PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organizations is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 140 official-money tournaments on six tours—the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, PGA TOUR Canada and PGA TOUR China Series. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America. The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Three other golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the TOUR but with their marquee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-tour co-sponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, N.J., oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (Ga.) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, oversees The Open Championship and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

PGA TOUR

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf tour, with 2014-15 official-money events beginning in October 2014 and ending in September 2015. This is the eighth season of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs.

TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, TNT, Fox, FS1

Competition Awards: FedExCup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money-winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Courage Award, Rookie of the Year

Champions Tour

The Champions Tour continues to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and older with a fan-friendly platform that promotes "inside the ropes" and game-improvement for its fans. The Charles Schwab Cup, a season-long, points-based competition, enters its 15th season.

TV: NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN

Competition Awards: Charles Schwab Cup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Rookie of the Year, Courage Award

Web.com Tour

The Web.com Tour is the path to the PGA TOUR whereby all 50 TOUR cards now come via the Web.com Tour. Through 2013-14, 391 PGA TOUR titles (through the Wyndham Championship) have been won by former Web.com Tour players. Three out of four 2014-15 PGA TOUR members have Web.com Tour roots.

TV: Golf Channel

Competition Awards: Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), 50 PGA TOUR cards awarded

PGA TOUR Latinoamérica

PGA TOUR Latinoamérica is a professional golf tour created in 2012 by the PGA TOUR in collaboration with promoters, clubs and national golf federations in Latin America. The inaugural season in 2012 featured 11 tournaments in seven countries in the Latin American region, since then it has grown to include 18 events across 11 different countries in 2014. The Tour visits Mexico, Colombia, Brazil, Argentina, Peru, the Dominican Republic, Uruguay, Chile, Ecuador, Guatemala, and Panama. PGA TOUR Latinoamérica plans to continue expanding its reach into more countries in the region during the 2015 season.

The leading money-winner at the end of each season is awarded the Roberto De Vicenzo Award, and the top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

PGA TOUR Canada

PGA TOUR Canada (formerly known as the Canadian Tour) is a professional golf tour played across Canada. Since its inception as the Peter Jackson Tour in 1971, PGA TOUR Canada has evolved into a high-caliber, coast-to-coast training ground for professionals. Its alumni include not only the game's Canadian legends but also many of its most prominent international players, who have collectively won 118 PGA TOUR titles, through 2013-14. Twelve, 72-hole stroke play events with purses of $150,000 took place across the country beginning in June 2014. The top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR Canada Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

PGA TOUR China Series

The China Tour – PGA TOUR China Series is a professional golf tour that made its debut in 2014, with 12 events all played in China. The Series provides playing opportunities for natives of China, based on their ranking within the China Golf Association. The Series attracts other players mainly from Asia and other Pacific Rim countries, although there were 2014 members from five continents. The top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR China Series' Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

Overview

The PGA TOUR entered a new era in 2007 with the introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition offering $35 million in bonus money and culminating with the PGA TOUR's first-ever Playoff system. In 2014-15, the four Playoffs events will offer $32 million in prize money, meaning a total of $67 million is on the line over the four weeks of FedExCup Playoff competition.

Over the span of 43 weeks of competition, players vie to become the FedExCup Champion, which distinguishes the one player who not only performs well during the 39-week PGA TOUR Season, but also excels through the pressure of the four-event FedExCup Playoffs. Tiger Woods won the inaugural FedExCup in 2007 and its $10-million top prize and won again in 2009. Others to hoist the FedExCup trophy include Vijay Singh (2008), Jim Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011), Brandt Snedeker (2012), Henrik Stenson (2013) and Billy Horschel (2014).

During the PGA TOUR Season, TOUR members earn points based on their finish, with a strong emphasis placed on winning and high finishes. Once the PGA TOUR Season concludes, the top-125 players advance to the Playoffs, a series of four $8-million tournaments offering quintuple points relative to PGA TOUR Season events.

The Playoffs feature a progressive cut, beginning with The Barclays in New Jersey (125 players), continuing with the Deutsche Bank Championship outside Boston (100 players) and the BMW Championship outside Chicago (70 players). A reset takes place, seeding the top-30 players for the culminating TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in Atlanta, where the FedExCup Champion is crowned.

PGA TOUR Season

The 2014-15 PGA TOUR Season consists of 43 events in 39 weeks beginning in early October of 2014, with the Frys.com Open, and ending in late-August of 2015 at the Wyndham Championship. Points are awarded at four levels:

- Official PGA TOUR events played during the PGA TOUR Season each award 500 FedExCup points to the winner.
- The Masters Tournament, THE PLAYERS Championship, U.S. Open, The Open Championship and the PGA Championship award 600 FedExCup points to the winner.
- World Golf Championships events award 550 FedExCup points to the winner.
- Additional events (played the same week as other tournaments) award 300 FedExCup points to the winner.
- The PGA TOUR Season points standings will carry over to the FedExCup Playoffs for the FedExCup.

FedExCup Playoffs

The FedExCup Playoffs consist of four events immediately following the PGA TOUR Season—The Barclays, Deutsche Bank Championship, BMW Championship and the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. The PGA TOUR Season points standings determine the top-125 players who qualify for the first event, The Barclays, held in New Jersey. Each playoff event offers 2,500 points (quintuple the PGA TOUR Season). The second event, the Deutsche Bank championship outside Boston, will have a 100-player field. The third tournament, the BMW Championship outside Chicago, will have 70 players (with no cut). The finale, the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in Atlanta, will be comprised of the top-30 qualifiers following the BMW Championship.

Following a points reset, those players will compete for the FedExCup with one to be crowned the FedExCup champion. Each tournament will have an $8-million purse in addition to the $35-million FedExCup bonus pool.

Note: In case of ties, reset points will be distributed between the tying positions using the same method for dealing with ties during events—the total points for each of the tying positions are divided equally among all players in the tying position. In the event that a player who qualifies for a Playoff event chooses not to play in that event, there will be no alternates and the field will be shortened. FedExCup points are subject to change.

A Brief History of the PGA TOUR

It is not easy to pinpoint the exact beginning of the PGA TOUR. Certainly, professionals have competed against each other from the earliest days of the game in the United States.

In 1895, 10 professional golfers and one amateur played in the first U.S. Open in Newport, R.I. Shortly thereafter, tournaments began to pop up across the country, including the Western Open in 1899. But this was not “tour” golf. The events lacked continuity.

Interest in the game, however, continued to grow. American professionals were rapidly improving. When John McDermott became the first American-born player to win the U.S. Open in 1911, interest in the game blossomed. That interest became enthusiasm in 1913 when Englishmen Harry Vardon and Ted Ray came to the United States to play an exhibition tour and compete in the U.S. Open. When 20-year-old amateur Francis Ouimet defeated the pair in a playoff for the Open at Brookline, Mass., golf became front-page news and a game for everyone.

In the early 1920s, a series of tournaments was held on the West Coast, in Texas and Florida. These events were held in the winter, and the golfers played their way east and up to Pinehurst, N.C., in the spring. By the middle of the decade, the tour was doing relatively well—offering $77,000 in total prize money.

The first “playing pros” organization was formed in 1932. Two years earlier, Bob Harlow had been named manager of the PGA Tournament Bureau. The tour became more structured following World War II and exploded in the late 1950s and early ‘60s. When Arnold Palmer, televised golf and President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived on the scene in the late 1950s, the eyes of the world were on golf. This exposure inspired millions to try the game.

Most golf historians trace the “formal” beginning of the PGA TOUR to late 1968, when the “Tournament Players Division” split from the PGA of America and hired Joe Dey as its first commissioner. That organization became the modern-day PGA TOUR. Dey served from early 1969 through February 28, 1974, and was succeeded by Deane R. Beman on March 1, 1974.

During Beman’s administration, the value of tournament purses escalated at an unprecedented rate. PGA TOUR assets grew from $730,000 in 1974 to more than $200 million, and total revenues increased from $3.9 million to $229 million in 1993.

Tim Finchem, previously the TOUR’s Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer, became the TOUR’s third commissioner, on June 1, 1994. In 1995, Finchem undertook a restructuring program designed to strengthen the PGA TOUR’s core business, its competitions, to expand the TOUR’s international scope and to prepare it for the 21st century. In 1996, Finchem helped spearhead formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours, as golf’s five world-governing bodies laid the groundwork for taking competition into the next millennium. In 1997, the Federation announced the World Golf Championships, which made its debut in 1999 with three events—today called the Cadillac Match Play, the Cadillac Championship and the Bridgestone Invitational. The HSBC Champions in China was added in 2009. The 2007 season marked the inception of the FedExCup, a season-long points race with four Playoff events to conclude the season and crown the FedExCup champion.

Since 1938, PGA TOUR events have donated more than $2 billion to charity, having surpassed that milestone in January 2014.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR also is much broader today. The Champions Tour, in its 35th season, has been labeled the most successful senior sports venture in history. Fans and television viewers are able to get closer to the game on this Tour, both on site and with instructional platforms. The Charles Schwab Cup will be contested for the 15th time in 2015.

The Web.com Tour has been recognized as the path to the PGA TOUR, as two out of three players on the 2015-15 PGA TOUR have Web.com Tour roots. Among the former players on the Web.com Tour who have gone on to star on the PGA TOUR include Tom Lehman, Jim Furyk, Ernie Els, Bubba Watson, Keegan Bradley and Jason Dufner. Through 2013-14, 391 PGA TOUR events have been won by former Web.com Tour players.

When the PGA TOUR opened TPC Sawgrass in 1980, it introduced the era of stadium golf and record-breaking attendance. Owned and/or operated by the TOUR, the TPC Network courses are the only major-league sports venues owned by the players themselves. The reworked PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass, with refurbished fairways and rebuilt greens and a new, enlarged clubhouse, debuted in May 2007 for THE PLAYERS Championship.

The successful debut of the FedExCup in 2007 was concluded by the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup, with Tiger Woods taking the inaugural FedExCup title. In the six subsequent years, Vijay Singh (2008), Woods (2009), Jim Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011), Brandt Snedeker (2012), Henrik Stenson (2013) and Billy Horschel (2014) have claimed the season-ending FedExCup crown.

For the first time in 2013-14, the TOUR embarked on a wraparound schedule, bridging two calendar years, with 45 official events over 43 weeks, beginning with the Frys.com Open in October. The schedule also included official events in Malaysia and China for the first time, awarding FedExCup points to the participants.

TPC Sawgrass hosts THE PLAYERS Championship each May.

Together, anything's possible.®

Making a positive impact on the communities where PGA TOUR tournaments are held and players live has become an even larger focus in the golf organization's charitable mission with the Together, anything's possible campaign.

The charitable effort was commemorated in late 2005 when the PGA TOUR and its tournaments reached the "Drive to a Billion" milestone.

That cumulative effect, since the first donation in 1938, reached more than $2 billion in January of 2014—including more than $1 billion in the last 15 years—and is the cornerstone of the Together, anything's possible campaign.

During THE PLAYERS Championship in May 2009, the TOUR unveiled its renewed commitment to charitable efforts aimed at further energizing and engaging all players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans.

"The PGA TOUR has done a lot for charity over the years but only because of the passion for giving back shared by our players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans," PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem said.

"When we say, Together, anything's possible, we mean that by rallying behind the common cause of charitable giving, we can create greater awareness and elevate our overall impact, which is so important in these difficult economic times."

A full-scale launch of Together, anything's possible began in 2010. PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Web.com Tour events annually benefit more than 3,000 charities and countless individuals worldwide. Research shows that the majority of the funds raised each year are directly funneled back into the local market, so while there is not an "official charity of the PGA TOUR," there are many who benefit from the TOUR's one goal of "Giving Back."

STRUCTURE

Unlike any other professional sports organization, the PGA TOUR relies on more than 100,000 volunteers a year to run its events, and most of the 100-plus tournaments are structured as non-profit organizations designed to donate 100 percent of net proceeds to local charities. Beneficiaries include hospitals, youth-development organizations, growth-of-the-game programs and food banks. In addition, military support and fundraising for natural-disaster relief are apparent.

Together, anything's possible aims to organize the beneficiaries into a national network. The TOUR and its sanctioned tournaments will connect with each of these charities to begin communicating details of this platform.

TOURNAMENTS

In the Together, anything's possible campaign, the TOUR will assist tournaments in maximizing their charitable impact. The TOUR will work with tournaments to benchmark specific charity initiatives where feasible and expand proven activities across all Tours.

In The Presidents Cup, there is no purse, yet revenues are divided into equal shares that the participating players and Captains designate for charities of their choice, totaling nearly $32 million in the 10 playings of the event through the 2013 event.

PLAYERS

Players reach out to help considerably through charitable efforts in their home communities and elsewhere.

Under the Together, anything's possible platform, the TOUR has committed resources to further promote each player's charitable activities, whether through television, advertising, PGATOUR.COM and video or new media support that will enable fans to get involved in their favorite players' charities.

The TOUR offers assistance to both players, who are currently engaged in charitable activities, as well as those who are interested in getting started.

"I feel like playing on the PGA TOUR almost comes second. What we get to do for charity, what the PGA TOUR gives back to the community, I think that's the greatest thing about playing on the PGA TOUR," says Jonas Blixt.

The success stories over the last four years are numerous.

In June 2010, Jim McGlothlin, a member of the PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties Board, organized "The Big 3 for the Mountain Mission Kids," a one-day tournament featuring Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player. This event, which benefited the Mountain Mission School, raised an astounding $15.2 million in a single day.

In 2011, country music star Darius Rucker wrote a song "Together, Anything is Possible," in which proceeds from downloads were distributed to PGA TOUR Charities, The First Tee and Birdies for the Brave.

Phil Mickelson and his wife Amy began a "Birdies for the Brave" program in 2004 as a way to support charities that build homes for disabled troops, provide educational opportunities for the spouses and children of servicemen and women killed in action and other avenues of support. In December of 2012, Phil and Amy, along with Jim and Cathy Justice, owners of The Greenbrier Resort, hosted the Birdies for the Brave Pro-Am and Gala at TPC Sawgrass to benefit nine military home front groups. The Pro-Am participants included President William J. Clinton, celebrities, artists, military dignitaries and PGA TOUR, LPGA and Champions Tour players including Mickelson, Jack Nicklaus, Vijay Singh, Peter Jacobsen and Larry Nelson. The weekend's festivities also included a charity concert featuring Vince Gill and Rucker.

Ernie Els was one of the players featured in 2012 as he and his wife, Liezl, continued to work to promote autism awareness and fund research. The Els Center of Excellence is now moving from concept to reality with groundbreaking of the facility taking place in 2013. The Els Center for Excellence will be dedicated to educating autistic children and funding research into the causes of autism and developing new treatments.

In 2013, the PGA TOUR Wives Association celebrated its 25th anniversary through a variety of events and activities, including the creation of a book observing the organization's history as told through the personal stories of TOUR families. Since its incorporation, the Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money and performing a myriad of services, ranging from Habitat for Humanity builds to cooking in soup kitchens to fitting children for glasses in communities where tournaments are held.

Players are using the Together, anything's possible platform more and more to assist with their own charitable initiatives. Two examples in 2014 included Erik Compton and Justin Rose.

Compton, who has played two years on the PGA TOUR despite two heart transplants during his lifetime, donates his time and energy at PGA TOUR events to promote Donate Life America, an organization set up to spread news about the importance of organ donation. He appears at clinics and hospitals and visits with transplants patients while also making media appearances.

For several years, the Kate and Justin Rose Foundation has helped students who participate in school lunch programs. For many of those students, lunch at school Friday is the last meal until they return Monday for breakfast. The "Blessings in a Backpack" program ensures these students have food over the weekends. In addition to the financial assistance, the Rose family helps empower less-than-fortunate kids with what they deem to be life's most valuable lesson: when you can see it, you can be it.

FANS

The TOUR has developed a call-to-action plan that allows fans to rally behind charities supported by its players and tournaments, allowing them to enhance lives by giving of their time or making contributions.

While many tournaments already have an effective fan outreach, the TOUR will develop an overarching communications plan that will add support on a national level. The TOUR launched PGATOUR.COM/together in 2010 so that fans learn more about the charitable involvement of their favorite players, tournaments or charities. This site enables fans to donate money and identify volunteer opportunities that directly benefit local charities. The TOUR has invested substantial internal resources, including an ad campaign, to promote the call to action.

The first four years of Together, anything's possible has displayed the breadth and depth of the TOUR's collective charitable efforts, with the charity website featuring hundreds of stories and videos about the wonderful work being done in communities around the globe.

THE PLAYERS Championship and TPC Sawgrass

OVERVIEW

When the strongest field in golf takes on the game's greatest stadium, fans flock to the Florida sun to experience one of golf's most prestigious tournaments—THE PLAYERS Championship.

Each May, THE PLAYERS showcases excitement and intensity, not to mention the beauty of one of the most recognized courses in the world—THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass. THE PLAYERS brings the world's top competitors to this superior, demanding golf course and offers a fan experience unlike any other, creating one of the most dynamic, compelling events in all of golf.

HISTORY

Since 1974, when THE PLAYERS was first contested at Atlanta Country Club, the era's best players have battled to take home the trophy. It's fitting that the event's inaugural winner was none other than Jack Nicklaus, the World Golf Hall of Famer who captured a tournament-record three PLAYERS titles in the first five years (1974, 1976 and 1978).

THE PLAYERS moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in 1977 and five years later, the PGA TOUR's flagship event found a new home at TPC Sawgrass, Pete Dye's masterpiece and golf's original stadium. Jerry Pate won that first year and celebrated his 1982 triumph by diving into the lake next to the 18th hole, taking Dye and then-PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman with him.

That memorable moment has been followed by many others, including Hal Sutton's "Be the right club today" shot from the fairway on the final hole to defeat Tiger Woods in 2000 and win his second PLAYERS title, and Woods' "Better than most" putt from 60-plus feet during the third round of his 2001 victory.

THE PLAYERS has evolved into one of the most prestigious events in golf. Local heroes Calvin Peete, Mark McCumber, David Duval and Fred Funk have hoisted THE PLAYERS trophy, as have some of the game's most recognizable names, including Woods, Davis Love III, Greg Norman, Fred Couples, Phil Mickelson and Sergio Garcia.

GOLF COURSE

Home to the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship, THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass has established itself as one of the premier tournament venues in all of golf. A player must display a well-rounded, complete game and triumph over one of the sport's most daunting finishes in order to become THE PLAYERS champion. All of that drama, combined with a setting unequalled in golf, creates an electrifying atmosphere that makes THE PLAYERS a must-see, must-attend event.

The famed PLAYERS Stadium Course was designed by renowned golf-course architect Pete Dye. Since its inception, the course's final three holes have evolved into the greatest risk/reward finish in golf, highlighted by the iconic 17th island green, one of the most recognized and photographed holes in the game. In 2006, TPC Sawgrass completed a multi-million dollar renovation designed to elevate THE PLAYERS Stadium Course to the highest professional level for the best players in the world during THE PLAYERS Championship, as well as provide resort golfers with PGA TOUR-quality playing conditions year-round.

CLUBHOUSE

Following the 2006 PLAYERS Championship, heavy equipment replaced golf carts on the greens as crews started the demolition process of the 25-year-old clubhouse. The changes, completed in May 2007, have elevated the reputation of TPC Sawgrass as a world-class resort.

Now standing is one of most iconic spots on the course, aside from the famous 17th hole. The TPC Sawgrass clubhouse is an expansive, 77,000 square-foot Mediterranean Revival Style building, reminiscent of the history and architectural heritage of Northeast Florida. The clubhouse blends elegant, old-world charm with modern-day comforts and state-of-the-art technology, providing a one-of-a-kind setting for meetings and events of all sizes.

Fronted by a terraced-event lawn offering panoramic views of the ninth and 18th holes, the clubhouse is preceded by a magnificent Walk of Fame entryway and features displays depicting the history and legends of the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship.

CHARITY

Regardless of the name on the trophy at the end of THE PLAYERS, the true winners will always be the local charitable organizations that benefit from the tournament each year. Thanks to the support of the Northeast Florida community and the tournament's Proud Partner—PwC—THE PLAYERS has generated close to $60 million to First Coast charities since the event moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in 1977, including a record $7.1 million in 2013.

In 2011, THE PLAYERS announced a committed goal of generating $50 million for youth-related charities over a 10-year period. The focus of this goal is to improve the opportunities for the community's youth through education, character development and health and fitness. THE PLAYERS has already made strides towards this goal through scholarship endowments at both the University of North Florida and Florida State College at Jacksonville for first-generation students. Additionally, THE PLAYERS Center for Child Health was established in partnership with the local children's hospital in Jacksonville, Wolfson Children's Hospital.

Making this positive impact on the community, however, would not be possible without the leadership of the tournament's Red Coats and the hard work and dedication of the tremendous volunteer force. Nearly 2,000 volunteers give of their time and talents each year to help stage this first-class event. From parking cars, shuttling players and staffing the hospitality venues to keeping scores and statistics, volunteers at THE PLAYERS touch every aspect of the tournament.

Tournament volunteers not only help ensure a world-class event, but each year they also create new hope and opportunity in their local communities. This effort continues to prove that giving back is at the heart of the PGA TOUR.

REACH

Even if they aren't at TPC Sawgrass in May, golf fans from around the world enjoy THE PLAYERS Championship on air, on radio and online. Whether it is the 28 hours of high-definition, limited-interruption telecasts on Golf Channel and NBC Sports, four-round coverage of LIVE@ THE PLAYERS streaming on PGATOUR.COM, or wall-to-wall radio coverage on SIRIUS XM Radio, fans soak in THE PLAYERS action and excitement, from Thursday's opening round to the final putt on Sunday.

And with the support of the tournament's Proud Partner—PwC—viewers of nearly 600 million households throughout 225 countries and territories enjoy THE PLAYERS' telecast with limited-commercial interruptions, making this a special, global championship.

The First Tee

OVERVIEW

The First Tee delivers life skills and character education to young people through the game of golf. It has reached nine million young people since its inception in 1997, having a positive impact on participants, their families and their communities.

MISSION

To impact the lives of young people by providing educational programs that build character, instill life-enhancing values and promote healthy choices through the game of golf.

CHAPTERS

At approximately 180 chapters around the United States and in select international locations, The First Tee delivers its life skills curriculum to young people (generally ages 5 to 17). The First Tee chapters have relationships with more than 900 golf facilities, and the network continues to grow.

What makes The First Tee effective in building positive character traits in young people is The First Tee Life Skills Experience™, a curriculum developed with the help of academic, sport psychology, youth development and golf experts to proactively teach these lessons for life as part of the basic program. The Life Skills Experience is delivered by trained coaches, and through this experience, participants learn to apply life skills and transfer the positive values of golf to everyday life.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

The First Tee has partnered with more than 6,000 schools in 800 school districts to offer The First Tee National School Program during regularly scheduled physical education classes. Individuals, companies, parent-teacher associations, golf-industry organizations and more provide funding for schools and school districts to implement the program, which continues to expand throughout the United States.

The First Tee National School Program introduces elementary students to the game of golf, The First Tee Nine Core Values and The First Tee Nine Healthy Habits during physical education classes. Physical educators take professional development training and obtain age-appropriate curriculum and equipment for effective implementation into their programs.

THE FIRST TEE DRIVE

This new after-school program rolled out in 2013 is an engaging opportunity for young people and is designed to Develop Rewarding, Inspiring Values for Everyone who participates. Created with youth-development professionals and volunteer leaders in mind, the program modifies traditional sports—including baseball, football, bowling and tennis—to incorporate the four basic golf shots: putt, chip, pitch and full swing. Each activity empowers young people to explore their abilities and develop life-enhancing values along the way by integrating The First Tee Nine Core Values™ in each lesson. The First Tee DRIVE has been introduced to more than 200 youth-serving organizations.

FOUNDING PARTNERS

The First Tee has been successful in creating a broad network of support, thanks to its Founding Partners: PGA TOUR, LPGA, the Masters Tournament, PGA of America and the USGA. Shell Oil Company is the Founding Corporate Partner. Johnson & Johnson is the Legacy Partner, and Southern Company is the Education Patron.

About the Commissioner

Tim Finchem
PGA TOUR Commissioner

Tim Finchem began his 21st year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2014. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGA TOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate. Since Finchem became commissioner in 1994, the PGA TOUR and its tournaments have raised more than $1 billion for charitable organizations. In January 2014, the TOUR and its tournaments reached the $2-billion milestone since the first donation in 1938.

Under Finchem's leadership, the TOUR created The Presidents Cup in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After 10 stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar. The Presidents Cup 2015 will be contested for the first time in South Korea.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation. He has shown personal dedication to the success of The First Tee initiative, as he serves as chairman of The First Tee Board of Directors and in 2011 was the co-chair of The First Tee Campaign for 10 Million Young People. Since its inception in 1997, The First Tee has reached more than nine million young people through its network which includes locations in all 50 states and four internationally. Through 2017, The First Tee's goal is to reach 10 million additional young people and grow the network to 1,200 programming locations at golf facilities, 10,000 elementary schools and 350 other youth-serving locations.

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the FedExCup Playoffs. Since 2007, the FedExCup has brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

Born in Ottawa, Ill., on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, Va. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001, the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002, the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports Award in 2005 and the 2010 Donald Ross Award from the American Society of Golf Course Architects.

Finchem and his wife, the former Holly Bachand, have four children and live in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

Finished second at U.S. Open sectional qualifying in California in early June to secure his second consecutive U.S. Open appearance. Shot a 70 at The Olympic Club's Ocean Course and a 65 at Lake Merced GC to finish solo second, three shots behind medalist Alex Cejka. Missed the cut at Pinehurst No. 2... Six days after qualifying for the U.S. Open in San Francisco, won for the fourth time on the Web.com Tour, outlasting Dawie van der Walt in an epic Cleveland Open 11-hole playoff, the longest in Tour history and equalling the longest on the PGA TOUR. Started the final round three shots off the lead. Chalked up eight birdies in his first 16 holes to grab the lead by three. Bogeys on his last two holes and birdies by van der Walt on those same two holes forced the playoff. In overtime, he and van der Walt matched pars for 10 holes before Alker staked a 7-iron from 172 yards to 3 feet for a tap-in birdie and the marathon victory... Came to the Albertsons Boise Open having missed three cuts in a row. Ended up making his second playoff appearance of 2014. Opened up with a 9-under 62. Added rounds of 66-65-67 over the next 54 holes to establish a new tournament record of 24-under-par 260, with Steve Wheatcroft. Lost the playoff when Wheatcroft birdied the second extra hole... Posted his third top-10, a T5, at the Regular Season finale, the WinCo Foods Portland Open, to get to 10th in earnings... Officially secured his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card at the conclusion of that late-August tournament, setting up his return to the PGA TOUR, where he was a member in 2003.

2013-14 SEASON:

Claimed three top-10 finishes in 29 starts, highlighted by a share of second place at The Barclays... A missed cut at the Deutsche Bank Championship a week later and T46 finish at the BMW Championship left him at No. 31 in the FedExCup standings... Four rounds in the 60s, highlighted by a final-round, 7-under 65 at the Humana Challenge, was good for a T9 with four others... Highlighted by a bogey-free, 5-under 65 in the third round at a gusty PGA National, finished T8 at The Honda Classic, with Luke Donald, Sergio Garcia and David Lingmerth... Made a Sunday charge with a 6-under 65 at The Barclays to finish T2 with fellow Aussie Jason Day and Cameron Tringale. The finish at Ridgewood CC was his best since winning the 2010 Greenbrier Classic. The performance moved him to No. 19 in the FedExCup standings heading into the following week's Deutsche Bank Championship... Was one of two players (Keegan Bradley) to enter the BMW Championship inside the FedExCup cut line for the TOUR Championship who failed to advance.

2013-14 SEASON:

Finished the year with 24 Web.com Tour starts in 25 tournaments. Had one runner-up, five top-10s and seven top-25s, while making 14 cuts...First top-10 came in his eighth start at the South Georgia Classic in early May. Was seven strokes back, thanks to a first-round 74. Fired 67-66 to move to solo sixth after 54 holes. A 70 in the last round was good enough for a T4...Missed his next two cuts...In early June, was tied for the lead with Steven Alker at the 54-hole mark at the Cleveland Open after rounds of 69-68-66. A 70 on Sunday gave him a T4 finish...The following week, coupled opening rounds of 69-68 with bogey-free closing rounds of 65-65 for a T5 finish at the Air Capital Classic...Late in June, posted 70-67 to open the United Leasing Championship and was T2 and two off the lead. A third-round 75 dropped him to T14. On Sunday, made consecutive birdies on Nos. 7-10 and added two more at 12 and 17 to grab a share of the lead, only to bogey the final hole, which left him one short of winner Greg Owen. Reached his high point on the 2014 money list (12th) with his T2... Was dangling at No. 23 on the money list heading to the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville in mid August, one week prior to the Regular Season finale in Portland. A 63-65 on the weekend left him in fourth place, relieving most of the pressure to play well the following week to stay inside the top 25...The South Georgia Classic through United Leasing Championship run in May and June had netted him a T2, two T4s and a T5 over a six-tournament stretch...Closed the Regular Season with a T41 in Portland, which officially secured his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card (20th on the money list), setting up his return to the PGA TOUR, where he was a member in 2007 and 2008.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2014 South Georgia Classic.

2013-14 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season playing 20 events. Picked up a victory to go with a T3, two T5s and a T6. Overall, posted 12 top-25s and missed only 3 of 19 cuts... Started the year with four top-25 finishes in his first six starts, then collected his first Tour win at the South Georgia Classic in late March. Opened with rounds of 68-72 at Kinderlou Forest GC and was tied for 12th heading into the weekend. Bolted into contention with a 6-under 30 on the inward nine on Saturday, putting him within two shots of 54-hole leader Carlos Ortiz. Grabbed a three-shot lead with five birdies in his first 11 holes on Sunday before stumbling with a double-bogey at No. 12, cutting his lead to one. Birdies at Nos. 14 and 16 allowed him to regain control and post a 5-under 67 for a 15-under 273 total, two better than Alex Prugh. Collected the South Georgia trophy after Ortiz and other top contenders failed to mount a serious charge. Pocketed $117,000 to move him from No. 29 to No. 6 on the money list. The winner's check was more than he had earned in his 16 previous Tour starts combined. Win came within 60 miles of his hometown, Lake City, Fla., and family and friends in the gallery... In the next Tour event, was in a three-way tie for the lead on the final day of the BMW Charity Pro-Am after a 63-70-68 start. Finished T3 when he shot 67 and winner Max Homa and Jonathan Randolph both fired 63 on Sunday... Opened the final round of the Air Capital Classic in Wichita in June three strokes behind leader and eventual winner Sebastian Cappelen. Settled for a T10 after posting a final-round 69 at Crestview CC... In early August, fired 63-64 and was one stroke off the 36-hole lead at the Stonebrae Classic. The 127 figure tied for the fifth-lowest two-round total (any two back-to-back rounds) of the year. Scores of 68-67 on the weekend resulted in a T5... Officially secured his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card for the first time at the conclusion of the Regular Season in late-August (7th on the money list). Completed the Regular Season with his fifth top-10 of the campaign, at the WinCo Foods Portland Open, carding steady rounds of 67-69-70-68... At the third event of the Web.com Tour Finals, opened the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship with a 65. Followed up with 74-70-72 for a T6.

2013-14 SEASON:

Despite starting the season with limited conditional status, ended up making 12 Web.com Tour starts, which led to two runner-up performances, six top-25s and eight cuts made...Began the year playing PGA TOUR Latinoamérica. Entered seven events from March through May, making every cut but one...Earned his first top-10 at the 83 Abierto OSDE del Centro in April when he finished T6...Missed his only cut the next week, then picked up his second top-10 three weeks later, at the Dominican Republic Open. Rounds of 66-71-74-69 led to a T5...The very next week, at the Lexus Panama Classic, was in contention but a final-round 73 derailed any hopes of victory, and he settled for a T6...From Panama he headed to Canada for his lone PGA TOUR Canada appearance of 2014, a missed cut at the PC Financial Open in Vancouver...In early June, shot rounds of 69-68 at Emerald Valley GC in Creswell, Ore., to earn medalist honors at U.S. Open sectional qualifying. Defeated Clayton Rask by four shots to qualify for his first U.S. Open, a championship his father, Jimmy, played in in 1981 (missed the cut). Finished T40, with his dad coming under the ropes and carrying his golf bag from his approach shot onto the green on the 72nd hole at Pinehurst No. 2...Returned to Canada in early July for first of 12 Web.com Tour appearances. Carded 70-67 over final 36 holes of the Nova Scotia Open to move from T31 when the day began to a T7, collecting his first Web.com Tour top-10 in the process. Was already in the next week's Utah Championship via a sponsor's exemption, but the T7 allowed him entry into the tournament on his own...At his hometown event outside Salt Lake City, shot four under-par rounds at Willow Creek CC to T11 and earn another invite, this one into the next week's Albertsons Boise Open...Made the cut in Boise and his next two tournaments...Contended for his first title in his sixth Tour start, at the Price Cutter Charity Championship. A final-round 66 resulted in a T2 finish, one behind Cameron Percy's 21-under-par winning effort. He improved to 41st on the money list...He would close the Regular Season with a T14 at the WinCo Foods Portland Open to get to 38th in earnings and comfortably qualify for the Web.com Tour Finals...Missed the cut in the first three Finals events...His real coming out was at the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship, where he opened with a then course record-tying 63. He would go on to either lead or be in second place after all four rounds, with his finish a solo second, following a Sunday 68 that left him one shy of winner Derek Fathauer. His perseverance and performance under the pressure created many admirers. He went from $0 earned in the Finals to 11th in the TOUR's priority ranking with his special and timely week.

 Made one cut in eight PGA TOUR starts and will have nine events in the 2014-15 campaign to earn 358 FedExCup points or $578,156 to clear the top finishers from Web.com Tour Medical category as he continues to come back from left-shoulder surgery. Won on the Web.com Tour in his first start of the season on that Tour. Made three of seven cuts on the Web.com Tour, finishing No. 33 on the money list to just miss automatically qualifying for the PGA TOUR. Missed the cut in the final two Web.com Tour Finals' event to miss out qualifying for the PGA TOUR...Earned his second career title when he birdied the third playoff hole to defeat Brett Stegmaier and win the Chitimacha Louisiana Open. Made a 10-foot birdie putt after Stegmaier's 60-foot birdie attempt missed. Was seven shots off the pace to begin the final round and fired a 9-under 62 to post a 14-under 270 total. He then had to wait more than three hours to see if anyone would match his score or beat it. His 62 was five strokes better than anyone else that day. Stegmaier made the turn at 15-under but bogeyed No. 10 and parred the final eight holes to finish with a 3-under 68. Third-round leader Kyle Reifers was at 14-under after birdies at Nos. 15 and 17 but missed on the playoff when his tee shot on the final hole went in the water, and he made bogey. In the playoff, both players missed birdie chances on No. 18 the first two times they played it. Victory was worth $99,000 and moved him to No. 6 on the money list after five events. Spent the first part of the week in San Antonio, where he was the second alternate for the PGA TOUR's Valero Texas Open. Drove to Lafayette on Wednesday and did not play a practice round. Also changed putters three times during the week, and the one he used Sunday was the first time he had tried it.

PERSONAL:
 Lists his dad, who gave him his start in golf, as his hero. His wife, Tami, was a golf professional at Sea Pines CC in Hilton Head, S.C., and has beaten him nine times in nine years. She was also the top player on the Ohio State women's golf team from 1990-93 and played in the 1995 U.S. Women's Open...Non-golf-related jobs held include bartending. With a father in the Air Force, he lived in Georgia, Texas, Nebraska, Montana and Virginia. As an adult, he's called Alabama, Florida, South Carolina, Georgia and Maryland home. Is named for actor/singer Kris Kristofferson. "My mom thought he was cute, and the movie 'The Rose' was coming out at the time she was pregnant. That's where my name came from." ...At the 2012 Honda Classic in his hometown of West Palm Beach, he spearheaded a unique fund-raiser for Birdies for the Brave, where fellow TOUR players raced remote-control cars paid for and sponsored by on-looking fans at a nearby track. Players who took part in the event included Rickie Fowler, Dicky Pride, Kevin Streelman and Joe Ogilvie. After the event, he said, "Hey, what can I say? I bring my kids here two to three times a week when I'm in town. I know this track better than anybody."

Played in 30 PGA TOUR events and finished 59th in the final FedExCup standings. Enjoyed a breakthrough when he captured his first TOUR title, at the Valero Texas Open. Advanced all the way to the BMW Championship before he was eliminated from the FedExCup Playoffs...In his 13th start of the season, took the second-round lead of the Valero Texas Open and never looked back. Despite a 4-over 76 in the final round, claimed a one-stroke victory over Will MacKenzie and Daniel Summerhays. Through 54 holes, was the only player in the field to manage three sub-70 rounds on the challenging TPC San Antonio's AT&T Oaks Course. The 76 was the highest final-round score by a winner since Vijay Singh posted the same number at the 2004 PGA Championship. With the win, he became the fourth consecutive Valero Texas Open champion to earn a win-and-you're-in invitation to the Masters Tournament two weeks later. The win also made him the third Australian to win on the PGA TOUR this season, joining Jason Day (World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship) and John Senden (Valspar Championship). It was his only top-10 of the season...Only other top-15 performance came at the John Deere Classic in July, when he was T11.

2013-14 SEASON:

Among six top-10 finishes in 26 starts was a solo-second-place finish at the Arnold Palmer Invitational in March... Reached the FedExCup Playoffs for the fourth-consecutive year but season ended following his withdrawal from the BMW Championship over an embedded-ball ruling. His 33rd-place finish in the FedExCup standings marked just the first time he has finished outside the top 30 since joining the PGA TOUR in 2011... In his season-opener, held the 36-hole lead at the CIMB Classic in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, after starting with rounds of 65-66. Holding a four-stroke lead entering the third round, struggled on the weekend, with a 76-72 finish to end in 10th place... Playing in the final pairing with Adam Scott, carded an even-par 72 to finish runner-up at the Arnold Palmer Invitational for the fourth time in his PGA TOUR career (2012 Northern Trust Open, 2013 HP Byron Nelson Championship and 2013 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational). Made his third start at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, with top-three finishes in his last two starts (T3 in 2013)... Improved on a second-round, 6-under 66 with a 7-under 65 in the third round to join Seung-Yul Noh in the final round at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. Struggled Sunday at TPC Louisiana to a 3-over 75 to drop into a T8 with Tommy Gainey and Justin Rose... Prior to his U.S. Open appearance, his first- and second-round 73s at the 2012 U.S. Open marked his best scores in two starts at the event. Turned in rounds of 69-69-76-67 at Pinehurst's No. 2 to finish T4. Owns three top-five finishes in 11 major championship starts, including his win at the 2011 PGA Championship and a T3 at the 2012 PGA Championship... Finished T4 in his third Greenbrier Classic start (T43 in 2011 and T46 in 2012), marking just the third time he has posted four rounds in the 60s in 72-hole TOUR events (2012 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational and the 2014 Humana Challenge)... Finished T4 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational to record his third top-10 in four starts at Firestone CC... Withdrew from the BMW Championship after rounds of 71-70 (T41) as he had lingering doubts about whether or not his ball in question had come to rest in its own pitch mark on No. 18 in the first round. Entered the week 28th in the FedExCup standings but dropped out of the top 30 (No. 33) and missed qualifying for the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Captain's pick for the U.S. Ryder Cup team by Tom Watson... At the Ryder Cup at Gleneagles in Scotland, went 1-2-0 in his three matches in the European victory in the biennial event in Scotland.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:

1—The Greenbrier Classic.

2013-14 SEASON:

Only top-10 finish in 12 made cuts was his third career PGA TOUR win, and first outside the majors. For the sixth time, earned a berth into the FedExCup Playoffs, where he made it through three of the four Playoff events. Despite a solid T12 finish at the BMW Championship, ended his season ranked No. 50 in the final FedExCup standings. Entered the final round of The Greenbrier Classic trailing playing partner Billy Hurley III by two strokes. Carded a stellar, 6-under 64 (including a hole out for eagle from 176 yards on the par-4 13th hole) to win by two over George McNeill. The win marked the fifth come-from-behind victory in as many playings of The Greenbrier Classic. Making his first start at the tournament, he closed with weekend rounds of 64-64 to finish 16-under 264, becoming the oldest winner at the event and the oldest of the season. The win came in his 218th PGA TOUR start and was his third victory (first in a non-major championship), with wins coming at the 2007 U.S. Open and 2009 Masters Tournament. Weekend rounds equaled the lowest final 36-hole score on TOUR this season (Jimmy Walker and Kevin Na at the Frys.com Open, Bubba Watson at the Northern Trust Open and Kevin Streelman at the Travelers Championship). Win came in his 17th start of the season, topping his previous-best finish of T11 at the Travelers Championship. It was his first top-10 since a T9 at the 2013 Travelers Championship. Became the 10th international winner of the season on TOUR and the third in five years at the West Virginia tournament, joining 2010 champion Stuart Appleby and 2013 winner Jonas Blixt.

PERSONAL:

Caddied at Cordoba, home club of friend Eduardo Romero, until turning professional at age 20. Romero, who lived two blocks away from his young protege, encouraged him to take up the game, at age 15. Both sons played PGA TOUR Latinoamerica in 2013. Says he would be a soccer player if not a golfer. Nicknamed El Pato (The Duck). Enjoys spending time with his two granddaughters.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T2—Farmers Insurance Open, Travelers Championship.

2013-14 SEASON:

Claimed a pair of T2 finishes in 17 made PGA TOUR cuts. As a result, made an eighth consecutive start in the FedExCup Playoffs. Played well enough to stay alive through the first three events, but at No. 69 in the FedExCup standings after the BMW Championship failed to make it to the TOUR

Championship by Coca-Cola for a third consecutive year... Through the K.J. Choi Foundation (kjchoifoundation.org), donated his $100,000 winnings from the 2013 ISPS Handa World Cup to help with the Typhoon Haiyan relief efforts in the Philippines. The funds, sent to the American Red Cross in conjunction with the Philippines' chapter of the Red Cross, were used to provide relief supplies to the areas worst hit by the typhoon... Finished in a five-way T2 at the Farmers Insurance Open, one shot behind Scott Stallings' winning score of 9-under 279. Made the cut on the number at even-par but closed with rounds of 70-66 to climb the leaderboard... Finished T2 at the Travelers Championship for his first top-10 in six starts outside Hartford. Played in the second-to-last group and had a 33-foot putt for birdie to force a playoff with eventual champion Kevin Streelman, who was already in the clubhouse.

PERSONAL:

Interest in golf grew after one of his high school teachers recommended he try the sport. Began studying Jack Nicklaus lesson books and videos and spent long hours hitting practice balls on his island home's only practice range. Later studied under Phil Ritson... Currently coached by Steve Bann. First Korean to earn PGA TOUR card...

Grew up the son of a farmer/fisherman and as a teenage powerlifter earned the nickname "Tank" because he could squat 350 pounds although he weighed a mere 95 pounds. He didn't have the upper-body strength to pursue that sport, so he turned to golf, at age 16... After his 2005 victory at the Wyndham Championship, donated $90,000 to the Korean Presbyterian Church in Greensboro, N.C., that he has attended each year he played the tournament... Following his win at the 2011 PLAYERS Championship, donated $200,000 to help victims of the tornados that ravaged the southeastern United States in April of that year.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—RBC Canadian Open; T2—The McGladrey Classic; T5—John Deere Classic.

2013-14 SEASON:

Among three top-10 finishes in 14 made cuts was his second career PGA TOUR win. For the seventh time, played his way into the FedExCup Playoffs events. Despite a withdrawal from The Barclays, due to an injury, maneuvered his way through the BMW Championship before ending his season ranked 54th in the final FedExCup standings... Posted an 8-under 62 to finish T2 at The McGladrey Classic, one stroke behind champion Chris Kirk. The runner-up finish was the 12th of his career, which includes at least one runner-up finish for 10 consecutive seasons, dating to 2005. His 62 equaled his career-low round on the PGA TOUR, set most recently during the second round of the 2012 RBC Canadian Open. Following a 1-over 72 in the opening round of the John Deere Classic, rallied in the second and third rounds with a 63-64 performance. The 63 was his lowest score in the event in five starts. Saturday, was a perfect 14 for 14 in Fairways Hit and 18 for 18 in Greens in Regulation. Closed with a 3-under 68 to finish at 18-under, four strokes behind Brian Harman... Entered the final round of the RBC Canadian Open trailing Jim Furyk by three strokes and stumbled out of the gate with a bogey on the opening hole to fall four shots back. Rebounded with birdies on Nos. 6, 11, 12, 14, 15 and 17 (including a 5-under 30 on the back nine) to post a 5-under 65, good for a one-stroke victory over Furyk. Only other PGA TOUR title came at THE PLAYERS Championship in 2010, which also included a three-stroke, come-from-behind win. Recorded his title in his 284th start at age 38 years, 7 months, 10 days. Won in his 78th start since his first. The win came exactly 200 weeks since that win. Became the fourth South African winner of the RBC Canadian Open, joining Bobby Locke (1947), Nick Price (1991 and 1994) and David Frost (1993). Recorded the fifth come-from-behind victory in the last six years at the RBC Canadian Open. Ended the week with just two bogeys. Caddie was Jay Haas, Jr., formerly on the bag of his brother and 2011 FedExCup champion, Bill Haas. Posted his first professional victories on PGA TOUR Canada in 1998, at the 1998 New Brunswick Open and Canadian

PGA Championship. Tied the lowest winning score at the RBC Canadian Open, originally set by Johnny Palmer (1952) and matched by Scott Piercy (2012)... FedExCup Playoffs began with a WD (elbow injury) from The Barclays after a opening-round 76. Withdrew the following week prior to the start of Deutsche Bank Championship with the same injury.

PERSONAL:

Recorded his first hole-in-one when he was age 8... Donated his first-place share of approximately $20,000 at the November 2005 Nelson Mandela Invitational to a deaf girl from the Carel du Toit School for the Hearing Impaired in Tygerberg, South Africa, who needed implant surgery. "It put into perspective what life is all about—and it's not about all those putts I'm able to put away or miss at the crucial stages of an event, but life in general," he said.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:
T2—U.S. Open; T5—Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard, Zurich Classic of New Orleans.

2013-14 SEASON:
Enjoyed a banner year on the PGA TOUR, claiming three top-10 finishes—including a T2 at the U.S. Open—in 17 made cuts. For the second consecutive year, played well enough to keep his season going into the FedExCup Playoffs, where he competed in the first three events. Closed his season ranked 64th in the FedExCup standings after the BMW Championship...Finished T5 in his seventh start at the Arnold Palmer Invitational. His previous-best finish was T16 in 2013. In 92 career starts on the PGA TOUR, his only other top-10 came at the 2013 Honda Classic (T4)...Opened with a 6-under 66 at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans in April, which was National Donate Life Month. Ensuing rounds of 68-72-68 were good enough for a T5 with Robert Garrigus and Charley Hoffman. Spent the early part of the week in New Orleans visiting a hospital for transplant patients and conducting a Tuesday clinic to raise awareness about organ donation...Making his 100th PGA TOUR start, entered the final round of the U.S. Open T2, five strokes behind eventual champion Martin Kaymer. Final-round, 2-over 72 led to a T2 (topping his previous-best finish on TOUR, a T4 at the 2013 Honda Classic). The performance marked just his second major championship start, having missed the cut at the 2010 U.S. Open. With the finish, guaranteed his entry into the 2015 Masters (based on finishing in the top four) and the 2015 U.S. Open (based on top-10 finish).

PERSONAL:
Because of viral cardiomyopathy, he had first heart transplant in 1992 and took up the game of golf as part of his rehabilitation. Had second heart transplant in 2008 and five months later finished T60 at the Children's Miracle Network Classic on the PGA TOUR...With an American father and a Norwegian mother, he holds dual citizenship and has had his heart-transplant story told in the Norwegian media...Never travels without his blanket...Favorite movie is "Braveheart." Favorite pro team is the Miami Dolphins. Favorite vacation spot is Norway...Biggest thrill outside of golf is the birth of his daughter. Biggest thrill in golf is playing in the 2010 U.S. Open...Something on his bucket list is to win a PGA TOUR event...Is involved with the Transplant Foundation and Donate Life America...Received the 2012 Babe Didrikson Zaharias Courage Award from the U.S. Sports Academy in a presentation at Disney during the Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic...On Tuesday night of the 2013 Wells Fargo Championship, threw out the first pitch at a Charlotte Knights' game in promotion of his Donate Life America campaign to raise organ donation awareness. Gave numerous TV, radio and print interviews throughout the week at Quail Hollow as part of his promotional efforts. Was awarded the Golf Writers Association of America's Ben Hogan Award in 2009...Website is erikcompton.com.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—FedEx St. Jude Classic; T9—Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation.

2013-14 SEASON:

Ended a three-year winless drought in the summer with his fifth career PGA TOUR win. For the seventh consecutive season, earned a berth into the FedExCup Playoffs, making it through the first three events. Finished his season ranked 60th in the final FedExCup standings after the BMW Championship...In his 11th start at the Humana Challenge, posted an 8-under 64 in the second round on the Nicklaus Private Course en route to a T9 at PGA West with four others. Got off to a hot start in the round with birdies on six of his first nine holes...After opening with a 7-under 63 at the FedEx St. Jude Classic, never lost the lead en route to claiming his fifth career PGA TOUR title, by a stroke over Troy Merritt. A 5-under 65 in the second round to go along with the 63 (12-under 128) became the lowest 36-hole score at TPC Southwind since Justin Leonard's 13-under 127 in 2005. En route to his two-round total, needed exactly 12 putts on each of the four nine-hole stretches. With the win, he became the first player to win on the PGA TOUR without a birdie in the final round since Leonard at the 2005 FedEx St. Jude Classic. His fifth TOUR title came in his 300th career TOUR start. Despite the win the week before the U.S. Open, did not earn a berth into the field at Pinehurst, as he needed to have moved to 60th or better in the Official World Golf Ranking, which he did not do. Having to deal with numerous weather delays along with the rest of the field, he had more than 28 hours between the end of his second round and start of his third.

PERSONAL:

Takes a leading role with his wife, Heather, in support of Love146, an international group dedicated to eradicating the sexual exploitation of children in Thailand, Cambodia and the Philippines...Hosts "Day With the Pros" every year with Discovery Land Co., an endeavor which has raised more than $5 million for charity...He is the mastermind behind the "Golf Boys" video that he stars in along with Rickie Fowler, Hunter Mahan and Watson...Was age 5 when his grandfather taught him how to play golf...Doesn't like to know who he will be paired with, saying, "I looked up to a lot of these guys who I'm now playing with. So, I didn't want to have to go to sleep thinking about it. And so that's kind of been my routine. I never want to know who I'm playing with. Just tell me the time. In 2002, at the (HP) Byron Nelson (Championship) I played with Ernie Els in the final round, and it worked well because I watched Ernie play a lot of golf on TV. So we just kind of kept that routine going. I just never look and find out on the first tee."

2014 Brasil Champions Presented by HSBC.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:

T31—Shell Houston Open.

2013-14 SEASON:

Finished with 23 starts on Web.com Tour, a record-breaking win, a third, a fourth and seven top-25s, with eight cuts made... Experienced a strong start to his first year on the Web.com Tour, posting three top-four finishes and six T21s or better in his first nine appearances... In April, recorded a T31 at the Shell Houston Open on the PGA TOUR, playing on a sponsor exemption... In March, capped off a record week with a 2-under 69 on the final day of the Brasil Champions to complete a wire-to-wire win. Entered the final round with a four-stroke lead and maintained it with none of his pursuers mounting a threat. Held steady as several closed within two shots but sealed the victory, his first on Tour, with birdies at 13 and 18. Finished with a 25-under 259 total, matching the fifth-lowest score in Tour history. Collected a check for $144,000 and moved to No. 2 on the money list. Established the Sao Paulo GC course record with a 10-under 61 in the weather-delayed opening round. Was 4-under through 11 holes when play was halted. Returned to the course Friday morning and birdied his first six holes—giving him eight in a row—before closing with a two-putt par for a three-shot lead. His back-nine 28 matched the fifth lowest nine-hole score in Tour history. Second-round 64 was spread over two days and included eight consecutive birdies, one shy of the Tour mark set by Omar Uresti at the 1994 Shreveport Open. His two-day total of 125 also matched the second-best 36-hole score in Tour history, one off Kevin Chappell's 124 mark at the 2010 Ford Wayne Gretzky Classic. Led by three at the halfway point. Fired a 6-under 65 in the third round and upped his lead to four strokes. His 190 total also matched the lowest 54-hole score in Tour history... After opening with a pair of 68s at the BMW Charity Pro-Am in mid May, recorded five birdies in a row during a third-round 66. Added another 66 in the final round for a T3. Climbed to No. 4 on the money list... Two tournaments later, finished T4 at the Cleveland Open... A disappointing second half to the season included seven missed cuts in nine starts, with a T22 his best result... Officially secured his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card for the first time at the conclusion of the Regular Season in late August (12th on the money list).

2013-14 SEASON:

Season plagued by injuries, but still managed to make the cut in 14 of 15 starts. Recorded six top-10 finishes, led by his second PGA TOUR victory, winning the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship. Days before playing in the ISPS Handa World Cup, learned that eight of his relatives died in Typhoon Haiyan in the Philippines, including his grandmother, uncle and six cousins. Despite that sadness, elected to play and finished at 10-under to earn a two-shot win in the individual completion at Royal Melbourne GC in Australia in late-November. Also teamed with fellow Australian Adam Scott to shoot a combined 17-under par to win the team competition for Australia. The individual title came in a 60-player field from 34 countries, with 26 teams competing for the team title. The victory marked the fifth time Australia has won the World Cup's team competition, tying South Africa for second-most wins. His was the third individual title for an Australian player, and he joins Brett Ogle (1992) and Peter Fowler (1989). Won in his first appearance in the World Cup. The Australian team began the day with a one-stroke lead heading into the final round. It finished with a 10-stroke triumph. The last time the host country won the World Cup was in 1996 when the South African team of Ernie Els and Wayne Westner won the event in Cape Town. It was also the last time a player from the host country won the individual competition. Next start led to a T6 at the Australian Open, a distant 10 strokes behind champion Rory McIlroy. Back in the U.S., finished T10 with Jim Furyk at the Northwestern Mutual World Challenge in his third consecutive start at Sherwood CC. Finished in a five-way T2 at the Farmers Insurance Open, one shot behind Scott Stallings' winning score of 9-under 279. In his fourth consecutive start at the Accenture Match Play Championship, and fifth in a World Golf Championships event, bettered France's Victor Dubuisson with a par on the 23rd hole in the championship match at The GC at Dove Mountain. The win, his first in a World Golf Championships event, came on the heels of a third-place finish in Marana, Ariz., in 2013. In the final match, repeated all six birdies from his semifinal match earlier in the day on hole Nos. 1, 2, 7, 8, 11 and 15. Two-up with two to play, was beaten with a birdie and par by Dubuisson on Nos. 17 and 18, respectively, to force the extra holes. It was the first time in event history that the championship match required extra holes to produce a winner. At 26 years, 3 months, 11 days, became the youngest winner of the Accenture Match Play Championship, a distinction previously held by Tiger Woods (27 years, 2 months, 2 days in 2003). With the victory, also became just the second Australian winner of the event, joining Geoff Ogilvy (2006 and 2009). Two weeks later, was forced to withdraw prior to the first round of the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship due to a left-thumb injury suffered during his win at the Match Play Championship. With the exception of a T20 at the Masters Tournament, did not play on TOUR again until a T37 at the Memorial Tournament. Two weeks later, posted rounds of 73-68-72-68 to T4 at the U.S. Open, finishing 10 strokes behind champion Martin Kaymer. It marked his fifth top-five finish in a major championship (second at the 2011 U.S. Open, T2 at the 2013 U.S. Open, T2 at the 2011 Masters and third at the 2013 Masters). In the first FedExCup Playoffs tournament, The Barclays, took a share of the 54-hole lead with Furyk into the final round, but proved no match for Hunter Mahan on Sunday. His 3-under 68 came up two strokes shy of Mahan's winning total of 14-under 270. Followed a bogey-free, 7-under 64 in the second round with back-to-back 68s on the weekend to claim his sixth top-10 finish in a Playoffs' event. Opened with three rounds in the 60s at the Deutsche Bank Championship and entered the final round trailing Russell Henley by two strokes. Unable to mount a final-round charge, carding an even-par 71 to finish T7 Monday, five strokes behind champion Chris Kirk. Following a forced withdrawal from the BMW Championship with a back injury, finished T4 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola to finish No. 10 in the FedExCup (second only to his eighth place finish in 2010). Was four strokes behind champion Billy Horschel in what was the fourth time in the last five years he has advanced to East Lake.

PERSONAL:

Got his start in golf from his dad, who died when Jason was 12. Was encouraged to attend a golf academy in Australia by his coach, Col Swatton, where he borrowed a Tiger Woods book from his roommate and gained inspiration from reading it.

2013-14 SEASON:

By own standards had an off year, with 13 of 17 made cuts and just three top-10s. Ended season at the second FedExCup Playoffs event near Boston after missing the cut at The Barclays and finishing T57 at the Deutsche Bank Championship. Ended a streak of advancing to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola each season since 2009...After opening with a 1-over 73 at the DP World

Tour Championship, the European Tour's season finale in November 2013, peeled off rounds of 66-67-67 to T5 with Rory McIlroy and Lee Westwood in Dubai...Shot a final round, 5-under 66 to defend his title at the Dunlop Phoenix on the Japan Golf Tour in late-November 2013. Entered the final round with a two-stroke lead at Phoenix CC. Finished at 14-under 270 to defeat Kim Hyung-sung of South Korea by six shots...The 2006 Honda Classic champion and 2008 runner-up returned to PGA National in late February, where he opened with rounds of 67-68-68. A 2-over 72 in the final round sidetracked his bid for a second title, putting him in a T8 with Sergio Garcia, Stuart Appleby and David Lingmerth...Two years after winning the Valspar Championship on the first hole of sudden death, returned to Innisbrook Resort & GC and nearly claimed a second title at the Copperhead Course. The T4 finish was his fourth consecutive top-10 in the event. He finished sixth in 2010, won in 2012 and claimed fourth-place honors last year...With rounds of 70-69-66, entered the final round of the RBC Heritage with a two-stroke lead over John Huh. His final-round, 2-under 69 left him one stroke behind fellow RBC Ambassador Matt Kuchar. The runner-up finish was the 13th of his career, with three coming at Harbour Town. His last six starts at the RBC Heritage, beginning in 2009, led to T2, T3, second, T37, T3 and another second-place finish. In the nine occasions that he has held/shared the 54-hole lead, has won twice (2002 Sanderson Farms Championship and the 2006 Honda Classic), finished second six times and third once...At the European Tour's BMW PGA Championship, struggled early in the final round, with a bogey and a triple bogey in his first six holes. Rebounded nicely after that with five birdies over his final 12 holes but had to settle for a T3 with 54-hole leader Thomas Bjorn, two strokes behind McIlroy's 14-under winning total.

PERSONAL:

Earned degree in art theory and practice at Northwestern University. Donated one of his paintings to a PGATOUR.COM auction, and the winning bid was $1,640, which was split between PGA TOUR Charities and junior golf charity in Chicago...Is involved with The First Tee of Chicago and the Ronald McDonald House of Chicago.

2013-14 SEASON:

Made nine of 12 PGA TOUR cuts, with two top-10s as a non-member. Earned enough non-member FedExCup points during the season to achieve Special Temporary Membership, which allowed him to make a career-high 12 starts on TOUR. Parlayed that into a top-125 finish on the non-member FedExCup points/money list to earn his TOUR card for the 2014-15 season...At the Nedbank Golf Challenge in Sun City, South Africa, opened 67-66-67 but could only muster a 2-under 70 on the final day that saw him drop into a T2 with Sergio Garcia, two strokes behind winner Thomas Bjorn...Finished T2, one stroke behind Patrick Reed at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship to top his previous-best PGA TOUR finish (T7 at the 2012 PGA Championship). It was also his best performance in a World Golf Championships event, bettering his T8 at the HSBC Champions in November 2013. Earned 258 points on the FedExCup Season points' list for non-members, moving him to 378 points for the season. By surpassing the total number of FedExCup points of the player who finished No. 150 (278 points) on the 2013 points' list, he became eligible to accept Special Temporary Membership on the PGA TOUR, which he did two days after the event...Represented Europe in the inaugural Eurasia Cup in March in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Made a bogey on his final hole of the second round then played bogey-free on the weekend, recording 10 birdies and an eagle on his way to the T5...Was in contention down the stretch at the European Tour's Alstom Open de France in early July. Hopes of winning the event ended with a double bogey-5 at the par-3 16th hole at Le Golf National. Final-round, 2-under 69 led to a T5 finish with Mathew Baldwin, three shots behind winner Graeme McDowell...Won a European Tour title for a third consecutive year when he cruised to victory in August at the Czech Masters in Prague. At the Albatross Golf Resort, trailed 54-hole leader Bradley Dredge by two shots with a round to play. Started quickly on the final day, making three consecutive birdies to start his final round. Made the turn in 3-under then added birdies on the 10th and 12th holes. Even when he bogeyed the 71st hole, his closest pursuers, Dredge and Merrick Bremner did as well. Finished two shots ahead of Dredge and three in front of Bremner and Soren Kjeldsen. The victory locked up a position on the European Ryder Cup team...A week later, had four rounds in the 60s at the Omega European Masters to finish seventh at Crans-sur-Sierre GC in Switzerland...In mid-September, opened with a 1-under 70 at the ISPS Handa Wales Open then reeled off rounds of 67-68-67 to finish at 12-under with four others, two shots behind winner Joost Luiten at Celtic Manor...At the Ryder Cup at Gleneagles in Scotland, went 3-1-0 in his debut to help lead the Europeans to a five-point victory in the biennial event. T15—Shriners Hospitals for Children Open; T16—Hyundai Tournament of Champions.

2013-14 SEASON:

Finished No. 157 on the FedExCup points list, marking just the second time (2009) in the FedExCup era he failed to advance to the FedExCup Playoffs as a member. Made the cut in 16 of 25 starts. Tallied two top-25 finishes, coming in his first three starts of the season (T15 at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open and T16 at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions)...Honored by the Golf Writers

Association of America with the Ben Hogan Award presented by ISPS Handa for remaining active in golf despite a physical handicap or serious illness (scoliosis).

PERSONAL:

As a seventh-grader, was diagnosed with scoliosis. The Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock, Ark., determined he had a 26-percent curvature of the spine and advised him to wear a back brace 23 hours a day. Two years later, with the curvature reaching 51 percent, he underwent surgery. Without the procedure, the pressure on his lungs and heart might have become life-threatening. Surgeons attached a 16-inch metal rod to his spine to facilitate straightening. Remarkably, just months later he returned to his high school golf team—and playing in a back brace—won medalist honors at a district tournament. In 2009, the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences established The Ken Duke Endowed Chair in Scoliosis. 2014 Stonebrae Classic.

CURRENT YEAR HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished the Web.com Tour season with 23 starts, which resulted in a win, two T4s, a fifth-place finish, 14 top-25s and only four missed cuts. First Tour top-10 came in May in Raleigh, N.C. Was four strokes back after 54 holes at the Rex Hospital Open. Fired a final-round 67 for a T4. In late June, opened the United Leasing Championship with a 71. Made back-to-back eagles, including the 500th hole-in-one in Web.com Tour history (11th hole), in the second round en route to a 64. Held the 36-hole lead but fell to T5 after 72-74 on the weekend. Two weeks later, made his 11th consecutive cut and contended all week as the hometown favorite at the Utah Championship. Enjoyed four rounds in the 60s at Willow Creek CC in the Salt Lake City suburb of Sandy to finish solo fifth, playing about 15 miles from his boyhood home. Collected his first career title with a convincing three-stroke win at the Stonebrae Classic in early August. Held a one-shot lead after 54 holes, thanks to middle rounds of 62-63. Kept his challengers at bay during the fog-delayed final round at TPC Stonebrae. A birdie at No. 15 increased his lead to two. He closed with three consecutive pars to pick up the title. Winner's check of $108,000 vaulted him from No. 24 to No. 8 on the money list with only three weeks left in the Regular Season. Winning score of 258 matched the second-lowest 72-hole score in Tour history. Finished with a tournament-record 22-under total, three better than Fabian Gomez, Zack Sucher and fellow rookie Daniel Berger. Became the 13th first-time winner in the Tour's first 18 events of the season. Recorded a T11 the next week in Springfield, Mo. Then officially secured his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card for the first time at the conclusion of the Regular Season in late August at the WinCo Foods Portland Open as No. 8 on the money list. After T19 and T46 finishes to open the Web.com Tour Finals in Fort Wayne, Ind. and Charlotte, N.C., respectively, was in contention the following week at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship. Opened with a first-round 66 and followed with 72-72-71 to finish T6 at Ohio State University GC's Scarlet Course. Completed his season with a T14 at the Web.com Tour Championship, closing with a 66.

2013-14 SEASON:

Made the cut in 19 of 26 starts during the campaign, recording career-best totals in top-10 (10) and top-25 (14) finishes. Season highlighted by four top-five finishes in the four major championships, becoming the first player to perform the feat since Tiger Woods in 2005. Earned a berth on the U.S. Ryder Cup team for the second time (2010)...Had a strong showing at the Australian PGA Championship in early November 2013 along Australia's Gold Coast. Opened with an 8-under 63 to take the first-round lead. Followed with rounds of 72-71-68 to finish four shots behind winner Adam Scott...Following a second-round, 6-under 66, offset four bogeys with six birdies in the final round of the Thailand Golf Championship in mid-December to post a 2-under 70 and claim a T8 with Thailand's Chapchai Nirat...In his fourth consecutive start at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship, fought his way to the semifinals Sunday morning against Ernie Els. Got off to a hot start, leading for seven of the first nine holes. With a shift of momentum, Els battled back and won three consecutive holes (Nos. 10-12) to gain a 2-up lead. Following an eagle and par on Nos. 13 and 14, he squared up the match. An Els birdie-3 at No. 18 sent the match to extra holes. A birdie-3 at the 19th hole (No. 1) gave him the upset win over Els...In his third start at the Shell Houston Open, was one of four players to post four sub-par rounds at the GC of Houston. Scores of 70-70-68-71 were good for sixth place. In his two previous starts in the event (2010 and 2012) had not been able to post a weekend score better than 74...Finished T5 in his fourth start at the Masters, with rounds of 71-75-67-73. Was two shots off the lead entering the final round...Playing alongside eventual champion Martin Kaymer in the final pairing Sunday, followed up his career-best round (3-under 67) in a U.S. Open with a final-round, 2-over 72 to remain T2 (the sixth runner-up finish of his career). It was his best performance in six U.S. Open starts (previous-best finish was a T10 in 2013). It was also his top major championship showing among his 18 starts (previous-best finishes were T5s at the 2011 Open Championship and the 2014 Masters). His pairing with the 29-year-old Kaymer was just the third final grouping at the U.S. Open since 1965 with two players in their 20s. The others were John Mahaffey (28) and Jerry Pate (22) in 1976 and Woods (26) and Sergio Garcia (22) in 2002...Overcame a double bogey and two bogeys to still shoot a 6-under 65 (10 birdies) at the Scottish Open in mid-July. Finished T8 with two others...Playing in the final group Sunday for the second straight time in a major championship, made a solid bid for the title, at The Open Championship, with a final-round, 5-under 67. Along with Garcia, finished second to Rory McIlroy by two strokes. With his finish at Royal Liverpool GC, became the only player of the season to claim top-five finishes in the year's first three major championships. He also became the first player to claim top-10 finishes in a season's first three majors since Woods achieved the feat in 2005. His T2 at Royal Liverpool supplanted his previous-best Open Championship finish (in four starts) of T5 in 2011. Rounds of 69-69-68-67 made him the only player in the field to post all four rounds in the 60s...Finished T8 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational for his second top 10 in five starts at Firestone CC...Finished T3 and two strokes behind McIlroy at the PGA Championship in his 20th major championship start, with T19 in 2013 the previous-best finish in four prior PGA Championship starts. Became the first to claim top-five finishes in all four majors since Woods in 2005. Since 1934, is just the third player to perform the feat, joining Woods in 2000 and 2005 and Jack Nicklaus in 1971 and 1973. Played all four majors in 32-under, with McIlroy second on the list, at 27-under...Overcame a 2-over 73 in the second round of The Barclays with back-to-back 67s on the weekend to claim a T9 at 9-under 275, five back of winner Hunter Mahan. The top-10 finish at Ridgewood CC moved him to No. 9 in the FedExCup standings heading into the following week's Deutsche Bank Championship...Finished T4 at the BMW Championship, with rounds of 71-66-66-68 at Cherry Hills CC outside Denver...Was eighth the following week at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, six strokes behind Billy Horschel, to finish a career-best ninth in the FedExCup...At the Ryder Cup at Gleneagles in Scotland, went 0-2-3 in his five matches in the European victory in the biennial event in Scotland.

2013-14 SEASON:

One of the most consistent players during the season, making the cut in all 21 starts and finishing inside the top 10 on 11 occasions. Season highlighted by a berth on the U.S. Ryder Cup team and four runner-up finishes (Wells Fargo Championship, THE PLAYERS Championship, RBC Canadian Open, and TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola)...In his 11th start at the Northwestern Mutual World Challenge—and seventh consecutive—the 2009 champion finished eighth at Sherwood CC outside Los Angeles...In March, claimed a second consecutive top-10 finish at the Valero Texas Open. A year after his T3 finish at TPC San Antonio, claimed a T6 with three others. Prior to 2013, his only other start in the event was 1994 (T15)...Shared the second-round lead at the RBC Heritage at 5-under 137 and followed with rounds of 71-70 to finish T7 and five strokes behind fellow RBC Ambassador Matt Kuchar. Also shared the second-round lead at the RBC Heritage, going on to win in 2010 and finish second in 2006...The 2006 Wells Fargo Championship winner made a furious, final-round charge in his attempt to become the first multiple winner of the event, carding the round of the day with a 7-under 65. Went out with a 3-under 33 and then went birdie-birdie-eagle (2-3-3) on Nos. 13-15, eventually finishing one shot behind J.B. Holmes. The runner-up finish (the first since the 2013 PGA Championship) was the 26th of his career to go with 16 wins. Played his final 32 holes without a bogey and would have become the first Wells Fargo Championship winner to post a bogey-free final round. His runner-up finish marked the sixth top-15 in 10 starts at the Wells Fargo Championship (won in 2006, T2 in 2005, seventh in 2008, T7 in 2010 and T11 in 2009)...The next week, at THE PLAYERS Championship, began the final round six strokes behind the leaders but made another Sunday charge and again waited to see what the leaders would do. It marked the seventh time in the eight seasons of the FedExCup era that he has advanced to East Lake GC. Trained eventual winner Billy Horschel by just one stroke with two holes to play but bogeyed the last two holes to finish three back and tied for second with Rory McIlroy (the 29th runner-up effort of his career). Finished the season as the highest-ranked player (No. 4) in the FedExCup without a victory. With four rounds in the 60s in Atlanta, moved ahead of Stricker for the most rounds in the 60s in FedExCup Playoffs history (64-62). Also upped his par-or-better total to 97 in the FedExCup Playoffs, with Mickelson a distant second with 82 such rounds... At the Ryder Cup at Gleneagles in Scotland, went 1-3-0 in his four matches in the European victory in the biennial event in Scotland.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:

T6—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship.

2013-14 SEASON:

Played in 12 PGA TOUR events, with his top finish coming in March in Miami. Thanks, in part, to a 3-under 69 in the final round at the Cadillac Championship, finished T6 for his first top-10 finish in seven World Golf Championships starts... Only other top-20 was a T15 at The Open Championship... During his European Tour campaign, successfully defended his Omega Dubai Desert Classic title, doing so in record-setting fashion. In the third round, after shooting an even-par 35 on the front nine at Emirates GC went bogey-free on the final nine of the day, recorded seven birdies and an eagle on his way to a 9-under 28. Held a two-shot, 54-hole lead over Rory McIlroy. Stumbled early as he began his final round with back-to-back bogeys, shooting a 4-over 39 on the front nine. Righted his play for a second consecutive day on the back nine, with a four-birdie, five-par performance to hold off Emiliano Grillo by a stroke. The victory was his third on the European Tour... Had a nice weekend at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship to T8. Opened 70-73 but recovered with a 68-69 weekend (7-under)... Represented Europe in the inaugural Eurasia Cup in March in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. In the event's 10-10 draw, went 1-1-1 in his three matches... Never really threatened on the final day of the European Tour's BMW PGA Championship but did shoot a bogey-free, 6-under 66 at the Wentworth Club to move into a T5 with Simon Dyson... Appeared poised to pick up his second title of the season when he shot weekend rounds of 65-68 at the Nordea Masters in Sweden. His 16-under total was enough to get him into a playoff with Thongchai Jaidee and Victor Dubuisson. On the first extra hole, could only match Dubuisson's par, while Jaidee won the event at PGA Sweden National with a birdie-4 on the par-5 18th hole... Finished T4 in mid-July at the Scottish Open. Shot a final-round 63 (nine birdies, one bogey) to move up 26 places on the leaderboard... Was only two shots off the pace at the 36-hole mark of the Czech Masters in late-August in Prague. Was even-par on the weekend at Albatross Golf Resort (71-73) to finish T7 with Sam Walker... Opened with an even-par 72 at the Italian Open in late-August then peeled off rounds of 65-69-65 to finish at 17-under and in solo third, three shots behind winner Hennie Otto in Torino... In his Ryder Cup debut, at Gleneagles in Scotland, went 0-2-0 during the European team's five-point victory over the U.S. in the biennial competition.

PERSONAL:

His uncle is European Tour veteran and Ryder Cup hero Bernard Gallacher... Has used acupuncturist and also Scottish Rugby Union trainer Ray McKinnon to help regain full fitness.

2013-14 SEASON:

Season of near misses, including three consecutive runner-up finishes (Travelers Championship, The Open Championship and the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational), as well as third-place efforts at the Shell Houston Open and THE PLAYERS Championship... Aided by a final-round 63, finished solo fourth at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions at Sheshan International GC in Shanghai, China... Was T2 at the Nedbank Golf Challenge on the European Tour in South Africa. Finished two shots off Thomas Bjorn's winning score of 20-under at Gary Player CC... In December, claimed his fourth Asian Tour title, in Chonburi, Thailand, at the Thailand Golf Championship. With girlfriend, Katharina Boehm, as his caddie for the week, a 4-under 68 was good for a 22-under 266 and a four-stroke win over 2013 FedExCup champion Henrik Stenson... In late-January, began the final round of the Commercial Bank Qatar Masters three strokes behind leader Rafael Cabrera-Bello and then toured Doha GC in 65 strokes in the final round to finish regulation tied with Mikko Ilonen. He looked like he would win after 72 holes, but he missed his birdie attempt on the 18th hole, and Ilonen birdied the 16th and 18th holes to force the overtime. The duo matched each other on the first two playoff holes, both making two birdies on the 18th hole. They returned to the 18th hole for the third extra hole, and he made a third consecutive birdie on the par-5 hole to Ilonen's par. It was sweet redemption as he T2 at the event a year ago when Chris Wood made a late eagle to secure the win... Back Stateside in February, finished T9 at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship in his 12th start in the event... A week later in Florida, overcame an opening-round, 2-over 72 at The Honda Classic with rounds of 68-68-67 to T8 with Luke Donald, Stuart Appleby and David Lingmerth. His final-round, 3-under 67 tied the low round of the day and was one of just 17 (of 70) sub-70 scores on a wind-blown Sunday at PGA National... In April, followed an opening-round, 5-under 67 with five birdies and an eagle en route to a second-round 65 at the Shell

Houston Open. It was his second start in the event to go with his 2009 appearance. His final-round, 2-under 70 was good for third... The 2008 PLAYERS champion returned to TPC Sawgrass, where four sub-par rounds (67-71-69-70) earned him a third-place finish, two back of Martin Kaymer. Made an 8-foot, 1-inch birdie putt on the 72nd hole, one of just 14 there during the week, to move into his finishing spot... Finished T2 at the Travelers Championship for his first top-10 in three starts outside Hartford. Played in the second-to-last group and had a 25-foot birdie putt on No. 18 to force a playoff with eventual champion Kevin Streelman who was already in the clubhouse at 15-under... Made a valiant effort in the final round to catch a distant Rory McIlroy at The Open Championship. Birdied two of his last three holes Sunday en route to a 6-under 66 to finish two strokes back of McIlroy at Royal Liverpool GC. His 66 was one stroke off the low round of the tournament. The T2 with Rickie Fowler was his eighth top-10 finish in 18 starts in The Open Championship. Of those, three have been top fives. The top-10 finish was also his seventh of the season on the PGA TOUR in just his 11th start... Finished second at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational after holding a three-shot lead after the second and third rounds. Shot a 1-over 71 in the final round to lose by two shots to McIlroy. Recorded his second top-10 in his 14th Bridgestone Invitational start. His only previous top-10 came in his first start in 1999 (T7). Was trying to become the first Spaniard to win a World Golf Championships event in his 42nd World Golf Championships' start. First time in 14 starts at the Bridgestone Invitational that he shot three rounds in the 60s. This was his fourth time carrying a three-or-more-shot lead into the final round of a TOUR event, finishing runner-up each time. Fired a 61 in the second round to match the tournament and course record at Firestone CC. His back-nine score of 27 set the tournament record, previously 29 on 2009 Web.com Tour Players Cup.

1994 Jamaican Open.

2013-14 SEASON:

Played in 17 Web.com Tour events, recording two T4s, a T7 and eight top-25s, while making the cut in all but two of his starts. ...Opened with 65-66 at the Brasil Champions in March. Scores of 68-69 on the weekend could not keep pace with the other leaders but did result in a T7 in his third start of the year. It was the first time since the PGA TOUR's Humana Challenge in January of 2013 he posted all four rounds in the 60s. It was his first top-10 since the 2009 Web.com Tour Championship. ...In April, fired 69-64 to open the WNB Golf Classic, leaving him one stroke behind leader Andrew Putnam. After a third-round 71 he would finish T4 in the tournament when winds forced cancellation of the fourth round in Midland. ...From May until the end of the Regular Season in August, missed just one cut, with his other finishes all between T22 and T41. ...Had a T4 at the Hotel Fitness Championship on the strength of a final-round 66 at the difficult Victoria National GC, moving him 14 spots up the leaderboard in the first of four Web.com Tour Finals' events. ...Another good finish came two weeks later, a T14 at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship, which gave him enough Finals' earnings to assure his 2014-15 card. ...Made the cut in all four Finals' events, posting T4 (Hotel Fitness Championship), T38, T14 and T21 finishes.

PERSONAL:

Avid Clemson Tiger sports fan...An avid reader, particularly mysteries and thrillers. Read four books during the week of his rainy 2009 U.S. Open victory...Credits his grandfather, Dick Hendley, for giving him his start in golf. Grandfather gave him a cut-down club when Lucas was 3 and first took him to the Masters at age 6. Hendley was a standout in football and baseball at Clemson, where he is a Hall of Fame member and played one season (1951) with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers. Lucas was inducted into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in the fall 2007...Grew a beard in the Fall of 2010, which took on a life of its own. Showcased the thick growth on TOUR in 2011, receiving such light-hearted comments as "Mountain Man," "Grizzly Adams" and "woolly mammoth." CBS analyst David Feherty referred to the look as something that belongs on "America's Deadliest Catch." Glover, himself, joked about the facial hair, claiming he did it to have something to clean his clubs with.

His earnings of $529,792 were the third-highest single-season total in Tour history...In February's season opener in Bogota, carded rounds of 69-71 on Thursday and Friday at the Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship. Jumped up the leaderboard with a 66 in the third round. When the final round was canceled due to bad weather, he would be credited with a T8 finish...Birdied four of the final six holes at the Chile Classic, including Nos. 17 and 18, to earn his first Tour title in early March. Held the 54-hole lead at 13 under at Prince of Wales CC in Santiago. Was in a final-round battle with several challengers, and at one point shared the lead with four others midway through the back nine. Was 14 under with two to play, telling his caddie on the 17th tee that no one would catch him if he birdied the last two holes. He proceed to roll in a 6-foot birdie putt on No. 17 to get to 15-under and into a tie with Alistair Presnell, who had canned an 18-foot eagle putt (his third eagle of the round) on the final hole to finish at 15-under 273. Hit driver, 4-iron on the par-5 18th and was pin high, leaving a challenging pitch which he hit to four feet. He canned the birdie putt for a 3-under 69 and a one-stroke victory, worth $117,000. Became the 13th Canadian-born player to win on the Web.com Tour and the first since Chris Baryla at the 2009 Chattanooga Classic. The win came in his 49th career Tour start...Fired 69-68 over the last two rounds at the El Bosque Mexico Championship, after opening with 73-71. The T3 was his third top-10 of the year...Got his fourth top-10 in early June at the Cleveland Open with a strong weekend (66-67), leading to a T8...In early July, opened the Nova Scotia Open with a 66. Struggled over the next 36 holes with rounds of 73-74. Was tied for 42nd after 54 holes but bounced back with a 65 the last day for a T7 finish...Officially secured his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card for the first time at the conclusion of the Regular Season in late August (fourth on the money list). Narrowly missed a 25-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to tie Carlos Ortiz and force a playoff at the WinCo Foods Portland Open. Jumped into contention with middle rounds of 65-63 before recording a 70 on Sunday. His check for $70,400 jumped him from No. 10 on the money list to No. 4 heading into the Web.com Tour Finals...Earned his second win of the season with a two-stroke victory at the Chiquita Classic, the second of four Finals' events. Jumped into the lead on the first day with a course-record, 9-under 63 that included six consecutive birdies starting on his back nine. Was three shots back after an even-par 72 on the second day at River Run CC and was only one off the pace after 54 holes. Birdied his first two holes in the final round and added another at No. 6 to take the lead for good. Offset a bogey at No. 8 with a birdie at No. 11, giving him a two-stroke lead over playing partner John Peterson. Maintained the lead the rest of the way and birdied No. 16 along with Peterson to preserve the win. Final-round 68 put him at 18-under par. Victory was worth $180,000 and moved him up two spots to No. 2 on the overall money list, behind three-time winner Carlos Ortiz, who took the week off. He became the year's only other multiple winner (Carlos Ortiz, with three wins)...Cruised to a T7 at the Web.com Tour Championship in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., in September to overtake Ortiz for the top spot on the Tour's money list. ## 2013-14 SEASON:

Sophomore season included his second TOUR victory, winning The Honda Classic. Made the cut 17 times (equaling his total from 2013) in 29 starts, with three top-10 finishes (also equaling his career-best total). ...After missing the cut in three of his four starts leading up to The Honda Classic, birdied the first extra hole at PGA National, No. 18, to claim his second career PGA TOUR victory, over Russell Knox, Ryan Palmer and 2012 Honda Classic champion Rory McIlroy. Opened the week with a 6-under 64 to trail McIlroy by a stroke. He began the final round two strokes off McIlroy's lead before a birdie at the par-5 72nd hole for a 2-over 72 earned him a spot in the playoff. His two-putt birdie after the quartet returned to No. 18 for sudden death was good for the win. The triumph made him just the third American winner of the event in the last 10 years, joining Mark Wilson (2007) and Michael Thompson (2013). It also made him the 14th of 15 Americans to win on the PGA TOUR to that point in the season. Australia's Jason Day won the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship the week before. Prior to beginning his winner's interview in the media center, made a phone call to his mom to "make sure my dad was alive and survived the drama." ...Three starts later, at the Shell Houston Open, overcame a 1-over 73 in the first round with a 6-under 66 in the final round to claim a T7 with four others, including McIlroy, one of the three players he beat in The Honda Classic playoff...Opened with rounds of 70-66-65 for a one-stroke lead over Billy Horschel after 54 holes of the Deutsche Bank Championship. Closed with a 1-under 70 Monday, including a 28-foot birdie on the final hole, to finish T2 with Geoff Ogilvy and Horschel, two strokes behind fellow former Georgia Bulldog Chris Kirk. Finish marked his third top-10 of the season and first since a T7 at the Shell Houston Open 15 starts prior...Finished T59 at the BMW Championship to advance to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the first time...At the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, went on to finish 12th at East Lake GC and No. 19 in the FedExCup.

For the first time since 2001, failed to finish inside the top 125 and retain fully exempt PGA TOUR status. His T32 showing at the Wyndham Championship, his last chance to move up in the standings, resulted in a 130th position in the FedExCup standings and a 143rd-place finish on the official money list. Collected four top-25s but also for the first time since joining the PGA TOUR in 2001 did not claim a top-10 finish...Opened with a career-best, 11-under 60 en route to a T15 finish at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open in October 2013. Closed his round with a 50-foot, 9-inch eagle-3 from the fringe on the par-5 ninth for a TPC Summerlin course record. It marked the 28th 60 in TOUR history. The round included a 7-under 28 on the front nine (his back nine after beginning the round on No. 10), which included the eagle on the ninth hole and birdies on Nos. 2, 4, 5, 6 and 8. Previous-best nine-hole PGA TOUR score was 29, set on three occasions and most recently at the 2009 Shriners Hospitals for Children Open (back nine in the second round)...Made the cut in 10 of his last 11 starts on TOUR but only had one finish better than T32, a T13 at the FedEx St. Jude Classic in June...Posted a T63 at the opening Web.com Tour Finals' event, Hotel Fitness Championship, in late-August...Missed the cut the next week at the Chiquita Classic...Improved his score each day at the third event, the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship, shooting 74-70-69-67 on the Ohio State University GC's Scarlet Course, leading to a solo-fifth performance and a check for $40,000 that assured he would return to the PGA TOUR in 2014-15.

2013-14 SEASON:

In one of the best closing stretches in PGA TOUR history, won the FedExCup with a furious rally that included a T2 at the Deutsche Bank Championship and victories at the BMW Championship and TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola...Began his year by making his Japan Golf Tour debut in November 2013. Shot a final-round 66 to T14 at the Dunlop Phoenix at the Phoenix CC...Another final-round 66, this time at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, tied champion Zach Johnson for low finishing round. His 66 was bogey-free and moved him to a T6 finish for his 12th career top-10 performance...With scores of 67-68-68-70, was one of just five players in the field to post all four rounds at par or better at the FedEx St. Jude Classic, resulting in a T6 with four others...Entered the Deutsche Bank Championship with only two top-10s during the season and in the 82nd position in the standings in danger of elimination from the FedExCup Playoffs. Finished T2 at TPC Boston to jump 62 spots to No. 20 to secure a spot in the BMW Championship, marking the second-largest move of the week behind only Geoff Ogilvy. Posted four consecutive rounds in the 60s in an event for the first time since the 2013 Waste Management Phoenix Open (T11). The runner-up finish, which came in his sixth start in a FedExCup Playoffs event, marked his second top-10 finish (T7 at the 2013 TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola) in the Playoffs...One day after a third-round, bogey-free, 7-under 63, carded a final-round 1-under 69 for a two-stroke victory over Bubba Watson at the BMW Championship at Cherry Hills CC outside Denver. Recorded his second TOUR victory (2013 Zurich Classic of New Orleans) in his 101st TOUR start at age 27 years, 9 months. Won his first FedExCup Playoffs event in seventh start. Only previous third-round lead came at the 2013 Valero Texas Open, where he finished T3. Moved from No. 20 to No. 2 in the FedExCup. A week earlier, he jumped from No. 82 to No. 20 in the standings. Made 146 feet worth of putts in the second round, followed by 139 feet of putts in the third round. Tiger Woods (2014 World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship) is the only other player in the last three years to make at least 139 feet worth of putts in back-to-back rounds (146 and 147 feet in the second and third rounds, respectively)...The stage was set for an epic battle during between him and Rory McIlroy in the final round of the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, marking the first time FedExCup history that the final pairing during the final round consisted of two players who were both inside the top five in the standings. With a victory by either guaranteeing the FedExCup, he carded a 2-under 68 for a three-stroke win over McIlroy and Jim Furyk, adding his name to the list of FedExCup winners. The victory came in his second career TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola start (T7 in 2013). Among the perks of winning were a $1,440,000 first-place check for winning the tournament, a $10 million bonus for winning the FedExCup and a five-year, PGA TOUR exemption. The win (the third of his career) came in his 102nd PGA TOUR start. At age 27 years, 9 months, 7 days, became the youngest FedExCup champion in history (previous youngest was Bill Haas in 2011; 29 years, 4 months and 1 day) and the fifth-youngest TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola winner in the 28-year history of the event. Became the seventh multiple winner of the season and the second to win back-to-back PGA TOUR events (McIlroy, at the 2014 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational and PGA Championship). Also became the fifth player to win consecutive FedExCup Playoffs events, joining McIlroy (2012), Camilo Villegas (2008), Vijay Singh (2008) and Woods (2007). Final-round 2-under 68 marked his 12th consecutive round in the 60s in the FedExCup Playoffs (the longest streak by any player in the eight-year history of the Playoffs) and the longest streak of the season on the PGA TOUR. With his second victory, trails only three-time winner Woods for most wins in the FedExCup Playoffs. Joined Woods (2007 and 2009) as the only players to win the BMW Championship and the FedExCup in the same season. During the FedExCup era (dating to 2007), became the fourth winner of the TOUR Championship to record all four rounds in the 60s. The others are Woods (2007), Haas (2011) and Stenson (2013).

4—Masters Tournament.

2013-14 SEASON:

Enjoyed another busy season, splitting time between the PGA TOUR and the European Tour while also making his

Champions Tour debut a successful one when he won April's Greater Gwinnett Championship in Georgia. After opening with a 7-under-par 65, followed with rounds of 70-67 to post a two-stroke victory over Bernhard Langer. Became the 18th Champions Tour player to win in his debut and was also the third player to win his debut in wire-to-wire fashion, joining Rod Funseth (1983 Hall of Fame Tournament) and Bruce Fleisher (1999 Royal Caribbean Classic) with that distinction. He became the second Spaniard to win on the Champions Tour (Jose Maria Canizares at the 2001 Toshiba Classic) and the first sponsor exemption since Phil Blackmar at the 2009 AT&T Championship. With Jeff Maggert winning the previous event in his first start, the pair became the first players to post back-to-back victories in their debut since Don January (1980 Atlantic City International) and Roberto De Vicenzo (1980 U.S. Senior Open)...Used a final-round 68 to move up into a T8 at the Senior Open Championship in Wales...Played in his 15th Masters Tournament one week prior to his Gwinnett Championship win and was on the leaderboard throughout the weekend before he finished fourth, his best showing in the event... Finished T10 at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship in mid-January... Was T13 at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship in March... Captained the European team to a tie with the Asian team at the inaugural Eurasia Cup in March in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Went 2-0-1 in his three matches while competing as a playing captain... Won for the second time when he hung on in a playoff to win the Open de Espana. Finished regulation in Girona, Spain, tied with Richard Green and Thomas Pieters. No player shot a round in the 60s in the final round at PGA Catalunya Resort, and his 3-over 73 was enough to get him into the extra session. Winning in his home country allowed him to break his own European Tour record as the circuit's oldest winner, a mark he set by winning the 2013 Hong Kong Open. It was his 14th European Tour title he's won since turning 40. It was his 21st victory overall on that circuit.

PERSONAL:

One of seven brothers, he took up golf at age 15 while picking up the balls at the range and caddying. Inspired by watching Seve Ballesteros, Sandy Lyle and Sam Torrance when he was caddying at the 1979 Spanish Open at Torrequebrada (Málaga). Nicknamed "The Mechanic" but enjoys driving cars as opposed to repairing them. Has an affinity for high-performance vehicles and owns a red Ferrari.

2013-14 SEASON:

Finished the season No. 30 in the FedExCup standings, highlighted by his win at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions. It marked the eighth consecutive season with a victory, the longest active streak on TOUR. In first start of the PGA TOUR Season, claimed his first World Golf Championships title, at the HSBC Champions. During the final World Golf Championships event of the year, brother Austin served as caddie at Sheshan International GC in Shanghai, China. Victory was eighth career PGA TOUR title, at age 29 years, 4 months, 12 days. Posted rounds of 69-64-65-66 to defeat defending champion Ian Poulter by three strokes. The 24-under-par 264 total broke the tournament record of 267 set one year earlier by Poulter. In the final round, chipped in for eagle on the par-4 16th hole and birdied No. 17, giving him a three-shot cushion, cruising to victory with a par-5 on the 72nd hole. Has won at least one tournament for seven consecutive seasons since joining the TOUR in 2008. Finished T6, five strokes behind champion Zach Johnson at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions in his attempt to join fairly recent repeat winners at event, including Geoff Ogilvy (2009-10) and Stuart Appleby (2004-06). Two-time AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am champion (2009 and 2010) finished T2 at the same event on the strength of a final-round 66. It was his third top-10 in three starts for the season. Finished second at the Northern Trust Open for his fourth top-10 in seven starts at the event. Finished two shots behind winner Bubba Watson. Held the first-round lead with a 66. A T4 finish at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship represented his second top-10 in six starts at the event (finished runner-up in 2011). Has five top-10s in six starts this season. Finished T7 (six strokes behind champion Brendon Todd) for his third top-10 in five starts at the HP Byron Nelson Championship (T4 in 2009 and T7 in 2010). Finished T14 at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial after holding a one-shot lead through 18 holes. Bogeys three of his last four holes en route to a 3-over 73 and a T4 finish at the U.S. Open. Finished inside the top 10 for just the second time in seven starts at the event (T8 in 2010). Week began with matching rounds of 1-under 69, marking the first time he has turned in back-to-back rounds in the 60s in seven U.S. Open starts. Took a leave of absence from professional golf starting with the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational in late-July 2014.

PERSONAL:

Grandfather Art Whisnant played basketball at South Carolina and was a three-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in the early 1960s. Younger brother Austin played guard for the Charleston Southern University basketball team. Can dunk a basketball and could palm a basketball as a seventh grader. In June of 2012, threw out the first pitch at the San Francisco Giants-Houston Astros game after hitting drives at AT&T Park into McCovey Cove in front of spectators. He hit a number of drives over 330 yards from home plate, including a 335-yard bomb that ended up being his longest of the day.

2013-14 SEASON:

Season highlighted by his win at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, the 11th win of his career. Made the cut in 24 (equaling career-high number from 2004 and 2012) of 26 starts, with five top-10 finishes...In his sixth start at the event—and fifth consecutive—won in dramatic style over tournament host Tiger Woods at the Northwestern Mutual World Challenge in December 2013 after beginning the final round two strokes back. Tied for the lead with playing partner Woods on the 72nd hole, hit his approach shot into the hazard. Holed a 58-yard wedge to save par for a 4-under 68 that forced sudden-death with Woods. Won with a par-4 on the first extra hole (No. 18). With the win, owns a first and two seconds in his six-year history at the event. Win also came in the last playing at Sherwood CC in California...Picked up his 11th career PGA TOUR victory, and the eighth in come-from-behind fashion, as he claimed the Hyundai Tournament of Champions by one stroke over Jordan Spieth. With wins at the 2009 Sony Open in Hawaii and the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, became the ninth player to win each of the PGA TOUR's Hawaii events at least once, joining Jim Furyk (1996 Sony; 2001 Tournament of Champions), Jack Nicklaus (1974 Sony; 1963-64, 1971, 1973, 1977 Tournament of Champions); Lee Trevino (1968 Sony; 1981 Tournament of Champions); Lanny Wadkins (1988, 1991 Sony; 1982-83 Tournament of Champions); Paul Azinger (1991 Sony; 1990 Tournament of Champions); Mark O'Meara (1985 Sony; 1996 Tournament of Champions); Ernie Els (2003-04 Sony; 2003 Tournament of Champions) and Vijay Singh (2005 Sony; 2007 Tournament of Champions). Won at age 37 years, 10 months, 13 days. Has claimed his 11 PGA TOUR titles in just four different states—Texas (four), Georgia (three), Illinois (two) and Hawaii (two)...Came back the following week and posted four rounds in the 60s to finish T8 at the Sony Open in Hawaii. Was attempting to join Ernie Els (2003) as only the second player to win the Sony Open in Hawaii and Hyundai Tournament of Champions back to back in the same season. Joined Matt Kuchar and Adam Scott as the only players with top-10 finishes in both Hawaii events...Finished T3 at the Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation after starting the final round 12 shots off the lead and tied for 15th. Shot up the leaderboard with a final-round 62 to finish three shots behind the winner...The 2008 and 2009 Valero Texas Open champion returned to San Antonio in March for his second start since the tournament's move to TPC San Antonio (missed the cut in 2010). Was one of four players to post all four rounds of par or better in the event, resulting in a T6 with three others...At the John Deere Classic, the 2012 champion and member of the tournament Board of Directors made a final-round charge at Brian Harman with a 7-under 64 but came up a stroke short. With the runner-up finish at TPC Deere Run, he continues a streak of finishing no worse than T3 since 2011 (T3 in 2011, won in 2012 and T2 in 2013). His 64 Sunday also extended his streak of consecutive rounds in the 60s at TPC Deere Run to 24 (105-under overall). Not since the final round, even-par 71 in 2008 has he posted a score in the 70s. His 8-under 63 in the first round bested his previous low of 64 at the event. His bogey-free 64 Sunday was his 11th bogey-free event at TPC Deere Run, a tournament record...Advanced to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the sixth time in eight seasons of the FedExCup era, finishing 21st at East Lake GC and No. 18 in the FedExCup standings...At the Ryder Cup at Gleneagles in Scotland, went 0-2-1 in his three matches in the European victory in the biennial event in Scotland.

PERSONAL:

Father is a chiropractor...Huge Drake University and University of Iowa sports fan...The gallery at BellSouth Classic at first TOUR victory included a group of about 10 men from Iowa who gave him financial support early in his career, buying a stake in Zach for $500 a share. Some were seeing him play as a pro for the first time. "It started out as a business, but it ended up as a business family," Johnson said of his relationship with them. "It's unbelievable having them here. They would buy a couple stock shares in me and just allow me to go out and not have to worry about the necessities of traveling week to week"...When heavy rains caused flooding in the Midwest in the summer of 2008, stepped up to help. Served as the spokesman on a public service announcement and held a one-day golf event in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, that raised $350,000. Was instrumental, along with Jerry Kelly, in starting the PGA TOUR Flood Relief effort, which donated approximately $125,000 to the cause...In July of 2010, announced formation of the Zach Johnson Foundation that will benefit children in need in the Greater Cedar Rapids area. The Foundation's premier event is the Zach Johnson Foundation Classic, a tournament that features PGA TOUR players as well as some of the game's future superstars. ## BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:

1—Shell Houston Open.

2013-14 SEASON:

Lone top-10 finish of the season was his first career PGA TOUR win at the Shell Houston Open. On the strength of the Texas playoff victory, made his way into the FedExCup Playoffs for a fourth time. Competed in the first three Playoffs events before finishing his season ranked 67th in the FedExCup standings after the BMW Championship... Opened with matching rounds of 4-under 68 and followed with matching rounds of even-par 72 to finish T6 at the Australian Open, 10 shots behind champion Rory McIlroy...

In April, became the second consecutive Australian to win on the PGA TOUR in as many weeks by capturing the Shell Houston Open. Posted a 15-under 273 in the second-to-last group Sunday, then watched as second- and third-round leader Matt Kuchar made bogey at the 72nd hole that got him into a sudden-death playoff. On the first extra hole (No. 18), chipped in from 42 feet for a birdie-3 that allowed him to claim his first career PGA TOUR title. The win also earned him the last win-and-you're in invitation to the following week's Masters Tournament. Not only was he the second Aussie to win in as many weeks but was the third in four weeks (John Senden at the Valspar Championship) and fourth of the season. Jason Day was the first, with his win at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship.

2013-14 SEASON:

Best season of his PGA TOUR career included wins at THE PLAYERS Championship and U.S. Open. One of seven multiple winners on the season, carrying those wins on to a career-best T16 finish in the FedExCup Playoffs. Earned a berth on the European Ryder Cup team for the third consecutive playing of the event. ...In first start of the PGA TOUR season, set the Sheshan International GC record with a 10-under-par 62 in the third round of the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions. Finished T8. ...Posted rounds of 63-69-72-71—275 to win THE PLAYERS Championship by one stroke over Jim Furyk and two strokes over Sergio Garcia. After tying the Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass course record with a first-round 63, held at least a share of the lead for all four rounds. Shared the 54-hole lead with Jordan Spieth and built a 3-stroke lead over the field through 14 holes. After a 93-minute weather delay, survived a double-bogey on the par-4 15th hole with dramatic up-and-down saves for par on the 71st and 72nd holes to secure his second TOUR victory at the age of 29 years, 4 months, 13 days in his 74th career start on the TOUR. The first-round 63 included a 7-under 29 on the front nine (his final nine holes after beginning the round on No. 10) to establish a new nine-hole scoring record at the event. The 29 on Nos. 1-9 included birdies on Nos. 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, 8 and 9. Climbed to No. 18 in the FedExCup standings and No. 28 in the Official World Golf Ranking with the victory. Became the fourth European player to win THE PLAYERS, joining Scotland's Sandy Lyle (1987), Spain's Garcia (2008) and Sweden's Henrik Stenson (2009). One of only four players to have a victory at THE PLAYERS (2014), a World Golf Championships event (2011 HSBC Champions) and a major (2010 PGA Championship), along with Tiger Woods, Phil Mickelson and Adam Scott. ...Followed his win at THE PLAYERS with a T29 at the HP Byron Nelson Championship, but did not play the TOUR again until a dominating performance at the U.S. Open at Pinehurst's No. 2, winning his third TOUR title and second major championship. Became the seventh player (eight times) to win the U.S. Open in wire-to-wire fashion (no ties), joining Walter Hagen (1914), James Barnes (1921), Ben Hogan (1953), Tony Jacklin (1970), Woods (2000 and 2002) and Rory McIlroy (2011). Jumped out of the gate with matching rounds of 65-65 to become the first player in major championship history to open with two rounds of 65 or better. Personal-best, 10-under 130 marked the lowest 36-hole score in U.S. Open history (topping McIlroy's 131 in 2011) and equaled the lowest in a major (Brandt Snedeker in 2012 and Nick Faldo in 1992 at The Open Championship). Held a six-stroke, 36-hole lead, tying Woods (2000) and McIlroy (2011) for largest lead at the halfway point. Despite a third-round, 2-over 72, still marked the third-lowest 54-hole score in U.S. Open history and led to a comfortable five-stroke lead. Added a final-round, 1-under 69, finishing at 9-under for an eight-stroke triumph over Rickie Fowler and Erik Compton, the fourth largest-winning margin in Open history). It marked the second-lowest score in U.S. Open history (McIlroy's 268 in 2011). During the week, became just the sixth player in U.S.

2011 Viking Classic. 2014 The McGladrey Classic, Deutsche Bank Championship.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (2):

2010 Fort Smith Classic, Knoxville News Sentinel Open.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—The McGladrey Classic, Deutsche Bank Championship; 2—Sony Open in Hawaii; T4—the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide Insurance, TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.

2013-14 SEASON:

One of seven multiple winners on the season, winning The McGladrey Classic and Deutsche Bank Championship. Advanced to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the first time, finishing T4 at East Lake GC and No. 2 in the FedExCup...The former Sea Island resident claimed his second PGA TOUR victory (2011 Sanderson Farms Championship), taking The McGladrey Classic by one stroke over Tim Clark and Briny Baird. Jumped out to the second-round lead following a second-consecutive 4-under 66. Shared the 54-hole lead with Baird, who he later shared the lead with heading into the 72nd hole of the tournament. With Baird struggling to a bogey, a two-putt from 28 feet, 7 inches led to the victory for the local favorite, which helped him jump to No. 4 in the FedExCup standings. The victory came in his 91st TOUR start at age 28 years, 6 months, 2 days, extending his TOUR membership through the 2015-16 season. Became the first player in his 20s to win the event...With rounds of 64-69-65, entered the final round of the Sony Open in Hawaii with a one-stroke lead over Will Wilcox and fellow Georgia Bulldog Harris English. Turned in a solid, 4-under 66 in the final round but it was no match for champion Jimmy Walker's 7-under 63. It was his second-consecutive top-10 at Waialae CC (T5 in 2013)...Finished T4 to record his first top-10 in four starts at the Memorial Tournament, with rounds of 66-70-74-68... Entered the final round of the Deutsche Bank Championship trailing fellow former Georgia Bulldog Russell Henley by two strokes. Closed with a 5-under 66 for a two-stroke win over Henley, Geoff Ogilvy and Billy Horschel for his third-career PGA TOUR victory and second of the season (The McGladrey Classic). Final two rounds included 12 birdies and no bogeys while playing alongside World No. 1 Rory McIlroy. With the win, moved from No. 17 into the top spot in the FedExCup rankings heading into the BMW Championship. Secured a spot in the season-ending TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Began the week with a 2-over 73 (marking the highest opening round by an eventual winner in the 12-year history of the event) but closed with rounds of 66-64-66 for the victory, which including playing the last 37 holes in 14-under with no bogeys. It marked his first top-10 finish in 11 FedExCup Playoffs starts. With the victory, became the sixth multiple winner of the 2013-2014 PGA TOUR Season, joining Rory McIlroy (three), Jimmy Walker (three), Patrick Reed (two), Martin Kaymer (two) and Bubba Watson (two). In addition, claimed the eighth win of the season by a former University of Georgia player. The others are Watson (two), Henley, English, Brendon Todd and Brian Harman. Became the first player to win a Playoffs event in his 20s since McIlroy won the 2012 BMW Championship (23 years, 4 months, 5 days). Became the eighth player in Deutsche Bank history (12 years) to come from behind starting the final round and win...Finished T36 at the BMW Championship, good enough to carry the top ranking into the season-ending TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Would have won the FedExCup with a victory at East Lake. Made a valiant effort in Atlanta, carding rounds of 66-68-71-68 to finish T4, four strokes behind champion Billy Horschel in the season finale. Was seeking to join Henrik Stenson (2013) and Vijay Singh (2008) as players to win the Deutsche Bank Championship and FedExCup in the same season.

PERSONAL:

Loves to spend time at the beach. Lists winning the 2005 national championship as his biggest thrill in golf. Biggest thrill outside of golf was getting married...Favorite golf course played is Royal County Down. Would most like to play Cypress Point GL...Favorite professional team is the Atlanta Braves. Favorite movie is "Troy" and favorite entertainer is Jack White. Favorite book is The Broker by John Grisham...Other favorites include lasagna and Roger Federer. Would round out his dream foursome with his dad and two brothers, preferably at Augusta National. Bucket list includes learning to be a good pianist, skydiving and bungee jumping...In 2012, after wife, Tahnee, gave birth to their first child, he Tweeted the day as being "the coolest day of my life...just unbelievable."

2013-14 SEASON:

Season highlighted by his third consecutive berth on the U.S. Ryder Cup team. Another consistent season with 22 made cuts in 24 starts, including his seventh Tour win, equaling his career-best total from 2010 for top-10 finishes (11)... The Sea Island, Ga., resident began his season posting all four rounds in the 60s to finish T7 in his first start of the season and third start at The McGladrey Classic (T25 in 2010 and T20 in 2011). Including a 4-under 66 Sunday, has yet to record an over-par round at the event. Increased his TOUR-leading streak of made cuts to 28, with his last miss coming at the 2012 PGA Championship. Since missing the cut at the 2010 PLAYERS Championship, has made 78 of 81 cuts through The McGladrey Classic... The following week, traveled to Australia to play in the Talisker Masters at Royal Melbourne GC. Opened with an even-par 71 then shot rounds of 66-67-68 to finish solo second, two strokes behind winner Adam Scott... Finished fourth at the ISPS Handa World Cup as an individual and teamed with Kevin Streelman to finish second in the team competition representing the U.S. at Royal Melbourne GC in Australia... Back in the U.S., posted a final-round, 5-under 67 at Sherwood CC to finish T3 with Bubba Watson at the Northwestern Mutual World Challenge. Overcame a 4-over 76 in the third round to rally Sunday with the day's low round... One week later, teamed with Harris English to claim the Franklin Templeton Shootout by a record seven strokes over Ian Poulter and Freddie Jacobson. Their 54-hole total of 34-under-par 182 tied the tournament record set in 1990 by Fred Couples and Raymond Floyd... Captured first top-10 of the season with his T6 finish at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions. Tied with two other players for most birdies during the week, with 23... Along with Zach Johnson and Adam Scott, one of three players to record top-10 finishes at both Hawaii events, finishing T8 at the Sony Open in Hawaii. It was his third-consecutive top-10 Sony Open at Hawaii performance (T5 in 2011 and 2013) and fourth overall... Next top-10 came at the Valero Texas Open, thanks largely to a 7-under 65 in the third round at TPC San Antonio

AT&T Oaks Course. As did most of the field on a windy Sunday, was unable to break par in the final round, posting a 3-over 75, good for a T4 with rookie Andrew Loupe... A week later, and still in Texas, held the second- and third-round leads at the Shell Houston Open, and needed only to par the 72nd hole to claim victory. After pulling his second shot at the GC of Houston's daunting par-4 18th into the water, managed to get up and down for bogey to force sudden death with Matt Jones. After Jones chipped in from 42 feet for a birdie-3 on the first extra hole, No. 18, he wasn't able to match with his greenside bunker shot. The runner-up finish was his sixth top-10 of the year and second top-five in as many weeks... Finished T5 at the Masters for both his third consecutive and third career top-10 at Augusta National GC. Was one shot off the lead entering the final round before a final-round 74 dropped him from contention... Entered the final round of the RBC Heritage trailing fellow RBC Ambassador Luke Donald by four strokes but stormed out of the gate with a 6-under 30 on the front nine en route to a 7-under 64 and one stroke-win over Donald. The win was his seventh PGA TOUR career and capped a stretch of four-consecutive top-five TOUR finishes. It was a range of emotions for the veteran on the final two holes. After appearing on the verge of building a two-stroke lead on the 17th hole, he three-putted from 4 feet, 3 inches to drop into a tie at 10-under, with Donald. On the par-4 18th hole, he then holed a 56-foot, 7-foot bunker shot for a birdie-3 to move back to 11-under and eventual one-shot win. With the victory, he moved to No. 3 in the FedExCup standings and received the tartan jacket, given annually to the RBC Heritage winner. He is the second consecutive RBC team

2013-14 SEASON:

Enjoyed one of his best seasons on the PGA TOUR, claiming five top-10 finishes in 14 made cuts, highlighted by a T2 in Texas. As a result of his steady play, kept his season alive into the FedExCup Playoffs for the second time, and first since 2007. Competed in the first three Playoffs events before settling in at No. 65 in the FedExCup standings, a career-best... Highlighted by a third-round, 7-under 64 and bookend 2-under 69s, finished T9 at the Frys.com Open in his first TOUR start since missing the cut at the 2012 Reno-Tahoe Open... Finished T6 at the Farmers Insurance Open after missing his last four cuts at Torrey Pines GC...

Posted four rounds of par-or-better at PGA National to claim a share of sixth place with David Hearn in his sixth start at The Honda Classic, and first since 2010... Next top-10 finish was a T4 at the Valspar Championship. After an opening-round, 2-over 73, posted sub-par rounds of 70-68-69 to finish at 4-under 280. His six birdies in the final round tied Sang-Moon Bae for the most in the final round on a windy day. The top-10, his fourth of the season in just 11 starts, broke his record of three in a year (2007)... At the Valero Texas Open, was one of just four players to post four par-or-better rounds on the challenging TPC San Antonio AT&T Oaks Course. As a result, finished T2 with Daniel Summerhays, one stroke behind Steven Bowditch. The top-10 finish was his fifth of the season and came in just his 13th start. His previous high for an entire season was three top-10s in 2007.

T7—Travelers Championship.

2013-14 SEASON:

Became the 17th player in Champions Tour history to win in his debut when he edged Billy Andrade by two strokes for the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic title. Holed a 45-foot, uphill, left-to-right, breaking putt for a birdie at Fallen Oak's 17th hole just moments before Andrade made bogey in the group behind him. As a result, forged a two-stroke advantage that proved to be the difference. Became the first debut winner on the Champions Tour since Rocco Mediate at the 2012 Allianz Championship. At 50 years, 1 month, 3 days, became the youngest Tour winner since John Huston at the 2011 Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Victory near Biloxi also ended a drought of more than seven-plus years since his last TOUR title, at the 2006 FedEx St. Jude Classic and also made him just the seventh player to win tournaments on all three Tours...Finished T3 at the 3M Championship in August in Minnesota by posting rounds of 64-67-65 at TPC Twin Cities. Finished the event with 24 birdies, tying the tournament record set in 2008 by R.W. Eaks...Closed with a 66 to finish T9 at the Senior PGA Championship...In contention down the stretch at the PGA TOUR's Travelers Championship and eventually finished T7 at TPC River Highlands. Missed realistic birdie opportunities on each of the final three holes but performance near Hartford was his best since a T2 at the 2013 PLAYERS Championship... Best finish prior to turning 50 was a T16 at the PGA TOUR's OHL Classic at Mayakoba in Mexico.

2013-14 SEASON:

Made the cut in 20 of 25 starts, with season highlighted by his sixth PGA TOUR victory (The Barclays) and being selected by Captain Tom Watson to represent the U.S. at the Ryder Cup. Carried The Barclays win in the first FedExCup Playoffs event all the way to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, becoming the only player to advance to the TOUR Championship all eight years of the FedExCup era... The 2010 Waste Management Phoenix Open winner made a run for a second title at TPC Scottsdale, with rounds of 66-71-65-68--270 (14-under), before settling for a T4 with Hideki Matsuyama. En route to a third-round, 6-under 65, played hole Nos. 9-17 without a par (birdie-birdie-bogey-bogey-birdie-birdie-birdie-birdie-birdie)... Came back the following week with a solo-sixth-place effort at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, finishing four strokes behind champion Jimmy Walker... Fell short in his bid to join Tiger Woods (18) and Geoff Ogilvy (three) with three or more World Golf Championships wins. Reached the quarter-finals (T9) at Accenture Match Play Championship. Finished T9 in March at the Cadillac Championship... Closed with rounds of 65-67 to finish T7 at the PGA Championship, his first top-10 in nine starts at the season's final major... As the only player to have made every start in a FedExCup Playoffs event, overcame a one-stroke deficit beginning the final round of The Barclays to win his first Playoffs event. With the win, moved to No. 1 in the FedExCup standings, up from No. 62. Birdied four of his last six holes en route to a final-round, 6-under 65, good for a two-stroke win over Stuart Appleby, Jason Day and Cameron Tringale. Came to the 72nd hole with a three-stroke lead, but a bogey at the par-4 18th cut his margin of victory. The win made him the seventh consecutive come-from-behind winner of the event (after 54 holes) since Steve Stricker held on for the victory in 2007... Was T23 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for a sixth-place finish in the FedExCup, his best-ever showing in the competition... At the Ryder Cup, went 1-2-1 in his four matches in the European victory in the biennial event at Gleneagles in Scotland.

For the first time on TOUR, held a share of the third-round lead but a final-round, 1-over 71 dropped him out of contention...Won first career title, at the Memorial Tournament. In his 26th TOUR start, supplanted Tiger Woods as the event's youngest winner (22 years, 3 months, 7 days). Began the final round two strokes back, birdied the par-4 18th hole for the fourth day in a row to force sudden death with Kevin Na. Na had posted his 13-under score nearly two hours earlier. In the playoff, made a par at No. 18, the first extra hole, for the win. Became the fourth Japanese-born player to win on TOUR, joining Ryuji Imada (2008 AT&T Classic), Shigeki Maruyama (2001 Greater Milwaukee Open, 2002 HP Byron Nelson Championship, 2003 Wyndham Championship) and Isao Aoki (1983 Sony Open in Hawaii). Became only the fifth player to make the Memorial Tournament his maiden PGA TOUR victory, joining Keith Fergus (1981), Kenny Perry (1991), Tom Lehman (1994) and Justin Rose (2010). Other than Roger Maltbie, who won the inaugural edition of the Memorial Tournament in 1976, is the first player to win the event in his first start. ## PERSONAL:

After college, gave up golf for four years to work with his father in the family clothing business. During that period, athletic focus was on flag football, softball, tennis and racquetball. His return to golf was sparked by 1991 visit to Raley's Senior Gold Rush, the Champions Tour event at Rancho Murieta, Calif. After watching event, went home and built a long putter in his garage. Nearly won U.S. Mid-Amateur with homemade model later that year. Used more sophisticated version to win his three TOUR titles... In August 1999, made a hole-in-one during first round of CVS Charity Classic immediately following ace by Lee Janzen on 17th hole at Rhode Island CC... Inducted into California Golf Hall of Fame in 2012... Good-luck charm he carries on course is a SpongeBob SquarePants from his daughters. First two holes-in-one came seven holes apart at age 28 at Alameda GC outside Oakland. Made first ace on the fourth hole from 165 yards. After making the turn, he recorded a second ace on the 11th hole from 178 yards.

2013-14 SEASON:

Named PGA TOUR Player of the Year for second time in three seasons (2012). Sensational multiple-win season included winning the Byron Nelson Award and Vardon Trophy for Adjusted Scoring Average (68.827) as well as the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner ($8,280,096). Finished third in the FedExCup standings, thanks to three victories (giving him nine during his PGA TOUR career) and two runner-up finishes (the last of which came at the season-ending TOUR Championship)...In mid-October, overcame a third-round 75 at the Kolon Korea Open on the OneAsia Tour with a final-day 67 at Woo Jeong Hills CC to T2, a stroke behind winner Sung Kang...In first start of the PGA TOUR season, in late-October, early-November, held the 18-hole lead after opening with a 65 at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions. Finished T6, his fourth consecutive top-10 finish at Sheshan International GC in Shanghai, China...Played well at the European Tour's season finale, the DP World Tour Championship, where he T5 with Luke Donald and Lee Westwood...With rounds of 69-65-70, entered the final round of the Australian Open trailing Adam Scott by four strokes. Drew even with Scott with eagle-birdie on Nos. 7-8, and then the two battled down the stretch. Entered the final hole needing a birdie to win his first professional event of 2013 and did just that by shooting a final-round, 6-under 66. That gave him a one-stroke victory over Scott, denying the Australian the Triple Crown of Australian golf (Australian Masters, Australian PGA Championship and Australian Open)...Shot four under-par rounds at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship in mid-January, including a final-round 68, but could only T2 with Phil Mickelson, a stroke behind winner Pablo Larrazabal...Opened with a 9-under 63 at the Omega Dubai Desert Classic. Was only two strokes off Stephen Gallacher's lead through 54 holes, but a 2-over 74 on the final day at Emirates GC left him T9 with three others, four shots behind Gallacher's winning score...The 2012 Honda Classic champion returned to PGA National in late February, where he opened with a 7-under 63 to take a one-stroke lead. His lead held up all the way to Sunday, where he began the final round with a two-stroke advantage over Russell Henley. Struggled in the final round, with five bogeys and a double bogey (No. 16) to post a 4-over 74 and open the door for sudden death with Henley, Russell Knox and Ryan Palmer. Had a chance to end the tournament in regulation when his second shot into the par-5 72nd hole landed 11 feet from the hole. Unable to convert for eagle, the four went back to No. 18 for sudden death. Henley won the tournament when he was the only one of the quartet to make birdie...In his fourth start at the Shell Houston Open, posted the low round of the day in the final round, a bogey-free, 7-under 65, en route to a T4...Finished a career-best T8 at the Masters Tournament, with rounds of 71-77-71-69...Also finished T8 in his next start, at the Wells Fargo Championship. On his 25th birthday, earned his fourth top-10 finish in five starts at the Charlotte event (won in 2010, missed the cut in 2011, T2 in 2012 and T10 in 2013)...A third consecutive top-10 finish came in early May, at THE PLAYERS Championship, where a final round, 6-under 66 helped result in a T6 with four others. The 66 was one stroke off the low round of the day (Jimmy Walker and K.J. Choi). In his fifth start at TPC Sawgrass, birdied the par-5 16th and par-4 18th holes each of the four rounds. He birdied each of the last three holes on the weekend, resulting in a 10-under total on that stretch for the week...Entered the final round of the European Tour's BMW PGA Championship seven strokes behind leader Thomas Bjorn. Shot a Sunday 66 to vault up the leaderboard as Bjorn fired a 3-over 75. Hung on for the title, beating Shane Lowry by a shot and Bjorn and Donald by two strokes. After making a bogey on the par-4 ninth hole, made five birdies and four pars on the back nine to secure his fourth European Tour title, two of those birdies coming on his 71st and 72nd holes...Shot a first-round 63 to hold a three-shot lead at the Memorial Tournament but finished T15...Became just the third player (Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods) to claim three legs of the career grand slam at age 25 or younger by winning The Open Championship in July. Led wire to wire en route to his victory at Royal Liverpool GC, the seventh player to achieve an Open Championship victory in such fashion. Began the final round with a six-stroke lead, and following a 1-under 71, beat a hard-charging Sergio Garcia by two strokes. With the win, became the seventh-youngest player to win his first three major championship titles and the youngest to win The Open Championship since Woods, in 2000. With the win, became the only three-time major champion in the previous 24 major championships. The victory moved him from No. 8 to No. 2 in the Official World Golf Ranking and put him in the No. 1 spot in the European Tour's Race to Dubai...Was three shots behind Garcia entering the final round of the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational before recording a 4-under 66 to win by two shots at Firestone CC. His eighth TOUR win came in his 82nd start, at age 25 years, 2 months, 30 days. Regained the No. 1 spot in the Official World Golf Ranking for the first time since March 24, 2013, taking the top spot from Scott. The victory was his first in a World Golf Championships event, his 22nd overall start. Joined Darren Clarke (2003) as the only Europeans to win the Bridgestone Invitational. Led the tournament field in Driving Distance and was tied for the lead in Greens in Regulation. Has recorded 16 rounds in the 60s out of 24 total rounds at the Bridgestone Invitational. Four of eight TOUR victories have been in come-from-behind fashion (2010 Wells Fargo Championship, 2012 Deutsche Bank Championship and 2012 BMW Championship are the others). Has recorded two of the last three instances where a player has won back-to-back starts on TOUR. Is the fourth consecutive player in his 20s to win a World Golf Championships event, the longest streak since the inception of the series, in 1999...Posted four rounds in the 60s (66-67-67-68) at Valhalla GC, taking two putts from 34 feet to par the 72nd hole and win the PGA Championship by one stroke over Mickelson. His fourth major championship capped off a streak of three consecutive victories, making him the first player to perform the feat since Woods won five consecutive starts at the conclusion of 2007 and beginning of 2008.

Rory McIlroy (Continued)

Earned 600 points to supplant Jimmy Walker's 30-consecutive-week reign atop the FedExCup standings. At age 25 years, 3 months, 6 days old, became the fourth-youngest to win a fourth major, behind Tom Morris Jr., Woods and Nicklaus. In addition, became the first player to win back-to-back majors since Padraig Harrington at the 2008 Open Championship and PGA Championship. Also joined Harrington (2008), Woods (2000 and 2006), Nick Price (1994) and Walter Hagen (1924) as the only players to win the Open Championship and PGA Championship in the same season. Won back-to-back TOUR events for the second time in his career, winning the Deutsche Bank Championship and BMW Championship in 2012 and the Bridgestone Invitational and PGA Championship this year. Improved to 5 of 7 when carrying the 54-hole lead into the final round, including all four of his major wins. His ninth TOUR title made him the 18 player (31 times) to win two majors in a season, becoming the first to do so since Harrington in 2008. Became the fifth international player to win multiple PGA Championships, joining Jim Barnes (1916 and 1919), Gary Player (1962, 1972), Price (1992 and 1994) and Vijay Singh (1998 and 2004)...After finishing T22 at The Barclays, dropped from the top spot to No. 2 in the FedExCup standings. Retained that position with a T5 finish at the Deutsche Bank Championship, highlighted by a second-round, 7-under 64. Of his 16 rounds at TPC Boston, five have been 65 or better, including a third-round 64 Sunday (the third time he has posted that number)...Finished T8 at the BMW Championship, with rounds of 67-67-72-66. Four-putted the par-3 12th hole in the third and fourth rounds at Cherry Hills CC, but was still able to salvage a top-10 finish...Entered the TOUR Championship No. 4 in the FedExCup standings and was in prime shape to win the FedExCup with just 18 holes remaining, sharing the 54-hole lead with eventual winner Billy Horschel. Played his first 11 holes in 4-over on the final day before finishing with birdies on Nos. 15, 16 and 17 for a 1-over 71 and a T2 finish with Jim Furyk. It marked the fifth runner-up outing of his TOUR career and second of the season (The Honda Classic). Fell to five of eight when carrying the lead into the final round of a PGA TOUR event, with the TOUR Championship marking the first time he had shared the lead with 18 to play. The third place finish in the FedExCup was the second-best showing of his career. He was also second in the season-long competition in 2012...At the Ryder Cup at Gleneagles in Scotland, recorded three points on a 2-1-2 record to help lead the European team to a five-point victory over the U.S. in the biennial event. Concluded the week with a 5-and-4 victory in the singles competition over Rickie Fowler. Became the first player since Tom Watson in 1977 to win two major championships and the Ryder Cup in the same season.

2013-14 SEASON:

Claimed four top-10 finishes in 16 made cuts, including a solo-second showing at The Greenbrier Classic, good enough to lead him to a seventh berth into the FedExCup Playoffs. Season ended after the BMW Championship, when he placed 46th in the final FedExCup standings... Finished T7 at the season-opening Frys.com Open, four strokes behind champion Jimmy Walker. Birdied five of his last six holes in the third round en route to a career-low and course record, 9-under 62. CordeValle was also the site of his career-low nine-hole score, a 7-under 28 on the front nine in the second round in 2011... Finished T6 at the Northern Trust Open for his second top-10 in seven career starts at the event (T5 in 2010). The last time he had more than two top-10s in a season was 2011... Third top-10 finish of the year was a seventh-place outing in his home state of Florida at the Valspar Championship. Following an opening-round, 2-over 73 in Tampa, closed with three rounds of par or better to claim the top-10 in his eighth start in the event... Turned in the round of the week at The Greenbrier Classic, with a final-round, 9-under 61 to finish second to Angel Cabrera by two strokes. It topped his previous-low round on the PGA TOUR of 62 during the third round of Frys.com Open (finished T7) and first round of The McGladrey Classic (finished T22) in his next start. The round fell one shy of the low round on TOUR this season, an 11-under 60 by J.J. Henry during the first round of the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. Round included an ace with a 4-iron from 219 yards on the par-3 eighth hole, leading to a year's worth of mortgage payments to Janet Alexander from Concord, Calif., courtesy of the Quicken Loans Hole-in-One Sweepstakes. Marked the second ace of his career and 12th on TOUR this season. Had he won, would have been the first player since Steve Stricker at the 2011 Memorial Tournament to record an ace en route to winning. Finish earned him an invitation into The Open Championship at Royal Liverpool based on being one of the top-four qualifiers not otherwise qualified among the top 12 at The Greenbrier Classic. Runner-up finish was seventh of his career and first since the 2011 Wyndham Championship.

For the first time since 2003, went without at least one PGA TOUR win. For the first time since turning professional in 1992, managed to claim just one top-10 finish, though it was a solo second at the PGA Championship. Made the cut 10 times in 18 starts, and for the eighth consecutive year earned a berth into the FedExCup Playoffs. Ranked No. 68 after his withdrawal from the BMW Championship, didn't qualify for the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the first time in the FedExCup era...Began his season on the European Tour, at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship.

Opened with a 73-70 through his first 36 holes then fired a third-round 63 to move into second place with a round to play. Shot a Sunday 69 at Abu Dhabi GC but watched as Pablo Larrazabal, with a 67, came from behind for the win. Finished T2 with Rory McIlroy...One week later, made the 36-hole cut at the Farmers Insurance Open, but withdrew after the round citing a back injury that flared up in the first round. Just the fourth WD in 489 career TOUR starts. The previous three were the 2012 Memorial Tournament (fatigue), 2007 Memorial Tournament (left wrist) and the 2004 Michelin Championship (food poisoning)...Shot a season-best 62 in the final round at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. It was his sixth career round of 62 or better but the first time he has shot a score that low in a tournament and did not win. His previous-best round in a World Golf Championships event was a 64...Recorded his first top-10 finish of the season with a runner-up effort at the PGA Championship, finishing one stroke behind Rory McIlroy in a battle at Valhalla GC. It marked his 30th career runner-up finish (and ninth in a major championship). With his finish, played his way onto the U.S. Ryder Cup team, with nine automatic slots determined

2013-14 SEASON:

Missed just four cuts in 24 starts and picked up his third career PGA TOUR win in only his second start of the season. In addition to the victory, collected six additional top-10 finishes, cementing a return to the FedExCup Playoffs for an eighth consecutive year. Began the BMW Championship just four spots out of the top 30, but a T50 finish at Cherry Hills CC ended his season ranked 39th in the standings. Four rounds in the 60s, including a second-round, 8-under 63, led to a T9 finish in title defense at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. It was his third top-10 in eight starts for the Las Vegas resident and former UNLV All-America. One week later, captured his third PGA TOUR title, at age 30 years, 10 months, 22 days, in a sudden-death playoff over Gary Woodland at the CIMB Classic, the first FedExCup event held in Asia. Posted rounds of 63-72-69-70—274 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, carding a birdie-4 on the 72nd hole to match Woodland's 274 total of 14-under par. First-round, 9-under-par 63 set the Kuala Lumpur G&CC course record. Playoff was held Monday morning due to Sunday darkness. Birdied the par-5 18th hole to take the title. Finished T7 at the Nedbank Golf Challenge in South Africa on the European Tour in early December. Opened and closed with rounds in the 60s (67-69) to finish 10th at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, his second top-10 effort in three starts at the event (also T6 in 2010). Recorded his fourth top-10 finish in his first six starts of the season, with a T6 at the Waste Management Phoenix Open. It was his third top-10 performance in nine starts at the event (and second consecutive following a fourth-place showing in 2013). Held a one-shot lead entering the final round of the Travelers Championship before a Sunday 71 dropped him to T5. It was his fifth top-10 in nine starts near Hartford. Posted four rounds in the 60s at the John Deere Classic to T7 with defending champion Jordan Spieth, Johnson Wagner and Bo Van Pelt. Played TPC Deere Run's first two holes in 7-under for the week en route to his second top-10 in six starts at TPC Deere Run. Finished T8 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational for his first top-10 in four starts at the event.

PERSONAL:

combat south Puget Sound's sagging golf economy, the RMG Club took over the ownership and day-to-day affairs of the Classic CC in Spanaway, McCormick Woods in Port Orchard and Oakbrook G&CC in Lakewood. "We want this to be a product that appeals to everyone," Moore said. "We want people to have great facilities they can go play at a reasonable rate." With three levels of unlimited golf memberships available, The RMG Club is designed to attract players of all skill levels. Learned the game from his father "as soon as I could walk." Has two brothers, Jeremy and Jason, and one sister, Alyssa. Has served as host of the BMW Northwest Charity Skins Game at Chambers Bay in Washington State.

Added another birdie at No. 8 to make the turn at 10-under and three shots in front of his nearest challengers. Was never seriously threatened the rest of the way, adding birdies at 14 and 16 to shut the door on the field. Bogey-free 64 left him four in front of runner-up Jason Gore. The victory in week four was worth $112,500 and moved him to No. 2 on the money list and all but locked up a spot among the top 25 for the regular season and assured him a place on the PGA TOUR in 2014-15... Became the first Mexican-born winner of the El Bosque Mexico Championship. Posted a 2-over 74 and was T72 after the opening round. Fired rounds of 67-66 and took a share of the lead into the final round. Had a three-stroke advantage through No. 15 that was cut to one after consecutive bogeys on Nos. 16 and 17. Birdied the 18th hole to win by two over Justin Thomas. His second win of the season allowed him to overtake Alex Cejka for the top spot on the money list... Fired 65-67 and held the 36-hole lead at the South Georgia Classic. Carded 72-72 on the weekend and finished T3... Posted 67-68-71 for a T9 at the WNB Golf Classic... Capped off a record-setting regular season by winning the WinCo Foods Portland Open for his third win of the 2014 campaign. Carded an even-par 71 in the final round and finished at 14-under 270. ## 2013-14 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season with 12 starts. Year resulted in a win, a third-place finish and a T4...Posted that T4 in only his second start of the season at the South Georgia Classic, with rounds of 72-69-67-69...Garnered his first win in the U.S. when he overcame a seven-stroke deficit on the final day at the United Leasing Championship in late June. Opened with a triple-bogey 7 on Sunday to fall 10 shots off the pace at Victoria National GC. He steadied himself and then roared into contention with five birdies and an eagle on the back nine to get to 10-under par before stumbling with a bogey on the final hole to finish at 9 under.

Completed play approximately 75 minutes before the final group completed its round. Waited as all of the challengers collapsed down the treacherous stretch of finishing holes. Did not have the outright lead until the final minutes, when 25-year old rookie Mark Hubbard missed a 10-foot par putt on the 72nd hole to drop out of a share of the lead and hand him the title. Picked up a check for $108,000, which vaulted from No. 88 to No. 13 on the money list. Victory was his first since capturing the European Tour's British Masters in the summer of 2003...Came ever so close to securing one of the first 25 TOUR cards at the Regular Season-ending WinCo Foods Portland Open in August. After making the cut on the number with a birdie on the 36th hole, put himself inside the top 25 on Saturday with a 65, only to fall to No. 27 at weekend's end with a final-round 74 and T36 finish...Rounds of 67-67-68-70 at the first Web.com Tour Finals event, the Hotel Fitness Championship, resulted in a third-place finish. Was one-shot off Colt Knost's lead after three rounds but couldn't maintain the final-round pace of winner Bud Cauley's 65 and runner-up Knost's 68. A check for $68,000 secured his return to the PGA TOUR for 2014-15.

T27—PGA Championship.

2013-14 SEASON:

Made only two of five cuts on the PGA TOUR but will utilize his top-25 career money list exemption on the PGA TOUR for the 2014-15 season...Added his name to the record book in May when he prevailed by one stroke over Mark Calcavecchia to win the Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek. The victory gave him three consecutive Champions Tour major championships, matching a feat Gary Player pulled off during the 1987-88 season. Was the 54-hole leader in Birmingham and finally took the lead for good on a crowded leaderboard when he made a 20-foot birdie at No. 16 Sunday, which gave him a one-stroke margin that he held on to. The win made him the 10th player in Champions Tour history to win three different major championships, and he joined Jack Nicklaus as the only player to win the Regions Tradition, the U.S. Senior Open and the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. His 72-hole total of 7-under-par 281 was the highest total to win the Regions Tradition, and his opening and closing rounds of 72 were the highest start and highest finish by a winner. He joined Eduardo Romero (2006) as the only players to have opened with a round of par or higher and gone on to win the event...In June, teamed with Russ Cochran for a fourth-place finish in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf...In August, added a second title to his resume when he drained a clutch 15-foot putt to hold off a late charge by Bernhard Langer at the 3M Championship. Put himself in position with a 9-under-par 63, which gave him a one-stroke advantage after 36 holes and appeared on his way to an easy victory Sunday at TPC Twin Cities. Had as much as a four-stroke lead at one point before Langer staged a back-nine rally. Both were tied after 17 holes at 22-under par. But after Langer failed to make a birdie on the final hole, he claimed his seventh career win minutes later when he sank his birdie putt. Received a free-drop ruling when his second shot rolled under the skyboxes near No. 18...Finished solo fourth in defense of his Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS title. Started Sunday at Fox Chapel GC trailing Langer by three strokes and playing in the final grouping, carded a final-round 69 to finish two strokes out of a playoff...Posted his first top-10 of the campaign in mid-March when he was T5 at the Toshiba Classic. Was among a handful of players who were atop the leaderboard in Sunday's final round, but his lone bogey of the day, at No. 17, proved costly as he finished two shy of eventual winner Fred Couples...Shook off a slow start at the Encompass Championship to finish T6, with rounds of 67-68 on the weekend at North Shore CC...Was on the leaderboard throughout the first two rounds of the Greater Gwinnett Championship in April but fell out of contention with three bogeys in a four-hole stretch on his front nine Sunday. Finished T8 near Atlanta...Rebounded from a 74 on Thursday at Pinehurst to finish T28 at the U.S. Open. Highlight of his week was holing a 4-hybrid second shot from 220 yards out of the scrub for an eagle 2 on the 14th hole. It was the longest shot he's ever holed out in his career...Enjoyed perhaps one of the highlights of his long career in August when he finished T27 at the PGA Championship at Valhalla. The Kentucky native rebounded from an opening-round, 1-over-par 72 with three consecutive rounds in the 60s in what could have been his final event on the PGA TOUR.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation, World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship; T4—World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational; T9—The Barclays.

2013-14 SEASON:

Season highlighted by wins at the Humana Challenge and World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship, making him one of seven multiple winners during the season. Also earned a berth on the U.S. Ryder Cup team for the first time...Took a seven-stroke lead into the Humana Challenge final round and held on for a two-stroke, wire-to-wire win. Shots rounds 63-63-63-71. Recorded his second career TOUR win at age 23 years, 5 months, 14 days in his 46th career TOUR start. It was his second win in his last nine TOUR starts (2013 Wyndham Championship). Became just the second wire-to-wire winner of the event (Rik Massengale in 1977). Led the field with 30 birdies. Was just the sixth wire-to-wire winner on TOUR since 2010 and became the first player in PGA TOUR history to post scores of 63 or better in his first three rounds. Is the second-youngest winner of the Humana Challenge, behind Jack Nicklaus (23 years, 13 days in 1963). Became the 12th player to carry a final-round lead of the Humana Challenge on to victory since 1990. Has converted both of his third-round leads/co-leads into victory. His 54-hole total score of 189 broke the low 54-hole score at the Humana Challenge (191 by Pat Perez in 2009). His 54-hole total of 189 came within one shot of the lowest 54-hole score in TOUR history (Steve Stricker at the 2010 John Deere Classic). Broke the TOUR 54-hole scoring record in relation to par by two shots, with a 27-under. First victory came with wife as caddie and second was with brother-in-law Kessler Karain...Earned his third win in 14 starts, capturing the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship with rounds of 68-75-69-72. That led to a one-stroke victory over Bubba Watson and Jamie Donaldson. His 4-under 284 total was the highest winning total at the Cadillac Championship and equaled Mark McCumber's winning score in 1985 for highest in any event at Doral. At age 23 years, 7 months, 4 days, became the youngest player to ever win a World Golf Championships event, with Tiger Woods (23 years, 7 months, 30 days) the previous youngest with his win at the 1999 Bridgestone Invitational. The win moved him a step closer to Rory McIlroy on the list of players under 25 with multiple wins. Trailing only McIlroy (six) but moved one win ahead of Russell Henley (two) and Harris English (two). Joined Jimmy Walker (three) as the TOUR's only multiple winners of the season, in the process improving his record with the 54-hole lead/co-lead to a perfect 3 for 3. Previously held at least a share of the lead after every round in his two wins this season...Held a two-shot lead after the third round at the Quicken Loans National before a final-round 77 dropped him to T11...Finished T4 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational to record his second top-10 in just his third start in a World Golf Championships event, all coming this season. Notched his first top-10 of the season that did not result in a victory. His other two top-10s were both wins, at the Humana Challenge and the Cadillac Championship...In the first FedExCup Playoffs event, The Barclays, birdied three of his last four holes at Ridgewood CC Sunday to claim T9 at 9-under, five strokes back of Hunter Mahan. His 65 Sunday tied his low, final-round score for the year (World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational)...Later added a T74 at the Deutsche Bank Championship and T53 at the BMW Championship to advance to the final event of the Playoffs for the first time...At the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, finished T19 at East Lake GC and No. 21 in the FedExCup standings...Made his debut at the Ryder Cup and went 3-0-1 in his four matches in the European victory in the biennial event at Gleneagles in Scotland.

PERSONAL:

Favorite golf memory is going 6-0 in match play and helping Augusta State win two national championships...Wife, Justine, was his caddie in 2012 and 2013 and sporadically in 2014 after having the couple's first baby in May. They married in December 2012...Grew up a fan of Notre Dame football. Favorite teams now are the Houston Texans and San Francisco 49ers...Enjoys watching Notre Dame and LSU in college...Is a fan of Darius Rucker...Dream four-some would include Tiger Woods, Ian Poulter and Stephen Ames...Favorite quote is from his wife, who said, "Nerves just mean you're prepared"...Bucket list includes standing on the sidelines of a Houston Texans' playoff game and sitting courtside for Houston Rockets-San Antonio Spurs game.

2013-14 SEASON:

Played in 22 Web.com Tour tournaments, posting three third-place finishes, five top-10s and eight top-25s... Three rounds of 68 in his first start of 2014, followed by a final-round 71 at the Chile Classic, led to a T3 finish, his first top-five since the 2011 Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship...Opened with a 65 at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open in late March to take a share of the first-round lead. Rebounded from a second-round 70 with a bogey-free 66 on Saturday, which gave him a one-shot lead. Shot a 70 Sunday that included a bogey on the 72nd hole, leaving him one shot shy of joining Kris Blanks (winner) and Brett Stegmaier in a playoff...Was tied for the lead after 36 holes of the BMW Charity Pro-Am in mid-May when he carded rounds of 68-64. Posted 70-66 on the weekend for a T3 showing, his third third-place finish since the opening event of the year in March. Stayed in Greenville that week at the home of his college teammate Bill Haas...A solid week at the Midwest Classic in July featured rounds of 68-67-68-69, resulting in a T6 finish, his fourth top-10 of the year...Was 27th on the money list and had missed his last three cuts heading into the Regular Season's finale, the WinCo Foods Portland Open, in August. An indifferent start of 70-69 was followed by a timely 7-under 64 Saturday at Pumpkin Ridge, a round that featured an eagle, six birdies and one bogey. On Sunday, he stumbled to a 3-over par 39 on the front side, putting his TOUR card quest very much in doubt, with another bogey at the 11th only making matters worse. He rose to the occasion on No. 17, knocking a short iron stiff for a tap-in birdie. Needing a par on No. 18 to secure his TOUR card, hit his second shot from the fairway on the par-5 finishing hole into a group of trees short and right of the green. A fortuitous bounce shot his ball back into the fairway. From there, he comfortably made par to finish T21 and grab the 25th and final Regular Season card by a margin of just $1,463 over Sebastian Cappelletti, who came to Portland on the bubble at No. 25. The swing with Cappelletti was the only movement in and out of the top 25 in Portland...The finish in Portland officially secured his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card, setting up his return to the PGA TOUR for the third time...Carded 68-67 over the first 36 holes of the Chiquita Classic of the second Web.com Tour Finals' event. Started the third round T5 and posted 70-70 on the weekend for a T4.

PERSONAL:

Both of his parents are accomplished amateur players, evidenced by both winning Ohio State Amateurs (the same tournament their son won in 2004). His father, Randy, played golf at DePauw University, is a member of the Ohio Golf Hall of Fame and made the cut in the 2006 U.S. Senior Open, with a T47 finish. Randy played on the same college golf team as former Vice President Dan Quayle and TV golf analyst Mark Roling...Attended Watterson High School in Columbus, Ohio...Never travels without his briefcase... First car was a Jeep Cherokee. He now drives a Cadillac Escalade...Favorite college team is Wake Forest University. Favorite food is pizza and favorite athlete to watch was Michael Jordan...Enjoys visiting San Diego and lists Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Tiger Woods as the players in his dream foursome...Has received instruction from Jerry Haas and Billy Harmon.

2013-14 SEASON:

Ended the season playing in 24 of the Web.com Tour's 25 tournaments, recording one top-10 and four top-25s... Made a double eagle in the opening round of the Chile Classic on the par-5 ninth hole. It was the first albatross in tournament history. Went on to finish T57... Struggled from April through early August, making just two cuts (T14 at the South Georgia Classic and T28 at the United Leasing Championship) over a 12-tournament stretch... Recorded his first top-10 in August, a T2, at the Price Cutter Charity Championship. Fired rounds of 70-66-65-67 (20 under) to finish one shot back of winner Cameron Percy. Matched 67s with Percy on Sunday... Opened the Web.com Tour Finals with a T19 at the Hotel Fitness Championship... After climbing the third-round leaderboard with a 64 at the following week's Chiquita Classic, caught fire at the start of his final round, going 6 under (birdie-birdie-par-eagle-birdie-birdie) on holes 1-6 to get into serious contention. His eagle during the stretch was a hole-in-one. Succumbed to six bogeys over his last 12 holes, which resulted in an even-par round of 72 and a T12 finish. Despite his stumble, the performance put him squarely in contention for a TOUR card via the Finals... Opened the Web.com Tour Finals with a T19 at the Hotel Fitness Championship... Followed it the next week with a T12 at the Chiquita Classic... Missed the cut at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship, putting him squarely on the bubble to get one of the 25 available cards heading to the Web.com Tour Championship... A T31 in Ponte Vedra Beach was enough to get the job done as he captured the 49th card.

2013-14 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season with 22 starts, three top-10s and eight top-25s. Made 16 cuts... In the Web.com Tour season opener in Bogota, rain canceled final-round play, with Saunders T5 after rounds of 69-67-69 at the Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship. It was his best finish since a T8 at the 2012 Mid-Atlantic Championship... On the PGA TOUR, recorded a T43 finish at the Arnold Palmer Invitational in March, despite a closing-round 77... Posted his second top-10 at the weather-shortened WNB Golf Classic in April, a T6, with rounds of 70-68-67... Was two shots off the lead after 36 holes at the Air Capital Classic. Weekend rounds of 70-67 led a T10 finish... Opened the Hotel Fitness Championship, the first of four Web.com Tour Finals' events, with a pair of 66s to take a two-shot lead over four players at the halfway mark. A 70 Saturday put him in a tie with Greg Owen, one off leader Colt Knost's 15-under total. A final-round 70 could not keep pace with eventual winner Bud Cauley's 65 and runner-up Knost's 68, resulting in a T4, six back of Cauley... Followed with another solid finish, a T6, at the Chiquita Classic. The performance all but secured him PGA TOUR membership for the first time... Padded his position with rounds of 70-70-76-68, good for a T12 at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship on the difficult OSU Scarlet Course... Continued his strong season-end play with a T7 at the finale, the Web.com Tour Championship that ended with a 67 on the challenging TPC Sawgrass' Dye's Valley Course.

2013-14 SEASON:

Made the cut in 15 of 16 starts, recording 10 top-10 finishes, tying his career-best total from 2006. Season highlighted by his win at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial (the 11th win of his PGA TOUR career), winning the same week as he reached No. 1 in the Official World Golf Ranking for the first time...Returning to Australia for the first time since winning the Masters Tournament, turned in a superior performance at the RACV Royal Pines Resort to capture the Australian PGA Championship by four shots over Rickie Fowler. Opened with a 6-under 65 to trail Fowler by two shots through 18 holes. Took the lead after a second-round 67 and never relinquished his advantage, closing with another 4-under 67 on the final day. The victory was his third in his homeland. He also won the 2009 Australian Open and the 2012 Talisker Masters... Added a fourth Australian victory a week later when he successfully defended his Talisker Masters title, defeating Matt Kuchar by two strokes at Royal Melbourne GC. Could only muster a final-round, even-par 71 and eventually fell a stroke behind Kuchar midway through the final round. But Kuchar's finishing-hole double bogey and an opening 67-66-66 through the first three rounds gave him enough of a cushion. The victory was his 13th international title...Teamed with fellow Australian Jason Day to shoot 17-under-par to win the team competition at the ISPS Handa World Cup. Finished third (7-under) in the individual competition, while Day's 10-under total was good for the individual title. The victory marks the fifth time Australia has won the World Cup team competition, tying South Africa for second-most wins. The Australian team began the final day with a one-stroke advantage. It finished with a 10-stroke win in the team competition. The last time the host country's team won the World Cup was in 1996 when the South African team of Ernie Els and Wayne Westner won the event in Cape Town...Finished runner-up by one stroke to Rory McIlroy at the Australian Open, falling short in his attempt to join Robert Allenby as the only players to win Australia's triple crown (Australian Open, Australian Masters and Australian PGA Championship) in the same season. Opened with a course-record, 10-under par 62 in his opening round and then added rounds of 70-68 to enter the final round with a four-stroke lead over McIlroy. His approach shot sailed over the green on the final hole, leading to a bogey and one stroke loss to McIlroy (who birdied the final hole)...Closed with matching, 4-under 69s at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions for a T6 finish, five strokes behind Zach Johnson. Made a Sunday charge, eagling the par-5 15th hole to pull within one shot of the leaders. But a par-par-bogey finish led to his fourth top-10 in six Kapalua starts... Finished T8 at the Sony Open in Hawaii to join Zach Johnson and Matt Kuchar as the only players with top-10 finishes at both Hawaii events. It was his second top-10 at the event (T2 in 2009)...Finished third at the Arnold Palmer Invitational after holding a three-shot lead after the first round, a seven-shot lead after the second round and a three-shot lead through 54 holes. Has failed to convert his last two 54-hole leads. Has won six of 10 times with the third-round lead/co-lead, most recently at the 2011 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. His third-place finish came in his seventh start at the Arnold Palmer Invitational. Matched his previous-best finish in the event, a T3 in 2004...Claimed the No. 1 spot in the Official World Golf Ranking on May 19, becoming the second Australian to ascend to the No. 1 ranking. Greg Norman held the top spot for 331 weeks, through January 4, 1998...Won his 11th PGA TOUR event, a playoff title at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. By winning in Fort Worth, became the first player to win the Texas Grand Slam, having won the 2007 Shell Houston Open, the 2008 HP Byron Nelson Championship, the 2010 Valero Texas Open. Began the day two strokes back but emerged the victor following a 4-under 66. Outlasted Jason Dufner with a birdie-3 on the third extra hole (No. 18). Improved to 3-0 in playoffs on TOUR. The winning score of 9-under 271 is the highest at the Colonial since Olin Browne won in 1999 at 8-under 272. Won 11th event in his 221st TOUR start at age 33 years, 10 months, 9 days. Is the sixth consecutive come-from-behind winner of the Colonial, and the seventh since 2001. He joins Sergio Garcia (2001), Steve Stricker (2009), Johnson (2010 and 2012), David Toms (2011) and Boo Weekley (2013). Is the first international winner at Colonial since Rory Sabbatini in 2007. Was the first current World No. 1 to play Colonial since Nick Price in 1995 (finished T12). Has finished inside the top 15 in 11 of his last 14 major championship starts...Improved on that finish in the season's next major, The Open Championship, thanks to a final-round, 6-under 66 at Royal Liverpool GC. Two years removed from his disappointing, final-round loss at Royal Lytham & St. Annes, offset a double bogey at the par-4 seventh hole with eight birdies Sunday en route to a T5 with fellow Aussie Marc Leishman. In his 15th Open Championship start, the finish was his fourth top-10 and third consecutive...Finished T8 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational but lost his No. 1 spot in the OWGR to McIlroy...Finished T8 at the BMW Championship at Cherry Hills CC outside Denver, shooting rounds of 71-66-69-66...Picked up a T9 the following week at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola (the fifth consecutive season he has advanced to East Lake GC) en route to a No. 12 FedExCup finish...Parted with caddie Steve Williams at the end of the season.

2013-14 SEASON:

Made the cut in 19 of 25 starts, finishing the season No. 25 in the FedExCup standings. Season highlighted by nine top-10 finishes (second only to the 12 he posted in 2011), including his fourth career victory (Shriners Hospitals for Children Open). Captain Tom Watson chose him to represent the U.S. at the Ryder Cup...Carried the second- and third-round leads to a comfortable six-shot victory over Ryo Ishikawa and Jason Bohn at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open in October 2013. Shot a 5-under 66 in the final round, giving him a score of 260 that matched Ryan Moore (2012) for the 72-hole tournament record. Marked the fourth victory of his career (and first since winning the 2012 U.S. Open), trailing only Dustin Johnson (seven) and Rory McIlroy (six) for most wins by current PGA TOUR players in their 20s. With rounds of 64-63-67-66 for the week, recorded rounds of 67 or better in seven of his last eight rounds at TPC Summerlin. The other was a 68 (final round, 2010). Just as Jimmy Walker did in winning the season's first event the week before, at the Frys.com Open, led the field in Strokes Gained – Putting. Victory came just three years after he missed the three-player playoff by one shot at the 2010 Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. In the final round that year, double-bogeyed the par-3 17th hole to drop out of the lead. That playoff was later won with a hole-in-one by Jonathan Byrd on No. 17...Followed his victory in Las Vegas with a T7 finish at The McGladrey Classic. In three starts at the event, has yet to finish worse than the T12 he turned in in 2010. Was runner-up in 2011... In his third consecutive start at the Northwestern Mutual World Challenge, finished fifth at 7-under 281. Overcame a 1-over 73 in the first round with three sub-par rounds to post the best finish of his previous starts at Sherwood CC... With a T3, collected his second top-10 finish at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions in his third start (T3 in 2012 and T11 in 2013), two strokes behind champion Zach Johnson... Closed with rounds of 67-66 for a 10th-place finish at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, marking his fourth top-10 in five starts to begin the season. It was his third-consecutive top-10 showing at TPC Scottsdale, following T8 performances in 2011 and 2012...Following a 1-over 71 in the opening round of the FedEx St. Jude Classic, rallied with rounds of 66-69-66 to claim a T3 at TPC Southwind with Matt Every and Carl Pettersson. Came to Memphis without much momentum, having missed the cut in two of his previous starts, the Masters and THE PLAYERS Championship... Final-round, 7-under 63 at The Greenbrier Classic equaled the low round of his PGA TOUR career, leading to a solo-third place finish, six strokes behind champion Angel

Cabrera. Was his third top-10 performance in five starts at The Old White TPC (missed the cut in 2010, T9 in 2011, T7 in 2012 and T41 in 2013)...Finished T5 at the Wyndham Championship, with all four rounds in the 60s...Opened with a 5-under 66 at the Deutsche Bank Championship to finish T9, six strokes behind champion Chris Kirk at the second FedExCup Playoffs event. Later added a T53 at the BMW Championship to advance to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the fourth consecutive season, finishing T23 at East Lake GC...At the Ryder Cup, went 0-1-1 in his two matches in the European victory in the biennial event at Gleneagles in Scotland.

PERSONAL:

66...In July, recorded his first top-10 of the year, winning for the first time on the Web.com Tour in his native Canada, in his 32nd start. Captured the inaugural Nova Scotia Open in Halifax, sending the homeland fans into a spontaneous rendition of the Canadian national anthem after the last putt dropped. An 8-foot par putt on the 72nd hole sent the tournament into overtime. Claimed the victory on the first extra hole, sinking a 4½ footer for par to outlast Derek Fathauer, who bogeyed two of the last three holes of regulation as well as the extra hole. Opened with rounds of 67-65. Saturday's play was wiped out when Tropical Storm Arthur blew through the province, accompanied by 40-60 mph wind. 36 holes were played Sunday, for the first time on Tour since 2005. Became the second Canadian to win in 2014 (Adam Hadwin) and third to claim victory on his home soil (Richard Zokol, David Hearn). ## PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2013 John Deere Classic.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

2—Hyundai Tournament of Champions, Masters Tournament; T4—AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, THE PLAYERS Championship; T5—World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship; T7—John Deere Classic; T8—BMW Championship; 10—Valero Texas Open.

2013-14 SEASON:

Extremely consistent sophomore season, making the cut in 24 of 27 starts and recording eight top-10 finishes (one shy of the nine he recorded in 2013). Campaign highlighted by a berth on the U.S. Ryder Cup team, as well as runner-up finishes at the Masters Tournament and Hyundai Tournament of Champions and a T4 outing at THE PLAYERS Championship...Finished runner-up at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, one stroke behind champion Zach Johnson. The runner-up performance was the fourth of his career, with three during the 2013 season, most recently at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola...Held the second-round lead at the Farmers Insurance Open but finished T19 after weekend rounds of 75-75...Posted rounds of 67-67-78-67 to finish at 8-under and T4 in his second start at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am (T22 in 2013)...In March, returned to TPC San Antonio for his third consecutive start in the Valero Texas Open. Overcame bogeys on six of his first seven holes and a 3-over 75 in his opening round, with scores of 70-68-71 to claim a T6 with three others...Finished T2 in his first career start in the Masters Tournament, with rounds of 71-70-70-72. Joined a list of five other players to open their Masters career with three consecutive sub-par rounds. Held a share of the third-round lead with eventual winner Bubba Watson. Watson closed with a 69 to his 72. Is the fifth first-year player to hold the third-round lead at the Masters. The others are Horton Smith (1934), Ralph Guldahl (1937), Bert Yancey (1967) and Brian Henninger (1995). Smith was the only to go on to victory...Was tied for the lead with Martin Kaymer after 54 holes of THE PLAYERS Championship, his first start at TPC Sawgrass. It marked the eighth time in his short career that he began a final round inside the top five. En route to doing so, was the only player in the field to play his first 54 holes bogey-free. The streak ended with a bogey on the fifth hole Sunday, giving him a total of 58 holes (and 73 overall dating to the fourth hole of the final round of the RBC Heritage). After taking the lead at 14-under-par with a birdie on the fourth hole, posted five bogeys over the next 11 holes (Nos. 5, 9, 10, 14 and 15) without making a birdie. Fell out of contention and finished T4 with Justin Rose, good for his sixth top-10 of the season. Defending John Deere Classic champion returned to TPC Deere Run, where he followed an opening-round, even-par 71 with scores of 64-67-66 to finish at 16-under and T7. Began the third and final rounds five and six strokes back, respectively, exactly as he had done the year before in the event, before winning in sudden death...Finished T8 at the BMW Championship at Cherry Hills CC outside Denver with rounds of 67-70-68-67...Closed the season with a T27 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and a No. 15 finish in the FedExCup standings...At the Ryder Cup, went 2-1-1 in his four matches in the European victory in the biennial event at Gleneagles in Scotland.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Waste Management Phoenix Open; T8—Masters Tournament; T10—The McGladrey Classic.

2013-14 SEASON:

Missed just five cuts in 26 starts and picked up his first career PGA TOUR win. An additional two top-10 finishes helped pave the way to the FedExCup Playoffs for a seventh time. Began the BMW Championship just two spots out of the top 30 in the FedExCup standings, but a T50 finish at Cherry Hills CC resulted in a season-ending No. 38 finish...

In his 239th career PGA TOUR start, claimed a one-stroke victory over Graham DeLaet and Bubba Watson at the Waste Management Phoenix Open. The Scottsdale resident began the final round two strokes off Watson's lead and, despite a 1-over 37 on his inward nine, claimed the victory when Watson missed a 5-foot putt for par on the 72nd hole. With the win, he and father, Craig, became what is believed to be the first father-son combo to play in a Masters Tournament in the same year. The duo also became the ninth father-son combo to win on the PGA TOUR and first since Bill and Jay Haas. Prior to the winner's press conference, Craig spoke to the media via speaker phone, where he claimed himself to be the younger Stadler's "No. 1 fan." Father and son held a joint pre-tournament press conference at the Masters and played a practice round together. Finished T8 in his first career Masters with rounds of 70-73-72-73...Held a four-shot, 54-hole lead at the European Tour's Alstom Open de France over Thongchai Jaidee and Victor Riu. Faltered badly on the final day, shooting a 5-over 41 on the front nine at Le Golf National in Paris. Began the back nine bogey-birdie-bogey but then was in position to at least force a playoff after making birdies at Nos. 14 and 16. Hopes of winning ended with a 72nd-hole bogey that dropped him into a T2 (5-over 76) with Jaidee, a stroke behind winner Graeme McDowell.

PERSONAL:

The oldest son of 1982 Masters champion and 13-time PGA TOUR winner Craig Stadler. Craig caddied for his son in his 2002 Colorado Open victory. Just minutes after the elder Stadler won the Bank of America Championship on the Champions Tour in 2004, he won the Lake Erie Charity Classic on the Web.com Tour, making them the first father-son duo to accomplish such a feat since Bob Duval won the Emerald Coast Classic on the Champions Tour and son David captured THE PLAYERS Championship on March 28, 1999.

Made 13 of 17 cuts, with two top-10s. Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the first time in his career. Season ended after two Playoffs events, a T30 finish at The Barclays and a 68th-place outing at the Deutsche Bank Championship. ## 2013-14 SEASON:

Once again, played a worldwide schedule. On the PGA TOUR, missed just one cut in 15 starts and collected a pair of major championship top-10 finishes. The defending FedExCup champion played his way through the first three Playoffs events before settling in at No. 52 in the FedExCup standings after the BMW Championship. At the Turkish Airlines Open in early November, opened with a 64 at The Montgomerie Maxx Royal and then peeled off rounds of 68-69-69 over his final 54 holes to T7 in Antalya, six shots behind winner Victor Dubuisson. A week later, rolled to a convincing victory at the DP World Tour Championship in Dubai that gave him a win in The Race to

Dubai, the European Tour season-long points competition. That victory distinction came two months after he won the PGA TOUR's FedExCup. He shot a final-round 64 at the Jumeirah Golf Estates, punctuated with a tap-in eagle on the 72nd hole that earned him a six-shot victory over runner-up Ian Poulter, who playfully waved a white towel in surrender on the final hole. Finished fourth at the Nedbank Golf Challenge on the European Tour in South Africa. Was 16-under for the week at Gary Player CC. In December, finished second to Sergio Garcia at the Thailand Golf Championship in Chonburi. Began the final round four strokes off Garcia's lead and drew to within two shots at one point Sunday but could only match Garcia's 4-under 68 to finish where he started. Finished T5 in his sixth start at the Arnold Palmer Invitational. His previous-best finish at Bay Hill was T8 in 2013. Finished T7 in late-May on the European Tour, at the BMW PGA Championship. Made a valiant effort at victory at the Nordea Masters in Malmo, Sweden. Shot a third-round, 8-under 64 but could only come up with a 71 on the final day, leaving him in fifth place, two shots out of the Thongchai Jaidee-Victor Dubuisson-Stephen Gallacher playoff that Jaidee won. Opened the U.S. Open with three rounds at par or better (69-69-70), following with a 3-over 73 to finish T4, 10 strokes behind runaway winner Martin Kaymer. Previous-best U.S. Open finish in eight starts was ninth in 2009. Made it into another BMW-sponsored tournament playoff, this time the BMW International Open in Germany. Shot four rounds in the 60s at GC Gut Larchenhof (68-68-66-67) to join the four-man playoff with Fabrizio Zanotti, Rafael Cabrera-Bello and Gregory Havret. With Havret dropping out after the second hole and Cabrera-Bello bowing out after four holes, couldn't match Zanotti on the fifth hole to drop into a T2. Finished T3, two strokes behind Rory McIlroy at the PGA Championship, marking his fourth top-10 finish in eight PGA Championship starts (third in 2013, T4 in 2008 and T6 in 2009). Had one top-25 finish in his first 10 major championship appearances but has followed with 16 top-25s in his last 25 starts. Likewise, he failed to record a top-10 in his first 11 major starts but has nine in his last 24 majors. At the Ryder Cup at Gleneagles in Scotland, went 3-1-0 in his four matches to help lead the European team to a five-point victory in the biennial event.

PERSONAL:

A family friend introduced him to the game at age of 12. His father, Ingemar, started two years later but his 15-year-old sister, Ulrika, decided to stick to horse riding. Got down to scratch at age 18, and in 1994 played for Swedish boys. A year later, he graduated to the national side and had a successful amateur career by representing Sweden in the 1998 Eisenhower Trophy in Chile. Wife, Emma, played golf at the University of South Carolina. He spent time practicing at the school's practice facility. Having become a father of two and experiencing much of the world, he is taking interest in the next generation. He has his own junior event at his home club and is also hosting a Challenge Tour tournament, the Princess, in Skaane, Sweden. Started the Henrik Stenson Foundation, where he aims to support and encourage children to reach their full potential through sports. Has always enjoyed team play in the otherwise individual sport and is committed to contribute in the future. Is dedicated to inspiring others, be it teammates or the youngsters he encounters through his junior activities.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2014 Midwest Classic.

2013-14 SEASON:

Finished the season with 25 Web.com Tour appearances, one of only three to play every event, joining Casey Wittenberg and Kelly Kraft. Recorded a win, was a runner-up and also added a T5 and a sixth-place finish along with 11 top-25s, while making 16 cuts. Four rounds in the 60s at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open in March earned him a T5, his best on Tour since the 2013 South Georgia Classic. In May, was T9 after 54 holes of the BMW Charity Pro-Am. Finished solo sixth after a final-round 65. In late June, birdied the 72nd hole of the United Leasing Championship for 71 and a T10. Posted a career-low 60 in the first round of the Albertsons Boise Open in July, a day that included 10 birdies and an eagle. It equaled the low round of the year, with two others. His stretch of 7 under from the 15th hole through the second was the best birdie-eagle streak of the year. Held a two-stroke advantage heading into the second round and posted a 67. Entered the weekend in a tie for the lead and eventually settled for a T4 after rounds of 68-70 at Hillcrest CC. Made another run at victory in August. Was tied for 19th after 36 holes of the Stonebrae Classic. Went bogey-free on the weekend and shot rounds of 62-66 for a T2, three strokes behind winner Tony Finau. Earned his first career win by dominating the field at the Midwest Classic in Kansas City in July. Opened with rounds of 66-63-64 and held a three-stroke lead after 54 holes at the Nicklaus GC at LionsGate. Never lost control of the lead during the windy final round despite a 1-over 72, the highest finish by a winner all year. Finished at 19-under par, three in front of playing partner Aaron Watkins. Became the 12th first-time winner on Tour in 17 events. Opened the final round with consecutive bogeys but bounced back with a birdie on the third hole. Eventually fell into a share of the lead early on the back nine but rallied with three birdies in four holes to distance himself from Watkins. Picked up a check for $108,000 and jumped from No. 20 to No. 4 on the money list. Officially secured his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card for the first time at the conclusion of the Regular Season in late August (third on the money list). Made two of four Finals' cuts, with a T14 at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship his best.

Closed the season by advancing all the way to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, finishing T46 at The Barclays, missing the cut at the Deutsche Bank Championship, T36 at the BMW Championship and T17 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. ## 2013-14 SEASON:

Made the cut in 25 of 31 starts, with a T2 at The Barclays representing the best of his three top-10 finishes. Ended the season No. 20 in the FedExCup standings... Was one of just four players to post four sub-par rounds at the Shell Houston Open in April. Opened with back-to-back, 4-under 68s, before weekend rounds of 69-71 resulted in a fourth-place finish. The top-10 was his first since he was third at the 2013 Valparaiso Championship... Finished T4 for his second top-five finish in five starts at The Greenbrier Classic (missed the cut in 2010, T4 in 2011, T56 in 2012 and T72 in 2013). Earned an invitation into The Open Championship at Royal Liverpool based on being one of the top-four qualifiers not otherwise qualified among the top 12 at The Greenbrier Classic. Following rounds of 74-74, missed the cut in his first Open Championship... Disqualified himself from the PGA Championship the following week after he realized that he made a scoring error under rule 34.16 (III)... Opened and closed with 5-under 66s at Ridgewood CC to T2 at The Barclays, his career-best finish. The T2 performance with Jason Day and Stuart Appleby was his first top-10 in eight starts in the FedExCup Playoffs. Sunday's 66 came on his 27th birthday and helped vault him to No. 10 in the FedExCup standings, an improvement of 51 positions. Added a T69 at the Deutsche Bank Championship and a T31 at the BMW Championship to advance to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the first time in his career... At the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, finished 15th at East Lake GC.

2013-14 SEASON:

Enjoyed a banner season, winning three times and recording career-best top-10 (10) and top-25 (19) finishes. Was one of seven multiple winners during the season. Earned a berth on the U.S. Ryder Cup team and advanced to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the first time in his career... Making his 188th PGA TOUR start, earned his first career victory, capturing the Frys.com Open, two strokes clear of Vijay Singh. Entered the final round trailing 54-hole leader Brooks Koepka by three strokes before a six-birdie, one-bogey final-round 66 led to the victory, topping his previous-best PGA TOUR finish of T2 at the 2013 Greenbrier Classic. Secured a spot in the Hyundai Tournament of Champions and Masters Tournament for the first time. Became the third consecutive come-from-behind winner at the Frys.com Open and the third (in seven seasons) first-time winner of the event. Highlighting his week was a career-low-tying 62 in the third round at CordeValle, the same score he posted in the final round at the 2012 Frys.com Open. Led the field in Strokes Gained - Putting (3.074)... Became the first two-time winner of the season and captured his second career victory when he won the Sony Open in Hawaii. Birdied four of his last five holes to shoot a bogey-free, 7-under-par 63 to outdistance 54-hole leader Chris Kirk by one stroke. It marked the second consecutive year the Sony Open in Hawaii winner posted 63 Sunday. Win in Hawaii came just four days shy of his 35th birthday and allowed him to regain the lead in the FedExCup points race, the position he held for the first six events of the season until Webb Simpson briefly seized the top spot after the Hyundai Tournament of Champions... Entered the final round of the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am with a six-shot lead but won by only one shot after a 74 Sunday. It took a 5-foot par putt on No. 18 to seal the one-shot win and avoid a playoff with Dustin Johnson and Jim Renner, who were both in the clubhouse at 10-under. Earned his third PGA TOUR victory at age 35 years, 25 days in his 195th career start. Streak of consecutive under-par rounds at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am ended at 11, with the final-round 74. Converted his first career TOUR 54-hole lead into victory and recorded the fewest bogeys of the week, with only six. Third win of his season came in his eighth start of the campaign, one of the best starts by a player in recent years other than Tiger Woods. Since 1995, he is the fourth player (11 instances) to win three events in eight or fewer starts to begin a season (David Duval, Phil Mickelson and Woods). Is one of nine different players since 2004 to have three or more wins in a season. The others are Woods, Mickelson, Vijay Singh, Ernie Els, Kenny Perry, Rory McIlroy, Jim Furyk and Steve Stricker... Finished T8 in his first career start in the Masters with rounds of 70-72-76-70... Despite a bogey on the 72nd hole, tied the low round of the day at TPC Sawgrass, with a 7-under 65 to finish T6 at THE PLAYERS Championship with four others. After an opening-round, 3-over 75, made seven birdies and an eagle Sunday for the 65, a 10-stroke improvement... Finished T10 at the Crownie Plaza Invitational at Colonial. Entered the final round one shot off the lead before a final-round 70 dropped him from contention... With rounds of 70-72-71-69, finished T9 in his first U.S. Open start since 2002. With the top-10 finish, maintained his lead in the FedExCup for the 29th of 29 weeks... Saw his 30-consecutive week reign atop the FedExCup standings come to an end following the PGA Championship, despite finishing T7. It marked his third top-10 showing in the four major championships... After opening with 1-under 70s in the first two rounds of the Deutsche Bank Championship, closed 68-67 to finish T9, six strokes behind Kirk. Dropped from No. 3 to No. 4 in the FedExCup standings... Following a T20 finish at the BMW Championship, entered the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola at No. 6 in the rankings... Following a T17 finish at East Lake GC, wrapped up the season No. 7 in the FedExCup standings... In his Ryder Cup debut, went 1-1-3 in his five matches in the European's victory in the biennial event at Gleneagles in Scotland.

PERSONAL:

Learned the game from his father, who was a scratch golfer... Biggest thrill in golf so far has been playing in the 2001 U.S. Open... Met his wife, Erin, at a Web.com Tour event in 2004, where she was a tournament volunteer. Wife is competitive in equestrian competitions. Father-in-law, Mark Stiegemeyer, was the 1975 world champion in freestyle skiing.

Made 17 of 25 cuts on TOUR, with just two top-10s, his fewest since 2008. Had played in every FedExCup Playoffs event from 2009-13 but missed the cut at The Barclays to end his season at No. 105 in the FedExCup standings... Former World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship winner was forced to withdraw prior to the final round of the Cadillac Championship due to a back injury... Looking to improve on his position of 124th in FedExCup standings, played in the Barracuda Championship, opened with nine birdies and no bogeys, good for 18 points and the 18-hole lead in the Modified Stableford scoring event. Ensuing point totals of 8-6-2 resulted in a total of 34, good for a T8 at Montreux G&CC. With the top-10 finish, moved to No. 118 in the standings... Held a one-shot lead going into the final round of the Wyndham Championship before finishing T5.

2013-14 SEASON:

Season highlighted by his second win at the Masters Tournament and a berth on the U.S. Ryder Cup team. Scottsdale, missed a heart-breaking, 5-foot putt for par on the 72nd hole of the Waste Management Phoenix Open. A par would have forced sudden-death with Kevin Stadler. Began the third round with a two-stroke lead over Stadler at 15-under before a final-round, even-par 71 resulted in the T2 finish, with Graham DeLaet...Shot matching weekend rounds of 64 to win the Northern Trust Open by two shots over Dustin Johnson. Came from four shots back on the final day to claim the victory. Weekend rounds of 64-64 is a personal low for the final 36 holes on TOUR. Earned his first win on TOUR since the 2012 Masters. Was the only player in the field to go bogey-free on the weekend at Riviera CC. Fifth TOUR victory came at age 35 years, 3 months, 11 days in his 197th career start. Led the field in Driving Distance (304-yard average)...Recorded his fifth top-10 finish in seven season starts by adding a runner-up performance at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. Earned his sixth PGA TOUR victory in his 201st start at age 35 years, 5 months, 8 days. Won his second major in his 25th start. His win ended a streak of four consecutive come-from-behind victories at the Masters. Had not held a first-, second- or third-round lead in a major before but took the outright second-round lead and the third-round co-lead (with Spieth). In winning the 2012 Masters, was three shots (fourth) off the lead (Peter Hanson) after 54 holes. Has converted two of eight TOUR third-round leads/co-leads. Is tied for second with Jimmy Demaret and Arnold Palmer or the fewest number of attempts before a second victory in the Masters, at six. Became the 17th player in Masters' history with two or more wins. Joined Jose Maria Olazabal, Ben Crenshaw, Bernhard Langer, Seve Ballesteros, Tom Watson, Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson and Horton Smith as players with two Masters' wins. Is second among lefthanders (Phil Mickelson has five) with two career wins in a major. The eventual Masters champion has come out of the final Sunday pairing 20 of the last 24 years. He was one of the exceptions, in 2012, along with Zach Johnson (2007), Charl Schwartzel (2011) and Adam Scott (2013)...Entered the final round of the Memorial Tournament with a one-shot lead, but a final round even-par 72 dropped him to third place. Recorded first top-10 in his ninth start at Muirfield Village GC...Finished second at the BMW Championship, with rounds of 70-66-66-66 at the Cherry Hills CC near Denver. Moved from No. 6 to No. 3 in the FedExCup standings entering the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola to control his own destiny for the FedExCup...Went on to finish 14th at East Lake GC and a career-best fifth in the FedExCup standings...At the Ryder Cup, went 0-3-0 in his three matches in the European victory in the biennial event at Gleneagles in Scotland.

PERSONAL:

He and his wife, Angie, adopted their son (Caleb) on March 26, 2012...Formed the Bubba Watson Foundation in January 2014. The foundation's mission is to enhance the everyday lives of people in need and placing a particular emphasis on helping and inspiring children, young adults and those associated with the U.S. military...Also created Bubba's Bash, an annual charity concert comprised of artists of varying genres and guest speakers who share a love of God...Sponsors the Bubba Watson Invitational at the University of West Florida, a women's NCAA Division II golf tournament at Stonebrook Village GC...Recognized his responsibility as a role model to kids by returning to the University of Georgia to complete his degree without telling family or friends. Wanted to encourage kids to get an education and pursue their dreams...Dedicated his 2010 Travelers Championship win to his wife and father, Gerry, who was battling lung cancer and later passed away in October of 2010. Father was a lieutenant in the Green Berets' Special Forces during the Vietnam War, was honored prior to the clinic for his military service with a plaque presented to him by Gen. Steven Duff, commander of U.S. Army Special Forces Command (Airborne) at Fort Bragg, N.C. "It's special. With my dad's situation, it's brought to my heart that the military is much more important than what we do for a living. So I needed to do something for the Green Berets and bring light to the Pensacola area."... Self-taught player who learned the game by hitting wiffle balls around his house. "The house was probably an acre-and-a-half yard with big trees in downtown Bagdad (Fla). The house is sitting here, and I drew in the dirt driveway. I'd draw a big circle, and that would be my hole, a 5-foot circle. I'd go around it to the left and then I'd go around it to the right. So I learned to cut it. If you know about wiffle balls or plastic balls, it's hard to cut. Then I learned to hook it the other way, hit it high over limbs, hit it low under limbs. I'd say non-stop every day from 6 to 12 years old. Instead of playing with trucks out in the yard, I'd play with a ball and a club."...His most impressive drive came at the Waste Management Phoenix Open in 2012 when he showed up at TPC Scottsdale driving the "General Lee," one of the original Dodge Chargers from the 1980s TV show "The Dukes of Hazzard" that he purchased at the Barrett Jackson car show...Attended the same high school—Milton (Fla.) High School—as PGA TOUR players Heath Slocum and Boo Weekley...Wife is 6-foot-4 and a former University of Georgia, WNBA and European professional basketball player.

Battled Colin Montgomerie down the stretch before finishing second at the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores, Mich., despite a final-round 65. Performance in Michigan was his best Champions Tour effort since winning the same championship at Valhalla in 2011. It was also his 17th top-three finish in a senior major... A week earlier, closed with a 5-under-par 67 at the Regions Tradition, which shared honors for the day's low round and led to a T6 finish at Shoal Creek. It was his eighth top-10 finish in the event, one shy of Jack Nicklaus' record. In addition, earned $79,200 which allowed him to move past Gil Morgan atop the list for career earnings for the Regions Tradition ($1,177,516 in 12 appearances)... Joined teammate Andy North for a T10 finish in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf in June... Added another highlight to his illustrious career resume when he bettered his age for the first time. Fired a second-round, 8-under-par 63 at the Toshiba Classic at age 64. In the process, he became the second-youngest Champions Tour player to better his age. Walter Morgan holds that distinction, shooting a 60 at age 61... Played in his 41st Masters Tournament and 40th in succession in April, tying Nicklaus in that category. Did not make the cut after rounds of 78-81... Finished T35 in July at The Greenbrier Classic on the PGA TOUR on the strength of three consecutive rounds in the 60s... Broke his own record as the oldest player to make the cut at The Open Championship, when he did it at age 64. Fired a closing-round, 4-under-par 68 to finish T51 at Royal Liverpool. It marked the 26th time in his career he had made the cut and the eighth time since turning 50... A week later, used a second-round 66 at Royal Porthcawl to jump into contention at The Senior Open Championship until a final-round 77 dropped him into a T10 in Wales... Captained the U.S. Ryder Cup team for a second time, with the U.S. losing to the European team at Gleneagles in Scotland.

2013-14 SEASON:

Finished the year with 22 Web.com Tour starts, a season that featured a win and five top-25s...With only two top-15s (T11 and T14), eight missed cuts in his first 13 tournaments and self-doubt about his future that began creeping in, got himself into contention at the Utah Championship in mid-July with a 65-66 start. Was only two shots off the halfway pace. Rounds of 72-70 on the weekend pushed him down the standings and into a T21 finish but was encouraged by the result...The next week, picked up his second Tour victory when he captured a playoff win over Steven Alker at the 25th Albertsons Boise Open in July. Carded a 6-under 65 to match the low score on the final day at Hillcrest CC to force the playoff with Alker, the 54-hole leader. Started the final round two shots back of Alker. The two exchanged the lead several times with birdies and bogeys. He bounced back from a pair of bogeys on Nos. 12 and 13 with birdies on 14 and 15 to regain a share of the lead with Alker. Both players rolled in birdie putts at No. 17 to get to 24-under and made pars at the closing hole to force the fifth playoff in tournament history. Their 24-under 260 total broke the old tournament mark of 23-under 261 set in 2013 by Kevin Tway and playoff runner-up Spencer Levin. On the first hole of the playoff, hit a wedge from the left rough to within 10 at the uphill 18th and then rolled in the winning putt, after Alker missed his 30-foot birdie attempt. Collected a check for $144,000 and locked up a return trip to the PGA TOUR in 2014-2015 as the first-place check vaulted him from No. 89 to No. 11 after the 16th of 21 Regular Season events. Had been suffering through a dismal season and was contemplating a career change in the weeks leading up to Boise. "I had lost belief. I've had an awful year and now I've had two good weeks, and now it's a good year," he said after the win. "With a baby on the way you worry about where the money is going to come from. That check is going to pay for a lot of diapers," he said at the time. [Wife Sara delivered the couple's first child in mid August.]...Officially secured his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card at the conclusion of the Regular Season in late August (19th on the money list), setting up his return to the PGA TOUR for the fourth time.

PERSONAL:

Making it to the final stage of the 2005 PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament is his biggest thrill in golf...Lists his parents as his heroes...Got his start in golf from his grandparents.

PERSONAL:

Fourth of eight children and the son of vegetable farmers... Once aspired to be a bodybuilder and own his own gym. A knee injury in his late teens ended that dream... Never knew there was a sport called golf until the age of 19, when he started going to a small, local driving range in South Korea on a friend's advice and learned the swing by watching instructional videos. Worked picking up practice balls and would work on his game before the facility opened and late at night after visitors went home. The range had facilities where you could sleep and eat... As required, spent almost two years in the South Korean military, stationed at his home at Jeju Island, south of South Korea, beginning at age 21. Guarded naval port... Traveled to New Zealand after his military duty to pursue a golf career. Practiced and played intensely there over a three-month period.

Made two PGA TOUR starts during the season. Finished T26 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational and was T46 a week later at the PGA Championship. The finish in Louisville was his first appearance in a major championship... Broke through and won on the European Tour, becoming the first Paraguayan to triumph on that circuit. At the BMW International Open, finished regulation tied with Henrik Stenson, Rafael Cabrera-Bello and Gregory Havret. After Cabrera-Bello and Havret dropped out, won on the fifth extra hole after Stenson hit his drive into the water. Stenson eventually conceded the hole and the title. Was seven shots off Pablo Larrazabal's 36-hole lead then moved into contention with a third-round, 7-under 65. Shot a second consecutive 65 on the final day...The week after his win, posted a top-10 at the Alstom Open de France, a T9 at Le Golf National...Made a run at victory earlier in the season, when he was T3 in May at the Madeira Islands Open in Portugal. In the event reduced to 36 holes because of heavy rain at the Santo da Serra GC, finished T3 with three others, three shots out of the Daniel Brooks-Scott Henry playoff that Brooks won...Was forced to withdraw from the KLM Open in the Netherlands in September. Alexandre Kaleka's tee shot struck him on the forehead while he stood on the 16th fairway. Received medical attention on Kennemer G&CC then went to the hospital for precautionary purposes. The incident forced the suspension of play for a little less than two hours.

NOTES

Beginning in 2013, individual competition joined the two-player team component at the ISPS HANDA World Cup of Golf. The 60-player field was selected based on the Official World Golf Ranking, with up to two players per country allowed to qualify (four per country if the players are within the top 15 of the OWGR). The format returned to 72 holes of stroke play, with the individuals competing for $7 million of the $8-million total purse. OWGR points were awarded for the first time. The team portion was based on combined stroke-play scores.

Tournament Record:

263, Tiger Woods, 1999

Tournament Course Record:

ISPS HANDA World Cup of Golf

NOTES

The 2013 ISPS HANDA World Cup of Golf moved to The Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Australia, where it was held for the fourth time in the tournament's 60-year history, and the first since 1988.

Australians Jason Day and Adam Scott combined to shoot 17-under par to win the 2013 ISPS HANDA World Cup of Golf team competition, while Day's 10-under total was good for the individual title. Day's title, coming at age 26 years, 12 days came against 59 players from 34 countries. There were 26 teams competing for the team title. The victory marked the fifth time Australia won the World Cup team competition, tying South Africa for second-most wins. It is the third individual title for an Australian player.

Jason Day joined Brett Ogle (1992 in Madrid, Spain) and Peter Fowler (1989 in Costa Del Sol, Spain) as Australians to win the individual trophy at the ISPS HANDA World Cup of Golf. When the Australian team of Fowler and Wayne Grady won the World Cup in 1989 and Fowler won the individual title, it marked the only year in tournament history that Australia has won both formats.

The last time the ISPS HANDA World Cup of Golf was won by the host country's team was in 1996 when the South African team of Ernie Els and Wayne Westner won the event in Cape Town. It was also the last time a player from the host country won the individual competition.

NOTES

In its last playing of the Northwestern Mutual World Challenge at Sherwood Country Club, Zach Johnson holed a 58-yard wedge from the drop area on the 72nd hole for par to force an unlikely sudden-death playoff with five-time tournament champion Tiger Woods. With a par on the first extra hole (No. 18), Johnson emerged victorious. In 2014, the event will be contested at Isleworth Golf & Country Club in Windermere, Fla.

The playoff at the 2013 Northwestern Mutual World Challenge between Zach Johnson and Tiger Woods that Johnson won marked the second playoff in tournament history. Graeme McDowell defeated Woods in extra holes in 2010.

Sony Open in Hawaii

NOTES

Jimmy Walker birdied four of his last five holes to shoot a bogey-free, 7-under-par 63, and win the 2014 Sony Open in Hawaii by one stroke over Chris Kirk, the 54-hole leader in the event. Walker (2013 Frys.com Open) became the first two-time winner during the 2013-14 season and marked the second straight year the Sony Open in Hawaii winner posted 63 Sunday.

With his victory, Jimmy Walker re-claimed the lead in the FedExCup standings over Webb Simpson. Through the Sony Open in Hawaii, Walker had led the FedExCup for six of the seven weeks in the 2013-14 season.

Defending champion Russell Henley carded a final-round 69 to tie for 51st. The last player to repeat at Waialae Country Club was Ernie Els in 2003-04.

Jimmy Walker's Sony Open in Hawaii win came in his 193rd career start at age 34 years, 11 months, 27 days. After not winning in his first 187 starts on the PGA TOUR, Walker won two of next six starts.

Zach Johnson, winner of the previous week's Hyundai Tournament of Champions, tied for eighth at the Sony Open in Hawaii. He was one of three players to record top-10 finishes at both PGA TOUR stops in Hawaii in 2014, joined by Matt Kuchar and Adam Scott, who both tied for sixth at Hyundai and tied for eighth at Sony.

Jimmy Walker (2014) became the sixth consecutive winner of the Sony Open in Hawaii to record four rounds in the 60s.

Forty-seven-year-old Jerry Kelly carded a final-round 65 to finish solo third. It was Kelly's best PGA TOUR performance since he was third at the 2011 Honda Classic. It was also his best effort at the Sony Open in Hawaii since he finished third in 2008.

NOTES

Jimmy Walker's closing 74 was the highest final-round score for a winner since Martin Laird posted a 3-over-par 75 en route to winning the 2011 Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard. Walker was just the ninth winner since 1983 to shoot 74 or higher in the final round of a 72-hole stroke-play event.

Jimmy Walker's 757 point lead over Harris English in the FedExCup through the 2014 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am was the largest lead in the history of the FedExCup through the first 12 weeks.

HARRIS ENGLISH

Two-time AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am champion Dustin Johnson (2009 and 2010) tied for second in 2014 on the strength of a final-round 66.

Jim Renner made his first cut of the season in his fifth start and tied for second with Dustin Johnson, one stroke behind Jimmy Walker. The top-10 performance was his first since a tie for fifth at the 2011 Reno-Tahoe in his rookie campaign.

NOTES

Russell Henley, who entered the final round trailing Rory McIlroy by two strokes, carded a 2-over 72 and then birdied the first playoff hole (par-5, No. 18) to defeat Ryan Palmer, Russell Knox and McIlroy to win the 2014 Honda Classic. Prior to Henley's victory, the last four-man play-off on the PGA TOUR came at the 2012 Valspar Championship, with Luke Donald outlasting Sang-Moon Bae, Jim Furyk and Robert Garrigus. Henley joined Ernie Els (2008) as the only come-from-behind winners since The Honda Classic moved to PGA National in 2007.

RORY MCILROY

Russell Henley's second career PGA TOUR victory at the 2014 Honda Classic came in his 36th career start on the PGA TOUR at age 24 years, 10 months, 18 days. The victory was Henley's first top-10 finish since a tie for sixth at the 2013 Memorial Tournament.

World Golf Championships— Cadillac Championship

NOTES

Patrick Reed, who entered the final round with a two-stroke lead over Jason Dufner and Hunter Mahan, carded a final-round even-par 72 for a one-stroke victory over Bubba Watson and Jamie Donaldson. Reed's third PGA TOUR victory came in his 51st career PGA TOUR start at the age of 23 years, 7 months, 4 days, making him the youngest winner of a World Golf Championships event. Tiger Woods won the 1999 Bridgestone Invitational at the age of 23 years, 7 months, 4 days.

JAMIE DONALDSON

Patrick Reed is believed to be the first player with three PGA TOUR wins before his first major championship appearance since Sam Snead won three times (1936 West Virginia Closed Pro, 1937 Oakland Open and 1937 Bing Crosby Pro-Am) prior to making his major debut at the 1937 Masters.

Patrick Reed's 72-hole total of 4-under 284 at the redesigned Blue Monster at Trump National Doral matched Mark McCumber (1985) for the highest winning score for a PGA TOUR event played at Doral.

After a pair of runner-up finishes at Innisbrook (2007-08), John Senden captured the Valspar Championship in his 11th appearance in the event. He became the sixth different international player to win the Valspar Championship and the first Australian. International winners at the Valspar Championship include: K.J. Choi (South Korea in 2002 and 2006), Retief Goosen (South Africa in 2003 and 2009), Vijay Singh (Fiji in 2004), Carl Pettersson (Sweden in 2005) and Luke Donald (England in 2012).

At 42 years, 10 months, 24 days on the day of his victory, John Senden became the first player in his 40s to win on the PGA TOUR in 2013-14. He also became the event's second-oldest winner (Mark Calcavecchia, 46 years, 8 months, 27 days in 2007).

John Senden's winning total of 7-under-par 277 marked the second-highest winning score in Valspar Championship history. Only Sean O'Hair's 4-under-280 in winning the 2008 event was higher.

Arnold Palmer Invitational

presented by MasterCard

NOTES

Adam Scott jumped out of the gate with a 10-under 62, tying the tournament record and his career-low round, but failed in his attempt for a wire-to-wire victory following a final-round, 4-over 76 to finish third. Matt Every, who entered the day four strokes behind Scott, took advantage with a 2-under 70 that resulted in a one-stroke victory over runner-up Keegan Bradley. Every earned his first PGA TOUR victory in his 93rd start (92 as a professional) at age 30 years, 3 months, 19 days.

ADAM SCOTT

By comparison to Matt Every's four-stroke come-from-behind win, the largest comeback victory in tournament history is six strokes by Tom Kite (1982) and Gary Koch (1984). The comeback win was the first at the Arnold Palmer Invitational since Tiger Woods overcame 54-hole leader Sean O'Hair in 2009.

Matt Every became the first player to record his first PGA TOUR victory at the Arnold Palmer Invitational since Paul Goydos in 1996. The win came in his fifth start at Bay Hill (tied for 52nd in 2010, missed the cut in 2011, tied for 24th in 2012 and tied for 34th in 2013).

Matt Every's previous-best PGA TOUR finishes were runner-up efforts at the 2012 Valero Texas Open and 2012 Children's Miracle Network Classic.

Valero Texas Open

NOTES

Despite a 4-over-par 76 in the final round of the 2014 Valero Texas Open, 54-hole leader Steven Bowditch of Australia held on for his first career PGA TOUR title in his 110th career start. He was 30 years, 9 months, 22 days. With rounds of 69-67-68-76, Bowditch edged Will MacKenzie and Daniel Summerhays by one stroke.

WILL MACKENZIE

Steven Bowditch, a native of Australia, was just the fourth international-born player since 1970 to win the Valero Texas Open (Martin Laird in 2013, Adam Scott in 2010 and Nick Price in 1992).

The closing 76 for 2014 Valero Texas Open champion Steven Bowditch was the highest final-round score for a champion since Vijay Singh won the 2004 PGA Championship in a playoff after posting a 4-over-par 76. The last winner of a non-major to shoot 76 or higher in the final round was Fred Couples, who carded a 77 and won in a playoff at the 1983 Kemper Open.

Prior to his 2014 Valero Texas Open title, Steven Bowditch's best finish had been a tie for second at the 2013 Greenbrier Classic. Entering the week, Bowditch's best finish during the 2013-14 PGA TOUR Season was a tie for 19th at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am.

Shell Houston Open

NOTES

After a final-round 66 at the 2014 Shell Houston Open that included a 42-foot putt on the 72nd hole to force a playoff with 54-hole leader Matt Kuchar, Matt Jones chipped in for birdie on the first playoff hole to earn his first PGA TOUR victory. The win came in his 156th career start at age 33 years, 11 months, 18 days. The win earned Jones the final exemption into the following week's Masters Tournament.

MATT KUCHAR

The six-stroke come-from-behind win for Matt Jones was the largest comeback since the event moved to the Tournament Course at the Golf Club of Houston. The all-time deficit-overcome tournament record is seven shots, by Mike Sullivan in 1989 and Payne Stewart in 1995, both at the TPC Woodlands.

Matt Jones became the ninth Shell Houston Open winner from Australia, joining Bruce Devlin (1972), Bruce Crampton (1973 and 1975), David Graham (1983), Stuart Appleby (1999 and 2006), Robert Allenby (2000) and Adam Scott (2007).

The 2014 playoff was the 22nd in tournament history, the most for any non-major PGA TOUR event. Prior to the 2014 playoff, the last came in 2010 when Anthony Kim defeated Vaughn Taylor.

Kuchar overcame a three-putt from four feet for bogey to fall back into a tie with Donald on the 71st hole. He holed a greenside bunker shot for birdie on the 72nd hole to finish at 11-under par, one stroke ahead of Donald, who was unable to birdie the last hole to force a playoff.

THE PLAYERS Championship

NOTES

Martin Kaymer posted rounds of 63-69-72-71 to win THE PLAYERS Championship by one stroke over Jim Furyk and two strokes over Sergio Garcia.

Garcia, Kaymer, who held at least a share of the lead for all four rounds, survived a double bogey on the par-4 15th hole during the final round with dramatic, up-and-down par saves on the 71st and 72nd holes to secure his second PGA TOUR victory at age 29 years, 4 months, 13 days in his 74th career PGA TOUR start.

Martin Kaymer's 2014 victory came in his sixth PLAYERS Championship start, with a tie for 15th in 2012 his best-previous finish.

Martin Kaymer's final-round 71 was the highest winner's score at THE PLAYERS since Sergio Garcia posted an identical 71 in 2008.

SERGIO GARCIA

In the first round, Martin Kaymer posted a bogey-free, 9-under 63 to tie the low 18-hole score at THE PLAYERS Championship (Fred Couples (third round in 1992), Greg Norman (first round in 1994) and Roberto Castro (first round in 2013). Kaymer carded a 7-under 29 on the front nine (his final nine holes after beginning the round on No. 10) to establish a new nine-hole scoring record at the event. His 29 on Nos. 1-9 included birdies on Nos. 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, 8 and 9.

Martin Kaymer is one of only four players to have a victory at THE PLAYERS (2014), a World Golf Championships event (2011 HSBC Champions) and a major (2010 PGA Championship). He joined Tiger Woods, Phil Mickelson and Adam Scott.

HP Byron Nelson Championship

NOTES

Brendon Todd (68-64-68-66) became the 12th winner in the last 18 years to post four rounds in the 60s at TPC Four Seasons Resort.

Brendon Todd became the 12th player to claim his first TOUR win at the HP Byron Nelson Championship, joining Don January (1956), Johnny Pott (1960), Charles Coody (1964), Mark Hayes (1976), Neal Lancaster (1994), Robert Damron (2001), Ted Purdy (2005), Brett Wetterich (2006), Jason Day (2010), Keegan Bradley (2011) and Sang-Moon Bae (2013).

With his runner-up finish, Mike Weir wrapped up his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card. In 2013-14, Weir was using his one-time, top-50 TOUR career-money exemption after struggling the last several years as he recovered from a partial ligament tear in his right elbow suffered when he hit a tree root during the 2010 RBC Heritage. Weir's top-10 at the HP Byron Nelson Championship was his first top-10 in 88 starts, dating to the 2010 Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation.

MIKE WEIR

Amateur Scottie Scheffler, the No. 1-ranked junior in the Golfweek/Sagarin Boys rankings, the AJGA Polo rankings and the Junior Golf Scoreboard rankings, playing on a sponsor's exemption, tied for 22nd in his first career TOUR start.

NOTES

Hideki Matsuyama, who began the final round of the 2014 Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide two strokes behind 54-hole leader

Bubba Watson, birdied the par-4 18th hole for the fourth day in a row to force sudden-death with Kevin Na. Na had posted his 13-under score nearly two hours earlier, thanks to a bogey-free 64. Matsuyama's par at No. 18 on the first extra hole was good for the win.

With his victory, Hideki Matsuyama became the fourth Japanese-born player to win on the PGA TOUR, joining Ryuji Imada (2008 AT&T Classic), Shigeki Maruyama (2001 Greater Milwaukee Open, 2002 HP Byron Nelson Championship, 2003 Wyndham Championship) and Isao Aoki (1983 Sony Open in Hawaii). Matsuyama was also the eighth international winner in the 39-year history of the Memorial Tournament.

Hideki Matsuyama won his first career PGA TOUR title at the 2014 Memorial Tournament in his 26th start at age 22 years, 3 months, 7 days, supplanting Tiger Woods as the event's youngest winner. In 1999, Woods won at Muirfield Village at age 23 years, 5 months, 7 days. ## NOTES

At the 2014 U.S. Open, Martin Kaymer (65-65) became the first player to record consecutive rounds of 65 or better to open a major championship en route to the lowest opening 36-hole score in U.S. Open history (10-under 130) and a six-stroke lead at the halfway point of the 114th tournament. He added rounds of 72-69 to secure an eight-stroke victory over Erik Compton and Rickie Fowler, becoming the seventh different player to win the U.S. Open in wire-to-wire fashion (no ties), joining Walter Hagen (1914), James Barnes (1921), Ben Hogan (1953), Tony Jacklin (1970), Tiger Woods (2000 and 2002) and Rory McIlroy (2011).

He was age 35 years, 7 months, 18 days in his 187th career PGA TOUR start. He posted rounds of 64-64 on the weekend, overcoming a four-stroke deficit in the final round to edge K.J. Choi and Sergio Garcia by one stroke.

K.J. CHOI

Kevin Streelman's seven birdies to finish and win the 2014 Travelers Championship was a new PGA TOUR record, supplanting Mike Souchak's previous record of six consecutive at the 1956 St. Paul Open.

NOTES

In winning the 2014 Travelers Championship, Kevin Streelman closed with 10 consecutive one-putts, making him the first winner since Matt Kuchar (2002 Honda Classic) to finish with 10 consecutive one-putts.

Prior to winning, Kevin Streelman had missed four consecutive cuts (THE PLAYERS Championship, the Memorial Tournament, the FedEx St. Jude Classic and the U.S. Open).

K.J. Choi was in search of his first win since the 2011 PLAYERS Championship. His runner-up finish matched his best performance of the 2013-14 season, a tie for second at the Farmers Insurance Open.

Sergio Garcia's tie for second came in his third career start at TPC River Highlands.

Third-round leader Ryan Moore posted a final-round 71 to tie for fifth, his fifth top-10 finish at TPC River Highlands. He tied for second in 2006 and 2011, tied for fourth in 2009 and tied for seventh in 2013.

Miguel Angel Carballo made three eagles in the final round en route to a career-best, 7-under-par 63. He moved from a tie for 55th to a tie for 18th, thanks to his final-round 63.

DARREN CLARKE

Making his fifth consecutive start at The Open Championship, Rickie Fowler's tie for second bettered his previous-best finish in the event of (tied for fifth in 2011). Fowler missed the cut in 2013 at Muirfield, tied for 31st in 2012 and tied for 14th in 2010.

The Open Championship

NOTES

Rickie Fowler was the lone player to post top-10s in the first three major championships of 2014, a tie for fifth at the Masters and ties for second at the U.S. Open and The Open Championship. A key to Fowler's success in the trio of events has been avoiding poor holes. He has only two holes with scores of double bogey or worse compared to 10 through three majors in 2013. At The Open Championship, Fowler led the field in Birdies (23).

Playing in his 19th consecutive Open Championship, Jim Furyk's final-round, 7-under 65 tied the low score for the week (Marc Leishman in the final round and Dustin Johnson in the second round) en route to a solo fourth-place finish. The finish was his sixth top-10 performance in the event and equaled his best from 1997 (Royal Troon) and 2006 (Royal Liverpool).

NOTES

Tim Clark, who entered the final round of the 2014 RBC Canadian Open trailing Jim Furyk by three strokes, posted a final-round, 5-under 65—including a back-nine 30—to earn a one-stroke victory over Furyk. Clark recorded his second PGA TOUR victory (2010 PLAYERS Championship) in his 284th start at age 38 years, 7 months, 10 days.

Tim Clark's 30 on the final nine included eight consecutive one-putts, and his 263 total over the 72 holes tied the all-time tournament record previously shared by Johnny Palmer (1952) and Scott Piercy (2012).

The runner-up finish for Jim Furyk was his third of the season (Wells Fargo Championship, THE PLAYERS Championship) and 28th of his career. Furyk (2006 and 2007), was seeking to become the fourth three-time winner of the RBC Canadian Open, joining (Tommy Armour, Sam Snead and Lee Trevino). Leo Diegel (1924-25 and 1928-29) is the only four-time winner.

JIM FURYK

Tim Clark is the fourth South African winner of the RBC Canadian Open. The others are Bobby Locke (1947), Nick Price (1991 and 1994) and David Frost (1993).

PGA Championship

NOTES

With his win, Rory McIlroy moved from No. 3 to No. 1 in the FedExCup standings, supplanting Jimmy Walker (who held the top spot for 36 of 37 weeks, including a record 30 consecutive weeks starting with his victory at the Sony Open in Hawaii).

With his tie for seventh at the PGA Championship, Jimmy Walker posted top-10 performances in three major championships. He tied for eighth at the Masters Tournament and tied for ninth at the U.S. Open. In addition, he tied for sixth at THE PLAYERS Championship and a tie for 26th at The Open Championship.

Rory McIlroy, winner of The Open Championship and PGA Championship in 2014, became the first player to win back-to-back majors since Padraig Harrington at the 2008 Open Championship and PGA Championship. Prior to Harrington, Tiger Woods (2006 Open Championship and PGA Championship) and Phil Mickelson (2005 PGA Championship and 2006 Masters Tournament) were the last ones to accomplish the feat. Woods has won back-to-back majors on five different occasions, including four consecutive wins starting with the 2000 U.S. Open and concluding at the 2001 Masters Tournament.

Wyndham Championship

NOTES

J.J. Henry, one of eight players to finish inside the top 125 on the TOUR money list each year since 2001, finished No. 143 on the season-ending money list in 2013-14.

Only one player moved inside the top 200 in FedExCup standings at the 2014 Wyndham Championship. Doug LaBelle II shot an even-par 70 in the final round to tie for 38th and jump to No. 200, pushing David Duval out of that spot. With the finish, LaBelle became eligible to compete in the Web.com Tour Finals.

Finishing with a bogey-free, 6-under 64, Bill Haas tied for second, good for his third top-10 finish in 10 starts at the Wyndham Championship. He finished tied for seventh in 2012 and tied for 10th in 2009.

Freddie Jacobson followed a 6-under 64 in the second round with back-to-back 66s on the week-end to tie for second, his best finish since his 2011 Travelers Championship victory.

Heath Slocum finished fourth, his first top-10 performance since winning the 2010 McGladrey Classic.

Nick Watney, the 54-hole leader, who needed a birdie on the 72nd hole to force a playoff with Camilo Villegas, hit his tee shot out of bounds and closed with a double-bogey to tie for fifth. Watney is now one of seven at converting a 54-hole lead into victory through the 2013-14 schedule.

NOTES

In the eight-year history of the FedExCup Playoffs, only three players have advanced to the TOUR Championship after starting the Playoffs outside the cut line to make the second Playoffs event, with Morgan Hoffmann the latest to perform the feat, thanks to a tie for ninth at The Barclays and a solo third at the BMW Championship, where he carded rounds of 62-63 on the weekend. In 2009, Heath Slocum began the FedExCup Playoffs at No. 124 before winning The Barclays and advancing to the TOUR Championship. In 2010, Kevin Streelman began the FedExCup Playoffs at No. 102 and went on to advance to Atlanta, thanks in large part to a tie for third at The Barclays.

With top-five finishes at the 2014 BMW Championship, Morgan Hoffmann (solo third) and Ryan Palmer (tied for fourth) moved into the top 30 to qualify for the Playoff finale, the TOUR Championship. Falling out of the top 30 were Stuart Appleby (tied for 46) and Keegan Bradley (WD). In the last six years (2009-2014) with the current FedExCup points system, a total of 15 players have played their way into the top 30 at the BMW Championship.

The Presidents Cup

In July of 2013, the PGA TOUR announced that the 2015 Presidents Cup would be contested at Jack Nicklaus Golf Club Korea, a par-72, 7,413-yard course designed by Nicklaus' design company. The course is located in the Songdo International Business District in Incheon, South Korea. It will mark the first time Asia has hosted the biennial team competition, with Nick Price resuming his role as International Team Captain while three-time Assistant Captain Jay Haas takes the helm for the United States squad.

HISTORY

The Presidents Cup was developed to give the world's best non-European players an opportunity to compete in international team match-play competition.

The first Presidents Cup was played September 16-18, 1994, at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Virginia. The U.S. team, captained by Hale Irwin, defeated the International team, captained by David Graham, 20-12.

The United States also won the second Presidents Cup, held September 13-15, 1996, played again at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. Arnold Palmer, no stranger to high-level international competition, had the reins as the United States edged Peter Thomson's International team, 16 1/2-15 1/2.

The Presidents Cup 1998 was played December 11-13 at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. The International team made the most of the home-field advantage, winning 20 1/2-11 1/2. Jack Nicklaus served as captain of the U.S. team, while Thomson repeated his role as captain for the International team.

In 2000, The Presidents Cup returned to Robert Trent Jones, with the United States avenging its 1998 loss, with a decisive 21 1/2-10 1/2 victory over the International team. Thomson captained the International team for a third time, while Ken Venturi was victorious in his debut as U.S. team captain.

The Presidents Cup 2003 was held at The Links at Fancourt Hotel and Country Club Estate in George, South Africa. The competition ended in a tie after both teams completed regulation with 17 points. Ernie Els of the International team and Tiger Woods of the U.S. team were designated to represent their sides in a sudden-death playoff. After three extra holes, and as darkness was descending, Captains Gary Player and Nicklaus, in the spirit of the competition, decided that the two teams would share the Cup.

In 2005, Nicklaus and Player returned as captains, and the matches were held once again at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. The tie from 2003 was broken with an 18 1/2-15 1/2 U.S. victory.

The U.S. team wrapped up its fifth Presidents Cup victory in seven tries, this time at Royal Montreal Golf Club, in 2007—securing a 19 1/2-14 1/2 victory, the U.S. team's first win at an international venue in the competition's 13-year history. Nicklaus again led the U.S. team, with David Toms earning the most points for his U.S. squad. Woody Austin earned a new nickname—Aquaman—after falling into the lake on the 14th hole while attempting a shot. And while his team did not win, Canadian golf hero Mike Weir thrilled the crowds with a 1-up victory over No. 1-ranked Woods in Sunday's singles competition. Player captained the International team for a third and final time.

In 2009, The Presidents Cup was held at Harding Park Golf Course in San Francisco, Calif., one of the top public golf properties in the United States. Two of the most-dominant players on the PGA TOUR during the 1980s and 1990s, Fred Couples and Greg Norman, led the U.S. and International teams, respectively. The Presidents Cup 2009 marked the first time in event history that both captains were former participants. Couples has appeared four times (1994, 1996, 1998 and 2005) for the United States and Norman three (1996, 1998 and 2000) for the Internationals, and both factored prominently in victories secured by their respective teams. As first-time captains, Couples and Norman each led strong teams, with the U.S. retaining the Cup, winning for the sixth time (19 1/2-14 1/2).

The ninth playing of the event occurred November 15-20, 2011, at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, which was the first international venue to host this prestigious competition more than once.

The U.S. team captured The Presidents Cup for the seventh time, captained once again by Couples and led by a 5-0-0 performance from veteran Jim Furyk. Woods, one of Couples' two captain's picks, clinched the Cup for the United States with a 4-and-3 win over Australia's Aaron Baddeley in Sunday singles. For Woods, it was the second consecutive time he had scored the winning point at The Presidents Cup, becoming only the second player to accomplish that feat (Couples, in 1994 and 1996) and the first captain's pick to do so. Norman's International team played well but was undone by the foursomes competition. The Internationals were outscored 8-3 in foursomes and eventually lost the Cup by four points (19-15).

Muirfield Village Golf Club hosted the 10th Presidents Cup, contested in 2013 in Dublin, Ohio. The venue became the first to host The Presidents Cup, Ryder Cup and Solheim Cup. Fred Couples reprised his role as U.S. captain for the third time after winning efforts in 2009 and 2011. Nick Price, a five-time Presidents Cup participant (1994, 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2003), served as captain of the International team for the first time. The U.S. team kept its winning streak alive, winning 18 1/2-15 1/2, holding off the International team, which attempted a late rally but came up short. Leading the way for the U.S. was Tiger Woods, who recorded a 4-1-0 record in his five matches, with Woods clinching the victory for the U.S. against Richard Sterne in Sunday singles' play.

Former U.S. President Gerald Ford presided over the first Presidents Cup as Honorary Chairman. Former President George H.W. Bush, like Ford an avid golfer, served as Honorary Chairman for The Presidents Cup 1996 and has attended every staging of the event since. He has since been inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame. Australian Prime Minister John Howard was Honorary Chairman for the 1998 event. In 2000, U.S. President Bill Clinton made history when he became the first sitting president to serve as Honorary Chairman. In 2003, Thabo Mbeki, President of the Republic of South Africa, was Honorary Chairman. U.S. President George W. Bush, the son George H. W. Bush, served as the Honorary Chairman of The Presidents Cup 2005, and Canadian Prime Minister Stephen Harper was the 2007 Honorary Chairman. U.S. President Barack Obama presided over The Presidents Cup 2009 as Honorary Chairman. In the last playing of The Presidents Cup in 2011, Australian Prime Minister Julia Gillard was Honorary Chairperson.

CHARITY

The Presidents Cup follows the PGA TOUR creed of giving back. There is no purse for the players. Net revenues are divided into equal shares that the players and captains designate for charities or golf-related projects of their choice. The first 10 Presidents Cups generated more than $32 million for charities worldwide, including a record $5 million donation from the 2013 event.

Other Awards Won by PGA TOUR Players

PGA Player of the Year

The PGA Player of the Year Award is given by the PGA of America to the top PGA TOUR player based on a mathematical formula that weighs tournament wins, official money standing and scoring average.

The point system for selecting the Player of the Year was amended in 1982, as follows: 30 points for winning the PGA Championship, U.S. Open, British Open or Masters Tournament; 20 points for winning THE PLAYERS Championship; 10 points for winning all other designated PGA TOUR events. In addition, there is a 50-point bonus for winning two majors, 75-point bonus for winning three, 100-point bonus for winning four.

For top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR's official money list and scoring average list, the point value is: first, 20 points, then 18, 16, 14, 12, 10, 8, 6, 4, 2. Any incomplete rounds in the scoring average list will result in a .10 penalty per incomplete round.

Payne Stewart Award

The award is named for Payne Stewart, an 11-time winner on the PGA TOUR, including three major championships. Stewart died the week of the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in 1999. The award was created by the PGA TOUR Policy Board to perpetuate Stewart's memory. It is presented annually at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola to a player sharing Stewart's respect for the traditions of the game, his commitment to uphold the game's heritage of charitable support and the professional and meticulous presentation of himself and the sport through his dress and conduct.

In addition to a sculpture presented to the recipient, the Payne Stewart Award is accompanied by an annual Payne Stewart Award Grant presented by Southern Company. The $300,000 grant will support several initiatives in Stewart's name to be distributed as follows: $100,000 to Payne and Tracey Stewart's primary charity, The Stewart Family Foundation; $100,000 in Stewart's honor to The First Tee facility in Missouri, located at Camp Kanakuk, which is affiliated with the "Kids Across America" program; and $100,000 to a charity designated by the recipient.

David Chu Award

The Award was created in 2009 to recognize Dr. David Chu's outstanding contributions to the growth of golf in China. Dr. Chu died Aug. 12, 2011 in Hong Kong.

Dr. Chu was considered by many as the father of golf in China. Dr. Chu founded Mission Hills Golf Club in 1992, confident in his belief that China's thriving economy would give rise to a domestic golf and leisure industry. A little more than 15 years after breaking ground, Mission Hills has grown into the world's largest golf club and is leading the golf boom gripping China.

The award is an 8-centimeter-by-8-millimeter bronze medal bearing Dr. Chu's likeness and featuring text in English and Chinese on either side. It is anticipated that in future years the award will be given in Dr. Chu's name to other worthy recipients who have been instrumental in developing golf in China.
