A Message to the Media

On behalf of the PGA TOUR, welcome to the 2013-14 PGA TOUR season.

helped improve countless numbers of lives through PGA TOUR charities.

Tim Finchem Commissioner

In its seventh year in 2013, the FedExCup gained momentum as well as history. From seasoned players like Phil Mickelson, Hunter Mahan and Steve Stricker—the only players to have qualified for the Playoff finale every year since the series' inception in 2007—to players who have known no other TOUR structure than that of the FedExCup, like Brandt Snedeker and Keegan Bradley, achieving FedExCup success has become part of every PGA TOUR player's goals for his season. Henrik Stenson thrilled fans at the 2013 TOUR Championship by winning both the tournament and the FedExCup.

We appreciate and respect your role in bringing our game closer to the fans through the many media platforms now available.

For the first time, the TOUR embarks on a wraparound schedule which bridges two years, with 45 events over 43 weeks. The 2013-14 PGA TOUR Season kicks off in early October, with the Frys.com Open, and includes two more domestic and three international tournaments, providing players with a great opportunity to get a jump in the FedExCup standings. The schedule then resumes in January with the traditional swing through Hawaii before moving to the West Coast. The FedExCup Playoffs once again features four events and concludes in September 2014 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and the crowning

The TOUR and its tournaments are expected to surpass $2 billion in all-time charitable giving in late 2013 or early 2014. With

Our communications staff looks forward to delivering the best possible service to you in the coming year.

The conclusion of the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola also marked the first time in the FedExCup era where all seasonending awards were to be determined immediately following the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, highlighted by Tiger Woods being voted the Jack Nicklaus Award winner for PGA TOUR Player of the Year and Jordan Spieth earning PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year honors.

Finally, we are extremely pleased with the evolution of the Web.com Tour as it successfully became the path to the PGA TOUR for 50 players.

Again, thank you for your continued coverage of the PGA TOUR. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2013-14 season.

Sincerely,

of the FedExCup champion.

PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 125 official-money tournaments on five tours—the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, NEC Series - PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and PGA TOUR Canada. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America. The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the TOUR but with their marguee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-tour co-sponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, N.J., oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (Ga.) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, oversees The Open Championship and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

PGA TOUR

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf tour, with 2013-14 official-money events beginning in October 2013 and ending in September 2014. This is the eighth season of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs.

TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, TNT

Competition Awards: FedExCup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money-winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Rookie of the Year, Courage Award (not annually)

CHAMPIONS TOUR

The Champions Tour continues to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and older with a fan-friendly platform that promotes "inside the ropes" and game-improvement for its fans. The Charles Schwab Cup, a season-long, points-based competition, enters its 12th season.

TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, ESPN2, TNT

WEB.COM TOUR

The Web.com Tour is the path to the PGA TOUR whereby all 50 TOUR cards now come via the Web.com Tour. Through 2013, 365 PGA TOUR titles have been won by former Web.com Tour players. Two-thirds of the 2013-14 PGA TOUR members had Web.com Tour roots.

TV: Golf Channel

Competition Awards: Jack Nicklaus Trophy (Player of the Year), 50 PGA TOUR cards awarded

NEC Series - PGA TOUR Latinoamérica

The NEC Series - PGA TOUR Latinoamérica is a professional golf tour created in 2012 by the PGA TOUR in collaboration with promoters and national golf federations in Latin America. The inaugural season in 2012 featured 11 tournaments between September and December in seven countries in the Latin American region: Mexico, Colombia, Brazil, Argentina, Peru, the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico. The Tour expanded to 14 events in nine countries in its second season, adding Uruguay and Chile. NEC signed on as umbrella sponsor of the Tour in April 2013. The leading money-winner is awarded the Roberto De Vicenzo Award, and the top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

PGA TOUR Canada

PGA TOUR Canada (formerly known as the Canadian Tour) is a professional golf tour consisting of nine events played across Canada. Since its inception as the Peter Jackson Tour in 1971, PGA TOUR Canada has evolved into a high-caliber, coast-to-coast training ground for professionals. Its alumni include not only the game's Canadian legends but also many of its most prominent international players, who have collectively won 115 PGA TOUR titles, through 2013. Nine, 72-hole stroke play events with purses of $150,000 took place across the country beginning in June 2013. The top-five moneywinners from the PGA TOUR Canada Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

FedExCup

Overview

The PGA TOUR entered a new era in 2007 with the introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition offering $35 million in bonus money and culminating with the PGA TOUR's first-ever Playoff system. In 2013-14, the four Playoffs events will offer $32 million in prize money, meaning a total of $67 million is on the line over the four weeks of FedExCup Playoff competition.

Over the span of 43 weeks of competition, players vie to become the FedExCup Champion, which distinguishes the one player who not only performs well during the 39-week PGA TOUR Season, but also excels through the pressure of the four-event FedExCup Playoffs. Tiger Woods won the inaugural FedExCup in 2007 and its $10-million top prize and won again in 2009. Others to hoist the FedExCup trophy include Vijay Singh (2008), Jim Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011), Brandt Snedeker (2012) and Henrik Stenson (2013).

During the PGA TOUR Season, TOUR members earn points based on their finish, with a strong emphasis placed on winning and high finishes. Once the PGA TOUR Season concludes, the top-125 players advance to the Playoffs, a series of four $8-million tournaments offering quintuple points relative to PGA TOUR Season events.

The Playoffs feature a progressive cut, beginning with The Barclays in New York (125 players), continuing with the Deutsche Bank Championship in Boston (100 players) and the BMW Championship in Denver (70 players). A reset takes place, seeding the top-30 players for the culminating TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in Atlanta, where the FedExCup Champion is crowned.

PGA TOUR Season

The 2013-14 PGA TOUR Season consists of 41 events in 39 weeks beginning in early October of 2013, with the Frys.com Open, and ending in mid-August of 2014 at the Wyndham Championship. Points are awarded at four levels:

- Official PGA TOUR events played during the PGA TOUR Season each award 500 FedExCup points to the winner.
- The Masters Tournament, THE PLAYERS Championship, U.S. Open, The Open Championship and the PGA Championship award 600 FedExCup points to the winner.
- World Golf Championships events award 550 FedExCup points to the
- Additional events (played the same week as other tournaments) award 300 FedExCup points to the winner.

The PGA TOUR Season points standings will carry over to the FedExCup Playoffs for the FedExCup.

FedExCup Playoffs

The FedExCup Playoffs consist of four events immediately following the PGA TOUR Season—The Barclays, Deutsche Bank Championship, BMW Championship and the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. The PGA TOUR Season points standings determine the top-125 players who qualify for the first event, The Barclays, held in New Jersey. Each playoff event offers 2,500 points (quintuple the PGA TOUR Season). The second event, the Deutsche Bank Championship in Boston, will have a 100-player field. The third tournament, the BMW Championship in Denver, will have 70 players (with no cut). The finale, the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in Atlanta, will be comprised of the top-30 qualifiers following the BMW Championship.

Following a points reset, those players will compete for the FedExCup with one to be crowned the FedExCup champion. Each tournament will have an $8-million purse in addition to the $35-million FedExCup bonus pool.

Note: In case of ties, reset points will be distributed between the tying positions using the same method for dealing with ties during events—the total points for each of the tying positions are divided equally among all players in the tying position. In the event that a player who qualifies for a Playoff event chooses not to play in that event, there will be no alternates and the field will be shortened. FedExCup points are subject to change.

A Brief History of the PGA TOUR

It is not easy to pinpoint the exact beginning of the PGA TOUR. Certainly, professionals have competed against each other from the earliest days of the game in the United States.

In 1895, 10 professional golfers and one amateur played in the first U.S. Open in Newport, R.I. Shortly thereafter, tournaments began to pop up across the country, including the Western Open in 1899. But this was not "tour" golf. The events lacked continuity.

Interest in the game, however, continued to grow. American professionals were rapidly improving. When John McDermott became the first American-born player to win the U.S. Open in 1911, interest in the game blossomed. That interest became enthusiasm in 1913 when Englishmen Harry Vardon and Ted Ray came to the United States to play an exhibition tour and compete in the U.S. Open. When 20-year-old amateur Francis Ouimet defeated the pair in a playoff for the Open at Brookline, Mass., golf became front-page news and a game for everyone.

In the early 1920s, a series of tournaments was held on the West Coast, in Texas and Florida. These events were held in the winter, and the golfers played their way east and up to Pinehurst, N.C., in the spring. By the middle of the decade, the tour was doing relatively well—offering $77,000 in total prize money.

The first "playing pros" organization was formed in 1932. Two years earlier, Bob Harlow had been named manager of the PGA Tournament Bureau. The tour became more structured following World War II and exploded in the late 1950s and early '60s. When Arnold Palmer, televised golf and President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived on the scene in the late 1950s, the eyes of the world were on golf. This exposure inspired millions to try the game.

Most golf historians trace the "formal" beginning of the PGA TOUR to late 1968, when the "Tournament Players Division" split from the PGA of America and hired Joe Dev as its first commissioner. That organization became the modern-day PGA TOUR. Dey served from early 1969 through February 28, 1974, and was succeeded by Deane R. Beman on March 1, 1974.

During Beman's administration, the value of tournament purses escalated at an unprecedented rate. PGA TOUR assets grew from $730,000 in 1974 to more than $200 million, and total revenues increased from $3.9 million to $229 million in 1993.

Tim Finchem, previously the TOUR's Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer, became the TOUR's third commissioner, on June 1, 1994. In 1995, Finchem undertook a restructuring program designed to strengthen the PGA TOUR's core business, its competitions, to expand the TOUR's international scope and to prepare it for the 21st century. In 1996, Finchem helped spearhead formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours, as golf's five world-governing bodies laid the groundwork for taking competition into the next millennium. In 1997, the Federation announced the World Golf Championships, which made its debut in 1999 with three events—today called the Accenture Match Play Championship, the Cadillac Championship and the Bridgestone Invitational. The HSBC Champions in China was added in 2009. The 2007 season marked the inception of the FedExCup, a season-long points race with four Playoff events to conclude the season and crown the FedExCup champion.

Since 1938, PGA TOUR events have donated nearly $2 billion to charity, with the $2 billion threshold expected to be surpassed late in 2013 or early 2014.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR also is much broader today. The Champions Tour, in its 34th season, has been labeled the most successful senior sports venture in history. Fans and television viewers are able to get closer to the game on this Tour, both on site and with instructional platforms. The Charles Schwab Cup will be contested for the 14th time in 2014.

The Web.com Tour has been recognized as the path to the PGA TOUR, as two out of three players on the 2013-14 PGA TOUR have Web.com Tour roots. Among the former players on the Web.com Tour who have gone on to star on the PGA TOUR include Tom Lehman, Jim Furyk, Ernie Els, Bubba Watson, Keegan Bradley and Jason Dufner. Through 2013, 365 PGA TOUR events have been won by former Web.com Tour players.

When the PGA TOUR opened TPC Sawgrass in 1980, it introduced the era of stadium golf and record-breaking attendance. Owned and/or operated by the TOUR, the TPC Network courses are the only major-league sports venues owned by the players themselves. The reworked PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass, with refurbished fairways and rebuilt greens and a new, enlarged clubhouse, debuted in May 2007 for THE PLAYERS Championship.

The successful debut of the FedExCup in 2007 was concluded by the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup, with Tiger Woods taking the inaugural FedExCup title. In the six subsequent years, Vijay Singh (2008), Woods (2009), Jim Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011), Brandt Snedeker (2012) and Henrik Stenson (2013) have claimed the season-ending FedExCup crown.

For the first time in 2013-14, the TOUR embarks on a wraparound schedule, bridging two calendar years, with 45 official events over 43 weeks, beginning with the Frys.com Open in October. The schedule also includes official events in Malaysia and China for the first time, awarding FedExCup points to the participants. The FedExCup Playoffs once again features four events and concludes with the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and the crowning of the 2014 FedExCup champion.

TPC Sawgrass hosts THE PLAYERS Championship each May.

Charity: "Together, anything's possible"

Together, anything's possible.

Making a positive impact on the communities where PGA TOUR tournaments are held and players live has become an even larger focus in the golf organization's charitable mission with the Together, anything's possible campaign.

The charitable effort was commemorated in late 2005 when the PGA TOUR and its tournaments reached the "Drive to a Billion" milestone.

That cumulative effect, since the first donation in 1938, reached more than $1.86 billion at the beginning of 2013—including more than $1 billion in the last 15 years—and is the cornerstone of the Together, anything's possible campaign. The forecast is for the TOUR to reach the second billion-dollar mark sometime in late 2013 or in early 2014 and is being celebrated in the "$2 Billion" & Beyond" campaign.

During THE PLAYERS Championship in May 2009, the TOUR unveiled its renewed commitment to charitable efforts aimed at further energizing and engaging all players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans.

"The PGA TOUR has done a lot for charity over the years but only because of the passion for giving back shared by our players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans," PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem said. "When we say, Together, anything's possible, we mean that by rallying behind the common cause of charitable giving, we can create greater awareness and elevate our overall impact, which is so important in these difficult economic

A full-scale launch of Together, anything's possible began in 2010.

PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Web.com Tour events annually benefit more than 3,000 charities and countless individuals worldwide. Research shows that the majority of the funds raised each year are directly funneled back into the local market, so while there is not an "official charity of the PGA TOUR," there are many who benefit from the TOUR's one goal of "Giving Back."

STRUCTURE

Unlike any other professional sports organization, the PGA TOUR relies on more than 100,000 volunteers a year to run its events, and most of the 100-plus tournaments are structured as non-profit organizations designed to donate 100 percent of net proceeds to local charities. Beneficiaries include hospitals, youth-development organizations, growth-of-the-game programs and food banks. In addition, military support and fundraising for natural-disaster relief are apparent.

Together, anything's possible aims to organize the beneficiaries into a national network. The TOUR and its sanctioned tournaments will connect with each of these charities to begin communicating details of this platform.

TOURNAMENTS

In the Together, anything's possible campaign, the TOUR will assist tournaments in maximizing their charitable impact. The TOUR will work with tournaments to benchmark specific charity initiatives where feasible and expand proven activities across all Tours.

In The Presidents Cup, there is no purse, yet revenues are divided into equal shares that the participating players and Captains designate for charities of their choice, totaling nearly $27 million in the nine playings of the event through the 2011 event.

PLAYERS

Players reach out to help considerably through charitable efforts in their home communities and elsewhere.

Under the Together, anything's possible platform, the TOUR has committed resources to further promote each player's charitable activities, whether through television, advertising, PGATOUR.COM and video or new media support that will enable fans to get involved in their favorite players' charities. The TOUR offers assistance to both players, who are currently engaged in charitable activities, as well as those who are interested in getting started.

"I feel like playing on the PGA TOUR almost comes second. What we get to do for charity, what the PGA TOUR gives back to the community, I think that's the greatest thing about playing on the PGA TOUR," says Jonas Blixt.

The success stories over the last four years are numerous.

In June 2010, Jim McGlothlin, a member of the PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties Board, organized "The Big 3 for the Mountain Mission Kids," a oneday tournament featuring Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player. This event, which benefited the Mountain Mission School, raised an astounding $15.2 million in a single day.

In 2011, country music star Darius Rucker wrote a song "Together, Anything is Possible," in which proceeds from downloads were distributed to PGA TOUR Charities, The First Tee and Birdies for the Brave.

Phil Mickelson and his wife Amy began a "Birdies for the Brave" program in 2004 as a way to support charities that build homes for disabled troops, provide educational opportunities for the spouses and children of servicemen and women killed in action and other avenues of support. In December of 2012, Phil and Amy, along with Jim and Cathy Justice, owners of The Greenbrier Resort, hosted the Birdies for the Brave Pro-Am and Gala at TPC Sawgrass to benefit nine military home front groups. The Pro-Am participants included President William J. Clinton, celebrities, artists, military dignitaries and PGA TOUR, LPGA and Champions Tour players including Mickelson, Jack Nicklaus, Vijay Singh, Peter Jacobsen and Larry Nelson. The weekend's festivities also included a charity concert featuring Vince Gill and Rucker.

Ernie Els was one of the players featured in 2012 as he and his wife, Liezl, continued to work to promote autism awareness and fund research. The Els Center of Excellence is now moving from concept to reality with groundbreaking of the facility taking place in 2013. The Els Center for Excellence will be dedicated to educating autistic children and funding research into the causes of autism and developing new treatments.

In 2013, the PGA TOUR Wives Association celebrated its 25th anniversary through a variety of events and activities, including the creation of a book observing the organization's history as told through the personal stories of TOUR families. Since its incorporation, the Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money and performing a myriad of services, ranging from Habitat for Humanity builds to cooking in soup kitchens to fitting children for glasses in communities where tournaments are held.

Players are using the Together, anything's possible platform more and more to assist with their own charitable initiatives. Two examples in 2013 included James Driscoll, who responded to the Boston Marathon bombings by initiating "Birdies for Boston" where he pledged $1,000 for each birdie, and $2,000 for each eagle, he made during the RBC Heritage and Zurich Classic of New Orleans. Fans used the platform to make their own donations, and the initiative generated more than $55,000 for The One Fund Boston.

Sergio Garcia instituted a similar pledge drive through the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational until the completion of the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Over that period, he made 102 birdies and four eagles for a $110,000 donation to local First Tee chapters in the communities where he competed.

FANS

The TOUR has developed a call-to-action plan that allows fans to rally behind charities supported by its players and tournaments, allowing them to enhance lives by giving of their time or making contributions.

While many tournaments already have an effective fan outreach, the TOUR will develop an overarching communications plan that will add support on a national level. The TOUR launched PGATOUR.COM/together in 2010 so that fans learn more about the charitable involvement of their favorite players, tournaments or charities. This site enables fans to donate money and identify volunteer opportunities that directly benefit local charities. The TOUR has invested substantial internal resources, including an ad campaign, to promote the call to action.

The first three years of Together, anything's possible has displayed the breadth and depth of the TOUR's collective charitable efforts, with the charity website featuring hundreds of stories and videos about the wonderful work being done in communities around the globe.

THE PLAYERS Championship and TPC Sawgrass

OVERVIEW

When the strongest field in golf takes on the game's greatest stadium, fans flock to the Florida sun to experience one of golf's most prestigious tournaments—THE PLAYERS Championship.

Each May, THE PLAYERS showcases excitement and intensity, not to mention the beauty of one of the most recognized courses in the world—THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass. THE PLAYERS brings the world's top competitors to this superior, demanding golf course and offers a fan experience unlike any other, creating one of the most dynamic, compelling events in all of golf.

HISTORY

Since 1974, when THE PLAYERS was first contested at Atlanta Country Club, the era's best players have battled to take home the trophy. It's fitting that the event's inaugural winner was none other than Jack Nicklaus, the World Golf Hall of Famer who captured a tournament-record three PLAYERS titles in the first five years (1974, 1976 and 1978).

THE PLAYERS moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in 1977 and five years later, the PGA TOUR's flagship event found a new home at TPC Sawgrass, Pete Dye's masterpiece and golf's original stadium. Jerry Pate won that first year and celebrated his 1982 triumph by diving into the lake next to the 18th hole, taking Dye and then-PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman with him.

That memorable moment has been followed by many others, including Hal Sutton's "Be the right club today" shot from the fairway on the final hole to defeat Tiger Woods in 2000 and win his second PLAYERS title, and Woods' "Better than most" putt from 60-plus feet during the third round of his 2001 victory.

THE PLAYERS has evolved into one of the most prestigious events in golf. Local heroes Calvin Peete, Mark McCumber, David Duval and Fred Funk have hoisted THE PLAYERS trophy, as have some of the game's most recognizable names, including Woods, Davis Love III, Greg Norman, Fred Couples, Phil Mickelson and Sergio Garcia.

GOLF COURSE

Home to the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship, THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass has established itself as one of the premier tournament venues in all of golf. A player must display a well-rounded, complete game and triumph over one of the sport's most daunting finishes in order to become THE PLAYERS champion. All of that drama, combined with a setting unequalled in golf, creates an electrifying atmosphere that makes THE PLAYERS a must-see, must-attend event.

The famed PLAYERS Stadium Course was designed by renowned golfcourse architect Pete Dye. Since its inception, the course's final three holes have evolved into the greatest risk/reward finish in golf, highlighted by the iconic 17th island green, one of the most recognized and photographed holes in the game. In 2006, TPC Sawgrass completed a multi-million dollar renovation designed to elevate THE PLAYERS Stadium Course to the highest professional level for the best players in the world during THE PLAYERS Championship, as well as provide resort golfers with PGA TOUR-quality playing conditions year-round.

CLUBHOUSE

Following the 2006 PLAYERS Championship, heavy equipment replaced golf carts on the greens as crews started the demolition process of the 25-year-old clubhouse. The changes, completed in May 2007, have elevated the reputation of TPC Sawgrass as a world-class resort.

Now standing is one of most iconic spots on the course, aside from the famous 17th hole. The TPC Sawgrass clubhouse is an expansive, 77,000 square-foot Mediterranean Revival Style building, reminiscent of the history and architectural heritage of Northeast Florida. The clubhouse blends elegant. old-world charm with modern-day comforts and state-of-the-art technology, providing a one-of-a-kind setting for meetings and events of all sizes.

Fronted by a terraced-event lawn offering panoramic views of the ninth and 18th holes, the clubhouse is preceded by a magnificent Walk of Fame entryway and features displays depicting the history and legends of the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship.

CHARITY

Regardless of the name on the trophy at the end of THE PLAYERS, the true winners will always be the local charitable organizations that benefit from the tournament each year. Thanks to the support of the Northeast Florida community and the tournament's Proud Partner—PwC—THE PLAYERS has generated more than $52.8 million to First Coast charities since the event moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in 1977, including a record $6.5 million in 2012.

In 2011, THE PLAYERS announced a committed goal of generating $50 million for youth-related charities over a 10-year period. The focus of this goal is to improve the opportunities for the community's youth through education. character development and health and fitness. THE PLAYERS has already made strides towards this goal through scholarship endowments at both the University of North Florida and Florida State College at Jacksonville for firstgeneration students. Additionally, THE PLAYERS Center for Child Health was established in partnership with the local children's hospital in Jacksonville, Wolfson Children's Hospital.

Making this positive impact on the community, however, would not be possible without the leadership of the tournament's Red Coats and the hard work and dedication of the tremendous volunteer force. Nearly 2,000 volunteers give of their time and talents each year to help stage this first-class event. From parking cars, shuttling players and staffing the hospitality venues to keeping scores and statistics, volunteers at THE PLAYERS touch every aspect of the tournament.

Tournament volunteers not only help ensure a world-class event, but each year they also create new hope and opportunity in their local communities. This effort continues to prove that giving back is at the heart of the PGA TOUR.

REACH

Even if they aren't at TPC Sawgrass in May, golf fans from around the world enjoy THE PLAYERS Championship on air, on radio and online. Whether it is the 28 hours of high-definition, limited-interruption telecasts on Golf Channel and NBC Sports, four-round coverage of LIVE@ THE PLAYERS streaming on PGATOUR.COM, or wall-to-wall radio coverage on SIRIUS XM Radio, fans soak in THE PLAYERS action and excitement, from Thursday's opening round to the final putt on Sunday.

And with the support of the tournament's Proud Partner—PwC—viewers of nearly 600 million households throughout 225 countries and territories enjoy THE PLAYERS' telecast with limited-commercial interruptions, making this a special, global championship.

RESEARCH

An independent, four-year, longitudinal research study confirmed The First Tee's ability to successfully teach life skills and The First Tee Nine Core Values to youth participating in the Life Skills Experience, the curriculum delivered at chapters. The study confirms young people learn and exhibit these life skills on the golf course, as well as in school, at home and other settings.

Highlights of the research study include:

- Youth credited The First Tee for their ability to transfer many of the life skills they learned in golf to school and other areas of their lives. For example: managing emotions, setting goals and resolving conflicts were life skills they consistently transferred.
- Fifty-seven percent of youth surveyed across three years credited The First Tee for their meeting-and-greetings skills, and 52 percent credited the program for their ability to appreciate diversity.
- During personal interviews, 78 percent of interviewees described their ability to transfer life skills through specific examples and stories.
- In all four years, school was unanimously identified as a setting in which participants transferred life skills. Besides jobs and college, the development of friendships and out-of-school activities also showed an increase in life-skills transfer.
- After three consecutive years of participation in The First Tee, 73 percent reported high confidence in their ability to do well academically, and 82 percent felt confident in their social skills with peers.
- As it relates to golf, The First Tee youth surveyed reported above average confidence (2.9 on a four-point scale) in their golf skills after participating in the program for three years. Approximately half of all participants surveyed reported high confidence in their playing ability.

About the Commissioner

Tim Finchem PGA TOUR Commissioner

Tim Finchem began his 20th year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2013. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGA TOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate. Since Finchem became commissioner in 1994, the PGA TOUR and its tournaments have raised more than $1 billion for charitable organizations.

Under Finchem's leadership, the TOUR created The Presidents Cup in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After 10 stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar. The Presidents Cup 2015 will be contested for the first time in South Korea.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation. He has shown personal dedication to the success of The First Tee initiative, as he serves as chairman of The First Tee Board of Directors and in 2011 was the co-chair of The First Tee Campaign for 10 Million Young People. Since its inception in 1997, The First Tee has reached more than 7.6 million young people through its network which includes more than 750 locations. Through 2017, The First Tee's goal is to reach 10 million additional young people and grow the network to 1,200 programming locations at golf facilities, 10,000 elementary schools and 350 other youth-serving locations.

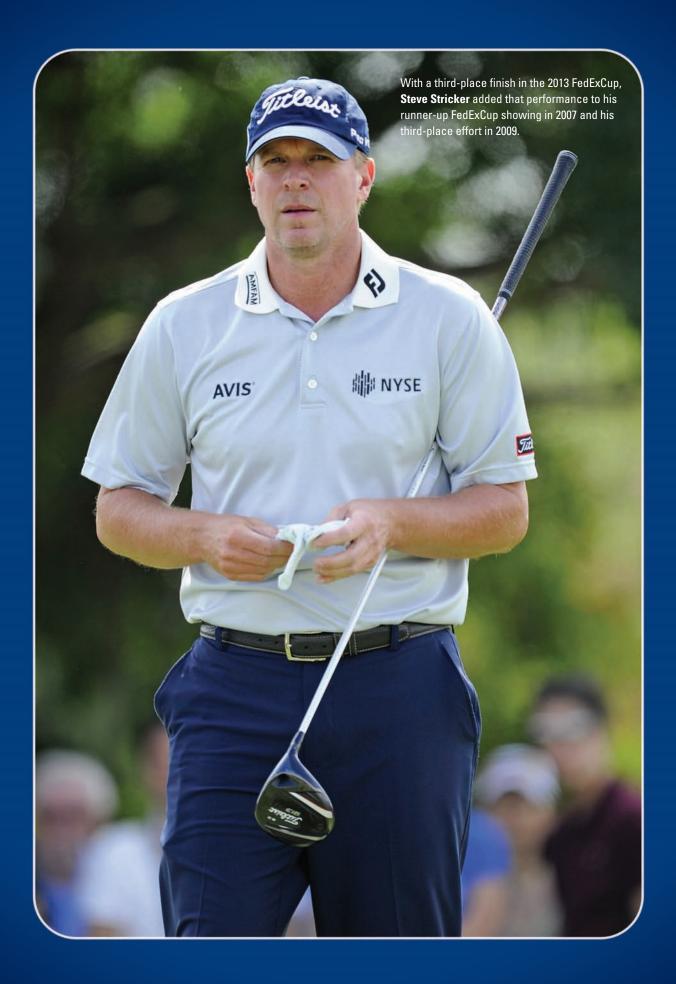

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the FedExCup Playoffs. Since 2007, the FedExCup has brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

Born in Ottawa, III., on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, Va. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001, the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002, the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports Award in 2005 and the 2010 Donald Ross Award from the American Society of Golf Course Architects.

Finchem and his wife, the former Holly Bachand, have four children and live in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

OTHER VICTORIES (1):

2011 Franklin Templeton Shootout [with Brendan Steele].

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

2—HP Byron Nelson Championship, Championships-Bridgestone Invitational; T3—Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard; T4—Hyundai Tournament of Champions, The Honda Classic; 7—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship; T10—Shell Houston Open.

2013 SEASON:

Made the cut in 21 of 25 starts, with runner-up finishes at the HP Byron Nelson Championship and World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational the best of his career-best seven top-10 finishes. Finished the season No. 18 in the FedExCup. Began the year with a T4 finish at the weather-shortened Hyundai Tournament of Champions, improving significantly from his T16 finish the season before. It represented the 10th top-10 finish of his career... Next top-10 finish came in March, at The Honda Classic, in front of a home, South Florida crowd a week after losing in the first round of the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship. Opened with back-to-back, 2-under 68s at PGA National en route to a T4 finish with four others...One week later, opened with three rounds in the 60s and closed with a 1-under 71 to finish solo seventh at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship, his second-consecutive top-10 finish in as many starts at the event (T8 in 2012)...Finished T3 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational in just his second start at Bay Hill. Had a third-round 66 to move into contention...Came back the following week with a T10 finish at the Shell Houston Open, capping off four-consecutive top-10 finishes...After missing the cut at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans and THE PLAYERS Championship, finished runner-up at the HP Byron Nelson Championship, tying Brandt Snedeker for the most top-10 finishes on TOUR at the time (six). Shot an opening 60 Thursday with two bogeys in the round, becoming the first player in TOUR history to shoot a 60-or-better with two bogeys. Followed with rounds of 69-68 to hold the 36- and 54-hole leads. Failed in his attempt to become just the third wire-to-wire winner at the event with a finalround, 2-over 72, leaving him two strokes behind champion Sang-Moon Bae (who began the day in second, trailing by one stroke)...In defense of his World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational title, opened with a 4-under 66 at Firestone CC to stand T3 after 18 holes. Ensuing rounds of 68-71-67 resulted in a T2, with Henrik Stenson. At 8-under, finished seven strokes behind Tiger Woods. Had he successfully defended, would have joined only Woods as players to have achieved the feat...Finished T12 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.

Is the nephew of LPGA great and World Golf Hall of Fame member Pat Bradley...Hosted a tournament to benefit the Vermont Disaster Flood Relief Fund in August 2012, staged at The Woodstock Inn and Resort, the course where he first played as a child...Turning professional is his biggest thrill in golf. BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

2—Masters Tournament; T9—Travelers Championship.

2013 SEASON:

Made 16 of 21 cuts on TOUR, with two top 10s. Finished No. 65 in the final FedExCup standings after advancing to the FedExCup Playoffs for the first time since 2010...Lost in a playoff at the Masters Tournament when Adam Scott made a birdie-3 on the second playoff hole (No. 10). Entering the week, was No. 87 on The Presidents Cup International team standings, No. 119 in the FedExCup standings and No. 269 in the Official World Golf Ranking. Held the thirdround co-lead that week with Brandt Snedeker. Only other third-round lead/co-lead on TOUR came when he won the 2009 Masters. Was trying to become the first grandfather to win the Masters. His son Federico had a daughter named Agostina on November 1, 2012. Was trying to become the second-oldest (43 years, 7 months, 2 days) champion in tournament history, behind Jack Nicklaus (46 years, 2 months, 23 days) in 1986...Son Angel caddied for him at the Masters. Played with son Angel (missed cut) at the Puerto Rico Open earlier in the year... A week after his Masters close call, traveled to his home in Argentina for the Abierto del Centro on PGA TOUR Latinoamerica, a tournament he had won six times previously. Seemingly fell out of contention at Cordoba GC when he opened 72-72 then shot a third-round, 5-over 76 and was tied for 20th, six shots behind 54-hole leader Mauricio Azcue going into the final 18 holes. Made three birdies on his front side against no bogeys. Made his only bogey, on the 10th hole, then played the final eight holes in 5-under, including a hole-out eagle-2 on the 72nd hole to force a playoff with Rafael Gomez, an extra session he would go on to win. Had gone 19 years between his first Abierto del Centro and his most-recent title there...Finished T9 at the Travelers Championship in his second start in the event. Recorded his second top-10 of the season (playoff loss at the Masters) after not having any in 2012.

PERSONAL:

Caddied at Cordoba, home club of friend Eduardo Romero, until turning professional at age 20. Romero, who lived two blocks away from his young protege, encouraged him to take up game at age 15...Both sons played PGA TOUR Latinoamerica in 2013...Says he would be a soccer player if not a golfer...Nicknamed El Pato (The Duck).

2013 Colombia Championship.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISH:

T9—AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

2013 SEASON:

Finished his Web.com Tour season with $243,105 in earnings, making six cuts in nine starts. Was 11th on the priority rankings... Earned his first career Web.com Tour win with a four-stroke victory at the Colombia Championship in Bogota. Posted an 18-under 266 total to better the tournament record by seven strokes. Became the second-youngest winner in Web.com Tour history. Earned his win just two weeks shy of his 21st birthday. Saturday round of 65 and Sunday round of 66 were the best of each day. Started the final round at Bogota CC at 13-under and tied with Jim Renner. Used a birdie-birdie-eagle burst starting at No. 8 to go two in front of Renner, who dropped three back with a bogey at No. 12. Upped his lead to the final margin when he birdied No. 14. Collected first-place check for $126,000 and moved to No. 1 on the money list. Joined 2010 winner Steve Pate as former UCLA Bruins to win in Colombia... Had his first PGA TOUR top-10 of the year when he turned rounds of 66-70-72-67 into a T9 at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am...Withdrew from the PGA TOUR's Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial with a back injury in late-May and was sidelined until mid-August, returning to play at the News Sentinel Open outside Knoxville...Missed the cut in his first two starts back. Entered the second event, the Regular Season-ending Cox Classic, 25th in earnings and departed Omaha 29th...Forced to continue playing to try and earn his 2013-14 PGA TOUR card, he nearly captured the first Web.com Tour Finals event, the Hotel Fitness Championship in Fort Wayne, Ind. Despite still dealing with back pain, held a three-shot lead over Kevin Kisner after three rounds. His lead slipped away Sunday when Trevor Immelman fired a 66 and he could not convert an 8-foot birdie putt on the last hole that would have led to a two-man, sudden-death playoff. His final-round 72 left him at 19-under.

2013 SEASON:

Made four of seven TOUR cuts and did not record a top-25 finish for the second consecutive season...Finished T8 at the Volvo China Open in early May...Snapped a winless streak that went back to 2011 when he captured the rish Open in late-June. A pair of 67s on the weekend at Carton House GC in Maynooth, County Kildare, gave him a three-shot triumph over Joost Luiten and Robert Rock. After making birdies on five of six holes midway through his final round (on Nos. 8-11 and 13), he bogeyed the 15th and 16th holes. He put an exclamation on his victory with an eagle-3 on the closing hole, good for his 11th European Tour title.

Second top 10 of the season was a T9 at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship and then a near-miss with a T11 at the Masters Tournament...At the site of back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2008 and 2009, finished T7 at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, with four rounds in the 60s...Recorded the only hole-in-one of the week at the 95th PGA Championship on Sunday. "It put into perspective what life is all about—and it's not about all those putts I'm able to put away or miss at the crucial stages of an event, but life in general," he said.

Shared the 54-hole lead with eventual winner Michael Putnam but couldn't muster a charge on the final day at TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm and wound up four strokes back...Was in contention all week at the Utah Championship in mid-July, his tournament highlighted by the second-round 60 he shot at Willow Creek CC, a score that temporarily gave him the tournament

Made 11 of 21 cuts on TOUR and finished No. 125 in the FedExCup standings. Entered the FedExCup Playoffs No. 125 in the standings but was forced to withdraw from The Barclays (back) after an opening-round of 67...First top-10 finish of the season came at the Shell Houston Open, thanks largely to four birdies and an eagle in the final round for a 4-under 68. Finished T4 with Dustin Johnson... Claimed his fourth top-10 finish in what was his ninth start at THE PLAYERS Championship. Opened and closed the May tournament with 3-under 69s at TPC Sawgrass to T8 with six others.

PERSONAL:

Was age 5 when his grandfather taught him how to play golf...Doesn't like to know who he will be paired with, saying, "I looked up to a lot of these guys who I'm now playing with. So, I didn't want to have to go to sleep thinking about it. And so that's kind of been my routine. I never want to know who I'm playing with. Just tell me the time. In 2002, at the (HP) Byron Nelson (Championship) I played with Ernie Els in the final round, and it worked well because I watched Ernie play a lot of golf on TV. So we just kind of kept that routine going. I just never look and find out on the first tee."...Took part in the 2008 BMW Northwest Charity Skins Game with host Ryan Moore, Aaron Baddeley and Bubba Watson to help raise funds for local charities in Washington...Takes a leading role with his wife, Heather, in support of Love146, an international group dedicated to eradicating the sexual exploitation of children in Thailand, Cambodia and the Philippines...Hosts "Day With the Pros" every year with Discovery Land Co., an endeavor which has raised more than $4 million for charity...He is the mastermind behind the "Golf Boys" video that he stars in along with Rickie Fowler, Hunter Mahan and Watson.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Travelers Championship; T8—Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard.

2013 SEASON:

Enjoyed a breakthrough year, highlighted by his first career PGA TOUR victory in his 187th start on the PGA TOUR, at the Travelers Championship. Successfully played his way through the first three events in the FedExCup Playoffs, before settling in at No. 67 with 930 points...Finished T8 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, his second top-10 in four starts at Bay Hill...Defeated Chris Stroud with a birdie-3 on the second playoff hole (No. 18) to win his first TOUR event, at the Travelers Championship. Both players were competing in their first PGA TOUR playoff. Playoffs have decided five of the past 11 outcomes at TPC River Highlands (Bubba Watson in 2010, Hunter Mahan in 2007, Brad Faxon in 2005 and Woody Austin in 2004). First TOUR victory comes in his 187th start, at age 44 years, 4 months, 25 days. Won in his fifth start at the Travelers Championship. Previous-best finish was a T27 in 2008 (also T47 in 2012, T49 in 2004 and missed the cut in 2009). Six of the last eight winners of the Travelers Championship have been first-time TOUR champions. They are J.J. Henry (2006), Mahan (2007), Watson (2010), Freddie Jacobson (2011) and Marc Leishman (2012). There have been 17 players who have picked up their first TOUR win at the Travelers Championship. Recently returned to using Bob Toski as his swing coach. Toski won the Travelers Championship in 1953 and was the first first-time winner in Hartford. Is the oldest first-time TOUR winner since Ed Dougherty won the 1995 Sanderson Farms Championship, at age 47 years, 8 months, 19 days...On Tuesday after his win in Hartford, he joined his family as an invited guest of former Arkansas Senator David Pryor, who acknowledged on the Senate floor the TOUR victory.

PERSONAL:

As a seventh-grader, was diagnosed with scoliosis. The Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock, Ark., determined he had a 26-percent curvature of the spine and advised him to wear a back brace 23 hours a day. Two years later, with the curvature reaching 51 percent, he underwent surgery. Without the procedure, the pressure on his lungs and heart might have become life-threatening. Surgeons attached a 16-inch metal road to his spine to faciliate straightening. Remarkably, just months later he returned to his high school golf team—and playing in a back brace—won medalist honors at a district tournament. In 2009, the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences established The Ken Duke Endowed Chair in Scoliosis. Funds from the chair treat spinal deformities, tumors and fractures...He credits his dad for giving him his start in golf but says legendary instructor Bob Toski changed his swing and his life. His biggest golf

2—PGA Championship; 3—BMW Championship, Valero Texas Open; T6—The Barclays; T7—Tampa Bay Championship, Championship presented by EverBank, T9—RBC Canadian Open, World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational.

2013 SEASON:

Finished the season No. 14 in the FedExCup, with a runner-up finish at the PGA Championship, the best of his seven top-10 finishes...The 2010 Tampa Bay Championship champion began the final round at the Copperhead Course just one stroke off the lead but was unable to mount a charge Sunday. An even-par 71 resulted in a T7, in the event he lost in a playoff in 2012...At the Valero Texas Open, played in an event the week before the Masters for the first time in his career. The decision paid off nicely as he holed a wedge from 104 yards on the 72nd hole for an eagle-3 to claim a share of third place with Billy Horschel and Charley Hoffman. With sub-par rounds of 69-70-69-69, he had not recorded four scores under par in a tournament since the 2012 McGladrey Classic. In his only other start in the event, he finished T15 in 1994...The 2006 and 2007 RBC Canadian Open champion returned north of the border in July, where he posted four rounds of par or better at Glen Abbey GC to finish T9 at the RBC Canadian Open...In his 14th consecutive start at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, returned to Firestone CC looking to improve on his 2012 T2 finish. Opened with rounds of 67-69, but got derailed in the third round, with a 2-over 72. Rebounded in Sunday's final round with a 2-under 68 to T9 with three others...Finished second at the PGA Championship after holding a share of the first-round lead and sole possession of the third-round lead. Entered the final round with a one shot lead over Jason Dufner, but shot a 71 and finished two shots behind Dufner (68). The runner-up finish came in his 500th career TOUR start. Has failed to convert on his last five third-round leads (four in 2012)... Making his 18th career start at The Barclays, finished T6, two strokes behind Adam Scott for his fifth top 10 in the event. It marked his 11th top-10 finish in the FedExCup Playoffs, moving out of a tie with Steve Stricker and Camilo Villegas for most on TOUR...Joined PGA TOUR history by becoming the sixth player to post a 59 during a round. Beginning on No. 10 in the second round of the BMW Championship at Conway Farms GC, made an eagle, 11 birdies, five pars and a bogey for his 12-under 59, the only sub-60 score in TOUR history to include a bogey. Made a 3-foot, 3-inch putt on his final hole to secure his place in history. Followed his 59 with a 69-71 to end in solo third in the Monday finish. The showing marked his fifth top-10 in his last six PGA TOUR starts, and his final-round, even-par 71 gave him the distinction of posting the most rounds of par or better in the FedExCup Playoffs since its 2007 inception. His 78 par-or-better rounds lead Steve Stricker by one. Marked the sixth consecutive event he has failed to carry the 54-hole lead or co-lead on to victory...Season concluded with a T14 finish at the TOUR Championship by Coca Cola.

PERSONAL:

Possesses one of the PGA TOUR's less-orthodox swings. His father, Mike, has been his only swing instructor... Never played high school football, although he did play basketball as a sophomore. Played midget football until age 13.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T4—The Honda Classic, Zurich Classic of New Orleans.

2013 SEASON:

Made 10 cuts in 23 starts, with a pair of top-five finishes highlighting his season. Despite missed cuts in his last three starts in the PGA TOUR Season, finished inside the top 125 in FedExCup standings (107th), worthy of a spot into the FedExCup Playoffs. A wrist injury resulted in a withdrawl from The Barclays, dropping him from the top 100 in the standings and ending his season...With T4 honors at The Honda Classic, claimed his first top-10 finish since winning the 2011 Wells Fargo Championsip. His final-round, even-par 70 made him one of just 12 players to post a par-or-better round on a wind-blown Sunday at PGA

National...With wife, Krista, past due to give birth to the couple's first child, held the second- and third-round leads at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. A 4-under 68 Sunday proved no match for Billy Horschel's 8-under 64. He settled for a T4, with Bobby Gates.

PERSONAL:

Avid Clemson Tiger sports fan...An avid reader, particularly mysteries and thrillers. Read four books during the week of his rainy 2009 U.S. Open victory...Credits his grandfather, Dick Hendley, for giving him his start in golf. Grandfather gave him a cut-down club when Lucas was 3 and first took him to the Masters at age 6. Hendley was a standout in football and baseball at Clemson, where he is a Hall of Fame member and played one season (1951) with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers. Lucas was inducted into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in the fall 2007...Grew a beard in the Fall of 2010, which took on a life of its own. Showcased the thick growth on TOUR in 2011, receiving such light-hearted comments as "Mountain Man," "Grizzly Adams," and "woolly mammoth." CBS analyst David Feherty referred to the look as something that belongs on "America's Deadliest Catch." Glover, himself, joked about the facial hair, claiming he did it to have something to clean his clubs with.

2013 SEASON:

Made the cut in 19 of 25 starts, with a career-high nine top-10 finishes, including his fifth career PGA TOUR title, winning the AT&T National. Finished the year No. 24 in the FedExCup. Outside of winning the FedExCup in 2011, this was his best showing in the season-long points race... Opened with rounds of 3-under 69 Thursday and Friday at the Farmers Insurance Open and went on to finish in a 6-way T9, his third consecutive top-10 in the event (T9 in 2011 and T4 in 2012)...A week later at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, followed an opening-round, 6-under 65 with a 64 Friday, resulting in a T6 with Brendon de Jonge and Brendan Steele. Despite a par there Sunday, played the 595-yard, par-5 13th hole in 5-under for the week (eagle-birdie-eagle-par)...Held a three-shot lead after the third round of the Northern Trust Open before a final-round

73 dropped him to T3, one shot out of the playoff. Recorded a bogey on No. 2 in the final round, breaking a streak of 42 holes without a blemish on his card. Before that, his last bogey was on his 14th hole (No. 5) in the first round... Finished T8 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational after holding a share of the second-round lead. Performance was his first top-10 at Bay Hill in six starts...Followed an opening-round, 4-under 68 with a 5-under 67 in the second round at the Memorial Tournament en route to a T4, his first top-10 in eight starts at Muirfield Village GC...Entered the final round of the AT&T National in a four-way tie for first, with Roberto Castro, Andres Romero and James Driscoll. Had birdies on Nos. 8, 9 and 10 on his way to a 5-under 66 for a three-stroke win over Castro. Cemented the victory with a wedge approach from 84 yards to 9 feet on the par-5 16th hole, with the birdie giving him a comfortable three-stroke cushion with two holes to play. Earned his fifth career TOUR title, at age 31 years, 1 month, 6 days, his 229th overall start. Father, Jay, won his fifth TOUR event (nine overall) in his 181st start. The elder Haas won nine TOUR titles. Converted second of five third-round lead/co-leads into victory. Became the fourth 54-hole leader/co-leader in the last seven years of the AT&T National to carry that lead on to victory, joining Nick Watney (2011), Justin Rose (2010) and Tiger Woods (2009). Led the field with 25 birdies, nine of which came during a third-round 68...A week later, opened with three rounds in the 60s at The Greenbrier Classic en route to a T9. Overcame a double bogey-6 at the fifth hole Sunday with a pair of birdies but was otherwise unable to mount a charge, closing with an even-par 70. Still was able to claim his second consecutive top-10 finish...In his fourth consecutive start at the World Golf Championship-Bridgestone Invitational, collected his ninth top-10 finish of the season (T7), a PGA TOUR season record. Prior to this season, his personal best was six top-10 finishes in a year

(2011). Opened with rounds of 67-68-69, before a finalround, 1-over 71 resulted in a T7...Made it to the site of his 2011 FedExCup title for just the second time in his career, finishing T24 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.

Father, Jay, was the 1975 NCAA medalist and two-time All-America in the 1970s who went on to a highly successful PGA TOUR and Champions Tour career. Uncle, Jerry, was also an All-America at Wake Forest, a TOUR player in the early 1990s and is the head coach of the Deacons. Great uncle, Bob Goalby, won the 1968 Masters. Older brother, Jay, played golf at Augusta State and Monday-qualified for the 2006 Wachovia Championship to join father, Jay, and brother in the field.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (2): 2013 Rex Hospital Open, Web.com Tour Championship. 2013 SEASON:

Finished his rookie season with two wins and eight top-10 finishes in 22 starts. Cumulative earnings of $535,432 ranked as the second-best single-season total in Web. com Tour history...Earned his first career top-10, with a T3 at the BMW Charity Pro-Am in South Carolina. Opened the final round in Greenville with four birdies and then an eagle to get to 6-under par after five holes. Added two pars before closing with a pair of birdies and an 8-under 27, which matched the lowest nine-hole score in Tour history. Joined Notah Begay III and Doug Dunakey as the only players ever to post a 27 in tournament play. Hit every green in regulation on the front and had only 11 putts. Played the back nine in even-par, needing 17 putts. Fired a finalround 69 at the Mexico Championship to finish T6 and earn his second consecutive top-10...Made it three top-10s in a row with a runner-up effort the following week at the Mid-Atlantic Championship outside Washington, D.C. Was the only player in the field to put pressure on eventual winner Michael Putnam in the final round at TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm. Back-nine birdies got him within two of the lead on two occasions, but he was never able to get closer. Picked up a check for $64,800, which moved him from No. 25 to No. 8 on the money list....Won his first Tour title in front of family and friends at The Rex Hospital Open in his hometown of Raleigh, firing a 7-under 64 Sunday to win by two. Was one shot back after a first-round 63, led by one after two rounds and trailed Danny Lee by five entering the final round, which featured a 2:15 delay. Sealed the victory with a kick-in birdie at No. 18, nicking the flagstick with his wedge approach. Completing the perfect story was the fact he was born at Rex Hospital...Finished T3 at the Midwest Classic, where he was the 54-hole leader after shooting a third-round, 8-under-par 63, matching his career-low Tour round. Closed with a 70 Sunday to finish two strokes shy of winner Jamie Lovemark... Added a T10 at the Mylan Classic, where he challenged for a higher finish but was derailed by a triple bogey at the 71st hole...Played in the PGA TOUR's Wyndham Championship in August on a sponsor exemption, missing the cut...Finished the Regular Season third in earnings to secure his PGA TOUR card for 2013-14...Finished T4 at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship, the third of the four Finals' events. Moved into contention with opening scores of 68-67 at the Ohio State University GC's Scarlet Course but wasn't able to muster a weekend charge. Effort in Columbus moved him to No. 14 in the priority ranking with just one event left on the schedule...Collected his second career win with a two-stroke victory at the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship. Fired a final-round, 1-under 69 at TPC Sawgrass' Dye's Valley Course for a come-from-behind victory. Jumped to a three-stroke lead early on the last day with three birdies in his first five holes and then held on as he struggled on the back nine for the second consecutive day. A birdie at the par-5 16th kept the field at bay and gave him enough cushion for the win. Ended the week at 10-under 270. First-place check of $180,000 vaulted him up 11 spots to No. 3 on the Finals' priority ranking. Came up $567 short of John Peterson for the No. 1 spot in the Finals and will be conditionally exempt for the 2013-14 season.

Plays golf right-handed but is a lefty in most other endeavors...ls a junior deacon in his church and has volunteered at local food banks...Since college has waited tables at Casa Carbone, an Italian restaurant in Raleigh, N.C...Favorite golf memory is playing golf with his dad with his first set of clubs...Does not shave during a tournament...Likes reading drudgereport.com...Twitter account is @chadley-progolf...Not many people know he would do dishes all day to avoid doing laundry.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (3): 2011 Stadion Classic at UGA. 2012 Chiquita Classic, Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Sony Open in Hawaii; T6—RBC Heritage, the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide Insurance.

Made 17 of 24 cuts in his rookie season, with three top-10s and a win. Finished No. 44 in the FedExCup standings... Making just his third official PGA TOUR start (first as a professional), he ran away from the field at the Sony Open in Hawaii, carding three rounds of 7-under 63 and a third-round 3-under 67 for a three-stroke win over Tim Clark. Closing the event with five consecutive birdies helped him become the first rookie to win in his first start as an official member of the PGA TOUR since Garrett Willis at the 2001 Touchstone Energy Tucson Open. In addition to becoming the ninth player to make the Sony Open in Hawaii his first PGA TOUR win (and first since Jerry Kelly in 2002), his 72-hole numerical total of 256 broke the tournament scoring mark of 260 set by John Huston in 1998 and matched by Brad Faxon in 2001. His 256 was also the third-lowest 72-hole total (tie with Mark Calcavecchia at the 2001 Phoenix Open) in PGA TOUR history. Jumping out of the gate fast, his victory was set up with a Sony Open in Hawaii record for the best opening 36-hole score in event history (63-63, 14-under 126). It broke the record of 12-under 128 set in 1994 by Davis Love III and matched by Huston (1998), Paul Azinger (2000), Faxon (2001) and John Cook (2002). Prior to his victory, the last player to win the Sony Open in his first attempt was Bruce Lietzke (1977)...Second career top-10 came 10 starts later, finishing T6 at the RBC Heritage. Was seeking to become just the sixth player to win the event in his first appearance. The others were Boo Weekley (2007), Jose Coceres (2001), Stewart Cink (2000), Bob Goalby (1970) and Arnold Palmer (1969)...Despite a pair of bogeys on his first seven holes in the first round of the Memorial Tournament, managed seven birdies to post a 5-under 67. A 5-over 77 followed in the second round but a 70-69 weekend resulted in a T6.

Says his biggest thrill in golf is making clutch putts and his biggest thrill outside of golf is watching live music...Puts Pebble Beach and Augusta National as the favorite courses he's played. Says he would like to play Cypress Point... Favorite teams are the Georgia Bulldogs and Atlanta Braves...Favorite TV show is "Family Guy," and Kid Rock is his favorite entertainer...Monterey, Calif., is his favorite city to visit, and Destin, Fla., is his favorite vacation spot...

Cadillac Championship

The Barclavs Deutsche Bank Championship BMW Championship

Superstitions include never talking about a score in an upcoming round...Would include Kid Rock, Dave Grohl and Andres Gonzales in his dream foursome...Bucket list includes skydiving, visiting Italy and winning the Masters... Is involved in the Macon Volunteer Clinic, which gives medical care to those in need in his hometown.

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1): 2013 Zurich Classic of New Orleans

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Zurich Classic of New Orleans; T2—Shell Houston Open; T3-Valero Texas Open; T4-U.S. Open; T7-TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola; T9—RBC Heritage; T10—Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation, FedEx St. Jude Classic.

2013 SEASON:

Made the cut in 22 events of 26 starts, with a careerbest eight top-10 finishes and his first career PGA TOUR victory—coming at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. Finished 16th in the FedExCup...Finished T10 at the Humana Challenge, with rounds of 67-68-65-67... Extended his PGA TOUR-leading, consecutive cuts-made streak to 20 when he played the weekend at the Shell Houston Open en route to his career-best finish, a T2 with Henrik Stenson. Closed with a 6-under 66 at Redstone GC Sunday to take a share of the clubhouse lead with Stenson. Watched as D.A. Points sank a clutch, 10-foot par putt at the 72nd hole for the one-stroke win...Still in Texas a week later, took a two-stroke lead into the final round of the Valero Texas Open in San Antonio. A 1-under 71 in the final round proved no match for Martin Laird's 9-under 63, resulting in a T3 for Horschel. The 71 Sunday at TPC San Antonio was his eighth consecutive round of par or better...Like Charley Hoffman, saw his then-current PGA TOUR-best mark of 11 consecutive rounds snapped with a final-round, 3-over 74 at the RBC Heritage. Still managed to earn his fourth top-10 of the season and third consecutive... A week later at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans, told Martin Senn, Zurich CEO on Wednesday of tournament week, "I'll see you Sunday from the winner's circle." Had six consecutive birdies in the final round (Nos. 7-12) en route to an 8-under 64 that led to the win. Sank a 26-foot, 8-inch putt for birdie on the 72nd hole, following two weather delays, to edge D.A. Points by a stroke and claim his first career TOUR win. His 20-under 268 topped the previous-best 72-hole score at TPC Louisiana by a stroke (Jason Dufner and Ernie Els in 2012). With the win, took advantage of his last chance to earn a spot into THE PLAYERS Championship field in his backyard of Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., by virtue of his FedExCup standings position. Became the 13th player since 1990 to make the Zurich Classic of New Orleans his maiden TOUR win. By playing on the weekend in New Orleans, he extended his PGA TOUR-leading cuts-made streak to 23...Notched his sixth top-10 finish of the season, a T10, at the FedEx St. Jude Classic, moving into a tie with Keegan Bradley, Bill Haas, Brandt Snedeker and Matt Kuchar for most on TOUR... His TOUR-leading seventh top-10 finish came the following week, sharing the 36-hole lead with Phil Mickelson at the U.S. Open before weekend rounds of 72-74 led to a T4 in his second start in a major championship (missed the cut as an amateur at the 2006 U.S. Open)...With a T7 finish at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, his eighth top-10 finish of the season, finished 16th in the FedExCup.

Biggest thrill in golf was playing and winning the 2007 Walker Cup...Biggest thrill outside golf was graduating from the University of Florida in 2009...Favorite golf course played is Royal County Down in Northern Ireland. Never travels without his computer...Favorite professional team is the New England Patriots, Boston Red Sox and Boston Celtics...Superstitions include carrying four tees and a 1936 quarter in his right-front pocket. Favorite city to visit is Monterey, Calif...Would round out his dream foursome with The Old Red Eye Rugby Group... 2013 SEASON:

Won the season-opening Hyundai Tournament of Champions for his seventh PGA TOUR victory. One of six top-10 finishes on the season led to a 13th-place showing in the FedExCup, his fifth consecutive top-15 finish in the season-long points race...After heavy wind and unusually hectic weather, overpowered his way to a four-stroke victory at the 54-hole Hyundai Tournament of Champions after a rare Monday-start-Tuesday-finish event. The tour-nament "started" twice during the regularly scheduled first round Friday and later Sunday, but both times PGA TOUR rules staff halted play due to unplayable windy conditions. Officials subsequently voided all scores that had taken place. The tournament officially began with 36 holes Monday that was originally scheduled to have been the final day of play. Playing in the final group with Steve Stricker, he double-bogeyed the 13th hole after hitting his drive into the bushes. The double bogey allowed Stricker to close within one stroke. On the 14th hole, he pulled his tee shot, nearly driving the green. He followed by chipping in for eagle to give him a three-shot cushion, an advantage he never relinquished. With the victory, he became the first player since Tiger Woods (1996-2001) to win in six consecutive years straight out of college (2008-13), and he trails only Phil Mickelson (nine) for current streak of consecutive years with a victory. The 54-hole win is the third such win of his career (2011 Barclays and 2009 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am). His victory was set up after playing six practice rounds at The Plantation Course before the start of the event. He finished last in Fairways Hit for the week (51 percent) but was second in Greens in Regulation (88.9 percent)...Posted the low round of the day, a 7-under 65, in the final round of the Shell Houston Open to claim a T4 with Ben Crane. Final round at Redstone GC consisted of seven birdies and an eagle...Finished T10 in his bid to join David Toms (2003-2004) as the only players to successfully defend their FedEx St. Jude Classic title...Notched his fourth top-10 finish of the season at the RBC Canadian Open in his second start in the event (WD in 2008). Opened with a 3-over 75 at Glen Abbey GC but jumped into contention with rounds of 67-63-70. His bid for victory ended Sunday when an errant tee shot at the par-4 17th wound up in the CBS Sports TV compound, resulting in a triple bogey. Settled for a T2 with three others...Finished T8 at the PGA Championship for his third top 10 in five starts at that major...Paired in the final group with eventual champion Henrik Stenson at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, shot a final-round, 1-under 69 that left him five strokes behind Stenson. One of three players with all four rounds in the 60s at East Lake GC.

PERSONAL:

Grandfather Art Whisnant played basketball at South Carolina and was a three-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in the early 1960s...Younger brother Austin played guard for the Charleston Southern University basketball team...Can dunk a basketball and could palm a basketball as a seventh grader...In June of 2012, threw out the first pitch at the San Francisco Giants-Houston Astros game after hitting drives at AT&T Park into McCovey Cove in front of spectators. He hit a number of drives over 330 yards from home plate, including a 335-yard bomb that ended up being his longest of the day.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—BMW Championship; T2—John Deere Classic; 3-Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial; T4—World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational; T5—Wyndham Championship; T6—The Open Championship.

Finished a career-best fifth in the FedExCup, with eight top-10 finishes and his 10th PGA TOUR victory coming at the BMW Championship...Finished solo third at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial in his effort to join Ben Hogan as the only players to win back-to-back Colonials, with Hogan performing the feat twice (1946-47 and 1952-53). It was his first top-10 finish since a T9 at the 2012 Open Championship. One year after a final-round, 2-over 72 snapped a streak of 15 consecutive rounds in the 60s at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, began a new streak this season with all four rounds in the 60s, giving him 25 of 32 rounds in the 60s at the event. Has five consecutive top-10 finishes at Colonial, having never finished outside of the top 30 in eight starts: won in 2010 and 2012, fourth in 2011, T9 in 2009, T30 in 2006, T26 in 2005 and T14 in 2004...Nearly replicated his performance at the John Deere Classic in July when, as the defending champion, forced sudden death with Jordan Spieth and David Hearn. On the fifth extra hole (No. 18), lost with a bogey to Spieth's par. Enjoyed another incredible week in Moline. His final-round 68 marked his 20th consecutive round in the 60s at TPC Deere Run, dating to the first round of 2009. In his first six years in the event, from 2002-07, he played TPC Deere Run in a combined 19-under. Jumped out to the opening-round lead at The Open Championship, with a 5-under 66, which proved to be the round of the week, matched only by champion Phil Mickelson in the final round. Followed with rounds of 75-73-72 to finish T6. After missing his first three cuts at The Open (2004-06), has since reeled off seven consecutive made cuts, with a T9 in 2012 his previousbest outing...After rounds of 69-70-68, closed with a 3-under 67, one stroke off the low round of the day, to claim a share of fourth with Miguel Angel Jimenez and Jason Dufner at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. Finished T8 at the PGA Championship for his career-best fourth straight top 10 on TOUR. It was his third top-10 in 10 starts at the PGA Championship. Was one of four players who did not shoot an over-par round at the year's final major...Finished T5 at the Wyndham Championship to extend his career-best streak of top 10s to five. Made his third start at the Wyndham Championship. The Greensboro performance moved him up one spot, to No. 9, in The Presidents Cup standings, which was important since he missed the first Playoff event, The Barclays, to attend his brother's wedding in Chicago...Began the final round of the BMW Championship three strokes off Jim Furyk's lead, before a 6-under 65 in the Monday finish resulted in a two-stroke win over Nick Watney at 16-under 268. With the win, moved from No. 27 to No. 4 in FedExCup standings heading into the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola later that week. He was also No. 4 headed into East Lake in 2009 but finished sixth in the standings. His win at Conway Farms GC was his second in the state of Illinois (2012 John Deere Classic). With the victory, he has claimed each of his 10 wins in just four different states (Georgia, Texas, Hawaii and Illinois)...Added his eighth top 10 of the season at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, finishing T7 and one of just three players with all four rounds in the 60s.

PERSONAL:

Began playing golf at age 10...Lists his father and mother among his heroes. Father is a chiropractor...Huge Drake University and University of Iowa sports fan...The gallery at BellSouth Classic at first TOUR victory included a group of about 10 men from lowa who gave him financial support early in his career, buying a stake in Zach for $500 a share. Some were seeing him play as a pro for the first time. "It started out as a business, but it ended up as a business family, Johnson said of his relationship with them. "It's unbelievable having them here. They would buy a couple stock shares in me and just allow me to go out and not have to worry about the necessities of traveling week to week."...When heavy rains caused flooding in the Midwest in the summer of 2008, stepped up to help. Served as the spokesman on a public service announcement and held a one-day golf event in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, that raised $350,000. Was instrumental, along with Jerry Kelly, in starting the PGA TOUR Flood Relief effort, which donated approximately $125,000 to the cause... In July of 2010, announced formation of the Zach Johnson Foundation that will benefit children in need in the Greater Cedar Rapids area. The Foundation's premier event will be the Zach Johnson Foundation Classic, a tournament that will feature at least four PGA TOUR players as well as some of the game's future superstars. Inaugural event took place at Elmcrest CC in Cedar Rapids on Aug. 1, 2011...Website is zachjohnsongolf.com.

PGA TOUR CARFER SUMMARY

-World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship, the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide Insurance; 2—Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, RBC Canadian Open; T4—Deutsche Bank Championship; T5—Sony Open in Hawaii.

Made the cut in a career-tying 23 starts in as many attempts, finishing sixth in the FedExCup. Season included eight top-10 finishes, highlighted by multiple wins in a season for the first time, winning the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship and the Memorial Tournament...Finished T9 at the season-opening and weather-shortened Hyundai Tournament of Champions. Struggled out of the gate with a 1-over 74 but carded rounds of 71-69 for the 50th top-10 finish of his career...Closed out a nice, two-week stretch in Hawaii, with a T5 at the Sony Open in Hawaii. Coupled with T9 in the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, was the only player who competed in both events to post a pair of top-10 finishes. The week included a second-round, 7-under-par 63, matching his career low on TOUR. It was the seventh time he had posted a 63, last doing so at the 2011 Barclays...Withstood snow, sleet rain and high winds outside Tucson to emerge victorious at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship in February. In his fourth consecutive start in the event, held off a hard-charging Hunter Mahan, the defending champion, in the championship match to win, 2 and 1. Despite taking a 4-up lead on No. 8 of the scheduled 18-hole final, Mahan was only 1-down with two holes to play. The match ended when Mahan conceded on No. 17 after failing to advance his second shot from the greenside waste area. With Mahan's concession, he did not play the 18th hole all week, joining only Luke Donald as a champion to avoid the home hole all week. Finished T8 at the Masters Tournament for his second top-10 in seven starts in the event...Held the second- and third-round leads at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, entering the final round with a one-stroke lead over four players. Final-round, 2-under 68 left him one behind Boo Weekley for the sixth runner-up finish of career (first since The Barclays in 2011). Has never missed a cut in seven starts at Colonial. . . A week later, at the Memorial Tournament, took a two-stroke lead into the final round and never lost the advantage to claim a two-shot win over Kevin Chappell. Opened and closed with 4-under 68s to claim his sixth PGA TOUR title and join Tiger Woods as a multiple winner. Became the second player this season to finish runner-up one week and win the following week. Brandt Snedeker first achieved the feat at the Waste Management Phoenix Open and AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. In July, bettered an opening-round, 6-under 66 at Glen Abbey GC with a third-round, 8-under 64 to claim a T2 with three others at the RBC Canadian Open...With rounds of 66-65-70, held the outright lead after the second round and shared the third-round lead with former U.S. World Cup teammate Gary Woodland at The Barclays. Struggled to a final-round, 7-over 78, including a triple bogey-7 on the ninth hole, to finish T19...Four rounds in the 60s led to a T4 finish at the Deutsche Bank Championship, finishing five strokes behind Henrik Stenson.

Performance was his eighth top-10 of the season and his 49th (out of 57 total) top 10s since the 2007 season. Posted a careerlow, 10-under 61 in the third round of the BMW Championship (T24). Advanced to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the fifth-consecutive season, finishing T26.

Got started in golf when his mother, Meg, upgraded the country club membership to include golf when he was 12 years old. He and his dad tried golf and were hooked...Father, Peter, is an excellent tennis player who was ranked No. 1 in doubles at one time in the state of Florida...Wife, Sybi, was a standout tennis player at Georgia Tech, where they met. They teamed in October 2009 to win the consolation title in the USTA National Husband/Wife Doubles Championship at the ATP Headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

Made three cuts in five TOUR starts. Will have one event in the 2013-14 season to earn $561,833, which, coupled with previous earnings, would equal No. 125 from the 2007 money list.

PERSONAL:

Lists playing in the 1999 Masters and winning the 1998 U.S. Amateur, with older brother Trip as his caddie, as his biggest thrills in golf...Credits his father for giving him his start in golf...Lists Fred Couples as his hero...Sister, Kelli, was a two-time U.S. Women's Amateur champion and currently plays on the LPGA. Brother, Trip, a former All-American at Oklahoma State, won the 2007 U.S. Mid-Amateur and was in the 2008 Masters field. Trip was the 1994 U.S. Amateur runner-up to Tiger Woods...Following years of back pain and going "unsuccessfully through 13 doctors," decided he was likely "done with golf for good." In one last effort, flew to Germany in March 2011, where he underwent treatment with success enough to allow him to return to competitive golf pain-free. The procedure involved taking 16 tubes of blood and treating it in a procedure similar to platelet therapy. First hole-in-one was at Dallas CC on No. 15 with a 7-iron at age 16.

2013 SEASON:

Rookie season ended with 12 made cuts in 27 starts to go with one top-10 finish. Finished No. 122 in the final FedExCup standings to regain his TOUR card for 2013-14... An 8-under 62 gave the rookie a one-stroke lead after the first round at the Sony Open in Hawaii, equaling the best opening-round score at the Sony Open (Scott Simpson in 1991, Brian Claar in 1997 and Mike Reid in 1997). Middle rounds of 66-65 left him tied with Russell Henley after 54 holes at 17-under (a tournament record) but was unable to keep pace with the eventual champion, firing a final-round, even-par 70 to T3, seven strokes back. Led all players in Putts Per Round (25.75 average).

2013 SEASON:

Finished the season No. 75 in the FedExCup, with runner-up finishes at the Humana Challenge and PLAYERS Championship. Nominated for PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year...Lost in a playoff at the Humana Challenge in his second career PGA TOUR start. Was defeated in the playoff with Brian Gay and Charles Howell III on the first extra hole (No. 18) when his approach shot went in the water. Gay won the playoff over Charles Howell III on the second extra hole (No. 10) with a birdie-3. Posted a bogey-free, 10-under 62 in the final round to get into the playoff. Despite the career-low score, the Swede struggled statistically in the final round, hitting just eight of 13 fairways and 13 of 18 greens in regulation. The statistical exception, however, was on the putting surface, where he needed just 21 putts in the final round...Coming off five consecutive missed cuts, made the most of a home-field advantage in his first start at THE PLAYERS Championship in May. Went from a tie for 10th (4-under) to a tie for sixth (8-under), to a share of the lead (11-under) in the first three rounds at TPC Sawgrass before an even-par 72 resulted a in T2, with Kevin Streelman and Jeff Maggert. The performance set a new mark for best finish in the event by a rookie, previously a T3 held by Fulton Allem (1988) and Camilo Villegas (2003)... Overcame a 1-over 71 in the first round of The Greenbrier Classic with three rounds in the 60s at The Old White TPC to claim a T9.

Led by one after three rounds and upped his lead to four with birdies at Nos. 5, 6 and 8. Lead dropped to two with a three-putt bogey at No. 16, but he bounced back with a 10-foot birdie putt at No. 17. consecutive top-five finish. Had a pair of eagles during the second round and then fired a 9-under 63 in the third round at Midland CC and took a one-stroke lead into the final day. Wound up a distant five shots back of winner Seung-Yul Noh and was not a factor on the last day but did charge through the pack with the day's best round. Runner-up check moved him from No. 36 to No. 6 on the Finals' Priority Ranking list, with just one event left on the schedule... Elected not to play the Web.com Tour Championship to spend time with his wife and triplet sons prior to the start of the 2013-14 TOUR season...Shared medalist honors at the U.S. Open qualifying event at Dallas' Lakewood CC in early June. PGA TOUR VICTORIES (2):

2006 Reno-Tahoe Open. 2008 Viking Classic.

2013 SEASON:

Playoff runner-up to Andrew Svoboda at the Chiquita Classic, the second of four Web.com Tour Finals' events. Chipped in for eagle from 35 feet at the 72nd hole to grab the clubhouse lead at 12-under par at River Run CC. Got into a playoff when Svoboda bogeyed the 17th hole and failed to birdie the final hole of regulation. Struggled on the first hole of the playoff, missing the fairway on both his first and second shots at the par-5. Third shot ran over the green. He then missed an 8-footer for par that would have extended the playoff after Svoboda two-putted for par from 20 feet. Runner-up effort was his best on either Tour since his win at the 2008 Viking Classic...Earned his first top-10 of the year, with a T4 at the WNB Golf Classic in April. Third-round 65 at Midland CC moved him within three of the lead but managed only an even-par 72 on the last day and wound up four back of winner Alex Aragon...Had six other top-25s before the Finals...Missed the cut in first Finals' event, the Hotel Fitness Championship, but Chiquita earnings held up, paving the way for his return to the PGA TOUR.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1): 2013 News Sentinel Open.

2013 SEASON:

Finished the year with 12 starts, making nine cuts. Collected four top-10s and eight top-25s in his limited appearances... Had no Web.com Tour status at the start of the season... Successfully Monday-qualified at the Air Capital Classic, where he finished T15, which earned him a start in the next week's Rex Hospital Open. Went on to post a T24 in North Carolina...Top-25 effort there gained him another start the following week, at the United Leasing Championship, which resulted in a T9...Missed the cut the next week at the Utah Championship...Earned a start at the Mylan Classic based on his money-list position, and he responded with another solid effort (T10) to gain a start at the Price Cutter Charity Championship in Springfield, Mo. Made it five-for-six in cuts made with a T14 in Springfield. Third-round 73 dropped him into a tie for 44th, but he rebounded Sunday at Highland Springs CC with a 67 that got him back into the top 25 and earned him another start at the next week's News Sentinel Open in his home state of Tennessee. His Price Cutter Charity Championship payday was enough to push his season earnings to $56,917 and earn him Special Temporary Membership...A week later, he made the most of his new status when he won on the Web.com Tour for the first time, doing so in front of a hometown crowd at the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville in mid-August. Entered the final round at Fox Den CC three strokes off the lead and promptly bogeyed his first two holes. Righted the ship with eight birdies the rest of the way, including five on his last seven holes, to defeat a quartet of players by one stroke. Sank a clutch birdie putt on the 18th hole Sunday to get to 16-under, then watched as Matt Bettencourt and Blayne Barber failed to force a playoff when their 18th-hole birdie efforts missed. Win was worth $99,000 and assured him of a PGA TOUR card for the 2013-14 season. That became official when he finished the Regular Season 18th in earnings at the Regular Season-ending Cox Classic...Finished T8 at the Chiquita Classic near Charlotte in second Web.com Tour Finals' event in September. Started the final round at River Run CC just one shot off the lead but never got out of the blocks, posting a 1-over 73 that left him four shots back of the Andrew Svoboda-Will MacKenzie playoff.

PERSONAL:

Is a big Kansas City Royals fan and wore a Royals golf shirt and Royals' colors during the final round of his first Web. com Tour win, the 2013 News Sentinel Open.

T6-2011 Reno-Tahoe Open.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (2):

2013 United Leasing Championship, Mylan Classic.

2013 SEASON:

Earned his first career win with a playoff victory at the rain-delayed United Leasing Championship in late June. Fired a 5-under 67 in the final round to get to 11-under 277. Was tied at the end of regulation with Ashley Hall, Joe Affrunti and Billy Hurley, but a nearly four-hour rain delay prevented the start of the playoff. Was first off the tee Monday morning in the playoff and hit 3-wood into the fairway and then watched as Affrunti hit into the high rough and both Hall and Hurley hit tee shots into the water on the right. Hit 6-iron to 22 feet and two-putted for par and the title. First-place check of $108,000 moved him from No. 21 to No. 4 on the money list after 14 events...Two weeks after his victory, and in his next start, he was back in contention, this time at the Utah Championship outside Salt Lake City. Shot rounds of 67-63-67-66 to finish at 21-under, a stroke out of the Steven Alker-Hall playoff. Had a putt on the 18th hole to force a tie, but his effort came up short... Earned his first top-10 finish of the year with a T8 at the rain-shortened Stadion Classic at UGA in early May...Was T4 at The Rex Hospital Open in June...Added a T6 at the Albertsons Boise Open in July when he fired a final-round 63 to move up the leaderboard. Finished three shots out of a playoff...Continued his torrid summer with his second win of the season a week later at the Mylan Classic near Pittsburgh, giving him two wins in six weeks. Never far from the lead the first two days at Southpointe GC, his third-round 67 gave him a four-shot lead heading into the final day. Bogeved the last two holes Saturday to see his lead drop from six. Started quickly with three birdies in his first five holes Sunday and quickly opened an eight-stroke advantage. Consecutive bogeys at Nos. 6 and 7, followed by a string of pars, saw his lead drop to two as former U.S. Amateur champion Kelly Kraft was making a charge. Final round turned when he chipped in for an eagle-2 at the 311yard 15th hole about the same time Kraft was bogeying the 16th, returning his lead to five shots. Closed bogey-birdiebirdie to wind up 17-under and five better than Kraft, who collected 10 birdies en route to a 7-under 64. First-place check of $121,500 moved him to No. 2 on the money list at the time, the position he would finish the Regular Season in, allowing him to secure his 2013-14 PGA TOUR card.. Finished T3 at the Chiquita Classic, the second event in the Web.com Tour Finals' series. Bounced back after a T32 finish a week earlier at the Hotel Fitness Championship. Posted four rounds below par at River Run CC near Charlotte and was boosted in the last round by four consecutive birdies, starting at No. 9...Closed with a 4-under 67 in the final round of the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship to jump into a T4. Moved to No. 9 in the Finals' priority ranking, with just one event left on the schedule, eventually finishing 10th on the chart.

After college, gave up golf for four years to work with his father in the family clothing business. During that period, athletic focus was on flag football, softball, tennis and racquetball. His return to golf was sparked by 1991 visit to Raley's Senior Gold Rush, the Champions Tour event at Rancho Murieta, Calif. After watching event, went home and built a long putter in his garage. Nearly won U.S. Mid-Amateur with homemade model later that year. Used more sophisticated version to win his three TOUR titles...In August 1999, made a hole-in-one during first round of CVS Charity Classic immediately following ace by Lee Janzen on 17th hole at Rhode Island CC...Inducted into California Golf Hall of Fame in 2012...Good-luck charm he carries on course is a SpongeBob SquarePants from his daughters. First two holes-in-one came seven holes apart at age 28 at Alameda GC outside Oakland. Made first ace on the fourth hole from 165 yards. After making the turn, he recorded a second ace on the 11th hole from 178 yards.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—RBC Heritage; T3—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship; T5—World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship; T9—The Honda Classic.

2013 SEASON:

Highlight was his second PGA TOUR victory, at the RBC Heritage, defeating Webb Simpson in a sudden-death playoff. Finished No. 55 in the final FedExCup standings. Also won two events on the European Tour, running his career total of European wins to eight . . First top 10 of the season came at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship in Marana, Ariz. In his seventh start in the event, lost to Jason Day, 1-up in the quarterfinals, good for a T5, his best finish in the event...In just his second stroke-play start of the season, claimed a T9 at The Honda Classic for the second consecutive year. Opened with a 3-under 67 on the challenging PGA National Champion Course to claim the top-10, his third consecutive in the event (T6 in 2011)...One week later, opened the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship by playing his first 46 holes without a bogey (a personal-best PGA TOUR streak) but followed with three bogeys and two double bogeys on his final 26 holes to finish T3. Paired with Tiger Woods for both rounds on the weekend, his most costly mishap was a double bogey-6 on the 72nd hole Sunday, dropping him from solo third into a four-way tie for third. Still managed his second consecutive top-10 finish in a World Golf Championships event after finishing T5 at the Accenture Match Play Championship. In seven previous appearances at the Cadillac Championship, his best finish was a T6 (2005 and 2010)... After entering the final round of the RBC Heritage trailing Charley Hoffman by four strokes, carded a final-round, 2-under 69 to finish tied with Webb Simpson at 9-under 275. Then defeated Simpson on the First extra hole (No. 18) with a par-4 for his second PGA TOUR victory (2010 U.S. Open, 2013 RBC Heritage). Win was the 10th by an international player at the RBC Heritage and the first by a player from Northern Ireland. In three prior starts at Harbour Town GL, six of his 10 rounds were over 74, including a 7-over 78 in the final round in 2005. En route to his victory, carded all four rounds at par or better (71-67-68-69)...A year after losing to Nicolas Colsaerts in the finals of the Volvo World Match Play Championship, he again made it to the final match but this time was victorious, beating Thongchai Jaidee, 2 and 1, at Bulgaria's Thracian Cliffs Golf and Beach Resort. Defeated Branden Grace (3 and 2) earlier that morning in the semifinal round. Also enjoyed match victories during the week against Chris Wood (5 and 3), Stephen Gallacher (4 and 2), Bo Van Pelt (1-up) and Colsaerts (2 and 1)...Second European Tour victory of the year came in early July at the Alstom Open de France. Entered the final round tied with Richard Sterne, but a Sunday 67 at Le Golf National in Paris to win going away, taking a four-shot victory over Sterne. The win marked the third time in his career he had won multiple European Tour titles in a season (2008 and 2010). Began the back nine trailing Sterne by one shot, but he had seven pars and two birdies to Sterne's six pars and three bogeys

PERSONAL:

Picked up the sport at age 7 with his brothers at the urging of his dad...Says standing on the 18th green at Pebble Beach after winning the U.S. Open is his biggest thrill in golf...Played numerous sports as a youngster, but, as he says, "golf always won."...Earned an honorary doctorate degree from the University of Ulster, along with, among others, Liverpool Football Club manager Kenny Dalglish, broadcaster Miriam O'Callaghan and actress Susan Lynch... In early 2013, opened Nona Blue outside Lake Nona in Orlando, Fla., an upscale restaurant and sports bar. The 5,600 square-foot facility offers menu items that range from seafood and steaks to shepherd's pie. Says a must-try item is G-Mac and Cheese.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Waste Management Phoenix Open, The Open Championship; T2—FedEx St. Jude Classic, U.S. Open; 3—Wells Fargo Championship, World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship; T6—The Barclays.

2013 SEASON:

Posted multiple wins in a season for the 14th time of his career, winning the Waste Management Phoenix Open and The Open Championship. Finished the year ninth in the FedExCup, keeping a streak alive as the only player with top-15 finishes in the first seven seasons of the season-long points race...Opened with an 11-under 60, equaling both his career-low PGA TOUR round and the lowest score in

Waste Management Phoenix Open history (his own secondround 60 en route to winning in 2005, Mark Calcavecchia in 2001 and Grant Waite in 1996). Followed the 60 with rounds of 65-64-67 to win in wire-to-wire fashion by four strokes over Brandt Snedeker. His four-round total of 28-under 256 equaled Calcavecchia's 72-hole tournament record and made him just the second wire-to-wire winner of the event (Steve Jones in 1997). His opening-round 60 equaled Steve Stricker (2010 John Deere Classic) for lowest opening-round score by a winner in PGA TOUR history. With his third Waste Management Phoenix Open win, tied Johnny Miller for most wins in the state of Arizona (six)... Finished T3 for just his second top-10 finish in 11 starts at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. His previous top-10 was a victory in 2009. Was paired with runner-up Steve Stricker all four days, with the pair recording the same scores the first three rounds (67-67-69) and Stricker pulling ahead by three strokes on the final day... Finished third at the Wells Fargo Championship after holding the second-round lead and a share of the third-round lead. Had the lead with three holes remaining in the final round but made bogevs on No. 16 and No. 17 to drop to

7-under and one shot out of the Derek Ernst-David Lynn playoff...Posted the 28th runner-up finish of his career, thanks to a tap-in birdie at the 72nd hole of the FedEx St. Jude Classic in early June. At 10-under 270, he T2 with Scott Stallings at TPC Southwind in his third start in the event. With the runner-up finish, now has at least one win and one runner-up finish in each of the last 10 years on TOUR...Came back the following week and held the outright first- and third-round leads at the U.S. Open and a share of the second-round lead before a final-round, 4-over 74 left him T2, two strokes behind Justin Rose. It was his sixth runner-up finish in 23 U.S. Open appearances (1999, 2002, 2004, 2006 and 2009), the most by any player. The only player with more runner-up finishes in a major is Jack Nicklaus (seven at The Open Championship)...A week after missing the cut at The Greenbrier Classic, traveled to Scotland for the Scottish Open. Shot weekend rounds of 66-69 at Castle Stuart GL to finish regulation at 17-under and tied with Branden Grace. On the first extra hole. hit his approach shot to a few inches of the cup and tapped in for birdie. When Grace couldn't match the birdie, he picked up his first title outside the U.S. since the 2009 World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions in China...One week later, entered the final round of The Open Championship trailing Lee Westwood by five strokes but stormed back with a 5-under 66 (equaling the round of the week) to win his fifth major championship. Became the first player to win the Scottish Open and The Open Championship in the same season. Finished birdie-birdie on the final two holes (one of just seven players to do so all week) to cap off a 3-under 32, making him the second consecutive Open champion to birdie the final hole and record a closing 32 (Ernie Els did so in 2012). Moved up to No. 2 in the FedExCup and the Official World Golf Ranking with his win. The 43-year-old became the third straight winner of the event aged 40-plus, joining 42-year-olds Darren Clarke and Els. Also became just the second lefthander to win The Open Championship, with Bob Charles performing the feat first in 1968. The victory came in his 20th Open start, tied with Clarke (2011) for most starts before winning. Also joined Els as consecutive Open champions to win the event after being enshrined into the World Golf Hall of Fame...Carded a final-round, 6-under 65 at The Barclays, jumping 28 spots to a T6, two strokes shy of Adam Scott's winning score. His only other top-10 finish in 12 starts at The Barclays came in 2007 (T7). His previous best score in 43 overall rounds at the event was 67 (twice in 2007, in 2011 and in 2012)... Making his 17th career start at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, finished T12 at East Lake and No. 9 in the FedÉxCup.

Started hitting golf balls at 18 months...ls right-handed in everything except golf. As his father demonstrated righthanded, he followed along left-handed...An avid pilot, following in the footsteps of his father, Phil Sr., who was a Navy pilot...With wife, Amy, has been involved with the Special Operations Warrior Foundation, Homes for Our Troops and Birdies for the Brave the last four seasons, helping raise money for these three organizations...Mother, Mary, was honored as March of Dimes Mother of the Year in November 1998...First golf-course design project, Whisper Rock, near Scottsdale, Ariz., opened in 2001...Is the former chair of the American Junior Golf Association... Attempted a $1 million "KPMG Chip4Charity" shot at halftime of the San Diego Chargers-Denver Broncos Monday Night Football game on Oct. 15, 2012 at Qualcomm Stadium. Missed the shot but earned $50,000 for First Book, a non-profit organization which provides new books for children in need...Website is philmickelson.com.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISH:

T10—Shell Houston Open.

2013 SEASON:

Again played worldwide, making the cut in six of 12 PGA TOUR starts. His lone top-10 finish of the TOUR season came at the Shell Houston Open, and he did not play again on TOUR after the John Deere Classic in July... Appeared to hurt his chances at victory with a third-round 74 at the European Tour's Volvo Golf Champions in Durban, South Africa, in January. But he recovered with a 6-under 66 on the final day at Durban CC (seven birdies and a bogey) to come from five shots off the pace to defeat 54-hole leader Scott Jamieson by a stroke. The victory gave him a European Tour victory for the fourth consecutive year, and it was his 11th professional triumph since turning pro in 2003...Thanks largely to a bogey-free, 7-under 65 in round three of the Shell Houston Open, claimed a T10...Had a nice showing at the Asian Tour-European Tour co-sponsored Ballantine's Championship in April. Enjoyed four under-par rounds at the Blackstone Resort in South Korea to finish fifth, two shots out of the Brett Rumford-Marcus Fraser-Peter Whiteford playoff...Withdrew from The Open Championship during the first round due to a recurring neck injury. Did not play again the rest of the season.

PERSONAL:

Comes from a strong tennis family with his father and brother both playing...A member of the Ernie Els Foundation in South Africa from 2000-02. The Ernie Els Foundation benefits families of limited resources and provides educational assistance and playing opportunities in order to produce successful young leaders and develop their playing ability to its full potential. "Getting into golf is very expensive. My dad is a farmer, and in the early years things weren't going that great on the farm. But when I was 17, I managed to become a member of Ernie's Foundation in South Africa and it was unbelievable what he did for me, helping with expenses and things like that."...Website is louis57oosthuizen.com.

I can't kid myself."...After finishing 124th on the 2011 money list to earn TOUR card for 2012, contacted tournament directors who granted him sponsor exemptions to thank them. "I've been doing this 25 years. I'm not saying I've never had a guy call me and thank me for doing that, but it's the first in a long time," AT&T National Tournament Director Greg McLaughlin told the Associated Press. "It's very rare. All the other guys are thankful and appreciative. But rarely do I get one after the season when a guy gets his card and calls you to thank you. BEST PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH:

T4-2012 U.S. Open.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISH:

T8—Zurich Classic of New Orleans.

2013 SEASON:

Won the Web.com Tour Finals, thanks to top-five finishes in each of the four events. Made the cut in 16 of 18 starts on the Web.com Tour, with a runner-up and three third-place finishes. His cumulative season total of $364,569 ranked him third on the list for most money won in a single year without a victory...Was T10 at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open, where the former LSU golfer was an obvious fan favorite. Fired a 6-under 65 in the opening round at Le Triomphe CC and shared the first-day lead with Danny Ellis. Second-day 72 forced him to play catch-up on the weekend. Another 65 in the third round moved him back into contention, but he failed to muster a charge on the last day. Excited the fans on the closing hole when his second shot at the par-4 stopped inches from the cup, prompting cheers of "L-S-U, L-S-U" from those in the stands...Second top-10 on Web.com Tour came at the final Regular Season event, the Cox Classic, where he missed joining Bronson La'Cassie and Matt Bettencourt in a playoff. Missed a birdie attempt on the last hole Sunday that not only cost him a playoff spot but his PGA TOUR card via the Regular Season money list. Playing in the same group, La'Cassie birdied the 72nd hole to knock him into third place and from 21st to 30th on the money list...Rode the wave into the first Web.com Tour Finals' event, posting a T5 that featured a final-round 64 at the Hotel Fitness Championship. He finished three shots off Trevor Immelman's 268 winning total...Followed up with another T3 effort the next week, at the Chiquita Classic near Charlotte. Shared the 54-hole lead at River Run CC with eventual playoff winner Andrew Svoboda. Failed to gain any momentum on the 72nd day and used a two-putt birdie on the final hole to move into his final position. Payday of $58,000 moved him to No. 6 on the priority ranking, assuring him one of the top-50 cards for the Finals' series and a spot on the PGA TOUR for the 2013-14 season. Ended the week in Charlotte No. 1 in Fairways Hit and in a T3 in Greens in Regulation but only T42 in Total Putts...Was a cumulative 90-under par between the Midwest Classic in mid July and the Chiquita Classic in early September, with only one score over par in those 28 rounds...Posted a 5-under 66 in the final round of the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship to finish solo third, his fourth consecutive top-five effort. Earned enough to jump to No. 5 on the Finals' priority ranking and locked up a berth on the PGA TOUR for 2013-14. Solid week in Columbus ended a run of nine consecutive starts and eight straight cuts made...Ended the year with a T2 effort at the Web.com Tour Championship. Hovered near the lead during the week but never really threatened. Final day, 3-under 67 left him two shots back of winner Chesson Hadley. Payday of $66,000 pushed his Finals' total to $230,000 and gave him a No. 1 spot on the priority ranking, $567 in front of Hadley. Winning the Finals also gave him fully-exempt status for the 2013-14 season and a berth in THE PLAYERS Championship...Became the first fully-exempt Web.com Tour member to receive a Masters invitation after finishing T4 in the 2012 U.S. Open at The Olympic Club. Made the cut at Augusta National GC (60th)...Two weeks later played in the Zurich Classic of New Orleans on a sponsor's exemption and finished T8, which earned him a playing spot in the Wells Fargo Championship (missed cut)...Received an invite to play the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial in his hometown, where he would open with a 64 (T26 finish)... Collectively, played in six TOUR events, with one top-10 and five cuts made and earnings of $259,679...Made starts in two majors, adding a T67 in the U.S. Open.

2013 SEASON:

Finished the season a career-best 30th in the FedExCup...After pulling an old putter he used as a pre-teen from his mother's golf bag, opened with an 8-under 64 at the Shell Houston Open that led to a onestroke win over Billy Horschel and Henrik Stenson. His first round was highlighted by five consecutive birdies on hole Nos. 10-14. Sank a clutch, 10-foot par putt on the 72nd hole to claim his second career PGA TOUR win. With the victory, earned an exemption into the Masters Tournament just two weeks later. Posted a bogey-free, 7-under 65 in the final round of the Zurich Classic of New Orleans to finish second, a stroke shy of winner and playing partner, Billy Horschel. Despite two rain delays, one of which came with him in the fairway of the 72nd hole, managed to come back and birdie the par-5 18th Sunday to assure the runner-up finish. Made just two bogeys the entire week, a career-best for him...Making his seventh start at The Barclays, recorded his first top-10 FedExCup Playoffs finish with a T6 effort, two strokes shy of Adam Scott's winning 11-under total. Closed with rounds of 66-67...Finished T26 in his first trip to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.

1—U.S. Open; 2—Arnold Palmer Invitational, The Barclays; T4—The Honda Classic; 6—TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola; T8—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship, the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide Insurance.

2013 SEASON:

Season highlighted by victory at the U.S. Open and finishing 10th in the FedExCup...Started his season at the European Tour's Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship. Rounds of 67-69-68-71 earned him a T2 with Thorbjorn Olesen, one stroke off Jamie Donaldson's winning total of 14-under. Had a birdie putt on the 72nd hole that would have forced a playoff, but he missed and settled for par...First top-10 of the PGA TOUR campaign came in March, at The Honda Classic. A second-round, 4-under 66 was just two strokes shy of the week's low round and helped secure him a T4 with four others, his third consecutive top-five finish at PGA National in what was his first TOUR stroke-play start of the season...One week later, finished T8 (with bookend, 4-under 68s) at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship in his attempt to become the first back-to-back winner at the TPC Blue Monster at Doral since Tiger Woods (2005-07). Was also hoping to join Woods as the only back-to-back winner of the Cadillac Championship (2002-03 and 2005-07)...Finished second at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, after holding the first-round lead and a share of the second-round lead. Finished two shots behind winner Tiger Woods...The 2010 Memorial Tournament winner returned to Muirfield Village GC and got off to a good start through three rounds (70-70-71). Began the final round tied for fourth, at 5-under. A final-round, 1-over 73 resulted in a T8...Entered the final round of the 113th U.S. Open trailing Phil Mickelson by two strokes, but a finalround, even-par 70 was good enough for his first major championship (37th start), defeating Mickelson and Jason Day by two shots. Became the first Englishman winner of the event in 43 years (Tony Jacklin in 1970). The win, which earned him a 10-year U.S. Open exemption and a five-year PGA TOUR exemption, came in his 222nd PGA TOUR start, at age 32 years, 10 months, 17 days. At the 18th hole, made famous by Ben Hogan's famous 1-iron shot in 1950 that led to a par and playoff victory the following day, hit a driver and 4-iron to par the hole and finish 1-over 281. The win was the fourth in a row in a major championship by international players and the seventh in the last 10 years at the U.S. Open (29th overall). The win was the fifth come-from-behind win in as many U.S. Opens hosted by Merion (1934, 1950, 1971 and 1981), and he added his name to a list of winners at the Club including Olin Dutra (1934), Hogan (1950), Lee Trevino (1971) and David Graham (1981)...Missed a 4-foot, 11-inch par putt on the final hole of The Barclays that would have placed him in a playoff with champion Adam Scott. With the runner-up performance, moved from No. 7 to No. 5 in the FedExCup standings. It marked the sixth runner-up finish of his career... A solo-sixth place finish at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola (his seventh top-10 of the season) led to a 10th-place standing in the FedExCup (his fourth consecutive top-15 finish in the season-long points race).

Moved to England from South Africa at age 5, when he started to play seriously at Hartley Wintney GC near his Hampshire home. First swung a club in back garden at 11 months when dad, Ken, handed him a plastic club. Broke 70 for the first time at age 11. Handicap of plus-1 at age 14... Father, Ken, passed away in September 2002, and he is remembered via the Ken Rose Foundation (kenrosefoundation.com)...Website is justinrose.com.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

3—HP Byron Nelson Championship, Northern Trust Open; T8—the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide Insurance, BMW Championship; T9—The Honda Classic.

2013 SEASON:

Finished the year No. 27 in the FedExCup, with five top-10 finishes among 17 made cuts (19 starts). Season-highlighted by third-place finishes at the Northern Trust Open and HP Byron Nelson Championship...In December 2012, a week after winning in Thailand by 11 strokes, he continued his dominance, playing on the 2013 European Tour, in Maelane, South Africa, where he was again the runaway winner, taking a 12-shot victory at the Alfred Dunhill Championship, his second victory in the event (2004). He entered the final 18 holes with a 10-stroke lead and shot a 69 at Leopard Creek CC to rout the field...Finished second at the Joburg Open in February, looking for his third win at the tournament in the last four years. Despite the runner-up finish, never really contended on the weekend. Entered the final round six shots behind leader Richard Sterne, and despite shooting four rounds in the 60s at Royal Johannesburg and Kensington GC's two courses, fell to Sterne by seven strokes...Finished T3 at the Northern Trust Open, missing the Charlie Beljan-John Merrick playoff by one shot. It was his first top-10 on TOUR since March 2012...Two weeks later at The Honda Classic, became one of just five players to post a sub-70 score Sunday at the wind-swept PGA National when he posted a 1-under 69, good for a T9 a year after finishing T5 in the event...Finished third in his first start at the HF Byron Nelson Championship, recording his third top-10 of the season...Made four consecutive birdies twice in the opening round of the Memorial Tournament (Nos. 14-17 and 4-7) to take the 18-hole lead, with a 7-under 65. Struggled in the third round, with a 4-over 76 but settled Sunday with an even-par 72 to claim a T8...Carded four sub-par rounds at the BMW Championship to finish T8 for his TOUR careerbest fifth top-10 of the season, jumping from No. 29 to No. 23 in the FedExCup and securing his first trip to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Went on to finish 29th at East Lake GC in the final Playoffs event...On the European Tour in late-September, at the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship, shot four rounds in the 60s to T7.

PERSONAL:

Favorites include filet steak and vacations to Mossel Bay in the western Cape province of South Africa. Favorite course to play is Leopard Creek CC in Mpumalanga, on the southern border of the Kruger National Park in South Africa. Says his idol is Angus Buchan, a farmer "who gave his life to God."

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1-Masters Tournament, The Barclays; T3-World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship, The Open Championship; T5—PGA Championship; T10—Northern Trust Open.

2013 SEASON:

Season highlighted with victories at the Masters Tournament (his first major championship) and The Barclays. Finished the year a career-best fourth in the FedExCup...Finished T10 at the Northern Trust Open in his first PGA TOUR start of the season...Fired the round of the week with a final-round, bogey-free, 8-under 64, jumping from T19 to T3 at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. Defeated Angel Cabrera with a birdie-3 on the second playoff hole (No. 10) to win the Masters Tournament. Made a 12-foot birdie put on No. 10 after watching Angel Cabrera just miss his birdie putt. Earned his ninth overall win and first major victory in his 202nd career TOUR start at age 32 years, 8 months, 28 days. Became the first Australian to win the Masters. The eventual Masters champion has come out of the final Sunday pairing 19 out of the last 23 years, but he is one of the four who hasn't, along with Zach Johnson (2007), Charl Schwartzel (2011) and Bubba Watson (2012). Has the sixth-most wins by an Australian on TOUR, trailing only Greg Norman (20), Jim Ferrier (18), Bruce Crampton (14), Steve Elkington (10) and Stuart Appleby (10). Has made 10 cuts in 12 career starts at the Masters. With the win, has four top 10s, including three consecutive (T8 in 2012 and T2 in 2011, as well as T9 in 2002). Has finished in the top 15 in each of his last six starts in majors. Went 47 consecutive majors without a victory before winning the Masters...One year after bogeys on the final four holes led to a runner-up finish to Ernie Els at The Open Championship, seized the lead at the same event again on the back nine before four consecu-tive bogeys on Nos. 13-16 led to a T3 finish. It marked his third top-10 finish at The Open, also giving him eight top-15 finishes in his last 11 major championship starts...Held a share of the first-round lead at the PGA Championship but finished T5. Joined fellow Australian Jason Day as the only two players with three top-10 finishes in the season's four majors... Recorded the largest come-from-behind win in the history of The Barclays, carding a final-round, 5-under 66 for a six-stroke comeback victory to defeat Graham DeLaet, Tiger Woods, Justin Rose and Gary Woodland by one stroke, making him the fourth Australian to win The Barclays, joining Bruce Crampton (1970), David Graham (1976) and Wayne Grady (1989). His 10th official PGA TOUR victory (also won the unofficial, 36-hole 2005 Northern Trust Open) came at age 33 years, 1 month, 9 days in his 210th career start. The victory, his first in 21 FedExCup Playoffs events, made him the season's fifth multiple winner, joining five-time winner Woods and two-time victors Brandt Snedeker, Matt Kuchar and Phil Mickelson. With the victory, joined Rory McIlroy (2012) and Woods (2007) as the only players to win a major championship and FedExCup Playoffs event in the same season. Also became just the fourth player to win a World Golf Championships event (2011 Bridgestone Invitational), FedExCup Playoffs event (2013 Barclays) and THE PLAYERS Championship (2004), joining Mickelson, Woods and Kuchar...Jumped out of the gate at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola with a 5-under 65 to trail eventual champion Henrik Stenson by one stroke. Was in second again after 36 holes, four back, before falling ill overnight prior to the third round. Received an IV treatment in the locker room prior to the third round but struggled to a 4-over 74. Never recovered, finishing T14 at East Lake and fourth in the FedExCup.

PERSONAL:

Golf hero is countryman Greg Norman, who along with former coach Butch Harmon, urged him to play several seasons on the European Tour.

2013 SEASON:

Made the cut in 17 of 23 starts, posting multiple victories for the second consecutive season and finishing No. 12 in the FedExCup...Battled through weather delays and heavy winds to start the season with a third-place finish at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions. Caught fire early in the final round, playing the first six holes in 5-under-par. His start cut eventual champion Dustin Johnson's lead to one at one point. But three consecutive bogeys on Nos. 7-9 kept him from seriously contending during the final nine holes. With the top-three finish, he started the season in similar fashion to his strong finish to 2012, when he finished in the top six in three of the four FedExCup Playoff events...In defense of his Farmers Insurance Open title, opened with a bogey-free, 7-under 65 at Torrey Pines and closed with back-to-back 69s to finish T2 with Josh Teater. The T2 was his fifth top-10 at the event in seven career starts...Kept the magic alive the following week at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, where rounds of 64-66-65-65 earned him second-place honors, four strokes behind Phil Mickelson. His score was the lowest four-round total in tournament history that didn't win the event. The back-to-back runner-up showings was a career-first and was the initial time he's posted back-to-back top-five finishes since recording T3s at the 2011 Barclays and Deutsche Bank Championship...Claimed his fifth PGA TOUR title, with a two-shot win over Chris Kirk at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Paired with Toby S. Wilt to claim a share of the pro-am team title, with Michael Letzig-John Erickson. It marked the ninth time in tournament history that a player has won the individual and pro-am team title in the same year and the first since 2011 (D.A. Points and Bill Murray). He played collegiately at Vanderbilt University under Toby S. Wilt's scholarship. Wilt was also the announcer on the No. 1 tee at the Masters when he played as an amateur in 2004. Became first player to follow up two consecutive runner-up finishes with a win (dating to 1990). Recorded his best finish in five previous starts at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am (was T21 in 2010). Had missed two of his last three cuts at Pebble Beach (2009 and 2011). Set the 72-hole record with a 267, breaking the record of 268 set by Mark O'Meara (1997) and later matched by Mickelson (2007). Was the first AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am winner to post all four rounds in the 60s since Vijay Singh (2004). Converted his second consecutive third-round lead/ co-lead into victory after failing to do so on his first two chances...Held a share of the third-round lead at the Masters Tournament before a final-round 75 left him at T6. It was his second top-10 in six starts at the Masters...Posted four subpar scores at THE PLAYERS Championship in May to claim a T8, after missing the cut at TPC Sawgrass in his four previous starts...Posted a final-round 71 at the AT&T National in his 600th official PGA TOUR round. His T8 finish at Congressional CC was his seventh top-10 finish of the season (tied for most on TOUR), equaling his career-high totals from the 2011 and 2012 seasons...Joined Tiger Woods, Mickelson and Matt Kuchar as multiple winners with his victory at the RBC Canadian Open. Trailed Hunter Mahan by eight strokes after the second round, but when Mahan withdrew before the third round to join his wife in the labor room, he siezed the opportunity. Blistered Glen Abbey GC's par-72 layout with a bogeyfree, 9-under 63 in the third round to set up a one-stroke lead headed into the final round. His three-shot win moved him to No. 3 in FedExCup standings in defense of his 2012 FeExCup champion title...Jumped to the first-round lead at the BMW Championship, with an 8-under 63 and shared the 36-hole lead with Jim Furyk (following Furyk's second-round 59).

Followed with rounds of 71-72 to finish T8. Fell from ninth to 10th in the FedExCup heading into the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. His finish at Conway Farms represented his career-best ninth top-10 of the season...Finished T20 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and 12th in the FedExCup.

2013 SEASON:

Turned in one of the top rookie performances in the history of the PGA TOUR, with highlights including a victory at the John Deere Classic (one of nine top-10 finishes) and his selection by Captain Fred Couples to be on the U.S. Presidents Cup team. Finished the year No. 7 in the FedExCup, with 18 made cuts in 23 starts... Played in two early season Web.com Tour events, turning in top-10s in both. Finished one shot behind Scott Brown, who made birdie-5 on the last hole to claim the win and avoid a playoff. Came close to becoming the second-youngest winner in TOUR history. During the third round, on No. 11, made his first career PGA TOUR hole-in-one...A week later, kept the heat on at the Tampa Bay Championship. Following a 1-over 72 in the first round at the Copperhead Course, rallied with rounds of 68-69-70 to claim a share of seventh place with six others. The finish was highlighted by a chip-in birdie Sunday at the par-3 17th. With the top-10, earned Special Temporary Member status, making him eligible for unlimited sponsor exemptions for the remainder of the year in his attempt to earn his PGA TOUR card...Earned his third top-10 finish in his seventh start of the season, finishing T9 at the RBC Heritage...Local favorite finished T7 in his first start at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. The last player to win the event in his first start at Colonial was Sergio Garcia in 2001... Shared medalist honors at the U.S. Open qualifying event at Dallas' Lakewood CC in early June. Tied with Edward Loar and Matt Weibring at 8-under 134. Shot rounds of 67-67 to earn his second consecutive U.S. Open invitation (T21 in 2012)... Notched his fifth top-10 finish of the season, with a sixth-place effort at the AT&T National. At 7-under, shared the lead at the midway point... Since 1900, is only the fourth player under age 20 to win on TOUR. Win came in 24th career PGA TOUR start, his 16th as a professional. Birdied his last three holes in the final round, highlighted by a holed 45-foot bunker shot on the 72nd hole to force sudden death with defending champion Zach Johnson and David Hearn. Won with a par-4 on the fifth extra hole (No. 18). With the win, earned full membership status on TOUR and became eligible for the FedExCup Playoffs. Had 614 Non-Member FedExCup points added to the 500 points earned for the win and moved to 11th in the FedExCup standings. The win also earned him the last invitation into The Open Championship at Muirfield...Lost to Patrick Reed in a playoff at the Wyndham Championship when Reed made a birdie-3 on the second extra hole (No. 10). On the first playoff hole (No. 18), he drained a putt from 26 feet to save par and force a second extra hole. Reed had a chance to win on the first playoff hole from just over 7 feet but missed...Highlighted by a career-low 9-under 62 in the final round, finished T4 at the Deutsche Bank Championship, five strokes behind Henrik Stenson. It equaled the lowest final-round score in the 11-year history at TPC Boston (Charley Hoffman in 2010). The performance also marked his eighth top-10 finish of the season. . BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T2—FedEx St. Jude Classic; T4—Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation, Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide Insurance.

2013 SEASON:

Made only 13 of 27 cuts on TOUR but had a career-best four top 10s. Finished No. 63 in the final FedExCup standings... Was T4 at the Humana Challenge after beginning the final round with a five-stroke lead. His lead was essentially erased before making the turn. After his second shot on the par-5 18th went in the water hazard, he was unable to convert par and join a playoff with rookie David Lingmerth, Charles Howell III and Brian Gay. Did not record a bogey in the first three rounds. His first of three bogeys didn't come until the par-4 seventh hole in the final round. This marked his third start in the Humana Challenge. He missed the 72-hole cut in 2011 and was forced to withdraw after the first round in 2012 when he tore cartilage in five ribs. One of seven players to post all four rounds in the 60s at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial (69-65-69-66), finishing T4. Had a 29 on the front nine at Colonial CC en route to a final-round, 4-under 66, falling one shy of Wayne Levi's record 28 on that nine in 1993. First two starts at Colonial resulted in missed cuts in 2011 (76-73) and 2012 (72-75)...A week later, made five straight birdies on hole Nos. 4-8 in the final round of the Memorial Tournament to claim a T4. His final-round 67 tied the low round of the day at Muirfield Village GC, with James Driscoll...Reeled off his third consecutive top-four finish, with a T2 at the FedEx St. Jude Classic. Entered the final round trailing Shawn Stefani by four strokes and appeared poised for his third career victory before a double bogey on No. 15 and a bogey on No. 18 derailed his title hopes. The second-place finish was the first of his career as he was attempting to become just the third Tennessean to win the event (Cary Middlecoff in 1961 and Gibby Gilbert in 1976).

PERSONAL:

Spent his rookie season in 2011 blogging for BNET, the CBS Interactive Business Network. Biggest thrill in golf was teaching the sport to wounded veterans in the Army... Favorite course he's played is Diamond Creek in Banner Elk, N.C...Most wanted to play Augusta National, which he fulfilled at the 2012 Masters...First car was a 1992 Honda Accord and now drives a Ford Rapture...Favorite college team is the Tennessee Volunteers, and he roots for the Boston Red Sox and New England Patriots...Favorite TV shows are "Duck Dynasty" and "24."...Favorite movies are "The Bourne Identity," "The Bourne Supremacy" and "The Bourne Ultimatum."...Favorite city to visit is Boston...Lists his father, grandfather and college coach as the men he would like to have join him for a dream round of golf...Says if he'd want to work for FCA Golf...Being able to coach a little league team for his son is on his bucket list. Is involved in the Wounded Warrior Project, Tennessee Junior Golf and Knoxlife Church...Has one sister...Spent time as a Fellowship of Christian Athletes camp counselor.

T9—World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational.

2013 SEASON-

Played sparingly on the PGA TOUR, but after having been unable to break par in any of the eight rounds comprising two previous starts at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, posted four rounds of par-or-better at Firestone CC to claim a T9 with three others... Was also T12 at the Cadillac Championship... Won his opening match of the Accenture Match Play Championship, beating Jason Dufner, 1-up, before falling to Hunter Mahan in the second round... Had his first top-10 of the season in late December 2012 when he T7 at the Alfred Dunhill Championship on the European Tour. Had three rounds of 70 to go with a second-round 68... Battled Stephen Gallacher at the Omega Dubai Desert Classic in early February. Opened with a 62 at Emirates GC to take the first-round lead. Maintained his advantage through 36 holes but fell three strokes off the pace after the third round, despite shooting a 5-under 66. On Sunday, he had birdies on two of his first three holes and actually regained the lead before four bogeys on six holes on the back nine ended his chances and finished second... Overcame the disappointment of Dubai a week later when he won his second Joburg Open title to go with his 2009 victory there. It was also his first European Tour victory since the 2009 South African Open. He began the tournament with a 63 (six birdies and an eagle on the Royal Johannesburg and Kensington GC's West Course. Held a share of the lead after the first and second rounds, opened a six-stroke cushion through 54 holes then fired a final-round 64 (eight birdies, no bogeys) on the East Course to cruise to a seven-shot victory over fellow countryman Charl Schwartzel. His lone bogey in the 72 holes he played came on the 15th hole in the third round on the East Course...Began the final round of the Alstom Open de France tied for the lead with Graeme McDowell, and held a one-shot lead with nine holes to play. But a seven-par, two-bogey finish left him four shots short of winner McDowell quarterfinals...Finished two strokes behind Tiger Woods at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship for his 13th career runner-up finish and second of the season (Hyundai Tournament of Champions). Has posted nine of his 12 career victories and eight of his 13 runner-up finishes since turning 40, in 2007. Was paired with Phil Mickelson all four rounds, carding the same scores the first three days (67-67-69), but pulling ahead with a 68 compared to Mickelson's 71 Sunday. Ended the week by increasing his streak of holes without a three-putt at TPC Blue Monster at Doral to 256, dating to the second round in 2010 (No. 5). On Wednesday, spent nearly an hour giving putting tips to Woods. He led in Strokes Gained-Putting for the week, with Woods finishing second...Finished T8 in his 18th U.S. start. His title hopes took a setback with a triple bogey-8 on the par-5 second hole—his highest single-hole score in a U.S. Open. The 46-year-old was hoping to supplant Hale Irwin as the oldest U.S. Open winner. Irwin was 45 years, 15 old and playing on a special exemption when he won his third U.S. Open title in 1990 (also won in 1974 and 1979)... Teamed with Bo Van Pelt in June to win the CVS Caremark Charity Classic, a two-day unofficial event hosted in Rhode Island by Billy Andrade and Brad Faxon...In July, the 2009-2011 John Deere Classic champion returned to TPC Deere Run, where he made another solid run at the title. Made seven birdies in the final round to post a 5-under 66 and net a T10 with Jim Herman. With his 16-under 268 total for the week, reached 100-under par at TPC Deere Run since his first win there in 2009...Four rounds in the 60s, including a third-round, 8-under 63, led to a runner-up finish at the Deutsche Bank Championship for his third runner-up showing of the season. Finished two strokes behind tournament winner Henrik Stenson and was the only player to move inside the top 10 in The Presidents Cup standings to earn a spot on the United States team. Is one of just three players (Mickelson and Hunter Mahan) who has never missed the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola during the FedExCup era, with a No. 2 finish in the FedExCup in 2007 his best. Left TPC Boston No. 8 in the FedExCup Playoffs, jumping 20 spots...Finished T8 at the BMW Championship for his 12th top-10 finish in the FedExCup Playoffs (tied with Jim Furyk for most on TOUR). Jumped from No. 8 to No. 6 in the FedExCup, keeping a streak alive (with Mickelson and Hunter Mahan) of never missing the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in the seven years of the FedExCup era... Eighth top-10 finish of the season and career-best fourth runner-up finish came at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, closing with a 5-under 65 to tie Jordan Spieth. It marked his 13th top 10 in the FedExCup Playoffs—most on the PGA TOUR. With three rounds in the 60s at East Lake, padded his TOUR lead in sub-70 FedExCup Playoff rounds, with 62, 10 clear of Mickelson and Jim Furyk.

Made 10 birdies and one bogey to card the score. Fell off the pace Sunday with consecutive bogeys on holes 5-8, leading to a 1-over 72 and a T4 with Martin Flores and Jerry Kelly. Because of the family-friendly nature of the event with its John Deere equipment, said his kids "have been waiting all year for this week to get all over those machines." Finish in Illinois represented a career-tying best performance...A week later, at the Sanderson Farms Championship, found himself again in the final group in the final round, this time carrying a share of the lead, with Nicholas Thompson. His 3-under 69 at Annandale GC was good enough to force sudden death with Cameron Beckman and Woody Austin. Following the 72nd hole at the Sanderson Farms Championship, he had played his previous 12 rounds in 45-under, dating to the first round of The Greenbrier Classic. In his 10 rounds prior to The Greenbrier Classic, he was 19-over...Entered the BMW Championship ranked No. 42 in the FedExCup standings. Failed to birdie the final hole in regulation to win outright. Earned the win on the first extra hole when he two-putted the par-5 18th for par and MacKenzie missed an 8-footer for par. Collected a first-place check of $180,000 and moved into a top position on the Finals' money list at the time...Collected his first career win at the Price Cutter Charity Championship in August. 2013 SEASON:

Finished the season No. 78 in the FedExCup, with 19 made cuts in 24 starts. Season highlighted by a runner-up finish at the Farmers Insurance Open...Coming off a T15 finish at the Sony Open in Hawaii two weeks earlier, opened with a 6-under 66 in his fourth consecutive start at the Farmers Insurance Open en route to a T2 with defending champion Brandt Snedeker. At 10-under 278, the pair finished four strokes behind Tiger Woods in the Monday finish at Torrey Pines GC. Finished T6 at the Northern Trust Open for his sixth top-10 finish in his last 15 starts on TOUR...Opened strong with a 5-under 65 in his fourth-career start at the Crowne Plaza Invitational. Added rounds of 67-71-67 to finish T7, four strokes behind champion Boo Weekley...Jumped out to the first-round lead at the Reno-Tahoe Open with 15 points, eventually finishing T56 in the Modified Stableford event.

Began playing the game at the age of 13, and credits the Larry Gilbert Junior Golf Program for giving his game direction. Was a better baseball player than golfer in high school. BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

4—Travelers Championship, Hyundai Tournament of Champions; T9—World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship.

2013 SEASON:

Made the cut in 18 of 21 starts, with fourth-place finishes at the Travelers Championship and Hyundai Tournament of Champions (T4) the best of his three top-10 finishes. Ended the year No. 37 in the FedExCup...Battled an illness much of the week at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions but managed a T4 finish, with rounds of 70-69-71 at the weather-shortened event. Has improved every season at Kapalua, finishing T25 in 2011 and T18 in 2012...Finished fourth at the Travelers Championship after holding the second-round lead and a share of the third-round lead. Has made seven career starts in Hartford. In addition to his 2010 win, other top-10 finishes at TPC River Highlands came in 2012 (T2) and 2008 (T6). Held the outright lead at 13-under with three holes to play until a triple bogey on the par-3 16th hole ended his victory chances. Finished at 10-under and two shots out of the Ken Duke-Chris Stroud playoff...Entered the BMW Championship No. 40 in the FedExCup, with a T24 finish at Conway Farms leading to a final-season ranking of No. 37. Had advanced to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in four of the last five years.

PERSONAL:

He and his wife, Angie, adopted their son (Caleb) on March 26, 2012...Following his win at the 2010 Travelers Championship, dedicated the win to his wife and father, Gerry, who was battling lung cancer and later passed away in October of 2010...In August 2010, provided a clinic in partnership with the PGA TOUR's "Birdies for the Brave" program with the U.S. Armed Forces. Father Gerry, who was a lieutenant in the Green Berets' Special Forces during the Vietnam War, was honored prior to the clinic for his military service with a plaque presented to him by Gen. Steven Duff, commander of U.S. Army Special Forces Command (Airborne) at Fort Bragg, N.C. "It's special. With my dad's situation, it's brought to my heart that the military is much more important than what we do for a living. So I needed to do something for the Green Berets and bring light to the Pensacola area." ... Uses a pink shaft in his driver and added a pink driver head in 2012... Attended the same high school—Milton (Fla.) High School a few years after current PGA TOUR players Heath Slocum and Boo Weekley. Self-taught player who learned the game by hitting wiffle balls around his house. "The house was probably an acre and a half yard with big trees, downtown Bagdad (Fla). The house is sitting here, and I drew in the dirt driveway. I'd draw a big circle, and that would be my hole, a 5-foot circle. I'd go around it to the left and then I'd go around it to the right. So I learned to cut it. If you know about wiffle balls or plastic balls, it's hard to cut. Then I learned to hook it the other way, hit it high over limbs, hit it low under limbs. I'd say non-stop every day from 6 to 12 years old. Instead of playing with trucks out in the yard, I'd play with a ball and a club." Wife is 6-foot-4 and a former library in 10 to 10 t . Wife is 6-foot-4 and a former University of Georgia, WNBA and European professional basketball player... Sponsors the Bubba Watson Invitational at the University of West Florida, a women's NCAA Division II golf tournament at Stonebrook Village GC...Hosted the first annual Bubba Watson Junior in 2011 at Meadowlands CC in Winston-Salem, N.C., to benefit the Victory Junction, a Hole in the Wall Gang Camp affiliate... Affiliated with The First Tee of Northwest Florida and the Ronald McDonald House of Pensacola, Fla...Without letting family and friends know, he completed requirements toward a degree at the University of Georgia in the summer of 2008, thereby validating his push for kids to stay in school...His most impressive drive came at the Waste Management Phoenix Open in 2012 when he showed up at TPC Scottsdale driving the "General Lee," one of the original Dodge Chargers from the 1980s TV show "The Dukes of Hazzard" that he purchased at a car show. He arrived at the tournament each day driving the car.

BEST 2013 PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial; 2—Tampa Bay Championship; T6—Zurich Classic of New Orleans; T8— Puerto Rico Open presented by seepuertorico.com.

2013 SEASON:

Made a career-best 23 cuts in 27 starts, with four top-10 finishes and a 29th-place finish in the FedExCup. Season highlighted with his third TOUR win (Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial)....Finished T8 at the Puerto Rico Open for his first top-10 of the season. It was his second consecutive top-10 at the Puerto Rico Open in four career starts...A week later, closed with a bogey-free, 8-under 63 at the Tampa Bay Championship, the low round of the week, to finish runner-up to Kevin Streelman. The 63 was just his fourth sub-70 score in 20 rounds on the Copperhead Course. He began the day tied for 35th and sat on the clubhouse lead for more than three hours Sunday until Streelman safely hit the 72nd green in two, with a twostroke lead. The finish was his best since winning the 2008 RBC Heritage...After an opening-round, 7-under 65 at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans, ensuing rounds of 68-73-68 resulted in a T6 performance with Harris English. Was the only player in the field to make three eagles, one coming at the par-4 10th in the second round (his first hole of the day). He holed a wedge from 105 yards...Entered the final round of the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial trailing Matt Kuchar by one stroke, but a 4-under 66 to Kuchar's 2-under 68 led to a one-stroke victory. His third PGA TOUR win came 124 starts after his last win, at the 2008 RBC Heritage. Coincidentally, his first two wins at the RBC Heritage (2007 and 2008) and victory at Colonial came with plaid jackets as prizes. Became the fifth consecutive come-from-behind winner at the Crowne Plaza Invitational, moving from No. 28 to No. 6 in the FedExCup standings in the process. Despite missing a couple of short putts Sunday that would have padded his winning margin, made seven putts longer than 20 feet during the week, equaling his career-best mark at the 2010 Zurich Classic of New Orleans for putts made from that distance. One of the key putts during his final-round victory run was a 21-foot, 5-inch birdie on the the 13th hole... Advanced to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the first time since the 2007 season, with a 30th-place finish at East Lake GC.

PERSONAL:

Played high school golf with PGA TOUR member Heath Slocum. TOUR member Bubba Watson later attended and played golf at Milton High School, and nearby resident Joe Durant is a close friend. Slocum's dad, Jack, served as his caddie during finals of the PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament...Nicknamed after cartoon hero Yogi Bear's sidekick, "Boo Boo" Bear...Studied turfgrass science in college and later worked as a laborer at the Monsanto chemical plant in Pensacola, Fla... Used to wear rain pants because cotton pants caused him to break out in a rash... Sponsored by the outdoors apparrel company Mossy Oak, which specializes in camouflage apparrel...Lists Ben Hogan as his hero...Because of his infectious personality, was a regularly featured player on "Inside the PGA TOUR" in 2002.

With the win (his first top-10 finish of the season), earned a spot in the following week's PGA Championship, moved from No. 116 to No. 54 in the FedExCup standings and extended his exemption on the PGA TOUR through the 2014-2015 season. The win came in his 94th PGA TOUR start at age 29 years, 2 months, 19 days, making him the season's 10th winner in his 20s. His week, which included just five bogeys, was highlighted by a holed bunker shot from 50 feet for eagle on the par-5 second hole and a holed chip from 53 feet for birdie on the par-3 seventh hole—both during the third round—and a holed chip from 58 feet for birdie on No. 14 during the final round...Shared the 54-hole lead with former U.S. World Cup teammate Matt Kuchar at The Barclays, thanks in large part to a stellar, second-round, 7-under 64. Eventually finished one stroke behind Adam Scott for the second runner-up of his career (2011 Humana Challenge). Strong showing at Liberty National jumped him 50 spots to No. 10 in the FedExCup standings...Advanced to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the second time in his career, finishing T22 at East Lake GC.

he has won seven times, the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational and Arnold Palmer Invitational being the others. In the previous six years he has won this event, he has gone on to win at least four times in each of those years. His 75th TOUR victory is just seven shy of the all-time record of 82, held by Sam Snead...At 19-under 269, finished two strokes clear of Steve Stricker to win the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship and become the TOUR's first multiple winner of the season. His 76th career PGA TOUR win and 17th World Golf Championships victory came at age 37 years, 2 months, 10 days in his 297th (283rd professional) career TOUR start. After posting the most birdies of his career through 36 and 54 holes, finished with 27 for the week, just one shy of a career-high 28 at the 2007 TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and 2006 Buick Open. Entered the final round with a four-stroke lead over Graeme McDowell, with his final-round, 1-under 71 leading to the victory (the 51st time in 55 attempts he has carried the third-round lead on to victory). Received putting tips from Stricker on Wednesday, with the two (Stricker finished No. 1) going on to finish as the top-two players in the field in Strokes Gained-Putting. Finished the week with a career-low 100 putts. The Cadillac Championship represents the fourth PGA TOUR event he has won seven times (World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, Arnold Palmer Invitational and Farmers Insurance Open). The Cadillac Championship win was his first World Golf Championships victory since the 2009 Bridgestone Invitational. From 1999-2009, he did not go an entire season without winning at least one World Golf Championships title...Carded a final-round, 2-under 70 in a Monday finish to defeat Justin Rose by two strokes at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, winning the event for a PGA TOUR record-tying eighth time (Sam Snead at the Greater Greensboro Open). His 77th career PGA TOUR win moved him within five wins of all-time leader Snead's 82 victories. With wins at the Cadillac Championship and Arnold Palmer Invitational, he won in back-to-back starts for the first time since the 2009 Buick Open and World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. Supplanted Rory McIlroy for the No. 1 position in the Official World Golf Ranking. The last time he held the top spot was on October 30, 2010. Surpassed Ernie Els for most weeks in the top 10 of the Official World Golf Ranking, at 789. Had a record run of 736 consecutive weeks in the top 10 from April 13, 1997, to May 15, 2011. Returned to the top 10 on March 25, 2012, where he has since remained. Of his eight Arnold Palmer Invitational wins, has entered the final round with at least a share of the 54-hole lead seven times. Made his 17th start at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, with his lone missed cut coming as an amateur in his first start, in 1994. He has played in every event at Bay Hill since, with the exception of 2010...Finished T4 at the Masters Tournament, four shots off the winning score. It became his 13th top-10 in 19 career Masters starts...In his next start, claimed on Mother's Day his second PLAYERS Championship victory after opening with a pair of 5-under 67s. He had previously not had back-to-back rounds in the 60s at THE PLAYERS since the second and third rounds in 2004 (T16). The only other time he accomplished the feat was in 2001 (second, third and fourth rounds), when he won. With his win, joined Jack Nicklaus, Steve Elkington, Hal Sutton, Fred Couples and Davis Love III as multiple winners of the event. The victory at TPC Sawgrass became his fourth of the campaign, the earliest he has achieved the feat in a season. The win was also his 16th in Florida, the most of any state. Converted the 54-hole lead for the 53rd time (in 57 attempts)...Playing in his 1,100th official PGA TOUR round, carded a final-round 3-over 74 to finish T6 at The Open Championship. It marked the 17th major championship he has played since his last win in a major (2008 U.S. Open)...Finished T22 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, falling from No. 1 to No. 2 in the FedExCup.

Fourth of eight children and the son of vegetable farmers... Once aspired to be a bodybuilder and own his own gym. A knee injury in his late teens ended that dream...Never knew there was a sport called golf until the age of 19, when he started going to a small, local driving range in South Korea on a friend's advice and learned the swing by watch-ing instructional videos. As required, spent almost two years in the South Korean military, stationed at his home at Jeju Island, south of South Korea, beginning at age 21. Guarded naval port...Traveled to New Zealand after his military duty to pursue a golf career. Practiced and played intensely there over a three-month period.

NOTES

Bad weather and especially high winds caused the 2013 Hyundai Tournament of Champions, originally scheduled to start on Friday, Jan. 4, to begin on Monday, Jan. 7, with 36 holes played that day. Partial first-round play on Friday and Sunday was declared "null and void," the first time TOUR officials had to take such action since the second round of the 2005 PLAYERS Championship. Players returned on Tuesday, Jan. 8, for the final 18 holes, with the tournament being scaled back to an official 54-hole event. The Tuesday finish was the first since Ben Curtis won the 2006 Booz Allen Classic.

Hyundai Tournament of Champions

NOTES

Prior to the 2013 Hyundai Tournament of Champions, the last 54-hole event on TOUR was The Barclays in 2011 (won by Dustin Johnson). The Hyundai Tournament of Champions marked the 27th 54-hole event on the PGA TOUR since Under PGA TOUR regulations, Dustin Johnson's 54-hole victory at the 2013 Hyundai Tournament of Champions was considered an official PGA TOUR win. Johnson received official FedExCup points, official money and Official World Golf Ranking points. He was also the first player to qualify for the 2014 Hyundai Tournament of Champions.

Dustin Johnson, the 2013 Hyundai Tournament of Champions winner (28 years, 6 months, 17 days) was the youngest player since Sergio Garcia (28 years, 4 months, 2 days) to win seven times before age 30. Johnson won his seventh TOUR event in his 120th professional start, while Garcia won his seventh in his 169th professional start, at THE PLAYERS in 2008.

With his victory at the 2013 Hyundai Tournament of Champions, Dustin Johnson (2008-13) became the first player since Tiger Woods (1996-2001) to win in six consecutive years straight out of college.

Dustin Johnson's streak of at least one PGA TOUR victory in each of the last six seasons became the second-longest active streak on TOUR behind only Phil Mickelson's nine (2004-12). Mickelson would later increase his streak to 10 with his win at the Waste Management Phoenix Open.

The runner-up finish for Steve Stricker at the 2013 Hyundai Tournament of Champions was the 12th of his career. He was the only player in the field over age 40. In his last five trips to Kapalua, he has finished second twice (also in 2008), tied for 10th (2010), tied for fourth (2011) and won (2012).

Tournament Record:
261, Ernie Els, 2003
Current Course Record:
62, K.J. Choi, 2003; Graeme McDowell, 2011

Sony Open in Hawaii

NOTES

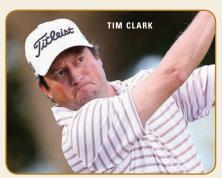

Russell Henley won the 2013 Sony Open in Hawaii to claim his first PGA TOUR victory at age 23 years, 9 months, 1 day in just his third PGA TOUR career start and first as a professional. With his win, he became the first rookie to win in his first start as an official member of the PGA TOUR since Garrett Willis at the 2001 Touchstone Energy Tucson Open.

Russell Henley became the ninth player to make this event his first PGA TOUR win. Others who won their first event here were Ted Makalena (1966), Grier Jones (1972), John Schlee (1973), Gary Groh (1975), Isao Aoki (1983), David Ishii (1990), John Morse (1995) and Jerry Kelly (2002).

Russell Henley's 72-hole total of 256 at the 2013 Sony Open in Hawaii broke the tournament-scoring mark of 260 set by John Huston in 1998 and later matched by Brad Faxon in 2001. It was the third-lowest 72-hole total in PGA TOUR history. Henley also set the tournament record for the best first 36-hole score in event history, at 14-under-par 126, breaking the record of 12-under-par 128 set in 1994 by Davis Love III and matched by John Huston (1998), Paul Azinger (2000), Brad Faxon (2001) and John Cook (2002).

Tim Clark's runner-up finish at the 2013 Sony Open in Hawaii marked the ninth consecutive year he has posted a second-place finish. His Hawaii performance was his 11th career runner-up. Clark was also second at the 2011 Sony Open in Hawaii.

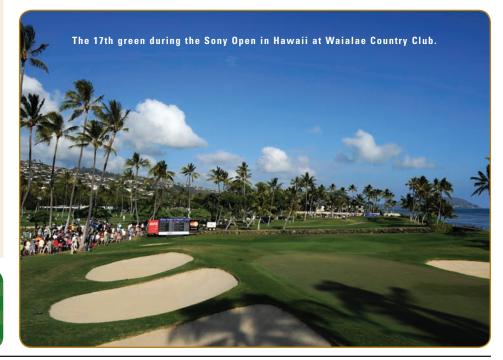

Russell Henley led all players with 26 birdies, and he one-putted 33 of 72 holes en route to winning.

Tournament Record: 256, Russell Henley, 2013 Current Course Record: 60, Davis Love III, 1994

Humana Challenge

NOTES

Brian Gay's victory at the 2013 Humana Challenge came in his 12th start at the event. His previousbest finish was a tie for fifth in 2011.

Brian Gay has posted 28 consecutive rounds of par or better at the Humana Challenge, his last over-par round a 74 in 2007's final round.

Charles Howell III's runner-up finish was the 14th of his PGA TOUR career. The two-time winner was looking for his first win since the 2007 Northern Trust Open. Howell first won at the 2002 Michelob Championship at Kingsmill.

The Humana Challenge 54-hole leader Scott Stallings, who tied for fourth, was the only player without a bogey in the first three rounds. Stallings' first of three bogeys didn't come until the par-4 seventh hole in the final round.

Kevin Chappell, James Hahn and David Lingmerth shared low final-round honors, at 10-under-par 62.

Humana Challenge

NOTES

The Humana Walkit Pro was new in 2013 and offered information to spectators about how PGA TOUR pros were getting healthy through playing their sport. Humana, in partnership with IDS, a division of SMT and the PGA TOUR's ShotLink Scoring System, tracked the number of steps taken and calories burned by every player on the course in real-time for each day of the Humana Challenge. Officials did this in order to show fans the immediate impact that golf—and walking—can have on their health. The totals:

First Round

1,999,792 steps 288.772 calories

Second Round

1,998,153 steps 284,698 calories

Third Round

1,993,691 steps 287.211 calories

Fourth Round

1,053,757 steps 146,972 calories

Waste Management Phoenix Open

NOTES

In his 24th appearance at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, Phil Mickelson carded an opening-round 11-under 60 and never trailed, posting a wire-to-wire, four-stroke victory for his 41st career PGA TOUR win. He remained in ninth all-time in wins, moving within four of tying Walter Hagen for eighth place on the all-time list (45 victories).

With his victory at the 2013 Waste Management Phoenix Open, Phil Mickelson joined Mark Calcavecchia, Gene Littler and Arnold Palmer as the fourth three-time winner of the event.

With a 28-under 256 total, Phil Mickelson tied Mark Calcavecchia (2001) for the 72-hole tournament record and matched the second-lowest score in a 72-hole tournament on the PGA TOUR. The best scores in PGA TOUR history for fourround events:

254 (26-under) - Tommy Armour III (2003 Valero Texas Open) 256 (26-under) – Phil Mickelson (2013) Waste Management Phoenix Open) 256 (28-under) - Mark Calcavecchia (2001 Waste Management Phoenix Open) 257 (27-under) - Mike Souchak (1955 Valero Texas Open) 257 (23-under) - Tiger Woods (2007 TOUR Championship)

Phil Mickelson's victory marked the ninth time he and Tiger Woods had won in back-to-back weeks on the PGA TOUR and the first time since 2008.

Phil Mickelson led the field in Greens in Regulation (87.51 percent) en route to winning. His 63 greens-hit-in-regulation total was one shy of his career best for a 72-hole event (2006 BellSouth Classic).

Tournament Record:

256, Mark Calcavecchia, 2001; Phil Mickelson, 2013 Current Course Record:

60, Grant Waite, 1996; Mark Calcavecchia, 2001; Phil Mickelson, 2005; Phil Mickelson, 2013

Waste Management Phoenix Open

NOTES

At the 2013 Waste Management Phoenix Open, Phil Mickelson became the first wire-to-wire winner on the PGA TOUR since Rory McIlroy at the 2011 U.S. Open. He also joined Steve Jones (1997) as the second wire-to-wire winner at the Waste Management Phoenix Open since 1970.

Phil Mickelson tied Johnny Miller for the most wins in the state of Arizona.

Johnny Miller (6) 1974 and 1975 Waste Management Phoenix Opens 1974, 1975, 1976 and 1981 Tucson Opens

Phil Mickelson (6) 1996, 2005 and 2013 Waste Management Phoenix Opens 1991, 1995 and 1996 Nortel Opens (in Tucson)

With Phil Mickelson's victory at the 2013 Waste Management Phoenix Open, he claimed at least one victory in each of the last 10 PGA TOUR seasons, the longest active streak. It also marked the 20th year to record at least one PGA TOUR title. Only Sam Snead (24) and Jack Nicklaus (21) have won at least one TOUR event in more years. Mickelson's first TOUR title came as an amateur, at the 1991 Northern Telecom in Tucson.

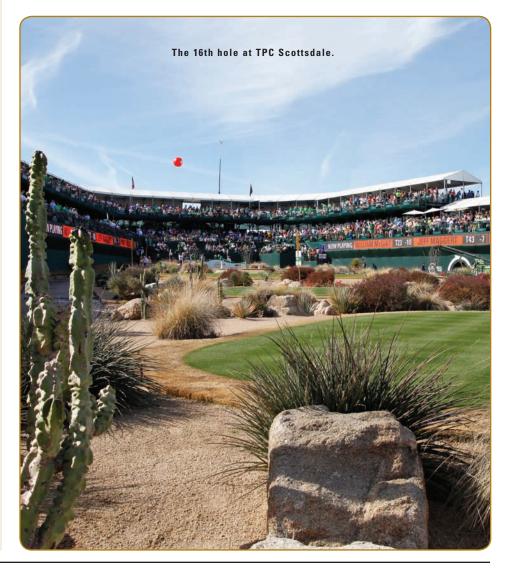

Defending champion Kyle Stanley finished last among the 74 players who made the cut. Stanley won the 2012 tournament with a 15-under. The following year, he was even-par 284.

The 2013 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am winner Brandt Snedeker became the first player since Fred Couples (1992) to follow up two consecutive runner-up finishes with a victory in the span of three weeks. Snedeker tied for second at the Farmers Insurance Open and was solo second at the Waste Management Phoenix Open before capturing the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

Making his first TOUR start of 2013 after undergoing back surgery on August 21, 2012, Retief Goosen tied for ninth and earned $175,500 to earn Major Medical Extension status for the remainder of the season. Goosen needed $76,336 to extend his Major Medical. His top-10 finish was his first since a tie for third at the 2012 FedEx St. Jude Classic.

NOTES

After competing in the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am for 26 consecutive years (not including the 1996 event canceled due to severe weather), two-time champion Davis Love III was forced to withdraw from the 2013 tournament due to injury and subsequent neck surgery.

Patrick Cantlay's tie for ninth at the 2013 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am was his second career top-10 finish. He tied for ninth as an amateur at the 2011 RBC Canadian Open.

Mark O'Meara has been called the Prince of Pebble Beach because of his five PGA TOUR titles there, along with the 1979 California State Amateur title. Following O'Meara with Pebble Beach wins are Phil Mickelson (four), Jack Nicklaus (three) and Johnny Miller (three).

Phil Mickelson (2005) is the only wire-to-wire winner in AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am history.

When Dustin Johnson won the 2009 and 2010 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am titles, he became the first player in 20 years to win the event in consecutive years. The others are Sam Snead (1937-38), Cary Middlecoff (1955-56), Jack Nicklaus (1972-73), Tom Watson (1977-78) and Mark O'Meara (1989-90).

Six players since 1970 earned their first win at this event: John Cook (1981), Steve Jones (1988), Brett Ogle (1993), Matt Gogel (2002), Arron Oberholser (2006) and D.A. Points (2011).

Bill Haas, the 54-hole leader, was attempting to become the first back-to-back winner of the event since Phil Mickelson (2008-09). Haas tied for third, his third consecutive top-10 finish in 2013.

Back-to-back Northern Trust Open winners:

Phil Mickelson, 2008-09 Mike Weir, 2003-04 Corey Pavin, 1994-95 Arnold Palmer, 1966-67 Paul Harney, 1964-65 Ben Hogan, 1947-48 Macdonald Smith, 1928-29

Runner-up Charlie Beljan was trying to win in his first start at the Northern Trust Open. The only players to win the Northern Trust Open in their first appearance are Harry Cooper (1926, first year of event), Danny Shute (1930), Tommy Bolt (1952), Pat Fitzsimons (1975) and Adam Scott (2005, an unofficial win).

With a tie for third at the 2013 Northern Trust Open, Charl Schwartzel recorded his first top-10 on the PGA TOUR since March of 2012 when he posted back-to-back top-five finishes, at The Honda Classic and the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. Schwartzel was looking to join Rory Sabbatini (2006) and Ernie Els (1999) as South African winners of the Northern Trust Open.

With his victory at the 2013 Honda Classic,

Michael Thompson jumped from 197th to 11th in the FedExCup standings and 114th to 45th in the Official World Golf Ranking. Inside the top 50 with his victory, Thompson qualified for his first career World Golf Championships event taking place the following week, the Cadillac Championship.

Michael Thompson joined Y.E. Yang (2009), Mark Wilson (2007), Padraig Harrington (2005), Todd Hamilton (2004) and Matt Kuchar (2002) as players since 2000 to earn their first TOUR wins at The Honda Classic.

Valspar Championship

NOTES

With his win at the 2013 Tampa Bay Championship presented by EverBank, Kevin Streelman earned his first career PGA TOUR victory at age 34 years, 4 months, 13 days in his 153rd career TOUR start. Streelman became the 12th consecutive player from the United States to win in 2013 in as many events and the 14th straight dating to 2012.

With his win, Kevin Streelman became the third player to make the Tampa Bay Championship his first career PGA TOUR win, joining Carl Pettersson (2005) and Gary Woodland (2011). Streelman's previous-best PGA TOUR finishes were ties for third at the 2009 OHL Classic at Mayakoba, the 2010 Puerto Rico Open and the 2010 Barclays.

Kevin Streelman played his final two rounds without a bogey. His 2-over-par 73 in the opening round was the highest start by a winner in a PGA TOUR event since 2010 when Bill Lunde shot a 73 at the Turning Stone Championship. Streelman was tied for 70th after his opening round.

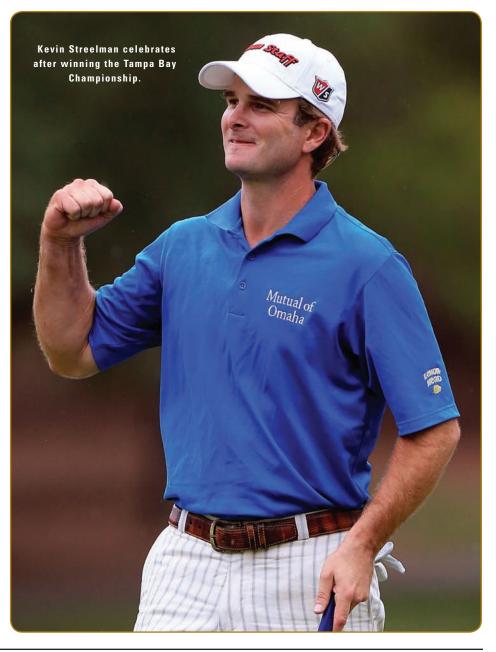

With a tie for seventh, Jordan Spieth earned $148,893 for a total of $521,893 in four 2013 starts, surpassing the total earnings of the player who finished No. 150 on the 2012 money list ($474,295). By doing so, he became a Special Temporary Member for the remainder of the 2013 season.

Arnold Palmer Invitational

presented by MasterCard

NOTES

Tiger Woods defeated Justin Rose by two strokes at the 2013 Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard, winning the event for a PGA TOUR record-tying eighth time (Sam Snead/ Greater Greensboro Open). His 77th career PGA TOUR win moved him within five wins of all-time leader Snead's 82 victories.

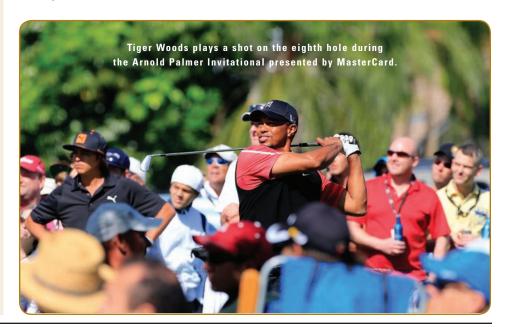

Tiger Woods' 2013 victory was his eighth at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, tying him for the all-time PGA TOUR record held by Sam Snead (Greater Greensboro Open) for the most wins at an event. Snead won the Greensboro event in 1938, 1946, 1949, 1950, 1955, 1956, 1960 and 1965.

With 2013 wins at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship and Arnold Palmer Invitational, Tiger Woods won back-to-back starts for the first time since the 2009 Buick Open and World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational.

In addition to moving into the top spot in the FedExCup standings with his victory at the 2013 Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard, Tiger Woods also supplanted Rory McIlroy for the No. 1 position in the Official World Golf Ranking. The last time he held the top spot was on October 30, 2010. Woods also surpassed Ernie Els for most weeks in the top 10 of the Official World Golf Ranking, at 789. Woods had a record run of 736 consecutive weeks in the top 10 from April 13, 1997, to May 15, 2011. He returned to the top 10 on March 25, 2012, where he has since remained.

Shell Houston Open

NOTES

D.A. Points sank a 13-foot putt on the 72nd hole to edge Billy Horschel and Henrik Stenson by one stroke. His second career PGA TOUR win came in his 189th PGA TOUR start at age 36 years, 3 months, 30 days.

D.A. Points' win at the 2013 Shell Houston Open marked the 16th straight by an American on TOUR, dating to Tommy Gainey's win at 2012 McGladrey Classic. The last time U.S. players won 17 straight came in 2006 (British Open to Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic), with South Korea's K.J. Choi ending the streak at the Chrysler Championship. The longest such streak since 1980 has been 33 (1982 USF&G Classic to 1983 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am) which ended with Japan's Isao Aoki winning the 1983 Hawaiian Open.

Henrik Stenson's tie for second vaulted him into the top 50 in the Official World Golf Ranking to earn a spot in the Masters Tournament for the eighth consecutive season.

Billy Horschel finished a career-best tie for second at the 2013 Shell Houston Open while extending his PGA TOUR-best made-cuts streak to 20. Horschel's previous-best finish was third at the 2012 True South Classic.

Through 2013, 54-hole leaders have won the Shell Houston Open four of the last five years and 10 times since 2000.

Shell Houston Open

NOTES

Fifty-four-hole co-leader Bill Haas tied for 10th in his attempt to join his father, Jay Haas, as the first father-son winner of the Shell Houston Open. Jay won the tournament in 1987 at TPC Woodlands. Jay (1988) and Bill (2010) had previously both won the Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation.

Dustin Johnson made a final-round charge at the 2013 Shell Houston Open, with a 7-under 65, the low final round, to tie for fourth, his best finish since winning the season-opening Hyundai Tournament of Champions.

Thirty-six hole leader Steve Wheatcroft tied for 22nd at the 2013 Shell Houston Open in his bid to become just the third Monday qualifier to win on the PGA TOUR in the last 27 years: Arjun Atwal/2010 Wyndham Championship and Fred Wadsworth/1986 Southern Open.

Defending champion Hunter Mahan missed the cut in his attempt to become the 10th multiple winner of the event, led by three-time winners Curtis Strange and Vijay Singh. The most-recent multiple winner is two-time champion Stuart Appleby (1999 and 2006).

Valero Texas Open

VALERO TEXAS OPEN

NOTES

Martin Laird birdied his final three holes Sunday to tie the TPC San Antonio (Oaks Course) course record (Matt Every, 2012 in the first round) with a 9-under 63 to win the 2013 Valero Texas Open by two strokes over Rory McIlroy and three over 54-hole leader Billy Horschel. Laird earned his third career PGA TOUR victory at age 30 years, 3 months, 9 days in his 134th career start on TOUR. He previously won the 2009 Shriners Hospitals for Children Open and 2011 Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard. Laird's victory came in his third start at the Valero Texas Open (tied for ninth in 2011 and tied for 70th in 2008).

Entering the 2013 Valero Texas Open, Martin

Laird ranked 167th on TOUR for Strokes Gained — Putting, losing an average of .727 strokes per round. At the Valero Texas Open, however, he outperformed the field by an average of plus-1.773 strokes per round to rank second among the field in Strokes Gained — Putting. In the final round, Laird outperformed the field by plus-4.39 total strokes, converting 109 feet of putts, which included six official putts over his final seven holes.

Martin Laird became the first player since Johnson Wagner (2008 Shell Houston Open) to earn the final spot into the Masters by virtue of a win the week before.

NOTES

Martin Laird's win at the 2013 Valero Texas Open snapped a streak of 16 straight victories by Americans on TOUR, dating to Tommy Gainey's win at the 2012 McGladrey Classic. The Scot became just the third international-born player since 1970 to win the Valero Texas Open (Adam Scott in 2010 and Nick Price in 1992). Rory McIlroy tied for 15th with Ryan Palmer who finished first in Greens in Regulation (77.8 percent) for the week.

Valero Texas Open

The 2013 Valero Texas Open 54-hole leader Billy Horschel tied for third just one week after tying for second down the road at the Shell Houston Open.

Making his first Valero Texas Open start, Jim Furyk holed a wedge from 104 yards for an eagle-3 on the 72nd hole to claim a share of third with Billy Horschel and Charley Hoffman.

Greg Chalmers aced the par-3 16th hole from 199 yards with a 6-iron in the final round of the 2013 Valero Texas Open. It was his fourth PGA TOUR ace. He also had one on the Web.com Tour.

Masters Tournament

NOTES

Tied after 72 holes, Adam Scott converted a 12-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole (No. 10) of sudden death to win the 2013 Masters Tournament over Angel Cabrera. Both Scott and Cabrera birdied the 72nd hole to finish at 9-underpar 279, two strokes clear of Jason Day.

Adam Scott's victory was his ninth official PGA TOUR win and first major victory in his 202nd career PGA TOUR start. He won at age 32 years, 8 months, 28 days, and he became the first Australian to win the Masters. A total of eight Australians have runner-up finishes at the Masters.

The 2013 playoff marked the 17th overall and the second consecutive overtime session at the Masters, with Bubba Watson defeating Louis Oosthuizen on the second hole in 2012. A Masters playoff has not gone past the second extra hole since going to a sudden-death format in 1976.

Two-time major champion Angel Cabrera jumped from No. 269 to No. 64 in the Official World Golf Ranking with his runner-up finish.

Angel Cabrera was looking to become the second-oldest (43 years, 7 months, 2 days) champion in tournament history, behind Jack Nicklaus (46 years, 2 months, 23 days) in 1986.

NOTES

Billy Horschel birdied six holes in a row (Nos. 7-12) and then drained a 26-foot, 8-inch putt for birdie-4 on the final hole en route to a final-round, 8-under 64 and a one-stroke victory over D.A. Points. Horschel's first-career PGA TOUR win came at age 26 years, 5 months, 21 days in his 61st professional start. With the victory, Horschel earned 500 points and moved from No. 14 to No. 3 in the FedExCup standings.

The 2013 Zurich Classic of New Orleans runnerup D.A. Points nearly matched champion Billy Horschel's 64 in the final round. Both players entered the day tied for second at 12-under and trailing Lucas Glover by two strokes. While Horschel turned in a scorecard with nine birdies and one bogey, Points was nearly as good, with a bogey-free card and seven birdies for a 65.

Billy Horschel led the field in Birdies, with 26.

Officials allowed players preferred lies for the first and fourth rounds.

Billy Horschel became the 13th first-time winner of the event since 1990. Six of the past nine winners of the tournament have made the win their maiden victory on TOUR (Tim Petrovic in 2005, Chris Couch in 2006, Nick Watney in 2007, Andres Romero in 2008 and Jason Dufner in 2012).

THE PLAYERS Championship

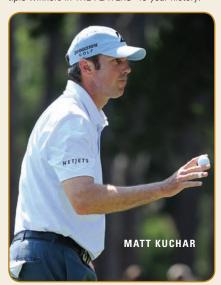

NOTES

With his two-stroke victory at THE PLAYERS, Tiger Woods earned his 78th career PGA TOUR victory at age 37 years, 4 months, 12 days in his 286th professional start on TOUR (300th overall). Sam Snead, the TOUR's all-time leader in wins, with 82, won his 78th at the 1958 Dallas Open Invitational at age of 46 years and 12 days.

With his fourth win of the season, at THE PLAYERS, Tiger Woods won four tournaments earlier (May 12) than in any of his previous TOUR seasons. Previously, the quickest Woods recorded four wins was in 2000, when he was victorious at the Mercedes Championships, AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, Bay Hill Invitational and Memorial Tournament by May 28.

Tiger Woods' second PLAYERS title came 12 years, 1 month, 16 days after his 2001 victory at TPC Sawgrass.

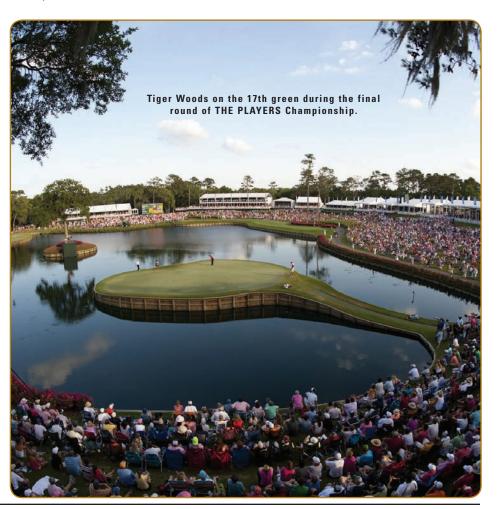

With his win in 2013, combined with his 2001 title, Tiger Woods joined Jack Nicklaus (1974, 1976 and 1978), Steve Elkington (1991 and 1997), Hal Sutton (1983 and 2000), Fred Couples (1984 and 1996) and Davis Love III (1992 and 2003) as multiple winners in THE PLAYERS' 40-year history.

Tiger Woods' 2013 winning score of 13-under-par 275 total was identical to thte last two champions' scores (K.J. Choi in 2011 and Matt Kuchar in 2012). It also marked the first time Woods had four rounds of par or better at THE PLAYERS since 2003.

HP Byron Nelson Championship

NOTES

Sang-Moon Bae overcame Keegan Bradley's one-stroke lead by shooting a final-round 69 at the 2013 HP Byron Nelson Championship to win his first PGA TOUR event in his 43rd career start at age 26 years, 10 months, 29 days. He became the eighth first-time winner in 2013 through the first 21 events.

Prior to his 2013 HP Byron Nelson Championship victory, Sang-Moon Bae's previous best TOUR finish was a playoff loss to Luke Donald at the 2012 Tampa Bay Championship.

Sang-Moon Bae became the fourth South Korean-born player to win on the PGA TOUR, joining K.J. Choi (eight wins), Y.E. Yang (two) and Kevin Na (one). He became the sixth player of Korean descent to win, joining Choi, Yang, Na, Anthony Kim (three wins) and John Huh (one). Kim and Huh were both born in the United States.

Sang-Moon Bae's win at the 2013 HP Byron Nelson Championship came in his first start at the event. Three of the last four champions of the HP Byron Nelson Championship won in their first start. The others are Jason Day in 2010 and Keegan Bradley in 2011.

Keegan Bradley shot an opening 60 at the 2013 HP Byron Nelson Championship and held the lead through the first three rounds before settling for second place. His 60 included two bogeys, the first PGA TOUR round of 60 or better that included two bogeys. Bradley equaled the HP Byron Nelson Championship tournament record (Sam Snead, second round in 1957 at Glen Lakes Country Club; Arron Oberholser, second round in 2006 at Cottonwood Valley) and bested the previous course record of 61 at TPC Four Seasons Resort shared by Cameron Beckman (2010), Justin Leonard (2001), Charlie Rymer (1996) and Billy Mayfair (1993).

U.S. Open

NOTES

Phil Mickelson, the 2013 runner-up, has a record six runner-up finishes in 23 U.S. Open appearances (1999, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2009 and 2013). Mickelson, who turned 43 the day of the final round, was seeking to become the first U.S. Open champion over age 40 since Payne Stewart (42), in 1999.

Jason Day was the only player to post top-10 finishes in the first two major championships of the 2013 season, finishing third at the Masters and tying for second at the U.S. Open.

Luke Donald tied for eighth for his first top-10 finish in 10 U.S. Open starts.

Hunter Mahan tied for fourth for his best finish in 30 major championship starts.

Billy Horschel, who held a share of the 36-hole lead at the 2013 U.S. Open, tied for fourth in his second major championship start, having missed the cut as an amateur at the 2006 U.S. Open.

Ernie Els tied for fourth in his 21st U.S. Open start, with wins in 1994 and 1997 among his 10 top-10 finishes. He was seeking to become the seventh player with at least three U.S. Open wins (four by Willie Anderson, Bobby Jones, Ben Hogan and Jack Nicklaus; and three by Hale Irwin and Tiger Woods).

U.S. Open champion Justin Rose tied for 13th at the 2013 Travelers Championship in his bid to become the first player since Ernie Els (1997) to win the week following a win at the U.S. Open.

Five of the past 11 winners at the Travelers Championship have come from a sudden-death playoff: Ken Duke (2013), Bubba Watson (2010), Hunter Mahan (2007), Brad Faxon (2005) and Woody Austin (2004).

NOTES

At the 2013 John Deere Classic, 19-year-old Jordan Spieth holed a 45-foot bunker shot on the 72nd hole for birdie to force a playoff with defending champion Zach Johnson and David Hearn at 19-under-par 265. Spieth won with a par on the fifth extra hole, the longest playoff on the PGA TOUR since John Huh defeated Robert Allenby on the eighth playoff hole at the 2012 OHL Classic at Mayakoba.

The three-man playoff between Jordan Spieth, Zach Johnson and David Hearn was the ninth playoff in tournament history.

Rookie Jordan Spieth claimed his first PGA TOUR win at age 19 years, 11 months, 18 days in his 24th career start on the PGA TOUR, his 16th as a professional. Spieth was the fourth-youngest winner in PGA TOUR history and the youngest winner since Ralph Guldahl won the 1931 Santa Monica Open at age 19 years, 2 months, 4 days.

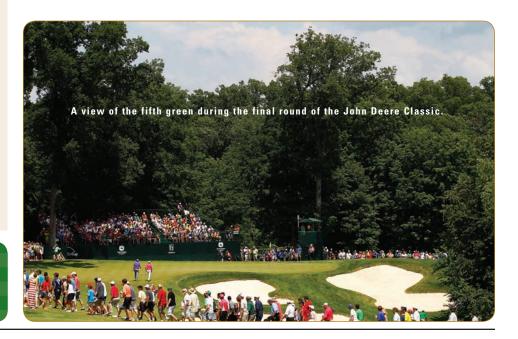

With his win at the 2013 John Deere Classic, Jordan Spieth claimed the final exemption into the following week's Open Championship. He was one of 28 players in the John Deere Classic field to compete at Muirfield for the year's third major.

2013 PGA TOUR Season

The Open Championship

NOTES

Entering the final round of the 2013 Open Championship and trailing Lee Westwood by five shots, Phil Mickelson shot a 5-under 66 to claim a three-stroke win over runner-up Henrik Stenson. Mickelson earned his 42nd career PGA TOUR victory at age 43 years, 1 month, 5 days in his 480th TOUR event (462nd as a professional).

In relation to Phil Mickelson's five-stroke, finalround come-from-behind win at the 2013 Open Championship, the largest final-round comeback at The Open Championship (and on the PGA TOUR) was 10 strokes, by Scotland's Paul Lawrie in 1999. Ten strokes back of Jean Van de Velde entering the final round, Lawrie posted a 4-underpar 67 and bested Van de Velde and Justin Leonard in the four-hole playoff format.

With his 42nd PGA TOUR win, Phil Mickelson is ninth all-time among PGA TOUR winners. Walter Hagen is eighth, with 45 victories.

In 2013, Phil Mickelson became the third consecutive champion Open Championship winner over age 40. He joins Darren Clarke (2011) and Ernie Els (2012), both 42 at the time of their victories.

NOTES

Woody Austin defeated Daniel Summerhays and Cameron Beckman with a birdie-4 on the first playoff hole to earn his fourth career PGA TOUR victory. Austin was age 49 years, 5 months, 25 days in his 507th career start.

The 2013 playoff between Woody Austin, Daniel Summerhays and Cameron Beckman marked the seventh playoff in Sanderson Farm Championship tournament history (1989, 1991, 1994, 2000, 2006 and 2008).

Woody Austin became the eighth-oldest winner in TOUR history with his win.

Three of Woody Austin's four PGA TOUR victories have come in playoffs: 1995 Buick Open (over Mike Brisky) and 2004 Buick Championship (over Tim Herron). Austin's lone playoff loss was to Davis Love III at the 2003 RBC Heritage.

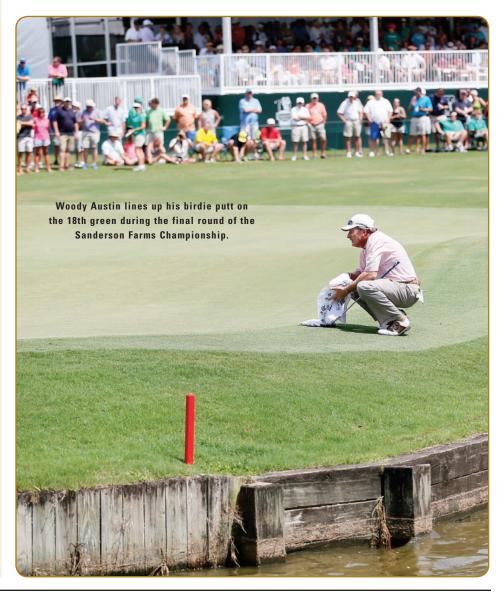

Cameron Beckman, winner of the event in 2001, was attempting to join Brian Henninger (1994 and 1999) and Fred Funk (1998 and 2004) as multiple winners of the event.

Daniel Summerhays held at least a share of the 54-hole lead for the second consecutive week. having led the John Deere Classic through three rounds before tying for fourth. Summerhays' top-10 at the Sanderson Farms Championship was his third straight top-10 effort and his fourth overall in 2013, matching his career best (2012).

Billy Andrade tied for fifth, earning him his first top-10 finish on TOUR since the 2006 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee (tied for sixth).

RBC Canadian Open

NOTES

David Lingmerth after opening 70-69-63, Brandt Snedeker closed with a 2-under-par 70 to earn his sixth career PGA TOUR victory at age 32 years, 7 months, 20 days in his 182nd start. Snedeker finished three shots clear of four players, William McGirt, Dustin Johnson, Matt Kuchar and Jason Bohn.

Brandt Snedeker's victory gave him his second consecutive season with multiple victories (2012), and he became the fourth player with two-plus wins on the 2013 PGA TOUR season, joining Tiger Woods, Matt Kuchar and Phil Mickelson.

At the 2013 RBC Canadian Open, Brandt Snedeker became the first third-round leader to win since Chez Reavie in 2008 when the event was contested at Glen Abbey Golf Club.

Second-round leader Hunter Mahan withdrew inside an hour before his third-round tee time when he received news that his wife, Kandi, had gone into labor with the couple's first child. Mahan arrived home on time in Dallas to witness the birth of daughter, Zoe Olivia, who was born at 3:26 a.m. Sunday, July 28.

William McGirt (tied for second) recorded his second consecutive runner-up finish at the RBC Canadian Open, having finished one stroke behind Scott Piercy in 2012.

World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational

NOTES

Tiger Woods captured his 79th career PGA TOUR title in his 290th career professional TOUR start, winning at age 37 years, 7 months, 5 days. Woods' win left him three shy of Sam Snead's all-time TOUR record of 82. Snead won his 79th TOUR event at the 1960 De Soto Open at age 47 years, 10 months.

Tiger Woods posted a second-round 61 at the 2013 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, matching his career low. It also tied the Firestone Country Club's South Course record, held by Jose Maria Olazabal (1990) and Woods (2000).

Tiger Woods' seven-stroke victory over Keegan Bradley and Henrik Stenson was his 11th career PGA TOUR win by at least seven strokes.

Tiger Woods' victory at the 2013 Bridgestone Invitational was his 18th World Golf Championships win in 42 starts. Woods has 12 top-10s, including eight victories in 14 starts at the Bridgestone Invitational. The eight wins are his second event where he has won eight times, matching Sam Snead's eight victories at the Greater Greensboro Open.

Tiger Woods' two eight-tournament victories:

- World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational (1999-2001, 2005-07, 2009 and 2013)
- Arnold Palmer Invitational (2000-03, 2008-09,

With Tiger Woods' victory at the 2013 Bridgestone Invitational, it marked his 10th season he has had five or more PGA TOUR victories. That leaves him first all-time.

Tiger Woods held a seven-stroke lead heading into the final round of the 2013 Bridgestone Invitational, the largest 54-hole lead on TOUR since Rory McIlroy led the 2011 U.S. Open by eight strokes.

Tournament Record:

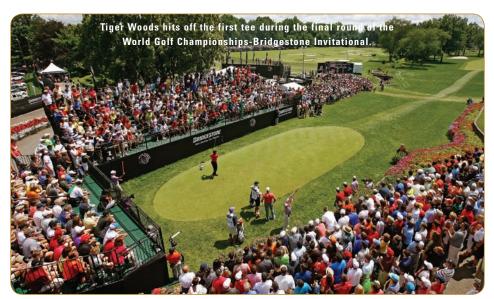

259, Tiger Woods, 2000

Wyndham Championship

NOTES

At the 2013 Wyndham Championship, no player moved in or dropped out of the top 125 in the FedExCup standings for the first time in the seven years of the FedExCup.

Jordan Spieth moved from No. 16 to No. 8 in the final PGA TOUR Season standings entering the FedExCup Playoffs. He was one of nine rookies to qualify for the Playoffs in 2013.

The following eight players missed the FedExCup Playoffs for the first time since the inception of the FedExCup in 2007: David Toms (tied for 16th), Padraig Harrington (missed cut), Chad Campbell (missed cut), Vijay Singh (missed cut), Jonathan Byrd (missed cut), Troy Matteson (missed cut), Sean O'Hair (missed cut) and Robert Allenby (missed cut).

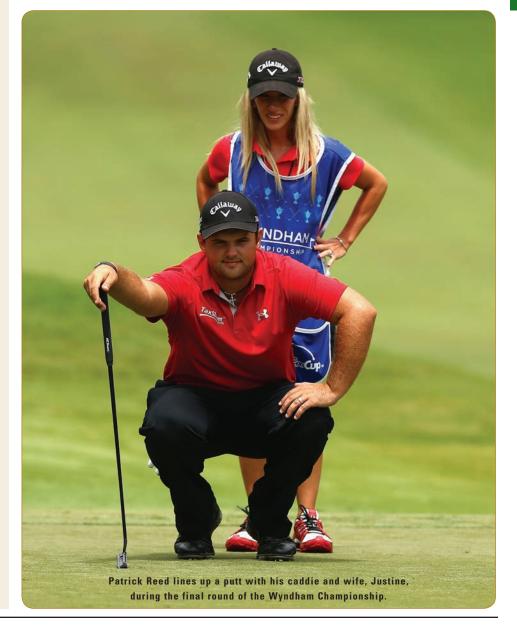

Davis Love III's streak of 27 consecutive years inside the top 100 on the TOUR money list ended in 2013, as he finished 165th on the official money list. However, Love tied Jay Haas for most consecutive seasons winning $100,000 or more, with 28. Love also increased his record of most consecutive seasons winning $200,000 or more, to 25 years.

Defending champion Sergio Garcia tied for 29th at the 2013 Wyndham Championship. Six other past champions competed as well: Webb Simpson (2011), tied for 11th, K.J. Choi (2005), tied for 37th, Arjun Atwal (2010), 71st, Carl Pettersson (2008), missed cut, Brandt Snedeker (2007), missed cut, and Davis Love III (1992 and 2006), missed cut.

David Toms missed the FedExCup Playoffs for the first time in seven years but retained his TOUR card for 2013-14 after finishing inside the top 125 on the money list (No. 122), thanks to a finalround 62 and a tie for 16th. Three other players finished outside the top 125 in FedExCup points but remained exempt for 2013-14 through the Official Money List: Nicolas Colsaerts (No. 110), Padraig Harrington (No. 113) and Peter Hanson (No. 124).

The Barclays

NOTES

Adam Scott entered the final round of the 2013 Barclavs trailing Matt Kuchar and Garv Woodland by six strokes before a bogey-free, 5-under 66 led to a one-stroke victory over Woodland, Tiger Woods, Graham DeLaet and Justin Rose. Scott's six-stroke come-from behind win was the largest in tournament history. The previous mark was five, set by Bobby Nichols in 1973, Vijay Singh in 1993 and Matt Kuchar in 2010.

Adam Scott's 10th official PGA TOUR victory came at age 33 years, 1 month, 9 days in his 210th career start. It also marked the second season with multiple wins, having won twice in 2004. Scott collected 2,500 points and moved from No. 11 to No. 2 in the FedExCup standings, with 3,847 points.

Adam Scott was the fourth Australian winner of The Barclays, joining Bruce Crampton (1970), David Graham (1976) and Wayne Grady (1989).

With his victory at the 2013 Barclays, Adam Scott joined Rory McIlroy (2012) and Tiger Woods (2007) as players to win a major championship and FedExCup Playoffs event in the same season. He also became the third player to win a World Golf Championships event (2011 Bridgestone Invitational), THE PLAYERS Championship (2004) and a FedExCup Playoffs event, joining Phil Mickelson, Tiger Woods and Matt Kuchar.

NOTES

With 11 birdies, one eagle and one bogey in the second round of the 2013 BMW Championship, Jim Furyk became the sixth player in PGA TOUR history to record a 59 in an official round. Beginning the round on No. 10, Furyk went B-B-B-P-B-E-P-B-B, good for an 8-under 28. He added birdies on the front nine at Nos. 2, 3, 4, 7 and 9 along with a bogey on No. 5. Furyk became the only player among the six players to have a bogey on his way to 59.

Jim Furyk, who finished third at the 2013 BMW Championship, joined Paul Goydos and Chip Beck as players to shoot a 59 and not win.

Jim Furyk (2013 BMW Championship) joined five others with rounds of 59 on TOUR: Al Geiberger (1977 FedEx St. Jude Classic), Chip Beck (1991 Shriners Hospitals for Children Open), David Duval (1999 Humana Challenge), Paul Goydos (2010) and Stuart Appleby (2010 Greenbrier Classic).

BMW Championship

NOTES

Two players played their way into the 2013
FedExCup Playoff Finale, the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, by turning in top-10 finishes at the BMW Championship. Nick Watney posted the low final round (64) to finish second to Zach Johnson. He jumped from No. 34 to No. 12, while Luke Donald moved from No. 54 to No. 28 with a tie for fourth outside Chicago. Harris English and Lee Westwood both finished 50th or lower to fall out of the top 30.

Zach Johnson posted a 6-under-par 65 to overcome Jim Furyk's three-stroke lead and clinch his 10th PGA TOUR victory at age 37 years, 6 months, 23 days. It marked Johnson's first victory in a FedExCup Playoffs' event in 22 starts.

Since missing the cut in his first two starts at the BMW Championship in 2004 and 2005, Zach Johnson has made seven consecutive cuts at the event, including his victory and a fifth-place finish (2009).

Zach Johnson's victory at the 2013 BMW
Championship was his sixth top-10 finish in seven starts dating to the John Deere Classic, where he lost in a playoff. He then tied for sixth at The Open Championship, tied for fourth at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, tied for eighth at the PGA Championship, tied for fifth at the Wyndham Championship and won the BMW Championship.

Since 2000, the third-round leader/co-leader has won six of 14 times at the BMW Championship, most recently Justin Rose in 2011. Jim Furyk held the third-round lead in 2013 but closed with an even-par 71 to finish solo third.

Defending BMW Championship winner Rory McIlroy tied for 59th and was eliminated from the FedExCup Playoffs, finishing 50th in the final standings.

NOTES

Including inaugural TOUR Championship winner Tom Watson in 1987, 2013 champion Henrik Stenson became the fifth player to win the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in his first appearance, joining Chad Campbell (2003), Bart Bryant (2005) and Bill Haas (2011).

With his victory at the 2013 TOUR Championship, Henrik Stenson's four wins are one shy of the record for a Swedish player on the PGA TOUR: Jesper Parnevik (five), Carl Pettersson (five), Gabriel Hjertstedt (two), Daniel Chopra (two), Jonas Blixt (two), Freddie Jacobson (one) and Richard S. Johnson (one).

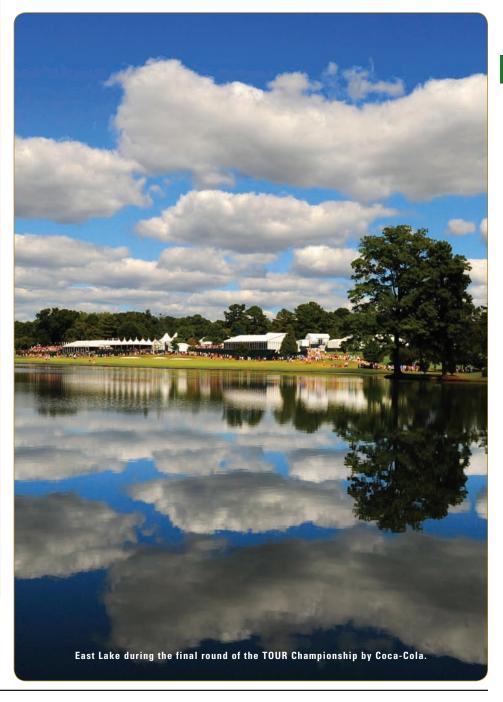

With wins at the Deutsche Bank Championship and TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in 2013, Henrik Stenson joined Tiger Woods (2007), Vijay Singh (2008), Camilo Villegas (2008) and Rory McIlroy (2012) with more than one Playoffs win in a single year. Stenson also became the sixth multiple winner of the year, joining five-time winner Woods and two-time winners Brandt Snedeker, Adam Scott, Matt Kuchar and Phil Mickelson.

The 10th Presidents Cup was contested in 2013 at Muirfield Village Golf Club in Dublin, Ohio. The venue became the first to host The Presidents Cup, Ryder Cup and Solheim Cup. Fred Couples reprised his role as U.S. captain for the third time after winning efforts in 2009 and 2011. Nick Price, a five-time Presidents Cup participant (1994, 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2003), served as captain of the International team for the first time. The U.S. team kept its winning streak alive, winning 181/2-151/2, holding off the International team, which attempted a late rally but came up short. Leading the way for the U.S. was Tiger Woods, who recorded a 4-1-0 record in his five matches, with Woods clinching the victory for the U.S. against Richard Sterne in Sunday singles' play. HISTORY

The Presidents Cup was developed to give the world's best non-European players an opportunity to compete in international team match-play competition.

The first Presidents Cup was played September 16-18, 1994, at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Virginia. The U.S. team, captained by Hale Irwin, defeated the International team, captained by David Graham, 20-12.

The United States also won the second Presidents Cup, held September 13-15, 1996, played again at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. Arnold Palmer, no stranger to high-level international competition, had the reins as the United States edged Peter Thomson's International team, 161/2-151/2.

The Presidents Cup 1998 was played December 11-13 at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. The International team made the most of the home-field advantage, winning 201/2-111/2. Jack Nicklaus served as captain of the U.S. team, while Thomson repeated his role as captain for the International

In 2000, The Presidents Cup returned to Robert Trent Jones, with the United States avenging its 1998 loss, with a decisive 21½-10½ victory over the International team. Thomson captained the International team for a third time, while Ken Venturi was victorious in his debut as U.S. team captain.

The Presidents Cup 2003 was held at The Links at Fancourt Hotel and Country Club Estate in George, South Africa. The competition ended in a tie after both teams completed regulation with 17 points. Ernie Els of the International team and Tiger Woods of the U.S. team were designated to represent their sides in a sudden-death playoff. After three extra holes, and as darkness was descending, Captains Gary Player and Nicklaus, in the spirit of the competition, decided that the two teams would share the Cup.

In 2005. Nicklaus and Player returned as captains, and the matches were held once again at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. The tie from 2003 was broken with an $18\frac{1}{2}$ - $15\frac{1}{2}$ U.S. victory.

The U.S. team wrapped up its fifth Presidents Cup victory in seven tries, this time at Royal Montreal Golf Club, in 2007—securing a 19½-14½ victory, the U.S. team's first win at an international venue in the competition's 13-year history. Nicklaus again led the U.S. team, with David Toms earning the most points for his U.S. squad. Woody Austin earned a new nickname—Aquaman—after falling into the lake on the 14th hole while attempting a shot. And while his team did not win, Canadian golf hero Mike Weir thrilled the crowds with a 1-up victory over No. 1-ranked Woods in Sunday's singles competition. Player captained the International team for a third and final time.

In 2009, The Presidents Cup was held at Harding Park Golf Course in San Francisco, Calif., one of the top public golf properties in the United States. Two of the most-dominant players on the PGA TOUR during the 1980s and 1990s, Fred Couples and Greg Norman, led the U.S. and International teams, respectively. The Presidents Cup 2009 marked the first time in event history that both captains were former participants. Couples has appeared four times (1994, 1996, 1998) and 2005) for the United States and Norman three (1996, 1998 and 2000) for the Internationals, and both factored prominently in victories secured by their respective teams. As first-time captains, Couples and Norman each led strong teams, with the U.S. retaining the Cup, winning for the sixth time (191/2-141/2).

The ninth playing of the event occurred November 15-20, 2011, at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, which was the first international venue to host this prestigious competition more than once.

The U.S. team captured The Presidents Cup for the seventh time, captained once again by Couples and led by a 5-0-0 performance from veteran Jim Furyk. Woods, one of Couples' two captain's picks, clinched the Cup for the United States with a 4-and-3 win over Australia's Aaron Baddeley in Sunday singles. For Woods, it was the second consecutive time he had scored the winning point at The Presidents Cup, becoming only the second player to accomplish that feat (Couples, in 1994 and 1996) and the first captain's pick to do so. Norman's International team played well but was undone by the foursomes competition. The Internationals were outscored 8-3 in foursomes and eventually lost the Cup by four points (19-15).

In July of 2013, the PGA TOUR announced that the 2015 Presidents Cup would be contested at Jack Nicklaus Golf Club Korea, a par-72, 7,413-yard course designed by Nicklaus' design company. The course is located in the Songdo International Business District in Incheon, South Korea. It will mark the first time Asia has hosted the biennial team competition.

Former U.S. President Gerald Ford presided over the first Presidents Cup as Honorary Chairman. Former President George H.W. Bush, like Ford an avid golfer, served as Honorary Chairman for The Presidents Cup 1996 and has attended every staging of the event since. He has since been inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame. Australia Prime Minister John Howard was Honorary Chairman for the 1998 event. In 2000, U.S. President Bill Clinton made history when he became the first sitting president to serve as Honorary Chairman. In 2003, Thabo Mbeki, President of the Republic of South Africa, was Honorary Chairman. U.S. President George W. Bush, the son of George H. W. Bush, served as the Honorary Chairman of The Presidents Cup 2005, and Canada Prime Minister Stephen Harper was the 2007 Honorary Chairman. U.S. President Barack Obama presided over The Presidents Cup 2009 as Honorary Chairman, and reprised that role in 2013. In the last playing of The Presidents Cup outisde the U.S., in 2011, Australia Prime Minister Julia Gillard was Honorary Chairwoman.

CHARITY

The Presidents Cup follows the PGA TOUR creed of giving back. There is no purse for the players. Net revenues are divided into equal shares that the players and captains designate for charities or golf-related projects of their choice. The first nine Presidents Cups generated more than $27 million for charities worldwide, including a record $4.5 million donation from the 2011 event.

PGA Player of the Year

The PGA Player of the Year Award is given by the PGA of America to the top PGA TOUR player based on a mathematical formula that weighs tournament wins, official money standing and scoring average.

The point system for selecting the Player of the Year was amended in 1982, as follows: 30 points for winning the PGA Championship, U.S. Open, British Open or Masters Tournament; 20 points for winning THE PLAYERS Championship; 10 points for winning all other designated PGA TOUR events. In addition, there is a 50-point bonus for winning two majors, 75-point bonus for winning three, 100-point bonus for winning four.

For top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR's official money list and scoring average list, the point value is: first, 20 points, then 18, 16, 14, 12, 10, 8, 6, 4, 2. Any incomplete rounds in the scoring average list will result in a .10 penalty per incomplete round.

Vardon Trophy

The Vardon Trophy, named in honor of famed British golfer Harry Vardon, is awarded annually by the PGA of America.

From 1947 to 1987, the Vardon Trophy was awarded to the professional golfer with the lowest-scoring average. In 1988, the criteria were adjusted to award the Vardon Trophy to the touring professional with the lowest adjusted scoring average based on a minimum of 60 official rounds in events cosponsored or approved by the PGA TOUR.

Any player with an incomplete round is ineligible to win the Vardon Trophy.

The award is named for Payne Stewart, an 11-time winner on the PGA TOUR, including three major championships. Stewart died the week of the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in 1999. The award was created by the PGA TOUR Policy Board to perpetuate Stewart's memory. It is presented annually at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola to a player sharing Stewart's respect for the traditions of the game, his commitment to uphold the game's heritage of charitable support and the professional and meticulous presentation of himself and the sport through his dress and conduct.

In addition to a sculpture presented to the recipient, the Payne Stewart Award is accompanied by an annual Payne Stewart Award Grant presented by Southern Company. The $300,000 grant will support several initiatives in Stewart's name to be distributed as follows: $100,000 to Payne and Tracey Stewart's primary charity, The Stewart Family Foundation; $100,000 in Stewart's honor to The First Tee facility in Missouri, located at Camp Kanakuk, which is affiliated with the "Kids Across America" program, and $100,000 to a charity designated by the recipient.

David Chu Award

The Award was created in 2009 to recognize Dr. David Chu's outstanding contributions to the growth of golf in China. Dr. Chu died Aug. 12, 2011 in Hong Kong.

Dr. Chu was considered by many as the father of golf in China. Dr. Chu founded Mission Hills Golf Club in 1992, confident in his belief that China's thriving economy would give rise to a domestic golf and leisure industry. A little more than 15 years after breaking ground, Mission Hills has grown into the world's largest golf club and is leading the golf boom gripping China.

The award is an 8-centimer-by-8-millimeter bronze medal bearing Dr. Chu's likeness and featuring text in English and Chinese on either side. It is anticipated that in future years the award will be given in Dr. Chu's name to other worthy recipients who have been instrumental in developing golf in China.
