Message to the Media

Tim Finchem
Commissioner

Greg McLaughlin
President
Champions Tour

Welcome to the 2016 season of PGA TOUR Champions. On behalf of our players, staff, tournaments and sponsors, we would like to thank the members of the media for the coverage you provide. We look forward to working with you in the year ahead.

Last year, Bernhard Langer captured the Charles Schwab Cup for the third time in his career. After being contested from 2001-2015, the Charles Schwab Cup, our season-long competition designed to recognize the Tour's leading player, has been revamped. In 2016, the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs, a three-tournament series featuring field reductions after each event, will be introduced at the end of the season to identify and recognize the leading player.

Our television partners will broadcast each event, with Golf Channel airing coverage of most tournaments. Three events will have network coverage, the U.S. Senior Open on FOX and the Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid and The Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex on NBC.

In 2016, we welcome PGA TOUR winners such as John Daly, Jose Maria Olazabal, Todd Hamilton, Bob Estes, Craig Parry, Billy Mayfair and Michael Bradley making the transition to the Tour to compete regularly with established stars like Bernhard Langer, Colin Montgomerie, Jay Haas, Kenny Perry and Fred Couples. Thirty-four members of PGA TOUR Champions are also members of the World Golf Hall of Fame, many of whom are still active on Tour.

Our players are committed to making each tournament week rewarding and enjoyable and they pride themselves on their accessibility and interaction with the media, sponsors and fans. That commitment also extends off the course, with many players and their spouses involved with charitable initiatives of their own - along with those charitable endeavors in the communities served by our tournaments each week.

The extensive charitable mission of the PGA TOUR, PGA TOUR Champions and Web.com Tour makes a significant impact in communities across the country and we appreciate your efforts in conveying to your readers and viewers how our tournaments continue to generate charitable contributions that touch the lives of so many people.

The digital version of the PGA TOUR Champions Media Guide can be accessed via www.pgatourmedia.com, along with more information, such as the media credential application process, for each specific event of the 2016 season.

We appreciate your continued support of PGA TOUR Champions. The Communications staff at PGA TOUR Headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, as well as our Communications staff on site at each tournament, are ready to assist you with your interview and informational requests. Enjoy the 2016 season.

About PGA TOUR Champions

PGA TOUR Champions has the most recognizable and accomplished players in the game, with many of its 34 members in the World Golf Hall of Fame competing regularly in its events. The Tour also counts numerous other major championship winners among its members. PGA TOUR Champions is where Legends play. PGA TOUR Champions is a membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older. Conceived in 1980 as the Senior PGA Tour, it started with just four events and purses totaling $475,000. PGA TOUR Champions primary purpose is to provide financial opportunities for its players, entertain and inspire its fans, deliver substantial value to its partners, create outlets for volunteers to give back, protect the integrity of the game and generate significant charitable and economic impact in communities in which it plays. Points earned in official Charles Schwab Cup events in 2015 determined Bernhard Langer as the Charles Schwab Cup champion. In 2016, the newly-introduced Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs will identify and recognize the Tour's leading player. The Commissioner of the PGA TOUR is Tim Finchem. Greg McLaughlin is President of PGA TOUR Champions. The PGA TOUR's website is pgatour.com, the No. 1 site in golf, and the organization is headquartered in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. Follow the PGA TOUR Champions at facebook.com/ChampionsTour and on Twitter @ChampionsTour.

History

1980 – 2015. PGA TOUR Champions enters its 37th season in 2016.

Charity

PGA TOUR Champions tournaments generate significant sums of money for charity. In 2015, tournaments on all six Tours (PGA TOUR, PGA TOUR Champions, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, Mackenzie TOUR-PGA TOUR Canada, PGA TOUR China) generated more than $140 million for local charitable organizations. The TOUR's all-time total of charitable contributions exceeds $2.14 billion. PGA TOUR Champions charitable mission is an integral component of its value proposition, and charitable donations have a significant impact in the communities served by PGA TOUR Champions events.

2016 Schedule

The tournament schedule for the 2016 season includes the inaugural Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs, a three-tournament, season-ending competition to determine the Charles Schwab Cup Champion. The 2016 schedule features 26 tournaments in 19 different states and three countries outside the United States with total prize money exceeding $55 million and an average purse of $2.1 million.

Two of three Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs events are new tournaments. The PowerShares QQQ Championship, to be held in the Los Angeles area on Oct. 24-30, and the Dominion Charity Classic, set for Richmond's Country Club of Virginia James River Course on Oct. 31-Nov. 6, will be played before the third and final Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs event.

The Charles Schwab Cup Championship, the traditional season-ending event at Desert Mountain Club in Scottsdale, Ariz. on Nov. 7-13, will identify the Charles Schwab Cup winner who will earn a $1 million bonus. The top five finishers will also receive bonus payouts.

A third new event, the American Family Insurance Championship, in Madison, Wis. on June 20-26, features a $2 million tournament to be played at University Ridge Golf Course. The tournament will be hosted by Steve Stricker, a Wisconsin native who will become eligible to compete on the Champions Tour in 2017. Notable changes to the 2016 schedule include the Dick's Sporting Goods Open moving from late August to early July to accommodate Olympic Games scheduling, and the return of the Pacific Links China Championship in Tianjin after its postponement in 2015. Additional to the three new tournaments in 2016, the existing Gwinnett County (Atlanta) event has been renamed the Mitsubishi Electric Classic to reflect its new title sponsor.

The first event of the 2016 season is the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai which begins January 18 and will have a unique Saturday finish on January 23. The defending champion is Spain's Miguel Angel Jimenez.

Major Championships (5)

The Regions Tradition will have Greystone Golf & Country Club in Birmingham, Ala. as a new venue in 2016, while the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS will be hosted by the Philadelphia Cricket Club. The Senior PGA Championship returns to The Golf Club at Harbor Shores in Benton Harbor, Mich., which previously hosted the tournament in 2012 and 2014. The Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex heads back to Carnoustie Golf Club in Scotland where, in 2010, Bernhard Langer defeated Corey Pavin by one stroke. The U.S. Senior Open Championship will be played at Scioto Country Club 30 years after Dale Douglass defeated Gary Player by one stroke at the prestigious Columbus, Ohio club to claim the national championship. The 2015 major championship winners are;

Regions Tradition, Jeff Maggert

Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid, Colin Montgomerie

Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, Bernhard Langer

U.S. Senior Open, Jeff Maggert

The Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex, Marco Dawson

Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs

Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs will comprise three tournaments, the PowerShares QQQ Championship (72 players), the Dominion Charity Classic (54 players) and the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (36 players). At the completion of the 2016 SAS Championship, the leading 72 players on the 2016 money list will advance to the first Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs event. 'Wildcard Weekend' at the SAS Championship allows for one player who finishes in the top 10, but finishes outside the top 72 on the season-long money list, to advance to the PowerShares QQQ Championship, where a points system will commence. Each player's current money total before the start of the PowerShares QQQ Championship will become the equivalent number of points (e.g. $330,000 equals 330,000 points). Double points will be earned by each player competing in each of the first two Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs events and added to the existing points earned through the SAS Championship (e.g. if a player has earned $250,000 through the SAS Championship, then earns $132,000 – or 264,000 points - at the PowerShares QQQ Championship, his total points will be 514,000 points). This points total is cumulative through the Dominion Charity Classic before a reset of the points takes place in advance of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The reset will be similar to the PGA TOUR's FedExCup Playoffs which allows the leading five players the opportunity to claim the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs trophy if they win the season-finale, but also mathematically allows for the 36th-ranked player to win, depending on his performance at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and the results of the remainder of the field.

Size of Field

In 2016, the field size for PGA TOUR Champions events will again be 81 players, except at those tournaments that have specific eligibility criteria.

Membership

PGA TOUR Champions members hail from around the globe. In 2016, 26 international players will have exempt status. Eighteen countries outside of the United States are represented; they include Argentina, Australia, Canada, Chinese Taipei, Fiji, France, Germany, Ireland, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand, Paraguay, Scotland, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Wales and Zimbabwe.

World Golf Hall of Fame Members

Mark O'Meara and David Graham, inductees in 2015, brings the total number of PGA TOUR Champions members in the Hall to 34, some of whom continue to actively compete: Isao Aoki, Seve Ballesteros, Deane Beman, Tommy Bolt, Julius Boros, Jack Burke, Jr., Billy Casper, Bob Charles, Fred Couples, Ben Crenshaw, Roberto De Vincenzo, Nick Faldo, Raymond Floyd, Doug Ford, Hubert Green, Hale Irwin, Tony Jacklin, Tom Kite, Bernhard Langer, Gene Littler, Sandy Lyle, Johnny Miller, Colin Montgomerie, Larry Nelson, Jack Nicklaus, Greg Norman, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Nick Price, Chi Chi Rodriguez, Paul Runyan, Charlie Sifford, Sam Snead, Curtis Strange, Peter Thomson, Lee Trevino, Lanny Wadkins and Tom Watson.

Fan Features

PGA TOUR Champions Fan Features are designed to give the Tour a distinct identity, complementing the high level of skill displayed by its members. PGA TOUR Champions strives to be the most approachable, accessible and fan-friendly arena in all of sports. The program has had significant impact as evidenced by the positive feedback received weekly from tournament organizers, sponsors and fans, with players going out of their way to support the initiatives. Fan Features include live television interviews during play, gallery in the fairway, honorary observers walking inside the ropes, caddie for a day, behind-the-scenes tours, junior clinics, a game-improvement platform, and more.

TV

Each event will be televised nationally in the United States, with most receiving complete coverage on Golf Channel, the Tour's exclusive cable-television partner that reaches some 78 million homes in the United States. Three events will have network coverage on the weekend (NBC: Senior PGA Championship presented by KitchenAid, The Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex; FOX: Senior U.S. Open Championship).

International TV

PGA TOUR Champions telecasts are distributed internationally in Canada, Europe, Africa, the Middle East, Asia, Australasia and Latin America through various distribution partners. The events air live, tape-delayed or in a highlights-package format in excess of 206 countries and territories, reaching more than 145 million households.

Awards

PGA TOUR Champions presents the following awards annually:

- Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs
- PGA TOUR Champions Player of the Year/Jack Nicklaus Award
- PGA TOUR Champions Rookie of the Year
- Arnold Palmer Award (leading money winner)
- Byron Nelson Award (scoring leader)
- "Bruno" Award (contributions to PGA TOUR Champions)
- PGA TOUR Champions Charity of the Year
- PGA TOUR Champions Volunteer of the Year

PGA TOUR Champions also recognizes Player of the Month (January through November).

“Rookies”

For players to become eligible to compete for PGA TOUR Champions events they must turn 50 years of age by the first competition round. If a player plays less than six tournaments in his first season of eligibility he is considered a rookie the following season.

Newcomers for 2016 with one or more PGA TOUR wins include Todd Hamilton (2 wins/October 18, 1965), Mike Springer (2 wins/November 3, 1965), Glen Day (1 win/October 16, 1965), Craig Parry (2 wins/January 12, 1966), Bob Estes (4 wins/February 2, 1966), Jose Maria Olazabal (6 wins/February 5, 1966), John Daly (5 wins/April 28, 1966), Michael Bradley (4 wins/July 17, 1966), Billy Mayfair (5 wins/August 6, 1966), Tim Petrovic (1win/August 16, 1966) and Ian Leggatt (1 win/September 23, 1966). Players advancing from the 2015 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament who are considered rookies include Brandt Jobe, Mike Grob, Gibby Gilbert III, Jean-Francois Remesy and Miguel Angel Martin.

Additional “rookie” prospects becoming eligible in the near future include:

Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs

Overview

From 2001 until 2015, the Charles Schwab Cup was a gold trophy awarded at the conclusion of each Champions Tour season to the player who finished at the top of a season-long points-based competition. The competition rewarded both consistency and top-10 finishes at all official Champions Tour events. Double points were awarded for top-10 finishes in major championships. Double points were also awarded to all 30 competitors at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

In 2016, the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs, a three-tournament season-ending competition, were introduced.

At the completion of the 2016 SAS Championship (Oct. 10-16), the leading 72 players on the money list will advance to the first Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs event, the PowerShares QQQ Championship. The introduction of 'Wildcard Weekend' at the SAS Championship allows for one player who finishes in the top 10 on the week, but finishes outside the top 72 on the season-long money list, to advance to the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs.

The second Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs event, the Dominion Charity Classic, will feature the top 54 players who advanced from the PowerShares QQQ Championship. The Charles Schwab Cup Championship will then feature the leading 36 players who will compete for a new Charles Schwab Cup trophy, designed by Tiffany & Co.

Prize Money

$2.1-million annuity to the top-five point earners at season's end.

Payouts

1st	$1 million
2nd	$500,000
3rd	$300,000
4th	$200,000
5th	$100,000

Points Distribution

A points system will commence starting with the PowerShares QQQ Championship. Each player's current money total before the start of the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs will become the equivalent number of points ($330,000 equals 330,000 points). Double points will be earned by each player competing in each of the first two Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs events and added to the existing points earned through the SAS Championship (if a player has earned $250,000 through the SAS Championship, then earns $132,000 – or 264,000 points - at the first Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs event, his total points will be 514,000 points). This points total is cumulative through the second Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs event before a reset of the points takes place in advance of the third and final Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs event.

The reset will be similar to the PGA TOUR's FedExCup Playoffs which allows the leading five players the opportunity to claim the Charles Schwab Cup if they win the season-finale, but also mathematically allows for the 36th-ranked player to win, depending on his performance at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and the results of the remainder of the field. Previously, the leading 30 players on the money list had advanced to the season's final event.

Website Information and updates are available throughout the year on PGATOUR.COM.

2015 Charles Schwab Cup Recap

The season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship at Desert Mountain Club's Cochise Course in Scottsdale, Ariz., brought together the best of the Champions Tour, with the top-30 players on the 2015 money list earning their way to the Championship.

The $2.5-million tournament decided not only that week's champion, but it was also the culmination of the season-long points race to determine the Charles Schwab Cup.

During the year, a record seven different players held the lead in the Charles Schwab Cup points standings. The previous best was six different players in 2003. Two players - Jeff Maggert and Colin Montgomerie - were actually tied for the lead following the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. That was a first in the 15-year existence of the Charles Schwab Cup.

Three players arrived at the season finale in Scottsdale separated by just 66 points. Montgomerie, the 2015 Senior PGA champion who had been a model of consistency during the season, was just 39 points ahead of Maggert. The Regions Tradition and the U.S. Senior Open Championship, both worth double points as major championship, were two of Maggert's four wins in 2015. Lurking just 66 points behind Montgomerie was Bernhard Langer, a two time winner of the Charles Schwab Cup in 2010 and 2014. Langer had defended his Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship title and also claimed the San Antonio Championship just two weeks before the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship to jump into contention near the finish in the season-long points race for the Charles Schwab Cup.

When Langer dominated the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship from the beginning, opening with a 7-under 63 at Desert Mountain, he had a comfortable lead over Montgomerie (70) and Maggert (72) and never relinquished it. On Sunday evening, Langer found himself tied for the lead with Billy Andrade, who closed with a 6-under 64, and the pair headed to a playoff. Andrade prevailed with a birdie on the first extra hole to win his third title of the season and jump from No. 8 to No. 4 on the standings and earn a $200,000 bonus. However, it was Langer who earned the big prize.

"He's 58 and he's still the best that we have and he's a very dedicated player," Andrade said of Langer. "I just look up to him. He's a Hall of Famer. He's a classy man, and I'm just honored to be competing against him."

Langer became the first player to win the Charles Schwab Cup for a third time and was awarded the $1-million annuity that goes with the season-long Charles Schwab Cup trophy. Montgomerie was awarded $500,000, while Maggert ($300,000), Andrade ($200,000) and Joe Durant ($100,000) also earned bonus money.

"I don't know what keeps me strong," said Langer. "I take care of myself to some extent. But it takes more than that. There are guys on this Tour that are much fitter than me, and they don't perform quite to the level that I've performed the last few years."

Langer's 3,520 points total for the year earned a 338-point margin of victory, and he now leads the all-time Charles Schwab Cup points list with 22,480 points, almost 3,000 more than Tom Watson who is second on the list with 19,446 points. Langer has accumulated $4,500,000 in bonus money while competing for the Cup.

Langer's two wins in 2015 moved him into a tie for third with Gil Morgan on the all-time Champions Tour victory list, four behind second-place Lee Trevino. Langer will be ready for the 2016 season when the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs replace the existing format.

"It's going to get harder and harder as the years go by, as I get older and younger guys come up, but there's always exceptions," said Langer. "The Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs will create an exciting climax to next season. I'd like to win the trophy again to usher in the Playoffs era. There are always guys who stand out like Hale Irwin and Tom Watson and a couple of others, and hopefully I'll be one of those."

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Streak of years with at least one victory snapped at three and turned in his best efforts of the campaign at the beginning and end of the season...Was the 54-hole leader at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and battled Bernhard Langer and eventual-winner Billy Andrade down the stretch before eventually finishing third overall, two shy of the playoff. A pair of bogeys on the back nine proved his undoing, including one at No. 17...In early February, T3 in defense of his Allianz Championship title, the best performance by a defending champion in event history. Made two eagles and 14 birdies during the week to earn $20,000 for the Moaberry Family Foundation. Money went to Boca Regional Medical Center's Toppel Family Place Neonatal Intensive Care Unit...Performed well in 2015 in the state of Texas...In October, was T3 in defense of his San Antonio Championship title after sharing the 36-hole lead at TPC San Antonio with Scott McCarron...In May, was the 36-hole leader at the Insperity Invitational but an even-par 72 in the final round left him T4, one stroke out of a playoff...Continued to master Shoal Creek at the Regions Tradition. Finished T5 in May in Birmingham for his fifth consecutive top-10 finish. It was also his sixth consecutive top-10 in the event. Rebounded from a 2-over-par 74 Saturday with a bogey-free, 4-under-par 68 Sunday...Three rounds in the 60s led to a T5 in Calgary at the Shaw Charity Classic...Was briefly in contention in the final round at the Boeing Classic before closing with a 2-over-par back nine to finish T9...Was also ninth at The ACE Group Classic in Naples.

PERSONAL:

Planned to be a stockbroker before turning to golf...Won the 2003 Southern Arizona Open with his daughter Christy serving as his caddie...As a 14-year-old he and a friend hiked the Pacific Crest Trail from Lake Tahoe to Yosemite National Park, a distance of 210 miles. The trip took the pair three weeks...Gave up golf in 1996 and invested in the construction of speculation homes at Troon North in Scottsdale...Credits teacher Mike Mitchell with rebuilding his golf swing and making him a better player.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made 18 starts and was only out of the top 20 in one tournament in the last three months. Made a late push to secure a spot into the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship which featured the top-30 money winners on the year...At the Toshiba Classic, the last full-field event of the year, a three-putt bogey on his final hole appeared to have ended his chances, however, moments later his misfortune changed when Rod Spittle, who needed a par to claim the 30th spot, also made bogey to end his chances and help Ames secure a berth in the Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Both players T9 at the Newport Beach CC...Enjoyed a successful return to his former hometown in August when he T5 at the Shaw Charity Classic in Calgary...Was T4 at the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett Championship. After shooting 70 in the opening round at TPC Sugarloaf, moved up into the top 10 with a 67 Saturday...Made eagle on the last hole to jump into an eventual T7 at the 3M Championship. Was bogey-free for the last 27 holes at TPC Twin Cities shooting 65-68 on the weekend...At the season-ending event, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, was among the leaders after 54 holes before eventually finishing T6 in Scottsdale on the strength of four straight rounds in the 60s...Used 69s in both the first and final rounds to T9 at the Insuperity Invitational...Rebounded from a second-round 74 with a 6-under-par 66 in his final round to T9 at the Boeing Classic...Competed at the PGA TOUR's Puerto Rico Open in March, finishing T47.

PERSONAL:

Both parents were born in Trinidad and Tobago (father of English ancestry, mother of Portuguese)...He is the first touring professional to emerge from Trinidad and Tobago...Grandmother was a two-time Trinidad and Tobago champion...Was a torch bearer for the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver...Part owner of several restaurants in Calgary, Alberta, including the Vintage Chophouse and Tavern...Started the Stephen Ames Foundation in 2005 to provide funding for junior golf programs and other children's initiatives in Canada and Trinidad and Tobago...Played a role in helping the Champions Tour's Shaw Charity Classic come together in 2013 in Calgary. ## CHAMPIONS TOUR VICTORIES (3):

2015 Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge. 2015 Boeing Classic. 2015 Charles Schwab Cup Championship

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (4):

1991 Kemper Open. 1991 Buick Classic. 1998 Bell Canadian Open. 2000 Invensys Classic at Las Vegas

BEST 2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1-Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge. 1-Boeing Classic. P1-Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished fourth in the final Charles Schwab Cup standings after registering three victories and seven top-10s overall...Posted the signature win of his Champions Tour career when he claimed the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship in November in a one-hole playoff over Bernhard Langer in Scottsdale. Started the final round four shy of 54-hole leader Michael Allen but closed with a 6-under-par 64 to post a 72-hole total of 14-under-par 266. Moments later, leading by one stroke, he watched as Langer's eagle putt for the win on 18 lip out. He would follow with a birdie to send it to a playoff, but Andrade two-putted from 25-feet for a birdie and his third win of the campaign. Had one of the highlights of the tournament in the opening round when he aced the second hole with a 6-iron from 190. It was his first Champions Tour hole-in-one. He also had two on the PGA TOUR...In late August, he became the third of four multiple winners on the 2015 Champions Tour when he prevailed by one stroke over Langer at the Boeing Classic. Started the final round three in front of the field, but struggled on the front nine, including a triple bogey on No. 4 and a bogey on No. 7, but he would play mistake-free over his final 11 holes to shoot 73 and win his first stroke-play victory in a TOUR-sponsored event since 2000, a span of 283 starts on the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour. His 1-over final round was the highest finish by a winner on the Champions Tour in 2015...In late April, he and teammate Joe Durant used a blistering 9-under-par 45 on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course Sunday at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf, and the pair went on for a three-stroke victory. It was the first Champions Tour victory for both players, marking the first time in that event that both players earned their first career wins on Tour...Posted the low round of the U.S. Senior Open Sunday when he closed with a bogey-free 7-under-par 63, which tied him with four others for the second lowest round in U.S. Open history and led to a T5 finish in Sacramento...After getting a putting tip from his wife, closed with rounds of 66-69 at Belmont CC to T7 at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS...Was also T7 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, thanks to three straight sub-par rounds at Fallen Oak.

PERSONAL:

Along with Brad Faxon, runs Billy Andrade/Brad Faxon Charities for Children, Inc., which has raised more than $15 million for children in Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts, largely through the CVS Caremark Charity Classic the duo co-host at Rhode Island CC each summer...Also co-hosts the East Lake Invitational with Stewart Cink, raising more than $1.2 million for the East Lake Foundation since the event's inception...In 1999, the Golf Writers Association of America honored the duo with the Charlie Bartlett Award, given to playing professionals for their unselfish contributions to society...Inducted into the Wake Forest Hall of Fame in 2004...Has done some television work for Golf Channel in the past.

1—Greater Gwinnett Championship.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had his best season on the Champions Tour since the 2011 campaign, highlighted by his first victory in over 3½ years along with six other top-10 finishes, equaling the total number he's had in the last two years combined...Had four top-10s in his first six starts punctuated by a win at the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett Championship near Atlanta, his second career victory on the Champions Tour. His six-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole Saturday proved to be the difference over Bernhard Langer as heavy rain wiped out the final round at TPC Sugarloaf. Victory ended a drought of 3 years, 8 months, 18 days since his initial Champions Tour triumph, at the 2011 U.S. Senior Open, and temporarily moved him into the lead in the Charles Schwab Cup race. He became the first player to win a rain-shortened event since Brad Faxon at the 2011 Insperity Championship...At the season opener, was just two strokes off the lead after 36 holes at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Closed with a 3-under-par 69 to T5. Was just one of four players in the field to post three rounds in the 60s...Was just one stroke off the pace after 36 holes at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach following a second-round, 6-under-par 65 at Poppy Hills which matched the competitive course record. However, closed with a 1-over-par 73 at Pebble Beach Sunday to T6...Bettered par all three days on his way to a T7 finish at The ACE Group Classic...Final-round 69 at the San Antonio Championship moved him up into a T7 finish...T9 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic after posting three consecutive par-or-better scores at Fallen Oak...Was on the leaderboard after both the first and second rounds of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and eventually finished T9 in the year's final event.

PERSONAL:

After winning the 1993 Monterrey Open in Mexico, gave victory speech in Spanish. Knows language because of his father's Chilean heritage...Did not start playing golf until he was 19. Got hooked on game while attending Occidental College in Los Angeles...Son, Olin, Jr., played golf at Pepperdine for John Geiberger, son of former PGA TOUR and Champions Tour player Al Geiberger, and was a conditional member of the 2014 Web.com Tour...His favorite team growing up was the Washington Redskins. Favorite players were quarterback Sonny Jurgensen and wide receiver Charlie Taylor...Enjoys watching "NCIS" and football on TV and says his favorite all-time movies are "My Cousin Vinny" and "Raiders of the Lost Ark"...Follows tennis and is a fan of Rafael Nadal and Novak Djokovic...Says his favorite meal is fresh-caught snapper—blackened...Says his most memorable shot was his 30-foot putt on the final hole at the 2011 U.S. Senior Open...One course he's never played that he'd love to play is St. Andrews...First concert he attended was Peter Frampton and Yes at RFK Stadium in Washington...Enjoys getting involved with any charity that supports our military...Enjoys Jimmy Buffett and Stevie Ray Vaughan...Bucket list includes diving with great white sharks.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(1): 1988 Florida Open.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Among the Champions Tour's top-25 money-winners for the third consecutive season and had a pair of second-place finishes in consecutive events early in the year...Suffered a disappointing loss in mid-February when he fell to Lee Janzen in a one-hole playoff at The ACE Group Classic. Matched the tournament course record with a 10-under-par 62 at TwinEagles in the final round and was the clubhouse leader at 16-under par. However, Janzen, playing two groups behind, matched his 16-under with a birdie at No. 18 and then two-putted for par on the first playoff hole after Bryant's second shot went in the water, thus ending his chances...Made another bid for a victory in his next start at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March. Trailing Marco Dawson by just one stroke after 36 holes but closing round of 2-under-par 70 left him two strokes short Sunday. Turning point came on the 16th hole when he made bogey while his playing partner, Dawson, made an 18-footer for birdie for a two-stroke margin. Second-place finish was his fourth straight top-10, and it also allowed him simultaneously to take the lead in the Charles Schwab Cup and move atop the money list...Shared the first-round lead at the Encompass Championship and was in contention midway through the final round, but 1-over 37 on back nine dropped him into T4 at North Shore CC with Woody Austin. Made two eagles in opening-round 69...Three consecutive rounds in the 60s led to a T9 at the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai...Was T9 again at the Allianz Championship. Shared the 36-hole lead in the event, thanks to a double eagle on the 18th hole Saturday (6-iron from 195 yards). The albatross was ESPN SportsCenter's "Play of the Day" and was the 35th double eagle in Champions Tour history, the first since Keith Fergus' at the 2010 SAS Championship...Named the Champions Tour Player of the Month for January/February.

PERSONAL:

Older brother Brad is also a member of the Champions Tour, and they are one of only 12 winning brother combinations in PGA TOUR history...Suffered a left-wrist injury near the end of the 2009 season and a pair of subsequent surgeries kept him out of action for almost three years, returned to the PGA TOUR midway through the 2012 season...Prior to that, 2003 season was cut short due to elbow surgery...In 2001, missed the first half of the PGA TOUR season due to rehabilitation from elbow surgery that occurred in December, 2000. Also underwent rotator cuff surgery in 1992...Some of his favorite TV shows are "Everybody Loves Raymond" and "Grimm"...Also enjoys watching football as well as some basketball...Enjoys 70's rock and contemporary Christian music...His favorite team as a kid was the Dallas Cowboys and favorite player was Roger Staubach...Would love to trade places for a day with anyone who "hits it over 320 yards," just to feel what it's like to hit one long drive...His favorite meal is country fried steak, mashed potatoes, fried okra, mac-n-cheese made by his mom...His all-time favorite movies include "Braveheart," "For Love of the Game" and "Father of the Bride"...His most memorable vacation was going to New York City with his wife for their 25th wedding anniversary...Would most like to sit down for a discussion with Abraham Lincoln...Drives an Acura MDX and a Harley Davidson Ultra Classic Limited...Most memorable shot was his putt on No. 18 to win the Memorial Tournament...Supports the House of Hope, CRU and his local church...Enjoys taking road trips on his Harley when not playing golf...His bucket list includes taking his motorcycle from Orlando to Alaska and back as well as winning a major championship.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Regained fully exempt status for the 2016 season after T2 at the 2015 PGA TOUR Champions National Qualifying Tournament in early December. Was tied with Brandt Jobe with one hole to play but a bogey on the final hole, his first in 40 holes, dropped him into a runner-up spot with Tom Byrum and Willie Wood. Made a double-eagle in the second round at TPC Scottsdale and then used a 7-under 64 in the third round on the Champions Course to jump into contention...Was T6 at the Allianz Championship after posting a career-best score, a 9-under 63 on the final day. Round set a new tournament mark for lowest Sunday score and moved him from a Saturday T45. Finish in Boca Raton was his career-best Champions Tour effort...Equaled the low Sunday round with a 68 at Fallen Oak to move into a T9 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic...Shared the first-round lead at The Principal Charity Classic with Billy Andrade before eventually finishing T22.

PERSONAL:

Voted highest sporting award, The Olympian, in native Argentina in 2002, only the third golfer to receive the award...One of 11 children. An ex-caddie who taught himself the game. Took control of his family's finances after father died in motor accident. Used to sleep five or six to a bed in family's two-bedroom home. Four brothers also are professionals. Took up game when one brother cut branches off trees and fashioned golf club. Started playing by hitting rocks...Makes it a point to walk to a religious shrine near his hometown after every victory.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had just four top-10 finishes in 2015, the fewest he's had in a season on the Champions Tour with all four coming in the first half of the year...Recorded a third-place finish at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship after stringing together four rounds of par or better at Belmont CC. Effort near Boston was his best Champions Tour finish since same standing in this event at Fox Chapel GC almost a year earlier...Finished T5 with partner Roger Chapman at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April...In March, closed with a 4-under-par 68 to T6 at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic...Also T9 at the Insuperity Invitational, thanks to a 69 Sunday at Woodlands CC, outside Houston.

PERSONAL:

Avid University of Kentucky basketball fan...Started playing with ladies' golf clubs because he couldn't find any other left-handed clubs...Son Ryan scored a hole-in-one at age 6, one of youngest ever to record an ace. Ryan shot 67 in Monday qualifier for 1998 FedEx St. Jude Classic, missing a playoff for final tournament spot by one stroke...Youngest son, Case, played golf at Texas A&M...Middle son, Reed, is a student at the University of Kentucky Law School...Enjoys the TV show "The Mentalist"...First job he had was mowing lawns...His favorite meal is barbecue and cornbread...One talent he'd most love to have is to be able to sing...Favorite athlete in another sport is Drew Brees of the New Orleans Saints...Also enjoys any Clint Eastwood Western...One course he'd love to play is Old Head GL in Ireland...Says his most memorable shot was his 35-foot birdie putt at No. 16 at Cog Hill during the Western Open in 1991...His bucket list includes attending tennis' U.S. Open and traveling to South America.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made 11 starts on the Champions Tour for the third time in four years and saw his streak of seasons with at least one victory end at five...Finished third in his first start of the year, at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. After posting an even-par 72, came back with weekend rounds of 64-66...In late-August, had a nice showing near his former hometown in Seattle when he T3 at the Boeing Classic after an eagle on his 54th hole at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge...Experienced recurring back issues for most of the first half of the season and, after playing in the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic in late March, did not return to the Champions Tour until the Encompass Championship in early July. In his first Tour start since the Masters, was T10 at North Shore CC...Two weeks later, was on the leaderboard throughout The Senior Open Championship before eventually finishing T5 at Sunningdale...Briefly tied for the lead in the final round at the Shaw Charity Classic after birdies on four of his first six holes. Bogeys on Nos. 8 and 9 were his undoing, and he eventually T5 in defense of his 2014 title...In the final full-field event of the year, finished T5 in defense of his Toshiba Classic title which was his sixth top-10 finish in as many starts at the event including a pair of wins in 2010 and 2014...Was T6 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach and also finished second with his partner Nickolas Martinez in the pro-junior competition at the event...Closed his season with a T9 effort at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship...Made his 33rd start at the PGA TOUR's Northern Trust Open but missed the cut by one stroke after rounds of 71-75 at Riviera CC...Also made his 31st appearance at the Masters and missed the cut for just the third time in his career.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Experienced a breakthrough season on the Champions Tour in 2015 and was one of just four players with multiple titles on the season...Earned the signature win of his professional career in July when he won The Senior Open Championship at Sunningdale GC near London. Emerged from a crowded leaderboard, which featured the likes of Bernhard Langer, Colin Montgomerie, Fred Couples and Miguel Angel Jimenez to claim his first major title. Led or shared the lead after the first three rounds and drained a 22-foot birdie putt moments before Langer's birdie putt would have sent the proceedings into a playoff. He made a crucial eagle on the 14th hole to take the lead and never relinquished it. A six-hole stretch was the turning point Sunday. Made an eagle at the par-4 ninth, birdies on Nos. 11 and 12 and another eagle at No. 14 which helped him make up five strokes in that stretch. Earned a career-best check for $319,090 as well as a berth in the 2016 Open Championship at Royal Troon...Won his initial victory on the Champions Tour in March when he was a two-stroke victor at the inaugural Tucson Conquistadores Classic. Made a key 18-foot birdie putt on No. 16 that gave him a two-shot lead over Bart Bryant, who eventually finished second. His three rounds in the 60s helped him end a victory drought of 12 years, 7 months, 11 days, since his first title on the Web.com Tour near Chicago. Win came in his 286th start and represented a second consecutive victory by a former Florida Southern College product. Lee Janzen, a college teammate, won the previous Champions Tour event at The ACE Group Classic...Followed his Senior Open Championship victory with a solo fifth-place showing at the 3M Championship. Despite posting three-straight rounds in the 60s at TPC Twin Cities, finished five strokes behind Kenny Perry...Shot 68 on the last day of the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS to T7 at Belmont CC...Was also T7 at The ACE Group Classic, thanks, in part, to a 5-under-par 67 in the closing round in Naples...Shot the lowest final-round score of the field, a 4-under 68, that jumped him up 24 spots into a T9 at the Senior PGA Championship.

PERSONAL:

Took up golf at age 9 after his family moved to Coral Springs, Fla., and lived adjacent to a course...Enjoys listening to classical, world and instrumental music...Would love to try Navy Seals training one day...Favorite athlete is Muhammad Ali...First job was a range picker using a VW Beetle...First concert he attended was The Cars...Most memorable shot was hitting a left-handed 6-iron (upside down) from 120 yards to 10 feet from the pin.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Among the top-10 finishers a total of 10 times in 22 appearances, and season was highlighted by a pair of runner-up performances...In early August, was in contention throughout the 3M Championship and eventually T2 at TPC Twin Cities, his best Champions Tour effort since finishing second at the 2014 Quebec City Championship. Opening-round 67 included a run of seven consecutive birdies (Nos. 17-5), matching the tournament record and one shy of the Champions Tour's all-time record...In October, was in the mix again midway through the San Antonio Championship before finishing second, three strokes behind Bernhard Langer. Was tied with Langer until a three-putt bogey at the 16th hole just moments before Langer birdied the 15th to open a two-stroke cushion. Runner-up check pushed his single-season earnings over the $1-million mark for a second straight year on the Champions Tour...Closed with a 6-under-par 64, matching his best closing-round score on Tour, to T3 at the Shaw Charity Classic...Posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s at The ACE Group Classic, with just one bogey over his 54 holes to finish fourth in Naples...Was also T7 at the U.S. Senior Open when he had rounds of 68-69 on the weekend at Del Paso CC...Used rounds of 68-68 on the weekend to T8 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open...Shot the low round of the tournament, a 7-under 65 Saturday, at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic to T9 near Biloxi...Repeated his feat in Mississippi, one month later outside Houston, shooting the low round of the event, a 7-under 65 Saturday, to eventually T9 at the Insperity Invitational...Was also T9 at the SAS Championship in October.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Was one of six players to lead Charles Schwab Cup standings during season and eventually finished fifth in the final standings...Was voted as the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for April...Teamed with Billy Andrade for a three-stroke victory at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf. His hole-in-one on No. 12 with a 7-iron from 166 yards was the turning point as the pair went on to post an impressive 9-under-par 45 on the par-3 Top of the Rock Course Sunday and cruised to a three-stroke victory. The win was the first for each player on the Champions Tour, and it marked the first time in that event that both players earned their first career wins on Tour...Nearly added a second title to his resume when he battled Mark Calcavecchia at The Principal Charity Classic before finishing T2 along with Brian Henninger. Trained by just one stroke after 36 holes, but a pair of bogeys on the front nine Sunday proved costly...Looked to be in control and on his way to a win at the SAS Championship in October in North Carolina. Held a two-stroke advantage late in the final round before Tom Lehman's great finish grabbed the win. Lehman played his final four holes in five-under par and took the lead for good with an eagle at No. 17 at Prestonwood CC. Playing one group behind Lehman, had an opportunity to tie at No. 17 but missed a five-foot birdie opportunity. Lehman then closed the door minutes later when he made another birdie at No. 18 to open a two-stroke lead...Late in the year, was second at the Toshiba Classic, the final full-field event of the campaign. Fueled by a final-round 9-under-par 62, his low round on the Champions Tour, he was tied for the lead at one point Sunday before finishing two behind Duffy Waldorf at the Newport Beach CC...Finished T3 at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship on the strength of a final-round 67 at Belmont CC. Performance was his best in a major championship on any Tour...Used a final-round 69 at Fallen Oak to finish solo fourth, two strokes behind David Frost at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. Was the 18-hole co-leader in the event with Colin Montgomerie after shooting a 5-under 67 in the first round...In contention throughout at the Insuperity Invitational before eventually finishing T4 near Houston, one stroke out of a play-off...Missed the cut at the PGA TOUR's Puerto Rico Open in March.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Season highlighted by his sixth career victory on the Champions Tour at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic...Won for the first time in almost two years when he captured the event at Fallen Oak. Despite incurring a one-stroke penalty on the 17th green when he dropped his ball and it moved his coin (Rule 20-1), he sunk a key 6-foot par putt on the last hole to preserve a one-stroke margin over Tom Lehman and Kevin Sutherland. Lehman had a golden opportunity to tie but missed a 4½-foot birdie putt at the 18th. Became the first international winner of the event and came from three strokes off the lead with a final-round 68 outside Biloxi, the biggest come-from-behind win in MGRC history...Battled Jerry Smith down the stretch at the Encompass Championship before finishing second at North Shore CC, three strokes back...Equalled the low round at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, shooting 64 Sunday to move up into a T3 at En-Joie GC...Was T6 in his next start at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach on the strength of three sub-par scores, including a final-round 3-under-par 69...Finished second to Colin Montgomerie at December's MCB Tour Championship in Mauritius.

PERSONAL:

Took up game with father at age 12 while caddying for him...Is a third generation vintner and his family is part of the wine heritage in South Africa dating back to 1693. 2009 Allianz Championship

BEST 2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

T6–Encompass Championship.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(4): 1989 North Carolina State Amateur. 2006 North Carolina State Amateur, North Carolina Mid-Amateur. 2007 Tarheel Classic.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Dropped from 38th in 2014 to 48th last year on the final money list...Turned in his best performances in consecutive starts in the summer...Was T6 at the Encompass Championship after trailing eventual winner Jerry Smith by three strokes after 36 holes. Played in the final group but dropped back after carding a 73 Sunday. Performance near Chicago was his best since a solo-sixth outing at the 2014 3M Championship...Returned to the 3M event three weeks later and again was among the top 10, shooting 68-68 on the weekend to T7...Registered just the second hole-in-one in the history at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, and his first on the Champions Tour, when he aced the 194-yard, par-3, seventh hole at En-Joie GC. Used a 5-iron in the final round. Had made an eagle on the par-5 third hole just before his ace. It was the 10th of 13 aces on the Champions Tour for the season.

PERSONAL:

Attended the University of North Carolina...Owns a packaging company and is a partner in a plastic-recycling business...Lists Winged Foot as his favorite golf course...Favorite entertainer is John Wayne and reads anything by John Patterson...Arnold Palmer is his favorite athlete...Appeared on the January 12, 1962 cover of Golf World as a 5-year-old after attending the annual Christmas golf outing at Pinehurst in North Carolina.

BEST 2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1--Allianz Championship.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Highlight of his 2015 season came early in the campaign...Won his second career Champions Tour title in second start of the year, at the Allianz Championship. Got up and down from just behind the green on the final hole for birdie to edge Gene Sauers by a stroke. Downhill chip from 30 feet stopped three inches from the hole to seal the victory. The win came in his 12th career Champions Tour start and was his second TOUR title in Florida (1996 Bay Hill Invitational). He became the fourth player to win in his first appearance in the Allianz Championship...In late August, was solo second at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, finishing two strokes behind Jeff Maggert. Shared the first-round lead and got within one stroke of Maggert midway on the back nine Sunday...In the last full-field event of the year, the Toshiba Classic near his home, shot three straight rounds in the 60s and finished fourth at Newport Beach CC...Was just two strokes off the lead after 36 holes at The Principal Charity Classic and remained in contention at the turn Sunday. However, was one-over on the back nine and eventually finished T5...Rebounded from an opening-round 72 to shoot 65-68 on the weekend at TPC Twin Cities and was T7 at the 3M Championship...In October, carded a final-round 70 at TPC San Antonio to T7 at the San Antonio Championship.

PERSONAL:

Was a substitute teacher in Long Beach, Calif., at the time of his 1992 Yuma Open victory...Was the 1996 EA Sports Golf Challenge champion. Donated $10,000 prize to Arnold Palmer Children's Hospital...Says the first and only autograph he ever received was from California Angel Sandy Alomar, who signed his mitt at a game in Anaheim Stadium in 1974. "No, I don't know where the glove is now. I don't have it."...His favorite movie is "Monty Python and the Holy Grail"...Was hitting balls at the Long Beach State driving range in college when football coach and Pro Football Hall of Fame member George Allen decided he wanted to use the range for practice. "He yelled, 'Get that golfer off my football field.' I never met the man, but let's just say he definitely knew who I was."...On March 13, 2012, underwent surgery to remove a large bone spur on his left wrist, which was rubbing against a tendon and creating discomfort. The surgery didn't produce the desired results, and he remained on the sidelines away from competitive golf for the remainder of the year. While sidelined due to wrist surgery, couldn't stay away from the game and ventured into the TV arena. In early May 2012, spent a week as guest host of "Morning Drive" on Golf Channel...Also received Major Medical Extensions in 2004 and 2005 because of sinus surgery and hip problems.

This was the ninth time he matched his age on the Champions Tour...Matched his age for the 10th time two weeks later when he posted an even-par 70 in the first round of the U.S. Senior Open in Sacramento. Made the cut and completed all 72 holes for the 16th time, tying Gil Morgan for the most cuts made in tournament history. He has also played 72 rounds in this event which places him third in that category, behind Arnold Palmer (83) and Dale Douglass (80)...In his final start of the 2015 season, he bettered his age in the second and third rounds at the Toshiba Classic, marking the 10th and 11th times he had bettered his age.

PERSONAL:

Got his start in golf at age 4 through his father...Actively involved in his own course design business...Biggest thrills in golf were his first TOUR win in 1971 at Hilton Head Island, S.C, his three U.S. Open victories, his two U.S. Senior Open wins and playing on the victorious U.S. Ryder Cup team in 1991...Participated in a charity golf tournament in St. Louis for 25 years to benefit the St. Louis Children's Hospital and Hale Irwin Center for Pediatric Hematology/Oncology...Was the recipient of the Ambassador of Golf Award by the Northern Ohio Golf Charities at the 2009 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational in Akron...Says if he could meet one famous person dead or alive his choice would be Abraham Lincoln, because he came along at a very tumultuous time in our history and had a positive influence...His favorite golf courses in the United States are Cypress Point and Winged Foot, while overseas he gives the nod to Royal Melbourne in Australia...Leans toward the 2-iron he hit at the last hole to win the 1974 U.S. Open at Winged Foot as his all-time favorite shot...Broke 70 for the first time at age 14...Favorite all-time athlete is Byron "Whizzer" White, a fellow CU football standout and the former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

BEST 2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

P1–ACE Group Classic.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Returned to the winner’s circle for the first time in nearly 17 years when he prevailed in a one-hole playoff with Bart Bryant at The ACE Group Classic in February. Made a clutch, 8-foot birdie putt on the 54th hole to force a playoff and then two-putted from 40 feet on the first extra hole for the win after Bryant’s second shot landed in the water. The victory was his first since winning the 1998 U.S. Open at The Olympic Club, and it came in his 413th start since that win in San Francisco. The Naples victory ended a drought that lasted 16 years, 7 months, 25 days. He also became the 12th player to win The ACE Group Classic in his first start there and the fourth to earn his first Champions Tour victory in the event...Just days after successfully qualifying for the U.S Open as the sectional medalist, finished solo sixth at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS, thanks to a final-round 68 at Belmont CC...Turned in one of the best final rounds at the U.S. Senior Open in June, closing with a 6-under-par 64, which helped him to a T5 finish at Del Paso CC in Sacramento. Played in a final-day twosome with Billy Andrade, who closed with a 7-under-par 63...Trailed 36-hole leader Kenny Perry by just two strokes after 36 holes at the SAS Championship and eventually finished T5 in October in North Carolina...Shared the first-round lead at the Encompass Championship after a 65 but rounds of 70-71 on the weekend dropped him back into a T6 at North Shore CC...A final-round 6-under-par 65 at the Toshiba Classic was instrumental in his T7 finish...He and former college teammate Rocco Mediate T10 at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April...Finished T16 at the PGA TOUR’s Puerto Rico Open in early March. It was his best showing in a TOUR event since he T8 at the 2012 John Deere Classic.

PERSONAL:

Began to take golf seriously at age 14 after family moved to Florida from Maryland, where he played Little League baseball. Still avid Baltimore Orioles fan...Won first tournament at 15 as member of Greater Tampa Junior Golf Association...Played with Aaron Stewart, the late Payne Stewart’s son, in the 2004 Father-Son Challenge.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Claimed his second-consecutive Charles Schwab Cup, and became the first player to win the Charles Schwab Cup three times in his career, earning a $1-million bonus for the third time...Finished second to Billy Andrade at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, losing in a playoff. However, he earned 508 points at Desert Mountain and rallied from third place to overtake both Jeff Maggert and Colin Montgomerie in the final Schwab Cup standings...Also earned a second consecutive Byron Nelson Award, his fourth overall, for best scoring average (68.69)...Collected the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money winner for a record seventh time in eight years on Tour...Won multiple titles in a season for the fourth straight year and seventh time overall in his Champions Tour career...Notched career victory No. 24 when he successfully defended his Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS title at Belmont CC near Boston, waltzing to a six-stroke triumph over Kirk Triplett. Became the first player since Arnold Palmer (1984-85) to win consecutive Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS titles. Also tied Miller Barber for fourth place on the all-time victory list. Shot four consecutive rounds in the 60s and went wire to wire, joining Palmer (1985) and Jack Nicklaus (1990) as players to win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS leading from start to finish. Win was also his fifth career major title and extended his streak of consecutive years' winning at least one Champions Tour event to nine, matching the second longest streak in Champions Tour history. At 57 years, 9 months, 18 days, became the second-oldest winner of the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS (Raymond Floyd, 57 years, 10 months, 12 days in 2000). Victory in Boston ended a win drought of just over nine months, and it was the first time since 2012 that he had not won a title before the start of June...Claimed his 25th career victory at the San Antonio Championship. Fired a 7-under 65 in the final round at TPC San Antonio's AT&T Canyons Course and defeated Scott Dunlap by three strokes. Win came in his 164th career start on the Champions Tour and tied him with Gil Morgan for third on the all-time victory list. Win was also his 18th different title on the Champions Tour and fifth in the state of Texas. His gritty play at The Senior Open Championship in late-July at Sunningdale near London nearly led to a second consecutive title in the event. Had just one bogey over his final two rounds and battled eventual-winner Marco Dawson to the end before Dawson won the event on No. 18 with a 22-foot birdie putt. With his runner-up finish, was the only player to finish in the top 10 in all five major championships for the second consecutive year and now has 11 consecutive top-10s in majors dating back to the 2013 season...At the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, opened with a 7-under-par 63 at the Cochise Course at the Desert Mountain Club and was among the leaders in all four rounds before eventually losing in a one-hole playoff with Billy Andrade. Came to the final hole trailing Andrade by one stroke but saw his eagle attempt for the win lip out at No. 18 and then fell in the playoff when Andrade made birdie on the first extra hole...Was also a runner-up for a second consecutive year at the 3M Championship, four strokes behind Kenny Perry along with Kevin Sutherland and Scott Dunlap...Made a late run in his next start at the Boeing Classic, making birdies on his final two holes, but fell one shy of eventual winner Billy Andrade at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge to finish second...Earlier in the season, despite a birdie-eagle finish Saturday at the Greater Gwinnett Championship, came up one stroke short of Olin Browne after rain wiped out the final round. Performance at TPC Sugarloaf was his second consecutive runner-up in the event after winning the inaugural tournament in 2013...Was T3 at the SAS Championship in October. Was the first-round leader at the SAS Championship after a 7-under-par 65. Struggled in the second round, shooting a 1-over-par 73 to drop two strokes behind Kenny Perry after 36 holes. However, after a slow start Sunday, he made a late charge with five birdies in a six-hole stretch late but could not hold off an even better finish by Tom Lehman, who played his final four holes in 5-under par to win the event...Made another run at a major title at the U.S. Senior Open in June at Del Paso CC in Sacramento. After opening with a 1-over-par 71, fashioned rounds of 66-68-68 and was near the top of the leaderboard for most of the final three rounds. Shared the 54-hole lead with Jeff Maggert and briefly held an early lead Sunday before pair of bogeys on the front nine (Nos. 6 and 8), and two more on the back nine, proved his undoing. He eventually T3...Rebounded nicely after making a near-disastrous 10 on hole No. 7 at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, which led to an even-par 72 in the first round. Followed with rounds of 65-67 on the weekend to T5 in Hawaii in defense of his title...Was also T5 at the Regions Tradition, the fifth consecutive top-10 finish in the event for him...Trailed Colin Montgomerie by three strokes entering the final round of the Senior PGA Championship, but an early double bogey led to a 74 and a leaderboard drop to solo sixth, his fourth top-10 effort in seven appearances at the tournament...Finished T78 at The Open Championship in July at St. Andrews...Missed the cut at both the Masters and PLAYERS Championship...Finished T24 at the European Tour's Porsche European Open in September.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Lone victory during the 2015 campaign came in exciting fashion. Broke out of a crowded leaderboard with a blistering finish at the SAS Championship. Was among the half-dozen players vying for the title but took charge down the stretch, finishing his round by going birdie-birdie-eagle-birdie, the best showing by a winner on the Champions Tour, earning his ninth career win on Tour. The key point in his round came on the 17th hole where after hitting a poor drive, he struck a 3-wood to 20 feet, then sank the eagle putt to take the lead for good. With Joe Durant and Bernhard Langer on his tail, he sank a 12-footer for birdie on the final hole to open a two-stroke margin which essentially ended their chances...Was T2, along with Kevin Sutherland, at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, one stroke short of David Frost. Lost a golden opportunity to send the event into a playoff when he missed a 4½-foot birdie putt on the last hole...Again T2, at the Insperity Invitational, losing in a playoff to Ian Woosnam, that also included Kenny Perry. It was his second consecutive runner-up finish on the Tournament Course at The Woodlands and extended to five his run of years with a top-10 finish at Insperity...Also was T5 at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf along with teammate Jeff Sluman...Rebounded from a 4-over-par 76 in the opening round of the Regions Tradition with three straight rounds in the 60s and T5 in Birmingham...Despite battling lower-back issues, finished solo sixth at the 3M Championship. Was the first-round leader at TPC Twin Cities after shooting 64 in windy conditions Friday and held the lead until late on the front nine Saturday when he injured his back hitting a long bunker shot on the seventh hole. Still hurting, his tee shot on the par-3 eighth was fat and landed in a hazard that led to a double bogey, dropping him from contention the rest of the weekend...Finished T10 in defense of his Encompass Championship title, his third straight top-10 effort at North Shore CC.

PERSONAL:

Was the 2010 recipient of the Payne Stewart Award which is presented annually to a player sharing Stewart's respect for the traditions of the game, his commitment to uphold the game's heritage of charitable support and his professional and meticulous presentation of himself and the sport through his dress and conduct...Winner of the 2001 Charles Bartlett Award, given by GWAA for unselfish contributions to golf. ### PERSONAL:

Playing schedule was envy of many on the PGA TOUR. Never played more than 25 events in any PGA TOUR season and never more than 20 tournaments in a single season after 1988...Lists Don January and Miller Barber as his heroes...Started in golf at age 5 by his brother, Duane. Credits Duane and Henry Homberg, a local Texas professional, for having the greatest influences on his game when he first started playing...Biggest thrill in golf was winning his first PGA TOUR event (1977 Tucson Open) and also being involved in the 1999 Ryder Cup as assistant captain to Ben Crenshaw...Favorite course is Muirfield Village, home of the PGA TOUR's

Memorial Tournament...Is a big drag racing and auto racing fan...Has a large collection of muscle cars. The crown jewel of his collection is a 1967 yellow Corvette Stingray convertible, with the largest engine available—a 435-horse big block Chevrolet engine. Bought the car from Gil Morgan in 1982...His dream job would be an engine builder for any race team...First car he ever owned was a 1970 bright orange Plymouth Roadrunner...Lists Tom Hanks and Bruce Springsteen as his favorite entertainers and drag racing legend Don Garlits as his favorite athlete...Best friend on the Champions Tour is Bill Rogers...Wife, Rose, and Jerry Pate's wife, Soozie, are sisters.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had a stellar year with four wins, including two major championships (Regions Tradition, U.S. Senior Open), and more than $2 million in earnings...Led the Charles Schwab Cup standings individually during the season and was tied with Colin Montgomerie, a Champions Tour first, heading into the SAS Championship...Led the Champions Tour with four victories during the season...Won his first event of the year, and first major championship of his Champions Tour career, when he defeated Kevin Sutherland in a one-hole playoff at Shoal Creek in Birmingham in May. His 14-under-par total of 274 included rounds of 67-67-68-72. Had a golden opportunity to take the lead on the 71st hole when he faced a 3-foot birdie putt. However, he was unable to convert the opportunity. Minutes later he took advantage of Sutherland's misfortune off the tee on the first playoff hole and subsequent bogey to two putt from 40 feet for par and the win...Claimed his second major title of the campaign when he held off a handful of challengers Sunday at the U.S. Senior Open in Sacramento. In late-June at Del Paso CC, began the final round tied for the lead with Bernhard Langer, with four other major championship winners all within one stroke of the lead. Held off his challengers with a steady, 5-under-par 65 and the victory that earned him a check for $675,000, the largest of his Champions Tour career. The win was also worth an invitation to the 2016 U.S. Open at Oakmont CC. With his two major championships, it marked the fourth consecutive year the Champions Tour has had a player win multiple major titles in the same season...Added a third victory when he blitzed the field at the Shaw Charity Classic. Started the final round two strokes behind co-leaders Montgomerie and Miguel Angel Jimenez but seized the momentum with five birdies on his final six holes on the front nine and was subsequently never threatened, eventually winning by four over Montgomerie...Claimed his fourth win of the year two starts later at the end of August when he prevailed by two strokes at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open. Overcame a four-stroke deficit at the start of the final round, shooting a 66 Sunday to best Paul Goydos by two strokes at En-Joie GC. Victory moved him back in front in the Charles Schwab Cup race for the first time since he claimed the Regions Tradition. Win also put him past the $2-million mark in single-season earnings...Played at the PGA TOUR's Puerto Rico Open but missed the cut.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Made his Champions Tour debut in July, finishing T25 at The Senior Open Championship at Sunningdale GC...Late in the year he shared the 36-hole lead at the San Antonio Championship with Michael Allen before eventually finishing T3 with Allen, four strokes behind Bernhard Langer despite posting a 70 in the final round. Performance in Texas was his career best on the Tour...In next start at the Toshiba Classic, shared the 18-hole lead with Steve Pate after an 8-under-par 63, his low round on the Champions Tour. Followed with rounds of 68-70 to eventually T9...Earned the first top-10 finish of the season when he closed with a final-round, 5-under-par 67 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach to T10...Was one stroke off the 36-hole lead at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open and played in Sunday's final grouping. However, a final-round 75 dropped him into a T20...Made one cut in seven starts on the PGA TOUR and went without a top-25 for the fourth consecutive season...Worked for Fox Sports in its television coverage of the U.S. Open at Chambers Bay and was also a Fox announcer at the U.S. Senior Open in Sacramento.

PERSONAL:

After college, gave up golf for four years to work with his father in the family clothing business. During that period, athletic focus was on flag football, softball, tennis and racquetball...Return to golf was sparked by 1991 visit to Raley's Senior Gold Rush, the Champions Tour event at Rancho Murieta, Calif. After watching event, went home and built long putter in garage. Nearly won U.S. Mid-Amateur with home-made model later that year. Used more sophisticated version to win his three TOUR titles...While out of action following elbow surgery in 2007, worked as an analyst for Golf Channel and when he had a bone spur removed from left thumb in 2012, he continued his television work...In August 1999, made hole-in-one during first round of CVS Charity Classic immediately following ace by Lee Janzen on 17th hole at Rhode Island CC.

PERSONAL:

Was a solid athlete in several sports as a youth but excelled at golf...Has managed to rebound from a series of physical setbacks in his career. Escaped with facial injuries when his car collided with a bus near his parents' farm in 1980. While on vacation in Cape Town in December 1993, suffered a freak nerve injury in his neck while playing cricket with his kids. Knee injury curtailed his 1995 season...Best shot of his career was his pitch to nine feet from 68 yards on the final hole that beat Ian Woosnam at the 1987 British Masters...Favorite golf course is the Old Course at St. Andrews, but only when the weather is ideal...First modeled his game after Arnold Palmer and then refined it like Gary Player as he grew older...Plays the piano...Dream foursome would include Bobby Locke, Ben Hogan and Walter Hagen.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Led the Charles Schwab Cup race by 39 points going into the season-ending Schwab Cup Championship but ended up a runner-up to Bernhard Langer in the final Schwab Cup standings when Langer finished second in the tournament, and he finished T14 at Desert Mountain...His 12 top-10s this year were highlighted by his third major championship on the Champions Tour and a second consecutive Senior PGA Championship on The Pete Dye Course at French Lick Resort. Used three birdies in a four-hole stretch midway through the final round to pull away from the field and eventually triumphed by four strokes over Esteban Toledo. Became only the second player in Champions Tour history, and first since Jack Nicklaus, to claim his first three victories in all major championships. Nicklaus won the 1990 Regions Tradition and 1990 Constellation Senior Players Championship before claiming his third career title at the 1991 Regions Tradition. Became the 15th multiple winner of the Senior PGA Championship and first since Hale Irwin to not only repeat at the Senior PGA Championship (1996-1998) but also win in each of his first two appearances in the championship. Additionally became the first Scot to win multiple Senior PGA Championships since Jock Hutchison (1937 and 1947). With his win in French Lick, he extended to four, the streak of international winners of the Senior PGA Championship, a first in the history of the event. Became the first player to defend a title on the Champions Tour since Kirk Triplett won back-to-back titles at the 2012 and 2013 Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Was the first player to defend a title on two different courses since John Cook won back-to-back Charles Schwab Cup Championships at Sonoma GC (2009) and TPC Harding Park (2010)...Made a strong run in defense of his U.S. Senior Open title in June when he closed with a bogey-free, 4-under-par 66 but was unable to overcome eventual champion Jeff Maggert's 5-under-par 65 on the final day. Finished second overall, two behind Maggert...Posted an opening-round, 8-under-par 62 at the Shaw Charity Classic and was tied for the lead after 36 holes with Miguel Angel Jimenez. A closing-round, even-par 70 left him in second, four strokes behind Maggert in Calgary...Was in contention throughout at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS. Despite suffering chest pains overnight prior to the final round, managed a 69 Sunday to finish T3 at Belmont CC near Boston...Turned in a nice performance at The Senior Open Championship at Sunningdale in late-July when he finished third overall. Shared the 54-hole lead with Marco Dawson and held a two-stroke advantage on the back nine, but errant tee shots on Nos. 11 and 12 led to consecutive bogeys, dooming his chances. Finished three behind Dawson...Rounds of 68-67 earned him the 36-hole lead by one stroke over Olin Browne at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, but a pair of bogeys on the back nine ended his chances and he eventually finished T3, two strokes shy of eventual winner Esteban Toledo. His T3 finish was his sixth straight top-three effort...Was the 18- and 36-hole leader at The ACE Group Classic, but saw his chances slip away when he made three bogeys on his back nine Sunday. Eventually finished fifth overall...Was T5 at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic after being the 18-hole co-leader with Joe Durant. Moved into contention early on the back nine Sunday at Fallen Oak, but a bogey-bogey finish left him three shots behind David Frost...Kicked off his Champions Tour campaign with a T5 at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Made a late charge Sunday before consecutive bogeys at Nos. 13 and 14 derailed his chances...Was also T5 at the SAS Championship in North Carolina in October. Closed with a 6-under-par 66, and his finish helped him regain the lead in the Charles Schwab Cup race after entering the week tied with Jeff Maggert...Won his third straight Travis Perkins Masters on the European Senior Tour when he defeated Ross Drummond in a two-hole playoff at Woburn. In the process, became the first player to win the same event three straight years on the European Senior Tour and the European Tour (BMW PGA Championship)...Added a second European Senior Tour title when he captured the MCB Tour Championship in Mauritius in December by three strokes over David Frost...Won his second consecutive European Senior Tour Order of Merit and John Jacobs Trophy at the conclusion of the season...Made the cut at the U.S. Open at Chambers Bay and T64...Missed the cut at the PGA Championship.

PERSONAL:

Born the day after a golf course opened next door (Real GC de San Sebastian) where grandfather was greenskeeper. Mother and father also worked there. When grandfather died, Jose's father, Gaspar, took his place as greenskeeper. Father received a club to cut down and Jose, at age 2, used it to hit balls. Mother would take him out on golf course late in the afternoon starting at age 6...Sometimes called "Chemma," a short way to say Jose Maria in Spanish.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Was among the top 20 on the single-season money list for the ninth straight year on the Champions Tour, and his four top-three finishes were the most in a single season since 2009...Was second in his first start of the campaign at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Began his final round three strokes off the pace, but fired a 6-under-par 30 on the front nine to work his way into the mix. Eventually shot 8-under-par 64 and was the clubhouse leader at 16-under-par 200. Moments after he posted his score, Miguel Angel Jimenez drained a 20-foot birdie putt at No. 17 to take the lead at 17-under, an advantage Jimenez never relinquished...Thanks to a closing-round 6-under-par 66, the day's low round, was third at the inaugural Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March...Was T3 at the Shaw Charity Classic in August on the strength of three consecutive rounds in the 60s...Two weeks later, he T3 at the Boeing Classic near Seattle after weekend rounds of 68-68...Used four straight rounds in the 60s in the year's final event, the Charles Schwab Cup Championship, to finish T4...Was also T4 at the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett Championship after posting rounds of 68-69 before officials canceled the final round due to heavy rains...Turned in the best finish by a player over 50 at the Masters Tournament, a T22 at Augusta National, his best showing since 2003 (T8)...Capped a memorable week at St. Andrews with a T78 finish at The Open Championship just days after being inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame ceremony at Younger Hall on the St. Andrews University campus.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had four top-25 finishes in 20 starts during the year...Shot a Belmont CC course-record, 8-under 63 in the second round of the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. It was his low round at the time on the Champions Tour, and one stroke shy of his career best score on the PGA TOUR (62 in the third round of the 1989 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic)...Fired another 63 (8-under) in his final start of the season when he shared the opening-round lead at the Toshiba Classic with Scott McCarron. Was T3 after 36 holes but a final-round 76 left him T45.

PERSONAL:

Realized his dream to design golf courses when he partnered with Damian Pascuzzo in 2003 to design Monarch Dunes in Nipomo, Calif. They continue to partner on design projects including La Costa in Carlsbad, Calif., and Murasaki CC in Noda City, Japan. Their renovation of 36 holes at La Costa Resort, where Pate won the 1988 MONY Tournament of Champions, is particularly pleasing...Teammate of Corey Pavin, Tom Pernice, Jr., Duffy Waldorf and Jay Delsing during his career at UCLA...Says career highlight was Sunday at the 1999 Ryder

Cup. "The comeback spoke for itself," he said. Also a member of the 1991 winning Ryder Cup Team...Favorites include "Animal House," reruns of "NCIS", College Football and the History Channel. Enjoys taking vacations with his family, especially Hawaii...Favorite city is Santa Barbara, the city where he grew up...Favorite books are Stephen King's The Stand and Thomas Sowell's Basic Economics: A Citizen's Guide to the Economy...His favorite sport other than golf is baseball. His father played the sport in college and his grandfather was a Major League pitcher for the St. Louis Browns. Older brother, John, competed in 1996 U.S. Amateur and 1996 and 2000 U.S. Mid-Amateur.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played frequently on the PGA TOUR in the first half of the year and best effort came when he posted four rounds in the 60s to T16 at the AT&T Byron Nelson...Also posted four rounds in the 60s on his way to a T37 earlier in the season at the TOUR's Sony Open in Hawaii. Said goodbye to his PGA TOUR career at the Memorial Tournament where he missed the cut, with rounds of 71-73...Made a full-time transition to the Champions Tour in early June and recorded his only victory when he successfully defended his 3M Championship, becoming the first player in its 23-year history to repeat as winner. Joined Colin Montgomerie (Senior PGA Championship) and Bernhard Langer (Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship) as the third player to successfully defend a title on the Champions Tour in 2015...Used a Champions Tour career-best, 11-under 61 in the second round to forge a four-stroke lead after 36 holes at TPC Twin Cities and then carded a final-round 68 to win by four over Scott Dunlap, Kevin Sutherland, and Langer. Second consecutive victory in Minnesota was his eighth career Champions Tour title and gave him at least one win in five consecutive years. Also joined Hale Irwin and Langer as a multiple winner of the 3M event. The 61 in the second round included two eagles and one hole-in-one (No. 4), his second career Champions Tour ace. Became the fourth player in 3M Championship history to make an ace in the event and go on to win (Bruce Lietzke, Tom Purtzer and Jay Haas) and one of three to do so on the Champions Tour in 2015...Earlier in the year, was T2 at the Insuperity Invitational, losing in a playoff, along with Tom Lehman, to Ian Woosnam who birdied the first extra hole. Played final 12 holes of Sunday's round with back problems but managed to get into the overtime at The Woodlands CC after posting a 66, the lowest round of the week...Also finished T3 at the SAS Championship in October. Was the 36-hole leader but struggled on the front nine Sunday and could not recover from his slow start...Was T5 in defense of his title at the Regions Tradition. Posted four straight sub-par rounds at Shoal Creek...Used a final-round 66 to move up into a T5 at the San Antonio Championship and two weeks later was also T5 at the Toshiba Classic...Registered a third consecutive top-10 finish, at the Encompass Championship, when he shot 68 Sunday to move up into a T10.

PERSONAL:

Took up golf at age 7 with encouragement from his father, who spent hours teeing balls up for him...Recipient of the 2009 Payne Stewart Award as well as the 2002 Charles Bartlett Award, given to a professional golfer for his unselfish contributions to the betterment of society, by the Golf Writers Association of America. Donates five percent of his winnings to Lipscomb University in Nashville, Tenn., to provide scholarships for Simpson County students. He also built Kenny Perry's Country Creek GC, a public course in his hometown of Franklin, Ky. In 1995, he bought 142 acres of land and borrowed more than $2.5 million to design and build the only public course in the town. He designed it for mid-to-high handicappers and kept it affordable, including 18 holes with a cart is $30 on weekdays. Works from time to time behind the counter and is often asked, "Do you know Kenny Perry?"...Was also honored by The Community Foundation of South Central Kentucky in July 2014 as its Southcentral Kentuckian of the Year for his charitable endeavors in his community...Is a big drag racing fan and also a fan of '68 Camaros...Hosts the annual Kenny Perry Charity Golf Invitational, benefiting the Boys & Girls Club of Franklin-Simpson...Some of his favorite golf courses are Muirfield Village, Augusta National, The Club at Olde Stone and Country Creek.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Turned in a solid second season on the Champions Tour, playing in all 24 events during the year and collecting seven top-10s. Highlight of year was third-place effort at the Encompass Championship. Closed with rounds of 66-68 on the weekend at North Shore CC. Performance was his best since registering a victory in summer of 2014 in eastern Canada...Trailed 36-hole leader Marco Dawson by one stroke at the inaugural Tucson Conquistadores Classic before disaster struck on No. 5 Sunday when his tee shot landed in a tree resulting in an unplayable lie and a triple bogey. Rebounded with birdies on Nos. 8-9 to remain close to the leaders, but a 2-over-par on the back nine ended his chances with a fourth-place finish...At the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, T5 in his season debut. Worked his way onto the leaderboard Sunday with a 5-under-par effort on the front nine but was unable to close the gap...Late in the year, was the first-round leader at the San Antonio Championship and eventually T5. Final-round 70 at the TPC San Antonio Championship included two eagles in his round...Finished T9 at the Boeing Classic in August where he closed with a 7-under-par 65, the day's low round...Used a closing-round 4-under-par 68 at the SAS Championship to T9 in October.

PERSONAL:

Is a childhood friend of fellow Champions Tour player Mike Hulbert. As an 18-year-old in 1976, teamed with Hulbert to defeat then newly appointed Syracuse University basketball coach Jim Boeheim and his partner in a CC of Ithaca best-ball event...Struck up a lasting friendship with Boeheim and remains a huge SU fan...Son Jamie also played golf at Ohio State and competed on PGA TOUR Canada in 2014 and will have some status on the Web.com Tour in 2015...His favorite TV channel is The Weather Channel...Musical tastes run from classic rock to country music...His favorite teams as a kid were the New York Jets with Joe Namath and the Walt Frazier-led New York Knicks. "Who could ask for more?" he says...Among the bookmarks on his computer are syracuse.com, weather.com and PGA TOUR Links...The first job he ever had was roofing and installing siding with his father, which helped pay for the golf trips he took with Hulbert. His dad delivered mail, and the roofing work was a second job...Favorite meal is a medium-rare New York strip or porterhouse (Pittsburgh style) steak, a side of spaghetti, salad and bread...When he's traveling on Tour, among his favorite restaurants are Trattoria Romana in Boca Raton, Fla., Harry's Cafe and Steak House in New York, Tollgate Steakhouse in Mamaronck, N.Y., Rafter's Steakhouse in Milwaukee, Wisc., and Tramonti in Delray Beach, Fla...Says the one talent he'd most love to have is being able to play the piano...His favorite athlete in another sport is the Denver Broncos' Peyton Manning...Among his favorite movies are "Legends of the Fall," "Terminator 2," "The American President," "Dumb & Dumber" and "The Fifth Element." "...One course he's never played that he'd love to is St. Andrews...Says his most memorable vacation was "Going to New York City with my wife for a year-end anniversary trip"...His most memorable shot was his hole-in-one at No. 14 at En-Joie in the final round at the 1985 B.C. Open, going from one stroke down to two shots up when Mike Reid made a bogey. He went on to win the first of his two B.C. Open titles. "I always tell people there were 2,000 people there, but 20,000 people said they saw it."...The first concert he ever attended was Kansas while in college at Ohio State...If he's not playing sports he enjoys watching his sons play sports, watching Syracuse and Ohio State football and basketball and fishing on Keuka Lake, part of New York's Finger Lakes.

Recorded rounds of 3-under-par 69 on the weekend at Pebble Beach, including a bogey-free effort Sunday...Was T39 in his only other start on the Champions Tour at the Toshiba Classic, the final full-field event of the campaign...Made 15 cuts in 22 starts through the Wyndham Championship on the PGA TOUR, collecting one top-10 finish. Earned a berth into the FedExCup Playoffs for an eighth time, of nine possible opportunities. A T66 at The Barclays resulted in a 119th-place finish in the FedExCup standings, putting an end to his season...On the PGA TOUR, posted four rounds of par or better at the Valspar Championship to claim a T10 with five others. The finish marked his first PGA TOUR top-10 since finishing solo second at the 2013 Frys.com Open in his first TOUR start of the season...In October, returned to his native Fiji to play in the Fiji International at Natadola Bay GC, a course he designed. In difficult scoring conditions, with high wind in the opening two rounds, opened 78-75 and sat at 9-over through 36 holes. Fired a 1-under 71 Saturday then recorded the round of the tournament, a 7-under 65 Sunday, to move into a T3 with Ryan Fox and Nick Cullen, five shots short of winner Matt Kuchar.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Finished outside the top-20 money-winners on the Champions Tour for the first time but still managed to post top-10s in a third of his 24 starts...Best performance of the campaign came in the season-ending event when he was on the leaderboard after 36 holes of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and eventually finished T4 at Desert Mountain...Fell short in his bid for a third consecutive title at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf in April. Teamed with Tom Lehman for a T5 finish at Big Cedar Lodge...Also played well in Arizona early in the year. Fashioned a 5-under 67 in the closing round, and it led to a T6 at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic...Rebounded from an opening-round 74 to T6 at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Shot a final-round 67 at Pebble Beach. Had a chance to make noise down the stretch, however, his climb up the leaderboard stalled with a bogey at No. 14 and ended a run where he was 6-under par on his previous eight holes...Used a final-round 69 to move up into a T7 at the Senior PGA Championship...Was one of eight players tied for the first-round lead at The Senior Open Championship at Sunningdale before eventually T9...Was also T9 at the Boeing Classic...Rebounded from an opening-round 73 with scores of 69-67 on the weekend to T10 at The ACE Group Classic in mid-February in Naples.

CHAMPIONS TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2015 Encompass Championship

BEST 2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1–Encompass Championship.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(2): 1991 Waterloo Open Golf Classic. 1998 Guam Open.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Had an outstanding rookie season on the Champions Tour that saw him finish among the circuit's top-30 money-winners, thanks to a surprise victory during the summer...After finishing T3 in July at the European Senior Tour's Swiss Seniors Open in Bad Ragaz, became the sixth of seven first-time winners, and second rookie, to triumph on the Champions Tour. Broke through with a three-stroke victory at the Encompass Championship near Chicago. Started the final round with a three-stroke lead but found himself tied with David Frost at the turn Sunday. Shot 4-under 32 on the back nine, separating himself from Frost by holing a greenside bunker shot for an eagle on the par-5 16th hole at North Shore CC. Victory came in his 14th career start on the Champions Tour and 16-under-par-200 total was a tournament record. Became the first Q-school rookie to win since Wes Short, Jr., at the 2014 Quebec Championship...Made birdies on the final three holes to move into a T3 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open...Posted first top-10 of his Champions Tour career in March when he T9 at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic. Was the first-round leader at the Omni Tucson National after a 7-under-par 65 that included an ace on No. 7 (5-iron, 212 yards). Trained by two strokes after two rounds but slipped out of contention Sunday when he closed with a 73.

PERSONAL:

He is the fourth generation in his family in the golf industry. Credits his father, a golf course superintendent for more than 35 years, for getting him involved in golf...Has worked as a club professional in his career. Was the assistant professional at Edmundson GC in Iowa as well as Three Crowns GC in Wyoming...Has been involved in Chicks-in-Crisis, a charity which offers adoption, parenting and educational services.

BEST 2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

4—Principal Charity Classic.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(2): 1977 Canadian Amateur. 1978 Canadian Amateur.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Narrowly missed qualifying for the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship when he stumbled on his 54th hole at the Toshiba Classic, the year's final full-field event of the year. Needing only a par to secure the coveted 30th spot, he made a bogey on the final hole and eventually T9 and 32nd overall on the money list...Had his best performance in nearly two years when he finished fourth at The Principal Charity Classic in June. His final-round 68 included a 5-under-par 31 on the back nine...Carded a second-round 66 at TPC Sugarloaf to move up into a T8 at the rain-shortened Greater Gwinnett Championship...Shared the 36-hole lead at the Allianz Championship and briefly held the early lead in the final round. Rebounded from a 10 at the par-5 6th hole, making birdies on both back-nine pars at the Old Course at Broken Sound to shoot 73 and T9...Held sole possession of the 36-hole lead at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open, but his 2-over 74 Sunday dropped him into an eventual T12...Made a hole-in-one in the final round at the Tucson Conquistadores Classic. Used a 7-iron from 178 yards on No. 12 at Omni Tucson National's Catalina Course.

PERSONAL:

Did not turn professional until 2004, working 25 years as a corporate insurance executive...Biggest thrill away from golf was becoming a grandfather...Heroes are Arnold Palmer and Bobby Orr...One of his superstitions is marking his ball on the putting green with a Canadian dime...Dream foursome would include his dad and his two sons...Favorite golf courses are Brookside CC, Scioto GC and Shoal Creek...One of the things he carries in his golf bag is one of his dad's yellow golf balls...Favorite athlete in another sport is Peyton Manning...Enjoys watching Golf Channel's "Morning Drive" and college football, while his favorite all-time movies include "Top Gun," "The Rookie" and "The Untouchables."...His first job was putting bumper stickers on cars at Marineland in Niagara Falls...Says he'd love to trade places for a day with James Bond...His favorite team as a kid was the Boston Bruins and favorite player was Orr...Two courses he'd love to play are Augusta National and St. Andrews...His most memorable shot was his par putt to win the AT&T Championship...Supports the Special Olympics in Columbus, Ohio...His bucket list includes buying a house on the beach.

CHAMPIONS TOUR BEST FINISHES:

T2–2015 Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic presented by C Spire. 2–2015 Regions Tradition. T2–2015 3M Championship

PGA TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2002 World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship

BEST 2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

P2–Regions Tradition. T2–Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic presented by C Spire. T2–3M Championship.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Came close to winning on three occasions during the season...Battled Jeff Maggert over four days at the year's first major championship, the Regions Tradition, before falling in a one-hole playoff at Shoal Creek in Birmingham. The two finished tied at 14-under-par 274, but he saw his chances diminish when his tee shot on the first playoff hole landed in a fairway bunker near the front lip. His foot slipped on his second shot, and his ball ended up 30 yards short and right of the green. An indifferent pitch left him with a lengthy par putt. Eventually made bogey and fell one short of Maggert, who two-putted from 40 feet for par and the win...Was T2, along with Tom Lehman, at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic, one stroke behind David Frost. Was the 36-hole leader in the event by two strokes and maintained his advantage through the first nine holes Sunday. However, made three bogeys in the first five holes on the back nine to fall out of contention. His closing birdie on the final hole moved him up into second place...Was T2 at the 3M Championship along with Bernhard Langer and Scott Dunlap, four strokes behind Kenny Perry. Cut Perry's lead to two strokes after the first hole Sunday but could get no closer, despite making three birdies over his next four holes...Had a late run at eventual champion Duffy Waldorf Sunday at the Toshiba Classic in late October, shooting a bogey-free 6-under-par 65 but was unable to convert some late opportunities and eventually finished third...Made a brief charge up the leaderboard during Sunday's final round at The ACE Group Classic, finishing 6-under par on his front nine. Could not maintain his momentum and finished with a 6-under-par 66 and a sixth-place finish overall. Highlight of week in Naples was a double eagle on the par-5 third hole in the second round. Sank a hybrid from 245 yards for his first competitive albatross...Turned in a nice performance on his home course in June when he T7 at the U.S. Senior Open at Del Paso CC...Was eighth overall at the SAS Championship in October and led all players in the field with 17 birdies...Was also T10 at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship near Boston, thanks to a final-round 69.

PERSONAL:

Brother David was a member of PGA TOUR from 1997-2004. The two were paired together for the first time on TOUR during first two rounds of 1999 Compaq Classic of New Orleans...Won 1997 EA Sports Challenge Championship, defeating defending champion Paul Goydos.

CHAMPIONS TOUR VICTORIES (3):

2013 Insuperity Championship. 2013 Montreal Championship. 2015 Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach

WEB.COM TOUR VICTORIES (1):

2005 Lake Erie Charity Classic at Peek 'n Peak Resort

BEST 2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES:

1—Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Registered three top-three finishes among his 23 starts and returned to the winner's circle for the first time in more than a year in late September...Emerged from a crowded leaderboard, which included four members of the World Golf Hall of Fame, with a one-stroke victory over Tom Watson at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach. Played himself into position with a 7-under-par 65 at Pebble Beach Saturday and made just one bogey over his final 46 holes in the event (No. 17 Sunday). The win was his third career title on the Champions Tour and came in his 43rd start since his last victory in Canada...In late May, turned in his best performance in a senior major when he finished second at the Senior PGA Championship. Battled Colin Montgomerie for most of the final round, getting within a stroke of the lead twice, before eventually finishing four back on The Pete Dye Course at French Lick Resort...In February, birdied four of his final six holes Sunday to post a bogey-free, 6-under-par 66 and finish third at The ACE Group Classic...Also was T9 at The Senior Open Championship in late-July near London, shooting 65 at Sunningdale in the final round.

PERSONAL:

Learned to play golf while working at a driving range in Mexico. Youngest of 11 children who grew up in a home with dirt floors and no plumbing. Was a professional boxer for four years, but appendicitis ended that career. Had 16-1 record. As youngster, fished balls out of pond at Mexicali CC and sold them back to golfers. A future dream is to build a church for impoverished children in the La Posalera section of Mexicali. Featured on HBO's "Real Sports with Bryant Gumbel" in 2002 and hosted "Inside the PGA TOUR" on Feb. 22, 2004. Ambassador of To Get a Grip Foundation, which makes golf and education accessible to all children. Also hosts the Esteban Toledo PGA TOUR Pro-Am every February, benefiting the Foundation. Nominated by 2003 Hispanic Chamber of Commerce as top Hispanic sports figure of the year...In January 2007, while riding in a car on a Los Angeles freeway, he rescued two sisters after their car collided with another, then crashed into a divider, flipped, rolled over twice and stopped on its roof. He pulled them from the wreck, called 911 and took control of the situation until paramedics arrived...Is a big supporter of Mexico's national soccer team and favorite athlete was Hugo Sanchez, a striker on the national team who also played professionally in Europe...Enjoys cooking, and lists "Pretty Woman" as his favorite movie.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Continued his analyst work with Golf Channel on Champions Tour events as well as other selected events for the network...Teamed up with his son, Travis, to win the PNC Father/Son Challenge in a four-team playoff in December in Orlando when Travis eagled the first extra hole.

PERSONAL:

Enjoys well-deserved reputation as a fierce competitor...Along with brother, Bobby, kept Richmond, Va., junior championship trophy in the Wadkinses' household for six consecutive years. He won four times, with Bobby taking two titles...Served as the player consultant on TPC Myrtle Beach, the venue of the Champions Tour season-ending event in 2000... Biggest thrill in golf was winning the 1977 PGA Championship, and his biggest thrill outside of golf is watching his sons play sports...Son Travis played some on the Web.com Tour in 2012 after following in his father's footsteps by playing collegiately at Wake Forest. His other son, Tucker, plays golf at the University of Arizona...Favorite golf course is Pebble Beach GL.

T3–U.S. Senior Open Championship.

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(3): 1992 New Zealand Open, Trafalgar Capital Classic. 1992 Utah Open.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Played his first full season on the Champions Tour after finishing second at the 2014 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament...Had an impressive showing at the U.S. Senior Open in June at Del Paso CC in Sacramento. Was the only player to post four consecutive rounds in the 60s, and that performance led to a T3 finish, his best effort in his Champions Tour career...Was also T13 at the Encompass Championship.

PERSONAL:

Missed defense of his 1993 Kemper Open title when his first child, Osten, was born on the eve of the 1994 event. Had registered at the tournament site but left to be with his wife...Played on the New Zealand junior soccer team...Prior to joining the Champions Tour, transitioned in 2006 into a job as a swing instructor, with several TOUR professionals in his stable of students.

(3): 1995 Hyundai Team Matches [with Tom Lehman]. 1996 Hyundai Team Matches [with Tom Lehman]. 2000 Hyundai Team Matches [with Tom Lehman].

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

One of the feel-good stories on the 2015 Champions Tour...Became a winner on the over-50 circuit for the first time when he was a two-stroke victor over Joe Durant at the Toshiba Classic, the final full-field event of the season. An 11-under-par 60 effort Saturday was the impetus for his win, which came in his 73rd start on the Champions Tour. It was also his first win since the PGA TOUR's 2000 National Car Rental Golf Classic Disney title, a span of 292 starts. Flirted with the magical number 59 in the second round at the Newport Beach CC, needing a birdie on his final two holes, but failed to convert those opportunities. His 11-under-par 60 tied the tournament 18-hole scoring record set in 2004 by Tom Purtzer and later matched by Nick Price in 2011. However, his 54-hole total of 20-under-par 193 set a new tournament mark, and he also matched the Champions Tour record for most birdies in a 54-hole event when he registered 26...Followed his Toshiba Classic victory with a T9 at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship...In late April, was T5 with former UCLA teammate, Corey Pavin, at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf...One week later, used a final-round 67 to move into a T6 at the Insperity Invitational...Also T6 at the Encompass Championship after three consecutive sub-par scores at North Shore CC...Rebounded from a 2-over-par 72 in the opening round of the U.S. Senior Open with three consecutive rounds in the 60s to T10 in Sacramento...Made his first start in a PGA TOUR event in nearly two years but missed the cut at March's Puerto Rico Open...Finished T23 at the PGA TOUR's Barbasol Championship in July.

PERSONAL:

He is a connoisseur of fine wine...His family and occasional others adorn the golf balls he uses each week with messages and designs. During his 2000 victory at Walt Disney World Resort, there was a picture of Mickey Mouse on one side of the golf ball and on the other side, his wife wrote, "Mouse in the House"...Got his nickname Duffy from his grandparents when he was small. Tagged along on the golf course and they called him "Little Duffer."

INTERNATIONAL VICTORIES:

(5): 1980 Dunlop Phoenix. 1984 Australian Open. 1992 Hong Kong Open. 1994 Skins Game. 1997 Dunlop Phoenix.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Nearly won his first event in four years when he made a final-round charge at the Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach in late-September. Rebounded from a 4-over-par 75 at Poppy Hills in his opening round with weekend scores of 65-67 at Pebble Beach to eventually finish second overall, one behind Esteban Toledo. Briefly tied for the lead late in the final round but made a costly bogey at No. 17 which dropped him from a share of the lead with Toledo. His rounds of 65-67 were his best back-to-back rounds in a Champions Tour event since he posted scores of 64-65 to open play at the 2011 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. Bettered his age for the second time in his career with his second-round 65 at Pebble Beach...Had another nice effort at the U.S. Senior Open in June at Del Paso CC in Sacramento. Was the first-round leader after a 4-under-par 66 and was on the leaderboard all four rounds before eventually finishing T7 at age 65. It was his eighth top-10 finish in the event, tying him with Miller Barber, Jack Nicklaus and Hale Irwin for the most top-10s in the U.S. Senior Open...Played in his 42nd Masters Tournament and 41st in succession in April but did not make the cut after rounds of 71-81...Was T72 at the RBC Heritage...Made his final appearance at The Open Championship, posting rounds of 76-80 at St. Andrews but missed the cut...Also competed at the European Tour's KLM Open in The Netherlands in September and finished T47 with four rounds in the 60s. At age 66 years, 7 days, became the second-oldest player to make the cut in a European Tour event. Bob Charles remains the oldest, at 71 years, 261 days (2008 New Zealand Open).

PERSONAL:

Active in Kansas City-area charitable endeavors, including Children's Mercy Hospital and development of golf courses for junior players. Won the 2003 Card Walker Award as the result of his interest in junior golf...In 1999, named honorary member of the Royal & Ancient GC of St. Andrews, joining fellow Americans Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, former President George Bush and Gene Sarazen...Led the effort to raise awareness of ALS, the disease that took the lives of longtime caddie Bruce Edwards and former TOUR player Jeff Julian. Website is bruceedwardsfoundation.org...Visited U.S. troops in Iraq in late 2007 and 2009 along with Corey Pavin and Tim Simpson...Big fan of the Kansas City Royals.

2015 CHAMPIONS TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

Started the season as a non-exempt player and surprised the golf world when he won for the first time on the Champions Tour at the Insuperity Invitational...Sunk a 30-foot birdie putt on the first play-off hole to defeat Tom Lehman and Kenny Perry for the Insuperity title. Victory near Houston came at 57 years, 2 months, 1 day, making him the third-oldest first-time winner in Champions Tour history and the oldest first-timer since Bruce Devlin won the 1995 FHP Health Care Classic a little more than four months past his 57th birthday. Became the first player from Wales to win on the Champions Tour and the first professional to win on a sponsor exemption since Miguel Angel Jimenez at the 2014 Greater Gwinnett Championship. Prior to his win, had last appeared at The Woodlands CC in 1990, at the Shell Houston Open, where he finished T3 on the Tournament Course...The week prior to winning, was second at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge. He and teammate Sandy Lyle were leading by two strokes after 36 holes but couldn't hold off a final-round charge by the team of Billy Andrade-Joe Durant...In his first-ever appearance at En-Joie GC, finished T3 at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

PERSONAL:

Both parents are Welsh, and he learned the game on the local Llanmynech GC (15 holes in Wales, three in England) on the border...Worked on family farm for six months after leaving school. Credits his stocky but powerful physique to lifting heavy hay bales...Used to travel in a camper van and eat tins of beans to save money when he was an aspiring pro...Lives in Jersey, Channel Islands.

Tournament Record:

191 - Loren Roberts (2006)

Current Course Record:

61 - Hualalai GC - Loren Roberts (2006)

Miguel Angel Jimenez made a crucial 20-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole to move one stroke ahead of Mark O'Meara and went on to win the Mitsubishi Electric Championship in his first appearance in the event. O'Meara had started the day three strokes behind the 36-hole leaders but broke out early, finishing 6-under par on the front nine. He appeared to be in control, but Jimenez made birdies on six of his final nine holes to overtake O'Meara, who was looking for his first win on the Champions Tour since 2010. Rocco Mediate, who shared the 36-hole lead with Jimenez, could only muster a final-round, 2-under-par 70 to finish fourth. Fred Couples was third.

With his victory, Miguel Angel Jimenez won his second Champions Tour title in his third start on Tour. He won his first start, at the 2014 Greater Gwinnett Championship near Atlanta.

Miguel Angel Jimenez was an impressive 12-under par on the 12 par-5s for the week. He had 10 birdies and an eagle. He was also 12-under par on the back nine and became the eighth player to win this event in his first appearance.

Loren Roberts was the last to do so in 2006. Others to accomplish the feat are John Jacobs (1999), John Bland (1996), George Archer (1990), Dave Hill (1988), Peter Thomson (1985) and Orville Moody (1984).

Loren Roberts, the 2006 winner, rebounded from an opening-round, 3-over-par 75 with weekend rounds of 68-64 to move from 38th Friday to 11th at the conclusion. Roberts had just one bogey over the final 36 holes.

Defending champion Bernhard Langer tied for fifth in his title defense. Langer was 3-under through six holes in the first round before posting a 10 on the par-5 seventh hole and dropping to 2-over par. He posted 72 in the opening round and followed with 65-67 to record his 104th top-10 Champions Tour finish in 149 starts.

Jay Haas' streak of consecutive sub-par rounds at Hualalai ended at 28 when he posted an even-par 72 in the second round. He eventually tied for 28th on the same day his son Bill won the PGA TOUR's Humana Challenge. Haas got word of Bill's win on his 14th hole during the final round.

"My mother's name is on this trophy, too," Miguel Angel Jimenez pays tribute to his mother, Carmen, who died January 18 just prior to the beginning of the tournament.

Current Course Record:
60 - The Old Course at Broken Sound - Michael Allen (2014)

After nine different players either led or shared the lead in the morning, Paul Goydos won the Allianz Championship, edging Gene Sauers with a birdie on the final hole. Goydos first emerged from the pack midway through the round, chipping in for birdie at No. 9 and adding another at No. 12. He maintained his lead, first making a key par save from eight feet at No. 15 and then getting up and down for par in front of the 16th green. Sauers birdied the last two holes to temporarily tie Goydos. However, Goydos hit a perfect drive down the middle of the 18th fairway then rifled a second shot with a hybrid through the green. After receiving a drop from the grandstand, Goydos bumped his chip shot from 30 feet down the hill, within three inches from the hole. From there, he tapped in for victory. "It's easy to win when you're playing well. It's how you handle (yourself) when you're not playing well," said Goydos following his win.

It was the second career Champions Tour title for Paul Goydos in his 12th appearance since turning 50 on June 20, 2014. On the PGA TOUR, he won twice, with his second title at the 2007 Sony Open in Hawaii coming in his 256th career start.

Paul Goydos became the fourth player to win the Allianz Championship in his first appearance, joining Mark James (2007), Mike Goodes (2009) and Rocco Mediate (2013).

Michael Allen tied for third, the best finish by a defending champion in tournament history. Allen made two eagles and 14 birdies, earning $38,000 for the Moaberry Family Foundation to benefit Boca Regional's Toppel Family Place Neonatal Intensive Care Unit.

Argentina's Jose Coceres shot the low final round, carding a 9-under 63 to tie for sixth. Coceres was tied for 56th after play Friday and still only tied for 45th after posting a second-round 70. Coceres' score set a new tournament mark for best third-round score, surpassing the 64s shot Sunday in 2014 by both Bernhard Langer and Mark Calcavecchia.

Nolan Henke, a three-time PGA TOUR winner, made his Champions Tour debut and was 78th.

Three players who encountered lengthy layoffs due to injuries returned to competition at the Allianz Championship. John Huston tied for third, Jay Don Blake tied for 26th and Brian Henninger tied for 70th.

John Cook's rounds of 71-71-70 ran his streak of sub-par rounds to 22 at the Allianz Championship.

The tournament winner has come from the final grouping in all nine Allianz Championships.

To close his second round, Bart Bryant holed out from the 18th fairway from 195 yards with a 6-iron second shot for double eagle. His albatross on the par-5 finishing hole lifted him into a four-way tie for the 36-hole lead, with Tom Pernice, Jr., Paul Goydos and Canadian Rod Spittle. Bryant's double eagle was his first in competition and was the first on the Champions Tour since Keith Ferguson at the 2010 SAS Championship. It was the 35th double eagle in Champions Tour history. The four-way tie for the 36-hole lead was the most in this event.

Steve Elkington withdrew from the tournament before the start of his second round with a migraine.

For the second consecutive year, Allianz Life Insurance of North America conducted a unique social media challenge. Every tweet with the hashtag #AllianzBirdies generated a $1 donation, up to $40,000, for Junior Achievement of South Florida.

Two significant people in golf passed away during tournament week. Charlie Sifford died at age 92. Sifford was the first African-American member of the PGA TOUR (1960) and was the first black player enshrined in the World Golf Hall of Fame (2004). President Barack Obama presented Sifford with the Presidential Medal of Freedom in November 2014. Billy Casper, one of the most prolific PGA TOUR winners in history and long considered among the sport's finest putters, suffered a heart attack and died at age 83. Between 1956 until 1975, Casper won 51 PGA TOUR titles, including three major championships. He led the TOUR's money list in 1966 and 1968. His 51 career victories place him seventh on the TOUR's all-time victories' list.

Lee Janzen made an eight-foot birdie on the 54th hole to tie Bart Bryant and then took advantage of a miscue by Bryant on the first playoff hole to win The ACE Group Classic. Bryant posted a 16-under-par 200 and led Janzen by one stroke as Janzen headed to No. 18. After hitting his 9-iron from 140 yards to eight feet, he drained his putt to force a playoff. After both hit their playoff drives, Bryant's second shot hit railroad ties in front of 18 and caromed into the water, opening the door for Janzen. Janzen then hit his 7-iron to 40 feet and two putted for the win. "It's been a long time. It's hard to put into words. It's emotional. It's what the game does to you," said Janzen of his 17-year winless drought prior to The ACE Group Classic title.

With his victory, Lee Janzen won a Tour event for the first time since the 1998 U.S. Open at The Olympic Club, a span of 16 years, 7 months, 25 days. This was his 413th start since his victory, on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Web.com Tour.

This was Lee Janzen's eighth Champions Tour start, and he won the event at age 50 years, 5 months, 18 days. His previous best finish was a tie for sixth at the 2014 Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, and Janzen is the 12th player to win The ACE Group Classic in the first attempt.

Bart Bryant tied the tournament-course record when he finished with a 10-under-par 62 in the final round. Larry Mize set the record in 2012, which was later matched by Kenny Perry and Bernhard Langer. Bryant's 62 matched his Champions Tour career-low.

In his first three starts of the season, Bart Bryant has finished in the top 10. In addition to his second-place finish here, he tied for ninth in his previous two starts.

Following Bart Bryant's albatross at the previous week's Allianz Championship, Kevin Sutherland made an albatross when he holed his 245-yard second shot at the par-5 third hole in the second round.

Greg Kraft, who open-qualified earlier in the week, tied for 18th in his Champions Tour debut.

Bernhard Langer, who was tied for fifth after two rounds, withdrew prior to the start of Sunday's final round due to a family issue.

Defending champion Kirk Triplett tied for 29th.

Tournament Record:

203 - Marco Dawson (2015)

Current Course Record:

62 - La Vista CC - Jim Colbert (2001), Hubert Green (2000)

Sinking a clutch 18-foot birdie putt on No. 16, Marco Dawson took sole possession of the lead which was critical in his two-stroke victory over Bart Bryant at the inaugural Tucson Conquistadores Classic. As four players vied for the lead Sunday, Dawson's birdie, coupled with playing partner Bryant's bogey on the same hole, turned the tide in his favor, allowing him to capture his first Champions Tour victory. "I'm just thinking about all the work I put in over the years, especially the last few years, more mental work than anything. I'm really happy with the way I played. I'm just glad I played the game that I wanted to play," Dawson said of his feelings immediately following his win.

Marco Dawson made more than 400 starts in his PGA TOUR career, with his previous-best finish a tie for second at the 1995 Greater Milwaukee Open. Dawson had played in a Tucson TOUR event 11 times, with his best finish a tie for 18th at the Omni Tucson National's Catalina Course in 1993.

Marco Dawson became the second consecutive first-time winner on the Tour, following Lee Janzen, his former Florida Southern College teammate. Janzen won The ACE Group Classic in February. Dawson started the 2014 season as a non-exempt player. After open-qualifying four times during the first half of 2014, he eventually played his way into the top 30 ($952,814 and finished 15th on the money list) to achieve fully exempt status for 2015.

Bart Bryant was runner-up for the second consecutive tournament, having lost a playoff to Lee Janzen at The ACE Group Classic earlier. It was Bryant's fourth straight top-10 finish this year, the only player to have done so in the first four events. By virtue of his second-place finish, Bryant earned 150 Charles Schwab Cup points, which allowed him to take over the lead in the season-long competition, with 391 points.

Rod Spittle made the second hole-in-one of the event when he aced No. 12 with a 7-iron from 178 yards Sunday. In Friday's first round, Jerry Smith made a hole-in-one on No. 7.

Jesper Parnevik, one of three players making their first Champions Tour starts, tied for 42nd in Tucson, with rounds of 71-74-71. Jeff Gallagher tied for 59th. Fran Quinn played four holes before withdrawing due to a back injury.

Mark Calcavecchia rebounded from an opening-round, 1-over-par 73 with rounds of 71-68 on the weekend to tie for 21st in his first Champions Tour start. Calcavecchia had been sidelined with a hand injury following an accident in November.

Jeff Sluman's tie for sixth was the best showing by one of the several former winners of the PGA TOUR event in Tucson.

Loren Roberts' opening round, even-par 72 consisted of 18 consecutive pars.

Tournament Record:

200 - Tom Lehman (2011)

Current Course Record:

63 - Fallen Oak - Fred Couples (2012)

Despite incurring a one-stroke penalty on the 17th hole of the final round when he dropped his ball and moved his coin on the green, David Frost sank a key six-foot par putt on the final green to post a 10-under-par score, good enough for a one-shot victory over Tom Lehman and Kevin Sutherland. Frost made four birdies in a five-hole stretch on the back nine to open a two-stroke margin at the 17th. However, he violated Rule 20-1 after accidentally dropping the ball and causing the coin to move. The eventual bogey reduced Frost's lead to a stroke, and he needed to two-putt from 30 feet on the final hole to maintain his advantage. He left his first putt six feet from the hole but sank the par putt moments later. Lehman, Frost's closest pursuer down the stretch, playing in the group behind him, missed a 20-foot birdie putt to tie on the 17th hole and then could not take advantage of a superb second shot into the final hole, missing a four-foot birdie putt that would have sent the event into a playoff. "[Rules officials] told me I dropped the ball, which is an act of negligence and had to incur a one-stroke penalty. I was like, 'You've got to be kidding me.' Last year disqualified and this year a one-shot penalty. You play by the rules and luckily for me in the end it didn't make any difference, and I'm happy (Tom) Lehman didn't beat me in a playoff," Frost said.

David Frost became the first international player to win the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic in its six-year existence. Frost tied for second in 2011, tied for sixth in 2013 and tied for seventh in 2010.

With a winning total of 10-under-par 206, David Frost achieved the highest winning score in tournament history. His three-stroke comeback to win was also the biggest in event history, besting Michael Allen's two-stroke come-from-behind triumph in 2013.

Tom Pernice, Jr., tied for seventh. Pernice had been among the top 10 in the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic three times in six appearances, including ties for third in 2012 and 2013.

David Frost played in the second-to-last grouping of the day in Sunday's final round. It marked the second consecutive year that a 36-hole leader did not win.

Michael Allen, the 2013 Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic winner, carded a final-round 72 and extended his streak of par-or-better rounds at Fallen Oak to 14 consecutive.

The first-round stroke average of 74.038 was the highest for any round in tournament history. The second-round stroke average of 73.103 was also the highest second-round scoring average since the tournament began.

Officials disqualified Roger Chapman after the opening round for taking an improper drop on the par-5 13th hole.

Mark McNulty withdrew before the first round and was replaced by Jim Rutledge. Chien Soon Lu was the next alternate in line to replace McNulty, but he could not arrive at the course to make his starting time. Hale Irwin (leg) and John Riegger (neck) withdrew with injuries before the start of the second round. Jay Haas (back) withdrew before the start of the final round.

Greater Gwinnett Championship

Winner: Olin Browne
$270,000.00
68-64 132 (-12)

Duluth, GA
April 17-19

Purse: $1,800,000

Course: TPC Sugarloaf | 36-36-72/ 7,179

Round 1

Tommy Armour III - 67 (-5)
Olin Browne - 68 (-4)
Rocco Mediate - 68 (-4)
Mark O'Meara - 68 (-4)
Jesper Parnevik - 68 (-4)
Joey Sindelar - 68 (-4)
Ian Woosnam - 68 (-4)

Cut: There was no cut: 80 of 81 players completed all 36 holes of the rain-shortened 54-hole tournament.

Weather: Friday: Cloudy, with temperatures in the upper-60s and a light drizzle through the early afternoon. Rain intensified after 2 p.m., and officials suspended play for the day at 3:07 p.m., due to unplayable conditions. Preferred lies were utilized. Saturday: Play resumed at 8:03 a.m., under clouds and a light drizzle. The sky brightened around 10 a.m., and the round ended at 11 a.m. An occasional drizzle persisted the remainder of the day. High in the mid-70s, with ESE wind at 5-10 mph. Sunday: Heavy overnight rain rendered the course unplayable. Officials canceled the final round at 8:15 a.m., reducing the event to 36 holes.

Tournament Record:

202 - Miguel Angel Jimenez (2014)

Current Course Record:

64 - TPC Sugarloaf - Olin Browne (2015), Bernhard Langer (2015)

For the first time since 2011, Mother Nature helped a player win a Champions Tour event, and the beneficiary was Olin Browne. Browne claimed his second career Champions Tour title without having to hit a shot in the final round when heavy rain Saturday night made the TPC Sugarloaf course unplayable. As it turned out, Browne's six-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole Saturday turned out to be the deciding stroke that kept him ahead of Bernhard Langer, who had eagled the final hole just 10 minutes after Browne finished his round.

Olin Browne became the first player to win a rain-shortened Champions Tour event since Brad Faxon won the 2011 Insuperity Championship near Houston. The Greater Gwinnett Championship was the first rain-shortened official event on the Champions Tour in 83 tournaments.

Olin Browne's only other previous appearance at the Greater Gwinnett Championship resulted in a tie for 51st in 2014. Browne's best finish at TPC Sugarloaf on the PGA TOUR was a tie for ninth in 2007 at the AT&T Classic. Olin Browne set both the 18-hole (64) and 36-hole (132) tournament records. Bernhard Langer also shot 64 in the second round, just a few minutes after Browne, to tie the 18-hole record. Miguel Angel Jimenez set the previous records of 65 and 135 when he won in 2013.

Bernhard Langer's runner-up performance gave him three consecutive years where he's finished either first or second in the Greater Gwinnett Championship. Langer won this event in 2013.

Mark O'Meara, a 2015 World Golf Hall of Fame inductee, was the only player to finish the tournament bogey-free.

Defending champion Miguel Angel Jimenez of Spain tied for 10th.

"You'd rather be one in front than one behind sitting on a chair hoping to get to play." - Olin Browne said while holding a one-stroke lead after 36 holes with poor weather forecasted for the final round.

Former European Ryder Cup captain Ian Woosnam of Wales holed a 30-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole to defeat Tom Lehman and Kenny Perry for the title. Woosnam, a runner-up finisher the previous week with teammate Sandy Lyle at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf, started the final round three strokes off Michael Allen's lead. However, three birdies within the first six holes put him in contention, and he eventually took the lead outright when Allen bogeyed the par-5 13th hitting his second shot in the water. Both Lehman and Perry made birdies over the closing four holes to catch Woosnam, but the former Masters champion prevailed in overtime. Playing on a sponsor's exemption, it was Woosnam's first Champions Tour title in his 36th career start earning him fully exempt status on Tour for one year.

Ian Woosnam is the first player from Wales to win. At 57 years, 2 months, 1 day, he became the third-oldest, first-time winner in Champions Tour history and the oldest since Bruce Devlin won the 1995 FHP Health Care Classic. Woosnam joined Bernhard Langer (2007), Brad Faxon (2011) and Esteban Toledo (2013) as the fourth player to make the Insperity Invitational his first career Champions Tour victory.

The playoff was the third in Insperity Invitational history and marked the second time three players were involved in overtime (2013).

Kenny Perry had not finished better than a tie for 19th at The Woodlands Country Club (2012) in four appearances. Tom Lehman's runner-up finish was his second consecutive second-place effort at the Insperity Invitational.

Michael Allen didn't win, but his tie-for-fourth matched a personal best at the Insperity Invitational (tied for fourth in 2012). In five total appearances in this event, he has never finished outside the top 25.

Joe Durant, a runner-up in the 2001 Shell Houston Open on this course, also tied for fourth in his first appearance at the Insperity Invitational.

Ian Woosnam made the most birdies (17), while Duffy Waldorf had the fewest bogeys (three). Gene Sauers was the only player in the field with two eagles over 54 holes.

Dan Forsman recorded his first ace on Tour and third hole-in-one in tournament history when he made a hole-in-one at the par-3 eighth hole with a 3-iron from 209 yards.

World Golf Hall of Fame members Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Gary Player combined to shoot 13-under 59 in an 18-hole scramble and win the 3M Oil & Gas Greats of Golf Challenge Saturday following the tournament's second round. Charles Coody, David Graham and Tom Weiskopf shot 10-under 62 as a team as did Don January, Dave Stockton and Tony Jacklin. Weiskopf made his first appearance in the event.

World Golf Hall of Fame member Curtis Strange was the recipient of the 2015 Dave Marr Award, given annually at the Insperity Invitational to honor individuals who exemplify all the traits of the 1965 PGA Championship winner—sportsmanship, honesty, character, integrity and a passion for the game of golf.

"I had something to prove really. And I did. It's a great Tour, and it's a pleasure to be here. I'm thankful for the sponsors to give me the invites and, hopefully I've paid them off." - Ian Woosnam took great pride in his victory for which he earned a one-year Champions Tour exemption.

Playing In the last Regions Tradition at Shoal Creek before it heads to Greystone Golf and Country Club, Jeff Maggert won the first major championship of the year on Tour, outlasting Kevin Sutherland in a playoff. Maggert took advantage of an errant drive by Sutherland on the first playoff hole and eventually two-putted from 40 feet for a par at No. 18. Sutherland's playoff tee shot on the 18th hole landed in a fairway bunker near the front lip. When his foot slipped on the second shot, Sutherland's ball ended up 30 yards short and right of the green. After Maggert hit the green with his approach, Sutherland hit an indifferent pitch and was left with virtually the same putt for par from the lower level that Maggert had for birdie. When Maggert lagged his putt to three feet, Sutherland ran his par effort five feet past but sunk the putt coming back, forcing Maggert to make his short putt for the victory. Maggert appeared to have the advantage in regulation when, on the par-5 17th hole, he hit the green in two. He then three-putted from 16 feet, missing a three-footer for birdie that would have given him the lead with one hole to play.

The 2015 playoff was the ninth in Regions Tradition history and the second at Shoal Creek. In 2011, Tom Lehman defeated Peter Senior.

Fifty-four-hole leaders have now won the Regions Tradition in each of the last four years. For the second straight year, the winner has carded an even-par 72 in the final round, the highest finish in tournament history by a winner. Tom Kite also shot even-par 72 in the last round when he won the 2000 Regions Tradition.

In the Regions Tradition's five-year run at Shoal Creek, a one-stroke margin or a playoff decided four of the events. The only time it didn't happen was when Tom

Lehman won his second consecutive Regions Tradition by two strokes in 2012.

Jeff Hart played the last 54 holes of the Regions Tradition without making a bogey and only had a pair of bogeys for the week, the fewest by a player in the event's history.

Michael Allen tied for fifth at the Regions Tradition, his best finish in the event since 2011. That extended his streak of top-10 finishes in this major championship to six consecutive, including five years at Shoal Creek. Allen's best effort in the Regions Tradition was a tie for second at the 2010 event in Sunriver, Ore.

Bernard Langer also tied for fifth and extended a streak of top-10s in the Regions Tradition to five straight. He did not play in the 2011 tournament due to injury.

Two-time Regions Tradition champion Tom Lehman put together quite a comeback after opening with a 4-over 76 that left him tied for 62nd. Lehman shot rounds of 66-68-69 to tie for fifth, his fifth career top-five performance at the Regions Tradition (tied for fourth in 2010, won in 2011, won in 2012 and tied for third in 2014).

Defending champion Kenny Perry tied for fifth.

"This was a tournament I was looking forward to. I kind of pointed it out early in my schedule and kind of wanted to get my game in shape to come here and play. I love the golf course." - Jeff Maggert comments after claiming his first major championship victory.

Cut: 76 professionals (10 club professionals; low 70 scores and ties) at 8-over-par 152 from a field of 156 players.

Weather: Thursday: Morning clouds, with patchy drizzle turning mostly cloudy. High only near 60. Wind NW at 10-15 mph. Friday: Mostly sunny. High in the low-70s and W wind at 6-12 mph. Saturday: Partly cloudy, with high in the upper-70s and SE wind at 6-12 mph. Sunday: Partly cloudy and breezy. High in the low-80s. SSE wind at 10-20 mph.

Tournament Record:
270 - Don January (1979)

Tournament Course Record:
62 - Kenny Perry (2012) - The GC at Harbor Shores

Colin Montgomerie rebounded from a shaky start to pull away from a pack of contenders to claim his second straight Senior PGA Championship. After three-putting the first hole, Montgomerie used birdies at the par-5 fifth and par-3 seventh to increase his lead again to two strokes after Esteban Toledo birdied the same holes ahead of him to creep within a stroke of the lead. Montgomerie put the tournament away with three birdies in a four-hole stretch midway through the round, holing short putts at Nos. 9, 10 and 12. After his birdie at No. 12, he moved his margin to five shots and never trailed by fewer than four strokes the rest of the way.

The win marked Colin Montgomerie's third major championship in his last six appearances in Champions Tour majors. He became only the second player in Tour history, and first since Jack Nicklaus, to make his first three victories all major championships.

Colin Montgomerie is the 15th multiple winner of the Senior PGA Championship and is the first player since Hale Irwin to not only repeat at the Senior PGA Championship (1996-98), but also to win this prestigious event in each of his first two appearances in the championship. Additionally, he became the first Scot to win multiple Senior PGA Championships since Jock Hutchison (1937 and 1947).

With back-to-back wins, Colin Montgomerie extended to four the streak of international winners of the Senior PGA Championship, a first in the event's history.

England's Roger Chapman was the winner at Harbor Shores in Michigan in 2012, and Japan's Kohki Idoki won at Bellerive in Missouri in 2013.

The Pete Dye Course at French Lick played to a stroke average of 75.78 for the week. The venue played as the hardest for a Senior PGA Championship since 2008 when par-70 Oak Hill averaged 75.996.

Jerry Haas, the head men's golf coach at Wake Forest and the brother of Tour player Jay Haas, finished as the low club professional. Haas' 72-hole score of 5-over 293 left him tied for 17th in the event, four strokes better than Lee Rinker among the 10 PGA club professionals who made the 36-hole cut.

Massy Kuramoto's 1-under 71 in the opening round was the highest score to lead a Senior PGA Championship in almost 60 years. In 1957 at PGA National Golf Club in Dunedin, Al Watrous led after the first round with the same score.

No player posted a round in the 60s in the opening round. The last time that occurred on the Champions Tour was the final day of the 2008 Turtle Bay Championship.

"I'm just making up for lost time. I spent 22 proper years trying to do this and now three (majors) have come at once. It's a fantastic time I'm having." - Colin Montgomerie comments on winning three majors in the space of a year on the Champions Tour after winning none on the PGA TOUR.

Mark Calcavecchia closed with a 3-under-par 69 for a one-stroke victory at The Principal Charity Classic over Brian Henninger and Joe Durant. Calcavecchia finished with a 54-hole total of 12-under-par 204 for his first victory since the 2012 Montreal Championship. He bogeyed No. 14 to drop into a tie with Davis Love III at 11-under, but chipped to two feet for a birdie on the next hole to take a lead he would never relinquish. Calcavecchia two-putted from 12 feet for par on No. 18 and the victory.

Mark Calcavecchia has finished in the top five in all five starts at the Principal Charity Classic. In addition to his win, he tied for third in both 2013 and 2014, tied for 10th in 2012 and fifth in 2011. He has never posted a round over par in the event, and 14 of his 15 rounds have been below par.

Davis Love III tied for fifth in his return to action following foot surgery two months earlier. During the final round, Love was tied with Mark Calcavecchia at 11-under following three consecutive birdies starting on No. 13. He fell out of contention after a bogey at No. 16 and a double bogey at No. 17.

Brian Henninger tied for second for his second strong outing in a row after tying for fourth at the Senior PGA Championship.

Rod Spittle tied for fourth, his best effort since he tied for fourth at the 2013 3M Championship.

Carlos Franco tied for 64th in his Tour debut.

Defending champion Tom Pernice, Jr., rebounded from a second-round 74 with a final-round, 6-under-par 66 to tie to fifth.

Former University of Iowa product Guy Boros tied for 10th.

Monday qualifier Javier Sanchez needed just 74 putts during the three rounds, the fewest in tournament history. The previous low was 76 by Dick Mast and Doug Garwood in 2014.

Larry Nelson recorded the first hole-in-one since the event moved to the Wakonda Club in 2013. Nelson used an 8-iron on the 172-yard 17th hole in the second round. The ace was the eighth of his career and second on the Champions Tour. Nelson became the eighth player to make a hole-in-one in this event.

"It came out of nowhere. I didn't see it coming quite honestly." - Mark Calcavecchia, a little surprised to win given his right-hand surgery earlier in the year.

With an eight-stroke lead after 54 holes, Bernhard Langer just needed to avoid any missteps in the final round. The World Golf Hall of Famer did just that, firing a final-round, 3-under-par 68. He finished with a 72-hole total of 19-under-par 265 and a six-stroke victory over Kirk Triplett in defense of his 2014 crown. Langer saw his streak of bogey-free holes come to an end at 48 with a bogey at No. 3, but it did little damage as he made eagle on the following hole and was never in danger after that, cruising to his fifth major championship title. Triplett, posted the day's low round, a 7-under-par 64, to secure second at 13-under par, while Joe Durant, Colin Montgomerie and Russ Cochran shared third place at 10-under par.

Bernhard Langer became the first player since Arnold Palmer (1984-85) to win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship title back to back. He was also the third player, joining Palmer (1985) and Jack Nicklaus (1990), to win wire to wire in this championship.

The victory allowed Bernhard Langer to claim his 24th Champions Tour title and moved him into a tie for fourth with Miller Barber on the all-time victory list behind Hale Irwin (45), Lee Trevino (29) and Gil Morgan (25).

At 57 years, 9 months 18 days, Bernhard Langer became the second-oldest winner of the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS. Only Raymond Floyd at 57 years, 10 months, 12 days (2000) was older.

Bernhard Langer earned a spot in THE PLAYERS Championship in 2016.

Bernhard Langer's six-stroke victory was the largest margin of victory since 2007 when Loren Roberts finished six in front of Tom Watson at Baltimore Country Club's Five Farms Course. Langer led all players in Greens in Regulation, hitting 64 of 72 (88.9 percent).

Russ Cochran tied for third. He also finished solo third at the 2014 event in Pittsburgh.

Bernhard Langer's 6-under 65 in the first round of the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship set a new course record at Belmont Country Club. Also in the second round, just two hours after Brad Faxon bettered that record with a 7-under-par 64, Steve Pate stepped up to establish a third record with an 8-under-par 63. Pate's bogey-free round included eight birdies.

After three major championships in 2015, Bernhard Langer is the only player to have finished in the top 10 in each (tied for fifth at the Regions Tradition, was sixth at the, Senior PGA Championship and won the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship).

The par-3 fifth hole proved to be the most difficult for the week with an average 3.271, and it yielded just 20 birdies. The easiest was the par-5 fourth hole with an average score of 4.574.

Bernhard Langer and Kirk Triplett led all players with 21 birdies.

The 2016 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship will be staged at the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

"I finished 48th last week, maybe my worst finish since I've been out on this Tour, said Bernhard Langer. "That was obviously nothing to write home about. Then I got a couple of tips from my coach, and it really made a difference. I started really flushing the ball, hitting it on line, solid and hit a lot of greens. I'm glad I bounced back the way I did."

A steady final round by Jeff Maggert was the difference as the 51-year-old Texan captured his second major championship in 2015 with a two-stroke victory over defending champion Colin Montgomerie. Maggert had started the final round tied with Bernhard Langer and just one stroke in front of eight others, but he utilized a quick start with three consecutive birdies to seize a lead he would never relinquish. He fought off an early challenge from Langer and a later one from Montgomerie, who closed within one stroke with a birdie at No. 10. However, Maggert pulled away with consecutive birdies at Nos. 14 and 15 to open a three-stroke lead. He made his lone bogey at No. 16 but closed with consecutive pars for the win.

Jeff Maggert's second senior major championship came in his seventh start in a Champions Tour major. His other title came earlier this year at the Regions Tradition in Birmingham, where he defeated Kevin Sutherland in a one-hole playoff.

Along with a check for $675,000, Jeff Maggert earned 1,350 points in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race. He also earned a berth in the 2016 U.S. Open at Oakmont Country Club near Pittsburgh, where he tied for ninth in the 1994 U.S. Open.

With Jeff Maggert's second major victory this year, the Champions Tour has had a player win multiple major titles for the fourth consecutive year. Colin Montgomerie in 2014, Kenny Perry in 2013 and Roger Chapman in 2012.

Defending champion Colin Montgomerie made a run in Sunday's final round with a bogey-free, 4-under-par 66. He fell two strokes shy in defense of his title, finishing second. His 72-hole total of 8-under-par 272 was the second-lowest score by a non-winner of the U.S. Senior Open. Seven other players have also had a 72-hole total of 272 in the Senior Open.

Tom Watson's tie-for-seventh place was his eighth top-10 finish in the U.S. Senior Open, tying Miller Barber, Jack Nicklaus and Hale Irwin with the most top-10 finishes.

Billy Andrade matched the second-lowest round in U.S. Senior Open history when he shot a 7-under-par 63 in the final round. Four others have shot 63, including Don Pooley (2002), Allen Doyle (2005), Michael Allen (2013) and Kenny Perry (2013). The lowest score in U.S. Senior Open history was 62 by Loren Roberts at Prairie Dunes Country Club in Hutchinson, Kan., in 2006. Andrade, Perry and Doyle all posted 63s in the final round, that round's lowest score.

Seventy-year-old Hale Irwin matched his age for the 10th time in his Champions Tour career when he opened with an even-par 70. It marked the fifth time he had done so in a major championship. A two-time U.S. Senior Open winner, Irwin also matched his age in this event in 2011 when he had a third-round 66 at the Inverness Club in Toledo. He has bettered his age nine times.

Hale Irwin completed all 72 holes in the U.S. Senior Open for the 16th time, tying Gil Morgan for the most in tournament history.

Neal Lancaster had the second hole-in-one of the tournament when he aced No. 2 in Sunday's final round with a 7-iron from 168 yards. In the second round, Mike Keymont made an ace when he used an 8-iron from 155 yards on No. 2.

New Zealand's Grant Waite was the only player in the field with four rounds in the 60s.

Michael McCoy closed with a 1-under-par 69 and was the low amateur, tying for 26th. As the low amateur, he earned a spot in the 2016 U.S. Senior Open at Scioto Country Club in Columbus, Ohio.

Sacramento's Kevin Sutherland tied for seventh. A member of Del Paso Country Club, Sutherland closed with a 2-under-par 68 Sunday.

Mark O'Meara (right-foot issue) and Steve Lowery (back issue) withdrew prior to the start of their second rounds.

"I let a few U.S. Opens get away because of immaturity. I don't have that excuse anymore. To play well down the stretch is what I was looking for. I'm honored to take this trophy home, and I will cherish it for the rest of my life." - Jeff Maggert (51) reflected on his PGA TOUR career, including seven top-10 finishes in the U.S. Open.

Cut: There was no cut; 80 of 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Mostly sunny with a high of 81 and light wind from the E at 5-10 mph. Saturday: Partly cloudy early, becoming mostly cloudy with brief showers in the afternoon. High of 79 with SSE wind at 6-12 mph. Sunday: Cloudy with light early morning showers, clearing in the afternoon. High of 81 with E wind at at 5-10 mph.

Tournament Record:

200 - Jerry Smith (2015)

Current Course Record:

64 - North Shore CC - Russ Cochran (2014), Jim Rutledge (2015), Jerry Smith (2015)

Champions Tour rookie Jerry Smith shook off a shaky start on Sunday and then holed a shot from a greenside bunker at the par-5 16th hole for an eagle to separate himself from David Frost and win his first career title on the Tour. Smith started the day with a three-stroke lead and eventually won by three thanks to a 4-under 32 on the back nine. There were quite a few ups and downs during his Sunday round. Smith bogeyed three of his first five holes and found himself in a temporary tie for the lead at the turn. He moved back into the lead for good after a birdie at the par-5 11th hole. Nursing a one-stroke lead over Frost down the stretch, Smith hit his second shot into the bunker by the green at the par-5 16th and then holed the shot for an eagle to increase his lead to three strokes. Smith's final-round 70 gave him a 54-hole total of 16-under 200, a tournament record.

Jerry Smith was the sixth of seven first-time winners on the 2015 Champions Tour and joined Miguel Angel Jimenez (Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai) as the second rookie to win.

Jerry Smith's winning total of 16-under-par 200 is the lowest winning score in the three years for the Encompass Championship at North Shore Country Club. Smith's win also meant the 36-hole leader in the Encompass Championship went on to triumph at North Shore Country Club all three years.

Each of the three winners of the Encompass Championship shot a round in the 70s Sunday at North Shore Country Club.

Defending champion Tom Lehman carded a 4-under 68 in the final round, his ninth straight sub-par round at North Shore, and the round elevated him into a tie for 10th. Kenny Perry also shot 68 in the final round and has nine straight sub-par rounds, tying for 10th. Both Lehman and Perry are the only two players to finish among the top-10 each year the Encompass Championship has been played at North Shore.

In his return to competition for the first time since the Masters, World Golf Hall of Fame member Fred Couples tied for 10th. Couples had been out of action with back issues, with the event marking the fourth start of his Tour season.

Wes Short, Jr.'s third-place finish was his best to date on the Tour since winning the 2014 Quebec Championship.

Canadian Jim Rutledge played the last six holes in 5-under for a final-round 64, matching the 18-hole tournament record originally set by Russ Cochran in the third round of the 2014 Encompass Championship. Jerry Smith also shot 64 in the second round during his victory. Rutledge's round jumped him up 64 places into a tie for 14th. It marked the fourth time Rutledge has shot 64 on the Champions Tour and was his best score since the 2014 ACE Group Classic. Rutledge's career-low round on the Tour is 62 at the 2013 Toshiba Classic. Interestingly, all five of Rutledge's best scores have come on the last day of the event.

"You don't really think about winning and so forth - at least a guy like myself, who's been a so-called journeyman player all these years. It's surreal." - Jerry Smith shared his thoughts immediately following his Encompass Championship win.

Marco Dawson eagled the 14th hole to take the outright lead and then ended defending champion Bernhard Langer's hopes by draining a clutch 22-foot birdie on the final hole to hold off Langer and win the 2015 Senior Open Championship. Dawson finished with a 72-hole total of 16-under-par 264, one better than Langer and three in front of Colin Montgomerie, a third-round co-leader with Dawson. Montgomerie appeared in control midway through the final round, holding a two-stroke lead after 10 holes, but two errant tee shots which led to subsequent bogeys on Nos. 11 and 12 cost him the lead. A birdie by Langer on No. 11 gave him a share of the lead with Montgomerie and another birdie at No. 12 gave him the outright lead. However, a six-hole stretch by Dawson proved to be the difference. He made an eagle on the par-4 ninth to turn in 31 and added birdies on Nos. 11 and 12 to remain close to the lead. The big blow came at No. 14 when he made the second eagle of the round to take a lead he'd never relinquish. Trailing by one stroke, Langer hit his second to 12 feet on the final hole with a chance to tie with a birdie, but Dawson closed the door with his putt.

In addition to the first major championship of his career, Marco Dawson notched his second 2015 win. He won the Tucson Conquistadores Classic in March.

With this victory Marco Dawson earned a berth in the 2016 Open Championship at the Royal Troon Golf Club.

Marco Dawson is the ninth different American player to win The Senior Open Championship and eighth since it became an official event in 2003.

Although he was unable to overtake Marco Dawson, Bernhard Langer has had great success in The Senior Open Championship. He has won twice (2010, 2014), finished second (2013), fourth (2008-09) and carded seven top-10 finishes in eight starts. His "worst" finish was a tie for twelfth in 2011. In those eight starts, he has earned $1,347,404, an average per start of $168,426.

Bernhard Langer has now finished in the top 10 in each Champions Tour major championship in 2014 and 2015, the only player to do so. In fact, he has now finished in the top 10 in 11 consecutive majors dating back to 2013.

A 4-under-par 66 in the final round capped a productive week for Woody Austin, who tied for fifth in his first appearance in The Senior Open Championship.

Although he couldn't pick up his third major championship victory of the year, Jeff Maggert, who was tied for 74th after the opening round, rallied to tie for seventh.

In his Champions Tour debut, Scott McCarron tied for 25th.

Eight players were tied for the lead in the opening round of The Senior Open Championship, the largest number to share the opening-round lead in Champions Tour history.

The opening round also saw two players, Barry Lane and Steve Jones, record an albatross at Sunningdale's opening hole, marking the third and fourth double eagles on the Champions Tour in 2015. Bart Bryant had the first at the Allianz Championship and a week later, Kevin Sutherland posted his albatross at The ACE Group Classic. It marked the second time in a Champions Tour event that two players have made double eagles in the same event. The other was in 1988 at the Northville Long Island Classic when Bobby Nichols made one in the first round and Ben Smith in the third round.

Steve Jones finished 3-over par for the championship, but he was an impressive 6-under par on the opening hole. He recorded a double eagle, eagle and birdie in the first three rounds before posting an even-par five in the final round.

Mark O'Meara (foot injury) withdrew prior to the continuation of the third round and Anders Forsbrand (illness) withdrew prior to the start of the fourth round. Mark Davis was disqualified after the first round for signing an incorrect scorecard.

"This is unbelievable. I can't tell you how many hours I've put in on the range. I've had two back surgeries to prove it, and I know it has come later than most of the guys. But it came true. I feel like I played my entire career conservative and scared. I finally said it's time to let go and let it happen. This makes it all worth it. It's such a thrill." - Marco Dawson comments following his victory at The Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex.

Tournament Record:
191 - David Frost (2010)

Current Course Record:
61 - TPC Twin Cities - Kenny Perry (2015), David Frost (2010)

Kenny Perry shook off an opening bogey with four birdies over the next five holes to pull away from Kevin Sutherland, his closest pursuer, early in the final round to successfully defend his 3M Championship crown. Perry started the final round with a four-stroke lead, but the margin was quickly cut to two strokes when Sutherland holed a 20-foot birdie putt at No. 1 just before Perry made bogey. Sutherland kept the pressure on early with three more birdies over his next four holes but could never get closer to Perry than two strokes. He fell four shots behind after making bogey at No. 8, and Perry cruised home from there. Sutherland birdied the last hole to earn a share of second place with Bernhard Langer and Scott Dunlap.

Kenny Perry is the first player in the 3M Championship's 23-year history to successfully defend his title. This win marks the first time he's defended a Tour title in a career that chronicles 14 PGA TOUR wins and eight Champions Tour victories.

Kenny Perry became the fourth 3M Championship winner to make a hole-in-one during the event and go on to win. Perry's ace came at the fourth hole of the second round. The other three past champions at the 3M Championship who made holes-in-one in the year of their victory were Bruce Lietzke, (No. 4, second round, 2002); Tom Purtzer, (No. 8, first round, 2005) and Jay Haas, (No. 4, first round, 2011).

With his second-round, 11-under-par 62, Kenny Perry tied David Frost's 18-hole tournament record (third round, 2010).

Kenny Perry is the first 3M Championship winner to make three eagles in the tournament and also the first winner to survive a double bogey.

Kevin Sutherland registered his second runner-up finish in 2015, matching his career-best showing to date. Earlier this year, Sutherland finished second at the Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic.

World Golf Hall of Fame member Bernhard Langer shot 67 in the final round to tie for second, running his streak of consecutive sub-par scores at TPC Twin Cities to 21 straight.

Tom Lehman's first-round 64 was his best round at TPC Twin Cities, a course he co-designed with Arnold Palmer. Lehman's previous-best score was the first round he played on the course in competition, shooting 65 Friday of the 2011 3M Championship.

Scott Dunlap reeled off seven straight birdies (Nos. 17-5) in his first-round 67. Dunlap's streak equaled the 3M Championship record set by Jeff Sluman in 2013 (third round, Nos. 1-7). It was just one birdie short of the all-time Champions Tour record run shared by four players.

World Golf Hall of Fame member Larry Nelson shot a 6-under-par 66 in the second round, marking the first time Nelson has bettered his age in a Champions Tour event.

Marco Dawson recorded a second straight top-five Champions Tour finish by placing fifth the week after winning The Senior Open Championship. It also marked the second top-five finish for Dawson at the 3M Championship. He tied for third at TPC Twin Cities in 2014.

Greg Kraft and P.H. Horgan III both open-qualified Tuesday, and both tied for seventh.

Scott Dunlap, Bernhard Langer and Mike Goodes all tied for most birdies, with 19.

The Greats of Golf Challenge Saturday ended in a two-way tie. Team Greatest Ever (Lee Trevino, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player) and Team Jacklin (Captain Tony Jacklin, Johnny Miller, Dave Stockton and Tom Weiskopf) both finished with 17-under-par-55 score, using the scramble format.

"I like being the chaser. You're relaxed, you're free, you're charging, you're going after everything. When you got a four- or five-shot lead, you're playing safe, you're playing not to mess up, and that's a hard way to play golf." - Kenny Perry.

Cut: There was no cut; all 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Sunny and pleasant, with high in the low-70s and NW wind at 5-10 mph. Lift, clean and place rules were in effect. Saturday: Sunny and warmer, with a high of 80. SSE wind at 8-15 mph. Sunday: Pleasant. High of 83 and SSW wind at 6-12 mph.

Tournament Record:

191 - Rocco Mediate (2013)

Current Course Record:

61 - Canyon Meadows G&CC - Miguel Angel Jimenez (2015), Fred Couples (2014)

Grouped with two of the Champions Tour marquee players in the day's final grouping, Jeff Maggert stole the thunder and blitzed the field with a final-round, 6-under-par 64 for a four-stroke victory over Colin Montgomerie. Playing with Montgomerie and Miguel Angel Jimenez, Maggert started the day two behind the former European Ryder Cuppers but got off to a blistering start, shooting a 5-under-par 30 on the front nine. He never looked back as he posted his third win of the year. Montgomerie, who led after an opening-round 63 and shared the second-round lead with Jimenez, was 1-over par on the front nine and was never able to gain any momentum. Jimenez closed with a 74 and was never a factor.

The victory marked Jeff Maggert's third title of 2015 and the fourth overall in just his 26th career Champions Tour start. Earlier in the season, he won the Regions Tradition and the U.S. Senior Open.

Jeff Maggert tied for second in Driving Accuracy (30 of 39, 76.9 percent) and tied for first in Greens in Regulation 45 of 54, 83.3 percent).

Miguel Angel Jimenez matched the tournament-course record with a 9-under-par 61 in the second round, making an eagle on the final hole. Fred Couples originally set the tournament-course record when he closed with a 9-under-par 61 on his way to the 2014 Shaw Charity Classic title.

Defending champion Fred Couples briefly tied for the lead on the front nine Sunday but saw his chances slip away after successive bogeys on Nos. 8 and 9 and a double bogey on No. 15. He tied for fifth.

Former resident Stephen Ames turned in a strong performance in his return to Calgary. Three straight rounds in the 60s led to a tie for fifth. He and Colin Montgomerie had the fewest putts in the event - 79. Ames' performance was the best showing by the five Canadian players in the field.

Skip Kendall, who was playing on a sponsor exemption, closed with a 5-under-par 65 and tied for 10th.

After starting the week as the fifth alternate and gaining a spot in the field early in the week, Blaine McCallister took full advantage to post a tie-for-19th finish and earned a check for $30,863.

Jeff Maggert led all players, recording 19 birdies for the tournament, while Fred Couples and Colin Montgomerie were second, with 18.

"Colin (Montgomerie) had a little hiccup on the ninth green and, all of a sudden, I'm walking off the ninth hole with a nice big lead, which was unexpected. So I tried to just focus in on the same game plan on the back nine, be aggressive and try to make some more birdies and just keep distancing myself from the rest of the field." - Jeff Maggert.

Billy Andrade rebounded from a triple bogey-7 on the fourth hole and then hung on to hold off a fast-closing Bernhard Langer by one stroke for his first stroke-play victory in a TOUR-sponsored event in almost 15 years. Andrade hooked a drive out of bounds at the fourth and then faced an unplayable with his provisional ball. He eventually chipped in for a seven and the tournament was up for grabs. Andrade eventually righted the ship, and his 15-foot birdie at the par-4 12th hole gave him a three-stroke lead again. Langer was frustrated on the greens for most of the day, but he finished his round with back-to-back birdies. However, it was an eagle that he needed on the last hole to tie Andrade. Langer's second shot on the par-5 18th hole stopped in the back fringe, and then his 15-foot bid for eagle was never high enough, leaving him one stroke short of Andrade who two-putted from 10 feet for a par on the final green.

In claiming his second victory this season, Billy Andrade joined Jeff Maggert and Marco Dawson as the third player to win multiple events. Earlier, Andrade teamed with Joe Durant to win the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge.

Billy Andrade is the fifth player, and third straight Boeing Classic winner, to claim this tournament in his first appearance at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge. The others were David Eger (2005), Denis Watson (2007), John Riegger (2013) and Scott Dunlap (2014).

With a final-round 73 (1-over), Billy Andrade had the highest-winning finish on Tour since the 2012 Senior PGA Championship when Roger Chapman shot a 1-over 72 Sunday at Indianwood Country Club near Detroit.

Billy Andrade's 54-hole total of 9-under-par 207 matched the highest-winning total in tournament history (Denis Watson, 9-under in 2007).

Bernhard Langer, the 2014 Charles Schwab Cup winner, finished second in his third straight Champions Tour event.

Guy Boros and Fran Quinn, Monday qualifiers for the 2015 Boeing Classic, tied for third to record their best results on Tour to date.

World Golf Hall of Fame member Fred Couples, a Seattle native, used an eagle at the final hole to vault into a tie for third at the Boeing Classic. For Couples, it was his third career third-place finish at TPC Snoqualmie Ridge. Couples was third here in 2010 and 2013.

Wes Short, Jr., had the low final round, a 7-under 65 that included the first of three eagles at the driveable par-4 14th hole (Grant Waite and Bobby Wadkins). It kept alive a streak of 11 straight years that at least one eagle has been made on the hole known as Bear's Canyon. Overall, players made 20 eagles in the event, four of them on par-4s.

The Boeing Classic winner has come from the final grouping in seven of the last eight years. The only time it didn't happen during this stretch was in 2012 when Jay Don Blake was in the second-to-last grouping and won in a playoff.

"Today was a grind. Today was not a day where it was fun. Our whole group really, we were not struggling, but we were all just grinding." - Billy Andrade.

Cut: There was no cut; 79 of 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Partly sunny, with temperature in the low-70s and WNW afternoon wind at 5-10 mph. Saturday: Partly cloudy, with the high near 80. Afternoon wind from the SSW at 5-10 mph. Sunday: Mostly cloudy, with the high in the upper-70s and SW wind at 6-12 mph.

Tournament Record:
195 - Lonnie Nielsen (2009)

Current Course Record:
59 - En-Joie GC - Kevin Sutherland (2014)

Jeff Maggert overcame a four-stroke deficit at the start of the final round, shooting a bogey-free, 6-under-par 66 Sunday to eventually outpace Paul Goydos by two strokes. Making his first appearance at En-Joie Golf Club since the 2003 B.C. Open on the PGA TOUR, Maggert started his day with three straight birdies to jump into contention and then had another run of three consecutive birdies midway through the round to separate himself from a pack of contenders. However, Goydos emerged to challenge Maggert on the back nine, getting within a stroke of the eventual winner with a two-putt birdie at the par-5 12th hole. Even after hitting his drive on the par-4 15th hole into the hazard, Goydos made a five-foot putt for a bogey to stay in the game. However, he could never get closer to Maggert than two strokes the rest of the way, missing makeable birdie putts on his last three holes from 15 feet or less.

This victory marked Jeff Maggert's fourth win in 2015 and fifth career victory.

Jeff Maggert is now the ninth different champion of the Dick's Sporting Goods Open and the seventh to win this event in his first appearance. Only Lonnie Nielsen (2009) and Bernhard Langer (2014) did not win the tournament in their first start, at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

With his winner's check for $285,000, Jeff Maggert became the first player in 2015 to eclipse the $2-million mark in single-season earnings ($2,094,976).

For the second straight year, a player came from four strokes back to win the tournament. In 2014, Bernhard Langer trailed by four strokes after two rounds and shot a final-round 66 to win by a stroke.

David Frost equaled the low round of the tournament, posting an 8-under 64 Sunday to jump 29 spots into a tie for third, his best performance at the Dick's Sporting Goods Open in six appearances.

Australia's Peter Senior tied for third and earned a spot in the 2015 Nature Valley First Tee Open at Pebble Beach as the highest non-exempt finisher among the top 10.

Bob Friend played on a sponsor exemption and used a final-round 69 to tie for eighth, his highest finish of eight career Champions Tour starts.

Mike Goodes made just the second hole-in-one in Dick's Sporting Goods Open history when he aced the 194-yard, par-3 seventh hole with a 5-iron in the final round. It was the first at En-Joie Golf Club since R. W. Eaks made a hole in one on the same hole in the second round of the 2007 event, the tournament's inaugural year. Before making the ace at No. 7, Goodes also eagled the par-5 third hole.

"I had a two-shot lead with three (holes) to play. I just tried to finish it off. I was driving the ball well enough to shoot a low score today. I just needed the putter to cooperate. I kind of pulled it all together." - Jeff Maggert.

65 - Poppy Hills - Olin Browne (2015)

Esteban Toledo shot a final-round, 3-under-par 69 Sunday to finish with a 54-hole total of 9-under-par 206, giving him a one-stroke victory over Tom Watson. A day after shooting a 7-under-par 65 on the Pebble Beach layout, the native of Mexicali, Mexico, emerged from a crowded leaderboard, which included four members of the World Golf Hall of Fame, for his third career Champions Tour victory. Toledo's only blemish was a bogey on No. 17, which narrowed his lead to just one stroke. After closing with a par, Toledo secured the win when Colin Montgomerie also made par on the final hole. Montgomerie needed an eagle to force a playoff.

The win marked Esteban Toledo's third Champions Tour title and the first since the 2013 Montreal Championship. He also won the Insperity Championship the same year.

Esteban Toledo's 54-hole total of 9-under-par 206 was the highest winning score in event history. The previous high was a 10-under-par 206 on three occasions. The most recent was in 2012 when Kirk Triplett won the event.

With his tie-for-third finish, Colin Montgomerie earned $119,333 as well as 119 points in the Charles Schwab Cup, which tied him with Jeff Maggert at this stage of the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race (2,992 points with four events remaining). It marked the first time in history that a tie at the top of the Charles Schwab Cup points standings had occurred.

Four World Golf Hall of Fame members finished among the top-six finishers: Tom Watson (second), Vijay Singh (tied for third), Colin Montgomerie (tied for third) and Fred Couples (tied for sixth).

Tom Watson made a spirited run for his 15th career Champions Tour win but fell one stroke shy in his quest. After tying for the top spot on the scoreboard with a birdie at No. 16, he fell out of the lead when he bogeyed No. 17. His second-place finish was his best showing since he was second at the 2014 Senior PGA Championship.

Tom Watson's back-to-back rounds of 65-67 were his best consecutive Champions Tour rounds since he opened with scores of 64-65 at the 2011 Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. He was 12-under-par at Pebble Beach over the weekend, and it allowed him to move up from a tie for 68th to second after his opening-round 75 at Poppy Hills.

In the second round, Tom Watson bettered his age for the second time on Tour and posted his best score at Pebble Beach. The 66-year-old Watson birdied six of his first seven holes en route to a 7-under 65. At the 2014 Toshiba Classic, Watson, 64, shot 63 in the second round at Newport Beach Country Club.

Another second-round highlight came when Dan Forsman aced the 217-yard, 15th hole at Poppy Hills with a 3-iron. It was Forsman's second career Champions Tour ace and the fourth career hole-in-one in event history.

The amateur duo of Keith Woodward and partner Mark Van Buskirk won the pro-amateur competition, finishing one shot better than Gregg Orr and Landry Gibbs. Woodward and Van Buskirk finished with a 54-hole total of 37-under-par 178.

Defending champion John Cook tied for 17th.

Duffy Waldorf led all players with 16 birdies, one more than Tom Watson and Woody Austin.

"I finished second to Colin Montgomerie at the Senior PGA (Championship) this year, and I learned a lot. I learned I had to be more aggressive and make putts, and I did." - Esteban Toledo.

Current Course Record:
61 - Prestonwood CC - Tom Kite (2003)

Tom Lehman's blistering finish, which included three birdies and an eagle over his final four holes, proved to be the difference as he defeated Joe Durant by one stroke to win the SAS Championship. Lehman finished with a bogey-free, 7-under-par 65 for a 54-hole total of 12-under-par 204. Durant appeared in charge on the back nine on the final day as he led by as many as two strokes at times. However, he was unable to convert several birdie opportunities, including a key opportunity at No. 17, a five-footer that would have tied Lehman at 11-under-par. Playing one group in front, Lehman closed the door when he drained a 12-footer for birdie from just off the green on No. 18. Lehman's finish included 15-foot birdies on Nos. 15 and 16 and a 20-footer for eagle on No. 17.

Tom Lehman's birdie-birdie-eagle-birdie finish was the best finish by a winner in Champions Tour history.

With his win, Tom Lehman claimed his ninth career Champions Tour title. The victory also marked the sixth time in the last seven years he's won at least one event. He did not win in 2013.

Colin Montgomerie's tie-for fifth finish marked his seventh consecutive top-five Champions Tour performance. During that span, 19 of his 25 rounds have been under par.

Defending champion Kirk Triplett closed with a 6-under-par 66, which led to a tie for 16th.

Brad Faxon's tie for ninth was his best showing of the 2015 season, and it was his first top-10 since the 2014 Quebec Championship when he tied for third.

Kevin Sutherland led all players with 17 birdies. Sutherland also surpassed the $1-million mark in season earnings, thanks to his eighth-place finish.

There has never been a playoff in the 15-year history of the SAS Championship.

"I've had a couple seconds, and I've had some other good top finishes, but no wins. So it's just nice to get back in the winner's circle. It's nice to do it in a place like this with such a great golf course and such a wonderful tournament, great sponsor and great fans." - Tom Lehman.

Tournament Record:
193 - Fred Couples (2011)

Current Course Record:
62 - TPC San Antonio - ATT Canyons - Fred Couples (2011)

World Golf Hall of Fame member Bernhard Langer carded the low score of the tournament, a 7-under-par 65 Sunday, to win by three strokes over Scott Dunlap. Just when it seemed the tournament might head to a playoff, Langer executed three birdies over his final four holes to cruise to win No. 2 in 2015, his 25th career title overall on the Champions Tour.

Scott Dunlap actually held a one-stroke lead over Bernard Langer after 11 holes, but his three-putt bogey from 20 feet at the par-3 16th hole, together with Langer's two-putt for birdie from 40 feet at the 15th hole just minutes later, proved to be the difference. Langer closed with a one-two punch, tapping in for birdie at the short par-4 17th, followed by a 16-foot birdie putt on the last hole.

With his second victory (Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS), Bernhard Langer joined Jeff Maggert, Marco Dawson and Billy Andrade as the fourth multiple-tournament winner in 2015.

With his 25th career win, Bernhard Langer tied Gil Morgan for third place on the all-time career victory list, behind Hale Irwin (45) and Lee Trevino (29).

Bernhard Langer extended to four the number of consecutive years he has claimed multiple titles. He has also won multiple titles overall in seven seasons on the Champions Tour (2008-10 and 2012-15).

In his eighth appearance at the San Antonio Championship, Bernhard Langer notched the win to go with two solo seconds in 2012 and 2013 (losing both in playoffs) and a 2014 tie for sixth.

Bernhard Langer's 18 birdies were easily the most by a player in the field. Wes Short, Jr., was the only player in the field to make a pair of eagles in a round during the week (third round).

Since tying for second at the 2015 3M Championship, Scott Dunlap has finished among the top 10 in five of six tournaments. His second-place finish pushed him past the $1-million mark for the second consecutive year. Dunlap made his Champions Tour debut at TPC San Antonio in 2013 after open-qualifying.

Michael Allen tied for third in defense of his San Antonio Championship title.

Brandt Jobe, a 12-time winner of international events and a two-time All-America selection at UCLA, made his Champions Tour debut with a tie for 21st.

"It's always special to play well, especially on a Sunday when it really matters, when you're in contention. I was pushed again by a bunch of other players. It was just a matter of who was going to close the best." - Bernhard Langer.

Cut: There was no cut; all 81 players completed 54 holes.

Weather: Friday: Sunny and warm. High in the mid-80s with NNE wind at 10-15 mph. Saturday: Sunny and pleasant. SW wind at 5-10 mph. High in the low-80s. Sunday: Mostly sunny. High in the low-80s with SW wind at 6-12 mph.

Tournament Record:

193 - Duffy Waldorf (2015)

Current Course Record:

60 - Newport Beach CC - Duffy Waldorf (2015), Nick Price (2011), Tom Purtzer (2004)

One day after tying the tournament record with an 11-under-par 60, Duffy Waldorf closed with a 5-under-par 66 to claim his first Champions Tour title by two strokes over Joe Durant. The former UCLA star shook off a run of three straight bogeys early in his round on Nos. 4-6 with four consecutive birdies on Nos. 7-10. Although his card showed just three pars during the day, he finished with birdies on three of his final four holes for the win. Waldorf enjoyed a tournament-record 54-hole total of 20-under-par 193, breaking the old mark of 19-under-par 194 by Jay Haas in 2007 and David Frost in 2011.

Duffy Waldorf's win came in his 73rd Champions Tour career start and was also his 292nd overall start since his win at the 2000 National Car Rental Golf Classic Disney.

Duffy Waldorf matched the Champions Tour mark for most birdies in a 54-hole event, with 26.

Crediting his putting for his first win, Duffy Waldorf led all players with the fewest putts-73.

Duffy Waldorf flirted with 59 in the second round but fell one stroke shy in his quest to tie Kevin Sutherland with the lowest round in Champions Tour history. Waldorf drained a 50-foot putt at No. 16 to go to 11-under-par on the par-71 Newport Beach Country Club but could not convert birdie opportunities on his final two holes. He missed from 30 feet on No. 17 and 10 feet on No. 18. His 11-under-par 60 matched the 18-hole tournament record set by Tom Purtzer in 2004 and matched by Nick Price in 2011. All three 60 shooters went on to win the tournament.

Joe Durant made a great run in the final round, posting a 9-under-par 62. However, he could not overtake Waldorf and finished second for the fourth time in 2015.

Canadian Stephen Ames appeared to be the odd-man out to make the top-30 to compete in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. After recording a three-putt bogey at No. 18, he dropped to No. 31. However, moments later, fellow Canadian Rod Spittle, who needed to make par on No. 18 to secure a spot inside-the-top 30, made a bogey to finish 32nd. Like Ames, Spittle made a six on No. 18. Miguel Angel Jimenez, who started the week 29th on the money list, did not compete at the Toshiba Classic and finished 31st.

Defending champion Fred Couples tied for fifth in defense of his title.

Peter Senior tied for seventh, and as a top-10 finisher not fully exempt for 2016, he earned a spot in the 2016 Allianz Championship, the first full-field event of 2016.

Former Open Championship winner Todd Hamilton tied for 18th in his Champions Tour debut.

During the second round, Steve Jones made his first Champions Tour ace (at No. 17).

Hale Irwin bettered his age (70) for the 10th time in his career with a 68, and Gil Morgan (69) matched his age for the fourth time in his career. Irwin followed with another 68 in the final round.

Scott Verplank had three eagles in the tournament, including two in the opening round.

"I felt like when I came out here (to the Champions Tour) I was playing well. I struggled a bit, but it's been trending upward the last couple of months. I've had two good rounds a lot. This week I had three." - Duffy Waldorf.

Tournament Record:

258 - Tom Lehman (2012)

Current Course Record:

60 - Desert Mountain Club (Cochise) - Jay Haas (2012)

Billy Andrade two-putted from 25 feet for birdie on the first playoff hole to defeat Bernhard Langer and win the Charles Schwab Cup Championship at the Cochise Course at Desert Mountain. Andrade made six birdies in his first 13 holes of the final round, but it was his clutch 20-foot birdie putt at No. 18 in regulation for 64 and which, more importantly, gave him a cumulative 14-under-par total. Langer appeared to be in the driver's seat after a birdie at No. 14, but he missed a four-foot birdie putt at the par-5 15th, another 10-footer for birdie at the 17th hole, and then lipped out for an eagle on the 18th hole in regulation which would have given him the victory. Langer did manage to send the event into its second consecutive overtime session with a birdie on the 72nd hole. However, he was unable to birdie the same 18th hole in the playoff. His pitch from right of the green ran 10 feet by the hole, and he couldn't convert. Andrade then two-putted from 25 feet for the win.

Billy Andrade won his third Champions Tour title (Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf/with Joe Durant and the Boeing Classic) to join Jeff Maggert as the only other player with at least three Tour titles. Maggert's four wins in 2015 include the Regions Tradition, U.S. Senior Open Championship, Shaw Charity Classic and Dick's Sporting Goods Open.

Billy Andrade collected a check for $440,000, the largest of his Champions Tour career to push his final earnings to $1,533,919, a career-high in his professional career.

With Sunday's 64, Billy Andrade equaled the low finish by a winner in this event - Tom Watson, 2005 (Sonoma Golf Club).

Billy Andrade's ace at the second hole in the opening round made him the third player in 2015 to make an ace and go on to win the tournament. Joe Durant, who was Andrade's teammate at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf was the first, and then Kenny Perry did so at the 3M Championship.

The playoff was the fourth in Charles Schwab Cup Championship history and the second consecutive year the event needed extra holes to decide the outcome. It was the first playoff for Billy Andrade on the Champions Tour. He had a 2-1 record in playoffs on the PGA TOUR.

Bernhard Langer became the first player in Champions Tour history to claim the Charles Schwab Cup three times (2010, 2014 and 2015) and the second player to win the Schwab Cup in consecutive years, joining Tom Lehman (2012-13) in that category. Langer earned 508 Charles Schwab Cup points with his runner-up finish and jumped from third to first at the final event, with 3,520 points. Until the tournament's conclusion, Langer had never led the Schwab Cup race at any point during the season, and he became the seventh different player to lead during the year.

Michael Allen's third-place finish was his best in the season-ending event since back-to-back runner-up performances in 2010 and 2011. It also equaled his best effort of the year - ties for third at the Allianz Championship and the San Antonio Championship.

Jeff Sluman's eagle at the last hole gave him a 4-under 66 in the final round and moved him into a tie for fourth. It was Sluman's best finish in the season-ending event since his tie for third in 2009, and his best overall performance on Tour in 2015.

"I was thinking when I was driving to the 18th tee (for the playoff) that Bernhard won the Schwab Cup, you know? He doesn't need to win this tournament as well. Maybe it should be my turn. I just thought of that. I'm very excited to be the champion, and it's been a hell of a year and I really have embraced this Tour, I have enjoyed myself, and it really showed this year with my play." - Billy Andrade

"My goal was to win the overall Schwab Cup coming into this tournament. I was third (in the standings) so my chances were worse than the other two, but I had a great week, played well, and in the end had some really good chances there [in] the last four holes to win the tournament as well; was unfortunate not to." - Bernhard Langer.

Tournament Record:

264 - Wes Short, Jr. (2013), Jeff Freeman (2011)

Current Course Record:

62 - TPC Scottsdale (Champions) - Jim Rutledge (2011)

Brandt Jobe (Westlake, Texas) carded a 2-under-par 69, making birdie on two of his last four holes. With his 18-under-par 266 finish, he won the 2015 PGA TOUR Champions National Qualifying Tournament, edging out three former winners on the PGA TOUR by one stroke.

In the final round, Brandt Jobe, the 36- and 54-hole leader, made just one birdie on the front nine and found himself drifting back into a group of contenders that included Tom Byrum (San Antonio, Texas) and Jose Coceres (El Chaco, Argentina). However, Jobe regrouped down the stretch, and after making a birdie at the 15th hole, he was back into a share of the lead with Coceres. Both players birdied the par-5 17th and remained tied at 18-under. Jobe earned medalist honors when Coceres bogeyed the final hole.

"I actually played pretty good today, but I just didn't make many putts. I thought I was still in pretty good shape at the turn but made bogey at No. 10 from the middle of the fairway with a 5-iron in my hand for my second shot. Luckily, I regrouped and hit quality shots coming in," Jobe said. "I did just a good-enough job today, and now I'm really looking forward to next year. It's been a while since I've been able to plan a schedule."

Tom Byrum started the day seven strokes behind Brandt Jobe and, after making three birdies on the front nine, he reeled off five more on the inward nine to post a bogey-free, 8-under 63 for a 17-under par, equalling the best round of the event.

"I just went out today and tried to make as many birdies as I could. I got it going and had some good swing thoughts today. I had putted well all week, so I knew if I could give myself some better scoring opportunities on the greens, I'd have a chance," Byrum said. "It was nice to put this kind of a round together."

Willie Wood (Edmond, Okla.) tied for second with a birdie at No. 17. Over his last 36 holes, Wood made only one bogey and four bogeys total over his four rounds.

Mike Grob (Billings, Mont.) bumped John Riegger (Henderson, Nev.) for the final exempt spot. After hitting his drive into the greenside bunker at No. 15, he made a nice up-and-down for birdie to temporarily tie Riegger who carded a 7-under 64 Friday. A six-time winner on the Mackenzie Tour-PGA TOUR Canada, Grob then made a clutch birdie at 17th, getting up and down from underneath a tree left of the green. On his knees for his third shot, Grob chipped to within three feet of the hole and made the putt to move in front of Riegger. He then two-putted from 20 feet at the final hole to secure his exemption.

Brandt Jobe earned $30,000 as the medalist at this year's National Qualifying School. In addition to John Riegger, other players earning conditional status on PGA TOUR Champions in 2016 were Gibby Gilbert III (Ooltewah, Tenn.)/seventh, Jean-Francois Remesy (St. Raphael, France)/eighth, Stan Utley (Scottsdale, Ariz.)/ninth, former U.S. Open champion Steve Jones (Tempe, Ariz.)/10th, Miguel Angel Martin (Madrid, Spain)/11th, and Chien Soon Lu (Chinese Taipei)/12th.

The remaining players who finished among the top 30 became eligible to compete for spots in open qualifiers at all PGA TOUR Champions co-sponsored events in 2016.

Additional Notes

A total of 18 former PGA TOUR/Champions Tour winners competed in the 80-man field.

Jose Coceres, a winner of two PGA TOUR titles, holed a 3-wood second shot from 244 yards on the par-5 17th hole for an albatross in the second round.

Mike Grob holed a 5-iron from 199 yards for the seventh ace of his career, at the par-3 8th hole in the third round. In addition to Grob's ace, Argentina's Cesar Monasterio made two eagles in the third round (9th/15th), and he and his countryman, Jose Coceres, posted 7-under 64s, for the low third-round scores.

Jim Rutledge of Victoria, Canada, finished tied for 20th. Rutledge had finished among the top-six in his last four trips to the National Qualifying Tournament.

Neil Lancaster, the winner on the 1994 GTE Byron Nelson Golf Classic on the PGA TOUR, made eight birdies for a bogey-free, 8-under-par 63 in the second round, jumping up 54 spots to tie for 11th, the biggest move by a player in the second round. He finished tied for 30th.

Garry Hanchera of Van Nuys, Calif., the caddie for Gene Jones at TPC Scottsdale, passed away during the final round of play after suffering an apparent heart attack on the golf course. He was 64.

Round 1

Vijay Singh - 59 (-13)
Steve Elkington - 61 (-11)
Davis Love III - 61 (-11)
Lanny Wadkins - 61 (-11)
Nick Faldo - 62 (-10)
Fred Funk - 62 (-10)
Lee Janzen - 62 (-10)
Larry Nelson - 62 (-10)

Weather: Saturday: Sunny. High in the low-80s. E wind at 10-20 mph. Sunday: Partly cloudy, with high of 85 and E wind at 10-20 mph. Light rainfall during the single extra sudden-death playoff hole.

Tournament Record:

119 - Jack Nicklaus (1999), Larry Nelson (2004), Raymond Floyd (1999), Bob Charles (1998), Raymond Floyd (1995), Ray Floyd, Jr. (1995)

Tucker Wadkins sank a 40-putt for an eagle-three on the first sudden death playoff hole, No. 18, for Team Wadkins (with father, Lanny Wadkins) to capture the 2015 PNC Father/Son Challenge title over the Davis III/Dru Love, Fred/Taylor Funk and Larry/Drew Nelson teams.

The Wadkins' win comes in their ninth start in the PNC Father/Son Challenge, dating to 2001. Their previous-best finish was a tie for ninth in 2013.

This marks the fourth playoff in the event's history and first since 2002, when Craig/Kevin Stadler won with a birdie on the first extra hole over Hale/Steve Irwin. This also marks the first playoff which featured more than two teams.

In their 10th consecutive start in the event, 18-hole leaders Vijay/Qass Singh followed a 12-under 59 with a 6-under 66 to tie for fifth. The pair's only finish outside the top 10 was in 2008, when they finished 11th. Since 2012, the Singhs have now finished third, tied for second, tied for third and tied for fifth, respectively.

Vijay/Qass Singh have never won the event but their tied-for-fifth finish marked the seventh time they've been among the top five in the event. The only times they've been outside the top five were in 2004 (tied for ninth), 2007 (tied for sixth) and 2008 (11th).

Defending champions Bernhard/Jason Langer tied for seventh at 18-under 126. Langer won the PNC Father/Son Challenge in 2005 and 2006 with son Stefan.

Raymond Floyd, Larry Nelson, Hale Irwin and Lee Trevino have now played in all 18 PNC Father/Son Challenges.

"Tucker hit a spectacular tee shot, one of the best he's hit all week. He hit a 4-iron, I hit a 5-wood. I got it a little closer. He made a 40-footer. I'll remember what he did in making that putt." - Lanny Wadkins recaps the playoff hole to win the PNC Father/Son Challenge.
