PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 125 official-money tournaments on five tours—the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, NEC Series - PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and PGA TOUR Canada. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America. The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the TOUR but with their marquee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-tour co-sponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, N.J., oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (Ga.) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, oversees The Open Championship and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf tour, with 2013-14 official-money events beginning in October 2013 and ending in September 2014. This is the eighth season of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs.

2013-14 Membership: 86 international players, 22 countries

TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, TNT

Competition Awards: FedExCup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money-winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Courage Award, Rookie of the Year

The Champions Tour continues to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and older with a fan-friendly platform that promotes "inside the ropes" and game-improvement for its fans. The Charles Schwab Cup, a season-long, points-based competition, enters its 14th season.

2014 Membership: 22 international players, 16 countries

TV: NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN.

Competition Awards: Charles Schwab Cup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Rookie of the Year, Comeback Player of the Year

The Web.com Tour is the path to the PGA TOUR whereby all 50 TOUR cards now come via the Web.com Tour. Through 2013, 365 PGA TOUR titles have been won by former Web.com Tour players. Three out of four members of the PGA TOUR have Web.com Tour roots.

2014 Membership: 77 international players, 17 countries

TV: Golf Channel

Competition Awards: Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), 50 PGA TOUR cards awarded

NEC Series – PGA TOUR Latinoamérica

The NEC Series - PGA TOUR Latinoamérica is a professional golf tour created in 2012 by the PGA TOUR in collaboration with promoters and national golf federations in Latin America. The inaugural season in 2012 featured 11 tournaments between September and December in seven countries in the Latin American region: Mexico, Colombia, Brazil, Argentina, Peru, the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico. The Tour expanded to 14 events in nine countries in its 2013 season, adding Uruguay and Chile. NEC signed on as umbrella sponsor of the Tour in April 2013. The leading money-winner is awarded the Roberto De Vincenzo Award, and the top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

PGA TOUR Canada

PGA TOUR Canada (formerly known as the Canadian Tour) is a professional golf tour consisting of nine events played across Canada. Since its inception as the Peter Jackson Tour in 1971, PGA TOUR Canada has evolved into a high-caliber, coast-to-coast training ground for professionals. Its alumni include not only the game's Canadian legends but also many of its most prominent international players, who have collectively won 115 PGA TOUR titles, through 2013. Nine, 72-hole stroke play events with purses of $150,000 took place across the country beginning in June 2013. The top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR Canada Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

Web.com Tour Alumni

Since the Web.com Tour's inception in 1990, it has graduated 433 players to the PGA TOUR, with hundreds of other PGA TOUR-bound players having also gained experience by way of the TOUR's official proving ground. Once on the PGA TOUR, these same players have produced 365 TOUR victories, including 18 majors and five PLAYERS Championships (through the 2013 season). More than three out of four PGA TOUR members have Web.com Tour roots.

The following are just a handful of the many Web.com Tour alumni who have achieved success on the PGA TOUR (with year last played on Tour listed):

2014 PATH TO THE PGA TOUR / 50 CARDS

In one of the most significant changes to how a professional golfer qualifies for the PGA TOUR, all 50 available PGA TOUR membership cards were awarded through the Web.com Tour for the first time in 2013.

In 2014, there will once again be 21 Regular Season tournaments, followed by four Finals events in late August/September, played in Fort Wayne, Ind., Charlotte, N.C., Columbus, Ohio and Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. Cards will be awarded to the top-25 Web.com Tour money leaders at the end of the Regular Season. An additional 25 cards will be awarded at the conclusion of the Finals based on a separate four-event Finals' money list. The Finals will feature a blend of Web.com Tour members (top-75 Regular Season money winners) and PGA TOUR members (FedEx Cup Nos. 126-200), who are seeking to regain their TOUR status. All players in the Finals will be competing to finish the season with the best status possible in the all-important priority ranking, used to form PGA TOUR fields.

Below is the list of the 50 players who secured their 2013-14 PGA TOUR cards via the Web.com Tour in 2013, in order of their priority positions.

2013 Player of the Year/Jack Nicklaus Award - Michael Putnam

- Finished No. 1 on the Regular Season moneylist, with $450,184.
- Finished the season (Regular Season + Finals) with $515,184 in earnings, the third most in Tour history.
- Led the moneylist for 15 weeks (after Mexico Championship, through Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship), the sixth longest stretch in Tour history.
- Won back-to-back tournaments in late May and early June (Mexico Championship, Mid-Atlantic Championship); became only the eighth player in Tour history to do so on consecutive calendar weeks.
- First win came at the Mexico Championship, where he shot 64-72-73-66 – 275 (-13) to claim a two-shot victory.
- Second title came the very next week in Potomac, Md., where he shot 71-64-70-68 – 273 (-7) to again win by two shots on the Tour's toughest course of the year, TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm.
- Had one runner-up (T2) at the South Georgia Classic in April and one third (T3) at the Albertsons Boise Open in July.
- Collected a total of nine top 10s on the year and 14 top 25s, tops in both categories.
- Made the cut in 19 of 23 starts.
- Of his 83 rounds, 60 were par or better (72.3%) and 53 were under par (63.8%).
- Was a cumulative 166-under par.
- Finished season 2nd in Greens In Regulation Percentage (74.31), T3 in Scoring Average (69.22) and 6th in All-Around Ranking (226).
- Low round of the year was 63, which he posted three times.
- Older brother, Joel, was his caddie for most of the season.
- Turned 30 on June 1st, the Saturday of his Mid-Atlantic Championship win.

History of the Web.com Tour (1990-2012)

UMBRELLA SPONSOR HISTORY

1990 - 1992	Ben Hogan Tour
1993 - 1999	Nike Tour
2000 - 2002	Buy.com Tour
2003 - 2012	Nationwide Tour
2012 - present	Web.com Tour (announced 6/27/12)

Even the most optimistic person couldn't have foreseen the success the Web.com Tour would have when it kicked off its inaugural season on Thursday, Feb. 2, 1990 at 7:30 a.m. PST at Bakersfield Country Club in Bakersfield, Calif.

The Web.com Tour began under corporate sponsorship of the Ben Hogan Company as the Ben Hogan Tour. The idea of former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane R. Beman, the Web.com Tour was designed as a proving ground for up-and coming golfers, as well as a place for PGA TOUR veterans to hone their skills as they prepared for the Champions Tour. It has become so much more than that.

For the first two years of the Tour, the top-five money winners were awarded PGA TOUR membership. Beginning in 1992, the PGA TOUR Policy Board voted that, due to the success graduating players were having on the PGA TOUR, the number of cards available would be increased to 10; and in 1997 the number was increased to 15. In 2003, 20 players earned their 2004 TOUR cards, and that number increased to 25 in 2007.

That first event in 1990 was won by Mike Springer, who went on to win two more times that year and finish fourth on the money list. He was joined in the first graduating class by Jim McGovern, Dick Mast, Ed Humenik and Jeff Maggert, who was leading money winner and Player of the Year.

However, the player who made the biggest impact on the PGA TOUR from the 1990 Tour was John Daly, winner of the only Ben Hogan Tour Qualifying Tournament. Daly won the 1991 PGA Championship as a rookie and went on to finish 17th on the PGA TOUR money list. Since then, he has added four more victories, including another major championship, the 1995 The Open Championship.

Tom Lehman first established himself as a top-flight player on the Tour in 1991. After two nondescript years on the PGA TOUR in the early 1980s, Lehman won a tournament on Tour in 1990. But 1991 was the breakthrough season in his comeback. He won three times and was the circuit's leading money-winner.

Californian John Flannery was the Player of the Year in 1992, winning three times and leading the Tour in earnings with $164,114.

On August 26, 1992 Nike, Inc., took over sponsorship of the Tour, beginning with the 1993 season. Sean Murphy was the star that year,

In 2002, the Tour added tournaments in Australia and New Zealand for the first time. In addition, tournaments were allowed to sell individual title sponsorships for the first time. Patrick Moore won three times and was named Player of the Year. A record 12 players earned $200,000 or more, and alums continued to excel winning a single season record 21 times on the PGA TOUR.

The season ended on a high note with the announcement of a new umbrella sponsor in Nationwide Insurance. The five-year agreement would start with the 2003 season and coincided with an increase in PGA TOUR cards awarded to 20.

Carter became only the sixth player to earn a three-win promotion to the PGA TOUR, yet did not win Player of the Year. That honor went to Zach Johnson, who set a Tour record for earnings with $494,882. He had two wins and nine top-three finishes in 20 starts while setting a new Tour scoring record of 68.97.

Jimmy Walker was the 2004 Player of the Year and leading money winner, as well as one of five multiple winners during the season. Alums continued to excel, winning a record 22 PGA TOUR titles, while the Class of 2003 made history with five members winning on TOUR, with seven earning at least $1 million and eight finishing in the top 125.

In May, Daniel Chopra set a Tour record when he shot 30-under at the Henrico County Open. Tyler Williamson and Chris Nallen each fired 60s during the year, one shot off the Tour record.

Jason Gore was the lead story in 2005 when he captured the hearts of golf fans everywhere at the U.S. Open. He followed that performance with a record-setting three straight wins on the Web.com Tour and shot 59 in capturing the last one. He completed his season with a September victory on the PGA TOUR and was named Web.com Tour Player of the Year. Any other year, Troy Matteson would have walked off with that honor as he won twice, finished in the top 10 a dozen times and set a new single-season earnings record of $495,009.

The 2006 season featured a slate of 31 tournaments and $17 million. Ken Duke and Johnson Wagner battled throughout the year for top honors, with Duke emerging as the leading money winner and Player of the Year.

Five players won twice—Wagner, Tripp Isenhour, Craig Kanada, Brandt Snedeker and Kevin Stadler—with a record 10 players earning more than $300,000 and 22 collecting $200,000 or more.

The Class of 2005 made its mark on the PGA TOUR in 2006 with 12 of the 21 graduates finishing among the top 125 on the money list. Chris Couch, setting records for wins in a season with four, career victories with five, and single-season earnings with $166,293. He added a sixth title in 1995.

While Murphy was busy setting records, his fellow Tour alumni were busy making names for themselves on the PGA TOUR. Daly collected his second career win in the 1992 B.C. Open, and others were beginning to earn their own hardware. McGovern, Mike Standly and Maggert all collected PGA TOUR titles in 1993, while Springer and Greg Kraft grabbed unofficial wins. The Tour Championship also was established in 1993 as a climax to the season. Rookie David Duval won the first Tour Championship, which featured only the year's top-50 money winners.

In 1994, Chris Perry showed that consistency has its own rewards. Although six players collected multiple victories that year, Perry's lone title in the Utah Classic, 10 top-10 finishes and no missed cuts earned him Player of the Year honors. He set a single-season earnings record with $167,148.

There were a number of firsts in 1994. In June, Tommy Armour III became the first player to win back-to-back tournaments—the Miami Valley Open and Cleveland Open. During the second round of the 1994 Shreveport Open, Omar Uresti set a record with nine consecutive birdies, setting a standard not only for the Web.com Tour but the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and European Tour.

In May, Vic Wilk became the first left-hander to win an event, the Knoxville Open. Jerry Kelly continued the trend of the leading money-winner setting an earnings record in 1995 when he collected $188,878 to better Perry's year-old mark. Besides winning twice, Kelly posted 15 top-10 finishes.

Stewart Cink was the top story in 1996. The 1995 College Player of the Year became the first player in Web.com Tour history to earn more than $200,000 in a single season with $251,699. He won three times, including the season-ending Tour Championship, and collected 14 top-10 finishes in only 21 events.

The 1997 season marked the first year of the three-win promotion, which grants immediate PGA TOUR access to any player who wins three Web.com Tour events in a season. Chris Smith was the first to do so winning that year's Upstate Classic as well as the Dakota Dunes Open and Omaha Classic in back-to-back weeks.

In October, Steve Flesch joined Wilk as the only left-handed champions. Flesch won the season-ending Tour Championship. That victory vaulted him from 24th on the money list to fourth, earning him 1998 PGA TOUR membership.

The 1998 season saw more of the kind of action for which the Web.com Tour has become known. During a three-week period late in the spring, Notah Begay III and Doug Dunakey caught the attention of the golf world when each posted 59. Begay's 13-under-par 59 came in the second round of the Dominion Open. Dunakey could have had the record all to himself were it not for a three-putt bogey on his final hole.

Bob Burns was named 1998 Player of the Year after leading in earnings with $178,664 and winning the Dominion Open and Tour Championship.

The 1999 season saw Carl Paulson establish a new record for consecutive starts with 83. The 83rd was particularly significant as Paulson recorded his first-ever Web.com Tour victory at the Utah Classic. That win, and another two weeks later in Boise, Idaho, vaulted Paulson to the top of the money list. His peers would later vote him Player of the Year. Seven players won twice on the Tour in 1999, and a record 22 earned more than $100,000.

The season-ending Tour Championship featured a thrilling finale at the Robert Trent Jones Trail Highland Oaks Golf Club in Dothan, AL. Bob Heintz won his second event of the season defeating Marco Dawson in a playoff to take home the largest check in Tour history—$72,000.

In late October, internet superstore Buy.com was announced as the new umbrella sponsor of the Tour. With Buy.com's financial commitment, purses rose to a record $13.1 million in 2000, with the minimum purse jumping from $225,000 to $400,000. On the course, the 2000 season saw Spike McRoy earn Player of the Year honors after winning twice and earning a record $300,638. He was one of 53 players to earn $100,000 or more.

Tim Clark made history of his own in 2000 when he collected the first Eric Axley and Troy Matteson each won on TOUR. They were among eight 2005 graduates whose earnings exceeded $1 million.

On-course success was exceeded only by the good news that Nationwide and the PGA TOUR had reached a new five-year extension of Nationwide's umbrella sponsorship of the Tour through 2012.

In 2007, the Tour played for a record $18 million in prize money and a record 25 PGA TOUR cards were awarded at season's end. Australia's Nick Flanagan earned a three-win promotion to the PGA TOUR in August and later earned Player of the Year honors. Richard Johnson won the season-ending Tour Championship at Barona Creek to capture the money title. Another Aussie, Jason Day, 19, became the youngest winner in Web.com Tour history when he won in Cleveland in July. Five of the top-seven money winners were international members, and eight players surpassed $300,000 in earnings. Brandt Snedeker, a 2006 graduate, was voted PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year. Zach Johnson, the 2003 Player of the Year, won the Masters.

The 2008 season featured record prize money of nearly $19 million. Brendon de Jonge of Zimbabwe earned Player of the Year honors. Matt Bettencourt finished the year with a flurry to capture the money title. Bettencourt and three other players, Jarrod Lyle, Scott Piercy and Colt Knost, won two events. The Tour added an event in Mexico and one in Canada featuring hockey legend Wayne Gretzky, and played its first two $1-million events, the Tour Players Cup in West Virginia and the Tour Championship.

The Web.com Tour celebrated its 20th year in 2009. Four cities, which have hosted tournaments every year since 1990 (Boise, Knoxville, Springfield and Wichita), were highlighted. Despite facing the most challenging economic time in decades, the Web.com Tour maintained a strong foundation, playing 29 tournaments—in the U.S. and in five countries abroad. Australian Michael Sim was the year's headliner as he rewrote the Tour's record book, earning a battlefield promotion to the PGA TOUR by August and pocketing $644,142. Alumni on the PGA TOUR racked up a record 23 titles, including majors by Lucas Glover (U.S. Open) and Cink (The Open Championship), upping the TOUR alumni win total to 260 at season's end since the Tour's inception.

An array of young talent led the charge in 2010, highlighted by 22-year-old Jamie Lovemark, who became the youngest player in Tour history to capture the money title. Thirteen of "The 25" graduates were age 27 or younger when they received their cards in October. The Tour visited a record six countries outside the U.S. over 29 events, making new stops in Bogota, Colombia, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and the PGA TOUR's home base of Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. The year also featured tournament celebrity hosts in Camilo Villegas, Jerry Rice, Wayne Gretzky, Anthony Munoz, Arnold Palmer, Chip Beck, Gary Williams and Jim Furyk. On the PGA TOUR, alumni added a record 28 TOUR titles in 2010, raising the total win count to 288. Furyk became the second Web.com Tour alumnus to be voted PGA TOUR Player of the Year by his peers.

In 2011, four players—J.J. Killeen, Ted Potter, Jr., Mathew Goggin and Jason Kokrak—won two times and finished 1-4, respectively, on the money list, with Killeen capturing Player of the Year honors. Two of the most memorable wins came when Steve Wheatcroft set a 72-hole scoring record (255/29-under) and won by a record 12 shots at the Melwood Prince George's County Open and two-time heart transplant recipient Erik Compton won his first Tour event, at the Mexico Open. The Midwest Classic near Kansas City joined the schedule of 26 events. On the PGA TOUR, a record 32 of 45 official events were won by Tour alumni, raising the total to 320 wins since 1990. The 32 wins included seven by six players who competed on the Web.com Tour in 2010, highlighted by two Keegan Bradley wins, which included the PGA Championship. Bill Haas became the second alumni in a row (Jim Furyk) to capture the FedExCup.

The 2012 season was a significant one both on and off the golf course. Casey Wittenberg won twice, captured the money title and was named Player of the Year. Four promising young players joined him in winning twice—Ben Kohles and Luke Guthrie, both 22, Shawn Stefani, 31, and Russell Henley, 23. Kohles and Guthrie were college students before turning pro in June and had no Web.com Tour status. On the PGA TOUR, three alumni won majors, Bubba Watson (Masters), Webb Simpson (U.S. Open) and Ernie Els (The Open Championship), while fellow alum, Matt Kuchar, captured THE PLAYERS. For the third year in a row, a former Web.com Tour player, Brandt Snedeker, claimed the FedExCup. In late June, Web.com came on board as the Tour's new umbrella sponsor (through 2021), and a few weeks later the PGA TOUR announced that all 50 PGA TOUR cards would be awarded through the Web.com Tour.

$100,000 payday on Tour by winning the Boise Open. The 2000 season was also notable for the emergence of international players who captured nine titles and claimed four of the top-15 spots on the money list.

The 2001 season was memorable when, for the second time, three players earned three-win promotions in one season. Heath Slocum was the first to do so, followed by Chad Campbell and Pat Bates, who won back-to-back tournaments to end the year. Todd Barranger tied the scoring mark by winning the Dayton Open with a 26-under-par effort, while Campbell set a single-season earnings record with $394,552 to capture Player of the Year. He also finished second at the PGA TOUR's season-ending Southern Farm Bureau Classic.

50 PGA TOUR cards would be awarded through the web.com tour, beginning in 2013, establishing the Web.com Tour as the path to the PGA TOUR. The Tour added successful new events in Chile and Evansville, Ind., to the schedule. Bill Clinton became the first sitting or former President of the United States to attend a Web.com Tour event when he traveled to Bogota, Colombia, in February. The final class of 25 graduates was determined in dramatic fashion at the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship when a James Hahn up and down on the 72nd hole triggered a series of movements around the 25th spot, with Jim Herman the ultimate beneficiary. He grabbed the final spot by just $940. Justin Bolli won the tournament itself and also advanced to the PGA TOUR.

2013 was perhaps the most significant year in the history of this tour. The Web.com Tour became the path to the PGA TOUR with all 50 available PGA TOUR cards awarded through it. The revamped TOUR qualifying structure also brought about a revamped schedule that featured 21 Regular Season events, followed by the season culminating four-event Web.com Tour Finals, which featured both Web.com Tour and PGA TOUR members. Season highlights included Michael Putnam capturing the Regular Season money title and being named Player of the Year and first-year member Chesson Hadley securing the Web.com Tour Championship, while earning the second most money in one year in Tour history, $535,432. With four top-five finishes, John Peterson would win the Finals money title. Putnam, Hadley, Ben Martin and Andy Svoboda finished the year with two victories a piece. Two players shot 59 in July - Will Wilcox at the Utah Championship and Russell Knox at the Albertsons Boise Open. Peter Malnati was a Monday qualifier in June who went on to win the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville and secure his PGA TOUR card. On the PGA TOUR, 2012 graduate Russell Henley won in his first start as a member, at the Sony Open in Hawaii. Beginning in 2013, the five leading money winners from PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and PGA TOUR Canada earned Web.com Tour playing privileges for the following season. In November, PGA TOUR China was announced, putting a similar arrangement in place beginning in 2014.

History

1990–2014. The Tour celebrates its 25th season in 2014.

Overview

Founded (1990), owned and operated by the PGA TOUR, the Web.Com Tour continues to identify those players who are ready to compete and win on golf's biggest stage. In an historic 2013 season, the Web.com Tour became the path to the PGA TOUR with all 50 available PGA TOUR cards coming through the Web.com Tour and the season culminating at the four-event Web.com Tour Finals for the first time. Web.com became the Tour's umbrella sponsor on June 27, 2012. A 10-year agreement (through 2021) is in place. The Tour enters its 25th year of competition in 2014. Three out of four PGA TOUR members are Web.com Tour alumni. Tour alumni have won 374 PGA TOUR titles, including 18 majors and five PLAYERS Championships. The PGA TOUR, through the efforts of its tours and their tournaments, sponsors, players and volunteers, surpassed $2 billion in charitable giving in Jan. 2014. To learn more about the PGA TOUR and Web.com Tour and to follow the season-long quest for a PGA TOUR card, visit PGATOUR.COM, Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

Charity

The Web.com Tour and its tournaments are committed to supporting charities in the communities in which events are played. In Jan. 2014, the tours of the PGA TOUR and their tournaments exceeded $2 billion in charitable giving dating back to the first recorded donation in 1938. In 2013, five tournaments raised a minimum of $700,000 for charity, with the Albertsons Boise Open presented by Kraft raising the most, $1,331,059. Annually, the Tour honors its Volunteer of the Year.

2014 Schedule

The 2014 Web.com Tour scheduled features 25 events played in 15 states and six countries outside the U.S. (Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Mexico, Nova Scotia and Panama). There are 21 Regular Season events, plus four Web.com Tour Finals events.

Prize Money

In 2014, prize money will be $17,675,000 over 25 events. The average purse is a record $707,000. The Web.com Tour

2013 Graduates

For the first time, the Web.com Tour graduated 50 players to the PGA TOUR at the end of the 2013 season. 25 cards were earned via the 21-event Regular Season, with a second set of 25 cards awarded at the conclusion of the four-event Web.com Tour Finals in late September. Michael Putnam was the Regular Season leading money winner and Player of the Year. John Peterson was the Finals leading money winner. Both are fully exempt on the PGA TOUR in 2013-14 and earned invitations to the PLAYERS Championship.

PGA TOUR Impact

Every year, the impact of the Web.com Tour on the PGA TOUR grows. Since 1991, 374 PGA TOUR tournaments have been won by players with Web.com Tour roots, including all four major championships and five PLAYERS Championships. Only one tournament on the PGA TOUR's 2013-14 schedule (World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions) has not been won by a former Web.com Tour player. Three out of four current PGA TOUR members, and 12 who competed in the 2013 Presidents Cup and nine members of the 2012 U.S. Ryder Cup team, are Web.com Tour alumni. In recognition of the Tour's growing stature and competitive impact, the PGA TOUR Policy Board announced in March 2012 that all 50 available PGA TOUR cards for the following season would come through the Web.com Tour, beginning in 2013, with the season culminating at the four-event Web.com Tour Finals. Also new in 2013 was the awarding of Web.com Tour membership for the following season to the five leading money winners from both NEC Series-PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and PGA TOUR Canada. In November, 2013, PGA TOUR China was announced with a similar arrangement in place, beginning in 2014 for the 2015 Web.com Tour season.

The progression of cards issued since 1990 is:

TV

Golf Channel, available in more than 81 million homes in the United States, is the exclusive cable television home of the Web.com Tour. Golf Channel will air 11 tournaments in the U.S. in 2013, all produced in HDTV. The Web.com Tour will be seen in 192 countries and territories, reaching a potential 93 million more households via the PGA TOUR's international broadcasting operation.

Awards

At season's end, 50 PGA TOUR cards for the 2013-2014 season. The Web.com Tour Player of the Year receives the Jack Nicklaus Award. Player of the Year is based on a vote of the membership. Michael Putnam was the 2013 honoree. The Web.com Tour recognizes its Player of the Month (February through October).

plays for $1 million at all four Web.com Tour Finals events.

Eligibility

Each Web.com Tour player has a position on the priority ranking system that is used to form fields for open tournaments. The complete priority ranking system may be found in the digital version of the Official Web.com Tour Guide (see "Players" section, then "Eligibility Categories"). The majority of Web.com Tour events have 144- or 156-player fields. Initiated in 2013, the Web.com Tour annually conducts the Web.com Tour Qualifying Tournament. Approximately 150 players who reach or are exempt into the Final Stage in December compete for eligibility rankings for the next season. This is in addition to those players who have already earned membership based on play on the Web.com Tour and PGA TOUR during the season.

Membership

In 2014, the Web.com Tour's 290 members hail from around the globe. There are 77 international players with full or partial Tour exemptions, representing 17 countries outside the United States: Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, England, France, Germany, Guatemala, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand, Scotland, South Africa, South Korea and Sweden. See "International Players" under "General Info" on the home page of the digital version of the Official Web.com Tour Guide for a country-by-country breakdown of the 2014 membership.

"This sponsorship is a perfect fit for us.

Web.com is committed to helping small- and medium-sized businesses compete and succeed online, just as the Web.com Tour helps talented, dedicated athletes maximize their potential and fulfill their dreams," said David L. Brown, Web.com's Chairman, President and CEO. "The Web.com brand gains exceptional visibility as a result of our sponsorship of the Web.com Tour. In addition, we believe that the professionalism and competition of PGA TOUR golf resonates strongly with small- and medium-sized business owners, making the national and international exposure we achieve with this sponsorship an unparalleled opportunity to reach more of our target market."

Just as the TOUR's mission is to make a positive impact in communities where tournaments are held, Web.com is committed to giving back to the communities, as well. With this in mind, Web.com will sponsor more than two dozen Small Business Forums in the United States in 2013, including all U.S. Web.com Tour markets. The Small Business Forums will bring together local small and medium-sized business and offer them help and support in an educational environment.

The Web.com umbrella sponsorship began in June 2012 and lasts for 10 years. In addition to the umbrella sponsorship, Web.com is also an Official Marketing Partner of the PGA TOUR, Web.com Tour and Champions Tour and will offer its internet services and online solutions for players across all three Tours and events looking to grow their individual brands.

T2–News Sentinel Open Presented by Pilot.

NATIONAL TEAMS:

Walker Cup (1), 2011; Palmer Cup (1), 2011

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in three of seven starts..Monday-qualifier at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open, where he was T6. Third-round 65 at Le Triomphe CC put him 12-under and only three off the lead heading into the last day. Failed to gain any ground on the leaders with an even-par 71. High finish earned him a berth at the next event, in Brazil...Thought he had moved into a tie for second through 36 holes at the Mylan Classic outside Pittsburgh. Signed for a 65 when he actually had shot a 66. Disqualified himself from the event...Monday-qualified his way into the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville in mid-August. Took a share of the 36-hole lead with Richard Scott and was tied for second through three rounds, a stroke behind Aron Price. Fired a 3-under 68 Sunday at Fox Den CC but couldn't get his birdie putt on the 72nd hole to fall that would have forced a playoff with Peter Malnati. Settled for a career-best T2 finish and improved to 84th on the money list (from 151st)...A T57 at the last Regular Season event, the Cox Classic, was not enough to move him into the top 75 and onto the Web.com Tour Finals. He was 85th in earnings after Omaha...Made his PGA TOUR debut, at the Northern Trust Open in February. Shot opening rounds of 69-70 and went on to T42 at Riviera CC...Three weeks later, played in the Puerto Rico Open and T24, thanks to a pair of 66s in the first and third rounds...Missed the cut at the HP Byron Nelson Championship.

BEST 2013 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

T2—South Georgia Classic Presented by First State Bank and Trust Company.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in 13 of 23 starts and had four top-25 finishes and three top-10s...Finished T2 at the South Georgia Classic in Valdosta, four shots back of winner Will Wilcox. Opened with rounds of 70-67 and was only one off the lead after 36 holes at Kinderlou Forest GC. Tied the tournament record with four consecutive birdies during the first round. Runner-up effort was the fourth of his career....Fired three consecutive rounds of 69 over his final 54 holes after opening with a 73 at the Mexico Championship to T6, a career-best at this event. It was his second top-10 of the year...Third top-10 came at the Cox Classic, where a Sunday charge (one eagle, six birdies and one bogey on No. 18) almost pushed him into the top 25 on the money list and a PGA TOUR card for 2013-14. Finished T4 for a 35th-place finish in Regular Season earnings...Made the cut in one of four Finals' events (T28 at the Chiquita Classic).

PERSONAL:

Lists "Top Gun" as his favorite movie and considered accepting an appointment to the Air Force Academy. "Based on commitments after graduation, I knew it would hamper my golf game—flying F-16s and then trying to find time to practice."...Biggest thrill in golf was making a 15-foot putt at the Web.com Tour Championship in 2003 to secure his PGA TOUR card...Favorite golf course is Pebble Beach GL. Made three cuts in 10 PGA TOUR starts. Suffered a knee injury in July and missed the rest of the season...A T24 at the Travelers Championship was his best finish...Will have three events in 2013-14 to earn $520,151 in 2013-14 as part of a Non-Exempt Medical Extension...Also made two of three cuts on the Web.com Tour, highlighted by a T10 effort at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open.

PERSONAL:

Got his start in golf from his dad at age 3. Biggest thrill in golf is overcoming mental obstacles. Lists Gary Player, Tom Watson, Nick Faldo and his parents as his heroes. Was on the TV show "The Weakest Link" in 2001. Non-golf-related jobs held include knife salesman and membership director at a country club. He and his brother were named after Player and Lee Trevino. His two sons are named after Faldo and Sandy Lyle, whose given first name is Alexander. Never travels without photos of his family...Favorite college team is the Auburn Tigers. Favorite professional team is Liverpool Football Club of the Premier League. Lucky charm is a five-pence coin to mark his ball. Wears light blue in the final round to match his eyes for photos. Favorite food is fresh, farm-grown fruit. Favorite athlete is Steven Gerrard, and his favorite cities are Sydney, Australia; London, England; Toronto, Ontario, Canada; San Francisco, Calif.; and Boise, Idaho. Would round out his dream foursome with Harry Vardon, Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods. Not many people know that he would rather score the winning goal for England in soccer's World Cup than win The Open Championship. Bucket list includes doing the Ashes Cricket Tour to Australia with the Barmy Army...Played high school cricket and rugby...Claims mid-life crisis resulted in the purchase of "very tight, white trousers."

2--Panama Claro Championship.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(3): 1996 Dutch Challenge [EurChall]. 1997 San Paolo Vita Open [EurChall]. 1998 Australasian Tour Championship [Aus].

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in 13 of 21 Web.com Tour starts and had nine top-25 finishes and a pair of top-10s...Finished runner-up by one stroke to Kevin Foley at the season-opening Panama Claro Championship, where he was looking to become a two-time champion. His 4-under 66 in the third round put him at 7-under, two strokes in front heading into the final round. Battled for the lead during Sunday's finale but was forced to overcome a double bogey at No. 3 and then a triple bogey at No. 11. Birdies at Nos. 14 and 15 got him back to 7-under, but he needed a birdie at the closing hole to tie Foley at 8-under. Second shot came up short in the wind and found a front bunker...Fired an opening-round 66 at the Mexico Championship, which put him two strokes behind leader and eventual champion Michael Putnam. His T6 is his second top-10 of the year on the Web.com Tour...Made the cut in three of four Finals' events, his best finish a T30 at the Hotel Fitness Championship.

BEST 2013 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

T8-Web.com Tour Championship.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(1): 2009 Saskatchewan Open [Can].

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made seven cuts in a combined 27 starts on the PGA TOUR (17) and Web.com Tour (eight). Had a pair of T8 finishes, one on each Tour...Ended the Regular Season with a T8 at the Wyndham Championship for his first career TOUR top-10, the finish coming in his 42nd start. The top-10 earned him an exemption into the first event of the 2013-14 season, at the Frys.com Open. The top-10 also allowed him to move inside the top 200 in the FedExCup standings to earn a spot into the inaugural Web.com Tour Finals. Entered the week No. 238 in the FedExCup standings and moved up to No 198 to ensure a Finals' invite. Jin Park was the only other player to move inside the top 200 by virtue of his Wyndham Championship performance... Made the cut in three of four starts in the Web.com Tour Finals and was T8 at the Web.com Tour Championship. Was bounced out of the top 50 on the priority list by playing partner Lee Williams, who rolled in a long birdie putt on the 72nd hole at TPC Sawgrass' Dye's Valley Course to regain his PGA TOUR card. Missed regaining his card by $1,797.

PERSONAL:

(2): 2007 Victorian PGA Championship [Aus]. 2009 Victorian Open [Aus].

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in 10 of 25 starts during his first full season on the Web.com Tour. Had a pair of playoff runner-up finishes in back-to-back starts, along with a third top-10 later in the year...Playoff runner-up at the rain-delayed United Leasing Championship. Fired the low of the day Sunday—a 6-under 66—to reach the clubhouse at 11-under 277. Eventually joined in the playoff by Ben Martin, Joe Affrunti and Billy Hurley. Darkness prevented the start of the extra session, which was pushed to Monday morning. Hopes for a win were dashed when he hit two shots into the water on the first playoff hole at Victoria National GC. Had made only four of 13 cuts prior to a career-best week on Tour...Finished runner-up for the second consecutive start when he made it into a playoff at the Utah Championship then lost in the extra session. Put his tee shot into the water at the 18th (first playoff) hole at Willow Creek CC and made bogey. Steven Alker won the tournament with a two-putt par...Was T10 at the News Sentinel Open and was No. 23 on the money list heading into the final Regular Season event, the Cox Classic, in Omaha...Missed the cut at the Cox Classic and dropped out of the top 25, to No. 27 on the money list and missed out on his PGA TOUR card by less than $2,000...Made the cut in one of four starts in the Finals, with a T41 at the Web.com Tour Championship his top effort...In early November, traveled to his homeland of Australia and finished T6 at the Australian PGA Championship. Finished nine shots behind winner Adam Scott...Two weeks later, thanks to a third-round 68 and three other rounds at par or better, was T10 at the Australian Open.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in 11 of 21 Web.com Tour starts and had three top-25 finishes...Earned his only top-10 of the year when he T6 at the Mid-Atlantic Championship in early June. Was just one shot off the lead after 54 holes at TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm, but a final-round, 3-over 73 dropped him back. Finish moved him to 59th on the money list, his best position of the year...Would miss his last four cuts to drop out of contention for the Web.com Tour Finals, finishing 86th in Regular Season earnings...Shot rounds of 68-69-69-70 at the CJ Invitational Hosted by K.J. Choi and cruised to a five-shot victory in mid-October on the OneAsia Tour. Was tied for sixth through 18 holes at Haesley Nine Bridges GC in his home country of South Korea. Added three more under-par rounds in Seoul to win his first international title...Won a second consecutive tournament, this time in unlikely, unique circumstances. Trailed by two shots going down the stretch at the Kolon Korea Open, but when rules officials decided leader Kim Hyung-tae had illegally grounded his club (and issued a two-stroke penalty), it dropped Kim into a T2. The second consecutive victory left him with mixed emotions. "I'm a really good friend of [Kim], so at the moment it doesn't feel great. Even though I won the tournament, I just feel really sorry for him. I was actually out [near the 18th green] to celebrate for him," he said.

PERSONAL:

Walker Cup (1), 2011.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in nine of 18 starts during his rookie season on the Web.com Tour ,with three top-25 finishes...Recorded his first career top-10 with a runner-up effort at the Mylan Classic near Pittsburgh. Chalked up 10 birdies en route to the best score of the final round at Southpointe GC, a 7-under 64 to vault past most of the field. Started the final day eight shots back of eventual winner Ben Martin and closed to within two midway on the back nine but could get no closer as Martin shut the door on his charge with an eagle and two birdies over his final four holes. Runner-up check was worth $72,900 and moved him from No. 137 to No. 38 on the money list, assuring him of a spot in the Tour Finals with only three events left on the Regular Season schedule. Second-place effort came on the heels of a T17 finish a week earlier at the Albertsons Boise Open...Made the cut in two of the four Finals' events, a T32 at the Hotel Fitness Championship his best week...Also went 2 for 2 on the PGA TOUR, finishing T40 at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and T50 at the Shell Houston Open.

Made 11 cuts in 21 starts during his rookie season on the PGA TOUR. His best of four top-25 finishes was a T15 at the John Deere Classic...Missed the cut in all four Web.com Tour Finals' events.

PERSONAL:

His biggest thrill in golf was holing out on the 17th and 18th fairways at the Cox Classic and making ESPN's "Top-10 Plays of the Day." In 1990 he was MVP for his all-star baseball team and pitched two no-hitters the same year. In 2008 he was inducted into Florida Atlantic University Athletics Hall of Fame. Once worked as a substitute teacher. Got his start in golf when his father took him to the course because he was burned out from baseball. He has played ever since...Favorite course he has played is TPC Sawgrass. Never travels without flip flops. Only superstition is that he never uses found or used tees on the course. Favorite websites are yahoo.com, weather.com, anything fantasy football-related and nba.com. Follows the Miami Hurricanes and the Miami Dolphins, Boston Celtics and Atlanta Braves on the professional level. Favorite TV shows are "Seinfeld" and "The Walking Dead." Favorite entertainer is Common. Favorite book is Golf's Sacred Journey. Favorite athletes to watch are Ray Allen and Derek Jeter. Favorite city to visit is Chicago and top vacation spot is Disney World in Orlando...Favorite gadget is his iPod Touch.

Favorite apps are Angry Birds, Twitter and fantasy football. Carries peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and granola bars in his golf bag. Dream foursome would include Allen, Jerry Seinfeld and Common. Supports St. Jude, his church, Broward Outreach and the American Cancer Society...Twitter account is @stevielb.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (2):

2007 LaSalle Bank Open. 2010 The Rex Hospital Open

BEST 2013 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

T22–Chitimacha Louisiana Open.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Did not become eligible for the Champions Tour until midway through the season but made an impact quickly, winning his first event. Then, despite only playing 12 events, earned a 13th appearance in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship with a pair of top-10 performances in October...Won his first Champions Tour event, the Boeing Classic, in his fifth official start, defeating John Cook by two strokes just outside of Seattle. Used a 64 Saturday at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge to forge a three-stroke lead. His final-round 68 included birdies on three of the last four holes for the victory. Became the fifth rookie on the season to win, tying a Champions

Tour record. Also became the first player to make the Boeing Classic his first victory on the circuit. Joined Esteban Toledo (Insperity Championship) as the second 2012 Q-school graduate to win a tournament...Vaulted into the top 30 for good when he placed fifth at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic in late October. Was in contention for the first two rounds at Rock Barn before a final-round, even-par 70 left him in solo fifth place...One week later, sealed a spot in the top 30 when he posted a closing-round, 5-under-par 67 at the AT&T Championship to earn a T6 at TPC San Antonio. Had entered the event 30th on the money list but jumped two places with his finish...Made his Champions Tour debut at the inaugural Encompass Championship and finished T26 at North Shore CC...Had a pair of eagles in a round on two occasions during the year. The first came in the first round at the 3M Championship and the other in the final round at the Shaw Charity Classic...Prepped for the Champions Tour by playing in four Web.com Tour events. Missed the cut at both the Panama Claro Championship and Columbia Championship before finishing T22 at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open. Also withdrew from the WNB Golf Classic in Texas after an opening-round

PERSONAL:

Grew up in Southern Illinois, across the Ohio River from PGA TOUR players Russ Cochran and Kenny Perry, who live in Paducah, Ky...Used five-time U.S.Open 9-ball champion Earl Strickland as his caddie at the 2000 Wichita Open.

NATIONAL TEAMS:

World Cup (1), 2011.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica ranked No. 2 in the order of merit, with $98,382 in earnings, only $752 behind Ryan Blaum, who moved past him on the last event of the season. Had kept the Order of Merit top spot since April and maintained a $30,000 lead after his second win of the season, in early November. His strong lead slipped away when he missed two cuts and earned just $2,073 over the last four events of the season... As the second-ranked player among "The Five," he earned status to compete on the Web.com Tour in 2014... Had two victories, both of them in playoffs, one runner-up finish, two third-place performances, six top-10 showings and 11 cuts made in 13 starts... Won the Roberto De Vicenzo Invitational Copa NEC in April, following a sudden-death playoff against Tim O'Neal and Sebastián Saavedra. After posting scores of 71-66-66-68 to tie at the top at the end of regulation, he secured the title with a birdie on the second playoff hole. It was his first career win in 13 PGA TOUR Latinoamérica starts... Collected his second win of the season in early November, at the Arturo Calle Colombian Classic presented by Avianca. Posted rounds of 67-73-65-65 to finish in a two-way tie for first with Manuel Villegas at 14-under. Defeated Villegas with a par on the second playoff hole at the 233-yard par-3 ninth hole at San Andrés GC in Bogotá. Trailing the leader by eight shots at the beginning of the final round, he set a Tour record for the largest comeback to win a tournament. The largest previous comeback came from Clodomiro Carranza at the 2012 Aberto do Brasil and by Ángel Cabrera at the 2013 Abierto OSDE del Centro, who both overcame six-shot deficits. The Colombian Classic win also made him the second two-time winner of the season, with Blaum... Halfway through March, claimed runner-up honors at the TransAmerican Power Products CRV Open at Atlas CC in Guadalajara, Mexico. Carded a bogey-free 66 in the final round to lose by one to Villegas... His two third-place finishes came at the 66th Arturo Calle Colombian Open presented by Diners Club in Pereira, Colombia, and at the Mundo Maya Open in Merida, Mexico, in June... In May, making his only Web.com Tour start this year, was T6 at the Mexico Championship at El Bosque GC in Leon. It was his third career Web.com Tour top-10... Shot a pair of 72s to miss the cut by three strokes at the PGA TOUR's OHL Classic at Mayakoba in Playa del Carmen, Mexico, in November. Received a sponsor exemption into that event as the No. 1-ranked player on the Mexican Tour... With four wins in eight starts he went on to finish the Mexican Tour season holding a large lead as the order of merit No. 1. Collected his victories at the Yucatan CC in February, the La Villa Rica GC in Veracruz in April, the La Loma GC in San Luis Potosi in July and at the Campestre de Chihuahua in September. Increased his career-win total on the Mexican Tour to a record 13.

PERSONAL:

Nicknamed "Camarón" (Shrimp) since he was a little boy... Golf instructor is his older brother, Rosendo Rodríguez... Favorite professional team is UNAM Pumas from the Mexican Football League... His favorite book is The Secret... Says Cancun is his favorite vacation spot... Tiger Woods, Rory McIlroy and Adam Scott would round out his dream foursome... Says every time he wins a tournament, the first thing he does is thank heaven for it... His biggest dream is to become a member of the PGA TOUR.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Competed in Asia during the season, playing events on the Asian Tour, Asian Development Tour, ASEAN Tour and Philippine Golf Tour...Won the ICTSI Tagaytay Midlands Challenge on the Philippine Golf Tour in August by six strokes.

PERSONAL:

Chose to pursue golf because of the challenge it presents and the fact that "you battle against yourself and find yourself always tinkering and making adjustments."...His earliest golf memory was going to the driving range as a 6-year-old and falling in love with the game...His biggest thrill in golf came in 2002 shortly after his family moved from the Philippines when he holed a 40-foot putt on the second playoff hole to win the Florida State Junior Boys Championship at age 14...His favorite golf courses include Cypress Point and Old Head in Ireland...Would love to play Augusta National and St. Andrews' Old Course...Never travels without his cell phone, MacBook and charger...One of his lucky charms is a ballmark given to graduating senior golfers from Notre Dame that has the engraving "God, Country, Notre Dame." Another lucky charm are the golf shirts he wears. He keeps a mental log of the scoring average he has while wearing each shirt, and when he really wants to play well he'll wear his "go-to" shirts...Follows Notre Dame and the Miami Heat...Favorite TV shows include "The Walking Dead," "How I Met Your Mother," "The Big Bang Theory," "Revenge," "Modern Family," "Homeland," "Duck Dynasty" and "Friday Night Lights."...Enjoys Taylor Swift...Favorite foods include sushi, sashimi, lobster and tenderloin steaks...His favorite vacation spot is Manila...Some of his favorite athletes in other sports are Manny Pacquiao, Michael Jordan, Steve Nash and Maria Sharapova...His bucket list includes skydiving, learning to surf, going on a safari to Africa, bungee jumping and playing in the Masters...Says if he could trade places with someone for a day it would be with a Formula One driver because he always wanted to feel how extreme those G-forces are on the body and "what an adrenaline rush it would be."...His dream foursome would include Tiger Woods, Phil Mickelson and Rory McIlroy...Some of his favorite restaurants are Chipotle, In-N-Out Burger, Ruth's Chris, Sushi-Thai and Shake Shack...Some of the jobs he has held since graduating from college include Founder/CEO of a label- and sticker-design company, a writer and contributor to Golf Inquirer magazine and a life insurance agent (both in the Philippines).

BEST 2013 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

T25–Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Won on the European Tour for a second consecutive season, and picked up third title overall, when he took a four-shot lead into the final round of the Trophy Hassan II in Morocco and held on to win. Opened with an 8-under 64 at Golf du Palais Royal to take the first-round lead then held at least a share of the lead the rest of the way, shooting four under-par rounds and outlasting Mikko Ilonen by three shots...A week later, played on a sponsor exemption at the Valero Texas Open. At No. 51 in the Official World Golf Ranking, needed to win in San Antonio to earn an invite into the following week's Masters Tournament. Was making forward progress Sunday, but a triple bogey-7 at the 12th hole thwarted his bid for victory. He finished T10 with Padraig Harrington and Martin Flores. The Valero Texas Open start was one of nine he made on the PGA TOUR. Only other top-20 finish was a T16 he turned in at the RBC Canadian Open in July...Added a European Tour T10 in mid-June, at the BMW International Open in Germany...Also finished T10 at the Scottish Open in mid-July...Played in his fourth World Cup, this time with teammate Maximilian Kieffer. Finished T32 in the individual competition at Royal Melbourne GC and paired with Kieffer to T7 representing Germany in the team portion of the event.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Will start the 2013-14 PGA TOUR season on a Minor Medical Extension due to a neck injury. Will have two events to earn $84,084. Otherwise will drop down to the No. 126-150 category. Made 11 cuts in 21 PGA TOUR starts, with two top-10s in his rookie season. Finished No. 135 in the FedExCup standings to earn partial status for the 2013-14 season...First career top-10 came at the Tampa Bay Championship, where he opened with a bogey-free, 6-under 65 at the Copperhead Course to claim a T7 with six others. Rallyed from a 2-over 73 in the third round with a 2-under 69 Sunday to claim his first career top-10 finish in his ninth PGA TOUR start...Carried a one-stroke lead into the final round of the FedEx St. Jude Classic but struggled Sunday to a 6-over 76 and a T7 finish, equaling his best TOUR performance. Held the 54-hole lead despite a quadruple bogey during a third-round, 4-under 66. Was hoping to become just the fourth player since 1983 to overcome a quadruple bogey and win on the PGA TOUR. The others were Phil Mickelson (2009 TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola), David Toms (2003 Wells Fargo Championship) and David Graham (1983 Shell Houston Open)...Made an ace at the U.S. Open at Merion on the par-3 17th with a 4-iron...Made the cut in two of four starts in the Web.com Tour Finals, with his best finish a T17 at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

In his first career start on PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, he carded a final round of 7-under-par 65 to win the Puerto Rico Classic in October. The event was shortened to 54 holes due to dangerous weather at the Dorado Beach Resort & Club in Dorado, Puerto Rico. He started the tournament with a double-bogey and was 4-over par through seven holes in the opening round, but came back to shoot 74, 66 and 65 to win by one shot at 11-under-par 205. His uncle, Marty Smith, caddied for him in the tournament. His final round of 65 secured him the OHL-

Round of the Week Award as well... Missed the cut in both of his two starts on the Web.com Tour, at the Brasil Classic and at the Mid-Atlantic Championship... Qualified for the U.S. Open at Merion to make his first career start in a major (missed the cut).

2013 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made the cut in nine of 15 starts on the Web.com Tour with one top-10 finish...Earned his first European Tour title, with a two-stroke victory over Darren Fichardt at the Tshwane Open. Began the event at Copperleaf Golf and Country Estate in Centurion, South Africa, with a 4-under 68 then came back with a 65 to sit in a tie for second at the halfway mark, a stroke behind 36-hole leader Charl Coetzee. Fired back-to-back 67s on the weekend, including a four-birdie, one-eagle, one-bogey performance Sunday to capture the biggest win of his career...Earned a second title late in the season, at The Nelson Mandela Championship in Durban, South Africa. At the weather-shortened event, he used three rounds in the 60s in the 54-hole tournament, including a second-round 62, to edge Matthew Baldwin and Jorge Campillo by two strokes at Mount Edgecombe CC....On the Web.com Tour, was solo second at the inaugural Brasil Classic in Sao Paulo after posting scores of 69-66-65-66. Finished at 18-under par and one back of winner Benjamin Alvarado. Rolled in a birdie putt at No. 16 to tie for the Sunday lead. After Alvarado birdied the 17th hole to go one ahead, with a chance to tie Alvarado he missed a 10-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole that would have forced a playoff...Took two months off from May through July to play on the European Tour in order to meet minimum standards to retain playing privileges. Managed to make only one cut in seven starts...Returned to the Web.com Tour at the end of July. Finished T25 at the News Sentinel Open...Did not make a cut in any of his four starts during the Finals to close out the season.

Cut: 64 players at 2-over par 142 from a field of 131 professionals and one amateur.

Weather: Thursday: Mostly sunny. Wind NW switching to NE at 10-20 mph. High 91. Friday: Sunny and hot. Wind variable at 15-20 mph. High 92. Saturday: Mostly sunny. Wind NW at 18 mph. High 90. Sunday: Sunny and warm. Wind variable at 10-15 mph. High 92.

Kevin Foley rolled in a 15-foot birdie putt on his final hole to break free from Mathew Goggin and earn his first career title. Foley fired a 3-under 67 in the final round to finish at 8-under 272, one in front of Goggin, the 54-hole leader, who failed to birdie the last hole to force a playoff.

Kevin Foley, a second-year pro from New Jersey, collected a first-place check for $108,000.

Kevin Foley became the fourth player in tournament history to make the Panama Claro Championship his first career win. Foley, 25, joined Jimmy Walker (2004), Miguel Carballo (2007) and Edward Loar (2012) as first-time winners.

Kevin Foley joined the Web.com Tour in 2012 after earning Special Temporary Membership status. Foley was a Monday qualifier at the South Georgia Classic and parlayed a T7 finish into a start the following week, where he finished T7 at the Stadion Classic at UGA. A solo fifth-place finish at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Invitational was a big enough payday for him to earn membership status. He wound up the year making 16 starts and ended the season No. 52 on the money list, which was good for fully-exempt status in 2013.

Scott Dunlap (T4) fell short in his bid to become the oldest winner in Tour history. Dunlap, 49, would have surpassed Kirk Triplett (2011 News Sentinel Open) by a couple of months.

Australia's Mathew Goggin held a two-stroke lead after 54 holes. Goggin was the 2011 tournament champion, attempting to join Vance Veazey (2005, 2009)

as two-time winners in Panama.

South Korea's Dae-Hyun Kim, making his first career start on Tour, grabbed a two-stroke lead after the second round. Kim, 24, was a regular on the Korean Tour from 2009-12 and one of the leading money winners on that circuit. His only PGA TOUR appearance came at the 2011 U.S. Open at Congressional CC, where he missed the cut.

Omar Tejeira, a member at the Panama Golf Club, became the first amateur to compete in the event. Tejeira played college golf at St. Thomas University, an NAIA school in Miami, Fla. He won seven times during his collegiate career, was a conference medalist and was named The Sun Conference Player of the Year following his junior season. He also became the first Bobcat ever to be named First-Team All-America in golf in 2012. He posted scores of 81-72 and missed the cut.

This was the eighth time that the Panama Claro Championship has been the initial event on the Web.com Tour schedule. The Tour first arrived in Panama in 2004 and led off the year in Central America from 2004-09, 2011 and again this year. In 2010, the Tour opened its season at the Michael Hill New Zealand Open (Queenstown) and in 2012 began the year at the Colombia Championship in Bogota.

Each of the four rounds had a scoring average above par. In 40 rounds over the tournament's 10 years there have been only two rounds (both in 2010) that had a scoring average below par.

Cut: 62 players at 1-under-par 141 from a field of 144 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Partly to mostly cloudy, with evening rain showers. Light and variable wind. High of 65. Friday: Mostly cloudy, with brief and light rain. Wind SE at 6-12 mph. High of 64. Saturday: Partly cloudy. Wind SE at 6-12 mph. High of 70. Sunday: Partly to mostly cloudy. Wind SE at 5-10 mph. High of 62.

Patrick Cantlay fired a 5-under 66 in the final round to pull away from fellow third-round co-leader Jim Renner to win by four strokes. Cantlay finished with a tournament-record score of 18-under 266, eclipsing the mark of 11-under set by Steve Pate in 2010. Cantlay pulled away with a birdie-birdie-eagle run starting at No. 8 and was up by two shots after No. 10. A bogey by Renner at No. 12 and a final birdie by Cantlay at the 14th hole added up to a four-stroke lead. Both players parred the final four holes.

In addition to earning his first professional title at age 20 years, 11 months, 15 days, Patrick Cantlay also became the second-youngest winner in Web.com Tour history. Jason Day remains the youngest champion. He was age 19 years, 7 months, 26 days when he captured the 2007 Legend Financial Classic near Cleveland.

Patrick Cantlay became the second UCLA Bruin to win this event. Steve Pate won the inaugural tournament in 2010 and, at the time, became the oldest winner in Tour history (48 years, 9 months, 11 days).

Patrick Cantlay enjoyed a stellar amateur career and turned pro in June 2012 after a brief stint at UCLA, where he was named winner of the 2011 Fred Haskins Award as the nation's top collegiate player. He was also named the Division I Player of the Year, participated in the Walker Cup and was runner-up to Kelly Kraft at the U.S. Amateur.

Jim Renner's runner-up finish was a career-best. His previous best was a tie for third at the 2012 Rex Hospital Open.

Brazil's Alexandre Rocha's tie for fourth was a career-best for him on the Web.com Tour. Rocha played on the PGA TOUR in 2011 and 2012, and his best finish was a playoff runner-up at the 2012 Reno-Tahoe Open. He also tied for fourth at the Frys.com Open in mid-October.

Colombia native Manuel Villegas birdied three of his final five holes for a 3-under 68 and a 9-under-275 total. He tied for seventh, just shy of his career-best finish, a solo sixth at the 2010 Moonah Classic in Australia.

Texas teenager Jordan Spieth fired a 4-under 67 to finish at 11-under 273. Spieth collected $30,800 for his tie for fourth and, coupled with the previous-week's payday of $19,350 (tied for seventh) at the Panama Claro Championship, he had $50,150 in two starts. At the time, Spieth had no status on any Tour and needed $4,649 to achieve Special Temporary Membership on the Web.com Tour for the remainder of 2013. Spieth would go on to win the PGA TOUR's John Deere Classic, earn his PGA TOUR membership and represent the U.S. at the 2013 Presidents Cup.

Bhavik Patel fired an even-par 71 to finish solo sixth. Patel is a 22-year-old rookie from Bakersfield, Calif., in his first season on Tour. Patel played college golf at Fresno State University and was the 2011 California State Amateur champion. He teed it up as an amateur at the 2012 TPC Stonebrae Championship but missed the cut.

Rookie Ryan Spears set a tournament record with a run of six consecutive birdies during the second round. Spears started his run on the 14th hole and continued his good play as he made the turn to the front nine. Spears one-putted eight consecutive holes as part of his streak. "The hole looked like the size of a wastebasket," he said.

Former U.S. Amateur champion Danny Lee matched the course record with a 7-under-par 64 and took the first-round lead.

Sam Saunders became the third player in tournament history to register two eagles in a round. Saunders eagled the par-5 10th and 18th holes in the opening round.

Sam Saunders played the back nine in 6-under par on the first day. His score of 30 is a nine-hole tournament record. Chris Riley matched the tournament record with a 5-under-par 30 on the front nine in the first round.

Cut: 68 players at 4-under par 140 from a field of 144 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Partly cloudy. Wind WSW at 6-12 mph. High of 79. Friday: Partly cloudy. Wind WSW at 6-12 mph. High of 82. Saturday: Sunny. Wind WSW at 5-10 mph. High of 85. Sunday: Sunny. Wind WSW at 5-10 mph. High of 88.

Kevin Kisner earned his second career title with his one-stroke win in Santiago, Chile. Kisner was one of three co-leaders after 54 holes and needed only a 4-under 68 on the final day at the Prince of Wales Country Club to hold off his challengers. Kisner moved into a three-stroke lead early on the back nine but played the final five holes in 1-over par. His performance was good enough for a 21-under total and the victory.

Kevin Kisner, who missed the cut in each of the two previous weeks, added the Chile Classic trophy to the hardware he earned by virtue of his victory at the 2010 Mylan Classic, outside Pittsburgh.

Edward Loar, one of the co-leaders after three rounds, was trying to become the fifth player in Tour history to win more than once outside the United States. Loar's first title came at the 2012 Panama Claro Championship.

Kevin Kisner picked up a check for $117,000 for the win and moved to No. 2 on the money list after the first three weeks of the 2013 season.

Kevin Kisner vaulted into contention on Saturday when he shot a blistering 11-under-par 61, breaking the course record by three strokes. Kisner had nine birdies and an eagle while posting his score more than three hours before the second-round leaders teed off.

Edward Loar led the tournament with 27 birdies. Benjamin Alvarado was next, with 26.

I.J. Jang of Korea birdied six of his final 10 holes for a 6-under 66 and a tie for sixth in just his second career start on Tour. Jang, 40, played the previous eight seasons on the Japan Tour.

Santiago native Benjamin Alvarado had the hometown fans on his side, but a critical double-bogey at the 15th hole dropped him four shots off the lead. Alvarado, 27, played college golf at Arizona State University and turned pro in 2008.

Benjamin Alvarado is a two-time winner of the Chile Open (2003 and 2010). His second victory came on the same Prince of Wales Country Club where the Web.com Tour contested the 2013 Chile Classic. In 2010, his winning 22-under total was the same score that Paul Haley II posted in capturing the 2012 Chile Classic.

Guy Boros fired a 7-under 65 in the final round to move into a tie for fourth. It was the best finish for the 48-year-old Boros since he won the 2003 Dayton Open.

Felipe Aguilar, a native of Santiago, shot a 4-under 68 to tie for sixth. The 38-year-old Aguilar played college golf at the University of North Florida in Jacksonville and has been a member of the European Tour for six of the past seven seasons.

Brothers Michael Putnam and Andrew Putnam were paired together for the first two days, the first time the Washington natives have played in the same group as tournament professionals. Both carded 5-under 67s in the opening round, but Michael, six years the senior, won the friendly dinner bet when he shot another 67 in the second round to top Andrew's 73.

Bio Kim became the first player in 2013 to post back-to-back eagles when he turned the trick in the first round. Kim holed a bunker shot on the par-5 ninth for his first eagle and then holed his second shot on the par-4 10th from 50 yards.

Cut: 69 players at 2-under par 140 from a field of 144 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Partly cloudy. Wind ESE at 7-15 mph, with gusts to 20 mph. High of 70. Friday: Morning clouds and afternoon sun. Wind SSE at 7-15 mph, with gusts to 20 mph. High of 81. Saturday: Mostly cloudy, with light afternoon rain showers. Wind variable at 7-15 mph. High of 77. Sunday: Morning clouds and afternoon sun. Wind NW at 10-20 mph, with gusts to 30 mph. High of 67.

Edward Loar earned his second career win with a two-stroke victory at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open. Loar held a one-stroke lead after 54 holes at Le Triomphe Country Club and needed only a 2-under 69 on the wind-swept final day to capture the title. Loar picked up a check for $99,000 to push his season earnings total to $164,684, moving him from No. 6 to No. 1 on the money list after four events.

Monday qualifier Blayne Barber (Auburn) tied for sixth and earned a berth in the Tour's next event—the Brasil Classic.

Edward Loar jumped out to a four-stroke lead with birdies at Nos. 5, 6 and 8 and looked in command as he made the turn. Runner-up Morgan Hoffmann put pressure on the leader, but Loar responded each time. Hoffmann closed to within two shots late in the round, but Loar rolled in a 10-foot birdie putt at No. 17 to give himself plenty of cushion on the final hole. A bogey at the closing hole reduced his winning margin to two shots.

Edward Loar became the first left-handed player in Tour history to assume the No. 1 spot on the money list at any point during any season. He was No. 2 on the list when he captured the 2012 Panama Claro Championship. Ted Potter, Jr. was as high as No. 3 when he won the 2011 Soboba Golf Classic, his second title that year.

With his win, Edward Loar made it nine total wins by left-handed players in Tour history. He also joined Greg Chalmers and Ted Potter, Jr. as the only lefties to win more than once.

Edward Loar became the 11th third-round leader/co-leader in tournament history to go on to win and the sixth in the past seven years.

Two-time champion Brett Wetterich made a run up the leaderboard Sunday with a final-round, 6-under 65 that included birdies on three of his final four holes. Wetterich was attempting to become the first player in Tour history to win the same event three times.

Morgan Hoffmann and Patrick Sheehan both moved into contention after firing 9-under-par 62s in the third round. Sheehan posted a 7-under 29 on the back nine.

Saturday's third-round play was in threesomes off the first and 10th tees, and times were moved up in anticipation of possible afternoon thunderstorms.

Byron Smith had a hole-in-one during Friday's second round. Smith used a 7-iron at the 191-yard, sixth hole for his third career ace.

Local favorite John Peterson of LSU, who lives in nearby Baton Rouge, fired a 6-under 65 to share the first-round lead with Danny Ellis. Peterson birdied his final hole Sunday and tied for 10th.

Monday qualifier John Hurley had a busy week. The former Texas A&M stand-out was married in Texas on Saturday before the tournament, then drove three and a half hours Sunday night and successfully qualified for the event. He posted scores of 73-67 to make the 36-hole cut on the number.

Clemson University had a definite presence on the first-day leaderboard as Danny Ellis (tied for first), Ben Martin (tied for third) and D.J. Trahan (tied for sixth) all played for the Tigers.

Cut: 74 players at 2-under par 140 from a field of 142 professionals and two amateurs

Weather: Thursday: Mostly cloudy. Wind N at 7-15 mph. High of 82. Friday: The start of the second round was delayed 3:30 due to morning rain showers. Rainfall total 1.45 inches. Saturday: Partly cloudy, Wind W at 6-12 mph. High of 82. Sunday: Mostly cloudy, with a few afternoon rain showers. Wind light and variable. High of 75.

Benjamin Alvarado fired a 2-under 69 in the final round to hold off his challengers and win the inaugural Brasil Classic by one stroke over Dawie van der Walt. Alvarado, who dropped into a tie for the lead after 16 holes regained it when he birdied the par-5 17th. On the advice of his caddie, Alvarado went for the green in two, crushing a 5-iron from 228 yards onto the green and two-putting for birdie. Alvarado called it the most important shot of his life. His victory wasn't secure until the final hole when van der Walt missed a birdie putt that would have forced a tie.

Benjamin Alvarado collected a check for $121,500 and moved to No. 2 on the money list.

Benjamin Alvarado became the first player from Chile to win on the Web.com Tour and the first South American since Miguel Carballo won the 2011 Children's Hospital Classic in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Benjamin Alvarado led the field with the fewest bogeys for the week—three.

Benjamin Alvarado was forced to play 29 holes on Saturday as the tournament hurried to get back on schedule following Friday's rain delay. With an 11-under par total for the day, he wound up staking himself to a three-stroke lead after 54 holes.

Knoxville native Wes Roach rolled in a 45-foot birdie putt on his final hole Saturday to complete an 8-under 63 to move into solo sixth place after three rounds.

Brice Garnett registered the first official ace of the tournament when he holed a 9-iron from 161 yards on the par-3, ninth hole during the third round. Garnett also had an eagle-3 at the third hole.

About 90 minutes after Garnett's ace, Sweden's Richard S. Johnson matched it with his own hole-in-one. Johnson also used a 9-iron.

The start of Friday's second round was delayed three and a half hours because of heavy rains. Half the field failed to complete play and were forced to return to the course to finish the second round Saturday morning. Players had between five and 13 holes to play prior to the 36-hole cut.

The Brasil Classic presented by HSBC was the Web.com Tour's initial visit to Sao Paulo. The tournament marked the Tour's eighth visit to a different country outside the United States. The others are Australia, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Mexico, New Zealand and Panama.

Carlos Franco returned to the Sao Paulo Golf Club, where he won the 2001 Brazil Open on the Tour de las Americas.

Matt Fast recorded two holes-in-one during practice rounds at the Sao Paulo Golf Club. Fast had aces on both Monday and Tuesday, bringing his career total to three. "Two rounds in Sao Paulo and two aces. Twenty or thirty thousand rounds in the United States and only one," he chuckled.

Cut: 77 players at 2-under par 142 from a field of 156 professionals

Weather: Thursday: Sunny. Wind E, shifted to W at 7-15 mph, with gusts to 20 mph. High of 72. Friday: Partly cloudy. Wind SSE at 10-20 mph, with gusts of 20-25 mph. High of 82. Saturday: Mostly cloudy. Wind SSE at 10-20 mph. High of 75. Sunday: Mostly sunny. Wind WSW at 10-20 mph, with gusts 30-35 mph. High of 90.

Alex Aragon fired a 6-under 66 Sunday and came from five shots back in the final round to collect his second career title. Aragon finished at 16-under par, one better than Byron Smith and two in front of Brice Garnett. Aragon teed off one hour before the final twosome and charged to the top with six birdies in his first seven holes.

Alex Aragon collected a first-place check for $108,000 and moved from No. 87 to No. 6 on the money list.

The final-round scoring average of 73.286 made it the toughest final round in the 22-year history of the tournament.

Alex Aragon's win came almost exactly one year after his first title. He captured the TPC Stonebrae Championship in Hayward, Calif., on April 15, 2012.

Rod Pampling, tied for seventh, made his first start on Tour since the end of the 2001 season. The 43-year old Australian has been a regular on the PGA TOUR since graduating and collected a pair of TOUR wins in his 286 starts, including the title at the 2006 Bay Hill Invitational.

Alex Aragon staged the best 36-hole and 54-hole comebacks in tournament history. He was tied for 33rd after two rounds and tied for 12th after three rounds.

Alex Aragon hit only 44 of 72 greens in regulation—the fewest by any winner in the tournament's history since record keeping began in 1998.

Seventy-seven players made the 36-hole cut, the most in the tournament's 22-year history.

Alex Aragon needed only 101 putts for the week, making him the sixth straight tournament winner to rank in the top six in Putting.

Reid Edstrom was the only player in the field to play the first 36 holes without a bogey. Edstrom opened with scores of 68-66 and shared the second-round lead with 2011 champion Danny Lee.

Joseph Bramlett played the par-5s at 5-under on the first day. Bramlett had an eagle and three birdies Thursday.

Cut: 65 players at even-par 144 from a field of 157 professionals

Weather: Thursday: Mostly cloudy. Wind NNW at 6-12 mph. High of 85. Friday: Mostly sunny. Wind ENE at 7-15 mph. High of 86. Saturday: Mostly sunny. Wind ESE at 7-15 mph. High of 87. Sunday: Mostly sunny. Wind S at 7-15. High of 86.

Will Wilcox earned his first career title by coasting to victory Sunday. Wilcox fired a 63 Saturday and opened up a seven-stroke lead. A couple of bogeys in the first six holes cut his lead to four, but then he eagled the par-4 seventh hole to regain a six-shot margin at the turn. The 26-year-old, third-year pro stumbled with a double bogey at the par-5 11th hole when he twice hit a ball in the hazard. He rebounded with a birdie at the next.

Will Wilcox became the fifth of seven, and third consecutive, third-round leader/co-leader to go on to win in Valdosta.

The only player to make a serious run at the leader Sunday was Monday qualifier Zack Sucher, who put up five birdies and an eagle in his first 11 holes and got within four strokes. Unfortunately Sucher started the final round a distant 12 shots behind the leader and the margin was too much to overcome. He tied for second, with D.J. Brigman and Michael Putnam, who birdied the final hole.

Will Wilcox earned his first career win in his 49th career start. He picked up a check for $117,000 and moved from No. 55 to No. 3 on the money list at the one-third mark of the 2013 season.

Will Wilcox led the field in Greens in Regulation, hitting 60 of 72 for 83.3 percent.

Will Wilcox became the fourth first-time winner on Tour in 2013. He joined Kevin Foley, Patrick Cantlay and Benjamin Alvarado in that category.

Monday qualifier Zack Sucher matched the tournament record with a 6-under 30 on the front nine during Sunday's final round. Henrik Bjornstad (second round in 2009) is the only other player to shoot a 30 on the front.

Will Wilcox fired a course-record, 9-under 63 in the third round and moved into first place after 54 holes. The previous mark was 64, first set by Paul Dickinson in the first round of the inaugural event in 2007 and later matched by three others.

Will Wilcox missed tying an unofficial Tour record when he bogeyed the final hole Saturday. Wilcox settled for a 63, which was five strokes better than any other player that day. Notah Begay III shot a 13-under 59 in the second round of the 1998 Dominion Open, and the next-best score that day was 65 by Jim Estes, Perry Moss and eventual tournament winner Bob Burns.

When Hudson Swafford took the 36-hole lead, it marked the first time in his Tour career that he has held/shared the lead after either the first, second or third round in any of his 33 career starts.

Will Wilcox owned a seven-stroke lead after 54 holes, matching the second-largest lead after the third round in Tour history. Steve Wheatcroft set the mark when he led by eight shots after three rounds of the 2011 Melwood Prince George's County Open.

Will Wilcox set a career-best with his 63 in the third round. His previous low score was a 7-under 64 in the second round of the 2012 Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship.

Byron Smith had a pair of eagles on par-5s during the third round. He became only the third player in the tournament's seven-year history to register two eagles in the same round.

Will Wilcox set a tournament record with his 54-hole score of 200. The previous low was 12-under 204, set by Jon Mills and Ted Potter, Jr. in 2011 and matched by Woody Austin and Luke List in 2012.

Cut: 62 players at 1-over-par 143 from a field of 154 professionals and two amateurs.

Weather: Thursday: Cloudy, with mist in the morning and light showers in the afternoon. Rainfall 0.01 inches. Wind ENE at 7-14 mph in the morning, 10-20 mph in the afternoon. High of 69. Friday: Cloudy, with isolated rain showers. Rainfall 0.03 inches. Wind ENE at 10-15 mph, gusting 18-25 mph. High of 64. Saturday: Cloudy, with periods of moderate rain. Rainfall 0.65 inches. Wind ENE at 10-15 mph, gusting 18-25 mph. High of 57. Sunday: Cloudy with rain showers. Rainfall total 2.70 inches from Saturday to midday Sunday. Round 4 canceled at 10:35 a.m. due to rain and unplayable course conditions. Wind ENE at 5-10 mph. High of 65.

Brendon Todd earned his second career title when rain forced the cancellation of the final round of the tournament before any player had a chance to hit a shot. Todd's 2-under 69 in Saturday's third round moved him to 8-under 205 and one shot better than playing partner Tim Wilkinson and two better than Nick Rousey.

Tournament officials deemed the University of Georgia Golf Course unplayable after more than 2.5 inches of rain fell in a 24-hour period.

Brendon Todd picked up a check for $108,000 and moved from No. 37 to No. 4 on the money list. His other Web.com Tour win came at the 2008 Utah Championship.

Brendon Todd became the third consecutive Georgia Bulldog to win the tournament on the UGA course. He joined Russell Henley (2011) and Hudson Swafford (2012) as tournament champions.

Runner-up Tim Wilkinson matched his career-best performance. The only other time he finished second was at the 2005 Oregon Classic, which was also cut short to 54 holes because of rain on the final day.

Michael Putnam's tie for fifth gave him four top-10s in his last five starts.

The weather-shortened event marked the fifth time in 14 years that a Tour event was reduced to 54 holes. It was the first time in that timespan that the final round did not get underway.

The last time a tournament was reduced to 54 holes was the 2011 Fresh Express Classic, which was halted when heavy fog rolled into the Hayward, Calif., area on the final day and resulted in the cancellation of the fourth round.

There were only six eagles recorded during the 54 holes of the tournament and four of those came on par-4s. The other two were on par-5s.

Friday: Partly cloudy. Wind WSW at 5 mph in the morning, SSW at 7-14 mph in the afternoon. High of 85. Saturday: Morning rain showers, cloudy in the afternoon. Rainfall: 0.23 inches. There was a 30-minute delay to start the round at Thornblade only. Wind SSE at 5-10 mph. High of 75. Sunday: Morning rain showers, mostly cloudy in the afternoon. Rainfall 0.20 inches Saturday night. Wind S at 4-8 mph. High of 77.

South Carolina's Mark Anderson pulled away from the field on the final day in Greenville and earned his first career title. Anderson, a University of South Carolina grad, held a one-stroke lead after 54 holes but birdied the first hole on Sunday and was never headed. Anderson chalked up additional birdies at Nos. 2, 4 and 7 to up his lead over several challengers. Three birdies on the first six holes of the back nine increased his lead as he coasted to a five-shot victory in front of his home state fans.

Mark Anderson's winning score of 27-under par matched the third-lowest in Tour history, and his winning total of 259 was the fifth-best in Tour history. It bettered the previous tournament record by five shots.

Mark Anderson joined Michael Christie (1996) as the only University of South Carolina grads to win in Greenville. Anderson's five-stroke win was the second-largest in tournament history. Christie won by six shots in 1996.

Mark Anderson picked up the winner's check for $117,000 and moved from No. 133 to No. 9 on the money list through the first nine events.

Georgia Tech rookie Chesson Hadley matched the lowest nine-hole score in Web.com Tour history when he posted an 8-under 27 on the front nine at Thornblade Club in the final round. Hadley opened his day with four birdies and an eagle and then added birdies at Nos. 8 and 9 to become only the third player ever to shoot a 27. Notah Begay III and Doug Dunaway both shot 27s during the 1999 season.

Jason Gore fired a 7-under 28 early in Sunday's final round at Thornblade Club. There have been 31 scores of 28 posted over the years, and Gore is the only player to have done it more than once. His 28 in Greenville was the third of his career. He shot that same score in both the second and the fourth rounds of the 2005 Cox Classic.

Franklin Corpening's 128 total at the halfway mark tied the tournament 36-hole record. Travis Hampshire and Greg Owen were both at 128 after two rounds in 2011.

Roland Thatcher tied the Thornblade Club course record, with his 10-under 61 during Friday's second round. Thatcher equaled the mark set by Keegan Bradley in 2010.

Amateurs recorded two holes-in-one during the tournament. Walt Dennis from Columbus, Ohio, aced the par-3, 154-yard ninth hole at the Thornblade Club in Thursday's opening round and was rewarded with a BMW 325i automobile-the first time an amateur has won a car since BMW took over sponsorship of the event 13 years ago. Celebrity Gary Valentine made his first career ace during Friday's second round, at Greenville Country Club.

Winner: Michael Putnam
64-72-73-66 275 (-13)

Michael Putnam earned his second Web.com Tour career win with a two-stroke victory at the Mexico Championship. Putnam was four strokes off the lead after 54 holes in Leon. He fired a final-round, 6-under 66 to finish at 13-under 275.

Michael Putnam's first-place check for $126,000 moved him from No. 11 to No. 1 on the money list.

Michael Putnam had three eagles during the week, including two on his first nine of the tournament.

Alex Prugh held a share of the lead heading into the final round. He had two bogeys coming in and could only manage a par-5 on the finishing hole. He wound up tied for second, two shots back of winner Michael Putnam.

Whee Kim earned a career-best tie for second. He had a share of the lead heading into the final round, shot 72 and finished two strokes behind Michael

Putnam.

Wes Roach three-putted the 72nd hole to tie for second place. His runner-up check for $52,266 is more money than he made on the Web.com Tour in 2012. He also moved from No. 32 to No. 15 on the money list.

D.J. Brigman fired three consecutive rounds of 69 after opening with a 73. He tied for sixth, a career-best for him at this event.

Jim Renner carded 68-68 in the first two rounds and earned his third top-10 of the year with his tie for ninth. On Wednesday, Renner won the par-3 contest on the nine-hole, par-3 course at El Bosque Country Club.

Kevin Tway had a hole-in-one on the par-3 12th hole in the second round. It was his first career ace as a professional and third overall. Michael Connell aced the par-3 15th hole in his final round and went on to card an even-par 72.

Cut: 60 players at 3-over-par 143 from a field of 156 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Partly cloudy, with afternoon thunderstorms. Play suspended from 4:20-5:20 p.m. Rainfall at 0.5 inches. Wind SSW at 5-10 mph. High of 90. Friday: Mostly sunny. Wind SSW at 7-15 mph, with gusts to 20 mph. High of 90. Saturday: Mostly sunny. Wind SSW at 7-15 mph. High of 90. Sunday: Mostly cloudy, with light, afternoon rain showers. Wind SW 6-12 mph. High of 79.

Michael Putnam became the first two-time winner in 2013 when he captured the Mid-Atlantic Championship. Putnam, who celebrated his 30th birthday during the third round, fired a 2-under 68 in the final round at TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm to win by two shots over rookie Chesson Hadley. Putnam staked himself a big lead early in the final round and then coasted to victory. Putnam started the final round tied for the lead and quickly gained some distance on the field with three birdies in his first six holes. His lead was four strokes at the turn, and nobody got closer than the final margin on the back nine.

Michael Putnam's victory was his second in as many weeks. Putnam won the Mexico Open a week earlier and became the 10th player in Tour history to win in back-to-back weeks. The last to do it before Putnam was Luke Guthrie, winner of the 2012 Albertsons Boise Open and the WNB Golf Classic.

Michael Putnam cemented his hold on the No. 1 spot on the money list with his win. The victory was worth $108,000 and pushed his season total to $354,234, more than $132,000 better than No. 2 Edward Loar, who missed the cut.

Only nine players finished under par for the week, the fewest on Tour since the 2012 Panama Claro Championship when Edward Loar's winning score was 4-under par, and only six players posted sub-par scores for 72 holes.

Chesson Hadley, a 25-year old rookie from Georgia Tech, chalked up his third straight top-six finish with his runner-up effort. Hadley birdied the 17th hole to close the gap on leader Michael Putnam to two but would get no closer. He picked up a check for $64,800 and vaulted from No. 25 to No. 8 on the money list.

Lefty Tim Wilkinson tied for 10th, giving him seven top-15 finishes in eight starts. Wilkinson also moved up one spot, to No. 3, on the money list. His only hiccup to date came at the South Georgia Classic, where he signed an incorrect scorecard after the first round and was disqualified.

Peter Tomasulo made the biggest move Sunday, with a 5-under 65. He was 4-over and tied for 36th to start the day but wound up 1-under and tied for sixth.

The TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm course showed its teeth every day. The par-70 layout, which featured only two par-5s, finished with a four-day scoring average of 72.631. Friday's second round was the toughest of the week, with an average of 73.223.

Cut: 65 players at 1-under-par 141 from a field of 156 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Sunny, with a high of 87. Wind NE switching to SE at 7-15 mph. Friday: Sunny. High of 98. Wind S at 10-20 mph, with 25 mph gusts. Saturday: Partly cloudy. High of 89. Wind S at 7-15 mph and isolated gusts reaching 25 mph during the evening. Sunday: Overnight rainfall was 0.10 inches. Partly cloudy, with a high of 90. Wind light and variable.

Scott Parel headed into the final round with a one-stroke lead over Steve Wheatcroft at the Air Capital Classic. On Sunday Parel went birdie-eagle-birdie (Nos. 13-15) and fired a final-round 64, earning his first victory on the Web.com Tour.

Scott Parel became the oldest champion at this event at 48 years, 1 month, 2 days. He also became the fourth-oldest winner of a Web.com Tour event.

Scott Parel's winner's check for $117,000 moved him from No. 153 to No. 14 on the Web.com Tour's money list.

Scott Parel's 64 in the final round tied Jhonattan Vegas (2010) for the tournament low-final round.

Alex Aragon birdied his final hole of the tournament which placed him in solo second. The runner-up finish earned Aragon a payday of $70,200, putting him third on the money list, all but guaranteeing him his 2014 PGA TOUR card.

Alex Prugh fired an opening-round 63 at the Air Capital Classic. Prugh then carded rounds of 71-70 before a final-round 67 to finish in third. This was Prugh's third consecutive top-10 finish on the Web.com Tour. Prugh tied for second at the Mexico Championship and tied for sixth at the Mid-Atlantic Championship, moving from No. 140 to No. 15 in just three tournaments.

Jace Long, who Monday-qualified for the event, shot a 67 in the final round to tie for seventh. Long had just finished his course work at the University of Missouri in May and was making his pro debut. He also fired a 63 in the second round.

Cut: 66 players at 2-under-par 140 from a field of 155 professionals and one amateur.

Weather: Thursday: Partly cloudy. Wind NE at 5-10 mph. High of 81. Friday: Sunny. Wind NE at 5-10 mph. High of 82. Saturday: Mostly cloudy with light afternoon showers. Wind NE at 5-10 mph. High of 81. Sunday: Partly cloudy with afternoon thunderstorms. Play suspended 1:15 – 3:30 p.m Wind S at 6-12 mph. High of 84.

Rookie Chesson Hadley earned his first career win in front of hometown family and friends with a 7-under 64 in the final round. Following a 2:15 rain delay, Hadley chased down 54-hole leader Danny Lee by playing the final 10 holes in 7-under par to finish two strokes in front of Lee. Hadley didn't take the lead until the final hole when he knocked a wedge to within inches for a tap-in birdie and a 19-under total.

Chesson Hadley picked up a check for $112,500 and pushed his season total to almost $250,000, more than enough to lock up a spot on the PGA TOUR in 2013-14. His winner's share moved him to No. 3 on the money list at the season's halfway point.

Chesson Hadley became the third rookie and the seventh first-time winner in 13 events on Tour.

Chesson Hadley's win gave him four top-6 finishes in a five-week stretch starting with a tie for third at the BMW Charity Pro-Am, a tie for sixth at the Mexico Open and a runner-up showing at the Mid-Atlantic Championship.

Danny Lee's runner-up effort in Raleigh was his fourth top-10 this year. Lee also moved up from No. 23 to No. 6 on the money list.

It turned out to be a significant week for Tyrone van Aswegen. The 31-year old South African native became a U.S. citizen Wednesday morning in San Diego, Calif. A 2004 graduate of Oklahoma City University, van Aswegen opened his week with a 66 and closed with a 67 that left him tied for 18th.

Brothers Michael Putnam and Andrew Putnam both finished in the top-10 for the second time in 2013. Michael, the older of the two Putnam brothers, was sixth and Andrew tied for seventh. Earlier in the year, Michael won the Mexico Open, and Andrew tied for ninth.

Four Monday qualifiers made the cut, including 21-year old Chase Sieffert who was making his first Web.com Tour start. Seiffert, who had turned pro two weeks earlier, fired a 65 Sunday to move into a tie for 13th place and earned an invitation to the United Leasing Championship.

Michael Putnam registered back-to-back eagles during Saturday's third round. Putnam holed a wedge from 100 yards for an eagle-2 at the third hole and then rolled in a 20-foot eagle putt at the par-5, fourth.

Jim Renner made a hole-in-one at the 12th hole Saturday. Renner aced the 201-yard hole with a 5-iron. It was the fourth ace in his career but his first in competition.

Rookie Andrew Putnam matched the competitive course record with a 9-under 62 in the opening round. Putnam played the three par-5s in five-under. Former North Carolina Tarheel Rob Bradley set the course mark in the final round in 2003, and Scott Brown matched that number in the opening round in 2010.

Cut: 73 players at 1-over-par 145 from a field of 155 professionals and one amateur.

Weather: Thursday: Mostly sunny. Wind W and turning NW at 10-15 mph, with gusts to 20 mph. High of 93. Friday: Mostly cloudy, with a brief morning shower. Partly cloudy. Wind NW at 5-10 mph in the morning and 10-15 mph in the afternoon, with gusts to 22 mph. High of 91. Saturday: Sunny in the morning, then partly cloudy during the afternoon, with a few showers. Thunderstorms after play concluded. Wind WNW at 10-15 mph with gusts to 20 mph. Sunday: Mostly cloudy, with heavy rain and thunderstorms during the afternoon. Play suspended from 1:13-5:05 p.m. Rainfall total 1.10 inches. Wind NNW at 4-8 mph in the morning and 7-14 mph in the afternoon. High of 79.

Ben Martin earned his first career title with a playoff victory over Ashley Hall, Billy Hurley and Joe Affrunti. The four tied at 11-under 277 at the end of regulation Sunday, but a four-hour rain delay early in the day pushed the playoff to a Monday finish. Martin earned the win with a two-putt par on the first extra hole.

Ben Martin collected a check for $108,000 and moved from No. 21 to No. 4 on the money list. He posted a 5-under 67 in Sunday's final round and made up ground on third-round leader Billy Hurley III, who posted an even-par 72.

The four-man playoff tied a Tour record for most players in a playoff. It was the 13th time in Tour history that four players were tied at the end of regulation. The last time it happened came at the 2007 WNB Golf Classic in Midland, Texas, where Brad Adamonis was the winner.

The last Monday finish on the Web.com Tour was at the 2006 Palmetto Pride Classic in Charleston, S.C. The final group needed to complete the final two holes of regulation play in a rain-filled week. A playoff was needed there as well, and Michael Sim defeated Ken Duke for the win.

The final twosome of Billy Hurley III and Joe Affrunti shared the lead at 13-under par late Sunday afternoon, two clear of Hall and Martin, who had completed play. Hurley stumbled with a double-bogey on the 17th hole to fall back, and then Affrunti four-putted the final green for double bogey, which forced the four-man playoff.

Will Wilcox and Kevin Kisner both had back-to-back eagles at the par-5 ninth and 10th holes during the week.

Cut: 63 players at 6-under 136 from a field of 156 professionals

Weather: Thursday: Partly cloudy with afternoon thunderstorms. Officials stopped play from 6-6:20 p.m. because of a dangerous situation. Wind variable at 7-15 mph. High of 94. Friday: Mostly cloudy, with morning showers. Sunny in the afternoon. Rainfall total of 0.10 inches. Wind light and variable. High of 89. Saturday: Partly cloudy with scattered thunderstorms in the afternoon. Officials delayed play from 12:45-2:40 p.m. because of dangerous weather. After the resumption of play, officials suspended play for good at 6:22 with 23 players still on the course. Wind SE at 7-15 mph. Sunday: Partly cloudy and warm. Wind SE shifting to NW at 5-10 mph. High of 96.

It came down to a New Zealander vs. an Australian in a playoff to decide the 15th annual Utah Championship. Steven Alker, from Hamilton, New Zealand, made a par on the first playoff hole (No. 18) to defeat Australia's Ashley Hall. Hall hit his tee shot on the par-3 18th into the water and could only make bogey. The victory was Alker's first Web.com Tour title since he captured the 2009 HSBC New Zealand PGA Championship. It was another tough-luck loss for Hall, who fell to Ben Martin in a playoff two weeks earlier at the United Leasing Championship in Indiana.

The playoff was the first extra session in the 15-year history of the Utah Championship.

Will Wilcox was tied for 38th, 10 shots behind 54-hole leader Chad Collins when the final round began. Wilcox went out and shot the Tour's fourth 59 in history, making a 6-foot birdie putt to secure his place in the record book. Wilcox finished at 21-under, a stroke out of the Alker-Hall playoff. The other members of The 59 Club are Notah Begay III, Doug Dunakey and Jason Gore.

There was at least one 18-hole score posted for every number that falls between 59 (Will Wilcox) and 77 (Tain Lee) at the Utah Championship.

Chad Collins broke the tournament's 18-hole record with a second-round 60, including a putt for 59 on the same hole where Will Wilcox made his putt for a 59. In the third round, tournament winner Steven Alker shot a 61. He stood on the 18th tee, and had he holed out, he would have made a 59.

Michael Putnam, the 2010 Utah Championship winner, who opened 69-63-67, couldn't get anything going in his final round, shot a 1-over 72 and tied for 30th, his worst finish in five Utah starts. He earned $3,750 to add to his all-time leading Utah Championship total that has reached $178,401.

Cut: A total of 79 players made the cut at 1-under-par 141.

Weather: Thursday: Partly cloudy, with a high of 96. Wind SW at 10-18 mph. Friday: Partly cloudy. High of 97. Wind WSW at 10-20 mph. Saturday: Mostly cloudy, with scattered showers and thunderstorms between 7-9 a.m. Tee times were originally scheduled from a single tee, but officials changed to a two-tee start that began at 10 a.m. Rainfall amounted to .15 inches. High of 90, with E wind at 5-10 mph. Sunday: Mostly cloudy in the morning, with scattered showers before 8 a.m. Partly cloudy after noon. Total rainfall amounted to .01 inches. High of 86. Wind S at 8-15 mph.

The victory moved Jamie Lovemark from 76th to 14th on the 2013 Web.com Tour money list.

It was also Jamie Lovemark's first win since he claimed the 2010 Mexico Open Bicentenary in a playoff over B.J. Staten.

Matt Davidson's tie for third was his best showing in a Web.com Tour event since he tied for third at the 2010 Knoxville News Sentinel Open.

Matt Hendrix, Edward Loar and Alexandre Rocha shared honors for Sunday's low round, 7-under-par 64s. The 64 helped Loar finish fifth for his sixth top-10 finish this season.

Mark Anderson and Matt Hendrix led all players, with 23 birdies.

Matt Hendrix moved up 103 places in the final standings after an opening-round 73. He was tied for 114th after his first round but followed with rounds of 66-68-64 to tie for 11th.

Franklin Corpening was credited with the longest drive for the week, a 398-yarder in the first round on No. 13. It was one yard farther than John Hurley's effort on the same hole in the second round.

Cut: 75 players at 6-under-par 136 from a field of 155 professionals and one amateur.

Weather: Thursday: Sunny. High of 100. Wind WNW at 10-18 mph. Friday: Mostly sunny. High of 100. Wind NW at 5-10 mph. Saturday: Cloudy in the morning and then sunny. High of 95. Wind increasing through the day – NW at 10-20 mph. Sunday: Mostly sunny. High of 90. Wind was calm before 2pm then NW at 5-10 mph.

Rookie Kevin Tway rolled in a 6-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Spencer Levin for his first professional win of any kind. Tway (64) and Levin (63) tied at 23-under 261, a tournament record.

Kevin Tway went birdie-eagle-birdie starting at No. 15 to catch Spencer Levin, who had finished 30 minutes earlier. Tway's performance forced the tournament's first playoff since 2005.

Kevin Tway pocketed a check for $139,500 and moved from No. 39 to No. 6 on the money with just four events remaining before the Web.com Tour Finals. The victory locked up a berth for him on the PGA TOUR's 2013-14 season.

Hunter Haas closed with a flurry in the final round to tie for sixth. Haas rolled in an eagle putt at the par-5, 16th hole and then followed up with an ace at the par-3, 17th.

Leading money-winner Michael Putnam tied for third, his third top-5 in Boise in six starts. He also tied for third in 2008 and tied for second in 2012.

Kevin Tway and Spencer Levin broke the tournament's 72-hole scoring record by one shot. Luke Guthrie set the mark of 22-under 262 when he won in 2012.

Scotland's Russell Knox fired a 12-under 59 in the second round and became only the fifth player in Tour history to post a sub-60 score. Knox started his round on the back nine and had a birdie-eagle-birdie run starting at No. 15 and made the turn at 5-under. His second eagle came at the par-5, second hole and was followed by five consecutive birdies. Knox two-putted for pars from 50 and 70 feet, respectively, on his final two holes.

Russell Knox joined Notah Begay III, Doug Dunaway, Jason Gore and Will Wilcox as a member of The 59 Club. Knox's 59 came less than two weeks after Wilcox posted the same score in the final round of the Utah Championship.

Philip Pettitt's 8-under 63 in the third round was a career low.

Philip Pettitt led by one after 54 holes, marking the first time in his career he has held or shared the lead after any round.

Michael Connell went from cut line to clubhouse leader Saturday with his career-low, 10-under 61. Connell made the cut on the number Friday and was in the third group off the tee Saturday morning. He completed play just before 11 a.m., and his name remained atop the leaderboard for 5 $\frac{1}{2}$  hours before Pettitt posted his score to take the lead.

Will Wilcox continued his red-hot summer with a hole-in-one Saturday. Wilcox used a 7-iron from 202 yards for his ace.

Russell Knox followed up his 59 Friday with a bogey-free, 3-under 68 on Saturday. Knox birdied the 16th and 17th holes to climb back into contention and earn a spot in Sunday's final pairing.

Boise State's Troy Merritt and leader Philip Pettitt both holed second shots for eagles at the 462-yard, 11th hole Saturday. In the first 23 years of the tournament there had been only two eagles total at that hole-the first one came in 1992 and the second in 2011.

Russell Knox's record day put him at 14-under for the tournament and gave him a one-stroke lead at the halfway point. It was the first time he had held the outright lead after 36 holes.

The 36-hole cut of 6-under was the lowest in the tournament's 24-year history. The previous low of 5-under came in 2010 and 2012.

Friday's scoring average of 68.129 was the lowest single-round average since the tournament began in 1990. The previous low of 68.968 came in the second round in 2012. The record was then lowered again in Saturday's third round when the average was 68.067.

Erik Flores chalked up six birdies in a row during the second round to match the tournament record. Michael Muehr (1999) and Jason Kokrak (2010) also had six consecutive birdies.

Chris Smith became the second player in tournament history to record three eagles during a round. Smith had eagles at Nos. 2, 15 and 16. The second and 16th holes are par-5s, the 15th is a driveable par-4 that measures 293 yards. Bradley Iles had three eagles on par-5s (Nos. 2, 3 and 16) in the second round in 2010.

Cut: 67 players at 1-over-par 143 from a field of 138 professionals and six amateurs.

Weather: Thursday: Mostly sunny. Wind W at 7-14 mph. High of 80. Friday: Mostly sunny. Wind W at 8-16 mph. High of 75. Saturday: Cloudy most of the day. Early morning rainfall 0.1 inches. Wind W at 6-12 mph. High of 74. Sunday: Partly cloudy. Wind NNW at 7-15 mph, with gusts to 20 mph. High of 73.

Ben Martin fired a 4-under 67 and kept his challengers at a distance during the final round at Southpointe Golf Club. Martin started the day with a four-stroke advantage and saw that lead jump to eight shots after making three birdies on his first five holes. His lead was down to two shots after 14 holes, but he chipped in for eagle at the par-4, 15th and then closed with birdies on his last two holes for a five-stroke win, the second of his career and the second in six weeks. Martin previously won the United Leasing Championship in a playoff in late June.

By collecting a check for $121,500, Ben Martin vaulted two spots to No. 2 on the money list, just $34,435 behind No. 1 Michael Putnam with three events left on the Regular Season schedule.

Ben Martin, No. 1 on Tour in Birdies, also finished first in Birdies for the week, with 25. Runner-up Kelly Kraft was second, with 22.

Ben Martin's win capped a six-week run that saw him win twice and finish in the top-six three other times. During his streak, Martin posted par-or-better scores in 23 of 24 rounds and was a cumulative 96-under par for a 67.166 scoring average.

Former U.S. Amateur champion Kelly Kraft put 10 birdies on his Sunday card and moved up the leaderboard with a 7-under 64, the best final-round score. Kraft finished solo second and collected a check for $72,900, which moved him from No. 137 to No. 38 on the money list.

Texan Brad Elder's tie-for-third performance was his best on Tour since winning the 2007 Preferred Health Systems Wichita Open, a span of 108 starts.

Scott Harrington made a double eagle-2 at the par-5, 13th Sunday. Harrington holed a 6-iron from 217 yards for only the second double eagle in tournament history.

Ben Martin bogeyed his final two holes in the third round but still wound up with a four-shot lead. His 13-under total of 200 also tied the tournament's 54-hole record.

Second-round leader Whee Kim one-putted 13 times during his second-round 65. He also made one from the fringe and finished with only 21 official putts.

Auburn grad Blayne Barber was disqualified after the second round for signing an incorrect scorecard. Barber had posted a 5-under 66 and would have been tied for second at 9-under par but signed for a birdie-3 at No. 16 when he had made a par-4.

Leading money-winner Michael Putnam's opening-round 75 matched his highest score of the year. Putnam double-bogeyed his final hole in the second round for an even-par 71 but missed the cut. He had made 13 cuts in 16 prior starts in 2013.

Andres Echavarria played his final five holes during his second round in 6-under par. The former Florida Gator closed 2-3-3-3-3 that gave him a 6-under 29, which tied the tournament's front-nine record. Echavarria's 67 was a marked improvement from his opening 80, but he failed to make the 36-hole cut.

First-round leader Zack Sucher was making only his third start of the year. Sucher was a Monday qualifier when he tied for second at the South Georgia Classic in April and earned a start at the Mylan Classic based on his money-list standing (No. 79).

Paul Claxton made his 410th career start, which tied him with Ben Bates for the most in Tour history. Claxton is also No. 2 on the all-time money list.

Cut: 74 players at 5-under-par 139 from a field of 156 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Mostly cloudy, with morning rain and thunderstorms. The start of the first round was delayed 5½ hours. Rainfall: 0.6 inches. High of 82. Friday: Mostly cloudy. Wind NE at 5-10 mph. High of 81. Saturday: Partly cloudy. Wind NE at 7-15 mph. High of 83. Sunday: Mostly cloudy. Wind SSE at 7-15 mph. High of 83. Lift, clean and place conditions were in effect for all four rounds.

Andy Svoboda fired an 8-under 64 in Sunday's final round to earn his first career title. Svoboda overcame a two-stroke deficit at the start of the day and was flawless in overtaking the leader and then pulling away from the field. Svoboda hit all 18 greens in regulation during his bogey-free charge.

Andy Svoboda took command of the tournament with three consecutive birdies starting at the par-5, 11th hole when he got up-and-down from a difficult lie over the green. He then added a pair of 30-foot birdie putts on the next two holes to stretch his lead. A final birdie at No. 15 pushed his lead to four, and he coasted in with three consecutive pars to win by three over playing partner Fernando Mechereffe.

Andy Svoboda had missed the cut in all three of his previous starts at Highland Springs CC.

Andy Svoboda became the 10th first-time winner in 19 2013 Tour events.

Andy Svoboda's first-place check for $121,500 vaulted him from No. 142 to No.

20 on the money list with only two events remaining in the regular season.

Andy Svoboda, 33, was struggling through his rookie season on the PGA TOUR prior to his breakthrough week. The St. John's University graduate had made only four cuts in 17 starts and was No. 209 on the FedExCup list.

Fernando Mechereffe rolled in a 15-foot birdie putt on the final green to break a three-way tie at 18-under par and move into solo second place. Mechereffe earned $72,900 for the week, with his last-hole birdie putt turning out to be worth $22,500. He moved him from No. 133 to No. 42 on the money list.

Joe Durant, 49, shot a 7-under 65 Sunday and vaulted up to solo sixth place, his best finish since he tied for fifth at the 1996 Tour Championship.

Missouri grad Peter Malnati's tie for 14th earned him enough money to join the Tour as a Special Temporary Member. Malnati had made the cut in five of six starts and had four top-15 finishes. He moved up to No. 80 on the money list.

Cut: 69 players at 3-under-par 139 from a field of 156 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Partly cloudy all day, with the high temperature reaching 82. Wind NE at 6-12 mph. Friday: Mostly cloudy, with a high of 81. Wind NE at 6-12 mph. Saturday: Mostly cloudy, with a high of 81. Wind NE at 6-12 mph. Rain began falling approximately one hour following the completion of play and lasted well into the evening. Rainfall total was .75 inches. Sunday: Overcast to begin the day, with rain again starting to fall at 10 a.m. Officials suspended play at 11:18 a.m. as rain left parts of the course unplayable. Delay lasted until 1:45 p.m., for a total of 2:27. High of 76. Wind SW at 6-12 mph.

Peter Malnati began his final round with two bogeys at Fox Den Country Club. He recovered nicely to record eight birdies the rest of the way, including a 3-footer at the 72nd hole, that secured his first Web.com Tour title. He won the event in front of a partisan crowd. Malnati grew up in nearby Dandridge and was staying with his parents during the week.

By winning the News Sentinel Open, Peter Malnati moved from 80th to 16th on the money list, securing his 2013-14 PGA TOUR playing privileges in the process.

James White, a Web.com Tour rookie and Monday qualifier, had played in three career Web.com Tour events prior to the 2013 Knoxville Open—missing the cut in all three. He played as an amateur in the Nationwide Hospital Children's Invitational in 2011, and shot identical rounds of 74-70 earlier this season at both the Chile Classic and Brasil Classic to miss the cuts in those events. After opening 69-68-66 in Knoxville, he fired a final-round 68—including birdies on his final three holes—to tie for second. He moved to No. 103 on the money list after picking up his first career paycheck.

Blayne Barber open-qualified to gain entrance into the News Sentinel Open field, and he went on to tie for second, a career-best performance. He improved from 151st on the money list to 84th. The last open-qualifier to go on to win a Web.com Tour event was Ted Potter, Jr., who won the 2011 South Georgia Classic in Valdosta.

Seven open-qualifiers made it to the weekend at the News Sentinel Open. Leading the way were Blayne Barber and James White, who both tied for second. Others to make the cut were Dominic Bozzelli (tied for 30th), Kyle Morris (tied for 39th), David Skinnis (tied for 56th) and Derek Rende and Brandon Brown (both tied for 60th).

Matt Bettencourt double-bogeyed his final hole of the first round, No. 9. After that, he reeled off 37 consecutive holes of bogey-free golf, including an opening birdie in the final round Sunday. His streak ended at 37 when he bogeyed his second hole of the day, No. 2 at Fox Den Country Club. He then started a new streak after his bogey, finishing with four birdies and 12 pars to end his round.

Cut: 65 players at 4-under 138 from a field of 156

Weather: Thursday: Overcast morning, with light rainfall. Start of play delayed 10 minutes due to insufficient daylight. Partly cloudy the rest of the day. Wind E at 5-10 mph in the afternoon. High of 85. Friday: Partly cloudy. Wind SW at 6-12 mph and gusting 17-23 mph in the afternoon. High of 91. Saturday: Mostly sunny. Wind at 10-20 mph, gusting to 25-30 mph in the afternoon. High of 92. Sunday: Sunny. Wind at 8-18 mph and gusting to 20-25 mph in the afternoon. High of 94.

Bronson La'Cassie defeated Matt Bettencourt with a par on the third playoff hole. La'Cassie went birdie-birdie on the final two holes of regulation to get into the playoff.

Australia's Bronson La'Cassie earned his first career win in his 73rd career start. He picked up the winner's check for $144,000 and moved from No. 33 to No. 6 on the money list to earn his PGA TOUR card for the 2013-14 season.

Bronson La'Cassie became the 12th first-time winner in 21 events in 2013. La'Cassie made his 10th cut in 19 2013 starts. He also posted top-10 finishes at the Mid-Atlantic Championship (tied for third) and the Albertsons Boise Open (tied for third).

Matt Bettencourt is 0-2 in career playoffs on Tour. He was runner-up to D.A. Points at the 2008 Miccosukee Championship.

Bronson La'Cassie became the third international winner on Tour in 2013. He joined Benjamin Alvarado (Chile, at the Chile Classic) and Alex Aragon (Mexico, at the WNB Golf Classic) in the category. He became the second international winner of the Cox Classic. He joined 1999 champion Mathew Goggin of Australia in that category.

Matt Bettencourt collected the runner-up check for $86,400 and moved from No. 63 to No. 16 on the money list to earn his PGA TOUR card for the 2013-14 season.

Leading money winner Michael Putnam maintained his grasp of the top spot and finished the regular season at No. 1 to earn Fully Exempt status for the 2013-14 PGA TOUR season. Putnam started the week with a $37,735 lead over No. 2 Ben Martin. Putnam posted a 14-under total to tie for 12th while Martin wound up at 7-under and tied for 40th. Putnam finished his season with $450,184, with Martin ending the year at No. 2, with $399,769, a difference of $50,415. In addition to his fully exempt status Putnam also earned a sponsor exemption into THE PLAYERS Championship in May 2014.

Michael Putnam's season total of $450,184 moved him to fifth on the Tour's all-time, single-season money record list:

$644,142.....	Michael Sim , 2009 (14 starts)

Cut: 71 players at 3-under-par 141 from a field of 129 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Mostly sunny. Daytime high of 86. Wind NE at 6-12 mph. Friday: Mostly sunny. Daytime high of 87. Wind SW at 5-10 mph. Saturday: Mostly cloudy. Daytime high of 87. Wind WNW at 5-10 mph. Sunday: Mostly cloudy. High of 76. Wind WSW 3-8 mph.

The Hotel Fitness Championship was the first of four Web.com Tour Finals events. The Finals are a blend of Web.com Tour and PGA TOUR players vying for 50 PGA TOUR cards and positioning for the new wraparound season that starts in October.

Trevor Immelman rolled in a 12-foot birdie putt on the final hole and went on to earn his first Web.com Tour title. Immelman fired a 6-under 66 to overcome a five-stroke deficit and beat 54-hole leader Patrick Cantlay by one stroke. Immelman finished at 20-under par and won for the first time since he captured the 2008 Masters tournament.

Trevor Immelman became the first player in Tour history to win a major championship (2008 Masters) and then win on the Web.com Tour.

Trevor Immelman collected a check for $180,000 and guaranteed himself a return trip to the PGA TOUR in 2013-14.

Patrick Cantlay, 21, was in search of his second Tour win. The former UCLA standout won the Colombia Championship in Bogota early in the year.

Trevor Immelman had won twice on the PGA TOUR, at the 2006 Cialis Western Open and the 2008 Masters tournament.

Scott McCarron established the tournament course record with his 8-under 64 in the opening round. That mark lasted less than a day as Michael Putnam bettered it with his 9-under 63 in the second round. Kevin Kisner equaled the record with his 63 on Saturday and Ryan Spears matched it again Sunday.

The only previous Web.com Tour start for Trevor Immelman prior to the Hotel Fitness Championship was a tie for ninth at the 1999 Shreveport Open, where he played as an amateur after receiving a sponsor exemption.

Cut: 63 players at even-par 144 from a field of 131 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Mostly sunny. Wind N at 5-10 mph. High of 88. Friday: Mostly sunny. Wind NE at 6-12 mph. High of 85. Saturday: Mostly sunny. Wind SW at 5-10 mph. High of 85. Sunday: Partly cloudy. Wind NW at 5-10 mph. High of 88.

Andy Svoboda two-putted the first extra hole to beat Will MacKenzie and win the Chiquita Classic, the second of four Web.com Tour Finals. MacKenzie had chipped in for eagle on the final hole of regulation to take the clubhouse lead at 12-under par. Svoboda's birdie at No. 10 had gotten him to 13-under for the week, but he failed to make another birdie down the stretch and stumbled with a bogey at No. 17 and tied with MacKenzie.

The win was the second of the year for Andy Svoboda, who had earned his first career title at the Price Cutter Charity Championship one month earlier. He had missed the cut in his two starts after winning-Cox Classic and Hotel Fitness Championship-before he won again in North Carolina. Svoboda joined Michael Putnam and Ben Martin as the only double winners on Tour in 2013.

The playoff was the second in the tournament's four-year history and the second in as many years. Russell Henley won in a playoff in 2012.

Svoboda finished the week tied for fourth in Fairways Hit and tied for ninth in Greens in Regulation.

Will MacKenzie's runner-up finish was his career best on the Web.com Tour and his best since he won the 2008 Viking Classic on the PGA TOUR—a span of 118 combined starts (47 on the Web.com Tour and 71 PGA TOUR appearances).

Ben Martin tied for third, his sixth top-six finish in his last nine starts. Martin was No. 2 on the Regular Season money list, and his effort this week moved him to No. 7 on the Finals' priority ranking.

John Peterson tied for third place, his third consecutive top-five finish. He was solo third at the Cox Classic and tied for fifth at the Hotel Fitness Championship.

South Korea's Seung-Yul Noh had a dominating week in Columbus and eventually pulled away from the field for a record five-stroke win. Noh started the final round with a three-shot lead and then distanced himself with three consecutive birdies, starting at No. 5. Noh's first career win came in his third Tour start.

Seung-Yul Noh tied for seventh at the Hotel Fitness Championship and missed the cut at the Chiquita Classic before his victory at the Scarlet Course.

With a first-place check for $180,000, Seung-Yul Noh moved to No. 1 on the Finals' priority ranking.

Seung-Yul Noh's win came at age 22 years, 3 months, 25 days. He became the 11th-youngest winner in Tour history.

Seung-Yul Noh became the third player from South Korea to win on Tour. He joined Kevin Na (2006 Mark Christopher Charity Classic) and James Hahn (2012 Rex Hospital Open) as South Korean-born winners.

With his victory, Seung-Yul Noh became the first international winner in the tournament's seven-year history.

Seung-Yul Noh joined the Asian Tour as a 16-year old in 2008 and earned Rookie of the Year honors that season. He became the third-youngest winner in Asian Tour history when he won the Midea China Classic.

Lefthander Edward Loar moved from No. 36 to No. 6 on the priority ranking with his second-place finish in Columbus.

John Peterson's solo third-place finish marked his fourth consecutive top-five Tour performance.

First-round leader Jim Herman grew up in Cincinnati and won a high school state championship for St. Xavier High, a tournament also played on Ohio State's Scarlet Course.

	Jhonattan Vegas - 135 (-5)

Cut: 67 players at even-par 140 from a field of 125 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Mostly cloudy, with light rain showers. Rainfall total 0.01 inches. Overnight low 73. High of 83. Wind NW switching to NE at 7-15 mph. Friday: Mostly cloudy, with occasional rain showers. Rainfall total 0.5 inches. High of 79. Wind NE at 10-20 mph. Saturday: The start of the third round was delayed until 11:15 a.m. due to inclement weather. Rainfall total 0.95 inches. High of 78. Wind NE at 10-20 mph. Sunday: The beginning of the final round was delayed until 11:30 a.m. Mostly cloudy with morning rain. Rainfall total 0.75 inches. High of 82. Wind NE at 10-20 mph.

Chesson Hadley's 1-under 69 in the final round was good enough to hold off the field and win the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship. Hadley started the final round trailing 54-hole leader Scott Gardiner by one but jumped into the lead with three birdies on his first five holes. Hadley's birdie at the par-5 16th gave him just enough breathing room to offset four bogeys on the back nine.

Chesson Hadley, winner of The Rex Hospital Open in June, collected a first-place check for $180,000 and moved him from No. 14 to No. 3 on the Finals' priority ranking.

With an opportunity for the No. 1 spot on the priority ranking list, Chesson Hadley lost that chance when John Peterson tied for second place. Peterson capped off a stellar Finals' series with his fourth consecutive top-five finish. His payday of $66,000 was enough to overtake Hadley and win the Finals by just $567.

By winning the Finals, John Peterson earned fully-exempt status for the 2013-14 PGA TOUR season and also earned an exemption into THE PLAYERS Championship in May 2014.

Regular Season money leader Michael Putnam also earned a full exemption for 2013-14 PGA TOUR season plus a spot in THE PLAYERS Championship. Putnam tied for 62nd at the Web.com Tour Championship.

Canada's Brad Fritsch regained his PGA TOUR card, thanks to his second-place tie at the Web.com Tour Championship. Fritsch had missed the cut in the three previous Finals' events.

Six players played their way to PGA TOUR cards during the week. They were Brad Fritsch (tied for second), Russell Knox (tied for sixth), Andrew Loupe (tied for sixth), Billy Hurley III (tied for eighth), Lee Williams (tied for eighth) and Joe Durant (tied for eighth).

Six players were displaced from the priority rankings at the conclusion of the tournament. All six players missed the cut: Greg Owen, Vaughn Taylor, Spencer Levin, Camilo Benedetti, Alistair Presnell and Steve Wheatcroft.

The tournament was hampered by frequent rain showers, and all four rounds were played with lift, clean and place conditions in effect.

Notes:

- 1) There are 329 names listed above. Including repeat graduate years, 433 PGA TOUR cards have been awarded.
- 2) Prior to 2013, all Web.com Tour graduates earned their PGA TOUR card based on their final position on the season-long Web.com Tour money list. Beginning in 2013, graduates earned PGA TOUR cards via either the Regular Season money list (25 cards) or the four-event Web.com Tour Finals (25 cards).
