PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 100 official-money tournaments on five tours—the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and PGA TOUR Canada. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America.

The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the tour but with their marquee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-Tour co-sponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association (USGA), with headquarters in Far Hills, N.J., oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (Ga.) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, oversees the British Open and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf Tour, with official money events from January through November. This year is the sixth in a new era for the PGA TOUR with the continuation of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup.

The Champions Tour continues to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and older with a fan-friendly platform that promotes "inside the ropes" and game-improvement for its fans. The Charles Schwab Cup, a season-long, points-based competition, enters its 12th season.

Three out of four PGA TOUR members in 2013 have Web.com Tour roots. Beginning in 2013, all 50 PGA TOUR cards for the following season will be awarded through the Web.com Tour.

PGA TOUR Latinoamérica is a professional golf tour created in 2012 by the PGA TOUR in collaboration with the Tour de Las Americas, promoters and National Golf Federations. The inaugural 2012 season featured 11 tournaments between September and December in seven countries in the Latin American region: Mexico, Colombia, Brazil, Argentina, Peru, the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico. The top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica order of merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

CANADA

PGA TOUR Canada

PGA TOUR Canada (formerly known as the Canadian Tour) is a professional golf Tour played across Canada. Since its inception as the Peter Jackson Tour, in 1971, the Canadian Tour has evolved into a high-caliber, coast-to-coast training ground for professionals. Its alumni include not only the game's Canadian legends but also many prominent, international players who have collectively won 113 PGA TOUR titles through 2012. A minimum of eight 72-hole stroke play events, with purses of at least $150,000, will take place across the country beginning in June 2013.

A NEW ERA BEGINS

In 2013, the most significant change ever in how a professional golfer qualifies for the PGA TOUR will debut. In the new system, the Web.com Tour will serve as the path to the PGA TOUR, with all 50 available PGA TOUR cards for the 2013-14 season coming through the Web.com Tour.

SEASON-LONG PERFORMANCE MATTERS

On the Web.com Tour, the 25 leading money-winners will be guaranteed TOUR cards at the end of the Regular Season, with the top 75 securing a spot in the Finals. The Web.com Tour members will be joined there by Nos. 126-200 off the PGA TOUR's FedExCup points list, seeking their last shot at redemption.

THE FINALS: BRING YOUR GAME

The quest to earn a PGA TOUR card will end in dramatic fashion over the last four events of the season, at the Web.com Tour Finals in September in Fort Wayne, Ind., Columbus, Ohio, Charlotte, N.C. and Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. Not only will there be 25 additional cards on the line, competitors will be playing to either improve or hurt their status in the all-important priority ranking, which is used to form PGA TOUR fields.

2012 - present	Web.com Tour (announced 6/27/12)

Even the most optimistic person couldn't have foreseen the success the Web.com Tour would have when it kicked off its inaugural season on Thursday, Feb. 2, 1990 at 7:30 a.m. PST at Bakersfield Country Club in Bakersfield, Calif.

The Web.com Tour began under corporate sponsorship of the Ben Hogan Company as the Ben Hogan Tour. The idea of former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane R. Beman, the Web.com Tour was designed as a proving ground for up-and coming golfers, as well as a place for PGA TOUR veterans to hone their skills as they prepared for the Champions Tour. It has become so much more than that.

For the first two years of the Tour, the top-five money winners were awarded PGA TOUR membership. Beginning in 1992, the PGA TOUR Policy Board voted that, due to the success graduating players were having on the PGA TOUR, the number of cards available would be increased to 10; and in 1997 the number was increased to 15. In 2003, 20 players earned their 2004 TOUR cards, and that number increased to 25 in 2007.

That first event in 1990 was won by Mike Springer, who went on to win two more times that year and finish fourth on the money list. He was joined in the first graduating class by Jim McGovern, Dick Mast, Ed Humenik and Jeff Maggert, who was leading money winner and Player of the Year.

However, the player who made the biggest impact on the PGA TOUR from the 1990 Tour was John Daly, winner of the only Ben Hogan Tour Qualifying Tournament. Daly won the 1991 PGA Championship as a rookie and went on to finish 17th on the PGA TOUR money list. Since then, he has added four more victories, including another major championship, the 1995 British Open.

Tom Lehman first established himself as a top-flight player on the Tour in 1991. After two nondescript years on the PGA TOUR in the early 1980s, Lehman won a tournament on Tour in 1990. But 1991 was the breakthrough season in his comeback. He won three times and was the circuit's leading money-winner.

Californian John Flannery was the Player of the Year in 1992, winning three times and leading the Tour in earnings with $164,114.

On August 26, 1992 Nike, Inc., took over sponsorship of the Tour,

In 2002, the Tour added tournaments in Australia and New Zealand for the first time. In addition, tournaments were allowed to sell individual title sponsorships for the first time. Patrick Moore won three times and was named Player of the Year. A record 12 players earned $200,000 or more, and alums continued to excel winning a single season record 21 times on the PGA TOUR.

The season ended on a high note with the announcement of a new umbrella sponsor in Nationwide Insurance. The five-year agreement would start with the 2003 season and coincided with an increase in PGA TOUR cards awarded to 20.

Carter became only the sixth player to earn a three-win promotion to the PGA TOUR, yet did not win Player of the Year. That honor went to Zach Johnson, who set a Tour record for earnings with $494,882. He had two wins and nine top-three finishes in 20 starts while setting a new Tour scoring record of 68.97.

Jimmy Walker was the 2004 Player of the Year and leading money winner, as well as one of five multiple winners during the season. Alums continued to excel, winning a record 22 PGA TOUR titles, while the Class of 2003 made history with five members winning on TOUR, with seven earning at least $1 million and eight finishing in the top 125.

In May, Daniel Chopra set a Tour record when he shot 30-under at the Henrico County Open. Tyler Williamson and Chris Nallen each fired 60s during the year, one shot off the Tour record.

Jason Gore was the lead story in 2005 when he captured the hearts of golf fans everywhere at the U.S. Open. He followed that performance with a record-setting three straight wins on the Web.com Tour and shot 59 in capturing the last one. He completed his season with a September victory on the PGA TOUR and was named Web.com Tour Player of the Year. Any other year, Troy Matteson would have walked off with that honor as he won twice, finished in the top 10 a dozen times and set a new single-season earnings record of $495,009.

The 2006 season featured a slate of 31 tournaments and $17 million. Ken Duke and Johnson Wagner battled throughout the year for top honors, with Duke emerging as the leading money winner and Player of the Year.

Five players won twice—Wagner, Tripp Isenhour, Craig Kanada, Brandt Snedeker and Kevin Stadler—with a record 10 players earning more than $300,000 and 22 collecting $200,000 or more.

The Class of 2005 made its mark on the PGA TOUR in 2006 with 12 of the beginning with the 1993 season. Sean Murphy was the star that year, setting records for wins in a season with four, career victories with five, and single-season earnings with $166,293. He added a sixth title in 1995.

While Murphy was busy setting records, his fellow Tour alumni were busy making names for themselves on the PGA TOUR. Daly collected his second career win in the 1992 B.C. Open, and others were beginning to earn their own hardware. McGovern, Mike Standly and Maggert all collected PGA TOUR titles in 1993, while Springer and Greg Kraft grabbed unofficial wins. The Tour Championship also was established in 1993 as a climax to the season. Rookie David Duval won the first Tour Championship, which featured only the year's top-50 money winners.

In 1994, Chris Perry showed that consistency has its own rewards. Although six players collected multiple victories that year, Perry's lone title in the Utah Classic, 10 top-10 finishes and no missed cuts earned him Player of the Year honors. He set a single-season earnings record with $167,148.

There were a number of firsts in 1994. In June, Tommy Armour III became the first player to win back-to-back tournaments—the Miami Valley Open and Cleveland Open. During the second round of the 1994 Shreveport Open, Omar Uresti set a record with nine consecutive birdies, setting a standard not only for the Web.com Tour but the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and European Tour.

In May, Vic Wilk became the first left-hander to win an event, the Knoxville Open. Jerry Kelly continued the trend of the leading money-winner setting an earnings record in 1995 when he collected $188,878 to better Perry's year-old mark. Besides winning twice, Kelly posted 15 top-10 finishes.

Stewart Cink was the top story in 1996. The 1995 College Player of the Year became the first player in Web.com Tour history to earn more than $200,000 in a single season with $251,699. He won three times, including the season-ending Tour Championship, and collected 14 top-10 finishes in only 21 events.

The 1997 season marked the first year of the three-win promotion, which grants immediate PGA TOUR access to any player who wins three Web.com Tour events in a season. Chris Smith was the first to do so winning that year's Upstate Classic as well as the Dakota Dunes Open and Omaha Classic in back-to-back weeks.

In October, Steve Flesch joined Wilk as the only left-handed champions. Flesch won the season-ending Tour Championship. That victory vaulted him from 24th on the money list to fourth, earning him 1998 PGA TOUR membership.

The 1998 season saw more of the kind of action for which the Web.com Tour has become known. During a three-week period late in the spring, Notah Begay III and Doug Dunakey caught the attention of the golf world when each posted 59. Begay's 13-under-par 59 came in the second round of the Dominion Open. Dunakey could have had the record all to himself were it not for a three-putt bogey on his final hole.

Bob Burns was named 1998 Player of the Year after leading in earnings with $178,664 and winning the Dominion Open and Tour Championship.

The 1999 season saw Carl Paulson establish a new record for consecutive starts with 83. The 83rd was particularly significant as Paulson recorded his first-ever Web.com Tour victory at the Utah Classic. That win, and another two weeks later in Boise, Idaho, vaulted Paulson to the top of the money list. His peers would later vote him Player of the Year. Seven players won twice on the Tour in 1999, and a record 22 earned more than $100,000.

The season-ending Tour Championship featured a thrilling finale at the Robert Trent Jones Trail Highland Oaks Golf Club in Dothan, AL. Bob Heintz won his second event of the season defeating Marco Dawson in a playoff to take home the largest check in Tour history—$72,000.

In late October, internet superstore Buy.com was announced as the new umbrella sponsor of the Tour. With Buy.com's financial commitment, purses rose to a record $13.1 million in 2000, with the minimum purse jumping from $225,000 to $400,000. On the course, the 2000 season saw Spike McRoy earn Player of the Year honors after winning twice and earning a record $300,638. He was one of 53 players to earn $100,000 or more.

21 graduates finishing among the top 125 on the money list. Chris Couch, Eric Axley and Troy Matteson each won on TOUR. They were among eight 2005 graduates whose earnings exceeded $1 million.

On-course success was exceeded only by the good news that Nationwide and the PGA TOUR had reached a new five-year extension of Nationwide's umbrella sponsorship of the Tour through 2012.

In 2007, the Tour played for a record $18 million in prize money and a record 25 PGA TOUR cards were awarded at season's end. Australia's Nick Flanagan earned a three-win promotion to the PGA TOUR in August and later earned Player of the Year honors. Richard Johnson won the season-ending Tour Championship at Barona Creek to capture the money title. Another Aussie, Jason Day, 19, became the youngest winner in Web.com Tour history when he won in Cleveland in July. Five of the top-seven money winners were international members, and eight players surpassed $300,000 in earnings. Brandt Snedeker, a 2006 graduate, was voted PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year. Zach Johnson, the 2003 Player of the Year, won the Masters.

The 2008 season featured record prize money of nearly $19 million. Brendon de Jonge of Zimbabwe earned Player of the Year honors. Matt Bettencourt finished the year with a flurry to capture the money title. Bettencourt and three other players, Jarrod Lyle, Scott Piercy and Colt Knost, won two events. The Tour added an event in Mexico and one in Canada featuring hockey legend Wayne Gretzky, and played its first two $1-million events, the Tour Players Cup in West Virginia and the Tour Championship.

The Web.com Tour celebrated its 20th year in 2009. Four cities, which have hosted tournaments every year since 1990 (Boise, Knoxville, Springfield and Wichita), were highlighted. Despite facing the most challenging economic time in decades, the Web.com Tour maintained a strong foundation, playing 29 tournaments—in the U.S. and in five countries abroad. Australian Michael Sim was the year's headliner as he rewrote the Tour's record book, earning a battlefield promotion to the PGA TOUR by August and pocketing $644,142. Alumni on the PGA TOUR racked up a record 23 titles, including majors by Lucas Glover (U.S. Open) and Cink (British Open), upping the TOUR alumni win total to 260 at season's end since the Tour's inception.

An array of young talent led the charge in 2010, highlighted by 22-year-old Jamie Lovemark, who became the youngest player in Tour history to capture the money title. Thirteen of "The 25" graduates were age 27 or younger when they received their cards in October. The Tour visited a record six countries outside the U.S. over 29 events, making new stops in Bogota, Colombia, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and the PGA TOUR's home base of Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. The year also featured tournament celebrity hosts in Camilo Villegas, Jerry Rice, Wayne Gretzky, Anthony Munoz, Arnold Palmer, Chip Beck, Gary Williams and Jim Furyk. On the PGA TOUR, alumni added a record 28 TOUR titles in 2010, raising the total win count to 288. Furyk became the second Web.com Tour alumnus to be voted PGA TOUR Player of the Year by his peers.

In 2011, four players—J.J. Killeen, Ted Potter, Jr., Mathew Goggin and Jason Kokrak—won two times and finished 1-4, respectively, on the money list, with Killeen capturing Player of the Year honors. Two of the most memorable wins came when Steve Wheatcroft set a 72-hole scoring record (255/29-under) and won by a record 12 shots at the Melwood Prince George's County Open and two-time heart transplant recipient Erik Compton won his first Tour event, at the Mexico Open. The Midwest Classic near Kansas City joined the schedule of 26 events. On the PGA TOUR, a record 32 of 45 official events were won by Tour alumni, raising the total to 320 wins since 1990. The 32 wins included seven by six players who competed on the Web.com Tour in 2010, highlighted by two Keegan Bradley wins, which included the PGA Championship. Bill Haas became the second alumni in a row (Jim Furyk) to capture the FedExCup.

The 2012 season was a significant one both on and off the golf course. Casey Wittenberg won twice, captured the money title and was named Player of the Year. Four promising young players joined him in winning twice—Ben Kohles and Luke Guthrie, both 22, Shawn Stefani, 31, and Russell Henley, 23. Kohles and Guthrie were college students before turning pro in June and had no Web.com Tour status. On the PGA TOUR, three alumni won majors, Bubba Watson (Masters), Webb Simpson (U.S. Open) and Ernie Els (British Open), while fellow alum, Matt Kuchar, captured THE PLAYERS. For the third year in a row, a former Web.com Tour player, Brandt Snedeker, claimed the FedExCup. In late June, Web.com came on board as the Tour's new umbrella sponsor (through 2021), and a few weeks later the PGA TOUR announced that all 50 PGA

Tim Clark made history of his own in 2000 when he collected the first $100,000 payday on Tour by winning the Boise Open. The 2000 season was also notable for the emergence of international players who captured nine titles and claimed four of the top-15 spots on the money list.

The 2001 season was memorable when, for the second time, three players earned three-win promotions in one season. Heath Slocum was the first to do so, followed by Chad Campbell and Pat Bates, who won back-to-back tournaments to end the year. Todd Barranger tied the scoring mark by winning the Dayton Open with a 26-under-par effort, while Campbell set a single-season earnings record with $394,552 to capture Player of the Year. He also finished second at the PGA TOUR 's season-ending Southern Farm Bureau Classic.

2021), and a few weeks later the PGA TOUR announced that all 50 PGA TOUR cards would be awarded through the Web.com Tour, beginning in 2013, establishing the Web.com Tour as the path to the PGA TOUR. The Tour added successful new events in Chile and Evansville, Ind., to the schedule. Bill Clinton became the first sitting or former President of the United States to attend a Web.com Tour event when he traveled to Bogota, Colombia, in February. The final class of 25 graduates was determined in dramatic fashion at the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship when a James Hahn up and down on the 72nd hole triggered a series of movements around the 25th spot, with Jim Herman the ultimate beneficiary. He grabbed the final spot by just $940. Justin Bolli won the tournament itself and also advanced to the PGA TOUR.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2012 TPC Stonebrae Championship

BEST 2012 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

1-TPC Stonebrae Championship.

2012 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in 11 of 27 starts and wound up No. 33 on the money list, thanks mainly to a pair of early top-five finishes. Was one of four players to play in all scheduled tournaments...Earned his first career win with a come-from-behind victory at the weather-delayed TPC Stonebrae Championship. Fired a 4-under 66 in the final round to finish at 10-under 270, one better than Matt Harmon, Duffy Waldorf and Paul Haley. Survived a crazy week in Northern California, which saw the tournament delayed by fog and rain three of the four days. He also locked his keys in his car early Thursday morning on the way to the course and then left his wallet at a gas station Friday, but when he returned to retrieve it it was gone. Says he played "smart golf" Sunday as third-round leader Tyrone Van Aswegen faltered, and none of the nearest challengers were able to make a move. Hit 14 of 18 greens on the last day and finished the week No. 2 in Total Putts. Victory was worth $108,000 and moved him to No. 4 on the money list at the time...Was T4 at the inaugural Chile Classic. Failed to muster a charge on the final day and wound up six strokes back of winner Paul Haley II...Had only one other top-25 finish, a T12 at the Price Cutter Charity Championship in mid-August.

PERSONAL:

His younger sister also attended Stanford University. Got his start in golf from his father, Enrique, who "loves golf more than anyone loves golf in the world." Attended Torrey Pines (Calif.) High School...Never travels without his neck pillow...Currently drives a Ford Explorer...Favorite Website is espn.com. Withdrew with a shoulder injury during THE PLAYERS Championship, missed the cut the following week at the HP Byron Nelson Championship and did not play the rest of the season...Underwent surgery on both shoulders, the first on September 20, with surgeons shaving between five to seven millimeters off both near the AC joints to alleviate pain...Will have 14 events in the 2013 season to earn $493,399, which coupled with 2012 decidedly forward, to encourage remaining still over putts...On May 19, 2009, he hit a 230-yard shot from the top of the Omni San Diego Hotel to a bullseye in the center of Petco Park in order to give everyone a free chicken wrap at P.F. Chang's China Bistro...Did a similar promotion in 2010, hitting shots from the roof of the 40-story Waterside Plaza in New York to a floating target in the East River. SPECIAL INTERESTS: Music, water sports, cooking

EDUCATION: New Mexico State University (1993, Marketing)

TURNED PRO: 1994

Q-SCHOOL: 1998

2012 HIGHLIGHTS:

Split time between the PGA TOUR and European Tour, making the cut in four of 10 starts on TOUR. Failed to crack the top 10 in any event, with T12 at the Mayakoba Golf Classic and T19 at the HP Byron Nelson Championship his best finishes.

PERSONAL:

Won a Nissan Altima Coupe with a hole-in-one at the 2007 Nissan Open on the par-3 14th hole during the third round.

Immediately after the ace with a 7-iron from 176 yards, dove onto the car on display next to the tee box and eventually found his way onto a Nissan television commercial with the antic. Beem had watched Peter Jacobsen dive into a car after his ace in the Nissan Open 13 years ago. "I wish I could take full credit for making a fool of myself, but I stole that (from Peter Jacobsen). Jake had a convertible and hopped into it. I will never forget that. Today, I just saw the car and thought, might as well. I'll tell you the top of that hood was pretty warm, and the back is a little scratched up from my shoes."...Quit the game temporarily in 1995 and sold cellular phones and car stereo systems in Seattle. Watched fellow El Paso, Texas, resident J.P. Hayes win 1998 Buick Classic and gained renewed interest... Worked in pro shop at El Paso CC prior to joining TOUR... Father, Larry, retired as golf coach at New Mexico State in 2004.

2–Chile Classic Presented by Pacific Rubiales.

2012 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in 19 of 26 starts during his rookie season and ended the year No. 28 on the money list, thanks to seven top-25 finishes. His 19 made cuts was tied for the second most on Tour...Finished runner-up at the inaugural Chile Classic, thanks to course record-matching, 8-under 64 on the final day. Started the last round 10 strokes back of leader and eventual winner Paul Haley but closed the gap to two with a birdie at No. 17. Haley, playing 70 minutes behind, added two more birdies down the stretch to earn the win. The second-place showing was his career-best performance on either the PGA TOUR or the Web.com Tour...On his first visit to Kansas, found himself two strokes off Jim Herman's 36-hole lead at the Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open and eventually finished T4 at Crestview CC after weekend rounds of 71-68...Entered the final week of the season No. 24 on the money list, but a T31 finish at the Web.com Tour Championship near Dallas dropped him four spots in the standings, and he missed out on his 2013 PGA TOUR card by about $4,000...Made one PGA TOUR start, a T40 finish at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Tournament was memorable for his double eagle at Spyglass Hill GC on the 11th hole in the third round. Shot a 1-over 73, with pars (nine), birdies (three), bogeys (three), double bogeys (two) and a double eagle on his scorecard.

BEST 2012 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

P1-BMW Charity Pro-Am presented by SYNEX Corporation.

2012 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in nine of 19 starts and had only one top-10 finish, a victory in South Carolina in mid-May...Defeated countryman Cameron Percy on the third playoff hole to win the BMW Charity Pro-Am for the second time in his career. Fired a 4-under 67 in the final round at Thornblade Club to tie Percy at 15-under 271. Beneficiary of a lucky bounce on the final hole of regulation. Second shot on the up-hill, 491-yard 18th caromed off a television cameraman and rolled onto the green, stopping 12 feet from the pin. Made the birdie putt to tie Percy and force the tournament's third playoff in the past four years. Earned the win with a par on the third extra hole and collected a first-place check of $108,000, jumping to No. 11 on the money list. He became the 11th player in Tour history to win the same event twice, having captured the title in 2007. Had limited status to start the 2012 season and missed the cut in his only other Tour appearance, at the Chile Classic. Also missed the cut at the Wells Fargo Championship, where he was a Monday qualifier and played the first two days with his Jacksonville, Fla., roommate, Jonas Blixt...Ran off a string of seven consecutive birdies during the second round of the Mylan

Classic near Pittsburgh. Second time in his career he has reeled off seven in a row. Unfortunately, his run came after an opening 75, which left him with too much ground to make up. Eventually missed the cut by one stroke...Made the cut in each of his last four starts, but a T25 at the Neediest Kids Championship was his best finish.

BEST 2012 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

1--Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship presented by Samsung.

2012 HIGHLIGHTS:

Earned his third career title with a one-stroke win at the season-opening Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship when he rolled in a 25-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole. Fired an even-par 71 on the final day for a 10-under 274 total, one better than Andres Gonzales and Andrew Svoboda. Shared the 54-hole lead with Svoboda but fell behind early with back-to-back bogeys on his first two holes. Was steady the rest of the day and moved into first place on the back nine. A bogey at No. 16 dropped him into a tie for the lead. After rolling in birdie putt at No. 18, he had to wait to celebrate until playing partner Svoboda missed a 20-foot birdie putt to tie. 2010 Mexico Open Bicentenary

BEST 2012 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

T7–WNB Golf Classic. T7–Miccosukee Championship.

2012 HIGHLIGHTS:

Split time between the Web.com Tour and PGA TOUR in the Regular Season. Following back surgery after just nine events in his rookie season of 2011, was competing on a Major Medical Extension. Coupled with 2011 earnings ($34,693), had 16 events to make $633,473, equaling No. 125 from the 2011 money list to extend his Extension through the remainder of the season. The John Deere Classic was that 16th start of the season. Through 15 events, had earned $97,111, meaning he needed to pick up at least $536,362 at TPC Deere Run. Only a John Deere Classic victory ($828,000) would have satisfied that requirement. Finished T45 at the John Deere Classic to lose his card...Returned to the Web.com Tour for the remainder of the year and made eight cuts in 12 starts, with four top-25 finishes. Was T7 at the WNB Golf Classic after sharing the first-round lead at Midland CC...Also was T7 at the Miccosukee Championship.

BEST 2012 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

1—Stadion Classic at UGA.

2012 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in 14 of 26 events during his rookie season on the Web.com Tour and finished No. 27 on the money list, thanks to a win and five other top-25 finishes...Fired a course-record, 9-under 62 in the final round of the Stadion Classic at UGA to earn his first career win. Capped a brilliant Sunday by holing out from a greenside bunker on his final hole to finish at 17-under 267. Had a trio of three birdies in a row on the last day, winding up at No. 18, where he then waited 90 minutes for the rest of the field to finish. Wound up taking the title by one when co-leader Luke List, playing in the next-to-last group, bogeyed the 18th hole after hitting his tee shot into the trees down the right side. Victory was worth $99,000, who moved to No. 7 on the season money list. Joined former teammate Russell Henley (2011) as former Bulldogs to win on their home course. He became the third member of the 2011 Georgia team to win on Tour in the span of one year—joining Henley and Harris English (2011 Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational)...Was just three strokes off the lead after 36 holes at the Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open and eventually finished T4 in South Central Kansas after carding a 68 Sunday...Got off to fast start to the season when he fired a tournament record, 5-under 30 in his first nine holes as a Tour member at the season-opening Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship. Birdied the 10th before posting three bogeys coming in to end at 3-under 68. Went on finish T18 in Bogota...Entered the final week of the year No. 23 on the money list, but a T39 finish at the Web.com Tour Championship dropped him four spots, to No. 27, about $2,700 shy of gaining his 2013 PGA TOUR card.

P1—United Leasing Championship at Victoria National Golf Club.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(1): 2005 Montreal Open [Can].

2012 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in six of 11 starts and had three top-25 finishes...Earned his third career win with a playoff victory over David Lingmerth at the inaugural United Leasing Championship, the first tournament on the newly named Web.com Tour. Shot a 2-under 70 in the final round to force a playoff with Lingmerth, who was in the clubhouse at 11-under 277. Missed birdie chances on the first and third playoff holes and then had to wait out a 25-minute delay when a thunderstorm halted play shortly before 4 p.m. at Victoria National GC. Two-putted the fourth extra hole to beat Lingmerth and collect the $99,000 first-place check. Victory came in only his third start of the season. Had been plagued by various injuries since October of 2010 when he broke a bone in his foot prior to the start of the Chattanooga Classic. Suffered through cracked ribs in 2011 and underwent hip surgery in February of 2012 and hernia surgery one month later. Held the lead during much of the final round and was up by one when he pushed his tee shot into the water on the 72nd hole. Birdied the hole on his second ball, giving him a bogey-5 to force the playoff with Lingmerth...Added a T22 at the Utah Championship in his next start but would not crack the top-25 again until the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship, where he was 24th.

PERSONAL:

Lists helping team win the 2004 NCAA Championship as his biggest thrill in golf...Calls his dad, who gave him his start in golf, his hero...Played soccer in high school and helped lead his team to the state championship. Proud of his Italian heritage...Great-grandparents hailed from San Fele in the southern part of Italy...Favorite movie is "Talladega Nights" and is a big fan of Will Ferrell.

Current Course Record:

64 - Country Club de Bogota - Kirk Triplett (2012), Will Wilcox (2012)

Veteran Skip Kendall rolled in a 25-foot birdie putt on the final hole to win by one stroke over Andres Gonzales and Andrew Svoboda. Kendall shot an even-par 71 in the final round to finish at 10-under par and claim his third career title. His victory wasn't secure until Svoboda, his playing partner and co-leader after 54 holes, missed a 20-foot birdie putt that would have forced a playoff.

Skip Kendall, at 47 years, 5 months, 10 days, became the fourth-oldest tournament winner in Tour history. He also became the third straight player over-40 to win the event. Steve Pate (48) won the inaugural tourney in 2010, and Brenden Pappas (40) won the rain-shortened tourney in 2011.

Earlier in the week, former U.S. President Bill Clinton was in town to play in the Wednesday pro-am. D.J. Brigman, the chairman of the Web.com Tour Players Advisory Council, had the honor of playing with President Clinton and Colombian President Juan Manuel Santos. Also joining them were Jose Francisco Arata, the president and executive director of Pacific Rubiales and tournament director German Calle.

Six players made their first career starts on Tour in Bogota, and four made the cut. Erik Flores (tied for 20th), Hudson Swafford (tied for 27th), Paul Haley II (tied for 33rd) and Bio Kim (tied for 58th) all advanced to play on the weekend. Jeff Cuzzort and Adam Long missed the cut. As a footnote, Haley would go on to win the Chile Classic three weeks later in just his third career start.

Rookie Hudson Swafford, in his first career start, birdied his first two holes in Thursday's opener. He added three more birdies and set a tournament record with his 5-under 30 on the front nine. Swafford finished with a 3-under 68.

The tournament marked the 11th consecutive year the Web.com Tour's opening event has been played outside the United States. This was the fourth different country to host the season-opener. The Tour began the 2002 and 2003 seasons in Adelaide, Australia. The Tour opened the schedule in Panama for six consecutive years (2004-09), before moving to New Zealand to start the 2010 season. In 2011, the Tour began its season in Panama.

Tournament Record:

265 - Fran Quinn (2010)

Current Course Record:

61 - Panama GC - Ryan Armour (2011)

Edward Loar earned his first career win with a one-stroke victory over four others. Loar, who led by four shots after 54 holes, won despite shooting a 4-over 74 in the final round. He rolled in a 6-foot par putt on the final hole to secure the win. It was the first significant title for the 34-year old since he captured the 2004 Korean Open on the Asian Tour.

Edward Loar became the sixth lefthander to win on the Web.com Tour and the first since Ted Potter, Jr. captured the 2011 Soboba Golf Classic. Other lefties to win over the years are Vic Wilk, Steve Flesch, Eric Axley and Greg Chalmers.

Edward Loar's winning score of 276 (4-under) is the second-highest in the tournament's nine-year history. Scott Dunlap was 3-under when he won in 2008.

The par-70 Panama Golf Club is annually one of the toughest on Tour. The course played above par each of the four rounds and had a cumulative scoring average of 72.027.

The 36-hole cut came at 4-over-par 144. It was the eighth time in nine years the cut has been over par. The highest cut in tournament history came in 2008, at 5-over 145.

Edward Loar's four-stroke lead after 54 holes is the second-largest in tournament history. Fran Quinn led by five in 2010.

Kevin Johnson tied the tournament record with six consecutive birdies in the third round. Andrew Johnson had six in a row in the second round in 2007.

Kevin Johnson's third-round 63 was the second-lowest score of his career. Johnson, making his 337th career start, shot a 62 in the opening round of the 1997 Permian Basin Open.

Tournament Record:

266 - Paul Haley II (2012)

Current Course Record:

64 - Prince of Wales Country Club - Joseph Bramlett (2012), Alex Coe (2012), Paul Haley II (2012), Paul Haley II (2012)

Rookie Paul Haley II needed merely a 1-under 71 on the final day to win the inaugural Chile Classic by three strokes in only his third Tour start. Haley used back-to-back 64s in the middle two rounds to stake himself to a six-stroke lead after 54 holes at the Prince of Wales Country Club.

Paul Haley II, 24, turned professional in the fall of 2011 after graduating from Georgia Tech earlier in the year. He became the 10th Georgia Tech grad to win on Tour, joining 1996 Player of the Year Stewart Cink and 2005 leading money winner Troy Matteson, among others.

Second-year pro Joseph Bramlett matched the course record, with an 8-under 64 in the final round. He charged up the leaderboard to put pressure on leader Paul Haley II. Bramlett finished at 19-under and in second place, three back of Haley.

Paul Haley II's six-stroke lead after 54 holes matched the fourth-biggest in Tour history. Steve Wheatcroft led by eight at the 2011 Melwood Prince George's County Open, Greg Kraft led by seven at the 2005 Northeast Pennsylvania Classic and Parker McLachlin led by seven at the 2007 National Mining Association Pete Dye Classic.

Alex Coe recorded the tournament's first hole-in-one. Coe aced the 180-yard, fourth hole using a 7-iron in the second round. It was his second ace in competition. His first one also came in South America, at the 2009 Argentine Masters in Buenos Aires.

Nine Chilean players were entered and five advanced to the weekend. Benjamin Alvarado (tied for eighth) and Mark Tullo (tied for 12th) finished in the top 25 and qualified to play in the Tour's next event, the Chitimacha Louisiana Open.

Much of the pre-tournament focus was on 18-year-old reigning Chilean Junior champion Juan Cerda of Santiago. Cerda won the prestigious Junior Orange Bowl International Golf Championship in Miami in December. He shot scores of 71-67 to make the cut. He tied for 61st.

Santiago, Chile, is not the southernmost city the Web.com Tour has played. Santiago's latitude is 33 degrees South, but the Tour has been farther south, with events in Adelaide, Australia (34 degrees S), Melbourne, Australia (37 degrees South), Christchurch, New Zealand (43 degrees South) and Queenstown, New Zealand (45 degrees South).

Tournament Record:

260 - Casey Wittenberg (2012)

Current Course Record:

60 - Le Triomphe CC - Brenden Pappas (2007)

Casey Wittenberg earned his first career win with a record-setting performance at Le Triomphe Country Club. Wittenberg shot a 6-under 65 in the final round to pull away from the field and win by eight strokes, matching the fourth-largest victory margin in Web.com Tour history. Wittenberg finished at 24-under 260 and collected $90,000 to move to No. 4 on the money list.

Casey Wittenberg played the final 48 holes without a bogey. Wittenberg had as many eagles—two—as he did bogeys during the week. Both of Wittenberg's bogeys were the result of three-putting.

Brad Fritsch carded the low round of the week on Sunday, a 9-under 62 that vaulted him from T45 to T5. Fritsch had eight birdies and an eagle and bettered his career-low score by three strokes.

Casey Wittenberg's 260 set a tournament record for a low 72-hole total. The previous mark was 264 by Steven Alker and Mike Heinen in 2002 and Brett Wetterich in 2003.

Casey Wittenberg's eight-stroke victory was the largest winning margin in tournament history. The previous mark was six strokes by Fabian Gomez in 2010.

Casey Wittenberg's eight-shot win equaled the fourth-largest winning margin in Tour history. Steve Wheatcroft won by 12 strokes at the 2011 Melwood Prince George's County Open. Chris Smith won the 1997 Omaha Classic by 11 strokes and Marc Leishman won the 2008 WNB Golf Classic by 11. Chris Nallen won the 2004 Gila River Golf Classic by eight shots.

In the 19 times the tournament has been contested over 72 holes, there has been an outright leader after 54 holes on 18 occasions. The only time there were co-leaders after three rounds was in 2009, when Bubba Dickerson and Scott Sterling were tied at 9-under par. Dickerson went on to win in a playoff.

Camilo Benedetti posted scores of 66-63 and led by one after 36 holes. It marked the first time in his Tour career that Benedetti has held/shared the lead after any single round.

Phillip Pettitt, Jr. and Tim Yelverton both aced the par-3, eighth hole during the second round. It marked the first time in tournament history that there were two holes-in-one on the same hole on the same day. Travis Wadkins aced the sixth hole in the final round. Three aces in one year are the most in tournament history.

The 36-hole cut of 4-under 138 was the lowest cut in the last nine years at Le Triomphe. The next-lowest cut was 2-under in 2004.

Andres Gonzales needed only an even-par 71 in the final round at Soboba Springs to complete a wire-to-wire win and earned his first Web.com Tour title. Gonzales, a playoff runner-up in 2011 to Ted Potter, Jr., finished at 8-under 276, two shots in front of Andrew Svoboda, who briefly tied for the lead during Sunday's final round.

Andres Gonzales became the first wire-to-wire winner on the Web.com Tour since Colt Knost captured the 2008 Price Cutter Charity Championship. Gonzales' win ended the longest stretch in Web.com Tour history without a wire-to-wire winner. This was the 101st tournament since Knost won in Springfield, Mo.

Prior to Andres Gonzales' win, there had been only four wire-to-wire winners on the Web.com Tour in the previous 10 years. Chris Nallen, 2004 Gila River Golf Classic, Kevin Na, 2006 Mark Christopher Charity Classic, Martin Laird, 2007 Athens Regional Foundation Classic and Colt Knost, 2008 Price Cutter Charity Championship.

Andres Gonzales picked up a check for $135,000 with the win, more than he had made in his previous 24 Tour starts combined ($132,748).

The tournament was moved to the spring of 2012 after being played in the fall the previous three years. The change resulted in much tougher scoring conditions. The scoring average for the week for the par-71 layout was 73.112.

David Berganio Jr., a three-time winner on the Web.com Tour, posted scores of 70-74 to make the 36-hole cut. Berganio has been plagued by back problems for several years and was making his first start on any Tour since the 2009 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee.

Reid Edstrom had back-to-back eagles on the fifth and sixth holes during Sunday's final round. Edstrom is only the second player in tournament history to have consecutive eagles.

Jerod Turner, the 2009 champion, had a hole-in-one during the first round. The ace was the third in tournament history.

The scoring averages for the second round (73.912) and first round (73.601) were the highest single-round averages in the tournament's four years at Soboba Springs.

Tournament Record:

Current Course Record:

Alex Aragon came from four strokes back in the final round to win his first Tour title. Aragon's 4-under 66 put him at 10-under 270, one better than three other players.

Because of several weather delays, winner Alex Aragon didn't follow a normal pattern of play. He got all 18 holes in Thursday but hit only a tee shot off No. 1 on Friday. He played 33 holes Saturday and 21 Sunday.

Alex Aragon had a wild week in Northern California. The former Stanford star locked his keys in his trunk Thursday morning before his round but managed to make it to the course on time, thanks to a two-hour fog delay. He also had his wallet stolen on Friday at a local gas station.

For the second straight year, the weather played an important role in the tournament. Thursday's start was delayed two hours because of fog. Temperatures never got above 50, and winds were at 15-20 mph. Friday's start was delayed four hours because of fog and wet conditions. The start of play was delayed three hours Sunday.

Runner-up Matt Harmon shot a 9-under 61 in the final round to tie the course record set by 2011 champion Daniel Chopra.

Veteran Duffy Waldorf tied for second at Stonebrae, his first top-10 finish of any kind since a tie for third at the 2006 Chrysler Classic of Tucson. His tie for second was also his best since a tie for second at the 2003 FBR Capital Open.

The 36-hole cut was not made until after noon Saturday. Only 64 players had completed two rounds by the end of the day Friday.

When play was delayed Sunday, tournament officials decided not to re-pair the players following the third round. Thirty-six players needed to complete the third round Sunday morning.

The first-round scoring average for the par-70 layout was nearly three full strokes above par (72.922).

Ryan Hietala (second round), Andy Bare (second round) and Russell Knox (final round) all registered holes-in-one during the week.

Steve Elkington received a sponsor exemption and made his Web.com Tour debut at Stonebrae after 566 career PGA TOUR starts. Elkington, winner of 10 TOUR titles, including the 1995 PGA Championship, shot scores of 79-74.

Luke List fired a final round 68 for a 16-under 272 total, besting Brian Stuard by two-strokes to win the South Georgia Classic.

With his victory Luke List jumped from 13th to second on the money list.

Luke List's 16-under 272 total tied the tournament record at the South Georgia Classic, set by Ted Potter, Jr. in 2011.

Brian Stuard's runner-up effort vaulted him from No. 29 to No. 8 on the money list.

Woody Austin's solo third-place finish was worth $42,500 and jumped him from No. 55 to No. 17 on the money list. His 8-under 64 tied a course record set by David Hearn (2010), Henrik Bjornstad (2009) and Paul Dickinson (2007).

Duffy Waldorf put together another solid week, shooting 67 in the final round to tie for 11th. Waldorf remained No. 20 on the money list, thanks in large part to a tie for second two weeks earlier at the TPC Stonebrae Championship.

Tom Hoge had two eagles in the third round, at Nos. 2 and 5. Ryan Zabroske also had two eagles in the third round, at Nos. 11 and 13.

San Diego's Aaron Goldberg had a new course record in his sights before stumbling on the final two holes. Goldberg was 6-under through 10 holes and 8-under after 16 and needed only a birdie on one of last two holes to set a new course mark. Four players have posted 8-under 64s over the years, including Woody Austin Saturday. Goldberg finished bogey and double-bogey for a 5-under 67. He tied for 20th place.

Tournament Record:
267 - Hudson Swafford (2012), Paul Gow (2006)
Current Course Record:
62 - University of Georgia GC - Hudson Swafford (2012)

Former Georgia All-American Hudson Swafford fired a course-record, 9-under 62 in the final round to earn his first career win. Swafford capped off his day by holing out a bunker shot at No. 18 to finish at 17-under 267. He then had to wait 90 minutes for the remaining groups to finish. Luke List, winner of the South Georgia Classic the previous week, shared the lead with Swafford but bogeyed the closing hole to drop into a second-place tie.

Hudson Swafford followed in the footsteps of teammate Russell Henley, who won the tournament in 2011 as an amateur.

Hudson Swafford become the third former Bulldog off the same squad to win on the Web.com Tour in one year. He joined 2011 Stadion Classic at UGA champion Russell Henley and 2011 Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational champ Harris English in the winner's circle. Swafford was the only member of the three to actually bank the first-place check as both Henley and English were still amateurs when they won their events.

Luke List bogeyed his final hole and tied for second place, one shot back of winner Hudson Swafford. As a consolation, List earned $48,400 and moved to No. 1 on the money list. List's running total of $223,848 will be more than enough to lock up a spot among "The 25"; at the end of the year and send him to the PGA TOUR for his rookie season in 2013.

Veteran Lee Janzen birdied his final five holes Sunday to close with a 6-under 65 and tie for second place. It was Janzen's best finish since he was runner-up at the 2003 Memorial Tournament—a span of 218 PGA TOUR and two Web.com

Tour starts.

Lee Janzen set a tournament record with his 7-under 29 on the back nine in Sunday's final round.

Former Georgia Bulldogs Justin Bolli and Paul Claxton were paired together for the final round. Each shot 4-under 67s, and they tied for seventh, at 12-under 272.

Kevin Foley tied for seventh for the second consecutive week. Foley, a 2010 Penn State grad, was a Monday qualifier the previous week at South Georgia Classic. His tie for seventh in Valdosta gained him a spot in Athens, and his tie for seventh at the UGA GC gave him a berth in the BMW Charity Pro-Am.

Billy Horschel matched the course record with a 63 in the second round. Kent Jones set the mark Thursday. Ironically, Horschel and Jones played together for the first two days.

The 36-hole cut came at 2-under par 140, four strokes lower than the 2-over cut in 2011.

Aron Price set a tournament record with six consecutive birdies in the second round. Price ran off his streak starting at No. 4.

The tournament gave two UGA golfers sponsor exemptions into the field. Sophomore Brian Carter (72-72) and freshman Nicholas Reach (75-72) both missed the cut.

Australia's Nick Flanagan defeated countryman Cameron Percy on the third playoff hole to win the tournament for the second time in his career. Flanagan rolled in a 12-foot birdie putt on his final hole of regulation to tie Percy's clubhouse lead of 15-under 271. Flanagan earned the win when Percy's errant tee shot wound up in the trees and resulted in a double bogey. The 27-year old Flanagan blasted from a greenside bunker to within a foot and tapped in for the par and the win.

Nick Flanagan became the 11th player in Web.com Tour history to win the same event twice. Flanagan also won the BMW Charity Pro-Am in 2007. The last player to accomplish the feat prior to Flanagan was Kyle Thompson, who won the 2011 Rex Hospital Open, adding it to his 2007 title.

Nick Flanagan began the 2012 season with limited status and had made only one start prior to his win in Greenville, missing the cut at the Chile Classic. Flanagan was also a Monday qualifier at the PGA TOUR's Wells Fargo Championship but did not make the cut.

Cameron Percy bogeyed his final hole of regulation to drop to 15-under par and leave the door open for Nick Flanagan, who was in the group behind him, to make birdie and force a playoff.

The playoff was the first of the year on the Web.com Tour.

The playoff was the third in the past four years of the tournament.

Sam Saunders' tie for fifth was his career-best. Saunders played college golf at nearby Clemson University.

The team of pro Fabian Gomez and amateur Bryan Todd finished 46-under par to win the team competition by 12 strokes in the pro-am portion event.

The team of pro Martin Piller and actor Andrew Buckley won the pro-am celebrity portion of the event, with a 30-under-par total.

Tony Finau had a double eagle at the 531-yard, fifth hole at Thornblade Club in Thursday's opening round. Finau used a 5-iron from 216 yards for his second shot. It was only the second double eagle in tournament history, the first coming courtesy of Travis Perkins in 2001 at Keowee Vineyards in the second round.

James Hahn tapped in a short birdie putt on the second playoff hole to beat Scott Parel and earn his first career win on the Web.com Tour. Hahn was four shots back after 54 holes but rallied with a 4-under 67 and finished at 13-under-par 271.

James Hahn became the ninth player in 19 years to earn his first win in Raleigh. The last to do it was Kyle Thompson in 2007.

The winning score of 13-under was the highest in Raleigh since 2004 when Chris Anderson needed eight holes to defeat Brendan Jones, Jason Buha and Paul Gow in a playoff.

Scott Parel's runner-up finish was his first top-10 on Tour since a solo fourth at the 2008 South Georgia Classic.

Thunderstorms prevented both the first and second rounds from being completed on time, but the tournament was back on schedule after Saturday's play.

Jim Renner's opening-round, 8-under 63 was a career-best score. Renner's previous best was a 65, which came two weeks earlier in the first round of the BMW Charity Pro-Am.

Shane Bertsch and B.J. Staten each ran off a string of five consecutive birdies in the first round. The tournament record is six in a row.

Tournament Record:

267 - Jarrod Lyle (2008)

Current Course Record:

63 - El Bosque Golf Club - Casey Wittenberg (2011)

After a lengthy wait for a ruling in his group on the 18th hole, Lee Williams drained a 3-foot putt for par to beat Doug LaBelle II by a shot for his first Web.com Tour title.

Aron Price had the low round of the day, a 7-under 65, 10 strokes better than his 3-over 75 in the third round.

This week the par-5 eighth hole had every score ranging from an eagle-3 to a 10 (twice). For the week, the hole yielded 31 eagles, 175 birdies (both course highs), 125 pars, 53 bogeys, 16 double bogeys and seven "others." Its stroke average was 4.690.

A day after Matt Harmon made the tournament's first hole-in-one, Jimmy Brandt had an ace on the 12th hole.

Lee Williams became the third 54-hole leader to go on and win the Mexico Open since it became a Web.com Tour event in 2008: Jarrod Lyle (2008) and Troy Merritt (2009) were the others. Williams' one-shot win joins Lyle's five-stroke victory and Merritt's playoff triumph.

For the week, the par-4, 486-yard ninth hole was the most-difficult hole at El Bosque Country Club. The stroke average there was 4.440.

Four Mexico natives made the cut at the Mexico Open, with Antonio Serna and Armando Favela leading the way, with 2-over 290s. The others were Yoshio Yamamoto (tied for 53rd) and Federico Garcia (tied for 59th).

Three additional Latin Americans made the cut: Julian Etulain (tied for sixth), Fabian Gomez (tied for 35th) and Benjamin Alvarado (tied for 39th).

The United Leasing Championship was the first tournament contested under the newly announced umbrella sponsorship of Web.com. Web.com replaced Nationwide as umbrella sponsor on Tuesday of tournament week.

Peter Tomasulo two-putted for par on the fourth playoff hole to beat David Lingmerth for his third career win. Tomasulo was making only his third start of the year after battling a litany of injuries, a broken bone in his foot, stress fractures in his ribs and two surgeries earlier in the year.

Peter Tomasulo shot a 2-under 70 in the final round at Victoria National Golf Club and finished at 11-under par 277. The former University of California star held a one-shot lead but bogeyed the 72nd hole after hitting his tee shot into the water that guards the right side of the fairway.

Threatening conditions in the area halted the playoff after three holes. The storm skirted the golf course, and play resumed after a 25-minute delay.

Thursday's opening round temperature of 107 set a record for the hottest June day in Evansville history. That record was matched in Friday's second round.

Temperatures topped the 100-degree mark each of the four days of the tournament. The last time Evansville had four consecutive days above 100 was in August of 1983.

Omar Uresti's two-stroke lead after the first round marked only the second time in his career that he has held the outright lead after the opening 18. The only other time Uresti was in sole possession of the first-round lead came at the 1993 Miami Valley Open.

Daniel Chopra, playing in the first group off the 10th tee, recorded the first birdie in tournament history when he birdied his opening hole Thursday morning.

Doug LaBelle II sealed a one-shot victory when he made a 5-foot, downhill putt for par on the 18th hole in the final round. Four players finished runner-up: Scott Gutschewski, James Hahn, Michael Putnam and Sam Saunders.

Michael Putnam was not able to convert his third-round lead into a victory. Nine of the 14 third-round leaders have gone on to win the Utah Championship, including J.J. Killeen in 2011. The last player before Putnam to hold the third-round lead and not win was Bradley Iles, who, ironically, led Putnam by one shot going into the final round in 2010 and went on to tie for second, three strokes behind Putnam.

Winner Doug LaBelle II improved from 92nd to 14th on the money list following his win. James Hahn moved from ninth on the money list to fifth with his $36,300 payday.

For a second consecutive year, there were no holes-in-one at a tournament that has seen more aces (23) than any other in Web.com Tour history.

Doug LaBelle's five-stroke, come-from-behind victory was the largest in tournament history, bettering Craig Kanada's three-stroke comeback win in 2006.

Doug LaBelle's 15-under winning score was the highest since Garrett Willis won the 2005 Utah Championship at 13-under. Four of the previous five tournaments had seen the winner getting to at least 20-under, with 22-under winning in 2011 (J.J. Killeen) and in 2008 (Brendon Todd).

There has never been a playoff in the 14-year history of the Utah Championship.

Sam Saunders, a Web.com Tour rookie, tied for second, matching his grandfather's performance 10 miles from Willow Creek Country Club 56 years ago. At the 1958 Utah Open, then a PGA TOUR event, Arnold Palmer tied for second at Salt Lake Country Club, a stroke back of winner Dow Finsterwald.

Tournament Record:

270 - Harris English (2011)

Current Course Record:

63 - The OSU Golf Club - Scarlet - James Sacke (2011), Jonathan Kaye (2010), Trevor Murphy (2012)

Ben Kohles rolled in a 22-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Luke Guthrie and win in his first professional start. Kohles led after 54 holes and needed birdies on two of his final three holes to finish at 12-under 272 and force a playoff with Guthrie, who had rolled in a similar putt for birdie at the end of regulation play.

Ben Kohles became the first player to win a Web.com Tour event in his first professional start. Kohles turned professional in Columbus when he registered for the tournament Tuesday morning.

Ben Kohles became the third collegian or former collegian to win the tournament in six years. Daniel Summerhays had just completed his junior year at BYU when he won the inaugural event in 2007 while playing as an amateur. Harris English had just graduated from the University of Georgia when he won in 2011, also as an amateur.

Ben Kohles became the 13th player in Tour history to win his first Tour start. The last to do it was Miguel Carballo at the 2007 Movistar Panama Championship.

Playoff participants Ben Kohles (Virginia) and Luke Guthrie (Illinois) were both second-team All-America selections and were not part of the original invitation list. They both got in when first-team choices withdrew prior to the start of the tournament. They were the last two players to get into the final field.

Five of the collegiate invitees made the 36-hole cut: Blayne Barber (Auburn), Luke Guthrie (Illinois), Ben Kohles (Virginia), Jordan Speith (Texas) and Cory Whitsett (Alabama).

The 36-hole cut came a 1-under par, marking the first time in the six years of the event that the cut has been under-par.

Trevor Murphy's first-day 63 matched the course record set by Jonathan Kaye in the opening round in 2011 and later matched by James Sacke in the third round.

Newcomer Ben Kohles made it two wins in two starts when he charged to victory at the Cox Classic. Kohles, who won the Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational a week earlier in his first professional start, fired a 9-under 62 on the final day in Omaha to win by three strokes. "I think I played the best round of my life today," he said. "That was a blast."

Ben Kohles became the first player in Tour history to make his first two professional starts victories.

Ben Kohles collected a first-place check of $117,000 and jumped to No. 2 on the money list. His two-week total of $261,000 was more than enough to lock up a spot on the 2013 PGA TOUR.

South African Dawie van der Walt closed with an 11-under-par 60 Sunday to finish solo second. Van der Walt settled for birdie at No. 17 when he missed an eagle putt from 8 feet and then missed a 6-footer for birdie at No. 18.

Ben Kohles became the 12th player in Tour history to register consecutive victories but only the seventh to do it in back-to-back weeks. The last to win twice in two weeks was Jason Gore in 2005.

Ben Kohles joined Daniel Chopra as the only players to win twice in their first two starts of a single season. Chopra was a member of the PGA TOUR in 2004 when he won The First Tee Arkansas Classic in his initial start and then won the Henrico County Open in his second start five weeks later.

Justin Bolli turned out to be a good-luck charm for his playing partners. Bolli played with Matt Hendrix Friday when Hendrix made a double eagle. He also watched as playing partners Jeff Cuzzort (Saturday) and Jim Herman (Sunday) both made holes-in-one.

Luke Guthrie tied for third, one week after losing a playoff to Ben Kohles in Ohio. Guthrie jumped to No. 20 on the money list despite only two starts.

Luke Guthrie's 22 birdies through the first 36 holes were a Tour record. Webb Simpson had 20 birdies in the opening two rounds of the 2008 Chattanooga Classic.

Luke Guthrie's 125 total tied the second-lowest opening-36 hole score in Tour history. Kevin Chappell posted a 124 score (61-63) in the first two rounds of the 2010 Ford Wayne Gretzky Classic.

Luke Guthrie's 17-under score broke the tournament's 36-hole scoring record. Ryan Hietala was 16-under through the first two rounds in 2008.

Matt Hendrix recorded the fifth double eagle in tournament history when he made a two on the par-5, 10th hole, his first of the second round. Hendrix holed a 4-iron from 218 yards.

The 36-hole cut came at 6-under-par 136 for the third consecutive year. The lowest cut in Tour history is 7-under par, which has happened three times.

Chris DeForest matched the biggest turnaround in tournament history, with his 8-under 63 in the second round. DeForest shot a 77 in the opener, and his 14-stroke improvement equaled that of Kevin Muncrief (81-67) in the first two rounds in 2005. Strangely, DeForest hit seven of 14 fairways in each of his two rounds.

Luke Guthrie's 12 birdies in the opening round (63) tied the Web.com Tour's all-time record for most birdies in a single round. He is the fifth player in Tour history to register a dozen birdies in one round and the first since Arjun Atwal in the second round of the 2008 Chattanooga Classic.

Current Course Record:

60 - Highland Springs CC - Tyler Williamson (2004)

Chris Wilson two-putted for birdie from 12 feet on the first playoff hole to earn his first Tour win, defeating fellow Northwestern alum Scott Harrington. Wilson birdied his final hole of regulation for a 5-under 67 and a 21-under total. He then waited as Harrington, a third-round co-leader, also birdied the last hole to force the playoff.

Chris Wilson had made only two cuts in 13 starts and earned only $6,486 prior to his win in Springfield.

The playoff was the seventh in tournament history but the first since 2000.

Chris Wilson became the 11th first-time winner in 17 2012 Web.com Tour events.

Scott Harrington was making only his second start of the year. Harrington received a sponsor exemption into the BMW Charity Pro-Am. He earned a berth in the tournament by way of the Monday qualifier. Harrington had conditional status on Tour in 2004 and 2008.

Robert Streb shot a 7-under 65 on the final day to tie for sixth, his third top-10 in 15 starts. Streb would go on to tie for eighth the following week in Kansas City and then earn his first career title two weeks later at the Mylan Classic.

Sweden's David Lingmerth grabbed a share of the 54-hole lead at 17-under, thanks to a 7-under 65 in the third round. Lingmerth played college golf at the University of Arkansas, about two hours down the road from Springfield. He tied for sixth after a 71 in the final round.

Jimmy Brandt had a hole-in-one in Saturday's third round. Brandt had started only one other event in 2012, the Mexico Open, where also had an ace during the fourth round.

Brian Stuard became the seventh player in tournament history to post back-to-back eagles. Stuard started his opening round on the back nine and eagled the par-5, 18th hole. He then eagled the par-5, first hole to reach 5-under for the day. He finished the round with a 7-under 65.

The 36-hole cut came at 5-under-par 137, the fifth consecutive year the cut has been at 5-under.

As Shawn Stefani said minutes after his victory, "When you win a lot of good things go your way." Tied with Russell Henley at 16-under and hitting his second shot at No. 18, Stefani's lob wedge flew over the flag, bounced off the mesh fencing at the base of the sky boxes and rolled back on the green, a mere 3 feet from the hole. His good fortune on the final hole resulted in a birdie moments later and the outright lead, which he never relinquished. His final-round, bogey-free, 7-under-par 64 gave him a two-stroke victory over Henley and Luke List for his first Web.com Tour victory.

Shawn Stefani made just three bogeys over his final 61 holes.

Michael Connell turned in a remarkable tournament off the tee. He hit 51 of 56 fairways for an impressive 91.1 percent, one of the best efforts of the Web.com Tour year. Connell also made the 17th ace of the season when he drained a 4-iron from 212 yards on the second hole in the opening round.

After making a visit to Children's Mercy Hospital earlier in the week, 2010 champion James Nitties offered to donate $20 for each birdie as well as $100 for every eagle he made during the event to the hospital. He donated $440 for his 22 birdies during the event.

Matt Weibring, who was the 54-hole leader before eventually tying for fourth, led all players in the event, with 24 birdies.

A pair of golfers who played collegiately nearby turned in nice showings, playing in the Kansas City area. Robert Streb, a Kansas State alum, fired a closing round, 6-under-par to tie for eighth. Also tying for eighth was Jason Schultz, who played his college golf at the University of Missouri. Brice Gardiner, who attended Missouri Western in nearby St. Joseph, bounced back from an opening-round 74 with three successive rounds in the 60s to post a tie for 11th.

Duffy Waldorf tied for 11th in what could have been his final start on the Web.com Tour. Waldorf turned 50 on August 20 and made his Champions Tour debut four days later at the Boeing Classic, where he tied for eighth.

Tournament Record:

261 - Tim Conley (1993)

Current Course Record:

62 - Fox Den CC - Scott Gardiner (2012)

Darron Stiles defeated Scott Gardiner, D.J. Brigman and Nicholas Thompson by one stroke. Stiles fired a 4-under 67 in the final round, and his 266 (18-under) total was good enough for the win.

Darron Stiles became the 12th player in Web.com Tour history to win the same event twice when he won the News Sentinel Open. Stiles also won this event in 2002. The last player to accomplish the feat was Nick Flanagan, who won the BMW Charity Pro-Am in 2012, adding it to his 2007 title.

With the win Darron Stiles jumped up to eighth place on the money list, securing his 2013 PGA TOUR playing privileges.

Scott Gardiner, who shot a final round, 9-under 62, missed an 8-foot birdie putt on No. 18 that would have put him in a playoff with Stiles. Gardiner's 9-under-par 62 was good enough for a new course record at Fox Den Country Club.

Nicholas Thompson's 7-under 64 in the final round tied his season low round. Thompson also shot 64 at the Price Cutter Charity Championship.

John Daly tied for sixth in his first Web.com Tour start since playing in the 2011 Albertsons Boise Open, where he missed the cut.

This was the first year Fox Den Country Club played at par-71.

Tournament Record:

266 - Robert Streb (2012)

Current Course Record:

62 - Southpointe Golf Club - Brad Adamonis (2011), Kevin Kisner (2011), Danny Lee (2011)

Rookie Robert Streb fired a 7-under 64 in the final round to finish with a tournament-record, 18-under-par total and win by four strokes. Streb was only one shot back to start the day and assumed the lead with five birdies on the front nine at Southpointe Golf Club. The former Kansas State star then proceeded to hit every fairway on the back and added three more birdies to cruise to his first career win.

Robert Streb's first-place check of $108,000 pushed his season total to $253,491, more than enough to secure a spot among "The 25" leading money-winners for the year. Streb jumped from No. 23 to No. 4 on the money list.

Robert Streb became the third consecutive tournament winner at the Mylan Classic to post all four rounds in the 60s.

John Chin and Aaron Goldberg both eagled the par-4 in Saturday's third round while while playing in consecutive groups. Chin holed a wedge from 127 yards on the hole. Minutes later Goldberg dunked his second shot from 98 yards.

Canada's Brad Fritsch led by one stroke at the halfway point, marking only the second time in his 88 career starts he has been atop the standings after 36 holes. Both leads have come in Pennsylvania. The previous lead came at the 2006 Northeast Pennsylvania Classic near Scranton.

Australia's Nick Flanagan reeled off seven consecutive birdies during the second round, which was the second time in his career he chalked up seven straight. Flanagan also made seven in a row at the 2006 Price Cutter Charity Championship.

Patrick Sheehan missed the cut by one stroke after a second-day 74 that included a quintuple bogey-10 on his scorecard. Sheehan hit one ball out of bounds, whiffed another in some tall grass, hit another one in the water and then three-putted for his 10 at the 540-yard, eighth hole, his second-to-last of the day.

Kevin Kisner, winner of the inaugural event in 2010, fired an even-par 71 in Friday's second round despite playing his final seven holes without a putter. Kisner damaged his club following a three-putt, double bogey at the 11th hole. "I placed it in my bag with a little bit of emphasis," Kisner said with a chuckle. Kisner used a driver to putt the rest of the way in and played the final seven holes in 1-under par.

Jon Mills, who lives about 90 miles from the course, had a hole-in-one during the opening round. Mills aced the 189-yard, third hole using a 6-iron.

Tournament Record:
262 - Luke Guthrie (2012)

Current Course Record:
61 - Hillcrest CC - Scott Piercy (2008), Woody Austin (1994), J.P. Hayes (1994)

Luke Guthrie fired a 6-under 65 in the final round to earn his first professional win. Guthrie set a tournament record with his 22-under score of 262. He won by four strokes over four others. The 22-year old University of Illinois product started the final round par-birdie-eagle to grab the lead and then slowly pulled away from the field.

Luke Guthrie's winning check of $130,500 pushed his season total to $283,463 and moved him from No. 22 to No. 4 on the money list. The total allowed him to lock up a spot on the 2013 PGA TOUR.

Luke Guthrie, at age 22 years, 7 months, 15 days, became the second-youngest 2012 winner on Tour. Ben Kohles was 22 years, 5 months, 5 days when he won the Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational, defeating Guthrie in a playoff.

Luke Guthrie finished the week in the top-15 in Fairways Hit (tied for 11th), Greens in Regulation (tied for 11th) and Total Putts (tied for eighth).

University of Oregon men's golf coach Casey Martin received a sponsor's exemption and tied for 55th in his first Tour start since the 2006 Oregon Classic.

Martin won the 1998 Lakeland Classic and was in the spotlight earlier this summer when he qualified for the U.S. Open at the Olympic Club in San Francisco.

Michael Putnam's 18-under 195 set a 54-hole tournament record. Rick Cramer first set the previous mark of 196 in 1996.

Michael Putnam's opening scores of 62-65 set a 36-hole tournament record. The previous mark of 128 was set by Kevin Stadler in 2006 and later matched by four others.

Jeff Klauk returned to competition for the first time in more than a year. Klauk's start came only five months after brain surgery to locate the cause of partial complex seizures that have plagued him since 2006 when he was first diagnosed with epilepsy. A two-time Tour winner who earned his 2009 PGA TOUR card, Klauk posted scores of 71-69 and missed the cut by three strokes.

Patrick Cantlay, a two-time All-American at UCLA and former No. 1-ranked amateur in the world, was a Monday qualifier in Boise. Cantlay fired rounds of 69-70 and missed the 36-hole cut in his first Web.com Tour start.

Luke Guthrie made it two wins in two weeks with a come-from-behind victory in Midland. Guthrie fired a 6-under 66 in the final round to rally from five shots down and win by one over Australia's Cameron Percy and defending champion Danny Lee. Guthrie inched his way toward the top and emerged the winner when both Lee and Percy stumbled late on the back nine. Guthrie rolled in a 22-foot birdie putt at No. 17 and then saved par with a 12-foot putt at 18 to finish at 17-under par.

Luke Guthrie picked up a check for $99,000 and moved to No. 1 on the money list after only seven starts. Guthrie had two wins, a playoff loss, a tie for third, a tie for sixth and a tie for 10th in his Web.com Tour starts to go with a missed cut at the Mylan Classic.

Luke Guthrie joined Ben Kohles as back-to-back winners on Tour in 2012.

Danny Lee's tie for second matched the best finish by a defending champion on Tour history. Michael Clark (lost in a playoff), Buddy Gardner (second) and Todd Barranger (tied for second) also had runner-up finishes.

Danny Lee fired rounds of 72-63-65 and moved into a two-stroke lead after 54 holes. Lee, a member of the PGA TOUR, was attempting to become the first player in the Tour's 23-year history to successfully defend a title.

Jamie Lovemark's 6-under 66 in the first round gave him a share of the 18-hole lead. It marked the first time in his career he has held or shared a lead after the first, second or third rounds. The only time he'd been atop the standings was at the 2010 Mexico Open, where he defeated B.J. Staten in a playoff to earn his first win.

Former Oklahoma State All-American Morgan Hoffmann was a Monday qualifier for the fourth time in 2012. Hoffmann posted scores of 68-64 and held a three-stroke lead after 36 holes. The New Jersey native stumbled on the weekend, with rounds of 70-74 and wound up solo sixth. He was trying to becoming the 21st Monday qualifier in Tour history to win a tournament. The last to do it was , at the 2011 South Georgia Classic.

Luke Guthrie (second round) and Adam Long (third round) both made holes-in-one. It marked the first time in the event's 21-year history that players have recorded more than one ace in a tournament.

Russell Henley's key bogey save on the final hole of regulation led to a playoff victory at the Chiquita Classic, his first professional win on the Web.com Tour. After making birdie at No. 17 to move one stroke in front, the 23-year-old Georgia alum appeared to be in the driver's seat. However, Henley found the water from the fairway bunker at No. 18 and was forced to hole a clutch 20-foot bogey putt to join the playoff with Morgan Hoffmann and Patrick Cantlay.

In the overtime session, Patrick Cantlay drove into the same fairway bunker that troubled Henley in regulation. With the ball below his feet, the UCLA product could only advance his second shot 50 yards short of the green. Morgan Hoffmann then dumped his second shot into the water with an 8-iron, and the costly miscue allowed Henley to hit his 8-iron approach 20 feet left of the flag. Cantlay then hit an indifferent pitch shot to 15 feet from the hole but missed his par-saving attempt, allowing Russell Henley to two-putt from 20 feet for a par and his second career title on the Web.com Tour.

Russell Henley's win vaulted him from 35th to 12th on the money list, assuring a PGA TOUR exemption for 2013. At the 2011 Stadion Classic at UGA, Henley became just the second amateur to triumph on the Web.com Tour, winning by two strokes at the University of Georgia Golf Course in Athens.

This was the first event in Web.com Tour history played in the Charlotte market. The first two Chiquita Classics were held in the Cincinnati area.

The eight players tied for the first-round lead equaled an all-time Web.com Tour record. Eight players were tied for the Thursday lead at the 2001 Ozarks Open, 2007 Oregon Classic and 2009 Panama Digicel Championship.

Scott Dunlap's final-round 68 gave him 12 consecutive sub-par rounds at the Chiquita Classic, dating to the inaugural event in 2010 near Cincinnati. Dunlap's tie for fifth at The Club at Longview was also his best showing on the 2012 Web.com Tour.

Sweden's Robert Karlsson, a veteran of the PGA TOUR and European Tour member, made his first start on the Web.com Tour since the 2000 Lakeland Classic (missed cut). Karlsson, a member and resident at The Club at Longview, tied for 43rd at the Chiquita Classic.

David Lingmerth fired a 4-under 66 in the final round to come from four strokes off the pace and earn his first career title. Lingmerth started the final round tied for eighth but steadily moved up the leaderboard while putting together the day's best score. His 8-under 272 total was one shot better than leading money-winner Casey Wittenberg, who saw his birdie putt that would have forced a playoff miss the cup by inches on the 72nd hole.

David Lingmerth bogeyed his last hole and finished his round about 45 minutes in front of the leaders. He then waited in the locker room to see if anyone would match or beat his 8-under score.

David Lingmerth picked up a check for $108,000 and vaulted from No. 27 to No. 7 on the money list, with only two full-field events left on the schedule. His season total of $249,043 was more than enough to lock up a spot on "The 25" and earn his 2013 PGA TOUR playing privileges.

David Lingmerth's winning score of 8-under tied the second-highest on Tour (vs. par) in 2012. Only Edward Loar's 4-under total at the Panama Claro Championship was higher.

Sunday's final-round scoring average of 73.333 at the par-70 TPC Potomac made it the toughest final round of the 2012 season.

Sunday's scoring average of 73.333 was the highest final-round average since the 2008 Panama Claro Championship, at 3.677 strokes over par.

Casey Wittenberg's runner-up finish was his seventh top-10 in 21 starts. His check for $64,800 moved him back into the No. 1 spot on the money list, where he finished the season.

The four-round scoring average was 72.111, making the par-70 TPC Potomac the second-toughest course on Tour in 2012.

TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm underwent a $32-million renovation, which began August 13, 2007. The clubhouse reopened on July 22, 2008, and the golf course reopened for play on April 28, 2009. Prior to the renovation, the course measured 6,987 yards and played to a par-71. At the 2012 tournament, players played a par-70 course that measured 7,139 yards. Ben Curtis won the 2006 Booz-Allen Classic on the PGA TOUR by five shots, with a 20-under-par score.

With his victory, Shawn Stefani joined Ben Kohles, Casey Wittenberg and Luke Guthrie as two-time winners in 2012.

The new bubble boy on "The 25th" became Doug LaBelle II, who jumped Alex Aragon (missed cut) for that spot. However, LaBelle was just $690 in front of Paul Claxton, who was now 26th, dropping two spots from his position last week.

Alistair Presnell's second-place finish allowed him to move up 20 spots on the money list, from 39th to 19th.

Tag Ridings withdrew prior to the start of the final round to fly home to be with his wife who gave birth to their third child (a girl, Charli) Sunday morning.

Russell Henley followed his win the previous week with a third-place effort in Miami.

Shawn Stefani's five-stroke victory marked the fourth straight year the winner of the Miccosukee Championship prevailed by multiple strokes. Jason Kokrak won by seven strokes in 2011.

Kevin Tway tied for fifth, which earned him a spot in the Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open the following week. Tway was playing on a sponsor's exemption.

Rookie Morgan Hoffmann continued to play solid golf, tying for ninth. It was his sixth top-10 finish in just 11 2012 starts and fourth in succession.

Christopher DeForest tied for fifth, which was the first top-10 finish of the year for the former University of Illinois standout.

Justin Bolli's victory was worth $180,000 and vaulted him from No. 44 to No. 9 on the final money list, earning him his 2013 PGA TOUR card. Only one other player, Matt Every (2009), made up more positions (49th to 10th) at the Web.com Tour Championship to secure his PGA TOUR card.

Justin Bolli fired a final-round 65 to win the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship by two strokes over James Hahn. Bolli entered the final day two shots back of co-leaders Justin Hicks and Hahn.

Justin Bolli is the fourth player to come from behind on the final day to win the Web.com Tour Championship.

James Hahn's impressive up-and-down birdie from the right of the 18th green Sunday put him in solo second place, two shots back of Justin Bolli. Hahn collected $108,000 and moved from No. 13 to No. 5 on the money list, earning his PGA TOUR card for the first time.

Three players made the jump into "The 25" Sunday to earn their 2013 PGA TOUR cards. Justin Bolli's win pushed him to No. 9 on the final money list. Morgan Hoffmann started the week at No. 31, but a blistering, final-round 64 placed him in a tie for third, resulting in a No. 19 money-list finish. Doug LaBelle II started the week as the odd man out, at No. 26. With two consecutive rounds of 68 on the weekend LaBelle tied for 13th and bumped Camilo Benedetti from the 25th spot where he started the week.

Other money-list "casualties" included Joseph Bramlett, who started the week No. 24 and ended at No. 28. Also, Hudson Swafford fell from No. 23 to No. 27 on the money list at the conclusion of play Sunday.

Casey Wittenberg finished the year at No. 1 on the money list, earning fully-exempt status on the PGA TOUR and a spot in the 2013 PLAYERS Championship.

A triple bogey-7 on the 14th hole crushed Justin Hicks' run at his first win of 2012. He finished fifth, four shots back of Justin Bolli.
