PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 130 official-money tournaments on six tours—the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, Mackenzie Tour - PGA TOUR Canada and Ping An Bank China Tour - PGA TOUR China Series. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America. The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Three other golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the TOUR but with their marquee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-TOUR co-sponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, N.J., oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (Ga.) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, oversees The Open Championship and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

PGA TOUR

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf tour, with 2015-16 official-money events beginning in October 2015 and ending in September 2016. This is the tenth season of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs.

TV: CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, TNT, Fox, FS1

Competition Awards: FedExCup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money-winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Courage Award, Rookie of the Year

Champions Tour

The Champions Tour continues to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and older with a fan-friendly platform that promotes "inside the ropes" and game-improvement for its fans. The Charles Schwab Cup, a season-long, points-based competition, enters its 16th season.

TV: NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, Fox, FS1

Competition Awards: Charles Schwab Cup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Rookie of the Year, Courage Award

Web.com Tour

The Web.com Tour is the path to the PGA TOUR whereby all 50 TOUR cards now come via the Web.com Tour. Through 2014-15, 419 PGA TOUR titles have been won by former Web.com Tour players. Three out of four 2015-16 PGA TOUR members have Web.com Tour roots.

TV: Golf Channel

Competition Awards: Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), 50 PGA TOUR cards awarded

PGA TOUR Latinoamérica

PGA TOUR Latinoamérica is a professional golf tour created in 2012 by the PGA TOUR in collaboration with promoters, clubs and national golf federations in Latin America. The inaugural season in 2012 featured 11 tournaments in seven countries in the Latin American region. Since then, it has grown to include 19 events across 13 different countries in 2015. The Tour visits Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Panama, Peru, Puerto Rico and Uruguay. PGA TOUR Latinoamérica plans to continue expanding its reach into more countries in the region during the 2016 season.

The leading money winner at the end of each season is awarded the Roberto De Vicenzo Award, and the top-five money winners from the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

Mackenzie Tour - PGA TOUR Canada

The Mackenzie Tour - PGA TOUR Canada (formerly known as the Canadian Tour) is a professional golf tour played across Canada. Since its inception as the Peter Jackson Tour in 1971, PGA TOUR Canada has evolved into a high-caliber, coast-to-coast training ground for professionals. Since 2013, the Mackenzie Tour has been part of the path to the PGA TOUR, providing access to the Web.com Tour for the top-five finishers on the Order of Merit. Its alumni include not only the game's Canadian legends but also many of its most prominent international players, who have collectively won 123 PGA TOUR titles, through 2014-15.

Ping An Bank China Tour - PGA TOUR China Series

The Ping An Bank China Tour - PGA TOUR China Series is a professional golf tour that made its debut in 2014, with 12 events all played in China. The Series provides playing opportunities for natives of China, based on their ranking within the China Golf Association. The Series attracts other players mainly from Asia and other Pacific Rim countries, although membership includes players from five continents. The top-five money winners from the PGA TOUR China Series Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

Overview

The PGA TOUR entered a new era in 2007 with the introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition offering $35 million in bonus money and culminating with the PGA TOUR's first-ever Playoff system. In 2015-16, the four Playoffs events will offer $34 million in prize money, meaning a total of $69 million is on the line over the four weeks of FedExCup Playoffs competition.

Over the span of 43 weeks of competition, players vie to become the FedExCup Champion, which distinguishes the one player who not only performs well during the PGA TOUR Season, but also excels through the pressure of the four-event FedExCup Playoffs. Tiger Woods won the inaugural FedExCup in 2007 and its $10-million top prize and won again in 2009. Others to hoist the FedExCup trophy include Vijay Singh (2008), Jim Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011), Brandt Snedeker (2012), Henrik Stenson (2013), Billy Horschel (2014) and Jordan Spieth (2015).

During the PGA TOUR Season, TOUR members earn points based on their finish, with a strong emphasis placed on winning and high finishes. Once the PGA TOUR Season concludes, the top-125 players advance to the Playoffs, a series of four $8.5-million tournaments offering quadruple points relative to PGA TOUR Season events.

The Playoffs feature a progressive cut, beginning with The Barclays outside New York City (125 players), continuing with the Deutsche Bank Championship outside Boston (100 players) and the BMW Championship outside Indianapolis (70 players). A reset takes place, seeding the top-30 players for the culminating TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in Atlanta, where the FedExCup champion is crowned.

PGA TOUR Season

The 2015-16 PGA TOUR Season consists of 43 events in 39 weeks beginning in October of 2015, with the Frys.com Open, and ending in August of 2016 at the Wyndham Championship. Points are awarded at four levels:

- Official PGA TOUR events played during the PGA TOUR Season each award 500 FedExCup points to the winner.
- The Masters Tournament, THE PLAYERS Championship, U.S. Open, The Open Championship and the PGA Championship award 600 FedExCup points to the winner.
- World Golf Championships events award 550 FedExCup points to the winner.
- Additional events (played the same week as other tournaments) award 300 FedExCup points to the winner.
- The PGA TOUR Season points standings will carry over to the FedExCup Playoffs for the FedExCup.

FedExCup Playoffs

The FedExCup Playoffs consist of four events immediately following the PGA TOUR Season—The Barclays, Deutsche Bank Championship, BMW Championship and the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. The PGA TOUR Season points standings determine the top-125 players who qualify for the first event, The Barclays, held in the New York/New Jersey area. Each Playoffs event offers 2,000 points (quadruple the PGA TOUR Season). The second event, the Deutsche Bank Championship outside Boston, will have a 100-player field. The third tournament, the BMW Championship outside

Indianapolis, will have 70 players (with no cut). The finale, the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in Atlanta, will be comprised of the top-30 qualifiers following the BMW Championship.

Following a points reset, those players will compete for the FedExCup with one to be crowned the FedExCup champion. Each tournament will have an $8.5-million purse in addition to the $35-million FedExCup bonus pool.

Note: In case of ties, reset points will be distributed between the tying positions using the same method for dealing with ties during events—the total points for each of the tying positions are divided equally among all players in the tying position. In the event that a player who qualifies for a Playoffs event chooses not to play in that event, there will be no alternates and the field will be shortened. FedExCup points are subject to change.

A Brief History of the PGA TOUR

It is not easy to pinpoint the exact beginning of the PGA TOUR. Certainly, professionals have competed against each other from the earliest days of the game in the United States.

In 1895, 10 professional golfers and one amateur played in the first U.S. Open in Newport, R.I. Shortly thereafter, tournaments began to pop up across the country, including the Western Open in 1899. But this was not “tour” golf. The events lacked continuity.

Interest in the game, however, continued to grow. American professionals were rapidly improving. When John McDermott became the first American-born player to win the U.S. Open in 1911, interest in the game blossomed. That interest became enthusiasm in 1913 when Englishmen Harry Vardon and Ted Ray came to the United States to play an exhibition tour and compete in the U.S. Open. When 20-year-old amateur Francis Ouimet defeated the pair in a playoff for the Open at Brookline, Mass., golf became front-page news and a game for everyone.

In the early 1920s, a series of tournaments was held on the West Coast, in Texas and Florida. These events were held in the winter, and the golfers played their way east and up to Pinehurst, N.C., in the spring. By the middle of the decade, the tour was doing relatively well—offering $77,000 in total prize money.

The first “playing pros” organization was formed in 1932. Two years earlier, Bob Harlow had been named manager of the PGA Tournament Bureau. The tour became more structured following World War II and exploded in the late 1950s and early ‘60s. When Arnold Palmer, televised golf and President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived on the scene in the late 1950s, the eyes of the world were on golf. This exposure inspired millions to try the game.

Most golf historians trace the “formal” beginning of the PGA TOUR to late 1968, when the “Tournament Players Division” split from the PGA of America and hired Joe Dey as its first commissioner. That organization became the modern-day PGA TOUR. Dey served from early 1969 through February 28, 1974, and was succeeded by Deane R. Beman on March 1, 1974.

During Beman’s administration, the value of tournament purses escalated at an unprecedented rate. PGA TOUR assets grew from $730,000 in 1974 to more than $200 million, and total revenues increased from $3.9 million to $229 million in 1993.

Tim Finchem, previously the TOUR’s Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer, became the TOUR’s third commissioner, on June 1, 1994. In 1995, Finchem undertook a restructuring program designed to strengthen the PGA TOUR’s core business, its competitions, to expand the TOUR’s international scope and to prepare it for the 21st century. In 1996, Finchem helped spearhead formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours, as golf’s five world-governing bodies laid the groundwork for taking competition into the next millennium. In 1997, the Federation announced the World Golf Championships, which made its debut in 1999 with three events—today called the Dell Match Play, the Cadillac Championship and the Bridgestone Invitational. The HSBC Champions in China was added in 2009. The 2007 season marked the inception of the FedExCup, a season-long points race with four Playoffs events to conclude the season and crown the FedExCup champion.

Since 1938, PGA TOUR events have donated more than $2 billion to charity, having surpassed that milestone in January 2014.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR also is much broader today, thanks to the Champions Tour, Web.com Tour and the International Tours—PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, Mackenzie Tour - PGA TOUR Canada and Ping An Bank China Tour - PGA TOUR China Series. The Champions Tour, in its 36th season, has been labeled the most successful senior sports venture in history. Fans and television viewers are able to get closer to the game on this Tour, both on site and with instructional platforms. The Charles Schwab Cup will be contested for the 16th time in 2016.

The Web.com Tour is the path to the PGA TOUR, whereby all 50 TOUR cards now come via the Web.com Tour. Among the former players on the Web.com Tour who have gone on to star on the PGA TOUR include Keegan Bradley, Jason Day, Ernie Els, Jim Furyk, Zach Johnson and Bubba Watson. Through 2014-15, former Web.com Tour players have won 419 PGA TOUR events.

When the PGA TOUR opened TPC Sawgrass in 1980, it introduced the era of stadium golf and record-breaking attendance. Owned and/or operated by the TOUR, the TPC Network courses are the only major-league sports venues owned by the players themselves. The reworked PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass, with refurbished fairways and rebuilt greens and a new, enlarged clubhouse, debuted in May 2007 for THE PLAYERS Championship.

The successful debut of the FedExCup in 2007 was concluded by the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup, with Tiger Woods taking the inaugural FedExCup title. In the eight subsequent years, Vijay Singh (2008), Woods (2009), Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011), Brandt Snedeker (2012), Henrik Stenson (2013), Billy Horschel (2014) and Jordan Spieth (2015) have claimed the season-ending FedExCup crown. The 2015-16 PGA TOUR Season will mark the 10th playing of the FedExCup Playoffs.

TPC Sawgrass hosts THE PLAYERS Championship each May.

Charity: "Together, anything's possible"

Together, anything's possible.®

Making a positive impact on the communities where PGA TOUR tournaments are held and players live is a primary focus in the golf organization's charitable mission with the Together, anything's possible campaign.

The charitable effort was commemorated in late 2005 when the PGA TOUR and its tournaments reached the "Drive to a Billion" milestone.

That cumulative effect, since the first donation in 1938, reached more than $2 billion in January of 2014—including more than $1 billion in the last 15 years—and is the cornerstone of the Together, anything's possible campaign.

The PGA TOUR and its tournaments set a record in 2014 when more than $140 million was generated for charity, bringing the all-time total to $2.14 billion since the first donation in 1938.

The Together, anything's possible, which is in its sixth full year in 2015, is the platform to share the PGA TOUR's charity story and offers a greater focus on the charitable activities of TOUR stakeholders.

The Together, anything's possible website (PGATOUR.com/together) has been an effective tool in telling the positive stories of tournaments, players, sponsors, charities volunteers and fans and has been a centerpiece in communicating the TOUR's charity message.

The Together, anything's possible platform continues to grow in terms of player and tournament involvement. The website passed a significant milestone in 2014 with its 3 millionth page view. The year ended with more than 3.3 million all-time page views.

The Together, anything's possible website saw more than 705,000 page views in 2014 with more than 400,000 visits to the site. In terms of content, there were 310 pieces created or sourced, up 24 percent from 2013.

PLAYERS

More than 300 players and each tournament on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Web.com Tour have charity profile pages.

Under the Together, anything's possible platform, the TOUR has committed resources to further promote each player's charitable activities, whether through television, advertising, PGATOUR.COM and video or new media support that will enable fans to get involved in their favorite players' charities.

The TOUR offers assistance to both players, who are currently engaged in charitable activities, as well as those who are interested in getting started.

"I feel like playing on the PGA TOUR almost comes second. What we get to do for charity, what the PGA TOUR gives back to the community, I think that's the greatest thing about playing on the PGA TOUR," says Jonas Blixt.

The success stories over the last four years are numerous.

In June 2010, Jim McGlothlin, a member of the PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties Board, organized "The Big 3 for the Mountain Mission Kids," a one-day tournament featuring Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player. This event, which benefited the Mountain Mission School, raised an astounding $15.2 million in a single day.

In 2011, country music star Darius Rucker wrote a song "Together, Anything is Possible," in which proceeds from downloads were distributed to PGA TOUR Charities, The First Tee and Birdies for the Brave.

Phil Mickelson and his wife, Amy, began a "Birdies for the Brave" program in 2004 as a way to support charities that build homes for disabled troops, provide educational opportunities for the spouses and children of servicemen and women killed in action and other avenues of support. In December 2012, the Mickelsons, along with Jim and Cathy Justice, owners of The Greenbrier Resort, hosted the Birdies for the Brave Pro-Am and Gala at TPC Sawgrass to benefit nine military home front groups. The Pro-Am participants included President Bill Clinton, celebrities, artists, military dignitaries and PGA TOUR, LPGA and Champions Tour players including Mickelson, Jack Nicklaus, Vijay Singh, Peter Jacobsen and Larry Nelson. The weekend's festivities also included a charity concert featuring Vince Gill and Rucker.

In 2013, the PGA TOUR Wives Association celebrated its 25th anniversary through a variety of events and activities, including the creation of a book observing the organization's history as told through the personal stories of TOUR families. Since its incorporation, the Association has supported children's charities across the country by raising money and performing a myriad of services, ranging from Habitat for Humanity builds to cooking in soup kitchens to fitting children for glasses in communities where tournaments are held.

Players are using the Together, anything's possible platform more and more to assist with their own charitable initiatives. Two examples in 2014 included Erik Compton and Justin Rose.

Compton, who has played three years on the PGA TOUR despite two heart transplants during his lifetime, donates his time and energy at PGA TOUR events to promote Donate Life America, an organization set up to spread news about the importance of organ donation. He appears at clinics and hospitals and visits with transplants patients while also making media appearances.

For several years, the Kate and Justin Rose Foundation has helped students who participate in school lunch programs. For many of those students, lunch at school Friday is the last meal until they return Monday for breakfast. The "Blessings in a Backpack" program ensures these students have food over the weekends. In addition to the financial assistance, the Rose family helps empower less-than-fortunate kids with what they deem to be life's most valuable lesson: when you can see it, you can be it.

In August 2015, the vision of Ernie and Lielz Els came to fruition with the grand opening of the Els Center for Excellence. The Center, based in Jupiter, Fla., serves local, national and international autism communities and is set to be a game-changing resource in the field. Els' philanthropic focus, along with the way he carries himself on and off the golf course, led to him being named the 2015 Payne Stewart Award recipient.

Players continue to become involved in the causes about which they are passionate. Jason and Ellie Day launched their Brighter Days Foundation this year and held a fund-raising event at Muirfield Village Golf Club to benefit children's charities in Ohio.

PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem presented checks for $30,000 on behalf of THE PLAYERS and $40,000 on behalf of EverBank to Community PedsCare during a PGA TOUR Wives Association 'These Kids Can Play Under the Bigtop!' charity event during the 2014 PLAYERS Championship.

THE PLAYERS Championship and TPC Sawgrass

OVERVIEW

When the strongest field in golf takes on the game's greatest stadium, fans flock to the Florida sun to experience one of golf's most prestigious tournaments—THE PLAYERS Championship.

Each May, THE PLAYERS showcases excitement and intensity, not to mention the beauty of one of the most recognized courses in the world—THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass. THE PLAYERS brings the world's top competitors to this superior, demanding golf course and offers a fan experience unlike any other, creating one of the most dynamic, compelling events in all of golf.

HISTORY

Since 1974, when THE PLAYERS was first contested at Atlanta Country Club, the era's best players have battled to take home the trophy. It's fitting that the event's inaugural winner was none other than Jack Nicklaus, the World Golf Hall of Famer who captured a tournament-record three PLAYERS titles in the first five years (1974, 1976 and 1978).

THE PLAYERS moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in 1977 and five years later, the PGA TOUR's flagship event found a new home at TPC Sawgrass, Pete Dye's masterpiece and golf's original stadium. Jerry Pate won that first year and celebrated his 1982 triumph by diving into the lake next to the 18th hole, taking Dye and then-PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman with him.

That memorable moment has been followed by many others, including Hal Sutton's "Be the right club today" shot from the fairway on the final hole to defeat Tiger Woods in 2000 and win his second PLAYERS title, and Woods' "Better than most" putt from 60-plus feet during the third round of his 2001 victory. History was made in 2015 when Rickie Fowler played the final four holes at TPC Sawgrass with just 11 strokes, the best score on the Stadium's finishing holes. Fowler won in the tournament's first three-hole aggregate playoff, producing one of the most dramatic finishes in the history of THE PLAYERS.

GOLF COURSE

Home to the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship, THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass has established itself as one of the premier tournament venues in all of golf. A player must display a well-rounded, complete game and triumph over one of the sport's most daunting finishes in order to become THE PLAYERS champion. All of that drama, combined with a setting unequalled in golf, creates an electrifying atmosphere that makes THE PLAYERS a must-see, must-attend event.

The famed PLAYERS Stadium Course was designed by renowned golf-course architect Pete Dye. Since its inception, the course's final three holes have evolved into the greatest risk/reward finish in golf, highlighted by the iconic 17th island green, one of the most recognized and photographed holes in the game. In 2006, TPC Sawgrass completed a multi-million dollar renovation designed to elevate THE PLAYERS Stadium Course to the highest professional level for the best players in the world during THE PLAYERS, as well as provide resort golfers with PGA TOUR-quality playing conditions year-round.

CLUBHOUSE

Following the 2006 PLAYERS Championship, heavy equipment replaced golf carts on the greens as crews started the demolition process of the 25-year-old clubhouse. The changes, completed in May 2007, have elevated the reputation of TPC Sawgrass as a world-class resort.

The TPC Sawgrass clubhouse is an expansive, 77,000 square-foot Mediterranean Revival Style building, reminiscent of the history and architectural heritage of Northeast Florida. The clubhouse blends elegant, old-world charm with modern-day comforts and state-of-the-art technology, providing a one-of-a-kind setting for meetings and events of all sizes.

Fronted by a terraced-event lawn offering panoramic views of the ninth and 18th holes, the clubhouse is preceded by a magnificent Walk of Fame entryway and features displays depicting the history and legends of the PGA TOUR and THE PLAYERS Championship.

CHARITY

Regardless of the name on the trophy at the end of THE PLAYERS, the true winners will always be the local charitable organizations that benefit from the tournament each year. Thanks to the support of the Northeast Florida community and the tournament's Proud Partners—PwC and Optum—THE PLAYERS has generated more than $67.5 million to First Coast charities since the event moved to Ponte Vedra Beach in 1977, including a record $7.5 million in 2014.

In 2011, THE PLAYERS announced a committed goal of generating $50 million for youth-related charities over a 10-year period. The focus of this goal is to improve the opportunities for the community's youth through education, character development and health and fitness. THE PLAYERS has already made strides towards this goal through scholarship endowments at both the University of North Florida and Florida State College at Jacksonville for first-generation students. Additionally, THE PLAYERS Center for Child Health was established in partnership with the local children's hospital in Jacksonville, Wolfson Children's Hospital.

Making this positive impact on the community, however, would not be possible without the leadership of the tournament's Red Coats and the hard work and dedication of the tremendous volunteer force. Nearly 2,000 volunteers give of their time and talents each year to help stage this first-class event. From parking cars, shuttling players and staffing the hospitality venues to keeping scores and statistics, volunteers at THE PLAYERS touch every aspect of the tournament.

Tournament volunteers not only help ensure a world-class event, but each year they also create new hope and opportunity in their local communities. This effort continues to prove that giving back is at the heart of the PGA TOUR.

REACH

When the best golfers in the world descend on Ponte Vedra Beach in early May for THE PLAYERS Championship, coverage is at an all-time high thanks to live telecasts, digital platforms and radio broadcasts that give fans myriad options to catch all the action THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass has to offer. In 2015, there was an expanded presence onsite from Golf Channel, ESPN, Fox Sports 1 and Snapchat, making THE PLAYERS the center of the sporting world in early May.

OVERVIEW

The First Tee delivers life skills and character education to young people through the game of golf. It has reached 10.5 million young people since its inception in 1997, having a positive impact on participants, their families and their communities.

MISSION

To impact the lives of young people by providing educational programs that build character, instill life-enhancing values and promote healthy choices through the game of golf.

CHAPTERS

At approximately 170 chapters around the United States and in select international locations, The First Tee delivers its life skills curriculum to young people (generally ages 5 to 17). The First Tee chapters have relationships with more than 1,000 golf facilities, and the network continues to grow.

What makes The First Tee effective in building positive character traits in young people is The First Tee Life Skills Experience™, a curriculum developed with the help of academic, sport psychology, youth development and golf experts to proactively teach these lessons for life as part of the basic program. The Life Skills Experience is delivered by trained coaches, and through this experience, participants learn to apply life skills and transfer the positive values of golf to everyday life.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

The First Tee has partnered with more than 7,000 schools in 1,000 school districts to offer The First Tee National School Program during regularly scheduled physical education classes. Individuals, companies, parent-teacher associations, golf-industry organizations and more provide funding for schools and school districts to implement the program, which continues to expand throughout the United States.

The First Tee National School Program introduces elementary students to the game of golf, The First Tee Nine Core Values and The First Tee Nine Healthy Habits during physical education classes. Physical educators take professional development training and obtain age-appropriate curriculum and equipment for effective implementation into their programs.

THE FIRST TEE DRIVE

This after-school is an engaging opportunity for young people and is designed to Develop Rewarding, Inspiring Values for Everyone who participates. Developed for youth leaders at partnering organizations, the program modifies traditional sports—including baseball, football, bowling and tennis—to incorporate the four basic golf shots: putt, chip, pitch and full swing. Each activity empowers young people to explore their abilities and develop life-enhancing values along the way by integrating The First Tee Nine Core Values™ in each lesson. The First Tee DRIVE has been introduced to more than 450 youth-serving organizations.

FOUNDING PARTNERS

The First Tee has been successful in creating a broad network of support, thanks to its Founding Partners: PGA TOUR, LPGA, the Masters Tournament, PGA of America and the USGA. About the Commissioner

Tim Finchem
PGA TOUR Commissioner

Tim Finchem began his 22nd year as commissioner of the PGA TOUR in June 2015. From the time Finchem joined the TOUR management team, he has played a key role in strengthening the PGA TOUR's position as one of the most successful, well-respected sports organizations in the world, and his leadership has helped foster the growth of the game, both domestically and internationally.

During his tenure, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players. The TOUR, through its tournaments and sponsors, has dramatically escalated tournament purses and grown total revenues at an unprecedented rate. Since Finchem became commissioner in 1994, the PGA TOUR and its tournaments have raised more than $1 billion for charitable organizations. In January 2014, the TOUR and its tournaments reached the $2-billion milestone since the first donation in 1938.

Under Finchem's leadership, the TOUR created The Presidents Cup in 1994, bringing together the world's best non-European players in team match-play competition against their American counterparts. After 11 stagings, The Presidents Cup has grown to be one of the most highly anticipated events on golf's calendar, and in 2015, was conducted in Asia for the first time when it was held just outside Seoul, Korea at the Jack Nicklaus Golf Club Korea.

Finchem has also been instrumental in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation. He has shown personal dedication to the success of The First Tee initiative, as he serves as chairman of The First Tee Board of Directors. Since its inception in 1997, The First Tee has reached more than 10.5 million young people through its network which includes approximately 170 chapters around the United States and in select international locations. The First Tee has relationships with more than 1,000 golf facilities and has partnered with more than 7,000 schools in 1,000 school districts.

An additional accomplishment during Finchem's tenure has been the development and introduction of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition that culminates with the FedExCup Playoffs. Since 2007, the FedExCup has brought an unparalleled level of late-season focus to and interest in the TOUR, as indicated by significant increases in television and online audiences, tournament attendance, sponsor activation and media coverage.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR has expanded under Finchem's guidance, with the growth of the Champions Tour, Web.com Tour and international tours. With many of the game's most recognizable and accomplished players competing regularly on the Champions Tour, golf's future stars follow The Path to the PGA TOUR through the Web.com Tour. The competition has never been stronger as all 50 PGA TOUR cards are awarded through the Web.com Tour, making it the destination for players from the Mackenzie Tour-PGA TOUR Canada, Ping An Bank China Tour - PGA TOUR China Series and PGA TOUR Latinoamérica.

Born in Ottawa, Ill., on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, Va. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973. After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Strategies and Marketing Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is the recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001, the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002, the Dick Schaap Lifetime Achievement in Sports Award in 2005 and the 2010 Donald Ross Award from the American Society of Golf Course Architects.

Finchem and his wife, the former Holly Bachand, have four children and live in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

Was 31st in the final priority-ranking order...Recorded top-15 finishes in his first four starts... Opened the fourth event, the Brasil Champions, with consecutive 66s to trail the leader by four. Made up ground with a bogey-free 65 Saturday that cut the deficit to one. Struggled in the final round, carding a 69 for a T2... Earned his first career victory with a playoff win over Bronson Burgoon at the Nova Scotia Open in early July. A 7-under 64 in Saturday's third round was highlighted by a 60-foot birdie putt at the finishing hole. Ended the round in a Tour-record six-way tie and was paired on Sunday with Burgoon, who fired a 63 in the third round. Both were tied at 12 under as they stood on the 17th tee and finished par-birdie, eliminating three contenders who were already in the clubhouse at 12 under. In the playoff, Burgoon missed a 30-foot birdie putt from the fringe on the first playoff hole but sealed the title when he rolled in a 15-footer on the second extra hole. The 24-year-old picked up a check for $117,000 and moved from No. 39 to No. 4 on the money list

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Frys.com Open; T5—CIMB Classic; 6—Hyundai Tournament of Champions, The Barclays; T8—Northern Trust Open.

2014-15 SEASON:

Highlighted by his second career PGA TOUR title in his first start of the season, enjoyed a campaign easily solid enough to advance him to the FedExCup Playoffs for a fourth consecutive year. A top-10 finish at The Barclays resulted in his first start in the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. After a T18 at East Lake GC in Atlanta at the season-ending event, finished ranked 26th in the FedExCup standings. Second TOUR victory came in his first appearance at the Frys.com Open, where he defeated Steven Bowditch by two strokes. Carried a sizable four-stroke lead (the largest in Frys.com Open history) into the final round before seeing the lead increase to six strokes at one time. Several bogeys during the middle of his round made things interesting, with his lead just two shots at one point. Steadied the ship to become the third (of eight) 54-hole leaders/co-leaders to win the Frys.com Open, joining Troy Matteson (2009) and Rocco Mediate (2010). With the win, claimed his first win and top-10 finish since the 2013 AT&T Byron Nelson Championship and in the process became the third international winner of the season-opening event, joining Canadian Mike Weir (2007) and Sweden's Jonas Blixt (2012). A player of Korean-descent in his 20s has won on the PGA TOUR five times in the last four years, and he has done it twice. Also won in 2013 at age 26. Others are Kevin Na (2011), John Huh (2012) and Seung-Yul Noh (2014). His Frys.com Open win was the 15th on the PGA TOUR by a player of Korean-descent. Birdied the 72nd hole of the CIMB Classic in November 2014 to finish T5. Opened the Hyundai Tournament of Champions with a 7-under 66, just one shy of tournament leader Russell Henley. Added rounds of 69-69-70 to finish solo sixth, three strokes behind playoff winner Patrick Reed. After posting no top-10s during 2013-14, his Hawaii finish was his third in four starts to start this campaign. Finished T8 at the Northern Trust Open with a bogey-free third round that led to his fourth top-10 of the season. Entered the final round of The Barclays sharing the lead with Jason Day but posted a 2-over 72. Following his T6 finish, headed to the Deutsche Bank Championship at No. 23 in the FedExCup standings. Fell to one for two when holding at least a share of the lead entering the final round of a TOUR event (having won the Frys.com Open earlier this season). During the year, a court ruling in South Korea confirmed that he must return to fulfil his two-year military obligation. Will be eligible for a "mandatory obligation" exemption under the major medical and family crisis exemption so that he can return to TOUR under his current exempt status... Chosen as captain's pick by Nick Price for Presidents Cup team in home country of South Korea... Went 2-1-1 in his four Presidents Cup matches in the International team's 15 1/2-14 1/2 loss in South Korea.

PERSONAL:

Has played on the Korea Golf Tour, Japan Golf Tour and Asian Tour... Achieved his goal of playing Augusta National when he qualified for the 2012 Masters Tournament... Favorite food is Korean barbecue... Would include Tiger Woods as one of the players in his dream foursome... Began playing at age 11 at the urging of his parents, who both play. Was more interested in baseball as a youth before turning his full-time athletic attention to golf.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1):
 2014 South Georgia Classic.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:
 T8—Zurich Classic of New Orleans; T9—Sanderson Farms Championship, OHL Classic at Mayakoba; T10—Barbasol Championship.

2014-15 SEASON:
 Did not qualify for the FedExCup Playoffs (No. 145) but earned TOUR card by finishing No. 121 on the money list. Made 12 of 26 cuts, with four top-10s during rookie campaign... Finished T9 at the Sanderson Farms Championship for his first top-10 in his seventh career PGA TOUR start. Opened with a 5-under 66 at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba to put himself within one stroke of the 18-hole lead. His final-round, 4-under 67 was highlighted by a pair of eagle-3s at Nos. 5 and 13, helping pave the way to a T9 finish with six others... Posted a bogey-free, 8-under 64 in round three of the Zurich Classic of New Orleans, which began

Saturday and ended Sunday. Played 11 holes in round three Saturday, before weather forced him to play Nos. 12-18 Sunday morning en route to the 64. Turned around Sunday afternoon to post a final-round, 2-under 70 and claim T8 with three others... Auburn graduate entered the Barbasol Championship missing his last five cuts before shooting four rounds in the 60s to finish T10 at the Barbasol Championship in Opelika/Auburn, Ala., at the RTJ Golf Trail.

PERSONAL:
 Disqualified himself for a rules violation (signing an incorrect scorecard) after advancing through the first stage of the 2012 PGA TOUR Qualifying School at Callaway Gardens in Pine Mountain, Ga. After apparently brushing a leaf in a bunker in the fourth round, assessed himself a one-stroke penalty, when in fact, the penalty should have been two strokes. He played the final two rounds because his caddie was certain the leaf had not moved in the first place. After wrestling with the decision for six days, he called the PGA TOUR and disqualified himself to protect the field. "I continued to pray about it and think about it, and I just did not have any peace about it," Barber told Golfweek. "I knew I needed to do the right thing. I knew it was going to be disqualification." His honesty allowed six other players to advance to the second stage... On May 28, 2015, wife Morgan gave birth to the couple's first child, Emma Elizabeth... Twitter handle is @BlayneBarberAU.

2—The Honda Classic, BMW Championship; T6—Zurich Classic of New Orleans; T10—Waste Management Phoenix Open, AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, AT&T Byron Nelson.

2014-15 SEASON:

Named the PGA TOUR's Rookie of the Year. Thanks to 15 top-25 finishes in just 21 starts through the Wyndham Championship, including a playoff loss in South Florida, was one of nine PGA TOUR rookies to advance to the FedExCup Playoffs. Was the only rookie to advance to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, where he finished T12 and ended his season ranked 11th in the FedExCup standings. Only Jordan Spieth in 2013 (seventh) finished a rookie season on TOUR higher in the FedExCup standings... Held a share of the first-round lead at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba before finishing T51. It was his first PGA TOUR lead after any round...At the Waste Management Phoenix Open, made five consecutive birdies in the first round at TPC Scottsdale, en route to a 5-under 65. Ensuing rounds of 69-71-69 resulted in a T10 with four others...Came back the following week with a T24 at the Farmers Insurance Open, followed by another T10 effort at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Rounds of 67-66-69-70 led to a 15-under 272 total, seven strokes behind champion Brandt Snedeker...Two weeks later and just down I-95, a few miles from his Jupiter, Fla., home, posted a career-low, 6-under 64 in the final round of The Honda Classic to take the clubhouse lead at 6-under 274. He watched the telecast and hit practice balls for nearly an hour before 2005 Honda Classic champion Padraig Harrington sank a 16-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to join him at 6-under and force a playoff. Following a pair of pars back at the par-5 18th hole, the first extra hole, his bid for victory ended when his tee shot at the par-3 17th hole went into the water hazard...At the Arnold Palmer Invitational, made an elusive albatross in the third round on the par-5 sixth hole (4-iron) from 237 yards. Went on that day to post a 2, 3, 4 and 5 on Bay Hill's four par 5s. By doing so, became the third player since 1983 to post a 2, 3, 4 and 5 on four par-5s in a round. The others were Tag Ridings (third round of the 2005 Humana Challenge) and Geoff Ogilvy (first round of the 2006 Honda Classic). His albatross was the 121st on the PGA TOUR since the TOUR began keeping records in 1970 and the first at the Arnold Palmer Invitational. Finished T13...Posted four rounds in the 60s at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans en route to a T6 with David Hearn at TPC Louisiana...Made five birdies and three bogeys in the final round at the BMW Championship to post a 2-under 69 and finish alone in second place, six strokes behind Jason Day. With his solo-second finish, moved from No. 46 to ninth in the FedExCup standings and into the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola (one of four players to play his way into the top 30). Collected his sixth top-10 in 30 starts.

T4—2011 Frys.com Open.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (3):

2000 Upstate Classic. 2005 BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs. 2015 Rust-Oleum Championship..

2014-15 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season with 22 starts, one win and a third-place finish among his five top-10s. Had six top-25s and made 12 cuts. Was 27th in the final priority-ranking order... Finished T3 at the season-opening Panama Claro Championship, his best showing in nearly two years. Hovered near the leaders all week but was unable to mount a serious challenge, eventually finishing five shots back of champion Mathew Goggin... After a first-round 73 in the BMW Charity Pro-Am, settled in and carded a 66. Clawed his way back into the tournament with a bogey-free 64 Saturday. A front-nine 29 Sunday featured a hole out for eagle at the par-4 8th hole. Got to 20-under par on the back nine but failed to birdie the par-5 16th. Dropped a shot at the 72nd hole to T6... Earned his third Tour title with a one-shot victory at the weather-delayed Rust-Oleum Championship in mid-June. Was tied for second, two shots back to begin the final round at Lakewood CC in suburban Cleveland. Chalked up four birdies in his first seven holes to move into a share of the lead. A birdie at No. 13 put him in front at 18 under. Was facing a 5-foot birdie putt on No. 14 when play was halted from 2:05-4:45 p.m. due to lightning. He would miss the putt but added four pars down the stretch for a bogey-free, 5-under 66 to get to 18 under, one better than Brazil's Lucas Lee. The victory was his first since 2005 and worth $108,000, moving him from No. 35 to No. 5 after 12 of 21 Regular Season events... Two weeks later, had a strong showing at the Air Capital Classic in Wichita, Kan. Four rounds in the 60s resulted in a T14... Improved on that in early August in Kansas City, at the Digital Ally Open, where he finished T9. Opened with a 65 and carded a season-low 62 on Friday to share the halfway lead with eventual winner, Martin Piller, at 15 under... Concluded the Regular Season with his fifth top 10, a T4 at the WinCo Foods Portland Open, once again posting four rounds in the 60s. Entered the Finals ninth on the money list... Did not perform well in the four-event series, missing the cut in the first three tournaments and recording a 69th-place finish at the Web.com Tour Championship.

PERSONAL:

A promising junior tennis player, he gave up the game to concentrate on golf after losing a big match to future No. 1-ranked Andre Agassi... One of biggest thrills in golf was first tournament win in 1994, the Southwest Kansas Pro-Am... Favorite sports team is the Denver Broncos... Not many people know that he loves Led Zeppelin.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES (4):

2006 MAN NO Open [EurChall]. 2008 Credit Suisse Challenge [EurChall]. 2009 Austrian Golf Open [Eur]. 2012 Dubai Desert Classic [Eur].

2014-15 SEASON:

Recorded his first career PGA TOUR top-10 (T10), turning in the feat at the Puerto Rico Open (previous-best was T17 at the 2013 World Golf Championships-Cadillac Match Play). The finish marked his second start at Trump International GC (T24 in 2014). . . Made a valiant run at victory in mid-June on the European Tour, at the Lyoness Open in Atzenbrugg, Austria. Began the final round two shots behind 54-hole leader Gregory Bourdy after opening 69-68-66 at Diamond CC. Could only muster an even-par 72 on a day Bourdy shot a 78. Watched as Chris Wood came from five off the pace, shooting a final-round 67 to capture the win, leaving him in solo second, two shots behind Wood. . . Contended again in early July, at the Open de France, where he came up short, finishing fifth at Le Golf National. Shot a final-round, 3-under 69 to earn the top-five. . . Added a T7 in mid-September at the KLM Open. Finish was a disappointment, though, as he held a share of the 54-hole lead with Lee Slattery at Kennemer G&CC in the Netherlands. A final-round, 1-over 71 dropped him into a tie with Magnus Carlsson and Mikko Korhonen, four shots short of winner Thomas Pieters. . . Finished T5 with four others in late-June at the European Tour's Irish Open. . . Held the 54-hole lead at the European Tour's season-ending DP World Tour Championship in Dubai. Stumbled badly late in his round, finishing at 3-over 75 that dropped in him into a T9 with Branden Grace and Joost Luiten, five shots short of winner Henrik Stenson at Jumeirah Golf Estates.

PERSONAL:

Began playing as a youngster, with the garden in his backyard next to a golf course. . . Studied business and economics at the University of Las Palmas but didn't graduate when his professional career took off. . . His younger sister Emma plays on the Ladies European Tour.

2014-15 SEASON:

After three seasons without finishing in the top 10, posted a career-high eight top-10 performances, highlighted by two runner-up outings, both via playoff losses. Finished regulation at the Northern Trust Open tied with Dustin Johnson and James Hahn. Was eliminated on the second playoff hole of the Riviera CC event when he couldn't match Johnson and Hahn's scores. The runner-up finish marked his first top-10 since the 2011 Frys.com Open...A week later, at The Honda Classic, posted rounds of 69-70-68-68 to finish at 5-under on PGA National's par-70 layout. Claimed a T3 with Russell Knox and Ian Poulter. His finish marked his third top-12 in the event in his last four starts (T4 in 2010, missed cut in 2013 and T12 in 2014). The back-to-back, top-10 finishes were his first since the 2010 BMW Championship (second) and the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola (T4). The finish also moved him inside the top 50 in the Official World Golf Ranking (No. 45), earning him the last spot into the following week's field at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship...The 2009 Shell Houston Open champion returned to the GC of Houston in early April, where he made another good bid at victory. En route to a 4-under 68 in the first round, became the first player in event history to make eagles at the fourth and 13th holes, both par-5s, in the same round. Ensuing scores of 69-68-71 moved him to 12-under 276, good for lone possession of ninth place...Finished T6 to notch his third top-10 in the Masters and first overall top-10 in a major since the 2010 Open Championship (T3)...Ended T5 in his 10th start at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Match Play, where he previously claimed runner-up positions in 2009 and 2010. Lost to eventual champion Rory McIlroy in 22 holes in the quarterfinals. Officials suspended play through 21 holes due to darkness. Fell ill overnight and ultimately lost the match Sunday morning...Began the final round of the Travelers Championship three strokes off the lead, at 11-under 199. Posted a final-round, 5-under 65 to force sudden death with 2010 Travelers Championship winner Bubba Watson. When an errant, greenside bunker shot on the second extra hole flew over the green, Watson won with a birdie. It marked the second playoff loss during the campaign (Northern Trust Open)...Finished T3 at the Wyndham Championship for his first top-10 in six starts in Greensboro. Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for the fourth time in his career, reaching the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the first time since 2010. In his second appearance at East Lake GC, fired a 5-under 65 in the first round. Began the final round four shots off the lead and closed with an even-par 70 to T5 with Johnson and Watson. Ended the season No. 13 in the FedExCup.

T29—Hyundai Tournament of Champions.

2014-15 SEASON:

Made the cut in nine of 22 starts, finishing No. 185 in the FedExCup standings. It marked just the second time he failed to advance to the Playoffs, with the first coming in the FedExCup's inaugural season of 2007 (finished No. 190 that year). Did not record a top-10 or top-25 finish for the first time in his career. A T29 at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions marked his season-best performance.

PERSONAL:

Takes a leading role with his wife, Heather, in support of Love146, an international group dedicated to eradicating the sexual exploitation of children in Thailand, Cambodia and the Philippines...Hosts "Day With the Pros" every year with Discovery Land Co., an endeavor which has raised more than $5 million for charity...Is the mastermind behind the "Golf Boys" video that he stars in along with Rickie Fowler, Hunter Mahan and Bubba Watson...Was age 5 when his grandfather taught him how to play golf...Doesn't like to know who he will be paired with, saying, "I looked up to a lot of these guys who I'm now playing with. So, I didn't want to have to go to sleep thinking about it. And so that's kind of been my routine. I never want to know who I'm playing with. Just tell me the time. In 2002, at the (AT&T

Byron Nelson I played with Ernie Els in the final round, and it worked well because I watched Ernie play a lot of golf on TV. So we just kind of kept that routine going. I just never look and find out on the first tee."

2014-15 SEASON:

Finished outside the top 125 in the FedExCup standings for the first time since the Playoffs began in 2007. Made 14 of 31 cuts with two top-10s. Also finished outside the top 125 on the money list for the first time since becoming a member (2005)... Notched the first top-10 of the season with a T6 at the Sony Open in Hawaii, finishing a distant 11 strokes behind runaway winner Jimmy Walker. Last top-10 came at the 2013 Deutsche Bank Championship (eighth). Marked his sixth start at Waialae CC, with his previous-best finish in Honolulu a T45 in 2009... Made eight birdies and two bogeys in the first round of the Valspar Championship to open with a 6-under 65, which would be the week's low score. 2014-15 SEASON:

Banner year included four victories in his last six PGA TOUR starts and five total on the season. Final two wins came in the FedExCup Playoffs and, as a result, overtook the world's No. 1 ranking after his win at the BMW Championship. Played 33 of his last 36 rounds of the season at par or better and 28 of the 36 with sub-par scores. In his last eight events on TOUR, dating to The Open Championship, combined for 103-under par. In his last nine starts of the season, amassed seven top-10 finishes, with four victories... Teamed with Cameron Tringale in December to win the Franklin Templeton Shootout by one stroke over the team of defending champions Matt Kuchar-Harris English. Finished at 32-under in the scramble-modified alternate shot-better ball format... Along with Chris Kirk, carded the round of the week during the final day of the Hyundai Tournament of Champions to finish T3. Carded an 11-under 62 to equal the course record at The Plantation Course. Graeme McDowell posted the same score in the final round in 2011, while K.J. Choi carded a 62 in the third round in 2003. His 62, which came in his season debut, tops his two 63s, most recently during the first round of the 2011 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational... Won the Farmers Insurance Open with a par-3 on the second extra hole (No. 16) over J.B. Holmes. Defending champion Scott Stallings and Harris English were eliminated on the first extra hole. The playoff was the 16th at the Farmers Insurance Open and first since Brandt Snedeker defeated Kyle Stanley in 2012. The four-man playoff is the largest at the Farmers, topping three-man playoffs won by Tiger Woods in 2006, Phil Mickelson in 2001, and J.C. Snead in 1975. Won his first playoff in stroke play on TOUR after winning the 2014 World Golf Championships-Match Play Championship in a five-hole playoff. Also picked up his third career TOUR title at age 27 years, 2 months, 27 days in his 154th TOUR start. Became just the third international winner of the Farmers Insurance Open, joining Jose Maria Olazabal (2002) and Gary Player (1963)... A week later, put himself back in contention Sunday at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. Played his first 10 holes in the final round in 6-under, en route to a 5-under 67, good for a T4 with Pat Perez and Dustin Johnson... At the Zurich Classic of New Orleans, posted a bogey-free, 7-under 65 in round two which, due to a weather delay, began Friday and ended Saturday. Led by one stroke at 12-under after 36 holes and was tied for the 54-hole lead with eventual champion Justin Rose. Scores of 68-69 in the third and final rounds, respectively, were good for a T4 with Jim Herman... Fan favorite at the U.S. Open at Chambers Bay as he battled a severe case of Benign Positional Vertigo throughout the week. Performance placed him in the final pairing with Dustin Johnson during the final round, one of four co-leaders. Struggled to a final-round 4-over 74 and T9 finish, five strokes behind champion Jordan Spieth. Record at the U.S. Open includes four top-10 finishes in five starts. Owns 10 top-10 outings in 21 major championship appearances, including three runner-up finishes and one win (PGA Championship)... At The Open Championship at St. Andrews, left a birdie putt just short on the 72nd hole, which would have put him in the playoff with Marc Leishman, Louis Oosthuizen and eventual champion Zach Johnson. Finished T4. The Open Championship marked the second consecutive major championship (finished T9 at the U.S. Open) he had carried the 54-hole lead/co-lead into the final round. The week marked his ninth top-10 finish in 20 major championship starts... A week later, birdied the last three holes Saturday and Sunday at the RBC Canadian Open to claim a one-stroke victory over Bubba Watson at 17-under 271. Began the final round trailing David Hearn by two strokes. His final-round, 4-under 68 for the win made him the fourth multiple winner of the season on TOUR (Jimmy Walker, Rory McIlroy and Spieth). On the par-4 10th hole in the first round, holed out for eagle... Claimed his fifth career TOUR title, his third of the season, and his first major championship crown when he won the PGA Championship in record fashion in August. His 20-under 268 supplanted the previous 72-hole low total in a major championship (19-under), set by Tiger Woods at the 2000 Open Championship. The win gave him his third top-10 finish in the season's four majors. Having finished The Open Championship at 14-under 274, coupled with his 20-under 268 at the PGA Championship, played the season's final two majors in a combined 34-under-par. With the win, became the first Australian to win the season's final major since Steve Elkington in 1995. The win marked his fourth top-10 finish in his last five starts and eighth of the season... Equaled the lowest score of his career and his lowest ever in a FedExCup Playoffs event with a final-round 8-under 62, winning The Barclays with a 72-hole total of 19-under 261, seven strokes clear of 2013 FedExCup champion Henrik Stenson. Aside from Tiger Woods winning two Playoffs' events by eight strokes, the six-stroke win marked the largest in the history of the FedExCup. With the victory, collected 2,000 points to overtake Spieth in the FedExCup standings. Of his seven career victories, five have come this season, tying Spieth for most on TOUR. In the process, he became the 10th player to win a major championship and FedExCup Playoffs' event in a career but is just the fourth to do so in the same season (joining Woods, Adam Scott and McIlroy). Prior to performing the feat, the only other player since 2000 to win his next worldwide start after capturing his first major championship was Martin Kaymer, who captured the KLM Open after his win at Whistling Straits in 2010. With weekend scores of 63-62 at Plainfield CC, equaled the lowest 36-hole score of the season. Became the 11th international winner of The Barclays and the fifth from Australia (Bruce Crampton in 1970, David Graham in 1976, Wayne Grady in 1989 and Scott in 2013)... Joined Spieth, Woods (six times) and Vijay

Singh as the only players with five or more wins in a season (since 2003). Earned the distinction with his victory at the BMW Championship, his fourth win in his last six starts on TOUR. Won in dominating, wire-to-wire fashion by six strokes over Daniel Berger, becoming just the second wire-to-wire winner this season (Spieth at the Masters) and the 12th at the BMW Championship. Opened the week with a personal-best, 10-under 61, marking the low start by a winner this season. With the victory, solidified his position as the FedExCup leader and guaranteed his ascension to the No. 1 spot in the Official World Golf Ranking, becoming the youngest of the three Australians who have held that coveted spot (Greg Norman and Scott). Is the 19th different holder of the No. 1 position in the OWGR. Joined McIlroy and Woods as the only players to win both a major championship and two FedExCup Playoffs' events in the same season. Became the first player during the FedExCup era to win The Barclays and the BMW Championship in the same season. Improved his record to four of 10 when carrying the 54-hole lead/co-lead into the final round, including his last three (the PGA Championship, The Barclays and the BMW Championship). His 193 total through 54 holes broke the previous-low, opening 54-hole record at the BMW Championship by four strokes, bettering the 197 by Camilo Villegas (2008), Woods (2009) and Billy Horschel (2014). In addition, his 124 total through the first two rounds tied the all-time PGA TOUR record for low opening 36 holes and marked a BMW Championship 36-hole record... Went 0-4-1 in his five Presidents Cup matches in the International team's 15 1/2-14 1/2 loss in South Korea.

PERSONAL:

Got his start in golf from his dad, who died when Jason was 12... Was encouraged to attend a golf academy in Australia by his coach, Col Swatton, where he borrowed a Tiger Woods book from his roommate and gained inspiration from reading it.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T4—The McGladrey Classic; T9—OHL Classic at Mayakoba; T10—Travelers Championship.

2014-15 SEASON:

Claimed three top-10 finishes in 29 starts to advance to the FedExCup Playoffs for a fifth time. A T62 at The Barclays ended his season at No. 117 in the FedExCup standings... Finished T4 at The McGladrey Classic for his first top-10 on TOUR since winning the 2013 Travelers Championship, a span of 36 events. Has three top-20 finishes in three starts at The McGladrey Classic (T15 in 2010 and T20 in 2012). Posted four rounds in the 60s at Sea Island to finish two strokes out of the three-man playoff, with eventual-champion Robert Streb, Will MacKenzie and Brendon de Jonge.

Posted a second-round, 8-under 63 at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba, the low score of the week, en route to a T9. Was temporarily tied for the lead in the third round... Closed the Travelers Championship with a birdie from 35 feet, 9 inches on the 18th hole to finish the tournament T10.

PERSONAL:

As a seventh-grader, was diagnosed with scoliosis. The Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock, Ark., determined he had a 26-percent curvature of the spine and advised him to wear a back brace 23 hours a day. Two years later, with the curvature reaching 51 percent, he underwent surgery. Without the procedure, the pressure on his lungs and heart might have become life-threatening. Surgeons attached a 16-inch metal rod to his spine to facilitate straightening. Remarkably, just months later he returned to his high school golf team—and playing in a back brace—won medalist honors at a district tournament. In 2009, the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences established The Ken Duke Endowed Chair in Scoliosis. Funds from the chair treat spinal deformities, tumors and fractures... He credits his dad for giving him his start in golf but says legendary instructor Bob Toski changed his swing and his life. His biggest golf thrill was playing a round at Augusta National in 2009 with Toski, who was 82 at the time... An avid fisherman and country music fan... Lists Larry Bird as his hero... Was inducted into the Arkansas Golf Hall of Fame in October 2013, at Pleasant Valley CC in Little Rock... Pledged $25,000 to Travelers Championship charities at awards ceremony after his 2013 victory, issuing a personal check before leaving TPC River Highlands that evening.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2009 Web.com Tour Championship at Daniel Island.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:

1—Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard.

2014-15 SEASON:

Claimed his second career PGA TOUR title early in the year, helping him advance to the FedExCup Playoffs for a fourth consecutive season. Missed cuts at The Barclays and Deutsche Bank Championship resulted in an 89th-place finish in the FedExCup standings, putting an end to his season...In defense of his Arnold Palmer Invitational title, returned to Bay Hill and posted four sub-70 scores to overtake third-round leader Henrik Stenson by a stroke and win in Orlando for the second time. Began the final round trailing Stenson by three strokes, but with his clutch, 17-foot birdie on the 72nd hole, required Stenson to birdie his last hole and force sudden death. When Stenson missed his bid for birdie, Every became the first player since Boo Weekley at the 2007 and 2008 RBC Heritage to have his first two PGA TOUR wins come at the same event in successive years. With his win, joined Tiger Woods and Loren Roberts as players to win the Arnold Palmer Invitational in back-to-back years. He also became the season's 19th different winner in as many events, a storyline which hadn't been featured since 1994, when 20 events passed before a multiple winner emerged.

PERSONAL:

Favorite band is Oasis. Says his dream foursome would include Oasis band members Liam Gallagher and Noel Gallagher and "some sort of counselor so we could get the best band in the world back together." Lists earning back his PGA TOUR playing privileges as his biggest achievement.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—THE PLAYERS Championship, Deutsche Bank Championship; 2—Quicken Loans National; T3—World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions; T4—BMW Championship; T9—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Match Play; T10—World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational.

2014-15 SEASON:

In the strongest year of his career, amassed two PGA TOUR victories and one on the European Tour. For the sixth consecutive season, advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs, where he claimed one of his two TOUR wins. For a third season, made it through the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola on his way to a T12. Ended his season ranked fourth in the FedExCup standings, a career-best... Came to the 72nd hole in need of a birdie to get into a playoff with Tim Clark and Bubba Watson at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions. Hit a 5-wood from the fairway that came up short and went in the water on the par-5. Made par after taking a penalty and finished T3 after a final-round 70 at Sheshan International GC in Shanghai... After beginning the final round of THE PLAYERS Championship three strokes off the lead, at 7-under 209, played his last six holes in 6-under to post a 6-under 66 and join a three-hole aggregate playoff with 2008 PLAYERS champion Sergio Garcia and Kevin Kisner. Finished birdie-par-birdie-eagle-birdie-birdie on Nos. 13-18 in regulation. Played Nos. 15-18 in a 5-under total of 11 strokes. The four-hole score of 11 set a new single-round low for the final four holes at TPC Sawgrass. Previously, seven players had finished with a score of 12 on the final four holes. When Garcia was eliminated after the aggregate playoff, Fowler and Kisner returned to the famed, par-3 17th for sudden death. Fowler converted a 4-foot, 8-inch putt for birdie to claim the title. Before his back-nine charge, his mother had made her way to the airport to leave town. A text message alerting her to her son's rally resulted in her immediate return to TPC Sawgrass in time to witness the win. With the victory, moved to ninth in the Official World Golf Ranking and No. 7 in The Presidents Cup standings... Earned his second international victory when he captured the Aberdeen Asset management Scottish Open in come-from-behind fashion at Gullane GC in July. After a bogey on the 14th hole Sunday, fell two shots off the lead. He responded with three birdies over his final four holes to catch and pass American Matt Kuchar, who shot a final-round 68 to post the clubhouse lead at 11-under. He made a 9-foot birdie putt at No. 15, made a two-putt birdie at the par-5 16th, parred the 17th then hit his approach shot on the par-4 finishing hole to 2 feet for the tap-in birdie and the title. Joined seven other players who made the Scottish Open their first European Tour win... The only Quicken Loans player ambassador on TOUR (a partnership which began the week of the Masters), finished solo second in his fourth start at Quicken Loans National. Entered the final round one shot off the lead. A final-round 69 left him three shots behind Troy Merritt's winning score of 18-under 266... Recorded his sixth top-10 of the campaign, a T10, at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. Three of his top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR this season have come in World Golf Championships... Shot a final-round 3-under 68 to come from one shot back and defeat third-round leader Henrik Stenson at the Deutsche Bank Championship, good for his third career PGA TOUR victory. Earned the win at age 26 years, 8 months, 25 days in his 150th career start. Collected 2,000 points and moved from No. 22 to No. 3 in the FedExCup standings. Has come from behind to win all three of his PGA TOUR events, with his first two wins via playoffs (2012 Wells Fargo Championship and 2015 THE PLAYERS Championship). Became the sixth consecutive come-from-behind winner at TPC Boston... At the BMW Championship, posted rounds of 69-66-66-69 to finish at 14-under and claim a T4 with Rory McIlroy and J.B.

Holmes, eight strokes behind runaway winner Jason Day. Marked the second consecutive season he has finished T4 at the BMW Championship, coming in his sixth start at the event... Went 1-3-0 in his four Presidents Cup matches in the American team's 15 1/2-14 1/2 victory in South Korea.

PERSONAL:

Gave up serious dirt-bike riding after an accident prior to his freshman year in high school resulted in a couple of broken bones in his foot. His father, Rod, who owns a trucking company, enjoyed riding dirt bikes and won the 1986 Baja 1000 while racing for a Yamaha team... His middle name comes from his grandfather, Taka Tanaka. His younger sister, Taylor, attends Cal State-Fullerton, where she is on the golf team... Started playing golf at age 3... Member of the Golf Boys video, having helped release several videos with Ben Crane, Bubba Watson and Hunter Mahan... Biggest thrill in golf was playing in the Walker Cup... Biggest thrill outside golf is being in the air on his bike... In January 2014 surprised the high school golf teams at Moore High, Westmoore High and Southmoore in the Oklahoma City area that were affected by the tornado with a golf clinic and free Cobra golf bags.

2014-15 SEASON:

Season highlighted by his victory at the RBC Heritage (his 17th PGA TOUR victory). In his first start of the season, took a one-stroke lead into the final round of the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am at 18-under after shooting a Saturday 63. Final-round woes continued as he posted a 2-over 74 Sunday to drop into an eventual tie for seventh place with Matt Jones and Jordan Spieth. His disappointing Sunday marked the third time in his last five final rounds at Pebble Beach to post a 2-over 74...Snapped a nearly five-year winless streak when he defeated Kevin Kisner with a birdie-2 on the second extra hole (No. 17) to win the RBC Heritage, becoming the third-consecutive RBC Golf Ambassador to win the event (Graeme McDowell and Matt Kuchar). Closed with an 8-under 63, the lowest final-round by a winner in the 47-year history of the event, and then improved his playoff record to 4-8. On the first playoff hole (No. 18), Kisner made a birdie-3 from 16 feet, 11 inches to force him to make his birdie putt. He followed Kisner's putt with his own birdie on No. 18 from 7 feet, 9 inches to force a second extra hole. On the second playoff hole (No. 17), Kisner missed a birdie putt from 22 feet, 8 inches. He ended things by draining his putt from 12 feet, 2 inches for a birdie-2 to claim the victory. Entered the final round trailing Troy Merritt by four shots but stormed back for his 17th PGA TOUR title and first since the 2010 TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. The win came in his 532nd career start at age 44 years, 11 months, 7 days, exactly 100 starts since his last win. With the win, moved to No. 48 on the TOUR's all-time victory list, with 17, joining Bobby Cruickshank, Harold McSpaden and Curtis Strange. Became the second-oldest winner of the RBC Heritage behind Hale Irwin and the sixth player older than 40 to win the event. At even-par after the three-hole playoff to Fowler's and Kisner's 1-under, was eliminated. The T2 was the 14th runner-up finish of his career and sixth top-10 in 16 PLAYERS Championship starts...Added a sixth-place finish in July, at the Omega European Masters. Claimed a pair of top-25 finishes in 25 starts and finished 174th in FedExCup standings. Failed to advance to the Playoffs for the first time since 2008...Held a share of the first-round lead at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba before finishing T49...Highlight of the season was a T15 at the Barracuda Championship in the Modified Stableford scoring format...In the Web.com Tour Finals, missed the first two cuts. At the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship posted a third-round 67 on the challenging Ohio State University Scarlet Course to move into a tie for second, two back of leader Roberto Castro. After a front nine of 34, he held the lead standing on the 10th tee, only to have things fall apart on the incoming nine. A double bogey on 10 was followed by four more bogeys, resulting in a 41, which dropped him to T9. A check for $23,142 placed him 33rd on the Finals' money list, with one event remaining...At the Web.com Tour Championship, showed his mettle, posting rounds of 69-69-67-68, punctuated by a 10-foot par save on the 72nd hole, which he wasn't sure at the time would decide him earning his PGA TOUR card or not. It actually did not, but his relief was demonstrated by an emphatic fist pump. Of the Finals' pressure he said, "Every tee shot here feels like Augusta National, for 72 holes." A check for $19,000 gave him the 38th spot in the final priority-ranking order.

2014-15 SEASON:

Made 15 of 26 cuts on the PGA TOUR but failed to record a top-10 for the third time in the last four seasons...In the Web.com Tour Finals, recorded top-25 finishes in the all four tournaments...A T9 in the third one, the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship in Columbus, Ohio, upped his Finals' earnings to $38,991, putting him on the cusp of regaining his PGA TOUR privileges, with one Finals' event to go...Opening rounds of 64-67 at the Web.com Tour Championship put him one off Emiliano Grillo's lead at the halfway point. Was three back of Grillo after a third-round 69. Stumbled Sunday as he recorded six bogeys and three birdies to fall into T12. Finished 28th in the final priority-ranking order.

PERSONAL:

Avid Clemson Tiger sports fan...An avid reader, particularly mysteries and thrillers. 2014-15 SEASON:
 Made 11 of 13 PGA TOUR cuts, with four top-10s as a non-member. Earned Special Temporary Membership during the season and parlayed that into a top-125 finish on the FedExCup points' list as a non-member. That earned him PGA TOUR membership for the 2015-16 season...Finished T7 at the RBC Heritage for his first top 10 on the PGA TOUR in his 35th start...Came back two weeks later in his next start to finish T9 at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Match Play...Entered the final round of the U.S. Open in a four-way tie for the lead before a 1-over 71 dropped him to a T4 finish, just two strokes behind champion Jordan Spieth. Had been a perfect six for six when carrying the lead/co-lead into the final round on the European Tour. It marked his best finish in three U.S. Open starts (T51 in 2012 and a missed cut in 2013). His previous-best finish in 12 previous major championship appearances was T18 at the 2013 Masters Tournament. His caddie at Chambers Bay was Zack Rasego, caddie for Louis Oosthuizen when he won the 2010 Open Championship. Earned enough non-member FedExCup points at the event to accept Special Temporary Membership for the remainder of the season and joined the TOUR a week later...Thanks to an 8-under 64 in the third round of the PGA Championship at Whistling Straits, finished third at the season's final major championship. The top-five finish in Wisconsin, accompanied by his T4 at the U.S. Open, marked his two top-10 finishes in 15 major starts...Went 5-0-0 in his five Presidents Cup matches in the International team's 15 1/2-14 1/2 loss in South Korea.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T2—Puerto Rico Open; T10—Barbasol Championship..

2014-15 SEASON:

Made five starts total on the PGA TOUR, playing the week-end four times. Was only one shot off the lead entering the final round of the PGA TOUR's Puerto Rico Open. Missed a 3-foot putt to bogey No. 18 and drop into a five-man playoff in his third career TOUR start. Lost on the first extra hole to Alex Cejka. Became the third sponsor exemption in the last four years to finish runner-up in Puerto Rico, joining Jordan Spieth (2013) and Ryo Ishikawa (2012)...Added a T10 at the Barbasol Championship, playing as a sponsor exemption...Qualified for the PGA Championship, recording a T61 finish...In the Web.com Tour Finals, held a share of the opening-round lead of the Hotel Fitness Championship after a bogey-free 66. Ended up finishing ninth in the first of four Finals' events. Picked up a second top 10 in the Finals the next week in Davidson, N.C. Fired 66-68-68 and shared the 54-hole lead with Eric Axley. Never found his groove Sunday and settled for a final-round 72 and T2 finish. A check for $74,666 placed him third on the Finals' money list, securing his PGA TOUR card...Would miss the cut the next week in Columbus, Ohio, but he returned to top form at the Web.com Tour Championship, where he would take the halfway lead with rounds of 66-64. A third-round 67 gave him a two-shot cushion entering the final day over Chez Reavie. The two would exchange the lead a couple of times Sunday. When they reached the par-4 18th at TPC Sawgrass, the duo was tied. They both reached the green in regulation. He faced a 25-foot putt, while Reavie was 10 feet closer on a similar line. The Argentine confidently stroked a perfect putt to get to 14-under. Reavie's putt a moment later trailed left and missed. "I'm on to the PGA TOUR and it feels great," he said. Having just turned 23 in September, became the 15th player in his 20s to win on Tour this season and the second-youngest winner of the Web.com Tour Championship (David Duval was 21 years, 11 months in 1993). Became the third Argentinian to win on Tour (Miguel Carballo and Fabian Gomez). His Finals' earnings grew to $283,666, placing him fourth in the final priority-ranking order....As a European Tour member, made 13 appearances, missing only one cut. Had three top 10s and six top 25s, collecting $394,235...In January on the European Tour, had four under-par rounds at the Commercial Bank Qatar Masters to T5...At the co-sanctioned European Tour-OneAsia Tour's Volvo China Open in late-April, fired consecutive 69s on the weekend at the Tomson Shanghai Pudong GC to finish third, two shots behind winner Ashun Wu...In his next European Tour start, finished sixth at the Open de Espana in May.

2014-15 SEASON:

Returned to the winner's circle on the PGA TOUR in early March for the first time since 2008, with his playoff victory at The Honda Classic. Advanced to the Playoffs for the seventh time and first since 2012 by virtue of his 87th-place standing in FedExCup points after the Wyndham Championship. A missed cut at The Barclays, the first

Playoffs' event, resulted in an end to his season when he was ranked just outside the top 100, at No. 103...Won for the first time since 2010 when he captured the Asian Tour's Bank BRI Indonesia Open in early December. Opened with a 7-under 64 at Damai Indah GC in Jakarta to take the first-round lead. Shared the 36-hole lead with Thanyakon Khongpha then moved ahead by four shots through 54 holes when he fired a Saturday 67. Despite firing an even-par 71 on the final day, his only non-under-par round during the week, comfortably took a two-shot triumph over Khongpha to secure his first title since the 2010 Iskandar Johor Open in Malaysia, also on the Asian Tour. The victory was his 17th international title...In an unscheduled Monday finish at The Honda Classic, defeated South Florida native Daniel Berger on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff (No. 17) to claim his sixth career PGA TOUR title and second at The Honda Classic (2005). Following multiple weather delays throughout the week, and a final round that was contested both Sunday and Monday, made a dramatic 16-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to force the 21-year-old PGA TOUR rookie into extra holes. Following both players making pars on the first extra hole, the par-5 18th at PGA National, he won with a par on the par-3 17th hole. With his win, became the first player to win on a sponsor exemption since Lee Westwood at the 2010 FedEx St. Jude Classic. He became the first player since Vaughn Taylor (2004 Barracuda Championship) to win on the PGA TOUR, despite recording a pair of final-round double bogeys. His victory also earned him a return trip to the Masters Tournament for a 14th time. He had competed in each Masters from 2000-13 but failed to qualify in 2014.

Finished regulation of the Farmers Insurance Open tied for the lead with Jason Day, Scott Stallings and Harris English. After Stallings and English dropped out on the first extra hole, lost to Day on the second playoff hole, earning the third runner-up finish of his career. Made bogey on the second extra hole (par-3 16th) to lose to Day's par. Entered the final round tied for the lead with English. With the loss, moved to 3-3 in converting 54-hole leads...Came back the following week with a T10 at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, finishing seven strokes behind champion Brandt Snedeker. since Rory McIlroy won the 2014 Open Championship. Tiger Woods (2002, 2006) remains the only player to win the Cadillac Championship in wire-to-wire fashion (no ties after any round). The runner-up performance marked his best finish in 13 World Golf Championships appearances, with his previous-best showing a T5 at the 2011 Cadillac Match Play (his only other top-10 finish in the series). Opened the event by tying the 18-hole tournament record at Trump National Doral's Blue Monster with a 10-under 62 (Watson in 2012)...A day removed from the loss by his beloved Kentucky Wildcats in the Final Four, he began the final round of the Shell Houston Open trailing Jordan Spieth by six strokes. He stormed out of the gate with birdies on his first five holes en route to an 8-under 64 to join a three-man playoff with Spieth and 2008 Shell Houston Open champion Johnson Wagner. After Spieth dropped from the playoff on the first extra hole, he parred the second playoff hole to claim his fourth PGA TOUR victory. His six-stroke come-from-behind victory was the largest on the PGA TOUR since Matt Jones rallied from the same number of strokes at the 2014 Shell Houston Open en route to his victory. His 8-under 64 was the lowest final-round score of his career, supplanting a 65 from the 2015 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. His 64 also tied the low fourth-round score at the Shell Houston Open, set 11 previous times...Carded rounds of 70-65-67-68 to finish 14-under 270 and earn a T4 at the BMW Championship, eight strokes behind champion Jason Day...In his first TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola appearance, finished T8 with Zach Johnson after rounds of 68-72-68-69...Finished the season No. 12 in the U.S. Presidents Cup standings but was selected by captain Jay Haas to complete the squad after Jim Furyk announced he was unable to compete due to a lingering wrist injury...Went

2014-15 SEASON:

Spent time on the Champions Tour, PGA TOUR and European Tour. Added a second victory to his Champions Tour resume when he emerged from a crowded leaderboard to win the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Making just his third Champions Tour start, shared the 36-hole lead with Rocco Mediate. After an up-and-down front nine Sunday, he made birdies on six of his final nine holes for the win. His key birdie came at No. 17 when he dropped in a 20-foot putt to break a tie with Mark O'Meara at 16-under-par and went on for the victory. He became the eighth player to win the event in his first start...At the co-sanctioned European Tour-Asian Tour True Thailand Classic in mid-February, held a share of the first-round lead and the outright 36-hole lead at Black Mountain Club. Played the final two rounds in 2-under (69-73) to finish T7 with three others, three shots behind winner Andrew Dodt in Hua Hin...Had weekend rounds of 68-67 at the BMW PGA Championship in late-May to T2 with Thongchai Jaidee, six shots shy of winner Byeong-Hun An. Was a constant on the leaderboard at The Senior Open Championship in July at Sunningdale near London and eventually finished fourth overall...Shared the 36-hole lead with Colin Montgomerie at Calgary's Shaw Charity Classic in August, but his final-round, 4-over-par 74 dropped him to T12...Best PGA TOUR finish in six starts was a T34 at the

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship; T2—Northern Trust Open, U.S. Open; T4—AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am; T5—TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola; T6—Valero Texas Open, Masters Tournament; T7—PGA Championship, BMW Championship; T8—AT&T Byron Nelson; T9—The Barclays.

2014-15 SEASON:

Made 18 of 21 cuts, with 11 top-10s and a No. 7 finish in the FedExCup standings. Has qualified for the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for seven consecutive seasons...Lost to James Hahn in a playoff at the Northern Trust Open on the third hole when Hahn made birdie. Finished regulation at 6-under and tied with Hahn and Paul Casey, who bowed out on the first extra hole. It was his second top-five in a row...In just his second start on the PGA TOUR since his last appearance, a missed cut at the 2014 RBC Canadian Open, birdied his 71st and 72nd holes Sunday to post a 6-under 66 at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am to finish T4. The 2009 and 2010 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am champion was aiming to become just the fifth player to win the event more than twice...A week earlier, missed the cut at the Farmers Insurance Open in his first start back...Entered the final round of the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship trailing J.B. Holmes by five strokes before a final-round, 3-under 69 led to a one-stroke victory over Holmes, the largest comeback in Cadillac Championship history. The win was the ninth of his career and second in a World Golf Championships event (2013 HSBC Champions), making him one of eight players with at least two wins in the series. Has won in eight consecutive seasons, the best current streak on TOUR. Week included a hole-in-one on the par-3 fourth hole during the third round, making him the first player to have an ace and win that week since Steve Stricker at the 2011 Memorial Tournament. The win came in his 20th World Golf Championships start. With the victory, collected 550 points and moved to No. 3 in the FedExCup standings...In late-March, returned to the Valero Texas Open, where he made his PGA TOUR debut as a sponsor exemption in 2007 (missed the cut). Playing in the morning Thursday at TPC San Antonio, shot a 6-over 78 in very windy conditions but eventually rebounded to finish T6. His back-to-back, 4-under-par 68s were the best final 36-hole scores by any of the 75 players who played on the weekend in Texas...Finished T6 to record his first top-10 at the Masters. Has made five cuts in six starts at the Augusta National event. Previous-best finish of T13 came in 2013...After rounds of 67-68-62, entered the final round of the AT&T Byron Nelson in a tie for second place, trailing Steven Bowditch by two strokes. Playing in the last group with Bowditch, had moved into a share of the lead before a disastrous triple bogey-8 at the par-4 sixth hole derailed his title hopes. Ended up T8, seven strokes behind champion Bowditch...Suffered a heartbreaking loss to Jordan Spieth at the U.S. Open, his 25th major championship appearance. Two superb shots on the par-5 72nd hole led to an eagle putt from just over 12 feet to win his first major, but when that putt slid by to the left he then missed the short return putt that would have forced an 18-hole playoff with Spieth on Monday. Settled for a runner-up finish with Louis Oosthuizen. Is now winless in four attempts when playing in the final pairing in a major championship. The others are the 2010 U.S. Open (T8), 2010 PGA Championship (T5) and the 2011 Open Championship (T2). The finish was his ninth top-10 in a major...Returned to Whistling Straits for the PGA Championship where, in 2010, he was assessed a two-stroke penalty on the 72nd hole to miss joining a playoff with Bubba Watson and eventual winner Martin Kaymer. Got off to a solid start, posting a 6-under 66 and taking the 18-hole lead by one over David Lingmerth. Was unable to keep the momentum going, posting a 1-over 73 in the second round. Added weekend rounds of 68-69 to finish T7, eight strokes back of Spieth...Returning to Plainfield CC, the site of his weather-shortened victory at the 2011 Barclays, finished T9 for his fifth top-15 finish in seven starts at the event...Highlighted by a second-round, 9-under 62, finished T7 at the BMW Championship, nine strokes behind champion Jason Day. It marked his third top-10 finish in six starts at the event, including his win in 2010. Was also his career-best 10th top-10 finish of the season, shy of only Spieth's 14 top-10s...Finished T5 at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola on the strength of a final-round, best 64 for a career best 11th top-10 of the season, shy of only Spieth's 15 top-10s...Went 3-1-0 in his four Presidents Cup matches in the American team's 15 1/2-14 1/2 victory in South Korea.

PERSONAL:

Grandfather Art Whisnant played basketball at South Carolina and was a three-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in the early 1960s...Younger brother Austin played guard for the Charleston Southern University basketball team...Can dunk a basketball and could palm a basketball as a seventh grader...In June of 2012, threw out the first pitch at the San Francisco Giants-Houston Astros game after hitting drives at AT&T Park into McCovey Cove in front of spectators. He hit a number of drives over 330 yards from home plate, including a 335-yard bomb that ended up being his longest of the day.

Turned up the heat on the inward nine with an eagle on the par-5 11th hole. Bogeysed two of the next three but responded with a birdie at the last hole to break out of a four-way tie and grab solo second... Finished the Regular Season sixth on the money list to secure his PGA TOUR card for the first time... In the first of four Web.com Tour Finals' events, finished T10 at the Hotel Fitness Championship, highlighted by a third-round 65, where he made 11 birdies, one short of tying the Web.com Tour all-time record... Made one more Finals' cut, a T43 at the Small Business Connection Championship at River Run.

2014-15 SEASON:

Made nine of 13 PGA TOUR cuts, with one top-10... Finished T14 at the Wyndham Championship in a last-ditch effort to qualify for the FedExCup Playoffs. Did not advance to the Playoffs, so the Wyndham Championship was his 13th and final event of the season, failing to meet the 15-event minimum requirement for members. As the rule reads: "A player who participates on his home circuit is required to play 15 events. If he plays less than 15, he would not be eligible for PGA TOUR membership for one season. The Commissioner may reduce this minimum should a player have medical reasons or extraordinary circumstances." He loses his voting membership. Settled for a T2 with Fraser...Was poised to win the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship for a third time when he took a six-shot lead into the final round of the European Tour event. Opened the event at Abu Dhabi GC 64-67-65 and seemed to be in cruise control, with birdies on three of his first four holes Sunday. Bogeys the sixth hole then made double bogey on the ninth to turn in even par. Meanwhile, Gary Stahl picked up four shots with a front-nine 32. Made eight pars and a triple bogey on his inward nine for a 3-over 75 that dropped him into solo third, two shots behind Stahl's winning score...Couldn't recover from a third-round 73 but did shoot a Sunday 64 at the Omega Dubai Desert Classic to T4 with Morten Orum Madsen, Gary Stal, Andy Sullivan and Bernd Wiesberger, seven strokes behind winner Rory McIlroy...Had a nice showing at the Open de France in July, shooting four under-par rounds at Le Golf National in Paris on his way to a fourth-place finish.

Became the first former Ben Hogan Award winner (given annually to the nation's top collegiate player in a Heisman Award-type ceremony hosted at Colonial CC) to win the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:
 2—RBC Heritage, T2—THE PLAYERS Championship, The Greenbrier Classic; T4—The McGladrey Classic; T5—Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial; T8—the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide.

2014-15 SEASON:
 Enjoyed a career season during the campaign, with his six top-10s doubling his previous career-best from 2013-14. Season also included a 21st-place finish in the FedExCup, advancing to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for the first time. Came close to his first PGA TOUR victory on several occasions, losing three heartbreaking playoffs. The Georgia Bulldog became the first player to lose three playoffs in a season since Horton Smith in 1937... Following THE PLAYERS, was no worse than 19th in the FedExCup standings at any point all the way until the FedExCup Playoffs, which he entered ranked No. 17 and finished No. 21... Ended up a then-career-best T4 at The McGladrey Classic, carding rounds of 69-68-66-65 to finish two strokes out of three-man playoff with eventual champion Robert Streb, Brendon de Jonge and Will MacKenzie. Previous-best outing was a T6 at the 2014 Wells Fargo Championship... Came from three shots behind third-round leader Troy Merritt at the RBC Heritage to force, but then lose, a playoff to Jim Furyk. The second-place effort is his best career finish on TOUR. Was looking for his first PGA

TOUR victory in his 90th start and was hoping to become the first South Carolinian to win in the 47-year history of the RBC Heritage. The runner-up showing came in his third start at Hilton Head, missing the cut in 2011 and finishing T38 in 2014. Was seeking to become the 11th former Georgia Bulldog to win on the PGA TOUR. No former Bulldog has won the RBC Heritage... Three weeks later in his first start at THE PLAYERS Championship, again played his way into extra holes, this time with 2008 PLAYERS champion Sergio Garcia and Rickie Fowler. Overcame a 1-over 73 in the opening round with back-to-back 67s in rounds two and three. His 3-under 69 Sunday was good enough to join the three-hole aggregate playoff. When Garcia was eliminated after the first three holes, Kisner and Fowler returned to the famed, par-3 17th hole for sudden death. When he wasn't able to match Fowler's birdie, settled for a share of second with Garcia... Following a T38 at the Wells Fargo Championship, finished T5 at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial for his third top-five finish in five starts on TOUR (including two playoff losses). Capped off four rounds in the 60s at Colonial with a bogey-free, 3-under 67, finishing two strokes behind champion Chris Kirk... Finished in a three-way T8 in his second career Memorial Tournament start... At The Greenbrier Classic, posted a final-round, 6-under 64 to find himself in his third playoff since April. Unable to convert for a birdie-2 on the first extra hole, No. 18, he fell from the playoff with Robert Streb. David Hearn and eventual champion Danny Lee advanced to a second hole, before Lee won with a par at No. 17. The West Virginia finish still marked his sixth top-10 of the season and fifth in his last eight starts. With the finish in White Sulphur Springs, he moved to No. 11 in FedExCup standings and No. 36 in the Official World Golf Ranking... Playoffs' season included a T20 at The Barclays, T12 at the Deutsche Bank Championship, T41 at the BMW Championship and 28th at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola..

PERSONAL:
 Married to who he calls "the love of his life" (Brittany) in 2012... Has one brother and one sister. Favorite course he's played is Augusta National and would like to play Pine Valley... First car was a Chevrolet Blazer... Favorite college team is the Georgia Bulldogs and favorite pro team is the Carolina Panthers... Always uses the head side of a coin to mark his golf ball... Favorite TV show is "any game" and favorite entertainer is Colt Ford. Other favorites are a nice steak and a bottle of wine. Puts Ben Hogan, Arnold Palmer and his dad in his dream foursome. Bucket list includes catching a Blue Marlin and driving a stock car. He is involved with The First Tee program.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:
T54—The McGladrey Classic.

2014-15 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season with 23 starts, two wins, two runners-up, one third-place finish, 12 top-10s, 14 top-25s and 18 cuts made. Was first in the final priority-ranking order, along with Chez Reavie... In his third Web.com Tour start in March, carded rounds of 67-72-70 to sit just one stroke off the lead after 54 holes of the Cartagena de Indias at Karibana Championship. An up-and-down, final-round 75 resulted in a T4... At the next week's Brasil Champions, fired 64-65 over his first 36 holes. Entered the third round one stroke behind eventual champion Peter Malnati. Closing weekend rounds of 70-68 led to T9... Opened the El Bosque Mexico Championship in April with a 67. Was two off the pace after 18 holes but fell five strokes behind with rounds of 70-71. Fired a bogey-free 67 on Sunday to T2... Two starts later, was T4 after 36 holes of the BMW Charity Pro-Am. Started third round birdie-eagle-birdie, only to double-bogey the fourth hole. Mixed five more birdies with three bogeys for 68. An inconsistent final-round 69 resulted in a T10... Posted scores of 69-64 in the first two rounds of the Rex Hospital Open and was two shots off the lead. Third-round 68 kept him close as local favorite Harold Varner III shot a course-record 62 to assume the 54-hole lead. Opened the final round with four birdies in his first five holes to move into contention. Wound up with a 5-under 66 that put him 17 under to finish in a tie for the lead at the end of regulation play with eventual winner Kyle Thompson and Miguel Angel Carballo. Missed an 8-foot birdie on the second playoff hole and then watched as Thompson rolled in 4-footer to capture the title. Consolation prize was a $55,000 paycheck, which vaulted him past Peter Malnati and into the top spot on the money list after 10 of 21 Regular Season events. His ascension to No. 1 marked the latest point in a season in Tour history that a player had been No. 1 on the money list without an official win... Enjoyed a strong showing in Cleveland two weeks later, at the Rust-Oleum Championship. Opened with a first-round 70, then fired a 63 Friday, putting him T5, two back of the leader. Carded 68-67 on the weekend for a T3... After a missed cut in Wichita, came back and notched his fifth top-10 of the season at the Albertsons Boise Open. Entered the final round T32 then fired a bogey-free 64 to jump to T9... The next week, received a sponsor's invite to play in the PGA TOUR's Barbasol Championship. Carded 71-76 and missed the cut... Other TOUR start came at The McGladrey Classic in October 2014, at the beginning of the TOUR season. Made the cut at the Sea Island's Seaside course, his home facility. Posted 66-71-70-70 and finished T54... Finally broke through and won in Utah in early August after finishing second twice earlier, in April and May. Used a second-round 62 to take the lead at the halfway mark of the Utah Championship in Lehi. Shot weekend rounds of 71-69 to finish regulation tied at 19-under with Sung Kang, relinquishing a four-shot lead to Kang on the back nine. After both players parred the first extra hole (No. 18 at the GC at Thanksgiving Point), the duo played the 18th again, and he hit his approach shot on the par-4 hole to 3 feet, which he would make after Kang missed from long range. The victory was the first of his Web.com Tour career, and the 62 set a new Web.com Tour career-best and new course record (matched later that day by Trey Mullinax)... Was on cruise control early in Springfield, Mo., at the Price Cutter Charity Championship two weeks later. Opened with a bogey-free 64 and was two off the lead Friday through 16 holes before finishing triple bogey-bogey. Rebounded with 67-68 on the weekend for a T6, his 10th top 10 of the year... The good play continued the following week in Knoxville at the News Sentinel Open. A pair of 68s the first two days had him T25. Posted back-to-back 64s Saturday and Sunday (15 birdies, one bogey) to finish at 20-under par to win by four shots, producing his second career win in four tournaments. Started the final round at Fox Den CC two off the pace but steadily moved to the lead with birdies at Nos. 1, 3, 5 and 7. Added two more birdies after the turn and was up by two shots through 11 holes. Sandwiched a pair of tough par-saves around a birdie at No. 15, which allowed him to push his lead to four, the eventual margin of victory. The Auburn grad donned the Tennessee-orange winner's blazer at the prize ceremony. "It's a good orange to wear today," he said. Collected $99,000, pushing his season total to $512,553, the sixth-best total in Tour history with five tournaments still on the schedule... Closed the Regular Season with a T26 at the WinCo Foods Portland Open to finish No. 1 through the first 21 events, with earnings of $518,241 and a $174,592 advantage over No. 2 Martin Piller. Held the top spot from The Rex Hospital Open through the final Regular Season tournament, a total of 12 weeks in a row. Was No. 1 in Scoring Average (68.49), Birdie Average

(4.91), Total Birdies (344) and Top-10 Finishes (11), No. 2 in Putting Average (1.691), No. 3 in All-Around Ranking and No. 4 in Greens In Regulation (74.88) through the Regular Season... In the Web.com Tour Finals, opened with a T16 at the Hotel Fitness Championship... Missed the cut in the Small Business Connection Championship at River Run... Withdrew during the second round of the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship... Closed his season with a T5 at the Web.com Tour Championship, which wrapped up the season-long money title ($567,865 in earnings), the second most in Tour history (Michael Sim in 2009 pocketed $644,142). Spent the last 16 weeks of the season at No. 1, fourth best in Tour history. Fittingly, he birdied the final hole of the season at TPC Sawgrass. As No. 1, is fully exempt on the PGA TOUR in 2015-16 and receives an invitation to THE PLAYERS in May. In the final stats, he retained the No. 1 position in Scoring Average (68.68), Putting Average (1.694), Total Birdies (390), Top-10 Finishes (12) and Birdie Average (4.81). He finished No. 2 in the All-Around Ranking.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:

T12—World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational.

2014-15 SEASON:

Won for the first time in six years on the European Tour when he survived a final-round 76 at the Dubai Duty Free Irish Open to win the event in a playoff over Eddie Pepperell and Bernd Wiesberger. Began the final round two shots ahead of Maximilian Kieffer and Rafael Cabrera-Bello after a third-round, 4-under 67 at Royal County Down. Over his final 18 holes, opened bogey-bogey and made a double bogey at No. 8. Turned to the back nine in 4-over 39. Seemingly righted things with a birdie at the par-5 12th hole but then was 2-over for his final five holes (bogeys at Nos. 14 and 17). In the playoff, on the par-5 18th, a hole he had parred moments earlier, he reached the green in two and two-putted from there for birdie, something Pepperell and Wiesberger couldn't match...The following week, at the Nordea Masters, flirted with victory again, opening 72-69-68 to sit in fifth place with 18 holes to play, four shots behind leader Alexander Noren. Matched Noren's 71 on the final day but still moved into solo-second place... First top-10 of the season came at the Open de Espana. Made the cut despite a second-round 76, then made a slow march up the leaderboard with a 70-69 final 36 holes to T9...Played in two major championships for the first time since 2010. Missed the cut at both The Open Championship and the PGA Championship...Made his 500th European Tour start at the Made in Denmark at Himmerland Golf & Spa Resort, becoming the first native of Denmark to reach that distinction. Only took him 18 years, 6 months to arrive at the milestone, bettered only by Peter Baker...Earned an additional top-10 in late-September when he fired a final-round 67 at the Porsche European Open at the Golf Resort Bad Griesbach in Germany to T8 with Peter Uihlein, two shots behind winner Thongchai Jaidee.

PERSONAL:

In 1997, he tested his stamina by running a marathon and achieving a highly respectable time of 3 hours, 54 minutes. Has not run a marathon since, saying: "Once was enough for me, I try to stay in good shape but not as extreme as that!"

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:
T5—PGA Championship.

2014-15 SEASON:

Highlight of his year came in August when he was named a member of The Presidents Cup International squad, becoming the first player from India to make the team... In early September, competed in his first career Web.com Tour event, the Hotel Fitness Championship, having earned enough non-member FedExCup points to qualify for the Web.com Tour Finals in an attempt to secure PGA TOUR status for the 2015-16 season. Found himself in the final pairing on Sunday at Sycamore Hills GC. A final-round 71 resulted in a T6 in the first of the four Finals' events... At the next week's Small Business Connection Championship at River Run, recorded a T16 in North Carolina, upping his

Finals' earnings to $49,750. Feeling he was comfortably above the minimum threshold to secure his PGA TOUR card, elected to not play the last two Finals' events to return home and prepare for The Presidents Cup. Finished 32nd in the final priority-ranking order... After winning 13 times worldwide, earned his first European Tour title when he captured the Maybank Malaysian Open in early February. Shot a 10-under 62 in the third round that put him in fifth place, five shots behind 54-hole leader Bernd Wiesberger. Made six front-nine birdies at Kuala Lumpur G&CC and added four more on his back nine. On Sunday, immediately made his presence felt by birdieing four of his first five holes. Was even-par the rest of the way (two birdies and two bogeys) as he overtook Wiesberger to win by a shot... Won his second European Tour title when he captured the Hero Indian Open in playoff fashion in mid-February, defeating countryman S.S.P. Chawrasia with a birdie on the first extra hole. The duo finished regulation at Delhi GC tied at 7-under after Chawrasia shot a final-round, 5-over 76, to relinquish his two-shot, 54-hole lead. After a slow start, shooting a 2-over 73 on the first day, came back with rounds of 65-70-69. Moved to second in the Race to Dubai standings at the time... Was superb in the final round of the European Tour-Asian Tour co-sanctioned Omega European Masters, shooting a 6-under 64 to finish fifth in Switzerland, five shots behind winner Danny Willett... In his 16th PGA TOUR start, posted a 4-under 68 in the final round of the PGA Championship to claim a T5. The finish at Whistling Straits in Wisconsin marked his first top-20 finish on TOUR and is the top showing in a major championship by a native of India. PGA Championship was his 12th start of the season (maximum for a non-member)... Could not play in the Wyndham Championship despite his top 10 at PGA Championship since he did not qualify for Special Temporary Membership (had 301 FedExCup points and needed 323)... Went 0-3-0 in his three Presidents Cup matches in the International team's 15 1/2-14 1/2 loss in South Korea.

PERSONAL:

At age 8, his father, an Army officer, introduced him to the game. Twitter is @anirbangolf... Is a devotee of Vipassna meditation.

WEIGHT: 150
BIRTHDATE: August 7, 1987
BIRTHPLACE: Port Neches-Groves, Texas

EDUCATION: University of Arkansas (2009, Communications)
SPECIAL INTERESTS: Fishing and anything outdoors
TURNED PROFESSIONAL: 2009
JOINED TOUR: 2015-16
Web.com Tour Graduate (2015)

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1): 2007 Athens Regional Foundation Classic.

2014-15 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season with 23 starts, one win, five top-25s and 14 cuts made. Was 45th in the final priority-ranking order... Collected his first career win with a five-stroke victory at the wind-plagued Cartagena de Indias at Karibana Championship in early March. Shot a final-round, 3-under 69 to finish 11 under and take home the $126,000 first-place check. Emerged from a packed leaderboard on the weekend and played the final 44 holes with only one bogey. A third-round 67, played over a two-day span, gave him a share of the 54-hole lead at 8 under. Had the luxury of being an hour in front of the final groups because officials did not repair for the final round, which actually started before the third round was completed. Early birdies at Nos. 2 and 3 gave him the outright lead, which he would maintain the rest of the way. Rolled in a 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole and waited out the remaining 15 players. All stumbled with bogeys on the final nine and dropped further off the pace. Winning check vaulted him to No. 2 on the money list behind fellow rookie winner Patrick Rodgers after three events... Posted consecutive top 25s in Chile (T16), Louisiana (T23) and Mexico (T23)... On March 30 (after Louisiana), Monday-qualified into his first PGA TOUR event, the Shell Houston Open, in his home state of Texas. Shot rounds of 76-73 to miss the cut... Only top 25 in his final nine Regular Season events came at the Nova Scotia Open (T16) in early July. Was the first-round leader in Halifax after firing a 64... Finished 21st on the Regular Season money list to secure his PGA TOUR card for 2015-16... In the Web.com Tour Finals, made the cut in the first three tournaments, but his best outing of the three was only a T47 at the opening Hotel Fitness Championship in Fort Wayne... Finished No. 108 in the Web.com Tour Finals.

PERSONAL:

Attended Port Neches-Groves High in Port Neches, Texas... If he weren't a professional golfer, says he would be a fishing guide... Favorite food is crawfish and raw oysters... Favorite TV show is "Seinfeld"... Other favorites include the Los Angeles Dodgers, Atlanta Braves, "Duck Dynasty," Justin Timberlake and Clayton Kershaw... Most famous person he's met is President George W. Bush while fishing in Dallas... Admits to a guilty pleasure of enjoying the TV show "Pretty Little Liars"... Once shot 58 at his home course, nine-hole "Pea Patch" in Groves, Texas (since closed down), which played about 6,300 yards. "Fifty-eight is 58," he says.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational; T7—Farmers Insurance Open; T9—U.S. Open.

2014-15 SEASON:

Made his first PGA TOUR start of the year, at the Farmers Insurance Open, where he finished T7...Opened poorly at the European Tour's BMW PGA Championship at Wentworth Club in late-May, with a 2-over 74. Rebounded nicely over his final 54 holes, playing his last three rounds in 13-under to T6 with Tommy Fleetwood... Next PGA TOUR top-10 finish came at the U.S. Open at Chambers Bay, where a T9 performance lifted him to 339 non-member FedExCup points for the season. With that number surpassing No. 125 Johnson Wagner's total of 323 from the 2013-14 season, had the ability to accept Special Temporary Membership for the remainder of the 2014-15 Season, giving him unlimited sponsor-exemption possibilities. Entered the final round of the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational two shots off the lead before firing a bogey-free 66 to claim a two-shot win over Bubba Watson. Saved the best for last as his tee shot on No. 18 went deep into the left rough. Second shot rattled 141 yards through the trees and landed 11 feet, 1 inch away from the pin. Drained the putt for the birdie-3 to seal the win. Earned his first-career PGA TOUR victory in his 28th start. Claimed a three-year PGA TOUR exemption through the 2017-2018 season. Won his first World Golf Championships event in his ninth start. With his win, he automatically became a PGA TOUR member (since he already accepted Special Temporary Membership). His FedExCup points earned as a non-member (excluding those won at World Golf Championship events as a non-member) are retroactive and will be counted on the official FedExCup points list. His FedExCup points earned in World Golf Championships events, including those from his victory at the Bridgestone Invitational, are not retroactive. Will have two events (PGA Championship and Wyndham Championship) to try to move into the top 125 in the FedExCup standings. He was the first Special Temporary Member to win on TOUR since Jordan Spieth at the 2013 John Deere Classic.

2014-15 SEASON:

In what became a bit of a roller-coaster season, managed seven top-10 finishes in 12 PGA TOUR starts, highlighted by two victories. An ankle injury while playing soccer prevented him from defending his titles at The Open Championship and World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. As a preventative measure, also did not compete in The Barclays, the first event of the FedExCup Playoffs. During the Playoffs, swapped the World's No. 1 spot several times with Jordan Spieth and Jason Day before ending the season ranked third in the Official World Golf Ranking and 15th in the FedExCup standings. In October 2014, played in the European Tour's Alfred Dunhill Links Championship. Started slowly, with a 1-over 73 at Carnoustie. Played his final 54 holes in 17-under, including a third-round 64 at St. Andrews that included a stretch of nine birdies in 12 holes. Final-round 68, also at St. Andrews' Old Course, left him T2 with Richie Ramsay and Tommy Fleetwood, a stroke behind winner Oliver Wilson. Won the European Tour's Race to Dubai title, finishing with $7,149,503 in earnings, easily outdistancing No. 2 Henrik Stenson. At the Race to Dubai's final event of the season, in November 2014, started quickly at the DP World Tour Championship, shooting a 6-under 66 in the first round at Jumeirah Golf Estates in Dubai. Shared the 18-hole lead with Shane Lowry. Dropped into a tie for fourth through 54 holes after a second consecutive 70, but he finished strong, with a 4-under 68 on the final day to T2 with Victor Dubuisson and Justin Rose, two shots short of winner Stenson. In January, named 2014 Golf Writers Association of America's Player of the Year as voted on by members of the GWAA. At the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship, made a late run at victory, shooting a 6-under 66 on the final day at Abu Dhabi GC. Had a shot from the bunker that had he made it would have forced a playoff with Gary Stal. His blast from the sand slid by the hole, and he settled for the runner-up position after shooting four under-par rounds. Helped his finishing position with his first professional hole-in-one in the second round, at the Abu Dhabi GC's 15th hole. Turned in four under-par rounds at Emirates GC to capture the Omega Dubai Desert Classic. Opened 66-64-66 and maintained a four-shot lead over Morten Orum Madsen through 54 holes. Was never really threatened during his final 18 holes, making just one bogey against three birdies. Won his fifth European Tour title and his second Dubai Desert Classic to go with his 2009 title. Finished T9 in his seventh World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship start, falling shy of his best finish at the event of third in 2012. Received massive media attention during the second round when he flung his 3-iron into the pond on the par-4 18th hole. After a diver retrieved the club, tournament host Donald Trump presented the club to McIlroy on the driving range prior to the final round. Finished fourth at the Masters Tournament in April to record his second top 10 at the Augusta National event in his seventh start. Shot rounds of 71-71-68-66 to jump up the leaderboard on the weekend. Finished at 12-under. Defeated Gary Woodland, 4 and 2, in the championship match at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Match Play to go undefeated (7-0) in his matches at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco. Earned his 10th PGA TOUR victory in his 92nd start at age 25 years, 11 months, 29 days. Joins Tiger Woods (29) and Jack Nicklaus (17) as the only players to win 10 events prior to their 26th birthday on the PGA TOUR in the last 75 years. Won his first event on TOUR on May 2 at the 2010 Wells Fargo Championship and won the 2015 Cadillac Match Play on May 3 (birthday is May 4). Is the ninth player with at least two career World Golf Championships victories (2014 Bridgestone Invitational). Players with multiple World Golf Championships wins include Woods (18), Geoff Ogilvy (three), Darren Clarke (two), Ernie Els (two), Hunter Mahan (two), Phil Mickelson (two), Ian Poulter (two) and Dustin Johnson (two). Is the youngest winner of the Cadillac Match Play and the sixth-youngest in the history of the World Golf Championships series. Is the second player to win the Cadillac Match Play as a No. 1 seed. Woods won the tournament three times (2003-04 and 2008) as the No. 1 seed. Shot a tournament-record 21-under 267 to win by seven shots over Patrick Rodgers and Webb Simpson at the Wells Fargo Championship. Notched his 11th PGA TOUR title in his 94th TOUR start. Became the first repeat winner of the Wells Fargo Championship. Broke his own course record shared with Brendon de Jonge (2014) at Quail Hollow Club with his third-round, 11-under 61. His 72-hole score shattered Anthony Kim's previous-record 16-under 272 set in 2008. Has claimed his 11 TOUR titles by a collective 37 strokes. Made a Sunday charge at the U.S. Open, with a 4-under 66. But bogeys on Nos. 15 and 17 derailed his hope for a fifth major championship title. The T9 marked his 12th top-10 finish (and fourth consecutive) in 26 major appearances. Now owns three top-10s at the U.S. Open (won in 2011 and T10 in 2009). Injured ankle playing soccer with friends and was not able to defend titles at The Open Championship or World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational. Returned to defend title at the PGA Championship, but finished 17th with four under-par rounds. Did not play in the first FedExCup Playoffs' event (The Barclays) to further rest his injured ankle. Following a T29 at the Deutsche Bank Championship, finished T4 at the BMW Championship, eight strokes behind champion Day. Entered the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola No. 11 in the FedExCup standings and turned in a T16 at East Lake GC to finish 15th in the FedExCup.

PERSONAL:

Recorded a 40-yard drive at age 2 and made his first ace at age 9. Left school at age 16 to concentrate on amateur golf. Cites Tiger Woods as his golf inspiration. Website is rorymcilroy.com. Won the 2003 Ulster Boys Championship at age 13. At age 16 became youngest consecutive missed cuts, carded a final-round 4-under 67 (including a 34-foot, 5-inch birdie putt on the 72nd hole) for a three-stroke victory over Rickie Fowler at the Quicken Loans National. At 18-under 266, set a new 72-hole scoring record at the Robert Trent Jones GC, topping the 267 totals by Tiger Woods in 2009 and Nick Watney in 2011. Became the first player to make the Quicken Loans National title his initial PGA TOUR win in his 96th start at the age of 29 years, 9 months, 8 days. Previous-best finish was a runner-up effort at the 2014 FedEx St. Jude Classic. Win earned him a first-time spot in the upcoming World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational and the PGA Championship events. Week included a third-round 61 (matched his career-low score set earlier this season in the second round of the RBC Heritage), and established a new tournament record. The previous low score was 62, set by three players (Anthony Kim in 2009, Hunter Mahan in 2009 and Nick Watney in 2011). Along with Kevin Chappell set a new Quicken Loans National low-opening 54-hole score, with their 199 totals topping 200s set by Tom Pernice, Jr. (2008), Kim (2009), Woods (2009), Justin Rose (2010) and Fowler (2015). Is now one for two when carrying the lead/co-lead into the final round on the PGA TOUR.

Carded an opening-round 70 at the Brasil Champions. Got hot at the end of his second round, finishing with three consecutive birdies for a 65. Maintained his momentum in the third round with a 67 to place T22. Made up tremendous ground on the leaders with five consecutive birdies on Nos. 9 through 13, punctuating the final round with one more birdie on No. 18 for a bogey-free 64 and a T2 showing... In the first event of the Web.com Tour Finals, began the final round of the Hotel Fitness Championship six back of leader D.H. Lee but got off to a quick start that included six birdies on the front nine, where he only needed nine putts. His three birdie putts on the par 3s were all under 5 feet. Two more birdies on Nos. 16 and 17 capped a bogey-free, course-record 62 and a three-stroke victory, his first on the Web.com Tour. Finished with just 21 putts on the day. Collected a check for $180,000, assuring himself a PGA TOUR card for 2015-16. His six-shot final-round comeback equaled the best on Tour in 2015. Became the fourth Swede to claim a Tour title, joining David Chopra, Mathias Gronberg and David Lingmerth... Added a T9 at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship two weeks later... Came to the Web.com Tour Championship trailing Finals' leading money winner Chez Reavie by $11,942. Closed the season with a T18 to finish third in Finals' earnings.

BEST PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH:

T41—2006 Canadian Open.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2015 Air Capital Classic.

2014-15 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season having played in all 25 tournaments, recording one win, six top-25s and 18 cuts made. Was 50th on the final priority-ranking order... Prior to the start of the season, another vehicle struck and totaled his car in Orlando, Fla., the accident causing him a bruised shoulder and no golf for a week... After missing his first two cuts, made the cut in his next 10 tournaments... In late June, earned his first career title with a come-from-behind victory at the Air Capital Classic in Wichita. Started the final round at Crestview CC six shots back of leader Andy Winings. Posted a 6-under 64 that included an eagle at No. 14, to finish at 13-under 267, more than an hour ahead of the final grouping. Winings was even par for the day and 13-under when he missed a 10-foot birdie putt at No. 17. When Winings made bogey on the 72nd hole, Oppenheim had earned a one-shot victory. The win was worth $108,000 and moved him from No. 70 to No. 13 on the money list, after 13 of 21 Regular Season events. His bogey-free 64 final round was the lowest final-round score of his career and the low round of the day. He became the first player from Division II Rollins College (Winter Park, Fla.) to win on the Web.com Tour. The win came eight years after he first played in the Air Capital Classic as a Monday qualifier... His streak of 11 cuts made in a row ended the next week at the Nova Scotia Open... Made only three cuts in his final eight Regular Season starts, with a critical missed cut coming at the final one, the WinCo Foods Portland Open. Came to Portland No. 24 on the money list, seeking to earn his PGA TOUR card via the Regular Season top-25 route. Rounds of 71-70 led to another missed cut. When the tournament ended on Sunday, he had dropped two spots to No. 26, failing to secure his card by a mere $943... In the Web.com Tour Finals, finishes of T74, T25 and T47 in the first three events placed him at No. 50 on the Finals' money list. At the Web.com Tour Championship, made the cut by two shots then reeled off two very timely rounds of 67 on the weekend to claim a T12 finish at TPC Sawgrass. But the computer projections had him 28th on the Finals' money list when he departed the scoring trailer. Dejected and thinking he had not played quite well enough, hopped in his car before play ended and started to make the two-hour drive to his Orlando home. It was 30 minutes later when he got the call that a Lucas Glover bogey on the 72nd hole had turned projections in his favor and that he had snared the final card and 50th position in the final priority-ranking order. When he walked in at the tail end of the Class of 2015 group photo, his fellow grads gave the popular player a rousing ovation as his six-year journey to get to the PGA TOUR had finally become reality. The margin between him and No. 26 Eric Axley, who ironically earned the 50th card last year, was $101.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T2—Waste Management Phoenix Open; T6—Valero Texas Open, The Barclays; T10—Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation, AT&T Byron Nelson.

2014-15 SEASON:

Tragedy and heartache defined the last part of his season, following the death of his father in a car accident. Managed to advance to the FedExCup Playoffs for a seventh season, thanks to four top-10 finishes through the Wyndham Championship. Played well in the first three Playoffs' events but was unable to extend his play to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Season ended ranked 38th in the FedExCup standings...First top-10 of the season came on the European Tour with a T8 at the BMW Masters in China. Four under-par rounds at Lake Malaren GC in Shanghai left him tied with Emiliano Grillo, three shots out of the Marcel Siem-Ross Fisher-Alexander Levy playoff that Siem won...Finished T10 at the Humana Challenge, with rounds of 71-61-68-69. His week in Palm Springs was highlighted by a 9-under-par 27 on the Nicklaus Private course, which matched the second-lowest nine-hole score in TOUR history. Corey Pavin posted an 8-under 26 on the front nine in the opening round of the 2006 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee. Is the 10th player in TOUR history to shoot a 27 on nine holes and the fifth player in TOUR history to turn in a 9-under, nine-hole score. Opened the back nine with a pair of pars and then ran off a streak that went E-B-B-E-B-B. His streak came to an end with a bogey-5 at the par-4, second hole. His streak of 10-under (in eight holes) is the lowest such birdie-eagle streak in TOUR history. Billy Mayfair was 9-under (seven birdies and one eagle) in the final round of the 2001 Buick Open and Briny Baird was also 9-under (seven birdies and one eagle) in the second round of the 2003 FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World Resort... Following an opening-round, 7-under 64, led by a stroke at the Waste Management Phoenix Open. Ensuing rounds of 72-68-66 was good for a 14-under-270 total and a T2 with Bubba Watson and Hideki Matsuyama. Began the final round at 9-under, four strokes off Martin Laird's 13-under lead. Played bogey-free Sunday...Posted a 4-under-par 68 in the final round of the Valero Texas Open en route to a T6 finish with Dustin Johnson...After two consecutive missed cuts finished T10 at the AT&T Byron Nelson...Making his first start on TOUR since the tragic automobile accident that led to the death of his dad, Charles "Butch" Palmer, finished T6 at The Barclays for his second top-10 finish at the event (T5 in 2010). Moved to No. 33 in the FedExCup standings heading into the Deutsche Bank Championship.

PERSONAL:

Has established a fund through the Northern Texas PGA to help junior golfers with financial needs pay for tournament fees or NTPGA membership dues. Nominations for recipients of a grant from the Ryan Palmer Foundation are funneled through the NTPGA. In November 2009, the Palmer Foundation gave $100,000 to The Children's Hospital at Northwest Texas Healthcare System in Amarillo, Texas, to build the Ryan Palmer Foundation Healing Garden, which includes a nine-hole putting green. He also donated $50 per birdie and $100 per eagle to the hospital in 2010 as a part of Birdies 4 "Brighter Smiles." Website is ryanpalmer-foundation.org.

Captured his first Tour win with a wire-to-wire victory at the BMW Charity Pro-Am in mid-May. Established himself as the man to beat when he opened with back-to-back, 9-under 63s and led by four shots at the halfway mark.

Was 20 under and ahead by two entering the final round at Thornblade Club. Was threatened but never relinquished the lead as he chalked up six birdies in his first 14 holes Sunday. Bounced back with a critical two-putt birdie at No. 16 after an errant tee shot on the par-5, 15th led to a bogey that cut his lead to one at the time. Closed with a pair of pars to wind up with a 25-under-par score of 261 and two better than Texan Kelly Kraft, who kept pace with his own 5-under 66. Victory came in his 85th career Tour start and was worth $121,500, which jumped him from No. 72 to No. 8 on the money list after nine of 21 Regular Season events. Win came at age 45 years, 7 months, 24 days. His 261 total was the third lowest on Tour during the year. He was one of only two wire-to-wire winners (Martin Piller at the Albertsons Boise Open the other)...In June, added another top-10, at the Air Capital Classic. Shot a pair of 66s in the second and third rounds after opening with an even-par 70. A final-round 69 left him T6 and moved him to eighth on the money list...Finished the Regular Season with a T13 at the WinCo Foods Portland Open and a 17th-place position in Regular Season earnings, ensuring his return to the PGA TOUR in 2015-16...In the Finals, missed the cut in the first two events, finished T56 in Charlotte and closed with a T24 at the Web.com Tour Championship.

PERSONAL:

Began playing primarily in the United States beginning in 2000 when the Aussie relocated to Flower Mound, Texas...Wife, Angela, is a clinical psychologist. "She gets to see everything I do out there. I'm kind of lucky. I have a psychologist out there 24 hours a day. She doesn't lie.

I can't kid myself..."After finishing 124th on the 2011 money list to earn TOUR card for 2012, contacted tournament directors who granted him sponsor exemptions to thank them. "I've been doing this 25 years. I'm not saying I've never had a guy call me and thank me for doing that, but it's the first in a long time," AT&T National Tournament former Director Greg McLaughlin told the Associated Press. "It's very rare. All the other guys are thankful and appreciative. But rarely do I get one after the season when a guy gets his card and calls you to thank you. As far as I'm concerned, he can play in one of my tournaments if he ever needs a spot. He's set for life..."Worked as a golf course superintendent...If he weren't in golf he would be a race-car driver...Twitter account is @RodPampling.

1—Barbasol Championship; 2—Sony Open in Hawaii; 3—BMW Championship; T7—Shriners Hospitals for Children Open; 10—Shell Houston Open.

2014-15 SEASON:

Season highlighted by a career-best finish in the FedExCup (No. 22) and top-10 finishes (five), one of which was his victory at the Barbasol Championship (the third win of his PGA TOUR career)...Playing in his hometown event, the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open in Las Vegas, posted four rounds in the 60s to finish T7, six strokes behind champion Ben Martin. It marked his first top-10 since finishing T5 at the 2013 PGA Championship. Playing on a Major Medical Extension this season, started the season with 14 events to earn 200 FedExCup points or $300,710. His top-10 finish at TPC Summerlin was good for 85 points and $193,233... Making his seventh start at the Sony Open in Hawaii, cracked the top 10 for the first time with a runner-up finish (a distant nine strokes behind runaway winner Jimmy Walker). Followed a pair of 3-under 67s in the first two rounds with a pair of 66s on the weekend, good for his first top-five since a T5 at the 2013 PGA Championship...Reeled off five consecutive birdies in the first round of the Shell Houston Open en route to a course record-tying, 9-under 63 and a two-stroke, 18-hole lead. Would post another low score Saturday, a 6-under 66, but 2-over 74s in the second and final rounds resulted in a 10th-place finish at the GC of Houston...Following birdies on four of his last five holes in the third round of the inaugural Barbasol Championship, kept the momentum going in the final round, opening with a pair of birdies at Nos. 1 and 2. Sank an unlikely putt on the second hole from 57 feet. Ensuing birdies at Nos. 5, 6, 9, 13, 14 and 16 resulted in a three-stroke win over Alabama native Will Wilcox in Opelika, Ala. Claimed his third career TOUR victory at age 36 years, 8 months, 13 days in his 185th career TOUR start. Won for the first time since his last TOUR win, 55 starts earlier. Led the field in Greens in Regulation...Totaled a 15-under 269 at the BMW Championship to finish alone in third, seven strokes behind champion Jason Day. Was one of four players to play his way into the top 30 in the FedExCup standings to advance to the final event, the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, moving from No. 44 to No. 20 in the standings...Went on to finish 25th at East Lake GC. It marked just his second trip to the season-ending event.

2014-15 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season with 23 starts, two wins, one third-place finish, five top-10s, six top-25s and 12 cuts made. Was fifth in the final priority-ranking order...Opened the year with a T21 at the Panama Claro Championship that included a third-round 64...Three 68s and a second-round 69 resulted in a T8 at the Colombia Championship, the same week his wife, Gerina, posted a T7 at the LPGA event in the Bahamas...His first top 10 of the season came in June at the Air Capital Classic in Wichita. Posted a final-round 68 resulting in a T8...In July, captured his fourth career Tour win with a wire-to-wire six-stroke victory at the Albertsons Boise Open. Fired a bogey-free 61 in the first round to set the week's pace. Backed up his career-low round with a 63 Friday and carried a four-stroke advantage into the weekend. Continued to distance himself from the field with a flawless 65 Saturday to lead by five. Set a Tour record with a 189 total over the first 54 holes, as well as tying the 54-hole Tour record for most strokes under par at 24 under. Jumpstarted Sunday's round with birdie-eagle start and was never really threatened. Dropped one shot on the back nine with his second bogey of the tournament. Rebounded quickly with birdies at Nos.15 and 17. Broke the 72-hole tournament record with a 28-under-par 256. The $144,000 first-prize check vaulted him from No. 52 to No. 4 on the money list to lock up his return to the PGA TOUR...Collected his second win of the year three weeks later, at the Digital Ally Open in suburban Kansas City. A second-round 62 put him at 15 under and tied for the 36-hole lead with fellow Texas A&M grad Shane Bertsch. A third-round 66 gave him a two-shot lead over Bertsch and Darron Stiles heading into the final round at the Nicklaus GC at LionsGate. Maintained at least a two-shot lead for the entire day, thanks to birdies at Nos. 2, 9, 10 and 13. Was 24 under and two ahead of Chris Baker, who was derailed by a triple bogey at No. 16. Stiles was also two back but he slammed the door on Stiles' chances by closing with back-to-back birdies to finish at 26 under and win by four shots. Sunday's bogey-free 6-under 65 made him the first two-time winner of the campaign. Victory was worth $108,000 and pushed his season total past the $300,000 mark and moved him to No. 2 on the money list after 18 of 21 Regular Season events...The next week was T3 and in the thick of things again at the Price Cutter Charity Championship after rounds of 67-64. A Saturday 66 and an indifferent 71 on Sunday left him three back of winner Dawie van der Walt...Finished the Regular Season No. 2 on the money list...Missed the cut in the first Finals' events then opted to travel to Germany the week of the Small Business Connection Championship at River Run to be with Gerina at the Solheim Cup, where she would sink a crucial putt in the U.S. team's dramatic comeback victory on the last day. Missed the cut again in Columbus but rebounded with a T30 at the Web.com Tour Championship. Was T7 through three rounds and shot 73 on Sunday...

Played in one PGA TOUR event in July. Traveled directly from his win in Utah to play the Barbasol Championship in Mississippi. Strong season did not carry over to the Web.com Tour Finals where he finished No. 96.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISH:

T27—Puerto Rico Open.

2014-15 SEASON:

Split his time between the PGA TOUR and Web.com Tour, garnering a win and a pair of third-place finishes among his 18 starts, that also included three top-10s, six top-25s and 13 cuts made. Led the Tour in Eagles (15) and Eagles/Holes Per (74.4). Was 19th in the final priority-ranking order...Made three cuts in five starts on the PGA TOUR, with a T27 at the Puerto Rico Open his best showing. Had his best finish in several years with a T3 effort at the season-opening Panama Claro Championship on the Web.com Tour. Birdied three of his last four holes to shoot a 5-under 65 on the final day...Recorded his second T3 performance of the year in Springfield, at the Price Cutter Charity Championship. Surged up the leaderboard with 66-65 on the weekend and solidified the top-five finish...Arrived in Portland No. 40 on the money list, thanks to a T18 at the News Sentinel Open the week before. Earned his first Tour victory at the WinCo Foods Portland Open in his 149th start and secured a PGA TOUR card in the Regular Season finale. Opened with a 65 aided by an eagle on the par-5 fourth hole. Trailed Curtis Thompson by three strokes after 18 holes. Picked up ground Friday with a second-round 66 to get within one of 36-hole leader Adam Svensson. Played flawless in the third round, firing a 66 and grabbing the first outright 54-hole lead of his career. Entered the final round four ahead of Tim Herron and never wavered. Made a pair of birdies on the front nine and went out in 34. Sunday highlight came on the back nine when he drained a bomb for eagle on the par-5 11th hole. After four consecutive pars, dropped his first shot in 50 holes at the par-4 16th. Bounced back with a birdie on 17 and regained a three-stroke advantage over Herron. Made things interesting when his third shot on the par-5 finishing hole hit a tree and landed short of the green. With Herron greenside in two, chipped up to 2 feet short of the hole and tapped in for the victory. The $144,000 first-place prize vaulted him to No. 5 on the Regular Season money list...Played in the first two Web.com Tour Finals' events, making the cut at the Hotel Fitness Championship (T69) and the Small Business Connection Championship at River Run (T64) before skipping the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship due to fatigue. Missed the cut at the Web.com Tour Championship. Finished No. 105 in the Web.com Tour Finals.

2007 Knoxville Open. 2015 Small Business Connection Championship at River Run.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T12—FedEx St. Jude Classic; T22—The Greenbrier Classic; T25—Travelers Championship.

2014-15 SEASON:

Playing on TOUR for the first time since wrist surgery sidelined him during the 2013-14 PGA TOUR season, recorded his three top-25 finishes in consecutive starts toward the end of the summer but failed to advance to the FedExCup Playoffs, finishing No. 166 in the FedExCup standings after the Wyndham Championship. Made 19 starts and played the weekend in eight of them. Was looking at having to earn 153 points or $368,955 to clear his Major Medical Extension requirements in 2015-16 before playing in the Web.com Tour Finals...Playing in the Finals, shot up the leaderboard with a 66 in the final round of the Hotel Fitness Championship in Fort Wayne to finish T10... Claimed his second Web.com Tour title in his 58th start, at the Small Business Connection Championship at River Run just outside of Charlotte. Carded rounds of 69-69-69 and began the final round in a tie for ninth at 9-under, five shots off the pace set by co-leaders Emiliano Grillo (72) and Eric Axley (76). Fired a 66 Sunday, making a 6-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to win by one stroke over Jamie Lovemark, Steve Marino and Grillo. The $180,000 first-place prize moved him to the top of the Finals' standings after two events...Added a T20 at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship the following week to take an $11,924 lead into the season finale. At the Web.com Tour Championship, carded rounds of 67-65-67 and was one back of leader Emiliano Grillo with one round to play. Sunday saw the lead see-saw between the two and when they reached the par-4 18th at TPC Sawgrass they were deadlocked at 13-under par. Both would hit the green in two, Grillo 25 feet away and Reavie 15 feet, on a similar line. Grillo would make and Reavie miss, leaving the Argentine holding the trophy. But Reavie's mission had been accomplished in that he wrapped up the No. 1 spot on the Finals' money list, with $323,066, earning fully exempt status on the PGA TOUR for 2015-16 and an invitation to the 2015 PLAYERS.

PERSONAL:

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (4):

2013 Wyndham Championship. 2014 Humana Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation, World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. 2015 Hyundai Tournament of Champions.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Hyundai Tournament of Champions; T2—Valspar Championship; T4—Deutsche Bank Championship; T7—The Honda Classic.

2014-15 SEASON:

Season highlighted by his fourth career win and a career-best No. 12 finish in the FedExCup standings...In mid-October 2014, finished T5 at the European Tour's Volvo World Match Play Championship, losing in the quarterfinals to George Coetzee, 2 and 1, at The London GC in England... Was clutch down the stretch at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, closing the gap on tournament-leader Jimmy Walker by holing an 80-yard wedge for eagle on the par-4 16th and carding birdies on Nos. 15 and 18 to force a playoff. The former Augusta State University standout then drained a 19-foot, 6-inch birdie putt on the first extra hole to improve his playoff record to 2-0, in the process notching his fourth PGA TOUR victory in his 72nd start. Became just the fourth player in the last 20 years to record his fourth TOUR win before age 24 years, 6 months. Also, his four wins is the current benchmark on TOUR for players under the age of 25. Improved his record to 2-0 in playoffs, winning the sixth playoff since the Tournament of Champions moved to Kapalua in 1999. Marked his first come-from-behind win, having held or shared the lead heading into the final round in his previous three victories. Finished with just three bogeys during the week (fourth round on No.

17, second round on No. 7 and second round on No. 8)... After opening with back-to-back, 3-under 67s at The Honda Classic, posted scores of 70-73 in the final two rounds to secure a T7 in the Monday-finish event...Two starts later, at the Valspar Championship, nearly became the season's first multiple winner. Began the final round at the Copperhead Course at 5-under 208, four strokes off 54-hole leader Ryan Moore. Sank a clutch, 31-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole, good for a bogey-free, 5-under 66 and spot in a playoff with Jordan Spieth and 2008 Valspar Championship winner Sean O'Hair. Following solid ups and-downs on the first two extra holes to save par and remain in the playoff, fell victim, with O'Hair, to Spieth's birdie putt on the third extra hole, No. 17. Two years earlier, defeated Spieth in sudden death at the Wyndham Championship en route to his first career PGA TOUR win...With opening rounds of 66-69, shared the 36-hole lead at the U.S. Open with Spieth. Later added rounds of 76-71 to finish T14, his best finish in six major championship starts...Making his third career start at the Deutsche Bank Championship, carded matching middle rounds of 4-under 67 and a final-round, 1-under 70 to T4, seven strokes behind Rickie Fowler. The finish marked his fourth top-10 of the season but first since a playoff loss in March at the Valspar Championship. Later finished T28 at the BMW Championship...Concluded his season with a 27th-place outing at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola to wrap up the season...Went 1-2-1 in his four Presidents Cup matches in the American team's 15 1/2-14 1/2 victory in South Korea.

PERSONAL:

Favorite golf memory is going 6-0 in match play and helping Augusta University win two national championships...

Wife, Justine, was his caddie in 2012 and 2013 and sporadically in 2014 after having the couple's first baby in May. They married in December 2012...Grew up a fan of Notre Dame football. 2014-15 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season with 23 starts, one win, a runner-up and a third-place finish among his four top-25s and 13 cuts made. Was 25th in the final priority-ranking order...In his fifth start of the year, opened with 68-64 to share the 36-hole lead at the Chile Classic. Shot 68 on Saturday to fall one back. Four birdies on the front nine Sunday resulted in a 4-under 31. Came up short on the back nine, making eight consecutive pars and a bogey on No. 18 to finish T3...Won for the first time as a professional at the El Bosque Mexico Championship in Leon in mid-April. His 7-under 65 Saturday was the low round of the day, and it propelled him into the 54-hole lead. Started the final day with a one-shot lead over playing partner Kevin Tway and quickly chalked up birdies at Nos. 1 and 5 to establish the lead. Upped it to four strokes with three consecutive birdies starting at No. 10. Holed out for birdie from a difficult lie in a bunker on No. 11, a shot he says he might make once if given 100 tries. Cruised to the win with five consecutive pars to close the round at 17-under 271. Picked up a check for $126,000, which moved him from No. 37 to No. 2 on the money after seven of 21 Regular Season events. Among those leaving messages of congratulations on his phone was Duke basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski. "That was pretty cool," he said...Had just one top-25 (T19 at The Rex Hospital Open) from May through mid-July before jumping into contention at the Stonebrae Classic. Opened with 66-65 and was one back at the halfway point. Moved into a tie for the lead with one round to go with Si Woo Kim and Jamie Lovemark after all three players shot 69. The trio matched scores again Sunday (68) to set up a three-man playoff in which Kim would prevail, recording a birdie on the first extra hole, the par-5 18th at TPC Stonebrae. The runner-up outing bumped him up four spots on the money list, to No. 3...Finished the Regular Season No. 6 in earnings and a ticket back to the PGA TOUR...Best performance in four Web.com Tour Finals' starts was a T48 at the Small Business Connection Championship at River Run in North Carolina.

PERSONAL:

Favorite courses are The Honors Course (Chattanooga, Tenn.) and Pinehurst No. 2...Never travels without his computer...Follows the Atlanta Braves...Watches "Boardwalk Empire" and "It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia"...Enjoys watching Derrick Rose play basketball, and enjoys vacationing at any beach. Notes that he has never been to New York.

2015 Colombia Championship.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T2—Wells Fargo Championship; 3—Barracuda Championship.

2014-15 SEASON:

Made 12 of 17 PGA TOUR cuts, with two top-10s as a non-member. Earned Special Temporary Membership during the season and parlayed that into a top-125 finish on the FedExCup points list as a non-member to earn PGA TOUR membership for the 2015-16 season...Earned his first career professional win with a playoff victory over Steve Marino at the Colombia Championship in early February on the Web.com Tour. Rolled in an 8-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole to earn the victory in just his seventh career start. Fired a 6-under 65 in the final round of the weather-plagued tournament to overcome a four-stroke, 54-hole deficit. Birdied five of his first 10 holes to move into contention. Was 15-under and on the 16th fairway when officials halted play (for the third consecutive day) because of dangerous conditions. Returned to the course and promptly birdied No. 16 to reach 16-under. Following a par at No. 17, his tee shot on the par-5 18th went in a hazard that runs down the left side of the hole. Was forced to chip sideways into the fairway and then hit his third-shot wedge to within three feet. Canned the short birdie putt to take the clubhouse lead at 17-under. Watched and waited as Marino, the 54-hole leader, also made a short birdie putt on the final hole of regulation. Both players two-putted for par on the first playoff hole. Knocked his 7-iron inside of 10 feet on the second extra hole to put pressure on Marino, who missed his birdie putt. Victory was worth $144,000 and moved the 22-year-old to No. 1 on the money after two weeks of the season...Making the most of a sponsor exemption, the 22-year-old closed with a 4-under 68, despite a double bogey-bogey finish to claim a share of second place with Webb Simpson at the Wells Fargo Championship. Notched his first top-10 on TOUR in his 16th start and 13th as a professional. Was not a member of the PGA TOUR but was trying to earn Special Temporary Membership for the remainder of the 2014-15 PGA TOUR season. Came into the week at Quail Hollow Club with 69 equivalent points. He needed a solo-second-place finish (worth 300 non-member points) to get STM. His T2 finish, worth 245 non-member points, left him 10 points short...By virtue of his T40 finish at the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide, picked up enough non-member points to take Special Temporary

Membership...In the Modified Stableford Format at the Barracuda Championship, picked up 15 points in the first round to sit three points behind leader Zach Sucher. Ensuing results of 6-14-11, for a total of 46 points, resulted in a third-place finish.

PERSONAL:

Twitter account is @PRodgersGolf...Idolized Reggie Miller of the Indiana Pacers and played basketball through his freshman year at Avon High School outside Indianapolis.... First-team AJGA Rolex Junior All-American in 2009-10...Two-time state high school champion of Indiana... Academically ranked third in his class of 582 at Avon High School.

2014-15 SEASON:

Made 15 of 20 cuts, with eight top-10s and a win at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. Finished No. 8 in the final FedExCup standings for his sixth consecutive top-15 finish...Managed to shoot an even-par 72 on a difficult scoring day in the final round of the European Tour's BMW Masters in Shanghai but fell a stroke short of the Marcel Siem-Ross Fisher-Alexander Levy playoff that Siem won. Opened with another even-par effort then put himself into contention with a 65-64 in the second and third rounds at Lake Malaren GC in October 2014...Finished third on the Race to Dubai final standings, helped by his T2 in the final event of the season—the DP World Tour Championship in Dubai in late-November 2014. Opened with a 1-under 71 at Jumeirah Golf Estates then rattled off rounds of 66-68-69 to tie with Rory McIlroy and Victor Dubuisson, two shots behind winner Henrik Stenson...Finished T2 at the Masters Tournament in April to record his best career finish at Augusta National. Has not missed a cut in 10 Masters starts. Previous-best finish was a T5 in 2007...In his next start two weeks later, played 30 holes Sunday at the rain-defined Zurich Classic of New Orleans to beat Cameron Tringale by a stroke. Began the third round at TPC Louisiana three strokes off the lead, at 9-under 132. Played six holes before officials suspended action for the day Saturday due to darkness. Began the final round tied for the lead with Jason Day. Shot a bogey-free, 6-under 66 that resulted in the win. Played his last 66 holes without a bogey, highlighted by clutch birdies at the 71st and 72nd holes. With his 22-under 266 total, got to 60-under par at TPC Louisiana, dating to the 2012 event (16 rounds). The win in New Orleans was his first victory without his wife in the gallery. But as a Zurich Ambassador, said his "many friends with the title sponsor helped greatly in her absence."...Held the 54-hole lead at the Memorial Tournament but dropped into a playoff with David Lingmerth after shooting a final-round, even-par 72. Lost on the third playoff hole when he couldn't match Lingmerth's par. Was looking to pick up his second win at Muirfield Village, the site where he captured his maiden PGA TOUR victory, in 2010. Ran his streak to 183 consecutive holes without a three-putt before he three-putted No. 7 in the final round...Posted four under-par rounds to T6 (four shots behind eventual champion Zach Johnson) at St. Andrews for his first top-10 finish at The Open Championship since a T4 showing in his inaugural appearance in 1998...The defending champion finished T4 in his bid to become the first three-time Quicken Loans National champion. Entered the final round of the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational in a tie for the lead with Jim Furyk in a bid to win his second World Golf Championships event. Finished T3 after a final-round 72. BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T4—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship, U.S. Open; T10—The Open Championship.

2014-15 SEASON:

Of 11 made cuts in 14 starts through the Wyndham Championship, amassed three top-10 PGA TOUR finishes and earned a return trip to the FedExCup Playoffs for a ninth consecutive season. A missed cut at The Barclays kept him outside the top 100 who advanced to the following week's

Deutsche Bank Championship, site of his first TOUR win in the event's inaugural year of 2003. Season marked just his third missed start at TPC Boston (2005 and 2009)... Started slowly at the BetEasy Masters on the PGA Tour of Australasia in November 2014. Fired an opening, 1-over 73 at Metropolitan GC. Was 9-under the rest of the way (68-71-68) but couldn't catch Nick Cullen, who won the event by one shot. Settled for a T2 with Josh Younger and James Nitties. For the second consecutive week, was in contention in his homeland, this time at the Emirates Australian Open in Sydney. Finished solo fifth after a slow start. Shot an opening, 2-over 74 then recovered with rounds of 66-69-71. Still finished a distant nine shots behind winner Jordan Spieth... In defense of his Australian PGA Championship in December 2014, finished regulation tied with Wade Ormsby and Greg Chalmers at RACV Royal Pines Resort Gold Coast. Watched as Ormsby dropped out of the extra session on the fourth extra hole then lost to Chalmers on the seventh playoff hole when he three-putted for bogey from 20 feet... Finished T4 in his 14th start at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship, his fifth top-10 in the event... Using a conventional putter, finished the week 12th in Strokes Gained: Putting (+0.775 per round) and had 114 total putts... With caddie Stevie Williams back on his bag, posted the round of the week at the U.S. Open at Chambers Bay, with a final-round, 6-under 64, moving from T19 to T4. It marked the lowest final-round score at the U.S. Open since Vijay Singh and Tom Kite shot the same score at Southern Hills in 2001, and it equaled his best round in a major, set previously during the first-round of the 2012 Open Championship. The 64 marked just his fourth sub-70 score in 44 U.S. Open rounds, with his previous-low round a 67 during the second round in 2014. Entered Sunday seven strokes behind the four co-leaders and had hopes of equaling Arnold Palmer (seven strokes in 1960) for the largest come-from-behind victory in U.S. Open history. Played the final 23 holes at Chambers Bay without a bogey... Sitting at 15-under with just five holes to play, appeared in good position to hoist the claret jug until a disastrous finish (bogey-bogey-par-bogey-double bogey) led to a T10 finish at The Open Championship. It was his fourth consecutive top-10 at the event. Had four top-10 finishes in his first 39 major championship starts, but has since added 11 in his last 19 starts, including his victory at the 2013 Masters Tournament... Went 1-2-2 in his four Presidents Cup matches in the International team's 15 1/2-14 1/2 loss in South Korea.

PERSONAL:

Golf hero is countryman Greg Norman, who along with former coach Butch Harmon, urged him to play several seasons on the European Tour.

BEST PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH:

T4—2015 U.S. Open

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

T4—U.S. Open; T5—CIMB Classic.

2014-15 SEASON:

Made eight of 13 PGA TOUR cuts, with two top-10s as a non-member on TOUR. Earned Special Temporary Membership during the season and parlayed that into a top-125 finish on the FedExCup points list as a non-member to earn PGA TOUR membership for the 2015-16 season...Began his season in February, playing on the PGA Tour of Australasia. Opened with a 1-under 69 at the Queensland PGA Championship and then moved into a tie for sixth at the halfway mark after shooting a 66 at the City GC Toowoomba. Was two shots off Tim Hart and Matthew Millar's 54-hole lead and made a run at victory with a final-round, 7-under 63 that wasn't quite enough as Ryan Fox shot a 62 to take the one-stroke victory. Finished T2 with Millar...Three weeks later, finished T4 at the New Zealand Open at The Hills GC's Hills and Millbrook Courses. Was a distant eight strokes behind 36-hole leader David Bransdon. Fired a third-round 64, the best round of the day, to jump into contention. Added a Sunday 66 that left him T4 with Brad Kennedy, four shots behind winner Jordan Zunic...Earned a spot in the field at the Sanderson Farms Championship because of the T5 he enjoyed in his PGA TOUR debut at the CIMB Classic. Started Sunday tied for ninth and moved up with a final-round 68 (to go with three other under-par rounds) at Kuala Lumpur G&CC...His T4 finish at the U.S. Open opened the door to accept Special Temporary Membership for the remainder of the 2014-15 PGA TOUR season with a total of 334 non-member FedExCup points. To earn Special Temporary Membership status, needed to earn more points than the player who finished No. 150 on the 2013-14 FedExCup points list (323 by Johnson Wagner). Following Chambers Bay, he became eligible to accept unlimited sponsor exemptions for the remainder of his PGA TOUR season in his attempt to earn his 2015-16 TOUR card through the top 125 non-member money list or non-member FedExCup points list. Became a Special Temporary Member at the end of June. Was the only player in the field at Chambers Bay with all four rounds at par or better, as he was attempting to become the first player to win the U.S. Open in his first try since Francis Ouimet in 1913. The T4 finish left him just two strokes behind champion Jordan Spieth.

2014-15 SEASON:

Bounced back from a disappointing 86th-place finish in the 2013-14 FedExCup Playoffs with a 23rd place performance. Made the cut in 22 of 27 starts (just one shy of his career-high 23 made cuts in 2007), with his season highlighted by his seventh PGA TOUR victory (AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am)...Finished T10 at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, posting rounds of 67-68-67-69. Has yet to post a round in the 70s in two career starts at the event. Finished T24 in 2009 (69-66-67-69)...In his ninth start at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, overcame an early bogey at the second hole in the final round with six birdies to post a 5-under 66 and finish T10 with four others...At the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, the 2013 champion began the final round trailing Jim Furyk by a stroke at 18-under. His bogey-free, 5-under 67, his third consecutive 67, was good enough for his second win in the event in three years. His lone bogey in the event came at the par-4 third hole at Pebble Beach in the third round. Early in the week, he expressed concern to media about the reality of possibly not making his way into the upcoming Masters field for the first time since 2008. The win at Pebble Beach assured him of keeping alive his streak of Augusta appearances (later missed the cut in Augusta with rounds of 74-73)...After winning in Pebble Beach, next top-10 came nine starts later, carding four rounds in the 60s to finish T2, one stroke behind champion Chris Kirk at the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. It was his first top-10 in five starts at the event. Led by two strokes at one point in the final round but later missed a 12-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole that would have forced sudden death with eventual champion Kirk...Came back the following week with a T6 finish at the AT&T Byron Nelson, one of three players with top-10 finishes in both DFW events. Closed with matching rounds of 64 to finish six strokes behind champion Steven Bowditch...Kept his strong play going at the U.S. Open, closing with a 2-under 68 to finish solo eighth, four shots behind champion Jordan Spieth...Shot a 7-under 63 in the third round of the Travelers Championship to move into contention. A final-round 71 resulted in a T10 finish...Failed to record a top-10 in his final eight starts, with a T12 at the PGA Championship his best outing. Wrapped up the season with a T22 finish at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.

PERSONAL:

After winning the 2012 FedExCup started the Brandt and Mandy Snedeker Foundation with his wife to benefit children in Middle Tennessee...Older brother Haymes, who was an All-SEC golfer at Mississippi, caddied for Brandt in the 2004 Masters and won "Big Break X" on Golf Channel in 2008. Haymes earned a sponsor's invite to the 2009 Children's Miracle Network Classic, and the brothers were paired together. He finished T60, while Haymes missed the cut... Both were introduced to golf by their maternal grandmother, who managed a golf course in West Plains, Mo...Big fan of Vanderbilt sports teams.

It marked his third top-10 of the season...Had four rounds in the 60s at the Japan Golf Tour's Dunlop Phoenix in late-November 2014. After opening 69-64-68 at Phoenix CC, trailed Hideki Matsuyama by two strokes. Dropped from his tie-for-second position on the final day when he shot a 2-under 69 to T3 with Brendan Jones, a stroke out of the Matsuyama-Hiroshi Iwata playoff that Matsuyama won...Broke free from a crowded leaderboard after 54 holes of the Emirates Australian Open at The Australian GC to capture his first international victory. Shot a final-round 63 that included nine birdies and no bogeys to overwhelm the field and win by six shots. Defeated Rod Pamplung after shooting rounds of 67-72-70-63 in Sydney...The following week, maintained his momentum by overwhelming the field at the Hero World Challenge outside Orlando. Opened with a 6-under 66 at Isleworth G&CC to take the first-round lead and never looked back. Led by two at the halfway mark then took control of the event with a 9-under 63 in the third round. Coasted from there, shooting another 66 on the final day to defeat Henrik Stenson by a tournament-record-breaking 10 shots. His 26-under 262 was also a tournament record, and he became the first wire-to-wire winner in tournament history. The previous margin-of-victory record came courtesy of Tiger Woods in 2007, when he defeated Zach Johnson by seven strokes. Woods also watched his previous tournament 72-hole scoring record disappear (266 at Sherwood CC in 2007)...In his first start at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, posted four sub-par scores (70-68-70-65) to finish at 11-under 273 at TPC Scottsdale, good for a T7 with Freddie Jacobson and Graham DeLaet. Immediately after signing his scorecard Sunday, hopped in a rented SUV with several other PGA TOUR players to attend the Super Bowl between the Seattle Seahawks and New England Patriots in nearby Glendale later that afternoon...Two weeks later, made a charge at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, posting four rounds in the 60s. Recorded back-to-back, 4-under 68s on the weekend at Pebble Beach to claim a T7 with Matt Jones and 54-hole leader Jim Furyk at 16-under 271...Two years after his T7 finish at the Valspar Championship en route to earning Special Temporary Membership to the PGA TOUR, took it to the next level. In 2013, he holed a flop shot on the par-3 17th hole Sunday to help notch the T7. In 2015, that proved to be the pivotal hole to securing his second career PGA TOUR win. Began the final round trailing 54-hole leader Ryan Moore by a stroke at 8-under 205. His 2-under 69 Sunday was good enough to join a playoff with Patrick Reed and 2008 Valspar Championship winner Sean O'Hair. Following pars by the trio on the first two extra holes, sank a 28-foot birdie-2 on the third hole of sudden death, No. 17, to clinch the victory over O'Hair and Reed. Two years earlier, succumbed to Reed in a playoff at the Wyndham Championship. With the win, joined Woods, Sergio Garcia and Robert Gamez as the only players to claim two PGA TOUR titles before age 22...In his next start, at the Valero Texas Open, birdied four of his last five holes Sunday at TPC

San Antonio, but the late charge wasn't enough to catch hometown favorite Jimmy Walker, who won by four strokes. His second-place finish moved the Texas native to No. 4 in the Official World Golf Ranking...A week later, at the Shell Houston Open, picked up right where he left off in San Antonio, taking a three-stroke lead into the final round. En route to a 2-under 70 Sunday, sank a 12-foot par putt on the 72nd hole to join a playoff with J.B. Holmes and 2008 Shell Houston Open winner Johnson Wagner. When he couldn't salvage a par on the first extra hole, No. 18, dropped from the overtime session. Would head into the Masters the following week with a win and two runner-up finishes in his three starts leading up to Augusta. Had his parents and sister in the gallery for the first time when he had a real chance at victory...Led the Masters Tournament by four shots over Justin Rose entering the final round before shooting a 2-under 70 to win by four shots over Phil Mickelson and Rose to claim the fifth wire-to-wire victory in the event's history. Since 1900, joins Woods, Gene Sarazen, and Tom Creavy as players to win three PGA TOUR events, with at least one major, before turning age 22 since 1900. Became the third different player (Woods and Sergio Garcia) since 1940 to win three times on the PGA TOUR before reaching their 22nd birthdays. Also became the second-youngest winner of the Masters behind Woods (1997). Is the first player to reach 19-under at any point during any Masters' round. Is the first player to begin his Masters career with eight consecutive par-or-better rounds. Tied Woods (1997) for the best 72-hole score at the tournament (270, 18-under). Broke Raymond Floyd and Woods' 54-hole scoring record with a 16-under 200. Shot a 130 to break Floyd's (1976) Masters' record for low first 36 holes by one shot. Tied the lowest opening 36-hole score in a major championship, joining Martin Kaymer (2014 U.S. Open and 2014 Open Championship), Brandt Snedeker (2012 Open Championship) and Nick Faldo (1992 Open Championship). Matched the largest 36-hole lead at the Masters (five shots) originally set by Herman Keiser (1946), Jack Nicklaus (1975) and Floyd (1976). All four players went on to win. Is the youngest 18-hole leader (2015) and 54-hole leader (2014) in Masters' history. With 28, recorded the most birdies by any player at the Masters. Became the fifth wire-to-wire winner, along with Craig Wood (1941), Arnold Palmer (1960), Nicklaus (1972) and Floyd (1976). Improved

Is the 13th-youngest major championship winner since 1900...Local favorite opened with a share of the first-round lead at the Crowne Plaza Invitational following a 6-under 64. Slipped to a 3-over 73 on day two but stormed back with weekend rounds of 67-65 (including a 19-foot birdie on the 72nd hole) to finish one stroke behind champion Chris Kirk. Only bogey of the final round came at the par-3 16th hole, where he saw a streak of 183 holes without a three-putt come to an end...Jumped 21 spots on the Memorial Tournament leaderboard on Sunday, thanks to a final-round 7-under 65, finishing solo third in his third Muirfield Village start. Finished his round just under two and a half hours before the final group completed play...Posted a 1-under 69 during the final round of the U.S. Open, bouncing back from a double bogey on the 71st hole with a two-putt birdie on the last to finish 5-under 275, one stroke clear of Louis Oosthuizen and Dustin Johnson. Had to wait for the final group to play before he could claim his fourth TOUR win after Dustin Johnson three-putted from just over 12 feet. Entered the final round in a four-way tie for the lead but emerged to become just the sixth player to win the Masters Tournament and U.S. Open in the same season, joining Woods (2002), Nicklaus (1972), Palmer (1960), Ben Hogan (1951, 1953) and Wood (1941). Overall, is the 16th to win the green jacket and U.S. Open in a career. In addition, became the youngest player to win two majors since Gene Sarazen in 1922, the youngest to win the U.S. Open since Bobby Jones in 1923 (ninth youngest overall) and the first player since Rory McIlroy (2014 Open Championship, 2014 PGA Championship) to win two majors in one year. Joined Woods as the only two players since 1940 with four wins before age 22 (21 years, 10 months, 25 days compared to Woods winning his fourth title at the Masters at age 21 years, 3 months, 14 days). With the victory, became the first U.S. Open champion from Texas since Tom Kite in 1992 and the first Texan to lead after 54 holes and win the U.S. Open since Hogan in 1953. Recorded the sixth consecutive win in a major by the 54-hole leader. Also held a share of the second-round lead.

His victory marked the fifth consecutive major championship title by a player under 30, the best streak since 1924... Defeated Tom Gillis on the second playoff hole at the John Deere Classic to earn his second win at the tournament while claiming his fourth win of the season. Became the first player to win four times in a season before The Open Championship since Woods won five times in 2000. Converted the 54-hole lead in his last three wins, the Masters Tournament, the U.S. Open and John Deere Classic. Became the eighth different player to win four or more times in a season in the last 25 years, dating to the 1991 season. Recorded a career-low 10-under 61 Saturday at TPC Deere Run, including a personal best two eagles in one round...Made a gallant run but finished T4 and was just one stroke shy of the playoff at The Open Championship in his bid to win the first three legs of the Grand Slam. With three rounds in the 60s at St. Andrews, has posted 10 of 12 rounds under par in majors this season, with a third-round 1-over 71 at Chambers Bay and third-round 72 this week mark the only exceptions. The T4 finish came in his third Open Championship start...Turned in his 14th top-10 of the season after a final-round 66 left him T10 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational...Finished second at the PGA Championship at Whistling Straits. By virtue of that performance and McIlroy finishing outside the top six (17th), overtook the world's No. 1 spot in the Official World Golf Ranking at age 22 years, 20 days. Claimed the world's top spot after 71 PGA TOUR starts, making him the 18th player to hold the No. 1 position and second-youngest, behind Woods, to ever achieve the feat. With his solo second at the year's final major championship, became just the third player since 2005 to claim top-five finishes in each of a season's four majors (Rickie Fowler in 2014 and Woods in 2005). With scores of 71-67-65-68 (17-under), played the season's 16 major championship rounds in a combined 54-under par. With his four sub-par scores in Wisconsin, completed the season's four majors with 14 rounds of sub-par scores, 11 of them in the 60s...Entered East Lake GC for the season finale at No. 2 in the FedExCup standings before walking away with a four-shot win in the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. Became the youngest winner of the FedExCup and of the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, at age 22 years, 2 months. Claimed his sixth PGA TOUR win in his 83rd PGA TOUR start and notched his fifth victory of the season, becoming the sixth player since 1980 to win five or more times in a season: Tom Watson (1980), Nick Price (1994), Vijay Singh (2004), Woods (1999-2003, 2005-07, 2009 and 2013) and Jason Day (2014-15). Broke the PGA TOUR record for most money won in a season, with $12,030,465. Singh (2004) held the previous record ($10,905,166). Is the third player to win the U.S. Open and TOUR Championship in the same year, joining Curtis Strange (1988) and Retief Goosen (2004). Win in Atlanta returned him to No. 1 in the Official World Golf Ranking, marking the first time that the No. 1-ranked player in the Official World Golf Ranking has changed in six consecutive weeks...Went 3-2-0 in his five Presidents Cup matches in the American team's 15 1/2-14 1/2 victory in South Korea.

2014-15 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season having played all 25 tournaments. Recorded four top-10s, eight top-25s and 12 made cuts. Was 18th in the final priority-ranking order... Opened with top-25 finishes of T21 in Panama and T17 in Colombia... First top-10 performance came in June in Wichita at the Air Capital Classic. Opened with a 67-66 to keep pace with the leaders, two back after 36 holes. Reeled off five consecutive birdies near the end of Saturday's third round for a 67. Was T3, three back. Started the final round with birdies on two of the first three holes but fell back with a double bogey on the final hole, dropping him to T9. Reached 58th place on the money list, his highest mark since March... Would miss five cuts in a row entering the Regular Season finale in Portland, leaving him at No. 81 and outside the Finals cutline of 75th place. A 68-66 start at Pumpkin Ridge had him in contention and projected to finish in the top 75. A third-round 71 was cause for concern. A timely 67 Sunday allowed him (and runner-up Tim Herron) to bump Scott Parel and Drew Scott out of the top 75 and secure a place in the Finals, at No. 69... Opened the Web.com Tour Finals two weeks later with more solid play at the Hotel Fitness Championship. Recorded four sub-par rounds, resulting in an eight-place finish. The following week at the Small Business Connection Championship at River Run, opened with a 9-under 63 that included a back-nine 29, giving him a two-shot lead. A second-round 65 was good enough to maintain his lead by one. Rounds of 73-71 on the weekend dropped him to a fifth-place finish... Withdrew from the third Finals' event in Columbus, Ohio, the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship... Closed the Finals with a T18 at the Web.com Tour Championship.

PERSONAL:

Remembers attending the PGA TOUR's Travelers Championship in Hartford as a child... Favorite websites are deadspin.com and foxnews.com... Not many people know that he is afraid of flying... Would like to switch places with the director of the CIA for a day.

2014-15 SEASON:

After opening the event with an even-par 71 on the West Course of the Royal Johannesburg & Kensington GC, followed with rounds of 65-68-66 to take the victory over 54-hole leader Walie Coetsee and David Howell, Kevin Phelan, Jaco Van Zyl and Anthony Wall. The victory qualified him for his first Open Championship...Added a T6 in early July at the Open de France, with three others at Le Golf National.

Web.com Tour Graduate (2015)

BEST PGA TOUR CAREER FINISH:
T70—2014 Northern Trust Open.

2014-15 SEASON:

Finished the Web.com Tour season having played all 25 tournaments. Had one runner-up, three top-10s, nine top-25s and 18 cuts made. Was 33rd in the final priority-ranking order...Matched his career-best showing with a runner-up effort at the season-opening Panama Claro Championship in February. Held the 36-hole lead and was just one back after 54 holes. Stormed to the front with three birdies on the front nine on Sunday, which put him at 11-under and one in front of eventual winner Mathew Goggin. Stumbled coming in with bogeys at Nos. 10, 12, 14 and 16 to lose the lead. Held on for solo second at the Panama GC, finishing at 7 under, four back of Goggin...Good form followed Panama with five consecutive cuts made through the end of March...Entered the third round of the Rex Hospital Open in May five strokes off the pace. Vaulted to the top of the leaderboard with a career-low 62 that included two bogeys. Held a two-stroke advantage after 54 holes. Struggled on Sunday and completed the final round with nine consecutive pars. Carded an even-par 71, missing the playoff by two shots. Settled for a T6...Traveled to Canada in July with hopes of earning his first Tour victory when he entered the final round tied for the lead with five others. Held the outright lead through the first nine holes. Two bogeys on back-nine par-3s proved costly, resulting in a T6. Climbed back to No. 14 on the money list through the Rex event...Indifferent play the rest of July and August dropped him to No. 25 heading to the last Regular Season event...At that event, the WinCo Foods Portland Open, overcame a dreadful start, playing his first seven holes in 4-over. Righted the ship with a 32 on the back nine. Would go on to shoot 69-73-70 and finish T47—making a crucial birdie on his 71st hole—to grab the 25th and final card by $943 over Rob Oppenheim. Did so but not without having to withstand an anxious four-hour wait for the leaders to finish. When Dicky Pride hung on to beat Tim Herron, he was on his way to the Finals and soon thereafter the PGA TOUR...In the Finals, recorded top-25 finishes in the first three events, a T22 at the Hotel Fitness Championship to start the Finals...Was T16 at both the Small Business Connection Championship at River Run, near his hometown of Gastonia, N.C., and the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship...Missed the cut at the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship, near his new home base of Jacksonville Beach, Fla.

PERSONAL:

Looks up to his father, who bought him a set of clubs at age two...Favorite athlete is LeBron James...If he were not playing golf, would want to be "the best NBA player in the world"...Tiger Woods, Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer would round out his dream foursome...Favorite golf course he has played is Pebble Beach GL...Known for his long-drive ability...Driver headcover is the ECU Pirate mascot...Biggest thrill in golf is competing in a tournament with a chance to win.

Finished T45 and T44 at The Barclays and Deutsche Bank Championship, respectively, ending his season at No. 87 in the FedExCup standings...The 2008 Shell Houston Open champion returned to the GC of Houston, playing on a sponsor exemption, where he almost punched his ticket to the Masters for a second time via winning the Shell Houston Open. enough to force sudden death with Spieth and J.B. Holmes. On the 72nd hole, drained a 25-foot birdie putt to post the 69. After Spieth dropped out of the extra session on the first hole, No.18, the playoff continued, and he missed a 7-foot par putt back at 18 on the second extra hole to keep the playoff alive. BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

1—Sony Open in Hawaii, Valero Texas Open; 2—Hyundai Tournament of Champions, T2—T&T Byron Nelson; T4—Shriners Hospitals for Children Open; T7—Farmers Insurance Open.

2014-15 SEASON:

Enjoyed another solid year on the PGA TOUR, highlighted by a pair of wins and four additional top-10 finishes. Advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs for a sixth consecutive season and through to the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola for a second season. Following a T18 finish at East Lake GC in Atlanta, ended his season ranked 16th in the FedExCup standings... Early in the season, posted a final-round, 2-under 69 to finish T4 at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, five strokes behind champion Ben Martin. Highlight of the week was a third-round, 9-under 62 that equaled his career-best round on TOUR. After missing the cut in his first three starts at the event, has followed with three consecutive top-15s, including a T10 in 2012 and a T12 in 2013... Entered the final round of the Hyundai Tournament of Champions tied with Hideki Matsuyama for the tournament lead at 17-under 202 and then held a three-stroke lead at one point on the back nine. Was unable to make birdies on the final eight holes, with a bogey on the par-4 14th and pars on the other seven holes leading to a playoff with eventual champion Patrick Reed (who birdied the first playoff hole from 19 feet, 6 inches). The runner-up finish came in his second start at the event, finishing T21 in 2014, with rounds of 73-73-67-72. Was trying to become the fifth player to win both the Hyundai Tournament of Champions and the Sony Open in Hawaii while both events have been contested in Hawaii (Jim Furyk, 1996 Sony; 2001 Tournament of Champions; Ernie Els, 2003-04 Sony; 2003 Tournament of Champions; Vijay Singh, 2005 Sony; 2007 Tournament of Champions; Zach Johnson, 2009 Sony, 2014 Tournament of Champions)... Bounced back the following week by turning in a dominating performance in successfully defending his title at the Sony Open in Hawaii by a tournament-record nine strokes. With rounds of 66-66-62-63, finished 23-under par (just one shy of Russell Henley's record in 2013), winning by nine strokes over Scott Piercy. The margin of victory is the largest on TOUR since Brian Gay won the 2009 RBC Heritage by 10 strokes. Joined Ryan Moore as players to have successfully defended their titles this season, with Moore achieving the feat at the CIMB Classic in November 2014. Closing 36-hole score of 15-under 125 supplanted the previous-best of 126 at the Sony Open in Hawaii, posted by David Toms, who did it en route to his 2006 victory. Earned his fourth career PGA TOUR victory at age 36 years, 2 days in his 219th career TOUR start. Is the first player to lose a playoff one week and win the next since Kyle Stanley at the 2012 Farmers Insurance Open and the Waste Management Phoenix Open. Other superlatives included extending his streak of consecutive rounds in the 60s in Hawaii to 12 and rounds in the 60s at Waialae CC to 13, posting 12 consecutive rounds in the 60s on TOUR (dating to the first round of the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. At a cumulative 40-under at the Sony Open in Hawaii, is 68-under in Hawaii's two PGA TOUR events (Hyundai Tournament of Champions). Extended the stretch of American-born players to win the Sony Open in Hawaii to seven. The last international winner of the event was K.J. Choi in 2008. Finished T7 at the Farmers Insurance Open for his fourth top-10 of the season... Became the TOUR's first multiple winner of the 2014-15 season when he prevailed by four strokes over Jordan Spieth at the Valero Texas Open. It was his fifth career victory, and he became the fourth San Antonio-area resident to win the event. Just one of two players in the field to post four sub-par rounds, (Spieth the other), was also the 18th player with ties to Texas to win the event. Birdied 12 of the TPC San Antonio's AT&T Oaks Course

16 par-5s during the tournament... Finished runner-up for the second time this season, at the AT&T Byron Nelson. It was also the third second-place showing of his career. Closed the event at 14-under 263, four shots behind champion Steven Bowditch. Was seeking to become the 11th player on TOUR since 1970 with three or more wins in back-to-back seasons. The list includes Tiger Woods, Singh, David Duval, Nick Price, Curtis Strange, Tom Watson, Raymond Floyd, Jack Nicklaus, Johnny Miller and Lee Trevino. Had found little success at the AT&T Byron Nelson until the runner-up finish. Despite seven made cuts in nine previous starts, had yet to crack the top 20 until this year, with a T23 in 2009 his best showing... Went 1-3-0 in his four Presidents Cup matches in the American team's 15 1/2-14 1/2 victory in South Korea.

PERSONAL:

Learned the game from his father, who was a scratch golfer... Met his wife, Erin, at a Web.com Tour event in 2004, where she was a tournament volunteer. Wife is competitive in equestrian competitions. Father-in-law, Mark Stiegemeyer, was the 1975 world champion in freestyle skiing.

Made 17 of 19 cuts with 10 top-10s and two wins and a No. 5 finish in the final FedExCup standings for the second consecutive season...Eagled the 72nd hole by holing out from the bunker at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions to get into a playoff with Tim Clark. Birdied the first extra hole at Sheshan International GC to defeat Clark and earn his first World Golf Championships' victory. Entered Sunday two strokes off the lead but moved into contention by carding a final-round 70. The win was the fifth come-from-behind triumph of his TOUR career...

Second top-10 of the season came with a 10th-place finish at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, finishing six strokes behind Patrick Reed. Shot rounds of 70-69-68 leading up to the final day, with the third-round 68 his best score in 15 rounds at The Plantation Course...Opened and closed with 6-under 65s at the Waste Management Phoenix Open to claim a T2 at TPC Scottsdale with Ryan Palmer and Hideki Matsuyama. Came to the 72nd hole Sunday with a chance to force sudden death but missed a 22-foot birdie putt to extend play. For the week, was 8-under on the four par-5s. The finish marked the second consecutive T2 in the event and was his third top-five outing at TPC Scottsdale since 2012 (T5 in 2012)...In search of his eighth PGA TOUR victory and second of the season (World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions), finished third at the Cadillac Championship in his bid to join Tiger Woods as the only players to win back-to-back World Golf Championships events. Along with this performance, has two other top-three finishes in five starts at the Cadillac Championship (72nd in 2009, second in 2012, T18 in 2013 and T2 in 2014)...At the Travelers Championship in late-June, made just his third bogey of the week on the par-4 17th hole to open the door for what would become extra holes with England's Paul Casey at TPC River Highlands. On the second extra hole, No. 18, secured the victory with a birdie-3. Has converted five of six playoff appearances into victories. His only three bogeys of the week came at the par-3 16th Thursday, the par-4 12th Saturday and the par-4 17th Sunday. The last winner of the Travelers Championship with fewer bogeys was Freddie Jacobson in 2011, who had just one blemish on his card. Win tied him with Mike Weir for the second-most wins by a lefthanded player on TOUR. Mickelson leads that group, with 42 titles...At the RBC Canadian Open, played Glen Abbey GC's final three holes in 11-under for the week en route to a solo-second finish, one stroke behind Jason Day. Noted to media early in the week that with his wife, Angie, being Canadian, he may have some extra luck. En route to his Travelers Championship win earlier in the season, was paired in the final round with Canadian Graham DeLaet. In the final round of the RBC Canadian Open, was paired with Canadian David Hearn, the 54-hole leader...Finished solo third at The Barclays (eight strokes behind champion Day) for his eighth top-10 finish of the season. PERSONAL:

He and his wife, Angie, adopted their son (Caleb) on March 26, 2012 and adopted their daughter (Dakota) in December of 2014. ...Formed the Bubba Watson Foundation in January 2014. The foundation's mission is to enhance the everyday lives of people in need, placing a particular emphasis on helping and inspiring children, young adults and those associated with the U.S. military. ...Also created Bubba's Bash, an annual charity concert comprised of artists of varying genres and guest speakers who share a love of God. ...Sponsors the Bubba Watson Invitational at the University of West Florida, a women's NCAA Division II golf tournament at Stonebrook Village GC. ...Recognized his responsibility as a role model to kids by returning to the University of Georgia to complete his degree without telling family or friends. Wanted to encourage kids to get an education and pursue their dreams. ...Dedicated his 2010 Travelers Championship win to his wife and father, Gerry, who was battling lung cancer and later passed away in October of 2010. Father was a lieutenant in the Green Berets' Special Forces during the Vietnam War and was honored prior to the clinic for his military service with a plaque presented to him by Gen. Steven Duff, commander of U.S. Army Special Forces Command (Airborne) at Fort Bragg, N.C. "It's special. With my dad's situation, it's brought to my heart that the military is much more important than what we do for a living. So I needed to do something for the Green Berets and bring light to the Pensacola area." ...Self-taught player who learned the game by hitting wiffle balls around his house. "The house was probably an acre-and-a-half yard with big trees in downtown Bagdad (Fla). The house is sitting here, and I drew in the dirt driveway. I'd draw a big circle, and that would be my hole, a 5-foot circle. I'd go around it to the left and then I'd go around it to the right. So I learned to cut it. If you know about wiffle balls or plastic balls, it's hard to cut. Then I learned to hook it the other way, hit it high over limbs, hit it low under limbs. I'd say non-stop every day from 6 to 12 years old. Instead of playing with trucks out in the yard, I'd play with a ball and a club." ...His most impressive drive came at the Waste Management Phoenix Open in 2012

when he showed up at TPC Scottsdale driving the "General Lee," one of the original Dodge Chargers from the 1980s TV show "The Dukes of Hazzard" that he purchased at the Barrett Jackson car show. ...Attended the same high school—Milton (Fla.) High School—as PGA TOUR players Heath Slocum and Boo Weekley. ...Wife is 6-foot-4 and a former University of Georgia, WNBA and European professional basketball player. ...In 2015 became a part owner of the Pensacola Blue Wahoos, a minor-league baseball team (Cincinnati Reds Double-A team) with Quint Studer and Rishy Studer.

Played bogey-free golf on the final day, including a five-birdie performance on his opening nine holes... Turned four par-or-better rounds at the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship in October into a T4. Weekend rounds of 69-66 at St. Andrews' Old Course left him tied with

PERSONAL:

Broke his collarbone in a skiing accident in 2003. Credits his father with teaching him golf. His younger brother, Niki, is his occasional caddie.

Collected four top-10 finishes in 17 starts, highlighted by a runner-up finish in his home state of Alabama. In his first start in the FedExCup Playoffs, missed the cut at The Barclays. Was forced to withdraw before the start of the following week's Deutsche Bank Championship due to a knee injury. Finished the season ranked 97th in the FedExCup standings...Fired a final-round 67 with seven birdies and two bogeys on the card to jump 28 spots for a T6 finish at the Puerto Rico Open...Started John Deere Classic's final round by holing out for eagle from 113 yards on the 400-yard par-4 No. 1 hole at TPC Deere Run. Finished T8 with three other players...The Birmingham native dropped a 60-foot bomb for birdie on his 72nd hole to claim solo-second at 16-under at the Barbasol Championship in Auburn, Ala. He also birdied No. 17 en route to his final-round, 4-under 67. The runner-up finish betters his previous career-best of T4 from the 2014 Greenbrier Classic. Because of travel delays, was only able to practice on the front nine Tuesday. Because of inclement weather Wednesday, he only got through the front nine again for the pro-am. Thursday's first round was the first time he had seen Grand National's back nine, though it certainly proved no detriment. He played the back nine in 10-under as opposed to 6-under on the front...At the Barracuda Championship that used the Modified Stableford Format, collected his third top-10 finish in four starts, a T10.

BEST CURRENT YEAR PGA TOUR FINISHES:

3—World Golf Championships-Cadillac Match Play; T6—The Open Championship.

2014-15 SEASON:

Made seven of 10 PGA TOUR cuts, with two top-10s as a non-member. Earned Special Temporary Membership during the season and parlayed that into a top 125-finish on the FedExCup points list as a non-member to earn PGA TOUR membership for the 2015-16 season. Ultimately declined the membership...Had a superb week in Sun City, South Africa, in the first week of December 2014. Opened with a 1-under 71 at the Nedbank Golf Challenge at Gary Player CC. Moved into contention in the second round with a 4-under 68 then played his final 36 holes in 13-under to coast to a four-shot victory over Ross Fisher. The win was his second on the European Tour. Was bogey-free over his final 23 holes and only had three bogeys all week...Defeated Jim Furyk, 3 and 2, in the consolation match to finish third in his first start in the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Match Play. Lost to Gary Woodland in the semifinal match, 3 and 2. Turned in a 6-1 match-play record at TPC Harding Park. Had to finish third or better to earn enough FedExCup points to take up Special Temporary Membership on the PGA TOUR. Had 131 non-member FedExCup points entering the Cadillac Match Play and earned 200 points by finishing third to take his season total to 331 points, surpassing the 323 points needed. Back on the European Tour in May, finished T6 at the Dubai Duty Free Irish Open at Royal County Down GC...Had a strong start to The Open Championship in July at St. Andrews'Old Course. Opened 66-69 and held the 36-hole lead at the year's third major championship. Finished 2-under on the weekend (72-70) to fall into a T6 with three others...Picked up his second victory of the season when he was triumphant at the Omega European Masters in July. Entered the final round at Crans-sur-Sierre GC in Switzerland tied with Matthew Fitzpatrick. Fired a Sunday, 5-under 65 which was enough to edge Fitzpatrick by a stroke and a hard-charging Tyrell Hatton, who shot an 8-under 62 to finish two shots back. Was bogey-free, with three of his five birdies coming midway through his back nine (Nos. 13-15)...Turned in four sub-70 rounds in mid-September, at the Open D'Italia to earn a T3 with six others, a stroke out of the Rikard Karlberg-Martin Kaymer playoff. Eagled the par-5 14th hole to move into contention and made birdies at Nos. 16 and 17. But could only manage a par on No. 18 to miss joining the playoff.

Finished the week 6-1 in his matches at TPC Harding Park. Failed to advance beyond the first round in his previous two attempts at the Cadillac Match Play (2012 and 2014). Birdied the par-5 first hole in six of his seven matches (did not birdie it in the semifinal). He also birdied the first hole as the 19th hole during a playoff with Walker. Was looking to notch a win in three different scoring formats on TOUR (match play, Modified Stableford and stroke play)... Finished T4 at the Wells Fargo Championship for his first top-10 in five starts at Quail Hollow Club.

Shriners Hospitals for Children Open

NOTES

Ben Martin, who entered the final round of the 2014 Shriners Hospitals for Children Open with a two-stroke lead over Russell Knox, thanks to a 9-under-par 62 in the third round, carded a final-round 68 to secure a two-stroke victory over Kevin Streelman. Martin's 62 Saturday matched his career-best TOUR round set at the 2014 Zurich Classic of New Orleans.

Ben Martin recorded his first career PGA TOUR victory in his 56th start at age 27 years, 1 month, 23 days. Just one week earlier, Martin shot rounds of 78-79 to miss the cut at the Frys.com Open.

Kevin Streelman, who entered the final day trailing Ben Martin by five strokes, made a final-round charge with a 6-under 65 (including five birdies on his last seven holes) but ultimately finished runner-up by two strokes.

Ben Martin played the final five holes (Nos. 14-18) at TPC Summerlin at 15-under par en route to his first PGA TOUR title.

Defending champion Webb Simpson made a strong title defense, posting four rounds in the 60s to tie for fourth. Thirteen of Simpson's 14 career rounds at TPC Summerlin have been in the 60s, and he has a career scoring average of 66.79 at the event.

Four rounds in the 60s led to a tie for fourth for first-year member Brooks Koepka, his second consecutive top-10 finish to start the season (tied for eighth at the Frys.com Open). Rookies with top-10 finishes at the Shriners event included Tony Finau (tied for seventh) and Adam Hadwin (tied for 10th).

Sanderson Farms Championship

NOTES

PGA TOUR rookie Nick Taylor began the final round of the 2014 Sanderson Farms Championship four strokes off John Rollins' 14-under lead.

Taylor went on to post eight birdies en route to a 6-under 66, resulting in a two-stroke win over Boo Weekley and Jason Bohn. Taylor earned his first career PGA TOUR victory at age 26 years, 6 months, 26 days in his seventh professional PGA TOUR start, his fourth as a TOUR member.

Nick Taylor holed 178 feet of putts in the final round, making seven putts from more than 10 feet and three putts from more than 20 feet. Taylor's total length of putts made in the final round was nearly 100 feet more than the field average of 80 feet, one inch.

Nick Taylor became the first rookie to win on the PGA TOUR since Chesson Hadley won the 2014 Puerto Rico Open. Taylor is also the first Canadian-born player to win on the PGA TOUR since Mike Weir won the 2007 Frys.com Open.

Mackenzie Tour-PGA TOUR Canada alum Nick Taylor became the first player of that Tour's era to win on the PGA TOUR. In 2013, Taylor took advantage of the new relationship between Mackenzie Tour-PGA TOUR Canada and the Web.com Tour by finishing seventh on the 2013 Mackenzie Tour Order of Merit to earn an exemption directly into the final stage of Web.com Tour's Qualifying Tournament. Taylor went on to tie for 11th to earn conditional status on the 2014 Web.com Tour, eventually finishing 37th on the Web.com Tour Finals Priority Ranking to earn his 2014-15 PGA TOUR card.

Nick Taylor's 2014 victory broke a string of 10 consecutive U.S.-born winners at the Sanderson Farms Championship. The last international winner of the event was Luke Donald in 2002.

Former U.S. Amateur champion Peter Uihlein capitalized on the opportunity of a sponsor's exemption tying for fourth, thanks to a final-round 65, the low round of the day Sunday.

Hyundai Tournament of Champions

NOTES

Patrick Reed claimed his fourth PGA TOUR victory in his 72nd start (2013 Wyndham Championship, 2014 CareerBuilder Challenge in partnership with the Clinton Foundation, 2014 World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship and 2015 Hyundai Tournament of Champions).

Jason Day and Chris Kirk turned in the rounds of the week—with both coming in the final round, matching 11-under 62s that equaled the course record at the Plantation Course. Graeme McDowell posted the same score in the final round in 2011, while K.J. Choi carded a 62 in the third round in 2003. Day tied for third, while Kirk tied for 14th. Day's 62 was his career best on TOUR, while Kirk's 62 equaled his career-low TOUR round, set during the second round of the 2013 Sony Open in Hawaii.

Zach Johnson finished solo seventh in his title defense. The last repeat winner at Kapalua was Geoff Ogilvy in 2009-10. Since the event moved to Kapalua in 1999, Stuart Appleby is the only other player to win back to back, doing so in 2004, 2005 and 2006.

With his win, Jimmy Walker earned his fourth career PGA TOUR victory age 36 years, 2 days in his 219th career start on the PGA TOUR. His victory marked his fourth title in his last 32 starts after beginning his career with 187 events without a TOUR win.

The nine-stroke victory for Jimmy Walker broke the tournament record for largest margin of victory (seven strokes), previously held by Paul Azinger (2000) and John Huston (1998). It was the largest since Brian Gay won the 2009 RBC Heritage by 10 strokes.

Jimmy Walker became the first player to successfully defend his Sony Open in Hawaii title since Ernie Els (2003-04), and fourth overall.

Hubert Green won the event in 1978 and 1979, and Corey Pavin won in 1986 and 1987.

Jimmy Walker's win came one week after finishing second via a playoff to Patrick Reed at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions. Walker became the first player to lose in a playoff one week and win the next since Kyle Stanley at the 2012 Farmers Insurance Open and Waste Management Phoenix Open.

Matt Kuchar claimed his fourth consecutive top-10 finish (tied for third). Before this week, he tied for fifth in 2011, tied for fifth in 2013 and tied for eighth in 2014.

NOTES

Brandt Snedeker, the 2013 champion of the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, earned his seventh career PGA TOUR victory at age 34 years, 2 months, 7 days in his 221st career start. The win was his first since the 2013 RBC Canadian Open.

With rounds of 64-67-67-67 for a 22-under-par 265, Brandt Snedeker broke his own 72-hole record of 19-under-par 267, set in 2013.

Brandt Snedeker led the field in Scrambling (92 percent), did not have a three-putt over the 72 holes and did not miss a putt inside five feet (25 of 25). His lone bogey came at the par-4 third hole at Pebble Beach during the third round.

Brandt Snedeker's three-stroke win was the largest margin of victory at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am since Dustin Johnson won by four shots in the 2009 rain-shortened event.

AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am

NOTES

Charlie Beljan, who had missed three cuts in as many starts to begin the season, placed third for his best finish since a playoff loss at the 2013 Northern Trust Open.

The AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am marked the ninth time Jim Furyk failed to convert a 54-hole lead/co-lead in nine tries since his last TOUR victory at the 2010 TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.

Since 2000, the second-round leader/co-leader has held on for the win six times: Brandt Snedeker (2013 and 2015), Jimmy Walker (2014), Dustin Johnson (2010) and Phil Mickelson (2005 and 2007).

Alex Prugh, who finished in an eight-way tie for 10th, posted his second top-10 in as many weeks and his first since the 2010 Frys.com Open (tied for second). Also tying for 10th was Vaughn Taylor, who placed within the top 10 for the first time since his tie-for-10th showing at the 2013 Wells Fargo Championship.

Daniel Berger posted the best finish by a rookie, tying for 10th and earning his second career PGA TOUR top-10 in the process.

The Honda Classic

NOTES

Padraig Harrington, who entered the final round trailing Ian Poulter by three strokes, carded an even-par 70 and then defeated Daniel Berger with a par on the second playoff hole to win The Honda Classic.

This marked the eighth playoff in The Honda Classic's history. It was also the second consecutive playoff after Russell Henley defeated Russell Knox, Rory McIlroy and Ryan Palmer in 2014.

Padraig Harrington's sixth career PGA TOUR title came in his 239th start at age 43 years, 6 months, 2 days, making him the event's oldest winner.

With his victory, Padraig Harrington ended a nearly seven-year winless drought. His last victory came at the 2008 PGA Championship at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Padraig Harrington (also won in 2005) became just the fourth player to win The Honda Classic multiple times. The others are Jack Nicklaus (1977-78), Johnny Miller (1980 and 1983) and Mark Calcavecchia (1987 and 1998).

Padraig Harrington became the first player to win with double bogeys (Nos. 6 and 17) in the final round since Vaughn Taylor won the 2004 Barracuda Championship.

Padraig Harrington became the first sponsor exemption to win since Lee Westwood won the 2010 FedEx St. Jude Classic.

Beginning with Padraig Harrington's win in 2005, an international player has won The Honda Classic eight times in the last 11 years: Padraig Harrington (also won in 2005), Luke Donald (2006), Ernie Els (2008), Y.E. Yang (2009), Camilo Villegas (2010), Rory Sabbatini (2011) and Rory McIlroy (2012).

World Golf Championships— Cadillac Championship

NOTES

Dustin Johnson's five-stroke, come-from-behind victory on the final day is the largest at the Cadillac Championship, topping the previous mark (three strokes) held by Justin Rose in 2012.

With his hole-in-one on the par-3 fourth hole in the third round, Dustin Johnson became the first player to record an ace and win that same week since Steve Stricker at the 2011 Memorial Tournament.

J.B. Holmes, who entered the final round with a five-stroke cushion over Dustin Johnson and Bubba Watson, carded a 3-over 75 to fall into the runner-up position, one stroke behind Johnson.

J.B. Holmes, who last played the Cadillac Championship in 2010, tied the 18-hole tournament record at Trump National Doral's Blue Monster (event moved to the Blue Monster course in 2009) with an opening, 10-under 62. Bubba Watson recorded the other 62 during the second round in 2012. Two other players have posted 62s in tournament history: Sergio Garcia and Retief Goosen, both in the final round of the 2002 tournament at the Mount Juliet Golf Club.

Valspar Championship

NOTES

Jordan Spieth earned his second career PGA TOUR victory in his 65th career start at age 21 years, 7 months, 19 days, after defeating Sean O'Hair and Patrick Reed on the third playoff hole.

SEAN O'HAIR

This marked the Valspar Championship's second playoff. The first occurred in 2012 when Luke Donald defeated Jim Furyk, Robert Garrigus and Sangmoon Bae.

This playoff was the second for Jordan Spieth and Patrick Reed. Reed previously defeated Spieth in a playoff to win the 2013 Wyndham Championship.

With the win, Jordan Spieth became the fourth different player since 1940 to win twice on TOUR before reaching his 22nd birthday: Tiger Woods (six), Sergio Garcia (three) and Robert Gamez (two).

Ryan Moore held a one-shot lead entering the final round and extended his advantage to three after 12 holes. He bogeyed Nos. 13, 16 and 18 to finish in fifth, at 8-under 276. This marked the third time Moore was in sole possession of the 54-hole lead.

Patrick Reed came from four shots behind 54-hole leader Ryan Moore to earn a spot in the playoff. He birdied four holes on the back nine, playing his last nine in 4-under.

Arnold Palmer Invitational

presented by MasterCard

NOTES

Matt Every joined Tiger Woods (2000-03) and Loren Roberts (1994-95) as the only players to win in back-to-back years at the Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by MasterCard. Every, who entered the final round trailing Henrik Stenson by three strokes, carded a final-round, 6-under 66 to edge Stenson by one stroke.

With his second win in his 118th start at age 31 years, 3 months, 18 days, Matt Every became the first player to post his first two career wins at the same event since Boo Weekley won the 2007 and 2008 RBC Heritage.

Henrik Stenson, who led the field in scrambling (88 percent) and ranked first in Strokes Gained: Tee-to-Green (2.843), carded his fourth career runner-up finish.

HENRIK STENSON

First- and second-round leader Morgan Hoffmann sat atop the leaderboard for the first time in 68 career PGA TOUR starts. After rounds of 66-65-71-71, he finished solo fourth for his first top-10 finish since the 2014 BMW Championship.

Both Daniel Berger (third round) and Zach Johnson (final round) recorded double eagles during the tournament, marking the sixth time since 1983 that a stroke-play tournament has seen multiple albatrosses.

Daniel Berger's albatross on the par-5 sixth hole during the third round made him just the third player since 1983 to post a 2, 3, 4 and 5 on four par-5s in a round.

Valero Texas Open

NOTES

Outside the majors, the 36-hole cut of 6-over 150 was the highest cut on the PGA TOUR since the 2012 Quicken Loans National (6-over 148).

Playing in conditions that included 40-mph winds, Dustin Johnson rebounded with rounds of 72-68-68 after an opening 78 to tie for sixth.

After his first shot went into the woods Thursday, Aaron Baddeley, was forced to take an unplayable lie penalty. Unexpectedly, he holed out from the par-4 17th tee (336 yards) to score what was dubbed the "unlikely birdie."

AARON BADDELEY

Chesson Hadley tied for fourth, his best finish since winning the 2014 Puerto Rico Open.

Daniel Summerhays' tie for fourth was his best showing on the TOUR since a tie for second at the 2014 Valero Texas Open.

Tournament Record:

254, Tommy Armour III (2003) (LaCantera GC)

Current Course Record:

63, Matt Every (2012), Martin Laird (2013)

Tournament Course Record:

60, Zach Johnson (2009), Bart Bryant (2004) (LaCantera GC)

Shell Houston Open

NOTES

After entering the final round six shots off the lead, J.B. Holmes birdied his first five holes en route to an 8-under 64 to join a three-man playoff with 54-hole leader Jordan Spieth and 2008 Shell Houston Open champion Johnson Wagner. Spieth dropped out of the playoff on the first hole, and Holmes parred the second playoff hole to win his fourth career PGA TOUR victory in his 210th career start at age 32 years, 11 months, 10 days.

The 2015 playoff marked the 23rd overtime in tournament history, the most for any non-major on the PGA TOUR. It was the second consecutive year with a playoff after Matt Jones defeated Matt Kuchar in a one-hole playoff in 2014.

J.B. Holmes' win was the largest come-from-behind victory (six strokes) on TOUR since the 2014 Shell Houston Open when Matt Jones came from six back to win. The tournament's largest come-from-behind win was seven shots by Mike Sullivan (1989) and Payne Stewart (1995).

With a final-round 64, J.B. Holmes tied the low final-round score at the Shell Houston Open, set 11 previous times and most recently by Pat Perez in 2008. Holmes' 64 was also the lowest by a winner since the tournament moved to the Golf Club of Houston's Tournament Course in 2006.

J.B. Holmes shot 29 on the front nine Sunday, tying Fred Couples (2008) for the front-nine course record at the Golf Club of Houston.

With his third-round, 1-over 73, J.B. Holmes became the first Shell Houston Open champion with an over-par round since Vijay Singh opened with a 74 en route to winning in 2004.

Johnson Wagner, the 2008 Shell Houston Open champion, finished runner-up for his first top-10 since the 2014 John Deere Classic (tied for seventh).

Russell Henley finished solo fourth for his second consecutive top-10 at the Shell Houston Open in three starts. Henley and Johnson Wagner were the only players with all four rounds in the 60s.

Phil Mickelson led the field in Par-5 Scoring Average (4.31) and also led the field in Birdies, with 23.

NOTES

Jim Furyk came from four shots behind third-round leader Troy Merritt to card a final-round 63 and earn a spot in a playoff with Kevin Kisner. Furyk defeated Kisner with a birdie-2 on the second extra hole (No. 17) to win his 17th career title in his 532nd start at age 44 years, 11 months, 7 days. Furyk's last win came at the 2010 TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in his 432nd career TOUR start.

Jim Furyk set the tournament record for the low finish by a winner at the RBC Heritage, with a 63. The previous low was 64 by Brandt Snedeker (2011), Brian Gay (2009) and Stewart Cink (2004).

Kevin Kisner made his third start at the RBC Heritage, missing the cut in 2011 and tying for 38th in 2014.

It was the third time in his career Troy Merritt held a lead on TOUR. He held a share of the lead in the opening round of the 2010 Sony Open in Hawaii (tied for 20th) and led the second and third rounds at the 2015 RBC Heritage.

Matt Kuchar kept a 22-year streak intact as no defending champion has missed the cut at the RBC Heritage since Davis Love III in 1993.

Playing via a sponsor exemption, South Africa's Branden Grace earned his first career top 10 on TOUR in his 35th start.

Jim Furyk became the 10th player to win the RBC Heritage more than once. Multiple winners include Davis Love III (five), Hale Irwin (three) and twice for Johnny Miller, Hubert Green, Tom Watson, Fuzzy Zoeller, Payne Stewart, Stewart Cink and Boo Weekley.

With a 3-over-par 74 in the first round, Jordan Spieth ended a streak of 16 consecutive under-par rounds (and 17 consecutive par-or-better rounds). He rebounded in the second round, with a 9-under 62, jumping 86 spots on the leaderboard. Spieth ultimately tied for 11th in his third start at the RBC Heritage (tied for 12th in 2014 and tied for ninth in 2013).

NOTES

Rickie Fowler finished birdie-eagle-birdie-birdie to shoot a final-round 66 and finish at 12-under par to enter a three-hole aggregate playoff with Kevin Kisner and Sergio Garcia. Fowler finished the three-hole playoff tied with Kisner, at 1-under par. With Garcia eliminated (par-par-par), Fowler and Kisner advanced to sudden-death at the 17th hole, where Fowler's tee shot landed 4 feet, 8 inches from the hole. Kisner's par and Fowler's birdie gave the 26-year-old his second career PGA TOUR win. In regulation, Fowler played holes 15, 16, 17 and 18 in a 5-under-par total of 11 strokes. The four-hole score of 11 set a new low for the score on the final four holes at TPC Sawgrass in a round in tournament history. Previously, seven players had finished with a score of 12 on the final four holes.

Rickie Fowler becomes the first winner on the PGA TOUR to play holes 15-18 in 5-under in the final round of any event since the PGA TOUR began tracking hole-by-hole scores in 1983.

Rickie Fowler played the 17th hole six times, including the two playoff holes, and recorded five birdies on those six attempts. Fowler's proximity to the hole on No. 17 the three times he played it on Sunday's final round: Regulation: 6 feet, 10 inches. Aggregate: 6 feet, 5 inches. Sudden death: 4 feet, 8 inches.

Sergio Garcia tied for second for his sixth top-10 finish in 16 starts at THE PLAYERS, including a victory in 2008, runner-up in 2007, third in 2014, tied for fourth in 2002 and tied for eighth in 2013.

Making his first start at THE PLAYERS Championship, Kevin Kisner birdied the final three holes in search of his first PGA TOUR victory in his 92nd career start. He was attempting to join Tim Clark (2010) and Craig Perks (2002) as players who have made THE PLAYERS their first career win. Aside from the inaugural event, Hal Sutton (1983) and Perks (2002) are the only players to win THE PLAYERS in their first start at the event.

This marked the second career playoff for Kevin Kisner. He lost to Jim Furyk at the RBC Heritage three weeks prior to THE PLAYERS Championship.

Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial

NOTES

With a final-round, 4-under 66, Chris Kirk erased a three-stroke deficit to 54-hole leader Kevin Na to win the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. Kirk edged local favorite Jordan Spieth and Brandt Snedeker and Jason Bohn by one stroke for his fourth career PGA TOUR title. It was Kirk's 132nd TOUR start at age 30 years, 16 days.

With his victory, Chris Kirk became the first player to win the Ben Hogan Award (2007) and Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial. The Ben Hogan Award, which Kirk received in 2007, is given annually at Colonial Country Club to the amateur player who combines academic excellence with an equally respectable amateur golf pedigree.

Brandt Snedeker held the lead by two strokes at one point during the final round but missed a 12-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole, which would have forced sudden death with eventual champion Chris Kirk.

For the fourth time out of five career attempts, Kevin Na failed to convert a 54-hole lead. Na, who began the final round with a one-stroke lead, birdied the first two holes before three bogeys and a double bogey at the par-4 ninth resulted in a 2-over 72 and tie for 10th.

Defending champion Adam Scott posted an even-par 70 in the final round to finish at 6-under 274, good for a tie for 24th.

Chris Kirk became the seventh consecutive come-from-behind winner of the Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, joining Steve Stricker (2009), Zach Johnson (2010), David Toms (2011), Zach Johnson (2012), Boo Weekley (2013) and Adam Scott (2014) as winners who trailed through 54 holes.

NOTES

The 54-hole leader/co-leader has won four times in the last eight years at the AT&T Byron Nelson:

Adam Scott (2008), Jason Dufner (2012), Brendon Todd (2014) and Steven Bowditch (2015).

After going out in 1-over 36, Charley Hoffman recorded five birdies on his closing nine for a 4-under 65 in the final round to finish runner-up. In 2015, Hoffman tied for no worse than 11th in the four Texas events: Valero Texas Open (tied for 11th), Shell Houston Open (tied for 11th), Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial and AT&T Byron Nelson (tied for second).

Playing in the final group Sunday, PGA TOUR rookie Scott Pinckney carded a 3-under 66 to tie for second, his best performance in 20 career PGA TOUR starts. This also marked the first tournament Pinckney carded all four rounds in the 60s.

Jimmy Walker cracked the top 20 for the first time in 10 starts at the AT&T Byron Nelson. His first-round 64 is the best opening round in the event.

In his third appearance at the AT&T Byron Nelson (and first since 2005), Zach Johnson fired a final-round 6-under 63, that included a bogey on No. 9.

Danny Lee, a resident of Irving, Texas, aced the par-3 17th hole with a 5-iron from 190 yards, then eagled the par-5 No. 7, en route to a first-round 3-under 67. The hole-in-one was Lee's second on the PGA TOUR.

Tying for 30th, Jordan Spieth made the cut for the fifth consecutive year at the AT&T Byron Nelson. Through 20 rounds at TPC Four Seasons, his scoring average is 69.75. Spieth made his PGA TOUR debut at the AT&T Byron Nelson in 2010 when he was 16, tying for 16th.

NOTES

Sweden's David Lingmerth overcame a three-stroke deficit in the final round to finish at 3-under 69 to force sudden death with 2010 Memorial Tournament champion Justin Rose. Lingmerth's subsequent par on the third extra hole (No. 10) was enough to claim his first career PGA TOUR title in his 68th start, at age 27 years, 10 months, 16 days.

JUSTIN ROSE

In his bid to become the seventh player to win the Memorial Tournament more than once, Justin Rose fell victim to David Lingmerth. This marked Rose's 11th start at the Memorial Tournament, where he has recorded five other top-10s. He won in 2010, tied for second in 2008, was fourth in 2004, finished solo-eighth in 2012 and tied for eighth in 2013.

David Lingmerth became the ninth international player to win the Memorial Tournament and second Swede behind Carl Pettersson, who won in 2006.

The ninth player from Sweden to win on the PGA TOUR, David Lingmerth joined Jesper Parnevik, Carl Pettersson, Henrik Stenson, Gabriel Hjertstedt, Daniel Chopra, Jonas Blixt, Freddie Jacobson and Richard S. Johnson.

David Lingmerth became the ninth player since 2000 to come from behind in the final round to win. He began the final round three strokes behind Justin Rose at 12-under 204. The biggest come-from-behind victory at this tournament was five strokes achieved by three players: David Edwards (1992), Jim Furyk (2002) and K.J. Choi (2007).

U.S. Open

NOTES

Jordan Spieth recorded a 5-under 275 for a one-stroke victory over Dustin Johnson and Louis Oosthuizen. With his win earlier in the 2014-15 PGA TOUR season at the Masters Tournament, Spieth became the sixth player to win the Masters and U.S. Open in the same season.

Jason Day, Dustin Johnson, Branden Grace and Jordan Spieth entered the final round tied at the top of the leaderboard, at 4-under 206. It marked the second time in U.S. Open history four players shared the 54-hole lead. Previously, Arnold Palmer, Jerry Heard, Julius Boros and John Schlee shared the lead heading into the final round at the 1973 U.S. Open, a tournament won by Johnny Miller.

With a chance to win his first major championship on the 72nd hole in his 25th major start, Dustin Johnson three-putted for par to tie for second, his ninth top-10 in a major championship. Johnson opened the tournament with a 5-under 65, his best score in all 25 majors starts.

In the final round, Louis Oosthuizen (tied for second) birdied Nos. 12-16 and No. 18 to close with a 29, equaling Neal Lancaster (twice) and Vijay Singh for the lowest nine-hole score in U.S. Open history.

Seven of 13 past U.S. Open champions (18 wins) in the field made the cut: Justin Rose (tied for 27th), Rory McIlroy (tied for ninth), Webb Simpson (tied for 46th), Geoff Ogilvy (tied for 18th), Jim Furyk (tied for 42nd), Ernie Els (tied for 54th) and Angel Cabrera (tied for 64th).

Adam Scott, who entered the final round seven strokes off the leaders' pace, carded a 6-under 64 to move from a tie for 19th into a tie for fourth, equaling his best round in a major. He previously set the mark during the first round of the 2012 Open Championship.

South Africa's Branden Grace carded a final-round, 1-over 71 to tie for fourth. It was his best finish in three U.S. Open starts. He also tied for 51st in 2012 and missed the cut in 2013.

In his U.S. Open debut, Australia's Cameron Smith tied for fourth and was the only player in the field to post all four rounds at par or better.

NOTES

Bubba Watson made just his third bogey of the week on the par-4 17th at TPC River Highlands during the final round, opening the door for England's Paul Casey to force a playoff at 16-under 264. Watson secured the victory with a birdie-3 on the second extra hole, No. 18. Watson won his first career PGA TOUR victory at the 2010 Travelers Championship, also in playoff fashion.

PAUL CASEY

In his Travelers Championship debut, Paul Casey lost in a playoff, his second overtime loss in the 2014-15 PGA TOUR season. He previously fell in sudden death to James Hahn at the 2015 Northern Trust Open.

Brian Harman, who led by one after 54 holes, posted a 1-under 69 in the final round to finish third. Harman has made the cut in all five starts at the Travelers Championship, with his third-place finish in 2015 supplanting his previous best finish of a tie for 24th in 2012.

Travelers Championship

TRAVELERS

NOTES

Lefthanded players and University of Georgia alumni Bubba Watson and Brian Harman were paired together in the third round, marking the second time they played together in a PGA TOUR event. They were previously grouped together in the final round of the 2014 Northern Trust Open.

In his first start at the Travelers Championship, Luke Donald closed with a 4-under 66 to claim a share of seventh place. The finish earned him a berth to The Open Championship through the Open Qualifying Series.

With his win, Bubba Watson became the seventh multiple winner of the Travelers Championship. The others are Stewart Cink (1997 and 2008), Peter Jacobsen (1984 and 2003), Phil Mickelson (2001-02), Paul Azinger (1987 and 1989), Billy Casper (1963, 1965, 1968 and 1973) and Arnold Palmer (1956 and 1960).

After making birdie on his final hole in the second round to make the cut on the number, Patrick Rodgers, playing as a Special Temporary Member, fired a 7-under 63 in the third round to jump 51 spots on the leaderboard and was tied for eighth with 18 holes to play. In the final round, he carded a 3-over 73 to tie for 39th. Rodgers made his first PGA TOUR start at the 2010 Travelers Championship as an amateur and made his professional debut at the 2014 Travelers Championship. Defending champion Kevin Streelman (67-70) failed to make the cut, marking the first time since Stewart Cink (2009) that the defending champion missed the cut in the year following his win.

Brian Harman (third), Graham DeLaet (fourth), Carl Pettersson (fifth) and Luke Donald (tied for seventh), qualified for The Open Championship via the Open Qualifying Series.

Arizona State University's Jon Rahm, one of two amateurs who received a sponsor exemption, posted rounds of 68-69-69-72 to finish at 2-under and tied for 64th.

The Travelers Championship is the second PGA TOUR tournament that Bubba Watson has won twice. The other is the Masters Tournament, in 2012 and 2014).

John Deere Classic

NOTES

Jordan Spieth defeated Tom Gillis with a par-4 on the second playoff hole (No. 18) to earn his second John Deere Classic crown and fourth win of the 2014-15 PGA TOUR Season. The victory marked Spieth's fifth career title in his 68th professional start.

With his win at age 21 years, 11 months, 15 days, Jordan Spieth became the first player to win four times in a season before The Open Championship since Tiger Woods won five times in 2000. He also became the eighth different player to win four or more times in a season in the last 25 years, dating to the 1991 season. Spieth joins Woods, Rory McIlroy, Vijay Singh, Phil Mickelson, Davis Love III, David Duval and Nick Price on that exclusive list.

The 2015 John Deere Classic marked the seventh time Jordan Spieth held a lead/co-lead after 54 holes and third time he has converted for victory, each of which came in his last wins – 2015 Masters, 2015 U.S. Open and 2015 John Deere Classic.

Through 72 holes (16 competitive rounds), Jordan Spieth is 61-under par at TPC Deere Run and has posted 15 of 16 rounds at TPC Deere Run at par or better. As an amateur in 2012, he posted a 1-over 72 in the third round.

Tom Gillis' second shot on the second playoff hole (No. 18) went in the water hazard, giving way to Jordan Spieth's second playoff victory at the John Deere Classic. Gillis recorded a 7-under 64 in the final round, his lowest PGA TOUR score since a 7-under 63 in the second round of the 2013 AT&T Byron Nelson.

Justin Thomas birdied four consecutive holes twice in the first round of the John Deere Classic en route to an 8-under 63 that gave him a share of the first-round lead. He followed with a 67 in the second round to hold a one-stroke advantage over two players through 36 holes. Thomas closed with a 67 to finish in a three-way tie for fifth.

The Open Championship

NOTES

After entering the final round trailing Jason Day, amateur Paul Dunne and Louis Oosthuizen by three strokes, Zach Johnson posted a final-round, 6-under 66 to win the 144th Open Championship in a four-hole aggregate playoff over Oosthuizen and Marc Leishman. The victory was Johnson's 12th PGA TOUR title and second major championship to go with his Masters Tournament win (2007). The victory came in his 307th start at age 39 years, 4 months, 26 days.

The third round was Sunday, with the final round Monday, marking only the second Monday finish at The Open Championship and first since 1988. That year, Seve Ballesteros defeated Nick Price by two shots at Royal Lytham St. Annes.

The playoff with Zach Johnson, Marc Leishman and Louis Oosthuizen was the 21st at The Open Championship and first since Stewart Cink defeated Tom Watson in 2009 at Turnberry.

Following his runner-up finish at the 2015 U.S. Open, 2010 Open Championship winner Louis Oosthuizen finished runner-up in his bid to join Tiger Woods (2000 and 2005) and Jack Nicklaus (1970 and 1978) as players to win successive Open Championships at St. Andrews since 1970.

MARK LEISHMAN

Marc Leishman fired a 6-under 66 in the final round to erase a three-stroke deficit and join the three-man playoff. Leishman's runner-up finish supplanted his previous best major finishes, a tie for fourth at the 2013 Masters Tournament and a tie for fifth at the 2014 Open Championship.

The Open Championship

NOTES

Jordan Spieth tied for fourth, one stroke shy of joining the playoff in his bid to win the modern Grand Slam following wins at the 2015 Masters Tournament and the U.S. Open.

Zach Johnson became the sixth player to win majors at Augusta National and St. Andrews, joining Jack Nicklaus, Tiger Woods, Seve Ballesteros, Nick Faldo and Sam Snead. He also became the 14th player to win the Masters Tournament and Open Championship in a career: Nicklaus, Woods, Ben Hogan, Gary Player, Tom Watson, Gene Sarazen, Sam Snead, Arnold Palmer, Nick Faldo, Seve Ballesteros, Phil Mickelson, Sandy Lyle and Mark O'Meara.

Paul Dunne, a 22-year-old native of Dublin, Ireland, moved atop the leaderboard with a third-round 6-under 66, the lowest round by an amateur in an Open Championship contested at St. Andrews.

Paul Dunne became the first amateur to lead The Open after 54 holes since Bobby Jones in 1927 at St. Andrews. He recorded a 6-over 78 in the final round to tie for 30th.

DUSTIN JOHNSON

Dustin Johnson opened with a 65 to take a one-stroke lead after the first round, becoming the first player to hold the first-round lead/co-lead at both the U.S. Open and Open Championship in the same season since Gary Player in 1974. He was also the first player to have a first-round lead/co-lead in back-to-back majors since Rory McIlroy at the 2011 Masters and U.S. Open.

The Open Championship

NOTES

Only four champions have posted a lower final round than Zach Johnson's 66. Greg Norman shot a 64 in 1993, while Tom Watson (1977), Seve Ballesteros (1988) and Justin Leonard (1997) all shot 65s.

Amateur Paul Dunne, Louis Oosthuizen, and Jason Day shared the 54-hole lead, marking the first time since 2001 more than one player held the third-round lead at The Open Championship.

Amateur Jordan Niebrugge (tied for sixth) carded an opening 5-under 67 in his first Open Championship start, marking the best opening round by an amateur at The Open since Tom Lewis in 2011 (65). Niebrugge went on to earn the silver medal, given to the low amateur, after finishing 11-under 277, the lowest total by an amateur at The Open Championship. He was also the first amateur to post a top-10 finish at The Open since Chris Wood finished fifth in 2008 and Justin Rose placed fourth in 1998.

Jason Day tied for fourth after carrying the 54-hole lead/co-lead for the second consecutive major championship (tied for ninth at the U.S. Open). Day recorded his ninth top-10 finish in 20 major appearances.

Making his 68th start in a major championship, Sergio Garcia notched his 20th top-10 finish (tied for sixth).

Justin Rose tied for sixth for his first top-10 finish at The Open Championship since a tie for fourth in his inaugural appearance, in 1998.

Five-time Open Championship winner Tom Watson carded rounds of 76-80 to miss the cut in his final Open appearance.

RBC Canadian Open

NOTES

Playing in the second-to-last group, Jason Day drained a putt from 21 feet, 10 inches on No. 18 to come from two shots behind third-round leader David Hearn to win the RBC Canadian Open in his third start. With the victory, Day earned his fourth career PGA TOUR title, at the age of 27 years, 8 months, 14 days in his 165th TOUR start.

DAVID HEARN

Third-round leader David Hearn was looking to become the first Canadian winner of the RBC Canadian Open since Pat Fletcher in 1954 (61 years). Hearn was the fifth Canadian to hold the 54-hole lead since 1954. His solo-third finish was his best showing in 13 starts.

Runner-up Bubba Watson had a chance at eagle on the par-5 18th hole to tie clubhouse leader Jason Day. Watson's chip shot from 22 feet on the back of the green came up a foot short, and he settled for birdie-4. Watson led the field in Strokes Gained Tee to Green (11.410) and in Driving Distance (339.5).

Following a win at the 2015 Farmers Insurance Open, winner Jason Day recorded multiple wins in the same season for the first time in his career. Stewart Cink tied for fifth, his first top-10 finish since the 2013 Quicken Loans National (5th), a span of 51 starts.

Ollie Schniederjans, fresh from a tie-for-twelfth finish at The Open Championship in his last tournament as an amateur, tied for 22nd in his first start as a professional.

In the second round, Chad Campbell carded a bogey-free 9-under 63, one stroke shy of the Glen Abbey course record (as a par-72), posted by Greg Norman (1986) and John Merrick (2013).

Canadian Graham DeLaet withdrew during the second round due to a lingering thumb injury in his seventh start of the event.

Erik Compton (tied for 11th) recorded the first hole-in-one of his career in the first round by aching the seventh hole with a pitching wedge from 141 yards en route to a 66.

Two-time RBC Canadian Open winner Jim Furyk was four shots behind the leader entering the final round and closed with a 3-under 69 to finish fourth.

World Golf Championships- Bridgestone Invitational

NOTES

With his win at the Bridgestone Invitational, Shane Lowry became the first Special Temporary Member to win on TOUR since Jordan Spieth at the 2013 John Deere Classic.

Runner-up Bubba Watson entered the final round four shots behind 54-hole co-leaders Jim Furyk and Justin Rose. With a final-round 66, Watson finished two strokes behind Shane Lowry.

England's Lee Westwood (tied for 17th) made his 52nd start in a World Golf Championships event, the most of any player since the series began in 1999.

Justin Rose recorded a bogey-free, 7-under 63 in the third round, firing seven birdies and totaling 109 feet, 10 inches of putts made, more than his first two rounds combined. Rose closed with a final-round 72 to tie for third in his 11th Bridgestone Invitational start.

STEVEN BOWDITCH

Steven Bowditch carded eight birdies and one bogey in the third round for a 7-under 63, his lowest round on TOUR since he fired a first-round 62 en route to his victory at the 2015 AT&T Byron Nelson.

Due to an ankle injury suffered in early July 2015, 2014 Bridgestone Invitational champion Rory McIlroy became the second defending champion unable to return to play the following year. After winning in 2007, Tiger Woods did not play in 2008 due to knee surgery.

PGA Championship

NOTES

With scores of 68-67-66-67 (20-under), Jason Day won the 97th PGA Championship by three strokes over Jordan Spieth. His 20-under total supplanted the previous low 72-hole total in a major of 19-under par, set by Tiger Woods at the 2000 Open Championship.

Jason Day earned his fifth career PGA TOUR title and first major championship crown at age 27 years, 9 months, 4 days in his 167th TOUR start. Since the PGA Championship moved to a stroke-play event in 1958, the third-round leader/co-leader has gone on to win the PGA Championship 33 times in 58 events.

By virtue of his second-place finish and Rory McIlroy finishing outside the top six (17th), Jordan Spieth moved into the No. 1 spot in the Official World Golf Ranking. At age 22 years, 20 days, Spieth became the youngest to claim the No. 1 spot since Tiger Woods moved to No. 1 after his 19th-place finish at the 1997 U.S. Open (21 years, 5 months, 16 days).

With wins at the Masters and U.S. Open, a tie for fourth at The Open Championship and a runner-up showing at the PGA Championship, Jordan Spieth became the third player since 2005 to finish inside the top five in all four of a season's major championships. Rickie Fowler achieved the feat in 2014, as did Tiger Woods in 2005.

Making his 47th start in a major championship, England's Justin Rose posted a final-round, 2-under 70, good for solo fourth.

In just his 16th career PGA TOUR start, India's Anirban Lahiri posted a final-round, 4-under 68 to tie for fifth, a year after missing the cut in his first PGA Championship.

Defending champion Rory McIlroy posted scores of 71-71-68-69 (9-under) to finish 17th. McIlroy has recorded 22 of 28 par-or-better rounds at the PGA Championship, including 14 of his last 16 rounds. In his 23rd PGA Championship and 93rd major championship, Phil Mickelson posted scores of 72-73-66-69 (8-under) to tie for 18th.

PGA Championship

NOTES

Jason Day became the fifth different Australian to win the PGA Championship: Steve Elkington (1995), Wayne Grady (1990), David Graham (1979) and Jim Ferrier (1947). Day's victory was the first for an Australian in a major since Adam Scott at the 2013 Masters.

International players have won six of the last eight PGA Championships: The others are Padraig Harrington (Ireland, in 2008), Y.E. Yang (South Korea, in 2009), Martin Kaymer (Germany, in 2010), Rory McIlroy (Northern Ireland, in 2012 and 2014) and Jason Day (Australia, in 2015). Keegan Bradley (2011) and Jason Dufner (2013) were the exceptions.

Matt Jones opened with rounds of 68-65 to lead at 11-under through 36 holes, marking the first time since Tiger Woods in 2000 the leading 36-hole score reached double digits.

With a 63 in the second round, Hiroshi Iwata became the 27th player to record a 63 in major championship history. Iwata's score tied the PGA Championship's lowest 18-hole score, previously posted 12 times.

Dustin Johnson (tied for seventh) opened with a 6-under 66 to lead by one after the first round. Johnson previously led after the first round at both the 2015 U.S. Open and 2015 Open Championship.

Four-time PGA Championship winner Tiger Woods followed a 3-over 75 in the first round with a 1-over 73 to miss the cut in his 18th start at the PGA Championship.

TOURNAMENT HISTORIES

Two victories—at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions and the Travelers Championship—helped Bubba Watson to a fifth-place finish in the FedExCup.

The Presidents Cup

In 2017, The Presidents Cup will return to the United States, with Liberty National Golf Club in Jersey City, N.J., hosting the event for the first time. Designed by Robert E. Cupp and PGA TOUR and Champions Tour veteran Tom Kite, the course, which opened in 2006, offers a unique view of New York and the Statue of Liberty. Liberty National has previously hosted two PGA TOUR tournaments—The Barclays in 2009 and 2013.

HISTORY

The Presidents Cup was developed to give the world's best non-European players an opportunity to compete in international team match-play competition.

The first Presidents Cup was played September 16-18, 1994, at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Virginia. The U.S. team, captained by Hale Irwin, defeated the International team, captained by David Graham, 20-12.

The United States also won the second Presidents Cup, held September 13-15, 1996, played again at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. Arnold Palmer, no stranger to high-level international competition, had the reins as the United States edged Peter Thomson's International team, 16 ½-15 ½.

The Presidents Cup 1998 was played December 11-13 at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. The International team made the most of the home-field advantage, winning 20 ½-11 ½. Jack Nicklaus served as captain of the U.S. team, while Thomson repeated his role as captain for the International team.

In 2000, The Presidents Cup returned to Robert Trent Jones, with the United States avenging its 1998 loss, with a decisive 21 ½-10 ½ victory over the International team. Thomson captained the International team for a third time, while Ken Venturi was victorious in his debut as U.S. team captain.

The Presidents Cup 2003 was held at The Links at Fancourt Hotel and Country Club Estate in George, South Africa. The competition ended in a tie after both teams completed regulation with 17 points. Ernie Els of the International team and Tiger Woods of the U.S. team were designated to represent their sides in a sudden-death playoff. After three extra holes, and as darkness was descending, Captains Gary Player and Nicklaus, in the spirit of the competition, decided that the two teams would share the Cup.

In 2005, Nicklaus and Player returned as captains, and the matches were held once again at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Club. The tie from 2003 was broken with an 18 ½-15 ½ U.S. victory.

The U.S. team wrapped up its fifth Presidents Cup victory in seven tries, this time at Royal Montreal Golf Club, in 2007—securing a 19 ½-14 ½ victory, the U.S. team's first win at an international venue in the competition's 13-year history. Nicklaus again led the U.S. team, with David Toms earning the most points for his U.S. squad. Woody Austin earned a new nickname—Aquaman—after falling into the lake on the 14th hole while attempting a shot. And while his team did not win, Canadian golf hero Mike Weir thrilled the crowds with a 1-up victory over No. 1-ranked Woods in Sunday's singles competition. Player captained the International team for a third and final time.

In 2009, The Presidents Cup was held at Harding Park Golf Course in San Francisco, Calif., one of the top public golf properties in the United States. Two of the most-dominant players on the PGA TOUR during the 1980s and 1990s, Fred Couples and Greg Norman, led the U.S. and International teams, respectively. The Presidents Cup 2009 marked the first time in event history that both captains were former participants. Couples has appeared four times (1994, 1996, 1998 and 2005) for the United States and Norman three (1996, 1998 and 2000) for the Internationals, and both factored prominently in victories secured by their respective teams. As first-time captains, Couples and Norman each led strong teams, with the U.S. retaining the Cup, winning for the sixth time (19 ½-14 ½).

The ninth playing of the event occurred November 15-20, 2011, at Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, which was the first international venue to host this prestigious competition more than once.

The U.S. team captured The Presidents Cup for the seventh time, captained once again by Couples and led by a 5-0-0 performance from veteran Jim Furyk. Woods, one of Couples' two captain's picks, clinched the Cup for the United States with a 4-and-3 win over Australia's Aaron Baddeley in Sunday singles. For Woods, it was the second consecutive time he had scored the winning point at The Presidents Cup, becoming only the second player to accomplish that feat (Couples, in 1994 and 1996) and the first captain's pick to do so. Norman's International team played well but was undone by the foursomes competition. The Internationals were outscored 8-3 in foursomes and eventually lost the Cup by four points (19-15).

Muirfield Village Golf Club hosted the 10th Presidents Cup, contested in 2013 in Dublin, Ohio. The venue became the first to host The Presidents Cup, Ryder Cup and Solheim Cup. Couples reprised his role as U.S. captain for the third time after winning efforts in 2009 and 2011. Nick Price, a five-time Presidents Cup participant (1994, 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2003), served as captain of the International team for the first time. The U.S. team kept its winning streak alive, winning 18 ½-15 ½, holding off the International team, which attempted a late rally but came up short. Leading the way for the U.S. was Woods, who recorded a 4-1-0 record in his five matches, with Woods clinching the victory for the U.S. against Richard Sterne in Sunday singles' play.

The Presidents Cup went to Asia for the first time in its history when South Korea hosted the 11th playing of the biennial event in October 2015 at the Jack Nicklaus Golf Club Korea in Incheon. The U.S. team took an early lead, but the International squad hung close and chipped away throughout the week, with the U.S. holding a one-point advantage going into the final-day singles' matches. The U.S. won The Presidents Cup for a seventh consecutive time when Bill Haas defeated South Korea's Sangmoon Bae in the final match, a triumph that allowed Haas' father, U.S. Captain Jay Haas, to hoist the Cup again for the U.S.

Former U.S. President Gerald Ford presided over the first Presidents Cup as Honorary Chairman. Former President George H.W. Bush, like Ford an avid golfer, served as Honorary Chairman for The Presidents Cup 1996 and has attended every staging of the event since. He has since been inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame. Australian Prime Minister

John Howard was Honorary Chairman for the 1998 event. In 2000, U.S. President Bill Clinton made history when he became the first sitting president to serve as Honorary Chairman. In 2003, Thabo Mbeki, President of the Republic of South Africa, was Honorary Chairman. U.S. President George W. Bush, the son George H. W. Bush, served as the Honorary Chairman of The Presidents Cup 2005, and Canadian Prime Minister Stephen Harper was the 2007 Honorary Chairman. U.S. President Barack Obama presided over The Presidents Cup 2009 as Honorary Chairman. In 2011, Australian Prime Minister Julia Gillard was Honorary Chairperson, while President Obama was again Honorary Chairman in 2013. South Korea president Geun-Hye Park served in that role in 2015 in South Korea.

CHARITY

The Presidents Cup follows the PGA TOUR creed of giving back. There is no purse for the players. Net revenues are divided into equal shares that the players and captains designate for charities or golf-related projects of their choice. The first 10 Presidents Cups generated more than $32 million for charities worldwide, including a record $5 million donation from the 2013 event.

Wyndham Championship

NOTES

Davis Love III recorded bookend, 6-under 64s en route to winning his third Wyndham Championship title. It was the 21st PGA TOUR title in his 716th official PGA TOUR start at age 51 years, 4 months, 10 days. Love became the third-oldest winner in PGA TOUR history behind Sam Snead (52 years, 10 months, 8 days) when he won the 1965 Wyndham Championship and Art Wall who won the 1975 Greater Milwaukee Open (51 years, 7 months, 10 days).

With the victory, Davis Love III moved to a tie for 29th among the all-time winningest players in PGA TOUR history, joining Willie Macfarlane, Lanny Wadkins, Craig Wood and James Barnes, all with 21 wins.

In search of his second PGA TOUR victory (2005 84 Lumber Classic) in his 246th PGA TOUR start, Jason Gore posted a final-round, 1-under 69 for the second runner-up finish of his career (also second at the 2007 Buick Open).

Entering the third round, Davis Love III trailed Jason Gore by four strokes, recording just the fourth come-from-behind win in the last 17 Wyndham Championships.

Wyndham Championship

NOTES

With the 2014-15 FedExCup standings finalized at the conclusion of the Wyndham Championship, five players moved inside the top 125, including winner Davis Love III, who jumped 110 spots from 186th to 76th, the biggest move in the FedExCup standings in tournament history. The other four players who moved into the top 125 were runner-up Jason Gore, along with Jonas Blixt, Ryo Ishikawa and 2014 Wyndham Championship winner Camilo Villegas.

In his first appearance at the Wyndham Championship, Tiger Woods posted rounds of 64-65-68-70 (13-under) to tie for 10th. Woods held a share of the lead after 36 holes, marking the first time since the 2013 Barclays (tied for eighth) where he headed into the weekend in the top 10.

North Carolina native and South Carolina resident William McGirt made eight birdies and no bogeys in the first round, good for a career-low, 8-under 62. His previous low of 63 was last posted in the first round of the 2012 RBC Canadian Open.

Erik Compton birdied seven of his last nine holes for a 28 in the first round, tying the low nine-hole score at Sedgefield Country Club. Briny Baird also shot a 28 in the third round in 2008. Compton withdrew prior to the start of the third round, citing a sore left ankle.

The Barclays

NOTES

With a final-round, 8-under 62, Jason Day finished The Barclays with a 19-under-261 total, good for a six-stroke victory over Henrik Stenson. It was his fourth win of the 2014-15 PGA TOUR season. Three of Day's victories came in his last four starts. Day earned his sixth career title in his 168th PGA TOUR start at age 27 years, 9 months, 18 days.

In the final round, Brian Harman became just the third player in PGA TOUR history to record two holes-in-one in a single round and the first since Yusaku Miyazato in 2006. Harman aced the third hole with a 7-iron from 183 yards, then repeated a hole-in-one on the 14th hole with a 4-iron from 218 yards.

Jason Day, the 2015 PGA Championship winner, became the 10th player to win both a major championship and a FedExCup Playoffs' event. He is also the fourth to do so in the same season, joining Adam Scott (2013 Masters Tournament and The Barclays), Rory McIlroy (2012 PGA Championship, Deutsche Bank Championship and BMW Championship) and Tiger Woods (2007 PGA Championship, BMW Championship and TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola).

Jason Day became the 11th international winner of The Barclays and the fifth from Australia (Bruce Crampton in 1970, David Graham in 1976, Wayne Grady in 1989 and Adam Scott in 2013).

Jason Day's 36-hole score of 125 (63-62) over the weekend equaled the lowest 36-hole score of the season: Jordan Spieth in the second and third rounds at the John Deere Classic and Jimmy Walker in the third and fourth rounds at the Sony Open in Hawaii.

Championship

NOTES

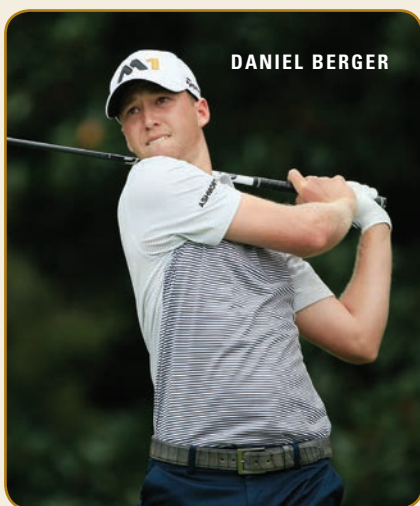

Jason Day entered the final round leading by six strokes, the largest 54-hole lead on TOUR in the 2014-15 season. The closest anyone came to challenging Day Sunday was when Daniel Berger made birdie at No. 14 to get to 16-under to narrow the gap to four shots when Day was on No. 13.

Jason Day became the first player during the FedExCup era to win The Barclays and BMW Championship in the same season.

The third-round leader/co-leader has won 62 of 107 times at the BMW Championship.

Jason Day's 193 total through 54 holes broke the previous-low-opening, 54-hole record at the BMW Championship by four strokes: Camilo Villegas in 2008, Tiger Woods in 2009 and Billy Horschel in 2014 each posted 197. It was also a new 54-hole record for any three rounds at the BMW Championship. Woods set the previous mark of 195 during the second through fourth rounds in 2007.

The BMW Championship has produced 12 wire-to-wire winners (no ties). Before Jason Day in 2015, most recently, beginning-to-end winners were Camilo Villegas in 2008 and Tiger Woods in 2003.

DANIEL BERGER

PGA TOUR rookie Daniel Berger made five birdies and three bogeys in Sunday's final round to post a 2-under 69 and finish in solo second. Berger moved from No. 46 to ninth in the FedExCup standings and into the FedExCup Playoffs' finale, the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola.

As a result, a player's score may be higher or lower than his actual score. Actual scoring average was used to determine the scoring leader prior to 1988.

In order to qualify for the Byron Nelson Award, a player must compete in a minimum of 50 official rounds on the PGA TOUR.

PGA Player of the Year

The PGA Player of the Year Award is given by the PGA of America to the top PGA TOUR player based on a mathematical formula that weighs tournament wins, official money standing and scoring average.

The point system for selecting the Player of the Year was amended in 1982, as follows: 30 points for winning the PGA Championship, U.S. Open, British Open or Masters Tournament; 20 points for winning THE PLAYERS Championship; 10 points for winning all other designated PGA TOUR events. In addition, there is a 50-point bonus for winning two majors, 75-point bonus for winning three, 100-point bonus for winning four.

For top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR's official money list and scoring average list, the point value is: first, 20 points, then 18, 16, 14, 12, 10, 8, 6, 4, 2. Any incomplete rounds in the scoring average list will result in a .10 penalty per incomplete round.

Vardon Trophy

The Vardon Trophy, named in honor of famed British golfer Harry Vardon, is awarded annually by the PGA of America.

From 1947 to 1987, the Vardon Trophy was awarded to the professional golfer with the lowest-scoring average. In 1988, the criteria were adjusted to award the Vardon Trophy to the touring professional with the lowest adjusted scoring average based on a minimum of 60 official rounds in events cosponsored or approved by the PGA TOUR.

Payne Stewart Award

The award is named for Payne Stewart, an 11-time winner on the PGA TOUR, including three major championships. Stewart died the week of the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola in 1999. The award was created by the PGA TOUR Policy Board to perpetuate Stewart's memory. It is presented annually at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola to a player sharing Stewart's respect for the traditions of the game, his commitment to uphold the game's heritage of charitable support and the professional and meticulous presentation of himself and the sport through his dress and conduct.

In addition to a sculpture presented to the recipient, the Payne Stewart Award is accompanied by an annual Payne Stewart Award Grant presented by Southern Company. The $500,000 grant will support several initiatives in Stewart's name to be distributed as follows: $100,000 to Payne and Tracey Stewart's primary charity, The Stewart Family Foundation; $100,000 in Stewart's honor to The First Tee facility in Missouri, located at Camp Kanakuk, which is affiliated with the "Kids Across America" program; and $300,000 to a charity designated by the recipient.

David Chu Award

The Award was created in 2009 to recognize Dr. David Chu's outstanding contributions to the growth of golf in China. Dr. Chu died Aug. 12, 2011 in Hong Kong.

Dr. Chu was considered by many as the father of golf in China. Dr. Chu founded Mission Hills Golf Club in 1992, confident in his belief that China's thriving economy would give rise to a domestic golf and leisure industry. A little more than 15 years after breaking ground, Mission Hills has grown into the world's largest golf club and is leading the golf boom gripping China.

The award is an 8-centimeter-by-8-millimeter bronze medal bearing Dr. Chu's likeness and featuring text in English and Chinese on either side. It is anticipated that in future years the award will be given in Dr. Chu's name to other worthy recipients who have been instrumental in developing golf in China.
