Official Media Guide of the BUY.COM TOUR

A MESSAGE TO THE MEDIA

Welcome to the home of great golf and new stars—the BUY.COM TOUR.

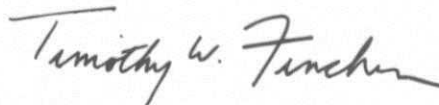

We are very grateful for the tremendous support you have shown this TOUR over its first decade and are sure that you again will play a significant role in telling the story under its new name.

The BUY.COM TOUR begins the 2000 season with significant changes—a new umbrella sponsor, greatly increased purses, new excitement and, for the first time, Official World Golf Ranking points for our winners.

The BUY.COM TOUR offers not only world-class golf to 30 markets across the United States and Mexico, but it offers opportunity to the young men competing on this TOUR. A decade of success by alums on the PGA TOUR is clear evidence that the BUY.COM TOUR has earned a place amidst the world's leading professional tours.

In addition to offering quality competition, the BUY.COM TOUR returns substantial dollars to local charitable concerns. In 1999, its events raised a record $2.9 million for charity. All told, nearly $17 million in charity dollars was raised in the first decade of the TOUR's operation.

We hope this publication will be a useful tool during your coverage of BUY.COM TOUR events. Our Media Officials are available on site every week to assist you, as are the other members of the Communications Department in our headquarters. Please do not hesitate to contact any of our staff if we can be of assistance.

A HISTORY OF THE BUY.COM TOUR

Even the most optimistic person couldn't have foreseen the success of the BUY.COM TOUR when it kicked off its inaugural season on Thursday, Feb. 2, 1990 at 7:30 a.m. PST at Bakersfield CC in Bakersfield, CA.

The BUY.COM TOUR began under corporate sponsorship of the Ben Hogan Company as the Ben Hogan Tour. The idea of former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane R. Beman, the BUY.COM TOUR was designed as a proving ground for up-and-coming golfers, as well as a place for PGA TOUR veterans to hone their skills as they prepared for the SENIOR PGA TOUR. It has become so much more than that.

For the first two years of the TOUR, the top-5 money winners were awarded PGA TOUR membership. Beginning in 1992, the PGA TOUR Tournament Policy Board voted that, due to the success graduating players had on the PGA TOUR, that number would be increased to 10; and in 1997 the number was increased to 15.

That first event in 1990 was won by Mike Springer, who went on to win two more times that year and finish fourth on the money list. He was joined by Jim McGovern, Dick Mast, Ed Humenik and Jeff Maggert, who was leading money-winner and Player of the Year, in the first graduating class.

However, the player who made the biggest impact on the PGA TOUR from the 1990 Ben Hogan Tour was John Daly, winner of the only Ben Hogan Tour Qualifying Tournament. Daly won the PGA Championship as a rookie and went on to finish 17th on the 1991 PGA TOUR money list. Since then, he has added three more victories, including another major championship, the 1995 British Open.

Tom Lehman first established himself as a topflight player on the 1991 Ben Hogan Tour. After two nondescript years on the PGA TOUR in the early 1980s, Lehman won a tournament on the 1990 Ben Hogan Tour. But 1991 was the breakthrough season in his comeback. He won three times that year and was the circuit's leading money-winner.

Californian John Flannery was the dominant player on the 1992 Ben Hogan Tour, winning three times and leading the tour in earnings with $164,114. His successful campaign made him the Ben Hogan Tour's third Player of the Year.

The big news of 1992 didn't happen on the golf course. It was announced on August 26, 1992 that Nike Inc. would take over sponsorship of the Ben Hogan Tour beginning with the 1993 season.

Sean Murphy was the star of the 1993 NIKE TOUR. He set records for wins in a season with four, career victories with five, and single-season earnings with $166,293. He added a sixth title in 1995.

While Murphy was busy setting records, his fellow BUY.COM TOUR alumni were busy making a name for themselves on the PGA TOUR. Daly had already collected his second career win in the 1992 B.C. Open, and others were beginning to earn their own hardware. Jim McGovern, Mike Standly and Jeff Maggert all collected PGA TOUR titles in 1993, while Mike Springer and Greg Kraft grabbed a pair of unofficial wins.

The NIKE TOUR Championship also was established in 1993 as a climax to the season. Rookie David Duval won the first NIKE TOUR Championship, which features only the top-50 money-winners during the year.

Mike Springer won the Bakersfield Open, the first-ever BUY.COM TOUR event, on Feb. 5, 1990.

On the 1994 NIKE TOUR, Chris Perry showed that consistency has its own rewards. Although six players collected multiple victories that year, Perry's lone title in the NIKE Utah Classic and his consistent strong play over the course of the season earned NIKE TOUR Player of the Year honors. He set a single-season earnings record with $167,148 and collected 10 top-10 finishes. He made every cut that season.

The 1994 NIKE TOUR season saw a number of firsts. In June, Tommy Armour III became the first player to win back-to-back tournaments, the NIKE Miami Valley Open and NIKE Cleveland Open. During the second round of the 1994 NIKE Shreveport Open, Omar Uresti set a record with nine consecutive birdies. That not only stands as the BUY.COM TOUR standard, but it is better than the records on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR or European Tour.

In May, Vic Wilk became the first left-hander to win a BUY.COM TOUR event, the Knoxville Open.

Jerry Kelly continued the trend of the leading money-winner setting an earnings record in 1995 when he earned $188,878 to better Perry's year-old record. Besides winning twice, Kelly posted 15 top-10 finishes.

Celebrated amateur Allen Doyle played the NIKE TOUR after turning professional in the spring. He won his second event, the NIKE Mississippi Gulf Coast Classic and added two more titles on his way to a second-place finish on the 1995 money list. In 1996, he was the oldest rookie in PGA TOUR history at age 47.

Stewart Cink was the top story of the 1996 NIKE TOUR season. The 1995 College Player of the Year became the first player in BUY.COM TOUR history to earn more than $200,000 in a single season with $251,699. He won three times, including the season-ending NIKE TOUR Championship, and collected 14 top-10 finishes in only 21 events.

Michael Christie also was dominant in 1996, collecting three wins. In his win in Greenville, SC, he matched the BUY.COM TOUR record for lowest score in a 72-hole tournament. He matched the 54-hole tournament record as well when he won the Utah Classic.

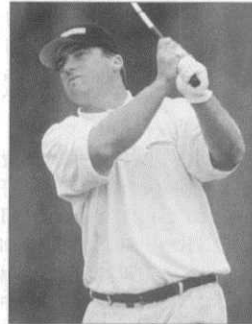

The 1997 season began with the announcement that the PGA TOUR Policy Board had increased the number of NIKE TOUR exemptions onto the PGA TOUR from 10 to 15, further enhancing the TOUR's reputation as a proving ground for the next generation of PGA TOUR champions.

The 1997 season also marked the first year of the "Battlefield Promotion," which grants immediate access to the PGA TOUR for any player who wins three events in a season. Chris Smith was the first BUY.COM TOUR player to earn this promotion. He immediately made his presence felt on the PGA TOUR by making the cut in each of his six PGA TOUR events and finishing in fourth place at the CVS Charity Classic.

On the NIKE TOUR, Smith had a record-breaking season. He won at the NIKE Upstate Classic, the NIKE Dakota Dunes Open and NIKE Omaha Classic in back-to-back weeks. With the wins at Dakota Dunes and Omaha, he joined Tommy Armour III and Jerry Haas as the only players to win consecutive tournaments. He also became the first player to win the same tournament twice, having won the NIKE Dakota Dunes Open in 1995.

Smith's victory in Omaha was a record-setting affair. His 26-under-par 258 total was the record for most strokes under par and low total. His 11-stroke margin of victory is also the BUY.COM TOUR record.

In October, Steve Flesch joined Wilk as the only left-handed winners with a win in the NIKE TOUR Championship. That victory vaulted him from 24th on the money list to fourth, Chris Smith became the only player to earn a "Battlefield Promotion" to the PGA TOUR with three victories in 1997.

earning him PGA TOUR membership for 1998.

The 1998 season saw more of the kind of action for which the BUY.COM TOUR has become known. During a three-week period late in the spring, Notah Begay III and Doug Dunakey caught the attention of the golf world when each recorded a 59 in competition.

Begay's 13-under-par 59 came in the second round of the NIKE Dominion Open and was highlighted by a five-hole stretch that saw him go birdie, birdie, eagle, birdie, ace (eagle). He shot a 9-under-par 27 on his incoming nine to ensure his place in the record books.

Three weeks later, Dunakey turned his own 27, this one 8-under-par, into a place in the BUY.COM TOUR record book alongside Begay. Amazingly, Dunakey could have had the record on his own, with only a three-putt bogey on his final hole keeping him from posting an incredible 58.

Begay was involved in another piece of BUY.COM TOUR history when he and Eric Booker engaged in the longest playoff in BUY.COM TOUR history, a nine-hole affair that Booker finally won by with a par.

Not only were there personal milestones on the 1998 NIKE TOUR, but the tour itself celebrated one when the NIKE Cleveland Open played host to the 250th event in TOUR history.

Bob Burns was named 1998 NIKE TOUR Player of the Year after leading in earnings with $178,664 and winning at the NIKE Dominion Open and NIKE TOUR Championship.

The 1999 season saw Carl Paulson establish a new BUY.COM TOUR record for consecutive starts with 83. The 83rd start was a significant one for him as he recorded his first-ever BUY.COM TOUR victory at the Utah Classic. That win, and another two weeks later in Boise, vaulted Paulson to the top of the money list. He was rewarded for his efforts when his peers selected him as the BUY.COM TOUR Player of the Year.

Seven players won twice on the TOUR in 1999 and a record 22 players earned more than $100,000.

One of the top players on the 1999 NIKE TOUR was Marco Dawson, who began the season without playing privileges. He eventually played his way onto the TOUR and, while he did not win a tournament, finished third on the money list with over $200,000. He also led the NIKE TOUR in Scoring Average and recorded 11 top-10 finishes in 21 starts.

The season-ending NIKE TOUR Championship was an thrilling affair played at the Robert Trent Jones Trail Highland Oaks GC in Dothan, AL. Bob Heintz won his second event of the season in a playoff with Dawson to take home the largest first-place prize in TOUR history—$72,000.

The most exciting news of the season, however, took place off the golf course when buy.com signed on in late October as the new umbrella sponsor of the TOUR. With buy.com's significant financial contribution, BUY.COM TOUR events will grow tremendously in 2000, with minimum purses growing from $225,000 to $400,000. The average purse in 2000 will be $427,500 compared to $255,000 just last year.

PGA TOUR POLICY BOARD

The PGA TOUR Policy Board establishes goals and policies for the operation of the PGA TOUR. The nine-member Board is composed of the following:

Four Player Directors elected by the PGA TOUR membership. A Player Director also serves as Vice President of the PGA of America.

Four Independent Directors, representing the public interest. One serves as Chairman of the Board.

One PGA of America Director, who is a national officer of the PGA of America.

A Players Advisory Council consults with the Policy Board.

The Policy Board appoints the Commissioner as chief executive and administrative officer of the PGA TOUR. The tournament staff, serving under the Commissioner, conducts tournament play.

ABOUT THE COMMISSIONER

Timothy W. Finchem

Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem, 52, is the third Commissioner of the PGA TOUR.

Finchem succeeded Deane R. Beman as Commissioner on June 1, 1994. Beman had served for 20 years, replacing the late Joseph C. Dey, who had been the TOUR's Commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Finchem, Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer of the TOUR under Beman since 1989, had joined the TOUR staff as Vice President of Business Affairs in 1987.

As Commissioner, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players domestically and internationally. He also has taken leadership roles in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation, Inc.

His personal dedication to the success of the World Golf Foundation's First Tee initiative has helped that program achieve its initial objectives in developing facilities that will have an impact on the game for years to come.

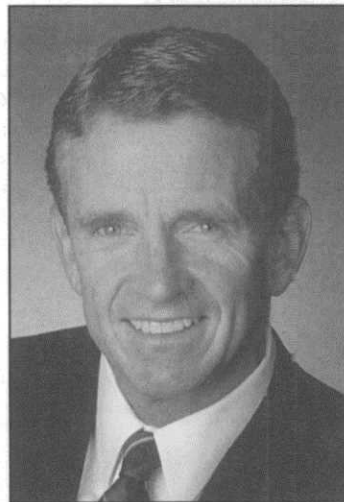

"Our primary purpose as a membership organization is to create outstanding playing and earnings opportunities for our players," Finchem says, "and we are proud of what our tournaments do for charity (more than $500 million raised) and the active role we have been able to take as an organization in growing the game for future generations."

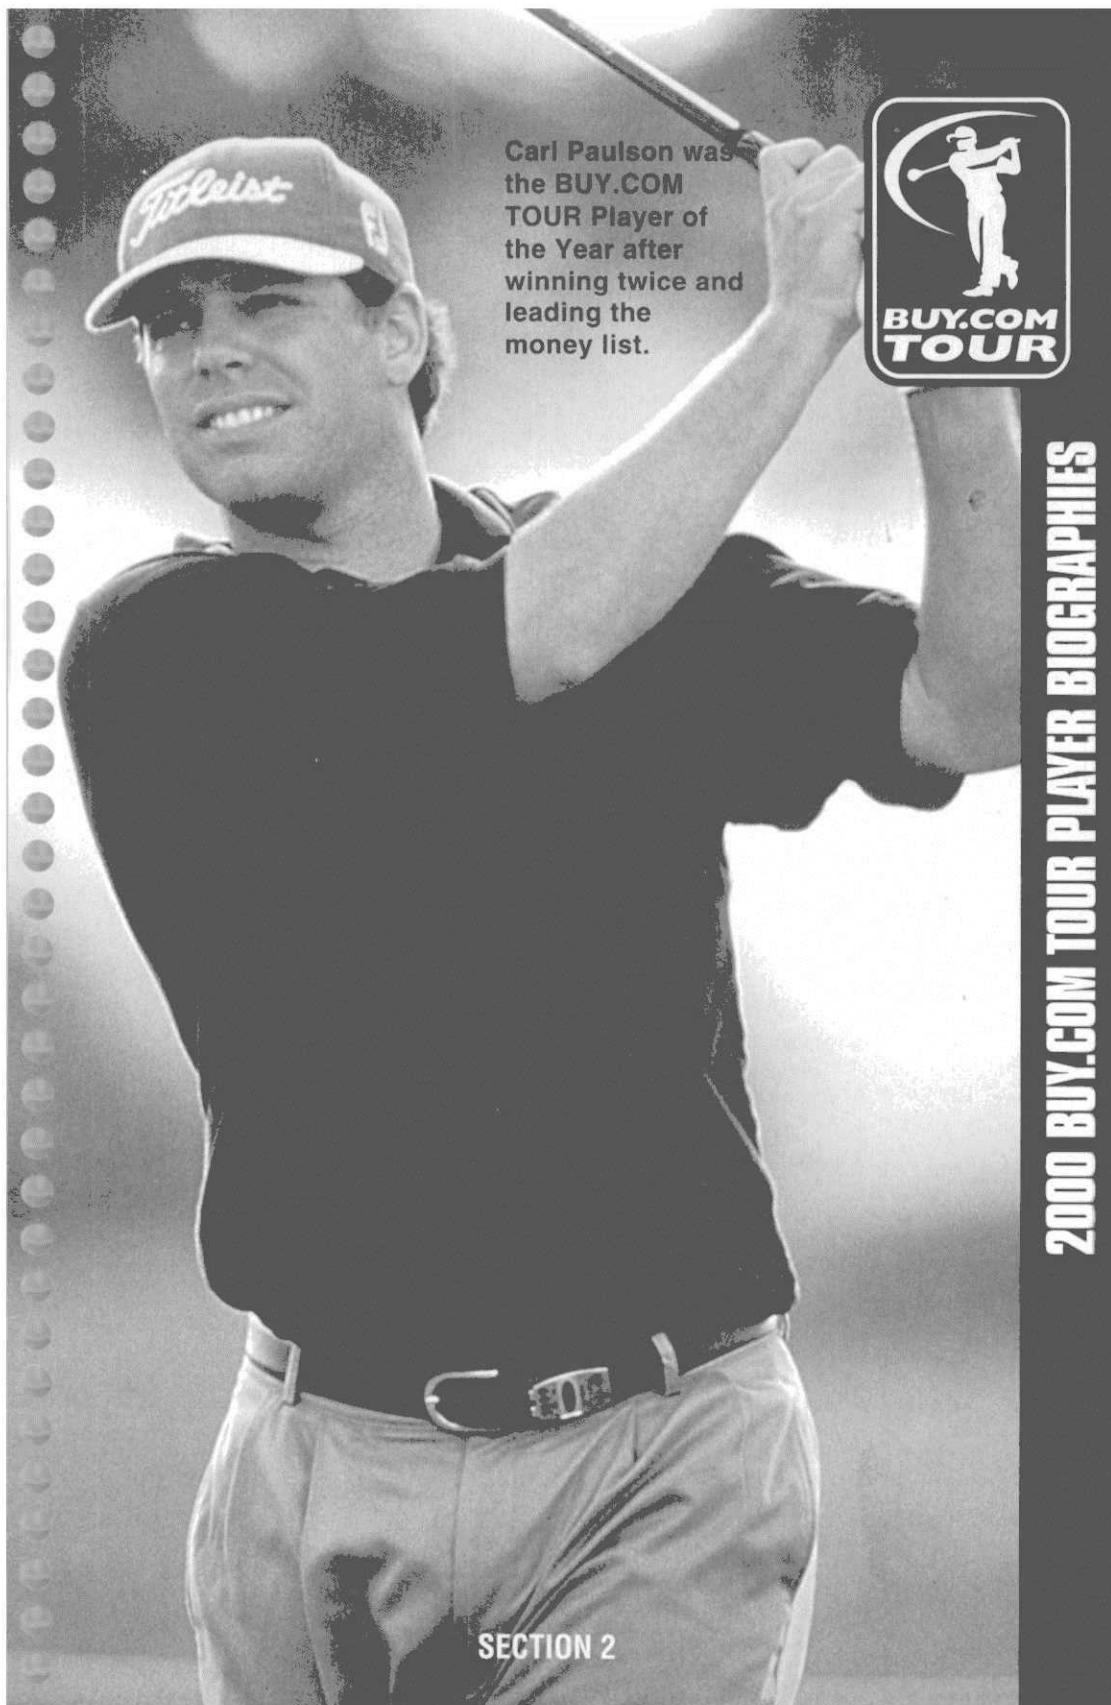

Born in Ottawa, IL on April 19, 1947, Finchem was graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He was graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973.

After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. After serving as National Staff Director for the Carter-Mcndale campaign in 1980, Finchem co-founded the National Marketing and Strategies Group in Washington, D.C.

A physical fitness advocate, Finchem is a member of the President's Council on Physical Fitness.

Married to the former Holly Bachand, Finchem is a father of four. The Finchems live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Carl Paulson was the BUY.COM TOUR Player of the Year after winning twice and leading the money list.

BUY.COM LAKELAND CLASSIC NOTES

Ryan Howison's 1999 win was his second at the BUY.COM Lakeland Classic in three years. Howison earned his first career win at the 1997 tournament and finished tied for 12th in 1998. His victory brought his three-year earnings at Lakeland to $79,908.75, which represented 37.6% of his BUY.COM TOUR career earnings of $212,298 to that point.

Ryan Howison's win last year was his second at Lakeland, making him only the second player in BUY.COM TOUR history to win the same event twice. Chris Smith was the first to do it, winning the BUY.COM Dakota Dunes Open in 1995 and then again in 1997.

Dave Schreyer became the first BUY.COM TOUR player in 1999 to record two eagles in a single round. Schreyer eagled the 512-yard, par-5 4th hole and the 406-yard, par-4 11th hole en route to a 7-under-par 65 in Saturday's third round.

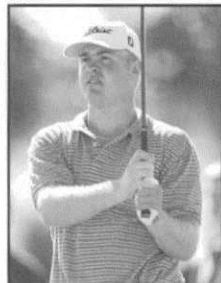

Mike Grob set the Grasslands Golf & Country Club course record with a 10-under-par 62 in Round 2 after soaring to a 79 in the first round of last year's BUY.COM Lakeland Classic. While not an official record, the 17-stroke improvement is the second best turnaround in BUY.COM TOUR history. In the 1997 BUY.COM Carolina Classic, Jeff Julian opened with rounds of 82-63 for a 19-stroke improvement, equaling Bob Murphy's 88-69 start at the 1985 Bing Crosby National Pro-Am (now the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am). Julian finished tied for 45th at Carolina. Grob closed with rounds of 70-73 and tied for 35th at Lakeland last year.

BUY.COM FLORIDA CLASSIC NOTES

Seven different players share the 18-hole tournament record after the inaugural Florida Classic. Joel Edwards set the record with a 6-under-par 65 in the second round. Paul Claxton (third round), Brad Elder (third round), Richard Johnson (second round), Greg Lesher (third round), Gary Nicklaus (second round) and Don Reese (fourth round) all tied the mark during the week of the 1999 NIKE Florida Classic at Gainesville Country Club.

Chris Kaufman recorded two eagles during the first round of last year's event. He was the second of 34 golfers to accomplish this in 1999.

Richard Johnson, a rookie on the BUY.COM TOUR last year, captured his first victory at the inaugural Florida Classic. It was only the third BUY.COM TOUR event of his career and he became the first of 11 first time winners during the 1999 season. Johnson finished the season 28th on the money list

Monday qualifier Roger Rowland of Ocala, FL was tied for the lead after the first round. He finished the event tied for seventh after opening and closing rounds of 66.

BUY.COM MISSISSIPPI GULF COAST OPEN NOTES

Four different players share the 18-hole tournament record after the inaugural Mississippi Gulf Coast Open. Keith Nolan set the record with a 5-under-par 67 in the first round. Dave Barr (first round), Kris Cox (first round) and Chris Tidland (third round) all tied the mark during the week of the 1999 Mississippi Gulf Coast Open at The Oaks Golf Club.

Kelly Gibson, a native of New Orleans, LA, recorded a hole-in-one in the second round of the 1999 NIKE Mississippi Gulf Coast Open. Using a 6-iron, he aced No. 5 — a 183-yard, par 3.

Matt Peterson recorded two eagles in the second round of last year's event.

The 430-yard, par-4, 13th hole at The Oaks Golf Course was the third toughest hole last year on the BUY.COM.TOUR, playing to a stroke average of 4.468. For the week, there were only 23 birdies recorded, compared to 115 bogeys and 27 double-bogeys.

Joel Edwards used his victory at the Mississippi Gulf Coast Open and a third place finish at the Florida Classic to propel him to the BUY.COM TOUR Player of the Month award in February. He earned $61,313 of his $213,937 total during this month.

BUY.COM MONTERREY OPEN NOTES

Kevin Riley and Craig Matthew each recorded two eagles during their opening rounds in 1999. Riley and Mathew each posted 4-under-par 68s for the first round.

Christian Chernock used seven 3s en route to a 7-under-par 29 on the front nine during his opening round last year. Chernock's 66 left him tied for fifth place after 18 holes.

Steve Gotsche had to wait more than 30 minutes to find out if his 18-under-par score would hold up for a win. Gotsche played in the fourth-to-last group on Sunday, firing a 6-under-par 66 to finish at 270. He then waited as the third-round leaders all failed to muster a final charge and he collected his first career title.

BUY.COM LOUISIANA OPEN NOTES

Four different players recorded two eagles during second-round play last year. Chad Ginn, Mike Heinen, Glen Hnatiuk and Ronald Stelton all recorded eagles on the 520-yard, par-5 14th hole at Le Triomphe. Ginn, Hnatiuk and Stelton also eagled the 532-yard, par-5 1st hole while Heinen picked up his second eagle at the 512-yard, par-5 12th.

Matt Gogel's 1999 triumph at Le Triomphe was the fifth of his career, moving him into a tie for second place on the all-time victory list with 1997 Player of the Year Chris Smith. Sean Murphy, the 1993 Player of the Year, is the BUY.COM TOUR's all-time leader with six career wins.

Matt Gogel's win last year made him the first player in BUY.COM TOUR history to win tournaments in four consecutive years. Gogel's initial win came at the 1996 BUY.COM Boise Open and was followed up with wins at the 1997 BUY.COM Laurel Creek Classic, the 1998 BUY.COM Omaha Classic and the 1998 BUY.COM Tri-Cities Open. Mike Schuchart and Ted Tryba are the only other players to win tournaments in three consecutive years.

BUY.COM SHREVEPORT OPEN NOTES

Will Moore recorded the first ace of his professional career during Friday's second round. Moore used a 6-iron on the 158-yard, par-3 fourth hole to notch the fourth ace in tournament history and the first since 1997.

Heavy rains and tornadoes hit the Shreveport area less than two weeks before the tournament began, threatening to wipe out the event. After more than 9 inches of rain fell, Lake Wallace, which is adjacent to Southern Trace Country Club course, overflowed its banks. Water covered 60 acres of the course. Holes 11, 12, 13 and 18, along with the driving range, were completely underwater and holes 9 and 14 were partially submerged less than a week before the start. Course superintendent Scott Poynot and his crew worked around the clock for more than two days, pumping some 135 million gallons of water off the course to get it ready for competition.

Players were allowed to lift, clean and place their golf balls during all four days of the tournament. The golf course still proved to be quite a test, as the scoring average for each of the four days ranged from 73.115 to 74.597. Southern Trace CC played to a stroke average of 74.069 for the four days, making it the third toughest course on TOUR in 1999.

BUY.COM SOUTH CAROLINA CLASSIC NOTES

Steve Haskins notched his seventh career hole-in-one and the second of his competitive career when he aced the 173-yard 7th hole during Thursday's opening round. Haskins, who used a 6-iron for his hole-in-one, carded a 71.

Tripp Isenhour kickstarted his Saturday round with a hole-in-one on the 176-yard 3rd hole. He used a 6-iron for his ace, the first of his competitive career. Isenhour posted a 6-under-par 66 and moved into a tie for 10th place following 54 holes.

Kevin Johnson used a pair of eagles in Saturday's third round to jump into contention on the leaderboard. Johnson, a three-time All-America from nearby Clemson University, eagled the par-5 second and 17th holes with putts from 8 and 3 feet, respectively. His 6-under-par 66 moved him into a share of the lead with Bob Heintz at 8-under-par 208. Johnson celebrated his 32nd birthday in style, firing a 71 on Sunday to earn his second career title.

BUY.COM UPSTATE CLASSIC NOTES

Steve Gotsche became the first player to win two tournaments in 1999. A third victory would have given him a "battlefield promotion" to the PGA TOUR. He earlier captured the Monterrey Open.

Not only did Steve Gotsche become the eleventh player to record two eagles in the same round during the 1999 season, but one of those was a hole-in-one. His first competitive ace came in the second round when he used a 7-iron on the 178-yard, par-3 hole.

Wes Tuck used a final-round best score of 66 to make the biggest move of the tournament from 55th after the second round to a seventh place finish. On the flip side, Mathew Goggins's final-round 76 dropped him from first place into a tie for 15th.

The 54-hole, rain-shortened event was the only tournament to not complete four rounds in 1999.

BUY.COM CAROLINA CLASSIC NOTES

Jim McGovern aced the par-3, 150-yard 17h hole during the final round of play.

While most golfers dream of reaching par-4 holes in one, Stiles Mitchell, the 1999 leader in Driving Distance, fired his tee shot on the par-4, 323-yard ninth hole 30 yards over the green. Mitchell's ball ended up on a practice green above the ninth hole.

The Carolina Classic title was the second of Vance Veazey's BUY.COM TOUR career and tied his career-high paycheck of $40,500. He also captured the 1998 Shreveport Open.

Jeffrey Lankford, a local pro from Mocksville, NC and a graduate of North Carolina State, turned in the low round of the tournament. His 7-under-par 64 in the final round gave him a tie for fourth, two shots behind Veazey.

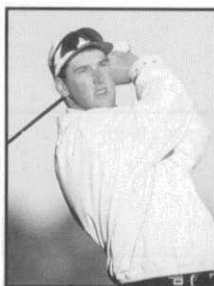

Glen Hnatiuk, who tied for second place, won the weather-shortened 1996 Carolina Classic when it was played at Prestonwood CC in Cary, NC.

BUY.COM RICHMOND OPEN NOTES

Brian Tennyson's opening round 64 matched his professional career low. His 8-under-par score was a BUY.COM TOUR career best and equaled the 64 he last recorded during the third round of the 1996 Las Vegas Invitational on the PGA TOUR.

Bob Heintz recorded his first competitive ace when he made a hole-in-one on the 207-yard, par-3 third hole during Sunday's final round. Heintz used a three-iron for his ace, the fourth of his career and the second time he used a three-iron to get an ace.

Darron Stiles eagled the final hole Sunday to record his first BUY.COM TOUR win. Stiles used a 9-iron from 125 yards out on the 537-yard, par-5 18th hole. He finished at 9-under par more than an hour before the leaders and had to wait for the rest of the players to finish. Stiles' win marked the second time in three events that the winner holed an eagle on the 72nd hole to win — Steve Gotsche eagled the 18th to win the BUY.COM Upstate Classic.

BUY.COM KNOXVILLE OPEN NOTES

Glen Hnatiuk grabbed the second-round lead by firing a 6-under-par 66 to get to 7-under par. Hnatiuk was in the first group off the tee at 7:30 a.m. and completed his round more than 6½ hours before the final groups were off the course. A total of 142 players tried and failed to better Hnatiuk's 36-hole total.

In all, 66 players made the cut, with the majority coming from the Friday morning session, which played to a cumulative average of 42-over par. (!!) The afternoon session, which produced only 25 players who made the cut, played to an aggregate of 172-over par.

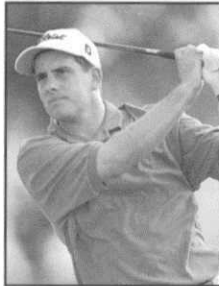

Jeff Gove needed a birdie-4 on the 72nd hole to win the 1999 Knoxville Open. Gove hit driver, 3-wood to the back of the green on the 517-yard, par-5 and then chipped to within a foot, tapping in for his second career win. "I knew it was a par for a playoff, birdie to win," said Gove, who collected a career-high $45,000 for the win.

BUY.COM GREATER CLEVELAND OPEN NOTES

Matt Gogel captured his second victory of the season. He also won the 1999 Louisiana Open. With the second victory, Gogel became the first BUY.COM TOUR player to win twice in back-to-back seasons. He took home the 1998 Omaha Classic and Tri-Cities Open.

Matt Gogel ran his playoff record to 3-0 by defeating Casey Martin with an eagle on the second playoff hole. Gogel defeated Jay Williamson at the 1998 Omaha Classic and Brian Bateman at the 1998 Tri-Cities Open.

Mark Wurtz and Carl Paulson each had holes-in-one at Quail Hollow Country Club's second hole during the week. Wurtz knocked his in during the opening round and Paulson during third round action.

Four players recorded two eagles in the same round during the 1998 Cleveland Open. Mark Wurtz in the first round, Casey Martin in the second round and Carl Paulson and Jeff Gove in the third round. The only other 1999 tournament where four golfers accomplished this feat was the Louisiana Open.

BUY.COM DAYTON OPEN NOTES

Michael Clark established a course record in the third round of last year's event. Clark posted a 10-under-par 62 at The Golf Club at Yankee Trace. His round vaulted him from a tie for 35th to a tie for fifth after 54 holes.

John Wilson had been in a yearlong slump prior to arriving in Dayton in 1999. Wilson posted a 20-under par total to earn his second career title. It also marked his first top-10 finish since he lost a playoff at the 1998 Shreveport Open, a span of 28 events.

John Wilson's 20-under par score was the lowest total posted through the first 14 events on TOUR in 1999.

The Golf Club at Yankee Trace, site of the 1999 Dayton Open, is one of two public golf courses on the BUY.COM TOUR. The Moreno Valley Ranch Golf Club, site of the Inland Empire Open, is also a public facility.

BUY.COM LEHIGH VALLEY OPEN NOTES

Mathew Goggin used the Lehigh Valley Open as a stepping stone to the PGA TOUR. In only his 11th BUY.COM TOUR event, Goggin captured his first career victory. He would later go on to win the Omaha Classic and earn his TOUR card by finishing fourth on the money list.

Ben Ferguson knocked in an ace on the sixteenth hole during the first round of play. He used a 4-iron on the 233-yard, par-3 hole. It is the second hole-in-one in tournament history. Steve Haskins had the other in 1998.

Mark Hensby used a 9-under-par 63 in the third round of the 1998 Lehigh Valley Open to break the Center Valley Club course record. He also had set the old record of 64 along with Orist Wells and Notah Begay in 1998. Hensby now holds two course records on the BUY.COM TOUR schedule. He used a 20-under-par 280 to set the record at Hardscrabble CC during the 1999 Ft. Smith Classic.

Mathew Goggin set a new tournament record with an 18-under-par 270 at the 6,953-yard course. He bettered the old mark set by Eric Booker and Notah Begay in 1998 by one stroke.

This tournament does not appear on the 2000 BUY.COM TOUR schedule.

BUY.COM HERSHEY OPEN NOTES

Edward Fryatt became the seventh first-time winner in 1999 when he captured the Hershey Open. It ended up being his lone victory of the year, although he did finish the season with 10 top-10 finishes, second best on the BUY.COM TOUR.

The Country Club of Hershey East Course was the most difficult course on the 1999 BUY.COM TOUR. The level of difficulty increased from 2.309 strokes over par in 1998 to 3.150 in 1999. The next closest was the The Oaks Golf Club course at the Mississippi Gulf Coast Open, which played to 2.077 strokes above par.

Gary Nicklaus tied the course record with a 6-under-par 64 in the second round last year. Bob Burns set the record a year earlier.

The 36-hole cut came at 145. At 5-over-par, that made the Hershey Open the highest over-par cut of the year.

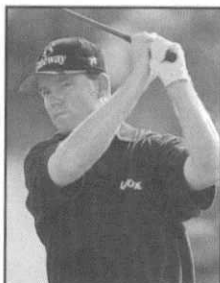

Only five players managed to break par during the final round of play on the 7,100-yard course. Matt Gogel's 66 led the way followed by John Rollins' 67. Marco Dawson, John Wilson and Jason Tyska all came in at 68.

BUY.COM GREENSBORO OPEN NOTES

For the third straight week and eighth time in 1999, the BUY.COM TOUR found itself with a new winner. Shaun Micheel earned his first victory by coming from three strokes behind with three holes to go to in the final round. Micheel's final-round 69 put him at 11-under par for the tournament one stroke ahead of Garrett Willis.

Joey Gullion aced the 238-yard, par-3 third hole during the first round at Sedgefield Country Club. It was only the second time a player has aced a hole at this tournament. Sean Murphy recorded a hole-in-one in 1998.

Paul Claxton and Dicky Thompson each recorded two eagles in the same round during last year's event. Claxton's came in the first round while Thompson's came in the third round.

Garrett Willis tied both the 36-hole and 54-hole records at the 6,737-yard course. Willis used an 11-under-par 129 and an 11-under-par 199 to tie the marks set by Matthew Lane (1998) and Chris Zambri (1998), respectively.

BUY.COM WICHITA OPEN NOTES

Mike Grob opened with rounds of 66-64 to go to 14-under-par 130 after 36 holes. This tied him with two other players for the second-lowest first-36 holes during the 1999 season.

Brad Elder set a new 54-hole record at the Wichita Open by shooting a 19-under-par 197. He broke the mark of 198 established by Emlyn Aubrey and Paul Gow in 1998. Elder's score of 197 tied him with four others for second-lowest first 54 holes in 1999.

Brad Elder's four-stroke lead after 54 holes was the second largest on the BUY.COM TOUR last year. Carl Paulson took a five-stroke lead into the final round of the Utah Classic.

BUY.COM DAKOTA DUNES OPEN NOTES

Tim Petrovic's 9-under-par 63 was among the best opening rounds posted during the 1999 season, but was only the second-best opening round ever shot at the Dakota Dunes Open. John Maginnes opened with a 10-under-par 62 in 1998 and eventually went on to win the tournament in a playoff. Petrovic's 63 was a career best, bettering the 64 he posted as an amateur at the Yale University course in 1987.

Ryan Howison, Carl Paulson and Brian Claar shared the second-round lead at the 1999 Dakota Dunes Open. It was one of two tournaments last year when at least three players were tied for the lead after 36 holes (the South Carolina Classic was the other). Claar celebrated his 40th birthday during Thursday's opening round.

Ryan Howison became the first player in TOUR history to lose the same tournament in a playoff more than once. Fran Quinn defeated Howison and Craig Kanada for the 1999 Dakota Dunes Open crown. John Maginnes won the 1998 tournament, defeating Howison and Sean Murphy. Both playoffs ended on the same hole, the 561-yard, par-5 18th hole.

LEADERS: First Round—Joel Edwards carded a 10-under-par 62 to lead by two strokes over Craig Kanada. Glen Hnatiuk, Joe Daley, Michael Clark, Gary Nicklaus and Mike Laudien all posted 65s to tie for third. Second Round—Kanada was at 13-under-par 131 and led by one over Greg Lesher. Bob Heintz, Mathew Goggin, Joey Gullion, Joey Snyder and Clark shared third place at 11-under-par 133. Third Round—Heintz and Goggin shared the lead at 17-under-par 199. Nicklaus, Don Reese and Mark Hensby were tied for third at 14-under.

CUT: 55 players at 4-under-par 140 from a field of 144.

PRO-AM: $2,500. Individual—Joel Edwards, 64, $250. Team—Richard Johnson, 45, $250.

WEATHER: Partly cloudy skies on Thursday with a high of 83 degrees and winds north 5-10 mph. Cloudy skies gave way to rain showers Friday with a high of 74 degrees. Play was suspended at 11:34 a.m. Friday morning due to thunderstorms in the area. Officials called play for the day at 2 p.m. Saturday's play was delayed until 1 p.m. after overnight storms dumped 6 1/2 additional inches of rain on the golf course. Second round play was completed Saturday under mostly cloudy skies and temperatures in the upper 70s. Third and fourth round play was completed Sunday with temperatures in the mid 80s.

BUY.COM OMAHA CLASSIC NOTES

BUY.COM TOUR history was made in the opening two hours of the 1999 tournament when Joey Snyder III and Joel Edwards each made a double-eagle on the 528-yard, par-5 second hole. It was the first time in BUY.COM TOUR history that two double-eagles were recorded in the same tournament. It also marked the third time that double-eagles have been registered in back-to-back weeks. Brian Tennyson had a double-eagle in the BUY.COM Dakota Dunes Open, the week prior to Omaha. Snyder's albatross came when he hit 1-iron, 6-iron (191 yards) into the cup. Less than an hour later, Edwards hit 3-wood, 4-iron (207 yards) into the hole. The last time two double-eagles were recorded in the same round came in the fourth round of the 1990 International, when Steve Pate and Jim Gallagher, Jr. each had a double-eagle on the par-5 17th at Castle Pines Golf Club.

Joey Snyder's 8-under-par 28 on the front nine in Thursday's opening round was the lowest nine-hole score of the 1999 season. Snyder's score included a double-eagle (No. 2) and an eagle (No. 9) and three birdies. It was only the fourth time in BUY.COM TOUR history that a player fired a 28 over nine holes – there have been two 27s, by Notah Begay and Doug Dunakey, both in 1998.*

Joey Snyder became only the second player in BUY.COM TOUR history to record a double-eagle and an eagle in the same round. Snyder turned the trick on the opening nine holes of the BUY.COM Omaha Classic joining R. W. Eaks, who accomplished the feat in the second round of the 1992 Louisiana Open.*

BUY.COM OZARKS OPEN NOTES

Ryan Howison's $45,000 winner's check brought him over the $100,000 mark in earnings for the second consecutive season and surpassed his personal best set in 1998. After this tournament, Howison stood third on the money list with $140,256. In 1998, Howison finished 22nd on the money list with $100,477. Howison and Matt Gogel are the only two players to earn $100,000 in back-to-back seasons since the BUY.COM TOUR began in 1990.

Edward Fryatt shot a career-low 63 in the second round of the 1999 Ozarks Open. Fryatt, who was also going for his second win of the season, had a 5-stroke lead after the 2nd round and a 1-stroke lead after the third round but lost in the playoff to Ryan Howison.

Brad Elder birdied six consecutive holes on Saturday for the most consecutive birdies on the BUY.COM TOUR up to that point in the season. Elder birdied holes six through eleven. On Sunday, Gibby Gilbert opened with five consecutive birdies before making par on the sixth hole. Gilbert ended the day with eight birdies and moved from 15th to a third place finish. Dicky Thompson bettered Elder's mark by one a few weeks later at the Permian Basin Open.

BUY.COM FORT SMITH OPEN NOTES

Gary Webb won his first BUY.COM TOUR event since the 1996 Dakota Dunes Open. It was only his fifth event of the season after having wrist surgery in November 1998. His wife Mary, who just happened to be his caddie for the tournament, finally watched her husband win after missing his first three career victories.

Matt Peterson found himself in a somewhat familiar spot coming into the final round. In 1995, he came from six strokes back on the final day to win the Central Georgia Open. This time he was four shots behind Gary Webb, and his final-round 65 was not enough to catch Webb, who finished with a 68.

First round leader Gary Christian may have finished the tournament in a disappointing tie for 20th, but he went out in style. Christian, the first round leader, drilled an eagle on the par-4 18th hole from 153 yards to bring the gallery to its feet.

Edward Fryatt bogeyed his last hole of the second round to fall to 1-over-par 141 and miss the cut by one stroke. Fryatt had been tied with Marco Dawson and Craig Kanada for the most consecutive cuts (11).

Three players recorded two eagles in the same round during the event. Rick Price and Jon Levitt managed the feat in the second round while Brian Fogt nailed two eagles in the third round.

BUY.COM PERMIAN BASIN OPEN NOTES

Dicky Thompson's 10-under-par 62 matched the lowest opening round on TOUR in 1999. Joel Edwards also fired a 62 in the first round of the Omaha Classic. Neither Thompson nor Edwards went on to win after their 62s.

David Berganio, Jr.'s 8-under-par 64 in the opening round of the 1999 Permian Basin Open turned out to be the best start by a tournament winner in 1999. Berganio was in second place after each of the first three rounds. His final-round 70 helped him earn his second career title.

There must be something that David Berganio Jr. Likes about the Permian Basin Open. Berganio has finished in the top-10 in all three of his West Texas appearances. He finished T7 in 1996, T10 in 1998 and captured the title in 1999. Berganio has a scoring average of 68.58 for his three years at the Club at Mission Dorado, is a cumulative total of 41-under-par and has earned $52,443 in his three starts at Permian Basin.

BUY.COM UTAH OPEN NOTES

Carl Paulson won his first BUY.COM TOUR event on his 83rd try. It also just happened to be his 83rd consecutive week playing in a BUY.COM TOUR event. Paulson holds the record for playing in consecutive BUY.COM TOUR events, after passing Jeff Gallagher a few weeks back. Gallagher's record of 78 straight events had held since 1992.

Carl Paulson's five-stroke lead going into Sunday's final round was the largest 54-hole lead of the season. Paulson shot a 69 to extend his lead to six strokes over Marco Gortana and Craig Bowden and take home his first BUY.COM TOUR victory.

Rain hampered the first two rounds of the 1999 BUY.COM Utah Classic. There were six weather delays and two darkness delays, which caused 18 players to play 36 holes on Saturday. The weather delays lasted a total of seven hours and fifty minutes. At one point, the second round began while the first round was still being completed.

There was grand total of four holes-in-one during the 1999 BUY.COM Utah Classic, two more than any other tournament during the season. Chad Ginn, 6-iron from 213 yards, started it all off at the second hole in round 1 while Robin Byrd, 6-iron from 197 yards, followed at the 11th hole in round 2. Rich Barcelo, 6-iron from 201 yards at hole number seven, and Donnie Hammond, 7-iron from 182 yards at the 15th hole, rounded out the group during the final round of play.

BUY.COM TRI-CITIES OPEN NOTES

Gregory LaVoie became the youngest player to play in a BUY.COM TOUR event by shooting a 68 at the Monday Qualifier. LaVoie, who turned 15 in January, was a sophomore at Pasco High School. He failed to make the cut though, as he shot a 78 and a 74 to finish 8 shots over par.

Glen Hnatiuk's fourth BUY.COM TOUR victory moved him into a tie for fourth place in career victories with six others. He now has won the 1999 Tri-Cities Open, 1996 Carolina Classic, 1995 Utah Classic and the 1992 Mississippi Gulf Coast Classic. His victory also added to his lead as career money leader on the BUY.COM TOUR. Since 1992, Hnatiuk has earned $527,849.

Marco Dawson's consecutive cut streak came to an end due to an injury-related withdrawal. Dawson had made 13 cuts in a row.

Fran Quinn and Stan Utley each knocked in two eagles during a round. Quinn accomplished his during the first round while Utley's pair came in second round action.

BUY.COM BOISE OPEN NOTES

Carl Paulson collected his second win in as many starts when he cruised to a four-stroke win at the 1999 BUY.COM Boise Open. Paulson added a check of $58,500 to the $67,500 he won two weeks earlier at the BUY.COM Utah Classic. The win vaulted him to No. 1 on the money list and allowed him to join Stewart Cink (1996) and Chris Smith (1997) as the only players to top the $200,000 mark in a single season.

Carl Paulson jumped into the lead at the 1999 BUY.COM Boise Open after three holes of the final round. He started birdie-eagle-birdie to get to 17-under par and take a lead he would not relinquish the rest of the day. Paulson chipped in on the first two holes and canned a 25-foot putt from off the green on the third hole.

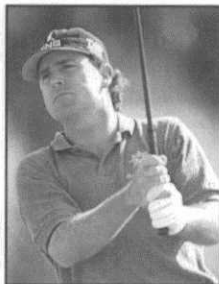

Marco Dawson's tie for 8th place was his TOUR-leading ninth top-10 finish of the year. Dawson, a member of the PGA TOUR from 1991-97, started the year with no status on the BUY.COM TOUR and became a member after a third-place finish at the BUY.COM Dayton Open.

BUY.COM OREGON CLASSIC NOTES

Shadow Hills Country Club pro Mark Keating scored a hole-in-one in Thursday's opening round. Keating used a 3-iron to ace the 196-yard, par-3 12th hole, the first in the two-year history of the tournament.

Kelly Gibson's opening round of 7-under-par 65 was good enough to take a 3-stroke lead, the largest 18-hole lead on the BUY.COM TOUR in 1999.*

Kelly Gibson's wire-to-wire win at the 1999 Oregon Classic marked the first time since John Maginnes' victory at the 1998 Dakota Dunes Open a player has led a tournament from start to finish, a span of 37 events.*

Kelly Gibson's 3-over-par 75 turned out to be the highest final-round score by a tournament winner in 1999. It was also the highest finish by a winner since Michael Allen posted a 4-over-par 76 to win the 1998 Greater Austin Open.*

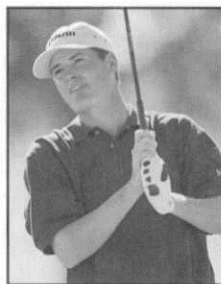

The scoring average for the 1999 Oregon Classic was 73.458, thus making the Shadow Hills Country Club course the sixth toughest on TOUR last year. The toughest hole at Shadow Hills was the 403-yard, par-4 14th, which played to an average of 4.314, which ranks it as the 25th most difficult hole of 1999.

BUY.COM INLAND EMPIRE OPEN NOTES

Brad Elder set a new tournament record with his score of 21-under-par 267. Elder came from four shots behind on the final day of play to overtake Patrick Lee. The previous record of 268 was set by Charles Raulerson in 1998.

Patrick Lee established a new 36-hole record at Moreno Valley Ranch Golf Club. His 13-under-par 131 bettered Skip Kendall's old mark, set in 1994, by one stroke. Additionally, Lee tied the 54-hole record of 19-under-par 197, also set by Kendall in 1994.

Brad Elder's victory was the second of the season and made him the sixth player to win two events during the 1999 season. He previously won the Wichita Open. The six players with two wins in the same season tied the mark set in 1990 and matched in 1995. The record was broken at the BUY.COM TOUR Championship, when Bob Heintz won his second event of 1999.

Mike Grob's consecutive cuts-made streak was halted at 16 — the longest on the BUY.COM TOUR in 1999. Grob missed the cut (141) by shooting 1-under-par 143 (72, 71).

BUY.COM NEW MEXICO CLASSIC NOTES

Thursday's co-leaders, Brian Kamm and Darron Stiles, were the only players to break par the first day. Scores were higher due to steady northwest winds of 20-25 mph, with gusts of 30 mph. Kamm and Stiles were atop the leaderboard after posting 1-under-par 69s, which turned out to be the highest first-round leading scores in the 10 years of the BUY.COM TOUR. The previous high first-round leaders were at 3-under par, which occurred a total of four times, with the most recent coming at the 1997 BUY.COM TOUR Championship. Thursday's opening scoring average on the par-72 Santa Ana Golf Club course was 75.448.

Thursday's opening round also resulted in a bit of a rarity in that there were no eagles on the par-5s. The only eagle on the first day came on the short, 335-yard, par-4 9th hole.

Dick Mast became the oldest winner in TOUR history when he captured the 1999 New Mexico Classic. Mast, at 48 years, 6 months and 17 days, was almost 15 months older than Allen Doyle (47 years, 3 months and 26 days) when he won the 1995 TOUR Championship. Mast also set a record for the longest time elapsed between TOUR wins. It had been 9 years, 3 months and 23 days since he won the Ft. Wayne Open on June 17, 1990.

The 468-yard, par-4 18th hole proved to be the third most difficult finishing hole in 1999. The tightly-guarded 18th at the Santa Ana Golf Club played to a scoring average of 4.295 for four days. Only courses at the South Carolina Classic and the Mississippi Gulf Coast Classic had tougher closing holes.

BUY.COM TOUR CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

It was deja vu for Bob Heintz as he won his second tournament of the season with a score of five-under-par 283. He captured the Shreveport Open in April with the same score.

Bob Heintz and Jeff Gove shared the halfway lead at 8-under par, the lowest 36-hole scores in the 7-year history of the BUY.COM TOUR Championship. The previous 36-hole record was 7-under par by Danny Briggs in 1993.*

Bob Heintz and Jeff Gove shared the first and second-round leads with back-to-back 68s. This marks the first time in the history of the BUY.COM TOUR Championship that the same co-leaders have led more than one round together.*

After Michael Clark's tie for 8th finish, he has now competed in the Championship for the past four years and has never finished worse than a tie for 12th. Clark finished tied for 4th in 1998, tied for 5th in 1997 and tied for 12th in 1996.

The 5-under-par 211 score recorded by Bob Heintz and Ryan Howison is the second highest 54-hole total after the 4-under-par 212 carded by eventual winner Allen Doyle in 1995.

BUY.COM TOUR PLAYERS OF THE MONTH

The first BUY.COM TOUR Player of the Month award was given in August of 1996. Voted on by a national media panel, the BUY.COM TOUR Player of the Month is awarded each month of the BUY.COM TOUR season from January through October. Every recipient gets a special medal commemorating his achievement. Following are the 1999 Players of the Month:

JANUARY

Curt Byrum — Earned the first BUY.COM TOUR Player of the Month Award after earning his second career title at the season-opening BUY.COM South Florida Classic. Byrum birdied the last three holes of regulation to force a playoff with Stan Utley. His par on the first extra hole at Palm-Aire Country Club & Resort brought him his second win. Byrum, who earned his first win at the 1993 White Rose Classic, began the final round three strokes behind Utley. His win, coupled with a tie for 42nd at the Lakeland Classic lifted him to first place on the money list after the first two events.

FEBRUARY

Joel Edwards — Edwards, an eight-year PGA TOUR veteran, had played in just 16 BUY.COM TOUR events prior to the start of the 1999 season. Edwards tied for third at the Florida Classic before edging John Rieggger by one stroke at the Mississippi Gulf Coast Classic. Edwards used a final-round 69 to come from two strokes off the pace and earn his first career title. The victory was worth $45,000 and lifted Edwards to the top of the money list.

MARCH

Matt Gogel — Gogel became the first player in the history of the TOUR to register wins in four consecutive years when he won his fifth career BUY.COM TOUR title at the Louisiana Open. Gogel grabbed the third-round lead with a 4-under-par 68 at Le Triomphe Country Club and then waited out a Sunday rain delay to defeat Kris Cox by one stroke and capture the $54,000 first-place check. The win tied Gogel for second place on the all-time victory list with Chris Smith, one behind Sean Murphy's six titles.

APRIL

Bob Heintz — Captured his first career BUY.COM TOUR title at the Shreveport Open. Heintz, a TOUR rookie, used a second-round 67 and three even-par 72s to win by one at Southern Trace Country Club. Heintz needed a two-putt birdie on the final hole to edge Joel Edwards and Craig Bowden for the title. He followed up the win with a runner-up finish the next week at the South Carolina Classic, where he was tied for the 36- and 54-hole leads and missed out on a possible playoff by a single stroke.

MAY

Glen Hnatik — Became the first non-winner to earn the award in 1999. Hnatik began the month with a tie for 15th at the rain-shortened Upstate Classic. Hnatik was never far from the lead the following week, joining Steve Haskins in a tie for second at the Carolina Classic, one shot back of winner Vance Veazey. A final-round 75 dropped Hnatik to a tie for 18th at the Dominion Open after trailing the 54-hole leaders by just two strokes. Hnatik grabbed the second round lead at the Knoxville Open and added another runner-up finish in May, again missing a playoff by a single shot. His strong play for the month vaulted Hnatik to No. 4 on the money list.

JUNE

Matt Gogel — Became the first player since Mark Carnevali (February/March 1997) to win the award twice in the same year when he was honored for his efforts in the early summer. Gogel eagled the second playoff hole to defeat Casey Martin for the title at the Cleveland Open, his record-tying sixth career win. The 21-year old followed his win with a tie for 20th at the Dayton Open and a second-place finish behind Mathew Goggin at the Lehigh Valley Open. Gogel's strong play put him atop the money list with $149,424, more than $46,000 ahead of his nearest challenger.

JULY

Edward Fryatt — The English-born Fryatt became the TOUR's 14th different winner in 1999 when he captured the Hershey Open in Pennsylvania. Fryatt, who was in the middle of an 11-consecutive cut streak, posted a 5-under-par total to win by three over Bruce Wayment on the difficult CC of Hershey East Course. The former UNLV All-American tied for 20th the following week at the Greensboro Open and then tied for 7th at the Wichita Open, his seventh top-10 finish of the year.

AUGUST

Ryan Howison — Began the month with a playoff loss at the Dakota Dunes Open, marking the second straight year he lost in a playoff there. Howison, winner of the Lakeland Classic in January, began the final round with a three-stroke lead, but eventually lost to Fran Quinn in the playoff. The following week Howison tied for 29th at the Omaha Classic. The former 3rd baseman from North Carolina then captured his second win of the year at the Ozarks Open, rallying with a 66 on the last day to force a playoff with Edward Fryatt. The playoff win was the first for Howison in four career tries. Two more starts resulted in two more top-25 finishes at the Fort Smith Classic (T23) and the Permian Basin Open (T22).

SEPTEMBER

Carl Paulson — After 83 career starts and five runner-up finishes, Paulson finally broke into the winner's circle at the Utah Classic, where he won by six strokes. Paulson posted a 22-under-par total to distance the field and collect the $67,500 first-place check. After skipping his first event in three years, Paulson came back a week later and followed up his win in Utah with another victory at the Boise Open, where he won by four shots. Paulson's scoring average for the two wins was 66.5 and he collected $126,000 for his efforts, moving him past the $220,000 mark for the season.

OCTOBER

Bob Heintz — His second victory of the year came at the season-ending TOUR Championship, where he defeated Marco Dawson on the first hole of a playoff. Heintz, who won the Shreveport Open, shared the lead after each of the first three days at the difficult Highland Oaks Course in Dothan, AL. In becoming the seventh multiple winner in 1999, Heintz earned a TOUR record $72,000 for the victory and vaulted from No. 16 to No. 6 on the final money list, thus earning his PGA TOUR card for 2000.

PGA TOUR MEDIA REGULATIONS

GENERAL REGULATIONS

The following regulations are to be followed by all members of the media:

1. A daily "inside the ropes" access sticker is necessary to walk inside the gallery ropes. Remain not more than an arm's length from the ropes, so as to blend into the gallery and appear to be a part of the gallery at all times.
2. Players are not to be distracted during play. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their rounds.
3. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their practice sessions before a round, except by prior arrangement with the player.
4. If an interview is to be conducted in the practice areas, either the range or the putting green, it must be done by prior arrangement with the player, up against the ropes and not in the middle of the areas where it could be distracting to other players.
5. Do not disturb players at their 18th green and/or scoring tent until after they have checked, signed and returned their scorecards. Media are not allowed in the scoring tent.

WORKING PRESS REGULATIONS

To avoid embarrassment to you and distraction to the contestants:

1. Do not walk or stand in playing areas.
2. Follow directions of marshals and other officials.
3. Do not interview during play. The leading players each day—and others requested—will be interviewed following their rounds in the Press Room interview area.

TAPE RECORDER REGULATIONS

1. All tape recorder work should be done in the proximity of the Press Room and/or clubhouse.
2. Tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.
3. Tape recorders are not permitted within the playing area of the golf course unless written permission has been granted from PGA TOUR.

WEATHER DELAY GUIDELINES

1. During weather delay situations, no one other than players and essential staff will be permitted in the locker room. This means the media are not permitted in the locker room in such situations. However, whenever possible, arrangements will be made to provide players for interviews during such situations.
2. Fully accredited members of the news media will be welcome in the locker room at all other times to carry out their assigned duties. (Note: Cameras and tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.)

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

Photo credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized and accredited publications or news services. Requests for credentials must be made by the appropriate news agency, not by the photographer. PGA TOUR reserves the right to refuse photo credentials in its sole discretion.

Photographic likenesses of PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR players and tournament courses may be used only by the news agency which the photographer represents. Any other use must be approved in advance in writing by PGA TOUR.

Commercial exploitation of player or course photographs without written consent of the players or courses and PGA TOUR is prohibited.

A limited number of photo stickers, which permit the wearer access inside the gallery ropes, may be issued. Photographers who do not have stickers must stay outside the gallery ropes. Photographic assistants will not be issued stickers.

Cameras may be used only by accredited media representatives who have been assigned photo credentials, and such use is subject to the following conditions:=-

1. Photographers with stickers must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. Photographers without stickers are not permitted inside the ropes at any time.
2. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
3. Photographers must not position themselves in the line of play. If requested to move by a player, his caddie or an official, the photographer will do so without delay or discussion.
4. No photograph shall be taken until a player has completed his stroke.
5. Players should not be asked to pose during a round.
6. Noise-free equipment must be used at all times.
7. Cameras are not permitted in the scoring tent or in the locker rooms.

The Photographer shall indemnify, defend and hold the Tournament and the PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with (1) the unauthorized use of photographs taken by the Photographer, whether such unauthorized use is by the Photographer, the company designating the Photographer to use the credential on its behalf, or some third party to whom the photographs are distributed; (2) any injuries resulting from acts or omissions by the Photographer or some third party to whom the Photographer directly or indirectly distributed the material; (3) any cameras, wires, cables or other equipment brought to the premises by the Photographer, or (4) the use of any photographs of any matter other than coverage of the Tournament.

TELEVISION COVERAGE REGULATIONS

The PGA TOUR retains exclusive television rights (including but not limited to broadcast, cable, home video) to all events on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR. No live or tape-delayed broadcast of any portion of any PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR or BUY.COM TOUR event is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR.

In most cases, play-by-play television rights have been sold for network broadcast.

Stations or networks that have not purchased the rights to originate play-by-play coverage of events from the PGA TOUR are permitted to broadcast highlights coverage of such events only under the following conditions:

1. Televised coverage shall not be in excess of three minutes of highlights daily from each TOUR (and six minutes total for all three TOURs) and may not purport to be live, play-by-play coverage from the course. Requests for expanded coverage must be submitted in writing to PGA TOUR.
2. All highlights coverage must be part of regularly scheduled news and/or sports programs.
3. Highlights from any day's play may not be broadcast or used for any other purpose after seven days from the conclusion of play each day.
4. No action footage of any day's play may be broadcast until that day's live or tape-delayed coverage by the television network is concluded.
5. No footage may be inserted into any commercial announcement or sold to any other broadcast entity or agency.
6. As the exclusive rights holder, PGA TOUR is the absolute owner of all footage shot at the tournament site (golf action or other footage) and may request copies of any footage shot at PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR events. Such footage will be provided to the TOUR at cost upon request.
7. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
8. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be allowed inside the gallery ropes, and they must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. All support personnel must remain outside the ropes.

RADIO COVERAGE REGULATIONS

The PGA TOUR retains exclusive national radio rights to all events on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR.

No live or tape-delayed broadcast of any portion of any PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR or BUY.COM TOUR event is permitted without the prior written consent of the PGA TOUR.

In some cases, play-by-play radio rights have been sold for network broadcast.

Stations or networks that have not purchased the rights to originate play-by-play coverage of events from the PGA TOUR are permitted to broadcast highlights coverage of such events only under the following conditions:

1. Coverage shall not be in excess of three minutes of highlights and may not purport to be live, play-by-play coverage from the course.
2. All highlights coverage must be part of regularly scheduled news and/or sports programs and may not be broadcast after seven days from the conclusion of play on that day.
3. As the exclusive rightsholder, PGA TOUR may request copies of any coverage of PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR events. Such coverage will be provided to the TOUR at cost upon request.
4. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
5. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be permitted into the media center and locker room areas.
6. Radio broadcasters are not permitted inside the gallery ropes at any time.
7. Broadcasters are not permitted to talk to players during play or after the round until the player has signed his scorecard.
8. Tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.

ON-LINE SERVICE REGULATIONS

Media credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized golf or legitimate news internet sites, as determined by PGA TOUR in its sole discretion. Individuals representing multiple interests (such as a recognized golf magazine and an internet site) must agree to be bound by all applicable media regulations.

PGA TOUR retains exclusive broadcast rights (including but not limited to network, cable, internet, home video) to all events on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR. No live or tape-delayed delivery of any event is permitted without the prior written consent of the PGA TOUR. Scores and statistics may be distributed only in accordance with these regulations.

1. Coverage must be part of the news portion of the Internet site identified below (the "Credentialed Site") and must not purport to be live, play-by-play, or real-time coverage from the course.
2. Scoring information may only appear in the editorial news portion of the Credentialed Site and may be provided no sooner than 30 minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots, or after the time such information is legally available as public information if sooner than thirty minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots. No scoring information may be used by, sold, given, distributed or otherwise transferred to, any party other than the Credentialed Site in any manner whatsoever, without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR.
3. Photographic images of PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR players may be used on the Credentialed Site for legitimate news coverage only, and may be used together with news stories during the day's play, so long as such photographs are not used with other real time or near real-time information to create a "shot-by-shot" account of the day's play. Commercial exploitation of these images without written consent of the players and PGA TOUR is prohibited.

BUY.COM TOUR PARTNERS IN CHARITY

BUY.COM TOUR CHARITABLE DONATIONS NEAR $17 MILLION

BUY.COM TOUR tournaments have generated substantial sums for local charities just as PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR events. Since 1990, BUY.COM TOUR events have produced nearly $17 million, including a record $2.9 million in 1999.

"A very important ingredient in staging a successful BUY.COM TOUR event is the money raised for local charities," said PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem. "It is a great tribute to the thousands of volunteers who work so hard to benefit those in need.

"Putting something back into the communities in which our events are played is at the very heart of our structure," Finchem continued. "Golf has been very successful and we are happy that we can share that success."

The success of the BUY.COM TOUR in raising substantial charity dollars mirrors that of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR. In 1999, events on the three tours combined to raise nearly $59 million for charity.

Since the first donation from a PGA TOUR event to charity in 1938, the Palm Beach Invitational, PGA TOUR events have raised nearly $425 million. SENIOR PGA TOUR events have contributed $74 million and BUY.COM TOUR events have added approximately $17 million. Overall, the three tours have combined to raise approximately $515 million for charity.

TOUR WIVES ASSOCIATION

TOUR Wives Association, Inc. is a Florida not-for-profit corporation organized to render support for and provide assistance to needy children and their families through the means of charitable events. The Association is comprised of the wives of professional golfers on the PGA TOUR and NIKE TOUR, as well as individuals and corporations that support the TOUR Wives Association's many charitable endeavors.

Since its incorporation in 1988, the TOUR Wives Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money for child-related charities and given much back to the game of golf through personal and monetary contributions. In addition to the funds that are raised, the wives visit different charities in the communities where golf tournaments are held, spending time and playing with children supported by the charities.

The TOUR Wives Association will begin their fundraising efforts in 2000 with their own golf tournament, the TOUR Wives Golf Classic. This event, being played in Phoenix during the Phoenix Open, features TOUR Wives Association members competing in a nine-hole tournament, with husbands acting as their wives' caddies. The tournament, first held in 1987, continues to be a favorite fundraising effort for the Association.

While its membership varies from year to year, the commitment of the TOUR Wives Association to making a difference in the lives of needy children stands strong. The Association's dedicated members, past and present, have reached deep into their resources to balance the demands of family, work and travel and have given generously of themselves to realize their ideals.

TOURNAMENT PLAYERS CLUBS

Tournament Players Club

The PGA TOUR's Tournament Players Club Network has maintained a reputation for operating high-quality clubs since its inception 20 years ago.

The TPC Network continues to grow, with 30 facilities currently open or under construction, including several overseas.

By the end of 1999, eight domestic Tournament Players Clubs either were in the planning or construction stage.

TPCs encompass all forms of golf-related operations — resort facilities, corporate/private membership clubs and daily fee courses — and, as such, PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties, Inc. is able to match the type of facility with the demands of each market in which a club operates.

The Network represents the highest standard in the golf course industry, commensurate with the members of the organization it represents, the players of the PGA TOUR. Each Tournament Players Club embodies the trademark of excellence first established with the flagship TPC at Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, which opened its world-famous Stadium Course in the fall of 1980.

This commitment to overall excellence serves as the foundation for the Network's overall success.

The TPC Network was born through former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman's desire to provide TOUR players with quality golf courses that also would offer spectators enhanced viewing areas.

Beman also reasoned that development of quality facilities would alleviate the TOUR's dependency on the television dollar, while providing rent-free venues for tournaments. The savings in rent, in turn, would generate both increased purses and greater charitable contributions by the tournaments held at TPCs.

The TPC at Sawgrass was the first Tournament Players Club to hold a PGA TOUR event, becoming the permanent home of THE PLAYERS Championship in 1982. Today, a growing number of PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR events are held at TPC facilities each year. In 1999, 16 tournaments were conducted on TPC courses. BUY.COM TOUR events will be played at TPCs in the future.

Many of the top golf course architects are connected with Tournament Players Club projects, including Pete Dye, Tom Fazio, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Tom Weiskopf, Greg Norman and Bob Von Hagge. Palmer, in fact, currently is involved in the design of four new Tournament Players Club courses: the TPC of the Twin Cities, the TPC at River's Bend in Cincinnati, the TPC of Boston and the 54-hole TPC at Lake Nona in Orlando, FL, which also will have courses designed by Fazio and Dye.

Moreover, in recognizing the importance of player input for tournament courses, TOUR members have served as design consultants, working closely with the lead architect. Examples are the two Tournament Players Clubs that opened in 1999: the TPC of Myrtle Beach, designed by Fazio with Lanny Wadkins serving as player consultant; and the TPC of Virginia Beach, designed by Dye with Curtis Strange as player consultant.

Scheduled to open in 2000 are the TPC at Deere Run (Moline, IL), co-designed by D.A. Weibring; the TPC at Wakefield Plantation (Raleigh, NC), designed by Hale Irwin; and the TPC of the Twin Cities, for which Tom Lehman is serving as player consultant.

WORLD GOLF VILLAGE

Bruce Lucker
Chief Operating Officer
World Golf Hall of Fame

World Golf Village is one of the most ambitious projects ever undertaken in golf. Situated along Interstate 95 in Northeast Florida, it is a major international focal point for the game, as well as a premier tourism, business and golf destination.

The Village offers an environment that not only honors the game of golf and its great players, but also provides an entertaining and educational experience for golfers and non-golfers from around the world.

Its centerpiece is the 75,000-square-foot World Golf Hall of Fame, museum and IMAX Theater. Circling the Village Lake is the Walk of Champions, honoring each member of the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Overall, World Golf Village is a celebration of a game rich in history and tradition, a theme that carries beyond the actual Hall of Fame building and into other components of the Village.

The complex also includes the first of three courses for the Saint Johns Development, of which World Golf Village is a part. The course, developed by Scratch Golf, is named "The Slammer and The Squire" after Hall of Fame design consultants Sam Snead and the late Gene Sarazen, who worked with architect Robert Weed. The Slammer and The Squire serves as home for the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, which is played the week before THE PLAYERS Championship.

Hall of Famers Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus are collaborating for the first time on the second golf course, The King & The Bear, which is scheduled to open in the fall of 2000.

Additional amenities at World Golf Village include the 10-story, 300-room Renaissance Hotel and Conference Center, developed by John Q. Hammons, Inc.; The Residences corporate villas by EcoGroup; the Vistana Resort at World Golf Village, a complex of interval vacation villas; The Shops at World Golf Village, an upscale shopping area; plus the headquarters for PGA TOUR Productions. Future components include a golf academy and Mayo Clinic facility.

Shell Oil Company is the Founding Partner of the World Golf Village. The number to call for World Golf Village information is 904-940-4000; its web site is www.wgv.com.

WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

The support the World Golf Hall of Fame has received from the world's major golf organizations distinguishes it as a unique partnership that reflects the universality of the game and promise for further growth.

The Hall of Fame and accompanying exhibits honor the great players and contributors to the game, and entertain and inform the public about the rich history and tradition of golf internationally.

Artifacts from the former World Golf Hall of Fame in Pinehurst, NC were incorporated into the museum exhibits. But the overall experience is intended to interest golfers and non-golfers alike by introducing modern technology and interactive displays that continually are being enhanced.

The building also features an IMAX Theater, with a screen 80 feet high and 60 feet wide, for which a special film about golf is being developed.

The 71 players and contributors inducted into the former Hall of Fame in Pinehurst and/or the LPGA Hall of Fame were "grandfathered" into the new facility. Annual induction ceremonies for newly elected Hall of Fame members are held each year, bringing together dignitaries from throughout the golf world.

The first elections for the PGA TOUR and International Ballots were conducted in 1996 and 1997. Johnny Miller was the only player elected in 1996, receiving the necessary 75 percent of votes on the PGA TOUR Ballot. Seve Ballesteros of Spain and Nick Faldo of England became the first players elected through the International Ballot in 1997, their first year of eligibility. Faldo was inducted in 1998 and Ballesteros was inducted last March with the late Lloyd Mangrum, who was admitted in 1998 via the PGA TOUR Ballot, and LPGA star Amy Alcott.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Willie Anderson

The son of a Scottish greenkeeper, Anderson emigrated to the U.S. at age 15 and became the first dominant player in America. He won the U.S. Open four times before age 27, including three consecutively from 1903 to 1905. Anderson finished in the top five 11 of the 14 times that he competed in the national championship.

Tommy Armour

A native of Edinburgh, the "Silver Scot" won the 1927 U.S. Western Open, the 1930 PGA Championship and the 1931 British Open. One of golf's most respected instructors, Armour excelled despite injuries suffered in World War I that left him with one eye and with metal plates in his head and arm.

Jim Barnes

An assistant pro in England at age 15, Barnes came to America at 19, and between 1916 and 1925 won all the major tournaments of his day: the Western Open in 1914, 1917 and 1919; the first two PGA Championships in 1916 and 1919; the 1921 U.S. Open; and the 1925 British Open.

Julius Boros

An accountant by trade, Boros turned professional at age 30. Just two years later, in 1952, he won the U.S. Open and was named PGA Player of the Year. He claimed a second U.S. Open in 1963 at The Country Club in Brookline, MA, and in 1968 captured the PGA Championship at age 48.

Billy Casper

A brilliant putter, Casper won the Vardon Trophy for lowest scoring average five times and was a member of eight Ryder Cup teams. Of his 60 career victories, three were major championships, including the 1966 U.S. Open, when he came from seven strokes back with nine holes to play to tie Arnold Palmer, then won their playoff.

Harry Cooper

Known as "Lighthorse Harry" for the speed at which he played, Cooper won more than 30 professional tournaments between 1926 and 1942. He was never able to capture a major championship, finishing second on three occasions. In 1937, he won nine tournaments and was the first winner of the Vardon Trophy for lowest scoring average.

Fred Corcoran

As tournament manager of the PGA from 1936 to 1947, Corcoran more than doubled the number of Tour events. Working with Babe Zaharias and Patty Berg, and with financial support from Wilson, he was instrumental in forming the LPGA Tour in 1949. Also a promoter and agent, he founded the Golf Writers Association of America in 1946.

Jimmy Demaret

With a personality as colorful as his wardrobe, Demaret was one of golf's most popular figures for four decades. The Texas native once quit professional golf to become a nightclub singer, but returned in 1938 and won the 1940 Masters. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he won the Masters in 1947 and 1950.

Roberto De Vicenzo

De Vicenzo, a native of Argentina, turned professional in 1938 at age 15. He joined the USPGA in 1947 and collected nine career tour victories. A truly international champion, he won more than 200 tournaments worldwide, most notably the 1967 British Open. In 1980 at Winged Foot, De Vicenzo won the inaugural U.S. Senior Open.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Joseph C. Dey

Golf's most respected administrator, Dey was named Executive Secretary of the USGA in 1934, a position he held for 34 years. As the first commissioner of what became the PGA TOUR, he guided the tournament players in their split from the PGA of America. In 1975 he became the second American to captain the Royal and Ancient.

Nick Faldo

Faldo compiled an astounding record prior to his 1997 election to the Hall of Fame. In 20 years he won more than 40 tournaments worldwide, including three British Opens and three Masters Tournaments, and competed on 11 European Ryder Cup Teams. In 1990, Faldo was the first international player to be named PGA of America Player of the Year.

Raymond Floyd

With the 1969 and 1982 PGA Championships and the 1976 Masters Tournament to his credit, Floyd was already a player of renown when he won his fourth major championship title. In 1986, at age 43, he captured the U.S. Open at Shinnecock Hills. His steely competitiveness carried over to a successful career on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Ralph Guldahl

In 1938, Guldahl quit tournament golf in frustration to sell cars in Dallas. He returned one year later and, with victories at Oakland Hills in 1937 and Cherry Hills in 1938, became one of the few players to capture consecutive U.S. Open titles. He also won three consecutive Western Opens and the 1939 Masters Tournament.

Walter Hagen

Flamboyant and charismatic, Hagen was the first professional to make a living playing golf, rather than teaching it. Wild off the tee, but superb at recovery, his fame mirrored his lifestyle. Captain of the first six American Ryder Cup teams, he won two U.S. Opens, four British Opens and five PGA Championships, including four consecutively.

Bob Harlow

Harlow, a newspaperman from Massachusetts, was best known as the founder of Golf World Magazine. As manager for Walter Hagen from 1921 to 1929, and later for Joe Kirkwood, he arranged exhibitions both nationally and abroad. From 1930 to 1935, he served as tournament manager for the PGA TOUR.

Ben Hogan

Hogan was legendary for his intensity and dedication to perfection. Having already claimed two PGA Championships and the U.S. Open by 1948, he suffered a life-threatening auto accident in 1949. Miraculously, he returned to win the U.S. Open in 1950, 1951 and 1953; the Masters Tournament in 1951 and 1953; and the 1953 British Open.

Hale Irwin

An All-America in golf and All-Conference in football at the University of Colorado, Irwin won the 1967 NCAA Golf Championship. Between 1974 and 1990, he captured three U.S. Open titles, the last at age 45 in a 19-hole playoff. After 1995, he devoted himself to golf course design and the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Lawson Little

Stocky and powerful, but renowned for his short game, Little's greatest achievements came as an amateur. In 1934 and 1935, he captured the "Little Slam," winning both the U.S. and British Amateur Championships. After turning professional in 1936, he won seven events, most notably the 1940 U.S. Open in a playoff with Gene Sarazen.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Gene Littler

Littler's first PGA TOUR win came in 1954 as an amateur. His last was in 1977 at age 47. He won the U.S. Amateur in 1953 and the U.S. Open in 1961, but lost both the Masters Tournament and the PGA Championship in playoffs. Littler amassed a total of 29 career PGA TOUR victories.

Lloyd Mangrum

Known as a tough competitor with an aggressive style of play, Mangrum competed in an era that also included Hall of Famers Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson, Jimmy Demaret and Sam Snead. He counted the 1946 U.S. Open among his 36 career victories.

Cary Middlecoff

After becoming the first amateur to win the North and South Open, Dr. Middlecoff abandoned a career in dentistry and turned professional in 1947. A brilliant analyst of the game and the golf swing, he won the U.S. Open in 1949 and 1956 and the Masters Tournament in 1955. He retired with 37 career victories.

Johnny Miller

Miller dominated international golf in the early 1970s, winning 20 tournaments in six years. A remarkable 63 in the final round secured his victory in the 1973 U.S. Open at Oakmont. Winner of the 1976 British Open at Royal Birkdale, Miller gained renown as a television commentator before joining the SENIOR PGA TOUR in 1997.

Byron Nelson

"Lord Byron" won two Masters Tournaments, two PGA Championships and the 1939 U.S. Open. He is best remembered for his 1945 season, when he won 19 tournaments, including 11 consecutively, finished second seven times and compiled a remarkable stroke average of 68.33. In 1947, at age 34, Nelson retired to his ranch in Texas.

Jack Nicklaus

The legendary Bobby Jones said of him: "He plays a game with which I am not familiar." In his monumental career, Nicklaus amassed 18 professional major championship victories, far surpassing any golfer before or since. With more than 100 victories around the world, "The Golden Bear" is arguably the best golfer of the modern era.

Arnold Palmer

The most charismatic player in history, Palmer's emergence in the late 1950s coincided with televised golf to generate unprecedented interest in the game. Arnie won the U.S. Amateur in 1954 and the U.S. Open in 1960. Also among the more than 80 professional victories he collected were four Masters Tournaments, two British Opens and five major championships on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Gary Player

South African Gary Player made up for his diminutive size with a rigorous schedule of fitness training and persistent practice unequalled in golf. His career victories numbered more than 120 worldwide and included all four major championships. Player found later success as a dominant force on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Chi Chi Rodriguez

Rodriguez won eight PGA TOUR events and collected more than 20 SENIOR PGA TOUR titles in his career. But it is his charitable work that will be best remembered. His pro-am tournament helped fund the Children's Hospital in his native Puerto Rico, and his Youth Foundation raised millions for disadvantaged children in Florida.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Paul Runyan

Although one of the shortest hitters of his time, Runyan won more than 50 professional tournaments. After joining the Tour in 1933, he captured 16 events in two years and was leading money-winner in 1933 and 1934. A highly regarded short game and putting instructor, he won the PGA Championship twice, in 1934 and 1938.

Gene Sarazen

Sarazen was the first golfer to win all four major championships. He won the U.S. Open in 1922 and 1932; the PGA in 1922, 1923, and 1933; and the British Open in 1932. But his victory in the 1935 Masters Tournament is best remembered for a remarkable final-round double-eagle on the 15th hole at Augusta National.

Horton Smith

In 1929, at age 21, Smith played in 19 professional events, winning eight and finishing second four times. He remained a top professional throughout the 1930s, winning the first and third Masters Tournaments in 1934 and 1936. His last tournament win came in 1941, the year before he left golf to join the army.

Sam Snead

"Slammin' Sam" Snead is renowned for his classical swing and the longevity of his career. The winner of three PGA Championships, three Masters Tournaments and the British Open, he made eight Ryder Cup appearances and was captain of the U.S. Team three times. Snead recorded 81 Tour victories, his last in 1965 at age 52.

Peter Thomson

One of the most intriguing players the game has known, the Australian-born Thomson captured five British Open titles between 1954 and 1965, including three consecutively from 1954 to 1956. With wide interests that ranged from politics to music, Thomson maintained successful careers as a writer and golf course architect outside of competition.

Lee Trevino

The ultimate self-made champion, Trevino made the transition from assistant professional at a Texas driving range to U.S. Open champion. He captured that title twice, in 1968 and 1971. With two British Opens, two PGA Championships and six Ryder Cup appearances to his credit, he later had a dominant career on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Tom Watson

Watson's major championship victories included five British Opens and two Masters Tournaments. His victory in the 1982 U.S. Open featured a dramatic chip-in on the 17th hole at Pebble Beach. Arguably the most consistent player for a decade, he was the PGA TOUR's leading money-winner and Player of the Year four consecutive times from 1977 to 1980.

CHARITABLE MISSION OF THE WORLD GOLF FOUNDATION

World Golf Foundation, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that has received the support of all major golf organizations throughout the world. The responsibilities of the World Golf Foundation include managing the World Golf Hall of Fame, the IMAX Theater and various charitable initiatives.

As the Founding Partner of World Golf Village, Shell Oil Company provides financial support and plays a lead role in the World Golf Hall of Fame and its charities.

One of the World Golf Foundation's charitable missions, on behalf of the supporting golf organizations, is to introduce golf to those who otherwise may not have an opportunity to experience the game, and through the golf experience promote scholastic achievement, community service, and the values of honesty, integrity and sportsmanship.

To this end, The First Tee was introduced in Nov. 1997 as an initiative to create new facilities and affordable access to golf. This initiative has the support and participation of various key sectors, including leading golf organizations and foundations, and a wide range of public sector constituencies.

"We want to create affordable entry points to golf for everyone who is interested in playing the game," said former President George Bush, Honorary Chairman of The First Tee.

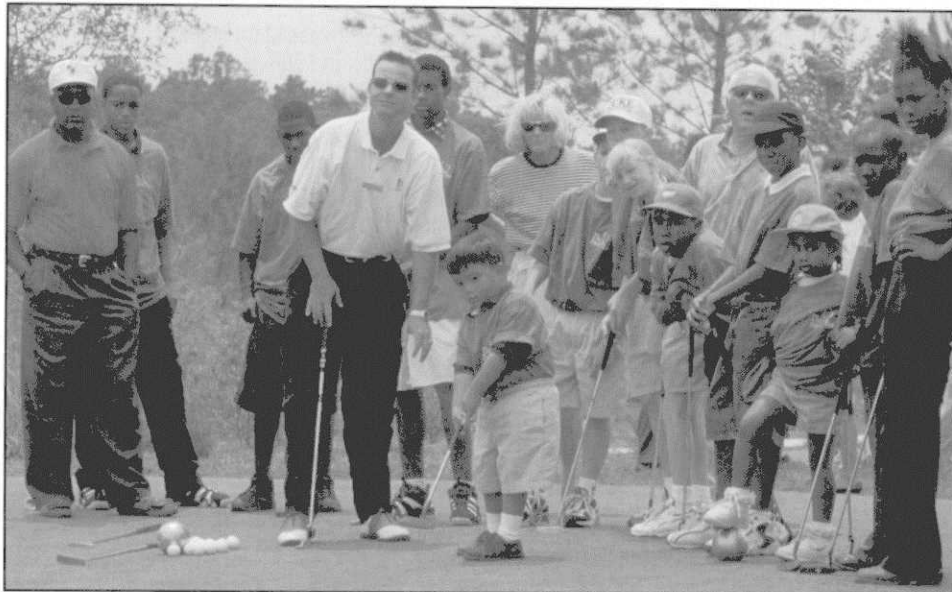

The vision is to create hundreds of facilities and programs throughout the United States over the next 10 years, impacting those who have not had exposure to the game, particularly youth.

"Those of us who believe in the values of golf want to see the opportunity to play the game extended to all segments of our population," said Tim Finchem, PGA TOUR Commissioner and Chairman of the World Golf Foundation Board of Directors. "This program, The First Tee, can have a tremendous impact on golf – but, more importantly, it can have a real impact on the lives of young people who are attracted to the game."

A menu of model programs can be implemented in communities based on land availability, existing golf facilities, area needs and the level of support of municipalities and other youth programs.

The First Tee provides golf management expertise, consulting services and land planning to communities and organizations interested in having The First Tee in their areas. While proceeds from the World Golf Hall of Fame benefit The First Tee, public-private partnerships in each community are the primary funding source for each facility.

"With the support of the public and private sectors, and with the expertise of so many golf organizations available to this program, golf will find its way into new communities and new segments of the population," Finchem said.

THE FIRST TEE

The First Tee is a World Golf Foundation initiative to create new facilities and affordable access to golf, with special emphasis on youngsters who otherwise may not have an opportunity to experience the game.

The initial goal of The First Tee was to identify sites for 100 golf facilities in various stages of planning, development and operation by the end of the year 2000. Each of these facilities will have the capability of introducing golf to as many as 1,000 children and adults annually.

The First Tee is well on its way to fulfilling that initial goal. In October of 1999, nearly two years after the initiative first was announced, the second First Tee National Association meeting was held in Houston. More than 400 civic, business and political leaders attended, representing more than 75 First Tee Chapters or Chapters in development and 100 communities.

The true value of the program is based on golf's unique ability to instill and nurture essential values, such as honesty, integrity, sportsmanship and a solid work ethic in young people who are introduced to the game.

This initiative has the support and participation of a variety of key sectors:

- The leading U.S. golf organizations, including the PGA TOUR, United States Golf Association, PGA of America, Ladies Professional Golf Association and Augusta National Golf Club, which are represented on the First Tee Oversight Committee.
- A wide range of public sector constituencies, including the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Bureau of Land Management, National Association of Parks and Recreation, National League of Cities, U.S. Conference of Mayors and the National Association of County Officials.
- A variety of groups, including the Tiger Woods Foundation and the National Minority Golf Foundation, dedicated to extending the reach of golf to new segments of the population.

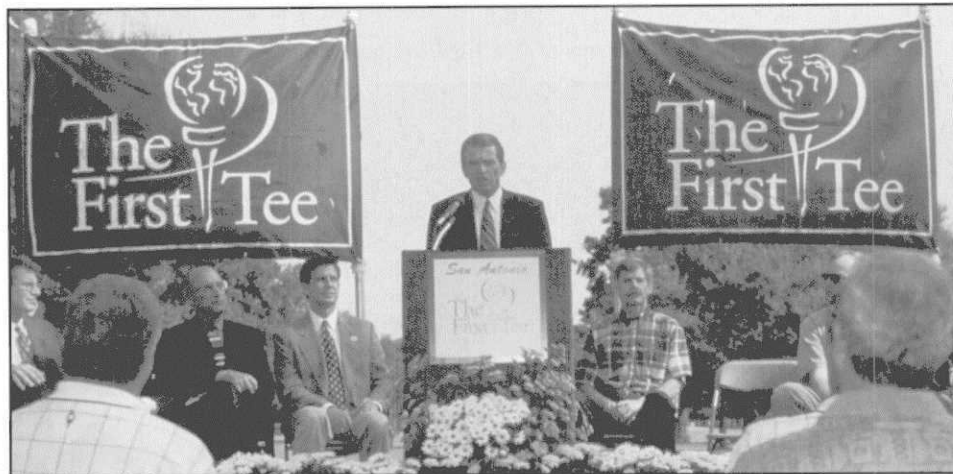

The First Tee currently is focused on developing financial support and acquiring locations for these golf facilities. Common types of facilities include a three-hole course, a nine-hole executive length course, a full-scale 18-hole course and a 21-hole facility. All of these facilities will feature extensive teaching and practice areas and a multi-use clubhouse.

The development effort depends on support from prominent individuals and organizations who appreciate the values instilled by golf and the game's ability to positively influence young people's lives.

Primary contributions of the initiative include the provision of expertise and consulting advice, land planning services and other services to reduce the total cost of each project.

Funds raised will be leveraged through public-private partnerships to significantly increase the impact of the initial contributions.

The First Tee Board of Trustees oversees the fundraising, budget and program functions of The First Tee. President George Bush is Honorary Chairman of the initiative.

PGA TOUR PRODUCTIONS

PGA TOUR Productions is the television, film and video production company of the PGA TOUR.

Most people know PGA TOUR Productions by its award-winning "Inside the PGA TOUR" and "Inside the SENIOR PGA TOUR," which are broadcast each week on ESPN and are celebrating their 16th and 10th seasons, respectively. Additionally, PGA TOUR Productions produces "This is The PGA TOUR" for FOX Sports Net.

In addition to the "Inside" shows, Productions has developed an expertise in delivering live and live-to-tape golf events, including the RE/MAX World Long Drive Championship, Chrysler Senior Match Play Challenge and JCPenney Classic, as well as the Touchstone Energy Tucson Open and The Reno-Tahoe Open for CNBC.

Last year, a state-of-the-art studio came on line at World Golf Village for live programming with USA Network. USA Network's early round action will be supplemented in 2000 with studio-based programming produced by Productions.

PGA TOUR Productions also serves a worldwide clientele by producing, in conjunction with the networks, international live telecasts of PGA TOUR events. In 1999, Productions launched the PGA TOUR Enhanced Feed, serving South and Central America, South Africa, Europe and Asia. PGA TOUR Productions' programming is distributed to more than 140 countries, translated into 17 languages and available to more than 250 million homes worldwide.

PGA TOUR Productions is housed in a 32,000-square-foot, all-digital facility at World Golf Village, located in St. Augustine, FL. Along with the latest in television and communications technology, Productions houses the world's most extensive golf footage library. World Golf Village is located adjacent to Interstate 95, just north of St. Augustine.

PGATOUR.com

(On the Internet at <http://www.pgatour.com>)

The PGA TOUR conquered a new frontier when it entered cyberspace on January 8, 1997, quickly becoming one of the most popular sports sites on the World Wide Web.

Two years later, on August 16, 1999, PGATOUR.com joined forces with SportsLine USA, Inc., publisher of CBS SportsLine and GolfWeb, creating the largest, most comprehensive golf content, community and e-commerce site on the Internet.

Since going global, PGATOUR.com has gained a reputation as the Internet authority on golf, with complete coverage of the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR, as well as the latest news, features and statistics from the European Tour, LPGA Tour and other golf organizations worldwide. The combined site also features recreational golf, travel opportunities, instruction and a variety of interactive tools such as the course guide.

PGATOUR.com averages more than 1.5 million page views each day as people access its exclusive features, and among the most popular is real-time scoring. Fans can track their favorite player's progress on a hole-by-hole basis.

New additions like "My Leaderboard" also have proven popular. The interactive feature enables fans to create their own personalized leaderboard to follow up to 10 of their favorite players' scores during tournaments.

The Broadcast Booth provides regular early-round coverage, and PGATOUR.com also features audio links to PGA TOUR Radio broadcasts. Players and fans can participate in chat sessions and listen to press conferences live. Video, instruction and the official online PGA TOUR Shop complete the site.

With the help of Foundation Sponsors Michelob, IBM, Titleist and Buick, PGATOUR.com continues to develop new innovative technology and interactive features that will offer viewers a unique experience while making it the No. 1 destination for golf fans on the Web.

PGA TOUR RADIO

PGA TOUR Radio (PGATR), the exclusive radio rights holder of the PGA TOUR, broadcasts the only live play-by-play coverage of the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR. Golf fans are provided with comprehensive, insightful and entertaining Saturday and Sunday coverage for 40 tournaments.

Now in its fourth year of broadcasting, PGA TOUR Radio reaches one-million-plus golf fans through more than 290 radio stations in more than 160 markets in the United States and Canada. Weekly programming consists of the following:

Leaderboard Updates — "news break" tournament summary reports of the day's leaders and timely story vignette that focus on all three TOURs airing Thursday-Sunday
Straight from the TOUR — one hour magazine show airing on Saturday mornings
Live Play-by-Play — live broadcast two hours each on Saturday and Sunday

PGA TOUR Radio also offers the only live professional golf coverage on the World Wide Web, broadcasting each week on pgatour.com.

Additional information, including broadcast schedules and audio feeds, can be found on pgatourradio.com and pgatour.com.
