Champions Tour

As we launch another season on the Champions Tour, we wish to thank the media for their ongoing coverage. The Champions Tour staff, players, sponsors, tournament directors and media directors enjoy working with the media and remind you that we are available to assist with your interview requests and informational needs at any time.

The Champions Tour will be hard pressed to top last year's competitive theater. The year-long Charles Schwab Cup was the closest in its six-year history. Jay Haas and Loren Roberts jockeyed for the No. 1 position through the final hole of the year, with Haas prevailing by a mere 20 points.

Indicative of how tight the competition was, Haas and Roberts both won four titles and split season-ending honors. In addition to collecting the Charles Schwab Cup, Haas won the Arnold Palmer Award as leading money winner and finished first in the All-Around Ranking and Birdie Average. Roberts captured the Byron Nelson Award for low scoring average and also led in Putting Average. In the end, Haas edged Roberts for Player of the Year honors.

As competitive as they were on the golf course, their hearts were in the same place when it came to their Charles Schwab Cup payouts. Haas and Roberts made plans to donate their $1 million and $500,000 annuities, respectively, to charities in their hometowns of Greenville, SC, and Memphis, TN—following the footsteps of Allen Doyle, Tom Watson and Dana Quigley.

Haas and Roberts were the headliners in 2006, but the year had many other highlights. Tom Kite, Brad Bryant and Bobby Wadkins each won twice. Former U.S. Ryder Cup team members Jerry Pate and Andy Bean won their first Champions Tour titles in Tampa and Hickory, NC, respectively, with Pate enjoying his signature post-victory swim. At age 63, Raymond Floyd shot his age at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin on Sunday and almost won the event.

Former Player of the Year and Charles Schwab Cup winner Allen Doyle captured his second consecutive U.S. Senior Open title, putting him in position in 2007 to be the first to win it three years in a row. There were four rookie winners in David Edwards, Fred Funk, Eduardo Romero and Scott Simpson, plus one more first-time winner, John Harris. And few who saw it will forget Fuzzy Zoeller's hole-in-one at the Allianz Championship when his tee shot stood motionless on the fringe for 10 seconds before waking up and tracking its way into the hole.

As good as 2006 was, there is every reason to believe 2007 will top it. As the season gets underway the Champions Tour welcomes Mark O'Meara and Nick Price, who turn 50 in January. They will be joined in the following months by Seve Ballesteros (April), Nick Faldo (July), Bernhard Langer (August), Jeff Sluman (September) and John Cook (October), making up what is arguably the Tour's strongest rookie class ever.

The title sponsorship picture on the Champions Tour has never been better. Prior to the start of the 2006 season there were 26 tournament agreements in place through at least 2008, with some extended as far out as 2011. The Champions Tour welcomes three new tournaments in 2007, the Ginn Championship at Hammock Beach in Palm Coast, FL, the Principal Charity Classic in Des Moines, IA, and the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in Endicott, NY, the long-time site of a PGA TOUR event. The Allianz Championship moves to a new home in Boca Raton, FL, and The Old Course at Broken Sound Club.

The venues for the five major championships are collectively the best in Champions Tour history. They include top-tier resorts in Kiawah Island (South Carolina), Whistling Straits (Wisconsin) and Sunriver (Oregon), plus century-old Baltimore Country Club and storied Muirfield in Scotland.

The television picture is a very positive one, with 22 events airing on GOLF CHANNEL and seven others, including all five majors, on ABC, CBS and NBC.

Total prize money is a direct reflection of the Tour's strength. In 2007, the Champions Tour will include 29 tournaments, with a total purse of $54.1 million and a record high average purse of $1.86 million.

Charity continues to perform at high levels on the Champions Tour. Over the last three years, the Tour and its tournaments have averaged $10 million per year in charitable donations.

Thank you again for your coverage and support of the Champions Tour. We look forward to the year ahead and seeing you at a tournament along the way.

Sincerely,

Timothy W. Finchem

We Are The PGA TOUR

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays more than 100 official money tournaments on three Tours – the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, southeast of Jacksonville.

We should never be referred to as the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA (of America). We are the PGA TOUR. On second reference, you can call us the TOUR.

The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, FL.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the PGA TOUR but with their marquee events included on the PGA TOUR schedule as non-PGA TOUR cosponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, NJ, oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (GA) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, oversees the British Open and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf Tour, with 47 official money events from January through November. This year marks a new era for the PGA TOUR with the debut of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the first-ever PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup.

Overview

Formerly the Senior PGA Tour, the Champions Tour is a tax-exempt membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older. Since its inception in 1980 with just four sanctioned events and purses totaling $475,000, the Champions Tour now has 29 official Charles Schwab Cup events offering $54.1 million in official prize money in 2007 and its highest average purse ever of $1.86 million. The Tour has an additional lineup of three Challenge/unofficial-money events that are played in January and December. The Champions Tour operates under the umbrella of the PGA TOUR, which includes the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. The Champions Tour's primary purpose as an entity of the PGA TOUR is to provide significant competitive and earnings opportunities for players age 50 and older; to protect the integrity of the game; and to help grow the reach of the game in the U.S. and around the world. In addition to providing competitive opportunities for its membership, Champions Tour events generate significant sums of money for charity.

History

1980 – 2007. The Tour enters its 28th season in 2007.

Charity

The Champions Tour and its tournaments generate significant sums of money for charity. From 2004 through 2006, the Tour has raised an average of $10 million per year for charity. In October 2005, the three Tours of the PGA TOUR and their tournaments announced they had reached the $1-billion milestone in charitable giving dating back to the first recorded donation in 1938.

2007 Schedule

There are 29 official Charles Schwab Cup events, plus a lineup of three Challenge/unofficial events played in January and December. The Tour will play in 16 states in the U.S., plus Scotland.

Major Championships (5)

Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship, JELD-WEN Tradition, Senior British Open, Senior PGA Championship and U.S. Senior Open.

Prize Money

$54.1 million – Official Charles Schwab Cup (29 events)

$2.77 million – Challenge/Unofficial (3 events)

Charles Schwab Cup

The Charles Schwab Cup, designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player, rewards both top finishes and week-in/week-out consistency in all official events. Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution with $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Double points are awarded at the five major championships and the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The program offers $2.1 million in annuity payouts to its five leading performers, with $1 million to the winner. Jay Haas won the Cup in 2006 by 20 points, the closest competition in its six-year history.

Size of Field

In 2007, the field size for Champions Tour events will be 78 players, except at those tournaments that have specific eligibility criteria. See "Eligibility" below for details of a standard 78-player field.

Eligibility

In order to be eligible for an official Champions Tour event, a player must be at least 50 years of age prior to his first tournament obligation. The field size at the majority of Champions Tour events in 2007 will be 78 players with eligibility requirements modified as follows for standard 78-player fields:

Standard Field Size: 78 players, up to a maximum of 81 players

1. 30 available players — From Prior-Year Money List, floor of 50
2. 30 available players — From All-Time Money List (not exempt in No.1); floor of net 70
3. 4 players — Career Victory Category, ages 50 and 51 (not exempt in Nos. 1 or 2)
4. 5 players — Via Sponsor Exemptions
 - 2 spots restricted — Defined as one PGA TOUR or Champions Tour win and Veteran Member status
 - 3 spots — Unrestricted
5. Event Qualifiers — Available spots up to 9 to fill the field of 78.

Other considerations

Up to two players who finish tied for 10th or better in an official event will be eligible for the following open, full-field event, if not otherwise exempt, reducing the event-qualifying spots accordingly.

Special Medical Extensions — On a space-available basis.

The following players will be added to the field to a maximum of 81 players:

1. Players entering under the Career Victory Category
2. Major Medical Extension — If not in the field of 78 on a space-available basis, they will be added via this category.
3. Tournament Winners not otherwise exempt — When combined with the two categories above, should there be a number of tournament winners not otherwise exempt that would cause the starting field to be above 81 players, the number of event-qualifying positions would be reduced by up to two places first, then reduce tournament sponsor picks (starting with restricted invitees) and event qualifiers again in alternating order.

Current Year Money List: The top four available Champions Tour players, not otherwise exempt, 75th or better on the Current Year Money List shall be provided access into the last four open, full-field tournaments of the year. Event-qualifying spots will be reduced accordingly (i.e., from nine to five available for the last four events).

Alternates: Once all committed and eligible players from the Prior Year and All-Time Money Lists gain access (the floor is reached), plus Special Medical, up to four additional players from event qualifying will be provided spots in the field. Thereafter, Past Champions category, then Veteran Members, will be provided access.

National Qualifying Tournament: The 2007 National Qualifying Tournament National Finals (four rounds, 72 holes) is held annually in November. The top 30 players and ties will be eligible to compete in the weekly event qualifiers where up to nine playing spots will be available in all open, full-field Champions Tour events (see No. 5 above). The Finals are preceded by a set of regional qualifiers.

Membership

Champions Tour members hail from around the globe. In 2007, 26 international players have full or partial Tour exemptions. Thirteen countries are represented including Argentina, Australia, Canada, England, Germany, Ireland, Japan, New Zealand, Puerto Rico, South Africa, Spain, the United States and Zimbabwe.

World Golf Hall of Fame Members

Fan Features

Initiated in 2003, the Champions Tour's Fan Features are designed to give the Tour a distinct identity and complement the high level of skill displayed by its members in tournament play. The Champions Tour seeks to be the most approachable, accessible and fan-friendly arena, not only in golf, but in all of sports. In four years, the program has had significant impact as evidenced by the positive feedback received weekly from tournament promoters, sponsors and fans, with players going out of their way to support the program. Fan Features include live television interviews during play, gallery in the fairway, honorary observers, caddie for a day, player Q&A sessions, hospitality visits, behind-the-scenes tours, a game-improvement platform, and more.

TV

GOLF CHANNEL, available in more than 100 million homes worldwide, is the exclusive cable television home of the Champions Tour. It will provide three-day coverage of 22 events in 2007. GOLF CHANNEL will also re-air all telecasts the same day. NBC will televise five official events, with ABC and CBS airing one each. All five Champions Tour major championships will be on network television, plus the three Challenge events. Thus, every 2007 tournament will be televised in the United States. The coverage summary of the 29 official Charles Schwab Cup tournaments is as follows:

CBS	1

International TV

Outside the United States, the Champions Tour will be broadcast in the United Kingdom, continental Europe, Canada, Middle East, Africa, Japan, Australia and Pan Asia. Beginning in 2007, all Champions Tour events will air pan regionally in Latin America. The events air live, tape-delayed or in a highlights-package format. The amount of coverage for any given event varies from country to country and coverage area to coverage area.

Awards

The Champions Tour presents the following awards annually:

Charles Schwab Cup

Overview

The Charles Schwab Cup is a season-long, points-based competition launched in 2001 to determine the Champions Tour's leading player. The program rewards both consistency and top-10 finishes week-in and week-out at all official/Charles Schwab Cup events.

Prize Money

$2.1-million annuity to the top-five point earners at season's end.

Payouts

1st	$1 million
2nd	$500,000
3rd	$300,000
4th	$200,000
5th	$100,000

Points Distribution

Points are awarded to the top-10 finishers and ties in all official tournaments and are based on the money distribution for each tournament, with every $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. 2006 Recap

Jay Haas was the beneficiary of an uncharacteristic miss of a short putt by Loren Roberts on the 72nd hole of the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship and won the 2006 Charles Schwab Cup. Winning the Cup earned Haas a $1-million annuity from Charles Schwab & Co. Inc. It was the closest race in the six-year history of the competition.

Haas announced at the tournament's closing ceremony he would donate the $1 million to charities in his hometown of Greenville, SC, a gesture similar to those made in recent years by Allen Doyle, Tom Watson and Dana Quigley (see story on page 1-13).

Haas and Roberts see-sawed for the Cup lead much of the final day as they had throughout the 2006 season. There were four lead changes Sunday. Roberts, who was in the final group right behind Haas, assumed the lead with a birdie on the 16th hole. He came to the 18th hole with a 16-point lead, needing only par to capture the Cup but three-putted from 56 feet, missing a four-and-a-half foot putt that would have clinched the Cup. Instead, Haas wound up winning it by a mere 20 points.

Given their year-long competition, it was fitting the duo entered the Champions Tour finale as the only players with a chance to win the Cup. Roberts came to Sonoma Golf Club trailing Haas by only 126 points despite leading the race after 19 of 27 tournaments. In capturing the Cup, Haas ended up leading the points list after nine events. They were the only two to lead the Cup race. With double points available at only six events (the five majors, plus the Charles Schwab Cup Championship), both players knew the circumstances they faced in Sonoma. Haas' tie for sixth, coupled with Roberts' tie for fourth, made for the slimmest of victory margins.

"It was a goal of mine at the start of the year to lead the money list and win the Schwab Cup," said Haas. "I think about the entire year and how thrilling it is to be the Charles Schwab Cup champion. It's amazing that our entire year came down to the final shot of the season."

"I have mixed emotions," Haas added. "I didn't play very well today. I want to congratulate Loren. I think he played awfully well this year. He was up there every single week. He had one hand on the Cup, too."

Roberts collected the runner-up annuity of $500,000 and, like Haas, indicated he planned to donate his winnings to Memphis charities.

Rounding out the top five were Tom Kite ($300,000), Brad Bryant ($200,000) and Jim Thorpe and Eduardo Romero ($50,000 each) after tying for fifth.

Roberts got off to the best start in Champions Tour history in 2006, becoming the first player to win the first three events of the year. The Germantown, TN resident led the Cup race after the first 11 events, notching top-10 finishes in each of his first eight starts. Roberts' largest lead of the year was 554 points after the AT&T Classic in early March.

Haas took over the lead with his victory at the Senior PGA Championship in May, the first major of the Champions Tour season, and his third consecutive win. Haas led the race for the next six weeks, with Roberts retaking the lead following his Senior British Open Championship victory in July. Roberts led the rest of the summer with Haas chipping away. Haas finally regained the lead when he won the SAS Championship in Cary, NC, in early October.

The Charles Schwab Cup has come down to the final event all but one year (2002) since its inception in 2001. The closest race prior to last year's finale was in 2004 when Hale Irwin outlasted Craig Stadler by 39 points.

Haas and Roberts Show Caring Spirit with Charles Schwab Cup Donations

Allen Doyle probably never realized the impact he would have on his fellow players when he donated to charity the entire $1-million annuity he earned for winning the first Charles Schwab Cup in 2001. In the five subsequent years, at least $4.1 million has been donated to various organizations by Champions Tour players who placed in the Cup standings.

Doyle's influence extended to 2006 winner Jay Haas and runner-up Loren Roberts, with charities in their respective hometowns of Greenville, SC, and Memphis, TN, on the receiving end.

Haas and Roberts see-sawed for the Charles Schwab Cup lead throughout the 28-event 2006 season, with Haas coming out on top in the closest race ever. Haas picked up the $1-million annuity first prize and Roberts collected a $500,000 annuity.

"My wife, Jan, and I have been talking about donating the Schwab Cup money for a while now," Haas said at the closing ceremony of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. "Allen Doyle set the precedent a few years ago, which was unbelievably generous on the part of him and his wife (Kate). Then Tom Watson and Dana Quigley made donations with their Schwab Cup money. We were certainly impressed and influenced by what they did. The Charles Schwab Cup is very important to the Champions Tour, and it feels really good to be able to share this money with some very worthy organizations in Greenville."

The lead beneficiary of the Haas donation will be the pediatric leukemia treatment center at Greenville Memorial Hospital. Haas has been involved in a junior golf tournament at Thornblade Club where he lives and is a member for a number of years, with the hospital receiving proceeds.

Roberts, who only played in six events in his rookie year (2005), finished fifth in the Charles Schwab Cup that year and donated his $100,000 earnings to the Mid-South Junior Golf Association/The First Tee of Memphis, bringing his two-year total to $600,000 in charitable donations. His 2006 earnings will be shared with various Memphis charities.

"I was very inspired by the actions of Allen Doyle, Tom Watson and Dana Quigley," said Roberts. "They set a great example. The Charles Schwab Cup has developed a legacy that involves not only competition but giving as well. We are very fortunate to have Charles Schwab's support and to be able to make positive contributions to people and organizations in our hometowns."

As part of the PGA TOUR's umbrella agreement with GOLF CHANNEL that was signed in 2006, the network will remain the exclusive cable television home of the Champions Tour through 2021. The Orlando, FL-based network, found in 75 million homes in the United States and 5 million more in Canada, will provide coverage of all rounds of 22 Champions Tour tournaments in 2007 and early round coverage of four other events, including two major championships. GOLF CHANNEL employs its own production team for all of its telecasts. Tony Tortorici is the network's executive producer and vice president of production. Brandt Packer will serve as producer for all of the telecasts. GOLF CHANNEL also airs a weekly series on Monday evenings, "The Champions Tour Learning Center." Every episode is dedicated to analysis, tournament highlights and instruction, with the goal being to improve viewers' games.

Producer

Brandt Packer

Packer began his career at PGA TOUR Productions in several capacities, including producing Champions Tour telecasts on CNBC. A graduate of the University of Tennessee, he most recently worked for ABC Sports as iso-producer, then lead producer for the majority of the network's golf events in 2006. Packer is the son of longtime CBS Sports college basketball analyst, Billy Packer, and is married to the former Erin Doyle, daughter of Champions Tour player Allen Doyle.

Hosts

Brian Hammons

A native of Indiana, he is an original member of GOLF CHANNEL on-air team. He came to the network from WXIN-TV (Fox) in Indianapolis where he was the weeknight sports anchor. He also worked for ABC, ESPN, Prime and NBC Sports as a motorsports announcer and as a studio host of Indiana Pacers' telecasts. In addition to hosting the Champions Tour, Hammons also hosts the network's LPGA coverage.

Mark Rolfing

A member of the DePauw University golf team where he was a teammate of former vice president, Dan Quayle, Rolfing played professionally before joining the staff of the Kapalua Resort in Maui, HI, which led to the formation of Rolfing Productions, a management and promotion firm specializing in golf, tennis, windsurfing and college basketball. A longtime resident of Maui, he started his broadcasting career at ESPN in 1985 before moving to NBC in 1988 and then ABC for eight years. He rejoined the NBC golf team in 1997. He will host select events.

Analysts

Frank Nobilo

A native of New Zealand whose playing career was cut short due to injuries, Nobilo made his GOLF CHANNEL debut in 2004 as lead analyst on Champions Tour telecasts. Truly an international player during his career, Nobilo added the 1997 Greater Greensboro Chrysler Classic to his five European Tour wins. He was also a member of The Presidents Cup International teams in 1994, 1996 and 1998.

On-Course Reporters

Donna Caponi-Byrnes

A 2001 World Golf Hall of Fame inductee, Caponi is GOLF CHANNEL's lead on-course reporter at Champions Tour events. Her past television credits include ESPN, ABC Sports, CBS Sports and TBS. A member of the LPGA for 25 years (1964-89), she captured 24 LPGA titles, including six majors. In 1988 she was named to Golf's "100 Heroes of the First Century of Golf."

Billy Ray Brown

A four-time University of Houston All-America and NCAA Championship medalist as a freshman, he played 12 seasons the PGA TOUR, winning three times. He was the 54-hole leader at the 1990 U.S. Open at Medinah, missing the playoff by one shot. Over the last several years Brown has worked numerous PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and LPGA events for ABC Sports and ESPN. He will serve as an on-course reporter for GOLF CHANNEL this year.

Mark Lye

Entering his fifth season as a member of the Champions Tour, Lye will continue to provide expert on-course analysis when not competing in 2007. He also will be called on to serve as lead analyst at select events. A three-time All-American at San Jose State, he also contributes to GOLF CHANNEL's "Sprint Post Game" and special-edition programming of major championships and other important events. In an 18-year PGA TOUR career, Lye earned nearly $2 million and won the 1983 Bank of Boston Classic. He has successfully battled cancer twice, once in 1991 and again in 2002.

John Mahaffey

Injuries forced the former University of Houston star to explore broadcast opportunities with GOLF CHANNEL starting in 2004. He will continue to walk the fairways as a reporter in 2006, bringing an impressive list of competitive achievements and his own Texas flair to the telecasts. His 10 PGA TOUR wins include one major, the 1978 PGA Championship, and the 1986 PLAYERS Championship. Mahaffey captured one Champions Tour title, the 1999 Southwestern Bell Classic.

Interviews

David Marr III

The Bucknell University graduate made his Champions Tour debut in August of 2004, handling interviews on "The Couch." His role will be expanded in 2007 when he will be called on to host select telecasts. Previously, Marr manned the news/update desk from the network's Orlando headquarters, co-hosted the "Grey Goose 19th Hole" and contributed reports to "Golf Central." Prior to joining the network, Marr provided 1999 Ryder Cup commentary for Boston's NBC affiliate. He also contributed commentary to several Web sites from golf's major championships. He is the son of the late Dave Marr, the 1965 PGA Championship winner and noted TV analyst.

Things to Look for in 2007

- The Champions Tour begins its 28th competitive season. Prize money will be $54.1 million, with the highest average purse ever ($1.86 million per event).
- The Champions Tour will welcome several new players to its ranks, including seven exempt players: Mark O'Meara (Jan. 13) and Nick Price (Jan. 28) will be the first two and will be joined by Seve Ballesteros (April 9), Nick Faldo (July 18), Bernhard Langer (Aug. 27), Jeff Sluman (Sept. 11) and John Cook (Oct. 2). O'Meara, Price, Ballesteros, Faldo, Langer and Sluman are all former major championship winners on the PGA TOUR. Other former PGA TOUR winners who turn 50 in 2007 are Donnie Hammond (April 1), Wayne Grady (July 26), Mark Wiebe (Sept. 13), Fulton Allem (Sept. 15) and Phil Blackmar (Sept. 22).
- There will be three new events on the Champions Tour calendar. They include the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton, FL, The Ginn Championship at Hammock Beach in Palm Coast, FL and the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in Endicott, NY. The Old Course at Broken Sound Club will host the Allianz Championship from February 5-11, The Conservatory at Hammock Beach, a Tom Watson-designed course, will host The Ginn Championship at Hammock Beach from March 26-April 1 and the En-Joie Golf Club, home of the PGA TOUR's B.C. Open from 1971-2005, will host the Dick's Sporting Goods Open from July 9-15. The Allianz Group sponsored the Allianz Championship in West Des Moines, IA, from 2001-06 before moving its sponsorship to the new event in Florida. The Principal Financial Group has stepped in as the new sponsor of the former Iowa event. The Principal Charity Classic at the Glen Oaks Country Club in West Des Moines, IA, is slated for June 4-10.
- Constellation Energy takes over as the new sponsor of the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship in suburban Baltimore in October. The event has been played in Dearborn, MI, the previous 17 years and is set for Baltimore Country Club/Five Farms from Oct. 1-7.
- Among the other events being contested on different courses in 2007 will be The ACE Group Classic, moving from The Club at TwinEagles to Quail West Golf Club in Naples, FL, and the JELD-WEN Tradition moving from The Reserve Vineyards and Golf Club near Portland, OR to the Crosswater Club at Sunriver Resort in Sunriver, OR.
- The Champions Tour's three other major championships will also have new homes. The Senior PGA Championship is scheduled for The Ocean Course at Kiawah Island, SC (May 21-27), the U.S. Senior Open is scheduled for Whistling Straits in Kohler, WI (July 2-8), and the Senior British Open will be played at Muirfield in Gullane, East Lothian, Scotland (July 23-29).
- Jay Haas looks to defend his Arnold Palmer Award as well as his Charles Schwab Cup title. Haas won his first money title by $54,832, but the margin in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race was only 20 points, the closest in its history. Haas is looking to become the first player to win back-to-back Arnold Palmer Awards since Hale Irwin in 1997-98. There has not been a repeat winner in the Charles Schwab Cup race although Hale Irwin and Tom Watson are each two-time winners.
- Bruce Summerhays starts the year with a streak of playing in 147 straight events for which he's been eligible. That is the longest current streak on the Champions Tour.
- Jim Thorpe has the best current streak for consecutive years with at least one victory—seven. Tom Jenkins is second, with five.
- Gil Morgan could set a new mark should he earn at least $1 million in 2007. He and Hale Irwin are currently tied for consecutive $1-million seasons at 10.
- Will there finally be a repeat winner in Birmingham? Since its inception in 1992, no former winner has defended a title at the Regions Charity Classic, a streak of 15 years, longest on the Champions Tour.
- Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan are looking for their 13th and 11th appearances, respectively, at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, open to the top-30 money winners. Those are the two longest current streaks on the Champions Tour.
- Liberty Mutual begins its 29th season as sponsor of the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, the longest-running sponsor on the Champions Tour.
- Can Hale Irwin return to the winner's circle after not winning for the first time since joining the Champions Tour in 1996? His streak of consecutive $1-million seasons also ended at 10 last year.
- GOLF CHANNEL will televise 22 events and early round coverage of four other events, including two major championships.
- Seven events will have network coverage on the weekend in 2007. NBC will televise five of the events, including the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am, the Senior PGA Championship, the U.S. Senior Open, the JELD-WEN Tradition and the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship. In addition, CBS will televise the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, and ABC will cover the Senior British Open.

Historical Highlights of the Champions Tour

January 16 — A landmark meeting laid the formal groundwork for the Champions Tour, which was known as the Senior PGA Tour from 1980 through the 2002 season. Attending that meeting were Sam Snead, Bob Goalby, Don January and the late Julius Boros, Gardner Dickinson and Dan Sikes. Sikes is named chairman of what became known as the Senior Advisory Council, and Snead was named honorary chairman. January 22 — The new Senior Tour is formally approved by the Tournament Policy Board of the PGA TOUR. The schedule calls for two sanctioned events for a total of $250,000 in prize money. June 22 — Don January wins the first official Champions Tour event, the Atlantic City International in Atlantic City, NJ, defeating Mike Souchak by two strokes. December 7 — Arnold Palmer becomes the first of only 10 players to win in his first Champions Tour start, defeating Paul Harney in a playoff for the PGA Seniors' Championship.

1981

June 7 — Don January becomes the first player to win back-to-back Champions Tour events when he triumphs at the Michelob-Egypt Temple Senior Classic in Tampa and then the Eureka Federal Savings Classic at Harding Park GC in San Francisco. July 12 — Arnold Palmer wins an 18-hole playoff over Billy Casper and Bob Stone at Oakland Hills CC for the U.S. Senior Open title. Palmer becomes the first player to win both a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown in his career. October 17 — Art Wall makes the first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour during the second round of the Suntree Seniors Classic in Melbourne, FL.

1982

The Champions Tour doubles in size from five to 11 tournaments, and prize money increases from $750,000 to $1.3 million. June 25 — Al Balding records the first double-eagle in Champions Tour history in the second round of the Peter Jackson Champions in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

1983

Prize money offered for players on the 50-and-over circuit exceeds $3 million with 18 tournaments on the schedule. Don January wins six tournaments and supplants fellow Texan Miller Barber as the leading money-winner with $237,571. October 15 — Gene Littler birdies his first seven holes and goes out in eight-under 28 in the third round of the Suntree Classic in Melbourne, FL. Littler's nine-hole score stands as an all-time Champions Tour record for 15 years, until it is broken by Jay Sigel's 27 during the 1998 Bell Atlantic Classic, and Seiji Ebihara's at the 2002 Senior PGA Championship.

1984

Growth continues at a rapid rate when a slate of 24 events and total prize money well over $5 million is announced. Don January becomes the first player to go over $300,000 in single-season earnings ($328,597) en route to his second consecutive money title.

1985

With 27 events worth more than $6 million in total purses, the Champions Tour is large enough to merit its establishment as a division of the PGA TOUR and its own logo. The Champions Tour also becomes a distinct and separate operating and financial entity, with net revenue going to fund a newly created Senior Player Retirement Plan. A cable television package with ESPN allows seven events to enjoy national cable exposure, with the production costs partially funded by Mazda Motors of America. March 17 — Australian Peter Thomson, a five-time British Open winner, wins the first of a record nine tournaments at The Vintage Invitational. October 13 — On his 63rd birthday, Mike Fetchick wins the Hilton Head Seniors International. Fetchick establishes the mark as the oldest Champions Tour winner and is victorious for the first time in over 28 years (1956 Mayfair Inn Open), the longest time between a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour title. November 23 — South African Gary Player triumphs in his Champions Tour debut at the Quadel Seniors Classic in Boca Raton, FL. He becomes the second player to claim the first tournament he enters.

1986

Bruce Crampton, Bob Charles, Dale Douglass and Chi Chi Rodriguez are among the new faces on the Champions Tour and signify a changing of the guard on the circuit. One new tournament is added to the schedule and prize money increases to $6.3 million. June 22 — Chi Chi Rodriguez triumphs at the Senior Tournament Players Championship in Cleveland, the first of his 22 Champions Tour career titles.

1987

The Vantage brand of R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company introduces its Vantage Cup program to the 35-event Champions Tour. Vantage involvement includes a $1 million, season-long team points competition; sponsorship of the first $1 million tournament on the Champions Tour, the Vantage Championship; sponsorship of a "Super Seniors" competition for players 60 and older; and an advanced electronic scoreboard system. The size of Champions Tour tournament fields expands to 72 players and, for the first time, the pro-am portion and tournament portion of events are separated.

1988

The Champions Tour grows to 37 events and purses eclipse the $10 million mark. Vantage sponsors the Champions Tour's first-ever statistical program. March 6 — Orville Moody closes with a 63, setting a 72-hole Champions Tour scoring record of 25-under 263 and tying Arnold Palmer's record for largest victory margin with his 11-stroke win at the Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Indian Wells, CA. September 18 — Arnold Palmer wins the last of his 10 Champions Tour career titles at the Crestar Classic near Richmond, VA, defeating Lee Elder, Larry Mowry and Jim Ferree by four strokes.

1989

Champions Tour tournament fields increase to 78 players and 21 tournaments air on national television. March 5 — Miller Barber wins the last of his 24 official Champions Tour career titles at The Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Palm Desert, CA. September 22 — Hurricane Hugo wipes out the PaineWebber Invitational in Charlotte, the only event to be canceled by weather on the Champions Tour. December 7 — Lee Trevino debuts on the Champions Tour at the GTE Kaanapali Classic and ties for seventh in the rain-shortened event.

1990

Cadillac Motor Car Division comes aboard as the umbrella sponsor for Champions Tour cable telecasts. Lee Trevino is the dominant performer. The "Merry Mex" easily snares both Rookie of the Year and Player of the Year honors after seven wins and official earnings of $1,190,518. He also earns his first Byron Nelson Trophy with a scoring average of 68.89, a record that will stand for eight years on the Champions Tour. February 4 — Lee Trevino makes up seven shots in the final nine holes to overtake Jim Dent for the Royal Caribbean Classic title on Key Biscayne, FL, his first victory on the Champions Tour. April 1 — Jack Nicklaus captures The Tradition crown in Scottsdale and becomes the fourth player to win in his Champions Tour debut. June 10 — Jack Nicklaus rips Dearborn (MI) CC apart to win the Mazda Senior TPC by six strokes over Lee Trevino. Nicklaus' 27-under 261 total sets a new standard for scoring in a 72-hole event on the Champions Tour. July 1 — Lee Trevino nips Jack Nicklaus at Ridgewood CC in New Jersey for the U.S. Senior Open title. Trevino's win makes him the fifth player to claim a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown. December 16 — Lee Trevino's runner-up performance at the season-ending New York Life Champions in Puerto Rico puts him over the seven-figure mark and makes him the first single-season millionaire in Champions Tour history.

1991

The list of Champions Tour millionaires grows when Mike Hill becomes the second senior to top $1 million in 1991. Hill wins five times and shares Player of the Year honors with George Archer. June 9 — Jim Albus shocks the golf world by becoming the first former club professional to win a senior major. Albus holds off three players at the TPC Michigan to win the Mazda Senior Players Championship by three strokes. July 28 — Jack Nicklaus becomes the first to complete the Senior Slam when he defeats Chi Chi Rodriguez in an 18-hole playoff for the U.S. Senior Open title at Oakland Hills CC. The victory is Nicklaus' third senior major of the season. Earlier in the campaign, the Golden Bear successfully defended his Tradition title and waltzed to an easy triumph at the PGA Seniors' Championship.

1992

Lee Trevino again was the leading money-winner on the Champions Tour despite a hand injury in mid-season. His $1,027,002 makes him the first player to surpass seven figures twice in a senior career, and five tournament wins propel the Merry Mex to a second Player of the Year honor. June 28 — Gibby Gilbert equals the Champions Tour's 54-hole scoring record of 193 in winning the Southwestern Bell Classic near Kansas City. His nine-stroke cushion equals the widest 54-hole victory margin in Champions Tour history. July 5 — Gibby Gilbert wins for the second consecutive week, defeating J.C. Snead in a playoff at the Kroger Senior Classic near Cincinnati. His 54-hole score of 198 makes him the first player to win consecutive weeks with sub-200 totals. September 20 — One week after his Champions Tour debut, Doral Ryder Open champion Raymond Floyd outguns Mike Hill for the GTE North Classic title in Indianapolis. The victory makes Floyd the only player to win both a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event in the same season. September 27 — Isao Aoki, the 36-hole leader at the Nationwide Championship near Atlanta, is declared the winner when the final round is rained out. He becomes the first Japanese player to win on the Champions Tour.

1993

Dave Stockton and Bob Charles become the first two players to earn more than $1 million in official money in the same season.

1994

Official prize money approaches the $30 million mark. Lee Trevino gets there first, earning $1 million for an unprecedented third time in his career. Dave Stockton tops the earnings list with $1,402,519 and becomes the first to win more than $1 million in back-to-back seasons. Jim Albus becomes the first former club professional to join the millionaire's club.

1995

Jim Colbert earns his first Arnold Palmer Award with single-season earnings of $1,444,386 and Champions Tour Player of the Year honors. June 9 — Hale Irwin debuts on the Champions Tour at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland and finishes in a tie for fourth. July 23 — Jimmy Powell wins the First of America Classic in Grand Rapids only one day after claiming the Super Seniors portion of the tournament. He is the first player to win both in the same week. July 30 — Hale Irwin claims his first Champions Tour event at the Ameritech Senior Open. He also wins the Vantage Championship in Winston-Salem later in the season and is voted the circuit's Rookie of the Year.

1996

Jim Colbert repeats the single-season earnings record to $1,627,890 to become the first winner of consecutive Player of the Year awards. March 24 — Lee Trevino and Mike Hill team to win an unprecedented fourth Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title in La Quinta, CA. April 7 — Jack Nicklaus successfully defends his Tradition title and becomes the first Champions Tour player to claim the same tournament four times. The three-stroke victory over Hale Irwin is also his 100th professional title.

1997

The year belongs almost exclusively to Hale Irwin. He wins nine times and becomes the first player on any TOUR to surpass $2 million in a season, finishing the year with $2,343,364. April 20 — Hale Irwin's 12-stroke romp at the PGA Seniors' Championship is the widest margin in Champions Tour history for 72 holes. September 27 — Isao Aoki sets a Champions Tour record for lowest 18-hole score with a 10-under 60 in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic. October 19 — Hale Irwin claims his ninth title of the year at the Hyatt Regency Maui Kaanapali Classic. The three-stroke triumph ties Peter Thomson's record (1985) for most victories in a season.

1998

Hale Irwin and Gil Morgan continue to dominate the Champions Tour. With 13 victories between them, both players eclipse the $2 million level in single-season earnings. Despite winning two less events than 1997, Irwin turns in an incredible year, finishing out of the top five only twice in 22 official tournaments. He wins his second consecutive Jack Nicklaus Award as the Champions Tour's Player of the Year and earns a third consecutive Byron Nelson Award with a record scoring average of 68.59. February 1 — David Graham wins the Royal Caribbean Classic at Key Biscayne, FL, in a 10-hole sudden-death playoff over Dave Stockton, the longest overtime session in Champions Tour history. April 19 — Hale Irwin claims his third straight PGA Seniors' Championship, a first since Eddie Williams' trifecta from 1942-1946. May 17 — Larry Ziegler claims the Saint Luke's Classic near Kansas City, his first Champions Tour win since 1991. The victory comes six years, 10 months and three days after his triumph at the Newport Cup, the longest span between Champions Tour wins. May 23 — In the second round of the Bell Atlantic Classic, Jay Sigel sets a Champions Tour record for lowest nine-hole score. His nine-under 27 on the front nine at Hartefeld National includes an eagle and seven birdies, the Champions Tour's all-time best eagle-birdie streak.

1999

The Champions Tour completes its 20th season with a number of significant accomplishments led by rookie Bruce Fleisher, who claims seven tournament victories and earns his first money title with a rookie record $2,515,705. He wins the Jack Nicklaus Award as the Champions Tour's Player of the Year and earns the Byron Nelson Award for the lowest scoring average (69.19). Fleisher also claims the Rookie of the Year Award. Members of the 1998 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament class, led by Fleisher and Allen Doyle (four wins), win 15 times. February 7 — Bruce Fleisher becomes the eighth player in Champions Tour history to win his debut when he prevails by two strokes over Isao Aoki at the Royal Caribbean Classic. February 14 — Bruce Fleisher becomes the first player to win his first two starts, besting Larry Nelson by three strokes at the American Express Invitational. February 28 — Allen Doyle's win at the ACE Group Classic makes him the first player to win an event on both the Champions Tour and the Nationwide Tour. March 28 — Bob Duval makes history with his win at the Emerald Coast Classic. Later in the day, his son David wins THE PLAYERS Championship, and they become the first father-son duo in PGA TOUR history to claim victories on the same weekend. April 4 — Snow and inclement weather shorten The Tradition to 36 holes, and Graham Marsh emerges as the winner by three strokes over Larry Nelson. It is the first event to have rounds canceled by snow. September 19 — One week after his Champions Tour debut, Tom Watson fashions a final round 10-under-par 62 for a five-stroke win over Bruce Summerhays at the Bank One Championship. Watson becomes the third youngest player in Champions Tour history to win, at 50 years, 15 days.

2000

The Champions Tour welcomes the addition of Tom Kite, Lanny Wadkins, Doug Tewell and Tom Watson as full-time players. Larry Nelson finishes the year as the leading money winner with $2,708,005 and leads all players with six victories. About the Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem
Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem, 59, is the third Commissioner of the PGA TOUR. Finchem succeeded Deane R. Beman as Commissioner on June 1, 1994. Beman had served for 20 years, replacing the late Joseph C. Dey, who had been the TOUR's Commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Prior to becoming Commissioner, Finchem was Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer of the TOUR under Beman since 1989 and joined the TOUR staff as Vice President of Business Affairs in 1987.

As Commissioner, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players domestically and internationally. He also has taken leadership roles in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation, Inc.

His personal dedication to the success of the World Golf Foundation's First Tee initiative has helped that program reach over 675,000 young people through golf, ensuring that it positively impacts developing the game for years to come.

"Our primary purpose as a membership organization is to create outstanding playing and earnings opportunities for our players," Finchem says, "and we are proud of what our tournaments do for charity (more than $1 billion raised) and the active role we have been able to take as an organization in growing the game for future generations."

Born in Ottawa, IL, on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, VA. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Marketing and Strategies Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001 and the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002. He was awarded the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports in 2005.

Married to the former Holly Bachand, Finchem is a father of four. The Finchems live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Brad Bryant had two victories in 2006, finished third on the money list, and was fourth in Charles Schwab Cup points.

2007 Champions Tour Eligibility Requirements

In order to be eligible for an official Champions Tour event, a player must be at least 50 years of age prior to his first tournament obligation. The field size at the majority of Champions Tour events in 2007 will be 78 players and eligibility requirements modified as follows for standard 78-player fields:

Standard Field Size: 78 players, up to a maximum of 81 players

1. 30 available players — Prior-Year Money List (floor of 50)
2. 30 available players — All-Time Money List (not exempt in No. 1; floor of net 70)
3. 4 players — PGA TOUR Career Victory List, ages 50 and 51 (not exempt in No. 1 or 2)
4. 5 players Via Sponsor Exemptions
 - 2 spots restricted (defined as one PGA TOUR or Champions Tour win and Veteran Member status)
 - 3 spots unrestricted
5. Event Qualifiers — Available spots up to 9 to fill the field of 78.

Other Considerations

- Up to two players who tie for 10th or better in an official event will be eligible for the following open, full-field event, if not otherwise exempt, reducing the Event Qualifying spots accordingly.
- Special Medical Extensions on a space-available basis.

The following players will be added to the field to a maximum of 81 players:

1. Players entering under the PGA TOUR Career Victory List
2. Major Medical Extension — If not in the field of 78 on a space-available basis, they will be added via this category.
3. Tournament Winners, not otherwise exempt — When combined with the two categories above, should there be a number of tournament winners not otherwise exempt that would cause the starting field to be above 81 players, the number of Event Qualifying positions would be reduced by up to two places first, then reduce tournament sponsor picks (starting with restricted invitees) and Event Qualifiers again in alternating order.

Current-Year Money List

The top four available Champions Tour players, not otherwise exempt, 75th or better on the current-year money list shall be provided access into the last four open, full-field tournaments of the year. Event Qualifying spots will be reduced accordingly (i.e., from nine to five available for the last four events)

Alternates

Once all committed and eligible players from the prior-year and all-time money lists gain access (the floor is reached), plus Special Medical, up to four additional players from Event Qualifying will be provided spots in the field. Thereafter, Past Champions category, then Veteran Members, will be provided access.

National Qualifying Tournament

The 2007 National Qualifying Tournament National Finals (four rounds/72 holes) is held annually in November. The top-30 players and ties will be eligible to compete in the weekly Event Qualifiers, where up to nine playing spots will be available in all open, full-field Champions Tour events (see No. 5 above). The Finals are preceded by a set of regional qualifiers.

2006 SEASON:

Enjoyed a career year. Finished third on the money list, posted a pair of victories, had four runner-up finishes and was fourth in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race.
His season earnings of nearly $1.7 million more than doubled his 2005 total...Won his first Champions Tour event at the Toshiba Classic, his 27th start on the circuit.
Victory made him the fifth first-time winner in tournament history. It was his first TOUR victory in 10 years, 5 months, 11 days (121 TOUR events). Made a nine-foot birdie putt on the last hole to take the lead and then watched John Harris, Mark Johnson and Vicente Fernandez all miss putts at No.
18 which would have tied him. His winning total of 9-under 204 was the highest three-round score by a Toshiba Classic champion since 1999. Earned a check for $247,500, his largest ever...Added a second win in early May near Birmingham when he played three strong rounds to triumph at the Regions Charity Classic. Clutch Sunday play allowed him to overtake Mark McNulty on the 71st hole, and a closing-round, 8-under-par 64 gave him a two-stroke win over McNulty. Had gone to the 17th hole trailing by two strokes with just two holes remaining but grabbed the lead when his four-foot birdie putt dropped while McNulty made double bogey. Sealed the win with a par on the final hole as McNulty made bogey to end his chances. Set a new Champions Tour standard in his win, hitting 53 of 54 greens in regulation. His only miss came Saturday at No. 10 when he missed by a mere four inches. Also played the event without a bogey, making him the 18th player in Champions Tour history to accomplish that feat...Nearly won a third title in late May when he fell in a three-hole playoff with

Jay Haas at the Senior PGA Championship at the Oak Tree GC. Made a clutch birdie putt on the 72nd hole to get himself into a playoff with Haas before losing on the third extra hole when Haas made a par putt to win...Closed with 67 at the TPC Twin Cities to finish T2 along with Craig
Stadler at the 3M Championship, two strokes back of David Edwards...Fired three straight 68s to finish T2 at the Constellation Energy Classic, two strokes behind Bob Gilder in September...Made a nice showing in July's Greater Kansas City Golf Classic where he was T3 after trailing David Edwards by one stroke through 36 holes...Initial top-10 finish of the season came in February when he finished T2 at The ACE Group Classic, one stroke behind winner
Loren Roberts. Shared the second-round lead with Roberts and Don Pooley before a closing-round 70 left him one shy of Roberts...Chosen as the Champions Tour Player of the Month for May...Ran off seven straight rounds in the 60s at one point in the year, which matched Gil Morgan for the best streak in 2006...Birdied more par-4s than any other player (20.8 percent of the time).

Administrative Small Business Classic in mid-October, but made two double bogeys on the back nine to fade into a fourth-place finish. Carried a two-stroke lead into the final round and was three strokes ahead with nine holes to play...Made an impressive showing at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic in August when he posted three straight rounds in the 60s to finish T3. Shared the first-round lead and was just two behind after 36 holes, but couldn't chase down eventual-winner David Eger...Was the low native Texan at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, posting a T5 finish. Was one stroke off the first-round lead and trailed by just two strokes entering the final round, but even-par 72 on Sunday left him six strokes back of winner Jim Thorpe...Also finished T8 at the SBC Classic in March. After a pair of over-par rounds, bounced back on Sunday to shoot a 4-under-par 68, and moved up 20 spots into the top 10 for the first time in his Champions Tour career...Made one start on the PGA TOUR, missing the cut at the FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World Resort...Along with R.W. Eaks, hit the longest measured drive on the Champions Tour, with a poke of 385 yards on the 15th hole in the opening round of the JELD-WEN Tradition. 2004: Earned fully-exempt status for 2005 after finishing third at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the King and Bear at World Golf entering the final round of the 1993 Canadian Open before closing-round 74 left him third, three strokes behind David Frost...Was part of a five-man playoff at the Buick

Southern Open later that year in an event won by John Inman...Played full time on TOUR from 1979-1999 before he unofficially retired in 1999. Played a handful of events from 2000-2004. Played the 1999 season under a Special Medical Extension after missing almost all of the previous year...Battled various injuries in his career, including a degenerative disk in his lower back as well as shoulder problems...Finished in the top 125 on the money list for nine straight years from 1989-97. Led TOUR in Birdies in 1994 (397).

Tied the Champions Tour record for lowest 54-hole score in relation to par (Raymond Floyd/1993 Gulfstream Aerospace Invitational) when he blitzed the Tiffany Greens GC with a 22-under-par 194 total. His 36-hole score of 16-under 128 also tied the then-Champions Tour's all-time mark in relation to par (Hale Irvin/1997 Vantage Championship) for the first two rounds. His 10-under 62 on Friday was a Champions Tour career-best and was his lowest score since shooting 62 at the 1992 Chattanooga Classic on the PGA TOUR. Made a 12-foot birdie putt on the last hole to win by eight strokes over Walter Morgan, Hugh Baiocchi and Dana Quigley, the largest margin of victory in a 54-hole event since the 1993 Franklin Quest Championship...Almost won again at the AT&T Canada Senior Open. CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Celebrated his 20th season on the Champions Tour...Was the oldest player to make the cut at the U.S. Senior Open, his first made-cut in the championship since 2002. Eventually T37 at NCR CC, his best effort of the campaign...Posted three straight rounds in the 60s at the Blue Angels Classic and matched or bettered his age each day of the event, a first on the Champions Tour since Joe Jimenez did it during each round of the 2000 SBC Championship...Bettered his age for the second time in 2005, with a 5-under 66 in the second round of the Commerce Bank Championship, his low score since early in 2004. Round at Long Island event included a 6-under 29 on the front side, one of five sub-30 nine-hole scores on the Champions Tour. 2004: Bettered his age with a 5-under 66 in the final round of the Toshiba Senior Classic...Made his 18th career ace in the final round of the Allianz Championship, holing a 3-iron shot on the second hole at Glen Oaks, the Tour's eighth-hardest hole in 2004. It was also his first hole-in-one in 18 years and just his second on the Champions Tour. 2003: Became just the fifth player with at least 500 appearances on the Champions Tour when he made his 500th official start at the first full-field event of the year, the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic near Miami...Went on to win the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition at Key Biscayne. Defeated Isao Aoki with a four-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole after both players had finished 36 holes at 1-under 143...Georgia-Pacific victory was his first in the over-60 competition in almost two years. 2002: Bettered his age for the first time in his career when he posted a 7-under 63 in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic. Round was his best on the Champions Tour since he fashioned a 61 in the final round of the 1994 Ralphs Senior Classic. The score also made him, at the time, the second-youngest player in Champions Tour history to better his age (Joe Jimenez shot 63 at age 65 in the 1991 GTE Northwest Classic; Walter Morgan later shot 60 at AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship at age 61). T5 in the rain-shortened event in Milton, his best performance since the 1999 campaign...Later matched his age with a 5-under-par 66 in the second round of the Allianz Championship. 2001: Won his 11th career Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title at the Toshiba Senior Classic. Runner-up performance at PGA National was his best in a major since the 1994 Tradition...Finished third on the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list with $209,810 and recorded his only 60-and-over victory at the Boone Valley Classic, a two-stroke decision over Dick Hendrickson. 1996: At the Bell Atlantic Classic, became the second of only five Grand Champions (60 and older) to double dip when he claimed the Georgia-Pacific event and won the overall tournament the next day in a playoff with Tom Wargo and John Schroeder. Made birdie on third extra hole after knocking a 6-iron five feet from the pin at Chester Valley. 1994: Shot best score of his career, a final-round 61 at Rancho Park, in defense of his title at Ralphs Senior Classic, but still finished second at the event to Jack Kiefer...Also lost to Raymond Floyd on the first playoff hole at The Tradition despite four straight rounds in the 60s and a 17-under-par total for 72 holes. 1993: Shot a sizzling 64 on Sunday and then defeated Jim Dent with birdie on first extra playoff hole to win the Ralphs Senior Classic at Rancho Park. 1992: Posted 16 top-10 finishes, including wins at the rain-shortened NYNEX

BEST 2006 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1—U.S. Senior Open; 5—Allianz Championship, Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn; 6—Turtle Bay Championship; T8—MasterCard Championship at Hualalai.

2006 SEASON:

Surpassed the $1-million mark in season earnings for the seventh time in his eight full seasons on the Champions Tour when he finished with $1,072,840...Claimed perhaps the year's biggest prize when he defended his title at the U.S. Senior Open by two strokes over Tom Watson at Prairie Dunes CC in Hutchinson, KS. Trained by two strokes after 54 holes, but closed with a 2-under-par 68 and basically sealed his 11th career victory when he drained a curling 15-foot birdie putt at No. 17 to maintain his two-stroke margin. Moments before, Watson had hit his third shot to within two feet at the par-5, 17th hole. With his win he became the oldest winner in U.S. Senior Open annals at 57 years, 11 months and 17 days, breaking the old mark of 57 years, two months and 15 days by Roberto De Vincenzo. He also posted four rounds in the 60s in his victory march, making him just the third player to do so (Gary Player/1987; Tom Weiskopf/1995). The win also earned him the distinction of being just the third player to defend a U.S. Senior Open title, joining Miller Barber (1984-85) and Player (1987-88)...Got the year off to a fast start with back-to-back, top-10 finishes in Hawaii. Was T8 at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai and then backed that up with a sixth-place finish the next week at the Turtle Bay Championship. Next top-10 finish did not come until four months later when he was fifth at the Allianz Championship...Competed in the U.S. Open at Winged Foot and narrowly missed the cut, finishing with a 36-hole total of 10-over-par 150, one shy of the 36-hole cut...Contended at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn before finishing T5...Was troubled part of the year by problems with plantar fasciitis in his feet...Improved his putting average from 54th in 2005 to sixth.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Missed out on the million-dollar mark in earnings for the first time since playing the Champions Tour on a full-time basis, partly due to arthroscopic left-knee surgery on September 27 that curtailed his season...Was among the top six in four events, with three of those performances coming in the four major events he appeared in...Won the U.S. Senior Open, his third different major, coming from nine strokes back in the final round, the second-biggest comeback in any major championship (Paul Lawrie/10 strokes/1999 British Open) and made up the second-largest deficit in Champions Tour history (Jay Sigel/10 strokes/1994 GTE West Classic). Bypassed 15 players Sunday with a South Course-record 8-under 63 at NCR CC, tying his career-low score and Don Pooley's mark (2002/third round) for the lowest round ever posted in U.S. Senior Open history. Round also was the lowest by a winner on the Champions Tour that season. His $470,000 first-place check was the largest of his career and accounted for over half his official money...Was T5 at the Ford Senior Players Championship just prior to his U.S. Senior Open triumph. Opened with a 2-over 74 in Dearborn, but bounced back with three straight rounds in the 60s on the TPC Michigan layout...Also T6 in late May at the Senior PGA Championship at Laurel Valley and extended his streak of years among the top 20 in that event to seven consecutive... Was T3 near the start of the season at the Turtle Bay Championship. 2004: Won for the second time near Kansas City when he claimed the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am by a stroke over Jerry Pate. Made a short birdie putt on the 18th hole Saturday to give himself a one-stroke cushion over Pate and then was declared the winner when Sunday's final round was canceled due to course damage from overnight storms Saturday... Was among a handful of players who battled it out in Sunday's final round at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August. Trained by one stroke heading into Sunday's final round and remained in contention throughout the round but failed to birdie one of his final two holes to finish T2, one stroke behind Craig Stadler... Champions Tour Player of the Month for June. 2003: Back among the top 10 on the money list after a year's absence, thanks to 13 top-10 finishes... Tied with Tom Jenkins for the most sub-par rounds on the Champions Tour with 64... Won for the first time in just over two years when he prevailed at the FleetBoston Classic. The native of nearby Norwood, MA, broke the 18-hole tournament record at Nashawtuc and equaled his career-low score with a second-round, 8-under-par 63 that included a 6-under-par 29 on the front nine. His 54-hole total of 198 also matched the tournament scoring mark, held by Chi Chi Rodriguez, and helped him defeat Bruce Fleisher and defending champion Bob Gilder by two strokes for his eighth career win on the Champions Tour... Contended earlier in the campaign for the Columbus Southern Open title near his home in Georgia and eventually finished one stroke short of Morris Hatafsky. 2002: Runner-up to Hale Irwin at the Toshiba Senior Classic after owning sole possession of first place after the opening round. 2001: Was the Champions Tour's mark of consistency, with 25 top-10 finishes in 34 starts, one top-10 short of Lee Trevino's all-time senior record (1990)... Battled Bruce Fleisher down the stretch for both the Charles Schwab Cup and the overall money title and claimed both honors... Received the Jack Nicklaus Player of the Year Award after a vote of his peers... Donated his entire $1 million annuity for winning the Charles Schwab Cup to six different charitable organizations... Earned $2,553,582, the third-highest single-season total in Champions Tour history... Was 236-under par, the most under by any player on the circuit for a season... Led the Champions Tour with 55 (out of 102) rounds in the 60s and had 81 sub-par rounds, one short of Tom Wargo's record (1994)... Won twice and came close to winning four other tournaments... Claimed both of his 2001 titles in playoffs over a span of three weeks, starting in mid-July. Holed a 35-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to jump into a playoff with Doug Tewell at the Ford Senior Players Championship and then defeated Tewell with a par on the first extra hole for his second major championship on the Champions Tour... Won again two weeks later at the State Farm Senior Classic. Rebounded from an opening-round 73 to get into a tie with Fleisher at the end of regulation and then outlasted Fleisher with a four-foot par putt on the third playoff hole. 2000: Posted just one official victory during the season despite improving his scoring average by almost half a stroke from the previous season (69.56 vs. 70.02)... Claimed the rain-shortened Toshiba Senior Classic. Birdied the 18th hole of Saturday's second round to open a one-stroke lead over Howard Twitty and Jim Thorpe. Slim margin held up when heavy rains before and during Sunday's final round made the Newport Beach CC course unplayable... Matched his career low of 63 in the second round of the EMC Kaanapali Classic... Also had a rare double eagle in the second round of The Home Depot Invitational, holing a 3-wood second shot on the second hole at the TPC Piper Glen. 1999: Finished third on the final official earnings list despite occasional back problems... Won four times in his first full season and claimed his first senior major championship among those victories... Went wire-to-wire for his initial triumph at The ACE Group Classic, easily defeating Vicente Fernandez by five strokes. Win made him the first player ever to triumph on both the Champions Tour and Nationwide Tours... Returned to Florida just over a month later to defeat Fernandez again at the PGA Seniors' Championship at PGA National. Came from four strokes back on Sunday with an 8-under-par 64 and won by two shots, the best come-from-behind effort on the circuit that season... Despite having back problems throughout the final round, bested Joe Inman in a playoff for the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic title... Used a then-course-record 63, his lowest score of the campaign, in the opening round of the TD Waterhouse Championship to edge Ed Dougherty by two strokes. 1998: Became fully exempt for the 1999 season by garnering medalist honors at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at Grenelefe... His 13-under-par 275 total was a National Qualifying Tournament record at the time... Made six appearances after turning 50 in June, and had his best finish at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic, finishing T4 near Sacramento.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Had a long and distinguished amateur career before turning professional in 1995... Member of two Walker Cup teams (1991-93), and also represented the United States on three World Amateur Cup teams (1990, 1992, 1994)... Joined the Nationwide Tour in March 1995 and made an immediate splash, winning three times: Mississippi Gulf Coast Classic, Texarkana Open and the Tour Championship... Was that circuit's only three-time winner, and two of those titles came in playoffs... Bested Franklin Langham in the first at the Mississippi event and then slipped by John Maginnes to win the Nationwide Tour Championship at Settindown Creek GC in Atlanta... Second to Jerry Kelly on the final money list and earned a full exemption to the 1996 PGA TOUR... At age 47, he was the oldest rookie in PGA TOUR history when he began play in 1996... In two seasons on the TOUR, he won slightly more than $200,000... Made 28 starts each year and won $136,789 in 1996, his best year on TOUR... 2006 SEASON:

Once again used strong play in the final two months to secure a spot in the top 30 and a berth in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Earned $323,813 in his final seven events prior to picking up an additional $62,000 at the season-ending tournament, which eventually gave him a career-best total of $751,923... Nearly won for the first time in his Champions Tour career when he lost in a one-hole playoff to Andy Bean at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Made a late run Sunday, with birdies on six of the last seven holes. Fired a 5-under-par 31 on the back nine to get into the playoff with Bean, who eventually won with a birdie. Nearly didn't play Sunday after experiencing back problems Saturday. His second-place finish tied a career best, and his check for $140,800 was a career best as well... Earlier in the season sat alone atop the leaderboard after the opening round of The ACE Group Classic following a 7-under-par 65. Eventually finished T2 in Naples, one stroke behind winner Loren Roberts... Equalled the 18-hole tournament record on the Palmer Course, posting a 7-under 65 in the second round of the Turtle Bay Championship. Eventually T11 at the event... Was T6 at the Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic. Was in contention on the back nine Sunday, but finished 4-over-par on his last five holes to slip out of contention... Third in Driving Distance and had the second-longest drive of the season, a 398-yarder in the final round at the Great Kansas City Golf Classic. Also had a 385-yarder in the first round of the FedEx Kinko's Classic and a 374-yarder at the U.S. Senior Open.

That performance, coupled with Jay Haas' victory, knocked Tom McKnight (29th coming into the week) down two spots and out of a trip to the season-ending event... Was not feeling well again the following week at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and withdrew after two rounds... Was the 36-hole leader by one stroke over Bob Gilder at the SAS Championship, but his closing-round 77 on Sunday left him T10. 2006 SEASON:

Nearly doubled his previous year's earnings and capped his season with a berth in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Took full advantage of his appearance, finishing solo third and collecting a career-best check for $213,000. Made a late Sunday charge but fell three strokes shy of winner Jim Thorpe. Two months earlier, nearly won his first Champions Tour title at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic but lost in a one-hole playoff to Tom Kite. Closed with an 8-under-par 64 Sunday, his best Champions Tour effort. Playing well ahead of the leaders, he narrowly missed a potential eagle putt on the final hole in regulation, leaving his putt inches short. Had he converted, he would have eventually earned the title outright. In the playoff, watched his second shot carom off the cartpath and into a skybox behind 18, effectively ending his chances as Kite made a birdie-4 on the hole. Followed that performance the next week at the JELD-WEN Tradition, where he was T9 in the year's final major. Was one of two players (Massy Kuramoto the other) who trailed 36-hole leader Don Pooley by one stroke after 36 holes at the Constellation Energy Classic but closed with a 73 to slide to a T13 finish. Made a nice recovery in his first Champions Tour event of the season. After opening with a 2-over 74, rallied to shoot 8-under 136 on the weekend and go from a T45 to T7 at the Turtle Bay Championship. Played well at the Allianz Championship in early June where three straight rounds in the 60s earned him a fourth-place finish. Was T5 two starts later at the Greater Kansas City Golf Classic. Was among the leaders after 36 holes, thanks to a 7-under 65 Saturday, equaling the low round of the day. Finished second in Total Driving. Made one start on the PGA TOUR, at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic but missed the cut.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Top efforts of the campaign came in back-to-back weeks in March during the early California swing. Had a T6 at the SBC Classic near Los Angeles. Opened with an even-par 72 before firing a 7-under-par 65, which gave him a one-stroke lead over Mark McNulty after 36 holes. However, closed with a 5-over-par 77 at Valencia on Sunday. Continued his strong play at the Toshiba Senior Classic, grabbing a T2, his second consecutive top-five effort at Newport Beach. Trained eventual winner Mark Johnson by three strokes entering the final round and lost by four after posting a final-round 71. Was par or better in eight of his last nine rounds of the year and matched fellow Houston Cougar John Mahaffey's 7-under 65 on Sunday at the Administristaff Small Business Classic, the best rounds of the day. Led the Champions Tour in Total Driving, finishing fifth in Driving Distance and 23rd in Driving Accuracy. Earned fully-exempt status for 2006 by finishing T4 at the National Qualifying Tournament in Beaumont, CA. Was T40 after an opening-round 77 and moved into a T9 after five rounds. Moved into the top seven after posting a final-round 70 in windy conditions. 2004: Made 18 appearances after turning 50 in early March, primarily through the Career Victory Category. In contention for the first time on the Champions Tour when he found himself one stroke off the lead after 36 holes of the Toshiba Senior Classic. Eventually placed fourth at Newport Beach after a final-round 69. 7-under-par 65 in the second round of the Administristaff Small Business Classic to move up 40 spots. Round was also his lowest since shooting a second-round 64 at the 1997 Quad City Classic. 2003: Finished ninth at the 2003 National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC Eagle trace. Shot 72-hole total of 3-under 285, but missed earning fully-exempt status by two strokes. Tied Rafael Navarro for the ninth spot and then claimed sole possession of ninth place with a par on the first extra playoff hole.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Originally played the PGA TOUR from 1977-86 and then requalified for the PGA TOUR at the 1995 National Qualifying Tournament and played the circuit again full time from 1995-98. Claimed the first of his three PGA TOUR victories at the 1981 Memorial Tournament, edging Jack Renner by a stroke at Muirfield Village. Won the Georgia-Pacific Atlanta Classic a year later when he beat Raymond Floyd in a playoff. Won another playoff with Rex Caldwell to claim the 1983 Bob Hope Desert Classic. Had three top-10 finishes in major championships, including a T3 at the 1980 U.S. Open. Was a member of the Nationwide Tour in 1994, 1998-2000. Returned to competitive golf on the 1994 Nationwide Tour and won two events that year, finishing 13th on the final money list with $107,053. Made back-to-back birdies on the final two holes of the Panama City Beach Classic to win by two shots over Tommy Armour III. Defeated Bill Murchison with a par on the second playoff hole to win the Boise Open later that season. Served as the golf coach at the University of Houston from 1988-1994. Is the only three-time All-American in golf at the University of Houston (1974-76). Won more individual titles than any other Cougar in school history, amassing 19 in his collegiate career. Runner-up to Fred Ridley at the 1975 U.S. Amateur at The CC of Virginia.

PERSONAL:

Started playing golf at age 8. Played football and basketball in high school, but enjoyed practicing golf more than other sports. Was attacked by killer bees on the driving range prior to his third round at the 1996 Nortel Open and was stung between 10 and 15 times. His caddie, Artie Granfield, was stung between 50 and 100 times. Began using the long putter in 1988 while coaching at the University of Houston. Has done some golf course design work on the side. Did soap commercials on television in the 1980s. One of his superstitions is getting rid of anything negative. If he makes a double bogey, he changes to a new ball. If he plays poorly, he won't wear the same outfit for a while, but if he plays well he can't wait to wear the same shirt again. Enjoys attending Broadway shows. Enjoys working in his yard, trying different wines and spending time with his grandson, Keegan. His first car was a maroon 1966 Mustang.

Made a spirited run for the title in the year's last major championship at the JELD-WEN Tradition late in the month. Went into the event as the lowest of 16 seeded players and upset Larry Nelson, John Jacobs and Raymond Floyd en route to the final match against Leonard Thompson. Vegas Senior Classic. Broke a tie with Dave Eichelberger by making a 30-foot eagle putt at the 16th hole...Also came close to victory earlier in the campaign at the PGA Seniors' Championship. Shared the lead heading into the final round at PGA National, but eventually second to Allen Doyle by two strokes...Was also a runner-up at the ACE Group Classic in Naples, a distant five strokes back of Doyle. 1998: Closed with a 68 at the Las Vegas Senior Classic, but fell one stroke shy of Hale Irwin...Challenged Irwin again at the U.S. Senior Open at Riviera CC, but again came up one short. 1997: Emerged victorious at the final Bank One Classic in Lexington when he seized the lead with three holes to play and went on to record a one-stroke victory over Isao Aoki. 1996: First win was a memorable one...Posted a one-stroke victory at the Burnet Senior Classic in July and in the process, became just the fifth Monday qualifier in Champions Tour history to win a tournament. Breakthrough came in just his eighth start on the circuit...Was in contention with Hale Irwin in his first Champions Tour start before finishing third at the 1996 PGA Seniors' Championship.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Prior to joining the Champions Tour, played on the PGA European Tour for more than two decades and collected five official victories...Won the 1992 Murphy's English Open at The Belfry in dramatic fashion, sinking an 87-foot putt on the last hole for the victory. 2006 SEASON:

Did not play on the Champions Tour while recovering from back surgery in 2005.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Played only the first half of the year due to lower-back problems...Underwent surgery in Houston and had a fusion done on August 3 after having two discs removed...Best effort in 12 official appearances was a T19 at the season-opening MasterCard Championship. 2004: Broke through for his first professional victory in nearly eight years when he defeated Graham Marsh in a three-hole playoff to win the MasterCard Classic in March near Mexico City. Had birdied the final hole in regulation, which helped him close with a 5-under-par 67, one of only two players to finish below 70 on Sunday. Appeared to be out of contention when Marsh's lead on the field grew to three strokes with six holes to play, but found himself in a playoff when Marsh three-putted holes 16 and 17 to drop back into a tie. Won the tournament with a par on the third extra hole to earn the $300,000 first prize, the largest check of his career. Victory was even more remarkable in that he had battled health issues (elevated blood pressure due to an alteration in his medication) in the second round, which nearly forced him out of the event. Medication was a result of a heart attack he suffered in January while undergoing a stress test. 2003: Became eligible for the Champions Tour in April and debuted at the Kinko's Classic of Austin (T35)...T6 at the FleetBoston Classic after three straight rounds in the 60s...Also T9 at the Turtle Bay Championship in Hawaii. 2002: Attended the 2002 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament in November and finished T11 at the World Woods GC in Florida, earning a conditional exemption for the 2003 season. Also played from PGA TOUR Career Victory category.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

After enjoying three wins in a four-year span early in career, had to wait another 14 years, 8 months and 2 days for his fourth title, the 1996 Quad City Classic. Only Butch Baird, who went 15 years, 5 months and 10 days between his first and second TOUR victories, had a longer drought. Trailed Tiger Woods by one stroke after 54 holes but closed with a 67 for a two-stroke victory over Andrew Magee. BEST 2006 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T5—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am; T6—FedEx Kinko's Classic.

2006 SEASON:

Plagued by foot problems during the last half of the season and fell out of the top 30 on the single-season money list for the first time since joining the Champions Tour in 1999...Had two opportunities to win early in the year...Nearly claimed his 19th career title when he was the back-nine leader at the FedEx Kinko's Classic in late April. After holding the 36-hole lead, opened with a 4-under-32 on the front nine Sunday before disaster struck on the back nine. Made a bogey at No. 11 and then played Nos. 14-17 in 5-over par and eventually finished T6 after a closing-round 74. Check for $57,600 moved him over $13-million mark in Champions Tour career money. Made the fifth hole-in-one of his competitive career when he ached No. 3 in the second round at The Hills CC, with a 5-iron from 177 yards. It was his third ace in 10 months, after holes-in-one at the 2005 FedEx Kinko's Classic and the SBC Championship...Finished T5 two months earlier at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am in Tampa after being two strokes off the pace after 36 holes.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Streak of consecutive years with a victory on the Champions Tour was snapped at six...Among the top 10 in a third of his 27 appearances, highlighted by a trio of T5s during the season...Made a nice showing at the Turtle Bay Championship in late January. Tied the course scoring record with a closing-round, 7-under-par 65, his best round of 2005, to make a nice move on the Sunday leaderboard...Again finished T5 in early May at the FedEx Kinko's Classic. Trailing by one stroke entering the final round in Austin, but a 73 on Sunday moved him back in the pack...Played his most consistent golf late in the year when he reeled off a Champions Tour-best 21 straight rounds of par/better and finished among the top 10 four times in six starts...Was the only player during the campaign to make a pair of aces. Made his first hole-in-one of 2005 in the opening round of the Allianz Championship at the Tournament Club of Iowa (No. 16 from 178 yards with a 4-iron). Second ace came on Saturday of the SBC Championship (No. 9 from 163 yards with a 7-iron). 2004: Got off to a fast start early in the season when he prevailed by one stroke over Dana Quigley at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic. Continued his mastery at the Crandon Park GC, winning the event for the third time in six tries. His 6-under-par total of 210 was the highest winning total in tournament history. Was the only player to finish all three rounds under par, including a final-round 71 in windy conditions. Birdied the final hole to hold off Quigley, and in the process, became the only three-time winner in tournament history. The victory also marked the second time in his career he had won the same event three times, having done so at the Home Depot Invitational from 1999-2001...Became the first multiple winner of 2004 when he went wire-to-wire near Birmingham and cakewalked to a seven-stroke victory at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Victory was his 18th career title on the Champions Tour, and his 12th different tournament title. Made just two bogeys in the event and led the field by hitting 48 of 54 greens (90.7 percent). Winning margin at Greystone was his biggest ever...Thwarted in his bid to win a third title at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Started the final round with a three-stroke advantage, but was overtaken by Doug Tewell and finished second despite posting a 4-under 68 on Sunday...Solo third at the Ford Senior Players Championship was his best finish in that event. 2003: After placing among the top three money-winners for four straight years, slipped to 10th in official earnings...Claimed his second Verizon Classic early in the campaign. Outdueled Hale Irwin down the stretch at the TPC Tampa Bay. Was the beneficiary of a two-stroke swing at the 17th hole on Sunday and went on to record his 16th career title on the circuit...Also challenged Tom Jenkins down the stretch at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, but finished solo second after making bogey on two of the last three holes...Made a spirited bid for another victory at the Columbus Southern Open, but his closing-round, 8-under-par 62 fell two strokes shy of eventual winner Morris Hatafsky...Opened with a 7-under-par 64 at the FleetBoston Classic in August and hung in contention for the duration before falling by three strokes to Allen Doyle and finishing T2 along with Bob Gilder...Also T2 at the Allianz Championship despite shooting a 7-under 64 in the second round, the low 18-hole score in the event. 2002: Recorded 20 top-10 finishes with 46 rounds in the 60s, both second to Hale Irwin (22/50)...Claimed his first title in more than 12 months when he had a record-setting performance at the RJR Championship. Was a five-stroke victor over Hale Irwin, and in the process, set Champions Tour 36- and 54-hole scoring records. His 54-hole total of 191 (19-under-par) broke the previous three-round low by two strokes (set in 1989 by Bob Charles and later matched by Charles Coody in 1991 and Gibby Gilbert in 1992) and his 36-hole score also broke the old mark by two strokes (set by Jim Colbert in 1994 and matched by Hale Irwin in 1997). Opened the tournament by tying the Champions Tour record with a 60 (10-under-par) that included pars on the last four holes, 10 birdies and 23 putts on the par-70 Tanglewood course. Victory made him the last of three wire-to-wire winners during the year (Tom Kite, MasterCard Championship, and Bob Gilder, FleetBoston Classic. 2001: Earned over $2 million for the third straight year and went down to the wire with Allen Doyle for the top spot in the first Charles Schwab Cup competition and

2006 SEASON:

Once again played an abbreviated schedule, yet managed three top-10s in nine official starts, the most he's had in a single year since 2001...Posted his 16th unofficial senior title early in the campaign in Hawaii. Made an eight-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole for nine skins and $410,000, and teamed with Dana Quigley to beat Jack Nicklaus and Tom Watson with 10 skins and a record $510,000 in the alternate-shot Wendy's Champions Skins Game...In mid-May at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin, made a spirited run at becoming the Champions Tour's oldest winner. Matched his age for the first time with a final-round, 8-under 63, one off his Champions Tour career-best, on The Raven Course at Sandestin. Eventually fell one stroke short of Bobby Wadkins but still became the third-youngest player in Champions Tour annals to shoot his age in a round that included five consecutive birdies on the back nine. Finish on Florida's panhandle was his best since a T2 at the 2001 Transamerica...Had another chance at victory at the season's last full-field event in San Antonio. Ended up T4 at the AT&T Championship after he was just one stroke off the lead after 36 holes at Oak Hills. 2006 SEASON:

Made three appearances on the Champions Tour after becoming eligible in June. Managed to win his first title in his last start on the circuit, claiming the AT&T Championship late in the season in San Antonio. Went wire-to-wire at Oak Hills, a first at the tournament since Jim Albus in 1994. Found himself two strokes back of Chip Beck with just four holes to play but rallied with three consecutive birdies and a clutch up-and-down save for the clinching par from just left of the 18th green. Went ahead of Beck for good with a 12-foot birdie putt on No. 17. Victory at Oak Hills was the second of his career in Texas...Debuted on the Champions Tour at the U.S. Senior Open in early July and T11 at Prairie Dunes in Kansas...Finished T11 again a week later at the Ford Senior Players Championship in Dearborn, MI...Played a full PGA TOUR schedule and recorded three top-10s in 29 events...In eighth start of the season on the PGA TOUR, posted first top-10, a T10 at the Bay Hill Invitational presented by MasterCard. Was one of four players to post two rounds in the 60s (68-69) on the weekend in Orlando...Best effort of the campaign came in Louisiana when he finished T2 at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. Fired a final-round 10-under-par 62, one stroke off the English Turn G&CC course record, yet ended up one stroke behind Chris Couch when Couch chipped in for par on the last hole...Collected his seventh top-10 at the Southern Farm Bureau Classic with a T8 effort at Annandale GC. The two-time champion is the tournament's all-time leading money winner, with $1,106,465 and top-10 leader with seven in 12 appearances dating back to 1985.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Winner of seven PGA TOUR events in 18 years on the PGA TOUR, highlighted by triumph at THE PLAYERS Championship in 2005. Became the oldest winner of the event at 48 years, 9 months, 14 days, defeating Tom Lehman, Scott Verplank and Luke Donald by a stroke at the tournament's third Monday finish in the last seven years. After weather played havoc with the field over the first four days of the tournament, had to play 33 holes on Monday to capture his seventh career win. Was able to get up and down from the greenside bunker and pour in a six-foot putt to get to 9-under 279, then sat and waited as Donald and Joe Durant, who were one stroke behind with one hole to play, failed to make birdie to force a playoff. Third player in tournament history with local ties to win (Mark McCumber in 1988 and David Duval in 1999). One of two players that year to post sub-par third- and fourth-round scores with his 71-71 (J.L. Lewis, 70-70) during 25 mph wind conditions that saw gusts up to 40 mph. Led the tournament in Driving Accuracy (85.7 percent) and Greens in Regulation (80.6 percent). Matched Tom Kite for most appearances in the event prior to winning, going 15 years before claiming the title. Earned five-year PGA TOUR exemption. Victory in Ponte Vedra propelled him to a career-best $2,830,046, 11th on the final earnings list....Won the 2004 Southern Farm Bureau Classic, his

Posted Sunday's best round, a 7-under-par 65 at Hayfields CC, to make up three shots on second-round leader Don Pooley for his ninth Champions Tour crown. Played bogey-free golf over his final 36 holes and made just one bogey all tournament...Was named the Champions Tour September Player of the Month...Among the early leaders at the

Greater Kansas City Golf Classic and eventually T5...Made nice showing at the U.S. Senior Open with a seventh-place finish at Prairie Dunes CC. CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Only Champions Tour player to compete in all 28 official events...Claimed his eighth career victory on the Champions Tour at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore. Win ended a victory drought of 2 years, 4 months, 28 days. Despite a double bogey in the final round, became the second consecutive wire-to-wire winner at Hayfields CC, and his 18-under-par 198 total equaled the tournament record. Opened with a course-record-tying 64 and cruised to a four-stroke triumph over Morris Hatafsky. Needed just 78 putts and credited a

Had a pair of eagles in carding an opening-round 66 in Grand Rapids...Followed with another strong showing the next week near Kansas City, T3 at the weather-shortened Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am...Also on the leaderboard throughout the U.S. Senior Open and finished solo fifth at Bellerive, his best performance in a senior major since the 2002 JELD-WEN Tradition. 2003: Among his nine top-10 finishes were a win, three seconds and a third...Played some of his best golf during a one-month stretch starting in late April with his seventh Champions Tour win at the Emerald Coast Classic. His 54-hole 17-under 193 total shattered the tournament record by three strokes, and was also the lowest 54-hole winning score on the Champions Tour. Closing-round 63 in Pensacola was also the best finish by a winner in 2003. Used a second-round 64 to vault himself into a tie with Tom Watson after 36 holes and then cruised easily to the title after shooting a 7-under 63 on Easter Sunday. Made 23 birdies over 54 holes, the most by any player in the field, and birdied both par-5s at The Moors all three days...Champions Tour's April Player of the Month...Came close to defending his title at the FleetBoston Classic in August after rounds of 68-65-68, but fell three strokes shy, finishing T2 with Bruce Fleisher behind Allen Doyle...Went head-to-head with Jim Thorpe at the Long Island Classic two weeks later but lost by one stroke. BEST 2006 PGA TOUR FINISH: T22—Wachovia Championship.

2006 SEASON: Won the Jack Nicklaus Trophy as the Champions Tour Player of the Year. Became the first player since Hale Irvin in 2002 to claim both the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner and the season-long Charles Schwab Cup crown... Battled Loren Roberts to the wire for the two titles before claiming both at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, thanks to his T6 finish. Earned a Champions Tour career-best $2,420,227 to win the money title by $54,832, but his victory margin in the Charles Schwab Cup race was only 20 points as Roberts missed a short putt for par on No. 18 which would have given Roberts the title. His win in the Charles Schwab Cup race earned him a $1-million annuity... Won four titles during the season, sharing that distinction with Roberts... Claimed one of the biggest wins of his career in late May when he prevailed in a playoff at the Senior PGA Championship at Oak Tree GC in Edmond, OK. The win was his first major championship in 90 starts in his TOUR career and gave him three consecutive victories on the Champions Tour. Made a clutch birdie putt on the 72nd hole which appeared to be the clincher, but Brad Bryant answered with a birdie putt on the same hole minutes later to set up a playoff. Rolled in a par putt on the third extra hole to defeat Bryant and become the second player (Loren Roberts the other) to win three straight events in 2006... The first of those victories came in April when he went wire-to-wire at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Held off late challenges by Craig Stadler and Peter Jacobsen on Sunday for a five-stroke victory in Savannah. Made key birdies on Nos. 16 and 17 on his way to a closing-round, 5-under-par 67. Stellar play on the back nine during the event was the difference. Was 13-under-par on the final nine at the Westin Savannah Harbor Golf Resort, with just one bogey. His winning score of 15-under-par 201 was a new tournament record... Made it two straight wins the following week when he came from three strokes behind on Sunday to win the FedEx Kinko's Classic at The Hills CC near Austin. Matched the tournament scoring record with a final-round, 7-under-par 65, highlighted by five straight birdies on Nos. 2-6 and a 5-under-par 31 on the front nine. Added birdies on three of the final four holes to pull away from his challengers. Needed just 21 putts Sunday as he was victorious for the fifth time in his professional career in Texas. Two victories were enough to earn him April Player of the Month honors... Added a fourth title late in the year at the Administaff Small Business Classic. Five-stroke victory at the rain-shortened event was his sixth TOUR title in Texas and made him just the second player (Bob Charles, the other) to claim both a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour title in the Houston area. Separated himself from the field Saturday, thanks to an Augusta Pines course-record 63. Maintained his five-stroke advantage through five holes Sunday before heavy rains in the early afternoon rendered the course unplayable... Held the lead briefly on the back nine at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach before eventually finishing T2 along with David Edwards, one stroke back of winner Scott Simpson... Also T2 in his next outing at the Constellation Energy Classic, finishing with birdies on the final two holes Sunday... Fifth-place finish at the weather-shortened SAS Championship near Raleigh moved him over the $2 million in season earnings... Opened his 2006 season on the PGA TOUR and finished T59 at the Sony Open in Hawaii... Missed the cut at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am... Made his record 30th start at the Verizon Heritage, three more than Lanny Wadkins at Harbour Town but missed the cut... Tied for the low score of the third round at the Wachovia Championship, with a 7-

under 65. Eventually finished T22 at Charlotte, NC, event, where he played with sons, Bill and Jay... Moved ahead of Tom Kite on the PGA TOUR's all-time record for most cuts made (591) when he played on the weekend at the U.S. Open. Made the cut in a third decade at Winged Foot, eventually finishing T37... BEST 2006 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: 1—Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic; T2—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am; T4—AT&T Classic.

2006 SEASON:

After four straight seasons with over $1 million in season earnings, he failed to reach that figure last year, finishing with just over $900,000. Played some of his best golf early in the year when he won more than half his money during a four-event stretch. Ended nearly a three-year victory drought when he prevailed by one stroke over Scott Simpson at the Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic in Mexico. That win capped a run where he finished T2, T4 and first in four starts. Played near-flawless golf in the final round in Mexico, making his lone bogey at the last hole. Had just one bogey and a double bogey over the final 48 holes on his way to his third career win. Earned $240,000 for the victory, the largest check of his professional career. Led all players in Greens in Regulation in the tournament, hitting 43 of 54 in the event. The win helped secure March Player of the Month honors. His initial top-10 finish came just over a month earlier in Tampa when he was T2 for the second year in succession at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Fired a closing-round, 7-under 64 Sunday to get himself in position for his first win in three years. But Jerry Pate ended any playoff possibilities when he made a birdie on the final hole to earn the victory. Recovered nicely after opening-round 75 at Valencia to place T4 in his next start at the AT&T Classic. Was T47 after play Friday, but a 68

Sunday equaled the best final-round score and moved him into the top five. For the first time in three years did not lead the Champions Tour in Putting Average. Slipped to 26th in that category.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Did everything but win an event, finishing among the top-10 in 12 of 25 tournaments, including five straight top-10s and seven top-10s in eight starts at one point early in the season. Ranked second to Dana Quigley (60) in Sub-Par Rounds, with 58, and 35 of his 78 total rounds were in the 60s. Eighth-place finish on the money list was his highest standing ever, and only Gil Morgan earned more without a victory in 2005. Was a runner-up four times during the campaign. Was the Saturday- and Sunday-night leader at the weather-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am before Hale Irwin overtook him in a rare Monday finish near Tampa and he was T2 along with defending champion Mark McNulty one stroke back. Was involved in another Monday finish in early May at the Blue Angels Classic, his first playoff appearance on the Champions Tour. Lost to Jim Thorpe on the third extra hole at The Moors. Was on the verge of winning the event Sunday evening, but fell into a playoff when Thorpe made an 11-foot birdie putt on the final hole of regulation. Matched his career-best round with a 7-under 63 that included a run of six straight birdies (Nos. 11-16) on the first day at The Moors. Along with Thorpe, 54-hole total of 16-under-par 194 was the numerical low on the circuit last year. Posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s on the Monterey Peninsula and finished one stroke back of Irwin again at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and then, in his next start, finished four shots back of Bob Gilder at the Constellation Energy Classic even though he made just one bogey in his last 38 holes at The Hayfields. Trained by two strokes heading into the final round, thanks to a course record-tying, 8-under 64. Placed solo fourth at the Senior PGA Championship, his best career effort in a senior major. Led the Champions Tour in First-Round Scoring Average (68.92) and ranked fourth overall in Scoring Average (69.68). Also led the Champions Tour in Putting Average (1.728) for the second straight year. Shared the first- and second-round leads at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic before a closing-round 72 dropped him to T5. Also shared opening-round lead at the Administraff Small Business Classic before eventual T18. 2004: Best finish came early in the campaign when he battled Tom Purtzer down the stretch at the Toshiba Senior Classic before eventually finishing second by one stroke at Newport Beach. Performance in Orange County was his best effort since finishing as a runner-up at 2003 3M Championship. Led all players in Putting with an average of 1.746 and was second to Ben Crenshaw in Putts Per Round at 28.27. 2003: Victorious at the Columbus Southern Open. Claimed second Champions Tour career title when he defeated Allen Doyle by one stroke in Georgia. Played all 54 holes without a bogey, and in the process became the first player to win an event without a bogey since Bruce Fleisher at the 1999 Transamerica. Extended his bogey-free streak to 98 holes to set a new Champions Tour standard, breaking the old record of 97 set by the late Jack Kiefer in 1994. Started his streak on the 12th hole of his second round at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am and saw it end at the second hole of his second-round at the Music City Championship. Nearly won a second title in August when he finished T2 with Gil Morgan at the 3M Championship, one stroke behind Wayne Levi. Narrowly missed a birdie putt at 18, which would have eventually earned him a playoff spot opposite Levi. 2002: Voted by his peers as the Rookie of the Year. Was one of the great success stories of the season. Began the year as a non-exempt player. However, took full advantage of open qualifying, sponsor exemptions and his Past Champion status to parlay those early appearances into exempt status via the Tour reshuffle. Registered his first Champions Tour victory at the Uniting Fore Care Classic. Pulled away from the field with five birdies on the front nine and won by 12 points in the Modified Stableford system event. Victory in Park City ended a drought of 12 years, one month and 10 days and put him over the $1-million mark in just his 16th event of the season. Enjoyed great early success as an open qualifier, posting four top 10s in five starts via that route, including a runner-up effort to Jay Sigel at the Farmers Charity Classic, one of three 2002 second-place finishes. First appearance on the Champions Tour came via a sponsor exemption into the Verizon Classic and he T17 at the TPC Tampa Bay.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played full-time on the PGA TOUR from 1977-94 and had four victories, the last coming at the 1990 Bank of Boston Classic. Birdied three of the last four holes on Sunday to nip Scott Verplank by one stroke. Twice won titles in playoffs. Beat George Cadle in a playoff at the 1983 Greater Milwaukee Open and defeated Tom Kite in a playoff at the 1988 Kemper Open. Played in 451 career events and made 284 cuts. Best years came in 1988 and 1990 when he earned $239,019 and $253,639, respectively. Was 47th on the 1988 money list, his Bogey-free streak ended at 94 straight holes during the opening round of the Los Angeles event, the second-longest run in Champions Tour history at the time, just three holes shy of Jack Kiefer's mark. 1999: Successfully defended his Pacific Bell Senior Classic title. Rallyed from three strokes back on Sunday with a sizzling 65 to edge Dave Stockton by two strokes. Almost won the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic, but lost to Allen Doyle on the fourth extra hole... BEST 2006 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T2—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am; 4—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, The ACE Group Classic; T6—FedEx Kinko's Classic; T8—Toshiba Classic; T10—3M Championship.

2006 SEASON:

Saw a number of his Champions Tour record streaks come to an end. Failed to win an event for the first time since joining the Champions Tour in 1995 (streak was 11 in a row) and did not win at least $1 million in a season (streak ended at 10) when he finished with $808,144. In addition, his record streak of top-10 finishes on the money list ended at 11 when he was 22nd overall...Turned in some of his best performances early in the year, including a stretch where he had three straight top-five finishes in February and five top-10 finishes in eight starts. Had just one top-10 in the final six months...Nearly claimed his 45th Champion Tour title in February at The ACE Group Classic. Trained eventual champion Loren Roberts by three strokes at the turn Sunday before moving into a tie with Roberts following a birdie at No. 15. However, saw his quest for victory fall short when he hit his second shot into the water at No. 18, resulting in a double bogey and an eventual T4...Made another strong showing the following week in defense of his title at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am. Shared the 36-hole lead with Mark McNulty and Mark James and held a one-stroke lead with two holes remaining before making a bogey at the 17th hole, which dropped him into a four-way tie for the lead with James, Morris Hatalsky and Jerry Pate. Moments later, Pate's birdie on the final hole gave him the win...Was fourth at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April...Claimed a T6 finish at the FedEx Kinko's Classic...Also T10 at the 3M Championship, his seventh top 10 in 11 starts in the Minnesota event...Finished T38 in his quest for a sixth consecutive Turtle Bay Championship title...Played in his first non-major on the European Tour since the 1978 Swiss Open when he was in the field in the Barclay's Scottish Open near Glasgow on a sponsor's exemption. Raised eyebrows when he birdied his last five holes in the opening round and then made the cut before finishing 66th at Loch Lomond...Finished 39th in Putting Average, his lowest ever finish in that category, and he also slipped from eighth to 24th in Driving Accuracy. Did not record a top 10 in a major championship for the first time in his Champions Tour career.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Enjoyed another record-setting year as he led all players with four wins and narrowly missed earning $2 million for the eighth time in his career...Made history in late January when he rolled to a five-stroke victory at the Turtle Bay Championship, the 41st of his Champions Tour career. The win gave him five straight victories at the event, the first time a player had ever won a PGA TOUR-sanctioned event five straight times. It was also his sixth win at the tournament. Shot rounds of 67-66-67 and set a 54-hole record at 16-under-par 200. The victory was his 100th top-three finish in his 230th start on the Champions Tour. It was also the eighth official TOUR win he has posted in Hawaii (seven on Champions Tour) and capped an impressive two-week run in the Islands...One week earlier, opened the season with a T3 at the MasterCard Championship. Shot consecutive 7-under-par 65s on the weekend and missed earning a spot in the playoff with Tom Watson and eventual winner Dana Quigley by just one stroke...Won his 42nd career title on the Champions Tour at the rain-shortened Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa. Monday finish resulted in a one-stroke victory over Morris Hatafsky and Mark McNulty. Found himself one stroke back of Hatafsky after playing three holes on Sunday before play was suspended for the day. Eventually made two birdies and a five-foot par save on the final hole to prevail on Monday afternoon. Notched his 22nd different tournament win on the Champions Tour with win in Tampa and ran his streak of years with multiple victories to a record 11 straight seasons...Won for the 43rd time on the Champions Tour when he prevailed by one stroke over Craig Stadler, Morris Hatafsky and Gil Morgan at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open. Shared the 36-hole lead with Morgan, and his final-round, 4-under-par 68 made him the year's first three-time winner. The win also marked the 12th time a player won a Champions Tour and PGA TOUR on the same venue (he also did it at Riviera CC near Los Angeles) and made him the 14th player over age 60 (60 years, 3 months, 1 day) to win a Champions Tour event...Added a fourth title and 44th career crown when he was a two-stroke victor at the SAS Championship near Raleigh in October. Entered the final round four strokes behind 36-hole leader R.W. Eaks, but eventually won by two strokes over Bob Gilder and Tom Jenkins. Battled several contenders down the stretch but sealed the win with a clutch eagle putt on the 17th hole. Drained the putt from 24 1/2 feet to assume a two-stroke cushion over Gilder at the time. His blistering back nine (6-under-par 31) included four birdies and an eagle. The victory made him the first player over 60 to win two events in the same year...It was also the sixth time in his 10 full seasons he had won four or more events in a season. The win also marked the eighth time in his career he had won consecutive starts on the Champions Tour...At the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston, came up two strokes short in his bid for a third consecutive title. Played his last six holes in 2-under, yet fell to a hard-charging Mark McNulty...Was in contention for a major championship victory in July but came up one stroke shy of Peter Jacobsen at the Ford Senior Players Championship. Was the 54-hole leader and battled Jacobsen down the stretch, but missed two crucial putts on the final two holes to finish second. Still earned $220,000 for his second-place finish, pushing him past $1 million in season earnings for the 10th straight year...Voted as the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for January/February as well as September. 2004: Continued to defy the odds and again put together a remarkable season that contained multiple victories, despite having to deal with a tender lower back and assorted neck and shoulder pain late in the year...T7 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, helped him hold off Craig Stadler by a mere 39 points in the season's final event to earn his second Charles Schwab Cup. Led the Schwab Cup race for 11 weeks during the summer and then slipped into second place for four weeks before regaining the top spot for good after his runner-up finish at the Administaff Small Business Classic...Had a Tour-best 40 rounds in the 60s out of 73 played (55 percent)...Survived a grueling week at Valhalla to claim his fourth Senior PGA Championship and his 40th career Champions Tour title. Two-putted from 40 feet to birdie the 72nd hole to claim the weather-plagued event by one stroke over Jay Haas. replacement surgery September 9 in Naples, FL, and did not return to competition although he did earn a spot in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the third consecutive year...Made his best showing at the U.S. Senior Open where he was T3. After an opening round, 2-over-par 72, followed with three consecutive rounds in the 60s to remain among the leaders throughout the final three rounds. Was 3-under-par after eight holes Sunday, but his undoing was a double bogey on No. 9 and a bogey at No. 11...Hobbled by a sore right knee at the start of the season and eventually had a series of synthetic cartilage injections in hopes of avoiding knee replacement...Was forced to withdraw from the Toshiba Classic prior to the final round...Finished T4 in the AT&T Classic at Valencia the week prior...Placed T27 at the Verizon Heritage in April at Hilton Head Island on the PGA TOUR...Strong play continued the next week at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Made a spirited run on the final day and was tied for the lead at one point on the back nine. Could not hold off a late, back-nine charge by eventual winner Jay Haas and finished T2...Held the 36-hole lead at the Senior PGA Championship after rounds of 67-68, but finished with consecutive rounds of 75 on the weekend to slip to a T7 finish at the Oak Tree GC in Oklahoma...Made four starts on the PGA TOUR and made the cut at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am (T60) as well as the Verizon Heritage (T27).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Was a top-30 finisher and earned his second consecutive berth in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship despite knee woes which limited him to just 10 starts on the Champions Tour. Initially underwent surgery on his right knee at the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic in Vail, CO, on Feb. 14 and was out of action until THE PLAYERS Championship at the end of March, where he missed the cut. Had surgery on the same knee again on September 7 at the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic to remove floating pieces of torn cartilage and returned in late October at the FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World Resort...Just prior to the second surgery, knee problems forced him to withdraw from the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach before the start of the final round...Highlight of the campaign came in July when he picked up his second win in a major championship on the Champions Tour, nipping Hale Irwin by one stroke at the Ford Senior Players Championship near Detroit. Key birdies on two of the final three holes were instrumental in his come-from-behind win. Had started the final round three strokes behind Irwin but closed with a 6-under-par 66 for the win. Victory made him just one of three golfers (Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus) whose first two Champions Tour wins came in major championships...Finished T10 at the season-opening MasterCard Championship and then did not play again on the Champions Tour until the Blue Angels Classic near Pensacola in early May. Opened and closed with rounds of 65 to T3 at The Moors, three strokes out of a playoff...Was on the leaderboard all four days of the Senior PGA Championship and eventually T6 at Laurel Valley after posting a final-round 75...Played in 11 events on the PGA TOUR and made the cut in five of them, including the U.S. Open at Pinehurst No. 2 where he finished T15. It was his first start in the U.S. Open since 1996 (T23) and earned an exemption into the tournament after winning the 2004 U.S. Senior Open. It was his first made cut in a major on the PGA TOUR since the 1997 PGA Championship (T67). Performance at Pinehurst earned him a return trip to the prestigious event in 2006. Made a hole-in-one on 175-yard No. 9 (7-iron) on Saturday, which led to a 1-under 69 in the third round, his first sub-70 performance at a PGA TOUR major championship since posting a 69 in the final round of the 1996 British Open and his first score in the 60s at a U.S. Open since shooting 64 during the final round of the 1998 event at The Country Club in Brookline, MA...Had good showing at the MCI Heritage on the PGA TOUR in May, finishing T25...Also finished T28 at the PGA TOUR's Sony Open in Hawaii at the start of the year. 2004: Officially joined the Champions Tour at the SBC Classic in March shortly after turning 50, but subsequent left hip surgery in April kept him out of action on the Tour for nearly three months...Highlight of his season came in his third start on the Champions Tour in late July when he was one-stroke victor over Hale Irwin in the U.S. Senior Open near St. Louis. Posted rounds of 69-68 Sunday, despite walking all 36 holes in 90-degree heat at Bellerive with a sore left hip. Became the second-youngest champion in Senior Open history at 50 years, 4 months, 28 days (Dale Douglass is youngest at 50/3/24)...Nearly won his second major title less than a month later. Shared the third-round lead with Vicente Fernandez at the JELD-WEN Tradition near his home in Portland, but couldn't hang on in Sunday's final round. Was among a half-dozen players slugging it out down the stretch on Sunday's back nine but saw his chances go awry when he made a double bogey at No. 17. Birdied the final hole, but his closing-round, 1-over-par 73 left him T4...Appeared to be in the driver's seat down the stretch at the inaugural Administaff Small Business Classic but dumped his second shot in the water from a fairway bunker on the par-5 final hole and fell one stroke short of a playoff with Hale Irwin and eventual winner Larry Nelson...Had to withdraw from both the Ford Senior Players Championship and the Senior British Open with hip problems prior to his Senior Open win...Finished third in his Champions Tour debut at the SBC Classic in early March. Was among the first-round leaders at Valencia after opening with 5-under 67...Also was tied for the first-round lead at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic after firing a 6-under 64 on Friday. Eventually T26 at Eisenhower Park after experiencing pain in his left hip on the weekend...Withdrawn from the MCI Heritage Classic on the PGA TOUR in April and underwent left hip surgery to repair a torn labrum the following week. Did not play again until early July at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic...Has made 16 holes-in-one in competitive rounds.

Defeated Chris Riley by two strokes at the TPC River Highlands. Victory came 19 years since last win at Hartford (1984), joining Arnold Palmer, Billy Casper, Paul Azinger and Phil Mickelson as multiple winners of the event. Triumph also came in his 27th season on the PGA TOUR (624th career tournament), making him seventh-oldest winner in TOUR history at 49 years, 4 months, 23 days. First-place check of $720,000 was exactly 10 times more than he earned for his first GHO victory in 1984 ($72,000). Named 2003 PGA TOUR Comeback Player of the Year...His highest finish on the money list came in 1995 when he was seventh ($1,075,057) on the strength of back-to-back victories at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and Buick Invitational of California. Shot a closing 65 for a two-stroke victory over David Duval at Pebble Beach and then used consecutive 68s on the weekend in San Diego for a four-stroke win over four players at Torrey Pines...First two-victory season came in 1984 when he defeated Payne Stewart in a playoff for the Colonial National Invitation title, which he dedicated to his father, who had just undergone serious surgery...Two-stroke triumph over Mark O'Meara at the Sammy Davis, Jr.-Greater Hartford Open later that year highlighted by a third-round 63...Came from six strokes off the pace in final round for first TOUR win at the 1990 Buick-Goodwrench Open in Michigan...A member of the United States Ryder Cup team in 1985 and 1995 and played for the American squad in the 1984 U.S. vs. Japan matches. Finished T2 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa. Shared the second-round lead with Hale Irwin and Mark McNulty and remained in contention until a bogey on the 17th hole left him one stroke shy of winner

At the FedEx Kinko's Classic, finished T2 after rounds of 69-67 on the weekend, two strokes shy of winner Jay Haas...Posted the best round of his Champions Tour career the week prior when he closed with an 8-under-par 64 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in early April. in a Champions Tour major championship, and he earned a career-best check for $375,000 in Michigan. 2006 SEASON:

Remains one of the Champions Tour's most consistent performers...Was one of a dozen players to reach the $1-million mark in season earnings, the eighth consecutive year he has reached that plateau. Only Gil Morgan with 10 straight years has more...Played in all but one event (Senior British Open) and posted a victory for the fifth straight year, the second-longest current streak on the Champions Tour behind Jim Thorpe (seven years)...Broke through for his seventh career victory when he was a one-stroke winner over Loren Roberts and Chip Beck at the weather-shortened SAS Championship near Raleigh in early October. Fired rounds of 68-66 and held a one-stroke margin following Saturday's round before overnight rains forced cancellation of the final round. Picked up $300,000 for his win, the largest check of his career. The win gave him at least one title in seven of nine seasons on the Champions Tour...Lost to John Harris in a playoff in the Commerce Bank Championship at the Red Course at Eisenhower Park. Was the 36-hole leader in the event but was caught by Harris on the final day despite shooting a 2-under 69 in the final round. Made a sparkling par save on the first hole of overtime only to lose to a birdie by Harris moments later...A tournament record-tying, 11-under-par 61 at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic helped vault him from a T39 after two rounds to a T3 finish. The 61 was a career best as a professional...Shot a 4-under 68 Sunday at Valencia, matching the low round of the day, and finished third at the AT&T Classic...Initial top-10 finish was a T6 at The ACE Group Classic in February...Added another T6 finish in April at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...His strong play continued the following week in his hometown. Finished fifth at FedEx Kinko's Classic at The Hills CC near Austin...Contended for all three rounds at the Constellation Energy Classic before eventually finishing T7...He and Jim Thorpe had more eagles (13) than any players on the Champions Tour...Was T2 in Sub-Par Rounds, with 52 (Gil Morgan led, with 57) and was T4 in Top-10 Finishes (11).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Financially, enjoyed his best season on the Champions Tour since becoming a member in 1998. Earned a career-best total of nearly $1.5 million which placed him sixth on the money list...It marked the seventh straight year he has been among the top-30 money winners...Played 27 of 28 events, missing only the Senior British Open...Won for the sixth time in his career, defeating D.A. Weibring with a five-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole at the Allianz Championship near Des Moines, the fourth straight year he has won an event. Birdied four of six holes during one stretch on the back nine and kept his composure after missing a three-foot birdie putt on No. 17 that would have given him the win in regulation. Win capped a run of five top-five finishes in six appearances that started when he was the runner-up to Des Smyth at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Finished T2 at the SAS Championship, two strokes behind Hale Irwin. Trailed 36-hole leader R.W. Eaks by two strokes heading into Sunday's final round and closed with a 2-under-par 70, but could not hold off a back-nine charge from Irwin, who played the final nine holes in 6-under-par...Finished T3 in defense of his Blue Angels Classic title after opening and closing with a 66 at The Moors...Had a nice effort in Sunday's final round at Bruno's Memorial Classic, where he worked his way among the leaders and finished T2, his fourth straight finish in the top eight at this event...Solo fifth-place effort at the Senior PGA Championship was his best performance in a senior major since 2003 Ford Senior Players Championship (T5)...Also placed solo fifth at the Commerce Bank Championship thanks to an 8-under 63 in the second round, his best round on the Champions Tour during the year...Finished T5 at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Trailed 54-hole co-leaders Doug Tewell and Gil Morgan by just one stroke but shot an even-par 72 in the final round to slip to T5...Made his third career ace on the Champions Tour during the second round of the 3M Championship (4-iron, 200 yards, No. 13). Hole-in-one in Minnesota was his 12th eagle of the season, tying a career-high originally set in 2001. Eventually finished with 17 eagles which led all Champions Tour players. 2004: Lone victory during the season came in April when his final-round 63 helped him cruise to a five-stroke win at the Blue Angels Classic, his fifth career title on the Champions Tour. Moved into contention with a second-round 65 at The Moors and then vaulted into the lead for good with birdies on three of his first four holes Sunday...Twice a runner-up during the season. Second to Craig Stadler at the SAS Championship in September and finished three shots behind D.A. Weibring at the Allianz Championship in May. 2003: Was perhaps the Champions Tour's most consistent player and may have had his finest year in golf, with 15 top-10 finishes in 30 starts, a 2003 Champions Tour best...Also tied with Allen Doyle for the most sub-par rounds during the year (64) and 41 of his 94 total rounds were in the 60s (T2)...Highlight of his season came in early May when he registered his fourth career win on the Champions Tour at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Broke away from Bruce Fleisher and Hale Irwin with a final-round 67 for a three-stroke victory. Needed just 78 total putts over 54 holes at Greystone, and became eligible for the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf (five combined career titles) as a result of his triumph near Birmingham...Came close to winning earlier in the year in Mexico, but along with three other players, fell one stroke short of first-time winner David Eger at the MasterCard Classic...His 7-under-par 63 in the final round at the Long Island Classic included a 6-under 28 on the front nine, the season's lowest numerical nine-hole score...Joined John Bland as the only other Champions Tour player with multiple aces during the year. First made a hole-in-one in the third round of the JELD-WEN Tradition when he aced No. 7 at The Reserve with a 4-iron from 203 yards and then notched his seventh career ace in the second round of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship when he used a 9-iron from 138 yards on No. 17 at Sonoma GC. 2002: Won north of the border for the second time when he triumphed at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship. Opened with a 63 at Essex and closed with 64 to defeat Walter Morgan, Morris Hatafsky and Bruce Lietzke by three strokes. In winning, became first player since Don January (1983-84) to win multiple Champions Tour titles in Canada...Made strong bid for second win of the year, closing with a career-best 10-under-par 62 at the Kroger Senior Classic, which also tied the course record set earlier in the day by Bruce Lietzke. However, fell in a two-hole playoff with Bob Gilder, the second year in succession he lost in a playoff at the event...T10 at the Toshiba Senior Classic after playing all 54 holes without a bogey, the first senior to do so since Joe Inman at the 2000 EMC Kaanapali Classic. Bogey-free streak reached 67 holes before it ended the next week on the 16th hole in the opening round of the Siebel Classic.

2001: The only one of 16 millionaires to not win an event...Knocked on the victory door three times only to come up short with three runner-up finishes. Was in the hunt throughout The Instinet Classic, but finished two strokes back of Gil Morgan. One of only three players in the Novell Utah Showdown field to card three consecutive sub-70 rounds, but came up one stroke shy of Steve Veriato in Park City. Had victory snatched from his grasp at the Kroger Senior Classic. Closed with a then-career-best 7-under 63 at Kings Island on Sunday and was two strokes up on Jim Thorpe with one hole to play. Dramatic eagle by Thorpe forced a playoff and then a birdie by Thorpe on the first extra hole proved to be the winner. 2000: Earned his second career title as a senior at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship. Made birdie on the final hole to nip Kermit Zarley by a stroke at St. Charles CC in Winnipeg. CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Carried his success as the medalist at the 2004 National Qualifying Tournament into the regular season as he finished 28th on the money list in his first full season on the circuit. Became the third consecutive medalist to finish in the top 30 on the final money list, joining Des Smyth (2002) and Mark McNulty (2003). Undoubtedly, highlight of his season came in March when he broke through for his first Champions Tour victory in a spectacular way. Clinging to a two-stroke lead on the final hole at the Toshiba Senior Classic, he drained an L-wedge shot from 89 yards for an eagle on the 510-yard 18th hole. After hitting his wedge slightly past the hole, the ball rolled back into the cup for his second eagle in the round and gave him a comfortable four-stroke advantage over Keith Fergus and Wayne Levi. Got himself into contention on Saturday with an 8-under-par 63, his career-low score, matching the best second round in tournament history. His winning check of $247,500 was the best of his brief pro career and also surpassed his previous earnings as a professional...Backed up California victory with a T3 at the FedEx Kinko's Classic in Austin in early May. Jumped into contention midway through the final round at The Hills CC before eventually finishing five strokes back...Was T8 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. 2004: Appeared in just nine events, five of those through open qualifying...Registered his best finish of the campaign when he open-qualified for the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston in October and finished T8 at Augusta Pines, the top effort by any open qualifier in 2004...Also T12 at the Farmers Charity Classic after open qualifying at Grand Rapids...Captured medalist honors at the National Qualifying Tournament at the King and Bear at World Golf Village in Florida, where he was a two-stroke winner over Tom McKnight. Posted six sub-par rounds along the way, including an 8-under-par 64 in the final round. 2003: Earned a conditional exemption for 2004 after finishing 14th at the 2003 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the TPC Eagle Trace in Florida. One of two players tied for 14th after 72 holes at even-par 288, but claimed the 14th spot after a birdie on the second playoff hole. Earned a position in the Q-School finals after earning co-medalist honors at the Regional Qualifier in Calimesa, CA...Played on the Canadian Tour and was fourth on the Canadian Tour money list, with $47,451...Played in 10 events and made seven cuts, with his best finishes a pair of T2s at the TravelTex.com Canadian Tour Challenge and the Greater Vancouver Classic. 2006 SEASON:

Bounced back from a winless 2005 season in a big way. Nearly doubled his previous year's money total as well as picking up two wins and a fourth-place finish on the final money list...Cruised to an easy five-stroke victory over Gil Morgan at the AT&T Classic, and, in the process, ended a victory drought of just over 19 months (30 events). Win at Valencia was his 10th on TOUR in the state of California (six on the PGA TOUR; four on the Champions Tour) and third in the Los Angeles area. Joined Joe Inman and Gil Morgan as a multiple winner of the event. Five-stroke winning margin was the largest in tournament history as well, one of the three largest on the Champions Tour for the year. Moved into the lead with an 8-under 64 in the second round that matched the course record. Added a second title in August at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic when he prevailed in a one-hole playoff with fellow Texan Keith Fergus. Made a birdie-4 on the first extra hole to post his ninth career Champions Tour win and third in a playoff. It marked the first time he had earned multiple victories in a season since 2002. Needed just 72 putts on his way to victory and led all players in that category...Was in contention all four rounds at the JELD-WEN Tradition before eventually finishing T4...A week later, was the 36-hole leader at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach but eventually finished T5 after a 1-over 73 on Sunday. Performance on the Monterey Peninsula was his sixth consecutive top-10...Pushed the streak to seven consecutive when he was T10 at the Constellation Energy Classic in September...Started his run of top-10 finishes after getting putting tips from Mark McNulty and Lee Trevino during a rain delay at the Ford Senior Players Championship...Shot a bogey-free, final-round 64 at the TPC Twin Cities to jump into a T4 at the 3M Championship. Along with eventual-winner David Edwards, missed only one fairway (41 of 42/97.6 percent) in Minnesota...His performance during the month of August earned him Player of the Month honors...Initial top-10 finish came in late February when he placed T5 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am near Tampa, just prior to California victory...Added a fifth-place finish at the Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic. Opened with a 2-over-par 74 Friday but followed with rounds of 67-69 on the weekend. Saw any chance of winning slip by Sunday when he bogeyed the final two holes to slip out of contention and into fifth...Surpassed the $20-million mark in career earnings when he finished T22 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in April...Followed that performance with a strong showing at the FedEx Kinko's Classic near his home in Austin. Despite three straight sub-par rounds at The Hills CC, including a 4-under-par 68 Sunday, finished T2, two strokes behind Jay Haas...Was T9 at the Ford Senior Players Championship...Closed out his season with a strong showing at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Contended all four rounds before eventually finishing second, two strokes behind winner Jim Thorpe at the Sonoma GC. Made headlines at the tournament when he made a pair of eagles on par 4s (Nos. 9 and 11) in the opening round, becoming the first player to accomplish the feat since Larry Ziegler at the 1999 Nationwide Championship. Came back the following day with a third par-4 eagle (again No. 11)...His second-place effort helped him place third in the final Charles Schwab Cup race, which earned him a $300,000 annuity...Was the only player on the Champions Tour to have two eagles in a round on two occasions in 2006...Finished the season second in the All-Around statistical category behind Jay Haas...Ranked third in Top-10 Finishes (12), was T4 in Sub-Par Rounds (25) and fourth in Rounds in the 60s (25).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Led the tournament at one point Sunday before finishing two strokes behind D.A. Weibring, along with Tom Jenkins...Also had a second-place finish at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic in August, but three straight rounds in the 60s still left him three strokes shy of David Eger...Was T5 in defense of his 3M Championship title. Fired three consecutive sub-70 scores at the TPC Twin Cities for the second straight year and was in contention down the stretch before making bogey on the final hole...Closed his Champions Tour season in strong fashion, finishing solo third at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, his third straight top-three finish in Sonoma, CA...Made a valiant run at becoming the oldest PGA TOUR winner ever. Was the 54-hole leader at the Booz Allen Classic at Congressional CC, but carded a final-round, 3-over 74 on the famed layout to T13, his best PGA TOUR finish since a T5 at the 2001 U.S. Open...Also made cuts at the Sony Open in Hawaii and the Wachovia

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Placed solo fourth at the 3M Championship, thanks to a final-round, 7-under 65, the field's lowest score Sunday. Effort at the TPC of the Twin Cities was his best since 2004 MasterCard Classic in Mexico (lost in playoff)...Won his first-ever Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, defeating Bruce Summerhays with a birdie on the second playoff hole. Went on to finish T9 in the overall event in Austin...First-round leader at the Senior PGA Championship after a 4-under 68 Thursday. Eventually finished T14 at Laurel Valley...Was also the first-round leader at the Ford Senior Players Championship after posting an 8-under-par 64, his lowest score since 1999 Novell Utah Showdown (second round) and eventually T24 after playing his last 54 holes in two-over. 2004: Nearly won for the first time since his 1999 victory at The Tradition when he appeared in command at the MasterCard Classic near Mexico City. Led by three strokes with six holes to play, but three-putted for bogeys at the 16th and 17th holes in Sunday's final round and finished tied with Ed Fiori after 54 holes. Eventually lost the playoff to Fiori after making bogey on the third extra hole at Bosque Real CC. Saw a golden opportunity slip away on the first playoff hole when he mis-hit his second shot moments after Fiori hit his second shot out of bounds...Carded a final-round 65 at Valencia the next week to vault into a T4 at the SBC Classic...Made news at the Senior British Open at Royal Portrush GC in Northern Ireland. Recorded holes-in-one on the 11th hole in both the first and third rounds of the event, a first on the Champions Tour on the same hole at the same tournament. Used a 9-iron in the opening round (171 yards) and an 8-iron on Saturday (182 yards). Two aces also earned him 340 bottles of Hardy's Australian wine, one for every yard the shot covered (based on scorecard yardage), and were his fourth and fifth aces since joining the Champions Tour (10th and 11th aces overall in competition). Also marked the second consecutive season he made a hole-in-one on the Champions Tour...Secured his spot among the top 30 on the money list when he earned $86,400 for a T4 late in the year at the Constellation Energy Classic. Ace was his first since the 1997 Southwestern Bell Dominion event in San Antonio. 2000: Missed a spot among the top 31 money-winners when David Lundstrom nipped him by $941...Was the 36-hole leader at the MasterCard Championship, but hit just 10 greens on Sunday and posted a final-round 74 to T2 at Hualalai. 1999: Although only playing 36 holes, was declared the winner of The Tradition after a freak snowstorm wiped out the final rounds at Desert Mountain...Also battled Hale Irwin for most of the Ford Senior Players Championship before finishing a distant second at the TPC of Michigan. 1998: Was solo second near St. Louis at the Boone Valley Classic. Finished two strokes short of Larry Nelson, despite a final-round 68 that included a pair of eagles. 1997: Earned a career-best $1,128,578 for seventh on the final money list...Outdueled John Bland on the final day for a one-stroke win at the U.S. Senior Open at Olympia Fields CC in suburban Chicago. Owned a two-shot cushion with two holes remaining but had a double bogey-bogey finish to eventually end two strokes behind Brad Bryant. Hit his second shot into the water at No. 17 for a double bogey while Bryant made birdie to take the lead. Then hit his second shot into the water at No. 18, as well, ending any chances he had for the win at the Robert Trent Jones Trail at Ross Bridge. After winning the Byron Nelson Award for having the lowest scoring average in 2005 (69.41), his average rose more than a stroke, to 70.94 (finished 29th), and he dropped from first to 26th in Greens in Regulation (69.52 percent from 76.10 percent).

Posted rounds of 63-65 on the weekend at Oak Hills CC and cruised to an easy victory at the SBC Championship in San Antonio. Eight-stroke win over Gary McCord was the largest victory margin on the Champions Tour since Ed Dougherty won by eight strokes at the 2001 TD Waterhouse Championship. His 18-under 195 at Oak Hills shattered the tournament record and was the lowest three-round numerical score on the circuit all season. Hit 45 of 54 greens in regulation for the week, including 24 in a row at one stretch, and needed just 81 total putts....Followed San Antonio win with a come-from-behind victory at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma. Trained by five strokes entering the final round but carded a 66, the lowest Sunday score, to eke out a one-stroke victory over Kite. Became the fifth rookie to claim the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, and $440,000 was easily his largest in check in the U.S. Vaulted into the fifth position in the final Charles Schwab Cup standings with his win in Sonoma....Voted as the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for October. 2003: Became eligible for the Champions Tour in late October and earned fully-exempt status for 2004 by being the medalist at both the regional qualifier at Walt Disney

Once again, had another solid, productive season, which culminated with a fifth-place finish on the money list. It marked the eighth time in his career he had finished fifth or better on that list...By reaching $1-million plateau at the U.S. Senior Open, matched Hale Irwin's Champions Tour record of 10 straight seasons...Made 27 starts during the season, matching a career high...Ended a victory drought of more than two years when he rallied to defeat Loren Roberts at the Allianz Championship. Was two strokes down with two holes remaining but drained a 34-foot putt on No. 17 to seize the lead when Roberts made a double bogey. After Roberts failed to make his nine-foot birdie putt on No. 18, he sealed his win with a two-putt par. It was the 24th victory of his career, tying him with Miller Barber for third place on the all-time Champions Tour victory list. His 54-hole total of 16-under-par 197 was a new tournament mark...The victory came just one week after suffering disappointment at the Senior PGA Championship. Appeared in a good position to win the event in late May near his home in Edmond, OK, but faltered with a final-round, 3-over-par 74 to finish in third place. Was the 18- and 54-hole leader at the Oak Tree GC but could not hold off Brad Bryant and eventual playoff winner Jay Haas on Sunday...Followed Iowa win with a T3 at the Commerce Bank Championship in New York, missing a spot in a playoff by one stroke...Named the Champions Tour Player of the Month for June...Earned $11,890 at the U.S. Senior Open in July and surpassed the $1-million mark in season earnings for the 10th consecutive year, tying Irwin's record (1996-2005)...Was T3 the following week at the Ford Senior Players Championship, his fourth consecutive top-10 finish in Michigan...Rallied in his 2006 debut to T5 at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai. After opening with a 5-over 41 on the front nine Friday, was an amazing 25-under-par over his last 45 holes, closing with rounds of 63-62—125. His final 36-hole score of 19-under set a Champions Tour record in relation to par for consecutive rounds and was just one stroke off the all-time numerical mark. His 10-under 62 Sunday also tied a career-best round...Finished a distant second to Tom Kite at the AT&T Classic, his eighth top-10 effort in 11 career starts in the event. Check for $140,800 made him the first player to go over the $1-million mark in all-time earnings at the Los Angeles stop...Turned in a nice effort at the Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic. Contended all three days and eventually finished T3...Closed with a 67 to finish T4 at the 3M Championship...Posted the longest streak of par-or-better rounds (22). Pocketed $1,364,170 without claiming a title, the second-highest amount ever (Tom Kite/$1,549,819/2003) without posting a victory in a season in Champions Tour history...Had several good opportunities to extend his victory run during the campaign...Was one of three players in a playoff (Dana Quigley and Tom Watson) at the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic that was eventually won by Quigley with a birdie on the first extra hole. Had completed his round early Sunday before rain forced the tournament into a Monday finish. His T2 in Kansas City pushed his all-time earnings past the $20-million mark...Shared the 36-hole lead with Hale Irwin at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, but fell one stroke short and finished T2 despite back-to-back rounds in the 60s on the weekend...Birdied five of his last seven holes at Augusta Pines, but came up one stroke short of Mark McNulty at the Administrators Small Business Classic when he missed a 31-foot birdie putt on the final hole...Also T3 at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Was the 54-hole co-leader with Doug Tewell, and closed with a 1-under-par 71, but missed a six-foot birdie putt at No. 18, which would have earned him a spot in the playoff with Quigley and eventual winner Loren Roberts...Started his season with a T3 at the MasterCard Championship, where he was just one stroke shy of joining Tom Watson and eventual winner Quigley in a playoff...Made the second hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career, and 11th overall, when he ace'd No. 9 in the final round of the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn with a 4-iron from 201 yards...Ranked second to Mark McNulty in First-Round Scoring Average (69.28). 2004: Highlight of his season came early during the midst of 23 consecutive par-or-better rounds, a 2004 best...Redeemed himself by winning his third SBC Classic, one year after losing the event on the final hole. Cruised to a two-stroke victory over Larry Nelson at Valencia. Win was his fifth Tour title in the Los Angeles area on a fourth different course. SBC triumph was also his 23rd career victory on the Champions Tour, tying him with Bob Charles for fourth place on the all-time wins list...Was the 36-hole leader at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in late April and battled Hale Irwin down the stretch before a bogey at the final hole dropped him to a T2 with Gary Koch, one stroke back of Irwin...Celebrated his 200th career start on the Champions Tour when he almost successfully defended his Kroger Classic title late in the year. Closed with a 66 at the TPC River's Bend, but lost to Bruce Summerhays by one stroke when he three-putted from 70 feet for a par-5 on the final hole...Improved his first-round score at the

SBC Championship by 15 strokes with a Champions Tour career-best 9-under 62 on Saturday. Round equaled the Oak Hills course record (David Ogren/1994 Texas Open program) and included 10 birdies. 2003: Third in single-season earnings, his highest standing on the money list since back-to-back second-place finishes in 1997-98. Ended the year third behind Tom Watson and Jim Thorpe as 14 top-10 finishes (T2 on Champions Tour) helped him reach the $1-million mark for the seventh straight year...Had a two-stroke, wire-to-wire victory over Doug Tewell at the Kroger Classic. Win was the 22nd of his illustrious career on the Champions Tour, tying him with Don January and Chi Chi Rodriguez for fifth place on the all-time victory list. Posted three straight rounds in the 60s and won the event near Cincinnati for the second time (1999). Fought off challenges from as many as four other players in the final round before sealing his victory with a birdie on the final hole...Was also the 36-hole leader at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic and led by one stroke with one hole to play before losing out to Dave Barr. Missed a seven-foot par putt on the final hole after an errant drive cost him a penalty stroke...Came close again at the SBC Classic. Was a victim of a three-shot turnaround at the final hole at Valencia CC. Three-putted the 18th hole after Tom Purtzer holed a 58-foot eagle putt. 2002: Registered his 21st Champions Tour title at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland. Emerged from a pack of players with birdies on two of the last three holes for an eventual three-stroke triumph over Mike McCullough, Bruce Fleisher and Dana Quigley. Win was his second at Springhouse GC and the victory marked the second year in succession he had won on Father's Day...Finished T2 at the SAS Championship, four strokes behind Bruce Lietzke, but $124,666 paycheck put him over the $1-million mark for the sixth straight season...Also finished the season as the runner-up to Tom Watson in the SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia. Dueled Watson head to head down the stretch, but eventually came up two strokes short after an errant drive on No. 16 led to a bogey...Made the first ace of his Champions Tour career (10th overall) when he holed a 6-iron shot from 165 yards on Firestone's 12th hole during the second round of the Senior PGA Championship. 2001: Earned his second consecutive Byron Nelson Trophy for best Scoring Average (69.20)...Held off Dana Quigley by two strokes to win The ACE Group Classic, his second senior victory in Naples. father and father-in-law in a two-month period in the summer...Slipped to 47th on the final money list, the first time he had been out of the top 30 since joining the Champions Tour full time in 1998...Managed two top-10 finishes. The first came in July when he was T5 at the Ford Senior Players Championship, thanks, in part, to rounds of 67-69 on the weekend near Detroit...Finished T10 at the Turtle Bay Championship in his second start of the campaign...Next start came at the SBC Classic near Los Angeles nearly a month after his surgery. 2004: With $1,428,224 in earnings, it was his best showing since the 2001 season when he went over $2 million for the season...Had multiple victories for the first time since 2001...Earned his 19th career Champions Tour title at the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston in October. Matched the largest come-from-behind win of the season when he rallied from seven strokes back with a final-round 64, which included 10 birdies. Eventually defeated Hale Irwin with birdie on the first playoff hole for the victory at Augusta Pines. Win was his fourth overall title in the state of Texas and second of the year in the Lone Star State...Won in May in Austin at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, a one-stroke triumph over Bruce Lietzke at The Hills CC. After an opening-round, 1-over-par 73, followed with rounds of 69-67 and his final round was bogey-free...Saw his chance to win all three Champions Tour events in Texas go awry when he finished T7 at the SBC Championship in October...Was second to Mark McNulty at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am when he made birdie on the final hole near Tampa...Was T4 the week prior at The ACE Group Classic and narrowly missed joining a three-man playoff with Craig Stadler, Tom Watson and Gary Koch when he missed a par putt on the final hole...Also second to Gil Morgan by two strokes at the SBC Classic despite shooting three straight 68s at Valencia...Birdied more par-3 holes than any other player (20.2 percent) and also converted more birdie opportunities than any player at 32.6 percent. 2003: Played well in spurts, especially late in the year when he registered five top-10 finishes in his last six starts to jump back into the top 10 on the final money list after a year's absence...Earned his first victory since October 2001 at the Constellation Energy Classic in mid-September. Forged a two-stroke victory over Doug Tewell and Jim Dent at Hayfields CC near Baltimore after being the 36-hole co-leader with Jay Sigel. Trailing at one point on the back nine before making a critical birdie on the 16th hole to tie Tewell. Pulled away on the final two holes when Tewell bogeyed both 17 and 18. Victory in Maryland was worth $225,000 and pushed him past the $1 million mark in single-season earnings for the sixth consecutive year. Win also propelled him to September Player of the Month honors...Battled Fuzzy Zoeller and eventual winner Dana Quigley down the stretch in the season-opening MasterCard Championship before eventually finishing second...Was also second at the Toshiba Senior Classic, finishing four strokes behind Rodger Davis. Helped his cause with a second-round 64...At the Emerald Coast Classic in April, finished as a runner-up—the third time that occurred in his first seven starts of the season. Shot 64 in both the second rounds of the MasterCard Championship and Toshiba Senior Classic before matching his Champions Tour career-best round for a seventh time with a 7-under 63 on the final day of the Columbus Southern Open, his lowest score since the final day of the 2001 SBC Championship in San Antonio. Thanks to a run of six straight birdies, the best birdie streak on the Champions Tour in 2003, went on to post 64 in the final round of the Music City Championship a week later. 2002: Did not record a victory for the first time since joining the Champions Tour late in the 1997 season...Two best events came in back-to-back starts during May. 2006 SEASON:

Solid play earned him a spot in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the second consecutive year...Season was a near duplication of his 2005 one. After winning $693,651 in 2005, he earned $694,212 last season, a difference of only $561 and he finished 27th on the money list, down one spot from 2005...Made a serious challenge for his first career win but fell in a one-hole playoff to Eduardo Romero at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August near Portland, OR. Fired four straight sub-par rounds and made a birdie on the 72nd hole to earn a spot in the playoff with Romero. However, hit an errant tee shot into a bunker on the first extra hole and was never able to recover as Romero ended the playoff with a birdie to earn his first American victory...In contention with Dana Quigley at the Greater Kansas City Golf Classic until early on the back nine and eventually finished T5 at the Nicklaus GC at LionsGate. Trailing Quigley by one stroke after 11 holes Sunday but fell back after a double bogey-bogey showing at Nos. 14-15...Was just two strokes behind Loren Roberts after 54 holes at the Ford Senior Players Championship but shot a final-round 4-over-par 76 to slide to a T17 finish in Dearborn...Was T9 at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic...Played well over the final three months of the season starting at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic. Performance in Minnesota was his best ever on the Champions Tour, and $140,000 paycheck was more than he made in his entire PGA TOUR career...Posted initial top-10 finish in his sixth start of the season, a T6 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Thorpe's birdie on the final hole broke the tie after the teams had each fashioned scores of 19-under-par 197.

2004: Earned over a half-million dollars in his first full year on the Champions Tour...His best performance of the season came in late September when he finished T5 at the February and the Del Webb Father-Son Challenge in December... Teed it up in the Constellation Energy Classic in September and then at the Administaff Small Business Classic in October. Withdrew from the Houston event while playing the fourth hole with a back problem. Played the final 14 holes as a marker and then announced at the conclusion of the round that "there are just no thoughts of any more tournament golf."

Finished second to Tom Watson at the Wendy's Champions Skins Game, earning five skins and $140,000 at Wailea. Lost out on a golden opportunity for victory on the final hole of regulation when, with five skins and $260,000 on the line, he missed an eight-foot birdie putt. Overall performance was still his best since winning the 1993 event... Played in his 26th consecutive Bay Hill Invitational and appeared in the Masters Tournament for a 50th straight year... Served as captain of the U.S. team once again at the UBS Cup. 2003: Matched his age three times (seventh, eighth and ninth times in his career) and also bettered his age (second time in his career) during the campaign... Shot one better than his age in the opening round of the SBC Championship when he carded a 73. Later matched his age in the same event when he closed with a 74 in San Antonio... Earlier in the year he had matched his age with an opening-round 73 at the MasterCard Championship in Hawaii and a first-round 73 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf in Savannah, GA... BEST 2006 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:
1—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am; T6—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf; T7—AT&T Classic; T8—The Boeing Championship at Sandestin.

2006 SEASON:

Season was limited to just 14 starts after shoulder woes forced him to the sidelines midway through the summer. Underwent surgery July 21 in Birmingham, AL, to repair torn cartilage in his right shoulder. Missed the remainder of the season while undergoing an extensive rehabilitation program. Expected to return at the start of the 2007 season. Was enjoying a highly productive season when his year ended and still nearly finished in the top 30 on the final money chart. Earned his first win in 23 years, 11 months, 5 days when he prevailed at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am in February near Tampa FL. Birdied the final hole to hold off a trio of contenders, including Hale Irwin, Mark James and Morris Hatafsky. Hit a 5-iron from 165 yards to within 10 1/2 feet to set up his winning birdie. Capped his post-round celebration jumping into a nearby pond at No. 18, replicating his feat almost 24 years after winning the Tournament Players Championship and taking a dip in the lake at TPC Sawgrass. His winning check for $240,000 was the largest of his professional career, and the win came in his 54th start on the Champions Tour. Two weeks later fashioned a T7 finish at the AT&T Classic in California. Was among the leaders at April's Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf for 36 holes before a closing-round 73 dropped him into a T6 finish. Final top-10 finish came near his hometown of Pensacola when he was T8 at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin in May. Led all players in Sand Saves at 62.07 percent and had the third-best Final-Round Scoring Average (69.77).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Followed his successful rookie campaign with another solid season, finishing in the top 30 on the money list for the second straight year. Missed a golden opportunity to win the Senior PGA Championship at Laurel Valley in May. Held a one-stroke lead with one hole to play, but three-putted from 25 feet for a bogey-6 on the last hole of regulation to fall back into a playoff with Mike Reid and Dana Quigley. Eventually lost to Reid on the first extra hole when he missed an eight-foot birdie putt that would have extended the overtime session. Grabbed a solo fourth-place finish at the Bayer Advantage Classic and narrowly missed an opportunity to join a three-way playoff when he missed an eagle opportunity on the final hole at the rain-shortened event. Made a nice showing later in the year. Was T4 at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in October, thanks, in part, to rounds of 65-67 on the weekend. Won the Par-3 Contest at the Masters in April. 2004: Had very successful rookie season, finishing 19th on the final money list. Made Champions Tour debut at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic and was T23 at The Links at Key Biscayne, posting the best 36-hole score of anyone in the field on the weekend. Played in an event in his hometown for the first time since the 1988 Pensacola Open on the PGA TOUR, finishing T12 at the Blue Angels Classic. Made a serious bid for his first victory on the Champions Tour when he was the 36-hole leader at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic. Led by two strokes entering the final round, but eventually finished fifth on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park, two strokes back of eventual winner Jim Thorpe. Had made just one bogey over his first 36 holes, but started with four bogeys over his first nine holes Sunday and posted a 3-over 73 in the final round. Came close again in late August when he took the lead at the JELD-WEN Tradition with two holes to play following an eagle at No. 16, but finished bogey-bogey to T2, one stroke behind Craig Stadler. Finished second to Allen Doyle at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am near Kansas City. Did not get the chance to battle Doyle on Sunday after the final round was canceled due to weather-related damage to the course the previous night.

2003: Was expected to make his Champions Tour debut in September shortly after turning 50, but July surgery forced him to postpone plans. Underwent surgery on his left shoulder, the same one he had done in 1987. Dr. James Andrews performed the "cleaning out" surgery in July. Pate spent the remainder of the year undergoing rehabilitation. Made three starts on PGA TOUR and missed cut in all three.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR on a full-time basis from 1976-1995, with the exception of the 1993 season. Finished sixth on the money list in both 1980 ($222,976) and 1981 ($280,627). Won eight times on the PGA TOUR, with his biggest victory coming at the 1976 U.S. Open Championship at the Atlanta Athletic Club. Was a runnerup 15 times in his PGA TOUR career, including the 1978 PGA Championship at Oakmont where he and Tom Watson lost in a playoff to John Mahaffey. Was also second with Gary Player at the 1979 U.S. Open at Inverness two strokes behind Hale Irwin. First gained attention as a PGA TOUR rookie in 1976. Last swing in the U.S. Open, a 5-iron from the rough, left him a two-foot birdie putt for a two-shot victory over Tom Weiskopf and Al Geiberger. Closed with 63 at the Canadian Open that same season to best Jack Nicklaus by four strokes. Official earnings of $153,102 in 1976 were the most ever won by a rookie until Hal Sutton bettered the mark in 1982. Claimed the first Tournament Players Championship staged at the TPC Sawgrass in dramatic fashion in 1982, using an orange golf ball. Played the final seven holes in 4-under and birdied both the 17th (15-foot putt) and 18th (5-iron to two feet) to register a two-stroke victory over Brad Bryant and Scott Simpson. Celebrated the win by pushing former TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman and course architect Pete Dye into the large lake left of No. 18 green and then diving in himself. PGA TOUR career was cut short by three surgeries in three years on left shoulder. Tore cartilage in 1982 and had surgery in 1985. Tore rotator cuff in 1986 and had surgery that year and again in 1987. Was the medalist at the 1975 PGA TOUR Fall Qualifying Tournament after an All-American career at Alabama concluded in 1975. Defeated John Grace, 2 and 1, to win the 1974 U.S. Amateur at Ridgewood CC in New Jersey. Played on the victorious U.S. Walker Cup team in 1975 at St. Andrews and also was on the winning American team in the 1981 Ryder Cup at Walton Heath, England. Has had two holes-in-one in competitive rounds.

PERSONAL:

Served as a color analyst on CBS, ABC and BBC golf broadcasts during the decade of the 1990s. Wife, Soozie, Shared the first-round lead with Loren Roberts and Tom Watson after carding a 9-under 63 and then took sole possession of the 36-hole lead with a tournament-record 17-under 127. Two-day, 36-hole score on the Big Island matched the Champions Tour all-time record in relation to par. Seemed poised for victory until Roberts passed him on the back nine Sunday, and he eventually ended one stroke short despite shooting a final-round 65. His 24-under 192 at Hualalai was the lowest 54-hole score ever posted on the Champions Tour that didn't lead to a win...Continued his solid play the following week on the North Shore of Oahu. Was among the leaders through the first two rounds of the Turtle Bay Championship before eventually finishing T4, four strokes back of Roberts...Shared the 36-hole lead with Loren Roberts and Brad Bryant in his next start at The ACE Group Classic before finishing T6...Was the 36-hole leader at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic in August, but a double bogey on No. 13 Sunday proved disastrous, dropping him to a T3, one stroke out of a playoff...Finished T9 the next week at the JELD-WEN Tradition...Also was the 36-hole leader at the Constellation Energy Classic in September near Baltimore but eventually was among three players who finished T2, two strokes behind Bob Gilder. Fired an 8-under-par 64 in the second round at Hayfields CC...Had a pair of eagles in the second round of the Senior British Open, that led to a 63, matching his Champions Tour career low.

Originally injured the shoulder in the spring of 2002, hitting balls on a wet surface at Bruno's Memorial Classic...Was scheduled to return to the circuit in April but re-injured the shoulder during rehab and did not start his season until the Columbus Southern Open in mid-May with a T45 in Georgia...Completed his comeback with a three-stroke victory at the Allianz Championship in Iowa, thanks to three consecutive sub-70 rounds. Set a new course and tournament record at the 3M Championship in August when he shot a 9-under-par 63 in the second round at the TPC Twin Cities. Made a two-foot birdie putt on the last hole to advance into a three-man playoff for the final two spots. Secured a spot with a 15-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole. Victory at Caves Valley also ended a TOUR victory drought of 15 years, one month. 2001: Debuted on the Champions Tour at the Kroger Senior Classic and T4 at the rain-shortened event near Cincinnati...Also T4 later in the fall campaign at the Gold Rush Classic near Sacramento. Prepped for the Champions Tour by playing in three PGA TOUR and seven Nationwide Tour events...T5 at the Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs near Greenville, SC...Earned a full exemption for the 2002 season by virtue of his sixth-place finish at the National Qualifying Tournament in the fall.

2006 SEASON:

Did not win for the first time since his rookie season in 2002 but was still among the top players, with nearly $900,000 in season earnings after nine top-10 finishes... Played some of his best golf in the latter half of the year. Starting in mid-July, had six top-10 showings in 11 starts, with 10 of those in the top 20. His worst finish during that span was a T23. Thirty-two of his final 34 rounds were par or better, closing with 17 consecutive... Posted his best finish of the season when he was T2 at the rain-shortened Administaff Small Business Classic. Shared the first-round lead with Jay Haas and Dick Mast, thanks to a 7-under 65, but then found himself five strokes back of Haas despite posting a 68 Saturday. Was unable to make a run at Haas on Sunday when afternoon rains in Houston rendered the Augusta Pines course unplayable... Put together four straight sub-par rounds on his way to a T4 finish at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August... Initial top-10 came at the AT&T

Classic in March when he was T7... Was among a record eight players who shared the 36-hole lead at the Ford Senior Players Championship before finishing T7 near Detroit in July... Among his highlights in the fall was a T5 at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn and a T7 effort at the Constellation Energy Classic... Was T8 at the Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic... Finished T10 at the Allianz Championship, where he led all players in Greens in Regulation (47 of 54).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Enjoyed the most lucrative year of his professional career, with Champions Tour earnings of $1,144,666, the second time he has hit the $1-million mark on the circuit... The second of three players to go wire-to-wire for a victory during the year, joining Ron Streck and Bob Gilder... Claimed his third career Champions Tour victory at the 3M Championship, the first time in his career he led an event from start to finish. Opened with a course-record-tying, 9-under-par 63 that included his second hole-in-one on the Champions Tour. Made a seven-foot par putt on the last hole to avoid overtime with Craig Stadler and Lonnie Nielsen. His 15-under-par 201 total was the lowest three-round score since the event moved to the TPC Twin Cities in 2001. First-place check of $262,500 was his largest ever. Victory in Minnesota avenged misfortunes of two previous years where he was the 36-hole leader and did not win... Came close to winning in late June at the Bank of America Championship. Was one of three players in a playoff (Don Pooley and Mark McNulty) but fell short when McNulty made birdie on the second extra hole after Pooley was eliminated with a bogey on the first hole. Got himself in overtime when he birdied the final hole in regulation... Also finished second late in the year at the SBC Championship in San Antonio. Was T41 after opening with a 1-over 72, but rallied on the weekend at Oak Hills with rounds of 66-63. His 13-under 129 total equaled Champions Tour-best for last 36 holes in 2005... Was the first-round leader at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf and in contention throughout at Savannah Harbor before finishing T3... Had a pair of eagles en route to a 6-under 65 in the opening round of the U.S. Senior Open... As a former champion, played at the Bank of America Colonial on the PGA TOUR and finished T21, helped in large part by a final-round, 6-under-par 64, tying him for low score of the day... Took advantage of the month-long Champions Tour break in April and claimed the Australian PGA Seniors title by five strokes. Had originally made the trip to Australia to visit his daughter Ashley who was attending Sydney University as an exchange student... Relinquished his Driving Distance title to Dan Pohl after two seasons but still finished third at 296.0. 2004: Narrowly missed hitting the $1-million mark in season earnings for the second straight year when he closed the year with $997,367 in official money. However, played in seven fewer events mainly due to back problems (sliding disc in lower back), which troubled him for most of the season... Tied the Champions Tour's all-time record and set a course record with an 11-under 60 (nine birdies and an eagle) in the first round of the Toshiba Senior Classic before going on to win at Newport Beach CC by one stroke over Morris Hatafsky. Used birdies on two of the last four holes to secure the Toshiba victory, his second title on the Champions Tour... Was the 18- and 36-hole leader at the Bank of America Championship, but eventually T2 near Boston, four strokes back of Craig Stadler, after posting an even-par 72 on Sunday... Also was the 36-hole leader at the 3M Championship for the second consecutive year, but eventually T3 after carding a final-round 74... Champions Tour Player of the Month in March, thanks to his win and a solo sixth-place finish at the SBC Classic the previous week... Led all players once again in Driving Distance at 294.8 yards per drive and was also second in Greens in Regulation behind Hale Irwin. 2003: Was among 17 players to earn over $1 million for the season... Earned his first Champions Tour victory when he drained an eagle putt of 58 feet, 3 inches to edge Gil Morgan at the SBC Classic by one stroke. Came to the final hole trailing Morgan by two strokes, but became the first player to make an eagle on the final hole and win an event since Sammy Rachels did so at the 2001 Transamerica. Had a hole-in-one in the opening round, the first player to do so and win the event since Bob Gilder at the 2002 Kroger Senior Classic... Was the second-round leader at the 3M Championship and was tied for the lead the final day until hitting two balls into the water for a quadruple bogey at the 17th hole. Eventually finished T10... Led all players in Driving Distance at 298.3. Also led the PGA TOUR in that category in 1990 at 279. 2002: Official earnings of $760,056 topped his best year on the PGA TOUR (1991: $750,568)... Balanced eight top-10 finishes among 23 starts... Debuted on the Champions Tour at the Royal Caribbean Classic and T7. It was his first top 10 since finishing T4 at the 1998 Walt Disney World Classic on the PGA TOUR. Was in contention early in the final round, but faded after playing the back nine on Sunday in 1-over par.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Won Player of the Year honors for the first time with career season that saw him, at age 58, become the oldest player ever to claim the Arnold Palmer Award signifying the leading money-winner on the circuit. Was the only player to eclipse the $2-million mark in single-season earnings, making almost $400,000 more than his previous-best season (2000)...Led the Charles Schwab Cup for 17 consecutive weeks (19 overall), but got nipped in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship and placed second in the year-long competition (247 points behind Tom Watson). Earned a $500,000 annuity and donated the entire amount to four different charities...Set the pace on the Champions Tour for Sub-Par Rounds with 60 and also Rounds in the 60s (42 of 84)...Along with Mark McNulty, registered a Champions Tour-best 15 top-10 finishes, with four of them coming in his four appearances in major championships...Was involved in half of the eight playoffs during the season, winning twice for the first time since 2002...Got his year off to a great start when he captured the season-opening MasterCard Championship in a three-hole playoff with Tom Watson. Made par on the third extra hole to defeat Watson and win the event for the second time in three seasons and earn the $272,000 first prize, which pushed his career earnings in the event to $998,875. His 18-under-par 198 total equaled the lowest 54-hole score in relation to par on the circuit in 2005. Three consecutive rounds in the 60s gave him 11 straight sub-70 scores at Hualalai...Second title came when he birdied the first extra hole at the rain-shortened Bayer Advantage Classic to hold off Tom Watson and Gil Morgan. Had finished his second round the previous day before play was extended into Monday due to weather problems...Along with Jerry Pate, lost in a playoff at the Senior PGA Championship. Third-round 66 at Laurel Valley was the only round in the 60s among the 72 players making the 36-hole cut. Seemed in control for most of the final round, but played the back nine at Laurel Valley in 2-over to fall into a playoff with Mike Reid and Pate. Lost to Reid when he dumped his second shot in the water on the par-5 18th (first extra hole)...Last playoff came at the JELD-WEN Tradition, the season's final major championship. Again appeared in control and on his way to his first major championship crown, when he was up by two strokes with two holes to play. Costly bogey at No. 17 and subsequent birdie at No. 18 by Loren Roberts forced the overtime session. Roberts eventually prevailed, despite a bogey on the second extra hole...Also finished as a runner-up in three other events...Followed strong play at Hualalai with a second-place finish the following week at the Turtle Bay Championship, five strokes behind Hale Irwin on Oahu's North Shore...Runner-up again in early May at the FedEx Kinko's Classic. Contended early on the back nine, but eventually finished four strokes back of good friend Jim Thorpe in Austin...A second-round, 8-

under-par 64 helped propel him to a one-stroke margin after 36 holes over Roberts at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, but finished second after he could not hold off a late charge by eventual-winner Jay Haas... Was the 36-hole leader again at the SBC Championship and was tied for the lead with Haas through 14 holes Sunday before making bogeys on the last three holes to finish T4 at Oak Hills. His $83,700 check pushed single-season earnings over $2-million mark... Was a fifth-place finisher at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, but made headlines when he tied the Champions Tour's all-time record by stringing together eight straight birdies (holes 10-17) in his opening-round, 7-under-par 65. Eight straight birdies tied the mark set in 1987 by Chi Chi Rodriguez (Silver Pages Classic) and matched in 2000 by Jim Colbert (TD Waterhouse Championship)... Became the first player to go over the $1-million mark in 12th event of the campaign when he T4 at the Allianz Championship in early June and earned a check for $69,000... Made headlines when he skipped a tournament for the first time in nine years, withdrawing from the Senior British Open due to a sore right hip and travel complications. Record streak ended at 278 consecutive tournaments played for which he was eligible and 264 consecutive overall... Followed runner-up performance at Hualalai with another strong outing two weeks later at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic near Miami. Began the final round five strokes off the lead, but made a spirited run at Bruce Fleisher before ending up one stroke back despite a 4-under-par 68 in windy conditions. 2003: Led the Champions Tour in Birdies with 381... Won the season-opener at the MasterCard Championship. Birdied two of the last three holes in Sunday's final round, including the 18th, to nip Larry Nelson by two strokes. 2002: Claimed more than one event in a season for the first time since 1998. Named Player of the Month for March after claiming his sixth career title. Edged Bob Gilder and Fuzzy Zoeller by one stroke at the Siebel Classic in Silicon Valley. Seventh victory of his career came by one stroke over Bob Gilder at Oak Hills CC... At Bruno's Memorial Classic, lost to Sammy Rachels on second hole of playoff. Tournament was his 178th consecutive start for which he was eligible, a new Champions Tour record, surpassing Mike McCullough's mark of 177... Made his second career hole-

Registered 18 top 10s (second to Bruce Fleisher)... Set an all-time record for lowest 36-hole score in relation to par (18-under 126) at the Novell Utah Showdown when he posted his two lowest rounds of the season on successive days. Achieved a personal best when he set the Park Meadows CC course record on Saturday with a sizzling 10-under 62, then added a 64 on Sunday to move into a tie with Dave Eichelberger at the end of regulation. Lost to Eichelberger in overtime when he missed a short par putt on the first extra hole... Led the circuit in Sub-Par Rounds (77) and Total Birdies (418). 1998: Won a pair of titles and was over the $1-million mark in official earnings for the first time in his career... Made a 33-foot birdie putt on the last hole of the Emerald Coast Classic to edge Jim Colbert in Pensacola... BEST 2006 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T3—Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic; T5—Toshiba Classic.

2006 SEASON:

Slipped to 39th on the money list after finishing 21st the previous year and saw his earnings drop nearly in half from his 2005 total... After failing to finish no higher than T33 in his first five starts of the season, finally worked his way into the top 10 in his sixth outing, earning a T5 at the Toshiba Classic in March... Followed that in his next start when another strong performance resulted in a T3 finish at the Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic in Mexico... However, did not register a top-10 the remainder of the season... Struggled getting off to a quick start. Posted 12 rounds over-par in 23 opening rounds. Just two of his opening rounds were in the 60s. Ranked 64th in First-Round Scoring Average for the year. Slipped from 26th to 49th in Putting Average.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Enjoyed immediate success after playing a full schedule on the Champions Tour for the first time... Finished 21st on the money list and earned a career-best $863,006, over $300,000 more than his best season on the PGA TOUR... Selected as the May Player of the Month after winning his first Champions Tour event in his 17th career start at the Senior PGA Championship. Won in a playoff after being the beneficiary of a three-stroke turnaround at the final hole of regulation. Made an eagle on the par-5 18th at Laurel Valley and then watched Jerry Pate three-putt for a bogey. Two-putted for birdie on the first extra hole (18th again) to defeat Pate and Dana Quigley for his first win on TOUR since 1988 (16 years, 9 months, 2 days). Was the only player in the Senior PGA field to break par all four days. His four consecutive rounds of 70 marked the first time since Miller Barber at the 1982 Suntree Classic (66-66-66-66) that a Champions Tour player shot the same score each day over 72 holes to win... Came close to a second straight title the following week at the Allianz Championship. Was the 36-hole leader at the Tournament Club of Iowa, but eventually missed on a playoff berth with Tom Jenkins and D.A. Weibring after posting an even-par 71 on Sunday... Contended for the first time at The ACE Group Classic when he made a pair of eagles in the final round and eventually finished T4 in Naples... Made the first hole-in-one in his Champions Tour career when he aced hole No. 7 with a 4-wood from 228 yards in the final round at the JELD-WEN Tradition. It was his first since the 1985 Manufacturers Hanover Westchester Classic. 2004: Prepped for the Champions Tour by playing in five Nationwide Tour events and made cuts in two of those before joining the Champions Tour in July... Made his debut at the Senior British Open, where he was T57... Registered his best performance at the Kroger Classic near Cincinnati. Closed with a 5-under 67 to finish T5 along with Des Smyth, three strokes back of fellow Utah resident Bruce Summerhays.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Was a fixture on the PGA TOUR from 1977-2001... Prior to the 2006 season had made 575 starts and made the cut in 415 of those with earnings totaling $4,686,774... First victory came in his 11th year on TOUR. Pulled away with a closing-round 67 to win the 1987 Seiko Tucson Open. His four-stroke victory earned him a place in 1988 NEC World Series of Golf, which he won in a playoff with Tom Watson. Made par on the first extra hole which earned him a 10-year PGA TOUR exemption. That victory helped him to his best earnings year on the PGA TOUR with $533,343, placing him 15th on the money list. Also had a second-place finish at THE PLAYERS Championship that year (four behind Mark McCumber) and was T3 at the Kemper Open... Followed his 1988 campaign with another strong season in 1989, earning $401,665, his second-most lucrative year on TOUR. However, it was a little bit of a bittersweet season for him. Looked to be in command at the PGA Championship at Kemper Lakes with three holes to play but made bogey, double bogey on the 16th and 17th holes and eventually fell one stroke short of eventual winner Payne Stewart. Earlier that year, he was leading the Masters with five holes to play but finished the last five holes 4-over-par to slide to a T6... Of his seven career second-place finishes, three came in playoffs. Fell to Mac McLendon at the 1978 Pensacola Open, lost to Hal Sutton at the 1985 Southwest Golf Classic and was one of three players involved at the 1997 Hawaiian Open, joining Jim Furyk and eventual winner Paul Stankowski at Waialae CC... Won Driving Accuracy title in 1980, first year official statistics were kept... Missed most of the 1993 season after suffering a wrist injury playing table tennis while in Japan for the Dunlop Phoenix Open in the fall of 1992. Originally diagnosed as a chip fracture to his right wrist, returned to action in early spring and played five events before further exams found it was separated tendon. Underwent surgery to reattach the tendon and was sidelined the remainder of the season... Also had an unusual injury in 1991 when he suffered a broken rib chasing a cat from his garage... Made the PGA TOUR on his first attempt at Q-School in 1976 in Brownsville, TX... Played in the 1978 Kirin Cup and the 1980 World Cup... Had a solid amateur career before joining PGA TOUR. Was named to All-American teams from 1973-76, including first-team status in 1975 and second-team in 1976 while at Brigham Young. Was also the Western Athletic Conference champion in 1976 for the Cougars. Among his college teammates were John Fought, Jim Blair and Jim Nelford... Member of the BYU Hall of Fame... Low amateur at the 1976 U.S. Open at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

2006 SEASON:

Made his Champions Tour debut at the U.S. Senior Open on the day he turned 50. Failed to make the 36-hole cut...Competed in four other events, with his best finish a 64th-place showing at the 3M Championship in his next start...His other appearances came at the Boeing Greater Seattle Classic (WD), Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach (T76) and Administaff Small Business Classic (T71).

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played the PGA TOUR on a regular basis from 1977-88 and made a total of 342 starts (234 cuts made)...Won three official titles and placed 11th on the money list in 1981

($193,292), thanks to nine top-10 finishes...Initial victory came at the 1979 Manufacturers Hanover-Westchester Classic. Was three back starting the final round, but 4-under 67 gave him a one-stroke triumph over Howard Twitty and David Graham. Had finished second the week before at the Sammy Davis, Jr.-Greater Hartford Open, missing a putt on the final green that would have tied him with the eventual winner, Jerry McGee...Edged Scott Simpson by two strokes at the 1981 Pleasant Valley-Jimmy Fund Classic near Boston...Was rewarded when he won the 1984 Hawaiian Open. Birdied four of the last seven holes, including the 18th, at Waialae CC to tie Wayne Levi, and then won the title in a playoff. One year earlier at Waialae, had victory snatched from his grasp when Isao Aoki holed a wedge on the last hole for an eagle and victory while he was sitting in the scoring tent, checking his card with a one-stroke lead...Started on the PGA TOUR as a 20-year-old and was always easily identified by a white cap, similar to the type Ben Hogan wore...As a youngster, was king of the junior tournaments in the San Diego area, claiming such titles as the 1972 World Junior and the 1973 U.S. Junior...Has one career hole-in-one (1977 Q-School, Pinehurst No. 2, 15th hole).

PERSONAL:

Was always known for his outstanding short game, which he honed as a youth by playing numerous par-3 courses...Chose not to play high school golf because he felt he could progress more rapidly by working on his own game rather than spending time traveling to matches...Came from a family of avid golfers, with a sister, Jane, who played the LPGA and a younger brother, Jim, who was also a professional...Favorite courses include The Olympic Club, Pebble Beach GL and Riviera CC.

BEST 2006 PGA TOUR FINISH: T18—Sony Open in Hawaii.

2006 SEASON:

Was perhaps the most consistent player on the Champions Tour in 2006...Finished second to Jay Haas in the race for the money title and narrowly lost to Haas in the Charles Schwab Cup race. Fell 20 points short, the closest race in the six-year history of that competition. Had a chance to grab the crown and the $1-million annuity but missed a four-and-a-half-foot putt for par on the 72nd hole at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship to just fall short. Still earned a $500,000 annuity...Earned a career-best $2,365,395, with four wins. Outside of a T57 at the Greater Kansas City Golf Classic in July, he never finished worse than T16 and he led all players with 18 top-10 finishes in 21 starts...Had several other superlatives during the campaign...Closed the year by running off 14 consecutive sub-par rounds, the best streak on the Champions Tour for the year. In fact, of the 67 rounds he played in 2006, 52 were under par and 40 of those were in the 60s...Won the Byron Nelson Award as the scoring leader at 69.01 and he also had the best Putting Average at 1.726...Had the lowest First-Round Scoring Average on the Champions Tour (68.57) as well as Third-Round Scoring Average (68.68). Opened the season with three consecutive victories. His bid for a record-tying fourth straight win fell short when he finished T5 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am despite consecutive rounds of 69...One week earlier became the first player in Champions Tour history to win the first three events in a season when he prevailed by one stroke over R.W. Eaks and Brad Bryant at The ACE Group Classic in Naples. Despite not making a birdie over his final 12 holes still held off a late charge by Hale Irwin, as well. Did not make a bogey over his final 35 holes at the TwinEagles GC and became the sixth player to win three straight events...Initial two wins came in Hawaii. Completed a two-week Hawaiian sweep, holing a nine-foot eagle putt on the final hole of the Turtle Bay Championship for a two-stroke, wire-to-wire victory over Scott Simpson. Win on

Oahu made him the first player since Larry Nelson in 2001 to claim his first two starts of a season...Opened his Champions Tour campaign with a one-stroke victory over Don Pooley at the MasterCard Championship at Hualalai. Shot 25-under 191, breaking the Champions Tour's 54-hole record in relation to par and matching the circuit's stroke mark. His 26 birdies set an all-time record for a three-round Champions Tour event, easily breaking the old mark of 24 birdies by three different players. Final-round 61 at Hualalai was a career best and an 18-hole tournament-record. Used the 11-under-par round Sunday to come from three strokes back of Pooley and edge him by one...Picked up his fourth victory of the season at the Senior British Open at Turnberry. Playoff win over Eduardo Romero was his second senior major championship since turning 50. Blew a five-stroke lead in regulation but rebounded in the playoff, making a clutch 14-foot par putt on the first extra hole just before Romero missed a six-foot putt for a par. Final-round 75 in Scotland was the highest finish by a winner since 1998 (Hale Irwin, 75 at the Las Vegas Senior Classic) and the highest in a senior major since 1994 (Simon Hobday, 75 at U.S. Senior Open)...Was the only player in the field to post three rounds in the 60s on The Raven GC at Sandestin and finished T3 at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin. His $88,000 check moved him over the $1-million mark in his eighth start of the season, tying Hale Irwin's all-time record (1998) for fastest to $1 million in a season...Surged past the $2-million mark in season earnings when he finished T2 at the weather-shortened SAS Championship in early October in North Carolina in his first start after serving as an Assistant Captain to Tom Lehman for the U.S. Ryder Cup team...Almost won the Allianz Championship in early June. Held a two-stroke margin with just two holes remaining. However, lost that advantage on No. 17 when he made a double bogey after hitting his second shot into the water and eventual winner Gil Morgan drained a 34-foot birdie putt at Glen Oaks CC. Had an opportunity on the final hole but missed a nine-foot birdie putt which would have forced a playoff with Morgan...Finished T9 at the U.S. Senior Open but made headlines in the third round when he set a new U.S. Senior Open and tournament course record with his 8-under-par 62. The 62 was also the lowest round in the history of any USGA championship at the time and also tied the record for the lowest 18-hole score in any of the 13 USGA national championships, breaking the U.S. Senior Open mark of 63 by Allen Doyle in 2005 and Don Pooley in 2002...One week later, held a two-stroke lead after 54 holes at the Ford Senior Players Championship, but a final-round, 2-over 74 dropped him to a T3 finish...Started season by playing in the first full-field event on the PGA TOUR, the Sony Open in Hawaii. Was T18 at Waialae CC...Finished T27 at the Verizon Heritage in Hilton Head Island in April...Was in contention at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship but finished T4...Had the second-best Second-Round Scoring Average (68.43)...At one point in the season hit 34 consecutive Greens in Regulation, the best run on the Champions Tour for the year...In his brief Champions Tour career, he has five wins in 27 starts as well as 23 top-10 finishes and is averaging an impressive $123,158 per start...Along with Corey Pavin, served as an assistant captain to Tom Lehman at the 2006 Ryder Cup matches in Ireland

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Joined the Champions Tour in July and had an immediate impact despite continuing to split time between the PGA TOUR and the Champions Tour...Was 16th on the final money list ($959,882) in just six starts and finished fifth or better in all but one of those tournaments...Was also fifth in the Charles Schwab Cup race...Won his first Champions Tour title when he defeated Dana Quigley in a two-hole playoff at the JELD-WEN Tradition in his third start. Posted four straight sub-par rounds and got up and down for a birdie on the final hole in regulation to earn a spot in the playoff. After a birdie on the first extra hole, had a two-putt bogey on the second that was good enough to defeat Quigley...Was solo fifth in his Champions Tour debut at the Senior British Open in July. Was the first-round leader at Royal Aberdeen, with a 1-over 72 and was in contention throughout in Scotland. Despite making a quadruple-bogey-8 at No. 4 on the Balgownie Links, still managed to close with a 4-under 67...Co-leader after both the second and third rounds of the U.S. Senior Open but eventually finished T2 after a disappointing 73 on Sunday...Was among the leaders the final two days at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in October before finishing third, three strokes behind eventual champion Jay Haas. Made just one bogey through the first 41 holes and grabbed the lead on Sunday with birdies on three of the first five holes, but a triple bogey on the sixth hole was his undoing. Reclaimed a share of the lead with Haas and Dana Quigley with a birdie on No. 15, but Haas took charge with three straight birdies...Other top-10 finish was a T5 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Was T11 at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach...Selected as the Champions Tour August Player of the Month...Schedule also included 18 starts on the PGA TOUR where he made 11 cuts and finished 93rd on the final money list...Nearly won his ninth PGA TOUR title when he was in contention all four days at the Southern Farm Bureau Classic in Mississippi before eventually finishing T2, two strokes behind Heath Slocum...Early in the season, five straight rounds in the 60s led to a T4 finish at the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the PGA TOUR in 1981 but did not post the first of eight career wins until 1994 when he won The Nestle Invitational at Bay Hill, with a closing-round 67 to defeat Fuzzy Zoeller, Vijay Singh and Nick Price by one stroke. That same year he also three top-10s in majors: Masters (T5), U.S. Open (T2) and PGA Championship (T9). Was tied with Ernie Els after 18-hole playoff at U.S. Open at Oakmont CC, then lost on the 20th hole...Defended his Nestle Invitational crown in 1995 at Bay Hill and became first player to win same event for first two TOUR victories since Calvin Peete (1979 and 1982 Greater Milwaukee Opens)...Also earned a berth on the U.S. Ryder Cup team that same year where he compiled a 3-1 record at Oak Hill CC...Won multiple titles in 1996, at the MCI Classic and Greater Milwaukee Open. At the MCI Classic, his 63 on Saturday captured the third-round lead, and 265 total broke Hale Irwin's tournament record by one stroke...Birdied two of final three holes to break tournament record for the first time with a 265 at Greater Milwaukee Open, forcing playoff with Jerry Kelly. Birdied the first extra hole for GMO victory...After failing to finish in the top 30 on the money list in 1998 for the first time since 1993, returned with a solid year in 1999. Fired a third-round 62, matching career-low which produced 54-hole lead at GTE Byron Nelson Classic and a tournament-record 16-under-par 194. Finished tied with Steve Pate, with tournament record 18-under-par 262 then won playoff with par on first extra hole. His father, who spent 1998 looking after his Alzheimer's-stricken wife, was in attendance for first time in nearly a year and joined his son when Byron Nelson presented championship trophy... Won a second Greater Milwaukee Open crown in 2000, which helped him earn a career best $1,932,280. Continued success at Brown Deer Park GC (also second in 1994 and '97) when he finished with a 72-hole score of 260, breaking Carlos Franco's previous record by four strokes. Added eight other top-10 finishes that year... In 2002, nearly duplicated that number, earning $1,919,047, including a win at the Valero Texas Open in San Antonio. At 47 years, 3 months 5 days, became the oldest player to win a TOUR event since 48-year-old Tom Watson won the 1998 MasterCard Colonial. His 19-under total of 261 tied Jeff Sluman (Greater Milwaukee Open) and Jonathan Byrd (Buick Challenge) for low 72-hole total on TOUR that season. Co-leader through 36 holes with Pat Perez after 7-under-par 63, his best round since a 63 at the 2000 Greater Milwaukee Open. Entered final round with one-shot lead over Frank Lickliter II, Garrett Willis, Bob Tway and Matt Peterson. After trailing Fred Funk and Fred Couples by one making the turn, birdied four of final six holes to secure three-shot victory over Funk, Couples and Willis. Victory in Texas led to September Player of the Month honors... Six of his eight TOUR victories have occurred since turning 40... In four of his eight victories, set tournament records. Owns the tournament record at the MCI Classic and the Greater Milwaukee Open, shares it at GTE Byron Nelson Classic and held the 72-hole record for the CVS Charity Classic, which is no longer part of the TOUR schedule... Member of two Presidents Cup teams (1994, 2000), with a career record of 4-2-1 and also played on the American Ryder Cup team in 1995. Led the PGA TOUR in Putting in 1994... Attended the PGA TOUR's National Qualifying Tournament five times before becoming established on the TOUR... Has nine career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL:

Earned the nickname "Boss of the Moss" for his putting ability. Nickname was coined by fellow TOUR member David Ogryn in 1985... Cary Middlecoff said of him in the mid-1980s: "We've got a kid back home (in Tennessee) who is just a beautiful putter. He'll just break your heart on the greens, he's so pure. If he ever gets to believing in himself, he could really be something to watch"... Inducted into three different halls of fame: Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo Athletic Hall of Fame (1998); Tennessee Hall of Fame (1995); Tennessee Golf Hall of Fame (2006). 2006 SEASON:

Made an immediate impact on the Champions Tour and earned Rookie of the Year honors...Was conditionally exempt to start the year following a 15th-place finish at the 2005 National Qualifying Tournament, but took full advantage of the Champions Tour reshuffle in the summer to secure an exemption for the remainder of the year. Parlayed opportunity into fully-exempt status for 2007...Major breakthrough came in August when he became the Champions Tour's first international winner in 2006 by defeating Lonnie Nielsen in a one-hole playoff at the JELD-WEN Tradition near Portland, OR. Fired a 7-under-par 65 in the final round, the low round in the tournament and then made a birdie on the first playoff hole to post his win. Played near-flawless golf the final two days, playing bogey-free over that span while adding 10 birdies and an eagle. Played his final 38 holes without a bogey and made just two bogeys over his final 66 holes. Made up five strokes the final day, the largest come-from-behind margin in tournament history. In winning, became the second player from Argentina to claim a major championship on the Champions Tour, joining Roberto De Vincenzo (1980 U.S. Senior Open) with that honor...One month earlier, secured a spot in the reshuffle when he almost won for the first time on the Champions Tour in his third start of the season at the Senior British Open. Caught Loren Roberts twice in the final round at Turnberry to force a playoff but lost to Roberts on the first extra hole when he three-putted from 30 feet. Moved into contention with a 9-under 63 Friday, the low round of the event. Runner-up effort in Scotland was his third consecutive top-10 performance in the Senior British Open and earned him $196,081...Had another strong outing following his win at the JELD-WEN Tradition with a T5 at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Was in contention for the title after nine holes Sunday but fell back after shooting a 1-over 37 on the back nine at Pebble Beach...Rebounded from a 1-over-par 73 in the opening round at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship to fire consecutive rounds of 69-66-68 to finish T4. His finish also earned him enough points to vault him to a T5 finish in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race and a $50,000 annuity...Continued to compete in Europe with nine starts on the PGA European Tour and three more on the European Seniors Tour...Defended his title at the Wentworth Senior Masters on the European Seniors Tour in early August...Opened his campaign on the Champions Tour with a T16 at the Puerto Vallarta Blue Agave Golf Classic in Mexico in April...Also finished T31 at the Senior PGA Championship at Oak Tree in Edmond, OK. Averaged over $100,000 per start on the Champions Tour for the year ($101,025).

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Best effort was a T20 at the Toshiba Senior Classic...Teed it up in his 1,000th (PGA TOUR/Champions Tour combined) event at the Senior PGA Championship, becoming just the seventh player to reach that milestone. Missed the cut at Laurel Valley after posting rounds of 77-79. 2004: T10 at The ACE Group Classic in Naples was his first top-10 performance since win in 2002. 2003: Made his fifth career hole-in-one on the Champions Tour at the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am, tying him with Charlie

Sifford for most career aces on the over-50 circuit. Holed a 6-iron shot from 162 yards on No. 4 at The National GC of Kansas City in the final round. . . Also made consecutive eagles during the third round of the JELD-WEN Tradition. Holed a pitch shot on the par-5 15th hole at The Reserve and then followed by hitting the par-5 16th green in two and making a 22-foot putt. . . Posted a one-stroke victory over Dave Stockton in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition at the Music City Championship at Gaylord Opryland. 2002: Ended nearly a seven-year victory drought when he prevailed by one stroke at the Greater Baltimore Classic. Sank a 10-foot par putt on the final hole to nip John Mahaffey, Doug Tewell and Bobby Wadkins. Became only the fifth player, and first since Gary Player in 1998, to win both the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title and the overall tournament. Victory at 61 years, 8 months and 9 days made him the third oldest player to win a Champions Tour event behind Mike Fetchick (63 years) and Player (62 years, 9 months, 22 days). The win was also his first since the 1995 Ford Senior Players Championship and set a record for longest time between Champions Tour victories (6 years, 11 months, 7 days), eclipsing the old record of 6 years, 10 months and 3 days by Larry Ziegler (1991 Newport Cup-1998 Saint Lukes Classic). 2001: T2 at The Instinet Classic, two strokes behind Gil Morgan. . . Lone victory in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition came at the Novell Utah Showdown, a two-stroke win over Walter Morgan. 2000: Along with Gary McCord, lost to Tom Wargo (won with birdie on third extra hole) in a playoff at the LiquidGolf.com Invitational. 1999: Closed with a final-round 65 at Serrano CC and T3 at the Raley's Gold Rush Classic. 1998: T2 at the Northville Long Island Classic along with Walter Hall, one stroke short of Gary Player. Recorded a hole-in-one in the final round of The Home Depot Invitational. 1997: Best finish a T4 at Pittsburgh Senior Classic. 1996: Closing round, 6-under par 65 helped him to runner-up finish to Jack Nicklaus at the GTE Suncoast Classic, one of three second-place finishes. 1995: Enjoyed his most lucrative season with more than $950,000 in official money. . . Defeated Raymond Floyd in a playoff for the Royal Caribbean Classic title and then bested Jack Nicklaus in overtime for the Ford Senior Players Championship title, the biggest win of his career. 1993: Broke into the Champions Tour winner's circle when he braved the elements for a one-stroke victory at the Vantage at The Dominion in San Antonio. His 54-hole score of 2-under 214 was impressive, considering a fluke winter storm that moved through south Texas during the event. 1990: T21 in his debut on the Champions Tour at The Transamerica Senior Golf Championship in Napa, site of his victory in the Kaiser International in 1976.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Collected the last of his eight PGA TOUR titles at the 1987 Manufacturer's Hanover-Westchester Classic, defeating Seve Ballesteros in a playoff. . . Captured his first two TOUR victories in a three-week span, winning the 1971 Tucson Open and the Doral-Eastern Open immediately before and after the PGA Championship. . . Member of the U.S. Ryder Cup teams in 1971, 1973 and 1975. . . Has 15 career holes-in-one.

BEST 2006 PGA TOUR FINISH: T42—AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

2006 SEASON:

Narrowly missed a fourth consecutive seven-figure earnings season but, for the second straight year, was among the top three in three events...First of two runners-up came in late April when he was T2 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Among the leaders all three days and at one point was within one of the lead on the back nine behind eventual winner Jay Haas. However, a pair of late bogeys (on Nos. 17 and 18) and consecutive birdies by Haas on Nos. 16 and 17 eventually ended his chances...Among the leaders again through two days of The Boeing Championship at Sandestin in mid-May, but final-round 70 left him T3, three strokes short of Bobby Wadkins...In contention in back-to-back events during the summer...First was near the top of the leaderboard through 36 holes of the Senior British Open, but briefly fell off at Turnberry after posting a 7-over 77 Saturday in cold, windy conditions. Rebounded with an even-par 70 on the Ailsa Course on Sunday to place fourth in Scotland, his best effort in a senior major since a solo-fourth effort in that event the year before at Royal Aberdeen...The following week, was in the mix again again Sunday at the 3M Championship. Briefly held the lead early on the back nine but eventually finished T2 with Brad Bryant, two strokes back of David Edwards. Runner-up performance at the TPC Twin Cities was his third consecutive in Minnesota. Led field in GIR, hitting 47 of 54 (87 percent) during the week...Closed season with a T6 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, thanks to four consecutive sub-par rounds at Sonoma GC...Played in four PGA TOUR events and finished T42 at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Missed the cut at the Sony Open in Hawaii, the Masters and the Verizon Heritage.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Registered 14 top-10 finishes, including eight top-10s in his last 10 events, but was shut out of the winner's circle for the first time since joining the Champions Tour...Led the circuit in Birdie Average (4.54) for the second straight year, making 295 birdies over his 65 rounds and also topped the Tour in Par-5 Birdies (54.9 percent) and Second-Round Scoring Average (68.55)...Was a runner-up twice...Posted three straight rounds in the 60s in defense of his title at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, but was still one of three players to come up one stroke shy of eventual-winner Hale Irwin...Also made a late run at Tom Purtzer at the 3M Championship, but for the second straight year, missed a 30-foot eagle putt to tie on the last hole. Along with Lonnie Nielsen, ended one stroke short in Minnesota...Also T3 at the Commerce Bank Championship after opening with a 7-under 64 at Eisenhower Park...Best effort among the senior majors was when he finished solo fourth in the Senior British Open at Royal Aberdeen in Scotland. Trained Tom Watson by one stroke entering the final round and eventually lost by three after a 1-over 72 on Sunday at Royal Aberdeen...Was either the leader or co-leader for the first three rounds of the U.S. Senior Open, but suffered a back-nine meltdown on Sunday at NCR CC and finished T7 after a final-round 76...Matched the Champions Tour's all-time scoring record for lowest 18 holes when he fired a 10-under 60 at The Moors on Saturday at the Blue Angels Classic. Had a chance for 59 but missed from 27 feet, 5 inches on his last hole of the round. Eventually T9 in the event near Pensacola...Finished second to Jack Nicklaus at the Wendy's Champions Skins Game in Hawaii...Battled several ailments during the year...Was forced to withdraw from the Senior PGA Championship with lower-back pain and then withdrew from both the Allianz Championship and Bayer Advantage Classic with a sore right elbow...Made six appearances on the PGA TOUR and made the cut in five of those events...Finished T9 at the Sony Open in Hawaii after posting back-to-back 67s on the weekend at Wailae CC...Also made the cut for the 20th time in 29 starts at the Masters and eventually finished 50th. 2004: Was voted by his peers as the Champions Tour's Player of the Year after a career-best five victories in a single season, the most wins by any player in a year since Larry Nelson in 2001...Also topped the Champions Tour earnings list for 2004 and received the Arnold Palmer Award as the circuit's leading money-winner, with a personal-best $2,306,606, the 10th-highest money total ever...Joined Lee Trevino and Tom Watson as the third player to earn money titles on both the Champions Tour and the PGA TOUR...Had 35 Rounds in the 60s out of 67 played (52 percent) and earned the Byron Nelson Trophy for best scoring average, 69.30...Also finished second in the Charles Schwab Cup competition. Led the season-long race during the month of September before finishing 39 points back of Hale Irwin at season's end...Was among the top three in over a third of his 21 starts, and five victories included three consecutive wins during the summer, a first on the Champions Tour since Gil Morgan won three consecutive starts on the Champions Tour (1997-1998)...Started the run by earning his second major championship on the Champions Tour at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Closed with four straight birdies in the final round to win by one stroke over Jerry Pate and Allen Doyle. Took over the lead in the money race for good with his $345,000 first-place check near Portland. Helped his cause when he made a rare double eagle on the 16th hole Saturday, nailing a perfect 4-iron from 207 yards. Was 11-under-par on the critical par 5s at The Reserve...Made it two straight wins the following week by capturing the inaugural First Tee Open at Pebble Beach presented by Wal-Mart. Won by three strokes over Jay Haas, after opening with an even-par 72 at the Bayonet GC. Played his last 37 holes in 16-under-par and teamed with his junior partner, Aaron Woodard from Denver, to post a four-stroke victory in the pro-junior competition, as well. Back-to-back victories were the first on the Champions Tour since Bob Gilder in 2002 (Allianz Championship/Kroger Classic)...Made it three wins in three consecutive starts when he cruised to a six-stroke, wire-to-wire victory over Tom Jenkins at the SAS Championship in Raleigh. Was 14-under-par on the back nine en route to a tournament-record score of 17-under-par 199. Check for $270,000 at the SAS event pushed his season earnings past the $2-million mark, the first player to do so in two years...Started the year by winning The ACE Group Classic in Naples. Prevailed by making a 27-foot birdie putt on the first hole of a playoff with Tom Watson and Gary Koch at TwinEagles. Appeared to be out of contention after a double bogey at the 13th hole on Sunday left him three behind leader Koch. However, a birdie at 15, coupled with bogeys by Koch at 14 and 17, opened the door...Also rallied from four strokes back on the final day to win by four at the Bank of America Championship near Boston. Final-round 64 at Nashawtuc was the lowest Sunday score in tournament history and victory became extra special when son Kevin claimed the Lake Erie Charity Classic on the Nationwide Tour in a four-hole playoff just an hour later, marking the second time a father and son won on the same day in PGA TOUR-sponsored events (David Duval/Bob Duval on March 28, 1999)...Champions Tour Player of the Month in both August and September. 2003: The Champions Tour Rookie of the Year, thanks to three wins and seven top-10 finishes...Did not become eligible until turning 50 on June 2...Made history when he became the first Champions Tour player to win a PGA TOUR event, a one-stroke victory in the B.C. Open at the En-Joie GC. Used a final-round, 9-under-par 63 to make up eight strokes (largest comeback in tournament history) to defeat Steve Lowery and Alex Cejka by one stroke. Had four straight rounds in the 60s, the first time he had done so in a PGA TOUR event since the 1995 B.C. Open. Victory in New York made him just the second player in history to win a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event in the same year. (Raymond Floyd-1992 Doral-Ryder Open at 49, and the GTE North Classic). Victory in Endicott also made him just the fifth player in PGA TOUR history to win an event over the age of 50 (fifth oldest at 51 years, 1 month, 18 days) and the first since Art Wall at the 1975 Greater Milwaukee Open...One week earlier, broke through for his first Champions Tour victory at the Ford Senior Players Championship, a three-stroke win over Tom Watson, Tom Kite and Jim Thorpe. Became the 14th player in history to record his first victory at a major championship and became the youngest winner in Ford Senior Players Championship history (50 years, 1 month, 19 days). Trained by six strokes at the halfway point, but rebounded with rounds of 65-66, with only 51 putts in the final two rounds at the TPC Michigan...Added a second Champions Tour title at the inaugural Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Started two strokes back in the final round, but made birdie on five of his first seven holes and cruised to a two-stroke win over Larry Nelson, his first in North Carolina since the 1991 TOUR Championship...Joined Tom Watson as the only other player on the Champions Tour to win in consecutive starts when he cruised to a four-stroke win over Bob Gilder at the SBC Championship in San Antonio, two weeks after winning in North Carolina. Win was his first in Texas since the 1984 Byron Nelson Classic and gave him four overall TOUR victories in a season for the first time since 1982...T15 in his Champions Tour debut at the Senior PGA Championship.

Won 13 times on the PGA TOUR, with his biggest triumph coming at the 1982 Masters. After opening with a 75, came back to win at Augusta National in a playoff over Dan Pohl...His B.C. Open win came seven years after his previous win at the 1996 Nissan Open...In 1992, captured the NEC World Series of Golf by one stroke over Corey Pavin, 10 years after winning same event. In 1982, made up five strokes with closing 65 and then defeated Raymond Floyd in a playoff...Was the PGA TOUR's leading money-winner in 1982 thanks to four victories, a personal best for a single season...Finished second on money list in 1991 after winning THE TOUR Championship at Pinehurst No. 2 in a playoff with Russ Cochran...Shot the low round of his career, an 11-under 61, on the final day of the 1990 Scandinavian Enterprise Open to win by four strokes over Craig Parry...Was a two-time All-

BEST 2006 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: 9—Senior PGA Championship, JELD-WEN Tradition.

2006 SEASON:

Had a year nearly similar to his 2005 campaign...Had just two top-10 finishes, but one of those came in his own backyard. Finished ninth at the Senior PGA Championship on his home course at the Oak Tree GC in Edmond, OK...Was also T9 at the JELD-WEN Tradition, the third straight year he had a top-10 finish in the event which he won in 2001. Followed an opening round, 4-over-par 76 with three straight rounds in the 60s...Low round of the year was a 6-under-par 65 in round one of the Allianz Championship in June which left him just one off the lead. He followed with rounds of 73-75 to slide to a T52 finish...Plagued part of the year with left-elbow problems...Remains one of the most accurate drivers off the tee on the Champions Tour. Finished third in Driving Accuracy.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Suffered through a frustrating season after being plagued for much of the early portion of the year by elbow woes...Slipped to 58th on the final money list after five straight years in the top 30 and $1 million-plus in earnings...Chose to have elbow surgery after being troubled with discomfort for much of the first four months of the season. Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his left elbow May 10 near his home in Oklahoma City to clean out scar tissue...Best showing came at the JELD-WEN Tradition in late August. Shared the 54-hole lead with his neighbor Gil Morgan, but closed with a 1-over-par 73 to drop to a T5 finish, his only top 10...Made the cut in his first start in a PGA TOUR event since 2002, finishing T73 at the MCI Heritage in April...Remained one of the most accurate players off the tee, finishing second in Driving Accuracy behind John Bland. 2004: Improved one spot on the money list from 2003 and surpassed the $1-million mark in earnings for the fifth straight year...Ended a victory drought of just over a year when, after borrowing a Ping Anser putter from the stash of surplus clubs at the home of close friend Walter Hall, used the club to win the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Made a clutch 13-foot birdie putt on the last hole to edge Bruce Fleisher by one stroke and win the western North Carolina event. Shot an 8-under-par 64 in the last round to come from three strokes back of Fleisher on Sunday. Victory was his eighth on the Champions Tour and gave him five straight years with at least one win. Went bogey-free over his 54 holes at Rock Barn, a first since Morris Hatafsky won the 2003 Columbus Southern Open without making a bogey...Started his opening round at the JELD-WEN Tradition with a string of 59 holes without a bogey, but made one on the first hole to end that streak. Eventually finished T4 at the Oregon event, thanks to four straight sub-par rounds...Was the 36-hole leader at the Kroger Classic, but eventually fell one stroke short of a charging Bruce Summerhays at the TPC River's Bend...Followed with another strong performance in his next start, grabbing a T3 at the SAS Championship, his fifth consecutive top-10 finish...Led the season-opening MasterCard Championship by two strokes after 36 holes, but eventually finished T3 in Hawaii despite a final-round 69 at Hualalai. His 64-65-129 (15-under) total over the first two rounds were the low first-36 holes total on the Champions Tour for the year...Plagued for a portion of the year with an elbow problem, which forced him to withdraw from the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. 2003: Got off to a slow start, but ended up with top-10 finishes in a third of his 27 appearances. Earned seven figures for the fourth straight year, yet slipped out of the top 10 money-winners for the first time since joining the Champions Tour...Victory near Grand Rapids came in dramatic fashion and extended his number of years with at least one win to four straight seasons. Came from three strokes back on Sunday to claim his seventh career title at the Farmers Charity Classic. Tied Eamonn Darcy after 54 holes as a result of a clutch 18-foot eagle putt on the 17th hole at Egypt Valley. Eventually defeated Darcy with a 15-foot birdie putt on the third play-off hole. Victory made him the 16th different winner in 2003, tying the all-time Champions Tour record for longest span without a repeat winner...Had finished in third place a month earlier at the Columbus Southern Open on the strength of a second-round 64, his lowest score of the year...Had battled-to-back runner-up efforts in consecutive weeks. First battled fellow Edmond, OK, resident Gil Morgan throughout the Kroger Classic. Got within one stroke of Morgan, but missed birdie chances at the last two holes and eventually came up two strokes shy at the TPC River's Bend...T2 for the second straight year the following week at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore. Made up three strokes on 36-hole co-leaders

Larry Nelson and Jay Sigel on the final day, and briefly grabbed the lead late in the final round. Fell back after missing a birdie opportunity on No. 16 and then bogeyed the last two holes to finish two strokes shy of Nelson...Led the Champions Tour in Driving Accuracy for the third straight year (81.5 percent). 2002: The third of six multiple winners...Came from three strokes back to win the Verizon Classic by one stroke over Hale Irwin. Was the only player in the field to record three consecutive rounds in the 60s at the TPC Tampa Bay and hit 41 of 42 fairways...Held off Bobby Wadkins by a stroke to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Again drove the ball in 41 of 42 fairways at the King & Bear course...Made the first hole-in-one of the 2002 season when he aced the 217-yard eighth hole with a 4-iron at Hualalai GC during the opening round of the MasterCard Championship. Ace was the first in MasterCard Championship history. 2001: In April, closed with a Cochrise course-record 10-under-par 62 at Desert Mountain, the lowest score ever shot in a major championship on the Champions Tour, and completed a wire-to-wire victory at The Countrywide Tradition. Victory at Desert Mountain GC was his second major victory on the Champions Tour. Needed just 19 putts in his final round and his 72-hole total of 23-under-par 265 was the best four-round score on the Champions Tour since Jack Nicklaus posted an all-time record of 27-under 261 at the 1990 Ford Senior Players Championship. The nine-stroke win was also the largest margin of victory since Hale Irwin won the 1997 PGA Seniors' Championship by 12 strokes. Victory near Phoenix was his fourth Champions Tour title, coming in his 40th career start. Did not register his fourth win on the PGA TOUR until his 541st start...Almost claimed a second major title at the Ford Senior Players Championship, but fell in a one-hole playoff to Allen Doyle. Appeared on the verge of winning the title before Doyle drained a 35-foot putt on the 72nd hole to force the overtime session...Closed the season with a solo second-place finish at the SENIOR TOUR CHAMPIONSHIP at Gaillardia. 2000: Earned Rookie of the Year honors, thanks to three victories, including a win in a Champions Tour major...Broke through in a big way with his first Champions Tour title, the rain-shortened PGA Seniors' Championship. Victory was his first since the '87 Pensacola Open. Became just the 10th player ever to make his first victory on the Champions Tour a major when he waltzed to a seven-shot triumph over Dana Quigley, Tom Kite, Larry Nelson and Hale Irwin at PGA National...Added his second victory at the SBC Championship in San Antonio, holing a birdie putt on the final hole for a one-stroke win over Walter Hall and Larry Nelson...Claimed his third title at the Novell Utah Showdown, outdistancing his neighbor Gil Morgan by two strokes in Park City. 1999: Turned 50 in August, but did not play his first event until early October due to a back injury he sustained right before he was eligible to play...Made debut on the Champions Tour at the Vantage Championship and finished T15.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Won four times in a PGA TOUR career that started in June of 1975...Last victory came at the 1987 Pensacola Open, a three-stroke triumph over Danny Edwards and Phil Blackmar...Had his best earnings year in 1986 when he finished the season with $310,285 (No. 18)...Had a run-away victory (seven strokes) over Clarence Rose in the Los Angeles Open that year...Highest money standing came in 1980 when he placed 17th with $161,684...Won two titles in 1980, defeating Jerry Pate in a playoff for the Sea Pines Heritage Classic crown and coming from behind to defeat Tom Kite at the IVB-Philadelphia Classic...Went over $2 million in PGA TOUR earnings with his T21 at the 1992 PLAYERS Championship...Led the PGA TOUR in Driving Accuracy in both 1992 and 1993...Never attended a TOUR Q-School. BEST 2006 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T5—Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am.

2006 SEASON:

Played nearly a full schedule, with 25 starts to his credit... Lone top-10 came early in the year when he was T5 at the Outback Steakhouse Pro-Am in February, his best showing in an event since he was T2 at the 2003 Emerald Coast Classic... Qualified for the U.S. Senior Open with a 7-under-par 63 at Florence (SC) CC. His round included an impressive 8-under-par 26 on the front nine.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Earned his best finish in two years when he was T7 at the Bank of America Championship near Boston. Was the first-round leader following a 6-under-par 66... Was T5 after two rounds at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf following successive rounds of 69, but closed with a 77 to finish T14... Went 257 holes without a three-putt, the longest streak on the Champions Tour during the year. 2004: Posted lone top-10 finish in March when he fashioned three straight sub-par rounds to finish T9 at the Toshiba Senior Classic. 2003: Had both of his top-10 finishes in the first third of the campaign... Shared the first-round lead at the Emerald Coast Classic, thanks to a Champions Tour career-low-tying round of 63. Eventually T2 in the event after posting a final-round 66 at The Moors. Credited a change to the long putter for his runner-up performance in Pensacola, his best overall effort since winning near St. Louis in May 2001. 2002: T5 at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland on the strength of a closing 5-under 67 at Springhouse GC. 2001: Claimed his third career Champions Tour title when he bested Vicente Fernandez, 2-up, in the final of the Enterprise Rent-A-Car Match Play Championship near St. Louis. Victory was worth a career-best $300,000 and also avenged his loss to Fernandez in the finals of the unofficial 2000 Chrysler Senior Match Play Championship in Puerto Rico. Played 104 competitive holes on his way to the victory, the most of any player in the field. 2000: Collected his second Champions Tour crown when he ended almost a two-year victory drought with victory at the State Farm Senior Classic in Columbia, MD. Birdied the third playoff hole to defeat Isao Aoki at Hobbit's Glen. 1999: Recorded his two best efforts of the campaign in first third of the season... Closed with a final-round 66 at the Royal Caribbean Classic to finish T3... Played the PGA TOUR from 1971-1996 and also made 17 appearances on the Nationwide Tour from 1993-1996... Won three PGA TOUR events, with the last victory in 1989 at the Buick Open. Prevalled by one stroke over Billy Andrade, Doug Tewell and Payne Stewart at Warwick Hills in Grand Blanc. After a first-round 65, trailed by three entering the final round, but rallied with a 4-under-par 68 for a one-stroke triumph. Win ended an 11-year, nine-month drought, the third-longest stretch between victories in PGA TOUR history. Buick Open victory also helped him to a personal PGA TOUR-best $261,397, more than triple his earnings total from the previous season ($84,659)... Prior to the Michigan win, previous victory came at the 1977 Pensacola Open, where he rolled in a 50-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to edge rookie Curtis Strange... First PGA TOUR win came in 1974 at the Jackie Gleason-Inverrary Classic, where he nipped Hale Irvin by one stroke... Set a course record at the 1981 Canadian Open, shooting a 62 (31-31) at Glen Abbey GC. Hit every green in regulation except one, but birdied that hole with a chip-in from off the green. Used the same ball for all 18 holes. The ball then was presented to the Royal Canadian Golf Association for display in its museum at Glen Abbey... Also turned in a stellar performance at the 1977 Colgate Hall of Fame at Pinehurst No. 2. Shot a nine-hole record 7-under-par 29 on the back nine of the fabled course in his native North Carolina... Highest money position on the PGA TOUR came in 1973 and 1974 when he finished 15th... BEST 2006 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: 1—Charles Schwab Cup Championship; 2—Ford Senior Players Championship; 4—Regions Charity Classic; 5—Administaff Small Business Classic.

2006 SEASON:

Saved his best performance for the year's final event, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Shot four consecutive sub-par rounds to cruise to a two-stroke victory over Tom Kite in the season-ending event in Sonoma, CA. Held the 18- and 54-hole leads and won the event for the second time (he also prevailed in 2003). Picked up $440,000 for his victory, and the finish moved him into a fifth-place tie in the Charles Schwab Cup race and earned him a $50,000 annuity. The victory, his fourth in Northern California, gave him at least one win for seven straight years, the best current run on the Champions Tour. It also pushed him over the $1-million mark in season earnings for the seventh consecutive year...Nearly won the Ford Senior Players Championship in July, finishing second to Bobby Wadkins at the TPC Michigan near Detroit. Fired four straight sub-par rounds but missed a seven-foot par putt on the 72nd hole, eventually costing him the opportunity for a playoff with Wadkins. It was his third runner-up finish in Michigan...Fired a 9-under-par 63 in the final round of the Regions Charity Classic to help him to a fourth-place finish near Birmingham in early May. The 63 matched the 18-hole tournament record and set a Robert Trent Jones Trail at Ross Bridge course record, as well as establishing a record for the best final-round score in tournament history. The round included a pair of eagles...Was also solo fifth at the rain-shortened Administaff Small Business Classic, following rounds of 69-66 at Augusta Pines...October Player of the Month.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Among the leading money-winners, surpassing the $1-million mark in earnings for the sixth consecutive season. Picked up two victories, making it the fifth time in the last six years he owns multiple wins in a season. First victory came in May when he claimed the FedEx Kinko's Classic in Austin. Birdied four of his last five holes at The Hills CC to break away from the pack and win by four strokes. Gave his entire $247,500 first-place check to his church, Crossings Community Church, in Lake Mary, FL. Was the only player in the field to post three consecutive rounds in the 60s at The Hills and topped the field in Greens in Regulation (44 of 54). Followed up win in Austin with a playoff victory over Morris Hatafsky in the Florida panhandle at the Blue Angels Classic, the third time in his Champions Tour career he's won back-to-back titles. Defeated Hatafsky with a birdie on the third extra playoff hole of a Monday finish at The Moors after the duo was deadlocked at 16-under on Sunday evening after 54 holes. Win near Pensacola was his 11th career Champions Tour title and 194 total was the lowest winning 54-hole score on the 2005 Champions Tour. Had a T4 finish in October at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, thanks to back-to-back 67s on the weekend. Was T5 at the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and teamed with Amit Odayar (from The First Tee of Greater Sacramento) to claim the pro-junior competition after a match of scorecards with the team of Lonnie Nielsen/Colby Smith. Thorpe's birdie on the final hole broke the tie after each team had finished with a score of 19-under-par 197. Donated a portion of his winnings at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore to the Boys and Girls Clubs of Montgomery County in Maryland. Finished second in Birdies to his good friend Dana Quigley (356), with 337. 2004: Finished among the top-10 money-winners for the fifth straight season and won multiple victories for the fourth time in six seasons. Got his year jump-started when he was a one-stroke victor over Fred Gibson at the Farmers Charity Classic, despite a double bogey on the final hole. Came from three strokes back in the final round, thanks to seven birdies in the first 14 holes on Sunday. Rallied from four strokes back to win his second straight Commerce Bank Long Island Classic title a month later. Joined Bruce Fleisher, Lee Trevino and George Archer on the list of players who have successfully defended titles on Long Island. Win on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park was his ninth career title on the Champions Tour. Final-round 67 included three birdies on the front nine that allowed him to overtake 54-hole leader Jerry Pate. Avoided a playoff with a clutch par save from 19 feet on the last hole. Had just 23 putts in his opening-round 65, including one-putts on seven straight holes (No. 8-14). Win in New York made him the only player to successfully defend a title in 2004. Made a bid to win a second Kroger Classic title on the final day. Closed with 66 at the TPC River's Bend but came up one stroke short. Was T2 when he missed 20-foot bid for eagle on the final hole. His closing-round 64 at the Constellation Energy Classic tied the tournament record and helped him to a T4 finish near Baltimore in early October. Plagued for several weeks in the early spring with a back problem, which caused him to miss three straight events. Second in Eagles, with 13. 2003: Had perhaps his finest season in professional golf when he was among the top three six times starting in mid-July. Appeared to be out of the Charles Schwab Cup competition through the first half of the season, but eventually finished second in the Schwab Cup race behind Tom Watson when he became the Champions Tour's hottest player after mid-August. Was voted the Champions Tour Player of the Month for both August and October. Also placed second behind Watson in the final money standings with a personal-best $1,830,306. In the winner's circle for the first time in 16 months when he slipped by Bob Gilder for a one-stroke victory at the Long Island Classic with a tournament-record score of 15-under 195. Tied a Champions Tour record in the second round when he shot a 10-under-par 60 on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park. Record-tying score gave him a two-stroke cushion entering Sunday's final round and 3-under-par 67 proved to be good enough for the win. Short birdie putts on 16 and 17 clinched title. Win in Long Island

came during a run of 16 consecutive sub-par rounds, a 2003 best streak of sub-par scores... Capped his year with a wire-to-wire victory at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma, CA, a first in the season-ending event since Jim Colbert in 1995. His 20-under-par total over 72 holes at Sonoma GC, included playing the par-5s in 13-under, was the lowest 72-hole score in relation to par on the Champions Tour in 2003 and the lowest four-round total in event history. Was locked in a duel with Tom Watson down the stretch, but holed a 67-foot eagle putt from the fringe on the par-5 16th and then made a 10-foot birdie putt on No. 17 to seal the win. Third Champions Tour win in northern California came with a $440,000 first-place check, his largest ever as a professional. 2002: Won the first major championship of his career at The Tradition. Bested John Jacobs on first hole of a playoff at Superstition Mountain. Made birdie on the 72nd hole of the event to forge the overtime session and then added another birdie on the first extra hole to claim the title. Victory in Arizona was the first of his TOUR career before September 1. Was voted as the circuit's Player of the Month for April. Nearly claimed a second major title, finishing one stroke shy of Stewart Ginn at the Ford Senior Players Championship in July despite shooting a 7-under 65 on Sunday. Had a bizarre finish at the FleetBoston Classic. Had a chance to win outright on the final hole, but T3 after three-putting from five feet. 2001: Posted back-to-back victories early in the fall. Won a playoff for the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic title. Made a dramatic eagle on the final hole of regulation at the Kroger event to set up a playoff with Tom Jenkins and then won with a birdie on the first extra hole. Hit 3-wood from 245 yards for a one-foot tap-in eagle putt. Claimed the inaugural Allianz Championship the following week. Used seven birdies in an 11-hole stretch to win by two strokes at Glen Oaks. Also lost by a stroke to Tom Watson at the Senior PGA Championship. Missed an uphill six-foot birdie putt to tie on Ridgewood CC's final hole. 2000: Claimed the first two victories of his Champions Tour career and yearly winnings of $1.6 million almost matched his entire earnings total in 25 years on the PGA TOUR. Claimed back-to-back victories in northern California at The Transamerica and the Gold Rush Classic. Win in the Napa Valley ended a victory drought of just over 14 years ('86 Seiko Tucson Match Play Championship). His 18-under-par 198 score at Silverado was three better than Bruce Fleisher and was a tournament record. Cruised to a two-stroke victory over Ed Dougherty at the Gold Rush Classic with a 21-under 195 total for 54 holes, a tournament record at the time, and the lowest 54-hole score on the Champions Tour that season. Second-round 62 at the Gold Rush event was a course record at Serrano. Victory near Sacramento allowed him to become the first player since Gibby Gilbert in 1992 to win consecutive starts with sub-200 scores. Recorded his second hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the opening round of the Boone Valley Classic. 1999: Came closest to a victory at the Bell Atlantic Classic. Fired a final-round 65 on Sunday at Hartefeld National to come from four strokes off the pace and catch Tom Jenkins, but eventually lost to Jenkins on the first playoff hole. Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the final round of the Royal Caribbean Classic. 1998: Earned full exemption for 1999 by finishing T6 at the National Qualifying Tournament at Grenelefe Golf and Tennis Resort. After carding rounds of 67-76-72, fired a 3-under-par 69 on the final day to secure his top-eight finish.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Played on the PGA TOUR from 1976-98, with 459 tournaments to his credit and nearly $2 million in career earnings. Enjoyed his greatest success in a two-year span in 1985-86, when he earned three wins and was among the leading money-winners on the circuit. Was fourth on the money list in 1985 with $379,091, including wins at the Greater Milwaukee Open and the Seiko-Tucson Match Play Championship, where he bested Jack Renner in the final. Just missed adding a third victory when he lost in a playoff to Scott Verplank at the Western Open. In 1985, won $326,087 and ranked 15th on the money list with a victory at the Seiko Tucson Match Play Championship, besting Scott Simpson in the finals. Was unable to make it three in a row in 1987 when the event switched back to a stroke-play format. Underwent surgery on his left wrist and thumb in September 1987, and missed much of 1988 recuperating. Had runner-up finishes in 1989 (Kemper Open) and 1990 (Phoenix Open). Co-medalist at the 1978 PGA TOUR Fall National Qualifying Tournament with John Fought. First earned card in 1975, but returned home after making just $2,000 in 1976. Is one of only two players (Dave Barr is the other) to record holes-in-one on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. Has one Nationwide Tour ace to go with the three aces he had on the PGA TOUR and two on the Champions Tour.

PERSONAL:

Is the ninth of 12 children. Grew up next to eighth fairway at Roxboro (NC) CC, where father, Elbert Sr., was the superintendent. One of his brothers, Chuck, played for a period on the PGA TOUR and in several events on the Champions Tour in 1998, while another brother, Bill, has been through the National Qualifying Tournament several times. Earned a football scholarship to Morgan State as a running back.

BEST 2006 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: 1—The Boeing Championship at Sandestin, Ford Senior Players Championship; T2—Toshiba Classic; 3—JELD-WEN Tradition; T9—Boeing Greater Seattle Classic.

2006 SEASON:

Had his best year as a professional, winning a pair of titles, including a major championship, and finishing among the top-10 money-winners for the first time ever...Went over the seven-figure mark in single-season earnings for the first time since 2002...Claimed the biggest win of his career at the third major championship on the schedule, the Ford Senior Players Championship at the TPC Michigan in July. Started his final round with a bogey on the first hole and trailed 54-hole leader Loren Roberts by as much as six strokes at one point Sunday. However, five straight birdies on Nos. 11-15 and a disastrous four-hole stretch by Roberts allowed him to move into the lead and win the title despite a double bogey at No. 18. Dropped in a 13-foot putt on the final hole that closed the door on a possible playoff with Jim Thorpe. The one-stroke victory over Thorpe and two-stroke margin over four others, including Roberts, was worth $375,000, his largest check ever, as well as a berth in the 2007 PLAYERS Championship. His 14-under 274 total was the low 72-hole score of the year in relation to par...Earlier in the season, ended a 125-event victory drought by claiming his second title on the Champions Tour at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin. Went wire-to-wire for victory on Mother's Day on The Raven Course, thanks to a course-record, 9-under 62 in the opening round, the lowest first-round score by a winner in 2006. Held off a hard-charging Raymond Floyd on Sunday with a clutch seven-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole...Nearly claimed first win of the year in mid-March, finishing T2 at the Toshiba Classic, one stroke short of Brad Bryant. Playing an hour ahead of the last group, appeared to be in the driver's seat early Sunday after back-to-back birdies on the 15th and 16th holes got him to 9-under. However, fell back after three-putting for bogey on No. 17 and did not get up and down for birdie on the final hole...Almost won for a third time in August and came close to garnering a second major title when he contended all four days at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Missed a playoff by one stroke and settled on a third-place finish near Portland...Made the first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career at the Greater Kansas City Golf Classic when, with brother Lanny and son, Casey, in the same group, aced the 182-yard second hole at Nicklaus GC at LionsGate with a 4-iron.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Had just two top-10 finishes but first did not come until his 21st start when he was T6 at the SAS Championship in North Carolina...Two weeks later was T7 at the Administaff Small Business Classic near Houston. 2004: Vaulted into the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship with a solo third-place finish at the SBC Championship the week prior. Was in the 37th position and moved up into the 29th spot on the money list after posting consecutive rounds of 67 on the weekend at Oak Hills that earned him a $108,000 check in San Antonio...T2 on July 4 at the Commerce Bank Long Island Classic, one stroke shy of Jim Thorpe. Stood in the fairway on the final hole with a chance to win the event but pushed his 5-iron approach right of the 18th green and could not get up and down for par. Shared the first-round lead at Eisenhower Park with Jerry Pate and Peter Jacobsen after firing 6-under 64 on the Red Course. 2003: Had a trio of second-place finishes...Battled through back spasms at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic in his second start and eventually T2 at Key Biscayne. Missed a seven-foot birdie putt on the final hole which would have forced a playoff...Runner-up for second consecutive year at the Senior PGA Championship, finishing two strokes behind John Jacobs at Aronimink GC near Philadelphia...Made a strong bid for a win at the SAS Championship in Raleigh in September before eventually coming up one stroke short of D.A. Weibring. Was tied for the lead with two holes to play but par-par finish at Prestonwood left him T2 with Tom Kite...Fired a 9-under 61 (6-under-par 29 on the back nine) in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic, his career best as a professional. 2002: Only Allen Doyle earned more money during the year without posting a victory...Closed with a final-round 66 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, but placed second to Doug Tewell by one stroke. Had caught Tewell midway through the back nine on Sunday, but made a bogey at the 16th hole...Was the 54-hole leader at the Senior PGA Championship at Firestone, but lost to Fuzzy Zoeller by two strokes, T2 along with Hale Irwin after posting a 1-over 71 on Sunday...T2 again at the Greater Baltimore Classic, one of three players to fall one stroke shy of J.C. Snead despite closing with a 6-under-par 66 on Sunday. 2001: Made his first appearance on the circuit a memorable one. Became the youngest winner in Champions Tour history when he claimed the Lightpath Long Island Classic 10 days after turning 50. Edged Allen Doyle and Larry Nelson by one stroke and broke Gil Morgan's record as the youngest winner (50 years, 11 days/ 1996 Ralphs Senior Classic). His 12-foot birdie putt on the final hole at the Meadow Brook Club gave him his first win in TOUR event in his 778th start. Helped his cause early in the final round when he rebounded from a double bogey with a double eagle on the third hole (driver, pitching wedge from 135 yards). Became just the 10th player, and first since brother Lanny, to win in his debut on the Champions Tour. 2006 SEASON:

Made 13 official appearances for the second straight year and again was among the top-10 finishers in over half of his starts...Led the Champions Tour in Greens In Regulation, hitting over 76 percent, the highest on the circuit since Tom Kite in 2000...Was also third in Scoring Average (69.67)...Had a near miss at the U.S. Senior Open in July at Prairie Dunes CC. Held a two-stroke margin over eventual winner Allen Doyle after 54 holes but started Sunday's final round with bogeys on three of the first six holes. Could not hold off a Sunday charge from Doyle and finished second...Also closed with a pair of 67s on the weekend at The Boeing Championship at Sandestin to finish T3 at The Raven...Opened campaign with a share of the first-round lead at the MasterCard

Championship at Hualalai, thanks to a 9-under 63, his best score since 62 in the second round of the 2003 JELD-WEN Tradition. Eventually finished T5 on the Big Island...Followed performance at Hualalai with a T4 at the Turtle Bay Championship on the strength of a final-round 68 that equaled the low Sunday score...Teamed with Jack Nicklaus to finish second at the Wendy's Champions Skins Game. Duo managed to get eight skins early in the alternate-shot competition ($260,000) but were passed when Raymond Floyd/Dana Quigley earned $410,000 on the 17th hole with a birdie...Teamed with Andy North to win second consecutive Raphael Division title at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Duo fired 36-hole better-ball score of 62-61—123 (21-under) and played bogey-free golf for second straight year...Competed in his 30th British Open and made his 22nd cut, and third straight, in the event, finishing T48...Also played in his 33rd Masters Tournament but did not make the cut.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2005: Had a magical finish to his season. Roared back from a six-stroke deficit to Jay Haas with a final-round, 8-under-par 64 to win the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, as well as the season-long Charles Schwab Cup for the second time. His final round included 10 birdies and just two bogeys. Drained a 20-foot putt on the final hole to build a one-stroke margin over Haas and then watched as Haas' birdie putt fell short moments later to give him his third win in the event. His 64 was the low finish ever by a winner of the tournament and his first-place check for $440,000 equaled the largest of his career. In the process, earned 1,320 points (based on triple points in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship) and jumped four players to win the Charles Schwab Cup and the $1-million annuity which goes to the winner...More than tripled his 2004 earnings and was in the top 10 in nine of 13 starts...Earlier in the year, ended almost a two-year official victory drought when he triumphed for the second time at the Senior British Open, this time at Royal Aberdeen, his sixth overall title in Scotland. Defeated Des Smyth with a par-3 on the third playoff hole after the duo had finished 72 holes on the Balgownie links in 4-under-par 280. Win was his fourth major championship and seventh overall title on the Champions Tour. Overcame a first-round, 4-over 75, the highest start by a winner since Bruce Lietzke won the 2002 Audi Senior Classic after opening with the same score...Backed up his win in Scotland with a T5 at the U.S. Senior Open the next week. Co-leader at the halfway mark, thanks to a 6-under 65 in the second round, but played his final 36 holes in 2-over-par. Performance near Dayton sealed July Player of the Month honors...Teamed with good friend Andy North to win the unofficial Raphael Division at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf by four strokes. Duo combined for a bogey-free, better-ball score of 16-under 128 over 36 holes. 2004: Made just 12 official starts on the Champions Tour and was troubled by hip and shoulder problems throughout the season...Won his first Wendy's Champions Skins Game early in the season when he two-putted for a par from 25 feet on the third extra playoff hole and then watched Lee Trevino three-putt from 25 feet for a bogey. Finished with eight birdies and an eagle to collect 10 skins and $400,000 at Wailea...Continued to be snakebit at The ACE Group Classic, losing in a three-way playoff with winner Craig Stadler and Gary Koch. Got himself into position with birdies on 16 and 17 Sunday and nearly earned the win at the final hole, but missed a nine-foot birdie putt which would have given him a one-stroke win. After Stadler drained a 27-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole, missed a chance to keep the playoff going when his birdie bid from 10 feet missed...Made an appearance at the Bay Hill Invitational on the PGA TOUR, where he made the cut and finished T66, his first made cut on the PGA TOUR since the 2002 Colonial...Also played in his 31st Masters Tournament with a heavy heart, learning about the death of his longtime caddie, Bruce Edwards, just hours before his scheduled first-round tee time. Missed the cut at Augusta National...Forced to withdraw from the British Open Championship at Troon, missing the prestigious event for the first time since 1996. 2003: Experienced a bittersweet season as he had his finest year on the Champions Tour at the same time he was teaming with long-time caddie and friend Bruce Edwards in his battle against Lou Gehrig's disease...Was either first or second in half of his 14 appearances on the Champions Tour, and as a result of his stellar play throughout the campaign, earned all of the circuit's top honors, winning the first of two Charles Schwab Cups, the Jack Nicklaus Player of the Year Award, the Arnold Palmer Award and the Byron Nelson Trophy...Donated his $1-million annuity for winning the Schwab Cup to ALS research and patient care and other charities. Throughout the course of the season, helped raise nearly $3 million for ALS-related causes and other charities...Was the leading money-winner for the first time since 1984, with a personal-best $1,853,108, and earned the most money per start on the Champions Tour, $132,365...Earned first Player of the Year honor since 1984...Was under par in 37 of 48 rounds and stroke average of 68.81 was the second lowest in Champions Tour history (Hale Irwin, 68.59, 1998)...Became the first player ever to compete in all nine major championships on the PGA TOUR/Champions Tour combined in a single season...Won multiple major titles in a season for the first time on the Champions Tour since Gil Morgan in 1998 and for the first time in his career since 1982. In July, won his second career major on the Champions Tour when he out-duelled Englishman Carl Mason on the Ailsa course at Turnberry for an emotional win at the Senior British Open Championship in Scotland. Only had one three-putt over his 74 holes and posted a final-round 64, the lowest finish ever by a winner in Senior British Open history. His 6-under Sunday score, coupled with Mason's double bogey at the 72nd hole, allowed Watson to get into a playoff. Eventually defeated Mason with a par-4 on the second extra hole to become just the 11th player, and first since Hale Irwin in 1998, to win an official event on both the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour at the same venue...In his next start in late August, became the first player since Hale Irwin in 1998 to win consecutive majors when he claimed the JELD-WEN Tradition, the first fifth major in Champions Tour history, near Portland, OR. With Edwards on the bag, edged Jim Ahern, Tom Kite and Gil Morgan by a stroke when he got his ball up and down from a green-side bunker for birdie on the final hole. Roller coaster event included a second-round, 10-under 62 at The Reserve, tying the lowest round ever posted in a major on the Champions Tour, and a 1-over 73 on Saturday that made him just the third Tradition winner ever with an over-par score among the four rounds...Edged Jim Thorpe for the money title and also clinched the Charles Schwab Cup at the end of the season with a solo second-place finish at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma, CA. Received a special exemption to play in his first U.S. Open since 2000 and made headlines on Thursday when he was tied for the first-round lead after posting a 5-under 65. Eventually T28 at Olympia Fields after shooting 7-over 147 on the weekend. ...Turned in masterful performance at the British Open at Royal St. George's, finishing T18 thanks in part to a closing-round 69. ...Received the Card Walker Award during the week of the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am and was honored with the Payne Stewart Award at THE TOUR Championship in Houston. 2002: For the second time, saved his best for last and won the season-ending SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia. Opened with a 2-over 74, but played the last 52 holes of the event without making a bogey (17-under) despite cold, rainy weather in Oklahoma City. His $440,000 paycheck was largest as a professional. ...Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour and, 13th of his career, in the opening round (16th hole, 6-iron, 156 yards) at TwinEagles. ...Recorded third consecutive runner-up finish after losing in a playoff to Tom Kite at SBC Senior Classic. Chipped in for eagle from 123 feet on the 54th hole to force Kite to make a five-foot birdie putt to tie. Kite won with a par on the second playoff hole. ...Lost to Don Pooley in a playoff for the U.S. Senior Open at Caves Valley. Played his last 10 holes in 5-under to catch Pooley and then matched him with three pars and a birdie in overtime before finally falling to Pooley's birdie on No. 18, the fifth extra hole. ...Finished solo seventh at the MasterCard Colonial, his 11th career top-10 effort at Colonial and his best PGA TOUR finish since T9 at the 2000 PGA Championship. 2001: Won his first Champions Tour major title. Triumphed at the Senior PGA Championship in New Jersey. After opening with a 72, followed with rounds of 69-66-67 to edge Jim Thorpe by one stroke at Ridgewood CC. ...Troubled much of the early portion of the year with a strained ligament in his right elbow that he injured while working out just prior to the Masters. ...Inducted into the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame during the week of the Siebel Classic in Silicon Valley. 2000: Saved his best for the last official event of the season, claiming the IR SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach. Was T3 after 54 holes, but fired a 6-under-par 66 on the final day for the victory. Held off a late charge by John Jacobs for a one-stroke win. Win at TPC Myrtle Beach made him the first to claim season-ending events on both TOURs (won '87 Nabisco Championship of Golf). ...Lost twice in playoffs. Was one of four players involved in the overtime session at The ACE Group Classic, eventually falling to Lanny Wadkins. ...Along with Larry Nelson, lost in a three-way playoff to Tom Kite at The Countrywide Tradition. ...Also battled Larry Nelson until the final hole at the Boone Valley Classic before finishing solo second in St. Louis. ...T9 at the PGA Championship near Louisville, the best performance by a senior in that event since Sam Snead T3 in 1974. Got off to a fast start and held the final-round lead most of the day before eventually ending in a playoff with Tom Jenkins. Missed a 12-foot birdie putt on the first hole of overtime and then lost playoff when he missed a nine-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole...Narrowly missed another chance earlier in the year when he was T2 at the SBC Classic in March, falling one stroke shy of winner Des Smyth...Led the U.S. Senior Open with two holes to play but slipped into a T2 after a bogey-bogey finish. Was one of just two players (Greg Norman) in the field to post four consecutive sub-par scores in the event. KEYS TO VICTORY

Loren Roberts made a 30-foot birdie putt on the last hole for a course-record, 11-under-par 61 and a one-stroke victory over Don Pooley in the season-opening event. The birdie at No. 18 gave Roberts a 25-under-par 191 total, tying the lowest 54-hole score in Champions Tour history and establishing the all-time best score in relation to par. Roberts outlasted Pooley after the two traded birdies down the stretch. First Roberts made a four-foot birdie at No. 14 to move one stroke ahead of Pooley. However, Pooley answered by draining a 10-foot birdie putt at No. 15 to tie. The momentum swung towards Roberts at the 16th when he converted an 18-foot putt for birdie and then watched Pooley's 12-foot birdie effort slide by on the left side. After both players parred the 17th hole, Roberts ended Pooley's hopes by holing his long putt at No. 18.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Loren Roberts won for the second consecutive week, holing an eagle putt on the last hole to hold off Scott Simpson. Roberts had 40 birdies in his first five senior rounds of the season but had none Sunday in posting an even-par 72 at Turtle Bay. After Simpson temporarily tied him with a 10-foot birdie putt at No. 17, Roberts rifled a 4-iron second shot at the par-5 18th to within nine feet of the hole, setting up the decisive stroke. Roberts became the first player to win his first two starts of the year since Larry Nelson did so in 2001.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Raymond Floyd and Dana Quigley beat Jack Nicklaus and Tom Watson with 10 skins and a record $510,000 in the alternate-shot format. Floyd provided the clincher when he holed a dramatic eight-foot birdie putt for nine skins and $410,000 at No. 17. He also made a 10-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole for another skin and $100,000. After the four teams halved Nos. 9-16, the par-4 17th was worth eight skins and $410,000. Watson hit his approach to 15 feet, but Quigley's second shot was seven feet closer. With the other two teams having easy looks at par, Nicklaus missed his birdie effort allowing Floyd to seize the moment.

NOTES

The $410,000 won by Raymond Floyd and Dana Quigley is a record for most money won on a single hole, obliterating the mark of $290,000 banked by Floyd in 1995. The players' $510,000 afternoon breaks Hale Irwin's mark of $450,000 set in 2002 for most money won in a single event. The nine skins the tandem banked on the 17th hole ties Jack Nicklaus' total from 1991. In the process, Floyd relieved Irwin of the mark for most back-nine money at $1,495,000... The $260,000 earned by Nicklaus and Tom Watson bettered Nicklaus' three-year-old record for most cash won on the front nine ($160,000), while pushing Nicklaus' career front-nine earnings to $1,393,000, more than $1 million ahead of Floyd, the next closest player... This was the sixth Wendy's Champions Skins Game victory for Floyd but his first since 1998. Since turning 50, Floyd has won six of the eight Wendy's Champions Skins Games he has competed in. In addition, Floyd has captured eight unofficial team events. Counting his three PGA TOUR unofficial team victories, Floyd owns 11 team wins... Event rookie Dana Quigley enjoyed a fine debut. Battling a sore hip, the iron man of golf earned $255,000, the second-largest haul for a Wendy's Champions Skins Game rookie. That distinction belongs to Chi Chi Rodriguez, who made $300,000 in his inaugural event in 1988.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Loren Roberts set a Champions Tour record when he became the first player to win the first three events to start a season. Roberts held off a late charge by Hale Irwin to break the mark previously held by Don January (1981) and Larry Nelson (2001). Irwin started the round three strokes behind a trio of second-round co-leaders, including Roberts, but found himself tied with Roberts for the lead after a birdie at No. 15. The pair remained tied until Irwin, playing one group in front of Roberts, hit his second shot in the water at No. 18, resulting in a double bogey. Roberts finished his bogey-free round with a par and a one-stroke victory over R.W. Eaks and Brad Bryant. Roberts played his final 35 holes without a bogey.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jerry Pate sank a 10 1/2-foot birdie putt on the last hole to earn his first Champions Tour victory and his first win in a PGA TOUR event since the 1982 Tournament Players Championship, a span of 23 years, 11 months, 5 days. Pate trailed Hale Irwin and Mark James by one stroke with just two holes to play. However, Irwin and James both bogeyed No. 17 to fall into a four-way tie for the lead. Playing one group in front of Irwin and Mark McNulty, Pate hit his 5-iron approach and converted to grab the lead. Irwin's birdie attempt from 52 feet missed and Pate emerged with the first win of his Champions Tour career.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Despite chilly conditions on the weekend, Tom Kite ended a drought of just over 19 months with a five-stroke victory at Valencia, the largest winning margin in tournament history, and the biggest on the Champions Tour in over a year. Kite was tied for the lead with Andy Bean after Bean birdied the first hole Sunday. Bean, however, began to struggle at No. 4, making double bogey, and after six holes Kite was four strokes ahead. Kite converted back-to-back birdies on No. 8 and No. 9 to extend his lead to six strokes and cruised from there.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Brad Bryant birdied five of the last eight holes, including a clutch seven-foot birdie putt on No. 18, to win his first Champions Tour title and first TOUR title in almost 10 years. Bryant began the day one of 25 players within five shots of the lead and emerged thanks to a fortunate turn of events on the 18th. After Bryant holed out to take the outright lead, he watched John Harris miss his birdie attempt there and saw Mark Johnson (15 feet) and Vicente Fernandez (63 feet) miss eagle putts that would have forced a playoff. Six different players held or were tied for the lead during the final round.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Despite a bogey on the 54th hole, the lone blemish in his final round, Morris Hatalsky won for the first time in nearly three years when he was a one-stroke victor over Scott Simpson. Playing one group in front of Hatalsky, Simpson had an opportunity to put some pressure on Hatalsky, but missed a six-foot birdie attempt at No. 18 that gave Hatalsky some leeway on the final hole. Hatalsky played his final 45 holes in 12-under after a 3-over-par start on his front nine in the opening round.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jay Haas blistered the back nine for the third straight day and pulled away for a five-stroke victory. After making the turn Sunday with an even-par 36 on the front nine, Haas made an eagle at No. 11, giving him a two-stroke cushion. He followed with birdies on Nos. 13, 17 and 18 to pull away from Peter Jacobsen and Craig Stadler. Haas' effort on the back nine in the tournament was instrumental in his victory, playing those 27 holes in 13-under. He finished the tournament with a 15-under total of 201.

NOTES

Jay Haas' 54-hole total of 15-under-par 201 was the lowest score in tournament history when the event was played as a stroke-play event. The previous low was 204 by Harold Henning, Don January and Tom Weiskopf in 1993. . . The event's most-difficult hole was the par-4 sixth, with an average score of 4.293. The easiest hole was the par-5 11th, with an average score of 4.633. . . Andy North and Tom Watson defended their team title in the Raphael Division, posting a six-stroke victory over the team of Gary Koch and Roger Maltbie. North and Watson played both rounds without a bogey for the second consecutive year, and their winning total of 21-under 123 was a record score in that division. The previous low was 124 by Bruce Lietzke and Bill Rogers in 2002.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jay Haas made it two straight wins when he pulled away with birdies on three of the final four holes. Haas started the day four strokes behind second-round leader Bruce Fleisher but quickly got himself into the mix with five straight birdies on Nos. 2-6 and a sixth at No. 8. Bogeys on Nos. 9 and 10, and another at No. 14, appeared to stop any momentum he had. However, Haas answered with a birdie putt from the fringe at No. 15 and added another on the par-3 16th hole. Neither Mark James or Tom Kite could convert birdie opportunities during Haas' late run. Haas sealed the win with a birdie on No. 18, while Kite missed his eagle opportunity.

NOTES

Jay Haas became the third winner in four-year history of the event to come from behind in the final round. The lone exception was in 2005 when Jim Thorpe was tied with Wayne Levi after 36 holes... The six players who tied for the first-round lead were the most players to share the 18-hole lead since six were tied at the 1999 Cadillac NFL Golf Classic... Past champions haven't enjoyed great success when trying to defend their title. In 2004, Hale Irwin tied for 40th after winning the inaugural event the previous year. In 2005, Larry Nelson tied for 25th in defense of his crown, and last season Jim Thorpe tied for 21st a year after winning.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Brad Bryant's eagle-birdie-par finish, coupled with a late stumble by Mark McNulty, allowed him to claim his second title of the season. McNulty had a three-stroke advantage through 15 holes but sent his second shot into the water on No. 17 and made double bogey. That left an opening for Bryant, who used an approach to four feet at the 17th hole to set up a birdie that gave him a one-stroke lead. McNulty fired at the flag with his second shot at the home hole, but his ball drifted right and found the water, giving Bryant a two-stroke victory.

KEYS TO VICTORY

After registering a low number in the first round, Bobby Wadkins held off 63-year-old Raymond Floyd to win for the first time in almost five years. Wadkins started the final round with a three-stroke lead, but a glance at the scoreboard on the 11th hole told him all he needed to know. He then waited for the one birdie he needed and got it with a seven-foot putt on the 17th hole. With Floyd posted at 9-under, Wadkins wrapped up the victory with "perhaps the best shot of my life," a 5-iron second shot from 186 yards that stopped five feet short of the pin on the par-4 18th.

SECTION 3 TOURNAMENT HISTORIES

2006 Senior PGA Championship

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jay Haas sank a 12-foot par putt on the third playoff hole to defeat Brad Bryant. The victory, Haas' first in a major championship, was also his third straight win on the Champions Tour. Haas had started the day trailing 54-hole leader Gil Morgan by four strokes but grabbed the lead with five straight birdies on Nos. 4-8. He led by as much as two strokes on the back nine before Bryant made a late charge. Starting with a birdie at No. 13, Bryant added another at 14 and an eagle at 16. Moments after Haas birdied No. 18, Bryant followed with a 20-footer to set up the playoff. After matching pars on the first two holes, Haas won when he sank a 12-foot par putt before Bryant missed his short par opportunity.

NOTES

With his win, Jay Haas claimed the first major title of his career in his 90th career start in a major championship, including 83 events on the PGA TOUR. . . Haas became the second player to win three consecutive starts in 2006, joining Loren Roberts, who did so to start the season. . . In the last 12 years, only four players have come from behind in the final round to win the Senior PGA Championship. They were Haas (2006/four behind), Mike Reid (2005/two behind), John Jacobs (2003/two behind) and Fuzzy Zoeller (2002/one behind). Hale Irwin's four Senior PGA Championship victories (1996-98, 2004) are second only to legend Sam Snead's six wins (1964-65, '67, '70, 72-73). Gary Player (1986, '88, '90), Al Watrous (1950-51, '57) and Eddie Williams (1942, 45-46) each have three wins in this event.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Gil Morgan rallied from two strokes down on the final two holes to capture his 24th career title on the Champions Tour. Trailing by two strokes with just two holes to play, Morgan moved into a tie for the lead when he drained a 34-foot birdie putt at No. 17. Moments later he had the lead to himself when Loren Roberts missed a five-foot bogey putt. Roberts had one last chance to tie Morgan at the final hole but missed his nine-foot birdie opportunity while Morgan sank his two-footer for par. The win was Morgan's first in more than two years and it also moved him into a tie for third place on the all-time victory list with Miller Barber.

KEYS TO VICTORY

John Harris finally claimed his initial professional title, making a short birdie putt on the first playoff hole to beat Tom Jenkins. After second-round play was completed Sunday morning, Harris was grouped almost an hour ahead of the leaders. He jumped 16 players with a 64, matching the tournament's best round, and then watched Gil Morgan and Jay Haas come up short. Jenkins, the tournament's 36-hole leader, made a short birdie putt at No. 17 to tie Harris and then made par on the 18th to force the fourth playoff in tournament history. On the first extra hole, Jenkins hit his drive in the right rough but managed to recover just short of the 18th green. Harris hit a perfect drive and then laced a 5-iron from 178 yards to within six feet of the hole. After Jenkins made a 12-foot par putt, Harris holed the six-footer for birdie.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Dana Quigley fired a 9-under 63 Sunday to move past David Edwards and successfully defend his title in Kansas City. Quigley's bogey-free final round included nine birdies. He started the third round two strokes behind Edwards. However, Quigley wasted little time making up ground on the leader. After a birdie at No. 1, he made three straight birdies starting at No. 3 and added two more birdies on the front nine, including one from 70 feet on No. 9 that gave him the lead for good. Edwards tried to keep pace with Quigley on the back nine, but an errant drive on the par-4 16th resulted in a bogey which ended his hopes.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Despite a double-bogey finish, Bobby Wadkins managed to hang on for his first Champions Tour major title. Third-round leader Loren Roberts appeared in control with nine holes to play but saw his lead disappear with a disastrous four-hole stretch starting at No. 11. He played them at 5-over (double bogey, bogey, par and double bogey). Playing two groups ahead of Roberts, Wadkins ran off successive birdies on Nos. 11-15. His birdie at No. 15 was a 68-foot putt from the fringe. He added another birdie at No. 17 and went to the final hole with a three-stroke lead. Despite driving into a marsh area and an errant shot out of a bunker, Wadkins made his 13-foot putt for a double bogey which was enough to hold off Jim Thorpe, who missed forcing a playoff with a three-putt bogey at No. 18.

NOTES

Joe Ozaki tied a Champions Tour record when he reeled off eight straight birdies in the second round last year (Nos. 2-8). The eight consecutive birdies tied the record set by Chi Chi Rodriguez at the 1987 Silver Pages Classic and later matched by Jim Colbert at the 2000 TD Waterhouse Championship and Dana Quigley at the 2005 Bruno's Memorial Classic. . . When Bobby Wadkins led all players in greens in regulation last year, he became the third successive winner to do so. Wadkins hit 60 of 72 (83.3 percent) greens for the week. In 2004, Mark James hit 62 of 72 to lead the way, while Peter Jacobsen hit 59 of 72 to lead all players in 2005.

KEYS TO VICTORY

After falling five strokes out of the lead with missed par putts of 18 inches on the first two holes, David Edwards used birdies on six of the final 11 holes, two on 40-foot putts, to win his first career Champions Tour title. Edwards trailed by four strokes through seven holes but made a charge back up the leaderboard with a birdie run that included long putts at Nos. 9 and 13. When Curtis Strange triple-bogeyed the 10th hole to fall out of the lead, Edwards took advantage of the opportunity. Craig Stadler had a chance to tie Edwards on the final hole but missed a 10-foot birdie putt.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Tom Kite birdied the first playoff hole to defeat Keith Fergus and claim his second win of the season. Trailing 36-hole leader Don Pooley by three shots at the beginning of the final round, Kite overcame a pair bogeys on the back nine to finish tied with Fergus. In the playoff, Fergus watched his second shot bounce off the cart path into the grandstand behind 18. Hitting from the drop area, his third shot again hit the cart path and rolled back up a slight incline, hitting a fan in the leg before coming to rest on the cart path. Meanwhile, Kite's second shot on the par-5 landed in the back bunker, but he blasted out to two feet to set up his birdie putt.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Eduardo Romero knocked in a two-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole to defeat Lonnie Nielsen. Romero's closing-round, 7-under-par 65 helped set up the showdown with Nielsen, who, like Romero, was looking for his first Champions Tour win. Romero had started the day five strokes behind but clawed his way into the playoff with a near-perfect final round. His card included five birdies and an eagle. Romero nearly added a second eagle in the playoff when his second shot landed just 19 feet from the hole as Nielsen watched his chances go awry with a drive in the playoff that found a bunker and a second shot that caromed into a tree-lined area off the fairway. Romero's two-putt birdie ended it.

JELD-WEN Tradition

NOTES

Eduardo Romero not only became the second international player to claim the JELD-WEN Tradition, joining Australian Graham Marsh (1999), but he also joined fellow countrymen Roberto De Vincenzo as the second player from Argentina to win a senior major. He also joined Vicente Fernandez as the third Argentinian to win on the Champions Tour.

Eduardo Romero made up five strokes on the final day, the largest come-from-behind win in the history of this event. Both Craig Stadler (2004) and Jack Nicklaus (1996) came from four shots back in winning. This event has now had a player come-from-behind to win in five consecutive years.

Eduardo Romero became the first player in the history of the event to open with a round of even-par and go on to win, and he is also the first JELD-WEN Tradition champion who did not win on the PGA TOUR. He also became the first player since Don Bies (1989 Tradition) to win after shooting a lower score each day over 72 holes.

Bruce Summerhays made the 10th ace in JELD-WEN Tradition history when his 5-iron shot from 185 yards at the 11th hole found the cup. Summerhays' ace was the first of his Champions Tour career.

Last year's playoff was the sixth in the 18-year history of the JELD-WEN Tradition and second in succession.

KEYS TO VICTORY

With actor and good friend Bill Murray in his gallery, Scott Simpson won his first Champions Tour title. Simpson was locked in a three-way tie for the lead with David Edwards and Jay Haas. After laying up with his second shot, Simpson knocked a sand wedge shot from 88 yards to within nine feet of the flag and holed the putt. Haas seized the lead at the turn but slipped back to the pack with bogeys on Nos. 11 and 15. He still had a chance to take Simpson to a playoff but missed birdie putts of 6 feet on No. 16 and 11 feet on No. 17. With Simpson's round completed, Haas hit a poor approach into the 18th green and missed his 25-foot birdie attempt to tie on the final hole.

KEYS TO VICTORY

A wire-to-wire winner one year earlier, Bob Gilder successfully defended his title with a two-stroke victory in the final Constellation Energy Classic. Trailing Don Pooley by three strokes at the outset, Gilder made birdies on his first two holes to move into contention and then made a seven-foot birdie putt at No. 9 to grab a share of the lead. A six-foot birdie putt at No. 10 gave him a lead he would never relinquish. Gilder added three more birdies, including one at No. 18 which stretched his lead to two strokes. Pooley and Brad Bryant each needed eagles at No. 18 to tie Gilder but were unable to convert, giving Gilder his ninth career win on the Champions Tour.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Andy Bean's birdie on the first playoff hole ended a victory drought of more than 20 years and helped him win his first Champions Tour in his 91st start on the circuit. Bean two-putted for birdie from 25 feet to derail a late charge by R.W. Eaks, who, like Bean, was also seeking his first career win. Bean won by starting the final round two strokes ahead, eventually leading Eaks by five at the turn. But Eaks closed with six birdies in his last seven holes to force the playoff. However, Bean ended it on the first hole with his two-putt birdie, while Eaks missed a birdie when his four-footer hit the lip and spun out.

KEYS TO VICTORY

A second-round birdie by Tom Jenkins on No. 17 might have seemed almost meaningless at the time, but when heavy overnight rains forced cancellation of Sunday's final round, it proved to be the deciding stroke for Jenkins. The birdie gave him a one-stroke margin over Chip Beck and Loren Roberts after 36 holes that ultimately led to his seventh career victory on the Champions Tour. Jenkins' 17-foot birdie at No. 17 helped him recover from a poor second shot on the 503-yard par-5 hole. The win earned Jenkins a check for $300,000, the largest of his career.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jay Haas celebrated his 28th wedding anniversary by winning his fourth title of the year. Haas separated himself from the competition Saturday, posting a tournament-record, 9-under 63 that included birdies on five of his final six holes. He started with a five-shot lead Sunday and was at 17-under through five holes when heavy rains forced officials to first suspend play and eventually cancel the final round after the course became unplayable. The win was the sixth career Champions Tour title for Haas, and he joined Bob Charles as just the second player to win a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event in Houston.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Fred Funk found himself two strokes back of Chip Beck with four holes to play but rallied down the stretch to win his first Champions Tour event in just his third career start. Beginning at No. 15, Funk made three consecutive birdies, converting a clutch 12-foot putt on the 17th to take the lead over Beck who had finished almost an hour ahead. However, despite missing the final green hole-high to the left, Funk preserved the victory with a short pitch to within tap-in range.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jim Thorpe's solid play down the stretch held off Tom Kite and a late charge by Keith Fergus to win his second Charles Schwab Cup Championship in the last four years. He also won in 2003. Kite had grabbed the lead with consecutive birdies on Nos. 9 and 10, but Thorpe holed an 11-foot eagle putt on No. 13 to retake the lead. He then chipped in from 21 feet on No. 15 for a birdie to increase his lead to three after Kite missed a short putt for par on the same hole. Kite answered with a birdie on No. 16, but Thorpe answered with another birdie at No. 17 to essentially close the door.

NOTES

The Langers' successful defense in 2006 was the first since Team Floyd (Raymond and sons Raymond Jr. and Robert) repeated with Raymond and Robert in 2000 and 2001. Raymond and Raymond Jr. captured the first three Del Webb Father/Son Challenges (1995-1997). Team Langer's winning scores of 59-61—120 were identical to their winning scores in 2005. Stefan, 16, was a high school sophomore in Boca Raton, FL.

As Stefan Langer's birdie putt rolled into the center of the 18th hole, cinching the repeat victory, that drew the curtain on an auspicious debut for Team Tway (Bob and son Kevin). The winners of the 1986 PGA Championship and 2005 U.S. Junior Amateur, respectively, were in the media center watching the proceedings on TV when Langer's putt dropped in the hole. Even with that, the pair enjoyed a fine debut with rounds of 61-60—121. The 60 was the second-best round of the day and their runner-up score of 23-under par was the second consecutive year that lofty score has fallen short. Kevin will be a freshman on the golf team at Oklahoma State in 2007-2008.

NOTES

The PGA TOUR has won seven times, with Fred Couples part of the winning side on three occasions. Phil Mickelson and John Daly have each been on two winning PGA TOUR teams.

The Champions Tour has won five times. Unable to successfully defend its 2005 title, losing by five strokes to the PGA TOUR in 2006, Craig Stadler did turn in the lowest score among the nine competitors. He had a 9-under 63. The LPGA's Juli Inkster was next, with a 65.

Craig Stadler is a combined 12-under: in his last two Wendy's 3-Tour Challenge appearances. He shot a 69 in 2006 to go with his 63 the previous year.

The first four Wendy's 3-Tour Challenges took place outside of Nevada, in Ohio (1992, 1995), South Carolina (1993) and California (1994). The tournament has called the metropolitan Las Vegas area home since 1996.

Glossary Of Statistics

Total Driving

Total Driving is computed by totaling a player's rank in driving distance and driving accuracy.

Driving Distance*

The average number of yards per measured drive. Driving distance is measured on two holes per round. Care is taken to select holes which face in opposite directions to counteract the effects of wind. Drives are measured to the point they come to rest, regardless of whether they are in the fairway or not.

Driving Accuracy

The percentage of time a player is able to hit the fairway with his tee shot.

Greens in Regulation

The percentage of time a player was able to hit the green in regulation (greens hit in regulation/holes played). Note: A green is considered hit in regulation if any part of the ball is touching the putting surface and the number of strokes taken is two or less than par.

Putting Average

Measures putting performance on greens hit in regulation. For each green hit in regulation, the total number of putts is divided by the number of greens hit in regulation. By using greens hit in regulation, we are able to eliminate the affects of chipping close and one-putting in the computation.

Sand Saves Percentage

The percentage of time a player is able to get up and down once in a green-side sand bunker. Note: This up and down is computed regardless of score on the hole.

Eagles (holes per)

The average number of holes between each eagle.

Birdie Leaders

The average number of birdies made per round played.

All Around

This statistic is computed by totaling a player's rank in each of the following statistics: Scoring Leaders, Putting Leaders, Eagle Leaders, Birdie Leaders, Sand Saves, Greens in Regulation, Driving Distance and Driving Accuracy.

* As ShotLink is utilized on the Champions Tour in 2006, it will provide capabilities to greatly enhance Champions Tour statistical measurements.

* Note: The PGA TOUR Policy Board approved in September 2002 the retroactive awarding of an official victory to winners of the British Open prior to 1995. The Policy Board determined that champions prior to 1995 should be recognized as having won a major championship while also receiving career victory credit. Player records were adjusted at the start of the 2003 season so as to not change eligibility in the PGA TOUR Past Champions category during the course of the 2002 season.

PGA TOUR Retail Licensing

PGA TOUR Retail Licensing continues to expand its business base and the scope of the TOUR's brand presence in the consumer marketplace throughout the world with more than 70 domestic (U.S.) and more than 20 international licensees. PGA TOUR Retail Licensing manages its licensee relationships with the assistance of licensing agents for the U.S. and the rest of the world (except Japan), and has a master licensee in Japan.

Domestic highlights include the opening of additional PGA TOUR Superstores. This licensee is revolutionizing the golf retail industry through its network of 65,000-75,000 square foot TOUR-branded stores it plans to build across the U.S. with a focus on service, education and good value. There are two stores in Myrtle Beach, SC, and four in suburban Atlanta, with two new stores opening in Dallas, TX, in March 2007.

Our apparel licensee, Perry Ellis International, continues to expand the presence of TOUR-branded apparel, especially in JC Penney and other fine stores, a key player in the mid-tier department store market. The apparel will be available in over 1,200 stores in 2007.

The Paradies Shops, licensee for the PGA TOUR Airport Shops throughout the U.S., continues the TOUR's retail presence in this well-targeted environment. Each year, more than 200 million travelers pass by these 43 shops in 39 airports.

The PGA TOUR Grill, a restaurant appealing to the "upper casual" market, opened in suburban Washington, D.C. in March 2006. Based on a successful completion of a year-long market test, there is the possibility of additional locations in 2007. In late 2006, the TOUR announced two new exciting licenses: PGA TOUR Ticket-to-Golf! (prepaid gift tickets for a round of golf at over 2,000 courses throughout the U.S.) and PGA TOUR Experiences (all-inclusive vacations).

Internationally, TOUR-branded merchandise continues to grow as consumer products of choice in golf retail, and our licensee base throughout the U.K., Europe and Asia continues to progress. The TOUR's Japanese master licensee, Bonmax (Pro Tour, Inc.), has successfully expanded the TOUR's brand presence at retail and has well over 500 PGA TOUR "shop in shops" at this time.

TOUR-branded merchandise also enjoys a major presence in other countries including South Korea, Taiwan and Malaysia.

Charity: Giving Back...The Heart of the PGA TOUR

Millions of smiling faces and lives positively affected are sure signs that the PGA TOUR's charitable mission is a continuing success story in the communities where it plays.

This effort was celebrated in late 2005 when the PGA TOUR and its tournaments reached the Drive to a Billion milestone. That cumulative affect, since the first donation in 1938, reached approximately $1.1 billion through 2006.

The forecast is for the second billion-dollar mark to be reached in less than 10 years. PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events annually benefit more than 2,000 charities and countless individuals worldwide.

"Thanks to the incredible generosity of the tournaments, players, fans, volunteers and business partners who support the PGA TOUR, our goal of giving back continues to be our main focus," PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem said. "We are inspired by the continued enthusiasm for giving that ensures more and more assistance for those in need around the world."

Structure

Unlike any other professional sport, the PGA TOUR relies on 80,000 volunteers a year to run its events, and nearly all of the 100-plus tournaments are structured as non-profit organizations designed to donate 100 percent of net proceeds to local charities. Beneficiaries include a wide variety of local organizations such as hospitals, youth-development organizations, growth-of-the-game programs and food banks.

The beneficiaries include the 2005 Charities of the Year on each of the Tours – the St. Michael's Special School in New Orleans, LA (Zurich Classic of New Orleans on the PGA TOUR), Blank Children's Hospital in Des Moines, IA (Allianz Championship on the Champions Tour) and various charities for the Xerox Classic in Rochester, NY and Legend Group Financial Classic in Cleveland, OH (on the Nationwide Tour). The impact is also made by volunteers such as the 2005 Volunteers of the Year on the respective Tours – John Hamilton of the PGA TOUR's Cialis Western Open, Nicole Anderson at the Champions Tour's 3M Championship and Mike Smith at the Nationwide Tour's EnviroCare Utah Classic.

Tournaments

Tournaments provide the leadership, led by the Valero Texas Open on the PGA TOUR, the Toshiba Classic, 3M Championship and Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach on the Champions Tour and the Albertsons Boise Open on the Nationwide Tour, which provided the largest donations to charity in 2006 on each Tour.

"This continued response is a tribute to the players, tournaments and thousands of volunteers who make PGA TOUR events so successful," said Kym Hougham, Chairman of the Tournament Advisory Council. "We look forward to making even larger contributions for this worthy cause as we push to make a true difference in people's lives."

Players

Players also reach out to help considerably through charitable efforts in their home communities and across the nation.

In early 2006, the Tiger Woods Learning Center opened at the public course in Anaheim, CA, where Woods played his high school golf. The state-of-the-art educational facility had long been a goal for Woods to inspire young people.

TOUR members Frank Lickliter II, Corey Pavin, Jerry Kelly, Howard Twitty and Donnie Hammond traveled to the Persian Gulf during Thanksgiving 2006 to visit with American troops on a USO/Armed Forces Entertainment tour that brightened the lives of United States troops.

Champions Tour Player of the Year Jay Haas gave his first-place earnings of $1 million and runner-up Loren Roberts contributed his $500,000 second-place winnings in the Charles Schwab Cup to charities in their home communities of Greenville, SC, and Memphis, TN, respectively.

PGA TOUR member Mark Wilson contributed $30,000 to the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund (MAAC Fund) in November 2006 on the organization's 30th anniversary. It was the largest single donation by an athlete in the Milwaukee, WI, charity's history and came a week before he was to participate in the PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament. Wilson earned his 2007 PGA TOUR card with a tie for 29th.

"Unlike other sports, if he has an off day he doesn't get paid," said John Cary, executive director of the MAAC Fund. "So to be as generous as they are, as he is, [it's] pretty amazing."

In the communities where tournaments take place, giving back remains at the heart of the PGA TOUR.

Champions Tour Tournament Association

The Champions Tour Tournament Association is comprised of Champions Tour tournaments throughout the United States. The CTTA Board of Directors consists of six elected delegates and a past chairman.

The organization, as a body, meets twice annually to review policies and procedures of the Champions Tour, network with peers and attend workshops relative to the business of conducting a Champions Tour event. The CTTA Board of Directors meets a minimum of four times each year, including meetings with PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem, Champions Tour President Rick George and other staff members, the Champions Tour Player Directors and the Champions Tour Division Board.

The CTTA executive director reports to the Board of Directors and is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the CTTA executive office, which is located in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Responsibilities of the CTTA executive office include, but are not limited to:

- Planning and assisting in conducting all meetings
- Developing and managing surveys

- Working with each committee arm of the association and maintaining the daily communication required of the member tournaments, the CTTA Board of Directors and the Champions Tour.

The CTTA Executive Office address is: 13000 Sawgrass Village Circle, Suite 37, Ponte Vedra Beach, FL 32082, Phone: 904-285-6650, Fax: 894-285-7069

CTTA MISSION STATEMENT

The CTTA mission is to unify and strengthen the relationships among the individual Champions Tour tournaments and to serve as a liaison, to strengthen and unify the tournaments' relationship with the title sponsors and the Champions Tour.

This mission can be accomplished by providing an identity, a voice and vision for the tournaments as a whole and by supplying a constant flow of coordinated information, planning and operational assistance administered in concert with the standards and practices established by the CTTA's Board of Directors and the Champions Tour.

Champions Tour Wives, Inc.

Champions Tour Wives, Inc. is a Florida not-for-profit organization dedicated to helping others through organizations that promote assistance to and benefit women, their families and their many different needs. It is comprised of wives of professional golfers on the Champions Tour and others who support its charitable endeavors.

Since its incorporation in 1994, Champions Tour Wives, Inc. has raised more than $2 million dollars for its various charities. Its fundraising activities have included selling their "Be a Champion" wristbands, publishing a cookbook (These Guys Are Good!) and live/silent auctions. In 2007, the wives will once again host their "Drive for the Wives Pro-Am" at the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton, FL. This charity event features pro-am teams consisting of one Champions Tour Player, one NASCAR driver/owner and four amateurs. All proceeds from the event will be divided between the Champions Tour Wives and the Women's Auxiliary of Motorsports.

In addition to fundraising activities, Champions Tour Wives members visit various charities in the tournament communities. The wives' charity visits include reading to children in schools, feeding children in shelters, decorating cookies for sick children and participating in after-school programs. Champions Tour Wives, Inc. is committed to making a difference in the lives of those who need assistance by working with local tournaments and communities to fulfill its mission.

For more information regarding the Champions Tour Wives, please contact Kirsten Burgess at PGA TOUR headquarters.

The First Tee

The First Tee (thefirsttee.org) is recognized as one of the premier youth-development programs in the country. It provides young people of all backgrounds an opportunity to develop, through golf and character education, life-enhancing values such as honesty, confidence, perseverance and judgment.

Since its inception in 1997, The First Tee has opened more than 250 golf-learning facilities in 46 states and five international locations (Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, Singapore) and has introduced the game of golf and its values to over 675,000 participants.

The First Tee Life Skills Experience™ is the unique feature that separates The First Tee from many other junior golf programs and youth initiatives. Through life lessons taught at more than 200 community-based nonprofit Chapters, participants learn the importance of maintaining a positive attitude, how to make decisions by thinking about possible consequences, how to define and set goals, and how to transfer the positive values of golf to everyday life. Research conducted by the University of Virginia in 2005 provides data-based evidence of the effectiveness of The First Tee and that the organization is having a strong, positive impact on young people's development of life skills and core values.

The First Tee National School Program (thefirstteensp.org) introduces The First Tee Nine Core Values to elementary school students and provides teachers with modified equipment and a curriculum to teach basic golf skills and etiquette during regular physical education classes. The NSP has reached more than 400,000 students in over 900 elementary schools, and its presence continues to grow in PGA TOUR tournament markets.

Each Labor Day weekend, the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach showcases the talent and character of young people who participate at The First Tee facilities worldwide. An official Champions Tour event, the tournament pairs one junior with a Champions Tour player and two amateurs. Seventy-eight junior spots are awarded. The Sept. 1-3, 2006 tournament was televised on The Golf Channel and NBC for the third straight year.

Key to The First Tee's success is the support it receives from its Founding Partners, some of the game's most respected and influential organizations; Augusta National Golf Club, LPGA, PGA of America, PGA TOUR, and the USGA. Former President George Bush serves as honorary chairman.

GOLF 20/20: Vision for the Future

In November 2000, golf industry leaders gathered at the World Golf Village to participate in a conference called GOLF 20/20: Vision for the Future, a precedent-setting forum aimed at initiating a collaborative effort to grow the game of golf and secure its future. The spirit of unity was so strong and the commitment to make a difference so universal, the decision was made to address some of the most pressing issues impacting the golf industry on an ongoing basis, through the formation of GOLF 20/20.

An initiative of the World Golf Foundation, GOLF 20/20's mission is "To align the golf industry behind a plan that addresses the future of golf in a strategic manner, with an emphasis on accelerating growth and participation and creating new avenues of access into the game." Through ongoing programs created in collaboration with industry partners that promote the growth of game initiative, GOLF 20/20 strives to enhance both participation and interest in golf.

Among GOLF 20/20's many accomplishments during the past six years are the following:

Research – GOLF 20/20 has undertaken a number of unprecedented research projects, including golf's largest-ever segmentation study (2001); a study quantifying golf's annual economy at $62 billion; and two studies focusing on golf's best customers (2005). In 2006, GOLF 20/20, working with SRI International, developed a template for the calculation of the economic impact of golf at the state level, which provides states with an affordable tool to use in a variety of ways.

Program Development – GOLF 20/20 has successfully piloted numerous programs, beginning with Link Up 2 Golf in 2001. This adult player development program now serves as an integral part of the PGA of America's Play Golf America program. In 2003, GOLF 20/20 created the National School Golf Program, a unique approach to introducing elementary school students to the game through the physical education structure. This program is now under the management of The First Tee. And in 2005, GOLF 20/20 established

Women's Golf Week, a unique collaboration of the golf industry aimed at increasing the participation of women in the game. During its inaugural year, 225 golf facilities nationwide hosted Women's Golf Week activities, impacting nearly 10,000 women. In 2006, more than 580 host facilities participated – an increase of 160 percent – impacting more than 20,000 women.

State Alliances – A major initiative of GOLF 20/20 over the past year or two has been the facilitation of alliances of golf organizations at the state level. A GOLF 20/20 Task Force on State Alliances has been active in gathering information from existing alliances and also helping to foster new ones. Where there were just a couple of such alliances two years ago there are now more than 20, with the organizations working together on communication issues, environmental and regulatory issues, player development programs and idea sharing and funding of common benefits such as economic impact studies.

PGA TOUR Links

The PGA TOUR Links program is the technological solution that brings together PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour members, PGA TOUR staff, player managers and tournament organizations. Along with IBM, the PGA TOUR's technology partner, the PGA TOUR and its players work together to design a solution that fits their communication needs.

As part of the TOUR Links program, each player receives a ThinkPad computer and access to the players-only intranet site from anywhere in the world. Within the site, players are able to view vital PGA TOUR announcements, tournament information, tee times and conduct statistical analysis. Players are also able to commit to tournaments, make hotel reservations, reply to surveys and vote in player elections and annual awards.

To date, more than 750 players have participated in TOUR Links. The players have cited the program as a most efficient form of communication. As the program enters its ninth year, it continues to evolve to meet changing technological advances and player needs.

ShotLink

The PGA TOUR has collaborated with IBM, the TOUR's Official Worldwide Information Technology Partner, on the PGA TOUR ShotLink System. The ShotLink System is a revolutionary platform for collecting and disseminating scoring and statistical data on every shot by every player in real-time during every tournament round. This data asset creates improved live coverage and more meaningful analysis. The new data creates great potential to enhance entertainment and image of the sport across all platforms.

The development of ShotLink started in 1997 when the TOUR decided to update its current scoring system, which was based on 1987 technology. The TOUR, in conjunction with IBM, conducted an extensive review process to formulate its strategy for the development and implementation of ShotLink. Following an evaluation of more than 30 companies, additional technology and implementation partners were identified: Information and Display Systems (IDS), Palm, Electronic Arts, Daktronics and two mapping vendors: GeoGolf and Geodetic Services. IBM provided overall project management, consulting services and server and networking technologies. ShotLink was introduced during the 2001 Buick Classic and represents the TOUR's scoring system for the future. The System was enhanced in 2006 with the addition of a radar solution that accurately collects club head speed, ball speed, launch angle and tracks the entire flight of the ball. This solution is being installed on one tee each week. Future fan enhancements include broadcast applications, on-site presentations and new ShotLink statistics.

The accumulation, packaging and presentation of expanded shot and course information provides the basis for numerous fan enhancements.

Current uses of ShotLink data include:

- Enhanced graphics and statistics in television broadcasts
- Expanded information and statistics for use by media
- Powering on-site and PGATOUR.com tournament leaderboards
- Providing on-site media and hospitality access to live tournament information through Tournament Tracker, developed by IBM
- Powering the Emmy Award-winning TOURCast application on PGATOUR.com, which launched in 2003
- Powering PGA TOUR Mobile Link and TOURCast Mobile, the PGA TOUR's wireless application for use on PDAs and cell phones
- Analysis of how each golf course is played to assist in course setup and in design changes
- Increased data mining to create more interesting entertainment and insights on how the game is played across all platforms on PGATOUR.com today

In addition to current uses, ShotLink provides unlimited potential to develop fan enhancements and products over the next several years, including:

- Enhanced and interactive television
- On-site wireless and kiosk applications for tournament patrons
- Internet, PC and console games

Besides fan enhancements, ShotLink creates an ongoing historical archive of statistical information. This information is available to players through the PGA TOUR Links program, also built by IBM.

The ShotLink data is collected by volunteers utilizing a combination of Palm handheld devices and laser range finders. Each week a team of approximately 350 volunteers dedicate approximately three man years of effort to perform this data collection. In the course of the entire season, more than 10,000 volunteers contribute to the success of this program.

TPC Network

The PGA TOUR's TPC Network has maintained a reputation for operating high-quality clubs since its inception 25 years ago. The TPC network continues to grow, with more than 30 facilities currently open or under construction.

TPCs encompass all forms of golf-related operations—resort facilities, corporate/private membership clubs and daily-fee courses—and, as such, PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties, Inc. is able to match the type of facility with the demands of each market in which a club operates.

The Network represents the highest standard in the golf course industry, commensurate with the members of the organization it represents, the players of the PGA TOUR. Each TPC embodies the trademark of excellence first established with the flagship TPC Sawgrass, which opened its world-famous PLAYERS Stadium Course in the fall of 1980 in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL. This commitment to overall excellence serves as the foundation for the network's overall success.

The TPC Network was born through former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman's desire to provide TOUR players with quality golf courses that also would offer spectators enhanced viewing areas. Beman also reasoned that development of quality facilities would alleviate the TOUR's dependency on the television dollar, while providing rent-free venues for tournaments. The savings in rent, in turn, would generate both increased purses and greater charitable contributions by the tournaments held at TPCs.

The TPC Sawgrass was the first TPC to hold a PGA TOUR event, becoming the permanent home of THE PLAYERS Championship in 1982. In 2006, 16 tournaments were conducted on TPC courses, bringing the total number of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events held at TPC facilities to 263.

The TPC Sawgrass PLAYERS Stadium Course was completely refurbished in 2006, with the fairways redone and the greens rebuilt to create a "fast, firm and fair" course in time for the 2007 PLAYERS. A new, larger clubhouse will open in April 2007.

Many of the top golf-course architects are connected with TPC projects, including Pete Dye, Tom Fazio, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Tom Weiskopf, Greg Norman, Bob Von Hagge and D.A. Weir. The TPC Boston, which opened in 2002, was the fourth TPC course designed by Palmer Course Design Co. Weiskopf has designed his second TPC course for the TPC Craig Ranch near Dallas, TX, which opened in the fall of 2004.

Moreover, in recognizing the importance of player input for tournament courses, TOUR members have served as design consultants, working closely with the lead architect. Hal Sutton, for instance, served as the player design consultant on the TPC Treviso Bay (Naples, FL), which will open in 2007, while Steve Elkington was the player consultant and Kelly Gibson the associate player consultant working with architect Pete Dye on the TPC Louisiana in New Orleans, which opened in April 2004.

The TPC San Antonio, scheduled to break ground this year, will be a 36-hole facility. Pete Dye and Greg Norman will be the architects, and Sergio Garcia and Bruce Lietzke will be the player consultants of the course.

Postponement and Weather Guidelines

Postponement and Bad-Weather Guidelines Official Rounds

If, in the judgment of the tournament director, adverse weather conditions or any other occurrence or condition beyond the control of Champions Tour renders commencement or continuation of tournament play inadvisable, play shall be postponed until such time as the tournament director, after consultation with the tournament, determines that such weather conditions or other occurrence have improved sufficiently for play to commence or resume, provided that:

The completion of no such tournament shall be extended beyond Sunday of tournament week*, except that if at least half the field has completed play prior to the postponement or if a playoff is necessary to determine the tournament winner, the final round may be completed on Monday.

Notwithstanding the above, if at least half the field has not completed play prior to the postponement of a Sunday round, play shall not be resumed unless, in the judgment of the tournament director, the entire field can reasonably be expected to complete the round on Sunday.

In the event of cancellation of any part of a tournament, prize money shall be distributed among the lowest scorers after the last completed round of play in the same number, amounts and order as for the originally scheduled number of holes. If a tournament is shortened to not less than two stipulated rounds and there is a tie for first place, there will be a playoff at a convenient time as determined by the tournament director. The tournament will be considered official (e.g., for purposes of determining official money, official win, etc.) if at least two stipulated rounds have been played.

Bad-Weather Guidelines 72-Hole Events

For implementation at the JELD-WEN Tradition, the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship and Charles Schwab Cup Championship, the following guidelines will be utilized by the Champions Tour Tournament Director in the decision-making process:

- The first priority will be the completion of 72 holes. Every effort will be made to finish each round as scheduled by Sunday.
- In order to make every effort to achieve this objective by Sunday, the tournament director is provided the discretion to extend any day's play beyond the standard 18-hole round.
- If conditions exist which prevent 72 holes from being completed by Sunday, play will always be extended to Monday if golf course conditions and weather forecast permit.
- If conditions exist which make the completion of 72 holes impossible, the next priority is to complete 54 holes. Again, play in this situation will always be extended to Monday if course conditions and weather permit.
- If conditions exist which make the completion of 54 holes impossible, the next priority is to complete 36 holes so the winner is credited with an official victory.
- In the event of a suspension during a Monday final round, the completion of the tournament shall not be extended to Tuesday, except that if at least half the field has completed play prior to postponement or if a playoff is necessary to determine the tournament winner. Notwithstanding the above, if at least half the field has not completed play prior to the postponement, play shall not be resumed unless, in the judgment of the tournament director, the entire field can reasonably be expected to complete the Monday round.

* The JELD-WEN Tradition, Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship and Charles Schwab Cup Championship are exceptions to these guidelines.

World Golf Foundation

World Golf Foundation, a not-for-profit, 501(c) 3 organization, was created in 1994 to unite the golf industry and those who love the game.

The board supports initiatives that promote, enhance the growth of, and provide access to the game of golf, while preserving golf's traditional values and passing them on to others.

There are three initiatives under the umbrella of the World Golf Foundation: the World Golf Hall of Fame, The First Tee and GOLF 20/20: Vision for the Future. Each initiative has its own mission to enhance the game of golf's history, present and future.

World Golf Hall of Fame—The World Golf Hall of Fame (wgv.com) was conceptualized in the late 1980s and open since 1998. Its mission is to recognize and celebrate the game's greatest players and contributors and serve as an inspiration to golfers and fans worldwide. The Hall of Fame administers a process by which new inductees are named and brought into the membership each year. Hall of Fame members are honored in the 75,000 square-foot permanent exhibit plan in the museum located at the World Golf Village in St. Augustine, FL, and a variety of special exhibits are opened throughout the year.

The First Tee—The First Tee (thefirsttee.org) is recognized as one of the premier youth development programs in the country. It provides young people of all backgrounds an opportunity to develop, through golf and character education, life-enhancing values such as honesty, confidence, perseverance and judgment. Since its inception in 1997, The First Tee has opened more than 250 golf learning facilities in 46 states and five international locations (Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, Singapore), and has introduced the game of golf and its values to more than 675,000 participants. The First Tee National School Program (thefirstteensp.org) introduces The First Tee Nine Core Values to elementary school students and provides teachers with modified equipment and a curriculum to teach basic golf skills and etiquette during regular physical-education classes. The NSP has reached more than 400,000 students in over 900 elementary schools, and its presence continues to grow in PGA TOUR tournament markets.

GOLF 20/20: Vision for the Future—Initiated in 1999, GOLF 20/20 (golf2020.com) is devoted to aligning the golf industry behind a plan that addresses the future of golf in a strategic manner, with an emphasis on accelerating growth and participation and creating new avenues of access into the game.

World Golf Hall of Fame

The World Golf Hall of Fame is the ultimate destination for the celebration and recognition of golf's greatest players and contributors and serves as an inspiration to golfers and fans worldwide. Open since 1998 and supported by all of the world's leading golf organizations, the Hall of Fame combines historic artifacts and personal memorabilia with interactive exhibits to tell the stories of the Hall of Fame members and the history of the game. The World Golf Hall of Fame is located at World Golf Village in St. Augustine, FL.

The Museum

Guests of the World Golf Hall of Fame will be greeted with the fascinating and comprehensive tale of golf's history and its development from the cradle in Scotland through its growth to the far reaches of the world. An exhibit in this area focuses on the role of The R&A, the history of the Open Championship, golf's longest-running major, and The Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews.

The Hall of Fame members' stories are referenced throughout the museum, though their true home is in the center of the museum, Shell Hall, named for the Hall of Fame's founding partner, Shell Oil Company. An extraordinary "Wall of Fame" donning hand-crafted bronze-relief plaques of each member extends an entire wall, representing the current 109 members. And, guests can search for statistics, sound bites, photographs and video clips in a comprehensive database developed by technology partner IBM.

As a fitting tribute to the highest achievement in golf, significant tournament trophies, including men's and women's majors, are artfully displayed in the Hall of Fame Tower. A locker room showcases memorabilia from many of the members, and guests have the opportunity to sink a long putt on a modern tournament-style putting green under the lights and cameras of a Shell's Wonderful World of Golf match. Video is featured throughout the museum, including the multi-screen experience called "Spirit of the Game" and a theater offering great championship moment highlights.

Special Exhibits

The World Golf Hall of Fame opens various temporary exhibits throughout the year, many featuring its members. An exhibit featuring Hall of Fame Global Ambassador Gary Player is open through Spring 2007, as are the special displays highlighting the personal and professional achievements of the 2006 Class of Inductees.

Avenues for Induction

There are five avenues for a player or contributor to enter the World Golf Hall of Fame: PGA TOUR/Champions Tour ballot, International ballot, LPGA Point System, Lifetime Achievement category and Veteran's category.

Various criteria is set up for players to be eligible for the PGA TOUR/Champions Tour and International ballots, including an age requirement of at least 40 years old and a record that includes a combination of regular tournament victories and majors.

The LPGA Point System requires a player to be an active member of the LPGA Tour for 10 years and to have won either an LPGA major tournament, Vare Trophy or Rolex Player of the Year honors, plus a number of other tournament victories.

Nominations for the Lifetime Achievement category are made by the international voting body members. The category is designed for any male or female supporter of the sport whose primary role in the game has come outside the playing arena. The World Golf Foundation Board of Directors' Selection Committee decides this category each year.

Any male or female professional or amateur whose playing career concluded at least 30 years ago is eligible for selection through the Veteran's category. The World Golf Foundation Board of Directors' Selection Committee also determines this category each year.

Founding Partner

As sole founding partner of World Golf Hall of Fame, Shell Oil Company provides financial support to the World Golf Foundation and supports its charitable initiatives aimed at introducing golf to young people, thereby promoting scholastic achievement, community service and those values intrinsic to the game of golf.

Regulations – Television

PGA TOUR retains exclusive media rights (including, but not limited to, broadcast, cable, home video, Internet) to all events on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. 6. No footage may be used in any commercial manner or sold, distributed, syndicated or provided to any other entity or agency.
7. As the exclusive rights holder, PGA TOUR is the absolute owner of all footage shot at the tournament site (golf action or other footage) and may request copies of any footage shot at PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events. Such footage will be provided to PGA TOUR upon request (PGA TOUR will pay industry standard copying and shipping costs).
8. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
9. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be permitted into the media center and locker room areas.
