PGA TOUR Overview

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays approximately 125 official-money tournaments on five tours-the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and PGA TOUR Canada. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., southeast of Jacksonville.

We should be referred to as the PGA TOUR or TOUR (on second reference), but not the PGA, as we are a different organization than the PGA of America. The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975.

Three other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the TOUR but with their marquee events included on the TOUR schedule as non-tour co-sponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association. with headquarters in Far Hills, N.J., oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (Ga.) National

The PGA TOUR is the world's foremost golf tour, with 2014-15 official-money events beginning in October 2014 and ending in September 2015. This is the eighth season of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs.

2014-15 Membership:	86 international players, 24 countries
TV:	CBS, NBC, Golf Channel, ESPN, TNT, Fox, FS1
Competition Awards:	FedExCup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money-winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Courage Award, Rookie of the Year
CHAMPIONS	The Champions Tour continues to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and older with a fan-friendly platform that promotes "inside the ropes" and game-improvement for its fans. The Charles Schwab Cup, a season-long, points-based competition, enters its 15th season. 2015 Membership: 24 international players, 17 countries

TV: Golf Channel, NBC, FOX, ESPN.

Competition Awards: Charles Schwab Cup (season-long points), Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), Arnold Palmer Award (leading money winner), Byron Nelson Award (scoring average), Rookie of the Year, Courage Award

The Web.com Tour is the path to the PGA TOUR whereby all 50 TOUR cards now come via the Web.com Tour. Through 2013-14, 391 PGA TOUR titles (through the TOUR Championship) have been won by former Web.com Tour players. Three out of four 2014-15 PGA TOUR members have Web.com Tour roots.

2015 Membership: 80 international players, 19 countries

TV: Golf Channel

Competition Awards: Jack Nicklaus Award (Player of the Year), 50 PGA TOUR cards awarded

CANADA

PGA TOUR Latinoamerica PGA TOUR Latinoamérica is a professional golf tour created in 2012

by the PGA TOUR in collaboration with promoters, clubs and national golf federations in Latin America. The inaugural season in 2012 featured 11 tournaments in seven countries in the Latin American region, since then it has grown to include 18 events across 11 different countries in 2014. The Tour visits Mexico, Colombia, Brazil, Argentina, Peru, the Dominican Republic, Uruguay, Chile, Ecuador, Guatemala, and Panama. PGA TOUR Latinoamérica plans to continue expanding its reach into more countries in the region during the 2015 season.

Competition Awards: The leading money-winner at the end of each season is awarded the Roberto De Vicenzo Award, and the top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

PGA TOUR Canada

PGA TOUR Canada (formerly known as the Canadian Tour) is a professional golf tour played across Canada. Since its inception as the Peter Jackson Tour in 1971, PGA TOUR Canada has evolved into a high-caliber, coast-to-coast training ground for professionals. Its alumni include not only the game's Canadian legends but also many of its most prominent international players, who have collectively won 118 PGA TOUR titles, through 2013-14. Twelve, 72-hole stroke play events with purses of $150,000 took place across the country beginning in June 2014. The top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR Canada Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

PGA TOUR China Series The China Tour - PGA TOUR China Series is a professional golf tour that made its Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, oversees The Open Championship and administers the world's golf rules jointly with the USGA.

debut in 2014, with 12 events all played in China. The Series provides playing opportunities for natives of China, based on their ranking within the China Golf Association. The Series attracts other players mainly from Asia and other Pacific Rim countries, although there were 2014 members from five continents. The top-five money-winners from the PGA TOUR China Series' Order of Merit earn Web.com Tour status for the following season.

Web.com Tour Alumni

Since the Web.com Tour's inception in 1990, it has graduated 356 players to the PGA TOUR (484, including repeat graduates), with hundreds of other PGA TOURbound players having also gained experience by way of the TOUR's proving ground. Once on the PGA TOUR, these same players have produced 391 TOUR victories, including winning 19 majors and five PLAYERS Championships (through the 2013-14 season). More than three out of four PGA TOUR members have Web.com Tour roots.

The following are just a handful of the many Web.com Tour alumni who have achieved success on the PGA TOUR (with year last played on Tour listed):

2015 Path / 50 Cards

Web.com Tour Qualifying Structure for Awarding 50 PGA TOUR CardS

Key Elements:

Beginning in 2013, the Web.com Tour became The Path to the PGA TOUR by awarding all 50 cards for the following PGA TOUR season.

The basic structure will remain the same in 2015, with the top-25 money winners from the Regular Season guaranteed PGATOUR cards for the following PGATOUR season and 25 additional cards available through the four-tournament Web.com Tour Finals.

The field makeup for the Finals also remains the same: the top-75 money leaders from the Web.com Tour at the end of the Regular Season; PGA TOUR members who are Nos. 126-200 on the FedExCup points list following the Wyndham Championship; and non-members who would have earned enough FedExCup points to place them 126-200 on the official FedExCup points list.

How the Qualifying Structure System Works:

1. While the top-25 players from the Web.com Tour Regular Season will earn their PGA TOUR cards, their order of priority won't be determined until the conclusion of the Web.com Tour Finals. They will carry their earnings into the Finals, and priority will be established based on the combination of Regular Season and Finals earnings.

2. Of those players from the Web.com Tour Regular Season top-25 list, the No. 1 player at the conclusion of the Finals based on combined Regular Season and Finals earnings will receive a full exemption to the PGA TOUR. So any top-25 player can earn the coveted No. 1 position if he performs well enough in the four Finals events. In addition to his PGA TOUR exemption, the No. 1 player receives an exemption into THE PLAYERS Championship for the upcoming season.

A separate money list for the Web.com Tour Finals will determine the final 25 PGA TOUR cards. The player who earns the most money during the four Finals events (if different from the combined money winner) will earn full exemption to the PGA TOUR plus an invitation to THE PLAYERS.

3. The ordering of all 50 players after the Web.com Tour Finals will be done on an alternating basis, with the top position going to the No. 1 player from the combined Regular Season and Finals moneylist and the second position going to the leading money winner from the four Web.com Tour Finals. The sequence then alternates between the combined Regular Season and Finals moneylist....e.g., No. 2 on the Regular Season/Finals moneylist becomes No. 3 in the ordering, No. 2 on the Finals moneylist becomes No. 4 in the ordering, and so on through the 25th player on both lists.

Miscellaneous:

1. In 2015, there will be a 21-event Regular Season, from February into August, followed by four events in late-September/early October, played in Fort Wayne, Ind., Charlotte, N.C., Columbus, Ohio, and Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

2. Introduced in 2013 was the "Web.com Tour Qualifying Tournament", which feeds players directly to the Web.com Tour. The Final Stage is conducted in December. There is no longer a PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament.

2014 Qualifiers / Final Priority Ranking for 2014-15 PGA TOUR Season

Below is the list of the 50 players who secured their 2014-15 PGA TOUR cards via the Web.com Tour in September 2014, in order of their priority positions.

Adam Hadwin was the cumulative Regular Season / Finals leading money winner and Derek Fathauer was the four-event Finals' leading money winner. Both are fully exempt on the PGATOUR in 2014-15 and receive invitations to the 2015 PLAYERS Championship.

History of the Web.com Tour (1990-Present)

UMBRELLA SPONSOR HISTORY

1990 - 1992	Ben Hogan Tour
1993 - 1999	Nike Tour
2000 - 2002	Buy.com Tour
2003 - 2012	Nationwide Tour
2012 - present	Web.com Tour (announced 6/27/12)

Even the most optimistic person couldn't have foreseen the success the Web.com Tour would have when it kicked off its inaugural season on Thursday, Feb. 2, 1990 at 7:30 a.m. PST at Bakersfield Country Club in Bakersfield, Calif.

The Web.com Tour began under corporate sponsorship of the Ben Hogan Company as the Ben Hogan Tour. The idea of former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane R. Beman, the Web.com Tour was designed as a proving ground for up-and coming golfers, as well as a place for PGA TOUR veterans to hone their skills as they prepared for the Champions Tour. It has become so much more than that.

For the first two years of the Tour, the top-five money winners were awarded PGA TOUR membership. Beginning in 1992, the PGA TOUR Policy Board voted that, due to the success graduating players were having on the PGA TOUR, the number of cards available would be increased to 10; and in 1997 the number was increased to 15. In 2003, 20 players earned their 2004 TOUR cards, with it growing to 25 in 2007 and reaching all 50 available PGA TOUR cards in 2013.

That first event in 1990 was won by Mike Springer, who went on to win two more times that year and finish fourth on the money list. He was joined in the first graduating class by Jim McGovern, Dick Mast, Ed Humenik and Jeff Maggert, who was leading money winner and Player of the Year.

However, the player who made the biggest impact on the PGA TOUR from the 1990 Tour was John Daly, winner of the only Ben Hogan Tour Qualifying Tournament. Daly won the 1991 PGA Championship as a rookie and went on to finish 17th on the PGA TOUR money list. Since then, he has added four more victories, including another major championship, the 1995 The Open Championship.

Tom Lehman first established himself as a top-flight player on the Tour in 1991. After two nondescript years on the PGA TOUR in the early 1980s, Lehman won a tournament on Tour in 1990. But 1991 was the breakthrough season in his comeback. He won three times and was the circuit's leading money-winner.

Californian John Flannery was the Player of the Year in 1992, winning three times and leading the Tour in earnings with $164,114.

On August 26, 1992 Nike, Inc., took over sponsorship of the Tour, Jimmy Walker was the 2004 Player of the Year and leading money winner, as well as one of five multiple winners during the season. Alums continued to excel, winning a record 22 PGA TOUR titles, while the Class of 2003 made history with five members winning on TOUR, with seven earning at least $1 million and eight finishing in the top 125.

In May, Daniel Chopra set a Tour record when he shot 30-under at the Henrico County Open. Tyler Williamson and Chris Nallen each fired 60s during the year, one shot off the Tour record.

Jason Gore was the lead story in 2005 when he captured the hearts of golf fans everywhere at the U.S. Open. He followed that performance with a record-setting three straight wins on the Web.com Tour and shot 59 in capturing the last one. He completed his season with a September victory on the PGA TOUR and was named Web.com Tour Player of the Year. Any other year, Troy Matteson would have walked off with that honor as he won twice, finished in the top 10 a dozen times and set a new single-season earnings record of $495,009.

The 2006 season featured a slate of 31 tournaments and $17 million. Ken Duke and Johnson Wagner battled throughout the year for top honors, with Duke emerging as the leading money winner and Player of the Year.

Five players won twice—Wagner, Tripp Isenhour, Craig Kanada, Brandt Snedeker and Kevin Stadler—with a record 10 players earning more than $300,000 and 22 collecting $200,000 or more.

The Class of 2005 made its mark on the PGA TOUR in 2006 with 12 of the 21 graduates finishing among the top 125 on the money list. Chris Couch, Eric Axley and Troy Matteson each won on TOUR. They were among eight 2005 graduates whose earnings exceeded $1 million.

On-course success was exceeded only by the good news that Nationwide and the PGA TOUR had reached a new five-year extension of Nationwide's umbrella sponsorship of the Tour through 2012.

In 2007, the Tour played for a record $18 million in prize money and a record 25 PGA TOUR cards were awarded at season's end. Australia's Nick Flanagan earned a three-win promotion to the PGA TOUR in August and later earned Player of the Year honors. Richard Johnson won the season-ending Tour Championship at Barona Creek to capture the money title. Another Aussie, Jason Day, 19, became the youngest winner in Web.com Tour history when he won in Cleveland in July. Five of the top-seven money winners were international members, and eight players surpassed $300,000 in earnings. Brandt Snedeker, a 2006 graduate, was voted PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year. Zach Johnson, the 2003 Player of beginning with the 1993 season. Sean Murphy was the star that year, setting records for wins in a season with four, career victories with five, and single-season earnings with $166,293. He added a sixth title in 1995.

While Murphy was busy setting records, his fellow Tour alumni were busy making names for themselves on the PGA TOUR. Daly collected his second career win in the 1992 B.C. Open, and others were beginning to earn their own hardware. McGovern, Mike Standly and Maggert all collected PGA TOUR titles in 1993, while Springer and Greg Kraft grabbed unofficial wins. The Tour Championship also was established in 1993 as a climax to the season. Rookie David Duval won the first Tour Championship, which featured only the year's top-50 money winners.

In 1994, Chris Perry showed that consistency has its own rewards. Although six players collected multiple victories that year, Perry's lone title in the Utah Classic, 10 top-10 finishes and no missed cuts earned him Player of the Year honors. He set a single-season earnings record with $167,148.

There were a number of firsts in 1994. In June, Tommy Armour III became the first player to win back-to-back tournaments—the Miami Valley Open and Cleveland Open. During the second round of the 1994 Shreveport Open, Omar Uresti set a record with nine consecutive birdies, setting a standard not only for the Web.com Tour but the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and European Tour.

In May, Vic Wilk became the first left-hander to win an event, the Knoxville Open. Jerry Kelly continued the trend of the leading moneywinner setting an earnings record in 1995 when he collected $188,878 to better Perry's year-old mark. Besides winning twice, Kelly posted 15 top-10 finishes.

Stewart Cink was the top story in 1996. The 1995 College Player of the Year became the first player in Web.com Tour history to earn more than $200,000 in a single season with $251,699. He won three times, including the season-ending Tour Championship, and collected 14 top-10 finishes in only 21 events.

The 1997 season marked the first year of the three-win promotion, which grants immediate PGA TOUR access to any player who wins three Web.com Tour events in a season. Chris Smith was the first to do so winning that year's Upstate Classic as well as the Dakota Dunes Open and Omaha Classic in back-to-back weeks.

In October, Steve Flesch joined Wilk as the only left-handed champions. Flesch won the season-ending Tour Championship. That victory vaulted him from 24th on the money list to fourth, earning him 1998 PGA TOUR membership.

The 1998 season saw more of the kind of action for which the Web.com Tour has become known. During a three-week period late in the spring, Notah Begay III and Doug Dunakey caught the attention of the golf world when each posted 59. Begay's 13-under-par 59 came in the second round of the Dominion Open. Dunakey could have had the record all to himself were it not for a three-putt bogey on his final hole.

Bob Burns was named 1998 Player of the Year after leading in earnings with $178,664 and winning the Dominion Open and Tour Championship.

The 1999 season saw Carl Paulson establish a new record for consecutive starts with 83. The 83rd was particularly significant as Paulson recorded his first-ever Web.com Tour victory at the Utah Classic. That win, and another two weeks later in Boise, Idaho, vaulted Paulson to the top of the money list. His peers would later vote him Player of the Year. Seven players won twice on the Tour in 1999, and a record 22 earned more than $100,000.

The season-ending Tour Championship featured a thrilling finale at the Robert Trent Jones Trail Highland Oaks Golf Club in Dothan, AL. Bob Heintz won his second event of the season defeating Marco Dawson in a playoff to take home the largest check in Tour history—$72,000.

In late October, internet superstore Buy.com was announced as the new umbrella sponsor of the Tour. With Buy.com's financial commitment, purses rose to a record $13.1 million in 2000, with the minimum purse jumping from $225,000 to $400,000. On the course, the 2000 season saw Spike McRoy earn Player of the Year honors after winning twice and earning a record $300,638. He was one of 53 players to earn $100,000 or more.

the Year, won the Masters.

The 2008 season featured record prize money of nearly $19 million. Brendon de Jonge of Zimbabwe earned Player of the Year honors. Matt Bettencourt finished the year with a flurry to capture the money title. Bettencourt and three other players, Jarrod Lyle, Scott Piercy and Colt Knost, won two events. The Tour added an event in Mexico and one in Canada featuring hockey legend Wayne Gretzky, and played its first two $1-million events, the Tour Players Cup in West Virginia and the Tour Championship.

The Web.com Tour celebrated its 20th year in 2009. Four cities, which have hosted tournaments every year since 1990 (Boise, Knoxville, Springfield and Wichita), were highlighted. Despite facing the most challenging economic time in decades, the Web.com Tour maintained a strong foundation, playing 29 tournaments—in the U.S. and in five countries abroad. Australian Michael Sim was the year's headliner as he rewrote the Tour's record book, earning a battlefield promotion to the PGA TOUR by August and pocketing $644,142. Alumni on the PGA TOUR racked up a record 23 titles, including majors by Lucas Glover (U.S. Open) and Cink (The Open Championship), upping the TOUR alumni win total to 260 at season's end since the Tou's inception.

An array of young talent led the charge in 2010, highlighted by 22-year-old Jamie Lovemark, who became the youngest player in Tour history to capture the money title. Thirteen of "The 25" graduates were age 27 or younger when they received their cards in October. The Tour visited a record six countries outside the U.S. over 29 events, making new stops in Bogota, Colombia, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and the PGA TOUR's home base of Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. The year also featured tournament celebrity hosts in Camilo Villegas, Jeny Rice, Wayne Gretzky, Anthony Munoz, Arnold Palmer, Chip Beck, Gary Williams and Jim Furyk. On the PGA TOUR, alumni added a then-record 28 TOUR titles in 2010, raising the total win count to 288. Furyk became the first Web.com Tour alumnus to win the FedExCup and second to be voted PGA TOUR Player of the Year by his peers.

In 2011, four players—J.J. Killeen, Ted Potter, Jr., Mathew Goggin and Jason Kokrak—won two times and finished 1-4, respectively, on the money list, with Killeen capturing Player of the Year honors. Two of the most memorable wins came when Steve Wheatcroft set a 72-hole scoring record (255/29-under) and won by a record 12 shots at the Melwood Prince George's County Open and two-time heart transplant recipient Erik Compton won his first Tour event, at the Mexico Open. The Midwest Classic near Kansas City joined the schedule of 26 events. On the PGA TOUR, a record 32 of 45 official events were won by Tour alumni, raising the total to 320 wins since 1990. The 32 wins included seven by six players who competed on the Web.com Tour in 2010, highlighted by two Keegan Bradley wins, which included the PGA Championship. Bill Haas became the second alumni in a row (Jim Furyk) to capture the FedExCup.

The 2012 season was a significant one both on and off the golf course. Casey Wittenberg won twice, captured the money title and was named Player of the Year. Four promising young players joined him in winning twice-Ben Kohles and Luke Guthrie, both 22, Shawn Stefani, 31, and Russell Henley, 23. Kohles and Guthrie were college students before turning pro in June and had no Web.com Tour status. On the PGA TOUR, three alumni won majors, Bubba Watson (Masters), Webb Simpson (U.S. Open) and Ernie Els (The Open Championship), while fellow alum, Matt Kuchar, captured THE PLAYERS. For the third year in a row, a former Web.com Tour player, Brandt Snedeker, claimed the FedExCup. In late June, Web.com came on board as the Tour's new umbrella sponsor (through 2021), and a few weeks later the PGA TOUR announced that all 50 PGA TOUR cards would be awarded through the Web.com Tour, beginning in 2013, establishing the Web.com Tour as The Path to the PGA TOUR. The Tour added successful new events in Chile and Evansville, Ind., to the schedule. Bill Clinton became the first sitting or former President of the United States to attend a Web.com Tour event when he traveled to Bogota, Colombia, in February. The final class of 25 graduates was determined in dramatic fashion at the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship when a James Hahn up and down on the 72nd hole triggered a series of movements around the 25th spot, with Jim Herman the ultimate beneficiary. He grabbed the final spot by just $940. Justin Bolli won the tournament itself and also advanced to the PGA TOUR.

2013 was perhaps the most significant year in the history of this tour. The Web.com Tour became The Path to the PGA TOUR with all 50 available PGA TOUR cards awarded through it. The new TOUR qualifying structure also brought about a revamped schedule that featured 21 Regular Season was to fully the theorem.

Tim Clark made history of his own in 2000 when he collected the first $100,000 payday on Tour by winning the Boise Open. The 2000 season was also notable for the emergence of international players who captured nine titles and claimed four of the top-15 spots on the money list.

The 2001 season was memorable when, for the second time, three players earned three-win promotions in one season. Heath Slocum was the first to do so, followed by Chad Campbell and Pat Bates, who won back-to-back tournaments to end the year. Todd Barranger tied the scoring mark by winning the Dayton Open with a 26-under-par effort, while Campbell set a single-season earnings record with $394,552 to capture Player of the Year. He also finished second at the PGA TOUR 's season-ending Southern Farm Bureau Classic.

In 2002, the Tour added tournaments in Australia and New Zealand for the first time. In addition, tournaments were allowed to sell individual title sponsorships for the first time. Patrick Moore won three times and was named Player of the Year. A record 12 players earned $200,000 or more, and alums continued to excel winning a single season record 21 times on the PGA TOUR.

The season ended on a high note with the announcement of a new umbrella sponsor in Nationwide Insurance. The five-year agreement would start with the 2003 season and coincided with an increase in PGA TOUR cards awarded to 20.

Carter became only the sixth player to earn a three-win promotion to the PGA TOUR, yet did not win Player of the Year. That honor went to Zach Johnson, who set a Tour record for earnings with $494,882. He had two wins and nine top-three finishes in 20 starts while setting a new Tour scoring record of 68.97.

events, tollowed by the season culminating tour-event vveb.com lour Finals, which featured both Web.com Tour and PGA TOUR members. Season highlights included Michael Putnam capturing the Regular Season money title and being named Player of the Year and first-year member Chesson Hadley securing the Web.com Tour Championship, while earning the second most money in one year in Tour history, $535,432. With four top-five finishes, John Peterson would win the Finals money title. Putnam, Hadley, Ben Martin and Andy Svoboda finished the year with two victories a piece. Two players shot 59 in July - Will Wilcox at the Utah Championship and Russell Knox at the Albertsons Boise Open. Peter Malnati was a Monday gualifier in June who went on to win the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville and secure his PGA TOUR card. On the PGA TOUR, 2012 graduate Russell Henley won in his first start as a member, at the Sony Open in Hawaii. Beginning in 2013, the five leading money winners from PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and PGA TOUR Canada earned Web.com Tour playing privileges for the following season. In November, PGA TOUR China was announced, putting a similar arrangement in place beginning in 2014.

2014: The Web.com Tour celebrated its 25th season and highlighted events in Boise, Knoxville, Springfield, Mo. and Wichita that have been on the schedule all 25 years. For the second year, all 50 available PGA TOUR cards came through the Web.com Tour. Competitive highlights included Carlos Ortiz of Mexico becoming the first three-time winner since 2009. Adam Hadwin joined Ortiz as the season's only other multiple winner and captured the combined Regular Season and Finals' money list, with $529,792. Steven Alker outlasted Dawie van der Walt in an 11-hole playoff to match the longest overtime in TOUR history. Sebastian Cappelen of Denmark became the first Monday qualifier to win a tournament, the Air Capital Classic, since 2011. The 50th and final PGA TOUR card was settled by less than $32 on the final day of the season. Fellow players voted Ortiz as Player of the Year.

History

1990-2015. The Tour enters its 26th season in 2015.

Overview

Founded (1990), owned and operated by the PGA TOUR, the Web.Com Tour continues to identify those players who are ready to compete and win on golfs biggest stage. Beginning in 2013, the Web.com Tour became The Path to the PGA TOUR with all 50 available PGA TOUR cards coming through the Web.com Tour and the season culminating with the four-event Web.com Tour Finals. Web.com became the Tour's umbrella sponsor on June 27, 2012. A 10-year agreement (through 2021) is in place. 2014 was the Tour's 25th year of competition. Three out of four PGA TOUR members are Web.com Tour alumni. Tour alumni have won 397 PGA TOUR titles, including 19 majors and five PLAYERS Championships. The PGA TOUR, through the efforts of its tours and their tournaments, sponsors, players and volunteers, surpassed $2 billion in charitable giving in January 2014. To learn more about the PGA TOUR and Web.com Tour and to follow the season-long quest for a PGA TOUR card, visit PGATOUR.COM, Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

Charity

The Web.com Tour and its tournaments are committed to supporting charities in the communities in which events are played. In Jan. 2014, the tours of the PGA TOUR and their tournaments exceeded $2him billion in charitable giving dating back to the first recorded donation in 1938. In 2014, five tournaments raised a minimum of $700,000 for charity, with the Albertsons Boise Open presented by Kraft Nabisco raising the most, $1.45 million. Annually, the Tour honors its Volunteer of the Year, with Dave Gambrall of the United Leasing Championship in Evansville, Ind. being named in 2014.

2015 Schedule

The 2015 Web.com Tour schedule will feature 25 events,

2014 Graduates

The Web.com Tour graduated 50 players to the PGA TOUR at the end of the 2014 season. Players earned 25 cards via the 21-event Regular Season, with a second set of 25 cards awarded at the conclusion of the four-event Web.com Tour Finals in late September. Adam Hadwin was the cumulative Regular Season/Finals' leading money winner. Derek Fathauer was the Finals' leading money winner. Both are fully exempt on the PGA TOUR in 2014-15 and earned invitations to THE PLAYERS Championship. Carlos Ortiz won three times and players voted him Player of the Year.

PGA TOUR Impact

Every year, the impact of the Web.com Tour on the PGA TOUR grows. Since 1991, 397 PGA TOUR tournaments have been won by players with Web.com Tour roots, including all four major championships and five PLAYERS Championships. Only one tournament on the PGA TOUR's 2014-15 schedule (the new Barbasol Championship) has not been won by a former Web.com Tour player. Three out of four current PGA TOUR members, and 12 who competed in the 2013 Presidents Cup and seven members of the 2014 U.S. Ryder Cup team, are Web.com Tour alumni. In recognition of the Tour's growing stature and competitive impact, the PGA TOUR Policy Board announced in March 2012 that all 50 available PGA TOUR cards for the following season would come through the Web.com Tour Finals. Also new in 2013 was the awarding of Web.com Tour membership for the following season to the five leading money winners from both PGA TOUR Latinoamérica and PGA TOUR Canada. In November, 2013, PGA TOUR China was announced with a similar arrangement put in place, beginning in 2014.

The progression of cards issued since 1990 is:

Prize Money

In 2015, prize money will be $17,850,000 over 25 events. The average purse was a record $714,000. The Web.com Tour played for $1 million at all four Web.com Tour Finals events.

Eligibility

Each Web.com Tour player has a position on the priority ranking system that is used to form fields for open tournaments. The complete priority ranking system may be found in the digital version of the Official Web.com Tour Guide (see "Players" section, then "Eligibility Categories"). The majority of Web.com Tour events have 144- or 156-player fields. Initiated in 2013, the Web.com Tour annually conducts the Web.com Tour Qualifying Tournament. Approximately 150 players who reach or are exempt into the Final Stage in December compete for an eligibility ranking for the next season. This is in addition to those players who have already earned membership based on play on the Web.com Tour and PGA TOUR during the season.

Membership

In 2015, the Web.com Tour's 293 members hail from around the globe. There are 80 international players with full or partial Tour exemptions, representing 19 countries outside the United States: 2007-12 2013-

John Herbkersman 904-251-6297 "This sponsorship is a perfect fit for us. Web.com is committed to helping small businesses compete and succeed online, just as the Web.com Tour helps talented, dedicated athletes maximize their potential and fulfill their dreams," said David L. Brown, Chairman, CEO and President of Web.com. "The Web.com brand gains exceptional visibility as a result of our sponsorship of the Web.com Tour. In addition, we believe that the professionalism and competition of PGA TOUR golf resonates strongly with small business owners, making the national and international exposure we achieve with this sponsorship an unparalleled opportunity to reach more of our target market."

Just as the TOUR's mission is to make a positive impact in communities where tournaments are held, Web.com is committed to giving back to the communities, as well. With this in mind, Web.com will sponsor over 60 dozen Small Business Summits in the United States, Canada and South America in 2015, at many the PGA TOUR, Champion Tour and Web.com events. The Small Business Summit events educate small businesses on the essential steps needed to build a strong online presence, generate more customer engagement opportunities and, ultimately, grow their businesses.

The Web.com umbrella sponsorship began in June 2012 and lasts for 10 years. In addition to the umbrella sponsorship, Web.com is also an Official Marketing Partner of the PGA TOUR, Web.com Tour and Champions Tour and will offer its internet services and online solutions for players across all three Tours and events looking to grow their individual brands.

T7–2013 WNB Golf Classic

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished T94 at Q-School Finals in December. Began the final tournament of the PGA TOUR China vear-the Tour Championship presented by CTS Tycoon—outside the top five on the Order of Merit. Earned his 2015 Web.com Tour membership by finishing T3 at the season-ending event in Shenzhen. Played in 11 of the 12 tournaments and had six top-10s while never missing a cut. Opened his season with a third-place showing at the Victorian Open on the PGA Tour of Australasia, a year after he played his first full season on that circuit... Finished solo third at the second PGA TOUR China Series' gualifying tournament in Haikou. After opening with a 73 at Mission Hills GC's Sandbelt Trails Course, fired rounds of 71-71-69 to finish five shots behind medalist Alex Hawley to earn his playing privileges for the season...Shot three consecutive 71s to open the Mission Hills Haikou Open then closed with a 6-under 66 to jump from a tie for 17th when the day began into a T6 with Sam Chien. Was one of four players in the field to fire four under-par rounds... Dropped from contention on the weekend at the United Investment Real Estate Wuhan Open after opening 69-69 at Yishan GC. Shot consecutive rounds of 74 on the weekend but still was able to secure his second top-10 of the campaign... Continued his streak of top-10s, at June's Lanhai Open. Shot rounds of 69-67 over his final 36 holes at Lan Hai International GC's Links Course, the best final 36 holes by anybody in the field... Easily earned an invitation to the Web.com Tour's Utah Championship, finishing T2 at the open qualifier at Glen Eagle GC in Syracuse, Utah, in mid-July. Three days later, appeared poised to make the cut at the Utah Championship, opening with a 4-under 67. Dropped down the leaderboard with a 72 in the second round to miss the cut... The night before the start of the Yulongwan Yunnan Open, broke his toe in his hotel room when he smashed his foot against the bed. Played through the pain and opened 70-68-65 at Yulongwan GC to sit alone in fourth place with 18 holes to play. Struggled on the final day, shooting a 2-over 74 to drop into a T15...Became the second player this season to win in wire-to-wire fashion when he opened with a 66 at the Chateau Junding Penglai Open to take the firstround lead. He never relinguished his advantage, firing rounds of 67-70-68 over his final 54 holes to win his first PGA TOUR China Series' title and his first victory as a professional. Enjoyed a five-shot, 54hole lead but saw his advantage drop to one stroke as Wei Tze Yeh made an early move. But birdies on three of his final four holes at Chateau Junding GC restored his lead as he secured the five-stroke victory over Yeh and Ray Beaufils. The win moved him to No. 2 on the Order of Merit... In his next start, was T11 at the Cadillac Championship in Beijing. Had two eagles in three holes in the final round on his way to a 5-under 67...Jumped into contention at the OneAsia Tour's Nanshan China Masters in mid-October when he fired middle rounds of 69-65 (8under). Was only two shots off Hao Tong Li's 54-hole lead. During extremely windy conditions on the final day, shot a 3-over 74 to finish solo third, six shots behind Li's winning score... Finished T11 at the Nine Dragons Open, just missing on his fourth top-10 of the season...Shot a final-round 70 at the Hainan

Open in Sanya, good for a 19 and his fifth top-10 of the season. Tied with Dong Su, amateur Cheng Jin and Quincy Quek... Thought he had missed earning his card when he three-putted No. 16 in the final round of the Tour Championship presented by CTS Tycoon. But his T3 finish—with Mu Hu and Lucas Lee—allowed him to move a little more than 6,000 ahead of Order of Merit No. 5 David McKenzie, who did not play the last tournament of the season. Shot three rounds of 70 at CTS Tycoon GC to go with a second-round 74 to earn the T3...

(1): 2013 California State Open.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished his inaugural PGA TOUR China Series season No. 7 on the final order of merit. Although he didn't win, he had a pair of runner-up performances and five top-10s overall. Missed the cut at both of his PGA Tour of Australasia starts-at the Heritage Classic and the Queensland PGA Championship... At the second gualifying tournament for the PGA TOUR China Series, shot three consecutive 70s at Mission Hills GC in Haikou then turned in a final-round, 1-over 73 to finish second, four shots behind medalist Alex Hawley. The performance earned him a full exemption for the Series' inaugural season...Middle rounds of 66 at the Mission Hills Haikou Open, followed by a Sunday, 2-under 70 on the Sandbelt Trails Course led to a T3 with Steve Dartnall, 11 shots behind J.H. Wang in the PGA TOUR China Series' season-opener... Shot a third-round 66, the low round of the day (tied with Shi Chang Chan), to move into shouting distance of leader Sam Chien at the Buick Open. Had a challenging final round, shooting a Sunday 75, to T11 at Dragon Lake GC's Asian Games Course...Took a leave of absence from competition to rehab an injured neck. Suffered from disc protrusions in his lower neck that resulted in a nerve-root impingement. Returned to action in late-August at the PGA Tour of Australasia's Isuzu Queensland Open, where he missed the cut...Came back at the Chateau Junding Penglai Open and started slowly, with a 73-75 (4-over) first 36 holes. Shot a 6-under 66 in Saturday's third round then came back a day later with a 10-under 62, moving him from a tie for 12th into the runner-up position with Wei Tze Yeh, five shots behind winner Todd Baek. The 62 was the second-lowest score in PGA TOUR China Series' history... Posted his third top-10 of the season when he T6 at the Nine Dragons Open in November. Moved up the leaderboard on the weekend in Jiaxing, with a 6-under performance (70-68)... Picked up another top-10 the following week in Sanya. Played in the final grouping in the final round of the Hainan Open and eventually finished T5, with Mu Hu, Ryan McCarthy and Sean Yu... Played in the final grouping Sunday for a second consecutive week at the Tour Championship presented by CTS Tycoon but couldn't put any pressure on leader and eventual winner Hao Tong Li. Opened with a 1-over 73 then was 7-under the rest of the way (69-69-71) to finish second, five shots behind Li.

the Regular Season on a positive note with a T9 at the WinCo Foods Portland Open in August...After a modest start in the Web.com Tour Finals, got himself into serious contention for a PGA TOUR card at the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship. Posted rounds of 66-69-68 at TPC Sawgrass Dye's Valley and was in 7th position entering the final round of 2014. A bogey on No. 17 and a birdie miss from four feet on No. 18 after he stuffed his 9-iron approach proved the difference between securing his card and not. He would miss out by a mere $696 and finish 52nd in the 50-card chase.

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (2):

2008 Bank of America Open. 2014 Chitimacha Louisiana Open Presented by NACHER

BEST 2014 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

P1-Chitimacha Louisiana Open Presented by NACHER.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made one cut in eight PGA TOUR starts and will have nine events in the 2014-15 campaign to earn 358 FedExCup points or $578,156 to clear the top finishers from Web.com Tour Medical category as he continues to come back from left-shoulder surgery. Won on the Web.com Tour in his first start of the season on that Tour. Made three of seven cuts on the Web.com Tour, finishing No. 33 on the Regular Season money list to just miss automatically qualifving for the PGA TOUR. Made the cut in the first two Web.com Tour Finals' events (T63, T57) and missed it in the last two to miss out qualifying for the PGA TOUR...Earned his second career title in March when he birdied the third playoff hole to defeat Brett Stegmaier and win the Chitimacha Louisiana Open. Made a 10-foot birdie putt after Stegmaier's 60-foot birdie attempt missed. Was seven shots off the pace to begin the final round and fired a 9-under 62 to post a 14-under 270 total. He then had to wait more than three hours to see if anyone would match his score or beat it. His 62 was five strokes better than anyone else that day. Stegmaier made the turn at 15-under but bogeyed No. 10 and parred the final eight holes to finish with a 3-under 68. Third-round leader Kyle Reifers was at 14 under after birdies at Nos. 15 and 17 but missed out on the playoff when his tee shot on the final hole went in the water, and he made bogey. In the playoff, both players missed birdie chances on No. 18 the first two times they played it. Victory was worth $99,000 and moved him to No. 6 on the money list after five events. His seven-shot comeback equalled the best comefrom-behind of the year (Greg Owen/United Leasing Championship). His 62 was the low-finishing score by a winner. Spent the first part of the week in San Antonio, where he was the second alternate for the PGA TOUR's Valero Texas Open. Drove to Lafavette on Wednesday and did not play a practice round. Also changed putters three times during the week, and the one he used Sunday was the first time he had tried it...Had one other top-25 on the Web.com Tour, a T22 at the Rex Hospital Open in May.

PERSONAL:

Savs his biggest thrill in golf hasn't happened yet. Lists his dad, who gave him his start in golf, as his hero. His wife, Tami, is a golf professional at Sea Pines CC in Hilton Head, S.C., and has beaten him nine times in nine years. She was also the top player on the Ohio State women's golf team from 1990-93 and played in the 1995 U.S. Women's Open. Nongolf related jobs held include bartending. With a father in the Air Force, he lived in Georgia, Texas, Nebraska, Montana and Virginia. As an adult, he's called Alabama, Florida, South Carolina, Georgia and Maryland home. Is named for actor/singer Kris Kristofferson. "My mom thought he was cute, and the movie, 'The Rose' was coming out at the time she was pregnant. That's where my name came from."

BEST 2014 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

1-Air Capital Classic presented by Aetna.

NATIONAL TEAMS:

Palmer Cup (3), 2011, 2012, 2013.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in 12 Web.com Tour events, making seven cuts. Had two top-10s (including a victory) and four top-25s. Finished the Regular Season 26th on the money list...Burst onto the Web.com Tour scene, winning in his professional debut as a Monday qualifier at the Air Capital Classic in June. In so doing, became the first Monday-qualifier to win since Ted Potter, Jr., in May 2011. Was also the 21st in Tour history to accomplish the feat. Became the first Dane to win on Tour. Opened with a 4-under 66. Fired 65 in both the second and third rounds to take a two-stroke lead into Sunday. After making a bogey on No. 15, recovered with birdies on the 16th and 17th holes. A two-putt par off the 18th green gave him a one-stroke victory over Matt Weibring. Would debut at No. 15 on the money list...Opened with a 65 in the Midwest Classic, leading to a T11 finish, to close July...Second top-10 came in August, at the Price Cutter Charity Championship, where his second-round 63 equaled the week's low score. Closed with a 69 to finish two behind winner Cameron Percy...Went into the final Regular Season event of the season, the WinCo Foods Portland Open, on the bubble at No. 25 on the money list, $5,630 clear of No. 26 Greg Owen. Had missed the cut the previous week at the News Sentinel Open. Opened comfortably with a 3-under 68 only to lose his game Friday, posting a score 10 shots higher to miss the cut. His spot at No. 25 see-sawed throughout the weekend. A Kyle Reifers birdie on the 71st hole and a fortuitous second-shot bounce from the trees back into the fairway by Reifers at Pumpkin Ridge's closing par-5 hole sealed his fate, as he finished 26th, $1,463 shy of earning his TOUR card for the first time...In the Web.com Tour Finals, recorded a missed cut, T70, T14 and T46. Finished 70th in the priority ranking, 20 spots behind the 50th and final card issued.

Enjoyed one victory, a runner-up performance and two other top-10s. In January on the All American Gateway Tour in Arizona, was T23 at the Winter Tournament 2 at Papago GC...Qualified for the PGA TOUR China Series as a conditional member with rounds of 73-79-71-74, good for a T28 at the first Qualifying Tournament in Shenzhen at the CTS Tycoon GC's D&Y Course in March... Won in early April on the All American Gateway Tour's final event of the Spring Series at Ocotillo GC in Arizona, closing with a final-round 67 that was enough to get him into a playoff with Ryan Dillon and Andrew Yun. On the first extra hole, he made an up-and-down par that the other two players couldn't match. The victory came after he began the final round four shots behind leader Zahkai Brown... In the PGA TOUR Series inaugural event, opened with a 5-under 67 at the Mission Hills Haikou Open to take a share of the first-round lead with J.H. Wang and Tian Yuan. Was 4-under the rest of the way to T6 with Todd Baek...Took a share of the first-round lead at the Buick Open, held the lead outright after a second-round 66 and never relinguished his advantage the rest of the way, playing bogey-free golf on Sunday to defeat amateur Ze Cheng Dou by three shots. Only made four bogeys all week at Dragon Lake GC's Asian Games Course. His four-under par Buick Open rounds gave him eight consecutive under-par rounds to begin his PGA TOUR China Series' career, and the victory, worth ¥216,000, moved him to the top of the order of merit after two weeks...At the United Investment Real Estate Wuhan Open in his next start, saw his streak of consecutive underpar rounds end at 10 when he shot a third-round, 1-over 73 at Yishan GC. Came back in the final round with an even-par 72 to finish solo ninth for his third consecutive top-10. Only Xin Jun Zhang has also made three top-10s to begin the PGA TOUR China Series' season... In mid-August, at the Asian Development Tour's Golfpreneur Tournament in Indonesia, opened 72-71 then followed with consecutive 69s at Damai Indah GC's BSD Course to T18 with England's Peter Richardson... Turned in a solid performance at the Nine Dragons Open in Jiaxing in November. Made a late charge trying to catch Lucas Lee and amateur Cheng Jin. Eventually finished runner-up to Jin but cashed first-place money 216,000 as the best-finishing professional in the field. Moved to No. 3 on the order of merit with two tournaments to play...Played 2-under on the weekend at the Hainan Open a week later to T13 with three others at Luhuitou GC...Finished T54 at Web.com Tour Q-School, shooting a final-round 65 to move up the leaderboard.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished T103 at Web.com Tour Q-School in December...Had a consistent PGA TOUR China season, a year that included one victory and five additional top-10s. Ended the season third on the order of merit to earn 2015 Web.com Tour membership. Had an up-and-down week at the PGA TOUR China Series' second qualifying tournament. Enjoyed a tournament-best, 8-under 64 in the first round at the Sandbelt Trails Course at Mission Hills GC. Stumbled to a 5-over 77 on the second day then played even-par golf over the final 36 holes (71-73) to T4 with J.H. Wang, six shots behind medalist Alex Hawley... Opened 68-70 then was 4-over on the weekend to finish 3-under overall at the Buick Open to T13 with Ray Beaufils and Chris Campbell... Appeared destined to a runner-up finish at the United Investment Real Estate Wuhan Open, trailing playing partner Xin Jun Zhang by a stroke playing the final hole Sunday. He made it into a playoff when Zhang bogeved the 72nd hole, joining Hao Tong Li in the three-man extra session. After the trio parred the first playoff hole, he rolled in a birdie putt that Zhang and Li couldn't match, giving him his first professional title. Shot rounds of 73-70-67-70, his final round bogey-free, as he became the first Australian to win on the PGA TOUR China Series... After winning his first event, backed up that performance with a T10 at the Lanhai Open outside Shanghai, firing a final-round, 3-under 69 to tie with Shih Chang Chan, Mathew Perry, Fei Hao Yang and Wei Huang Wu...Was T15 in his next start, at the Earls Beijing Open. Added his fifth consecutive top-15 finish when he T13 at the Yulongwan Yunnan Open in August. Opened with an evenpar 72 at Yulongwan GC then fired rounds of 67-69-68 (12-under) over his final 54 holes... Earned his fifth consecutive top-15 showing with a T13 at the Yulongwan Yunnan Open in early August. Had four par-or-better rounds, including a 67-69-68 performance over his final 54 holes... Had a nice showing on the PGA Tour of Australasia in mid-August. Opened 73-74 at the Isuzu Queensland Open then recovered with rounds of 68-71 (5-under) at Brookwater G&CC in Brisbane to T8 with amateur Kade McBride, five shots behind winner Andrew Dodt...Had another solid chance at victory at the Cadillac Championship in mid-September after a tournament-low, third-round 64. Began the final round in Beijing tied with Bryden MacPherson, two shots behind fellow Australian David McKenzie. Started his Sunday round with eight consecutive pars at Qinghe Bay GC before making birdie on the ninth hole. Appeared ready to make a run when he added another birdie at No. 11. But bogeys on Nos. 14 and 16 and a double bogey at the 17th hole ended any hopes of earning his second title of the campaign. Finished T5...Ended a distant 11 shots behind winner Li but still enjoyed a top-five finish with his T4 effort at the Jianye Tianzhu Henan Open. Jumped into contention with a second-round.

7-under 65 at St. Andrews Zhengzhou GC before a 4-over weekend ended any hopes of winning for a second time... Posted his third consecutive top-10-and his fifth overall-when he T8 at the Nine Dragons Open in November. Final-round 70 left him tied with MacPherson. Held a share of the 36-hole lead at the Hainan Open with Li in late-November. A weekend battle never ensued as he shot a 3-over 75 Saturday to trail Li by six shots with 18 holes to play. Came back with a 2-under 70 on the final day to T2 with South Korea's Dohyun Kim, six strokes behind Li's winning pace.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Year ended on a high note when he captured medalist honors at the Web.com Tour Qualifying Tournament in December in runaway fashion. Rounds of 72-64-65-65-70-66 left him at 27-under, seven shots ahead of runner-up Andrew Landry. Earned fully-exempt status on Tour...On the PGA TOUR, highlighted by a pair of top-10 outings in his last three starts before the FedExCup Playoffs, pushed hard to finish inside the top 125 and advance to The Barclays but came up short. Finished 151st in the FedExCup standings...Posted a T10 at the Farmers Insurance Open. Only previous top-10 on TOUR was T9 at the 2013 Farmers Insurance Open...Finished T9 at the RBC Canadian Open at Royal Montreal GC. Carded a final-round, 6-under 64, falling just one shy of his career-low round on the PGA TOUR. His previous-best finish in seven starts at the RBC Canadian Open was T71 in 2011...Was one shot off the lead entering the final round of the Wyndham Championship before a final-round 70 dropped him to T8...Played in and made the cut in two Regular Season Web.com Tour events, including a T4 at the Rex Hospital Open in his adopted North Carolina in May ... Attempted to regain his exempt status for the 2014-15 PGA TOUR season via the Web.com Tour Finals but came up short. Made two cuts (T46 and T58) in four events.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished fourth on the final Asian Tour order of merit. Made three PGA TOUR starts and added four more on the Web.com Tour. In the fall of 2013, played two PGA TOUR events, finishing T40 at the CIMB Classic in Malaysia and T21 after qualifying for the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions in Shanghai, China. Also competed in the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship in March based on his 2013 performance on the Asian Tour. Finished T16...Shot rounds of 71-66-72-72 at the GS Caltex Maekyung Open in South Korea in mid-May to T7 at the OneAsia Tour event...Qualified for the Web.com Tour Finals under the Non-Member/equivalent FedExCup points list. Missed the cut in all four events...A week before defending his title at the nearby Macau Open, he began the final round of the Hong Kong Open a stroke behind 54-hole leader Marcus Fraser after opening with rounds of 67-66-67. On the final day at Hong Kong GC, shot a second consecutive. 3under 67 to get into a playoff with the Philippines' Angelo Que. Won the extra session with a par on the first sudden-death hole. The win was the 11th of his career. After going four years between wins, has won at least one tournament in each of the last three seasons...Appeared poised to successfully defend his Venetian Macau Open the following week. Shot an opening, 9-under 62 at Macau G&CC and trailed Anirban Lahiri by a shot. Took the 36- and 54-hole leads by going 70-67 in the second and third rounds. Led Lahiri by two shots with 18 holes to play and saw his advantage bulge to four shots midway through the round. Stumbled on the back nine and stepped to the 72nd hole a stroke behind Lahiri. Needing a par to force a playoff, lipped out a 4-foot par effort to fall into a T2 with Prom Meesawat...Opened with a 1-over 73 at the Asian Tour's Resorts World Manila Masters in late-November. Rattled off three consecutive 3-under 69s after that to T9 with 10 others at the Manila Southwoods G&CC ... Moved into the top 100 of the World Golf Ranking and earned an invite to the 2015 Open Championship when he T5 in December 2014 at the Thailand Golf Championship. Fired weekend rounds of 71-69 to finish fifth, four shots behind winner Lee Westwood. Earned a spot in the Open Championship field by being one of the four players finishing inside the top 12 who was not already exempt into the Open.

PERSONAL:

Was a state representative at indoor cricket in his native Australia...Won a tournament in Canada four days after being married, with wife, Leanne, as his caddie...First golf memory was caddieing for his dad and watching the wild life on the course...If not a professional golfer, would probably be a dog trainer in the military...Biggest thrill in golf was playing in his first U.S. Open and getting a PGA TOUR card in 2004...Favorite courses played are The National GL and TPC Sawgrass...Cell phone ring is an F1 race car...Favorite apps are Whatsapp, Viber and Skype...Favorite teams are Brisbane Lions and Manchester United...Favorite TV show is "The Blacklist" and movie is "Meet The Millers."...Favorite entertainer is Linkin Park and Pit-Bull...Favorite athlete is Nascar racer Jimmy Johnson of the "Lowes' 48 car." ... Would trade places with his kids for a day "to show them why I'm away so much."...Dream foursome is "anyone on Sunday as long as I'm leading."...Most people don't know he likes Dean Martin...Bucket list includes attending the Monaco F1 and owning a Ferrari...Firsttee intro song would be "Burn It Down" by Linkin Park...Website is scotthend.com.

T2–Price Cutter Charity Championship presented by Dr Pepper.

NATIONAL TEAMS:

Walker Cup (1), 2013; Palmer Cup (1), 2013.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Played 17 Web.com Tour events, making 11 cuts. Had two top-10s and six top-25s. Finished the Regular Season 48th on the money list...Turned pro after attending Cal in the fall of 2013 and competing in the Web.com Tour Q-School in December...Made his pro debut at the PGA TOUR's Farmers Insurance Open in his hometown area of San Diego in January (missed cut)...Received an invitation from Jack Nicklaus to play in the Memorial Tournament the first week in June (missed cut)...His Qualifying School status resulted in limited access early in the season, thus his fourth Web.com Tour event did not come until the second week in June, at the Cleveland Open. A steady week (69-68-69-69) led to a T10, his first Tour top-10...Had a good run in July and August, recording four top-25s over a five-tournament swing, capped by a T2 at the Price Cutter Charity Championship. Fired a 20-under 268 that week to finish one back of champion Cameron Percy. Forfeited his chance at victory when he improperly picked up his ball in the rough on the 72nd hole, resulting in a oneshot penalty and a missed playoff opportunity ... Had a respectable run in the Web.com Tour Finals, making the last three cuts and posting T27, T32 and T14 finishes...Finished 61st in the priority ranking, 11 spots behind the 50th and final card issued...Was 4th in Greens In Regulation (74.56).

PERSONAL:

Attended Torrey Pines High School in San Diego, Calif...Moved to Houston, Texas, where he lives with his brother, in 2014...Earliest golf memory was hitting the driver for the first time...If not a golfer, would like to be an ESPN golf analyst...Favorite courses played are Riviera CC and The National GL...Favorite pro teams are the Los Angeles Lakers and San Diego Chargers...Favorite TV shows are "Modern Family" and "Suits."...Favorite movies are "Remember the Titans," "The Hangover" and "Talladega Nights."...Favorite entertainer is Imagine Dragons...Favorite book is Angels and Demons by Dan Brown...Favorite athletes are Kobe Bryant, Michael Jordan and Aaron Rodgers...Favorite cities are New York and Rome...First-tee introduction song would be "We Are the Champions" by Queen...Bucket list includes playing in the Masters, playing a round with Tiger Woods and attending the NBA Finals or the Super Bowl...Would like to trade places with Woods for a day ("He is the very best!")...Twitter name is @mike_kim714.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished T35 at Web.com Tour Q-School in December... Played in 19 events on the Web.com Tour, recording one top-10. Made four cuts. Finished the season 96th on the money list...Highlight of his season was a third-place effort at the Cleveland Open in June. Rounds of 66-69-71 set the stage for a bogeyfree, final-round 65, which left him one shot out of the epic 11-hole Steven Alker-Dawie van der Walt playoff. Cleveland showing had been preceded by missed cuts in his first eight starts of the year. It got him to his high point on the money list for the year, 52nd. Made only three cuts in his final 10 events to drop to 96. Posted 66-69-71 and was four shots back after 54 holes of the Cleveland Open. Fired a bogey-free 65 in the final round and finished third, one stroke out of a playoff...Posted 66-69-71 and was four shots back after 54 holes of the Cleveland Open. 21-Brasil Champions Presented by HSBC.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished T130 in the Web.com Tour Q-school in December...Began his year on the Web.com Tour, finishing 21st at the Brasil Champions in his homeland. Shot four rounds in the 60s at Sao Paulo GC and earned an invite by virtue of his top-25 performance to the next event, the Panama Claro Championship...In Panama, missed the cut...Turned in a strong finish at the Buick Open on the PGA TOUR China Series, shooting a final-round, 5-under 67 at Dragon Lake GC's Asian Games Course, to place fourth, seven shots behind winner Sam Chien. His 6-under 66 in the second round was the low round of the day...Opened the Earls Beijing Open with rounds of 69-65-67 that put him in second place through 54 holes, two shots behind leader Mathew Perry. Took the lead midway through the final round until back-to-back bogeys on Nos. 10 and 11 and closing bogeys at the 16th and 18th holes dropped him into a T3 with Seongki Lee. The finish bettered his previous career-best fourth-place performance at the Buick Open in Guangzhou in early May.... Opened with a 7-under 65 at the Yulongwan Yunnan Open then was 2-under the rest of the way for a T22 in early August... Was in contention all week at the Fiji International on the PGA Tour of Australasia in mid-August. Was only four shots off the lead as he stepped to the ninth tee during the final round after making back-to-back birdies on Nos. 7 and 8. His hope at victory ended with a double bogey-bogey-quadruple bogey (7-over) stretch over his next three holes. Shot a Sunday 77 to T21 with three others...Returned to the U.S. and played in the Web.com Tour's WinCo Foods Portland Open in August. Had a nice start to his tournament-70-69-69 and was tied for 35th with 18 holes to play-then shot a final-round, 4-over 75 to drop into a T54... Picked up his second consecutive Series' top-10 when he finished in eighth place at the Chateau Junding Penglai Open. Shot three rounds of 70 along with a 1-under 71 in the third round... Added a T9 in late-September, at the Jianye Tianzhu Henan Open. Up-and-down tournament saw him open with a 73, shoot a second-round 68 then finish 76-71 at St. Andrews Zhengzhou GC... Finished T28 at the OneAsia Tour's Nanshan

China Masters in mid-October... Had a disappointing finish to the Nine Dragons Open. Held a two-shot lead through 15 holes but played the final three holes at Nine Dragons GC in 3-over to fall into a third-place finish, two shots behind winner, amateur Cheng Jin. The finish did allow him to move into the eighth position on the Order of Merit with two tournaments to play.

PERSONAL:

Attended high school in Torrance, Calif...Favorites include "Homeland," "The Walking Dead," "The Big Bang Theory," Roger Federer, Sao Paulo and Bangkok...Met Ronaldo at the Brasil Open...Speaks Portuguese, English, Spanish and Korean.

EXEMPT STATUS: Exempt - 2014 Leading Money Winner (PGA BIRTHPLACE: Hunan, China TOUR China) RESIDENCE: Shanohai, Chin

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 165

BIRTHDATE: August 3, 1995

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(1) 2014 Nanshan China Masters [OneAsia].

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Completed his inaugural PGA TOUR China Series' season with a flourish, winning his final two events, capturing the Order of Merit title and earning Player of the Year honors. Opened his season with a pair of 67s at the Japan Golf Tour's Indonesian PGA Championship. Closed with a 68 after an even-par 72 in the third round left him T13... Was T32 at the New Zealand Open on the PGA Tour of Australasia... Picked up his first PGA TOUR China Series' top-10, thanks to three under-par rounds to start the Buick Open. Stumbled a bit on the final day, shooting a 1-over 73, to T5 with countryman Ze Yu He... A week earlier, was poised to make a strong finish at the European Tour-OneAsia Tour co-sponsored Volvo China Open until a final-round 78 (after a third-round 67) dropped him into a T50... Traveled to Seoul for the CS Caltex Maekyung Open in mid-May. Was the top Chinese finisher at the OneAsia Tour event, shooting a pair of 70s in the first and third rounds to T19 with New Zealand's Gareth Paddison and South Korea's Seng Yong Kim ... Had another strong tournament, finishing T2 at the United Investment Real Estate Wuhan Open losing in a playoff to Brett Drewitt. Became the first player in PGA TOUR China Series to make two eagles in one round (at Nos. 5 and Nos. 15), putting himself in position for the win. After the second eagle, finished bogey-par-par to make the playoff with Drewitt and Xin Jun Zhang. Made par to match the other players on the first playoff hole then missed the green short on his second-extra-hole approach and watched as Drewitt won the title with a birdie...Continued his impressive season with another top-five outing, this time a T5 at the Lanhai Open outside Shanghai. Made two eagles in a round, on Nos. 9 and 12, in the third round, the second time he's had two eagles in a round this season. Added a first-hole eagle on Friday... In mid-June, accepted an invitation to play in the European Tour's Irish Open at Fota Island Resort. Opened with rounds of 69-72-69 in County Cork, Ireland. Struggled on the final day, with a triple bogey-8 during a 5-over 41 on the front nine. Was 2-over on the back nine, with only one birdie, to T66 with Francois Calmels and Adrien Saddier... After missing his first cut of the season, at the Chateau Junding Penglai Open, recovered at the Cadillac Championship in Beijing and finished T9. Opened 68-67 before faltering in the third round, with a 5-over 77. Made a nice comeback on the final day, shooting a 3-under 69 to earn his fourth top-10 of the season... Finally broke through and won for the first time as a professional when he emerged from a 54-hole tie with Shih Chang Chan at the Jianye Tianzhu Henan Open in late-September and cruised to an eight-shot victory. With the final round played in windy and rainy conditions at St. Andrews Zhengzhou GC, he was one of only three players to record an under-par round Sunday. Shot a 4-under 68 to go with his 72-67-68 start to earn the second-largest winning margin in Series history, trailing only J.H. Wang's 10-shot triumph at the Mission Hills Haikou Open). The 216,000 payday moved him to No. 3 on the Order of Merit and inside the top 500 in the Official World Golf Ranking for the first time (No. 446)... Continued his mastery two weeks later on the OneAsia Tour, winning for a second consecutive start. Opened 68-65 at the Nanshan China Masters at Nanshan International GC. Was only even-par on the weekend (72-70) but that was more than enough to give him a four-shot victory over South Korea's Jun Seok Lee and a U.S. $180,000 payday, the richest of his career. Moved to No. 2 in the OneAsia Tour Order of Merit, U.S. $3.329 behind No. 1 Seuna Hyuk Kim. The victory made him, at age 19, the youngest champion in OneAsia Tour history, surpassing South Korea's Bio Kim, who was 20 when he won the 2011 Nanshan China Masters. Had watched his lead dwindle to two strokes on the back nine Sunday after a bogey-double bogey effort at Nos. 11 and 12. Made three birdies over his final six holes coming in to earn his final margin... Opened with a 3-under 69 > at the European Tour's BMW Masters and was 4under at the halfway mark. Rounds of 74-72 on the weekend at Lake Malaren GC in Shanghai resulted in a T43 with Paul McGinley, Marc Warren, Gonzalo Fernandez-Castano and Matthew Baldwin...A week later, also in Shanghai, had a stellar final round at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions. Fired a 5-under 67 Sunday at Sheshan International GC to T35. His 67 was bettered only by one player Sunday-Henrik Stenson (65). His T35 bettered the T39 he shot in the event a year earlier...Started slowly at the Nine Dragons Open in November, shooting three consecutive 73s. Began the final day at 3-over and in 18th place. After making double bogey on the eighth hole, to drop to 1over for the day, played his final 10 holes in 7-under to finish fifth. He began his charge with an eagle on No. 9 and then made another eagle on No. 12. It was the third time this season he has had two eagles in the same round... A week later, at the Hainan Open, won a second PGA TOUR China title and did it again in convincing fashion. Broke free from a 36hole tie atop the leaderboard with Drewitt to take a six-shot lead into the final round. Saw his advantage balloon to eight shots midway through the final round at Luhuitou Golf Club before he settled on a six-shot victory over Drewitt and South Korea's Dohvun Kim. Joined David McKenzie as a two-time winner on Tour and moved into the top spot on the Order of Merit with one tournament remaining on the schedule. Also ascended to No. 248 in the Official World Golf Ranking, his highest career position...In his final start of the season, left no doubt who was the best player in the Series as he opened with a 7-under 65 at the Tour Championship presented by CTS Tycoon. Took a five-shot lead into the weekend then faltered Saturday, shooting a 1-over 73 and watching his advantage drop to one stroke over Mu Hu. After an opening bogey, birdied his next three holes and cruised from there, defeating Beaufils by five shots. Moved inside the top 200 in the OWGR and earned fully-exempt status on the 2015 Web.com Tour as the circuit's Order of Merit winner.

Both he and his sister, Paige, were the top-ranked players at the same time on their respective teams at the University of Washington. The similarities don't end there, however, as both played soccer and point guard for their high school basketball teams. Got his start in golf at age 2 from his parents, who he lists as his heroes. Both parents are avid golfers and both work as pharmacists. Sister recently played her rookie season on the LPGA in 2007. She finished 118th on the money list with just under $50,000. Lists playing in the 2003 Walker Cup (where he went 3-0) and in the 2004 U.S. Open at Shinnecock Hills (missed the cut by three strokes) as his biggest thrills in golf.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Didn't play in the final two PGA TOUR China events of the season-the Hainan Open and the Tour Championship presented by CTS Tycoon-to play in two significant tournaments in his native Australia. Finished the campaign No. 9 on the Order of Merit. Played in 10 of 12 PGA TOUR China Series' tournaments and made the cut in all 10, with six top-25 finishes...Entered the Web.com Tour Qualifying Tournament at PGA National and earned his Tour card for 2015 by shooting rounds of 70-70-66-70-72-71. Easily earned membership for the PGA TOUR China Series by finishing T8 at the Haikou Qualifying Tournament in March...In early March, finished T39 on the PGA Tour of Australia, at the New Zealand Open... In the first event of the PGA TOUR China Series. was T31 at the Mission Hills Haikou Open... Opened well at the CS Caltex Maekyung Open on the OneAsia Tour in mid-May. After 36 holes, was 3-under following his 72-69 start but faltered on the weekend, finishing 7over during his final two rounds to T48 with four others...Continued his steady improvement, earning his first top-10 of the season, a T5, when he turned in four under-par rounds at the Lanhai Open at Lan Hai International GC's Links Course. Weekend rounds of 70-70 allowed him to join countrymen David McKenzie (winner) and Steve Dartnall (second) inside the top five... Made history when he became the first PGA TOUR China Series player to compete in a major championship. Played in The Open Championship in England. Missed the cut at Royal Liverpool... Picked up his second PGA TOUR China Series' top-10 by shooting a final-round 64 at the Yulongwan Yunnan Open in early August to

T7... Missed the cut by a stroke at the Fiji International on the PGA Tour of Australasia...Had a strong outing at the Chateau Junding Penglai Open for his second top-10 in as many starts. Shot a 7-under 65 during the final round at Chateau Junding GC to T6... Made a run at victory in September at the Cadillac Championship before settling for a solosecond finish. Began the final round at Qinghe Bay GC tied for second with countryman Brett Drewitt, two shots behind fellow Australian David McKenzie. Moved into contention after a third-round, 5-under 67. Was even par on his first nine holes of his final round but birdied the 10th hole to crawl within four shots of McKenzie. Both players made pars on the next four holes, and then he made his move when he holed a 181-yard, 6-iron shot for eagle from the 15th-hole fairway while McKenzie was bogeying the hole. Suddenly, McKenzie's advantage was only one shot. Bogeyed the next hole and then parred in, unable to make another move. The finish was his best in eight Series' starts and his fourth top-10 of the season (and third in a row). Improved from 13th on the Order of Merit to sixth with the runner-up performance... Continued his steady climb up the moneyearnings' list when he T4 in late-September at the Jianye Tianzhu Henan Open. Finished at 2-under and tied with Brett Drewitt, Michael Choi and Dohyun Kim, 11 strokes behind runaway winner Hao Tong Li. Jumped into the top 10 on the Order of Merit with his 57,600 payday, improving to No. 6... Finished T39 at the OneAsia Tour's Nanshan China Masters in mid-October... Kept his streak alive, making the cut in every event he's played by finishing T8 at the Nine Dragons Open. In the process, recorded his fifth consecutive top-10 finish. Ended at even-par in Jiaxing... Elected to finish his season in his native Australia. Played in the BetEasy Masters at Metropolitan GC in late-November. Had four par-or-better rounds. including bookend 70s to start and finish the tournament, to T11 with three others, four shots behind

T58-Web.com Tour Championship.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made just seven cuts in 23 starts, parlaying two outings into top-25 finishes. Season cut short following a 165th-place finish in the FedExCup standings. Missed the FedExCup Playoffs for the second consecutive season. Was not able to regain PGA TOUR exempt status via the Web.com Tour finals, missing the cut in three of the four Finals' events...Posted four rounds in the 60s en route to a T5 at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. Final-round, 7-under 64 included a streak of seven consecutive birdies on Nos. 9-15 (had only three birdies on those holes during the first three rounds), just one shy of the tournament record. The streak could have been eight had his approach shot not hit the flagstick and bounded 24 feet, 3 inches from the pin. Since winning the event in 2006, had missed five of six cuts (T27 in 2009 the exception) prior to the top-10 finish.

Skipped the final two events of the PGA TOUR China season-the Hainan Open and the Tour Championship presented by CTS Tycoon-to play in two significant tournaments in his native Australia. By virtue of his absence, dropped out of the top five on the Order of Merit, finishing sixth. Season highlights came at two different tournaments that he won. His victories at the Lanhai Open and the Cadillac Championship were his only two top-10s during the year. In his second PGA TOUR China Series appearance, shot four rounds in the 60s at the Lanhai Open to cruise to a five-shot win over countryman Steve Dartnall. Took a three-stroke lead into the final round and fired a 3-under 69 at Lan Hai International GC's Links Course to win for the second consecutive season. At age 46, was the circuit's oldest winner, and his five-stroke victory margin was second only to J.H. Wang's 10-shot win at the Mission Hills Haikou

Open... Finished T12 in his PGA TOUR China Series debut, at the Mission Hills Haikou Open. Shot a final-round 68 at the Sandbelt Trails Course...In three OneAsia Tour starts, made two cuts. Made the cut in two additional PGA TOUR China Series' startsfinishing T31 at the Earls Beijing Open and then capitalizing on a final-round, 5-under 67 to T32 at the Yulongwan Yunnan Open... The following week, held a share of the first-round lead at the Fiji International on the PGA Tour of Australasia in mid-August. Played his final 54 holes in 12-over to T32 at Natadola Bay Championship GC ... Returned to action at the PGA TOUR China Series, just missing a top-10 finishing T14 in Penglai... Made history in September when he became the first PGA TOUR China Series' player to win more than one title. At the Cadillac Championship in Beijing, took a two-stroke lead into the final round at Qinghe Bay GC. Through 14 holes in his final round, he had increased his lead to four strokes over Bryden MacPherson. Made a bogey on the 15th hole, and when playing partner MacPherson holed out for eagle from 181 yards, his lead had shrunk to one shot. He grew his lead to two shots when MacPherson bogeyed the next hole, and MacPherson could do no more as he parred in. The victory moved him to second on the Order of Merit. Had four under-par rounds in Beijing, the second time this season (Lanhai Open) he had pulled off that feat... Finished T17 in mid-October at the OneAsia Tour's Nanshan China Masters... Playing in the BetEasy Masters in his native Australia in late-November, shot a final-round, 3-under 69 at Metropolitan GC to move up the leaderboard into a

2011 Midwest Classic Presented by Time Warner Cable

BEST 2014 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

T5–WinCo Foods Portland Open presented by Kraft.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in 24 of 25 Web.com Tour events, making 13 cuts. Had one top-10 and four top-25s. Finished the Regular Season 70th on the money list ... His best results in his first 13 tournaments (February through June) came in March - a T26 at the Brasil Champions and a T15 at the Panama Claro Championship the following week...Performance in the second half improved, with a T15 at the Albertsons Boise Open in July and his most important finish, a T5, at the final Regular Season event, the WinCo Foods Portland Open, in August. Came to Portland 97th on the money list, needing to get to No. 75 in order to advance to the Web.com Tour Finals. Opened with 66-67 and was T4. Was still T4 after a third-round 70. On Sunday, made a gutsy 15-footer for bogey on the par-5 18th at Pumpkin Ridge to shoot 71 and grab a T5 finish, which was just enough to push him to 70th on the money list and into the Finals...Finished T46 at the Finals' opener, the Hotel Fitness Championship...Followed it with a T16 the next week at the Chiguita Classic...Came to the Web.com Tour Championship having missed the cut at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship, trailing the last available card spot by $13,816. Opened with 66-68, was T5 at the halfway mark and had a PGA TOUR card in sight. Weekend rounds of 73 and a T37 finish derailed his quest ... Finished 69th in the priority ranking, 19 spots behind the 50th and final card issued...Was third in Sand Save Percentage (63.64) for the year...Late in the year, moved into contention in the third round of the BetEasy Masters on the PGA Tour of Australasia when he shot a 5-under 67. Stayed in contention all day Sunday but eventually fell a stroke short after a final-round 70 at Metropolitan GC left him a shot behind winner Nick Cullen. Finished T2 with Josh Younger and Adam Scott.

An avid movie enthusiast, claims watching movies

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Entered 14 Web.com Tour events, posting one top-10 and four top-25s...Top-10 came in very first start, a T4 at the South Georgia Classic in early May, his best Tour finish since the 2012 Chile Classic. Was T2 after two rounds (69-66). Closed with 70-72 to finish four back of winner Blayne Barber...Was co-medalist at the U.S. Open sectional qualifying in Purchase, N.Y., in early June, with Fran Quinn. Shot a 6-under 64 at Old Oaks CC in the morning and a 3-over 74 at Century CC in the afternoon to make his first U.S. Open. Missed the cut at Pinehurst's No. 2...Recorded an ace in the second round of the Cleveland Open in early July, at the par-3 16th hole, using a 9-iron from 149 yards. Finished T45...Slumped beginning in June, missing seven cuts in a row to drop from 55th to 89th with two Regular Season events remaining. A T11 in Knoxville and a T21 in Portland got him to 79th in earnings, but four shy of making the Web.com Tour Finals and full exempt 2015 Tour status...Improved his status in December with a T43 at the Web.com Tour Qualifying Tournament at PGA National. 2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Season included just three made cuts in 13 starts, ending the year No. 180 in the FedExCup standings. Finished a season-best T7 at the RBC Canadian Open, marking his first PGA TOUR top-10 since the 2013 Barracuda Championship (T5). Entered the week having missed the cut in nine of his last 11 starts on TOUR. Equaled the Royal Montreal GC's course record, with a 7-under 63, just one shy of the all-time best final-round score at the RBC Canadian Open (62 by Andy Bean in 1983). His round matched 63s by Jim Furyk (2014), Graham DeLaet (2014), Scott Verplank (2001) and Canadian David Morland IV (2001). The 63 equaled his career-low round on TOUR, set twice at the U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee (2006 and 2009)...PGA TOUR season concluded in August with his making just three cuts in 13 starts, ending the year No. 180 in the FedExCup standings...Opened the Web.com Tour Finals at the Hotel Fitness Championship with steady rounds of 66-69-71-69, seven shots off Bud Cauley's winning score. Failed to make a run in the Web.com Tour Finals, however, missing the cut in the final three events.

Spearheaded relief efforts with fellow PGA TOUR professionals Jason Bohn and Kevin Streelman to raise money for those affected by the tornadoes that struck his hometown of Tuscaloosa in April. Their "Tee It Up Fore Tuscaloosa" campaign benefitted tornado victims in the area.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in the seven allowed PGA TOUR events as a sponsor exemption after turning pro in June. Pro debut came at the Travelers Championship, where he opened with a 66. Added rounds of 69-71-70 to finish T46...Played in the next three TOUR events (T55, T45, missed cut), was idle for one week, then added a T62 and a T39 the next two weeks. A back issue forced him to withdraw from the last one, the Wyndham Championship, in mid August. Was T2 after the first round of the T45 finish (The Greenbrier Classic) after a 65...His performances resulted in enough points (85) after the Wyndham event to qualify via the non-member points category (126-200 FedExCup, equivalent points) for the Web.com Tour Finals...The oblique back injury forced his withdrawal again from the first Finals' event, the Hotel Fitness Championship in his native Indiana...He would struggle with it throughout the Finals, missing the cut in the second and fourth events, yet managing a T8 at the third, the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship. The T8 moved him into the card bubble spot of No. 50 heading to the seasonending Web.com Tour Championship. The missed cut at TPC Sawgrass would leave him 58th in the priority ranking, eight positions short of securing his TOUR card.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished T14 at the Web.com Tour Qualifying Tournament in December. A fourth-round 62 vaulted him 68 spots up the leaderboard, from T81 to T13, which had significant impact on his 2015 status...Played most of his summer golf on PGA TOUR Canada. In his seventh start of season in early September, posted rounds of 70-65-72-66, to defeat Matt Harmon in a playoff at the Cape Breton Celtic Classic, his first PGA TOUR Canada victory. Started the final round three shots behind 54-hole co-leaders Michael Gligic and Dan McCarthy but moved up the leaderboard quickly with a 3-under 33 on his opening nine. Carded three more birdies at Nos. 10, 13 and 14 to reach 15-under. Converted a tricky 6-foot par putt at 18 for the clubhouse lead at 15-under par. thanks to a bogey-free 66 Sunday. On the first hole of sudden-death, Harmon's tee shot was lost, forcing him to play a provisional. With Harmon lying six in a bunker, he merely two-putted for a par-5 to take the title...Shot a final-round 66 the following week to finish fifth at the season-ending TOUR Championship of Canada and climbed from 11th to 10th on the Order of Merit, securing an exemption into the final stage of Web.com Tour Qualifying School...Played in three PGA TOUR Latinoamerica events in the spring, missing the cut in each...On the Web.com Tour, made four starts in July and August, which resulted in a T50, a T56 and two missed cuts.

2003 Knoxville Open

BEST 2014 WEB.COM TOUR FINISHES:

5-News Sentinel Open Presented by Pilot.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in 20 Web.com Tour events, making 17 cuts. Had three top-10s and six top-25s. Finished the Regular Season 47th on the money list...Began the year by posting rounds of 69-68-69 to finish T8 in the weather-shortened season-opening Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship...Had six more top-30s from May into August before recording his next top-10 at the News Sentinel Open in Knoxville, where he carded 68 the first three days. Birdied the final six holes of the tournament for a 7-under 64 that gave him a solo-fifth showing, his top outing of the year...Was in second place, three strokes back, after 36 holes of the third Web.com Tour Finals' event, the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship. Posted 74-74 on the weekend and fell to T10, but the $26,000 check put him in position to secure one of the Finals' 25 available PGA TOUR' cards...Was in real good position to claim that card at the seasonending Web.com Tour Championship after opening with 69-70. Weekend rounds of 73-74 resulted in a T61 finish, which pushed him three slots outside the 50th and final card position at No. 53...Was 5th in Greens In Regulation (74.54)...Made two PGA TOUR starts, with a T61 at the Travelers Championship in June his top outing.

sulted in a four-shot victory. Jumped from 39th to 16th on the money list at the time, his high point of the year...Other top-10, a T6, was in April at the WNB Golf Classic. He shot 68-69-68 in the weathershortened event (wind)...Two of his other top finishes, a T13 at the BMW Charity Pro-Am and a T18 at the Cleveland Open, came in a stretch of four tournaments that included his Raleigh and Midland top-10s...Made two cuts (T27 and T42) and missed two cuts in the Web.com Tour Finals...On the PGA TOUR, received two exemptions. In February, was awarded the prestigious Northern Trust Open Exemption, which promotes diversity in golf. Fired 69 in the first round and went on to finish T70. In May, was extended an invitation to play in the Wells Fargo Championship in Charlotte, near his hometown. Shot 78-72 to miss the cut.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in the early part of the PGA TOUR China season, winning one tournament and finishing 10th on the order of merit. At the PGA TOUR China Series' qualifying tournament in Haikou in mid-March, used a third-round 67 that followed a 77 a day earlier to catapult himself into a fully-exempt slot on the Series' inaugural season. Finished T4 with Brad Drewitt, six shots behind medalist Alex Hawley...Made history by winning the first PGA TOUR China Series event, the Mission Hills Haikou Open. Was completely dominant all week, taking a share of the lead after 18 holes. Followed an opening 67 with a Mission Hills GC's Sandbelt Trails' courserecord 63 to move ahead by eight shots through 36 holes. With a weekend 69-66, finished at 23under in coasting to a 10-shot victory over China's Xin Jun Zhang. He made only six bogeys all week in winning his first professional tournament...Enjoyed three under-par rounds, including a second-round, 3-under 69. to T13 at the Buick Open, with Ray

Beaufils, Brett Drewitt and Chris Campbell... Was in contention throughout the ICTSI Philippine Open in mid-May on the Asian Tour. Opened with a 72 that put him in good position, with a 4-under 68. Couldn't muster a charge on the weekend (72-74) and finished T8 with Thailand's Jazz Janewattananond at Wack Wack G&CC in Manila... Plaving on the Asian Tour, at the Queen's Cup, shot rounds of 72-69-68-69 at Santiburi Samui CC to T6 with Tze Huang Choo and Richard T. Lee... Continued his stellar season, posting his third top-15 finish in three starts. At the Earls Beijing Open, sandwiched firstand final-round 68s around a pair of 70s to finish solo sixth in mid-June... Played on the Asian Tour in mid-September, at the Yeangder Tournament Players Championship. Finished 60th at Linkou International G&CC in Taiwan... Entered the final round of the OneAsia Tour's Nanshan China Masters at evenpar then fashioned a 5-over 76 during windy, difficult conditions Sunday to T19 with four others...Got off to a slow start at the Hong Kong Open, shooting a 2-over 72 at Hong Kong GC. Recovered nicely with a 3-under 67 to make the cut then shot back-to-back 69s on the weekend to T34... Shot four par-or-better rounds in late-October at the Asian Tour's Venetian Macau Open. Began his final round with three consecutive birdies and appeared ready to make a run at victory. Could only muster two additional birdies the rest of the way, settling for a 1-under 70 and a T15 with four others, including PGA TOUR China Series' players Wei Tze Yeh and Shih Chang Chan...Was tied for second at the halfway mark of the Asian Tour's Resorts World Manila Masters after opening 68-65 at Manila Southwoods G&CC in late-November. Dropped considerably Saturday after shooting a 5-over 77 but recovered for a top-10 with a 2-under 70 on the final day. Finished at T9 with 10 others at 8-under...In mid-December, held a one-stroke lead over Arjun Atwal at the Asian Tour's Dubai Open with one hole to play at the Els GC. Made bogey on the 72nd hole to Atwal's birdie, giving Atwal the victory.

T4-Albertsons Boise Open presented by Kraft Nabisco.

OTHER VICTORIES:

(1) 2010 Indiana State Open.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Played 24 Web.com Tour events, making 12 cuts. Had four top-10s and seven top-25s. Finished the Regular Season 46th on the money list...After a T54 in his first-ever Tour event in Bogota, Colombia in Feburary, missed the cut in his next six starts...In June, recorded his first top-10, a T10 at the Cleveland Open, which featured closing rounds of 66-68...Later that month, opened with a 73 at the United Leasing Championship in his native Indiana, then carded three consecutive rounds of 70 on the challenging Victoria National GC to finish T10...Two weeks later at the Utah Championship, carded steady rounds of 68-68-67-67, leading to a then-career-best T7 performance...Things improved even more the following week as he played the first 49 holes of the Albertsons Boise Open bogey-free. Earned a T4 with rounds of 69-66 on the weekend...In the first three Web.com Tour Finals events, recorded a pair of T25s and a T22. Came to the season-ending Web.com Tour Championship 55th in the priority ranking and within reach of a TOUR card. A missed cut resulted in him finishing 63rd in the ranking for a card ... Finished 4th in Sand Save Percentage (62.5 percent), eighth in Total Driving and 16th in the All-Around Ranking ... Recorded two eagles in the second round of the WinCo Foods Portland Open in August.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Made just 12 cuts in 28 PGA TOUR starts and, at No. 167 in the FedExCup standings, missed the Playoffs for a third consecutive year. After nine missed cuts and a disqualification from the Barracuda Championship, ended his season on a high note by posting four consecutive rounds in the 60s at the Wyndham Championship (T45). Attempted to regain his exempt status for the 2014-15 PGA TOUR Season via the Web.com Tour Finals but was unsuccessful. After a T41 (Hotel Fitness Championship) and a 73rd-place finish (Chiquita Classic), missed the final two cuts of the season ... Playing on the OneAsia Tour, at the Kolon Korea Open, finished T6 at Woo Jeong Hills CC. At the fog-plagued event that ended on a Monday, entered the final round tied for second, two strokes behind amateur Jeong Woo Ham's 54-hole lead. Struggled on the final day, shooting a 3-over 74 to drop into a solo sixth, four shots behind winner Seung Hyuk Kim.

PERSONAL:

Fourth of eight children and the son of vegetable farmers...Once aspired to be a bodybuilder and own his own gym. A knee injury in his late teens ended that dream... Never knew there was a sport called golf until the age of 19, when he started going to a small, local driving range in South Korea on a friend's advice and learned the swing by watching instructional videos. Worked picking up practice balls and would work on his game before the facility opened and late at night after visitors went home. The range had facilities where you could sleep and eat...As required, spent almost two years in the South Korean military, stationed at his home at Jeju Island, south of South Korea, beginning at age 21. Guarded naval port... Traveled to New Zealand after his military duty to pursue a golf career. Practiced and played intensely there over a three-month period.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS:

Did not play on PGA TOUR China after the Cadillac Championship in September. Finished the season second on the Order of Merit. In late-March, pocketed US $25,820 with a T8 at the co-sanctioned Japan Golf Tour-OneAsia Tour's Indonesia PGA Championship. Opened with a par-72 then played the final 54 holes at Damai Indah GC in 15-under to tie with four others, including PGA TOUR China Series player Bio Kim... Started slowly at the Mission Hills Haikou Open, the Series' inaugural event. Was tied for 23rd through 36 holes. Caught fire on the weekend and shot rounds of 64-68-the low 36 on the weekend of anybody in the field at the Sandbelt Trails Course-to finish solo second, 10 shots behind winner J.H. Wang... Picked up his second top-10 in as many weeks, finishing T8 at the Buick Open. Only a third-round 77 prohibited him from contending at Dragon Lake GC's Asian Games Course. Recovered in the final round, with a 3under 69 to tie with Taiwan's Wei Tze Yeh and Chien Yao Hung...Suffered a disappointing finish at the United Investment Real Estate Wuhan Open in mid-May. Stood on the 18th tee Sunday with a onestroke lead, needing only a par to secure his first title. Three-putted on the final hole that dropped him into a playoff with Brett Drewitt and Hao Tong Li. Had a birdie putt for the victory on the first playoff hole, but he missed that and then couldn't match Drewitt's second-playoff-hole birdie. Finished T2 with Li, his second runner-up of the campaign to go with his second-place showing at the Mission Hills Haikou Open... After two runner-up performances, broke through for his first PGA TOUR China Series title, winning the Earls Beijing Open in come-from-behind fashion. Trailed Mathew Perry by three strokes with 18 holes to play and opened his final round with a bogey. Began his march to victory with birdies on three of four holes (Nos. 8, 10 and 11) and then picked up two additional birdies on the 15th and 17th holes. Meanwhile, Perry was making triple bogey at the par-4 17th to open the door. Closed with a par on the Earls Beijing GC closing hole to secure the two-shot victory over Perry. Moved to the top of the Order of Merit and improved 155 places in the Official World Golf Ranking, to a career-high 412th position... Finished T36 at the Japan Golf Tour Championship at Shishido Hills CC's West Course. Had six birdies against three bogeys and three double bogeys over his final 18 holes that left him tied with four others, including Yuta Ikeda and Hiroyuki Fujita...Had his third runner-up outing in six starts when he finished solo second at the Yulongwan Yunnan Open. Trailed firstround leader Gunn Charoenkul by four strokes after an opening, 7-under 65. Followed Friday with another 65 to take a one-shot, 36-hole lead over Charoenkul. Added weekend rounds of 69-67 to finish at 22-under, three shots behind Charoenkul. Upped his Order of Merit lead to nearly 300,000 over Brett Drewitt... Watched his streak of 11 consecutive under-par rounds end at the Chateau Junding Penglai Open when he fired a final-round, 1-over 73. Still finished T9 at the event after opening 69-69-71.

Cut: 70 players at even-par 142 from a field of 144 professionals.

Weather: Thursday: Partly cloudy, with thunderstorms during the afternoon. Officials suspended play for the day at 2:45 p.m. Rainfall was .60 inches. Wind: light and variable. The temperature reached 66. Friday: Partly cloudy, with afternoon thunderstorms. Officials suspended play for the day at 3:10 p.m. Rainfall was .84 inches, with variable win at 6-12 mph and a high of 68. Saturday: Partly cloudy, with afternoon thunderstorms. Officials suspended play for the day at 3:14 p.m.. Rainfall was .35 inches. Wind was variable at 6-12 mph. Sunday: Partly cloudy, with afternoon thunderstorms. At 2:08 p.m., officials suspended play for the day, shortening the tournament to 54 holes. Rainfall: 40 inches. Wind was variat 6-12 mph. High of 70.

Tournament Record: 266 - Patrick Cantlay (2013) Current Course Record: 63 - Bogota CC - Alex Cejka (2014)

Germany's Alex Cejka was declared the winner of the Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship when thunderstorms moved into the Bogota area Sunday afternoon and canceled the fourth round. Cejka was halfway through the final round and leading by one over Andrew Putnam when play was called shortly after 2pm. The standings reverted back to 54 holes, which had Cejka at 14-under and three better than Putnam and four over rookie Carlos Ortiz.

The win for Alex Cejka, 43, was his first in 301 combined career starts (270 on the PGA TOUR and 31 on the Web.com Tour) and was worth $135,000. His last win came at the 2002 Trophy Lancome on the European Tour.

The last time a Web.com Tour tournament was shortened to 54 holes was the 2013 Stadion Classic at UGA, where heavy rains prevented the final round from being started. Brendon Todd won that event.

The last time officials shortened a tournament to 54 holes when the fourth round was not able to be completed was the 2011 Stonebrae Classic. Morning fog had delayed the start of the final round in Hayward, Calif., and the fog returned in the afternoon, which ultimately canceled the round.

Purse: $750,000

Alex Cejka's 8-under 63 in the third round established a course record at the Country Club of Bogota. The previous record of 64 was first set by Will Wilcox and Kirk Triplett in the third round in 2012.

Afternoon thunderstorms halted play each of the four days of the tournament, forcing players into a catch-up mode. Half the field did not complete play Thursday or Friday, and the 36-hole cut came Saturday. All 70 players who did make the cut were on the course Saturday when officials halted play. They returned Sunday to complete the round. Players were not re-paired for the fourth round in an effort to save time and try to finish 72 holes.

Canada's Adam Hadwin birdied four of his final six holes, including the last two, to overtake Australia's Alistair Presnell and win the Chile Classic for his first career title. Hadwin, the 54-hole leader, polished off a 3-under 69 to finish at 16-under 272, one better than Presnell, who had rolled in his third eagle of the day, an 18-footer at the par-5, 18th moments ahead of Hadwin. The 26-year old British Columbia native got up and down from a greenside bunker at the final hole, rolling in a 4-foot birdie putt for the victory, which was worth $117,000.

Adam Hadwin became the 13th Canadian-born player to win on Tour and the first since Chris Baryla won the 2009 Chattanooga Classic, a span of 111 tournaments.

Adam Hadwin became the first Canadian to win outside of the continental United States since Jim Rutledge captured the 2006 ING New Zealand PGA Championship in Christchurch.

Alistair Presnell's tie for second was his best since he was solo second at the 2012 Miccosukee Championship.

South Korea's Sung Joon Park fired a 6-under 66 to wind up 13-under par and tied for third. Park, 27, missed the cut at the Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship two weeks earlier in his first career Tour start. Park spent the previous four years on the Japan Golf Tour. He made the cut in 20 of 21 starts in 2013 (withdrew in his other start), had one victory and four runner-up finishes.

lowa State's Chris Baker ran off seven birdies in a row during the final round, starting at No. 8. Those birdies were part of a stretch in which Baker did not make a par over his final 14 holes (nine birdies and five bogeys).

Mark Hubbard (third round), Roger Sloan (first round) and Jake Younan (first round) all made holes-in-one at the par-3, 11th during the week. Strangely, each player followed up with a bogey at the 12th hole.

Mississippi State grad Carlos Sainz, Jr. registered the first double eagle of the year, and the first of his career, at the par-5 ninth during the first round.

Tournament Record: 259 - Jon Curran (2014) Current Course Record: 61 - Sao Paulo GC - Jon Curran (2014)

Vanderbilt's Jon Curran earned his first career win with a record week in South America. Curran posted a course-record, 10-under 61 in the weather-delayed opening round and never looked back. He led by three shots after each of the first two rounds, was up by four after 54 holes and held off all challenges during Sunday's finale to win by four over Alex Cejka. He collected the $144,000 first-place check while finishing with a 25-under total of 259.

Jon Curran put his name in the Tour record book during each round. His eight consecutive birdies in the first round was one off the all-time record of nine by Omar Uresti, set in 1994. Curran's 36-hole score of 125 matched the second-lowest in Tour history, his 54-hole total of 190 equaled the best on Tour and his winning total of 259 tied for fifth-best since the Tour's inception in 1990.

Runner-up Alex Cejka birdied the 17th hole Sunday to break a tie with Ash Hall and move into solo second place. Cejka collected a runner-up check for $86,400 and pushed his season total to $221,400 in just two starts. That all but locked up a return trip to the PGA TOUR in 2015 for the native of Germany, who spent 10 seasons on TOUR. His money total would have placed him 10th on the Web.com Tour money list after 21 regular season events in 2013.

Jon Curran's 8-under 28 during the first round was one off the Tour record of 27 held by four players. Curran led from start to finish in Sao Paulo and became only the second player in the last six years to go wire to wire (no ties). The last one to do was Andres Gonzales at the 2010 Soboba Golf Classic.

Jon Curran's win came in only his fourth career Tour start. He had made only one start prior to the 2014 season–a tie for 39th at the 2013 Utah Championship. He also became the Tour's third consecutive first-time winner (in three events) and the first rookie to win in 2014.

Tournament Results

Australian Ash Hall's third-place finish was actually his second top-10 of the year. His first was a tie for fourth at the New Zealand Open in Queenstown, which was sandwiched around starts in the Web.com Tour's first two events in Colombia and Chile.

Colombia's Manuel Villegas put on a Sunday charge but had his hopes for victory dashed with a double bogey at the par-5, 17th hole. The former Florida Gator rebounded with a birdie on the final hole for an 18-under total and solofourth-place performance, his career-best on Tour.

Florida State All-American Daniel Berger continued his solid start to his rookie campaign with a tie for seventh. Berger, 20, opened the year with a tie for 29th and a tie for 12th and moved up to No. 7 on the money list with his finish in Sao Paulo.

Rookie Brad Schneider made his first career hole-in-one when he aced the 128-yard, second hole during Friday's play. Schneider also holed a wedge for eagle on the par-4, 16th during his second round.

Lucas Lee, a Sao Paulo native who moved to California when he was 11, made the Tour's second double eagle in as many weeks. During Saturday's secondround conclusion, Lee holed a 3-iron from 221 yards at the par-5, 17th and jumped from 2-under to 5-under for the tournament and made the cut by one stroke. Carlos Sainz, Jr. had a double-eagle the previous week at the Chile Classic. Lee finished 21st to earn a start the following week at the Panama Claro Championship.

Derek Fathauer shot an 11-under-par 59 during Tuesday's practice round. Fathauer had 11 birdies, one bogey and an eagle.

Mexico's Carlos Ortiz fired a 6-under 64 in the final round and pulled away from the field en route to his first career win. Ortiz chalked up four birdies in a fivehole stretch on the front nine to establish some breathing room and then kept his challengers at bay, winning by four shots over Jason Gore.

Carlos Ortiz' victory came in just his fifth Tour start and a little more than a month away from his 23rd birthday.

Carlos Ortiz became the fourth Mexican-born player to win in Tour history. He joined Keoke Cotner, Esteban Toledo and Alex Aragon in the category.

Carolos Ortiz' 6-under 64 is the lowest final-round score by the winner in tournament history. Miguel Carballo posted a 65 en route to the championship in 2007

Carlos Ortiz became the third consecutive player, and fifth overall, to make the Panama Claro Championship his first career win. Edward Loar/2012 and Kevin Foley/2013 were the last two first-time winners.

Purse: $625,000

Rookie Daniel Berger's T3 finish was his second straight top-10 effort. The former Florida State standout was T7 at the Brasil Champions a week earlier.

In the 11 years the tournament has been held at the Panama Golf Club there have been only two rounds of the 44 that have yielded sub-par (70) scoring averages.

Nathan Tyler made a double-eagle at the par-5, 4th hole during Friday's second round. Tyler's shot marked the third consecutive week that a double-eagle was recorded. This marked the first time in Tour history that double-eagles have come in three consecutive weeks.

Tournament Record: 260 - Casey Wittenberg (2012) Current Course Record: 60 - Le Triomphe CC - Brenden Pappas (2007)

Kris Blanks rolled in a 10-foot birdie putt on the third playoff hole to beat Brett Stegmaier and earn his second career title. Blanks charged from the back of the pack, with a 9-under 62 early Sunday and posted his 14-under 270 total. He then waited more than three hours before Stegmaier matched his score and forced the first playoff of the 2014 season.

Kris Blanks started the final round seven shots off the lead, giving him the largest comeback on Tour since Peter Tomasulo rallied from eight strokes back at the 2010 Ford Wayne Gretzky Classic.

Kris Blanks missed most of the 2013 season due to shoulder problems. He missed the cut at the PGA TOUR's Waste Management Phoenix Open in early February but was on the shelf for the rest of the season. He was eligible to play in the four Web.com Tour Finals events–which he did, making two cuts in four starts.

Kris Blanks' previous Web.com Tour victory came at the 2008 Bank of America

Open near Chicago.

The playoff was the fourth in tournament history. Other playoff winners were Steven Alker (2002), Skip Kendall (2007) and Bubba Dickerson (2009).

Purse: $550,000

Brett Stegmaier's runner-up finish was a career-best and moved him to No. 14 on the money list after five weeks. Stegmaier had missed the cut in his first four starts of the year. The former University of Florida standout recorded his first ace in competition during Saturday's third round.

Rookie Jonathan Randolph tied for third and moved up 14 spots, to No. 15 on the money list. Randolph was an All-American at Mississippi and grew up in Brandon, Miss., about three hours from Lafayette.

Another rookie, Justin Thomas, tied for fifth, his fourth top-15 effort of the season. Thomas opened the year with a tie for fifth at the Panama Claro Championship.

Carlos Ortiz became the first Mexican-born player to win the El Bosque Mexico Championship. He shot a final-round 68 to finish at 13-under-par 275. The Dallas resident recorded his second victory in his last three starts on Tour.

Michael Putnam, the 2013 champion, returned to the Web.com Tour and finished at 13-under-par 275.

With this victory, Carlos Ortiz has made $304,458 and moved to No. 1 on the Regular Season money list.

Carlos Ortiz became the second Mexican player to win multiple events on the Web.com Tour. Alex Aragon won the 2012 TPC Stonebrae Championship and the 2013 WNB Golf Classic.

Former Alabama All-American Justin Thomas, who finished runner-up to Carlos Ortiz, recorded his best performance to date on Tour. Thomas moved from No. 12 to No. 5 on the money list after his performance in Mexico.

Justin Thomas has three top-five showings in five Tour starts.

Australia's Nathan Green made his first cut of the season and moved to No. 39 on the money list.

Purse: $700,000

University of Arizona graduate Nathan Tyler posted first top-five Web.com Tour finish on the Web.com Tour. Tyler recorded all four rounds at par or better for the second time in 17 Tour starts (2010 Air Capital Classic and the 2013 El Bosque Mexico Championship).

Canada's Adam Hadwin fired rounds of 69-68 over the weekend and went from a tie for 60th at the start of the third round to a tie for fifth. This was Hadwin's third top-10 of the season, including a win at the Chile Classic.

Nine Mexico natives made the cut, which is a tournament record.

Andrew Putnam earned his first professional win when high wind in West Texas forced the cancellation of the final round. Putnam had completed only seven holes when officials halted play shortly after noon. He was leading by eight strokes at the time. Putnam had distanced himself from the field with an 8-under 64 in Saturday's third round and held a seven-stroke lead when play began.

Officials stopped play at 12:06 p.m., and officials elected to cancel the round at 4:26 p.m., the tournament shortened to 54 holes and the standings reverted back to the third round.

Andrew Putnam earned a check for $108,000 and pushed his season earnings to $248,273. He moved from No. 6 to No. 2 on the money list and assured himself a spot on the 2014-15 PGA TOUR.

Andrew Putnam's winning margin of seven strokes matched the sixth-largest in Tour history.

Andrew Putnam joined his older brother and three-time Tour champion, Michael Putnam in the winner's circle. They became only the second set of brothers to win in the Tour's history. Deane Pappas and Brenden Pappas both won twice during their Tour careers.

Purse: $600,000

Andrew Putnam's seven-stroke lead after 54 holes matched the second largest in Tour history. Steve Wheatcroft holds the record with an eight-shot margin. Putnam and three others have led by seven.

Richard S. Johnson's tie for second was his career-best in 40 Tour starts. His previous top showing was a solo-fifth effort at the 2005 Chitimacha Louisiana Open. It was also Johnson's best week since winning the 2008 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee on the PGA TOUR.

Sponsor pick Trevor Murphy, a first-round co-leader, tied for ninth and earned a spot in the field at the South Georgia Classic the following week. It was Murphy's first start on Tour since late in the 2012 season.

Tournament Record: 272 - Luke List (2012), Ted Potter, Jr. (2011) Current Course Record: 63 - Kinderlou Forest GC - Will Wilcox (2013)

Blayne Barber came from two shots off the pace to earn his first career win at the South Georgia Classic. Posted a 5-under 67 in the final round at Kinderlou Forest GC to overtake the leaders on the final day and win by two over Alex Prugh. Charged to a three-shot lead with five birdies in his first 11 holes but gave two back with a double bogey at No. 12. Rebounded with birdies at Nos. 14 and 16 to finish at 15-under 273.

Valdosta, GA

May 01-04

Blayne Barber was a bit of a hometown winner, having grown up in Lake City, Fla., about an hour away from Valdosta, Ga.

Blayne Barber picked up a check for $117,000, more than he had earned in his previous 16 career starts ($107,844) and moved from No. 29 to No. 6 on the money list.

Blayne Barber became the sixth first-time winner in eight events on Tour in 2014.

Blayne Barber charged into contention Saturday with a 6-under 30 on the back nine that moved him within two shots of the 54-hole leader Carlos Ortiz.

Third-round leader Carlos Ortiz failed to earn his third win of the season when he played the weekend with even-par rounds of 72-72. Still, his solo third-place effort was his second of the year, and along with his two wins, solidified his hold on the top spot on the money list. His total of $363,058 topped No. 2 Andrew Putnam by $103,735.

Purse: $650,000

Carlos Ortiz played the first 45 holes without a bogey.

Alex Prugh's second-place finish moved him from No. 84 to No. 12 on the money list.

Six of 12 Monday qualifiers made the 36-hole cut and three finished in the top-25 to earn starts in the BMW Charity Pro-Am. Rob Oppenheim (tied for fourth), Mike Miller (T14) and Kent Bulle (T19) will play in Greenville, S.C., in two weeks.

Newcomer Adam Webb of Ridgeway, Va., played in the final group Sunday with leader Carlos Ortiz. Webb's 1-over 73 dropped him into a tie-for-eighth finish. Webb was a sponsor pick for the tournament and was making his first career start on Tour. His top-25 finish earned him a spot in the next event, the BMW Charity Pro-Am, in two weeks.

Heavy rains plagued the tournament all week and wreaked havoc with the schedule. The first round did not finish until 12:45 p.m. Friday and the second round was completed at 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

Lift, clean and place conditions were in effect for all four rounds.

Max Homa fired a bogey-free 63 in the final round of the BMW Charity Pro-Am money list. and earned his first victory on the Web.com Tour.

Max Homa's first-place prize of $117,000 moved him from No. 64 to No. 9 on the money list at the time.

Max Homais the first player to win the BMW Charity Pro-Am on his first try since Steve Gotsche won a rain-shortened event in 1999.

Max Homa is the eighth player in tournament history to make this event their first career win. The last to do it was Mark Anderson, in 2013.

Jonathan Randolph's runner-up effort is his third top-three finish of the season. Randolph collected $70,200 and moved up four spots, to No. 7 on the money list.

Blayne Barber, winner of the South Georgia Classic two weeks earlier, pocketed $33,800 for his tie-for-third effort and inched up one spot, to No. 5 on the Jon Curran, a winner at the Brasil Champions earlier in the season, tied for third and moved up one place, to No. 4 on the money list.

Zach Sucher's solo sixth-place finish was his second top-10 of the season and helped him jump to No. 20 on the money list.

Brazil's Alex Rocha teamed with Adam Bryant to win the amateur portion of the pro-am event. The pair finished 43-under par and second overall to the team of Adam Hadwin and celebrity Wayne Gretzky.

Lift, clean and place conditions were in effect for all four rounds.

The BMW Charity Pro-Am was the second consecutive tournament to have all four rounds played under lift, clean and place conditions. The South Georgia Classic was also played under a similar setup.

Tournament Record: 265 - Chesson Hadley (2013) Current Course Record: 62 - TPC Wakefield Plantation - Andrew Putnam (2013), Scott Brown (2010), Rob Bradley (2003)

Tournament Course Record:

60 - Jimmy Green (1998) - Raleigh CC

Byron Smith carded a 5-under 66 in Sunday's final round and cruised to a fourshot victory at TPC Wakefield Plantation, his first career title. Smith began the final round in a three-way tie for first and gained some distance from the field with four birdies over five holes starting at No. 11.

Byron Smith earned his first win in his 45th career start on Tour. The victory was worth $112,500 and moved the 33-year-old Californian from No. 66 to No. 10 on the money list.

Byron Smith's four-shot win is the second-largest victory margin in tournament history, topped only by John Riegger's five-stroke win in the rain-shortened, 54-hole event in 2010.

Byron Smith became the 11th player in the 21-year history of the tournament to earn his first career win in Raleigh. He's also the third first-time champion in a row, joining James Hahn in 2012 and Chesson Hadley in 2013.

Byron Smith's 8-under 63 in Saturday's third round was one shy of Rob Bradley's course-record 62 set in the final round in 2003.

Purse: $625,000

Second-round leader Harold Varner III had a large group of fans following him during the week. Varner was raised in Gastonia, N.C., about 180 miles west of Raleigh. Varner attended East Carolina University.

Kevin Johnson, 47, posted a 7-under 64 Friday, the low score of the day. Johnson was making his competitive start since Web.com Tour qualifying school ended in mid-December.

Utah native Tony Finau earned his first career top-10 with a tie for fourth in Raleigh. Finau was also under the media spotlight during the week because Duke basketball standout Jabari Parker is his second cousin.

Tournament Record:

270 - Dawie van der Walt (2014), Steven Alker (2014)
Current Course Record:
62 - Lakewood Country Club - Mathew Goggin (2014)

Steven Alker rolled in a 3-foot birdie putt on the 11th extra hole to defeat Dawie van der Walt in the longest playoff in Web.com Tour history. Alker posted a 6-under 65 in the final round at Lakewood Country Club and took the clubhouse lead at 14-under 270 despite bogeys on his final two holes. Van der Walt countered with back-to-back birdies on the last two holes to force the playoff.

The 11-hole playoff topped the previous-longest extra session of nine holeswhich happened twice, at the 1998 Lehigh Valley Open and the 2009 Northeast Pennsylvania Classic. The playoff also matched the longest in PGA TOUR history. The 1949 Motor City Open ended after 11 holes when future World Golf Hall of Famers Cary Middlecoff and Lloyd Mangrum agreed to a tie because of darkness.

In the playoff, Steven Alker and Dawie van der Walt halved the first 10 holes with pars before Alker stuffed a 7-iron from 172 yards to just three feet and canned the putt for his fourth career win.

The win was worth $108,000 for Steven Alker, a 42-year old New Zealander who lives in the Phoenix area. He moved from No. 102 to No. 12 on the money list after 11 of 21 regular season events.

With his runner-up finish, Dawie van der Walt picked up a sizeable check that vaulted him from No. 114 to No. 22 on the money list.

The playoff win capped an extremely long week for Steven Alker, who ended up playing 137 holes. Alker began the week by finishing second in a 36-hole U.S. Open sectional qualifier in San Francisco Monday. After nine holes of practice both Tuesday and Wednesday, Alker then played 72 holes of regulation before adding 11 more in the playoff.

Purse: $600,000

Akron native and Ohio State grad Ryan Armour didn't disappoint a large gallery of family and friends with a tie for fourth.

Monday qualifier Si Woo Kim finished solo third. Kim, a conditional member of the Tour, had missed the cut in his first eight starts of the year and was forced to go through open qualifying in order to gain a spot in the field.

The end of the third round took a strange turn when the final twosome of Mathew Goggin and Jeff Curl each four-putted one of the final two holes. Goggin's misstep took place at No. 17 but still left him in a tie for the 54-hole lead. Curl's hiccup came on the final hole and dropped him from the outright lead into a tie-for-third place.

Justin Lower (first round) and Rob Oppenheim (second round) each aced the par-3, 16th hole.

Mathew Goggin set the Lakewood Country Club course record with a bogey-free, 9-under 62 in the second round.

In his professional debut, Sebastian Cappelen earned his first victory at the 25th playing of the Air Capital Classic, where he fired a 4-under-par 66 in the final round to win by one stroke over Matt Weibring. The $108,000 first-place prize moved Cappelen to No. 15 on the money list.

Sebastian Cappelen was the last man in the field after advancing through a three-hole playoff in the Monday qualifier.

Sebastian Cappelen is the second Monday qualifier to win the Air Capital Classic. Ben Crane won in 2000.

Sebastian Cappelen became the 14th player to win in his first start on Tour. The last was Ben Kohles at the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship in 2012. Matt Weibring's runner-up finish moved him to No. 33 on the money list, his best finish on Tour since the Mylan Classic in 2012 (tied for second).

Purse: $600,000

Matt Weibring posted four rounds in the 60s at a Web.com Tour event for the first time since the 2012 Albertson's Boise Open .

Ollie Schniederjans aced the par-3 eighth hole, with a 6-iron from 197 yards. Schniederjans posted 3-under 67 and tied for fifth, the highest finish by an amateur at this event.

 ${\rm Cory}$ Whitsett $\,$ made his professional debut in Wichita, carding a 5-under 275 for the week and a T38th finish.

The 18th hole was converted to a par-4 this year and played at 4.258 for the week.

Tournament Record:

277 - Joe Affrunti (2013), Ashley Hall (2013), Billy Hurley III (2013), Ben Martin (2013), David Lingmerth (2012), Peter Tomasulo (2012)

Current Course Record:

64 - Victoria National GC - Tony Finau (2014), Scott Harrington (2014)

England's Greg Owen came from seven strokes off the pace in the final round to earn his first career win. Owen overcame a triple bogey on the first hole and went on to post a 5-under 67 that gave him the clubhouse lead at 9-under 279. He then waited as a host of challengers collapsed down the stretch, giving Owen the one-stroke victory. Late in the day each member of the final three-some - Mark Hubbard, Tony Finau and Andres Echavarria - took turns taking the lead and then giving it away.

Greg Owen earned his first career win since capturing the European Tour's British Masters in June 2003. The victory was worth $108,000 and vaulted the 33-year old transplanted Floridian from No. 88 to No. 13 on the money list through 13 regular season events.

Greg Owen's 67 was the low round in the final round, which sported a scoring average more than two full strokes over par (74.054).

Greg Owen's win came at the age of 42 years, 4 months, 10 days.

Greg Owen became the Tour's 10th first-time winner in 13 events.

Greg Owen's total of 9-under par marked the first time in 2014 that the winning score was in single digits.

Ryan Armour's tie for second was his third straight top-five finish. Armour finished tied for fourth at the Cleveland Open and tied for fifth at the Air Capital Classic. His paycheck of $52,800 moved him up from No. 23 to No. 12 on the money list.

California rookie Mark Hubbard stood on the final tee tied for the lead with Greg Owen. Hubbard needed a birdie to win and a par-4 to force a playoff with Owen, who had completed play 75 minutes earlier but came up short on his second shot to the par-4 and then missed a 10-foot putt for par.

Mark Hubbard's T2 finish marked the sixth top-10 finish of his rookie season. Hubbard jumped nine spots on the money list to No. 11. The treacherous 18th hole ruined the title hopes of several players Sunday and during the week. The 432-yard, dogleg right produced a scoring average of 4.404, making it the third-toughest hole on Tour.

Purse: $600,000

Tony Finau fired a tournament course-record 8-under 64 in the second round, topping the mark of 65 first established by Omar Uresti in the opening round in 2012. Scott Harrington matched Finau's mark with his own 64 about 30 minutes later.

Tony Finau opened his round with consecutive eagles, the second of which was a hole-in-one. Finau became only the third player in Tour history to begin a round with consecutive eagles. Joey Rassett (1992 South Carolina Classic) and Steve Marino (2006 Price Cutter Charity Championship) are the only others to start a round in such fashion.

Tony Finau aced the 178-yard, 11th hole with a 6-iron. It was his 10th career ace but only his second in competition and the first in the tournament's three-year history.

Tony Finau's 135 total is the best opening 36-hole score in tournament history. Alistair Presnell was at 8-under 136 in 2012.

Ten of the 11 different tournament winners in 2014 were entered in Evansville but only two - Adam Hadwin/Chile Classic and Sebastian Capppelen/Air Capital Classic - made the cut.

Julio Vegas, younger brother of PGA TOUR winner Jhonattan Vegas, made his Tour debut in Evansville after gaining a spot in the field through the Monday qualifier. The former Texas Longhorn did not make the 36-hole cut.

Joel Dahmen, a two-time winner on PGA TOUR Canada this year, received a sponsor exemption into the field. Dahmen holds down the top spot on the Order of Merit and had collected his second win only a week earlier at the Syncrude Boreal Open in Alberta. Dahmen missed the 36-hole cut.

Tournament Record: 273 - Derek Fathauer (2014), Roger Sloan (2014) Current Course Record: 63 - Ashburn Golf Club - New Course - Jose de Jesus Rodriguez (2014)

Canada's Roger Sloan rolled in an 8-foot par putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Derek Fathauer to earn his first career win. The two were tied at 11under 273 following regulation play. Fathauer ran into trouble in the playoff when both his tee shot and second shot at the 469-yard, 18th hole landed in the trees down the right side. Fathauer missed his 25-foot par putt, while Sloan managed to two-putt from 40 feet for the win.

Roger Sloan collected a first-place check for $117,000, which moved him from No. 80 to No. 14 on the money list after 14 of 21 Regular Season events.

Roger Sloan became the third Canadian to win a Web.com Tour event in his home country. The others: Richard Zokol (2001 Samsung Canadian PGA Championship) and David Hearn (2004 Alberta Classic).

Roger Sloan joined countryman Adam Hadwin (Chile Classic) as Canadian winners in 2014. The only other time two Canadian-born players won events in the same year was 1991 when Jerry Anderson won the Texarkana Open and Rick Todd won the El Paso Open.

Roger Sloan also became the 11th first-time winner in the first 14 Tour events in 2014.

Derek Fathauer's runner-up finish was his career best in 64 total starts. Fathauer's payday of $70,200 vaulted him from No. 18 to No. 8 on the money list.

Purse: $650,000

Derek Fathauer posted a 6-under 29 on the front nine of Sunday's final round. It was the second time this year he has done that. The first 29 came in the second round of the Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship. The scores were similar in that each contained a run of five consecutive birdies on the same set of holes (Nos. 5-9).

Tropical Storm Arthur blew into the Halifax area early Saturday with sustained winds registering at more than 40 mph and gusts to 60 mph. The high wind canceled play. Sunday's 36 holes required that play begin at 6:30 a.m., in three-somes off the first and 10th. Officials did not re-pair players after the third round.

Sunday's 36-hole finish was the first on Tour since the 2005 Rex Hospital Open. Eric Axley posted a pair of 67s at TPC Wakefield Plantation that day to finish at 14-under par. Axley won by two over Troy Matteson.

Mexico's Jose de Jesus Rodriguez established the course record at the Ashburn Golf Club with an 8-under 63 in the opening round. Rodriguez had a pair of eagles during his round, including a hole-in-one at the par-3, fifth.

Course

262 - Steven Alker (2013), Ashley Hall (2013), J.J. Killeen (2011), Brendon Todd (2008) Current Course Record: 59 - Willow Creek CC - Will Wilcox (2013)

With his start-to-finish victory at the Utah Championship, Andres Gonzales became the only player in Web.com Tour history to go wire to wire to win two titles. Gonzales also led after every round of the 2012 Soboba Classic, his only other Tour win.

Andres Gonzales finished at 21-under, a stroke short of the tournament 72hole record originally set in 2008 by Brendon Todd and matched by J.J. Killeen (2011) and Steven Alker (2013).

Two Monday qualifiers made it to the weekend at the Utah Championship. Paul Peterson shot rounds of 65-71-68-71 and tied for 29th. Kevin Lucas opened with three rounds in the 60s (67-67-69) and fired a 1-over 72 Sunday to match Peterson and tie for 29th. The Utah Championship was the Web.com Tour debuts for both players, who each earned $3,823 for their efforts.

Six players established new career Web.com Tour lows: Travis Bertoni (63), Zac Blair (66), Adam Crawford (61), Andres Gonzales (62), Kevin Lucas (67) and Paul Peterson (65).

Purse: $625,000

Brett Stegmaier recorded only his second top-10 of the season. He tied for seventh but stumbled coming in, making back-to-back bogeys on Nos. 17 and 18.

Going back to last year, Will Wilcox, who shot a 59 in the final round of the 2013 Utah Championship, has made 15 consecutive Web.com Tour cuts. Utahn Tony Finau made his 11th consecutive cut with his fifth-place finish.

Aaron Goldberg, who had recorded seven consecutive rounds in the 60s at the Utah Championship, appeared ready to keep that streak going until he hit the back nine Sunday. After making the turn at 2-under for the day and 17-under overall, he parred the 10th hole then made four consecutive bogeys on his way to a back-nine, 4-over 40 and a 2-over 73. He tied for 11th.

Tournament Record:

260 - Steven Alker (2014), Steve Wheatcroft (2014) Current Course Record: 59 - Hillcrest CC - Russell Knox (2013)

Steve Wheatcroft earned his second career win by beating Steven Alker with a birdie on the second playoff hole at Hillcrest Country Club. Wheatcroft posted a 6-under 65 in the final round to reach 24-under par and join Alker in the fifth playoff in tournament history and the second in as many years.

Steve Wheatcroft rolled in a 10-foot birdie putt to earn the win. It was Wheatcroft's first career playoff appearance.

Steve Wheatcroft collected a check for $144,000 and moved from No. 89 to No. 11 on the money list after 16 of 21 regular season events.

Steve Wheatcroft is a perfect 7-for-7 in Boise. He has never missed a cut there and also finished T2 in 2012.

Steve Wheatcroft has posted par-or-better scores in 26 of the 28 rounds he has played at Hillcrest CC.

New Zealand's Steve Alker, who now lives in the Phoenix area, jumped 10 spots on the money list to No. 9.

This was Steve Alker's first playoff loss after three previous wins - 2002 Chititmacha Louisiana Open, 2013 Utah Championship, 2014 Cleveland Open.

Purse: $800,000

Rookie Justin Thomas' third-place finish was his fifth top-10 in 13 starts. Thomas also moved up four spots on the money list to No. 4.

Steven Alker's 20-under 193 total set a tournament record for the lowest 54hole score. He broke the old mark of 195 set by Michael Putnam in 2012 and Philip Pettitt in 2013.

Bill Lunde's ace on No. 13 propelled him to a second-round 61 and sole possession of the 36-hole lead. Lunde's 61 was a career-low.

Thursday's opening round was the easiest in 25 years at Hillcrest Country Club. The scoring average of 68.596 bettered the 69.026 record first-day mark set in 2013.

Zach Sucher had five birdies and an eagle in a six-hole stretch and went on to post an 11-under 60 in the first round. Sucher's score was the lowest opening round score in tournament history, and he became only the seventh player in Tour history to shoot 60 in the first round.

Tournament Record: 258 - James Nitties (2011) Current Course Record: 60 - Nicklaus GC at LionsGate - Tom Hoge (2014), Scott Dunlap (2011)

Zack Sucher needed only a 1-over-par 72 in Sunday's final round to win the Midwest Classic by three shots and collect his first career title. Sucher started the last day with a three-stroke lead over eventual runner-up Aaron Watkins and held his challengers at bay during most of the wind-swept afternoon. Sucher rallied late with three birdies in a four-hole stretch on the back nine and reestablished his lead.

Zach Sucher earned his first win in his 33rd career start. He collected a check for $108,000 and pushed his season total to $247,318, which moved him from No. 20 to No. 4 on the money list with only four events remaining on the regular season schedule.

With the win, Zach Sucher assured himself a berth on the PGA TOUR in 2014-15. He has made only one career start on TOUR - a missed cut at the 2009 John Deere Classic, where he played as an amateur on a sponsor exemption.

Zach Sucher became the 12th first-time winner in 17 Tour events this year.

Australia's Jarrod Lyle posted four scores in the 60's and finished T11 in his first competitive start in the United States in 29 months. Lyle is recovering from a second bout with leukemia and hoping to rejoin the PGA TOUR for the 2014-15 season starting in October.

Purse: $600,000

Jarrod Lyle led the tournament in greens in regulation and was tied for second in fairways hit.

Aaron Watkins, a graduate of Kansas State University, matched his career-best finish. He was also a playoff runner-up at the 2010 Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship.

Rookie Jonathan Randolph finished solo fourth, his fourth top-five finish of the year. Randolph moved up to No. 12 on the money list.

Veteran Bill Lunde's solo third-place finish was his third consecutive top-10 effort. He was tied for sixth at the Utah Championship and tied for seventh at the Albertsons Boise Open the previous week.

Tom Hoge tied the competitive course record with an 11-under-par 60 in the third round. Scott Dunlap also posted a 60 in the second round in 2011.

Tournament Record: 258 - Tony Finau (2014) Current Course Record: 60 - TPC Stonebrae - Fabian Gomez (2014)

Tony Finau used a combination of power and control and earned his first career win with a three-stroke victory. Finau fired a 4-under 66 on the final day to hold off and then pull away from several challengers. Finau blasted his way to the 54-hole lead with scores of 62-63 on the second and third days.

Tony Finau finished at 22-under par, breaking the tournament record of 20under set by Kevin Chappell in 2010.

Tony Finau's winning total of 258 tied the second-lowest 72-hole score in Tour history, topped only by Steve Wheatcroft's 255 (29-under) at the 2011 Melwood Prince George's County Open.

Zack Sucher continued his red-hot play, with a tie for second at TPC Stonebrae, the third consecutive week he posted a 19-under par score. Sucher tied for fourth at the Albertsons Boise Open two weeks earlier and won the Midwest Classic the previous week. He moved up one spot, to No. 4, on the money list.

Rookie Daniel Berger's tie for second was his best in 16 starts and gave him five top-10s to date. A payday of $44,800 also pushed his season total to $193,584 and bumped him to 13th on the money list, also assuring him a spot on the PGA TOUR for 2014-15.

Tony Finau collected a check for $108,000 and pushed his season total to $238,125. He moved from No. 24 to No. 8 on the money list with only three Regular Season events on the schedule. His performance has assured him a spot on the 2014-15 PGA TOUR.

Purse: $600,000

Tony Finau became the 13th first-time winner in 18 Tour events this season.

Monday gualifier Gregor Main fired a 6-under 29 on the final day en route to a 5-under 65. Main, who was born in Berkeley, tied for 11th in just his second Tour start and earned a berth in the Price Cutter Charity Championship the following week

Fabian Gomez set a course record with a 10-under-par 60 in the second round. Gomez opened with seven birdies and a front-nine 28. A birdie at No. 17 put him 10-under and needing a birdie on the final hole to break 60. Gomez's 25foot birdie putt for 59 ran out of steam as it neared the hole, and he settled for a tap-in par.

Fabian Gomez became the 22nd player in Tour history to post a score of 60 during tournament play and the third in as many weeks. Zack Sucher (Albertsons Boise Open) and Tom Hoge (Midwest Classic) also shot scores of 60.

Mike Springer, winner of the initial event on Tour, the 1990 Bakersfield Open, played in his first event in more than seven years. The 48-year old from Fresno posted scores of 76-73 but missed the 36-hole cut. Springer's last Web.com Tour start of any kind came at the 2007 Rex Hospital Open.

In the 25th playing of the Price Cutter Charity Championship presented by Dr Pepper, Cameron Percy birdied the 72nd hole to post 21-under 267, good for a one-stroke victory. Percy's first victory on the Web.com Tour came in his 131st start.

The $121,500 first-place prize moved Cameron Percy to No. 12 on the Regular Season money list, enough money to assure him of a return trip to the PGA TOUR for the 2014-15 season.

Cameron Percy's victory is the second at the Price Cutter Charity Championship by an Australian. Anthony Painter won this event in 1998 with the same total of 21-under 267.

Michael Kim arrived at the final hole 21-under par but dropped to 20-under because he was assessed a one-stroke penalty for lifting his ball in the rough.

The tie for second is Michael Kim's best finish on Tour and moved him to No. 46 on the money list.

Purse: $675,000

Carlos Sainz Jr. made a huge jump up the money list with his finish in Springfield. Coming into the Price Cutter Charity Championship, Sainz was No. 133 on the money list. The $44, 550 he earned jumped him to No. 68, with a chance of earning a place in the field for The Finals.

Zac Blair earned his best finish of the season, a tie for second. Blair, a BYU product, has moved up to No. 47 on the money list in just six weeks since making his debut at the Nova Scotia Open.

Tournament Record: 261 - Tim Conley (1993) Current Course Record: 62 - Fox Den CC - Bronson Burgoon (2014), Brad Schneider (2014), Scott Gardiner (2012)

Tournament Course Record:

62 - Tommy Tolles (1992) - Willow Creek GC

Martin Piller battled former Texas A&M University teammate Bronson Burgoon down the stretch at Fox Den Country Club Sunday. Burgoon fired a 62 to tie the course record for a 20-under-264 finish, however, Piller answered with a 63 to post a 22-under-262 score for the News Sentinel Open presented by Pilot win on its 25th anniversay.

The $99,000 first-place check moved Martin Piller from No. 134 to No. 29 earning him eligibility status for the Web.com Tour Finals.

There have been 54 events between Martin Piller's last victory and his win in Knoxville. Piller has won a total of three tournaments on Tour (2010 - Stadion Classic at UGA,Cox Classic; 2014 - News Sentinel Open).

Bronson Burgoon may have come up two-strokes shy of a playoff, but the $59,400 from his runner-up finish moves him up to No. 36 on the money list.

Purse: $550,000

Two-time News Sentinel Open champion Darron Stiles moved up to No. 54 on the money list with his solo-third performance.

Ryan Armour's fourth-place showing earned him enough money to lock up his PGA TOUR card. Armour moved to No. 19 with his check for $26,400.

Along with Bronson Burgoon, Brad Schneider recorded a 62 Sunday to tie the course record at Fox Den CC. Schneider finished T30.

Tournament Record: 270 - Carlos Ortiz (2014)

Current Course Record:

63 - Witch Hollow at Pumpkin Ridge - Adam Hadwin (2014), Colt Knost (2014), Carlos Ortiz (2014), Kent Bulle (2014), Matt Fast (2014)

Mexico's Carlos Ortiz capped off a record-setting regular season by winning the WinCo Foods Portland Open for his third win of the 2014 campaign. Ortiz shot an even-par 71 in the final round and finished at 14-under 270, one better than Jason Gore and Adam Hadwin. Ortiz, the 54-hole leader, opened the final day at Pumpkin Ridge with three birdies in his first five holes to increase his lead to four strokes. Though several challenged, none got closer than the final margin as Ortiz two-putted for par on seven of his final nine holes.

Carlos Ortiz's third win of the year earned him fully exempt status on the 2014-15 PGA TOUR. His victory came in his 16th start of the year and the 17th of his career

At the final Regular Season event there was only one change in the top-25 money winners. Sebastian Cappelen started the week at No. 25 but fell to 26th after he missed the cut. Kyle Reifers' tie for 21st in Oregon was enough to bump him from No. 27 to No. 25 and gave him the final PGA TOUR card available from the Regular Season. Carlos Ortiz became the 20th player in Tour history to win three times in a season. He is the first since Michael Sim in 2009.

Purse: $800,000

Carlos Ortiz became the 10th player in Tour history to earn an "instant promotion" to the PGA TOUR since the concept was first put into action in 1997.

Carlos Ortiz became the third consecutive international player, and the first from Mexico, to earn the instant promotion to the TOUR. He follows in line behind Australians Nick Flanagan (2007) and Michael Sim (2009) in the category.

Carlos Ortiz became the second-youngest player in Tour history to earn an instant promotion. His third win came at age 23 years, 4 months. Nick Flanagan was 23 years, 2 months, 6 days when he collected his third win of the 2007 season (Xerox Classic).

Carlos Ortiz collected a check for $180,000 and pushed his season total to $515,403, the third-highest in Tour history. Michael Sim is the Tour's singleseason leader, with $644,142 in 2009.

Bud Cauley collected his first win as a professional Sunday at the Hotel Fitness Championship, the first of four Web.com Tour Finals events. The 24-year-old from Jacksonville, Fla. fired a 7-under final-round 65 to grab the title from thirdround leader Colt Knost (68) by one shot.

Bud Cauley's victory was worth $180,000. In addition to moving him atop the Finals' priority ranking after the first event, the win ensured he would earn one of the 25 PGA TOUR cards available at the Finals.

When Colt Knost grabbed the 54-hole lead Saturday, it marked only the second time in his 77 career starts that he has held/shared the third-round lead. The other came at the 2008 Price Cutter Charity Championship when he led wire to wire.

Bud Cauley had similar success in 2013 at Sycamore Hills. He tied for fifth in the inaugural Hotel Fitness Championship and went on to finish 18th in the Finals Priority Rankings to regain his TOUR card.

Bud Cauley's 2014 season on the PGA TOUR was interrupted in July when he dislocated a shoulder at the John Deere Classic. The former University of Alabama star only played one PGA TOUR event between the John Deere and the Hotel Fitness Championship (Wyndham Championship/missed cut). He became eligible for the Finals when he finished 143rd in FedExCup points.

Fifteen players from the Web.com Tour's Regular Season top-25 money list made the cut. The most notable absence from the weekend was leading moneywinner and three-time champion Carlos Ortiz. The 23-year old from Mexico may have run out of gas after an emotional third win the previous week at the WinCo Foods Portland Open. Ortiz was in last place among those players who completed 36 holes.

Purse: $1,000,000

Bud Cauley earned his first win in only his ninth career start on the Web.com Tour. In his only other 2014 start, he finished tied for 29th at the El Bosque Mexico Championship.

Tony Finau birdied his final five holes in Thursday's opener and posted an 8under 28 on the front nine at Sycamore Hills. Finau became the fourth player on Tour to shoot 28 during the year but only the second to do it by being 8-under par (Jon Curran at the Brasil Champions).

Bud Cauley became the 15th first-time winner in 22 Web.com Tour events this year.

Bud Cauley didn't hit a lot of fairways (66.1 percent) during the week, but his work on the greens (tied for second in Total Putts) helped him overcome those numbers.

Runner-up Colt Knost ($108,000) and third-place finisher Greg Owen ($68,000) also earned enough money to assure them of return trips to the PGA TOUR for the 2014-15 season.

Canada's Adam Hadwin two-putted the final hole for the win at the Chiquita Classic. His 18-under-270 total earned him a two-stroke victory over John Peterson for his second victory of the season, the first coming at the Chile Classic.

Adam Hadwin earned $180,000 to tie Bud Cauley for the top spot on the Web.com Tour Finals' money list.

John Peterson's runner-up finish gave him two top-12 finishes in the 2014 Finals.

Adam Hadwin's triumph was the 21st victory by a Canadian-born player on the Web.com Tour. He also became the third Canadian winner this season.

Purse: $1,000,000

Tom Hoge's third-place effort earned him a PGA TOUR card for the 2014-15 season.

 $\mbox{Carlos Sainz Jr.}$ had a hole-in-one on the par-3 fourth hole. He used an 8-iron for the final-round ace.

Justin Thomas rolled in a three-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to beat Richard Sterne and claim his first professional win. The pair shared the 54-hole lead and matched 1-under-par 70s on the final day to finish at 6-under 278. Sterne, playing in the final twosome, held a three-stroke lead with four holes to go but stumbled into the playoff when he bogeyed three in a row starting at No. 15.

Justin Thomas picked up a check for $180,000 and moved to No. 3 on the Tour money list with only one event left on the schedule. He earned his victory at age 21 years, 4 months, 16 days. He became the fourth-youngest winner in Web.com Tour history, with only Jason Day, Patrick Cantlay and Danny Lee younger.

Richard Sterne, who played on the International team at the 2013 Presidents Cup, came into the week as the highest-ranked player in the field according to the Official World Golf Ranking. Sterne was No. 82 on the list.

Justin Thomas became the 15th first-time winner and the sixth rookie to win in 2014.

The victory completed an already impressive list of top-10 finishes for Justin Thomas, who was second in the El Bosque Mexico Championship, second at the Albertsons Boise Open, tied for fourth at the United Leasing Championship, tied for fifth at the Pacific Rubiales Colombia Championship and Chitimacha Louisiana Open and tied for sixth at the Price Cutter Charity Championship.

Regular season money leader Carlos Ortiz missed the cut and Chiquita Classic champion Adam Hadwin finished tied for 10th. Hadwin, No. 2 on the money list, closed the gap to just $15,736 on front-runner Ortiz.

Purse: $1,000,000

With his win, Justin Thomas also earned a sponsor exemption into the Memorial Tournament June 4-7, 2015 at Muirfield Village Golf Club.

Richard Sterne's runner-up finish was worth $108,000 and guaranteed him a spot on the 2014-15 PGA TOUR. Sterne has been a regular member of the European Tour since 2003.

After the tournament Richard Sterne headed home to South Africa to prepare for his next event, the Dunhill Links Championship in Scotland.

Derek Fathauer took the second-round lead for the second straight week. Fathauer also led after 36 holes at the Chiquita Classic.

Derek Fathauer matched the Scarlet Course record with his 8-under 63 in the opening round. Jonathan Kaye carded a 63 in 2010 to set the record and it was later matched by James Sacheck (2011) and Trevor Murphy (2012).

The Scarlet Course at the Ohio State University Golf Club turned out to be the toughest on Tour for the 2014 season. The four-day scoring average of 72.590 (+1.590) was the highest on Tour in relation to par. Also, the third-round scoring average of 73.754 (+2.754) was the highest in relation to par all year.

Derek Fathauer earned his first professional win in the biggest tournament of the year. Fathauer, the 54-hole leader, needed only a 2-under 68 on the final day to edge rookie Zac Blair for the title. Fathauer birdied two of his first three holes Sunday to increase his lead to three strokes over the field and then played even-par the rest of the way to finish at 14-under to beat Blair by one shot.

Derek Fathauer led by three strokes with three holes to play Sunday, but a bogey at No. 17, coupled with Zac Blair's birdie cut the margin to one. Both players missed lengthy birdie attempts on the final hole, and each tapped in for par.

Adam Hadwin tied for seventh and moved ahead of three-time winner Carlos Ortiz to capture the title in the season-long money list. Hadwin's check for $30,125 vaulted him over Ortiz and upped his season total to $529,792, the third-highest single-season total in Tour history.

Derek Fathauer picked up a check for $180,000 and upped his total in the four Finals' events to $250,133, which put him No. 1 on the Finals money list. That distinction earned him fully-exempt PGA TOUR status for the 2014-15 season as well as a sponsor exemption into THE PLAYERS Championship in May of 2015.

By virtue of winning the season money title, Adam Hadwin earned fully exempt status for the 2014-15 PGA TOUR as well as a sponsor exemption into THE PLAYERS Championship.

Tournament Results

Derek Fathauer tied for ninth, tied for 16th, tied for eighth and won in his four Finals' appearances.

Purse: $1,000,000

Derek Fathauer became the 17th first-time winner in 25 Web.com Tour events in 2014.

Zac Blair, a 24-year old rookie from Utah, collected a check for $108,000 and earned a PGA TOUR card for 2014-15. Blair started the season with conditional status and did not make a start until early July, at the Nova Scotia Open, where he tied for seventh. He then played the final 12 weeks in a row and wound up No. 11 on the Finals Priority Ranking.

Derek Fathauer became the fifth player in tournament history to make the Tour Championship his first career win. He is the first since Brendan Steele did it in 2010.

Six players played their way into the top 50 of the priority rankings with good finishes at the Web.com Tour Championship: Zac Blair (second), Heath Slocum (tied for fourth), Alex Prugh (tied for 14th), S.J. Park (tied for 11th), Chad Collins (tied for seventh) and Eric Axley (tied for 25th).

Eric Axley earned the final of 50 PGA TOUR cards handed out at the end of the week. Axley finished the Finals with $36,280 and beat Roberto Castro for the last spot by just $31.66.

Notes:

2) Prior to 2013, all Web.com Tour graduates earned their PGA TOUR card based on their final position on the season-long Web.com Tour money list. Beginning in 2013, graduates earned PGA TOUR cards via either the Regular Season money list (25 cards) or the four-event Web.com Tour Finals (25 cards).

¹⁾ There are 356 names listed above. Including repeat graduate years, 484 PGA TOUR cards have been awarded.
