Message to the Media

Tim Finchem
Commissioner

Greg McLaughlin
President
Champions Tour

Welcome to the 2015 season of the Champions Tour. On behalf of our players, staff, tournaments and sponsors, we would like to thank the members of the media for the coverage you provide. We look forward to working with you in the year ahead.

The Charles Schwab Cup, our season-long competition, enters its 15th season in 2015. Designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player, it rewards top finishes and consistency in all official events. Last year, Bernhard Langer captured the Charles Schwab Cup to collect the Cup's first-place annuity of $1 million. Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution, with one Charles Schwab Cup point earned for each $1,000 earned. Double points will again be awarded at the five major championships and to the entire 30-man field at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, which returns to Desert Mountain Club (Cochise Course) in Scottsdale on November 2-8, 2015.

Our television partners will broadcast each event, with Golf Channel airing coverage of most tournaments. Two events will have network coverage, the U.S. Senior Open on Fox and the Senior PGA Championship on NBC. Additionally, The Senior Open Championship will be carried on ESPN.

In 2015, we welcome PGA TOUR winners such as Grant Waite, Jesper Parnevik, Carlos Franco, Scott McCarron, J.P. Hayes and Todd Hamilton who are making the transition to the Champions Tour to compete regularly with established Champions Tour stars like Bernhard, Colin Montgomerie, Jay Haas, Kenny Perry and Fred Couples. Thirty-two members of the Champions Tour are also members of the World Golf Hall of Fame and many are still active on Tour. Our Champions Tour players are committed to making each tournament week rewarding and enjoyable, and they pride themselves on their accessibility and interaction with the media, sponsors and fans. That commitment also extends off the course. Many players and their spouses are involved with charitable initiatives of their own—along with those charitable endeavors in the communities served by our tournaments each week.

The extensive charitable mission of the six Tours under the PGA TOUR's umbrella make a significant impact in communities across the country, and we appreciate your efforts in conveying to your readers and viewers how our tournaments continue to generate charitable contributions that touch the lives of so many people.

The digital version of the Champions Tour Media Guide can be accessed via pgatourmedia.com, along with more information, such as the media credential application process, for each specific event of the 2015 season.

We appreciate your continued support of the Champions Tour. The Communications Department at PGA TOUR Headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., as well as our Media Officials on site at each tournament, is ready to assist you with your interview and informational requests. Enjoy the 2015 season.

About the Champions Tour

Collectively, the Champions Tour has the most recognizable and accomplished players in the game, with many of its 32 members in the World Golf Hall of Fame competing regularly in its events. The Tour also counts numerous other major championship winners among its members. The Champions Tour is a membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older. Conceived in 1980 as the Senior PGA Tour, it started with just four events and purses totaling $475,000. The Champions Tour's primary purpose is to provide financial opportunities for its players, entertain and inspire its fans, deliver substantial value to its partners, create outlets for volunteers to give back, protect the integrity of the game and generate significant charitable and economic impact in communities in which it plays. Points earned in official Charles Schwab Cup events in 2014 determined Bernhard Langer as the Charles Schwab Cup champion, the season-long competition designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player. The Commissioner of the PGA TOUR is Tim Finchem. Greg McLaughlin is President of the Champions Tour. The PGA TOUR's website is pgatour.com, the No. 1 site in golf, and the organization is headquartered in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. Follow the Champions Tour at facebook.com/ChampionsTour and on Twitter @ChampionsTour.

History

1980 – 2014. The Tour enters its 36th season in 2015

Charity

The Champions Tour and its tournaments generate significant sums of money for charity. In 2014, tournaments on all six Tours (PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, PGA TOUR Canada, PGA TOUR China) generated more than $134 million for local charitable organizations. In 2014, the TOUR's all-time total of charitable contributions surpassed $2 billion. The Champions Tour's charitable mission is an integral component of its value proposition, and charitable donations have a significant impact in the communities served by Champions Tour events.

2015 Schedule

The 2015 schedule includes the introduction of the Tucson Conquistadores Classic (March 16-22) at Omni Tucson National Resort's Catalina Course and the Pacific Links China Championship (Sept. 14-20) relocating to Tianjin, China. The 27 Club, a Pacific Links property, will host the event on a course developed by 27 major champions, including Champions Tour professionals Mark O'Meara, Fred Couples and Tom Watson. Each professional designed his favorite elements into holes to reflect the unique character of his individual game.

The 2015 schedule features 26 tournaments in three countries outside of the United States (Canada, England and China) and 17 different states for a total purse of more than $53 million. Of the 26 tournaments, exactly half feature total purses of more than $2 million.

The official 2015 season will begin on the Big Island of Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai (Jan. 19-25), where the Champions Tour's version of the Tournament of Champions will feature recent tournament winners and other notable players. The first full-field event, the Allianz Championship, will be played in Boca Raton, Fla. the week of Feb. 2-8.

Several date changes for established tournaments also impact the 2015 Champions Tour schedule. The Toshiba Classic, traditionally contested in March, moves to the penultimate event of the season (Oct. 26-Nov. 1). The Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge (April 20-26) returns to its original date after being played in early June in 2014. The two Canadian tournaments, played in consecutive weeks in 2014, are now separated by one month, with the Shaw Charity Classic (Aug. 3-9) moving two weeks earlier, and the Quebec Championship set for the first week of September (Aug. 31-Sept. 6),

The Champions Tour also returns to the Boston area for the first time since 2008—the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship (June 8-14) relocating from Pittsburgh to Belmont Country Club. The Donald Ross-designed course will host the major championship for one year.

The 2015 season will conclude with the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Nov. 2-8), which returns to the Cochise Course at Desert Mountain Club in Scottsdale, Ariz., for the second consecutive year.

The Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament's Final Stage (Dec. 1-4) will be conducted at TPC Scottsdale in Arizona at the conclusion of the 2015 season.

Major Championships (5)

The 2015 Champions Tour's major championships begin with the Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek (May 11-17) in Birmingham, Ala., immediately followed by the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid (May 18-24) at the French Lick Resort (Pete Dye Golf Course) in French Lick, Ind. Two weeks later, the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship (June 8-14) heads to Belmont Country Club in Boston, Mass. The U.S. Senior Open (June 22-28) is set for Del Paso Country Club in Sacramento, Calif. The Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex (July 20-26) heads to Sunningdale Golf Club (Old Course) in Berkshire, England. The major championship winners are;

Regions Tradition, (2014) Kenny Perry

Senior PGA Championship, (2014) Colin Montgomerie

Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, (2014) Bernhard Langer

U.S. Senior Open, (2014) Colin Montgomerie

The Senior Open Championship, (2014) Bernhard Langer

Charles Schwab Cup

The Charles Schwab Cup, now in its 15th season, designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player, rewards both top finishes and week-in/week-out consistency in all official events. Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution, with $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Double points will again be awarded at the five major championships. Double points will also be awarded to the entire 30-player field at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The season-long points competition kicks off in Hawaii at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai (Jan. 19-25). The Road to the Charles Schwab Cup culminates at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Nov. 2-8) in Scottsdale, Ariz., at Desert Mountain Club (Cochise Course), with $2.1 million in payouts awarded to the season's top five leading performers. The winner receives $1 million. Bernhard Langer won his second Charles Schwab Cup in 2014. He also claimed the Cup in 2010.

Size of Field

In 2015, the field size for Champions Tour events will again be 81 players, except at those tournaments that have specific eligibility criteria.

Membership

Champions Tour members hail from around the globe. In 2015, 24 international players will have fully exempt status on the Champions Tour. Seventeen countries outside of the United States are represented; they include Argentina, Australia, Canada, England, Fiji, Germany, Ireland, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand, Paraguay, Scotland, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Taiwan and Zimbabwe.

World Golf Hall of Fame Members

Mark O'Meara and David Graham, inductees for the Class of 2015 in July, will bring the total number of Champions Tour members in the Hall to 34, some of whom continue to be active on the Champions Tour: Isao Aoki, Seve Ballesteros, Deane Beman, Tommy Bolt, Julius Boros, Jack Burke, Jr., Billy Casper, Bob Charles, Fred Couples, Ben Crenshaw, Roberto De Vincenzo, Nick Faldo, Raymond Floyd, Doug Ford, Hubert Green, Hale Irwin, Tony Jacklin, Tom Kite, Bernhard Langer, Gene Littler, Sandy Lyle, Johnny Miller, Colin Montgomerie, Larry Nelson, Jack Nicklaus, Greg Norman, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Nick Price, Chi Chi Rodriguez, Paul Runyan, Charlie Sifford, Sam Snead, Curtis Strange, Peter Thomson, Lee Trevino, Lanny Wadkins and Tom Watson.

Fan Features

The Champions Tour's Fan Features are designed to give the Tour a distinct identity, complementing the high level of skill displayed by its members. The Champions Tour strives to be the most approachable, accessible and fan-friendly arena in all of sports. The program has had significant impact as evidenced by the positive feedback received weekly from tournament organizers, sponsors and fans, with players going out of their way to support the initiatives. Fan Features include live television interviews during play, gallery in the fairway, honorary observers walking inside the ropes, caddie for a day, behind-the-scenes tours, junior clinics, a game-improvement platform, and more.

TV

Each event will be televised nationally in the United States, with most receiving complete coverage on Golf Channel, the Tour's exclusive cable-television partner that reaches some 80 million homes in the United States. Three events will have network coverage on the weekend (NBC: Senior PGA Championship; FOX: Senior U.S. Open; ESPN: The Senior Open Championship).

International TV

Champions Tour telecasts are distributed internationally in Canada, Europe, Africa, the Middle East, Asia, Australasia and Latin America through various distribution partners. The events air live, tape-delayed or in a highlights-package format in excess of 205 countries and territories, reaching more than 145 million households.

Awards

The Champions Tour presents the following awards annually:

- Charles Schwab Cup
- Champions Tour Player of the Year/Jack Nicklaus Award
- Champions Tour Rookie of the Year
- Arnold Palmer Award (leading money winner)
- Byron Nelson Award (scoring leader)
- CTTA "Bruno" Award (contributions to the Champions Tour)
- Champions Tour Charity of the Year
- Champions Tour Volunteer of the Year

The Champions Tour also recognizes its Player of the Month (January through November).

"Rookies"

For players to become eligible to compete in Champions Tour events they must attain age 50 on or before the day of their first tournament 'obligation,' such as the Wednesday pro-am, the date of pre-qualifying or the date of event qualifying. Charles Schwab Cup

Overview

The Charles Schwab Cup is a season-long, points-based competition launched in 2001 to determine the Champions Tour's leading player. The program rewards both consistency and top-10 finishes week-in and week-out at all Charles Schwab Cup events.

Prize Money

$2.1-million annuity to the top-five point earners at season's end.

Payouts

1st	$1 million
2nd	$500,000
3rd	$300,000
4th	$200,000
5th	$100,000

Points Distribution

Points are awarded to the top-10 finishers and ties in all official tournaments and are based on the money distribution for each tournament, with every $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Points are doubled at the Champions Tour's five major championships and for the entire 30 player field at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in November.

Website Information and updates are available throughout the year on PGATOUR.COM.

2014 Charles Schwab Cup Recap

The season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship at Desert Mountain Club's Cochise Course in Scottsdale, Ariz., brought together the best of the Champions Tour, with the top-30 players on the 2014 money list earning their way to the Championship.

The $2.5 million tournament decided not only that week's champion, but it was also the culmination of the season-long points race to finalize the Charles Schwab Cup standings.

For just the second time in the 14-year history of the Charles Schwab Cup, the winner, Bernhard Langer, was determined before the season finale. In 2002, Hale Irwin claimed the Cup with three events remaining on the schedule. In 2014, Langer led the Schwab Cup race for all but one week, when Colin Montgomerie took the lead briefly following his U.S. Senior Open victory in July.

Langer opened his season with a victory at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai before claiming the Insuperity Invitational in May. Both Langer (Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS and Senior Open Championship) and Montgomerie (Senior PGA Championship and U.S. Senior Open) captured multiple major championships, earning double Schwab Cup points at those championships and separating themselves in the points race from their fellow competitors.

When Montgomerie was No. 1 in the Charles Schwab Cup standings for a week following his U.S. Senior Open win, he warned everyone that Langer was "still the guy to beat."

"Certainly my wins in the majors, with double points, have really helped me in the Charles Schwab Cup race," said Montgomerie. "But Langer's Mr. Consistency. He's very clinical and has a patient way of getting the job done. He's set new standards on the Champions Tour, even at his age (56). The number of top-10s he's had is quite extraordinary."

At the very next event, The Senior Open Championship in Wales, Langer proved Montgomerie right, setting an all-time Champions Tour record with a 13-stroke win over Montgomerie to reclaim the lead in the Schwab Cup standings.

With an additional fifth victory under his belt—the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in August—Langer began the AT&T Championship, the final full-field event of the season, needing to be 833 points ahead of Montgomerie at the close of play to clinch the Charles Schwab Cup. The 74 points he earned for his tie for sixth gave him the insurmountable 845-point lead.

"There's still a lot of money on the line, but there's a little less pressure now and I get to enjoy it," said Langer, referring to the following week's final event of the season, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

With the pre-tournament focus on Langer in Scottsdale, it was Tom Pernice, Jr., who prevailed, winning his second title of the year at the season-ending tournament in a dramatic finish, defeating Jay Haas in a sudden-death playoff that lasted four holes. Kenny Perry, the 2013 Charles Schwab Cup champion, finished third, while Langer and Montgomerie tied for fourth, earning identical points to keep the winning margin at 845 points. The leading rookie, one of nine in the field at Scottsdale, was Wes Short, Jr., who shot four rounds in the 60s and tied for seventh.

Langer was awarded the $1-million annuity that goes with the trophy. Montgomerie earned $500,000, while Haas ($300,000), Perry ($200,000) and Pernice ($100,000) also took home bonus money.

"It's one of the goals all of us have when we start the season," said Langer. "Everybody wants to win the Charles Schwab Cup because it means you were the most consistent or the best player."

Langer's 4,152 points total for the year was the second highest in history, behind Tom Watson's 4,751 points in 2003.

At the close of the 2014 season, Haas leads the Charles Schwab Cup All-Time Points List, with 19,240, Watson has 19,060 points and Langer's total is 18,960, only 100 points behind Watson.

"It's still mind-boggling to reflect on my year," Langer said. "To have played as consistently well as I've done in 20 tournaments is hard to believe really. Who would have dreamed I would still be playing professional golf at 57—and still be pretty good at it?"

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Won the first and last full-field events of the season and claimed multiple titles in a season for the third consecutive year. Eclipsed the $1.4-million mark in single-season earnings and has been over seven figures in yearly earnings for five straight Champions Tour years...In early February, defeated Duffy Waldorf with a birdie-4 on the second playoff hole to win the Allianz Championship in Boca Raton. Became the fourth player to shoot 60 in an opening round and go on to win (Bruce Fleisher at the 2002 RJR Championship, Tom Purtzer at the 2004 Toshiba Classic and Nick Price at the 2011 Toshiba Classic) and also the seventh of 10 players overall to do so in Champions Tour history. His 12-under 60 in the opening round of the Allianz event was a first in Champions Tour annals and included 10 birdies and an eagle on the Old Course at Broken Sound. Round bested Rocco Mediate's 61 in the second round in 2013, making it the lowest 18-hole round in Allianz Championship history. The win in Boca Raton, coupled with his overtime victory in the fall of 2013 at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn, made him the first player since Denis Watson (2007 Boeing Classic and the 2008 AT&T Champions Classic) to claim consecutive titles in playoffs...Added a second win in the season's final full-field event when he closed with three birdies in his final four holes to overtake Marco Dawson and win the AT&T Championship for his seventh career victory. Drained a 30-footer for birdie at No. 16 to tie Dawson and then took the lead for good with a 5-foot birdie at No. 18...In June, had two other chances for victory. Nearly earned a berth in the Tom Pernice, Jr.-Doug Garwood playoff at The Principal Charity Classic but just missed a birdie opportunity from 25 feet on No. 18 and was T3 in Iowa...Three weeks later, found himself in contention down the stretch at the Encompass Championship outside Chicago. Despite making birdies on three of the last four holes, came up one stroke short of Tom Lehman at North Shore CC. The T2 effort came after three consecutive sub-70 rounds...A month after winning in Boca Raton, was T5 at the Toshiba Classic. Worked himself among the leaders after a final-round 67 but ended two shots behind Fred Couples...Was T9 at the Regions Tradition, the fourth consecutive year he's been a top-10 finisher at Shoal Creek, and it marked the fifth consecutive time he's finished in the top 10 in the Regions event...Closed his campaign with a T9 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, his fourth top-10 finish in five appearances in the season-ending event.

PERSONAL:

Planned to be a stockbroker before turning to golf...Won the 2003 Southern Arizona Open with his daughter Christy serving as his caddie...As a 14-year-old he and a friend hiked the Pacific Crest Trail from Lake Tahoe to Yosemite National Park, a distance of 210 miles. The trip took the pair three weeks...Gave up golf in 1996 and invested in the construction of speculation homes at Troon North in Scottsdale...Credits teacher Mike Mitchell with rebuilding his golf swing and making him a better player.

BEST 2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

2–Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic presented by C Spire. P2–Shaw Charity Classic.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Turned in a solid rookie Champions Tour campaign, finishing among the top-25 on the earnings' list, thanks to six top-10 finishes, including two runner-up efforts...Lost to Jeff Maggert by two strokes at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Shared the 36-hole lead with Fred Funk after posting a 7-under 65 at Fallen Oak in the second round. Held the lead for the first 12 holes Sunday and then battled Maggert down the stretch, eventually losing when he bogeyed the 16th hole just as Maggert made birdie ahead of him...Came close to victory again in August at the Shaw Charity Classic. Closed with an 8-under-par 62, which included an eagle on his 54th hole to get into a playoff with Fred Couples at 15-under-par. However, saw his chances slip away on the first playoff hole when Couples tapped-in for birdie after he missed for birdie from 30 feet moments earlier. His final-round 62 matched his best round on the PGA TOUR (at the 1995 Canon Greater Hartford Open)...Used a final-round 69 at Pebble Beach to finish T6 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open...Strung together three rounds in the 60s at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, good for a T7...Was also T8 in his second career Champions Tour start, at The ACE Group Classic...Lone official PGA TOUR start came as a past champion of the RBC Canadian Open, where he missed the cut.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played a mixture of PGA TOUR and Champions Tour events and managed to secure a spot among the Champions Tour's top-30 money-winners despite only making eight starts on the over-50 circuit. Was among the top five in his first five starts on the Champions Tour and ended the year with six top-five performances overall. Had just one top-25 finish in 10 made cuts on the PGA TOUR (22 starts), and ended his season ranked No. 168 in FedExCup standings...Made his Champions Tour debut at the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National in Oklahoma. Was T28 after the opening round, but worked his way up the standings in the next three rounds to eventually finish T3...Top outing of the year came in his next start on the Champions Tour when he closed with a 65, equaling the low Sunday round, to finish T2 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open...One week later, put together three consecutive rounds in the 60s to garner a T5 finish at the Boeing Classic...In late-September, birdied three of his last four holes to shoot a final-round 66 at Pebble Beach GL and move into a solo fifth at the Nature Valley First Tee Open...In October at the last full-field event of the year, trailed 36-hole leader Marco Dawson by just one stroke at the AT&T Championship but only managed a 1-under-par 71 Sunday to finish third overall, three behind eventual-winner Michael Allen...Best effort on the 2013-2014 PGA TOUR was a T13 at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions...Also was T27 at the Barracuda Championship, T29 at the RBC Canadian Open and finished T43 in defense of the Sanderson Farms Championship title.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Turned in his finest Champions Tour season, finishing among the top-30 money-winners for the first time, thanks to a career-best four top-10 performances. Before the season, had only registered a combined three top-10s in his first three years as a Champions Tour member...Secured the final spot into the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, edging out Rocco Mediate by $4,881...Came close to victory for the first time since the 2011 Principal Charity Classic when he lost to Scott Dunlap on the first playoff hole at the Boeing Classic in August. Chased down Dunlap with six birdies in his final seven holes to get into the playoff. But after hitting his drive in a bunker, was forced to lay up and then watched his third shot end up on the green 40 feet away. After missing his birdie bid, he watched Dunlap two putt for birdie from six feet for the victory...Earlier in the season, showed signs of improved play when he closed with a 6-under 65 to finish T5 at the Senior PGA Championship. Performance at Harbor Shores was his best in a Champions Tour event since he was T5 at the 2011 Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach...Recorded his second top-10 effort in a senior major championship when he shot 66 on the last day at Fox Chapel GC to finish T6 in the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship...Late in the year, finished T7 at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship, his fourth top-10 effort of the campaign.

PERSONAL:

Served as host of W. Hal Brooks Memorial Golf Tournament and Gala, in honor of his father. Event was held for 11 years in his hometown and benefited hundreds of youth and teenage programs...Partner in Knott-Linn-Brooks House, a golf course design company based in Palo Alto, Calif...His first start-to-finish project, Southern Oaks GC outside Fort Worth, Texas, opened to rave reviews in 1999.

BEST 2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T2—ACE Group Classic.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Turned in his strongest season since 2011. Had four events where he finished among the top-six finishers...Made a strong run in Sunday's final round at The ACE Group Classic, firing a 6-under-par 66 to get himself into position to win. However, despite birdies on two of his final three holes, made a bogey at No. 14, which would later prove costly as he finished T2, one stroke shy of Kirk Triplett's winning total of 16-under-par 201...Had another strong showing at May's Regions Tradition. Shared the first-round lead and was among the leaders all four rounds in Birmingham before eventually finishing T3, two behind winner Kenny Perry...Was tied for the first-round lead at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open and eventually finished T4...Capped his season with a solo sixth at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Arizona.

PERSONAL:

After winning the 1993 Monterrey Open in Mexico, gave victory speech in Spanish. Knows language because of his father's Chilean heritage...Did not start playing golf until he was 19. Got hooked on game while attending Occidental College in Los Angeles...Son, Olin, Jr., played golf at Pepperdine for John Geiberger, son of former PGA TOUR and Champions Tour player Al Geiberger, and was a conditional member of the 2014 Web.com Tour...His favorite team growing up was the Washington Redskins. Favorite players were quarterback Sonny Jurgensen and wide receiver Charlie Taylor...Enjoys watching "NCIS" and football on TV and says his favorite all-time movies are "My Cousin Vinny" and "Raiders of the Lost Ark"...Follows tennis and is a fan of Rafael Nadal and Novak Djokovic...Says his favorite meal is fresh-caught snapper—blackened...Says his most memorable shot was his 30-foot putt on the final hole at the 2011 U.S. Senior Open...One course he's never played that he'd love to play is St. Andrews...First concert he attended was Peter Frampton and Yes at RFK Stadium in Washington...Enjoys getting involved with any charity that supports our military...Enjoys Jimmy Buffett and Stevie Ray Vaughan...Bucket list includes diving with great white sharks.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(1): 1988 Florida Open.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Was among the top-10 finishers in more than a third of his starts but did not have a performance better than fifth in any event. Played his best golf in the first half of the season and, in one stretch, was among the top seven in four of seven starts...In late-May, was a co-leader after 36 holes of the Senior

PGA Championship and in contention early on the front nine Sunday before eventually finishing T5 at Harbor Shores...A month later, was on the leaderboard throughout the Encompass Championship, and his final-round 69 led to a fifth-place showing at North Shore CC...Played his last 25 holes at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic without a bogey, and a final-round 69 moved him into a T6 near Biloxi...Tied for the first-round lead at the Insuperity Invitational and eventually finished T7 at The Woodlands...Opened by tying the course record at the Shaw Charity Classic and shared the first-round lead with Tom Pernice, Jr., before eventually claiming a T7 in Calgary.

PERSONAL:

Older brother Brad is also a member of the Champions Tour, and they are one of only 12 winning brother combinations in PGA TOUR history...Suffered a left-wrist injury near the end of the 2009 season and a pair of subsequent surgeries kept him out of action for almost three years, returned to the PGA TOUR midway through the 2012 season...Prior to that, 2003 season was cut short due to elbow surgery...In 2001, missed the first half of the PGA TOUR season due to rehabilitation from elbow surgery that occurred in December, 2000. Also underwent rotator cuff surgery in 1992...Some of his favorite TV shows are "Everybody Loves Raymond" and "Grimm"...Also enjoys watching football as well as some basketball...Enjoys 70's rock and contemporary Christian music...His favorite team as a kid was the Dallas Cowboys and favorite player was Roger Staubach...Would love to trade places for a day with anyone who "hits it over 320 yards," just to feel what it's like to hit one long drive...His favorite meal is country fried steak, mashed potatoes, fried okra, mac-n-cheese made by his mom...His all-time favorite movies include "Braveheart", "For Love of the Game" and "Father of the Bride"...His most memorable vacation was going to New York City with my wife for their 25th wedding anniversary...Would most like to sit down for a discussion with Abraham Lincoln...Drives an Acura MDX and a Harley Davidson Ultra Classic Limited...Most memorable shot was his putt on No. 18 to win the Memorial Tournament...Supports the House of Hope, CRU and his local church...Enjoys taking road trips on his Harley when not playing golf...His bucket list includes taking his motorcycle from Orlando to Alaska and back as well as winning a major championship.

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1):

1989 Kemper Open

BEST 2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

2–Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in a career-high 21 events during the year, including three as an open-qualifier, finishing 39th on the money list, six spots higher than in 2013. His season earnings totaled $452,801, a Champions Tour personal best...Made a spirited run at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, eventually finishing second to John Cook by a stroke after making bogey at the par-3 17th hole from the back of a greenside bunker. Performance on the Monterey Peninsula equaled his career-best Champions Tour effort and also earned him a spot in the SAS Championship. Was two strokes ahead of Cook with six holes to play but the two then were tied after he made bogey at the par-5 14th. He remained tied with Cook until his bogey at No. 17...Received a sponsor exemption for the Insuperity Championship and finished T9 at The Woodlands CC...Registered the 10th hole-in-one of the Champions Tour season when he aced the eighth hole at Prestonwood CC in the opening round of the SAS Championship (7-iron from 160 yards). Ace was the fourth in SAS Championship history.

PERSONAL:

After graduating from high school in Onida, S.D., joined brother Curt in Albuquerque, N.M., where Tom worked at a country club and was a walk-on on the University of New Mexico golf team. After two years, transferred to New Mexico State in Las Cruces where one of his teammates was Bart Bryant...Involved in a nine-hole course, The Training Station, where golfers of all ages play three, six or nine holes.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Saw his string of top-30 finishes come to a close at four when he finished 32nd on the final money list. Was 28th with two full-field events remaining but was forced to WD at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic and then finished 72nd at the AT&T Championship to fall four spots...His two best showings during the year came in the spring. Was the 36-hole leader at the Regions Tradition before falling three back after 54 holes following a 2-over-par 74. However, battled his way back into contention with birdies on four of his first eight holes on Sunday before seeing his chances slip away with costly bogeys on Nos. 9 and 13 which left him one shy of Kenny Perry at the end...Two weeks later made a late run with birdies on his final two holes at The Principal Charity Classic but eventually finished T3, one stroke out of the Doug Garwood-Tom Pernice, Jr. playoff...Earlier in the year shot a final-round 64 at the Allianz Championship that included a run of seven consecutive birdies (Nos. 14-2), the best birdie streak on the Champions Tour since Jeff Sluman made seven consecutive during the 2013 3M Championship...Made six of eight PGA TOUR cuts while utilizing his one-time exemption in the top 50 on the TOUR career money list...Best finish in those six was a T34 at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans...Suffered a serious injury in a fall on Thanksgiving morning when his hand went through a plate-glass window, cutting a tendon on top of his hand. Underwent surgery to re-attach the tendon in early December and is expected to be out of action until March.

PERSONAL:

In 2002, inducted into the Phoenix Sports Hall of Fame, becoming only the 15th person and sixth golfer put into the Hall, which was established in 1985. Other golfers include Arnold Palmer, Gene Littler, Byron Nelson, Ben Hogan and Ken Venturi...Father was bowling center proprietor in Nebraska. At age 13, Mark had a 185 average. Now has a 205 average and wife, Brenda, has a 150 average. The pair have two lanes in their home called The Lanes of Villa Nahar and they were heavily involved in a 2010 charity initiative dubbed Shake, Rattle and Bowl, a PGA TOUR Wives' fundraiser held in conjunction with The Honda Classic...Concentrated on golf when family moved from Nebraska to Florida. Played as many as 72 holes a day during the summer months...Owns three dogs, Miss Ellie (dalmatian-beagle mix), Brutus Buckeye (Jack Russell terrier) and Mollie (white boxer)...Drives to many events in a motorhome purchased late in the 2011 season...Once played a round of golf with Jack Nicklaus at age 14 at Lost Tree GC. Says he was so excited he didn't fall asleep the night before...His first hole-in-one came at age 18 at the University GC at the University of Florida. Says it was a 6-iron from 175 yards into the wind and sun and it flew in...Favorite golf course is Sand Hills GC in Nebraska. Underwent wrist Surgery in December of 2014.

2012 Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid. 2012 U.S. Senior Open Championship

BEST 2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T3–Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(6): 1979 English Amateur Championship. 1981 Lytham Trophy, Lake Macquarie Amateur. 1998 Zimbabwe Open. 2000 Brazil Rio de Janeiro 500 years Open, King Hassan II Trophy.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

After finishing 50th on the money list in 2013, bounced back with a much-improved season. Made a late run for a spot in the top 30 but fell short, finishing 34th on the money list. Got as high as 32nd with two full-field events remaining after a T3 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open, but was unable to move any higher...Equalled the low round of the tournament on the final day when he carded a 7-under 65 at Pebble Beach which vaulted him into a T3 finish, his best Champions Tour effort since winning the 2012 U.S. Senior Open...Was also T6 at the Encompass Championship. Found himself just three strokes off the 36-hole lead but shot even-par 72 Sunday to drop back. Performance in Chicago in mid-June at the time was his best since winning the 2012 U.S. Senior Open...Nearly added another top-10 finish to his ledger in October, but a costly bogey on the 54th hole at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic dropped him to a T11...Was among the top 20 a dozen times after doing so just six times in 2013.

PERSONAL:

Served a stint as a rules official on the European Tour in 2007 and 2008 before embarking on his senior career...Underwent laser eye surgery after years of wearing glasses.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Was one of only two players (David Frost) to play in every tournament...Had the majority of his success during the campaign in a two-month period in the summer when he was among the top 10 four times in five tournaments...Outstanding month of June highlighted by a third-place effort at the Constellation

SENIOR PLAYERS when he missed a playoff spot with Bernhard Langer and Jeff Sluman by a stroke. After a slow start at Fox Chapel GC, followed with rounds of 66-63-67(-14), matching Sluman for the best final 54 holes of the event. Third-round 63 equaled the best third-round score in championship history...Started the month by teaming with Kenny Perry for a fourth-place finish in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf...One week later, closed with 64 to finish T6 at the Encompass Championship. Score was an 18-hole event record at North Shore CC and included a run of five consecutive birdies on the back 9...Late in the season, was among the leaders during the final round at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship before a bogey at No. 16 thwarted any chance he had. Eventually finished fourth, two strokes behind champion Paul Goydos...Final-round 70 in tricky conditions led to a T7 finish at the Insuperity Invitational in early May...Was T10 at The Senior Open Championship in Wales in late-July.

PERSONAL:

Avid University of Kentucky basketball fan...Started playing with ladies' golf clubs because he couldn't find any other left-handed clubs...Son Ryan scored a hole-in-one at age 6, one of youngest ever to record an ace. Ryan shot 67 in Monday qualifier for 1998 FedEx St. Jude Classic, missing a playoff for final tournament spot by one stroke...Youngest son, Case, played golf at Texas A&M...Middle son, Reed, is a student at the University of Kentucky Law School...Enjoys the TV show "The Mentalist"...First job he had was mowing lawns...His favorite meal is barbecue and cornbread...One talent he'd most love to have is to be able to sing...Favorite athlete in another sport is Drew Brees of the New Orleans Saints...Also enjoys any Clint Eastwood Western...One course he'd love to play is Old Head GL in Ireland...Says his most memorable shot was his 35-foot birdie putt at No. 16 at Cog Hill during the Western Open in 1991...His bucket list includes attending tennis' U.S. Open and traveling to South America.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Despite missing 10 weeks of the season, and five events, with an injury (suffered a left-rib fracture to his ninth rib), managed to rebound and secure a spot among the top-20 on the final money list for a seventh straight year...Highlight of his season was when he notched his 10th career Champions Tour title and ended a 20-month victory drought by edging Tom Byrum at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. One-stroke win over Byrum was his first victory in 39 tournaments. Coupled with his PGA TOUR win on the Monterey Peninsula in 1981, he became the 14th different player to win both a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event at the same venue (16th time it's happened). Was tied with Byrum for most of the back nine but took the lead when Byrum made a bogey from the back bunker near the 17th green. Victory vaulted him into the top 30 on the money list and qualified him for the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Two events later, was solo fifth at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic...Was forced to WD from the Allianz Championship and just a month after returning to action from his injury, turned in four par-or-better rounds at the Regions Tradition and finished T6. At one point, was tied for the lead on the back nine Sunday, however, had a rules infraction on the 14th hole (double hit the ball for a one-stroke penalty), which eventually led to a double bogey and dropped him out of contention...Prior to his victory at Pebble Beach, recorded back-to-back T7 performances. First at the 3M Championship thanks to a second-round 9-under-par 63. It was his lowest round since he opened with a 63 at the 2011 Montreal Championship...He then was T7 for the third consecutive year at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open after sharing the opening-round lead and trailing by two strokes after 36 holes at En-Joie GC.

PERSONAL:

Born in Ohio but grew up in Southern California...Persuaded by Jack Nicklaus and Tom Weiskopf to attend Ohio State...Remains a staunch Ohio State fan and has school logo on his golf bag...Father, Jim, was a long-time tournament director on the PGA TOUR...Was an analyst on USA Network's "PGA TOUR Sunday" in 2003 and began work as a contributor on Golf Channel's "Morning Drive" in 2013...Son Jason played golf at Pepperdine and is an aspiring professional...Once did a photo shoot as a youngster with Mary Cathleen Collins, who later became famous as Bo Derek...One of three former Ohio State golfers on the Champions Tour, joining former teammates Joey Sindelar and Rod Spittle.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Surpassed the $1-million mark in season earnings for the fifth consecutive time...Claimed a pair of titles for the first time since 2012...Earned his 10th career Champions Tour title in March when he emerged from a crowded leaderboard for a one-stroke victory at the Toshiba Classic. Shook off a bogey at No. 11 at Newport Beach CC in the final round with a strong finish to win the event for the second time (2010). Birdied three of the final four holes to hold off Bernhard Langer, Colin Montgomerie and Steve Pate. Playing in the next-to-last group, sank a 4-footer for birdie at No. 17 and then hit a pitching wedge from 112 yards to 7 feet for another birdie on No. 18...Added an 11th victory on Tour in record-setting fashion in late-August in Canada. Posted the low score of his Tour career, with a final-round, 9-under-par 61, which set a new Shaw Charity Classic mark. Started the day four strokes back of the 36-hole leaders, but his bogey-free 61 included a scorching 6-under-par 29 on the back nine, with eagles on Nos. 11 and 18. His eagle at No. 18 gave him the lead at 15-under-par only to have Billy Andrade make an eagle on the final hole, as well, to set up a playoff. He ended the overtime after just one hole. After laying up with a wedge on his second shot, he nearly holed a wedge on his third, watching it land just inches away. When Andrade's birdie attempt from 30-plus feet slid by the hole, he tapped in for his win. Played all 54 holes without a bogey, becoming the 18th player to accomplish that feat and win the event. Surpassed the $1-million mark in season earnings for the fifth consecutive time...Despite three consecutive rounds in the 60s and a 54-hole total of 19-under-par 197, still finished T2, three strokes behind Langer at the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai...Made a late run at Langer midway through the back nine Sunday at the Insuperity Invitational but finished second at The Woodlands after a bogey at the final hole when he had crept to within a stroke...After being the first-round leader at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, eventually finished fifth at Fallen Oak after playing the final 36 holes in just 1-under...Finished fourth in his next outing, at the Greater Winnett Championship. Was third and just two behind eventual winner Miguel Angel Jimenez heading into the final round but fell out of contention with a pair of early bogeys Sunday...Missed two months during the season with back problems after the Regions Tradition. Returned to action at the Senior Open Championship in Wales and finished T13 at Royal Porthcawl...Was T7 in defense of his Charles Schwab Cup Championship, where he posted a second-round, 6-under-par 64...On the PGA TOUR, made the cut for the 28th time in 30 career starts at the Masters Tournament, finishing T21. Was on the leaderboard through his front nine Sunday but struggled to a 5-over-par 41 on the back nine to drop out of contention...Played in his 32nd consecutive Northern Trust Open but missed the cut after shooting consecutive 72s at Riviera. Was named as the honorary chairman of the event's L.A. Legends Club...Also competed in the 25th annual Omega Dubai Desert Classic on the European Tour and finished T54.

PERSONAL:

In May 2013, was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame, with Colin Montgomerie, Willie Park, Jr., Ken Schofield and Ken Venturi...Roomed with Blaine McCallister and CBS Sports' broadcaster Jim Nantz at the University of Houston...His charity is Millie Medlin Violet Sobich Couples Fund, in memory of his mother...Served as host of the Fred Couples Invitational, a charity event in hometown of Seattle...Introduced to game by his father, who worked in the Seattle Parks and Recreation Department...Inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame in Chicago in November 2007...Selected for the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in the fall of 2011...Received the honor of raising the "12th Man" flag by the Seattle Seahawks prior to their Monday Night Football game vs. the New Orleans Saints in December 2013.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Started the season as a non-exempt player but open-qualified for four events early in the campaign and eventually played his way into fully-exempt status for 2015. Key to his season was a stretch just past the mid-point in the year when he was among the top five in four of five tournaments. Easily earned the most he's ever made in a single season in professional golf, his $952,814 surpassing the 2003 PGA TOUR season when he pocketed more than $600,000...Appeared headed for his first victory in late-October when he was the 36-hole leader and led Michael Allen by three strokes with four holes remaining at the AT&T Championship. However, bogeys at Nos. 16 and 18 derailed his chances, and left him in solo-second place, two strokes shy...Prior to performance in San Antonio, was T3 in August at the 3M Championship after he open-qualified for the event, the fourth time during the season he successfully played his way into the field. Began with a 9-under-par 63 and was second, one stroke behind Kenny Perry after two rounds at TPC Twin Cities. Briefly took the lead early in the final round after opening with successive birdies on Nos. 1 and 2. However, saw his chances derailed after bogeys on Nos. 5 and 9 and he eventually finished three strokes behind Perry...One week later, at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, carded a final-round 66 with birdies on two of his last three holes to move up into a T4 at En-Joie GC...First raised eyebrows in mid-July when he finished T5 at the U.S. Senior Open in Oklahoma...In late August, parlayed a closing-round, 7-under-par 65 into a T5 finish at the Boeing Classic. Effort in Seattle secured him a spot among the top 30 money-winners for the remainder of the season...Early in the season, registered top-10 finishes in two majors on the Champions Tour. Was T9 at the Regions Tradition and then at the Senior PGA Championship, shot 7-under 64 Saturday, the low round of the championship at Harbor Shores, to eventually finish T9.

PERSONAL:

Took up golf at age 9 after his family moved to Coral Springs, Fla., and lived adjacent to a course...Enjoys listening to classical, world and instrumental music...Would love to try Navy Seals training one day...Favorite athlete is Muhammad Ali...First job was a range picker using a VW Beetle...First concert he attended was The Cars...Most memorable shot was hitting a left-handed 6-iron (upside down) from 120 yards to 10 feet from the pin.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(9): 1994 Manitoba Open. 1995 South Africa Masters, Canadian Masters. 1996 Litoral Open. 1998 Peru Open. 1999 Dimension Data Pro-Am, Peru Open, Argentine Open. 2000 Peru Open.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Earned Rookie of the Year honors on the Champions Tour, thanks to a victory and a pair of second-place finishes all within a four-event stretch in the latter third of the season. Earnings of $1.1 million were a personal best, surpassing his 2000 PGA TOUR season ($1,040,244)...Highlight of his year came in August when he defeated Mark Brooks in a one-hole playoff at the Boeing Classic near Seattle. Jumped into the second-round lead following a 9-under-par

63 Saturday and led by as many as three strokes on the back nine Sunday before a late charge by Brooks, who birdied six of his final seven holes. After missing a 10-foot birdie opportunity on the 54th hole, he ended the playoff on the first extra hole after hitting a dramatic 3-wood second shot from 245 yards on the par-5 18th to within six feet of the flag, setting up a tap-in birdie. The win at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge came in his 16th start on the Champions Tour, and ended a victory drought of over six years—since a title in Panama on the Web.com Tour. Earned a check for $300,000, the largest of his career...Two weeks after winning the Boeing event, almost won again in Quebec City. Eagled the last hole to appear to earn at least a playoff spot but saw Wes Short, Jr., finish fast with a birdie-birdie-eagle run to edge him by a stroke at the Quebec Championship...His strong play continued in his next outing in Hawaii two weeks later. Had birdies on six of his first 12 holes Sunday to take the lead at one point at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship. However, a bogey at No. 13 would prove costly and lead to an eventual T2 finish with Fred Funk, one stroke behind Paul Goydos...In just his third start on the circuit, was one of several players atop the leaderboard late in Sunday's final round at the Toshiba Classic but saw his chances derailed when he made bogeys at Nos. 14 and 17 and finished T5 at Newport Beach...Was also T6 at The Senior Open Championship despite carding a Sunday 75. Moved up the leaderboard at Royal Porthcawl with a third-round 65...Also T9 at the U.S. Senior Open after being one stroke off the 36-hole lead at Oak Tree National...In early March, travelled to Chile to compete in the Web.com Tour's Chile Classic but missed the cut after rounds of 73-72 in Santiago...Made just the third hole-in-one in the history of the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach when his sand-wedge shot from 103 yards went in the hole at the par-3 seventh in the final round. Ace was also the third of his TOUR career (had two on the PGA TOUR) and was the ninth on the Champions Tour in 2014.

PERSONAL:

Sister, Page, is former LPGA member and former women's golf coach at Vanderbilt...Enjoys discussing politics...Was valedictorian of his high school graduating class. Lists former President Ronald Reagan as his hero...Got his start in golf from his dad at age 8...Attended Sarasota High School...Bucket list includes attending soccer's World Cup...Favorite quote is "Often wrong, seldom in doubt." Would love to guest host "Squawk Box" on CNBC...Has won professional events in six countries.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played on all three Tours and was among the top 10 in seven of his 13 Champions Tour starts...Made eight cuts in 15 PGA TOUR starts, highlighted by three top-25s. Ended his PGA TOUR season after the Wyndham Championship, ranked 170th in the FedExCup standings...Highlight of his Champions Tour season came in mid-October when he finished T2 at the Greater Hickory Classic. Opened with a Champions Tour, career-low, 8-under-par 63, allowing him to share the first-round lead with Jay Haas. Round included a 7-under 28 on the front nine matching the low numerical 9-hole score of the season. Trailing by just two strokes through 36 holes but bid for victory was thwarted by a costly bogey on No. 15. Runner-up finish jumped him from 34th into the top 30 money-winners for the rest of the season...Matched the low round of the Senior PGA Championship when he shot 7-under 64 Sunday at Harbor Shores to vault up 26 places into a T5...Was T6 at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship after taking the first-round co-lead...Had another top-10 finish in a major championship when his closing-round, 4-under-par 67 led to a T9 finish at the U.S. Senior Open...Made his Champions Tour debut at the Greater Gwinnett Championship in April and finished T21 near Atlanta...Posted his first top-10 finish in May when he carded consecutive sub-par rounds on the weekend to finish T9 at the Regions Tradition...Was on the leaderboard through the final round at The Principal Charity Classic before eventually finishing seventh...On the PGA TOUR, best outing was a T11 at July's Greenbrier Classic...Was also T5 after 54 holes at the RBC Canadian Open before eventually finishing T12 in Montreal...Finished T17 the following week at the Barracuda Championship in Reno...He was among the early leaders at the Travelers Championship in June and eventually finished T31 near Hartford...Lone made-cut on the Web.com Tour in three starts was a T36 performance at the Mexico Championship...Led the Champions Tour in Driving Accuracy (85.87 percent) and Total Driving (13).

PERSONAL:

Took six months away from golf after 1991 Web.com Tour season. Received license to sell insurance but sold no policies. Also took job at golf equipment retail house, filling orders and stacking boxes. Before returning to TOUR golf, received lecture from wife, Tracey, about changing his negative outlook on golf course...Gave Chrysler (Town & Country Limited) received for victory at Bob Hope Chrysler Classic to Coachella Valley (Calif.) Youth Center and Boxing Club.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Went winless for the first time since 2011 and was the only player with more than seven figures in single-season earnings who did not register a victory. Joined Russ Cochran as the only other player to appear in all 26 events. Still managed to record nine top-10s, with five of those performances coming in the latter third of the season...Had his best outing of the campaign in July when he finished T3 at the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National in Oklahoma...Late in the season, played in the final group with Kirk Triplett and eventual-champion Jay Haas at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic but finished solo fourth despite carding a final-round 68...Also shot 68 Sunday at the Senior PGA Championship to finish T5 at Harbor Shores...Three weeks earlier in Atlanta, posted a pair of rounds in the 60s (68-69) on the weekend to help him to a T5 effort at the Greater Gwinnett Championship in April...Started his season with a T6 performance at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai after registering a second-round, 8-under 64...Was T7 at the Quebec Championship, bettering his opening-round 70 by one stroke each day...One week earlier, shot 63 in the opening round of the Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary, his low round of the season, and briefly held the lead early Sunday before playing a stretch of eight holes in 4-over to drop back into a T9...Led the Champions Tour in Putting Average for the second straight year (1.703) and, along with Bernhard Langer, made the most birdies (334).

PERSONAL:

Took up game with father while caddying for him at age 14...In 1994, established 300-acre vineyard with brother Michael in heart of wine-producing region of South Africa. Current David Frost Wines production is 7,000 cases, consisting of cabernet sauvignon, merlot, chardonnay and sauvignon blanc. Wine features an artist series by LeRoy Neiman. Every vintage is dedicated to a golfer, and $1 from sale of each bottle goes to the golfer's charity. Dedications include Sam Snead, Gene Sarazen, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus. INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(2): 1993 Mexican Open. 2005 Merrill Lynch Skins Game.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Turned in six of his eight top-10 performances on the season starting in early June when he teamed with Jeff Sluman to win a see-saw battle against Jay Haas-Peter Jacobsen in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. The pair birdied five of the final nine holes on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course for the victory...In September, nearly won a second when he battled Scott Dunlap and eventual winner Paul Goydos throughout the final round at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship before finishing T2, one stroke back. Highlight of his final round was an ace at No. 16. Used a 4-hybrid on the 200-yard hole. It was his third hole-in-one on the Champions Tour and the first ace in tournament history. The ace also earned him a free, two-year lease on a BMW...Continued his good play in September into the next event when he played his last 25 holes at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach without making a bogey and finished T6...Was also T8 at the AT&T Championship, the last full-field event of the year...Did not register his first finish inside the top 10 until he was T9 at the Insuperity Invitational near Houston in early May...On the PGA TOUR, made the cut at the Puerto Rico Open (T65), the Waste Management Phoenix Open (T67) and the Valero Texas Open (T69)...Finished T9 at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba, in November, one of the early events on the PGA TOUR's 2014-15 season. It was his first top-10 finish in a TOUR event since a T10 at the 2008 Sony Open in Hawaii.

PERSONAL:

Golf coach at University of Maryland from 1982 through 1988...Also worked as newspaper circulation supervisor before joining TOUR...One of the first TOUR players to have LASIK surgery...Named to the University of Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame in 2007 as well as the state of Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame...Active in Jacksonville (Fla.) community, raising funds for J.T. Townsend, who suffered a spinal cord injury playing high school football in 2004 and died in 2013. Assisted in raising money for after-care expenses and building a wheelchair-accessible home for Townsend. The family moved into the home in 2006...Made his first hole-in-one at the Mid-Atlantic Pro-Am at Evergreen CC in Virginia with a 6-iron from 165 yards...Says the one thing being a professional golfer has allowed him to do is help others...One course he says he could play for the rest of his life is Pebble Beach because of its beauty...Son, Taylor, won the 2013 Florida 2A state championship in late-October, playing for Ponte Vedra High School and shooting a 3-under 141 to win by three shots at Howey-in-the-Hills' Mission Inn Resort's El Campeon and Las Colinas' Courses. The team also won the state 2A title. Taylor, who also occasionally serves as his dad's caddie, was second in the 2012 2A tournament and is a member of the golf team at the University of Texas. He reached the match-play round of the 2014 U.S. Amateur before losing his first match.

(1): 2001 Long Beach Open.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Troubled by bulging-disc issues in the latter part of the season but took advantage of his conditionally-exempt status at the start of the season to play his way into a full exemption for 2015. Was among the top 10 in a third of his 18 starts even though he did not play in an event from mid-February through mid-May...Nearly claimed his first Champions Tour title the first week of June when he lost in a two-hole playoff to Tom Pernice, Jr., at The Principal Charity Classic. Was the 36-hole leader at the Wakonda Club and led by as much as four strokes early Sunday before rallying late to get into the overtime with Pernice. Made a 30-foot birdie on No. 17 and another 7-foot birdie on the final hole of regulation to get into the playoff. Lost out on the second playoff hole when Pernice made an 8-foot birdie putt...Backed up his performance in Iowa with a fourth-place effort at the Encompass Championship near Chicago. Was among the first-round leaders and then closed with a final-round 66 at North Shore CC to vault into solo fourth place...Was again in the mix in mid-August at the Boeing Classic when he had a T5 near Seattle...One week later, was T9 at the Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary and then three weeks later, finished T7 at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship in mid-September. Posted a second-round, 9-under-par 63, his career-low on Tour...Cemented his spot among the top-30 on the money list when he was T6 at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic in October...Led the Champions Tour in Par-4 Birdies (21.83 percent).

PERSONAL:

Lists Jack Nicklaus among his heroes. Father got him started in the game. Held various retail and insurance jobs during time away from the golf course. Says making it to the final stage of the PGA TOUR National Qualifying Tournament was his biggest thrill in golf...Father, Kelton, was a character actor who had parts in several TV shows and movies. Was the undertaker in several episodes of Gunsmoke.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in all 24 events for which he was eligible...Finished T12 at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship and final-round 7-under 63 at Fox Chapel matched his age. Score on Sunday was the best final round amongst the field and equaled the lowest final round in tournament annals (Tom Kite/2003). It was also his best score since he posted a final-round 63 at the 2009 ACE Group Classic. Performance at Fox Chapel GC came in his record 66th consecutive start in a senior major championship...Added two more starts in majors and will begin the 2015 season with a streak of 68 consecutive major championship appearances on Tour...Will also begin the 2015 season with a streak of 84 consecutive starts in events for which he was eligible.

1--Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the Champions Tour in early August and was among the top-10 in half of his 10 appearances...Used top-10 efforts in back-to-back events in North Carolina to vault into the top 30 on the money list...Highlight of his rookie season was recording his first Champions Tour win in just his fifth start, at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship, becoming the last of the season's six first-time winners...Fired rounds of 66-63-68 to claim victory for the second time in his career on Oahu. On the PGA TOUR, also won the 2007 Sony Open in Hawaii. Held off both Scott Dunlap and Fred Funk down the stretch thanks to birdies on Nos. 14-17 and then survived an 18th-hole bogey to become the eighth player to win tournaments on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Web.com Tour (Ron Streck, Keith Fergus, Tom Lehman, Gary Hallberg, Olin Browne, Kirk Triplett, Jeff Maggert)... Made his Champions Tour debut in August at the 3M Championship and finished T9...Posted three rounds in the 60s which led to a T7 at the Shaw Charity Classic in late August...Battling to earn a spot in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, he played in the last group at the SAS Championship, and final-round 72 at Prestonwood CC led to a T5 finish. Performance moved him inside the top 30 on the money list...The following week in Hickory, N.C., secured his place among the top 30 when he finished T6 at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic after three successive rounds in the 60s...Made just four of 19 cuts on the PGA TOUR and failed to clear his Major Medical Extension after earning only $43,441...Had 19 events to earn $590,290, which, coupled with 2012 earnings of $57,220, would equal No. 125 from the 2012 money list.

PERSONAL:

Was a substitute teacher in Long Beach, Calif., at the time of his 1992 Yuma Open victory...Was the 1996 EA Sports Golf Challenge champion. Donated $10,000 prize to Arnold Palmer Children's Hospital...Says the first and only autograph he ever received was from California Angel Sandy Alomar, who signed his mitt at a game in Anaheim Stadium in 1974. "No, I don't know where the glove is now. I don't have it."...His favorite movie is "Monty Python and the Holy Grail"...Was hitting balls at the Long Beach State driving range in college when football coach and Pro Football Hall of Fame member George Allen decided he wanted to use the range for practice. "He yelled, 'Get that golfer off my football field.' I never met the man, but let's just say he definitely knew who I was."...On March 13, 2012, underwent surgery to remove a large bone spur on his left wrist, which was rubbing against a tendon and creating discomfort. The surgery didn't produce the desired results and he remained on the sidelines away from competitive golf for the remainder of the year. While sidelined due to wrist surgery, couldn't stay away from the game and ventured into the TV arena. In early May 2012, spent a week as guest host of "Morning Drive" on Golf Channel...Also received Major Medical Extensions in 2004 and 2005 because of sinus surgery and hip problems.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had perhaps the most remarkable season by a player over age 60, finishing third in both earnings and Charles Schwab Cup points, thanks to 17 top-10s, the most he's had in a single season since 2007 (18). Was among the top-30 money-winners for a tenth consecutive year...Incredibly, only two of his 64 rounds during the campaign were over par, the fewest ever by a player in a full Champions Tour season. Ranked second only to Bernhard Langer in Scoring (68.39) and Birdie Average (4.41), while being the leading player in the All-Around category (91). Went from the final day of the Regions Tradition

(May 18) through the second round of the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship (October 31) without an over-par round. His 38 scores of par or better during this stretch set an all-time Champions Tour mark, eclipsing Loren Roberts' previous record of 37 consecutive during the 2006-07 seasons. During this run, also had a season-best streak of 28 consecutive sub-par scores...After several brushes with victory early in the year, joined an elite list in October when he won the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at the Rock Barn Golf & Spa. His third victory in the event, made him just the 18th player in Champions Tour annals age 60 or older to win a tournament. Triumph was his 17th career title. After opening with an 8-under-par 63 to share the lead with Joe Durant, followed with a second-round 67 to lead by two strokes. Held off Sunday challenges by Durant and Kirk Triplett to win by two. It was the second time in his Champions Tour career he captured the same event three times. Previously, he had won three Principal Charity Classic titles. At 60 years, 10 months, 17 days, he also became the 10th-oldest winner in Champions Tour history, and his 54-hole total of 17-under-par 196 was a tournament 54-hole scoring record...Nearly added a second win two weeks later when he fell in a four-hole playoff to Tom Pernice, Jr., at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship at the Cochise Course at the Desert Mountain Club. Led by four strokes after 36 holes, thanks to a second-round, 8-under-par 62, and trailed by one stroke after 54 holes, despite a third-round 5-over-par 75, the score that ended his all-time par-or-better streak, as well as his sub-par streak. Rebounded on the final day with a 4-under 66, which included rolling in a 37-foot birdie putt from the front fringe on the 72nd hole to briefly grab a one-stroke lead. Minutes later, Pernice made a two-putt birdie to force a playoff, which he would win with another two-putt birdie on the fourth extra hole...Was also a second-place finisher in June when he teamed with Peter Jacobsen to finish second by one stroke in a hard-fought battle with Fred Funk-Jeff Sluman in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf. The pair led by one stroke after 36 holes and remained in contention until the final hole on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course before Sluman closed the door with a six-foot par-saving putt at the 54th hole...Prior to Legends performance, had been among the top five in nine of his first 10 starts in 2014 but was not better than third in any of the nine. Was T3 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic after being in the mix with Billy Andrade and eventual-winner Jeff Maggert midway through the back nine Sunday. In his next start, his strong play on the weekend (69-67) was instrumental in his third-place finish at the Greater Gwinnett Championship near Atlanta...Shared the first-round lead at the Regions Tradition and trailed by just one stroke after 36 holes. However, dropped three strokes back with a third-round 73, then rebounded Sunday, closing with a 71 to finish T3 in Birmingham. His third-round 73 ended his streak of par-or-better rounds at 27, dating to 2013...A week after Shoal Creek, recorded another third-place effort at the Senior PGA Championship, his second consecutive year with that result. Was in contention early on the back nine but played his last seven holes in even par...One week later, posted three straight rounds in the 60s at The Principal Charity Classic and was tied for the clubhouse lead at one point Sunday before finishing T3, falling one short of the playoff between Doug Garwood and Tom Pernice, Jr. (won by Pernice)...Started the season by finishing fourth at the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, his seventh career top-10 performance in the event and third consecutive. Final-round 65 was his 27th consecutive sub-par round on the course, and it included consecutive chip-ins for eagle and then birdies at Nos. 14-15...In February, was T5 at the Allianz Championship after moving into contention with an 8-under 64 in the second round...Turned in another strong performance the following week at The ACE Group Classic, posting a final-round, 8-under 64 to finish fifth...His T5 at the Inispa Invitational in early May was his only performance outside the top three from late-March thru early June. Finish at The Woodlands marked the seventh time he's been among the top six in the Houston event over his 10 starts in the tournament...In his 1,000th combined-career TOUR start, shot rounds of 65-66 on the weekend to move into a T6 finish at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship...During the week of the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, was named the captain for the 2015 United States Presidents Cup team.

PERSONAL:

Introduced to golf by his uncle, 1968 Masters Tournament winner Bob Goalby...Won first trophy at National Pee Wee Championship in Orlando at age 7...Brother Jerry is the golf coach at Wake Forest...Brother-in-law Dillard Pruitt played the PGA TOUR and is now a rules official on that circuit...Son Jay played college golf at Augusta State and is a now a professional. Second son, Bill, plays on the PGA TOUR and captured the 2011 FedEx Cup. Bill was also an All-American at Wake Forest and won the 2004 Ben Hogan Award as the top collegiate male golfer...His favorite course in the U.S. is Harbour Town GL, while his favorite course outside the U.S. is Turnberry...Favorite golf holes are No. 8 at Pebble Beach and No. 16 at North Berwick...Enjoys vacationing at Pawley's Island, S.C...Always marks his ball on the green with an English penny...Says his dream foursome would include his two sons and Goalby...Favorite non-golf sporting event is the Final Four and also enjoys the Rolling Stones...Favorite sports team is any sport in which Wake Forest is competing...Made his first hole-in-one at age 10 playing at Yorktown GC in Belleville, Ill., with his dad. Used a 5-iron from 110 yards...Received the 2004 Payne Stewart Award for upholding the traditions of golf and was honored in 2005 with the Jim Murray Award from the Golf Writers Association of America and late in the 2005 season was named as the recipient of the Bob Jones Award, the United States Golf Association's highest honor for distinguished sportsmanship.

Did not play an event during the season.

PERSONAL:

During the second stage of the 2008 PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament in Texas, turned himself in for accidentally using a prototype golf ball not approved for competition by the United States Golf Association, resulting in disqualification. "It's extremely disappointing," he said. "I keep thinking I'm going to wake up and this is going to be a bad nightmare."

The move by Hayes triggered national attention for his honesty and integrity...Upon winning first TOUR title in 1998, said, "More than the money, to me that exemption means the most. For the first time in a lot of years I won't have to fill out that application for qualifying school."...Played his college golf at the University of Texas-El Paso.

PERSONAL:

Donated $100,000 of 1989 Las Vegas Invitational winnings to Arnold Palmer Children's Hospital in Orlando. Has a floor named after him at the Arnold Palmer Hospital, thanks to his family's donations. Although son Cameron was successfully treated elsewhere for rare bone infection in right leg, he and wife Sally are strong supporters of Orlando facility...Family has also made large donations to area hospitals and churches...Brother Buddy was a professional bowler, while their father won All-American honors in baseball at Wake Forest...Lists Harbour Town GL, Muirfield Village and the CC of North Carolina as his favorite courses...Favorite entertainer is Frank Sinatra, favorite movies include "It's a Wonderful Life" and "Blazing Saddles"...Favorite athlete is Michael Jordan...Has experienced his share of medical issues in recent years. Underwent left-hand surgery during the week of the 2005 FUNAI Classic at Walt Disney World. Doctors removed two pieces of bone and cartilage in his hand and repaired a torn tendon that had snapped in April of that same year...Had played just four PGA TOUR events in 2003 with a nagging wrist injury and then sprained left wrist during the 2004 PGA Championship when, during the second round, he put his hands out to break a fall, after walking off the tee box and the ground gave way...Says one historical event he would have liked to have witnessed first hand was being the first to step on the moon...Once played a round of golf with three Presidents at one time—George H. Bush, Bill Clinton and Gerald Ford at the 1995 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic...Had an opportunity to play with his idol when he was paired with Arnold Palmer in the first round at his first Masters (1979).

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Completed his 20th season as a Champions Tour members...Three consecutive rounds in the 60s helped him to a T9 finish at the 3M Championship in August, his 210th career top-10. Highlight of the event was bettering his age in all three rounds (68-66-68) to become the first player to do so in all three rounds since Gary Player at the 2009 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai...Matched his age for the seventh time in his Champions Tour career when he closed with 69 at North Shore CC at the Encompass Championship in June and the eighth time with a second-round 69 at the AT&T Championship...Bettered his age for the third time in February when he shot a 5-under-par 67 at the Allianz Championship in the opening round...Did it again a month later with a 66 in the second round at the Toshiba Classic, marking the fourth time he had bettered his age...Later in the year bettered his age two more times, bringing his career total in that category to nine. The first came with a 68 in the first round of the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship. Three weeks later shot another 68 in the opening round of the SAS Championship.

PERSONAL:

Got his start in golf at age 4 through his father...Actively involved in his own course design business...Biggest thrills in golf were his first TOUR win in 1971 at Hilton Head Island, S.C, his three U.S. Open victories, his two U.S. Senior Open wins and playing on the victorious U.S. Ryder Cup team in 1991...Participated in a charity golf tournament in St. Louis for 25 years to benefit the St. Louis Children's Hospital and Hale Irwin Center for Pediatric Hematology/Oncology...Was the recipient of the Ambassador of Golf Award by the Northern Ohio Golf Charities at the 2009 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational in Akron...Says if he could meet one famous person dead or alive his choice would be Abraham Lincoln, because he came along at a very tumultuous time in our history and had a positive influence...His favorite golf courses in the United States are Cypress Point and Winged Foot, while overseas he gives the nod to Royal Melbourne in Australia...Leans toward the 2-iron he hit at the last hole to win the 1974 U.S. Open at Winged Foot as his all-time favorite shot...Broke 70 for the first time at age 14...Favorite all-time athlete is Byron "Whizzer" White, a fellow CU football standout and the former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

T6–Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Debuted on the Champions Tour in early September at the Quebec Championship. A final-round 72 led to a T23 finish in his first Tour event held just outside Quebec City...Posted a T6 effort at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Moved into contention early in the final round when he was 4-under after his first six holes. However, a double bogey-6 at the par-4 eighth hole derailed his chances. Teamed with Chris Meyers to win the pro-junior portion of the event combining for a 22-under 193 total. Witnessed Meyers' dramatic hole-out Sunday for double eagle on the famed par-5 18th hole at Pebble Beach. Made five of eight PGA TOUR cuts but did not record a top-25 finish for the second consecutive season. Had at least one top-25 each year from 1990-2012..Finished T27 at the PGA TOUR's Barracuda Championship...Also made the cut at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am (T64), the Arnold Palmer Invitational (T56) and the Puerto Rico Open (T78)...Also made three Web.com Tour starts but failed to make a cut...Following the official season, finished second in the Callaway Invitational, losing in a playoff to Tommy Armour III at Pebble Beach.

PERSONAL:

Began to take golf seriously at age 14 after family moved to Florida from Maryland, where he played Little League baseball. Still avid Baltimore Orioles fan...Won first tournament at 15 as member of Greater Tampa Junior Golf Association...Played with Aaron Stewart, the late Payne Stewart's son, in the 2004 Father-Son Challenge.

1—Greater Gwinnett Championship.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Enjoyed another busy season, splitting time between the PGA TOUR and the European Tour while also making his Champions Tour debut a successful one when he won April's Greater Gwinnett Championship in Georgia. After opening with a 7-under-par 65, followed with rounds of 70-67 to post a two-stroke victory over Bernhard Langer. Became the 18th Champions Tour player to win in his debut and was also the third player to win his debut in wire-to-wire fashion, joining Rod Funseth (1983 Hall of Fame Tournament) and Bruce Fleisher (1999 Royal Caribbean Classic) with that distinction. He became the second Spaniard to win on the Champions Tour (Jose Maria Canizares at the 2001 Toshiba Classic) and the first sponsor exemption since Phil Blackmar at the 2009 AT&T Championship. With Jeff Maggert winning the previous event in his first start, the pair became the first players to post back-to-back victories in their debut since Don January (1980 Atlantic City International) and Roberto De Vicenzo (1980 U.S. Senior Open)...Used a final-round 68 to move up into a T8 at the Senior Open Championship in Wales...Played in his 15th Masters Tournament one week prior to his Gwinnett Championship win and was on the leaderboard throughout the weekend before finishing fourth, his best showing in the event...Finished T10 at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship in mid-January...Was T13 at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship in March...Captained the European team to a tie with the Asian team at the inaugural Eurasia Cup in March in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Went 2-0-1 in his three matches while competing as a playing captain...Won for the second time when he hung on in a playoff to win the Open de Espana. Finished regulation in Girona, Spain, tied with Richard Green and Thomas Pieters. No player shot a round in the 60s in the final round at PGA Catalunya Resort, and his 3-over 73 was enough to get him into the extra session. Winning in his home country allowed him to break his own European Tour record as the circuit's oldest winner, a mark he originally set by winning the 2013 Hong Kong Open. It was his 14th European Tour title he's won since turning 40. It was his 21st victory overall on that circuit...Served as a vice captain on Paul McGinley's victorious 2014 European Ryder Cup team. Had a nice showing at the Turkish Airlines Open in November. Shot a final-round 68 at The Montgomerie Maxx Royal to T4 along with three others, four shots behind winner Brooks Koepka.

PERSONAL:

One of seven brothers, he took up golf at age 15 while picking up the balls at the range and caddying. Inspired by watching Seve Ballesteros, Sandy Lyle and Sam Torrance when he was caddying at the 1979 Spanish Open at Torrequebrada (Málaga). Nicknamed "The Mechanic" but enjoys driving cars as opposed to repairing them. Has an affinity for high-performance vehicles and owns a red Ferrari...Opened his new golf school near Torremolinos, Spain in January 2013...Is a lover of fine wines and cigars,

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Even in his mid-50s, left no doubt he was the best player on the Champions Tour. Earned Player of the Year honors for an unprecedented fourth time (2008-10) and 2014 on the strength of five victories, the most by a player in a season since he won five in 2010. A pair of titles came in major championships. In addition to his two majors, was among the top-10 finishers in the other three Champions Tour majors, and he claimed his first Charles Schwab Cup since 2010, clinching the season-long points race in the final full-field event of the season, a T6 at the AT&T Championship. Broke Hale Irwin's all-time record for most money earned in a year ($3,028,304 in 2002) when he finished with $3,074,189 after his T4 performance at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, the year's final event. It was the sixth time in the last seven years he has collected the Arnold Palmer Award as the Champions Tour's leader in yearly earnings. During this span, the only time he failed to do so was in 2011 when he was sidelined for part of the year with a thumb injury. Collected the Byron Nelson Award for a third time (2008-09) with a Scoring Average of 68.03, second only to Fred Couples' all-time mark (67.96) in 2010. Set an all-time record on any Tour for Greens In Regulation, hitting an amazing 78.35 percent over his 66 rounds...Highlights of his year were multiple major titles during the summer, the second time he's won a pair of major championships in the same season (2010), and he joined Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player, becoming just the third player to claim multiple majors in a season twice...Sank a 5-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to defeat Jeff Sluman and win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. The victory was his 21st of his Champions Tour career and his third different major title, becoming the first player to collect U.S. Senior Open (2010), Senior Open Championship (2010) and Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS titles in a career. Victory at Fox Chapel GC, coupled with countryman Martin Kaymer's win earlier in the season on the PGA TOUR at THE PLAYERS, marked the first time professionals from the same country other than the United States claimed both PLAYERS' titles in the same season. Win near Pittsburgh also marked the fourth time in his career he's claimed three or more titles in a Champions Tour season. Held a three-stroke lead over Kenny Perry after 54 holes, but shot 70 in the final round and had to earn a playoff spot with Sluman when he holed a miraculous 50-foot birdie putt on the 71st hole, the par-3 17th. After both players made par on the first extra hole, he pitched his third shot from 30 yards to within five feet on the par-5 18th and converted the putt for the win...One month later at Royal Porthcawl in Wales, claimed his second Senior Open Championship with the most-dominating performance in the history of the circuit. Cruised to a 13-stroke win over Colin Montgomerie with four consecutive rounds in the 60s. His 18-under 266 total was a championship record to par. Winning margin eclipsed Irwin's 12-stroke triumph at the 1997 Senior PGA Championship. He joined Tom Watson, Gary Player, Bob Charles, Brian Barnes, Christy O'Connor, Jr., and Loren Roberts as the seventh multiple winner of The Senior Open Championship. Victory in Wales also lifted him over the $2-million mark in 2014 earnings in his 14th appearance of the year...Tied Bob Charles for fifth place on the Champions Tour's all-time victory list when he picked up his 23rd career title at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Came from four strokes back to edge both Woody Austin and Mark O'Meara for the title and went all 54 holes at En-Joie without making a bogey, a first for him in his career. Victory in Endicott, N.Y., was his fifth title of the season, matching his career-best in 2010...Opened the Champions Tour's 35th season by winning his second Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Used a run of five consecutive birdies over the last six holes to pull away from Couples and Sluman. Trained Sluman by a stroke early on the back nine but tied him at the 13th hole, with the first of five consecutive birdies. Winning total of 22-under 194 proved to be the second lowest winning 54-hole score of the year. His 19th career victory extended his streak of years with at least one title to eight...Notched his 20th career victory, and third Insuperity Invitational title, holding off Couples by a stroke at The Woodlands. It marked the first time in his Champions Tour career that he won the same tournament three times. Win near Houston made him the 10th player in Champions Tour history with 20 wins or more in his career. Became the first player to reach the 20-win plateau since Gil Morgan on June 17, 2001, at the Instinet Classic. Victory at the Insuperity Invitational made him the first multiple winner on the circuit in 2014 and gave him multiple wins in six of seven full seasons on the Champions Tour. Victory also lifted him over the $1-million mark in 2014 earnings in just his seventh start...Was also second in four tournaments, including three times over a four-event stretch early in the season...Shared the 36-hole lead with eventual winner Kirk Triplett at The ACE Group Classic but saw his chances slip away when he bogeyed the final hole and Triplett made a clutch par putt...Was again T2 in his next start at the Toshiba Classic. Was the 18- and 36-hole leader and rebounded from a pair of bogeys on the front nine Sunday to get back into contention. However, was unable to catch eventual-winner Couples even though he made three birdies on his final nine...In mid-April, carded three straight rounds of 68 in defense of his Greater Gwinnett Championship title near Atlanta but was still second to Miguel Angel Jimenez by two strokes...Almost won in Minnesota between his victory at the Senior Open Championship and the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Staged a late back-nine rally at the 3M Championship only to fall one stroke short against Kenny Perry. Trained by four strokes at the turn, but climbed into contention after making birdies on five of his first six holes on the back nine. Finally tied for the lead with a birdie at No. 17 only to see Perry win minutes later when he made a 15-foot birdie on No. 18. His 54-hole total of 22-under-par 194 was the second-lowest score to not win an event. Only Don Pooley's 24-under-par 192 at the 2006 MasterCard Championship at Hualalai was lower...At one point dating back to the 2013 season, had a streak of 22 straight sub-par rounds and 31 scores of par/better that eventually was snapped when he opened with a 2-over-par 74 at the Regions Tradition...Also saw a run of 20 straight top-10 finishes come to an end in Chicago when he was T20 at the Encompass Championship. Streak had dated to the summer of 2013 after he was T14 at the U.S. Senior Open in Omaha on July 14...Made one appearance on the European Senior Tour, losing in a playoff at the Winston-golf Senior Open in Vorbeck, Germany. Was tied at the close of 54 holes with Paul Wesselingh and Phil Golding. However, he lost the event when Wesselingh won with a birdie on the third extra hole...In his 31st Masters Tournament appearance, made the cut for the 23rd time and closed with a 3-under-par 69 to finish T8. It was his best showing at Augusta National since 2004, when he was T4...Closed out his stellar season in December when he teamed with his son, Jason, to win the PNC Father/Son Challenge in Orlando by two strokes over Davis Love III and son, Dru.

PERSONAL:

To combat putting yips, has used a variety of putting grips, most recently utilizing a long putter that he began using at the end of the 1996 season...Father settled in Bavaria after jumping a Russian prisoner-of-war train bound for Siberia...Developed fever cramps several times as a child (ages 2-5) and nearly died as a result...Took up golf at age 7 through caddy and turned pro at 15...Developed back problems when he was 19, during an 18-month stint as a member of the German Air Force. Marching with 30-pound pack and rifle led to two stress fractures and bulging discs...Devout Christian, helped organize the regular meetings of the European Tour Bible Class...Website is bernhardlanger.de...Started skiing at age 4 and would say he's a "scratch skier"...Also enjoys driving fast cars...Conducts an annual charity event for Youth for Christ. Event has raised $140,000...Favorite courses are Cypress Point and Augusta National...Dream foursome would include Lee Trevino, Ben Hogan and Byron Nelson...Admires Mother Teresa...Best tip he ever received is to pay attention to fundamentals...Favorite book is The Bible...Top athlete is Bjorn Borg...First job was as a teaching professional...Daughter, Christina, plays golf at Florida Atlantic University.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Scattered seven top-10 finishes over his 20 starts, the highlight of his year coming midway through the campaign when he claimed his first Champions Tour victory in almost 18 months...Holed a 12-foot birdie putt to win the Encompass Championship near Chicago, his eighth overall Champions Tour title. After finishing T3 the year prior, went wire to wire to edge Michael Allen and Kirk Triplett by one stroke at North Shore CC...Had a chance to pick up a second victory late in the season when he played in the final group at the SAS Championship and got within two strokes of eventual-winner Triplett before finishing solo second at Prestonwood, three strokes back. Used a timely eagle on the par-5 17th to jump over Bernhard Langer and Kenny Perry for the runner-up spot...Shared honors for the low round Sunday at the Regions Tradition (5-under-par 67), a score that was instrumental in helping him to a T3 finish at Shoal Creek. Earned $131,266, which pushed him past the $1-million mark in career earnings in the event...Final-round 68 led to a fourth-place finish at the Allianz Championship, the first full-field event of the season.

PERSONAL:

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Was one of a handful of players who enjoyed a turnaround season. After earning just $164,493 and finishing 72nd on the 2013 money list, had the most productive year of his Champions Tour career, earning $488,087 and finishing 37th on the final earnings' chart. Pocketed more money than in his previous two years combined...Had a trio of top-10 finishes, a first since 2011...Buoyed by a closing-round, 6-under-par 64 at the Shaw Charity Classic, he finished T3 in Calgary for his career-best Champions Tour showing. His 64 matched his career-low round, and it came at the same venue where he shot his career-best round on the Champions Tour a year earlier...Played in the last grouping at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, a first since the 2010 AT&T Championship. Dueled eventual-winner Bernhard Langer midway through the back nine before going double bogey and bogey on Nos. 14-15 at En-Joie GC to fall out of contention and T4...Three consecutive rounds of 70 at Prestonwood CC led to a T10 finish at the SAS Championship.

PERSONAL:

Enjoys spending time and playing golf with his wife, Heather...Huge Alabama Crimson Tide football fan. Grandfather was "Smokey" Harper, who worked with coach Bear Bryant and was part of famed Junction Boys at Texas A&M...Has supported Fellowship of Christian Athletes charities...Received the 1995 Singleton Award as Outstanding Professional Athlete in Alabama...Voted into Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in May 2008...Favorite athletes in other sports are Peyton Manning and Jerry West...His most memorable vacation was going to St. John in the U.S. Virgin Islands, where he got married...All-time favorite shot was his double eagle at Castle Pines in 2001 at The International, a tournament he went on to win...If he is not playing golf he enjoys fishing, quail hunting and going on vacation to Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, or La Quinta, Calif... Represents The Discovery Land Company and enjoys visiting its various developments as well as meeting and playing golf with its members...Says his biggest win was the 2008 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am, where he defeated Vijay Singh in a playoff.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the Champions Tour in late March and managed to play 12 events, finishing among the top 10 in half of his starts...Became the 17th player in Champions Tour history to win in his debut when he edged Billy Andrade by two strokes for the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic title. Holed a 45-foot, uphill, left-to-right breaking putt for a birdie at Fallen Oak's 17th hole just moments before Andrade made bogey in the group behind him. As a result, forged a two-stroke advantage that proved to be the difference. Became the first debut winner on the Champions Tour since Rocco Mediate at the 2012 Allianz Championship. At 50 years, 1 month, 3 days, became the youngest Tour winner since John Huston at the 2011 Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Victory near Biloxi also ended a drought of more than seven-plus years since his last TOUR title, at the 2006 FedEx St. Jude Classic and also made him the seventh player to win tournaments on all three Tours...Finished T3 at the 3M Championship in August in Minnesota by posting rounds of 64-67-65 at TPC Twin Cities. Collected 24 birdies in the event, tying the tournament record set in 2008 by R.W. Eaks...In September, finished solo fifth at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship. Performance helped clinch a spot among the top-30 money-winners...Made 19 PGA TOUR appearances and made eight cuts...Was in contention down the stretch at the Travelers Championship and eventually finished T7 at TPC River Highlands. Missed realistic birdie opportunities on each of the final three holes, but performance near Hartford was his best since a T2 at the 2013 PLAYERS Championship...Best finish prior to turning 50 was a T16 at the OHL Classic at Mayakoba in Mexico.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Competed in a dozen PGA TOUR events and made two cuts....Finished 81st at the Humana Challenge and T75 at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans...Later in the campaign competed in two events as the PGA TOUR kicked off its 2014-15 season. Missed the cut at The McGladrey Classic and was T58 at the Sanderson Farms Championship.

PERSONAL:

After college, gave up golf for four years to work with his father in the family clothing business. During that period, athletic focus was on flag football, softball, tennis and racquetball...Return to golf was sparked by 1991 visit to Raley's Senior Gold Rush, the Champions Tour event at Rancho Murieta, Calif. After watching the event, went home and built long putter in garage. Nearly won U.S. Mid-Amateur with homemade model later that year. Used more sophisticated version to win his three TOUR titles...While out with his elbow injury in 2007, he worked as an analyst for Golf Channel and when a series of injuries to his left wrist sidelined him in 2012, he continued his television work...Signed on as an annouoncer with Fox for its coverage of 2015 USGA events...In August 1999, made hole-in-one during first round of CVS Charity Classic immediately following ace by Lee Janzen on 17th hole at Rhode Island CC.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Bounced back from a sub-par 2013 campaign by moving up a dozen spots on the money list, from 48th to 36th...Posted a pair of top-10 finishes and was among the top 20 eight times...Was on the leaderboard for the last 36 holes of the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship and carded a final-round 66 to move up into fifth place, his best Champions Tour showing since he was second at the 2010 Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach...After learning of the death of his longtime caddie, Rocky Hobday, the day before, grieved during the final round of the SAS Championship but still carded a 5-under 67 Sunday at Prestonwood CC to move into a T5...Was among the leaders in Driving Accuracy, finishing fourth on Tour. He also jumped from 44th to 10th in Putting Average.

PERSONAL:

Was a solid athlete in several sports as a youth but excelled at golf...Has managed to rebound from a series of physical setbacks in his career. Escaped with facial injuries when his car collided with a bus near his parents' farm in 1980. While on vacation in Cape Town in December 1993, suffered a freak nerve injury in his neck while playing cricket with his kids. Knee injury curtailed his 1995 season...Best shot of his career was his pitch to nine feet from 68 yards on the final hole that beat Ian Woosnam at the 1987 British Masters...Favorite golf course is the Old Course at St. Andrews, but only when the weather is ideal...First modeled his game after Arnold Palmer and then refined it like Gary Player as he grew older...Plays the piano...Dream foursome would include Bobby Locke, Ben Hogan and Walter Hagen.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Narrowly missed a berth in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, finishing 31st in single-season earnings...Was among the top 30 through the first eight months of the season but slipped outside after the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in late September and was never able to regain a spot. At one point in Sunday's final round at the AT&T Championship, the year's final full-field event, it appeared he'd climbed back into the top 30 after finishing with birdies on five of his final six holes...Fired a 9-under 63 in the opening round of the year to take the first-round lead at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Eventually finished solo fifth, his best finish of the year. Married Jessica Somers the day after the tournament at Hualalai...Was T7 in his next start in defense of his title at the Allianz Championship...At the Regions Tradition, solid play on the weekend, with rounds of 69-70, led to a T6 finish at Shoal Creek...Was T7 along with teammate Steve Elkington in the Champions Division of the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf in June...Posted a 7-under-par 65 the final day at the Boeing Classic, which resulted in a T10 finish. Had 22 birdies in the event, the most by a player in the event history. The previous mark was 21 by Jack Fenz (2006) and Tom Kite (2008)...Made three starts on the PGA TOUR, missing the cut at the Frys.com Open and the Wyndham Championship...Also withdrew at the Farmers Insurance Open after one round.

PERSONAL:

Started using a long putter to help with back pain and became the first player to win on TOUR using a long, broom putter when he won the 1991 Doral-Ryder Open. Currently putts conventionally. Finished 600th out of 5,619 players in his first appearance at the 2005 World Series of Poker's Main Event. Began playing poker in 2004...Grew up in Greensburg, Pa., just miles from Arnold Palmer's home in nearby Latrobe. Played with Palmer for the first time when he was 19, at Latrobe CC...Worked early in his career with former Champions Tour member Jim Ferree, who was a club professional in Pennsylvania.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had a banner first full season on the Champions Tour, fulfilling expectations placed on him in America when he played the PGA TOUR. Was second only to Bernhard Langer in both Charles Schwab Cup points (3,307) and single-season earnings ($2,064,381). Notched 11 top-10s in his 18 starts, claiming perhaps the two biggest events in senior golf...Broke through for his first official win in the U.S. and first major championship when he captured the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores, Mich. Pulled away from Tom Watson down the stretch to win by four strokes, shooting 65 in the final round. Victory ended a drought of 138 PGA TOUR events and 17 Champions Tour appearances without a victory. Became the first Scot to win on the Champions Tour and became the third Scottish champion in the 75-year history of the Senior PGA Championship, joining Jock Hutchison (1937 and 1947) and Fred McLeod (1938). By virtue of his victory at the Senior PGA Championship, earned a spot in the PGA Championship at Valhalla and finished T69...Earned major championship No. 2 in July when he defeated Gene Sauers in a three-hole aggregate playoff at the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National in Oklahoma. Was one shot ahead of Sauers after the first two holes and then drained a 15-foot par putt on the third extra hole to end Sauer's chances. His 6-under-par 65 Thursday gave him the first-round lead and he led by one stroke after 36 holes. However, a disappointing 3-over-par 74 Saturday left him four shots behind Sauers heading into Sunday's final round. Closed with a 2-under-par 69 Sunday to get into the playoff. Became the first player since Roger Chapman in 2012 to record his first two Champions Tour wins in major championships. He also earned a check for $630,000, largest in Champions Tour history, and briefly took over the lead in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race by virtue of the awarding of double points in major championships. He also became the fifth player to win the Senior PGA Championship and the U.S. Senior Open in the same year, joining Chapman (2012), Hale Irwin (1998), Jack Nicklaus (1991) and Gary Player (1988). Victory earned him a berth in the 2015 U.S. Open at Chambers Bay...Birdied the last two holes to nail down second place at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Porthcawl, a distant 13 strokes back of Langer...Earlier in the season, was among three players who finished T2 at the Toshiba Classic. On Sunday, fired a bogey-free 9-under-par 62, his career-low round on the Champions Tour, finishing nearly two hours earlier than the leaders, and his 54-hole total of 14-under-par 199, appeared good enough to get in a playoff late in the day. However, Fred Couples spoiled his hopes with a birdie-birdie finish to claim the title by one stroke...Played in the final grouping at the Insuperity Invitational, and a final-round 70 led to a solo third-place effort. Event at The Woodlands marked his return to Houston for the first time since 2002...Was T4 in his first appearance in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, where he rebounded from a 1-over-par 71 in his opening round with three consecutive rounds in the 60s...At one point in the year had a streak of 308 consecutive holes without a three-putt, the best by any player on Tour during the season...Also enjoyed success on the European Senior Tour...Defended his Travis Perkins Senior Masters title in late-August, winning by a tournament-record 10 strokes at Woburn GC...One week later, added a second title to his list of accomplishments on that Tour when he fired a final-round, 7-under-par 65 to win the Russian Open Golf Championship in Moscow...Won that circuit's John Jacobs Trophy as leading player on the Senior Tour Order of Merit...Competed in a trio of European Tour events in January and early February before kicking off his Champions Tour season...Finished T24 at the Volvo Golf Champions in South Africa and later added a T45 showing at the Abu Dhabi HSBC Golf Championship in the United Arab Emirates...Added a T48 at the Omega Dubai Desert Classic...Later in the year made his 600th career start on the European Tour at November's Turkish Airlines Open, where he finished 70th.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Highlight of his season was being voted into the World Golf Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2015. Received notification in mid-October and will be inducted at St. Andrews along with David Graham, Laura Davies and A.W. Tillinghast...Despite only recording four top-10 finishes, the fewest he's had in a year on the Champions Tour since 2008, earned a spot among the top-30 money-winners for the fifth time in the last six years...Birdied two of the last three holes to finish T2 along with Woody Austin, at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, one stroke shy of winner Bernhard Langer. It was his 14th runner-up finish and his best showing since a T2 at the 2013 Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Early in the year at the Toshiba Classic, parlayed rounds of 65-64 on the weekend to finish T5 in Newport Beach. Was one of several players atop the leaderboard Sunday but suffered a costly bogey at No. 17 which eventually left him two strokes shy of winner Fred Couples...In the season-opening event, was in contention through 36 holes at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, but a final-round 70 dropped him into a T6. Was the only player in the field to make three eagles...Posted four consecutive rounds in the 60s at Fox Chapel GC to finish T6 at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship...Made his 30th start at the Masters Tournament in April, but did not make the cut.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Was among the top-30 money-winners for much of the campaign before falling out in the final month of the season. Eventually finished 33rd after being as high as eighth earlier in the year...Played some of his best golf during March and April when he put together three consecutive top-10 finishes...Had his best showing on the Champions Tour in mid-March when he was among three players who finished T2 at the Toshiba Classic. Three straight rounds in the 60s led to a 54-hole total of 14-under-par 199. At one point looked destined for a spot in a playoff. However, Fred Couples ended his chances when he birdied his final two holes for a one-stroke victory...Followed his Toshiba performance with a T6 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic in his next outing, closing with a bogey-free 67 Sunday. It marked the first time he'd had back-to-back, top-10 Champions Tour finishes since the first two starts of the 2011 season...In his next start, was T5 at the Greater Gwinnett Championship, thanks to three consecutive sub-par rounds...Underwent surgery on his left shoulder on Nov. 3 to remove bone spurs, cysts and to repair a partially-torn subscapularis tendon.

PERSONAL:

Older brother John competed in 1996 U.S. Amateur and 1996 and 2000 U.S. Mid-Amateur...Teammate of Corey Pavin, Tom Pernice, Jr., Duffy Waldorf and Jay Delsing during his career at UCLA...Says his career highlight was Sunday at the 1999 Ryder

Cup. "The comeback spoke for itself."...Favorites include "Animal House," reruns of "Law and Order," History Channel and The Discovery Channel...Enjoys taking vacations anywhere tropical, especially Hawaii...Favorite city is Santa Barbara, the city where he grew up...Favorite books are Stephen King's The Stand and Thomas Sowell's Basic Economics: A Citizen's Guide to the Economy...His favorite sport other than golf is baseball. His father played the sport in college and his grandfather was a Major League pitcher for the St. Louis Browns...Says the food he will avoid at all costs is liver. BEST 2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

P1—Principal Charity Classic. P1—Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had perhaps his finest season in professional golf, claiming multiple titles in a season for the first time. Winnings of over $1.5 million were a Champions Tour personal best, and he secured the fifth spot on the Charles Schwab Cup points list, earning a $100,000 annuity...Became the last of seven multiple winners on the circuit during the season when he claimed one of the year's prize events, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, defeating Jay Haas on the fourth hole of a sudden-death playoff at Desert Mountain Club in Scottsdale. After a two-putt birdie on the 72nd hole to tie Haas, made a clutch up-and-down par on the second extra hole to continue the overtime. After making another up-and-down par on the third playoff hole, he ended the playoff with a birdie on the next hole. Victory in Arizona to close the season was his fourth career title on the Champions Tour...In early June, won his third career victory at The Principal Charity Classic, defeating Doug Garwood on the second hole of a playoff. Emerged from a crowded leaderboard, grabbing the lead when he rolled in a 30-foot chip on No. 17. After Garwood birdied the final two holes to tie in regulation, he hit his approach to eight feet on the second extra hole and drained his birdie putt for the win...Was the low American at The Senior Open Championship in Wales. After shooting 78 the first day, improved by 14 strokes in Round 2 with a course-record 64 at Royal Porthcawl. Steady play on the weekend moved him into a T3, his personal best in a senior major...Was a fourth-place finisher at the Boeing Classic near Seattle in August. Helped his cause with a final-round, 6-under-par 66 at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge...Was T4 in the year's final full-field event in San Antonio, the AT&T Championship...Finished T5 at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf Champions Division, teaming with Bob Tway...Rounds of 67-71 on the weekend at The Woodlands led to a T5 finish at the In斯perity Invitational...Shot the low round of his career in the opening round at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship, a 12-under-par 60 at Kapolei GC. The round included 12 birdies, which matched the Champions Tour 18-hole record. However, followed with rounds of 72-70 to finish T7.

PERSONAL:

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(3): 2005 Franklin Templeton Shootout [with John Huston]. 2008 Merrill Lynch Shootout [with Scott Hoch]. 2012 Franklin Templeton Shootout [with Sean O'Hair].

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Backed up a banner 2013 season with multiple titles for the second straight year and finish among the top 10 in half of his 18 starts. Despite taking a self-imposed five-week break after the PGA Championship, still managed to finish fourth on the Charles Schwab Cup points list (2,059) and fifth in single-season earnings, with more than $1.5 million...Added his name to the record book in May when he prevailed by one stroke over Mark Calcavecchia to win the Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek. The victory gave him three consecutive Champions Tour major championships, matching a feat Gary Player pulled off during the 1987-88 season. Was the 54-hole leader in Birmingham but was forced to emerge from a crowded leaderboard on the final day, holing a 20-foot birdie putt at No. 16. Victory at Shoal Creek made him the 10th player in Champions Tour history to win three different major titles and he joined Jack Nicklaus as the only player to win the Regions Tradition, the U.S. Senior Open and the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. His 72-hole total of 7-under-par 281 was the highest score to win the Regions Tradition, and his opening and closing rounds of 72 were the highest start and highest finish by a winner. He joined Eduardo Romero (2006) as the only players to have opened with a round of par or higher and gone on to win the event...In August, added a second title at the 3M Championship when he drained a clutch 15-foot birdie putt on the final hole to hold off a late charge by Bernhard Langer. Put himself in position with a 9-under-par 63, which gave him a one-stroke advantage after 36 holes and appeared on his way to an easy victory Sunday at TPC Twin Cities. Had as much as a four-stroke lead at one point before Langer staged a back-nine rally. Both were tied after 17 holes at 22-under par. But after Langer failed to make a birdie on the final hole, he claimed his seventh career win minutes later with the birdie...Returned from his lengthy time away from the Champions Tour in mid-October at the SAS Championship and finished T3 at Prestonwood CC, thanks to birdies on four of his final five holes. Before the SAS event, had last played an event at the PGA Championship at Valhalla. Enjoyed perhaps one of the highlights of his long career when he finished T27. The Kentucky native rebounded from an opening-round, 1-over-par 72 with three consecutive rounds in the 60s...In his last appearance on the Champions Tour in 2014, shared the third-round lead with Tom Pernice, Jr., at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, but finished solo third, one stroke shy of the eventual playoff between Pernice and Jay Haas. Was just one of two players to post four straight rounds in the 60s at the event at Desert Mountain, joining Gene Sauers...Finished solo fourth in defense of his Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS title. Started Sunday at Fox Chapel GC trailing Langer by three strokes and playing in the final grouping, carded a final-round 69 to finish two strokes out of a playoff...Posted his first top-10 of the campaign in mid-March when he was T5 at the Toshiba Classic. Was among a handful of players who were atop the leaderboard in Sunday's final round, but his lone bogey of the day, at No. 17, proved costly as he finished two shy of eventual-winner Fred Couples...In addition to his appearance at the PGA Championship on a special invitation given to him by the PGA of America at the Senior PGA Championship in late May, also played in the U.S. Open at Pinehurst.

Earned his spot by virtue of his 2013 U.S. Senior Open victory. Rebounded from a 74 on Thursday at Pinehurst to finish T28 at the U.S. Open. Highlight of the week was holing a 4-hybrid second shot from 220 yards out of the scrub for an eagle 2 on the 14th hole. It was the longest shot he's ever holed out in his career...Appeared in three other PGA TOUR events last year, missing the cut at the Sony Open, Honda Classic and PLAYERS Championship.

PERSONAL:

Took up golf at age 7 with encouragement from his father, who spent hours teeing balls up for him...Recipient of the 2009 Payne Stewart Award as well as the 2002 Charles Bartlett Award, given to a professional golfer for his unselfish contributions to the betterment of society, by the Golf Writers Association of America. Donates five percent of his winnings to Lipscomb University in Nashville, Tenn., to provide scholarships for Simpson County students. He also built Kenny Perry's Country Creek GC, a public course in his hometown of Franklin, Ky. In 1995, he bought 142 acres of land and borrowed more than $2.5 million to design and build the only public course in the town. He designed it for mid-to-high handicappers and kept it affordable, including 18 holes with a cart is $30 on weekdays. Works from time to time behind the counter and is often asked, "Do you know Kenny Perry?"...Was also honored by The Community Foundation of South Central Kentucky in July 2014 as its Southcentral Kentuckian of the Year for his charitable endeavors in his community...Is a big drag racing fan and also a fan of '68 Camaros...Hosts the annual Kenny Perry Charity Golf Invitational, benefiting the Boys & Girls Club of Franklin-Simpson...Some of his favorite golf courses are Muirfield Village, Augusta National, The Club at Olde Stone and Country Creek.

T7—Quebec Championship.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Slipped to 48th on the final money list, with earnings totaling $347,083...Was two strokes off the lead after 36 holes of the Quebec Championship and carded a final-round 71 at La Tempete GC to finish T7 just outside Quebec City...Had his initial top-10 finish in his fourth start of the year when he was T10 at the Toshiba Classic in mid-March. Worked his way up the leaderboard Sunday before a pair of bogeys were his undoing, including one on No. 17...Also T10 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach when he birdied four of his last six holes to post a 7-under 65, equaling the low round of the tournament.

PERSONAL:

Earned the nicknamed "Boss of the Moss" for his putting ability. Nickname was coined by fellow TOUR member David Ogrin in 1985...Cary Middlecoff said of him in the mid-1980s: "We've got a kid back home (in Tennessee) who is just a beautiful putter. He'll just break your heart on the greens, he's so pure. If he ever gets to believing in himself, he could really be something to watch."...Inducted into Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998...Heroes are his mom and Byron Nelson...Dream foursome would include himself, Nelson, Ben Hogan and Walter Hagen...Favorite golf courses are any built prior to 1950 and those designed by A.W. Tillinghast...Served as an assistant club professional before embarking on a professional career at San Luis Obispo CC and Morro Bay Municipal. One of his jobs as an assistant was making milkshakes, and he still enjoys doing it...First job was a paper boy...Says if he weren't playing golf for a living he'd be a golf professional at a private club...Two of his best friends in golf are Tom Lehman and Vance Veazey...Said one of the strangest things he ever signed was a Roger Clemens-autographed baseball...Helped save the boys and girls golf programs in the Elk Grove Unified School District (Sacramento) in 2009 by donating $35,000 for the programs.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Experienced a personal-best earnings year with almost $1 million in prize money, thanks to three performances where he was among the top three, the second consecutive year he's had three top-threes. Made more than half of his earnings during a stretch of four summer events...Nearly earned the signature win of his career in July when he was the 54-hole leader at the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National but eventually lost a gut-wrenching aggregate playoff to Colin Montgomerie. Posted rounds of 69-69-68 to build a three-stroke margin going into the final round and held a one-stroke lead with three holes to play. However, made a bogey at No. 16 to fall back into a tie for the lead with Montgomerie. Still appeared to have the victory within his grasp on the 72nd hole, but his 6-foot birdie attempt lipped out, forcing the overtime with Montgomerie, who emerged victorious. Shook off U.S. Senior Open disappointment in his next start, at the 3M Championship. Rounds of 66-65-65 led to a T3 finish at 20-under-par at the TPC Twin Cities. Had just one bogey in the 54-hole event...Was a third-place finisher again later in August when he sandwiched rounds of 66-65 around a second-round 71 at the Boeing Classic near Seattle...Finished T9 in the year's final event, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, where three of his four rounds were in the 60s.

PERSONAL:

Prior to joining the Champions Tour, suffered from a rare skin condition, Stevens-Johnson syndrome. At first, doctors treated him for rheumatoid arthritis but the condition worsened and blood vessels in his arms and legs were clogged. eventually causing his skin to burn from the inside out. Skin was taken from his upper thighs and shins and grafted to the affected areas and he was "stapled back together."...Avid sport fisherman who has won a number of fishing tournaments...Youngest son, Dylan Thomas, is not named for the Irish poet...Started the game at age 9 when he would tag along to the golf course on the weekends with his father, who played at Columbus College in Georgia...Some of his favorite TV shows are "It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia," "The Universe" and "How It's Made, How It Works."...Also enjoys watching college football...Musical tastes include the Marshall Tucker Band, Jackson Browne, and Vince Gill, among others...Says he'd love to trade places for a day with Jay Haas and his putting stroke...Favorite teams to follow as a kid were the Miami Dolphins and Florida Gators, and his favorite athlete was Jack Nicklaus...Bookmarks The Weather Channel and Sport Fishing Boats...First job he ever had was a delivery boy...Among his favorite foods are Makuch's Pepper Steak and Chicken Parmesan...Enjoys Ruth's Chris and Carraba's...Says one talent he'd most love to have is to be able to dunk a basketball!...Favorite athlete in another sport was Larry Bird of the Boston Celtics...Enjoyed the movie "Ferris Bueller's Day Off."...Would love to have the opportunity to play Pine Valley GC...His most memorable vacation was going to the Florida Keys and catching lobsters...The first concert he ever attended was the Doobie Brothers in Savannah, Ga...Most memorable shot was chipping in to win the Hawaiian Open...Supports Children's Hospital of Savannah and Stevens-Johnson syndrome...When not playing golf he enjoys fishing for marlin, tuna, dolphin or wahoo...Items on his bucket list are to travel around in his sport fishing boat with his kids while catching fish and winning on the Champions Tour.

BEST 2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1—Quebec Championship.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Took full advantage of his exempt status from the 2013 National Qualifying School, posting seven top-10 finishes, six of them coming after July. Finished his rookie season 18th on the money list, with earnings of more than $900,000...Had his three best performances of the season in consecutive events in the late-summer. After shooting 65-64 on the weekend in Calgary and finishing fifth at the Shaw Charity Classic, won the Quebec Championship the following week, becoming the fourth of five rookies to win during the year. Came from three strokes back with a birdie-birdie-eagle finish to overtake Scott Dunlap by a stroke just outside Quebec City. His hybrid second shot from 251 yards and subsequent eagle putt from eight feet made him the first player since Bernhard Langer at the 2010 Allianz Championship to eagle the final hole for victory. Win was his first in almost nine years. Final-round 64 at La Tempete GC included a 7-under 29 on the back nine. Joined Dunlap as the second player from the previous fall's Qualifying School to win a tournament...Put together three more rounds in the 60s in his next start to claim a sixth-place finish at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship...Late in the season, was just two shots off the pace after 36 holes at the AT&T Championship before a closing-round 73 dropped him into a T8 finish in San Antonio...The following week in the season-ending event, finished T7 at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Posted four consecutive rounds in the 60s, one of just two players (Kenny Perry) to accomplish that at the event...Fashioned the low round of his Champions Tour career Sunday at the 3M Championship where he threatened the tournament 18-hole scoring record before finishing with a 10-under-par 62. Effort helped him move from a T43 to a T9...Finished T10 in his Champions Tour debut, at the Allianz Championship. Was among the early leaders after starting his Champions Tour career with 7-under 65. Carded rounds of 68-71 on the weekend at the Old Course at Broken Sound...Hit the longest measured drive of the year in the final round of the Boeing Classic, 357 yards, at the par-5 8th hole at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge.

PERSONAL:

Born, raised and has lived his entire life in Austin, Texas...Attended the University of Texas...Turned professional in 1987 and worked as a club professional in the Austin area before becoming a touring pro in 1997...Started out on mini-tours and eventually qualified for the Web.com Tour for the 1998 season.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(1): 1981 New York State Open.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played his first full season in more than a year as he continued his comeback following back surgery in November 2012. His 23 starts were the most since 2010...In those 23 starts, his lone top-10 came in October, finishing T10 at the SAS Championship near Raleigh. Improved by 11 strokes from the first to the second round, with a 7-under 65. Closed with a 3-under 69 at Prestonwood CC. It was his first top-10 effort since the 2012 campaign.

PERSONAL:

Is a childhood friend of fellow Champions Tour player Mike Hulbert. As an 18-year-old in 1976, teamed with Hulbert to defeat then newly appointed Syracuse University basketball coach Jim Boeheim and his partner in a CC of Ithaca best-ball event...Struck up a lasting friendship with Boeheim and remains a huge SU fan...Son Jamie also played golf at Ohio State and competed on PGA TOUR Canada in 2014 and will have some status on the Web.com Tour in 2015...His favorite TV channel is The Weather Channel...Musical tastes run from classic rock to country music...His favorite teams as a kid were the New York Jets with Joe Namath and the Walt Frazier-led New York Knicks. "Who could ask for more?" he says...Among the bookmarks on his computer are syracuse.com, weather.com and PGA TOUR Links...The first job he ever had was roofing and installing siding with his father, which helped pay for the golf trips he took with Hulbert. His dad delivered mail, and the roofing work was a second job...Favorite meal is a medium-rare New York strip or porterhouse (Pittsburgh style) steak, a side of spaghetti, salad and bread...When he's traveling on Tour, among his favorite restaurants are Trattoria Romana in Boca Raton, Fla., Harry's Cafe and Steak House in New York, Tollgate Steakhouse in Mamaronck, N.Y., Rafter's Steakhouse in Milwaukee, Wisc., and Tramonti in Delray Beach, Fla...Says the one talent he'd most love to have is being able to play the piano...His favorite athlete in another sport is the Denver Broncos' Peyton Manning...Among his favorite movies are "Legends of the Fall," "Terminator 2," "The American President," "Dumb & Dumber" and "The Fifth Element."...One course he's never played that he'd love to is St. Andrews...Says his most memorable vacation was "Going to New York City with my wife for a year-end anniversary trip"...His most memorable shot was his hole-in-one at No. 14 at En-Joie in the final round at the 1985 B.C. Open, going from one stroke down to two shots up when Mike Reid made a bogey. He went on to win the first of his two B.C. Open titles. "I always tell people there were 2,000 people there, but 20,000 people said they saw it..."The first concert he ever attended was Kansas while in college at Ohio State...If he's not playing sports he enjoys watching his sons play sports, watching Syracuse and Ohio State football and basketball and fishing on Keuka Lake, part of New York's Finger Lakes.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Missed just one event during the year and it came late in the season at the AT&T Championship, ending a streak of Champions Tour appearances at 102 consecutive dating to when he skipped the 2010 Ensure Classic at Rock Barn...Registered a victory and two second-place finishes during the campaign and earned more than $1.2 million, the largest amount he's made in a season since 2011...Had a big month in June that extended into mid-July when he was among the top six in four straight events...Started this stretch with the highlight of his season when he was able to defend his title in the Champions

Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, teaming with a new partner (Fred Funk) to prevail in a tight battle with Jay Haas-Peter Jacobsen. The duo birdied five of the final nine holes on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course but his 6-foot par-saving putt on the final hole secured the title. In the process, he became the fifth player to win the event with two different partners as Funk was in for Brad Faxon who could not play due to a prior commitment...Later in the month, finished second to Bernhard Langer at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship near Pittsburgh, falling on the second playoff hole. Almost rallied from five strokes back on the last day, carding a bogey-free, 5-under 65 at Fox Chapel. Missed a golden opportunity on the first playoff hole when his 10-foot birdie effort hung on the lip. Lost one hole later when Langer converted a 5-foot birdie putt. Performance at Fox Chapel was his best career effort in a senior major, topping a T3 at the 2008 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS. Earned Player of the Month honors for June. Never had a round above par during the month and was a cumulative 25-under for his seven stroke-play rounds...Was T5 in his next start in mid-July, at the U.S. Senior Open at Oak Tree National in Oklahoma, site of his 1988 PGA Championship victory...Started the season, in his 80th consecutive start, by posting his best showing in the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, finishing T2, with Fred Couples, three strokes behind Langer. Held the lead midway through the final round but watched as Langer went on a birdie run...Closed with a bogey-free 67 Sunday at Fallen Oak to finish T6 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic...During his hot streak in June, was also T6 at the Encompass Championship. Positioned himself among the early leaders, and his final-round 69 at North Shore CC moved him up, the second consecutive year he's recorded a top-10 finish while playing near his home...Also put together three successive rounds of 71 to close out his appearance at the Regions Tradition, which led to a T9 finish in Alabama...Third-round 67 at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Porthcawl in Wales included a six-under 29 going out, the best nine-hole score in the event, and his overall round included nine 3s with seven 3s coming in his first eight holes.

PERSONAL:

Loves Formula One auto racing...Big fan of the Florida State Seminoles, Chicago Bears and Chicago Cubs...Serious wine collector, owns about 2,000 bottles dating to 1957...Co-owner, with Dudley Hart, of Lakeshore GC in Rochester, N.Y., a course he played regularly growing up...Good friend of 1986 Indianapolis 500 winner Bobby Rahal...After disqualifying himself at 1996 Bay Hill Invitational, refused to take undue credit for act, quoting Bobby Jones: "It would be like congratulating someone for not robbing a bank"...Teamed with office supply retailer OfficeMax to create The Jeff Sluman & OfficeMax "Drive for Hope"—a charity fund that is poised to raise $450,000 to $750,000 for the City of Hope and other charities...Started in the game at age 4 but didn't think about turning pro until after his senior year of college...Favorite movies are "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," "Pulp Fiction," "Caddyshack," "Patton" and "Crash"...Followed the Pittsburgh Pirates as a kid and favorite player was Roberto Clemente...Says his most memorable shot was his 5-iron on the 72nd hole at the 1987 PLAYERS Championship...TV favorites include "30 Rock," "Curb Your Enthusiasm" and "Entourage," as well as college and pro football...His first job was working at a bowling alley (Dewey Gardens) in Rochester...His favorite meal is a Caesar salad, a dry-aged USDA prime ribeye with asparagus and a potato...Made his first ace at age 14 at Ridgemont CC in Rochester. Hit a 7-iron but never saw it go in since it was a blind hole...If he had one course to play the rest of his life it would be Pebble Beach...Purchased a Porsche after his first big golf payday...Says the one historical event he would have liked to have witnessed first hand was the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Joined the Champions Tour midway through the season after turning 50 in July and made his debut at the U.S. Senior Open when he played on a special exemption for the USGA...Finished 46th on the final money list in just 10 starts...Made Champions Tour history when, in his ninth career round, he carded a 13-under-par 59 Saturday at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, the first sub-60 score in the annals of the circuit. Was 11-under for his first 11 holes, eventually making 12 birdies and an eagle along with a bogey at the final hole. Shot 9-under 28 on the first nine, tying the all-time Champions Tour record in relation to par (Jay Sigel, 9-under 27 at the 1998 Bell Atlantic Classic). His run of seven birdies and an eagle on the first nine also tied Sigel's all-time mark for the best birdie-eagle stretch in Tour history. Took a one-stroke lead into the final round but shot 74 Sunday to eventually finish T7...On the leaderboard after the second round of the SAS Championship and eventually finished T5 at Prestonwood CC.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Managed to sneak into the top-30 money-winners at the final full-field event of the season, the AT&T Championship, despite having only three top-10 performances during his second full year on the Champions Tour...Top effort came in early September when he was the 36-hole co-leader at the Quebec Championship but carded a final-round 71 at La Tempete outside Quebec City to finish T3 in defense of his title...In early May, was on the leaderboard throughout in defense of his Insuperity Invitational title and ended up solo fourth at The Woodlands...Midway through the year, closed with 5-under 67 to move up into a T6 at the Encompass Championship outside Chicago...At the AT&T event in San Antonio, birdied his final three holes to shoot 68 and move into the top 30 on the money list to claim a spot at the season finale, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, bumping Rocco Mediate from the field.

PERSONAL:

Learned to play golf while working at a driving range in Mexico. Youngest of 11 children who grew up in a home with dirt floors and no plumbing. Was a professional boxer for four years, but appendicitis ended that career. Had 16-1 record. As youngster, fished balls out of pond at Mexicali CC and sold them back to golfers. A future dream is to build a church for impoverished children in the La Posalera section of Mexicali. Featured on HBO's "Real Sports with Bryant Gumbel" in 2002 and hosted "Inside the PGA TOUR" on Feb. 22, 2004. Ambassador of To Get a Grip Foundation, which makes golf and education accessible to all children. Also hosts the Esteban Toledo PGA TOUR Pro-Am every February, benefiting the Foundation. Nominated by 2003

Hispanic Chamber of Commerce as top Hispanic sports figure of the year...In January 2007, while riding in a car on a Los Angeles freeway, he rescued two sisters after their car collided with another, then crashed into a divider, flipped, rolled over twice and stopped on its roof. He pulled them from the wreck, called 911 and took control of the situation until paramedics arrived...Is a big supporter of Mexico's national soccer team and favorite athlete was Hugo Sanchez, a striker on the national team who also played professionally in Europe...Enjoys cooking, and lists "Pretty Woman" as his favorite movie.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(5): 1988 Sierra Nevada Open, Alberta Open, Fort McMurray Open. 1991 California State Open. 1996 Merrill Lynch Pebble Beach Invitational.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Earned multiple titles in a season for the first time in his TOUR career and also had three other top-three finishes. Earnings of more than $1.4 million were the most he's made in a season since 2004 on the PGA TOUR. That year, collected a personal-best $1.5 million...In his second start of the year, won The ACE Group Classic, making a key 6-foot par putt on the 18th hole Sunday to edge Bernhard Langer, Duffy Waldorf and Olin Browne by one stroke in Naples. Shared the 36-hole lead with Langer and carded a final-round 66 at TwinEagles. With Browne posted at 15-under, took advantage of bogeys by Waldorf and Langer at the final hole...In mid-October, became the fifth of seven multiple winners on the 2014 Champions Tour when he recorded a three-stroke victory over Tom Lehman at the SAS Championship. Jumped into the lead for good Saturday, firing a 9-under 63 that included holing out from the fairway (8-iron from 143 yards) on the 18th hole. Victory at Prestonwood was his fourth career win on the Champions Tour...One week later, made a strong run at a second consecutive title, but, despite three straight rounds of 66, was two strokes shy of eventual-champion Jay Haas at the Greater Hickory Kia Classic, finishing T2 along with Joe Durant...Made an early move Sunday at the Encompass Championship and found himself in contention with Michael Allen and eventual-champion Lehman down the stretch. Didn't make a bogey over his last 37 holes at North Shore CC, but was T2 after making pars on four of his last five holes...Two weeks before the Chicago tournament, teamed with Craig Stadler to finish third in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf...Registered top-10 finishes in a pair of the major championships. Opened and closed with rounds of 2-under-par 69 to finish eighth at the U.S. Senior Open in July in Oklahoma and then was T8 at The Senior Open Championship at Royal Porthcawl in Wales.

PERSONAL:

Says of days on foreign tours, "I wouldn't trade the experience for anything. I learned so much, not only about golf, but about myself. I'd be telling stories about Asia until the day I die..."Known for wearing his patented bucket golf hat...Active in promoting adoption through the Fore Adoption Foundation and the Dave Thomas Foundation...Underwent right-elbow surgery midway through the 2005 season and experienced complications from that surgery during the summer of 2006...Son, Sam, was a talented junior golfer. He was the winner of the 2012 Ping Junior Match Play Championship and is now a member of the Northwestern University golf program.

CHAMPIONS TOUR BEST FINISHES:

T10–2014 Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1):

1993 Kemper Open

BEST 2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T10–Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(3): 1992 New Zealand Open, Trafalgar Capital Classic. 1992 Utah Open.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made his Champions Tour debut in early September at the Quebec Championship and was T49 after rounds of 73-67-75 at La Tempete just outside Quebec City...Open-qualified on the Monterey Peninsula and his final-round 69 at Pebble Beach led to a T10 finish at the Nature Valley First Tee Open...Secured exempt status for the 2015 Champions Tour season after finishing solo second at the 2014 National Qualifying School final. Started slowly (74-72) and was outside the coveted top-five position heading into the last round at Orange County National, but he used seven birdies to card a final-round 66 and move up into solo second place, four strokes back of eventual-winner Frank Esposito. Fourth-round score matched Jeff Coston's 66 as the best on the last day of the event.

PERSONAL:

Missed defense of his 1993 Kemper Open title when his first child, Osten, was born on the eve of the 1994 event. Had registered at the tournament site but left to be with his wife...Played on the New Zealand junior soccer team...Prior to joining the Champions Tour, transitioned in 2006 into a job as a swing instructor, with several TOUR professionals in his stable of students.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(3): 1995 Hyundai Team Matches [with Tom Lehman]. 1996 Hyundai Team Matches [with Tom Lehman]. 2000 Hyundai Team Matches [with Tom Lehman].

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Registered five of his six top-10 performances before mid-June and had his two best weeks of the season in his first two starts in Florida in February...First lost in a playoff to Michael Allen at the Allianz Championship when he couldn't get up and down from a greenside bunker for birdie on the second extra hole after Allen two-putted for birdie. Missed a 7-foot birdie putt to extend the overtime. Trailing Allen by eight strokes Friday but moved into contention with a 9-under 63 in the second round that included a 7-under 29 on the front nine. Shot 67 Sunday to forge a tie...Made another run the following week at The ACE Group Classic. Posted three rounds in the 60s and was among four players who battled down the stretch before his chances ended with a bogey on the final hole. Was T2 along with Olin Browne and Bernhard Langer, one shy in the final standings to Kirk Triplett, who sank a six-foot par putt on the final hole for the win...Three consecutive sub-par rounds at April's Greater Gwinnett Championship led to a T5 finish...Joined forces with former UCLA teammate Corey Pavin at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, and the pair was T7 in the Champions Division in early June...The week prior, birdied the last hole at The Principal Charity Classic, which led to a T10 in Iowa...In early September, registered his only top 10 in the second part of the year at the Quebec Championship. Was among the early leaders with a first-round 66 at La Tempete GC.

PERSONAL:

He is a connoisseur of fine wine...His family and occasional others adorn the golf balls he uses each week with messages and designs. During his 2000 victory at Walt Disney World Resort, there was a picture of Mickey Mouse on one side of the golf ball and on the other side, his wife wrote, "Mouse in the House"...Got his nickname Duffy from his grandparents when he was small. Tagged along on the golf course and they called him "Little Duffer."

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(5): 1980 Dunlop Phoenix. 1984 Australian Open. 1992 Hong Kong Open. 1994 Skins Game. 1997 Dunlop Phoenix.

2014 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made two of five PGA TOUR cuts, with a T35 at the Greenbrier Classic his best finish...Battled Colin Montgomerie down the stretch before finishing second at the Senior PGA Championship at Harbor Shores, Mich., despite a final-round 65. Performance in Michigan was his best Champions Tour effort since winning the same championship at Valhalla in 2011. It was also his 17th top-three finish in a senior major...A week earlier, closed with a 5-under-par 67 at the Regions Tradition, which shared honors for the day's low round and led to a T6 finish at Shoal Creek. It was his eighth top-10 finish in the event, one shy of Jack Nicklaus' record. In addition, earned $79,200 which allowed him to move past Gil Morgan atop the list for career earnings for the Regions Tradition ($1,177,516 in 12 appearances)...Joined teammate Andy North for a T10 finish in the Champions Division at the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf in June...Added another highlight to his illustrious career resume when he bettered his age for the first time. Fired a second-round, 8-under-par 63 at the Toshiba Classic at age 64. In the process, he became the second-youngest Champions Tour player to better his age. Walter Morgan holds that distinction, shooting a 60 at age 61...Played in his 41st Masters Tournament and 40th in succession in April, tying Nicklaus in that category. Did not make the cut after rounds of 78-81...Finished T35 in July at The Greenbrier Classic on the PGA TOUR on the strength of three consecutive rounds in the 60s...Broke his own record as the oldest player to make the cut at The Open Championship, when he did it at age 64. Fired a closing-round, 4-under-par 68 to finish T51 at Royal Liverpool. It marked the 26th time in his career he had made the cut and the eighth time since turning 50...A week later, used a second-round 66 at Royal Porthcawl to jump into contention at The Senior Open Championship until a final-round 77 dropped him into a T10 in Wales...Captained the U.S. Ryder Cup team for a second time, with the U.S. losing to the European team at Gleneagles in Scotland.

PERSONAL:

Active in Kansas City-area charitable endeavors, including Children's Mercy Hospital and development of golf courses for junior players. Won the 2003 Card Walker Award as the result of his interest in junior golf...In 1999, named honorary member of the Royal & Ancient GC of St. Andrews, joining fellow Americans Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, former President George Bush and Gene Sarazen...Led the effort to raise awareness of ALS, the disease that took the lives of longtime caddie Bruce Edwards and former TOUR player Jeff Julian. Website is bruceedwardsfoundation.org...Visited U.S. troops in Iraq in late 2007 and 2009 along with Corey Pavin and Tim Simpson.

Tournament Record:

191 - Loren Roberts (2006)

Current Course Record:

61 - Hualalai GC - Loren Roberts (2006)

Bernhard Langer pulled away from a crowded leaderboard with a run of five straight birdies over the last six holes. He trailed Jeff Sluman by a stroke early on the back nine, then tied Sluman with five consecutive birdies beginning at No. 13. Fred Couples joined in the mix, making the turn just one stroke off the lead. However, Couples could do no better than par on both of Hualalai's par-5s on the back, eventually tying for second with Sluman, three strokes behind Langer. Langer's winning total of 22-under-par 194 was the best 54-hole score on Tour since Rocco Mediate shot 22-under in winning the inaugural 2013 Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary. The 22-under 194 score was also the lowest three-round total at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship since John Cook won the first of his two titles on the Big Island with the same total.

Bernhard Langer's final-round 64 was his seventh consecutive round in the 60s at Hualalai. In his career at this course, Langer has recorded 20 sub-par rounds out of 21 played.

Mark O'Meara was the only player in the field to make three eagles. Bernhard Langer's carded 21 birdies, the most by a player in the field and one more than Jeff Sluman. Langer also made the fewest bogeys, one, playing the last 45 holes bogey-free.

Bernhard Langer won his 19th career event in his 127th Tour start (a champion in 15 percent of his tournaments). Langer has claimed at least one Champions Tour title per season for eight consecutive years.

Cut: There was no cut; 79 of 81 players completed all 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Temperatures in the low-80s with light wind from the ESE at 5-10 mph. Saturday: In low-80s with ESE wind at 10-15 mph. Sunday: A light rain early in the afternoon. ESE wind at 10-15 mph with temperatures in low-80s.

Tournament Record:
198 - Michael Allen (2014), Duffy Waldorf (2014)

Current Course Record:
60 - The Old Course at Broken Sound - Michael Allen (2014)

Michael Allen two-putted for birdie on the second playoff hole, then watched as Duffy Waldorf missed a seven-foot birdie putt to tie. Waldorf appeared to have the advantage after each of the tee shots in the overtime session, but Allen pulled off clutch approach shots on the par-5, hitting the green on the first extra hole by threading his shot through trees from the pine straw in the left rough. On the second extra hole, he drilled a low 6-iron shot from the right rough. Waldorf found the greenside bunker on the second playoff hole and could not get up and down for birdie.

Michael Allen became the fourth player to shoot 60 in an opening round and go on to win (Bruce Fleisher at the 2002 RJR Championship, Tom Purtzer at the 2004 Toshiba Classic and Nick Price at the 2011 Toshiba Classic). He was also the seventh of nine players in Champions Tour history to shoot a 60 in any round and go on to win. Only Craig Stadler (2005 Blue Angels Classic) and Jay Haas (2012 Charles Schwab Cup Championship) did not win after shooting a 60.

Michael Allen was the first wire-to-wire winner in tournament history.

Both Michael Allen and Duffy Waldorf set the tournament scoring record of 18-under 198.

Mark Calcavecchia equaled the nine-hole record on the back nine, shooting 7-under 29. He tied the mark originally set by Corey Pavin in the first round of the 2012 tournament. Calcavecchia also established a new tournament record for consecutive birdies, making seven straight, en route to an 8-under 64.

68-year-old Hale Irwin shot 67 in the first round, bettering his age for the third time in his Champions Tour career.

Steve Schneiter (tied for 59th), Billy Andrade (tied for 46th), Bob Friend (tied for 43rd) and Wes Short, Jr. (tied for 10th) all made their debuts on the Champions Tour.

Defending champion Rocco Mediate made 18 total birdies during the week, earning $18,000 for the Moaberry Family Foundation. The Moaberry Family Foundation decided to double Mediate's total after the tournament ended, netting $36,000 to Boca Regional's Toppel Family Place Neonatal Intensive Care Unit.

Allianz Life Insurance of North America conducted a unique social media challenge during the week. Every tweet with the hashtag #AllianzBirdies generated a $1 donation, up to $40,000, for Junior Achievement of South Florida.

Tournament Record:

196 - Kenny Perry (2012), Bernhard Langer (2011)

Current Course Record:

62 - TwinEagles GC (Talon) - Bernhard Langer (2013), Larry Mize (2012), Kenny Perry (2012)

Kirk Triplett sank a 6-foot par putt on the final hole to avoid a four-way playoff and claim a one-stroke victory over Bernhard Langer, Duffy Waldorf and Olin Browne. It was Triplett's third Champions Tour title. Playing one group in front of the threesome of Triplett, Langer and Waldorf, Browne missed a birdie opportunity that would have moved him into a share of the lead with the trio, at 16-under. The drama then switched to the final group. After Waldorf and Langer missed par putts, Triplett calmly sank his winning putt to end the drama. Waldorf's bogey was especially frustrating since he had played bogey-free golf all afternoon, while Langer had grabbed a share of the lead with a birdie on No. 17.

Kirk Triplett's other Champions Tour titles came at the 2012 and 2013 Nature Valley First Tee Opens at Pebble Beach. The ACE Group Classic victory marks the third year in succession he has captured at least one event.

It was a productive two weeks for the Champions Tour's two University of Nevada products. Michael Allen claimed the Allianz Championship a week earlier and Kirk Triplett was the winner at The ACE Group Classic. Both played golf for the Wolf Pack and are members of that school's athletic Hall of Fame.

Duffy Waldorf finished second for the second consecutive week, after losing in a playoff to Michael Allen at the Allianz Championship a week earlier. It was his fourth runner-up finish in 31 Champions Tour starts.

Jay Haas and Jim Rutledge posted the low final rounds, each shooting 8-under-par 64s. Haas finished fifth overall, his third successive top-five finish. He was fourth at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai and tied for fifth at the Allianz Championship. Rutledge's effort helped him vault from a tie for 42nd on Saturday to a tie for 11th.

Jay Don Blake earned $5,280 with his tie-for-48th finish, allowing him to surpass the $10-million mark in combined PGA TOUR and Champions Tour earnings.

Billy Andrade posted his first top-10 finish on the Champions Tour when he tied for eighth. It was just his second start since turning 50. He tied for 46th in his first start, at the Allianz Championship.

Hal Sutton, who withdrew during his opening round Friday, was released from a Naples-area hospital Sunday after undergoing a heart procedure.

Kirk Triplett came out of the final grouping making it 14 consecutive years the winner of The ACE Group Classic came out of the final grouping. The last time it didn't happen was in 2000 when Lanny Wadkins needed a final-round 64 to rally from three strokes back. He eventually won in a playoff.

In an effort to help raise awareness for American Heart Health Month, The ACE Group Classic and NCH Healthcare Systems encouraged all spectators to wear red during Friday's first round. Through the participation of hundreds of fans, players and tournament staff, the efforts helped support a donation of $20,000 to NCH Healthcare System Foundation.

On Saturday, each of the day's Subway restaurants Putt for Dough winners got to compete on the 18th green for a chance to take home $50,000. Although all participants fell short of the grand prize, Ralph DePrisco from Brooklyn, N.Y., won free Subway meals for a year for having his 10-foot putt land one foot from the hole. In order to claim the $50,000 prize, participants would have had to make 10-foot, 30-foot and 50-foot putts. Since no player made the 10-foot putt, DePrisco was the winner as the closest of the participants.

Fred Couples birdied three of the last four holes, including a seven-footer on the final hole to claim his second Toshiba Classic title in the last five years. In a day that saw as many as nine players tied for the lead at one point, Couples was the last man standing in certainly one of the tightest final rounds in the past couple of years on the Champions Tour. Playing one group in front of Kenny Perry and Bernhard Langer, Couples birdied No. 17 to move into a tie at 14-under and then made his winning putt on the 54th hole to go to 15-under. Langer made a final bid to tie Couples on No. 18, but his second shot was short, left of the green landing against the grandstand. His third rolled 20 feet past and his bid for birdie just slid by ending his chances. Perry needed to eagle No. 18 to tie Couples but he was unable to convert, settling for par and a tie for fifth.

The victory was the 10th in Fred Couples' Champions Tour career, and it also marked the fifth consecutive year he has won at least one event.

Colin Montgomerie matched the best final-round score in Toshiba Classic history when he closed with a 9-under-par 62. Hale Irwin originally set the mark in 1998, and Tom Watson later matched that score in 2010. Jim Rutledge joined the duo with a 62 of his own, in 2013.

World Golf Hall of Fame members Tom Watson and Hale Irwin bettered their ages in the second round. The 64-year-old Watson bettered his age for the first time on the Champions Tour, with an 8-under-par 63, while Irwin bettered his age for the third time in his career by posting a 5-under-par 66, two strokes lower than his age.

Jay Haas played all 54 holes without a bogey, becoming the first to achieve that since John Cook did so at the 2013 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Haas tied for 12th.

The Champions Tour witnessed its first ace of the season when D.A. Weibring holed out on Saturday at No. 17 with a 6-iron from 179 yards.

Defending champion David Frost tied for 27th.

Cut: There was no cut; 80 of 81 players completed all 54 holes.

Weather: Friday-Saturday: Highs in the low-70s with wind from the SSE at 5-15 mph. Sunday: Morning thunderstorms delayed the start of the final round for 1½ hours. Play began at 9:30 a.m. with a two-tee start under cloudy skies. Lift, clean and place rules were in effect. Afternoon temperatures reached the mid-60s. Afternoon wind from the N at 10-20 mph.

Tournament Record:
200 - Tom Lehman (2011)
Current Course Record:
63 - Fallen Oak - Fred Couples (2012)

Jeff Maggert's improbable 45-foot uphill, left-to-right breaking, birdie putt at the par-3 17th hole, coupled with Billy Andrade's bogey just moments later at the par-4 16th opened up a two-stroke lead and allowed Maggert to coast in for his first Champions Tour title in his debut on the Champions Tour. Andrade, the 36-hole co-leader, led through the first 13 holes Sunday but a missed three-foot par putt at the par-3 14th was the start of his undoing. He crept back to within one stroke with a two-putt birdie at the par-5 15th hole but Andrade's fate was sealed when he pushed a 7-iron approach shot into the right bunker at No. 16 and couldn't make par.

Jeff Maggert became the 17th player in the history of the Champions Tour to win in his debut. He also became the first rookie to win since John Riegger won the 2013 Boeing Classic.

At 50 years, one month, 3 days, Jeff Maggert is the youngest winner of this event. He is also the first player to make his first win on the Champions Tour and the fourth player in the five-year history of the event to win the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic presented by C Spire in his first appearance at Fallen Oak.

Jeff Maggert's winning score of 11-under marked the third time in the five-year history of the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic that the champion finished with a 54-hole score of 205. David Eger was at 11-under when he won the inaugural event in 2010 and Michael Allen registered a score of 11-under 205 in 2013.

Michael Allen's T13 performance means that no defending champion has finished among the top 10 the following year. Fred Couples, the 2012 champion, finished T12 in 2013, the highest finish by a defending champ.

In just his fourth appearance on the Champions Tour and first since the 2013 SAS Championship where he was forced to withdraw after 12 holes in the opening round, Sir Nick Faldo finished T53 at Fallen Oak.

Nick Price made the first ace in Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic history when he holed a 9-iron shot from 152 yards at the par-3 14th hole in Sunday's final round. It was Price's first hole-in-one as a member of the Champions Tour. He had three aces on the PGA TOUR, the last coming at the 1997 NEC World Series of Golf. It also marked the second straight week for an ace on the Champions Tour. D.A. Weibring had an ace in the second round of the Toshiba Classic in Newport Beach, Calif.

The delay to the start of Sunday's final round was the first time on the 2014 Champions Tour that a round did not start on time due to inclement weather.

Spain's Miguel Angel Jimenez' debut on the Champions Tour did not disappoint. Professional golf's most interesting man was rock solid in the final round, carding a bogey-free, 5-under-par 67 at TPC Sugarloaf on Easter Sunday to cruise to a two-stroke triumph over Germany's Bernhard Langer. Jimenez was tied with Langer after seven holes in the final round, but at the par-3 8th hole, his short birdie putt, coupled with Langer's bogey provided just the margin he needed. Jimenez added three more birdies over the first four holes on the back nine and was never threatened the rest of the way. Overall, Jimenez made 15 birdies and an eagle in his 54 holes and did not make a bogey in his last 32 holes of the event.

Miguel Angel Jimenez claimed his first career victory on the Champions Tour, becoming the 18th player in the history of the circuit to win in his debut. Along with Jeff Maggert's win at the previous event, the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, it marks the first time since 1980 that back-to-back Champions Tour tournaments have been won by players making their debuts. In 1980, the first two official events ever played on the Champions Tour were won by Don January (Atlantic City International) and Roberto De Vicenzo (U.S. Senior Open).

Miguel Angel Jimenez joins Rod Funseth (1983 Hall of Fame Tournament) and Bruce Fleisher (1999 Royal Caribbean Classic) as just the third player to go wire-to-wire in his first start on the Champions Tour.

Miguel Angel Jimenez is the first sponsor exemption to win on the Champions Tour since Phil Blackmar prevailed at the 2009 AT&T Championship in San Antonio.

Bernhard Langer's three 68s led to his 15th career runner-up performance as a member of the Champions Tour. He extended his streak of finishes among the top 10 to 16 straight on the Champions Tour and 17 overall, including a tie for eighth at the previous week's Masters Tournament.

Jay Haas' final-round 67 gave him a second straight third-place finish on the Champions Tour. The 60-year-old Haas has been among the top five in five of his six appearances and has a cumulative 73-under for the 2014 season to this point.

Four-time PGA TOUR winner Joe Durant carded a final-round 67 to move up into a tie for 21st in his first Champions Tour start. Durant turned 50 on April 7.

Trevor Dodds made the first ace in Greater Gwinnett Championship history, holing a pitching wedge from 127 yards at the par-3 second hole in the final round. It marked the third straight event on the Champions Tour that an ace was made. It was Dodds' first hole-in-one since the 1991 Hardee's Classic on the PGA TOUR.

Colin Montgomerie finished tied for eighth and has not been out of the top-10 in his first five appearances on Tour this season.

John Cook played in his first Champions Tour event since withdrawing from the 2014 Allianz Championship in early February with sore ribs. Cook's first-round 10-over 82 was his highest round on Tour to date. He followed with 69-70 to post tied for 51st.

Mark Wiebe withdrew from the event during the first round with congestion in his chest. D.A. Weibring withdrew after 15 holes with a back injury.

Three Atlanta sports celebrities competed for charity during Saturday's second round in the Novelis Celebrity Challenge. Kevin Butler won the competition for his team, defeating the teams represented by John Smoltz and Tom Glavine.

Tournament Course Record:

62 - Bernhard Langer (2007) - Augusta Pines GC

Despite playing his last 11 holes without a birdie and making two bogeys in his final three holes, Bernhard Langer held off a charging Fred Couples by a stroke to win his third Insperity Invitational. Couples had an up-and-down front nine but birdied the 10th hole to get within six strokes of Langer. He then proceeded to birdie four straight holes (Nos. 12-15) and pulled within a stroke when Langer failed to get up and down from the greenside bunker at the par-3 16th hole. However, Couples' approach at the final hole went long and after an indifferent chip shot, he missed a five-foot par putt, allowing Langer to play the final hole with a two-stroke cushion. Langer bogeyed the last hole but still managed a one-stroke victory at The Woodlands Country Club.

Bernhard Langer became the first three-time winner of the Insperity Invitational and, for the first time in his Champions Tour career, he wins the same tournament three times. Langer claimed his first Champions Tour title at this event in 2007 at Augusta Pines and followed that win up by successfully defending his title the next year at The Woodlands Country Club.

Bernhard Langer's victory marks the 25th time that a player on the Champions Tour has won the same event three times or more.

Bernhard Langer is now the 10th player in Champions Tour history with 20 wins or more in his career. Langer's 20th career title moved him up into a tie for eighth on the all-time Champions Tour victory list with Jim Colbert and Bruce Crampton.

Bernhard Langer became the first player to go over the $1-million mark in Insperity Invitational earnings with $1,034,569.

Colin Montgomerie's third-place effort was his sixth top-10 finish in the six starts he had made on the Champions Tour to date this year.

Jay Haas was tied for fifth, his sixth top-five finish in seven starts of the season.

In the third annual 3M Oil & Gas Greats of Golf Competition, a three-man, three-team event utilized an 18-hole scramble format Saturday resulting in two teams tied. World Golf Hall of Fame members Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Gary Player played as a team and shot 10-under 62. The team of Johnny Miller, Dave Stockton and Tony Jacklin were the defending champions and also had a score of 10-under 62. Raymond Floyd, Don January and David Graham had a score of 6-under 66.

World Golf Hall of Fame member Nick Price was the recipient of the 2014 Dave Marr Award, awarded annually during the tournament to honor individuals who exemplify all the traits Mr. Marr lived by - sportsmanship, honesty, character, integrity and a passion for the game of golf.

Kenny Perry hit a 6-iron to 20 feet and then converted for a decisive birdie on the 16th hole to take a lead he would never relinquish and went on for a one-stroke victory over Mark Calcavecchia at the 26th annual Regions Tradition. After pulling his 9-iron and missing a short putt for a bogey on the previous hole, Perry rebounded with his birdie on No. 16 and then followed with consecutive pars on his final two holes to claim the victory.

Kenny Perry won his third consecutive major championship on the Champions Tour becoming just the second player to do so, joining Gary Player who achieved the feat in 1987-88.

Kenny Perry became only the second player to win the Regions Tradition, Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship and the U.S. Senior Open, joining Jack Nicklaus. The Golden Bear won the Regions Traditions in 1990, '91, '95 and '96, and the SENIOR PLAYERS in 1990. His U.S. Senior Open victories came in 1991 and 1993.

Kenny Perry became the 10th player to win three different major championships on the Champions Tour.

Kenny Perry's 72-hole score of 7-under-par 281 is the highest total to win the Regions Tradition in tournament history. The previous high was 8-under-par 280 by Tom Kite in 2000 when it was staged at The Golf Club at Desert Mountain in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Kenny Perry's final-round even-par 72 matched the highest finish by a winner (Tom Kite, 2000) in tournament history and his opening-round 72 was also the high start by a winner (Eduardo Romero, 2006).

Kenny Perry joins Eduardo Romero, the 2006 champion, as the only players to have opened with a round of par or higher and gone on to win. It was only the seventh time a player shot a first-round score in the 70s and still won.

Bernhard Langer finished tied for ninth for his 18th consecutive top-10 finish dating back to 2013.

Jay Haas tied for third which gave him seven top-five finishes in eight starts this year.

A final-round 5-under-par 67 by Tom Watson led to a tied-for-sixth finish, and it was his eighth top-10 in this tournament, leaving him one shy of Jack Nicklaus' career total in the Regions Tradition. Nicklaus is the all-time leader in that category. In addition, it was also Watson's 31st top-10 finish in a major championship on the Champions Tour.

Tom Watson passed Gil Morgan as the leading money winner in this event. Watson has now earned $1,177,516 in 12 appearances. Fred Funk moved into second place with $1,121,349, while Morgan is now third with $1,110,328. Tom Lehman reached the $1-million mark after he tied for third. He has won $1,037,806 in six starts.

Michael Allen's increased his string of top-10 finishes in this event to five when he finished tied for ninth. Allen has now had four straight top-10s here at Shoal Creek and one at the Crosswater Club at Sunriver Resort in Oregon.

Just four players posted four par/better scores (Kenny Perry, Olin Browne, John Cook, and Jeff Sluman) at Shoal Creek during the week.

Fred Couples was disqualified prior to the start of his final round after missing his 9:40 a.m. tee time.

Tournament Record:
270 - Don January (1979)

Tournament Course Record:
62 - Kenny Perry (2012) - The GC at Harbor Shores

In a battle of three members of the World Golf Hall of Fame, Colin Montgomerie was spot on during the final round of the Senior PGA Championship, first eliminating Bernhard Langer and then pulling away from 64-year-old Tom Watson to win his first major championship by four strokes. Langer stayed close to Montgomerie until making double-bogey at the par-3 11th hole. The Scot then led a charging Watson by two strokes midway through the back nine at Harbor Shores but back-to-back birdies at the 14th and 15th holes gave him the cushion he needed for his first official victory on U.S. soil. Montgomerie's final-round 65 matched Khoki Idoki's 65 in the 2013 final round at Bellerive as the second-lowest score by a winner in Senior PGA Championship history.

Colin Montgomerie became the first player from Scotland to win on the Champions Tour and the third overall in the 75-year history of the Senior PGA Championship (Jock Hutchinson/1937, 1947; Fred McLeod/1938).

Colin Montgomerie ended an official victory drought of 138 career starts on the PGA TOUR and 17 appearances on the Champions Tour. He did win the unofficial Anderson Consulting Match Play Championship in Scottsdale, Ariz. in 1998 as well as the 2000 Skins Game in Palm Springs.

Colin Montgomerie became the third straight international winner of the Senior PGA Championship, a first in the history of the championship. He followed England's Roger Chapman, the winner at Harbor Shores in 2012, and Japan's Khoki Idoki, the winner at Bellerive in 2013.

Colin Montgomerie became the third first-time winner on the Champions Tour in 2014, joining Jeff Maggert (Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic) and Miguel Angel Jimenez (Greater Gwinnett Championship). He also became the third different member of the World Golf Hall of Fame to win on the Champions Tour in 2014 following Bernhard Langer (Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, Insperity Invitational) and Fred Couples (Toshiba Classic).

Colin Montgomerie earned 756 points in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race based on double points at all five Champions Tour major championships and jumped from fifth into second place in the season-long Schwab Cup.

With the win, Colin Montgomerie earned a spot in the 2014 PGA Championship at Valhalla in Louisville, Ky.

Colin Montgomerie's winning score of 13-under 271 was the same 72-hole total as Roger Chapman's when he won at Harbor Shores in 2012.

Tom Watson's runner-up finish was the 17th time he's finished among the top-three in a senior major in his Champions Tour career.

Bernhard Langer's tie for third extended his streak of top-10 finishes to 19 straight Champions Tour events and 20 consecutive overall including a tie for eighth at the Masters.

Kenny Perry tied for 13th in his quest for a fourth consecutive major championship. He had some good news following his final round when he received a special invitation to the 2014 PGA Championship at Valhalla near Louisville.

Joe Durant's final-round 7-under-par 64 matched Marco Dawson's 64 Saturday as the low round.

Stephen Ames, a four-time winner on the PGA TOUR, finished tied for 15th in his Champions Tour debut. Ames became eligible for the Champions Tour when he turned 50 on April 28.

Bob Friend, the club professional at Pikewood National in W. Va., and Craig Thomas, the club professional at Metropolis Country Club in N.Y., shared the low senior club professional honors. Both players posted 72-hole scores of 3-over 287.

Cut: There was no cut; 80 of 81 players completed all 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Partly sunny with temperatures in the low-to-mid-80s. Wind from the SE at 7-14 mph. Saturday: A mix of sun and clouds throughout the day. Play was suspended from 2:41 to 4:00 p.m. due to the threat of thunderstorms in the area. A brief shower passed through late in the round. Temperatures were in the low-80s with SE wind at 8-15 mph. Sunday: A mix of sun and clouds with highs in the mid-80s. Wind from the S at 10-20 mph with gusts to 25 mph. Lift, clean and place rules were in effect all three rounds.

Tournament Record:
197 - Jay Haas (2012), Gil Morgan (2006)

Current Course Record:
64 - Wakonda Club - Bill Glasson (2014), Bart Bryant (2013)

Tom Pernice, Jr., made an eight-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole to defeat the conditionally-exempt Doug Garwood for his third career victory. Pernice took the lead on a crowded leaderboard with a 30-foot chip-in on 17 to move one ahead of the field. However, Garwood birdied the 17 and then added a seven-foot birdie putt on the 54th hole to set up a playoff. Each made pars on the first playoff hole. Pernice hit his second shot to within eight feet and then drained the winning putt, thus ending Garwood's chances for his first victory on the Champions Tour.

Tom Pernice, Jr., claimed his third career victory on the Champions Tour. He also won the 2009 SAS Championship and the 2013 3M Championship.

Doug Garwood's runner-up finish earned him a check for $154,000. It also earned him a spot in the 2014 Encompass Championship near Chicago as a top-10 finisher not previously exempt. He was bidding to become the first Qualifying School product to win on Tour since Esteban Toledo won at the 2013 Montreal Championship.

Doug Garwood was looking to become the first player to earn his first Champions Tour victory at the Principal Charity Classic. This marked the second year in succession he finished in the top 10 here. He was tied for seventh in 2013.

Sixty-year-old Jay Haas continued his stellar 2014 season, tying for third. It marked the sixth straight event he finished in the top five in a Champions Tour event this year. Haas posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s, giving him 21 thus far for the season.

Bill Glasson tied the competitive course record with an 8-under-par 64 in the final round. It matched Bart Bryant's record 64 which he shot in the second round in 2013. Glasson was among four players who tied for third.

Defending champion Russ Cochran withdrew with a wrist injury before the start of the final round.

Mark Mouland finished tied for 17th, but he led all players with 16 birdies.

The field averaged 71.446 for the event, a drop from an average of 72.577 in 2013.

Bob Gilder and Gil Morgan, both former winners of this event, were the only players in the field who have competed in every Principal Charity Classic.

Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf presented by Bass Pro Shops

Winner: Fred Funk, Jeff Sluman
$460,000.00
61-50-48 159 (-20)

Ridgedale, MO
June 06-08

Purse: $2,400,000

Course: Top of the Rock-LD | 27-27-54/ 2,430
Buffalo Ridge-LD | 35-36-71/ 5,845

Cut: There was no cut; all 31 teams completed 54 holes in the Champions Division. All 11 teams in the Legends Division (65+) completed 45 holes.

Weather: Friday: Mostly cloudy with scattered thunderstorms. Temperatures near 80. Play was first suspended from 10:45-11:45 a.m. and then again from 12:20-3:18 p.m. due to lightning in the area. After more than an inch of rain Thursday night, lift, clean and place rules in effect on the Buffalo Ridge-Springs Course. Saturday: Mostly cloudy with occasional morning showers before partial clearing in the afternoon. Temperatures were in the low-80s with SW winds at 10-20 mph with occasional higher gusts. Lift, clean and place rules in effect on the Buffalo Ridge-Springs Course. Sunday: Mostly cloudy with temperatures in the mid-70s and winds from the ESE at 5-10 mph. A light rain began at 1:20 p.m. and continued throughout the day.

Tournament Record:
159 - Fred Funk (2014), Jeff Sluman (2014)

Current Course Record:
61 - Buffalo Ridge-LD - Russ Cochran (2014), Fred Funk (2014), Kenny Perry (2014), Jeff Sluman (2014)
48 - Top of the Rock-LD - Fred Funk (2014), Jay Haas (2014), Peter Jacobsen (2014), Jeff Sluman (2014)

Format: All players played two days at the Top of the Rock course with the Champions Division playing alternate-shot for their first nine holes and better-ball for their second nine. The Legends Division (65+) used the same format for their first round at Top of the Rock, but played only nine holes of better ball Sunday. All players played 18 holes of better ball at the Buffalo Ridge-Springs Course on either Friday or Saturday.

Jeff Sluman made a six-foot, par-saving putt on the final hole, allowing he and Fred Funk to claim a one-stroke victory over Peter Jacobsen-Jay Haas at the 37th Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, contested for the first time in the Ozarks. Initially Haas missed an eight-foot birdie putt to tie the Funk-Sluman team at the 17th hole. All four players hit the final green, albeit a considerable distance from the hole. Next Funk misjudged the speed of a up-ridge putt which ran 30 feet past the hole. Sluman lagged from a similar distance to within six feet. Both Jacobsen and Haas missed their lengthy birdie efforts. Finally, Sluman holed the winning putt for par. In the epic duel between the two teams, both teams combined to make five birdies each on the back nine in the better-ball portion of the round.

Jeff Sluman became the fifth player to win the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf with two different partners. In 2013 in Savannah, he won the Legends event with Brad Faxon.

Jeff Sluman's win was the sixth of his Champions Tour career, while Fred Funk claimed his ninth victory as a member of the Champions Tour and first since the 2012 Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn.

Both Fred Funk/Jeff Sluman won $230,000 and collected 230 points in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race. The pair also earned an additional two-year exemption into the season-opening event in Hawaii's Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

Jim Colbert and his partner, Jim Thorpe, birdied four of the last five holes to pull away from the team of Bruce Fleisher/Larry Nelson and win the Legends Division (65-plus) competition by three strokes. For Colbert, it marked the second straight year he's won a Legends title, claiming last year's Demaret Division crown in Savannah with Bob Murphy. Both Colbert and Thorpe earned an unofficial prize-money check for $60,000.

With Jay Haas/Peter Jacobsen finishing second, it marked the sixth consecutive year that second-round leaders/co-leaders have failed to go on to win the event. At this event, Haas played his 200th career event on the Champions Tour and 999th overall combined on the PGA TOUR/Champions Tour. For Jacobsen, it was his best finish since he tied for second at the 2006 Legends when it was an individual stroke-play event.

The Jay Haas/Peter Jacobsen team made 23 birdies, the most birdies in the event, while the winning team of Fred Funk/Jeff Sluman made 21 birdies but only one bogey over the 54 holes (No. 4-Top of the Rock/second round). The team of Craig Stadler/Kirk Triplett played all 54 holes without making a bogey and finished third at 14-under. Stadler/Triplett teamed together for the first time in 2013 when they tied for fourth in Savannah.

Bernhard Langer extended his streak of top-10 finishes to 20 straight on the Champions Tour and 21 consecutive including a tie for eighth at the 2014 Masters.

Dale Douglass made the first and only ace in the event at Top of the Rock, holing a sand wedge from 98 yards at the second hole. It was Douglass's fourth career ace on the Champions Tour and his first since the 2004 Allianz Championship in Des Moines. It was the fourth ace on the Champions Tour in 2014 and the 11th in tournament history.

The course received .25 inches of rain overnight. Saturday: Mostly cloudy with highs in the mid-70s with light, variable wind before a severe thunderstorm moved through the area, stopping play at 4:56 p.m. After a 1 hour-14 minute rain delay, play was suspended for the day at 6:10 p.m. with 31 players yet to finish their rounds. Sunday: Second round resumed at 7:15 a.m. and was completed at 8:25 a.m. The course received 1.5 inches of rain during the delay and peak gusts were at 40 mph. Partly sunny with highs in the low-70s.

Tournament Record:

201 - Tom Lehman (2014)

Current Course Record:

64 - North Shore CC - Russ Cochran (2014)

A year after Craig Stadler drained a 12-foot par-saving putt to win the 2013 tournament, Tom Lehman duplicated the feat, sinking a 12-footer for a birdie to give him a one-stroke victory over Kirk Triplett and Michael Allen. Lehman started the day with a three-shot lead over a trio of players, but was unable to build on his lead as Triplett and Allen climbed to within one stroke at the turn. Lehman appeared to be on the ropes after consecutive bogeys on Nos. 13 and 14 cost him the lead. Three birdies on the final four closing holes netted him the win. Playing one group in front of the Lehman-Triplett-Inman group, Allen had posted a score of 14-under, setting the stage for an exciting finish. After Triplett missed his birdie opportunity from 22 feet, Lehman drained the birdie putt, avoiding a playoff.

Tom Lehman became the third wire-to-wire winner on the Champions Tour in 2014, joining Michael Allen (Allianz Championship) and Miguel Angel Jimenez (Greater Gwinnett Championship).

Tom Lehman finished third in greens in regulation as well as in driving accuracy and was sixth in putts per round. Lehman had ranked 69th in that category coming into the event.

It was a great weekend for Scottsdale residents on the Champions Tour. Not only did Tom Lehman win his eighth title, but fellow residents Michael Allen and Kirk Triplett tied for second.

Bernhard Langer's string of top-10 finishes ended at 20 (21 if you include his tie for eighth at the 2014 Masters). Langer finished tied for 20th with a 54-hole total of 7-under-par 209. The last time he failed to finish in the top 10 was at the 2013 U.S. Senior Open where he tied for 14th.

Russ Cochran set a new tournament course record when he shot a final round 8-under-par 64.

World Golf Hall of Famer Hale Irwin matched his age for the seventh time in his career when he closed with a 3-under-par 69 Sunday. He has also bettered his age four times in his career. Irwin turned 69 on June 3rd.

With his fourth-place finish, Doug Garwood earned a spot in the 2014 3M Championship as a top-10 finisher not previously eligible. He had earned a spot in the 2014 Encompass Championship via the same route after losing in a playoff to Tom Pernice, Jr., at the Principal Charity Classic.

Defending champion Craig Stadler finished tied for 68th.

The team of Jeff Hart and Jody Rotondo were the winners of the two-day pro-am competition. They finished with a two-round total of 25-under-par 119. Four teams finished four strokes behind.

Bernhard Langer sank a 5-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole to defeat Jeff Sluman and win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. It was Langer's third win in a Champions Tour major championship. Langer had started the day with a three-stroke advantage over Kenny Perry. However, both Langer and Perry stumbled on the back nine allowing Sluman and Russ Cochran to get into the mix. Perry fell by the wayside with a bogey at No. 16 and after Sluman made birdie to take the lead at No. 16, Langer drained a 50-foot birdie putt on the next hole to tie Sluman. Cochran was unable to close the gap, missing chances on his final two holes. On the first extra hole, Sluman's birdie opportunity from eight feet for the win ended only an inch short. Minutes later, on the second extra hole, Langer pitched to five feet and sank his putt for the victory.

Bernhard Langer's win was his 21st career Champions Tour title, and he moved into solo eighth place on the all-time wins list, with one win more than Bruce Crampton and Jim Colbert.

Bernhard Langer has won the 2010 U.S. Senior Open, the 2010 Senior British Open and the 2014 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, the only player in Champions Tour history to win all three.

Bernhard Langer's win marked the first time there has been a year when winners of THE PLAYERS and the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS have come from the same country other than the United States. Langer joined fellow German Martin Kaymer for that distinction.

Jack Nicklaus has won four of the five senior majors. With his win Bernhard Langer joined nine other players who have all won three different majors.

Bernhard Langer earned a berth in the 2015 THE PLAYERS Championship at TPC Sawgrass with his victory at Fox Chapel.

Bernhard Langer captured his third victory of the 2014 season, the fourth time he's claimed three or more titles in a season. Earlier this year, Langer won both the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai and the Insuperity Invitational.

Jeff Sluman's runner-up finish marked the third event in succession that he's been in the top-10. He teamed with Fred Funk three weeks earlier to win the Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf and followed that with a tie for sixth at the Encompass Championship.

Jay Haas's string of top-five finishes ended at seven when he tied for sixth at Fox Chapel. Haas had tied for fifth or better in 10 of 11 starts (tied for 12th at Toshiba Classic).

Bob Gilder matched his age for the first time when he finished with a final-round, 7-under-par 63. He became the third player on Tour in 2014 to match or better his age. Hale Irwin bettered his age twice (Allianz Championship and the Toshiba Classic and matched it once, at the 2014 Encompass Championship). Tom Watson also bettered his age, at the Toshiba Classic. Gilder's 63 matched the lowest final-round in tournament history (Tom Kite in 2003).

Colin Montgomerie sank a 15-foot putt for par on the third hole of an aggregate playoff with Gene Sauers to claim the 2014 U.S. Senior Open. It was a disappointing loss for Sauers, who saw his 6-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole lip out. Had his putt dropped, it would have given Sauers his first Champions Tour win and first since his 2002 PGA TOUR victory at the Air Canada Championship. But credit Montgomerie, who battled the 100-degree heat to win his second major title of the year. He won the Senior PGA Championship in May in Michigan. The World Golf Hall of Famer shot a 2-under-par 69 to get in the playoff and ended Sauers' chances when he sank his 15-foot par putt on the third extra hole.

Colin Montgomerie became the third consecutive European to win two majors in the same year. Bernhard Langer claimed back-to-back majors in 2010, and Roger Chapman won the Senior PGA Championship and the U.S. Senior Open in 2012.

Colin Montgomerie earned 1,260 points in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race and moved into first place in the season-long standings, with 2,543 points. His victory also earned him a berth in the 2015 U.S. Open at Chambers

Bay in Washington.

Colin Montgomerie became the eighth international player to capture the title, joining Roberto De Vincenzo (Argentina), Gary Player (South Africa), Simon Hobday (South Africa), Graham Marsh (Australia), Eduardo Romero (Argentina), Bernhard Langer (Germany) and Roger Chapman (England).

Woody Austin enjoyed a top-five finish in his first Champions Tour start. The four-time PGA TOUR winner closed with a 1-under-par 70 to tie for third. Kevin Sutherland, who was also making his debut, tied for 38th.

After narrowly making the cut right on the number (7-over), defending champion Kenny Perry rebounded with rounds of 72-67 to tie for 14th.

Mike McCoy from Des Moines, Iowa, was the low amateur, tying for 26th. As the low amateur, McCoy earned a spot in the 2015 U.S. Senior Open at Del Paso Country Club in Sacramento.

Marco Dawson and Colin Montgomerie led all players with 17 birdies at the event.

Bernhard Langer turned in the most dominating performance in Champions Tour history, tapping in for birdie on the final hole to complete a record 13-stroke victory over Colin Montgomerie at the Senior Open Championship at Royal Porthcawl. Up eight strokes going into the final round, Langer wasn't about to take his foot off the gas pedal. When he made four birdies over his first seven holes, Langer's lead was 12 over Canadian Rick Gibson and reached 14 strokes midway through the back nine. Montgomerie birdied the last two holes to post a 69 and close the margin back to 12 before Langer finished the event in style, making birdie at the last to post a championship record score in relation to par of 18-under 266.

Bernhard Langer won with the lowest-winning total in relation to par, surpassing the 17-under score of Tom Watson at Turnberry in 2003.

Bernhard Langer's 13-stroke triumph is an all-time record for the largest margin in the history of the Champions Tour, besting Hale Irwin's 12-stroke margin of victory at the 1997 Senior PGA Championship.

Bernhard Langer shattered the Senior Open Championship record for largest winning margin, besting Bob Charles' seven-stroke victory in 1989.

Bernhard Langer's 13-stroke winning margin equals the second-largest margin in any major championship. Tiger Woods won the 2000 U.S. Open by 15 strokes and Old Tom Morris won The Open Championship by 13 in 1862.

Bernhard Langer joined Gary Player (1988, 1990, 1997), Bob Charles (1989, 1993), Brian Barnes (1995, 1996), Christy O'Connor, Jr. (1999, 2000), Tom Watson (2003, 2005, 2007) and Loren Roberts (2006, 2009) as the seventh multiple winner of this championship.

With his win, Bernhard Langer earned a spot in the 144th Open Championship in 2015 at St. Andrews. He also earned 672 Charles Schwab Cup points and regained the lead from Colin Montgomerie in the season-long race.

Just five players finished this year's Senior Open Championship under par, the fewest in this event since 2007 at Muirfield when Tom Watson's winning score was even par.

Bernhard Langer is the only player to finish among the top 10 in all five major championships on the Champions Tour. In addition to his Senior Open win and his win at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS, Langer tied for ninth at the Regions Tradition, tied for third at the Senior PGA Championship and tied for ninth at the U.S. Senior Open.

Despite a final-round 77, 64-year-old Tom Watson managed to tie for 10th at Royal Porthcawl Golf Club. It was the three-time Senior Open Championship winner's eighth top-10 finish in 12 appearances in the championship.

After starting the championship with 78 on Thursday, Tom Pernice, Jr., birdied the last two holes to tie for third, the best performance by an American in the 2014 Senior Open Championship and his personal best in a senior major.

Fred Couples tied for 13th in his first start on the Champions Tour in two months (2014 Regions Tradition). Couples had been out of action with back issues since playing at Shoal Creek in Birmingham.

Bob Gilder made his record 68th consecutive appearance in a senior major championship, extending his all-time record streak. Gilder has played in every major championship since joining the Champions Tour in 2001.

New Zealand's Greg Turner made the 11th ace in Senior Open Championship history since the event became official in 2003, holing a 9-iron shot from 165 yards at the par-3 15th.

Tournament Record:

191 - David Frost (2010)

Current Course Record:

61 - TPC Twin Cities - David Frost (2010)

Kenny Perry sank a 15-foot putt on the final hole to hold off a late charge by Bernhard Langer to win the 22nd annual 3M Championship. Langer closed a four-stroke gap with a run of five birdies on his first six holes on the back nine. He added another at 17 to tie Perry at 22-under going to 18. Playing one group in front, Langer saw his chances slip away when his second shot nearly went in the hazard just off the green. With an awkward lie, he knocked it out to 30 feet and had to settle for par. Perry made it interesting on the final hole when he hit his second under the skyboxes. After getting a drop, he chipped from off the green to 15 feet and drained his winning putt, finishing with a 7-under-par 65.

Kenny Perry's 54-hole total of 23-under-par 193 fell two strokes shy of the tournament mark of 25-under par by David Frost in 2010, but it was the second-best 54-hole total in event history, matching R.W. Eaks' total in 2008.

Bernhard Langer increased his lead in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race by picking up 154 points with his runner-up finish. Langer held a 355-point lead over Colin Montgomerie at this point in the race.

Bernhard Langer has had great success at the 3M Championship. Langer now owns two wins in the event (2009, 2012) and a pair of second-place finishes (2014, 2008).

Hale Irwin bettered his age for the third consecutive day when he finished with a 4-under-par 68. The 69-year-old Irwin shot rounds of 68-66-68 and became the first player to better his age three times in a Champions Tour event since Gary Player at the 2009 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

Hale Irwin tied for ninth, his first top-10 finish of the season and the 210th of his career which is a Tour record. It was his first top-10 finish since the 2013 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

Wes Short, Jr., made a final-round run at the tournament-scoring record, but his 10-under-par 62 fell one short of the record set in the final round in 2010 by that year's champion David Frost.

First round leader Marco Dawson, who was tied for the lead on the front nine of the final round, tied for third in his first appearance. Dawson had open qualified Tuesday of tournament week, and it was his fourth top-10 finish in nine starts at this point of the season.

When D.A. Weibring withdrew, Gary Hallberg got a spot in the field. Hallberg took full advantage of his good fortune, tying for ninth and leaving with a check for $40,541.

Paul Goydos tied for ninth in his Champions Tour debut.

Jeff Maggert tied the tournament record with 24 birdies for the three rounds, matching the number posted by R.W. Eaks in 2008.

The final scoring average for the tournament was 69.609 which is the lowest in tournament history. The previous low was 70.056 in 2008. There were 122 rounds in the 60s for the three rounds and 180 rounds were below par.

For the 11th consecutive year, the Greats of Golf Challenge was part of the 3M Championship on Saturday. The first threesome included Johnny Miller, Dave Stockton and Al Geiberger followed by Fuzzy Zoeller, David Graham and Andy North. Don January captained the second threesome. Arnold Palmer was captain of the third trio of Annika Sorenstam, Pat Bradley and Nancy Lopez while the team of Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Lee Trevino teed off last.

With daughter Christina on his bag, Bernhard Langer eased past Woody Austin and Mark O'Meara for his fifth victory of the season. Midway through the back nine, it appeared as if Langer and Steve Lowery would duel to the finish as both were tied at 16-under after Langer birdied the par-3 14th hole. However, Lowery, playing in the final grouping behind Langer, hit his 5-iron shot in the water at No. 14 and made double bogey. He then fell out of contention for good when he bogeyed the next hole after flying his second shot over the 15th green. With Austin posted at 15-under and O'Meara making birdie on two of his final three holes to get to 15-under, Langer proceeded to make three solid pars down the stretch to close out a bogey-free event and win by a stroke.

Bernhard Langer won his 23rd career Champions Tour title, tying Bob Charles for fifth place on the all-time career victory list.

Bernhard Langer earned a check for $277,500 and increased his 2014 Champions Tour earnings to $2,652,520, the most money earned in a year by a player since Hale Irwin pocketed a record $3,028,304 in 2002. Langer's previous personal-best in single-season earnings was $2,648,939 in 2010.

Bernhard Langer's four-stroke come-from-behind victory matched the largest in Dick's Sporting Goods Open history. Loren Roberts won by four strokes in 2010.

For the first time in his career, Bernhard Langer was bogey free in a Champions Tour event.

Saturday, August 16, 2014 was a historic day for the Champions Tour as Kevin Sutherland made 12 birdies, an eagle and a bogey—on the final hole—at En-Joie Golf Course to post the first 59 in Champions Tour history. Nine players have shot rounds of 60 since the Champions Tour began in 1980. Sutherland's 9-under 28 on his first nine holes tied the all-time Champions Tour nine-hole record in relation to par. His run of seven birdies and an eagle also tied the all-time mark for the best birdie-eagle stretch in Champions Tour history.

After earning his way into the Dick's Sporting Goods Open with a tie for third at the 3M Championship, Marco Dawson tied for fourth at En-Joie, shooting 66 in the final round.

Despite faltering down the stretch, Steve Lowery registered his career-best Champions Tour finish, a tie for fourth. Lowery made 22 birdies, the most by a player in the field during the week.

Scott Dunlap outlasted Mark Brooks to score his first career Champions Tour victory. Dunlap was up three strokes twice on the back nine, and he appeared headed to an easy victory after making a short birdie putt at the 14th hole. However, Brooks, playing in the group ahead of Dunlap, birdied six of his last seven holes, including a clutch 8-foot birdie putt on the final hole of regulation, to catch Dunlap. On the first extra hole, the par-5 18th, Brooks was forced to lay up after hitting his drive into the bunker. Dunlap hit his drive in the fairway and then rifled his 3-wood second shot to within five feet of the hole, allowing him two putts for victory after Brooks spun his third shot back to the front of the green and missed his birdie effort from 40 feet. Dunlap's eagle effort slid just past the hole and he tapped in for the win.

Scott Dunlap won in his 16th career Champions Tour start, claiming his first Tour victory since the Web.com Tour's Panama Movistar Championship in 2008. He made 204 PGA TOUR appearances and was third three times.

Scott Dunlap joined John Riegger, the 2013 champion, as the second player to make the Boeing Classic his first victory on the circuit.

Scott Dunlap is the first player from Qualifying School to win an event on the Champions Tour since Esteban Toledo won both the 2013 Inseperity Championship and the 2013 Montreal Championship. Dunlap tied for fourth in Scottsdale at the National Qualifying Tournament to earn his initial exemption on the Champions Tour.

The playoff with Mark Brooks and Scott Dunlap was the fifth in the 10-year history of the Boeing Classic.

Mark Brooks' runner-up finish was his best Champions Tour effort since finishing second to Bob Gilder at the 2011 Principal Charity Classic. In three other appearances at the Boeing Classic, Brooks had never finished better than tied for 57th.

Gene Sauers recorded his second consecutive top-five finish in the Boeing Classic with a solo third-place effort after carding a final-round 65. Sauers tied for fourth at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge in 2013.

Marco Dawson continued his good stretch of play with a tie for fifth at the Boeing Classic, earning a spot in the field at the following week's Shaw Charity Classic. Dawson had tied for fourth and tied for third, respectively, at his previous two Champions Tour events.

For the first time in Champions Tour history, three players who shot 59s played together in the same grouping. Chip Beck, the second player in PGA TOUR history to shoot 59, Paul Goydos, the fifth player to shoot 59 on the TOUR, and Kevin Sutherland, the first player in Champions Tour history to shoot 59, teed off together in the first round.

Robin Freeman made the only eagle of the week at the drivable par-4 14th hole. It kept alive a streak of 10 straight years that at least one eagle has been made on the hole known as Bear's Canyon. Overall, players made 28 eagles in the event this season, eight of them on par 4s.

Charles Schwab Cup leader Bernhard Langer tied for 15th at the Boeing Classic, his poorest career performance in Seattle.

Fred Couples carded a final-round 66 to move into a tie for 15th at the Boeing Classic, the best performance among the three players from Washington who were in the field. Jeff Coston (Blaine) tied for 32nd, while Rick Fehr (Seattle) tied for 72nd.

Rocco Mediate's 22 birdies were the most in the event's history, bettering the 21 by Jack Ferenz in 2006 and Tom Kite in 2008. However, Mediate's eight bogeys and two double bogeys led to a tie for 10th.

Tournament Record:

191 - Rocco Mediate (2013)

Current Course Record:

61 - Canyon Meadows G&CC - Fred Couples (2014)

Fred Couples performed his magic twice on the 18th hole Sunday, the second bit of good play earning him his 11th career Champions Tour title. After Couples and Billy Andrade made eagles on the 54th hole to get into a playoff, Couples ended the affair on the first extra hole when he hit his third shot to within a foot after laying up. Moments earlier, Andrade's second shot from the fairway flew into a sky box off the left side of No. 18. After taking a drop, he chipped to 30 feet and then watched helplessly as his putt for birdie just slid by the left side of the hole. Couples calmly stepped up and sank his winning putt. Couples set a new course record in the final round with his bogey-free, 9-under-par 61, while Andrade matched his career low Tour round, with a 62. He also had a 62 at the 1995 Canon Greater Hartford Open.

Fred Couples won for the 11th time on Tour, and it marked the 35th time a player had played all 54 holes without a bogey. Of those 35, 18 players have gone on to win.

Fred Couples' 9-under-par 61 broke the course mark set by Bill Glasson in 2013 and later matched by Tom Pernice, Jr., and Bart Bryant.

Fred Couples became the fourth multiple Champions Tour winner in 2014. The others to win multiple titles are Bernhard Langer, Colin Montgomerie and Kenny Perry. All but Perry are members of the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Fred Couples was 10-under-par on the par-5 holes at Canyon Meadows, including three eagles.

Steve Lowery's tie-for-third finish was his best Champions Tour performance in 80 starts.

Joe Daley tied for third for his best Champions Tour finish since winning the 2012 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship.

Bernhard Langer posted a final-round 2-over-par 72 and slipped to a tie for 27th after entering the final round just two strokes off the pace.

Since making his first Champions Tour appearance at the U.S. Senior Open in July, where he tied for third, Woody Austin has tied for second at Dick's Sporting Goods Open, tied for fifth at the Boeing Classic and sixth in Calgary. In those four starts, Austin earned $521,095, an average of $130,095 per start.

Woody Austin, Steve Lowery, David Frost and Mark Mouland led all players, with 18 birdies.

Willie Wood made a hole-in-one on No. 5 Sunday, using an 8-iron from 157 yards. It was the first ace of his Champions Tour career and fourth in tournament history. Brian Cairns had aced the same hole Friday.

Calgary resident Stephen Ames tied for 73rd in his second start on Tour. He had tied for 15th in May's Senior PGA Championship in Michigan. The Canadian Golf Hall of Fame inducted Ames on Tuesday of tournament week at Canyon Meadows.

Defending champion Rocco Mediate shot three rounds in the 60s to tie for 19th.

Cut: There was no cut; 78 of 80 players completed all 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Partly cloudy, with a high of 77. Wind SSW at 10-20 mph. A steady rain overnight produced 0.05 inches, which left the course temporarily unplayable. Saturday: Wet conditions delayed the second-round start two hours. Play began at 12:10 p.m., with lift, clean and place rules in effect. Another shower fell midway through the afternoon, but there were no further delays. Wind NW at 10-15 mph, with afternoon temperatures starting near 70 then dropping into the low-50s by round's end. Sunday: After a cool morning, temperatures were in the mid-40s during mostly sunny conditions. High was 68. Wind WNW at 10-15 mph. Players utilized preferred lies in the final round.

Tournament Record:

195 - John Cook (2011)

Current Course Record:

64 - La Tempete GC - Scott Dunlap (2014), Wes Short, Jr. (2014)

Wes Short, Jr. won his first career Champions Tour title in dramatic style at the Quebec Championship. Just moments after Scott Dunlap made eagle at the par-5 18th hole to take the lead, Short holed a 35-foot birdie putt at No. 17 to set up the fireworks on the final hole. After a perfect drive, Short hit a hybrid from 251 yards to within eight feet of the flag and then made the eagle putt to leapfrog Dunlap and win by a stroke. Short's clutch eagle on the 54th hole capped a back-nine run of 7-under 29. Like Dunlap, he posted a final-round 64 that matched the course record at La Tempete Golf Club. Short started his final round three strokes off the lead and after making seven straight pars, he birdied the par-5 ninth hole but still trailed Esteban Toledo by three shots. After making birdies at Nos. 10 and 12, Short trailed a charging Dunlap by two shots. When he two-putted for birdie from 12 feet at the par-5 14th, he trimmed Dunlap's lead to a shot. Short tied Dunlap with the birdie at No. 16 and his 20-foot birdie at the par-3 17th hole set up the exciting finish that propelled him to his initial victory.

Wes Short, Jr., won in his 18th career Champions Tour start and claimed his first TOUR victory since winning the PGA TOUR's Michelin Championship at Las Vegas in 2005. He was the fourth rookie to win in 2014, joining Jeff Maggert, Miguel Angel Jimenez and Scott Dunlap.

Wes Short, Jr., joined Scott Dunlap as the second player from the 2013 Qualifying Tournament to win a 2014 Champions Tour event. Short was the medalist at the National Qualifying Tournament, earning his initial Champions Tour exemption with a five-stroke win.

Wes Short Jr.'s dramatic eagle at the last hole marked the first time since the 2010 Allianz Championship that a player (Bernhard Langer) made eagle on the last hole to win.

Defending champion Esteban Toledo tied for third.

Both 2014 Champions Tour events in Canada featured eagles at the 54th hole by the winner and runner-up at each event. Wes Short, Jr., won and Scott Dunlap was second at the Quebec Championship, while Fred Couples won and Billy Andrade finished second at the Shaw Charity Classic.

Jay Haas' tie for seventh was his 12th top-10 finish in 16 Tour starts this year. Prior to this season, the last time Haas had more than 11 top-10s in a year came in 2008 when he had 14 top-10s, a season that boasted a pair of victories.

Bill Glasson birdied the final hole to move into a tie for 10th at La Tempete Golf Club. It was Glasson's fourth top-10 finish in the five-year history of the Quebec Championship, the most by any player.

Victoria's Jim Rutledge shot a final-round 68 to tie for 10th, the best effort by any of the five Canadian players in the field. It marked the third time in the last four years at the Quebec Championship that a player from Canada managed a top-10 finish in this event.

Two-time U.S. Open champion Lee Janzen tied for 23rd in his debut. New Zealand's Grant Waite tied for 49th in his first career start on the circuit.

The par-72 La Tempete Golf Club played to a stroke average of 71.113 for the week. In 2013, at the Rouville course at Richelieu Valley near Montreal, the field scoring average was 73.621.

Brad Faxon made 18 birdies, the most in the event, while Scott Dunlap was the only player to record three eagles in the tournament, two of them in the final round.

Weather: Friday: A mix of sun and clouds with highs in the mid-80s. Wind from the S at 5-10 mph. Saturday: A mix of sun and clouds with highs in the mid-to-upper 80s. Wind from the SSW at 6-12 mph. Sunday: Partly sunny in the morning before becoming mostly cloudy in the afternoon. Highs in the upper-80s with SSE winds at 10-20 mph.

Tournament Record:

197 - Paul Goydos (2014)

Current Course Record:

60 - Kapolei GC - Tom Pernice Jr. (2014)

Despite a bogey on his final hole, rookie Paul Goydos used four consecutive birdies on Nos. 14-17 to earn a one-stroke victory over Fred Funk and Scott Dunlap at the Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship. Goydos finished with a tournament record 54-hole total of 19-under-par 197 for his first career win on the Champions Tour. The victory came in his fifth start.

Paul Goydos' win was his second in Hawaii. He also claimed the 2007 Sony Open in Hawaii on the PGA TOUR.

Paul Goydos' 54-hole total of 19-under-par 197 shattered the tournament-scoring record by five strokes. The previous mark was 14-under-par 202 by Willie Wood in 2012. Goydos also had 20 birdies, another tournament record.

Fred Funk made the first ace in the tournament's three-year history when he holed a 4-hybrid on No. 16 from 200 yards in the final round. Funk's ace earned him a free two-year lease for a BMW. It was Funk's third hole-in-one on Tour.

Scott Dunlap's tie for second continued his outstanding play. During the previous month he won in a playoff with Mark Brooks at the Boeing Classic and finished second at the Quebec Championship.

There were a total of 1,056 birdies during the week, the fourth-most in a Tour event.

Mark Brooks tied for seventh, his fourth top-10 finish in this season. Brooks had just three top-10 finishes in three previous seasons on the Champions Tour in 64 starts.

Davis Love III shot a second consecutive even-par 72 and tied for 64th in his Tour debut. Joining Love in making their debuts were Guy Boros (tied for 53rd) and Skip Kendall (tied for 40th).

Corey Pavin shot an 11-under 61 in the second round and tied for seventh, the third year in succession he has posted a top-10 finish at this event. He is the only player to do so all three years.

Wes Short, Jr., posted his third straight top-10 finish. Short tied for fifth at the Shaw Charity Classic, won the Quebec Championship and finished sixth at this tournament.

Tom Pernice, Jr. became the 10th Champions Tour player to shoot a 60 and his 12-under-par opening round bettered his previous low round on Tour by two strokes. He recorded 12 birdies in his round, matching the Tour record for most birdies in a round.

Despite making just one birdie over his last 11 holes, John Cook manufactured some key up-and-down par saves to edge Tom Byrum by a stroke for his first Champions Tour title in 20 months. Cook was locked in a duel for most of the back nine with Byrum and Skip Kendall. After par saves at No. 9 (five feet) and No. 11 (10 feet) to stay close to Byrum, Cook moved into a temporary tie with a five-foot birdie putt at No. 13. Cook then made his best par save of the day at the par-5 14th, holing a five-foot putt after an indifferent third shot landed left of the green. "I was furious after hitting that shot but turned right around and hit one of the best pitch shots of my career. I couldn't do that again if I had a bucket of balls," he said. After Byrum fell out of a tie with a bogey at No. 17, failing to get up and down from the back-right, greenside bunker, Cook again made a key par save at the same hole, pitching to five feet from the front portion of the putting surface. He then sunk the putt. A routine par at the par-5 18th preserved the victory.

John Cook has won at every level on the Monterey Peninsula, claiming his first Champions Tour title in the area. While a junior in high school, Cook won the 1975 California State Amateur at Pebble Beach. His first career PGA TOUR title came at the the 1981 Bing Crosby National Pro-Am, the first of his 11 career wins on that circuit. He also won the pro-am portion of the 1991 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am with actor Jack Wagner as his amateur partner.

John Cook is on a select list of players winning both a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event at the same venue, joining Hale Irwin as the only other player to pull off titles on both Tours at Pebble Beach.

John Cook became the first player in the history of this event to survive a double bogey and go on to victory (No. 5, Pebble Beach, second round).

Tom Byrum finished second in a Champions Tour event for the second time since turning 50. He earned a spot into the upcoming SAS Championship by being the highest non-exempt player among the top 10. Byrum finished second at the inaugural Shaw Charity Classic in 2013.

Skip Kendall, making just his second career start on Tour and an open-qualifier into the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, tied for third as did England's Roger Chapman. For Chapman, it was his highest Champions Tour finish since his win at the 2012 U.S. Senior Open. .

Two-time defending champion Kirk Triplett fell short in his quest for a third consecutive Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach title, registering a tie for sixth.

Scott Dunlap made the third hole-in-one in tournament history when he holed a shot with a sand wedge from 103 yards at the par-3 seventh hole. Allen Doyle and Jeff Sluman had made aces at No. 5 in the third round of the 2009 event.

Jay Haas tied for 10th, giving him a top-10 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in eight of his 10 appearances at this event.

Playing with Champions Tour player Lee Janzen, junior player Christopher Meyers made double eagle on the famed 18th hole at Pebble Beach to leapfrog two other teams and win the pro-junior team competition by two strokes. The 17-year-old Meyers, representing The First Tee of Tucson, had ricocheted his tee shot forward off the rocks and, as a result, had 203 yards to the flag. He then holed the 4-iron second shot for the dramatic, walk-off victory. Janzen and Meyers finished 54 holes with a better-ball score of 22-under-par 193. They appeared to be on the outside looking in with three holes to play in the pro-junior competition, but the duo birdied both the 16th and 17th holes to creep closer to the lead, setting up the historic ending on the final hole. It wasn't the first hole-out for Meyers on the Monterey Peninsula. When he was seven, Meyers had a hole-in-one on the nearby Peter Hay par-3 course at Pebble Beach.

Tournament Record:
198 - Mark Wiebe (2007)
Current Course Record:
61 - Prestonwood CC - Tom Kite (2003)

Kirk Triplett managed to recover from each of his three bogeys in the final round, making a birdie after each one, and his 3-under 69 led to an easy three-stroke victory over Tom Lehman at the SAS Championship. Triplett started the final round with a two-stroke lead over both Paul Goydos and Lehman, and neither player could get any closer than that margin at any time during the final round. Triplett's 15-foot birdie putt at the par-5 12th hole gave him a four-stroke advantage. At that point, it was his tournament to lose with six holes to play. Down the stretch, he proceeded to make five pars and a two-putt birdie from 30 feet at the par-5 17th to waltz to the victory.

Kirk Triplett won his fourth career Champions Tour title and collected multiple titles for the first time in a Tour season. Triplett captured The ACE Group Classic in Naples early in 2014.

Kirk Triplett's second-round 63 included a birdie-eagle finish that propelled him to a two-stroke lead over Paul Goydos and Tom Lehman. Triplett's bogey-free, 9-under-par 63 Saturday featured seven birdies, including a two-putt birdie from 40 feet at the par-5 17th. He then closed his round in style, holing an 8-iron second shot from 143 yards for an eagle at the par-4 18th hole.

Kirk Triplett's 19 birdies were the most for the week, while Bernhard Langer only made two bogeys, the fewest by a player in the field.

Bernhard Langer's tie for third, coupled with Colin Montgomerie finishing outside the top 10 (tied for 19th), increased Langer's lead in the Charles Schwab Cup race to 771 points with three events remaining.

Guy Boros, an open-qualifier at the SAS Championship played in just his second Champions Tour event and held the 18-hole lead after a first-round 66. He eventually tied for 10th.

Mark McNulty, playing with a heavy heart in the final round, carded a 5-under 67 to vault into a tie for fifth, his best Champions Tour finish since placing solo fifth at the Constellation Senior Players Championship in late-June. McNulty's long-time caddie, Rocky Hobday, passed away Saturday of tournament week after a lengthy battle with cancer.

Despite making double bogey on his 17th hole in the first round, 69-year-old Hale Irwin, the Champions Tour's all-time victory leader, with 45 titles, carded a 4-under 68 and bettered his age for the seventh time in 2014.

Tom Byrum made the fourth hole-in-one in SAS Championship history when he aced No. 8 at Prestonwood with a 7-iron shot from 160 yards. It marked the first ace at the SAS event since Tom Pernice, Jr., had a hole-in-one at No. 11 in the first round of the 2010 event.

Jay Haas won his 17th Champions Tour title and first since the 2012 Principal Charity Classic.

Jay Haas' victory was his third in the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn (2005 and 2009), more wins than any other golfer. He also posted three wins at the Principal Charity Classic.

Jay Haas set a new tournament 54-hole scoring record with his 17-under-par 196, breaking the previous mark of 197 by Mark Wiebe (2011) and James Mason (2011). Those two players posted the total when it was a par-72 course.

Jay Haas became the 18th different player age 60 or older to win on the Champions Tour and the first since Craig Stadler (2013 Encompass Championship).

At age 60 years, 10 months, 17 days, Jay Haas is the 10th-oldest winner on Tour. Currently, the late Mike Fetchick is the oldest, winning on his 63rd birthday.

Jay Haas' win was his 15th top-10 finish of 2014.

With Bernhard Langer not playing and Colin Montgomerie failing to crack the top 10, there was no change in the top two spots in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race. Langer remained 771 points ahead of Montgomerie. Jay Haas picked up 240 points and remained in third position, with 1,879 points.

Sixty-two-year-old Wayne Levi recorded his best finish since 2011 by tying for sixth. His last top 10 was a tie for third with Keith Fergus at Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf). Levi had three consecutive rounds in the 60s. It was the first time he had done that since the 2010 Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

Following his win at the previous week's SAS Championship, Kirk Triplett tied for second at Hickory. During the two-week span, Triplett was a combined 29-under par and earned $443,000.

After coming into the event 34th on the money list, Joe Durant tied for second to help him vault six places into the top 30 on the money list. Durant was one of nine rookies in the top 30 after this event.

Skip Kendall's tied for sixth and earned a berth in the following week's AT&T Championship in San Antonio as a top-10 finisher not otherwise exempt.

After his fourth-place finish in Hickory earned him $95,200, David Frost became the 11th player in 2014 to surpass the $1-million mark.

Joe Durant led all players with 20 birdies.

Roger Chapman led all players in Greens in Regulation at 94.4 percent, hitting 51 of 54 during the event.

Officials disqualified Anders Forsbrand following his round for signing an incorrect scorecard.

Jeff Sluman played his 102nd consecutive event on Tour. The last event he missed was the Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn in 2010.

Defending champion Michael Allen tied for 26th.

Tournament Record:

193 - Fred Couples (2011)

Current Course Record:

62 - TPC San Antonio - ATT Canyons - Fred Couples (2011)

Trailing Marco Dawson by three strokes with four holes to play, Michael Allen birdied three of his last four holes to overtake a faltering Dawson down the stretch for his second victory of the season. Allen caught Dawson with a two-stroke swing at the 16th hole. Allen holed a 30-foot birdie putt. Moments later, Dawson three-putted for bogey. Allen's birdie on the final hole was the clincher when he holed a five-footer to move one stroke in front. Dawson, needing a birdie to tie, hit his approach shot at No. 18 to the back fringe but stubbed his chip shot for a tying birdie that resulted in a closing bogey.

Michael Allen won his second title in the season, claiming both the first full-field event (Allianz Championship) and last full-field event (AT&T Championship) of the season. He joined Bernhard Langer (five), Colin Montgomerie (two), Kenny Perry (two), Fred Couples (two) and Kirk Triplett (two) as the sixth multiple winner of 2014.

Michael Allen's victory was his seventh career Tour title. He has earned multiple titles in three consecutive seasons.

Michael Allen ranked first in Greens In Regulation for the week with 44/54 (81.5 percent).

Marco Dawson's runner-up finish was his best on Tour. Dawson started the season as a non-exempt player but open-qualified five times during the first half of the year and eventually played his way into the top 30. Dawson's previous-best finish on Tour was a tie for third at the 3M Championship.

Jay Haas' tie-for-sixth finish included a final-round 70, which extended his streak of par-or-better rounds to 36 consecutive, just one round shy of Loren Roberts' all-time record of 37 consecutive set between 2006 and 2007.

Bernhard Langer's tie for sixth, which coupled with Colin Montgomerie finishing outside the top 10 (tied for 47th), allowed Langer to earn the necessary 74

Charles Schwab Cup points to clinch the season-long Charles Schwab Cup for the second time in his career (2010). Langer came into the week needing 833 points to beat Montgomerie at the conclusion of the tournament and clinch the year-long competition. His 74 points gave him an 845-point cushion over Montgomerie with one event remaining. Langer became the second player since Hale Irwin in 2002 to clinch the Schwab Cup before the season-ending event, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

Woody Austin's solo third-place finish gave him five top-five outings in seven Tour starts. Austin tied for third in his Champions Tour debut in mid-July at the 2014 U.S. Senior Open.

Rocco Mediate birdied five of his last six holes to post a 66 in the final round, but he eventually fell short in his quest to earn a spot in the following week's Charles Schwab Cup Championship, finishing 31st on the final money list. After Mediate posted his stellar Sunday round, Esteban Toledo found himself on the outside looking in. But Toledo rallied down the stretch, making birdie on his last three holes to vault back into the top 30. Toledo's final-round 68 bumped Mark Calcavecchia, who began the week on the bubble, at No. 30.

John Cook remains the all-time leading money-winner in AT&T Championship history. He increased his tournament money total to $855,095. Jay Haas is second, with $726,885.

Sixty-nine-year-old Hale Irwin shot a second-round 69 and matched his age. It marked the 17th time in his career that he's match or bettered his age and the ninth time in 2014 he's been able to shoot his age or better.

Jeff Sluman withdrew before the start of the AT&T Championship, ending a streak of consecutive Tour starts at 102. It marked the first time Sluman had missed an event since the 2010 Greater Hickory Kia Classic at Rock Barn.

Current Course Record:
60 - Desert Mountain Club (Cochise) - Jay Haas (2012)

It took four extra holes, but Tom Pernice, Jr., two-putted for birdie to outlast Jay Haas and win the 25th Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Haas put pressure on Pernice on the 72nd hole when he rolled in a 37-foot birdie putt from the front fringe to grab a one-stroke lead. Pernice answered moments later when he made a birdie to tie Haas and send the tournament to a playoff. After each birdied the first extra hole, Pernice and Haas matched pars on the ensuing two holes before Pernice ended Haas' bid for his second win in his last three starts. After Haas made his 15-footer for par, Pernice stepped up and drained the winner, giving him his second playoff win of 2014. Earlier, he defeated Doug Garwood with a birdie on the second hole to win The Principal Charity Classic.

Tom Pernice, Jr. won his fourth Champions Tour title and claimed multiple titles in a season for the first time in his career. Pernice was the seventh multiple winner on Tour, joining Bernhard Langer (five), Colin Montgomerie (two), Kenny Perry (two), Fred Couples (two), Kirk Triplett (two) and Michael Allen (two).

Tom Pernice, Jr., earned 880 points in the Charles Schwab Cup race for his win and jumped from ninth to fifth in the final standings, earning a $100,000 annuity.

Tom Pernice, Jr.'s 5-under 65 gave him sole possession of a first-round lead for the second time in his Champions Tour career. At the 2014 Pacific Links Hawaii Championship, Pernice shot 12-under 60 for the opening-round lead.

The 5-over 75 Jay Haas shot in the third round came one day after he set the record for most par-or-better rounds (38 consecutive). It was Haas' highest score of the year and his first round over par since shooting a 1-over 73 in the third round of the Regions Tradition. In the second round, Haas eclipsed Loren Roberts' all-time record streak of 37 consecutive par-or-better scores, set between 2006 and 2007.

Jay Haas has finished second in this event four times in 10 appearances. He was a runner-up in 2005, 2011-12 and 2014. Two of those runner-up performances came at Desert Mountain.

The second rounds at the Cochise Course have been very good to Jay Haas. When the event played here in 2012, he recorded a 10-under 60, matching the all-time low 18-hole score on Tour at the time. With his 62 in 2014, Haas is a combined 18-under-par in the second rounds he has played at Desert Mountain.

Jay Haas' 21 birdies led all players for the week.

Bernhard Langer's Charles Schwab Cup title was the second of his career (2010), and his 4,152 points were the second highest in points accumulated in a season. Only Tom Watson, with 4,370 in 2003, earned more points. Langer's winning margin of 845 points was the largest by a winner since Watson won by 1,324 points over Jim Thorpe in 2003.

Bernhard Langer broke Hale Irwin's single-season earnings record ($3,028,304 in 2002). With his tie-for-fourth finish and check for $158,000, Langer completed the season with $3,074,189.

Bernhard Langer won his sixth Arnold Palmer Award in the last seven years as the Tour's leading money-winner. The only year he did not win was in 2011. He also won the Byron Nelson Award as the Champions Tour's scoring leader (68.03). It was the third time he had won that award (2008-09).

Kenny Perry and Wes Short, Jr., were the only players to post four rounds in the 60s on the Cochise Course at Desert Mountain. Four professionals did so at Desert Mountain when the event was there in 2012.

Defending champion Fred Couples shot a final-round 70 to tie for seventh. Russ Cochran withdrew on the fourth hole of the final round after sustaining an arm injury. He received $24,000 in unofficial money.

Frank Esposito (East Brunswick, N.J.) continued his winning ways, withstanding a challenge from Grant Waite (Palmerston North, New Zealand) midway through the back nine to eventually cruise to a four-stroke victory over Waite to win the 2014 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at Orange County National (Panther Lake Course). With ideal scoring conditions for the final day of the 72-hole event, Waite, who was tied for 27th after the first round and nine strokes behind after three rounds (tied for 10th), staged a furious rally, making seven birdies over his first 15 holes to creep within a stroke of Esposito's lead. However, a bogey at the last hole gave Waite a 6-under-par 66 and allowed Esposito to breathe easier the rest of the way.

Frank Esposito, who enjoyed a three-stroke advantage after 54 holes, carded a 1-under 71 Friday, giving him eight consecutive sub-par scores in Florida over the last two weeks. The club professional at New Jersey's Brooklake Country Club won last week at the Senior PGA Professional National Championship in Port St. Lucie. "I've just caught fire for two weeks. Once again, I hit the ball very, very well all week and controlled my distance with the irons. Even though the putter was a bit shaky today, I managed my way around the golf course pretty well," Esposito said.

Grant Waite, a winner of the PGA TOUR's 1993 Kemper Open, used three birdies on the front nine to creep into the all-important top-five position on the leaderboard. The New Zealander then made four birdies in his first six holes on the back nine to move into second place and solidify his fully-exempt status for the 2015 Champions Tour season. "Any qualifying school is a grind. I managed to make a few putts early and got some momentum going, which is the key at any qualifying school. You get on the right side of it and just cruise along. Today I did everything very well. It was exciting to play like this in the final round of the Tour's Q-School and I look forward to next year," Waite said.

Jeff Coston (Blaine, Wash.) matched Grant Waite's 66 as the best final-round score. Like Waite, the club professional from Semiahmoo Resort, came through with a clutch round when needed it, making birdies on the last two holes to move up into third place. After Coston posted his score, Jerry Smith (Scottsdale, Ariz.) then secured his exempt status for 2015 with two birdies in his final three holes to tie for third.

The last fully-exempt spot went to Champions Tour veteran Rod Spittle (Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada) who made a five-foot par putt on the last green to finish solo fifth, posting a 72-hole score of 5-under 283. Spittle, the winner of the 2010 AT&T Championship, came to the National Qualifier after finishing 50th on the 2014 money list.

A playoff decided several conditionally-exempt positions. Jim Rutledge (Victoria, Canada) secured the sixth position over John Riegger (Henderson, Nev.) with a birdie on the first playoff hole. Joel Edwards (Irving, Texas) earned the eighth position over Jeff Freeman (Windermere, Fla.) with a birdie on the first playoff hole. Rick Gibson (Manila, Philippines) placed 10th over Cesar Monasterio (Buenos Aires, Argentina) with a par on the first playoff hole. Doug Rohrbaugh (Carbondale, Colo.), the first-round co-leader, was 12th, edging Craig Thomas (White Plains, N.Y.) with a par on the first playoff hole.

Frank Esposito earned $30,000 as the medalist of the 2014 Qualifying Tournament. The remaining players who finished among the top 30 will be eligible to compete for spots in open qualifiers at all co-sponsored 2015 Champions Tour events.

Weather: Saturday: Sunny with a high of 67. Wind NNW at 10-15 mph. Sunday: Sunny, with a high of 72. Afternoon wind NW at 10-15 mph.

Tournament Record:

119 - Larry Nelson (2004), Raymond Floyd (1999), Jack Nicklaus (1999), Bob Charles (1998), Raymond Floyd (1995), Ray Floyd, Jr. (1995)

Bernhard Langer/Jason Langer used a strong Sunday start to win the 2014 PNC Father-Son Challenge. The duo opened the final round with a run of six birdies and an eagle in the scramble format and stayed just far enough ahead of both Davis Love III/Dru Love and Vijay Singh/Qass Singh throughout the back nine. At age 14, Jason Langer became the youngest son ever to win this event, surpassing his brother Stefan who won in 2005 at age 15. Langer was a late replacement for his sister Cristina who injured her back just prior to the event.

Bernhard Langer became the third player to win the PNC Father-Son Challenge with two different siblings, joining Raymond Floyd and Larry Nelson. It was also his third PNC Father-Son Challenge title. He won with Stefan in both 2005 and 2006. Floyd won the first three events with his son, Raymond Jr. in 1995, 1996, and 1997. Floyd then won with son Robert in 2000-01. Nelson won with son Drew in 2004 and 2008 and with son Josh in 2007.

After his team made an eagle at the par-5 third hole in the final round, Shaun

O'Meara holed a 7-iron shot from 174 yards at the par-3 fourth hole. Team O'Meara went on to make two more eagles on the day and finish solo fifth in the event.

Defending champions Stewart Cink/Connor Cink tied for eighth.

Vijay Singh/Qass Singh have never won the event but their tie for third marked the fifth time they've been among the top three in the event. The only times they've been outside the top three were in 2003 (tied for fourth), 2007 (tied for sixth), 2008 (11th) and 2009 (tied for ninth).

The 20-team field included 14 World Golf Hall of Fame members, the largest in the history of the event, with combined total of 362 PGA TOUR titles including 65 cumulative major championships, as well as 169 Champions Tour victories together with 132 European Tour combined titles.

Raymond Floyd, Larry Nelson, Hale Irwin and Lee Trevino have played in all 17 PNC Father-Son Challenges.
