teams...Has had nine career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Started playing golf at age 15...Holds a Doctor of Optometry degree and still keeps a current license, even though he has never practiced...Decided during his junior year at East Central State (OK) to pursue a career in golf, but waited until earning his optometry degree before turning professional.

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T9 — The Home Depot Invitational; T13 — Nationwide Championship.

1999 SEASON: Played more than 35 events for the fifth straight season...Slipped into 52nd place on the final money list with $309,068...Managed to record one top 10 and 13 top-25 finishes...Best effort came at The Home Depot Invitational where he opened with a 69 and closed with a 67 to T9 in Charlotte... Was in contention at the Royal Caribbean Classic after opening with a 67, but had to settle for T19 after carding a 74 on Sunday...Went over the $3 million mark in SENIOR TOUR career earnings when he finished T23 at the AT&T Canada Senior Open...Ended the year fourth in Total Driving.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Played in 35 events, but dropped out of the top 31 for the first time since 1994...Had five top-10 efforts with his biggest paycheck of the campaign coming when he pocketed $67,200 for a solo fifth at the Las Vegas Senior Classic...Finished ninth on the SENIOR TOUR in overall birdies with 355. 1997: Earned the SENIOR PGA TOUR's "ironman" honor by playing 113 rounds in 36 events (Bobby Strobe also played 36, but with two fewer rounds)...Best overall finish was a third at the Pittsburgh Senior Classic, one stroke shy of the Hugh Baiocchi-Bob Duval playoff. 1996: Played 37 events, one fewer than that year's "ironman," Bruce Summerhays...Broke a string of 47 consecutive starts, dating back to 1995, when he skipped the Franklin Quest Championship...Claimed a pair of titles and won a career-best $848,303 for 10th place on the final money list...Rounds of 62-71-66 at the 1996 FHP Health Care Classic tied Gary Player after 54 holes...Birdied the first playoff hole to win for the second time...Second victory that year was even more impressive as he went wire-to-wire at the Ameritech Senior Open with rounds of 63-70-72. 1995: Voted by his peers as the SENIOR TOUR's Comeback Player of the Year...Won his first title at the GTE Northwest Classic, when he became the fourth of five first-time winners that season...Held off an impressive list of veteran challengers that included Dave Stockton, Rocky Thompson, Al Geiberger and George Archer...Dedicated the win to the late Tommy Aycok, who had died of cancer at the beginning of the week...Carded his first hole-in-one as a SENIOR TOUR player during the third round of the Vantage Championship. 1994: Regained fully exempt status with a second-place finish at the 1994 SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament. 1993: Played 21 tournaments, mostly on a partial exemption from the 1992 SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament (13th place) and registered four top 10s. 1992: Fully exempt after a T6 in the 1991 SENIOR TOUR National Qualifying Tournament, his first attempt...Lone top-10 effort was a T10 at the Digital Seniors Classic near Boston. 1991: Made his SENIOR TOUR debut at the 1991 MONY Syracuse Senior Classic (T47) and open qualified at three other events that year.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Served a 20-year stint in the U.S. Army, including two tours in Vietnam...Was the All-Service champion in 1975 and 1976...Left the military in 1980 and tried for his PGA TOUR card, but missed the cut at the PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament by one stroke...Was a club professional in Texas until turning 50 in mid-1991...Didn't take up the game until age 25, spending most of his spare time playing baseball...Ventured onto a golf course in Hawaii and shot 79 in the first round he ever played...Credits Charlie Sifford for helping him make the transition to the SENIOR TOUR, and his wife Geraldine for being the most influential person in his career...Has nine career holes-in-ones.

PERSONAL: Elected to the North Carolina Black Hall of Fame in 1995...Caddied for Chi Chi Rodriguez in the 1966 Hawaiian Open...Cousin of baseball great Joe Morgan.

PLAYOFF RECORD: 1-5

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 2 — Nationwide Championship; T6 — American Express Invitational, T6 — Pacific Bell Senior Classic.

1999 SEASON: Failed to finish in the top 31 for the first time in his SENIOR TOUR career, ending a streak of six campaigns in that select group... Best performance of the campaign was a runner-up at the Nationwide Championship... Appeared headed for a playoff with Hale Irwin before Irwin holed out from 74 yards for a dramatic eagle on No. 18 to defeat him by two-strokes at the Golf Club of Georgia... His second-place finish was his best showing since winning the 1997 Toshiba Senior Classic... Had back-to-back top 10s early in the season during the Florida swing — T6 at the American Express Invitational and T10 at the GTE Classic... Also finished T6 at the last full-field event of the season at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic... Recorded three consecutive rounds in the 60s at Wilshire CC.

SENIOR PGA TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Had his streak of winning a least one SENIOR TOUR event a year snapped at five consecutive seasons... Was bothered by assorted aches and pains for the majority of the year and played at less than 100 percent. 1997: Scored a dramatic victory over Jay Sigel at the Toshiba Senior Classic... Went nine extra holes with Sigel before rolling in an 80-foot birdie putt to win the event, the second longest playoff in SENIOR TOUR history. 1996: Won multiple events for the fourth year in a row and was over the million-dollar mark for a second straight season... Fired a final-round 67 in windy, cold weather to hold off Hale Irwin by four strokes at the Royal Caribbean Classic... Opened with a course-record 62 on his way to a two-stroke triumph over Jay Sigel at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic... The victory at Upper Montclair CC made him the ninth player to win both a PGA TOUR (1968 Thunderbird Classic) and SENIOR TOUR event at the same site... Registered his 16th career hole-in-one during the first round of the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship (12th hole). 1995: Perhaps his finest year in golf with four titles, tying good friend Jim Colbert for the most victories by any SENIOR TOUR player that season... Was one of five millionaires, earning almost $400,000 more than he made in 1994... Finished among the top three in more than one-third of his starts, and placed in the top 10 more than two-thirds of the time... Started the season with a victory in the rain-curtained IntelliNet Challenge, the second time in his career he claimed an event shortened to 36 holes... Outlasted Raymond Floyd and Larry Ziegler at the PaineWebber Invitational... Avenged a runner-up finish the year before by claiming the Nationwide Championship by two strokes over Hale Irwin and Bruce Summerhays... Blistered Loch Lloyd with a SENIOR TOUR record-tying 126 over the final 36 holes for the VFW Senior Championship. 1994: Won twice with both titles coming near the end of the season... Defeated Dave Eichelberger on the fifth hole of a playoff at the Raley's Senior Gold Rush, then went wire-to-wire in Hawaii to capture the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic... Opened with a 62 on Maui and never looked back, equaling the tournament record of 195. 1993: Debuted on the SENIOR TOUR at the GTE Suncoast Classic near Tampa and finished T39 at the Tournament Players Club of Tampa Bay... Went on to be voted the SENIOR TOUR's Rookie of the Year on the strength of two tournament victories and 15 top-10 finishes... Initial win came in Birmingham, AL, where he held off Lee Trevino and Bob Charles to claim the Bruno's Memorial Classic... Won later that same season at the rain-shortened GTE North Classic in Indianapolis.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Last victory on the PGA TOUR came at the 1986 Canadian Open... Had not won since the 1975 Jackie Gleason-Inverrary Classic, but at age 43 defeated Greg Norman by three strokes at Glen Abbey GC... In his rookie year of 1968, he set a goal to win $40,000 but instead took home $105,595, a record at the time for a first-year player... Won back-to-back tournaments at the Philadelphia and Thunderbird Classics that season and was second at the Westchester Classic prior to his pair of victories...Also won the 1970 Greater Hartford Open...Defeated Bob Dickson to win the 1965 U.S. Amateur...Was medalist at the 1966 NCAA Championships while at the University of Florida...Member of the 1966 United States World Amateur Cup and 1967 Walker Cup teams...Earned a spot on the 1975 Ryder Cup team...Has had 16 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Initially coaxed out of the ESPN broadcast booth by Lee Trevino, who advised him to play the SENIOR TOUR on a full-time basis...Has a history of severe arthritis, which he overcame to continue his golf career...Recipient of the 1996 Ben Hogan Award from the Golf Writers Association of America for his comeback from arthritis...Serves as national spokesman for the Hook-A-Kid On Golf program...Vice chairman of the SENIOR TOUR Player Advisory Council for 1998...Elected to the SENIOR PGA TOUR Division Board for 1999-2000...Will return to the broadcast booth in 2000, joining NBC for a number of events.

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: T27 — Royal Caribbean Classic, T31— American Express Invitational.

1999 SEASON: Placed 86th on the overall final money list with $66,925...Earned another $99,887 in the over-60 competition for the 19th spot among Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors...Two best efforts came at the very beginning of the season...Finished T27 in the first full-field event at the Royal Caribbean Classic...Following week was T31 at the American Express Invitational.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Teamed with Dave Hill to T3 in the Legendary Champions Division of the Liberty of Mutual Legends of Golf. 1996: Underwent left hip replacement surgery in January and got an artificial right hip later that same season. 1994: Last top-10 finish came at the Ralphs Senior Classic, when he was T10 after opening the tournament as the first-round leader with a sizzling 64 at Rancho Park...Recorded consecutive eagles in the final round of the U.S. Senior Open at Pinehurst, the third of six times that's ever happened on the SENIOR TOUR. 1991: Had his best earnings year as a professional, making $252,764 on the strength of eight top-10 finishes. 1989: Lone official SENIOR TOUR title came at the Southwestern Bell Classic...Defeated Orville Moody on the third hole of a playoff for the title at Quail Creek CC in Oklahoma City...Also finished second at the MONY Arizona Classic, where his opening-round 10-under 62 matched the best round on the SENIOR TOUR that year. 1988: Earned more money than any other non-winner, pocketing $226,936 in official earnings for 14th place on the final money list...Holed a 4-wood second shot for double eagle on the third hole in the opening round of the Northville Invitational, just the fourth albatross in the history of the circuit at the time. 1986: Debuted on the SENIOR TOUR in the seventh event of the year, teaming with Julius Boros for a T15 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Broke into the winner's circle for the first time in 12 years at the unofficial Showdown Classic, joining forces with the PGA TOUR's Curt Byrum to shoot 39-under-par and triumph in Utah.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Broke onto the PGA TOUR in 1960 and captured his first two titles in 1962, the first coming at Lakewood CC in the St. Petersburg Open by two over Frank Boynton...Biggest of 11 PGA TOUR victories came at the 1964 PGA Championship at Columbus (OH) CC, where he topped Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer by three strokes...Led the tournament all four rounds...His 72-hole total of 271 was a PGA Championship record until Nick Price broke it at Southern Hills in 1994...Runner-up to Gay Brewer at the 1967 Masters...Claimed the PGA TOUR's first $200,000 tournament, the Carling World Open at Oakland Hills CC in 1964...$35,000 first prize came with that victory...Also won the TOUR's first $300,000 event, the 1970 Dow Jones Open at Upper Montclair CC, now the site of the SENIOR TOUR's Cadillac NFL Golf Classic...Best year on the PGA TOUR was 1974, when he made $124,747 and placed 14th on the official money list...Member of the 1967 U.S. Ryder Cup team...Has had 12 holes-in-one in his professional career.

PERSONAL: Honored by the Golf Writers Association of America with the 1962 Ben Hogan Award for his amazing comeback from injuries sustained in a serious automobile accident in high school...Suffered a broken pelvis, concussion, back and internal injuries, was paralyzed from the waist down and unconscious for 13 days...Released from the hospital after 96 days, he later regained the use of his legs, then subsequently discovered he still could play golf...After winning junior golf titles in Kentucky, he met the legendary Bear Bryant, then coach of the University of Kentucky, who, after taking the Texas A&M helm, offered him a football scholarship to play for the Aggies...Experienced another scary moment when he, Lee Trevino and Jerry Heard were struck by lightning at the 1975 Western Open.

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISH: 18—Bell Atlantic Classic.

BEST 1999 PGA TOUR FINISH: T70—Memorial Tournament.

1999 SEASON: Underwent left hip replacement surgery in January and played in only three official tournaments on the SENIOR TOUR...Did not play until midway thru the year at the Bell Atlantic Classic...Carded two rounds of 70 on the weekend at Hartefeld National and finished 18th near Philadelphia...Withdrew from the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship after nine holes of the third round due to a sore hip...Made his final appearance on the circuit at the Novell Utah Showdown in early August, where he finished T53...Played in two PGA TOUR events during the summer...Missed the cut at the U.S. Open at Pinehurst and T70 at Muirfield Village in The Memorial Tournament.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Hobbled by a painful left hip for the majority of the year, he played in just six official SENIOR TOUR events for the second straight season and made no appearances on the circuit after the U.S. Senior Open...Equalled his mark for the highest finish by a SENIOR TOUR player in a major championship when he closed with 68 at Augusta National and was T6 at The Masters, four strokes back of eventual winner Mark O'Meara...Ended his remarkable run of 154 straight appearances in major championships when he chose not to compete in the PGA Championship at Sahalee CC in August. 1997: Broke Sam Snead's record for most rounds played at the Masters with his 147th on Sunday...Played his 10,000th hole at the U.S. Open at Congressional CC. 1996: Became the first player to win the same SENIOR TOUR event four times when he claimed The Tradition...Victory was his 100th as a professional and was his eighth senior major championship...Shot 65 in the final round at Desert Mountain to best Hale Irwin by three strokes...Carded his third career double-eagle on Saturday at The Tradition, his first since the 1965 Greater Jacksonville Open...Also claimed his first 54-hole event on the SENIOR TOUR, rallying from five strokes back to edge J.C. Snead for the GTE Suncoast Classic title. 1995: Defeated Isao Aoki in a playoff to win his third Tradition title and, at the time, became only the fifth man to win the same tournament three times...Also was the runner-up to Tom Weiskopf at the U.S. Senior Open and lost to J.C. Snead in a playoff for the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. 1994: Came from three strokes back of Bob Murphy to win the Mercedes Championships at LaCosta by a stroke. 1993: Claimed his second U.S. Senior Open title, holding off rival Weiskopf by a shot at Cherry Hills Country Club near Denver. 1991: Made just five appearances on the SENIOR TOUR but won three official events including his only PGA Seniors' Championship and first U.S. Senior Open title...Shot 17-under 271 at PGA National GC, the lowest 72-hole score on the SENIOR TOUR that year, to claim the PGA Seniors' crown by six strokes over Bruce Crampton...U.S. Senior Open victory over Chi Chi Rodriguez came in an 18-hole playoff at Oakland Hills CC, 65 to 69, making him the first player ever to win USGA titles in five different decades...Also came from five strokes back to successfully defend his Tradition title by one over Jim Colbert, Jim Dent and Phil Rodgers. 1990: Played in just four official SENIOR TOUR events but won twice, finished second once and T3 in his only other tournament...Four-stroke win over Gary Player at The Tradition made him the seventh player ever to claim a title in his SENIOR TOUR debut...Finished solo sixth at The Masters a week later, the best finish ever by a SENIOR TOUR player in a major championship...Cruised to a six-stroke victory at the Mazda Senior TPC in record-setting fashion by shooting a 27-under-par 261 at Dearborn CC, the lowest 72-hole total in SENIOR TOUR history.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Considered by many to be the greatest player in the history of the sport...Honored by Sports Illustrated as Best Individual Male Athlete of the Century...Named "Golfer of the Century" by the Associated Press and GOLF Magazine and by Golf Monthly U.K. in 1996, Sports Illustrated's "Athlete of the Decade" for the 1970s, 1978 Sports Illustrated "Sportsman of the Year" and PGA Player of the Year five times (1967, 1972, 1973, 1975, 1976)...PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR Player of the Year honor now bears his name...Ranks second only to Sam Snead on the PGA TOUR victory list with 70 official titles...First TOUR player to reach $2 million (12/1/73), $3 million (5/2/77), $4 million (2/6/83) and $5 million (8/20/88) in career earnings...Co-holds, with Arnold Palmer, the PGA TOUR record for most years winning at least one TOUR event, 17 (1962-78)...105 consecutive cuts made (11/70-9/76) is second only to Byron Nelson's 113...Dominated golf in the 1960s and 1970s...From 1962-1969 finished in top 10 in 122 of 186 events (66 percent); 1970-79 finished among top 10 in 121 of 171 events (71 percent)...In remarkable three-year period from 1971 to 1973, finished in top 10 in 45 of 55 events (82 percent)...Winning performance in professional majors is unmatched: six Masters, five PGA Championships, four U.S. Opens, three British Opens and three PLAYERS Championships...The only player who has won all four major championships on the both PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR...Became the oldest player ever (46) to win the Masters when he won in 1986...First professional win came in the 1962 U.S. Open at Oakmont, where he defeated Palmer in a playoff...Had an outstanding amateur record...Won five consecutive Ohio State Junior Championships, beginning at age 12...Won the 1959 U.S. Amateur by defeating Charles Coe, 1-up...Claimed a second U.S. Amateur in 1961 by defeating Dudley Wysong 8 & 6...That same year, he was a member of the victorious U.S. Walker Cup squad, won the Western Amateur, NCAA Championship and Big Ten title and finished fourth in the U.S. Open...Finished runner-up to Palmer in the 1960 U.S. Open at Cherry Hills by two strokes, establishing the amateur record score of 282...Posted a 17-8-3 Ryder Cup record...Received the 1982 Card Walker Award for outstanding contributions to junior golf...Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1974...Walker Cup selection in 1959 and 1961...World Cup team member in 1963, 1964, 1966, 1967, 1971 and 1973...Named to the U.S. Ryder Cup squad in 1969, 1971, 1973, 1975, 1977 and 1981...Ryder Cup captain in 1983 and 1987...Presidents Cup captain in 1998.

BEST 1999 SENIOR PGA TOUR FINISHES: 4 — American Express Invitational; T4 — Las Vegas Senior Classic.

1999 SEASON: Failed to finish in the top 31 for the first time in his SENIOR TOUR career, ending a streak of six campaigns in that select group... Scattered five top-10 finishes over 32 appearances, with his best effort coming early in the season at the American Express Invitational... On the leaderboard in Sarasota and eventually finished fourth... Closed with rounds of 66-69 on the weekend at the Las Vegas Senior Classic for a T4... Also fared well in the U.S. Senior Open where he finished sixth, thanks to a 69 on Sunday... Partnered with John Mahaffey for a T2 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf event at the World Golf Village.

SENIOR TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1998: Was among the top 10 in the first third of his starts, highlighted by a runner-up performance at The Tradition... Led after the first three rounds at Desert Mountain GC, but carded a two-over 74 on Sunday and finished two strokes back of Gil Morgan. 1997: Was T3 at the U.S. Senior Open at Olympia Fields CC near Chicago, his best finish ever in that event... Shared the first-round lead after opening with a 69, and followed with rounds of 70-73-70 to finish two strokes behind Graham Marsh. 1996: Lost to Dale Douglass on the third playoff hole for the Bell Atlantic Classic title near Philadelphia... Was T2 at both the PaineWebber Invitational and the Bank of Boston Senior Classic. 1995: Easily won the Dallas Reunion Pro-Am with the first of only two wire-to-wire performances on the circuit that year... 54-hole score of 13-under 197 was seven shots better than Dave Stockton and Dave Eichelberger... Almost captured the Emerald Coast Classic at the end of the season, but fell to Raymond Floyd in a playoff. 1994: Became the last of six players to go over the $1 million mark in single-season earnings at the GOLF MAGAZINE SENIOR TOUR Championship... Holed a clutch, downhill, 18-foot birdie putt for the fifth-place finish he needed to eclipse the seven-figure mark for the only time in his career... Was the SENIOR TOUR's "ironman," playing in 36 tournaments and 112 rounds... Defeated Bob Murphy at the Doug Sanders Kingwood Celebrity Classic for his only official SENIOR TOUR title... Journeyed across the pond and won the Senior British Open at Royal Lytham & St. Annes in England... Led the circuit in top-10s (25) and Sub-Par Rounds (83). 1993: First SENIOR TOUR victory was memorable... Made a par on the second playoff hole to defeat Bruce Crampton at the PGA Seniors' Championship in just his sixth senior start. 1992: Initially earned a conditional exemption with a 10th-place finish at the SENIOR PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament... Shot rounds of 69-66-77-74—286 and then made birdie on the first playoff hole to earn his position.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Was the low club professional at the 1992 PGA Championship at Bellerive CC (T28) and was the only senior to make the cut at the 1993 PGA Championship at Inverness CC (T31)... Won 10 events on the Founders Club PGA Tournament Series... Named 1992 PGA Club Professional of the Year... Was the Gateway PGA Section's Player of the Year in 1991 and 1992 and a member of every PGA Cup squad from 1988-92... Also won the 1991 Winter Stroke-Play Championship and the 1990 and 1991 PGA Section Championships in Illinois... Has 10 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: Raised on a Michigan dairy farm... Didn't play golf until he taught himself at age 25... Owner of Greenview GC in Centralia, IL... Jobs prior to golf included iron worker, assembly-line auto worker and bartender... An accomplished bowler who once thought about a professional career in that sport... Says biggest thrill in golf was winning the 1993 PGA Seniors' Championship.

FAST FACTS:

Tom McGinnis won his initial SENIOR TOUR title at this year's BankBoston Classic and Jim Ahern followed the next week by winning the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship. That marked just the fifth time in the last three years that the SENIOR TOUR had back-to-back first-time winners. Only eight times in the '90s have there been back-to-back first-time winners and only once (1992) has there been three first-time winners in a row. Here's a closer look at these rare occurrences:

- February, 1990 Lee Trevino (Royal Caribbean Classic)/Mike Hill (GTE Suncoast Classic)*
- June, 1991 Jim Albus (Mazda Presents The Senior Players Championship)/Rocky Thompson (MONY Syracuse Senior Classic)*
- September, 1992 Terry Dill (Bank One Senior Classic)/Raymond Floyd (GTE North Classic)/Isao Aoki (Nationwide Championship)*
- February, 1997 David Graham (GTE Classic)/Bud Allin (American Express Invitational)*
- August, 1997 Bruce Summerhays (St. Luke's Classic)/Hugh Baiocchi (Pittsburgh Senior Classic)*
- June, 1998 Brian Barnes (AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship)/Bob Dickson (Cadillac NFL Golf Classic)*
- March, 1999 Gary McCord (Toshiba Senior Classic)/Bob Duval (Emerald Coast Classic)*
- August, 1999 Tom McGinnis (BankBoston Classic)/Jim Ahern (AT&T Canada Senior Open)*

MASTERCARD CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

John Jacobs got his year started on the right track with a wire-to-wire three-stroke victory over Raymond Floyd and Jim Colbert at the MasterCard Championship on the Big Island of Hawaii. The personable southern Californian qualified for the winners-only event by claiming the 1998 Nationwide Championship near Atlanta.

Fresh from corrective eye surgery a month earlier, Jacobs opened his 1999 season at Hualalai with a course-record-tying, 8-under-par 64 and never looked back. "To win and to beat this field, it's pretty special. I had never been in this position against this caliber of guys before," Jacobs said afterward. "I had to protect my lead on every hole."

Jacobs started the final round with a three-stroke advantage over Floyd and was never in trouble despite an up-and-down round that included six birdies and four bogeys. He wasn't satisfied that the victory was secure until a timely birdie at the par-5 15th hole.

"That probably won the tournament for me," Jacobs said. "I had bogeyed the hole the first two days."

ROYAL CARIBBEAN CLASSIC RECAP

Bruce Fleisher became just the eighth player in SENIOR PGA TOUR history to win his debut when he claimed the Royal Caribbean Classic.

Fleisher fired a final-round 70 to post a two-stroke, wire-to-wire victory over Isao Aoki in the first full-field event of the year.

"It's an emotional feeling to win," said Fleisher, who went to Miami-Dade Junior College and once worked as a club profession in the Miami area. "This one is very rewarding. It's gratifying to win at home. It's special."

Fleisher's victory was not without suspense, however.

Holding a one-stroke advantage over Aoki at the final hole, both players drove into the trees to the right at the 419-yard par-4. Fleisher was able to pop his ball back out into the fairway. Aoki tried a similar tactic, but hit a root instead of the ball. He then took a drop for an unplayable lie and eventually made a six on the hole. Fleisher managed to knock his third shot onto the green and easily two-putted for a bogey and a two-stroke win.

"I left the door open, but couldn't close it," Fleisher said. "I think my shot out of the trees forced him to gamble. When he missed, it took some pressure off me."

AMERICAN EXPRESS INVITATIONAL RECAP

One week after winning his SENIOR PGA TOUR debut, Bruce Fleisher etched his name in the record book. He became the first player to win his first two senior events when he notched a three-stroke victory over defending champion Larry Nelson at the Tournament Players Club at Prestancia.

"There is nothing like winning," said Fleisher, who played over 400 events on the PGA TOUR with just one victory, the 1991 New England Classic.

"I think the particular record is immaterial," he added. "I'm damned lucky and it's a wonderful Valentine's Day present."

Fleisher closed with a 3-under-par 69 on Sunday to finish three strokes in front of Nelson, a four-stroke victor over Dave Stockton a year earlier.

Nelson went out in 32 in Sunday's final round, but couldn't make up any ground on Fleisher, who birdied three holes on his front nine as well.

Tournament Tidbit: With two victories in two starts, Bruce Fleisher won $330,000, which surpassed his best year on the PGA TOUR. In 1992, he won $232,516 on the PGA TOUR and finished 68th on the money list.

GTE CLASSIC RECAP

Larry Nelson edged Bruce Fleisher for the GTE Classic title, his first win of the season and his sixth overall TOUR title in the state of Florida. Nelson was rewarded for his daring play on the back nine Sunday, and his efforts kept Fleisher from winning an unprecedented first three starts on the SENIOR TOUR.

The two were tied for the lead until Nelson reached the 14th and 15th holes, where he soared ahead with an eagle-birdie combination. At the par-5 14th, Nelson sailed a 5-wood second shot to within 25 feet of the hole and made the putt for eagle. He then rifled a 6-iron to six feet at the 15th and made the birdie that sealed the victory. "I was pretty conservative on the front nine with one thing in mind — hitting it in the fairway. I did that for nine holes, but Bruce caught me," Nelson said. "I decided to be a little more aggressive on the back nine and it paid off, especially when I made the eagle at 14."

Nelson's victory was his fourth on the SENIOR TOUR, and his $180,000 first-place check put him over the $2 million mark in senior career earnings.

THE ACE GROUP CLASSIC RECAP

Allen Doyle cruised to a wire-to-wire five-stroke victory over Vicente Fernandez in Naples. The win was the first of Doyle's SENIOR TOUR career, and it came in just his ninth start on the circuit. He entered the windy final round with a two-stroke advantage over three players and was never seriously threatened.

"The wind was blowing today and no one really was able to make a run at me," Doyle said. "After the birdie on the 12th hole, it was guide city."

The LaGrange, GA resident got off to a fast start in the event, posting a Bay Colony Golf Club course-record 64 in the opening round. His Sunday round of 69 included four birdies and just one bogey.

Tournament Tidbit: Doyle's victory made him the first player ever to win tournaments on both the BUY.COM TOUR and the SENIOR TOUR.

SENIOR SLAM RECAP

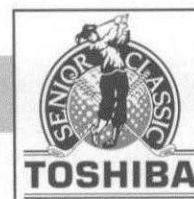

Gil Morgan fired a course record-tying 7-under-par 65 on the final day to overtake first-round leader Hale Irwin and win the 1999 Senior Slam by two strokes at Cabo Real Golf Club.

Morgan won for the second time in as many tries in the 36-hole event and collected $300,000.

"This golf course seemed to suit me," said Morgan of the 6,945-yard layout overlooking the Sea of Cortez. "My length off the tee was a definite advantage here."

Morgan helped his cause with four consecutive birdies starting at No. 8. His eight-footer at No. 9 gave him a three-stroke advantage at the turn.

TOSHIBA SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Gary McCord, the handlebar-mustached color analyst for CBS golf coverage, outlasted good friend and frequent practice partner John Jacobs in a five-hole playoff to win the Toshiba Senior Classic. McCord became the first player to win on a sponsor's exemption since Tony Jacklin in 1994.

The most dramatic moment of the day occurred on the first hole of the playoff, the par-5 18th. Jacobs holed a 30-foot eagle chip that eliminated the other two playoff participants, Al Geiberger and Allen Doyle. That left McCord looking at an 18-foot eagle putt to extend the playoff, which he did.

McCord, who ended a long victory drought, had an excellent chance to finish the playoff on the fourth extra hole — the 18th — but missed a three-foot birdie putt.

"A couple of those putts I didn't want to make," said McCord, "because I wanted to keep it going. A lot of people were following us and the TV was on. And I'm a little bit of a ham anyway."

"Then it got to the point where it was getting dark, so I had to put J.J. away," added McCord, who finally beat Jacobs with a three-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole, ending the tournament more than an hour after its expected finish.

Tournament Tidbit: It was the second time in three years the Toshiba Senior Classic had finished with a playoff. In 1997, Bob Murphy won the longest playoff in SENIOR TOUR history at the time, defeating Jay Sigel with an 80-foot birdie putt on the ninth extra hole.

LIBERTY MUTUAL LEGENDS OF GOLF RECAP

Hubert Green and Gil Morgan shot a better-ball score of 22-under-par 194 for 54 holes and recorded a three-stroke, wire-to-wire victory at The Slammer & The Squire at World Golf Village.

Green and Morgan prevailed despite a Sunday charge from runners-up John Mahaffey and Tom Wargo. "We were pretty good together," said Morgan. "I might hit it longer off the tee than Hubert, but he's got great touch around the greens."

The duo was virtually flawless over the three days of competition. Morgan made 12 birdies and one eagle, while Green made eight birdies. The team did not record a bogey in the event.

Green and Morgan led by just one stroke after 18 holes, despite combining for a sizzling 61. They increased their margin to three strokes after 36 holes and never had a team closer than two shots the rest of the way. They became the sixth Legends team to win wire-to-wire in 21 events.

Tournament Tidbit: World Golf Hall of Famers Jack Nicklaus and Raymond Floyd will join forces in this year's Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf event. Nicklaus played with Gary Player in the 1996 tournament, while Floyd competed in the Legends in 1993 when it was an individual stroke-play tournament. Nicklaus and Floyd have combined for 92 PGA TOUR titles, 23 SENIOR TOUR titles and 24 major championships in their illustrious careers.

EMERALD COAST CLASSIC RECAP

While Bob Duval was winning the Emerald Coast Classic in the Florida Panhandle, his son David was back home winning THE PLAYERS Championship in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

The elder Duval led throughout the $1.1 million event at The Moors Golf Club, opening with a 9-under-par 61, one stroke off the SENIOR TOUR record set by Isao Aoki in the 1997 Emerald Coast Classic. With significant pressure — he had never won before — Duval shot a final-round 71 to hold off hard-charging SENIOR TOUR money leader Bruce Fleisher by two strokes to capture his first title.

His first victory in a professional tournament put the elder Duval and his son in a league of their own. The Duvals are the first father and son to win PGA TOUR-sanctioned events on the same day.

"He's (David) as proud of me as I am of him," said Bob Duval as he watched his offspring receive his trophy on television, wiping tears from his eyes, before toasting their victories with champagne. "We both won in North Florida, where we have played and worked a long time. That's neat!"

Tournament Tidbit: Bob Duval's 9-under-par 61 was the lowest 18-hole round of the 1999 season. Isao Aoki set the SENIOR PGA TOUR record with his 10-under-par 60 in the second round of the 1997 Emerald Coast Classic. Aoki had 10 birdies during his round but was unable to convert a birdie at either of the last two holes, missing from 30 and 25 feet.

LEADERS: First Round—Graham Marsh and Howard Twitty each carded 3-under 69s. Mike McCullough, Leonard Thompson and Vicente Fernandez were one stroke back. Second Round—Marsh added a 67 and was at 8-under 136 after 36 holes. Larry Nelson was three strokes back, while Thompson and Fernandez trailed by four strokes.

GRAND TRADITION: Larry Mowry/Bob Rosburg posted a better-ball score of 7-under-par 65 and finished one stroke ahead of Tommy Aaron/Fred Haas, Lou Graham/Bob Verwey and Paul Runyan/Larry Mowry (blind draw). Mowry and Rosburg each earned $25,000 for the victory.

CUT: There was no cut; 75 of 79 players completed 36 holes.

WEATHER: Thursday's temperatures were in the low 40s with intermittent rain and sleet throughout the day. Play was delayed from 11:37 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. and again from 1:04 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. More than three inches of snow fell Friday morning and the round was cancelled. Sunny and clear on Saturday with temperatures in the high 50s and winds from the southwest at 10-15 mph. Another cold front moved into the area on Sunday morning producing more rain and snow. After several delays to the start of the round, it was officially cancelled at 10:45 a.m.

THE COUNTRYWIDE TRADITION RECAP

In one of the most bizarre events in SENIOR TOUR history, Graham Marsh was declared the winner of The Tradition after a series of snowstorms wiped out 36 of a scheduled 72 holes in the circuit's first major championship of the season. Marsh posted a score of 8-under-par 136, three strokes better than Larry Nelson. He won the tournament when the final round was officially cancelled at 10:45 a.m. MST on Sunday.

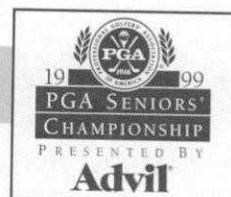

Until the second day of The Tradition, no SENIOR TOUR event had lost a round to snow. On Friday, three inches of powder fell at the Golf Club at Desert Mountain. Two days later, another major weather system brought more snow to the area and the course was again deemed unplayable.

In his two rounds on the Cochise layout, Marsh made 11 birdies and three bogeys. After carding a 3-under-par 69, he shared the first-round lead with Howard Twitty. Two days later, with temperatures in the low 50s and moderate winds whipping, Marsh made five birdies, including two in the last four holes, to shoot 67 and pull away from Nelson.

PGA SENIORS' CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Allen Doyle rallied from four strokes down to win his second event of the year and his first senior major championship. He overtook third-round co-leaders Vicente Fernandez and Bruce Fleisher and eventually edged Fernandez by two strokes at PGA National, posting a 72-hole score of 14-under-par 274.

Doyle's sizzling final-round 64 was the lowest final round in the 60-year history of the event. He countered a double-bogey at the fourth hole and a bogey at the 11th with nine birdies and a key chip-in eagle at the 10th hole. While Doyle was on his way to posting a 5-under-par 31 on the back nine, both Fernandez and Fleisher faltered down the stretch with double bogeys after hitting into the water on the par-3 15th hole.

THE HOME DEPOT INVITATIONAL RECAP

Bruce Fleisher shot a final-round 69 at the TPC at Piper Glen to capture The Home Depot Invitational, his third triumph in only seven starts.

Tied for the lead, Fleisher laid up on the par-5 18th and then hit a wedge to within three feet. "I was really shaky over that last putt," Fleisher said. "You'd think you'd get over that, but you don't."

Shaky or not, he made the last putt to finish at 11-under-par 205, one stroke better than Terry Dill and Jim Holtgrieve, who was playing despite hearing about his mother's death on Sunday morning from his father.

Fleisher collected $180,000 for the victory, moving past Allen Doyle into first place on the SENIOR PGA TOUR money list despite having played in only seven of 10 tournaments.

1999 BRUNO'S MEMORIAL CLASSIC

BRUNO'S MEMORIAL CLASSIC RECAP

Larry Nelson's closing 4-under-par 68 was enough to hold off Dana Quigley for his second victory of the season. Nelson credited a tip from his son and caddie, Drew Nelson, prior to the round for his eventual victory at the Bruno's Memorial Classic.

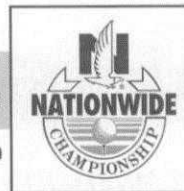

"My son noticed I wasn't getting behind the ball on my backswing," Nelson said. "I tried to do that today, and it worked."

The Fort Payne native became the second consecutive Alabaman to win at Greystone Country Club. In 1998, Birmingham native Hubert Green claimed the Bruno's title.

Nelson birdied three of the last seven holes to edge a hard-charging Quigley by one stroke. Quigley began the final round three shots back, but six birdies in the first 15 holes moved him into a brief tie with Nelson. However, a missed 10-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole nixed Quigley's chances for victory.

Tournament tidbit: Miller Barber made a record 500th start on the SENIOR TOUR at last year's Bruno's event.

1999 NATIONWIDE CHAMPIONSHIP

Golf Club of Georgia (Lakeside); Alpharetta, GA
Par: 36-36-72 Yards: 6,885

Purse: $1,400,000
May 7-9, 1999

LEADERS: First Round—George Archer and Graham Marsh carded 4-under-par 68s and were one stroke ahead of Kermit Zarley, Simon Hobday, Hale Irwin and Leonard Thompson. Second Round—Irwin added a 68 and was alone at 7-under-par 137 after 36 holes. Jose Maria Canizares and Allen Doyle were two strokes back, while Gary McCord, Bob Murphy and Marsh trailed by three.

GEORGIA-PACIFIC SUPER SENIORS: Dale Douglass edged Dave Hill, Larry Mowry and Don Bies by a stroke for his first 60-and-over title of the season. Douglass' 36-hole score of 1-under 143 earned him a check for $30,000.

CUT: There was no cut; 76 of 78 players completed 54 holes.

PRO-AM: $5,000. Wednesday Individual (Morning-Front)—Frank Conner, 34, $312. Individual (Morning-Back 9)—Jim Thorpe, Brian Barnes, Bob Eastwood, 35, $208.33. Individual (Afternoon)—Bob Charles, 68, $400. Team (Morning-Front 9)—Bob Dickson, 26, $312. Team (Morning-Back 9)—Bob Eastwood, Jim Dent, 28, $250 each. Team (Afternoon)—Don Bies, 52, $400. Thursday—Cancelled due to inclement weather and money refunded back to the sponsor.

WEATHER: Early morning thunderstorms on Wednesday delayed the pro-am forcing the morning players to play just nine holes. All afternoon players went 18 holes. Thursday's pro-am was cancelled at 11:10 a.m. due to a series of thunderstorms that lasted throughout the day. The start of Friday's round was delayed by 40 minutes due to lightning in the area. Cloudy and overcast all afternoon. Beautiful on Saturday and Sunday with sunny skies, temperatures in the low 80s and light winds.

NATIONWIDE CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Hale Irwin holed a sand wedge from 74 yards for an electrifying eagle on the final hole to break a tie with Bob Murphy and win the Nationwide Championship at the Golf Club of Georgia.

"I've never done this on the last hole for a win," said Irwin, who had laid up on the par-5 with a 5-iron to get a comfortable distance. "I made the long putt to win the U.S. Open in 1990. That's about as close as I've come, I guess."

The victory was his first official win of the season and the 21st of his SENIOR TOUR career, one more than his PGA TOUR victory total. The $210,000 first-place check also moved Irwin over the $8 million mark in SENIOR TOUR career earnings, along with Jim Colbert and Lee Trevino.

Tournament tidbit: With his Nationwide Championship victory, Irwin joined Bob Charles as the only other player to win a PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR event in the Atlanta area (1975 and 1977 Atlanta Classics).

LAS VEGAS SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Seeking his first SENIOR PGA TOUR title since September 1997, Vicente Fernandez shot a final-round 67 at the TPC Summerlin course to win the Las Vegas Senior Classic. Fernandez, who has three SENIOR TOUR victories, finished the 72-hole event with a 13-under-par 274 total.

"I was beginning to feel a lot of pressure because I hadn't won for almost two years," said Fernandez, who ended a 20-month drought. "I knew today, going into the last round, there was more pressure because I knew I could win, and I wanted to win very badly."

Fernandez might have felt a lot of pressure, but he showed plenty of guts. The turning point came on the par-5 16th hole. Tied with Dave Eichelberger, he hit a 2-iron over the water guarding the front of the 16th green that landed just past the hole and rolled 30 feet away. The eagle putt was right in the middle. He then coasted in with pars on the final two holes.

BELL ATLANTIC CLASSIC RECAP

Twenty-four years after winning his only PGA TOUR title there, the Philadelphia area was good again to Tom Jenkins.

Jenkins recovered from an untimely bogey on the final hole to make an 18-foot putt on the first playoff hole and beat fast-finishing Jim Thorpe for the Bell Atlantic Classic crown. The win came nearly 25 years after Jenkins won at the 1975 IVB-Philadelphia Classic by one stroke over Johnny Miller.

"I'm as excited as I can be," said Jenkins. "It's hard to put into words how I feel right now. There was always a question of if I could win again."

Jenkins fell into a tie with Thorpe after he failed to hole a 15-foot par attempt in regulation. Thorpe had started the day three strokes back but charged into contention with a tournament-best 7-under-par 65 at Hartefeld National.

Tournament Tidbit: This year's tournament will move to the Tournament Players Club at Jasna Polana, a Gary Player-designed course in Princeton, NJ. It will be the event's fourth different venue in its 15-year history.

BOONE VALLEY CLASSIC RECAP

Hale Irwin notched his second official tournament victory of the season and also won his second Boone Valley Classic title in the last three years, defeating Al Geiberger by two strokes.

A part-time resident in the St. Louis area, Irwin entered the final round two strokes behind Bruce Summerhays. He fired a bogey-free 66, with four of his six birdie putts coming from less than 10 feet.

Irwin also hit 17 greens in regulation on Sunday. He made three consecutive birdies on the front nine to take the lead, then sealed the victory with another birdie at the 12th hole. The 61-year-old Geiberger had an opportunity to catch Irwin at the 17th hole, but his eagle chip on the par-5 stopped a foot short of the cup.

"I put myself in good position to make a run at it today, and that's exactly what I did," Irwin said. "To play to win, you have to get into a different frame of mind on Sunday. You don't want to rely on one thing or the other. I did that."

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin's all-time record run of 19 consecutive top-five finishes ended when he tied for 13th at the 1998 event at Boone Valley Golf Club.

LEADERS: First Round—Lee Trevino, Bob Charles, Tom McGinnis, DeWitt Weaver, Joe Inman and Allen Doyle were tied at 5-under-par 67 and were two strokes ahead of Jim Holtgrieve. Second Round—Doyle followed with a 6-under-par 66 for a two-day total of 11-under 133. He held a four-stroke advantage over Trevino.

NFL PLAYERS CHAMPIONSHIP: Tennessee Titans kicker Al Del Greco won his fifth title in seven years with a six-stroke victory over Tampa Bay Buccaneer quarterback Trent Dilfer. Del Greco shot a 3-under-par 69 on Saturday for the win. He donated $30,000 to his charity, the Del Greco Foundation, and also received a 1999 Cadillac for the charity.

CADILLAC NFL GOLF CLASSIC RECAP

Allen Doyle overcame back spasms and a great final-round effort from Joe Inman to capture his third tournament of the year in a four-hole playoff.

Doyle built a four-stroke lead after two rounds, the largest 36-hole margin on the SENIOR TOUR last year, but could only convert one birdie opportunity in his final round for a 71. Inman rallied to tie Doyle at the end of regulation with a blistering 6-under-par 66 that included a 30 on the front nine.

In the playoff, Doyle stayed alive early with several key par-saving putts. Finally, on the fourth extra hole, Inman hit his tee shot on the par-3 17th into the left bunker and missed an eight-foot putt for par. Doyle lagged his birdie effort to within three feet of the hole and tapped in for par and the victory.

"I didn't think I had a chance to win the way I felt. I just hung in there and kept making pars," Doyle said. "Except for Joe, no one came out of the gate. I wanted to make the other guy have to beat me."

Doyle's $165,000 first-place check made him the first senior over the $1 million mark in 1999.

Tournament Tidbit: Lee Trevino's solo third-place finish marked the seventh time in as many tries he has finished in the top 10 at Upper Montclair. Trevino won the inaugural Cadillac NFL Golf Classic in 1990.

BELLSOUTH SENIOR CLASSIC AT OPRYLAND RECAP

Bruce Fleisher, rebounding from an opening-round 71, rallied over the weekend (63-66) at Springhouse Golf Course to capture the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland. Fleisher, who won for the fourth time in his rookie season on the SENIOR PGA TOUR, fired a 6-under-par 66 on Sunday to edge Al Geiberger by one stroke.

The two key holes came when Fleisher eagled the par-5 10th hole to go to 15-under, giving him a two-stroke lead at the time, then made a 12-foot birdie putt at 17 that gave him the lead for good on the 6,783-yard course.

"Could I imagine this? No, not really," Fleisher said. "You have some goals, and some of them come true. I'll have to reevaluate mine. I've already passed most of them."

Fleisher finished at 16-under-par 200. The $210,000 check moved him past Allen Doyle into first place on the SENIOR TOUR money list.

Tournament Tidbit: Moments after Dana Quigley finished his Friday round, he rented a Lear jet to attend his daughter's high school graduation in New England. "It couldn't have worked out better," Quigley said. "It cost somewhere in the vicinity of $7,500 and, I can promise you, it was worth every penny."

SOUTHWESTERN BELL DOMINION RECAP

John Mahaffey overcame two rain delays totaling nearly six hours to shoot a final-round 70—12-under-par 204 total—then rolled in a 30-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole in rapidly approaching darkness to capture his first SENIOR PGA TOUR victory in just over a year on the circuit.

The Southwestern Bell Dominion's first playoff began on the 545-yard, par-5 18th hole. Bruce Fleisher was eliminated with a par at the first hole, while Jose Maria Canizares and Mahaffey both recorded birdies to continue.

With a 30-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole—the 153-yard 17th—Mahaffey outdueled Canizares to capture the $1.1 million event at Dominion Country Club.

Except for his winning putt on the playoff hole, none was more important than the 20-foot birdie putt Mahaffey made at the 17th in regulation. It tied him with Canizares and Fleisher. Canizares then missed a six-foot birdie attempt on the 18th, setting up a three-man playoff.

1999 FORD SENIOR PLAYERS CHAMPIONSHIP

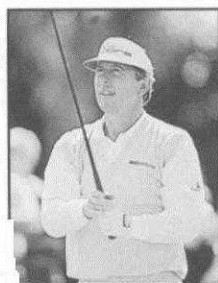

Tournament Players Club of Michigan; Dearborn, MI
Par: 36-36-72 Yards: 6,966

Purse: $2,000,000
June 24-27, 1999

LEADERS: First Round—Graham Marsh and Larry Nelson matched 6-under-par 66s and led Hale Irwin by a stroke. Second Round—Marsh added a 70 and was alone at 8-under 136. He led Isao Aoki, Vicente Fernandez, Irwin and Nelson by two strokes. Third Round—Irwin used a sizzling 64 to move into the top spot at 14-under-par 202. His lead was four strokes over Marsh and five over Jose Maria Canizares and Nelson.

CUT: There was no cut; 77 of 78 players completed 72 holes.

PRO-AM: $10,000. Wednesday Individual—Hugh Baiocchi, David Lundstrom, Dale Douglass, 67, $833.34 each. Team—Larry Nelson, Al Geiberger, 55, $900 each.

WEATHER: Temperatures in the mid-80s throughout the week. Winds were from the southeast on Thursday at 10-15 mph and from the northeast on Friday at 10-15 mph. Heavy rain on Friday morning softened the golf course. The start of Sunday's final round was delayed 30 minutes by heavy rain and lightning in the area. Play was suspended again by lightning and heavy rain at 2:42 p.m. and resumed at 3:35 p.m. Lift, clean and place rules in effect in the final round only.

Winner: Hale Irwin 67-71-64-65 267 $300,000.00

FORD SENIOR PLAYERS CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Hale Irwin made it look easy at the Tournament Players Club of Michigan, despite a pre-tournament injury to his left rotator cuff. He captured the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship by seven strokes over Graham Marsh with a record-tying, 21-under-par 267 performance.

Irwin's margin of victory was a record for the tournament's 10 years in Dearborn. He played his last 36 holes in an amazing 15-under-par 129. In posting a 65 on Sunday, Irwin birdied five holes and distanced himself from the field when he holed a 9-iron shot from 134 yards for an eagle on the 11th hole.

"I have to say that the last couple of days have been very much like the last couple of years," Irwin said. "I'm awfully pleased with my performance and the manner I played today."

STATE FARM SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

With temperatures hovering around 100 degrees, Ireland's Christy O'Connor made the most of a sponsor's exemption and used a final-round 67 to hold off Bruce Fleisher and win his first SENIOR TOUR title in just his sixth start.

"I'm so happy," said O'Connor, whose 18-under-par total at Hobbit's Glen bettered Fleisher by one stroke. "I'll never stop thanking the sponsor. It was a great day."

O'Connor dedicated the victory to his 17-year-old son Darren, who died in an auto accident in September 1998.

His wire-to-wire win didn't come without a considerable challenge from Fleisher. After starting the final round with a three-stroke lead, O'Connor extended it to five strokes through five holes. But Fleisher birdied four of the next six holes to cut the advantage to one shot. O'Connor eventually seized command of the tournament for good with birdies of his own at the 12th and 15th holes, the last coming on a two-putt from 30 feet. Even though Fleisher made birdie on two of his final three holes, he still fell one stroke short.

Tournament tidbit: O'Connor became the first Irishman to win a SENIOR TOUR event. Ironically, his victory near Baltimore came on Independence Day.

U.S. SENIOR OPEN RECAP

Dave Eichelberger couldn't have picked a better stage to end his two-year victory drought.

Winless since the 1997 Transamerica, Eichelberger seized the lead on the back nine on Sunday to earn his first victory in a major.

"I have been trying to get my name on a USGA trophy for 30 years now," said Eichelberger, whose best previous finish in a senior major was a T5 at the 1997 U.S. Senior Open. "It feels good to finally have done it. It is quite an honor to have my name associated with some of the other guys on the trophy."

Eichelberger was among a handful of players lurking near the lead when the leaders reached the back nine on Sunday. Ed Dougherty, who had led the event for the first three rounds, was still ahead at the turn, but things turned shortly thereafter. Eichelberger, playing one group in front of Dougherty, birdied the 15th hole, while Dougherty made a double bogey at the 14th. That proved to be the difference as Eichelberger went on to triumph by three strokes in front of the largest crowd ever to see the prestigious event.

AMERITECH SENIOR OPEN RECAP

Hale Irwin, rebounding from an opening round 1-over-par 73, rallied over the weekend (66-67) at Kemper Lakes Golf Course to capture the Ameritech Senior Open. Irwin, who won his second consecutive victory at the Ameritech and third in five years, fired a 5-under-par 67 on Sunday to edge Bruce Fleisher, Raymond Floyd and Gary McCord, by one stroke.

"On Friday, all facets of my game were off," said Irwin, but "instead of beating myself up on the driving range, I beat myself up in the HealthSouth trailer. I had a good workout, then called my son Steve, who caddies for me and knows my game. He gave me a little bit of a putting tip, and I putted very well the last two days."

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin's win at the Ameritech Senior Classic was his fourth of the '99 season. He is the only player in SENIOR PGA TOUR history to win four or more events in three consecutive seasons.

COLDWELL BANKER BURNET CLASSIC RECAP

Despite two late bogeys, Hale Irwin won his fifth event of the season and his 25th overall on the SENIOR TOUR, defeating Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors Jim Dent and Dale Douglass by two strokes at Bunker Hills Golf Club.

Irwin also became the first two-time champion in the Burnet's seven-year history. He held a one-stroke lead over David Graham after both the first and second rounds of the tournament, but it was two over-60 players, Dent and Douglass, who emerged as his closest pursuers down the stretch.

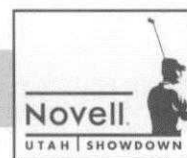

Irwin struggled on the back nine with bogeys at the 15th and 17th holes. He came back with a birdie at the 16th, then ended any suspense by making birdie at the 18th. Knowing he needed just a par for the victory, Irwin chose to be aggressive, hitting a driver for his second shot.

Dent, playing in the group in front of Irwin, had a 15-foot birdie putt on 18 that would have momentarily tied him for the lead. He missed it to the right.

"The timing of the birdies was significant," said Irwin, who became the sixth wire-to-wire winner of the season. "They all came at pivotal times during the round."

Tournament Tidbit: Three-time PGA TOUR winners Lon Hinkle and Mark Hayes both used sponsor exemptions to make their debuts on the SENIOR TOUR. Hayes tied for 24th with a closing round of 66, while Hinkle tied for 51st in Minnesota.

LEADERS: First Round—Open qualifier Greg Edwards fired a 9-under-par 63 to lead Steve Veriato by a stroke. Tom Shaw, John Jacobs, Leonard Thompson and Gil Morgan were all two strokes back. Second Round—Dave Eichelberger set a 36-hole tournament record of 15-under 129 and led John Mahaffey and Hale Irwin by three strokes. Dana Quigley's course-record 62 put him at 11-under 133.

GEORGIA-PACIFIC SUPER SENIORS: Tom Shaw won his third 60-and-over title of the year, defeating Terry Dill by two strokes. Shaw's 36-hole total of 10-under 134 earned him a $30,000 check.

NOVELL UTAH SHOWDOWN RECAP

Dave Eichelberger rebounded from a double-bogey at the 15th hole to edge Dana Quigley in a playoff for his second victory of the season.

After his only blemish in the 54-hole event, Eichelberger quickly regrouped and birdied the 16th and 17th holes to force an overtime session with the hard-charging Quigley, who had posted a 64 that included a sizzling 29 on the back nine. However, Quigley could not convert his four-foot par effort.

LIGHTPATH LONG ISLAND CLASSIC RECAP

Bruce Fleisher went wire-to-wire for the second time in 1999, but his win was not without suspense over the final two days.

After opening with a course-record-tying 64 on Friday, Fleisher nearly missed his tee time on Saturday after misreading the schedule. Despite getting to the course just moments before he was to tee off, Fleisher fired a bogey-free 69 and opened a three-stroke margin after 36 holes.

After completing his round on Sunday, he was assessed a two-stroke penalty for failing to replace his ball at its original spot at the 18th hole. A spectator informed him of the error and he rectified the situation prior to signing his scorecard.

"I had a real blip at the 18th hole," said Fleisher. "I'm glad it's over. The way I'm going to look at this one is that it's going to teach me a big lesson. By all rights I shouldn't have won. I screwed up twice this week.

"I was lucky I had a four-stroke lead at the final hole, added Fleisher, who won for the fifth time. Allen Doyle finished two strokes behind.

LEADERS: First Round—Tom Wargo and Dick Lotz carded 5-under-par 67s and led Tommy Aaron, Bruce Fleisher, Kermit Zarley, Lee Trevino and Noel Ratcliffe by a stroke. Second Round—John Bland and Christy O'Connor, Jr. were tied at 7-under 137 after 36 holes. Fleisher trailed by one stroke while John Jacobs, George Archer and Lotz were all two shots back.

GEORGIA-PACIFIC SUPER SENIORS: Mike Hill's 2-under-par 142 total was good enough to edge Gary Player and Jim Ferree by a stroke. Hill's victory was his third 60-and-over title of the year and earned him a check for $30,000.

CUT: There was no cut; 76 of 78 players completed 54 holes.

PRO-AM: $10,000. Wednesday Individual—Jim Ahern, Jim Holtgrieve, 67, $450 each. Team—Bobby Nichols, 53, $500. Thursday Individual—David Lundstrom, Kermit Zarley, 66, $450 each. Team—John Jacobs, 55, $500.

WEATHER: Sunny with temperatures in the mid-80s early in the week. The start of Wednesday's pro-am was delayed 36 minutes by fog. Overcast on Friday with temperatures only reaching the upper 70s and winds from the southwest at 10-20 mph. Slightly cooler on Saturday with gusting winds from the southeast at 10-20 mph. Beautiful on Sunday with highs in the mid-70s and a light breeze from the southeast.

FOREMOST INSURANCE CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Christy O'Connor, Jr. shot a final-round 68 at Egypt Valley to cruise to a four-stroke win over Jim Thorpe, John Jacobs and defending champion George Archer. The win was his second of the season and virtually clinched a spot in the season-ending event in Myrtle Beach, SC.

The Galway, Ireland native started Sunday's final round tied with South African John Bland, but birdies at the fourth, seventh and 10th holes moved O'Connor into the lead for good.

O'Connor sealed the victory with an eagle on the par-5 17th hole. His daring 5-wood second shot stopped within 12 feet of the hole. After the tournament, he dedicated the victory to his close friend and business manager, Miles Murphy, who had died of cancer during the weekend.

BANKBOSTON CLASSIC RECAP

51-year-old SENIOR TOUR rookie Tom McGinnis outdueled Hale Irwin for his first TOUR victory. Prior to his surprising win at Nashawtuc, McGinnis' best effort in a TOUR event was a fifth-place finish at the 1976 Ed McMahon-Jaycees Quad City Open.

McGinnis started the final round one shot behind Irwin, Jay Sigel and George Archer. In posting his final-round 67, McGinnis made birdie at the final hole to tie Irwin in regulation, then hit a 6-iron to within four feet at the second playoff hole after his opponent had knocked his shot to within 10 feet. After Irwin missed his birdie attempt, McGinnis capitalized.

AT&T CANADA SENIOR OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Jim Ahern, a Monday qualifier playing in only his seventh SENIOR TOUR event, birdied Richelieu Valley's final two holes of regulation, capped by a dramatic 30-foot putt from the back fringe of the 18th green, to force a playoff with Hale Irwin. Then, after an Irwin bogey on the second hole of sudden death, Ahern made a five-foot uphill par putt for the victory.

"This has never happened to me at this kind of level," said Ahern, whose best finish in 60 career PGA TOUR events was a T9 at the 1973 Quad Cities Open. "There just aren't words that can explain this."

Ahern was only the seventh open qualifier to win a tournament and the first since Dana Quigley at the 1997 Northville Long Island Classic.

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin's 71 in the third round halted his record streak of 13 consecutive sub-70 rounds. Entering the tournament, Irwin shared the mark with Lee Trevino, who set it in 1992.

1999 TD WATERHOUSE CHAMPIONSHIP

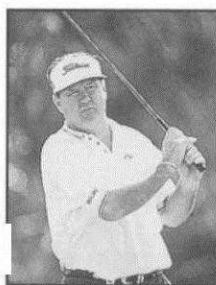

Tiffany Greens GC; Kansas City, MO Purse: $1,200,000
Par: 36-36-72 Yards: 6,888 September 3-5, 1999

LEADERS: First Round—Allen Doyle fired a 9-under-par 63 for a one-stroke lead over Gil Morgan. Second Round—Ed Dougherty was at 12-under 132 after 36 holes, one-stroke ahead of Morgan and Doyle.

GEORGIA-PACIFIC SUPER SENIORS: Don Bies won his first Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors title of the year, defeating Al Geiberger by two strokes. Bies' 36-hole total of 6-under-par 138 was worth a $30,000 check in the over-60 competition.

CUT: There was no cut; 77 of 78 players completed 54 holes.

PRO-AM: $10,000. Wednesday Individual—Charles Coody, 66, $500. Team—DeWitt Weaver, Orville Moody, Alberto Giannone, Dana Quigley, Don Bies, Al Geiberger, 52, $333.33 each. Thursday Individual—Dale Douglass, 63, $500. Team—Jose Maria Canizares, 51, $500.

TD WATERHOUSE CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Allen Doyle birdied four of the final seven holes on Sunday for a 7-under-par 65 to capture the inaugural TD Waterhouse Championship. Doyle, who finished with an 18-under-par 198, ended up two shots in front of second-round leader Ed Dougherty and three in front of Gil Morgan.

Doyle, who bogeyed just one hole during the tournament, held a one-stroke lead as he played the 395-yard par-4 17th. He nailed down the victory by hitting a sand wedge to two feet for a birdie on No. 17.

"I played a good round, Allen played a great round," said Dougherty, who had recorded two second-place finishes to that juncture without a win. "He put the pressure on both myself and Gil. It was pretty good golf coming down the stretch and pretty exciting."

Tournament Tidbit: Allen Doyle was virtually flawless last year at the TD Waterhouse Championship. The SENIOR TOUR rookie recorded an eagle, 17 birdies, 34 pars and one lone bogey en route to an 18-under-par, two-stroke triumph over Ed Dougherty.

COMFORT CLASSIC RECAP

Gil Morgan's final-round 69 was good enough for a two-stroke victory over Ed Dougherty, and that brought him his first official win of the season and the 14th of his SENIOR TOUR career.

Morgan, who entered the final day trailing good friend Mike McCullough by one stroke, tied with McCullough and Tom Jenkins through six holes. However, Morgan made three birdies over the next eight holes while McCullough and Jenkins moved in the opposite direction. With four holes to play, he had a three-stroke advantage.

Morgan made his first bogey at Brickyard Crossing on the 15th hole. He added two more pars and preserved enough of a cushion over Ed Dougherty to allow a conservative two-putt bogey on the final hole.

"I putted at a little higher level this week," said Morgan, who had come close to winning several times in the previous month. "It's a relief to win here. This win could be a factor in helping boost my confidence the rest of the year."

BANK ONE CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

It might have taken him a week longer than some expected, but Tom Watson's second start on the SENIOR TOUR was a successful one.

Just 15 days after turning 50, Watson fashioned a final-round, 10-under-par 62 to finish five strokes in front of Bruce Summerhays for his first senior victory. The triumph made him the third-youngest winner in SENIOR TOUR history at 50 years, 15 days.

A winner of 34 events on the PGA TOUR, including eight major championships, Watson was tied with five others after 36 holes, but used eight birdies and an eagle on Sunday to distance himself from the field.

"Things worked out right after the first hole today," said Watson. "After making the putt at No. 1, I said, 'Let's just see if I can make a birdie on every other hole on the front nine to get low first and early.'"

Watson had birdies on two, three, seven and nine and posted an eagle on the sixth hole to make the turn at in six-under-par 30.

"That eagle really gave me the boost," Watson said. "I knocked it pretty close most of the day. Everything worked well today."

Watson kept things going on the back nine with three consecutive birdies on holes 11 through 13.

"The stretch from 11 to 13 won the tournament for me," said Watson.

The 62 was his lowest competitive round ever and the lowest final round by a winner since Hale Irwin shot a 62 on Sunday at the 1998 Toshiba Senior Classic.

KROGER SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Gil Morgan shot a final-round 7-under-par 63 on the Grizzly Course at The Golf Center at Kings Island and collected his second triumph in three weeks. Morgan, who turned 53 on Saturday of the tournament, needed only 25 putts Sunday and made five birdies from 6 through 13 to beat Ed Dougherty by two strokes.

"The middle part of the round was the best part," Morgan said. "From 6 to 13 I made five birdies, and that kind of helped me move up the leaderboard and get in position."

Dougherty, who started the day with a one-stroke lead, posted his fourth runner-up finish of the season. He was in good position at the turn with three birdies and a bogey, but couldn't get a birdie on the back nine until the final hole. By then, it was too late.

Morgan moved into fourth place on the 1999 money list with a $210,000 paycheck.

Tournament Tidbit: It was the second time in three weeks that Gil Morgan had won an event that Hugh Baiocchi won in 1998 — The Comfort Classic and Kroger Senior Classic.

VANTAGE CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Fred Gibson followed his career-low 62 on Saturday with a 64 in the final round of the Vantage Championship to earn the first SENIOR TOUR victory of his career in Clemmons, NC, a three-stroke triumph over Bruce Fleisher.

Gibson birdied four of the final five holes on Tanglewood Park's Championship course to separate himself from Fleisher down the stretch. "The key was the five-footer I made for birdie at No. 15. That's the toughest hole out here," Gibson said. "I knew that after that hole, if I played solid golf, I could win—and I did."

Gibson joined Fleisher, Allen Doyle, Gary McCord and Tom McGinnis as 1998 Qualifying School graduates who won tournaments in 1999.

Tournament Tidbit: Hale Irwin's streak of 25 consecutive rounds at par or better ended when he shot a 1-over-par 71 in the second round. Irwin's run fell two rounds shy of the SENIOR TOUR record.

THE TRANSAMERICA RECAP

Bruce Fleisher made it six wins in 1999 with a one-stroke victory over Allen Doyle at the Silverado Country Club's South Course.

Fleisher became the first player since Hugh Baiocchi at the 1998 Comfort Classic to play all 54 holes without a bogey. The win also pushed him over the $2 million mark in single-season earnings, becoming just the third senior player ever to do so (Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan were the others).

After starting Sunday's final round with a two-stroke margin, Fleisher quickly extended his lead to four strokes, thanks to birdies on four of his first six holes.

"I got off to a wonderful start today," said Fleisher, who fashioned a tournament-record 17-under-par 199. "I got out of the box quick and had a two- or three-stroke lead most of the time."

Doyle and Walter Hall stayed within striking distance of Fleisher for most of the back nine. Doyle had consecutive birdies at the 15th and 16th, while Hall had a birdie at the 15th. But neither player could get any closer to Fleisher than one stroke.

"I had some good chances for birdies on the final four holes and would have liked to have converted one of those, because I knew Allen wasn't going to let up," said Fleisher after his tournament-record performance. "You can never count Allen Doyle out of it. He has such a good game."

RALEY'S GOLD RUSH CLASSIC RECAP

Australian native David Graham captured his first title of the season at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic with a tournament-record 17-under-par 199. Graham, 53, recorded four consecutive birdies on the front side to take the lead for good.

Graham finished the tournament like he started it. He opened with a 63 at Serrano Country Club to seize a three-stroke lead and, though he faltered with a 71 Saturday, his closing 65 allowed him to coast home in record fashion.

"The last three or four months I've played terrific golf," said Graham, who picked up a check for $165,000. "I'm very pleased."

The victory was his fifth overall on the SENIOR TOUR and was his first since the 1998 Royal Caribbean Classic.

EMC² KAA NAPALI CLASSIC RECAP

Bruce Fleisher shot a final-round 4-under-par 67 for a three-day total of 14-under-par 199 to edge Allen Doyle by one stroke at the Kaanapali Tournament North Course and post his seventh win of the season. With his win at the EMC² Kaanapali Classic, Fleisher tied the SENIOR PGA TOUR record for victories by a rookie. The seven wins matched the record set by Bruce Crampton in 1986 and equaled by Lee Trevino in 1990.

Doyle and Fleisher battled down the stretch for the third time during the 1999 season. The key moment of Sunday's final round was Fleisher's 12-foot birdie putt on No. 16, which gave him the lead. Doyle certainly had his chances on Nos. 17 and 18, missing birdie putts from eight and 20 feet.

"This is a year I'll remember for a long time," said Fleisher.

Tournament Tidbit: During the second round of the 1999 EMC² Kaanapali Classic, Gary Player aced the 197-yard No. 9 using a 3-iron. There have been only two other aces made in the history of the EMC² Kaanapali Classic, with the previous hole-in-one occurring during the 1990 event. The late Bert Yancey and Dale Douglass had aces during the opening round of that year's tournament.

PACIFIC BELL SENIOR CLASSIC RECAP

Joe Inman shot a final-round 6-under-par 65 for a three-day total of 14-under 199 at Wilshire Country Club, good for a two-stroke victory over Bruce Summerhays and Dave Stockton. Inman won for the second time as a SENIOR PGA TOUR player by defending his title in the $1.2 million Pacific Bell Senior Classic. The $180,000 he earned moved him past the $1 million mark and into 10th place on the 1999 money list.

Stockton had a three-shot lead over Inman heading into the final round. Stockton opened the door quickly with two bogeys and a double bogey on the front side. It became a one-man show when Inman holed a 12-foot eagle putt on the par-5 13th. Inman made it interesting when his second shot on the par-4 17th found the water. He pitched to within three feet and made bogey.

Tournament Tidbits: With his triumph at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic, Joe Inman joined Hale Irwin as the only players to successfully defend their titles in the 1999 season. Irwin defended his title at the Ameritech Senior Classic in July.

Gary Player won the Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors competition in Los Angeles and collected $30,000 for his efforts. That check was $10,000 larger than the one he earned for winning his first Masters title in 1961.

INGERSOLL-RAND SENIOR TOUR CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

Gary McCord played his final two rounds in 13-under-par and passed Larry Nelson and Bruce Fleisher down the stretch on Sunday for his second victory of the season. McCord, a PGA TOUR Q-school graduate in the fall of 1973 at The Dunes Club, was tied with Nelson and trailed Fleisher by one stroke with only two holes to play. He briefly moved into a tie with Fleisher when he sank a clutch 20-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole, then took sole possession of the lead when Fleisher missed a three-foot par putt on No. 16. When Fleisher missed a six-foot par putt on No. 17, he virtually handed the tournament to McCord.

After the event, McCord called the week a "Dow Jones ride." He added, "Fourteen birdies and one bogey on this course...when you are choking your guts out. I'll take and stand very proud of that."

McCord collected a check for $347,000, his largest as a professional. He also became the eighth player to win more than one event in 1999.

ANHEUSER-BUSCH

One of golf's most enduring corporate supporters, Anheuser-Busch – through its Michelob brand family and O'Doul's brands – also is one of the PGA TOUR's leading sponsors.

MICHELOB & MICHELOB LIGHT

Now in its seventh year of association with the PGA TOUR, the Michelob brand family has been a leading example of how a consumer brand can benefit from a strong and integrated relationship with the PGA TOUR. The Michelob brand family's involvement with golf dates back more than 30 years and escalated following the 1994 signing of a long-term sponsorship agreement with the TOUR. Michelob Light currently serves as "Official Beer of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR."

Golf and the Michelob brand family are a perfect match. Golf sets strict standards for the caliber of its players and its level of sportsmanship. So, too, does premium Michelob and Michelob Light set the strict standard for excellence in the brewing industry. With the brands' non-alcohol partner O'Doul's, Michelob and Michelob Light have the perfect opportunity to reach an important and similar demographic, applying grassroots retail promotions, golf-themed packaging and advertising, PGA TOUR tournament sponsorships and national programs.

The Michelob brand family also is a founding sponsor of pgatour.com, the PGA TOUR's official Internet site. This interactive source for TOUR information features news coverage, live coverage, player bios and TOUR merchandise, as well as links to Michelob Light promotional games and trivia contests.

As title sponsor of the Michelob Championship at Kingsmill and support sponsor of several events on the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR, the Michelob brand family continues to emphasize its commitment to golf. Its association with the game is a pivotal element in the Michelob brand family's fully integrated golf marketing strategy and establishes Michelob and Michelob Light as the beers for golf.

O'DOUL'S

O'Doul's is enjoying its seventh year as the "Official Non-Alcohol Brew of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." The best-selling non-alcohol brew in the United States, O'Doul's continues to grow as its marketing plans are successfully integrated with the TOUR, through golf-themed promotions, advertisements and packaging.

O'Doul's and O'Doul's Amber are ideal alternative malt beverages for those consumers who enjoy the great taste of beer, but prefer not to have the alcohol.

O'Doul's and the Michelob family brands are brewed by Anheuser-Busch, Inc., the world's largest brewer.

AT&T

AT&T is the "Official Communications Company of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." AT&T provides essential communications services to TOUR players, including AT&T long-distance service which is available to players on a complimentary basis each week at cosponsored tournaments, and free use of cellular telephones and wireless service. AT&T utilizes its PGA TOUR sponsorship in advertising and business-building promotional programs and in solidifying relationships with key corporate accounts.

AT&T continues its sponsorship of the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, a perennial leader in tournament charitable contributions. In 2000, the purse for the event will increase to $4 million, placing it among the top events on the PGA TOUR.

BANK OF AMERICA

Bank of America is the "Official Bank of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." Bank of America will sponsor the Bank of America Charity Cup, formerly known as the PGA TOUR Team Charity Competition. A new format for the competition will debut in 2000 which will add an element of strategy and generate additional excitement. Each week participating tournaments will select a different player via pgatour.com. Total official money won by a tournament's selected players determines the tournament's place in the standings. Participating tournaments will collectively receive over $1 million from Bank of America for distribution to the charities of their choice in their local communities.

Bank of America and the PGA TOUR will also conduct a consumer promotion similar in format to the Charity Cup, where consumers have the chance to pick a player each week. Bank of America will donate a total of $80,000 to charities designated by the winners and consumers will also have the chance to win weekly and year-end PGA TOUR-themed prizes.

Bank of America.

CANON

In addition to its 15-year title sponsorship of the Canon Greater Hartford Open, Canon U.S.A. is the "Official Copier, Facsimile, Camera and Binocular" of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR.

As an industry leader in professional and consumer imaging equipment, Canon will continue to leverage its brand equity with a corporate communications campaign and an expanded affinity marketing program that supports its association with the game of golf. Canon KNOW HOW, the company's first integrated brand management campaign, demonstrates how Canon's advanced technology is intuitive, enabling people to work more efficiently and providing them with more time for leisure and family.

Hospitality, product demonstrations and binocular loan programs will highlight some of the on-site promotional activities Canon will implement at PGA TOUR events. The Canon Mobile Marketing Vehicle, offering touch and try opportunities, will travel the country supporting Canon's PGA TOUR and brand campaigns.

JOHN DEERE

John Deere is the "Official Golf Course Equipment Supplier of the PGA TOUR." John Deere provides equipment to the PGA TOUR network of Tournament Players Clubs and Courses (TPCs). John Deere is title sponsor of the John Deere Classic.

Deere provides a full range of golf and turf equipment, along with utility vehicles and selected construction equipment, on an exclusive basis to each of the TOUR's owned and operated TPC courses. As courses are added to the TPC network around the world, each new course also will be groomed with John Deere equipment.

DELTA AIR LINES

Delta Air Lines is the "Official Airline of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." Delta provides important benefits for TOUR players, such as discounts on air travel, special zone fares designed to accommodate the unique travel needs of players and Delta SkyMiles for each winner of PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR cosponsored tournaments. In addition, Delta is the Official Airline of more than 50 tournaments on the three TOURs.

Delta prints PGA TOUR, SENIOR TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR schedules each month in its on-board magazine, Sky, and airs TOUR features on in-flight video programs. Through its PGA TOUR relationship, Delta entertains key corporate clients and develops joint promotions that provide valuable exposure to its target market.

GILLETTE

Continuing its relationship with the PGA TOUR into the millennium, Gillette enters its fourth year as a corporate marketing partner of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR. Gillette's focus in 2000 will be in golf-related advertising and on-site client hospitality. Through its relationship with the TOUR, Gillette utilizes the PGA TOUR marks, incorporating them in advertising and PGA TOUR-themed promotions with key retailers throughout the year.

GEORGIA-PACIFIC

Georgia-Pacific is the "Official Forest Products Provider of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." In addition, Georgia-Pacific is the title sponsor of the SENIOR TOUR's Super Seniors competition for players at least 60 years old who are entered in the full-field tournament. The weekly winner is determined by scores posted during the first two rounds of competition. This year, the weekly purses for the competition have been elevated to $200,000. The top 16 players on the money list heading into the Ingersoll-Rand SENIOR TOUR Championship compete in the Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors Championship, which will offer a $650,000 purse in 2000. Mike Hill won the 1999 Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors Championship and its accompanying $128,000 paycheck. Tom Shaw led last year's Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors money list with earnings of $315,387.

GOLFWATCH

GolfWatch is an exclusive, turnkey corporate entertainment property that is licensed by the PGA TOUR. Limited to 1,000 credentials per event, GolfWatch provides the client preferred viewing and hospitality areas equivalent to an NBA court-side set.

GolfWatch members can use "express lanes" to follow their favorite players from hole to hole. They also have access to between five and seven "Skybox Oases" that are placed strategically throughout the course, each complete with food and beverage service, phones and private washrooms.

GolfWatch members also have a centrally located 4,000-square-foot "Home Pavilion" that offers complete hospitality and concierge services.

GolfWatch is "an event within an event" that offers the "ultimate spectator experience."

HEALTHSOUTH

HEALTHSOUTH Corporation is in its second year as the "Official Healthcare Provider of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." The centerpiece of the relationship is the staffing of two mobile 48-foot state-of-the-art sports medicine facilities.

Each week, HEALTHSOUTH therapists provide rehabilitative and preventive care for TOUR members, as well as personal conditioning programs. Extensive equipment, treatment tables, a multi-station gym, stereo and television sets provide first-class surroundings. Use of the fitness facilities has proven to be one of the players' most important benefits. Without the equipment and qualified therapists on board, many players would have been forced to withdraw from tournaments.

In addition to the staff of therapists, HEALTHSOUTH has the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopedic Clinic, Dr. James Andrews and Dr. Bill Clancy available as Medical Directors. Dr. Frank Jobe continues as the TOUR's Medical Director.

HEALTHSOUTH is the nation's largest provider of outpatient surgical and rehabilitative healthcare services, with more than 1,900 facilities in all 50 states, Puerto Rico, the United Kingdom and Australia.

IBM

As the Official Information Technology Partner of the PGA TOUR, IBM provides:

- The IBM Scoring System on-site at TOUR events and available to the public at pgatour.com;
- PGA TOUR LINKS, a customized intranet application that streamlines communications for TOUR players and assists them in managing their careers from the road, with access to tournament registration, money lists, travel and weather information, among other features; and
- Technology support for PGA TOUR Headquarters, PGA TOUR Productions and the Tournament Players Clubs.

IBM was instrumental in the relaunch of pgatour.com and continues its support with on-going Web site enhancements.

This agreement assists the TOUR in broadening the range of information it delivers to fans and showcases IBM's e-business solutions.

KELLER FURNITURE

Keller Furniture is an "Official Sponsor of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." In cooperation with The Weather Channel, Keller cosponsors the Weather Alert Program at TOUR events. This program gives critical advance warning of oncoming storms and lightning during tournaments to protect spectators, TOUR players and officials.

Keller also has launched the PGA TOUR Home Collection of furniture that is being sold through furniture retailers throughout the country. The PGA TOUR Home Collection can be seen at many PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR events throughout the year as part of an on-site presence through its retailers.

LIFIZZ EFFERVESCENT VITAMINS

LiFizz Effervescent Vitamins are the "Official Vitamin and Mineral Supplement of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." LiFizz was co-founded by PGA TOUR player Jesper Parnevik. Proper diet and nutrition have become increasingly important to performance in golf, and LiFizz helps meet that need by providing its exclusive line of products to players on the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Effervescent vitamins, which are formulated in Switzerland, have been available in the European marketplace for more than 20 years. Now available in the United States, LiFizz provides the benefits of fast and fuller nutrient absorption through its unique effervescent delivery method. A complete line of vitamin and mineral products is offered for children and active adults.

In addition to providing vitamin and mineral products to players, LiFizz has the opportunity to leverage this official relationship by sampling product to tournament spectators and through advertising in selected TOUR media properties.

National is title sponsor of the National Car Rental Golf Classic at Walt Disney World Resort.

PEPSI/LIPTON TEA PARTNERSHIP

Lipton joins the PGA TOUR family in 2000 as the Official Iced Tea of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR. Lipton is the leading "ready drink" iced tea brand in North America and will utilize its relationship to further strengthen its marketplace leadership position. Lipton will incorporate its PGA TOUR relationship into a national consumer promotion entitled "Tea it Up" in 2000. Elements will include use of the TOUR logo on packaging and advertising, as well as inclusion of PGA TOUR merchandise as prizes for participating consumers. In addition, Lipton Iced Tea will be made available to PGA TOUR fans at selected TOUR events throughout the year.

PRICewaterhouse COOPERS

PricewaterhouseCoopers enters its fifth year as the Official Professional Services Firm of the SENIOR PGA TOUR." As a part of this agreement, PricewaterhouseCoopers sponsors the electronic scoreboards at SENIOR PGA TOUR events. Strategically located at tournament sites, these scoreboards help spectators and players stay abreast of tournament standings and results.

PricewaterhouseCoopers entertains clients through its use of pro-am spots and corporate hospitality packages. PwC expands business through brand-building via a diversity of media products, including advertising on SENIOR TOUR telecasts, on "inside the SENIOR PGA TOUR" and in PGA TOUR Partners Magazine.

PGA TOUR RETAIL LICENSING & CONSUMER MARKETING

PGA TOUR RETAIL LICENSING

PGA TOUR Retail Licensing encompasses an outstanding group of manufacturers and retailers, resulting in broadened awareness for the PGA TOUR and its players. Domestically and internationally, leading companies provide an expanding range of apparel, accessories, electronic games, publications, and collectibles under license with the PGA TOUR.

The TOUR has a comprehensive domestic presence with more than 35 licensees, led by the PGA TOUR Apparel Collection, manufactured, marketed, and distributed by Eastern Pacific Apparel. The PGA TOUR is also a major retailer in golf with the success of our 34 award-winning PGA TOUR Shops, located primarily in airports. Expanding at a rate of 3 to 5 new stores every year, the PGA TOUR Shops impact over 200 million travelers every year, promoting not only the PGA TOUR, but also our players and tournaments. PGA TOUR merchandise is also available through the very successful PGA TOUR Catalogue and the TOUR's website store located at pgatour.com, allowing consumers to purchase items and have them delivered directly to their homes.

Opened in November 1998 at World Golf Village, the PGA TOUR STOP is a unique 30,000+ square-foot retail and entertainment center with displays of more than 25 brands of golf apparel and equipment. Owned and operated by the W.C. Bradley Company, store combines the finest in shopping and interactive stations, including a swing analyzer, putting area and computer video gaming simulations by Electronic Arts.

Among the core group of licensees is Electronic Arts. Since 1990, Electronic Arts has been the exclusive licensee with the PGA TOUR for electronic games. EA Sports' computer games are on the leading edge of technology in the industry. The year 2000 will bring some exciting new developments in this category, as the TOUR and EA Sports bring golf fans their best opportunity to compete in simulated TOUR competitions. They will compete using brand new technology allowing consumers to play along with the pros in virtual real time. In addition, EA Sports and the PGA TOUR will offer Internet virtual TOUR competition and Java based golf.

PGA TOUR International Licensing, through our agent, Summit Properties International, has established more than 25 licensees internationally, and continues to pursue quality companies with the resources to enhance the PGA TOUR brand image around the world. As the TOUR's exposure grows internationally, this area will continue to expand to meet consumer interest in golf around the world.

CADILLAC AND THE SENIOR PGA TOUR: A PARTNERSHIP

In 2000, Cadillac enters its tenth season as official vehicle and umbrella sponsor of the SENIOR PGA TOUR. This unique partnership with the SENIOR PGA TOUR has given Cadillac the opportunity to help raise more than $41 million for charity, as well as to strengthen relationships with customers by aligning with causes and activities that are most important to them.

The Cadillac Series is a season-long ESPN-televized competition which began with 14 tournaments in 1990 and has grown to 24 tournaments in 2000, with the addition of the Pacific Bell Senior Classic in Los Angeles. The SENIOR PGA TOUR professional who accumulates the most points at the 24 Cadillac Series events throughout the season receives two Cadillacs, and the second and third place winners each receive one Cadillac.

As winner of the 1999 Cadillac Series, Bruce Fleisher received a 2000 DeVille DTS and a 2000 Catera Sport. Second-place finisher Allen Doyle won a 2000 Escalade and third-place finisher Hale Irwin received a 2-year lease on the Cadillac of his choice. Other past winners of the Cadillac Series include Irwin (1997, 1998), Charles Coody (1990), Jim Colbert (1991, 1995, 1996), Lee Trevino (1992, 1993), and Raymond Floyd (1994).

Cadillac's title sponsorship on the SENIOR PGA TOUR, the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic at Upper Montclair Country Club in Clifton, N.J., pairs top senior golfers and National Football League superstars in a unique and exciting format.

Several professional golfers including Tom Watson, Arnold Palmer and Jay Sigel represent Cadillac on the SENIOR PGA TOUR. Team Cadillac also includes PGA TOUR professional Fred Couples.

Team Cadillac members wear the Cadillac wreath and crest on their shirts during all TOUR events, participate in Cadillac advertising, and represent Cadillac at various dealer functions and special events throughout the year.

Cadillac has been involved in national sports sponsorships since 1968, when it became one of two exclusive television sponsors of golf's premier event, the Masters Tournament.

GEORGIA-PACIFIC SUPER SENIORS

Georgia-Pacific, one of the world's leading forest products companies, enters its second year as title sponsor of the Super Seniors at selected tournaments on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

The Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors competition is for players age 60 and older who are entered in the full-field tournament. The winner of each designated Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors "tournament within a tournament" is determined by scores posted during the first two rounds of competition. The Super Seniors compete for a purse of $200,000 per event, with the winning golfer collecting $34,000. Each Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors event is kicked off with a pro-am played Thursday of tournament week at a nearby golf course.

The Super Seniors competition started in 1987 when Howie Johnson topped an eight man field at the Vintage Chrysler Invitational with a 54-hole score of 216. Since then, Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors competitions have featured legendary professionals such as Miller Barber, Tommy Aaron, Billy Casper, Gary Player and Doug Sanders competing for the Super Seniors' money and title. Joining the Georgia-Pacific Super Senior ranks in 2000 is six-time major champion Lee Trevino.

The Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors competition concludes one round prior to the end of the overall tournament (36 holes in a typical 54-hole SENIOR TOUR event). While Super Senior earnings are unofficial, the players also are eligible to collect prize money for their finish in the regular tournament. A player can win both the Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors and the overall tournament in the same week. Five times within the past five years a player has won both the Super Seniors and regular tournament title in the same week. Gary Player was the last to do it at the 1998 Northville Long Island Classic. The others include Jimmy Powell (1995 First of America Classic and 1996 Brickyard Crossing Championship), Bob Charles (1996 Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic) and Dale Douglass (1996 Bell Atlantic Classic).

The Georgia Pacific Super Seniors season culminates at the Ingersoll-Rand SENIOR TOUR Championship to be played in 2000 on the new Tournament Players Club at Myrtle Beach on November 2-5. The purse at this season-ending championship is $650,000 with $138,000 going to the winner. Eligibility for the season-ending, three-round championship is determined by players' positions on the Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors season money list. The top 16 on this year's money list heading into the Ingersoll-Rand SENIOR TOUR Championship are eligible to compete in the Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors Championship.

Mike Hill won the Championship in 1999 and its accompanying $128,000 paycheck.

Georgia-Pacific is the "Official Forest Products Provider of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR." Atlanta-based Georgia-Pacific is one of the world's leading manufacturers and distributors of pulp, paper and building products and related chemicals. The company manufactures thousands of items – ranging from bath tissue and office paper to boxes and lumber— used every day across North America.

BANK OF AMERICA CHARITY CUP

Beginning in 2000, Bank of America will sponsor the Bank of America Charity Cup, a season-long competition for SENIOR PGA TOUR tournaments. A new format for the competition will debut in 2000 which will add an element of strategy and excitement. Participating tournaments will select a different player for each of the 39 SENIOR PGA TOUR official money events via pgatour.com. A player may only be selected once during the course of the year by a given tournament. Total official money won by a tournament's selected players determines the tournament's standings in the competition. Participating tournaments will collectively receive over $600,000 from Bank of America and the SENIOR PGA TOUR for distribution to their local community charities.

TOURNAMENT PLAYERS CLUBS

The PGA TOUR's Tournament Players Club Network has maintained a reputation for operating high-quality clubs since its inception 20 years ago.

The TPC Network continues to grow, with 30 facilities currently open or under construction, including several overseas.

By the end of 1999, eight domestic Tournament Players Clubs either were in the planning or construction stage.

TPCs encompass all forms of golf-related operations — resort facilities, corporate/private membership clubs and daily fee courses — and, as such, PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties, Inc. is able to match the type of facility with the demands of each market in which a club operates.

The Network represents the highest standard in the golf course industry, commensurate with the members of the organization it represents, the players of the PGA TOUR. Each Tournament Players Club embodies the trademark of excellence first established with the flagship TPC at Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, which opened its world-famous Stadium Course in the fall of 1980.

This commitment to overall excellence serves as the foundation for the Network's overall success.

The TPC Network was born through former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman's desire to provide TOUR players with quality golf courses that also would offer spectators enhanced viewing areas.

Beman also reasoned that development of quality facilities would alleviate the TOUR's dependency on the television dollar, while providing rent-free venues for tournaments. The savings in rent, in turn, would generate both increased purses and greater charitable contributions by the tournaments held at TPCs.

The TPC at Sawgrass was the first Tournament Players Club to hold a PGA TOUR event, becoming the permanent home of THE PLAYERS Championship in 1982. Today, a growing number of PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR events are held at TPC facilities each year. In 1999, 16 tournaments were conducted on TPC courses. BUY.COM TOUR events will be played at TPCs in the future.

Many of the top golf course architects are connected with Tournament Players Club projects, including Pete Dye, Tom Fazio, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Tom Weiskopf, Greg Norman and Bob Von Hagge. Palmer, in fact, currently is involved in the design of four new Tournament Players Club courses: the TPC of the Twin Cities, the TPC at River's Bend in Cincinnati, the TPC of Boston and the 54-hole TPC at Lake Nona in Orlando, FL, which also will have courses designed by Fazio and Dye.

Moreover, in recognizing the importance of player input for tournament courses, TOUR members have served as design consultants, working closely with the lead architect. Examples are the two Tournament Players Clubs that opened in 1999: the TPC of Myrtle Beach, designed by Fazio with Lanny Wadkins serving as player consultant; and the TPC of Virginia Beach, designed by Dye with Curtis Strange as player consultant.

Scheduled to open in 2000 are the TPC at Deere Run (Moline, IL), co-designed by D.A. Weibring; the TPC at Wakefield Plantation (Raleigh, NC), designed by Hale Irwin; and the TPC of the Twin Cities, for which Tom Lehman is serving as player consultant.

HUALALAI: FIRST PGA TOUR RESORT

A PGA TOUR RESORT

A designated PGA TOUR Resort provides the highest quality in a total resort facility: five-star accommodations, a championship golf course capable of holding a TOUR event and other outstanding amenities, such as tennis facilities, health spa and beach.

A PGA TOUR Resort will receive special promotion by the TOUR and be utilized as a destination for certain TOUR business functions.

The first facility to be designated a PGA TOUR Resort, Hualalai on the Big Island of Hawaii embodies the absolute quality and character that has become synonymous with the TOUR.

Hualalai is as unique as it is exclusive, an oceanside resort that provides the total vacation experience. Featuring a five-star Four Seasons hotel, its amenities include an outstanding Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course carved from the dramatic lava landscape, a tennis facility with eight championship courts, a health and wellness center and white-sand beach. Complementing the quality of facilities is the quality of service, preserving the warm ambiance of "Old Hawaii."

The exclusivity of Hualalai is consistent with the very nature of the MasterCard Championship. This SENIOR PGA TOUR tournament, held for the first time at Hualalai in January 1997, is an elite gathering of SENIOR TOUR champions from the previous season.

Hualalai features a beautiful Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course.

PGA TOUR PRODUCTIONS

PGA TOUR Productions is the television, film and video production company of the PGA TOUR.

Most people know PGA TOUR Productions by its award-winning "Inside the PGA TOUR" and "Inside the SENIOR PGA TOUR," which are broadcast each week on ESPN and are celebrating their 16th and 10th seasons, respectively. Additionally, PGA TOUR Productions produces "This is The PGA TOUR" for FOX Sports Net.

In addition to the "Inside" shows, Productions has developed an expertise in delivering live and live-to-tape golf events, including the RE/MAX World Long Drive Championship, Chrysler Senior Match Play Challenge and JCPenney Classic, as well as the Touchstone Energy Tucson Open and The Reno-Tahoe Open for CNBC.

Last year, a state-of-the-art studio came on line at World Golf Village for live programming with USA Network. USA Network's early round action will be supplemented in 2000 with studio-based programming produced by Productions.

PGA TOUR Productions also serves a worldwide clientele by producing, in conjunction with the networks, international live telecasts of PGA TOUR events. In 1999, Productions launched the PGA TOUR Enhanced Feed, serving South and Central America, South Africa, Europe and Asia. PGA TOUR Productions' programming is distributed to more than 140 countries, translated into 17 languages and available to more than 250 million homes worldwide.

PGA TOUR Productions is housed in a 32,000-square-foot, all-digital facility at World Golf Village, located in St. Augustine, FL. Along with the latest in television and communications technology, Productions houses the world's most extensive golf footage library. World Golf Village is located adjacent to Interstate 95, just north of St. Augustine.

PGATOUR.com

(On the Internet at <http://www.pgatour.com>)

The PGA TOUR conquered a new frontier when it entered cyberspace on January 8, 1997, quickly becoming one of the most popular sports sites on the World Wide Web.

Two years later, on August 16, 1999, PGATOUR.com joined forces with SportsLine USA, Inc., publisher of CBS SportsLine and GolfWeb, creating the largest, most comprehensive golf content, community and e-commerce site on the Internet.

Since going global, PGATOUR.com has gained a reputation as the Internet authority on golf, with complete coverage of the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR, as well as the latest news, features and statistics from the European Tour, LPGA Tour and other golf organizations worldwide. The combined site also features recreational golf, travel opportunities, instruction and a variety of interactive tools such as the course guide.

PGATOUR.com averages more than 1.5 million page views each day as people access its exclusive features, and among the most popular is real-time scoring. Fans can track their favorite player's progress on a hole-by-hole basis.

New additions like "My Leaderboard" also have proven popular. The interactive feature enables fans to create their own personalized leaderboard to follow up to 10 of their favorite players' scores during tournaments.

The Broadcast Booth provides regular early-round coverage, and PGATOUR.com also features audio links to PGA TOUR Radio broadcasts. Players and fans can participate in chat sessions and listen to press conferences live. Video, instruction and the official online PGA TOUR Shop complete the site.

With the help of Foundation Sponsors Michelob, IBM, Titleist and Buick, PGATOUR.com continues to develop new innovative technology and interactive features that will offer viewers a unique experience while making it the No. 1 destination for golf fans on the Web.

PGA TOUR RADIO

PGA TOUR Radio (PGATR), the exclusive radio rights holder of the PGA TOUR, broadcasts the only live play-by-play coverage of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR. Golf fans are provided with comprehensive, insightful and entertaining Saturday and Sunday coverage for 40 tournaments.

Now in its fourth year of broadcasting, PGA TOUR Radio reaches one-million-plus golf fans through more than 290 radio stations in more than 160 markets in the United States and Canada. Weekly programming consists of the following:

Leaderboard Updates — “news break” tournament summary reports of the day’s leaders and timely story vignette that focus on all three TOURs airing Thursday-Sunday

Straight from the TOUR —one hour magazine show airing on Saturday mornings

Live Play-by-Play — live broadcast two hours each on Saturday and Sunday

PGA TOUR Radio also offers the only live professional golf coverage on the World Wide Web, broadcasting each week on pgatour.com.

Additional information, including broadcast schedules and audio feeds, can be found on pgatourradio.com and pgatour.com.

WORLD GOLF VILLAGE

Bruce Lucker
Chief Operating Officer
World Golf Hall of Fame

World Golf Village is one of the most ambitious projects ever undertaken in golf. Situated along Interstate 95 in Northeast Florida, it is a major international focal point for the game, as well as a premier tourism, business and golf destination.

The Village offers an environment that not only honors the game of golf and its great players, but also provides an entertaining and educational experience for golfers and non-golfers from around the world.

Its centerpiece is the 75,000-square-foot World Golf Hall of Fame, museum and IMAX Theater. Circling the Village Lake is the Walk of Champions, honoring each member of the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Overall, World Golf Village is a celebration of a game rich in history and tradition, a theme that carries beyond the actual Hall of Fame building and into other components of the Village.

The complex also includes the first of three courses for the Saint Johns Development, of which World Golf Village is a part. The course, developed by Scratch Golf, is named "The Slammer and The Squire" after Hall of Fame design consultants Sam Snead and the late Gene Sarazen, who worked with architect Robert Weed. The Slammer and The Squire serves as home for the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, which is played the week before THE PLAYERS Championship.

Hall of Famers Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus are collaborating for the first time on the second golf course, The King & The Bear, which is scheduled to open in the fall of 2000.

Additional amenities at World Golf Village include the 10-story, 300-room Renaissance Hotel and Conference Center, developed by John Q. Hammons, Inc.; The Residences corporate villas by EcoGroup; the Vistana Resort at World Golf Village, a complex of interval vacation villas; The Shops at World Golf Village, an upscale shopping area; plus the headquarters for PGA TOUR Productions. Future components include a golf academy and Mayo Clinic facility.

Shell Oil Company is the Founding Partner of the World Golf Village. The number to call for World Golf Village information is 904-940-4000; its web site is www.wgv.com.

WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

The support the World Golf Hall of Fame has received from the world's major golf organizations distinguishes it as a unique partnership that reflects the universality of the game and promise for further growth.

The Hall of Fame and accompanying exhibits honor the great players and contributors to the game, and entertain and inform the public about the rich history and tradition of golf internationally.

Artifacts from the former World Golf Hall of Fame in Pinehurst, NC were incorporated into the museum exhibits. But the overall experience is intended to interest golfers and non-golfers alike by introducing modern technology and interactive displays that continually are being enhanced.

The building also features an IMAX Theater, with a screen 80 feet high and 60 feet wide, for which a special film about golf is being developed.

The 71 players and contributors inducted into the former Hall of Fame in Pinehurst and/or the LPGA Hall of Fame were "grandfathered" into the new facility. Annual induction ceremonies for newly elected Hall of Fame members are held each year, bringing together dignitaries from throughout the golf world.

The first elections for the PGA TOUR and International Ballots were conducted in 1996 and 1997. Johnny Miller was the only player elected in 1996, receiving the necessary 75 percent of votes on the PGA TOUR Ballot. Seve Ballesteros of Spain and Nick Faldo of England became the first players elected through the International Ballot in 1997, their first year of eligibility. Faldo was inducted in 1998 and Ballesteros was inducted last March with the late Lloyd Mangrum, who was admitted in 1998 via the PGA TOUR Ballot, and LPGA star Amy Alcott.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Willie Anderson

The son of a Scottish greenkeeper, Anderson emigrated to the U.S. at age 15 and became the first dominant player in America. He won the U.S. Open four times before age 27, including three consecutively from 1903 to 1905. Anderson finished in the top five 11 of the 14 times that he competed in the national championship.

Tommy Armour

A native of Edinburgh, the "Silver Scot" won the 1927 U.S. Western Open, the 1930 PGA Championship and the 1931 British Open. One of golf's most respected instructors, Armour excelled despite injuries suffered in World War I that left him with one eye and with metal plates in his head and arm.

Jim Barnes

An assistant pro in England at age 15, Barnes came to America at 19, and between 1916 and 1925 won all the major tournaments of his day: the Western Open in 1914, 1917 and 1919; the first two PGA Championships in 1916 and 1919; the 1921 U.S. Open; and the 1925 British Open.

Julius Boros

An accountant by trade, Boros turned professional at age 30. Just two years later, in 1952, he won the U.S. Open and was named PGA Player of the Year. He claimed a second U.S. Open in 1963 at The Country Club in Brookline, MA, and in 1968 captured the PGA Championship at age 48.

Billy Casper

A brilliant putter, Casper won the Vardon Trophy for lowest scoring average five times and was a member of eight Ryder Cup teams. Of his 60 career victories, three were major championships, including the 1966 U.S. Open, when he came from seven strokes back with nine holes to play to tie Arnold Palmer, then won their playoff.

Harry Cooper

Known as "Lighthorse Harry" for the speed at which he played, Cooper won more than 30 professional tournaments between 1926 and 1942. He was never able to capture a major championship, finishing second on three occasions. In 1937, he won nine tournaments and was the first winner of the Vardon Trophy for lowest scoring average.

Fred Corcoran

As tournament manager of the PGA from 1936 to 1947, Corcoran more than doubled the number of Tour events. Working with Babe Zaharias and Patty Berg, and with financial support from Wilson, he was instrumental in forming the LPGA Tour in 1949. Also a promoter and agent, he founded the Golf Writers Association of America in 1946.

Jimmy Demaret

With a personality as colorful as his wardrobe, Demaret was one of golf's most popular figures for four decades. The Texas native once quit professional golf to become a nightclub singer, but returned in 1938 and won the 1940 Masters. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he won the Masters in 1947 and 1950.

Roberto De Vincenzo

De Vincenzo, a native of Argentina, turned professional in 1938 at age 15. He joined the USPGA in 1947 and collected nine career tour victories. A truly international champion, he won more than 200 tournaments worldwide, most notably the 1967 British Open. In 1980 at Winged Foot, De Vincenzo won the inaugural U.S. Senior Open.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Joseph C. Dey

Golf's most respected administrator, Dey was named Executive Secretary of the USGA in 1934, a position he held for 34 years. As the first commissioner of what became the PGA TOUR, he guided the tournament players in their split from the PGA of America. In 1975 he became the second American to captain the Royal and Ancient.

Nick Faldo

Faldo compiled an astounding record prior to his 1997 election to the Hall of Fame. In 20 years he won more than 40 tournaments worldwide, including three British Opens and three Masters Tournaments, and competed on 11 European Ryder Cup Teams. In 1990, Faldo was the first international player to be named PGA of America Player of the Year.

Raymond Floyd

With the 1969 and 1982 PGA Championships and the 1976 Masters Tournament to his credit, Floyd was already a player of renown when he won his fourth major championship title. In 1986, at age 43, he captured the U.S. Open at Shinnecock Hills. His steely competitiveness carried over to a successful career on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Ralph Guldahl

In 1938, Guldahl quit tournament golf in frustration to sell cars in Dallas. He returned one year later and, with victories at Oakland Hills in 1937 and Cherry Hills in 1938, became one of the few players to capture consecutive U.S. Open titles. He also won three consecutive Western Opens and the 1939 Masters Tournament.

Walter Hagen

Flamboyant and charismatic, Hagen was the first professional to make a living playing golf, rather than teaching it. Wild off the tee, but superb at recovery, his fame mirrored his lifestyle. Captain of the first six American Ryder Cup teams, he won two U.S. Opens, four British Opens and five PGA Championships, including four consecutively.

Bob Harlow

Harlow, a newspaperman from Massachusetts, was best known as the founder of Golf World Magazine. As manager for Walter Hagen from 1921 to 1929, and later for Joe Kirkwood, he arranged exhibitions both nationally and abroad. From 1930 to 1935, he served as tournament manager for the PGA TOUR.

Ben Hogan

Hogan was legendary for his intensity and dedication to perfection. Having already claimed two PGA Championships and the U.S. Open by 1948, he suffered a life-threatening auto accident in 1949. Miraculously, he returned to win the U.S. Open in 1950, 1951 and 1953; the Masters Tournament in 1951 and 1953; and the 1953 British Open.

Hale Irwin

An All-America in golf and All-Conference in football at the University of Colorado, Irwin won the 1967 NCAA Golf Championship. Between 1974 and 1990, he captured three U.S. Open titles, the last at age 45 in a 19-hole playoff. After 1995, he devoted himself to golf course design and the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Lawson Little

Stocky and powerful, but renowned for his short game, Little's greatest achievements came as an amateur. In 1934 and 1935, he captured the "Little Slam," winning both the U.S. and British Amateur Championships. After turning professional in 1936, he won seven events, most notably the 1940 U.S. Open in a playoff with Gene Sarazen.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Gene Littler

Littler's first PGA TOUR win came in 1954 as an amateur. His last was in 1977 at age 47. He won the U.S. Amateur in 1953 and the U.S. Open in 1961, but lost both the Masters Tournament and the PGA Championship in playoffs. Littler amassed a total of 29 career PGA TOUR victories.

Lloyd Mangrum

Known as a tough competitor with an aggressive style of play, Mangrum competed in an era that also included Hall of Famers Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson, Jimmy Demaret and Sam Snead. He counted the 1946 U.S. Open among his 36 career victories.

Cary Middlecoff

After becoming the first amateur to win the North and South Open, Dr. Middlecoff abandoned a career in dentistry and turned professional in 1947. A brilliant analyst of the game and the golf swing, he won the U.S. Open in 1949 and 1956 and the Masters Tournament in 1955. He retired with 37 career victories.

Johnny Miller

Miller dominated international golf in the early 1970s, winning 20 tournaments in six years. A remarkable 63 in the final round secured his victory in the 1973 U.S. Open at Oakmont. Winner of the 1976 British Open at Royal Birkdale, Miller gained renown as a television commentator before joining the SENIOR PGA TOUR in 1997.

Byron Nelson

"Lord Byron" won two Masters Tournaments, two PGA Championships and the 1939 U.S. Open. He is best remembered for his 1945 season, when he won 19 tournaments, including 11 consecutively, finished second seven times and compiled a remarkable stroke average of 68.33. In 1947, at age 34, Nelson retired to his ranch in Texas.

Jack Nicklaus

The legendary Bobby Jones said of him: "He plays a game with which I am not familiar." In his monumental career, Nicklaus amassed 18 professional major championship victories, far surpassing any golfer before or since. With more than 100 victories around the world, "The Golden Bear" is arguably the best golfer of the modern era.

Arnold Palmer

The most charismatic player in history, Palmer's emergence in the late 1950s coincided with televised golf to generate unprecedented interest in the game. Arnie won the U.S. Amateur in 1954 and the U.S. Open in 1960. Also among the more than 80 professional victories he collected were four Masters Tournaments, two British Opens and five major championships on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Gary Player

South African Gary Player made up for his diminutive size with a rigorous schedule of fitness training and persistent practice unequalled in golf. His career victories numbered more than 120 worldwide and included all four major championships. Player found later success as a dominant force on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Chi Chi Rodriguez

Rodriguez won eight PGA TOUR events and collected more than 20 SENIOR PGA TOUR titles in his career. But it is his charitable work that will be best remembered. His pro-am tournament helped fund the Children's Hospital in his native Puerto Rico, and his Youth Foundation raised millions for disadvantaged children in Florida.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Paul Runyan

Although one of the shortest hitters of his time, Runyan won more than 50 professional tournaments. After joining the Tour in 1933, he captured 16 events in two years and was leading money-winner in 1933 and 1934. A highly regarded short game and putting instructor, he won the PGA Championship twice, in 1934 and 1938.

Gene Sarazen

Sarazen was the first golfer to win all four major championships. He won the U.S. Open in 1922 and 1932; the PGA in 1922, 1923, and 1933; and the British Open in 1932. But his victory in the 1935 Masters Tournament is best remembered for a remarkable final-round double-eagle on the 15th hole at Augusta National.

Horton Smith

In 1929, at age 21, Smith played in 19 professional events, winning eight and finishing second four times. He remained a top professional throughout the 1930s, winning the first and third Masters Tournaments in 1934 and 1936. His last tournament win came in 1941, the year before he left golf to join the army.

Sam Snead

"Slammin' Sam" Snead is renowned for his classical swing and the longevity of his career. The winner of three PGA Championships, three Masters Tournaments and the British Open, he made eight Ryder Cup appearances and was captain of the U.S. Team three times. Snead recorded 81 Tour victories, his last in 1965 at age 52.

Peter Thomson

One of the most intriguing players the game has known, the Australian-born Thomson captured five British Open titles between 1954 and 1965, including three consecutively from 1954 to 1956. With wide interests that ranged from politics to music, Thomson maintained successful careers as a writer and golf course architect outside of competition.

Lee Trevino

The ultimate self-made champion, Trevino made the transition from assistant professional at a Texas driving range to U.S. Open champion. He captured that title twice, in 1968 and 1971. With two British Opens, two PGA Championships and six Ryder Cup appearances to his credit, he later had a dominant career on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Tom Watson

Watson's major championship victories included five British Opens and two Masters Tournaments. His victory in the 1982 U.S. Open featured a dramatic chip-in on the 17th hole at Pebble Beach. Arguably the most consistent player for a decade, he was the PGA TOUR's leading money-winner and Player of the Year four consecutive times from 1977 to 1980.

CHARITABLE MISSION OF THE WORLD GOLF FOUNDATION

World Golf Foundation, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that has received the support of all major golf organizations throughout the world. The responsibilities of the World Golf Foundation include managing the World Golf Hall of Fame, the IMAX Theater and various charitable initiatives.

As the Founding Partner of World Golf Village, Shell Oil Company provides financial support and plays a lead role in the World Golf Hall of Fame and its charities.

One of the World Golf Foundation's charitable missions, on behalf of the supporting golf organizations, is to introduce golf to those who otherwise may not have an opportunity to experience the game, and through the golf experience promote scholastic achievement, community service, and the values of honesty, integrity and sportsmanship.

To this end, The First Tee was introduced in Nov. 1997 as an initiative to create new facilities and affordable access to golf. This initiative has the support and participation of various key sectors, including leading golf organizations and foundations, and a wide range of public sector constituencies.

"We want to create affordable entry points to golf for everyone who is interested in playing the game," said former President George Bush, Honorary Chairman of The First Tee.

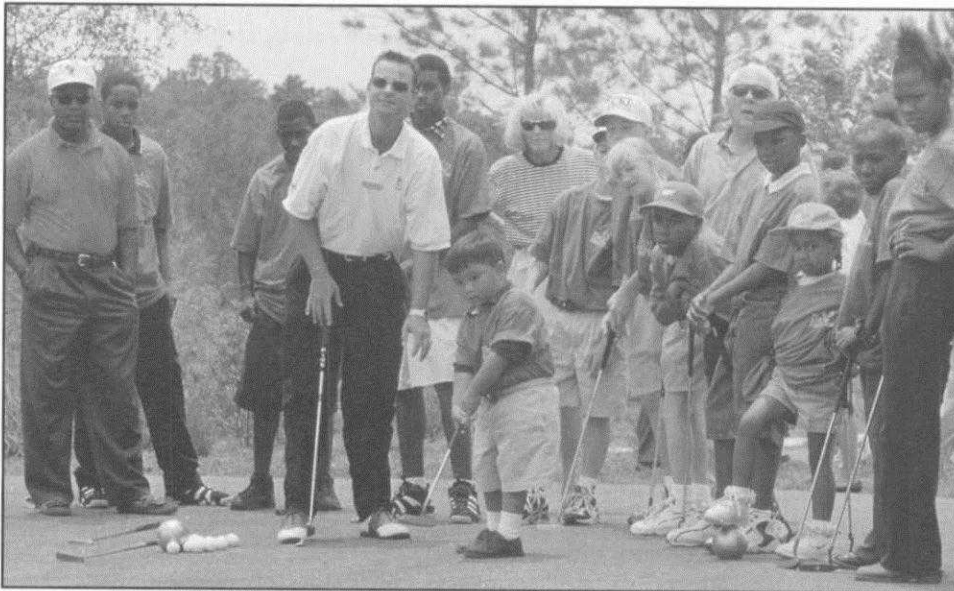

The vision is to create hundreds of facilities and programs throughout the United States over the next 10 years, impacting those who have not had exposure to the game, particularly youth.

"Those of us who believe in the values of golf want to see the opportunity to play the game extended to all segments of our population," said Tim Finchem, PGA TOUR Commissioner and Chairman of the World Golf Foundation Board of Directors. "This program, The First Tee, can have a tremendous impact on golf – but, more importantly, it can have a real impact on the lives of young people who are attracted to the game."

A menu of model programs can be implemented in communities based on land availability, existing golf facilities, area needs and the level of support of municipalities and other youth programs.

The First Tee provides golf management expertise, consulting services and land planning to communities and organizations interested in having The First Tee in their areas. While proceeds from the World Golf Hall of Fame benefit The First Tee, public-private partnerships in each community are the primary funding source for each facility.

"With the support of the public and private sectors, and with the expertise of so many golf organizations available to this program, golf will find its way into new communities and new segments of the population," Finchem said.

THE FIRST TEE

The First Tee is a World Golf Foundation initiative to create new facilities and affordable access to golf, with special emphasis on youngsters who otherwise may not have an opportunity to experience the game.

The initial goal of The First Tee was to identify sites for 100 golf facilities in various stages of planning, development and operation by the end of the year 2000. Each of these facilities will have the capability of introducing golf to as many as 1,000 children and adults annually.

The First Tee is well on its way to fulfilling that initial goal. In October of 1999, nearly two years after the initiative first was announced, the second First Tee National Association meeting was held in Houston. More than 400 civic, business and political leaders attended, representing more than 75 First Tee Chapters or Chapters in development and 100 communities.

The true value of the program is based on golf's unique ability to instill and nurture essential values, such as honesty, integrity, sportsmanship and a solid work ethic in young people who are introduced to the game.

This initiative has the support and participation of a variety of key sectors:

- The leading U.S. golf organizations, including the PGA TOUR, United States Golf Association, PGA of America, Ladies Professional Golf Association and Augusta National Golf Club, which are represented on the First Tee Oversight Committee.
- A wide range of public sector constituencies, including the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Bureau of Land Management, National Association of Parks and Recreation, National League of Cities, U.S. Conference of Mayors and the National Association of County Officials.
- A variety of groups, including the Tiger Woods Foundation and the National Minority Golf Foundation, dedicated to extending the reach of golf to new segments of the population.

The First Tee currently is focused on developing financial support and acquiring locations for these golf facilities. Common types of facilities include a three-hole course, a nine-hole executive length course, a full-scale 18-hole course and a 21-hole facility. All of these facilities will feature extensive teaching and practice areas and a multi-use clubhouse.

The development effort depends on support from prominent individuals and organizations who appreciate the values instilled by golf and the game's ability to positively influence young people's lives.

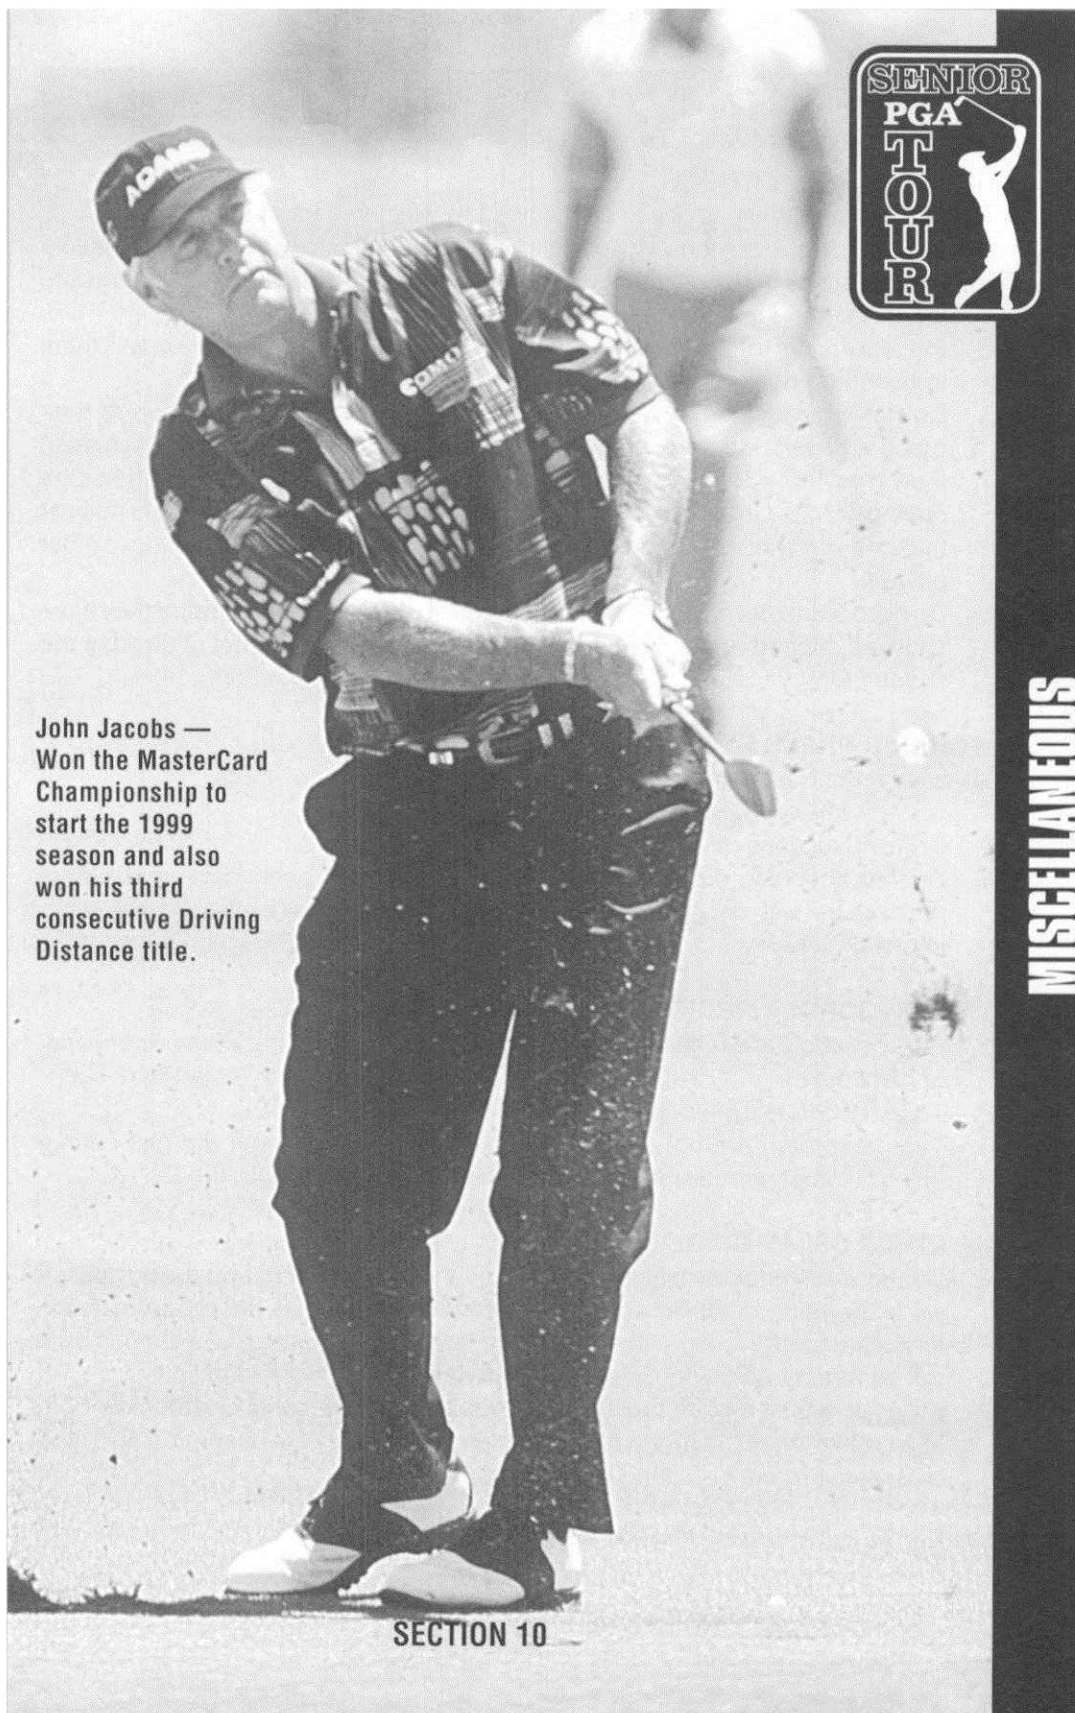

Primary contributions of the initiative include the provision of expertise and consulting advice, land planning services and other services to reduce the total cost of each project.

Funds raised will be leveraged through public-private partnerships to significantly increase the impact of the initial contributions.

The First Tee Board of Trustees oversees the fundraising, budget and program functions of The First Tee. President George Bush is Honorary Chairman of the initiative.

PGA TOUR MEDIA REGULATIONS

GENERAL REGULATIONS

The following regulations are to be followed by all members of the media:

1. A daily "inside the ropes" access sticker is necessary to walk inside the gallery ropes. Remain not more than an arm's length from the ropes, so as to blend into the gallery and appear to be a part of the gallery at all times.
2. Players are not to be distracted during play. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their rounds.
3. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their practice sessions before a round, except by prior arrangement with the player.
4. If an interview is to be conducted in the practice areas, either the range or the putting green, it must be done by prior arrangement with the player, up against the ropes and not in the middle of the areas where it could be distracting to other players.
5. Do not disturb players at their 18th green and/or scoring tent until after they have checked, signed and returned their scorecards. Media are not allowed in the scoring tent.

WORKING PRESS REGULATIONS

To avoid embarrassment to you and distraction to the contestants:

1. Do not walk or stand in playing areas.
2. Follow directions of marshals and other officials.
3. Do not interview during play. The leading players each day—and others requested—will be interviewed following their rounds in the Press Room interview area.

TAPE RECORDER REGULATIONS

1. All tape recorder work should be done in the proximity of the Press Room and/or clubhouse.
2. Tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.
3. Tape recorders are not permitted within the playing area of the golf course unless written permission has been granted from PGA TOUR.

WEATHER DELAY GUIDELINES

1. During weather delay situations, no one other than players and essential staff will be permitted in the locker room. This means the media are not permitted in the locker room in such situations. However, whenever possible, arrangements will be made to provide players for interviews during such situations.
2. Fully accredited members of the news media will be welcome in the locker room at all other times to carry out their assigned duties. (Note: Cameras and tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.)

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

Photo credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized and accredited publications or news services. Requests for credentials must be made by the appropriate news agency, not by the photographer. PGA TOUR reserves the right to refuse photo credentials in its sole discretion.

Photographic likenesses of PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR players and tournament courses may be used only by the news agency which the photographer represents. Any other use must be approved in advance in writing by PGA TOUR.

Commercial exploitation of player or course photographs without written consent of the players or courses and PGA TOUR is prohibited.

A limited number of photo stickers, which permit the wearer access inside the gallery ropes, may be issued. Photographers who do not have stickers must stay outside the gallery ropes. Photographic assistants will not be issued stickers.

Cameras may be used only by accredited media representatives who have been assigned photo credentials, and such use is subject to the following conditions:

1. Photographers with stickers must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. Photographers without stickers are not permitted inside the ropes at any time.
2. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
3. Photographers must not position themselves in the line of play. If requested to move by a player, his caddie or an official, the photographer will do so without delay or discussion.
4. No photograph shall be taken until a player has completed his stroke.
5. Players should not be asked to pose during a round.
6. Noise-free equipment must be used at all times.
7. Cameras are not permitted in the scoring tent or in the locker rooms.

The Photographer shall indemnify, defend and hold the Tournament and the PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with (1) the unauthorized use of photographs taken by the Photographer, whether such unauthorized use is by the Photographer, the company designating the Photographer to use the credential on its behalf, or some third party to whom the photographs are distributed; (2) any injuries resulting from acts or omissions by the Photographer or some third party to whom the Photographer directly or indirectly distributed the material; (3) any cameras, wires, cables or other equipment brought to the premises by the Photographer, or (4) the use of any photographs of any matter other than coverage of the Tournament.

TELEVISION COVERAGE REGULATIONS

The PGA TOUR retains exclusive television rights (including but not limited to broadcast, cable, home video) to all events on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR. No live or tape-delayed broadcast of any portion of any PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR or NIKE TOUR event is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR.

In most cases, play-by-play television rights have been sold for network broadcast.

Stations or networks that have not purchased the rights to originate play-by-play coverage of events from the PGA TOUR are permitted to broadcast highlights coverage of such events only under the following conditions:

1. Televised coverage shall not be in excess of three minutes of highlights daily from each TOUR (and six minutes total for all three TOURs) and may not purport to be live, play-by-play coverage from the course. Requests for expanded coverage must be submitted in writing to PGA TOUR.
2. All highlights coverage must be part of regularly scheduled news and/or sports programs.
3. Highlights from any day's play may not be broadcast or used for any other purpose after seven days from the conclusion of play each day.
4. No action footage of any day's play may be broadcast until that day's live or tape-delayed coverage by the television network is concluded.
5. No footage may be inserted into any commercial announcement or sold to any other broadcast entity or agency.
6. As the exclusive rights holder, PGA TOUR is the absolute owner of all footage shot at the tournament site (golf action or other footage) and may request copies of any footage shot at PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR events. Such footage will be provided to the TOUR at cost upon request.
7. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
8. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be allowed inside the gallery ropes, and they must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. All support personnel must remain outside the ropes.

RADIO COVERAGE REGULATIONS

The PGA TOUR retains exclusive national radio rights to all events on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR.

No live or tape-delayed broadcast of any portion of any PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR or NIKE TOUR event is permitted without the prior written consent of the PGA TOUR.

In some cases, play-by-play radio rights have been sold for network broadcast.

Stations or networks that have not purchased the rights to originate play-by-play coverage of events from the PGA TOUR are permitted to broadcast highlights coverage of such events only under the following conditions:

1. Coverage shall not be in excess of three minutes of highlights and may not purport to be live, play-by-play coverage from the course.
2. All highlights coverage must be part of regularly scheduled news and/or sports programs and may not be broadcast after seven days from the conclusion of play on that day.
3. As the exclusive rightsholder, PGA TOUR may request copies of any coverage of PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR events. Such coverage will be provided to the TOUR at cost upon request.
4. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
5. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be permitted into the media center and locker room areas.
6. Radio broadcasters are not permitted inside the gallery ropes at any time.
7. Broadcasters are not permitted to talk to players during play or after the round until the player has signed his scorecard.
8. Tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.

INTERNET SERVICE REGULATIONS

Media credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized golf or legitimate news internet sites, as determined by PGA TOUR in its sole discretion. Individuals representing multiple interests (such as a recognized golf magazine and an internet site) must agree to be bound by all applicable media regulations.

PGA TOUR retains exclusive broadcast rights (including but not limited to network, cable, internet, home video) to all events on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR. No live or tape-delayed delivery of any event is permitted without the prior written consent of the PGA TOUR. Scores and statistics may be distributed only in accordance with these regulations.

1. Coverage must be part of the news portion of the site and must not purport to be live, play-by-play, or real-time coverage from the course.
2. Scoring information appearing on a site may be provided no sooner than thirty minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots, or after the time such information is legally available as public domain information if sooner than thirty minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots.
3. Photographic images of PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR players may be used for legitimate news coverage only, and may be used together with news stories during the day's play, so long as such photographs are not used with other real time or near real-time information to create a "shot-by-shot" account of the day's play. Commercial exploitation of these images without written consent of the players and PGA TOUR is prohibited.

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT TEAM

Edward L. Moorhouse, 46, has been Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer of the PGA TOUR since 1994.

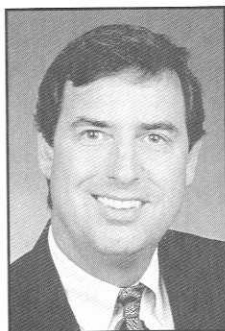

Among his areas of responsibility on the Commissioner's Executive Management Team are Legal Affairs, Championship Management, Tournament Business Affairs, On-Site Tournament Operations, Tournament Planning, International, Broadcasting, Television, Communications and Public Relations, New Media and PGA TOUR Productions.

A 1975 summa cum laude graduate of Georgetown University with a degree in government, Moorhouse received his law degree (JD) with high honors from the University of Florida in 1978.

Moorhouse was a member of the Jacksonville (FL) law firm Smith and Hulsey for six years before joining the TOUR as Senior Vice President and Counsel for PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties in 1985.

and Chief Legal Officer

Charles L. Zink
Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

Charles L. Zink, 51, joined the PGA TOUR staff in 1986. He was promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer in 1994.

As a member of the Commissioner's Executive Management Team, Zink is responsible for Strategic Business Planning, Financial Strategies and Operations, Business Development, Corporate Marketing, Retail Licensing, Player/Employee Benefit Plans, Tournament Players Club Development and Operations, TPC Village, PGA TOUR Charities, Inc., World Golf Village Development and Operations, and The First Tee program of the World Golf Foundation.

A 1971 graduate of the University of Maryland in Finance and Business Management, Zink earned a second degree in Accounting from The University of Maryland in 1975, following his military duties. He is also a former member of The University of Maryland golf team.

Before joining the TOUR staff, Zink served four years as a Lieutenant in the United States Navy and had 11 years of experience with Price Waterhouse and Coopers & Lybrand in both Washington, D.C. and the United Kingdom in large and emerging business, financial management and audit. He is a licensed Certified Public Accountant in the State of Maryland.

Jeffrey R. Monday
Senior Vice President
and Chief of Operations

Jeff Monday joined the PGA TOUR in 1988 as a member of the Tournament Operations staff. He then served as Executive Director of the PGA TOUR Tournament Association from 1990-94 before returning to the PGA TOUR to serve as Vice President of Retail Marketing from 1994-97. In 1998, he was named Vice President of the Tournament Business Affairs Department with responsibilities for the strategic planning for all tournaments on both the SENIOR PGA TOUR and the NIKE TOUR. In January, 1999, he was promoted to the newly-created post of Senior Vice President and Chief of Operations for the SENIOR PGA TOUR. Under the new organizational structure, all elements of the day-to-day management of SENIOR PGA TOUR events are under his direction. Specifically, the Rules, Administration, Operations, Championship Management and Tournament Business Affairs departments report directly to him. Jeff reports to the Office of the Commissioner.

NOTES

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is a faint vertical crease down the center, suggesting it might be a notebook page or designed for two columns of writing. The paper appears slightly aged or off-white.

THINGS TO LOOK FOR IN 2000

- Gary Player is seeking to become the second player to win at least one event in six different decades. Sam Snead won tournaments on the PGA and SENIOR PGA TOURs in six decades (1930s, 1940s, 1950s, 1960s, 1970s and 1980s).
- Hale Irwin needs four wins to surpass Lee Trevino for career victories on the SENIOR PGA TOUR. Irwin begins 2000 with 25 official titles since joining the circuit midway through the 1995 season.
- Jim Dent will be looking to finish in the top 31 for the 12th consecutive year, the best current streak on the SENIOR TOUR. He has accomplished that feat every season since joining the circuit in 1989.
- Hale Irwin will be seeking to win at least one official tournament for a sixth consecutive season, the longest current streak on the SENIOR TOUR. The all-time record is nine by Miller Barber (1981-89).
- Speaking of Irwin, should he win five events, it will mark the fourth season he has won at least five events.
- Gil Morgan will be looking to post a victory for the fifth consecutive season.
- Should he capture the Arnold Palmer Award again, Bruce Fleisher would become the seventh player to repeat as the leading money-winner. Irwin was the last of just six players to claim back-to-back money titles in 1997-98.
- The PGA Seniors' Championship will be the 600th official event in SENIOR TOUR history. The Novell Utah Showdown was the 500th event in 1997.
- Hale Irwin needs to win $354,515 to become the first player in history to win $10 million on the SENIOR TOUR. He was the first to eclipse $9 million when he did so at last year's Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic.
- Lee Trevino (January), Jack Nicklaus (January), Jim Albus (June), Simon Hobday (June) and J.C. Snead (October) become eligible for the Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors program.
- Should a rookie claim the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner, he will be just the fifth player to do so. The others were Miller Barber (1981), Bruce Crampton (1986), Lee Trevino (1990) and Bruce Fleisher (1999).
- John Jacobs will be seeking his fourth consecutive Driving Distance title. The record is six by Jim Dent (1989-95).
- Gil Morgan is seeking his fourth consecutive All-Around statistical title.
- Lanny Wadkins and Tom Kite become eligible at the Royal Caribbean Classic and only eight players have won their first start. Bruce Fleisher was the last to do so at last year's event.
