About the Champions Tour

Collectively, the Champions Tour has the most recognizable and accomplished players in the game with many of its 30 members of the World Golf Hall of Fame competing regularly in its events and numerous other major championship winners among its members. The Champions Tour is a membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older. Conceived in 1980 as the Senior PGA Tour, it started with just four events and purses totaling $475,000. Points earned in 26 official Charles Schwab Cup events in 2013 will determine the Charles Schwab Cup champion, the season-long competition designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player. The Champions Tour's primary purpose is to provide financial opportunities for its players, entertain and inspire its fans, deliver substantial value to its partners, create outlets for volunteers to give back, protect the integrity of the game and generate significant charitable and economic impact in communities in which it plays. In 2012, tournaments on all five Tours (PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamerica, PGA TOUR Canada) generated more than $122 million for local charitable organizations, bringing the TOUR's all-time total of charitable contributions to more than $1.8 billion. The Commissioner of the PGA TOUR is Tim Finchem. Mike Stevens is President of the Champions Tour. The PGA TOUR's website is pgatour.com, the No. 1 site in golf, and the organization is headquartered in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL. Follow the Champions Tour at Facebook.com/Champions Tour and on Twitter @ChampionsTour.

History

1980 – 2012. The Tour enters its 34th season in 2013.

Charity

The Champions Tour and its tournaments generate significant sums of money for charity. In 2012, tournaments on all five Tours (PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamerica and PGA TOUR Canada) generated more than $122 million for local charitable organizations, bringing the TOUR's all-time total of charitable contributions to more than $1.8 billion. The Champions Tour's charitable mission is an integral component of its value proposition and charitable donations have a significant impact in the communities served by Champions Tour events.

2013 Schedule

Twenty-six official events are featured on the 2013 schedule, including three new tournaments in Atlanta, Chicago and Calgary. The Champions Tour will visit 16 different states throughout the U.S., along with two tournaments in Canada and one in England. The 2013 season marks the first time since 2009 that at least 26 official tournaments appear on the schedule.

The official 2013 season begins on the Big Island of Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai (Jan. 14-20), with the first full-field event coming three weeks later, at the Allianz Championship (Feb. 4-10), in Boca Raton, Fla. The first of three new Champions Tour events will take place the week following the Masters Tournament when the Greater Gwinnett Championship (April 15-21) ensures professional golf returns to TPC Sugarloaf in Atlanta. The Encompass Championship (June 17-23) will be played at the historic North Shore Country Club in the Chicago area, where, for the first time the popular celebrity pro-am format will be utilized. Champions Tour winners will be crowned twice in Canada in September when the Calgary Golf Classic (Aug. 26-Sept. 1) and the Montreal Championship (Sept. 2-8) will be played in back-to-back weeks. The venue for the Calgary tournament is Canyon Meadows Golf Club, while the La Vallee du Richelieu Golf Club will again host the Montreal Championship, this time at the Rouville Course.

Other significant changes include The Principal Charity Classic (May 27-June 2) in Des Moines, Iowa, relocating to the Wakonda Club, where former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman won the 1963 U.S. Amateur. Also, the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach (Sept. 23-29) returns to its fall date having been played during the Fourth of July week the past two years. The season will conclude with the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Oct. 28-Nov. 3), and it moves from the Cochise Course at Desert Mountain Club in Scottsdale, Ariz., back to TPC Harding Park in San Francisco, Calif., where the event was played in 2010 and 2011. The Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament will be conducted at the conclusion of the 2013 season, at TPC Scottsdale's Champions Course in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Major Championships (5)

The Champions Tour's major championships begin with the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid (May 20-26) at the Bellerive Country Club in St. Louis, Mo. Two weeks later, the Regions Tradition (June 3-9) will continue at Shoal Creek in Birmingham, Ala. The Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship (June 24-30) returns to Fox Chapel Golf Club in Pittsburgh, Pa. The U.S. Senior Open (July 8-14) is set for Omaha Country Club in Omaha, Neb. The Senior Open Championship Presented by Rolex (July 22-28) heads to Royal Birkdale in Southport, England, for the first time since the championship became an official Champions Tour event in 2003. The 2012 major championship winners are;

Charles Schwab Cup

The Charles Schwab Cup, now in its 13th season, designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player, rewards both top finishes and week-in/week-out consistency in all official events. Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution, with $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Double points will again be awarded at the five major championships. Double points will also be awarded to the entire 30-player field at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The season-long points competition kicks off in Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai (Jan. 14-20). The Road to the Charles Schwab Cup culminates at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Oct. 28-Nov. 3) in San Francisco, Calif. at TPC Harding Park, with $2.1 million in payouts awarded to the season's top five leading performers. The winner receives $1 million. Tom Lehman became the first player to win the Charles Schwab Cup in back-to-back years, taking the title in 2011 and 2012.

Charles Schwab Cup

Overview

The Charles Schwab Cup is a season-long, points-based competition launched in 2001 to determine the Champions Tour's leading player. The program rewards both consistency and top-10 finishes week-in and week-out at all official/Charles Schwab Cup events.

Prize Money

$2.1-million annuity to the top-five point earners at season's end.

Payouts

1st	$1 million
2nd	$500,000
3rd	$300,000
4th	$200,000
5th	$100,000

Points Distribution

Points are awarded to the top-10 finishers and ties in all official tournaments and are based on the money distribution for each tournament, with every $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Points are doubled at the Champions Tour's five major championships and to the entire 30 player field as the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in November.

Website Information and updates are available throughout the year on PGATOUR.COM.

2012 Charles Schwab Cup Recap

The season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship at Desert Mountain Club's Cochise Course in Scottsdale, Ariz., brought together the best of the Champions Tour, with the top-30 players on the 2012 money list earning their way to the Championship.

The $2.5-million tournament decided not only that week's champion, but it was also the culmination of the season-long points race to determine the Charles Schwab Cup winner.

Three players entered the week with a mathematical chance to win the Charles Schwab Cup. They were Bernhard Langer, with 16 top-10 finishes from 19 starts, including two wins; Tom Lehman, with four top-10s in majors where double Schwab Cup points were available and a win at the Regions Tradition; and Roger Chapman, with two major championship titles—at the Senior PGA Championship and the U.S. Senior Open.

Langer was seeking to win the Schwab Cup for a second time after claiming it in 2010, while Lehman, the 2011 Schwab Cup winner, was attempting to become the first player in Schwab Cup history to win in consecutive years. England's Chapman was looking to join Germany's Langer as the only international winners of the Schwab Cup.

Langer had established a 211-point lead over Lehman heading into the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, having won the SAS Championship late in the season and losing a playoff to David Frost at the final full-field event of the year, the AT&T Championship. Chapman was 657 points behind Langer and needed to win the finale and hope for some help from Langer and Lehman to have any chance of claiming the Cup.

All three contenders opened with sub-par rounds in glorious weather at the immaculate, par-70 Cochise Course. But the competition really heated up when Lehman posted 63 in the second round for a 36-hole total of 9-under 131, enough for second place, six strokes behind leader Jay Haas, who fired a 10-under 60. Haas needed to hole a bunker shot for eagle on the 18th hole to shoot the first Champions Tour 59. He came up four feet short but made the putt to become the eighth player in Champions Tour history to post the low 18-hole score. Langer was at 134 and tied for fifth, while Chapman was near the tail end of the field after an even-par 70 in the second round.

Midway through the tournament Lehman shared the news that his longtime instructor, Jim Flick, who had ties to Desert Mountain, was gravely ill.

"Flick told me 'Just go out and be Tom Lehman; just go out and be yourself and play your game,'" said Lehman, who wanted to be able to finish the tournament well and tell Flick this one was for him.

Lehman's motivation and inspiration were apparent when he took control of the tournament and the Charles Schwab Cup in the third round, shooting 62 to end the day with a one-stroke, 54-hole lead over Fred Couples, who also shot 62. Langer and Chapman continued to struggle and were too many shots back to threaten in the final round.

Lehman's final-round 65 included a critical shot on the 14th hole from an awkward lie that resulted in a birdie, slamming the door on his challengers as he coasted to a six-stroke win, shooting an all-time-record low 72-hole score on the Champions Tour of 258 (22-under).

"The 14th was a turning point for sure, as making a bogey there would have been a lot more pressure on me," said Lehman. "That one relaxed me a little bit. I felt from that point on this tournament is probably over unless I do something unbelievably stupid, and I didn't think I was going to."

The victory ensured the Charles Schwab Cup would stay in his possession for the second year in a row and propelled him into consideration for a second consecutive Player of the Year award. Also, for the 11th time in the 12-year history of the Charles Schwab Cup, the season-ending tournament determined the champion.

"It was a great week from start to finish, and I played some of my best golf of the year," continued Lehman. "I'm very, very fortunate and thankful to be able to bring my best when I needed it. The hometown fans were wonderful. They treated me really well, and having all of our friends here and family was really important, as well. Having Jim Flick watching it from home meant a lot."

Sadly, Flick passed away the day after his student claimed dual victories at Desert Mountain, a place that will continue to hold many memories for Lehman.

After winning the Charles Schwab Cup in 2011, Lehman used the $1-million annuity that goes to the winner to assist several different organizations in the Scottsdale community, where the Lehmans reside. Lehman indicated he will use the funds to assist in establishing a junior golf foundation to honor Flick.

"If there is money needed to get it going, this is where it will come from," said Lehman. "I'm grateful to get two of these (Charles Schwab Cup annuities) now to keep it flowing, and it will allow us to support the things we want to support for 10 or 11 years further than I was expecting. So that's all good."

Just being Tom Lehman is all good.

About the Commissioner

Finchem is the third commissioner of the PGA TOUR, succeeding Deane Beman. Beman served for 20 years, replacing Joe Dey, who had been the TOUR's commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Prior to becoming commissioner on June 1, 1994, Finchem was deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of the TOUR.

He joined the TOUR as vice president of business affairs in 1987.

Tim Finchem began his 19th year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2012. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGA TOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate. Since Finchem became commissioner in 1994, the PGA TOUR and its tournaments have raised more than $1 billion for charitable organizations.

Under Finchem's leadership, The Presidents Cup was created in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After nine stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar. The 2013 event will be played at Muirfield Village Golf Club in Dublin, Ohio, while The Presidents Cup 2015 will be contested in South Korea.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation. His personal dedication to the success of the The First Tee initiative has meant that, since the youth development organization's inception in 1997, The First Tee has grown to include programming at more than 200 chapters, 4,300 elementary schools and 120 military installations, reaching more than five million young people. Finchem currently serves as the co-chair of The First Tee Campaign for 10 Million Young People and chairman of The First Tee Board of Directors. It was announced on October 8, 2012 that individuals, corporations and foundations have provided more than $106.2 million in gifts and pledges in support of The First Tee Campaign for 10 Million Young People. From 1997 through 2011, The First Tee reached more than 6.5 million young people through its network, including 194 chapters offering programs at more than 700 golf facilities, 4,800 elementary schools and 120 U.S. military installations. Through 2017, The First Tee's goal is to reach 10 million additional young people and grow the network to 1,200 programming locations at golf facilities, 10,000 elementary schools and 350 other youth-serving locations.

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup. Since 2007, the FedExCup has brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

Born in Ottawa, Ill., on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, Va. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001, the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002, the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports Award in 2005 and the 2010 Donald Ross Award from the American Society of Golf Course Architects.

Finchem and his wife, the former Holly Bachand, have four children and live in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Became the first multiple winner on the Champions Tour for the year after he won the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am near Tampa and then teamed with David Frost the following week to claim the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. Enjoyed a five-stroke lead after 36 holes in Tampa but shook off a shaky start Sunday and eventually prevailed by three shots over Kenny Perry at TPC Tampa Bay. The win ended a 40-event victory drought...Teamed with Frost to win the Legends Division at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. The pair finished with a 54-hole score of 29-under-par 187, allowing them to finish one stroke better than the team of John Cook-Joey Sindelar...Fell one stroke short of Fred Couples at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic when Couples made birdie on the final hole to avoid a playoff. Played 54 holes at Fallen Oak with just one bogey, and his 66 Sunday equaled the low score of the day...Lost in a playoff to Willie Wood at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open when his tee shot on the first extra hole found the water at No. 18. Appeared as if he were going to win the event in regulation after making birdie on two of the last three holes but fell victim to Wood's birdie from 35 feet at the final hole that forced the overtime...Also narrowly missed a spot in the Corey Pavin-Peter Senior playoff at the Allianz Championship in February. Had a birdie opportunity on the 54th hole, which would have secured him a playoff spot, but he missed the putt to finish T3 with Bernhard Langer, one stroke shy...Was T9 at the PGA TOUR's Mayakoba Golf Classic after being in contention through 54 holes in Mexico. It marked the second consecutive year that a Champions Tour player finished among the top-10 at El Camaleon (John Cook solo third in 2011)...Realized a lifelong dream when he qualified for the U.S. Open at his home course, The Olympic Club in San Francisco, in June and finished T56...Named the Champions Tour's April Player of the Month following his two wins during the month...Was among the leaders in several statistical categories. Had the best Putting Average (1.739) as well as the fewest Putts Per Round (28.66). He also led Rounds in the 60s, with 43, and in Sub-Par Rounds, with 54.

PERSONAL:

Planned to be a stockbroker before turning to golf...Won the 2003 Southern Arizona Open with his daughter Christy serving as his caddie...As a 14-year-old he and a friend hiked the Pacific Crest Trail from Lake Tahoe to Yosemite, a distance of 210 miles. The trip took the pair three weeks.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Enjoyed another successful year, adding a victory to his resume along with 11 top-10 finishes and a sixth-place finish on the season-ending money list. Topped the $1-million mark for the second year in succession...Also led all players in Birdie Average (4.49) and in Total Birdies (323)...Returned to the winner's circle for the first time since his win at the 2011 Boeing Classic when he was a four-stroke victor at the Champions Tour's Montreal Championship in June. Trailing 36-hole leader Bob Tway by one after two rounds, but a course-record-tying, 8-under-par 64 helped him finish four strokes in front of runner-up Brad Bryant for his second career Champions Tour win...Led by four strokes after two rounds of the AT&T Championship but did not make a birdie until No. 14 Sunday at TPC San Antonio, eventually carding a 2-over 74 to drop into a solo third...Shared the third-round lead with eventual champion Joe Daley at the Constellation Senior Players Championship before faltering Sunday with a 2-over-par 72 to T4 near Pittsburgh...Held a two-stroke advantage after 36 holes at the Toshiba Classic but played his first five holes of the final round in 4-over to relinquish the lead. He rebounded with three birdies to get back into contention but hurt his chances with successive bogeys at Nos. 16 and 17. Had a good look for an eagle at No. 18 to possibly tie for the lead but settled for a birdie and an eventual T2 finish, two back of Loren Roberts...Saw a great opportunity slip away in February when he led during the final round of the Allianz Championship, but made bogeys on six of his final seven holes and ended up finishing T7 in Boca Raton...Was the first-round leader in defense of his Boeing Classic title and eventually finished T4 at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge...Was T9 in his 26th British Open start, making his 19th cut in the event. It was his first top-10 at the oldest major championship since a T10 in 1997.

CHAMPIONS TOUR VICTORIES (2):

2012 Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid. 2012 U.S. Senior Open Championship

BEST 2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1-Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid. 1-U.S. Senior Open Championship.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(6): 1979 English Amateur Championship. 1981 Lytham Trophy, Lake Macquarie Amateur. 1998 Zimbabwe Open. 2000 Brazil Rio de Janeiro 500 years Open, King Hassan II Trophy.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

One of the surprise stories of the Champions Tour season...Started the year as a conditionally-exempt player and turned his career around in his first start of the campaign when he won the Senior PGA Championship by two strokes over John Cook, becoming just the third Englishman to win on the Champions Tour and second (Mark James) to claim a major championship. Led or shared the lead in each of the four rounds at Harbor Shores in Benton Harbor, Mich. Victory came in his 16th career Champions Tour start. Enjoyed a five-stroke lead after 54 holes, and his advantage reached nine strokes early Sunday before he held on for a two-shot victory that made him immediately exempt on the Champions Tour...Seven weeks later, returned to Michigan and won the U.S. Senior Open just north of Detroit, at Indianwood CC. Rallied from four strokes back of Bernhard Langer, overtaking him late on the front nine and then held off Tom Lehman, Corey Pavin and Fred Funk down the stretch, to become the first Englishman to win a USGA event since Tony Jacklin at the 1970 U.S. Open at Hazeltine CC. Secured the victory by hitting a career 5-iron shot to within inches of the cup at the 205-yard, par-3 17th hole for a tap-in birdie that moved his lead back to two strokes, his eventual winning margin. Became the eighth player to win the U.S. Senior Open in his first appearance and the third international winner of the championship in the last five years. Victory at Indianwood, coupled with his Senior PGA Championship triumph, made him just the first player since Langer in 2010 to claim a pair of majors in the same year. He also joined Gary Player (1987), Jack Nicklaus (1991) and Hale Irwin (1998) as the fourth player to claim the Senior PGA Championship and U.S. Senior Open in the same year. Also became the first player since Mike Reid at the 2009 Tradition, whose first two Champions Tour wins came in majors. He is the fifth player overall to pull off that feat...Was one of 15 players to surpass the $1-million mark in season earnings, and he also garnered a $200,000 annuity by finishing fourth in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race...Player of the Month for May...Continued to play selected events on the European Senior Tour and won the John Jacobs Trophy as that circuit's order of merit winner. His best finish on that Tour was a T3 at the French Riviera Masters...Forced to withdraw after the opening round of the Senior British Open with a neck injury.

PERSONAL:

Served a stint as a rules official on the European Tour in 2007 and 2008 before embarking on his senior career...Underwent laser eye surgery after years of wearing glasses.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Surpassed the $1-million mark in yearly earnings for the fifth consecutive year but saw his streak of years winning at least one event each year come to a halt (five consecutive) when he was winless in 23 starts...Did have some opportunities to keep his streak alive. Was the 36-hole co-leader at the Senior PGA Championship, along with eventual winner Roger Chapman. Fell two strokes short at Harbor Shores and became the first man in Senior PGA Championship history to shoot four rounds in the 60s and not win. It was the fourth time he had finished second in four different senior major championships...In April, he and his partner, Joey Sindelar, finished second at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in Savannah. The duo finished with a 54-hole score of 28-under-par 188, including an 11-under-par 61 the final day, leaving them one stroke shy of the winning team of Michael Allen-David Frost...At the U.S. Senior Open, shot the lowest 36-hole score on the weekend (67-66) to move into a T6 along with John Huston, four strokes back of Chapman...Two weeks later, had another nice showing in a major championship when he was T6 at the Senior British Open at Turnberry...Enjoyed a nice two-week run in North Carolina in October when he was T10 at the SAS Championship and T4 the next week at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn where he opened and closed with 68s...Got his year off to a great start with a T3 finish in defense of his title at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai...Made one PGA TOUR start, at the Mayakoba Golf Classic (missed cut).

PERSONAL:

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Despite back woes limiting him to just 11 Champions Tour starts during the year, he still surpassed the seven-figure mark in season earnings, finishing third in the Charles Schwab Cup race, thanks to a pair of victories...Claimed his second major championship of his Champions Tour career when he birdied the final two holes at the Senior British Open at Turnberry to turn back a late charge by Gary Hallberg for the win, the eighth of his career. Rallied from a 2-over-par 72 in his opening round, with rounds of 68-64-67 to win by two strokes. Found himself tied with Hallberg at 7-under-par with two holes remaining, but he had a two-putt birdie at No. 17 and then put an exclamation point on his win with a 25-footer for a birdie at No. 18. He became the eighth player to win this event in his first appearance. The victory earned him a spot in the 2013 British Open at Muirfield. Win in Scotland was instrumental in his being named the Champions Tour Player of the Month, the second time he was so honored during the year...Earlier in the year, sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole to edge Michael Allen for the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic title, his seventh career Champions Tour victory. Shot 63 in the first round, making six consecutive birdies Saturday morning after Friday play was suspended by darkness. Win led to him being named March Player of the Month...Closed with 7-under 65, the low round of the event, to finish solo fourth at the Regions Tradition...Opened with rounds of 66-63 and was the 36-hole leader at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. Was unable to carry his momentum into the weekend, finishing with scores of 70-71 to finish T4...Was T2 after two rounds at the Toshiba Classic in March, trailing 36-hole leader Mark Calcavecchia by two strokes but struggled in windy conditions Sunday to close with a 2-over-par 73, which led to a T8 finish in Newport Beach...Forced to withdraw after hitting his tee shot on the first hole at the Boeing Classic due to lower-back problems...Returned to action two months later, finishing T4 at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Trailing Tom Lehman by just one stroke after 54 holes, but a final-round, 3-over-73 doomed his chances. Equaled his career-low Champions Tour round, shooting an 8-under-par 62 in the third round...Shared the 36-hole lead at the Masters with Jason Dufner before eventually finishing T12 at Augusta. Became the oldest (52) second-round leader in Masters history. The previous record was held by Lee Trevino in 1989, at age 49. His 26 made cuts at the Masters is fourth best in tournament history (Jack Nicklaus, 37; Gary Player, 30; Raymond Floyd, 27). Tied for the lowest 36-hole score (139) in Masters history by a player over 50. He did it in 2011 as did Raymond Floyd (50) in 1993...Playing in his first European Tour event of the year, shot a final-round 68 to T33 at the Dubai Desert Classic...Qualified for THE PLAYERS Championship in May but withdrew prior to the event because of illness...Made his 21st start at the Memorial Tournament and made the cut for the 15th time, finishing T50...Received perhaps his greatest honor in golf when he was voted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in September and will be inducted in May, 2013...Won his second Byron Nelson Award in the last three years when he led all players in Scoring Average (68.52), the second-lowest average in Champions Tour history. He set the record two years earlier when he averaged 67.96...Also led in Driving Distance (298.6 yards) for the second time in the last three years.

CHAMPIONS TOUR VICTORIES (1):

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (2):

1997 NIKE Louisiana Open. 2005 Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open Presented by Cox Comm

BEST 2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1—Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

One of the feel-good stories on the Champions Tour in 2012. After open qualifying for the first two full-field events of the season in Florida, parlayed a strong finish at the Senior PGA Championship into a berth in the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. Matched Sandy Lyle's scores of 66-64 on the weekend at Harbor Shores to finish T4 at the Senior PGA Championship, his best career Champions Tour performance at that point. Closing 36-hole total of 12-under 130 was the best in the field...Kept the momentum going in his next start and did it in a big way. Won the most significant title in his career when he captured July's Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship in Pittsburgh. In only his fourth start of the campaign, he opened with rounds of 66-64 at Fox Chapel GC and was in solo second through 36 holes, a stroke behind leader Fred Couples. Shot a 68 in the third round then matched that score in the final round to take a two-stroke victory over Tom Lehman. It was his first victory since taking the Web.com Tour's Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open in 2005. For the victory, he earned $405,000, more than twice what he made in his PGA TOUR career and easily surpassing his career-best payday, the $85,500 he made for winning the Wichita event...Went on to finish 27th in season earnings, and his top-30 finish assured him of fully-exempt status for 2013.

PERSONAL:

Self-taught and says his biggest thrill in golf is helping others become better players...Wife, Carol, cadied for him at times on the Web.com Tour. Quit job as a credit manager in 1992 at age 32 to pursue a career as a professional golfer.

Enjoyed his finest year since joining the Champions Tour in late 2009...Recorded multiple victories in a season for the first time since 1993 on the PGA TOUR and had his highest finish on the money list (ninth) in his three full-time seasons on the circuit...The first of his two wins came in April when he teamed with Michael Allen to win the Legends Division at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. The pair finished with a 54-hole total of 29-under-par 187, good enough for a one-stroke victory over the team of John Cook-Joey Sindelar. His eagle at the par-4 14th hole Sunday gave them a lead they never relinquished...Late in the year, won the AT&T Championship in San Antonio, making a 10-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to defeat Bernhard Langer. Came from six strokes back with a final-round 66, the largest comeback in tournament history. It also matched the biggest final-day turnaround on the Champions Tour for the year (Bernhard Langer/3M Championship). Victory in San Antonio was his third career Champions Tour title and second TOUR crown in Texas (1997 MasterCard Colonial)...Was on the leaderboard throughout the Senior PGA Championship and eventually finished T4 at Harbor Shores, thanks to a closing 67...Posted four consecutive rounds in the 60s for a T4 finish at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship in September...Led all players in Sand Save Percentage and had the lowest Par-3 scoring average during the year (2.93)...Closed out his competitive season by claiming the MCB Tour Championship in Mauritius on the European Senior Tour in December. Survived a double bogey and triple bogey in his final round on his way to a one-stroke win over Barry Lane and Peter Fowler...Will begin the 2013 season with a string of 200 consecutive holes without a three putt.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Bounced back from an injury-plagued 2011 season in a big way, winning multiple Champions Tour titles for the first time since the 2008 season. Finished fourth on the money list and claimed the fifth spot in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race, along with its $100,000 annuity...Birdied four of the last five holes to overtake Tom Lehman and win the Insuperity Championship, his first Champions Tour victory since the 2010 JELD-WEN Tradition, ending a drought of 1 year, 8 months, 13 days (29 Champions Tour tournaments). Was tied with Lehman playing the final hole of the event and rifled a 5-iron approach shot from 174 yards to 2 feet for the kick-in birdie that gave him the title. Was the 1992 Shell Houston Open champion and became the first player since Tom Watson, at the 2007 Senior British Open (at Muirfield, Scotland) to win a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour events at the same venue, the Tournament Course at The Woodlands CC...Just over five months later, outdueled Duffy Waldorf down the stretch to win the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. Holed a clutch eight-foot par putt at No. 17 to stay tied with Waldorf and then hit a 43-yard pitch shot to inside three feet for an easy birdie at the par-5 18th that was the difference. Became the sixth of eight multiple winners on the Champions Tour and claimed his eighth career title on the circuit, matching his total number of wins on the PGA TOUR. Joined Willie Wood as the second player on the Champions Tour to go bogey-free and win during the year. Dating to the 2011 event at Rock Barn, has a streak of 84 straight holes on the Jones Course without a bogey. Also became the event's oldest winner at 56 years, 4 months...Despite posting a 3-under 67 in three of his four rounds at Indianwood, finished T2 at the U.S. Senior Open, two strokes back of Roger Chapman...Shared the 36-hole lead at the SAS Championship with Steve Pate and was in the lead early on the back nine before bogeys on Nos. 11 and 12 proved his undoing. Eventually finished T4...Also was T4 at The Principal Charity Classic in June, thanks to a pair of rounds in the 60s on the weekend in Iowa...Added another T4 to his resume in November at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Had a roller-coaster performance at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship in early summer. Opened with a 5-under-par 65 to trail by one stroke after the first round, but followed with rounds of 72-64-72 to eventually finish T9 near Pittsburgh...On the PGA TOUR, made 18 birdies over four days at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans and finished T30 at TPC Louisiana...Also made one start on the Web.com Tour, at the Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open. Missed the cut a week after his Champions Tour win in North Carolina...Led all players in Driving Accuracy at 79.86 percent.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

More than doubled his previous year's earnings on the strength of three top-three finishes and seven top-10 finishes overall...Appeared to be in the driver's seat on his way to ending a TOUR victory drought of nearly 15 years when he led by four strokes after 36 holes at the inaugural Pacific Links Hawaii Championship. Lead grew to as many as five strokes at one point in the final round, but he struggled on his final six holes, making bogeys on four of those, including one at No. 18. He eventually finished second, one stroke behind Willie Wood, who closed with birdies on his final two holes. His runner-up finish was his career-best Champions Tour effort...Earlier in the year, he was T3 at The ACE Group Classic. Posted one of Sunday's best rounds, shooting 68 in breezy conditions at TwinEagles, a score that left him tied with Tom Lehman and Mike Goodes...Matched his effort in Naples when he was T3 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Was in contention midway through the back nine but consecutive bogeys at Nos. 16-17 ended his chances...Closed with 69 to T5 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, earning a spot in the In-sperity Championship for the highest top-10 finish among non-exempt players...Also was T5 at the Regions Tradition after being both the 18- and 36-hole leader/co-leader at Shoal Creek...Had another solid performance in a major championship when he finished T6 at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship near Pittsburgh in July. Was just one of four players in the field to post four straight rounds in the 60s.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished among the top-30 money-winners for a seventh straight year, and his seventh-place showing in earnings marked the fifth time in eight full-time Champions Tour seasons he's been among the top 10. Supassed the $1-million mark for the sixth time in eight years...Won for the 16th time in his Champions Tour career when he blitzed the field at The Principal Charity Classic in June. After an opening-round 66, followed with rounds of 65 and 66 to win by five shots, the largest winning margin in tournament history. The victory was his third in the event. During his first two rounds, he one-putted 24 of 36 holes and finished the tournament needing just 79 putts to secure the victory. His 54-hole score of 16-under-par 197 tied the tournament mark established by Gil Morgan in 2006...Turned in a stellar performance at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Tied the Champions Tour 18-hole scoring record with a second-round, 10-under-par 60 at Desert Mountain Club's Cochise Course and eventually finished second, six strokes behind Tom Lehman. ## 2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Narrowly missed a return to the top 30 and a berth in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship when he finished 31st on the money list following the final full-field event. Fell $3,832 shy of claiming the 30th spot...Turned in his best performance since his T2 at the 2009 AT&T Championship when he matched that effort at the Toshiba Classic in March...Was T7 at the 3M Championship thanks to three straight rounds in the 60s, a first for him since the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai in 2011...Was the 18- and 36-hole co-leader at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach but fell short in his bid to become the Champions Tour's third-oldest winner when a final-round 76 left him T9 on the Monterey Peninsula...Was T12 at the U.S. Senior Open after shooting a 65 to take the first-round lead at Indianwood, his low round of the year and matching his previous low round in a U.S. Senior Open. Started the championship by going out in 7-under 28, setting the record for the lowest nine-hole score in any USGA event.

PERSONAL:

After wearing glasses since age 12, had LASIK surgery in late January 1998 to correct acute nearsightedness...Started playing golf at age 6 by following his father around and won his first tournament at 11...Three of his last four PGA TOUR victories came on holidays—1992 BellSouth Classic (Mother's Day), 1992 U.S. Open (Father's Day), 1993 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic (Valentine's Day)...Biggest thrill in golf was being selected as the Ryder Cup captain in 1997...Has worked with such teachers as Harvey Penick, Bob Toski, Peter Kostis, Chuck Cook, Jim McLean, Dave Pelz and Dave Phillips...His daughter, Stephanie, was a former gymnast at the University of Alabama and was a member of its national championship squad in 2002. Son David played golf at South Carolina and served a stint as an assistant men's golf coach at the College of Charleston...Lists Pebble Beach as his favorite golf course and Michael Jordan as his favorite athlete...Inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in November 2002, along with Charlie Sifford, Marlene Streif and Isao Aoki...Dream foursome would include Bobby Jones, Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson and Walter Hagen "because they were the best players of all time that I never had a chance to play with."...The first car he owned was a 1957 Chevy...Enjoys Mexican food...He and his family have two dogs, Maja, a shepherd mix, and Mulligan, a foxhound...Says the best shot of his career was when he holed his lob wedge for a birdie on the seventh hole at Pebble Beach during the last round of the 1992 U.S. Open that helped him to a two-stroke win...Would like to continue his golf course design work in the future, with his son David joining him.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Became the Champions Tour's first four-time winner of the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner when he went past the $2-million mark ($2,140,296) for the fourth time in the last five years. Finished in the top 10 in 14 of his last 15 starts and placed second to Tom Lehman in the year-long Charles Schwab Cup race, losing by 435 points...Ended a 24-event victory drought in dramatic fashion in August when he closed with 10-under 62 and went past David Peoples to claim the 3M Championship, his 15th career Champions Tour title and his second win in Minnesota in four years. The victory gave him at least one win on the circuit in six consecutive seasons. It was his first title in more than 17 months, and his six-shot comeback was the largest in tournament history and the biggest on the Champions Tour since Jeff Sluman did the same thing at the 2009 Walmart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. His 10-under score at TPC Twin Cities on Sunday was one stroke off the Champions Tour record for lowest final round by a winner and was the best by a champion since Gary Hallberg's 61 in the last round of the 2010 Ensure Classic at Rock Barn...Added a second win to his season ledger when he finished two strokes better than Jay Don Blake at the SAS Championship in North Carolina in October. Shot a bogey-free, 9-under-par 63 and took control of the tournament on the back nine Sunday and used some clutch putting to post his 16th career Champions Tour title. One-putted five of his final six holes and birdied Nos. 17 and 18, which proved critical. The win also gave him multiple titles in four of his six seasons on Tour and his closing-round 63 was the best closing-round by a winner in SAS Championship history...Enjoyed a four-stroke lead after 54 holes of the U.S. Senior Open, but a 2-over 72 Sunday left him T2 with Lehman, Corey Pavin and Fred Funk, two strokes back of Roger Chapman. Appeared in command after making nine birdies and carding a 6-under 64 Saturday, the low round of the championship. But he double-bogeyed No. 2 in the final round and did not make his first birdie of the day until No. 15...Was the 18- and 54-hole leader in his next start at the Senior British Open, where he was bidding for his second win in three years at that event. Opened with a 6-under-par 64 at Turnberry to match the best opening-round score in tournament history and posted a third-round, 4-under 66. However a disastrous back-nine, 5-over-par 40 was his downfall, leading to a closing-round, 5-over 75 and a T6 finish...Finished a distant second to Kenny Perry in defense of his ACE Group Classic title. Started with 66-65 but was five back of Perry through 36 holes at TwinEagles. Eventually moved into the runner-up slot with steady play Sunday when breezes were taking their toll on the contenders. Eagled the par-5 17th hole all three days, a three-eagle first on the Champions Tour since the 2010 Boeing Classic (Dave Rummells, No. 1 at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge)...Was also one of three players to T2 behind Loren Roberts at the Toshiba Classic. Shared the first-round lead after a 6-under-par 65 and trailed by three after two rounds. Despite a birdie on the 54th hole, saw his chances disappear when he made a double bogey at No. 17...Closed with a 6-under 66 at Shoal Creek to finish T2 at the Regions Tradition. Was tied with Lehman early in the final round but eventually fell two strokes short of him...Lost in a playoff to David Frost at the AT&T Championship despite shooting a final-round 66 to come from six strokes back to get into the overtime session. Fell to Frost on the second extra hole after lipping out his birdie putt for victory on the first extra hole. Runner-up effort in San Antonio lifted him over the $2 million mark in earnings for the fourth time in five years and also allowed him to surpass $20 million in career earnings...Shot a final-round 69 at The Woodlands CC to finish T4 at the Inspecity Championship...Also was T4 at the Senior PGA Championship, thanks to a final-round 65 at Harbor Shores...Returned to the Masters for the first time in two years after missing the 2011 event due to his thumb injury but missed the cut...Played in his native Germany on the European Tour in June. Jumped into contention through 36 holes of the BMW International Open but shot even-par 72-72 on the weekend to T23 in Cologne...Finished fifth the following week at the Berenberg Bank Masters on the European Seniors Tour...Won the Nedbank Champions Challenge in November in South Africa.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Capped another highly successful campaign by winning the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in his hometown by six strokes over Jay Haas, adding a second consecutive Charles Schwab Cup title to his career resume in the process. Became the first player to win successive Charles Schwab Cup titles, as well as being the fifth to win that honor twice, joining Hale Irwin (2002 and 2004), Tom Watson (2003 and 2005), Jay Haas (2006 and 2008) and Loren Roberts (2007 and 2009). His winning 72-hole score of 22-under 258 was an all-time numerical record for a Champions Tour event, and with the win he joined Watson (2005) as the first player to claim the Charles Schwab Cup by winning the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. With his win at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship he won his second TOUR event in the Phoenix area, 12 years after claiming the 2000 Phoenix Open...Earlier in the year, he won his first tournament in just over a year when he repeated at the Regions Tradition by two shots over Bernhard Langer and Chien Soon Lu. Victory in Birmingham was his third major title since joining the Champions Tour and his sixth career win overall on the circuit. Became the first winner of the event to shoot four consecutive rounds in the 60s since Gil Morgan in 1997. Was also the first player since Allen Doyle at the 2005-06 U.S. Senior Open to successfully defend a major...Fell short in his bid for consecutive major victories when he finished two strokes shy of Joe Daley at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship in July despite four consecutive rounds in the 60s, stretching his string of consecutive sub-70 rounds to 12 at that point in the season...Also contended throughout at the U.S. Senior Open at Indianwood but fell two strokes short of Roger Chapman in a four-way tie for second with Corey Pavin, Fred Funk and Langer...Was also a hard-luck runner-up at the Insuperity Championship when Fred Funk birdied four of the last five holes to nip him by a stroke on the Tournament Course at The Woodlands CC. Was up by two strokes through 13 holes Sunday but played the final five in just 1-under par. Had a chance to send the event into a playoff at No. 18, but his 12-foot birdie putt just missed...In contention throughout The ACE Group Classic but could only manage a 72 on Sunday that left him T3 in Naples, a distant six strokes back of Kenny Perry...Also was T3 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, carding three consecutive rounds in the 60s at En-Joie GC...Was T2 after two rounds of the Senior British Open at Turnberry, but a 3-over-par 73 in the third round eventually led to a T10 finish...Finished T4 at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship in September...On the PGA TOUR, Carded a final-round 66 at the Mayakoba Golf Classic to finish T16 in Mexico...Received his 2011 Champions Tour Player of the Year Award at the Golf Writers Association of America annual dinner in April in Augusta...Selected as the Champions Tour Player of the Month for June and November...Led the Tour for the second consecutive year in Greens in Regulation as well as Total Driving. His Total Driving number (14) was the second best in Tour annals, surpassed only by Larry Gilbert (13) in 1993.

Posted a trio of top-10 finishes in 22 starts...Finished two strokes back of Kirk Triplett at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, his best effort in a stroke-play event since midway through the 2009 campaign (playoff loss at the Senior British Open). Teamed with First Tee participant Tyler Broach to claim the pro-junior portion of the event as the duo combined for a 20-under 196 better-ball score...Worked his way onto the leaderboard in the final round at the Toshiba Classic before finishing 2-over par on his final nine holes, which led to a T5 finish...Was T10 at the SAS Championship.

PERSONAL:

Was a solid athlete is several sports as a youth but excelled at golf...Has managed to rebound from a series of physical setbacks in his career. Escaped with facial injuries when his car collided with a bus near his parents' farm in 1980. While on vacation in Cape Town in December 1993, suffered a freak nerve injury in his neck while playing cricket with his kids. Knee injury curtailed his 1995 season...Best shot of his career was his pitch to nine feet from 68 yards on the final hole that beat Ian Woosnam at the 1987 British Masters...Favorite golf course is the Old Course at St. Andrews, but only when the weather is ideal...First modeled his game after Arnold Palmer and then refined it like Gary Player as he grew older...Plays the piano...Dream foursome would include Bobby Locke, Ben Hogan and Walter Hagen.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played an abbreviated schedule after suffering an injury during the spring (torn cartilage in his rib area while preparing for the Masters) and missed four months of the season...Made just 11 starts during the year. Best performance came during the midst of five straight top-10 finishes in the latter portion of the summer, a first for him in his Champions Tour career...Lost to Jay Don Blake on the second playoff hole at the Boeing Classic. Birdied three of the last five holes in regulation to force the overtime session and missed a golden opportunity to win the tournament on the first extra hole when his 6-foot birdie putt stayed right of the hole. Was 4-over after the first five holes of the tournament but rallied to play his final 49 holes in 14-under without the benefit of an eagle. Second-round 64 at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge was his best since he shot the same score in the final round of the 2009 Boeing event...After missing the Masters, he tried to play again at June's Montreal Championship but withdrew after playing his pro-am round and did not return to action until early August at the 3M Championship where he closed with a final-round 66 to finish T10...Followed with a T7 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open and, after his runnerup effort in Seattle, was T8 at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship and T10 at the SAS Championship. During this five-event run, 10 of his 15 rounds were in the 60s...Late in the campaign teamed with son, Shaun, to finish T4 at the PNC Father/Son Challenge in Orlando.

PERSONAL:

Continues fund-raising efforts on behalf of long-time caddie Donnie Wanstall, diagnosed with multiple sclerosis during the 1994 PLAYERS Championship...Took up game at age 13, when family moved above a golf course in California...Avid fan of Orlando professional sports...Teamed with PGA TOUR Design Services to build TPC Valencia (Calif.), which opened in 2003...Son, Shaun, played golf at the University of California-Irvine.

BEST 2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

P1—Allianz Championship.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Highlight of his third Champions Tour season was his initial win on the circuit in his 35th start. Broke through in the season's first full-field event to defeat Peter Senior in a one-hole playoff at the Allianz Championship. Made a 12-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole for the win. Opened with an 8-under-par 64 and led by two strokes after the opening round and then shared the lead with Senior through 36 holes. Trailed Mark Calcavecchia by as much as three strokes early on the back nine Sunday before Calcavecchia fell out of contention. His birdie at No. 13 gave him the lead, which grew to two strokes with two holes remaining. However his bogey at No. 17 and Senior's birdie on the final hole forced the play-off, which he ended after just one hole. Highlight of his win was his miraculous save on No. 14 when he took an 8-iron and turned the clubhead to get around a root next to where his ball was sitting in a deep hole. Swinging left-handed, he hit his shot to 5 feet and eventually made par. The win came in his 122nd start since his last victory at the PGA TOUR's U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee in 2006. It was also 5 years, 6 months, 12 days since his previous victory...Was in contention for a second title, at the U.S. Senior Open. Despite posting four rounds in the 60s, was one of four players who finished T2 at Indianwood CC, two strokes back of Roger Chapman. Appeared to be the championship's first-round co-leader with Tom Kite but was assessed a two-stroke penalty when his ball moved at address while playing the 14th hole (his fifth of the round)...Was also among the early leaders at the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am in Tampa and eventually finished solo fourth, his first of three consecutive top-10s during the spring...The following week, teamed with Gary Hallberg to finish T6 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf...Was T8 twice in his last five starts—at the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship and the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Had a run of 14 straight scores of par or better during the summer (from the second round of the Montreal Championship to the first round of the Senior British Open)...At one point in the year, went 260 holes without a three-putt, the Tour's best streak for the year...On the PGA TOUR, was T31 at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial and T38 at the Sony Open in Hawaii...Teamed with the LPGA's Alexis Thompson to finish T2 at the unofficial CVS Caremark Charity Classic in Rhode Island.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Among the top 10 in half of his 18 starts on the Champions Tour but registered just one victory early in the campaign. Ran away from the field at The ACE Group Classic, claiming his second career Champions Tour title by five strokes over Bernhard Langer. In the triumph, set a new Champions Tour scoring record for low 36 holes in relation to par, posting an 18-under-par 126 total at TwinEagles that included 20 birdies during the first two rounds in Naples, Fla. Added a 70 on Sunday and his 20-under 196 score matched the tournament record set a year earlier by Langer...Finished second to Michael Allen at the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am in Tampa. Despite shooting 65 Sunday and making two eagles in the final round, still ended up three strokes back...Closed with a 64 at TPC Twin Cities to finish T3 at the 3M Championship, three strokes back of Bernhard Langer. Performance in Minnesota was his second consecutive top-three effort in the 3M event...In his next start, closed with a 67 at En-Joie GC to move into a T3 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open...Was T6 in defense of his SAS Championship title near Raleigh...Was also one of just four players to shoot four consecutive rounds in the 60s at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, which led to an eighth-place finish at Fox Chapel GC. Made the first ace of his Champions Tour career when he holed a 6-iron from 185 yards on No. 17 in the third round...Finished ninth at the Senior PGA Championship, but his 9-under-par 62 at Harbor Shores in the final round matched the lowest score shot in a senior major and was also a record for the Senior PGA event, surpassing the 63s shot by Buck White (first round, 1961) and Arnold Palmer (second round, 1984). It also marked the first time since Loren Roberts in 2006 that a player shot 62 or better twice in a Champions Tour season...Was in the final grouping Sunday, at the AT&T Championship. Trailed leader Mark Calcavecchia by four strokes, but a final-round 74 left him T9...Made only five PGA TOUR starts, the first time he had less than 13 appearances on that TOUR since 1987. Best effort was a T29 at the Transitions Championship...Enjoyed more success later in the year in Naples. Teamed with Sean O'Hair in December to win the Franklin Templeton Shootout by one stroke over Charles Howell III and Rory Sabbatini. It was his third victory in the event. He was a 2005 winner with John Huston and a 2008 winner with Scott Hoch.

PERSONAL:

Took up golf at age 7 with encouragement from his father, who spent hours teeing balls up for him...Member of Western Kentucky University and Kentucky Athletic Golf Halls of Fame...Recipient of the 2009 Payne Stewart Award as well as the 2002 Charles Bartlett Award, given to a professional golfer for his unselfish contributions to the betterment of society, by the Golf Writers Association of America. ## BEST 2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1-Toshiba Classic.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Registered only two top-10s during his 23 starts, the fewest he's had since turning 50. One, however, was his 13th career Champions Tour title. Claimed his first victory in nearly two years when he came from behind in Sunday's final round to win the Toshiba Classic in Newport Beach. Despite bogeys on three of his final five holes, sank a critical 5-foot birdie putt on No. 18 to win by two strokes over Tom Kite, Bernhard Langer and Mark Calcavecchia. One of the keys to his win was a critical par save at No. 10 from 6 feet after a bad tee shot and a difficult second shot. He followed with birdies at Nos. 11 and 13 to give himself a valuable cushion, which he would need later in his round...Late in the year, closed with a 68 to finish T9 at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn in mid-October.

PERSONAL:

Earned the nicknamed "Boss of the Moss" for his putting ability. Nickname was coined by fellow TOUR member David Ogrin in 1985...Cary Middlecoff said of him in the mid-1980s: "We've got a kid back home (in Tennessee) who is just a beautiful putter. He'll just break your heart on the greens, he's so pure. If he ever gets to believing in himself, he could really be something to watch."...Inducted into Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998...Heroes are his mom and Byron Nelson...Dream foursome would include himself, Nelson, Ben Hogan and Walter Hagen...Favorite golf courses are any built prior to 1950 and those designed by A.W. Tillinghast...Served as an assistant club professional before embarking on a professional career at San Luis Obispo CC and Morro Bay Municipal. One of his jobs as an assistant was making milkshakes, and he still enjoys doing it...First job was a paper boy...Says if he weren't playing golf for a living he'd be a golf professional at a private club...Two of his best friends in golf are Tom Lehman and Vance Veazey...Said one of the strangest things he ever signed was a Roger Clemens-autographed baseball...Helped save the boys and girls golf programs in the Elk Grove Unified School District (Sacramento) in 2009 by donating $35,000 for the programs.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in all 23 Champions Tour events for which he was eligible and pocketed over seven-figures in official money for the second straight year...Was among the top 10 10 times, including his fifth career second-place finish (third loss in a playoff) as well as two third-place showings...A year after failing to hold on to his 36-hole lead at the Allianz Championship, suffered further frustration at the event, losing in a one-hole playoff to Corey Pavin in Boca Raton. Shared the 36-hole lead with Pavin at 10-under-par 134 and made a clutch birdie on the 54th hole to tie Pavin at the end of regulation. However, his good fortune was short lived when on the first extra hole, his 14-foot birdie attempt finished a mere inches short. Pavin then ended the playoff when he sank a 12-foot birdie putt for the win...Was among the early leaders at the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am and then closed with a final-round 67 at the TPC Tampa Bay to finish third, five strokes in back of Michael Allen...Was the 18-hole leader at the inaugural Pacific Links Hawaii Championship and used four straight birdies to close out his final round Sunday and move up into a third-place finish on Oahu...Finished with a career-low 63 in the final round of the Senior PGA Championship to place T4 at Harbor Shores. Back-nine score of 28 was a Senior PGA nine-hole record...Also was T4 at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, where he was in the mix on the back nine until a double bogey at No. 14 ended his chances...Among four players tied for the first-round lead at the 3M Championship after a 65 that saw him card nine birdies and he eventually was T7 in Minnesota...Was 3-over after the first 36 holes of the U.S. Senior Open but shot 66-68 on the weekend at Indianwood to move into a T9...Went a stretch during the summer and fall season where he had four top-10s in five events and also had a stretch where he was only over par once in six tournaments (18 rounds)...The Aussie claimed one of the prized events in his homeland when he survived gale-force winds in his final round for a one-stroke victory over Brendan Jones at the Emirates Australian Open at The Lake GC in Sydney. The win at age 53 made him the oldest winner of the tournament, breaking Peter Thomson's mark set in 1972 when he was 43. It was his second victory in the event, with the first coming in 1989...One month earlier at the Talisker Masters in Melbourne, opened 74-74 at Kingston Heath GC then came back strong on the weekend with a 68-68 finish on the par-72 layout to T6...Won the Australasian Tour's order of merit, which earned him berths in the 2013 World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship and the British Open at Muirfield.

PERSONAL:

Career was threatened by putting problems until Sam Torrance converted him to the broom handle model...Hosts an annual pro-am to raise funds for the cancer research unit at the Royal Brisbane Children's Hospital. The event has raised more than $1.2 million...When in the army in Singapore, his dad introduced him to golf with a starter set to keep him out of trouble...Admires people who work hard and excel at what they do...Favorite golf courses are Kingston Heath in Australia, Carnoustie in Scotland and Pebble Beach in the United States...Enjoys reading anything by Wilbur Smith...Favorite athlete is Tiger Woods...Has had 10 career holes-in-one...Low professional round is a 62 while playing in the Rich River Classic in Australia...Recently sold his stake in a pawnbroking business, Cash Converters, that he co-owned with his brother in Australia...Enjoys watching "Two and a Half Men" on TV as well as any sporting event, especially Rugby League...Favorite team as a kid was the Brisbane Broncos of the Australian Rugby League, and his favorite player was Wally Lewis...Favorite athlete is tennis standout Roger Federer...His favorite movies are "Trading Places," "The Terminator" and "Aliens"...Favorite vacation was going to Canada with his family over a previous Christmas and having his family see snow for the first time...Most memorable shot was a 1-iron he hit on the 12th hole at The Lakes in Sydney in the final round of the Johnnie Walker Classic...His bucket list includes going to Egypt to see the pyramids as well as going to Antarctica...Says he'd most like to sit down with an archaeologist because he would love to hear about relics and treasures that have been dug up.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made just 15 starts during the year, the fewest in a season on the Champions Tour, and missed on a chance to finish in the top 30 because of chronic back trouble. Last appearance of the year came at the SAS Championship where he withdrew prior to completing the first round. Underwent back surgery on November 1 at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York...Came close to posting his first career Champions Tour win when he and teammate John Cook finished one stroke shy of the winning team of Michael Allen-David Frost at the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf in Savannah in April.

The pair posted a three-round total of 28-under-par 188, including a closing-round 11-under-par 61 in the better-ball competition...Made just one bogey over 54 holes at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, and final-round 66 left him T3, just one stroke short of a playoff with Willie Wood and Michael Allen...Also turned in a nice effort at the Toshiba Classic in March when he was T5 at Newport Beach...Final-round 66 at TPC Twin Cities led to a T10 at the 3M Championship.

PERSONAL:

Is a childhood friend of fellow Champions Tour player Mike Hulbert. As an 18-year-old in 1976, teamed with Hulbert to defeat then newly appointed Syracuse University basketball coach Jim Boeheim and his partner in a CC of Ithaca best-ball event...Struck up a lasting friendship with Boeheim and remains a huge SU fan...Son Jamie also played golf at Ohio State and is pursuing a professional career...His favorite TV channel is The Weather Channel, and he enjoys watching Syracuse basketball games and Syracuse and Ohio State football...Musical tastes run from classic rock to country music...His favorite teams as a kid were the New York Jets with Joe Namath and the Walt Frazier-led New York Knicks. "Who could ask for more?" he says...Among the bookmarks on his computer are syracuse.com, weather.com and PGA TOUR Links...The first job he ever had was roofing and installing siding with his father, which helped pay for the golf trips he took with Mike Hulbert. His dad delivered mail, and the roofing work was a second job...Favorite meal is a medium-rare New York strip or porterhouse (Pittsburgh style) steak, a side of spaghetti, salad and bread...When he's traveling on Tour, among his favorite restaurants are Trattoria Romana in Boca Raton, Fla., Harry's Cafe and Steak House in New York, Tollgate Steakhouse in Mamaroneck, N.Y., Rafter's Steakhouse in Milwaukee, Wisc., and Tramonti in Delray Beach, Fla...Says the one talent he'd most love to have is being able to play the piano...His favorite athlete in another sport is the Broncos' Peyton Manning...Among his favorite movies are "Legends of the Fall," "Terminator 2," "The American President," "Dumb & Dumber" and "The Fifth Element."...One course he's never played that he'd love to is St. Andrews...Says his most memorable vacation was "Going to New York City with my wife for a year-end and anniversary trip."...His most memorable shot was his hole-in-one at No. 14 at En-Joie in the final round at the 1985 B.C. Open, going from one stroke down to two shots up when Mike Reid made a bogey. He went on to win the first of his two B.C. Open titles. "I always tell people there were 2,000 people there, but 20,000 people said they saw it."...The first concert he ever attended was Kansas while in college at Ohio State...If he's not playing sports he enjoys watching his sons play sports, watching Syracuse and Ohio State football and basketball and fishing on Keuka Lake, part of New York's Finger Lakes.

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (2):

1985 Anheuser-Busch Golf Classic. 1986 Hardee's Golf Classic

BEST 2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

3—SAS Championship. 3—Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(1): 1989 Colorado Open.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played his best golf in the second half of the season, recording four of his five top-10 finishes after the first week of July. Had two clutch, third-place efforts in back-to-back weeks in October to lock up a spot among the top 30 money-winners for the fifth straight season...Was 34th on the money list but posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s to claim a solo third-place finish at the SAS Championship, an event he previously won in his first Champions Tour start in 2007. Was just two strokes off the lead after two rounds at Prestonwood...As the defending champion at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, birdied the final hole to finish solo third. Performance in Hickory earned him a six-figure check that sealed a spot among the top 30. Made the 15th ace of his career and second on the Champions Tour in the first round in Hickory when he holed a 4-iron shot from 205 yards on the par-3 third hole, just the fifth hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in 2012...Had back-to-back top 10 performances in majors during the month of July. Strung together four straight scores of par or better at Indianwood to finish solo eighth at the U.S. Senior Open and then was T6 in his next start at the Senior British Open, closing with a final-round 67 at Turnberry...Initial top-10 finish came in June when he was T10 at The Principal Charity Classic. Ran off six straight birdies in his final round on his way to a 6-under-par 65.

PERSONAL:

Conducts a charity golf tournament annually for the benefit of Adam's Camp, a Colorado-based non-profit organization created to provide a variety of intensive, personalized and integrated therapeutic programs for children with special needs and their families. It also provides recreational programs for youth and young adults with moderate developmental disabilities...Favorite golf courses are Pebble Beach and Cypress Point...An avid skier, he and family regularly take to the slopes...Has one superstition—the number 33...Says if he weren't a professional golfer he would like to be a fishing guide...Best golf tip he ever received was to "just be patient"...Biggest thrill outside of golf are his children. His oldest son, Gunner, received an exemption to play in the 2010 Farmers Insurance Open at Torrey Pines; missed cut). Gunner qualified for the event when he won an extra-hole playoff qualifier against his University of San Diego golf coach, Tim Mickelson. His son turned professional in 2011.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(4) 1979 Nevada Open. 1990 Oklahoma Open. 1984 Colorado Open. 1995 Oklahoma Open.

NATIONAL TEAMS:

Walker Cup (1), 1983.

2012 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had a remarkable second half to his season and made more than 80 percent of his seven-figure earnings' total in the last seven of his 14 starts...Was the fourth of eight two-time winners on the Champions Tour and perhaps the circuit's best player during the summer when he was selected as the Player of the Month for both August and September...Came from five strokes back in the final round to win the inaugural Pacific Links Hawaii Championship in mid-September. Playing in a group one in front of 36-hole leader Bill Glasson, he birdied his final two holes, including a clutch 20-footer on the 54th hole to move into a tie for the lead at 14-under. However, moments later Glasson missed a 10-foot putt for par which would have sent the pair into a play-off. Victory in Hawaii was his second win in three starts. Played all 54 holes without a bogey, becoming the 14th tournament winner in history to accomplish the feat as well as the first since David Frost at the 2010 3M Championship...In mid-August, ended a victory drought of more than 16 years when he won the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in a playoff with Michael Allen, becoming the 12th open qualifier in Champions Tour history to do so and the first since Rod Spittle at the 2010 AT&T Championship. Claimed the Dick's Sporting Goods Open title with a par-4 on the first extra hole after Allen found the water off the tee. Got into the overtime session with a clutch 35-foot birdie putt on the final hole of regulation. Prior to triumph at Dick's event, last win came on the PGA TOUR at the 1996 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic...In between victories, was in the mix again at the Boeing Classic, where he trailed by two shots after 36 holes and, playing in the final grouping, carded a final-round 70 to finish third in Seattle...Was also T5 in San Antonio despite not posting any score in the 60s at the AT&T Championship...Reeled off a Champions Tour season-best of 25 consecutive rounds of par or better (late May-early October)...Also strung together a stretch of 212 holes without a three-putt during the year...In his only PGA TOUR start, finished T18 at the True South

Classic in July, his first top-25 finish on TOUR since 2004.

PERSONAL:

Sister Deanie was a member of the LPGA...Says the person he'd most like to sit down with for a discussion is the late UCLA basketball coach John Wooden...Most memorable shot of his career was his last putt to win Dick's Sporting Goods Open...His bucket list includes sailing in the Caribbean and visiting Yellowstone Park...Favorite TV show is "Two and a Half Men"...Enjoys the Zac Brown Band as well as watching college football on TV...First job was picking balls off the range at Shreveport CC...Favorite team he followed as a kid was the Minnesota Vikings, and his favorite player was Fran Tarkenton.

Dan Forsman played steady golf throughout the day and won the tournament when he managed to get up and down from greenside bunkers twice on the back nine. At the par-5 14th hole, Forsman hit a spectacular third shot from the sand to within a foot for birdie. Forsman's key birdie moved his margin back to three strokes after Jay Don Blake had birdied the par-4 15th hole just moments earlier. Forsman then saved par from the back greenside bunker at No. 16 to maintain a two-stroke cushion over Blake who would go on to sink a 25-foot birdie at the final hole to post 13-under. Forsman then made two pars on the last two holes for the victory.

Dan Forsman won his third career Champions Tour title and first since the 2010 Regions Charity Classic, ending a victory drought of 36 starts or 1 year, 8 months, 6 days. His best finish in two previous appearances at this event was a tie for 16th in 2011. Forsman only had one top-10 finish on the Champions Tour in 2011, a tie for fourth at the Montreal Championship.

Dan Forsman's winning total of 15-under 201 was the highest to claim this event since 2000 when the late George Archer triumphed by two strokes with a 9-under 207 total.

Dan Forsman ranked in the top 10 in the three main statistical categories in winning the tournament. The only Champions Tour winner to accomplish the same feat in 2011 was Nick Price at the Toshiba Classic. Forsman tied for fourth (34 of 42) in Fairways Hit, tied for first (44 of 54) in Greens In Regulation and tied for seventh (28) in Putts Per Round.

Utah residents went 1-2 as Dan Forsman (Provo) and Jay Don Blake (St. George) did the Beehive State proud.

Mark Calcavecchia's closing 66 vaulted him into a tie for seventh, his seventh consecutive Champions Tour top-10 finish, dating to his victory at the 2011 Boeing Classic.

For the second straight year, the defending champion tied for third the next year. John Cook, the winner in 2011, carded a 68 that included 31 on the back nine to tie for third. In 2011, Tom Watson tied for third at this event after winning the previous year.

Tom Watson's tie for seventh was his ninth career top-10 at this event, the most top-10 finishes by a player in tournament history.

Loren Roberts carded a 3-over 75 in the final round, ending his run of consecutive sub-par scores at Hualalai at 20 consecutive.

The cumulative stroke average for the event was 70.374 compared to 68.746 in 2011.

Corey Pavin claimed his first Champions Tour victory at the Allianz Championship, defeating Australian Peter Senior with a birdie at the first hole of sudden death after the two had tied at 11-under 205. Pavin's win came in his 35th start on Tour. Senior had birdied the final hole in regulation to force the playoff. Mark Calcavecchia appeared to be cruising to victory, with a three-shot lead over Pavin through 11 holes, but bogeyed six of his last seven holes to fall out of contention. The shot everyone will remember was the 8-iron Pavin turned around and hit left-handed on the par-3 14th hole in the final round when he was tied for the lead with Calcavecchia. With his ball up against a tree root, Pavin's only option, apart from taking a penalty, was to hit the left-handed shot, which rolled to within 5 feet of the cup before he made the crucial putt.

Peter Senior's runner-up finish at the Allianz Championship at the time was his fifth in 48 starts on the Champions Tour. It also marked the third time he was defeated in a playoff on Tour, having also lost in playoffs at the 2011 Regions Tradition and 2011 Songdo IBD Championship.

Mark Calcavecchia's tie-for-seventh finish marked his eighth consecutive top-10 finish on the Champions Tour, dating to his victory at the 2011 Boeing Classic.

Fred Funk had a nice showing in his first start since a trio of surgeries in the last few months for thumb and knee issues. Funk tied for 10th in his first appearance on the Champions Tour since he competed at last July's U.S. Senior Open in Toledo.

John Cook has posted 15 consecutive sub-par rounds in as many starts in this tournament. Cook tied for fifth.

Defending champion Tom Lehman tied for 31st.

In conjunction with his sponsor, Allianz Life Insurance, Tom Lehman and Allianz donated $7,000 to the southern Florida chapters of Junior Achievement and the Alzheimer's Association. For every birdie Lehman made (he had seven), Allianz Life donated $3,500 each to the southern Florida chapters of Junior Achievement and the Alzheimer's Association.

The field averaged 72.062 for the tournament, the highest average in tournament history. The previous high was 71.685 in 2011.

Cut: There was no cut; 77 of 81 professionals completed 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Sunny, with the high in the low-80s and afternoon, SSW winds at 5-10 mph. Saturday: Partly cloudy, with highs near 80 and afternoon winds from the SW at 5-15 mph. Sunday: A front approached the area Sunday during play resulting in breezy conditions. Skies were partly cloudy, with highs in the upper 70s and SW winds at 15-25 mph.

Tournament Record:
196 - Kenny Perry (2012), Bernhard Langer (2011)

Current Course Record:
62 - TwinEagles GC (Talon Course) - Larry Mize (2012), Kenny Perry (2012)

In breezy conditions Sunday, Kenny Perry played steady golf and cruised to a five-stroke victory over defending champion Bernhard Langer. Perry started the final round up by three strokes and made an 18-foot-par save at the first hole that set the tone for the day. His birdie at No. 3 increased his margin to four strokes over Larry Mize and none of his pursuers could get any closer the rest of the way. The key to Perry's victory might have been his play on the front nine at TwinEagles. He was bogey-free on that side, making 13 of his 24 total birdies.

Kenny Perry claimed his second career Champions Tour title and The ACE Group Classic victory came in his 15th career start on the Tour.

Kenny Perry matched Bernhard Langer's tournament record of 20-under 196 set in 2011 at The Quarry. Perry's five-stroke victory also matched the largest-winning margin (Allen Doyle/1999). His 24 total birdies during the week were just two shy of Loren Roberts's all-time record for most birdies in a 54-hole Champions Tour event.

Kenny Perry became the 10th player to win The ACE Group Classic in his first appearance in the event.

Kenny Perry's 36-hole total of 18-under 126 (64-62) at The ACE Group Classic established the all-time lowest score in relation to par for the first two rounds in Champions Tour history.

Larry Mize hit all 18 greens in regulation, and his eagle-birdie finish gave him a 10-under 62 in the opening round. Mize's bogey-free round matched his career-low score.

Mark McNulty made consecutive eagles on Nos. 13 and 14 in the opening round, a first on the Champions Tour since Fred Couples made back-to-back eagles in the final round of the 2010 Senior PGA Championship at Colorado Golf Club near Denver.

Bernhard Langer eagled the par-5 17th hole all three days, a first on the Champions Tour since Dave Rummells made three consecutive eagles on the first hole at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge during the 2010 Boeing Classic.

Mike Goodes, the medalist at the open qualifier at Old Corkscrew Golf Club, tied for third at The ACE Group Classic. It was his best performance in a Champions Tour event since tying for third at the 2011 Principal Charity Classic.

The winner of The ACE Group Classic has come out of the final grouping in each of the last 12 years.

Loren Roberts, a two-time ACE Group Classic champion, kept his streak of par/better rounds in Naples intact. Roberts' run stands at 21 consecutive, and he's never had a round above par in The ACE Group Classic.

The field stroke average at TwinEagles was 71.043, the lowest for a Champions Tour event at TwinEagles. The previous low at this course was 71.199 in 2006. The field made 923 birdies and 26 eagles in 2012.

Despite bogeys on three of his final five holes, Loren Roberts made the putt he needed on the 54th hole to win by two strokes over Mark Calcavecchia, Tom Kite and Bernhard Langer. It was Roberts' 34th start since his last win at the 2010 Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

The Toshiba Classic victory was the 13th of Loren Roberts' Champions Tour career, moving him into a tie for 20th place on the all-time victory list with Jim Thorpe.

Tom Kite's tie for second at the Toshiba Classic was his best showing since his runner-up performance at the 2009 AT&T Championship in San Antonio.

Stan Utley tied for 12th in his Champions Tour debut. Utley was tied for 52nd after the opening round, but consecutive 2-under-par 69s on the weekend helped him jump 40 places at the finish.

Jim Colbert bettered his age when he fired a 2-under-par 69 in the first round.

The 71-year-old Colbert had also bettered his age in the opening round of the 2009 Toshiba Classic, when he shot a 5-under-66 at age 67. He has also matched his age on two occasions.

Sunday's final-round scoring average was 73.089, the highest average for a round in Toshiba Classic history. The previous high was 72.974 in the first round in 2000.

Loren Roberts is just the second player in the last six years to come from behind the final day to win the Toshiba Classic. The only other player to do so was Ed-uardo Romero in 2009. Romero rallied from one stroke back. Roberts started Sunday's final round tied for second, two strokes behind Mark Calcavecchia.

Hole No. 16 was the most-difficult in the final round, with an average score of 4.418. Just two players were able to make a birdie. They were Andy Bean and defending champion Nick Price, who tied for 19th.

Tournament Record:

200 - Tom Lehman (2011)

Current Course Record:

63 - Fallen Oak - Fred Couples (2012)

Fred Couples sank a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole to break a tie with Michael Allen and win his first Champions Tour event of the 2012 season. Couples' seventh career victory, and first since last year's AT&T Championship, did not come without a struggle. Up by two strokes with four holes to play, Couples uncharacteristically bogeyed the par-5 15th hole and then temporarily fell into a tie with Allen after bunkering his 5-iron shot on the par-3 17th hole. With Allen in the clubhouse at 13-under-par, Couples laced a booming drive at the par-4 18th, and his second shot with a sand wedge set up the winning putt.

Fred Couples' win was the seventh of his Champions Tour career, and he has claimed at least one tournament title in each of his first three Champions Tour years.

Fred Couples is the third consecutive player to win the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic in his first appearance in the event.

Gary Hallberg and Michael Allen both posted 66s, the low Sunday scores, and Hallberg's round vaulted him up 36 spots into 11th place, the biggest final-round move of any player in the field. The 6-under scores by Hallberg and Allen were also the lowest Sunday scores in tournament history.

Michael Allen's runner-up finish was his fifth second-place effort since he won the 2009 Senior PGA Championship in his Champions Tour debut.

Sixty-three-year-old Jim Thorpe managed a tie for fifth in Mississippi. It was his 100th career top-10 Champions Tour performance and was his best effort in a Champions Tour event since he tied for fourth at the 2009 Regions Charity Classic near Birmingham, Ala.

Fred Couples made the most birdies in the event, totaling 21 over 54 holes. Steve Lowery (tied for 26th) was next-closest to Couples, with 17 birdies. Michael Allen made only one bogey during the week (on the first hole in the second round).

The hardest hole at Fallen Oak in 2012 was the par-4 ninth. It yielded just 16 birdies for the week (4.346).

After making bogeys on two of his first three holes, Michael Allen regrouped with two birdies on the front nine and went on to record a three-stroke victory over Kenny Perry at the TPC Tampa Bay. Up five at the start of the day, Allen's shaky start with 5s at Nos. 3 and 4 reduced his margin momentarily to just one-stroke over Olin Browne after the first four holes. However, Allen recovered with birdies on Nos. 5 and 7, increasing his advantage back to four strokes at the turn while Browne faltered. Allen added three more birdies on the back nine, including a 20-footer at No. 17 that allowed him to easily hold off a hard-charging Perry.

Michael Allen won his second career title on the Champions Tour and claimed his first event since the 2009 Senior PGA Championship, his debut event on the circuit. Allen's victory ended a drought of 40 Champions Tour events, or 2 years, 10 months, 22 days. During the 40-event drought, Allen finished second five times, including at the previous Champions Tour event, the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic.

Michael Allen became the 21st different winner in the 25-year history of the Encompass Insurance Pro-Am. He tied for fifth in 2011 in his first appearance in the event.

Michael Allen became the second player in 2012 to win a tournament after shooting a higher score each day. Corey Pavin posted rounds of 64-70-71 at the Allianz Championship and eventually won in a playoff.

Kirk Triplett tied for eighth in his Champions Tour debut, the best start by a player in his first appearance since Steve Pate tied for eighth in 2011 at the Senior PGA Championship.

Kenny Perry's 6-under 65 was the low final round and included a pair of eagles. He became the fifth player in tournament history to make two eagles in a round and the first to do so since John Jacobs in the second round of the 2004 event.

Sunday's final round marked the first time there was a 1-2-3-4-5 finish in a Champions Tour event since the 2010 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

After a scorecard playoff, former Washington Redskins quarterback Joe Theismann and his pro partner, Mark Calcavecchia, claimed the pro-am portion of the tournament over Lisa O'Hurley, wife of actor John O'Hurley, and her pro partner Olin Browne. Both teams tied with a three-round team score of 29-under-par 184.

Michael Allen and teammate David Frost played near-flawless golf, leading to a one-stroke victory in the Legends Division of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. The duo beat John Cook and Joey Sindelar. Allen and Frost finished with a 54-hole, bogey-free, 29-under-par 187. The key shot of the day came at No. 14 when Frost chipped in from 40 feet for eagle on the par-4, which gave them a lead they never relinquished.

Michael Allen and David Frost's 54-hole total was the lowest score in this event since 2008 when Andy North and Tom Watson teamed for a 54-hole score of 31-under-par 185.

With the win, Michael Allen claimed his second consecutive title, making him the first Champions Tour player to post back-to-back wins since John Cook won the 2010 Charles Schwab Cup Championship and the 2011 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. It was Allen's third career Champions Tour win. He also captured the 2009 Senior PGA Championship and the previous week's Encompass Insurance Pro-Am of Tampa Bay.

Michael Allen and David Frost have played 108 consecutive holes without a bogey in this tournament, dating to 2011 when they tied for third. They have posted 53 birdies and one eagle during that span.

With its victory in Savannah, the team of Michael Allen/David Frost became the 17th consecutive Champions Tour player or team to play in the final group and win the tournament.

Former Ohio State teammates John Cook and Joey Sindelar finished as runners-up for the second time in this tournament. They made a good run for a win during Sunday's final round, finishing with the day's low round, an 11-under-par 61. They ultimately fell one stroke shy. The pair lost in a playoff to Mark O'Meara and Nick Price in 2010. In addition they own a tie for third in 2009 and a tie for fourth in 2008. In 2011, Sindelar had to withdraw with a back issue after the first round.

Chien Soon Lu and partner Andy Bean had another nice showing in this tournament. The duo tied for third, two strokes behind Allen and Frost. They also teamed to tied for third in 2010.

David Eger and Mark McNulty, the 2011 winners, tied for 13th in defense of their title.

Hale Irwin, paired with Ian Baker-Finch, tied for ninth, allowing Irwin to claim his 206th top-10 Champions Tour finish.

With his tie for 13th (with Kenny Perry) and his earnings of $27,150, Russ Cochran went past the $10-million mark ($10,024,654) in all-time combined earnings.

Fred Funk birdied four of the last five holes to overtake Tom Lehman and win the 2012 Insperity Championship. After making 14 consecutive pars starting at the second hole, Funk trailed by two strokes and appeared headed for a second-place finish after Lehman made the second of his three consecutive birdies at the 12th hole to increase his margin to two strokes. However, Funk rallied by matching Lehman's birdie at the par-5 13th, and then he holed short birdie putts at the 15th and 16th holes to move back into a tie for the lead. After both players made pars at No. 17, Funk rifled a 5-iron shot from 174 yards over water to within a foot of the hole at the 18th, forcing Lehman to take dead aim with his second shot at the par-4. His approach shot landed 12 feet from the hole but Lehman's birdie bid just missed on the right side of the cup, setting the stage for Funk's kick-in birdie for the victory.

Fred Funk won his first Champions Tour event since the 2010 JELD-WEN Tradition, ending a victory drought of 1 year, 8 months, 13 days or 29 Champions Tour tournaments.

Fred Funk became the Insperity Championship's eighth different winner in the nine-year history of the event.

Fred Funk's best finish in four previous Insperity Championships was a third-place effort in 2008. He became the ninth consecutive champion to record three consecutive sub-par rounds en route to victory.

Sponsor exemption Bobby Clampett tied for fourth, equaling his previous-best performance on the Champions Tour (2010 SAS Championship).

Saturday was highlighted by the "Greats of Golf" exhibition featuring nine of the game's greatest players playing in three threesomes behind the last tournament grouping in a scramble format. Legends Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player won the competition with a team score of 11-under. An estimated crowd of 40,000 was on hand for Saturday's historic event.

J.L. Lewis scored the first ace of the 2012 Champions Tour season when he holed a 4-iron from 189 yards at No. 16 in round two of the Insperity Championship. It was the first hole-in-one recorded in the nine year history of the Insperity Championship.

Despite carding a 1-over-par 72 in the final round, Roger Chapman claimed a two-stroke win over John Cook at the 73rd Senior PGA Championship. Chapman started the final round with a five-stroke lead, and after he made three birdies early on, Chapman enjoyed a nine-stroke advantage on the front nine. Chapman's lead was seven halfway through the round and never shrunk to less than four strokes until he made bogeys on the final two holes. Cook had an opportunity to get within three shots of Chapman with three holes to play, but he missed a 5-foot birdie chance on the par-5 15th. Chapman's improbable victory was his first since claiming the 2000 Brazil Rio de Janeiro 500 Years Open on the European Tour. He dedicated the win to longtime swing coach and former European Ryder Cup player George Will, who had passed away recently.

Roger Chapman became the eighth player to make the Senior PGA Championship his first Champions Tour title.

Roger Chapman won his first Champions Tour event in his 16th start on the circuit and joined Corey Pavin (Allianz Championship) at the time as the second first-time winner in 2012. Chapman's previous-best career Champions Tour finish was a tie for 27th at the 2011 Senior PGA Championship.

Roger Chapman became the third Englishman to win a title in Champions Tour history and the second from England to win a senior major championship. Ironically, both Tony Jacklin (1994 First of America Classic in Grand Rapids) and Mark James (2004 Ford Senior Players Championship in Dearborn) also claimed their initial Champions Tour wins in Michigan.

Roger Chapman is the seventh different international winner of this championship and the first since Zimbabwe's Denis Watson in 2007.

John Cook's runner-up finish at Harbor Shores meant he had finished second in four different Champions Tour majors. Cook lost in playoffs at the 2008 Senior British Open (to Bruce Vaughan), 2009 Regions Tradition (to Mike Reid) and the 2011 Constellation Senior Players Championship (to Fred Couples).

John Cook became the first player in Senior PGA Championship history to shoot four rounds in the 60s and not win.

Kenny Perry's 9-under-par 62 matched the lowest round shot in a senior major and is also a new 18-hole record for the Senior PGA Championship, surpassing the 63s shot by Buck White (first round in 1961) and Arnold Palmer (second round in 1984).

Peter Senior played his last 10 holes of the championship in 8-under, including a 28 on the back nine, to shoot 63 in the final round. It was Senior's career-best Champions Tour score. He moved up 13 places into a tie for fourth at the Senior PGA Championship at the time, his sixth top-five in 11 career starts in senior majors.

Hale Irwin, just seven days shy of his 67th birthday, played his last four holes in 4-under to move into solo third place at the Senior PGA Championship, his best performance in a senior major since finishing second at the 2005 Ford Senior Players Championship. Overall, it was Irwin's 207th top-10 Champions Tour finish of his career and 26th top-five performance in 66 career senior major starts.

Andrew Magee finished 60th in his Champions Tour debut.

Current Course Record:
62 - Glen Oaks CC - Kirk Triplett (2012)

Jay Haas tied the tournament record with a 16-under-par total of 197 and posted a tournament-record five-stroke victory over Larry Mize and Kirk Triplett. Mize cut Haas' lead to two strokes with consecutive birdies at Nos. 8, 9 and 10, but Haas birdied No. 11 to increase his lead to three strokes. He effectively put the tournament away with consecutive birdies on Nos. 14, 15 and 16, helping him to his 16th career win.

With his victory, Jay Haas claimed his third title at The Principal Charity Classic. He became the 16th different player to win a Champions Tour tournament three times or more.

In his combined PGA TOUR career and Champions Tour career, Jay Haas has enjoyed success on courses with the name "Oak" in it. Here is a rundown on his eight career wins on courses with some form of "Oak" in it:

2012 Principal Charity Classic.....Glen Oaks CC (Champions Tour)
2008 Principal Charity Classic.....Glen Oaks CC (Champions Tour)
2008 Senior PGA Championship.....Oak Hill CC (Champions Tour)
2007 Principal Charity Classic....Glen Oaks CC (Champions Tour)

Jay Haas' 54-hole total of 16-under-par 197 matched The Principal Charity Classic 54-hole tournament record set in 2006 by Gil Morgan. Haas' five-stroke victory was the largest margin of victory in tournament history, breaking Nick Price's mark set in 2010.

Jay Haas earned $262,500 with his win and moved past $27 million in career earnings.

Despite seeing his streak of consecutive holes without a three-putt come to a halt, Jay Haas still led all players in Putts Per Round, at 26.33. After one-putting 24 of 36 holes through the first two rounds, Haas had just six one-putts in the final round.

Kirk Triplett set a new course and tournament record when he closed with a 9-under-par 62. Triplett's round included nine birdies and no bogeys. His career-low PGA TOUR round was a 9-under-par 61 in the third round at the 2000 Canon Greater Hartford Open.

Former University of Iowa star Lonnie Nielsen, who was in the field on a sponsor exemption, tied for 10th.

Mark Wiebe matched Fred Couples' season-best run of six consecutive birdies in a round when he made consecutive birdies on holes Nos. 9-14.

Jay Haas and Kirk Triplett led all players with 17 birdies, one more than Kenny Perry and Fred Funk.

Andrew Magee had the longest measured drive in the tournament, a 367-yarder, in the second round.

Graham Marsh had success on the par-3 holes at Glen Oaks Country Club. Marsh aced the second hole with a 5-iron from 180 yards in Friday's first round. In Wednesday's pro-am, Marsh aced No. 5 with a 5-iron from 192 yards.

With rain falling on and off the entire day, Tom Lehman successfully defended his Regions Tradition title, carding a final-round 68 to defeat Bernhard Langer and Chien Soon Lu by two strokes. Lehman became the first player since Gil Morgan (1997) to shoot four consecutive rounds in the 60s at The Tradition. Lehman enjoyed a two-stroke lead after 54-holes, but it quickly vanished after he started slowly Sunday, making bogey at the second hole. Langer briefly tied him just moments later when he made his third birdie in the first four holes at No. 4. However, Lehman regained the momentum with a birdie on the par-5 third hole to take the lead back for good. He added birdies on Nos. 6 and 7 to go up by three strokes at the turn and cruised home, playing the back nine at Shoal Creek in 2-under.

The Regions Tradition win was Tom Lehman's third major championship win on the Champions Tour (2010 Senior PGA Championship, 2011 Regions Tradition and 2012 Regions Tradition).

Tom Lehman became the fourth multiple winner of the Regions Tradition, joining Jack Nicklaus (1990-91 and 1995-96), Gil Morgan (1997-98) and Fred Funk (2008-09).

Tom Lehman was the first repeat winner in a senior major since Allen Doyle claimed the 2005 and 2006 U.S. Senior Opens. He also became the first player since John Cook (2009-10 Charles Schwab Cup Championship) to successfully defend a Champions Tour title.

Bernhard Langer tied for second. At the time, it was his ninth top-10 effort in 11 starts and his sixth consecutive top-10 performance.

Chien Soon Lu matched his best career Champions Tour performance with his runner-up effort. Lu tied for second at the 2010 Tradition and was also solo second at the 2011 Montreal Championship.

Fred Couples carded a 7-under 65 in the final round, the low score of the tournament. Couples' final round vaulted him up nine spots into solo fourth.

J.L. Lewis withdrew after Saturday's third round. Lewis, a two-time PGA TOUR winner, announced via Twitter that he has bone marrow cancer.

Tom Kite tied for 47th in his 300th career Champions Tour start.

Tournament Record:

195 - John Cook (2011)

Current Course Record:

64 - Vallee du Richelieu Vercheres - Mark Calcavecchia (2012)

With his four-stroke victory at the Montreal Championship, Mark Calcavecchia won in Canada for the third time as a pro, picking up his second Champions Tour title. His final-round, 8-under-par 64 tied the competitive course record at the La Vallee du Richelieu Golf Club's Vercheres Course. Marc Girouard originally set the record, in 1997. Girouard competed in the Montreal Championship and tied for 57th.

Mark Calcavecchia enjoyed the par-5 holes in the final round. He was 5-under par Sunday and 8-under for the tournament.

Brad Bryant finished second and at the time posted his eighth top-10 finish of the season, three more than he had in all of 2011. Bryant also led all players with 18 birdies, one more than Michael Allen.

Canadian Jim Rutledge bounced back from a 4-over-par 76 in the opening round to shoot rounds of 68-69 on the weekend and recorded a tie for 20th. It was the best showing by the six Canadian players in the field.

Craig Stadler finished seventh, his best performance since he was sixth at the 2009 Boeing Classic. Stadler's finish helped him jump from 90th on the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship money list to 64th and a spot in that field.

Canadian Claude Tremblay made the first hole-in-one in tournament history when he aced No. 13 with a 19-degree hybrid from 224 yards in the opening round of the Montreal Championship.

Bob Tway's run of six consecutive birdies (Nos. 7-12) during the second round of the Montreal Championship matched the best streak on the Champions Tour in 2012.

Hole No. 13 proved to be a bear in the final round as just one player (Steve Pate) made birdie on the par-3 hole. It finished as the most-difficult, with an average score of 3.292 for the tournament.

Defending champion John Cook tied for 15th, while Larry Mize, the 2010 winner, tied for 20th.

The field scoring average was 72.035 for the event, and Mark Calcavecchia and Michael Allen were the only two players who posted three rounds in the 60s.

Tournament Record:

261 - Jack Nicklaus (1990)

Current Course Record:

62 - Fox Chapel Golf Club - Olin Browne (2012)

Joe Daley, a non-exempt Champions Tour player, fired a closing-round, 2-under-par 68 to hold off a trio of former PGA TOUR major championship winners and claim his first Tour win. Buoyed by a tournament-best 24 birdies, Daley started the day tied with Mark Calcavecchia, with Fred Couples and Tom Lehman one stroke behind. Daley made key birdies on Nos. 9 and 10 to go to 14-under and led by as many as three strokes before a bogey at No. 17 gave him just a one-shot cushion over Lehman. Daley finished off his victory with a 21-foot birdie at No. 18. With his win, Daley earned a spot in the 2013 PLAYERS Championship. He also earned a five-year exemption into the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

Joe Daley earned a check for $405,000, the largest of his professional career.

Joe Daley became the seventh player to claim his first Champions Tour victory at this event. He was also the ninth to win in his first appearance.

Joe Daley's best Champions Tour effort prior to his win at Fox Chapel was a tie for fourth the previous month, at the Senior PGA Championship, earlier in the year.

Joe Daley became the 18th third-round leader/co-leader to go on and win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS in the 30-year history of the tournament, including the last three (Mark O'Meara in 2010 and Fred Couples in 2011).

With a 1-under-par 69 in the final round, Tom Lehman extended his streak of rounds in the 60s to 12, equaling the second-longest streak of sub-70 rounds in Champions Tour history. The longest is Hale Irwin's 13 in 1999.

Hale Irwin matched his age for the fifth time in his career, shooting a 3-under-par 67 in the final round. Irwin punctuated his 72nd hole by making an eagle to tie for 30th.

Bill Glasson posted his second consecutive top-10 finish in a major championship. He tied for fifth at the Regions Tradition and tied for sixth at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS.

Defending champion Fred Couples tied for fourth.

Olin Browne made a strong comeback after an opening-round, 3-over-par 73, leaving him tied for 52nd. Browne tied the competitive-course record with a 62 in his second round and then fired rounds of 69-65 on the weekend to claim third place.

The third round of the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS marked Fred Couples' 100th Champions Tour round. In those 100 rounds, Couples carded sub-70 scores 71 times.

Kenny Perry made a hole-in-one on the 185-yard, par-3 No. 17 with a 6-iron during round three. The ace was the 12th hole-in-one in Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS history and the first since 2006. The hole-in-one was the sixth of Perry's PGA TOUR career and first on the Champions Tour.

During tournament week, Constellation and The First Tee of Pittsburgh announced the establishment of the Deacon Palmer Endowment Fund, intended to commemorate the significant and positive impact of Arnold Palmer's relationship with his father and also acknowledge Palmer's belief in the importance of The First Tee of Pittsburgh, taking steps to endow its programs for future generations of children. Constellation's gift of $150,000 will go toward establishing the fund and supporting the chapter's operating expenses.

Kirk Triplett, a Champions Tour rookie known for his trademark, floppy, bucket hat, shot a final-round 66, the low round of the day, to come from four strokes off the pace and win his first Champions Tour title. Triplett's eagle at the par-5 second hole sparked him to a 5-under 31 on the front nine. He seized control of the tournament after making birdie at the par-4 11th and then used a key par save at the par-5 14th and a chip-in birdie at No. 16 to preserve the two-stroke victory over Mark McNulty. The win made Triplett just the sixth player to win on all three Tours, joining Ron Streck (2005), Keith Fergus (2007), Tom Lehman (2009), Gary Hallberg (2010) and Olin Browne (2011).

Kirk Triplett won his first Champions Tour title in his eighth start on the circuit. Triplett became the second-youngest winner in tournament history, just six days older than Craig Stadler, the 2004 champion at Pebble Beach. Triplett's victory was his second title at Pebble Beach. In 1996, Triplett triumphed at the unofficial Merrill Lynch Pebble Beach Invitational.

Kirk Triplett became the first rookie to win on the Champions Tour in 2012 and also at the time the fourth first-time winner of the season, joining Corey Pavin (Allianz Championship), Roger Chapman (Senior PGA Championship) and Joe Daley (Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship).

Kirk Triplett's win was his first in a TOUR-sponsored event since his 2011 triumph at the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville on the Web.com Tour. The victory in Tennessee made him the oldest player to win on that circuit at 49 years, 4 months, 25 days. Triplett's last of three PGA TOUR wins came at the 2006 Chrysler Classic of Tucson in late February.

Kirk Triplett became the first player to win this event with a pair of rounds in the 70s, and his 66 on the final day matched the lowest final-round score by a winner in tournament history. Craig Stadler shot 66 at Pebble Beach in the inaugural event in 2004.

Hale Irwin's final-round 69 moved him into a tie for sixth, his first top-10 effort at this event since placing second in 2007. It was also the 67-year-old Irwin's third top-10 finish of the 2012 season, and he extended his all-time record of top-10s on the Champions Tour to 208.

For the first time since the 2011 Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, the winner did not come from the final grouping, ending a streak of 23 consecutive Champions Tour events, where the champion came from the last group Sunday. Kirk Triplett was in the third-from-the-last grouping today, the same place Jeff Sluman was in when he rallied for victory last year on the Monterey Peninsula.

Tyler Broach from The First Tee of Richmond & Chesterfield in Virginia and his pro partner Mark McNulty, won the pro-junior portion of the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Broach won the competition by making birdie from 15 feet on the final hole to move out of a three-way tie. The duo finished with a better-ball score of 20-under 196 over 54 holes.

Brad Bryant's tie for third marked the second consecutive season where he has finished among the top three in this event (tied for second in 2011).

Tim Hansen/Glenn Weckerlin won the better-ball amateur competition with a total of 43-under-par 173.

Players made 11 eagles at Pebble Beach during the week, and six came at Del Monte. Chevron made an $8,000 donation for every eagle made this week through its Eagles For Education program. Each eagle will provide funding for 20 kids to participate in The First Tee program for a year.

Seven weeks after claiming the Senior PGA Championship in Benton Harbor, Mich., Roger Chapman surged from four strokes back with a final-round 66 to claim the U.S. Senior Open at Indianwood Golf & Country Club by two strokes over a quartet of PGA TOUR and Champions Tour major championship winners. Chapman took the lead for good with a birdie at No. 8 just after Bernhard Langer, the 54-hole leader, made bogey at No. 7. Langer had held a four-stroke advantage at the start of the day but got off to a rough start, making double bogey at the par-4 second hole after an errant drive and a skulled bunker shot. Chapman increased his lead to two strokes midway through the final round after a 10-foot birdie putt at No. 14. However, his lead was briefly cut to one when Chapman made bogey at No. 16, 20 minutes after Tom Lehman had two-putted for birdie at the par-5 15th to get to 8-under. Any chance his pursuers had was short lived when Chapman responded with a career shot on the par-3 17th, rifling a 5-iron to within six inches of the hole for a kick-in birdie that moved his margin back to two strokes for good.

Roger Chapman claimed his second Champions Tour victory in his 21st career start on the circuit and joined Michael Allen at the time as the second multiple winner on the Tour in 2012.

Roger Chapman became the third international player to win the U.S. Senior Open in the last five years—and the seventh overall. He is the first male English USGA champion since Tony Jacklin claimed the U.S. Open at Hazeltine Golf Club in 1970.

Roger Chapman became the first player since Bernhard Langer in 2010 to win two Champions Tour majors in a season. He is the fourth to win both the Senior PGA Championship and the U.S. Senior Open in the same year, joining Gary Player (1987), Jack Nicklaus (1991) and Hale Irwin (1998).

Roger Chapman posted four rounds in the 60s and became just the sixth player in U.S. Senior Open history to record four straight sub-70 scores.

Roger Chapman's victory earned him a check for $500,000, the largest amount on the Champions Tour, as well as a berth in the 2013 U.S. Open at Merion Golf Club near Philadelphia.

Bernhard Langer's four-stroke advantage after three rounds was the largest 54-hole lead by a non-winner in U.S. Senior Open history, besting the mark of three set by Raymond Floyd in 1998 and Tom Watson in 2007.

Tom Kite shot 65 in the opening round of the U.S. Senior Open. His 7-under-par 28 on the front nine not only was a U.S. Senior Open record but also was the lowest scoring total for nine holes in any USGA championship. Kite broke the mark of 29 shot by Olin Browne at Inverness Club in 2011 on the back nine of the third round. Kite's 28 also matched Peter Senior's 28 in the final round of the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores Golf Club (Benton Harbor, Mich.) as the low nine-hole Champions Tour score in 2012. It was later equaled by Jay Haas in the second round of the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship on the back nine of the Cochise Course at Desert Mountain.

Damon Green, who serves as Zach Johnson's PGA TOUR caddie, shot 2-under Sunday and tied for 17th (even-par). As Green played in the U.S. Senior Open, Johnson won the John Deere Classic for his ninth career PGA TOUR title.

Fred Couples birdied his final two holes to capture the Senior British Open at Turnberry. The former Masters champion was tied with Gary Hallberg, who had posted a 72-hole total of 7-under par as Couples headed to No. 17. Couples drained a birdie putt on the par-5 17th and then holed a 25-footer on the final hole to capture his second major Champions Tour title. Couples had started the day one stroke behind 54-hole leader Bernhard Langer, but a two-shot swing at No. 12 gave him the lead. Despite a bogey on the next hole, he finished bogey-free the rest of the way to hold off a Sunday charge by Hallberg.

The victory earned Fred Couples a berth in the 2013 British Open at Muirfield.

Fred Couples became the eighth player to win this event in his first appearance, joining Neil Coles (1987), Bobby Verwey (1991), Tom Wargo (1994), Brian Barnes (1995), Christy O'Connor, Jr. (1999), Tom Watson (2003) and Pete Oakley (2004).

The 2012 season marked the third consecutive year Fred Couples has posted multiple Champions Tour victories. Earlier in the season, he won the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. It was also his eighth career Champions Tour win.

Gary Hallberg's runner-up performance was his best showing since winning the Ensure Classic in 2010.

Gary Hallberg's 7-under-par 63 in the second round fell one stroke shy of the championship's 18-hole scoring record also set at Turnberry in 2003 by Jim Colbert. Hallberg's three-stroke lead after 36 holes matched the largest 36-hole lead in tournament history. Fred Funk set that mark in 2009. Besides Hallberg, only Fred Couples was able to manage a round below par in the second round, finishing with a 2-under-par 68. The scoring average for the day was 76.01.

Dick Mast has enjoyed playing at Turnberry. After finishing third in 2006, Mast duplicated that feat with a tie for third here. The victory earned the open qualifier $97,813.

Tom Watson, who won the 1977 British Open and the 2003 Senior British Open when they were held at Turnberry, tied for 10th.

Tom Lehman's opening-round, 4-under-par 66 gave him 19 consecutive rounds of par or better, at the time the longest Champions Tour streak in 2012.

Tom Watson and Greg Norman, both former British Open champions at Turnberry, were honored by Turnberry Resort during tournament week. Watson witnessed the unveiling of a plaque in the 18th fairway of the Ailsa Course to commemorate the 178-yard 7-iron shot he hit to 2 feet, sealing his victory over Jack Nicklaus in the 1977 British Open. Norman, the 1986 British Open winner at Turnberry, received Honorary Life Membership at Turnberry.

Bernhard Langer shot 10-under 62 in the final round and outdueled David Peoples to win the 3M Championship for the second time in four years. Trailing Peoples by four strokes at the turn, Langer birdied four of the first six back-nine holes, catching Peoples with a 10-foot birdie putt at No. 15. Langer then seized the lead for good when Peoples made bogey at the par-4 16th. He missed the green with his second shot, pitched 15 feet past the hole and failed to convert on his par effort. Langer then closed out the tournament in style, hitting his second shot on the par-5 finishing hole with a hybrid club to within 8 feet of the flag. His two-putt birdie at No. 18, coupled with Peoples' bogey from the sand at the par-3 17th temporarily moved the margin to three shots and ended any further suspense.

Bernhard Langer (2009 and 2012) joined Hale Irwin (1997, 1999 and 2002) as the only multiple winners of the 3M Championship.

Bernhard Langer won for the first time on the Champions Tour in more than 17 months (2011 ACE Group Classic) and claimed his 15th career title on the circuit. When Jay Haas won the 2011 3M Championship, it was also his 15th career Champions Tour victory.

Bernhard Langer came from six strokes back to win the 2012 3M Championship, the largest final-round comeback in tournament history.

Bernhard Langer has claimed at least one Champions Tour event in six straight seasons.

An alternate at the start of the week, David Peoples' runner-up effort was the best of his Champions Tour career.

Kenny Perry (tied for third) has finished among the top-three in each of his two appearances in the 3M Championship. In 2011, Perry tied for second in the tournament. He's a cumulative 30-under par over his six rounds at TPC Twin Cities.

In his 17th consecutive appearance at the 3M Championship, Hale Irwin bettered his age for the first time in his career. After matching his age on five other occasions, the 67-year-old Irwin carded a 7-under 65 in Sunday's final round. Irwin's round included an eagle at the par-4 ninth hole, a first in tournament history at the TPC Twin Cities.

In their first Champions Tour events after four-month layoffs, two-time major championship winner Mark O'Meara tied for eighth, while World Golf Hall of Fame member Nick Price tied for 39th. O'Meara had been out of action since early April with a rib injury. A left-elbow injury sidelined Price.

For the first time in the 20-year history of the 3M Championship, four players were tied for the first-round lead, including 65-year-old Gil Morgan, who matched his age with a bogey-free round. Also bunched at the top were Australia's Peter Senior, Taiwan's Chien Soon Lu and American Steve Pate. The previous high for most players tied for an opening-round lead in this event was three, in both 2000 and 2003.

Gil Morgan matched his age for the second time in his Champions Tour career, shooting a 7-under 65 in the first round.

With Michael Allen posted at 13-under, Willie Wood faced a must-birdie situation on the final hole of regulation to send the event into a playoff. He delivered right on cue, holing a 35-foot putt to shoot a 68 and force overtime. Wood then won the tournament on the first playoff hole with a par after Allen's tee shot on the 18th found the water. Wood overcame a double bogey at the par-3 fourth hole and trailed Brad Faxon by two strokes at the turn. He crept within a stroke after a birdie at the par-5 12th. When Faxon faltered and Allen birdied the 18th hole ahead of him, Wood knew what he had to do. It was the first playoff in the six-year history of the Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

Willie Wood's win earned him a two-year exemption into the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

Willie Wood ended a victory drought of 16 years, 29 days since his lone triumph on the PGA TOUR at the 1996 Deposit Guaranty Classic in Mississippi. Prior to his first Champions Tour win, Wood had gone 189 PGA TOUR events, 105 Web.com Tour events and 15 Champions Tour events since last winning.

Willie Wood became the first open qualifier to win on the Champions Tour since Rod Spittle at the 2010 AT&T Championship. It is also the 12th time an open qualifier has won in Champions Tour history.

The playoff was the second for Willie Wood. On the PGA TOUR, at the 1990 Hardee's Classic, Wood lost to Joey Sindelar in a playoff.

Willie Wood's winning total of 13-under-par 203 was the highest in tournament history.

Willie Wood's double bogey-5 at the par-3 fourth hole (tee shot in water) meant that five of the six different tournament champions at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open overcame a double bogey en route to their victories. Only Loren Roberts (2010) won this event without a double bogey.

Willie Wood was the third different player, and second consecutive, to make the Dick's Sporting Goods Open his first Champions Tour win. The others were R.W. Eaks (2007) and John Huston (2011).

Joey Sindelar closed with a bogey-free 66 to jump up into a tie for third, his best performance in this tournament. In 2011, the Horseheads, N.Y., native tied for fourth at En-Joie. He also was solo fourth in 2008 at En-Joie Golf Course.

Jay Don Blake birdied the second playoff hole to defeat Mark O'Meara. Both Blake and O'Meara shot a final-round, 4-under-par 68 and each made birdies at No. 18 in regulation to set up the playoff. After both players narrowly missed birdie putts on the first playoff hole, they went back to play No. 18 again. Blake chipped his third to within a foot for birdie, while O'Meara's third shot settled 16 feet away. After he missed his putt, Blake tapped in for the win.

Jay Don Blake's Boeing Classic win was his third career Champions Tour title.

Jay Don Blake's previous-best finish in three other starts at the Boeing Classic was a tie for 23rd in 2009. His 2012 victory was his first title since the 2011 Charles Schwab Cup Championship, ending a victory drought of 9 months, 20 days.

Sunday's playoff was the fourth in the eight-year history of the Boeing Classic and the second in as many years.

The Boeing Classic playoff was the third on the Champions Tour in 2012 and the second in succession. A week prior, Willie Wood defeated Michael Allen in a playoff to win the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Early in the season Corey Pavin edged Peter Senior in a playoff at the Allianz Championship.

Bernhard Langer narrowly missed posting his 11th consecutive top-10 finish when he tied for 11th at the Boeing Classic.

Duffy Waldorf bounced back from an opening-round 75 to post weekend rounds of 68-67 for a tie for eighth in his Champions Tour debut. Gene Sauers recorded consecutive rounds of 71 to tie for 21st in his debut.

Jim Gallagher, Jr., had the lone eagle at the drivable 14th hole at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge during the final round. Overall, there were four eagles on No. 14 during the week. Joining Gallagher were R.W. Eaks (first round) and John Huston and Brad Faxon (second rounds). Eaks has made three eagles on No. 14 in his career.

Defending champion Mark Calcavecchia tied for fourth in defense of his title, the best finish in this event by a defending champion.

Willie Wood birdied the final two holes, including a 20-footer at No. 18, to post his second victory in his last three Champions Tour starts. Bill Glasson, the 36-hole leader, stumbled on the back nine. Leading by as many as five strokes in his final round, Glasson finished with bogeys on three of his last four holes. After Wood drained his 20-footer at No. 18, Glasson needed to make a 10-footer to get into a playoff. His putt missed on the right side, handing Wood his second win this year.

The victory capped a productive three-tournament run for Willie Wood. In addition to his win in Hawaii, he claimed the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in a playoff in August over Michael Allen, and he was third in his previous start at the Boeing Classic near Seattle. In his three-tournament stretch, Wood earned $684,000, an average of $228,000 per start.

Willie Wood played all 54 holes without a bogey and became the 14th tournament winner in Champions Tour history to post a bogey-free victory.

Bill Glasson's second-place finish was his best showing in 47 previous Champions Tour starts.

Mark O'Meara tied for eighth for his fourth consecutive top-10 finish since returning from a rib injury, which sidelined him for an extended period in the spring and into the summer. The last time O'Meara had four consecutive top-10 finishes was early in the 2007 season.

Kirk Triplett had the tournament's best comeback. After a 6-over-par 78 in his opening round, Triplett was a combined 14-under par on the weekend on the strength of consecutive 65s, which helped him come back from a T76 Friday to a T12 finish.

Rick Fehr tied for 59th in his Champions Tour debut. After opening with a 70, he shot a pair of 2-over-par 74s on the weekend.

The par-4 13th hole was the most-difficult for the event, with an average score of 4.186. There were just 23 birdies in the three rounds. The par-5 17th was the easiest, with an average score of 4.413.

Some clutch putting on the back nine by Bernhard Langer was the difference as he triumphed for the second time in 2012, a two-stroke victory over Jay Don Blake. Langer one-putted five of his last six holes, including a 15-foot birdie putt at No. 13 and another 15-footer to save par at No. 16. Langer also drained a 7-footer at No. 18 to give him a two-stroke margin over Blake. Langer, who shot a 5-under-par 30 on the front nine, took the lead on the back nine when Fred Funk, the leader at the time, bogeyed No. 11. Moments later, Langer made his birdie at No. 13 to move two in front and held on from there.

The victory was the 16th of Bernhard Langer's Champions Tour career.

With 315 points in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race, Bernhard Langer moved into the lead with 2,208 points, 69 better than Tom Lehman, who had led for the previous eight weeks. Lehman did not play in the event.

The win earned Bernhard Langer a check for $315,000 that moved him into first place on the 2012 Champions Tour money list ahead of Michael Allen, who had topped the earnings list for 13 of the previous 15 weeks.

With his second win of the year (3M Championship in August), Bernhard Langer has now collected multiple wins in four of his six Champions Tour seasons.

Bernhard Langer's two-stroke victory marked the eighth time in the 12-year history of this event that the winner has posted a victory by multiple strokes.

Bernhard Langer's closing-round, 9-under-par 63 was the best closing round by a winner of this event. He erased the previous mark of 66 set in 2001 by Bruce Lietzke and later matched by five others.

Larry Nelson tied for sixth, his best Champions Tour showing since he tied for third at the 2010 AT&T Championship in San Antonio.

Neal Lancaster tied for 25th in his Champions Tour debut.

Mark O'Meara recorded his fifth straight top-10 finish with his tie for 10th, a first for him in his Champions Tour career.

Defending champion Kenny Perry tied for sixth.

The field averaged 71.552 for the event, more than a stroke lower than a year ago (72.657). No. 4 was the hardest hole, at 4.142, while the par-5 17th was the easiest, at 4.377, the third easiest on Tour in 2012.

Winner: Fred Funk
66-66-69 201 (-15)

After making an 8-foot-par save at the par-3 17th hole, Fred Funk holed a 2-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole to ease past Duffy Waldorf for Funk's second victory of the 2012 season. A winner earlier at the Inseperity Championship, Funk started the final round one stroke in front of Larry Mize. But after making seven consecutive pars, he found himself in a tie with Waldorf who made birdie at the par-5 seventh hole, his fourth on the front side. Both players remained tied at 12-under after 10 holes, and then Waldorf briefly took the lead with a short birdie putt at No. 11. However, Funk answered with an 8-foot birdie at No. 12 and both players birdied the par-5 14th to remain tied. After Waldorf hit an indifferent third shot on the par-5 18th and two-putted for par from 20 feet, his fate was in Funk's hands. Playing in the group behind Waldorf, Funk laid up to 43 yards with his second shot and then pitched his third inside 3 feet. He tapped in for the victory.

Fred Funk became the sixth of eight players to claim a pair of titles in 2012, the most on the Champions Tour since there were 10 multiple winners in 2008.

Fred Funk's win at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, coupled with his triumph earlier this year at the Inseperity Championship, gave him multiple victories in a season for the first time since 2008 when he won both the MasterCard Championship and JELD-WEN Tradition. On the PGA TOUR, Funk won multiple events in 1995.

Fred Funk's victory was his eighth career Champions Tour title, matching his total number of PGA TOUR wins.

Fred Funk's previous-best finish in five other appearances at this event was a tie for third in 2011.

Fred Funk became the eighth different winner in the 10-year history of the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn. At 56 years, 4 months, he also became the oldest winner of the tournament, surpassing R.W. Eaks who won the 2008 event at 56 years, 3 months, 23 days.

Fred Funk joined Willie Wood as the second player in 2012 to go bogey-free in an event and win. Wood captured the Pacific Links Hawaii Championship in September without making a bogey. Funk also won the 2007 Turtle Bay Championship in Hawaii without making a bogey.

Fred Funk stretched his streak to 84 straight holes at Rock Barn Golf & Spa without a bogey, dating to the seventh hole in the second round in 2011. During this run, Funk is a cumulative 28-under par.

Fred Funk's final-round 69 extended his streak of par-or-better rounds at Rock Barn to 18 straight, the longest active streak.

Duffy Waldorf's runner-up finish at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn was his best performance in his first five starts on the Champions Tour.

Defending champion Mark Wiebe birdied the last hole to finish third. Wiebe was also third at the previous week's SAS Championship.

Mark Wiebe aced the 205-yard, par-3, third hole with a 4-iron in the opening round. It was Wiebe's second Champions Tour hole-in-one and 15th of his career.

Chip Beck's tie-for-fourth performance at Rock Barn was his first top-10 finish of the season and marked his second consecutive top-five showing at this event. Beck also finished third in his initial appearance at Rock Barn in 2006.

Hale Irwin matched his age for the third time in 2012 when he posted a bogey-free 67 in the final round. Irwin also matched his age at the Senior PGA Championship (second round) and Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship (fourth round). Irwin bettered his age at the 3M Championship with a 65 in the third round.

After players made a Champions Tour all-time record 1,147 birdies at the 2011 Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn, there were just 823 birdies in 2012. The cumulative scoring average in 2012 was 72.008 compared to 69.008 in 2011, an all-time Champions Tour record for a par-72 course.

Mexico's Esteban Toledo tied for 72nd in his Champions Tour debut.

Current Course Record:

When David Frost holed a 20-foot putt for a par at No. 11 and then saved par with a 30-foot putt at No. 14 Sunday, he thought it just might be his day. After watching Bernhard Langer lip out his birdie putt from 10 feet on the first playoff hole, Frost was right. The South African holed a 9-foot birdie putt on the second hole of overtime to win the AT&T Championship. The two played together all three days and once Mark Calcavecchia, the tournament's 18- and 36- hole leader started to falter, it became a two-man duel midway on the back nine. Frost hit an 8-iron approach shot to within two feet of the 17th hole and tapped in for birdie to tie Langer, who had taken the lead with a birdie at No. 14. Langer forced the overtime session by getting up and down from the greenside bunker at No. 18, holing a clutch 7-foot par putt.

David Frost's six-stroke comeback is the largest in tournament history, surpassing Phil Blackmar's win in 2009 at Oak Hills when he came from five strokes behind.

David Frost's 54-hole score of 8-under-par 208 is the highest winning total at the AT&T Championship since Jim Albus' identical score in 1994, at The Dominion Country Club. He also matched the highest 54-hole winning score on the Champions Tour in 2012. Loren Roberts had an 8-under total in winning the Toshiba Classic.

David Frost is the fifth international player to win the AT&T Championship—

Bruce Crampton (1986), David Graham (1997), Mark McNulty (2004) and Rod Spittle (2009).

David Frost shot 71 in each of the first two rounds, and he became the first player to win the AT&T Championship with more than one round in the 70s since 1993 when J.C. Snead captured this tournament at The Dominion Country Club without posting a round in the 60s.

The playoff in 2012 was just the third in the 28-year-history of the AT&T Championship but was the second overtime session in San Antonio in the last three years. In 2010, Rod Spittle defeated Jeff Sluman on the first extra hole. In 1999, John Mahaffey defeated Bruce Fleisher and Jose Maria Canizares on the second playoff hole.

Following the AT&T Championship, there were no changes in the top 30 on the money list for the third consecutive year.

Jay Haas, the 2005 AT&T Championship winner, continued his good fortune in San Antonio, with a tie for ninth. It was his sixth top-10 performance in eight starts at this event.

Bob Gilder played his 1,000th round on the Champions Tour in Sunday's final round and carded a 2-over 74.

Tournament Record:

258 - Tom Lehman (2012)

Current Course Record:

60 - Desert Mountain Club (Cochise) - Jay Haas (2012)

Tom Lehman claimed his second victory of the season when he won the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship by six strokes over Jay Haas. Lehman made a pivotal birdie in the final round when he recovered brilliantly from a difficult lie at the par-4 14th hole and was never challenged for the title after that. He closed with a tap-in birdie to shoot 258 (22-under) before tipping his cap to honor longtime instructor, Jim Flick, who was watching at home gravely ill. Lehman's winning total was the lowest 72-hole score in Champions Tour history. He captured the Regions Tradition earlier in the year and became the eighth different player in 2012 to win a pair of Champions Tour titles.

Tom Lehman claimed his seventh career Champions Tour title in his 62nd start. He also became the 16th different winner of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

Tom Lehman became the first player to win consecutive Charles Schwab Cups and also became the first player since Tom Watson in 2005 to claim the Charles Schwab Cup by winning the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

Tom Lehman claimed his second TOUR event in the Phoenix area (2000 Phoenix Open) and became the first player since Fred Funk (1992 Shell Houston Open and 2012 Insperity Championship in Houston) to claim a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event in the same metropolitan area.

Tom Lehman's four-round total of 22-under 258 was easily an all-time numerical record for an event on the Champions Tour, and he equaled the record in relation to par (22-under 266, John Cook in 2009) since the 72-hole format was first used in 1994.

Tom Lehman's six-stroke margin of victory was the second largest in event history. Only Andy Bean's nine-stroke triumph in 2008 at Sonoma Golf Club was larger.

Jay Haas became the eighth player in Champions Tour history to shoot 60 when he posted the 10-under score in the second round of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

Defending champion Jay Don Blake finished third.

The overall scoring average at the Cochise Course at the par-70 Club at Desert Mountain was 68.925 compared to 71.075 at the par-71 TPC Harding Park in 2011. There were seven bogey-free rounds during the 2012 tournament.

The par-5 18th hole played as the easiest for the week (4.500), yielding four eagles and 61 birdies. The par-4 fourth hole yielded just eight birdies (4.217) over the four days of the event.

Tom Lehman joined Hale Irwin (2002 and 2004), Tom Watson (2003 and 2005), Jay Haas (2006 and 2008) and Loren Roberts (2007 and 2009) as multiple winners of the Charles Schwab Cup.

For the first time since the inaugural Champions Tour season in 1980, no player won three or more events in a season. Eight players won twice. In 1980, there were only four events on the Champions Tour schedule and they were won by four different players.

Bernhard Langer became the first player in Champions Tour history to claim the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner (2008-10 and 2012) four times. Langer was the only player to surpass the $2-million mark in 2012 ($2,140,296).

Cut: There was no cut; all 78 players completed 72 holes.

Weather: A mix of sun and clouds throughout the week. There were some isolated showers on Monday and daytime highs were in the upper 70s to the low 80s. Winds were from the NE 10-20 mph in the first two rounds and from 5-10 in the third round. Lift, clean and place rules were in effect in all four rounds.

Tournament Record:
264 - Jeff Freeman (2011)

Tournament Course Record:
62 - Keith Clearwater (2010)
62 - Jim Rutledge (2011) - TPC Scottsdale (Champions)

Gene Jones (Orlando, Fla.) shot a final-round 2-under-par 70 to post a three-stroke victory and claim medalist honors at the 2012 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at the par-72 TPC Eagle Trace. Jones finished with a 72-hole total of 13-under-par 275 and finished three better than rookie Jeff Brehaut (Los Altos, Calif.).

This marks the second time Jones was the medalist in this event. He shared those honors with Rick Rhoden when the event was also staged at TPC Eagle Trace in 2007.

Jones, who led by as much as five strokes on the back nine, made things interesting on his way home. He had his problems for the second day in a row on Nos. 12 and 13, making bogey-double bogey. As a result he watched his lead shrink to just one, but from that point on, he was mistake free and closed with birdies on Nos. 16 and 17 to pull away from Brehaut.

"I had the same problem on 12 and 13 again as I did yesterday. You just never know what's going to happen. I put two bad swings on it and I probably should have hit 3-wood on both of those, but its Tour school and you just can't let up at any time," Jones said. "No matter how old you get, Q-School is still a bear, but I've done it before and I felt pretty good when I started."

Jones will enjoy exempt status for the first time since 2010. He finished inside the top 30 in both 2008 and 2009.

"It's been a crazy couple of years," Jones added. "I had problems with kidney stones back in 2010 while on Tour and then didn't play at all in 2011 and in just five events this year. I felt good playing here at this course. I've had some success here and it was a little bit of a benefit for sure coming back here."

Runner-up Brehaut is in a peculiar position since he won't turn 50 until June 13th. As a result he will have to wait nearly six months to make his debut when the 2013 campaign gets under way.

"The Tour told me I could come to the school and if I made it I'd probably get in four events. I wasn't sure what to expect but my game has been pretty good and I'm thrilled with how it went," Brehaut said, a club pro in northern California.

The other three qualifiers were Mark Mouland (Wales), Jim Rutledge (Canada) and John Riegger (Henderson, Nev.). However, like Brehaut, Riegger can't make his debut until June when he turns 50. Brehaut and Riegger share the same birthday - June 13th.

With Brehaut and Riegger not becoming eligible until June, Chie-Hsiang Lin (Taiwan) and Esteban Toledo (Mexico) will be fully-exempt until June. They claimed the sixth and seventh spots, respectively, after the playoff.

Five other players earned conditionally-exempt status for 2013. They were Anders Forsbrand (Sweden), Neal Lancaster (Smithfield, N.C.), Jeff Freeman (Orlando, Fla.), T.C. Wang (Taiwan) and Steve Jones (Scottsdale, Ariz.).

The top 30 finishers and ties were eligible to compete for spots in open qualifiers at all co-sponsored events on the Champions Tour in 2013.
