2006 MEDIA GUIDE

Introduction

The Champions Tour has always enjoyed a very good relationship with the media. Your coverage is greatly appreciated by the Tour's players, sponsors, tournament directors and staff. We hope you enjoy the time you spend covering us and recognize that our players are more than willing to make time available so you can do your job. Likewise, the Champions Tour communications team stands ready to assist you in that process and to facilitate any other PR needs you may have.

From start to finish, the Champions Tour experienced one exciting finish after another in 2005. From Dana Quigley's overtime win against Tom Watson at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai in January to Watson's 20-foot winning birdie putt at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in October, there was a little something for everybody. When the final stats and votes were in Quigley had captured his first Player of the Year/Jack Nicklaus Trophy, Tom Watson won his second Charles Schwab Cup and Jay Haas was named Rookie of the Year.

For Quigley it was an extra-special year. A fan favorite, the New Englander saw his "Iron Man" streak end at 264 consecutive events played in July, but the focus quickly turned to his go-for-broke, winning style as he also went on to earn the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money winner.

Hale Irwin, the greatest player in Champions Tour history, continued to defy age by winning four times, two of them after turning 60 in June. Allen Doyle's 63 on the last day of the U.S. Senior Open equaled Johnny Miller's final-round heroics in the 1973 U.S. Open and will go down as one of the greatest rounds ever in a major championship. The Charles Schwab Cup played out in dramatic fashion once again on the final day of the season when Watson made 10 birdies at Sonoma to vault past Quigley.

For the third year in a row attendance on the Champions Tour grew. With fan-friendly activities like gallery in the fairway, honorary observers and live on-course television interviews, the Tour really does provide spectators the opportunity to get up close and personal with their favorite players.

With the PGA TOUR and its tournaments collectively reaching the $1-billion milestone in charitable giving last year, Jim Thorpe and Quigley were shining examples of players giving back. In May Thorpe donated his entire FedEx Kinko's Classic first prize of $247,500 to his church in Lake Mary, FL, while Quigley saw fit to give his $500,000 Charles Schwab Cup runner-up annuity to four groups.

As 2006 unfolds, the Tour will continue to experience growth and momentum. The names of PGA TOUR stars Fred Funk and Scott Hoch will be seen on leaderboards once they turn 50. Fans can also expect to see more of popular players Jay Haas, Peter Jacobsen, Loren Roberts and Tom Kite.

With many title sponsors having signed multi-year extensions recently, the foundation of the Champions Tour schedule is as strong as it's ever been, with positive new developments in Kansas City, Birmingham and the panhandle area of Florida, enhancing those events. The Tour will play for a minimum of $52.7 million and a record average purse of $1.82 million, with all 29 events broadcast on The Golf Channel or ABC, CBS or NBC. The Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions program will feature five events, plus its season-ending Championship near Atlanta.

Each and every year the Champions Tour has many storylines and personalities. We thank the media for sharing these stories with your readers and viewers and look forward to working with you in 2006.

Sincerely,

Timothy W. Finchem

We Are The PGA TOUR

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays more than 100 official money tournaments on three Tours – the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, southeast of Jacksonville.

We should never be referred to as the PGA as we are a different organization than the PGA (of America). We are the PGA TOUR. On second reference, you can call us the TOUR.

The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, FL.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the PGA TOUR but with their marquee events included on the PGA TOUR schedule as non-PGA TOUR cosponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, NJ, oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (GA) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland oversees the British Open and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf Tour, with 48 official money events from January through November. The membership includes 19 of the top 25 in the Official World Golf Ranking entering 2006, including Nos. 1-5 Tiger Woods, Vijay Singh, Phil Mickelson, Retief Goosen and Ernie Els.

Events: 48 (Official Money)

Prize Money: More than $255 million

Membership: 75 international players, 24 countries, led by Australia with 23.

TV: ABC, CBS, NBC, USA, ESPN, The Golf Channel, TNT

The Champions Tour celebrated its silver anniversary in 2005 and continues to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and above, with a fan-friendly environment that allows players to be the most approachable and accessible in all of sports.

Events: 29 (Official Money)

Prize Money: More than $52 million

Membership: 24 international players, 12 countries

Tournament Sites: 17 states, 3 countries

Overview

Formerly the Senior PGA Tour, the Champions Tour is a tax-exempt membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older. Since its inception in 1980 with just four sanctioned events and purses totaling $475,000, the Champions Tour now has 29 official Charles Schwab Cup events, offering a minimum of $52.7 million in official prize money in 2006 and its highest average per-tournament purse of $1.82 million. The Tour has an additional lineup of three Challenge / unofficial-money events that are played in February, November and December. The Champions Tour operates under the umbrella of the PGA TOUR, which includes the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. The Champions Tour's primary purpose as a component of the PGA TOUR is to provide significant competitive and earnings opportunities for players age 50 and older, to protect the integrity of the game and to help grow the reach of the game in the U.S. and around the world. In addition to providing competitive opportunities for its membership, Champions Tour events also generate significant sums of money for charity.

History

1980 – 2006. The Tour enters its 27th season in 2006.

Charity

Champions Tour events generate significant sums of money for charity. On Oct. 30, 2005, the three Tours of the PGA TOUR and their tournaments announced they had reached the $1-billion milestone in charitable giving, dating back to the first record donation in 1938.

2006 Schedule

There are 29 official Charles Schwab Cup events, plus a lineup of three Challenge/unofficial events that are played in February, November and December. The 2006 Champions Tour plays in 17 states in the U.S., plus Mexico and Scotland.

Major Championships (5)

Ford Senior Players Championship, JELD-WEN Tradition, Senior British Open, Senior PGA Championship and U.S. Senior Open.

Prize Money

$52.7 million (minimum) – Official Charles Schwab Cup (29 events)

$2.67 million (minimum) – Challenge / Unofficial (3 events)

Charles Schwab Cup

The Charles Schwab Cup, designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player, rewards both top finishes and week-in/week-out consistency in all official events. Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution, with $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point, with double points awarded at the five major championships and triple points at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The program offers $2.1 million in annuity payouts to its five leading performers. Tom Watson won the Cup in 2005 for the second time in three years.

Size of Field

In 2006, the field size for Champions Tour events will be 78 players, except at those tournaments that have specific eligibility criteria. See "Eligibility" below for details of a 78-player field.

Eligibility

In order to be eligible for an official Champions Tour event, a player must be at least 50 years of age prior to his first tournament obligation. The field size at the majority of Champions Tour events in 2006 will be 78 players based on the following eligibility requirements:

- 1) 30 players — Available from Prior-Year Money List, floor of 50
 - 2) 30 players — Available from All-Time Money List (not exempt in No. 1), floor of net 70
 - 3) 4 players — PGA TOUR Career Victory Category, ages 50 and 51 (not exempt in No. 1 or No. 2)
 - 4) 7 players — Available from National Qualifying Tournament (replaced by Reorder Category on August 8)
 - 5) 5 players — Invited by the Tournament
- Two spots restricted: players with one PGA TOUR or Champions Tour win and Veteran Member status
- Three spots unrestricted
- 2 players — Open Qualifying

Up to three players (to a field maximum of 81 players) may be added to the field based on:

- Tournament winners not already exempt
- Committed and eligible players from the All-Time Victory category
- Major medical extensions

The 2006 National Qualifying Tournament National Finals (six rounds / 108 holes), held annually in November, will be played at the Tournament Players Club at Eagle Trace in Coral Springs, FL. The top seven players will earn fully-exempt status and the next eight conditionally-exempt status. The Finals are preceded by one set of regional qualifiers.

Membership

Champions Tour members hail from around the globe. In 2006, 24 international players have full or partial Tour exemptions. Thirteen countries are represented, including Argentina, Australia, Canada, England, Ireland, Japan, New Zealand, Puerto Rico, Scotland, South Africa, Spain, the United States and Zimbabwe.

Hall of Fame Members

Fan Features

Initiated in 2003, the Champions Tour's Fan Features are designed to give the Tour a distinct identity and complement the high level of skill displayed by its members in tournament play. The Champions Tour seeks to be the most approachable, accessible and fan-friendly arena, not only in golf, but in all of sports. In three years, the program has had significant impact as evidenced by the positive feedback received weekly from tournament promoters, sponsors and fans, with players going out of their way to support the program. Fan Features include live television interviews during play, gallery in the fairway, honorary observers, caddie for a day, player Q&A sessions, behind-the-scenes tours, a game-improvement platform and more.

TV

The Golf Channel, available in more than 90 million homes, is the exclusive cable television home of the Champions Tour through 2008. It will provide three-day coverage of 54-hole events, plus four-day coverage of the JELD-WEN Tradition and Friday/Saturday coverage of the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. The Golf Channel will also re-air all telecasts the same day, often in prime time. ABC, CBS and NBC will televise six official events, thus all 29 official Champions Tour events, plus the three Challenge events, will be on television in the United States. The coverage summary of the 29* official Charles Schwab Cup tournaments is as follows:

NBC	3

* The Golf Channel and NBC provide Friday/Saturday and Sunday coverage, respectively, of the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

International TV

Outside the United States, the majority of Champions Tour events are seen in the United Kingdom and continental Europe, Latin America, Canada, Middle East, Africa, Japan, Australia and Pan Asia. The events air live, tape-delayed or in a highlights-package format. The amount of coverage for any given event varies from country to country and coverage area to coverage area.

Awards

The Champions Tour presents the following awards annually:

- Champions Tour Player of the Year/Jack Nicklaus Trophy
- Charles Schwab Cup
- Champions Tour Rookie of the Year
- Champions Tour Comeback Player of the Year
- Arnold Palmer Award (leading money winner)
- Byron Nelson Award (scoring leader)
- CTTA "Bruno" Award (contributions to the Champions Tour)
- Champions Tour Charity of the Year
- Champions Tour Volunteer of the Year

In addition, the Champions Tour recognizes its Player of the Month (February through October).

"Rookies"

The Champions Tour "rookie" class of 2006 includes exempt players Scott Simpson (Sept. 17, 2005), Scott Hoch (Nov. 24, 2005), David Edwards (April 18), Fred Funk (June 14) and Chip Beck (Sept. 12).

Additional future-year "rookie" prospects include:

2009 – Steve Jones, Tom Lehman, Bob Tway, David Frost, Fred Couples. 2010 – Corey Pavin, Paul Azinger, Mark Calcavecchia, Kenny Perry.

Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions

A "tournament within a tournament" for Champions Tour players age 60 and over who are entered in the full-field tournament. The winner is determined by scores posted during the first two rounds of competition. Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions compete for $175,000, with the winner receiving $30,000. In 2006, there are five events, plus the season-concluding $400,000 Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship for the year's 16 leading money winners, plus two sponsor invitees, with the winner taking home $85,000.

The Fan-Friendly Champions Tour

The Champions Tour's Fan Features are designed to give the Tour a distinct identity and complement the high level of skill that is displayed by its members in tournament play. The Champions Tour seeks to be the most approachable, accessible and fan-friendly arena, not only in golf, but in all of sports. In just two years, the program has had significant impact as evidenced by the positive feedback received weekly from tournament organizers, sponsors and fans. Players have gone out of their way to cooperate.

Fan Features include:

- Live Television Interviews During Play
- Gallery In The Fairway
- Honorary Observers
- Caddie For A Day
- Player Q&A Sessions
- Behind The Scenes Tours
- Game-Improvement Platform
- ...and much more

Charles Schwab Cup

Overview

The Charles Schwab Cup is a season-long, points-based competition launched in 2001 to determine the Champions Tour's leading player. The program rewards both consistency and top-10 finishes week-in and week-out at all official/Charles Schwab Cup events.

Prize Money

Payouts

1st	$1 million
2nd	$500,000
3rd	$300,000
4th	$200,000

Points Distribution

Points are awarded to the top-10 finishers and ties in all official tournaments and are based on the money distribution for each tournament, with every $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Points are doubled at the Champions Tour's five major championships and have triple value at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in October.

2005 Recap

Tom Watson arrived at Sonoma Golf Club for the 2005 season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship with little expectation of winning his second Charles Schwab Cup in three years. And despite solid play through the first three rounds, Watson still had no visions of Charles Schwab presenting him the Cup at the end of the day Sunday. The month's hottest player, Jay Haas, was firmly in command of the Championship with a six-shot lead. What Watson hadn't factored in was the sizzling 64 he would shoot and the impact triple points would have.

Through 27 of 28 official Charles Schwab Cup events, Dana Quigley held a 345-point lead over 2002 and 2004 Cup winner Hale Irwin, which was a lot closer than Quigley cared for him to be. Quigley knew all points had triple value in the final tournament, with the Charles Schwab Cup Championship winner collecting 1,320 points. Quigley's caddie had worn the yellow bib distinguishing him as the Cup leader the previous 17 weeks, and he wanted to close the deal. Watson entered the finale in fifth place, 686 points behind.

Through three rounds Quigley and Watson were tied for second in the Championship, with Irwin pretty much out of contention after three days of mediocre play. With Quigley near the lead, nothing much short of a victory was going to enable Watson to win the Cup. It was an unlikely scenario but not out of the question.

The drama mounted Sunday as Haas never got untracked, and Watson turned into a birdie machine. With darkness setting in and Haas and Quigley watching in the 18th fairway, the 1988 World Golf Hall of Fame inductee drained his 10th birdie of the day to take a one-shot lead over Haas, who knew what he had to do. An 8-iron approach landed hole high, 25 feet right of the flagstick. A collective groan from the crowd surrounding the green signaled Haas' birdie attempt to send the Championship to overtime had come up inches short. A stunned Watson had not only won the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, he had claimed the Charles Schwab Cup and its $1 million first prize once again. Quigley, who finished tied for fifth, knew the Cup outcome without being told.

"I knew I was fifth coming into today, but I didn't really think I had a chance with Dana in there even though the points were tripled today," said Watson. "I'm glad I was wrong. I haven't had a chance to think about what I may do with the money, but I remain committed to finding a cure for ALS."

Just two years ago in 2003, Watson played with a heavy heart throughout the season knowing that his longtime friend and caddie, Bruce Edwards, was dying from ALS. In an emotional Cup ceremony, Watson and Edwards accepted the Charles Schwab Cup from company founder, Charles Schwab, with Watson announcing he would donate the $1 million to ALS-related organizations. Edwards would succumb to the disease the following April on the eve of the Masters.

Inspired by both Watson and fellow New Englander Allen Doyle, Quigley had decided during the summer that any Cup money he won would be donated to charity. Doyle won the inaugural Charles Schwab Cup in 2001 and donated the entire $1 million to seven organizations. True to his word, Quigley and his wife, Angie, donated his $500,000 annuity as runner-up to four charities (see related story).

Irwin and Quigley were the only two players to hold down the top spot in the Cup standings over the first 27 tournaments. Quigley led the first two weeks, before Irwin assumed the lead in February and held it for eight straight tournaments. A playoff runner-up finish in the Senior PGA Championship in late May jumped Quigley back to No. 1. He retained the lead for the next 18 tournaments. The biggest lead Quigley enjoyed was 522 points after tournament No. 21, the JELD-WEN Tradition. Irwin's largest lead was 299 points, which he held for three weeks.

Watson's highest position in the standings prior to winning the Cup was second, which he held three times, the latest being after the U.S. Senior Open Championship in July.

Quigley Donates Charles Schwab Cup Winnings to Charity

All summer Dana Quigley had his sights set on winning the 2005 Charles Schwab Cup, but he and his wife, Angie, had an even loftier goal in mind. Financially set after eight highly successful years on the Champions Tour, the Quigleys had determined they would donate any money he won to charity.

Quigley topped the 2005 points list for 17 straight tournaments heading into Sonoma, and 19 in all. With triple points available for the only time all year, Tom Watson shot a final-round 64 to win the Championship and vault from fifth to first in the Cup standings. Quigley finished runner-up.

True to their word, the Quigleys donated the first year of the $500,000 annuity he earned to four charities:

- United Methodist Church, West Palm Beach, FL
- Butler Hospital, Providence, RI
- University of Rhode Island golf team
- World Harvest Ministries (charitable endeavor of Champions Tour chaplain, Tom Randle)

The University of Rhode Island graduate was inspired by friend and fellow New Englander, Allen Doyle, to donate his entire Charles Schwab Cup earnings to charity. In the first year of the program in 2001, Doyle won the Cup and earmarked the $1 million for seven charities.

"I still say Allen Doyle's donation is the greatest act of generosity in professional sports I've ever seen," Quigley said. "Here is a guy who didn't have a lot when he came out on the Champions Tour and didn't know how long he would be making the big money. So him giving that million dollars away was an unbelievable gesture. He really inspired me to do the same."

The Golf Channel

The Champions Tour and The Golf Channel enter the third year of an agreement whereby The Golf Channel is the Tour's exclusive cable television home through 2008. The Orlando, FL-based network, found in 70 million homes worldwide, will provide coverage of all rounds of 23 Champions Tour tournaments this year, including four-round coverage of the JELD-WEN Tradition, the final major championship of the year, plus early round coverage of the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

The Golf Channel employs its own production team for all of its telecasts. Tony Tortorici is the network's executive producer and vice president of production. Keith Hirshland will serve as executive producer and managing director for the telecasts. Hirshland or Jeff Gershengorn will produce the telecasts each week. The Golf Channel also airs a weekly series on Monday evenings called "The Champions Tour Learning Center." Every episode is dedicated to analysis, tournament highlights and instruction from Champions Tour players, with the goal being to improve the viewers' games.

THE GOLF CHANNEL
Golf's Home.™

Jim Kelly

A resident of Park City, UT, Kelly has more than 30 years experience as an award-winning sports broadcaster having worked for CBS, NBC Sports and ESPN (1985-2000), where he specialized in hosting golf events. A former University of Toledo hockey player, he has covered college football and basketball, tennis, hockey, horse racing and five America's Cup races. In 2005 he added host duties for XM Radio's PGA TOUR coverage.

Rich Lerner

An original member of The Golf Channel's on-air team, Lerner has handled a wide variety of roles, including host, anchor, reporter and essayist for "Golf Central" and other Golf Channel original specials and documentaries. A Temple University graduate, he once hosted a nationally-syndicated radio show and was honored in 1992 for his coverage of the U.S. Senior Open.

Mark Roling

A member of the DePauw University golf team where he was a teammate of former Vice President Dan Quayle, he played professionally before joining the staff of the Kapalua Resort in Maui, which led to the formation of Roling Productions, a management and promotion firm specializing in golf, tennis, windsurfing and college basketball. A longtime resident of Maui, HI, he started his broadcasting career at ESPN in 1985 before moving to NBC in 1988 and then ABC for eight years. He rejoined the NBC golf team in 1997.

Analysts

Brandel Chamblee

A member of the PGA TOUR since 1985 and the winner of the 1998 Greater Vancouver Open, Chamblee made the transition from full-time TOUR player to the broadcast booth in 2004, having gained previous experience with The Golf Channel and ABC Sports. An All-American at the University of Texas, he finished among the top 100 on the TOUR money list six straight years (1995-2000). Chamblee is also an in-studio regular.

Frank Nobile

A native of New Zealand whose playing career was cut short due to injuries, Nobile made his Golf Channel debut in 2004 as lead analyst on Champions Tour telecasts. He also continues to make numerous in-studio appearances. A truly international player during his career, Nobile added the 1997 Greater Greensboro Chrysler Classic to his five European Tour wins and was a member of The Presidents Cup International teams in 1994, '96 and '98.

On-Course Reporters

Donna Caponi

A 2001 World Golf Hall of Fame inductee, Caponi is The Golf Channel's lead analyst for its LPGA telecasts and an on-course reporter at Champions Tour events. Her past television credits include ESPN, ABC, CBS and TBS. A member of the LPGA for 25 years (1964-89), she captured 24 LPGA titles, including six majors. In 1988 she was named to Golf's "100 Heroes of the First Century of Golf."

Mark Lye

Entering his fourth season as a member of the Champions Tour, Lye will continue to provide expert on-course analysis when not competing in 2006. A three-time All-American at San Jose State, he also contributes to The Golf Channel's "Sprint Post Game" and special edition programming of major championships and other important events. In an 18-year PGA TOUR career, Lye earned nearly $2 million and won the 1983 Bank of Boston Classic. He has successfully battled cancer twice, once in 1991 and again in 2002.

John Mahaffey

Injuries forced the former University of Houston star to explore broadcast opportunities with The Golf Channel starting in 2004. He will continue to walk the fairways as a reporter in 2006, bringing his own Texas flair and an impressive list of competitive achievements. His 10 PGA TOUR wins include one major, the 1978 PGA Championship, and the 1986 PLAYERS Championship. Mahaffey captured one Champions Tour title, the 1999 Southwestern Bell Classic.

Interviews

David Marr III

The Bucknell University graduate made his Champions Tour debut in August of 2004 handling interviews on "The Couch." Previously, Marr manned the news/update desk from the network's Orlando headquarters, co-hosted the "Grey Goose 19th Hole" and contributed reports to "Golf Central." Prior to joining the network, Marr provided 1999 Ryder Cup commentary for Boston's NBC affiliate for which he received rave reviews. He also contributed commentary to several web sites from golf's major championships. He is the son of the late 1965 PGA Championship winner and noted TV analyst, Dave Marr.

Things to Look for in 2006

- Scott Hoch (November, 2005), Fred Funk (June) and Chip Beck (September) will be eligible to join the Champions Tour as fully-exempt players based on their PGA TOUR/Nationwide Tour career earnings. Hoch becomes eligible at the Turtle Bay Championship (January 23-29) but will not debut until later in the season due to hand surgery. Funk, the 2005 PLAYERS Championship winner, could make his first start on the circuit at the Commerce Bank Championship (June 19-25). Beck, a four-time winner on the PGA TOUR, becomes eligible at the Constellation Energy Classic (September 11-17). Other former PGA TOUR winners who will be first-time Champions Tour players in 2006 include Bill Britton, David Edwards, Kenny Knox, Jack Renner, Tony Sills and Tim Simpson.
- This year marks the Tour's 27th season. The Champions Tour will play its 800th official event at this year's FedEx Kinko's Classic in Austin (April 24-30). Austin resident Tom Kite was the winner of the Champions Tour's 700th event, the Napa Valley Championship, on October 13, 2002.
- The Champions Tour returns to Mexico for the Puerto Vallarta Golf Classic, March 26-April 2. The newest event on the schedule will be held at the Jack Nicklaus-designed Vista Vallarta Golf Club, the site for the 2002 World Golf Championships-EMC World Cup on the PGA TOUR.
- Several tournaments have new names and new venues this year. The Blue Angels Classic becomes the Boeing Championship at Sandestin and will move from The Moors in Milton, FL, to the Raven Golf Club at Sandestin Golf and Beach Resort. The Bruno's Memorial Classic becomes the Regions Charity Classic in Birmingham, AL, and moves from Greystone Golf & Country Club to the Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail at Ross Bridge. The Allianz Championship near Des Moines, IA, returns to Glen Oaks Country Club after a year at the Tournament Club of Iowa. The Senior British Open returns to the Ailsa course at Turnberry in Scotland where it was held in 2004. The Bayer Advantage Classic becomes the Greater Kansas City Golf Classic.
- Bruce Summerhays begins the season having made 124 consecutive appearances for which he's been eligible. Bob Gilder enters this year having played in 36 straight events overall, currently the longest run, dating back to the 2004 JELD-WEN Tradition. Dana Quigley's record streak of consecutive Champions Tour events ended at 278 straight that he was eligible for and 264 in a row when he elected not to play the 2005 Senior British Open.
- Tom Watson defends the Charles Schwab Cup for the second time, having earned the prestigious award and $1 million tax-deferred annuity by 247 points over Dana Quigley. Watson won his first Charles Schwab Cup in 2003. Hale Irwin is the only other two-time Charles Schwab Cup winner, claiming the award in 2002 and 2004.
- Dana Quigley looks to become the first player to win back-to-back Arnold Palmer Awards since Hale Irwin (1997-98). Quigley, the only player to go over the $2-million mark in single-season earnings last year, could also become the seventh player in Champions Tour history to lead the money list in consecutive years.
- Hale Irwin will be looking to continue his Champions Tour success. The 60-year-old winner of 44 Champions Tour titles has multiple victories in a record 11 consecutive years. No other player has done it more than six times. If Irwin wins twice this year, he would not only extend his streak of seasons winning multiple events but would also add to his record as the oldest player ever to earn at least two wins in a single season. Should he earn $1 million on the year, it would increase his record for consecutive seven-figure seasons to 11.
- In January, Irwin will also have a chance to win the Turtle Bay Championship for an unprecedented sixth straight time and seventh overall. Last year on the north shore of Hawaii, Irwin became the first player to win a men's professional tour event five straight times, easily holding off Quigley by five strokes. Irwin has won eight official events in Hawaii, dating back to the PGA TOUR's 1981 Hawaiian Open.
- Irwin and Morgan will also be seeking return trips to the Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the top-30 money-winners. Irwin has appeared in the season-ending event 11 straight years, while Morgan has been there nine consecutive seasons.
- The Champions Tour begins plays in the 2006 season having had 20 or more different winners in 14 of the last 15 years, dating back to 1991. The only time there were not 20 or more winners was in 2005. There have also been at least five first-time winners in every season since 1997.
- Will there be a repeat winner at the tournament in Birmingham? Since its inception in 1992, no former winner has repeated, the longest string of any event on the Champions Tour.
- Bob Eastwood (February), Vicente Fernandez (April), David Graham (May) and Hugh Baiocchi (August) all become eligible to join the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition (age 60 and older).
- In each of the last four years, there have been a double-digit number of winners over the age of 55. Last year, 12 of 28 tournaments were won by players over 55, and in 2004 13 of 30 the winners were over age 55. In 2003, 10 of 31 events were won by players 55 and older. In 2002, a dozen victories were by players 55 and older.
- The Golf Channel continues to be the primary carrier of Champions Tour events in 2006. Last year, The Golf Channel televised approximately 450 hours of Champions Tour golf and many more hours of ancillary programming.

Historical Highlights of the Champions Tour

January 16 — A landmark meeting laid the formal groundwork for the Champions Tour, which was known as the Senior PGA Tour from 1980 through the 2002 season. Attending that meeting were Sam Snead, Bob Goalby, Don January and the late Julius Boros, Gardner Dickinson and Dan Sikes. Sikes is named chairman of what became known as the Senior Advisory Council, and Snead was named honorary chairman. January 22 — The new Senior Tour is formally approved by the Tournament Policy Board of the PGA TOUR. The schedule calls for two sanctioned events for a total of $250,000 in prize money. June 22 — Don January wins the first official Champions Tour event, the Atlantic City International in Atlantic City, N.J., defeating Mike Souchak by two strokes. December 7 — Arnold Palmer becomes the first of only 10 players to win in his first Champions Tour start, defeating Paul Harney in a playoff for the PGA Seniors' Championship.

1981

June 7 — Don January becomes the first player to win back-to-back Champions Tour events when he triumphs at the Michelob-Egypt Temple Senior Classic in Tampa and then the Eureka Federal Savings Classic at Harding Park GC in San Francisco. July 12 — Arnold Palmer wins an 18-hole playoff over Billy Casper and Bob Stone at Oakland Hills CC for the U.S. Senior Open title. Palmer becomes the first player to win both a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown in his career. October 17 — Art Wall makes the first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour during the second round of the Suntree Seniors Classic in Melbourne, FL.

1982

The Champions Tour doubles in size from five to 11 tournaments, and prize money increases from $750,000 to $1.3 million. June 25 — Al Balding records the first double-eagle in Champions Tour history in the second round of the Peter Jackson Champions in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

1983

Prize money offered for players on the 50-and-over circuit exceeds $3 million with 18 tournaments on the schedule. Don January wins six tournaments and supplants fellow Texan Miller Barber as the leading money-winner with $237,571. October 15 — Gene Littler birdies his first seven holes and goes out in eight-under 28 in the third round of the Suntree Classic in Melbourne, FL. Littler's nine-hole score stands as an all-time Champions Tour record for 15 years, until it is broken by Jay Sigel's 27 during the 1998 Bell Atlantic Classic, and Seiji Ebihara's at the 2002 Senior PGA Championship.

1984

Growth continues at a rapid rate when a slate of 24 events and total prize money well over $5 million is announced. Don January becomes the first player to go over $300,000 in single-season earnings ($328,597) en route to his second consecutive money title.

1985

With 27 events worth more than $6 million in total purses, the Champions Tour is large enough to merit its establishment as a division of the PGA TOUR and its own logo. The Champions Tour also becomes a distinct and separate operating and financial entity, with net revenue going to fund a newly created Senior Player Retirement Plan. A cable television package with ESPN allows seven events to enjoy national cable exposure, with the production costs partially funded by Mazda Motors of America. March 17 — Australian Peter Thomson, a five-time British Open winner, wins the first of a record nine tournaments at The Vintage Invitational. October 13 — On his 63rd birthday, Mike Fetchick wins the Hilton Head Seniors International. Fetchick establishes the mark as the oldest Champions Tour winner and is victorious for the first time in over 28 years (1956 Mayfair Inn Open), the longest time between a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour title. November 23 — South African Gary Player triumphs in his Champions Tour debut at the Quadel Seniors Classic in Boca Raton, FL. He becomes the second player to claim the first tournament he enters.

1986

Bruce Crampton, Bob Charles, Dale Douglass and Chi Chi Rodriguez are among the new faces on the Champions Tour and signify a changing of the guard on the circuit. One new tournament is added to the schedule and prize money increases to $6.3 million. June 22 — Chi Chi Rodriguez triumphs at the Senior Tournament Players Championship in Cleveland, the first of his 22 Champions Tour career titles.

1987

The Vantage brand of R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company introduces its Vantage Cup program to the 35-event Champions Tour. Vantage involvement includes a $1 million, season-long team points competition; sponsorship of the first $1 million tournament on the Champions Tour, the Vantage Championship; sponsorship of a "Super Seniors" competition for players 60 and older; and an advanced electronic scoreboard system. The size of Champions Tour tournament fields expands to 72 players and, for the first time, the pre-am portion and tournament portion of events are separated.

1988

The Champions Tour grows to 37 events and purses eclipse the $10 million mark. Vantage sponsors the Champions Tour's first-ever statistical program. March 6 — Orville Moody closes with a 63, setting a 72-hole Champions Tour scoring record of 25-under 263 and tying Arnold Palmer's record for largest victory margin with his 11-stroke win at the Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Indian Wells, CA. September 18 — Arnold Palmer wins the last of his 10 Champions Tour career titles at the Crestar Classic near Richmond, VA, defeating Lee Elder, Larry Mowry and Jim Ferree by four strokes.

1989

Champions Tour tournament fields increase to 78 players and 21 tournaments air on national television. March 5 — Miller Barber wins the last of his 24 official Champions Tour career titles at The Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Palm Desert, CA. September 22 — Hurricane Hugo wipes out the PaineWebber Invitational in Charlotte, the only event to be canceled by weather on the Champions Tour. December 7 — Lee Trevino debuts on the Champions Tour at the GTE Kaanapali Classic and ties for seventh in the rain-shortened event.

1990

Cadillac Motor Car Division comes aboard as the umbrella sponsor for Champions Tour cable telecasts. Lee Trevino is the dominant performer. The "Merry Mex" easily snares both Rookie of the Year and Player of the Year honors after seven wins and official earnings of $1,190,518. He also earns his first Byron Nelson Trophy with a scoring average of 68.89, a record that will stand for eight years on the Champions Tour. February 4 — Lee Trevino makes up seven shots in the final nine holes to overtake Jim Dent for the Royal Caribbean Classic title on Key Biscayne, FL, his first victory on the Champions Tour. April 1 — Jack Nicklaus captures The Tradition crown in Scottsdale and becomes the fourth player to win in his Champions Tour debut. June 10 — Jack Nicklaus rips Dearborn (MI) CC apart to win the Mazda Senior TPC by six strokes over Lee Trevino. Nicklaus' 27-under 261 total sets a new standard for scoring in a 72-hole event on the Champions Tour. July 1 — Lee Trevino nips Jack Nicklaus at Ridgewood CC in New Jersey for the U.S. Senior Open title. Trevino's win makes him the fifth player to claim a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown. December 16 — Lee Trevino's runner-up performance at the season-ending New York Life Champions in Puerto Rico puts him over the seven-figure mark and makes him the first single-season millionaire in Champions Tour history.

1991

The list of Champions Tour millionaires grows when Mike Hill becomes the second senior to top $1 million in 1991. Hill wins five times and shares Player of the Year honors with George Archer. June 9 — Jim Albus shocks the golf world by becoming the first former club professional to win a senior major. Albus holds off three players at the TPC of Michigan to win the Mazda Senior Players Championship by three strokes. July 28 — Jack

Nicklaus becomes the first to complete the Senior Slam when he defeats Chi Chi Rodriguez in an 18-hole playoff for the U.S. Senior Open title at Oakland Hills CC. The victory is Nicklaus' third senior major of the season. Earlier in the campaign, the Golden Bear successfully defended his Tradition title and waltzed to an easy triumph at the PGA Seniors' Championship.

1992

Lee Trevino again was the leading money-winner on the Champions Tour despite a hand injury in mid-season. His $1,027,002 makes him the first player to surpass seven figures twice in a senior career, and five tournament wins propel the Merry Mex to a second Player of the Year honor. June 28 — Gibby Gilbert equals the Champions Tour's 54-hole scoring record of 193 in winning the Southwestern Bell Classic near Kansas City. His nine-stroke cushion equals the widest 54-hole victory margin in Champions Tour history. July 5 — Gibby Gilbert wins for the second consecutive week, defeating J.C. Snead in a playoff at the Kroger Senior Classic near Cincinnati. His 54-hole score of 198 makes him the first player to win consecutive weeks with sub-200 totals. September 20 — One week after his Champions Tour debut, Doral Ryder Open champion Raymond Floyd outguns Mike Hill for the GTE North Classic title in Indianapolis. The victory makes Floyd the only player to win both a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event in the same season. September 27 — Isao Aoki, the 36-hole leader at the Nationwide Championship near Atlanta, is declared the winner when the final round is rained out. He becomes the first Japanese player to win on the Champions Tour.

1993

Dave Stockton and Bob Charles become the first two players to earn more than $1 million in official money in the same season.

1994

Official prize money approaches the $30 million mark. Lee Trevino gets there first, earning $1 million for an unprecedented third time in his career. Dave Stockton tops the earnings list with $1,402,519 and becomes the first to win more than $1 million in back-to-back seasons. Jim Albus becomes the first former club professional to join the millionaire's club.

1995

Jim Colbert earns his first Arnold Palmer Award with single-season earnings of $1,444,386 and Champions Tour Player of the Year honors. June 9 — Hale Irwin debuts on the Champions Tour at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland and finishes in a tie for fourth. July 23 — Jimmy Powell wins the First of America Classic in Grand Rapids only one day after claiming the Super Seniors portion of the tournament. He is the first player to win both in the same week. July 30 — Hale Irwin claims his first Champions Tour event at the Ameritech Senior Open. He also wins the Vantage Championship in Winston-Salem later in the season and is voted the circuit's Rookie of the Year.

1996

Jim Colbert repeats the single-season earnings record to $1,627,890 to become the first winner of consecutive Player of the Year awards. March 24 — Lee Trevino and Mike Hill team to win an unprecedented fourth Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title in La Quinta, CA. April 7 — Jack Nicklaus successfully defends his Tradition title and becomes the first Champions Tour player to claim the same tournament four times. The three-stroke victory over Hale Irwin is also his 100th professional title.

1997

The year belongs almost exclusively to Hale Irwin. He wins nine times and becomes the first player on any TOUR to surpass $2 million in a season, finishing the year with $2,343,364. April 20 — Hale Irwin's 12-stroke romp at the PGA Seniors' Championship is the widest margin in Champions Tour history for 72 holes. September 27 — Isao Aoki sets a Champions Tour record for lowest 18-hole score with a 10-under 60 in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic. October 19 — Hale Irwin claims his ninth title of the year at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic. The three-stroke triumph ties Peter Thomson's record (1985) for most victories in a season.

1998

Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan continue to dominate the Champions Tour. With 13 victories between them, both players eclipse the $2 million level in single-season earnings. Despite winning two less events than 1997, Irwin turns in an incredible year, finishing out of the top five only twice in 22 official tournaments. He wins his second consecutive Jack Nicklaus Award as the Champions Tour's Player of the Year and earns a third consecutive Byron Nelson Award with a record scoring average of 68.59. February 1 — David Graham wins the Royal Caribbean Classic at Key Biscayne, FL, in a 10-hole sudden-death playoff over Dave Stockton. The longest overtime session in Champions Tour history. April 19 — Hale Irwin claims his third straight PGA Seniors' Championship, a first since Eddie Williams' trifecta from 1942-1946. May 17 — Larry Ziegler claims the Saint Luke's Classic near Kansas City, his first Champions Tour win since 1991. The victory comes six years, 10 months and three days after his triumph at the Newport Cup, the longest span between Champions Tour wins. May 23 — In the second round of the Bell Atlantic Classic, Jay Sigel sets a Champions Tour record for lowest nine-hole score. His nine-under 27 on the front nine at Hartefeld National includes an eagle and seven birdies, the Champions Tour's all-time best eagle-birdie streak.

The Champions Tour completes its 20th season with a number of significant accomplishments led by rookie Bruce Fleisher, who claims seven tournament victories and earns his first money title with a rookie record $2,515,705. He wins the Jack Nicklaus Award as the Champions Tour's Player of the Year and earns the Byron Nelson Award for the lowest scoring average (69.19). Fleisher also claims the Rookie of the Year Award. Members of the 1998 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament class, led by Fleisher and Allen Doyle (four wins), win 15 times. February 7 — Bruce Fleisher becomes the eighth player in Champions Tour history to win his debut when he prevails by two strokes over Isao Aoki at the Royal Caribbean Classic. February 14 — Bruce Fleisher becomes the first player to win his first two starts, besting Larry Nelson by three strokes at the American Express Invitational. February 28 — Allen Doyle's win at the ACE Group Classic makes him the first player to win an event on both the Champions Tour and the Nationwide Tour. March 28 — Bob Duval makes history with his win at the Emerald Coast Classic. Later in the day, his son David wins THE PLAYERS Championship, and they become the first father-son duo in PGA TOUR history to claim victories on the same weekend. April 4 — Snow and inclement weather shorten The Tradition to 36 holes, and Graham Marsh emerges as the winner by three strokes over Larry Nelson. It is the first event to have rounds canceled by snow. September 19 — One week after his Champions Tour debut, Tom Watson fashions a final round 10-under-par 62 for a five-stroke win over Bruce Summerhays at the Bank One Championship. Watson becomes the third youngest player in Champions Tour history to win, at 50 years, 15 days.

The Champions Tour welcomes the addition of Tom Kite, Lanny Wadkins, Doug Tewell and Tom Watson as full-time players. Larry Nelson finishes the year as the leading money winner with $2,708,005 and leads all players with six victories. Nelson is chosen as the winner of the Jack Nicklaus Award as the Player of the Year, while Tewell is the Rookie of the Year and Raymond Floyd is named the Comeback Player of the Year. February 13 — Lanny Wadkins becomes the ninth player in Champions Tour history to win in his debut when he prevails in a playoff against Jose Maria Canizares, Tom Watson and Walter Hall at the ACE Group Classic. July 21 — Arnold Palmer makes his 1000th PGA TOUR/Champions Tour start at The Instinet Classic in Princeton, NJ. October 22 — Hale Irwin ties Lee Trevino for career wins on the Champions Tour when he wins his 29th title at the EMC Kaanapali Classic. October 27-29 — Larry Nelson's record streak of consecutive rounds of par-or-better ends at 32 after an opening-round 1-over-par 72 at the SBC Senior Classic. One day later, Gil Morgan's record string of sub-par rounds ends at 31 before a second-round 2-over-par 73 at the SBA Senior Classic.

Larry Nelson picks up right where he left off with five wins, but Allen Doyle is the mark of consistency with top-10s in 25 of his 34 starts. Doyle wins three times, including his second senior major title at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, and battles Bruce Fleisher down the stretch to claim the inaugural Charles Schwab Cup and the Arnold Palmer Award (money title) with $2,553,582. Ten players win more than once, the most to claim multiple titles since 1996. February 17 — Arnold Palmer becomes only the third player in PGA TOUR history to shoot his age when he cards a 1-under 71 in the fourth round of the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic. Palmer later matches his age in the opening round of the Senior PGA Championship. March 18 — Hale Irwin rolls to a five-stroke victory at the Siebel Classic in Silicon Valley. In his 135th start, Irwin becomes the first player to reach the 30-win plateau on the Champions Tour's all-time victory list. April 15 — Doug Tewell's 10-under 62 in the final round of The Countrywide Tradition is the lowest round shot in a senior major championship. Tewell's 72-hole total of 23-under 265 at Desert Mountain is the lowest four-round score on the Champions Tour since 1990 (Jack Nicklaus/27-under 261/FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship.) May 20 — Ed Dougherty's 22-under 194 total at the TD Waterhouse Championship ties the Champions Tour's all-time scoring record in relation to par (Raymond Floyd/1993 Gulfstream Aerospace Invitational). August 5 — Bobby Wadkins becomes just the 10th player to win in his debut on the Champions Tour. Wadkins' victory at the Lightpath Long Island Classic comes in his 778th TOUR start, and at 50 years and 10 days, he becomes the youngest winner ever. September 13 — The Vantage Championship is canceled due to the tragedies of September 11. It marks the first time since the 1989 Home Depot Invitational that an entire Champions Tour event is canceled. September 24 — Tom Kite matches Dougherty's accomplishment of tying the Champions Tour record for all-time scoring record in relation to par when he wins the Gold Rush Classic at 22-under-par 194.

At age 57, Hale Irwin re-establishes himself as the Champions Tour's top player, winning four times and finishing among the top three 14 times in 27 official starts. Irwin becomes the oldest leading money-winner in Champions Tour history and is the first player to top the $3 million mark in single-season earnings. Bob Gilder also wins four times, all within a span of seven events during the summer. March 10 — Hale Irwin claims his second Toshiba Senior Classic and takes over the lead in the 2002 Charles Schwab Cup race, which he maintains for the remaining 28 events of the season. May 3 — At the Bruno's Memorial Classic, Dana Quigley plays in his 178th straight event for which he's been eligible, breaking Mike McCullough's record of 177 eligible events in a row. Quigley ends the year with his streak intact (201 events), winning the second-to-last event, the SBC Championship, which is his 200th in the streak. June 9 — Japan's Seiji Ebiyara ties the all-time nine-hole record by making seven straight birdies en route to an 8-under 27 on the front nine at Firestone in the final round of the Senior PGA Championship. June 23 — J.C. Snead becomes the third oldest winner in Champions Tour history when he claims the Greater Baltimore Classic at 61 years, 8 months and 9 days. Snead's victory in Maryland is his first since 1995 and establishes a Champions Tour record for longest time between wins (6 years, 11 months, 7 days). Snead also becomes just the fourth player to claim a Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions event and the overall tournament. June 30 — Don Pooley defeats Tom Watson in a thrilling playoff at Caves Valley and becomes the first qualifier ever to win the U.S. Senior Open and the ninth in Champions Tour history. July 6 — 61-year-old Walter Morgan becomes the youngest player ever to better his age by shooting 11-under 60 in the second round of the AT&T Canada Senior Open at Essex Golf & Country Club in Windsor, Ontario. Morgan follows up his 60 with a 65 and makes 21 birdies over his last 36 holes in Canada. September 13 — Charles Coody appears in his 1,000th TOUR event (585-PGA TOUR, 415-Champions Tour) at the RJR Championship. September 15 — Bruce Fleisher breaks Bob Charles' (1989) and Charles Coody's (1991) Champions Tour all-time scoring record of 193 by shooting 19-under 191 to win the RJR Championship. One day earlier, Fleisher eclipsed the all-time 36-hole record of 14-under 126 (Jim Colbert/1994 GTE West Classic, Hale Irwin/1997 Vantage Championship) with a two-day total of 16-under 124 at Tanglewood. Fleisher opened the tournament with an 11-under 60 and tied the all-time 18-hole scoring record.

October 6 — Hale Irwin clinches the Charles Schwab Cup and the money title by virtue of his playoff victory over Gary McCord at the Turtle Bay Championship. The win was Irwin's fourth of the year and his fourth in Hawaii during the fall season. Irwin becomes the first player since Jack Nicklaus (1990, 1991, 1995, 1996 Tradition) to win the same event four times. He finishes the year 799 points ahead of runner-up Bob Gilder in the Charles Schwab Cup. October 27 — Hale Irwin's solo fourth-place finish at the SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia earns him a check for $176,000 and moves him over the $3 million level in single-season earnings, a first in Champions Tour history. October 30 — Commissioner Tim Finchem announces a rebranding of the PGA TOUR; "Three Distinct Tours, One Brand Family", with the Senior Tour becoming the Champions Tour and Buy.com Tour becoming the Nationwide Tour.

February 1 — Bruce Lietzke becomes just the fourth player in history, and the first since Rocky Thompson in 1992 (Kaanapali Classic), to have three eagles in one round when he does so in the second round of the MasterCard Championship. May 4 — When Tom Jenkins claims the Bruno's Memorial Classic, it sets a new Champions Tour record. Jenkins' victory gives the Champions Tour a different winner in each of the first 10 events, breaking the old record of starting a season with nine different winners (1995). May 11 — Hale Irwin defeats Tom Watson in a two-hole playoff to win the inaugural Kinko's Classic of Austin. Irwin becomes just the second player (Miller Barber is the other) to win at least one event for nine consecutive years. July 13 — Craig Stadler triumphs at the Ford Senior Players Championship in just his fourth start on the Champions Tour. He becomes the 14th player in history to make his first win a major championship. At 50 years, 1 month, 11 days, he also becomes the youngest player to win a major title on the circuit. July 20 — One week after winning near Detroit, Stadler becomes the first player from the Champions Tour to win a PGA TOUR event when he is victorious at the B.C. Open in Endicott, NY. The victory makes him just the second player in history to post wins on the Champions Tour and the PGA TOUR in the same season. Raymond Floyd was the first to do so in 1993. July 27 — Tom Watson wins a playoff with Carl Mason at the Senior British Open at Turnberry in Scotland, the first time the event is recognized as an official tournament on the Champions Tour. Watson, a British Open winner at Turnberry in 1977, becomes the 11th player to win a PGA TOUR and a Champions Tour event at the same venue. August 16 — Jim Thorpe ties a Champions Tour mark when he shoots a 10-under-par 60 in the second round of the Long Island Classic. One day later, he defeats Bob Gilder by one stroke for the title. August 31 — Tom Watson earns his second major title of the year by defeating Gil Morgan, Tom Kite and Jim Ahern by one stroke at the JELD-WEN Tradition near Portland, OR. Watson becomes the first player to win consecutive major titles since Gil Morgan in 1998. September 21 — D.A. Weibring's one-stroke win over Tom Kite and Bobby Wadkins makes him the 25th different winner on the Champions Tour, tying the all-time mark set in 1995. October 11 — Bob Murphy's hole-in-one at the Turtle Bay Championship is the 19th of the season, breaking the Champions Tour record of 18 set in 1992. The total number of aces eventually reaches 23 at the close of the year. October 26 — Tom Watson's second-place finish to Jim Thorpe at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship clinches the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner. Watson also wins the season-long Charles Schwab Cup and donates the $1 million annuity to ALS research.

February 22 — Mark McNulty becomes the 11th player to win his Champions Tour debut when he is victorious at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. March 14 — Gil Morgan becomes the 12th player in Champions Tour history to win the same event three times when he wins the SBC Classic. March 19 — Tom Purtzer ties the Champions Tour all-time scoring record by shooting an opening-round 60. April 25 — When he won the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, Hale Irwin wins at least one event for the 10th straight year, breaking his tie with Miller Barber for most consecutive years with at least one victory. July 11 — Mark James becomes the first European-born player to win a Champions Tour major championship after his victory at the Ford Senior Players Championship. June 27 — Craig Stadler claims the Bank of America Championship and a short time later, his son Kevin wins the Lake Erie Charity Classic. They become the second father-son duo to win PGA TOUR events the same day. Bob Duval and David Duval were the first in 1999. July 24 — Graham Marsh becomes the first Champions Tour player to make two holes-in-one on the same hole in the same tournament when he aces No. 11 in the third round at the Royal Portrush Golf Club in the Senior British Open. Marsh also does so in the opening round. July 25 — Pete Oakley becomes the first open qualifier since Don Pooley at the 2001 U.S. Senior Open to win a Champions Tour event and the 10th overall open qualifier to win in the history of the circuit when he wins Senior British Open. July 29 — Three players—John Aubrey, Mike McCullough and Pat Tallent—all make a hole-in-one in the same round, the most in one round on the Champions Tour. September 27 — The Champions Tour commemorates its 25th season with a one-day pro-am at the site of its inaugural event at the Atlantic City Country Club. October 24 — Hale Irwin wins his second Charles Schwab Cup and the $1-million annuity in the closest race in the four-year history of the competition. Irwin defeats Craig Stadler by 39 points.

January 30 — Hale Irwin becomes the first player in professional golf to win the same event five straight years and the same tournament six times overall when he cruises to a five-stroke victory over Dana Quigley at the Turtle Bay Championship in Hawaii. February 28 — Hale Irwin wins the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa and extends to 11, his record streak of years with multiple victories. The event is pushed into a Monday finish by heavy rain on the weekend and Irwin overtakes Morris Hatafsky and defending champion Mark McNulty to become the oldest winner of multiple events in the same season. May 14 — Craig Stadler ties the Champions Tour all-time scoring record by shooting a 10-under 60 at The Moors during the second round of the Blue Angels Classic. May 15 — Champions Tour players set an all-time record for lowest scoring average at an event, 68.175, on the par-70 Moors layout at the Blue Angels Classic. May 20 — Dana Quigley's makes eight birdies in a row en route to an opening-round 65 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. He equals the all-time best birdie streak in Champions Tour history and becomes the first player since Jim Colbert (2000 TD Waterhouse Championship) to record eight straight birdies in a round. May 26 — J.C. Snead makes his 1,000th combined-career start, becoming just the seventh player to have competed in at least 1,000 official Tour events. May 29 — Mike Reid posts four consecutive rounds of 70 and wins his first major title at the Senior PGA Championship in a playoff with Dana Quigley and Jerry Pate. Reid becomes the first player since Miller Barber at the 1982 Suntree Classic (66-66-66-66) to win after shooting the same score each day over 72 holes. June 3 — Dale Douglass makes his 1,000th combined-career start, becoming just the eighth player to have competed in at least 1,000 official Tour events. July 3 — Ron Streck holds off Jim Ahern to win the Commerce Bank Championship on Long Island. Streck, a two-time champion on the PGA TOUR and winner of the 1993 Yuma Open on the Nationwide Tour, becomes the first player to claim a title on all three Tours. July 10 — Peter Jacobsen, the 2004 U.S. Senior Open champion, collects his second win on the Champions Tour at the Ford Senior Players Championship, outlasting Hale Irwin by one stroke. Jacobsen joins Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus as the third player whose first two victories came in senior majors. July 19 — Citing a sore right hip and travel complications, Dana Quigley withdraws from the Senior British Open, ending his all-time record streaks of consecutive events played at 264 straight and consecutive events played that he was eligible for at 278 in a row. July 24 — World Golf Hall of Famer Greg Norman debuts on the Champions Tour at the Senior British Open and finishes third at Royal Aberdeen in Scotland. July 31 — Allen Doyle shoots a final-round 63 and comes from nine strokes back to win the U.S. Senior Open. Doyle's comeback was the largest in a senior major championship. October 2 — Two weeks after claiming the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, Hale Irwin surges to victory at the SAS Championship and becomes the first player to claim multiple titles in a season after turning 60. The win near Raleigh is Irwin's fourth of the year and his 44th career title on the Champions Tour. October 23 — Two weeks after ending a long victory drought at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, Jay Haas outduels Dana Quigley for the SBC Championship title in San Antonio. A two-time winner on the PGA TOUR at Oak Hills Country Club, Haas becomes the 12th different player (13th time) to claim PGA TOUR/Champions Tour titles at the same venue. October 30 — Tom Watson uses a final-round 8-under 64 to come from six strokes back and overtake Jay Haas for the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Watson's victory earns him 1,320 Charles Schwab Cup points and allows him to jump over four players, including pre-tourney leader Dana Quigley, and earn his second Charles Schwab Cup in three years. December 6 — Dana Quigley is voted the Champions Tour's Player of the Year. The 58 year-old Quigley becomes the oldest ever to earn the Jack Nicklaus Trophy, signifying the circuit's top player.

About the Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem
Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem, 58, is the third Commissioner of the PGA TOUR. Finchem succeeded Deane R. Beman as Commissioner on June 1, 1994. Beman had served for 20 years, replacing the late Joseph C. Dey, who had been the TOUR's Commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Finchem, Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer of the TOUR under Beman since 1989, joined the TOUR staff as Vice President of Business Affairs in 1987.

As Commissioner, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players domestically and internationally. He also has taken leadership roles in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation, Inc.

His personal dedication to the success of the World Golf Foundation's First Tee initiative has helped that program achieve its initial objectives in developing facilities that will have an impact on the game for years to come.

"Our primary purpose as a membership organization is to create outstanding playing and earnings opportunities for our players," Finchem says, "and we are proud of what our tournaments do for charity (more than $1 billion raised") and the active role we have been able to take as an organization in growing the game for future generations."

Born in Ottawa, IL, on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, VA. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973.

After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Marketing and Strategies Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001 and the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002. He was awarded the Dick Shaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports in 2005.

Married to the former Holly Bachand, Finchem is a father of four. The Finchems live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Hale Irwin had four victories in 2005, the sixth time in his career he has won at least four times in a season.

2006 Champions Tour Eligibility Requirements

In order to be eligible for an official Champions Tour event, a player must be at least 50 years of age prior to his first tournament obligation. The field size at the majority of Champions Tour events in 2006 will be 78 players and eligibility requirements modified as follows for standard 78-player fields:

Standard Field Size: 78 Players

1. 30 players — Available from Prior Year Money, floor of 50
2. 30 players — Available from All-Time Money (not exempt in No. 1), floor of net 70
3. 4 players — PGA TOUR Career Victory Category (not exempt in No. 1 or No. 2)
4. 7 players — Available from National Qualifying Tournament (replaced by Reorder Category on August 8)*
5. 5 players — Invited by the tournament
 - Two spots restricted: players with one PGA TOUR or Champions Tour win and Veteran Member status
 - Three spots unrestricted
6. 2 players — Open Qualifying

The following players will be added to the field to a maximum of 81:

- Tournament winners not already exempt
- Committed and eligible players from the All-Time Victory Category

Note: Should any combination of the above exceed 81 players, restricted sponsor exemptions followed by unrestricted sponsor exemptions will be reduced in alternating order.

- Special Medical is positioned as No. 8 Qualifying Tournament.
- Qualifying Tournament Nos. 8 through 15 access after categories 1 and 2 "floor out."
- Past Champions access when National Qualifying Tournament "floors out."

Reorder Category

All Champions Tour members 75th or better on the current-year Champions Tour Official Money List, along with the top-15 finishers of the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament and members remaining eligible via the Special Medical Extension Category, shall be ranked based upon their position on said list (as of Aug. 8, 2006). This Reorder Category will replace the National Qualifying Tournament Category during the last eight full-field events of the season. The top seven available and not otherwise exempt players, in order of their position on said list, shall be provided access to open, full-field tournaments.

Note: The JELD-WEN Tradition uses the current Official Money List (not the Reorder) through the prior week's tournament.

Alternates

Players who withdraw after the commitment deadline will be replaced by the first available player on the prior-year and all-time money lists, in alternating order. If all available players from both lists are in the field ("floor out"), additional players from the standard priority order fill the field (i.e., Special Medical, Nos. 8 through net 15 from Q-School, and Past Champions Category).

GEORGIA-PACIFIC GRAND CHAMPIONS ELIGIBILITY

The Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition consists of players within the starting field who are 60 years of age and older. The competition takes place over the first 36 holes of a 54-hole event or the first 54 holes of a 72-hole tournament. Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions' earnings are unofficial, but the participants earn official money for their position of finish in the overall tournament. The Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship is the culminating event of the competition.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: 2—Commerce Bank Championship; T6—Bayer Advantage Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Among the top-10 twice in 24 starts last year, with both efforts coming during a one-month span in the summer...Made a run at Ron Streck on the back nine of the Commerce Bank Championship but eventually finished as the runner-up after carding a final-round 65 at Eisenhower Park, his best round of the 2005 season. Closed to within a stroke late Sunday, but bogeyed the last hole after an errant tee shot...Three weeks earlier in mid-June, T6 at the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic near Kansas City...Was three strokes off the pace through 36 holes of the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn but faded into a T14 after a final-round 72.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Used a final-round 65, his low round of the year, to vault into a T3 at the Blue Angels Classic in mid-April...T4 at the MasterCard Classic near Mexico City a month earlier. Was among the leaders through nine holes in the final round before a disastrous double bogey on the 12th hole derailed his chances. 2003: Found his winning ways for the first time since 1999 when he was a four-stroke victor over Jose Maria Canizares at the Music City Championship at Gaylord Opryland. Started with rounds of 64-63—127, the best opening 36-hole total for the season on the Champions Tour and held a six-stroke margin heading into Sunday's final round. One of three wire-to-wire winners in 2003...The 54-hole leader at the JELD-WEN Tradition and eventually T2 at The Reserve, one stroke back of Tom Watson, after a final-round 72. Performance near Portland was his best-ever in a Champions Tour major. 2002: Posted four top-10 finishes, highlighted by a fifth-place performance at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. 2001: Was among the top-31 players on the money list for the first time...Neck problems during the middle of the summer forced him to miss almost a month of action. Returned at the U.S. Senior Open and recorded five top-10 finishes during a six-week stretch. Highlight of this run was a second-place effort at the Farmers Charity Classic near Grand Rapids, MI, one stroke short of Larry Nelson. 2000: Finished second to Gil Morgan by a stroke at the rain-shortened Comfort Classic in Indianapolis. Moved into contention at Brickyard Crossing on Saturday with a sizzling 8-under 64, but never had the opportunity to challenge Morgan as bad weather washed out the final round. 1999: Captured his first Champions Tour event in just his seventh start, defeating Hale Irwin in a playoff at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship. Made par on the second extra hole for the win after sinking a clutch 30-foot birdie putt on the 18th green in regulation to force the overtime session. Canadian triumph at Richelieu Valley near Montreal earned him an immediate exemption for a calendar year. Open qualified to get into the event and thus became just the seventh Monday qualifier in Champions Tour history at the time to go on and win and the first since Dana Quigley in 1997...Selected by the PGA of America as the Senior Club Professional Player of the Year that season.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Was a member of the PGA TOUR between 1973 and 1975...Played a total of 60 PGA TOUR events...Played in the 1971 U.S. Amateur and finished in the top-20 at Wilmington CC...Also played in the 1972 U.S. Open at Pebble Beach, but missed the cut...Best career finish on the PGA TOUR was a T9 at the 1973 Quad Cities Open...Biggest check of his PGA TOUR career was $2,400 for a T13 at the 1975 Phoenix Open...Finished second in the 1976 Queensland Open on the Australian Tour and also placed fifth in the 1976 Venezuela Open...Has had two career holes-in-one during competitive rounds.

PERSONAL:

Owns and operates Executive Golf Ltd., a company specializing in producing golf tournaments and clinics for a growing number of Fortune 500 corporations...Played collegiately at Oklahoma State with fellow Champions Tour players Mark Hayes and Doug Tewell...Was the head teaching professional from 1980 to 1985 at Des Moines (IA) G&CC, site of the 1999 U.S. Senior Open...Member of the South Dakota Sports Hall of Fame.

67th - 58 points

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $960,571

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T14—SBC Classic; T18—Ford Senior Players Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Made just 12 appearances last year, the fewest in a full season on the Champions Tour...Managed to finish among the top 20 twice, but did not register a top-10 performance for the first time since joining the circuit in 1992...Was the first-round leader at the SBC Classic, thanks to a 3-under 69, the only player in the field to break 70 on Friday. Eventually T14 at Valencia CC...Was just two strokes off the first-round lead at the Ford Senior Players Championship after opening with a 66 at the TPC of Michigan. Slipped into a T18 after posting a pair of 73s on the weekend...Went over the $10-million mark in all-time earnings with his $16,875 check for finishing T32 at the JELD-WEN Tradition...Made three appearances in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition and placed 20th on the over-60 money list, with $22,850.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Finished out of the top 50 on the money list for the first time in his Champions Tour career...Highlight of his year was being elected into the World Golf Hall of Fame from the International ballot early in the year and inducted along with Tom Kite, Charlie Sifford and Marlene Streit in ceremonies in November...Lone top-10 finish of the season was a T6 at the FedEx Kinko's Classic near Austin. Trailing by just one stroke through 36 holes, but even-par 72 on Sunday left him three strokes back...Played in just six Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions events and came close to winning twice. Lost a playoff to J.C. Snead in the Georgia-Pacific competition at The ACE Group Classic and fell one stroke short of Bob Charles in the over-60 event at the FedEx Kinko's Classic...Qualified for the season-ending Grand Champions Championship, but chose to return home rather than make the trip to Sonoma. Placed 14th on the final Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list, with $79,375. 2003: T6 at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic, his fifth top-10 finish at Crandon Park. Fell to Dale Douglass in a playoff for the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title at the Royal Caribbean event...Carded a bogey-free 64 in the third round of the JELD-WEN Tradition, his best score since posting the same number in the second round of the 2002 Royal Caribbean Classic...Enjoyed great success in his first full season in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition with three victories, including a win in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship in Sonoma, CA, a six-stroke victory over Raymond Floyd and Tom Wargo. First won the Georgia-Pacific event at the Kroger Classic when he bested Jerry McGee in a three-hole playoff...Picked up a second Georgia-Pacific title at the inaugural Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Was bogey-free for 36 holes and finished one stroke better than Wargo...Finished the year second to Wargo on the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list with $202,083. 2002: Earned first victory since the 1998 season when he was a four-stroke winner over John Jacobs at The Instinet Classic in May. Had 13 birdies and one bogey on the weekend on his way to victory. Made up two strokes the final day to earn a career-best check for $225,000 while posting his ninth career win on the Champions Tour...Made a run at victory in the rain-shortened Royal Caribbean Classic before eventually finishing second for the third time at Crandon Park. 10-under total for 36 holes tied him with Tom Watson and Bruce Fleisher, one stroke behind winner John Jacobs...Earned a spot in the season-ending event in Oklahoma City for the second consecutive year, but chose to return to his native Japan and did not participate...2001: Started the year with a runner-up finish at the Royal Caribbean Classic, one point short of Larry Nelson in the Modified Stableford event. Four-putted the first hole on Sunday, including a whiff for a double-bogey, that cost him either an outright victory or a spot in a playoff...Was the 36- and 54-hole leader at the U.S. Senior Open and eventually T2 along with Jim Colbert, one stroke back of Bruce Fleisher...Made his 1,000th professional start at the Ford Senior Players Championship. 2000: Started the final round of the State Farm Senior Classic four shots behind Leonard Thompson, but forced a playoff with a final-round 65 that included birdies on three of the last four holes. Eventually lost to Thompson for the second time in his Champions Tour career on the second hole of overtime. 1999: Injured his right shoulder early in the campaign and subsequently developed back problems that curtailed his season after the AT&T Canada Senior Open

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1): 1983 Hawaiian Open.

Championship at the end of August...Best finish was a runner-up performance to Bruce Fleisher at the Royal Caribbean Classic. 1998: One of four players to go wire-to-wire, winning the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland with an 18-under-par 198 total, a tournament record at the time...Lost in a playoff to Leonard Thompson at the Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic and T2 at the Utah Showdown. 1997: Had best year of his career with over $1.4 million in official money...Lone victory came at the Emerald Coast Classic. Fashioned a Champions Tour-record 60 (10-under-par) in the second round, and then, after a birdie on the final hole in regulation to tie Gil Morgan, came back with another birdie on the first playoff hole to claim the title. His 65 on Sunday, coupled with his record 60, helped him establish a then-Champions Tour mark for best consecutive rounds (60-65-125), breaking the record of 126 by Jim Colbert (62-64/1994) and Bob Murphy (63-63/1995)...Was second five times, with two of those coming in majors--The Tradition and PGA Seniors' Championship. 1996: Won the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland and the Kroger Senior Classic...Named the Champions Tour Player of the Month in May and June. 1995: Collected over $1 million for first time in his career, helped by a win at the Bank of Boston Senior Classic, where he birdied the final hole to nip Bob Charles and Hale Irwin...Was second four times, including playoff loss to Jack Nicklaus at The Tradition. 1994: Caught fire in the fall, winning back-to-back events at the Bank One Classic and the rain-shortened Brickyard Crossing Championship...Almost earned a third win at The Transamerica, but lost on the first extra hole to Kermit Zarley...Played his final 10 holes at Silverado in 10-under-par (8 birdies, 1 eagle, 1 par) and carded an 8-under-par 29 on the back nine en route to a 63 that forced the playoff...Player of the Month for September. 1993: T2 at the GTE West Classic. 1992: Had impressive rookie year with six top-10 finishes in seven starts highlighted by victory at the Nationwide Championship. Shot a 66 on Saturday to take a one-stroke lead and was declared the winner when the final round was canceled by rain. Victory made him the first Japanese player to win on both the PGA TOUR and the Champions Tour...Made Champions Tour debut at the First of America Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

One of Japan's all-time greats, with 73 tournament victories worldwide...The only Japanese player to claim titles on six different Tours: PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, PGA European Tour, Australasian Tour, Japan Golf Tour and Japan Senior Tour...May be best known in the United States for holing a pitching wedge out of the rough from 128 yards for an eagle-3 on the 72nd hole at Waialae CC to leapfrog Jack Renner and win the 1983 Hawaiian Open, his only PGA TOUR title...Best year on TOUR was that same season, when he made $146,467 and placed 34th on the money list...Shadowed Jack Nicklaus for four days at Baltusrol GC in the 1980 U.S. Open, but eventually lost by two strokes when Nicklaus became the first player to record a 72-hole mark of 272 in a U.S. Open...Was a member of the 1982, 1983 and 1984 Japanese National teams that competed against the United States...Selected to the Japan team in 1985, 1987 and 1988 for the Kirin Cup competition...Was the leading money-winner five times on the Japan Golf Tour...Served as captain of the 2003 and 2005 Japanese teams which competed in the Visa Dynasty Cup. The competition features a Japan vs. Asia format.

PERSONAL:

Was introduced to golf as a caddie at the Abiko GC while attending Abiko Junior High School...Earned the nickname 'Tower' after the Tokyo Tower, because of his height (6 feet)...Uses an unorthodox putting stroke, but considers that to be the strongest part of his game.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $4,898

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T28--Bayer Advantage Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Did not register a top-10 finish during the season for the first time in his Champions Tour career...Best effort was a T28 at the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic...Also T30 at the Blue Angels Classic after being T5 and four strokes off the lead through 36 holes at The Moors. Second-round 64 was his lowest round since a 64 on the last day of the 2002 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Finished third at the MasterCard Classic near Mexico City, his best since 2001 when he was T3 at the NFL Golf Classic. Trained 36-hole leader Graham Marsh by just one stroke at the start of Sunday's final round and held a brief one-stroke lead after 10 holes, but consecutive bogeys on the next two holes dropped him from the lead.

2003: T7 at the JELD-WEN Tradition, the final major championship of the season. Performance near Portland was his first top-10 in a major since a T8 at the 1999 U.S. Senior Open...Posted three straight sub-70 rounds the next week and T6 at the Kroger Classic near Cincinnati...Also T6 early in the year at the Music City Championship, his best performance on the Champions Tour in just over a year...Had an early season highlight when he made the seventh ace of his career during the final round of the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic, the first full-field event of the season. Holed a 9-iron shot at Key Biscayne's 131-yard eighth hole. 2002: T7 at the NFL Golf Classic, thanks, in part, to rounds of 68-69 on the weekend. 2001: T2 at the TD Waterhouse Championship, eight strokes back of Ed Dougherty and his best effort since a T2 at the 1998 EMC Kaanapali Classic...Made the first hole-in-one of the season at the SBC Senior Classic. Aced Valencia CC's 178-yard third hole with a 5-iron during the second round. 2000: T5 at the Royal Caribbean Classic...Also solo fifth at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship in Winnipeg...Attended 2000 National Qualifying Tournament and finished T11, but did not participate in a playoff for a conditional card. 1999: T6 at the State Farm Senior Classic and was solo sixth at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship where he was in contention until early in the final round at Richelieu Valley. 1998: Posted two victories and joined Hale Irwin as the only other player to win back-to-back events...Registered a tournament-record 20-under-par 196 score to defeat Bruce Summerhays by two strokes at the Comfort Classic and then came back a week later to win the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic in a playoff. Made birdie on the second extra hole to best four other players after Sunday's final round was canceled. 1997: One of the real surprises on the Champions Tour, with a victory and 14 top-10 finishes in 25 starts (two as a Monday qualifier)...Rookie of the Year candidate...Began the year as a conditionally-exempt player (second eight at the 1996 National Qualifying Tournament) and did not play in his first event until late April at the PGA Seniors' Championship (T35)...Lost to Bruce Crampton in a three-hole playoff at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic...Also lost in a two-hole playoff to Bruce Summerhays at the Saint Luke's Classic where he opened with a 63 that included a 29 on the back nine...Won his first Champions Tour title at the Pittsburgh Senior Classic. Caught Bob Duval with birdies on the final two holes of regulation, then prevailed in a playoff with a par on the sixth extra hole...Named Champions Tour Player of the Month for August. 1996: Earned partially-exempt spot on the 1997 Champions Tour by finishing 10th at the National Qualifying Tournament...Involved in a six-man playoff for positions 9-14 before claiming 10th spot overall with a par on the fourth extra hole.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Has played tournament golf in 31 different countries around the world...Was a fixture for 23 years on the European Tour, where he won seven times after turning professional in November 1971. Best year was in 1977, when he finished second on the Order of Merit to Seve Ballesteros...Played in the Masters from 1974-76...Represented South Africa three times in the World Cup and was a South African PGA captain for three years...Winner of the 1977 PGA Match Play Championship in Europe...Owns 15 wins on the South African Tour, including the 1978 South Africa Open...Played an abbreviated PGA European Seniors Tour schedule in 1996, competing in just three events after turning 50 in August...Finished third at The Belfry PGA Seniors and T3 at the Scottish Seniors Open...Posted his career-low round of 61 at the 1985 Holiday Inn Invitational and again at the 1993 Royal Swazi Classic...Has had seven career holes-in-one in competitive rounds.

PERSONAL:

Credits his father as the person who most influenced his career...Was a scratch player by the age of 15...Golf hero is Gary Player...Is among a South African contingent on the Champions Tour that includes Player, John Bland, and

T6—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

2005 SEASON:

Registered just one top-10 finish in 25 official starts, yet was among the top-20 eight times...Best effort came early in the year when he was T6 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in Savannah. Was on the leaderboard after an opening-round 67 at The Westin Savannah Harbor...Also on the early leaderboard at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic after a 67 Friday...Made first start of the 2005 season at The ACE Group Classic in Naples following off-season knee surgery.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: In contention for his first Champions Tour victory at the Farmers Charity Classic, but was forced to withdraw after having an allergic food reaction, which sent him to the hospital prior to the start of his final round. Had shared the 36-hole lead with Bob Gilder, three strokes clear of the rest of the field. Bounced back from his misfortune the next week by opening with a 7-under-par 65 and finishing T3 at the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am...Challenged again at the Commerce Bank Long Island

Classic, but eventually T2, one stroke shy of Jim Thorpe. Final-round 67 at Eisenhower Park earned him a career-best check of $110,000, but he missed on a playoff spot when his seven-foot birdie effort on the final hole didn't drop...T4 at the JELD-WEN Tradition...Had the longest recorded drive during the season—a 375-yarder in the second round at the FedEx Kinko's Classic. 2003: Made Champions Tour debut in March and T26 at the Toshiba Senior Classic...Best finish of his rookie season was a T8 at the SAS Championship near Raleigh...Withdraw prior to his start at the Senior British Open after an injury to his right calf muscle and the injury forced him to miss subsequent starts at the FleetBoston Classic and the 3M Championship...Played in two PGA TOUR events, missing the cut at the Ford Championship at Doral and finishing 75th at the FedEx St. Jude Classic near Memphis.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Was an 11-time winner on PGA TOUR between 1977-86 and enjoyed a career that spanned four decades...Had battled injuries in the latter stages of his PGA TOUR career...First joined the PGA TOUR in 1976, making 586 starts with 343 cuts made in his career...Amassed $3,531,780 in career earnings...Five times he finished in the top 10 on the money list with third-place finishes in both 1978 and 1984...Was fourth in both 1980 and 1986 and was seventh in 1979...In a three-year span (1978-80), won five times, including three times in 1978 and finished in the top 10 a total of 32 times in 89 appearances...Most lucrative season came in 1986 when he won $491,938 with two victories and was fourth on the money list...Three-time winner of the Doral-Eastern Open...Claimed two victories in playoffs. Defeated Lee Trevino to win the 1978 Danny Thomas Memphis Classic and bested Bill Rogers to win the Western Open the same year...T2 with Hale Irwin at 1983 British Open, one stroke behind winner Tom Watson. Was a two-time runner-up at the PGA Championship (1980 and 1989)...Member of the 1979 and 1987 American Ryder Cup teams and also played for the U.S. squad in the 1984 U.S. vs. Japan matches...Low round of his career was a third-round 61 that was instrumental in his victory at the 1979 Atlanta Classic...Had an outstanding amateur career, winning 1974 Eastern and Falstaff Amateurs and 1975 Dixie and Western Amateurs...All-America at University of Florida...Winner of the 1978 Dunlop Phoenix in Japan...First played in a professional event in 1974 when he qualified for the U.S. Open as an amateur and finished T64 at Winged Foot...Has made three holes-in-one in competition.

PERSONAL:

Lived in Jekyll Island, GA, as a child where his father was associated with a golf course. His family moved to Lakeland when he was 15 and his father bought a golf course there...Dream would be to fly a jet and land it on a carrier...Lists Doral, Butler National and Pebble Beach as his favorite golf courses...Favorite athletes are Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer...Enjoys listening to Toby Keith and Garth Brooks...Favorite TV show is "Miami Vice"...Enjoys Clint Eastwood movies and favorite books are Homer's The Iliad and The Odyssey.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T4—Toshiba Senior Classic, Bank of America Championship; T5—Constellation Energy Classic

2005 SEASON:

Made a late push for a spot among the top 30 before eventually ending up 32nd on the final earnings list, his highest ranking since 2002...Was among the top 10 in four events...Closed his year with 11 consecutive rounds of par/better and posted a sub-par score on Sunday in his last five tournaments...Led the Champions Tour in Driving Accuracy for the first time since 1997, hitting the fairway off the tee a record 84.2 percent of the time. Led the field in Driving Accuracy at six events during the season and missed just one fairway (41 of 42) at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn...T4 at the Toshiba Senior Classic following consecutive rounds in the 60s on the weekend...Matched that performance in June when he posted three straight sub-par rounds to T4 at the Bank of America Championship...Also T5 at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore...Low round on the Champions Tour came on Saturday at the Senior British Open Championship when he fashioned a bogey-free 6-under 65 at Royal Aberdeen...Made three appearances on the European Seniors Tour late in the summer and finished T4 at the Bad Ragaz PGA Seniors Open in Switzerland, thanks to a second-round, 6-under 64...Also finished T10 at the Bendinat London Seniors Masters in defense of a title he won 10 years earlier.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Best finish came in his initial start at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic. Trailing after 36 holes by just one stroke before shooting a final-round, 1-over-par 73 in windy conditions to finish T3 with Gil Morgan. 2003: Finished out of the top 30 on the season-long money list for the first time since 1999...Strung together three straight sub-70 rounds and T8 at the Allianz Championship...Was one of just two players on the Champions Tour (Tom Jenkins) to make multiple aces during the season. First holed a 6-iron shot from 171 yards on the par-3 12th hole at Egypt Valley during the second round of the Farmers Charity Classic and then made his fourth career Champions Tour ace in the last round of his final start of the year at the SBC Championship. Again used a 6-iron, this time from 172 yards on the par-3 second hole at Oak Hills during the final round. 2002: Top performance of the year came at the Allianz Championship, finishing second by one stroke to Bob Gilder. Had Champions Tour career-best 8-under 63 (course record) at Glen Oaks on Saturday with a hole-in-one (5-iron, 16th hole) that gave him a two-stroke lead after 36 holes. Was tied with Gilder with just three holes to play, but made a bogey at No. 17 and finished second. 2001: Fired a final-round 66 to finish as the runner-up to Bruce Fleisher at the Home Depot Invitational. 2000: T4 at the SBC Senior Open near Chicago...Finished second to Christy O'Connor, Jr. for the second straight year at the unofficial Senior British Open at Royal County Down in Northern Ireland. 1999: Had six top-10 performances, highlighted by a T4 at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic, three strokes short of Joe Inman. 1998: Season was limited to just 18 events, including just two following the death of his first wife, Helen, in early August...Earlier in the year, put together four straight top-10s, including a fifth-place effort at the Pittsburgh Senior Classic. 1997: Battled good friend Graham Marsh to the final hole before falling one stroke short at the U.S. Senior Open at Olympia Fields CC near Chicago...Contended all the way at Springhouse GC and was runner-up by two strokes to Gil Morgan at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland...Finished one shy of Bob Eastwood at the Bell Atlantic Classic after the final round was canceled by heavy rain...Teamed with Marsh in March to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf near Palm Springs, CA...Also lost in a playoff to Gary Player at Senior British Open at Royal Portrush. 1996: Voted Champions Tour Rookie of the Year after earning $1,357,987 on the strength of four official wins...Claimed the first event of the year, the Puerto Rico Senior Tournament of Champions, when he birdied the final two holes to nip Jim

Colbert...Also bested Colbert at The Transamerica, by one stroke, and at the Northville Long Island Classic, by three strokes...Also won the Bruno's Memorial Classic in a playoff over Kermit Zarley and John Paul Cain. 1995: Made his Champions Tour debut at The Transamerica (tied for lead after 36 holes) and T5 at Silverado...Was the fourth player in Champions Tour history to Monday qualify and win an event (first since Rives McBee in 1989) when he claimed the Ralphs Senior Classic two weeks after joining the circuit. Earned an immediate one-year exemption when he came from four strokes behind to beat Jim Colbert at Wilshire CC with a final-round 65.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

A prolific winner in South Africa, he also played on the PGA European Tour from 1977 through 1994...First of two victories in Europe came at the 1983 Benson & Hedges International Open, where he defeated Bernhard Langer by one stroke...Also defeated Seve Ballesteros by four strokes to claim the 1986 Suze Open at Cannes Mougins...Represented South Africa in the 1975 World Cup and was on the South African team for the 1991 and 1992 Dunhill Cups...Led the South African Order of Merit in 1977, 1978, 1984 and 1986 and had his best year on the PGA European Tour in 1990, finishing in 16th place on the Order of Merit with £166,227...Selected as the Golfer of the Year in South Africa for 1996...Once shot 59 at the par-72 ERPm GC in Johannesburg...Has made 21 aces in his career.

PERSONAL:

Says the biggest thrill of his career came at the 1996 PGA Seniors' Championship when he played with Arnold Palmer for the first time and recorded his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour...Lists Gary Player and Palmer as his heroes and his late wife, Helen, as the most influential person in his career...Son-in-law Hughie O'Shea is his caddie...Has worked with South African teacher Denis Hutchinson...Lists the Old Course at St. Andrews as his favorite course...Does not play with golf balls marked

'3'...Lists Winston Churchill and Morne Du Plessis, a former captain of the South African rugby team, as his heroes...Enjoys eating South African barbecue.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T3—Boeing Greater Seattle Classic; 4—Administaff Small Business Classic; T5—FedEx Kinko's Classic

2005 SEASON:

Suffered a torn ligament in his left ankle in April and played through the injury...Turned in a solid rookie campaign with five top-10 efforts, including three in his first seven appearances...Made several runs at a victory late in the year...Appeared to be in the driver's seat at the Administaff Small Business Classic in mid-October, but made two double bogeys on the back nine at Augusta

Pines to fade into a fourth-place finish. Carried a two-stroke lead into the final round near Houston and was three strokes ahead with nine holes to play...Made an impressive showing at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic in August when he posted three straight rounds in the 60s to finish T3 at the TPC at Snoqualmie Ridge. Shared the first-round lead and was just two behind after 36 holes, but couldn't chase down eventual-winner David Eger...Was the low native Texan at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, posting a T5 finish in Austin. Was one stroke off the first-round lead and trailed by just two strokes entering the final round, but even-par 72 on Sunday left him six strokes back of winner Jim Thorpe...Also finished T8 at the SBC Classic in March. After a pair of over-par rounds, bounced back on Sunday to shoot a 4-under-par 68, and moved up 20 spots into the top 10 for the first time in his Champions Tour career...Also T8 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic in May, making a nice comeback after an opening-round 75. Improved his score by 11 strokes in the second round with a season-best 64 and closed with a 69 Sunday to complete his climb from T58 after Friday...Made one start on the PGA TOUR, missing the cut at the Funai Classic at Walt Disney World...Along with R.W. Eaks, hit the longest measured drive on the Champions Tour with a poke of 385 yards on the 15th hole in the opening round of the JELD-WEN Tradition.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Earned fully-exempt status for 2005 after finishing third at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the King and Bear at World Golf Village near St. Augustine, FL, in November...Five of his six rounds were in the 60s, and he finished 22-under-par for the event.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Recorded lone PGA TOUR victory in his 18th season and 475th start when he won the rain-shortened 1995 Walt Disney World/Oldsmobile Classic. Held a share of the 36-hole lead following a career-best 63 at Lake Buena Vista and his final-round 68 at the Magnolia Course gave him a one-stroke victory over Hal Sutton and Ted Tryba. Win helped him to his best earnings year on the PGA TOUR ($723,834/25th)...The previous season saw him finish a career-best 18th on the money list, with $687,803. Did not win, but was second at the Doral-Ryder Open and the Kmart Greater Greensboro Open...Held a one-stroke margin entering the final round of the 1993 Canadian Open before closing-round 74 left him third, three strokes behind David Frost...Was part of a five-man playoff at the Buick Southern Open later that year in an event won by John Inman...Played full time on TOUR from 1979-1999 before he unofficially retired in 1999. Played a handful of events from 2000-2004. Played the 1999 season under a Special Medical Extension after missing almost all of the previous year...Battled various injuries in his career, including a degenerative disk in his lower back as well as shoulder problems...Finished in the top 125 on the money list for nine straight years from 1989-97. Led TOUR in birdies in 1994 (397).

PERSONAL:

Nickname "Dr. Dirt" bestowed upon him by Gary McCord in late 1970s. Younger brother Bart also played on the TOUR and won the 2004 Valero Texas Open and also the Memorial and TOUR Championship last year...Biggest thrill in golf was watching Bart win the Valero Texas Open...Lists Bart as his favorite athlete...Has worked with David Leadbetter...His favorite course is Spyglass Hill and his favorite movie is "Chariots of Fire"...Enjoyed the "Lord of the Rings" trilogy...Favorite food is his mother's country-fried steak.

T12—Administaff Small Business Classic; T14—3M Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Played in just 17 events on the Champions Tour and did not start his season until mid-May after undergoing treatment for cancer at his home in Spain...Returned to action at the Blue Angels Classic, and his opening-round 66 at The Moors proved to be his best starting round of the year...Had two top-20 finishes. His best effort came near the end of 2005 when he put together back-to-back rounds in the 60s (67-68) on the weekend for the only time during the season to T12 at the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston...Also T14 in early August at the 3M Championship in Minnesota.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Nearly claimed his first victory since 2001 in July when he battled Mark James for the top spot down the stretch at the Ford Senior Players Championship. Held a one-stroke advantage playing the par-5 17th hole at the TPC of Michigan, but dumped his third shot in the water and ended up with a double bogey that eventually left him one stroke shy of James. Earned $219,000 for his second-place finish, the largest check of his professional career...T3 at the SAS Championship in September, thanks to a final-round 66 at Prestonwood...Trailing by just two strokes heading into the final round of the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, but bogeyed three of his first four holes on Sunday and eventually T5 at Sonoma...Was one of just two players (Morris Hatafsky) to post three consecutive sub-par rounds at The Hills CC near Austin. 2003: Had five top-10s highlighted by a runner-up finish at the Music City Championship at Gaylord Opryland, four strokes back of Jim Ahern. 2002: Troubled by a sore left shoulder for the majority of the season...Best effort came early in the year when he T4 at the Audi Senior Classic in Mexico. 2001: The top international player on the Champions Tour, eclipsing the million-dollar mark for the second consecutive season...Was top-10 in eight of his first 11 events, highlighted by first career victory on the Champions Tour at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Came from five strokes back on the final day, a best for the 2001 season. Sunk a 10-foot birdie putt on the final hole of regulation to force a playoff with Gil Morgan and then defeated Morgan on the ninth extra playoff hole with a 20-foot birdie putt. Victory at Newport Beach came in his 109th start and was followed by a runner-up performance to Jim Colbert at the SBC Senior Classic. 2000: Earned the most money without a win, pocketing $1,155,939 on the strength of 10 top-10 finishes...Along with Walter Hall and Tom Watson, lost out to Lanny Wadkins in a playoff at The ACE Group Classic...Finished third late in the year at The Transamerica and T3 at the season-ending IR SENIOR TOUR Championship after being the 36-hole leader...Fired a career-best 10-under 61 in the second round of the EMC Kaanapali Classic, equalling Jim Colbert's Kaanapali North Course record. 1999: Along with Bruce Fleisher, lost in overtime to John Mahaffey at the Southwestern Bell Dominion...Also in contention at the PGA Seniors' Championship, but eventually T3 after a final-round 72...Was T3 at both the Nationwide Championship and Lightpath Long Island Classic. 1998: One of 11 players to hit the $1-million mark in season earnings...T2 at the GTE Classic after taking a two-stroke lead to the 16th tee on the final day and also lost in a playoff to Jay Sigel at the Bell Atlantic Classic on the third extra hole. 1997: Debuted in April at the PGA Seniors' Championship and T35 at PGA National...Had four straight top-10 finishes at one point, starting with a T10 at the U.S. Senior Open, where he shot a third-round 66, the low round of the event...Nearly won the Northville Long Island Classic. After rounds of 64-70, was tied for the 36-hole lead with Dana Quigley and Walter Hall. Contended until the final hole before missing a short putt that would have put him in a playoff with Jay Sigel and eventual-winner Quigley...Also made five starts on the PGA European Seniors Tour, finishing seventh on the final Order of Merit...Earned fully-exempt status for the 1998 season by placing second at the National Qualifying Tournament.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

A long-time standout on the PGA European Tour, where he won seven events...Finished in the top 10 on the Order of Merit six times, including three consecutive years (1983-85)...Best season was 1983, when he placed fourth...Had some record performances in Europe. Still shares the record for lowest nine-hole score with a 9-under-par 27 at the 1978 Ebel European Masters-Swiss Open in Crans-sur-Sierre. Eight years later, shot an 11-under-par 61 on the same course. Round included 11 birdies, which tied the PGA European Tour record at the time...Won more than 1.25 million pounds in his career...Enjoyed success in Ryder Cup play...Was a member of the European team in 1981, '83, '85 and '89...His 1985 singles victory over Fuzzy Zoeller helped the Europeans win their first Ryder Cup title in 28 years...Four years later at The Belfry, made a four-foot putt on the 18th hole to defeat Ken Green and assure Europe the Cup for another two years...Overall Ryder Cup record was 5-4-2...Teamed with countryman Manuel Pinero to help Spain win the 1982 World Cup in Acapulco, and two years later teamed with Jose Rivero for another Spanish victory in Rome. Was the medalist at the 1984 event...Has five career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Began playing the game after working as a caddie as a youngster in Madrid...Says his biggest thrill in golf was winning his first event as a professional at South Sebastian in 1969...Son Alejandro won the individual title at the 2003 NCAA Golf Championship while playing for Arizona State and is a three-time All-America. He will be a senior in 2006.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T12—Constellation Energy Classic; T17—Bayer Advantage Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Among the top 20 in two of 24 official events...Was T12 at the Constellation Energy Classic, with opening and closing rounds of 68...Also shot 67 in the first round at the Nicklaus GC at LionsGate and finished T17 at the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic in suburban Kansas City...Appeared in every Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions event and finished ninth on the final over-60 money list, with $57,625...Was among the early leaders in the over-60 competition at the Constellation Energy Classic and finished T2, two strokes back of John Jacobs.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Birdied four of the last eight holes on Saturday to forge a tie with Jay Sigel in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition and then defeated Sigel with a par on the first playoff hole for his eighth career victory in the over-60 competition. 2003: T3 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, his best performance in almost two years...Fired an 8-under 62 in the second round of the Senior British Open Championship, equalling the competitive course record at Turnberry. Round included 24 putts and made him the youngest player ever to match his age in a Champions Tour major. Score also tied Doug Tewell's final-round 62 at the 2001 Countrywide Tradition as the lowest round ever posted in a Champions Tour major...Followed Hugh Baiocchi's ace with a hole-in-one of his own in the final round of the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic. Aced the 178-yard 12th hole at Crandon Park GC with a 6-iron shot. 2002: Posted back-to-back Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions titles when he defeated Isao Aoki in one-hole playoffs at the Kroger Senior Classic and the SAS Championship. 2001: Oldest winner of the season on the Champions Tour, finishing among the top 31 money-winners for an 11th straight year, the only player over 60 among that select group...Ended more than a two-year victory drought two days after turning 60 when he held off Jose Maria Canizares by one stroke for the SBC Senior Classic title, his 20th career title on the Champions Tour. Holed an eight-foot birdie putt at the 15th hole to break out of a three-way logjam with Canizares and Gary McCord...Teamed with Andy North to successfully defend their Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title, the fifth time in tournament history a team had gone back to back. Better-ball score of 20-under 124 in the rain-shortened event clipped Bruce Fleisher and David Graham by three strokes...Won five Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions events, including the first two over-60 competitions he was eligible for (Bruno's Memorial Classic/The Home Depot Invitational). 2000: Teamed with Andy North for victory in the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Duo fired a better-ball team score of 25-under 191 and edged David Graham and Bruce Fleisher by one stroke...T2 at the Audi Senior Classic, five strokes back of Hubert Green after sharing the 36-hole lead with Jose Maria Canizares...Tied his Champions Tour career-low round of 61 on the first day of the TD Waterhouse Championship. Course record 11-under-par score at Tiffany Greens included eight straight birdies (holes 10-17) and equaled the Champions Tour's all-time best birdie streak...Opened Colbert Hills GC at Kansas State University in Manhattan on May 1. 1999: Closed with 67 at Hualalai to T2 at the MasterCard Championship, three strokes back of John Jacobs. 1998: Notched his 19th career victory on the Champions Tour by claiming The Transamerica. Birdied four of his last eight holes for a one-stroke win over David Lundstrom in Napa...Victory capped a successful comeback from prostate cancer surgery a year earlier...Named the Champions Tour's Comeback Player of the Year and is the only player to have garnered all three of the Champions Tour's major post-season awards. 1997: Despite missing four months of the season while recuperating from prostate cancer surgery on June 23, still finished among the top-31 money-winners...Did not win for the first time in six years, but still had five top-five finishes, including a pair of seconds at the du Maurier Champions and the American Express Invitational...Recorded his third hole-in-one on the Champions Tour and fifth overall at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. 1996: Won second Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner with then-record $1,627,890...Earned title on last day of season when he birdied the final hole at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship to help him to a T3 and a check for $121,000, good enough to beat Hale Irwin for the money crown by $12,121...Won $607,495 in his last seven starts, including two wins, a second, a T2 and a T3...Voted by his peers as Champions Tour Player of the Year for second year in succession...Had personal-best five wins...Highlights were defense of his title at the Las Vegas Senior Classic and a third Vantage Championship...Also named Player of the Month for October...Claimed Cadillac with hole-in-one at The Transamerica...Golf Writers Association Player of the Year. 1995: Four victories included wire-to-wire triumph at the season-ending Energizer SENIOR TOUR

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:
7—Toshiba Senior Classic, MasterCard Championship;
T8—Allianz Championship; T9—U.S. Senior Open.

2005 SEASON:

Scattered four top-10 finishes among 21 official starts on the Champions Tour...Played the early part of the season on a Special Medical Extension and eventually finished among the top 40 on the money list for the third time in the last four years despite taking time off from the circuit for almost two months late in the summer...Opened his season with a T7 at the MasterCard Championship in Hawaii. Earned another seventh-place finish at the Toshiba Senior Classic in March after consecutive rounds of 68 his final two days...Finished T13 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, thanks to a closing-round, 8-under-par 64, which matched his career low score and tied the tournament mark for lowest final round...Also closed with consecutive rounds of 68 in Iowa to T8 at the Allianz Championship...Made one appearance on the European Seniors Tour and finished T19 at the Travis Perkins Senior Masters.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Battled back problems through much of the year...Finished solo second at the Blue Angels Classic, his best effort since winning the Toshiba Senior Classic in March of 2003. After playing his first six holes of the event in 3-over, rallied to play his last 48 holes in 12-under. Final-round 65 at The Moors, included five birdies in a six-hole stretch on the back nine...Also was solo third at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore. Matched his low round of the year with an opening-round 7-under-par 65 and trailed first-round leader and eventual winner Wayne Levi by just one stroke after 18 holes. Made a spirited run in Sunday's closing round, shooting a 5-under-par 31 on the front nine to move near the top of the leaderboard, but an even-par 36 over the final nine holes doomed his chances. He finished three strokes behind Levi. 2003: Registered his first Champions Tour career victory in Newport Beach, CA. Became the fourth of seven first-time winners when he secured a four-stroke victory at the Toshiba Senior Classic in late March. Opened with rounds of 65-64-129 and then closed with a 3-under-par 68 on Sunday to easily defeat Larry Nelson...Final-round 65 at the Farmers Charity Classic included a birdie-birdie-birdie-eagle-birdie finish, the best birdie/eagle stretch on the Champions Tour that year and the best run overall since the 2001 campaign...Led the Champions Tour in Putting (1.726). 2002: Had three top-five finishes and one of two Australians (Stewart Ginn) among the top 31 money-winners...Shared the 36-hole lead with Dan O'Neill and eventual-winner Jay Sigel at the Farmers Charity Classic. Fired a 2-under-par 70 in the final round, but fell three strokes shy of Sigel and finished in sole possession of third place...Made a strong bid for his first Champions Tour victory at the Greater Baltimore Classic. Held a share of the lead on the 54th hole, but made a double bogey after hitting his tee shot into a hazard and T5. 2001: Made debut shortly after turning 50 in May when he finished T27 at the Senior PGA Championship. Played in six events through open qualifying and sponsor's exemptions...T21 at the Farmers Charity Classic and T21 at The Transamerica, his best performances of the year...Also made four starts on the Australasian Tour and made two cuts...Earned his initial exemption on the Champions Tour by finishing T3 at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at Calimesa, CA.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

A long-time fixture on the European and Australian Tours...Won seven times as a member of the PGA European Tour and added 20 victories on the Australasian Tour to his resume...One of the finest players in Australia during his career, he represented the country on four World Cup teams and also participated in six Alfred Dunhill Cups, playing on the winning team in 1986...Was also a member of the winning team at the 1990 Four-Tours World Championship...Was the Australasian Order of Merit leader in both 1990 and 1991...First drew attention on the international stage in 1979 when he led the British Open with five holes to play before Seve Ballesteros emerged to grab the title. Still finished fifth at Royal Lytham that year...Turned in another stellar effort at the event in 1987, finishing T2 with Paul Azinger, one stroke behind Nick Faldo at Muirfield...Among his international titles were the 1986 Whyte & Mackay PGA European Championship where he defeated Des Smyth in a playoff, and the 1991 Volvo Masters at Valderrama.

PERSONAL:

Did not turn professional until age 23...Trained to be an accountant before turning to golf...Was considered one of the most popular and colorful players on both the European Tour and the Australasian Tour...Wears plus-fours when he plays, with socks that have his name running vertically.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $1,323,769

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T12—Bank of America Championship; T14—Allianz Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Played a full season for the first time since 2003, yet did not register a top-10 finish during the year for the first time in his career... Played his best golf from early June to early July, placing among the top 25 in four straight events, including a T14 at the Allianz Championship. His best effort, a T12, came at the Bank of America Championship. Was among the early leaders at the Allianz event after opening with a 4-under 67 at the Tournament Club of Iowa

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Returned to action in late June following his off-season shoulder surgery and was T57 in his first start at the Bank of America Championship near Boston... Best finish was a T7 at The First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.
2003: Experienced shoulder problems late in the season... Closed with 66 in Nashville to T4 at the Music City Championship at Gaylord Opryland... T4 again three weeks later at the Farmers Charity Classic. Was the 36-hole leader in Grand Rapids, but fell back after posting an even-par 72 on Sunday. Underwent right shoulder surgery in October. 2002: Was the 36-hole leader by two strokes at the Audi Senior Classic after rounds of 71-65 and eventually T4... Was in contention at the U.S. Senior Open, trailing by four strokes after three rounds. Shot a 1-under 70 on Sunday and finished solo fourth at Caves Valley... Also T4 at the RJR Championship in September with three straight sub-70 rounds. 2001: Enjoyed his finest season in professional golf... Went over the $1-million mark in earnings as a result of career-best 10 top-10 finishes... Recorded wire-to-wire victory at the TD Waterhouse Championship. Tied the Champions Tour record for lowest 54-hole score in relation to par (Raymond Floyd/1993 Gulfstream Aerospace Invitational) when he blitzed the Tiffany Greens GC course with a 22-under-par 194 total. His 36-hole score of 16-under 128 also tied the then-Champions Tour's all-time mark in relation to par (Hale Irwin/1997 Vantage Championship) for the first two rounds. His 10-under 62 on Friday was a Champions Tour career-best and was his lowest score since shooting 62 at the 1992 Chattanooga Classic on the PGA TOUR. Made a 12-foot birdie putt on the last hole to win by eight strokes over Walter Morgan, Hugh Baiocchi and Dana Quigley, the largest margin of victory in a 54-hole event since the 1993 Franklin Quest Championship... Almost won again at the AT&T Canada Senior Open. Fired a 6-under 65 on the last day to come from five strokes back and catch Walter Hall in regulation. Fell to Hall on the first playoff hole after making bogey for the second time on Mississauga's 18th hole on Sunday. 2000: Registered his first victory in 69 Champions Tour starts at the Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic. Defeated Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan with a tournament record score of 19-under-par at Bunker Hills. The $240,000 first-place check was more than he made in his best year on the PGA TOUR (1992/$237,525). Was the August Player of the Month... Shot 19-under 197 again at the Gold Rush Classic, but finished second to Jim Thorpe by two strokes... Had his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the opening round of the SBC Championship. 1999: Took advantage of his first full year on the Champions Tour by earning over $900,000 and a spot among the top 20 money-winners... Made headlines by being the 18-, 36- and 54-hole leader at the U.S. Senior Open at Des Moines G&CC. Lost to Dave Eichelberger on the final day by three strokes... Took a one-stroke lead into the final round of the TD Waterhouse Championship, but finished two shots back of Allen Doyle despite a final-round 68... Was again the runner-up the next week at the Comfort Classic, falling two strokes short of Gil Morgan... Was also the 36-hole leader at the Kroger Senior Classic, but lost to Morgan again by two strokes despite posting a final-round 67. 1998: Made debut on the Champions Tour in May at the Saint Luke's Classic and T19 in Kansas City... Best finish came near his home in the Philadelphia area. Playing on a sponsor exemption, he closed with a 64 at Hartefeld National and T3 at the Bell Atlantic Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Long-time player on the PGA TOUR, where he competed from 1975-97... Had 460 starts in his career and made 243 cuts... No doubt the high point of his golf career came in 1995 when he prevailed at the Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic. Idled much of the early portion of the year by a shoulder injury suffered while lifting one of his vintage pinball machines, he shot rounds of 68-68-70 and stood in seventh place, three behind Dickey Thompson after 54 holes. Finished with a 66, which included 32 on the second nine and that was good enough to give him a two-stroke win over Gil Morgan. The victory, at age 47, made him the oldest first-time winner on the PGA TOUR since John Barnum captured the 1962 Cajun Classic at age 51... Lost in a playoff to Jim Gallagher, Jr. at the 1990 Greater Milwaukee Open and was also second at the Anheuser-Busch Golf Classic and the Chattanooga Classic in back-to-back weeks in 1992... Made three successful trips to the PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament in 1983, 1986 and 1989... Named PGA of America's Club Professional of the Year in 1985 after winning the Club Professional Championship at Mission Hills CC in Rancho Mirage, CA... Has had six holes-in-one during competitive rounds.

PERSONAL:

Is a serious model train enthusiast who has a vast collection of Lionel trains ranging from around 1900 to 1969. Houses his train collection in a two-story, 20-by-30 building. Usually makes it a point to visit train stores in cities while on TOUR... In recent years, has also begun refurbishing old pinball machines... Also collects cars and owns two 1958 Chevys and a 1963 Corvette... Served a tour in Vietnam and joins a host of players on the Champions Tour who served in the military... Returned from Southeast Asia and took up golf seriously at Fort Lewis, WA, when he wasn't allowed to play baseball... Played golf for the first time when he was working in the post office in Linwood, PA, at age 19... Follows the Philadelphia-area pro sports teams... Has started to learn to play the guitar and is a self-described "36-handicapper" with it... Nickname is "Doc".

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T37—U.S. Senior Open Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Celebrated his 20th season on the Champions Tour... Was the oldest player to make the cut at the U.S. Senior Open, his first made cut in the championship since 2002. He eventually T37, his best effort of the campaign... Posted three straight rounds in the 60s at the Blue Angels Classic and matched or bettered his age each day of the event, a first on the Champions Tour since Joe Jimenez did it during each round of the 2000 SBC Championship... Bettered his age for the second time in 2005, with a 5-under 66 in the second round of the Commerce Bank Championship, his low score since early in 2004. Round at Long Island event included a 6-under 29 on the front side, one of five sub-30 nine-hole scores on the Champions Tour last year... Played in all six Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions events and finished 18th on the final over-60 money list, with $36,304.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Bettered his age with a 5-under 66 in the final round of the Toshiba Senior Classic... Made his 18th career ace in the final round of the Allianz Championship, holing a 3-iron shot on the second hole at Glen Oaks, the Tour's eighth-hardest hole in 2004. It was also his first hole-in-one in 18 years and just his second on the Champions Tour. 2003: Became just the fifth player with at least 500 appearances on the Champions Tour when he made his 500th official start at the first full-field event of the year, the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic near Miami... Went on to win the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition at Key Biscayne. Defeated Isao Aoki with a four-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole after both players had finished 36 holes at 1-under 143... Georgia-Pacific victory was his first in the over-60 competition in almost two years. 2002: Bettered his age for the first time in his career when he posted a 7-under 63 in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic. Round was his best on the Champions Tour since he fashioned a 61 in the final round of the 1994 Ralphs Senior Classic. The score also made him, at the time, the second-youngest player in Champions Tour history to better his age (Joe Jimenez shot 63 at age 65 in the 1991 GTE Northwest Classic; Walter Morgan later shot 60 at AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship at age 61). T5 in the rain-shortened event in Milton, his best performance since the 1999 campaign... Later matched his age with a 5-under-par 66 in the second round of the Allianz Championship. 2001: Won his 11th career

Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Carded a pair of 69s on the first two days of the tournament to defeat Bob Charles and Lee Trevino by two strokes in the over-60 competition. 1999: Won the over-60 event at the Nationwide Championship by one stroke over three other players. 1998: Made 29 starts and finished 31st on the money list... Appeared headed for a playoff with Gil Morgan at the LG Championship before Morgan made eagle on the final hole to drop him into a second-place tie with Raymond Floyd... Continued to make his mark in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition, with five wins and a second-place finish behind Bob Charles on the Grand Champions money list with $249,790... Teamed with Charles Coody for their third Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title. 1997: Earned almost one-third of his season earnings at the PGA Seniors' Championship, making $105,000 for a distant T2 behind Hale Irwin. Runner-up performance at PGA National was his best in a major since the 1994 Tradition... Finished third on the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list with $209,810 and recorded his only 60-and-over victory at the Boone Valley Classic, a two-stroke decision over Dick Hendrickson. 1996: At the Bell Atlantic Classic, became the second of only five Grand Champions (60 and older) to double dip when he claimed the Georgia-Pacific event and won the overall tournament the next day in a playoff with Tom Wargo and John Schroeder. Made birdie on third extra hole after knocking a 6-iron five feet from the pin at Chester Valley. 1994: Shot best score of his career, a final-round 61 at Rancho Park, in defense of his title at Ralphs Senior Classic, but still finished second at the event to Jack Kiefer... Also lost to Raymond Floyd on the first playoff hole at The Tradition despite four straight rounds in the 60s and a 17-under-par total for 72 holes. 1993: Shot a sizzling 64 on Sunday and then defeated Jim Dent with birdie on first extra playoff hole to win the Ralphs Senior Classic at Rancho Park. 1992: Posted 16 top-10 finishes, including wins at the rain-shortened NYNEX Commemorative (defeated Terry Dill in a playoff) and the Ameritech Senior Open. 1991:

Surpassed $600,000 in season earnings with victory at Showdown Classic in Utah...Trio of second places were among 17 top-10 finishes. 1990: Beat Gary Player in a playoff for Bell Atlantic title and also teamed with Charles Coody for first of three wins at unofficial Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 1988: Victorious at GTE Suncoast Senior Classic, leading event from start to finish. 1986: Had banner rookie year, finishing third on the money list and garnering four wins, including U.S. Senior Open at Scioto CC by one stroke over Gary Player...Was the leader or co-leader in eight of his first 10 rounds on the Champions Tour, including seven straight. Of those seven, he held sole possession of the lead in six which was instrumental in back-to-back wins at The Vintage Invitational and the Johnny Mathis Seniors Classic. Streak could have been more impressive but, after finishing tied with Charles Owens at the Del E. Webb SENIOR PGA TOUR Roundup in his first start, he lost in a playoff.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the PGA TOUR in 1963, but his first official win did not come until the 1969 Azalea Open...Captured the Kemper Open that same season and went on to finish 12th on the official money list with $91,553, his best TOUR year...Won the 1970 Phoenix Open by one stroke over Gene Littler and Howie Johnson...Play was curtailed by assorted injuries throughout the '70s...Member of the 1969 United States Ryder Cup team...Has made 18 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Tournament Policy Board Player Director 1971-72...Vice President of the PGA in 1972...Served on the Champions Tour Division Board as a Player Director from 1990-94 and again in 1996-97.

2005 SEASON:

Missed out on the million-dollar mark in earnings for the first time since playing the Champions Tour on a full-time basis, partly due to arthroscopic left-knee surgery on September 27 that curtailed his season...Was among the top six in four events, with three of those performances coming in the four major events he appeared in...Won his third different major at the U.S. Senior Open, coming from nine strokes back in the final round, the second-biggest comeback in any major championship (Paul Lawrie/10 strokes/1999 British Open) and made up the second-largest deficit in Champions Tour history (Jay Sigel/10 strokes/1994 GTE West Classic). Bypassed 15 players on Sunday with a South Course-record 8-under 63 at NCR CC, tying his career-low score and Don Pooley's mark (2002/third round) for the lowest round ever posted in U.S. Senior Open history...Round also was the lowest by a winner on the Champions Tour last year. Victory at NCR was his 10th overall title on the Champions Tour and came just five days after turning 57, making him the second-oldest winner in U.S. Senior Open annals (Robert De Vicenzo/57 years, 2 months, 15 days in 1980). His $470,000 first-place check was the largest of his career and accounted for over half his official money last year...T5 at the Ford Senior Players Championship just prior to his U.S. Senior Open triumph. Opened with a 2-over 74 in Dearborn, but bounced back with three straight rounds in the 60s on the TPC of Michigan layout...Also T6 in late May at the Senior PGA Championship at Laurel Valley and extended his streak of years among the top 20 in that event to seven...T3 near the start of the season at the Turtle Bay Championship.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Won for the second time near Kansas City when he claimed the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am by a stroke over Jerry Pate. Made a short birdie putt on the 18th hole Saturday to give himself a one-stroke cushion over Pate and then was declared the winner when Sunday's final round was canceled due to course damage from overnight storms Saturday...Was among a handful of players who battled it out in Sunday's final round at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August. Trained by one stroke heading into Sunday's final round and remained in contention throughout the round but failed to birdie one of his final two holes to finish T2, one stroke behind Craig Stadler...Champions Tour Player of the Month for June. 2003: Back among the top 10 on the money list after a year's absence, thanks to 13 top-10 finishes...Tied with Tom Jenkins for the most sub-par rounds on the Champions Tour with 64...Won for the first time in just over two years when he prevailed at the FleetBoston Classic. The native of nearby Norwood, MA, broke the 18-hole tournament record at Nashawtuc and equaled his career-low score with a second-round, 8-under-par 63 that included a 6-under-par 29 on the front nine. His 54-hole total of 198 also matched the tournament scoring mark, held by Chi Chi Rodriguez, and helped him defeat Bruce Fleisher and defending champion Bob Gilder by two strokes for his eighth career win on the Champions Tour...Contended earlier in the campaign for the Columbus Southern Open title near his home in Georgia and eventually finished one stroke short of Morris Hatafsky. 2002: Runner-up to Hale Irvin at the Toshiba Senior Classic after owning sole possession of first place after the opening round. 2001: Was the Champions Tour's mark of consistency, with 25 top-10 finishes in 34 starts, one top-10 short of Lee Trevino's all-time senior record (1990)...Battled Bruce Fleisher down the stretch for both the Charles Schwab Cup and the overall money title and claimed both honors...Received the Jack Nicklaus Player of the Year Award after a vote of his peers...Donated his entire $1 million annuity for winning the Charles Schwab Cup to six different charitable organizations...Earned $2,553,582, the third-highest single-season total in Champions Tour history...Was 236-under par, the most under by any player on the circuit for a season...Led the Champions Tour with 55 (out of 102) rounds in the 60s and had 81 sub-par rounds, one short of Tom Wargo's record (1994)...Won twice and came close to winning four other tournaments...Claimed both of his 2001 titles in playoffs over a span of three weeks, starting in mid-July. Holed a 35-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to jump into a playoff with Doug Tewell at the Ford Senior Players Championship and then defeated Tewell with a par on the first extra hole for his second major championship on the Champions Tour...Won again two weeks later at the State Farm Senior Classic. Rebounded from an opening-round 73 to get into a tie with Fleisher at the end of regulation and then outlasted Fleisher with a four-foot par putt on the third playoff hole. 2000: Posted just one official victory during the season despite improving his scoring average by almost half a stroke from the previous season (69.56 vs. 70.02)...Claimed the rain-shortened Toshiba Senior Classic. Birdied the 18th hole of Saturday's second round to open a one-stroke lead over Howard Twitty and Jim Thorpe. Slim margin held up when heavy rains before and during Sunday's final round made the Newport Beach CC course unplayable...Matched his career low of 63 in the second round of the EMC Kaanapali Classic...Also had a rare double eagle in the second round of The Home Depot Invitational, holing a 3-wood second shot on the second hole at the TPC at Piper Glen. 1999: Finished third on the final official earnings list despite occasional back problems...Won four times in his first full season and claimed his first senior major championship among those victories...Went wire-to-wire for his initial triumph at The ACE Group Classic, easily defeating Vicente Fernandez by five strokes. Win made him the first player ever to triumph on both the Champions Tour and Nationwide Tours...Returned to Florida just over a month later to defeat Fernandez again at the PGA Seniors' Championship at PGA National. Came from four strokes back on Sunday with an 8-under-par 64 and won by two shots, the best come-from-behind effort on the circuit that season...Despite having back problems throughout the final round, bested Joe Inman in a playoff for the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic title...Used a then-course-record 63, his lowest score of the campaign, in the opening round of the TD Waterhouse Championship to edge Ed Dougherty by two strokes. 1998: Became fully exempt for the 1999 season by garnering medalist honors at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at Grenefele...His 13-under-par 275 total was a Q-School record at the time...Made six appearances after turning 50 in June, and had his best finish at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic, finishing T4 near Sacramento.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Had a long and distinguished amateur career before turning professional in 1995...Member of two Walker Cup teams (1991-93), and also represented the United States on three World Amateur Cup teams (1990, 1992, 1994)...Joined the Nationwide Tour in March 1995 and made an immediate splash, winning three times: Mississippi Gulf Coast Classic, Texarkana Open and the Tour Championship...Was that circuit's only three-time winner, and two of those titles came in playoffs...Bested Franklin Langham in the first at the Mississippi event and then slipped by John Maginnes to win the Nationwide Tour Championship at Settindown Creek GC in Atlanta...Second to Jerry Kelly on the final money list and earned a full exemption to the 1996 PGA TOUR...At age 47, he was the oldest rookie in PGA TOUR history when he began play in 1996...In two seasons on the TOUR, he won slightly more than $200,000...Made 28 starts each year and won $136,789 in 1996, his best year on TOUR...In his final year as an amateur in 1994, he won five titles, including the Porter Cup and the Sunnehanna Amateur...Was a semifinalist at the 1992 U.S. Amateur, losing 2 and 1 to Justin Leonard at Muirfield Village...Was the medalist at the 1991 event.

PERSONAL:

Attended Norwich University (VT) on a Francis Quimet Scholarship and was eventually selected to the school's Sports Hall of Fame. Played both hockey and golf at the college and graduated as the top scoring defenseman in Norwich history and he was also the ECAC golf champion in 1970...Has been generous in support of his alma mater. Donated $1.1 million to the university in the summer of 2004 to help fund an ongoing athletic building project...Also sponsors an annual golf tournament (Allen Doyle Norwich Hockey Golf Classic) at the university which helps support the college hockey program...Says his unorthodox swing developed from practicing in a room with a low ceiling as a youngster in Massachusetts...Played on a number of amateur teams with fellow Champions Tour player Jay Sigel...Member of the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame and the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame...Once caddied for Bruce Fleisher in the late 1960s...Got started in golf while caddying at Spring Valley CC in Sharon, MA, when he was 14...Is a big sports fan, especially of the Boston Red Sox, and tries to see games whenever he is on the road...His favorite athlete of all-time is former Boston Bruins great Bobby Orr...His first car was a 1969 Mercury Montego, which he bought in 1972 for $2,500...Has carried a Scotty Cameron putter in his bag for more than a dozen years and has used only two putters in his career. Used to carry a copy of the old Tommy Armour Ironmaster before that. He has also used a Ping Eye-2 sand wedge for more than 20 years...Daughters Michelle and Erin have both qualified for several U.S. Women's Amateur Championships.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T4—SBC Championship; T6—Commerce Bank Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Used a late-season push to finish 30th on the money list and earn a berth in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Won nearly $250,000 in his last seven starts, including his largest check ever ($83,700) in the year's final full-field event at the SBC Championship. Monday-qualified in San Antonio and used a career-best T4 to vault into the top 30. Despite battling high blood pressure on Sunday, fired a 66 that included a back-nine 31, featuring five birdies. His finish moved him from 34th position into the 30th spot on money list. That performance, coupled with Jay Haas' victory, knocked Tom McKnight (29th coming into the week) down two spots and out of a trip to the season-ending event...Was not feeling well again the following week at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and withdrew after two rounds...Was the 36-hole leader by one stroke over Bob Gilder at the SAS Championship, but his closing-round 77 on Sunday left him T10. Posted rounds of 67-66 the first two days to seize sole possession of the lead before watching his chances slip away with a 7-over-par 42 on the front nine on Sunday...On the leaderboard on the weekend at the Commerce Bank Championship in July and eventually finished T6 on Long Island...Shared the first-round lead with Gil Morgan at the weather-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic after opening with a 7-under-par

65. Eventually finished T11...Was T9 at the JELD-WEN Tradition...At one point in the year, went 15 consecutive appearances with an opening round of par/better, beginning at the Toshiba Senior Classic in March...Finished second in Driving Distance (296.6), and along with Brad Bryant, shared the distinction of having the longest measured drives on the Champions Tour at 385 yards. Recorded his drive at the SBC Championship, while Bryant's came at the JELD-WEN Tradition.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Earned fully-exempt status for 2005 for the first time in his career after finishing T4 at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the King and Bear at World Golf Village in Florida...Made seven appearances during the year, with three top-25 finishes...Best showing came in his final start at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore when he open-qualified and finished T12...Member of University of Northern Colorado Hall of Fame. 2003: Played in eight events during the season, with two top-25 finishes...Was T13 at the Music City Championship in Nashville in May after open qualifying. Fired a second-round 8-under-par 64 at the Springhouse GC, matching his low round on the Champions Tour...T16 at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the close of 2003, but dropped to 17th after making bogey on the second extra hole in a 10-man playoff for the final three spots. Earned conditional exemption until mid-March when Hajime Meshiai turned 50. 2002: Conditionally exempt after finishing ninth at the 2001 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament...Played in 14 events and finished 65th on the money list...Twice finished in the top 10 during the season. Was T7 in his first start shortly after turning 50 in May at the Farmers Charity Classic and was T10 at the Allianz Championship in September...Created a buzz at the U.S. Senior Open at Caves Valley when he blistered the course with an opening-round 64 near Baltimore. Could not follow that up in his final 54 holes and eventually T37.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Has played on both the Nationwide Tour and PGA TOUR...Played the Nationwide Tour on a full-time basis from 1990-1997 before earning a spot on the PGA TOUR in both 1998 and 1999. Finished 13th on the Nationwide Tour money list in 1998 to earn his card, and then retained it for the following year...Also played some events on the PGA TOUR in 1981...Overall, played in 258 events (made 147 cuts) on the Nationwide Tour and 77 events (made 23 cuts) on the PGA TOUR prior to the 2006 season. Had won $608,704 on the Nationwide Tour and $291,734 on the PGA TOUR...Ninth on the Nationwide Tour money list in 1997 when he won the last of three titles on that Tour at the San Jose Open...Other titles came at the 1990 Quicksilver Open and the 1993 Louisiana Open...Was a runner-up five times...Most lucrative year on the PGA TOUR came in 1998 when he played 34 events and earned $199,499 to place 137th on the money list...Best finish on the PGA TOUR came in 1998 when he was T7 at the United Airlines Hawaiian Open...Was also T9 that year at the B.C. Open...At one point in his career in 1997 (after T4 at Hershey Open) he passed Olin Browne as the career money leader on the Nationwide Tour at the time...Was injured in an automobile accident following the 1996 Mississippi Gulf Coast Classic and missed nearly two months before returning and losing in a playoff to Stewart Cink at the Ozarks Open...Has 20 career holes-in-one to his credit...Member of University of Northern Colorado Hall of Fame.

PERSONAL:

Was a high school All-America selection in basketball and was a member of a Colorado state high school championship team...Being a member of that state championship squad remains his biggest thrill outside of golf...Got started in golf as a caddie...Favorite golf course is Desert Mountain in Scottsdale...Enjoys the movie "Rudy"...Occasionally uses his son as his caddie...Owns a Harley-Davidson.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $1,546,106

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:
 T12—Bank of America Championship; T24—SAS Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Had season's best showing at the Bank of America Championship in June when he was T12, including two rounds in the 60s on the weekend near Boston. That performance came during a run where he posted eight straight rounds of par or better...Shot an opening-round 66 at the Blue Angels Classic, his best round since 2003.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2002: T8 at the rain-shortened Emerald Coast Classic. 2001: T2 at the Mexico Senior Classic. Shot 7-under 65 in the opening round to share the first-round lead with Ed Dougherty. Was the 36-hole co-leader as well, but came up one stroke short of Mike McCullough on Sunday. Missed out on a playoff opportunity when McCullough birdied the 17th hole and then made a four-foot par-saving putt to win the tournament. Runner-up effort at Puebla with Jim Colbert was his best performance on the Champions Tour since capturing at the 1997 Raley's Gold Rush Classic near Sacramento. 2000: T4 at the Emerald Coast Classic. 1999: T9 at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. 1998: T5 at the Nationwide Championship, his best performance out of five top-10 efforts...Tied his career-low round by opening with a 64 at the EMC Kaanapali Classic on Maui in October. 1997: More than doubled the earnings from his rookie year, thanks to multiple wins for the first time since 1984...Picked up his first Champions Tour title at the rain-shortened Bell Atlantic Classic. A 27-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole Saturday gave him a one-stroke lead over John Bland and Bob E. Smith that proved to be the winning margin when the final round was washed out. Dedicated victory to his father, who had suffered a series of strokes the previous week...Won again late in the campaign in wire-to-wire fashion at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic. Defeated Rick Acton by two strokes after making two late birdies to secure the victory in front of a large gallery of family and friends...Tied his career-low round with a 6-under-par 64 on the second day of the Emerald Coast Classic. 1996: Became eligible for his first Champions Tour event at the American Express Invitational, and turned in par/better scores in nine of his first 10 rounds...Made a serious bid for his first Champions Tour title at the Emerald Coast Classic, rallying from a four-stroke deficit to finish in a five-way tie for first before losing to Lee Trevino in the ensuing playoff.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Last of three PGA TOUR titles came at the 1985 Byron Nelson Classic...Was the beneficiary of Payne Stewart's double-bogey on the last hole, then defeated Stewart on the first hole of their playoff...Did not win his first title, the 1984 USF&G Classic, until his 13th year on the PGA TOUR...Captured a second title later that same season at the Danny Thomas-Memphis Classic and went on to have his best year on TOUR, with $232,742 and a spot among the top-25 money-winners...First earned his player's card in the spring 1969 PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament, capturing medalist honors...Didn't start full-time on TOUR until 1972 because of a stint in the U.S. military...Had four holes-in-one on the PGA TOUR and 11 overall in competition...Inducted into the Sacramento Golf Hall of Fame early in the 2005 season and named to the California Golf Writers Association Hall of Fame in 2006.

PERSONAL:

Started to play golf at age 4 as a result of his father being in the golf business...Helped his family construct Dry Creek Ranch GC near Sacramento in the late 1960s...Spent a stint in the U.S. Army during the '60s and served in Korea...Biggest thrill in golf was having his son Scott caddie for him when he won the 1997 Raley's Gold Rush Classic in Sacramento...Has never won a tournament without his wife, Dell, in attendance.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Made a late push to secure his position among the top-30 money-winners for the second consecutive year. Started the month of September in 35th position on the money list but earned almost half of his 2004 money total in the last seven tournaments when he finished among the top 10 four times... Was the first-round leader at The First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and eventually T5, one of two top-five efforts during this fall stretch... Was on the leaderboard for most of the last 36 holes at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship and eventually T5 in Sonoma after a final-round 69... Best effort of the campaign came in mid-June when he was T3 at the weather-shortened Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am. Was involved in a car accident on Sunday morning in Kansas City and suffered minor injuries that forced him to miss the Bank of America Championship in Boston two weeks later. 2003: Among the top 30 for the first time in his career, placing 23rd on the final money list with $851,217... Birdied three of the final four holes to edge Hale Irwin, Eamonn Darcy, Tom Jenkins and Bruce Lietzke by one stroke for the MasterCard Classic title at Bosque Real CC near Mexico City. Started the final round four strokes back, but closed with a 7-under-par 65 for his first professional victory. Win earned him $300,000, the largest check of his career... Also made a late run at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Finished T2 along with Dana Quigley, one stroke back of Bruce Lietzke. Made just one bogey during the week and played his last 39 holes of the event without a blemish... Champions Tour Player of the Month for March. 2002: Made 13 appearances in his rookie season and finished 83rd on the money list with $154,510... Lone top-10 was a T9 at the SBC Senior Open... Earned fully-exempt status for 2003 after a T5 at the National Qualifying Tournament in the fall. Was tied for the first-round lead at World Woods GC with Des Smyth and then slipped back in the pack before rallying with rounds of 67-69 on the final two days of the event... T6 at the regional qualifier at Marsh Creek CC in St. Augustine, FL, to move into the finals. 2001: Was conditionally exempt for the 2002 season after finishing 14th at the National Qualifying Tournament in Calimesa, CA. Was one of four players who T14 at 3-under-par 285 and secured the 14th position when he made par on the 10th extra hole in a playoff with Mark Pfeil.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played 58 events on the PGA TOUR from 1978-81 before being reinstated as an amateur in 1986. Earned $31,014 during that period, with his best finish a T5 at the 1979 American Optical Classic in Sutton, MA... Made 30 cuts in those 58 starts. Best money-earning season came in 1979 when he won $12,804, including a career-best $8,475 at American Optical... Enjoyed a stellar amateur career. Member of three Walker Cup teams in 1989, 1991 and 2001 and a two-time member (1990, 2000) of the United States team that competed in the World Amateur Team Championships, including the victorious 2000 team... Played in nine U.S. Amateur and eight Mid-Amateur Championships. Defeated Scott Mayne, 2 and 1, at Prairie Dunes CC to win the 1988 U.S. Mid-Amateur title. Was a semifinalist at both the 1990 and 2000 U.S. Amateur, losing to Phil Mickelson in 1990 (5 and 3) and Jeff Quinney in 2000 (3 and 1)... Competed as an amateur at the 1989 Masters and the 1998 U.S. Open... Has one career hole-in-one in competition.

PERSONAL:

Served two stints as a member of the PGA TOUR staff. The first was from 1982-92 when he was Director of Tournament Administration and the second was from 1995-96 when he was the TOUR's Vice President of Competition... Also served as Senior Director of Rules and Competition at the United States Golf Association from 1992-95... Says his biggest thrill in golf was playing on three Walker Cup teams... BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T2—Toshiba Senior Classic; T6—SBC Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Improved 14 spots on the money list in his second year on the Champions Tour and finished among the top-40 money-winners in single-season earnings for the first time since turning 50. Top efforts of the 2005 campaign came in back-to-back weeks in March during the early California swing. Had a T6 at the SBC Classic near Los Angeles. Opened with an even-par 72 before firing a 7-under-par 65, which gave him a one-stroke lead over Mark McNulty after 36 holes. However, closed with a 5-over-par 77 at Valencia on Sunday. Continued his strong play at the Toshiba Senior Classic, grabbing a T2, his second consecutive top-five effort at Newport Beach, and earning $132,000, the largest check of his professional career. Trailed eventual winner Mark Johnson by three strokes entering the final round and lost by four after posting a final-round 71. Was par or better in eight of his last nine rounds of the year and matched fellow Houston Cougar John Mahaffey's 7-under 65 on Sunday at the Administaff Small Business Classic, the best rounds of the day. Improved his status for 2006 by finishing fourth at the National Qualifying Tournament in Southern California. Rebounded from an opening-round 77 at the PGA of Southern California GC. Led the Champions Tour in Total Driving, finishing fifth in Driving Distance and 23rd in Driving Accuracy.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Made 18 appearances after turning 50 in early March, primarily through the Career Victory Category. In contention for the first time on the Champions Tour when he found himself one stroke off the lead after 36 holes of the Toshiba Senior Classic. Eventually placed fourth at Newport Beach after a final-round 69. Fired 7-under-par 65 in the second round of the Administaff Small Business Classic to move up 40 spots. Round was also his lowest since shooting a second-round 64 at the 1997 Quad City Classic. 2003: Finished ninth at the 2003 National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC at Eagle Trace. Shot 72-hole total of 3-under 285, but missed earning fully-exempt status by two strokes. Tied Rafael Navarro for the ninth spot and then claimed sole possession of ninth place with a par on the first extra playoff hole.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Originally played the PGA TOUR from 1977-1986 and then requalified for the PGA TOUR at the 1995 National Qualifying Tournament and played the circuit again full time from 1995-1998. Claimed the first of his three PGA TOUR victories at the 1981 Memorial Tournament, edging Jack Renner by a stroke at Muirfield Village. Won the Georgia-Pacific Atlanta Classic a year later when he beat Raymond Floyd in a playoff. Won another playoff with Rex Caldwell to claim the 1983 Bob Hope Desert Classic. Had three top-10 finishes in major championships, including a T3 at the 1980 U.S. Open. Was a member of the Nationwide Tour in 1994, 1998-2000. Returned to competitive golf on the 1994 Nationwide Tour and won two events that year, finishing 13th on the final money list with $107,053. Made back-to-back birdies on the final two holes of the Panama City Beach Classic to win by two shots over Tommy Armour III. Defeated Bill Murchison with a par on the second playoff hole to win the Boise Open later that season. Served as the golf coach at the University of Houston from 1988-1994. Is the only three-time All-American in golf at the University of Houston (1974-1976). Won more individual titles than any other Cougar in school history, amassing 19 in his collegiate career. Runner-up to Fred Ridley at the 1975 U.S. Amateur at The CC of Virginia.

PERSONAL:

Started playing golf at age 8. Played football and basketball in high school, but enjoyed practicing golf more than other sports. Was attacked by killer bees on the driving range prior to his third round at the 1996 Nortel Open and was stung 10-15 times. His caddie, Artie Granfield, was stung 50-100 times. Began using the long putter in 1988 while coaching at the University of Houston. Has done some golf course design work on the side. Did soap commercials on television in the 1980s.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $13,986

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T4—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am; T9—Blue Angels Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Finished out of the top 40 in single-season earnings for the first time in his career...Had his two best tournaments in the first third of the season, with both top-10s coming in Florida...In contention throughout the weather-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am and eventually T4 near Tampa, his second consecutive top-10 performance at the TPC of Tampa Bay...Matched his career-low round with a 7-under 63 during first round at the Blue Angels Classic near Pensacola and eventually T9 at The Moors.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Earned nearly half his money ($301,340) in the last two months of the campaign to get into the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Had two productive weeks in August. Made a spirited run for the title in the year's last major championship at the JELD-WEN Tradition late in the month. Entered the final round tied for the lead with Peter Jacobsen and held the lead for a large portion of Sunday's final round before consecutive bogeys on Nos. 16 and 17 knocked him back into a T4, two behind Craig Stadler...Also T3 at the 3M Championship, three strokes back of Tom Kite. Performance in Minnesota was his best on the Champions Tour since 2003 U.S. Senior Open. 2003: Missed just over a month of the season with family business in South America...Won The ACE Group Classic in Naples. Played all but the first hole of the event without a bogey and notched his first Champions Tour win in three years and nine months. Three-stroke win over Des Smyth and Tom Watson included holing a 61-foot birdie putt on the last hole. Hit 44 of 54 greens in regulation at The Club at TwinEagles, including all 18 greens on Sunday...Also T2 at the Emerald Coast Classic, four strokes back of Bob Gilder, despite posting a 54-hole score of 13-under 197 that included just one bogey...Was also third at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am after being the 36-hole leader near Kansas City and third at the U.S. Senior Open, three behind Bruce Lietzke. Was the second-round leader at Inverness following a 7-under-par 64, the lowest second-round score in U.S. Senior Open history. 2002: Finished solo third at the SBC Championship in San Antonio...Was plagued by off-course distractions during the year, including deaths in his family. 2001: T2 at the Las Vegas Senior Classic. Trained Jerry McGee by three strokes entering the final round, but shot an even-par 72 and was three strokes back of Bruce Fleisher at the end...Made it to the finals of the Enterprise Rent-A-Car Match Play Championship before losing, 1-up, to Leonard Thompson. 2000: Finished second to Bruce Fleisher by two points at the Royal Caribbean Classic, a Modified Stableford event...Was also among the early leaders at the Nationwide Championship, but was edged out on the final day by Hale Irwin and T2 at the GC of Georgia...Capped his season by winning the Chrysler Senior Match Play Challenge at the Hyatt Dorado Beach in Puerto Rico. Went into the event as the lowest of 16 seeded players and upset Larry Nelson, John Jacobs and Raymond Floyd en route to the final match against Leonard Thompson. Birdied the first hole of a sudden-death playoff to beat Thompson for the title and $240,000 first-place check...Also won the Argentine Open for the seventh time, becoming the oldest ever to claim the biggest event in his home country. 1999: Among the circuit's top-10 money-winners for the first time in his career, eclipsing the seven-figure mark for the first time ever...Ended a 20-month victory drought with a two-stroke win at the Las Vegas Senior Classic. Broke a tie with Dave Eichelberger by making a 30-foot eagle putt at the 16th hole...Also came close to victory earlier in the campaign at the PGA Seniors' Championship. Shared the lead heading into the final round at PGA National, but eventually second to Allen Doyle by two strokes...Was also a runner-up at The ACE Group Classic in Naples, a distant five strokes back of Doyle. 1998: Closed with a 68 at the Las Vegas Senior Classic, but fell one stroke shy of Hale Irwin...Challenged Irwin again at the U.S. Senior Open at Riviera CC, but again came up one short. 1997: Emerged victorious at the final Bank One Classic in Lexington when he seized the lead with three holes to play and went on to record a one-stroke victory over Isao Aoki. 1996: First win was a memorable one...Posted a one-stroke victory at the Burnet Senior Classic in July and in the process, became just the fifth Monday qualifier in Champions Tour history to win a tournament. Breakthrough came in just his eighth start on the circuit...Was in contention with Hale Irwin in his first Champions Tour start before finishing third at the 1996 PGA Seniors' Championship.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Prior to joining the Champions Tour, played on the PGA European Tour for more than two decades and collected five official victories...Won the 1992 Murphy's English Open at The Belfry in dramatic fashion, sinking an 87-foot putt on the last hole for the victory. Triumph at age 46 made him the oldest winner on the European Tour since 48-year-old Neil Coles won the 1982 Sanyo Open...Initial European Tour win came in 1970, when he claimed the Heineken Dutch Open in Eindhoven...Also victorious at the Colgate PGA Championship in 1979 at St. Andrews, defeating Gary Player and Italy's Baldo Dassu by one stroke...Best season in Europe came in 1992, when he was 16th on the Order of Merit with winnings of £217,453 (well over $300,000)...Played in seven PGA TOUR events in 1977 and four the following year, making the cut in all 11 starts with winnings totaling $10,487...Best effort was BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T19—MasterCard Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Played only the first half of the year due to lower-back problems...Underwent surgery in Houston and had a fusion done on August 3 after having two discs removed. Is not expected to play again until early in the 2007 season...Best effort in 12 official appearances was a T19 at the season-opening MasterCard Championship.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Broke through for his first professional victory in nearly eight years when he defeated Graham Marsh in a three-hole playoff to win the MasterCard Classic in March near Mexico City. Had birdied the final hole in regulation, which helped him close with a 5-under-par 67, one of only two players to finish below 70 on Sunday. Appeared to be out of contention when Marsh's lead on the field grew to three strokes with six holes to play, but found himself in a playoff when Marsh three-putted holes 16 and 17 to drop back into a tie. Won the tournament with a par on the third extra hole to earn the $300,000 first prize, the largest check of his career. Victory was even more remarkable in that he had battled health issues (elevated blood pressure due to an alteration in his medication) in the second round, which nearly forced him out of the event. Medication was a result of a heart attack he suffered in January while undergoing a stress test. 2003: Became eligible for the Champions Tour in April and debuted at the Kinko's Classic of Austin (T35)...T6 at the FleetBoston Classic after three straight rounds in the 60s...Also T9 at the Turtle Bay Championship in Hawaii. 2002: Attended the 2002 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in November and finished T11 at the World Woods GC in Florida, earning a conditional exemption for the 2003 season. Also played from PGA TOUR Career Victory category.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

After enjoying three wins in a four-year span early in career, had to wait another 14 years, 8 months and 2 days for his fourth title, the 1996 Quad City Classic. Only Butch Baird, who went 15 years, 5 months and 10 days between his first and second TOUR victories, had a longer drought. Trained Tiger Woods by one stroke after 54 holes but closed with a 67 for a two-stroke victory over Andrew Magee. First-place check for $216,000 was more than he had won in any previous season on the PGA TOUR...Scored first victory in second season, winning playoff over Tom Weiskopf at 1979 Southern Open...Won 1981 Western Open by four-strokes over Jim Colbert, Greg Powers and Jim Simons despite an opening-round 74...Defeated Tom Kite in playoff to win 1982 Bob Hope Desert Classic...Best season from an earnings standpoint came in 1996 when he won $261,292...Best finish on the money list was 26th in 1983 when he won $175,619...Made three career starts on the Nationwide Tour, winning $1,890...Medalist at the 1977 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament at Pinehurst CC...Earned All-America honors at the University of Houston in 1977, the year the Cougars won the national championship. Played for the legendary coach Dave Williams.

PERSONAL:

Nicknamed "The Grip" because of his unusually strong grip on the club...Victory at Quad City postponed plans to retire from game and become a charter-boat captain...Got started in the game when he would sneak through the barbed wire onto a nine-hole course near his home in Downey, CA...Made his PGA TOUR debut in 1978 when he finished T66 at the Joe Garagiola-Tucson Open and won $325.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T5—Turtle Bay Championship, FedEx Kinko's Classic, Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach; T8—Bruno's Memorial Classic, Allianz Championship, Constellation Energy Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Streak of consecutive years with a victory on the Champions Tour was snapped at six...Finished out of the top 10 on the money list for the first time in his Champions Tour career and did not reach the seven-figure plateau in single-season earnings for the first time since joining the circuit in 1999...Still managed to finish among the top 10 in a third of his 27 appearances, highlighted by a trio of T5s during the season...Made a nice showing at the Turtle Bay Championship in late January. Tied the course scoring record with a closing-round, 7-under-par 65, his best round of 2005, to make a nice move on the Sunday leaderboard...Again finished T5 in early May at the FedEx Kinko's Classic. Trailing by one stroke entering the final round in Austin, but a 73 on Sunday moved him back in the pack...Also carded a pair of sub-70 rounds on the week-end to finish T5 at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach...Played his most consistent golf late in the year when he reeled off a Champions Tour-best 21 straight rounds of par/better and finished among the top 10 four times in six starts...Was the only player during the campaign to make a pair of aces. Made his first hole-in-one of 2005 in the opening round of the Allianz Championship at the Tournament Club of Iowa (No. 16 from 178 yards with a 4-iron). Ace marked four straight years that a hole-in-one was made at the Iowa event. Second ace, the third of his Champions Tour career and fourth overall in competition, came on Saturday of the SBC Championship (No. 9 from 163 yards with a 7-iron). Ace extended to three the streak of years at Oak Hills with at least one hole-in-one.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Got off to a fast start early in the season when he prevailed by one stroke over Dana Quigley at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic. Continued his mastery at the Crandon Park GC, winning the event for the third time in six tries. His 6-under-par total of 210 was the highest winning total in tournament history. Was the only player to finish all three rounds under par, including a final-round 71 in windy conditions. Birdied the final hole to hold off Quigley, and in the process, became the only three-time winner in tournament history. The victory also marked the second time in his career he had won the same event three times, having done so at the Home Depot Invitational from 1999-2001...Became the first multiple winner of 2004 when he went wire-to-wire near Birmingham and cawkwalked to a seven-stroke victory at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Victory was his 18th career title on the Champions Tour, and his 12th different tournament title. Made just two bogeys in the event and led the field by hitting 48 of 54 greens (90.7 percent). Winning margin at Greystone was his biggest ever...Thwarted in his bid to win a third title at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Started the final round with a three-stroke advantage, but was overtaken by Doug Tewell and finished second despite posting a 4-under 68 on Sunday...Solo third at the Ford Senior Players Championship was his best finish in that event. 2003: After placing among the top three money-winners for four straight years, slipped to 10th in official earnings...Claimed his second Verizon Classic early in the campaign. Outdueled Hale Irwin down the stretch at the TPC of Tampa Bay. Was the beneficiary of a two-stroke swing at the 17th hole on Sunday and went on to record his 16th career title on the circuit...Also challenged Tom Jenkins down the stretch at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, but finished solo second after making bogey on two of the last three holes...Made a spirited bid for another victory at the Columbus Southern Open, but his closing-round, 8-under-par 62 fell two strokes shy of eventual winner Morris Hatalesky...Opened with a 7-under-par 64 at the FleetBoston Classic in August and hung in contention for the duration before falling by three strokes to Allen Doyle and finishing T2 along with Bob Gilder...Also T2 at the Allianz Championship despite shooting a 7-under 64 in the second round, the low 18-hole score in the event. 2002: Recorded 20 top-10 finishes with 46 rounds in the 60s, both second to Hale Irwin (22/50)...Claimed his first title in more than 12 months when he had a record-setting performance at the RJR Championship. Was a five-stroke victor over Hale Irwin, and in the process, set Champions Tour 36- and 54-hole scoring records. His 54-hole total of 191 (19-under-par) broke the previous three-round low by two strokes (set in 1989 by Bob Charles and later matched by Charles Coody in 1991 and Gibby Gilbert in 1992) and his 36-hole score also broke the old mark by two strokes (set by Jim Colbert in 1994 and matched by Hale Irwin in 1997). Opened the tournament by tying the Champions Tour record with a 60 (10-under-par) that included pars on the last four holes, 10 birdies and 23 putts on the par-70 Tanglewood course. Victory made him the last of three wire-to-wire winners during the year (Tom Kite, MasterCard Championship, and Bob Gilder, FleetBoston Classic. 2001: Earned over $2 million for the third straight year and went down to the wire with Allen Doyle for the top spot in the first Charles Schwab Cup competition and the money list...Among his three victories was his first major championship on the Champions Tour at the U.S. Senior Open...Joined Doyle as the only players to finish in the top 10 in all four senior major championships...Of his 94 rounds, 48 were in the 60s, and he had 70 sub-par rounds...Claimed his biggest career title at the U.S. Senior Open at Salem CC near Boston, one year after losing the 54-hole lead at Saucon Valley and finishing second to Hale Irwin. Was among four players four strokes back with one round to play, but carded a steady 68 in the final round to edge Gil Morgan and Isao Aoki by one stroke...Earlier in the year, overcame a two-stroke deficit entering the final round of the Las Vegas Senior Classic to win by three strokes...Became just the sixth player in Champions Tour history to win the same event three straight times when he triumphed at The Home Depot Invitational with a tournament-record score of 15-under 201. Was the only player in the field to post three rounds in the 60s and was three strokes better than John Bland. 2000: Successfully defended three titles during the year...Edged Vicente Fernandez by two points at the Royal Caribbean Classic, thanks to five birdies on Sunday in the Modified Stableford format event...Bested Hubert Green in a playoff at The Home Depot Invitational, making birdie on the third extra hole of overtime. Went wire-to-wire for the second year in a row to claim the Lightpath Long Island Classic, defeating Dana Quigley by two strokes...Had outdistanced Quigley by four strokes earlier in the year at the GTE Classic in Tampa and earned February Player of the Month honors. GTE Classic win gave him nine victories in his first 36 senior career starts and the nine wins came in a period of one year, 15 days, the fastest anyone has reached that mark in Champions Tour history...Suffered his most disappointing defeat of the season at the U.S. Senior Open at Saucon Valley. Fired a course-record, 7-under 64 on the first day and was also the 36- and 54-hole leader before being overtaken by Hale Irwin on Sunday. 1999: Was the dominant player on the Champions Tour and collected all top post-season honors including Player of the Year, Rookie of the Year and the Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average (69.19)...Was the first rookie since Lee Trevino in 1990 to win the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner with $2,515,705 ($78,894/start), the second highest single-season total in the history of the circuit at the time...Also joined Trevino (1990), Bruce Crampton (1986) and Miller Barber (1981) as the only players to win seven official events in their first year on the Champions Tour...Had 56 rounds in the 60s, a record at the time, and was under par in 75 of his 96 rounds played (78.1 percent)...Became the eighth player in Champions Tour history to win his debut when he went wire-to-wire in claiming the Royal Caribbean Classic at Key Biscayne...Won the American Express Invitational in Sarasota by three strokes over Larry Nelson the very next week to become the first player ever to claim his first two starts on the circuit...Added a third title in late April at The Home Depot Invitational, edging Terry Dill and Jim Holtgrieve by a stroke in Charlotte...Used a 9-under-par 63 on Saturday, his low round of the year, to nip Al Geiberger by a shot for the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland title in Nashville...Went wire-to-wire in early August to clip Allen Doyle by two strokes at the Lightpath Long Island Classic...Outdueled Doyle again late in the season at The Transamerica, then clinched the money title two weeks later by edging Doyle again at the EMC Kaanapali Classic. 1998: Earned a full exemption for the 1999 season after finishing second at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at Grenelefe...Fired four consecutive sub-par rounds and ended up three strokes back of Allen Doyle.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played 410 events on the PGA TOUR, starting as an amateur in 1969 through the 1998 season, with earnings of nearly $1.7 million...Made 280 cuts in his career and probably enjoyed his greatest success in a three-year span in the early 1990s...Won his only PGA TOUR title in 1991 when he went seven extra holes to defeat Ian Baker-Finch, who would go on to win the British Open the next week. Rolled in 50-foot birdie putt on seventh playoff hole to defeat Baker-Finch...Had his best year in 1992 when he won $236,516 and finished 68th on the money list...Posted the first of four runner-up finishes when he was second at the 1974 Quad Cities Classic. Other second-place finishes were at the 1978 Magnolia Classic, the 1981 USF&G New Orleans Open and the 1993 New England Classic...Co-winner of the 1991 Hilton Bounceback Award...Joined the PGA TOUR on a full-time basis in 1972 after a much-heralded amateur career...Winner of the 1968 U.S. Amateur at Scioto CC in Columbus, OH...That victory earned him the honor of playing the first round of the 1969 Masters with Arnold Palmer, where he bested The King, 69-73...Won the 1989 PGA Club Pro Championship and was a member of the victorious U.S. team in the 1990 PGA Cup matches...Member of the 1969 Walker Cup team...Won a national junior college title...Won a gold medal in golf at the 1969 World Maccabiah Games in Israel and coached the team that represented the U.S. there in 1989...Has had four career holes-in-one in competition.

PERSONAL:

Worked as a club professional in the mid-to-late 1980s, including a stint at Williams Island CC in North Miami Beach...Lists Arnold Palmer and President George W. Bush as his heroes...Favorite golf course is Muirfield Village...Got started in golf at age 7 by working as a caddy with his two brothers...Says the biggest influence in his career was Henry Atkinson, an assistant pro in Wilmington, NC, and the person who helped teach him the golf swing and how to play the game...His favorite meal is his wife's fried chicken, with mashed potatoes on the side.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T8—Allianz Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Made 12 total appearances, with best finish a T8 at the Allianz Championship, his second straight top-10 in Iowa...Returned to the site of his 1969 PGA Championship victory and was in contention for most of the U.S. Senior Open before finishing T14 after a final-round 77. Was presented with an honorary membership to NCR CC after his second round...Played in four Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions events and finished seventh on the final Georgia-Pacific money list, with $66,438. Finished second to Jay Sigel in the Georgia-Pacific event at the Bruno's Memorial Classic and T3 at the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship just north of Atlanta...Made his 41st Masters appearance but failed to make the cut.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Played his best golf during a three-week stretch in May. Was T4 at the Allianz Championship, thanks to a final-round 66 at Glen Oaks, the low round of the day, and the performance near Des Moines was his best since 2001 campaign...One week earlier, played in the final group on Sunday at the FedEx Kinko's Classic but finished T27 after a final-round 75 at The Hills...Also T10 at the rain-soaked Senior PGA Championship at Valhalla, his first top-10 effort in a major since 2001. 2003: Underwent successful prostate cancer surgery at Johns Hopkins Medical Center in late December 2002. In first start since the surgery, finished T9 at the SBC Classic in March. 2001: A final-round 67 helped him to a T2 at the Verizon Classic in early February, three strokes back of winner Bob Gilder...Made a run at The Transamerica only to come up one stroke short along with Doug Tewell, when Sammy Rachels eagled the final hole for victory. 2000: Voted by his peers as the Comeback Player of the Year...Highlight of year came during July when he had sub-par scores in 10 consecutive rounds and was selected as the Player of the Month. Closed with a final-round 67 at Saucun Valley to place fourth in the U.S. Senior Open and then won his next start at the Ford Senior Players Championship, defeating Larry Nelson and Dana Quigley by a stroke. Second win in Dearborn ended a victory drought of four years and two days and at 57 years, 10 months and 12 days, made him the oldest ever at the time to claim a senior major championship since the Champions Tour started in 1980. Pocketed the largest check of his career, $345,000, when he rallied from six strokes back on the final day to win, the biggest comeback effort in Ford Senior Players history and the best come-from-behind effort on the Champions Tour that year along with John Jacobs (Bruno's Memorial Classic)...Made the first of 16 holes-in-one on the Champions Tour that season when he aced the third hole in the opening round of the Royal Caribbean Classic, the second hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career. 1999: T2 at the MasterCard Championship in Hawaii, three strokes back of John Jacobs...Also fell one stroke short of Hale Irwin at the Ameritech Senior Open. 1998: Captured a fifth straight Senior Skins Game title in January...T2 at the LG Championship, two strokes short of Gil Morgan, who holed a sand wedge for eagle on the final hole for the victory. 1996: Went over the million-dollar mark for third year in succession...A two-stroke winner over Hale Irwin at Ford Senior Players Championship...Also third at The Tradition and U.S. Senior Open. 1995: Only out of top 10 twice in 21 events with wins at PGA Seniors' Championship, Burnet Senior Classic and Emerald Coast Classic...Earned second Byron Nelson Award for lowest scoring average (69.47)...Second to Jim Colbert on final money list when he fell just one stroke shy of defending title at Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship...Birdied final hole at Burnet Senior Classic to edge Graham Marsh and bested Tom Wargo on second extra playoff hole to win Emerald Coast Classic. Recorded his first Champions Tour hole-in-one at that Pensacola event. 1994: Earned over $1 million for first time in pro career and won four times, including dramatic victory at season-ending GOLF MAGAZINE SENIOR TOUR Championship. Overcame a six-stroke deficit on the final day and then holed a birdie putt on fifth extra hole to defeat Jim Albus...Won his first Champions Tour major at The Tradition, beating Dale Douglass in overtime...Also went wire-to-wire at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic...Earned the Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average (69.08) and joined Don January and Lee Trevino as the only players at the time to win both a Byron Nelson Trophy and the Vardon Trophy (PGA TOUR-1983). 1993: Split his time between the Champions Tour and PGA TOUR...Made just 14 Champions Tour starts, but still finished ninth on the final money list...Captured the Gulfstream Aerospace Invitational in record form when he finished 22-under-par 194 to set a Champions Tour mark in relation to par for 54 holes...Also won the Northville Long Island Classic by two strokes over five other players...Was a wild-card selection for the Ryder Cup team and was instrumental in leading the United States squad to victory at The Belfry. 1992: Won three times in just seven starts and capped the year by claiming the SENIOR TOUR Championship in Puerto Rico...During the fall campaign, had defeated Isao Aoki at the Ralphs Senior Classic with a 54-hole score of 18-under 198...Made history when he became the first player to win on both Tours (since matched by Craig Stadler) with his win at Ford Senior Players Championship and B.C. Open in 2003) in the same year...First captured his 22nd PGA TOUR event and third Doral-Ryder Open...With that title, he joined Sam Snead as the only players to win TOUR events in four different decades...Won the GTE North Classic title just 16 days after turning 50 and donated winner's check of $67,500 to Hurricane Andrew Relief Fund.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

The winner of 36 TOUR events, including 14 on the Champions Tour...Has shown his mettle in the major championships on both Tours...Won a second Ford Senior Players Championship crown (2000/also won in 1996) to go with his victories at The Tradition (1994) and PGA Seniors' Championship (1995) title on the Champions Tour...On the PGA TOUR, earned wins at The Masters (1976), U.S. Open (1986), PGA Championship (1969, 1981) and THE PLAYERS Championship (1981)...Has enjoyed immense success in Florida, with nine TOUR victories...Became the oldest player to compete in the Ryder Cup matches and was instrumental in helping lead the United States to victory at The Belfry in his eighth appearance in 1993. Previously played for the American side in the biennial matches in 1969, 1975, 1977, 1981, 1985 and 1991, while serving as captain of the 1989 United States team at The Belfry...Won his 1976 Masters title by eight strokes, a record finally broken by Tiger Woods in 1997...Won the 1981 PLAYERS Championship in a playoff over Curtis Strange and Barry Jaeckel...Opened with a 63 at the 1982 PGA Championship at Southern Hills and went wire-to-wire...Came from behind with a 66 on Sunday at Shinnecock Hills to win the 1986 U.S. Open at age 43...Won his first event, the 1963 St. Petersburg Open, at age 20...Has had five holes-in-one on the PGA TOUR and two on the Champions Tour.

PERSONAL:

His family was named by Golfweek as the 1994 "Golf Family of the Year"...Also selected Golf World's "Man of the Year" for 1992...The son of L.B., a career Army man, he was exposed to golf at an early age in Fayetteville, NC, but chose to pursue baseball until capturing the National Jaycees golf title in 1960...Remains a devoted Chicago Cubs fan...Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1989...He has two sons: Raymond, Jr., a Wake Forest graduate, works at the investment firm Lazard Freres in New York, and Robert, who is pursuing a professional golf career...His daughter Christina, also a Wake Forest graduate, works in public relations in New York City.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $17,849,352

BEST 2005 PGA TOUR FINISHES: 1—THE PLAYERS Championship; 3—FedEx St. Jude Classic; T7—Nissan Open.

2005 SEASON:

Earned a career-best $2,830,046 on the PGA TOUR, 11th on the final earnings list...Became the oldest winner of THE PLAYERS Championship at 48 years, 9 months, 14 days, defeating Tom Lehman, Scott Verplank and Luke Donald by a stroke on the tournament's third Monday finish in the last six years. After weather played havoc with the field over the first four days of the tournament, had to play 33 holes on Monday to capture his seventh career win. Was able to get up and down from the greenside bunker and pour in a six-foot putt to get to 9-under 279, then sat and waited as Donald and Joe Durant, who were one stroke behind with one hole to play, failed to make birdie to force a playoff. Third player in tournament history with local ties to win THE PLAYERS Championship (Mark McCumber in 1988 and David Duval in 1999). One of two players to post sub-par third- and fourth-round scores with his 71-71 (J.L. Lewis, 70-70) during 25 mph wind conditions that saw gusts up to 40 mph. Led the tournament in Driving Accuracy (85.7 percent) and Greens in Regulation (80.6 percent). Matched Tom Kite for most appearances in the event prior to winning, going 15 years before claiming the title. Earned five-year PGA TOUR exemption... Two months later, four rounds in the 60s led to his third top-10 of the season, a third at the FedEx St. Jude Classic...First top-10 came in fifth start of season, a T7 at the rain-shortened Nissan Open...Earned position on his second U.S. Presidents Cup team...Capped year by winning the Merrill Lynch Skins Game, where he won 15 skins and $925,000.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Winner of seven PGA TOUR events in 17 years on the PGA TOUR, highlighted by win at THE PLAYERS Championship in 2005...Victory at the 2004 Southern Farm Bureau Classic was his first in over six years and his second triumph at Annandale. Won for first time since July, 1998 and ended drought of 196 tournaments, including 10 runner-up finishes during that span. Became second two-time winner of the Mississippi event after making birdie on the final hole to defeat rookie Ryan Palmer by one stroke (Brian Henninger 1994, 1996). Tied 72-hole tournament record on current course with 22-under 266 total (Steve Lowery, Skip Kendall/2000)...Earned two-stroke win at 1998 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic. Birdied four holes on Sunday back nine on way to 66 and two-stroke victory at Annandale...Nearly became two-time winner for first time since 1995 at Buick Challenge, losing a playoff when Steve Elkington parred first extra hole...Earned fourth victory in five-year stretch, at 1996 B.C. Open. Third-round 63 moved him into share of lead with Pete Jordan. After birdies on four of six holes Sunday, round was canceled due to rain and tournament was reduced to 36 holes. Hit 7-iron approach on first extra hole to within 10 inches to secure victory...Nearly won again the following week when rain reduced Buick Challenge to 36 holes. Was part of five-man playoff won by Michael Bradley...Won Ideon Classic by one stroke over Jim McGovern...Entered final round of Buick Challenge tied with Steve Stricker before closing 67 gave him one-stroke victory...First PGA TOUR victory came at 1992 Shell Houston Open. Grabbed one-stroke lead with course-record 62 in third round, then shot closing 70 for two-stroke win...Shot 59 on TPC at Scottsdale (Desert Course) during pro-am at Phoenix Open that same year...Won Foot-Joy National Assistant Pro Championship in 1984...Finished ninth on the 2004 Ryder Cup team points list to make American Ryder Cup team at age 48, the oldest player to finish in top 10 U.S. Ryder Cup points...Topped $2 million in single-season earnings on the PGA TOUR for four consecutive seasons (2002-05) and finished among the top-30 money-winners in each of those years...Was the PGA TOUR's leader in Driving Accuracy seven times in his 17-year career, including three straight seasons from 2003-05.

PERSONAL:

Golf coach at University of Maryland from 1982 through 1988...Also worked as newspaper circulation supervisor before joining PGA TOUR...One of the first TOUR players to have LASIK surgery. His bag sponsor is Dr. Whitten & Associates.

2004: Returned to the Champions Tour for the last two full-field events of the year...Appearance at the inaugural Administaff Small Business Classic was his first since the Toshiba Senior Classic in March, 2003. Finished 74th near Houston and then finished 75th at the SBC Championship in San Antonio the very next week...Highlight of his year was son Brent winning the Chrysler Classic of Greensboro event 28 years after his triumph in the same North Carolina city. Duo became the first father/son tandem to win the same PGA TOUR event. 2000: Won the season-ending Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship. Defeated Jim Albus with a par on the second playoff hole and pocketed $138,000, his largest check as a professional. 1999: Lost out in a four-man playoff with Allen Doyle, John Jacobs and eventual champion Gary McCord at the Toshiba Senior Classic...Also was second at the Boone Valley Classic, one stroke short of Bruce Fleisher at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland...Had three wins in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions...Recorded a double eagle at the Novell Utah Showdown, his second albatross on the Champions Tour. 1998: Won four Grand Champions events overall...Claimed the Grand Champions title at the Pittsburgh Senior Classic and then went on to finish fourth overall at Sewickley Heights GC...Also won the over-60 title at the BankBoston Classic and eventually finished T5 at Nashawtuc...Closed out the year with a solo second place finish at the MasterCard Champions Championship, just two strokes behind winner Bob Charles...Played in the PGA Championship at Sahalee CC with son Brent, the first time a father and son both competed in that prestigious event in the same year.

1997: Top performance of the year came in the season's first official event, the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai, where he T4...Only other top-10 came at the final Bank One Classic, the same week he joined the ranks of the MasterCard Champions. Won the 60-and-over event in his debut, and was the 36-hole leader in the event, but faltered on the back nine on Sunday at Kearney Hill Links, eventually finishing T6. 1996: Rebounded from off-season foot surgery (bone spurs in right big toe) to claim first title in almost three years in his first start at the Greater Naples Intellinet Challenge. Second-round 63 gave him a three-stroke lead after 36 holes, but he needed a birdie on 17th in final round to clinch one-stroke victory over Isao Aoki...Voted the Champions Tour Comeback Player of the Year. 1994: Played in just seven events after missing most of the year with a torn rotator cuff in his left shoulder...Underwent surgery in March and did not return until October at Raley's Senior Gold Rush, where he finished T5. 1993: Won second straight Infiniti Tournament of Champions to start the year, and had an additional victory at the GTE West Classic. 1992: Started the year with a three-stroke win at the Infiniti Tournament of Champions. 1991: Rallied to win the Kroger Senior Classic after a T2 at the Southwestern Bell Classic the week before. 1989: Won GTE Northwest Classic and teamed with Harold Henning for win in unofficial Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 1988: In first full season on Champions Tour, had a win at The Pointe/Del E. Webb Arizona Classic and five second-place finishes. 1987: Found immediate success on the Champions Tour after turning 50 in September, posting three wins and a second-place effort...Fired senior career-best 62 in final round at Las Vegas Senior Classic that helped him to four-stroke win...The $135,000 he collected for his initial Champions Tour victory at the Vantage Championship, a two-stroke victory over Dave Hill, was nearly three times more than his biggest paycheck on the PGA TOUR ($54,000, 1979 Colonial)...Also defeated Jim Ferree in a playoff for the Hilton Head International title.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Won 11 times in 25 years on the PGA TOUR...On June 10, 1977, he became the first player to break 60 in an official PGA TOUR event, firing a 13-under-par 59 in the second round of the Danny Thomas-Memphis Classic (later equaled by Chip Beck at the 1991 Las Vegas Invitational at Sunrise GC and David Duval at the 1999 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic at PGA West). Carded 11 birdies and one eagle that day at Colonial CC to earn the nickname "Mr. 59." His run of six birdies and an eagle is still a PGA TOUR record...Saved his best efforts for the toughest courses, winning the 1965 American Golf Classic and 1966 PGA Championship at Firestone CC, the 1975 Tournament Players Championship and 1979 Colonial National Invitation at Colonial CC, and the 1976 Western Open at Butler National...1954 National Jaycee Champion...Member of the 1967 and 1975 United States Ryder Cup teams...Has six career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Introduced to the game at age 5 by his parents and lists his dad and Byron Nelson as his biggest heroes...On the PGA TOUR, he endorsed Skippy peanut butter and still carries a peanut butter sandwich in his bag for snacking during competitive rounds...Received the 1999 Family of the Year Award from the Metropolitan Golf Writers Association in New York...Son, Brent, plays the PGA TOUR and won both the 1999 Canon Greater Hartford Open for his first TOUR win and 2004 Chrysler Classic of Greensboro tournament. Another son, John, is the head golf coach at Pepperdine, the 1997 NCAA men's golf champion, and a third son, Bryan, played golf at Oregon State...Daughter Lee Ann is an assistant to a publisher for an Italian children's book publishing company in Milan, Italy...Lists Cypress Point as his favorite golf course and enjoys watching Everybody Loves Raymond and Cheers reruns on television...Favorite athletes are Jerry West and Sandy Koufax.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $1,056,506

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T18—FedEx Kinko's Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Played just 10 official events, fewest in his Champions Tour career... Teamed with Mike Hill to finish fifth in the Raphael Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf... A closing-round 69 helped him to a T18 finish at the FedEx Kinko's Classic.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Finished solo fifth, along with partner Jim Dent, in the Raphael Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 2003: Underwent hip and lower-back surgery in the offseason. 2002: Won the season-ending Georgia-Pacific event in Oklahoma City, defeating Dave Stockton and Mike Hill by one stroke. Win was worth $150,000 and vaulted him to a second place on the final Grand Champions money list... T8 at the SBC Senior Classic near Los Angeles. Defeated George Archer by one stroke at that event to win first Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title of his career. 2000: Missed almost three months of the summer season when he was operated on for bone spurs at the end of his collar bone and right rotator cuff. Did not play any events from mid-June until mid-September. 1998: T2 at the MasterCard Championship. 1997: Despite a hip injury, earned his sixth Champions Tour title at the year's first full-field event, a four-stroke win over David Graham at the Royal Caribbean Classic. 1996: Captured first title in three years at the inaugural Boone Valley Classic. Was seemingly out of contention on the final day after a quadruple bogey on the second hole and trailed by six strokes on the front nine. Battled his way back with six birdies over the final 14 holes, including one at the 18th that forced a playoff with Hale Irwin. Won with a par on the first playoff hole and earned the largest check of his professional career: $180,000. 1993: Won the Las Vegas Senior Classic thanks to a second-round 63, his lowest score of the year, to hold off Mike Hill by one stroke. 1992: Posted back-to-back victories at the Southwestern Bell Classic and Kroger Senior Classic... Became the first of only two Champions Tour players to win back-to-back events with sub-200 scores. Never looked back after firing an 8-under-par 62 in the opening round of the Southwestern Bell event. In Kansas City, equaled a then-Champions Tour numerical record with a 17-under-par 193 total, and also tied the largest 54-hole victory margin ever on the Champions Tour (nine strokes). One week later, defeated good friend J.C. Snead on the second hole of a playoff to win the Kroger event after both had posted 15-under 198 totals... Matched his PGA TOUR career victory total with a late-summer triumph at the First of America Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Collected more than $1 million in official earnings on the PGA TOUR from 1968-1985 and was exempt for 14 of those 17 years... First of his three PGA TOUR wins came at the 1970 Houston Champions International, where he defeated Bruce Crampton in a playoff... Best year was 1980, when he earned more than $100,000 for the only time in his TOUR career... A runner-up, with Jack Newton, to Seve Ballesteros in the 1980 Masters... Along with several others, owns the course record at the fabled Pinehurst No. 2 Course, shooting 62 during the 1973 World Open. At the time, the score shattered the old mark by three strokes... Has made nine aces in competition.

PERSONAL:

Lists Arnold Palmer as his hero... Enjoys spending time with his family... Got started in golf at age 13 by his father... Lists Pebble Beach, Pinehurst No. 2 and Harbour Town as his favorite golf courses... Former member of Champions Tour Division Board... Son Gibby III has played on the Nationwide Tour... Biggest thrill was winning his first PGA TOUR event in Houston in 1970... Always marks his ball tails up with a penny... Enjoys "Monday Night Football."

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:
1—Constellation Energy Classic; T2—SAS Championship; T4—Allianz Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Only Champions Tour player to compete in all 28 official events...Claimed his eighth career victory on the Champions Tour at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore. Win ended a victory drought of 2 years, 4 months, 28 days. Despite a double bogey in the final round, became the second consecutive wire-to-wire winner at Hayfields CC, and his 18-under-par 198 total equaled the tournament record. Opened with a course-record-tying 64 and cruised to a four-stroke triumph over Morris Hatafsky. Needed just 78 putts and credited a switch to the "claw" putter grip three months earlier for his success near Baltimore...First experimented with the "claw" after first round of the Allianz Championship and was among the leaders of that event after 36 holes. Eventually T4 near Des Moines after a final-round 70...Following his win in Baltimore, nearly made it two wins in succession when he battled Hale Irwin down the stretch at the SAS Championship before eventually finishing T2, two behind Irwin.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Finished outside the top-20 money-winners for the first time in his Champions Tour career...Played his best golf from May into early June, finishing third three times in five appearances...T3 for the second consecutive year at the FedEx Kinko's Classic in Austin. Helped his cause with a final-round, 7-under-par 65, the low round of the tournament and his best round of the year...Shared the 36-hole lead at the Farmers Charity Classic with Andy Bean before slipping back into a T3, with a final-round 71. Had a pair of eagles in carding an opening-round 66 in Grand Rapids...Followed with another strong showing the next week near Kansas City, T3 at the weather-shortened Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am...Also on the leaderboard throughout the U.S. Senior Open and finished solo fifth at Bellerive, his best performance in a senior major since the 2002 JELD-WEN Tradition. 2003: Among his nine top-10 finishes were a win, three seconds and a third...Played some of his best golf during a one-month stretch starting in late April with his seventh Champions Tour win at the Emerald Coast Classic. His 54-hole 17-under 193 total shattered the tournament record by three strokes, and was also the lowest 54-hole winning score on the Champions Tour. Closing-round 63 in Pensacola was also the best finish by a winner in 2003. Used a second-round 64 to vault himself into a tie with Tom Watson after 36 holes and then cruised easily to the title after shooting a 7-under 63 on Easter Sunday. Made 23 birdies over 54 holes, the most by any player in the field, and birdied both par-5s at The Moors all three days...Champions Tour's April Player of the Month...Came close to defending his title at the FleetBoston Classic in August after rounds of 68-65-68, but fell three strokes shy, finishing T2 with Bruce Fleisher behind Allen Doyle...Went head-to-head with Jim Thorpe at the Long Island Classic two weeks later but lost by one stroke. Had an opportunity to birdie the final hole and set up a potential playoff with Thorpe, but missed a six-foot birdie attempt on the final hole to finish second. 2002: Had his most-productive season as a professional, with four wins and earnings totaling $2,367,637...Was the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for July and September after recording a pair of victories in consecutive weeks during each month...In July, became the first player since Jim Thorpe in 2001 to claim back-to-back events and the first professional since Lee Elder (1985) to win consecutive tournaments on the Champions Tour in playoffs. Defeated John Mahaffey with a birdie-3 on the third extra hole to win the FleetBoston Classic at Nashawtuc. Became the first wire-to-wire winner in the 22-year history of the event and just the third player ever to win both a PGA TOUR (1982 Bank of Boston Classic) and Champions Tour event in the Boston area (Arnold Palmer, Bruce Fleisher the others). Fell into playoff after making bogey on the final hole, ending a run of 64 straight holes without a blemish...Defeated Hale Irwin a week earlier with a par on the first hole of a playoff to win the SBC Senior Open in Chicago. Trained Irwin by one stroke with two holes to play in regulation, but made a crucial 15-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole to send the tournament to a playoff. Moved into the lead on Saturday with a course-record 63 on the Port Course at Harborside International...In September, rallied from two strokes down with eight holes to play to win the Allianz Championship. Dueted John Bland down the stretch and took the lead for good when Bland made bogey on the 17th hole at Glen Oaks. Victory in Des Moines was his third of the season, a first for him since claiming three PGA TOUR events in 1982...Added a fourth victory, and his third in a playoff, when he bested Tom Jenkins with a birdie-3 on the second extra hole to win the Kroger Senior Classic. Had just one bogey during the event at the TPC at River's Bend (No. 3, second round). Helped his cause by posting the first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career on Friday...Became the second player to go over the $2-million mark after pocketing $50,700 for a T5 at the Napa Valley Championship...His eight consecutive rounds in the 60s was the best streak on the Champions Tour in 2002...Led all players with 399 birdies. 2001: Was named Rookie of the Year, thanks to a pair of victories and 11 other top-10 finishes...Earnings of over $1.6 million were more than five times greater than his best year on the PGA TOUR (1982: $308,648)...Started and ended the season on a positive note...Closed with a 4-under 67 at the TPC of Tampa Bay to win the Verizon Classic by three strokes over four players. Only needed 75 total putts over three days for his Verizon title, his first win on TOUR in 18 years and 18 days (1983 Phoenix Open)...Became a multiple champion for the first time since 1982 when he closed the year with a victory at the SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia. Was the first-round leader in Oklahoma City and stayed close to the lead over the next two days. Eventually edged Doug Tewell by a stroke in windy conditions despite carding a 1-over 73, the highest finishing score by a winner since the 1999 Lightpath Long Island Classic. 2000: Cruised to medalist honors at the 2000 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament despite playing all four days with a sprained left ankle and kidney stones. His 72-hole total of 19-under 269 shattered the Q-school scoring record and his seven-stroke margin of victory over Bill Holstead and Terry Mauney at Eagle Pines GC was the second-largest winning margin ever in a National Qualifying final.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the PGA TOUR in 1976 after successfully earning his first player's card at the Qualifying School in the Fall of 1975 on his third try...Made 646 starts on the PGA TOUR and 42 more on the Nationwide Tour before embarking on his Champions Tour career...Played the Nationwide Tour on a full-time basis in 1997...First of six career victories on the PGA TOUR came in the 1976 Phoenix Open, where he overtook Roger Maltbie to win by two strokes. Victory came in his second start on the circuit (missed cut at Tucson the week before)...Last official win also came in Phoenix again in 1983, this time in a playoff with Johnny Miller, Rex Caldwell and Mark O'Meara...Had his best year on the PGA TOUR in 1982 when he won three times: Byron Nelson Classic, Manufacturers Hanover-Westchester Classic, Bank of Boston Classic. His four-round score of 22-under 266 at the Nelson was the lowest in the tournament's 16 years at Preston Trail GC...Posted a 19-under-par 261 score to win at Westchester. Highlight of that performance was a third-round double eagle on 509-yard 18th hole. Fairway marker commemorates the feat and marks the exact spot where he hit 3-wood...Was also a playoff winner over Jack Newton and Bob Charles in the 1974 New Zealand Open...Defeated John Mahaffey by two strokes in the 1988 Isuzu Kapalua International...Claimed three titles in Japan: 1982 Bridgestone International, 1988 Acom Team title (with Doug Tewell), 1990 Acom P.T...Was a member of the American team in the 1982 USA vs. Japan Team Matches and the 1983 Ryder Cup...Has two career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

A collegiate teammate of Tom Purtzer, Howard Twitty and Morris Hatalsky at Arizona State. Joined the team as a walk-on and eventually won the Western Athletic Conference individual title in 1973 and was an honorable mention All-America...Enjoys racing cars and raced seriously from 1985-92 in some Trans-Am races...Enjoys spy movies...Favorite golf course is Harbour Town GL in South Carolina...Says the best shot of his career was his double eagle in the third round on the 18th hole at Westchester in 1982.

2005 SEASON:

Did not compete during the year.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Withdrew during the final round of the Bank of America Championship in late June and was later diagnosed with congestive heart failure that sidelined him for the remainder of the year...Played in 12 events earlier in the season, with his best effort a 52nd in the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 2002: Recorded the 10th hole-in-one of his professional career in the final round of the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. 2001: Spent two months away from the circuit early in the year while his wife, Maureen, underwent open-heart surgery. Returned at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in early April and, along with partner Bruce Fleisher, T2 in the rain-shortened better-ball event. 2000: Teamed with Bruce Fleisher to finish second at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, one stroke behind Jim Colbert and Andy North. 1999: Defeated Larry Mowry by four strokes at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic. Opened with a sizzling 9-under 63 then rebounded from a two-stroke deficit after 36 holes with a final-round 65. 1998: Defeated Dave Stockton in a Champions Tour-record, 10-hole sudden-death playoff at the Royal Caribbean Classic...He and partner Hugh Baiocchi lost a two-hole playoff to Dale Douglass and Charles Coody at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. 1997: Secured three victories and was among the top five nine times...Won twice early in the year at the GTE Classic and the Southwestern Bell Dominion, then claimed his third title in September at the Comfort Classic...Picked up his first Champions Tour win by three strokes in Tampa, but his other two victories were nail-biters...Eagled the final hole at Dominion CC to slip past John Jacobs in San Antonio and then birdied the final hole in Indianapolis for a one-stroke victory over Larry Nelson and Bud Allin...Recorded his first Champions Tour hole-in-one at Ralphs Senior Classic. 1996: Made his debut at the Bruno's Memorial Classic in June and competed in 19 events...Was one of the players in the record five-man playoff at the Emerald Coast Classic and won on the first extra hole with a birdie by Lee Trevino.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Probably best known as a winner of two major championships, the 1979 PGA Championship and the 1981 U.S. Open...Birdied the third extra hole at Oakland Hills CC to defeat Ben Crenshaw for the PGA title...At Merion GC in the 1981 U.S. Open, he trailed George Burns by three strokes after 54 holes, but played one of the finest finishing rounds in Open history, a 3-under-par 67 that included hitting all 18 greens in regulation. Won by one stroke over Burns and Bill Rogers...First victory on the PGA TOUR came in the 1972 Cleveland Open, where he defeated close friend Bruce Devlin in a playoff...Made more than $100,000 in six consecutive TOUR campaigns (1979-84), with the high mark coming in 1983 when he collected $244,924. Claimed his last TOUR victory that year, coming from five strokes back on Sunday afternoon to win the Houston Coca-Cola Open...Teamed with Devlin to win the World Cup for Australia and was on the winning Australian Dunhill Cup team in 1985 and again in 1986...Was selected as the first captain of the International Team for the 1994 Presidents Cup...Has had 10 holes-in-one in his professional career.

PERSONAL:

Discovered the game of golf when he was 13...Found a set of left-handed clubs in his garage and played with them for two years before making the switch to a right-handed set...Worked in a golf shop in Melbourne, Australia, at age 16 and, after a three-year apprenticeship, took a head professional job at a nine-hole course in Tasmania...Became a touring professional in the late 1960s, first in Australia and then the Far East...Awarded the Order of Australia by Queen Elizabeth II in 1992 for contributions to the game...Inducted into the Australian Sports Hall of Fame and the Australian Golf Hall of Fame...A member of the Masters Tournament Cup & Tee Committee, which sets up the Augusta National layout each April...Involved in the golf design business, with a number of courses to his credit, including Grayhawk GC in Scottsdale, AZ, the Raven GC in Phoenix, AZ, and Grandover GC in Greensboro, NC...Considers his victory at the 1981 U.S. Open to be his biggest thrill in golf and credits Bruce Devlin as the person who most influenced his career...Loves to fly fish in his home state of Montana...Favorite TV show is "The Tonight Show" and favorite athlete is Andre Agassi...Top entertainer is Celine Dion and favorite golf courses are Augusta National and Cypress Point.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T34—Toshiba Senior Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Limited his season to just 13 events, with his best showing a T34 at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Played just one event the final three months of the season when he was T38 at the SBC Championship.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Returned to the Champions Tour at the season-opening MasterCard Championship in Hawaii (37th), but was forced to miss almost the next three months of the season after undergoing additional tests and treatments for a cancerous growth on his throat and tongue...Despite a loss of strength and weight, came back again in mid-April at the Blue Angels Classic in Pensacola, FL. 2003: Season cut short in June after being diagnosed with a cancerous growth on his left tonsil and back of his tongue during a routine dental examination in May. Opted to begin radiation and chemotherapy sessions in early July and missed the remainder of the year while undergoing nearly six weeks of treatment for the disease at Shands Hospital in Gainesville, FL. Lost over 30 pounds during the treatment...In contention after 36 holes of the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic and eventually finished solo fifth at Key Biscayne, four strokes back of Dave Barr...Was just one stroke off the lead through 36 holes of the Farmers Charity Classic and eventually T4 in Grand Rapids, three strokes out of a playoff spot in his next-to-last start in June...T4 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Made his third career ace on the Champions Tour during the final round of the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am. 2002: Voted Champions Tour Comeback Player of the Year...Returned from an inconsistent 2001 season in a big way, finishing

16th on the money list after dropping to 51st the previous year... Claimed his first title in nearly two years when he defeated Hale Irwin in a seven-hole playoff at the Lightpath Long Island Classic. Was tied for the 36-hole lead with Irwin, but fell behind by as many as four strokes with 12 holes to play. However, collected five birdies over the last 11 holes and then drained a 25-foot putt on the seventh extra hole for the victory. Earned $255,000 for his victory, the largest check of his pro career... Followed his victory in New York with another strong showing the following week at the 3M Championship, a solo second, three strokes behind Irwin... Prior to his win on Long Island, finished T2 at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. Was the leader at the halfway point by three strokes after firing a second-round, 9-under-par 63 (tied tournament record). 2001: T5 at the Turtle Bay Championship. Trained Hale Irwin by two strokes entering the final round in Hawaii before losing by six strokes. 2000: Won multiple tournaments in the same year for the first time since 1979... Collected a pair of official victories and pocketed almost as much official money as he made over the 1998 and 1999 seasons combined... His 14 top-10s overall equaled the combined total of his previous two Champions Tour campaigns... Posted his first victory in over 22 months at the inaugural Audi Senior Classic in Mexico. Birdied eight of his first 10 holes Sunday en route to a Champions Tour career-low round of 62 at LaVista CC and a five-stroke triumph over Jim Colbert, Dean Overturf and Doug Tewell... Also won the Kroger Senior Classic during the fall, holding off Larry Nelson by a stroke at Kings Island... Also lost to Bruce Fleisher on the fourth extra playoff hole at The Home Depot Invitational. Shot a course-record 63 at the TPC at Piper Glen in the second round... Played all 54 holes without a blemish at the Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic (T5) before the run came to an end during the first round of the FleetBoston Classic... Registered the second ace of his Champions Tour career in the final round of the State Farm Senior Classic. 1999: Teamed with Gil Morgan to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Duo went wire-to-wire on The Slammer & Squire course at World Golf Village and bested Tom Wargo and John Mahaffey by three strokes for the title... 1998: Fired a final-round 64 in front of his hometown fans in Birmingham to win his first Champions Tour title at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Made an eagle, par and four birdies over his last six holes to beat Hale Irwin by a stroke at Greystone G&CC... Carded his first ace on the Champions Tour in the opening round of the Comfort Classic. 1997: During a streaky rookie season, posted nine top-10 finishes and collected more than $500,000 in official earnings, over twice what he made in his best year on the PGA TOUR (1978/$247,406)... Made a serious bid for his first Champions Tour title at the Northville Long Island Classic. Was one stroke off the lead after 36 holes before finishing T3, one stroke out of playoff contention... Needed only 18 putts to shoot a 66 in his second official round on the Champions Tour at the Royal Caribbean Classic, one off the all-time record.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Is among all-time winners with 19 victories during 26 years on the PGA TOUR... Sixteen of those wins came during the 1970s, when he was one of the top players in the world... Claimed the first of his two major titles in 1977 at the U.S. Open at Southern Hills... Defeated Lou Graham by one stroke, after playing the final four holes knowing a threat had been made on his life... Last victory was at the 1985 PGA Championship at Cherry Hills, where he outdueling Lee Trevino down the stretch... Claimed his first victory at the 1971 Houston Champions International. Tied Don January at the end of regulation, then birdied the first extra hole for the win... Named Rookie of the Year that season... Has won four events twice: Greater Jacksonville Open, Southern Open, Heritage Classic and Hawaiian Open... Biggest thrill in golf was when he won three consecutive events in 1976: Doral-Eastern Open, the Greater Jacksonville Open and Sea Pines Heritage Classic... Began the final round of the 1978 Masters with a three-stroke lead, only to fall victim to Gary Player's 64... Birdied the last hole of the 1978 World Series of Golf to tie Gil Morgan, but three-putted the first playoff hole... Was a member of the 1977, 1979 and 1985 U.S. Ryder Cup teams... Has 23 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Started to play golf at age 5, but participated in all sports as a teenager... Uses an unorthodox but effective swing... Turned professional in 1970 and worked one summer as an assistant pro at famed Merion GC in Ardmore, PA... Active in golf course design. Worked with Fuzzy Zoeller on the TPC at Southwind, venue for the PGA TOUR's FedEx St. Jude Classic. Also helped design Greystone G&CC in Birmingham with Bob Cupp, the former site of the Bruno's Memorial Classic... His hero was baseball great Ted Williams... Biggest thrills in golf were his 1977 U.S. Open victory and winning three straight times in 1976... Favorite courses are Winged Foot, Pebble Beach, Cypress Point and Portmarnock in Ireland... Enjoys "The O'Reilly Factor" on the Fox News Channel.

BEST 2005 PGA TOUR FINISH: T9—WGC-Accenture Match Play Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Was voted as the Champions Tour Rookie of the Year after turning in an outstanding month of October. Starting with the last round of the JELD-WEN Tradition, posted 17 straight sub-par scores to close out the season, the best streak on the Champions Tour... Made headlines when he won for the first time in 304 combined starts (PGA TOUR/Champions Tour/Nationwide Tour), capturing the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in western North Carolina. Posted three straight rounds in the 60s, including a closing, 7-under-par 65 for his initial Champions Tour triumph. Completed his day with three straight birdies to pull away from Loren Roberts and Dana Quigley for the two-stroke victory, his first in 11 years, 11 months, 23 days... Claimed a second title just two weeks later at the SBC Championship in San Antonio. Two-stroke victory at Oak Hills made him the 12th different player to claim PGA TOUR/Champions Tour titles at the same venue. Came from two strokes back of Dana Quigley with a final-round 66 to best Tom Purtzer by two... Almost claimed a third consecutive crown at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Looked to be in control after taking a six-stroke lead after 54 holes but was eventually passed by a hard-charging Tom Watson and fell one stroke short in Sonoma... T5 finish at the Administaff Small Business Classic in mid-October vaulted him into the top 30 on the 2005 earnings list... Made 16 starts on the PGA TOUR and made 12 cuts... Played in his 28th PLAYERS Championship, tying Ben Crenshaw and Tom Kite for most appearances and finished T24... Also played in his 29th consecutive MCI Heritage, including making his 23rd cut at Hilton Head—just one shy of Hale Irwin, who has made the most cuts at Harbour Town, with 24. His 29 starts at Harbour Town tops the list ahead of Lanny Wadkins' 27 appearances. Made cut at Harbour Town was the 584th of his PGA TOUR career and passed Raymond Floyd for second on the all-time career cuts-made list... Lone top-10 on the PGA TOUR came in his fifth start, a T9 at the WGC-Accenture Match Play Championship, where he defeated World No 1 Vijay Singh in the second round. Defeated Jonathan Kaye and Singh before falling to Chris DiMarco in the third round.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Made his Champions Tour debut at the Senior PGA Championship, where he finished second... Among the leaders throughout the U.S. Senior Open before finishing T3... Was runner-up to Craig Stadler in his third and final start on the Champions Tour when he finished three strokes back at The First Tee Open at Pebble Beach... Sank a 12-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole to give him and son Bill a victory in the two-day CVS Charity Classic at Rhode Island CC in late June... Appeared in 23 events on the PGA TOUR and finished 27th on the final money list, with $2,071,626, the second year in succession he earned over $2 million... Made the cut at the Wachovia Championship, the 566th time he made a cut in a PGA TOUR event, tying him with Gene Littler for third all-time... Was a captain's pick on the 2004 U.S. Ryder Cup team at Oakland Hills... Son Bill qualified for the U.S. Open at Shinnecock Hills GC to join Jay as the first father-son duo to compete in the same U.S. Open twice.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Won nine PGA TOUR titles in his 29-year career, with all wins coming between 1978 and 1993... Last TOUR win came at the 1993 H-E-B Texas Open when he defeated Bob Lohr in a playoff at Oak Hills CC in San Antonio... Easily enjoyed his finest financial season in golf in 2003, with over $2.5 million in official earnings, more than three times his previous-best, single-season year ($822,259/1995). Secured the 15th position on final money list, his highest standing since 1982... Earned first victory at the 1978 Andy Williams-San Diego Open... Before 2003, previous highest position ever on the TOUR money list was 13th ($229,746) in 1982 as a result of 10 top-10 finishes that included a pair of victories. Won playoff at the 1982 Hall of Fame Classic with John Adams and defeated Curtis Strange by three strokes at Texas Open that same year... T3 at both the 1995 Masters and 1999 PGA Championship at Medinah CC near Chicago, his top career performances in major championships... Was a captain's choice for the United States team at the inaugural Presidents Cup in 1994 and compiled a 3-2 record... Also played on the United States Ryder Cup squads in 1983, 1995 and 2004... Enters 2006 season with 587 career cuts made, second on the all-time PGA TOUR list behind Tom Kite (590)... Won the 1975 NCAA Championship at Wake Forest and received the Fred Haskins Award that year... Was a 1975 and 1976 All-America selection and a member of the 1975 United States Walker Cup team... Demon Deacon teammates included Curtis Strange and Scott Hoch... Has made four holes-in-one in competitive rounds.

PERSONAL:

Introduced to golf by his uncle, 1968 Masters Tournament winner Bob Goalby... Won first trophy at National Pee Wee Championship in Orlando at age 7... Brother Jerry is the golf coach at Wake Forest... Brother-in-law Dillard Pruitt played the PGA TOUR and is now a TOUR Rules Official... Appeared in a Hootie and the Blowfish music video... Son Jay, Jr. caddied for him in the 1999 PGA Championship and played college golf at Augusta State. Second son, Bill, was an All-American at Wake Forest who won the 2004 Ben Hogan Award as the top collegiate male golfer. Played on the Nationwide Tour in 2005. Earned playing privileges on the 2006 PGA TOUR at the 2005 National Qualifying Tournament... Received the 2004 Payne Stewart Award for upholding the traditions of golf and was honored in 2005 with the Jim Murray Award from the Golf Writers Association of America and late in the 2005 season, was named as the recipient of the 2006 Bob Jones Award, the United States Golf Association's highest honor for distinguished sportsmanship... Favorites include "Curb Your Enthusiasm," Bruce Springsteen, "Dr. Zhivago," fried pizzas and Pillars of the Earth... Hero is his wife, Janice.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T12—SAS Championship; T13—Boeing Greater Seattle Classic; T14—U.S. Senior Open Championship, Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2005 SEASON:

Finished outside the top 40 in single-season earnings for the first time since joining the circuit in 1997 and did not register a top-10 during the year for the first time in his Champions Tour career...Played his best during the last half of the season when he finished among the top 15 four times in seven starts, capping his performances with a T12 at the SAS Championship near Raleigh...Made his second career ace on the Champions Tour at the U.S. Senior Open. Holed a 4-iron shot from 202 yards on the 13th hole at NCR CC's South course during the second round for the 12th ace in Senior Open history.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: T6 at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic, where he fired three straight rounds in the 60s. 2003: Made a late bid for the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup event in Sonoma, CA, but came up two spots short, ending a streak of 85 consecutive appearances in Champions Tour events that started at the 2001 NFL Golf Classic...Best effort was a T4 in the SBC Championship in San Antonio...Went 340 consecutive holes without a three-putt during the season. 2002: One of three players (Dana Quigley and Mike McCullough the others) to play in all 35 official events...T3 at the rain-shortened TD Waterhouse Championship his top finish of the year and his best since winning in Canada in 2000...Was the 36-hole leader at the U.S. Senior Open at Caves Valley before fading to a T11 after posting a 6-over 77 on Sunday. 2001: After six career runner-up performances that included one playoff loss, won his only event on the Champions Tour at the AT&T Canada Senior Open. Victory in Canada made him the last of nine first-time winners and the fourth consecutive first-time winner, a first in Champions Tour history. Made a five-foot par putt on the last hole at Mississauga G&CC to force a playoff with Ed Dougherty. Two-putted for par from 35 feet on the first extra hole for the victory. Was selected as the August Player of the Month after his Canadian victory along with two other top-10 finishes during the month. 2000: Came close to victory three times...Was one of five players tied for the 36-hole lead at the ACE Group Classic, but along with Tom Watson and Jose Maria Canizares, fell to Lanny Wadkins in a playoff. Contended at the SBC Championship in San Antonio for the second straight year. Despite being hospitalized with kidney stones early in the week, emerged as the 36-hole leader, but fell one stroke short of Doug Tewell despite a final-round 69...Made a run at Lee Trevino the next week at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic and finished as the runner-up, two strokes short of the Merry Mex...Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the second round of the Nationwide Championship. 1999: Was solo third at the American Express Invitational, four strokes back of Bruce Fleisher...Challenged again at The Transamerica but again finished third, three strokes back of Fleisher...Fired a career-low, 9-under 62 on the last day of the EMC Kaanapali Classic. 1998: Played in 28 events despite being conditionally exempt (11th at the National Qualifier)...Lost by one stroke to Bruce Summerhays at the State Farm Senior Classic despite rounds of 68-70-

68...Also among the leaders down the stretch at the Northville Long Island Classic, but finished one stroke short of Gary Player. 1997: Made his debut after Monday qualifying at the Kroger Senior Classic and T8...Won The Belfry PGA Seniors Championship on the PGA European Seniors Tour...Recorded three victories on the Nitro Senior Series and was its leading money-winner with $89,889.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Turned professional in 1994, after which he played two years on the Asian Tour (1994-95) and one on the Hooters Tour (1996)...Made four unsuccessful attempts to earn his PGA TOUR card in the 1970s before regaining amateur status until 1994...Reached the U.S. Amateur round of 16 in 1985...Has made 16 holes-in-one in his career.

PERSONAL:

Began his golf career by playing for his high school team...Biggest thrill in golf was playing with Chi Chi Rodriguez for the first time and also winning The Belfry PGA Seniors Championship...Worked as a sales manager for an appliance distributor prior to embarking on his professional career. Favorites include "Friends," "Rudy" and entertainer Danny Gans...Favorite course is Pebble Beach.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T3—Boeing Greater Seattle Classic; T4—Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

2005 SEASON:

Made a late run at a spot in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship but, for the second straight year, missed in the season's final full-field event when he T28 at the SBC Championship...Entered the SBC event 33rd on the money list and put himself in good position to secure a spot among the top-30 money-winners after firing a career-low 9-under 62 at Oak Hills to take the first-round lead. Course-record-tying round included a run of four straight birdies and an eagle, the best eagle-birdie streak on the Champions Tour last year. However, ballooned to a final-round 76 to fall into the 34th position on the final money list...Still managed to post his two best Champions Tour career performances after mid-August...Shot three straight rounds in the 60s at the TPC at Snoqualmie Ridge and T3 at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic. His $105,600-paycheck at that event was his largest ever as a professional...Closing-round, 6-under-par 66 helped him to a T4 in the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn...Was the first-round leader at the weather-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am in Tampa after carding a 6-under 65 but eventually dropped back into a T16 after a 75 in the second round...From mid-June through early September, shot an opening-round in the 60s in nine of 10 events.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Moved to his highest standing ever on the money list after compiling four top-10 finishes...Best showing was a T5 at the SAS Championship in late September...Also T7 at the weather-shortened Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am after being the first-round co-leader...Was among the leaders through three rounds of the Senior PGA Championship at Valhalla, but finished solo ninth after posting a final-round 76. Performance in Louisville was his first top-10 effort of Champions Tour career...After making a hole-in-one during the pro-am, made a double eagle in the second round of the 3M Championship. Holed a 5-wood second shot from 257 yards on the par-5 sixth hole, the first albatross on the Champions Tour since 2002 (John Jacobs/MasterCard Championship). 2003: Earned a conditional exemption for 2004 by virtue of his finish among the top 50 on the 2003 money list... Played in eight of his first 15 events through sponsor exemptions and was among the top 25 six times, including a T11 at the FleetBoston Classic, his highest Champions Tour finish ever at that point... Benefited from the re-order category following the Long Island Classic to compete in each of the last eight full-field events... Cracked the top 50 for good when he T16 at the inaugural Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn and earned $20,083... Returned to the National Qualifying Tournament in the fall to improve his position but missed the cut at the TPC at Eagle Trace in Florida. 2002: Played in 12 events after mid-June, 10 through sponsor exemptions, and T63 in his debut on the Champions Tour at the Greater Baltimore Classic at Hayfields CC... In his third start on the circuit, T14 at the SBC Senior Open in Chicago, his top effort of the campaign. Rebounded from an opening-round 75 with 67-68 on the weekend at Harborside International... Made it to the finals of the National Qualifying Tournament, but did not earn any exemption for 2003 after a T61 at World Woods GC near Brooksville, FL.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Minnesota's dominant amateur player for nearly two decades, winning four state amateur titles and five state mid-amateur crowns as well as back-to-back state open championships. Was also on Minnesota's winning team at the 1997 and 2001 USGA Men's State Team Championship... Named as Minnesota Player of the Year 10 times (1987-1995 and 2000)... Biggest victory of his career came at age 41 at the 1993 U.S. Amateur at Champions GC in Houston. Defeated Danny Ellis in the 36-hole final, 5 and 3, after both players were all square after 25 holes. Had rallied down the stretch to defeat defending champion Justin Leonard, 2 and 1, in a quarterfinal match earlier in the week... A four-time United States Walker Cup team member (1993, 1995, 1997, 2001) and had the victory-clinching match in both 1993 and 1997... First turned professional in 1976, then regained his amateur status in 1983 before turning professional again when he turned 50... Attempted to earn a PGA TOUR card three times, missing by a total of four strokes. Still played in 12 PGA TOUR events in his career, four as a professional in 1976, with a T26 at the Hawaiian Open that year at Waialae CC... Also played the Florida mini-tours in 1977 and 1978 and the Asian Tour in 1977... Has made seven holes-in-one in his career, all with a 6-iron.

PERSONAL:

Created the Harris-Homeyer Insurance Company in January 1979 with Bill Homeyer, father of former U.S. Women's Open champion, Hillary Lunke... Attended the University of Minnesota on a hockey scholarship, but also played golf, earning first team All-America honors in golf in 1974... Was legendary hockey coach Herb Brooks' first captain at Minnesota and was the second leading scorer for the 1974 team that won the NCAA Championship. Younger brother, Robby, was a linemate... Also started for Minnesota in 1971 when the Gophers were NCAA runners-up... Played briefly for the New England Whalers minor league team in 1975, but left hockey to pursue a golf career in 1976... Father started him playing golf and he grew up on a nine-hole course with sand greens in northern Minnesota... Is a member of the Minnesota Golf Hall of Fame and the University of Minnesota Hall of Fame... Received the Warren Rebholz Distinguished Service Award from the Minnesota Golf Association in 1999... Lists Augusta National GC as his favorite course.

2005 SEASON:

Did everything but win an event last year, finishing among the top 10 in 12 of 25 tournaments, including five straight top-10s and seven top-10s in eight starts at one point early in the season... Ranked second to Dana Quigley (60) in Sub-Par Rounds, with 58, and 35 of his 78 total rounds were in the 60s... Eighth-place finish on the money list was his highest standing ever, and only Gil Morgan earned more without a victory in 2005... Was a runner-up four times during the campaign... Was the Saturday- and Sunday-night leader at the weather-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am before Hale Irwin overtook him in a rare Monday finish near Tampa and he was T2 along with defending champion Mark McNulty one stroke back... Was involved in another Monday finish in early May at the Blue Angels Classic, his first playoff appearance on the Champions Tour. Lost to Jim Thorpe on the third extra hole at The Moors. Was on the verge of winning the event Sunday evening, but fell into a playoff when Thorpe made an 11-foot birdie putt on the final hole of regulation. Matched his career-best round with a 7-under 63 that included a run of six straight birdies (Nos. 11-16) on the first day at The Moors. Along with Thorpe, 54-hole total of 16-under-par 194 was the numerical low on the circuit last year... Posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s on the Monterey Peninsula and finished one stroke back of Irwin again at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and then, in his next start, finished four shots back of Bob Gilder at the Constellation Energy Classic even though he made just one bogey in his last 38 holes at The Hayfields. Trailing by two strokes heading into the final round, thanks to a course record-tying, 8-under 64... Placed solo fourth at the Senior PGA Championship, his best career effort in a senior major... Led the Champions Tour in First-Round Scoring Average (68.92) and ranked fourth overall in Scoring Average (69.68)... Also led the Champions Tour in Putting Average (1.728) for the second straight year... Shared the first- and second-round leads at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic before a closing-round 72 dropped him to T5... Also shared opening-round lead at the Administaff Small Business Classic before eventual T18.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Best finish came early in the campaign when he battled Tom Purtzer down the stretch at the Toshiba Senior Classic before eventually finishing second by one stroke at Newport Beach. Performance in Orange County was his best effort since finishing as a runner-up at 2003 3M Championship... Led all players in Putting with an average of 1.746 and was second to Ben Crenshaw in Putts Per Round at 28.27. 2003: Victorious at the Columbus Southern Open. Claimed second Champions Tour career title when he defeated Allen Doyle by one stroke in Georgia. Played all 54 holes without a bogey, and in the process became the first player to win an event without a bogey since Bruce Fleisher at the 1999 Transamerica... Extended his bogey-free streak to 98 holes to set a new Champions Tour standard, breaking the old record of 97 set by the late Jack Kiefer in 1994. Started his streak on the 12th hole of his second round at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am and saw it end at the second hole of his second-round at the Music City Championship... Nearly won a second title in August when he finished T2 with Gil Morgan at the 3M Championship, one stroke behind Wayne Levi. Narrowly missed a birdie putt at 18, which would have eventually earned him a playoff spot opposite Levi. 2002: Voted by his peers as the Rookie of the Year... Was one of the great success stories of the season... Began the year as a non-exempt player. However, took full advantage of open qualifying, sponsor exemptions and his Past Champion status to parlay those early appearances into exempt status via the Tour reshuffle... Registered his first Champions Tour victory at the Uniting Fore Care Classic. Pulled away from the field with five birdies on the front nine and won by 12 points in the Modified Stableford system event. Victory in Park City ended a drought of 12 years, one month and 10 days and put him over the $1-million mark in just his 16th event of the season... Enjoyed great early success as an open qualifier, posting four top 10s in five starts via that route, including a runner-up effort to Jay Sigel at the Farmers Charity Classic, one of three 2002 second-place finishes... First appearance on the Champions Tour came via a sponsor exemption into the Verizon Classic and he T17 at the TPC of Tampa Bay.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played full-time on the PGA TOUR from 1977-94 and had four victories, the last coming at the 1990 Bank of Boston Classic. Birdied three of the last four holes on Sunday to nip Scott Verplank by one stroke... Twice won titles in playoffs. Beat George Cadle in a playoff at the 1983 Greater Milwaukee Open and defeated Tom Kite in a playoff at the 1988 Kemper Open... Played in 451 career events and made 284 cuts... Best years came in 1988 and 1990 when he earned $239,019 and $253,639, respectively... Was 47th on the 1988 money list, his highest position ever on the PGA TOUR... Led all PGA TOUR players in Putting in 1983... Won the 1968 Mexico National Junior Championship... Member of an NAIA national championship squad at U.S. International in San Diego... San Diego High School Golfer of the Year as a senior... Has had three holes-in-one in competitive rounds.

PERSONAL:

Played collegiately at U.S. International University where he won NAIA All-America honors in 1972 and served as captain of the team... Originally started his career at Arizona State University as a freshman and was a teammate of current Champions Tour players Bob Gilder, Howard Twitty and Tom Purtzer... Daughter, Laura, played basketball at Bucknell University in Pennsylvania... Is a partner in the Trillium Links & Lake Club in western North Carolina... Lists the birth of his two children as his biggest thrill outside of golf and qualifying for the PGA TOUR in 1976 as his biggest thrill in golf... Got started in the sport when his older brother bought him a set of junior clubs when he was 10 years old... Favorite athletes as a youngster were Sandy Koufax and golf's Big Three—Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player... Away from the course, enjoys following the activities of his two children... First car he ever owned was a 1963 Volvo with a stick shift... Considers making it through the PGA TOUR Qualifying School in 1976 as his greatest achievement because he had decided it would be the last time he was going to attempt to qualify... Favorite golf courses are Cypress Point, Pebble Beach and Pine Valley... He and his family have two West Highland White Terriers named Hazard and Niblick... Favorite actor is Sean Connery and favorite movie is "Chariots of Fire"... Best friend on the Champions Tour is Don Pooley.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T25—Blue Angels Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Played in just eight official events, the fewest ever in a season on the Champions Tour...Best effort was a T25 at the Blue Angels Classic. Bettered his age for the first time with a final-round 65 at The Moors, his best score since carding a 64 in the first round of the 2002 Verizon Classic near Tampa...Played in five Georgia-Pacific events and finished 10th on the over-60 money list, with $52,625. T8 in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship near Atlanta.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Cruised to a six-stroke victory in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions event at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic at Eisenhower Park...Capped his year with a strong showing at the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship in Sonoma, CA. Fashioned three consecutive 3-under-par 69s to breeze to a five-stroke win over Raymond Floyd for his 17th career title. It was his second win at the season-ending event and the first since he won in 1999 in Myrtle Beach, SC. 2003: Season highlighted by a solo third-place effort at the Verizon Classic, his best performance ever at the TPC of Tampa Bay and best showing in Tampa since winning at Tampa Palms in 1990. Final-round 66 included a hole-in-one on No. 6 with a 9-iron from 145 yards, his fifth ace overall, first as a member of the Champions Tour and first ace since the 1980 Phoenix Open...Won his 14th Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title when he successfully defended his over-60 title at the Long Island Classic, defeating Jerry McGee and Lee Trevino by one stroke. His three straight rounds in the 60s were instrumental in his T5 overall finish on Long Island...Added a 15th Georgia-Pacific title near the end of the year at the SBC Championship when he birdied the first playoff hole to defeat Raymond Floyd. 2002: T3 at The Instinet Classic, his best finish since the FleetBoston Classic in June 2001. Won the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition at Princeton for his first of two victories in that category during the year...Carded a 7-under 64 on the first day of the Verizon Classic, his lowest round since posting 64 in the second round of the 1998 Boone Valley Classic. 2001: Led the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list with $325,137, the second-highest amount ever earned in that competition (George Archer won $364,988 in 2000)...Posted four victories in the over-60 events on the year and was first or second in his first eight starts in the Georgia-Pacific competition. Claimed his first Georgia-Pacific title at the Verizon Classic, defeating Gary Player by one stroke. Cruised to a five-stroke victory over Rocky Thompson and J.C. Snead in the 36-hole event at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland. Won back-to-back G-P titles at the FleetBoston Classic and the Farmers Charity Classic, his third consecutive victory at that venue. Defeated Snead again by five strokes in the Georgia-Pacific event in Boston and bested Jim Dent in a playoff at Egypt Valley CC...Held a one-stroke lead over Larry Nelson after 36 holes of the FleetBoston Classic, but posted an even-par 72 on Sunday and T3, his best overall performance on the Champions Tour since 1997. 2000: Won three Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions events and third on the G-P money list that year. 1999: Enjoyed great success in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition with four wins and was third on the final money list...Won the season-ending Georgia-Pacific Super Seniors Championship. 1996: Claimed 18th career win on the Champions Tour when he captured the Bank One Classic in Lexington...Was also part of a record five-man playoff at Emerald Coast Classic, eventually won by Lee Trevino...Teamed with Trevino to win fourth Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title. 1995: Tossed aside challenges by Isao Aoki and Graham Marsh to claim his first Champions Tour title in 17 months at the Kroger Senior Classic. Win at Kings Island made him the eighth man to win a Champions Tour and PGA TOUR event on the same layout. Had won the 1977 Ohio Kings Island Open on the same Grizzly Course. 1994: Only player this year to successfully defend a title when he won the IntelliNet Challenge in Naples. 1993: Captured two tournaments before the end of May and was among the top seven in more than one-third of his appearances during the season. 1992: A trio of titles included a second consecutive official victory at the Doug Sanders Kingwood Celebrity Classic and second consecutive Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title with Lee Trevino. 1991: Shared Player of the Year honors with George Archer and won the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner on the Champions Tour after recording five victories... Went over $1 million in earnings for the only time in his career, and was the leading money-winner in all of golf that season... The $150,000 check at the season-ending New York Life Champions pushed him past the $1-million plateau in single-season earnings and made him the second Champions Tour player to top that level (Lee Trevino was the first in 1990) in a year. 1990: Posted five wins and was runner-up to Trevino on the money list... First Champions Tour title came at the GTE Suncoast Classic near Tampa, a two-stroke victory over Trevino. 1989: Was ninth on the final money list and was runner-up to Bob Charles at the Digital Seniors Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Claimed three PGA TOUR titles... Defeated Jim Colbert by four strokes for his first win at the 1970 Doral-Eastern Open... Won the San Antonio-Texas Open late in 1972 with four consecutive rounds in the 60s... Last victory came at the 1977 Ohio Kings Island Open, where he fired a final-round 64 to edge Tom Kite by a stroke... Most profitable TOUR year was 1974, when he earned $76,802 and finished 28th on the money list... Needed three tries at the PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament before finally earning his card in the spring of 1968.

PERSONAL:

Younger brother of Dave Hill... Grew up on a dairy farm adjacent to a golf course and started the game as a caddie... Spent nearly four years in the Air Force and attended both Jackson (MI) Junior College and Arizona State prior to turning pro... Owns an 18-hole municipal golf course in Brooklyn, MI, known as Hill's Heart of the Lakes... Inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 1994... Lists Ben Hogan and Gordie Howe as his heroes... Got started in golf by working as a caddie at Jackson CC... Biggest thrill outside of golf is being married to his wife, Sandy, for 37 years and being around his children and grandchildren.

BEST 2005 PGA TOUR FINISH: T32—Ford Championship at Doral.

2005 SEASON:

Played in two PGA TOUR events, both in March... Was T32 at the Ford Championship at Doral and then reinjured his left hand during the Bay Hill Invitational and withdrew after an opening-round 79... After attempting to rehab the hand for most of the season, finally underwent surgery on October 18. Doctors removed pieces of bone and cartilage in his hand and repaired a torn tendon that had snapped in April. Played just four events in 2003 with a nagging wrist injury and then sprained left wrist during the 2004 PGA Championship when, during the second round, he put his hands out to break his fall after walking off a tee box and ground gave way.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Was perhaps the PGA TOUR's most consistent performer from 1982 through 2002 when he finished among the top 40 on the money list every year during that 20-year span except for 1992 when surgery to repair a shoulder injury slowed him... Has collected 160 top-10s in his PGA TOUR career... Last of 11 PGA TOUR victories came at the 2003 Ford Championship at Doral, his fifth win since turning 40. Shared the third-round lead with Bob Tway, then went on to defeat Jim Furyk with birdie on the third extra hole. Play was suspended due to darkness on Sunday night while both players were on the green on the second playoff hole. First Monday finish since the 2001 Buick Classic. His $900,000 paycheck was the largest of his career. Victory in Miami gave him the 10th-longest span between first and last wins (22 years, seven months and 21 days) in PGA TOUR history... Had his career year in money earned in 2001 when, at age 45, he made $2,875,319 (seventh on money list) and claimed a pair of tournament titles. Became the first 45-year-old to win twice in a single season since Hale Irwin in 1990. Only Julius Boros (47 and 48 in 1967 and '68), Sam Snead (47 in 1960) and Irwin had won multiple times at 45 or older... Victory at 2001 Greater Greensboro Chrysler Classic was first in 94 starts, and at 45 years, 5 months and 5 days, made him the oldest TOUR winner since Tom Watson won the 1998 Colonial at 48... Fired a closing-round 64 to claim the Advil Western Open, edging Davis Love III by a stroke. The 267 total broke the tournament record set by Sam Snead in 1949 and equaled by Chi Chi Rodriguez in 1964... First victory came in rookie season of 1980, winning first of two Quad Cities Opens... Had first money-list top-10 finish in 1989 (No. 10), earning $670,680... Three weeks after playoff loss to Nick Faldo at 1989 Masters, won Las Vegas Invitational in playoff over Robert Wrenn... After four years without a victory, captured 1994 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic... Shot back-to-back 65s on weekend at 1995 Greater Milwaukee Open for three-stroke victory... Lost playoff to Payne Stewart at 1995 Shell Houston Open after holding a five-stroke lead through 54 holes... Six top-three finishes in 1996, topped by wire-to-wire victory at the Michelob Championship at Kingsmill... Won second Greater Milwaukee Open in 1997 and that year, had a career-high 11 top-10 finishes, including a second at THE PLAYERS Championship, T6 at the PGA Championship and T10 at both the U.S. Open and THE TOUR Championship... Won 1996 Vardon Trophy, with 70.08 scoring average... Winner of 1986 Chrysler Team Championship with Gary Hallberg... Runner-up to John Cook at 1978 U.S. Amateur... Member of 1975 national championship team at Wake Forest... An All-America selection in 1977 and 1978 when he won the Atlantic Coast Conference title.

PERSONAL:

Donated $100,000 of 1989 Las Vegas Invitational winnings to Arnold Palmer Children's Hospital in Orlando. Has a floor named after him at the Arnold Palmer Hospital, thanks to his family's donations. Although son, Cameron, was successfully treated elsewhere for rare bone infection in right leg, he and wife, Sally, are strong supporters of Orlando facility... Family has also made large donations to area hospitals and churches... Brother Buddy was a professional bowler, while their father won All-American honors in baseball at Wake Forest.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T12—FedEx Kinko's Classic, Constellation Energy Classic;
 T15—Turtle Bay Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Failed to post a top-10 finish for the first time in his Champions Tour career...Had four top-20 finishes, including two in his first two appearances of the year at the Turtle Bay Championship (T15) and The ACE Group Classic (T19), where he closed with 3-under-par 69s in each event...Had his best showing at the Constellation Energy Classic in September, where consecutive rounds in the 60s on the weekend helped him to a T12 finish...Was also T12 at the FedEx Kinko's Classic...Ranked fourth in Driving Accuracy, at 79.6 percent, the first time he had finished in the top 10 in eight seasons on the Champions Tour...Had what he termed one of the strangest years of his career...Was disqualified for the first time in his career (Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn) and twice posted double-digit figures on a hole. The first came at the Senior PGA Championship, where he had a 15 on No. 18 (he started on the back nine) in Sunday's final round, but bounced back from his 50 on the back nine to shoot a 2-over-38 on his second nine. Mounted a nice comeback from an opening-round 85 (51-34) at the Senior British Open two months later, which included a 10 on hole No. 7. Improved his second-round score by 13 strokes and sank a 25-foot birdie putt on the final hole Friday to make the cut and eventually finish T46.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Among the top 10 in three events, one more than in his last two years combined...Also had his best earnings year since 2001 season, pocketing more than he made in both the 2002-2003 campaigns put together...Equalled the Valencia CC course record with a final-round 64 and vaulted into a T4 at the SBC Classic, his best Champions Tour finish since winning the same event at Wilshire CC in 2000...Opened with 64 the following week at the Toshiba Senior Classic, but eventually T18 at Newport

Beach...Rebounded from an opening-round 73 with 67-68 on the weekend at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn to T5. 2003: Posted his lone top-10 finish in his final start, T9 at the Turtle Bay Championship...Two weeks earlier, vaulted into contention at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn after posting a course-record 9-under 63 in the second round, equaling his career-best round on the Champions Tour. Round included just 22 putts. Eventually slipped back into a T16 after a final-round 77...Fully exempt for 2004 by virtue of his T4 finish along with Lonnie Nielsen at the National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC at Eagle Trace. Fired four straight sub-par rounds at the National Qualifier, his first trip there since 1997. 2002: Was T8 at the rain-shortened Emerald Coast Classic near Pensacola. 2001: T6 at The Home Depot Invitational after trailing Jim Colbert by just one stroke entering the final round...Found himself again on the leaderboard through two rounds of the TD Waterhouse Championship, thanks to an 8-under 64 Saturday, his lowest round since the 1999 Kroger Senior Classic (63). Eventually T6 again after shooting a 2-under 70 at Tiffany Greens. 2000: Among the top 10 in almost one-third of his starts and quickly recovered from an inner-ear infection to have his two best performances near the end of the season...Went all 54 holes of the EMC Kaanapali Classic without making a bogey and finished second to Hale Irwin by four strokes in Hawaii...Won for a third straight year at the SBC Senior Classic, becoming the fifth player in Champions Tour history to three-peat in an event. Bogey-free streak ended at 94 straight holes during the opening round of the Los Angeles event, the second-longest run in Champions Tour history at the time, just three holes shy of Jack Kiefer's mark. 1999: Successfully defended his Pacific Bell Senior Classic title. Rallyed from three strokes back on Sunday with a sizzling 65 to edge Dave Stockton by two strokes. Almost won the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic, but lost to Allen Doyle on the fourth extra hole...Fired a Champions Tour career-low round of 7-under 63 on Saturday at the Kroger Senior Classic. 1998: Won his first Champions Tour title late in the season at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic. Jumped from 42nd on the money list into the top 31 with the victory. Was a one-stroke winner over Lee Trevino at Wilshire CC, making birdie on three of his last five holes...Selected by his peers as the Champions Tour Rookie of the Year. 1997: Earned fully-exempt status for 1998 after finishing T5 at the 1997 National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC of Sawgrass Valley Course in November.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

High point came in 1976, when he won the Kemper Open by one stroke over Grier Jones and Tom Weiskopf at Quail Hollow CC in Charlotte, NC...Played a full schedule on the PGA TOUR from 1974-1986...In addition to his victory, was second at the following events: 1974 Tallahassee Open, 1977 Florida Citrus Open and 1979 Atlanta Classic...Enjoyed his best year financially in 1979, when he won $75,035 and finished 52nd on the money list...Enjoyed success as an amateur before beginning his professional career. Won the 1969 North-South Amateur and also played on the winning United States Walker Cup team in 1969, where his teammates included Bruce Fleisher, Steve Melnyk and Lanny Wadkins...Has had four career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Worked as a Ping sales representative from 1989-97...Also was a member of the PGA TOUR Radio Network broadcast crew in 1997...His brother John is a two-time winner on the PGA TOUR and is now the golf coach at North Carolina...A college teammate of Leonard Thompson and Lanny Wadkins at Wake Forest...Served a brief stint in the U.S. Army following his graduation from Wake Forest...Lists Cypress Point as his favorite golf course and Arnold Palmer as his favorite athlete...Was inducted into the Wake Forest Sports Hall of Fame on Feb. 9, 2002 along with former Wake football players Ricky Proehl and Tony Mayberry.

2005 SEASON:

Enjoyed another record-setting year as he led all players with four wins and narrowly missed earning $2 million for the eighth time in his career...Made history in late January when he rolled to a five-stroke victory at the Turtle Bay Championship, the 41st of his Champions Tour career. The win gave him five straight victories at the event, the first time a player had ever won a PGA TOUR-sanctioned event five straight times. It was also his sixth win at the tournament. Shot rounds of 67-66-67 and set a 54-hole record at 16-under-par 200. The victory was his 100th top-three finish in his 230th start on the Champions Tour. It was also the eighth official TOUR win he has posted in Hawaii (seven on Champions Tour) and capped an impressive two-week run in the Islands...One week earlier, opened the season with a T3 at the MasterCard Championship. Shot consecutive 7-under-par 65s on the weekend and missed earning a spot in the playoff with Tom Watson and eventual winner Dana Quigley by just one stroke...Won his 42nd career title on the Champions Tour at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa. Monday finish resulted in a one-stroke victory over Morris Hatalsky and Mark McNulty. Found himself one stroke back of Hatalsky after playing three holes on Sunday before play was suspended for the day. Eventually made two birdies and a five-foot par save on the final hole to prevail on Monday afternoon. Notched his 22nd different tournament win on the Champions Tour with victory in Tampa and ran his streak of years with multiple victories to a record 11 straight seasons...Won for the 43rd time on the Champions Tour when he prevailed by one stroke over Craig Stadler, Morris Hatalsky and Gil Morgan at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open. Shared the 36-hole lead with Morgan, and his final-round, 4-under-par 68 made him the year's first three-time winner. The win also marked the 12th time a player won a Champions Tour and PGA TOUR on the same venue (he also did it at Riviera CC near Los Angeles) and made him the 14th player over age 60 (60 years, 3 months, 1 day) to win a Champions Tour event...Added a fourth title and 44th career crown when he was a two-stroke victor at the SAS Championship near Raleigh in October. Entered the final round four strokes behind 36-hole leader R.W. Eaks, but eventually won by two strokes over Bob Gilder and Tom Jenkins. Battled several contenders down the stretch but sealed the win with a clutch eagle putt on the 17th hole. Drained the putt from 24 1/2 feet to assume a two-stroke cushion over Gilder at the time. His blistering back nine (6-under-par 31) included four birdies and an eagle. The victory made him the first player over 60 to win two events in the same year...It was also the sixth time in his 10 full seasons he had won four or more events in a season. The win also marked the eighth time in his career he had won consecutive starts on the Champions Tour...At the Administrative Small Business Classic near Houston, came up two strokes short in his bid for a third consecutive title. Played his last six holes in 2-under, yet fell to a hard-charging Mark McNulty...Was in contention for a major championship victory in July but came up one stroke shy of Peter Jacobsen at the Ford Senior Players Championship. Was the 54-hole leader and battled Jacobsen down the stretch, but missed two crucial putts on the final two holes to finish second. Still earned $220,000 for his second-place finish, pushing him past $1 million in season earnings for the 10th straight year... Voted as the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for January/February as well as September.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Continued to defy the odds and again put together a remarkable season that contained multiple victories, despite having to deal with a tender lower back and assorted neck and shoulder pain late in the year... 17 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, helped him hold off Craig Stadler by a mere 39 points in the season's final event to earn his second Charles Schwab Cup. Led the Schwab Cup race for 11 weeks during the summer and then slipped into second place for four weeks before regaining the top spot for good after his runner-up finish at the Administaff Small Business Classic... Had a Tour-best 40 rounds in the 60s out of 73 played (55 percent)... Survived a grueling week at Valhalla to claim his fourth Senior PGA Championship and his 40th career Champions Tour title. Two-putted from 40 feet to birdie the 72nd hole to claim the weather-plagued event by one stroke over Jay Haas. Led or was tied for the lead after each round, and victory came just three days short of his 59th birthday, making him the oldest winner of a major since the start of the Champions Tour... Win was his seventh senior major title and he joined Jack Nicklaus (JELD-WEN Tradition) as the only other player to win the same major four times... Held off Gil Morgan in late April for the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf crown. Managed to eek out a one-stroke victory after making par on the final hole while Morgan two-putted from 20 feet for a bogey... Made a valiant bid to win his third U.S. Senior Open at Bellerive, but came up one stroke short of Peter Jacobsen. Posted rounds of 67-68 on 36-hole Sunday, but was derailed midway through the front nine of his final round by a bogey-double bogey stretch (holes 5 and 6)... Mounted a final-round charge at the Constellation Energy Classic, matching the tournament course record with a final-round 64, to finish second, two shots back of Wayne Levi. Birdied six of the last seven holes Sunday to post his lowest score since firing a 64 in the second round of the 2002 RJR Championship... Finished second again at the inaugural Administaff Small Business Classic, losing to Larry Nelson on the first hole of a playoff. Jumped into contention during the final round by holing a 4-iron second shot from 195 yards for an eagle on Augusta Pines' par-4 14th hole. Got into the overtime session after a two-putt birdie on the par-5 final hole... Posted an ace during the first round of the PGA Championship at Whistling Straits. Used a 3-iron from 185 yards on the par-3 seventh hole. Ended up missing the cut by a stroke, ending his streak of consecutive cuts made at 16. Also only the second time in his career he has missed the cut at the PGA, the other being 1979... Did not participate in the U.S. Open Championship, ending a streak of 33 consecutive appearances in the event. 2003: Despite back woes for the final four months of the season, made history when he won his 38th career title at the Turtle Bay Championship. Made up two strokes on second-round leader Tom Kite the final day, and the pair battled down to the wire before he emerged victorious, thanks to a birdie on the 17th hole. In the process, became the first Champions Tour player to win the same event four times in succession and also became the first to win the same event five times... Overcame a triple bogey on the front nine in Sunday's final round to win the inaugural Kinko's Classic of Austin. Claimed his 37th career title after making birdie on the second playoff hole to defeat Tom Watson at The Hills CC., tying the all-time Champions Tour record held by Miller Barber for consecutive seasons with at least one title... Selected as the Champions Tour Player of the Month for May... Earned a special exemption into the U.S. Open, his 33rd consecutive appearance in the event, but was forced to withdraw after 11 holes in the opening round with severe back spasms. Back injury kept him out of action for almost one month.

2002: Voted by his peers as the Champions Tour's Player of the Year for a third time... Established a Champions Tour record for earnings in a season with $3,028,304, breaking his own mark of $2,861,945 and in the process became the oldest player at the time to win the money title (Arnold Palmer Award) at age 57 (previous mark was by Peter Thomson, who won the 1985 money title at age 56)... Clinched his first Charles Schwab Cup and the money title with his fourth victory of the year at the Turtle Bay Championship in Hawaii. Birdied the first extra-playoff hole to defeat Gary McCord. Win allowed him to tie Jack Nicklaus (four wins at The Countrywide Tradition) for most victories in the same event and also was his first playoff win ever on the Champions Tour in six tries... Started the year by winning his third straight Senior Skins (1999, 2001, 2002; did not play in 2000) title on the island of Maui. Prevailed over Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Fuzzy Zoeller at Wailea GC. Won five skins and $260,000 on the final hole to help him earn a record $450,000, breaking Raymond Floyd's mark of $420,000 in 1995... Captured his 33rd career title on the Champions Tour early on at The ACE Group Classic in Naples. Dueled Tom Watson down the stretch before defeating him by a stroke at The Club at Twin Eagles... Set a Champions Tour record when he posted his 75th career top-three finish, a T2 at the Audi Senior Classic in Mexico, breaking Bob Charles' mark of 74... Won the Toshiba Senior Classic by five strokes with a record-setting 196 total, his second win in Newport Beach... Also won his third 3M Championship in Minnesota. Was tied with James Mason after 36 holes, but broke away from the pack for a three-stroke victory. Win at the TPC of the Twin Cities also marked the sixth consecutive season he had won at least three times... Became the first over the $3-million mark in season earnings with his fourth-place finish at the SENIOR TOUR Championship in Gaillardia... Also became the oldest player to claim the Byron Nelson Award as the Scoring leader (68.93). 2001: Eclipsed the $2-million mark for an unprecedented fifth straight campaign at The Transamerica... Won three official events, the fifth straight year he's won at least three times in a season, tying him with Miller Barber and Lee Trevino for the most in Champions Tour history... Broke out of a tie with Lee Trevino atop the all-time victory list by claiming the inaugural Siebel Classic in Silicon Valley, his 30th career win in his 135th start on the Champions Tour... Posted three consecutive rounds of 65 and shattered the Bruno's Memorial Classic tournament record by six strokes with a 21-under 195 total. Easily outdistanced Stewart Ginn by four strokes for his 31st Champions Tour victory... Notched his 32nd title late in the campaign at the Turtle Bay Championship in Hawaii... Played in the U.S. Open at Southern Hills and T52 after being one stroke off the lead after an opening-round 67. 2000: Claimed four official victories, the fourth straight year he won four or more titles in a season... Tied Lee Trevino atop the all-time victory list when he won his second EMC Kaanapali Classic, besting Joe Imman by four strokes... Successfully defended his Nationwide Championship crown, at the time the sixth successful defense of his senior career. Made just one bogey over 54 holes and edged Tom Jenkins and Vicente Fernandez by one stroke... Picked up his second title three weeks later when he held off Gil Morgan by a stroke for the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland crown... Biggest victory of his season came in early July when he triumphed at the U.S. Senior Open for a second time. Carded rounds of 65-65 on the weekend at Saucon Valley and overtook Bruce Fleisher on the final day to win by three strokes. His 17-under 267 total was the lowest four-round score in any U.S. Senior Open Championship and gave him a sixth senior major title... Finished T27 at the U.S. Open at Pebble Beach and joined Tiger Woods as the only other player in the field to post at least two rounds in the 60s on the Monterey Peninsula... Underwent LASIK surgery the week prior to the GTE Classic and went on to T3 in Tampa. 1999: Became the first player in the history of the Champions

Tour to win five or more official tournaments three years in a row... Won all five of his events from early May until late August. During that four-month stretch, he was par/better in 34 of 37 rounds and had a scoring average of 68.51... Started the run with a dramatic victory at the Nationwide Championship. Holed a 74-yard wedge shot for an eagle on the final hole to break a tie with Bob Murphy... Closed with a 66 to defeat Al Geiberger by two strokes at the Boone Valley Classic... Biggest win of the year came at the Ford Senior Players Championship, when he captured his fifth senior major despite a sore right rotator cuff. Used a final-round 65 to blow away the field by seven shots, the largest margin of victory ever at the TPC of Michigan. His 72-hole score of 21-under 267 also equaled Gil Morgan's tournament record set in Dearborn in 1998... Rallied from an opening-round 73 to successfully defend his Ameritech Senior Open title by one stroke over Gary McCord, Bruce Fleisher and Raymond Floyd... Captured the Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic the next week in wire-to-wire fashion, defeating Jim Dent and Dale Douglass by two shots. Win in Minnesota moved him into solo second place on the all-time Champions Tour wins list... Set a Champions Tour record for consecutive sub-70 rounds with 13 in a row (second round/Ameritech Senior Open through second round/AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship). 1998: Voted the circuit's Player of the Year for the second straight season after seven victories, including two major championships... In 22 starts, amazingly finished in the top five in all but two tournaments... Posted a record 18 consecutive top-five finishes before string ended at the Boone Valley Classic (T13)... Won his second consecutive Arnold Palmer Award as the circuit's leading money-winner and averaged $130,088 per start... Also garnered his third straight Byron Nelson Award for the lowest scoring average (68.59), breaking Lee Trevino's all-time mark of 68.89 set in 1990... Each of his seven victories was significant... Fired a course-record 62 in the final round of the Toshiba Senior Classic to come from five strokes back and overtake Hubert Green for the title... Won his third consecutive PGA Seniors' Championship, matching Eddie Williams' mark for consecutive wins in the event (1942, 1945, 1946)... Successfully defended his title the next week at the Las Vegas Senior Classic... Fourth title of the campaign came in wire-to-wire fashion at the Ameritech Senior Open, his second senior victory in Chicago... Despite an opening-round 77, made birdie on the 72nd hole to nip Vicente Fernandez at the U.S. Senior Open at Riviera CC. Became just the 10th player to claim a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event at the same venue. First-round score was also the highest ever by a winner in Champions Tour annals... Sixth victory at the BankBoston Classic was another successful title defense... Closed out the year with a five-stroke triumph at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach... Broke his own mark for fastest player to reach $1 million in a season when he went over seven figures in just his eighth official event ($101,200 for solo second place at the Bruno's Memorial Classic). 1997: Had nine victories to tie Peter Thomson's 1985 record for most wins in one season... Became the first player to hit the $2-million mark in one season when he won his eighth title at the Vantage Championship and pocketed $225,000... Nine wins came in just 23 starts (18 top-10 finishes)... Got his year off to a great beginning with a two-stroke victory over Gil Morgan at the MasterCard Championship in Hawaii... Outdueled Bob Murphy a month later to win the LG Championship in Naples... Set a standard by successfully defending his PGA Seniors' Championship, winning by a Champions Tour-record 12 strokes... Edged Isao Aoki with a birdie putt at the final hole of the Las Vegas Senior Classic... Took control of the Burnet Senior Classic near Minneapolis with a birdie at the 17th hole and slipped past Lee Trevino... Made birdies on the final two holes for a two-stroke win at the BankBoston Classic... Claimed the Boone Valley Classic near his home in St. Louis, playing all 54 holes without a bogey... Played another bogey-free event at the Vantage Championship and used a 62 at Tanglewood in the second round to edge Dave

Eichelberger...Tied Peter Thomson's record for wins in a single season with his ninth victory at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic, defeating Mike Hill and Bruce Summerhays by three strokes...Claimed his first four titles in just seven starts, the fastest ever to that number...Of the 74 rounds he played, 57 were below par (77 percent) and only 13 were over par...More than half (41 of 74/55 percent) of his rounds were in the 60s...Won the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner and notched his second consecutive Byron Nelson Award as the Champions Tour scoring leader (68.92). 1996: Just missed winning money title by $12,121 when he was passed by Jim Colbert on the final day at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship, thanks to a birdie on the 72nd hole...Averaged $70,250 per start for the year with wins at PGA Seniors' Championship and American Express Invitational...Led the Champions Tour with 21 top-10 finishes and was under par in 21 of 23 events...Won his first Byron Nelson Award as the Champions Tour scoring leader (69.47)...Victory at the American Express Invitational pushed him past $1 million in Champions Tour earnings in his 16th event, the fastest to do so at the time. 1995: Champions Tour Rookie of the Year after pair of victories and 10th-place finish on the money list in just 12 appearances...Made debut at BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland (T4)...Claimed first win at the Ameritech Senior Open in his fifth start...Victory was third of his career in Chicago area (also won '90 U.S. Open and '75 Western Open). Defeated Kermit Zarley by a whopping seven shots, equaling the largest winning margin on the Champions Tour in 1995...His 21-under-par 195 total smashed the tournament record by five and was just one shy of the all-time 54-hole scoring record in relation to par...Did not make a bogey all week at the Vantage Championship and defeated Dave Stockton by four strokes.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Has posted 106 top-three finishes (44 wins, 40 seconds, 22 thirds) in his 250 career appearances on the Champions Tour (42 percent) and had also finished in the top 10 179 times (72 percent)...Has won multiple events on the Champions Tour 12 times and has done it four times on the PGA TOUR...Of his 44 career wins, he has won 24 different events and 18 of his 44 victories have come after turning 55...Had averaged $90,306 per start on the Champions Tour prior to 2006 season...Has earned checks totaling $100,000 or more 87 times in his Champions Tour career...His illustrious 29-year PGA TOUR career was highlighted by three U.S. Open titles, the last of which came in a grueling 19-hole playoff with Mike Donald at Medinah in 1990. Sank a 45-foot putt on the final hole to force overtime the next day, and then eventually won with a 10-foot birdie putt. Victory at 45 made him the oldest to win a U.S. Open...Followed that win with another the next week at the Buick Classic, and went on to have his finest earnings year on the PGA TOUR (sixth/$838,249)...Other two Open victories came at Winged Foot in 1974 and Inverness in 1979...First and last of his 20 official TOUR wins (three total at Harbour Town) came at the MCI Heritage Classic. BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH:

T8—Bruno's Memorial Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Posted first top-10 in nearly a year when he finished T8 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, thanks, in part, to a final-round, 6-under-par 66...Was T12 at the weather-shortened, 36-hole Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Birdied all four of the TPC of Tampa Bay's par 3s en route to a final-round 71. Played the majority of his last round during rare Monday finish, and four 2s on the scorecard were a first in tournament history...Won his first-ever Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions event at the Constellation Energy Classic, defeating Mike McCullough, Bob Murphy and Jim Colbert by two strokes...Finished third in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship near Atlanta and was third on the final money list, with $103,975...A three-time Driving Distance champion, he finished ninth in that category despite having the second-best average in his career (287.6).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Failed to place in the top 30 on the money list for the first time in his career, finishing 39th overall...Recorded five top-10 finishes for the year but none after a T5 at the Bank of America Championship in late June where he was just two strokes off the lead after 36 holes before closing with a 71 near Boston...Most productive outing came early in the season when he was a third-place finisher at the Toshiba Senior Classic after being one stroke off the lead after 36 holes...Started the year with consecutive top-10 finishes. Was T9 at the MasterCard Championship and followed that with a T5 at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic. 2003: Claimed the biggest prize of his career in early June near Philadelphia. Pulled away from Bobby Wadkins with birdies on the 15th and 16th holes to win the Senior PGA Championship at Aronimink GC by two strokes. Three of his four rounds were in the 60s, including a closing-round 68. In the process became the oldest winner of that event (58) since Pete Cooper, at age 61, in 1976. His $360,000 first-place check was his largest ever and was almost half of his total earnings on the season...Suffered left ankle sprain playing a practice round at the PGA Championship and missed one start in August. 2002: Had a career-best year from an earnings standpoint, with $1,224,737...Made a crucial par save on the final hole to win the rain-shortened Royal Caribbean Classic, his first victory since the 2000 Bruno's Memorial Classic. Edged Isao Aoki, Tom Watson and Bruce Fleisher by a stroke at Crandon Park with an 11-under 133 total...Started the season by finishing second to Tom Kite at the MasterCard Championship. Final-round 68 at Hualalai included the first double eagle of his career on the par-5, 566-yard 10th hole (driver/8-iron, 189 yards)...Third-round leader at The Countrywide Tradition following a 66 and then finished tied with Jim Thorpe after 72 holes at Superstition Mountain. Lost to Thorpe in the year's first major championship when, on the first extra playoff hole, his four-foot birdie attempt lipped out. 2001: Best effort came late in the year in Hawaii when he dueled Hale Irwin on the back nine of the Turtle Bay Championship before losing by three strokes. 2000: Eclipsed the $1-million mark for the first time in his professional career...Defeated Gil Morgan in overtime at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Came from six strokes back on Sunday with a final-round 64 at Greystone G&CC and then defeated Morgan with a par on the first playoff hole. Come-from-behind margin was the biggest by a

Champions Tour player since Bruce Summerhays rallied from six shots back at the 1997 Saint Lukes Classic near Kansas City...Was the first player to post four straight rounds in the 60s at the IR Senior Tour Championship and eventually finished second to Tom Watson by a stroke at the TPC of Myrtle Beach...Matched his career-low round with a 9-under 63 on Sunday at the Gold Rush Classic and finished third...Aced the eighth hole in the third round of the Ford Senior Players Championship, his second hole-in-one on the Champions Tour. 1999: Went wire-to-wire at the beginning of the year for a three-stroke victory over Jim Colbert and Raymond Floyd at the MasterCard Championship...Was also the 18- and 36-hole leader at the Toshiba Senior Classic, but lost to good friend Gary McCord in an exciting four-way playoff at Newport Beach. First shot his career-low round, an 8-under 63, on Saturday at the EMC Kaanapali Classic. 1998: Tasted victory for the first time in his Champions Tour career when he came from three strokes back on Sunday to claim the Nationwide Championship near Atlanta. Trained Gil Morgan and Bob Eastwood by three strokes at the start of the final round, but jumped into contention with birdies on five of his first nine holes. Made a key birdie at the 17th hole down the stretch to nip Hale Irwin by a stroke for the title. 1997: Nearly posted his first Champions Tour victory at the Southwestern Bell Dominion. Held a one-stroke lead over David Graham before Graham eagled the final hole to overtake him by one stroke...Knocked on the victory door again three weeks later when he was just two off the lead after 36 holes at the Las Vegas Senior Classic before finishing T3. 1996: Was 23rd on the final money list, with best finish a solo second at the rain-shortened Brickyard Crossing Championship. Earned fully-exempt status by finishing T2 at the 1995 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament...Made his debut on the Champions Tour in 1995, shortly after turning 50, and Monday-qualified for three events.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

From 1968 through 1980, played numerous events on the PGA TOUR, recording three second-place finishes. One of those came at the 1972 Jacksonville Open, where he lost to Tony Jacklin in a playoff...Played in Asia during much of the 1980s...Was the first American to win the Asian golf circuit Order of Merit in 1984...From 1968 through 1991, won more than 100 long drive championships around the world.

PERSONAL:

Grew up on a golf course as a child as his father was director of parks and recreation for the city of Los Angeles...Was assisted in the development of his game by his brother, Tommy, a four-time winner on the PGA TOUR...His dream foursome would include his brother, Arnold Palmer and Walter Hagen, with maybe Ben Hogan thrown in to offset Hagen...Enjoys horse racing and says if he could have one job outside of golf for a day it would be having the opportunity to call a race at a track...Enjoys Italian food...Favorite athletes are Michael Jordan and Arnold Palmer...Selects Winston Churchill and Franklin D. Roosevelt as the two people in history he would most like to meet because their decisions changed our world...Biggest thrills in golf were making the Champions Tour and winning 2003 Senior PGA Championship...Good friend of fellow Champions Tour player Gary McCord.

2005 SEASON:

Was a top-30 finisher and earned his second consecutive berth in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship despite knee woes which limited him to just 10 starts on the Champions Tour...Overcame health problems to earn Comeback Player of the Year honors...Initially underwent surgery on his right knee at the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic in Vail, CO, on Feb. 14 and was out of action until THE PLAYERS Championship at the end of March, where he missed the cut. Had surgery on the same knee again on September 7 at the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic to remove floating pieces of torn cartilage and returned in late October at the FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World Resort...Just prior to the second surgery, knee problems forced him to withdraw from the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach before the start of the final round... Highlight of the campaign came in July when he picked up his second win in a major championship on the Champions Tour, nipping Hale Irwin by one stroke at the Ford Senior Players Championship near Detroit. Key birdies on two of the final three holes were instrumental in his come-from-behind win. Had started the final round three strokes behind Irwin but closed with a 6-under-par 66 for the win. Victory made him just one of three golfers (Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus) whose first two Champions Tour wins came in major championships...Finished T10 at the season-opening MasterCard Championship and then did not play again on the Champions Tour until the Blue Angels Classic near Pensacola in early May. Opened and closed with rounds of 65 to T3 at The Moors, three strokes out of a playoff...Was on the leaderboard all four days of the Senior PGA Championship and eventually T6 at Laurel Valley after posting a final-round 75...Played in 11 events on the PGA TOUR and made the cut in five, including the U.S. Open at Pinehurst No. 2 where he finished T15. It was his first start in the U.S. Open since 1996 (T23) and earned an exemption into the tournament after winning the 2004 U.S. Senior Open. It was his first made cut in a major on the PGA TOUR since the 1997 PGA Championship (T67). Performance at Pinehurst earned him a return trip to the prestigious event in 2006. Made a hole-in-one on 175-yard No. 9 (7-iron) on Saturday, which led to a 1-under 69 in the third round, his first sub-70 performance at a PGA TOUR major championship since posting a 69 in the final round of the 1996 British Open and his first score in the 60s at a U.S. Open since shooting 64 during the final round of the 1998 event at The Country Club in Brookline, MA...Had good showing at the MCI Heritage on the PGA TOUR in May, finishing T25...Also finished T28 at the PGA TOUR's Sony Open in Hawaii at the start of the year.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Officially joined the Champions Tour at the SBC Classic in March shortly after turning 50, but subsequent left hip surgery in April kept him out of action on the Tour for nearly three months...Highlight of his season came in his third start on the Champions Tour in late July when he was one-stroke victor over Hale Irwin in the U.S. Senior Open near St. Louis. Posted rounds of 69-68 Sunday, despite walking all 36 holes in 90-degree heat at Bellerive with a sore left hip. Became the second-youngest champion in Senior Open history at 50 years, 4 months, 28 days (Dale Douglass is youngest at 50/3/24)...Nearly won his second major title less than a month later. Shared the third-round lead with Vicente Fernandez at the JELD-WEN Tradition near his home in Portland, but couldn't hang on in Sunday's final round. Was among a half-dozen players slugging it out down the stretch on Sunday's back nine but saw his chances go awry when he made a double bogey at No. 17. Birdied the final hole, but his closing-round, 1-over-par 73 left him T4...Appeared to be in the driver's seat down the stretch at the inaugural Administaff Small Business Classic but dumped his second shot in the water from a fairway bunker on the par-5 final hole and fell one stroke short of a playoff with Hale Irwin and eventual winner Larry Nelson...Had to withdraw from both the Ford Senior Players Championship and the Senior British Open with hip problems prior to his Senior Open win...Finished third in his Champions Tour debut at the SBC Classic in early March. Was among the first-round leaders at Valencia after opening with 5-under 67...Also was tied for the first-round lead at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic after firing a 6-under 64 on Friday. Eventually T26 at Eisenhower Park after experiencing pain in his left hip on the weekend...Withdrew from the MCI Heritage Classic on the PGA TOUR in April and underwent left hip surgery to repair a torn labrum the following week. Did not play again until early July at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic...Has made 16 holes-in-one in competitive rounds.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Qualified for the PGA TOUR in Fall 1976 and won seven times in 27 years on the circuit...Finished among the top 60 on the 2003 PGA TOUR money list with a personal-best $1,162,726 for a single season. Highlight of his year was his seventh career victory on TOUR at the Greater Hartford Open. Held at least a share of the lead for all four days in carding four rounds in the 60s (63-67-69-67--266). Defeated Chris Riley by two strokes at the TPC at River Highlands. Victory came 19 years since last win at Hartford (1984), joining Arnold Palmer, Billy Casper, Paul Azinger and Phil Mickelson as multiple winners of the event. Triumph also came in his 27th season on the PGA TOUR (624th career tournament), making him seventh-oldest winner in TOUR history at 49 years, 4 months, 23 days. First-place check of $720,000 was exactly 10 times more than he earned for his first GHO victory in 1984 ($72,000). Named 2003 PGA TOUR Comeback Player of the Year...His highest finish on the money list came in 1995 when he was seventh ($1,075,057) on the strength of back-to-back victories at the AT&T Pebble Beach National

2005 SEASON:

Finished in the top 30 on the money list for the second consecutive year and earned a spot in the season-ending

Charles Schwab Cup Championship...His top two performances came at different times during the year...In his third start of the season, he won his second title (his 23rd career start) at The ACE Group Classic in mid-February. Edged Hale Irwin and Tom Wargo by two strokes with birdies on the final two holes. Was the only player in the field to record three consecutive rounds in the 60s at The Club at TwinEagles...Had another strong finish in the next-to-last event of the year in San Antonio at the SBC Championship. On the leaderboard throughout the event and was only one stroke off the lead through 36 holes before finishing solo third at Oak Hills...Also had nice showing at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August, thanks to four straight sub-par rounds which helped him to a fourth-place finish, two behind winner Loren Roberts...Played a few events on the European Seniors Tour and won the Bovis Lend Lease European Senior Masters title in a one-hole playoff against Sam Torrance at the Woburn GC in England...Also T6 at the DeVere Northumberland Seniors Classic.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Enjoyed highly successful rookie season and played some of his best golf in the Champions Tour majors...Claimed one of the year's biggest prizes when he was a one-stroke victor over Jose Maria Canizares at the Ford Senior Players Championship. Win near Detroit was the first by a European-born player in a Champions Tour major championship, and he earned a career-best check for $375,000 in Michigan. Started with three straight rounds in the 60s but a 1-over-par 73 was good enough to hold off Canizares by one stroke for the title...Followed his win in Michigan with another strong showing at the Senior British Open in Northern Ireland, placing fourth, two strokes behind winner Pete Oakley at Royal Portrush...Earned July Player of the Month honors as a result of his outstanding play...Made his debut on the Champions Tour at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic and T18 at Crandon Park, six strokes back of winner Bruce Fleisher...Suffered a torn meniscus in his left knee while skiing in France prior to coming to America and had arthroscopic surgery in Fort Lauderdale, FL, after the Royal Caribbean event. Missed two other Florida tournaments, but returned to action at the MasterCard Classic in Mexico (T13)...Led all players in Total Driving.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: 1—Allianz Championship; 2—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, Bruno's Memorial Classic, SAS Championship; T3—Blue Angels Classic; 5—Senior PGA Championship, Commerce Bank Championship, JELD-WEN Tradition.

2005 SEASON:

Financially, enjoyed his best season on the Champions Tour since becoming a member in 1998. Earned a career-best total of nearly $1.5 million which placed him sixth on the money list...It marked the seventh straight year he has been among the top-30 money winners...Played 27 of 28 events, missing only the Senior British Open...Won for the sixth time in his career, defeating D.A. Weirbring with a five-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole at the Allianz Championship near Des Moines, the fourth straight year he has won an event. Birdied four of six holes during one stretch on the back nine and kept his composure after missing a three-foot birdie putt on No. 17 that would have given him the win in regulation. Win capped a run of five top-five finishes in six appearances that started when he was the runner-up to Des Smyth at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Finished T2 at the SAS Championship, two strokes behind Hale Irwin. Trained 36-hole leader R.W. Eaks by two strokes heading into Sunday's final round and closed with a 2-under-par 70, but could not hold off a back-nine charge from Irwin, who played the final nine holes in 6-under-par...Finished T3 in defense of his Blue Angels Classic title after opening and closing with a 66 at The Moors...Had a nice effort in Sunday's final round at Bruno's Memorial Classic, where he worked his way among the leaders and finished T2, his fourth straight finish in the top eight at this event...Solo fifth-place effort at the Senior PGA Championship was his best performance in a senior major since 2003 Ford Senior Players Championship (T5)...Also placed solo fifth at the Commerce Bank Championship thanks to an 8-under 63 in the second round, his best round on the Champions Tour in 2005...Finished T5 at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Trained 54-hole co-leaders Doug Tewell and Gil Morgan by just one stroke but shot an even-par 72 in the final round to slip to T5...Made his third career ace on the Champions Tour during the second round of the 3M Championship (4-iron, 200 yards, No. 13). Hole-in-one in Minnesota was his 12th eagle of the season, tying a career-high originally set in

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Lone victory came in April when his final-round 63 helped him cruise to a five-stroke win at the Blue Angels Classic, his fifth career title on the Champions Tour. Moved into contention with a second-round 65 at The Moors and then vaulted into the lead for good with birdies on three of his first four holes Sunday...Twice a runner-up during the season. Second to Craig Stadler at the SAS Championship in September and finished three shots behind D.A. Weir at the Allianz Championship in May.

2003: Was perhaps the Champions Tour's most consistent player and may have had his finest year in golf, with 15 top-10 finishes in 30 starts, a 2003 Champions Tour best...Also tied with Allen Doyle for the most sub-par rounds during the year (64) and 41 of his 94 total rounds were in the 60s (T2)...Highlight of his season came in early May when he registered his fourth career win on the Champions Tour at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Broke away from Bruce Fleisher and Hale Irwin with a final-round 67 for a three-stroke victory. Needed just 78 total putts over 54 holes at Greystone and became eligible for the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf (five combined career titles) as a result of his triumph near Birmingham...Came close to winning earlier in the year in Mexico, but along with three other players, fell one stroke short of first-time winner David Eger at the MasterCard Classic...His 7-under-par 63 in the final round at the Long Island Classic included a 6-under 28 on the front nine, the season's lowest numerical nine-hole score...Joined John Bland as the only other Champions Tour player with multiple aces during the year. First made a hole-in-one in the third round of the JELD-WEN Tradition when he aced No. 7 at The Reserve with a 4-iron from 203 yards and then notched his seventh career ace in the second round of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship when he used a 9-iron from 138 yards on No. 17 at Sonoma GC. 2002: Won north of the border for the second time when he triumphed at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship. Opened with a 63 at Essex and closed with 64 to defeat Walter Morgan, Morris Hatafsky and Bruce Lietzke by three strokes. In winning, became first player since Don January (1983-84) to win multiple Champions Tour titles in Canada...Made strong bid for second win of the year, closing with a career-best 10-under-par 62 at the Kroger Senior Classic, which also tied the course record set earlier in the day by Bruce Lietzke. However, fell in a two-hole playoff with Bob Gilder, the second year in succession he lost in a playoff at the event...T10 at the Toshiba Senior Classic after playing all 54 holes without a bogey, the first senior to do so since Joe Inman at the 2000 EMC Kaanapali Classic. Bogey-free streak reached 67 holes before it ended the next week on the in sixth hole in the opening round of the Siebel Classic.

2001: The only one of 16 millionaires to not win an event...Knocked on the victory door three times only to come up short with three runner-up finishes. Was in the hunt throughout The Instinet Classic, but finished two strokes back of Gil Morgan. One of only three players in the Novell Utah Showdown field to card three consecutive sub-70 rounds, but came up one stroke shy of Steve Veriato in Park City. Had victory snatched from his grasp at the Kroger Senior Classic. Closed with a then-career-best 7-under 63 at Kings Island on Sunday and was two strokes up on Jim Thorpe with one hole to play. Dramatic eagle by Thorpe forced a playoff and then a birdie by Thorpe on the first extra hole proved to be the winner. 2000: Earned his second career title as a senior at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship. Made birdie on the final hole to nip Kermit Zarley by a stroke at St. Charles CC in Winnipeg. Victory came just over a month after his wife, Martha, delivered Tom Jr. 1999: Voted by his peers as the Champions Tour's Comeback Player of the Year...Won the Bell Atlantic Classic in a playoff. Defeated Jim Thorpe with a birdie on the first extra hole for his first Champions Tour victory and first TOUR title since the 1975 IVB-Philadelphia Classic. Win at Hartefeld National made him the fifth of a record 11 first-time winners on the season. 1998: Contended for the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship crown in Calgary, but finished T2 behind Brian Barnes. 1997: Earned a conditional exemption for 1998 by placing 10th at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in November.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR full-time from 1973-85, with his busiest year coming in 1981, when he made 28 of 34 cuts. Earned a career-best $78,127, with his best finish that year a T2 at the Wickes-Andy Williams San Diego Open. Was one stroke off the lead after three rounds before finishing in a tie with Bruce Lietzke and Raymond Floyd. Lietzke won with a birdie on the second extra hole...Made 315 career starts and made 223 cuts with 17 top-10 finishes...Claimed his only PGA TOUR victory in 1975 at the IVB-Philadelphia Classic, where he held off a late-charging Johnny Miller by one stroke...Had a T2 at the 1973 USI Classic...Played 29 events on the Nationwide Tour from 1992-94.

PERSONAL:

Biggest thrills in golf have been playing on the University of Houston's 1970 NCAA championship team, all of his victories on both the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour and playing with both Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus...Biggest thrill outside of golf is being at the birth of his three children...Got started in golf by watching his father and older brother...A college teammate of John Mahaffey...His brother owns Winged Canyon, a winery in the Napa Valley...Favorite golf course is Pebble Beach...Enjoys watching "MASH" and "Seinfeld" reruns and lists Bob Hope as his favorite entertainer...American cyclist Lance Armstrong is his favorite athlete...Enjoys Mexican food...Best friend on the Champions Tour is Bruce Fleisher.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $13,600

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: 1—Toshiba Senior Classic; T3—FedEx Kinko's Classic; T8—Bruno's Memorial Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Carried his success as the medalist at the 2004 National Qualifying Tournament into the regular season as he finished 28th on the money list in his first full season on the circuit. Became the third consecutive medalist to finish in the top 30 on the final money list, joining Des Smyth (2002) and Mark McNulty (2003). Undoubtedly, highlight of his season came in March when he broke through for his first Champions Tour victory in a spectacular way. Clinging to a two-stroke lead on the final hole at the Toshiba Senior Classic, he holed an L-wedge from 89 yards for an eagle on the 510-yard 18th hole. After hitting his wedge slightly past the hole, the ball rolled back into the cup for his second eagle in the round and gave him a comfortable four-stroke advantage over Keith Fergus and Wayne Levi. Got himself into contention on Saturday with an 8-under-par 63, his career-low score, matching the best second round in tournament history. His winning check of $247,500 was the best of his brief pro career and also surpassed his previous earnings as a professional...Backed up California victory with a T3 at the FedEx Kinko's Classic in Austin in early May. Jumped into contention midway through the final round at The Hills CC before eventually finishing five strokes back...Was T8 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Appeared in just nine events, five of those through open qualifying...Registered his best finish of the campaign when he open-qualified for the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston in October and finished T8 at Augusta Pines, the top effort by any open qualifier in 2004...Also T12 at the Farmers Charity Classic after open qualifying at Grand Rapids...Captured medalist honors at the National Qualifying Tournament at the King and Bear at World Golf Village in Florida, where he was a two-stroke winner over Tom McKnight. Posted six sub-par rounds along the way, including an 8-under-par 64 in the final round. 2003: Earned a conditional exemption for 2004 after finishing 14th at the 2003 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC at Eagle Trace in Florida. One of two players tied for 14th after 72 holes at even-par 288, but claimed the 14th spot after a birdie on the second playoff hole. Earned a position in the Q-School finals after earning co-medalist honors at the Regional Qualifier in Calimesa, CA...Played on the Canadian Tour and was fourth on the Canadian Tour money list, with $47,451...Played in 10 events and made seven cuts, with his best finishes a pair of T2s at the TravelTex.com Canadian Tour Challenge and the Greater Vancouver Classic. Shared first-place money in Vancouver after an amateur, James Lepp, won the title...Named the Most Improved International Player...Made one start on the Nationwide Tour and was 46th at the Alberta Calgary Classic, where he earned $1,633...Also played at the Bell Canadian Open but missed the cut.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the Canadian Tour in 1999-2001...Played a full season on the Nationwide Tour in 2001 and earned $21,508 in 21 starts. His best finish was a T13 at the Siouxland Open...Overall has made 26 career starts on the Nationwide Tour, with earnings totaling $25,620...Owns two starts on the PGA TOUR, including a T43 at the 2001 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, where he opened with a 65 and was just one stroke out of the lead...Won a number of amateur events in the Southern California area, including the 1996 California State Amateur.

PERSONAL:

Drove a Budweiser beer truck for 18 years before embarking on a professional golf career...His parents got him started in the game at age 9 in California...Biggest thrills in golf were winning the California State Amateur and his first Champions Tour win...Favorites include Pebble Beach GL, The Golf Channel, ESPN, Garth Brooks and "Titanic"...Top athlete is Tiger Woods and his favorite food is spaghetti...Involved with a charity golf tournament in his hometown which carries his name and is helping to raise funds for a new middle school in the Helendale Unified School District...His Web site is beermandgolf.com.

2005 SEASON:

Split his time between the Champions Tour and the PGA TOUR where he used his one-time exemption as one of the PGA TOUR's top-50 career money winners...On the Champions Tour, appeared in 18 events, fewest since he joined the Tour...Earnings fell shy of the $1-million mark for the first time in six seasons, but still claimed a spot in the top 30...Had two second-place finishes...Was T2 at Bruno's Memorial Classic, where he tied the course record with a 9-under-par 63 in the second round. Led the tournament at one point Sunday before finishing two strokes behind D.A. Weibring, along with Tom Jenkins...Also had a second-place finish at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic in August, but three straight rounds in the 60s still left him three strokes shy of David Eger...Was T5 in defense of his 3M Championship title. Fired three consecutive sub-70 scores at the TPC of the Twin Cities for the second straight year and was in contention down the stretch before making bogey on the final hole...Closed his Champions Tour season in strong fashion, finishing solo third at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, his third straight top-3 finish in Sonoma, CA...Made a valiant run at becoming the oldest PGA TOUR winner ever. Was the 54-hole leader at the Booz Allen Classic at Congressional CC, but carded a final-round, 3-over 74 on the famed layout to T13, his best PGA TOUR finish since a T5 at the 2001 U.S. Open...Also made cuts at the Sony Open in Hawaii and the Wachovia Championship...Overall made 12 starts on the PGA TOUR.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Started slowly for the second consecutive year, but went on to finish third on the final earnings list, his highest standing ever, with more than $1.8 million, a career best. Also placed third on the final Charles Schwab Cup points list...Had more top-five finishes than any other Champions Tour player, with all 10 top-fives coming after the start of May. Led the Champions Tour in sub-par rounds (58) and also had 39 rounds in the 60s (second to Irwin) out of 86 (45 percent) played...Ended nearly a 22-month victory drought by winning the 3M Championship, his seventh overall title on the Champions Tour, and came close to winning on several other occasions. One-stroke win over Craig Stadler at the TPC of the Twin Cities came during the midst of five consecutive top-five performances and was his first victory in 47 official starts on the Champions Tour. Took the lead with a 13-foot birdie putt on the 13th hole and then used a clutch two-putt birdie from 68 feet on the final green to notch the win...The week prior, had led for most of the last 36 holes of the U.S. Senior Open, but played the last four holes at Bellerive in 4-over to drop back into a T3 with Jay Haas...Was in contention the week earlier for all four days at the Senior British Open at Royal Portrush GC before falling one stroke short of eventual winner Pete Oakley in Northern Ireland...T2 at the Bank of America Championship, four strokes back of Craig Stadler and also finished second to Mark McNulty at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship despite shooting an 8-under 64 in the first round and holding a two-stroke advantage going into the final round...Low round of the campaign was an 8-under 63 on Friday at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am...Became one of the oldest players to earn a spot in the U.S. Open when he earned a berth at a qualifying tournament near Houston. Made the field in the prestigious event for the 31st consecutive year and 33rd time overall, tying Arnold Palmer and Gene Sarazen for third all-time. Made the cut at Shinnecock Hills and finished T57...Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in November, along with Charlie Sifford, Marlene Streif and Isao Aoki. 2003: Did not win an event for the first time in four years on the Champions Tour and $1,549,819 in earnings were the most money ever in a season without a victory, breaking Dana Quigley's mark of $1,327,659 set in 1999...Made a spirited run in the final round of the SAS Championship before eventually finishing T2 along with Bobby Wadkins, one stroke back of D.A. Weibring. Posted a career-best 11-under 61 on Sunday at Prestonwood and almost came from 11 strokes back to win. Final round included just 22 putts, with one-putts on each of the last nine holes...Also T2 at the JELD-WEN Tradition near Portland, one stroke back of Tom Watson. Missed sending the event into a playoff when he didn't convert a five-foot birdie putt on the final hole...Equaled the TPC of Michigan course record with a 63 and vaulted from 10th into a T2 at the Ford Senior Players Championship. His 9-under round was the lowest Sunday score in tournament history...Was the 36-hole leader at the Turtle Bay Championship before falling by two strokes to Hale Irwin in October. Traded leads with Irwin in the final round before hitting his second shot into the water on the 18th hole...Appeared to be in control at the Kinko's Classic in his hometown of Austin with two holes to play, but bogeys on 17 and 18 proved costly as he slipped into a T4, two strokes out of the Irwin-Watson playoff...Led the Champions Tour in Greens in Regulation for the fourth straight year and also tied Larry Nelson for the best birdie average 4.30...Had more rounds in the 60s than any other player (42)...Played in the U.S. Open at Olympia Fields, but missed the cut. 2002: Three victories, equaling the total of his first two years on the circuit, and a first for him since 1989...Was a six-stroke winner at the first official event, the MasterCard Championship. Became just the third player to go wire-to-wire in the tournament after opening with a Hualalai course-record 63 that included a pair of eagles on the front nine. Victory in Hawaii made him just the fourth player to claim the season-opening event on both the Champions Tour and the PGA TOUR (joining Jack Nicklaus, Al Geiberger and Don January)...Defeated Tom Watson in a playoff to win the SBC Senior Classic. Forced the overtime session with a birdie on the 18th hole and then made par on the second extra hole for the victory...Won his ninth TOUR title in the state of California near the end of the season. Held off Bruce Fleisher and Fred Gibson to win the Napa Valley Championship by one stroke despite shooting an even-par 72 on Sunday, the highest final-round score by a winner in 2002 and also the highest finish by a winner in the history of the event. Win at Silverado came 30 years after he successfully made it through the PGA TOUR Qualifying School at the same venue...Made consecutive eagles in the final round of the AT&T Canada Senior Open, a Champions Tour first since Steve Veriato made back-to-back eagles at the 2002 Gold Rush Classic...Played in four PGA TOUR events, including first Masters since 1998, but missed the cut at Augusta National...Finished T36 at THE PLAYERS Championship, the 23rd time he made the cut in the event, a tournament record...Missed the cut at the MasterCard Colonial, ending a streak of 28 straight years in which he made the cut in the Fort Worth event. 2001: Was among the top 10 in over two-thirds of his starts...Won the Gold Rush Classic by one stroke over Allen Doyle. Three-round total of 22-under 194 at Serrano CC tied an all-time 54-hole Champions Tour record in relation to par and included a 62 in the second round, his best score since closing with a 62 at the 1993 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic on the PGA TOUR. 17-under 127 score after two days was the lowest first 36-hole total of the year and 15-under 129 on Saturday and Sunday was the lowest last 36-hole total in 2001...Played in five events on the PGA TOUR...Rallied from 44th place after three rounds to T5 at the U.S. Open at Southern Hills, the best finish by a senior in a major championship since Sam Snead T3 in the 1974 PGA Championship. Along with Vijay Singh, fired a sizzling 6-under 64 in the final round, one shot off the 18-hole U.S. Open scoring record. 2000: Posted first Champions Tour victory in his fifth start, a three-man playoff with Larry Nelson and Tom Watson at The Countrywide Tradition. Battled Watson for six holes (Nelson went out on the second extra hole) before prevailing with a birdie. Became the first player since Tom Wargo at the PGA Seniors' in 1993 to make his first victory a Champions Tour major...Also had a two-stroke win over Bruce Fleisher at the SBC Senior Open. Played the last four holes in 3-under-par to overtake Fleisher...Finished in the top 10 in all four Champions Tour majors. Finished T2 at the rain-shortened PGA Seniors' Championship, third at the U.S. Senior Open at Saucon Valley and sixth at the Ford Senior Players Championship after holding the lead going into the final round...Set a new Champions Tour standard by hitting 78.0 percent of Greens in Regulation, breaking the old mark of 77.0 percent by John Mahaffey in 1999.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Was the first player in PGA TOUR history to reach $6 million, $7 million, $8 million and $9 million in career earnings...Led the TOUR in career earnings from October 29, 1989 until August 27, 1995...Ranks T37 among PGA TOUR winners with 19 official titles...Most memorable was 1992 U.S. Open triumph at Pebble Beach. His even-par 72 in difficult conditions earned him a two-stroke victory over Jeff Sluman...Was the TOUR's leading money-winner in 1981 and 1989...Won the 1981 American Motors-Inverrary Classic by one stroke over Jack Nicklaus...Had his best year play the next week, finishing T5 at the Turtle Bay Championship...Made impressive showing at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Fired three consecutive sub-par rounds to finish T2, four strokes behind winner Mark Johnson...Was the 36-hole leader at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in Savannah, but finished T3 after shooting a 76 Sunday in cool, windy conditions...Was the 36-hole co-leader the following week at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, but slid to T3 after posting a final-round 73 in Austin...Was T5 at the U.S. Senior Open in Dayton, his best performance in a major championship on the Champions Tour...Made lone PGA TOUR appearance at B.C. Open in July and T52. Has made it to the weekend at B.C. every year since 1999...Once again among the leaders in Driving Accuracy, with a personal-best of 79.3 percent, placing him fifth overall.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Enjoyed his finest season on the Champions Tour, surpassing the $1-million mark for the first time and finishing 11th overall on the money list, nine spots higher than 2003...Won for the second time in his career when he went wire-to-wire at the Constellation Energy Classic in early October. Held off a late charge from Hale Irwin for a two-stroke win near Baltimore...Opened with an 8-under-par 64 in his next start at the Administaff Small Business Classic and held a two-stroke margin over D.A. Weibring after 36 holes, but a closing-round 72 left him T3...Earlier in the year was a T2 at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic. Besides eventual winner Jim Thorpe, was the only other player to post three straight rounds in the 60s on Eisenhower Park's Red Course. Missed a play-off with Thorpe when his uphill 15-foot birdie putt from the fringe on the last hole came up short. 2003: Highlight of the year was his first Champions Tour win, his first victory since the 1990 Canadian Open. Became the sixth of seven first-time winners on the Champions Tour when he triumphed by one stroke at the 3M Championship near Minneapolis in August. Put together three straight rounds in the 60s and sank a four-foot birdie putt on the final hole to nip Gil Morgan and Morris Hatafsky and earn $262,500, the largest check of his professional career. Victory at the TPC of the Twin Cities came in the midst of a run of 13 straight par-better rounds...Posted his career-low round on the Champions Tour when he shot 6-under 64 on Saturday at the Columbus Southern Open. 2002: Finished a respectable 28th on the money list in his first full year on the Champions Tour...Made his debut in early March at the SBC Senior Classic near Los Angeles and T37 at Valencia CC...Posted first top-10 finish with a T10 the next week at the Toshiba Senior Classic...Best finish among seven top-10 efforts was a T4 at the Farmers Charity Classic in Michigan...Was the 36-hole leader at the Senior PGA Championship, but faded on Saturday with a 5-over 75 and eventually T6 at Firestone.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR full time from 1977-97...Had career year in 1990, for which he was selected by peers as the first PGA TOUR Player of the Year. Claimed four victories from May to September, making him the first since Curtis Strange in 1988 to win four times...Became the fifth player to earn more than $1 million in one season, finishing second to Greg Norman on the money list with $1,024,647...In near darkness, captured the BellSouth Atlanta Classic, an event he also won in 1985, by one stroke over Keith Clearwater, Larry Mize and Nick Price...Two weeks later, captured the Centel Western Open by four over Payne Stewart...Also shot four straight rounds in the 60s for a two-stroke victory at the Canon Greater Hartford Open...Fourth victory came at the Canadian Open, by one over Ian Baker-Finch and Jim Woodward...First TOUR victory came with Bob Mann in 1978 Walt Disney World Team Championship...Upstate New York native captured the 1984 B.C. Open...Won the 1982 Hawaiian Open with an orange ball, the first player to win with a ball that wasn't white...Was a member of the 1991 U.S. Ryder Cup team and represented the U.S. in the 1991 World Cup, as well.

PERSONAL:

Maintains a great interest in the stock market. Home office has numerous computers and financial documents...Favorite movie is "Contact"...Says best shot of his career was the sand wedge he hit to win 1990 BellSouth Atlanta Classic in near-darkness...Admires Tiger Woods...Favorite course is Butler National near Chicago...Says greatest accomplishment was winning four tournaments in 1990 and earning Player of the Year Award.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T4—Bank of America Championship; T5—Administaff Small Business Classic; T6—SAS Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Failed to win, but was still among the top-30 money winners for the fifth consecutive year... Teamed with good friend Bill Rogers to finish T2 in the unofficial Raphael Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, four strokes back of Tom Watson/Andy North... Carded a 6-under 64 in the opening round of the Blue Angels Classic, his low round on the Champions Tour since shooting a 7-under 64 in the third round of the 2003 U.S. Senior Open, that led to his victory at Inverness... Was T4 at the Bank of America Championship... During the final round of the U.S. Senior Open, made his second career double eagle on the par-5 sixth hole of NCR CC's South Course. Holed a 219-yard second shot, the first albatross in event's history and the 27th on the Champions Tour... Was T6 at the SAS Championship and T8 at the 3M Championship, where he matched his career-best round on the Champions Tour with a 64 in the first round... His 7-under 65 Saturday at the Administaff Small Business Classic was the low round of the day and his best second-round score of the year.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: By his standards, did not enjoy the success he had in his previous three seasons on the Champions Tour, finishing with less than $1 million in earnings after surpassing that mark in his first two campaigns. Did not win for the first time ever on the Tour as well... Got off to a slow start after being plagued at the beginning of the year by so-called "frozen shoulder," or adhesive capsulitis, which caused him to miss the entire Florida swing and the MasterCard Classic in Mexico, where he won in 2002... Played in the season-opening MasterCard Championship (finished 38th) before missing the next four events. Returned to play at the SBC Classic where he was T33... Posted a final-round 67 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic to vault into a T2 at Greystone G&CC. Round equaled the lowest score shot on Sunday and gave him his best finish since T2 at the 2003 Allianz Championship... Followed his strong effort in Alabama with a runner-up finish the next week at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, where he fell one stroke shy of Larry Nelson... Made his second career hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the final round of the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic. Aced the 179-yard 16th hole on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park with a 4-iron shot... Was fourth at the Ford Senior Players Championship, where his second round included a pair of eagles... Played in every event after mid-August (eight straight), a first for him since the early '80s. 2003: Won multiple titles on the Champions Tour for the third straight season and was in contention throughout the year for the Charles Schwab Cup. Eventually finished third in the Schwab Cup standings and placed fourth on the final 2003 money list with a personal-best $1.6 million, his highest ranking since placing fourth on the 1981 PGA TOUR earnings list... Made a strong bid for Player of the Year honors early on with eight of his nine top-10 finishes coming prior to July. Capped off the first half of the season by winning his first major title at the U.S. Senior Open. Was victorious by two strokes over Tom Watson at Toledo's Inverness Club, despite a closing-round 73. Helped position himself for his win with a 7-under-par 64 in the third round. Earned a check for $470,000, the largest of his professional career, and also was voted as the Player of the Month for June. Open victory ended a string of 16 consecutive events to begin a Champions Tour season without a repeat winner... Claimed his first victory of the year at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf despite playing the final 10 holes of the event without making a birdie. Held off David Eger and Dana Quigley by one stroke at the Westin Savannah Harbor course... Made another strong bid for victory in late August at the Allianz Championship, but finished T2 in Des Moines despite three straight rounds in the 60s, his third consecutive top-three performance in Iowa... Tied a Champions Tour record at the MasterCard Championship when he made a rare three eagles in the second round on his way to a T7 in Hawaii. Became just the fourth player in Champions Tour history to record three eagles in the same round and the first since Rocky Thompson at the 1992 Kaanapali Classic... Came close to defending his title at the MasterCard Classic in Mexico City, but fell one stroke shy of David Eger at Bosque Real CC. 2002: Rallied from a first-round 75 to win the Audi Senior Classic early in the season, beating Hale Irwin and Gary McCord by one stroke. Shot 66-67 on the weekend in Mexico City, capped by three birdies on his final nine holes. Opening round was the highest by an eventual winner since Hale Irwin opened with a 77 and won the 1998 U.S. Senior Open in Los Angeles... Also captured the rain-shortened TD Waterhouse Championship near Kansas City. Moved in front on Saturday with an 8-under 64 at Tiffany Greens and was declared the winner on Sunday when the golf course was deemed unplayable after a series of overnight thunderstorms... Claimed his third title when he defended at the SAS Championship. Helped his cause with a tournament-record, 9-under-par 63 in the second round and won by four shots. Became the first player to defend a title in 2002, and it also marked the fifth time in his career he has posted multiple victories in the same event... Moved into contention at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship with a 9-under 62 on Saturday, his low round on Tour since the 1998 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic. Led the event through 10 holes on Sunday, but eventually fell to Tom Jenkins by three strokes... Set a course record in the final round of the Kroger Senior Classic with a 10-under-par 62 at the TPC at River's Bend. 2001: Became eligible for the Champions Tour in mid-July. Battled Bob Gilder for Rookie of the Year honors after posting a pair of victories and seven top-10s in just 10 senior appearances... Led the Champions Tour in most money won per start ($111,957) and became the last of 16 players to earn seven figures when he pocketed a check for $213,000 at the season-ending SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia... Debuted on the circuit at the SBC Senior Open near Chicago and won his first event, the 3M Championship, in his third appearance on the circuit. Trained by two strokes entering the final round, but fired a 69 at the TPC of the Twin Cities on Sunday to defeat Doug Tewell by two strokes. Made his first hole-in-one as a senior when he aced the 177-yard fourth hole with an 8-iron during the second round... Also won the inaugural SAS Championship in Raleigh, besting Allen Doyle and Gary McCord by three strokes, thanks to a final-round 66 at Prestonwood... Played two tournaments on the PGA TOUR prior to turning 50... Missed the cut at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic and T58 at the MasterCard Colonial.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Winner of 13 events in his 24-year PGA TOUR career that began in 1975, including three wins in 1981 when he was fourth on the money list with $343,446. Held at least a share of the lead after each round of the Bob Hope Desert Classic in defeating Jerry Pate by two strokes. Two weeks later, bested Raymond Floyd and Tom Jenkins in playoff at Wickes-Andy Williams San Diego Open. Defeated Tom Watson in playoff for title at Byron Nelson Classic...First TOUR win came in playoff over Gene Littler at 1977 Joe Garagiola-Tucson Open and added second victory that year at Hawaiian Open three weeks later...Won four tournaments twice—Colonial (1980, 1992), Byron Nelson (1981, 1988), Tucson (1977, 1979) and Canadian Open (1978, 1982)...Nearly claimed a third Byron Nelson title in 1992, losing a playoff to Billy Ray Brown. Missed winning third Canadian Open, losing playoff to Greg Norman the same year...Most recent victory came at 1994 Las Vegas Invitational. Closing-round 65 defeated hometown product Robert Gamez by one stroke. With victory, earned a berth in 1995 Mercedes Championship, where he lost to Steve Elkington in a playoff...Had chance to claim first win since 1994 at the 1998 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic. Lost his one-stroke lead at the final hole when he missed a 15-foot birdie putt and Fred Couples converted a birdie opportunity to force a playoff. Lost on the first extra hole when Couples again birdied the 18th hole...Was only player in field at all three tournaments at which a player shot a 59—1977 Danny Thomas Memphis Classic (Al Geiberger), 1991 Las Vegas Invitational (Chip Beck) and 1999 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic (David Duval)...Best overall monetary year on the PGA TOUR was when he pocketed $703,805 and placed 16th on the 1992 earnings list...Was a member of the 1981 U.S. Ryder Cup team and served as the assistant to Ben Crenshaw at the 1999 Ryder Cup matches in Boston...Has had six holes-in-one in competition.

PERSONAL:

Playing schedule was envy of many on the PGA TOUR. Never played more than 25 events in any PGA TOUR season and never more than 20 tournaments in a single season after 1988...Lists Don January and Miller Barber as his heroes...Started in golf at age 5 by his brother, Duane. Credits Duane and Henry Homberg, a local Texas professional, for having the greatest influences on his game when he first started playing...Biggest thrill in golf was winning his first PGA TOUR event (1977 Tucson Open) and also being involved in the 1999 Ryder Cup as Assistant Captain to Ben Crenshaw...Favorite course is Muirfield Village...Is a big drag racing and auto racing fan...Has a large collection of muscle cars and built an 11-car garage at his home. The crown jewel of his collection is a 1967 yellow Corvette Stingray convertible, with the largest engine available—a 435-horse big block Chevrolet engine. Bought the car from Gil Morgan in 1982...His dream job would be an engine builder for any race team. First car he ever owned was a 1970 bright orange Plymouth Roadrunner...Lists Tom Hanks and Bruce Springsteen as his favorite entertainers and drag racing legend Don Garlits as his favorite athlete...Best friend on the Champions Tour is Bill Rogers. Wife, Rose, and Jerry Pate's wife, Soozie, are sisters.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T12—Administaff Small Business Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Continued to split time between playing and serving as a roving announcer on Champions Tour Golf Channel telecasts...Fifteen starts were the fewest he's made in a season since joining the circuit...Used a golf tip from fellow professional Vicente Fernandez midway through the year to eventually record his best finish on the Champions Tour in three seasons. Was T12 at the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston, his best performance since a playoff loss at the 2002 FleetBoston Classic. Equaled the low Sunday round when he closed with a 7-under 65 at Augusta Pines, his best score since firing a 65 in the final round of the same Boston event in 2002.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2003: Lone top-25 finish was a T21 at the Verizon Classic in his third start of the year. 2002: Played his best golf during a six-week span from mid-June until late July when he had two second-place finishes...First runner-up performance came at the Greater Baltimore Classic at Hayfields, one stroke behind J.C. Snead...Overcame back spasms to fire final-round 65 at FleetBoston Classic, but lost in a playoff to Bob Gilder. 2001: Finished T4 in Napa after battling Allen Doyle and eventual winner Sammy Rachels to the wire. Vaulted into contention on Saturday when he fired his career-low round, a Silverado South course-record 10-under 62 that included a front-nine score of 28. Reeled off 11 birdies in the round and seven in a row (holes 1-7). 2000: Finished solo third at the Kroger Senior Classic. 1999: Won his only Champions Tour event at the Southwestern Bell Dominion. Victory in San Antonio came 14 years after he claimed the Texas Open in the same city on the PGA TOUR. Made a 30-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to beat Jose Maria Canizares and Bruce Fleisher. Holed a clutch 20-foot birdie putt at the 17th hole in regulation to get into the overtime session...Hit 77 percent of Greens in Regulation, the highest mark in the history of the Champions Tour at the time (since surpassed by Tom Kite's 78.0 in 2000). 1998: Debuted at the Saint Luke's Classic and T26 at the Kansas City event...Best finish was a T2 at the Utah Showdown, where he finished four strokes behind Gil Morgan.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

High point of 25-year career came at the 1978 PGA Championship at Oakmont CC, where he won a playoff over Tom Watson and Jerry Pate...Went on to claim the American Optical Classic in Sutton, MA, the following week...Earned a 10-year exemption with his one-stroke victory over Larry Mize at 1986 Tournament Players Championship (now THE PLAYERS Championship). Fired third-round 65 on Stadium Course at the TPC at Sawgrass to move into contention...Last victory came at the 1989 Federal Express St. Jude Classic, where he closed with rounds of 66-65 for a three-stroke win at TPC at Southwind...Led the PGA TOUR in Greens in Regulation in 1985 and 1986...Played on two U.S. World Cup teams, in 1978 and 1979, and was the medalist in 1978...Member of the U.S. Ryder Cup team in 1979 and the Nissan Cup squad in 1986...Was the 1970 NCAA champion while at the University of Houston, where he was a teammate of Tom Jenkins.

PERSONAL:

Early in his career, was sought out by other players to do imitations...Many thought his comic imitation of Chi Chi Rodriguez's swing was even better than the real thing.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: 4—3M Championship; T9—FedEx Kinko's Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Finished among the top-50 money-winners for the 12th consecutive year...Placed solo fourth at the 3M Championship, thanks to a final-round, 7-under 65, the field's lowest score Sunday. Effort at the TPC of the Twin Cities was his best since 2004 MasterCard Classic in Mexico (lost in playoff)...Won his first-ever Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, defeating Bruce Summerhays with a birdie on the second playoff hole. Went on to finish T9 in the overall event in Austin, on the strength of a final-round 69, one of only seven scores in the 60s at The Hills CC on Sunday...Was the first-round leader at the Senior PGA Championship after a 4-under 68 Thursday. Eventually finished T14 at Laurel Valley...Was also the first-round leader at the Ford Senior Players Championship after posting an 8-under-par 64, his lowest score since 1999 Novell Utah Showdown (second round) and eventually T24 after playing his last 54 holes in two-over...T8 at the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship and also placed eighth on the final over-60 money list with $65,054...Also T2 along with partner John Bland in the Raphael Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Nearly won for the first time since his 1999 victory at The Tradition when he appeared in command at the MasterCard Classic near Mexico City. Led by three strokes with six holes to play, but three-putted for bogeys at the 16th and 17th holes in Sunday's final round and finished tied with Ed Fiori after 54 holes. Eventually lost the play-off to Fiori after making bogey on the third extra hole at Bosque Real CC. Saw a golden opportunity slip away on the first playoff hole when he mis-hit his second shot moments after Fiori hit his second shot out of bounds...Carded a final-round 65 at Valencia the next week to vault into a T4 at the SBC Classic...Made news at the Senior British Open at Royal Portrush GC in Northern Ireland. Recorded holes-in-one on the 11th hole in both the first and third rounds of the event, a first on the Champions Tour on the same hole at the same tournament. Used a 9-iron in the opening round (171 yards) and an 8-iron on Saturday (182 yards). Two aces also earned him 340 bottles of Hardys Australian wine, one for every yard the shot covered (based on scorecard yardage), and were his fourth and fifth aces since joining the Champions Tour (10th and 11th aces overall in competition). Also marked the second consecutive season he made a hole-in-one on the Champions Tour...Secured his spot among the top 30 on the money list when he earned $86,400 for a T4 late in the year at the Constellation Energy Classic. Trained Wayne Levi by two strokes after 36 holes at The Hayfields, but ended up four strokes back of Levi after posting a final-round 70...Joined the ranks of the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions at the start of the season and finished second on the final over-60 money list, with $170,646. 2003: T3 at the Turtle Bay Championship near the end of the campaign thanks to a final-round 7-under-par 65 at the Palmer Course. Aced No. 8 at Turtle Bay with a 9-iron from 140 yards during the second round. 2002: Placed ninth in Mexico City at the Audi Senior Classic. 2001: In the hunt at the Novell Utah Showdown before finishing T2 with three other players, one stroke back of Steve Veriato...Holed a 6-iron shot on the fourth hole at the TPC at the Twin Cities during the final round of the 3M Championship. Ace was his first since the 1997 Southwestern Bell Dominion event in San Antonio. 2000: Missed a spot among the top 31 money-winners when David Lundstrom nipped him by $941...Was the 36-hole leader at the MasterCard Championship, but hit just 10 greens on Sunday and posted a final-round 74 to T2 at Hualalai. 1999: Although only playing 36 holes, was declared the winner of The Tradition after a freak snowstorm wiped out the final rounds at Desert Mountain...Also battled Hale Irvin for most of the Ford Senior Players Championship before finishing a distant second at the TPC of Michigan. 1998: Was solo second near St. Louis at the Boone Valley Classic. Finished two strokes short of Larry Nelson, despite a final-round 68 that included a pair of eagles. 1997: Earned a career-best $1,128,578 for seventh on the final money list...Outdueled John Bland on the final day for a one-stroke win at the U.S. Senior Open at Olympia Fields CC in suburban Chicago. The victory, and a career-best $232,500, came just one week after he fought off a late challenge by Hale Irvin and earned a one-stroke win at the Nationwide Championship near Atlanta...Teamed with Bland earlier in the season to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Recorded his first Champions Tour hole-in-one at the Southwestern Bell Dominion. 1996: Was a one-stroke victor over Tom Wargo and Brian Barnes at the PaineWebber Invitational and fired a final-round 67 to win the Franklin Quest Championship by two strokes over Kermit Zarley. 1995: Broke into the winner's circle at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Used a second-round 63 to cruise to a five-stroke win over J.C. Snead at Greystone G&CC. 1994: T2 at the Vantage at the Dominion and again at the U.S. Senior Open at Pinehurst, one stroke behind Simon Hobday. 1993: Placed second to Bill Hall at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at Grenelefe to earn his initial exemption.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T5—JELD-WEN Tradition; T6—Bayer Advantage Classic; T8—Allianz Championship; T10—SAS Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Regained conditionally-exempt status for 2006 after earning a spot among the top 50 on the prior-year money list...Made just 15 appearances on the Champions Tour including three through open qualifying, registering four top-10 finishes, the most he's ever had in a single season...Was among the top 15 in five of his last seven events and made over a quarter of his season earnings in the final major championship, the JELD-WEN Tradition, earning $103,333 in Oregon, the second-largest paycheck of his career. Finished T5 near Portland in late August after carding a pair of sub-70 rounds on the weekend, his best performance since a T3 at the 2002 3M Championship in Minnesota. Beginning with a 1-under 71 at the JELD-WEN Tradition, reeled off 16 consecutive sub-par rounds, the second-best run of sub-par rounds on the circuit last year. Was ranked 64th on the money list at the end of July and sub-par streak in late summer/early fall improved him 22 spots into the 42nd position...In June/early July, had nine straight sub-par rounds that included back-to-back top-10s—T6 at the Bayer Advantage Classic and T8 at the Allianz Championship...Led the Champions Tour in Sand Save Percentage, getting up and down from the bunker 64.1 percent of the time (41 of 64).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2003: Credited with three top-10 finishes and was 41st on the final money list with $465,985, a little more than $20,000 over his previous year's earnings...Best finish was a T8 at the FleetBoston Classic. Was T2 and just two strokes off the lead behind eventual winner Allen Doyle after two rounds, but shot a final-round 71 to slip six spots in the final standings...Also T9 at the Turtle Bay Championship and a T10 at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am near Kansas City. 2002: Became just the eighth open qualifier in Champions Tour history to win a tournament when he triumphed at the NFL Golf Classic in Clifton, NJ. Qualified for the event on Tuesday when he posted a 67 at Green Brook CC in North Caldwell, NJ. Eventually held off Morris Hatalsky, Bruce Fleisher and Dave Eichelberger at Upper Montclair to win by two strokes. Final-round 69 included holing a wedge from the fairway (105 yards) on the second hole and holing a greenside bunker shot at the sixth hole...Picked up his second top-10 finish with T3 at the 3M Championship. Opened with a course-record 8-under-par 64 and was tied with eventual winner Hale Irwin after 36 holes but closed with an even-par 72. 2001: Played in five Champions Tour events, all via successful open qualifying...Best finish was a T38 at the Allianz Championship.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played several PGA TOUR events in 1973 and 1974, but never made the cut in any tournament...Was the teaching professional at The Orchard in Clarksville, GA, prior to his surprise victory in his seventh career start on the Champions Tour. A three-time Georgia PGA Section Player of the Year and won the Georgia PGA Championship three times...Attended the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in 2000, 2001 and 2004, but finished 56th, 44th, and T25 respectively.

PERSONAL:

Family owned Sky Valley Resort in north Georgia from 1975-1991...Lowest competitive round was a 62 in an American Senior Golf Association event in 2002...Biggest thrill in golf was playing in the 1997 PGA Championship at Winged Foot...Once served as the assistant pro at Druid Hills CC in Atlanta...Heroes include Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and chef Emeril Lagasse...Loves to cook in his free time...Nicknamed "Big Daddy" when in school at Auburn...Starting wearing knickers in the mid-80s after he and his wife visited the Teabury Knicker Company in California and he purchased several pairs...Once roomed with Fuzzy Zoeller when they were starting their professional careers.

T4—SBC Classic; T5—Ford Senior Players Championship; T6—Bayer Advantage Classic, Commerce Bank Championship, SAS Championship.

NATIONWIDE TOUR VICTORIES (1): 1991 Gateway Open.

2005 SEASON:

Continued to split time between playing the Champions Tour and working as an analyst on CBS golf telecasts... Played 15 events and was among the top 10 six times, the most in a season since 2001... Best effort was a T4 at the SBC Classic in March, where he finished two strokes behind winner Des Smyth. Got himself into position with a 6-under-par 66 in the second round before slipping Sunday with a 1-over-par 73... Was among the top six in three of four tournaments early in the summer and reeled off 12 straight rounds of par/better from mid-June/mid-July... Flirted with the leaderboard at the Ford Senior Players Championship before eventually finishing T5 in Dearborn for the second straight year... The week prior, was in contention at the Commerce Bank Championship, but dropped into a T6 after making back-to-back bogeys midway through the back nine during final round at Eisenhower Park... Also T6 at the Bayer Advantage Classic, his first outing in nearly three months due to television commitments... Appeared to be in position to earn a spot among the top-30 money-winners after a T6 at the SAS Championship, but suffered a lower-back injury the following week that forced him to withdraw from two of the three remaining full-field events on the schedule and as a result, dropped him back into the 33rd position in final single-season earnings.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: In last official event of the season, was solo second at the SBC Championship, his best performance on the Champions Tour since losing in a playoff to Hale Irwin at the 2002 Turtle Bay Championship. Was one of just two players (Mark McNulty) to post three straight rounds in the 60s at Oak Hills, yet finished eight strokes back in San Antonio, his second runner-up at this event (2001)... Shared the 36-hole lead with Jose Maria Canizares following a second-round, 8-under-par 64, his best round since 2001, and eventually T5 at the Ford Senior Players Championship. 2002: T2 at the Audi Senior Classic. Battled Bruce Lietzke down the stretch in Mexico City before falling one stroke short. Was also runner-up at the Turtle Bay Championship late in the year. Posted a final-round 69 to get into a playoff with Hale Irwin, but lost when he made a par on the first extra hole. 2001: T2 at the inaugural SAS Championship in Raleigh, three strokes back of winner Bruce Lietzke. Also T2 at the SBC Championship, two strokes back of Larry Nelson, thanks to a Champions Tour career-low, 9-under 63 in the opening round. 2000: Lost a three-man playoff at the LiquidGolf.com Invitational in Sarasota with J.C. Snead and eventual-winner Tom Wargo. 1999: Won his first and last events of the year... Became the third of a record 11 first-time winners when he triumphed at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Received a sponsor's exemption into the event and eventually won the tournament in a four-way playoff. Made a four-foot birdie putt on the fifth extra hole to beat good friend John Jacobs after Al Geiberger and Allen Doyle had been eliminated earlier in the overtime session. Triumph at Newport Beach CC allowed him to join Doyle as the only other player to claim both a Nationwide Tour and a Champions Tour title. Capped his season with a thrilling victory at the Ingersoll-Rand SENIOR TOUR Championship and earned the largest paycheck of his career, $347,000. Moved into contention with a sizzling 64 at The Dunes Club on Saturday, and then fired a final-round 67 on Sunday to overtake Bruce Fleisher and Larry Nelson by one stroke. Victory at The Dunes came 26 years after he had earned PGA TOUR playing privileges there in the National Q-School. Voted Champions Tour's Player of the Month in March and November. 1998: Earned a conditional exemption for the 1999 season by finishing 16th at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in the fall... Debuted at the U.S. Senior Open and T33 at Riviera CC near Los Angeles... Played five other events during the season on sponsor exemptions.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR from 1974-98, with well over $600,000 in earnings in 376 tournaments... Made 242 cuts in that span with his best year financially coming in 1984 when he won $68,213, with a pair of top-10 finishes... Top performances in his PGA TOUR career were a solo second to Art Wall at the 1975 Greater Milwaukee Open and a T2 behind Dave Eichelberger at the 1977 Greater Milwaukee Open... Placed 59th on the official money list in 1975 with $43,028, his highest standing ever... Was a five-stroke victor at the 1991 Nationwide Gateway Open... Two-time All-America selection at Cal-Riverside and was the winner of the 1970 NCAA Division II Championship... Had had two holes-in-one in competition.

PERSONAL:

Best known as a color analyst on CBS Sports' golf telecasts... Also writes for Golf Digest... Another of his efforts were three books: Golf for Dummies, Golf For Dummies II and Just a Range Ball in a Box of Titleists... Also hosted "Golf for Dummies" instructional DVD... Served as technical consultant for and appeared in the Kevin Costner movie "Tin Cup"... Was backed by the late Lawrence Welk early in his pro career and once appeared on the musical conductor's variety show... Got started in golf when he used to go with his mother to her golf class in Garden Grove, CA, when he was 12... Attended the same high school (Garden Grove HS) as comedian Steve Martin... Lists the smell of free range balls in the morning as his biggest thrill in golf... Favorite TV shows are "CSI" and "Vegas" and favorite athlete is Seabiscuit... Served as captain of the American team at the Tommy Bahama Challenge the last two years.

2005 SEASON:

Finished outside the top 50 in single-season earnings for the first time since 1996...Registered a pair of top-five finishes, with both coming in the first third of the year...Was the 36-hole leader at The ACE Group Classic and eventually T4 in Naples, his best performance on the Champions Tour since finishing second at the 2003 Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am. Made a late run at The Club at TwinEagles on Sunday, playing Nos. 14-17 in 5-under-par (B-E-B-B) before hitting his second shot in the water on the closing hole and making bogey...Contended again at the Allianz Championship near Des Moines. Was among the leaders early in the final round before finishing T4 in Iowa, three strokes out of a playoff...Joined the ranks of the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions in March and ended as the leading Grand Champions money-winner with $119,266...Closed with a bogey-free, 7-under-par 65 to win the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship by two strokes over Bruce Summerhays at Hawks Ridge GC outside Atlanta in late September, earning $85,000...Just days earlier, finished T2 along with Bob Murphy and Jim Colbert, at the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions event at the Constellation Energy Classic, two strokes behind John Jacobs.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: T9 at the Bank of America Championship after being near the top of the Friday leaderboard...Trailed by just one stroke after firing a 7-under 64 in the first round of the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, his best 18-hole score since

2002 campaign...Made the second of three holes-in-one during the opening round of the U.S. Senior Open, the first time three were made in the same day on the Champions Tour. Ace on the 179-yard 13th hole at Bellerive with a 5-iron was the first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career. 2003: Duled Jay Sigel down the stretch at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am near Kansas City before eventually falling one stroke shy. Missed a 20-foot birdie putt on the last hole that would have forced a playoff...Was a co-leader after 54 holes of the Ford Senior Players Championship along with Craig Stadler and Tom Watson. Final-round 73 snapped string of sub-par rounds at TPC of Michigan at nine consecutive and moved him into a T5. 2002: One of three players to play in every official event (Walter Hall and Dana Quigley were the others)...Third-round leader at the Ford Senior Players Championship before joining two others who finished one stroke behind Stewart Ginn...Also finished T2 at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opyland where he was one of three players to finish three strokes behind his good friend Gil Morgan. 2001: Had his finest season as a professional, claiming his first two victories on any TOUR in his first eight starts of the season. Rose to his highest level ever on any official money list, placing 12th on the final earnings list with more than $1.3 million, $400,000 more than his previous-best season (2000)...Triumphed for the first time in 612 combined events on the PGA TOUR (401), Champions Tour (178) and Nationwide Tour (33) when he edged Jim Colbert and Bob Eastwood for the Mexico Senior Classic title at Puebla. Birdied the 53rd hole to take the lead and then made a clutch four-foot par-saving putt on the last hole to seal the win...Returned to the winner's circle a month later at the Emerald Coast Classic in Florida. Battled Andy North down the stretch at The Moors and then two-putted for par on the first playoff hole for the victory. Win near Pensacola made him just the fifth player in Champions Tour history to record multiple victories despite the first title not coming until age 55 (Roberto De Vicenzo, Peter Thomson, Jim Ferree, Jimmy Powell)...Ended a record streak of consecutive events played for which he had been eligible at 177 in a row. Chose not to travel back across the country from his home in Arizona to play in the inaugural SAS Championship in Raleigh, the week after the Vantage Championship was canceled by the Sept. 11 tragedies. Began his run at the 1996 Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic. 2000: Closed the season with a bang, finishing T3 at the IR SENIOR TOUR Championship...Also T3 at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic after posting three straight rounds in the 60s...Broke Bruce Summerhays' old mark of 96 consecutive eligible events when he teed it up in the Novell Utah Showdown...Fired his career-low on the second day of the Comfort Classic, a course-record 10-under-par 62 at Brickyard Crossing. Held the 36-hole lead in Indianapolis, but carded a 74 on the final day and finished T4. 1998: Finished second at the Southwestern Bell Dominion, two strokes shy of Lee Trevino. 1997: Earned fully-exempt status for 1998 after a T7 at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament. 1996: Played on all three Tours during the season...Competed at the Nationwide Tour South Carolina Classic and in three events on the PGA TOUR...Became fully exempt on the 1997 Champions Tour after finishing third at the 1996 National Qualifying Tournament. 1995: Made his debut at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opyland and T15...Earned conditional status for 1996 by beating six other players for the 16th spot at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Made 270 cuts in 405 starts on the PGA TOUR from 1973-96...Had 26 top-10 finishes during his TOUR career, including a second at the 1977 Tournament Players Championship (now THE PLAYERS Championship). Finished with a 75 at windy Sawgrass CC to end up two strokes behind winner Mark Hayes...Most lucrative year on TOUR was 1977, when he won $79,413 and had four top-10 finishes...Played a period of his career in Asia in 1970.

PERSONAL:

Inducted into the Toledo Golf Hall of Fame in 1999 and is also a member of the Bowling Green Athletic Hall of Fame...Has his pilot's license and is co-owner of two airplanes...Grandfather got him started in the game...Grew up next to a golf course in his hometown (Coshocton Town & CC)...Best friend on Champions Tour is Gil Morgan. PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $5,309,688

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T9—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am.

2005 SEASON:
 Played just 14 events and, for the second consecutive year, had his best performance of the campaign in February...T9 at the weather-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am...Was also on the leaderboard after three rounds of the JELD-WEN Tradition after posting a 6-under 66 on Saturday, but eventually T16 after ballooning to a 76 in the final round...Pair of 69s left him T7, three strokes off the pace through 36 holes of the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, but 74 on Sunday dropped him back into a T23.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
2004: Lone top-10 performance came in his initial start of the season at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic. T5 at Crandon Park GC near Miami was best effort in almost a year on the Champions Tour. 2003: Among the early leaders at the Verizon Classic and finished T4 at the TPC of Tampa Bay, his best performance ever on the Champions Tour despite a second-round 75...Was near the top of the leaderboard for most of the Senior British Open before eventually T6 at Turnberry, his top effort in a senior major...Also T10 at the Senior PGA Championship. 2002: T7 at the Verizon Classic. 2001: Made Champions Tour debut at the inaugural SAS Championship in Raleigh and T48 at Prestonwood...Appeared in 11 events on the PGA TOUR on a Special Medical Exemption...Also did several stints as a golf analyst for Fox network broadcasts.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
 Had rotator cuff surgery on his right shoulder in the fall of 1996. While rehabbing shoulder, began to feel pain in neck, signaling on-going problem that finally was diagnosed as a spinal-cord lesion caused by a virus that may have settled in as long ago as 1995...Underwent extensive physical therapy to combat numbness in his left hand and fatigue in his legs...Posted three victories in 1994, including season-ending TOUR Championship and earned a career-best $1,208,209, third on the final money list. Defeated Glen Day by three strokes at Anheuser-Busch Golf Classic, followed by one-stroke win over Kenny Perry two months later at Hardee's Golf Classic. Two victories gave him first multiple-win season since 1983. At The TOUR Championship, sank 40-foot putt on first extra hole to defeat Fuzzy Zoeller...First TOUR victory came in his 12th tournament: the 1979 Doral-Eastern Open...Next wins came in 1983, at Western Open and Pensacola Open...Earned second Doral-Eastern crown in 1985...Won 1987 Anheuser-Busch Classic...Was hometown champion at 1988 PLAYERS Championship, defeating Mike Reid by four strokes...Earned first playoff victory at 1989 Beatrice Western Open over Peter Jacobsen...Also finished T2 to Tom Lehman at the 1996

British Open at Royal Lytham & St. Annes...Teamed with Ben Crenshaw to win 1988 World Cup title...U.S. finalist at 1995 Andersen Consulting World Championship of Golf.

PERSONAL:
 Has made significant impact in golf-course design with Mark McCumber and Associates, design arm of McCumber Golf, which he operates with his brothers...Is a member of the American Society of Golf Architects, along with Jack Nicklaus...Grew up next to a golf course in Jacksonville, FL...Enjoys making soups, especially clam chowder, when he has time in the kitchen.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T41—Turtle Bay Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Played in the first five full-field events of the year and then was forced to the sidelines with a herniated disc in his lower back...After extensive rehab program, finally underwent back surgery in August and did not play again for the remainder of the season...Will play in 2006 on a Major Medical Extension...Best finish early in the campaign was a T41 at the Turtle Bay Championship.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Earned seventh and final fully-exempt spot for 2005 after finishing seventh at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the King and Bear at World Golf Village in St. Augustine, FL. Opened with a 1-over-par 73, which included a two-stroke penalty he called on himself because he believed his caddie had touched the line of his putt. Bounced back from that 73 to run off five consecutive rounds in the 60s to T7 with Norm Jarvis. Secured the final card when he birdied the third extra hole...Spent a portion of the year competing on the Sunbelt Senior Tour.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played full time on the PGA TOUR from 1978-92 and overall appeared in 393 events in his career and made 235 cuts...Rookie of the Year in 1978...Did not win an event but was second three times and third four times...Was second to Bruce Lietzke at the 1978 Canadian Open at Glen Abbey and was a T2 along with Champions Tour rookie Brad Bryant at the 1982 Miller High Life Quad Cities Open in an event won by Payne Stewart. BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:
T3—Ford Senior Players Championship; T4—Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn; T8—SBC Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Turned in a solid rookie campaign and finished among the top 25 in a third of his appearances...Went into the last full-field event, the SBC Championship, on the bubble for the top 30, but was bumped out of a spot in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship when he finished T28 in San Antonio...Had best finish on the Champions Tour with a T3 at the Ford Senior Players Championship in Dearborn in July. Trailing by one stroke after 54 holes and remained among the leaders through much of the final round before making a triple bogey at No. 14, essentially ending his hopes. Still picked up a career-best check for $165,000...Also made a nice showing at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in October, firing three straight sub-par rounds to place T4...In his fourth start of the year in March, finished T8 at the SBC Classic near Los Angeles. Shot a 2-over-par 74 in the opening round and then followed with rounds of 70-71, one of three players to shoot consecutive sub-par rounds on the weekend...Closed his season with nine consecutive sub-par rounds and was par/better in 14 of his last 15 rounds.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Earned fully-exempt status for 2005 by finishing second at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the King and Bear at World Golf Village in Florida. Completed the six-round event 23-under-par and finished two strokes behind medalist Mark Johnson. Tied the course record in the final round when he fired a 9-under-par 63, his sixth consecutive sub-par round in the event near St. Augustine...Made one start during the year at the Constellation Energy Classic and T12 at The Hayfields while playing on a sponsor's exemption...Also played several events on the NGA Hooters Tour with four top-10 finishes on that circuit.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

A long-time amateur player who turned professional for a second time in 2001. Had briefly turned professional in the mid-70s and tried qualifying for the PGA TOUR and playing mini-tour events before turning to the petroleum business in 1980...Regained his amateur standing in 1983 and began his amateur career in 1984, which lasted until turning professional again in 2001...Was the qualifying medalist at the 1998 U.S. Amateur and eventually was the runner-up to Hank Kuehne (lost 2 and 1) at Oak Hill CC in Rochester, NY. Defeated Sergio Garcia to reach the finals...Performance at that tournament earned him a berth in the 1999 Masters, where he finished T44. Among his victims in the early rounds of the 1992 U.S. Amateur were David Duval and Stewart Cink. Also played in the 1999 U.S. Open (missed cut). Played for the United States team in the 1998 World Team Amateur competition in Chile...Also a member of the 1999 United States Walker Cup team...Played on the Sunbelt Senior Tour for three years after again turning professional in 2001.

PERSONAL:

Worked in the petroleum distributorship business for 20 years and was the former owner of a chain of On The Way convenience stores in the Carolinas...After breaking his left arm in a pick-up basketball game, made decision to leave golf when doctors thought he wouldn't be able to adequately swing a golf club...Biggest thrills in golf were playing on the U.S. team in the World Amateur and the Walker Cup...Biggest thrill away from golf was watching the birth of his three children...Lists his family as his heroes for their support over the years and for their persistence in pursuing their own dreams and goals...Favorites include Jimmy Buffett, Larry Bird, "CSI," "Top Gun" and any Patricia Cornwell book...Favorite golf course is Seminole GC. One course he'd like to play is St. Andrews...An all-district basketball player in high school...Daughter, Tara, plays basketball at the University of Virginia.

1—Bank of America Championship, Administaff Small Business Classic; T2—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, SBC Classic; 4—Bruno's Memorial Classic, Charles Schwab Cup Championship; T5—MasterCard Championship, 3M Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Followed a solid rookie season with a stellar second year on the Champions Tour that saw him win twice and claim the Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average (69.41)... Ended up third on both the 2005 money list and in the Charles Schwab Cup standings... His 15 top-10s tied Dana Quigley for the most by a player. Posted 39 of 73 rounds in the 60s, second to Quigley's 42 sub-70 scores... Also had the best Final-Round Scoring Average (68.96) on the circuit... Did not finish out of the top 20 in any event after the weather-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic (T28) in mid-June... Had seven top-10s, including back-to-back runner-up performances at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am and SBC Classic, before finding the winner's circle at the Bank of America Championship in late June. Claimed fourth career win when he prevailed in a three-man playoff with Tom Purtzer and Don Pooley near Boston. Birdied the final hole in regulation and then holed a 20-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole to defeat Purtzer after Pooley exited on the first extra hole... Shook off a case of the flu at the Administaff Small Business Classic to add a second victory and fifth overall. Rallied from two strokes back to edge Gil Morgan by a stroke at Augusta Pines near Houston. Final-round 66 included a pair of eagles, a first in his Champions Tour career... Had several skin cancers removed on his face in September and was out of action for almost a month.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Overcame several health issues during the year and went on to earn Rookie of the Year honors on the Champions Tour, a first for a foreign-born player since South African John Bland in 1996... Became the first international player since David Graham (1997) to win three times in a single season on the Champions Tour and finished the year with $1.4 million in official earnings, the most by a first-year player since Bob Gilder in 2001 ($1.68 million)... Unable to debut on the Champions Tour until the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am due to shingles, but made the most of his initial start, becoming just the 11th player in Champions Tour history, and first since Bobby Wadkins (2001 Lightpath Long Island Classic), to win in his first start on the circuit. Held off Larry Nelson and a hard-charging Fuzzy Zoeller for his initial triumph at the TPC of Tampa Bay... Missed almost two months (most of August and all of September) due to degenerative disks in his back, but returned to the circuit strong, posting back-to-back victories at the close of the season... Won his second title in record-setting fashion. Posted rounds of 63-65 on the weekend at Oak Hills CC and cruised to an easy victory at the SBC Championship in San Antonio. Eight-stroke win over Gary McCord was the largest victory margin on the Champions Tour since Ed Dougherty won by eight strokes at the 2001 TD Waterhouse Championship. His 18-under 195 at Oak Hills shattered the tournament record and was the lowest three-round numerical score on the circuit all season. Hit 45 of 54 greens in regulation for the week, including 24 in a row at one stretch, and needed just 81 total putts... Followed San Antonio win with a come-from-behind victory at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma. Trained by five strokes entering the final round but carded a 66, the lowest Sunday score, to eke out a one-stroke victory over Kite. Became the fifth rookie to claim the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, and $440,000 was easily his largest in check in the U.S. Vaulted into the fifth position in the final Charles Schwab Cup standings with his win in Sonoma... Voted as the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for October. 2003: Became eligible for the Champions Tour in late October and earned fully-exempt status for 2004 by being the medalist at both the regional qualifier at Walt Disney World and the National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC at Eagle Trace near Fort Lauderdale, FL. Became the fifth international player, and second consecutive, to earn medalist honors at the Q-school final when he carded a bogey-free 68 in the final round to coast to a three-stroke victory over England's Mark James. His 72-hole total of 13-under 275 was the same as Ireland's Des Smyth a year earlier.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Since his first professional victory in 1979, became one of the world's most consistent winners, with 55 international titles over a span of more than two decades... Regarded as one of the sport's best putters... Played the European PGA Tour full time from 1978-2003 and ranks 25th on the career money list with €5,333,725... His 16 European Tour titles include four German Opens... Claimed three events in Europe during both the 1987 and 1996 seasons and finished second to Ian Woosnam on the European Tour Order of Merit in both 1987 and 1990... Biggest victory on the European Tour came at the 1996 Volvo Masters when he cruised to a seven-stroke victory over four players at Valderrama, Spain... Best performance in a major championship came in 1990 when he was T2, along with Payne Stewart, in the British Open Championship at St. Andrews, five strokes back of Nick Faldo... Also T8 in the 1990 PGA Championship at Shoal Creek in Alabama... Led the South African Tour's Order of Merit eight times: 1980-81, 1985-87, 1993, 1998, and 2001... Claimed a pair of South African Open titles, including the 2001 event at East London GC at age 47. Holed a 20-foot birdie putt on the final green to nip Justin Rose by a stroke... Played in 112 PGA TOUR events from 1981-2001, made 69 cuts and earned $657,737... Made 57 starts on the PGA TOUR between 1982-1984 and finished fourth at the 1982 Danny Thomas-Memphis Classic and T4 at the Sammy Davis, Jr.-Greater Hartford Open... Represented Zimbabwe in eight World Cup competitions and also was a team member in seven Alfred Dunhill Cup matches... Played for the International team in both the 1994 and 1996 Presidents Cup, with a 3-4-2 record in the biennial event... Has made five holes-in-one in competition in his career.

PERSONAL:

Was a solid athlete in several sports as a youth, but excelled at golf... Has managed to rebound from a series of physical setbacks in his career. Escaped with facial injuries when his car collided with a bus near his parents' farm in 1980. While on vacation in Cape Town in December 1993, suffered a freak nerve injury in his neck while playing cricket with his kids. Knee injury curtailed his 1995 season... Best shot of his career was his pitch to nine feet from 68 yards on the final hole that beat Ian Woosnam at the 1987 British Masters... Favorite golf course is the Old Course at St. Andrews, but only when the weather is ideal... First modeled his game after Arnold Palmer and then refined it like Gary Player as he grew older... Plays the piano.

2005 SEASON:

Managed to snare the final conditionally-exempt spot from prior-year money for 2006 season when Dave Barr did not earn enough to pass him at the SBC Championship, the season's final full-field event... Among the top 20 in seven of 20 appearances last year and turned in his best performance on the Champions Tour when he T8 at the Constellation Energy Classic. Was on the leaderboard after the first round but eventually finished nine strokes back of Bob Gilder at The Hayfields... Was in contention early in the season when he was one off the first-round lead at the Blue Angels Classic, thanks to a 6-under 64, his career-best on the Champions Tour. Eventually T15 near Pensacola after a final-round 70... Also was in contention in early August at the 3M Championship through 36 holes. Fired rounds of 69-66 and was in a group of players who trailed Tom Purtzer by three strokes. Eventually T19 after ballooning to a 76 on Sunday at the TPC of Twin Cities... Ranked fourth on the Champions Tour in Driving Distance and had a 361-yard tee shot (second round/11th hole) at the Constellation Energy event.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Earned fully exempt status for 2005 after finishing T4 at the 2004 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the King and Bear at World Golf Village. Posted five straight rounds in the 60s and led or shared the lead for three rounds (rounds three to five) before shooting a final-round 71... Appeared in 14 events during the campaign after turning 50 in March... Debuted at the Toshiba Senior Classic and T41 at Newport Beach... Lone top-10 effort came at the FedEx Kinko's Classic in Austin in May when he was a T9... Second in Driving Distance, with an average of 292.0. 2003: As a 49-year-old, advanced to the Champions Tour's National Qualifying Tournament near Fort Lauderdale, FL, by being the co-medalist, along with Mark Johnson, at the regional qualifier in Calimesa, CA... Secured a full exemption for the 2004 season upon his 50th birthday March 12 by vaulting from T7 to solo third on the final day. Birdied five of his last six holes to shoot 66 at the TPC at Eagle Trace, equaling the low round of the event.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Won 11 career titles on the Japan Golf Tour... Joined the Japan PGA circuit in 1980 and improved every year on the money list before finishing third in 1987... Suffered a back injury in 1991, yet still maintained a spot among the top 50 on the money list... Had his best year in 1993 when he won four times and was the leading money-winner on the Japan Golf Tour, with $1,197,000... Suffered a slump for three seasons and then made another comeback in 1996, winning a pair of titles and finishing 12th on the money list with earnings of $471,000... Became the first qualifier for the World Finals of the 1997 Andersen Consulting World Championship of Golf when he defeated Kazuhiko Hosokawa, 1-up, to win the Japanese Championship at Golden Palm CC. Lost to Davis Love III in the World Semifinals at Grayhawk GC in Scottsdale in January 1998... Played in 18 events in his career on the PGA TOUR, including seven appearances in 1994, making eight cuts. Best finish was a T29 at the 1988 Honda Classic... 2005 SEASON:

Saw his streak of years winning at least one event end at nine consecutive seasons, tying Miller Barber for the second longest run in Champions Tour history behind Hale

Irwin (11 straight)... Still managed to eclipse seven figures in earnings for the ninth straight year, the second-longest streak in Champions Tour annals, after compiling 10 top-10s, five of them in his last seven starts of the campaign. Pocketed $1,364,170 without claiming a title, the second-highest amount ever (Tom Kite/$1,549,819/2003) without posting a victory in a season in Champions Tour history... Had several good opportunities to extend his victory run during the campaign... Was one of three players in a playoff (Dana Quigley and Tom Watson) at the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic that was eventually won by Quigley with a birdie on the first extra hole. Had completed his round early Sunday before rain forced the tournament into a Monday finish. His T2 in Kansas City pushed his all-time earnings past the $20-million mark... Shared the 36-hole lead with Hale Irwin at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, but fell one stroke short and finished T2 despite back-to-back rounds in the 60s on the weekend... Birdied five of his last seven holes at Augusta Pines, but came up one stroke short of Mark McNulty at the Administaff Small Business Classic when he missed a 31-foot birdie putt on the final hole... Also T3 at the JELD-

Gil Morgan (Continued)

WEN Tradition. Was the 54-hole co-leader with Doug Tewell, and closed with a 1-under-par 71, but missed a six-foot birdie putt at No. 18, which would have earned him a spot in the playoff with Quigley and eventual winner Loren Roberts...Started his season with a T3 at the MasterCard Championship, where he was just one stroke shy of joining Tom Watson and eventual winner Quigley in a playoff...Also T5 at the Ford Senior Players Championship in July...Made the second hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career, and 11th overall, when he aced No. 9 in the final round of the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn with a 4-iron from 201 yards...Ranked second to Mark McNulty in First-Round Scoring Average (69.28).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Highlight of his season came early during the midst of 23 consecutive par-or-better rounds, a 2004 best...Redeemed himself by winning his third SBC Classic, one year after losing the event on the final hole. Cruised to a two-stroke victory over Larry Nelson at Valencia. Win was his fifth Tour title in the Los Angeles area on a fourth different course. SBC triumph was also his 23rd career victory on the Champions Tour, tying him with Bob Charles for fourth place on the all-time wins list...Was the 36-hole leader at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in late April and battled Hale Irwin down the stretch before a bogey at the final hole dropped him to a T2 with Gary Koch, one stroke back of Irwin...Celebrated his 200th career start on the Champions Tour when he almost successfully defended his Kroger Classic title late in the year. Closed with a 66 at the TPC at River's Bend, but lost to Bruce Summerhays by one stroke when he three-putted from 70 feet for a par-5 on the final hole...Improved his first-round score at the SBC Championship by 15 strokes with a Champions Tour career-best 9-under 62 on Saturday. Round equaled the Oak Hills course record (David Ogren/1994 Texas Open program) and included 10 birdies. 2003: Registered his highest standing on the money list since back-to-back second-place finishes in 1997-98. Ended the year third behind Tom Watson and Jim Thorpe as 14 top-10 finishes (T2 on Champions Tour) helped him reach the $1-million mark for the seventh straight year...Had a two-stroke, wire-to-wire victory over Doug Tewell at the Kroger Classic. Win was the 22nd of his illustrious career on the Champions Tour, tying him with Don January and Chi Chi Rodriguez for fifth place on the all-time victory list. Posted three straight rounds in the 60s and won the event near Cincinnati for the second time (1999). Fought off challenges from as many as four other players in the final round before sealing his victory with a birdie on the final hole...Was also the 36-hole leader at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic and led by one stroke with one hole to play before losing out to Dave Barr. Missed a seven-foot par putt on the final hole after an errant drive cost him a penalty stroke...Came close again at the SBC Classic. Was a victim of a three-shot turnaround at the final hole at Valencia CC. Three-putted the 18th hole after Tom Purtzer holed a 58-foot eagle putt. 2002: Registered his 21st Champions Tour title at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland. Emerged from a pack of players with birdies on two of the last three holes for an eventual three-stroke triumph over Mike McCullough, Bruce Fleisher and Dana Quigley. Win was his second at Springhouse GC and the victory marked the second year in succession he had won on Father's Day...Finished T2 at the SAS Championship, four strokes behind Bruce Lietzke, but $124,666 paycheck put him over the $1-million mark for the sixth straight season...Also finished the season as the runner-up to Tom Watson in the SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia. Dueled Watson head to head down the stretch, but eventually came up two strokes short after an errant drive on No. 16 led to a bogey...Made the first ace of his Champions Tour career (10th overall) when he holed a 6-iron shot from 165 yards on Firestone's 12th hole during the second round of the Senior PGA Championship. 2001: Earned his second consecutive Byron Nelson Trophy for best Scoring Average (69.20)...Held off Dana Quigley by two strokes to win The ACE Group Classic, his second senior victory in Naples. Final-round 66 at Pelican Marsh GC included a clutch birdie at the par-3 17th hole when his 7-iron shot stopped three feet from the hole. Followed his win in Naples with a runner-up performance at the Verizon Classic and then lost to Jose Maria Canizares in a nine-hole playoff at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Successfully defended his title at The Instinet Classic, going wire-to-wire to edge J.C. Snead and Tom Jenkins by two strokes. His 9-under 63 in the opening round at the TPC at Jasma Polana was a course record and included both a double eagle (No. 7-driver/3-iron) and eagle, a first on the Champions Tour since 1996. 2000: Missed the first two months of the year following an off-season rib-cage injury...Earned his first Byron Nelson Award with a Scoring Average of 68.83, the second-best mark at the time in Champions Tour history...First of three victories came in his first official 2000 appearance near Pensacola, FL. Went wire-to-wire at the Emerald Coast Classic, winning by four strokes over Larry Nelson...Second victory came in late July when he came from behind at the The Instinet Classic...Added his third title at the rain-shortened Comfort Classic. Successfully defended his crown when he birdied the final two holes Saturday to overtake Jim Ahern. Was declared the winner on Sunday when bad weather washed out the final round at Brickyard Crossing...Set a Champions Tour standard when he put together an amazing 31 straight sub-par rounds. Started the streak at the Ford Senior Players Championship and saw it come to an end after one round of the SBC Senior Classic in Los Angeles. Had established the previous record of 26 consecutive in 1997. 1999: Posted a pair of victories. Carded a final-round 69 at the Comfort Classic in Indianapolis and edged Ed Dougherty by two strokes. Came back two weeks later and won the Kroger Senior Classic title, defeating Dougherty again, thanks to a final-round 63...Also won his second straight Senior Slam in Los Cabos, Mexico, besting Hale Irwin by two strokes, and teamed with Hubert Green for the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf crown. 1998: Had six official victories that included a pair of Champions Tour majors...Successfully defended his Tradition title by coming from two strokes back of Tom Wargo to win by two at Desert Mountain...Also defeated Hale Irwin by three shots at the Ford Senior Players Championship with a whopping 21-under-par 267 total, a 72-hole record at the TPC of Michigan...Started the campaign with a victory at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai and came from five strokes back to win the LG Championship in Naples...Played all 54 holes without a bogey at Park Meadows and cruised to a four-stroke victory at the Utah Showdown...Final win of the campaign came at the Vantage Championship. Used a closing-round 65 to outduel Irwin down the stretch...Claimed the unofficial Senior Slam at Los Cabos, defeating Hale Irwin by six strokes. 1997: Voted by his peers as Rookie of the Year...Enjoyed a banner season, becoming just the second Champions Tour player at the time to go over $2 million in yearly earnings ($86,422/start)...Held off Irwin to win the season-ending Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship...Made his first-ever successful title defense the week before at the Ralphs Senior Classic. One-stroke victory over George Archer at Wilshire CC gave him his fourth TOUR win in the Los Angeles area. First claimed back-to-back tournaments earlier in the year at the Ameritech Senior Open and BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland. Was the first of three wire-to-wire winners when he nipped Irwin by one stroke at Kemper Lakes despite finishing bogey, bogey, double-bogey. Claimed a two-stroke win over John Bland at the BellSouth Senior Classic the week after...Won his first senior major in early April at The Tradition, finishing six strokes in front of Isao Aoki with a 22-under 266 score, the 72-hole tournament record at the time. Season's other victory came in the rain at the First of America Classic, where he birdied the 53rd hole to take a one-stroke lead over Bob Duval, then clinched the title with a scrambling par at No. 18...Broke Bob Murphy's all-time record of 24 consecutive sub-par rounds when he strung together 26 straight. 1996: Earned his first Champions Tour title just 11 days after turning 50 at the Ralphs Senior Classic and became the youngest Champions Tour winner at the time...Debuted at the Vantage Championship (T16).

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR full-time from 1973-1995...Had one leg up on one of the great U.S. Opens of all time in 1992. At Pebble Beach, became the first player in Open history to reach 10-under-par early in third round, then climbed to 12-under through 43 holes before falling to an eventual T13 finish...Biggest of his seven PGA TOUR triumphs came in the 1978 World Series of Golf. Defeated Hubert Green in a playoff to emerge as the year's No. 2 money-winner behind Tom Watson...Had left shoulder rotator cuff surgery in September of 1986. After nine-month lay-off, returned to the TOUR in early May 1987 and was near the top of his game by midsummer...Most successful year was 1990, when he captured the Kemper Open in early June and placed in the top eight in seven consecutive events...Captured the first two tournaments of 1983, the Joe Garagiola-Tucson Open, in a playoff with Lanny Wadkins, and the Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open...Was a runner-up 21 times in his PGA TOUR career...Named to the NAIA Hall of Fame in 1982 after being an NAIA All-American in 1968...Member of the 1979 and 1983 U.S. Ryder Cup teams...Has had 11 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Started playing golf at age 15...Holds a Doctor of Optometry degree and still keeps a current license, even though he has never practiced...Decided during his junior year at East Central State (OK) to pursue a career in golf, but waited until earning his optometry degree before turning professional...Has been a long-time follower of Oklahoma Sooners athletics.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T20—FedEx Kinko's Classic; T22—Administaff Small Business Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Continued to juggle a playing schedule around his job as an analyst for NBC Sports golf telecasts... Among the top 25 twice in 17 appearances, with both efforts coming in the state of Texas... Was T20 at the FedEx Kinko's Classic near Austin and then T22 late in the season at the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston... Played in four Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions events and, for the second straight year, finished 13th on the final over-60 money list, with $47,267... Along with Jim Colbert and Mike McCullough, finished T2 in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions event at the Constellation Energy Classic, two strokes back of John Jacobs... Also finished third in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions event at FedEx Kinko's, one stroke out of a playoff... Ranked second on the Champions Tour in Par-3 Birdie Percentage (16.7 percent).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: T13 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. His 5-under-par Sunday score was his best since 8-under 64 in second round of 2002 Ford Senior Players Championship... Won his first-ever Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition at the Kroger Classic. His 36-hole score of 8-under 136 at the TPC at River's Bend was one stroke better than Bruce Summerhays, the eventual winner of the overall Kroger tournament. 2003: Top performance came in August near Minneapolis where three straight sub-par rounds helped him T4 at the 3M Championship, his best finish on the Champions Tour since he was T2 at the 2000 Instinet Classic in Princeton, NJ... Made the 18th hole-in-one of his career (fourth on the Champions Tour) when he aced the fourth hole in the second round of the Turtle Bay Championship. Holed a 6-iron from 194 yards... Became eligible for the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions after turning 60 in February and finished 15th on the money list. 2002: Lone top-25 effort was a T17 at the Verizon Classic thanks to opening rounds of 68-69... Carded an 8-under 64 in the second round of the Ford Senior Players Championship, his best score since the 1998 Vantage Championship... Aced the 202-yard, 12th hole at TwinEagles with a 7-wood during the second round of The ACE Group Classic. 2001: Best performance came in last start, a T8 at the SBC Championship, where he was tied for the 36-hole lead. 2000: T2 at The Instinet Classic after Gil Morgan overtook him with a final-round 66. Shared the second-round lead with Tom Jenkins after rounds of 68-65. 1999: Best performance was a runner-up at the Nationwide Championship. Appeared headed for a playoff with Hale Irwin before Irwin holed out from 74 yards for a dramatic eagle on No. 18 to defeat him by two strokes at the GC of Georgia. 1997: Scored a dramatic victory over Jay Sigel at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Went nine extra holes with Sigel before rolling in an 80-foot birdie putt to win the event, the second longest playoff in Champions Tour history. 1996: Fired a final-round 67 in windy, cold weather to hold off Hale Irwin by four strokes at the Royal Caribbean Classic... Opened with a course-record 62 on his way to a two-stroke triumph over Jay Sigel at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic. Victory at Upper Montclair made him the ninth of 12 different players to win both a PGA TOUR (1968 Thunderbird Classic) and Champions Tour event at the same site... Registered his 16th career hole-in-one during the first round of the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship (12th hole). 1995: Claimed four titles, tying good friend Jim Colbert for the most victories by any Champions Tour player that season... Started the season with a victory in the rain-curtailed IntelliNet Challenge... Outlasted Raymond Floyd and Larry Ziegler at the PaineWebber Invitational... Avenged a runner-up finish the year before by claiming the Nationwide Championship by two strokes over Hale Irwin and Bruce Summerhays... Blistered Loch Lloyd CC with a Champions Tour record-tying 126 total over the final 36 holes for the VFW Senior Championship, defeating Jim Colbert by a stroke. 1994: Defeated Dave Eichelberger with a bogey on the fifth hole of a playoff to claim the Raley's Senior Gold Rush. Went wire-to-wire in Hawaii at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic. Opened with a 62 on Maui and never looked back, equaling the tournament record of 195. 1993: Debuted on the Champions Tour at the GTE Suncoast Classic near Tampa and finished T39 at the TPC of Tampa Bay... Voted the Champions Tour's Rookie of the Year on the strength of two tournament victories... Initial win came in Birmingham, AL, where he held off Lee Trevino and Bob Charles to claim the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Was also victorious later that same season at the rain-shortened GTE North Classic in Indianapolis.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Last victory on the PGA TOUR came at the 1986 Canadian Open. Had not won since the 1975 Jackie Gleason-Inverrary Classic, but, at age 43, defeated Greg Norman by three strokes at Glen Abbey GC... In his rookie year of 1968, he set a goal to win $40,000 but instead took home $105,595, a record at the time for a first-year player. Won back-to-back tournaments at the Philadelphia and Thunderbird Classics that season and was second at the Westchester Classic prior to his pair of victories... Also won the 1970 Greater Hartford Open... Defeated Bob Dickson to win the 1965 U.S. Amateur... Was medalist at the 1966 NCAA Championships while at the University of Florida... Member of the 1966 United States World Amateur Cup and 1967 Walker Cup teams... Earned a spot on the 1975 U.S. Ryder Cup team... Has had 18 career holes-in-one, 12 in competition.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T5—Ford Senior Players Championship; T10—Turtle Bay Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Battled through what was his most difficult year in golf...After nagging wrist problems troubled him for two years, underwent surgery to repair cartilage damage and the removal of a cyst on his right wrist on Feb. 17 in Orlando, FL...Later had to work through the deaths of his father and father-in-law in a two-month period in the summer...Slipped to 47th on the final money list, the first time he had been out of the top 30 since joining the Champions Tour full time in 1998...Managed two top-10 finishes. The first came in July when he was T5 at the Ford Senior Players Championship, thanks, in part, to rounds of 67-69 on the weekend near Detroit...Finished T10 at the Turtle Bay Championship in his second start of the campaign...Next start came at the SBC Classic near Los Angeles nearly a month after his surgery...Finished T36 in Putting Average, his first time outside the top 10 on Champions Tour.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: With $1,428,224 in earnings, it was his best showing since the 2001 season when he went over $2 million for the season...Had multiple victories for the first time since 2001...Earned his 19th career Champions Tour title at the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston in October. Matched the largest come-from-behind win of the season when he rallied from seven strokes back with a final-round 64, which included 10 birdies. Eventually defeated Hale Irwin with birdie on the first playoff hole for the victory at Augusta Pines. Win was his fourth overall title in the state of Texas and second of the year in the Lone Star State...Won in May in Austin at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, a one-stroke triumph over Bruce Lietzke at The Hills CC. After an opening-round, 1-over-par 73, followed with rounds of 69-67 and his final round was bogey-free...Saw his chance to win all three Champions Tour events in Texas go awry when he finished T7 at the SBC Championship in October...Was second to Mark McNulty at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am when he made birdie on the final hole near Tampa...Was T4 the week prior at The ACE Group Classic and narrowly missed joining a three-man playoff with Craig Stadler, Tom Watson and Gary Koch when he missed a par putt on the final hole...Also second to Gil Morgan by two strokes at the SBC Classic despite shooting three straight 68s at Valencia...Birdied more par-3 holes than any other player (20.2 percent) and also converted more birdie opportunities than any player at 32.6 percent. 2003: Played well in spurts, especially late in the year when he registered five top-10 finishes in his last six starts to jump back into the top 10 on the final money list after a year's absence...Earned his first victory since October 2001 at the Constellation Energy Classic in mid-September. Forged a two-stroke victory over Doug Tewell and Jim Dent at Hayfields CC near Baltimore after being the 36-hole co-leader with Jay Sigel. Trained at one point on the back nine before making a critical birdie on the 16th hole to tie Tewell. Pulled away on the final two holes when Tewell bogeyed both 17 and 18. Victory in Maryland was worth $225,000 and pushed him past the $1 million mark in single-season earnings for the sixth consecutive year. Win also propelled him to September Player of the Month honors...Battled Fuzzy Zoeller and eventual winner Dana Quigley down the stretch in the season-opening MasterCard Championship before eventually finishing second...Was also second at the Toshiba Senior Classic, finishing four strokes behind Rodger Davis. Helped his cause with a second-round 64...At the Emerald Coast Classic in April, finished as a runner-up—the third time that occurred in his first seven starts of the season. Ended four strokes back of Bob Gilder despite playing his last 36 holes at The Moors without making a bogey...Late in the season, held the 36-hole lead at the inaugural Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, but finished second after a final-round 70...Withdrew from the Farmers Charity Classic before the start of the event due to the death of his mother-in-law...Had a penchant for going low several times in the first half of the year. Shot 64 in both the second rounds of the MasterCard Championship and Toshiba Senior Classic before matching his Champions Tour career-best round for a seventh time with a 7-under 63 on the final day of the Columbus Southern Open, his lowest score since the final day of the 2001 SBC Championship in San Antonio. Thanks to a run of six straight birdies, the best birdie streak on the Champions Tour in 2003, went on to post 64 in the final round of the Music City Championship a week later. 2002: Did not record a victory for the first time since joining the Champions Tour late in the 1997 season...Two best events came in back-to-back starts during May. Was the 36-hole leader at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, but slipped to third, one stroke out of playoff contention, after a final-round 70 at Greystone...Backed up Birmingham performance with a solo second effort at the rain-shortened TD Waterhouse Championship. 2001: Eclipsed the $2-million mark in earnings for a second straight year and again led the Champions Tour in official victories with five...Claimed the first two events of the season—the MasterCard Championship by one stroke over Jim Thorpe and the Royal Caribbean Classic by one point over Isao Aoki. Became the first player to win the first two tournaments in a season since Don January did so in 1981...Added a third victory in late June by defending his title at the FleetBoston Classic (by three strokes over Bruce Fleisher), the fifth player in the history of the Boston event to win in successive years. Defended again at the Farmers Charity Classic in Michigan, nipping Jim Ahern by one shot for his fourth victory of the season...Picked up his fifth win late in the campaign at the SBC Championship, defeating Bob Gilder and Gary McCord by two strokes. 54-hole total of 17-under-par 199 at The Dominion was a tournament record...Matched the low round of his career when he fired a second-round 63 at the Toshiba Senior Classic and also carded 63 in the final round of the SBC Championship. 2000: Voted by his peers as the winner of the Jack Nicklaus Award, symbolizing the Champions Tour's Player of the Year...Earned $2,708,005, the third-highest money total in Champions Tour history, and claimed the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner on the Champions Tour. Averaged $90,267 per start over 30 appearances, thanks to a season-best six victories that included four wins in his final eight starts...Set an all-time Champions Tour record for most consecutive par/better rounds (32), starting the streak in the final round of the U.S. Senior Open in early July and ending it in the opening round of the SBC Senior Classic in late October...Won by five over Hale Irwin and Bruce Fleisher at the Las Vegas Senior Classic...Second win came near St. Louis when he posted a three-stroke victory over Tom Watson at the Boone Valley Classic, thanks to a dramatic eagle on the 17th hole...Was 4-under-par over his last nine holes at Nashawtuc and claimed the FleetBoston Classic by four over Jim Thorpe...Cruised to a wire-to-wire victory the following week and beat Dave Stockton by three strokes at the Foremost Insurance Championship in Grand Rapids. His 18-under 198 total at Egypt Valley included a course-record 63 on the final day...Took the lead in the money race for good when he edged Bill Brask and Jim Thorpe by a stroke at the Bank One Senior Championship in Dallas...Went on to best Gil Morgan and Jim Dent in a six-hole playoff at the Vantage Championship...Set Champions Tour standard for Rounds in the 60s (59/breaking Bruce Fleisher's old mark of 56 in 1999)...Raised eyebrows when he fired a 12-under-par 58 (29-29-58) in the Thursday Pro-Am at the Kroger Senior Classic (missed 15-footer on the last hole for 57). 1999: Bothered by a herniated disc in his neck at several points during the year, but still won multiple official titles...Thwarted Bruce Fleisher's attempt at winning a third straight Champions Tour start when he prevailed by two strokes at the GTE Classic near Tampa...Birdied three of his last seven holes to edge Dana Quigley for the Bruno's Memorial Classic title near Birmingham. 1998: Won three times in his first full year on the Champions Tour and lost two other events in playoffs...Missed seven weeks during the summer with a herniated disc near his neck...Initial victory came at the American Express Invitational in Sarasota...Opened with a sizzling 9-under 63 and cruised to a wire-to-wire, four-stroke win over Dave Stockton...Registered another easy start-to-finish win at the Pittsburgh Senior Classic. After building a Champions Tour record-tying eight-stroke lead after 36 holes, waltzed to a five-shot triumph over Bob Duval at Sewickley Heights...Used a pair of 65s on the weekend to ease past Graham Marsh for the Boone Valley Classic title near St. Louis. 1997: Made his Champions Tour debut at the Boone Valley Classic, just two days after turning 50, and T16 after an opening-round 69...Made six starts and finished in the top 10 in four tournaments...Best effort was a T2 in his second career start at the Comfort Classic. In the hunt to the end at Brickyard Crossing before a final-hole birdie by winner David Graham...Prior to moving to the Champions Tour, played 18 events on the PGA TOUR, winning $196,981...T2 at the Doral-Ryder Open was his best TOUR finish that year and earned him his largest PGA TOUR career paycheck ($158,400).

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T64—Bayer Advantage Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Was victorious at the Wendy's Champions Skins Game in early February when he won 12 skins and a career-best $340,000 at the Hawaii event. It was his second win in the event and first since 1991...Made his 45th Masters appearance but did not make the cut...Made his final appearance at the British Open at St. Andrews but missed the cut and also missed the cut at the Memorial Tournament...Lone start on the Champions Tour came at the Bayer Advantage Classic, where he was T64 and also teamed with his son Steve in the pro-am portion of the event...Captained the victorious United States team in The Presidents Cup.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Solo sixth-place effort at the season-opening MasterCard Championship in Hawaii was his best on the Champions Tour since a T4 at the 2001 U.S. Senior Open. Carded three consecutive rounds in the 60s at Hualalai, a first in a 54-hole Champions Tour event for him...Became the second-oldest player to make a cut on the PGA TOUR when he finished T63 at the Memorial after a final-round 71, his lowest score on the PGA TOUR in two years...Played in his 44th Masters, tying Sam Snead and Billy Casper for number of appearances in the tournament, but missed the cut...Also competed in the Nationwide Tour's BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs, along with sons Gary, Jackie and Michael. All missed the cut at The Cliffs in Traveler's Rest, SC. 2003: Was in contention for 36 holes of the Kinko's Classic of Austin before finishing T7 after an even-par 72 on Sunday...Made his debut on the Nationwide Tour at the BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs and T45 in event near Greenville, SC. Appearance at The Cliffs with four sons marked the first time all five played together in a professional event...Captained the U.S. Presidents Cup team for a second time in the biennial matches in South Africa. 2002: Made just two official appearances due to persistent lower back pain. Played in April at The Countrywide Tradition and finished 69th. Arizona appearance was his first official event since July 2001 when he was forced to WD from the Ford Senior Players Championship with a hamstring injury...Bad back forced him to miss the Masters, only the second time the six-time champion didn't start in the tournament since his debut in 1959. Hip replacement surgery forced him to miss the 1999 tournament...Made the cut at the Senior PGA Championship at Firestone, but was forced to withdraw on Saturday morning with lower back pain...Lone appearance on the PGA TOUR was at The Memorial Tournament where he made the cut and finished 71st. 2001: Registered two top-10 finishes...T4 at the U.S. Senior Open and finished fourth at the Siebel Classic in Silicon Valley...Made a spirited run at the U.S. Senior Open before bogeys on the 15th and 16th holes the final day ended his chances. 1999: Underwent hip replacement surgery in January and played in only three official tournaments on the Champions Tour. ...Did not play until midway thru the year at the Bell Atlantic Classic. Carded two rounds of 70 on the weekend at Hartefeld National and finished 18th near Philadelphia. 1998: Hobbled by a painful left hip for the majority of the year. ...Closed with 68 at Augusta National and T6 at The Masters, four strokes back of eventual winner Mark O'Meara. ...Ended his remarkable run of 154 straight appearances in major championships when he chose not to compete in the PGA Championship at Sahalee CC. 1997: Broke Sam Snead's record for most rounds played at the Masters with his 147th on Sunday. ...Played his 10,000th hole at the U.S. Open at Congressional CC. 1996: Became the first player to win the same Champions Tour event four times when he claimed The Tradition. Victory in Arizona was his 100th as a professional and was his eighth senior major championship, the most by any player over 50. Shot 65 in the final round at Desert Mountain to best Hale Irwin by three strokes. Carded his third career double eagle on Saturday at The Tradition, his first since the 1965 Greater Jacksonville Open. ...Also claimed his only 54-hole event on the Champions Tour, rallying from five strokes back to edge J.C. Snead for the GTE Suncoast Classic title. 1995: Defeated Isao Aoki in a playoff to win his third Tradition title and, at the time, became only the fifth man to win the same tournament three times. 1994: Came from three strokes back of Bob Murphy to win the Mercedes Championships at LaCosta by a stroke. 1993: Claimed his second U.S. Senior Open title, holding off rival Tom Weiskopf by a shot at Cherry Hills CC near Denver. 1991: Made just five appearances on the Champions Tour, but won three official events, including his only PGA Seniors' Championship and first U.S. Senior Open title. ...Shot 17-under 271 at PGA National GC, the lowest 72-hole score on the Champions Tour that year, to claim the PGA Seniors' crown by six strokes over Bruce Crampton. ...U.S. Senior Open victory over Chi Chi Rodriguez came in an 18-hole playoff at Oakland Hills CC, 65 to 69, making him the first player ever to win USGA titles in five different decades and the first and only player to win all four of the Champions Tour's four major championships at the time. ...Also came from five strokes back to successfully defend his Tradition title by one over Jim Colbert, Jim Dent and Phil Rodgers. 1990: Played in just four official Champions Tour events but won twice, finished second once and T3 in his only other tournament. ...Four-stroke win over Gary Player at The Tradition made him the seventh player ever to claim a title in their Champions Tour debut. ...Finished solo sixth at the Masters a week later, at the time, the best finish by a senior in a major since Sam Snead (T3 at 1974 PGA Championship). ...Cruised to a six-stroke victory at the Mazda Senior Tournament Players Championship in record-setting fashion by shooting a 27-under-par 261 at Dearborn CC, the lowest 72-hole total in Champions Tour history.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T2—3M Championship; T6—Bruno's Memorial Classic, SAS Championship; T9—Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Quietly enjoyed his finest season as a professional, finishing 26th on the money list, with $693,651 and earning a spot in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Held sole possession of the lead after the opening round, slipped into a three-way share of the lead after 36 holes and was T2 heading into the final round before closing with a 74 to drop to T9 in Sonoma, CA... Top effort came in August at the 3M Championship where his birdie-eagle finish on the final two holes included making 124 feet of putts that vaulted him into a T2 with Craig Stadler, one stroke back of eventual-winner Tom Purtzer. Performance in Minnesota was his best ever on the Champions Tour, and $140,000 paycheck was more than he made in his entire PGA TOUR career... Posted initial top-10 finish in his sixth start of the season, a T6 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. His 8-under-par 64 on Saturday was his best round in more than a year and included a 7-under-par 29 on the front nine on Saturday which matched the low 9-hole score for the year... Was T9 at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and narrowly missed winning the pro-junior competition with his partner, Colby Smith, losing on a match of scorecards to the team of Jim Thorpe/Amit Odaiyar. Thorpe's birdie on the final hole broke the tie after the teams had each fashioned scores of 19-under-par 197.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Earned over a half-million dollars in his first full year on the Champions Tour... His best performance of the season came in late September when he finished T5 at the SAS Championship near Raleigh... Had impressive showing at The ACE Group Classic when he opened with a 9-under-par 63 and eventually finished T10... Attempted to improve his exempt status at the National Qualifying Tournament in the fall. Finished in a tie with Des Smyth after six rounds at the King and Bear in St. Augustine, FL, and eventually placed ninth when Smyth did not participate in a playoff. 2003: Earned fully-exempt status for 2004 by finishing T4 at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC at Eagle Trace in Florida. Was just one of five players in the field to record four sub-par rounds and finished with a 72-hole total of 7-under-par 281. Earned a spot in the finals by virtue of his third-place finish at the PGA Senior Club Pro Championship... Twice open-qualified on the Champions Tour after turning 50 in June. Was T47 at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore and T31 at the Turtle Bay Championship in Hawaii.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR on a full-time basis from 1978-83 before giving up TOUR golf to become a club professional and Director of Golf at Crag Burn GC in East Aurora, NY, near Buffalo... Career earnings on the PGA TOUR totaled $119,416 in 124 events from 1978-1996. Made 75 cuts and had two top-10 finishes during that span... Was T5 at the 1979 Ed McMahon-Jaycees Quad City Open, T8 at the 1980 Danny Thomas Memphis Classic and T11 at the 1986 PGA Championship at Inverness... Made 14 appearances on the Nationwide Tour from 1990-96, with total earnings of $14,389... Finished T3 at the 1993 Hawkeye Open... Winner of numerous club professional titles in his career, including the 1988 PGA Stroke Play Championship... A nine-time winner of the Western New York PGA Section Championship and a two-time winner of the PGA Match Play Championship (1988-89)... Claimed the New York State Open in both 1985 and 1989... A 10-time winner of the Western New York PGA Match Play Championship and was selected as the Western New York PGA Player of the Year 12 times. Led the Western New York PGA Section money list 13 times, including six consecutive years (1993-98). Is that sections all-time leading money-winner, with over $310,000 in career earnings... Chosen as the PGA National Club Professional of the Year in 1986, 1987 and 1989... Established more than 40 course records in his career, with a career-low round of 61, which he shot on two occasions—at Pima CC in Scottsdale, AZ, and Dragon Ridge CC in Las Vegas... Has 11 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Has worked with such teachers as Butch Harmon, Chuck Zweiner and Bob Fry... Biggest thrill in golf was finishing 11th at the 1986 PGA Championship and biggest thrill away from golf was the birth of his three children... Father got him started in the game as a youngster in Iowa and he grew up playing on sand greens in Belle Plaine, IA (population 2,000)... His father owned the local bowling alley in his hometown... Favorite courses are Pebble Beach, Spyglass, Butler National and Merion... Enjoys "Seinfeld," entertainer Robin Williams and "The Sting"... Favorite athlete is Wayne Gretzky and favorite book is The Firm... A close friend of fellow Champions Tour member John Harris.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: 37—MasterCard Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Despite some talk of cutting back on his schedule, still competed in eight Champions Tour events as well as the Wendy's Champions Skins Game.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Celebrated his 50th year in professional golf...Finished second to Tom Watson at the Wendy's Champions Skins Game, earning five skins and $140,000 at Wailea. Lost out on a golden opportunity for victory on the final hole of regulation when, with five skins and $260,000 on the line, he missed an eight-foot birdie putt. Overall performance was still his best since winning the 1993 event...Played in his 26th consecutive Bay Hill Invitational and appeared in the Masters Tournament for a 50th straight year...Served as captain of the U.S. team once again at the UBS Cup. 2003: Matched his age three times (seventh, eighth and ninth times in his career) and also bettered his age (second time in his career) during the campaign...Shot one better than his age in the opening round of the SBC Championship when he carded a 73. Later matched his age in the same event when he closed with a 74 in San Antonio...Earlier in the year he had matched his age with an opening-round 73 at the MasterCard Championship in Hawaii and a first-round 73 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in Savannah, GA...Made his 23rd consecutive appearance in the U.S. Senior Open at the Inverness Club in Toledo...Made two starts on the PGA TOUR, including the Bay Hill Invitational and a record-tying 49th appearance at the Masters...Captained the United States team to victory for the second consecutive year in the UBS Cup Matches at Sea Island, GA. 2002: Matched his age in the final round of the Napa Valley Championship when he shot a 1-over 73. It was the first time he shot his age since opening with a 1-under 71 at the 2001 Senior PGA Championship at Ridgewood CC in New Jersey. Accomplishment in Napa made him the eighth and final player to shoot or better his age on the Champions Tour during the season...Made three starts on the PGA TOUR, including his record 48th consecutive appearance at the Masters. 2001: Became just the third player in PGA TOUR history to shoot his age when he fired a 1-under-par 71 in the fourth round of the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic...Shot his age again on the Champions Tour when he opened with another 1-under-par 71 in May at the Senior PGA Championship at Ridgewood CC in New Jersey. 2000: Reached a milestone in July when he played his 1,000th TOUR event at The Instinet Classic...Bettered his age for the first time when he fired a 3-under-par 69 in the second round of the FleetBoston Classic. One week earlier had matched his age with a final-round 70 at the Novell Utah Showdown, the first time he had shot his age since posting a final-round 66 at the 1995 GTE Northwest Classic. Also matched his age with a 71 at the Vantage Championship. Joined Jack Nicklaus and Byron Nelson as the first recipients of the Payne Stewart Award presented at The TOUR Championship. 1997: Underwent surgery for prostate cancer in mid-January and made his first start after the surgery at the PGA TOUR's Bay Hill Invitational in late March. 1996: Captained the United States team to victory in The Presidents Cup near Washington, D.C. 1995: Shot his age for the first time in the final round of the GTE Northwest Classic in Seattle, carding a 66 on his birthday...Made triumphant return to St. Andrews for his final British Open appearance on the 35th anniversary of his first Open Championship in 1960. 1994: Played in his last U.S. Open at Oakmont CC near Pittsburgh, 40 years after competing in his first one. Played in his final PGA Championship at Southern Hills. 1993: Pocketed $190,000 at the Senior Skins Game and was the event's leading money-winner for a second straight year...Was the designated honoree at The Memorial at Muirfield Village. 1992: Racked up $205,000 in winning the Senior Skins Game at Mauna Lani...Carded the 16th hole-in-one of his career, and last in competition, in the opening round of the GTE Northwest Classic. 1988: Had his finest earnings year as a Champions Tour player, placing 17th on the final money list with $185,373...Recorded his last official win near Richmond, claiming the Crestar Classic title in wire-to-wire fashion by four strokes over Lee Elder, Larry Mowry and Jim Ferree. 1986: Made holes-in-one on consecutive days at the par-3 third hole at the TPC at Avenel during the Chrysler Cup pro-am competition, a first for a professional player. 1985: Ran away from the field with an 11-shot win at the Senior Tournament Players Championship at Canterbury GC near Cleveland, and established an all-time record for largest margin of victory, not broken until Hale Irwin's 12-shot win at the 1997 PGA Seniors' Championship. 1984: His three victories during the campaign were the most in any single season of his Champions Tour career and marked the first time since 1971 that he claimed a trio of titles in a year...Won a pair of Champions Tour major championships: the PGA Seniors' Championship by two strokes over Don January, and the Senior Tournament Players Championship where he bested Peter Thomson by three shots...Also edged Orville Moody and Lee Elder by one at the Quadel Seniors Classic near the end of the campaign. 1983: Ended a 15-month victory drought by capturing the season-ending Boca Grove Senior Classic. 1982: Collected a pair of titles, the first coming at the Marlboro Classic by four strokes over Billy Casper and Bob Rosburg. Added the Denver Post Champions of Golf title when he held off Bob Goalby by a stroke. 1981: Became the first player to claim both a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open title with his playoff victory over Bob Stone and Billy Casper at Oakland Hills CC near Detroit. 1980: Playoff victory over Paul Harney at the PGA Seniors' Championship made him the first of only 10 men to claim the first official Champions Tour event he entered...Debuted on the circuit at the unofficial World Seniors Invitational, finishing as runner-up to Gene Littler in Charlotte.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T2—Senior PGA Championship; 4—Bayer Advantage Classic, The ACE Group Classic, Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

2005 SEASON:

Followed his successful rookie campaign with another solid season, finishing in the top 30 on the money list for the second straight year. Missed a golden opportunity to win the Senior PGA Championship at Laurel Valley in May. Held a one-stroke lead with one hole to play, but three-putted from 25 feet for a bogey-6 on the last hole of regulation to fall back into a playoff with Mike Reid and Dana Quigley. Eventually lost to Reid on the first extra hole when he missed an eight-foot birdie putt that would have extended the overtime session. Grabbed a solo fourth-place finish at the Bayer Advantage Classic and narrowly missed an opportunity to join a three-way playoff when he missed an eagle opportunity on the final hole at the rain-shortened event. Made a nice showing later in the year. Was T4 at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in October, thanks, in part, to rounds of 65-67 on the weekend. Won the Par-3 Contest at the Masters in April.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Had very successful rookie season, finishing 19th on the final money list. Made Champions Tour debut at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic and was T23 at The Links at Key Biscayne, posting the best 36-hole score of anyone in the field on the weekend. Played in an event in his hometown for the first time since the 1988 Pensacola Open on the PGA TOUR, finishing T12 at the Blue Angels Classic. Made a serious bid for his first victory on the Champions Tour when he was the 36-hole leader at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic. Led by two strokes entering the final round, but eventually finished fifth on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park, two strokes back of eventual winner Jim Thorpe. Had made just one bogey over his first 36 holes, but started with four bogeys over his first nine holes Sunday and posted a 3-over 73 in the final round. Came close again in late August when he took the lead at the JELD-WEN Tradition with two holes to play following an eagle at No. 16, but finished bogey-bogey to T2, one stroke behind Craig Stadler. Finished second to Allen Doyle at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am near Kansas City. Did not get the chance to battle Doyle on Sunday after the final round was canceled due to weather-related damage to the course the previous night. 2003: Was expected to make his Champions Tour debut in September shortly after turning 50, but July surgery forced him to postpone plans. Underwent surgery on his left shoulder, the same one he had done in 1987. Dr. James Andrews performed the "cleaning out" surgery in July. Pate spent the remainder of the year undergoing rehabilitation. Made three starts on PGA TOUR and missed cut in all three.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR on a full-time basis from 1976-1995, with the exception of the 1993 season. Finished sixth on the money list in both 1980 ($222,976) and 1981 ($280,627). Won eight times on the PGA TOUR, with his biggest victory coming at the 1976 U.S. Open Championship at the Atlanta Athletic Club. Was a runnerup 15 times in his PGA TOUR career, including the 1978 PGA Championship at Oakmont where he and Tom Watson lost in a playoff to John Mahaffey. Was also second with Gary Player at the 1979 U.S. Open at Inverness two strokes behind Hale Irwin. First gained attention as a PGA TOUR rookie in 1976. Last swing in the U.S. Open, a 5-iron from the rough, left him a two-foot birdie putt for a two-shot victory over Tom Weiskopf and Al Geiberger. Closed with 63 at the Canadian Open that same season to best Jack Nicklaus by four strokes. Official earnings of $153,102 in 1976 were the most ever won by a rookie until Hal Sutton bettered the mark in 1982. Claimed the first Tournament Players Championship staged at the TPC at Sawgrass in dramatic fashion in 1982, using an orange golf ball. Played the final seven holes in 4-under and birdied both the 17th (15-foot putt) and 18th (5-iron to two feet) to register a two-stroke victory over Brad Bryant and Scott Simpson. Celebrated the win by pushing former TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman and course architect Pete Dye into the large lake left of No. 18 green and then diving in himself. PGA TOUR career was cut short by three surgeries in three years on left shoulder. Tore cartilage in 1982 and had surgery in 1985. Tore rotator cuff in 1986 and had surgery that year and again in 1987. Was the medalist at the 1975 PGA TOUR Fall Qualifying Tournament after an All-American career at Alabama concluded in 1975. Defeated John Grace to win the 1974 U.S. Amateur. Played on the victorious U.S. Walker Cup team in 1975 and also was on the winning American team in the 1981 Ryder Cup. Has had two holes-in-one in competitive rounds.

PERSONAL:

Served as a color analyst on CBS, ABC and BBC golf broadcasts during the decade of the 1990s. Wife, Soozie, and Bruce Lietzke's wife, Rose, are sisters. Received degree from Alabama in summer of 2001, walking through graduation ceremonies with daughter, Jenni. Involved in the golf course design business and also owns and operates a wholesale distributorship for Toro, Echo and Lawn-Boy outdoor power and irrigation products that services seven southeastern states. Biggest thrill in golf was winning the 1976 U.S. Open. Lists his favorite golf shot as the 5-iron he hit to win THE PLAYERS Championship. Biggest thrills away from golf were the birth of his children and his graduation from Alabama. Always marks his ball with coin on tails. Favorite golf courses are Cypress Point, St. Andrews and National GL. Enjoys watching The Discovery Channel and The Weather Channel. His all-time favorite movie is "Animal House." Favorite athlete is Arnold Palmer. Likes watching Clint Eastwood movies. Enjoys Italian food.

2005 SEASON:

Returned to form after two injury-plagued seasons and finished in the top 30 on the money list for the first time since 2002...Had a career-best for 10 top-10 finishes, which surpassed his two previous years combined...His total earnings for the season also exceeded his previous two-year totals...Was inside the top 20 a total of 18 times and finished outside the top 20 just one time in his last 10 starts...Best showing came at the Bank of America Championship in June. Birdied the final two holes Sunday to post a closing-round, 7-under-par 65 to earn a berth in a three-man playoff with Tom Purtzer and eventual winner Mark McNulty. Bogeyed the first extra hole and was eliminated before McNulty won the title...Fired successive rounds in the 60s at the Blue Angels Classic and matched his Champions Tour career-best with a final-round 63, which helped him to a T3 in May. His weekend rounds of 66-63 gave him a 36-hole total of 129 which matched the best final 36-hole total for the year on the Champions Tour...Was one of seven players to finish T4 in October's Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn...Had an impressive performance at the Toshiba Senior Classic in March. Fired the low round Sunday, a 6-under-par 65, to jump 24 spots and a T4...Improved his standing in several statistical categories...Finished sixth in Putting Average, was third in Putts Per Round (28.95) and was also third in total birdies with 329.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Underwent hernia surgery in the spring and also battled back problems in the latter stages of the campaign...Made nice showing at the Senior British Open. Shared the first- and second-round leads at Royal Portrush GC and remained in the hunt all four days before eventually finishing T5 in Northern Ireland, three behind winner Pete Oakley. His opening-round, 3-under-par 69 included consecutive eagles on Nos. 9 and 10...Finished T4 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in his last start before undergoing hernia surgery in late April. 2003: Underwent surgery on January 3 at the Hughston Clinic in Columbus, GA, to repair a labrum tear in his left shoulder. Originally injured the shoulder in the spring of 2002, hitting balls on a wet surface at Bruno's Memorial Classic...Was scheduled to return to the circuit in April but re-injured the shoulder during rehab and did not start his season until the Columbus Southern Open in mid-May with a T45 in Georgia...Completed his comeback with a three-stroke victory at the Allianz Championship in Iowa, thanks to three consecutive sub-70 rounds. Used an eagle on the par-5 11th hole at Glen Oaks to overtake Rick Rhoden and then cruised to an easy victory despite playing his last seven holes of the event in even par...Showed signs that he was ready to contend again two weeks earlier in Minnesota. Set a new course and tournament record at the 3M Championship in August when he shot a 9-under-par 63 in the second round at the TPC of the Twin Cities. Was just one stroke off the pace after his record round, but shot a 1-over-par 73 on Sunday to finish T10...Voted by his peers as Comeback Player of the Year. 2002: One of only two players (Rodger Davis) to finish among the top 31 money-winners after earning exempt status at the 2001 National Qualifying Tournament. Was one of a record 17 millionaires on the Champions Tour and earned more than twice his best year on the PGA TOUR ($450,005, 1987)...Won the biggest event of his career in his 22nd start on the Champions Tour. Became the first qualifier to win the U.S. Senior Open and just the sixth player to claim the prestigious event in his first attempt. Holed a dramatic 10-foot birdie putt on the fifth extra hole of a playoff to beat Tom Watson. Moved into the lead in the third round by shooting a course-record 8-under 63 at Caves Valley GC near Baltimore, the lowest 18-hole score ever posted in U.S. Senior Open history. Got into the championship through the USGA qualifier in Nashville (116 players for five spots). Made a two-foot birdie putt on the last hole to advance into a three-man playoff for the final two spots. Secured a spot with a 15-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole. Victory at Caves Valley also ended a TOUR victory drought of 15 years, one month. 2001: Debuted on the Champions Tour at the Kroger Senior Classic and T4 at the rain-shortened event near Cincinnati...Also T4 later in the fall campaign at the Gold Rush Classic near Sacramento. Prepped for the Champions Tour by playing in three PGA TOUR and seven Nationwide Tour events...Earned a full exemption for the 2002 season by virtue of his sixth-place finish at the National Qualifying Tournament in the fall.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005 SEASON:

Enjoyed the most lucrative year of his professional career, with Champions Tour earnings of $1,144,666, the second time he has hit the $1-million mark on the circuit...The second of three players to go wire-to-wire for a victory during the year, joining Ron Streck and Bob Gilder...Claimed his third career Champions Tour victory at the 3M Championship, the first time in his career he led an event from start to finish. Opened with a course-record-tying, 9-under-par 63 that included his second hole-in-one on the Champions Tour. Made a seven-foot par putt on the last hole to avoid overtime with Craig Stadler and Lonnie Nielsen. His 15-under-par 201 total was the lowest three-round score since the event moved to the TPC of the Twin Cities in 2001. First-place check of $262,500 was his largest ever. Victory in Minnesota avenged misfortunes of two previous years where he was the 36-hole leader and did not win...Came close to winning in late June at the Bank of America Championship. Was one of three players in a playoff (Don Pooley and Mark McNulty) but fell short when McNulty made birdie on the second extra hole after Pooley was eliminated with a bogey on the first hole. Got himself in overtime when he birdied the final hole in regulation...Also finished second late in the year at the SBC Championship in San Antonio. Was T41 after opening with a 1-over 72, but rallied on the weekend at Oak Hills with rounds of 66-63. His 13-under 129 total equaled Champions Tour-best for last 36 holes in 2005...Was the first-round leader at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf and in contention throughout at Savannah Harbor before finishing T3...Had a pair of eagles en route to a 6-under 65 in the opening round of the U.S. Senior Open...As a former champion, played at the Bank of America Colonial on the PGA TOUR and finished T21, helped in large part by a final-round, 6-under-par 64, tying him for low score of the day...Took advantage of the month-long Champions Tour break in April and claimed the Australian PGA Seniors title by five strokes. Had originally made the trip to Australia to visit his daughter Ashley who was attending Sydney University as an exchange student...Relinquished his Driving Distance title to Dan Pohl after two seasons but still finished third at 296.0.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Narrowly missed hitting the $1-million mark in season earnings for the second straight year when he closed the year with $997,367 in official money. However, played in seven fewer events mainly due to back problems (sliding disc in lower back), which troubled him for most of the season...Tied the Champions Tour's all-time record and set a course record with an 11-under 60 (nine birdies and an eagle) in the first round of the Toshiba Senior Classic before going on to win at Newport Beach CC by one stroke over Morris Hatalsky. Used birdies on two of the last four holes to secure the Toshiba victory, his second title on the Champions Tour...Was the 18- and 36-hole leader at the Bank of America Championship, but eventually T2 near Boston, four strokes back of Craig Stadler, after posting an even-par 72 on Sunday...Also was the 36-hole leader at the 3M Championship for the second consecutive year, but eventually T3 after carding a final-round 74...Champions Tour Player of the Month in March, thanks to his win and a solo sixth-place finish at the SBC Classic the previous week...Led all players once again in Driving Distance at 294.8 yards per drive and was also second in Greens in Regulation behind Hale Irwin. 2003: Was among 17 players to earn over $1 million for the season...Earned his first Champions Tour victory when he drained an eagle putt of 58 feet, 3 inches to edge Gil Morgan at the SBC Classic by one stroke. Came to the final hole trailing Morgan by two strokes, but became the first player to make an eagle on the final hole and win an event since Sammy Rachels did so at the 2001 Transamerica. Had a hole-in-one in the opening round, the first player to do so and win the event since Bob Gilder at the 2002 Kroger Senior Classic...Was the second-round leader at the 3M Championship and was tied for the lead the final day until hitting two balls into the water for a quadruple bogey at the 17th hole. Eventually finished T10...Led all players in Driving Distance at 298.3...Also led the PGA TOUR in that category in 1990 at 279. 2002: Official earnings of $760,056 topped his best year on the PGA TOUR (1991: $750,568)...Balanced eight top-10 finishes among 23 starts...Debuted on the Champions Tour at the Royal Caribbean Classic and T7. It was his first top 10 since finishing T4 at the 1998 Walt Disney World Classic on the PGA TOUR. Was in contention early in the final round, but faded after playing the back nine on Sunday in 1-over par. Was the early leader in the event on Friday before steady rains washed out the round. Rebounded with a 67 in the opening round at Crandon Park on Saturday...Best performance of the season was a T3 at the SBC Senior Classic near Los Angeles in early March. Was the first-round leader at Valencia CC and one of just two players to break par, after carding a 2-under 70 in cool, windy conditions on Friday...Vaulted into the top 31 for good when he T5 at the Napa Valley Championship and earned a $50,700 paycheck.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Five TOUR victories in 25-year career included two in

2004 SEASON:

Won Player of the Year honors for the first time with career season that saw him, at age 58, become the oldest player ever to claim the Arnold Palmer Award signifying the leading money-winner on the circuit. Was the only player to eclipse the $2-million mark in single-season earnings, making almost $400,000 more than his previous-best season (2000)... Led the Charles Schwab Cup for 17 consecutive weeks (19 overall), but got nipped in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship and placed second in the year-long competition (247 points behind Tom Watson). Earned a $500,000 annuity and donated the entire amount to four different charities... Set the pace on the Champions Tour for Sub-Par Rounds with 60 and also Rounds in the 60s (42 of 84)... Along with Mark McNulty, registered a Champions Tour-best 15 top-10 finishes, with four of them coming in his four appearances in major championships... Was involved in half of the eight play-offs during the season, winning twice for the first time since 2002... Got his year off to a great start when he captured the season-opening MasterCard Championship in a three-hole playoff with Tom Watson. Made par on the third extra hole to defeat Watson and win the event for the second time in three seasons and earn the $272,000 first prize, which pushed his career earnings in the event to $998,875. His 18-under-par 198 total equaled the lowest 54-hole score in relation to par on the circuit in 2005. Three consecutive rounds in the 60s gave him 11 straight sub-70 scores at Hualalai... Second title came when he birdied the first extra hole at the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic to hold off Tom Watson and Gil Morgan. Had finished his second round the previous day before play was extended into Monday due to weather problems... Along with Jerry Pate, lost in a playoff at the Senior PGA Championship. Third-round 66 at Laurel Valley was the only round in the 60s among the 72 players making the 36-hole cut. Seemed in control for most of the final round, but played the back nine at Laurel Valley in 2-over to fall into a playoff with Reid and Pate. Lost to Reid when he dumped his second shot in the water on the par-5 18th (first extra hole)... Last playoff came at the JELD-WEN Tradition, the season's final major championship. Again appeared in control and on his way to his first major championship crown, when he was up by two strokes with two holes to play. Costly bogey at No. 17 and subsequent birdie at No. 18 by Loren Roberts forced the overtime session. Roberts eventually prevailed, despite a bogey on the second extra hole... Also finished as a runner-up in three other events... Followed strong play at Hualalai with a second-place finish the following week at the Turtle Bay Championship, five strokes behind Hale Irwin on Oahu's North Shore... Runner-up again in early May at the FedEx Kinko's Classic. Contended early on the back nine, but eventually finished four strokes back of good friend Jim Thorpe in Austin... A second-round, 8-under-par 64 helped propel him to a one-stroke margin after 36 holes over Roberts at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, but finished second after he could not hold off a late charge by eventual-winner Jay Haas... Was the 36-hole leader again at the SBC Championship and was tied for the lead with Haas through 14 holes Sunday before making bogeys on the last three holes to finish T4 at Oak Hills. His $83,700 check pushed single-season earnings over $2-million mark... Was a fifth-place finisher at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, but made headlines when he tied the Champions Tour's all-time record by stringing together eight straight birdies (holes 10-17) in his opening-round, 7-under-par 65. Eight straight birdies tied the mark set in 1987 by Chi Chi Rodriguez (Silver Pages Classic) and matched in 2000 by Jim Colbert (TD Waterhouse Championship)... Became the first player to go over the $1-million mark in 12th event of the campaign when he T4 at the Allianz Championship in early June and earned a check for $69,000... Made headlines when he skipped a tournament for the first time in nine years, withdrawing from the Senior British Open due to a sore right hip and travel complications. Record streak ended at 278 consecutive tournaments played for which he was eligible and 264 consecutive overall... Topped the Champions Tour in the All-Around and, for the third consecutive year, led the circuit in Birdies (356).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Best two performances of the year came in his first two starts...Fell one stroke short of Fuzzy Zoeller in defense of his MasterCard Championship title in Hawaii, despite a final-round 65 that included four birdies in his last six holes...Followed runner-up performance at Hualalai with another strong outing two weeks later at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic near Miami. Began the final round five strokes off the lead, but made a spirited run at Bruce Fleisher before ending up one stroke back despite a 4-under-par 68 in windy conditions. 2003: Led the Champions Tour in Birdies with 381...Won the season-opener at the MasterCard Championship. Birdied two of the last three holes in Sunday's final round, including the 18th, to nip Larry Nelson by two strokes for his eighth career Champions Tour title. 2002: Claimed more than one event in a season for the first time since 1998. Named Player of the Month for March after claiming his sixth career title. Edged Bob Gilder and Fuzzy Zoeller by one stroke at the Siebel Classic in Silicon Valley. Finished with a 2-under-par 70 on Sunday in cold, rainy conditions at Coyote Creek GC...Celebrated his 200th consecutive start by winning the SBC Championship in San Antonio. Seventh victory of his career came by one stroke over Bob Gilder at Oak Hills CC...At Bruno's Memorial Classic, lost to Sammy Rachels on second hole of playoff. Tournament was his 178th consecutive start for which he was eligible, a new Champions Tour record, surpassing Mike McCullough's mark of 177...Made his second career hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the second round of the SBC Senior Open. Holed a 7-iron shot from 163 yards on the 13th hole of the Port Course at Harborside International. 2001: The busiest player on the Champions Tour, with 37 official starts (112 rounds)...Won his fifth Champions Tour title at the SBC Senior Open near Chicago. Three consecutive sub-70 rounds gave him a five-stroke victory over Jay Sigel at Kemper Lakes...Had the year's final hole-in-one at the SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia in the third round. 2000: Set a new mark when he played in all 39 official events, breaking old record of 38, held by four players, including himself. Played more rounds than any other player (114)...Drained a 12-foot birdie putt on the final hole to defeat hometown favorite Tom Watson for the TD Waterhouse Championship title in Kansas City. Winning putt came just moments after Watson had placed his 8-iron approach shot within a foot of the cup, setting up a possible playoff. 1999: The Champions Tour "ironman," he played every round (119) of every official event (38)...Registered 18 top 10s (second to Bruce Fleisher)...Set an all-time record for lowest 36-hole score in relation to par (18-under 126) at the Novell Utah Showdown when he posted his two lowest rounds of the season on successive days. Achieved a personal best when he set the Park Meadows CC course record on Saturday with a sizzling 10-under 62, then added a 64 on Sunday to move into a tie with Dave Eichelberger at the end of regulation. Lost to Eichelberger in overtime when he missed a short par putt on the first extra hole...Led the circuit in Sub-Par Rounds (77) and Total Birdies (418). 1998: Won a pair of titles and was over the $1-million mark in official earnings for the first time in his career...Made a 33-foot birdie putt on the last hole of the Emerald Coast Classic to edge Jim Colbert in Pensacola...Used a sizzling 64, his low round of the campaign, on Sunday at Serrano CC to come from three shots back of John Morgan and win the Raley's Gold Rush Classic. Topped the Champions Tour in Sub-Par Rounds (71). 1997: Became the sixth open qualifier in Champions Tour history to win an event when he defeated Jay Sigel in a three-hole playoff for the Northville Long Island Classic. Learned his father, Wally, had passed away following a long bout with cancer just minutes after the tournament ended...Made his Champions Tour debut at the PGA Seniors' Championship just four days after turning 50...Monday-qualified for four of his first eight starts before winning in New York.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR on and off starting in 1973...Greatest number of appearances came during a four-year span from 1979-82, when he made 77 starts...Enjoyed his best year in 1980, when he won $31,509 and had a T2 finish at the unofficial Disney World Team event...Finished T6 at the Greater Milwaukee Open that year, his best-ever official performance...In 1982, he fired a 61 at the Sammy Davis, Jr.-Greater Hartford Open that tied for low round on TOUR that season...Winner of numerous tournaments in the club professional ranks...Named the New England PGA Player of the Year seven times and won the New England PGA Section title five times...Also won the Vermont, Rhode Island and Massachusetts Opens numerous times...Third-place finisher in the 1986 PGA Club Professional Championship...Twice the leading money-winner in the Dave Pelz PGA Tournament Series...Has had 21 holes-in-one in his career, including one in a U.S. Open qualifying round and another at a Western Open qualifying round.

PERSONAL:

Got his start in golf while serving as a caddie at Rhode Island CC...Played collegiately at the University of Rhode Island and is a member of that school's Hall of Fame...Inducted into the New England PGA Hall of Fame after the 2000 season...Served as head professional at Crestwood CC in Rehoboth, MA, from 1983-96 before being elevated to Director of Golf in 1997...Lists Arnold Palmer as his favorite athlete...Favorite all-time movie is "The Godfather"...Has no other hobbies besides golf and plays virtually every day...Nephew Brett has played on both the PGA TOUR and Nationwide Tour in recent years...Son, Devon, plays golf at the University of Rhode Island...Like most New Englanders, is a die-hard Red Sox fan...Has thrown out first pitches at four Major League Baseball stadiums, including Fenway Park.

2005 SEASON:

Enjoyed immediate success after playing a full-time schedule on the Champions Tour for the first time...Finished 21st on the money list and earned a career-best $863,006, over $300,000 more than his best season on the PGA TOUR...Selected as the May Player of the Month after winning his first Champions Tour event in his 17th career start at the Senior PGA Championship. Won in a playoff after being the beneficiary of a three-stroke turnaround at the final hole of regulation. Made an eagle on the par-5 18th at Laurel Valley and then watched Jerry Pate three-putt for a bogey. Two-putted for birdie on the first extra hole (18th again) to defeat Pate and Dana Quigley for his first win on TOUR since 1988 (16 years, 9 months, 2 days). Was the only player in the Senior PGA field to break par all four days. His four consecutive rounds of 70 marked the first time since Miller Barber at the 1982 Suntree Classic (66-66-66-66) that a Champions Tour player shot the same score each day over 72 holes to win...Came close to a second straight title the following week at the Allianz Championship. Was the 36-hole leader at the Tournament Club of Iowa, but eventually missed on a playoff berth with Tom Jenkins and D.A. Weibring after posting an even-par 71 on Sunday...Contended for the first time at The ACE Group Classic when he made a pair of eagles in the final round and eventually finished T4 in Naples...Made the first hole-in-one in his Champions Tour career when he aced hole No. 7 with a 4-wood from 228 yards in the final round at the JELD-WEN Tradition. It was his first since the 1985 Manufacturers Hanover Westchester Classic.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Prepped for the Champions Tour by playing in five Nationwide Tour events and made cuts in two of those before joining the Champions Tour in July...Made his debut at the Senior British Open, where he was T57...Registered his best performance at the Kroger Classic near Cincinnati. Closed with a 5-under 67 to finish T5 along with Des Smyth, three strokes back of fellow Utah resident Bruce Summerhays.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Was a fixture on the PGA TOUR from 1977-2001...Prior to the 2006 season had made 575 starts and made the cut in 415 of those with earnings totaling $4,686,774...First victory came in his 11th year on TOUR. Pulled away with a closing-round 67 to win the 1987 Seiko Tucson Open. His four-stroke victory earned him a place in 1988 NEC World Series of Golf, which he won in a playoff with Tom Watson. Made par on the first extra hole which earned him a 10-year PGA TOUR exemption. That victory helped him to his best earnings year on the PGA TOUR with $533,343, placing him 15th on the money list. Also had a second-place finish at THE PLAYERS Championship that year (four behind Mark McCumber) and was T3 at the Kemper Open...Followed his 1988 campaign with another strong season in 1989, earning $401,665, his second-most lucrative year on TOUR. However, it was a little bit of a bittersweet season for him. Looked to be in command at the PGA Championship at Kemper Lakes with three holes to play but made bogey, double bogey on the 16th and 17th holes and eventually fell one stroke short of eventual winner Payne Stewart. Earlier that year, he was leading the Masters with five holes to play but finished the last five holes 4-over-par to slide to a T6...Of his seven career second-place finishes, three came in playoffs. Fell to Mac McLendon at the 1978 Pensacola Open, lost to Hal Sutton at the 1985 Southwest Golf Classic and was one of three players involved at the 1997 Hawaiian Open, joining Jim Furyk and eventual winner Paul Stankowski at Waialae CC...Won Driving Accuracy title in 1980, first year official statistics were kept...Missed most of the 1993 season after suffering a wrist injury playing table tennis while in Japan for the Dunlop Phoenix Open in the fall of 1992. Originally diagnosed as a chip fracture to his right wrist, returned to action in early spring and played five events before further exams found it was separated tendon.

Underwent surgery to reattach the tendon and was sidelined the remainder of the season...Also had an unusual injury in 1991 when he suffered a broken rib chasing a cat from his garage...Made the PGA TOUR on his first attempt at Q-School in 1976 in Brownsville, TX...Played in the 1978 Kirin Cup and the 1980 World Cup...Had a solid amateur career before joining PGA TOUR. Was named to All-American teams from 1973-76, including first-team status in 1975 and second-team in 1976 while at Brigham Young. Was also the Western Athletic Conference champion in 1976 for the Cougars. Among his college teammates were John Fought and Jim Nelford...Member of the BYU Hall of Fame...Low amateur at the 1976 U.S. Open at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

PERSONAL:

Earned the nickname "Radar" for his accuracy off the tee...Has done some consulting work on a few golf course projects...Biggest thrill in golf was capturing the 1988 World Series of Golf...Got his start in the game as a five-year-old when his father introduced he and his two brothers to the game...Heroes are his father, Charles Lindbergh and Rudyard Kipling...Biggest thrill away from golf was his marriage and the birth of his six children...Favorite golf course is Cypress Point, enjoys the music of Vince Gill and likes all Italian food...Two of his all-time favorite movies are "Casablanca" and "It's a Wonderful Life"...Wife teaches piano...Brother, Bill, was the general manager of the TPC at Sawgrass at one time...Underwent LASIK surgery in 2004.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR on a regular basis from 1977-88 and made a total of 342 starts (234 cuts made)...Won three official titles and placed 11th on the money list in 1981 ($193,292), thanks to nine top-10 finishes...Initial victory came at the 1979 Manufacturers Hanover-Westchester Classic. Was three back starting the final round, but 4-under 67 gave him a one-stroke triumph over Howard Twitty and David Graham. Had finished second the week before at the Sammy Davis, Jr.-Greater Hartford Open, missing a putt on the final green that would have tied him with the eventual winner, Jerry McGee...Edged Scott Simpson by two strokes at the 1981 Pleasant Valley-Jimmy Fund Classic near Boston...Was rewarded when he won the 1984 Hawaiian Open. Birdied four of the last seven holes, including the 18th, at Waialae CC to tie Wayne Levi, and then won the title in a playoff. One year earlier at Waialae, had victory snatched from his grasp when Isao Aoki holed a wedge on the last hole for an eagle and victory while he was sitting in the scoring tent, checking his card with a one-stroke lead...Started on the PGA TOUR as a 20-year-old and was always easily identified by a white cap, similar to the type Ben Hogan wore...As a youngster, was king of the junior tournaments in the San Diego area, claiming such titles as the 1972 World Junior and the 1973 U.S. Junior...Has one career hole-in-one (1977 Q-School, Pinehurst No. 2, 15th hole).

BEST 2005 PGA TOUR FINISHES: T2—Southern Farm Bureau Classic; T4—Bob Hope Chrysler Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Joined the Champions Tour in July and had an immediate impact despite continuing to split time between the PGA TOUR and the Champions Tour...Was 16th on the final money list ($959,882) in just six starts and finished fifth or better in all but one of those tournaments...Was also fifth in the Charles Schwab Cup race...Won his first Champions Tour title when he defeated Dana Quigley in a two-hole playoff at the JELD-WEN Tradition in his third start. Posted four straight sub-par rounds and got up and down for a birdie on the final hole in regulation to earn a spot in the playoff. After a birdie on the first extra hole, had a two-putt bogey on the second that was good enough to defeat Quigley...Was solo fifth in his Champions Tour debut at the Senior British Open in July. Was the first-round leader at Royal Aberdeen, with a 1-over 72 and was in contention throughout in Scotland. Despite making a quadruple-bogey-8 at No. 4 on the Balgownie Links, still managed to close with a 4-under 67...Co-leader after both the second and third rounds of the U.S. Senior Open but eventually finished T2 after a disappointing 73 on Sunday...Was among the leaders the final two days at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in October before finishing third, three strokes behind eventual-champion Jay Haas. Made just one bogey through the first 41 holes and grabbed the lead on Sunday with birdies on three of the first five holes, but a triple bogey on the sixth hole was his undoing. Reclaimed a share of the lead with Haas and Dana Quigley with a birdie on No. 15, but Haas took charge with three straight birdies...Other top-10 finish was a T5 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Was T11 at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach...Selected as the Champions Tour August Player of the Month...Schedule also included 18 starts on the PGA TOUR where he made 11 cuts and finished 93rd on the final money list...Nearly won his ninth PGA TOUR title when he was in contention all four days at the Southern Farm Bureau Classic in Mississippi before eventually finishing T2, two strokes behind Heath Slocum...Early in the season, five straight rounds in the 60s led to a T4 finish at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the PGA TOUR in 1981 but did not post the first of eight career wins until 1994 when he won The Nestle Invitational at Bay Hill, with a closing-round 67 to defeat Fuzzy Zoeller, Vijay Singh and Nick Price by one stroke. That same year he also recorded three top-10s in majors: Masters (T5), U.S. Open (T2) and PGA Championship (T9). Was tied with Ernie Els after 18-hole playoff at U.S. Open at Oakmont CC, then lost on the 20th hole...Defended his Nestle Invitational crown in 1995 at Bay Hill and became first player to win same event for first two TOUR victories since Calvin Peete (1979 and 1982 Greater Milwaukee Opens)...Also earned a berth on the U.S. Ryder Cup team that same year where he compiled a 3-1 record at Oak Hill CC...Won multiple titles in 1996, at the MCI Classic and Greater Milwaukee Open. At the MCI Classic, his 63 on Saturday captured the third-round lead, and 265 total broke Hale Irwin's tournament record by one stroke...Birdied two of final three holes to break tournament record for the first time with a 265 at Greater Milwaukee Open, forcing playoff with Jerry Kelly. Birdied the first extra hole for GMO victory...After failing to finish in the top 30 on the money list in 1998 for the first time since 1993, returned with a solid year in 1999. Fired a third-round 62, matching career-low which produced 54-hole lead at GTE Byron Nelson Classic and a tournament-record 16-under-par 194. Finished tied with Steve Pate, with tournament record 18-under-par 262 then won play-off with par on first extra hole. His father, who spent 1998 looking after his Alzheimer's-stricken wife, was in attendance for first time in nearly a year and joined his son when Byron Nelson presented championship trophy...Won a second Greater Milwaukee Open crown in 2000, which helped him earn a career-best $1,932,280. Continued success at Brown Deer Park GC (also second in 1994 and '97) when he finished with a 72-hole score of 260, breaking Carlos Franco's previous record by four strokes. Added eight other top-10 finishes that year...In 2002, nearly duplicated that number, earning $1,919,047, including a win at the Valero Texas Open in San Antonio. At 47 years, 3 months 5 days, became the oldest player to win a TOUR event since 48-year-old Tom Watson won the 1998 MasterCard Colonial. His 19-under total of 261 tied Jeff Sluman (Greater Milwaukee Open) and Jonathan Byrd (Buick Challenge) for low 72-hole total on TOUR that season. Co-leader through 36 holes with Pat Perez after 7-under-par 63, his best round since a 63 at the 2000 Greater Milwaukee Open. Entered final round with one-shot lead over Frank Lickliter II, Garrett Willis, Bob Tway and Matt Peterson. After trailing Fred Funk and Fred Couples by one making the turn, birdied four of final six holes to secure three-shot victory over Funk, Couples and Willis. Victory in Texas led to September Player of the Month honors...Six of his eight TOUR victories have occurred since turning 40...Member of two Presidents Cup teams (1994, 2000), with a career record of 4-2-1 and also played on the American Ryder Cup team in 1995. Along with Corey Pavin, will serve as an assistant captain to Tom Lehman at the 2006 Ryder Cup matches in Ireland...Led the PGA TOUR in Putting in 1994...Attended the PGA TOUR's National Qualifying Tournament five times before becoming established on the TOUR.

PERSONAL:

Earned the nickname "Boss of the Moss" for his putting ability. Nickname was coined by fellow TOUR member David Ogren in 1985...Cary Middlecoff said of him in the mid-1980s: "We've got a kid back home (in Tennessee) who is just a beautiful putter. He'll just break your heart on the greens, he's so pure. If he ever gets to believing in himself, he could really be something to watch."...Inducted into Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T5—Turtle Bay Championship; T8—Bruno's Memorial Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Registered a pair of top-10 finishes, with both coming in the first third of the season...Finished T5 at the Turtle Bay Championship in late January, thanks to three consecutive sub-par rounds...Had a satisfying weekend at the Bruno's Memorial Classic in May. Defended his Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title at the event on Saturday and then shot his third straight sub-par round on Sunday to finish T8 near Birmingham... Eventually placed fourth on the final Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list, with $79,000.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: All six top-10 efforts came prior to mid-August and best efforts were a pair of T4s at the MasterCard Classic in Mexico and the Allianz Championship in Iowa. The leading player among the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions, with three over-60 titles and $219,292. Won his first Grand Champions event at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, edging Dave Eichelberger by one stroke when Eichelberger made bogey on the 18th hole Saturday...Claimed his second Grand Champions event near Boston at the Bank of America Championship. Birdied four consecutive holes midway through the back nine to overtake Graham Marsh...Won his third Georgia-Pacific title at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Made birdie on the 36th hole to tie Bob Charles, and then defeated Charles on the first playoff hole when he got up and down from the bunker for a par while Charles three-putted for a bogey. 2003: Won for the eighth time in his career when he made a nine-foot birdie putt on the last hole to defeat Mike McCullough at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am. Came from two strokes back on the final day with a course-record tying 7-under 65 at The National GC of Kansas City. Victory, at age 59, made him the oldest Champions Tour winner ever in Kansas City. 2002: Voted as the Champions Tour's Comeback Player of the Year...Earned first victory since October 1998 with a two-stroke win over Morris Hatafsky at the Farmers Charity Classic. Was tied for lead after 36 holes with Rodger Davis and Dan O'Neill and closed with a 5-under-par 67 at Egypt Valley. Helped his cause with a pair of eagles in the final round. 2001: Missed the first five months of the season, recovering from rotator cuff surgery on both shoulders (left shoulder in Nov. 2000; right shoulder in Jan. 2001)...Returned to action at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland (T58)...Finished second at the SBC Senior Classic. 2000: Troubled most of the year by a left shoulder problem and underwent arthroscopic surgery in November. 1999: The 36-hole leader at the BankBoston Classic before finishing T3 after missing birdie opportunities on the 53rd and 54th hole...Third-place finisher at the Vantage Championship. 1998: Defeated Jose Maria Canizares with a birdie on the third extra hole of a playoff for the Bell Atlantic Classic title. Course-record 62 at Hartefeld National on Saturday included an amazing 27 on the front nine. Champions Tour-record nine-hole score featured an eagle and seven straight birdies, the best eagle-birdie run in the history of the circuit...Went wire-to-wire for victory at the EMC Kaanapali Classic. Fired a career-best 10-under 61 in the opening round. 1997: Tied Gil Morgan for the most top-10 finishes (19) in the campaign, while compiling multiple wins for the first time as a professional...Captured his first victory of the year in Birmingham at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, holding off Gil Morgan by three strokes...Six consecutive top 10s from mid-June to mid-July were highlighted by a win at the Kroger Senior Classic. Waltzed to a seven-stroke victory over Isao Aoki at Kings Island, setting a tournament record with an 18-under-par 195 total...Came close to winning two other events...Lost to Bob Murphy in a nine-hole playoff at the Toshiba Senior Classic when Murphy sank an 80-foot birdie putt...Also fell to open qualifier Dana Quigley in a three-hole playoff at the Northville Long Island Classic. 1996: Posted the biggest victory of his Champions Tour career in the year's final official event, a two-stroke win over Kermit Zarley at the Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach, SC. Helped his cause with a hole-in-one in the third round (10th of his career). 1995: Broke Jim Dent's run as the Champions Tour's longest hitter, winning that statistical category with an average of 277.4 yards per drive. 1994: Garnered Rookie of the Year honors after completing one of the most remarkable come-from-behind victories in golf history at the GTE West Classic in Ojai, CA. Rallied from 10 strokes down to catch Jim Colbert in regulation and then defeated him on the fourth extra play-off hole for his first professional win...Final-round course-record 63 at The Dunes Club came on his 51st birthday during the GOLF MAGAZINE SENIOR TOUR Championship and included both an eagle and rare double-eagle (15th/5-wood/220 yards). 1993: Earned a conditional card at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament, finishing 11th at Grenelefe Resort.

COMBINED ALL-TIME MONEY (3 TOURS): $3,541,657

2005 SEASON:

Made 16 starts on the Nationwide Tour last year and made the cut in four events, earning $11,074. Rebounded from an opening-round 75 with a 5-under 66 on Sunday to finish T17 at The Rex Hospital Open, his top performance of the year.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Winner of four PGA TOUR titles from 1985-90. Opened 64-64 on the way to capturing his first PGA TOUR victory at the 1985 Southern Open. In 1989 and 1990, was among the top-10 money-winners on the circuit. Placed sixth on the money list in 1989 and captured two wins that season, the USF&G Classic and Walt Disney World/Oldsmobile Classic. Defended the Disney title the following year on his way to an eighth-place finish on the money list. Set the single-season Greens In Regulation mark on the PGA TOUR (74 percent) in 1992 that stood until Tiger Woods broke it in 2000 (75.2 percent). Was a member of the United States team at the 1990 Asahi Glass Four Tours event. Played the Nationwide Tour from 1995-98 and again in 2004-05. Was a two-time runner-up on the Nationwide Tour in 1995, at the South Carolina Open and Buffalo Open, and finished 19th on the money list that year. Winner of the 1976 Southern Amateur, All-Southeastern Conference and All-American at the University of Georgia. Also won the Georgia and Atlanta Junior titles and the 1981 World Under-25 Championship.

PERSONAL:

At age 7, severed tendon in left thumb and only has about 70 percent of average flexibility in it. Contracted Lyme disease on a hunting trip in 1991 and was later diagnosed as having neurological damage in his left hand, a condition known as a "benign essential tumor." Also underwent spinal fusion surgery on his neck in 2001. Credits the late

Sam Snead and J.C. Snead, long-time friends, with helping his game along through practice rounds and time on the range. Says he admires friend Ben Crenshaw for the World Golf Hall of Famer being the "consummate gentleman." Inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. In 1991, began carrying specially designed golf bag that featured a picture of a missing child from the area where tournament was being played. Someone saw his bag at the Masters, recognized the child and called the National Center of Missing and Exploited Children. The child was eventually recovered.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1—SBC Classic, Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf; 2—

Senior British Open Championship; T6—Senior PGA Championship; T7—Bank of America Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Had a breakthrough season on the Champions Tour, winning twice and finishing 10th on the money list with more than twice what he made in 2004, eclipsing the seven-figure mark in official earnings for the first time in his career. Started out the year as a conditionally-exempt player but served notice early when he claimed both of his titles in his first five starts of the campaign. Became the first Irishman since Christy O'Connor, Jr. to win on the Champions Tour when he posted his initial victory at the SBC Classic. Was a one-stroke winner over D.A. Weibring and Mark McNulty with a 5-under 211 total, the highest winning 54-hole score on the circuit last year. Started the final round at Valencia CC six strokes behind second-round leader Keith Fergus, but closed with a 4-under-par 68 to hold off Weibring and McNulty, who both missed chances to tie him on the final hole... Claimed a second title just two starts later at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. The $382,000 first-place check in Savannah was the largest of his career. With winds gusting up to 35 mph, came from two strokes back on the final day to edge Tom Jenkins by two. His 1-under 71 was the only score under par among the 52-man field on Sunday and equaled the highest finish by a winner in relation to par... Also made a spirited run at the Senior British Open crown before losing to Tom Watson on the third playoff hole at Royal Aberdeen in Scotland... Also made the cut on the number (6-over, T57) at the Senior PGA Championship and then vaulted into an eventual T6 at Laurel Valley, thanks to a final-round 68, the lowest score on Sunday among the 71 professionals... Shot a career-low round on Champions Tour with second-round 7-under 63 at the Blue Angels Classic. It bettered his previous low round of 64 at the event the year before. Withdrew from the SBC Championship prior to the start of the event when he had to have two stents inserted into his coronary artery Friday evening in San Antonio... Had third-best Final-Round Scoring Average (69.90) on the circuit last year... Made two appearances on the European Seniors Tour, including win at Arcapita Seniors Tour Championship in November in Bahrain.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Best overall effort was a T5 at the Kroger Classic near Cincinnati in early September. Was just one stroke off the lead after 36 holes, but slipped back after an even-par 72 on Sunday at the TPC at River's Bend. Was the opening-round co-leader with Gary McCord after firing a 7-under 65 on Friday... Played in the National Qualifying Tournament during the fall in an attempt to improve his conditional status. Finished in a tie with Lonnie Nielsen after six rounds, but placed 10th after electing not to participate in a playoff. 2003: One of three rookies to finish in the top 30 on the money list, joining Craig Stadler and D.A. Weibring. Also joined 2002 Q-School graduates David Eger and Dave Barr among the top 30 money-winners... Raised eyebrows in his Champions Tour debut at The ACE Group Classic. Closed the Naples event with birdies on five of his last six holes and T2 in the event with Tom Watson... Three consecutive rounds in the 60s helped him to a T3 finish at the Columbus Southern Open... Was the 54-hole leader at the Senior PGA Championship, but closed with a 4-over-par 74 to slip to a T5 at Aronimink GC. Fired a course-record 5-under-par 65 in the third round. 2002: Joined Doug Dalziel of Scotland (1987), Simon Hobday of South Africa (1990) and Masaru Amano (1995) as the fourth international player to earn medalist honors at the Champions Tour's National Qualifying Tournament at World Woods GC in Brooksville, FL. Overcame a four-stroke deficit on the last day at World Woods and made an eight-foot birdie putt on the final hole to overtake Japan's Seiji Ebihara for top honors. His 72-hole score of 13-under 275 earned him a check for $42,000... Advanced to the finals after being the low man at the regional site at Marsh Creek CC in St. Augustine, FL. Shot 11-under 277 over 72 holes, six shots better than Bill Thorpe and Doug Johnson.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played 29 years on the European PGA Tour and won eight official tournaments on the circuit... Best known as the European Tour's oldest winner. Won the 2001 Madeira Island Open in Portugal by two strokes over John Bickerton at 48 years, 1 month and 4 days, 20 days older than the previous-oldest champion, Neil Coles... Finished seventh on the European PGA Tour Order of Merit in 1988 with £171,951... T4 at the 1982 British Open Championship at Troon... Shot a final-round 62 in the 1990 Mitsubishi Austrian Open and placed third in the event... Played on the European Ryder Cup team in 1979 and 1981 and represented Ireland on five World Cup teams (1979, 1980, 1982, 1988, 1989)... Will serve as vice-captain to Ian Woosnam on 2006 European Ryder Cup team... Has made eight holes-in-one in competition.

PERSONAL:

Started playing golf at age 6... Lists Jack Nicklaus as his hero and the birth of his children as his biggest thrill outside of golf... Favorite golf course is Carnoustie in Scotland and favorite entertainer is singer Neil Diamond... Enjoys Italian food... Favorite athlete is boxer Muhammad Ali... Designed Ballykisteen G&CC in Limerick Junction, Ireland.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $2,197,545

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T20—Toshiba Senior Classic; T22—The ACE Group Classic; T23—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

2005 SEASON:

Among the top 25 in three of first five events and then struggled for the remainder of the campaign. Best effort was a T20 at the Toshiba Senior Classic...Finished 15th on the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list, with $39,425...Teed it up in his 1,000th (PGA TOUR/Champions Tour combined) event at the Senior PGA Championship, becoming just the seventh player to reach that milestone. Missed the cut at Laurel Valley after posting rounds of 77-79.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: T10 at The ACE Group Classic in Naples was his first top-10 performance since win in 2002...Finished fifth on the final Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list, with $153,791 and won the Georgia-Pacific title at The ACE Group Classic, defeating Isao Aoki in a one-hole playoff. 2003: Made his fifth career hole-in-one on the Champions Tour at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am, tying him with Charlie Sifford for most career aces on the over-50 circuit.

...He holed a 6-iron shot from 162 yards on No. 4 at The National GC of Kansas City in the final round...Also made consecutive eagles during the third round of the JELD-WEN Tradition. Holed a pitch shot on the par-5 15th hole at The Reserve and then followed by hitting the par-5 16th green in two and making a 22-foot putt...Posted a one-stroke victory over Dave Stockton in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition at the Music City Championship at Gaylord Opryland. 2002: Ended nearly a seven-year victory drought when he prevailed by one stroke at the Greater Baltimore Classic. Sank a 10-foot par putt on the final hole to nip John Mahaffey, Doug Tewell and Bobby Wadkins. Set a Hayfields Club course record in the second round with his 8-under-par 64. Became only the fifth player, and first since Gary Player in 1998, to win both the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title and the overall tournament. Victory at 61 years, 8 months and 9 days made him the third oldest player to win a Champions Tour event behind Mike Fetchick (63 years) and Player (62 years, 9 months, 22 days). The win was also his first since the 1995 Ford Senior Players Championship and set a record for longest time between Champions Tour victories (6 years, 11 months, 7 days), eclipsing the old record of 6 years, 10 months and 3 days by Larry Ziegler (1991 Newport Cup-1998 Saint Lukes Classic). 2001: T2 at The Instinet Classic, two strokes behind Gil Morgan...Lone victory in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition came at the Novell Utah Showdown, a two-stroke win over Walter Morgan. 2000: Along with Gary McCord, lost to Tom Wargo (won with birdie on third extra hole) in a playoff at the LiquidGolf.com Invitational. 1999: Closed with a final-round 65 at Serrano CC and T3 at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic. 1998: T2 at the Northville Long Island Classic along with Walter Hall, one stroke short of Gary Player. Recorded a hole-in-one in the final round of The Home Depot Invitational. 1995: Enjoyed his most lucrative season with more than $950,000 in official money...Defeated Raymond Floyd in a playoff for the Royal Caribbean Classic title and then bested Jack Nicklaus in overtime for the Ford Senior Players Championship title, the biggest win of his career. 1993: Broke into the Champions Tour winner's circle when he braved the elements for a one-stroke victory at the Vantage at The Dominion in San Antonio. His 54-hole score of 2-under 214 was impressive, considering a fluke winter storm that moved through south Texas during the event. 1990: T21 in his debut on the Champions Tour at The Transamerica Senior Golf Championship in Napa, site of his victory in the Kaiser International in 1976.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Collected the last of his eight PGA TOUR titles at the 1987 Manufacturer's Hanover-Westchester Classic, defeating Seve Ballesteros in a playoff...Captured his first two TOUR victories in a three-week span, winning the 1971 Tucson Open and the Doral-Eastern Open immediately before and after the PGA Championship...Member of the U.S. Ryder Cup teams in 1971, 1973 and 1975...Has 15 career holes-in-one...Inducted into the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame in late April of 2003, along with former college basketball coach Terry Holland and all-pro NFL line-backer Lawrence Taylor.

PERSONAL:

Nephew of the legendary Sam Snead, who passed away in 2002...Was an excellent all-around athlete as a youngster, winning all-state honors in three sports. Spent nearly four years playing baseball in the Washington Senators' farm system before becoming a professional golfer in 1964...Biggest thrill in his career was his first TOUR victory in Tucson...Lists Bob Knight and Ted Williams as his heroes...Biggest thrill outside of golf was when Ted Williams gave him a baseball glove at age 11...Favorite golf course is Cypress Point...Enjoys reading Louis Lamour novels.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T2—3M Championship, Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach; T3—Commerce Bank Championship; 4—Senior British Open Championship, SAS Championship, SBC Classic, Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn; 6—Boeing Greater Seattle Classic.

BEST 2005 PGA TOUR FINISH: T9—Sony Open in Hawaii.

2005 SEASON:

Registered 14 top-10 finishes, including eight top-10s in his last 10 events, but was shut out of the winner's circle for the first time since joining the Champions Tour...Led the circuit in Birdie Average (4.54) for the second straight year, making 295 birdies over his 65 rounds and also topped the circuit in Par-5 Birdies (54.9 percent) and Second-Round Scoring Average (68.55)...Was a runner-up twice...Posted three straight rounds in the 60s in defense of his title at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, but was still one of three players to come up one stroke shy of eventual-winner Hale Irwin...Also made a late run at Tom Purtzer at the 3M Championship, but for the second straight year, missed a 30-foot eagle putt to tie on the last hole. Along with Lonnie Nielsen, ended one stroke short in Minnesota...Also T3 at the Commerce Bank Championship after opening with a 7-under 64 at Eisenhower Park...Best effort among the senior majors was when he finished solo fourth in the Senior British Open at Royal Aberdeen in Scotland. Trailed Tom Watson by one stroke entering the final round and eventually lost by three after a 1-over 72 on Sunday at Royal Aberdeen...Was either the leader or co-leader for the first three rounds of the U.S. Senior Open, but suffered a back-nine meltdown on Sunday at NCR CC and finished T7 after a final-round 76...Matched the Champions Tour's all-time scoring record for lowest 18 holes when he fired a 10-under 60 at The Moors on Saturday at the Blue Angels Classic. Had a chance for 59 but missed from 27 feet, 5 inches on his last hole of the round. Eventually T9 in the event near Pensacola...Finished second to Jack Nicklaus at the Wendy's Champions Skins Game in Hawaii...Battled several ailments during the year...Was forced to withdraw from the Senior PGA Championship with lower-back pain and then withdrew from both the Allianz Championship and Bayer Advantage Classic with a sore right elbow...Made six appearances on the PGA TOUR and made the cut in five of those events...Finished T9 at the Sony Open in Hawaii after posting back-to-back 67s on the weekend at Waialae CC...Also made the cut for the 20th time in 29 starts at the Masters and eventually finished 50th.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Was voted by his peers as the Champions Tour's Player of the Year after a career-best five victories in a single season, the most wins by any player in a year since Larry Nelson in 2001...Also topped the Champions Tour earnings list for 2004 and received the Arnold Palmer Award as the circuit's leading money-winner, with a personal-best $2,306,606, the 10th-highest money total ever...Joined Lee Trevino and Tom Watson as the third player to earn money titles on both the Champions Tour and the PGA TOUR...Had 35 Rounds in the 60s out of 67 played (52 percent) and earned the Byron Nelson Trophy for best scoring average, 69.30...Also finished second in the Charles Schwab Cup competition. Led the season-long race during the month of September before finishing 39 points back of Hale Irwin at season's end...Was among the top three in over a third of his 21 starts, and five victories included three consecutive wins during the summer, a first on the Champions Tour since Gil Morgan won three consecutive starts on the Champions Tour (1997-1998)...Started the run by earning his second major championship on the Champions Tour at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Closed with four straight birdies in the final round to win by one stroke over Jerry Pate and Allen Doyle. Took over the lead in the money race for good with his $345,000 first-place check near Portland. Helped his cause when he made a rare double eagle on the 16th hole Saturday, nailing a perfect 4-iron from 207 yards. Was 11-under-par on the critical par 5s at The Reserve...Made it two straight wins the following week by capturing the inaugural First Tee Open at Pebble Beach presented by Wal-Mart. Won by three strokes over Jay Haas, after opening with an even-par 72 at the Bayonet Golf Course. Played his last 37 holes in 16-under-par and teamed with his junior partner, Aaron Woodard from Denver, to post a four-stroke victory in the pro-junior competition, as well. Back-to-back victories were the first on the Champions Tour since Bob Gilder in 2002 (Allianz Championship/Kroger Classic)...Made it three wins in three consecutive starts when he cruised to a six-stroke, wire-to-wire victory over Tom Jenkins at the SAS Championship in Raleigh. Was 14-under-par on the back nine en route to a tournament-record score of 17-under-par 199. Check for $270,000 at the SAS event pushed his season earnings past the $2-million mark, the first player to do so in two years...Started the year by winning The ACE Group Classic in Naples. Prevailed by making a 27-foot birdie putt on the first hole of a playoff with Tom Watson and Gary Koch at TwinEagles. Appeared to be out of contention after a double bogey at the 13th hole on Sunday left him three behind leader Koch. However, a birdie at 15, coupled with bogeys by Koch at 14 and 17, opened the door...Also rallied from four strokes back on the final day to win by four at the Bank of America Championship near Boston. Final-round 64 at Nashawtuc was the lowest Sunday score in tournament history and victory became extra special when son Kevin claimed the Lake Erie Charity Classic on the Nationwide Tour in a four-hole playoff just an hour later, marking the second time a father and son won on the same day in PGA TOUR-sponsored events (David Duval/Bob Duval on March 28, 1999)...Champions Tour Player of the Month in both August and September. 2003: The Champions Tour Rookie of the Year, thanks to three wins and seven top-10 finishes...Did not become eligible until turning 50 on June 2...Made history when he became the first Champions Tour player to win a PGA TOUR event, a one-stroke victory in the B.C. Open at the En-Joie GC. Used a final-round, 9-under-par 63 to make up eight strokes (largest comeback in tournament history) to defeat Steve Lowery and Alex Cejka by one stroke. Had four straight rounds in the 60s, the first time he had done so in a PGA TOUR event since the 1995 B.C. Open. Victory in New York made him just the second player in history to win a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event in the same year. (Raymond Floyd-1992 Doral-Ryder Open at 49, and the GTE North Classic). Victory in Endicott also made him just the fifth player in PGA TOUR history to win an event over the age of 50 (fifth oldest at 51 years, 1 month, 18 days) and the first since Art Wall at the 1975 Greater Milwaukee Open...One week earlier, broke through for his first Champions Tour victory at the Ford Senior Players Championship, a three-stroke win over Tom Watson, Tom Kite and Jim Thorpe. Became the 14th player in history to record his first victory at a major championship and became the youngest winner in Ford Senior Players Championship history (50 years, 1 month, 19 days). Trained by six strokes at the halfway point, but rebounded with rounds of 65-66, with only 51 putts in the final two rounds at the TPC of Michigan...Added a second Champions Tour title at the inaugural Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Started two strokes back in the final round, but made birdie on five of his first seven holes and cruised to a two-stroke win over Larry Nelson, his first in North Carolina since the 1991 TOUR Championship...Joined Tom Watson as the only other player on the Champions Tour to win in consecutive starts when he cruised to a four-stroke win over Bob Gilder at the SBC Championship in San Antonio, two weeks after winning in North Carolina. Win was his first in Texas since the 1984 Byron Nelson Classic and gave him four overall TOUR victories in a season for the first time since 1982...T15 in his Champions Tour debut at the Senior PGA Championship.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Won 13 times on the PGA TOUR, with his biggest triumph coming at the 1982 Masters. After opening with a 75, came back to win at Augusta National in a playoff over Dan Pohl...His B.C. Open win came seven years after his previous win at the 1996 Nissan Open...In 1992, captured the NEC World Series of Golf by one stroke over Corey Pavin, 10 years after winning same event. In 1982, made up five strokes with closing 65 and then defeated Raymond Floyd in a playoff...Was the PGA TOUR's leading money-winner in 1982 thanks to four victories, a personal best for a single season...Finished second on money list in 1991 after winning THE TOUR Championship at Pinehurst No. 2 in a playoff with Russ Cochran...Shot the low round of his career at the time, an 11-under 61, on the final day of the 1990 Scandinavian Enterprise Open to win by four strokes over Craig Parry...Was a two-time All-American selection at the University of Southern California...Defeated David Strawn to win the 1973 U.S. Amateur at Inverness...Has four career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Nicknamed "The Walrus" and is one of golf's most colorful and popular personalities...A California native who lives in Denver and is an ardent fan of NHL's Colorado Avalanche...Inducted into San Diego's Breithard Hall of Fame in February of 1996...Son Kevin turned professional and won the 2002 Colorado Open in a playoff with his father as his caddie. Played PGA TOUR in 2005...Younger son, Chris, played college football at Lake Forest College in Illinois and served as his dad's caddie when he won the B.C. Open...Got started in golf at age 4 by his father...Favorite golf course is Harbour Town on Hilton Head Island, SC...Favorite athlete is Wayne Gretzky...Enjoys reading any book authored by Wilbur Smith...Always uses a dull penny for a ball marker...Lists Arnold Palmer as his hero...Was involved in a charity golf tournament in October 2005, which raised nearly $75,000 for hurricane victims in Louisiana.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $815,348

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: 1—Commerce Bank Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Had just one top-10 finish in 22 appearances, but it was a big one...Won his first Champions Tour event at the Commerce Bank Championship in his 18th career start on the circuit. Three-stroke, wire-to-wire victory over Jim Ahern on Long Island came 24 years, 2 months, 1 day after his last PGA TOUR victory at the 1981 Michelob-Houston Open. Along with his 1993 Yuma Open title on the Nationwide Tour, he became the first player ever to win events on all three Tours. Made just two bogeys over his 54 holes and none in his last 22 holes at Eisenhower Park. Opening-round 62 was a Champions Tour career best, matched his lowest score on the PGA TOUR and was the best start by a winner in 2005...With five events remaining in the official season, was on the bubble for a spot among the top-30 money-winners but eventually slipped into the 36th position after finishing among the top 20 in only one event (T12-Administaff Small Business Classic) the rest of the way...Was also among the early leaders at the Allianz Championship before eventually T34 in Iowa.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Made five appearances on the Champions Tour and debuted on the circuit at the Senior British Open (missed cut)...Played in events through the PGA TOUR Career Victory category, with best finish a T28 at the SBC Championship in San Antonio.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR from 1977-99, with 329 starts and 215 cuts to his credit. Most of those came during a 10-year span (1979-88) when he played in 268 events. His best year financially came in 1985 when he earned $142,848 and finished 55th on the money list. Had five top-10 finishes that season, including a playoff loss to Woody Blackburn at the Isuzu-Andy Williams San Diego Open...Won twice on the PGA TOUR. The first came in 1978 when he fired back-to-back rounds on the weekend of 63-62—125 to claim the San Antonio Texas Open by one stroke over Hubert Green and Lon Hinkle. He earned $40,000. His consecutive rounds of 63-62 still ranks among the best consecutive rounds in PGA TOUR history (T2). Only Mark Calcavecchia (60-64—124/second and third rounds at 2001 Phoenix Open) has done better. Began Saturday's round 12 strokes behind 36-hole leader Ben Crenshaw before his scorching weekend play. Had earned just $6,616 during the 1978 season before capturing the San Antonio victory...Added his second TOUR win three years later by again prevailing in Texas, posting a three-stroke victory over Hale Irwin and Jerry Pate at the rain-shortened Michelob-Houston Open at Woodlands CC. Shot a third-round 62, which gave him a three-stroke margin after 54 holes and held up when bad weather reduced the event to 54 holes. Earned the distinction of being the first player to win a PGA TOUR event with a metal wood when he prevailed in Houston...Was second at the MONY Tournament of Champions at LaCosta in 1982...His career earnings total $815,348...Has also played the Nationwide Tour, making 75 starts, with earnings totaling $128,094. Was victorious at the 1993 Yuma Open, defeating Chris DiMarco in a playoff...College standout at University of Tulsa, where he won All-American honors for the Golden Hurricane and was a four-time All-Missouri Valley Conference selection...Has 12 holes-in-one overall and nine in competition.

PERSONAL:

His dad got him started in the game at age 3 1/2...Biggest thrill in golf came in 1978 when his parents were on hand to see him capture his first PGA TOUR victory in San Antonio...Won all-state honors in basketball while in high school and was also a member of two state championship teams...Named his youngest son after former President Ronald Reagan and says his biggest thrill outside of golf was the day his son, Reagan, was born...Is an owner of a water-treatment business...Favorite TV show is "Friends," while favorite athlete is the late Sam Snead...Favorite movie is the "The Sound of Music"...His favorite golf courses are Hillcrest CC in Bartlesville, OK and Oak Hills CC...Heroes are Ronald Reagan and his parents...College roommate of noted swing instructor Hank Haney while at Tulsa.

2005 SEASON:

Finished among the top 40 in single-season earnings for the 11th straight year and played in every official event with the exception of the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Enters the 2006 season having played in 124 consecutive tournaments he's been eligible for, the longest current streak on the Champions Tour... Played his best golf during August when he recorded both of his 2005 top-10 finishes in consecutive starts. Was T8 at the 3M Championship and then followed with his best outing of the year, a T7 at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic. Posted a pair of 69s and a 68 in each event... Was also the first-round leader in early October at the SAS Championship after a 6-under-par 66, but eventually finished T23... Was one of the leading players in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition... Finished second to Mike McCullough in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship near Atlanta and ended up second on the over-60 money list, with $108,833... Also lost a playoff to Graham Marsh in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition at the FedEx Kinko's Classic in Austin.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Returned to the top-30 on the money list for the first time since the 2001 season and was one of just two players 60 or older (Graham Marsh, the other) to qualify for the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship... Won for the third time on the Champions Tour at the Kroger Classic near Cincinnati late in the year. Win ended a victory drought of 6 years, 2 months and 7 days (209 starts). At 60 years, 6 months and 28 days old, he became the eighth oldest winner in Champions Tour history at the time and the oldest champion since 61-year-old J.C. Snead's triumph at the 2002 Greater Baltimore Classic. Rallyed from six strokes back for victory, thanks to a final-round 64 at the TPC at River's Bend, his best round in over four years. Got up and down for a clutch birdie on the last hole to post a 15-under-par 201 total and then watched his closest pursuers fail in their bids to catch him. 2003: Placed solo third at the Senior British Open, thanks to a final-round 65... Also T3 at the Turtle Bay Championship. 2002: Closed with a 68 on Sunday at The Countrywide Tradition and fell just one stroke shy of earning a berth in a playoff with John Jacobs and eventual winner Jim Thorpe. Third-place effort in Arizona was his best performance since the SBC Senior Open in July 2000 (solo third). 2001: Was T4 at both the Kroger Senior Classic and Allianz Championship... Led all players in Eagles, with 19. 2000: Opened with a career-low 10-under 62 at the LiquidGolf.com Invitational and was the 36-hole leader at the TPC at Prestancia before eventually T8 in Sarasota... Best overall finish was a solo third at SBC Senior Open near Chicago. 1999: Finished second at the Bank One Championship, five strokes back of Tom Watson... T2 at the Pacific Bell Senior Classic, two strokes behind Joe Inman. 1998: Tasted victory at the State Farm Senior Classic near Baltimore. Made a 20-foot birdie putt on the 18th green at Hobbit's Glen to avert a playoff with Walter Hall and Hale Irwin... Led the Champions Tour in Total Birdies (430). 1997: Earned his first Champions Tour victory in his 102nd start. Claimed the Saint Luke's Classic in suburban Kansas City in a playoff over Hugh Baiocchi. Trailed by six strokes entering the final round, but made birdie on two of the last three holes to tie Baiocchi, then defeated him with a par on the second extra playoff hole. Saw his string of consecutive official events end at 96 straight when he skipped the BankBoston Classic in August due to a back problem. 1996: Earned the "ironman" title after setting a Champions Tour record by playing an amazing 119 rounds (the old mark was 115 by Rives McBee and John Paul Cain in 1990). 1995: Blitzed the GC of Georgia with a course-record 63 in the first round of the Nationwide Championship. Eventually settled for a T2 with Hale Irwin, two behind Bob Murphy... Came close again in his native Utah, but was one of six players to fall one stroke short of Tony Jacklin at the Franklin Quest Championship... Also led with six holes to play at The Transamerica, but lost to Lee Trevino down the stretch. 1994: Earned a full exemption for 1995 after a fourth-place finish at the National Qualifying Tournament... Played in four events (three Monday qualifying/one sponsor exemption).

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

One of the top players in the Utah PGA section for a number of years prior to joining the Champions Tour... Twice selected as the Rocky Mountain PGA Section Player of the Year... Never qualified for the PGA TOUR on a full-time basis, but played in nine PGA TOUR events when he was living in northern California and made eight cuts... T3 in

2005 SEASON:

Suffered through a frustrating season after being plagued for much of the early portion of the year by elbow woes...Slipped to 58th on the final money list after five straight years in the top 30 and $1 million-plus in earnings...Chose to have elbow surgery after being troubled with discomfort for much of the first four months of the season. Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his left elbow May 10 near his home in Oklahoma City to clean out scar tissue...Best showing came at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August. Shared the 54-hole lead with his neighbor, Gil Morgan, but closed with a 1-over-par 73 to drop to a T5 finish, his only top 10...Made the cut in his first start in a PGA TOUR event since 2002, finishing T73 at the MCI Heritage in April...Remained one of the most accurate players off the tee, finishing second in Driving Accuracy behind John Bland.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Improved one spot on the money list from 2003 and surpassed the $1-million mark in earnings for the fifth straight year...Ended a victory drought of just over a year when, after borrowing a Ping Anser putter from the stash of surplus clubs at the home of close friend Walter Hall, used the club to win the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Made a clutch 13-foot birdie putt on the last hole to edge Bruce Fleisher by one stroke and win the western North Carolina event. Shot an 8-under-par 64 in the last round to come from three strokes back of Fleisher on Sunday. Victory was his eighth on the Champions Tour and gave him five straight years with at least one win. Went bogey-free over his 54 holes at Rock Barn, a first since Morris Hatalsky won the 2003 Columbus Southern Open without making a bogey...Started his opening round at the JELD-WEN Tradition with a string of 59 holes without a bogey, but made one on the first hole to end that streak. Eventually finished T4 at the Oregon event, thanks to four straight sub-par rounds...Was the 36-hole leader at the Kroger Classic, but eventually fell one stroke short of a charging Bruce Summerhays at the TPC at River's Bend...Followed with another strong performance in his next start, grabbing a T3 at the SAS Championship, his fifth consecutive top-10 finish...Led the season-opening MasterCard Championship by two strokes after 36 holes, but eventually finished T3 in Hawaii despite a final-round 69 at Hualalai. His 64-65-129 (15-under) total over the first two rounds were the low first-36 holes total on the Champions Tour for the year...Plagued for a portion of the year with an elbow problem, which forced him to withdraw from the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup

Championship. 2003: Got off to a slow start, but ended up with top-10 finishes in a third of his 27 appearances. Earned seven figures for the fourth straight year, yet slipped out of the top 10 money-winners for the first time since joining the Champions Tour...Victory near Grand Rapids came in dramatic fashion and extended his number of years with at least one win to four straight seasons. Came from three strokes back on Sunday to claim his seventh career title at the Farmers Charity Classic. Tied Eamonn Darcy after 54 holes as a result of a clutch 18-foot eagle putt on the 17th hole at Egypt Valley. Eventually defeated Darcy with a 15-foot birdie putt on the third play-off hole. Victory made him the 16th different winner in 2003, tying the all-time Champions Tour record for longest span without a repeat winner...Had finished in third place a month earlier at the Columbus Southern Open on the strength of a second-round 64, his lowest score of the year...Had back-to-back runner-up efforts in consecutive weeks. First battled fellow Edmond, OK, resident Gil Morgan throughout the Kroger Classic. Got within one stroke of Morgan, but missed birdie chances at the last two holes and eventually came up two strokes shy at the TPC at River's Bend...T2 for the second straight year the following week at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore. Made up three strokes on 36-hole co-leaders Larry Nelson and Jay Sigel on the final day, and briefly grabbed the lead late in the final round. Fell back after missing a birdie opportunity on No. 16 and then bogeyed the last two holes to finish two strokes shy of Nelson...Led the Champions Tour in Driving Accuracy for the third straight year (81.5 percent). 2002: The third of six multiple winners...Came from three strokes back to win the Verizon Classic by one stroke over Hale Irwin. Was the only player in the field to record three consecutive rounds in the 60s at the TPC of Tampa Bay and hit 41 of 42 fairways...Held off Bobby Wadkins by a stroke to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Again drove the ball in 41

of 42 fairways at the King & Bear course...Made the first hole-in-one of the 2002 season when he aced the 217-yard eighth hole with a 4-iron at Hualalai GC during the opening round of the MasterCard Championship. Ace was the first in MasterCard Championship history. 2001: In April, closed with a Cochise course-record 10-under-par 62 at Desert Mountain, the lowest score ever shot in a major championship on the Champions Tour, and completed a wire-to-wire victory at The Countrywide Tradition. Victory at Desert Mountain GC was his second major victory on the Champions Tour. Needed just 19 putts in his final round and his 72-hole total of 23-under-par 265 was the best four-round score on the Champions Tour since Jack Nicklaus posted an all-time record of 27-under 261 at the 1990 Ford Senior Players Championship. The nine-stroke win was also the largest margin of victory since Hale Irwin won the 1997 PGA Seniors' Championship by 12 strokes. Victory near Phoenix was his fourth Champions Tour title, coming in his 40th career start. Did not register his fourth win on the PGA TOUR until his 541st start...Almost claimed a second major title at the Ford Senior Players Championship, but fell in a one-hole playoff to Allen Doyle. Appeared on the verge of winning the title before Doyle drained a 35-foot putt on the 72nd hole to force the overtime session...Closed the season with a solo second-place finish at the SENIOR TOUR CHAMPIONSHIP at Gaillardia. 2000: Earned Rookie of the Year honors, thanks to three victories, including a win in a Champions Tour major...Broke through in a big way with his first Champions Tour title, the rain-shortened PGA Seniors' Championship. Victory was his first since the '87 Pensacola Open. Became just the 10th player ever to make his first victory on the Champions Tour a major when he waltzed to a seven-shot triumph over Dana Quigley, Tom Kite, Larry Nelson and Hale Irwin at PGA National...Added his second victory at the SBC Championship in San Antonio, holing a birdie putt on the final hole for a one-stroke win over Walter Hall and Larry Nelson...Claimed his third title at the Novell Utah Showdown, outdistancing his neighbor, Gil Morgan, by two strokes in Park City. 1999: Turned 50 in August, but did not play his first event until early October due to a back injury he sustained right before he was eligible to play...Made debut on the Champions Tour at the Vantage Championship and finished T15.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Won four times in a PGA TOUR career that started in June of 1975...Last victory came at the 1987 Pensacola Open, a three-stroke triumph over Danny Edwards and Phil Blackmar...Had his best earnings year in 1986 when he finished the season with $310,285 (No. 18)...Had a run-away victory (seven strokes) over Clarence Rose in the Los Angeles Open that year...Highest money standing came in 1980 when he placed 17th with $161,684...Won two titles in 1980, defeating Jerry Pate in a playoff for the Sea Pines Heritage Classic crown and coming from behind to defeat Tom Kite at the IVB-Philadelphia Classic...Went over $2 million in PGA TOUR earnings with his T21 at the 1992 PLAYERS Championship...Led the PGA TOUR in Driving Accuracy in both 1992 and 1993...Never attended a TOUR Q-School. Entered as a PGA of America member after serving as a club professional from 1971-1975. First worked as an assistant pro at Kicking Bird GC in Edmond, OK, before moving to Pinetop CC in Pinetop, AZ, first as an assistant and then the head professional. Also taught lessons in the off season at Camelback CC near Phoenix...Underwent major elbow surgery in September of 1995 that caused him to miss all of the 1996 season...Has had 13 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Daughter, Kristi, is married to Pat Bates, a member of the Nationwide TOUR. Bates was a three-time winner on the Nationwide Tour in 2001, including the season-ending Nationwide Tour Championship...Biggest thrills in golf were winning the 1980 MCI Heritage Classic, his first TOUR victory and his first Champions Tour win at the 2000 PGA Seniors' Championship, each by seven strokes...Lists his father and Labron Harris, Sr. as the most influential people in his golf career...Got started in the game by working as a caddie for his father in Stillwater, OK...Has worked with such instructors as Gary Smith, Jim Flick, Stan Utley and Labron Harris...Attended Oklahoma State his freshman year on a basketball scholarship from the legendary coach Henry Iba...Has worked as an on-course commentator for The Golf Channel, ESPN and Fox Sports...Favorite golf course is Harbour Town GL in Hilton Head, SC...Biggest thrill outside of golf was attending Race Driving School with Rick Mears, Bobby Rahal and Al Unser, Sr...Always keeps a penny in his pocket for good luck...Nickname is "Tewell Time"...Other favorites include ESPN, Vince Gill and Arnold Palmer.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T7—Bank of America Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Had another busy season, with 24 starts... Earned his best finish in two years when he was T7 at the Bank of America Championship near Boston. Was the first-round leader following a 6-under-par 66... Was T5 after two rounds at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf following successive rounds of 69, but closed with a 77 to finish T14... Went 257 holes without a three-putt, the longest streak on the Champions Tour during the year.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Posted lone top-10 finish in March when he fashioned three straight sub-par rounds to finish T9 at the Toshiba Senior Classic. 2003: Had both of his top-10 finishes in the first third of the campaign... Shared the first-round lead at the Emerald Coast Classic, thanks to a Champions Tour career-low-tying round of 63. Eventually T2 in the event after posting a final-round 66 at The Moors. Credited a change to the long putter for his runner-up performance in Pensacola, his best overall effort since winning near St. Louis in May 2001. 2002: T5 at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland on the strength of a closing 5-under 67 at Springhouse GC. 2001: Claimed his third career Champions Tour title when he bested Vicente Fernandez, 2-up, in the final of the Enterprise Rent-A-Car Match Play Championship near St. Louis. Victory was worth a career-best $300,000 and also avenged his loss to Fernandez in the finals of the unofficial 2000 Chrysler Senior Match Play Championship in Puerto Rico. Played 104 competitive holes on his way to the victory, the most of any player in the field. 2000: Collected his second Champions Tour crown when he ended almost a two-year victory drought with victory at the State Farm Senior Classic in Columbia, MD. Birdied the third playoff hole to defeat Isao Aoki at Hobbit's Glen. 1999: Recorded his two best efforts of the campaign in first third of the season... Closed with a final-round 66 at the Royal Caribbean Classic to finish T3... Shot two rounds of 70 at Desert Mountain and T3 at The Tradition after the event was shortened to 36 holes. 1998: Won the rain-shortened Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic. Birdied the second hole of a sudden-death playoff to defeat Isao Aoki for the title at Bunker Hills GC. 1997: As a rookie, played in 30 events and two of those appearances were as a Monday qualifier (Toshiba Senior Classic and Nationwide Championship)... T5 at the U.S. Senior Open at Olympia Fields CC outside of Chicago.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR from 1971-1996 and also made 17 appearances on the Nationwide Tour from 1993-1996... Won three PGA TOUR events, with the last victory in 1989 at the Buick Open. Prevailed by one stroke over Billy Andrade, Doug Tewell and Payne Stewart at Warwick Hills in Grand Blanc. After a first-round 65, trailed by three entering the final round, but rallied with a 4-under-par 68 for a one-stroke triumph. Win ended an 11-year, nine-month drought, the third-longest stretch between victories in PGA TOUR history. Buick Open victory also helped him to a personal PGA TOUR-best $261,397, more than triple his earnings total from the previous season ($84,659)... Prior to the Michigan win, previous victory came at the 1977 Pensacola Open, where he rolled in a 50-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to edge rookie Curtis Strange... First PGA TOUR win came in 1974 at the Jackie Gleason-Inverrary Classic, where he nipped Hale Irwin by one stroke... Set a course record at the 1981 Canadian Open, shooting a 62 (31-31) at Glen Abbey GC. Hit every green in regulation except one, but birdied that hole with a chip-in from off the green. Used the same ball for all 18 holes. The ball then was presented to the Royal Canadian Golf Association for display in its museum at Glen Abbey... Also turned in a stellar performance at the 1977 Colgate Hall of Fame at Pinehurst No. 2. Shot a nine-hole record 7-under-par 29 on the back nine of the fabled course in his native North Carolina... Highest money position on the PGA TOUR came in 1973 and 1974 when he finished 15th... Recorded one top-10 finish on the Nationwide Tour when he placed sixth at the 1996 Tallahassee Open... Has one hole-in-one in his career.

PERSONAL:

2005 SEASON:
 Played 22 events once again, with his best finish a T34 at the Constellation Energy Classic.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
2004: Played in 22 events, the fewest since joining the Champions Tour full time in 1990...Was among the first-round leaders at the Bank of America Championship when he opened with 5-under 67 at Nashawtuc but finished T54 after posting consecutive rounds of 75 on the weekend...Best finish was a T33 at the Allianz Championship.
2003: Did not register a top-25 finish for the first time since joining the Champions Tour in 1989...Best effort was a T33 at the SAS Championship, when he closed with a 69 at Prestonwood CC...Lowest rounds of the year were 67s on the final day of the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic and the second round of the Long Island Classic...Won a golf cart in the final round of the Long Island Classic when he made a hole-in-one on the 16th hole. Used a 6-iron on the 167-yard hole for the 12th ace of his career. 2002: Lone top-10 performance was a T7 at the Siebel Classic in Silicon Valley in March. 2000: Defeated Bob Charles by a stroke for his only Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions win at the Nationwide Championship. 1996: T2 at the Kroger Senior Classic, a distant five strokes back of Isao Aoki. 1995: Had his finest financial season with over $600,000 in earnings...Was runner-up to Jim Colbert at the Las Vegas Senior Classic after being the 36-hole leader. 1994: Came from seven strokes back on the last day to win the GTE Suncoast Classic. 10-under 61 on Sunday was the lowest finish ever by a winner on the Champions Tour. 1993: Played in 37 tournaments, more than anyone else that year...Finished T2 at the Nationwide Championship. 1992: Appeared in 35 tournaments and finished T2 at the inaugural Bruno's Memorial Classic...Recorded three eagles in a round at the Kaanapali Classic, the first player to do so since Jimmy Powell at the 1985 Greenbrier/American Express Championship. 1991: Collected multiple wins for the only time in his TOUR career...Used a course-record 62 in the opening round of the MONY Syracuse Senior Classic to go wire-to-wire and capture his first victory in 611 attempts by his own calculations...Took the Digital Seniors Classic title later in the season, when he made an eight-foot birdie putt on the final hole. 1990: Had a solid rookie campaign with nine top-10s...Had two of his best outings in his native state of Texas (fourth at the Murata Reunion Pro-Am and T5 at the Gatlin Brothers-Southwest Senior Classic). 1989: Earned medalist honors at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the Ravines G&CC. Was the only player under par in that event and won by a record 10 strokes.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
 Played the PGA TOUR full-time from 1965-1982, but was never exempt...Earned the nickname "King Rabbit" for his uncanny success at open qualifying for events...Best year on the PGA TOUR was in 1968, when he collected $20,685 and recorded two top-five finishes: T3 at the Atlanta Classic and T4 at the Buick Open...Was the runner-up at the 1969 Western Open...Has claimed 60 golf tournaments in his career: 12 junior titles, 25 amateur events and 18 professional events...Has 12 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:
 Officially resigned as the mayor of Toco, TX, on Sept. 10, 1998. Was voted Mayor Emeritus by the city council and renders advice on matters when called...Helped design the Killer Bee driver...Took up golf at the age of 12, and within two years was shooting par...Has won tournaments in tennis, ping-pong and billiards...Biggest thrill in golf was posting his first victory at the MONY Syracuse Senior Classic...Favorite golf courses are Cypress Point, Brookhollow CC in Dallas and Greystone G&CC near Birmingham...Favorite entertainer is James Brown...Favorite athletes are Arnold Palmer and Julius Erving.

1—FedEx Kinko's Classic, Blue Angels Classic; T4—Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn; 5—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach; T6—Bayer Advantage Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Among the leading money-winners, surpassing the $1-million mark in earnings for the sixth consecutive season...Picked up two victories, making it the fifth time in the last six years he owns multiple wins in a season...First victory came in May when he claimed the FedEx Kinko's Classic in Austin. Birdied four of his last five holes at The Hills CC to break away from the pack and win by four strokes. Gave his entire $247,500 first-place check to his church, Crossings Community Church, in Lake Mary, FL. Was the only player in the field to post three consecutive rounds in the 60s at The Hills and topped the field in Greens in Regulation (44 of 54)...Followed up win in Austin with a playoff victory over Morris Hatalsky in the Florida panhandle at the Blue Angels Classic, the third time in his Champions Tour career he's won back-to-back titles. Defeated Hatalsky with a birdie on the third extra playoff hole of a Monday finish at The Moors after the duo was deadlocked at 16-under on Sunday evening after 54 holes. Win near Pensacola was his 11th career Champions Tour title and 194 total was the lowest winning 54-hole score on the Champions Tour in 2005...Had a T4 finish in October at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, thanks to back-to-back 67s on the weekend...Was T5 at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and teamed with Amit Odaiyar (from The First Tee of Greater Sacramento) to claim the pro-junior competition after a match of scorecards with the team of Lonnie Nielsen/Colby Smith. Thorpe's birdie on the final hole broke the tie after each team had finished with a score of 19-under-par 197...Donated a portion of his winnings at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore to the Boys and Girls Clubs of Montgomery County in Maryland...Finished second in Birdies to his good friend Dana Quigley (356), with 337.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Finished among the top-10 money winners for the fifth straight season and won multiple victories for the fourth time in six seasons...Got his year jump-started when he was a one-stroke victor over Fred Gibson at the Farmers Charity Classic, despite a double bogey on the final hole. Came from three strokes back in the final round, thanks to seven birdies in the first 14 holes on Sunday...Rallied from four strokes back to win his second straight Commerce Bank Long Island Classic title a month later. Joined Bruce Fleisher, Lee Trevino and George Archer on the list of players who have successfully defended titles on Long Island. Win on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park was his ninth career title on the Champions Tour. Final-round 67 included three birdies on the front nine that allowed him to overtake 54-hole leader Jerry Pate. Avoided a playoff with a clutch par save from 19 feet on the last hole. Had just 23 putts in his opening-round 65, including one-putts on seven straight holes (No. 8-14). Win in New York made him the only player to successfully defend a title in 2004...Made a bid to win a second Kroger Classic title on the final day. Closed with 66 at the TPC at River's Bend but came up one stroke short. Was T2 when he missed 20-foot bid for eagle on the final hole...His closing-round 64 at the Constellation Energy

Classic tied the tournament record and helped him to a T4 finish near Baltimore in early October...Plagued for several weeks in the early spring with a back problem, which caused him to miss three straight events...Second in Eagles, with 13. 2003: Had perhaps his finest season in professional golf when he was among the top three six times starting in mid-July...Appeared to be out of the Charles Schwab Cup competition through the first half of the season, but eventually finished second in the Schwab Cup race behind Tom Watson when he became the Champions Tour's hottest player after mid-August...Was voted the Champions Tour Player of the Month for both August and October...Also placed second behind Watson in the final money standings with a personal-best $1,830,306...In the winner's circle for the first time in 16 months when he slipped by Bob Gilder for a one-stroke victory at the Long Island Classic with a tournament-record score of 15-under 195. Tied a Champions Tour record in the second round when he shot a 10-under-par 60 on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park. Record-tying score gave him a two-stroke cushion entering Sunday's final round and 3-under-par 67 proved to be good enough for the win. Short birdie putts on 16 and 17 clinched title. Win in Long Island came during a run of 16 consecutive sub-par rounds, a 2003 best streak of sub-par scores...Capped his year with a wire-to-wire victory at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma, CA, a first in the season-ending event since Jim Colbert in 1995. His 20-under-par total over 72 holes at Sonoma GC, included playing the par-5s in 13-under, was the lowest 72-hole score in relation to par on the Champions Tour in 2003 and the lowest four-round total in event history. Was locked in a duel with Tom Watson down the stretch, but holed a 67-foot eagle putt from the fringe on the par-5 16th and then made a 10-foot birdie putt on No. 17 to seal the win. Third Champions Tour win in northern California came with a $440,000 first-place check, his largest ever as a professional. 2002: Won the first major championship of his career at The Tradition. Bested John Jacobs on first hole of a playoff at Superstition Mountain. Made birdie on the 72nd hole of the event to forge the overtime session and then added another birdie on the first extra hole to claim the title. Victory in Arizona was the first of his TOUR career before September 1...Was voted as the circuit's Player of the

Month for April... Nearly claimed a second major title, finishing one stroke shy of Stewart Ginn at the Ford Senior Players Championship in July despite shooting a 7-under 65 on Sunday... Had a bizarre finish at the FleetBoston Classic. Had a chance to win outright on the final hole, but T3 after three-putting from five feet. 2001: Posted back-to-back victories early in the fall. Won a playoff for the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic title. Made a dramatic eagle on the final hole of regulation at the Kroger event to set up a playoff with Tom Jenkins and then won with a birdie on the first extra hole. Hit 3-wood from 245 yards for a one-foot tap-in eagle putt... Claimed the inaugural Allianz Championship the following week. Used seven birdies in an 11-hole stretch to win by two strokes at Glen Oaks... Also lost by a stroke to Tom Watson at the Senior PGA Championship. Missed an uphill six-foot birdie putt to tie on Ridgewood CC's final hole. 2000: Claimed the first two victories of his Champions Tour career and yearly winnings of $1.6 million almost matched his entire earnings total in 25 years on the PGA TOUR... Claimed back-to-back victories in northern California at The Transamerica and the Gold Rush Classic. Win in the Napa Valley ended a victory drought of just over 14 years ('86 Seiko Tucson Match Play Championship). His 18-under-par 198 score at Silverado was three better than Bruce Fleisher and was a tournament record... Cruised to a two-stroke victory over Ed Dougherty at the Gold Rush Classic with a 21-under 195 total for 54 holes, a tournament record at the time, and the lowest 54-hole score on the Champions Tour that season. Second-round 62 at the Gold Rush event was a course record at Serrano. Victory near Sacramento allowed him to become the first player since Gibby Gilbert in 1992 to win consecutive starts with sub-200 scores... Recorded his second hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the opening round of the Boone Valley Classic. 1999: Came closest to a victory at the Bell Atlantic Classic. Fired a final-round 65 on Sunday at Hartefeld National to come from four strokes off the pace and catch Tom Jenkins, but eventually lost to Jenkins on the first playoff hole... Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the final round of the Royal Caribbean Classic. 1998: Earned full exemption for 1999 by finishing T6 at the National Qualifying Tournament at Grenelefe Golf and Tennis Resort. After carding rounds of 67-76-72, fired a 3-under-par 69 on the final day to secure his top-eight finish.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played on the PGA TOUR from 1976-98, with 459 tournaments to his credit and nearly $2 million in career earnings... Enjoyed his greatest success in a two-year span in 1985-86, when he earned three wins and was among the leading money-winners on the circuit... Was fourth on the money list in 1985 with $379,091, including wins at the Greater Milwaukee Open and the Seiko-Tucson Match Play Championship, where he bested Jack Renner in the final... Just missed adding a third victory when he lost in a playoff to Scott Verplank at the Western Open... In 1985, won $326,087 and ranked 15th on the money list with a victory at the Seiko Tucson Match Play Championship, besting Scott Simpson in the finals. Was unable to make it three in a row in 1987 when the event switched back to a stroke-play format... Underwent surgery on his left wrist and thumb in September 1987, and missed much of 1988 recuperating... Had runner-up finishes in 1989 (Kemper Open) and 1990 (Phoenix Open)... Co-medalist at the 1978

PGA TOUR Fall National Qualifying Tournament with John Fought... First earned card in 1975, but returned home after making just $2,000 in 1976... Is one of only two players (Dave Barr is the other) to record holes-in-one on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. Has one Nationwide Tour ace to go with the three aces he had on the PGA TOUR and two on the Champions Tour.

PERSONAL:

Is the ninth of 12 children... Grew up next to eighth fairway at Roxboro (NC) CC, where father, Elbert Sr., was the superintendent... One of his brothers, Chuck, played for a period on the PGA TOUR and in several events on the Champions Tour in 1998, while another brother, Bill, has been through the National Qualifying Tournament several times... Earned a football scholarship to Morgan State as a running back.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T31—MasterCard Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Returned to the Champions Tour in mid-September at the Constellation Energy Classic, his first appearance since two appearances in Hawaii at the start of the year... Finished T31 at the MasterCard Championship in late January for his best finish. Underwent revolutionary surgery, having an "X-Stop" procedure done on the facet joints in his lower back in Cologne, Germany, in early May... Played a total of five events following his surgery.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Competition was limited to 12 events, at the time, the fewest he had ever played in a season... Bothered by a nerve problem in his lower back and did not play after mid-July. Withdrew from the Bank of America Championship during the second round and then was forced to withdraw from the Ford Senior Players Championship after an opening-round 77, even though he played as a marker for Dana Quigley in the second round... His T11 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic near Birmingham was his best performance on the Champions Tour since T9 at the 2002 Napa Valley Championship. His 4-under 68 in the opening round at Greystone was his best since shooting 65 on Saturday at 2003 Long Island Classic... Co-honoree at the Memorial Tournament with prominent women's amateur golfer Joyce Wethered... Also was honored by Northern Ohio Charities with the 2004 Ambassador of Golf Award, which he received at the World Golf Championships-NEC Invitational. 2003: Played in only 13 official events... Highlight of his year came early when he captured the ConAgra Foods Champions Skins Game in January. Defeated Hale Irvin with a birdie on the third extra hole for his first victory in the unofficial event. Birdie was worth $100,000 and helped push his earnings in the event to $240,000, $40,000 more than Irvin's total... Also teamed with Mike Hill to finish T2, two strokes back of Gary Koch/Roger Maltbie in the Raphael Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf... Best finish was a T22 at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai... Finished second to Mike Hill by one stroke in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition at the Long Island Classic after carding a second-round 65, his lowest score since posting a 65 on Saturday at the 2000 FleetBoston Classic. 2002: Lone top-10 performance came late in the season with a T9 at the Napa Valley Championship, thanks to a pair of 3-under 69s on the weekend. 2001: Earned a $1-million prize when he made a hole-in-one at the Par-3 Challenge at Treetops Resort in Michigan. 2000: Ended a victory drought of more than two years when he prevailed by two strokes over Walter Hall at the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic in New Jersey. Became just the second player to win in five different decades (Gary Player is the other). Victory at Upper Montclair CC made him, at the time, the seventh-oldest player to win a Champions Tour event... Finished third on the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list and picked up his only win in the over-60 competition at the Gold Rush Classic. Defeated Chi Chi Rodriguez and Rocky Thompson by three strokes at Serrano for the Georgia-Pacific crown... Made his second hole-in-one on the Champions Tour at the Nationwide Championship... Made one final appearance at the British Open, but failed to make the cut at St. Andrews. 1999: Best finish was a third at Cadillac NFL Golf Classic. 1998: Claimed his third Southwestern Bell Dominion title, a two-stroke win over Mike McCullough. Victory in San Antonio was his seventh overall title in his native state. 1997: Posted two runner-up finishes at The Home Depot Invitational and Burnet Senior Classic. 1996: Emerged victorious from a record five-man playoff at the Emerald Coast Classic. Holed a 35-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole to nip Mike Hill, Dave Stockton, David Graham and Bob Eastwood... Teamed with Mike Hill to win a fourth Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title. 1995: Captured an unprecedented third Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title with Mike Hill... Became the Champions Tour's all-time victory leader at the time when he successfully defended his Northville Long Island Classic title, the 25th win of his Champions Tour career... Also became the first two-time winner of The Transamerica. 1994: Notched six victories before August and was chosen by his peers as the Champions Tour Player of the Year for a third time... Earnings of $1,202,369 were the most of his illustrious career for a single season... Caught Miller Barber on the all-time victory list when he triumphed at the Northville Long Island Classic... Also benefited from a late collapse by Raymond Floyd for his second PGA Seniors' Championship... Played hurt for the majority of the summer with a bulging disc in his neck, and underwent surgery in October. 1993: Won three times, despite not starting the season until the last week of March due to surgery for ligament damage near his left thumb. Won the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic in his seventh start of the year, then claimed back-to-back events at the Nationwide and Vantage Championships. 1992: Secured his second Arnold Palmer Award after becoming the first golfer to earn over $1 million in a season twice... Easily garnered Player of the Year honors, as well, on the strength of five official victories... Claimed three straight titles in the spring: The Tradition, PGA Seniors' Championship and Las Vegas Senior Classic... Also teamed with Mike Hill to win a second consecutive Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf crown... Earned his third straight Byron Nelson Award with a 69.46 scoring average. 1991: Won three times... Defended his title at the Aetna Challenge, nipping Dale Douglass with a birdie at the final hole... Triumphed at the Vantage at The Dominion when he eagled the final hole... Cruised to a four-stroke victory at the Sunwest Bank/Charley Pride Senior Classic in New Mexico... Teamed with Mike Hill to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf... Earned a second consecutive Byron Nelson Award with a scoring average of 69.50. 1990: Was the leading money-winner in all of golf and became the first Champions Tour player to earn over $1 million in single-season earnings... Easily took home the Arnold Palmer Award, as well as Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year honors... His seven victories, a personal best for one season, were the second highest total in a year at the time... Won three of his first four starts, including the Royal Caribbean Classic, his first, where he made up seven strokes over the last nine holes to defeat Jim Dent... Shot 67 on the final day at Ridgewood CC to beat Jack Nicklaus for the U.S. Senior Open title... Posted back-to-back wire-to-wire wins at the Aetna Challenge and The Vintage Chrysler Invitational... Finished out of the top 10 only twice all year and won the Byron Nelson Award with a stroke average of 68.89, the lowest in Champions Tour history until Hale Irvin's 68.59 in 1998. 1989: Joined the Champions Tour at the last official money event of the year, the GTE Kaanapali Classic. Carded back-to-back 69s at that rain-shortened event and finished T7.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Won 29 times on the PGA TOUR and is ranked T17 on the all-time victory list... Voted PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year in 1967... Was the leading money-winner in 1970 with $157,037 and was voted as the Player of the Year in 1971... Made his debut at the 1966 U.S. Open, but first got national attention the next year at Baltusrol when he finished fifth and made $6,000... Gained headlines with his first TOUR win at the 1968 U.S. Open at Oak Hill CC, becoming the first player in Open history to play all four rounds under par and in the 60s... Won the Open again in 1971, defeating Jack Nicklaus in an 18-hole playoff at Merion... Won back-to-back British Open titles in 1971 and 1972... Collected a record fifth Vardon Trophy in 1980 with a scoring average of 69.73, the lowest since Sam Snead's 69.23 in 1950... Won a second PGA Championship in 1984 at Shoal Creek in Birmingham, AL at the age of 44. Ended a three-plus-year victory drought with that title, outlasting Gary Player and Lanny Wadkins down the stretch... Member of six American Ryder Cup teams and was captain of the 1985 squad... Teamed with Orville Moody to win the 1969 World Cup for the United States, and joined Nicklaus for another World Cup title in 1971... Hampered throughout his career by back problems and underwent surgery for a herniated disc in November of 1976... Struck by lightning, along with Bobby Nichols and Jerry Heard, at the 1975 Western Open... Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1981... The Sporting News Man of the Year in 1971... Won the Ben Hogan Award from the Golf Writers Association of America in 1980.

PERSONAL:

Entirely self-taught and, as a youth, became the protege of Hardy Greenwood, owner of Hardy's Driving Range in Dallas... Was raised next door to the Glen Lakes CC in Dallas where he got started in the game... Served in the Marine Corps for four years from the age of 17 to 21... Became a golf professional in 1960 and got his first job working as an assistant professional in El Paso, TX... Between PGA TOUR and Champions Tour, served a stint as golf analyst for NBC... Favorite courses are Pine Valley, Oak Hill and Cypress Point... Favorite entertainer is Alan King and also enjoys George Lopez... Other favorites include Chariots of Fire, Michael Jordan and steak... Biggest thrill was winning the 1971 U.S. Open... Enjoys spending time with his family... One of his superstitions is not using a yellow tee.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $2,713,551

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:
T12—Bank of America Championship; T22—Bayer Advantage Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Top performance came in June when he rebounded from an opening-round, 1-over-par 73 with weekend rounds of 69-67 to finish T12 at the Bank of America Championship...Made his first ace on the Champions Tour, and third career hole-in-one overall on TOUR, at the Commerce Bank Championship. Aced the 194-yard second hole with a 4-iron during the opening round...Made the third double eagle on the Champions Tour in 2005 in the final round of the JELD-WEN Tradition when he holed a 3-wood shot from 248 yards on No.16...Returned to the National Qualifier and appeared in good position to improve his status midway through the event before withdrawing when his mother became ill.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Best showing came in August when he sandwiched rounds of 69-68 around a second-round 74 for a T18 at the TPC of the Twin Cities near Minneapolis. 2003: Was among the top 25 three times and had his best finish late in the year at the Turtle Bay Championship in Hawaii, when he was T19...Returned to the National Qualifying Tournament in an attempt to improve his playing status for 2004 but missed the cut at the TPC at Eagle Trace. 2002: T18 at the SBC Senior Classic at Valencia CC...Missed a month of the season due to the tragic drowning death of his oldest son, Kevin, on March 23. Returned to action at The Countrywide Tradition in late April. 2001: T7 at The Countrywide Tradition...Returned to the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in the fall and ended up as the medalist at the event. Easily outdistanced Larry Ziegler by three strokes for top honors in Calimesa, CA. Was tied with Rodger Davis for the top spot heading into the final round, but birdied five of his first nine holes to seize the lead and never looked back. 2000: Best Champions Tour career showing came at the rain-shortened Toshiba Senior Classic when he had rounds of 67-70 to finish T2, just one stroke back of Allen Doyle. 1999: Went to the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament and regained fully-exempt status after finishing in the top eight. Played 72 holes in 6-under-par 282 and finished T2 with Stewart Ginn at Tucson National, five strokes back of medalist Mark Hayes. 1998: Fully exempt for 1999 after finishing sixth at the 1998 Champions Tour Qualifying Tournament.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Had a long and successful career on the PGA TOUR from 1974-98, playing in 634 tournaments with three victories and $2.7 million in official earnings...Enjoyed his finest year in 1993 when, at age 44, he won the United Airlines Hawaiian Open by four strokes and went on to win a career-best $416,833 and finish 34th on the money list. Victory established a TOUR record for longest period between wins: 12 years and seven months. Prior to that, his last win had come in 1980 at the Sammy Davis, Jr.-Greater Hartford Open, where he won a playoff against Jim Simons. Win came during a hot streak in the summer that featured a run of 13 of 14 rounds in the 60s, with a cumulative total of 57-under-par. Victory also helped him to a career-best 14th-place finish on the money chart...Posted his first TOUR victory at the 1979 B.C. Open, holding off Doug Tewell and Tom Purtzer down the stretch...Earned over $200,000 for the first time in his career in 1991, a year which featured 11 straight cuts made and five straight events in which he finished no worse than 20th...College standout at Arizona State University and a two-time All-America selection for the Sun Devils in 1970 and 1972...Played the Asian Tour at one point in his career and won the 1975 Thailand Open...Amateur wins included the 1970 Porter Cup and the Sunnehanna Amateur...Has three career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Has done some consulting on course design, collaborating with Roger Maltbie on the well-received redesign of the TPC at River Highlands in Connecticut, site of the Buick Championship, and with Tom Weiskopf on the TPC of Scottsdale, site of the FBR Open...Missed a portion of the 1996 season following surgery on his feet. Wears sandals with golf spikes on the bottom while he plays.

PGA TOUR CAREER EARNINGS: $2,822,418

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T6—SAS Championship; T7—Administaff Small Business Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Slipped 14 spots on the final money list, finishing 43rd and out of the top 30 for the first time since playing a full schedule in 2002...Had just two top-10 finishes, the fewest in his five seasons...The first did not come until his 21st start when he was T6 at the SAS Championship in North Carolina...Two weeks later was T7 at the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston...Withdrew after 13 holes in the opening round of the U.S. Senior Open with a bad back.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Vaulted into the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship with a solo third-place finish at the SBC Championship the week prior. Was in the 37th position and moved up into the 29th spot on the money list after posting consecutive rounds of 67 on the weekend at Oak Hills that earned him a $108,000 check in San Antonio...T2 on July 4 at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic, one stroke shy of Jim Thorpe. Stood in the fairway on the final hole with a chance to win the event but pushed his 5-iron approach right of the 18th green and could not get up and down for par. Shared the first-round lead at Eisenhower Park with Jerry Pate and Peter Jacobsen after firing 6-under 64 on the Red Course. 2003: Had a trio of second-place finishes...Battled through back spasms at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic in his second start and eventually T2 at Key Biscayne. Missed a seven-foot birdie putt on the final hole which would have forced a playoff...Runner-up for second consecutive year at the Senior PGA Championship, finishing two strokes behind John Jacobs at Aronimink GC near Philadelphia...Made a strong bid for a win at the SAS Championship in Raleigh in September before eventually coming up one stroke short of D.A. Weirbring. Was tied for the lead with two holes to play but par-par finish at Prestonwood left him T2 with Tom Kite...Fired a 9-under 61 (6-under-par 29 on the back nine) in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic, his career best as a professional. 2002: Only Allen Doyle earned more money during the year without posting a victory...Closed with a final-round 66 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, but placed second to Doug Tewell by one stroke. Had caught Tewell midway through the back nine on Sunday, but made a bogey at the 16th hole...Was the 54-hole leader at the Senior PGA Championship at Firestone, but lost to Fuzzy Zoeller by two strokes, T2 along with Hale Irwin after posting a 1-over 71 on Sunday...T2 again at the Greater Baltimore Classic, one of three players to fall one stroke shy of J.C. Snead despite closing with a 6-under-par 66 on Sunday. 2001: Made his first appearance on the circuit a memorable one. Became the youngest winner in Champions Tour history when he claimed the Lightpath Long Island Classic 10 days after turning 50. Edged Allen Doyle and Larry Nelson by one stroke and broke Gil Morgan's record as the youngest winner (50 years, 11 days/ 1996 Ralphs Senior Classic). His 12-foot birdie putt on the final hole at the Meadow Brook Club gave him his first win in TOUR event in his 778th start. Helped his cause early in the final round when he rebounded from a double bogey with a double eagle on the third hole (driver, pitching wedge from 135 yards). Became just the 10th player, and first since brother Lanny, to win in his debut on the Champions Tour. Win also enabled the Wadkins brothers to become just the second set of siblings to triumph on the Champions Tour (Dave and Mike Hill).

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR on a full-time basis from 1975-1998...Made 465 cuts in 712 starts before joining the Champions Tour in August, 2001...Also played in 65 events on the Nationwide Tour from 1993-2001...Earned $2,882,418 on the PGA TOUR and $195,495 on the Nationwide Tour...Never won an event on either TOUR, but had six second-place finishes on the PGA TOUR and three more on the Nationwide Tour...Best year on the PGA TOUR came in 1987 when he won $342,173 and finished 25th on the money list, thanks to seven top 10s. Earned largest check on the PGA TOUR in 1994, $114,000, when he T2 at the Kemper Open, three strokes behind Mark Brooks...Made his first cut as a member of the PGA TOUR at the Dean Martin-Tucson Open, finishing T25 and earning $1,510...Winner of 1978 European Open and 1979 and 1986 Dunlop Phoenix (Japan) titles...Has nine career holes-in-one and three double eagles.

PERSONAL:

After attending the University of Houston for one year, won All-American honors in 1972-73 at East Tennessee State...Along with older brother, Lanny, kept Richmond, VA, city junior title in family for six consecutive years (Lanny four, Bobby two)...Biggest thrill in golf was posting first Champions Tour victory at the Lightpath Long Island Classic and biggest thrill outside golf was when his son, Casey, was born. Son has played in five national baseball tournaments...Favorite athletes are Mickey Mantle and Arnold Palmer...Favorite golf course is Cypress Point...Was eight when his father got him started in golf...Good friend of Wayne Huizenga, the owner of the Miami Dolphins...Favorite athlete is his son...Enjoys Vince Gill.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:
13—SBC Classic; T20—Toshiba Senior Classic.

2005 SEASON:

Once again played a limited schedule due to broadcasting commitments with CBS Sports...Made just a dozen starts, with two top-25 finishes, both coming in successive events during the Champions Tour's early season California swing...Was 13th at the SBC Classic and followed with a T20 the next week at the Toshiba Senior Classic.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Best performance of the season was at the inaugural First Tee Open at Pebble Beach presented by Wal-Mart, where he T18. 2003: Lone top-10 finish was a T8 at the U.S. Senior Open at the Inverness Club in Toledo. Got off to a nice start at the Toshiba Senior Classic, opening with his low round of the year, a 6-under-par 65. 2002: Placed solo third at the rain-shortened Emerald Coast Classic, thanks to a 7-under 63 in the second round, his career-low 18-hole score on the Champions Tour and best round since shooting a 62 at the 1989 Texas Open on the PGA TOUR. Performance at The Moors was his best since winning the 2000 ACE Group Classic in his initial Champions Tour appearance...Assumed the role of lead analyst for CBS golf telecasts at the SBC Senior Open following the retirement of Ken Venturi. 2001: Played the Champions Tour despite several injuries (wrist and elbow) and broadcasting commitments on CBS golf telecasts...Was grouped with his brother, Bobby, in the second round of the 3M Championship, the first time the two had played an official round together since the 1999 MCI Classic in Hilton Head...T9 at the Enterprise Rent-A-Car Match Play Championship. 2000: Troubled for a portion of the year with right elbow problems...Became just the ninth player ever to win in his Champions Tour debut (brother, Bobby, became the 10th during the 2001 season). Defeated Tom Watson, Walter Hall and Jose Maria Canizares in a playoff for The ACE Group Classic title. Rallied from three strokes down to get into overtime on the final day with an 8-under-par 64, then won the event when he eliminated Canizares with a par on the third extra hole...Made first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour during the opening round of the Nationwide Championship.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Won 21 official events on the PGA TOUR in a 29-year career and is in the top 30 on the all-time victory list...First win came at the 1972 Sahara Invitational in his first full year on the PGA TOUR...Won twice in the same season five times (1973, '77, '79, '83 and '88) and three times in a season twice (1982 and '85)...Biggest victory came in the 1977 PGA Championship at Pebble Beach, when he bested Gene Littler in a playoff...Three weeks later, defeated Hale Irwin and Tom Weiskopf by five strokes at the World Series of Golf...Finished third on the money list that year...Also was third on the 1983 money list, when he won twice and also had two seconds and a third...Named PGA of America Player of the Year in 1985, when he finished second in earnings to Curtis Strange...Braved windy conditions to win the 1979 Tournament Players Championship at Sawgrass CC by five strokes over Tom Watson...Last official victory came at the 1992 Canon Greater Hartford Open. Entered the final round five strokes back of Donnie Hammond, but used a final-round 65 to post a 6-under-par 274 total to defeat

Hammond, Nick Price and Dan Forsman by two strokes...Served as the 1995 U.S. Ryder Cup captain at Oak Hill CC and played on the American team eight times. Also played on the U.S. Walker Cup team in 1969 and 1971.

PERSONAL:

Enjoys well-deserved reputation as a fierce competitor...Along with brother, Bobby, kept Richmond, VA, junior championship trophy in Wadkins household for six consecutive years (Lanny won four times, Bobby twice)...Is now the lead analyst for CBS golf telecasts...Served as the player consultant on the TPC of Myrtle Beach, the venue of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in 2000...Biggest thrill in golf was winning the 1977 PGA Championship, and his biggest thrill outside of golf is watching his sons play sports...Favorite golf course is Pebble Beach GL.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T2—The ACE Group Classic; T4—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

2005 SEASON:

Bounced back from a sub-par 2004 season with his best year since 2002... More than doubled his previous year's earnings and had three top-10 finishes... Got out of the gate quickly with two strong performances in his first two starts in Florida... Eagle-birdie finish propelled him into an eventual T2 with Hale Irwin at The ACE Group Classic, two strokes back of Mark James. Performance in Naples was his best on the Champions Tour since winning in Sarasota at the 2000 LiquidGolf.com Invitational... Finished T4 the following week near Tampa at the weather-shortened Outback

Steakhouse Pro-Am. Made a late run during a rare Monday finish, with birdies on four of his last six holes. Performance at the TPC of Tampa Bay was his best there since he was T4 in 1993... Added another T4 to his season resume at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in October, posting consecutive rounds in the 60s on the weekend... Finished fifth on the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list, with $77,950, and finished T3 at the year-end Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship near Atlanta.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Among the top 25 in just two events, both coming in the middle third of the season... Closed with a 68 near Birmingham to T20 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic and then T22 at the Ford Senior Players Championship... Claimed his third career Georgia-Pacific title at the Allianz event, defeating Dave Eichelberger by a stroke. 2003: Lone top-10 finish was T9 at rain-shortened SBC Classic in California. A week later won his first Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title when he defeated Dave Stockton in two extra holes at the Toshiba Senior Classic and also finished T13 overall... Claimed his second Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title when he edged Stockton again by one stroke at the Farmers Charity Classic... Was the leading money-winner in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition, with $219,312, including $46,000 for his T2 finish at the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship in Sonoma, CA, at the end of the year. 2002: Had his season cut short in mid-September when he suffered a heart attack just prior to the start of the final round at the RJR Championship. Underwent angioplasty shortly after in Winston-Salem, NC, and did not play the remainder of the year... Best showing came near Kansas City where he vaulted from a T25 into a T3 at the rain-shortened TD Waterhouse Championship... Had a rare feat at the AT&T Canada Senior Open when he eagled the par-5 13th hole at Essex all three days. Was 6-under on that hole, but played his other 51 holes for the week 1-over par.

Made his third hole-in-one on the Champions Tour (12th overall) in the opening round of the Ford Senior Players Championship. Aced the 192-yard fourth hole with a 5-iron. 2001: Best finish a T6 at the Emerald Coast Classic... Plagued much of the year with back problems. 2000: Ended a victory drought of nearly five years when he defeated Gary McCord and J.C. Snead in a three-hole playoff at the LiquidGolf.com Invitational, his first Champions Tour title since the 1995 Dallas Reunion Pro-Am (120 starts). Came from three strokes back of Bruce Summerhays with a final-round 68 at The TPC at Prestancia. 1998: Second by two strokes to Gil Morgan at The Tradition. 1997: T3 at the U.S. Senior Open at Olympia Fields CC near Chicago. Shared the first-round lead after opening with a 69, and followed with rounds of 70-73-70 to finish two strokes behind Graham Marsh. 1996: Lost to Dale Douglass on the third playoff hole for the Bell Atlantic Classic title near Philadelphia. 1995: Easily won the Dallas Reunion Pro-Am with the first of only two wire-to-wire performances on the circuit that year. His 54-hole score of 13-under 197 was seven shots better than Dave Stockton and Dave Eichelberger... Almost captured the Emerald Coast Classic, but fell to Raymond Floyd in a playoff. 1994: Was the Champions Tour's "ironman," playing in 36 tournaments and 112 rounds... Defeated Bob Murphy at the Doug Sanders Kingwood Celebrity Classic... Journeyed across the pond and won the Senior British Open at Royal Lytham & St. Annes in England. 1993: First Champions Tour victory was memorable. Made a par on the second playoff hole to defeat Bruce Crampton at the PGA Seniors' Championship in just his sixth senior start. 1992: Initially earned a conditional exemption with a 10th-place finish at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament. Shot rounds of 69-66-77-74—286 and then made birdie on the first playoff hole to earn his position.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Was the low club professional at the 1992 PGA Championship at Bellerive CC (T28) and was the only sen-

BEST 2005 PGA TOUR FINISH: T41—British Open.

2005 SEASON:

Had a magical finish to his season. Roared back from a six-stroke deficit to Jay Haas with a final-round, 8-under-par 64 to win the Charles Schwab Cup Championship as well as the season-long Charles Schwab Cup. His final round included 10 birdies and just two bogeys. Drained a 20-foot putt on the final hole to build a one-stroke margin over Haas and then watched as Haas' birdie putt fell short moments later to give him his third win in the event. His 64 was the low finish ever by a winner of the tournament and his first-place check for $440,000 equaled the largest of his career. In the process, earned 1,320 points (based on triple points in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship) and jumped four players to win the Charles Schwab Cup and the $1-million annuity which goes to the winner. It was the second time in his career he had won the Schwab Cup... More than tripled his 2004 earnings and was in the top 10 in nine of 13 starts... Earlier in the year, ended almost a two-year official victory drought when he triumphed for the second time at the Senior British Open, this time at Royal Aberdeen, his sixth overall title in Scotland. Defeated Des Smyth with a par-3 on the third playoff hole after the duo had finished 72 holes on the Balgownie links in 4-under-par 280. Win was his fourth major championship and seventh overall title on the Champions Tour. Overcame a first-round, 4-over 75, the highest start by a winner since Bruce Lietzke won the 2002 Audi Senior Classic after opening with the same score... Backed up his win in Scotland with a T5 at the U.S. Senior Open the next week. Co-leader at the halfway mark, thanks to a 6-under 65 in the second round, but played his final 36 holes in 2-over-par. Performance near Dayton sealed July Player of the Month honors... Came close to winning twice earlier in the year... Nearly won the season-opening MasterCard Championship in Hawaii. Posted consecutive rounds of 64 and held a three-stroke margin heading into the final round but eventually lost in a three-hole playoff to Dana Quigley at Hualalai. Bogeys the third extra hole after hitting his tee shot into the lava, which forced him to take a one-stroke penalty and it proved to be his downfall... Also close to the winner's circle at the weather-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic near Kansas City, but lost in a playoff with Gil Morgan and Dana Quigley when Quigley birdied the first extra hole. Had a chance for the title on his final hole when his 25-foot birdie attempt stopped on the lip, forcing him into overtime. Did not make a bogey over the 36 holes at the event... Also T3 at the Ford Senior Players Championship in July and T3 at the Turtle Bay Championship early in the year... Teamed with good friend Andy North to win the unofficial Raphael Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf by four strokes. Duo combined for a bogey-free, better-ball score of 16-under 128 over 36 holes... Made his 32nd Masters appearance but did not make the cut... Along with Luke Donald, played the first two rounds of the British Open at St. Andrews with Jack Nicklaus, who was making his last appearance in a major championship. Went on to make his second consecutive cut in the event and posted a 1-over 289 total to finish T41... Second in Birdie Average on the Champions Tour to Craig Stadler (4.54) at 4.44 and was also in the top 10 in four other stat categories... Had the distinction of having the highest start by a winner (75 at the Senior British Open) as well as the lowest finish by a winner in relation to par (64 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship)... His back-to-back 64s on the weekend at the MasterCard Championship were the best back-to-back rounds in relation to par (Jim Thorpe had a 127 on a par-70 course at Blue Angels Classic).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Made just 12 official starts on the Champions Tour and was troubled by hip and shoulder problems throughout the season... Did not register an official victory for the first time in his Champions Tour career and also finished outside the top 30 money-winners for the first time... Won his first Wendy's Champions Skins Game early in the season when he two-putted for a par from 25 feet on the third extra playoff hole and then watched Lee Trevino three-putt from 25 feet for a bogey. Finished with eight birdies and an eagle to collect 10 skins and $400,000 at Wailea... Continued to be snakebit at The ACE Group Classic, losing in a three-way playoff with winner Craig Stadler and Gary Koch. Got himself into position with birdies on 16 and 17 Sunday and nearly earned the win at the final hole, but missed a nine-foot birdie putt which would have given him a one-stroke win. After Stadler drained a 27-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole, missed a chance to keep the playoff going when his birdie bid from 10 feet missed. Runner-up finish in Naples was his fourth in six starts at this event and was his second loss in a playoff...Made an appearance at the Bay Hill Invitational on the PGA TOUR, where he made the cut and finished T66, his first made cut on the PGA TOUR since the 2002 Colonial...Also played in his 31st Masters Tournament with a heavy heart, learning about the death of his longtime caddie, Bruce Edwards, just hours before his scheduled first-round tee time. Missed the cut at Augusta National...Forced to withdraw from the British Open Championship at Troon, missing the prestigious event for the first time since 1996. 2003: Experienced a bittersweet season as he had his finest year on the Champions Tour at the same time he was teaming with long-time caddie and friend Bruce Edwards in his battle against Lou Gehrig's disease...Was either first or second in half of his 14 appearances on the Champions Tour, and as a result of his stellar play throughout the campaign, earned all of the circuit's top honors, including winning the Charles Schwab Cup, the Jack Nicklaus Player of the Year Award, the Arnold Palmer Award and the Byron Nelson Trophy...Donated his $1-million annuity for winning the Schwab Cup to ALS research and patient care and other charities. Throughout the course of the season, helped raise nearly $3 million for ALS-related causes and other charities...Was the leading money-winner for the first time since 1984, with a personal-best $1,853,108, and earned the most money per start on the Champions Tour, $132,365...Earned first Player of the Year honor since 1984...Was under par in 37 of 48 rounds and stroke average of 68.81 was the second lowest in Champions Tour history (Hale Irwin, 68.59, 1998)...Became the first player ever to compete in all nine major championships on the PGA TOUR/Champions Tour combined in a single season...Won multiple major titles in a season for the first time on the Champions Tour since Gil Morgan in 1998 and for the first time in his career since 1982. In July, won his second career major on the Champions Tour when he outdueled Englishman Carl Mason on the Ailsa course at Turnberry for an emotional win at the Senior British Open Championship in Scotland. Only had one three-putt over his 74 holes and posted a final-round 64, the lowest finish ever by a winner in Senior British Open history. His 6-under Sunday score, coupled with Mason's double bogey at the 72nd hole, allowed Watson to get into a playoff. Eventually defeated Mason with a par-4 on the second extra hole to become just the 11th player, and first since Hale Irwin in 1998, to win an official event on both the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour at the same venue...In his next start in late August, became the first player since Hale Irwin in 1998 to win consecutive majors when he claimed the JELD-WEN Tradition, the first fifth major in Champions Tour history, near Portland, OR. With Edwards on the bag, edged Jim Ahern, Tom Kite and Gil Morgan by a stroke when he got his ball up and down from a greenside bunker for birdie on the final hole. Roller coaster event included a second-round, 10-under 62 at The Reserve, tying the lowest round ever posted in a major on the Champions Tour, and a 1-over 73 on Saturday that made him just the third Tradition winner ever with an over-par score among the four rounds...Was also the runner-up to Bruce Lietzke at the U.S. Senior Open, falling two strokes short at the Inverness Club in Toledo, OH. Had opened with a 5-under-par 66 at the event and held a three-stroke advantage over Lietzke after the first round before rounds of 72-70-71 to close the tournament...Finished second again, along with Tom Kite and Jim Thorpe, in his next start at the Ford Senior Players Championship. Moved into contention in adverse weather conditions Friday with an 8-under 64, the low round of the day by four strokes, and his best score ever at the TPC of Michigan. Was tied for the 54-hole lead with Mike McCullough and Craig Stadler, but eventually lost by three strokes to Stadler, despite a final-round 69...Edged Jim Thorpe for the money title and also clinched the Charles Schwab Cup at the end of the season with a solo second-place finish at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma, CA...Received a special exemption to play in his first U.S. Open since 2000 and made headlines on Thursday when he was tied for the first-round lead after posting a 5-under 65. Eventually T28 at Olympia Fields after shooting 7-over 147 on the weekend...Turned in masterful performance at the British Open at Royal St. George's, finishing T18 thanks in part to a closing-round 69...Received the Card Walker Award during the week of the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am and was honored with the Payne Stewart Award at THE TOUR Championship in Houston. 2002: For the second time, saved his best for last and won the season-ending SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia. Opened with a 2-over 74, but played the last 52 holes of the event without making a bogey (17-under) despite cold, rainy weather in Oklahoma City. His $440,000 paycheck was largest as a professional. Earned 440 Charles Schwab Cup points and vaulted from 10th position into fourth in the final points standings (1,582 points; $200,000 annuity)...Contended down the stretch at the rain-shortened Royal Caribbean Classic before eventually T2 along with Isao Aoki and Bruce Fleisher, one stroke behind John Jacobs...Also went head to head down the stretch with Hale Irwin at The ACE Group Classic before losing by one stroke. Went for the green in two at the par-5 17th hole, but came up short in the water and eventually made a bogey. Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour and 13th of his career in the opening round (16th hole, 6-iron, 156 yards) at TwinEagles...Recorded third consecutive runner-up finish after losing in a playoff to Tom Kite at SBC Senior Classic. Chipped in for eagle from 123 feet on the 54th hole to force Kite to make a five-foot birdie putt to tie. Kite won with a par on the second playoff hole...Lost to Don Pooley in a playoff for the U.S. Senior Open at Caves Valley. Played his last 10 holes in 5-under to catch Pooley and then matched him with three pars and a birdie in overtime before finally falling to Pooley's birdie on No. 18, the fifth extra hole...Was also one of three players to T2 at the SAS Championship behind Bruce Lietzke...Finished solo seventh at the MasterCard Colonial, his 11th career top-10 effort at Colonial and his best PGA TOUR finish since T9 at the 2000 PGA Championship. 2001: Won his first Champions Tour major title. Triumphed at the Senior PGA Championship in New Jersey. After opening with a 72, followed with rounds of 69-66-67 to edge Jim Thorpe by one stroke at Ridgewood CC...Troubled much of the early portion of the year with a strained ligament in his right elbow that he injured while working out just prior to the Masters...Inducted into the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame during the week of the Siebel Classic in Silicon Valley. 2000: Saved his best for the last official event of the season, claiming the IR SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach. Was T3 after 54 holes, but fired a 6-under-par 66 on the final day for the victory. Held off a late charge by John Jacobs for a one-stroke win. Win at TPC of Myrtle Beach made him the first to claim season-ending events on both TOURs (won '87 Nabisco Championship of Golf)...Lost twice in playoffs. Was one of four players involved in the overtime session at The ACE Group Classic, eventually falling to Lanny Wadkins...Along with Larry Nelson, lost in a three-way playoff to Tom Kite at The Countrywide Tradition...Also battled Larry Nelson until the final hole at the Boone Valley Classic before finishing solo second in St. Louis...T9 at the PGA Championship near Louisville, the best performance by a senior in that event since Sam Snead T3 in 1974. Matched his career-best round in a PGA Championship when he posted a 65 on Saturday at Valhalla. 1999: Claimed his first Champions Tour win in his second start, the Bank One Championship in Dallas...At the time, became the third-youngest player ever to win a Champions Tour event at 50 years, 15 days. Gil Morgan (50 years, 11 days/1996 Ralphs Senior Classic) and George Archer (50 years, 14 days/1989 Gatlin Brothers Southwest Classic)...Made debut on the Champions Tour at the Comfort Classic in Indianapolis just six days after turning 50.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Ranks T10 on the PGA TOUR's all-time victory list, with 39 official titles...Had a remarkable run from 1977 through 1982, when he won at least three titles per year...Has been a runner-up 31 times in his PGA TOUR career...First victory came at the 1974 Western Open, when he defeated Tom Weiskopf and J.C. Snead by two strokes...Winner of eight major championships (1975, '77, '80, '82, '83 British Opens, 1977, '81 Masters Tournaments and 1982 U.S. Open)...In 1982, became one of just six players to win the U.S. Open and British Open in the same year (Bobby Jones, Gene Sarazen, Ben Hogan, Lee Trevino and Tiger Woods are the others)...Was the PGA TOUR's leading money winner five times, including four years in a row (1977-80, 1984)...In 1980, became the first player to earn $500,000 in a season when he captured six TOUR events to go along with a third British Open crown...Went 27 consecutive years earning at least $100,000 (1974-2000), a TOUR record...In 1987, won the season-ending Nabisco Championship (now THE TOUR Championship) and earned $360,000...After a nine-year absence from the winner's circle, claimed the 1996 Memorial Tournament. Had a one-stroke lead over Ernie Els through 54 holes and closed with a 70 to post a one-stroke victory over David Duval...Finished 25th on the money list, his highest ranking since 1987, and made his first trip to THE TOUR Championship since winning it in 1987...Earned 39th PGA TOUR title with victory in 1998 MasterCard Colonial. At 48, became the oldest player ever to win the event (previous oldest: Ben Hogan was 46 when he captured his last of five Colonial titles). Stretch between first victory (1974) and last victory—23 years, 11 months, 24 days—third-longest in TOUR history...Winner of three Vardon Trophies (1977-79)...Six-time PGA of America Player of the Year...Played on four American Ryder Cup teams and captained the 1993 squad to victory at The Belfry...Also played for the United States against Japan in 1982 and 1984...Elected to the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1988.

2005 SEASON:

One of the Champions Tour's steadiest players, he enjoyed a career-best season, surpassing his previous year's winnings by more than $100,000...Jumped four spots on the final money list to fourth place and won for the third year in succession...Third career win came in May when he was a two-stroke victor over Tom Kite and Tom Jenkins at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Was the only player in the field to have three straight rounds in the 60s. Hit 36 of 39 fairways and 46 of 54 greens in regulation on the way to his win. Made just two bogeys over the three rounds...Almost successfully defended his Allianz Championship title two weeks later at the Tournament Club of Iowa. Got off to a fast start and held the final-round lead most of the day before eventually ending in a playoff with Tom Jenkins. Missed a 12-foot birdie putt on the first hole of overtime and then lost playoff when he missed a nine-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole. Played his last 40 holes of the event without making a bogey...Narrowly missed another chance earlier in the year when he was T2 at the SBC Classic in March, falling one stroke shy of winner Des Smyth. After a bogey at No. 17, just missed with his birdie attempt on the final hole, which would have gotten him into a playoff with Smyth...Led the U.S. Senior Open with two holes to play but slipped into a T2 after a bogey-bogey finish. Was one of just two players (Greg Norman) in the field to post four consecutive sub-par scores in the event. Performance at NCR CC was his best ever in any major championship...Voted as the Player of the Month in June after posting seven consecutive rounds in the 60s...Forced to withdraw after one round of the SAS Championship due to elevated blood pressure...During a three-month stretch was perhaps the hottest player on the Champions Tour. Starting with his victory at the Bruno's Memorial Classic in May, posted eight top-10 finishes in nine starts. The lone blemish in that span was a T31 at the Senior PGA Championship. In those nine starts, averaged $101,342, and 23 of his 29 rounds were under par, including 15 in the 60s. At one point in that stretch, 20 of 21 rounds were under par and he moved from 13th to second on the money list during that span)...His nine consecutive rounds in the 60s tied Hale Irwin for best streak in that category in 2005.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Led the Champions Tour with 15 top-10 finishes in 25 appearances. Earnings of $1.4 million were almost twice what he made in his abbreviated rookie season...Got an early birthday present when he went wire to wire at the Allianz Championship for his fifth Tour victory in the Midwest. Three-stroke win over Tom Jenkins near Des Moines was his second Champions Tour career title and propelled him to May Player of the Month honors. Made just one bogey for the week on the back nine and led the field in Greens in Regulation (47 of 54)...Came within two strokes of Bruce Fleisher after four holes in Sunday's final round of the Bruno's Memorial Classic before eventually finishing T2, along with Bruce Lietzke, seven strokes back...Also closed with 65 at Nashawtuc and T2 in the Bank of America Championship near Boston, four strokes back of Craig Stadler. 2003: Did not become eligible for the Champions Tour until June, yet was one of three rookies to finish among the top 30 money-winners...Among the top five in two events before he became the seventh first-time winner on the Champions Tour. Despite suffering from flu-like symptoms, rallied from five strokes back to claim the SAS Championship. Appeared to be out of contention after a three-putt at No. 16, but finished eagle-birdie to defeat Bobby Wadkins and Tom Kite by a stroke. Victory was his first in over seven years on TOUR and also made him the 25th different winner in 2003, tying the all-time Champions Tour record for most different champions in a season (25 in 1995).

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Winner of five PGA TOUR events in his career, which began in 1977. A three-time TOUR winner in Moline, IL. First career victory at the 1979 Ed McMahon-Jaycees Quad Cities Open came after a final-round 65. Also won the 1991 Hardee's Golf Classic and 1995 Quad City Classic. Captured a fourth TOUR title in Illinois at the 1987 Beatrice Western Open where a closing 68 produced a one-stroke win...Lone TOUR victory outside of Illinois came at 1996 Canon-Greater Hartford Open. Hartford victory, a four-stroke win over Tom Kite, came while he was battling the effects of Bell's Palsy...Was inducted into Illinois PGA Hall of Fame in 2001 and is also a member of the Illinois State University Hall of Fame and the Quincy Notre Dame High School Hall of Fame...Has own design and management company, D.A. Weibring/Golf Resources Group, which has been in business for 18 years. Company has been involved in some 60 projects, one of which is the TPC at Deere Run, which became the host course for the John Deere Classic in 2000. Firm has 20 projects in various stages of design and development...Co-winner of 1991 Hilton Bounceback Award, thanks to successful recovery from Nov. 1989 right wrist surgery.

PERSONAL:

Son, Matt, was a two-time All-America at Georgia Tech and turned pro following graduation. Played in some Nationwide Tour events in 2003-05...Daughter Katey is pursuing a professional dancing career. Daughter Allison also participates in dance...Was an all-state basketball player in Illinois...Became a good friend of former NBA basketball star Doug Collins while at Illinois State...Enjoys watching "The West Wing," "Will & Grace" and reruns of "Seinfeld"...Best friend in golf is Peter Jacobsen...Got started in golf when his dad cut down a wooden-shafted putter for him when he was five.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2002: Sidelined most of year due to complications from 2001 surgery on his left shoulder...Joined the ranks of the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions at the Napa Valley Championship and T2 in the over-60 competition. Shot 6-under 66 in the opening round thanks to his second career ace on the Champions Tour. Holed a 4-iron shot from 196 yards on No. 7 of the South course at Silverado. Eventually T16 overall in the Napa event, his first top-20 finish on the Champions Tour since the 2000 Bank One Championship (T13). 2001: Troubled by shoulder problems for most of the season...Did not make his first appearance until the first week of July at the U.S. Senior Open after surgery. 2000: Battled Tom Jenkins down to the wire at the AT&T Canada Senior Open before falling one stroke short. Had tied Jenkins at 13-under par when he completed his final-round 66, but Jenkins, playing one group behind, birdied the final hole for the win. 1999: In the final round at Boone Valley GC, aced the 177-yard, par-3 third hole for the first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career. 1998: Finished second to Jim Albus at the GTE Classic near Tampa. 1997: Second to Dave Stockton at Franklin Quest Championship in Utah. 1996: Lost to John Bland in a three-way playoff at the Bruno's Memorial Classic...Also was a runner-up at the season-ending Energizer SENIOR TOUR Championship at Myrtle Beach and earned a career-best $160,000 paycheck...Carded one of three double-eagles on the Champions Tour during the second round of the Boone Valley Classic. 1994: Claimed his first TOUR win in more than 24 years when he captured The Transamerica. Defeated Isao Aoki on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff. Victory came at Silverado CC near Napa, CA, the same venue where he claimed his first PGA TOUR win in 1968...Lost in overtime to Lee Trevino at the Royal Caribbean Classic. 1993: Fired a career-low and year-best round of 10-under 62 at the Desert Inn on the opening day of the Las Vegas Senior Classic. 1991: Made his Champions Tour debut at the Raley's Senior Gold Rush and finished T15 at Rancho Murieta CC...Had not played in any PGA TOUR event since 1987, with 1982 being his last full year on the circuit.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Turned professional in 1963 and won twice on the PGA TOUR...Waited five years for his first victory at the 1968 Kaiser International, topping Dave Marr by a stroke with a final-round 65...Closed with a 67 to edge Gibby Gilbert for the Canadian Open title in 1970...Also teamed with Babe Hiskey to win the unofficial 1972 PGA National Team Championship...Lost to Hale Irwin in a playoff for the 1976 Florida Citrus Open title...Later won the 1984 Tallahassee Open, a satellite event on the old Tournament

Players Series circuit...At the 1962 NCAA Championship, he won the individual title and helped lead Houston to the team title...Has made 16 career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Co-founded the PGA TOUR Bible Study group in 1965...In the period between the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour, he authored three books on religion and world affairs: The Gospel, The Gospels Interwoven and Palestine is Coming...Has his own Web site: kermitzarley.com...Received an honorary doctorate in the spring of 2001 from North Park University.

BEST 2005 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:
 T3—Blue Angels Classic; T10—MasterCard Championship.

2005 SEASON:

Finished outside the top 50 in single-season earnings for the first time in his Champions Tour career and registered just two top-10 finishes, his fewest in a single-season...Was T10 in defense of his title at the MasterCard Championship in Hawaii and then T3 at the Blue Angels Classic, thanks to a final-round 6-under 64 on Sunday...Ended T11 in his final start of the year at the SBC Championship in San Antonio...Made his 27th appearance at the Masters but missed the cut.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2004: Won his first event on the Champions Tour in just over 19 months when he started the season with a come-from-behind victory at the MasterCard Championship. Shot 64 in the final round and outdueled Dana Quigley down the stretch, thanks to birdies on the last three holes, including a clutch 18-foot putt on No. 18 for the win. Had 23 total birdies for the week...Shot career-best 10-under 61 on Sunday at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, equaling the TPC of Tampa Bay course record. Birdied 11 of his first 14 holes, including seven straight, at the TPC of Tampa Bay and briefly held the lead before a bogey on the final hole eventually left him in a T3...Voted as the Champions Tour's February Player of the Month...Shot 6-under 29 on the front side of Glen Oaks during the second round of the Allianz Championship, a nine-hole record at the course. 2003: Made a spirited defense of his Senior PGA Championship title and was the only player in the field to shoot par or better for all four rounds. Was leading early in the final round, but eventually finished T3 at Aronimink GC, three strokes behind winner John Jacobs...Also third at the season-opening MasterCard Championship...Easily won the Telenor Par-3 Challenge at Treetops Resort in Michigan, banking $330,000. 2002: Among the top 10 in one-third of his starts as a Champions Tour rookie...Became the 11th player to make his first Champions Tour title a major when he held off Bobby Wadkins and Hale Irwin for the Senior PGA Championship crown. Was the only player in the 144-man field to finish under par (2-under) over 72 holes at Firestone and ended a TOUR victory drought of 15 years, 10 months and 27 days dating back to the 1986 Anheuser-Busch Golf Classic...Held off Don Pooley by one stroke to win the Senior Slam on the Lost Gold course at Superstition Mountain in early November. His 36-hole score of 6-under 138 in the event pitting the winners of the four major championships, earned him a $300,000 check...Made his official debut on the Champions Tour at the Royal Caribbean Classic, tying for 51st at Crandon Park with a 1-under 143 total in the rain-shortened event.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Has played in 567 events on the PGA TOUR and made cuts in 399 tournaments...Owner of two major titles, 1979 Masters and the 1984 U.S. Open...Claimed Masters title on second extra hole of playoff with Ed Sneed and Tom Watson. Became just the third player (Horton Smith in 1934, Gene Sarazen in 1935) to win the prestigious event at Augusta National in his first attempt...Bested Greg Norman in an 18-hole playoff for 1984 U.S. Open Championship at Winged Foot GC in New York...Was also the runner-up to Larry Nelson in the 1981 PGA Championship at the Atlanta Athletic Club and finished third in the 1994 British Open Championship at Turnberry, Scotland...Has won 10 PGA TOUR titles, including three in 1986...Best season from a financial standpoint came in 1994 when he went over the $1 million mark for the only time in his career ($1,016,804). Although he didn't win that season, recorded five runner-up finishes (at the time the most since Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer had six in 1964), including a playoff loss to Mark McCumber in the season-ending TOUR Championship. Earned a career-best $324,000 at that event which pushed him over seven figures in single-season earnings...First TOUR win came at the 1979 Wickes-Andy Williams San Diego Open. Came back after an opening-round 76 to defeat Bill Kratzert, Wayne Levi, Artie McNickle and Tom Watson by five strokes...Has long history of back trouble, which first became known at 1984 PGA Championship when he was hospitalized before first round. Underwent surgery for ruptured discs later that year and was sidelined until February of 1985...In third start after return, won the Bay Hill Classic...Played on three American Ryder Cup teams (1979, 1983, 1985)...Also won the 1985 and 1986 Skins Game and claimed the 1987 Merrill Lynch Shoot-Out Championship...Won 1972 Florida State Junior College and 1973 Indiana State Amateur titles...Member of the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Hall of Fame.

PERSONAL:

Always a gallery favorite because of his humor and relaxed approach to the game...Has an interest in golf course design and one of his projects is the TPC at Summerlin, host course of the PGA TOUR's Las Vegas event...Won USGA's Bob Jones Award in 1985. Award given in recognition of distinguished sportsmanship in golf...Lists Wayne Gretzky and Michael Jordan as his favorite athletes and Arnold Palmer as his idol growing up...Enjoys the outdoors and went on a sheep hunt to Alaska in 2001...Web site is fuz.com.

BARR, Dave

BIRTHDATE: March 1, 1952 BIRTHPLACE: Kelowna, British Columbia, Canada RESIDENCE: Westbank, British Columbia, Canada OTHER INFORMATION: Played in 19 events in 2005, with four top-10s, including T4 at Allianz Championship. Became the first Canadian to win a Champions Tour event when he captured the 2003 Royal Caribbean Golf Classic. Birdied the final four holes, including the 18th from 35 feet, to overtake Gil Morgan and Bobby Wadkins by one stroke in just his ninth start on the Champions Tour, ending a victory drought of 16 years. His $217,500 first-place check was largest ever as a professional. One of just two players (Jim Thorpe) to record a hole-in-one on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. Was a member of the PGA TOUR from 1978-2002 and enjoyed his best year in 1994 when he earned $314,885 and finished 53rd on the money list. Also earned $291,244 in 1988 and was 33rd on the money list that year, his highest position ever. Owns two PGA TOUR victories, and both came in spectacular fashion. Won the 1987 Georgia-Pacific Atlanta Golf Classic at the Atlanta CC with a sizzling 23-under-par 265 to beat Larry Mize by four strokes. Other win came at the 1981 Quad Cities Open where he outlasted Dan Halldorson, Victor Regalado, Frank Conner and Woody Blackburn in an eight-hole playoff. Had started the day five strokes back and closed with a 66 to earn a spot in the playoff. Was a runner-up on four occasions, including the 1985 U.S. Open at Oakland Hills where he was among three players (Denis Watson and T.C. Chen) who finished one stroke behind Andy North. Also lost playoffs to Corey Pavin at the 1986 Greater Milwaukee Open and Mark Brooks at the 1988 Canon Sammy Davis, Jr.-Greater Hartford Open (along with Joey Sindelar). Won the Canadian Tour Order of Merit in 1977, 1985-86 and 1988 and owns a dozen wins on that tour. Won the individual title at the 1983 World Cup and teamed with Dan Halldorson to claim the team crown at the 1985 World Cup. In all, was on 13 Canadian World Cup teams and a nine-time member of Canadian Dunhill Cup teams (1985-89, 1991, 1993-95). Captain of the winning 1994 squad, which included Rick Gibson and Ray Stewart. Member of 1972 Canadian World Amateur team. Winner of eight SCORE awards as Canada's top player. Inducted into the Canadian Golf Hall of Fame in 2000 and also a member of the B.C. Sports Hall of Fame. Still uses a MacGregor CB-5 putter that was given to him by his college coach in 1971.

GINN, Stewart (GHIN)

BIRTHDATE: June 2, 1949 BIRTHPLACE: Melbourne, Australia RESIDENCE: Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia OTHER INFORMATION: Medalist at the European Seniors Tour Qualifying School and will be fully exempt on that circuit in 2006. Teamed with Bob Charles to win the Raphael Division at the 2004 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Best overall year on Champions Tour came in 2002 when he finished 18th on the money list, with $950,055. Along with Isao Aoki (The Instinct Classic), was the only other international player to win an event in 2002. Broke through for his only official victory at the Ford Senior Players Championship, a one-stroke triumph over Jim Thorpe, Mike McCullough and Hubert Green. Birdie on the 17th hole proved to be the difference and earned him a career-best $375,000. Primarily played on the PGA European Seniors Tour and the Japan Golf Tour prior to joining Champions Tour. Earned a full exemption on the 2000 Champions Tour by finishing T2 at the National Qualifying Tournament at the Omni Tucson National Resort & Spa. Was a mainstay on the Australasian and Japan PGA Golf Tours for more than 20 years. Won 16 times around the world as a professional, including the Tasmanian Open three times. Was a semifinalist in the Australian Amateur in 1970 and was the Victorian Junior champion. Was talked out of attempting to play the PGA TOUR by his peers in the early 1970s and regretted his decision. Has used up an estimated 20 passports to play golf throughout the world and has won tournaments on three different Tours in his career. Came from a non-golf family, although they lived behind the 12th green at famed Royal Melbourne GC. Began caddying at Royal Melbourne at age 10 and fell in love with the game after watching the old Canada Cup competition in 1959 from his backyard. Played Australian Rules Football as a youth, but chose to pursue a career in golf on advice from his uncle and turned professional at age 20. Was an assistant secretary manager at Royal Melbourne for a short time.

KOCH, Gary (COKE)

BIRTHDATE: November 21, 1952 BIRTHPLACE: Baton Rouge, LA RESIDENCE: Tampa, FL OTHER INFORMATION: Teamed with Roger Maltbie to win the Raphael Division at the 2003 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Best career performances on the Champions Tour both came during the 2004 campaign. Was T2 at The ACE Group Classic after being involved in a three-man playoff with winner Craig Stadler and Tom Watson. Appeared to be in command with a three-stroke lead with five holes to play, but bogeyed the 14th and 17th holes to surrender his lead and then fell back into overtime after missing a long birdie try. Watched Stadler sink a 27-foot birdie putt that eliminated him. Was the first-round leader after setting a course record at The Club at TwinEagles, a 10-under-par 62, his lowest round on either the PGA TOUR or Champions Tour, that included an 8-under 28 on the back nine. Added a second T2 that year at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf when he and Gil Morgan finished one stroke behind Hale Irwin in Savannah, GA. Owns six career PGA TOUR victories, the last coming in 1988 at the Panasonic-Las Vegas Invitational. Finished among the top 100 money-winners in six of seven years between 1982-88. Best financial year was 1988, with $414,694, 24th on the money list. Highest finish on the money list was 17th in 1984 when he won both the Isuzu-Andy Williams San Diego Open and the Bay Hill Classic. On both occasions, started the final round six strokes back and won in a playoff. Defeated Gary Hallberg in San Diego and George Burns in the Bay Hill Classic and in both cases won with a birdie on the second extra hole. First-team All-American from 1972-74 and a member of Florida's 1973 NCAA Championship team. Winner of 10 collegiate events. Member of 1973 and 1975 U.S. Walker Cup squads and 1974 U.S. World Amateur team. Was college teammate of Andy Bean, Andy North and Phil Hancock. Began TV work with ESPN in 1990, working on Champions Tour telecasts before joining NBC Sports later in the decade. Gained his first taste of professional golf when he qualified for the 1973 U.S. Open at Oakmont as an amateur and finished 57th. Biggest thrill in golf was winning the USGA Junior Amateur Championship in 1970. Also active in golf course design with Robbins/Koch Golf Designs, Inc.

BIRTHDATE: November 13, 1952 BIRTHPLACE: Vallejo, CA RESIDENCE: Naples, FL OTHER INFORMATION: Played in six events in 2005, with a T14 at the Allianz Championship his top showing. Best career performance on the Champions Tour was a solo ninth at the 2004 Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Made Champions Tour debut at the 2003 Senior British Open and T27 at Turnberry, his first TOUR appearance in over four years. Has served as the lead analyst for The Golf Channel the last few years. Made 486 starts on the PGA TOUR in a career that began in 1977 after securing his card at the PGA TOUR's Fall Qualifying Tournament in 1976. Made 332 cuts and earned $1,800,654 in his three decades on the TOUR. Lone victory was a memorable one. Came from eight strokes down the final day with a closing-round 64 to earn a one-stroke win over John Mahaffey, Jim Thorpe and Sammy Rachels at the 1983 Bank of Boston Classic. Finished with birdies on three of the last four holes to claim the $63,000 first-place check, the largest of his career. Finest season came in 1989, when he earned $242,884 and was 56th on the money list. Built a three-stroke lead after 36 holes at the 1984 Masters Tournament and trailed by only one after 54 holes before finishing T6. Won the 1976 Australian Order of Merit. College star at San Jose State, where he earned All-American honors in 1975. Diagnosed as a diabetic in high school. One of the few players to use an elongated putter while playing on the PGA TOUR. Often traveled with his guitar on the PGA TOUR, and at one point in his career teamed with Peter Jacobsen and the late Payne Stewart to form Jake Trout and The Flounders. Has battled melanoma in the past few years. First discovered a dime-sized mole on his left knee in 1991 and had surgery to remove the growth. After treatment and subsequent follow-ups, was cancer-free for five years before he discovered a small growth on his left thigh in 2002. Had surgery on his left leg in July 2002, followed by a series of chemotherapy treatments to treat the cancer. Remains on medication for the disease. Suffered a left-knee injury while working the UBS Cup in November 2004.

NORTH, Andy

BIRTHDATE: March 9, 1950 BIRTHPLACE: Thorpe, WI RESIDENCE: Madison, WI OTHER INFORMATION: Won twice in competition in 2005. Teamed with Tom Watson to win the Raphael Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April. In June, earned $350,000 to win the ING Par-3 Shootout on the Treetops course in Gaylord, MI, over Gary McCord (second) and Fred Couples and Phil Mickelson (T3). Has made 89 starts on Champions Tour since joining in 2000. Best finish in an official event was a solo second at the 2001 Emerald Coast Classic, where he lost in a one-hole playoff with Mike McCullough near Pensacola. Teamed with Jim Colbert to win a second consecutive Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title in 2001. Joined the PGA TOUR in 1973 and played full-time until the 1992 season when he was slowed by various physical woes. Underwent six knee surgeries and operations to remove skin cancers from his nose and cheek, suffered from right elbow bone spurs and also battled shoulder and neck problems, as well. Two-time winner of the U.S. Open and one of 19 players with more than one Open win. First victory came at Cherry Hills CC in Colorado in 1978 and the second at Oakland Hills CC in Birmingham, MI, in 1985. Had four-stroke lead at Cherry Hills with five holes to play. By the time he reached the 18th hole, needed only bogey to win. He secured that for victory over Dave Stockton and J.C. Snead. Victory at Oakland Hills came with a 279 total, one stroke better than international runner-up trio of Tze-Chung Chen of Taiwan, Dave Barr of Canada and Denis Watson of Zimbabwe. Other PGA TOUR victory came in 1977 when he prevailed in the Westchester Classic. Shares the PGA TOUR's nine-hole scoring record with Billy Mayfair and Mike Souchak. Shot a 27 at the 1975 B.C. Open. Played on the 1985 U.S. Ryder Cup team and also represented the United States in the 1978 World Cup. Still serves as an analyst on ESPN's telecasts and has also done work for ABC Sports. Was a color analyst on ESPN telecasts prior to joining the Champions Tour in 2000. Three-time All-America selection at the University of Florida. Avid follower of University of Wisconsin sports and, at one time, assisted the Badger football staff. Won the 1969 Wisconsin Amateur and 1971 Western Amateur.

OAKLEY, Pete

BIRTHDATE: June 28, 1949 BIRTHPLACE: Panama City, FL RESIDENCE: Lincoln, DE OTHER INFORMATION: Won the 2004 Senior British Open at Royal Portrush in Northern Ireland. Sank a 10-foot par putt on the final hole to hold off Tom Kite and Eduardo Romero by one stroke for the title. Had blasted out of a deep greenside bunker moments before sinking his winning putt. Victory at Portrush made him the 10th open qualifier to win a Champions Tour event. Successfully open-qualified for the event earlier that week out of a 132-man field. Earned $289,152 for his win, the largest payday of his pro career. Best finishes on the European Seniors Tour prior to his win in Northern Ireland were a pair of T8s at the Open de France Seniors and the Ryder Cup Wales Senior Open. Was a long-time club professional who won numerous sectional titles in the Philadelphia-Delaware area, including four Delaware State Open crowns. Also claimed the 1999 PGA Senior Club Pro Championship by three strokes despite starting his final round with a double bogey. Represented the U.S. at the 1994 PGA Cup Matches. Won the 2000 PGA Senior Stroke Play title. Got started in the game as an 11-year-old by his mother who thought the nearby nine-hole golf course would be a great babysitter for him and his brother, David, a former Champions Tour player. Serves as the director of golf at The Rookery in Delaware, a daily fee course where he is a managing partner.

POWELL, Jimmy

BIRTHDATE: January 17, 1935 BIRTHPLACE: Dallas, TX RESIDENCE: La Quinta, CA OTHER INFORMATION: Teamed with Orville Moody to win the Demaret Division title at the 2005 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf after placing second in the Raphael Division with Frank Beard in 2004. Played the Champions Tour full time from 1985-2002 and won four events. Became the Champions Tour's second-oldest winner at the time (61 years, 8 months, 5 days) when he defeated John Jacobs by a stroke at the rain-shortened Brickyard Crossing Championship in 1996. Also claimed the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions event in Indianapolis, becoming the first player to "double dip" twice on the Champions Tour. His $112,500 paycheck was the largest of his career. Originally made Champions Tour history at the First of America Classic in Grand Rapids, MI, by becoming the first player to win both a Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions event and the overall tournament. Won the Georgia-Pacific competition in Grand Rapids by six over Ken Still and Gay Brewer and then cruised to a five-stroke victory over Babe Hiskey in the overall 54-hole tournament at The Highlands. Blistered the Vineyards CC layout en route to the 1992 Aetna Challenge title in Naples by four strokes over Lee Trevino. At the time, his 19-under-par 197 score equaled the 54-hole scoring record in relation to par. Notched his first Champions Tour victory at the 1990 Southwestern Bell Classic in Oklahoma City, when he came from four strokes back with a closing 65 to win by three. Initially earned his exemption for the Champions Tour in 1989 by virtue of his T4 finish at the 1988 National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC at Prestancia. Joined the Champions Tour early in the 1985 season and T4 at the Greenbrier/American Express Championship. Final-round, 10-under-par 62 included three eagles and was the best round of his professional career. Played the PGA TOUR from 1959 through 1963 and again in 1980-81. Was the oldest player to qualify for the PGA TOUR at age 46 until Allen Doyle topped him at age 47 in 1996. 1973 Southern California PGA Player of the Year. Former head professional at Stevens Park GC in Dallas, the same course where he learned to play the game.

RACHELS, Sammy

BIRTHDATE: September 23, 1950 BIRTHPLACE: DeFuniak Springs, FL RESIDENCE: DeFuniak Springs, FL OTHER INFORMATION: Won three times on the Champions Tour. Last victory came at the 2002 Bruno's Memorial Classic, a playoff win over Dana Quigley. Holed a downhill, 10-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to win on his 31st wedding anniversary. Victory near Birmingham, along with two other top-10 performances in May earned him Champions Tour Player of the Month honors. Enjoyed an impressive rookie season in 2001, with two victories and a spot in the top 31 on the money list. First title came in May in Nashville where he closed with a then career-best 63 to win the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland by four strokes over Hale Irwin at Springhouse GC. Helped his cause on Sunday when he holed wedges for eagles on the first and 10th holes and also had a chip-in birdie on the eighth hole. Second title came in dramatic fashion in mid-October when he holed a 30-foot eagle putt on the final hole at Silverado to overtake Raymond Floyd and Doug Tewell for The Transamerica title. Trained Floyd and Tewell by a stroke heading to the final hole, but hit 5-iron to within 30 feet and then sank the putt for the win. At the time became the first player since Hale Irwin (1999 Nationwide Championship) to claim an event by posting an eagle on the final hole. Utilized two styles of putters in his victories. First earned a spot on the Champions Tour after finishing sixth in the 2000 National Qualifying Tournament at Walt Disney World. Secured the sixth position after making birdie on the second playoff hole. Despite four back operations, played on the PGA TOUR from 1975-1985 and had 11 top-10 finishes in 123 career events. Had his best year on the PGA TOUR in 1983, earning $75,238 in 15 events. T2 in both the Danny Thomas-Memphis Classic and the Bank of Boston Classic, with four rounds in the 60s in both events. Also was the runner-up to Russ Cochran at the Magnolia Classic in Hattiesburg, MS, that year.

ZIEGLER, Larry

BIRTHDATE: August 12, 1939 BIRTHPLACE: St. Louis, MO RESIDENCE: Orlando, FL OTHER INFORMATION: One of three players to make a double eagle in 2005, when he holed a 4-wood second shot from 229 yards on No. 3 at the TPC of the Twin Cities in the second round of the 3M Championship. Had highly-successful outing at the 2001 National Qualifying Tournament, when he finished second to Howard Twitty and earned fully-exempt status for the year. At age 62 years, 3 months, became the second-oldest player behind the late J.C. Goosie (62 years, 6 months) to earn his card. Bogeyed the final three holes but still won the 1998 Saint Luke's Classic near Kansas City with a 2-under-par 208, the highest winning 54-hole total in relation to par during the year. Triumph at Loch Lloyd CC came six years, 10 months and 3 days after his initial victory on the Champions Tour at the 1991 Newport Cup, at the time, the longest span between wins on the circuit. Initial Champions Tour title over George Archer, Tom Shaw and Jim Dent in Rhode Island ended a 25-year victory drought. First of three PGA TOUR victories came at the 1969 Michigan Golf Classic, where he defeated Homero Blancas in a playoff. Most productive year was 1976, when he collected $84,165, won the First NBC New Orleans Open and finished T3 in the Masters. Winner of the 1975 Greater Jacksonville Open. One of 14 children, he grew up with seven brothers and six sisters. Started in golf as a caddie and worked his way through the ranks to caddiemaster, assistant professional and finally head professional. Once held a position on the Board of Directors of the St. Louis Blues hockey team. An avid fan of NASCAR racing, he has considered becoming involved in the sport.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Dana Quigley sank a three-foot birdie putt on the third extra hole to defeat Tom Watson for his second MasterCard Championship crown in three years. Watson, who held a three-stroke margin over Wayne Levi after 36 holes, played bogey-free golf on the front nine but saw his lead disappear after bogeys on Nos. 11 and 14. Quigley, meanwhile, used six birdies and an eagle to climb back into contention. His three-putt bogey at No. 18 opened the door for Watson on the final hole, but Watson was unable to convert a nine-foot birdie putt, setting up the playoff. After each player made pars on the first two playoff holes, Watson hit his 7-iron off the tee on the third playoff hole (No. 17) into the lava behind the green, which resulted in a bogey. Moments later Quigley ended the playoff when he made his short par putt.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Hale Irwin certainly had history on his side. With four consecutive Turtle Bay Championship titles on his resume, Irwin added a Champions Tour record fifth straight when he cruised to a five-stroke victory over Dana Quigley on Hawaii's North Shore. After opening with rounds of 67-66, Irwin broke away from the pack with a fast start on Sunday, shooting a 5-under-par 31 on the front nine to leave the field battling for second. Irwin's 16-under-par score of 200 was the lowest total since the event moved to Turtle Bay in 2001.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jack Nicklaus clinched his second Champions Skins title and his first since 1991 by earning $40,000 with a birdie on the 15th hole. Nicklaus had picked up $130,000 by winning five skins with a birdie on No. 9 and $170,000. He added five more skins with another birdie on No. 14, which clinched him a tie with four holes remaining. However, his 14-foot birdie putt on No. 15 closed the door on the only other player who had a chance, Craig Stadler. Stadler got off to an early lead with consecutive skins on Nos. 2-4, quickly picking up $80,000. He would not earn another skin until No. 18 as the day belonged to Nicklaus, who was plagued by a sore hamstring. Nicklaus dropped in an eight-footer for birdie at No. 9 and a six-footer for another birdie at No. 14, which pushed him into a comfortable lead. Stadler, playing in his first Champions Skins Game, picked up the Wendy's Super Skin at No. 18 and $100,000.

NOTES

Jack Nicklaus earned $1,000 worth of Wendy's food for his son and caddie, Jackie. By winning the Wendy's Super Skin, Craig Stadler earned $1,000 of free food for his caddie... Jack Nicklaus boosted his Wendy's Champions Skins Game earnings to a record $2,005,000. He also increased his lead in all-time skins won at the Wendy's Champions Skins Game to 78, and his combined all-time Skins Game/Champions Skins Game skins won to 102. The $340,000 is the largest paycheck Nicklaus has won in his career... With the $130,000 he earned on the front nine, Jack Nicklaus broke the $1-million mark for front-nine earnings. He has taken home $1,055,000 on the front nine. His five skins on the outward nine brought his front-nine skins total to 50. He has 30 more front-nine skins than the next closest pursuer, Raymond Floyd... Craig Stadler's Wendy's Champions Skins Game debut was a success. His $180,000 haul tied Jim Colbert (1996) for the third-largest amount won by a rookie... For only the fourth time in 18 previous events and the first time since 2002, players didn't need extra holes to decide matters. For the first time at Wailea, skins were won on the ninth (Jack Nicklaus) and 16th (Tom Watson) holes. Watson's skin was also the first time a player birdied the 216-yard par-3. That leaves No. 6 as the only hole not to yield a skin.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Mark James made his move early Sunday with four birdies on the front nine. The Englishman then birdied the par-4 11th hole to open a three-stroke lead but found trouble at the par-5 13th when he left his third shot in the bunker and walked away with a bogey. Moments later, he was tied for the lead with a charging Wayne Levi at 11-under. After Levi fell out of contention, it was both Mike McCullough and Hale Irwin's turns to make runs at James. McCullough grabbed a share of the lead after a birdie-eagle-birdie-birdie run on holes 14-17. Irwin sank a long eagle putt at the par-5 17th to join the logjam. James took a one-stroke lead to the final hole after two-putting from 33 feet for a birdie at the 17th. He then rolled in a 23-foot birdie putt on the final hole to seal the victory.

Winner: HALE IRWIN*66-68 134 (-8) $240,000

Lutz, FL

February 25-28, 2005

Purse: $1,600,000Par: 35-36—71*Yards: 6,820

LEADERS: First Round—John Harris fired a 6-under 65 and led Hale Irwin by one stroke. Five other players were two strokes back.

CUT: There was no cut; 70 of 76 players completed 36 holes.

WEATHER: The start of the event Friday was delayed for one hour by lightning. After play began, the round was stopped at 11:39 a.m. due to heavy thunderstorms. After more than an inch of rain, the first round was suspended for the day at 4 p.m. Overcast, with light wind Saturday. The first round resumed at 7:20 a.m. and was completed at 2:51 p.m. Decision was made Saturday afternoon to reduce the event to 36 holes. The final round started at 12:30 p.m. and was halted due to darkness at 5:55 p.m., with 54 professionals on the course. The final round was restarted at 8 a.m. Sunday but was stopped for the day at 9:08 a.m. when more than an inch of rain made the course unplayable. Thirty players were on the course at the time of the suspension. The final round resumed Monday morning at 9 a.m. Cloudy with highs in the upper 60s.

KEYS TO VICTORY

After playing just three holes on Sunday, Hale Irwin played his remaining 12 holes of the rain-shortened event Monday. Irwin began his day one stroke back of Morris Hatalsky at the 16th hole. Hatalsky, who had completed his second round Saturday, could only watch as Irwin made his move. Irwin turned to the front nine and moved atop the leaderboard for good with a 22-foot birdie putt at the third hole. He closed with six straight pars.

KEYS TO VICTORY

After posting a 4-under-par 68 for a 54-hole total of 5-under-par 211, Des Smyth had to wait for Mark McNulty and D.A. Weibring to finish their rounds. He was finally able to enjoy his first victory after both Weibring and McNulty missed playoff-forcing opportunities on No. 18. Smyth won the tournament with three birdie putts on the back nine Sunday. He made putts on holes 12-14.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Mark Johnson holed an 89-yard pitching wedge approach for an eagle on the final hole to highlight a four-stroke victory. The 50-year-old Johnson, who drove a Budweiser truck for 18 years before pursuing a professional golf career, put an exclamation point on his round in front of a large gathering of family and friends. After hitting his shot just past the hole, the ball spun back and rolled into the cup to slam the door on Keith Fergus and Wayne Levi, who tied for second. The long-time Southern California amateur also had an eagle on No. 15 on his way to his first career win in just his 14th Champions Tour start.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Despite winds gusting up to 30 mph and temperatures in the lower 50s, Ireland's Des Smyth pulled away from the field with consecutive birdies midway through the back nine to win his second Champions Tour event in three starts. Smyth's final-round 71 was the only score under par on Sunday. Tied for the lead with five holes to play, Smyth drove the green and two-putted for birdie on the 326-yard par-4 14th hole. He then kept a 5-iron shot under the wind at No. 15 and the ball stopped less than four feet from the cup. The ensuing birdie on the par-3 hole gave him a three-stroke cushion over Tom Jenkins, second-round leader Wayne Levi and first-round leader Tom Purtzer.

NOTES

Des Smyth won the event even though he made just two birdies on the four par-5s at the Westin Savannah Harbor course over three days. However, he and Tom Purtzer made 15 birdies, the most in the field...Final-round scoring average was 75.885, the second-highest single-round average in 2005, bettered only by the first round of the Senior British Open at Royal Aberdeen (80.118).

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jim Thorpe stormed down the stretch with four birdies on the final five holes to break away and win his 10th career victory on the Champions Tour. Thorpe twice held and lost leads on the first 11 holes before making the late charge to win in Austin. Afterward, Thorpe credited Lee Trevino and a $20 utility club he found in a barrel at a local retail store for the win. Trevino called Thorpe after the second round to suggest he use his shoulders more when putting. Thorpe earned $247,500 for the victory and donated the entire amount to a building fund for Crossings Community Church which he attends in Lake Mary, FL.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jim Thorpe sank a 4½-foot putt on the third extra hole to defeat Morris Hatalsky. Thorpe's winning putt came Monday morning after darkness Sunday forced an additional day. The pair played one extra hole before darkness intervened. On Monday morning each player parred the second playoff hole, before Thorpe took advantage of a miscue by Hatalsky on the third extra hole when Hatalsky's second shot landed in the bunker.

LEADERS: First Round—Dana Quigley opened with a 7-under-par 65 and led Tom Wargo by one stroke. Curtis Strange, Mark Johnson, Tom Jenkins and D.A. Weibring trailed by two. Second Round—Weibring followed with a 7-under-par 65 and was at 12-under-par 132. He led Quigley and Tom Kite, who tied the course record with a 9-under-par 63, by one stroke.

GEORGIA-PACIFIC GRAND CHAMPIONS: Jay Sigel defended his title with a one-stroke victory over Raymond Floyd. Sigel's 36-hole total of 6-under 138 earned him his fourth career victory in the over-60 competition and a check for $30,000.

CUT: There was no cut; 77 of 78 players completed 54 holes.

WEATHER: Mostly cloudy early Friday before a severe thunderstorm moved into the area. Play was suspended at 2:33 p.m., and officials postponed the first round for the day at 4:30 p.m. after an inch and a half of rain made the course unplayable. Thirty-six players had completed their rounds. The first round resumed Saturday at 9 a.m. and was completed at 11:23 a.m. A two-tee start was used for the second round. Partly sunny and warm Saturday, with highs in the mid-to-upper 80s. Sunny for the final round, with highs near 90 Sunday and a gentle breeze from the E at 5-10 mph.

KEYS TO VICTORY

D.A. Weibring's victory did not come without a small bit of controversy. On the final hole it appeared Weibring's ball moved slightly before he tapped in the final putt for his win. Confusion over whether Weibring had grounded his club prior to sinking the putt was cleared when officials looked at a replay and determined he did not ground his putter. Weibring was the only player in the field to post three straight sub-70 rounds.

LEADERS: First Round—Graham Marsh carded a 4-under-par 68 and led R.W. Eaks, Hale Irwin, Dave Barr and Tom McKnight by one stroke. Second Round—Jerry Pate moved in front with a 36-hole score of 6-under 138. Pate was one stroke ahead of Eaks and two strokes up on Mike Reid and Mark McNulty. Third Round—Dana Quigley's 6-under 66 was the only score in the 60s and put him at the top of the leaderboard. Quigley's 8-under 208 was two strokes better than Pate and Reid.

CUT: 72 players, including nine club professionals, at 6-over-par 150 from a starting field of 156 players.

WEATHER: Light rain early in the week. Clearing on Thursday, with highs in the upper 70s and light winds from the NW at 5-15 mph in the afternoon. Partly cloudy Friday, with highs in the lower 70s and gusting winds from the W at 10-20 mph. A steady rain fell until almost 2 p.m. Saturday and highs were only in the low 60s. Third-round play was first suspended at 11:41 a.m. when the course became unplayable and resumed at 1:25 p.m. A thunderstorm late in the afternoon suspended play for the day at 5:38 p.m., with 33 players still on the course. The third round resumed Sunday at 8:15 a.m. and was completed at 10:08 a.m. A two-tee start was used for the final round. A mix of sun and clouds, with highs in the mid-60s and a breeze from the SE at 5-10 mph.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Mike Reid made a 25-foot eagle putt to get into a playoff with Dana Quigley and Jerry Pate and then birdied No. 18 again on the only playoff hole for the victory. Pate, holding a one-stroke lead over Quigley, who was in the clubhouse, hit his drive in the fairway at the closing hole. Pate heeded his caddie's advice on his approach and laid up short of the pond on the par-5. Pate then wedged his third shot almost 30 feet past the hole and lagged his birdie attempt four feet short of the hole, a putt he would miss. The trio headed to 18 for the playoff, and Pate hooked his tee shot into the left rough. Quigley and Reid both hit their drives in the center of the fairway. Pate had no choice by to lay up again. Reid hit his second to 25 feet, but Quigley's approach found the water. After Reid two-putted for a birdie, Pate missed an eight-foot birdie putt that would have extended the overtime.

NOTES

Reid's win was his first on the Champions Tour in his 17th career start and ended a dry spell of 16 years, 9 months and 2 days...He was the only player in the field to break par in all four rounds and became the first player since Miller Barber at the 1982 Suntree Classic (66-66-66-66) to win after shooting the same score each day over 72 holes.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Tom Jenkins trailed D.A. Weibring by three shots with eight holes to play in regulation but made birdies on four of six holes on the back nine. However, Jenkins' missed a three-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole that allowed Weibring to forge a tie at the end of regulation. At No. 17, the second playoff hole, Jenkins made a five-foot birdie putt after Weibring had missed his birdie attempt moments earlier.

NOTES

The overtime session between Tom Jenkins and D.A. Weibring was the first playoff in tournament history...Bruce Fleisher's hole-in-one in the first round (No. 16, a 4-iron from 178 yards) marked the fourth straight year an ace had been recorded at this event...Dale Douglass made his 1,000th TOUR appearance (PGA TOUR/Champions Tour combined), just the eighth player in history to hit the milestone...D.A. Weibring played his last 40 holes, including both playoff holes, without making a bogey...Pete Oakley missed just one fairway (38 of 39) for the week and rallied from a tie for 60th after Friday to tie for eighth, his best effort on the Champions Tour since winning the 2004 Senior British Open.

Purse: $1,650,000

Par: 36-36—72

Yards: 7,172

LEADERS: First Round—Gil Morgan and R.W. Eaks were tied for the lead at 7-under-par 65. Jim Ahern trailed by one stroke.

CUT: There was no cut; 76 of 78 players completed 54 holes.

WEATHER: Cloudy, warm and humid Friday, with highs near 80. The start of play was delayed 45 minutes due to inclement weather, and an afternoon thunderstorm forced a suspension of play from 1:54-3:15 p.m. Storms canceled Saturday's round. Thunderstorms caused a suspension of play Sunday from 8:46-10 a.m. There were two more suspensions of play from 3:37-4:41 p.m. and again at 4:55 p.m. due to thunderstorms. Officials called play for the day at 6 p.m., with 72 players (36 professionals and 36 amateurs) still on the course. Showers Monday delayed the start of play until 1:55 p.m. Play ended at 5:40 p.m. Lift, clean and place rules were in effect for both rounds.

KEYS TO VICTORY

After finishing his second round on Sunday, Dana Quigley had to wait out several stoppages of play as rain forced the tournament to be shortened to 36 holes. When play was completed Monday afternoon, Quigley joined Tom Watson and Gil Morgan in a playoff. Watson had been forced to play 12 holes Sunday, while Morgan, like Quigley, had finished play on Sunday. Quigley nailed a 6-iron from 180 yards to within 11 feet of the hole and calmly sank the putt for the win.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Mark McNulty's 20-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole gave him his fourth career Champions Tour title. McNulty outlasted Tom Purtzer and Don Pooley. Birdies on the final two holes in regulation and a closing-round 65 helped Pooley get into the playoff, and Purtzer earned a berth with a birdie on 18, as well. A bogey on the first extra hole knocked Pooley out, and McNulty ended Purtzer's chances with his birdie putt on the second playoff hole (No. 17).

KEYS TO VICTORY

Ron Streck, a two-time champion on the PGA TOUR and the 1993 Yuma Open winner on the Nationwide Tour, became the first player to win on all three Tours with the victory on Long Island in his 18th career start on the Champions Tour. On a windy Sunday afternoon, Jim Ahern made the only charge at Streck. Playing three groups ahead, Ahern came to the 455-yard, par-4 18th hole one stroke off the lead but pushed his drive near a bush in the right rough. With 180 yards to the flag, Ahern missed his only green in regulation and eventually made bogey. Streck, meanwhile, rolled in a 20-footer for birdie on No. 14 to go 15-under and then iced the tournament with a seven-foot par putt on the par-3 16th hole and another birdie on the 17th.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Birdies on Nos. 16 and 17 were the difference for Peter Jacobsen, who won his second major title in less than a year. Starting the day three behind third-round leader, Jacobsen used seven birdies and just a single bogey to defeat Hale Irwin. Jacobsen sank a 13 1/2-foot putt for a birdie on No. 16 and followed with a birdie on No. 17, which gave him the lead. Irwin narrowly missed birdie chances at Nos. 17 and 18 from 13 and 12 feet, respectively.

Ford Senior Players Championship

NOTES

Peter Jacobsen's victory was only his second in his brief Champions Tour career, but both of his wins have come in major championships. He won last year's U.S. Senior Open over Hale Irwin prior to his win at the Ford Senior Players Championship.

Peter Jacobsen joins only Jack Nicklaus (The Tradition at Desert Mountain/Mazda Senior Tournament Players Championship) and Arnold Palmer (Senior PGA Championship and U.S. Senior Open) as the only players whose first two Champions Tour victories came in major championships.

With his second-place finish, Hale Irwin made $220,000 and increased his streak of earning at least $1 million in a season to 10 consecutive years.

Bob Murphy improved his score by 18 strokes on Sunday. After shooting a 14-over-par 86 Saturday, Murphy bounced back with a 4-under-par 68.

Tom McKnight tied for third, his best finish ever on the Champions Tour. He also earned a check for $165,000, largest of his pro career.

KEYS TO VICTORY

On Sunday, Lonnie Nielsen made a 71-foot birdie putt on No. 17 and then eagled the 18th from 53 feet to move within one stroke of Tom Purtzer.

Purtzer maintained his advantage with an up-and-down save from the bunker at the 17th, making a six-footer for a par. After nearly hitting his drive on No. 18 into the water, Purtzer was forced to lay up on the par 5 and then hit an approach shot that stopped on the top level of the two-tiered green.

Craig Stadler, meanwhile, missed his bid for an eagle that could have forced a playoff. Purtzer's downhill lag putt stopped seven feet away, setting up the dramatic final stroke that gave him the win.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Five birdies on the first 11 holes and a near-mistake-free final round was all David Eger needed to post his second Champions Tour win. Eger started the final round tied with Craig Stadler and Morris Hatalsky, but birdies on four of the first eight holes helped him build a safe cushion. He was never really threatened after that, holding a lead of as many as five shots. Eger's bogey-free, 5-under-par 67 gave him a three-stroke win at the inaugural event.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Despite a bogey on the second playoff hole, Loren Roberts came away with his first Champions Tour victory as Dana Quigley's matching three-and-a-half-footer lipped out. Quigley appeared in control after an eagle at No. 16 in regulation gave him a three-stroke lead with two holes remaining. That quickly changed when he bogeyed No. 17 and missed a 17-footer for birdie on the 18th, while Roberts closed with consecutive birdies on his final two holes to set up the playoff. Roberts seemed to have the edge on the first extra hole when his second shot landed on the green and Quigley's shot found a greenside bunker. However, Quigley blasted out to three feet for birdie and Roberts two-putted to extend the playoff.

NOTES

Loren Roberts' victory, his first major title, comes in his 50th career major championship (including 47 on the PGA TOUR) appearance. His previous-best finish was at the 1994 U.S. Open at Oakmont where he lost in a playoff to Ernie Els (Colin Montgomerie) was also in the playoff). Roberts won eight times on the PGA TOUR. His last victory came at the 2002 Valero Texas Open, almost three years ago.

The last time a player won an event in a playoff with a bogey was at the 1996 Bruno's Memorial Classic when John Bland defeated John Paul Cain and Kermit Zarley.

Mike Reid made the first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career when he aced the seventh hole with a 4-wood from 228 yards. It was Reid's first ace since the 1985 Manufacturers Hanover Westchester Classic, one of three he made on the PGA TOUR. It was the ninth ace in tournament history and the first in the event since Tom Jenkins had one on No. 7 in the third round in 2003.

Howard Twitty made a double eagle on the 16th hole. Twitty used a 3-wood from 248 yards for his albatross.

Sunday's playoff was the fifth in the 17-year history of the JELD-WEN Tradition. The first came in 1994 when Raymond Floyd defeated Dale Douglass on the first hole, while Jack Nicklaus went three extra holes in 1995 before defeating Isao Aoki. The other playoffs prior to Sunday came in 2002 (Jim Thorpe defeated John Jacobs on the first hole) and 2000 (Tom Kite defeated Tom Watson and Larry Nelson in six extra holes, although Nelson was eliminated on the second extra hole).

KEYS TO VICTORY

Hale Irwin won for the first time since turning 60, closing with a 4-under-par 68 to hold off defending champion Craig Stadler, Gil Morgan and Morris Hatalsky. Irwin made a 10-foot birdie putt at No. 17 to grab the lead and then parred the final hole, while Stadler and Hatalsky, both playing in front of Irwin, missed birdie putts at No. 18. With his win, Irwin became the first player to claim a Champions Tour and PGA TOUR crown at the same venue twice. He won the 1984 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Irwin also won PGA TOUR and Champions Tour events at Riviera CC.

KEYS TO VICTORY

After starting the final-round with a two-stroke lead, Bob Gilder dumped his tee shot on the par-3 third hole into the water. The double bogey shaved his lead to one stroke over D.A. Weibring and Morris Hatalsky. When Hatalsky made birdie on No. 4, the two were briefly tied for the top. Gilder regrouped and took the lead back for good with a four-foot birdie putt on No. 5. He built a three-stroke advantage after nine holes and coasted to the finish. He chipped in from 40 feet for a par on the final hole to finish at 18-under 198, tying the tournament record.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Hale Irwin made it two wins in his last two starts with his two-stroke victory over Tom Jenkins and Bob Gilder. Starting the final round four strokes behind R.W. Eaks, Irwin used a blistering 5-under-par 31 on the back nine, which included a critical 25-foot eagle putt on No. 17. Irwin was even par on his front nine but quickly got back into contention with a fast start on the back nine. Irwin recorded birdies on Nos. 10, 12, 13 and 15 to grab a share of the lead with Bob Gilder. After making a par on 16, Irwin took the lead for good with his eagle at 17 from just off the green.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jay Haas used eight birdies and just one bogey in his final round to claim his first victory in 304 starts on the PGA TOUR, Nationwide Tour and Champions Tour. Haas had started the final round three strokes behind Dana Quigley and trailed by two strokes at the turn. However, birdies at Nos. 12 and 13 moved him into a tie for the lead with Quigley with four holes remaining. Haas then closed the door on Quigley and Loren Roberts with birdies on his final three holes. It was Haas' first win since the 1993 H.E.B. Texas Open, a span of 11 years, 11 months and 23 days.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Ailing with a touch of the flu early in the week,

Mark McNulty used a pair of eagles in the final round to win. McNulty jumped into contention with a 20-foot eagle putt at No. 2 but didn't take his first lead Sunday until he made birdie at the par-3 ninth.

Brad Bryant, the 36-hole leader, was cruising until he triple-bogeyed the 10th hole after hitting his tee shot in the water. A double bogey at No. 16 took him out of contention. After making his only bogey of the day at No. 12, McNulty recovered with a 39-foot eagle putt at No. 13 and made another birdie at 16. His two-putt birdie from 45 feet at the par-5, 18th proved to be the clincher.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jay Haas outdueled Dana Quigley down the stretch for his second victory in three weeks and third overall title at Oak Hills Country Club, site of his PGA TOUR Texas Open victories in 1982 and 1993. Haas began the final round two strokes behind Quigley but first caught him with birdies on four of the last five holes on the front nine. Quigley briefly took the lead back with a birdie on the par-4 11th but gave the shot back on the next hole. The two remained tied for the lead before Haas pitched to within two feet of the hole for a birdie at the par-5, 15th. Quigley drove into a fairway bunker at No. 16 and clipped a tree with his drive on No. 17, effectively ending his victory hopes. Haas closed with three pars, including a downhill 20-footer at the final hole.

NOTES

Jay Haas kept a hot streak going when he won for the second time in the previous three weeks on the Champions Tour. Two weeks earlier, Haas captured the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

As a two-time winner of the Valero Texas Open at Oak Hills (1982, 1993), Jay Haas became just the 12th different player to win a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event at the same venue. It's happened 12 previous times in Champions Tour history, with Hale Irwin pulling off the feat twice (1976 Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open/1998 U.S. Senior Open at Riviera and 1984 Bing Crosby National Pro-Am/2005 Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach).

Jay Haas made just one bogey in his last 40 holes at Oak Hills and only had three bogeys in the tournament.

Eight of the last 10 winners of the San Antonio event have all posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s. Jay Haas became the first player in the last five years who did not have a score of 64 or lower en route to victory. Haas was 11-under on the front nine and only 3-under on the back nine. Conversely, Mark McNulty was 7-under on the front nine and 11-under on the back nine last year.

Dana Quigley's check for $83,700 moved him over the $2-million mark in single-season earnings ($2,041,758) for the first time in his career. The 58-year-old Quigley led 60-year-old Hale Irwin by $111,912 going into the last tournament of the year, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Quigley would go on to win his first Champions Tour money title.

Tom Purtzer made an impressive rally on the weekend at Oak Hills. After opening with a 1-over-par 72, Purtzer found himself 10 strokes off the lead and tied for 41st. Purtzer's 5-under 66 Saturday moved him into a tie for 20th, and his 8-under 63 Sunday was the day's low round, vaulting him into second place, his best finish on the Champions Tour since winning the 3M Championship in early August. Purtzer's two-day total of 13-under 129 on the weekend matched the low score for the last 36 holes on the Champions Tour last year (Don Pooley/Des Smyth at the Blue Angels Classic).

KEYS TO VICTORY

Tom Watson sank a 20-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole to rally from a six-stroke deficit in the final round to win. Starting the day six strokes behind third-round leader Jay Haas, Watson closed with an 8-under 64, the lowest round ever by a winner in this event. Poor putting did in Haas, who needed 32 putts and made three bogeys Sunday, one more than he had made in his first three rounds combined. Watson, meanwhile, made 10 birdies on Sunday and needed just 26 putts on the way to his 64. After a bogey on No. 7, Watson made seven birdies and just one bogey over the final 11 holes. The win was Watson's third in this event and also earned Watson the Charles Schwab Cup title, symbolic of the points leader in the season-long race.

NOTES

Before 2005, a teenager had never won the MBNA WorldPoints Father/Son Challenge. The youngest son to hoist the Willie Park Trophy was Raymond Floyd Jr. (21) with dad, Raymond at the inaugural event in 1995. At 22, Kevin Stadler was one year older when he and dad, Craig, won in 2002. Stefan Langer is the first teenager to win the title and the youngest at age 15.

After sitting out the 2004 Father/Son Challenge due to injury, Johnny Miller came back in 2005 playing like someone making up for lost time. Johnny and son John II put up 30s on both nines in the final round, finishing with a 12-under 60 that tied their best score in the event. Team Miller checked in at 22-under 122, tying their best 36-hole score in five appearances.

Team Singh was the only team to go 4-under-par in the final three holes. The Singhs made eagle on the par-5, 510-yard 16th hole and the par-5, 528-yard 18th hole. Vijay and Qass Singh shot 60-62—122 (-22) to tie for third and earn $60,700.

Glossary Of Statistics

Total Driving

Total Driving is computed by totaling a player's rank in driving distance and driving accuracy.

Driving Distance*

The average number of yards per measured drive. Driving distance is measured on two holes per round. Care is taken to select holes which face in opposite directions to counteract the effects of wind. Drives are measured to the point they come to rest, regardless of whether they are in the fairway or not.

Driving Accuracy

The percentage of time a player is able to hit the fairway with his tee shot.

Greens in Regulation

The percentage of time a player was able to hit the green in regulation (greens hit in regulation/holes played). Note: A green is considered hit in regulation if any part of the ball is touching the putting surface and the number of strokes taken is two or less than par.

Putting Average

Measures putting performance on greens hit in regulation. For each green hit in regulation, the total number of putts is divided by the number of greens hit in regulation. By using greens hit in regulation, we are able to eliminate the affects of chipping close and one-putting in the computation.

Sand Saves Percentage

The percentage of time a player is able to get up and down once in a green-side sand bunker. Note: This up and down is computed regardless of score on the hole.

Eagles (holes per)

The average number of holes between each eagle.

Birdie Leaders

The average number of birdies made per round played.

All Around

This statistic is computed by totaling a player's rank in each of the following statistics: Scoring Leaders, Putting Leaders, Eagle Leaders, Birdie Leaders, Sand Saves, Greens in Regulation, Driving Distance and Driving Accuracy.

* As ShotLink is utilized on the Champions Tour in 2006, it will provide capabilities to greatly enhance Champions Tour statistical measurements.

* Note: The PGA TOUR Policy Board approved in September 2002 the retroactive awarding of an official victory to winners of the British Open prior to 1995. The Policy Board determined that champions prior to 1995 should be recognized as having won a major championship while also receiving career victory credit. Player records were adjusted at the start of the 2003 season so as to not change eligibility in the PGA TOUR Past Champions category during the course of the 2002 season.

PGA TOUR Retail Licensing

PGA TOUR Retail Licensing continues to expand its business base and the scope of the TOUR's brand presence in the consumer marketplace throughout the world with over 80 domestic (U.S.) and over 28 international licensees. PGA TOUR Retail Licensing manages its licensee relationships with the assistance of licensing agents for the U.S., the rest of the world (except Japan), and has a master licensee in Japan.

Domestic highlights include the opening of additional PGA TOUR Superstores. This licensee is revolutionizing the golf retail industry through its network of 65,000-100,000 square foot TOUR-branded stores it plans to build across the U.S. with a focus on service, education and good value. There are two stores in Myrtle Beach, S.C., and the first Superstore in suburban Atlanta opened in early 2005, with a second one planned for early 2006.

The Paradies Shops, licensee for the 44 PGA TOUR Airport Shops throughout the U.S., continues to expand the TOUR's retail presence in this well-targeted environment. Each year, more than 200 million travelers pass by these shops.

Our apparel licensee Perry Ellis International continues to expand the presence of TOUR-branded apparel in JC Penney stores, a key player in the mid-tier department store market. The apparel will be available in more than 600 stores by the end of 2006.

In late 2005, PGA TOUR Wines introduced a collection of several varietals of premium handcrafted wines from some of the finest California appellations. Also, the PGA TOUR Grill, a restaurant appealing to the "upper casual" market, opened in suburban Washington, D.C., with additional locations planned for 2006.

Internationally, TOUR-branded merchandise continues to grow as consumer products of choice in golf retail, and our licensee base throughout the U.K., Europe and Asia continues to progress. The TOUR's Japanese master licensee, Bonmax (Pro Tour, Inc.), has successfully expanded the TOUR's brand presence at retail and will have 300 PGA TOUR "shop in shops" this year.

TOUR-branded merchandise also enjoys a major presence in other countries including South Korea, Taiwan and Malaysia.

The New Media team at the PGA TOUR is responsible for growing new media content and platforms and serving the fan in getting closer to the game through enhanced coverage. New Media businesses, products, and coverage can be utilized and seen by fans on the internet, onsite at tournaments, and on the go—anywhere, anytime.

ON THE INTERNET

Launched in 1997, PGATOUR.com is the global online-golf destination. From scores to stats and news to games, PGATOUR.com content includes:

- Exclusive Live Scoring
Fans worldwide can follow their favorite players real-time. New features allow custom leaderboards, including scorecard information, hole stats and more.
- Emmy Award-Winning TOUR Pass
The all-access application that allows you to track all the action—live. You'll see it all visually on our exclusive real-time, hole-by-hole graphics. You'll see instantly how far your player hit the ball and how he made those birdies. The TOURCast interactive application won a 2005 Emmy Award for Outstanding Achievement in the category of Advanced Media Technology.
- Comprehensive TOUR Player Information and Stats
Get in-depth information, stats and analysis on players and tournaments. Fans can get to know the TOUR players better with inside access.
- Cutting-Edge Multimedia
Video highlights, live webcams and streaming events make you feel like you're on the course.
- PGATOURSHOP.com
The official online store of the PGA TOUR is a one-stop shop for TOUR-logged items, the latest equipment and apparel; all at great prices.
- International Coverage
Now, GDO—Japan's largest golf Internet site—brings PGATOUR.com content to Japanese golf fans. Mobile users in South Korea and South Africa can also get up-to-date scores and more.
- Other Exciting Products and Content
New Media is always looking for more and better ways to enhance your fan experience online. PGATOUR.com also provides fantasy golf games, newsletters, XM radio broadcasts, ways to explore the course and more.

TOURCast won a 2005 Emmy Award for Outstanding Achievement in the category of Advanced Media Technology.

ON SITE AT THE COURSE

- EHN
Event Hospitality Network uses eye-catching digital theaters in hospitality areas as well as interactive kiosks around the course to create compelling on-course coverage of the event. Find out what hole your favorite player is on, what his pairing is, or when he tees off.

EVERYWHERE YOU GO

- Mobile
Golf fans with mobile devices can follow a tournament anywhere, anytime with the mobile TOURCast from Mobiliss. Get SMS messages of tee times, standings and news with Air2Web's MobileLink.
- Satellite Radio
XM Satellite Radio extends the TOUR reach of live-tournament coverage virtually anywhere. XM airs live-tournament coverage each week via the PGA TOUR Network on XM channel 146.
- Tiger Woods PGA TOUR 2006
EA Sports continues the tradition with the new version of its top-selling, high-rated simulation video game with the PGA TOUR. In addition to game-console and PC versions, the games are published for arcade units, mobile devices, online and for new handheld gaming platforms.
- Fan Database
New Media keeps in touch with fans all season, and the fan database helps keep all of the information safe. The TOUR uses collected information to keep fans abreast of TOUR news, local events and special fan offers. New Media even uses fan input for future product feedback.

FUTURE

Stay tuned for more new products and platforms to come for PGA TOUR fan enjoyment.

Charity: Giving Back...The Heart of the PGA TOUR

The smiles on faces and lives positively affected are sure signs that the charitable mission of the PGA TOUR is successful in giving back in the communities where we play.

This effort was celebrated in late 2005 when the PGA TOUR and its tournaments reached the Drive to a Billion milestone. The more than $1 billion raised for charity since 1938 has allowed PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events to annually help more than 2,000 charities and countless individuals worldwide.

"Thanks to the incredible generosity of the tournaments, players, fans, volunteers and business partners who support the PGA TOUR, our goal of giving a billion dollars to charity is a reality," PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem said. "We hope the focus on this event inspires a continued enthusiasm for giving that ensures more and more money is donated every year. Our goal is to give our next billion in less than 10 years."

Structure

Unlike any other professional sport, the PGA TOUR relies on 80,000 volunteers a year to run its events, and nearly all of its 100-plus tournaments are structured as non-profit organizations designed to donate 100 percent of net proceeds to local charities. Beneficiaries include a wide variety of local organizations such as hospitals, youth development organizations, growth-of-the-game programs and food banks.

The beneficiaries include programs such as the Evans Scholars Foundation (Cialis Western Open) and Miracle Camp of Sacred Heart Health System (Boeing Championship at San Destin) and the benefiting charities of the National Mining Association Pete Dye Classic, the 2004 PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour Charities of the Year, respectively. The impact is also made by volunteers such as Peggy Nelson (Byron's wife) at the EDS Byron Nelson Championship, Paul Ross of Birmingham, AL, and Sam Purdy at the Canadian PGA Championship, the 2004 PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour Volunteers of the Year, respectively.

Tournaments

Tournaments provide the leadership, led by the EDS Byron Nelson Championship on the PGA TOUR, the Toshiba Classic, 3M Championship and the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach on the Champions Tour and the BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs on the Nationwide Tour, which provided the largest donations to charity in 2005 on each Tour.

"The Champions Tour tournaments and the many, many volunteers and sponsors who support our events are very proud to have contributed to this milestone," said Amy Hawk, chairman of the Champions Tour Tournament Association. "Charity is so vital to what each and every Champions Tour event is all about and is a key to the involvement of the volunteers and sponsors in all the communities in which we play."

Disaster relief in 2005 was met with terrific support throughout the golf world. The U.S. Golf Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund expects to exceed its $5-million goal, with the PGA TOUR's 84 LUMBER Classic, its fans and players giving approximately $1.1 million in 2005. The U.S. Golf Tsunami Relief Fund effort earlier in the year, also among the leading golf organizations, raised more than $2 million.

Players

Players also reach out to help considerably through charitable efforts in their home communities and across the nation. Billy Andrade and Brad Faxon have teamed over the years to raise more than $5 million for Andrade-Faxon Charities for Children, assisting at-risk children in Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts. Phil Mickelson, Frank Lickliter II and Rory Sabbatini all contributed more than $400,000 to three funds for injured soldiers during the year. Champions Tour player Jim Thorpe gave his first-place check of $247,500 at the FedEx Kinko's Classic to his home church in Lake Mary, FL, for additional facilities. Champions Tour Player of the Year Dana Quigley gave his second-place earnings of $500,000 in the Charles Schwab Cup to various charities. Tim Clark gave his winner's share of approximately $20,000 at the Nelson Mandela Invitational in South Africa to a deaf girl he had met before the tournament who needed ear surgery. In early 2006, the Tiger Woods Foundation will open the Tiger Woods Learning Center in Anaheim, CA, a state-of-the-art educational facility built at the public course where Woods played his high school golf.

"It put into perspective what life is all about—and it's not about all those putts I'm able to put away or miss at the crucial stages of an event, but life in general," Clark said of his contribution.

In the communities where tournaments take place, giving back remains at the heart of the PGA TOUR.

Champions Tour Tournament Association

The Champions Tour Tournament Association is comprised of Champions Tour tournaments throughout the United States. The CTTA Board of Directors consists of six elected delegates and a past chairman.

The organization, as a body, meets twice annually to review policies and procedures of the Champions Tour, network with peers and attend workshops relative to the business of conducting a Champions Tour event. The CTTA Board of Directors meets a minimum of four times each year, including meetings with PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem, Champions Tour President Rick George and other staff members, the Champions Tour Player Directors and the Champions Tour Division Board.

The CTTA executive director reports to the Board of Directors and is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the CTTA executive office, which is located in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Responsibilities of the CTTA executive office include, but are not limited to:

- Planning and assisting in conducting all meetings
- Developing and managing surveys

- Working with each committee arm of the association and maintaining the daily communication required of the member tournaments, the CTTA Board of Directors and the Champions Tour.

The CTTA Executive Office address is: 13000 Sawgrass Village Circle, Suite 37, Ponte Vedra Beach, FL 32082, Phone: 904-285-6650, Fax: 904-285-7069

CTTA MISSION STATEMENT

The CTTA mission is to unify and strengthen the relationships among the individual Champions Tour tournaments and to serve as a liaison, to strengthen and unify the tournaments' relationship with the title sponsors and the Champions Tour.

This mission can be accomplished by providing an identity, a voice and vision for the tournaments as a whole and by supplying a constant flow of coordinated information, planning and operational assistance administered in concert with the standards and practices established by the CTTA's Board of Directors and the Champions Tour.

Champions Tour Wives, Inc.

Champions Tour Wives, Inc. is a Florida not-for-profit organization dedicated to helping others through organizations that promote assistance to and benefit women, their families and their many different needs. It is comprised of wives of professional golfers on the Champions Tour and others who support its charitable endeavors.

Since its incorporation in 1994, Champions Tour Wives, Inc. has raised more than $2 million for its various charities. Its fundraising activities have included a NASCAR/Champions Tour pro-am event, publishing a cookbook (These Guys Are Good), and live/silent auctions. In 2005, Champions Tour Wives, Inc. introduced its "Be a Champion" wristbands. The Champions Tour Wives will continue to sell these wristbands into 2006 to generate funds to support various women's and children's charities around the country.

In addition to our fundraising activities, Champions Tour Wives members visit different charities in the communities where the tournaments are held. The wives' charity visits include reading to children in schools, rocking babies in hospital nurseries, making bears for sick children and participating in after-school programs. Champions Tour Wives, Inc. is committed to making a difference in the lives of those who need assistance by working with local tournaments and communities to fulfill its mission.

For more information regarding the Champions Tour Wives, please contact Kirsten Burgess at PGA TOUR headquarters.

Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions

Georgia-Pacific, the "Official Forest Products Provider for the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour" enters its eighth year as title sponsor of the Grand Champions program. In 2006, there will be six Grand Champions events.

The Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition is open to players 60 years of age and older who are entered in the full-field Champions Tour event. Scores posted during the first two rounds of the event (Friday and Saturday) determine the winner of this "tournament within a tournament," with the exception of the season-ending Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship, which is a three-round competition.

The Grand Champions will compete for weekly purses of $175,000, with $30,000 going to the winner at five events in 2006. Each of these Grand Champions events is preceded by a Thursday pro-am, where Georgia-Pacific guests have the opportunity to play a round of golf with legendary professionals. Past and present Grand Champions participants include Isao Aoki, Miller Barber, Billy Casper, Bob Charles, Jim Colbert, Raymond Floyd, Mike Hill, Hale Irwin, John Jacobs, Gene Littler, Bob Murphy, Gary Player, Chi Chi Rodriguez, Jay Sigel, Dave Stockton and Lee Trevino. Don January is the all-time leader, with 35 Grand Champions victories. Mike McCullough won the 2005 money title, with $119,267 in earnings.

Turning 60 and becoming eligible for the 2006 Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition are John Bland, Bob Eastwood, Vicente Fernandez and Hugh Baiocchi.

While Grand Champions earnings do not count toward the Champions Tour official money list, players also are eligible to collect official prize money based on their finishes in the regular tournament. A player has won the Grand Champions event and the regular tournament in the same week six times, most recently at the 2002 Greater Baltimore Classic, when J.C. Snead snapped a seven-year winless streak.

The season-ending Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship will offer a purse of $400,000. The top-16 players on the Grand Champions money list heading into the event will be eligible to compete for the $86,000 first prize. They will be joined by two sponsor invitees.

The First Tee

The First Tee, in cooperation with local communities, develops affordable golf-learning facilities that provide young people of all backgrounds an opportunity to develop, through golf and character-education, life-enhancing values such as honesty, integrity and sportsmanship.

Key to The First Tee's success has been the development of The First Tee Life Skills Experience™, which was created by a team of experts in the field of youth development. Through this Experience, participants learn valuable lessons, such as: the importance of maintaining a positive attitude; how to make decisions by thinking about the possible consequences; how to define and set goals; and how to transfer the inherently positive values of golf from the course to everyday life.

A recent study by the University of Florida and the University of Nevada-Las Vegas showed that The First Tee Life Skills Experience is having a positive impact on its participants. Multiple measures of research, including written tests and parental observations, revealed that The First Tee participants improved in their knowledge and use of life skills through exposure to the program. More than 74 percent of the parents whose children participated in The First Tee Life Skills Experience Research observed improvements in their child's communication skills, confidence and display of responsibility. More than half of the parents reported that the Life Skills Experience had a positive impact on their child's school grades and social abilities.

In furtherance of its mission to impact the lives of young people, The First Tee has created a Scholars Program that offers leadership and general scholarships to qualified participants. The young people who receive the designation of The First Tee Scholar have demonstrated outstanding leadership skills, scholastic achievement and commitment to their Chapters and communities.

The First Tee was established in 1997 with the support of five of the world's leading golf organizations; the PGA of America, the Ladies Professional Golf Association, the PGA TOUR, Augusta National Golf Club and the United States Golf Association.

Through unprecedented support from the golf industry and others, including cities, counties and states that have donated land for the purpose of developing golf-learning facilities, The First Tee has opened over 215 facilities worldwide and has touched the lives of more than 600,000 young people since 2000.

The First Tee has a very bright and exciting future. The impact of The First Tee is assured because of the extraordinary commitment of the Chapter volunteers and staff, combined with the local businesses and political leaders in each community who have embraced it.

Golf 20/20: Vision for the Future

In November 2000, senior members of the golf industry came together at World Golf Village for a conference called GOLF 20/20: Vision for the Future, and embarked on an unprecedented collaborative effort to enhance the future of the game. The spirit of unity was so strong, and the commitment to make a difference so universal, that the decision was made to address some very specific issues and to make GOLF 20/20 an ongoing industry effort.

GOLF 20/20 is a World Golf Foundation initiative that was started with the following stated mission: To align the golf industry behind a plan that addresses the future of golf in a strategic manner, with an emphasis on accelerating growth and participation and creating new avenues of access into the game. The focus of the conference was not only on participation but also on interest.

Among the accomplishments of GOLF 20/20 over its first five years are the following:

Research—20/20 has undertaken a number of unprecedented research projects, including golf's largest segmentation study ever in 2001; a study quantifying golf's annual economy at $62 billion; and in 2005 two studies focusing on golf's best customers.

Program Incubation — GOLF 20/20 has successfully piloted a number of programs. The first was Link Up 2 Golf in the summer of 2001; this adult player development program is now an integral part of the PGA of America's Play Golf America program. In 2003, 20/20 created the National School Golf Program, a unique approach to introducing elementary school kids to the game through the physical education structure; that program is now under the management of The First Tee. This past year 20/20 created Women's Golf Week, which took place in June at 230 facilities across the country and impacted 10,000 women; the 2006 goals are 500 facilities and 25,000 women.

Industry Alliances — GOLF 20/20 not only brings industry leaders together each fall to discuss relevant issues, but it has helped foster a number of important alliances within the industry. 20/20 partners with the USGA and its Foundation on the creation of juniorlinks.com, the ultimate junior golf website; it has partnered with the PGA of America on the creation and promotion of Play Golf America.

Communication—In June, 2005, GOLF 20/20 relaunched its Web site, golf2020.com, with updated content including all research and report, and a new section that, in concert with the PGA and Play Golf America, presents best practices relating to the growth of the game. There is no shortage of creative ideas that can enhance a golf facility's ability to generate additional revenue while creating new players or encouraging more frequent play from existing players, and now there is one location where those ideas are available. The Web site also contains all GOLF 20/20 research and other information of value to those with an interest in ensuring the future vitality of golf.

The GOLF 20/20 Executive Board:

Leigh Bader, President, 3balls.com
Joe Louis Barrow, Executive Director, The First Tee

Hualalai: First PGA TOUR Resort

Hualalai is as unique as it is exclusive, an oceanside resort that provides the total vacation experience. Featuring a five-star Four Seasons hotel, its amenities include an outstanding Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course carved from the dramatic lava landscape, a tennis facility with eight championship courts, a health and wellness center and white-sand beach. Complementing the quality of facilities is the quality of service, preserving the warm ambience of "Old Hawaii."

The exclusivity of Hualalai is consistent with the very nature of the MasterCard Championship. This Champions Tour tournament, held for the first time at Hualalai in January 1997, is an elite gathering of Champions Tour winners from recent seasons.

A PGA TOUR RESORT:

A designated PGA TOUR Resort provides the highest quality in a total resort facility: five-star accommodations and a championship golf course capable of holding a TOUR event and other outstanding amenities, such as tennis facilities, health spa and beach.

A PGA TOUR Resort will receive special promotion by the TOUR and be utilized as a destination for certain TOUR business functions.

PGA TOUR LINKS

The PGA TOUR Links program is the technological solution that brings together PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour members, PGA TOUR staff, player managers and tournament organizations. Along with IBM, the PGA TOUR's technology partner, the PGA TOUR and its players work together to design a solution that fits their communication needs.

As part of the TOUR Links program, each player receives a ThinkPad computer and access to the players-only intranet site from anywhere in the world. Within the site, players are able to view vital PGA TOUR announcements, tournament information, tee times and conduct statistical analysis. Players are also able to commit to tournaments, make hotel reservations, reply to surveys and vote in player elections and annual awards.

To date, more than 700 players have participated in PGA TOUR Links. The players have cited the program as the most efficient form of communication. As the program enters its eighth year, it continues to evolve to meet changing technological advances and player needs.

PGA TOUR Productions

PGA TOUR Productions is the television, film and video production company of the PGA TOUR.

With more than 160 hours of PGA TOUR programming appearing on ABC, CBS, NBC, ESPN, USA Network, The Golf Channel and Fox Sports Net, PGA TOUR Productions is the world's leading golf production company. Network shows have included "Jack Nicklaus—Golf's Greatest Champion," "PGA TOUR Fore Kids" and the second season of the reality series "PGA TOUR 18: Golf's Ultimate Road Trip." A special presentation honoring the TOUR's milestone of raising $1 billion for charity titled "Thanks A Billion," presented by AstraZeneca, was hosted by actor/comedian George Lopez.

In addition to its network specials and popular weekly and monthly series, PGA TOUR Productions is an industry leader which also produces award-winning commercial advertising, infomercials and corporate, entertainment and sales videos.

This year, "Inside the PGA TOUR" enters its 22nd season, continuing its run as golf's longest-running weekly series. In its fifth season on The Golf Channel, "Inside the PGA TOUR" features players serving as show hosts who offer their own unique perspective into life on TOUR.

"PGA TOUR Sunday" on USA returns for its fourth successful season, with host Fran Charles, Golf World's Tim Rosaforte and various player analysts. In 2005 the show earned its first Emmy Award nomination. The live pre-game studio show combines in-depth analysis and lifestyle features that have highlighted Hollywood stars such as Will Smith, Kevin Dillon of HBO's "Entourage," Samuel L. Jackson and Shia LaBeouf who appeared in "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

In addition, the PGA TOUR Productions' studio will once again be the host-anchor location for all of USA Network's coverage of 31 early round tournament telecasts.

PGA TOUR Productions serves a worldwide clientele by producing, in conjunction with the networks, international telecasts of PGA TOUR events. The PGA TOUR international feed serves South and Central America, South Africa, Europe and Asia. Telecasts and other programming are distributed to more than 140 countries, translated into 32 languages and available to more than 200 million homes around the world.

PGA TOUR Productions is housed in a 32,000-square-foot digital facility adjacent to the World Golf Hall of Fame, just off Interstate 95 in St. Augustine, FL. Along with the latest in television and communications technology, Productions owns the world's most extensive golf-footage archive.

ShotLink

The PGA TOUR has collaborated with IBM, the TOUR's Official Worldwide Information Technology Partner, on the PGA TOUR ShotLink System. The ShotLink System is a revolutionary platform for collecting and disseminating scoring and statistical data on every shot by every player in real-time during every tournament round. This data asset creates improved live coverage and more meaningful analysis. The new data creates great potential to enhance entertainment and image of the sport across all platforms.

The development of ShotLink started in 1997 when the TOUR decided to update its current scoring system, which was based on 1987 technology. The TOUR, in conjunction with IBM, conducted an extensive review process to formulate its strategy for the development and implementation of ShotLink. Following an evaluation of more than 30 companies, additional technology and implementation partners were identified: Information and Display Systems (IDS), Palm, Electronic Arts, Daktronics and two mapping vendors: GeoGolf and Geodetic Services. IBM provided overall project management, consulting services and server and networking technologies. ShotLink was introduced during the 2001 Buick Classic and represents the TOUR's scoring system for the future.

The accumulation, packaging and presentation of expanded shot and course information provides the basis for numerous fan enhancements. Current uses of ShotLink data include:

- Enhanced graphics and statistics in television broadcasts
- Expanded information and statistics for use by media

- Powering on-site and PGATOUR.com tournament leaderboards
- Providing on-site media and hospitality access to live tournament information through Tournament Tracker, developed by IBM
- Powering the Emmy Award-winning TOURCast application on PGATOUR.com, which launched in 2003
- Powering PGA TOUR Mobile Link and TOURCast Mobile, the PGA TOUR's wireless application for use on PDAs and cell phones
- Analysis of how each golf course is played to assist in course setup and in design changes
- Increased data mining to create more interesting entertainment and insights on how the game is played across all platforms on PGATOUR.com today

In addition to current uses, ShotLink provides unlimited potential to develop fan enhancements and products over the next several years, including:

- Enhanced and interactive television
- On-site wireless and kiosk applications for tournament patrons
- Internet, PC and console games

Besides fan enhancements, ShotLink creates an ongoing historical archive of statistical information. This information is available to players through the PGA TOUR Links program, also built by IBM.

The ShotLink data is collected by volunteers utilizing a combination of Palm handheld devices and laser range finders. Each week a team of approximately 350 volunteers dedicate approximately three man years of effort to perform this data collection. In the course of the entire season, more than 10,000 volunteers contribute to the success of this program.

Tournament Players Clubs

The PGA TOUR's Tournament Players Club network has maintained a reputation for operating high-quality clubs since its inception 25 years ago. The TPC network continues to grow, with more than 30 facilities currently open or under construction.

TPCs encompass all forms of golf related operations—resort facilities, corporate/private membership clubs and daily fee courses—and, as such, PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties, Inc. is able to match the type of facility with the demands of each market in which a club operates.

The network represents the highest standard in the golf course industry, commensurate with the members of the organization it represents, the players of the PGA TOUR. Each Tournament Players Club embodies the trademark of excellence first established with the flagship TPC at Sawgrass, which opened its world-famous Stadium Course in the fall of 1980 in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL. This commitment to overall excellence serves as the foundation for the network's overall success.

The TPC network was born through former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman's desire to provide TOUR players with quality golf courses that also would offer spectators enhanced viewing areas. Beman also reasoned that development of quality facilities would alleviate the TOUR's dependency on the television dollar, while providing rent-free venues for tournaments. The savings in rent, in turn, would generate both increased purses and greater charitable contributions by the tournaments held at TPCs.

The TPC at Sawgrass was the first Tournament Players Club to hold a PGA TOUR event, becoming the permanent home of THE PLAYERS Championship in 1982. In 2005, 16 tournaments were conducted on TPC courses, bringing the total number of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events held at TPC facilities to 252.

The TPC at Sawgrass will be refurbished in 2006, with the fairways being redone and the greens rebuilt to create a "fast, firm and fair" course in time for the 2007 PLAYERS. A new, larger clubhouse will also be built.

Many of the top golf course architects are connected with Tournament Players Club projects, including Pete Dye, Tom Fazio, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Tom Weiskopf, Greg Norman, Bob Von Hagge and D.A. Weibring. The Tournament Players Club of Boston, which opened in 2002, was the fourth TPC course designed by Palmer Course Design Co. Weiskopf has designed his second TPC course for the new Tournament Players Club at Craig Ranch near Dallas, TX, which opened in the fall of 2004.

Moreover, in recognizing the importance of player input for tournament courses, TOUR members have served as design consultants, working closely with the lead architect. Hal Sutton, for instance, is currently serving as the player design consultant on the Tournament Players Club at Treviso Bay (Naples, FL), which will open in early 2007, while Steve Elkington was the player consultant and Kelly Gibson the associate player consultant working with architect Pete Dye on the Tournament Players Club of Louisiana in New Orleans, which opened in April 2004.

The TPC of San Antonio, scheduled to break ground this year, will be a 36-hole facility. Pete Dye and Norman will be the architects, and Sergio Garcia and Bruce Lietzke will be the player consultants of the course.

Postponement and Weather Guidelines

Postponement and Bad-Weather Guidelines

If, in the judgment of the tournament director, adverse weather conditions or any other occurrence or condition beyond the control of PGA TOUR renders commencement or continuation of tournament play inadvisable, play shall be postponed until such time as the tournament director, after consultation with the tournament, determines that such weather conditions or other occurrence have improved sufficiently for play to commence or resume, provided that:

The completion of no such tournament shall be extended beyond Sunday of tournament week*, except that if at least half the field has completed play prior to the postponement or if a playoff is necessary to determine the tournament winner, the final round may be completed on Monday.

Notwithstanding the above, if at least half the field has not completed play prior to the postponement of a Sunday round, play shall not be resumed unless, in the judgment of the tournament director, the entire field can reasonably be expected to complete the round on Sunday.

In the event of cancellation of any part of a tournament, prize money shall be distributed among the lowest scorers after the last completed round of play in the same number, amounts and order as for the originally scheduled number of holes. If a tournament is shortened to not less than two stipulated rounds and there is a tie for first place, there will be a playoff at a convenient time as determined by the tournament director. The tournament will be considered official (e.g., for purposes of determining official money, official win, etc.) if at least two stipulated rounds have been played.

Bad-Weather Guidelines

For implementation at the JELD-WEN Tradition, the Ford Senior Players Championship and Charles Schwab Cup Championship, the following guidelines will be utilized by the Champions Tour Tournament Director in the decision-making process:

- The first priority will be the completion of 72 holes. Every effort will be made to finish each round as scheduled by Sunday.
- In order to make every effort to achieve this objective by Sunday, the tournament director is provided the discretion to extend any day's play beyond the standard 18-hole round.
- If conditions exist which prevent 72 holes from being completed by Sunday, play will always be extended to Monday if golf course conditions and weather forecast permit.
- If conditions exist which make the completion of 72 holes impossible, the next priority is to complete 54 holes. Again, play in this situation will always be extended to Monday if course conditions and weather permit.
- If conditions exist which make the completion of 54 holes impossible, the next priority is to complete 36 holes so the winner is credited with an official victory.
- In the event of a suspension during a Monday final round, the completion of the tournament shall not be extended to Tuesday, except that if at least half the field has completed play prior to postponement or if a playoff is necessary to determine the tournament winner. Notwithstanding the above, if at least half the field has not completed play prior to the postponement, play shall not be resumed unless, in the judgment of the tournament director, the entire field can reasonably be expected to complete the Monday round.

* The JELD-WEN Tradition, Ford Senior Players Championship and Charles Schwab Cup Championship are exceptions to these guidelines.

World Golf Foundation

World Golf Foundation, a not-for-profit, 501(c) 3 organization, was created in 1994 to unite the golf industry and those who love the game. The board supports initiatives that promote, enhance the growth of, and provide access to the game of golf, while preserving golf's traditional values and passing them on to others.

There are four initiatives under the umbrella of the World Golf Foundation: the World Golf Hall of Fame, The First Tee, GOLF 20/20: Vision for the Future and the National Minority Golf Foundation. Each initiative has its own mission to enhance the game of golf's history, present and future.

World Golf Hall of Fame—Conceptualized in the late 1980s and open since 1998, it is committed to preserving golf's rich heritage, honoring the great players and contributors to the sport and setting the stage for future generations to learn about and enjoy the game. Members are honored in the 75,000 square-foot museum located at the World Golf Village in St. Augustine, FL.

The First Tee—Announced in November 1997, The First Tee is dedicated to providing affordable access to golf and strives to instill in young people life-enhancing values such as honesty, integrity, sportsmanship and respect. These values are seamlessly taught through The First Tee Life Skills Experience™, one of the unique features that differentiates The First Tee from many other successful junior golf programs. The intent is to offer opportunities for improvement in the quality of life and create a platform where children can increase their potential for success. The First Tee partners with local not-for-profit entities and municipalities to form The First Tee Chapters, which are responsible for developing The First Tee golf-learning facilities. Currently, there are more than 215 open facilities spanning 40 states and five countries, including Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand and Singapore.

GOLF 20/20: Vision for the Future—Initiated in 1999, it is devoted to aligning the golf industry behind a plan that addresses the future of golf in a strategic manner, with an emphasis on accelerating growth and participation and creating new avenues of access into the game.

National Minority Golf Foundation—Coming under the World Golf Foundation umbrella in 2001, it is primarily focused on developing career opportunities in golf for individuals of all backgrounds.

World Golf Hall of Fame

Open since 1998, the World Golf Hall of Fame is the ultimate destination for the celebration and recognition of golf's greatest players and contributors and serves as an inspiration to golfers and fans worldwide. Supported by all of the world's leading golf organizations, the Hall of Fame combines historic artifacts and personal memorabilia with interactive exhibits to tell the stories of the Hall of Fame members and the history of the game. The World Golf Hall of Fame is located at World Golf Village in St. Augustine, FL.

The Museum

Guests of the World Golf Hall of Fame will be greeted with the fascinating and comprehensive tale of golf's history and its development from the cradle in Scotland through its growth to the far reaches of the world. An exhibit in this area focuses on the role of The Royal & Ancient, the history of the British Open, golf's longest-running major, and the Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews.

The Hall of Fame members' stories are referenced throughout the museum, though their true home is in the center of the museum, Shell Hall, named for the Hall of Fame's founding partner, Shell Oil Company. An extraordinary "Wall of Fame" donning hand-crafted bronze relief plaques of each member extends an entire wall, representing the current 109 members. And, guests can search for statistics, sound bites, photographs and video clips in a comprehensive database developed by our technology partner, IBM.

As a fitting tribute to the highest achievement in golf, significant tournament trophies, including men's and women's majors, are artfully displayed in the Hall of Fame Tower. A locker room showcases memorabilia from many of the members, and guests have the opportunity to sink a long putt on a modern tournament-style putting green under the lights and cameras of a Shell's Wonderful World of Golf match. Video is featured throughout the museum, including the multi-screen experience called "Spirit of the Game" and a theater offering great championship moment highlights.

Special Exhibits

The World Golf Hall of Fame opens various temporary exhibits throughout the year, many featuring its members. A major exhibit opens each spring, during THE PLAYERS Championship, and at each year's Fall Induction Ceremony, when special displays highlighting the current year's class is unveiled.

Avenues for Induction

There are five avenues for a player or contributor to enter the World Golf Hall of Fame: PGA TOUR/Champions Tour ballot, International ballot, LPGA Point System, Lifetime Achievement category and Veteran's category.

Various criteria is set up for players to be eligible for the PGA TOUR/Champions Tour and International ballots, including an age requirement of at least 40 years old and a necessary performance that includes a substantial amount of regular tournament majors and victories.

The LPGA Point System requires a player to be an active member of the LPGA Tour for 10 years and to have won either an LPGA major tournament, Vare Trophy or Rolex Player of the Year honors, plus a number of other tournament victories.

Nominations for the Lifetime Achievement category are made by the international voting body members. The category is designed for any male or female supporter of the sport whose primary role in the game has come outside the playing arena. The World Golf Foundation Board of Directors' Selection Committee decides this category each year.

Any male or female professional or amateur whose career concluded at least 30 years ago is eligible for selection through the Veteran's category. The World Golf Foundation Board of Directors' Selection Committee also determines this category each year.

Founding Partner

As sole founding partner of World Golf Hall of Fame, Shell Oil Company provides financial support to the World Golf Foundation and supports its charitable initiatives aimed at introducing golf to young people, thereby promoting scholastic achievement, community service and those values intrinsic to the game of golf.

World Golf Village

The World Golf Hall of Fame is located at World Golf Village, a 6,300-acre golf resort and residential community located 10 minutes northwest of historic St. Augustine, FL, and 30 minutes south of Jacksonville. Named one of the "Top 75 Golf Resorts" in the United States by Golf Digest, World Golf Village draws guests from all over the United States and from around the world, offering a wide variety of recreational, entertainment, corporate meeting and residential options.

As the centerpiece of the Village, the World Golf Hall of Fame celebrates and recognizes the game's greatest players and contributors and serves as an inspiration to fans worldwide. The Hall of Fame features personal memorabilia and special exhibits highlighting its members, as well as historical and interactive displays that enable visitors to see and experience some of golf's most exciting aspects. Part of the Hall of Fame experience includes a round on the 18-hole natural grass putting course and a film at the adjacent IMAX® Theater, which offers a variety of films that are both educational and entertaining on an 80-foot-wide by 6-story-high screen.

World Golf Village championship golf courses include King & Bear, the only course co-designed by World Golf Hall of Fame members Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, and the Slammer & Squire, built by Bobby Weed with design consultants Sam Snead and Gene Sarazen, also World Golf Hall of Fame members. Both courses, which have hosted 10 nationally televised broadcasts, combine challenging obstacles with playability for all levels of golfers.

The PGA TOUR Golf Academy offers private lessons, clinics and golf schools by top-rated instructors, including Director of Instruction Scott Sackett, a Golf Magazine Top 100 Teacher, who incorporates three teaching and video analysis systems into the lessons.

PGA TOUR Spa Laterra—the first such facility to bear the PGA TOUR name—is located at the King & Bear, at World Golf Village and offers golf-enhancement services and fitness programs comparable to those used on TOUR. The full-service spa, part of the Laterra resort community, offers signature treatments and full, half and multi-day packages.

Dining options along the Walk of Champions include Murray Bros. Caddyshack, the flagship restaurant of actor-golfer Bill Murray and his five brothers, and Augustinos, an Italian steakhouse. PGA TOUR STOP, one of the largest golf stores in the country, anchors the retail area of World Golf Village. Also along the Walk of Champions, which is a half-mile track featuring engraved Hall of Fame member signatures in granite, guests can attempt to hit a ball 132 yards to the Challenge Hole's island green.

Accommodations at World Golf Village include the flagship Renaissance Resort at World Golf Village, a 10-story resort that features 301 guest rooms and the adjacent St. Johns County Convention Center. Grande Villas at World Golf Village, a Bluegreen Vacation Club resort, offers country club vacation homes that overlook the 17th and 18th holes of Slammer & Squire golf course. Laterra Resort & Spa offers 72 well-appointed condominiums with immediate access to the adjacent PGA TOUR Spa.

The Neighborhoods of World Golf Village offer distinctive residential communities that blend world-class amenities with the convenience of shopping, healthcare, entertainment, first-rate schools and incredible golf. Each neighborhood offers individual amenities such as pools and recreational facilities.

Regulations – Media

The following regulations are to be followed by all members of the media:

1. A daily decal is necessary to walk inside the gallery ropes. All members of the media with such decal must remain not more than an arm's length from the ropes, so as to blend into the gallery and appear to be a part of the gallery at all times.
2. Players are not to be distracted during play. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their rounds.
3. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their practice sessions before a round, except by prior arrangement with the player.
4. If an interview is to be conducted in the practice areas, either the range or the putting green, it must be done by prior arrangement with the player, up against the ropes and not in the middle of the areas where it could be distracting to other players.
5. Do not disturb players at their 18th green and/or scoring tent until after they have checked, signed and returned their scorecards. Media are not allowed in the scoring tent.

WORKING PRESS REGULATIONS

To avoid embarrassment to you and distraction to the contestants:

1. Do not walk or stand in playing areas.
2. Follow directions of marshals and other officials.
3. Do not interview during play. The leading players each day — and others requested — will be interviewed following their rounds in the Press Room interview area.

TAPE RECORDER REGULATIONS

1. All audio recording device and/or video recorder work should be done in the proximity of the press room, media center and/or interview room.
2. Video Recorders are not permitted in the locker room. Audio recording devices are permitted in the locker rooms subject to the following regulations:
 - Audio recorded interviews are intended to be one-on-one and not group interviews.
 - Audio recorded interviews are for reference only and the audio cannot be used for any other purpose.
 - The reporter must clearly ask a player, and permission must be granted, in order for the audio recording device to be used.
 - The reporter is responsible for making other players in the vicinity aware that an interview is being recorded.

- PGA TOUR staff may designate, depending upon need and availability, an area within the locker room for the purpose of conducting interviews that are recorded.
 - Use of audio recorded interviews must be limited to the person being interviewed.
3. Audio recording devices and/or video recorders are not permitted within the playing area of the golf course unless written permission has been granted from PGA TOUR.

WEATHER DELAY GUIDELINES

1. During weather-delay situations, no one other than players and essential staff will be permitted in the locker room. This means the media are not permitted in the locker room in such situations. However, whenever possible, arrangements will be made to provide players for interviews during such situations.
2. Fully accredited members of the news media will be welcome in the locker room at all other times to carry out their assigned duties. (Note: Cameras and tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.)

The media person set forth below and the News Agency set forth below shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organizations and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the media person set forth below.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

Regulations – On-Line Services

Media credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized golf or legitimate news Internet sites, as determined by PGA TOUR in its sole discretion. Coverage obtained in accordance with these regulations can only be used on the credentialed website. Individuals representing multiple interests (such as a recognized golf magazine and an internet site) must agree to be bound by all applicable media regulations.

PGA TOUR retains exclusive media rights (including but not limited to network, cable, Internet, home video) to all events on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. No audio or video coverage of the event competition is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR. All other audio and video coverage must comply with the regulations below. Scores and statistics may be distributed only in accordance with these regulations.

1. Coverage must be part of the news portion of the Internet site identified below (the "Credentialed Site") and must not purport to be live, play-by-play or real-time coverage from the course.
2. Audio and video coverage shall be limited to those areas designated by PGA TOUR (e.g., press room, media center and interview room) and shall not contain video footage or audio call of tournament play. Requests for expanded coverage must be submitted in writing to PGA TOUR for PGA TOUR's prior approval.
3. Audio or video coverage from PGA TOUR designated areas shall not be in excess of three minutes per day from each Tour (and six minutes total for all three Tours).
4. Audio and video coverage shall not be made available on the Credentialed Site until that day's live or tape-delayed coverage by the television network is concluded and shall not be used for any purpose after 48 hours following the conclusion of the applicable tournament.
5. As the exclusive rights holder, PGA TOUR is the absolute owner of all video footage shot and audio recorded at the tournament site (golf action or other footage) and may request copies of any footage shot or audio recorded at PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events. Such footage and audio will be provided electronically to PGA TOUR immediately upon request.
6. Scoring and statistical information may only appear in the editorial news portion of the Credentialed Site and may be provided no sooner than 30 minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots, or after the time such information is legally available as public information if sooner than thirty minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots. Scoring and statistical information may not be archived on the Credentialed Site and cannot be used for any purpose after 48 hours following the conclusion of the applicable tournament unless such information is legally available as public information.
7. No coverage, including, without limitation, scoring information, statistical information, video coverage and audio coverage may be used by, sold, given, distributed or otherwise transferred to any party other than the Credentialed Site in any manner whatsoever, without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR.
8. Photographic images of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour players may be used on the Credentialed Site for legitimate news coverage only, and may be used together with news stories during the day's play, so long as such photographs are not used with other real-time or near-real-time information to create a "shot-by-shot" account of the day's play. Commercial exploitation of these images without written consent of the players and PGA TOUR is prohibited.

9. The Credentialed Site has rights only with respect to website media and has no rights with respect to any other media (including, without limitation, cellular or wireless devices) without the prior approval of the PGA TOUR.

TAPE RECORDER REGULATIONS

1. All audio recording device and/or video recorder work should be done in the proximity of the press room, media center and/or interview room.
2. Video Recorders are not permitted in the locker room. Audio recording devices are permitted in the locker rooms subject to the following regulations:
 - Audio recorded interviews are intended to be one-on-one and not group interviews.
 - Audio recorded interviews are for reference only and the audio cannot be used for any other purpose.
 - The reporter must clearly ask a player, and permission must be granted, in order for the audio recording device to be used.
 - The reporter is responsible for making other players in the vicinity aware that an interview is being recorded.
 - PGA TOUR staff may designate, depending upon need and availability, an area within the locker room for the purpose of conducting interviews that are recorded.
 - Use of audio recorded interviews must be limited to the person being interviewed.
3. Audio recording devices and/or video recorders are not permitted within the playing area of the golf course unless written permission has been granted from PGA TOUR.

The media person set forth below and the Internet Site set forth below shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organizations and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the media person set forth below.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

Regulations – Photography

Photo credentials will be issued only to photographers on assignment from recognized and accredited publications, news services and other organizations approved in advance by the PGA TOUR. Requests for photo credentials must be made by the appropriate publisher, news agency or organization and not by the photographer. The credentialed entity has rights only with respect to photography and has no rights with respect to any other media without obtaining the proper and valid credentials for such media.

Photographs taken at any PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour tournament may not be commercially exploited in any manner without the prior written consent of the PGA TOUR and the applicable course(s) and player(s).

Photographic likenesses of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour players and tournament courses may be used for legitimate news coverage only unless approved by the PGA TOUR. Where appropriate, the credentialed publications and news services shall use reasonable efforts to use photographic likenesses of players and tournament courses containing current sponsors and endorsers.

Credentialed photographers will receive one of two types of photo credentials. A limited number of inside the ropes photo credentials will be issued daily by the PGA TOUR Media Official on site and will permit the wearer access inside the ropes. Photographers who do not have an inside the ropes photo credential must stay outside the gallery ropes but are still required to check in with the on site PGA TOUR Media Official to receive the proper outside the ropes photo credential. Photographic assistants will not be issued photo credentials of any type.

Professional grade cameras and lenses must be used and may be used only by accredited media representatives who have been issued photo credentials, and such use is subject to the following conditions:

1. Photographers with inside the ropes photo credentials must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. Photographers without inside the ropes photo credentials are not permitted inside the ropes at any time.
2. Photographers are not permitted on the teeing ground, as determined by PGA TOUR.

3. The use of carts is prohibited at all times.
4. Photographers must not position themselves in the line of play. If requested to move by a player, his caddie or an official, the photographer will do so without delay or discussion.
5. No photograph shall be taken until a player has completed his stroke.
6. Players should not be asked to pose during a round.
7. Noise-free equipment must be used at all times.
8. Cameras are not permitted in the scoring tent or in the locker rooms.
9. The credentialed entity has rights only with respect to photography and has no rights with respect to any other media without obtaining the proper and valid credentials for such media.

The Photographer set forth below and the Requesting Organization set forth below shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organization and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorneys fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the Photographer set forth below or the use of any photographs other than as set forth in these Photography Regulations.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

Regulations – Print

Media credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized and accredited publications, as determined by PGA TOUR in its sole discretion. Individuals representing multiple interests (such as a recognized golf magazine and an Internet site) must agree to be bound by all applicable media regulations.

PGA TOUR retains exclusive media rights to all events on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour.

1. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be permitted into the media center and locker room areas.
2. Players shall not be interviewed during play or after the round until the player has signed his scorecard.
3. Coverage shall be only for the News Agency set forth below and may not be sold or distributed to any other entity or party.
4. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
5. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be allowed inside the gallery ropes, and they must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. All support personnel must remain outside the ropes.
6. The credentialed entity has rights only with respect to print publication media and has no rights with respect to any other media without obtaining the proper and valid credentials for such media.

TAPE RECORDER REGULATIONS

1. All tape recorder work should be done in the proximity of the press room, media center and/or interview room.
2. Video Recorders are not permitted in the locker room. Audio recording devices are permitted in the locker rooms subject to the following regulations:
 - Audio recorded interviews are intended to be one-on-one and not group interviews.
 - Audio recorded interviews are for reference only and the audio cannot be used for any other purpose.

- The reporter must clearly ask a player, and permission must be granted, in order for the audio recording device to be used.
 - The reporter is responsible for making other players in the vicinity aware that an interview is being recorded.
 - PGA TOUR staff may designate, depending upon need and availability, an area within the locker room for the purpose of conducting interviews that are recorded.
 - Use of audio recorded interviews must be limited to the person being interviewed.
3. Audio recording devices and/or video recorders are not permitted within the playing area of the golf course unless written permission has been granted from PGA TOUR.

The media person set forth below and the News Agency set forth below shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organizations and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the media person set forth below.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

Regulations – Radio

PGA TOUR retains exclusive media rights (including, but not limited to, broadcast, cable, home video, Internet) to all events on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. No live or tape-delayed broadcast of any portion of any PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour event is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR.

All radio media are permitted to broadcast highlights coverage of such events only under the following conditions, unless otherwise approved in writing by PGA TOUR:

1. Coverage shall not be in excess of three minutes of highlights per day and may not purport to be live, play-by-play coverage from the course.
2. All highlights coverage must be part of regularly scheduled news programs and may not be broadcast after 48 hours from the conclusion of the applicable tournament.
3. Live coverage or reporting in excess of three minutes per day from a tournament site, including, without limitation, the course, media center, press room and interview room, is prohibited without the prior approval of PGA TOUR.
4. As the exclusive rightsholder, PGA TOUR may request copies of any coverage of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events. Such coverage will be provided to PGA TOUR upon request (PGA TOUR will pay industry standard copying and shipping costs).
5. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
6. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be permitted into the media center and locker room areas.
7. Radio broadcasters are not permitted inside the gallery ropes at any time.
8. Broadcasters are not permitted to talk to players during play or after the round until the player has signed his scorecard.
9. Broadcasters shall not sell, distribute or syndicate any highlights coverage to any third party without PGA TOUR's prior approval.
10. The credentialed entity has rights only with respect to radio broadcast and has no rights with respect to any other media (including, without limitation, audio via the Internet) without obtaining the proper and valid credentials for such media.

TAPE RECORDER REGULATIONS

1. All audio recording device and/or video recorder work should be done in the proximity of the press room, media center and/or interview room.
2. Video Recorders are not permitted in the locker room. Audio recording devices are permitted in the locker rooms subject to the following regulations:

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

Regulations – Television

PGA TOUR retains exclusive media rights (including, but not limited to, broadcast, cable, home video, Internet) to all events on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. No live or tape-delayed broadcast of any portion of any PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour event is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR. Coverage obtained by the credentialed entity below in accordance with these regulations can only be used by the credentialed entity for its television coverage and only with respect to television media. The credentialed entity has no rights with respect to any other media without obtaining the proper and valid credentials for such media.

All television media are permitted to broadcast highlights coverage of such events only under the following conditions unless otherwise approved in writing by PGA TOUR:

1. Televised coverage shall not be in excess of three minutes of highlights daily from each Tour (and six minutes total for all three Tours) and may not purport to be live, play-by-play coverage from the course. Requests for expanded coverage must be submitted in writing to PGA TOUR.
2. All highlights coverage must be part of regularly scheduled news programs. Highlights may not be sold, distributed, syndicated or provided in any manner to any other entity.
3. Highlights from any day's play may not be broadcast or used for any other purpose after 48 hours from the conclusion of the applicable tournament.
4. No action footage of any day's play may be broadcast until that day's live or tape-delayed coverage by the television network is concluded.
5. Live coverage or reporting in excess of three minutes per day from a tournament site, including, without limitation, the course, media center, press room and interview room, is prohibited without the prior approval of PGA TOUR.
6. No footage may be used in any commercial manner or sold, distributed, syndicated or provided to any other entity or agency.
7. As the exclusive rights holder, PGA TOUR is the absolute owner of all footage shot at the tournament site (golf action or other footage) and may request copies of any footage shot at PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events. Such footage will be provided to PGA TOUR upon request (PGA TOUR will pay industry standard copying and shipping costs).
8. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
9. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be permitted into the media center and locker room areas.
10. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be allowed inside the gallery ropes, and they must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. All support personnel must remain outside the ropes.
11. All uses of footage hereunder shall be made with a courtesy credit to PGA TOUR.

TAPE RECORDER REGULATIONS

Edward L. Moorhouse

Executive Vice President
and Co-Chief Operating Officer

Edward L. Moorhouse is Executive Vice President and Co-Chief Operating Officer of the PGA TOUR. He previously served as the TOUR's General Counsel and later as Chief Legal Officer.

Among his areas of responsibility are Legal Affairs, Business Development, Communications, Marketing, Retail Licensing, International Federation of PGA Tours, Broadcasting, Television, PGATOUR.COM, New Media and PGA TOUR

Productions. Business aspects of all three TOURs report directly to him.

A 1975 summa cum laude graduate of Georgetown University with a degree in government, Moorhouse received his law degree (JD) with high honors from the University of Florida in 1978.

Moorhouse was a member of the Jacksonville (FL) law firm Smith and Hulse for six years before joining the TOUR as Senior Vice President and Counsel for PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties in 1985.

Charles L. Zink

and Co-Chief Operating Officer

Charles L. Zink joined the PGA TOUR staff in 1986. He is Executive Vice President and Co-Chief Operating Officer after previously serving as Chief Financial Officer.

Zink is responsible for Financial Strategies and Operations, Championship Management and World Golf Championships, Executive and Corporate Affairs, Human Resources, Player/Employee Benefit Plans, Tournament Players Clubs, World

Golf Hall of Fame, The First Tee program and GOLF 20/20.

A 1971 graduate of the University of Maryland in Finance and Business Management, Zink earned a second degree from Maryland in 1975. He is a former member of Maryland's golf team.

Before joining the TOUR staff, Zink served four years as a Lieutenant in the United States Navy and had 11 years of experience with Price Waterhouse and Coopers & Lybrand in both Washington, D.C. and the United Kingdom in large and emerging business, financial management and audit.
