Earned his first career title in April with a one-stroke victory at the Fresh Express Classic at TPC Stonebrae. Started the final round one shot back of 54-hole leader David

Hearn but moved to the front with birdies on his first three holes. The pair traded the lead on the back nine before Chappell rolled in birdie putts at Nos. 15 and 17. A Hearn bogey at No. 16 left Chappell two up with one hole to go. Heam's approach to the par 4 nearly spun into the cup but settled inches away, leaving him with a tap-in birdle to get within one and forcing Chappell to make par. Chappell two-putted from 25 feet for the win and the $108,000 firstplace check...Missed the next two cuts before recording his fourth top-10 finish of the year, at the BMW Charity Pro-Am. Was tied for the lead after shooting 64 in the first round. Three consecutive 68s left him two strokes back and

Set the tournament 54-hole record, (192, 22-under). Went into the final round with a five-stroke lead over Keegan Bradley. Shot a 71 and was passed by Peter Tomasulo (61) and Bradley (65). Still posted his sixth top-10 finish, leaving him $441 behind Chris Kirk on the money list, with $267,328... Added another top-10 with a T5 at the Cox Classic, where he shared the 54-hole lead with James Hahn. Played the final eight holes in 1-over par for a 2-under 69. #### PFRSONAL.

Lists making it to the final stage of the 2007 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament as his biggest thrill in golf...Lists cowboys as his heroes...Got his start in golf from his dad. His grandfather was a Rollins College classmate of noted course architect Pete Dye. His grandfather's friendship with Dye earned him a sponsor's exemption into the 2007 National Mining Association Pete Dye Classic on the Nationwide Tour. Says Heisman Trophy winner Danny Wuerffel and Mark Calcavechia are his favorite Florida Gators. A fan of the TV show "Lost." During a casual round in 2008 with Jeff Klauk, Bubba Dickerson and Josh McCumber, he bet the others he could throw his golf ball from the 17th tee at TPC Sawgrass PLAYERS Stadium Course onto the green. The ball landed on the front of the green. "When I hit my shot, I did put my ball inside the one I threw."

NATIONWIDE TOUR VICTORIES (2):

2010 Melwood Prince George's County Open, Chiquita Classic.

2010 SEASON:

Made 27 starts on the Nationwide Tour and collected two wins, a second- and a third-place finish among his six top-10s. Was one of a Tour-record four players to go over the $400,000 mark, finishing with $403,957 to wind up No. 4 on the money list. Also finished No. 3 in the All-Around ranking for the year...After missing the first two cuts of the season, went 11-under par in the final 54 holes at the Panama CLARO Championship, a feat matched only by the tournament winner Fran Quinn, to post a solo third, his career-best Nationwide Tour finish. Stellar play in the final 54 holes offset his first-round, 1-over 71...At the BMW Charity Pro-Am, posted his best career Nationwide Tour finish, T2. After shooting a second-round 64, he was only two strokes off the lead. Despite a stellar weekend, he still finished two shots back...Earned his first career win, at the Melwood Prince George's County Open, in June when he two-putted the final hole for birdie. Emerged from a crowded leaderboard on the last day, shooting a 6-under 65 to finish at 17-under 267, one better than Jin Park and Frank Lickliter II. He began the final round three strokes back of leader B.J. Staten but moved into the lead with four birdies and an eagle in his first seven holes. A double-bogey at the par-4, 9th dropped him into a four-way tie for the lead, which he then regained with another birdie at No. 11. Maintained a tenuous one-shot advantage until Lickliter birdied the par-5, 18th to tie. Playing in the next group, Gainey reached the uphill, 547-yard closing hole in two and two-putted from 35 feet for the win. The victory was worth $108,000 and moved him from No. 18 to No. 2 on the money list...Four events later, he became the season's first two-time winner with a three-stroke victory at the inaugural Chiquita Classic. Grabbed the second-round lead by one shot and expanded it to four with a third-round, 10-under 62 at TPC River's Bend. Scores of 64-66-62 put him at 24-under, equalling Arjun Atwal's Nationwide Tour record for most strokes under par through 54 holes. Needed only a 3-under 69 on the final day to earn his second title in four starts. Endured a mid-round stretch that didn't produce a par in nine holes (six birdies and three bogeys). Holed out from a greenside bunker at No. 14 for birdie and then saved par at No. 15 after pushing his tee shot into a hazard down the right side of the fairway.

A two-putt birdie at 18 gave him a three-shot cushion over Joe Affrunti. Score of 27-under matched the second lowest in Tour history. Victory was worth $99,000 and pushed his season total over the $300,000 mark, moving him to No. 1 on the money list...Posted his fifth top-10 six starts later, at the Mylan Classic...Three starts later, at the WNB Golf Classic, he finished T5. Fired 66-68 on the weekend to jump 21 spots. His final-round 68 included a hole-in-one on the 207-yard, par-3 8th hole using a 7-iron.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Split time between the PGA TOUR and Nationwide Tour. Made the cut in eight of 15 starts on the PGA TOUR, his degree but could not pass up a guaranteed spot in the Masters, where he eventually missed the cut. ## BEST PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH:

T15—2010 The McGladrey Classic

NATIONWIDE TOUR VICTORIES (2):

2010 Fort Smith Classic, Knoxville News Sentinel Open.

BEST 2010 PGA TOUR FINISH:

T15—The McGladrey Classic.

2010 SEASON:

Made 21 starts on the Nationwide Tour, earned two victories and finished second twice. Had seven top-10 finishes among his 17 made cuts to finish No. 2 on the final money list despite missing the final two events of the year with an injured wrist. Ended the season No. 1 in Scoring Average and All-Around, No. 2 in Greens in Regulation and No. 4 in Birdie Average. A playoff loss in the second event of the year put him No. 3 on the money list and he would remain in the top-6 for the remainder of the season. Led the money list a total of six weeks during the year... Came close to winning the second event of the year when he finished regulation play tied for the lead with Jim Herman at the Moonah Classic in Australia. Lost the playoff on the first extra hole when Herman made a 6-foot birdie putt. Was 10 strokes off the lead after 36 holes, but a third-round 65, coupled with Herman's 3-over 75, gave him a share of the 54-hole lead. Battled with Herman over the windswept final round and held a two-stroke lead with three holes to go until he stumbled with bogeys at Nos. 16 and 17 to fall into a tie. Missed a 6-foot birdie putt for the win on 72nd hole. The playoff loss was the second of his career, with the other coming at the 2008 Knoxville Open...Continued his solid play at the Panama CLARO Championship two weeks later, when he finished T9. Entered the final round T43 but managed to equal the low round of the day, a 4-under 66 to record his second top-10 finish of the year...Posted another Despite a T47 standing after the first round, he came back with the low round of the day—and tournament—in the second round by shooting a 63. A pair of 68s on the weekend led to a T5 finish...Posted his second runner-up finish of the year three events later at the BMW Charity Pro-Am. Did not shoot a score worse than 68 all week en route to T2, two strokes back of winner Fabian Gomez...In June, fired a final-round 64 to win the Fort Smith Classic by one stroke for his first career Tour title. Took the lead on the front nine with four birdies in his first six holes but needed birdies at Nos. 11, 13 and 15 to reach 16-under, one better than runner-up Kyle Thompson, who posted a 7-under 63. The victory was worth $94,500 and pushed him to No. 1 on the money list...Finished a season-best 21-under par at the inaugural Chiquita Classic but could do no better than a T5 near Cincinnati...Collected his second win of the year in August with a two-stroke victory at the Knoxville News Sentinel Open. Matched the course record with a 9-under 63 in the third round which propelled him to a one-stroke lead after 54 holes. Played the front nine Sunday in even par to lose the lead but fired a back nine 31, including birdies on his final two holes, to finish at 20-under 268 and defeat Travis Bertoni. First-place check of $90,000 vaulted him back to No. 1 on the money list and made him the first person in 2010 to go over the $400,000 mark. Victory also came on his one-year wedding anniversary...Season ended on a sour note when he injured his left wrist, forcing him to miss the final two events and derailed any chance he had of winning the money title.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Made the cut in four of 13 starts on the Nationwide Tour. Lone top-25 finish was a T24 at the Nationwide Tour Players Cup. Lost in a playoff on the eGolf Tour to Tom Gillis at Pine Needles in March. 2008: Played his rookie season on the Nationwide Tour in 2008, finishing No. 77 on the money list. Made 10 cuts in 19 starts, including three top-25 finishes. Shot 66, making him one of the first-round leaders, with Arjun Atwal and Jarrod Lyle, at the Knoxville Open. Birdied the 72nd hole to force a playoff with Lyle, who defeated him with a birdie on the first extra hole. The runner-up finish (his only one of the season) and $54,000 check moved him to 42nd on the money list at the time. 2007: Missed the cut as an amateur at the 2007 Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational, his only previous cut on Tour. Has made four of eight cuts during his career on the PGA TOUR, with a T52 at the 2008 AT&T Classic his best finish. Amateur: Winner of the 2007 Ben Hogan Award, given annually to the nation's top collegiate golfer. Helped lead the Bulldogs to the 2005 NCAA Championship, which he calls his biggest thrill in golf. Also won two Southeastern Conference team titles. Set a school record with seven individual victories, four of which came during his senior season. Earned first-team All-American honors his junior and senior seasons. Earned second-team All-American honors as a sophomore. Three-time first-team All-SEC selection. 2008 BMW Charity Pro-Am. 2010 Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open.

2010 SEASON:

Made 23 starts on the Nationwide Tour and had six top-10 finishes, including a win in the final full-field event of the year, the inaugural Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open. The victory secured his spot among the top-25 money winners and earned him a return trip to the PGA TOUR in 2011. Finished No. 13, thanks to his late-season efforts. Fired a final-round 69 at TPC Sawgrass to erase a three-stroke deficit and win by one over three others. Had built a three-shot lead early on the back nine before stumbling with a bogey at No. 14 and a double-bogey at No. 16, opening the door for several challengers. Made par on the demanding 17th and 18th holes to finish at 8-under, the only single-digit winning score on Tour in 2010. The victory was the second of his Nationwide Tour career. The first-place check for $108,000 moved him from No. 35 to No. 12 on the money list with only the Tour Championship remaining on the schedule... Posted his first top-10 finish of the year, at The Rex Hospital Open in May. Finished T9 when officials shortened the tournament to 54 holes due to heavy rain, which wiped out the final round...Kept his solid play going by finishing T10 the next week at the Melwood Prince George's County Open. Was T21 heading into the final round. Fired a 66 Sunday which included five birdies and an eagle... His third consecutive top-10 effort came at the Fort Šmith Classic, where he shot a 7-under 63 on the last day to move up to T7...Finished T3 at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational in July, thanks to a 5-under 66 in the final round at Ohio State University's Scarlet Course. Ended the week at 8-under 276, two strokes back of winner D.J. Brigman... Notched his fifth top-10 finish at the Chattanooga Classic. Was T25 going into the final round before rallying with a 64 to finish T5.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Rookie season on the PGA TOUR resulted in 15 made cuts in 27 starts. Cracked the top 25 twice, including a season-best T17 at the Wyndham Championship and a T23 at the St. Jude Classic. Finished the season No. 160 on the official money list. Played in just two Nationwide Tour events, having posted all four rounds in the 60s to finish third at the Rex Hospital Open. 2008: Earned his ticket to the PGA TOUR after placing 14th on the Nationwide Tour money list...Missed the cut in three of his first five starts before reeling off four consecutive top-25 finishes on the Nationwide Tour, culminating with his first top-10 of the season at the South Georgia Classic (T6). Earned his first career win at the BMW Charity Pro-Am where he nearly went wire to wire. Posted rounds of 65-65 to grab the second-round lead. Third-round 68 put him at 17-under and one shot ahead. Three birdies in the first five holes of Sunday's final round gave him the cushion he needed. He was never challenged the rest of the way and won by three strokes over Roger Tambellini. First-place check of $121,500 jumped him from No. 44 to No. 4 on the money list at the time. Also collected the keys to a BMW X5 for the win. One week after his victory, was T2 at the Melwood Prince George's County Open. Shared the 54-hole lead with three others and shot a 2-under 70 to finish one shot back of winner Jeff Klauk. Runner-up check pushed his season total over the $223,000 mark and vaulted him to No. 1 on the money list. Followed a poor stretch of play, where he missed four cuts in six events, with a T8 at the Utah Championship, shooting 65 in the final round and creeping back into the top-10 on the money list. A T21 at the Nationwide Tour Championship at TPC Craig Ranch left him 14th on the final money list, with $276,412. Ranked third in Putting for the year. 2007: Made the cut in 14 of 24 starts on the Nationwide Tour, including eight top-25 finishes. Finished the year No. 47 on the money list, with $135,218. 2006: Made the cut in 16 of 27 starts during his rookie season on the Nationwide Tour, with three top-25 finishes, including a career-best T12 at the Chattanooga Classic. Ended the season No. 99 on the money list, with $51,303. Had missed the cut in all seven career starts on the Nationwide Tour prior to 2006. 2005: Member of the Canadian Tour from 2001-05. Playing on what turned out to be a broken foot, notched his first career win on that Tour at the Michelin Morelia Classic. Posted a final-round 64 to storm back from six shots down. The victory helped him finish a career-best fourth on the Tour's final money list... Has also won on the Tarheel Tour. Amateur: Earned All-Big South Conference honors in 1993 and 1994, helping lead Campbell University (Buies Creek, NC) to the conference championship both seasons.

2010 SEASON:

Claimed two top-10 finishes in 28 starts in his sophomore year on TOUR. First top-10 finish came at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, where he finished T8. Made a pair of eagles through the first 10 holes in the third round on the way to a 65. Drove the green on the par-4, 390-yard 10th hole with a 361-yard drive that cut the corner and landed 10 inches from the hole... Next top-10 finish came with a T8 at the Wyndham Championship, making him the only player to move into the top 125 in the final FedExCup standings in the last event before the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup. Four-way tie for eighth to earn 78 FedExCup points, moving from 140th to 125th and make the Playoffs on the number. He edged out Jeff Quinney, who finished 126th, by just two points. If just one of the six players who finished T12 had saved one shot throughout the course of four rounds, there would have been a five-way tie for eighth, and Piercy would have missed the playoffs by a single point. Took the position of Chris Stroud inside the top 125. Stroud missed the cut and fell from 124th to 127th.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Rookie year was marked by eight top-25 finishes in 28 starts, highlighted by a pair of top-10s...After T12 and T19 finishes in his first two starts, first top-10 of his career came at the FBR Open where he finished T6...Bettered that finish a few weeks later at The Honda Classic where he closed with a 5-under 65 to claim T5. Birdied the daunting par-4 18th at PGA National to post the top-five finish... Was 54-hole co-leader at both Turning Stone Resort Championship and Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open before posting 73s Sunday at both events to finish T12 and T14, respectively. Back-to-back double bogeys on the final two holes in his native Las Vegas came  ${\sf C}$ after finding water hazards with his approach shots while tied for the lead through 70 holes. 2008: Placed 9th on the Nationwide Tour money list with \$320,187...Earned first Nationwide Tour victory at the Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open with tournament record, 22-under 262. Also set 36-hole (126, 16-under) and 54-hole (191, 22-under) tournament records. The \$94,500 winner's check helped him jump 88 spots on the money list...The following week he birdied his final hole at the Xerox Classic to T6, shooting four sub-70 rounds...Won for the second time in three weeks, at the Northeast Pennsylvania Classic, coming from four strokes back to win by two on the strength of a finalround 64. Went from 123rd to 12th on the money list in the space of three weeks...Runner-up at the Albertsons Boise Open, where he tied the course record with a 10-under-par 61 in the final round, and moved up to No. 3 on the money list...Finished T31 at Nationwide Tour Championship and closed the season ranked third in Driving Distance (307.7 yards per) and second in Birdies. 2007: Missed the cut in all six PGA TOUR starts and lone Nationwide Tour start... Recorded a 5-under 31 on the back nine to overcome a three-stroke deficit with five holes to play to win the 2007 Ultimate Game at the Wynn Las Vegas G&CC. Posted rounds of 68-65 to win, which resulted in a first-place check of \$2 million. The win came on his fifth wedding anniversary. Cites winning the Ultimate Game as his biggest thrill in golf. 2006: Claimed T16 honors at the FBR Open on the PGA TOUR in six starts...Notched his first win on the Hooters Tour at the Michelob Ultra Classic. 2005: Made the cut in three of four starts on the PGA TOUR with a best finish being a T26 at the B.C. Open. 2004: Missed cut in only Nationwide Tour and PGA TOUR start. 2003: Posted a then career-best T22 at the Envirocare Utah Classic on the Nationwide Tour. Long-time mini-tour player, has played predominantly on the Hooters Tour since the 2001 season.

BEST 2010 PGA TOUR FINISH:

T48—HP Byron Nelson Championship.

Had never teed it up on the PGA TOUR prior to his rookie season. Back problems forced him to withdraw after one round from his last two starts, at the Turning Stone Resort Championship and the Wyndham Championship. Finished the season with 20 starts, earning $91,343 and failing to record a top-25 finish. Will begin the 2011 season on a Minor Medical Extension, with five events to reach the earnings of No. 125 Troy Merritt from the 2010 official money list.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009: Completed a phenomenal late-season rush that saw him rise from No. 188 on the Nationwide Tour money list to No. 15 in the final five weeks of the season and earn a PGA TOUR card for 2010 despite making only 10 starts. Status was so low following the 2008 Qualifying Tournament that he did not make it into a tournament field until the 18th event on the schedule. Made only one cut in five starts before he turned the tables late in the year. Was a lastminute alternate to get into the field Tuesday afternoon at the WNB Golf Classic in Midland, TX, and earned his first top-10 of the year with a T7. Earned a spot in the $1-million Soboba Classic the following week. Captured his first career win in just his ninth career start. Shot a final-round 69, one of 11 sub-70 scores, to overtake the 54-hole leaders and win by two over Derek Lamely. Held the second-round lead after scores of 68-66 and was tied for third, one back heading into the last day at The CC at Soboba Springs. Birdies at Nos. 2 and 5 gave him the outright lead, which he never relinquished. First-place check of $180,000 vaulted him from No. 150 to No. 17 on the money list with only three weeks to go in the season. Was No. 188 on the money list prior to his start in Midland. Followed the win at Soboba with a 16 at the Chattanooga Classic. Ended the year with a T32 at the Miccosukee Championship and a T14 at the Nationwide Tour Championship. 2008: Missed the cut in his only two previous starts on the Nationwide Tour, at the Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open and the Utah Championship. Winner of the 2000 and 2004 Waterloo (IA) Open, where past champions include Tom Lehman (1986), Woody Austri (1993), George McNeill (2001) and Derek Lamely (2008). Has also played on the Adams Golf Tour and Gateway Tour.

the second-highest final-round score by a winner in Tour history; only Salazar's 79 in 1991 was higher. The second win of his career was a two-stroke victory over Skip Kendall and Aron Price and was good for $112,500, moving him to second on the money list. His win set a new record for time elapsed between victories, coming 12 years, 11 months, 8 days since his last win—at the 1994 Shreveport Open. Win snapped a string of 383 starts in PGA TOUR-sponsored events since his last victory. 2006: Playing out of the No. 126-150 category, finished 134th on the PGA TOUR money list, thanks to two top-10s. Finished T3 at the EDS Byron Nelson Championship, making the most out of the Sponsor Exemption that allowed him only his sixth TOUR start of the season, matching his best career finish (1997 Bay Hill Invitational) and winning $359,600. His previous top-10 came at the Nelson in 2005, a T6. Finished T4 at the B.C. Open for his second top-10 of the season and 12th of his career. 2005: Played in 27 TOUR events and recorded one top-10, a T6 at the EDS Byron Nelson Championship, thanks to a final-round 66. Returned to O-School after finishing 163rd on 2004 TOUR money list and finished T21 to retain playing privileges for 2005. 2004: In first start of the season, carded a final-round 65 at the Sony Open in Hawaii to finish T10, his lone top-10 of season. 2003: Finished T7 at Qualifying Tournament. Tied course record in third round (63) and shot final-round 64 to move into top 30. 1999:

Became his best season on TOUR by making the cut in 20 of 31 events and earned $405,201 to finish No. 99 on the money list. 1994: Earned his TOUR card for the first time by finishing 14th at 1994 Qualifying Tournament. Earned his first career Nationwide Tour title at the 1994 Shreveport Open. Had his biggest thrill during the tournament when he posted nine consecutive birdies, a Nationwide Tour record that also bettered what was then the all-time PGA TOUR mark by one. Amateur: 1985 Texas Junior champion.

NOTES

Geoff Ogilvy earned his seventh career PGA TOUR victory at the 2010 SBS Championship at age 32 years, 6 months, 30 days in his 212th career start on TOUR.

Geoff Ogilvy rallied from a two-stroke deficit with 10 holes to play to shoot a final-round, 6-under 67 and capture a one-shot victory over Rory Sabbatini at the 2010 season-opening SBS Championship. A year after winning the event by six strokes, he posted his eighth consecutive round in the 60s on The Plantation Course at Kapalua.

Geoff Ogilvy became the seventh player to win the event in back-to-back years: Ogilvy (2009-10), Stuart Appleby (2004-06), Lanny Wadkins (1982-83), Tom Watson (1979-80), Arnold Palmer (1965-66), Jack Nicklaus (1963-64) and Gene Littler (1955-57).

NOTES

Geoff Ogilvy's 2010 win was the ninth consecutive victory by a foreign-born player at the SBS Championship: Ogilvy (2009-10), Daniel Chopra (2008), Vijay Singh (2007), Stuart Appleby (2004-06), Ernie Els (2003) and Sergio Garcia (2002).

The victory by Geoff Ogilvy in 2010 was the fifth by an Australian in the last seven years of the event (Stuart Appleby, 2004-06; Ogilvy, 2009-10).

Geoff Ogilvy played his first eight rounds (2006, 2007) at The Plantation Course and failed to break 70. Since that time, he has reeled off eight consecutive sub-70 rounds. Ogilvy posted 67-68-65 for victory in 2009 and 69-66-68-67 in 2010.

Rory Sabbatini recorded 10 birdies in his final-round, 10-under 63 in 2010, including five in a row on holes 11-15. When he missed a 13-foot putt for birdie at the par-5 final hole, it marked the first "5" on his scorecard since the 15th hole in Friday's second round.

Making his fifth appearance at Kapalua, Rory Sabbatini equaled his best result after finishing second in his first appearance in 2001. His second-place finish also represented his 50th career top-10 on the PGA TOUR.

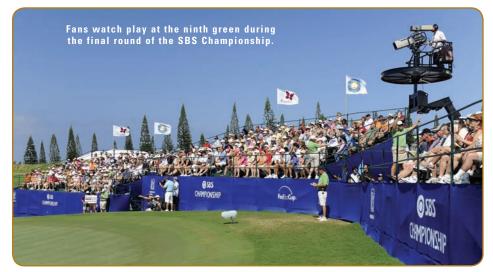

Tournament Record: 261, Ernie Els, 2003 Current Course Record: 62, K.J. Choi, 2003

Sony Open in Hawaii

NOTES

Ryan Palmer posted a 4-under 66 to capture the 2010 Sony Open in Hawaii by one stroke over Robert Allenby (67), finishing at 15-under 265. The victory was the third of Palmer's career (2004) FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World Resort, 2008 Ginn sur Mer Classic, 2010 Sony Open in Hawaii).

Ryan Palmer's 2010 win came in his fifth start at the Sony Open (tied for 64th in 2004, tied for 28th in 2005, missed cut in 2006, missed cut in 2007, first in 2009).

Ryan Palmer's stats at the 2010 Sony Open: Driving Distance: 298.8-yard average (ranked 24th) Driving Accuracy: 26 of 56 (46.4 percent) (tied for 50th)

Greens in Regulation: 55 of 72 (76.4 percent) (tied for third)

Putts per Round: 28.2 per round (tied for 24th)

The runner-up finish in 2010 for Robert Allenby was the seventh of his career. The four-time TOUR winner made his ninth start at the Sony Open in Hawaii in 2010, with top-10 finishes in 2003 (tied for fourth), 2007 (tied for eigth) and 2010 (second).

Robert Allenby, who finished 14-under, played the first seven holes at Waialae for the week in 1-over par. It was a different story on the final 11 holes, as he went 15-under and bogey-free.

Retief Goosen (fourth) posted the round of the week with a final-round 8-under-62, equaling his previous best score in a PGA TOUR event-a finalround, 62 at the 2002 World Golf Championships-American Express Championship (Mount Juliet Estate, Kilkenny, Ireland). As a result, he jumped from a tie for 23rd to fourth.

Two players finished in the top 10 in both 2010 Hawaii events: Retief Goosen (tied for sixth at SBS Championship, fourth at Sony Open in Hawaii) and Steve Stricker (tied for 10th/third).

NOTES

Bill Haas birdied the par-5 18th hole to win his first PGA TOUR title at the Bob Hope Classic. He two-putted for birdie in a Monday finish to shoot a final-round, 8-under-par 64 and beat Matt Kuchar, Tim Clark and Bubba Watson by one stroke. Haas was the last of three co-leaders to play the par-5 18th. Kuchar and Clark had both missed birdie putts at the Arnold Palmer Private course, with Kuchar three-putting from the back fringe of the green and Clark missing a birdie putt after laying up. Haas dropped a 3-iron approach behind the pin, allowing him to two-putt his way to a 30-under-330 finish. He watched as playing partner Watson nearly chipped in for eagle before his two-putt finish.

In 2010, Bill Haas joined his father, Jay (1988), as winners of the Bob Hope Classic. Jay and Bill became the eighth father-son combo to win on the PGA TOUR. The last to do so were Al-Brent Geiberger. The younger Geiberger joined his father in the winner's circle when he won the 1999 Canon Greater Hartford Open, and he later became the fourth son to win the same tournament as his father when he captured the 2004 Chrysler Classic of Greensboro (Al won the Greater Greensboro Open in 1976). Willie Park Sr. and Willie Park Jr. and Tom Morris Sr. and Tom Morris Jr. won the British Open.

NOTES

Bubba Watson's second round 7-under-par 29 on the front nine and 10-under-par 62 at SilverRock were both new records at that venue. SilverRock became part of the event rotation in 2008. Watson's 62 broke the course record of 63 set by Jason Dufner in 2009.

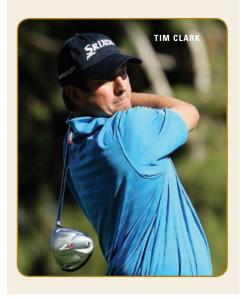

Bill Haas became the sixth first-time winner of the Bob Hope Classic and the third in the last four years. The previous first-time winners include: Bill Rogers (1978), Craig Stadler (1980), Donnie Hammond (1986), Charley Hoffman (2007) and Pat Perez (2009).

When Jay Haas won the Bob Hope Classic in 1988, he finished with a 90-hole score of 22-underpar 338. Bill Haas finished with a total of 30-under-par 330.

The 2010 finish marked the fourth straight year a player has come from behind in the final round to capture the Bob Hope Classic. Bill Haas joined Charley Hoffman (2007), D.J. Trahan (2008) and Pat Perez (2009).

Tim Clark's tie for second in 2010 was the eighth in his PGA TOUR career and second at this event. He also tied for second in 2005.

Tim Clark posted more birdies than any other player in the tournament, with 36, two more than Bill Haas and Matt Kuchar. Clark also led all players in fewest putts per round, with 25.80.

Farmers Insurance Open

NOTES

Ben Crane posted rounds of 65-71-69-70—275 (13-under) to win the 2010 Farmers Insurance Open by one stroke over Marc Leishman, Brandt Snedeker and Michael Sim. In the final grouping of the final round, both Crane and Sim laid up on the par-5 18th hole and neither made birdie. In earlier groups, Snedeker and Leishman also failed to make birdies.

Ben Crane's 7-under 65 in the first round in 2010 represented his tournament low on either course at Torrey Pines. Crane's previous low round was 68 in the second round of the 2003 event.

The 2010 Farmers Insurance Open was Ben Crane's 98th start—or four years, six months and six days—since his last victory at the 2005 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee.

Ben Crane holed 157 feet of putts during Sunday's final round in 2010, the most by any player.

During the past nine years of the Farmers Insurance Open, no player has recorded all four rounds in the 60s. Dating to the 1997 tournament (14 tournaments), only six players have performed the feat, with two coming in 1999 (Billy Ray Brown and Bill Glasson) and four in 2001 (Frank Lickliter II, Mike Weir, Jay Don Blake and Shigeki Maruyama).

In six starts at the Farmers Insurance Open, Ryuji Imada is 26-under-par in the opening round. Imada's first-round scores include 2010: 65; 2009: 70; 2008: 69; 2007: 68, 2006: 66; 2005: 68.

NOTES

Steve Stricker, who moved to No. 2 in the Official World Golf Ranking, won his eighth PGA TOUR event and first title on the West Coast of the United States with his 2010 Northern Trust Open title.

Steve Stricker began the final round with a sixstroke lead over Luke Donald, J.B. Holmes and Andres Romero. The lead was two strokes over Donald by the seventh hole, thanks to a bogey by Stricker on No. 4 and birdies by Donald on No. 4 and 5. Tournament Record: 264, Lanny Wadkins, 1985 Current Course Record: 61, Ted Tryba, 1999 Other Course Record: 61, George Archer, 1983 (Rancho Municipal GC)

Northern Trust Open

NOTES

Steve Stricker was the runner-up to Phil Mickelson at the 2009 Northern Trust Open. His victory in 2010 made him the fifth player in the event's 84-year history to win the tournament the year after finishing second or tying for second. The others include:

1945 runner-up, 1946 win, Byron Nelson 1946 runner-up, 1947 win, Ben Hogan 1948 runner-up, 1948 win, Lloyd Mangrum 2007 runner-up, 2008 win, Phil Mickelson The previous time on the PGA TOUR that a player finished runner-up and then won the tournament the following year was Ryuji Imada in 2007 and 2008 at the AT&T Classic in Atlanta.

Dustin Johnson's ace in Friday's second round (No. 6, 8-iron from 152 yards) was the 34th at the Northern Trust Open since 1979 (when hole-in-one records began). Johnson was trying to join T.C. Chen (1987) and Gil Morgan (1983) as Northern Trust Open champions who made an ace the year that they won the event. Johnson's ace on Friday was the second hole-in-one of his PGA TOUR career (2008 Crowne Plaza Invitational).

Jeff Overton made back-to-back eagles in Saturday's action at the 2010 tournament but in two different rounds. He made an eagle-2 from 136 yards on No. 9, his final hole of the second round, when second-round play resumed that morning. And then he eagled the par-4 10th hole to start the third round.

NOTES

Dustin Johnson birdied the par-5 18th hole at Pebble Beach in 2010 to gain a one-stroke victory over David Duval and J.B. Holmes, making him the first player in 20 years to win back to back in the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Johnson hit his 3-iron second shot into the front-right bunker on No. 18 and blasted out to 3 feet to win.

Dustin Johnson's final-round 74 in 2010 was the highest final round for a winner on the PGA TOUR since Parker McLachlin shot an identical 74 at the 2008 Legends Reno-Tahoe Open and the highest for the winner at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am since Johnny Miller posted a 74 in capturing the 1994 event.

With his 2010 win, Dustin Johnson became the second U.S. native in his 20s with three or more PGA TOUR victories. Sean O'Hair had won three events—2004 John Deere Classic, 2008 Transitions Championship, 2009 Quail Hollow Championship by the time of Johnson's win at Pebble.

NOTES

Dustin Johnson became the first player since Tiger Woods to win in his first three seasons on TOUR. Retief Goosen joined the PGA TOUR in 2001 after winning the U.S. Open and subsequently won the next two seasons.

Dustin Johnson became the first player since Davis Love III (2003) in the final group to birdie the 72nd hole to win by one stroke. Love entered the final round in 2003 with a two-stroke lead and eventually birdied the final hole to outlast Tom Lehman by one stroke.

Dustin Johnson became the youngest player to defend a tournament title since Tiger Woods won the Western Open in 1999 (23 years, 6 months, 4 days). He was also the second-youngest player to defend at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Sam Snead (25 years, 7 months, 20 days) was three days younger when he won his second straight title at Pebble Beach in 1938.

Back-to-back winners at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am include:

Sam Snead—1937-38 (1937 was 18 holes; 1938 was 36 holes)

Cary Middlecoff—1955-56 (54 holes) Jack Nicklaus—1972-73 (72 holes)

Tom Watson—1977-78 (72 holes) Mark O'Meara—1989-90 (72 holes)

Dustin Johnson—2009-10 (2009 was rain-shortened 54 holes; 2010 was 72 holes)

AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am

NOTES

Dustin Johnson tied Dan Pohl (1980) for the low back-nine score at Pebble Beach Golf Links with a 30 in the first round. He also tied Phil Mickelson (2005) for the front-nine record at Spyglass Hill Golf Course with a 30 in the third round.

The 196, 54-hole total by Dustin Johnson and Paul Goydos in 2010 matched the first 54-hole record low total at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, set by Phil Mickelson in 2005.

The final-round stroke average at Pebble Beach Golf Links in 2010 was 73.217, compared to a cumulative 70.833 through the first three rounds on the host course.

Paul Goydos (T5) went 45 consecutive holes without a bogey in 2010 until he bogeyed the par-3 fifth hole in the final round. Prior to that, his last bogey came in the first round on his 13th hole (No. 4) at Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

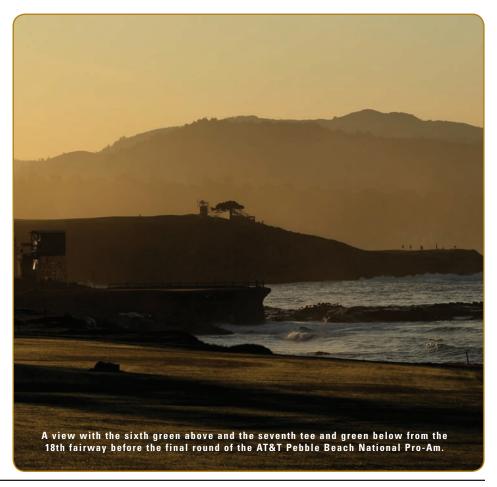

Dustin Johnson held a share of the lead after each round in 2010 on his way to victory. Eight previous 72-hole winners of the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am held at least a share of the lead for all four rounds—Phil Mickelson (2005 and 2007), Tom Shaw (1970) Bert Yancey (1970), Lloyd Mangrum(1953), Jimmy Demaret (1952), Lloyd Mangrum (1948) and Ed Oliver (1940). Mickelson (2005) is the only wire-to-wire winner (no ties after each round) in tournament history.

Waste Management Phoenix Open

NOTES

Hunter Mahan came from four strokes back to win the 2010 Waste Management Phoenix Open by a shot over Rickie Fowler. The 27-year-old Mahan replaced a cracked driver early in the final round and then had an eagle on the par-5 13th hole and a pair of birdies on the 14th and 16th holes to finish at 16-under 268. Mahan, whose first victory came at the 2007 Travelers Championship, closed with consecutive bogey-free 6-under 65s. Fowler, a 21-year-old PGA TOUR rookie, had a final-round 68 for the second runnerup finish of his young career, both of them in Arizona, the first coming last fall. He missed birdie chances on the last three holes. South Korea's Y.E. Yang also shot a 65 to finish at 14-under, two off the pace. The 2009 PGA Championship winner led until his tee shot went in the water at No. 17 and he made bogey.

At 27 years, 9 months, 11 days, Hunter Mahan joined seven other U.S. natives under the age of 30 with multiple PGA TOUR victories (Dustin Johnson, J.B. Holmes, D.J. Trahan, Sean O'Hair, Anthony Kim, Nick Watney and Charles Howell III). Mahan went on to win the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational in August for his third career title.

Waste Management Phoenix Open

NOTES

Hunter Mahan was 12-under for the weekend in 2010 and was the only player in the field to go bogey free over the final 36 holes.

Hunter Mahan was 3-under on the par-3 holes in 2010 while Rickie Fowler played the par-3 holes 2-over.

Colombia's Camilo Villegas (62) matched the first-round tournament record with Steve Jones (1997, TPC Scottsdale), Harrison Frazar (2003, TPC Scottsdale) and J.C. Snead (1973, Arizona Country Club). Of those four, only Jones went on to win. Villegas' 9-under 62 was a career low.

The week began with former Florida Gators Camilo Villegas and Matt Every in first and second, respectively, but it ended with two former Oklahoma State Cowboys on top-Hunter Mahan in first and Rickie Fowler in second.

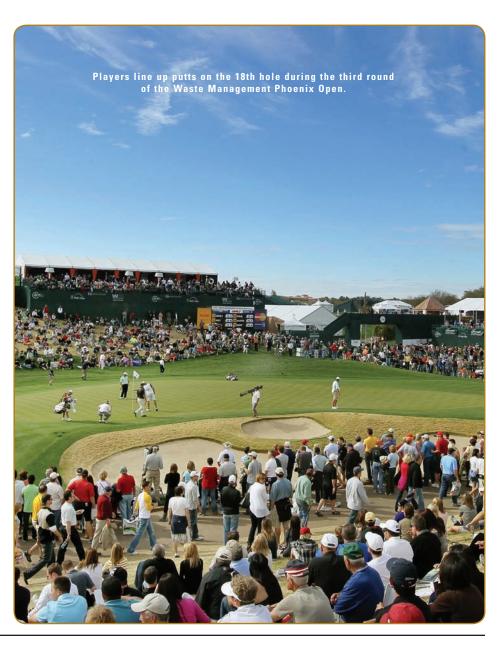

Y.E. Yang recorded three 2s in the final round in 2010, including an eagle at the par-4 10th hole where he holed a 110-yard bunker shot. Yang had not recorded a 2 in the previous three rounds. He played the par-3s 1-over for the week.

Local Arizona State University golfer Braxton Marquez posted a 7-over 78 to finish 78th in his first PGA TOUR start.

The Honda Classic

NOTES

Camilo Villegas posted a 2-under 68 during the final round of the 2010 Honda Classic to cruise to his third career PGA TOUR victory by five strokes over Anthony Kim (67). At 13-under 267, Villegas' five-stroke win matched the largest at The Honda Classic, set by Jack Nicklaus (over Gary Player) in 1977. After entering the final round with a three-stroke advantage over Nathan Green and Vijay Singh, Villegas saw that lead shrink to two after Singh drained a 45-foot birdie putt on the par-3 fifth. Villegas then built his lead with three consecutive birdies on Nos. 8-10.

The 2010 win capped a whirlwind week for Camilo Villegas, who followed a tie for eighth at the Waste Management Phoenix Open with a trip to his native Colombia to help kick off the Pacific Rubiales Bogota Open—a new event on the Nationwide Tour. The 36-hour trip included a sponsor dinner, youth clinic, 18-hole pro-am and a party afterwards. He arrived back in South Florida on Wednesday, too late to play a practice round, and proceeded to post four rounds in the 60s (the first Honda Classic winner to do so since Matt Kuchar in 2002) en route to victory.

World Golf Championships—CA Championship

NOTES

Ernie Els won the CA Championship for the second time in his career, adding the 2010 victory to his win in 2004 (American Express Championship at the time) when it was held at Mount Juliet Conrad in Kilkenny, Ireland. His victory made Els the third player to win the same World Golf Championships event more than once, joining Tiger Woods (seven Bridgestone Invitationals, six CA Championships and three Accenture Match Play Championships) and Geoff Ogilvy (two Accenture Match Play Championships).

Ernie Els, 40 years, 4 months, 25 days, became the second-oldest winner of a World Golf Championships event and the oldest in CA Championship history. The oldest player to win a World Golf Championships event is Vijay Singh, who is also the only other player in his 40s to win a World Golf Championships event.

The oldest World Championships winners:

- Vijay Singh, 2008 Bridgestone Invitational, 45 years, 5 months, 12 days
- Ernie Els, 2010 CA Championship, 40 years, 4 months, 25 days
- Phil Mickelson, 2009 HSBC Champions, 39 years, 4 months, 23 days

Tournament Record:

261, Tiger Woods, 2006 (The Grove)

18-Hole Record:

62, Sergio Garcia, Retief Goosen, 2002 (Mount Juliet Estate)

Current Course Record:

61, Stephen Ames, 2000 (Doral)

Arnold Palmer Invitational

presented by MasterCard

NOTES

Ernie Els posted a 1-under 71 to finish 11-under 277, capturing the 2010 Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard by two strokes over Kevin Na and Edoardo Molinari The win was the 18th of his PGA TOUR career and the second of 2010. Els led by five strokes midway through the back nine Sunday before making double bogey and bogey prior to a weather delay. He held a twostroke lead overnight after play was suspended and then made three par saves on Monday to secure the win.

The 2010 Arnold Palmer Invitational was the third Monday finish of the season on the PGA TOUR (Bob Hope Classic and Puerto Rico Open).

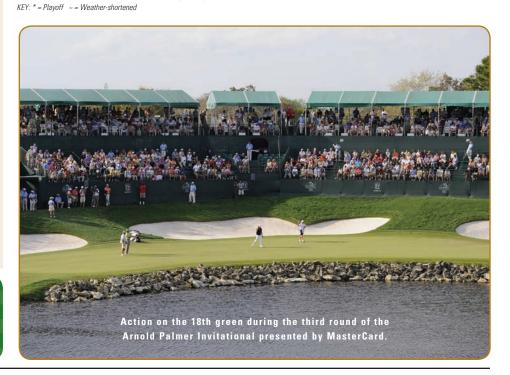

The previous Monday finish at the Arnold Palmer Invitational came in 1982, when Tom Kite, Jack Nicklaus and Tom Watson completed the final round tied atop the leaderboard. Kite chipped in for birdie on the first playoff hole (No. 15) to post the win.

With victories at the World Golf Championships-CA Championship and the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard, Ernie Els became the first golfer to win consecutive starts on TOUR since Tiger Woods in 2009 (Buick Open and World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational). He has won consecutive starts three times in his PGA TOUR career (also at the 2003 SBS Championship and Sony Open in Hawaii and the 1997 U.S. Open and Buick Classic).

Shell Houston Open

NOTES

Anthony Kim, the 54-hole co-leader, and Vaughn Taylor finished the Shell Houston Open tied at 12-under 276, with Kim prevailing with a par on the first playoff hole for his third PGA TOUR victory (2008 Wachovia Championship, 2008 AT&T National, 2010 Shell Houston Open). The win came in Kim's 78th TOUR start.

The Shell Houston Open has had 21 playoffs more than any event on TOUR other than the U.S. Open (32). Last year's playoff was the first of the season (15 events). The 14-event start without a playoff represented the longest the TOUR has gone to start a season without a playoff since 1974 when Lee Elder won in a playoff in the 16th event of the year.

The third-round leader/co-leader has won the Shell Houston Open 33 times, including eight of the last nine years. The lone exception came in 2007 when Adam Scott came from three strokes back Sunday to win the event by three strokes over Stuart Appleby and 54-hole leader Bubba Watson.

NOTES

Phil Mickelson won his third Masters Tournament title in 2010, coming from one stroke behind thirdround leader Lee Westwood to win by three strokes over Westwood. Mickelson made birdies on the par-3 12th hole and the par-5 13th hole to gain a working margin and sealed the win with birdies on the par-5 15th and par-4 18th. His 16-under-par 272 total (67-71-67-67) was the lowest since Tiger Woods shot the same score in 2001.

The previous time Phil Mickelson recorded two eagles in a round was the final round of the 2006 BellSouth Classic, which he won. Prior to Saturday's third-round, back-to-back eagles in the 2010 Masters, he had eight career rounds with a pair of eagles on the PGA TOUR. Mickelson previously recorded back-to-back eagles at the 2001 British Open (first round, holes 6 and 7—both par 5s). Mickelson was close to recording a third straight eagle on No. 15 in the third round when his third shot nearly found the hole. Since 1983, no player on TOUR has recorded three straight eagles.

Matteo Manassero became the fourth-youngest player to make a cut on the PGA TOUR in 2009 when he finished T12 at the British Open (16 years, 2 months, 29 days). Manassero made the cut at the 2010 Masters (16 years, 11 months, 21 days) to also grab the sixth spot in the record book for youngest to make a cut on the PGA TOUR. He is the youngest to make the cut in the Masters and in the modern era at the British Open. Ryo Ishikawa is the youngest player to make the cut at the PGA Championship.

Tournament Record: 270, Tiger Woods, 1997 Current Course Record: 63, Nick Price, 1986; Greg Norman, 1996

Masters Tournament

NOTES

Nathan Green and Ryan Moore both made a hole-in-one on the par-3 16th in the final round. They were the 12th and 13th holes-in-one at No. 16 in the history of the Masters.

Tiger Woods recorded his first career eagle on the par-4 seventh hole in the final round at Augusta National. Woods had an eagle on the par-5, eighth hole earlier in the week. In 62 career rounds at the Masters, it was only the third eagle for Woods on the front nine at Augusta National.

Nick Watney (seventh) shot a 7-under 65 in the final round. It was his first round in the 60s in 10 starts in a major. Watney's best major finish coming into the week was a tie for 11th at the 2008 Masters.

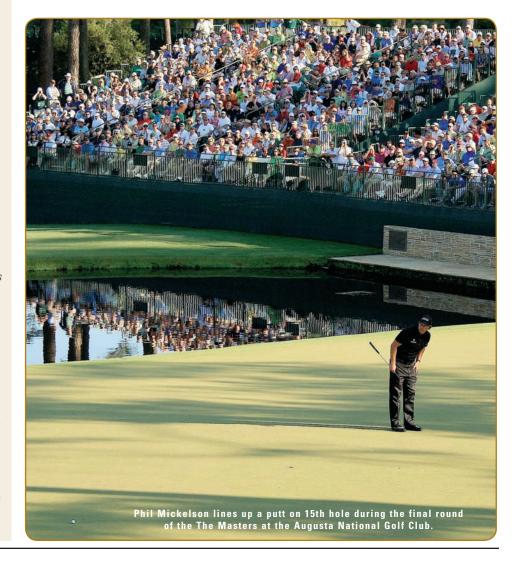

In 48 major championship appearances before the 2010 Masters, Lee Westwood (second) had never held a lead after any round. He was co-leader after the second and the leader after the third round at the Masters.

Phil Mickelson (272) tied Tiger Woods for the fourth-best 72-hole score in Masters history. Woods had a 270 in 1997, while Jack Nicklaus and Raymond Floyd enjoyed 271s in 1965 and 1976, respectively. Woods had his 272 in 2001, matched by Mickelson in 2010.

Phil Mickelson joins seven other players with three or more Masters wins. Jack Nicklaus leads the way, with six (1963, 1965, 1966, 1972, 1975 and 1986) followed by Arnold Palmer (1958, 1960, 1962 and 1964) and Tiger Woods (1997, 2001, 2002 and 2005). Those with three Masters wins are Jimmy Demaret (1940, 1947 and 1950), Sam Snead (1949, 1952 and 1954), Gary Player (1961, 1974 and 1978), Nick Faldo (1989, 1990 and 1996) and Phil Mickelson (2004, 2006 and 2010).

NOTES

Jim Furyk (69) and Brian Davis (68) finished regulation at 13-under 271 in 2010, with Furyk parring the first playoff hole to win the 2010 Verizon Heritage. Playing his third shot out of a greenside hazard, Davis called a two-stroke penalty on himself after touching a loose impediment during his backswing (Rule 13-4). After being assessed the penalty, Furyk completed a two-putt par for his second win of the 2010 season and the 15th of his career.

The playoff was the 10th at the Verizon Heritage, and the first since Stewart Cink outlasted Ted Purdy in 2004. It was the second of the season on TOUR (Shell Houston Open, won by Anthony Kim).

The 2010 victory was the 15th of Jim Furyk's career and came in his 419th PGA TOUR start. It was his second win of the year (Transitions Championship) and gave him multiple wins in a season for the third time (two in 2003, two in 2006) in his 17-year PGA TOUR career.

Jim Furyk has had remarkable success at the Verizon Heritage. In 12 starts, he has nine made cuts and 10 top-15 finishes. In six of his last eight starts, he has tied for 15th in 2002, tied for 10th in 2003, tied for second in 2005, finished second in 2006, fourth in 2008 and won in 2010.

Zurich Classic of New Orleans

NOTES

Jason Bohn won the 2010 Zurich Classic of New Orleans for his second PGA TOUR title, birdieing three of the final four holes at TPC Louisiana for a 5-under 67 and a two-stroke victory over Jeff Overton. Bohn completed a third-round 71 in the morning in the weather-plagued tournament as heavy rain and lightning Friday and again Saturday morning delayed the early rounds. Bohn, who led wire to wire, played 24 holes Saturday and 30 Sunday. He had seven birdies and one bogey in his 30 holes Sunday.

Jason Bohn's 18-under-par winning total in 2010 was the lowest score since the tournament moved to TPC Louisiana.

Jason Bohn made 106 starts since his previous and first win on TOUR at the 2005 B.C. Open—a stretch of 4 years, 9 months and 8 days.

Since 1958, only five winners of the Zurich Classic have been 11-under or better through 36 holes.

THE PLAYERS Championship

NOTES

Tim Clark played the final 26 holes without a bogey on the way to victory at THE PLAYERS Championship in 2010 for his first PGA TOUR victory. He set a Stadium Course record with the largest 36-hole comeback (seven strokes) and won with an 8-foot par putt on the final hole for a 5-under 67. He finished at 16-under 272 to beat Robert Allenby by one stroke. Clark won with a 66-67 weekend in which he made only one bogey—the 10th hole Saturday. It was the best weekend on the treacherous Stadium Course since Fred Couples shot 132 to win in 1996. The 36-hole comeback topped the record of six that Tiger Woods set when he won in 2001.

Tim Clark is the second player to make THE PLAYERS his first PGA TOUR victory, joining Craig Perks in 2002.

Tim Clark is the first South African winner and sixth international winner of THE PLAYERS in the last 10 years, the 11th overall.

In the 29 years THE PLAYERS Championship has been contested at TPC Sawgrass, the champion has not started from farther back than a tie for seventh entering the final round and gone on to win (Hal Sutton, 1983, four strokes back). Tim Clark was tied for sixth after 54 holes and three strokes back. The largest-stroke deficit an eventual winner has overcome entering the final round at THE PLAYERS is five by Justin Leonard in 1998 (started in third, won by two) and Henrik Stenson in 2009 (started tied for second, won by four).

Tim Clark entered THE PLAYERS with a solo second or tie for second on eight occasions on the PGA TOUR. The last player to finish second eight or more times before his first TOUR win was David Frost, who won the 1988 Southern Open after eight second-place finishes.

Before his 2010 victory at THE PLAYERS, Tim Clark had the second-most career top 10s among players without a victory, with 39, trailing only Bobby Wadkins' 50.

Lucas Glover (third) earned his best result at THE PLAYERS. Glover had never made the cut in four previous appearances at THE PLAYERS.

Valero Texas Open

NOTES

The 2010 Valero Texas Open was the first PGA TOUR event concluded with 36 holes on Sunday since the 2009 John Deere Classic.

Adam Scott's winning score of 14-under par 274 in 2010 was the highest winning score at the Valero Texas Open since 1996 when David Ogrin won with a four-day total of 275 at LaCantera Country Club.

Adam Scott rallied from four strokes back on the final marathon day at the Valero Texas Open for his first PGA TOUR victory in two years. Scott was 11-under in a 36-hole Sunday finale, edging Fredrik Jacobson by a stroke on the new AT&T Oaks Course at TPC San Antonio. The busy finish was necessitated by a Friday rainout. Scott overcame two early bogeys with an eagle on the par-4 17th in his third-round 66, then built his lead with six birdies en route to a closing 67. He survived a closing bogey, his only one in the final round, and watched as Jacobson missed a 17-foot birdie try to tie on the final hole.

Adam Scott's victory at the 2010 Valero Texas Open was his third consecutive PGA TOUR victory in the state of Texas. Scott previously was victorious at the 2007 Shell Houston Open and the 2008 HP Byron Nelson Championship.

Valero Texas Open

NOTES

Adam Scott became the first player to win the Valero Texas Open in his first appearance since Eric Axley in 2006. It marked the third time Scott has won a PGA TOUR event in his first start, previously accomplished at the 2003 Deutsche Bank Championship and the 2004 Booz Allen Classic.

Adam Scott became the first Australian to win the Valero Texas Open since Bruce Crampton in 1964 and the first international champion of the event since Nick Price in 1992.

Exactly two months shy of his 30th birthday (7/16/1980) at 29 years, 10 months, Adam Scott's seven career PGA TOUR victories became the most by a player in his 20s.

Fredrik Jacobson's solo second in 2010 was his best finish in 157 career PGA TOUR starts. The Swede previously had tied for second twice on the PGA TOUR, at the 2008 AT&T National and the 2007 Ginn sur Mer Classic. The runner-up performance was his second consecutive top-five finish at the Valero Texas Open. He tied for fifth in 2009, two shots out of the playoff that Zach Johnson won over James Driscoll.

Aaron Baddeley bounced back from a 3-over 75 in Thursday's first round with three consecutive sub-70 rounds to finish tie for third, his best finish on the PGA TOUR since a tie for second at the 2008 Verizon Heritage.

San Antonio resident and former Baylor Bear Jimmy Walker, whose wife was due to give birth to the couple's first child two weeks later, posted four sub-par rounds (70-67-70-69) to tie for third at 276. It was Walker's best finish on the PGA TOUR, eclipsing a tie for fifth at the 2009 Turning Stone Resort Championship.

HP BYRON NELSON CHAMPIONSHIP

NOTES

Australian Jason Day shot a 10-under 270 (66-65-67-72) to win the HP Byron Nelson Championship for his first PGA TOUR title. Day won by two strokes over Brian Gay, Jeff Overton and Blake Adams. Day came to the 72nd hole with a onestroke lead over playing partner Adams and hit his second shot in the water near the green. Adams, playing from the right trees, then hit his second shot in the same hazard. Adams made double bogey and Day got up and down for bogey.

At age 22 years, 6 months, 11 days, Jason Day became the 30th-youngest player to win a PGA TOUR event. By comparison, he is two months younger than Phil Mickelson was when he won his first event as a professional. Mickelson also won a TOUR event as an amateur, at age 20.

Jason Day is the youngest winner in Nationwide Tour history. Here's a look at the youngest winners on each Tour:

HP Byron Nelson Championship

NOTES

Jason Day's win at the 2010 HP Byron Nelson Championship was one of 16 on TOUR by players in their 20s. There were only seven winners in their 20s last season.

Jason Day became the youngest winner of the HP Byron Nelson Championship since Tiger Woods won in 1997 at age 21.

Ben Hogan has the highest final round by a winner when he recorded a 73 in 1946. With Jason Day's 72 in 2010, there have been 19 winners in tournament history who have recorded a final round in the 70s.

At 16 years, 9 months, 24 days, U.S. Junior Amateur champion Jordan Spieth became the sixth-youngest player in TOUR history to make a cut. Spieth, a junior at Jesuit College Preparatory School in Dallas, has signed a letter of intent to play golf at the University of Texas. The list includes:

FedEx St. Jude Classic

NOTES

Lee Westwood carded a final-round, 2-under 68 to earn a spot in a playoff with third-round leader Robert Garrigus (71) and Robert Karlsson (69) at the 2010 St. Jude Classic presented by Smith & Nephew. Westwood won the playoff with a birdie-3 on the fourth extra hole (No. 18) to defeat Karlsson. Garrigus dropped out of the extra session after making a bogey on the first hole.

Lee Westwood, the 2010 winner, became the first player to receive a sponsor's exemption and win on the PGA TOUR since Jason Gore at the 2005 84 Lumber Classic. He also became the first European to win the St. Jude Classic, snapping a streak of 11 consecutive American winners at the event, dating to Nick Price's win in 1998.

Lee Westwood joined Billy Maxwell (1958), Bob Lunn (1968) and Dicky Pride (1994) as the only players to win the St. Jude Classic in their first appearances.

The win was Lee Westwood's second on the PGA TOUR and came 123 starts and 12 years, 2 months, 8 days since his victory at the 1998 Zurich Classic of New Orleans. The TOUR record for most years between victories was set by Robert Gamez, with 15 years, 6 months between his victories at the 1990 Nestle Invitational and 2005 Valero Texas Open.

Tournament Record: 258, John Cook, 1996 Current Course Record: 61, Jay Delsing, 1993; Bob Estes, 2001 Tournament Course Record: 59, Al Geiberger, 1977 (Colonial CC)

U.S. Open

NOTES

Graeme McDowell recorded a 3-over 74 to win the 2010 U.S. Open by one stroke over Gregory Havret (72) and two over Ernie Els (73). The 30-year-old native of Portrush, Northern Ireland became the first European to win the U.S. Open since England's Tony Jacklin in 1970.

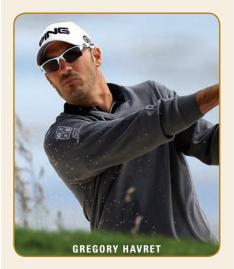

Graeme McDowell's win was the third consecutive by a European on the PGA TOUR (Justin Rose, Memorial Tournament, Lee Westwood, St. Jude Classic). He joined fellow Northern Irishman Rory McIlroy (Quail Hollow Championship) in the winner's circle this season.

Graeme McDowell's final-round 74 was just one stroke from equaling the highest final-round score by a winner at the U.S. Open since World War II—75 by Cary Middlecoff (1949) and Hale Irwin (1979).

Here's a look at which countries outside the United States have won the most U.S. Opens:

- 14, Scotland, most recently Tommy Armour (1927)
- 8, England, most recently Tony Jacklin (1970)
- 5, South Africa, most recently Retief Goosen (2004)
- 2, Australia, most recently Geoff Ogilvy (2006)
- 1, New Zealand, Michael Campbell (2005)
- 1, Argentina, Angel Cabrera (2007)
- 1, Northern Ireland, Graeme McDowell (2010)

Gregory Havret, a 33-year-old native of La Rochelle, France, finished runner-up in his first start at the U.S. Open. He was seeking to become the first player to win the U.S. Open in his inaugural start since Francis Ouimet in 1913.

U.S. Open

NOTES

Dustin Johnson entered the final round with a three-stroke lead, but a triple bogey on the par-4 second hole and a double bogey on the par-4 third derailed his title holes as he went on to an 11-over 82. It represented the largest lead lost by a 54-hole leader at the U.S. Open since Retief Goosen entered the final round three strokes ahead in 2005 (won by Michael Campbell).

Making his first U.S. Open start since 2003, 60-year-old Tom Watson tied for 29th at Pebble Beach Golf Links. He is the only player to tee it up in all five U.S. Opens at Pebble Beach (tied for 29th in 2010, tied for 27th in 2000, missed cut in 1992, won in 1982, tied for 29th in 1972). Watson became the second-oldest player to make the cut at the U.S. Open (Sam Snead, age 61, 1973, tied for 29th).

The top-10 finishers and ties are exempt for the 2011 U.S. Open: Graeme McDowell, Gregory Havret, Ernie Els, Phil Mickelson, Tiger Woods, Matt Kuchar, Davis Love III, Brandt Snedeker, Martin Kaymer, Alex Cejka and Dustin Johnson.

The 54-hole leader/co-leader has won 48 times at the U.S. Open, most recently Tiger Woods in 2008.

Scott Langley and Russell Henley, both amateurs, tied for 16th in 2010. Here's a look at top-20 finishes by amateurs at the U.S. Open, dating to 1970:

Travelers Championship

NOTES

Bubba Watson had quite a finish on the way to winning the 2010 Travelers Championship. The left-hander birdied the 15th and 16th holes to gain sole possession of the lead at 15-under par. But then he made double bogey on the par-4 17th hole after topping his second shot into the water from a fairway bunker. On the par-4 18th hole, Watson's drive flew onto a cart path and finished 396 yards from the tee. He hit a sand wedge from 50 yards to within 5 feet and made the birdie to finish at 14-under, tied with Scott Verplank and Corey Pavin. On the first playoff hole, the 18th, Watson nearly holed his second shot and tapped in for birdie after Verplank made a birdie putt to force a second extra hole. Pavin made par and was eliminated. Watson won the tournament on the par-3 16th when he two-putted from 45 feet for par. Verplank missed the green to the left and didn't get up and down.

Bubba Watson became the ninth left-handed golfer to win on the PGA TOUR. He joined Phil Mickelson, Mike Weir, Bob Charles, Steve Flesch, Sam Adams, Ernie Gonzalez, Russ Cochran and Eric Axley. Mickelson won the Hartford, CT, tournament in 2001 and 2002.

Tournament Record:

258, Kenny Perry, 2009

Current Course Record:

61, Kirk Triplett, 2000; Phil Mickelson, Scott Verplank, 2001; Brad Faxon, 2005; Kenny Perry, 2009

John Deere Classic

NOTES

Steve Stricker recorded 31 birdies at the 2010 John Deere Classic, which ties him for second on the all-time list for birdies in a 72-hole tournament. Mark Calcavecchia (2001 Phoenix Open) and Paul Gow (2001 B.C. Open) hold the record. Those with 31 who Stricker joined are John Huston (1998 United Airlines Hawaiian Open) and Phil Mickelson (2006 BellSouth Classic).

Steve Stricker has converted his last three 54-hole leads/co-leads into victory (2009 Deutsche Bank Championship, 2010 Northern Trust Open and 2010 John Deere Classic).

Steve Stricker's 258 winning score surpassed David Frost's 72-hole tournament record of 259 set in 1993.

Steve Stricker recorded his first back-to-back multiple-win seasons on TOUR. Stricker had three wins in 2009.

In the first round, Paul Goydos birdied eight of his inward nine holes en route to a bogey-free, 12-under 59 in his 448th PGA TOUR start. He joined Al Geiberger, Chip Beck and David Duval as the only players to post that record-low, 18-hole score in a PGA TOUR event. Of the three previous 59s, only Geiberger's was played under preferred-lies conditions. Duval and Geiberger converted their 59s into victory, while Beck tied for third and Goydos was second.

Tournament Record: 258, Steve Stricker, 2010 Current Course Record: 59, Paul Goydos, 2010

British Open

NOTES

Louis Oosthuizen carried the largest 54-hole lead (four strokes) into the final round of a British Open since Tiger Woods led by six at St. Andrews in 2000. Oosthuizen carded a final-round, 1-under 71 to move to 16-under 272 and a seven-stroke win over Lee Westwood (70).

Louis Oosthuizen opened the week with a 65 the lowest opening score by an eventual British Open winner. His score increased by two each day (65-67-69-71) but it was still plenty to record his first major win.

Prior to the 2010 British Open, Louis Oosthuizen had just one round in the 60s in 18 previous rounds in major championships, a second-round 69 en route to a missed cut at the 2006 British Open. Prior to a missed cut at the 2010 Masters, he won the annual Par-3 Contest at the Augusta National Golf Club.

Louis Oosthuizen's seven-stroke win in 2010 represented the largest in a major championship since Tiger Woods won the 2000 British Open by eights strokes. It was the largest margin by a player other than Woods since Jack Nicklaus won the 1980 PGA Championship by seven strokes over Andy Bean.

British Open

NOTES

Tiger Woods tied for 23rd in 2010 in his seventh start of the season. In 1998, he won the BellSouth Classic in his ninth start—his longest stretch to start a season before winning.

Lee Westwood's runner-up finish was his fifth top-three finish in his last 10 major championship starts.

Paul Casey's tie for third was his best outing in nine starts at the British Open. His only other top-10 was a tie for seventh in 2008.

Just seven players have posted consecutive British Open victories since 1951 (16 overall): Padraig Harrington (2007-08), Tiger Woods (2005-06), Tom Watson (1982-83), Lee Trevino (1971-72), Arnold Palmer (1961-62) and Peter Thomson (1954-56).

RBC Canadian Open

NOTES

Carl Pettersson was 10-under on the par 5s, 4-under on the par 3s and even on par 4s. He was 5-under on the par-5 11th hole, with three birdies and an eagle, which he made in the third round.

With Carl Pettersson winning the RBC Canadian Open, Sweden became the ninth country to claim a champion at Canada's national open. The other countries are Australia, Canada, England, Fiji, New Zealand, Scotland, South Africa and the United States.

Dean Wilson picked up his second career secondplace PGA TOUR performance. His first came in 2006, at the Valero Texas Open, the same year he won his Ione PGA TOUR title, The International, outside Denver.

In consecutive rounds Saturday and Sunday, Charley Hoffman birdied holes 9 through 12. In his final-round Sunday, Hoffman had seven birdies only to stumble with a bogey-bogey finish. He still improved from a tie for 42nd to a tie for fourth.

RBC Canadian Open

NOTES

Bill Lunde and Jason Bohn both had nice weekends on the par-5 ninth hole. Lunde and Bohn eagled the hole Saturday and came back Sunday with repeat performances. For the week, both players were 6-under on No. 9 after each also made birdies the first two days.

Jeff Quinney bogeyed his final hole of the first round (No. 18) to finish at 1-over. Quinney then didn't have an over-par hole until the 12th when he made double bogey. During the streak, he had four birdies and 14 pars in the second round, added six more birdies against 12 pars in the third round and had three additional birdies and eight pars Sunday, extending his bogey-free streak to 47 holes. Quinney tied for fourth, easily his top 2010 finish. His previous best was a tie for 20th at the Sony Open in Hawaii in January.

The three-stroke comeback for Hunter Mahan at the 2010 Bridgestone Invitational equaled Tiger Woods (2009) asthe largest come-from-behind win in the tournament's 12-year history.

Bo Van Pelt (67-68-69-67) and Rory McIlroy (68-69-69) were the only players at the 2010 Bridgestone Invitational to shoot all four rounds in Playing in the Bridgestone Invitational for the 11th time, Tiger Woods' tie for 78th marked the first time he has failed to finish inside the top four.

Prior to the fourth round of the 2010 Bridgestone Invitational, Tiger Woods (77) and Phil Mickelson (78) had recorded 77 or higher in the same round just once, in the third round of the 1998 British Open. In that third round, Woods shot 77 and Mickelson posted an 85.

Of the 24 players making their Bridgestone Invitational debuts in 2010, four finished among the top 10: Bo Van Pelt (tied for third), Jeff Overton (tied for sixth), Peter Hanson (eighth) and Louis Oosthuizen (tied for ninth).

Katsumasa Miyamoto equaled the Bridgestone Invitational record and established a Firestone Country Club record with a 6-under-par 29 on the back nine in the third round en route to an 8-underpar 62.

NOTES

Martin Kaymer posted a final-round, 2-under 70 to work his way into a three-hole, aggregate sudden death playoff with Bubba Watson. The two were tied at 1-under-par after two holes, when Kaymer converted a bogey putt on No. 18 to defeat Watson after Watson hit his approach shot into a hazard and took double bogey.

By winning the 2010 PGA Championship, Martin Kaymer joined two-time Masters champion and countryman Bernhard Langer as major winners from Germany.

With his win at the 2010 PGA Championship, Martin Kaymer became the sixth first-time major championship winner of the previous seven majors. During that span, Phil Mickelson (2010 Masters) was the only multiple-major winner.

The playoff between Bubba Watson and Martin Kaymer at the 2010 PGA Championship marked the 12th playoff in tournament history. Incidentally, the most recent prior playoff at the PGA Championship came at Whistling Straits in 2004 when Vijay Singh defeated Justin Leonard and Chris DiMarco.

Martin Kaymer recorded just two bogeys over his final 55 holes en route to victory at the 2010 PGA Championship.

NOTES

Bubba Watson's playoff loss to Martin Kaymer at the 2010 PGA Championship was his best finish in 11 major championship starts, with his best previous being a T5 at the 2007 U.S. Open. With the runner-up finish, Watson jumped from 51st to a career-best 26th in the Official World Golf Ranking.

Rory McIlroy was 3-over-par through four holes of the 2010 PGA Championship but fought back to finish T3 at 10-under par, one shot out of the Kaymer-Watson playoff. He played his final 68 holes at 13-under par.

NOTES

The 2010 Wyndham Championship winner Arjun Atwal became the first native of India to win on the PGA TOUR. He was also the first native of India to join the PGA TOUR in 2004.

While Wyndham Championship winner Arjun Atwal held at least a share of the lead for the first 54 holes, his victory is not considered wire to wire as he was tied with Brandt Snedeker through 36 holes.

Arjun Atwal's winning total of 20-under-par 260 total was one shy of Carl Pettersson's record of 259 set in 2008.

NOTES

Arjun Atwal became the 15th first-time winner in the 71-year history of the Wyndham Championship, and the third in the last four years (Brandt Snedeker in 2007 and Ryan Moore in 2009). Snedeker (tied for eighth) was the highest finisher among past champions in 2010.

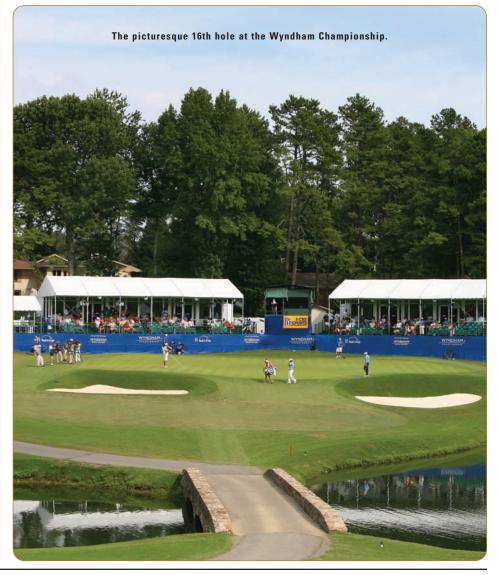

David Toms (second) and Justin Leonard (tied for third) both recorded their first respective top-10 finishes of the 2010 campaign at the Wyndham Championship. Toms (92) and Leonard (93) have combined for 183 career top-10s.

Arjun Atwal (first round) and Kevin Na (third round) tied Carl Pettersson's Sedgefield Country Club course record at 9-under-par 61 during the 2010 Wyndham Championship. Pettersson posted his 61 en route to victory in 2008.

John Merrick, Omar Uresti and Charles Warren all posted four rounds in the 60s during the 2010 Wyndham Championship—but the trio tied for 65th place as the scoring average for the week was 68.183.

The Barclays

NOTES

Matt Kuchar stormed back with a final-round, 5-under 66 to finish the 2010 Barclays tied with third-round leader Martin Laird at 12-under-par. Kuchar then birdied the first extra hole to win his third PGA TOUR title and second in as many years in a playoff (victory over Vaughn Taylor at the 2009 Turning Stone Resort Championship). It was the 15th playoff in the 44-year history of The Barclays.

The win for Matt Kuchar at the 2010 Barclays vaulted him from No. 9 to No. 1 on the FedExCup points list.

2010 Barclays champion Matt Kuchar entered the final round five strokes behind Martin Laird, equaling the largest come-from-behind win at The Barclays (five strokes by Bobby Nichols in 1973 and Vijay Singh in 1993).

Matt Kuchar's victory at the 2010 Barclays came in his seventh start at the event (missed cut in 2002, tied for 43rd in 2003, missed cut in 2004, tied for 35th in 2007, missed cut in 2008, tied for T28th in 2009, won in 2010).

Both of runner-up Martin Laird's starts at The Barclays came at Ridgewood Country Club, tying for seventh in 2008 and second in 2010.

Here's a historical look at players who have played their way into the Deutsche Bank Championship (top 100 in 2009 and 2010 and top 120 in 2007 and 2008) as a result of their play at The Barclays: 2010: Kevin Streelman; Ryuji Imada; J.P. Hayes; Tiger Woods; Troy Matteson; Andres Romero 2009: Fredrik Jacobson; Richard S. Johnson; Heath Slocum; Troy Matteson 2008: Richard S. # Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open

NOTES

Jonathan Byrd recorded a hole-in-one with a 6-iron on the fourth playoff hole (204-yard par-3 17th hole) to defeat defending champion Martin Laird and rookie Cameron Percy at the 2010 Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. The ace marked the first hole-in-one to end a playoff in PGA TOUR history. Byrd earned his fourth PGA TOUR victory in his 242nd career start at the age of 32 years, 8 months and 28 days.

Prior to the Jonathan Byrd- Martin Laird-Cameron Percy four-hole playoff at the 2010 Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, the last four-hole playoff on TOUR came in June of 2010 when Lee Westwood defeated Robert Karlsson at the St. Jude Classic. Robert Garrigus was also part of the playoff, but was eliminated on the first hole of sudden death.

The Jonathan Byrd- Martin Laird- Cameron Percy playoff was the eighth playoff in Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open history, and the fourth since 2003.

Jonathan Byrd became the second consecutive player to record an ace in a tournament en route to victory. The previous week at the Frys.com Open, Rocco Mediate made a hole-in-one in the first round before winning. Prior to Mediate, the last player to achieve the feat was Richard S. Johnson at the 2008 U.S. Bank Championship.

Children's Miracle Network Classic

NOTES

Robert Garrigus' five-shot, final-round comeback at the 2010 Children's Miracle Network Classic is one short of the tournament record. Larry Nelson (1987) and Duffy Waldorf (2000) own the tournament mark for largest final-round comeback at six strokes. He recorded the largest final-round comeback since Ryan Palmer came from five back in 2004 with a final-round 62.

Robert Garrigus became the first player since John Daly (1995 British Open) to lead the PGA TOUR in driving distance and win in the same season.

Robert Garrigus became the fourth player to overcome a five-stroke-or-more deficit on the final day to win on the PGA TOUR in 2010. Stuart Appleby came back from seven strokes behind to win The Greenbrier Classic; Bubba Watson came back from six strokes to win the Travelers Championship; and Matt Kuchar came back from five strokes down to win The Barclays.

Robert Garrigus won in his fifth start at the Children's Miracle Network Classic. His previous best finish in the Children's Miracle Network Classic was T10 in 2008. He missed the cut in 2006, 2007 and 2009.

2010 Children's Miracle Network Classic runner-up Roland Thatcher came into the week No. 179 on the money list and in need of a solo second-place finish to finish inside the top 125 to retain his PGA TOUR card for 2011. Thatcher (122), Michael Connell (115) and Mark Wilson (123, exempt for 2011) were the only players to move into the top 125 on the season-ending official money list following the Children's Miracle Network Classic. Michael Allen (130), Troy Matteson (128, exempt for 2011) and Woody Austin (129) dropped out of the top 125.

Children's Miracle Network Classic

NOTES

Opening 65-63, eventual runner-up Roland Thatcher tied the tournament record for largest 36-hole lead (four strokes). Tim Simpson had a four-shot lead in 1990 when he won and Justin Rose had a four-shot lead in 2006, but finished fourth.

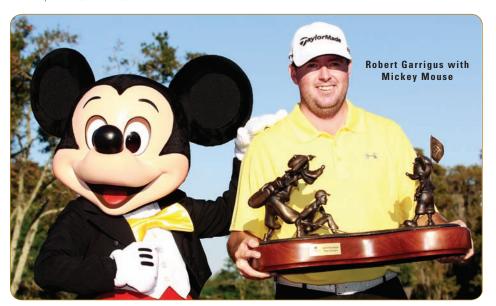

Charles Howell III (T9) was the only player to go bogey-free through the first two rounds at the 2010 Children's Miracle Network Classic. Howell played TOUR-best 13 bogey-free rounds this season.

Heath Slocum (T45) came into the 2010 Children' Miracle Network Classic No. 30 on the TOUR official money list and held onto that spot to earn exemptions into the 2011 Masters and 2011 U.S. Open.

Vijay Singh (69-71-68-67) increased his tournament-best streak to 34 straight rounds under par at the Children's Miracle Network Classic. Singh, who won the event in 2003, has never posted a score higher than 71 in eight previous appearances.

J.B. Holmes won the Neutrogena Skin Care Long Drive Contest, with a 344-yard drive on hole 15 in the second round, breaking the old mark of 315 yards.

During its first 11 years, the CVS Caremark Charity Classic raised $13 million for charities around the region, providing vital funding for a variety of critical programs in the areas of education, family and children's issues. #### NOTES

Bubba Watson, Dustin Johnson and Boo Weekley finished a combined 14-under in the twoplayer, best-ball format that allowed each team to discard one score per hole. The group shot 11 under over the final eight holes to overtake the Champions Tour team of Nick Price, Bernhard Langer and Kenny Perry. The Champions Tour trio finished a stroke back.

The LPGA team of Cristie Kerr, Suzann Pettersen and Natalie Gulbis returned to defend the title it won in 2009 and finished third in 2010, three strokes behind the winning PGA TOUR team.

THE PGA TOUR team trailed by two strokes with two holes to play. At the par-5 17th, Dustin Johnson reached the green in two and made an 8-foot eagle putt. Bubba Watson made birdie at the 17th, and the PGA TOUR had erased what was once a four-shot Champions Tour lead after 11 holes.

On the 18th hole, Bubba Watson made a birdie putt to seal the win for the PGA TOUR, which last won this event in 2006 when Zach Johnson teamed with Scott Verplank and Stewart Cink. Bernhard Langer had a chance to give the Champions Tour team a shot at a playoff, but his 12-foot birdie putt on the 18th slid by the cup.

NOTES

While not an official victory, Graeme McDowell's triumph at the 2010 Chevron World Challenge was his fourth worldwide win of the year. In addition to the Chevron World Challenge, McDowell captured the U.S. Open, the The Celtic Manor Wales Open and the Andalucia Masters.

The 2010 runner-up Tiger Woods held the outright lead at the end of the first three rounds. Graeme McDowell was tied for second after the first-round and was solo second after the second and third rounds.

The 2010 playoff between Graeme McDowell and Tiger Woods was the first in the 12-year history of the Chevron World Challenge.

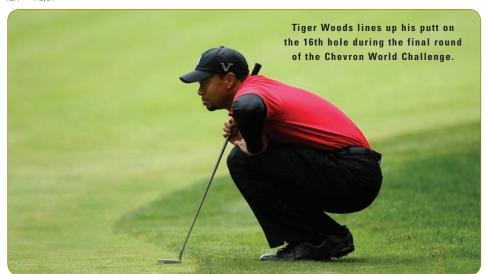

Tiger Woods' streak of eight straight rounds in the 60s at the Chevron World Challenge ended with a final-round 73 in 2010.

Tiger Woods has finished in the top two at the Chevron World Challenge in eight of his 10 starts. Woods finished 10th in 2000 and T14 in 2005.

The Presidents Cup

The ninth Presidents Cup will be contested at the Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Australia, the first golf course outside the United States to host The Presidents Cup more than once. Reprising their roles from the 2009 event, U.S. team captain Fred Couples and International team Captain Greg Norman are both major championship winners and both have played in The Presidents Cup during their stellar careers. Julia Gillard, prime minister of Australia, will serve as 2011 Honorary Chairperson.

Muirfield Village Golf Club will host The Presidents Cup in 2013, when the biennial competition returns to the United States. The venue becomes the first to host The Presidents Cup, Ryder Cup and Solheim Cup History

The Presidents Cup was developed to give the world's best non-European players an opportunity to compete in international team match-play competition.

A biennial event played in non-Ryder Cup years, the first Presidents Cup was played September 16-18, 1994, in the United States at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Virginia. The U.S. Team, captained by Hale Irwin, defeated the International Team, captained by David Graham, 20-12.

The United States also won the second Presidents Cup, held September 13-15, 1996, played again at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. Arnold Palmer, no stranger to high-level international competition, had the reins as the United States edged Peter Thomson's International team, 16½ -15½.

The 1998 Presidents Cup was played December 11-13 at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. The International team made the most of home-field advantage, winning 201/2 -111/2. Jack Nicklaus served as captain of the U.S. team, while Peter Thomson repeated his role as captain for the International team.

In 2000, The Presidents Cup returned to Robert Trent Jones, with the United States avenging their 1998 loss with a decisive 21½ to 10½ victory over the International team. Thomson captained the International team for a third time, while Ken Venturi was victorious in his debut as U.S. team captain.

The Presidents Cup 2003 was held at The Links at Fancourt Hotel and Country Club Estate in George, South Africa. The competition ended in a tie after both teams completed regulation with 17 points. Ernie Els of the International team and Tiger Woods of the U.S. team were designated to represent their teams in a sudden-death playoff. After three playoff holes, and as darkness was descending, Captains Player and Nicklaus, in the spirit of the competition, decided that the two teams would share the cup.

In 2005, Nicklaus and Player returned as captains, and the matches were held once again at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. The tie from 2003 was broken with an 18½ to 15½ United States victory.

The U.S. team wrapped up its fifth Presidents Cup victory in seven tries at Royal Montreal Golf Club in 2007 with a 191/2 to 141/2 victory, the U.S. team's first at an international venue in the competition's 13-year history. David Toms earned the most points for the U.S. team, while Woody Austin earned several new nicknames after falling into the lake on hole 14 while attempting a shot. And while his team did not win, Canadian golf hero Mike Weir thrilled the crowds with a 1-up victory over Woods in Sunday's singles competition.

In 2009, The Presidents Cup was held at Harding Park Golf Course in San Francisco, California, one of the top public golf properties in the United States. Two of the most dominant players on the PGA TOUR during the 1980s and 1990s, Fred Couples and Greg Norman, led the United States and International teams, respectively. The Presidents Cup 2009 marked the first time in event history that both captains were former participants in The Presidents Cup. Couples has appeared four times (1994, 1996, 1998, 2005) for the United States and Norman three (1996, 1998, 2000) for the Internationals, and both factored prominently in victories secured by their respective teams.

As first-time captains at The Presidents Cup 2009, Couples and Norman each led strong teams as they competed in front of record crowds at Harding Park. The U.S. team retained the Cup, winning for the sixth time, by a score of 19½ to 14½.

Former U.S. President Gerald Ford presided over the first Presidents Cup as Honorary Chairman. Former President George H.W. Bush, like Ford an avid golfer, served as Honorary Chairman for The Presidents Cup 1996. Australian Prime Minister John Howard was Honorary Chairman for the 1998 event. In 2000, President Bill Clinton made history when he became the first sitting president to serve as Honorary Chairman. In 2003, Thabo Mbeki, President of the Republic of South Africa, was Honorary Chairman. Current President George W. Bush served as the Honorary Chairman of The Presidents Cup 2005; Canadian Prime Minister Stephen Harper was the 2007 Honorary Chairman; and U.S. President Barack Obama was the 2009 Honorary Chairman.

The Presidents Cup follows the PGA TOUR creed of giving back. There is no purse for the players. Net revenues are divided into equal shares that the players and captains designate for charities or golf-related projects of their choice. The first eight Presidents Cups have generated nearly $22 million for approximately 340 charities worldwide, including a record-tying $4.2 million donation from the 2009 event.

Eligibility

Members of the 2011 U.S. Presidents Cup team are chosen based on the ten U.S. players who earn the most official PGA TOUR money beginning with the 2009 Wyndham Championship through the 2011 BMW Championship, weighted as follows: 1 point for every $1 earned in 2009-2010; and 2 points for every $1 earned in 2011. The International Presidents Cup team is made up of the top-10 international players (excluding those eligible for the European Ryder Cup team) from the Official World Golf Ranking through the 2011 BMW Championship. Both 12-man teams are rounded out by two Captain's Choices per team.

Structure and Scoring

The Presidents Cup competition consists of 34 matches—11 foursomes (alternate shot) and 11 four-ball (better ball) matches. There are 12 singles matches involving all players on the final Sunday. All matches are worth one point each, for a total of 34 points. Foursome and Four-ball matches all square at the end of 18 holes are halved, with each side receiving ½ point. Singles matches all square after 18 holes will to go extra holes until a match winner is determined. The winning team will have to accumulate no less than 17½ points to win The Presidents Cup. In a change inspired by the events of The Presidents Cup 2003, if the match is deadlocked at the end of singles play, the competition will be deemed a tie and the teams will share The Presidents Cup.

PGA Player of the Year

The PGA Player of the Year Award is given by the PGA of America to the top PGA TOUR player based on a mathematical formula that weighs tournament wins, official money standing and scoring average.

The point system for selecting the Player of the Year was amended in 1982, as follows: 30 points for winning the PGA Championship, U.S. Open, British Open or Masters Tournament; 20 points for winning THE PLAYERS Championship; 10 points for winning all other designated PGA TOUR events. In addition, there is a 50-point bonus for winning two majors, 75-point bonus for winning three, 100-point bonus for winning four.

For top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR's official money list and scoring average list, the point value is: first, 20 points, then 18, 16, 14, 12, 10, 8, 6, 4, 2. Any incomplete rounds in the scoring average list will result in a .10 penalty per incomplete round.

Vardon Trophy

The Vardon Trophy, named in honor of famed British golfer Harry Vardon, is awarded annually by the PGA of America.

From 1947 to 1987, the Vardon Trophy was awarded to the professional golfer with the lowest-scoring average. In 1988, the criteria were adjusted to award the Vardon Trophy to the touring professional with the lowest adjusted scoring average based on a minimum of 60 official rounds in events cosponsored or approved by the PGA TOUR.

Any player with an incomplete round is ineligible to win the Vardon Trophy.

Payne Stewart Award

The award is named for Payne Stewart, an 11-time winner on the PGA TOUR, including three major championships. Stewart died the week of THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola in 1999. The award was created by the PGA TOUR Policy Board to perpetuate Stewart's memory. It is presented annually at THE TOUR Championship presented by Coca-Cola to a player sharing Stewart's respect for the traditions of the game, his commitment to uphold the game's heritage of charitable support and the professional and meticulous presentation of himself and the sport through his dress and conduct.

In addition to a sculpture presented to the recipient, the Payne Stewart Award is accompanied by an annual Payne Stewart Award Grant presented by Southern Company. The $300,000 grant will support several initiatives in Stewart's name to be distributed as follows: $100,000 to Payne and Tracey Stewart's primary charity, The Stewart Family Foundation; $100,000 in Stewart's honor to The First Tee facility in Missouri, located at Camp Kanakuk, which is affiliated with the "Kids Across America" program; and $100,000 to a charity designated by the recipient.

David Chu Award

The David Chu award was created in 2009 to recognize Dr. David Chu's outstanding contributions to the growth of golf in China. Dr. Chu is considered by many the father of golf in China. Dr. Chu founded Mission Hills in 1992, confident in his belief that China's thriving economy would give rise to a domestic golf and leisure industry. Little more than 15 years after breaking ground. Mission Hills has grown into the world's largest golf club and is leading the golf boom in China. The award is a 8 mm bronze medal bearing Dr. Chu's likeness and featuring text in English and Chinese. It is anticipated that in future years the award will be given in Dr. Chu's name to other worthy recipients who have been instrumental in developing golf in China.

Charity: "Together, anything's possible"

Together, anything's possible."

Making a positive impact on the communities where PGA TOUR tournaments are held and players live has become an even larger focus in the golf organization's charitable mission with the "Together, anything's possible" campaign.

The charitable effort was celebrated in late 2005 when the PGA TOUR and its tournaments reached the "Drive to a Billion" milestone. That cumulative effect, since the first donation in 1938, has reached more than $1.6 billion entering 2011—including more than $1 billion in the last 15 yearsand is the cornerstone of the "Together, anything's possible" campaign. The forecast is for the second billion-dollar mark to be reached within approximately the next five years.

During THE PLAYERS Championship in May 2009, the TOUR unveiled its renewed commitment to charitable efforts aimed at further energizing and engaging all players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans.

"The PGA TOUR has done a lot for charity over the years but only because of the passion for giving back shared by our players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans," PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem said. "When we say, 'Together, anything's possible,' we mean that by rallying behind the common cause of charitable giving, we can create greater awareness and elevate our overall impact, which is so important in these difficult economic times."

A full-scale launch of "Together, anything's possible" began in 2010.

PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events annually benefit more than 3,000 charities and countless individuals worldwide. Research shows that the majority of the funds raised each year are directly funneled back into the local market, so while there is not an "official charity of the PGA TOUR," there are many who benefit from the TOUR's one goal of "Giving Back."

STRUCTURE

Unlike any other professional sports organization, the PGA TOUR relies on more than 100,000 volunteers a year to run its events, and most of the 100-plus tournaments are structured as non-profit organizations designed to donate 100 percent of net proceeds to local charities. Beneficiaries include hospitals, youth-development organizations, growth-of-the-game programs and food banks. In addition, military support and fundraising for naturaldisaster relief are apparent.

"Together, anything's possible" aims to organize the beneficiaries into a national network. The TOUR and its sanctioned tournaments will connect with each of these charities to begin communicating details of this platform.

TOURNAMENTS

In the "Together, anything's possible" campaign, the TOUR will assist tournaments in maximizing their charitable impact. The TOUR will work with tournaments to benchmark specific charity initiatives where feasible and expand proven activities across all Tours.

In The Presidents Cup, there is no purse, yet revenues are divided into equal shares that the participating players and Captains designate for charities of their choice, totaling nearly $22 million in the eight playings of the event through the 2009 event in San Francisco.

PLAYERS

Players reach out to help considerably through charitable efforts in their home communities and elsewhere.

Under the "Together, anything's possible" platform, the TOUR commits resources to further promote each player's charitable activities, whether through television, advertising, PGATOUR.COM and video or new media support that will enable fans to get involved in their favorite players' charities. The TOUR will offer assistance to both players, who are currently engaged in charitable activities, as well as those who are interested in getting started.

"I am very excited that the TOUR will be helping us all make a bigger impact on our communities," said David Toms. "Two days after Hurricane Katrina hit, I sent an email to about 200 people and asked if they would be interested in supporting the cause. I thought we would be able to raise a little money and help a few more families. The response to that simple email was overwhelming. We had to get volunteers to help answer the phones, and within hours of an interview I did during a PGA TOUR broadcast, over 1,000 online donations crashed our system. It wasn't long before we had raised over $1.5 million. That is an example of how we, as players, can help our communities and charities in times of need. This new, elevated charity platform will be an asset to all players who want to pitch in and make a difference."

Support of the United States military has been quite evident. The AT&T National in Philadelphia, PA, honors the United States Armed Forces by offering free admission to all military personnel and holding various events around the tournament.

Phil Mickelson began a "Birdies for the Brave" program in 2004 that continues to donate $100 for each birdie and $500 for each eagle he makes in competition and benefits "Homes for Our Troops" and "Special Operations Warrior Foundation." Numerous other players are affiliated with organizations that assist wounded veterans and their families.

Ernie Els was one of the players featured as he and his wife, Liezl, continued to work to promote autism awareness and fund research. The second playing of the Els for Autism Pro-Am raised $800,000 for the Els for Autism Foundation, whose primary goal is to raise $30 million to build the Els Center for Excellence. The Els Center for Excellence will be dedicated to educating autistic children and funding research into the causes of autism and developing new treatments for it.

In June 2010, Jim McGlothlin, a member of the PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties Board, organized "The Big 3 for the Mountain Mission Kids," a oneday tournament featuring Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player. This event, which benefited the Mountain Mission School, raised an astounding $15.2 million in a single day.

There is an exciting, new "Together, anything's possible" initiative in 2011. Country music star Darius Rucker has written a song "Together, Anything is Possible," in which proceed from downloads will be distributed to PGA TOUR Charities, The First Tee and Birdies for the Brave.

The players' wives are also fully involved in giving back. The PGA TOUR Wives Association was a 2008 recipient of one of Golf Magazine's 10 Innovator Awards for its charitable nature and positive impact on tournament host cities. Since its incorporation in 1988, the PGA TOUR Wives Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money and giving back much to the game of golf through personal time and monetary contributions.

FANS

The TOUR has developed a call-to-action plan that allows fans to rally behind charities supported by its players and tournaments, allowing them to enhance lives by giving of their time or making contributions.

While many tournaments already have an effective outreach to their fans, the TOUR will develop an overarching communications plan that will add support on a national level. The TOUR launched PGATOUR.COM/together in 2010 so that fans learn more about the charitable involvement of their favorite players, tournaments or charities. This site enables fans to donate money and identify volunteer opportunities that directly benefit local charities. The TOUR will invest substantial internal resources, including an ad campaign, to promote the call to action.

The first full year of "Together, anything's possible" showed the breadth and depth of our collective charitable efforts with the new charity web site featuring more than 300 stories and videos about the wonderful work being done in communities around the globe.

Olympic Golf Approved For 2016

After an absence of more than a century, golf will return as an Olympic sport in 2016 along with rugby sevens following their approval by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) membership during the IOC's 121st Session on October 9, 2009 in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Both sports will be part of the Olympic Programme in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, which was selected as the host city for 2016 Games by the IOC on October 2, 2009. Golf was last an Olympic sport at the 1904 Games in St. Louis, MO, when the United States and Canada were the only two competing countries.

"We are elated that the IOC membership has approved golf as an Olympic sport and look forward to seeing the world's best golfers compete for gold at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro," said Ty Votaw, Executive Director of the International Golf Federation Olympic Golf Committee, which has coordinated golf's Olympic bid. "We thank the IOC for its support and also congratulate rugby sevens for its inclusion in the 2016 Games."

Votaw and Peter Dawson, Chief Executive of The R&A and joint secretary of the International Golf Federation, were accompanied by professionals Padraig Harrington of Ireland, Michelle Wie of the United States and Suzann Pettersen of Norway, as well as 2009 British Amateur champion Matteo Manassero, of Italy, for a final presentation to the IOC prior to the vote.

"We are extremely grateful that Padraig, Michelle, Suzann and Matteo were able to join us to help communicate the genuine interest world-class players of all ages share in golf becoming an Olympic sport," Dawson said.

Golf and rugby sevens were recommended for the Olympic Programme by the IOC Executive Board in August 2009 in Berlin, Germany, following an extensive review process involving seven sports that were vying to be added to the 2016 Olympic Games. Although they emerged as the finalists, both sports were still required to secure final approval by a majority of votes cast by the members of the IOC.

Based on player feedback, the IGF has proposed a format of 72-hole individual stroke play for both men and women. In case of a tie for either first, second or third place, a three-hole playoff is recommended to determine the medal winner(s).

The IGF also has recommended an Olympic field of 60 players for each of the men's and women's competitions, using the Official World Golf Ranking as a method of determining eligibility. The top-15 world-ranked players will be eligible for the Olympics, regardless of the number of players from a given country. Beyond the top 15, players will be eligible based on the world ranking, with a maximum of two eligible players from each country that does not already have two or more players among the top 15.
