Official PGA TOUR Events

A MESSAGE TO THE MEDIA

On behalf of the players and staff of the BUY.COM TOUR, we welcome you to our 2002 season. We appreciate your continued interest in our game, and we clearly recognize the extent to which our success is tied to the thorough and professional coverage we consistently receive in a wide variety of media outlets.

As the BUY.COM TOUR enters its 13th season, we are excited about the future of this TOUR and what it offers to the golf community.

The BUY.COM TOUR is already recognized as one of the most demanding and successful tours in the world, a position that is bolstered by the fact that the International Federation of PGA Tours awards Official World Golf Ranking points to performers on this tour.

This recognition has brought an international field to the BUY.COM TOUR with players hailing from 14 countries outside the U.S. in 2002.

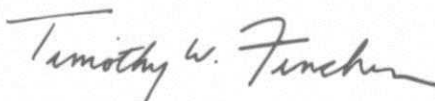

In keeping with this international trend, we begin the 2002 season in intriguing fashion with our first visit to the Southern Hemisphere. Season-opening events in Australia and New Zealand not only bring a new audience to the BUY.COM TOUR, but forge a new alliance with the PGA Tour of Australasia.

The 2002 season will also see the BUY.COM TOUR visit Canada and new U.S. locations such as Chicago and the Lake Erie area of Pennsylvania/New York. Last year saw the successful debut of new events in Arkansas, Phoenix and Greenville, SC that gave indication of the future strength of this TOUR.

The quality of play on the BUY.COM TOUR has never been better and perhaps is best reflected in the 102 wins by former members on the PGA TOUR. In addition, over half of this year's PGA TOUR membership is made up of former BUY.COM TOUR players.

As always, members of our Communications Department stand ready to assist you in your coverage of the BUY.COM TOUR, both at tournament sites and from our Headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Thanks again for your interest in and coverage of the BUY.COM TOUR.

Timothy W. Finchem
Commissioner
PGA TOUR

WE ARE THE PGA TOUR

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays a combined 112 official-money tournaments on three TOURs – the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, southeast of Jacksonville.

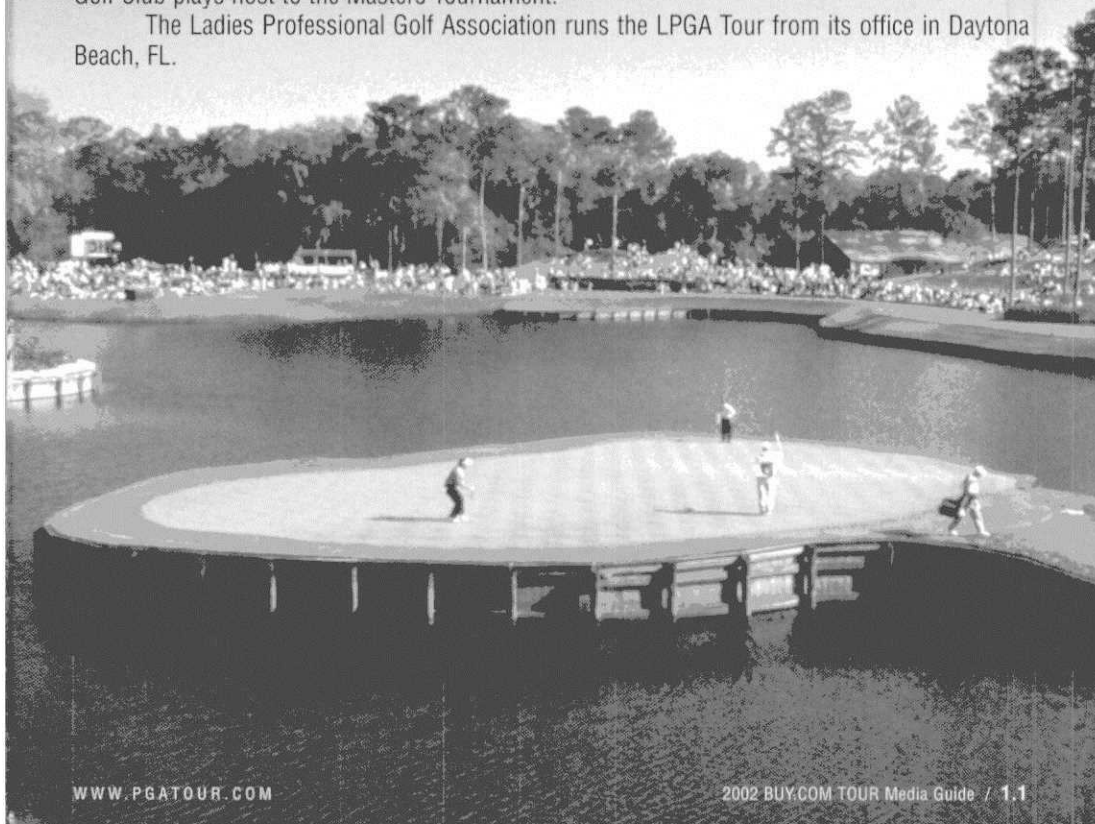

We should never be referred to as just the PGA or SENIOR PGA. On second reference, you can just call us the TOUR or the SENIOR TOUR.

The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, FL.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form a Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975. While the two organizations still work closely together today, the PGA TOUR and PGA of America are separate entities.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in professional tournament play, independent of the PGA TOUR but with their marquee events included in our schedule as non-PGA TOUR co-sponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association, with headquarters located in Far Hills, NJ, oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (GA) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament.

The Ladies Professional Golf Association runs the LPGA Tour from its office in Daytona Beach, FL.

HISTORY OF THE TOUR

Even the most optimistic person couldn't have foreseen the success of the BUY.COM TOUR when it kicked off its inaugural season on Thursday, Feb. 2, 1990 at 7:30 a.m. PST at Bakersfield Country Club in Bakersfield, CA.

The BUY.COM TOUR began under corporate sponsorship of the Ben Hogan Company as the Ben Hogan Tour. The idea of former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane R. Beman, the BUY.COM TOUR was designed as a proving ground for up-and-coming golfers, as well as a place for PGA TOUR veterans to hone their skills as they prepared for the SENIOR PGA TOUR. It has become so much more than that.

For the first two years of the TOUR, the top five money winners were awarded PGA TOUR membership. Beginning in 1992, the PGA TOUR Tournament Policy Board voted that, due to the success graduating players had on the PGA TOUR, that number would be increased to 10; and in 1997 the number was increased to 15.

That first event in 1990 was won by Mike Springer, who went on to win two more times that year and finish fourth on the money list. He was joined by Jim McGovern, Dick Mast, Ed Humenik and Jeff Maggert, who was leading money-winner and Player of the Year, in the first graduating class.

However, the player who made the biggest impact on the PGA TOUR from the 1990 TOUR was John Daly, winner of the only Ben Hogan Tour Qualifying Tournament. Daly won the PGA Championship as a rookie and went on to finish 17th on the 1991 PGA TOUR money list. Since then, he has added three more victories, including another major championship, the 1995 British Open.

Tom Lehman first established himself as a topflight player on the 1991 TOUR. After two nondescript years on the PGA TOUR in the early 1980s, Lehman won a tournament on the 1990 TOUR. But 1991 was the breakthrough season in his comeback. He won three times that year and was the circuit's leading money-winner.

Californian John Flannery was the dominant player on the 1992 TOUR, winning three times and leading the TOUR in earnings with $164,114. His successful campaign made him the TOUR's third Player of the Year.

The big news of 1992 didn't happen on the golf course. It was announced on August 26, 1992 that Nike Inc. would take over sponsorship of the TOUR beginning with the 1993 season.

Sean Murphy was the star of the 1993 TOUR. He set records for wins in a season with four, career victories with five, and single-season earnings with $166,293. He added a sixth title in 1995.

While Murphy was busy setting records, his fellow TOUR alumni were busy making a name for themselves on the PGA TOUR. Daly had already collected his second career win in the 1992 B.C. Open, and others were beginning to earn their own hardware. McGovern, Mike Standly and Maggert all collected PGA TOUR titles in 1993, while Springer and Greg Kraft grabbed a pair of unofficial wins.

The TOUR Championship also was established in 1993 as a climax to the season. Rookie David Duval won the first TOUR Championship, which featured only the top 50 money-winners during the year.

On the 1994 TOUR, Chris Perry showed that consistency has its own rewards. Although six players collected multiple victories that year, Perry's lone title in the Utah Classic and his consistent strong play over the course of the season earned TOUR Player of the Year honors. He set a single-season earnings record with $167,148 and collected 10 top-10 finishes. He made every cut that season.

The 1994 TOUR season saw a number of firsts. In June, Tommy Armour III became the first player to win back-to-back tournaments, the Miami Valley Open and Cleveland Open. During the second round of the 1994 Shreveport Open, Omar Uresti set a record with nine consecutive birdies. That not only stands as the BUY.COM TOUR standard, it surpassed the records on the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR or European Tour.

In May, Vic Wilk became the first left-hander to win a BUY.COM TOUR event, the Knoxville Open.

Jerry Kelly continued the trend of the leading money-winner setting an earnings record in 1995, when he earned $188,878 to better Perry's year-old record. Besides winning twice, Kelly posted 15 top-10 finishes.

Celebrated amateur Allen Doyle played the TOUR after turning professional in the spring. He won his second event, the Mississippi Gulf Coast Classic and added two more titles on his way to a second-place finish on the 1995 money list. In 1996, he was the oldest rookie in PGA TOUR history at age 47.

Stewart Cink was the top story of the 1996 TOUR season. The 1995 College Player of the Year became the first player in BUY.COM TOUR history to earn more than $200,000 in a single season with $251,699. He won three times, including the season-ending TOUR Championship, and collected 14 top-10 finishes in only 21 events.

Michael Christie also was dominant in 1996, collecting three wins. In his win in Greenville, SC, he matched the BUY.COM TOUR record for lowest score in a 72-hole tournament. He matched the 54-hole tournament record as well when he won the Utah Classic.

The 1997 season began with the announcement that the PGA TOUR Policy Board had increased the number of TOUR exemptions onto the PGA TOUR from 10 to 15, further enhancing the TOUR's reputation as a proving ground for the next generation of PGA TOUR champions.

The 1997 season also marked the first year of the "Battlefield Promotion," which grants immediate access to the PGA TOUR for any player who wins three TOUR events in a season. Chris Smith was the first BUY.COM TOUR player to earn this promotion. He immediately made his presence felt on the PGA TOUR by making the cut in each of his six PGA TOUR events and finishing in fourth place at the CVS Charity Classic.

On the TOUR, Smith had a record-breaking season. He won at the Upstate Classic, the Dakota Dunes Open and Omaha Classic in back-to-back weeks. With the wins at Dakota Dunes and Omaha, he joined Armour and Jerry Haas as the only players to win consecutive tournaments. He also became the first player to win the same tournament twice, having won the Dakota Dunes Open in 1995.

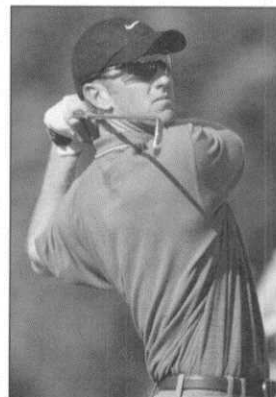

Smith's victory in Omaha was a record-setting affair. His 26-under-par 258 total was the record for most strokes under par and low total. His 11-stroke margin of victory is also the BUY.COM TOUR record.

In October, Steve Flesch joined Wilk as the only left-handed champions with a win in the TOUR Championship. That victory vaulted him from 24th on the money list to fourth, earning him PGA TOUR membership for 1998.

The 1998 season saw more of the kind of action for which the BUY.COM TOUR has become known. During a three-week period late in the spring, Notah Begay III and Doug Dunakey caught the attention of the golf world when each recorded a 59 in competition.

Begay's 13-under-par 59 came in the second round of the Dominion Open and was highlighted by a five-hole stretch that saw him go birdie, birdie, eagle, birdie, ace (eagle). He shot a 9-under-par 27 on his incoming nine to ensure his place in the record books.

Three weeks later, Dunakey turned his own 27, this one 8-under-par, into a place in the BUY.COM TOUR record book alongside Begay. Amazingly, Dunakey could have had the record on his own, with only a three-putt bogey on his final hole keeping him from posting an incredible 58.

David Duval has won 13 PGA TOUR titles to lead all former BUY.COM TOUR players.

Begay was involved in another piece of BUY.COM TOUR history when he and Eric Booker engaged in the longest playoff in BUY.COM TOUR history, a nine-hole affair at the Lehigh Valley Open that Booker finally won with a par.

Not only were there personal milestones on the 1998 TOUR, but the tour itself celebrated one when the Cleveland Open played host to the 250th event in TOUR history.

Bob Burns was named 1998 Player of the Year after leading in earnings with $178,664 and winning at the Dominion Open and TOUR Championship.

The 1999 season saw Carl Paulson establish a new BUY.COM TOUR record for consecutive starts with 83. The 83rd start was a significant one as Paulson recorded his first-ever BUY.COM TOUR victory at the Utah Classic. That win, and another two weeks later in Boise, vaulted Paulson to the top of the money list. He was rewarded for his efforts when his peers selected him as the BUY.COM TOUR Player of the Year.

Former BUY.COM TOUR star David Toms won three times on the PGA TOUR in 2001, including the PGA Championship.

Seven players won twice on the TOUR in 1999, and a record 22 players earned more than $100,000.

One of the top players on the 1999 TOUR was Marco Dawson, who began the season without playing privileges. He eventually played his way onto the TOUR and, while he did not win a tournament, finished third on the money list with more than $200,000. He also led the TOUR in Scoring Average and recorded 11 top-10 finishes in 21 starts.

The season-ending TOUR Championship was a thrilling affair played at the Robert Trent Jones Trail Highland Oaks GC in Dothan, AL. Bob Heintz won his second event of the season in a playoff with Dawson to take home the largest first-place prize in TOUR history—$72,000.

The most significant news of the 1999 season, however, took place off the golf course when buy.com signed on in late October as the new umbrella sponsor. With buy.com's financial contribution, BUY.COM TOUR purses rose to a record $13.1 million in 2000, with the minimum weekly purses jumping from $225,000 to $400,000.

On the course, the 2000 season saw Spike McRoy earn Player of the Year honors after winning twice and earning a BUY.COM TOUR record $300,638. He was one of 53 players to earn $100,000 or more.

Along the way, Tim Clark made a little history of his own when he collected the first $100,000 payday on the BUY.COM TOUR by winning the BUY.COM Boise Open.

The 2000 season was also notable for the emergence of international players who captured nine titles and claimed four of the top 15 spots on the money list.

This past year was an historic one for the BUY.COM TOUR. For only the second time, a player earned a promotion to the PGA TOUR by winning three times in one season. Heath Slocum's third win made him the first player since Chris Smith (1997) to earn an automatic promotion to the TOUR.

Once the field was shown the way, others followed. First, Chad Campbell earned his third win and moved on, and then Pat Bates won back-to-back tournaments to end the year and became the third player in 2001 to jump to the PGA TOUR.

Slocum set a TOUR record by going 106 consecutive holes without making a bogey, while Todd Barranger tied the TOUR scoring mark by winning the BUY.COM Dayton Open with a 26-under-par effort.

Along the way, Campbell set a single-season earnings record with $394,552 to earn Player of the Year honors. He also finished second at the PGA TOUR's season-ending Southern Farm Bureau Classic.

The 2001 season also saw the BUY.COM TOUR move to Canada for the first time with the Samsung CPGA Championship in suburban Toronto, and overall charitable contributions topped the $20-million mark (now $22 million) in the first 12 years of the TOUR's existence.

ABOUT THE COMMISSIONER

Timothy W. Finchem

Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem, 54, is the third Commissioner of the PGA TOUR.

Finchem succeeded Deane R. Beman as Commissioner on June 1, 1994. Beman had served for 20 years, replacing the late Joseph C. Dey, who had been the TOUR's Commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Finchem, Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer of the TOUR under Beman since 1989, had joined the TOUR staff as Vice President of Business Affairs in 1987.

As Commissioner, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players domestically and internationally. He also has taken leadership roles in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation, Inc.

His personal dedication to the success of the World Golf Foundation's First Tee initiative has helped that program achieve its initial objectives in developing facilities that will have an impact on the game for years to come.

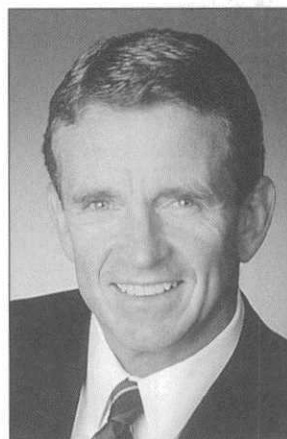

"Our primary purpose as a membership organization is to create outstanding playing and earnings opportunities for our players," Finchem says, "and we are proud of what our tournaments do for charity (more than $650 million raised) and the active role we have been able to take as an organization in growing the game for future generations."

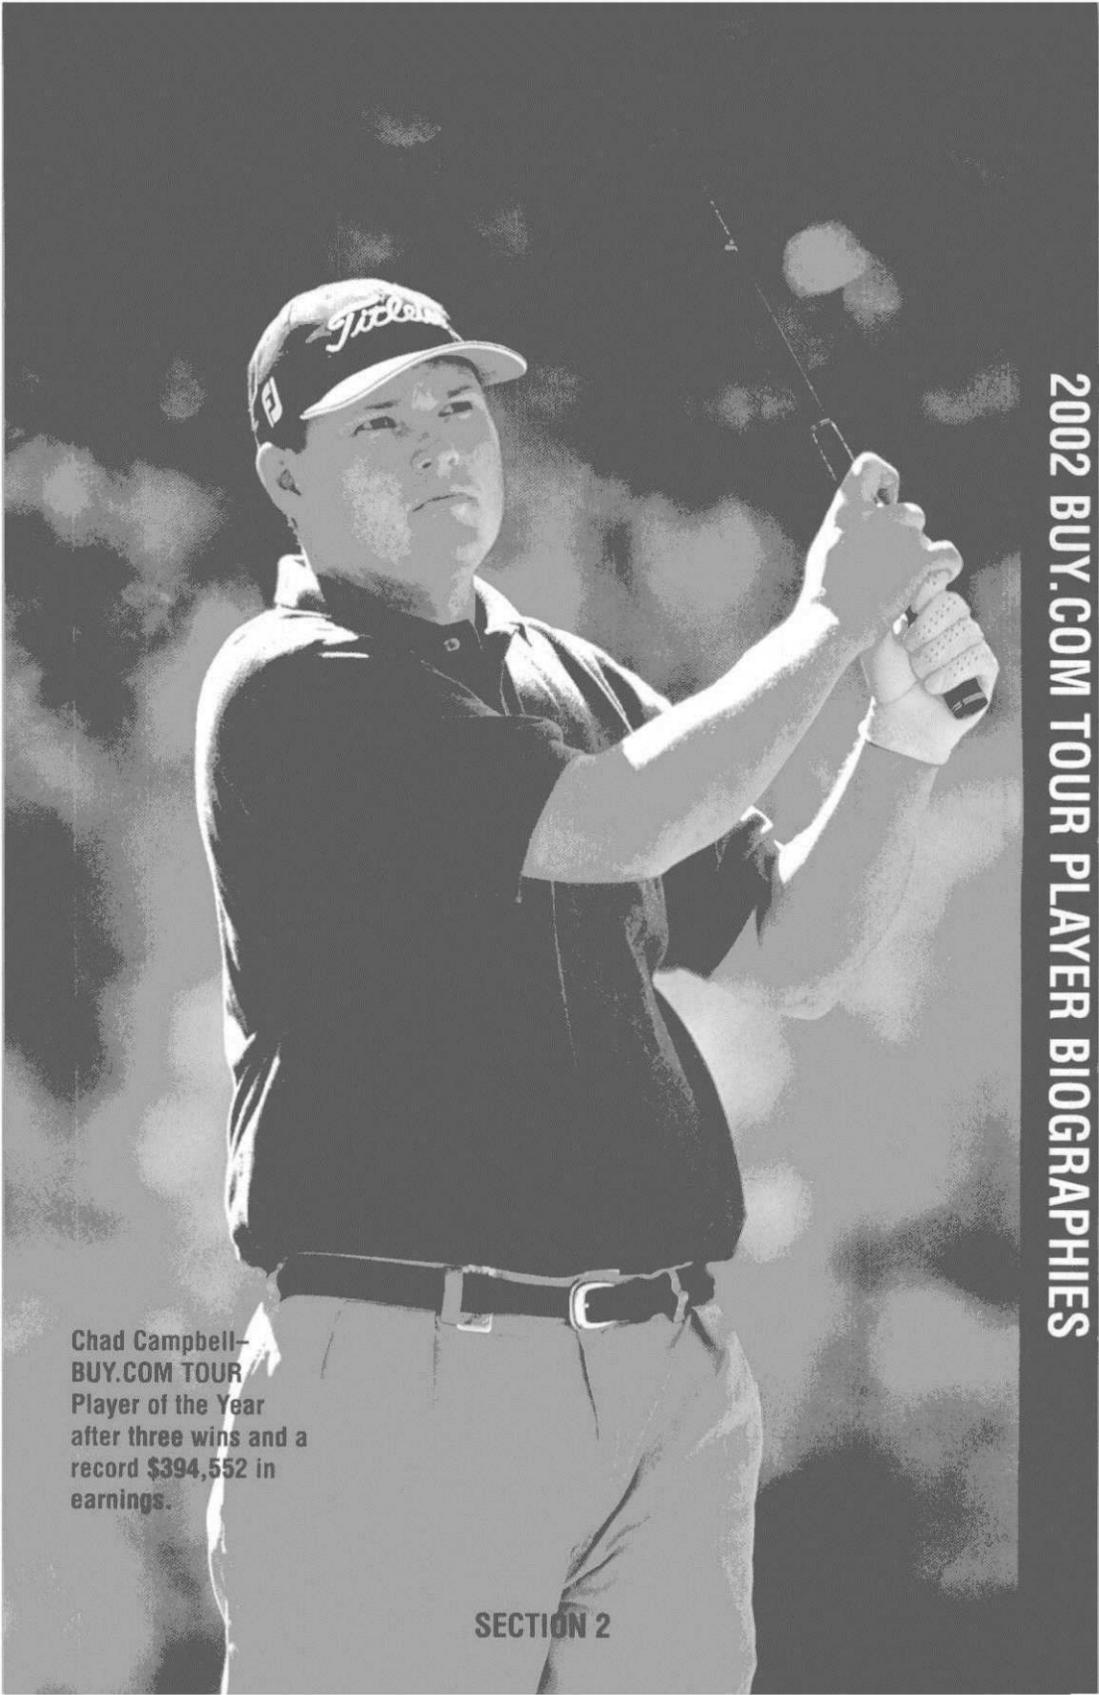

Born in Ottawa, IL on April 19, 1947, Finchem was graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He was graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973.

After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Marketing and Strategies Group in Washington, D.C.

A physical fitness advocate, Finchem is a member of the President's Council on Physical Fitness. He also is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001.

Married to the former Holly Bachand, Finchem is a father of four. The Finchems live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

2001 BUY.COM TOUR GRADUATING CLASS

The 2001 BUY.COM TOUR graduating class with BUY.COM TOUR Chief of Operations Bill Calfee following last year's BUY.COM TOUR Championship.

The BUY.COM TOUR Class of 2001 is unique in that it is the first group to boast three players who earned full-exempt status on the PGA TOUR by posting three-victory seasons.

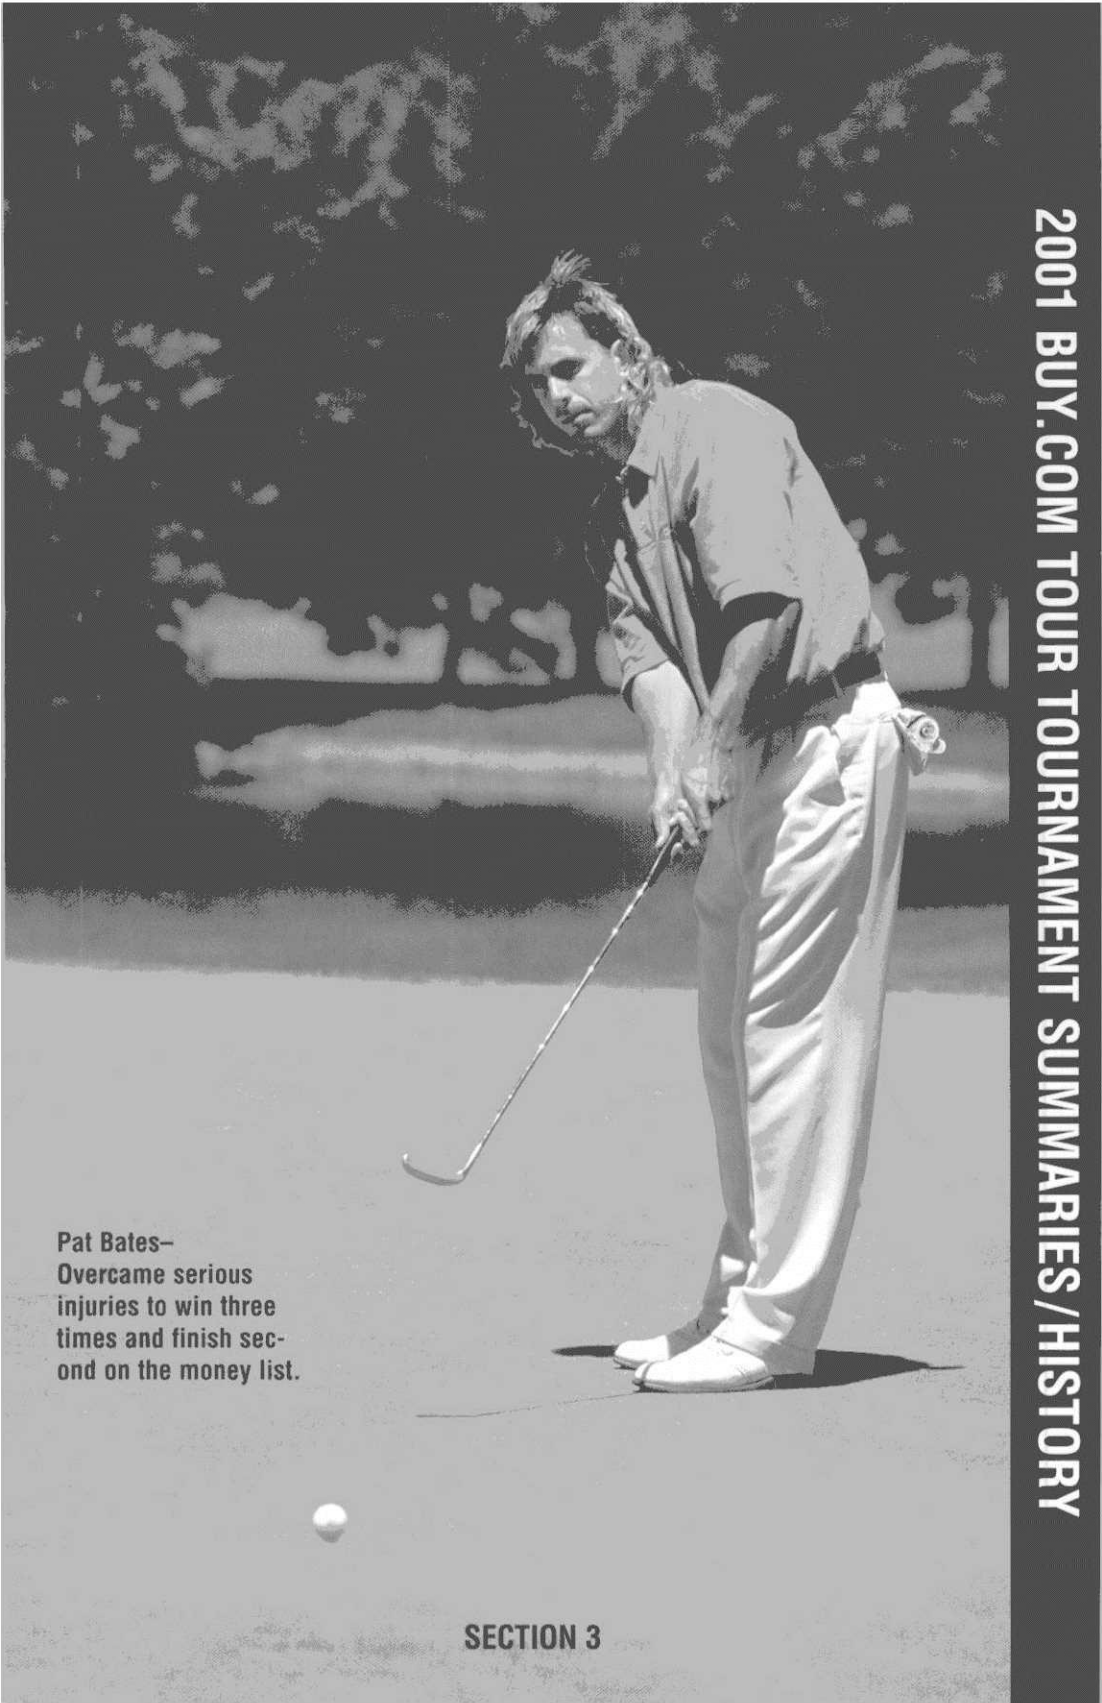

Heath Slocum, Chad Campbell and Pat Bates collected three BUY.COM TOUR titles in 2001 to earn that status. None of them will be subject to the periodic re-shuffles on the PGA TOUR and will be able to plan their year's activities in advance.

The remaining dozen players from the Top 15 on the final money list are mixed in with the Qualifying Tournament graduates and are included among those undergoing the re-shuffles that determine eligibility status for PGA TOUR events.

The Class of 2001 also is unique in that, for the first time, two brothers graduated to the PGA TOUR at the same time – Deane Pappas (No. 5 on the money list) and younger brother Brenden (No. 10).

In addition to Slocum, Campbell and Bates, the Class of 2001 includes:

4. Rod Pampling
5. Deane Pappas
6. John Rollins
7. Tim Petrovic
8. Jonathan Byrd
9. Jeff Gove
10. Brenden Pappas
11. Bo Van Pelt
12. Matt Peterson
13. Richard Zokol
14. Jason Hill
15. Michael Long

Pat Bates—
Overcame serious injuries to win three times and finish second on the money list.

BUY.COM FLORIDA CLASSIC NOTES

Sonny Skinner established the Gainesville CC course record with his 8-under-par 63 in last year's opening round. Skinner needed only 22 putts in his bogey-free round, breaking the mark of 64 set by Rod Pampling, who completed his round about 30 minutes before Skinner.

John Patterson, who posted a 9-under-par 62 in the Monday qualifier, grabbed the 54-hole lead with a third-round 64. Patterson, making his first start in a BUY.COM TOUR event, held a one-stroke lead going into the final 18 holes. The 29-year-old former club pro posted a 1-under 70 in the final round and tied for fourth, three strokes behind winner Chris Couch.

Former University of Florida standout Chris Couch needed a sponsor's exemption to get into the field last year at Gainesville CC, where he has been a member for five years. Couch, who had no status on the BUY.COM TOUR prior to the tournament, earned a full exemption for the rest of 2001 and this season.

Chris Couch became the first University of Florida golfer to win a BUY.COM TOUR event since Pat Bates captured the 1997 Colorado Classic. Couch also became the first player to win on his home course since Roger Salazar won the 1991 South Texas Open at North Shore CC in Corpus Christi, TX.

LOUISIANA OPEN NOTES

David Lebeck, a Monday qualifier, opened the tournament with a course-record 11-under-61, breaking the mark of 62 set by Stan Utley in 1962 and matched by Joe Daley in 1997. Lebeck birdied eight of his last nine holes for a 28 on the back nine en route to setting the record.

The 61 by David Lebeck during the opening round of the BUY.COM Louisiana Open led to a five-stroke first-round lead. That was the largest first-round lead on TOUR since Ron Philo had a six-stroke lead at the 1994 Pensacola Open.

Paul Claxton's victory at Le Triomphe CC last season was Claxton's first on TOUR. The win came in Claxton's 150th career start, the second longest wait for a first win in the TOUR's history. The mark for longest wait by a player before his first victory on the BUY.COM TOUR is held by Ben Bates, who won his 179th start.

ARKANSAS CLASSIC NOTES

Brett Quigley became the 16th wire-to-wire winner in BUY.COM TOUR history and the first since Kelly Gibson won the 1999 Oregon Classic, a span of 38 events.

The quartet of par-3s at Diamante CC proved to be a formidable group for tournament week, when all four holes played over par. The 205-yard 16th hole played to a scoring average of 3.315 for the week, making it the second most difficult hole on the course.

Brett Quigley's opening-round, course-record 7-under-par 65 was even more impressive given the fact that Thursday's scoring average was 74.776. Difficult course conditions (7,519 yards), along with 10-20 mph winds, kept the opening-day scores higher than usual. Thirteen players didn't break 80 for the first round. Quigley, who led by three strokes after the first day, went on to register his second career win and first since the 1996 Philadelphia Classic.

Brett Quigley's win was a story of what might have been. Quigley was the second alternate at the PGA TOUR stop, the Shell Houston Open, but chose not to leave Arkansas to wait it out in Houston. As it turned out, last-minute withdrawals left the field in Houston one player short of the maximum 156. Quigley would have gotten into the field had he gone to Texas. He followed his win in Arkansas with a runner-up finish at the Greater Greensboro Chrysler Classic.

BMW CHARITY PRO-AM AT THE CLIFFS NOTES

Rookie Jonathan Byrd was playing in just his third BUY.COM TOUR event and second as a professional when he won last year's Charity Pro-Am. Byrd played in the 2000 BUY.COM Upstate Classic in Greenville as an amateur. He was the 12th alternate at the event prior to Greenville, the Arkansas Classic, where he made the field and went on to tie for 17th place.

R.W. Eaks established a competitive course record at The Cliffs Valley course with his 8-under-par 64 in the opening round of last year's event. Eaks was in the first group off the first tee on Thursday morning.

Jay Hobby rolled in seven consecutive birdies as he made the turn at the Keowee Vineyards course during Friday's second round. Hobby turned the front nine in 3-over-par 39 before starting his birdie run at No. 10. His streak of seven matches the second longest birdie run in TOUR history, topped only by Omar Uresti's nine in a row at the 1994 Shreveport Open. Hobby's back-nine score of 28 also matched the second-lowest 9-hole score in BUY.COM TOUR history.

SAS CAROLINA CLASSIC NOTES

John Maginnes, resident of nearby Greensboro, NC, captured his first BUY.COM TOUR event since the 1998 Dakota Dunes Open, which happened two years, seven months and five days before. Surprisingly, Maginnes had played in only eight events on the BUY.COM TOUR between those victories.

The Tournament Players Club at Wakefield Plantation became the third course played during the eight-year history of the event. The first four years were played at Prestonwood CC in Cary, NC, followed by three years at Raleigh CC. It became the second TPC course on the BUY.COM TOUR schedule, along with the TPC of Virginia Beach.

Ryuji Imada set a tournament-course record with a 7-under-par 64 during the second round. The actual course record was set earlier in the week by David Gossett during the Wednesday Pro-Am. Gossett, who fired a 59 during the finals of the 1999 PGA TOUR Qualifying School, recorded an 11-under-par 60 for individual honors in the pro-am.

Brian Kontak and Ryuji Imada recorded the first two tournament aces on the TPC at Wakefield Plantation course. Kontak used an 8-iron from 173 yards on hole No. 14 during the second round, while Imada's came the next day with a 5-iron from 197 yards on the third hole. They were the ninth and 10th holes-in-one in tournament history.

RICHMOND OPEN NOTES

Chad Campbell earned the first of his three 2001 titles at the BUY.COM Richmond Open, beating Kelly Gibson by three strokes. Campbell, who shared the 54-hole lead with J.J. Henry, began the final round with a birdie-birdie-birdie-eagle start to quickly open a four-stroke lead. Campbell took over the No. 1 spot on the money list, the same place he would close the season after eventually adding wins at the BUY.COM Permian Basin Open and BUY.COM Monterey Peninsula Classic.

J.J. Henry was a member of the PGA TOUR last year after finishing 13th on the 1999 BUY.COM TOUR money list. However, he wasn't eligible to play in the MasterCard Colonial in Fort Worth, TX, just minutes from the TCU campus, where he was an All-American. Henry had made just four cuts in 12 PGA TOUR events prior to challenging for the title at Richmond. He continued his fine play the following week, tying for second at the Kemper Insurance Open. Henry went on to make the cut in 11 of his final 16 PGA TOUR events, with four more top-eight finishes. He earned $1,073,847 and wound up No. 49 on the money list for his rookie season.

Brad Fabel set the Stonehenge G&CC course record with a 9-under-par 62 in the second round of last year's event. Fabel, who opened with a 75, needed only 23 putts to break the course mark of 65, which first-round leader Mark Wurtz had tied. Fabel birdied all four of the par 3s during his record-setting round.

NORTHEAST PENNSYLVANIA CLASSIC NOTES

Jason Hill posted a course record-tying 5-under-par 65 in Sunday's final round to capture his first career title by three strokes. Hill hit 16 of 18 greens during the last round and overcame a four-stroke deficit to capture the $76,500 first-place check. Hill was one of 16 first-time winners on the 2001 BUY.COM TOUR.

John Elliott posted a bogey-free, 4-under-par 66 to take the second-round lead at Glenmaura last year, barely one week after undergoing LASIK surgery to correct his vision. Elliott had 30 putts during his second round.

Thursday's opening-round scoring average was nearly four full strokes above par. Winds gusting to 25 mph made scoring treacherous at the Glenmaura National GC and resulted in a first-day scoring average of 73.490.

The 36-hole cut, which came at 4-over-par 144, matched the highest cut on the BUY.COM TOUR last year. It was the highest since a 6-over-par cut at the 2000 BUY.COM Tri-Cities Open.

SAMSUNG CANADIAN PGA CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

The Canadian PGA Championship is the second oldest golf tournament in Canada, dating back to 1912. Last season, for the first time, the tournament became a part of the BUY.COM TOUR schedule and was won by Canadian Richard Zokol. Zokol's victory was the first by a Canadian-born player on the BUY.COM TOUR since 1996, when Ashley Chinner took home a trophy.

Joel Kribel set the competitive-course record at DiamondBack Golf Club with a 7-under-par 65 in the first round. Jeff Sanday matched Kribel's 65 later in the first round and Tjaart van der Walt turned in a final-round 65, as well.

Did you know? Richard Zokol is one of 31 players to capture victories on both the BUY.COM and PGA TOURs in his career.

A number of players have won on the PGA TOUR and captured the Canadian PGA Championship. Richard Zokol joined Lee Trevino (1979 and 1983), Jim Thorpe (1982), Ray Floyd (1981), Arnold Palmer (1980) and Lanny Wadkins (1978), just to name a few.

BUY.COM GREATER CLEVELAND OPEN NOTES

Heath Slocum became one of 16 first-time winners on the BUY.COM TOUR in 2001 by coming from four strokes back with nine holes to play at Quail Hollow CC. Slocum used a 6-under-par 30 on the back nine to overtake Ryuji Imada by one stroke and finish with a tournament record 21-under-par 267.

Andy Morse became the 16th player in tournament history to record an ace on the Quail Hollow CC course and the fifth on the par-3 sixth hole. Morse used a 7-iron from 161 yards to post the hole-in-one.

Ryuji Imada recorded the second double eagle of the season during the second round of the tournament. After knocking his drive 300 yards on No. 10, Imada landed his 4-wood from 250 yards on the front of the green and watched as the ball rolled in the hole. It was the beginning of a run that would see Imada post a score of 6-under par over four holes. He birdied Nos. 11-13 to complete the streak.

DAYTON OPEN NOTES

Heath Slocum became only the second player in BUY.COM TOUR history to complete a 72-hole tournament without a bogey. Slocum matched the record set by Clark Dennis at the 1997 Upstate Classic. Interestingly, neither Slocum nor Dennis won the tournament in which they were bogey-free.

Todd Barranger collected his first career title with a dramatic, final-day win over Bo Van Pelt. Barranger posted a final-round 7-under-par 65 to win by one stroke in one of the bigger birdie-fests in BUY.COM TOUR history. Barranger equaled the TOUR record with his winning score of 26-under par. Van Pelt, who carded a final-day 66, was 25-under and Heath Slocum finished third at 23-under. No other tournament has ever had the top three finishers that far under par.

Third-round co-leader Bo Van Pelt grew up about 40 minutes from the Golf Club at Yankee Trace. Van Pelt was raised in Richmond, IN, just to the west and across the state line. He played in front of about 50 family and friends during his rounds at Dayton.

Kevin Muncrief registered the fifth hole-in-one of the year when he aced the 13th hole during the second round. Muncrief, a TOUR rookie, used an 8-iron on the 159-yard hole.

Chris Couch became the first player in nearly three years to record back-to-back eagles on the BUY.COM TOUR. Couch eagled a pair of par 5s, the 18th and first holes, during the opening round. Couch had to wait out a rain delay to accomplish the feat. He was in the 18th fairway when play was suspended Thursday evening. The BUY.COM Florida Classic winner was 225 yards from the pin when play resumed Friday morning. He hit his shot to within 15 feet and sank the putt. Couch then drained another 15-footer on the first hole for his second straight eagle.

KNOXVILLE OPEN NOTES

Heath Slocum set a BUY.COM TOUR record for consecutive bogey-free holes at the Knoxville Open. Slocum ran his streak to 106 holes before suffering a bogey on the par-4 seventh hole during second-round play at Fox Den CC. He had played the final 10 holes at the BUY.COM Greater Cleveland Open without a bogey two weeks earlier and did not have a bogey in all 72 holes at the BUY.COM Dayton Open the previous week. Slocum played bogey-free during his course record-matching 64 in Thursday's round. His first bogey in three weeks turned out to be a three-putt bogey from eight feet, missing the 2-foot par putt.

Four former champions teed it up at last year's BUY.COM Knoxville Open. Vic Wilk (1994), Eric Johnson (1996), Dave Rummells (1997) and Jeff Gove (1999) all played, but Gove was the only one of the four to make the 36-hole cut.

Sonny Skinner and Heath Slocum matched the Fox Den CC course record with 8-under-par 64 in Thursday's opening round. Skinner and Slocum tied the mark set by Chris Smith during the second round of the 2000 tournament.

HERSHEY OPEN NOTES

John Rollins' victory at the 2001 BUY.COM Hershey Open continued his strong play in the state of Pennsylvania. Rollins' first foray into Pennsylvania was in 1999, when he finished third in this very same tournament. The following year he traveled to the SEI Pennsylvania Classic in Paoli and finished T12. Earlier in 2001 he finished T13 in the BUY.COM Steamtown Classic.

John Rollins tied the tournament record set by Michael Clark II in 1998. Rollins finished the event at 11-under-par 273. While Rollins tied that mark, three others were busy matching the competitive course record – Jay Hobby, Brad Klapprott and Rodney Pamplung. All three shot rounds of 7-under-par 64 to equal the mark set by Bob Burns (1998) and matched by Gary Nicklaus (1999). Nicklaus' 64 was the only of the five shot on a par-70 course.

The playoff between John Rollins and Rodney Pamplung was the first of the season and came during the 14th event. The last playoff prior to Hershey came at the 2000 BUY.COM Ozarks Open, 23 events before. That's the second-longest stretch of tournaments without a playoff in the history of the TOUR. The longest lasted 26 weeks and included the last nine weeks of 1996, plus the first 17 weeks of 1997.

Brad Klapprott turned in a front-nine 30 on his way to tying the 18-hole record at Hershey CC East Course during the third round of last year's event. That was just the second 30 recorded on a nine during the tournament's five-year history. The first was by Darron Stiles, who shot a 30 on the front nine during the 1998 event on his way to a first-round 68, then failed to make the cut after a 78 in round two.

PREFERRED HEALTH SYSTEMS WICHITA OPEN NOTES

Jason Dufner walked away with his first career victory on the BUY.COM TOUR in only his second start. Dufner Monday-qualified for the BUY.COM Hershey Open the week before and finished T12. The top-25 finish guaranteed him a spot in the Wichita field, and he took advantage to earn full exempt status on the BUY.COM TOUR for the remainder of last season and all of 2002.

Jason Dufner carried a one-stroke advantage over three players heading into the final hole on Sunday at Crestview CC. After driving the ball in the fairway, Dufner struck a 5-iron from 208 yards to within eight feet of the hole. Knowing he had three putts to play with, he sank the eagle for a three-stroke victory.

The tournament moved to the third course in its 12-year history. After seven years at Reflection Ridge GC and four at Willowbend GC, the event was played at the 6,913-yard Crestview CC course. Jeff Gove established the course record with a 9-under-par 63 in the third round.

BUY.COM SIOUXLAND OPEN NOTES

Second-round leader Tjaart van der Walt was a perfect 28-for-28 in hitting fairways for the first two days. Van der Walt posted consecutive 66s to move to 12-under and lead by one over Pat Bates.

Joe Daley could have been excused had he opted not to play last year. Daley attempted to qualify for the British Open in 2001, playing rounds in Ainsdale, England on Sunday and Monday and then making the long journey to Sioux City. Daley flew back to Chicago Tuesday, then drove 500 miles to South Dakota, arriving at 1 a.m. Wednesday.

Pat Bates became only the third player in BUY.COM TOUR history to win the same event twice. Bates, who won the Dakota Dunes Open in 1994, joined Chris Smith (1995 and 1997 Dakota Dunes Open) and Ryan Howison (1997 and 1999 Lakeland Classic) as the only players to win twice on the same golf course.

Pat Bates earned his third career title last year at the BUY.COM Siouxland Open and became the 29th player in TOUR history to win three times or more. Matt Gogel and Sean Murphy share the TOUR record with six career wins.

(unofficial victory)

LEADERS: First Round—Jamie Rogers, Mike Grob, Todd Barranger, Sung Man Lee, Omar Uresti, Brenden Pappas, Steve Runge and Iain Steel shared the lead at 7-under-par 65. Eight more players were one stroke back.

[NOTE: Due to weather problems, the tournament had to be reduced to a 36-hole event; that decision, made Sunday morning, meant money won was official but the victory was unofficial.]

CUT: 76 players at 4-under-par 140 from a field of 146 professionals and one amateur.

PRO-AM: Team: Heath Slocum, 46, $500.

Thursday play was suspended twice, from 10:17 a.m.-noon and from 12:57-2:30 p.m., then suspended for the day at 8:26 p.m. due to darkness. The high was 79; total rainfall was 0.40". Play Friday was suspended at 8:40 a.m. and officially called for the day at 1:15 p.m. The high was 83; total rainfall was 1.10". ### PRICE CUTTER CHARITY CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

Rain interrupted play all four days at last year's Ozarks Open, dumping more than four inches of rain on Highland Springs CC and forcing tournament officials to reduce the event to 36 holes. This was the seventh time in TOUR history an event had been cut to 36 holes, but only the third time a scheduled 72-hole tournament was reduced to 36. The 1995 Shreveport Open and 1997 Greater Austin Open were cut to 36 holes because of weather problems.

Eight players shared the first-round lead at last year's BUY.COM Ozarks Open, setting a TOUR record for most players tied for the 18-hole lead. Four times previously seven players shared the first-day lead, including the 1998 Ozarks Open.

The first round took a total of 53 hours and 39 minutes to complete. The first groups were off the tee at 7:15 Thursday morning, but several rain delays prevented the final group from completing the round until 12:54 Saturday afternoon.

OMAHA CLASSIC NOTES

Heath Slocum became just the second BUY.COM TOUR player to earn an immediate promotion to the PGA TOUR by virtue of his third victory during the 2001 season. Ironically, the only other player to earn the promotion, Chris Smith, also captured his third title at The Championship Club in Omaha, NE. The three-victories promotion was instituted prior to the 1997 season as an incentive for BUY.COM TOUR players to earn their PGA TOUR card without having to finish in the top 15. Prior to 1997, 11 players had won at least three times during the same season.

Heath Slocum just missed matching Chris Smith's under-par total for his three victories. Smith, who also won the Upstate Classic and Dakota Dunes Open in 1997, totaled 67-under par (21, 20, 26) for his three wins, while Slocum went 66-under par (21, 23, 22). Slocum earlier won the BUY.COM Greater Cleveland Open and BUY.COM Knoxville Open. Slocum opened each of his victories with the same score – 64.

Heath Slocum left the BUY.COM TOUR after his victory in Omaha with $337,090 in earnings. That broke the record set by former BUY.COM TOUR Player of the Year Spike McRoy, who earned $300,638 and the No. 1 spot on the 2000 money list.

Nine players recorded two eagles during a round, the most posted at one tournament during the 2001 season. Jeff Freeman took it one step farther in becoming the first person since Jason Tyska (4th round/1999 Utah Classic) to record three eagles in the same round. Freeman's came during round three on Nos. 6, 10 and 17.

FORT SMITH CLASSIC NOTES

Jay Delsing earned his first career title by defeating Jeff Freeman on the fourth hole of a playoff last year. Delsing and Freeman played only one hole of the playoff Sunday night before darkness pushed them into Monday morning. The Monday finish was the first on the BUY.COM TOUR since the 1996 San Jose Open, where Larry Silveira defeated Stewart Cink and Bobby Elliott in a playoff that also had to be carried over from Sunday.

Jeff Freeman posted the lowest 18-hole score of the 2001 season when he carded a 10-under-par 60 during Saturday's third round. Freeman's 60 was only the fifth one in BUY.COM TOUR history and matched Jeff Woodland's finish at the 1991 Dakota Dunes Open as the lowest third-round score ever posted. Freeman's 60 featured eight birdies and one eagle. He parred the final three holes and had to sink a 14-foot par putt on the last for his round of 60.

Pete Morgan had a pair of eagles during the final round of last year's tournament. Morgan was one of 36 players to have two eagles in the same round. His eagles came on back-to-back holes, the 510-yard par-5 11th and 370-yard par-4 12th. Only three other players recorded back-to-back eagles in 2001.

John Peterson registered the first hole-in-one of the tournament's four-year history when he aced the 164-yard second hole during the final round.

PERMIAN BASIN OPEN NOTES

Chad Campbell broke the tournament record with his winning score of 24-under-par 264. Campbell, who earlier in the year won the BUY.COM Richmond Open, broke the mark of 21-under 267 set by Paul Gow in 1997. Campbell's 24-under score was the second lowest winning score on TOUR last year.

Chad Campbell's 54-hole score of 21-under par was the lowest score in relation to par on the 2001 BUY.COM TOUR. Campbell's 21-under also tied the BUY.COM TOUR record for lowest 54-hole score. Chris Smith also was 21-under for the first 54 holes at the 1997 Omaha Classic.

Chad Campbell grew up in Andrews, TX, only about 35 minutes from the Club at Mission Dorado, where he earned his second win of the 2001 BUY.COM TOUR season. Campbell played the course many times as a high school student and during the two years he attended Midland Junior College.

Eric Booker had made just one cut in 17 starts prior to the start of last year's Permian Basin Open. Booker, a member of the 1999 and 2000 PGA TOUR, birdied seven of his last 12 holes in Saturday's third round to share second place with Rod Pampling, four back of the leading Campbell. Booker tied for fourth in Odessa, his only top-25 finish of the year.

UTAH CLASSIC NOTES

David Sutherland earned his first career win at the 2001 BUY.COM Utah Classic. A PGA TOUR member, Sutherland had shoulder surgery in March, was using a medical exemption to get into the field and was making the first start since his surgery. He was allowed to play five BUY.COM TOUR events without affecting his future status. Sutherland is playing on the 2002 PGA TOUR on his medical exemption.

David Sutherland's 17-under-par 127 was the lowest opening 36 holes on the 2001 BUY.COM TOUR and tied the TOUR's all-time record for lowest opening 36. Sutherland's six-stroke lead at the halfway point was the largest on TOUR last year and also matched the largest 36-hole lead in TOUR history, set by Joe Durant at the 1996 Shreveport Open.

David Sutherland's even-par 72 was the highest final-round score by a tournament winner last year.

Rob McMillan and Jeff Freeman had holes-in-one at last year's event. McMillan aced the fourth hole during Saturday's play, while Freeman aced the 15th hole during the final round.

Jay Hobby had a rare double eagle at last year's tournament. Hobby holed a 4-iron from 249 yards on the par-5 12th hole for a deuce. Hobby was one of four players to register a double eagle during the 2001 season.

BUY.COM TRI-CITIES NOTES

First-round leader Brett Wetterich injured his wrist in June 2000 and needed surgery in January 2001. The Palm Beach Garden, FL resident, granted a medical exemption to the PGA TOUR, was playing in just his second event when he posted an 8-under-par 64 to take the 18-hole lead by three strokes. Wetterich eagled his first hole and carded his career-low round on either TOUR. He went on to tie for 45th place.

Guy Boros overcame a four-putt bogey on the opening hole of the final round last year to post a 7-under-par 65 and earn his second career victory. Boros, who started the day five strokes back of 54-hole leader John Rollins, charged to victory with a back-nine, 6-under 30 to overtake Jeff Gove and Rollins. Boros became the 12th first-time winner on the 2001 BUY.COM TOUR.

Guy Boros' opening-round 71 tied Pat Bates (BUY.COM TOUR Championship) for the highest start by a tournament winner last year.

Guy Boros joined Trevor Dodds (BUY.COM Virginia Beach Open) and Richard Zokol (Canadian PGA Championship) as PGA TOUR tournament winners who won on the 2001 BUY.COM TOUR.

OREGON CLASSIC NOTES

Keoke Cotner earned the first title of his career with a two-stroke victory over Jody Bellflower and Tommy Biershenk at the 2000 BUY.COM Oregon Classic. Cotner held a one stroke lead over Bellflower and never relinquished the lead in Sunday's final round, in which he posted a bogey-free, 4-under 68. Cotner matched the tournament record of 16-under 272 and collected the $72,000 first-place check.

Rob Bradley and former Oregon resident Craig Kanada each carded course record-tying 7-under 65's to share the first-round lead, one shot better than Pat Perez.

Todd Barranger added a second 67 to get to 10-under par and take the 36-hole lead. Barranger led by one over Bradley with Bellflower two off the pace. Cotner matched the course record with a third-day 65 to vault himself into the 54-hole lead.

During Sunday's final round, Cotner birdied the first two holes to up his lead to three, but Bellflower eagled the 5th hole to cut it back to one. Cotner, who played the final 65 holes without a bogey, continued to hit fairways and greens en route to his first career title.

Joe Ogilvie set the current course record (7-under-par 65) during the opening round of the 1998 tournament. Tom Scherrer and Charles Raulerson equalled the mark that year. Kelly Gibson and Jim Johnson tied it during the 1999 event, while Craig Kanada, Rob Bradley, Keoke Cotner and Vaughn Taylor matched it in 2000.

Two of the previous three tournament winners have gone on to earn their PGA TOUR card for the following year. Charles Raulerson, winner of the inaugural event in 1998, finished No. 7 on the season money list and graduated to the PGA TOUR in 1999. Kelly Gibson, a wire-to-wire winner the following year, ended up 12 on the 1999 money list and moved on to the PGA TOUR as well.

BOISE OPEN NOTES

33-year-old New Zealand native Michael Long earned his first career title at the 2001 BUY.COM Boise Open. Long shot a final-round 3-under 68 to edge South African Tjaart van der Walt by one stroke and collect $100,080, the second richest paycheck on the BUY.COM TOUR. Long vaulted from No. 54 to No. 12 on the money list with his win. He would go on to finish 15th on the money list and earn his 2002 PGA TOUR card. Long became the fourth consecutive Boise Open winner to finish in the top-15 on the money list and move to the PGA TOUR the following year.

TJAART VAN DER WALT

A BUY.COM TOUR record 80 players made the 36-hole cut at last year's tournament. The cut came at even-par 142. The previous high for most players to make a cut was 76 players at the 2001 BUY.COM Fort Smith Classic and 2001 BUY.COM Utah Classic.

Defending champion Tim Clark returned to competition last year in Boise after being out of commission because of wrist surgery in the spring. Clark, who blitzed the field by six strokes in 2000, injured his wrist during the pro-am at the Sony Open in Hawaii in January and had been on the mend since undergoing surgery to repair the damage. Clark had a hole-in-one during the second round, but carded a 4-over 75 and missed the cut by two strokes.

STATE FARM OPEN NOTES

D.A. Points birdied the third playoff hole to edge veterans Rod Pamplung and Mark Wurtz for the 2001 Inland Empire Open title. The former All-American at the University of Illinois earned his first career title by posting a final-round 68 to join Wurtz and Pamplung in the playoff. His previous best finish had been a tie for 17th at the BUY.COM Richmond Open in May. Points later added a fourth-place finish at the BUY.COM Gila River Golf Classic and finished the season No. 30 on the money list.

Steve Haskins established the course record at Empire Lakes GC with a 10-under-par 62 in the opening round of last year's tournament. Haskins, unofficial winner of the BUY.COM Ozarks Open, bettered the mark of 64 set by Sonny Skinner, Tripp Isenhour and Tommy Biershenk in 2000. Haskins put together nines of 32-30 for his record-setting day.

Playing in just his second BUY.COM TOUR event of the year, former club pro Todd Murphy fired a 9-under-par 63 in the first round at Empire Lakes. Murphy, a 31-year-old who spent five years as a club professional in Hawaii, earned a spot in the field of 144 by way of a playoff during Monday qualifying. He went on to tie for 11th place.

BANK OF AMERICA MONTEREY PENINSULA CLASSIC NOTES

Chad Campbell earned his third win of the season by virtue of his final-round 69 and one-stroke victory over Deane Pappas. The 27-year-old rookie joined Heath Slocum as three-time winners during the 2001 campaign, thereby earning a performance promotion to the PGA TOUR. Campbell's victory was worth $81,000 and propelled his season total to a TOUR-record $363,959. Campbell's three wins earned fully exempt status on the 2002 PGA TOUR.

Tom Carter recorded the fourth double eagle of the season when he holed a 6-iron on his second shot at the 504-yard par-5 10th hole during the second round. It was the first double eagle for Carter, who has eight competitive career aces. For the round, he posted a 5-under-par 67 and tied Conrad Ray's course record, set in 2000.

Chad Campbell's winning score of 8-under-par 280 established a tournament record, breaking the 3-under 285 set by Richard Johnson in 2000. Campbell's 8-under score was the second highest winning total on the BUY.COM TOUR in 2001. Only Pat Bates' 4-under 284 score at the BUY.COM TOUR Championship was higher.

Kelly Gibson had two eagles during the first round of last year's event. Gibson fired an even-par 72 for the trip around the Bayonet Course.

GILA RIVER GOLF CLASSIC NOTES

Ben Crane earned his second career title with a playoff victory over Bo Van Pelt and Jason Caron at last year's inaugural BUY.COM Gila River Golf Classic. Crane was able to capitalize on Van Pelt's three-putt bogey at the 72nd hole and get into the playoff after all three players tied at 23-under par.

Bo Van Pelt's runner-up finish at Gila River was his second of the year. The former Oklahoma State standout finished 23-under par in Chandler, which would have been good enough to win 23 other tournaments on TOUR last year. Van Pelt also finished second at the BUY.COM Dayton Open, where he was 25-under par and lost by one to Todd Barranger.

Last year's four-hole playoff at Gila River was the second such playoff of the 2001 season. Four extra holes were needed to determine a champion at the BUY.COM Fort Smith Classic. Prior to last year, the last four-hole playoff came at the 1998 San Jose Open, where Robin Freeman defeated Sean Murphy and Tom Scherrer.

Ben Crane used his second career title to vault from No. 79 to No. 26 on the money list with just two events left on the schedule. Crane would add a T5 at the season-ending BUY.COM TOUR Championship and wound up 23rd on the final money list.

Ben Crane's three-round total of 193 (20-under) was the low first 54-hole score of the 2001 season. Crane's 193 also was the low 54-hole total for the year. Bo Van Pelt's total of 194 was the second lowest 54-hole score for the year in both categories.

Pat Bates followed his win at the BUY.COM Shreveport Open with a win at the BUY.COM TOUR Championship. Bates became the first person to win back-to-back events since Chris Smith captured the 1997 Dakota Dunes Open and Omaha Classic. Bates also was the first to win back-to-back starts since Carl Paulson captured the 1999 Utah Classic and Boise Open.

Chad Campbell earned his eighth top-10 finish in 23 events with his fourth-place showing at the BUY.COM TOUR Championship. Campbell was one of three three-time winners last year and earned a BUY.COM TOUR record $394,552 in 2001, breaking the mark of $300,638 set by Spike McRoy in 2000. Pat Bates, Heath Slocum and Rod Pampling also bettered McRoy's previous record.

Rod Pampling did everything but win a tournament in 2001. The 31-year-old Australian made the cut in 21 of 26 events and had eight top-five finishes. Pampling was runner-up three times and third twice en route to establishing a record for most money earned without a victory ($306,573). He also tied for fourth once and fifth twice, including the BUY.COM TOUR Championship. Pampling broke the non-winners earnings mark of $236,541 set by Chris Smith in 2000.

2. Players are not to be distracted during play. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their rounds.
3. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their practice sessions before a round, except by prior arrangement with the player.
4. If an interview is to be conducted in the practice areas, either the range or the putting green, it must be done by prior arrangement with the player, up against the ropes and not in the middle of the areas where it could be distracting to other players.
5. Do not disturb players at their 18th green and/or scoring tent until after they have checked, signed and returned their scorecards. Media are not allowed in the scoring tent.

Working Press Regulations

To avoid embarrassment to you and distraction to the contestants:

PARTNERS IN CHARITY

BUY.COM TOUR DONATIONS EXCEED $22 MILLION

In just 12 seasons, events on the BUY.COM TOUR have generated approximately $22.5 million for local charities. This past year, the BUY.COM TOUR contributed a record $3 million for local charitable concerns.

The success of the BUY.COM TOUR in raising substantial funds for local charities is one of the cornerstones of the TOUR's overall mission. The BUY.COM TOUR seeks to not only provide a place for its members to play, but also to provide local fans with outstanding competition while leaving significant dollars in the community to assist those in need.

"We are very proud of the fact that the BUY.COM TOUR has been able to create more than $22 million for local charities," said Bill Calfee, Chief of Operations for the BUY.COM TOUR. "It is a great reward for the thousands of people who work hard behind the scenes to make this TOUR possible.

"Just as our purses have grown tremendously through the years, so have our charitable contributions – and we feel very good about that," added Calfee.

The PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR combined to distribute $64 million in 2001.

Since the first donation from a PGA TOUR event to charity in 1938 at the Palm Beach Invitational, PGA TOUR events have raised approximately $525 million. SENIOR PGA TOUR events have contributed $95 million, while the BUY.COM TOUR has added another $22 million. Overall, the three TOURs have combined to raise approximately $640 million for charity.

TOUR WIVES ASSOCIATION

TOUR Wives Association, Inc. is a Florida not-for-profit corporation organized to render support for and provide assistance to needy children and their families through the means of charitable events. The Association is comprised of the wives of professional golfers on the PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR, as well as individuals and corporations that support the TOUR Wives Association's many charitable endeavors.

Since its incorporation in 1988, the TOUR Wives Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money for child-related charities and given much back to the game of golf through personal and monetary contributions. In addition to the funds that are raised, the wives visit different charities in the communities where golf tournaments are held, spending time and playing with children supported by the charities.

The TOUR Wives Association conducts numerous fundraisers to support their charities. These include tasting events, concerts, live and silent auctions and other activities.

The Association's favorite (and longest-running) fundraiser is the biannual TOUR Wives Golf Classic, a nine-hole tournament at which the wives play golf—and their husbands act as caddies. The TOUR Wives Golf Classic, first played in 1987, has been held at different courses around the country.

In 2001, the TOUR Wives Association began selling its cookbook, Taste of the TOUR. The cookbook features favorite recipes, stories and pictures of players' families. This project has provided an ongoing source of income to the Association, allowing it to continue its support of children across the country.

While its membership varies from year to year, the commitment of the TOUR Wives Association to making a difference in the lives of needy children stands strong. The Association's dedicated members, past and present, have reached deep into their resources to balance the demands of family, work and travel and have given generously of themselves to realize their ideals.

TOURNAMENT PLAYERS CLUBS

Tournament Players Club

The PGA TOUR's Tournament Players Club Network has maintained a reputation for operating high-quality clubs since its inception 22 years ago. The TPC Network continues to grow, with 30 facilities currently open or under construction, including several overseas.

TPCs encompass all forms of golf-related operations – resort facilities, corporate/private membership clubs and daily fee courses – and, as such, PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties, Inc. is able to match the type of facility with the demands of each market in which a club operates.

The Network represents the highest standard in the golf course industry, commensurate with the members of the organization it represents, the players of the PGA TOUR. Each Tournament Players Club embodies the trademark of excellence first established with the flagship TPC at Sawgrass, which opened its world-famous Stadium Course in the fall of 1980 in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

This commitment to overall excellence serves as the foundation for the Network's overall success.

The TPC Network was born through former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman's desire to provide TOUR players with quality golf courses that also would offer spectators enhanced viewing areas.

Beman also reasoned that development of quality facilities would alleviate the TOUR's dependency on the television dollar, while providing rent-free venues for tournaments. The savings in rent, in turn, would generate both increased purses and greater charitable contributions by the tournaments held at TPCs.

The TPC at Sawgrass was the first Tournament Players Club to hold a PGA TOUR event, becoming the permanent home of THE PLAYERS Championship in 1982. Today, a growing number of PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR events are held at TPC facilities each year. In 2001, 17 tournaments were conducted on TPC courses.

Many of the top golf course architects are connected with Tournament Players Club projects, including Pete Dye, Tom Fazio, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Tom Weiskopf, Greg Norman, Bob Von Hagge and D.A. Weibring. Palmer's most recent design involvements have been with the TPC of the Twin Cities (opened in 2000), the TPC at River's Bend in Cincinnati (opened last year) and the TPC of Boston (scheduled to open this year).

Moreover, in recognizing the importance of player input for tournament courses, TOUR members have served as design consultants, working closely with the lead architect.

The Tournament Players Clubs' overall commitment to junior golf became even more evident in 2001 when David Gossett – a product of the junior golf program at the TPC at Southwind – won the John Deere Classic, which is played at the TPC at Deere Run.

WORLD GOLF VILLAGE

Jack Peter
Vice President &
Chief Operating Officer
World Golf Hall of Fame

World Golf Village has been called the most ambitious project in the history of the sport. Today, this sprawling 6,300-acre resort and residential golf community, located in northeast Florida between Jacksonville and St. Augustine, has become the most comprehensive destination in the world showcasing golf's rich history and increasing popularity in an engaging interactive setting.

What sets World Golf Village apart is its remarkable range of first-ever features, including the World Golf Hall of Fame, the new PGA TOUR Golf Academy, the PGA TOUR STOP retail center, PGA TOUR Productions, Murray Bros. Caddyshack restaurant and the King & Bear, the first golf course design collaboration between legends Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer. Here, the game's past meets its future in a charming community that centers around, and fans out from, picturesque Kelly Lake, with attractions appealing not only to golfers but also to anyone with an appreciation for the game's time-honored traditions.

The Village's centerpiece is the 75,000-square-foot World Golf Hall of Fame, which pays tribute to the game's greatest individuals and players as well as providing the experience of golf's exciting past and present. Adjacent to the World Golf Hall of Fame is the 300-seat World Golf Village IMAX Theater, North Florida's only IMAX facility and the only IMAX Theater directly associated with a sports hall of fame. Outside the Hall of Fame, the Walk of Champions is a half-mile brick path encircling Kelly Lake, linking the components within the heart of World Golf Village.

World Golf Village features two championship golf courses, encompassing nearly 400 acres, with first-rate clubhouse facilities and services operated by Honours Golf. Designed to challenge players of all skill levels, both are well-manicured, par-72 courses offering five sets of tees. The courses have each played host to the annual Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, a SENIOR PGA TOUR event.

The King & Bear, named, respectively, for Palmer and Nicklaus, opened in 2000 with a ceremonial exhibition between its namesakes. This 7,279-yard course is the first-and-only course design collaboration between these two golf greats, whose careers have been enhanced by their friendship and competition and whose goal was to create an eminently playable and picturesque course with memorable par 5's amid lakes, loblolly pines and 200-year-old live oaks. Located in the heart of World Golf Village, the Slammer & Squire opened in 1998 and is named, respectively, for Hall of Famers Sam Snead and Gene Sarazen. Snead and Sarazen served as course consultants to course architect Bobby Weed. This 6,939-yard resort course, distinguished by memorable par-3s, preserves the woodlands, wetlands and natural beauty of the area.

The PGA TOUR Golf Academy at World Golf Village represents the quality instruction and golf experience that is commensurate with the TOUR's reputation for excellence. As the only teaching facility to bear the TOUR name, the Academy offers PGA TOUR members, World Golf Village guests and students alike access to its state-of-the-art facility and equipment. Moreover, the game's leading instructors, many of whom work with TOUR members, are able to utilize the facility.

Additional amenities include a variety of luxurious accommodations, fine dining and excellent shopping choices. The World Golf Village Renaissance Resort and adjacent St. Johns County Convention Center, designed and operated by John Q. Hammonds, feature 300 rooms and premier resort amenities. Sheraton's Vistana Resort offers upscale vacation villas with a wide selection of vacation options, from a brief stay to interval ownership. The Comfort Suites hotel offers 162 well-equipped suites and many recreational amenities.

Also on the Walk of Champions, the Shops at World Golf Village are anchored by the flagship PGA TOUR Stop, a 30,000-square-foot specialty retail showplace featuring more than 40 concept shops on two levels. Other retailers include Kennedy's Art Studio, featuring golf-themed artwork and prints and Among the Flowers, which offers a wide selection of handbags, luggage and accessories.

Even dining gets a dose of the game's spirit. New in June 2001, actor-comedian Bill Murray, together with his five brothers, opened the first Murray Bros. Caddyshack. The fun, family-style restaurant, named for Murray's 1980 comedy film, seats 300 and serves a casual, golf-themed menu including sand-wedges (sandwiches) and slices (side dishes).

World Golf Village offers a diverse range of housing options catering to young families and retirees. The community offers the convenience of shopping, healthcare, entertainment, championship golf, great schools, parks and a newly opened Swim & Tennis Center. Though still in its early stages – with a decade of planned development ahead – World Golf Village already has gone a long way to establish itself as a singular vacation destination and premier residence for golfers and fans of the game.

Shell Oil Company is the sole Founding Partner of World Golf Village.

WORLD GOLF HALL OF FAME

The World Golf Hall of Fame is the stately, 75,000-square-foot centerpiece of World Golf Village. It is a tribute to the history of golf and those who have contributed to the game, combining a multitude of historic artifacts with interactive exhibits and technology. The Hall of Fame marks the first time that the major international golf organizations and professional tours have united in support of a single project. Adjacent to the World Golf Hall of Fame is the 300-seat World Golf Village IMAX Theater, the only IMAX Theater directly associated with a sports hall of fame.

The Hall of Fame is laid out like a golf course into 18 separate areas. Along the way, visitors will find such unique artifacts as Jack Nicklaus' favorite fly-fishing rod, a Barbie doll from Nancy Lopez's childhood and an exhibit celebrating Alan Shepard's 1,500-yard drive on the moon. Guests will enjoy the brand new state-of-the-art swing analyzer that features more than 40 different famous courses from around the world.

The 71 players and contributors inducted into the former Hall of Fame in Pinehurst and/or the LPGA Hall of Fame were reinducted into the new facility. Annual induction ceremonies for newly elected Hall of Fame members are held each year, bringing together dignitaries from throughout the golf world.

The first elections for the PGA TOUR and International Ballots were conducted in 1996 and 1997. Johnny Miller was the only player elected in 1996, receiving the necessary 75 percent of votes on the PGA TOUR ballot. Seve Ballesteros of Spain and Nick Faldo of England became the first players elected through the International Ballot of 1997, their first year of eligibility.

Faldo was inducted in 1998. Ballesteros was inducted in 1999 with the late Lloyd Mangrum, who was admitted in 1998 via the PGA TOUR Ballot, and LPGA star Amy Alcott.

The 2000 ceremony welcomed eight new members: the first Veterans Category inductee, Jack Burke, Jr.; and the first Lifetime Achievement inductees: Deane Beman, Sir Michael Bonallack, Neil Coles and John Jacobs. Other inductees were LPGA players Beth Daniel, elected in 1999, and 2000 electee Juli Inkster. Judy Rankin was elected through the LPGA Veterans Category.

The ceremony in 2001 continued the tradition with six new inductees: Greg Norman and Payne Stewart elected through the PGA TOUR ballot; Donna Caponi elected through the LPGA Veterans Category; Judy Bell and Karsten Solheim selected for Lifetime Achievement; and Allan Robertson selected in the Veterans Category. Bernhard Langer was elected through the International Ballot and will be inducted during the ceremony in 2002.

Shell Hall is the area that honors the male and female Hall of Fame members from around the world. Guests can reference information on the life and career of every member, including statistics, photographs and video clips in a database developed by technology partner IBM.

The World Golf Hall of Fame experience is never the same, with its Special Exhibit Gallery featuring golf art, photography and traveling exhibits year-round, and its educational programs such as the Science of Golf, which illustrates the scientific principles that govern the game of golf with dynamic and interactive demonstrations.

Opened in 1998, the World Golf Hall of Fame was developed to be a dynamic educational tool imparting the values taught by golf – honesty, integrity, sportsmanship – through instruction, inspiration and just plain fun. The World Golf Foundation oversees the World Golf Hall of Fame and other nonprofit components of World Golf Village near St. Augustine, FL.

As sole founding partner of World Golf Village, Shell Oil Company provides financial support to the World Golf Foundation and supports its charitable initiatives aimed at introducing golf to young people, thereby promoting scholastic achievement, community service and those values intrinsic to the game of golf.

Tommy Armour (1976)

A native of Edinburgh, the "Silver Scot" won the 1927 U.S. Western Open, the 1930 PGA Championship and the 1931 British Open. One of golf's most respected instructors, Armour excelled despite injuries suffered in World War I that left him with one eye and with metal plates in his head and arm.

Jim Barnes (1989)

An assistant pro in England at age 15, Barnes came to America at 19, and between 1916 and 1925 won all the major tournaments of his day: the Western Open in 1914, 1917 and 1919; the first two PGA Championships in 1916 and 1919; the 1921 U.S. Open; and the 1925 British Open.

While known for his trademark knickers and tam o'shanter cap, his love for the game and passion with which he played made him one of the most respected players of his time.

Peter Thomson (1988)

One of the most intriguing players the game has known, the Australian-born Thomson captured five British Open titles between 1954 and 1965, including three consecutively from 1954 to 1956. With wide interests that ranged from politics to music, Thomson maintained successful careers as a writer and golf course architect outside of competition.

Lee Trevino (1981)

The ultimate self-made champion, Trevino made the transition from assistant professional at a Texas driving range to U.S. Open champion. He captured that title twice, in 1968 and 1971. With two British Opens, two PGA Championships and six Ryder Cup appearances to his credit, he later had a dominant career on the SENIOR PGA TOUR.

Tom Watson (1988)

Watson's major championship victories include five British Opens and two Masters Tournaments. His victory in the 1982 U.S. Open featured a dramatic chip-in on the 17th hole at Pebble Beach. Arguably the most consistent player for a decade, he was the PGA TOUR's leading money-winner and Player of the Year four consecutive times from 1977 to 1980.

THE FIRST TEE

The First Tee is a World Golf Foundation initiative that has as its mission to impact the lives of young people around the world by creating affordable and accessible golf facilities to primarily serve those who have not previously had exposure to the game and its positive values. It has the active support of The First Tee's Oversight Committee, which includes representatives of five organizations that serve on the World Golf Foundation Board: the PGA TOUR, PGA of America, LPGA, United States Golf Association and Augusta National Golf Club. Former President George Bush is Honorary Chairman of the initiative.

In addition to The First Tee's Oversight Committee, this initiative has the support and participation of a variety of key sectors:

- A wide range of public sector constituencies, including the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Bureau of Land Management, National Association of Parks and Recreation, National League of Cities, U.S. Conference of Mayors and the National Association of County Officials.
- A variety of groups and organizations, including the YMCA of the USA, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Tiger Woods Foundation and Golf Course Superintendents Association of America.

The true value of The First Tee is based on golf's unique ability to instill and nurture essential values, such as honesty, integrity, sportsmanship and a solid work ethic in young people who are introduced to the game. These values are enhanced through The First Tee's Life Skills program, which has been developed to provide an opportunity for The First Tee participants to learn valuable skills. These include goal-setting, decision-making and mentoring, all skills that can be used on and off the golf course.

The Phase I goal of The First Tee was to have 100 facilities in development by the end of the year 2000. On August 27, 2000, it was announced The First Tee had surpassed this initial goal with 129 facilities in some stage of development, spanning 38 states and with one in Canada.

Under the direction of Joe Louis Barrow, Jr., National Director of The First Tee and Senior Vice President of the World Golf Foundation, The First Tee has turned its focus to Phase II.

The objectives for Phase II include the primary goal of impacting the lives of 500,000 young people cumulatively through 2005. In addition, the plan calls for The First Tee to expand to 250 facilities while also establishing 500 affiliate relationships.

The First Tee already has made great strides toward reaching these objectives, having touched more than 64,000 children at facilities across the country during 2001, establishing affiliate relationships with 74 golf courses and opening 44 new First Tee facilities.

As The First Tee continues to grow and gain support, more and more young people will be introduced to the game of golf and its inherent values.

Arnold Palmer, flanked by two First Tee participants, cuts the ribbon opening The First Tee of Augusta (GA).

PGA TOUR IMAGES WEB SITE

One Stop Source for Official PGA TOUR Photos and Logos

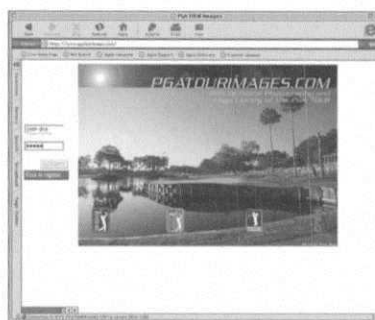

The PGA TOUR Creative & Photographic Services Department has established a digital asset Web site that presents a broad inventory of player and tournament photography – plus all TOURs, tournament and Tournament Players Club logos – that will help expedite delivery of requested images.

pgatourimages.com became active as a test site in March and currently is fully operational. It has been designed to provide a secure and convenient means for media and clients to review and either download or request a CD of player images, scenics and logos. The goal of this site is to achieve approval and fulfillment of download requests within 24 hours (CD requests within 48 hours), although orders approved before 3:00 p.m. ET may ship that day.

The site features more than 5,000 images and logos and includes portrait and action shots of each active member of the PGA TOUR, SENIOR PGA TOUR and BUY.COM TOUR. Future plans include archived photos of noted golfers from the past and a significant selection of golf stock or non-TOUR images that can be licensed for commercial use.

Once a request has been submitted, PGA TOUR Creative & Photographic Services will review and then verify by e-mail whether it has been accepted. If accepted, the images become available via download or CD.

For information, call 904-280-2434 or e-mail requests to photo@pgatourhq.com. Logos may be requested by calling 904-280-2436 or by e-mail (jrice@pgatourhq.com).

DEDICATION

This Media Guide is dedicated to the memory of John Morris, who died in June 2001 at age 60. John served as Vice President of Communications for the PGA TOUR from 1992-2001.
