Jamie Lovemark measured up to his considerable reputation by winning the money title and earning 2010 Player of the Year honors.

A Message to the Media

Timothy W. Finchem
Commissioner
PGA TOUR

Bill Calfee
President
Nationwide Tour

Welcome to the 2011 Nationwide Tour season and the season-long quest for a PGA TOUR card. We look forward to another year of identifying “25” world-class golfers and future TOUR champions.

The Nationwide Tour is coming off its best year ever in 2010, one that produced a class of outstanding young performers, led by Player of the Year Jamie Lovemark. The class is excited about taking its talents to the PGA TOUR and adding to the 288 TOUR titles that Tour alumni have already collected through 2010. In addition to the excellent competition we witnessed, the Nationwide Tour benefited from several new tournaments, title sponsors and venues and a number of celebrity hosts at various events, including Arnold Palmer, Jerry Rice and Anthony Munoz, to name a few.

In 2011, the Nationwide Tour will feature more than 200 players competing in 26 events stretched across 16 states in the U.S. and three Latin American countries. The Tour’s international scope is reflected in its 64 members from 18 countries outside of the United States, mirroring the PGA TOUR’s global footprint. Nationwide Insurance continues to support the PGA TOUR’s official proving ground as its umbrella sponsor and will through the 2012 season.

The season begins in late February in Panama City, Panama, followed by a return to Bogotá, Colombia. The domestic schedule gets underway in late March in Louisiana. From July through the final event in late October, the Nationwide Tour will play 15 events in 16 weeks to determine “The 25.” Included in this stretch is a new addition to the schedule, the Midwest Classic in Overland Park, KS, Aug. 18-21. Daniel Island Club in Charleston, SC, will host the season-ending Nationwide Tour Championship for the third year in a row.

As has been the case in its first 21 seasons, the Nationwide Tour will have the support of a fantastic core of tournaments and volunteers and a solid foundation of title sponsors. Golf Channel will continue to be the Tour’s exclusive television partner in the United States, with PGA TOUR Entertainment’s international broadcasting arm providing an additional presence in 123 other countries.

With literally thousands of volunteers donating their time to events throughout the year, “Together, anything’s possible” is on display week in and week out on the Nationwide Tour. Last year, the Tour’s charitable contributions were led by the Nationwide Children’s Hospital Invitational ($1,942,500), Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open presented by Planters, which set a first-year record ($1,600,000), Albertsons Boise Open presented by Kraft ($1 million), Price Cutter Charity Championship presented by Dr Pepper ($712,220) and BWM Charity Pro-Am presented by SYNEX ($655,041).

The Nationwide Tour team thanks you for your coverage and looks forward to working with you again in 2011.

Sincerely,

Timothy W. Finchem
Commissioner, PGA TOUR

President, Nationwide Tour

PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 100 official-money tournaments on three Tours—the PGA TOUR, Nationwide Tour and Champions Tour. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America.

The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, FL.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the TOUR but with their marquee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-TOUR co-sponsored tournaments.

The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, NJ, oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (GA) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland oversees the British Open and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf Tour, with official money events from January through November. This year is the fifth season of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup.

Membership: 89 international players, 23 countries

TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, TNT

Competition Awards: FedExCup (Season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Trophy (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money-winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Rookie of the Year, Comeback Player of the Year.

The Champions Tour continues to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and older with a fan-friendly platform that promotes "inside the ropes" and game-improvement for its fans. The Charles Schwab Cup, a season-long, points-based competition, enters its 11th season.

Membership: 46 international players, 15 countries

TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, ESPN2, TNT

The Nationwide Tour is the official proving ground of the PGA TOUR. It enters into its 22nd season in 2011. Through 2010, 288 PGA TOUR titles have been won by former Nationwide Tour players. Two-thirds of the PGA TOUR members in 2011 have Nationwide Tour roots. "The 25" (top-25 money winners) earn PGA TOUR cards for the following season.

"The 25"

Founded, owned and operated by the PGA TOUR, the Nationwide Tour identifies those players who are ready to compete and win on golf's greatest stage. As the official proving ground of the PGA TOUR, its impact on the PGA TOUR is undeniable. Two out of every three PGA TOUR players have Nationwide Tour roots. Through 2010, Nationwide Tour alumni have amassed 288 PGA TOUR titles, including 13 majors and four PLAYERS Championships. As the Tour's tagline implies, the Nationwide Tour, its tournaments and players are "PGA TOUR Driven."

The essence of the Nationwide Tour is "The 25" program, the season-long quest to earn a PGA TOUR card. Each year, the chase provides some of the best drama in sports. "The 25" tracks the PGA TOUR cards that are at stake and the weekly player movement in and out of the top-25 places on the money list. Fans follow the action throughout the year as the caddies of "The 25" wear bibs designating their players' current position on the money list.

In 2011, the program will once again build to an exciting conclusion at the season-ending Nationwide Tour Championship at Daniel Island in Charleston, SC, where 60 contenders with one shared dream of playing on the PGA TOUR will lay it all on the line. Media and fans can follow "The 25" and the season-long card quest on Golf Channel, PGATOUR.COM, Facebook and Twitter.

History of the Nationwide Tour (1990-2010)

Ben Hogan

Even the most optimistic person couldn't have foreseen the success the Nationwide Tour would have when it kicked off its inaugural season on Thursday, Feb. 2, 1990 at 7:30 a.m. PST at Bakersfield Country Club in Bakersfield, CA.

The Nationwide Tour began under corporate sponsorship of the Ben Hogan Company as the Ben Hogan Tour. The idea of former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane R. Beman, the Nationwide

Tour was designed as a proving ground for up-and-coming golfers, as well as a place for PGA TOUR veterans to hone their skills as they prepared for the Champions Tour. It has become so much more than that.

For the first two years of the Tour, the top-five money winners were awarded PGA TOUR membership. Beginning in 1992, the PGA TOUR Policy Board voted that, due to the success graduating players were having on the PGA TOUR, the number of cards available would be increased to 10; and in 1997 the number was increased to 15. In 2003, 20 players earned their 2004 TOUR cards, and that number increased to 25 in 2007.

That first event in 1990 was won by Mike Springer, who went on to win two more times that year and finish fourth on the money list. He was joined in the first graduating class by Jim McGovern, Dick Mast, Ed Humenik and Jeff Maggert, who was leading money winner and Player of the Year.

However, the player who made the biggest impact on the PGA TOUR from the 1990 Tour was John Daly, winner of the only Ben Hogan Tour Qualifying Tournament. Daly won the 1991 PGA Championship as a rookie and went on to finish 17th on the PGA TOUR money list. Since then, he has added four more victories, including another major championship, the 1995 British Open.

Tom Lehman first established himself as a top-flight player on the Tour in 1991. After two nondescript years on the PGA TOUR in the early 1980s, Lehman won a tournament on Tour in 1990. But 1991 was the breakthrough season in his comeback. He won three times and was the circuit's leading money-winner.

Californian John Flannery was the Player of the Year in 1992, winning three times and leading the Tour in earnings with $164,114.

On August 26, 1992 Nike, Inc., took over sponsorship of the Tour, beginning with the 1993 season. Sean Murphy was the star that year, setting records for wins in a season with four, career victories with five, and single-season earnings with $166,293. He added a sixth title in 1995.

While Murphy was busy setting records, his fellow Tour alumni were busy making names for themselves on the PGA TOUR. Daly collected his second career win in the 1992 B.C. Open, and others were beginning to earn their own hardware. McGovern, Mike Standly and Maggert all collected PGA TOUR titles in 1993, while Springer and Greg Kraft grabbed unofficial wins. The Tour Championship also was established in 1993 as a climax to the season. Rookie David Duval won the first Tour Championship, which featured only the year's top-50 money winners.

In 1994, Chris Perry showed that consistency has its own rewards. Although six players collected multiple victories that year, Perry's lone title in the Utah Classic, 10 top-10 finishes and no missed cuts earned him Player of the Year honors. He set a single-season earnings record with $167,148.

There were a number of firsts in 1994. In June, Tommy Armour III became the first player to win back-to-back tournaments—the Miami Valley Open and Cleveland Open. During the second round of the 1994 Shreveport Open, Omar Uresti set a record with nine consecutive birdies, setting a standard not only for the Nationwide Tour but the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and European Tour.

In May, Vic Wilk became the first left-hander to win an event, the Knoxville Open. Jerry Kelly continued the trend of the leading money-winner setting an earnings record in 1995 when he collected $188,878 to better Perry's year-old mark. Besides winning twice, Kelly posted 15 top-10 finishes.

Stewart Cink was the top story in 1996. The 1995 College Player of the Year became the first player in Nationwide Tour history to earn more than $200,000 in a single season with $251,699. He won three times, including the season-ending Tour Championship, and collected 14 top-10 finishes in only 21 events.

The 1997 season marked the first year of the three-win promotion, which grants immediate PGA TOUR access to any player who wins three Nationwide Tour events in a season. Chris Smith was the first to do so winning that year's Upstate Classic as well as the Dakota Dunes Open and Omaha Classic in back-to-back weeks.

In October, Steve Flesch joined Wilk as the only left-handed champions. Flesch won the season-ending Tour Championship. That victory vaulted him from 24th on the money list to fourth, earning him 1998 PGA TOUR membership.

The 1998 season saw more of the kind of action for which the Nationwide Tour has become known. During a three-week period late in the spring, Notah Begay III and Doug Dunakey caught the attention of the golf world when each posted 59. Begay's 13-under-par 59 came in the second round of the Dominion Open. Dunakey could have had the record all to himself were it not for a three-putt bogey on his final hole.

Bob Burns was named 1998 Player of the Year after leading in earnings with $178,664 and winning the Dominion Open and Tour Championship.

The 1999 season saw Carl Paulson establish a new record for consecutive starts with 83. The 83rd was particularly significant as Paulson recorded his first-ever Nationwide Tour victory at the Utah Classic. That win, and another two weeks later in Boise, ID, vaulted Paulson to the top of the money list. His peers would later vote him Player of the Year. Seven players won twice on the Tour in 1999, and a record 22 earned more than $100,000.

The season-ending Tour Championship featured a thrilling finale at the Robert Trent Jones Trail Highland Oaks Golf Club in Dothan, AL. Bob Heintz won his second event of the season defeating Marco Dawson in a playoff to take home the largest check in Tour history—$72,000.

In late October, internet superstore Buy.com was announced as the new umbrella sponsor of the Tour. With Buy.com's financial commitment, purses rose to a record $13.1 million in 2000, with the minimum purse jumping from $225,000 to $400,000. On the course, the 2000 season saw Spike McRoy earn Player of the Year honors after winning twice and earning a record $300,638. He was one of 53 players to earn $100,000 or more.

Tim Clark made history of his own in 2000 when he collected the first $100,000 payday on Tour by winning the Boise Open. The 2000 season was also notable for the emergence of international players who captured nine titles and claimed four of the top-15 spots on the money list.

The 2001 season was memorable when, for the second time, three players earned three-win promotions in one season. Heath Slocum was the first to do so, followed by Chad Campbell and Pat Bates, who won back-to-back tournaments to end the year. Todd Barranger tied the scoring mark by winning the Dayton Open with a 26-under-par effort, while Campbell set a single-season earnings record with $394,552 to capture Player of the Year. He also finished second at the PGA TOUR's season-ending Southern Farm Bureau Classic.

In 2002, the Tour added tournaments in Australia and New Zealand for the first time. In addition, tournaments were allowed to sell individual title sponsorships for the first time. Patrick Moore won three times and was named Player of the Year. A record 12 players earned $200,000 or more, and alums continued to excel winning a single season record 21 times on the PGA TOUR.

The season ended on a high note with the announcement of a new umbrella sponsor in Nationwide Insurance. The five-year agreement would start with the 2003 season and coincided with an increase in PGA TOUR cards awarded to 20.

Carter became only the sixth player to earn a three-win promotion to the PGA TOUR, yet did not win Player of the Year. That honor went to Zach Johnson, who set a Tour record for earnings with $494,882. He had two wins and nine top-three finishes in 20 starts while setting a new Tour scoring record of 68.97.

Jimmy Walker was the 2004 Player of the Year and leading money winner, as well as one of five multiple winners during the season. Alums continued to excel, winning a record 22 PGA TOUR titles, while the Class of 2003 made history with five members winning on TOUR, with seven earning at least $1 million and eight finishing in the top 125.

In May, Daniel Chopra set a Tour record when he shot 30-under at the Henrico County Open. Tyler Williamson and Chris Nallen each fired 60s during the year, one shot off the Tour record.

Jason Gore was the lead story in 2005 when he captured the hearts of golf fans everywhere at the U.S. Open. He followed that performance with a record-setting three straight wins on the Nationwide Tour and shot 59 in capturing the last one. He completed his season with a September victory on the PGA TOUR and was named Nationwide Tour Player of the Year. Any other year, Troy Matteson would have walked off with that honor as he won twice, finished in the top 10 a dozen times and set a new single-season earnings record of $495,009.

The 2006 season featured a slate of 31 tournaments and $17 million. Ken Duke and Johnson Wagner battled throughout the year for top honors, with Duke emerging as the leading money winner and Player of the Year.

Five players won twice—Wagner, Tripp Isenhour, Craig Kanada, Brandt Snedeker and Kevin Stadler—with a record 10 players earning more than $300,000 and 22 collecting $200,000 or more.

The Class of 2005 made its mark on the PGA TOUR in 2006 with 12 of the 21 graduates finishing among the top 125 on the money list. Chris Couch, Eric Axley and Troy Matteson each won on TOUR. They were among eight 2005 graduates whose earnings exceeded $1 million.

On-course success was exceeded only by the good news that Nationwide and the PGA TOUR had reached a new five-year extension of Nationwide's umbrella sponsorship of the Tour through 2012.

In 2007, the Tour played for a record $18 million in prize money and a record 25 PGA TOUR cards were awarded at season's end. Australia's Nick Flanagan earned a three-win promotion to the PGA TOUR in August and later earned Player of the Year honors. Richard Johnson won the season-ending Nationwide Tour Championship at Barona Creek to capture the money title. Another Aussie, Jason Day, 19, became the youngest winner in Nationwide Tour history when he won in Cleveland in July. Five of the top-seven money winners were international members, and eight players surpassed $300,000 in earnings. Brandt Snedeker, a 2006 graduate, was voted PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year. Zach Johnson, the 2003 Player of the Year, won the Masters.

The 2008 season featured record prize money of nearly $19 million. Brendon de Jonge of Zimbabwe earned Player of the Year honors. Matt Bettencourt finished the year with a flurry to capture the money title. Bettencourt and three other players, Jarrod Lyle, Scott Piercy and Colt Knost, won two events. The Tour added an event in Mexico and one in Canada featuring hockey legend Wayne Gretzky, and played its first two $1-million events, the Nationwide Tour Players Cup in West Virginia and the Nationwide Tour Championship.

The Nationwide Tour celebrated its 20th year in 2009. Four cities, which have hosted tournaments every year since 1990 (Boise, Knoxville, Springfield and Wichita), were highlighted. Despite facing the most challenging economic time in decades, the Nationwide Tour maintained a strong foundation, playing 29 tournaments—in the U.S. and in five countries abroad. Australian Michael Sim was the year's headliner as he rewrote the Tour's record book, earning a battlefield promotion to the PGA TOUR by August and pocketing $644,142. Alumni on the PGA TOUR racked up a record 23 titles, including majors by Lucas Glover (U.S. Open) and Cink (British Open), upping the TOUR alumni win total to 260 at season's end since the Tour's inception.

An array of young talent led the charge in 2010, highlighted by 22-year-old Jamie Lovemark, who became the youngest player in Tour history to capture the money title. Thirteen of "The 25" graduates were age 27 or younger when they received their cards in October. The Tour visited a record six countries outside the U.S. over 29 events, making new stops in Bogotá, Colombia, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and the PGA TOUR's home base of Ponte Vedra Beach, FL. The year also featured tournament celebrity hosts in Camilo Villegas, Jerry Rice, Wayne Gretzky, Anthony Munoz, Arnold Palmer, Chip Beck, Gary Williams and Jim Furyk. On the PGA TOUR, alumni added a record 28 TOUR titles in 2010, raising the total win count to 288. Furyk became the second Nationwide Tour alumnus to be voted PGA TOUR Player of the Year by his peers.

It's been 21 years since Mike Springer won the Bakersfield Open, the first Nationwide Tour event.

About the Commissioner

Tim Finchem
PGA TOUR Commissioner

Tim Finchem began his 17th year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2010. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGA TOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate. Since Finchem became commissioner in 1994, the PGA TOUR and its tournaments have raised more than $1 billion for charitable organizations.

Under Finchem's leadership, The Presidents Cup was created in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After eight stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar, and the 2011 event is scheduled for Royal Melbourne in Australia.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation. His personal dedication to the success of the World Golf Foundation's The First Tee initiative has meant that, in just more than 10 years, The First Tee has grown to include more than 200 chapters that reach more than 2.2 million young people.

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup. From 2007-2010, the FedExCup brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

Born in Ottawa, IL, on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, VA. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001 and the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002. He was awarded the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports Award in 2005.

Finchem is the third commissioner of the PGA TOUR, succeeding Deane Beman. Beman served for 20 years, replacing the late Joe Dey, who had been the TOUR's commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Missed the cut in his first four starts before breaking through with a win at the South Georgia Classic in Valdosta in mid-April. Fired a final-round 70 for an 11-under 277 total, one better than second-year pro Jhonattan Vegas. Moved to the lead with birdies at Nos. 8, 10 and 11 and led by three at one point on the back nine. Played the final seven holes in 1-over par, but it was enough to hold off Vegas, who was 2-under on his final eight holes... Qualified for the British Open in January by finishing second at the International Final Qualifying-Australasia in mid-January. Posted an 8-under 136 total for two days at the famed Kingston Heath layout in Melbourne. Has been successful in all three attempts to qualify for the Open.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

Member of the Nationwide Tour in 2005 and 2008-10. Earned his first top-10 of the 2009 season with a T3 at the Albertsons Boise Open after making the 36-hole cut on the number. Started the final round T44 and moved up with the day's lowest score, a 6-under 65 that vaulted him up the leaderboard. Finished his round 3:15 in front of the final pairing. Start was only his second since returning to Australia in early June, thinking he might give up the game... Nationwide Tour campaign in 2008 was a season of extreme highs and lows for the Australian who made eight cuts in 24 starts. Finished T48 in his first start of the season, the HSBC New Zealand PGA Championship before collecting his first career top-25 finish on the Nationwide Tour in impressive fashion, winning the Moonah Classic with a 13-under 275 total. His seven-stroke win is eclipsed only by Chris Smith's 11-stroke win at the 1997 Omaha Classic, fellow Australian, Marc Leishman's 11-stroke win at the 2008 WNB Golf Classic and Chris Nallen's eight-shot victory at the 2004 Gila River Golf Classic. Jumped to the top of the leaderboard with a 5-under 67 and held at least a share of the lead the rest of the way, closing with a 6-under 66 to distance himself from his nearest challengers. Collected $148,248 with the victory to move to No. 2 on the official money list. Made five cuts in his next 11 starts with a best finish of T38 at The Rex Hospital Open. Dropped outside "The 25" for the first time after the Albertsons Boise Open. Suffered a dismal finish to the year when he failed to make a cut in his final 11 starts, including a WD at the Chattanooga Classic and a DQ at the Nationwide Tour Championship, where he dropped from 34th to 41st on the money list. Missed the cut at both the 2008 British Open and Dunhill Links Championship on the European Tour... Played his rookie season on the Nationwide Tour in 2005, making the cut in just three of 17 starts. Had never played on the PGA TOUR or Nationwide Tour prior to that season. Made the cut in all three starts on the 2004 Asian Tour, with a T15 at the Carlsberg Masters his best showing. Played on the Australasian Tour from 2001-09. Competed for Australia in the 2000 Clare Higson Trophy annual event, featuring the best under-18 golfers from Australia and New Zealand.

First top-10 of the season was a solo second at the Cox Classic in Omaha, where he finished a career-best 21-under par with scores of 66-66-65-66 for his best finish since he won the 1994 Federal Express St. Jude Classic on the PGA TOUR—a span of 441 total starts (346 PGA TOUR, 95 Nationwide Tour). ## PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

Made the cut in five of 10 starts on the PGA TOUR in 2009, recording one top-10 finish. Did not make a cut in eight starts on the Nationwide Tour in 2009. On the week of his 40th birthday, finished T4 at the U.S. Bank Championship, his best finish on TOUR since a T4 at the 2007 Ginn sur Mer Classic. Third-round 63 matched the low round of the week. Split time in 2008 between the PGA TOUR and the Nationwide Tour. First top-10 of the season was T8 at the Viking Classic. It was his first top-10 since finishing fourth at the 2007 Ginn sur Mer Classic at Tesoro. Recorded a hole-in-one on the par-3 second hole with a 4-iron from 204 yards in the second round and was only one stroke back after 36 holes. It was his 13th start at Annandale Golf Club and his fourth top-10 at the event. Played in 13 tournaments on the Nationwide Tour and made 11 cuts, with a season-best T7 at the Livermore Valley Wine Country Championship. Competed in 25 tournaments on the PGA TOUR in 2007 and recorded one top-10 finish, 4th, at the inaugural Ginn sur Mer Classic. Marked his best finish on TOUR since a T3 effort at the 1996 Canon Greater Hartford Open. Failed to retain his card at the TOUR's Qualifying Tournament in the fall and played on Past Champion status in 2008. Regained PGA TOUR card for 2007 with a T29 finish at 2006 Qualifying Tournament, his fifth successful trip to the finals. Split 2006 season between TOUR (made six of nine cuts) and Nationwide Tour (13-19) earning one top-10, a T9 at the TOUR's U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee. Playing with partial status on TOUR in 2005, concentrated primarily on the Nationwide Tour. Made the cut in 13 of 25 starts on the Nationwide Tour, with four top-10s. Ended the year 37th on the money list with $131,757. Notched a career-best finish on the Nationwide Tour with a T3 at the Henrico County Open. Fired a final-round, 10-under-par 62, which represented his career-low round on either Tour. Finished 184th on 2004 TOUR money list. Only top-10 of the season came in October, a T5 at the Michelin Championship at Las Vegas. It was his best finish on TOUR since a fifth at the 1999 Motorola Western Open. Split time on the PGA TOUR and Nationwide Tour in 2003. Played in 23 TOUR events made 14 cuts and finished in the top 20 six times. Held the first-round lead at the Chrysler Classic of Tucson, finished T34. It was just the second time in his career he led in a TOUR event. The other time came at the 1994 FedEx St. Jude Classic, his only TOUR victory. The last time he led after a round on TOUR was the second round of the 2001 Bell Canadian Open. Secured first top-10 finish since 2001 Southern Farm Bureau Classic with a T10 at the Reno-Tahoe Open, a span of 28 events between top 10s. Missed four months of the 2002 season due to an attack of gallstones and pancreatitis. Had to be fed through a tube for 2 1/2 months and had his gallbladder removed. After T25 finish at the Touchstone

Energy Tucson Open in late February, did not play again until late June at the Canon Greater Hartford Open. Won 1994 Federal Express St. Jude Classic in rookie season. A 20-foot putt on 72nd hole earned spot in playoff with Hal Sutton and Gene Sauers. Holed 25-foot birdie putt on first extra hole to win. Early in 1994, rescheduled his wedding day so it wouldn't conflict with Qualifying Tournament. That year's victory at Federal Express St. Jude Classic made qualifying unnecessary. Later that season won a Buick for soon-to-be wife Kim with a hole-in-one at Buick Challenge.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in 19 of 29 starts on the PGA TOUR but was unable to finish inside the top 125 for just the second time in the last nine years. Ended the season No. 158 on the money list...Lone top-10 finish of the season, a T10, came following four rounds in the 60s at the John Deere Classic. It marked the first time since the 2009 John Deere Classic that he had recorded all four rounds in the 60s.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

2009: Had second-best season of his career, with three second-place finishes and more than $1.4 million in earnings. Earned more than $1 million in a season for the second time in his career (2006)...A T2 finish at the Puerto Rico Open presented by Banco Popular was followed by another T2 finish a week later at Transitions Championship. Followed opening 73 with three 68s...Next close call came in July at the John Deere Classic where he matched his career-best score of 62 in the third round en route to another runner-up finish. Had to play third and final rounds on Sunday because of inclement weather earlier in the week. The finish earned an invitation to the following week's British Open as he was the highest finisher in the top-five not already exempt. Turned down the invitation as his passport was in Florida and he had already committed to the following week's U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee. 2008: Entered the season needing to earn $67,769 in seven starts to receive Major Medical Extension status for 2008. Finished T12 at The Honda Classic and collected $115,500, thus earning Major Medical Extension status for the remainder of the year...Finished T6 at THE PLAYERS, thanks in part to a final-round 71, where he was one of only eight players to break par on Sunday...Only other top-10 finish came at the Memorial Tournament, finishing T10 despite a second-round 78. 2007: Coming off career year in 2006, was limited to 25 events, undergoing season-ending arthroscopic right knee surgery on Sept. 7 to repair a medial meniscal tear after missing the cut at the Deutsche Bank Championship. Best finish was a solo third at the 84 LUMBER Classic, playing with a left-shoulder injury suffered when he tripped on some stairs at home the Tuesday of tournament week. Finished three shots behind champion Ben Curtis...Finished T9 at the World Golf Championships-American Express Championship in London, his first start in a World Golf Championships event. 2005: Finished in the top 100 for the fourth time in five years. Best finishes were T5s at the Sony Open in Hawaii (one back after 54 holes) and the Cialis Western Open in July. 2004: Cracked the top 100 on the money list for the third time in four years...Posted only top-10 of season, a T2 at the U.S.

Finished the season No. 32 on the money list after making the cut in 18 of 27 events. In his third start of the season, at the Panama CLARO Championship, was one of only four players to post all four rounds in the 60s and finished alone in second place. It marked the third consecutive year Smock has recorded a runner-up showing. Posted his second top-10 of the year at the Stadion Athens Classic. Consistent rounds of 72-68-71-69 led to a T10 finish... Notched his third top-10 of the year at the Price Cutter Charity Championship in August. Fired all four rounds under par to finish T9.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

Member of the Nationwide Tour in 1997, 2005 and 2007-10. Has never played on the PGA TOUR. Finished No. 40 on the 2009 Nationwide Tour money list to grab the last guaranteed spot at the PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament. Made the cut in half of his 22 starts, with seven top-25 finishes and four top-10s. First top-10 of the year came at the Fort Smith Classic, where he finished T3 with three others, one shot out of a playoff. Was T9 at both the Cox Classic in Omaha and the Albertsons Boise Open. Finished T2 at the Miccosukee Championship and earned enough money to move from No. 64 to No. 41 on the money list and qualify for the season-ending Nationwide Tour Championship at Daniel Island in South Carolina. Moved up one spot on the money list, thanks to his T14 effort...Made the cut in nine of 15 starts in 2008, with three top-10 finishes. Made the cut in just one of first seven starts but then closed the season with eight consecutive cuts made. Shot four sub-70 rounds, including a final-round 67, the low round of the day, to finish T7 at the Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open. Got into the Utah Championship as an alternate then shot a pair of 66s on the weekend for a career-best T2 finish. Continued his good late-season play with a T4 at the Oregon Classic...Made the cut in 14 of 22 starts on Tour in 2007, with four top-25 finishes. Ended the season No. 82 on the money list, with $72,793. Posted top-10 finishes at the Mark Christopher Charity Classic (a career-best T5) and the Livermore Valley Wine Country Championship (T6)...Made the cut in 10 of 23 starts in 2005, with a career-best T15 at the Albertsons Boise Open—just the second top-25 outing of his career. Previous best was a T17 at the 2001 Inland Empire Open. Finished the year No. 134 on the money list. Made the cut in one of 11 starts during his rookie season, with only cut made a T52 at the Alabama Classic. Was a winner on the AG Spanos Tour in 2006, but season was cut short with a wrist injury, having to take six weeks off and not playing until two weeks before the Final Stage of Q-School. Has also played on the Gateway Tour in recent years. Victory at the 2004 Gateway Tour Championship—which he calls his biggest thrill in golf—was one of five career wins on that Tour. A final-round 65 helped him overcome a seven-shot deficit on the last day for that win. Leading money-winner of the Gateway Tour's Pacific Series that season, with nine cuts in 10 starts. In addition to his win, he had a pair of T2 and T5 finishes.

PERSONAL:

His uncle, Ernie Gonzalez, won the PGA TOUR's 1986 Pensacola Open and played on TOUR from 1985-90. Attended Coronada High School in California. Biggest thrill outside of golf is being a father. Favorite food is ribs.

His solid play spilled over into the next event, the Stadion Athens Classic, where he posted three of four rounds in the 60s to finish third.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

Member of the Nationwide Tour in 1999 and 2006-10. Ended the 2009 Nationwide Tour season No. 42 on the money list after making the cut in 12 of his 21 starts and had a half-dozen top-25 finishes. Earned his first career title with a playoff win at the Northeast Pennsylvania Classic in late August. Enjoyed a bogey-free weekend, posting scores of 63-64 to finish at 15-under-par 265 and tied with Mathias Gronberg, who also carded 64 in Sunday's final round at Elmhurst CC. Christian and Gronberg tied the Nationwide Tour record for the longest playoff when they needed nine holes to determine a winner. The two repeated the uphill, par-4 18th hole each time in the overtime session. The first eight holes of the playoff were halved with two-putt pars before Gronberg missed a par putt from 20 feet on the ninth extra hole. Christian, who hit a driver and 6-iron all nine times in the playoff, then rolled in a 5-foot birdie putt to end matters. The win was worth $94,500 for the Englishman and jumped him to No. 23 on the money list at the time. Made the cut in only two of six starts following his win. Finished the year No. 3 in Greens in Regulation. Had a pair of top-10 finishes among his 17 cuts made in 2008. Closed the year by making seven straight cuts but just barely failed to crack the top-60 (No. 63) on the money list... Made the cut in 17 of 27 starts on the 2007 Nationwide Tour, with seven top-25 finishes. Was No. 54 on the money list, with $116,570. Turned in a strong start to the season with a T7 finish at the Movistar Panama Championship and a T17 at the Jacob's Creek Open Championship. Fifth top-10 of his career came with a season-best T4 at the Livermore Valley Wine Country Championship when he ended the event three strokes behind winner Omar Uresti. Capped his top-10 finishes with a T5 at the Rochester Area Charities Showdown at Somerby. Ended the season ranked fourth in Greens in Regulation (73.67 percent)... Made the cut in 12 of 24 starts on Tour in 2006, tallying three top-10 finishes. Ended the season No. 58 on the money list, with $110,875. Making his 35th career start on the Nationwide Tour, collected his first top-10 finish with an impressive runner-up showing at the Knoxville Open. Finished the tournament at 14-under 274, five strokes behind champion Hunter Haas. Collected a career-best $41,800 for his play. Three starts later posted a T8 at the Scholarship America Showdown at Somerby. Solidified his spot in the Nationwide Tour Championship with solid showings in his last two starts—a T18 at the PalmettoPride Classic and a T10 at the Miccosukee Championship. The latter was set after he took the opening-round lead with a 7-under 64. Shared the lead after the first round of the Nationwide Tour Championship before eventually finishing T22. Made the cut in 11 of 24 starts during his rookie year in 1999, tallying four top-25 finishes. Career-best T13 came at the Inland Empire Open. BEST 2010 NATIONWIDE TOUR FINISHES: T3—Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational; T4—Melwood Prince George's County Open.

BEST PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH: T9—2008 Mayakoba Golf Classic at Riviera Maya-Cancun.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in 24 events and made 11 cuts. Best performance came at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational, where he finished T3. Finished No. 74 on the money list. Posted his first top-10 of the year, at the Melwood Prince George's County Open, in his 10th start. His T4 is his best performance since he won the 2007 Xerox Classic in Rochester, NY—his third win of that season which led to a PGA TOUR promotion. Held the 54-hole lead at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational but managed only a 1-under 70 on the final day to finish T3.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

Made just four cuts in 13 starts during the 2009 Nationwide Tour season with his best effort a T6 at the Stonebrae Classic. . . Made the cut in 16 of 29 starts during his rookie season on the 2008 PGA TOUR. Recorded his first top-10, a T9 at the Mayakoba Golf Classic, thanks to a final-round 64. Held a share of the 36- and 54-hole leads, including a second-round, career-low 63, at the U.S. Bank Championship. Finished with an even-par 70 to T11. . . Made the cut in 12 of 17 starts during the 2007 Nationwide Tour season, with six top-25 finishes. Finished the season No. 3 on the money list, with $369,951. Opened the year with a T8 at the Jacob's Creek Open Championship and a T16 at the New Zealand PGA Championship, but otherwise had a sluggish start to the season. Finished in a four-way tie with Bryn Parry, Roland Thatcher and Chris Baryla at the Henrico County Open. Went on to birdie the third extra hole for his first Tour victory, making him the 50th international winner in Tour history and the 19th from Australia. Collected $81,000 to move into the top 10 on the money list—a position he wouldn't relinquish the rest of the year. Came back in his next start to win the BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs, making him the first player since Jason Gore in 2005 to win in back-to-back starts. The $117,000 first-place check moved him into the top money-list spot on Tour. The win also came with a new BMW X5 Sports Activity Vehicle, the first car owned by Flanagan and the first given to the winner of a Nationwide Tour event. Played solid the following week as well, finishing T5 at the Melwood Prince George's County Open. A planned two-week summer break to Australia turned into a month hiatus, thanks to an unscheduled hernia operation. Made the cut in his first five events upon his return, culminating with a final-round, 7-under 63 and a seven-stroke comeback in the final round to win the Xerox Classic, giving him three come-from-behind wins in 2007 and making him the eighth player in Tour history to earn the Three-Win Promotion to the PGA TOUR. Earned $108,000 with the victory, moving into second on the Tour money list. Two-time winner of the Tour's Player of the Month award, doing so in May and sharing the honor with Justin Bolli in August. . . Made the cut in nine of 24 starts during his rookie season on the 2006 Nationwide Tour, with two top-10 finishes. Completed the season No. 32 on the money list, with $169,812. Played well in both events Down Under, placing third at the Jacob's Creek Open Championship, followed by a T21 at the ING New Zealand PGA Championship. Posted a career-best runner-up finish at the Price Cutter Charity Championship, where rounds of 69-63-64-67 led to a 25-under total, two strokes behind champion Doug LaBelle II. Final 54-hole score of 22-under 194 equaled the best of the season to that point. Posted seven consecutive birdies on Nos. 2-8 during the third round, just one shy of the season-best set by Tim Wilkinson. Was T34 at the 2005 Lake Erie Charity Classic in his only made cut in two career starts prior to 2006. . . Member of the Australasian Tour from 2004-06.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

Member of the Nationwide Tour in 1999-2004, 2006-07 and 2009. Member of the PGA TOUR in 2008. Made four cuts in nine starts during an abbreviated season on the Nationwide Tour in 2009. Was T10 at the Michael Hill New Zealand Open, where he became only the second player in Nationwide Tour history to make a hole-in-one on a par-4. He aced the 347-yard, 15th hole in the final round using a driver. Johnson won a pallet of beer from tournament sponsor Heineken, which equates to 1,500 bottles. He joins Chip Beck (2003 Omaha Classic) as the only ones to accomplish the feat on the Nationwide Tour. Made only two starts after April and did not play at all after June due to an injury to his right elbow...Made the cut in nine of 29 starts during his rookie season on the PGA TOUR in 2008. Best finish was a T27 at the Turning Stone Resort Championship. Late in the year, represented Wales (with teammate Bradley Dredge) at the OMEGA Mission Hills World Cup in China...Made the cut in 17 of 25 tournaments in 2007, including nine top-25 finishes. Finished the season No. 1 on the money list, with $445,421. Posted eight top-10 finishes on the season. Posted the 10th top-10 finish of his career with a T7 effort at the season-opening Movistar Panama Championship, entering the final round two strokes behind Franklin Langham and eventually finishing second to Langham by that same number of strokes. Finally broke through with a win at the Mark Christopher Charity Classic. Playing in the final group for the fifth time of the season, posted a 67 Sunday to overcome a one-stroke deficit and collect the $94,500 first-place prize, guaranteeing his first ticket to the PGA TOUR. Sealed the victory with a birdie-4 on the first extra hole to defeat Matthew Jones and Jeremy Anderson. Took over the top spot on the money list in the final event of the season, recording a 20-under 264 to win the Nationwide Tour Championship at Barona Creek by one stroke over Michael Letzig. The win was worth a career-best $139,500. Other top-10 finish came at the Showdown at Somerby, finishing T5...Made the cut in 12 of 21 starts on the 2006 Nationwide Tour, with three top-10 finishes. Completed the season No. 59 on the money list, with $107,834. His T5 at the BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs represented his best Nationwide Tour showing since winning the 2000 Monterey Peninsula Classic. Held a one-stroke lead after 54 holes before eventually falling by three to champion Ken Duke. Nine starts later finished T3 at the Xerox Classic—where he held a two-stroke lead through two rounds—followed by a T8 effort at the Northeast Pennsylvania Classic...Made the cut in just one of 13 starts in 2004, finishing T19 at the BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs. Struggled through the 2003 campaign, making the cut in just two of 17 tournaments. A T26 at the LaSalle Bank Open was his top performance. Finished the 2002 season No. 145 on the money list, with $17,662...Made the cut in seven of 25 tournaments. Only top-25 performance was T19 at the Albertsons Boise Open. Made the cut in five of his first 11 events in 2001 before his season was cut short when he broke a bone in his wrist at the Dayton Open. Earned his second career win by taking the inaugural 2000 Monterey Peninsula Classic. Was tied for 61st after opening-round 75, eight strokes behind leader Conrad Ray. Second-round 71 moved him to a tie for 17th but still eight shots behind leader Pat Perez. Third-day 71 got him into a tie for eighth place, seven strokes back of Perez. Charged to his second win with a closing 68 to defeat Michael Allen by one shot. Comeback from seven shots was the largest on Tour in 2000. At the time it matched the third-best come-from-behind effort in Tour history. His winning score of 285 was the highest by a tournament winner in 2000. His opening 75 was also the highest start by a tournament winner that year. First top-10 finish came at the Wichita Open, where he T4 to earn $17,600 and jump to No. 81 on the money list...Made the cut in eight of his last 13 events, earning nearly 94 percent of his season total in that span. Playing just 50 miles from his home in The Woodlands, TX, posted the best final round in Nationwide Tour Championship history with a 6-under 66 to storm back from six shots down to defeat third-round leader Matt Kuchar and Andrew Buckle by one shot. Sealed the win with chip-ins for par on No. 17 and for birdie on the final hole. The six-shot comeback was the largest in Nationwide Tour Championship history. His jump of 21 spots to earn a TOUR card is second only to David Branshaw's climb of 22 spots in 2005. Earlier in year, lost in a four-man playoff at the Yes! Golf BCR Classic on the Canadian Tour in early March. From 2003-05, made a combined one of 10 cuts on the PGA TOUR (0-2) and Nationwide Tour (1-8). . . Lost in a playoff to Fran Quinn at the 1999 Dakota Dunes Open and finished T2 with Ryan Howison to match his best career finish. Rounding out his five runner-up finishes on the Nationwide Tour were near-misses at the 1995 Boise Open, 1996 Wichita Open and 1998 South Carolina Classic. Tied the Three Ridges GC course record with a 9-under-par 63 in the opening round of the 1998 Knoxville Open. Second-round 61 in 1994 Miami Valley Open equaled low round of the year on Tour and is course record at Heatherwoode GC. A member of the Nationwide Tour in 1999-2001, 2003-08 and 2010. Member of the PGA TOUR for the first time in 2009, making the cut in six of 21 starts. A T54 at The 50th Bob Hope Classic was his best finish. Had just two career starts on TOUR prior to 2009, missing the cut at the 1990 Hardee's Golf Classic and the 1991 U.S. Open. Earned his status on the PGA TOUR after placing 12th on the 2008 Nationwide Tour money list, with $284,922. Collected his first top-10 finish of the season with a solo-third place effort at the rain-shortened HSBC New Zealand PGA Championship. Finished at 8-under 136, two shots shy of tournament victor Darron Stiles. Earned his second career win with a playoff victory over Chris Anderson at the $1-million Nationwide Tour Players Cup. Posted an 8-under 64 to grab the first-day lead at the Pete Dye GC in West Virginia. Held the third-round lead and posted an even-par 72 to finish at 15-under 273. Needed only a bogey on the first extra hole to secure the win. His $180,000 first-place check was the largest to date and propelled him from No. 46 to No. 3 on the money list. Win secured a spot in "The 25," allowing him to move onto the PGA TOUR in 2009 and avoid attempting to qualify via Q-school, which he has done 19 times. Was the July Player of the Month...Made the cut in 15 of 29 starts in 2007, with seven top-25 finishes. Ended the season No. 55 on the money list, with $114,325. Got up and down on the 72nd hole to record a one-stroke victory over Andrew Pratt in the inaugural Xerox Classic for his first Tour win. Finished with a tournament-record 11-under-par 269 total at the Irondequoit CC and collected $99,000. The first-place check helped him jump from No. 117 to No. 26 on the season money list at the time...Made the cut in 13 of 28 starts in 2004, including three top-25 finishes. Ranked No. 57 on the final money list, with $104,008. Made the cut in 13 of 23 events on the 2003 Nationwide Tour. Wrapped up the season with $70,307 and the No. 71 spot on the final money list...Made the cut in 14 of 23 starts on the 2001 Nationwide Tour, with four top-25 finishes. Made the cut in eight of 19 events in 2000, with two top-25 finishes, both T19 showings. Finished 14th on the 1999 TearDrop Tour money list. Won the 1999 New Bern Classic in North Carolina. Has 20 mini-tour wins...Qualified for the 1991 U.S. Open at Hazeltine in Minnesota. Posted rounds of 77-74 to miss the cut. Was an assistant golf professional before becoming a touring pro.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS:

Played 27 Nationwide Tour events and made 12 cuts. Best performance of the year came at the season-opening Michael Hill New Zealand Open, where he finished sixth. Ended the year No. 91 on the money list.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

Made the cut in 10 of 25 starts during his rookie season on the 2009 PGA TOUR. Finished the season No. 159 on the official money list, with top-25 finishes at the Travelers Championship (T7) and the U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee (T15). Was one of four players to ace the 15th hole at the RBC Canadian Open (Arjun Atwal, Briny Baird and Leif Olson). His par-3 heroics won him a BMW Z4 convertible. It was his second hole-in-one of 2009, the first coming at the Sony Open in Hawaii...Missed the cut in both starts on the Nationwide Tour...Earned PGA TOUR privileges after placing 15th on the 2008 Nationwide Tour money list. Earned his first top-10 of the year with a third-place finish at the Athens Regional Foundation Classic. Started the final round five shots back of the leaders and posted a 67 to move within one shot of a playoff between Robert Damron and Greg Owen. Also finished third at the Bank of America Open, where a four-day total of 13-under 275 left him just three strokes behind champion Kris Blanks. The finish in Chicago was his sixth top-20 in his last eight starts of the season. Held a one-stroke lead over Justin Hicks entering the final round of the Ford Wayne Gretzky Classic, but a bogey on the 71st hole—combined with a birdie by Hicks—led to a tie at 17-under. Despite losing in the playoff, he cashed a check for $86,410. Four sub-70 rounds earned him a T6 at the Cox Classic. Shot 64 in the second round of Nationwide Tour Championship at TPC Craig Ranch and finished T25. Earned $271,919 for 15th position on the final money list. Played in the Viking Classic on the PGA TOUR on a sponsor's exemption and posted a 3-under 69 Sunday to finish a career-best T4. His previous best effort on TOUR (in 25 career starts) was a T13 finish at the 2004 Masters Tournament when he was an amateur. With his top-10 finish in Madison, he earned a spot in the field at the next TOUR full-field event, the Turning Stone Resort Championship, where he finished T43...His T13 finish at the 2004 Masters, with even-par 288, was the lowest finish by an amateur at the Masters since Charlie Coe's ninth-place effort in 1962. Was T36 that season in the U.S. Open. Described the week in the following way, "Every move I made was a dream come true."

AMATEUR CAREER:

Appearance in Augusta set up by runner-up finish at the 2003 U.S. Amateur at Oakmont CC, falling on the first playoff hole to Nick Flanagan. Earned second-team All-America honors in 2004. Member of the U.S. Walker Cup team in 2004.

PERSONAL:

Is a big fan of "House," a show he tries to never miss. Says Tokyo is his favorite city to visit. Favorite food is steak, medium-rare. "I'm a red-meat Southern boy." The first Web site he visits each morning is weather.com. Splits college football allegiances between LSU and his alma mater, Oklahoma State.

A black and white photograph of golfer Hunter Haas in the middle of his golf swing. He is wearing a white cap with a logo, a dark polo shirt with thin horizontal stripes, and light-colored trousers with a dark belt. He is holding a golf club with both hands, and the club head is at the top of the backswing. The background is blurred, showing a crowd of spectators.

In 2010, Hunter Haas picked up his third and fourth career Nationwide Tour wins—at the Price Cutter Charity Championship and the Albertsons Boise Open.

NOTES

Justin Hicks earned his second career title with a two-stroke win at the BMW Charity Pro-Am. Hicks carded a 5-under 66 in the final round and posted a 20-under 266 total to beat Kevin Chappell, Tommy Gainey, Chris Kirk and Jamie Lovemark. Hicks, playing in the final pairing, held a one-stroke lead over five others when a late afternoon thunderstorm halted play just after he hit his tee shot on the 18th hole. Following an hour delay, Hicks returned to the fairway and stuffed a 7-iron shot from 173 yards to within 3 feet of the cup. He rolled in the birdie putt to give him the final margin and collect the $99,000 first-place check.

Kevin Chappell bogeyed the final hole but still managed to finish in a four-way tie for second place. Chappell, winner of the Fresh Express Classic at TPC Stonebrae a month earlier, still earned $39,600, which was enough to jump him to the No. 1 spot on the money list. Chappell displaced Bobby Gates, who had held the No. 1 spot since winning the season-opening Michael Hill New Zealand Open.

Scott Sterling aced the 191-yard, sixth hole using a 7-iron. Sterling shot a 9-under 62, the low round of the final round. The hole-in-one was the fourth in competition for Sterling and the first since the second round of the 2004 LaSalle Bank Open.

The team of pro Scott Gutschewski and amateur Rolf Klam won the pro-am portion of the tournament, finishing at 47-under par, four shots better than pro Rob Oppenheim and Major League Baseball Hall of Famer Jim Rice.

The Rex Hospital Open

NOTES

John Riegger earned his second career title, at the weather-shortened Rex Hospital Open. Riegger posted scores of 66-64-63 for a 20-under par and a five-stroke lead after 54 holes. His 193 score bettered the tournament record by four shots. The start of Sunday's final round was delayed three hours by a storm that dumped nearly three-quarters of an inch of rain on the course. The first groups had barely been on the course for 90 minutes when another storm forced a stop in play. Riegger was 20 minutes from his tee time when play was halted. Tournament officials canceled the final round, giving Riegger his first victory since the 2007 LaSalle Bank Open.

John Riegger's five-stroke margin of victory was the largest in the tournament's 17-year history. Over the first 16 years, there had never been a winning margin of more than two strokes (six times). Four of the tournaments required a playoff and five were decided by a single stroke.

John Riegger's five-stroke lead after 54 holes matched the largest on Tour in 2010. Fran Quinn also led by five at the Panama CLARO Championship, which he went on to win.

The last time a tournament was reduced to 54 holes was the 2005 Oregon Classic, where the fourth round never got underway. Jeff Gove was the winner there.

The last time a tournament was reduced to 54 holes after the fourth round had begun was the 2002 Nationwide Tour Championship. Heavy rains forced the cancellation of the final round after play had started and 54-hole leader Patrick Moore was declared the tournament champion.

Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open

NOTES

Kyle Thompson had a 5-foot putt for eagle on No. 18 that would have given him a 62. He settled for birdie and a final-round 63. It was the second time in a week that he had shot a 63. He opened the Cox Classic with a 63 in Omaha. Thompson also had a final-round 63 at the Fort Smith Classic earlier in the season, where he finished second. Thompson tied for 17th in Wichita.

Nineteen players had four rounds in the 60s in 2010. They were Ryan Armour, Adam Bland, Jonas Blixt, Dan Buchner, Paul Claxton, Bubba Dickerson, Scott Dunlap, Hunter Haas, Chris Kamin, Chris Kirk, Kevin Kisner, Doug LaBelle II, Jin Park, Stephen Poole, Michael Putnam, David Robinson, Daniel Summerhays, Tjaart van der Walt and champion Jhonattan Vegas.

In two Preferred Health Systems Wichita Opens, Jhonattan Vegas has tied for fourth (2009) and won (2010). He's had seven of his eight rounds in the 60s, and he has a stroke average of 66.87.

The par-4 sixth hole at Crestview Country Club was the most-difficult hole in 2010. The final-round stroke average there was 4.368, a little higher than the cumulative 4.240. The five birdies there came from Jeff Curl, Scott Dunlap, Bob May, John Riegger and Kyle Thompson, who birdied it in the third and final rounds.

Daniel Summerhays had an interesting final round, punctuated by his eagle on No. 18, the second eagle he had on his back nine Sunday. Summerhays began his final round the same way he did Saturday—with three consecutive birdies. He added two more birdies along the way, and also had seven pars, two bogeys and two double bogeys to get to a 3-under 68 and a tie-for-fourth finish.

NOTES

Chris Kirk birdied the final two holes and earned his second win of the year. Kirk fired a final-round 67 to finish at 20-under par to finish two shots better than Travis Bertoni and three in front of Matt Davidson and veteran Kirk Triplett. Kirk began the last round at 15-under and held a one-shot lead over Triplett. The 25-year old Georgia grad turned the front nine in even par and lost possession of the lead but rallied with five birdies on the back for the win.

Chris Kirk celebrated his win Sunday but he and his wife, Tahnee, also celebrated their one-year wedding anniversary.

Steve Pate put together an interesting round of 1-under 71 Sunday. Pate, winner of the Pacific Rubiales Bogota Open earlier in the year, posted 9-hole scores of 42-29 to tie for 42nd. Pate hit tee shots out of bounds on both the first and ninth holes to make double bogeys. He turned things around by chipping in for eagle at the par-5, 10th from 25 yards. He closed his day with three consecutive birdies, the last one from 30 feet.

Steve Pate's final-round, 7-under 29 on the back nine matched the lowest final-nine score in tournament history. Gary Woodland set the mark with a 29 in this year's second round.

Jim Herman eagled the final hole Sunday to move into a tie for seventh place. It was only his second top-10 finish of the year and his first since winning the Moonah Classic in Australia in February.

Rookie Andrew Svoboda birdied the final two holes Sunday to tie for seventh, his first career top-10 on the Nationwide Tour. He aced the par-3, 16th hole Saturday. Svoboda used a 7-iron from 178 yards for his hole-in-one.

NOTES

Hunter Haas became the Tour's fourth two-time winner in 2010 when he fired a 7-under 64 to come from behind and win. Haas made up three shots on 54-hole leader Daniel Summerhays and eventually took the lead with a 20-foot birdie putt on the par-5 16th hole. Haas finished at 21-under par to win by one.

Jamie Lovemark shot a final-round 64 to tie for seventh, his eighth top-10 finish of the year. Lovemark earned enough to vault over Chris Kirk and retake the No. 1 spot on the money list.

Daniel Summerhays finished second for the second time in 2010. Summerhays parred the last 14 holes Sunday but came up one stroke short of forcing a playoff. Despite the finish, Summerhays earned enough to jump from No. 17 to No. 8 on the money and assure himself a spot on the PGA TOUR in 2011.

Bradley Iles tied the Nationwide Tour's all-time record for most eagles in a tournament, with five. Iles had three eagles on par-5s in the second round and then added two more during the third round. He matched the mark set by Chris Smith at the 1997 Omaha Classic. Iles became the 16th player to register three eagles in a round when he accomplished the feat in the second round. Iles eagled three par-5s during the day. He started his round on the back nine and rolled in a 30-footer for eagle at No. 16. He added back-to-back eagles at Nos. 2 and 3 to put his name in the record books. He also became the first player in the 21-year history of the tournament to make three eagles in a round.

Hunter Haas completed the "supermarket sweep" with his win in Boise. Haas' two tournament wins came in tournaments sponsored by supermarket groups Price Cutter and Albertsons.

Hunter Haas matched the tournament record with his winning score of 21-under 263. Haas equaled the mark set by Jon Mills in 2007.

NOTES

Nate Smith earned his first Nationwide Tour title with a two-stroke victory over Argentinean Fabian Gomez, Texan Brandt Jobe and Australian Alistair Presnell. Jobe, playing in the group in front of Smith, was tied with Smith at 17-under entering the 72nd hole. It started to look like a playoff would decide the 2010 winner, but Jobe lipped out a 10-foot par putt to join clubhouse leaders Gomez and Presnell at 16-under. Smith hit his 3-iron approach shot from 221 yards in the right rough to 35 feet above the hole. Smith needed two putts for the win, but he rolled it in for birdie and claimed the largest paycheck of his career, $94,500, to finish at 18-under.

Nate Smith became the Tour's 12th first-time winner in 24 2010 events. Smith tied for fifth in Greens in Regulation for the week, hitting 55 of 72. He tied for fourth in Total Putts, with 107.

Nate Smith fired a 5-under 67 in the first round and was one shot back of first-round co-leaders Brenden Pappas and Ron Whittaker. Smith remained no more than three strokes off the pace after each round. Entering the final round, Smith was two strokes back of the 54-hole leader Darron Stiles, but he made up the ground Sunday by posting a 6-under 66.

Nationwide Tour Championship at Daniel Island

Nationwide Tour Championship
at Daniel Island

NOTES

Brendan Steele rolled in an 8-foot birdie putt on the fourth playoff hole to defeat Colt Knost and win the season-ending Nationwide Tour Championship. Steele began the final round with a five-stroke lead but managed only a 1-over 73 to finish at 13-under 275. Knost was the only player to make a run at the leader, and his 4-under 68 put pressure on Steele throughout the afternoon. Steele's win was the first of his career and was worth $180,000, pushing him from No. 30 to No. 6 on the final money list and earning him a trip to the 2011 PGA TOUR.

Brendan Steele became the fourth player in tournament history to make the Tour Championship his first career victory. Steele joined Steve Flesch (1997), Nick Watney (2004) and Matt Every (2009) in that category.

The four-hole playoff was the third in Tour Championship history. The other playoffs came in 1995 when Allen Doyle defeated John Maginnes and in 1999 when Bob Heintz defeated Marco Dawson. Both of the previous playoffs lasted one hole.

The playoff was the fifth on the 2010 Nationwide Tour, and it matched the longest of the year. The Chattanooga Classic also needed four extra holes to decide a winner.

Colt Knost's runner-up finish was worth $108,000 and earned him enough money to return to the PGA TOUR in 2011. Knost jumped from No. 36 to No. 15 on the money list and joined 24 other players who graduated to the Tour.

Paul Claxton made a record ninth appearance in the Tour Championship. Claxton finished at 5-under 283 and was solo 10th in Charleston. Jeff Gove and John Elliott shared the previous record of eight appearances in the tournament.

Charity: "Together, anything's possible"

Together, anything's possible.®

Making a positive impact on the communities where PGA TOUR tournaments are held and players live has become an even larger focus in the golf organization's charitable mission with the "Together, anything's possible" campaign.

The charitable effort was celebrated in late 2005 when the PGA TOUR and its tournaments reached the "Drive to a Billion" milestone. That cumulative effect, since the first donation in 1938, has reached more than $1.6 billion entering 2011—including more than $1 billion in the last 15 years—and is the cornerstone of the "Together, anything's possible" campaign. The forecast is for the second billion-dollar mark to be reached within approximately the next five years.

During THE PLAYERS Championship in May 2009, the TOUR unveiled its renewed commitment to charitable efforts aimed at further energizing and engaging all players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans.

"The PGA TOUR has done a lot for charity over the years but only because of the passion for giving back shared by our players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans," PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem said. "When we say, 'Together, anything's possible,' we mean that by rallying behind the common cause of charitable giving, we can create greater awareness and elevate our overall impact, which is so important in these difficult economic times."

A full-scale launch of "Together, anything's possible" began in 2010.

PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events annually benefit more than 3,000 charities and countless individuals worldwide. Research shows that the majority of the funds raised each year are directly funneled back into the local market, so while there is not an "official charity of the PGA TOUR," there are many who benefit from the TOUR's one goal of "Giving Back."

STRUCTURE

Unlike any other professional sports organization, the PGA TOUR relies on more than 100,000 volunteers a year to run its events, and most of the 100-plus tournaments are structured as non-profit organizations designed to donate 100 percent of net proceeds to local charities. Beneficiaries include hospitals, youth-development organizations, growth-of-the-game programs and food banks. In addition, military support and fundraising for natural-disaster relief are apparent.

"Together, anything's possible" aims to organize the beneficiaries into a national network. The TOUR and its sanctioned tournaments will connect with each of these charities to begin communicating details of this platform.

TOURNAMENTS

In the "Together, anything's possible" campaign, the TOUR will assist tournaments in maximizing their charitable impact. The TOUR will work with tournaments to benchmark specific charity initiatives where feasible and expand proven activities across all Tours.

In The Presidents Cup, there is no purse, yet revenues are divided into equal shares that the participating players and Captains designate for charities of their choice, totaling nearly $22 million in the eight playings of the event through the 2009 event in San Francisco.

In 2010, the Nationwide Tour's charitable contributions were led by the Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational ($1,942,500), Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open presented by Planters, which set a first-year record ($1,600,000), Albertsons Boise Open presented by Kraft ($1,000,000), Price Cutter Charity Championship presented by Dr Pepper ($712,220) and BWM Charity Pro-Am presented by SYNEX ($655,041).

PLAYERS

Players reach out to help considerably through charitable efforts in their home communities and elsewhere.

Under the "Together, anything's possible" platform, the TOUR commits resources to further promote each player's charitable activities, whether through television, advertising, PGATOUR.COM and video or new media support that will enable fans to get involved in their favorite players' charities. The TOUR will offer assistance to both players, who are currently engaged in charitable activities, as well as those who are interested in getting started.

"I am very excited that the TOUR will be helping us all make a bigger impact on our communities," said David Toms. "Two days after Hurricane Katrina hit, I sent an email to about 200 people and asked if they would be interested in supporting the cause. I thought we would be able to raise a little money and help a few more families. The response to that simple email was overwhelming. We had to get volunteers to help answer the phones, and within hours of an interview I did during a PGA TOUR broadcast, over 1,000 online donations crashed our system. It wasn't long before we had raised over $1.5 million. That is an example of how we, as players, can help our communities and charities in times of need. This new, elevated charity platform will be an asset to all players who want to pitch in and make a difference."

Support of the United States military has been quite evident. The AT&T National in Philadelphia, PA, honors the United States Armed Forces by offering free admission to all military personnel and holding various events around the tournament.

Phil Mickelson began a "Birdies for the Brave" program in 2004 that continues to donate $100 for each birdie and $500 for each eagle he makes in competition and benefits "Homes for Our Troops" and "Special Operations Warrior Foundation." Numerous other players are affiliated with organizations that assist wounded veterans and their families.

In June 2010, Jim McGlothlin, a member of the PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties Board, organized "The Big 3 for the Mountain Mission Kids," a one-day tournament featuring Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player. This event, which benefited the Mountain Mission School, raised an astounding $15.2 million in a single day.

There is an exciting, new "Together, anything's possible" initiative in 2011. Country music star Darius Rucker has written a song "Together, Anything is Possible," in which proceeds from downloads will be distributed to PGA TOUR Charities, The First Tee and Birdies for the Brave.

The players' wives are also fully involved in giving back. The PGA TOUR Wives Association was a 2008 recipient of one of Golf Magazine's 10 Innovator Awards for its charitable nature and positive impact on tournament host cities. Since its incorporation in 1988, the PGA TOUR Wives Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money and giving back much to the game of golf through personal time and monetary contributions.

FANS

The TOUR has developed a call-to-action plan that allows fans to rally behind charities supported by its players and tournaments, allowing them to enhance lives by giving of their time or making contributions.

While many tournaments already have an effective outreach to their fans, the TOUR will develop an overarching communications plan that will add support on a national level. The TOUR launched PGATOUR.COM/together in 2010 so that fans learn more about the charitable involvement of their favorite players, tournaments or charities. This site enables fans to donate money and identify volunteer opportunities that directly benefit local charities. The TOUR will invest substantial internal resources, including an ad campaign, to promote the call to action.

The first full year of "Together, anything's possible" showed the breadth and depth of our collective charitable efforts with the new charity web site featuring more than 300 stories and videos about the wonderful work being done in communities around the globe.

    - i. A limited number of "inside-the-ropes" photo credentials will be issued daily as determined by the PGA TOUR Media Official on site for practice and competition rounds and will permit the wearer access inside the ropes. Note that being issued an "inside the ropes" photo credential during practice rounds provides no guarantee of being issued a photo credential (inside or outside the ropes) during competition days.
    - ii.   - f. No photograph shall be taken until a player completes his swing/stroke.
  - g. Players should not be asked to pose during a round.
  - h. Cameras are not permitted in the scoring tent or in the locker room.
9. Assumption of Risk. By entering onto the grounds of a Tournament, Bearer and Authorized Outlet assume all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and release the Tournament and its host site, sponsors, host organization, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases to the full extent such release is permitted under applicable law.
10. Indemnification. Bearer and Authorized Outlet shall indemnify, defend and hold each Tournament and its host site, sponsors, host organization, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof harmless from and against any and all liabilities, damages, injuries, claims, suits, judgments, causes of action, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and out-of-pocket expenses) suffered or incurred as a result of any breach of any obligation, negligence or misconduct of Bearer or Authorized Outlet hereunder and/or Bearer and Authorized Outlet's access to the Tournament.
