Official Media Guide of the PGA TOUR

A MESSAGE TO THE MEDIA

On behalf of the members and staff of the PGA TOUR, welcome to our 2001 season, one we are certain will add another exciting and memorable chapter to our history.

We clearly recognize and appreciate the extent to which the PGA TOUR's success is tied to the thorough and professional media coverage we have received through the years. We can assure you there will be much more on the horizon that is worth your attention, and our staff stands ready to assist you in any way.

The 2001 PGA TOUR season begins and ends with a global connection. For the first time, a PGA TOUR season commences on foreign soil, in Melbourne, Australia at the World Golf Championships—Accenture Match Play Championship. Our regular season concludes at the WGC—EMC World Cup in November, the first World Golf Championships event to be contested in Japan.

The competitive bar on the PGA TOUR has clearly been elevated over the past several years, in no small measure due to the incredible achievements of Tiger Woods, as well as a number of our other young, dynamic stars. One can only imagine what new achievements lie in store in 2001 in such a highly-charged competitive environment.

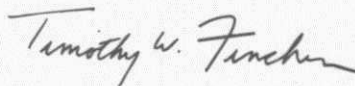

Prize money is slated to increase this year to approximately $180 million, up by nearly $13 million over last season. But as always, charity remains our leading money winner, and we fully expect to improve on last year's record of $50 million returned to the communities in which our events are staged.

ShotLink, a state-of-the-art scoring and statistical system several years in the making, will be unveiled in the spring, and we are confident it will provide a significant fan enhancement, as well as an innovation that will make valuable information available to you in a more timely and meaningful manner.

While proud of our past, we also recognize our responsibility in charting the PGA TOUR's future course. To that end, we are indeed pleased that the golf industry has come together as a group to discuss a strategy for growing the game of golf over the next 20 years. "Golf 20/20," the industry-wide conference held at World Golf Village last November, included an impressive cross-section of golf's top leaders who established an ambitious vision for future growth, as well as the initial elements of an action plan for achieving that vision. We expect to have a second conference late in 2001 to review progress and develop additional plans.

We hope this publication will be useful to you in your coverage of the PGA TOUR in 2001. Our Communications Department staff people, both at tournament sites and at PGA TOUR Headquarters, are always available to answer any questions you may have, or to assist in any way. Please feel free to contact them at any time.

Thanks again for your professional coverage of the PGA TOUR, and we hope you thoroughly enjoy the 2001 season.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE PGA TOUR

It is not always easy to pinpoint the exact beginning of something. So it is with the PGA TOUR. Certainly, professionals have competed against each other from the earliest days of the game in the United States.

In 1895, 10 professional golfers and one amateur played in the first U.S. Open in Newport, RI. Shortly thereafter, tournaments began to pop up across the country. There was the Western Open in 1899. But this was not "tour" golf. The events lacked continuity.

Interest in the game, however, continued to grow. American professionals were rapidly improving. And when John McDermott became the first American-born player to win the U.S. Open in 1911, interest in the game blossomed.

That interest became enthusiasm in 1913, when Englishmen Harry Vardon and Ted Ray came to the United States to play an exhibition tour and compete in the U.S. Open. When 20-year-old amateur Francis Ouimet defeated the pair in a playoff for the Open at Brookline, MA., golf became front page news and a game for everyone.

In the early 1920s, a series of tournaments was held on the West Coast, Texas and Florida. These events were held in the winter, and the golfers played their way east and up to Pinehurst in the spring. By the middle of the decade, the tour was doing relatively well—offering $77,000 in total prize money.

The first "playing pros" organization was formed in 1932. Two years earlier, Bob Harlow had been named manager of the PGA Tournament Bureau.

The tour became more structured following World War II and exploded in the late 1950s and early '60s. When Arnold Palmer, televised golf and President Eisenhower arrived on the scene in the late '50s, the eyes of the world were on golf. This exposure inspired millions to try the game.

Most golf historians would trace the "formal" beginning of the PGA TOUR to late 1968, when the "Tournament Players Division" split from the PGA of America and hired Joseph C. Dey as its first Commissioner. That organization became the modern-day PGA TOUR. Dey served from early 1969 through February 28, 1974, and was succeeded by Deane R. Beman on March 1, 1974.

During Beman's administration, the value of tournament purses escalated at an unprecedented rate: PGA TOUR assets grew from $730,000 in 1974 to more than $200 million, and total revenues increased from $3.9 million to $229 million in 1993.

Timothy W. Finchem, previously the TOUR's Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer, became the TOUR's third Commissioner on June 1, 1994. In 1995, Finchem undertook a restructuring program designed to strengthen the PGA TOUR's core business, which is its competitions; expand the TOUR's international scope and prepare it to enter the 21st Century. In 1996, Finchem helped spearhead formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours, as golf's five world governing bodies laid the groundwork for taking competition into the next millennium. In 1997, the Federation announced the World Golf Championships, which made their debut in 1999 with three events—the Accenture Match Play Championship, NEC Invitational and American Express Championship. The EMC World Cup was played for the first time in 2000.

Since 1938, PGA TOUR events have donated more than one-half billion dollars to charity. One-year charity giving records have been produced annually since 1992.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR also is much broader today. The SENIOR PGA TOUR, called by many the most successful senior sports venture in history, began its third decade of play in 2000. Since starting with just two co-sponsored events and $250,000 in prize money in 1980, the SENIOR TOUR has grown to 45 events, with purses totaling $64.5 million. The BUY.COM TOUR began its second decade with substantially increased purses and recognition as a highly competitive tour worthy of Official World Golf Ranking points. The BUY.COM TOUR provides outstanding golf competition in more than 30 communities while raising significant charity dollars. Among the alums of this TOUR who have gone on to star on the PGA TOUR are David Duval, Tom Lehman, Jeff Maggert, Stuart Appleby and Stewart Cink.

Also continuing to grow is the Tournament Players Club Network. When the PGA TOUR opened the Tournament Players Club at Sawgrass in 1980, it introduced the era of Stadium Golf and record-breaking attendance. Owned and/or operated by the TOUR, these courses are the only major league sports venues owned by the players themselves.

The TPC Network now includes 20 facilities in the United States, with one more scheduled to open in 2001.

ABOUT THE COMMISSIONER

Timothy W. Finchem

Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem, 53, is the third Commissioner of the PGA TOUR.

Finchem succeeded Deane R. Beman as Commissioner on June 1, 1994. Beman had served for 20 years, replacing the late Joseph C. Dey, who had been the TOUR's Commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Finchem, Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer of the TOUR under Beman since 1989, had joined the TOUR staff as Vice President of Business Affairs in 1987.

As Commissioner, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players domestically and internationally. He also has taken leadership roles in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation, Inc.

His personal dedication to the success of the World Golf Foundation's First Tee initiative has helped that program achieve its initial objectives in developing facilities that will have an impact on the game for years to come.

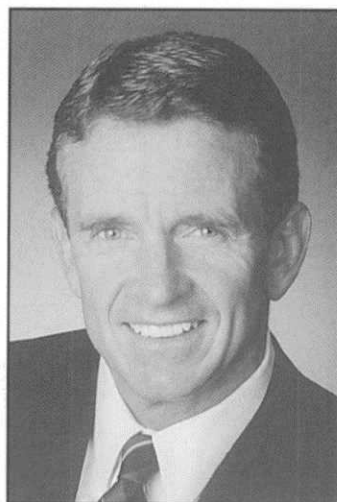

"Our primary purpose as a membership organization is to create outstanding playing and earnings opportunities for our players," Finchem says, "and we are proud of what our tournaments do for charity (more than $550 million raised) and the active role we have been able to take as an organization in growing the game for future generations."

Born in Ottawa, IL on April 19, 1947, Finchem was graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He was graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973.

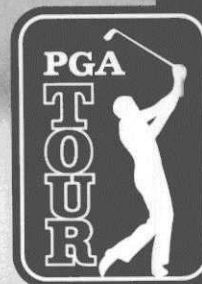

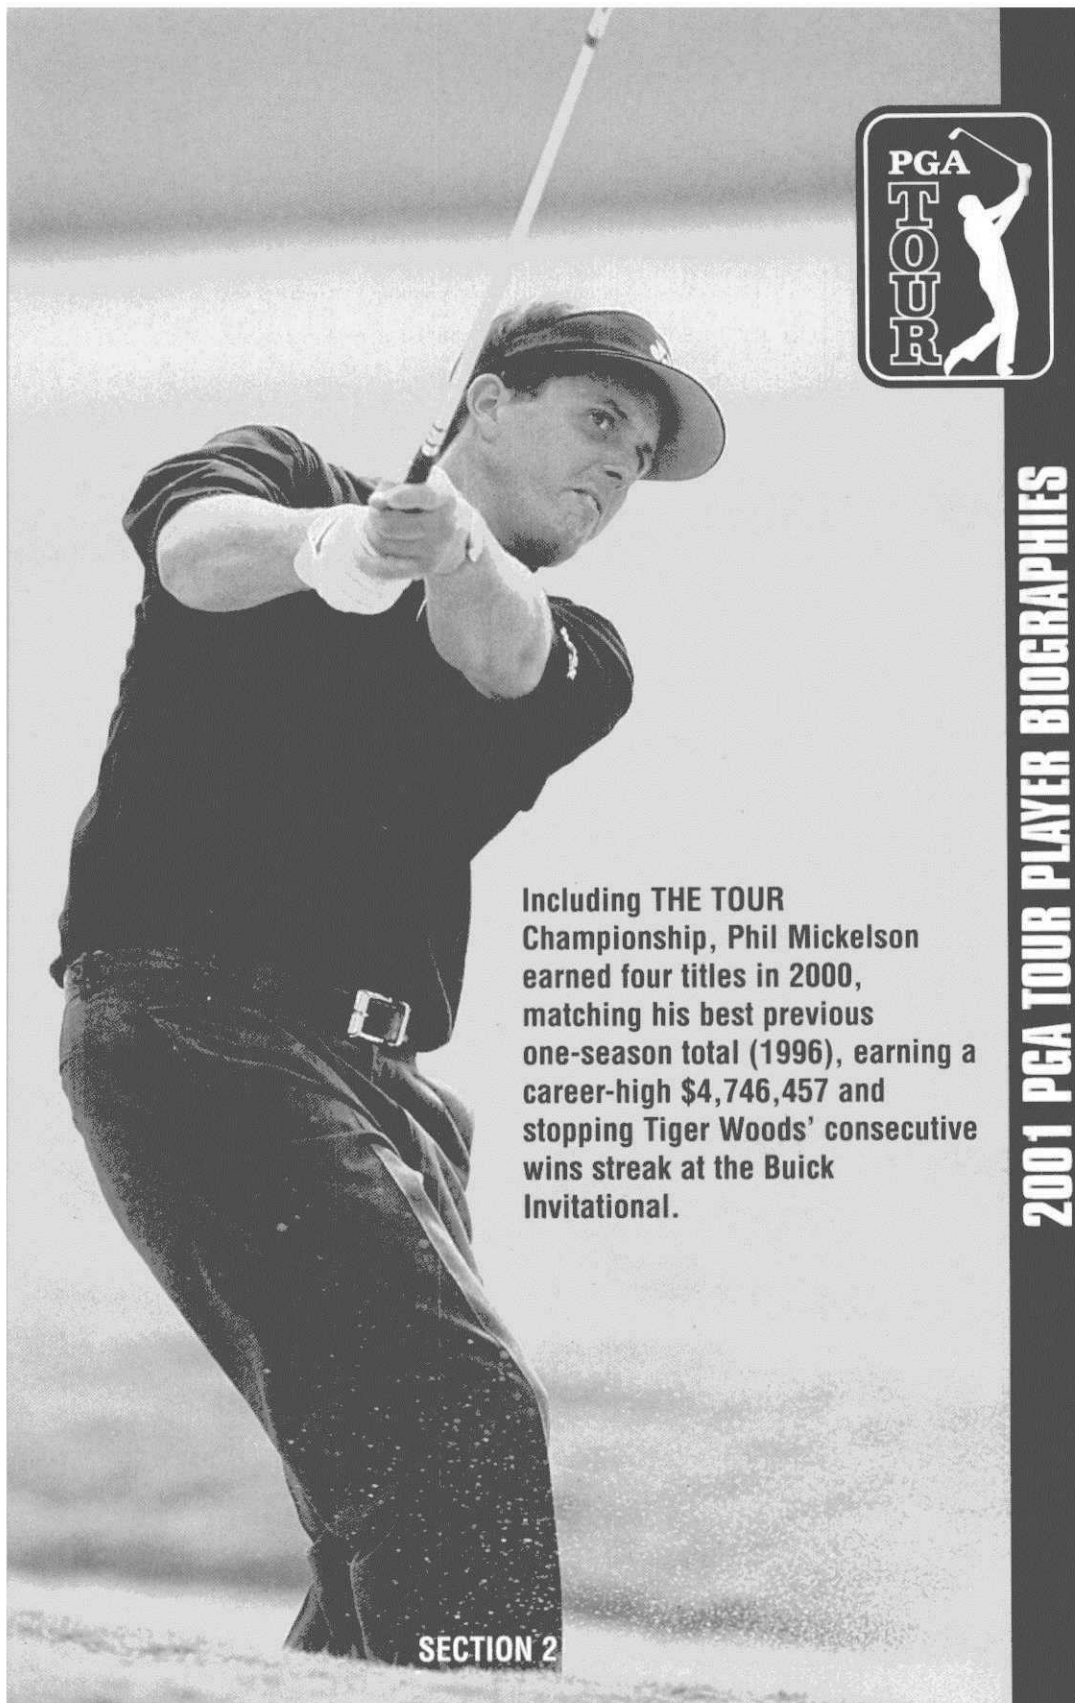

After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Marketing and Strategies Group in Washington, D.C.

A physical fitness advocate, Finchem is a member of the President's Council on Physical Fitness. He also is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001.

Married to the former Holly Bachand, Finchem is a father of four. The Finchems live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Including THE TOUR Championship, Phil Mickelson earned four titles in 2000, matching his best previous one-season total (1996), earning a career-high $4,746,457 and stopping Tiger Woods' consecutive wins streak at the Buick Invitational.

MERCEDES CHAMPIONSHIPS NOTES

With his victory at the 2000 Mercedes Championships, Tiger Woods became the 12th player in the event's 48-year history to win a second time. Jack Nicklaus holds the tournament record with five victories, followed by Gene Littler, Arnold Palmer and Tom Watson, each with three wins.

Tiger Woods has made the most of his opportunities at the Mercedes Championships the last four years. Woods, who has two victories (1997, 2000), a tie for second (1998) and tie for fifth (1999), is the leading money-winner in Mercedes Championships history with $982,500.

Playoffs have been surprisingly rare at the Mercedes Championships, where in 48 years nine tournaments have needed extra holes to determine a winner. However, Tiger Woods has won both of his Mercedes Championships titles in playoff fashion. Prior to his defeat of Ernie Els in 2000, Woods defeated Tom Lehman in a weather-shortened event in 1997.

AT&T PEBBLE BEACH NATIONAL PRO-AM NOTES

Tiger Woods equaled Ben Hogan's record of six straight PGA TOUR victories with his five-stroke, come-from-behind win at the 2000 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

There hasn't been a wire-to-wire winner of the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am since the tournament went to a 72-hole format in 1958. Jimmy Demaret led after both rounds of the 36-hole tournament in 1952.

Mark O'Meara, the winner of five AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Ams, would become only the fifth player in PGA TOUR history to win the same event six times with another victory. The record for most victories in a single event is eight, by Sam Snead in the Greater Greensboro Open.

The 18-hole scoring record at Pebble Beach Golf Links is 10-under-par 62, established by Tom Kite in 1983. David Duval matched Kite's record at Pebble in the third round of the 1997 tournament.

NISSAN OPEN NOTES

Kirk Triplett sank his final putt to avoid a playoff and win the 2000 Nissan Open by one stroke over Jesper Parnevik. Parnevik made it as difficult as possible for Triplett by ramming in a 25-foot birdie putt on the final hole, forcing Kirk to complete a testy par save with a four-footer. Triplett's first victory came after 11 years and 266 starts on the PGA TOUR.

Kirk Triplett became the first player to make the Nissan Open his first career PGA TOUR victory since 1988, when Chip Bock won.

WORLD GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS-ANDERSEN CONSULTING MATCH PLAY CHAMPIONSHIP
1999	Jeff Maggert	38 holes	Andrew Magee	LaCosta Resort and Spa, Carlsbad, CA	72/7022
2000	Darren Clarke	4 and 3	Tiger Woods	LaCosta Resort and Spa, Carlsbad, CA	72/7022

ACCENTURE MATCH PLAY CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

Three of the top four seeded players advanced to the semifinals of last year's event. That is a departure from the tournament's inaugural playing in 1999, when five of the top seven seeded players lost in the first round. Additionally, seven of the final eight players in 2000 were participants in the 1999 Ryder Cup.

Tiger Woods and Shigeki Maruyama are the only players to make it past the first two rounds in the first two years of this event. Woods lost in the quarterfinals in 1999 and was runner-up in 2000. Maruyama also lost in the quarterfinals in 1999 and was ousted by Woods in the third round in 2000.

Heading into the 2001 season, Tiger Woods had won four World Golf Championships events – but had not yet earned an Accenture Match Play Championship title. In the first two years of the World Golf Championships, Woods had two victories at the NEC Invitational, one at the American Express Championship and shared the title with David Duval at the inaugural EMC World Cup, a team play event.

GENUITY CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

Jim Furyk not only tied the Genuity Championship record of 23-under par established by Greg Norman in 1993, but when he won the 2000 tournament, Furyk overcame a six-stroke deficit with seven holes to play to edge Franklin Langham.

Edward Fryatt tied a PGA TOUR record when he produced eight consecutive birdies during his second-round 62 at the 2000 Doral-Ryder Open (now the Genuity Championship).

When Raymond Floyd won the 1992 Doral-Ryder Open, he became the fifth oldest winner in PGA TOUR history at the age of 49 years, 6 months and 4 days. With that title, Floyd joined Sam Snead as the only players to win TOUR events in four different decades.

COMPAQ CLASSIC NOTE

Carlos Franco's victory last year at English Turn Golf & Country Club was noteworthy for two reasons. Franco became the first player to successfully defend a title since Jim Furyk won the 1998 and 1999 Las Vegas Invitationals. And his victory marked the first time a player had won back-to-back titles in New Orleans since Tom Watson accomplished the feat in 1980 and 1981.

U.S. OPEN NOTES

Tiger Woods' 15-stroke victory last year shattered a U.S. Open record that had stood since Willie Anderson won the 1899 Open by 11 strokes. It also is the largest margin of victory in a major championship. The previous best was Old Tom Morris' 13-shot win in the 1862 British Open.

Tiger Woods finished 12-under-par 272 at the 2000 U.S. Open to win his fifth tournament of the year and 20th of his career. No other player in the 156-man field, which boasted a combined total of 35 major championships, could break par for 72 holes.

BRITISH OPEN NOTES

With his eight-stroke victory at St. Andrews, Tiger Woods became the youngest player in golf history – 24 years, six months and 23 days – to win all four major championships. He also was only the fifth ever, joining Gene Sarazen, Ben Hogan, Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus. Nicklaus was the youngest previous, accomplishing the career Grand Slam feat in 1966 at 26.

Tiger Woods needed a tough two-putt par at No. 18 last year to eclipse Nick Faldo's tournament record of 18-under par, established at the Old Course in 1990. Woods converted a four-foot putt to shoot 3-under-par 69 and finish at 19-under 269 after previous rounds of 67-66-67.

Last year, Tiger Woods became only the third British Open Champion to record four rounds under 70. Greg Norman did it in 1993 at Royal St. George's (66-68-69-64), while Nick Price accomplished the feat in 1994 at Turnberry (69-66-67-66).

RENO-TAHOE NOTES

Scott Verplank's playoff victory over Jean Van de Velde in the 2000 Reno-Tahoe Open was his third career victory, but his first since the 1988 Buick Open. That time span of 12 years and 27 days between victories ranks as fourth longest in PGA TOUR history. Butch Baird holds the record of 15 years, five months and 10 days.

Notah Begay III, winner of the inaugural Reno-Tahoe Open in 1999, was unable to defend his title due to the fact he qualified for the World Golf Championships-NEC Invitational the same week of the 2000 tournament.

Brian Henninger's second-round, 9-under-par 63 matched his career best and helped vault him from T32, after the event's opening round, into sole possession of first place. Ironically, the last time Henninger shot a 63 was at the 2000 Advil Western Open, a week in which he also was alone in first place after the second round.

AIR CANADA CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

Rory Sabbatini was one of nine first-time winners on the PGA TOUR in 2000. The others were Kirk Triplett, Darren Clarke, Jim Carter, Robert Allenby, Tom Scherrer, Dennis Paulson, Michael Clark II and Chris DiMarco.

Rory Sabbatini's victory earned him the distinction of being the fourth first-time winner in the Air Canada Championship's five-year history. Sabbatini joined Guy Boros (1996), Brandel Chamblee (1998) and Mike Weir (1999).

Tim Herron's 64 in 2000 tied the Air Canada Championship record for best third-round score, established by Mike Weir in 1999. Herron posted six birdies on his way to carding a 29 through the back nine holes. That 29 tied the mark for low 9 on last year's PGA TOUR.

The 87 players who made the 36-hole cut at the 2000 Air Canada Championship was the largest total of the year on the PGA TOUR. In fact, it was the largest number to make the cut since the 1997 Quad City Classic.

For winning the three national championships, Tiger received the Triple Crown Trophy from the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

In 2000, Tiger Woods became the 29th different Bell Canadian Open champion who previously had won a major championship. Of the 91 Canadian Opens, 45 have been won by players who owned major titles.

MARCONI PENNSYLVANIA CLASSIC NOTES

The inaugural Pennsylvania Classic, under the banner of SEI in 2000, marked the first time in 20 years the PGA TOUR has had an event in the Keystone State, dating back to the 1980 IVB-Philadelphia Classic.

Rocco Mediate, Ted Tryba and Jim Furyk made a playing return to their Pennsylvania roots with mixed results. While Mediate (T33) and Tryba (T46) made the cut, Furyk did not. Heading into the week, Furyk was second to Tiger Woods in consecutive cuts made with 43. The West Chester, PA-born player finished at 2-over-par 144, missing the cut by one stroke.

The highlight to Chris DiMarco's breakthrough PGA TOUR season came at the SEI Pennsylvania Classic, where DiMarco earned his maiden TOUR title. The win propelled DiMarco into the top 30 on the PGA TOUR money list and brought a spot in his first TOUR Championship.

Mark Calcavecchia tied for second, his 22nd career runner-up finish. That tied Calcavecchia with Ben Crenshaw for second place behind Greg Norman among active PGA TOUR players.

Jim Carter established the tournament record for 18-hole score with a second- round 7-under-par 64. Carter, who began his round on the back nine, recorded eight birdies prior to posting his lone bogey on his last hole of the day, the par-4 ninth at Waynesborough CC.

Tournament Record:	271—John Huston, 2000
Course Record:	64—Mike Hulbert, 2000

TAMPA BAY CLASSIC NOTES

John Huston's victory at the inaugural Tampa Bay Classic in 2000 marked his first victory in 65 starts, dating back to his win at the 1998 National Car Rental Golf Classic at Walt Disney World Resort.

John Huston, a Palm Harbor, FL resident, has won five of his six career PGA TOUR titles in the state of Florida.

John Huston came from four strokes behind at the start of the fourth round to win by three over Carl Paulson. Making up ground on the final day was nothing new for Huston, who previously had won in come-from-behind fashion four times in his career.

Mike Hulbert's opening-round, 7-under-par 64 at the Westin Innisbrook Resort established the 18-hole record for the Tampa Bay Classic. Hulbert's 64 gave him a two-stroke in the inaugural event. After a pair of 75s in the middle rounds, Hulbert closed with 69, giving him a tie for 33rd place.

AMERICAN EXPRESS CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

Mike Weir capped his third full PGA TOUR season with his second career PGA TOUR victory at the World Golf Championships–American Express Championship. The win sealed Weir's first TOUR Player of the Month honor – for the month of November.

Along with his $1-million payday, Mike Weir also earned the distinction of being only the sixth man in PGA TOUR history to surpass $2 million in single-season earnings. Weir's season-ending total of $2,547,829 was good for sixth place on the TOUR's official money list.

Lee Westwood's second-place finish at the 2000 American Express Championship earned him just enough to edge Darren Clarke for top honors on the European Tour's Order of Merit.

WGC—EMC WORLD CUP

HISTORY OF EMC WORLD CUP OF GOLF

The EMC World Cup made its debut as the fourth World Golf Championships event last December in Argentina. Tiger Woods and David Duval were the first winners of the International Federation of PGA Tours sanctioned event.

The World Cup of Golf began as the Canada Cup in 1953, also in Argentina. Appropriately, Argentinians Roberto De Vicenzo and Antonio Cerda were its first winners, and Cerda was individual champion. Under the EMC World Cup format, there is no individual champion.

As did the World Cup of Golf, the EMC World Cup features two-man teams. However, as opposed to 32 teams under the old format, the World Golf Championships event is comprised of 24. Eighteen teams are based on top players from the Official World Golf Ranking, and six become eligible via qualifying competitions.

The International Golf Association (IGA) operated the World Cup of Golf from its inception through 1999. Fred Couples and Davis Love III won a record four consecutive World Cups for the United States (1992-95). Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer also won four times, in 1963-64 and 1966-67.

The 2001 EMC World Cup of Golf will be played Nov. 12-18 at The Taiheiyo Club in Gotemba City, Japan.

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF PGA TOURS / WORLD GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

At the 1996 Presidents Cup, golf's five world governing bodies – the European Tour, Japan Golf Tour Organization, PGA TOUR, PGA Tour of Australasia and Southern Africa Tour – reached agreement on several key elements of professional golf designed to create new international events beginning in 1999.

Three major initiatives were outlined at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club, site of the second Presidents Cup:

- Formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours.
- Joint sanctioning by the members of the International Federation of PGA Tours of significant competitions, including some at the world championship level, for the game's top players.
- A structure for a generally accepted worldwide ranking system.

Those "significant competitions" were announced in Oct. 1997, when the Federation introduced the World Golf Championships.

The first three jointly sanctioned championships – the Accenture Match Play Championship, NEC Invitational and American Express Championship – were launched in 1999 with Jeff Maggert winning the first event and Tiger Woods the latter two. The addition of the EMC World Cup was announced in Dec. 1999. That event made its debut in Dec. 2000.

In 2000, Darren Clarke won the second Accenture Match Play Championship, while Tiger Woods was successful in the defense of his NEC Invitational title. Mike Weir won the American Express Championship, while Woods and David Duval teamed to win the inaugural EMC World Cup for the United States.

The World Golf Championships events feature players from around the world competing against one another in varied formats (match play, stroke play and team). The championships rotate through a variety of outstanding venues worldwide. Roughly half of the golf courses are in the United States, with the other half in venues represented by the International Federation of PGA Tours. By the end of the 2001 season, World Golf Championships events will have been contested on five continents.

The World Golf Championships were developed to enhance the competitive structure of professional golf worldwide while preserving the traditions and strengths of the individual Tours and their events.

The Asian PGA joined the International Federation of PGA Tours as a full-fledged member in Nov. 1999, while the Canadian Tour was named an associate member in Mar. 2000.

Accenture, NEC, American Express and EMC are the four umbrella sponsors of the World Golf Championships. Anheuser-Busch, Kohler and Invensys are worldwide official sponsors. Buick Motor Division is an official sponsor of Championships in the United States, while Volvo is an official sponsor in Europe. Bridgestone/Firestone is an official sponsor of the NEC Invitational.

Fields for the World Golf Championships are filled primarily through the Official World Golf Ranking, which is endorsed by all the sport's major professional organizations and governing bodies. Also used are individual Tour's Official Money Lists/Orders of Merit.

THE PRESIDENTS CUP

The Presidents Cup will be contested outside the United States for a second time when the 2002 competition is held Nov. 7-10 at The Links Course at Fancourt Hotel and Country Club Estate in George, South Africa.

The Presidents Cup was developed to give the world's best non-European players an opportunity to compete in international team match-play competition.

A biennial event held in non-Ryder Cup years, the first Presidents Cup was played Sept. 16-18, 1994 at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, VA. The United States Team, captained by Hale Irwin, defeated the International side of David Graham, 20-12.

The United States also won the second Presidents Cup, held Sept. 13-15, 1996, played again at Robert Trent Jones GC. Arnold Palmer, no stranger to high-level international competition, had the reins as the U.S. edged Peter Thomson's International Team, 16½-15½.

The 1998 Presidents Cup was played Dec. 11-13 at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Australia. The International Team won 20½-11½. Jack Nicklaus served as Captain of the U.S. Team, while Thomson repeated his role for the International Team.

In 2000, The Presidents Cup returned to Robert Trent Jones, where the United States avenged its 1998 loss with a 21½-10½ victory over the International Team. Thomson captained the International Team for a third time, while Ken Venturi was victorious in his debut.

Former U.S. President Gerald Ford presided over the first Presidents Cup Match as Honorary Chairman. Former President George Bush, like Ford an avid golfer, served as Honorary Chairman for the 1996 Presidents Cup. Australian Prime Minister John Howard was Honorary Chairman for the 1998 event. In 2000, President Bill Clinton made history when he became the first sitting President to serve as Honorary Chairman.

Members of the 2002 U.S. Team will be selected based on official earnings from the start of the 2001 season through the 2002 PGA Championship. All 2002 money will be doubled. International Team players for the 2002 Presidents Cup will be chosen on the basis of the Official World Golf Ranking. International Teams do not include players eligible for the European Ryder Cup Team.

The eligibility rankings are used to select 10 members of each squad. Two Captain's Choices round out the 12-man teams.

The Presidents Cup competition consists of 32 matches—10 foursomes and 10 four-ball matches, followed by 12 singles matches involving all players on the final Sunday. All matches are worth one point each, for a total of 32 points. There are no playoffs for foursome, four-ball or singles matches all square after 18 holes. In the event of a halve, each side will receive ½ point.

If a Presidents Cup Match is deadlocked at the end of singles play, there will be a sudden-death playoff between two players designated in advance by the respective captains.

As is the case with virtually all activity involving the PGA TOUR, charity is the ultimate winner of The Presidents Cup.

There is no purse for the players. Net revenues are divided into equal shares that the players and captains designate for charities or golf-related projects of their choice. Contributions in their names are made through PGA TOUR Charities, Inc.

The first four Presidents Cups have generated nearly $8 million for charities worldwide.

RYDER CUP MATCHES

The Ryder Cup Matches developed from a match played between representatives of the American and British Professional Golfers' Association in England in 1926. That unofficial match was won by the British 13½ to 1½.

Following this highly successful exhibition, Samuel A. Ryder, a wealthy British seed merchant, offered to donate a solid gold trophy bearing his name to be competed for in a series of matches between professionals of the two nations.

From the start of the series through the 1959 Ryder Cup matches, the competition was comprised of four foursome matches one day and eight singles matches the other day, each at 36 holes.

In 1961, the format was changed to provide for four 18-hole foursomes the morning of the first day and four more that afternoon, then for eight 18-hole singles the morning of the second day and eight more that afternoon. As in the past, one point was at stake in each match, so the total number of points was doubled.

In 1963, for the first time, a day of four-ball matches augmented the program to add new interest to the overall competition. This brought the total number of points to 32.

In 1977, the format was altered once again. This time there were five foursomes on the opening day, five four-ball matches on the second day, and 10 singles matches on the final day. This reduced the total number of points to 20.

For 1979, eligibility for the Great Britain-Ireland side was expanded to include all PGA European Tour members who are residents of European nations.

The 2001 Ryder Cup Matches will be played Sept. 28-30 at The Belfry in Sutton Coldfield, England. Curtis Strange is Captain of the U.S. Team and Sam Torrance is Captain of the European Team.

THE RYDER CUP

The 2001 U.S. Ryder Cup Team will be selected by Ryder Cup points earned from the beginning of the 2000 season through this year's PGA Championship. The top-10 point getters qualify for the 12-man team. U.S. Captain Curtis Strange will select two players to complete the squad. Likewise, the first 10 players for the European side will be selected on the basis of points accumulated, with Captain Sam Torrance selecting two players to complete the team.

Points for the U.S. team will be awarded to the first 10 positions in each PGA TOUR event on the following basis, with points weighted toward the 2001 season:

PGA Championship, U.S. Open, Masters Tournament and the British Open (2000/2001): 1st—225/300; 2nd—135/180; 3rd—120/160; 4th—105/140; 5th—90/120; 6th—75/100; 7th—60/80; 8th—45/60; 9th—30/40; 10th—15/20.

All other PGA TOUR events (2000/2001): 1st—75/150; 2nd—45/90; 3rd—40/80; 4th—35/70; 5th—30/60; 6th—25/50; 7th—20/40; 8th—15/30; 9th—10/20; 10th—5/10.

If a player who is ineligible finishes in one of those positions, no points will be awarded for that position. In order to be eligible, a player must be a U.S. citizen and a member of the PGA of America.

OFFICIAL WORLD GOLF RANKING

The Official World golf Ranking, which is endorsed by the four major championships and six professional Tours that make up the International Federation of PGA Tours, is issued every Monday following the completion of the previous week's tournaments from around the world.

Results from events on the world's leading professional tours — the Asian PGA, PGA Tour of Australasia, European Tour, Japan Golf Tour, PGA TOUR, BUY.COM TOUR, Southern African Tour and European Challenge Tour — are evaluated, and points are awarded according to the players' finishing positions. Tournaments are "rated" according to the strength of field based on the number and ranking of the world's top players in respective tournament fields (event "ratings").

In addition, some strength of field weighting is given to the inclusion in each field of at least 15 of the top 30 on the host Tour's prior year Official Money Lists.

The four major championships and THE PLAYERS Championship are rated separately to reflect the higher quality of the events. In addition, the Volvo PGA Championship in Europe and the Australian, Japanese and South African Open Championships are allocated higher minimum point levels to reflect their status.

The Official World Golf Ranking points for each player are accumulated over a two-year "rolling" period, with the points awarded in the most recent 52-week period doubled. Each player then is ranked according to his average points per tournament, which is determined by dividing his total number of points by the tournaments he has played over that two-year period. There is a minimum requirement of 40 tournaments for the two-year period.

The winners of the Masters Tournament, U.S. Open, British Open and PGA Championship are awarded 50 points (30 points for second place, 20 for third, 15 for fourth, down to 0.75 points for a player completing the final round), and the winner of THE PLAYERS Championship is awarded 40 points (points are awarded down to 60th place).

The Volvo PGA Championship has a minimum of 32 points for the winner (points down to 56th place). In addition, the Open Championships of Australia, Japan and South Africa have a minimum of 16 points for the winner (points awarded down to 37th place).

Minimum points levels of all the other official Tour events have been set at six points for Southern Africa (points to 14th place), eight points for Australasia and Japan (points to 19th place), and 12 points for Europe and the United States (points to 27th place).

Beginning in September 2001, a new feature will be added to the ranking system — any applicable two-year time period will be divided into eight 13-week segments. Ranking points in each player's record will be reduced in value by one-eighth at the conclusion of each segment, thereby cutting the sudden and sometimes dramatic impact of the reduction of one-half that presently occurs at the one- and two-year anniversaries of events in which players earn points.

Full Ranking points are awarded for tournaments reduced to 54 holes because of inclement weather or other reasons. For events completing only 36 holes, Ranking points are reduced by 25 percent.

The Official World Golf Ranking is available each week at PGA TOUR sites. The top 50 as of December 11, 2000 follows:

As a result, a player's score may be higher or lower than his actual score. Actual scoring average was used to determine the scoring leader prior to 1988.

In order to qualify for the Byron Nelson Award, a player must compete in a minimum of 50 official rounds on the PGA TOUR.

The Byron Nelson Award has been given each year since 1983 to the scoring leader on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

PGA TOUR LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The PGA TOUR Lifetime Achievement Award honors individuals "who have made outstanding contributions to the PGA TOUR over an extended period of time through their performances on the golf course as well as (through) their actions off the course in serving as ambassadors of the game."

The first PGA TOUR Lifetime Achievement Award was presented to "The Squire," Gene Sarazen, at the 1996 PGA TOUR Awards Dinner at La Costa Resort and Spa in Carlsbad, CA. Subsequent honorees have been Byron Nelson, Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead.

PAYNE STEWART AWARD

The Payne Stewart Award is given each year at THE TOUR Championship to honor the noted competitor and winner of 11 PGA TOUR events, who died October 25, 1999 in a plane crash. The award is presented to a PGA TOUR member who best represents the professionalism and commitment to charity, golf tradition and personal presentation that Payne Stewart, who won the 1989 PGA Championship and 1991 and 1999 U.S. Opens, exemplified.

A significant grant, given by Southern Company, accompanies the award. The grant supports several initiatives in Stewart's name, including Payne and Tracey Stewart's primary charity, The Stewart Family Foundation, and a charity designated by the award winner.

The recipients of the first Payne Stewart Award, given in 2000, were Byron Nelson, Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer.

In addition, there is a 50-point bonus for winning two majors, 75-point bonus for winning three, 100-point bonus for winning four.

MICHELOB & MICHELOB LIGHT

Now in its eighth year of association with the PGA TOUR, the Michelob brand family has been a leading example of how a consumer brand can benefit from a strong and integrated relationship with the PGA TOUR. As title sponsor of the Michelob Championship at Kingsmill and support sponsor of several events on the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR, the Michelob brand family continues to emphasize its commitment to golf. CHARITY AND THE PGA TOUR

SECTION 9

CHARITY DONATIONS SET RECORD FOR EIGHTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR

PGA TOUR events combined for yet another record in 2000, generating almost $50 million for charity — the ninth year in a row a donations standard has been set. The $49.6 million raised also marked the 22nd time in 23 seasons a PGA TOUR record has been established.

Last season's tournament charities total of $49,607,157 broke by almost $5 million the 1999 record of $44.7 million. Additionally, the 2000 figure represents a $30-million increase in 10 years. The 1991 charity total was $19.5 million.

"PGA TOUR events continually prove their heart is with their community and the people who live there," Commissioner Tim Finchem said. "The fact that yet another record has been set, this time nearly $50 million, clearly illustrates the tournaments' annual commitment to charity. Volunteers and PGA TOUR players are the foundation of this entire process."

"Setting another charity record speaks volumes for our member tournaments and their volunteers," said Barry J. Palm, Executive Director of the PGA TOUR Tournaments Association. "The tournaments have raised the bar nine years running. The obvious goal for 2001 is take that bar well beyond the $50-million plateau."

The 2000 record raised the PGA TOUR events' all-time charity total to more than $473 million. That makes it certain 2001 tournament donations will push the TOUR-alone total past $500 million. Charitable contributions from all tournaments on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR combined exceeded $500 million in the summer of 1999. SENIOR PGA TOUR tournaments raised a record $11.5 million for charity in 2000.

BANK OF AMERICA CHARITY CUP

Bank of America sponsors the Bank of America Charity Cup, a season-long competition for PGA TOUR tournaments that began in 2000. The Westin Texas Open at LaCantera won the inaugural Bank of America PGA TOUR Charity Cup, receiving $100,000 to share with local charities.

In the Bank of America Charity Cup, participating tournaments choose — via PGATOUR.COM — a different player every week for each of the 49 PGA TOUR official money events. Over the course of the season, a player may be selected once only by participants. Total official money won by a tournament's selected players determines the event's standing.

Each year, participating tournaments collectively receive more than $1 million from Bank of America to distribute to local charities.

Similar such tournament competitions have been held on the PGA TOUR since 1986, generating a total of $21,557,000 for charity.

TOUR WIVES ASSOCIATION

TOUR Wives Association, Inc. is a Florida not-for-profit corporation organized to render support for and provide assistance to needy children and their families through the means of charitable events. The Association is comprised of the wives of professional golfers on the PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR, as well as individuals and corporations that support the TOUR Wives Association's many charitable endeavors.

Since its incorporation in 1988, the TOUR Wives Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money for child-related charities and given much back to the game of golf through personal and monetary contributions. In addition to the funds that are raised, the wives visit different charities in the communities where golf tournaments are held, spending time and playing with children supported by the charities.

The TOUR Wives Association conducts numerous fundraisers to support their charities. These include tasting events, concerts, live and silents auctions and other activities.

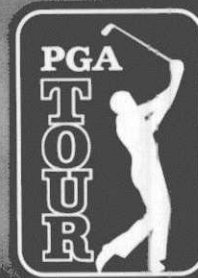

The Association's favorite (and longest-running) fundraiser is the biannual TOUR Wives Golf Classic, a nine-hole tournament at which the wives play golf — and their husbands act as caddies. The TOUR Wives Golf Classic, first played in 1987, has been held at different courses around the country.

This year, the TOUR Wives Association begins selling its long-awaited cookbook. The cookbook features favorite recipes of player families.

While its membership varies from year to year, the commitment of the TOUR Wives Association to making a difference in the lives of needy children stands strong. The Association's dedicated members, past and present, have reached deep into their resources to balance the demands of family, work and travel and have given generously of themselves to realize their ideals.

After two previous near-misses, Stewart Cink – winner of the 2000 MCI Classic – earned his first trip to THE TOUR Championship and finished 10th on the money list with $2,169,727. The MCI Classic was Cink's second PGA TOUR title.

TOURNAMENT PLAYERS CLUBS

Tournament Players Club

The PGA TOUR's Tournament Players Club Network has maintained a reputation for operating high-quality clubs since its inception 21 years ago.

The TPC Network continues to grow, with 30 facilities currently open or under construction, including several overseas. By the end of 2000, five domestic Tournament Players Clubs either were in the planning or construction stage.

TPCs encompass all forms of golf-related operations — resort facilities, corporate/private membership clubs and daily fee courses — and, as such, PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties, Inc. is able to match the type of facility with the demands of each market in which a club operates.

The Network represents the highest standard in the golf course industry, commensurate with the members of the organization it represents, the players of the PGA TOUR. Each Tournament Players Club embodies the trademark of excellence first established with the flagship TPC at Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, which opened its world-famous Stadium Course in the fall of 1980.

This commitment to overall excellence serves as the foundation for the Network's overall success.

The TPC Network was born through former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman's desire to provide TOUR players with quality golf courses that also would offer spectators enhanced viewing areas.

Beman also reasoned that development of quality facilities would alleviate the TOUR's dependency on the television dollar, while providing rent-free venues for tournaments. The savings in rent, in turn, would generate both increased purses and greater charitable contributions by the tournaments held at TPCs.

The TPC at Sawgrass was the first Tournament Players Club to hold a PGA TOUR event, becoming the permanent home of THE PLAYERS Championship in 1982. Today, a growing number of PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR events are held at TPC facilities each year. In 2000, 17 tournaments were conducted on TPC courses. The first BUY.COM TOUR event played on a Tournament Players course, the BUY.COM Virginia Beach Open, was held at the TPC of Virginia Beach.

Many of the top golf course architects are connected with Tournament Players Club projects, including Pete Dye, Tom Fazio, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Tom Weiskopf, Greg Norman and Bob Von Hagge. Palmer's most recent design involvements have been with the TPC of the Twin Cities (opened in 2000), the TPC at River's Bend in Cincinnati (opening in 2001) and the TPC of Boston (scheduled to open in 2002).

Moreover, in recognizing the importance of player input for tournament courses, TOUR members have served as design consultants, working closely with the lead architect. Tom Lehman served as player consultant to Palmer at the TPC of the Twin Cities.

Two others that opened in 2000 are the TPC at Deere Run (Silvis, IL), designed by D.A. Weibring, and the TPC at Wakefield Plantation (Raleigh, NC), designed by Hale Irwin.

SHOTLINK

The PGA TOUR is collaborating with IBM, the TOUR's Official Worldwide Information Technology Partner, on development of the PGA TOUR ShotLink System, a platform for collecting and disseminating scoring and statistical data on every shot, by each player, real-time, during every tournament round.

ShotLink is scheduled to make its debut on the PGA TOUR and SENIOR PGA TOUR during the first quarter of 2001, following a final series of tournament tests.

The accumulation, packaging and presentation of expanded shot and course information will provide a clearer picture of and better appreciation for skill level and strategy through enhanced television broadcasts, more engaging on-site experiences, increased statistical data for the media, and significantly broadened Internet and new media opportunities.

Shot data will be collected by volunteers utilizing a combination of Palm handheld devices and laser range finders.

IDS, EA Sports, GeoGolf and Geodetic Services also are technology partners in the development of the ShotLink System.

The development of ShotLink started more than two years ago when the TOUR decided to update its scoring system, which is based on 1987 technology. IBM has provided overall project management and consulting services, is providing the server and networking technologies, and is developing the tournament on-site Intranet.

The ShotLink Intranet is designed to be an engaging, user-friendly interface with the ShotLink data, displaying a wealth of information such as multiple leaderboard presentations; hole and player shot charts, graphs and tendencies; detailed information on the golf course; breaking news; a comprehensive statistical center, including historical data; and weather information.

All information will be instantaneous and available in corporate hospitality areas, the media center, to television broadcasters and other locations around the tournament venue. A variety of information also will be presented on the electronic scoreboards.

Moreover, some of the Intranet presentation will be reapplied to the Internet via PGATOUR.com and be available on TOUR Links, the player laptop information system that IBM also developed.

PGA TOUR PRODUCTIONS

PGA TOUR Productions is the television, film and video production company of the PGA TOUR.

Most people know PGA TOUR Productions by its award-winning "Inside the PGA TOUR," appearing on ESPN for the 17th consecutive year in 2001. "Inside the SENIOR PGA TOUR" is in its 11th season and joins the SENIOR PGA TOUR as it make its debut on CNBC. In conjunction with CNBC, PGA TOUR Productions will produce 33 tournament telecasts this year.

PGA TOUR Productions has developed an expertise in delivering specials highlighting players' accomplishments and stories to network partners that include ABC, CBS, NBC, USA, ESPN and The Golf Channel. In addition to SENIOR TOUR events produced on CNBC, live telecasts include the Touchstone Energy Tucson Open and Reno Tahoe Open on the PGA TOUR. Live-to-tape productions include the RE/MAX World Long Drive Championship, Chrysler Senior Match Play Challenge and the CertainTeed Hall of Fame Golf Challenge.

PGA TOUR Productions' state-of-the-art studio provides multiple set designs and provides live programming during USA Network's early round coverage. It also is used as the anchor position for "Tee it Up with the PGA TOUR."

PGA TOUR Productions serves a worldwide clientele by producing, in conjunction with the networks, international live telecasts of PGA TOUR events. In 1999, Productions launched the PGA TOUR Enhanced Feed, serving South and Central America, South Africa, Europe and Asia. PGA TOUR Productions' programming is distributed to more than 140 countries, translated into 17 languages and available to more than 250-million homes worldwide.

PGA TOUR Productions is housed in a 32,000-square-foot, all-digital facility at World Golf Village, located in St. Augustine, FL. Along with the latest in television and communications technology, Productions houses the world's most extensive golf footage library. World Golf Village is located adjacent to Interstate 95, just north of St. Augustine.

PGATOUR.COM

PGATOUR.COM has become the No. 1 golf site on the World Wide Web – offering a comprehensive look at the game of golf, the pros on TOUR and the varied people around the globe who play.

The PGA TOUR's official website was launched on Jan. 8, 1997. Two years later, PGATOUR.COM partnered with SportsLine USA, Inc., publisher of CBS Sportsline and GolfWeb, to create the total package for golf fans – complete tournament coverage, enlightening player profiles, a thriving e-commerce site and an interactive community.

The growth has been dramatic. PGATOUR.COM had more than 69,000,000 page views in July 2000 – more than three times the traffic for July of 1999. As the game flourishes, so does PGATOUR.COM.

The reasons are obvious. PGATOUR.COM gets up close with the players and tournaments on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR. The latest news and statistics from the European Tour, LPGA Tour and other international golf organizations also are featured.

But PGATOUR.COM has so much more to entice viewers. A robust instruction area, featuring video tips from the immensely talented professionals on the PGA TOUR and SENIOR TOUR, coupled with information on travel and recreational golf and interactive elements like the course guide and gear guide, delights the fans.

Real-time scoring, a staple of PGATOUR.COM since its inception, will be augmented this year by the debut of ShotLink, making it a "must-have" for golf fans. Not only will fans be able to chart their favorite pro's hole-by-hole progress, they'll receive information on yardages and club selection in real-time, as well.

PGATOUR.COM averages more than 1.5-million page views per day. The TOUR's website continues to explore cutting-edge technology and interactive features that enhance the viewer's experience while enabling PGATOUR.COM to maintain its No. 1 position.

Regular chat sessions held twice weekly allow fans to get in touch with the players, ask questions of rules officials and fitness gurus or talk to course architects and the administrators of the game. PGATOUR.COM's on-line show makes its debut this year with video features recapping the previous week's action and looking forward to the week ahead, as well as an opportunity for fans to weigh in on various topics.

PGA TOUR RADIO

WORLD GOLF VILLAGE

Bruce Lucker
Chief Operating Officer
World Golf Hall of Fame

World Golf Village is the sport's international showcase, where visitors travel through golf's rich history and experience the finest in present-day play.

The World Golf Village features a carefully planned mix of upscale residential, retail and commercial uses, golf courses, other recreation amenities and extensive nature preserves. The result is an extraordinary place that celebrates golf in a village setting on 6,300 wooded acres in northeast Florida, between Jacksonville and St. Augustine.

The Village's centerpiece is the 75,000-square-foot World Golf Hall of Fame, which pays tribute to the game's greatest players – the male and female legends who are Hall of Fame members – as well as providing the experience of golf's exciting past and present. Adjacent to the Hall of Fame is the World Golf Village IMAX Theater. Outside the Hall of Fame, the Walk of Champions is a half-mile brick path encircling Kelly Lake, linking the components within the heart of World Golf Village.

World Golf Village features two championship golf courses, encompassing nearly 400 acres, with first-rate clubhouse facilities and services operated by Honours Golf. The World Golf Village includes The Slammer & The Squire golf course, built by architect Bobby Weed with player design consultants Sam Snead and Gene Sarazen. The second championship golf course, The King & The Bear, the first-ever collaboration by Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, was completed in the fall of 2000. It will host the 2001 SENIOR PGA TOUR event, the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. A third course also is scheduled to be built.

Additional amenities include a variety of luxurious accommodations, fine dining and excellent shopping choices. The World Golf Village Renaissance Resort and adjacent St. Johns County Convention Center, designed and operated by John Q. Hammons, feature 300 rooms and premier resort amenities. Sheraton's Vistana Resort offers upscale vacation villas with a wide selection of vacation options, from a brief stay to an interval ownership. The Comfort Suites hotel offers 162 luxurious, well-equipped suites and many recreational amenities.

World Golf Village also includes The Shops at World Golf Village, an upscale shopping area; the headquarters for PGA TOUR Productions and the national headquarters for The First Tee.

Shell Oil Company is Founding Partner of the World Golf Village. The phone number to call for World Golf Village information is 1-800-WGV-GOLF; the website is www.wgv.com.

WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

The support the World Golf Hall of Fame has received from the world's major golf organizations distinguishes it as a unique partnership that reflects the universality of the game and promise for further growth.

The Hall of Fame and accompanying exhibits honor the great players and contributors to the game, and entertain and inform the public about the rich history and tradition of golf internationally.

Artifacts from the former World Golf Hall of Fame in Pinehurst, NC were incorporated into the museum exhibits. But the overall experience is intended to interest golfers and non-golfers alike by introducing modern technology and interactive displays that continually are being enhanced.

The building also features an IMAX Theater, with a screen 80 feet high and 60 feet wide, for which a special film about golf is being developed.

The 71 players and contributors inducted into the former Hall of Fame in Pinehurst and/or the LPGA Hall of Fame were "grandfathered" into the new facility. Annual induction ceremonies for newly elected Hall of Fame members are held each year, bringing together dignitaries from throughout the golf world.

The first elections for the PGA TOUR and International Ballots were conducted in 1996 and 1997. Johnny Miller was the only player elected in 1996, receiving the necessary 75 percent of votes on the PGA TOUR Ballot. Seve Ballesteros of Spain and Nick Faldo of England became the first players elected through the International Ballot in 1997, their first year of eligibility.

Faldo was inducted in 1998. Ballesteros was inducted in 1999 with the late Lloyd Magrum, who was admitted in 1998 via the PGA TOUR Ballot, and LPGA star Amy Alcott.

The 2000 ceremony welcomed eight new members: the first Veterans Category inductee, Jack Burke, Jr.; and the first Lifetime Achievement inductees, Deane Beman, Sir Michael Bonallack, Neil Coles and John Jacobs. Other inductees were LPGA players Beth Daniel, who was elected in 1999, and 2000 electee Juli Inkster. Judy Rankin was elected through the LPGA Veterans category.

The next World Golf Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony will be in the fall of 2001.

PGA TOUR PIONEERS/MEMBERS IN WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

Willie Anderson

The son of a Scottish greenkeeper, Anderson emigrated to the U.S. at age 15 and became the first dominant player in America. He won the U.S. Open four times before age 27, including three consecutively from 1903 to 1905. Anderson finished in the top five 11 of the 14 times that he competed in the national championship.

Tommy Armour

A native of Edinburgh, the "Silver Scot" won the 1927 U.S. Western Open, the 1930 PGA Championship and the 1931 British Open. One of golf's most respected instructors, Armour excelled despite injuries suffered in World War I that left him with one eye and with metal plates in his head and arm.

Jim Barnes

An assistant pro in England at age 15, Barnes came to America at 19, and between 1916 and 1925 won all the major tournaments of his day: the Western Open in 1914, 1917 and 1919; the first two PGA Championships in 1916 and 1919; the 1921 U.S. Open; and the 1925 British Open.

Deane Beman

Commissioner of the PGA TOUR from 1974-1994, he created the SENIOR PGA TOUR, the Ben Hogan Tour (now the BUY.COM TOUR) and developed the "stadium golf" concept. As a player, Beman won the 1959 British Amateur, the 1960 and 1963 U.S. Amateurs, competed on four U.S. Walker Cup Teams and captured four PGA TOUR titles.

Julius Boros

An accountant by trade, Boros turned professional at age 30. Just two years later, in 1952, he won the U.S. Open and was named PGA Player of the Year. He claimed a second U.S. Open in 1963 at The Country Club in Brookline, MA, and in 1968 captured the PGA Championship at age 48.

Jack Burke, Jr.

A member of five U.S. Ryder Cup teams, serving as captain twice, Burke captured 15 PGA TOUR titles, including the 1956 Masters Tournament and 1956 PGA Championship. He won four consecutive tournaments in 1952. Burke is co-founder and president of the Champions Club in Houston, TX.

Billy Casper

A brilliant putter, Casper won the Vardon Trophy for lowest scoring average five times and was a member of eight Ryder Cup teams. Of his 60 career victories, three were major championships, including the 1966 U.S. Open, when he came from seven strokes back with nine holes to play to tie Arnold Palmer, then won their playoff.

Harry Cooper

CHARITABLE MISSION OF THE WORLD GOLF FOUNDATION

World Golf Foundation, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that has received the support of all major golf organizations throughout the world. The responsibilities of the World Golf Foundation include managing the World Golf Hall of Fame, the IMAX Theater and various charitable initiatives.

As the Founding Partner of World Golf Village, Shell Oil Company provides financial support and plays a lead role in the World Golf Hall of Fame and its charities.

One of the World Golf Foundation's charitable missions, on behalf of the supporting golf organizations, is to introduce golf to those who otherwise may not have an opportunity to experience the game, and through the golf experience promote scholastic achievement, community service, and the values of honesty, integrity and sportsmanship.

To this end, The First Tee was introduced in Nov. 1997 as an initiative to create new facilities and affordable access to golf. This initiative has the support and participation of various key sectors, including leading golf organizations and foundations, and a wide range of public sector constituencies.

"We want to create affordable entry points to golf for everyone who is interested in playing the game," said former President George Bush, Honorary Chairman of The First Tee.

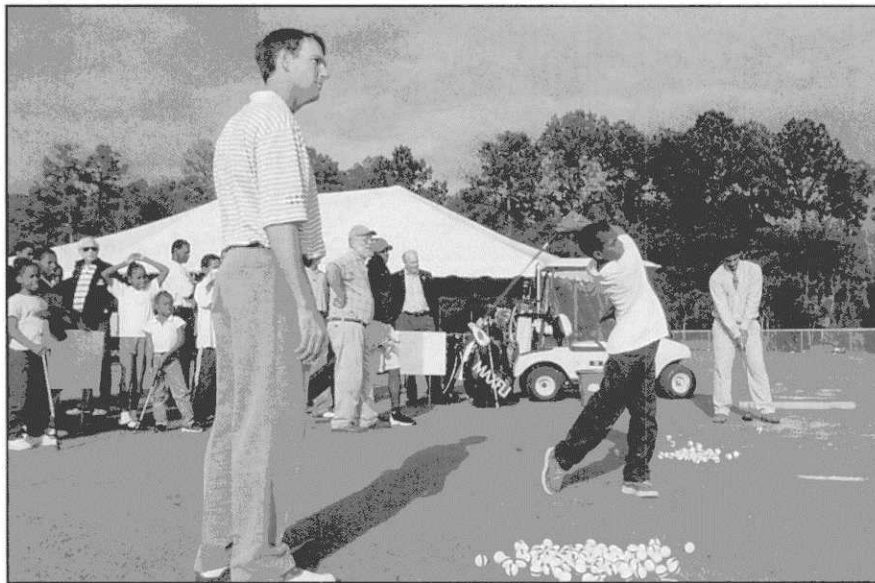

The vision is to create hundreds of facilities and programs throughout the United States over the next 10 years, impacting those who have not had exposure to the game, particularly youth.

"Those of us who believe in the values of golf want to see the opportunity to play the game extended to all segments of our population," said Tim Finchem, PGA TOUR Commissioner and Chairman of the World Golf Foundation Board of Directors. "This program, The First Tee, can have a tremendous impact on golf – but, more importantly, it can have a real impact on the lives of young people who are attracted to the game."

A menu of model programs can be implemented in communities based on land availability, existing golf facilities, area needs and the level of support of municipalities and other youth programs.

The First Tee provides golf management expertise, consulting services and land planning to communities and organizations interested in having The First Tee in their areas. While proceeds from the World Golf Hall of Fame benefit The First Tee, public-private partnerships in each community are the primary funding source for each facility.

"With the support of the public and private sectors, and with the expertise of so many golf organizations available to this program, golf will find its way into new communities and new segments of the population," Finchem said.

The learning process continues through The First Tee

THE FIRST TEE

The First Tee is a World Golf Foundation initiative that has as its mission to impact the lives of young people around the world by creating affordable and accessible golf facilities to primarily serve those who have not previously had exposure to the game and its positive values. It has the active support of The First Tee's Oversight Committee, which includes representatives of five organizations that serve on the World Golf Foundation Board: the PGA TOUR, PGA of America, LPGA, United States Golf Association and Augusta National Golf Club. Former President George Bush is Honorary Chairman of the initiative.

The Phase I goal of The First Tee was to have 100 facilities in development by the end of the year 2000. On August 27, 2000, it was announced that The First Tee had surpassed this initial goal with 129 facilities in some stage of development, spanning 38 states, Canada and Puerto Rico.

The true value of The First Tee is based on golf's unique ability to instill and nurture essential values, such as honesty, integrity, sportsmanship and a solid work ethic in young people who are introduced to the game. These values are enhanced through The First Tee's Life Skills program developed to provide an opportunity for The First Tee participants to learn valuable skills such as goal setting, decision-making and mentoring, skills that can be used both on and off the golf course.

In addition to The First Tee's Oversight Committee, this initiative has the support and participation of a variety of key sectors:

- A wide range of public sector constituencies, including the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Bureau of Land Management, National Association of Parks and Recreation, National League of Cities, U.S. Conference of Mayors and the National Association of County Officials.
- A variety of groups and organizations, including the YMCA of the USA, the National Minority Golf Foundation, the Tiger Woods Foundation and the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America.

Under the direction of Joe Louis Barrow, Jr., National Director of The First Tee and Senior Vice President of the World Golf Foundation, The First Tee turns its focus to Phase II.

In Nov. 2000, The First Tee held its third annual National Meeting at the World Golf Village in St. Augustine, FL. and announced its Phase II business strategy with the primary goal of impacting the lives of 500,000 young people cumulatively through 2005. In addition, the plan calls for The First Tee to expand to 250 facilities and establish 500 affiliate relationships during the same time period.

Also announced during this meeting was the beginning of a capital campaign titled More Than A Game. This campaign is designed to raise $50 million over the next three to five years and is co-chaired by World Golf Hall of Famers Jack Nicklaus and Juli Inkster.

As The First Tee continues to grow and gain support, more and more young people will be introduced to the game of golf and its inherent values.

GOLF 20/20: VISION FOR THE FUTURE

Golf 20/20: Vision for the Future, held in Nov. 2000 at World Golf Village, was an unprecedented gathering of 200 golf and business leaders to explore ways to grow participation and interest over the next 20 years.

Organized by the World Golf Foundation, Golf 20/20 focused on five specific areas that the Executive Board and 44-person Steering Committee determined to be the most logical resources for driving this growth: The First Tee, Youth Golf, College Experience, Facility Development and Link Up 2 Golf, involving the growth and retention issue by connecting with people discovering or rediscovering the game.

PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem, Chairman of the World Golf Foundation, set the tone for the conference by offering two very aggressive goals in terms of where golf can be in 20 years – surpassing the National Football League to achieve the No. 1 sports fan base, and reaching one billion rounds per year, which would include growing the number of participants to more than 55 million.

Based on feedback from breakout sessions, the Executive Board presented the following objectives for this year:

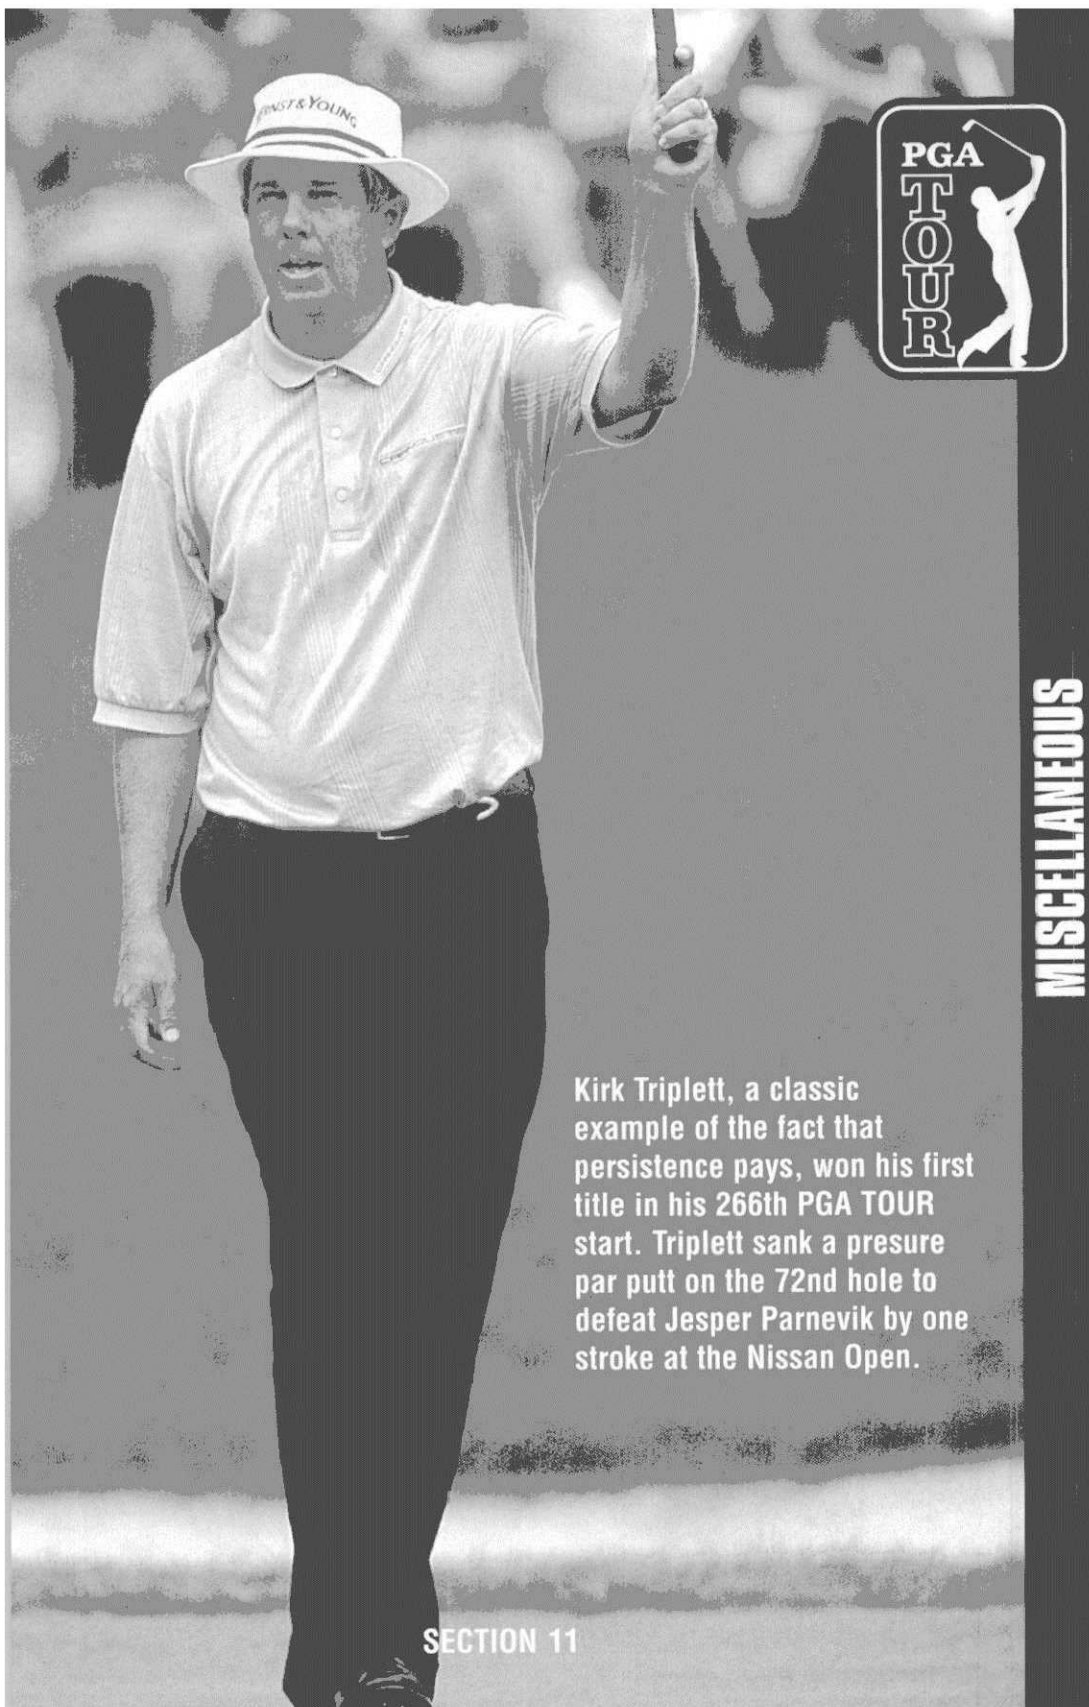

- Conduct appropriate consumer and segmentation research and analysis.
- Assemble an industry fan base task force to develop a strategy on using the Internet, interactivity and other technology vehicles.
- Support the mission and goals of The First Tee.
- Create a junior golf task force charged with developing and implementing a communications and audit strategy.
- Conduct additional research at the college level.
- Conduct analysis of successful alternative facilities and their impact on the golf economy.
- Develop a program, implementation and pilot strategy for a nationwide “Link Up” program.

The Executive Board further determined a second Golf 20/20 conference should be scheduled in Nov. 2001 at World Golf Village.

Joining Finchem on the Executive Board are Jim Awtrey, CEO of the PGA of America; Joe Beditz, President of the National Golf Foundation; David Fay, Executive Director of the USGA; Michael Hughes, Executive Director of the National Golf Course Owners Association; Steve Mona, CEO of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America; and Ty Votaw, Commissioner of the LPGA.

MISCELLANEOUS

Kirk Triplett, a classic example of the fact that persistence pays, won his first title in his 266th PGA TOUR start. Triplett sank a pressure par putt on the 72nd hole to defeat Jesper Parnevik by one stroke at the Nissan Open.
